

Area Greets Yule Season

Presentation of the 29th performance of Handel's Messiah will highlight Christmas programs here Sunday as area churches signal the birth of Christ in words and music.

A 40-voice community choir will present the traditional Christmas season oratorio at Northville's First Presbyterian church.

Six of the group will be taking part for the 29th time. They are Director Leslie Lee, Mrs. Lee, Carol Bryan, Russell Amerman, Mary Kissel and George Lockhart.

Featured soloists will be music majors from the University of Michigan, including Grace Hanninen, soprano, Mary Ellen Henkel, contralto; Dan Pressley, tenor; and John C. Henkel, bass.

Accompanists will be Sam Chizmar, organist, and Kathleen Bosch, pianist.

The performance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public free of charge. A collection will be taken to defray costs of soloists.

While many area churches plan Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services, most will carry Christmas messages or themes in Sunday worship services and many also will present special Christmas programs.

According to the Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner of High and Elm streets in Northville, both Sunday morning worship services will carry Advent themes in preparation for the celebration of Christ's birthday.

Services are conducted at 8 p.m. and at 10:30 a.m. at St. Paul's.

Between 2 to 3 p.m. Sunday, the Walther League and other young people of the church will rehearse for a Christmas Eve candlelight carol service. They'll also decorate the Christmas trees inside the church.

Two regular Sunday worship services are scheduled at the First Methodist Church of Northville, corner of Center and Dunlap streets, with emphasis on the story of Christmas.

According to the Rev. S. D. Kinde, pastor of the Northville Methodist church, the Harmony Choir will sing at the 8:45 service, while the Melody Choir will sing in the 11 a.m. service.

The topic of Rev. Kinde's sermon for both services will be "The Mystery of God."

A Christmas theme will highlight regular Sunday morning worship services at the First Presbyterian church of Northville, corner of Main and Church streets. Services are conducted at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Pastor of the church is the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure.

Regular morning worship service, which will carry a Christmas theme, and two special programs will highlight Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Northville, located at the corner of Randolph and High streets.

At 6 p.m., the senior young people will present a special Christmas program, followed by refreshments.

Then at 7:30 p.m., children of all Sunday School departments, supervised by Herbert Ware, will present their traditional Christmas program. Following this program, treats will be given to children.

The Northville Record

IF IT'S NEWS... AND IT HAPPENS IN NORTHVILLE... YOU CAN READ IT IN THE RECORD

Vol. 93, No. 31, 14 Pages, Two Sections

Northville, Michigan, Thursday, December 19, 1963

BEAM SCHEME — A pattern of criss-crosses is formed by the trusses installed last week atop the new Northville city hall. Late delivery of the trusses has delayed construction of the facility and the general contractor formally requested a 30-day extension beyond the March 1 date for completion in a letter to the city council Monday night. Work is expected to speed up with installation of the roof. It was noted, however, that blacktopping for drives and parking must now be postponed until spring.

Downs Awarded 48-Night Meet

Northville Downs was awarded a 48-night harness racing meet for the 1964 season as Racing Commissioner Berry Beaman announced dates for Michigan's four tracks totaling 196 nights.

The 1964 meet will begin June 8 and end August 1 at the Downs. Last year the local track had 45 nights.

Most important from the track's standpoint is the fact that the three additional nights are Thursday, Friday and Saturday — when mutuel handle receipts are highest.

Downs Executive Manager John Carlo expressed pleasure at the schedule, although Commissioner Beaman warned track operators that "it is not intended that this schedule shall set a precedent for future years."

The additional three nights should also boost the city tax coffers.

Last year the city received $122,426 73 in state tax rebates based on a total mutuel handle of $10,767,010. The total represented the biggest tax return ever recorded in the 20-year history of harness racing locally.

Even without an increase in the average mutuel handle next year, the additional dates would add about $10,000 to the tax take.

Township Sets Date On Water

The Northville township board accepted new petitions Monday for providing water service to 18 homes in Plymouth Gardens and set Friday, January 3 as the first public hearing on the special assessment project.

The proposed water system will be tapped into a 12-inch city of Detroit main running through the Bradner-Five Mile road area. Cost of the entire project has been estimated at $24,000. It was also determined that 23 properties in the subdivision will benefit and therefore divide the project cost equally.

Homeowners in the area have been plagued by dry wells for many months. The township board explored possibilities of gaining a supply from both Detroit and Plymouth and finally decided upon the Detroit source.

According to Supervisor R. D. Merriam, the petitions contained signatures of 64 per cent of the property owners in the area.

Shades of Scrooge

Somewhere in Northville there are some culprits who apparently enjoy destroying some of the beauty of the Christmas season.

They're bulb snatchers.

Township Clerk Marguerite Young reports that two full strings of lights and 40 individual bulbs were taken from a 12-foot high spruce Christmas tree in the Young yard.

For 10 years, reports Mrs. Young, the tree has been decorated at Christmastime. Each year as it grows more lights are added. The tree is on a hill near the Young home in Hidden Valley at the end of Spring drive.

Other area residents have reported similar thefts in past years.

"It's too bad," laments Mrs. Young. "Everyone enjoys the colorful displays at Christmas and this could ruin it."

South Lyon Awarded $64,000 Sewer Grant

A $64,000 question was answered in South Lyon this week by the federal government as that city became the fifth area community to receive matching funds.

In telegrams from Michigan's U.S. Senators, city officials learned Monday that South Lyon will receive $64,000 under the accelerated public works program, for installation of surface drains.

Other area communities which already have received matching funds are Northville, Wixom, Farmington and Plymouth.

Call Meeting To Set Route Of Detroit Water

The route of a 24-inch city of Detroit water line through Northville will be the subject for discussion when local officials huddle with Detroit Water Board representatives in Detroit this afternoon.

Detroit is pressing for a decision. Funds have already been allocated under a federal grant to extend the line from Meadowbrook on Eight Mile road to Center street at old Baseline. Contract for the project has been awarded and under terms of the grant work must proceed on schedule.

Plans call for the line to extend southward to Plymouth. It is expected that it will be constructed only as far as the Wayne County Training School on Sheldon road next spring, however.

Specifically, Detroit would prefer that the line follow the Baseline to Center street route then south on Center straight through the city, to Five Mile road.

Councilmembers balk at this proposal. And because Detroit must gain easement rights from the city along Baseline, the council holds the trump cards.

Because Center street is a county road, it is uncertain whether or not the city can refuse Detroit the right to construct its line along this thoroughfare. But to arrive at Center, Detroit must secure Northville's easement permission.

While Northville has no present plans for use of city of Detroit water, it is conceded that eventually the community will become a Detroit customer.

Detroit is eager to sell its supply and the water has many advantages, particularly in softness and long-range quantity.

Because the council is aware that one day the city will tap into the Detroit line, it is important to consider how close the line will be to Northville's water tower.

Obviously, a Baseline-Center street connection point would offer reasonable proximity.

But the prospect of disrupting Center street with a maze of utility lines already beneath the surface and traffic and business problems to be considered alarms the council.

The council would like Detroit to extend its line to Baseline and Center. But it would prefer that the southbound arm follow the railroad, for example, and then cut across the park to Sheldon road. Or, another suggestion, has been to follow the old Baseline easement west of Center and circle west around the city somewhere in the area of Clement road.

While no final decision is expected to be reached today, the council will undoubtedly return with definite alternatives for an early reply to the Detroit request.

School Vacation Starts Tomorrow

Tomorrow (Friday) marks the last day of school here before the two week holiday vacation, officials reminded parents this week.

School will resume on Monday, January 6.

Also out on a "vacation" will be the board of education, which will not meet for its regularly scheduled session on Monday, December 22.

night the council opened bids for library and city hall furniture from a number of suppliers. A committee of the city manager, Councilmembers Richard Ambler and Beatrice Carlson were appointed to study the bids and report their findings.

The council also heard a request from Fran Gazlay to consider adoption of an ordinance to provide for an historical commission. Gazlay said such a body could work with an historical society, now under formation locally, and help provide for the preservation and display of old items representing early Northville.

Gazlay was asked by the council to report more specifically the function and needs for such a commission in the near future.

The council referred a request by John Carlo of Northville Downs to the planning commission. Carlo had asked permission to park trailers on property along River street. Under T-1P zoning now on the property, trucks and trailers are prohibited.

But City Attorney Phillip Ogilvie reported that covenants placed on the deed of the property only prohibits building of horse barns or stabling, or the parking of trailers or trucks to be used for living quarters.

