

Nuns Teach Retarded Children How to Help Themselves

EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the first of five articles dealing with Northville's institutions — Our Lady of Providence school, Wayne County Training school, Plymouth State Home and Training school, Northville State hospital and Hawthorn center. News Editor Margaret Sil has visited each of the institutions, conferred with administrators and hopes through these articles to point out the unique features of each in the field of mental health.

The only place for a "dull" girl is a permanent home in the country where she can find happiness with her "own kind."

Like anything to do with mental retardation, over-simplification and platitudes like this one, besides smacking of pre-war days, just breed trouble for those afflicted.

Yet it is broadly true, says a brisk, smiling-eyed nun, that often less retarded girls, maimed by "neighborly" comments — "You stay away from her, she's crazy" — need a temporary home away from home.

Many, having failed to make the grade elsewhere, become all the more "ornery" and "cussed" if forced to continue living without special training to teach them the pride of accomplishment.

"We can't raise the girls' potential, but we can increase their skills and abilities" while most important, "teaching them to learn to live with themselves."

Sister Joanne — a nun with a dream lighting her eyes — believes perhaps, then, these girls, ranging from 5 to 18, will be able to learn to live with normal people.

Principal of Our Lady of Providence school for the past two years, Sister Joanne noted that the goal of this Catholic school, as others operated in this country by the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence, is "to make these children feel at

But not indefinitely, for, Sister Joanne stressed, the five-year-old school on Beck road is a residential one, "not a place where parents can put their children away."

"Rather this is a place where the girls can be shown how to help themselves."

Among the outstanding graduates of the 128-pupil school are four, three who succeeded in learning enough to leave as hospital aides, one as a laundry worker. Most years, the "graduation" rate is as high as eight.

Sister Joanne — who describes herself as "terribly and consistently unorganized" — is not a tall woman, but one who nonetheless takes strides the size of a man's down the corridors of the colonial-style school "for exceptional girls."

Garbed in a nun's traditional black habit, she has a mouth whose corners are ever-ready to turn upward in a smile and a mind just as willing to look for life's bits of hidden humor. Though gaining an interest in retardation when, as a child, her priest spoke of his "slow" sister, she never wanted to be a teacher — "and to look at me now!"

With D.S.M.P. — "That's short for Don't Stop Making Progress" — after her name for the past 12 years, she channels her spare moments towards playing with the youngsters and transferring more bits of psychology from her well-stocked library into her equally well-stocked mind.

Like other members of the congregation, now celebrating its jubilee year in the United States, she's taken courses in several disciplines, including abnormal psychology and sociology, as well as participating in "in-service" training programs.

Her dream: a sheltered workshop for the "trainable" girls — those whose below-50 intelligence ratings often prohibit them from carrying out directions, understanding, even sorting out colors or having an awareness of their handicap.

The nun-principal — who, after being told time and again, she's dedicated, says scowlingly, "Perhaps I am" — is confident such a shop can become a reality, "once we get the contracts."

Meanwhile, learning to help themselves means some classroom work for the "trainable" youngsters among the 128 at the school (120 residents, eight day coming from the seven counties of Detroit's diocese). Primarily, it means becoming proficient at simple household skills.

This proficiency, Sister Joanne said, may enable the girls to leave the school and return home where they can, "at least, help their parents."

Awaiting the "educable" youngsters — those blessed with a slightly higher level of intelligence which permits them, among other things, to know what the words "dumb" and "stupid" mean — are academic classes in reading, and social studies.

Yet, even the slant-eyed mongoloid child, traditionally thought of as being incapable of wanting to learn any academic skill, is taught a little about reading.

The teaching is, instead of being for academic accomplishment, for recreation, Sister Joanne explained. "Our girls enjoy going into the library, being able to pick up a book which they can recognize a few words in."

While the I.Q.'s of the girls vary widely — some as low as 30, a few as high as 100 — most, Sister Joanne observed, are girls who haven't been able "to make the grade elsewhere."

OLP doesn't like to accept youngsters unless there's no day program in the community. Or, Sister Joanne explained, unless there are other youngsters at home, bringing out an "ornery, cussed streak" in the retarded girl or, conversely, one in the child of normal intelligence.

"You can understand why a normal and retarded teenager in the same home clash, can't you?" she asked. "One sister can go out on dates. The other girl isn't ready to do these things, but she can't understand why not."

Perhaps because of, maybe in spite of, the acceptance of "more disturbed" girls at OLP, Sister Joanne says her ideas of how to deal with the girls have changed during the two years she's served as principal.

Before, "I'd interfere when I saw two girls quarreling, saying to them, this is the right way."

"Now, particularly, if the problem is one of getting along, I say, you figure this out for yourself, girls."

Additionally, the school is emphasizing the parents' part in education which Sister Joanne calls "tremendous."

OLP's girls are allowed to return home every third weekend, as well as spending the summer months at home.

This is when parents are encouraged to devote time to teaching their retarded girls "the practical arts" since, for instance, it's impossible for the nuns to pick up and take the 128 girls off on a dime store shopping jaunt, a weekly bowling trip.

Sister Joanne believes the parents' "share" involves such things as teaching the child to go to the store alone, to ride on a bus to get to a certain place.

The significance of parental aid, or lack of it, can be illustrated by an experience the nuns had this year when they let some of the girls answer the office telephone.

"The girls did so badly that it was obvious most had never performed this simple chore at home," Sister Joanne reported. "Someone failed there."

In the final analysis, it's the parent who provides the major headache for the nun-principal "as a person."

A retarded child is "the biggest cross God can give to parents. They can explain away a physical handicap. But there are still a lot of people in the world who think a retarded child is born when there's something wrong with the parent."

"What do you say to these parents — This is God's will; this is a way of becoming a saint?"

Essentially, Sister Joanne explained, all diagnostic counseling is done by outside clinics with "what little counseling we do here being done by me."

"And I don't consider myself qualified," she said, "but if we were to add one more staff member — the school now has seven lay teachers in addition to eight nuns — we'd be operating under a deficit budget."

The school desperately needs a psychologist — at least on a part-time basis, according to Sister Joanne. "Unfortunately, even if funds were available, too many psychologists feel they don't want to spend the time with the retarded, that it's hopeless."

One psychologist coming in a few hours a week couldn't, by himself, provide the extra services the nuns dream of giving.

To set up what they would consider an "ideal" program, a speech therapist on a full-time, instead of a part-time basis, would also be needed — "Half the children here, not a mere 15, need speech help" says the nun-principal — and a reliable corps of volunteers. Currently, the nuns on Beck road, led by Sister Valentine, Mother Superior, find they have their hands tied financially. They are obligated to make the school tick on money received from tuition — $100 a month — and donations, as well as helping pay off a $250,000 debt their order undertook to build the school.

It won't be tomorrow; however, Sister Joanne eventually hopes to see a school building, separate from living quarters, rise on the order's Northville acreage.

As it is now, classrooms are "very inadequate" — one interlards with the next. Originally, Sister Joanne explained, the area now used for classrooms was one big room. Though partitioned off with three-quarter walls, children often have to trapse through a class in progress and, always, there's the noise, Sister Joanne noted with a philosophical shrug of her shoulders.

Eventually, the hope is to provide 40-bed dormitory-style cottages to house 240 youngsters. Now, 80 youngsters live in the building used for administration, classes and chapel with the other 40 in a separate cottage unit.

But, Sister Joanne noted, the thinking in taking care of these children has changed so in the past decade that we may have to revise our plans. Some day, she observed, a residential school in the country like OLP may not even be necessary.

Such a day isn't fast coming, Sister Joanne pointed out; for, today, the school no longer takes applications "except in emergency situations." There's just no room, the nun-principal concludes, with only seven or eight girls moving out each year.

The Reverend and Mrs. Paul Cargo with Paul and Rachel and (back row) Libby Lou, Bill and Sally.

Caro Calls Cargos

Reverend Paul M. Cargo, pastor of Northville's First Methodist church for the past six years, has been appointed as pastor of the First Methodist church of Caro, it was announced this past weekend by Bishop Marshall R. Reed.

New pastor of the Northville church, beginning this Sunday, will be Reverend Shirley D. Kinde of Chelsea, who has served in the Methodist ministry for 30 years.

During his Northville pastorate, Reverend Cargo reports that 285 persons were received into membership. This is almost half of the present membership.

Outstanding accomplishments during the last six years include a new tower and entrance, improvement of the church property, reduction of debt, and, Reverend Cargo says, "good participation by lay people in the work of the church."

On the eve of his departure, Reverend Cargo noted he and his family have "deeply enjoyed living in Northville, not only within the church, but also in the community."

He called the school system excellent, the "morale in public life, good."

While here, Reverend Cargo was a member of the Rotary club and served as chaplain of the Exchange club. His wife, Martha (Hatcher) Cargo, was a member of the Woman's club.

Reverend Cargo came to Northville from a four-year pastorate in Marquette. Prior to that, he served in Marine City as pastor for four years; Nardin Park as associate pastor for two years and the Onaway-Millersburg area as pastor for two years.

He is a graduate of DePaul university and Boston university's school of theology.

The Cargos and their five children will be guests of honor at a farewell party given by the congregation Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The young Cargos are William, 16; Rachel, 14; Elizabeth Louise, 10; Sally, 9, and Paul, 6.

Voters Approve College; Re-Elect Angove, Becker

Northville has a community college of its own.

A total of 715 voters went to the polls Monday and decided that Northville should become a part of Northwest Wayne County Community College District.

The vote was:

Proposition One (for annexation) — 372 YES, 323 NO;

Proposition Two (tax rate limit) — 362 YES, 323 NO;

Proposition Three (assuming debt) — 325 YES, 296 NO.

