Historical Society Elects Mrs. Chase

Mrs. Ruth M. Chase of 19818 South Clement road was elected president of the newly organized Northville Historical Society Tuesday evening. She replaces Mrs. Carl Johnson, who served as temporary chairman of the group during the formative stages of organization.

Others elected to office at the charter meeting held in the junior high school library are: Francis Gazlay, vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Chapman, recording secretary; Alvin Skow, corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Knapp, treasurer; and three directors, Mrs. Blake Couse, Richard Lyon and Jack Hoffman.

Under the society's constitution, officers are elected for one year and directors for two years.

Guest speaker for the occasion was William K. Alderfer, director of the Historical Society of Michigan. Topic of his talk was "The Northville Historical Society — A Gold Mine for the Future."

In his attempt to generate enthusiasm among citizens attending the meeting, the speaker sandwiched statistics between an outline of society purposes and a list of practical benefits resulting from historical societies.

Today there are 57 active historical societies in Michigan — not counting many which are not active, he said. Of these, 22 maintain museums and nearly half maintain their own quarters. The state societies have an estimated total membership of nearly 10,000 citizens, he added.

These statistics, plus others he disclosed, indicate that the local organization is part of an important cultural activity within Michigan communities.

Northville, he said, is a unique community with a unique history. There are no other Northvilles in Michigan or in the United States with the same historical background, "and your job," he emphasized, "is to collect and preserve this history" for the generations to come.

Continuing, he pointed out that the collection and preservation of history locally does not necessarily mean establishment of a museum. There is much that can be done even without a museum, he added.

Concerning the historical data and artifacts that will result from the work of the local society, Alderfer urged members not to place this material "under lock and key" but rather help make it available for community study and satisfaction.

As for the practical benefits noted that real but perhaps difficult to see financial savings are realized by the community where societies exist. He cited aid to education, tourists, and local government as examples of areas where societies represent a "dollar and cents" value to the community and to the state.

Area residents interested in becoming members of the Northville society are urged to contact any of the officers or attend the next regular meeting slated for Tuesday, March 17.

Individual active membership per year in the society has been set at $1, with junior memberships at 50-cents, and life memberships at $25.

McAtee, Welke Win in Wixom

Incumbent Mayor Wesley McAtee and William Welke, present Wixom justice of the peace, will battle for the mayor's post in Wixom at the city election in April.

The two candidates were nominated for the post at Wixom's primary election Tuesday which drew nearly two-thirds of the registered voters.

Eliminated from the mayor's race was Councilwoman Mrs. John Chambers, who finished third in the three-candidate battle for nomination.

In the only other primary competition, Elwood Grubb and Harry Wimmer won the right to compete for Welke's JP post in the spring. Former mayor Joseph Stadnik, the third candidate for JP, finished far behind the winners.

With 469 of the 727 registered voters casting ballots, 222 favored McAtee making him the big vote getter of the primary. His opponent, Welke, drew 151 votes, while Mrs. Chambers picked up 94 votes.

Grubb led the JP candidates with 204 votes, followed by Wimmer with 157 and Stadnik with 99.

Votes by precinct: Precinct 1, Chambers 63; McAtee, 173; Welke, 96; and Grubb, 131; Stadnik, 79; Wimmer, 118. Precinct 2, Chambers 31, McAtee 49; Welke, 55; and Grubb, 73; Stadnik, 20; Wimmer, 39.

96-Voice Choir To Perform Here Monday Night

The 96-voice all league choir will present a public concert Monday at 8 p.m. at the Northville high school auditorium.

The choir is composed of 12 representatives from each of the eight member schools of the Wayne-Oakland League.

Among the selections to be presented by the choir are: "The Hymn of the Republic," "O Rejoice Ye Christians Loudly," "There is a Balm in Gilead" and the Hallelujah Chorus.

Several small group and solo performances will be included in the program with Linda Line

Six Signs Of Spring

Signs of spring flew into Northville Tuesday.

Mrs. Eula Horsfall, 46060 Neeson, reported seeing a robin in a Chinese elm in her backyard Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Bernard Adams of 41280 Llewellyn topped that. She saw five of the familiar red-breasts in her backyard Tuesday afternoon.

But Sees Use as 'Training School Branch'

State Kills Maybury Halfway House Plan

The city of Detroit's offer to lease Maybury Sanatorium to the state for use as a "halfway house" for juvenile offenders has been turned down.

State Welfare Director R. Bernard Houston termed the facility too large and said it would be too costly to convert into a maximum security institution.

But Houston left the door open with a suggestion "that the Maybury unit could function as a branch of the Boys Training School."

In a report prepared by Houston's department it was noted that the Maybury unit, while adaptable for securing hard-core delinquents, "would provide a much needed gap in our spectrum of services for disturbed youths."

The proposal to convert the former children's unit of the Seven Mile road TB sanatorium into a "halfway house" for some 200 hard-core delinquents brought a rash of protests from Northville area residents.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam flatly opposed the project. He reported numerous objections to the plan from township residents.

Mayor A. M. Allen also received calls of protest and expressed concern for area police protection.

But local fears were stilled Friday when state and Detroit officials met in Detroit. The result was a decision to continue the study to seek remedies for juvenile violence. A subcommittee will report back within 30 days.

Supervisor Merriam was an interested listener at the Friday meeting. Representatives of the state department of social welfare inspected the Maybury unit early last week. Their report killed the proposal.

Excerpts from the report dealing with the suitability of Maybury as a halfway house include:

"The facility is completely lacking in provisions for secure detention. There are literally hundreds of windows and several doors leading to roofed-in porches. Remodeling for security purposes would be extremely costly. Therefore, the facility as presently constituted would lend itself only to an open type program."

"There has been much discussion in the newspapers relative to half-way houses and a certain amount of confusion as to the institutional needs of the State versus the projected benefits of a halfway house program. The facility described above can neither meet the demands of security for the estimated 200 hard-core delinquents or the requirements of the half-way house concept. However, it would provide a much needed gap in our spectrum of services for disturbed youths."

"The half-way house concept envisions the use of an open-type program in which the child remains in the community setting and avails himself of other community institutions such as school, church, etc. In short, he is learning to adapt himself to community life without the emotional difficulties stemming from his family and former cronies. Because of the isolation of Maybury to larger communities this is not possible. The closest school system is Northville, of approximately a B class-fication. It is extremely unlikely that this school system could absorb 100 problem boys. Nor would it appear practical to bus the boys to several schools because of distance and transportation problems involved. Consequently, the program will have to include an on-campus educational program.

"There is at present, and will be for some years to come a need for the open type remedial program which could be visualized at Maybury. Many youngsters now at 13, 14, and 15 years of age will become hard-core delinquents unless help is provided at that particular point in their lives when correction is more readily achieved. Too often, an early pattern of delinquent behavior is detected but over-shadowed because of the community pressure to do something about the more seriously disturbed youngster. In terms of type of problem presented, there is a similarity of this program to the half-way house movement.

"It is reasonable to conclude that the Maybury unit could function as a branch of the Boys Training School. This has several advantages in addition to those cited above. It would be easily accessible to the Detroit area allowing for more parent participation in the planning as well as the continuation of local social service programs which tend to break-off when the child goes to the present state facilities. It is likely that psychiatric, psychological, and other specialized services can be more easily obtained either from the institutional facilities in the Northville area or from the nearby metropolitan area."

City Sets Improvement Hearings

Public hearings to cover special assessment projects for improvements on five city streets were called by the city council Monday night after approving reports by the city manager.

Slated for improvements are:

West (Randolph to Dunlap), Butler and Pennell — curb, gutter and storm sewers;

Maplewood — curb, gutter, storm and sanitary sewer and water;

North Center from Ely north to city limits — storm and sanitary sewer and water.

Plans call for West, Butler, Pennell and Maplewood to be paved, probably next year. No decision has been reached on North Center street where residents from Ely South to Ely North oppose the improvement. The council has decided to delay any decision for paving Center north of Ely North to the city limits because of the prospect of having a one block section unimproved between paved areas.

Public hearings will be held March 9 on the West-Butler-Pennell projects and March 10 on Maplewood and Center.

City Manager Bruce Pottthoff informed the council that estimates on West Street placed the total project cost at $14,205 with $5,570 for sewer installation and $8,635 for curbs and gutter. Under the 25 per cent assessment plan, property owners will pay $3,556 of the total.

On Butler and Pennell the total assessment against property owners will be $3,675 with storm sewers costing a total of $7,895 and curbs and gutters $9,098.

The city manager recommended a 25 per cent assessment plan for Maplewood improvements, although 80 per cent had been considered because part of the property is classified as "undeveloped". Maplewood is a new street with developers of the Village Green subdivision on the north side paying 100 percent of their half of the improvements.

Joseph Jendrisak, 986 Grace, is the principle property owner er on the south side of Maplewood. He objected to the assessment stating that his property would not benefit. He said his lots would front on Carpenter and Horton streets when they were cut through to Maplewood. He stated that he, too, was interested in development of his property and would be willing to pay assessments when the streets are cut through.

The council took the position that Jendrisak's property would benefit from the installation of improvements. It was noted that if Carpenter and Horton are ever extended to Maplewood he would not be assessed for water or sanitary sewer, that these improvements are based on benefit per lot.

The council moved to the

Ask Public To View Master Plan

A public presentation of a proposed "master plan" idea for Northville's central business district will be presented next Tuesday evening by the city planning commission.

In addition, the program will feature a film presentation by Ralph Stephenson, who was associated with the architectural firm responsible for designing Northland and the Kalamazoo Mall.

Stephenson will show color film slides of the development of the well-known Kalamazoo shopping mall.

Members of the planning commission including Chairman George Zerbel, Wallace Nichols and William Slattery will take part in the presentation of the Northville central business district plan. They'll be assisted by the firm of Waring and Johnson, planning consultants for the city.

The program will be held in the community building at 8 p.m. It is open to the general public with a special invitation to merchants, property owners and those interested in the development of Northville's commercial area.

Appeal Requested In Officer Dismissal

City Manager Bruce Pottthoff informed the city council Monday night of the dismissal of Police Sergeant Andrew Cain.

