

Community Saddened by Death of President

Schools Close, Business Halts

When an assassin's bullets stilled the heart of President John F. Kennedy Friday afternoon in Dallas, Texas, the nation's heart stopped too.

A wave of disbelief, then sorrow blanketed every community.

In Northville, Novi and Wixom, shoppers huddled around radios in the stores. When the President's death was announced there were sighs and then silence.

Business stopped.

In the schools students sat still at their desks and listened.

Northville Assistant Principal LaGene Quay was choked with emotion when he made the announcement over the public address system.

"Nobody spoke. They just sat there. Some had tears in their eyes. We had a test scheduled, but it was futile to go ahead," said a 12th grade teacher.

"We were all stunned; no one could concentrate," commented Superintendent of Northville Schools Russell Amerman.

Within minutes flags throughout the area were lowered to half-mast. No one had to be asked. It was automatic.

"I happened to hear it on the police department radio," said Novi police dispatcher Lawrence Fest. "It's always noisy. Then over the air someone said 'Tell your chief the President was shot. Who?' Then everything went silent."

Tom Mazanec of Northville, member of Bell Telephone's public relations staff, said reaction was instantaneous. Telephone equipment clicked along normally, then suddenly everything broke loose, he said.

The following proclamation was issued by the mayor of Northville, by the supervisor of Northville township, and by the president of the Northville school board:

In accordance with the proclamation of President Johnson, we join in urging all citizens of our community to observe Monday, November 25, as a day of mourning for our late, beloved, President John F. Kennedy. Consequently, all local schools and city and township offices will be closed all day Monday and only those government operations essential to public health and safety will be performed.

It is further suggested that all local businesses, to the extent practicable, be closed during the hours of 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Local churches have made arrangements to permit citizens to pay their respects and reverence to the memory of our late President in their respective places of worship.

Novi Village President Joseph Crupi issued a formal statement:

President Crupi said:

"The shocking tragedy that stunned the nation and the world on Friday of last week was an equally heavy blow to all citizens of Novi.

"Officials of the Village of Novi, its department heads and its employees join with me, as do all the citizens of our community, in expressing our most profound sympathy to the family of our late President John F. Kennedy.

"Our prayers go out for the man who must now take up the reins of our nation in this mournful hour. May God give him guidance and strength to give meaning to the ideals that make America 'the land of the free and the home of the brave.'"

By proclamation of the state board of education all schools in Michigan were closed Monday.

The mayor and the city council of Northville sent the following telegram to Mrs. John F. Kennedy:

"We extend to you and your family on behalf of the citizens of Northville, Michigan our deepest sympathy. May you have strength in knowledge that President Kennedy's efforts in behalf of a better America have not been in vain."

On Sunday churches throughout the area set aside periods for silent prayer, included prayers in their services, or held memorial services. Then on Monday doors were open throughout the day at some churches, and some opened their doors during the hours when services were being conducted for President Kennedy.

Bells at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church tolled 46 times at noon Monday in token of each year of President Kennedy's life.

The unexpected tragedy upset many plans of local area residents to attend football games at East Lansing and at Ann Arbor. Fans were preparing to leave for the games when announcement of postponement was made.

Because many movie theaters were closed Friday night, the Ohio State university football team — slated to battle the Wolverines in Ann Arbor on Saturday — came to Northville to see a

Thanksgiving Services Set in Area Churches

As the nation mourns the death of President Kennedy, it also prepares to give thanks for its many blessings this week in traditional Thanksgiving church services.

Congregations in Northville, Salem, Novi and Wixom will offer prayers and hymns of thanks at special services either Wednesday evening or on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

Northville Presbyterians and Methodists will meet jointly as in the past years for a Union Thanksgiving service scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. S. D. Kinde, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon, and the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will conduct the worship service.

The First Baptist Church of Northville plans to hold worship services from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Thursday. The Rev. Robert Spradling, pastor, will deliver a sermon entitled, "Praise and Prayer." Communion also will be held. Midweek prayer and Bible study will be held on Wednesday evening as usual.

A special Mass will be held at 8 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. According to the Reverend Fr. John Wittstock, a collection will be taken at the service for St. Vincent DePaul Society which gives money to poor and needy of the parish. Throughout the week, he said, clothing will be collected for needy overseas.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Northville will hold a worship service beginning at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday. According to the Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of the church, the sermon topic will be taken from Psalm 103. It will be titled "Bless The Lord, Oh My Soul."

Church music will be sung at the Lutheran service. The senior choir will sing an anthem titled "Sing to the Lord of Harvest," and the junior choir will sing "Now Thank We All Our God."

In Novi, a Thanksgiving Union Service will be held at the First Methodist Church of Novi, with participation by Willowbrook Community Church, the Church of The Holy Cross (Episcopal), the Orchard Hills Baptist Church, and the New Hudson Methodist Church.

The sermon for this joint service at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday will be delivered by the Rev. Peter Tonella, vicar of the Church of The Holy Cross.

Reverend Paul Barnes has announced that a Thanksgiving service will be held Wednesday evening at Novi Baptist Church beginning at 7:30 p.m. The service originally was planned to be a thankful, joyous one, but because of President Kennedy's death it was changed, Pastor Barnes said. Instead church members will read aloud their favorite Scripture and be asked why it is their favorite.

The First Baptist Church of Wixom will hold services at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday evening, preceded by a 6:30 p.m. pot-luck supper.

Praise, prayer and Communion will highlight the candle-light service at the Baptist Church in Wixom. Special music will include a solo by Mrs. Ray York and a presentation by Mrs. William Craig.

Salem Federated Church will place special emphasis on Thanksgiving at its regular Wednesday night services at 7:30 p.m.

The Full Salvation Union church on Eight Mile road begins a four day series of meetings with a missionary emphasis with 11:00 a.m. services on Thanksgiving Day.

P. John Thomas, a missionary from India, will be the principal speaker at the service Thanksgiving Day and for the meetings to follow on Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the same hour.

South Lyon Protestant Churches will join in a joint Thanksgiving service Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the First United Presbyterian Church, with the First Baptist Church and the First Methodist Church participating.

Reorganizing Plan For Counties Eyed

A county reorganizational measure, authored in Wayne but written to cover counties throughout the state, probably will come to a vote of the Wayne county board of supervisors early next month.

Any hope its authors may have had for a vote at this week's regular supervisors' meeting was squelched in Northville last Thursday night, when out-county supervisors met at the Wayne County Training School.

While a majority of the Wayne county supervisors attending the meeting unofficially favored the general tenor of the measure, it was decided to delay a formal vote so that board members might first discuss it with their fellow city and township officials.

Northville Mayor A. Malcolm Allen and Northville Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam were present at the meeting.

A preliminary draft of the measure (called proposed enabling legislation), which has been prepared by 26 chairmen of the supervisors' standing committees, was introduced and discussed section by section.

Before supervisors discussed specific sections of the measure, Detroit Councilman Ed Connor, chairman of the supervisors' reorganizational committee, explained reasons for considering the measure and outlined briefly the steps taken to write it.

Among other things, he pointed out that:

1. The measure is a suggestion to the State Legislature for legislation enabling counties of Michigan to "decide what kind of government we should have on the county level."

2. The measure is permissive only; it is not a charter, nor does it mean — if enacted by the Legislature — counties must reorganize. Rather, it permits the counties to do so if they so desire.

3. The measure was not written exclusively for the benefit of Wayne county. Its provisions were made broad enough to encompass all counties, although, admittedly, they will satisfy the needs of Wayne.

4. The measure, if adopted by the Wayne county board of supervisors, needs the support of other Michigan counties before it can be introduced effectively at Lansing.

5. The measure, if enacted by the Legislature in the January session — or possibly at the special session in December — cannot possibly go into effect for at least two years due to the ground rules provided in the new Constitution.

Specifically, the proposed legislation would permit counties to adopt a charter, thereby becoming home-rule governments subject, of course, to state statutes. Its purpose is to give counties power to strengthen their governmental structures and, as in the case of Wayne county, help solve critical fiscal problems.

The measure first provides for the establishment of a charter commission, either by the decision of the board of supervisors of a county, or upon petition of five-percent of the qualified electors of a county.

The commissioners are to be elected by the people. Once the commission has adopted a county charter, the charter must be submitted to the governor for approval.

Few out-county supervisors questioned the proposed mechanics for adopting a charter at Thursday's meeting. They questioned instead the permissive provisions under the charter, particularly where county, city and township jurisdictions appeared to conflict.

For example, this provision drew the greatest attention: "Any county charter adopted under the provisions of this act shall provide: (G) For the power and authority to adopt, amend and repeal any ordinance, for any county purpose which concerns the public health, safety and general welfare of the county, which is not specifically prohibited by state law, and which is deemed essential to implement the

Winter Tax Notices Enroute to Residents

City and township taxpayers are receiving their annual "greetings" this week in the form of school, county and township tax notices.

The winter taxes are payable beginning December 1.

More than 1,500 real and personal tax bills were sent out to township taxpayers while the city sent out a total of 1,737 envelopes.

Tax rates in the city and township vary slightly, mainly because the township bill includes a 1.21 mill levy for the township tax. City residents pay their city taxes in the summer.

