

Fall-Out Shelters Designated Here

Storing of tons of survival food and equipment was begun this week in the basements and tunnels of Northville State Hospital buildings.

Under the supervision of the Wayne County Civil Defense, volunteer workmen were to move more than 30,000 pounds of crackers, 1500 drums of water and 200 sanitation kits from a Livonia warehouse to the hospital.

Work was begun Monday morning and was expected to be completed next week. Storing of the survival food and equipment at the hospital is the first step in a operation in Western Wayne county.

Similar operations are planned for the community building in Northville, St. Mary's Providence School, the Wayne County Training School, Plymouth State Home & Training School, St. John's Seminary, and the Detroit House of Correction.

Still more survival products are slated for buildings in Plymouth and other neighboring communities. The entire operation is expected to take several weeks to complete.

The buildings in which the food and equipment is to be placed have been designated as survival quarters in the event of a nuclear attack upon Detroit. Surveys have shown them to be safe from radioactive fallout, according to county CD officials.

Supplies in the basements of the State Hospital facilities, officials point out, will serve 7500 people for 15 days — the average danger time for fallout.

While the buildings have been designated as CD shelters, they are not necessarily safe from blast effects, officials emphasize. They simply represent areas to which people can go to escape the deadly effects of fallout dust.

Cost of the supplies, which are administered by the county CD office now located in the basement of the Wayne County Training School, is paid by the federal government.

For movement of supplies from Livonia to the State Hospital, surplus trucking equipment procured through the CD office by Canton township was pressed into service as was a CD vehicle assigned to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

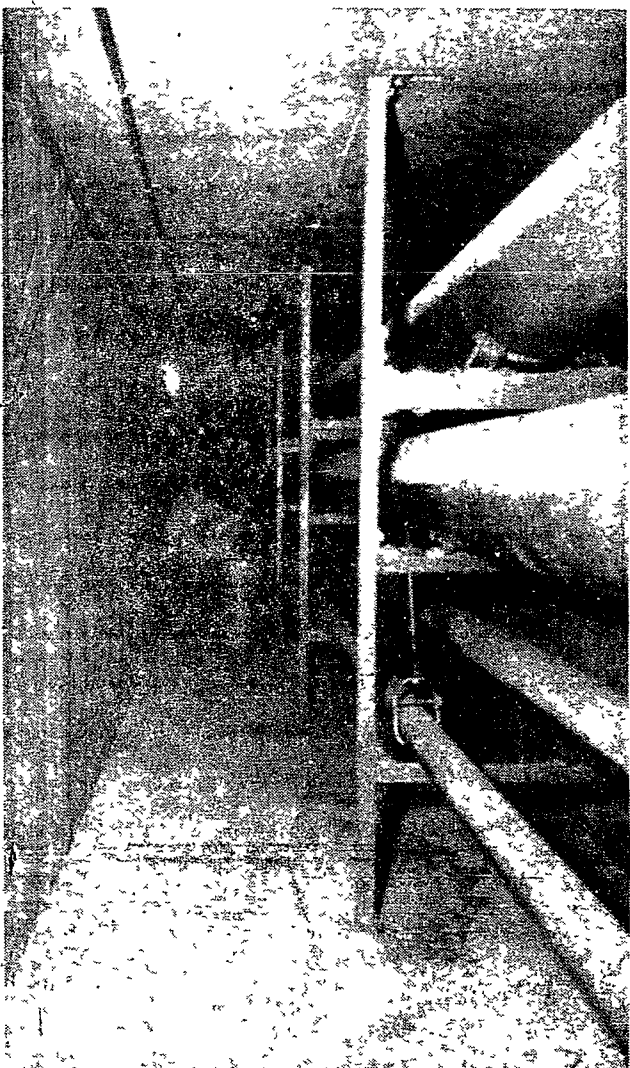

Local volunteer workmen, a dozen welfare men from Canton township, and sheriff's department personnel supplied manpower. A truck volunteered by the Niles Trucking company of Northville was ready in case it was needed.

According to Eugene Guide of Northville, Wayne county CD coordinator, a lion's share of the county's survival operations are slated for Western Wayne county where most of the communities of 10,000 or less population — which are under the direct supervision of the county CD department — are located.

Just three weeks ago movement of the county CD offices to the training school were begun. Located in the basement of the personnel quarters, the CD facilities here eventually will include a county control center from which emergency operations will be directed by CD in the event of a national emergency.

Wayne County Training School, located on Sheldon road in Northville township, also has been designated as the headquarters of county government should Detroit come under nuclear attack.

Other officials of the county CD headquarters here are Henry E. Sietz, director, and William Seibert, deputy director.

Survival food and equipment is being stored in this utility tunnel beneath Northville State hospital.

Township Considers Landfill Regulations

Northville township officials huddled again Monday night to wrestle with the delicate question of issuing a permit to operate a landfill.

The study session was held between members of the board of appeals, township attorney and engineer, and the supervisor. Several interested citizens sat in on the discussion, although it had not been called as a public meeting and there was no comment from the audience.

development. He proposes to fill the three areas with rubbish hauled by contract from the city of Detroit.

It would appear that members of the board of appeals — Chairman Gunnar Stromberg, Alex Lawrence and John Miller — favor granting the request, but under township terms.

The officials heard Attorney Littell theorize that to deny any landfill operation could result in court direction to do so. Permission thus gained would not be subject to regulations.

Post Office Redesigned

New plans for the proposed Northville post office were shown members of the Northville city council Monday night.

City Manager Bruce Potthoff reported that information from postal authorities indicated that the Early American design building would soon be submitted for bidders.

Earlier specifications called for contemporary design. They were changed to conform with the new city hall and recreation building, both nearby the proposed Cady-Wing street site of the post office.

as strict as those drafted by Mosher, Littell opined. But it was the attorney's belief that the regulations, if in force in the township, would be acceptable to the court should they be challenged.

Among other things, the 16-page document of regulations provides that only rubbish and ash may be dumped — no garbage. It provides that the fill can be used in naturally low areas only, not excavated holes. The latter would require hard fill. The regulations also deny the use of filled areas as building sites.

Littell told the board of appeals that it is not necessary to call a public hearing to issue the landfill permit. It does not require a change in zoning, but rather, a variance in land use.

Public opposition was responsible for two similar requests by Hayes to be defeated. He has indicated, however, that he will seek a decision in the courts if his latest bid is denied.

Appeals Chairman Stromberg stated Tuesday that before any action is taken a public meeting will be called to "explain and discuss" the issue.

While the board of appeals has the final word in issuing such a permit, Supervisor R. D. Merriam stated that the township board must approve adoption of the proposed landfill regulations.

Jaycees Plan Band Festival

Probably the best known and most colorful bandsmen in all of Canada will perform for a Northville audience Saturday, September 28 when the Jaycees present their first "International Band Festival."

He's Pipe Major Jock Copland, M.B.E., original organizer of the Essex and Scottish Pipe Band, and now bandmaster of the Pipe Band of Branch 84, Royal Canadian Legion of Leamington.

The festival will be held at the high school athletic field under the lights at 8 p.m. and will feature bands from Canada and Michigan, including Northville's high school band.

Pipe Major Copland has a long military record as a piper and has piped at every important function in his country for the past 50 years. He has traveled the world over presenting his pipe band to audiences at celebrations and official events.

Copland has been honored by royalty and has appeared before every King and Queen since George V. The colorful Scot is most often seen in his McGregor kilt and white spats with the McGregor plaid flowing from his left shoulder.

As a boy of 12 he joined the pipers as a piper, but didn't last long when it was discovered he was underage. He soon returned to the service joining The Royal Engineers and served as pipe sergeant and eventually Pipe Major. He went to Canada in 1911. He served overseas in World War I as Pipe Major of the 241st Battalion.

The band festival is an experiment by Northville's Jaycees. Program Chairman Charles Ely, Jr., points out that the festivals will become annual events and expanded if enough interest is shown.

"Frankly, it's an experiment. We don't know what the public reaction will be," he explained.

Tickets for the band show are available at Northville Drugs and have been distributed to all members of the Jaycees and local service clubs.

Proceeds of the event will be used by the Jaycees to promote their community activities.

Northville: Good ( ) Bad ( )

A "community attitude" survey is currently being conducted in the city of Northville by the junior chamber of commerce.

Jaycee President Karl Knott said this week that 398 survey forms have been distributed throughout all sections of the city. They will be gathered this week, analyzed and the results reported to the city council.

"We hope to determine the attitude of the people toward the community and, if there are problems, see what can be done to correct them," Knott explained.

The three-page survey form is being used by Jaycee groups throughout the country. Its questions include what one likes, dislikes and believes to be the five most important things to be done in the community.

