

Boy's Determination Wins State Page Job

"He did it all on his own... with no help from us," Mrs. Edgar Haley beamed with pride while trying to choke off her emotion.

She was referring to her 12-year-old son Patrick James Haley, who on Tuesday became a page boy in the State House of Representatives.

Notified only last week of his appointment, Pat bid good-bye to his parents and his brother and four sisters Monday and left his home at 43215 Grand River for the state capitol.

He will serve one year as a page boy and then, if his scholastic standing remains high, he'll be eligible for reappointment.

"We didn't think anything would come of it," Mrs. Haley explained, "because we thought you'd have to know someone to get a job like that. But Pat just wouldn't give up."

Indeed, he wouldn't. It was while nursing a broken leg early in the little league season that the seventh grader made up his mind to apply for the job.

Pat's sister, Kathy, 14, had painted an exciting picture of the page boy's life following the trip to the capitol by her Novi graduating class. It interested him so much that he wrote a letter to the capitol expressing his desire to become a page boy.

Back came the reply: page boys must have excellent grades, the waiting list is long, and perhaps he should enlist the aid of his representative by way of recommendation.

"He didn't know the name of his representative," his mother explained, "so he hobbled down to the town hall to ask the police for his name. They gave him the name of Representative Baker (Rep. Raymond L. Baker, 4th District)."

Next, Pat wrote to Baker telling the representative about himself, about his desire to become a page, and asking for a recommendation.

Sometime later, Pat received a letter from Representative Allison Green, who wrote that he would have to obtain permission and a character reference from his principal, Samuel Stewart. With letter in hand, Pat went to his principal.

That was last fall. Neither Pat nor his principal heard about the outcome of the application until early last week when the boy was invited to Lansing where, with his grandfather, he was introduced first to Representative Baker, to Representative Green, and then to the entire assembly of representatives.

"Mr. Baker talked to me afterwards," Pat said. He asked me my age and about my marks in school and then said I could start to work Tuesday."

While in Lansing, Pat will live with other pages under the eye of an adult chaperone. His work, which will include running errands for representatives, straightening desk tops, carrying correspondence from one office to another, etc., will continue throughout the legislative session.

Patrick Haley — Lansing Bound!

He will wear required clothing while at work, including charcoal grey trousers, white shirt and black tie, and a red jacket with a yellow emblem. (Pages in the Senate wear blue jackets).

Much of his time will be devoted to work, either at the Capitol or in his room studying his weekly assignments from Novi school. Each week-end he'll return home and on Monday morning he'll turn in his assignments for grading and pick up his new ones. In the afternoon he'll head back to Lansing.

In other words, said his mother, "it won't be easy. He will be kept busy and he will have to study hard to keep up his grades."

And then, pausing as she hugged her son, who's a near All-A student, she added: "I guess this proves you can get something if you set your mind to it — and you don't have to know any one special to do it."

Mothers Plan 2-Day March

Sunday, Tuesday Fund Drives Set

An army of mothers will launch a two-pronged attack on polio and birth defects next week in a campaign for March of Dimes funds.

The 26th annual Mothers March will get underway during daylight hours Sunday in Northville township and it will conclude with a drive in the city Tuesday night.

Mothers March Chairman Mrs. H. Lorne Dyer hopes to top last year contribution of $1,400 collected by the marching mothers. She and her aides have been mapping plans for canvassing the community, enlisting volunteers, and telling the story of the March of Dimes.

Serving under Mrs. Dyer as campaign captains are: Mesdames Robert Boyd, Stanley Johnston, Roy Mattison, Irvin Marburger, Craig Rathbun, Eugene Crosby, Richard Lyon, Fred Kester, A. G. Laux, Eugene Reynolds, Donald Van Ingen, Hiram Pacific, William Kleinsorge and Glenn Deibert.

The chairman reminded area residents that solicitors can be easily identified by the official green March of Dimes envelopes that they will carry.

All mothers participating in the campaign have been invited to the American Legion Hall on Tuesday for coffee. The refresher, for both those mothers working Sunday as well as Tuesday, will begin about 7 p.m.

In urging the generous cooperation and donations of citizens of the community, Mrs. Dyer pointed out that 700 defective children are born every 24 hours in the United States. "The March of Dimes raises funds for researching ways to eliminate these defects. Such a cause, I believe, is worthy of all our efforts."

Marching mothers, she explained, believe every child's birthright should entitle him to a full useful life.

This concern is not new. The National Foundation-March of Dimes began to attack the long-neglected problem of birth defects in hundreds of disabling forms way back in 1958.

To bring expert help to the nation's children, the March of Dimes, which helped conquer paralytic polio through totally supporting the research for the Salk and Sabin vaccines, started the birth defects program which already has made significant accomplishments in the short time of its existence.

Actually, the Mothers March is just one part — though a major part — of the month-long March of Dimes campaign. Charles Parton is chairman of the overall campaign and, in that capacity, is in charge of other projects carried on during the month.

Presently he is planning two fund raising events to take place on Saturday, February 1.

From 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on that day members of the high school student council will sponsor a peanut sale in downtown Northville under the supervision of LaGene Quay, assistant principal.

Topping off the day's campaigning will be an "Ugly Man teenage dance" beginning at 8 p.m. in the community building. Pizzas, cokes and records will be given away to the teenagers with the longest hair, the tightest slacks and, of course, the ugliest appearance. Make-up, says Parton, may be worn by anyone who fears he may not qualify as the ugly man.

Other prizes will include Farrah slacks and a $5 gift certificate from Lapham's Mens Shop.

Committee Meets On Fire Issues

A four-man committee started work this week on resolving differences that led to the threatened resignation of 11 members of Northville's fire department.

Stanley Smith and Ward Schultz were named to represent the protesting firemen on the committee. Councilmen Richard Ambler and Fred Kester are city appointees.

The committee held its first session Tuesday night.

Firemen and councilmembers met last week hours before the volunteer department threatened to resign. It was agreed that the four-member committee would be formed and attempt to restore harmony as soon as possible.

The firemen protest to the hiring of the fire chief as a patrolman. They also look with disfavor upon the proposed department of public safety or integration of the police and fire departments and have asked for a greater voice in naming new department members and selection of fire chief.

Michigan Week isn't until May 17-23.

But if Northville intends to exchange mayors with the city it drew for the annual Mayor Exchange Day event, travel plans should be made early.

Ontonagon, a community of 2,400 population near the Porcupine Mountains on Lake Superior, is Northville's exchange city. It's some 560 miles away.

No official word has been received as to whether the Upper Peninsula town plans to participate in the Michigan Week program.

Northville's city council hopes to show off its new city hall in conjunction with the event.

The council is aware, however, that some residents along

Turn on your "welcome light" Tuesday night.

Street Program Eyed by Council

A round of public hearings faces Northville's city council in the immediate future as the result of plans set forth Monday night for improvements to five city streets.

The improvement programs will be undertaken via the city's special assessment plan which calls for 25 per cent of the cost to be paid by the benefiting property owner and 75 per cent from general funds.

In at least one instance the city is a rather "unwilling" partner in the improvement project.

The streets scheduled for improvement are Butler, Pennell, West, Maplewood and Center.

The Maplewood and Center street projects were brought before the council by developers of Village Green subdivision. The builders are now completing plat number six in the 200-plus home subdivision in the northeast section of the city.

This development is bounded on the south by Maplewood and on the west by Center street. It will include 28 homes in the $20,000 to $25,000 class.

Under terms of a contract agreement the city must participate 50-50 with the developer on improvement of arterial streets.

The subdividers want to install utilities — sewer and water — as soon as possible along Maplewood from Horton to Center and on Center north of Maplewood to include their entire development.

After utilities will come storm sewer, curbs and gutters and paving. And on Center street it is most likely that the city will consider improvement of Center all the way from the end of existing pavement at Ely drive north to the city limits.

The council is aware, however, that some residents along

this portion of Center oppose paving.

Before jumping into the improvement program the council has called for a study session Monday evening to map plans. But the developers were assured that the city would act immediately to set-up a special assessment district for utilities. Paving will probably wait a year.

At the same time the council heard City Engineer Harold Penn report on estimates for West, Butler and Pennell projects. Storm sewer, curbs, gutters and paving of the unimproved portion of West will cost some $20,000. The Butler and Pennell projects were estimated at a total of $29,000.

Mayor A. M. Allen urged City Manager Bruce Potthoff to prepare data for initial assessment hearings on all projects as soon as possible.

In other business Monday night the council also heard Engineer Penn estimate future costs for new culverts at the Randolph street bridge and under Center street south of Rayson. To handle drainage anticipated with future growth new installations in these areas will cost $18,000 and $55,000, respectively, Penn estimated.

Previously, elected officials not taking part in the election served as members of the board of canvassers to certify election results.

Now the law stipulates that a four-member board must be appointed with two members each from the political parties casting the most votes for secretary of state in the last election.

The members will serve four year terms. Two of the original members, however, will be appointed for two years only so that four-year staggered appointments may be made after two years.

The law applies whether the community has partisan elections or not. The city of Northville, for example, does not elect its council members on the basis of political parties. School board elections are also non-partisan.

New Hours Start Monday in Schools

Conclusion of the first semester this week means new starting and closing times for public school students in both Northville and Novi beginning with second semester classes next week.

High school students completed their semester finals Wednesday noon and are on vacation until Monday.

Northville's junior high school students can look forward to a day off Monday with completion of tests this week.

In Northville senior and junior high school students will start classes a half-hour earlier in the morning. Elementary grades will start 15 minutes later.

The new schedule is as follows:

—Begin high school and junior high school at 8 a.m.

—Close high school and junior high school at 2:45 p.m.

—Begin elementary schools at 8:45 a.m.

—Close elementary schools at 3:30 p.m.

Presently, elementary and junior high school students attend from 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. and high school students from 8:30 a.m.-3:12 p.m.

Advantages of the new times, as pointed out by school administrators, are:

1. Bus pupils will not have to arrive at school 30 or 40 minutes before school starts or wait 30 or 40 minutes after school.

2. High school athletes in spring sports rarely will have to be excused early.

3. Buses will not be as crowded.

4. Young children will not be on the same bus with teenagers.

5. Elementary school day will not be as long as it is at present.

6. If it is necessary to retain junior or senior high school pupils for student council, bands, clubs, etc., they can ride on the elementary bus if there is room.

Furthermore, it was pointed out that although the new schedule will mean additional bus mileage and some additional driver time, the estimated increase in cost should be insignificant.

Under this new starting and closing schedule, buses will be re-routed to cover the entire school district, using eight buses with all making double runs.

Three Seek Mayor Post

A primary election to determine the candidates for the non-partisan offices of mayor and justice of the peace will be held February 18 in Wixom.

The primary run-off was assured when three persons filed for mayor and three for justice of the peace. Filing deadline was January 17.

Only five filed for three council seats so no run-off is required. They'll meet in the April election.

Three veteran city officials will battle for the mayor's post, including Incumbent Mayor Wesley McAtee, Councilwoman Mrs. John Chambers and Justice of the Peace William Welke.