Specifically, the Northville township equalized millage is 40.70, up from 38.92 last year because of the 1.21 mill levy for Schoolcraft college.

The township tax breaks down like this: Schools — 29.97; County — 8.31; Township and Community College — 1.21 mills each.

Township Treasurer A. M. Lawrence will be available for payment of taxes in the Manufacturers National Bank offices in Northville each Tuesday and Friday beginning December 3.

This year for the first time township taxpayers may pay their bills directly to bank tellers any day during regular banking hours.

The total tax levy in the township is approximately $445,000, Treasurer Lawrence reports.

In the city the tax levy varies between the Wayne and Oakland county portions. In Wayne county the rate is 39.68 mills. In Oakland it is 37.90 mills.

In the city, too, residents will be paying the 1.2 (equalized) mill levy for the community college for the first time.

Equalized valuation of the city is now $13,310,215 with $9,867,858 in the Wayne county portion and $3,442,357 in Oakland county.

Collectible school and county taxes in the city equal $431,288.58 with $323,786.90 in the Wayne county portion and $107,501.58 in the Oakland county portion.

City residents may pay their tax bills at the city clerk's office in the city hall during regular office hours.

Santa to Arrive Here Friday

Santa Claus is coming to town!

The jolly old fellow will arrive in royal style aboard a horse-drawn sleigh. Bob Williams and members of his high school band will provide music for the event.

Specifically, Santa is scheduled to arrive at 1 p.m. Friday to officially kick-off the Christmas season. His appearance is being sponsored by the Northville Retail Merchants Association with assistance by the Jaycees.

After a few "ho-ho-hos," music and singing Santa will settle down at his official headquarters at E-Jay Lumber Mart, facing the Main street parking lot, where he'll greet youngsters individually and give each one a candy treat.

Northville's business district will turn on its Christmas lights Thanksgiving night. And most stores will begin staying open evenings until 9 beginning Friday.

Santa's Northville schedule for the Christmas season is as follows: Friday, November 29 — 1-4 and 6-8 p.m.; Saturday, Nov. 30 — 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.; Friday, Dec. 6 — 6-8 p.m.; Sat., Dec. 7 — 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.; Fri., Dec. 13 — 6-8 p.m.; Sat., Dec. 14 — 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.; Fri., Dec. 20 — 6-8 p.m.; Sat., Dec. 21 — 12-4 and 6-8 p.m.; and Mon., Dec. 23 — 12-4 and 6-8 p.m.

Post Office Announces Yule Hours

Special Christmas season hours were announced this week for the Northville post office by Postmaster Leland Smith.

On Saturday, December 14 service windows will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday, December 15 from noon to 4 p.m.; Monday, December 16 through Friday, December 20 from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.; and on Saturday, December 21 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be no window service on Sunday, December 22 and after that date the office will resume regular hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Postmaster Smith reminds persons using Christmas stickers to place them on the back of cards and packages. He also urged residents to try to mail all presents by December 10 and cards for out of town delivery by December 15. Locally addressed Christmas cards should be mailed a week before Christmas, the postmaster stated.

GOING UP — Foundry Flask & Equipment company's new $185,000 addition is well underway on Cady street in Northville. Company President J. A. Weber said this week that it would be ready for use February 1, but that he expected to move some equipment inside by January 1. The Foundry Flask expansion was a project of the Northville Area Development Corporation with area residents purchasing some $27,500 in debentures.

Town Hall Speaker

Warns of Communism

A warning, charged with the emotion of a man who admits some responsibility for Cuba's loss to Communism, was aimed at the United States here Thursday in the second Town Hall lecture of the current season.

Substituting for his associate Alexander Rorke, Jr., who is missing in a plane believed down somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico, Major Pedro Diaz Lanz said he sees a parallel between Cuba's fate and a trend toward dictatorship in the United States.

The Town Hall speaker urged citizens of this nation to alert themselves to the danger signals of communism by taking example from the Communist take-over in Cuba.

Major Lanz admitted that he, like millions of other Cubans, failed to recognize the Communist menace until after it was too late to prevent it from enveloping the island. He organized and became commanding chief of the Rebel Air Force — supplying weapons to Fidel Castro in the Sierra Maestra Mountains. Twice his plane was bombed and destroyed in the mountains, and he stayed for three months fighting with Castro's guerrillas in the hills.

On January 1, 1959, when Castro took over, Major Lanz became commanding chief of the Cuban Air Force. As the days went by he found evidence to support his fears that Castro was giving over the island to the Communists.

When they started pro-Communist indoctrination in the armed forces, Major Lanz resigned his commission and publicly told why.

Castro immediately branded him a "traitor," and Lanz was forced to flee his homeland. It is difficult to convince the United States people of the imminent danger of communism in this country, he said, "but we can alert them. I wish I knew 10 years ago what I know now. But it's too late. But it's not too late for you. 'You are going that way. Maybe you don't realize it. Look at my burned hands — if you think I'm lying just put your hand in the fire.'" federal government is one sign of the trend toward dictatorship. This and other signs of dictatorship here, plus the apathy of United States citizens in recognizing the Communist threat, makes this country a breeding ground for communism.

Lanz contended that the growing centralization of power in the hands of the U.S.

He attacked groups which interfere with men like himself who want to rid the nation of Communists.

Particularly, he voiced disgust with the treatment given General Walker for his fight against communism. Discrediting General Walker by questioning his mental stability is an admitted technique of the Communists, he emphasized.

Lanz suggested that the fight against communism is curtailed by some top United States officials. Although he did not name them, he urged citizens to check carefully the background and the record of all candidates before going to the polls.

Only by careful checks can the voter know that the candidate is dedicated to combatting communism, he said, pointing out that the voter ought not rely upon the judgment of others but rather dig out the facts for himself.

Don't be duped by those who softpedal the threat of communism or who talk of "co-existence," he warned. He ridiculed attempts to be "buddy-buddy" with Communists who really "are giving us a choice of how we want our necks cut. They want you to cooperate for your own destruction."

Furthermore, Lanz added that the so-called ideological differences between China and Russia merely represent struggles for power. Both are still determined to destroy democracy.

Concerning his own role in the fight against communism, the major said his efforts have been curtailed by officials of this government. In fact, he added, attempts are being made to oust him from the United States because of his outspoken position.

He pleaded for permission to carry on his fight against Castro and communism in Cuba. "Why do they stop me? Just let me fight."

Outline Care For Turkey

Since the first Thanksgiving Day in 1621, turkey has become the American family's symbol of thankfulness for a bountiful harvest.

The following rules for proper care of your turkey will assure quality and flavor.

1. Thaw a frozen bird in the refrigerator for 2 to 4 days, or under cold running water for 2 to 6 hours. Don't thaw a bird at room temperature.
2. If you stuff the turkey, do so just before roasting. Never stuff the bird and partially cook the day before eating. Warm stuffing is an ideal place for food spoilage bacteria to grow.
3. Don't freeze a stuffed bird, either before or after cooking. This process is done commercially but is not recommended for home use.
4. Be sure to put the turkey, stuffing and gravy in the refrigerator within one hour after Thanksgiving dinner.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

THANKSGIVING DAY opens "turkey season" as many, many families pause this week to count their blessings. The pause will be brief however, as the holiday shopping rush begins Friday. It begins officially in Northville as the colored lights on the evergreen swags in the downtown area are turned on Thursday night.

Thursday will be a family day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Eaton, 365 Eaton drive, as their son and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Eaton, and their four children come from Howell.

At the William E. Davis home, 352 Orchard drive, sons Billy and Gary will rejoin the family for the holiday. Billy will be here from Andover school in Boston, and Gary, from Western Reserve in Ohio. Gary had dropped in on his parents briefly earlier this month when Western Reserve competed in a track meet at Cranbrook school.

Mrs. Harvey Whipple, 46280 West Main street, is expecting her daughter and son-in-law, the Edwin A. Browns, and son David from their home in Avon Lake near Cleveland for the Thanksgiving holiday.

A pre-Thanksgiving visit is being paid Dr. and Mrs. Harold L. Wright, 19850 Westhill road, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beerbower, who are to return to their family and new home in Dayton, Ohio, Tuesday.

AT MEADOWBROOK COUNTRY CLUB on Thursday members will be able to eat their turkey at the club but snack on it later at home, if they wish. Individual turkeys have been ordered for many family groups. What isn't feasted upon will be boxed and sent home with the family.

Among those with holiday reservations are the Lewis Alexanders, Jan Reefs, William N. Davies (with a table for 16), Frank Angles (13 in this group), and Mrs. John Hettche, who will dine with friends.

The club also is making plans for its traditional children's party to be held the Sunday preceding Christmas.

EVERYONE IS INVITED to browse and buy at the annual "Holly Mart" bazaar to be given by the WSCS of Northville Methodist church Tuesday and Wednesday in the fellowship hall.

Tuesday the "Holly Mart" will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Bolton and Mrs. Fred Hicks. # Distinguished Guests Visit Dyers Reunions with family and friends are carrying out the true tradition of Thanksgiving this week at the Brookland Farms home of Dr. and Mrs. H. Lorne Dyer.