An evaluation table is set up to rate all public services, utilities and communication media, plus attitudes toward everything from medical and dental services to recreation, teachers, teens and senior citizens.

New Plan to Unite Police-Fire Forces

Northville's city council Monday night approved the first step in a reorganizational move designed to combine its police and fire forces into a single department of public safety.

The action was recommended in a report submitted by City Manager Bruce Potthoff.

Councilmembers demonstrated agreement with the plan by supporting the manager's proposal to employ William McGee, chief of the volunteer fire department, as a full time police officer.

McGee will replace Officer Christopher Flynn, who has resigned.

Unification of the two departments cannot be immediate, Manager Potthoff pointed out.

Central figure in the change is McGee. He will maintain his position as fire chief, but will also assume the full-time duties of a police officer. McGee will be in charge of a long-range training program that will eventually result in all full-time personnel becoming qualified public safety officers — trained policemen and firemen.

Specifically, the department of public safety will have Police Chief Eugene King as its director. Officer McGee will head up all fire-fighting activities.

The reorganization will not change the status or function of the volunteer firemen. They will continue in the same manner, Manager Potthoff noted, except that the chief will be a full-time member of the department of public safety. Volunteers will continue to be the principal defense against fire emergencies.

Manager Potthoff pointed to advantages of combining the two departments — both economic and in added protection for the community.

And with McGee as one of the leading applicants for the vacancy in the police department the opportunity to initiate the reorganization is ideal, the manager added.

In a brief outline of how the new set-up will work, it was pointed out that the Public Safety Director (King) will be responsible for general administration of both police and fire departments. The Public Safety Officer in charge of fire-fighting (McGee) will be in charge at all fires. If for any reason, the officer in charge of fire activities is unavailable, the person in charge of fire-fighting will be the ranking volunteer officer at the scene of the fire.

This practice will continue until such time as other full-time Public Safety Officers have gained sufficient knowledge and experience to command fire-fighting efforts at the scene.

Listed among Potthoff's reasons for recommending the marriage of the departments were:

- more full-time trained manpower available for police and fire emergencies;
- central command will avoid duplication, provide better planning, training and communication;
- faster and better police and fire service will result; in most fire calls the full-time police officer will be the first man at the scene; as a trained public safety officer, he may handle the situation unassisted — at least he can perform emergency measures until volunteers arrive;

Water Sources Flood Township

Water sources are springing up everywhere in Northville township.

Monday night the Plymouth city council, which had already guaranteed the township a supply for its Bradner-Five Mile road area, confirmed this by establishing rates.

At about the same time the Northville city council appointed a two-member committee to meet with township officials to consider a system of supply for residents of the Bloomcrest subdivision just west of the city.

Tuesday morning the city of Detroit introduced a new plan for supplying Detroit water to the township in the Bradner-Five Mile road area.

The most acute situation exists in the township's southeastern section in Plymouth Gardens subdivision near the intersection of Bradner and Five Mile. At least one home is without water; others have persistent dry-well problems. Petitions have already been signed to supply this area with water by construction of a system by special assessment.

The township board had agreed that the city of Plymouth offered the best source of supply.

And Monday night the Plymouth council offered the township the same rates that apply to customers within the city of Plymouth. These rates range from 34 cents to 13 cents per 1,000 gallons depending upon quantity used. Normally, out of city users are charged double rates by Plymouth. But the township is being given whole-sale rates because it will meter the supply and service the system.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam was puzzled by the latest Detroit offer. He said it may be necessary to call a special meeting of the township board. But he noted that Detroit now proposes to serve the "dry area" directly from a line running through the township and supplying the Wayne County Training School and DeHoCo. The supervisor pointed out that the line has been considered inadequate.

Meanwhile, complaints from township residents receiving water from an admittedly inadequate line from the city of Northville has prompted new action. Presumably, the city is ready to break its policy of not selling water outside the city limits — providing the township is prepared to construct and maintain the system outside the city's borders. Essentially, the township would follow the same procedure in the Bloomcrest area that it is now undertaking in Plymouth Gardens — create a special assessment district and divide the cost of building the water system among the property owners benefited. The city of Northville would then sell water to the township metered at the city limits.

The council appointed Mayor A. M. Allen and Councilman Richard Ambler to meet with township officials to discuss this possibility.

Brighter Nights Ahead in City

The nights will soon become brighter for residents of more than 20 areas within the city.

Monday night the city council approved a proposal to either increase the light-productivity or add additional lights to some 22 different locations throughout the city.

The report was submitted to the council after a study was

Christmas Project Gets Early Start

Overall plans for the 1963 Christmas Market was the center of business at a meeting here Monday morning.

Meeting at the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. O. Whittington, the committee representing the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association put finishing touches on its plans in readiness for a meeting on October 14 and 13 of neighboring branches of the association.

At the October meeting, representatives from 13 neighboring branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden organization will gather to correlate responsibilities for "Christmas Magic" — this year's theme.

Plans for the 1963 Christmas Market were begun last January while the 1962 market was still fresh in everyone's mind. Following that, committees were set up, projects chosen, and jobs assigned.

During the summer many women have been quietly working on good things to eat for the gourmet shop and, according to the committee chairman, "it looks as though the shelves of the Northville booth will be overflowing with specialties from the Garden Club kitchens.

Assisting Mrs. Whittington on the committee are: Mrs. William Slattery, co-chairman; Mrs. George Kohs, staging; Mrs. Donald Ware, luncheon; Mrs. Orson Atchinson, projects (gourmet shop); Mrs. Edward Frutche, booth (decorating); Mrs. Richard Martin, tickets; Mrs. R. J. Wright, publicity; Mrs. Frank Whitmyer, displays (table settings, gift packages); Mrs. Edwin Mueller, demonstrations; Mrs. Alfred Millington, financial; and Mrs. Wilbur Johnston, hostesses.

Among the neighboring community organizations that will take part in the Christmas Market with Northville are Golfview, Holly, Inkster, Livonia, Milford, Northwest Detroit, Pine Lake, Plymouth, Redford, Rosedale Gardens, Wayne and Westchester.

Library Club Elects Officers

Pam Smith was elected president of the junior high school library club at the organization's first meeting Thursday morning.

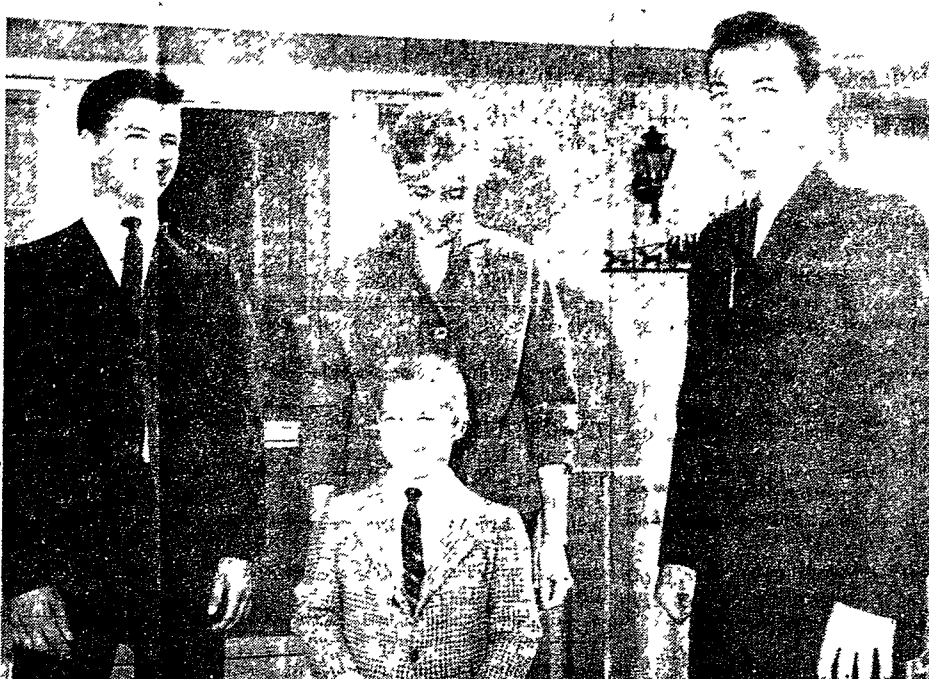

Other newly elected officers are Sara Lindberg, vice-president and Karen Stefanski, secretary. The treasurer will be elected at the September 19 meeting.

Twenty-seven members attended the first meeting, called to order by Miss Ione Palmer, school librarian. Miss Palmer appointed Kurt Wiley chairman of audio-visual, and Linda Johnson as club reporter.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance.