Former Mayor Joseph Stadnik, Harry Wimmer and Elwood Grubb seek the JP post. Those who filed for council seats are Incumbents Oscar Simmons, Fred Beamish and Gunnar Mettala and Gene Kohlhorst and Donald Misses.

But it's no commie plot

Reds Delay City Hall

You can blame the Russians for the delay in completing Northville's new city hall.

Honest to Khrushchev, all joking aside. It's the Russians' fault that the city hall won't be ready for occupancy before April 1.

At least that's the story an architectural assistant gave the city council Monday night in recommending the council grant the builder a 30-day extension.

It seems that the roof trusses for the city hall were fabricated in Oregon. But when it came time to ship them to Northville there were no rail boxcars available. They had all been reserved for the anticipated shipment of wheat for sale to Russia.

This wasn't the only reason.

Oddly enough, the weather was too good. The council was told that the mild weather last fall and early winter caused more building projects to be undertaken than anticipated. Thus sub-contractors, normally free this time of the year, are busy.

Finally, the council agreed to the delay but warned that further delays would be subject to penalty.

While the city hall and library will be ready for occupancy April 1, the parking lot and drives cannot be paved until warmer weather, probably May.

On the brighter side the council was promised that the fire hall would be ready for use by next Wednesday. Fire trucks are now being stored at the public works building near the city dump. Early completion of the fire hall has been sought by City Manager Bruce Potthoff to bring the fire trucks back to a central location.

DOWN AND UNDER — Tunneling under Fairbrook at Eaton drive is the first step taken by workmen installing the storm sewer which will serve the Orchard drive area of the city. The sewer is being installed at a cost of some $48,000 under the 25-per-cent special assessment plan. It's part of an improvement program which includes curbs, gutter and paving of Orchard drive.

From King's Daughters

Needy Get Food, Toys

Some 16 boxes of food and toys, were distributed to area families in need at Christmas time by the Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters, officials announced this week.

In addition, 28 plates of fruit were delivered to shut-ins.

Eighty-eight persons made up the families helped by the organization and of these 62 were children. Their names were made available to the circle by the school system and by the county welfare department.

During the year, the King's Daughters provide clothing for school children and emergency rations of food and fuel for families.

This expenditure, officials explained, amounts to several hundred dollars each year — most of which comes from personal donations of members and friends since the organization no longer receives help from the United Foundation.

"The offering from Good Friday services, which over many years has been sponsored by the King's Daughters, is divided between our welfare fund and contributions to churches in the community having vacation Bible Schools," they said.

The King's Daughters also provided thousands of cancer pads annually.

"This organization," officials added, "has state and national affiliations and also has obligations to their projects — such as the King's Daughters and Sons Home for the Aged in Redford, the School for Crippled Children at the University Hospital and Camp Missauki, near Cadillac. Each year we send two girls from our community to this camp for a two week camping experience."

Engaged

Judith Benson

At a family dinner at their home on Morningstar drive, Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Benson announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Elaine, to Michael G. Crain, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Gail Crain of Ferndale.

Miss Benson is presently attending the University of Michigan. Mr. Crain has graduated and received his masters degree from Michigan State University. An August 8 wedding is planned at the Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Area Girl Wins Scholarship

Noel F'Geppert of Novi has been awarded an extra-curricular scholarship for the spring semester by Eastern Michigan University.

Miss F'Geppert earned her scholarship through her work with the school band and by maintaining a scholastic average above 2.5. She is majoring in special education.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

CIVIC DUTY demands stamina — especially when it's January and you live in the most western part of Wayne county. The two Northville-area women in a group of six city-township citizens tapped for county jury duty this month are serving long, full days.

Mrs. Charles R. Ely, 247 West street, and Mrs. George E. Miller, 46018 Bloomcrest, leave town together by 7:30 a.m. They drive to Grand River and take a bus to the county building, reporting for duty by 9:15 a.m. At the end of the day, reverse the procedure, arriving home about 6 p.m.

The ladies aren't complaining. Mrs. Ely, who is serving in probate court five days a week, says she is enjoying the experience. Hearing her seventh case this week, she declares she's receiving a "real education."

Mrs. Miller is serving a four-day week in circuit court, as are the four area men serving. They are Albert F. Myers, 46170 Bloomcrest; Neil Geroy, 22 West; Daniel R. Brown, 20120 Whipple; John E. Long, 440 Eaton.

"You just forget about any social life for the month," Mrs. Ely says. She admits she's glad she isn't on one long case which continues into another month, as Sid Moase, 436 Randolph, has been.

Albert Myers agrees that serving is a rewarding experience. Jurors are drawn from county voting records and are paid $8 a day. The county clerk's office says that both Northville city and township have a usual quota of two each serving — but for some reason we have a bonus number this month.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN alumni in the Northville-Plymouth area have elected H. J. Frogner, 51300 Seven Mile road, president, and Mrs. A. L. Wistert, 10250 West Seven Mile road, treasurer, of the newly consolidated group.

At a December meeting, alumni from the two areas combined memberships of what had been two separate clubs to strengthen alumni activities in the area. First of four meetings-a-year will be held at 8 p.m. February 4, at Allen school in Plymouth. Officers from Plymouth are Don R. Carlson, vice-president, and William E. Storton, secretary. A main purpose of the new group will be to help with scholarship programs.

The December program on the alumni association's new family camp will be repeated in February. Mrs. Wistert explains, as meeting notices had not reached alumni via third-class mail. It just "doesn't go" in December.

The family camp program, shown in color movies and described by Glen Williams, camp director, was so enticing that the Storton family signed up on-the-spot for next summer.

AN OLD-FASHIONED AUCTION is planned for the next meeting of Mother's Club at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Fred H. Schwarze, 21066 Cambridge. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Frank Pauli, Mrs. Bernard Bach, Mrs. Kenneth Conley.

With proceeds going to the group's school improvement projects, members are urged to bring useful items in good condition.

"Anything you may have gotten two of at Christmas," suggests Mrs. D. E. Schwenedmann, publicity chairman. In past auctions, members have donated such supremely useful items as irons and hair dryers.

Cinderella's FAIRY GODMOTHER waved a twentieth century wand to create her miracles with mylar and plastic in a program of whimsy presented for Northville Woman's club by Marathon Oil company last Friday. The storyteller's quaint costume reminded members that once a dress required 25 yards of material. Its only modern touch was a zipper — but how great-grandma would have appreciated that!

A BARGAIN always is fun to find — even if you never use it. But the one-of-a-kind pottery now at drastic sale prices at the Hartley-Powers Gallery on Main street has many uses. Little bowls are good for candy and nuts, ashtrays (for those who still smoke) and plant containers. All are created by local artists.

Nine representatives heard an account of the early history of the Coordinating Council and a report of the Western Wayne County Child Guidance clinic at a meeting of the council this past week.

Miss Ruth Knapp presented the history and Mrs. Arthur Hempe gave the report.

It was explained that the clinic already has outgrown its quarters at the Wayne County General Hospital. There have been 150 referrals to the clinic from schools in the area and there already is a six-months waiting list, representatives learned.

It's Party Time at Play School

Everyday is not always a birthday, but if you're in the Northville Pre-school Cooperative it sure seems like it.

Peter Wright, 4, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Wright (above left), watches to see that Cheryl Green and Peter Couse enjoy his birthday ice cream treat.

Timmy Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meyer, is on top of the world (far left) as he joins the ranks of the four-year-olds at a party last week.

Julie McDaniel said it was a nice party but finally had to leave. It's even fun in the locker room of the new scout-recreation room building where her father, George McDaniel, made the pint-size lockers.

Also celebrating January birthdays are Mark Basel, Laurie Day, Jimmie Wright, Chris Kaselemis, David Laux, Peter Bramble and Jill Freydl.

Thirty-two children meet from 9 to 11:15 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday to romp and learn under the watchful eyes of the teachers, Mrs. Francis Gazlay and Mrs. Glenn Deibert.

For years the group has been under P-TA sponsorship, meeting at the Presbyterian church. Now it meets in the Scout building.

Local News

Mrs. Nellie Freydl, 118 East Main, celebrated her 89th birthday January 19. An area resident for many years, Mrs. Freydl spent the day quietly with her family.

Michael Utley, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Utley, 777 Grace street, will be home this weekend after three weeks in St. Mary Hospital recovering from surgery. Visitors are welcome.

Celebrating their 31 wedding anniversary Saturday evening, January 18, Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Hollis of 16903 Northville road, were entertained at the Northwest Inn by Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold of Inkster.

Seventy-five couples, including a Northville area girl, will attend the Junior Prom at Western Reserve Academy on Saturday. She is Rosie Budek of 17685 Ridge road. She will be escorted by Gary Davis. After dinner in the Ellsworth dining room, they will dance to music of Joe Hruby.

Senior Citizens Elect Officers

Mrs. H. A. Boyden, 230 First street, has been elected president of the newly organized Senior Citizens Club.

Others elected at the group's meeting last week were: Mrs. Mary Slessor, vice-president; Mrs. Emma Reid, treasurer; and Mrs. Percy Angove, secretary.

The newly elected officers will serve as a board of directors and plan the club's meetings and activities.

Highlighting the next meeting of the club, slated to begin at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, January 28 at the Scout-Recreation Building, will be a pot-luck supper.

All senior citizens of the community are invited to attend. They are asked to bring their own table services and a dish to pass.

"However, if you should not have an opportunity to prepare a dish to pass, please join with the group anyway because there is never a shortage at a potluck," City Recreation Director Ken Conley said.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance.

— Samuel Johnson

Northville's new family this week is James and Virginia Austin, 450 Maplewood. The Austins came to Northville from Wayne in early October with their son David, aged 2.

Mrs. Austin expressed her enjoyment of Northville, partly because it reminds her of her home town, Hannover, New Hampshire. Mr. Austin was born in Northville and raised in Berkley, Michigan. They were introduced to each other by mutual friends while she was working as an airlines stewardess.

Mr. Austin has an interesting and challenging job at the Northville State hospital. He is the principle of an educational department of the hospital which works with 90 students, all between the ages of six and 18.

He is well prepared for his position, having served as a special education teacher in the Dearborn school system and as language therapist at Hawthorn Center.

Nine teachers make up the staff at the Northville hospital. The students are primarily young people with severe emotional and social problems. According to Mr. Austin, many of them have high I.Q.s and are potentially quite intelligent.

The object of the hospital's educational service is to advance and prepare the students so that they may be able to enter public schools.

Mr. Austin reported that four former students of the hospital are enrolled in Northville high school. He expressed his gratitude and esteem for the faculty and students at the high school who had accepted the new students and made their lives much easier, their progress much more rapid.

At home, Mr. Austin and his wife enjoy outdoor sports, skiing in the winter and golfing during the warmer months. Mrs. Austin quietly admits her husband's superiority in both sports.

Here's Bouquet For Jaycettes

A letter of appreciation from the Minister of Health of Korea has been received by the Northville Jaycettes.

The communication, concerning the Jaycettes' financial support of a Korean orphan, was read at the club's past meeting.