The council approved closing of the city hall offices at 1 p.m. on the day before Christmas and New Year's.

Finally, City Manager Bruce Potthoff reported that a metal box was being prepared to install inside the city hall structure. The box will contain a city code and charter, zoning ordinance and map, 1963-64 budget, civil defense pamphlet, an April 25, 1963 edition of The Record containing a history of the old city hall and a brief history of Northville.

Paragon Firm President Frank DePodesta Dies

Frank DePodesta, president and founder of Paragon Bridge & Steel company of Novi, died last Wednesday (December 11) at the age of 52.

One of the chief organizers of Paragon in 1947, DePodesta directed the firm to a position of leadership in its field. It is now the second largest fabricator of structural steel in the state and is a pioneer and chief supplier of the railroad auto-carriers.

Funeral services were held from McCabe Funeral Home in Detroit Monday at 1 p.m. Services were under the auspices of City of Straits Lodge No. 452, F. & A.M. Interment was at Acacia Park Cemetery in Birmingham.

DePodesta, who lived at 22885 Walsingham in Farmington, had been in ill health for two years. He was born on February 18, 1911 in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, the son of

Frank and Mary Gallo DePodesta.

Besides his wife, Alice, he is survived by a son, Frank J.; and two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Gail) Perrin and Mrs. Gary (Nancy) Sabbath; and brothers, John, Paul and Arthur; and sisters, Mrs. Inez Fury, Mrs. Ida Darm and Mrs. Mary Larese, and three grandchildren.

Frank DePodesta

DePodesta was a member of the advisory board of directors of National Bank of Detroit in Farmington, the Moslem Temple Shrine, Farmington Shrine Club, Huron Valley Hunt Club, Meadowbrook Country Club, Traffic Club of Detroit and the American Institute of Steel Construction.

Paragon Bridge & Steel Company was originally organized as Paragon Construction Company to engage in general contracting work. A steel fabrication division was started and it soon became the principle part of the business. By 1953 Paragon completely withdrew from the general contracting business.

The firm entered the material handling field in 1949 and bridge fabrication in 1953. Paragon purchased its 45-acre site in Novi in 1953 and completed the first section of the shop the next year. The office facilities were completed in 1955. Two major additions have been made to the shop area since bringing the total area to some 210,000 square feet. In 1958 the firm name was changed.

Talk on Holy Land Set

An exciting trip to the Holy Land at Christmas is in store for members and guests who attend the annual Woman's Club Christmas Tea program tomorrow.

The tea, which will be held at the library building tomorrow afternoon, honors new members of the club.

Mrs. Ralph MacMullen of Detroit will present a program entitled "Christmas In The Holy Land". In 1959 she spent 11 days in the Holy Land, Jerusalem and she spent Christmas Eve in Bethlehem.

Retired from the social studies department of the Detroit board of education after a 34-year teaching career, she specialized in the field of government history and geography.

Because traveling is an ideal way to make such fields of interest more graphic, she and her husband, Ralph MacMullen, began a trip around the world upon his retirement in 1959.

For eight months the couple visited 36 countries in four continents, traveling 52,000 miles by plane, helicopter, boat, train, car, bus, elephant and camel. That doesn't include about 1,000 miles of walking.

Daughter of a Danish pioneer minister, she is a college graduate with an M.A. in political science, an officer in the Scandinavian Symphony Society and its women's organization and president of a political club.

Born in Michigan, she knew no English until she went to public school at age 9. She spoke only Danish until then.

A CHRISTMAS SEASON BIRTHDAY might seem inconvenient at first thought. Not so, though, in the family of the Rev. George Jerome. The Jerome family stars the 19th of December (today) each year to make father's birthday the official opening of a tradition-filled holiday season.

Tonight the entire family stays home, refusing all engagements, Mrs. Jerome relates; and instead of "shoving it under the rug" the birthday becomes a tree-trimming party.

The tree trimming itself is an important tradition in the Jerome family. Every year each of the children selects an ornament for the tree, which is labeled with his or her name. These will be taken to their first homes when they marry.

Mrs. Jerome likes to observe her five children's selections: Janey's are big; John chooses artistic "gems"; collegian Philip looks for bargain assortments; David's are plain but bright; and four-year-old Nancy, selecting for the first time, picked a fish-shaped ornament!

It was six years ago that Mrs. Jerome culled the ornament-buying idea from a magazine. Her family's enthusiasm led to its adoption by another Northville family — the A. E. Joneses. Their three children are continuing the tradition this year. Eldest daughter Carol already has arrived from Michigan State for the Christmas holidays.

A SIMILAR SUPPLY OF ORNAMENTS is being accumulated by Mrs. George Weiss, who yearly selects ornaments for her three grandchildren and labels them with the child's name and the year.

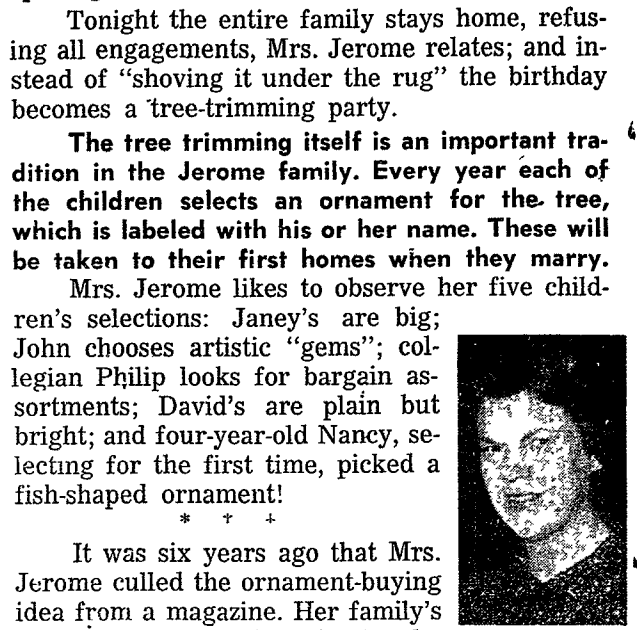

The Weisses are hoping to deliver the 1963 ornaments in person the week-end after Christmas, when they plan to visit their daughter and her husband, the Shelby Harringtons, in Buffalo. Another daughter, Barbara, expected here Sunday from Wyoming where she has been teaching. Son Charles ("Tim") is home from Michigan State college.

CHRISTMAS TRADITION revolves around food at the Carl W. Stephens home on Norton street.

"It wouldn't be Christmas if we didn't have mince meat pies," Mrs. Stephens exclaims. The pies she, and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Denton, make are individual ones. They even make their own mince meat — from a recipe more than 100 years old. The English tradition is that every little pie eaten insures a happy month to come. And Mrs. Stephens confides that each year many, many month-pies are quickly consumed.

Since former Northville Police Chief Denton and Mrs. Denton are English, it is only natural that many family traditions are from the British Isles. Another is the plum pudding which they annually serve flaming with brandy sauce. Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Stephens both are fruitcake and cookie bakers. This year Mrs. Stephens lost count of the exact number of cookies she baked to give friends, but it was between 100 and 150 DOZEN.

The Stephens' children have another Christmas ritual: both Carl, 13, and Mary, 10, hang up special stockings (made by a family friend) for Santa to fill. The family has a collection of movies to remember this event.

Mrs. Stephens

Winter will officially begin three days before Christmas, reminds University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The sun will arrive at the winter solstice at 9:02 a.m. Sunday, December 22. It will then swing its shortest daily arc across the southern sky and making the shortest day of about nine hours and longest night, about 15 hours.

Professor Losh also points out that the eastern horizon in December is host to some of the most beautiful and colorful of stars:

—Auriga, the large five-sided figure, ruled by the bright yellow star, Capella, rises in the northeast soon after sunset.

—The Pleiades, followed by the rest of the constellation Taurus, rises at about the same time as Capella. Taurus is symbolized by the great letter 'V' with its orange star, Aldebaran, at the end of the lower prong.

—The winter constellations center mostly around Orion with his two Hunting Dogs and the Hare below him. Those who devised the constellations evidently intended to depict a hunting scene with the Dogs pursuing the Hare, and it in turn crouching low close to Orion seeking his protection.

—Sirius in the figure of the Greater Dog (Canis Major) is the brightest of all stars. It is easily identified by extending a line downward through the three belt stars of Orion. From time immemorial, Sirius has been watched, admired, and revered, rising as it does in the early evenings around Christmas time.