Dr. Gordon R. Forrer was elected college board trustee.

In the race for two seats on the Northville board of education voters returned Incumbents Edward F. Angove and Wilfred C. Becker.

The tally: Becker 525, Angove 483 and William C. Soellner, Jr., 228.

All three proposals on the Community College question had to pass for Northville to gain annexation to the district. Oddly, the proposals passed by vote margins of 49, 39 and 29.

While Northville was voting to join the Schoolcraft college district, South Redford soundly defeated the measure. Totals in the South Redford district for proposals one, two and three were: YES 1382, NO 2779; YES 1326, NO 2792; and YES 1253, NO 2804.

Both Northville School Superintendent R. H. Amerman and Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric Bradner were elated at the news of the vote in Northville.

"We have a nice, compact community college district

Commencement Exercises Tonight

Tonight, 155 Northville high school seniors will receive diplomas in an 8 p.m. ceremony in the gymnasium.

Highlighting the evening will be a commencement address delivered by Russell Wentworth, assistant director of the office of admissions, Michigan State university.

His topic: "Spring House Cleaning."

now," said Dr. Bradner, noting that the district communities were closely associated. Schoolcraft will serve the school districts of Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville.

"I'm awfully glad," said Amerman. "The community college was promoted here by the people. I take my hat off to them. They worked hard." Ground-breaking ceremonies for the two-year college were held last Saturday afternoon at the 137-acre site on Hagerty at Seven Mile road.

Classes are scheduled to begin in the fall of 1964.

Dr. Bradner and Superintendent Amerman have already discussed future sessions with school administrators and counselors. Schoolcraft will begin accepting applications for next year in October.

To stay abreast of college affairs and exchange ideas and needs of the various district high schools superintendents meet monthly with Dr. Bradner. Superintendent Amerman will now attend these sessions.

Trustee meetings are held the first and third Wednesdays at 8 p.m. at the temporary college offices, 9901 Newburgh road. Dr. Forrer was scheduled to attend his first session, a special meeting, last night. All meetings of the board of trustees are open to the public.

So far as the public is concerned, the first physical evidence that Northville belongs to the college will come in the December 1 school tax notices. Levying of the one mill will begin then.

In Oakland county an attempt to create a county-wide community college district was defeated. Novi opposed the college, but Wixom supported the plan. County-wide the proposal to establish a college carried, 18,626 YES to 16,796 NO. But the millage request was defeated, 18,196 NO to 15,935 YES.

In the Novi school board race William MacDermid and Richard Bingham won out over Bruce Simmons and Mrs. Robert Skellenger for two board seats.

One write-in ballot was cast for the office of college trustee in Northville. The lone vote was for William C. Slinger, Record publisher.

Wind, Rain, Lightning Make Seasonal Visit

June busted out all over the Northville-Novi area the past weekend.

Rains driven by high velocity winds played havoc early Sunday morning and later that night, felling trees and branches and high powerlines, washing out driveways, muddying streets and flooding basements.

Gusts reached speeds as high as 75 miles an hour.

Three power lines down at the same time early Sunday morning roused out the Northville fire department. Members rushed to the scenes behind Gambles, Miller's garage and near Eight Mile and Sheldon roads. Things were quickly under control.

Fallen trees on Hutton, Beal and Lake streets posed another hazard. DFW crews moved the trees aside.

The weather bureau at Willow Run reported rains amounting to only one-half an inch in this area. It was enough, however, to cause the flooding of eight basements in the 8 Mile - Novi road area.

Most dangerous of all was the lightning, which struck ground locally and blew out transformers and fuse boxes.

But miraculously, no one was hurt — not even a scratch was suffered.

But Fred Mandilk of 46401 West Road came as close as he'd care to.

Lightning hit his place, not once, but twice.

The first bolt hit a big blue spruce in his yard, followed a telephone line to his house, ripped off a corner of the roof and blew out some upstairs windows. Another bolt tore up the lightning rod ground wire and blew out the fuse box.

Mandilk, who was the house at the time, was thrown to the floor, uninjured. Mrs. Mandilk, who was sewing, was fortunately sitting down.

Mandilk summed it all up when he said, "We've had enough of that excitement for a long time. We were lucky."

With variations on the same story, other Novi area residents would probably and quickly agree.

Local Area Included In New 19th District

State legislators gave final approval last week to a congressional reapportionment bill which places the Oakland county portion of Northville and Novi township and Wixom in a newly-created 19th congressional district.

Only change directly affecting the 17th district, which includes Northville's Wayne county area, is the moving of a small strip of land in the southeast corner of the district to Detroit's 15th district.

Twenty other townships and six cities are included in the new 19th district — set up because the state's population growth, as shown in the 1960 census, entitles it to another congressman.

They are the townships of Addison, Avon, Brandon, Commerce, Farmington, Groveland, Highland, Holly Independence, Lyon, Milford, Oakland, Orion, Oxford, Pontiac, Rose, Springfield, Waterford, West Bloomfield and White Lake. Also, the cities of Farmington, Keego Harbor, Pontiac, South Lyon, Sylvan Lake, Walled Lake and Oakland county.

Downs Hit By Weather

The weather wasn't very cooperative for the twentieth opening of Northville Downs.

Monday tornado warnings were issued early in the evening, but the night was perfect. Except that only 2,892 fans showed up. They bet $173,039 on 10 races.

Last year 3,661 fans were on hand for a rainy opening night and wagered $172,202 on nine races.

Tuesday night weather hurt again. Temperatures dipped to the fifties.

Schultz-Curvin Vows Said in Walled Lake

Donna Schultz and James Curvin were united in marriage at a 12 o'clock noon service June 1 in St. Williams church, Walled Lake.

Reverend John Hoar, assistant pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Schultz of 12 Mile road and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curvin of 11 Mile road.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over net and satin with long, fitted sleeves, a scalloped neckline and a cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil was held in place by a double crown of lace, rhinestones and pearls. The bouquet: white carnations, stephanotis and pearl hearts surrounding a white orchid.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's cousin, Kathy Cogsdill. Bridesmaids were Karen Schneider, Judy LaFond, the bride's cousin, and Janis Curvin, the groom's sister.

The matron of honor was attired in a yellow gown of lace and chiffon and carried a colonial bouquet of green carnations.

The bridesmaids were gowned in matching dresses of green and carried colonial bouquets of yellow carnations. Each wore a matching veil topped with a large poppy, fashioned of material.

Attending the groom as best man was James Maher of Walled Lake. Seating the guests were Robert Curvin Jr. of South Lyon, Cam Cogsdill of Commerce and Michael Schultz of Walled Lake.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schultz chose a pink lace dress with matching accessories; the groom's mother, a blue chiffon dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore pink rose corsages.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom, their parents and members of the wedding party were guests of honor at a wedding luncheon in Edgewood Country club given by Mr. and Mrs. Donald LaFond of Walled Lake, the bride's uncle and aunt.

A three o'clock reception followed in Novi Community building. After the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to East Tawas.

Mr. Curvin then returned to Fort Sil. Oklahoma, where he is stationed with the U.S. Army. The new Mrs. Curvin is at home to her friends at 43700 12 Mile road, Walled Lake.

The Beerborders will be arriving in Dayton in time for Mr. Beerbörwer to assume duties with the Price Brothers Pre-Cast Concrete company.

The Frank Johnsons of 111 South Wing are home in Northville again after a long, unpleasant Memorial Day weekend at their Hammond Bay cottage.

While there, gas escaping from their cottage refrigerator knocked the couple out - causing them to spend five days in Rogers City hospital.

Sue Tewksbury underwent an emergency appendectomy operation at Martin Place West Osteopathic Hospital, Detroit, last week. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tewksbury of North Center.

Returning from a Texas vacation last week were the Ancil Felkers of Randolph street. While there, they visited their son Bruce and his wife, and toured the spectacular Big Bend National Park, El Paso and Juarez, Mexico.

Suzanne Doub, daughter of the Gerald Doubs of 625 Fairbrook, has been chosen to participate in a two-week creative writing workshop this summer at the U. of M. Suzanne will be a senior at Northville high next fall.

Sunday, Judith Ann Nauman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Nauman of Connemara drive was guest of honor at a graduation open house given by her sister, Mrs. Harry Christman.

Miss Nauman, who graduated Saturday from the U of M with a bachelor of science degree in nursing, also received a good luck call from her brother, Bob, who's stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, with the U.S. Army.

Mrs. Christman, the former Barbara Nauman, recently returned to Northville after spending the past year teaching at Fort Knox, Kentucky. She will be living with her parents until PFC Harry Christman returns from Korea.

A teenage visitor at 220 Linden this week is Patsy Bray, 15-year-old granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Alexander. Patsy will be staying a week or 10 days. Then, her mother, Mrs. Howard Bray will be coming to take her home to Boyne City.

Mrs. Upthegrove Ends 27-Year Teaching Career

Summer for most people means a few months of hot weather picnics, yard work and what have you.

Summer is the time for schoolchildren to rejoice in three months of new found freedom.

Summer for teachers is a short reprieve from the classroom.

But for one Northville teacher, this summer will mark an end to 27 years of teaching.

Mrs. Sidney Upthegrove, who has "enjoyed the challenge of teaching" in the Northville system for 16 years, is retiring.

Summers past, Mrs. Upthegrove was anxious to return to school because she missed her students. As she put it, "I became attached to them." The theme is any one of the approximately 1,000 youngsters she has taught.

This time things will be different. "I'm going to California this summer to visit my son," she said, "and I'm especially glad so I won't even be tempted to teach."