It is coincidence, however, which brings their distinguished guests to the Detroit area at this time.

Dr. Clifton Nelson, a medical classmate of Dr. Dyer's, and his family will be Thanksgiving guests before returning to Tanganyika, East Africa.

Dr. Dyer's brothers-in-law and sisters, Dr. and Mrs. Neil McKay of Superior, Wisconsin and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson of London, Ontario, were here last weekend as an original composition by Dr. McKay was played at the 12th annual composers' forum at the Detroit Institute of Musical Art.

Dr. Nelson is to show slides of East Africa at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist church in Plymouth. He has been serving at the Kola Ndota hospital in Shinyanga Tanganyika, to which he and his family will be returning for a new five-year term.

Kola Ndota hospital is a teaching hospital, serving Indians, Arabs, Europeans and Chinese as well as thousands of Africans. Dr. Nelson reports that the growing trust in the hospital staff is indicated in a 45 per cent increase in surgical cases during the past five years.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson and their young son and daughter are spending a one-year furlough as Dr. Nelson takes graduate medical training and travels with the Christian Medical society to lecture. He has just spoken at a conference in Canandaigua, New York, and is to appear at an International Conference of Medical Missions at Wheaton college next month.

Dr. Nelson recently traveled 10,000 miles in East Africa with a medical research team headed by Dr. Burkitt, whose subsequent reports at the American College of Surgeons convention on virus-caused cancers (known as Burkitt tumors) were widely carried in news releases this fall. Dr. Nelson's slides show examples of these tumors and show how medicine is practiced in a mission hospital.

Following his graduation in medicine from the University of Alberta, Canada, in 1954, Dr. Nelson prepared for missionary work with a year of post-graduate study in surgery and a year's training in mission work in Evanston, Illinois. He served two years with the government health service in Uganda, then transferred to the Africa Inland Mission.

As an associate professor on the faculty of Wisconsin State college, Superior, Wisconsin, Dr. McKay teaches musical composition.

One of his own works was having its fourth performance in the string quartet program in Detroit Friday. Wayne State university was host for the two-day forum, which is sponsored by Valparaiso University.

Under the title, "Music for Quiet Listening," Dr. McKay has a record out under Mercury label. He wrote its "Larghetto" from a full-length symphony, which he composed in five months.

His compositions have been performed by the Dallas symphony and in Duluth, Ottawa,

Washington, D.C. and Rochester N.Y. Most satisfying to him was a report from a former student living in Germany that a recording of his had been broadcast on Voice of America.

Dr. McKay did his graduate work at the Eastman school of music, New York. While serving in the Canadian Navy, he was a clarinetist with the Navy band. He also arranged music for dance bands and radio.

Until nine years ago, he had his own summer dance band at Grand Bend, Ont.

Dr. Dyer's sister, Marian McKay, shares her husband's musical interest. She teaches piano in the off-campus program of Wisconsin State college.

Coordinating Council Discusses Historical Plans

Plans for organization of an historical society here were discussed Thursday at a meeting of the Northville Co-ordinating Council.

Representatives from 11 organizations and four guests from Clawson also discussed the current move to save the present library building and plans for its future use.

Mrs. Hurd Sutherland, secretary, was appointed to attend the next meeting of the Historical Society Committee on December 17. She is to report back to the council.

Council members learned that the Junior Chamber of Commerce wishes to give up the sponsorship of the Fourth of July parade. The council took the position that the project is a good one, expressing the hope that it will be carried on or shared by some organization.

The guests from Clawson were here to observe the local council since they are instrumental in forming a similar group in their community. They are to visit other groups in the area.

A report of the 1963 Citizenship Dinner was received. It was reported that the total attendance was 165, including 27 new voting citizens.

Organizations are reminded to place the dates of their special events on the calendar located in the Northville Record office.

No council meeting is scheduled in December. The next regular meeting is slated for January 16.

LEST WE FORGET

This is the season of the year, we all should sit down and count our blessings. This has been a good year for me due to the Lord above who guided me — to the many old friends whose confidence in me never faltered — and to the surprising number of new acquaintances who gave me their support. To each, I extend a heartfelt and grateful "Thank You."

Minutes of Northville City Council

The regular council meeting of Monday, November 4, 1963 was called to order at 8:00 p.m. in the city hall by Mayor Allen.

Present: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Kester. Absent: None.

The minutes of the previous meeting of October 7, 1963 were approved with corrections. Moved by Carlson, supported by Canterbury that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General $12,428.10
Water 2,546.76
City Hall Constr. 352.48

Unanimously carried.

Communications:

A letter from Mr. Gene Quay, 929 Novi street, Northville, was read in which he commended the Police Department and thanked the Chief of Police for the prompt attention given to his call of October 17, 1963.

A communication from Glenn Brown, Wayne County Public Health Engineer, regarding the water situation in Hillcrest Manor Subdivision, was read. Copies of this letter are to be sent to Mr. Ambler and Allen as members of the Water Committee. Council instructed that this letter be answered saying that it is hoped that Northville Township will establish a policy for a water system.

Second Reading and Final Adoption of Parking District Amendment to zoning Ordinance:

Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that the Zoning Ordinance be amended by the addition of an Article VI-B "P. District - Parking". (on file at City Hall) Unanimously carried.

Second Reading, and Final Adoption of Side Yard Requirement for Corner Lot Amendment to Zoning Ordinance:

Moved by Ambler, supported by Kester that the Zoning Ordinance be amended by amending Section 4.09; the addition of a new Section to Article IV - 4.11; addition to Article IV - 5.10; addition of a new section to Article VI - Sec. 6.11 (on file at City Hall). Unanimously carried.

Further Consideration on Street Lights for the Northville Estates Area:

Mr. Zweig and Mr. Hummel were present, representing Northville Estates and presented a petition with 72 names of residents who preferred not to have additional street lighting installed in their subdivision at this time. They reported a total of 100 residents - 14 were not contacted and 14, to some degree, did want more lighting. The two men were thanked for their cooperation and told that at this time there would be no additional lighting installed for their subdivision.

Report by City Engineer (concerning the bids for the Orchard Drive storm sewer):

The City Engineer presented a report and tabulation of bids received on the Orchard Drive storm sewer job, in which he stated that all bids checked out, and that the error was made during the re-design period. The engineer felt that there was no reason for not accepting the low bid of D'Angela and Pollicelli Construction Co. and reported they have done reputable work in Plymouth Township and other neighboring communities. The engineer was asked to contact D'Angela and Pollicelli for affirmation on holding their bid firm.

Report by City Attorney Re: The Legal Requirements for Re-hearing of the Orchard Drive special assessments:

Attached is the opinion of the attorney regarding a re-hearing for the Orchard drive special assessment in which he sets forth the four requirements necessary at this time. Moved by Kester, supported by Ambler that the City Assessor and City Clerk be instructed to follow these requirements (on file at City Hall) and sent out notices to all property owners 10 days prior to the Public hearing, set for Monday, November 18, 1963, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City Hall, 122 N. Wing street. Unanimously carried.

(People receiving notices are to have an explanation of the situation as reviewed at the November 4th meeting by the City Engineer and City Attorney.)

City Manager's report on Parking Violations and fines:

A report from the City Manager was read (attached) reporting fine schedule in Plymouth and Farmington. After some discussion, moved by Canterbury, supported by Kester that the following schedule of fines for violations be as follows:

Metered Fine — $5.00 if paid within 24 hours; $1.00 if paid after 24 hours.

Posted Fine — $1.00 if paid within 24 hours; $2.00 if paid after 24 hours.

Unanimously carried.

City Attorney to report on the Advisability of Special Election concerning Municipal Court:

The City Attorney gave an opinion regarding the transition from Northville Justice Court to Municipal Court (copy on file at city hall) wherein he stated that in his opinion this change should be made. He also stated that it would require a charter amendment and that in his opinion unless matters change, this would not be necessary to present to the voters before the fall of 1964.

Council asked that the City Attorney keep them informed as to timing necessary on the matter of Court Transition.

City Manager to Report on Tree Program:

A report was made by the City Manager (on file at city hall) wherein the area survey, bordered by W. Main street, Baseline, Rogers street and Center street, needs 92 trees. Total cost of this program would be approximately $6500 and could be spread over 4 or 5 years. The ordinance is to be checked to see if tree recommendations in the report are included in the ordinance. The City Manager said that the report made by Mr. Robert Freydl is being observed in the tree trimming program.

Progress report on building Activities for the First 10 Months of this year (1963):

Attached is a report from the City Manager on building activities for the first 10 months of 1963, showing a total of $1,298,599.

Miscellaneous:

City Manager reported that Mr. Harley Cole had approached him regarding the possible sale to the city of the "sinking lot" in Northville Heights for appraised value of same. The City Engineer and City Attorney are to be consulted regarding this matter.

City Manager reported a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, November 13, 8:00 p.m. at the city hall with the Volunteer Fire Department.

Names are to be considered and submitted for a replacement of Stuart Thomson on the Board of Review at the November 18 Council meeting.