DAR Holds Christmas Tea Here

A house-full of guests were on hand Monday afternoon for the Christmas Tea of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The tea was held in the West Main street home of Mrs. William Baker.

Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Clyde Kell, first vice-regent, St. Clair Chapter of the DAR. The topic of her talk was "Let's Keep Observing Christmas as Christ's Birthday."

Guests of honor were Miss Isle Reichle of Tuttingen, Germany, who received her United States citizenship papers on December 3 in Federal court at Detroit, and Mrs. David Wood of Plymouth with whom Miss Reichle is living.

The local chapter presented Miss Reichle with an American flag.

Members attending the tea brought along useable discarded clothing which will be sent to DAR supported schools. Assisting Mrs. Baker as hostesses were Mrs. Dan Hiller, Mrs. George Zerbel, Mrs. George Merwin, Northville; and Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Livonia.

ART AROUND US

by Jessie Hudson

Christmas is a good time to buy art. The galleries around have wider than usual selections to choose from. Instead of the work of one artist you can run the gamut of many styles — one of which is sure to please.

The Little Gallery at 915 East Maple in Birmingham has chosen to go Oriental this year. They offer scrolls, wood carvings, tapestries, ceremonial robes, antique dolls and, of course, wood block prints from Japan, India and Thailand, too are represented with sculpture, miniature paintings and saris, even. Open Tuesday through Saturday from 9-6. This Far Eastern collection remains until the 28th.

The Artists Gallery, 330 Nickels Arcade, Ann Arbor, to the west of us has water colors and oils by Celia Kelly, teacher in Ypsilanti schools. Mrs. Kelly has "Impressions of Land, Sea" as the theme of this current show. This upstairs gallery is open from 10-6 weekdays and from 10-2 on Saturdays.

While in this fascinating arcade leading from Maynard street to State it is always rewarding to climb one flight of broad stairs to The Forsythe Gallery where the regular stable of artists (mostly professors at the U. of M. and Eastern Michigan university) are featured for Christmas. They also have some prints and some art collected in Europe and Mexico. Prices are rather high here but so is the quality. Hours are 10-4 weekdays, 10-2 on Saturday.

Prices are much more reasonable but the quality still good at the Hartley Powers Gallery, 116 E. Main street, Northville. No professors here (well, one, maybe) but high school teachers well represented in painting and ceramics. Also some very serious painters who are building reputations in state and local shows. This is a friendly little gallery where the conversation is apt to turn in many fascinating directions — realism, abstraction, literature — poetry. Good spot to drop in to regularly — always something of interest to see.

The artists, too, drop in frequently to help trim windows, change exhibits — tend the store — or just visit — Hours are 12-6 weekdays, 6-9 on Friday, 9-6 on Saturday. You can also buy your license plates here for alas, art needs support and sales alone won't do it.

The Museum of Art in Ann Arbor at State and S. University has an exhibit of Primitive Art until January 12. This is one show I don't want to miss.

SENIOR GET-TOGETHER — The first meeting of a proposed senior citizens organization was held Sunday afternoon at the Northville Recreation building. Called by Recreation Director Ken Conley, the meeting was attended by 40 Northville area residents. The group discussed the kinds of activities in which they were interested and decided to meet again January 14 at 7:30 p.m. to elect organization officers. Pouring coffee and serving cookies to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Billman (left) as others await their turns are Jaycette Mrs. Robert Prom and Girl Scout Nancy Quay. The Jaycettes hosted the senior citizens, while the Girl Scouts assisted in serving refreshments.

with Youth Appreciation Week (November 16, 1963). The club asked for the reasons relative to denying the request and also a clear statement as to policy in respect to use of the building. Mr. Ambler explained that this request was considered and that the by-laws do not provide that the building be used for this purpose; the community building was considered a better place for a large dance of this nature. Mr. Severance's letter is to be answered stating that the matter has been referred to the Recreation committee. Copy of this correspondence is to go to Northville township. Mr. Ambler feels that the by-laws could be reviewed by both the Northville City Council and the Northville Township board.

Mr. George Kohs, representing the Optimist Club, was present and asked that these by-laws be published for the community's benefit. Mr. Ambler is to see that Mr. Kohs gets copy of these by-laws.

Communications from Citizens:

Mr. George Kohs, W. Cady
street, spoke regarding the tree program and trees in front of his home. Mr. Canterbury reviewed Mr. Kohs' complaints
as follows:

(1) a tree was cut down that should not have been and the stump is still present.

(2) many trees on the street are infested with ants which are killing trees.

The city manager is to contact John Miller of Green Ridge Nursery to determine facts concerning cutting down of tree at Mr. Kohs' home and also make sure that the stump on city property in front of his home, is removed. Mr. Kohs was told that a comprehensive tree program has been set up on a 4-yr. basis and the tree-trimming, now in effect, is to be continued. Mayor Allen offered Council's apologies for any inconvenience caused by this incident and assured him all possible would be done regarding the trees.

Mr. Kohs asked for information regarding agendas and was told they are available on Friday of each second and fourth week.

Second Public Hearing on Orchard Drive Storm Sewer:

Mayor Allen called to order
the public hearing on the Orchard drive storm sewer assessment which had been designated for Monday, November 18, 8:00 p.m. The city attorney explained the necessity for the second public hearing and it was established that notices had been sent out to the various property owners affected by the special assessment. Mr.
Hans Warzinski, Orchard drive asked questions regarding the raise in the assessment and also how the assessments were determined and these were answered by the city attorney and city engineer. Mr. John Cher-rick, Scott Avenue, asked regarding his property and Mr.
Penn explained the topography of his property in relation to the .16 acre designated as benefit area.

The city attorney read the resolution, for the Orchard drive storm sewer assessment (additional) No. 63-11-11, due July 1, 1964, payable within 60 days without interest on penalty. The above resolution was adopted on motion of Ambler and support of Kester. Unanimously carried.

Award Contract for Storm
Sewer on Orchard drive:

After determining that D'Angela and Pollicelli Construction Company's bid of last month was firm, it was moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that the D'Angela and Pollicelli Construction company, low bidder, be awarded the contract in the amount of $48,975.35 for the Orchard Drive storm sewer job.
Unanimously carried.

Preliminary Plat for Yerkes' Estates subdivision No. 6:
City manager reviewed the planning commission's minutes wherein changes were suggested and indicated that these changes had been made in relation to the footage of lots 184-187.

The city attorney asked why the particular terminology was used on the plat regarding easement and suggested it should read "Public Easement"
— for drainage and public utilities". This is to be called to the attention of the Planning Commission before their final approval of the plat.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Canterbury that preliminary approval be given to the Yerkes' Estates Subdivision
No. 6 Plat. Unanimously carried.

Report on Furniture for new city hall and library.

The city manager reported that this expenditure will be a rather sizeable item approximately $25,000 for site improvement and equipment. He has consulted with the Wayne County Library and they have furnished him with figures as follows for necessary furniture:

Furniture — $4,328. Shelving
— $3,400.

The city manager itemized other furniture needed for the building amounting to approximately $7,000. It was suggested that maximum use of the architect be made for advice in this matter. Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that the city manager be authorized to obtain bids on quantities of furniture as recommended in his report; these bids to come in on Monday, December 16, 1963, 8:00 p.m. at the city hall. Unanimously carried.

Grosse Ile Trips Local Grapplers

Injuries knocked the Northville Mustangs out of contention Thursday in a wrestling match with Grosse Ile here as the local matmen were tripped up, 32-15.

Out of commission with injuries were Dave Kerr, an undefeated 165 pounder and Jerry Burns, who is the Mustangs stellar heavyweight.

Kerr sustained a mouth injury when he was hit with an elbow in practice. Burns pulled a muscle in a previous meet with North Farmington.

Even in a winning cause, one Northville matman was injured and will be out for one week.

He was Captain Bob Steeper, who won a three-point decision. Although he suffered a shoulder separation in the first period, he finished the match the victor.

Winning by a pin were Bill Wilson at 133 pounds and Bob Orr at 180 pounds.

Holding his opponent to a draw was 120 pound Dan Simonson.

Coach Dick Gray noted that along with the injuries, the Mustangs also were hurt by men failing to make their weight. "To be effective as a team," he said, "we'll have to lose a few pounds."

Northville's next opponent will be Flat Rock here at 6 p.m. tonight.

previously accepted. The city attorney is to find out if the bank will give the city notice of expiration of said letter of credit.