When she returns, she'll enjoy retirement with her husband, Sidney, a retired printer. Both will be busy about their home on West Eight Mile road, taking care of the house and the chickens.

In addition, Mrs. Upthegrove will take up the hobby of "collecting buttons." She points out that it's a fascinating hobby and surprising, in that "I have one button worth $25 and there are many more."

Nevertheless, her thoughts will probably flash back to her career as a teacher.

It began in 1918 in Central Lake, home town of her husband, a small community just north of Traverse City.

Teaching in those days was a far cry from the present. An unmarried girl in her teens with a two year certificate, she signed a contract for $525 a year. But not before she tore up one contract from an upper peninsula town near her home of Baraga.

The future Mrs. Upthegrove tore it up for good reason. She was the intended of Sidney Upthegrove.

She was teacher-turned-mother a few years later when the first of her three children were born. In keeping with her bent, Mrs. Upthegrove now devoted her teaching talents to her family. When the children were old enough, ten years later, Mrs. Upthegrove returned to the classroom. To watch "the children develop their creative talents."

Even then, education had changed, necessitating a return to college. She entered Eastern Michigan College and obtained her bachelor's degree.

Meanwhile, her two surviving children, Fred and Mrs. William Ludka, had grown and their families as well. In this, her 12 grandchildren, Mrs. Upthegrove hopes to find the "intangible things" - such as happiness in children, that she knew so well as a teacher.

Before she departs, however, 50 fellow teachers and administrators hope to wrap up a token of esteem in a few short hours. She'll be feted at the Thunderbird Inn today before she begins that long vacation.

Novi Honors Mrs. Coe

Mrs. Avis Coe was honored Tuesday on her retirement from the teaching profession at a surprise dinner given by the faculty of Novi schools.

Mrs. Coe, presently teaching the fourth grade at Orchard Hills school, has been in the Novi school system for the past seven years. She resides in Walled Lake.

In addition to fellow teachers, those attending the dinner in the Mayflower hotel, Plymouth, included Superintendent of Schools Tom Culbert, Principals Sam Stewart and Roy Williams and Dr. Thomas Stone of Wayne university, curriculum consultants.

Special guests were three teachers who worked with Mrs. Coe when she first began her Novin career - Mrs. Mae Atkinson - Mrs. Georgia Larson and Mrs. Celia Sharpe - and her son and his wife, the Robert Coes.

Displays Highlight Annual Flower Show

Little Tracey Snow smiles a welcome from the doorway of a frame store, built by Wayne McBride, to house a bake sale.

An old fashioned bandstand, designed by Mrs. George Kohs, was part of the staging.

Northville's gardeners opened "Pages of History" last Saturday at the annual flower show in the community building.

The yesteryear theme was carried out with show officials in gowns from the late 1800's, old fashioned bandstands replete with floral touches, bouquets centered around antique wooden and pewter containers.

Chairmen of the show, sponsored by Northville's branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, were Mrs. Wayne McBride and Mrs. L. W. Snow.

Six Michigan Artists To Open Exhibit Sunday

An exhibit of paintings and sculpture by six young Michigan artists is a senior at the University of Michigan. She uses subtle day at the Hartley-Powers Gallery, continuing through July by abstracted still-life studies in oil.

A gallery open house will be Huber, committed to no par-ticular school of art, works in when Northvillians will have a realism, abstraction and non-chance to meet the artists, objective art as his imagination.

Among those exhibiting are Reine Angeli, Wayne Huber, ing an interest in sculpture. William Mandt, Jim Thorpe, Mandt, a U of M graduate Janet Walerstein and Carol student, has just completed intensive work in ceramics, sculpture and the history of art. Interested also in graphics, he's also done some work in lithography and dry-point. Thorpe, interested in travel, has studied commercial art. Skilled in figure drawing and muted still-life studies as well as illustration, he's also done work in abstract expression.

Miss Walerstein, a U of M graduate student, is versatile in various media. She'll have drawings, silk-screens, oils and water colors on display.

Mrs. Wigle will be displaying some woodcuts and lithographs in addition to her large metaphysical oils where she attempts to capture the mystery of Being.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Hall of Abington avenue, Detroit, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Ann, to Emil Z. Paris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Paris Sr. of Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Hall is a third grade teacher at Novi school. No date has been set for the wedding.

DEADLINE TUESDAY NOON

1—Card of Thanks

In appreciation of flowers, cards, calls, and foods from Rev. Cargo and friends while convalescing from surgery.
Many thanks to all, Geraldine Hensch.

I wish to thank the Business and Professional Women's club for awarding me their scholarship. It came as an overwhelming surprise and I hope I can prove worthy of it.

Mary Sprague
H24p

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the great kindness shown to us during our recent bereavement. Words cannot tell how much the thoughtfulness and concern of the people of South Lyon and of our church have meant to us.

Margaret Weamer and Alan
H24p

Thank you for all the good wishes, your cards, all the friends that called on us during our anniversary.

Art and Edna Mitchell

I wish to thank all those who voted for me in the school election. Your confidence is very much appreciated.

FEEDLE & SICKLY WIVES,

Dyspepsia, bilious disorders, malarial fevers, nervous complaints, constipation, general debility — all these and many other human ailments were helped or cured by "Plantation Bitters" according to an almanac I have that is dated 1871. Pretty good reading in 1963.

Now, I don't claim that I will be as successful as claimed by "Plantation Bitters" in solving ALL of your real estate problems, but I will be very happy to show you many houses in any price range you desire. If the price suits YOU and the terms are such that your beard won't grow to your shoe tops before getting it paid for, YOU and YOU alone can have your home problems solved. Stop in or call — Have many selections — but folks are buying them up. Don't WISH you had bought — do buy NOW.

Special Notice of Sale $985,000

NOVI COMMUNITY
SCHOOL DISTRICT,
OAKLAND COUNTY,
MICHIGAN

SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

Sealed bids for the purchase of School District Bonds to be issued by Novi Community School District, Oakland County, Michigan, of the par value of $985,000, will be received by the undersigned, at the Orchard Hills School Building 41900 Quince Drive, Novi, Michigan, until 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Monday the 1st day of July, 1963, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated June 1, 1963, will be coupon bonds in the denomination of either $1,000 or $5,000 (but not both) as requested by the purchaser, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 upward, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding 5% per annum, payable on June 1, 1964, and thereafter semi-annually on December 1 and June 1. Each bid shall state the annual interest rate or rates upon which it is submitted; expressed in multiples of one-eighth of 1%. The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only and shall be represented by one coupon only. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially on the 1st day of June in each year as follows: $25,000 in each of the years 1965 through 1967, $30,000 in each of the years 1968 through 1971, $35,000 in each of the years 1972 through 1976, $40,000 in each of the years 1977 and 1978, $45,000 in each of the years 1979 through 1981, $50,000 in each of the years 1982 and 1983, and $60,000 in each of the years 1984 through 1988. Bonds maturing in the years 1974 to 1988, both inclusive, will be subject to redemption by the school district prior to maturity, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after June 1, 1973 at par and accrued interest, plus a premium on each $1,000 of par value in accordance with the following schedule:

$25 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1973 but prior to June 1, 1976.
$20 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1976 but prior to June 1, 1979.
$15 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1979 but prior to June 1, 1982.
$10 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1982 but prior to June 1, 1985.
$5 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1985.

Notice of redemption shall be published not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds. The remaining bonds will not be subject to redemption prior to maturity. Both principal and interest will be payable at such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds and which is qualified to serve as paying agent under the laws of the State of Michigan or the United States of America. A co-paying agent likewise so qualified may also be so designated.

The bonds are to be issued for the purpose of defraying the cost of erecting, furnishing, and equipping a new secondary school building in said school district, and will be the general obligations of the school district, which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount. The issuance thereof was approved at a special election held on April 1, 1963.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from August 1, 1963, to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $19,700, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickinson, Wright, McKean and Cudlip, attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds with the legal opinion printed on the back thereof will be paid by the school district. There will also be furnished the usual closing documents, including a non-litigation certificate, dated as of the date of delivery of the bonds. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan, or elsewhere as mutually agreed.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

Walter Ambinder, Secretary of the Board of Education
Approved: May 28, 1963.STATE OF MICHIGAN
MUNICIPAL FINANCE COMMISSION

Notice is further given that the above-mentioned issue of bonds has been qualified to the extent of 100 by the Michigan Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to Act No. 108 of the Public Acts of 1961, as amended.

Novi Little League Well Underway

Sterling pitching and solid hitting highlighted the third week of play for the Novi Little Leaguers.

The Bandits held on to its position atop the loop with a 5-2 record, but the Steelers stole the Bandits' thunder Monday by winning, 6-0.

Gary Boyer hurled a one-hitter, the lone hit being a double by Ron Thompson of the Bandits in the last inning. The Steelers tightened its hold on second place by edging by the Bandits Saturday, 8-7.

Lee Snow was the winning pitcher. He also walloped a home run to pace the attack.

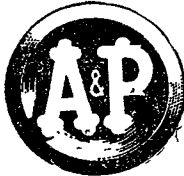

Best performance by a twirler was turned in by Joe Donner of the Bandits, who registered its lone win of the week, 11-8, over the Jayhawks. He not only got credit for the victory, he also slammed two homers.

Pacing the Jayhawk attack was John Van Wagoner, who also blasted a round tripper.

Paul Bunker of the Earthmovers had two field days. He pitched his teammates to a 6-5 win Monday over the Steelers while pounding out two doubles. In addition, he had three for three in a losing cause Friday, 14-6 against the Eagles. In a high-scoring tilt June 4, the Steelers squeezed by the Eagles, 13-12. Jeff Adams was the winning pitcher and Dave Cole hit a homer for the losers.