Pottthoff said the action had been taken on the recommendation of Chief Eugene King after the officer had pleaded guilty to a drunk and disorderly conduct charge in Farmington township last week. The manager said Cain was arrested less than two hours before Center street project. Improvements were considered for Center street north of Maplewood to the city limits. Several residents of the block south of Maplewood attended the session and opposed any improvements for their block. The council said it had no immediate plans for that block.

Cost of the storm sewer on the west half of Center street will be divided between two property owners (W. R. St. Lawrence and the Michigan Bell Telephone Company). The east side will be paid by Village Green, developers. The Michigan Bell assessment was estimated at $663 and the St. Lawrence at $876.

Upon the suggestion of Councilman Richard Ambler the council decided to divide the cost of sanitary sewer and water on the basis of lots benefited. The subdivision developers have six lots to be served and St. Lawrence two. For sanitary sewer each benefit will cost $506 and for water the benefit cost is $411.

The council unanimously approved the manager's reports and set the public hearing dates.

In other business the council granted the building inspector a $25 per month car allowance and promised to review the salary scale before budget time in June. Manager Pottthoff has recommended a salary hike from $2,100 to $2,700 based upon increased building activity.

Old Spring's Dry; Council Asks Why

Northville's famous Old Spring is acting very much like a dry well.

Just like Old Mother Hubbard, countless, longtime users of the cool, clear spring water are turning away when they find the Old Spring produces not a single drop.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson brought the matter before the council table.

Mayor A. M. Allen turned to City Engineer Harold Penn for the answer.

He confessed he didn't know. But he promised the council to try and find out.

Penn said first he must definitely trace the source of the well. No one seems to be sure whether it is directly below the well site itself, or whether it comes from a spring on the other side of the railroad tracks.

The engineer said he would check C & O Railroads records to see if a line extends under the tracks.

Penn pointed to several possible reasons for the spring to stop flowing. Corrosion of the pipe could be one, digging at the Manning & Locklin gravel pits could have reduced the pressure, or said Penn, if the well can be found it's possible that deepening can restore the

First Tenants at City Hall

Although the complete building will not be open for use before April 1, the fire station portion of the new city hall and library is now housing fire trucks and equipment. Workmen completed this portion first so that trucks could be moved from temporary quarters at the public works building to a more central location.

City, School Canvassers Sought

Applicants for membership on the board of canvassers are being sought by both the Northville school district and city council.

A new state law requires that such boards must be named by townships, villages, cities and school districts. Each must have its own four-member board.

Although both the school and city elections are non-partisan, the boards of canvassers must be composed of four members, two each of the major political parties.

The members will serve four year terms. Two of the original members, however, will be appointed for two years so that four-year staggered appointments may be made after two years.

Members of the boards check election returns and certify the results.

Qualified electors residing in the city or school district may obtain application forms at the city hall and board of education offices.

Double ring marriage vows were exchanged between Miss John O. Bryne at a Nuptial Mass in St. Lawrence Martyr Church, Redondo Beach, California on November 9, 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester R. Lee

The daughter of Mrs. Matilda G. Bensen of Redondo Beach and Willard L. Bensen of Ferndale, Michigan, she was given in marriage by a family friend, Mr. Charles O'Brien of Redondo Beach.

For her wedding she wore a gown of white Florentine lace over taffeta, styled with a sweep train and fashioned with a scalloped transparent neckline and long sleeves. Her veil was elbow length and her bridal bouquet was made of white carnations centered with white orchids. She wore a pearl pendant, present of the groom.

Street length gowns in shades of blue, with matching veiled hats and shoes were the attire of Mrs. Lawrence Barth, the bride's sister as matron of honor, and Misses Mary Gunderson, Redondo Beach, and Peggy Gormley and Sheila Fitzgerald of Torrance, bridesmaids. Each carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Miss Jeanette Van Cleve of Hawthorne, the bridegroom's niece wore a street-length gown of blue organza and as flower girl carried a basketful of blue carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Frank Powell of Boise, Idaho and Chester Lee of Newcastle, California asked Terrance Schuler of Hawthorne, to serve as best man. Wedding guests were seated by Donald Van Cleve, Donald Finney and Donald Rumsey all of Hawthorne.

"One hundred relatives and friends greeted the bridal couple at a reception at Ceasars in Redondo Beach after the ceremony. Northville residents attending were Mrs. Anna Farley and daughter Kathleen. The bride's mother wore a green silk brocade suit with matching hat and brown accessories complemented with a brown orchid corsage.

When the couple departed on a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe the bride wore a black and white tweed suit with black accessories. They will live in Gardena.

Mrs. Lee is a graduate of Northville high school, and attended El Camino College. She is employed as a service representative by Pacific Telephone. Mr. Lee attended high school in Boise, Idaho and is a student at El Camino. He is employed by U.S. Plumbing.

All A's for Etta

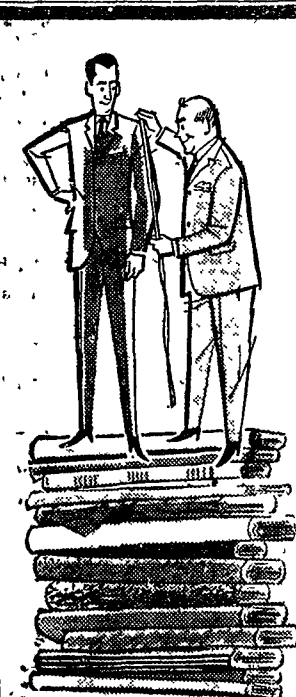

Etta C. Rutan, a freshman at Michigan State University and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Emerson Rutan of 840 Grace, is one of only 308 students who achieved All-A records during the fall term. HANSEL AND GRETEL — Preparing posters and props for the February 22 (Saturday) performance of the stage play, Hansel and Gretel, sponsored by the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), are Mrs. David Vincent (left) and Mrs. David VanHine, Northville members of the AAUW branch. Tickets for the children's play are available at both Northville elementary schools and also may be secured by calling Mrs. VanHine at FI-9-3015. Four performances of the famous fairytale will be presented.

Fairy Tale On Stage Saturday

"Hansel and Gretel" is ready for presentation Saturday at Plymouth High school.

Tickets are available locally by calling Mrs. David VanHine, FI-9-3015, of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), Plymouth branch.

The play, written by Madge Miller, was obtained from the Childrens Theatre Press of Anchorage, Kentucky.

Four times on Saturday, a 10, 11:30, 1:30 and 3, the Story Book Lady (Mrs. W. J. Fronk) will greet the children and introduce the old familiar, fairy tale.

The stage settings are charming and colorful, officials point out, and the children will thrill to the evil witch (Mrs. T. Deverous) who of course is finally overcome by the children (Mrs. W. Smith and Mrs. J. Knowles), aided by the good fairy (Miss Irene Truesdell).

There will be fun, excitement, suspense and the thrill of the happy ending for all lovers of fairy tales.

Since this is an exciting play, parents are requested to have an adult accompany pre-school children.

At Woman's Club Meet

U-M Lecturer To Speak Friday

A staff psychiatrist at Northville State Hospital will be the guest speaker at Friday's meeting of the Woman's Club of Northville.

Z. P. Lach, M.D., who also lectures at the University of Michigan School of Psychology will speak on "Students of Abnormal Psychology, University of Michigan, from Volunteer to Accredited Courses in Joint Program, University of Michigan and Northville State Hospital."

Dr. Lach was born in Czechoslovakia and graduated from Charles University in Prague. He did post graduate studies in Bavaria, Western Germany, prior to coming to the United States. He took his internship in Chicago and also post graduate study and entered the psychiatric research field at Galesburg State Research Hospital, Galesburg, Illinois, under the known researcher in the psychiatric field, Dr. Harold Himwich.

Prior to coming to Northville, he worked for two years at the Manteno State Hospital, Manteno, Illinois. He has been with the Northville State Hospital since 1957.

He conceived the idea of University students coming as volunteers three years ago and had some contacts with Wayne State University first. However, this did not materialize until contacts were made with the University of Michigan.

For the first two semesters between 30-60 volunteers came to Northville State Hospital on different days a week to work with the more regressed patients in recreational and occupational endeavors.

The enthusiasm of the students grew progressively and also the enthusiasm of the faculty of the University of Michigan that after two semesters they incorporated the program with one of the courses in abnormal psychology, first for one hour credit, and later on two, and finally four hour concentrated course.

Since some of the students from the University of Michigan transferred to Wayne State University and continued coming to Northville State Hospital and bringing some of their colleagues with them, another nucleus of volunteers was formed. Also, since one of the students graduated and is teaching at Thurston High School, he brings with him some of the high school students of his class which is presently engaged in mental health studies.

The enthusiasm of students is shared by Dr. Lach and many of the employees from Nursing and Recreation Departments.

IRISH GREEN will set the theme for the dinner-dance at Meadowbrook country club Saturday, March 14. This will be the first celebration since New Year's Eve as the club has been undergoing a refurbishing. The dining room has been given a fresh white background — perfect foil for the bright St. Patrick's party accents. Eddie Schick's orchestra will play for dancing.

Women members will get an advance glimpse of the club alterations at a spring fashion-show luncheon March 12. New season fashions will be shown by Harvi's Suburban Casuals of Farmington with the emphasis, of course, on the casual-type clothes most area women "live in."

At this moment the club is in the midst of an alteration certain to be appreciated by its feminine members — the library is being converted to provide additional powder room area. Still under consideration: Will the decorating be keyed to the fine oak panelling — or should it be painted to provide a more pastel decor?

MOTHER'S CLUB will get a private citizen's view of Russian at its meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Schwendemann, 46907 Grassmere.

Carl H. Johnson will show color slides he took during a 10-day visit to Moscow. He and Cliff Hill included Russia in their tour of Europe when American citizens first were encouraged to look behind the Iron Curtain. Among his slides are vivid shots of the famous May Day parade.

Far from being a pay-as-you-go venture, Johnson recalls that before entering Russia tourists had to pay in advance for accommodations, drivers and guides. Their guide was a friendly one, he says, and they even exchanged watches. (Johnson's Russian model still is keeping time for him.)