Moved by Ambler, supported by Kester to substitute an irrevocable letter of credit, subject to the provision that the city will be notified of expiration of said letter, and also a proper agreement between the city and the subdivider. Unanimously carried.

The city manager, in answer to a question from Mr. Kester said that to the best of his knowledge, the rumor is not true that Consumers' Power Company is planning to tear up Main street and that the Bell Telephone Company is to tear up Center street for expansion programs.

Mrs. Carlson and Mr. Kester are to check on the availability of different places for meetings. Mr. Ellison is to send a copy of meeting places that he is investigating and compiling.

A complaint has been made to Mrs. Carlson regarding maintenance of cemetery; she wondered if the city manager could get the figures on the power clips that could be used in the cemetery.

Mrs. Carlson also said she has been attending Planning Commission meetings and finds them most interesting and distributed copies of a portion of the proposed Central Business District which Mr. Johnson of Waring and Johnson had supplied her with.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne
City Clerk

Nip Holly But Choke on Rocks

Mustangs Hit Peak, New Low in Double Bill

The youthful Northville Mustangs ran the basketball gamut the past weekend.

They won a thriller Friday night against visiting Holly, 63-62, as Lance Hahn converted a last second free throw to provide the margin of victory in a hard fought tussle.

A taller, all-senior Plymouth squad then took complete advantage of Northville's inexperience Saturday night as the Rocks won with ease on their home court, 82-35.

Northville hit its peak Friday as it showed signs of coming of age.

Led by sophomore Jerry Inslund and Junior Rick Milne, the fired up local cagers controlled the rebounds, giving the Mustangs three and even four shots on several offensive flurries.

Only the sharp shooting of Holly's Tom Fagan and Jack Bennett kept the visitors close as Holly seldom had more than one opportunity to score when it had the ball.

Their efforts in the last quarter erased Northville's 10 point lead entering the final stanza.

With the exception of the fourth quarter, Northville's back court play was much improved as Hahn and Dan Bishop squelched Holly's efforts to press the Mustangs into mistakes.

Playing his best varsity game was Senior Jim Mazel, who led his team mates with 18 points.

Mazel's bucket as the buzzer sounded gave the local cagers a three point advantage at half time. And his two-point throw 15 seconds remaining tied the game at 62-all, setting the stage for Hahn's winning free throw.

Backing up Mazel in the scoring column were Inslund with 14, Hahn with 12 and Milne with nine points.

On defense, the Mustangs moved quickly in their zone, rustling the shooter and covering the team mates.

The first quarter ended in a 16-16 tie. Bennett hit on two successive jump shots to gain the tie. But even in the opening period, Northville's rebounding edge was evident.

Mazel and Inslund, with three field goals each, led the local attack as Northville went out front at the half, 33-29.

Northville jumped to a 10 point advantage at the outset of the second canto, closing the period with a 48-38 lead. Again, Mazel netted a two-point shot at the close of the quarter.

Holly took the initiative in the last quarter as it pressed the local five, and its shots were on target. Inslund's fifth foul with four minutes remaining hurt the Mustangs under the boards.

Bennett tied the game at 60-all with a minute remaining, and Fagan put Holly out front, 62-60, when he intercepted the ball on the succeeding out-of-bounds play and scored.

The stage was thus set for Mazel's field goal and Hahn's free throw.

Plymouth turned the Saturday night tilt into a run away with a 32 point third quarter, while holding Northville to 11 points to take a 69-35 lead.

With Northville Coach Dave Longridge substituting freely, the Rocks increased their advantage in the last stanza, holding the Mustangs scoreless.

Again, the Black and Oranges' inability to bring the ball up court in the face of a tight man-to-man press led to a flurry of Plymouth tallies.

It was strictly no contest at this point.

Five Plymouth seniors scored in double figures to give the bigger Rocks, a well balanced attack. They were Captain Cal Lurbrand (15), brawny football end Dick Egloff (14), Doug Superland and Jerry K. Sabeth (12) and Gary Grady (10).

Giving the Rocks superiority under the boards were two six-foot, three-inch jumping jacks, Jim Lake and Dave Tidwell.

Northville's attack and rebounding game suffered a serious set back when Milne and Mazel, who turned in stellar performances the previous night against Holly, left the game during the first half with four fouls apiece.

Without Milne teaming with Inslund for muscle to offset Plymouth's height advantage, Northville lost its impetus and almost all chance for a comeback.

Northville opened fast and stayed on Plymouth's heels through the first quarter, trailing by only 15-10.

Plymouth, with superior depth, however, rushed the local five into mistakes and began its domination in the second period. Still, Northville was in contention, 13 points behind at half time.

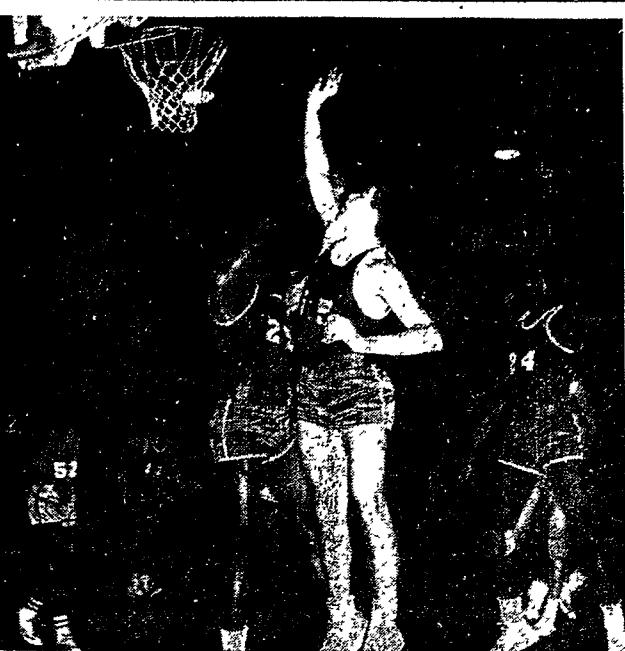

Then came the third quarter who had nine.

ter debacle and Northville's inability to score a single point in the fourth frame.

Hahn, who helped to take up some of the rebounding slack when Milne left the game, tallied eight points. He was second to Forward Tim Krug who had nine.

Although Mustang Mentor Longridge cleared the bench in the last period, a few of Plymouth's regulars remained in the ball game throughout to preserve its advantage and to extend its lead.

Northville now stands 1-3 for the young season.

HIT 28 POINTS — A U.S. Army service basketball team in Germany racked up its highest point output recently as a Northville serviceman, Dennis LaRoque, poured in 28 points. Pfc. LaRoque, who plays with the 2nd TAB Owls in Stuttgart, Germany, was instrumental in his team's 101-62 triumph over the 52nd Med. Bn. Crusaders. Pfc. LaRoque, who has been stationed in Germany for nearly two years, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George LaRoque of 257 Hutton. He entered the Army in 1961, taking his training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Colts Split Pair In Weekend Tilts

The Northville Colts, like their varsity mates, split a pair of weekend encounters, bouncing Holly Friday, 45-24, then taking one on the chin at Plymouth, 54-38.

The taller Colts got off to a quick 11-3 first quarter lead against Holly and coasted the rest of the way to win by a comfortable margin.

Holly managed only five shots during the first quarter, hitting on only one and a free throw.

Northville increased the margin during the second period to leave the floor at half-time with a 25-9 lead.

Pacing the local attack were Steve Evans with 14 points and Mike Turnbull with 11.

The JV's superiority was evident in the statistics as they outshot Holly 17 to 10 in 53 and 44 attempts, respectively. The Plymouth fray was another story.

Northville found itself lagging at half time, 30-17 as Plymouth's junior varsity utilized a running game to mount the lead.

Sparked by Evans, the Colts made a second half bid, but Plymouth clung to its lead to win.

Four fouls racked up early by Evans and John Jameson in the first half stymied the Colt attack. Dick McIsaac scored seven points in the final stanza to make the score respectable. Evans again copped scoring.

Frosh Hit Two Game Win Streak

After their opening game setback, the Northville freshmen cagers bounced back with two wins last week to establish a 2-1 early season record.

Northville preserved a nine point half time margin Wednesday to edge Milford, 35-22, then played its best game of the season in defeating a taller Plymouth quintet Friday, 47-36.

Both games were played on the road.

Improved defensive rebounding and good passing and shooting enabled the frosh to dent the Milford zone in the first half for a 25-16 advantage.