MVP — That's the moniker senior Jim Juday will be carrying these days. He was voted most valuable player by his teammates on the 1963 Mustang baseball team. Coach Stan Golonka presents the bat, symbolic of the honor. Juday was also voted MVP on the Northville basketball team earlier this year.

Recreation Program Offers Full Schedule

The Northville Recreation department is offering a merry-go-round of fun this summer.

Under the direction of Ken Conley, the program will swing into full gear come Monday and pick up the pace as the summer progresses.

No summer athletic event is omitted.

This week baseball set things in motion with intensive practice beginning at Case Benton park. All Knott hole games for boys 7-9 and other knott hole games for boys 10-13 will be played there.

For men past high school age, there's men's softball at Ford field which will tentatively begin Monday as will swimming for those eight and older. Buses will load at 12:45 p.m. at the Community building and Amerman school.

Other activities will start the week beginning June 24 and ending the week of August 5.

They include:

—Day camp at Ford field and Amerman school playground. Arts and crafts and group games. Age limit five and over.

—Swimming for beginners, 1:45-2:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, Friday. For intermediates, 1:45-2:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.

—Physical fitness at Ford field 8:30 every week-day morning. Calisthenics, track and field events stressed.

—Tennis 10-11:45 a.m. Monday and Wednesday for boys and girls 10 and over.

—Golf 10:30 a.m. each Friday at Ford field.

—Canoing each Tuesday and Thursday with those 12 and over meeting at the Recreation department office at 9 a.m.

—Archery 9:30 a.m. Friday for 6-10 year olds 10:30 a.m. Friday for 11 and over. At Ford field.

—Pee Wee Baseball 10:30-11:30 a.m. Thursday at diamond No. two Case Benton park. Ages: five and six.

Special events are trips to the Detroit zoo (July 2 and 24), nature hikes in Kensington park (July 8 and 30), turtle race (July 16), pet and doll show (August 9), water carnival (August 14), Junior Olympics (July 25), Au Sable river trip and Tiger baseball games (July 17 and 25).

Any additional information can be obtained at the Recreation department office at 215 West Cady street or call FI 9-0203 between 8 and 12 a.m. Monday through Friday.

Participants must show a registration card upon request which can be purchased for 50 cents by residents of Northville and for $8 by non-residents.

Novi Leads Way in 'Olympics'

The United States Olympic contenders would be extended to match the efforts of Novi elementary and junior high youngsters.

Competing in the 'Walled Lake Kiwanis "Junior Olympics" Saturday at the Walled Lake high school, the Novi boys ran off with 43 medals and 15 ribbons.

There were two divisions, elementary and junior high, with each being divided into A, B, and C groups, according to the boy's height, weight and age.

Medals were awarded to the top three in each event and ribbons were given to those finishing fourth and fifth.

Although all the boys performed well, Jack Crawford was the top winner, taking junior high class A firsts in the 50-yard dash, standing broad jump and as a member of the relay team.

Other winners in the same division were John Newton in the pole vault and the 440-yard relay team of Crawford, Newton, Bill Wolverton and Tom Zielinski.

Garnering firsts in junior high class C were Billy White (100 yard dash) and Dave McMillan (shot put).

Winners in the elementary division were Jeff Adams, class B shot put and Jimmy Simensen, class C pole vault.

Copping a junior high Class B second place in the relay was the team composed of Greg Carr, Greg Krist, Doug Anglin and Bill Ortwein.

The elementary 440-yard shuttle relay team of Pat Haley, Ron Thompson, Jim Atkins and Andy Pantaleo captured a second in Class B.

Others who placed and competed were Carey Jo Harraden, Chuck Cotton and John Van Wagner, each placing in three events. Herb Harbin, Craig Fones, Sam Button, Dale Price, Mark Canniffax, Jim Krist, Mike Bingham, David Branch, Vince Revard, Fred McLaughlin and John and Berry Campbell.

Area Residents Receive Degrees

Six Northville youngsters were among the 3,928 U of M students receiving degrees. They were Robert W. Baile of 418 West Main street, Bachelor of Business Administration (Dearborn campus); Carol E. Geake, 48525 West Eight Mile road, Master of Science; Judith A. Nauman, 21831 Commar, Bachelor of Science in Nursing; Roger W. Campbell, 21800 Haggerty, Bachelor of Science in Engineering; Paul H. Schultz, Jr., 46675 West Seven Mile road, Bachelor of Business Administration; and Fred B. Schwartze, 21066 Cambridge, Bachelor of Business Administration.

Of the 619 Eastern Michigan university students honored, there were two from Northville who received Master of Arts degrees in education and two received Bachelor of Science degrees in education.

Masters recipients were Mrs. William C. Sliger and Artura E. Verschaeve. Those awarded bachelors degrees were Phillip E. Kearney and Mary L. Lamp.

Included in Clearly College's largest graduating class are two Northville students.

They are George Marlow of 40525 6 Mile road, who will receive a diploma, and Earl Edward of 21285 Summerside, a graduate in Business Administration.

A total of 184 seniors will receive diplomas, titles or degrees on June 22, from the Ypsilanti College.

Among the 2,758 candidates for MSU degrees to be awarded at the 103rd annual spring commencement exercises Sunday are: Mary F. Daleo, 46190 West Ten Mile, B.S., mathematics; Susan K. Harrison, 1041 Canterbury, B.A., English; Sharon L. McKays, 10359 W. 6 Mile, B.A., elementary education and Diane L. Schrader, 551 Orchard drive, B.S., child development teaching.

Among the seniors who graduated from Margaret Hall school, Versailles, Kentucky, Monday was Larita Spooner, daughter of Mrs. Leslie Spooner of 250 Rayson.

NEW OFFICERS — New presidents of the Northville branch of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and the auxiliary are Jim Carrievau and Mrs. Helen Robertson. Here they congratulate each other. At ceremonies conducted by a delegation from Hazel Park in the Eagles' club house Friday night, all officers were officially installed for the ensuing year.

Approve Parking Appeal

Northville's board of appeals members voted unanimously last week to permit expansion of a Main street building if the owner pays for three off-street parking spaces that can not be provided at the site.

The fee in lieu of meeting the off-street parking requirement is $600 per space.

The request was taken to the appeal board by Gerald Woodworth, owner of the E-Jay Lumber Mart building at 133 East Main. Woodworth plans to remodel and expand the building for D & C Stores, Inc. as soon as E-Jay moves to its new building now under construction between the city parking alley and Cady street. Woodworth noted that the planning commission had held that eight parking places must be provided. He said this would create a hardship. The planners had recommended that Woodworth be given credit for past contributions to the city's off-street parking program. But the city council ruled this would be too difficult to determine in possible future instances.

The appellants held that three spaces would be adequate. Woodworth reported later that D & C Stores, Inc., would share the parking cost and payment of the $1,800 was made to the city.

Theatre Group Meets Monday

Those interested in forming a Northville community theater are invited to attend a meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the O.L.V. church hall.

On the agenda is discussion of a proposed constitution, organization and plans for future activities.

Obituary

MRS. ESTELLA MESSER

Mrs. Estella (Frances) Messer, 83, wife of Alfred Messer, died Saturday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alvin Skow of 659 Horton.

Mrs. Messer, who came from Marengo, Iowa, two and a half years ago to live with her daughter, had been ill for some time.

Born December 21, 1879, in Iowa, she was the daughter of the late John and Eliza (Cummings) Frances.

In addition to her husband and daughter, she leaves one son, Paul Messer of Windona, Minnesota, and two other daughters, Mrs. Mervin Collingwood of Williamsburg, Iowa, and Mrs. Carl Leitzman of Ladors, Iowa, and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday evening in the Ebert Funeral home with the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial was Tuesday in the IOOF cemetery, Victor, Iowa.

MRS. MARGARET McLEAN

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret (Rosney) McLean, 77, of 16480 Franklin road, a Northville resident since 1932, was held Saturday afternoon from the Casterline Funeral home with a Mass at Our Lady of Victory church.

Charge Man With Assault

A Detroit man, charged with felonious assault with a deadly weapon, stood mute Saturday before Judge Robert K. Anderson and demanded examination.

Larry Pugh, 22, of Detroit was committed to the Oakland county jail on $1,000 bond, pending examination June 13 in Novi justice court.

Two friends of Pugh, Rex Pierson, 22, of Wayne and Robert Cole, 23, of Detroit, were also involved in the incident Friday at the Walled Lake Amusement park. They were found guilty of disorderly conduct and fined $25 or five days. Both were committed.

Victim of the knife assault was an attorney at the park, Frank Krumm of 216 Wainright, Walled Lake. Krumm sustained a minor cut.

Police said Krumm stated that Pugh, Pierson and Cole were riding the merry-go-round when one of the men tried to get off while it was in motion. According to police, Krumm said that he warned him not to get off. The man proceeded and a scuffle ensued, noted police.

Witnesses, police explained, said that Pugh then came up, wielding a knife. Witnesses added that Pugh made a swipe at Krumm, cutting his clothing and inflicting a minor wound.

Reverend John Wittstock, pastor of Our Lady of Victory, officiated with burial in Oakland Hills Memorial Garden cemetery, Novi. A rosary was said Friday night for Mrs. McLean in the funeral home.

Mrs. McLean died last Wednesday in St. Joseph hospital, Ann Arbor, after having been ill for the past three years.

She was a member of Our Lady of Victory church and the altar society of the church.