The City Manager discussed briefly the furnishings and color scheme for the new city hall showing the architect's recommendations. The question of furnishings is to be placed on the November 18 agenda.

The City Manager requested 2 two-faced signs for the E. Main Street Parking lot area and explained his reasons for same. Messrs. Allen, Kester, Hartner, Mrs. Carlson and city manager are to meet on Tuesday morning, November 5, 11 a.m. at the Area No. 1 Lot (E. Main street) to further discuss size and placement of these signs.

The City Manager requested council's permission to change chemical compounds used for treating the water supply. The new product is being used at Milford and is offered for use on a money back basis and requires no special equipment. Council unanimously agreed to have this compound used in the water on a trial basis and would like a report as soon as possible on its effect.

Mr. Glass of the Detroit Edison Company has recommended four 20,000 lumens mercury vapor lights at the Edw. Hines drive and Seven Mile Cut-off island instead of the previous requested 6,000 lumens. This change would be $6.50 per month instead of $3.50. The city manager was instructed to proceed with the affirmative notification to Mr. Glass.

Mrs. Carlson spoke regarding the progress of the city hall and wondered if it was a little slow. The city manager explained there was a lag in the time schedule.

Mrs. Carlson mentioned the concrete and rubbish located on S. Wing street left from the sidewalk construction program.

Mr. Koster mentioned the twisted sign at the entrance to the Presbyterian church and asked that it be checked.

Mr. Ambler reported that Mr. Allen, the city manager and he had met with the city of Plymouth regarding the water situation. Mr. Ambler suggested Mr. Remus be invited and whoever could accompany him, to a meeting with two other communities — City of Plymouth and Northville township and have an advanced agenda developed regarding water. Alternate routes through Northville should be designated.

A plastic liner will probably be used for temporary skating facilities at an approximate cost of $100 for an area of 60 x 120 feet.

Mr. Canterbury mentioned he would like to have the possibilities of leaf pick-up by the city explored, as to necessary equipment, etc. for future city use.

Mr. Canterbury asked about the curve on Novi road and if it would be possible to sign this, warning of a dangerous curve and possibly using a reflector type sign. He was also interested in the speed that was posted on Eight Mile road. The city manager is to check with Mr. Van Roekel about speed limit on this highway and have it so posted.

The city manager is to check the fence being erected around the Scout-Recreation building. Mr. Canterbury distributed copies of a Financial Report of the Building Fund for the Scout-Recreation building.

Mr. Merriam, Mr. Canterbury and Mr. Ambler are to meet on Monday, November 11 on the matter of the Library building being acquired by the school board. Notices are to be sent out for this meeting.

Mr. Allen remarked again about no sign on Eight Mile road to indicate the location of Northville. The mayor also asked regarding the status of the Jendrask decision and was told by the attorney he hoped to get with him or make an appointment in the near future. The City Manager was asked what was being done about the Mergraf Oil Plant and reported that the city engineer is working on this project.

Mrs. George Kohs asked for information regarding the fence on the cemetery property and this was answered to her satisfaction.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne

Girl Scout News

Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., Novi Neighborhood Association:

The Neighborhood service team is particularly interested in promoting the patrol system training session for junior level scouts (ages 9, 10 and 11) and adult leaders now forming. An invaluable step in character training is to put responsibility of it to the individual. This is immediately gained by appointing a patrol leader to responsible command of her patrol. It is up to her to take hold of and develop the qualities of each girl in her patrol. It sounds like a big order, but in practice it works. Each girl realizes that she is a responsible unit and that the honor of her group depends in some degree on her own efficiency in playing the game. This character training in an important step in child growth and should be welcomed by the parent.

Briefly, the patrol system is the form of troop government used by junior, cadette and senior girl scout troops. This consists of patrols of five to eight girls each and court of honor, composed of patrol leaders, scribe, treasurer and adult leader. This group makes and co-ordinates the troops' plans which are based on reports from each patrol.

Patrol system training session for junior level scouts (ages 9, 10, and 11) meeting Saturdays, January 11, 18, 25 at 9:30 to 12:00 a.m. at the Community Center, 24366-10½ mile road: Southfield. Registrations being taken at council headquarters, LI 7-0616, December 4 through January 4. No charge.

Through learning to manage their troops girls get practice in leadership, sharing of responsibilities and thinking ahead. The values of these experiences are instilled as the girls go about the day-by-day business of planning and budgeting and managing their troops, under the helpful guidance of adult leadership.

Brownie and Girl Scout troop 145. At the meeting the girl scouts and brownies came in to form a horse shoe to take the pledge and give the girl scout promise.

They played the game "Stir the Stew" and then went into 2 patrols. Ellen Lyke passed out treats. The Brownies had the flag ceremony and the girl scouts joined in with them for the closing and taps.

Enthusiasm Tops GAL Competition

For sheer enthusiasm and competitive zeal, there's a group at Northville high school that is hard to beat.

Seventy-five strong, they are members of the girls Athletic League. Under the watchful eye of the girls' physical education teacher, Miss Pat Babel, the club has grown in membership the past eight years.

No drums beat to herald the girls' accomplishments. They simply take to the field or the playing court to increase their skill, and what's more, they seem to revel in the spirit of competition.

Although the G.A.L. roster numbers 75, over 150 girls take advantage of the sports facilities and sports contests during the year.

Membership is not restricted and no one is cut from any of the teams. If a girl shows evidence of skill and improvement, she can compete, noted Miss Babel.

"The G.A.L. program provides an after school opportunity for all girls to participate in sports," Miss Babel said, "and any girl is eligible to contribute any amount of time."

The program operates on two levels, according to Miss Babel.

First, there is intramural competition, which gives the girls an opportunity to have fun together, playing amongst themselves. Sports emphasized at this level are archery, volleyball, basketball, bowling, badminton, tennis, golf and softball.

Second there is extramural competition, which enables the girls to develop their skills. Whenever possible, matches with other schools are scheduled.

In their only extramural soccer match this fall, the local squad showed its prowess and polish by completely outplaying a team from Clarenceville. In this contest, the girls also proved they were anything but cream puffs. Amidst rising dust and flying feet, the fast-charging females triumphed by virtue of superior passing, reminiscent of the smooth skating Detroit Red Wings.

Explanation of the few matches scheduled is found in the fact that all the inter-school contests are invitational, meaning that a team may attend if it so wishes.

With the coming of the cold weather, the girls moved indoors last Thursday for their first volley ball match. Entering two teams, the local G.A.L. squads copped one of four contests in the triangular meet with Bloomfield Hills and Plymouth.

Even in defeat, the girls were a spirited lot.

Basketball, the other major winter sport, will share the sports spotlight with volley ball in the near future.

When it is possible to move out doors in the spring, softball, track and field and tennis will be featured on the extramural level.

Helping to maintain a continuity of interest in sports is the club, the G.A.L. Its primary function is to carry on the business and social activities.

President of the club, which was organized in 1948, is senior Jenny Ratliff. In keeping with her sports bent, she intends to major in physical education in college.

Other officers are Vice President, Diane Morse, Secretary Sally Winner and Treasurer Jean Bowner.

But, as Miss Babel pointed out, teachers, officers and all the girls pull together to make the program a success.

Former Northville Couple Write of Alaskan Hunt

Jerre and Margie Wills, the Northville couple who took their children and moved to Alaska with the famous Fiftyniners caravan, recently returned from a hunting trip near their home.

"Hunting for the Wills is not only sport. It furnishes them with meat for the table.

Their adventure was described in a letter to their Northville friends, Mr. and Mrs. Perry P. Taylor of 340 Pennell, who passed it on to The Record.

Here is what Margie Wills had to say of that adventure:

Jerre finished up fishing (commercial), which was very poor. We didn't make expenses. Then Jerre took me mountain goat hunting.

We left here at noon on a Friday and arrived at about 4 p.m. in the afternoon. We had driven about five miles back to the foot of the mountains on an old jeep trail. About five minutes after we stopped, Jerre sighted a big black bear, feeding slowly across the mountain about half way up.

So — we worked quickly, getting our guns loaded and our packs filled the way we wanted — cameras, sandwiches, sleeping bags, heavy coats etc. We put them on our backs, grabbed our guns and started up the mountain. The grass was as tall as our heads. And there was some Devil's Club (a very thorny weed that makes you itch like crazy if touched) and a lot of big and little patches of alder bushes. Every once in a while we caught sight of the bear, and we'd go a little faster. After about 1,000 feet or so my pack seemed to weigh a ton. I was hot and thirsty and my legs felt like they'd been made of jelly, but Jerre kept going — and so did I.

After clearing one hill we spotted another black bear — quite large — across a deep gully from us. Since I was so tired, it was decided I should rest and Jerre would go after the bear.

It took him about 30 minutes to get over the gully. Then the bear caught his scent and took off. Jerre got in a fast shot but didn't bring him down. By the time he returned, it was about 6:30 and we again continued our climb. At 8 it was light dusk so we decided to sleep overnight next to the last remaining clump of brush.

We ate a couple of sandwiches, but we had forgotten to bring water. Then we climbed into our sleeping bags and tried to sleep. But we kept sliding down the hill, even with the brush there to stop us. Finally, at 2 a.m. we ate another sandwich and pushed on. I tired real fast, but with Jerre's prodding and quite a number of rest stops, we finally made it.