— Samuel Johnson

Newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hileman and sons, Gordon, Jr. and Richard.

"It's just the grandest place we've ever lived."

With that flowery bouquet, Mrs. Gordon Hileman explained why she, her husband, and their sons, Gordon, Jr., 14, and Richard, 7, are so thrilled with their new home in Echo Valley.

Residents in a lovely new home at 48145 Cedarwood, the Hilemans moved here from Farmington about two months ago. And in that short time, everyone in the family has become attached to the new home, and particular to the Northville-Nowi community.

"The school system," said Mrs. Hileman, "why it's tops. It goes without saying that the teachers and the facilities are absolutely the best we've seen in a community of this size."

Gordon, a ninth grader, attends public school in Northville while brother Dick is a second-grader at Our Lady of Victory Catholic School also in Northville.

The senior Hilemans, who lived with their children in Farmington for about 4½ years before the move to Novi, were born and raised in Detroit, which accounts somewhat for their enthusiasm for the "country-like" atmosphere.

Mr. Hileman, a building contractor, operates the G. Hileman Company.

Either by choice or by natural inclination, the Hileman family enjoys participating together in a variety of sporting activities.

High on the list is hunting. Mr. Hileman and his young namesake are bow and arrow enthusiasts, and they also have their share of fun during the regular deer season too. Mom and the youngest member of the family go along to give the Gordons "moral support."

The family spends much of the hunting — and some fishing — activities near Tawas and Houghton Lake.

It seems perfectly natural that outdoor enthusiasts like these would find time for some golf outings — and the Hilemans are no exceptions. Golfing is a favorite pastime — and like most suburbanites, they do it more for relaxation than shaving numbers in a scorebook.

Lecture Tickets On Sale

Ticket sales for the Plymouth branch of American Association of University Women's Listening Post lecture series will be an important feature of the group's monthly meeting on September 19.

The talks, scheduled for October 23, January 23 and March 3, will feature prominent scholars in a variety of fields, and will be held in the Plymouth high school auditorium beginning at 8:30.

Profits from this venture are given by the association for two educational purposes. One is the AAUW's Fellowship fund which supports graduate work for gifted women both here and abroad. The second recipient will be a young woman attending Schoolcraft Community College following its opening next year.

Tickets, which are sold for the entire series only, at $4 per person are available locally from Mrs. David Van Hine, 349-3015, as well as Mrs. Eder, 453-6308, or any AAUW member.

Kitchen Diary

She Places Emphasis On Easily Made Dishes

Like many housewives across the nation, Mrs. Elwyn Kaake derives little satisfaction from cooking "because the food's all eaten up."

Thus, the culinary emphasis at the Kaake's is placed on dishes that can be prepared easily and rapidly.

A nice hearty, hot weather luncheon recipe that Mrs. Kaake has developed is vegetable tuna souffle salad.

Simple to prepare, it satisfies the hearty appetites of Mr. Kaake, a shop superintendent at Special Machine and Engineering Inc. of Southfield and the four younger Kaakes — Janelyn, Jon, Steven and Rebecca.

Mrs. Kaake's recipe:
TUNA SOUFFLE SALAD
1 package lime jello
1 cup hot water
½ cup cold water

4 tsp. vinegar
½ cup mayonnaise
Salt, pepper
1 cup shredded carrot
1 cup shredded cabbage
¼ cup drained, diced cucumber
1 Tbs. finely chopped onion
1 can tuna fish well drained, mashed

Dissolve jello in 1 cup hot water, add ½ cup cold water, vinegar and mayonnaise. Season with salt, pepper. Blend well with rotary beater.

Quick chill in freezer unit until firm about 1 inch from edge, but soft in center. Usually takes 15 to 20 minutes.

Turn mixture into bowl. Whip with rotary beater until fluffy. Fold in carrots, cabbage, onion and tuna. Chill until firm. Serve with melba toast or crackers.

Harmonizing with Hats

Mesdames Donald Rimes and Pat Patterson

Two local women, both members of the Detroit Chapter of Sweet Adelines, are assisting in sponsorship of a hat show and card party today (Thursday) at the UAW-CIO hall, 22635 Plymouth road.

They are Mrs. Donald Rimes of 41861 Aspen drive, Novi, and Mrs. Pat Patterson, 324 Yerkes, Northville.

In addition to the show and party, special entertainment by the Detroit Chapter and Chorus (barbershop harmony style), refreshments and prizes will be on tap this evening.

Donations for the event are $1.25. For additional information, local residents are asked to call Mrs. John Sherman at GA-2-2808.

830 Enrolled in Novi

Enrollment in Novi's two schools is expected to "come pretty close" to anticipated figures by the fourth Friday in September.

In his report to the board of education last week Wednesday evening, Superintendent Tom Culbert noted that the total enrollment at that date was 830 youngsters—416 of whom were enrolled at Orchard Hills and 414 at Novi.

Although this total is approximately 10 short of the number projected in the budget, Culbert explained that the actual total probably will increase by about 10 when the official census is taken on the fourth Friday of this month.

Enrollment is up in all grades except in kindergarten where enrollment is off, he said. He noted that the teacher-pupil ratio is "pretty good".

Culbert was asked to present a detailed break-down of individual class loads at the next regular meeting of the board.

While elementary enrollment in Novi apparently appears to be giving administrators few immediate problems, the elementary enrollment situation in Northville is anything but tranquil.

According to a report last week by Dr. K. M. MacLeod, assistant superintendent, there are already 38 more elementary students than projected.
Main School Principal Harry Smith noted that six more elementary rooms would be needed next year. "A problem exists in kindergarten through third grade now, but there's no place to put additional teachers," Smith stated.

Concern over these comments prompted the Northville board of education to take these three steps toward correcting the condition:

1. Granted immediate authority to hire another first grade teacher for the Main street elementary school.

2. Agreed that board of education officers "must" be moved from the Main street school to provide another classroom before next year.

3. Proposed consideration of portable schoolrooms for possible use next year and until another elementary school can be constructed.

In another report to the board Wednesday, Culbert labeled the recent kindergarten screening program "quite successful."

Evaluation of some 20 youngsters was made in August, he said, and of these two will not enroll in kindergarten because they were found to be unready for school at this time. Similar findings were disclosed for others, he explained, but parents of these children "couldn't quite bring themselves to accept the results" so some will enter kindergarten on a "trial" basis.

Responding to a question by the board, Culbert said that reaction of parents to the screening program generally speaking was favorable.

(The screening program purpose is to assist parents in determining if their youngsters are mature enough to cope with the kindergarten learning process — even though they may be of legal age to begin school).

Culbert also noted that the school bus situation is now well in hand, although problems were encountered at the outset of school. He pointed out that heavier than usual bus loads to Northville high school required an additional bus after school.

Two new bus drivers have been hired. They are Mrs. William MacDermid, replacing Jim MacDermid, and Mrs.
Freda Preston, replacing Mrs.
Sally Smith.

More difficulty in getting buses under motion was encountered this year, he said adding that "repair jobs seem to come in batches."

Culbert said he intends to have one bus assigned to Jackson's Service for servicing, while five others will remain at Grand River Auto Service.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

How Long Should Shock Absorbers Last?

Next to brakes, the most important safety components of the modern car are undoubtedly the shock absorbers that keep the wheels gripping the pavement and prevent side sway. Yet shock absorbers are often the most neglected of all moving parts requiring intermittent service.

Perhaps because they are out of sight and the driver gets gradually used to the steady decline in their shock absorbing power, shock absorbers are often in astonishingly poor condition on cars otherwise well maintained.

It is foolish for a variety of reasons to neglect your shocks beyond the point where they lose their efficiency. The rough ride shakes your car loose, causing rattles, and your road control over your car goes down tremendously.

Like a rubber ball, tires are bounced off the pavement every time you hit a hole or obstruction. At high speeds, the bounce is of terrific force and puts the tire out of contact with the road for previous moments during which it is out of control. Shock absorbers take the "bounce" out of tires and maintain a constant contact with the pavement. In addition to much greater control, the ride is much smoother with side sway eliminated.

In some cases where a car is driven continuously over rough country roads, shocks are worn out at 10,000 miles.
At 20,000 it is a pretty safe bet that they should be rebuilt or replaced if they are going to give you the comfort and protection they were intended to render.

WHY ADVERTISE?

There's only one businesslike reason to advertise.
You can make more money WITH advertising than you can WITHOUT advertising. This means your advertising is an investment . . . not an expense.