Born December 23, 1885, in Kings county, Ireland, she was the daughter of the late Kern and Mary (Daly) Rosney. Her husband, James, died December 31, 1957.

She leaves one son, Walter McLean of Detroit; one daughter, Mrs. Marian Piach of Plymouth; one sister, Mrs. Philip Rosney of Troy, New York, and six grandchildren.

Roy Ebersole Dies in Crash

Howard Royal Ebersole Jr., 19-year old son of Major and Mrs. Howard R. Ebersole, was a passenger on the North West Orient airliner which crashed June 3 in the Gulf of Alaska with no survivors.

Major and Mrs. Ebersole have another son, Kurt Wayne 13.

"Roy" was returning to his home in Anchorage from New Mexico Southern university, having made the trip to Tacoma, Washington, by car with another student, where he boarded the ill-fated DC-7 at McChord Air Force Base.

His mother, Mrs. Ebersole, was the former May Marie Gots of Northville and his maternal grandmother is Mrs. Robert Bechtel of Northville and Phoenix, Arizona. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Herrick of Braden road and Mrs. Lydia Ebersole of Northville.

Thunderbird To Celebrate Grand Opening

Owners Arthur Kobierzynski, John Klein and John Carlo, all of Northville, will host the grand opening of their Thunderbird Inn on Northville road next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The special event will feature guest stars, souvenirs and favors. In celebration of the occasion Monday has been designated "Hawaiian Night", Tuesday, "European Night" and Wednesday, "Roaring 20's Night".

News Around Northville

Cadet P.F.C. Butch Casterline, son of the Fred Casterlines, returned home last week from Howe Military school, Howe, Indiana, for the summer.

Mervin Atkinson, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Art Mitchell of 510 North Center, is still on the critical list at Ford hospital, Detroit.

This afternoon, Rhonda Atchison, one of this year's Northville high graduates, will be honored at a tea given by her mother, Mrs. R. M. Atchison, in their South Rogers street home.

Pouring at the tea will be Mrs. Richard Ambler, Mrs. John Begle, Mrs. C. Harold Bloom, Mrs. A. Russell Clarke, Mrs. Walter Couse, Mrs. E. V. Ellison. Also, Mrs. George Kohs, Mrs. Frank Martin Jr., Mrs. E. E. Mueller, Mrs. Orlo Robinson, Mrs. Robert Wetterstrom and Mrs. Ernest Wood.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

Regular Servicing Is Good Sense

An automobile engineer recently figured out that if cars today were built with the tools and methods of 1910, but at today's labor and material costs, a medium-priced car would sell for more than $60,000.

That's just one way of measuring the wonderful progress that's been made in the automobile industry. Without that struggle for advancement the auto industry might well have killed itself with $60,000 cars.

Today's cars have more than 15,000 parts, the electrical system leading the way with 8,000 separate parts. Many cars use 7 miles of wire to link this all together.

There are more than 400 springs of 175 different kinds in an average car; the two coil springs in the front are the largest, the springs in the car-buretor are the smallest.

Medical science has prolonged the life of man by I don't know-how-many years and a good mechanic can do the same for your car. You may not want to keep your car for 70 years but when you're selling it, one of the best advertisements will be: it was serviced regularly by the same mechanic. A regular servicing program can save you money, and we'll be glad to show you how.

Making Eye-Ways Out of I-Ways

Editor's Note: How to Make Eye-ways out of I-ways is the title of a series of travel articles prepared by this newspaper and the Automobile Club of Michigan. They are dedicated to making the 1963 travel season more enjoyable for motorists and more profitable for Michigan's tourist industry. Following is the first of seven articles.

The drive from Lake Michigan's sand dunes to Detroit on either I-96 or I-94 is about 3½ hours, but there are days full of pleasure to be found in the triangle created by these I-Ways in southern Michigan. We'll begin at the eastern corner of the triangle and go west, starting with one of the most popular places in the country to visit, Henry Ford museum and Greenfield Village. Here, just off I-94 in Dearborn, is the nation's number one collection of Americana.

In the midst of the parks that lie slightly north and west of Dearborn is the municipality of Hell. Capitalizing on its name, Hell will hold its first annual Satan's Holiday festival the weekend of June 29-30.

To get to Hell, the motorist must have some determination, but the scenic route that he will follow is well worth it. It's located on Paterson Lake Road, southwest of Pinckney.

Jackson, at the intersection of I-94 and US-127, has the world's largest penal institution, but prefers to claim the distinction of being the birthplace of the Republican party—at a spot in the west of the city marked with a pile of boulders, "Under the Oaks." North on US-27 is Olivet, where one of the state's early colleges still thrives. Among the relics stored in Mather hall on the campus are rare Stephen Foster manuscripts.

Farther north, at the junction of US-27, M-78, M-79 and M-50, is Charlotte, the market place of Michigan's maple sugar region.

A sampling of this lake country can be had by driving south from Hastings on M-43 toward Kalamazoo to the Kellogg bird sanctuary on Wintergreen Lake and the MSU biological station on Gull Lake.

Farther south, on M-96, is Augusta, home of the Barn theater, oldest of the state's summer theaters.

The next stop along I-94 is Kalamazoo, where the famous Upjohn Pharmaceutical plant is open to visitors. This city is the scene of the National Boys and Junior Tennis championships each summer. A few miles west, on US-12, is Oshtemo, a popular antiques center.

Like many state trunklines abandoned for the I-Ways, old US-12 offers pleasant country touring west through Paw Paw, center of the lush Michigan vineyard country, to Coloma.

From Coloma, we move northward on US-31 along the dune-filled shoreline of Lake Michigan.

Inland, on M-89, is Allegan, a quiet, historic town that was once the home of Gen. B. D. Pritchard, captor of Jefferson Davis. The city will hold its centennial celebration July 20-27.

East of the city is the huge Allegan State forest, an area of featuring hiking trails, camps and the Swan Creek Wildfowl Sanctuary.

Seventeen miles north of Saugatuck on US-31 is Holland, justly famous for its Tulip festival each May.

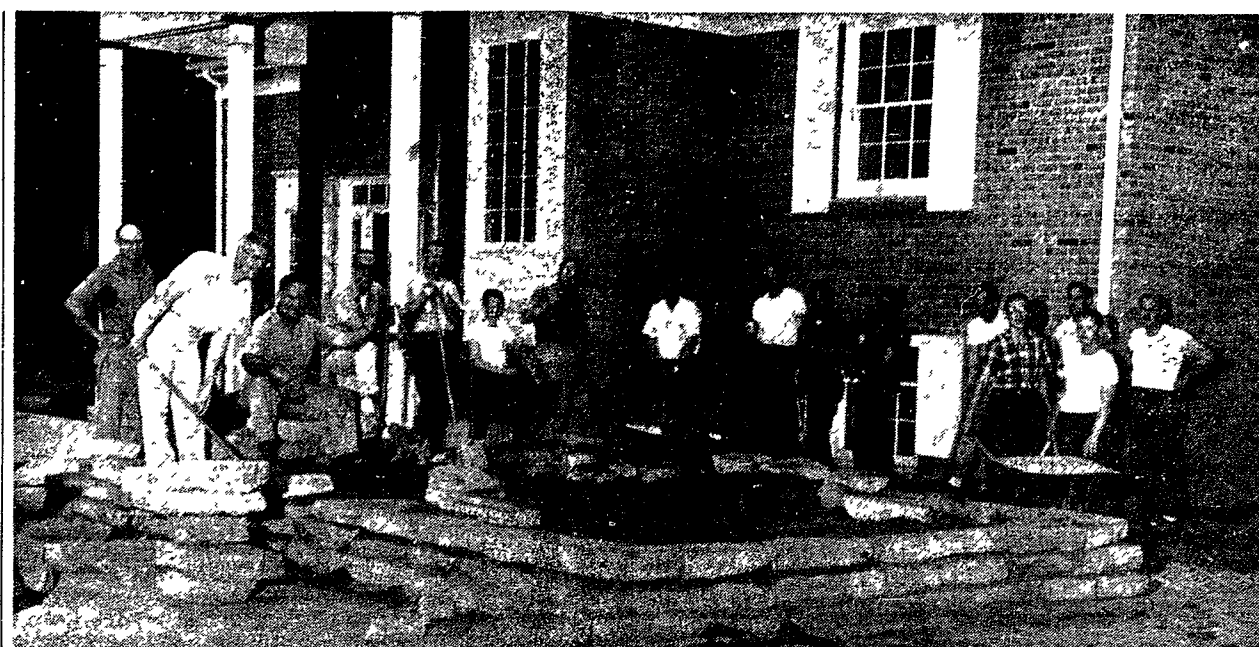

A short way east on M-21 is Zeeland, baby chick capital of the nation.

Our next stop on highway US-31, is Grand Haven, State park, the most popular in Michigan with a million and a half visitors annually. In August, Grand Haven is the scene of the annual Coast Guard festival.

It is now just a hop-skip-and-jump up US-31 to Muskegon, where July sees the event that produces Miss Michigan and the state's official entry in the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City.

You take US-31 east to its intersection with I-196, and then east some more to get to Grand Rapids, furniture capital of the world.

Taking I-96 again we come to the state's capital city, Lansing. West of the city, on M-43, is Grand Ledge, a rendezvous of many Michigan rockhounds.