Hostesses for the Mother's club meeting, which is a guest night program, are Mrs. Robert Yoder, Mrs. Fred Hart, Mrs. George Murany and Mrs. C. A. Hoffman.

DR. ALBERT BURKE, today's Town Hall speaker, is on a tight schedule — as most traveling celebrities are. He was scheduled to appear in Flint Wednesday and probably won't be on hand until immediately before the 11 a.m. program today — enough to keep any committee edgy. He is being introduced by Dr. Paul Johnson, assistant superintendent of Livonia schools.

The committee for the celebrity luncheon following at Thunderbird Inn was "swamped" with reservations, receiving the capacity 250 before last week end. Mrs. W. Leonard Howard, reservations chairman, has announced that luncheons following the two remaining Town Halls will be at Meadowbrook country club where there will be ample room.

"EAST LYNNE'S" final performance Saturday night at Northville high school auditorium will be followed by an afterglow for the cast at the home of the E. O. Webers on Woodhill road. Bud Weber is president of the Northville Players Guild. The Webers also expect houseguests from Saginaw and Ohio to see the melodrama in which Bud is cast as the villain.

Proud of their neighbors' thespian talents (Walter Avery of Fonner court east also is in the play), many Taft Colony neighbors are taking in the performance Friday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Weston of Woodhill road will be hosts to the group afterward.

Busy Mrs. Weber took time out Tuesday morning to have a welcoming coffee for a new neighbor, Mrs. Howard Kennedy. The Kennedys recently moved into their new colonial home on Fonner court west.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry and sons, George and Eugene.

George and Evelyn Jean Sperry, this week's Newcomers, moved to their home at 984 Allen in August, after a month's search for "just the right place." They chose Northville for the combination of small town congeniality and proximity to Detroit, where Mr. Sperry works.

The Sperrys grew up and went to school together in Rochester, New York, where Mrs. Sperry attended the Rochester School of Nursing. She has been involved in a great deal of nursing work since then, varying from teaching to administration. Although she is not presently involved in nursing, she hopes to return to hospital work soon.

Her husband began working with radio broadcasting and broke into television in its early days. While working for the Transcontinental network, he delivered a speech in Dallas, Texas, at a broadcasting convention. Representatives of CKLW, RKO General, noted his work and contacted him. TV Star Here Today

Dr. Albert Burke, who appears weekly on his own television show, will be a guest speaker today in the continuing Town Hall Series.

The internationally known lecturer will speak at 11 a.m. in the Northville P&A Theatre. His talk will be based upon the title of a former television lecture series, "A Way of Thinking."

National recognition developed rapidly after his television lecture series "A Way of Thinking" first appeared in December, 1960. Within a few months he was heralded by the national press as a bright new voice, and his program was broadcast by some 60 stations.

Now he has a new series syndicated from coast-to-coast called "Probe" — With Dr. Albert Burke.

His talk here will be followed by luncheon at Thunderbird Inn.

Mrs. James C. Ross will be chairman of the speaker's table while Mrs. C. Harold Bloom is serving as luncheon chairman.

"Traveling with the Tangers" will be the focal point of today's (Thursday) meeting of the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women, says Mrs. Richard Fritz, president.

The meeting will begin with a social hour at 7:45 at the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union at 500 South Harvey.

The slide presentation will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Tanager of Plymouth, and will show the highlights of their many travels. Tanager is retired from the Plymouth post office, and his wife took an early retirement from her 34 years in the Plymouth schools as an elementary teacher and first Principal of Byrd School.

The two have used the past 15 years well, fulfilling a life-long dream of extensive travel.

In 1962, they went around the world, and in 1963, they spent nine weeks in Europe. They have presented this program of their travels many times, always in the hope they will promote more "good will and Fellowship" in travel, Mrs. Tanager says. She is a member of the Plymouth Branch of AAUW.

The meeting will be hosted by Mrs. W. J. Fronk, chairman; Mrs. Richard Doherty, Mrs. LaVerne Jones and Mrs. Stanley Weber. All eligible women are invited to attend. For rides or information, call Mrs. Robert Messerly at GL 3-3605 or Mrs. David VanHine at FI 9-3015.

a patient at Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Former Northville resident, Mrs. Samuel Geraci, writes from Tavares, Florida. She is unable to walk without the assistance of crutches as the result of an automobile accident suffered more than a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Geraci moved to Florida after Mr. Geraci retired from Maybury Sanatorium. She was injured in an auto mishap when enroute to Northville for a visit. She welcomes letters from Northville friends.

Charles Somers, a Northville freshman, was among 34 student musicians performing in the Albion College Symphonic Band Winter Concert Sunday on the Albion campus. Somers, a saxophone player, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Somers, 18900 Valencia. He is a 1963 graduate of Northville high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynn W. Wakenhut are attending the 23rd annual conference of the Michigan Society of Registered Land Surveyors at Caberfae Lodge in Cadillac.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of 26950 Taft road are enjoying a Florida vacation and recently visited Horn's Cars of Yesterday and Music Box Arcade in Sarasota.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Klades of 513 Rouge avenue enjoyed a visit to Sarasota Jungle Gardens while vacationing on Florida's lower west side.

Six local painters, Pauline Fabrebruck, Betty Hogan, Gail Rockford, Fran Petre, Lorraine Mason and Edward C. Meyers, will be exhibiting throughout February at the Plymouth Public Library. These artists are new working members of the Three Cities Art Club.

Word was received Tuesday by James Spagnuolo, 113 East Main street, of the death of his 87-year-old sister, Mary Ann Spagnuolo of St. Paulia, Italy.

Senior Citizens Plan Potluck

Thirty-five members of the newly-formed Northville Senior Citizens club met last week at the Scout-Recreation building and enjoyed a "get-acquainted" quiz conducted by Mrs. Beatrice Carlson and Mrs. Beatrice Janichick.

A brief business meeting was conducted followed by refreshments served by Northville Jaycettes.

Next Tuesday evening the group will hold a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. followed by card games and a social hour. Meetings are regularly held on Tuesdays.

Baby Sitting Club Seeks Members

Mothers interested in becoming members of the Mothers Cooperative Baby Sitting Club were urged this week to call Mrs. Richard Norton, 349-2467, for additional information.

The newly organized club is patterned after a similar group in Redford and now has 14 members. These members, Mrs. Norton said, "are saving themselves baby sitting money."

Memberships are limited, she said, so interested mothers are urged to call soon.

Girl Scouts Plan Community Fair

Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Northville Neighborhood have plunged into a pool of coordinated activity in preparation for the traditional Girl Scout birthday party.

In an all-out attempt to boost the local scouting program, the girls are combining birthday celebrations with fund-raising community fair.

The big event is slated for Saturday, March 14, at the community building from 2 to 5 p.m.

Highlighting the event, of course, will be a flag-raising presentation and the traditional birthday cake.

But the backbone of this year's project, according to Neighborhood Chairman Mrs. Edwin R. Langry, will be the money-making fair. Nearly all of the money raised from this fair, she explained, will be used to help finance camping trips and outings by local girl scouts.

The chairman explained that local units must finance their own camping trips, which can become expensive, without direct aid from the United Foundation which assists financially only administrative functions of the girl scout movement.

"The girls simply are not able to raise sufficient funds through cookie and calendar sales to adequately finance camping, so we're hoping the community will get behind the girls in support of the upcoming fair," she said.

Eleven Scout troops and five Brownie units, which make up the Northville Neighborhood of District 1, Huron Valley Council, will participate in the fair.

Already girls are busy preparing such things as candles, aprons, covered hangers, oven mitts, baked goods and many other items for sale at the fair. Chairman of the fair is Mrs. William F. Schliet, with Mrs. Eugene A. Kampmann serving as her assistant.

Curtain Goes Up Tonight

Players Guild to Present Melodrama This Week

Northville Players Guild will raise the curtain on the second production of its premier theater season this weekend with its presentation of Mrs. Henry Wood's 1861 Melodrama "East Lynne".

The play will be staged tonight (Thursday), Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. in the Northville high school auditorium.

Directed by Dr. Hans Kolbe, former actor with the Jesse Bonstelle Playhouse and director of the Detroit Institute of Arts Cometrage Players, the drama has the following Northville area residents in its cast: Coy Sandrock, Isabel; Walter Avery, Archibald; Mary Freydl, Barbara; Mrs. Fran Bissa, Cornelia; Bud Weber, Levison; Fred Farrah, Richard; Jack Sweeney, Lord Seavern; Georgia Richards, Joyce;

Terry LaRue, Wilson; John Hyde, Dill; Timmy McDonough, Willie; Dwight Grayson, Justice; Hare; and Charles Freydl, the officer.

Tickets, priced at $1.50 for adults and students at 75-cents, can now be purchased in Northville at Freydl Men's Wear, and Stewart's Gifts and Art Supplies. They also will be sold at the door the night of each performance.

Two dress rehearsals this week, wound up preparations for the five-act production which will be enacted in Victorian costumes. Director Hans Kolbe has Miss Rita Sprenger aiding him in technical direction.

With "East Lynne" the players' group hopes to match the enthusiastic box office response given to its season opener of one-act plays in December. The guild draws its actors and production staff from theatre buffs from Northville and bordering communities. Membership is open to all interested persons.

Following this weekend's production the players' guild will begin to lay the groundwork for a musical to be presented in late spring.

Coy Sandrock listens as Mary Freydl rehearses lines.

Novi School Announces Honor Roll

Fifty-four Novi junior high school students were placed on the honor roll this past week by virtue of their outstanding grades.

They are:

Seventh grade — Jeff Adams, David Bingham, Gary Boyer, Sandy Brandenburg, Judy Broderson, Rebecca Caliguri, Virginia Clift, Vickie Elkins, Patti Erwin, Patrick Haley, Tom Hildebrand, Tom Holmes, John Kaminski, Sandra Knoll, Patty Ling; Kathy Longacre, Marjorie Marque, Diane MacBride, Kim McCormick, Iris Moberak, Melinda Needham, Cindy Ortine, Rolf Parta, Donelea Rock, Joe Ellen Steinberger, Jill Souder, Levon Taffalian, Jon Van Wagner, and Kathy Vusick.