It read: "In recognition of your outstanding contribution to the welfare of the Korean people, your worthy assistance to destitute children and their families, and the great concern and humanitarian spirit which you have demonstrated usefully through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., it is with great pride that I present you with this letter of appreciation on behalf of Korean people."

The letter, read by the Jaycette committee chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, was signed by Hi Sup Chung, M.D., Minister of Health.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LANSING-MICHIGAN
By PAUL CHANDLER
State Representative, 21st District

LANSING — There's a different mood as the Legislature gathers this time, compared to one year ago.

At that time this was a
"new" Legislature, just elected and embarking on a two-year term. There was a new Governor in the front office, and a change in party there for the first time in almost a generation.

There was a high measurement of excitement and anticipation ... new people eager to try their methods. Governor Romney was cheered and applauded lustily whenever he appeared.

But must dust has accumulated on the feet in 12 months.
Life in the Capitol is more sober. For one thing, 1964 is here. That makes for caution, not to mention skittishness.
There seems to be large concern simply about not rocking
the boat.

As for the Governor, the reaction he's been receiving is more restrained and less flattering than in January, 1963.
Applause was polite and light
during his one address to the Legislature so far this year.
The lawmakers are more cautious in their analysis of his future. There seems to be a feeling which could be expressed:

"There just isn't any doubt but that Romney is interested in moving on to Washington, and is more or less going through the motions here in Lansing ... so why should we get all hot and bothered when he asks for something?"

Democrat legislators, of course, have been trying ceaselessly to stain the Romney image from the first moment after inauguration. They take the change in legislative mood
with considerable glee.

Republicans have been divided emotionally and the imminence of the national election this year makes cohesion
more difficult than in 1963.
Some of the conservatives want the most "conservative" sounding Presidential candidate possible which, at the moment, is

Mrs. H. D. Henderson
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hayes returned last Monday from a vacation in Florida. They were delayed on their way home by a severe storm in Ohio. Among the places visited were Tampa and Sarasota. They also attended the circus.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Pritchard drove over to Highland last Thursday night for a roast beef dinner at the Community church
there.

Mrs. Dorothy Gardner of Plymouth spent Monday of this week with her sister, Mrs.
Al Pritchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Burgess attended the 25th wedding anniversary of the former brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Burgess in Stockbridge,
one day last week.

John French will celebrate his birthday next Sunday, January 26 at a dinner. Mrs.
French's parents Mr. and Mrs.
Emery Green of Plymouth will be their guests.

Mrs. John French has a new niece, Lisa Ann, born to Mr.
and Mrs. Tom Parker in Lexington, Illinois last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rock
are newcomers to Willowbrook, Novi. They came from New Jersey and they are now living on Rockhill road. They have a daughter, Donlea, 13 years old, who is attending Novi school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cotter celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary Sunday, January 19. They had a quiet dinner with relatives after which pictures were taken.

Word was received by the Duane Bell family on Monday that the mother of Mrs. Charles Trickey Jr., Mrs. Clydia Craven Clase had passed away in interment was at Stanford cemetery near Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hult-burg and children of Grand

Ledge were Saturday visitors at the home of Mr. Hultburg's cousin, Ted Slentz. They had just recently returned from New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips of Bérnstein road near Wolverine Lake were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smart.

Other visitors at the home of corders working with the orchestra. So, conductor Wayne Dunlap has invited members of the Society of Recorders from Ann Arbor to appear in the concert.

The second item of the performance is Vivaldi's "Concerto in A Minor" for two violins.
Once again, students will be featured as two sopranos
from Plymouth high perform the violin duet.

The final number will be the
"Concerto in C Major" by Beethoven. Miss Rhonda Bar-sch, a student at the University of Michigan, will be the featured piano soloist.

W-O Leaders Nip Mustangs, 48-45

It was a long weekend, yet, not entirely lost for Northville.

The Mustangs suffered two defeats, including a thrilling 48-45 loss in the closing moments to W-O conference leader, Clarkston, Friday.

As a result of Friday's Wayne - Oakland league contests, West Bloomfield moved into a third place

'Little' Fives Win Praise

Both the Northville and Novi junior-high cagers finished the first half of their seasons boasting winning records.

Going into the West Bloomfield and Milford games this week, the Northville seventh and eighth grades had each earned 2-1 records. Coach Jim Curry was optimistic about the remaining season, complimenting both starting line-ups.

Regular starters for the eighth grade team are Jim Peterson, Bill Harrison, Dennis Mathews, Joe Andrews and Randy Burnett. The seventh grade stars Craig McDermott, Kim Marburger, Pat Cayley, Stan Nirider and Barry Deal.

The Novi squads had compiled records of 3-1 for the eighth grade, 2-2 for the seventh. Coach John Osborne praised the abilities of both teams, citing Lee Snow and Joe Morrison of the seventh graders and Doug Anglin of the eighth graders for outstanding scoring performances.

Osborne also praised the work of Dave Bingham, Andy Pantaleo, and John VanWagoner of the seventh grade; Gregg Carr, Paul Richman, and Gregg Krist of the eighth.

When Novi met Northville at Orchard Hills two weeks ago, Northville swept both games, with scores of 25-16 and 27-19. Northville's next contest is scheduled for February 6 here with Nankin Mills. Novi plays host to the Dublin teams on Monday at the Orchard Hills school.

LET'S TALK CARS.

THE WONDERFUL FUTURE

The combustion engine has been a wonderful boon to mankind for 40 years. It has changed our way of life. While making possible large cities it has bridged the gap between country and city. Yet within our lifetime the combustion engine with its pistons may be gone.

What may doom the gasoline engine is a form of power of the early 1900's. That was the electric car, run on batteries and possessed by the wealthy. The new electric car will draw its power from chemical fuel cells.

Sixty private and government research groups are working on fuel cells and a major car maker says they are at the same stage as the piston engine in the Wright Brothers' first flight.

Experimental fuel cell cars are now operating, but cost and practicality prevent mass production. They operate largely on waste substances, silently converting them to energy of which 80 percent can be used to move the car. Top energy-use conversion of piston engines is less than 30 percent.

Fuel cells could be contained in all parts of the car's body — floors, doors and roof — thus revolutionizing style.

If fuel cells ever replace piston engines to the Vahalla of buggy whips it will take more than 15 years to reach mass proportions. We hope, meanwhile, to stay around servicing the old gas burners and their owners with the same virtues that change never puts out of style. That's reliable service rendered with sincere enthusiasm and with what we pride ourselves is a measure of integrity.

John B. Mach
John Mach Ford, Inc.

tie with Northville with a 4-3 mark.

Clarkston is all alone in first place, sporting a 7-0 record, while second place Bloomfield Hills, Northville's opponent here tomorrow, is 5-2 in loop play.

Northville traveled all the way to Clarkston Friday only to lose a heartbreaker in the final seconds of play.

With Clarkston out front, 40-39, entering the final frame, both teams hit a cold streak.

Northville's Lance Hahn broke the scoring ice, netting a jump shot after three minutes of the period had elapsed. It put the local cagers out front, 41-40.

The Mustangs rebounded under the opponent's bucket, but Clarkston intercepted a wayward pass in Northville's backcourt to score. A free throw advanced the Wolves' margin to 43-41.

Jerry Imsland, the Orange and Black's pivot man, tied it up by converting two free throws.

Northville's next and last counter came on the heels of Imsland's free throws. Forward Jim Mazel laced a jumper from 15 feet out with two minutes remaining in the game.

But the fireworks were far from over.

Clarkston quickly forged ahead, 46-45, on a free throw and a drive-in after an interception.

Again the Wolves intercepted. As they were stalling a Wolf was fouled and missed the conversion attempt.

Mazel rebounded and fired a long pass to Guard Jerry French, who was fouled in the act of shooting with 10 seconds left in the contest.

Both free throw attempts slid off the rim. Dan Craven of Clarkston was fouled at the three-second mark, and iced the game by converting two free throws.

A long Northville pass up court was intercepted as the buzzer sounded to end the game.

But even in defeat, the Mustangs proved that they are the most improved squad in the Wayne - Oakland conference. And no future opponent can afford to take them lightly, despite a 4-3 conference slate.

Northville beat the Wolves off the boards, and for at least three quarters, it beat them at their own game — the fast break.

In the final analysis, it was the Mustangs' miscues that provided Clarkston with its margin of victory.

And largely through their defensive press from midway in the first quarter, they capitalized on the Mustangs' errors.

Coach Dave Longridge's men shined in defeat.

Imsland not only was a rebounding bastion, he also capped team scoring honors with 18 points.

Clearing the back boards along with Imsland were Forward Tom Wicke, a hard nosed competitor, and Hahn.

Runner up in the local scoring column was Mazel, who contributed 10 points.

Clarkston, regarded as the team to beat in the Wayne-Oakland conference, proved that the accolade was well deserved. Under pressure, the Wolves did not wilt.

A thorn in the local cagers' sides throughout the evening was Clarkston's Craven. A six-foot veteran guard, he led all scorers with 29 points, tallied on soft set shots and hard driving lay-ups.

Northville dominated play in the first period, assuming a 17-12 advantage by way of the fast break. Dan Bishop with six and Mazel with four points led the opening attack.

Errors slowed the Northville attack in the second frame as Clarkston tied the game at half time, 27-27. Northville lost the ball six times when confronted with an all-court press.

At the outset of the same period, however, Northville increased its margin to 19-12 when Imsland scored the first two of his eight points on a drive from the post.

Both teams ran neck and neck in the third frame, with Clarkston taking the lead, at the close, 40-39.

Imsland, who bucketed seven points, and Hahn with five, accounted for all the local scoring in the period.

A slightly bewildered and tired local five didn't have the horses to run Saturday with the streaking Flyers from Willow Run, who won 72-48.

The visitors, with leaping Center Al Dishmon soaring through the Northville zone for 26 points, simply ran the tired Mustangs into the ground.

A 23-point third period broke the game wide open as the Flyers assumed a 55-34 lead.

Longridge rotated his charges in the second half in an attempt to keep up with Willow Run — to no avail.

Keeping the Mustangs in contention in the first half was Bishop, who scored all of his 13 points in the stanza. His play, however, was the only bright spot for the local contingent.

Once again the Mustangs were befuddled when confronted with an all-court press.

Tickets On Sale At Door

All student tickets for admission to high school basketball games will be sold at the door beginning this week, Athletic Director Al Jones announced.