HERE ARE FIVE WAYS ADVERTISING PAYS DIVIDENDS:

1. Advertising builds a desirable reputation for your business. You must sell your store as the place to buy before you can sell your merchandise.
2. Advertising attracts new customers to your store. Before you can really sell, you have to bring customers to your store. Advertising attracts new customers, brings back former customers . . . many more and much faster.
3. Advertising helps you meet and overcome the fierce competition in today's retailing world. Advertising helps you maintain and protect your business.
4. Advertising is informative . . . it tells your customers what's new.
5. Advertising increases profits by building volume. Competition tends to trim profits on each sale, so volume becomes the key to success. Advertising gets your selling message to enough people to build volume sales.

Car Hits Bike; Boy

Hurt in Novi

A nine-year-old boy suffered minor injuries Saturday when his bicycle collided with a car on 13 Mile road near Meadow-brook in Novi.

Bruised but otherwise uninjured was Douglas Robertson, 42492 Thirteen Mile road. According to police he failed to stop when leaving a driveway, colliding with a car driven by Carol Ann Secunda of 41414
Thirteen Mile road.

Novi police covered three other accidents over the weekend, none of which resulted in injury to motorists or passengers.

Other police action this past week included:

—Investigation of a report concerning a dog which killed six rabbits at the home of Leroy Montague of 26900 Beck road.

—Apprehension of two boys who were released to their parents after throwing stones on to cars at the Meadowbrook overpass on I-96.

—Recovery of an abandoned car, owned by a Detroit man, on Beck road from which a battery was stolen.

—Discovery of an attempted breaking and entering at the old Walled Lake Amusement Park boat house. A door had been forced open, but nothing was reported missing.

Northville Man Gets LIT Post

A Northville resident is among five new instructors appointed by Lawrence Institute of Technology, it was announced this week by President E.
George Lawrence.

He is Robert C. Restrict, 23, of 39640 Nine Mile road, Northville, who teaches electrical engineering. Restrict received his bachelor's degree from Lawrence Tech and this year received his master's from the University of Detroit.

He is married and has no children.

Rocks Trip Mustangs, 26-12

The visiting Plymouth Rocks took advantage of an inexperienced Northville eleven Friday night, cashing in on two Mustang miscues to win the season opener, 26-12.

Leading 13-6 in the second half, the Rocks covered a bad pass from center on an attempted punt and rambled 10 yards in two subsequent plays to score. Then they stormed to a TD after partially blocking another punt.

Although the Mustangs' first outing was a losing effort, a capacity crowd roared its approval when Northville tallied two lightning-quick touchdowns.

Co-captain Dave Cummings raced all the way — 76 yards — to the goal line to open the scoring. He took a first quarter pitch-out, swung wide around right end, and with Dave Kerr applying the key block, he out-raced two Rock defenders to pay dirt.

The Mustangs' other six pointer was of the gift variety. Bob Tuck, a 190-pound tackle, barged through the Plymouth line along with a host of teammates, and grabbed a blocked pass in the air. He "scampered" 34 yards into the end zone.

But Northville's last-ditch effort in the fourth quarter came a little too late.

Aside the two fortunate bounces of the football, Plymouth still stood tall as the superior ball club Friday night.

"They were better than last year," said Northville Mentor Ron Horwath. "I think they had a little more speed in the backfield. They're a good team."

The tape bares out Horwath's contention. The Blue and White amassed 203 yards, 127 rushing and 76 through the air. But more important, Plymouth controlled the ball for some 70 plays as compared to 44 for the Black and Orange.

Northville, on the other hand, racked up 141 yards rushing, 76 of those coming on Cummings' jaunt. Most of the remaining yardage, too, they gained in their own territory. In short, they were unable to sustain an attack.

Failure to get their passing game underway, however, largely crippled the home team's chances. All six of the Mustangs' passes fell to the ground.

Quick to diagnose the Mustangs' weak aerial attack, the Rocks closed in tight to bottle-up Northville's running plays. Making the visitors' job at least a little easier was the injury suffered by Cummings in the third quarter. He was taken to the hospital and released.

And although Freshman Doug Swiss performed adequately, the Mustangs missed Cummings' savvy.

The game started off in the usual manner with both teams playing hard-nosed football. Plymouth tipped its hat of superiority after two exchanges of the ball.

Starting on their own 20, the Rocks, led by backs Gary Grady, Roger Tobey and Dave Agnew, moved to the Northville 18. Northville held on fourth down, three yards to go.

Then, on successive plays, both teams scored. Cummings broke the ice on his long run. Grady then received the Mustang kick-off on the 35, churned through the back and orange defenders and sliced to his left to pay dirt.

Before the end of the first half, Plymouth tallied again. Taking a punt on their own 38, the Rocks marched down the field. Agnew with a 24-yard rush and Grady with a 15 yarder chewed up sizeable chunks of ground.

The two gifts sum up Plymouth's efforts in the second half.

A source of satisfaction to the coaching staff was the Mustangs' never-say-die attitude in the fourth quarter. Behind by 20 points, "we took the play away from them," noted Horwath. "We could have died, but we didn't."

Coach Mike Hoban of Plymouth showed his respect for the home team when he continued to play his first team even though Plymouth was way out front.

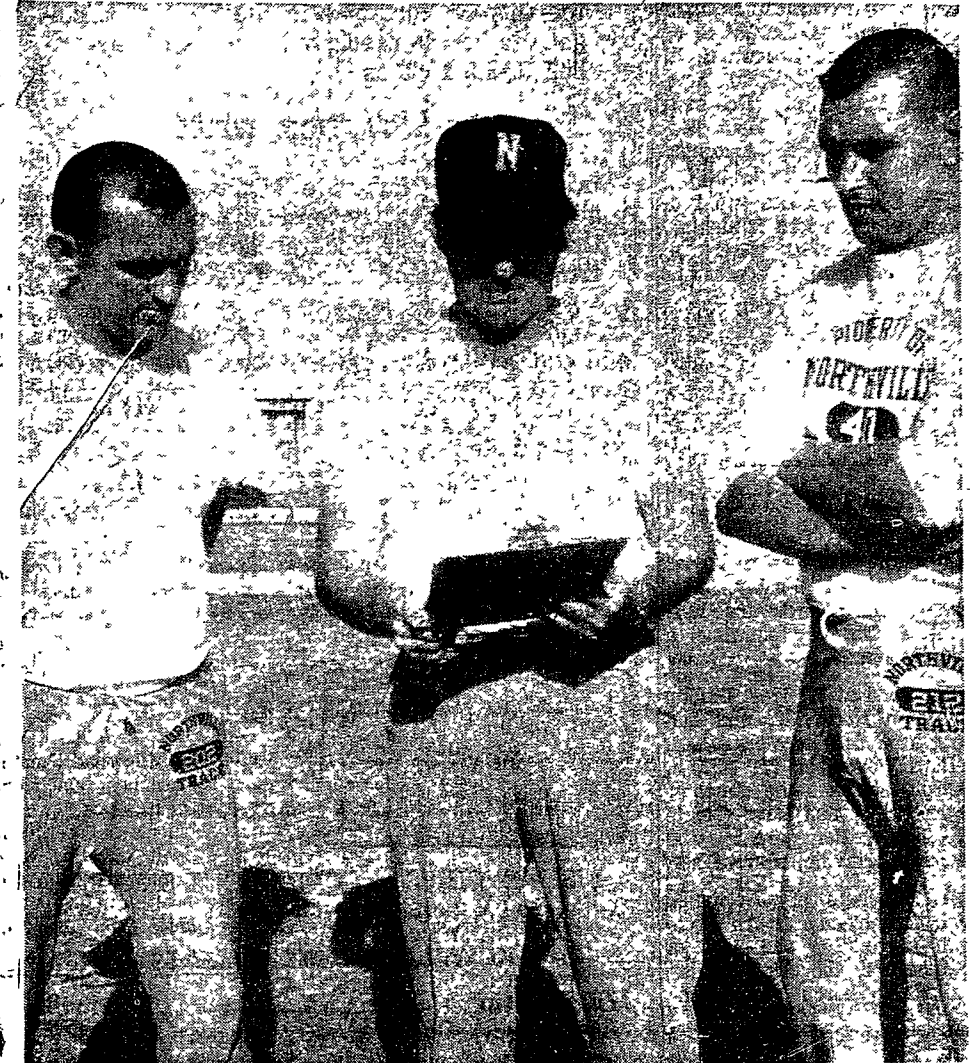

Cited for outstanding play were Co-captain Ron Rice and punt specialist, Dan Bishop. "Rice was all over that field, making tackles," beamed Horwath, "and Bishop did some exceptional punting."

Brightening the Mustangs' hopes of breaking into the win column tomorrow night against Clarenceville is the fact that Cummings has just a bruised foot. "It's painful, but we expect him to at least see limited action this Friday," Horwath said.

Hoping to compensate for last week's failures, the Mustangs are working on offensive blocking assignments and passing this week.