Dance Set Saturday

Another exciting project—this one a disc jockey dance for teenagers—will be sponsored Saturday by the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Featuring the popular radio star Robin Seymour of the "Bobbin With Robin" show, the dance will be held at the community building from 8 to 12 p.m.

Seymour, according to the Jaycees, will introduce "live talent" and give away records.

The WKMR radio star recently was voted one of the top 10 radio personalities in the United States. He is considered the dean of Detroit's disc jockeys, with a 17-year record as the Motor City's greatest air salesman.

He was chosen as the Jaycees' Outstanding Young Man of the year, and he has won numerous other awards for his work in civic and charitable work.

A refreshment stand will be managed by the Jaycees and under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Prom.

LET'S TALK CARS.

BAD DRIVING

In the past we've talked a bit about safety, speed laws and the testing of cars. But, as the old saying goes, the most important part of a car is the fellow behind the wheel. Bad driving, I've always felt, comes from not knowing the rules than from outright carelessness.

When the driving is good, the weather clear and the highway fairly straight, the best rule is to allow one car length between you and the fellow up ahead, for every 10 miles an hour, therefore, you should be at least five car lengths behind.

At 60 miles an hour it takes at least 10 seconds to pass another car and you should have at least 600 feet of clear, straight road ahead. Keep in mind that for safe passing you need the length of two football fields, a long, long way. (I'd sooner be driving it than running it).

The rule on headlight glare is better known: keep your eyes on the right hand side of the road. That keeps you on the road and helps to keep the light out of your eyes.

tant. They had investment service at their last meeting. Edna Miller is the leader of a new Brownie troop just organized last week. They are looking for an assistant. Two new leaders, Marlene MacDougall and Rose Barr are now in training.

The Senior Planning Board International dinner is scheduled for March 11 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Ferndale high school.

A First Aid course (standard) will be conducted for all leaders and girls over 14 years and for all others interested. The course began February 18 in the Novi School Library and is conducted by Miss Eugene Choquet from 7-9 p.m. over a period of weeks.

Camp folders are out for this year's summer camping and will be received at the next troop meetings. Special attention is called to the camper-ship application on the last page. Financial assistance given is strictly confidential between parents and council camping committee. Day camp will be held in Warren Woods, 12 Mile and Haggerty. The camp is called Arapaho and will be directed by Jean Isles and Claudia Martin August 4 through August 14. There will be a nursery at the camp so the little tots will be cared for.

Senior Girl Scouts turned in their cookie sales total and discussed plans for the Girl Scout "Thinking Day". They will put on a play, show a movie and have a display about founder Juliette Lowe. The meeting was held Monday evening with leader, Mrs. Cook in charge. Assistant leader Mrs. Brooks furnished refreshments.

Girl Scout Troop 913 elected new patrol officers. Troop No. 1 Marilyn Ames, Troop No. 2 Bonnie Brown, Troop No. 3 Suzanne Cooksen; secretary, Valerie Penner and scribe, Andre Anderson.

Girl Scout Troop 1027 made tray favors (Valentine) for 3 convalescent homes. Linda Crusan brought treats. They elected a new troop treasurer, Kathleen Bell. Two of the patrols put on a dramatic skit.

"CHARADE"

TWO — Northville's Jim Mazel lets one fly as Jerry Imsland (34) and Dan Bishop (20) look on. It ripped the cords for two points. But most of the evening, the Mustangs were off target as Clarenceville took their measure, 65-51.

Mustangs Near Fifth Place Finish

The Northville Mustangs barely got off on a winning foot Friday night, 61-59, against Milford when they were crippled here on the following night, 65-51, by Clarenceville. With the loss to Clarenceville went the Mustangs chances for finishing any higher than fifth place in the Wayne-Oakland Conference. Northville's conference mark is 5-7. Still at the head of the class in W-O competition is Clarkson with a 10-2 slate. It was beaten, however, last Friday by Bloomfield Hills, which lags by only one-half a game with a record of 9-2.

In other competition Friday, West Bloomfield, (7-4) tightened its hold on third place with a win over Holly (5-6). Clarenceville, by winning two contests, leaped past Holly in the standings and is close behind West Bloomfield with a 7-5 record.

"Two steals were the ball game," noted Mustang Mentor Dave Longridge as his cagers trotted off the Milford floor with their first victory in the last five starts safely tucked away.

It was a valiant comeback effort that netted victory for Northville. Trailing by eight points entering the final quarter, the Mustangs came alive in the first minute of play when Guards Jim St. Germain and Dan Bishop each intercepted a pass and scored to close the gap to 48-44.

There was no stopping the determined local cagers. After a time out, Bishop turned the trick again to score on a break away after an interception. And teammates Jim Mazel and Jerry Imsland each converted a free throw to tie it up at 48-44.

Milford was far from dead, however, as it battled for the lead, going out front, 50-48. But Northville's Lance Hahn, who played his finest game of the season, tied it with a 20-foot shot.

Milford jumped to a 53-50 lead when its lithe pivot man, Don Hasbacht, made good on a three point play. Hahn sent one through the hoop from the pivot, but Hasbacht came back with a bucket. Score, 55-52.

Bishop was on target with a long jumper and Hahn laced a long one to finally give Northville a lead which it never relinquished.

Mustang Tom Wicke then came up with a vital interception in Milford's back court. Fouled, he converted two free throws to extend the Black and Orange's margin to 58-55.

After the Redskins had countered, Hahn drove the base line for two.

Again Hasbacht was the nemesis. He bagged a dog-shot, Milford's final points, to close the score to 60-59.

With just a second remaining, Bishop made good on a free throw. It was a different Mustang team that took the floor against Milford. It hand fought for every point, swarming over opponents, knocking the ball away and intercepting passes. In fact, the Mustangs swiped the ball half a dozen times for easy buckets.

Turning in stellar performances were Bishop and St. Germain, who were not only demons on defense, but also fine floor men.

Hahn was a pillar on the boards. And his fourth period scoring spurge sustained the offense. It was a team effort all the way as Hahn scored 14, Bishop and Imsland 13, Mazel nine and Germain eight.

Topping all scorers was Milford's Hackbart with 26. He worked inside, taking advantage of the Mustangs' sprawling defensive tactics.

Northville caught Milford by surprise in the first quarter, taking an 18-12 lead. The Mustangs pressed Milford into mistakes and fed the post, where Imsland scored six points.

Tenor of the game changed in the second period, however, when the Redskins came out of their zone to press. Northville panicked under the pressure.

It looked like the Mustangs would once again be nosed out by their own mistakes as they left the floor at half time, trailing, 35-32.

Milford abandoned its press in the third period to block up the middle.

On offense, the Redskins moved the ball quickly, fast breaking and freeing Hackbart under the basket for easy lay-ins as they raced to a 48-40 advantage at the buzzer.

Then the Mustangs caught fire. Northville almost pulled another victory out of the bag against Clarenceville.

Trailing by a 33-21 count with a few minutes gone in the third period, Northville pressed, Clarenceville for four fast two-pointers.

Tim Krug dumped one in, Mazel potted a jumper, Imsland scored after an interception and Mazel netted another goal to forge within four points of Clarenceville, 33-29.

That's as far as the Mustangs could go, however, as they ran out of steam. The Trojans, in turn, poured in on to take a 44-31 lead at the end of three quarters.

Northville tried frantically in the last period to muster another drive, but the visitors peppered the nets to pull away.

High point man for the evening was Imsland with 24. It was largely through his efforts in the first three frames that Northville was in the ball game. Imsland scored seven points in the first and second periods and eight in the third.

Clarenceville had a well balanced attack, paced by Guard Gary Gearhardt, who scored 18. His accuracy from the field was responsible for Clarenceville's eight point lead at half time.

Gearhardt's teammates helped carry the load. Guard Dan Freels scored 16, center Dan Graves and Gary Alder 12 each.

Northville just could not find the hoop in the first half as Clarenceville led throughout. The Mustangs pushed as many shots toward the hoop, but too many bounced off the rim.

Colts Split Two Cage Encounters

The Northville Colts, whipped soundly Friday at Milford, turned with avengence upon Clarenceville Saturday.

A strong second-half drive in which Northville was outscored 38-14 — led to a 62-39 Milford win.

Led by six-four Center Bart Montante, Milford controlled the boards and literally pushed the Colts right off the floor. They were unable to stop Montante, who scored 30 points, nearly as many as the whole Northville squad.

The Colts had their opportunities to score, but they were kept off balance by the harrying tactics of Milford.

In the first half, the Orange and Black was a different team. It raced to a first half lead of 25-24.

But then the Colts tripped up.

Leading the local scorers was Steve Evans with 12 points.

The Colts ran wild against Clarenceville as they won with ease, 63-29.

At no point were the visitors in the ball game as Northville piled up a 40-20 lead at half time.

In fact, every Colt got into the scoring column, all 12 of them. And everyone scored three or more points against the hapless Trojans.

Measure of the difference was the lopsided field goal margin that the Colts enjoyed — 35-10.

Bowling Tourney Set

Some 36 men will compete in the Ford Valve individual handicap tournament here Saturday. The tourney will get underway at noon at Northville Lanes.

Next Up: Bulldogs

Northville's three cage squads will swing into action this weekend.

The varsity and junior varsity cagers will journey to Brighton tomorrow (Friday) night to play the winless Bulldogs. The JV contest will get underway at 6:30 with the varsity contest to follow after an half-hour interlude.

Friday will be the last opportunity for local residents to see Northville's winningest team — the frosh (11-3) will play Milford here at 4 p.m. They will invade Willow Run Monday.

Police Attend School

Two Northville policemen will graduate Friday from a six-week course at the Metropolitan Police Academy in Detroit.

They are: David LaFond and Louis Westfall.

The academy trains recruits for all departments of the metropolitan area, except for the Detroit police department which conducts its own school. Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole is secretary-treasurer of the police academy. He also is an instructor at the academy.