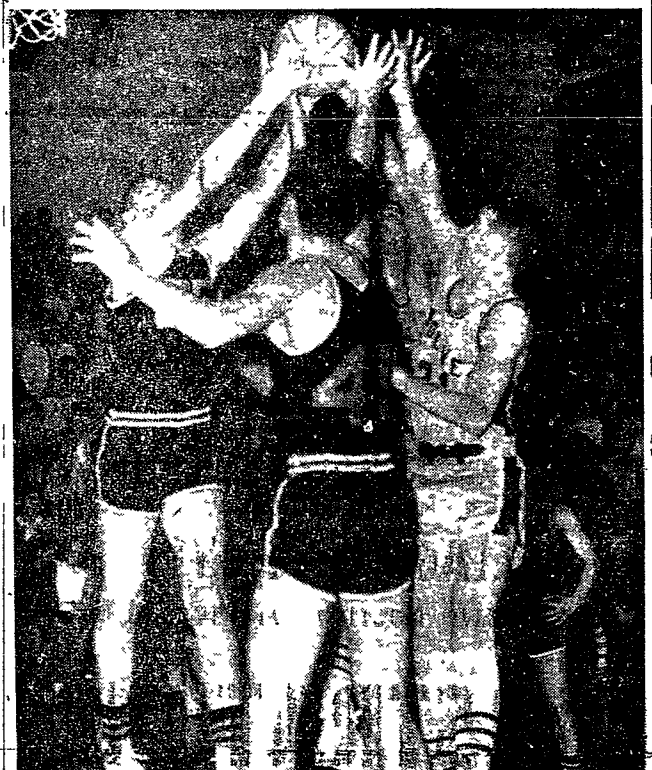

The student tickets cost 35-cents each.

Previously, student tickets were made available only on a pre-sale basis, and all tickets at the door — for students as well as adults — were sold for $1 each.

The change in the sale of student tickets, Jones explained, was made because an appreciable number of students failed to purchase tickets early and therefore had to pay the higher price at the door.

Willow Run carried the attack to Northville, converting a 23-18 half time advantage into a 49-35 run away.

The speedy visiting JV's darted through the Colt defense and used an all-court press to harry the local cagers into offensive mistakes.

NOT HIGH ENOUGH — The Mustangs kicked up their heels — but not high enough against the bounding Wolves.

Winded Colts Fall Flat Twice

The Northville Colts ran out of steam during the weekend in dropping games on successive nights to Clarkston and Willow Run.

A torrid first half display provided Clarkston with the margin of victory Friday night on its home court.

It outscored the Northville JV's, 19-7, in the first frame. It then increased the point spread in the second period to walk off with a 29-13 lead at half time.

Clarkston hung on for a 52-45 win.

Unable to find the range in the first quarter, the Colts quickly fell behind. Clarkston, the other hand, couldn't miss as it took advantage of every scoring opportunity.

Many of its shots were right under the hoop.

In the second half, Northville outscored the Colts, 32-23, but the attack fell short.

Larry Schwab's 16 points led a losing cause. Backing him up were Mark Cushing, 9; John Jameson, 8, and Steve Evans, 7.

Undersized but fast Willow Run took the measure of the local JV's here Saturday night by racing to a 49-35 win.

Willow Run carried the attack to Northville, converting a 23-18 half time advantage into a 49-35 run away.

And the Flyers were demons on the boards. Through speed and agility, they beat the taller local cagers at their own game, rebounding superiority.

Northville held a short-lived lead, 8-6, in the first quarter, then, Willow Run hit its stride. It took an 18-9 lead as the period ended.

Barons Next Up

Northville will have only one thing in mind tomorrow night when it takes on Bloomfield Hills here — that's the previous 73-40 trouncing at the hands of Bloomfield.

It was Northville's first outing of the season and it was one to remember as the Barons poured it on. The Mustangs were never in the contest, trailing 18-4 at the end of the first period.

An all-court press turned the trick as the inexperienced Mustangs were caught flat footed.

Since that fray, Northville has played improved ball, almost upsetting highly touted Clarkston last Friday. In with the league leaders, Clarkston pulled away during the last quarter to win by 15 points. But the Barons will still be tough. They've got the memory of a 57-55 loss last week to lowly Clarenceville to spur them on.

If Bloomfield Hills drops this one, it can kiss its chances for even a share of the Wayne-Oakland conference title goodbye.

To turn the victory trick, Northville will have to put the clamps on the Barons' top scorers, Forward Andy Anderson and Guard Greg Riggs. And the Mustangs will have to beat rugged Center Wally Wengren off the boards.

Frosh Bag Two To Hit 6 Wins

Northville's freshmen five, the winningest cage squad, boasted its season record to 6-2 during the past five days with victories over Milford Highland and Plymouth, while losing to Willow Run.

The frosh tried for number seven last night at West Bloomfield, but the score was not available at press time.

Most thrilling of the contests was the one with Milford Highland January 15 on the road.

Trailing at one time by a 38-16 count in the third quarter, the freshmen cagers came back to win in the last second of play. Center Jim Zayti, fouled on the way to the bucket, converted both free throw in a one-and-one situation — after the final buzzer.

The free throws gave Northville a 49-48 victory.

In a return match with Plymouth here, the Orange and Black won, 33-28, despite frequent miscues.

Top man for Coach Dave Madden's team was Center Jim Zayti, who tallied 13.

Northville's best game of the year, according to Madden, was in a losing cause, 66-58, against a tough Willow Run outfit here Monday night. "It was the best game we've played all season long," Madden noted, "but we blew too many free throws. We made only 16 of 37 attempts."

The Willow Run center, a six-two jumping jack, provided the Flyers with the scoring impetus as he dumped in 26 points.

EVERYWHERE YOU GO — That's what the Mustangs sang Friday night after the game with Clarkston. The ball player who had them humming mad was number 41 shown here, Dan Craven. His rebounding and scoring — to the tune of 29 points — kept Clarkston atop the W-O conference with a 6-0 slate as Clarkston won, 48-45.

Hockey Players Swamp Wixom Ice

Wixom area youngsters were reminded of the junior hockey practice sessions underway weekly at the city's ice pond.

According to Tom Burke, chairman of the city recreation department, boys 8 to 12 practice Wednesday from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and on Saturday from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

These practices, said Burke, constitute good grooming for youngsters who may eventually participate in league competition.

Older boys, ages 15 to 18, are competing in the Waterford Township League. Last Thursday the Wixom team came up on the short end of a close 3-2 score with the Pontiac Boys Club in the season opener.

Bill Moccock and Glenn Burke scored the Wixom points. Defending Wixom's goal was Rick King.

Next Saturday Wixom will face Union Lake at Pontiac.

Circus Coming

Northville elementary service girls will be treated to a day at the circus — thanks to local area Shriners Al Hackett and Jack Gray of Northville, Robert Durie of Plymouth and Dr. W. W. MacGregor.

The businessmen are providing Shrine Circus tickets for the following:

Wednesday, January 29 — Amerman school, 75 girls; Thursday, January 30 — Our Lady of Victory, 60; and Tuesday, February 4 — Main street, 90.

Northville Junior Achiever Competes for State Title

Pretty Karen Stuyvenberg of Northville, is the fairest in the land, as far as Junior Achievement of Livonia, Plymouth and Northville is concerned. She was chosen Miss Plymouth JA on January 11.

To find out if more people share the opinion of this area, the area organization, Karen will go to the Pick-Fort Shelby hotel in Detroit tomorrow to enter the Southeast Michigan finals of the National JA contest. If she wins the competition against 16 other representatives from 15 achievement centers (the group in Monroe is sending twins), she will enter the national finals.

It's all part of National Junior Achievement Week which runs from January 24-31. Karen, an attractive blue-eyed, light brown haired senior at Northville high school, lives at 18101 Shadbrook, Northville. She has been a member of JA for two years, attending the Plymouth center.

Junior Achievement is an organization which allows young people to form small operating companies and learn the ropes of the American business system. Assisted by the guidance of established merchants, the teenagers produce, advertise and sell their own products. Most businessmen consider JA excellent training for a business career, and the achievers find working in the group very enjoyable.

Karen, for instance, is presently active in the Tabco company, turning out hot pads, first-aid kits, and pen and desk sets. She and 13 co-workers have grossed $300 from their products so far.

Selected on the basis of personality, appearance, knowledge of JA, general business knowledge, and speaking ability, Karen is a worthy representative for the contest tomorrow.

She will be judged by Henry Moses and Russell Robins, industrial executives; Detroit television personality Pat Morris; and Wallace Fleming, executive director of the event.

Other events in the JA week will be the annual JA President's Banquet at the Statler-Hilton hotel on Wednesday and the Junior Achievement Ball at the Masonic Temple on the 31.

In Wixom

Mrs. Charles Ware MA 4-1601

The Wixom School will be closed on Thursday and Friday of this week as a short vacation between semesters. The new term will start on Monday, January 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vincent and family of Ovid spent Sunday with Mrs. Vincent's aunt, Mrs. Audrey Roach of Pontiac Trail.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Randolph were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Lettie Geyer of West Maple road on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Pennell is in Osteopathic hospital, Pontiac. Mr. Fred Dumka has been in the Osteopathic hospital for several months. He underwent surgery last week.

Mr. Max Schomeberg is in New Grace hospital, Detroit. On Friday, January 17 Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pearsall, Mrs. Nina Parker, Mrs. Charlotte Banfield drove to Mason to visit Elsie Collier who is in Mason General hospital.

The men's fellowship of the Wixom Baptist church will meet with Richard Heliker on Saturday the 25th at 7:30 p.m. The sewing club of Hickory Hills met on Tuesday January 21 at the home of Mrs. Robert Vollmer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rollo were hosts to a skating party Sunday the 19th for Hickory Hills residents. There was a large turnout at the party. John Connolly of Detroit was a Sunday dinner guest of the Charles Wares.

Mrs. Ray Burke of Birch Park has been in Pontiac Osteopathic hospital for the past two weeks.

Northville, Plymouth Democrats to Meet

A joint meeting of the Plymouth and Northville Democratic clubs, featuring a panel discussion on the nuclear test ban treaty, will be held tomorrow (Friday) in Plymouth.

The program, postponed from last November 22 because of President Kennedy's death, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Plymouth Community Credit Union, corner of South Harvey and Maple streets.

It will be a panel discussion on the "Nuclear Test Ban Treaty: Its Scientific Background and Current Progress." Moderating will be Joseph Crafton, program chairman of the 17th District Democratic organization, and lecturer on business and government at the Dearborn branch of the University of Michigan.

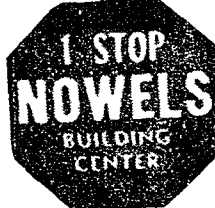

The panel speakers will be

Professor John M. Denoyer, research geophysicist at the University of Michigan's Institute of Science and Technology, who will discuss test ban surveillance and other scientific aspects of the treaty; Harold Hartley of the Northville club, who will give the historical background of the treaty; and Miss Helen Beavers of the Plymouth club, who will outline the present effectiveness and future hope for the treaty.

The program was planned by the foreign relations section of the 17th District program committee. The chairman of the section, Mrs. C. E. Woodruff and her committee are working on plans for another meeting on a foreign affairs issue.

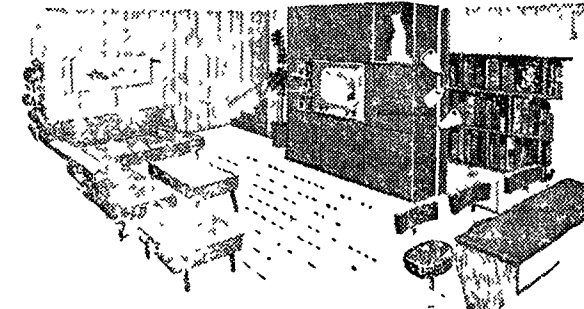

Other sections of program committees are: Taxation and Economic Growth, Local Government Reform, Civil Rights, Social Services and Education.