At the top was a big, long bank of snow. We ate quite a bit of it and then went over the crest. Just about 1,000 yards or so away, we spotted a goat, and while we watched three others joined it. They were across a flat stretch of grass and shale, walking down the side of the mountain. Luck and wind were in our favor because they kept moving toward us.

We got in a good spot, settled down and waited. Soon they were about 100 feet away. Jerre told me to shoot first and I did. But I pulled off and only wounded him. Then my gun jammed. Meanwhile, Jerre shot and killed one. We thought mine had run off down a cliff. So I went after him, running. Suddenly, I wasn't tired. But I saw no trace of him or of blood.

When Jerre skinned out his goat, we found that it was the one I'd wounded — so we called it our goat.

Later Jerre went off for another goat (you're allowed two), while I rested and watched the meat which we buried in the snow.

When he came back and had rested, we packed the head, cape and meat, repacked our other stuff, and started the climb back down. By the time we got to the crest of the mountain where we were to start down, we needed a breather. So we stopped, then sighted a black bear headed our way. Jerre shot but the gun again jammed.

It was hard keeping our balance coming down. Finally, we reached the bush where we'd spent the night. I slept for an hour and then we loaded up again. Now we had our sleeping bags to add to our packs. The grass, alders and the incline fought us the rest of the way down.

Two days later Jerre left to go sheep hunting with a friend. When they got to the top of the mountain they found the rams were all shy of the three-quarter curl.

But on the way down Jerre got a nice black bear.

Then a week later he and his friend went moose hunting up a river about 20 miles in a canoe. And again nothing. So when a few days later they left for caribou, I told them either to come back with some meat or I'd sell their guns and buy some beef. So they came back with two nice caribou each. But two caribou and one goat won't last long. So he's out alone this morning hunting moose.

Jerre built a big cement block chimney from the basement up, and now we have our barrel stove in the basement. It gives me a lot more room in the living room. And we have our panel board for the living room — and four chest of drawers. No more boxes — yippie!

P.S. Jerre came home with a nice bull moose.

DEADLINE — TUESDAY NOON

Barons to Have Edge in Cage Opener

Côach Dave Longridge, Captain Dan Bishop, Tom Bingham, Tim Krug, Jerry Imslând, Tom Wicke, Rick Milne, John Callaghan, Mark Cushing, Lance Hahn, Jim Mazel, Jerry French, Jim St. Germain and Manager Steve Reed.

Bloomfield Hills will be one up on Northville when the two teams open their Wayne-Oakland conference season next Tuesday night at Bloomfield Hills.

The Barons play Oak Park tonight and therein lies their advantage — they will have played one more game than the local cagers.

Other than this, there doesn't seem to be much difference between the Mustangs and the Barons, at least on paper. Both teams are "green", they both have four or five men either six-two or six-three in height and the offenses are similar.

In the person of a new coach, Bloomfield Hills may have a strategic advantage. He's Hal Henderson, former coach at Notre Dame high school in Harper Woods. On the strength of his record, Bloomfield Hills won't suffer any loss.

His teams had winning seasons in each of his five years, including four district class A championships and one regional crown.

But his task is cut out for him.

Only two letter winners are returning from last year's Barons squad that captured a share of the W-O title. They are forward Wally Wengren, the eighth man who tallied 26 points last year, and Guard Greg Anderson, the sixth man with 36 points. Wengren has been hampered by a week of the flu.

Out of four other candidates, the other starting guard will be chosen. They are Pat Hall, Jim Long, John Newton and Mike Hohenic.

"We're definitely short on experience," Henderson pointed out, "and we have average speed. We've got a lot of developing to do, a lot of work on."

Coaches Dave Longridge and Hal Henderson will have something in common.

Both men point to Clarkston and Milford as the pre-season favorites to win the W-O crown. Holly, which usually fields a good team, will also be in contention, the coaches note, and it's definitely a strong dark horse.

But no one is ruled out as a possible.

DOUBLE SUCCESS — Michael Flavin, 20, of 10107 West Seven Mile road, was doubly successful last week, bagging this 320-pound black bear on the opening day of the season, and then on the following day he shot the six-point buck. He was hunting in the Upper Peninsula near Newberry.

At Grid Banquet

MSU Coach To Speak Here

Dan Boisture, backfield assistant coach at Michigan State University, will be the guest speaker at the annual Northville football banquet sponsored by the Exchange Club.

According to Cliff Hill of the sponsoring club, Boisture and Northville's star quarterback at MSU, Steve Juday, will be the guests of honor at the banquet slated for December 4.

The 6:30 p.m. banquet will be held at the Northville Presbyterian church hall.

Boisture is in his second year of teaching Spartan backs their offensive patterns. He came to the East Lansing campus in March 1959 and was assigned as defensive backfield coach.

He took over as offensive backfield coach last year when Bill Yeoman left to become head coach at Houston.

Prior to moving to Michigan State, Boisture compiled a very successful record as head football coach at Redford St. Mary's high school in Detroit.

He served at St. Mary's for

Frosh Quintet Battles Friday

Members of the Northville freshman team will no sooner down a Thanksgiving meal than they will be on their way Friday to Birmingham where they will receive a basketball baptism against Groves.

At the helm of the frosh squad will be a newcomer, Dave Madden, high school math teacher. Assisting him until he learns the coaching ropes is Athletic Director Al Jones.

According to Jones, this year's squad has "real good potential."

"We're a better than 500 ball club," Jones noted. "Although not as tall as last year's club, this is a more mobile, much faster team," he added.

Basis for his contention is the team's solid performance against the JV's. A hard working lot, the freshman speedsters worked hard to stay close.

Heading the list of contenders and admittedly having an edge at this time are Jim Zayti, Glen Diebert and Jack Crawford. Each is five-feet ten inches tall and has fine potential.

Crawford, a jumping-jack who can leap nine feet 11 inches, and Zayti, have shown strength under the boards and a penchant for making the right moves. Both are forwards.

At the pivot is Diebert, another youngster who can handle himself well under the basket.

Backing up these three are forwards Larry Beller and Chris Holman and Centers Mike Utley and the tallest man on the squad, six-foot one inch Tom Zielinski.

A standout at guard is Doug Dingwall. During the football season, he was moved up from the JV to the varsity team.

HI SONNY — That's what 6' 3" John Callaghan seems to be saying to 5' 5" Dan Bishop. Bishop will captain the team from a guard spot while Callaghan will see action at forward and center.

With success still echoing in the background, Northville Jaycees announced Saturday that they will sponsor another hootenanny on Saturday, December 7.

Highlighting the 8 p.m. musical program will be The Villagers, the band that proved so popular at the first hootenanny, and Mike Wood, vocalist, and his companion Bill Hodge.

Names of other entertainers will be announced next week.

According to Jaycee Ken Roberts, the show will be reduced to two hours this time. "Last time," he said, "it lasted a little too long so we're going to shorten it."

The hootenanny will be held again in the community building.

Now—'64 Chevy II . . .

with a V8 engine

Now you see it. Now you don't. When a Chevy II does that kind of disappearing act you know without looking twice: It's a '64 with a V8 engine.

That's right. A full-grown 195-hp Turbo-Fire V8. It's available for the first time this year along with a choice of three other engines—the standard 4 (in 100 Series sedans), the standard 6 and a new 155-hp '6. (And all of them maintain their high spirits on modest amounts of regular gasoline.)

But the changes aren't confined to what happens when you slip into the driver's seat.

There are new styling features like the tasteful grille design and trim accents, for instance. And the larger self-adjusting brakes that further reduce upkeep on a car that already has a reputation of coming about as close to perpetual motion as anything on four wheels can get.

The place to get the full details on the '64 is your Chevrolet dealer's. And after you've got them, we hope you'll attend to one further detail yourself. Drive it.

Plan Great Books Group For Northville Children

A Junior Great Books Discussion program is in the planning stage for Northville youngsters in grades five through nine. Junior Great Books is patterned after the Adult Great Books Series.

A leadership training course will be available for all persons interested in leading the discussions. No formal background is required.

Location for the 12 training sessions has not yet been determined. Deadline for registration is December 15, and the first training class is scheduled for January 7.

This unique program provides an opportunity for young readers to discuss some of the books, which have enriched and developed our civilization. The readings include excerpts of many classics from fables and tales to novels and essays. The number of grades provided with the Great Books Program will depend on the number of volunteer leaders who are available to take the training course. Interested persons are asked to call FI 9-0802 or FI 9-0138.

City Thanks Government

A resolution expressing the city's appreciation to those groups and individuals who were instrumental in making possible the $75,000 matching fund grant, has been adopted by the Wixom Council.