Vandals Destroy Newspaper Boxes

A 19-year-old girl, who walked away from the Wayne County Training School Saturday, was apprehended by Novi police as she walked along 10 Mile road at 7:30 p.m.

She was released to authorities at the training school.

In other action this past week, the Novi police investigated several complaints of vandalism of newspaper boxes along Grand River and one owned by Donald Young, of 43875 Nine Mile road, which was demolished by firecrackers.

Received a complaint from Councilman Philip Anderson who reported a battery stolen from his car.

Investigated a complaint of Michael Benoski of River Rouge, who reported theft of a billfold from his car while it was parked at the Casino. Entry was gained by breaking a vent window.

In Justice Court

James M. Reed of Plymouth, arrested on Thursday, February 13 for being drunk and disorderly at 320 North Center was sentenced to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction Friday.

The Plymouth resident pleaded guilty at his arraignment on Friday in Northville justice court.

Justice of Peace Charles W. McDonald also sentenced Otis Jackson, a patient at Maybury Sanitarium, to pay a $100 fine and $15 costs or serve 30 days in jail for contributing to the delinquency of a minor on February 14 near Randolph and Linden streets.

Jackson also pleaded guilty upon arraignment Friday.

Monroe Combs of 1289 East Lake drive received a suspended sentence but was ordered to pay $17 in costs Monday afternoon after pleading guilty of disorderly person.

Police arrested him Saturday and he was jailed over the weekend for Monday's arraignment before Justice of Peace Emery Jacques.

Five young men were slated to stand trial this week on charges of being disorderly persons at the Casino Saturday.

They are: Paul J. Foust, 22 of Milford; Robert C. Unis, 21 of Walled Lake; Douglas R. Wilson, 19 of Walled Lake; Carl R. Thomas, 20 of Livonia; and James J. Demeter, 20 of Livonia.

Foust, Unis and Wilson all pleaded not guilty upon arraignment and were released on $100 personal bonds. Thomas, 20 of Livonia; and Demeter, who according to police became belligerent at the police station, were jailed pending trial.

The Northville Camera Club will meet Wednesday, February 26 at 7:45 p.m. in the Wayne County Training School's employees building.

Topic for the meeting: "Around the World in Northville Slides."

Connemara Family Loses Home by Fire

Five children, ranging in age from 4 months to 8 years, and their parents were routed from their Connemara subdivision home by fire early Wednesday morning.

Left homeless were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williams and their five daughters of 21710 Rathlone.

Nearly 30 firemen from Novi, Northville and Walled Lake put up a futile battle to quench the flames but the interior of the home was gutted and the contents destroyed before firemen were able to bring it under control.

The four bedroom, brick house — in the $25,000 class — was insured, according to Novi Fire Chief Fred Loyne, but the contents were not insured. "They just got out everything; the children got out with only their nightshirts."

The Williams family is staying with a neighbor until a new home is found.

According to the chief, the fire started in the wall near the furnace in the utility room. It quickly spread to the living room, picking up speed as the flames ate into the drapes and carpeting.

Firemen were at the scene from 1:45 to nearly 6 a.m.

Novi Hearings

Two public hearings in one evening — that's what is in store at the village hall next Monday.

Village planners and councilmen will meet in joint session at 8 p.m. to consider a zoning change request by the Shell Oil company for rezoning of 5.75 acres of property at the northwest corner of Novi road and 1-96.

Following this hearing, officials will reconvene a hearing recessed earlier this month on the proposed master plan. Adoption of the master plan is possible, but not a "sure bet" at the meeting, a village spokesman said.

Great Books Club To Meet Thursday

Northville's Great Books Discussion Group will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the basement of the library.

Members and guests will discuss "Don Quixote". Anyone interested in joining the discussion group need only attend tonight's meeting or any other meeting. Literary knowledge is not necessary — just an interest in learning more about great books.

P-TA to Hear Schoolcraft President

Eric J. Bradner, president of Schoolcraft College, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Northville high school P-TA Thursday evening, February 25.

The community college president will show progress slides of construction at the Haggerty-Seven Mile road site and discuss curricula and other details concerning the over-all college program.

Scheduled to open in August, Schoolcraft is supported by and will serve the school districts of Livonia, Clarenceville, Garden City, Plymouth and Northville.

The Reverend Lloyd Brasure, president of the high school parent-teachers group, said that all parents as well as interested students would be encouraged to attend the meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Bradner joined the Northwest Wayne County Community college movement in the spring of 1961. He assisted in the formation of the college district and was appointed president of the college upon its actual formation.

He is the son of a Methodist minister and was born in California, although his parents were natives of St. Johns, Michigan.

Bradner graduated from Occidental college in 1928 and later attended graduate classes at Northwestern university for 2½ years. He secured his masters degree in Western American history at Northwestern and continued on a part-time basis doing seminar and other graduate work from 1933 until 1942 when he was awarded a doctor of philosophy degree.

He studied college administration at Southern California and Stanford universities.

Mr. Bradner has taught at Macomb, Illinois high school, Harvey, Illinois and in junior college. He served as dean of men and director of guidance at Yuba college, Marysville, California, and dean of Bay City community college.

He is a past president of the Michigan Association of Junior Colleges and past secretary of the Michigan Council of Community College Administrators.

Form New 4-H Club In Northville

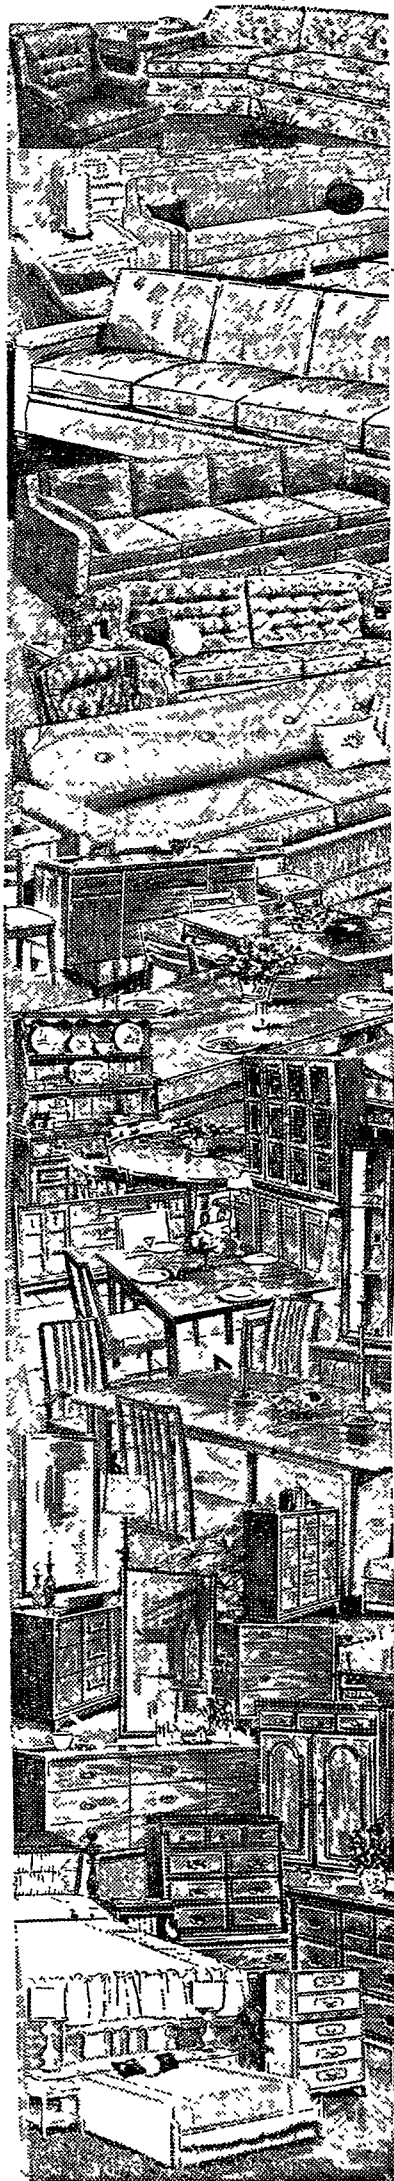

A new 4-H Club, primarily for youngsters with horses, has been started here.

Any boy or girl, who owns a horse or pony and takes care of it and who is between 10 and 19 years of age, may join the new organization serving Northville and Novi.

Meetings will be held once each month, except during the summer when meetings will be held twice each month. Work meetings will be held at which children will learn to show their horses or ponies at halter and under saddle.

Climax of the summer sessions will be the Wayne County 4-H Fair. Held at Belleville on August 18 to 23, all children of the club will compete in three days of judging while living in tents on the fair grounds. On the final day they will have an opportunity to enter a horse show.

Persons wishing additional information or registration cards are urged to call either Mrs. R. Davidson at 349-0342 or Mrs. R. Whitefield at 349-2076.

He's Recording Supervisor at Interlochen

Northville Grad Aids in NBC Production

Much of the success of the National Broadcasting Company's radio program originating from Michigan's National Music Camp and Interlochen Arts Academy is the result of the technical work of a young Northville man.

The behind-the-scenes expert is 23-year-old Gary Wakenhut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wynn W. Wakenhut of Connemara drive.

Young Wakenhut, a 1962 graduate of Michigan State university and a graduate of Northville high school, is recording supervisor at Interlochen, recording, assembling and coordinating the musical program for NBC Radio.

Only recently, the half-hour weekly broadcast of music performed by students at the camp and academy, was given a second-place rating in a poll conducted by Radio-TV Daily, a top broadcasting magazine. "Best of Interlochen" was selected for the high rating by 400 newspaper, radio and TV critics.

In her Detroit News column, News of Radio, Betty Hyde said "Michigan can well be proud of the program's showing in this competition. A program that carries some of the greatest music ever presented by radio was voted first place. It was 'Toscanini — the Man Behind the Legend.' It too, is an NBC presentation."

Wakenhut attended the national music camp for two sessions while attending junior high school. He was a member of the bands at both Ann Arbor and Northville high schools.

While at Michigan State university, he was a member of the concert and marching bands at that institution. Currently, he is a member of the Northwest Symphony at Traverse City.