Friday's meeting in Plymouth will be followed by a social hour. All interested citizens are invited to attend.

Book Circulation Climbs in 1963

The year 1963 reflected an increase in the circulation of books and magazines, up to 41,388, in the Northville Public Library.

The present library building now holds 15,215 volumes in the collection. Northville patrons also may borrow books through the library from other libraries in the Wayne County system and from affiliated systems.

Most popular adult books of the year were "Shoes of the Fisherman" by West, "Grandmother and the Priests," by Taylor Caldwell, "The Group," by Mary McCarthy and "Elizabeth Appleton" by John O'Hara. Popular non-fiction titles included "The Rocks Remain," by Gavin Maxwell, "The Feminine Mystique" by Betty Friedan and "Terrible Swift Sword" by Bruce Catton.

Magazines representing various reader interests and include Consumer Bulletin, Vogue, Today's Health, Seventeen, House & Garden and the New Yorker. Magazines available during three months' loan are Antiques, Dance, Hi-Fidelity, Harvard Business Review, and some foreign-language periodicals.

Talking books and machines, as well as braille books, were obtained free of charge for patrons through the Department of the Blind. Films are also obtainable from the Audio-Visual Department and there is a rental charge for these. The Northville Library has an up-to-date catalog of films.

The local schools were supplied with book collections during the past year and a Summer Story Hour was sponsored by the Northville Mothers' Club.

Is He All Right?

Happily, this time, the answer is yes. But 250,000 times each year across this country, the answer is a heartbreaking, fearful no.

Why does something go wrong when these tiny bodies are being formed? Why is a seriously defective child born to one out of every ten American families?

Can more of these children be helped with present medical knowledge?

What more must we know to prevent this from happening to babies not yet born?

Answers to these questions are being sought in nationwide programs supported by your contributions to The National Foundation-March of Dimes—the largest single source of private support for birth defects research and care in history. These answers will help prevent birth defects, a problem which concerns every family everywhere.

"WHY DOUBT YOUR ABILITY?"

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. Lloyd Brasure
First Presbyterian Church

Wouldn't it be wonderful and a little bit of heaven if we could resolve our problems as neighbors in the same community without the delays and arguments
that are so often costly,
sometimes disastrous and frequently disruptive of good community spirit. As reasonable people, we should be able to come to some method for gaining on this reoccurring situation that bottles up good community talent and energy in what often seems to be endless and futile strivings. Let us each look inwardly and see the little causes of irritation that appear to lead to larger issues.

I suppose we must begin with the belief that some people care not what happens here in Northville and seem unwilling to carry a share of the job or responsibility. Perhaps we are unfair to some in this group who feel they have nothing to offer. I like to feel that everyone has some talent,

idea or constructive bit of energy. Next we move from indifference to bitterness and anger. All too often we hide some inner resentment that comes forth at the time of a public or community issue. This leads to sparks in the form of words spoken that later don't really sound like the people who said them. Control of the emotions and stability of our reactions can be assisted many times with more information on the subject, plus a bit of respect for the other fellow's ideas and needs. Standing in some other person's shoes can help better than cumber-

some arguments fraught with anger and bitterness.
All human beings have had some disappointments in life and plan. When we get together in a community, naturally all our plans will not agree. Some have to give a little and compromise (a bad word to some). Sharing of overall objectives will produce a kindly spirit and lead to solutions based on fact and common sense in generous portions. Patience will supplant haste and progress
will take the place of frustration. There isn't a single problem here that we can't handle as people working together in good faith. The good God who made us
provided the ways and the means in His people. His blessing will rest upon those who "think on these things."

Clinic Supervisor Speaks at St. Paul's

David Hoptman, ACSW, clinic
supervisor of the Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic,
will address the parents of St.
Paul Lutheran Church and School on Wednesday, January 29.

His topic will deal with the services offered by the clinic and the ways in which parents may avail themselves of these services.

The meeting will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and also will include a number of items of special interest concerning the school's program, including more information on the kindergarten program to be in-

Five-year-old Mary Lou Graves of Flint, 1964 National March of Dimes Poster Girl, travelled to Indianapolis, Indiana, to meet with State Commanders of The American Legion. During her chat with Michigan Department Commander C. Oscar Hammond, Northville, Mary Lou told him all about her "Kadlac," the name she calls her special wheel-chair. She was born with an open spine and is learning to walk after her surgical treatment. The American Legion is one of the staunchest supporters of The March of Dimes throughout Michigan and the United States.

Township Shouldn't Give Up Property

To the Editor, Northville Record, Re: Mayor Allen's Annexation Request.

It isn't fair! No, it is not fair to expect a township board elected by the taxpayers of our township to approve the removal of tax producing property from within that township. This is generally referred to as political suicide. What's to prevent similar requests to happen time and again throughout the township? How in good conscience and fair play can the township board deny anyone requesting the same action, with reasons as good or better? This would be a very bad precedent to set in our township, we cannot afford to have our very limited tax base reduced at all. To accede to this request would have the effect of spreading the township costs a little heavier on those residents remaining.

Based on the foregoing, we, the undersigned, feel this request should be denied. It seems obvious that the communities first citizen should respect that communities residence requirements and have first hand knowledge of those requirements. While we can readily sympathize with the Mayor, the question that occurs first and foremost to us, is this, "Just how successful would an ordinary citizen be with the City Fathers having the identical request with the exact same property?"

Mrs. Dorothy Guide, Mrs. Gladys Lamb, Mr. Muri Lamb, Mrs. Carol Geake, Mr. Robert Geake, Mrs. Shirley Tullikka, and Mr. Henry Tullikka.

EDITOR'S NOTE — For The Record's opinion see "Speaking For The Record" on back page.

Scolds Firemen

To the Editor:

By declaring a mass resignation, the volunteer firemen of Northville Area must now answer to the citizens of the community it threatens, not the City Council.

The contribution of a Volunteer Fireman is to serve the people when needed in the event of a fire — not to demand, demonstrate (resignations), threat, against policies that are controlled by the people; through an Elected City Council.

It is not the privilege of volunteers to a community to seek responsibilities that fail to provide proper balance between areas of a government. Nor is it the privilege or the obligation of a City Council to be part of special considerations to a select few who choose to put personal service before a dedicated service.

By the demand the firemen made on selecting another volunteer as the Fire Chief, makes the Chief responsible to their own group of volunteers. Who is to be responsible to the city manager? The city manager has been delegated this responsibility and authority, and must answer to the City Council and the people for his effectiveness for the benefit of Northville. This seems to be the principle involved.

In this case, this writer believes the City Council should exercise positive leadership. If a department of public safety under the leadership of a Director is foreseen by the city manager; if the City Council and other leading citizens are far-sighted to see the benefits it will bring their community, these resignations should be considered. Other volunteers can be trained under the direction of the Fire Chief who also feels a united public safety program is worthwhile. In respect to the firemen who have devoted much of their time to the fire department, there might be those who misunderstood the intent to improve the fire department and would appreciate being contacted as individuals to serve with your Fire Chief.

A Public Safety Program has many possibilities that should be explored to bring services to the community, that would otherwise be impossible for this size community. We, in the township, have much to explore as to the possibility of becoming one area with a City Government — for all of us, and a Public Safety Program would benefit the total area of Northville.

Respectfully yours,
Mrs. Arthur Hompe

★★ NORTHVILLE TOWNSHIP MINUTES ★★

The regular monthly meeting of the Northville Township Board was called to order by Supervisor Merriam on Tuesday, January 7, 1964 at 8:10 p.m.

Members present: R. D. Merriam, Alex M. Lawrence, Marguerite N. Young, Donald E. Robinson and Wilson D. Tyler.

Consultants present: James E. Littell, township attorney, L. W. Mosher, township engineer.

Visitors: Approximately 20 township residents and William Slinger of the Northville Record.

Minutes of the regular monthly meeting of December 3, 1963 and minutes of the Special meetings of December 9 and 16, 1963, were accepted as written and ordered placed on file.

Treasurer Lawrence read his report for the month of December 1963. After discussion Supervisor Merriam pronounced the report accepted and ordered same placed on file.

Office receipts for the month of December for $1925.75 and bills payable amounting to $11,132.31 which included an order for $5921 for the Township's share of the two year Urban Planning Assistance Program for rezoning the Township, were reviewed.

Tyler moved, supported by Robinson, that the bills be paid. Yeas: All. Motion carried.

The Building Inspector's report for December 1963 showing a valuation increase of $110,300, was reviewed.

The Zoning Board of Appeals minutes of December 18, 1963, were read and contract with Northville Sand & Gravel was discussed.

Correspondence:

1. Resolution, from Wayne County Road Commission stating that Edenderry Road had been closed due to condemnation of bridge.
2. Resolution from Wayne County Road Commission prohibiting commercial vehicles on Edward N. Hines, drive between Seven Mile road east of Sheldon and Northville Road south intersection west of Wilcox road.
3. Resolution from Wayne County Road Commission stating that Beck road be designated as a through highway requiring all vehicles to come to a complete stop at all roads except Seven, Mile, Six, Mile, Five Mile, North Territorial, Ann Arbor Trail and M-14.
4. A form letter from the Michigan State Liquor Commission advising that "in the case of an application for renewal of an existing license, where no objection to the Commission by the local legislative body prior to April 1 of each year, the approval of the local legislative body shall not be required."

Old Business:

1. Lawrence moved, supported by Tyler, that Resolution No. 64-1 recommending a Tavern License for Brooklane Golf Club, be adopted. Yeas: Merriam, Tyler, Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: None. Motion carried.
2. Letter and proposed agreement on installation of a sewer main on W. Seven Mile road from Dr. W. E. Gizynski and Sheldon Hayes, was taken up for discussion.

The proposed payback agreement was discussed and found inadequate.

Tyler moved, supported by Robinson, that the proposal be denied and the reasons therefore, that it is not the policy of the Board to guarantee to anyone individual a certain number of taps for a given period of time and that the $300 suggested is excessive and unacceptable. The Board would entertain a resubmission proposal eliminating the objections set forth. Yeas: All. Motion carried.

New Business:

1. Consideration of Leon V. Bonner's application for a Class "C" and SDM Liquor license was taken under consideration.

Mr. Bonner explained that the property which he owned at 42865 Seven Mile road and on which he proposed to build, was zoned M-1 and he wished to build a nice, well regulated eating place, and bar.

It was called to his attention that a green belt would have to be planted between his property and adjacent R-1-E property, to which he agreed.

There was more discussion, with Robinson moving, supported by Tyler, that the Northville Township Board adopt a resolution recommending Leon V. Bonner for a Class "C" and SDM Liquor License.

Yeas: Merriam, Tyler, Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: None. Motion carried.

2. Consideration of the City of Northville's proposed agreement on the new library wing was taken up by the board.

Supervisor Merriam questioned the site, improvement and landscaping cost, stating that he felt these costs should not be included in the charges made to the Township for rental of the library.