The resolution reads in part:

"Whereas the completion of such a (road paving) program would have taken an excessive period of time and/or caused an inordinate addition to an already burdensome property tax if federal assistance had not been forthcoming, and

"Whereas the Public Works Acceleration Act of 1962 did authorize the Community Facilities Administration of the Housing and Home Finance Agency to make such grants of assistance under certain statutory conditions, and

"Whereas the city of Wixom did apply for such assistance and was granted, on a matching basis, a total of not to exceed $75,000 to accelerate its road construction and paving program;

"Now therefore be it resolved that this council, acting in behalf of not only itself and the mayor but all residents of the city of Wixom, does take this occasion to express its appreciation to the officials of the Community Facilities Administration, both regional and departmental; to Senators Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara; an dto Representatives Neil Staebler and William S. Broomfield for their cooperation in securing the aforesaid grant for our city."

County Eyes Reorganization

Some supervisors contended that this provision appeared to give counties jurisdiction over city and township ordinances — that the charter county conceivably could enforce its ordinances upon local municipalities.

County ordinances, argued Connor, would not adversely affect municipal ordinances. He and other members of the committee who drew up the measure suggested that the delineation between county and municipal purposes is "clear out."

When, however, some supervisors continued to suggest a conflict of interest, Connor pointed out that abuse by any county certainly would be dealt with by the state — which ultimately has the last word.

"The real important thing," he said, "is that this gives the county the right to enact its own ordinances without first having to go to Lansing to get permission."

Another area within the measure which prompted some raised eyebrows concerned county taxation. The measure permits a charter county to have a "debt limit of not to exceed 10 percent of the state equalized value of all property within the county which is subject to ad valorem taxation."

Furthermore, it provides for "The levy and collection of taxes and the fixing of an ad valorem tax limitation of not to exceed 10 mills."

Why, criticized one supervisor, permit a debt limit of 10 percent, when Wayne county cannot cope with its present deficit which purportedly has reached $16 million.

Concerning the 10-mill provision, an attorney who helped write the measure explained it this way:

The 10 mills are over and above the present 15-mill limitation divided by county, township and school. In other words, as in the case of charter cities, county millage would be separated from school and township under this measure — and as provided in the new Constitution.

Specifically, it would mean that if all 10 mills were levied, Wayne county would have 3.3 more mills than the 6.7 mills it currently has under the three-way split setup.

Theoretically, schools and townships would have the entire 15 mills, as provided by statute, to share, he added. Still another controversial area, although it sparked little open debate, is the unanswered question: Who and how many representatives would serve in the charter county setup?

Committee members suggested that the charter commission provision calling for not less than 9 and not more than 38 commissioners might "have some bearing" on the decision as to how many representatives would serve. In other words, they explained, steps probably will be taken to reduce the number of representatives. Currently, the board of supervisors is made up of 118 members — nearly all of whom are appointed by local municipal governments, township supervisors excluded.

Under the proposed enabling legislation these representatives to the county government may be elected. But the measure leaves to the discretion of the counties the method of electing.

It is unlikely that out-county areas in Wayne will favor an at-large election, a county attorney explained, since Detroit has the largest concentration of voters. Nor is it likely that Detroit will favor the one-municipality, one-vote concept, he said.

On the other hand, it is possible that a 38-member board would be acceptable to both Detroit and the out-county areas, he said. On this, a population basis, Detroit would retain its majority representation on the board and the out-county areas would retain approximately their percentage of representation, he added.

If a 38-member board was agreed upon, the city and township of Northville probably would be coupled with the city and township of Plymouth, the city of Wayne and the township of Nankin to make up one district, entitled to one representative on the board, he explained.

Storm Rakes Village Area

High winds combined with rain and lightning uprooted trees and snapped power lines late Friday night and early Saturday morning, keeping the Novi fire department busy.

The fire department responded to a house call at 1:23 a.m. Saturday, a minor stove fire in the house of Warren Schenburger, 207 Henning, was quickly extinguished.

At 2:26 a.m. the Salem fire department requested Novi assistance when power lines fell on Six Mile road, four miles west of Salem. The fallen lines covered a one-mile area, endangering near-by homes.

Novi and the Salem fire departments have a "mutual aid" agreement which one community will assist the other if called upon to do so. Novi police reported that Novi road, East Lake road and Paramount road, were blocked by fallen trees following the storm.

High winds also caused a utility pole to ignite when wires rubbed against the pole. The pole is located in front of a house under construction on Beck road.

(handmade mittens); aprons, toys and Christmas decorations.

NORTHVILLE'S MERCHANTS are entering the holiday season with a special spirit of small-town friendliness. Both Stone's Gamble store and the D and C store are offering a discount shopping night Tuesday. Sunday Stone's and Lila's flower and gift shop held "holiday prevue" open houses.

At Lila's Christmas greens were used in melow pine holders for an Early American decor. Unusual tin candleholders from Mexico are adaptable to many arrangements.

Hint for keeping greens in homemade arrangements fresh and pliable: first let stand 24 hours in 2 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1 tablespoon Chlorox, 1 quart water. (From NFCC member Mrs. Gene Cushing.)

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. Lloyd Brasure
First Presbyterian Church

The voice of the prophet Amos came loud and clear to the king and all who heard in that far away land of long ago. Amos sounded the voice of doom and tragedy, for the sins of the times were bringing to bear the judgments against such crass indifference to the law of the Almighty God.
From the lips of this sheep herder, words of warning were heard in the court of royalty and in the public place. Amos looked out across the land and saw callous plutocrats at ease in Zion, he found pleasure palaces and entertainments that led to lust and greed, and it found its unrighteous way into the courts of justice to make mockery there of decency and honest decisions. There even came into play the horrible practice of insincerity in the sanctuary of prayer and worship.

Amos counselled the nation to seek good and to avoid evil and added to this sage advice that God would hear the voices of repentance and would be with His people when they sought to mend their ways.

Amos was strong on his emphasis of the evils of his day. He was really all worked up over this generation of transgressors.

The words of the prophet were intended for his own situation, primarily. However, we must find in them the universal application to any age. Where there is no decency or loyalty in the sanctuary, in the halls of justice, in the community and the home, there can be nothing left to survive.

In our own day we must look upon ourselves for a close examination of our values and procedures. Is there sincerity in our worship? — or do we really believe that God is the father of all people, and we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves? Is there honesty in our government?

— or should we divorce morality from the halls of legislation? Is the GNP more important than the practice of the Golden Rule?
— or how far can our materialistic emphasis carry us without a sacrifice of human values and ethical procedures?

I am convinced that for every publicized crime or breach of morality, there are many unknown examples of decency and observance of the law. However, we do live in a world of violence and hatred where often the character of a man is not known because he looks different than most of his fellowmen and his critics don't take time to know him as a person. Lord deliver us from conceit and complacency and give us the mind of Christ.

Wixom to Hear Evangelist

Evangelist Billy Walker, dynamic speaker from Southgate, Michigan will be holding a series of meetings in the First Baptist church of Wixom, of which the Rev. Robert V. Warner is the pastor.

The services begin Sunday, December 1 and continue to Sunday, December 8. The meetings begin at 7:30 nightly, Sundays — 11:10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Having conducted successful crusades in some of the largest churches in the State of Michigan, Evangelist Billy Walker comes here with a wealth of experience. Though only 24 years of age he has spoken to over a million people in his crusades and rallies.
After a crusade in the First Baptist Church of Pontiac, where over 100 decisions for Christ were recorded, Dr. Savage, the pastor, had this to say concerning the speaker:
"Billy Walker is supremely qualified in his knowledge of the Bible. His literary ability is superb, his physical appearance is beyond criticism. His passion for souls is very manifest."

Having been raised in a pasonage, Billy Walker felt early the call of God to evangelism. His presentation and power make evident this call of God. His preparation for the ministry led him to study at the Wayne State university in Detroit, Michigan.

At the age of 18 he was a winner in the Michigan Peace Oratorical contest. Later he won the Wayne State University was invited to appear at Mar-was invited to appear at Maranatha Bible Conference, the youngest speaker ever to appear on the conference program. In addition to his evangelist crusades, he is the conference manager of Hiawatha
Youth Camp located on Platt Lake in Michigan's Northern Peninsula. With over 3000 acres and a private lake they present the finest teen age camp ministry in the midwest. Mr.
Walker is also a popular speaker in numerous Youth Rallies and various Conventions.

Capacity crowds and numerous decisions for Christ have been enjoyed in nearly every rally, church crusade and area wide evangelistic effort. Many have come to share the feelings of a Detroit pastor who wrote:

"Billy Walker is a young preacher of real distinction.
His sermons are straight for the mark, with fascinating illustrations well told. He seldom preaches over thirty minutes and his listeners are hungry for more when he brings his message to a close. His organizational setup is simple but most effective. He holds the interest of young and old.

Off the platform Billy Walker is a charming personality and it has been a real blessing to know him."

The public is cordially invited to attend and hear Billy Walker at any or all of the meetings during the Crusade.

Our Slip Caught By Belle!