FINISHING TOUCHES — Dads and friends of Northville scouts are helping beautify the grounds in front of the new recreation-scout building, soon to be opened on Cady street. They've already built one planter box from discarded concrete and were planning to complete a second this week. Those who have helped — many of whom are shown in the picture above — include Roger Harrison, Jack Willis, Doug Simpson, Jim Frognier, Carl Stephens, Harold Penn, Larry Filkin, Irv Marburger, Glenn Deibert, Dick Kernozak, Fran Gazlay, Ralph Hay, Jake Morgan and Ken Conley. Several boys scouts have also helped, including Randy and Kim Marburger, Randy Simpson, Carl Stephens, Jack Willis and Mark Gazlay.

An Appeal to Parents

Because I do not have the time to contact you personally, I am using this method in the hope that I can have your cooperation.

I am the owner of a large pond on Main street, very close to your area. Unfortunately, it contains a number of fish and you know how boys like to fish. All last summer, gangs were up there every day, creating a disturbance to my neighbor, and in general, making nuisances of themselves, and I know for sure they are from your section. This is private property and I have posted signs many times, only to have the boys tear them down. This pond is 8 and 10 feet deep in spots and the banks are sometimes slippery and undermined by muskrat holes. I have talked to these boys many times and explained the dangers to them but they keep coming back. Don't you parents wonder where your boys are going fishing when they take off with a fishing pole? I don't want to spoil their fun — I just don't want anything to happen to any of them. School will soon be out and the children have a lot of time on their hands. However, if this problem continues this summer, I shall have to call the police.

This is your public notice that I CAN NOT and WILL NOT be responsible for these children if anything happens.

Please cooperate with me in helping to protect your children — tell them of the dangers involved and keep them home.

In National Debate Finals

Top-notch state debater John Berton, son of the Andrew Bertonis of Eight Mile road, will be traveling to Houston, Texas, the last week in June.

There, he'll be representing the state in the national high school final debates. John, a national merit finalist, is graduating from University of Detroit high school this month.

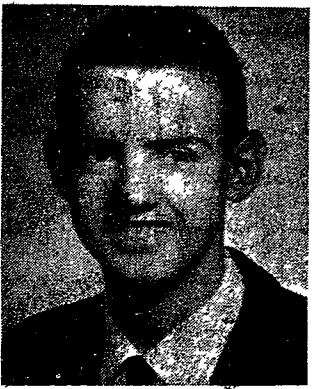

Cadets Stand Guard

Northville Civil Air Patrol cadets took part in a weekend mission.

Nineteen cadets volunteered June 1-2 to guard the multi-thousand dollar open air boat show at the Walled Lake conservation grounds.

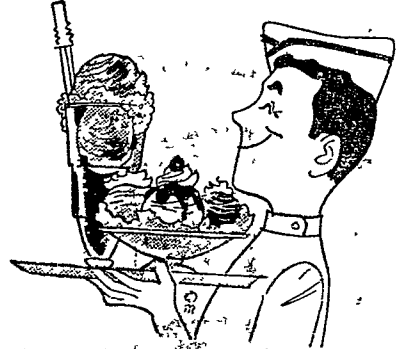

The cadets who participated in the mission also maintained a first-aid tent, worked in the parking lot and stood guard throughout the night.

Movies and other entertainment were provided for the off-duty cadets.

Predict High Scout Camp Attendance

On the basis of reservations to date, a record season was predicted today by James E. Merry, Camp Director for the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The camping program for the Scouts and leaders from the area covered by the southern half of Oakland and Macomb counties and all of Wayne county, opened Saturday, June 9, after a week's staff training period.

Two Detroit Area Council camps, the 640-acre Charles Howell Scout Reservation at Brighton, Michigan, and the 1200-acre D-Bar-A Scout Ranch near Metamora, Michigan, will offer a total of 46 campsites for use during the 8-week summer camp season.

The Reservation and the Ranch both offer two complete camps-within-a-camp. Each has its own staff, waterfront, nature lodge, trading post, skills center, physical fitness and recreation areas, making a total of four sub-camps. The Lime Lake and Ore Creek Camps at the Reservation had a total of 1755 scout campers in 1962, and the Trout Lake and Beaver Creek Camps at the Ranch accommodated over 3100 boys the same year.

Another camp, Loon Lake camp, leased by the Detroit Area Council for summer use by troops who wish to conduct their own summer camp programs, will be used by eight units in 1963. The Loon Lake Camp is located midway between Rose City and Mio, Michigan, on M-33.

An additional 15 troops have accepted an invitation to camp at the newly acquired Silver Lake Scout Camp property near Indian River, Michigan. This newest Scout Camp will not be ready for use as a regular Council Camp until sometime after 1968. The scouts and leaders who will camp there will be doing a troop "good turn" in helping clear campsite areas for use by future campers.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

On whom should we base our faith and hope of salvation? The Bible gives us a clear answer: "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is." (1 Corinthians 3:11-13).

Thus, in God's eyes the only foundation and cornerstone of the Church is Jesus Christ. God made this very plain already in the Old Testament, where we hear His pronouncement: "Therefore, thus saith the Lord God, Behold I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation." (Isaiah 28:16).

The Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 2:6 refers this very prophecy to Jesus Christ. "For preaching this crucified and risen Christ, Peter and the other disciples were imprisoned in Jerusalem. When asked to explain by what power he had healed the lame man in the temple, Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said: "By the name of Jesus Christ." Then referring to another Old Testament prophecy in Psalm 118:22 Peter said of Jesus: "This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in another other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:12).

Peter preached Christ as the only foundation and cornerstone, because the Savior had referred these prophecies to Himself. He remembered how a few days before His crucifixion Jesus had been challenged by His critics: "By what authority doest Thou these things?" (Matthew 21:23). It was then that Jesus had quoted the same Psalm, saying: "Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?" (v.42).

In one of our Christian hymns we sing: Christ, Thou art the sure Foundation, Thou the Head and Cornerstone; Chosen of the Lord and precious, Binding all the Church in one; Thou Thy Zion's Help forever and her Confidence alone.

Indeed, the only sure foundation for each and all of us is Jesus Christ, because He and He alone lived a perfect life, without the mar of sin. He and He alone paid the price of our sins by His precious blood shed for all. He and He alone by His own power rose from the dead and thus conquered death for us.

The one and only foundation for sinful man was and always must be: Jesus Christ. Without Christ there is no true Christianity. Unless we have this foundation the whole building will topple.

Where Christ is not taught as the only Redeemer, as the one atoning sacrifice, where people are taught to confide in their own righteousness or in others for salvation, there we have nothing but shifting sand. There we have "wood, hay and stubble" which will not withstand the refiner's fire. Where, on the other hand, we trust in Christ and believe only the pure teachings of His Word, there we have gold, silver, and precious stones" which will endure the fiery test when placed into the caldron of the final judgment. All who build on Christ and on Christ alone, confiding only in His mercy, will by God's grace be able to stand on that great day, when the Lord Jesus will make His glorious and long-awaited appearing.

Art Around Us

By Jessie Hudson

The Plymouth Senior high school art exhibit last week was a very interesting and varied display. A fine group of mosaics were shown by students of different levels of ability. One feature of mosaic work is that the student can pick and choose his colors, try out new combinations by putting the different tiles together to see how they look before gluing them in to place — no mixing — no water or oil — no mud. The very fact that the design is created from small pieces of crockery, glass or tile makes for interesting texture, and since mosaic at best is simply two-dimensional design, no subject matter gets in the way of the composition.

Also interesting were the history-of-art projects which ranged from an Egyptian wall drawing, through early-Christian letters, to impressionist studies of floral still lifes. Some aluminum designs aged with different colors of ink were also attractive, as were the more conventional oils, watercolors, ceramics and jewelry. Welded wire sculpture, some with colored glass incorporated in the design, as well as one piece of fluorescent red perspex sculpture and several heads of clay were also noteworthy.

A special feature were the drawings of historical buildings borrowed from the display at the Dunning-Hough Library for the evening.

Young Michigan artists seem to be in the news these days. Six college students will show their work at the Hartley-Powers Gallery starting this Sunday. Three of the artists, all in their twenties, all from Plymouth will run the gamut from drawings to oils with some ceramics and sculpture included. The three ladies in the group, also in their twenties, all students at U of M, will show wood-cuts, lithographs, silk-screen prints as well as oils and watercolors. It should be an exciting look at art of today as taught in the schools of today.

This exhibit of work of Young Michigan Artists will be at the Hartley-Powers Gallery from June 16 to July 1. Hours at the gallery are 12-6 on weekdays, 12-9 on Friday and 9-6 on Saturday. Galleries always welcome browsers and many Plymouth and Northville make a habit of dropping in to this, the only art gallery in the region, to see what's new in the field. Mr. Hartley's hand-crafted pine furniture is always a joy to see, his sturdy chests a specialty of the shop.

IN THE GALLERIES:
Dunning-Hough Library, Plymouth — Historical buildings of Plymouth drawn by Plymouth high students. Library closed on Saturdays during the summer months, open until 8 p.m. other days.
Northville Library, Wing St. Northville — Works by Three Cities Art Club members until July 15. Library closed Saturdays.
Hartley-Powers Gallery, 116 E. Main St., Northville — Art of Young Michigan Artists Bill Mandt, Jim Thorpe, Wayne Huber of Plymouth, Carol Carr Wile, Janet Walerstein and Rene Angeli of Ann Arbor, June 16 to July 1.

Artists' Gallery, 210 E. Washington street, Ann Arbor, — Artist members on exhibit including Catherine Hartley of Northville. New store hours — 12-5 weekdays except Wednesday, 12-9 on Saturday.