But the local frosh hit a few snags in the second half as the Redskins came on with a rush.

Northville had difficulty moving the ball up court against a Milford press. In addition, the local cagers couldn't hit consistently from the field or at the free throw line.

Slowing the attack also was the absence of three of the frosh starters, who sat out approximately six minutes of the second half with four fouls apiece.

Leading scorers for Northville were Jack Crawford with 12 and Glen Diebert with 10 points.

Trojans Await Northville Clash

Next opponent on tap for the Northville Mustangs are the Trojans of Clarencville tomorrow night at Clarencville.

The varsity game will follow the junior varsity tilt, which will get underway at 6:30.

Clarencville is an outfit not to be taken lightly, since it has demonstrated that it can be tough on the home court. The Trojans, in fact, toppled West Bloomfield in its first game of the season. West Bloomfield, the succeeding Friday, polished off Northville.

If the Mustangs hope to win, it will have to beat the Trojans' Bob Graves off the boards. Graves is a six foot four inch pivot man, who is one of the best rebounders and scorers in the Wayne-Oakland conference.

When's the Election?

Just when's the next township election?

That's a question being asked today by a good many township officials as they await some ruling or statute implementing the new state constitution which takes effect January 1.

At present, according to Township Supervisor Hadley Bachert, there is no clear answer to the question and township's simply must wait for word from higher echelons.

If nothing were to be changed, he pointed out, the next township election would take place in February of 1965 — that being a primary. The regular election would take place the following April (in 1965).

However under the new constitution, spring elections have been abolished — for township, county and state offices. Cities and villages are not legally affected, but must abide by their own charters.

While he has no substantiated information, Bachert believes the next township election — because of the constitution — will be a primary election next August, followed by the regular election to coincide with the Presidential election in November.

In this event, he continued, it is likely that those officials who were elected for four years will be required to run for re-election (if they wish the post) two years before their terms expire. In fact, all officials — even those serving two-year terms — would find their terms of office cut short.

In Justice Court

Five persons were fined and a charge against another was dismissed in Northville justice court this past week.

Clyde Hollon of Walled Lake, arrested early Saturday morning and charged with having no operator's license, pleaded guilty upon arraignment and was fined $10 and $10 costs or three days in jail.

A $10 fine also was assessed against Robert Watson of 415 North Center street, who was charged with permitting his dog to run at large. He pleaded guilty.

Justice of the Peace Charles McDonald found Viola Gallagher, 913 Carrington, guilty of speeding 32 in a 25 mph zone and fined her $7. She had pleaded not guilty to a charge of speeding 35 in a 25 mph zone and, upon hearing testimony of she and the policeman, the justice assessed the fine.

James L. Morrison of 319 Randolph pleaded guilty of assault and battery, a charge brought by his wife, and was fined $25, suspended costs or 10 days.

The operator's license of Wilburn H. Coudle of 50040 West Six Mile was automatically revoked for 90 days and he was fined $50 and $5 costs in lieu of a 30-day sentence after he pleaded guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor.

A dog ordinance violation complaint brought against Florence Farrell of 370 First street by Charles Mummery of 384 First was dismissed by Justice McDonald Monday. She pleaded not guilty on grounds that she did not own the dog in question. Mummery had charged her with letting the dog run at large.

Police Check

Novi Thefts Of Tires

Novi police are investigating several cases of theft reported this past week.

A truck tire was reported stolen from a vehicle parked in the old E&L Transport yard at Wixom road and Grand River. Thomas J. Macaluso of 41711 Aspen drive, who reported the theft, valued the tire at $100.

Thieves also stole two tires and wheels from a car parked in a lot at Jakes Gulf Service, 41425 Ten Mile road, last Thursday night.

Apparently, they were frightened off before they could steal anything else, police said, because hub caps and a jack were found at the scene.

An attempted theft of a wheel at Jackson's Garage, 30001 Novi road, was reported earlier last week. Virgil Jackson reported someone drove into the garage parking lot and tried to remove the right front wheel of a car.

A hydraulic cylinder, valued at $60, was reported stolen by Henry Bashian, 40255 Grand River, on Thursday. The cylinder was located in a barn near the edge of Bashian's Orchard.

Also on Thursday, Larry Johnson of 43053 Eleven Mile road, reported a car stolen from a parking lot at Lacy Tool company at 40375 Grand River. However, the car was returned later and the driver explained he had taken it by mistake.

Other police business this past week included:

Four young men were arrested and fined Saturday before Justice of Peace Emery Jacques after each pleaded guilty of drinking charges.

Joseph D. Shillair of Detroit was fined $15 for consuming alcoholic beverage on a public highway; and Stewart Selman, 17, Michael Ziegler, 18 and Alan Gornbein, 17, were each fined $20 on charges of being minors in possession of alcoholic beverage.

LET'S TALK CARS

DEATH ON THE HIGHWAYS

The necessity of getting plenty of rest before driving long highway distances can hardly be emphasized enough. Thousands of drivers who fail to pull over when they feel drowsiness creeping over them are killed each year as they pile up against trees, bridge abutments and other obstacles.

How long does it take to die from such a collision? Less than a second, according to studies by the National Highway Users Conference.

Taking an average speed of only 55 mph, one-tenth of a second of contact is required to crush the bumper and grill. In the second one-tenth of a second, fenders buckle, the hood flies up against the windshield, and the back wheels leave the ground. If, as is often the case, the driver's legs are held stiffly in front of him, they may break at the knees.

Three-tenths of a second after impact, the body, still traveling at 55 mph, smashes into the steering wheel while the motor block hits the tree. In the next three-tenths of a second, the driver's chest is crushed by the steering wheel. His head smashes through the windshield and shock paralyzes his heart. He is dead.

In seven-tenths of a second in all, hinges tear, locks spring and the driver may be thrown out of the car.

Seat belts will help a lot. But the only sure safeguard is alertness that never rests. If you are celebrating over the holiday season, sober up and rest before you attempt to drive.

Car Hits Bike; Hurts Boy Here

A 15-year-old boy, hit by a car while riding a bicycle on Eight Mile road near Beck Saturday evening, was reported in good condition at St. Mary Hospital earlier this week.

Eugene Karre Jr. of 47000 South Chigwidden suffered head and leg injuries when a car, driven by James N. Wiley of 52272 Nine Mile road, struck his bike.

Wiley told police he was driving west on Eight Mile road about 8:45 p.m. when he noticed a bicyclist on the south side of the road as another car approached. Suddenly, he spotted the Karre boy on the opposite side of the road riding a bike without lights.

He said he tried to avoid hitting the boy but was unable to do so, police reported.

Police Investigate Theft of Honey

Northville police are investigating a complaint of vandalism and theft in an orchard storage shed at 46000 West Eight Mile road.

According to police, someone broke out windows in the shed to gain entrance, damaged apple crates and apples and stole honey stored inside last Thursday night or early Friday morning.

Nature Paints Winter Landscape

SNOWBOUND — Nature's paint brush was busy this past week as the first blanket of snow settled over the community turning the outdoors into a great artistic canvas. In one swift stroke of the brush, the drab and dying park landscape was turned into a beautiful white slumber to await a new and vigorous awakening next spring.

ONLY 16 THIS YEAR — Seven Northville area hunters returned from the Rocky Mountains of Colorado this past week with 16 deer. Nine of the deer are stacked like cordwood here with hunters (l to r) Ralph Foreman, Jr., Ron Shoebridge and Bill Cavanagh. Other members of the three-week hunting party, not shown here, are Bob Totten, Pete Valentine, George Shoebridge and Mick O'Leary. Last year some of the same hunters returned with 21 deer. A $47.50 license in Colorado entitles a hunter to three deer, and the hunting expedition similar to the one enjoyed by these hunters costs about $200 each.

God's Forgotten Son

The story is told about the Sunday school teacher who asked one of her pupils to quote John 3:16. The youngster proceeded thus: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only 'forgotten' Son..." To this child, who had heard the verse recited by others, the word "begotten" sounded like "forgotten." However, unwittingly, this young Sunday school
pupil had touched upon an important truth regarding the relationship of men to the one true God and Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son. To many, Jesus Christ is God's "forgotten" Son,
for they seldom think about Him except possibly for an hour or so each year during the Christmas and Easter seasons. The following are several areas in which our Lord has become the "forgotten Son of God".