To the Editor—

Ye gods and little fishes! Apropos of your lead story in today's Record, section 2, what kind of history are they teaching in our schools? John Brown was a WHITE man — not a "Negro". He captured Harper's Ferry with his nineteen men so true" and he didn't get a chance to come to Northville because "They hung him for a traitor" right there in Virginia. And "Uncle Tom" which "fanned abolitionist fever" wasn't a "play". It was a book, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by Harriet Beecher Stowe, which sold millions of copies in this country (the publishers kept their presses going day and night) and millions in England and on the Continent where it was translated into various languages. When I was a kid, going to picnics and on sleigh rides, we used to sing — "John Brown's Body lies a-mouldering in the grave, But his soul goes marching on. Glory, glory, hallelujah," etc. I'm not quite old enough to remember the Civil War, but I have my Dad's army coat which he wore at Chickamauga, Tennessee, and to the end of that bitter conflict. In his knapsack was a bit of crepe such as each northern soldier wore when Lincoln was assassinated.

Belle McColl

Editor Jack Hoffman's Note: Ye gods and little fishes indeed! John Brown was a white man. I am neither black or white. Red-faced and embarrassed is a far better description. Mrs. McColl, one of the oldest, most alert residents, is also correct that "Uncle Tom" was a book, and I take little satisfaction in the fact that "Uncle Tom" also became a famous play based upon the book. Please place no blame on our schools. Blame rests solely with this writer who, you can be sure, will reread his history books and rely less on his memory of history.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

"JUST REPOSSESSED"

If it weren't for folks who never seem to learn that there is no such thing as something for nothing, confidence men would just have to go out of business.

One old and reliable gimmick that never fails to get its quota of victims every year is the "Repossession Sale." Repossessions may often prove to be exceptionally fine used car buys. But more often that not it is because they are repossessions that this is so.

Think about it logically for a minute and you'll realize that the car most likely to end up as a repossession is one on which the owner owes more than the car is worth. This is often the case with a used car that was misrepresented at the time of the sale and sold with a low down payment and high finance charges.

Thus, an unscrupulous dealer can go on selling the same repossessed "bargain" to a succession of owners who all come in time to realize that the costly repairs the car requires, plus what they owe in unpaid balance and finance charges, is more than the car is worth. The logical result is a repossession.

Repossessions may occur with a quality used car that has been sensibly financed due to personal financial misfortune of the buyer. Make sure if you buy such a car that it is from a reputable dealer who isn't using the magic sales appeal of the "repossession" label to unload a lemon at a quick profit.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

November 20, 1962

If improvements will help win additional racing dates for Northville Downs, Executive Manager John Carlo was strengthening his position this week.

He announced that a $150,000 two floor paddock will be erected on newly purchased property just south of Beal avenue and adjacent to the east end track.

A plan to construct a modern pool for the purpose of forming a Northville Swim Club will be officially introduced to the city planning commission December 11 when a request for rezoning a 2.6 acre site comes up for public hearing.

A Farmington man was bound over to circuit court last week on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. Novi Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson ordered Ronald Clark bound over to the Oakland county circuit court on the charge.

L. Estelle de Paris — or Under the Stars of Paris — is the theme chosen by the junior class of Northville high school for this year's J-Hop which traditionally starts off the holiday season.

Eleven branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will be participating in the Christmas Market to be held at the Northville Community building on Saturday, December 1.

FIVE YEARS AGO

November 26, 1958

The fighting Mustangs wrapped up another league crown Friday, defeating Clarenceville 45-0.

They tied the victory package with a bow that no other team in recent history of Northville high school has been able to duplicate — a perfect season. The Mustangs have chalked up 25 league wins in a row; their victory string in all games stands at 17.

Filing confusion still surrounds Northville's April city election — but there's a growing suspicion that candidates will have to file by December 22. Under the city charter, candidates for city office do not have to file until the period between February 1 and March 1.

The village payroll of $160, due November 30, may be late unless the Michigan Finance Commission acts immediately in approving the council's application for borrowing money.

Possibility of a late payroll came to light Monday at a meeting of the village council in which Attorney Howard Bond reported that action by the commission had been delayed a week because one of the commission heads was called away from Lansing.

More than $1,000 was raised by the Northville Retail Merchants association Christmas Lighting committee to provide the city with an array of lights and decorations.

Novi village councilmen met this week with three representatives of the state highway department to discuss the local road situation.

Max Dillonbeck Jr. of South Main street was recently awarded an RCA victrola combination for his winning entry in the $200,000 Family Contest sponsored by the Colgate Palmolive company.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

November 26, 1948

Monday the Depositors State Bank began distribution of $39,110.45 in Christmas Club checks to 524 members.

This is an all time high for the bank since the Christmas Clubs inception several years ago. Last year the Bank mailed out $27,776.75 to 433 members.

Dr. Katherine Chamberlain will address the Northville Women's Club at its regular meeting next Friday afternoon December 3. Dr. Chamberlain who is affiliated with the physics department at Wayne University, will be introduced by Mrs. Alfred Mc-Gung Lee, and her topic will be "Education for Peace in the Atomic Age."

The Bridge Club, under the auspices of the Northville Recreation Committee will meet next Wednesday, December 1 at 8:00 sharp in the Boy Scout building. The class will be under the expert direction of Professor Albert Schorr of Detroit, well known bridge expert.

A Tiny Tot Popularity contest will be held in conjunction with the production "Fun For You" which is being produced under the auspices of the Exchange Club to raise money for the Recreation Committee to buy a television set for the school children. This contest is to elect a King and Queen of Toyland. Children from one day to six years are eligible to enter.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

November 25, 1938

The plan to have some 20 homes and business places comply with the health order by making immediate proper sewer connections with the village system has been abandoned according to a statement made this week by the village health officer Dr. Russell M. Atchison.

Northville undefeated town football team will attempt to make it three straight when they meet the Rosedale Gardens team Thursday afternoon at Cass Benton Park. They will begin at 3:00 p.m.

Thursday night November 17, the high school had their annual bontfire and pep meeting which occurs before the Northville - Plymouth game. About 7-15, Jack Mc Gribble with the help of several others, started the bonfire with the wood previously gathered by the freshmen.

Despite the fact that the windshield of Frank Bergers car was made of shatterproof glass, a partridge flew right through it and landed right on his lap. Berger who was driving near Gladwin at the time escaped injuries although pieces of glass were found in the back seat.

Northville high school's student publication "The Orange and Black" has recently become a member of the National Scholastic Press Association — an organization composed of 2,700 college and high school papers, with headquarters in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

scheduled for Wednesday, November 13. School will be dismissed at 1:30 p.m. and Dr. Brumfiel of the University of Michigan will meet with the teachers in the High School Auditorium at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Smith gave a brief report concerning a math workshop held by Science Research Associates at Whitehouse, Ohio, which was attended by 14 of our elementary teachers. All returned with fine reports, many felt it had been the best of its kind they had ever attended.

The past year saw the citizens of Novi approve a Bond Issue of $985,000 for construction of a new Secondary School. The building is now under construction and is scheduled to open in Sept. of 1964 to house grades 7, 8 and 9.

The CHALLENGE before the Board of Education and School Administration now is to provide an improved program of instruction which the new facilities will make possible.

Local financing of schools will continue to be a problem as State support of Novi Schools falls to keep pace with growth. Novi Schools showed a reduction in State Aid from $167,706 in 1961-62 to $154,184 in 1962-63, even though enrollment and costs of operation increased. Local citizens maintained their level of financial support by approval of a renewal of 2 1/2 mills for operation at an election of April 1, 1963.

'A Knight in Camelot' Planned for Junior Prom

Excitement increased today as Northville high school juniors put finishing touches on preparations for the Junior Prom on Friday.

The prom will be held at the high school from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight.

Carrying the theme 'A Knight in Camelot', the prom will feature a dance room decorated as King Arthur's throne room with golden balconies. The dining room will be in a forest surrounding the castle.

A draw bridge will lead from the throne room to the forest.

Both the throne room and the drawbridge are being built by members of the junior class in Sherry Meyer's barn at 48120 West Eight Mile road.

Furnishing music for the festive occasion will be Tom Baldwin and his band. Then at 10 p.m. Paul Lenin, a comedian, will entertain guests.

Robert Steeper, class president, emphasized that parents are welcome to attend the prom. "We really would like them to come," he said.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

It's Friday afternoon. We publish Monday next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. My column is due today for first run printing.

There's a heavy silence hanging over our office. It hangs over the nation . . . the world.

We have just heard the startling report that the President of the United States is dead.

One member of our staff called his home. His wife is crying un-controllably.

Jack Hoffman, our editor, just shakes his head. "I can't believe it," he repeats.

"He had so much to live for," says another. I was in Northville Hardware with Owner Essie Nirider, a customer and two clerks when the announcement of the President's death was made. Someone said, "oh, my God." Then there was silence.

It's like everyone in the United States has been hit in the stomach. We can't think. We can't even breathe comfortably. We are limp.

The radio is already reporting the history of Kennedy's 46 years. Lyndon Johnson is President.

This column, I know, doesn't make much sense. But, neither does the world, sometimes.

When I was a small boy, my grandmother always would tell me, "everything happens for the best."

I never could figure that out. I still can't.

How to Improve Retail Business

BABSON PARK, Mass., — Last week, I set forth a series of tips for housewives who do the family buying, trying to show them how to hold their budgets within reasonable bounds. At that time it occurred to me that retailers themselves need tips just as much as housewives if they are to balance their budgets. Seldom before has there been such bitter competition on the retail scene as there is today. So here are some suggestions for tradesmen, based upon my many years of observation.