DIGGING FOR WATER — Mayor A. M. Allen and Township Treasurer A. M. Lawrence joined together to turn the first shovel of earth Saturday for construction of the Northville Swim Club's new pool. Located directly behind the high school, the pool is scheduled for opening July 4. Watching Mayor Allen and Treasurer Lawrence perform their chore are Swim Club President Ray Jackson (left) and Bob Bogart, vice president (right). The club hopes to increase its membership from 115 to over 250. Present plans call for an olympic-size pool and bath house. In the future a diving bay is planned, as well as an enlarged bath house and tennis courts.

★ ★ NORTHVILLE TOWNSHIP MINUTES ★ ★

A special meeting of the township was held on May 27, 1963 at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Merriam, Lawrence, Robinson & Tyler. Absent: Young.

Also present: Mr. James Little, Bill Sliger of the Northville Record. Several residents from Plymouth Gardens Sub.

Mr. Merriam opened the meeting by noting that the residents of the Lakepointe area were the only ones in attendance and those of the other areas who had petitioned for water were not present. Petitions were being prepared, a lot of work had gone into the legal and engineering aspect and we hoped that they would be ready to circulate by Friday.

Those affected: Plymouth Gardens Sub., Ambrose Estates Sub. and five parcels on Bradner road. Mr. Merriam stated that 51 of the recorded owners must sign the petitions before they can be acted upon. The cost, which is only a preliminary figure, includes 175 connection and 386 lots — total cost around $165,000. Per lot cost would amount to $417 and to each house would be added a $200 tap-on-fee for a total of $617. The $200 charge was not determined whether it would be a part of the bond issue or not. For a ten year assessment the payment would be $57 on the $417 or $84 on the $617 figure and the period of time could not exceed 18 years. On a front foot basis the cost (tentatively) would be $5.35 per front foot plus the $200 service charge. After the petitions are signed a public hearing must be called for and the area assessment is followed.

Questions were asked in regard to getting City of Detroit water and if the residents of the other area failed to sign what effect it would have on those areas wanting the water. Mr. Merriam assured them they could make the area any size.

Bowby inquired of the cost of a 6" main. Mr. Merriam answered by saying that it would not exceed $6.50 per ft. plus hydrants.

The source of the water was entered into with Mr. Merriam saying it probably would come from Plymouth. Mr. Tyler felt the board should not exclude the possibility of getting water from Detroit. Mr. Merriam said the City of Detroit had not answered his letter of several weeks ago. Mr. Tyler said a formal application should be made and he made a motion to write to the City of Detroit and Plymouth Township asking under what limits they have with the City of Detroit under their system. No second.

Mr. Robinson stated he would never settle for City of Detroit water without an adequate flow. Mr. Lawrence stated that Detroit owns the flow and a booster would be needed. Mr. Merriam stated they could not use a booster if the pressure was low.

Mr. Merriam turned over to Mr. Little the No. 701 forms received from Velican-Leman Associates, Township Consultants for review and to report back at next Tuesday's meeting on same. The No. 701 is under a Federal grant and would include a review of all zoning and planning. The cost $23,000 with the Township assuming $6,000 payable at the rate of $3,000 per year for 2 years.

The Seven Mile road sewer was brought up for discussion. Mr. Hayes & Mr. Allen, who represents Dr. W. Gyzinski of Livonia had proposed that they buy 100 taps, each at $400 a tap for a cost of $80,000 and the township would build the sewer. If the cost would run higher they would buy additional taps. Dr. Gyzinski desires to build a 75 bed convalescent home on Seven Mile road and to develop some 55 acres for residential homes. A Public Hearing is scheduled for June 20th. Further discussion was tabled until the next meeting.

Mr. Merriam brought up the need for a truck for the Dog Warden. This was tabled until the next meeting.

Discussion of jurisdiction of the trunk line sewer was brought up for discussion. Charges for the sewage was a matter for discussion. Mr. Merriam suggested a schedule of charges be made up. This was tabled for further discussion.

No further business appearing, Robinson made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Lawrence.

Meeting adjourned at 10:10 p.m.

Margaret Tegge
Deputy Clerk

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen on Monday, May 20, 1963, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City Hall.

Present: Allen, Ambler, Carlson and Kester. Absent: Canterbury.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Ambler that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General	$11,653.54
Water	1,366.27

Unanimously carried.

Communications:

A letter from the City of Farmington received regarding their sending U. S. Army Engineers' Flood Information Report on the Upper Rouge River in Farmington, the Farmington Backfilling Ordinance and River Valley Zoning District Ordinance to the various communities' Planning Commissions in the Rouge Basin.

Two communications received from Michigan Municipal League:

(1) Formal notice of the Annual Meeting of the Michigan Municipal League to be held September 5 through 7, 1963 at Mackinac Island. Deadline date for member cities and villages who are planning on submitting resolutions for consideration is June 1, 1963.

Comments from audience:

Mr. Oscar Hammond, 511 N. Center street, asked permission to weld brackets on parking meter posts (to use for displaying flags). If parking meters are abandoned in the future, he also asked if the posts could be left for the purpose of flag display. The City Manager is to check posts to see if the brackets could be welded. The city wanted it understood that they would not be responsible for replacing brackets if any of these need replacement.

Mr. Hammond explained the plan which is being offered in the business district regarding these flags — $15.00 for the first 18 months, until November, 1964, and after that $10 per year. Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that the city be responsible for 3 flags, within the above plan, located at the following places: (1) one at the parking lot by the Presbyterian Church and (2) two in front of the East Main street parking lot (between the Northville Realty and the Northville Drug). Unanimously carried.

Open Bids for Street Repairs:

The city manager briefly reviewed the report on street repairs which he had given at the previous meeting. There was a discussion as to the policy on street repair and street paving relative to special assessments or using General Fund monies. The clerk read the advertisement relative to the bids as published in the Northville Record. The following bids were opened:

Oakland Paving Co., Detroit Concrete Products, Cadillac Asphalt Paving and A & A Asphalt Company. The mayor requested the city engineer to check all bids and make a report to council on the figures. The City Engineer, Mr. Penn, reported that Oakland Paving Co. had the low bid for the "A" section with $8,426.70 and Cadillac Asphalt Paving the low bid for Section "B" with $1,584.77. The council instructed the city engineer and the city manager to report back at the next council meeting with figures for additional work since the bids were much lower than as recommended by the city engineer and city manager at the above figures.

Moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that the Oakland Paving Company and Cadillac Asphalt Paving Company be awarded the bids as listed above. Unanimously carried.

Manager's Report on Lawn Tractor Quotations:

The clerk read the advertisement for a compact lawn tractor as published in the Northville Record and the City Manager reported the following bids received:

Saxton's	$747.90
Northville Hardware	$659.95
Ely & Sons	$623.70 (except gear transmission - belt)
Stone's Gamble Store	$599.81 (Springfield - available in 4 days)

Moved by Ambler, supported by Carlson that Stone's Gamble Store be awarded the bid as recommended by the City Manager. Unanimously carried.

Consideration of Resolution Removing Parking on Center street from Dunlap street to Cady:

This matter was discussed at work session on Monday, May 13 and tabled until current meeting for action.

Moved by Allen, supported by Ambler that the following resolution be adopted: (On file at the city hall). Unanimously carried.

Report on Cost of Developing Parking and Discussion of "In Lieu of Parking Charge":

The city manager reported on charges based on the 5 main parking lots; $1,006 is the average cost based on 131 spaces in the 5 lots. Moved by Ambler, supported by Carlson that the following resolution be adopted: (on file at the city hall) — to establish parking price at $600. Unanimously carried.

The City Attorney recommended that the Off-Street Parking Ordinance should be referred back to the Planning Commission to be reviewed as to clarifying language.

Consider the Proposed Agreement with Oakland County Concerning Novi Sewer:

The City Manager and City Attorney reported on their meetings to negotiate with Oakland County for .6 CFS of the proposed Novi sewer coming into the city of Northville.

City Attorney's report as to the contract stressed two changes or additions: (1) matter of providing one connection at which time the city is to pay $2,375 and (2) the .6 CFS is a part of the CFS originally purchased on the line running south to Wilcox road — this is to be approved by Wayne County Board as well as Oakland county.

The following conditions were also discussed which are to be negotiated with Oakland county: maintaining of streets during and after construction; the City Manager and the City Engineer are to investigate the time element on street work in relation to racing dates.

Public Hearing on the 1963-64 Budget:

Moved by Ambler, supported by Kester that the 1963-64 budget of $406,055 as published in the Northville Record be adopted. Unanimously carried.

Consider Recommendation of the Planning Commission to Rezone Lots 247 and 211b of Plat No. 1 from C-2 to R-3, 119 W. Cady street:

Moved by Kester, supported by Ambler that the proposed amendment to rezone lots 247 and 211b of Northville Assessor's Plat No. 1 from C-2 to R-3 be published and the Public Hearing be held on June 3, 1963, 8:00 p.m. at the city hall. Unanimously carried.

Consider Adopting Ordinance for 1962 National Electric Code and Uniform Rules by Reference. This is to be postponed until June 3rd meeting.

Request Permission to take bids for a year's supply of gasoline and motor oil: Moved by Carlson, supported by Ambler that the City Manager be allowed to advertise for bids for a year's supply of

All girls in the Novi and Or- chard Hills school who will be seven years or eight years in the fall have been contacted and will be placed on the waiting list for troops in the fall. Any girl in the Novi neigh- hood who did not get informa- tion at school, please call Mrs. Clarke at FI 9-2598. Anyone interested in helping with this troop is urged to register now for training during summer months so that this troop may start immediately in the fall.

Summer training will be given July 8, 10, 15, 17 and 22 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at St. Stephens church, 5500 N. Adams, Birmingham.

Mrs. Bert Bowen completed the initial neighborhood chair- man training this week held in Berkley.