Friday, Northville will open Wayne-Oakland League play at Clarenceville. The game will get underway at 8 p.m.

Other W-O league teams fared far better than the Mustangs last week. Bloomfield Hills swamped Oak Park, 33-0; West Bloomfield dumped Waterford, 37-13; Milford raced by Avondale, 40-0; Brighton trounced South Lyon, 42-7, and Clarkston edged Oxford, 7-0.

CLARENCEVILLE NEXT UP — Disappointed but not discouraged by Northville's loss to Plymouth Friday, the Mustang coaches this week turned their attention to tomorrow's contest with Clarenceville — the first league game of the season. Checking pre-game notes are coaches (l to r) Dave Longridge, Ron Horwath and Alex Klukach.

Victories Piling Up For Angels

Angie's Angels moved a step closer to the coveted title trophy in the Wyandotte Invitational Slow Pitch Tournament this past weekend with two straight victories.

Only 16 of the 48 teams remain in the two-game elimination tourney.

Going into Saturday's contest with Sporty's Recreation, the Angels had one victory and one defeat under their belts. But a narrow, 5-3 triumph pushed the local softball squad into a 2-1 position for Sunday's clash with Angelo's Lyric Lounge, a previously unbeaten nine.

Angelo's fell beneath the booming bats of the Northville contingent, 14-4.

The Angels next game will take place tomorrow at Wyandotte with Alpine Realty.

Art Around Us

By Jessie Hudson

A recent "Gallery-Goers" column by Lillian Braun in the Sunday Free Press listed "art classes for everyone." One especially interesting course mentioned is a Family Workshop offered by the UCAE (University Center for Adult Education) in cooperation with the Detroit Institute of Arts.

fore he has the proper motor control to handle such an assignment. This experience either frustrates his creative instincts or, if he is successful, tends to give him a "button-down-mind" approach to art. It is better, Dr. Lowenfeld advises, to give the child a large black crayon and a big blank sheet of paper and let him make up his own people and animals.

In the Galleries:

Hartley-Powers Gallery, 116 E. Main street, Northville. Regular gallery artists now up some large but reasonably priced paintings on view this time, including some interesting landscapes in autumn tones. A special feature of this little gallery is the handcrafted furniture by Harold Hartley, poet-carpenter, carpenter-poet. These pieces, hewn from solid pine to individual requirements are equally at home with antique or modern interiors. Gallery hours are 12-6 weekdays, 12-9 Friday, 9-6 Saturday.

Joy Road Studios, 48234 Joy road, Plymouth, between Beck and Ridge. Fall painting classes starting under instructors Johnnie Crosby and Marion E. Sober. Craft classes with John Groot and Mary Littell. Little Gallery, 915 East Maple, Birmingham. Original drawings by great masters of the eight centuries from 1270 to 1963.

Coloring-books are another harmful influence, according to Dr. Viktor Lowenfeld, an authority in art-education of children. He believes that the rigid, "perfect", drawing of people and animals printed in coloring books sets up a stereotype image in the mind of the innocent crayoner. Later when he tries to draw he tries to match the image, is unsuccessful, and becomes certain that he can't draw at all. The rigid "stay within the line" approach of the coloring-book is usually offered to a child be-

Schoolcraft Expands Academic Programs

When Schoolcraft College opens on August 31, 1964, students will be assured of programs which will prepare them without loss of credit for transfer to all Michigan colleges and to the majority of colleges outside the state.

The Board of Trustees, extending its earlier approval of specific curricula leading to upper division work in some Michigan senior colleges and universities, has now approved similar curricula for other senior colleges. This Board action will permit Schoolcraft students to enter any business administration, liberal arts, pre-law, or pre-medical program as juniors.

Without undue addition of course offerings, Schoolcraft College will be ready to transfer its students to specific colleges and universities and private institutions of higher education, including church-related schools.

— In Justice Court —

Northville

A Plymouth man, involved in a personal injury accident Friday evening, was fined $35 and assessed $15 court costs here Monday on a charge of reckless driving.

Found guilty in the Northville court of Justice of the Peace Charles McDonald was Ronald L. Peterson of 175 South Mill street.

According to police, Peterson failed to stop in time to avoid hitting a motorcycle at the intersection of Northville and Seven Mile roads. The motorcycle driver, Glenn E. Scheniman of 26029 Whipple drive, Novi, suffered cuts and bruises and was treated at St. Mary's hospital in Livonia.

Scheniman was driving south on Northville road, Peterson west on Seven Mile. The latter was unable to stop for a stop sign, police said.

Other cases before Judge McDonald Monday included: Theodore Lindroth of Plymouth pleaded guilty to a charge of not having his driver's license on his person and also to speeding 45 mph in a 35 mph zone. He was fined $5 for the former, $15 for the latter. For failing to answer a summons issued in March he paid a $15 fine.

J. C. Dickey of Plymouth, charged with four offenses, pleaded guilty to one and not guilty to the other three. His case on the latter three, including reckless driving, failure to stop on command of an officer, and for not having a vehicle registration, comes up for trial Monday. He posted a $75 cash bond, pending trial.

Dickey pleaded guilty to failure to comply with restrictions on his license and was fined $10 and assessed $5 court costs.

Two Northville women in court Monday on a citizen's complaint of disturbing the peace received a warning from the judge not to repeat the offense. The charge was dismissed and the women were assessed $10 court costs. George Buckler of South South was found guilty of reckless driving and was fined $50 and assessed $5 court costs.

Novi

A Plymouth man was sentenced to five days in jail and fined $75 in the Novi court of Justice of Peace Emory Jacques this past week.

Jailed was Elgyan H. Callis, who pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing an unregistered .45-cal automatic gun with seven bullets in the clip.

Callis was arrested early last week after he was reported carrying the gun in the East Shore Drive Bar.

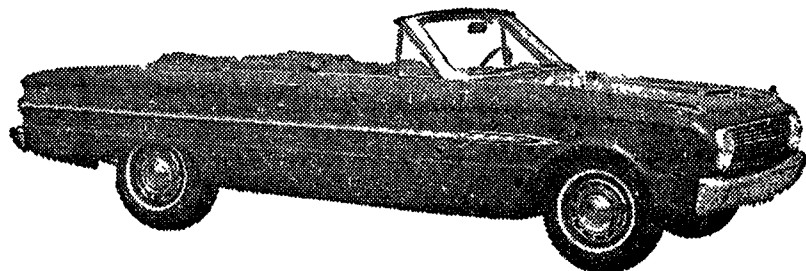

Other court action before Justice Jacques last week included:

James H. Craft pleaded innocent to a charge of reckless driving and a trial was set for today (Thursday) at 1 p.m.

A $35 fine and one year's probation was given to Thomas E. Crellin, who pleaded guilty to a charge of minor in possession.

Three others also pleaded guilty to similar charges. Nancy Alice Bantle was fined $10; Gerald D. Whitmore was fined $35 and placed on probation for five months; and Dorothy Ann Bantle was fined $10 and placed on probation for one year.

Speaker Slaps Apathy

200 Women Hear Talk By Negro on Civil Rights

Miss Lillian Anthony

The role of the Christian in the matter of Civil Rights was the theme of a talk in Northville last week Wednesday in a luncheon meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association. The speaker was Miss Lillian D. Anthony, woman's representative of the North Central Area for the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations of the United Presbyterian church.

Some 175 women attended a lunch, and nearly 200 were present in the sanctuary of the Presbyterian church for the afternoon meeting. Guests represented church women of five communities — South Lyon, Farmington, Milford, Plymouth and Northville.

In her talk, Miss Anthony spoke of the role of the Christian in the present struggle for equality for all. She appealed to the audience not to demean the Negro Christian brother or make him walk in the shadow of the white any longer.

Miss Anthony said it was her hope and prayer that a peaceful settlement of the civil rights matter is reached. If the Christian community continues its apathy toward the problem, violence will occur within the next two years, she predicted.

The speaker outlined several inter-cultural activities which she believes can be planned as a beginning to increased understanding.

A graduate of Lincoln university at Jefferson City, Missouri, and of Pittsburgh Xenia Seminary, Miss Anthony spent a three-year term teaching in Assuit, Egypt at the Pressly Memorial Institute.

One of the first two Negroes to serve her church in Egypt, she showed remarkable qualities of leadership in meeting the tense political situations which arose during her stay. During the summer of 1962, she served in Kenya with the Crossroads Africa program and visited mission fields of Southeast Asia.

In her church capacity, Miss Anthony works primarily with United Presbyterian women and young people in the area that she represents with special responsibility for interpreting the world mission of the Presbyterian Church.