Attorney Littell informed the board that he had checked with the Wayne County Library Board regarding the book use of the library by Township residents and it had increased from 28.8% in 1962 to 34.4% in 1963, which, if the township adopted this formula for the year 1964, their percentage toward contribution would be on this ratio.

There was question also of the suggested tripling of the cost of maintenance which consisted of telephone, light, heat and janitorial service, the thinking being that the only possible item that should triple was possibly the heat.

Clerk Young brought to the board's attention that in the past all maintenance charges were included in the Wayne County Library Board's yearly usage bill and regardless of the cost, the Township was only charged 0.2 mills of the County equalized value of the township, which was the formula set by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors. If maintenance bills were paid directly to the City of Northville, the maintenance charges would be greater since the Township could not take advantage of the formula which kept the charges within the 0.2 mills.

After further discussion, Young moved, supported by Lawrence, that Supervisor Merriam be authorized to contact the Wayne County Library Board and attempt to work this matter out.

Yeas: Merriam, Tyler, Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: None. Motion carried.

3. Letter from Attorney Philip Ogilvie and petition from A. Malcolm Allen asking the board to adopt a resolution allowing the annexation of a Section of Lot 6, Knapp's Sub., of Northville Township to the City of Northville, was read. The petition stated that the property was serviced by City Water, City sewer and City street and for this reason should be considered part of the city.

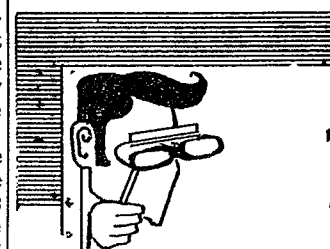

After discussion, Robinson moved, supported by Lawrence, that A. Malcolm Allen's request be tabled until the next meeting.

Yeas: All. Nays: None. Motion carried.

In order to help the board arrive at a decision, Supervisor Merriam suggested that the Northville Record give this matter sufficient publication, that it was a matter of whittling away that Township area and the board should be guided by the general feeling of the Township residents.

No further business. Lawrence moved for adjournment. There being no objection, the meeting was adjourned at 10:46 p.m.

Marguerite N. Young, Clerk

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

January 17, 1963

Assessments on residences and buildings in the city and township of Northville will be reduced in 1963 by an average of approximately five percent.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Clement C. Yerkes, a member of a pioneer Northville family. She would, have been 87 next week.

Two more candidates entered the Northville city council race bringing the number of competing for two vacancies to four.

Joining William Bingley and Incumbent Councilman John Canterbury as announced candidates were Peter Gross and Hiram Pacific.

A proposal to establish a circular one-way street traffic pattern around the shopping area and introduce a "parking mall" on one block of the city's Main street failed to win support from 40 Northville businessmen Monday night.

Members of the city planning commission explained the plan in a meeting attended by representatives of the city council, as well as local retailers.

George W. Matthews, assistant manager of Detroit Edison Oakland sales division, has been promoted to manager of district. The district includes the Northville office.

The Northville Mustangs cage squad built up a third quarter lead of 48-33 over Milford's Redskins and then coasted to a 59-49 victory, their second Wayne-Oakland league win in six starts.

FIVE YEARS AGO

January 15, 1959

The long-planned relocation of Baseline road will get underway this spring with a major portion of the job scheduled to be completed by August 15, this newspaper learned.

The city council's committee to "sell" the $300,000 water improvement bond issue developed a full-steam ahead this week. Sixteen public presentations of the program have already been made or definitely scheduled as the committee makes its determined bid to "educate" the public on the need and details of the proposed program.

Timothy Michael McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald, was born at 4:45 a.m. January 2 to become the winner of the Record-News first baby contest.

Northville's subdivision activity was responsible for boosting building during 1958 by nearly 15 percent over 1957. Meanwhile, Novi felt a drop of approximately 10 percent due to a slump in commercial building in the area.

Announcement of a change in name for Novi's Paragon Construction company has been made by the steel fabricating firm's president, Frank DePodesta.

In a move to avoid confusion as to the specific nature of Paragon's business, the name of "Paragon Bridge & Steel company." The use of the word "Construction" apparently created an erroneous impression in many instances that the company was engaged in general building and contracting business.

Walter Tuck resigned as Wixom councilman in a move which surprised fellow council members. He is not to be confused with Novi's own councilman, Walter Tuck. Tuck's letter of resignation was read to the council, in his absence, by Mayor Joseph Stadnik.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

January 21, 1949

Nelson Schrader has been named chairman of the 1949 March of Dimes campaign.

Winds reported to be as swift as 80 miles per hour lashed down across Northville damaging trees, utility poles, and homes.

Orson Atchinson has purchased the Northville Taxi Service from Frank Bowers of Salem and has already taken over the business.

Northville is to have a new youth center. Under the co-sponsorship of the high school "N" club and the village recreation committee, plans are now being formulated for a center for the teenage set where they may cultivate their hobbies as well as enjoying social activities. The steering committee for the upcoming Spring hobby classes of the Recreation Council are: Father L. E. Woods, Wilson Funk, Rev. William Hughes, Lynn Sullivan, Edward Moller, Robert Coolman, William Peltz, Mrs. E. J. Willis and E. J. Willis.

Grade School Principal Elroy Ellison, accepted the Detroit Times "Green Banner" safety award on behalf of the school.

Ruth Simons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simons of Cady street, has been chosen as the D.A.R. Good Citizenship girl for the class of 1949.

Jean Gray was installed as worthy advisor of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Assembly No. 29, while Jerry Shames was installed as worthy associate advisor.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

January 20, 1939

Nelson C. Schrader has been named to head the fifth annual president's ball.

A resident of Northville for the past 55 years, Narcis Peter Ely, died January 13 at the University hospital. For 15 years, Mr. Ely was caretaker at Cass Benton Park.

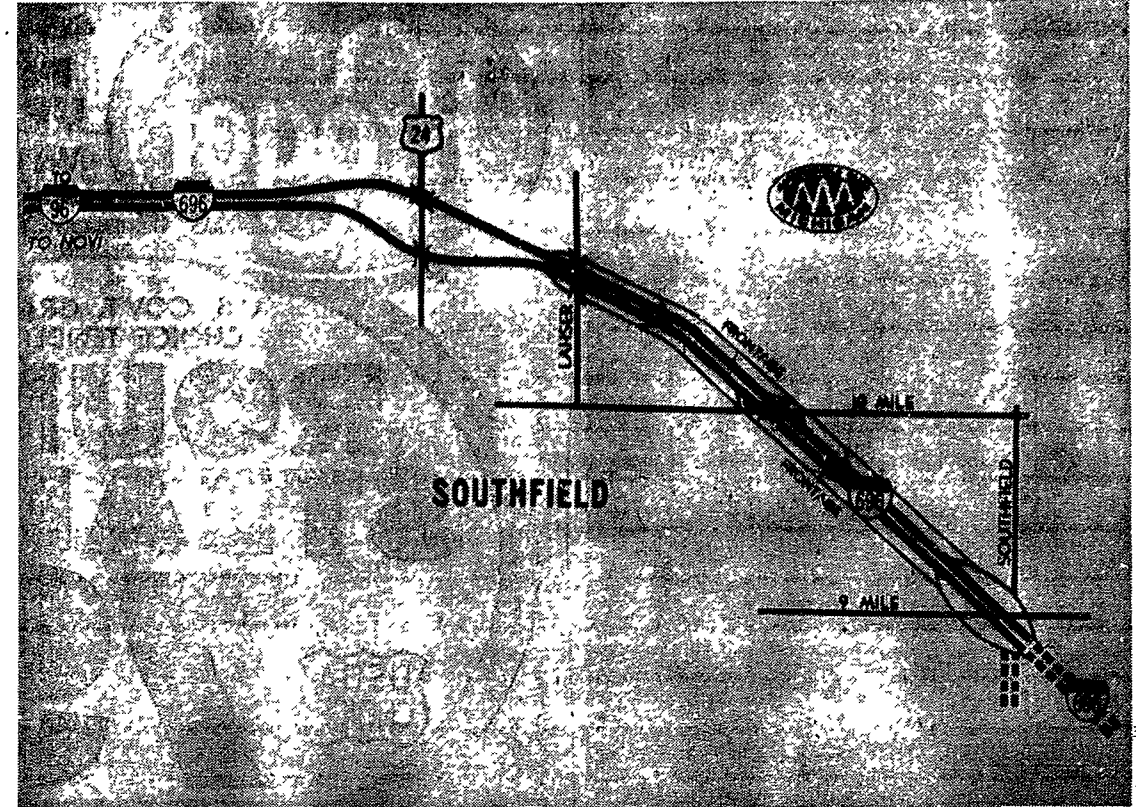

A letter sent to the village council and read Tuesday evening in the regular public meeting disclosed a suggestion for a food ordinance from Dr. R. M. Atchison, village health officer.

Evidence that two women can get together, prompted by a purpose other than gossip, as disclosed this week when Mrs. Howard McKeague and Mrs. Victor J. Lumley announced the opening of a shop where clothing, furniture and bric-a-brac can be bought for resale.

Northville's second annual ice carnival will be held January 22 on the Ford pond, Chairman Neil Hannaford announced. Kathryn Marburger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Marburger, was named queen of the festivity by popular vote of the high school assembly. Runners-up were Jane VanAtta, Elvira Trofast, Jean Lyke, Ruth Parmenter, Bebe Johnson, Murma Hubbard and Norma Ward.

Hannaford has named Dr. L. W. Snow, president of the Civic association, on his committee, along with Mayor Arthur S. Nichols, Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery, Orlov G. Owen, M. C. Gussell, Dr. H. Handorf, Dr. E. B. Cavell, Jr., Tom Edmondson, Nelson C. Schrader, Al Zimmer, Russell H. Steininger and Del Campbell.

Interstate 696 Open for Traffic

A safer, faster trip between Detroit and Muskegon was provided motorists with the opening January 8 of a new stretch of Interstate 696 in Oakland County, said Jerry E. Fisher, Automobile Club of Michigan touring manager. The new eight-mile segment means an almost continuous route between the two cities that is 75 per cent safer and saves nearly an hour in driving time over the route used 10 years ago. The segment is from Santa Barbara, just north of Nine Mile in the city of Southfield, to Orchard Lake road in Farmington township. It is built along Northwestern highway from Nine Mile to US-24 (Telegraph). From US-24 to I-96 the freeway was built on a new location. Cost of the new section was $10 million. Only 2.5 miles now remain to be completed in a continuous Detroit-Muskegon freeway via the John C. Lodge Freeway, Northwestern, I-696 and I-96.

TO THOSE LIVING IN THE COMMUNITIES SERVED BY DETROIT EDISON

As you grow and prosper, so do we. The nature of our business makes us very much a part of the 67 cities, 76 villages, 214 townships and 258 other communities that make up Southeastern Michigan.

It is mutually advantageous for us to encourage farmers to follow good agricultural practices, for example. Electrically driven machinery, so vital in combating the cost-price squeeze, is fast turning farms into food factories and there is much to learn in the process. The successful farmer of the future will be the one who best knows how to evaluate and use these "wired hands."