I. Forgotten in Personal
Life:

Some men live as though they plan to reside on earth forever. Their thoughts and ways are centered around a materialistic philosophy of life. Such men live as if they were captains of their own souls and master of their own fate. The Lord Jesus Christ means little or nothing to such persons.
They plan their lives, filling every moment with selfish interests and ambitions only to come to the end of life
realizing it has been empty and devoid of meaning because God has been crowded out. Our Lord spoke of such a man in the gospel of Luke. This man of great wealth forgot that God Almighty has a claim on every human life. This particular fellow had been so busy preparing to live that he forgot to prepare to die. The Bible says of him: "And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thee ease,
eat, drink and be merry.
But God said unto him,
Thou fool, this night
thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall these things be, which thou hast provided?" (Luke 12:19-20).

Secondly, Our Lord has
been:

II. Forgotten in Domestic Life:

At this particular season
of the year, our homes
mean a great deal to us.
There is something special about being at home with the family at Christmas time. However, many homes are not homes because God has been forgotten. In such places, the holiday season is spent in drunken revelry. Children from such environment know little about Jesus Christ except that they hear His name taken in vain during a cursing rage. The returning of thanks at meal time is never done. Prayer to such a household is a stranger.
God has laid a heavy responsibility upon every parent. Before the Lord, they are responsible for the spiritual as well as the physical welfare of their children.
God will not hold parents
guiltless who make no provision in this regard for their little ones. The book of Proverbs, in the Old Testament, contains many exhortations along this line,
the "most" familiar being:
"Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." The words "train up" suggest various ideas of teaching and instruction of the proper kind in the early days of youth. These same words have been translated elsewhere in the Bible as "to dedicate or consecrate." In other words, our homes, our lives, and especially our children ought to be dedicated to the Lord.
Thirdly, Jesus Christ has
been:

III. Forgotten in Church
Life:

At first glance, this may seem to be a strange statement. How could Christ be forgotten in churches? Any church which does not honor the Bible as the Word of God, and the Christ of the Bible as the Son of God who was all He claimed to be, has forgotten the purpose for which the church was instituted. In this day, folk tend to become too involved with peripheral matters and forget the basic reasons why the church exists. The main function of the Church of Jesus Christ is not social, though it does have social responsibilities.

The New Testament idea of a local church was primar-ly for the edification of believers in studying the Word of God and for fellowship and prayer; and then for the propagation of the gospel around the world. This simple formula has been forgotten in many areas today. In the book of Acts,
the members of the early church were interested in making Christ known to those who had never heard the gospel. Their God-given commission was to begin in Jerusalem and to reach out to the uttermost parts of the earth with the message of saving grace. Tracing this idea, through the entire book, one will find this exact pattern displayed. The last chapter has the great Apostle Paul in Rome establishing a local church and preaching Christ to the people. Notice the last verse in Acts: "And Paul dwelt two whole years
in his own hired house...
preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ..." (Acts 28:31).

When the Lord instructed the new generation in Israel about entering the promised land, with all its benefits and blessings, He gave them
one solemn warning which is very fitting to any generation of men after God in His bountiful mercy had heaped prosperity upon them. The Lord said, "Then beware, lest thou forget the Lord." (Deut. 6:12).

Minutes of Northville Board of Education

I. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President William B. Crump, in the Board of Education offices.

Present: Mr. Crump, Mr. James F. Kipfer, Mr. Wilfred C. Becker, Dr. Waldo T. Johnson, Mr. Edward F. Angove, Mr. William B. Templeton, Mr. Robert H. Shafer. Absent: None.

Others present: Superintendent R. H. Amerman; Assistant Superintendent K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison; Principals R. Spear, H. Smith, D. Van Ingen and F. Stefanski, Mr. Richard Norton; Mr. Bud Weber; Mrs. Janice Murany.

II. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read by the secretary and two minor corrections noted. Minutes were otherwise approved as read. The minutes of a special meeting held on November 25, 1963 were read by the Secretary and there being no additions or corrections, were approved as read.

III. Communications:

1. Gibraltar School District, copies of the same resolutions which were sent out last month.

2. Villacón, Lehman and Associates, Planning Consultants, requesting information regarding school plans and sites, enrollments by area, etc., for use in preparation of a Master Plan for Northville township.

3. Mr. David E. Palmer, Associate Professor, Special Education Department, Eastern Michigan University, advising of certification of our Speech Correction students, and complimenting Mr. Thompson on his work with them.

4. Michigan State Dental Association, statement of policy regarding Proctor and Gamble dental health program for schools. The association is more or less opposed to it and is preparing a similar program of its own.

5. GMC Truck & Coach Co., assuring the school that they are still anxious to do business with us and requesting a purchase order on service work.

6. Northville Woman's Club, thanking the school for its offer of a place of meeting, and advising that the club has appointed a committee to meet with the board of education.

7. Copies of letters written by Mr. Smith, principal of the Main Street School, to the P.T.A. and the Mothers Club, thanking them for contributions for playground equipment at the Main Street School.

IV. Report of Superintendent:

1. Office Space — Mr. Amerman reported that he and Dr. MacLeod and Mr. Ellison have had a meeting with Mr. Bruce Potthoff, the city manager, at which possible leasing arrangements for the library were discussed. Maintenance, insurance, parking space, heating, were all included in the discussion.

2. Sixth Grade — It was recommended by the Superintendent and the administration that the Sixth grade be placed in the Junior High School for the school year 1964-65, thus creating a 5-3-4 school arrangement, elementary schools including Grades Kindergarten through fifth, junior high school including grades sixth through eighth, and high school including grades ninth through twelfth. A discussion of the recommendation followed, and then a motion by Mr. Shafer that it be adopted. Before support was offered Mr. Kipfer expressed the feeling that perhaps a few more citizens and staff should be involved in this decision. However, when the administration explained that adoption of the recommendation would be permissive only and that people would still be able to voice their opinions about the change, Mr. Angove offered to support the motion, which was carried.

It was then moved by Mr. Shafer that the motion made and passed at the Board meeting of March 25, 1963, establishing a 6-3-3 organization for 1964-65, be rescinded. Mr. Becker seconded the motion, which was carried.

3. School Hours — The Superintendent and administrative staff offered a recommendation that the following starting and closing times be tried out, beginning with the second semester:

(a) Begin High School and Junior High School at 8:00 a.m.

(b) Close High School and Junior High School at 2:45 p.m.

(c) Begin Elementary schools at 8:45 a.m.

(d) Close Elementary schools at 3:30 p.m.

Mr. Ellison has worked out a new bus schedule to accommodate these hours, and the rearrangement of routes would continue to follow our written policy on transportation with respect to safety to students, convenience to parents and students, distance to bus stops, health of riders, emergency measures to be taken during exceptionally hazardous road conditions. It is estimated that the new schedule would involve 50 to 100 more miles daily, with perhaps 3 to 6 additional hours of driver time daily.

Mr. Shafer moved that this recommendation be adopted for the coming semester. Dr. Johnson seconded the motion, which was carried.

4. Driver Education Policy — The Superintendent recommended a policy regarding the assignment of instructors for the driver education program, for Board approval. After discussion it was moved by Mr. Kipfer that this policy be adopted as recommended. Mr. Becker supported, and the motion was carried.

V. Report of Secretary — Mr. Becker reported the following money received in November:

Primary Taxes $4,110.72
Delinquent Fund 20,989.96
Interest on Taxes 198.09
Tuition 477.61
Rental Fees 75.00
Gas Tax Refund 468.37
Abatement of Expense 100.00
From other school funds 2,108.25

Miscellaneous 216.72
Total: $24,634.00

VI. Report of Treasurer: Dr. Johnson gave the following report of the General Fund financial condition:

Balance in Bank at October 31, 1963 $166,670.13
Cash Rec. in Nov. 28,361.22
Oct. Bal. plus Nov Cash $195,031.35
Checks Disbursed in November 84,272.05
Balance in Bank at November 30, 1963 $110,159.30

It was moved by Mr. Shafer and supported by Mr. Kipfer that the report of the Treasurer be accepted. Motion carried.

VII. Report of Auditing Committee: The Auditing Committee approved bills and payrolls for payment as follows: General Fund Bills, $26,653.43; Cafeteria bills $5,121.77; Stadium operation and maintenance Bills, $102.64; payrolls, $74,205.03. It was moved by Mr. Templeton and seconded by Mr. Kipfer, that the report of the auditing committee be accepted and bills and payrolls paid. Motion carried.