During summer vacation following his junior year in college, Wakenhut worked as an engineer at Interlochen. The national music camp is the world's largest and most famous arts camp.

Established in 1928 as the summer camp of the National High School Orchestra for the purpose of testing and developing abilities in music, the camp has expanded since then to include such activities as talent exploration, private lessons, ensembles, bands, choirs, symphony orchestras, music literature, music theory, composition, ballet, drawing, painting and a host of others.

More than 14,000 persons have attended the camp as students from every state in the Union as well as many foreign countries.

RECORDING EXPERT — A Northville high school graduate, now a technical supervisor at Michigan's National Music Camp and Interlochen Arts Academy, Gary Wakenhut records another program for weekly presentation for the NBC radio network.

Salute Scouts

Boy Scouts of Troop 731 will be the guests of the Methodist Men's Club Monday night at a venison dinner.

The program will include a court of honor ceremony. It will be held at the First Methodist church of Northville at 6:30 p.m.

Northville Teachers: Tops in Performance, Bottom in Pay

To the Editor: Northville taxpayers must understand the significance of the information being presented by the Northville teachers and reported in the February 13 Record regarding the teacher pay raise proposals. Of Wayne county's 19,038 teachers, 18,385 are employed in schools having a higher BA minimum than Northville. Out of 19,038 teachers in the county, 18,628 receive a higher BA maximum than teachers in Northville. Neighboring Livonia will be paying BA teachers with 10 years experience $8,200 next year. Northville teachers are asking only $7,650 for a teacher with similar qualifications — a significant raise over the present $6,800 but still far from adequate.

A separate but not unrelated article in the same paper reported the findings of the University of Michigan Bureau of School Services. This is the group that determines Northville High's accreditation standards. In summing up the visitation, Dell C. Boersma, consultant and assistant chairman of the North Central Association state committee said in part: "...the entire community of Northville can justifiably be proud of the fine student attitude that was evident to all of us. This is, of course, influenced largely by the attitude of administration and faculty toward the student body — one of sincere interest or as one visitor so aptly described, 'I was very pleased to find so many teachers in one high school who have the attitude that the student is the very reason for their existence.'"

As a parent of a Northville student and as a former Northville teacher, I know exactly what he means. Northville teachers rank high in any measurement of teacher performance. This skill is not reflected in their pay checks.

The Board of Education feels that while the teachers' salary committee proposals are just, the taxpayers will not support them. If this is true then a public education program on the needs of the schools is in order. The Record has done an outstanding job of reporting school news but it cannot do it alone. The impact would be greater if teacher committees, political clubs, PTA's, and other groups got behind such a drive. I am confident that when the facts are known, Northville will vote "yes" on schools. The voters should have that chance.

Yours truly,
G. Michael Abbott

Art Around Us

By Jessie Hudson

In the mail this week came an invitation from the Michigan Water Color Society to submit paintings to their 18th annual Water Color Exhibition to be held at the Detroit Artists Market April 1 through 18. Dates for submitting paintings are February 24 to 29 before 5 p.m. at the Artists Market, 1452 Randolph. Work should be unframed, without glass but with at least a 2" mat and backed by double thick board. The maximum size is 36" x 46". There are prizes and awards and the chance of selling your painting. For non-members of the water-color society it costs $5 per painting with no more than two acceptable. It would be nice to crack this show sometime, but this is a hard thing to do. There is formidable competition in this area, from professors at the various nearby universities, but hope springs eternal.

The Left Bank Gallery, 325 Stevens Street in Flint, is featuring the pottery of Plymouth resident Roy Pederson. Also shown is creative photography by Jack Newman, and water-colors by Anna Marie Rado.

The Forsythe Gallery, 201 Nickels Arcade, Ann Arbor, will exhibit the latest of William Lewis' Civil War painting series. He has now arrived at "The Last Year of the Civil War" with paintings and drawings in his own inimitable style. If these paintings are done in the same treatment as his earlier series they are not at all illustrative but more nearly abstract but with the power and mood of the dramatic episodes of this historical period. Hours at the Forsythe are a bit awkward, 10-4 weekdays and 10-1 on Saturday.

Also in the Nickels Arcade, at the State Street end, is a gallery owned and operated by the artists themselves and appropriately called the Artists Gallery. Hours here are better, 10-6 every day except Wednesday and Sunday. Always an interesting show. Changes about every three weeks.

Much closer to home, wherever that may be, is the little Hartley Powers Gallery, at 116 E. Main street, Northville. Here you can see paintings, drawings, ceramics, jewelry and weaving by artists and craftsmen in this area notably Barbara Dorr, Ruby Churchill and Cecil North of Ann Arbor, Jessie Hudson, Bill Mandt, Wayne Huber, Jim Thorpe and Bill Case from Plymouth, Catherine Hartley and Kate Edgerton of Northville, Beverly Shankwiler and Margaret Cramer from Wayne. There is a constantly changing exhibit here with special featured one-and-two man shows about once a month. Open every day from 12-6, Friday 12-9, Saturday 9-6. Many of the artists drop in near the end of the week. A very friendly little place.

Three-Cities Art Club, Edgerton Studios, Randolph street, Northville. Work by recently accepted members Betty Hogan, Taylor Township, Fran Petre, Gail Rockford, and Pauline Rahrenbrush all of Wayne is now on view at the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth. There are some interesting, if naive paintings here. Branlyn York of Plymouth has two paintings hung and they, at least, show craftsmanship, if not mastery of technique. He has a stark, clean, geometric oil, a somewhat primitive farm scene with nice color, and an interesting, to be watched, social commentary on civilization, a city-scape approached through a graveyard (our freeways). Mrs. Fabrenbrush should guard against sentimentality ... her painting of shoes, socks, etc., is just a bit too much. Older members Mina Gardner and Jessie Latter are also hung. Through April 15.

A&P GUARANTEES THE eat AS WELL AS THE meat

This Can Well Mean Getting The Most For Your Meat Dollar!

The EAT in the MEAT means plenty to you because nearly every week 25% of your food money is spent for meat. Unless your family gets the EAT in the MEAT, what you spend isn't delivering what it's supposed to. That's why A&P guarantees every chop, roast, steak or any other "Super-Right" meat you buy. Either your family agrees they're getting the EAT in the MEAT or you get your money back. Fair enough?

The EAT in the MEAT is further protected by A&P experts. They have an "eagle eye" for the slightest defect and when they pass beef to go to your A&P — we know it's meat with plenty of eat — and we guarantee it! The same goes for "Super-Right" pork ... milk-fed veal ... tender lamb and poultry. How about changing to "Super-Right" meats? You'll get the EAT in the MEAT your family wants — and good, sound value, too.

The EAT in the MEAT starts with A&P's selections from the nation's top packers. Let's take beef for example. "Super-Right" beef can't be anything but fully-matured, grain-fed meat. And we never deviate from these quality standards — that you can depend on.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Robert K. Spradling, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Northville

God watches over His children. Everything that happens to a born-again Christian is within God's providence. By providence, we mean the divine care and control of God over men and events whereby He guides and directs all things to His own specific goal.
Few passages illustrate this principle better than Genesis 50:20 in which Joseph relates to his brothers
how the hand of "God" was working in all of his life;
"But as for you, ye thought evil against me, but God meant it unto good..." Joseph told his brothers that they had evil motives and desires in selling him into slavery, but God knew all about the situation and frustrated their evil activities, making these work toward Joseph's good and ultimate exalted, political position in Egypt. Joseph's God was One who could turn disappointment and defeat into triumph and victory.

Joseph encountered three supreme tests. The first was the test of betrayal. Joseph's own brothers hated him without a cause. They sold him into slavery because he would not be like them, dishonest and rebellious. And yet, even when they sought to harm him, Joseph did not seek to get even nor did he resist their evil plans. He committed his cause to God, who was already working out circumstances in Joseph's favor.

This very attitude reminds us of our blessed Lord who,
when He was reviled, reviled not again.

The second test of Joseph was the test of purity. Joseph was bought out of the slave market of Egypt by a high-ranking army officer called Potiphar. Because of his outstanding character, Joseph became the administrator of Potiphar's entire household. Potiphar's wife was an immoral woman and sought to seduce Joseph on several occasions. When he refused her advances, she became angry and devised a scheme whereby she lied about Joseph and had him cast into prison. However, there are some important lessons to be learned from Joseph's reaction to temptation. He refuses the mistaken ideas that
"every man has his price," and "it's alright to be immoral, just don't get caught." Remember that this young man was far from home and parental control. He was away from church and home-town influences. He was in his late teens, living in a strange country with strange customs, with an opportunity to "get away" with a lot of things. However, he realized that his Lord saw him wherever he was and that any sin committed was ultimately against God.

The third test was the test of isolation. Joseph was cast into prison for something he did not do, and for refusing to compromise his moral convictions. As long as the story of Joseph remains in the Bible, no young person can ever say, "I couldn't resist temptation!"
It is not so much that men can't resist temptation, it is rather that they don't want to resist.

However, God knew all about Joseph's mistreatment and had planned his vindication before the eyes of Joseph's brothers and all of Egypt. God will stand with those who will be true to themselves and to Him.
The problem in this age is not that God has changed
His manner of upholding right, but rather there are not enough Josephs who will stand forthrightly for God regardless of the cost.

In Willowbrook Women Attend Prayer Day

Mr. and Mrs. Errol Myers joined Mr. and Mrs. H. O.
Trerice in dinner at the Snow-White dining room Saturday evening.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Myers entertained Mrs. Bud Kingsbury and her son Perry, of Detroit.

Miss Barbara Ann George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert George of Farmington and Mr. George De Sloover, son of Charles and Nestorine Kucin-skis, of Ten Mile road were married Saturday at St. Robert Bellarmine's Catholic Church in Detroit. Four hundred and fifty guests attended the reception which was held in Philip Murray Hall in Detroit. Mr.
De Sloover's younger brother, Robert Emil Kucinskis acted as ring bearer, and the bride's sister, Nancy George was a flower girl. The couple, who will make their home in Redford are planning a trip to New York city in the near future.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chismark,
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Promo and Mr. and Mrs. George Maw are among the Willowbrook residents who attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Karl Weiss has returned to Willowbrook after spending ten days in Green Bay, Wisconsin visiting Mr. and Mrs.
Clifford C. Wall. While she was there she saw the San Francisco Ballet and Symphony.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kucin-skis gave a party Thursday evening for the wedding party and the parents of the bride.
There were 20 guests altogether.