First of all, I want to say that Christmas business over the coming weeks should exceed previous records. Earning power is good, and employment has risen.

Even more important, however, is the fact that I foresee a continuation of a good retail turnover well into 1964. So it is not a matter of retailers' preparing for just a few weeks of peak business. But during these bright times, competition will be the bugaboo. Only those retailers who are really on their toes will come out with healthy profits.

Take a good look at your establishment, your employees, your inventory, and your advertising. Be sure your store is neat, attractive, well-lighted, and near ample parking space. See to it that your merchandise is clearly visible at all levels, never cluttered so that even you are not sure where things are.

Keep your stock under constant control by regular inventory checkups. Know exactly what you are selling so that you never reorder haphazardly. Clear out slow-selling items by placing them where they will get immediate attention.

An astute store manager will screen employee aspirants himself. I can assure you it is worth the time. If you ask a man whether he can use a cash register and he says "yes," that is not enough. Use his references to find out whether or not he (or she) will use the register honestly, or you may find some of your profits going down the drain before you have a chance even to count them. Be sure, too that employees, after you hire them, show a real interest in the work. If they appear to be using the job as a fill-in or if they stand around wasting time between paydays, replace them at once.

Whether you operate a regular store or a discount house, honest and efficient help will make it possible for you to pay such workers more money because you will need fewer clerks. Never forget that a well-paid employee is a long-term asset. Nothing irritates a customer more than to be handled abruptly or discourteously. Even an uninformed reply to a question can bring bad publicity. Because bad publicity travels much faster than good publicity, just one dissatisfied customer can do your store an awful lot of harm.

I have long been a hearty booster of advertising in all its phases. Start your advertising with a tidy, well-arranged store and eye-catching window displays. Concentrate on things likely to cause people to mention your store favorably, such as friendly help, extra attention, and unusual shopping conveniences.

Take full advantage of promotion material provided by many national brands, placing them where they will attract the customer and bring him inside rather than in some out-of-the-way corner where their advertising value is wasted.

You will notice that the most successful merchants use a lot of newspaper space to stay in the public eye. Never underestimate the value of this type of advertising; it can often mean the difference between spectacular success and near-failure.

In selecting a location, what seems to be the highest rent may be the least expensive in the long run. Get close to a parking lot. Also don't worry if you are close to a large store with a vast number of customers. A small outlet near a supermarket can count upon getting a lot of the passing traffic; but check on the supermarket's lease. In conclusion, I urge you to draw up a long lease if you have a good spot, a year-by-year lease if your location seems doubtful to you. In short, "Play ball with your supermarket."

Statistics said she would die. Fire had eaten great patches of flesh from her little body, leaving only about twenty-percent untouched.

But miracles are wrought even today.

So it was that this little girl came to the hospital where doctors began an amazingly successful series of operations and treatments.

She lived.

But for weeks Sally, like so many seriously burned cases, lived in shock. Regaining consciousness, she was convinced that the doctors and nurses dressed in white gowns and masks were angels. She had died. This was heaven.

Then one day an "angel," who called herself a teacher, visited the little girl. Each day she came back, each day attempting to give mental life to the child.

"Sally, you're alive. I'm your teacher, not an angel. You're alive, you're going to get well."

Sally lived with her illusion until the teacher was able to bring in the child's grandmother from another state. Now she knew she lived. But the task of keeping her alive mentally went on.

First came warm encouragement, then reading of nursery stories. Gradually, Sally responded to her teacher's encouragement with thankful eyes. Next, the teacher painted figures of the nursery characters on the ceiling. She smiled now.

The teacher was reaching the child. Yet, this teacher, picked because of her expressive eyes, among other qualities, was not satisfied. How, she asked herself, can Sally really know me. She cannot see my face because of this mask. She cannot know when I am happy or when I am sad.

Then one day as Sally watched her teacher as she read, the teacher quickly put on another mask — only this one had smiling lips painted on it. And still another mask showed sad lips. Now the stories had meaning; now the teacher had expression.

Sally is gone now, back into a world to resume a normal life. But her little piece of heaven, her island of hope is perched yet in the sky overlooking Washtenaw county. To its shores every day come the sick, twisted, crippled bodies of children who for a few hours each week leave behind their pains, medicines and operations to study and play.

The island is the famous Kiwanis sponsored Forney W. Clement hospital school on the top floor of the University Hospital in Ann Arbor. It rose out of the sea of physical care in 1922 to become a successful therapy, evoking smiles where there is sadness and providing hope where there is discouragement.

Today, the Forney W. Clement project includes a preschool room, an isolation unit teacher, a burn unit teacher, and a recreation program. In addition, Kiwanis has expanded its project now to include a music therapy program for physically handicapped children at Grand Rapids' Mary Free Bed Children's Hospital.

How important is the school to the children?

Ask the mother who waited several hours for her young son to return from the recovery room following major surgery. While she counted the minutes, her son somehow made his way to the top floor to enjoy one of the weekly picnics sponsored by the school.

Or ask Billie who for the past four years has bounced back from painful, repeated surgery — just so he can go back upstairs to play with his cars, or paint, or touch the live guinea pigs.

Then you'll agree: miracles and angels are real.

Economy too Good For Tax Reform

Lansing — Probably the biggest single factor, other than the sheer presence of partisanship, in the defeat of Gov. George Romney's fiscal reform program was within the Governor's ranks.

It was not an intentional blow, but an unavoidable one. Controller Glenn S. Allen Jr. who ran with Romney last year on the state GOP ticket, was forced into disclosing his estimate of the state's fiscal picture at the end of the current fiscal year.

The picture was so rosy, although Allen was conservative in his estimate, it had adverse effects in the Legislature. Some republicans, already convinced they did not want an income tax, became more firm in their opposition when the estimate was announced.

At least some Democrats who have favored a similar reform program in past years decided to vote against this one on the basis of Allen's estimate of a $25 million surplus at the end of June.

For many of the Democrats it was largely a matter of choice: to support a program basically the same as they supported under their own party's administrations, or to find enough flaws in it to vote against it and hand Romney his first important defeat.

Allen had little, if any, choice. If he held back with the figures quite a few more legislators had indicated they could not vote on the program.

Releasing his estimate, however, confirmed that most legislators thought was true. The $77 million package of nuisance taxes enacted in 1961 is more than doing its job because Michigan is continuing to ride the wave of a boom.

All Romney's pleas to "fix the roof before the rains come" were to no avail. The impact of lack of action will probably only be known when the boom wave crests and begins to fall.

Loans available to Michigan college students through the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority will be sharply increased if the 1964 Legislature enacts a law to be proposed.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett said the law would raise the guarantee to banks on loans from the present 80 per cent on principal and interest to 100 per cent on principal alone.

Bartlett said this was expected to encourage greater participation in the loan program by banks.

The Authority already has passed the $500,000 mark in loans guaranteed for college youth in the state. The first loan was approved just over a year ago.

Now 83 banks are involved in participating agreement with the Authority to extend the loans, but officials hope the percentage guarantee change would enlist many more of the state's 375 banking institutions.

There is a good chance Michigan will record the lull before the storm in birth numbers this year.

State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis reports that at the three-quarter mark on the calendar year a total of 130,062 births were recorded, for an average of around 14,500 a month.

Projecting this through the last three months of the year would give a 12-month total of about 173,000 births. In the number this year falls below the 180,000 mark, it will be the lowest number since 1952, Heustis said.

The 1962 report showed 181,754 new babies were born. That was the fifth consecutive year to show a decline.

Michigan's latest population explosion high was in 1957 when 208,488 babies were born. The birth rate has been declining steadily since.

Another peak should come soon, as more and more "war babies" reach the marriage stage.

TO THE FAMILIES WHO OWN THE 1,491,395 ELECTRIC APPLIANCES REPAIRED BY EDISON

Nearly one million three hundred thousand of your electric appliances were repaired by Edison in 1962 without extra cost to you. About 200,000 more, for which there was some moderate charge, were also repaired.

Much of the work was done by experienced Edison people. Also capable handicapped people, employed by Goodwill Industries, supported themselves by repairing 182,000 of the appliances you brought in. They, too, are competent and conscientious workers and we are happy to have their participation and assistance.

Edison offers other services that cost nothing extra. These include the exchange of a variety of light bulbs and of fuses and appliance cords. There are advisory services for the homemaker to assist her with lighting, cleaning, laundry and kitchen planning. For the homeowner there's advice on home heating, water heating, wiring, and helpful suggestions about shrub and tree planting near electric lines. Similar types of services are offered to churches, schools, business firms and other establishments.

These services are brought to your attention because many of you may not be taking fullest advantage of them. Perhaps you are new as an Edison customer or perhaps you have just overlooked some of them.

People, moving to other areas, often write back to their friends to say how they miss Edison's extra services. From their comments it seems to us that Detroit Edison is an exception in providing such services without any extra cost to you.

Our Edison service is a broad service. It includes all the items described above, and all the electric energy you need. We like to feel our services are the kind that serve you well, and at a fair and reasonable cost.

Sincerely,

Walker L. Cislser