VIII. New business:

1. Plymouth State Home and Training School — This institution has two children, both girls, whom they feel would benefit from teaching in our Type A Special Education Room. There would be no financial loss to this district, since the state will reimburse us. Dr. MacLeod recommends these two students be admitted.

It was moved by Mr. Shafer that these children be admitted at the discretion of the administration. Mr. Kipfer supported the motion, which carried.

2. Fred Clark — Mr. Clark's sick leave having expired, it was moved by Mr. Shafer, supported by Mr. Angove, that his sick leave be extended through January 3, 1964. Motion carried.

3. Kindergarten teacher — A contract was offered for board approval for Mrs. Marian Maass, to teach kindergarten in the additional classroom authorized at the last meeting, beginning January 6, 1963. It was moved by Mr. Becker and seconded by Mr. Angove, that contract for Mrs. Maass be approved. Motion carried.

4. Bus Service for Shadbrook Estates — Mr. Ellison has received a request that we supply bus service to children of this development. He has driven a bus over the route and believes it would be possible to operate over these roads, but some of the conditions are not the most desirable, nor the safest — narrow bridge, steeply sloping shoulders, etc. It was moved by Mr. Shafer that the matter of transportation for this area be given consideration the next time Mr. Ellison prepares bus routes, and that he be authorized to work it out as best he can when conditions permit. Mr. Templeton seconded this motion, which carried.

5. Furniture — Mr. Ellison announced that classroom furniture will be needed for the new kindergarten room. He has found that it will probably cost $650 and requests authorization to purchase. Permission granted by tacit consent.

6. It was decided not to hold a second meeting of the board in December.

IX. Adjournment — It was moved by Mr. Templeton that the meeting be adjourned. Motion supported by Dr. Johnson and carried. Meeting adjourned at 10:05 p.m.

at 10:00 p.m.

Marguerite N. Young, Clerk

A special meeting of the Northville Township board was called to order by Supervisor Merriam on Monday, December 9th, 1963 at 4:00 p.m.

Members present: R. D. Merriam, Donald E. Robinson, Alex M. Lawrence and Marguerite N. Young. Trustee Wilson D. Tyler joined the meeting at 4:10 p.m.

Consultants present: James E. Littell, Legal counsel; L. W. Mosher, Twp. Engineer; Robert Hammill, Bond Counsel.

Visitors: David Dodge, C. A. Holdreith, William McAllister, Mrs. G. H. Fitch and Bill Slinger of the Northville Record.

Agenda of Meeting:

1. Revoke Resolution No. 63-13 (Water Installation Resolution No. 1)

2. Adopt new Resolution No. 1.

3. Adopt Resolution No. 2.

4. Consider allowing the City of Northville to annex the D. J. Stark property which Mike Allen has purchased.

Since the Assessment District for water installation had been changed, Supervisor Merriam advised the board that Resolution No. 63-13, which had been adopted by the board at a meeting held on July 31, 1963, would have to be rescinded and a new Resolution describing the Assessment District adopted.

Mr. Robert Hammill entered the discussion stating that it was his opinion that since a separate and different assessment district had been established, it would be necessary to circulate a new petition and the signatures of the land owners obtained. His thinking was that Bond Counsel would look more favorably upon this procedure.

It was decided that a new petition would be drawn and ready for Mr. Dodge at once and if the signatures could be obtained within a week, a special meeting would be called and Resolution No. 1 and 2 adopted the same day and a time set for a public hearing.

"Estimate of project cost" presented the Board by Mosh-ier Associates, was discussed at length with some changes being made in legal and finance costs.

There was discussion of how assessments should be made with the conclusion that a unit benefit was the best. Mr. Mosher advised that the maximum potential benefits would be 24 and the minimum 20.

When questioned, Mr. Hammill suggested ten year bonds, if possible. He informed the board that the township's full faith and credit would be behind the bonds and that the assessments should be billed at 6% interest on the unpaid balance.

With an estimated cost of the project at $24,000 and a minimum of 20 benefits, $1200 was the estimated cost per benefit which could be carried for ten years with 6% interest on the unpaid balance. If at the end of ten years there is a rebate due, the rebate will run to the property and not to the individual.

The board being unable to pass on Resolution No. 1 and 2 until a new petition is obtained, Trustee Robinson moved, supported by Lawrence, that Resolution No. 63-13 be rescinded.

Yeas: Merriam, Tyler, Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: None. Motion carried.

4. Supervisor Merriam took up discussion of item No. 4 on the agenda, advising that Mike Allen had asked him to approach the board, asking for their consideration. The matter was tabled.

No further business, Supervisor Merriam adjourned the meeting. Meeting adjourned at 5:00 p.m.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

These post-tragedy days have given rise to numerous articles reminding us of the need for tolerance, understanding and consideration for others and their beliefs even though they may not coincide with our own.

We have been implored to make ourselves aware of all the facts, then take the position by reason of evidence that we hold to be most important to our own standards of living.

It may be that it's been a long year, newspaperman's cynicism or blindness, but I see little evidence of tolerance at the level from which it must emanate to oil the whole machine.

And looking up the ladder, the strength of certain organizations in our modern society is fostered by the disdain with which members hold their adversary (a misnomer, which has run the gamut of definition).

It is surprising how adept we are at criticism and how clumsy with praise. The faults we find in others usually arise from personal, petty grievances that become magnified through argument. Often they remain within us as cancers breeding hatred.

We are blinded by our own frustration, hurt feelings.

If we, as individuals, cannot control this bitter emotion, how can we be expected to do so as a nation? Has it not been proven that one individual can change the course of the world?

Though it may be minute in the vastness of the globe, a start in our own daily lives may create a ripple and then a wave.

We could try. It could be our resolution for 1964.

Seven years ago, as new owner of The Record and Novi News, I set out to become acquainted with area businessmen, politicians and industrialists.

One of my stops was Paragon Bridge & Steel Corporation in Novi.

I asked to see the president.

The receptionist directed me down a long corridor past several offices in the neat and orderly Paragon office building. I entered the last office on the right and introduced myself to a dark, good looking man behind the desk.

He was Frank DePodesta, a human dynamo, a super salesman.

Although he was a busy man on a tight schedule, Mr. DePodesta sat and chatted with me for nearly an hour. Afterwards I realized that I had done most of the talking; that he knew everything about me and I, supposedly the inquiring reporter, little about him.

He was interested in my venture into business and he had some advice.

"Don't become lazy, keep working," he said as I left.

Simple and elementary, yes. But Mr. DePodesta lived by this code. He was a driver and he knew how easy it is to become complacent in business.

I have admired Mr. DePodesta since this first meeting. And I have tried to follow his advice. For a newcomer in business there is no better medicine for that nagging anxiety than work.

Paragon Bridge & Steel, our community and others, like myself, who knew Frank DePodesta mourn his passing.

His ambition and leadership leave examples that will live on.

State Aftermath To Assassination

LANSING — The almost unbelievable assassination of President Kennedy hit Michigan as it did each of the other states, much like a sharp blow from an axe.

A flurry of controversy erupted immediately over whether the major universities should continue plans to play football games; political meetings were cancelled within hours of the November 22 disaster; and people in every city wondered if this really did happen.

For many it took several days for the reality to begin to sink in. Each had to consider how this event would affect his life.

In Lansing and the home towns of Michigan's elected officials the question of effect loomed larger than to most individuals. No partisan expressed this on the surface, but it was apparent the wheels of political thought were turning fast, attempting to get a kaleidoscopic view of the impact.

Immediately four "non-partisan" events honoring public officials were cancelled, to be scheduled after the official period of mourning is completed. Each event was to honor a partisan officeholder but was to be attended by members of both parties.

Though non-partisan in support, such tribute dinners, often are a starting point for a campaign.

A few Democrats broke the unwritten party rule of no campaigning or public decision announcements.

More than one Michigan Democrat came forth within a few days after the President's death with statements regarding their interest in the 1964 gubernatorial race.

Political expediency induces thoughts and decisions which do not meet the eye, so it is impossible to judge the wisdom of the pronouncements by some politicians about their future plans. Oddly enough, however, the violations of the unwritten party rule came from persons who have very closely followed the party line in the past.

Just as the real effect of the assassination probably will not be known for some time, the wisdom of these decisions by some Michigan politicians await future judgment.

Danger: Thin Ice. This is a warning which soon will be on many of Michigan's lakes, streams and ponds, but there will be more places where there will be no sign. The warning should be firm.

ly implanted in the minds of all, and particularly children who are usually more venturesome when winter spreads white across the land.