In behalf of business, we're constantly searching for new and improved ways to put versatile electric energy to work. This helps make our recommendations to our industrial and commercial customers more valuable and meaningful.

To aid in bringing new business enterprises into this area is another goal of ours. We help firms in search of new locations to find the best sites. Of greater long-range importance, we help communities make themselves more attractive to industrial newcomers. One way of doing so is by assisting in the research and work which lead to community planning and to the establishment of industrial development committees.

As you grow and prosper, so do we. We seek always to be staunch and enthusiastic boosters of the area and the people we serve.

Sincerely,

Walker L. Cisler

Official Minutes of the Northville City Council

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Protem Canterbury on Monday, December 16, 1963, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City Hall.

Present: Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Kester. Absent: Allen.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Ambler that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General $9,651.91
Water 1,973.89
City Hall Con. 31,222.97
Unanimously carried.
Communications:

A card of acknowledgement to the City Council and employees from the family of Albert Barehart was read.

A request was received from Mr. Carl Luoma, contractor for the new City Hall and Service Building, asking for an extension of 30 days from the original completion date of March 1, 1964. The City Manager is to prepare a letter of extension which will incorporate the completion of the fire hall - this letter to be presented to Council on January 6. A letter is to be written to the Northville Township Supervisor stating that it has informally come to Council's attention that doors on the fire hall are inadequate and that this assumption is incorrect; if there is concern regarding this, township officials should contact the City Manager. A letter from Mr. Nelson Hyatt, Hyatt Construction Co. was read in which he asks permission to extend the stream enclosure from N. Property Line of Northville Downs to bridge structure on River street, approximately 4'. The city engineer commented on the water line which runs along this property and at present is uncovered; permission would be needed to cover this. Moved by Ambler, supported by Carlson that the City Manager, City Engineer are to confer on this and subject to the City Attorney's written statement, permission be granted to extend stream enclosure from N. Property line, etc. Unanimously carried.

Open Bids for City Hall and Library Furniture:

Bids from the following companies were opened and are listed below: (on file at city hall). Council approved that a comparative basis be used by the City Manager on considering these bids and Mr. Ambler and Mrs. Carlson are to work with the city manager on a final analysis. Report and recommendations are to be made at the January 6th Council meeting.

Mr. Gazlay to make a Presentation concerning a Possible Historical Commission:

After Mr. Gazlay's report which included his beginning interest in this type of activity, a resume of several collections belonging to local residents which might be included for displays; his research with Livonia, Detroit and Plymouth organizations; the council thanked him for his endeavor and asked if he would kindly continue his research; determining what facilities are needed for this project's storage; type of displays for the new city hall. Council also asked that Mr. Gazlay report back on above and also on volunteer help which will be needed; types of items considered of primary interest and furnish copies or statements of organizations' commissions. Mr. Gazlay feels that a Historical Commission and Society could be most compatible. Mr. Pott-hoff and Mr. Gazlay are to examine the new city hall in respect to such a group's activities.

Mr. Canterbury reported that a feasibility study is being done by a committee of which he is a member. This committee is assembling information and material from communities having historical commissions. Replies have been received from 12 of 16 communities contacted. Possibility of Northville Township being included, if they are interested.

Request from Mr. Wineman to Consider Parking Limits for the Alley Back of Parking Area No. 1:

As Mr. Wineman was not present at this meeting, the city manager explained Mr. Wineman's concern with parking in front of his store. Mr. Canterbury suggested that the parking committee and the city manager look over the total parking situation, etc. as to policing, etc. and report back to Council after a meeting either in January or February. Moved by Canterbury, supported by Ambler that steps be taken to post spaces immediately in front of E. J. Lumber Mart pending determination of 2-hour parking to other areas. Unanimously carried.

The city manager explained that he would like to send a Man to Meter School and have him work on meters.

Recommendation from the Police Department and City Manager to Change Stop Signs on Rouge at Novi and Oakland at Baseline to Yield Signs

The city manager and the Chief of Police have reviewed this situation and find it highly feasible to change these Stop signs to Yield as traffic is very light in volume and a yield sign is more easily enforced than a Stop sign. Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that Rouge at Novi and Oakland at Baseline be approved for "Yield" signs. Unanimously carried.

A letter of appreciation is to be sent to Mr. Taggart for his suggestion regarding this matter.

Council would like a report on how many intersections in the city are not signed.

Report From the City Attorney Regarding Deed Restrictions Pertaining to the Race Track Parking lot on River street:

The city attorney reported on the covenant and deed and the matter of Mr. Carlo's request is to be referred to the Planning Commission.

Further Consideration of a member for the Board of Review:

Mr. Canterbury is to contact Mr. Charles Carrington and Mr. Don Merritt.

Minutes are to be checked for terms of Recreation Committee members.

Water Board's Request for Basement on Baseline:

The City Manager explained the request for a construction permit and reported it had been answered and a copy of same sent to Mr. Michaels.

Miscellaneous:

Mrs. Carlson reported that as yet there is still no policy established by the school board for the use of the school facilities for meetings. She stated there is a room with 3 tables and 30 chairs available for meetings in the Savings and Loan Ass'n. on N. Center St. where coffee, but no food, may be served. Mrs. Carlson read a questionnaire on shopping habits which has been prepared and is being distributed by the Planning Commission. Mrs. Carlson also had attended the Senior Citizens' Tea on Sunday, December 13, and reports the next meeting to be around January 14 at which time officers will be elected.

Mr. Kester reminded Council of the offer made by the Eagles to donate a plaque of the Ten Commandments to be used on the new lawn area of the City Hall. Consideration is being given to this total area and this offer will be considered.

The city manager was given permission to proceed with or-

Mr. Ambler reported that there will be a recommendation from the Recreation Committee shortly on rental policy for the Recreation-Scout Building. The city attorney is to check with Mr. Littel regarding previous decisions established concerning liability of Recreation employees and persons engaged in activities within the Scout-Recreation building.

The city manager is to talk to School Administration about some type of protection along sidewalk on North Center street for pedestrians.

Council approved the closing of the city hall offices on Tuesday, December 24 and Tuesday, December 31 at 1:00 p.m.

The city manager reported a meeting with the Detroit water Board on Thursday, December 19, 4:00 p.m. He was asked to have figures on total cost of carrying water line to serve the reservoir, on alternate routes, the Railroad and Clement road.

Township residents have asked to purchase water from the city to use in making ice rinks, etc; approval given subject to purchases of water in past.

Mr. Pottthoff reported that a copper box is to be installed in the City hall cornerstone and will include: April 25, 1963 copy of The Northville Record, maps of city, copy of City Code, Budget for fiscal year of 1963-64, Zoning Ordinance and map, Retail Merchants book on Introduction, to Northville, history of Northville as compiled by Mr. Alvin Skow's 8th grade Social Studies Class and a Civilian Defense Pamphlet.

The City Manager reported that Stanley Smith is substituting for Plumbing Inspector during Mr. George Huger's illness.

City manager stated he had replied to Mrs. George Kohs' letter asking her for more specific information as to ample time needed to retain and restore Library Building as stated in petitions presented to council.

The city attorney was asked to give the letter which he had received from Northville township to Mr. Canterbury and Mr. Ambler.

The city manager is to talk to Mr. Oscar Hammond regarding the need for a 50-star United States flag for the council chambers.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:50 p.m.

Jaycees Observe Anniversary; Seek Energetic New Members

Northville's Jaycees are joining with Junior Chamber of Commerce units in more than 4,000 communities throughout the nation this week in observing National Jaycee Week, January 19 through 25. They're new, active members.

Local Jaycee President Karl Knott noted this week that the Northville chapter was founded in November, 1960 and now has 40 regular and two honorary members.

Although this represents a small group in relation to the young men in this community who are eligible for membership, we have been big in spirit and action. For the future it is our goal to build a more dynamic group and to increase our activities in various areas," Knott stated.

He noted that aside from self-development and leadership training for the individual the principle Jaycee function is community service.

Knott listed the following projects planned for the next six months: March of Dimes; Clean-Up, Fix-Up; and Car Safety Check.

"Projects of this kind take time and manpower. We, the Northville Jaycees, ask every community minded young man (between 21 and 35) to join our action-packed and forward-looking group of young men", Knott said in an appeal for more members.

Regular Jaycee meetings are held at 8 p.m. on the second Thursday of each month in the basement of Detroit Federal Savings and Loan. "We feel that every young man owes it to himself to give the Jaycees a chance. Special orientation meetings for prospective members are held regularly," Knott concluded.

Officers in addition to Knott are: Robert Pankow, first vice president; James Allen, second vice president; LeRoy Stone, secretary; John McCauley, treasurer; and Ken Roberts, Charles Parton and John Goss directors.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1915 with the formation of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce taking place in 1920.

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

One of the things you'll like best about it is 11 models to choose from.

MALIBU S.S. SERIES	MALIBU SERIES	300 SERIES
These two Super Sport models are Chevelle's finest. Front bucket seats, door-to-door carpeting and an all-vinyl interior in seven colors. A wide choice of transmissions and extra-cost high-performance engines. Plus a whole host of other options.	Chevelle's middle-of-the-line series, the Malibu, retains many features found in the two Super Sport models. Like all Chevelles, it's a good foot shorter than big cars, making it easy to park and handle. Yet inside it's surprisingly spacious and comfortable.	Chevelle's most economical series—but don't let its gentle price tag fool you. The 300 has all Chevrolet's traditional value and reliability. Full Coil suspension. Body by Fisher. Flush-and-dry rocker panels. Your Chevy dealer will tell you all the rest.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

A request to change the city of Northville boundary lines so that they will include the recently-purchased home of Mayor A. M. Allen has assumed proportions beyond reason.

As readers of our news columns know, Northville's mayor acquired a house at the end of Scott street on the city's extreme western borders. The street leading to the house is in the city, but the two-acre lot and house extends outside the city into the township.

The mayor still lives in the city (on Griswold), but he'd like to move into his new home. He'd also like to continue to be mayor. He can't do both unless he can gain admittance of his property to the city.

It's reasonable for one to ask: "Why should a mayor buy a house outside the city?"

That's easy to answer. The mayor likes the house. And what's more important, so does his wife. (What does the average husband do in such circumstances?)

Unfortunately, it was practically impossible under the terms of the deal for the mayor to make the purchase contingent upon annexation of the property to the city.

So he went ahead and risked his mayoralty. I will admit at the outset that I like Mayor Allen. He has been good for our community (both city and township) and he has devoted many, many hours during the past 17 years to our local government. Many of us may criticize public officials (and I still reserve that right), but how many of us volunteer for their jobs?

So I'll admit my partiality and that I believe the community owes Mayor Allen something more than a shove out of office on a technicality.

But I'll try not to show this prejudice as I describe the way I view his request for annexation.

Our state statutes provide two methods for annexing township property to cities the size of Northville.

One is by vote of the qualified electors residing within the area of the township to be annexed and the voters of the city to which the property is to be annexed. Favorable vote within both areas constitutes annexation.

The law also provides that township property on the border of a city may become a part of the city by joint resolution of governing bodies.