On February 14 Mr. and Mrs.
William Zimmerman attended the meeting of the Amateur Radio Operators which included dinner at Dearborn Inn and a slide show at the Henry Ford Museum on the original railroad route through the Rocky Mountains. Mrs. Zimmerman

spoke on Field Day from a Woman's Point of View.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKen-on and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole attended a Valentine day dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cross Saturday evening.

"Helen" Waugh, Allie Carter,
Mary Jane Goyt and Wilma Balogh attended a card party,
luncheon and hat show at St.
Anne's Episcopal Church in Walled Lake Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kucin-skis had dinner at Topinkas and they went to the Fisher Theatre to see Foxy Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gould were hosts to the Saturday Duplicate Bridge Club last week. Mr. and Mrs. James Mc-Cormick are new members.
Bill Pfaff and John William had the high score for the evening and Anne Marie Crudging-ton and Jim McCormick were second.

Mrs. Melvin Pietron is at home after spending a few days
as a medical patient in St.
Mary's hospital in Livonia.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO
February 21, 1963

—Arthur H. Schulte, assistant postmaster and an employee of the Northville post office for 40 years, died suddenly at his home Friday morning at the age of 58.

—Northville township Republicans decided Monday that R. D. Merriam and Wilson D. Tyler would be their candidates for supervisor and trustee, respectively in the April 1 election.

For Tyler nomination means election. Democrats are offering competition for the post of supervisor, board of review and constable only.

Candidates for the two Northville council seats are: William Bingley, incumbent John Canterbury, Joseph Denton, Sidney Frid, Peter Gross, Fred Kester, Hiram Pacific and Ed Welch.

Northville Downs and the Northville Driving club filed a petition with the state supreme court to join the Jackson Racing association in its suit against the state racing commission.

William Davis of Orchard drive was appointed by the city council to the Northville planning commission. He was named to fill out the term of the late T. R. Carrington.

Novi electors chose these four GOP candidates: Hadley J. Bachert over John Harnden, incumbent Clerk Charles Goers, squeezed past Lloyd George, Treasurer Duane Bell won support over Carl C. Rowley, and Emery E. Jacques, Jr. defeated Incumbent Justice of the Peace John T. Meier.

FIVE YEARS AGO
February 19, 1959

Stan Johnston, Northville's varsity basketball coach, will resign at the conclusion of the present cage season, Athletic Director Al Jones announced. Johnston will remain recreation director for the city of Northville; he currently plans to continue his regular class assignments next year.

Plymouth became a city surrounded by a city. By a surprising vote of 575 to 510, eight square miles of Plymouth township became incorporated into the city of Plymouth Heights.

Grading of Center street, from Baseline north, was started as part of the Eight Mile road cutoff project.

Two well-known Northville citizens died. They are Willard Ely of 138 Linden, former township supervisor and uncle of Northville's late Mayor Claude N. Ely, and Mrs. Carrie E. Litsenberger, mother of one of the city's largest and best known families.

Northville's proposed $300,000 water improvement program went down to defeat by the slimmest of margins.

Actually it won voter support, 349 to 240. But for passage the issue required 60 percent support; it received only 56 percent.

All Republican incumbents were given the nomination at Novi.

Northville's hottest freshman cage team in history will take the floor tomorrow and Saturday in an effort to extend their winning streak to 13 games.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

—Gladys Irene Hammond of 511 North Center street recently was awarded her bachelor of arts degree for the University of Michigan.

—Sam Stremich, manager of the local Penniman Allen Theater, announced that one of the finest sound systems in any movie house in this part of the county has been installed.

—John A. Ling, Jr., United States Navy, son of J. A. Ling of 521 Randolph, witnessed the visit of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece recently aboard the heavy cruiser USS Columbus, while serving with the crew of the Columbus, flagship of the Commander.

—A large crowd gathered at the Northville high school gym to hear the band present its annual winter concert.

—Scores and scores of villagers have been watching the progress being made in the erection of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and parish hall, corner of Elm and High streets. The edifice, which is being built by the Walter Couse company, seems to be shaping up by leaps and bounds.

—Betty Snow has been elected vice-president of the Sigma Phi Sorority at Alma College.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
February 24, 1939

Creation of a branch office of the Secretary of State to be managed by Elmer L. Smith has been confirmed by Secretary of State Harry F. Kelly.

Postmaster Fred Van Atta, good Democratic friend of the new appointee, applied for and obtained the first passenger plates issued through the local branch office. Close behind him came William H. Canfield, believed to be of Republican complexion politically.

—The rats which have made the village dump their place of residence are to be no more. A Pied Piper of charm will not lure them from their stamping ground — rather, the village fathers have bought biscuits, very special biscuits, which will be tasty additions to the diet offered by the dump.

—The Northville township treasurer's post is the only office to be contested in the primary. Mrs. O. L. Bauman has filed a petition seeking the office held by Mrs. Leo Lawrence.

—The 45-piece uniformed band of the high school will present a concert under the direction of Leslie G. Lee.

—Letters filled with plans for the marriage between a young woman living near Danbury, North Carolina, and Roosevelt Roberts, who walked away from a prison farm in North Carolina, led to Roberts' arrest on the Frank Oliver farm where he had been working.

—To prevent the further spread of influenza in the community, the Northville schools were closed Wednesday, to reopen again Monday, February 27.

— Official Proceedings of the Northville City Council —

The Northville Record—Novi News—Thursday, February 20, 1964. Section Two.—Page Four.

— Wixom Area News —

Mrs. Charles Ware
MA 4-1601
Miss Hilda Furman was a dinner guest recently of Mrs. Tom Barry of Detroit.
The following persons were elected officers of St. William's Rosary Altar Society on Thursday, February 6: Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, president; Mrs. Ernest Moiski, vice-president; Mrs. George Fuhst, second vice-president; Mrs. Lindwood

Perkins, third vice-president; Mrs. Norman Moore, recording secretary; Mrs. R. Gray-check, corresponding secretary and Mrs. George Belprez.
The Wixom planning commission and the city's planning consultant discussed the feasibility of submitting an amendment to the zoning ordinance at a meeting Monday evening, February 10.
The proposed amendment would provide for much smaller lots in a subdivision but the same number of houses as previous in a given acreage of land.
This zoning would make it more attractive for the subdivision as he would have less road mileage, less water main and less sewerage, but the same amount of service to home owners.
A requirement of the subdivision would be that he donate the land saved for the city or township for recreation purposes. An example would be a 20-acre park in every 100 acres.
Under this ordinance the FHA would loan the subdivision money to construct the roads once he had a few lots sold.
The commission believes that this plan will encourage more building. It is now being tried in several communities throughout the country.
The planning commission will discuss the plan at length at the March planning meeting and the meeting will be open to the public.

Teachers 'Go Where Money Is'

Two definite trends in teachers' salaries are evident in figures recently released by the Michigan Education association. First, salaries are rising slow but sure, and second, the teachers are where the money is.
The MEA teacher salary schedule study for 1963-64, which included 580 school districts, showed an increase of $153 over 1962-63 in the median minimum salary for teachers with a bachelor's degree and an increase of $288 in the median maximum salary.
This means an average raise of $210 for teachers with a BA. The average increase in 1962-63 was only $122.
According to MEA figures, the majority of teachers are in the better paying areas. While the median beginning BA salary listed by the districts was $4500-$4600, the median beginning BA salary listed by the teachers was $4900-$5000. Moreover, while the district's reported a median maximum salary of $6200-$6300 for teachers with bachelor's degrees, the teacher gave $7600-$7700 as the maximum.
Parenthetically, minimum and maximum salaries in this area are: Novi, BA — $4800 to $6825, and MA — $5000 to $7250; Northville, BA — $4800 to $6800 and MA — $5100 to $7700; South Lyon, BA — $4600 to $7000, and MA — $4900 to $7540; Whitmore Lake, BA — $4500 to $6400 and MA — $4800 to $6700.
The study also showed that a master's degree usually means an additional $300-$399 a year for the beginning teacher.

NOTICE To Qualified Electors Of the Northville Public Schools

Interested registered and qualified electors of the Northville Public School District are invited to file an application and affidavit of eligibility for membership on the four-man Board of Canvassers for school elections.
Application forms are available at the office of the Superintendent of Schools. They should be filed with the superintendent by March 9, 1964 at which time appointments will be made by the board of education.
The law requires that the Board of Canvassers must be composed of two members from each of the two major political parties, although school board elections are non-partisan.
Duties of the board will be to canvass all school district election returns and certify the results to proper officials.