At least one dozen persons drowned last year when they fell through ice in Michigan, state police reports show. The previous year winter water accidents claimed 13 lives.

Commissioner Joseph A. Childs warns that the greatest danger occurs fairly early and again late in the winter. Both periods are those of transition from one season to another.

State Police advise ice should be several inches thick on deep bodies of water to assure safety. Special precautions should be taken at private ponds or flooded areas where children might slide or skate. Rescue devices should be handy at all times.

Warnings are not limited to children, however. Ice fishermen or persons who decide to "short-cut" by driving their cars across frozen lakes should be very familiar with the depth of the water and the thickness of the ice.

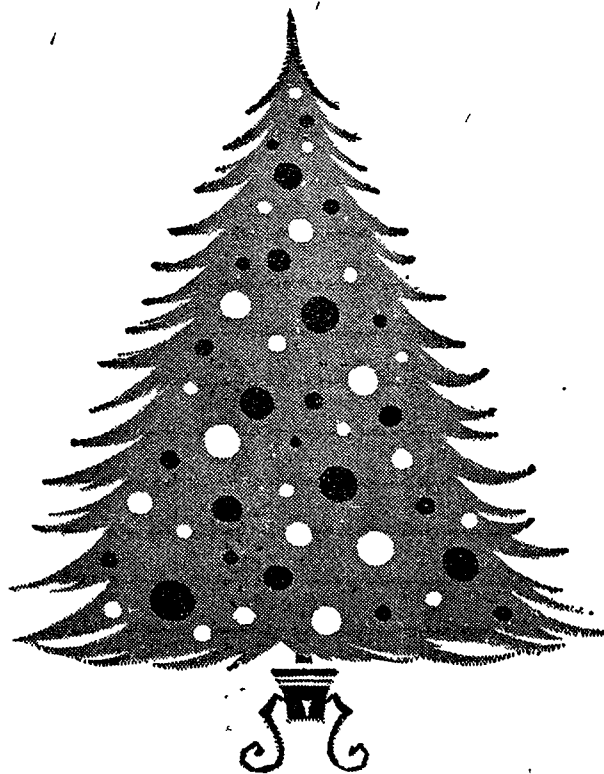

Ice is frequently "worm" thin by underwater currents or breakthroughs may occur from surface pressure cracks, Childs notes.

Barring a major change, one day in the 1964 Michigan Week observance will be the biggest ever.

During the 11-year history of the event, each general chairman has attempted to improve on the activities of the previous year.

There were 492 communities represented in the annual drawing for the 1964 Mayor Exchange of Michigan Week. During the 1963 event there were slightly over 400 local chief executives taking part.

There is always some attrition between the drawing and the event but the number participating in 1964 is likely to set a new record.

Snow clung to his black pointed shoes and his bikini-like leather jacket was stiff with cold when he climbed into the car.

"Got a sharp looking rod mister," he chirped. He blew into his red, cupped hands, flipped a cigarette into his mouth and jammed in the cigarette lighter. "Duya ever drag 'er," he asked. Without waiting for an answer he pulled out the lighter, lit his cigarette and then turned on the radio. "Pretty good sound," he muttered.

Silently kicking myself for picking him up, I asked where he was going. "You name it, mister, it's your car," he answered. "Well, you must be going somewhere... I'm going as far as Pontiac." "That's good enough," he said.

Then he lost his tongue. Neither of us spoke for the next five minutes.

He tapped his foot against the floorboard in tune to the music, puffed his cigarette and stared straight ahead. He was a pretty good looking kid, probably about 16 or 17, with slicked-down black hair and a handsome face.

He wore tight black pants that matched his wet but still shiny shoes and white socks that peeked at his ankles. Underneath his jacket he wore a white, soiled shirt open at the neck.

"Do you live in Pontiac?" I asked. "No, back there where ya picked me up," he answered. "Where do you go to school?" "Don't go." "Quit?" "Look, mister, I'm a hitch-hiker not a travelin' hi-fi." That shut me up.

Another no good teenager, I thought. Probably on his way to Pontiac to pick up a few bucks by banging some storekeeper over the head. Better keep my eye on him. He's probably got a knife or gun in his pocket. Come to think of it, his pocket does have a bulge to it. Wonder if he'll try to take my money? Wouldn't matter anyway, just got a couple of bucks.

The radio announcer began a commercial and my passenger punched the dial buttons until another tune screamed out a wild beat.

Finally, half-scared and half-puzzled by his behavior, I broke the conversation silence with, "Pretty cold today. Looks like we'll get some more snow too." "Ya, I guess so," he said.

More silence. Then: "Warm now?" Sure, pretty good heater. Noisy though. Drowns out the radio." He turned up the volume.

"Been standing out there long?" I asked, raising my voice to compete with the music. "Ya, 'bout an hour I guess. A guy would freeze silly and most of those jerks wouldn't care. Like ta get my hands on some of 'em."

"Maybe they're afraid to pick up strangers," I said, forgetting my situation. "You can't tell about some people."

"Ya can't tell about some drivers, neither," he countered.

I turned the car up US-24 and headed into the heart of the city, keeping an eye on the road and the other on my passenger. A few blocks more and he said, "You can let me out at the next light."

I pulled to the curb. He half turned in the seat and reached into his bulging pocket. Out came a hankerchief and a couple of crumpled dollar bills. "Here," he said, handing one to me, "thanks."

"You don't owe me anything," I said, pushing the bill back at him.

"It's Christmas ain't it?" he said, flipping the bill onto the car seat and slamming the door shut with a bang.

He was lighting another cigarette as he disappeared in the downtown crowd.

Advice for Beginners

BABSON PARK, Mass., — In a recent column, I outlined four divisions of study for youngsters at home on vacation from college and considering the "electives" for their next term. These were English, Science, Physical Health and Religion (or Faith). That column should be carefully retained for future reference.

This week, I wish to mention ten "investments" which a young couple who have finished high school, and perhaps college, should acquire:

1. A Family. Whether or not you get married is none of my business. If, however, you are married, your first investment should be a family. The cheapest and best time to begin this is when you are young.

2. Your Home. At the same time, it is important to locate your home in the right state. True, every one of our fifty states has its advantages and disadvantages; but it is most important that a young couple settle in a state suitable in climate, business opportunities, and probable growth. I cannot help individuals through correspondence; but this matter should be your main study, covering several months, before you definitely settle anywhere. Perhaps the Chamber of Commerce where you now live will help you with this. Personally, I like a comparatively small city showing considerable growth now.

3. Life Insurance. After starting a family and getting located, you should take out life insurance. Take it out when you are young, for several reasons — you can get a low premium, and you need it most then. I think a twenty-year straight life policy is probably the best for you. Premiums would naturally be payable for twenty years, but with no more payments necessary after that. On the other hand, if you should die soon after the policy is taken out, your beneficiaries would receive payment in full. Later, you may want to change from straight twenty-year life to an endowment or some other fancy policy; but not for your first one.

4. Further Training. By this time, you and your wife should have decided what you are best fitted for — whether it is a clerk, an engineer, or a salesman. Or, you may be best fitted for agriculture. Once you have decided, get all the training you can in that field.

5. Education of Children. I believe in savings bank accounts; every family should deposit at least 5% of their income in the savings bank for the education of their children. If you start when the children are young, it is surprising how savings accounts will grow with only a small but regular deposit. Once when I asked Thomas A. Edison who was the greatest inventor, he replied: "The man who invented Compound Interest was no slouch."

6. Church Affiliation. The young couple who is trying to get along without active participation in some church is making a great mistake. I am not appealing for any special denomination; but the denomination in which you were brought up probably has a church near you. Be not content merely to attend it, but take an active part in its welfare, and have your children attend its Sunday school.

7. Child Development. Carefully watch your children develop. Do not try to make them follow some line that you and your wife want them to follow. Probably each child has inherited some trait from some ancestor. Although they may be brothers, children can be entirely different in the traits they have inherited.

8. Early Companions. You can "select" your children's playmates and friends as they grow up. This is something which is very important and should be carefully studied and watched.

9. Home Influence. Instead of letting your children go out to too many parties in other homes, encourage them to have parties in their own home where you can largely determine who should be invited. But do not be too rigid about it.

10. Guidance. Experience teaches me that money spent guiding your children will be well invested; but this must be done very carefully without trying to force them into any definite social group or any line of endeavor. In short, your most important investment will be the Time and Thought given to your children... and not money! Your children's love or interest or friendships cannot be bought.