LADDERS FRIGHTEN YOU? — They certainly don't bother Raymond Parmenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parmenter, 708 Baseline, who celebrated his 13th birthday on the superstitious Friday the 13th. What's more, Raymond's grandmother baked him cupcakes for his birthday with each one of them carrying a letter in the word's "happy birthday". Count the letters if you don't think this boy is brave.

LUCKY BUNNIES — Leah McCarthy, 19, of 19450 Clement, is a sophomore at MSU where she's majoring in nursing. That plus the fact that she loves animals spelled good luck for two little bunnies found abandoned by their mother near the McCarthy home. Leah brought 'em inside and fed 'em, but upon the advice of an expert put them back hoping the mother would return. Then a heavy rain fell as did the temperature. "They nearly froze, and their mother never came back," explained the sympathetic girl who is now nursing them back to life feeding them with a syringe.

Man then appropriates those things which 'eye hath not seen or ear heard'" (p. 458).

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

CKLW 800 KC

Sunday 9:45 a.m.

"If Your Life Has Been A Disappointment"

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

"Is your child lop-sided?"

This penetrating question is asked in a very striking folder entitled: "Weighed In the Balance."

In three successive illustrations the folder pictures a child being weighed in a balance.

The first scene shows a child on one scale and a hand placing a bottle of milk on the other scale. The caption is: "You care for your child Physically ... but that's not enough."

The second scene depicts the hand adding a school to the scale with the milk bottle. But still the scales are not balanced. The comment reads: "You care for your child Mentally ... Still not enough."

In the third scene the hand adds the weight of a Bible to the scale that holds the milk and the school; and now the scales are balanced. The appropriate words for this illustration are: "Do you dare neglect your child spiritually? Can you send your child into life Lop-Sided ... for that's what he is without Spiritual training ... Your child must know God in order to face Life with Peace and Courage."

Parents with a true sense of values enroll their children in Sunday school, and not only send them but set a good example by bringing them to Sunday school and attending Bible class and church themselves. They know that alone the Word of God can make us "wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus." (2 Timothy 3:15). They know that only the Bible can give us true direction for living.

But Sunday school is only once a week. So more and more parents, realizing the limited time that the Sunday school offers for religious instruction, give their children the opportunity of an even better balance by enrolling them in the Christian day school. In the Christian day school the study of the Bible is on the daily schedule, and all of the subjects are taught in the light of God's holy and eternal Word.

This is the balance that all see who want to educate the Whole person and who have eternity in focus.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO
September 20, 1962
—A special dedication ceremony will be held Monday morning when the new drive-in-office of Manufacturers National Bank is opened for the first time to the public. The modern facility is located at the corner of Hutton and Dunlap streets.
—The city council voted to execute an offer to purchase 104 feet of Main street property for public parking. The action was both hailed and condemned. While Mayor A. M. Allen called the proposal "money well spent", Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson termed it "foolish, too expensive" and unneeded.
—Remember now, the better team doesn't always win," lectured Northville high head grid Coach Ron Horwath during the half-time locker room session of last Friday's Northville-Plymouth session opener.
He pointed out that the Mustangs had outplayed the Rocks throughout the first half, and all they had to show for it was a 6-6 tie.
FIVE YEARS AGO
September 18, 1958
—A cool-headed assistant manager and prompt action by the Northville police department foiled an attempted $12,000 robbery at Manufacturers National Bank in Northville Friday.
Richard Aull Valpey, 35 and unemployed, chose the Northville bank as his means to obtain needed cash.
Despite a threat that a bottle he carried contained "nitroglycerine," Valpey didn't get past Assistant Manager Leo Kalota's desk.
Valpey held a bottle and a briefcase. The bottle, his note said, contained nitroglycerine and the briefcase a revolver.
—Novi voters — probably 1,100 strong — will go to the polls Monday to decide whether or not to adopt a proposed village charter. The vote is a climax to years of discussion and months of planning that has become the hottest issue of debate in the history of Novi.
Novi voters also will vote on a proposed solution to the school district's long-standing financial problem. Facing them will be a request to increase the district's operating millage by 2½ mills for each of the next five years.
—Flames swept through the Ray Honsinger barn at 54800 Eight Mile road last week causing damage estimated in the thousands of dollars.
FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
September 24, 1948
—Tonight, the Northville Mustangs play their second home football game of the season with Inkster Roosevelt.
—Mrs. David Hay, Jr. was re-elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary.
—About 175 youngsters daily are brought into Northville's schools via the T. P. Biddle coachlines.
—In the championship play-off of the Northville Twilight golf league last Wednesday evening at Bob-O-Lunk golf course, the Jenny Land shop team consisting of Merritt Meaker, Burt Balch, Fred Wick and Arnold Winkler defeated the Northville Men's Wear team. The latter foursome was made up of Jack Reynolds, Bob Menees, Dick Ambler and Bob Lyke.
—Botsford Inn is the place where the opening luncheon of the Northville Woman's Club will get underway. Mrs. Myrtle Labbitt, woman's editor of Radio Station CKLW, will speak to the group on "The Little People of Europe".
—Scott W. Cole, 130 West Cady street, has received notice that he is to report for extended active duty with the Army.
—Sunday, September 26 is the date that citizens of Northville will again set back their clocks one hour in harmony with surrounding areas to revert back to Eastern Standard Time.
—A series of petty larcenies and one breaking and entering case were reported to the police department.
—Mrs. Ray Marshall has been elected president of the Novi Mothers Club. Other officers are Mrs. William Ely, vice-president; Mrs. Ira Chessman, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Loynes, treasurer.
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
—Upon completion in two weeks of the WPA sidewalk project, a new entrance (also a WPA enterprise) will be constructed at the Rural Hill cemetery using a government allotment of $11,478 which was applied for by members of the village commission June 24, with the understanding that no taxes or assessments will be levied to cover the amount of federal funds expended on this project.
—GHOST LIGHT, the first novel to come from the pen of Miss F. Irene Fennell, superintendent of Sessions hospital, gives promise of coming off the presses in time for Christmas season circulation following the signing September 21 of a contract with the Pegasus Publishing company.
—The efficiency of the Northville fire department was increased Monday evening when the members of the village council authorized the purchase of an instant extinguisher for the fire truck, in addition to buying two small extinguishers for the first and second floors of the village hall.

I. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President William B. Crump.

Present: Members William B. Crump, Wilfred C. Becker, Robert H. Shafer, Edward F. Angove and James F. Kipfer. Absent: members Waldo T. Johnson and William B. Templeton.

Others present: Superintendent R. H. Amerman; Assistant Superintendent K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison; Principals F. Stefanski, D. Van Ingen, H. B. Smith and R. Spear; Mr. Karl Knott and Mr. Charles Ely, Jr., of the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

II. The minutes of the last regular meeting, held on August 12, and of a special meeting held on August 26, were read by the secretary. There were no additions or corrections and both sets of minutes were announced approved as read.

III. Communications:
1. Verbal expression of appreciation from Mr. Angove for flowers sent in memory of his father.

2. Detroit Board of Education, proposal for study regarding additional sources of local revenue for school districts.

3. Angerman-Heights Civic Association, contribution toward press-box for the stadium in the amount of $33.72.

IV. Report of the Superintendent:
1. Enrollments — Dr. MacLeod has prepared a report showing that we have a total of 2,261 children enrolled as of September 9th, divided as follows: Main Street Elementary School, 562; Amerman Elementary School, 535; Junior High School, 297; Senior High School, 867.

These figures indicate an increase of 150 students over our enrollment of one year ago, an increase of 151 students over our enrollment on June 14, 1963, and an increase of 32 students over the enrollment projected for this date on March 13, 1963.

In addition, Dr. MacLeod presented figures showing pupil-teacher ratio in all classes. The average for kindergarten through 6th grade, is 27.4; for junior high, 24.7; and for high school, 22.8. However, some crowded conditions exist, particularly in the 1st and 2nd grades. An extra 6th grade is also being operated this year.

In view of the facts presented by Dr. MacLeod, Superintendent Amerman recommended that another 1st grade room be established at once and a teacher employed. Mr. Kipfer moved this recommendation be accepted and acted upon immediately. Mr. Becker seconded the motion, which was carried.

2. Office Space — The board again discussed this at some length, in the light of the enrollment statistics prepared by Dr. MacLeod. It was agreed that there is an obvious need for the Board of Education to vacate the classroom it is currently using as an office, before the beginning of the next school year. The possibility of using the present Northville library building, was discussed again and it was decided that Superintendent Amerman shall write a letter to the City of Northville and the Township of Northville, joint owners of the library building, asking if the school may make an arrangement with them for use of the building as an office.