In other words, the law provides for exceptions, presumably to avoid costly elections.

To make my point clearer we might take the example of Northville Estates located on West Eight Mile near Beck road.

The residents of this area wished to become a part of the city of Northville. But their subdivision and several hundred acres between their homes and the city limits was in Novi township. They petitioned for annexation to the city.

Obviously, the officials of Novi could not stand idly by and permit such a large area of land and taxable homes to be lost to the township without a fight. This would have been contrary to their oath of office to serve the best interests of the entire township.

So there was an election. The residents of Northville Estates voted to join Northville. Electors in the city voted in favor of accepting the area.

But what do we have in the Mayor Allen case? Is it an exception?

Pretend for a minute that it is you who purchased the house at the end of Scott avenue. It is now served by city sewer and water. It can be reached only over city streets. You would like to be a part of the city and have city police protection and city garbage collection.

You are willing to pay the additional taxes for these services.

Is it unreasonable to ask your township board and the city council to permit you to enter the city? Are you robbing the township of valuable tax income? (The annual township tax on the property is $8.76).

Or is your request the kind which lawmakers foresaw when they devised the annexation by joint resolution method?

At this time it appears that the township board will deny the mayor's request. But they would welcome citizens' opinions before making their decision on February 4.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam tells me that he has had some township residents tell him that they favor granting the request. But the supervisor says that his clerk and treasurer report opposition to the proposal.

I own property in both the city and township. In the near future I hope to become a township resident. While I recognize our elected officials have a duty to perform in behalf of the citizens who elect them, I believe the progress of our community depends upon the ability of our city and township to work together.

I do not consider the proposal before the township board to be unreasonable. I think it is in the best interest of the community.

I hope township residents will answer Supervisor Merriam's appeal for opinions on Mayor Allen's request — for or against.

The members of the board and their home telephone numbers are: Supervisor Merriam, FI-9-0691; Clerk Marguerite Young, FI-9-2211; Treasurer A. M. Lawrence, FI-9-0635; Trustee Don Robinson, FI-9-1671; and Trustee Wilson Tyler, FI-9-0569. Township hall number is FI-9-1600.

Auditor Promotes Savings by Efficiency

LANSING — Less duplication is another term for efficiency in government, according to Auditor General Billie S. Farnum.

Efficiency is what each department head in state government is now asked to re-evaluate. True efficiency could bring about considerable savings in operational costs. This would leave more money for programs which benefit the people.

In Farnum's office studies have been under way to find more effective, faster ways of processing the tons of paper work involved in audit procedures.

Previously, the auditor general's office required, for example, five different forms for various steps in the veterans homestead tax exemption program. Last fall, Farnum announced the forms were combined into a single report which also would provide a carbon for the taxpayer.

"Usually," said Farnum, "efforts at tighter control of expenditures result in increased paper work, or so-called 'red tape.' By application of work simplification principles to our procedures and forms, we have actually reduced effort and cost."

Initiation of work efficiency studies came shortly after Farnum was appointed as auditor general, when Otis M. Smith became a Supreme Court justice.

The use of business machine procedures and simplified reports, such as the 5-in-1 veterans homestead exemption report form, will also result in more effective audit procedures to carry out the intent of the law.

"This homestead exemption procedure is but one example of the work simplification program which has achieved excellent results and reduced administrative costs," the auditor general said.

A similar look at operations, this one in the state treasurer's office, has resulted in complete conversion from the use of paper checks to punch card checks.

"Tell 'em," moaned Charles Ely as the adding machine stopped buzzing, "they can start planting their gardens in March."

It was his way of saying the fuel oil business is lousy.

Chuck and his brother, Ivan, had just run a check on their "degree days" and came up with the prediction that we're headed for the warmest winter wrapup and spring-opener in many years.

Now that's the kind of prediction that can drive a fuel oil businessman to drink — or worse yet, smoke. But like it or not, it's going to get warmer, explains Chuck with a wry smile, "because all science fails in dry weather."

If that piece of home-brew logic leaves you wanting, consider the scientific verbiage behind his prediction: subtraction of the daily average temperature from a mean figure of 70 produces what the fuel dealers call "accumulated degree days." Therefore, as the mercury falls a greater number of degree days is logged.

For example, if the average temperature today is 25 degrees, Chuck subtracts 25 from 70 for a difference of 45 accumulated degrees. Tomorrow he will add 45 to that day's accumulated degrees to come up with a total for two days. And the process continues daily.

If the temperature falls below 0 degrees, he adds the figure to 70; if it rises above 70, he does not include the increase in his running figures.

Chuck has found that on January 22 of each year for the past 10 years as many degree days were accumulated from September 1 to January 22 as were compiled from January 22 to September 1. And in those years only once did the total number of degree days for a 12-month period exceed 8,000.

Last Friday, his charts showed a total accumulation since September of 3,274 degree days — 496 fewer than were logged by the same date the previous year. In other words, temperatures have been considerably warmer than last year.

By further compilation, he predicts a 12-month accumulation of approximately 7,258 degree days as compared to 8,250 degree days last year for a drop of nearly 1,000 degrees!

The average annual figure over the past 10 years has been 7,670 degrees, which means, says the self-styled weatherman, that this year's total accumulation will be approximately 402 degrees fewer than the average figure.

The prognosticator slapped my hand when I suggested that maybe — just maybe — we will have much colder weather after January 22 to make up for the "warm" weather from September to January. "It just can't happen," he said, "January 22 is the mid-point; we'll have the same number after as we did before. Just watch and see."

According to brother Ivan there is a logical explanation for the significant drop in accumulated degrees: "An extreme always follows an extreme; last year was our coldest so this year has to be our warmest."

My sympathy goes out for these fuel dealers, but frankly their prediction boosts my morale which always ebbs as winter sandwiches snow and ice between January and February.

And just in case April showers show up in February we can avoid some unpleasanties by remembering three other scientific observations of Northville's own weathermen:

"Friday is either the fairest or the foulest day of the week."

"If it rains on Monday, it will rain three more days in the week."

"If it rains on Wednesday, it will rain again before Saturday."

Good Investment: Buy Land on Moon

BABSON PARK, Mass. — One of my precious possessions is a map of the United States published in France in 1790. It shows nothing west of the Mississippi until you reach the Pacific Coast, where it shows a few settlements on the coast — or in what now constitutes California, Oregon and Washington.

Land in Florida was then being sold by real estate agents in Spain. Land in what are now the other Atlantic Coast states was being sold in France and England. This land sold at prices which seem very low today. Much land in Florida could then be bought for 50 cents an acre which now sells for $500 an acre. I believe that the price will continue to rise. I believe that land in Florida, especially ocean-front land on the west and the east coasts, will increase considerably further in price.

When I first came to Florida forty years ago, I bought 12,000 acres of land for $3.50 an acre. This was my first speculation in Florida land. Today that land sells for $100 an acre. I bought land about ten years ago in the interior of the state for $100 an acre which sells for not much more today; but if I had bought on the east or west coast, it would today sell for ten times the purchase price.

Readers may laugh at me, but I think the same thing will happen in connection with land on the moon.

I believe real estate agents will some day be selling land on the moon which may show a profit, as did land sold in this country 150 years ago. My reason for feeling this way is that land on the moon can be "viewed" by means of the new radio telescopes, which will enable real estate agents in the United States to show prospects what part of the moon they are buying and the particulars regarding it.

These radio telescopes will be available at many points so that real estate agents can use them with perfect safety. Many of the larger universities now have such radio telescopes and will probably soon allow real estate agents to use them.

When I was in Russia, I found the Russian government very much alert to the possibilities of buying land in space, starting with the moon. Russia was training her young people to be interested in space, for two reasons. First, because Russia believes that if World War III occurs, fighting will take place above the earth's atmosphere; and secondly, because space may be "good business," and the Russians will make a profit from it. Therefore, we must not feel that money which the United States Government spends on space will be wasted; in fact it may be very profitable.

This brings me to a final thought. I recently have been reading about the galaxies, which are great collections of stars or would-be stars scattered throughout the universe. There are millions of them. Some are great distances away. They apparently have no beginning, and no ending. I even believe that these stars, so-called, or portions of galaxies, will be speculated in by real estate agents all over the world.

The universities are numbering the galaxies and listing them on maps. The day is coming when real estate agents in this country will be selling one of these stars, or certain parts, to people as a speculation. It will be possible to buy Star No. 1250, for instance, in Galaxy K, which a person can hold and then sell to someone else at a profit. The price, of course, would be very cheap and speculation therein would be very interesting. All this means that young people should give more study to space and to the celestial bodies which apparently have no beginning and no ending.

So much for my ideas on future real estate transactions. But what would my readers have said if, say, sixty years ago I had forecast the excitement over football between universities, which exists today? Readers would have thought me crazy. Let me now forecast that our universities will be getting just as competitive over galaxies and stars.

HOUSE BILL 4 — PUBLIC ACTS 65 NEW SECTIONS 30a and 30b and 30c

CITY, TOWNSHIP, VILLAGE AND DISTRICT BOARD OF CANVASSERS; ESTABLISHMENT, MEMBERSHIP, TERMS, TERMS FOR FIRST BOARD MEMBERS, NOTIFICATION

This is new legislation establishing a four-member board of canvassers for each city, township, village and district within the state. The term for regular appointments will be four years, beginning the January 1st next following their appointment. For the first board, one member from each party will be appointed for a term ending December 31, 1965. One member from each party is also provided for a term ending December 31, 1967. New members are to be notified of appointment within 5 days thereafter by the local clerk.

SAME; QUALIFICATION, AFFIDAVIT REQUIREMENTS; COUNTY CLERK, NOTIFICATION, MEMBERSHIP; VACATING THE OFFICE

The statute provides that board members must be qualified and registered electors of the municipality or district in which they serve.

No person may be appointed unless he files an affidavit approved by the Election Bureau and containing at least the name, home address, political party affiliation, date of birth, employment and physical disability, if any.

The county clerk must be given names, addresses and party affiliation of all new board of canvassers members. The county clerk is thereafter required to keep this file current for public inspection.

An office is vacated during the term if a board member or any member of his immediate family serves as an election inspector, becomes a candidate for public office canvassed by his board or serves as a member of the governing body of the unit for which his board is established.

SAME; SELECTION, MEMBERSHIP, APPLICATION, TIME, VACANCY. Selection is made by the legislative body of the community of not more than two members from each of the two political parties which cast the greatest number of votes for Secretary of State at the last preceding election. Persons are selected from those who file affidavits and applications with the local clerk. The application form is prescribed by the governing body. Appointments are to be made by December 1st of each odd-numbered year. The first appointments to these newly created boards are to be made as soon as possible.

Persons are appointed to fill vacancies for the completion of the term and are to be taken from those applicants who have both applications and affidavits on file. If applications are not available, the governing body must appoint as they see fit but must be from the party having a vacancy.

NOTICE: The Northville Township Board would appreciate applications from qualified and registered electors in the Township of Northville for these appointments being filed before February 1st, 1964.

Marguerite N. Young, Twp. of Northville Clerk