Novi Senior troop was pre- sented with an award at the Memorial Day Parade for the float they had decorated in a camping theme. Some of the girls were in old fashioned camping outfits and some in present day. Leader, Mrs. Brooks and committee mem- ber, Mrs. MacGillivray rode on the float with the girls.

Intermediate troop 1027 had special guest camp crafter Jewel Ratcliffe and continued working on their back yard overnight planned for June 15. Mrs. Taffrahan was also at the meetin in the absence of the leader, Mrs. Lyke. The girls finished handing in their plant- ers which they made for the Northville State hospital.

Intermediate troop 550 com- pleted plans for an overnight. Campcrafter Mrs. Mac Gilli- vray spent time with the troop going over the procedures. Go- ing on the overnight with the troop will be mothers, Mrs. John Hasley and Mrs. John Bruce.

Intermediate troop 913 held a combined birthday party and cookout at Cass Benton park, Northville. Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Ritchie went with the troop. They closed with the cir- cle and sang, "When ere you make a promise." This troop is registering at the present time and the following moth- ers are new committee peo- ple: Mrs. Cockrum, Mrs. Gar- bin, Mrs. Cookson, Mrs. Au- ten and Mrs. Zimmerman.

Brownie Troop 145 held a cookout at the home of Mrs. Wharton. Nineteen girls at- tended. Mrs. Presley came to help. Invested were three new girls: Patty Ary, Judy Mae Cann and Cathy Radtke.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Nothing like a quiet week end in Northville.

Just ask Tony Lema, current sensation of the professional golf tour, or his hosts Mr. and Mrs. Ed Addis of 22279 Haggerty.

An old friend of the Addises, Lema and his bride of six weeks were guests Saturday evening at the Addis home. Lema probably thought it would be nice to get "out in the country" after a trying time at the Buick Open at Warwick Hills in Grand Blanc.

Things hadn't been going best for Lema at Warwick. He had a fine five-under-par 67 washed out by rain on Thursday. And Sunday he faced two 18-hole rounds to make up the rain postponement.

So after dinner Saturday night at the Addis' home, it was early to bed. Tee-off time was 7:20 a.m., which meant he must arise about 4:30 a.m.

At 2 a.m. the rains came. The storm knocked out all the electrical power at the Addis' home — "and at our home, everything's electric," Mrs. Addis noted.

With alarm clocks stilled Addis proved he was the perfect host. He stayed up all night. He couldn't heat a cup of coffee, so he drove to a hamburger emporium to drink coffee and kill time. At 4:30 he awakened Lema, who had slept through the storm.

The golf pro was able to wash and brush his teeth with a small portion of ice water rescued from the refrigerator (Addis used gingerale).

Sunday night the Addises tried to make-up for the inconvenience. They took the Lemas and Phil Rodgers, another young touring pro, out to Mario's for dinner. Another storm hit — Mario's was flooded and so was the expressway back home.

Monday morning Addis drove Lema and Rodgers to the airport so they could meet a public appearance obligation at Rockefeller Center — and get back to the peace and quiet of New York City.

To make the week end complete Mrs. Addis noted that son, Scott, brought home a classmate from Culver as guest, while on Sunday afternoon there were baccalaureate services at Country Day school to attend for son, Wally.

While on the subject of families (and as long as I've already wandered astray from the usual variety of subject matter dished up in this column), Northville will lose two fine families this week.

The Reverend Paul Cargos to Caro, and the Robert Bearbowers to Dayton, Ohio. Both families, youngsters as well as adults, have helped make our community a better place in which to live. Their presence will be missed.

The amazing genius of Henry Ford was recalled for a handful of guests of the Ford Wixom plant Monday noon at a luncheon where "The World of Henry Ford" was shown on film.

The film is presented as part of the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Henry Ford, which officially takes place in July.

Among those attending the preview were Wixom Mayor Wesley E. McAtee, Councilmembers Fred Beamish, Mrs. Lottie Chambers, Howard Coe, R. W. Lahti and Oscar Simmons, and Clerk Mrs. Pearl Willis and Judge William Welke. Clerk Mrs. Mabel Ash represented Novi.

Hosts were R. C. Chinn, recently appointed Wixom plant manager, and Joseph Tighe, community relations director.

Rules for Picking Real Estate Buys

Babson Park, Mass., — Last week I wrote about owning forest lands or pasture lands. This would be in terms of at least 10 acres, and presumably not less than 250 acres. I like to have my readers buy real estate, in general, such as house lots, and to buy it near the city in which this article appears.

Certainly one should not buy house lots in some distant state, or in fact anywhere, without seeing the property. I am a great believer in Florida land. But I hate to see people buy house lots in Florida from maps which they are looking at hundreds of miles away.

When I am asked what is the best fertilizer for an orange grove, I reply, "The footprints of the owner."

This applies also to house lots, especially in subdivisions of some northern city. Now let me give some simple rules regarding the purchase of such house lots. They are based on careful experience and apply whether you are speculating or buying for the purpose of settling on the land and some day bringing up a family.

Every city has its best growth in some one direction — whether to the north, west, east, or south. Often the direction is toward the land highest in elevation. This is especially true if it is to the west facing the sunsets. Remember, too, that subdivisions which are near tenement districts or railroad tracks may not be as attractive as others. Personally, I made a mistake in buying land in Wellesley fifteen miles from Boston under the direct route of the airplanes leaving Boston for New York and elsewhere. I made this mistake many years ago, but those looking for subdivisions now should take this problem into consideration.

I do not like houses as an investment unless they are duplex houses, where I can live in one half and rent the other half. As an investment I like something that does not need to be shingled or painted, and that does not have windows that break. Even a new house depreciates from the very day it is completed; but the land, if in a proper neighborhood, gradually increases in value.

When buying houses or land, this is the reason for buying an extra lot, adjoining the one on which you will live. Also recognize that all land and all houses are worth something, but the price should be considered according to the above suggestions. It will always be possible to build and buy new houses. The price will depend upon supply and demand, just as does the price of mortgages. There will sometimes be a shortage of houses, and often a surplus of houses.

There, however, will never be any more land on this globe. This is something to remember when you read articles on the coming "population explosion."

The availability of fresh water is something to consider when buying house lots. The talk in the papers today regarding the "pollution" of water is very sound. This refers to the pollution of streams not only by waste from industrial companies, but also from the detergents which our womenfolk use every day and from the deadly chemical pesticides which are being sprayed in such profusion throughout the nation.

This latter is the subject of a very popular book entitled "Silent Spring" by Rachel Carson. This book should be read especially by those who are thinking of buying land near a stream. Despite this, land adjoining good rivers should always be in demand — for homes, farming, and speculation.

I was born and brought up in Gloucester, Mass., by the seashore, where the waves from the Atlantic Ocean dash up twice a day. This picture applies to the whole length of both our Atlantic and Pacific Seabords. There never will be any more of it; hence, if possible, it is well to own some land as an investment on one or the other of these seacoasts.

Let me close by emphasizing the importance of diversification. Do not put all your money in any one thing — real estate, stocks, bonds, or bank accounts — and be especially cautious about investing in deteriorating houses.

Romney Can't Stall on Presidency

Appearance of Gov. George Romney in Washington on several recent occasions stirred up national interest in prospect of Michigan's chief executive as a 1964 Republican presidential candidate.

Democrats feel they could use Romney's part in the national political arena as a tool to regain the governor's chair. With a number of potential winners in the party ranks, the Democrats would be very happy to accuse Romney of abandoning Michigan.

Romney has said time and time again he does not have political ambitions. Because of his firm remarks along this line many state GOP leaders feel he would be unwise to accept a nomination in 1964 if it was offered at the national convention.

Further, Republicans would be hard pressed to find a candidate of his stature to keep the power within the state.

Another group of Republicans feel it would be to Michigan's benefit if the state's first GOP governor in 14 years were offered the presidential nomination.

Those close to the governor say Romney is totally sincere in his current denials of having presidential aspirations. Other observers note, however, that Romney denied any intention to run for governor very close to his Feb. 10, 1962 announcement of candidacy.

Romney will be on the spot at home with the presidential nomination. Nominating petitions for governor must be filed with the Secretary of State about a month before the national political conventions are held.

Romney will have to make up his mind on whether to seek or accept the presidential nomination long before the convention so the Michigan GOP will have another candidate filing for governor. If Romney is to accept a "draft" nomination, he will have to inform a number of state party leaders in advance so they can boost the candidacy of a second governor candidate even if he files for re-election.

The Michigan Senate finally is planning to take advantage of a Ford Foundation grant designed to help the lawmaking students an opportunity to see the practical side of political and governmental activity. Two years ago the Ford Foundation offered a $164,500 grant to provide legislative internships for graduate students over a period of six years.

In 1964 the State Senate will use four such interns in cooperation with officials of Michigan State University, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. The House has yet to accept terms of the fellowships program.

Senators agreed to appropriate $9,000 to be combined with the Foundation grant, the interns with $400 a month for an 11-month period.

Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, Grand Lodge Republican who heads the senate Business Committee, said the participating students would be assigned as staff assistants to Senate leaders or committees. The participating students, in political science, journalism or law, will receive college credits as any of the three universities for the program. They will attend a weekly seminar in addition to their daily work with Senators.

Nothing new under the sun? This familiar quotation usually is true and the Michigan State Nurses Association appears to have found a new approach to an old idea.

Housewives have been saving trading stamps of one variety or another for many years, but the association recently gave a new twist to the craze. Registered nurses throughout the state have been collecting 20,000 books of trading stamps. These will be turned in as payment for a piece of Lansing property on which the association will build its state headquarters.