3. Adult Education — Dr. MacLeod requested an opinion from the board as to whether any adult education classes should be operated this year. He has received very few inquiries from the public and the last two years the classes have been very poorly attended.

It was moved by Mr. Angove, supported by Mr. Shafer, that no adult classes be operated this year, due to the lack of continuing interest in previous years. Motion carried.

4. Athletic Director — Superintendent Amerman has had a conference with Mr. Jones about some of the problems which are concerning him, and they have reached some measure of agreement. Mr. Jones will be glad to meet with the board whenever convenient, to go into some of these matters.

It was decided to invite Mr. Jones to meet with the board at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, September 16, in the board room.

Dr. MacLeod, Mr. Ellison and Mr. Stefanski were also invited to attend this meeting.

V. Report of the Secretary: Mr. Becker reported the following money received during August: Delinquent Taxes, $4,235.52; Loans, $300,000.00; State Aid, $53,950.00; Motor Fuel Tax Refund, $582.54; Miscellaneous, $255.88.

VI. Report of Treasurer: Dr. Johnson was absent, but the following statement of General Fund finances was presented by Mr. Amerman:

General Fund Balance at July 31, 1963 $82,020.03; Cash Received during August, 1963, $358,284.78; July Balance plus cash received in August, $420,304.81; Disbursements during August, $159,966.53; Balance at August 31, 1963, $260,338.28.

It was moved by Mr. Becker and seconded by Mr. Kipfer that the treasurer's report be accepted. Motion carried.

The Auditing Committee approved bills and payrolls for payment as follows: General Fund bills, $5,241.67; Payrolls, $67,424.31; Cafeteria bills, $130.81; Stadium Operation, $182.57; 1954 Debt Retirement Fund $25. It was moved by Mr. Angove and seconded by Mr. Shafer that the report of the Auditing Committee be accepted and bills and payrolls be paid. Motion carried.

VIII. Unfinished Business:

1. Spectator Buses — Mr. Ellison explained how he plans to use the buses of Northville Coach Lines. They will be used to carry student spectators to the first two away from home games, as an experiment. A charge of 50 cents per student will be made. A letter will be sent to parents, explaining the whole program and advising them that there will be no school supervision on these buses.

IX. New Business:
1. JC Band Program — Mr. Charles Ely, Jr. and Mr. Karl Knott, of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, appeared, to request permission to rent the stadium facilities on Saturday, September 28 to present a program of six bands, three from Canada and three from Michigan. After considerable discussion with the understanding that any balance would be rebated or collected from the firm or individual, were taken under consideration.

Supervisor Merriam called the Board's attention to the fact that nothing had been included in the charges for the township's administration costs and suggested that the board revise the resolution adding a percentage to cover this.

After considerable discussion, Robinson moved, supported by Lawrence, that Resolution No. 63-15 be adopted as written but to include 10% of $500 plus 10% of the price per foot to cover Northville Township administration costs.

Yeas: Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: Tyler. Motion carried.

Young moved, supported by Robinson, that Resolution No. 63-14 be adopted. Yeas: Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: Tyler. Motion carried.

3. Adoption of Resolution No. 63-16 pertaining to time payments of Interceptor Sewer Connections for existing homes.

Office receipts for August 1963 amounting to $1,897.80 and bills payable for $6,474.21 were reviewed.

Robinson moved, supported by Tyler, that the bills be paid. Motion carried.

The Building Inspector's monthly report was reviewed and accepted.

After discussion, the Planning Commission minutes of August 27, 1963, were accepted as written.

Correspondence:
1. Letter from Office of Civil Defense announcing their change of address to the Wayne County Training School grounds.

2. Letter from Michigan Liquor Control Commission to Domenico Perfetto denying him a one year Class C and SDM Licenses at 43300 W. Seven Mile, Northville.

Old Business:
1. Appointment of member to Board of Review: Clerk Young moved that Carl Johnson, long time resident of the township and well qualified to fill the vacancy, be appointed to fill the unexpired term of C. A. Lipa, who had resigned. Lawrence supported.

Trustee Tyler was of the opinion that there were other qualified residents in the township, that he would like to have another thirty days in order to present other residents for consideration by the board.

There being no urgency for the appointment, the motion and support were withdrawn. No action taken.

2. Resolution No. 63-14 rescinding motion made at a regular meeting held October 2, 1962 adopting fees for inspection of construction of Sanitary Sewer Installations and Resolution No. 63-15 asking for a deposit of $500 plus $0.75 per foot of Sanitary Sewer installed, the actual cost to be figured on a $60 per standard possible in its next effort to pass a bond issue or millage election. Board indicated its great appreciation of this offer.

5. Telephone on Football Field — Mr. Ellison advised the board that Dr. Achison has suggested it is advisable that a telephone be installed on the football field, in order that the parents of an injured player may be called. Mr. Ellison has obtained the costs from Michigan Bell, as follows:

Installation and season charge next year: $32.75. Season charge next year: $17.75.

It was moved by Mr. Angove that this installation be made. Motion was seconded by Mr. Becker and carried.

6. The Board asked Mr. Kipfer to convey the appreciation of the School to the Amerman-Heights Civic Association for their contribution toward a press box for the stadium.

X. Adjournment:
There being no further business to come before the meeting it was moved by Mr. Angove at 10:45 p.m. that the meeting be adjourned. Motion supported by Mr. Shafer and carried.

Wilfred C. Becker, Secretary

NORTHVILLE

By H. J. WILSON, Manager

OUTGUESSING A GROUP OF YOUNGSTERS on their way to or from school requires special alertness, special skill, on the part of every driver. That's why Michigan Bell's safe driver training program gets extra emphasis right now. Actually, traffic safety education is a year-round program with us, required of every employee whose job includes driving a company car or truck. It's one of the most important ways in which we try to be good citizens and good neighbors.

IN A STEW about lots of errands to do—when you have to stay home and cook a meal, too? If so, you need a handy kitchen extension phone! With a kitchen phone you can order groceries; call a TV repairman, check up on the youngsters at a neighbor's house, ask if that dress in the ad comes in blue... and still keep your eye on what's cooking. Besides, an extension phone adds just the right spot of color to your kitchen wall. Costs just pennies a day, after a small, one time installation charge. Call us now and order yours.

"FAST AND ACCURATE"—that's the motto of Michigan Bell's Long Distance Operators when they take down information concerning calls you place through them. They use an "electrographic pencil" that writes at the merest touch, glides swiftly to the next line. A specially designed card is used for recording the exact information for each call. Of course, in many areas, customers can dial most of their calls direct. But it's nice to know that your calls placed through the Operator, too, will go through swiftly and accurately.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Several weeks ago this column devoted itself to teen-age job hunters. With a survey report from a national magazine to support our suspicions we noted that many jobs go unclaimed because youngsters are either too choosy or unwilling to work hard.

"It just isn't so," replied one out-of-work teenager in a letter to the newspaper. What's more the writer, a girl, noted what was being done in Plymouth to help unemployed youngsters.

I did some checking and discovered that Plymouth — and Livonia — have created "Youth Employment Services" that have become highly successful in a very few months.

There was no connection between the two community efforts. Livonia set out to find summer jobs for teen-agers. Plymouth was concerned with school drop-outs and recent high school graduates without work.

In Plymouth the employment service was an outgrowth of the YMCA program. It's supported by volunteers and funds from its local community chest.

I talked to Mike Hoben, Plymouth's high school football coach who was hired to run the employment service. Since July 5 when the service began, he's had 290 job applications and has placed 190 youngsters. Wages earned since that date total more than $40,000.

It's been quite an experience for Hoben and the job has advanced far beyond the routine of job-hunting.

It has served as a means for youngsters at loose ends to spill out their problems. They talk to Hoben and a youth commission of adult volunteers. The group has no authority or official standing — that's why youngsters are more willing to turn to it for guidance, says Hoben.

"We've prevented a potential murder and a suicide and have been the difference between failure and success to many youngsters," Hoben reports.

They're offering encouragement in many ways. They have found an $880 per month job for one unemployed 19-year-old. Others are earning 65 cents per hour plus tips waiting on table. But they are off the streets, earning money, achieving a sense of purpose in life with a goal for a more meaningful future.

Many jobs have been unfilled because the youngsters cannot qualify. In these instances special classes are being offered. No interest loans help the youngsters to take night school classes in occupational English, shop and other practical business courses.

It serves industry, the community and the youth. It subtracts rather than adds to the taxpayer's burden. It calls for effort but not necessarily dollars to perform.

I have talked briefly with Northville School Superintendent Russell Amerman about the possibilities of a similar effort locally. He notes that the creation of a re-training program centered around the new Schoolcraft college is already being considered. And he was anxious to discuss the employment service program for the community.

School Expansion

Every fall I become interested all over again in the continuing expansion of our school system, affecting every part of our country. Being an economist, I am particularly fascinated by the impact of the "school explosion" on many different business fields.

Back-to-school Sales Bonanzas

It is estimated that this season will see approximately 50,000,000 youngsters going to school, some for the first time, most of them moving up the education ladder. Practically every state in the union is spending more and more money on public schooling, trying desperately to keep up with the enormous increase in the total of young citizens. Think what these unending expenditures mean to dealers in cement, stone, bricks, steel, glass, gravel, tile, lumber and a wealth of additional items involved in building, furnishing, and operating schools.

At this season, department, discount, variety and chain stores are crammed with mothers and their youngsters buying a vast variety of back-to-school essentials: Pencils, notebooks, typewriters, shoes, raincoats, dresses, suits, sportswear, and many more. In fact, back-to-school buying is the third-largest merchandising event for such stores — exceeded only by Christmas and Easter sales. This year, purchases in the field are topping those of last year by approximately 5%, reflecting the climb in consumer spendable income. My studies of population trends show that there will be no letdown in school building or in the purchase of school supplies for many years to come.

Ripples Widening Out

As a matter of fact, I look for the climb in school costs to have a steadily more powerful effect on business in general over the years ahead. One line that has been radically changed by the swift growth of schoolchildren is textbooks.

This used to be a relatively conservative business, but now the textbook companies have to run full tilt all the time to keep up with the need not only for more books but for new books with a modern slant. Educational processes have been changed greatly, and new teaching approaches are generally employed. This means a great boom for textbook houses, and they expect sales for the current fiscal year to top last year's by 10-20%.

Recent reports show that schoolroom furniture has become a tremendously important business as a result of the big splurge in school construction. Definite figures are hard to come by, but best estimates indicate that companies which make school chairs, desks, tables, etc., are selling about $100,000,000 worth annually. Special emphasis is placed upon movable furniture since the trend today is toward classes of varying sizes and special groups for different categories of study.

So wide are the needs of the nation's school system that a tremendous number of products are absorbed, either directly or indirectly. So I advise my readers who manufacture goods to look into the possibility of selling them to those constructing, furnishing, or running schools. Many services may also find markets in this important field.

What About the Years Ahead?

More billions are going to be spent in the years just ahead, and those on the inside track will get the largest slices of this pie. It will be worth while in many instances to watch for school building intentions. Also, get to know your municipal officials and the contractors most likely to land the job of putting up new school buildings. If you are too shy to do this, you will simply watch others walk away with the markets that you might easily have shared.

Equality Emphasis

Official state policy on civil rights is that no citizen should be denied education, employment or other opportunities because of his race, religion or creed.

This policy, a long-standing one, has been spelled out in detail a number of times in recent years. The emphasis throughout the country this year on civil rights has again brought Michigan's policy to the forefront.

Gov. George Romney reminded state agencies of this policy when he first took office. A short time before that, former Gov. John B. Swainson re-issued a statement of policy to all agency heads. Prior to that, long-time Gov. G. Mennen Williams emphasized his support of the equal opportunities policy.

Activities in the South recently prompted the leaders of the two major political parties here to appoint new human relations coordinators to improve the civil rights picture in Michigan.

At the same time, the state Attorney General announced a plan to implement the civil rights provisions of the new Constitution, taking effect January 1.

On the education front, Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett formed a state committee on equal educational opportunity.

The committee's job is to determine where improvements might be needed to insure that each Michigan citizen gets his full civil rights in education.

It might be observed, that these recent efforts can only serve their intended purpose if continued on a long-term basis. One-shot efforts in the field of civil rights would be of little value if their purpose was just to "win friends and influence people."

In civil service in Michigan, equal employment opportunities are a reality. Capacity for a position is the only factor taken into account.

In at least one other governmental unit, civil rights are being emphasized to contractors who deal with the state. The State Highway Department issues a letter each year at the beginning of the construction season.

Commissioner John C. MacKie informs contractors wishing to bid on state projects that they should hire on the basis of ability. A contractor who takes into consideration other factors could be disqualified from bidding on state work.

Continuing, unsung efforts of this type appear to be those which will further the state policy in the long run.

Concentration on civil rights this year brought forth one other interesting point: a paradox of sorts.

When school superintendent Lynn M. Bartlett was asked how many Negro teachers were employed in various school systems, the paradox brought about by just a few years passing came into focus.

In past years, applications for various jobs including those in most school districts contained a blank where "race" was listed. Some years back, however, a hue and cry about racial discrimination prompted school districts and many other employers to leave this off job application forms.

Thus, when Bartlett was asked to count Negro teachers it became a large task to survey school districts, which in turn had to check each school.

The simple line on a job application would have eliminated this extra census, but the desires of the Negro community a few years ago had been not to have this designation available.

An "Operation Bootstrap" appears to be in order among Michigan's and the nation's youth.

Within this state alone, an estimated 10,000 young people joined the long list of high school dropouts this fall. About double this will probably be added as the school year progresses. Past experience shows the persons on this list often are also on the unemployment rolls.

As in most experiences of life, one learns by his mistakes. For the school dropout, however, the lesson often comes too late to correct the error of cutting off education. A youth determined to leave school most likely will have a deaf ear to a parent or older friend who attempts to convince him otherwise.

Statistics indicate that young people are unemployed at about three times the rate for the total work force, while some jobs geared for young people go unfilled because of the lack of trained applicants.

A concentrated effort by youth leaders in the schools might well be able to spot the signs of disinterest before a dropout is recorded and convince the individual that it is to his best interest to remain in school.

Her Name's Legitimate

She bounced into the living room carrying the small rocker. "Yes sir, young man, I'm legitimate and I've got the proof to boot."

Coming from a 77-year-old woman, talk of being legitimate was a little staggering, especially since this little gal conversed and flitted about the house like an attractive woman toying with age 50 or even much less.

But then Maude Belva Billman of 1975 Marilyn isn't just any ordinary senior citizen. She packs more energy in her little frame than do most men 20 years her junior. She and her husband are still very active in the real estate business.

Until a month ago, Maude Belva had lived 77 active years with the belief that she was named by an aunt in honor of the first woman candidate for the United States Presidency. "My mother," she explained this past week, "often said great things were expected of me because of my famous middle name. And my aunt was so proud that the family let her name me that she presented me with this lovely little rocking chair."

That was last month. Then Maude Belva read an article in a Detroit newspaper which indicated that plans were underfoot to nominate Margaret Chase Smith, the only female United States Senator. Senator Smith, who hails from Maine, could then become the first woman candidate in the history of the United States, the article stated.

"You can imagine my surprise and concern. Apparently, it seemed I'd been living under false pretenses all those years. I'd never bothered to check into the thing before. I was just too busy."

A daughter also voiced concern and telephoned the newspaper. She was told that indeed there never before had been a woman candidate for President.

The discovery continued to disturb her. If the report was true, where in the world did her aunt dig up the unusual name, "Belva"? Finally, she decided to settle the matter "once and for all."

Off went a letter to Senator Smith. Back came replies, along with reproductions of biographies taken from the Library of Congress. Apparently Margaret Chase Smith was as interested in the matter as Maude Belva, because the Senator took the trouble to underline sentences of particular interest.

Under the name Belva Ann Bennett Lockwood (1830-1917) was this interesting sentence: "She was the first woman candidate for president of the United States, receiving twice, in 1884 and 1888, the nomination of the National Equal Rights party of the Pacific Coast ('How I Ran for the Presidency,' NATIONAL MAGAZINE March 1903)."

Like Maude Belva, Belva Ann was a remarkable woman. The first woman admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, she devoted much of her life to the struggle for women's rights.

Internationally famous for her promotions of women's rights, temperance, peace, and arbitration, Belva Ann in 1886 was a delegate from the State Department to the International Congress of Charities, Correction, and Philanthropy; a delegate to the Universal Peace Congress in Paris in 1889; a member of the International Peace Bureau in Berne; and a member of the Nobel Peace Prize nominating committee.

A life-size oil portrait of Belva Ann was unveiled by the women of the District of Columbia in 1913, and this portrait, according to the biography, is now in the gallery of the National Museum.

Senator Chase also sent along information pertaining to a Victoria Clavin Woodhull (1838-1927), who interestingly was nominated for the Presidency by the Equal Rights party in 1872.

All of which brought me to this natural question: Would you like to see a woman become President of the United States?

"Certainly. And some day — probably not in my time — but some day we'll have one."

Maude Belva, who is wearing an extra big smile and carrying more bounce to the ounce these days, is dead serious too. So, Senator Smith, if ever you need a campaign manager ...