A letter from Mr. Robert Strachan, secretary to the local 898 of the UAW-CIO, making above request to the Chief of Police, was read.
Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that a resolution be adopted prohibiting parking or standing on the west side of Griswold Street from the north drive of the Ford Parking lot to E. Main street from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. Unanimously carried.
Appoint two members of the Council to meet with the Fire Department to work out the problems in connection with combining the police and fire departments.
With unanimous consent of the council, Mayor Allen appointed Richard Ambler and Fred Kester as a committee of two to meet with the Fire Department.
Report from City Attorney regarding appointment of Canvassing Board Members under new Legislation:
The city attorney read his report on the HB No. 4 "Appointment of Canvassing Board Members for Elections" which requires appointment of two members from political parties receiving most votes in the last election for secretary of State.
Mr. Canterbury asked to have this bill sent to Council before the next meeting and any other material which would have a bearing on same.
Miscellaneous:
The city manager reported he had received acknowledgment of letter sent to Mr. Remus of the Detroit Water Board regarding questions on water situation.
City manager reported that the city engineer, Mayor and city manager had reviewed the request pertaining to Beal Street Bridge and culvert by Hyatt Construction Company and that several modifications as recommended by the city engineer were approved.
The city manager is to check into the original fire department agreement with Northville Twp.
The city engineer made a report on the area that drains into creek coming from North-west corner of the city, roughly paralleling Randolph street from vicinity of Taft and Eight Mile road to just south of Rayson and N. Center St. This report included estimated costs for culverts under Randolph St. and North Center St.
City manager has been asked to sit in on a panel at the City Manager's Institute on February 5, 6 and 7th and council approved his request to attend.
Mr. Ambler reported an inquiry from a citizen regarding whose responsibilities the steps adjoining the American Legion Building are — the city or the legion. The city manager is to check the steps and railing at this location.
Mr. Penn, representing American Legion, reported that this organization wishes to present flags to the city for the new city hall.
Mr. Ambler asked that thought and consideration be given to an ice rink in the vicinity of Trend Homes. Some work should be done on this through the summer.
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 11:30 p.m.
Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne

Northville Board of Education Minutes

I. The meeting was called to order by President William B. Crump, in the Board of Education offices at 7:30 p.m.
Present: Mr. Crump, Mr. James F. Kipfer, Mr. Wilfred C. Becker, Dr. Waldo T. Johnson, Mr. Edward F. Angove, Mr. William B. Templeton.
Absent: Mr. Robert H. Shaffer.
Others present: Superintendent R. H. Amerman; Assistant Superintendent K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison, Principals H. B. Smith, R. Spear, D. VanIngen and F. Stefanski; Mr. Littell, school attorney; Mr. Norton, Mr. Sharrar, Mr. Brown, Mr. Hensch and Mr. Prom, of the faculty; Mr. E. O. Weber.
II. Minutes of the last regular meeting and of one special meeting were read by the secretary and, there being no additions or corrections, were announced approved as read.
III. Communications:
1. Wayne County Intermediate School District — notice of hearing on their budget, Thursday, February 27, 1964, at Redford Union Schools. This District is to send a representative to this meeting.
2. Michigan Association of School Boards — notice of convention of National Association, also legislative bulletin.
3. Mr. Gordon Bunn, of South Lyon, requesting that his younger son be admitted to Northville High School on a tuition basis next year.
4. University of Michigan — notification that Northville high school is again accredited by the University.
5. Ford Motor Company, requesting that the Board of Education nominate any local citizen employees who deserve to be honored by the company for service to their community.
IV. Report of Superintendent:
1. Wayne County District Budget Hearing — Mr. Amerman pointed out that this board is required to send a representative to the budget hearing for the Wayne County Intermediate School District. Mr. Templeton volunteered to attend and was instructed by the board to vote in favor of the budget as presented.
2. Schoolcraft College — Superintendent Amerman brought the board up to date on three matters concerning the College program, as follows:
A. School Calendar — the schools in the Schoolcraft College district, at Mr. Amerman's suggestion, are working on a uniform calendar for next year. Each district has presented a possible calendar and Dr. MacLeod and Mr. Smith are now at work on one for this district, planned around the others presented.
B. Vocational Institute — a committee of Schoolcraft College district superintendents and principals is working with Mr. Douglas Selby of the Wayne County Intermediate School District, on a survey of vocational facilities at member district high schools, as a first step in the planning of Schoolcraft's vocational institute. A large amount of work looks ahead on this project, but progress is being made.

C. Student Teacher Education Program — A meeting has been called by the College and member districts, to hear representatives of Michigan State University discuss the Student Teacher Education Program, a new concept in teacher training which Michigan State University is anxious to put into effect. Schoolcraft College and its member district have been asked to participate in this program, in which student teachers would serve in an intern capacity in the member schools for a specified period of time. More will be learned about it at the meeting which will be held March 3rd at Northville High School.
D. Eastern Michigan University — Superintendent Amerman advised the board that this college, too, is interested in placing student teachers with us. A representative of the University will be here tomorrow morning to discuss this with us.
E. Board of Election Canvassers — Superintendent Amerman advised the board of the necessity of appointing this body as soon as possible. Mr. Littell, the school attorney, explained some of the details of the bill which made this board of canvassers mandatory. The Board of Education set the date of March 9th as the date for the receipt of applications for service on the Board of Canvassers.
F. Public Hearing, Local Budget — The new constitution also requires that the school district hold a public hearing on its own budget for next year. This must be held after the budget has been presented to the Tax Allocation Board, and a date will be set later in the spring.
G. Transportation — Mr. Ellison reviewed with the board a number of questions and problems which face the school district, some of which need immediate answers and action. This discussion led to the suggestion that a committee of interested citizens be formed for the purpose of studying all of these transportation problems in an attempt to find a solution. Mr. Crump asked Mr. E. O. Weber, a private citizen who was present, to chair this committee.
H. Illness and Emergency Leave — Mr. Amerman presented a policy and directive confirming the decision of the last meeting to allow each employee ten days leave per year, cumulative to 100 days, all absences other than for illness to be deducted from the sick-leave bank. Both policy and directive were approved.
I. Membership — Dr. MacLeod presented a membership report showing an increase in enrollment of 51 children since school opened in September. Current enrollment is 2,318.
J. Report of Secretary: Mr. Becker reported the following:

City engineer presented the cost for the West street project as $23,500. The city attorney is to check the ordinance on grading of streets and how it affects the old sidewalks, also the quality and character of existing sidewalks as to its replacement. The city manager was instructed to proceed as soon as possible with all work concerned with storm sewer on West street.
The city engineer reported cost of sewer, curb and gutter for Pennell and Butler streets at $29,010.
Request Permission to Purchase Electric Hose dryer and Hose washer for fire station:
(1) Off-season weather
(2) Lack of personnel on job because of No. 1.
(3) Roofing material — this material was in such demand it was necessary to obtain it from Texas.
Mr. Lamb reported they were approximately 1½ months behind schedule but that the fire station will be heated, ceilings in and partitions in by January 29th. The remainder of the building will be ready for occupancy by April 1 with the exception of the parking area. Moved by Ambler, supported by Carlson that the contract date between the City of Northville and Mr. Carl Luoma be extended to April 1, 1964 and the blacktopping of parking area to 30 days beyond the opening of "Batch plants" providing the parking area is available for use by April 1st. Unanimously carried.
Request from Trend Homes to Discuss the Maplewood Utilities:
After some discussion concerning the above matter, the city manager, city engineer and city attorney were instructed to consider utilities for this area and notify Mayor and council when meetings can be held to discuss same. There is to be a special council meeting on Monday, January 27, 1964, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City hall at which time the city manager, city engineer and city attorney should be prepared to discuss the matter of utilities in Yerkes Subdivision No. 6.
Presentation of Preliminary Plans for Improvement of Butler, Pennell and West streets:

Our Silent Spring: Who's Responsible?

To the Editor:

Your story of February 13 which described the diminishing flow at the Northville Spring and the frustration of the people who found the well gone dry, is already out of date.

At this writing the flow has dropped to 30 minutes for a gallon jug, and for all practical purposes has ceased to exist.

This is a sad story, but it is not half as sad as the casual manner in which it is accepted as an act of an unkind Providence before which we must bow our heads in blind submission.

If the new city hall should fall down there would be an investigation, but the Northville Spring — past tense, was only a natural resource and was taken for granted like the air we breathe.

It is a shocking thing that a community should be deprived of this magnificent resource, but even worse that it should remain in ignorance of the concern that did exist that such an eventuality might indeed happen.

In my opinion the loss of the Northville Spring is a calamity which calls for an inquest to determine how such a thing could happen.

The purpose of an inquest plainly is not to benefit the deceased; nor to malign the living, but to bring out the pertinent facts relating thereto: Conditions essential to an inquest are:

1. A corpus delicti
2. Authority to conduct such an investigation
3. A public who stands to gain or lose from such an investigation.

We have the corpus delicti, but who has jurisdiction? I believe the facts will show the Spring belonged to the people, and therefore they have a right to ask questions, if not at the seat of government, then

The U-M Medical School expects to admit about 200 persons next fall at its Medical Center in Ann Arbor. Of these, about 160 will be Michigan residents and 40 will come from out-of-state. The U-M annually accepts one of the largest entering medical classes of any school in the nation.

Successful students entering in the fall of 1964 will receive their M.D. degree in 1968.

A & P Promotes R. J. Murray

Promotion of Robert J. Murray to director of sales of A & P Food Stores' Central Western Division, effective March 2, was announced today by Division President Byron Jay.

He will replace Edward A. LePage, who has been elevated to the post of national sales director of the parent company in New York.

In his new assignment, Murray will direct sales activities for the division's six-state area extending from Memphis, Tennessee to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

Mr. Murray has been with the food chain since 1934, starting as a store clerk in his home town Saginaw. He received his first managerial appointment in 1937 and managing A & P stores in Saginaw, Bay City, Midland and Flint prior to coming to Detroit in 1944.

In Detroit, he was associated with the sales department for six years and was a store supervisor three years. He became assistant sales manager for the Detroit Unit in 1956 and three years later was advanced to sales manager. In April 1962 he was elevated to field superintendent of the company's Detroit Unit and held this post until last December when he was made assistant director of sales for the Central Western Division.

AMA Issues Warning For Winter

Do you drive around in your auto on cold winter days with all windows and vents tightly closed?

Do you sometimes warm up the car engine in your garage without first opening the garage door?

Do you neglect a checkup of exhaust and manifold on your car unless something starts rattling or falls off?

If your answer to any of these questions is "Yes" — you are flirting with carbon monoxide poisoning, warns the American Medical Association.

Carbon monoxide is an odorless, colorless, tasteless gas that comes from your auto exhaust. In the open air it usually is dissipated without harm to anyone. But in an enclosed space it can be deadly.

Each winter brings reports of deaths from carbon monoxide poisoning. The gas can seep up through the floor boards from a leaky exhaust. The victim becomes drowsy and then "falls asleep." It takes only a short time for an engine running in a closed garage to fill the building with deadly gas.

No one knows how many auto accidents are caused by motorists whose reaction time is somewhat slowed by a small seepage of carbon monoxide into a closed auto. If your exhaust and manifold are in good shape and fitted tight, you likely are safe. But it's even safer to leave a rear window open a crack.

While the car is moving you probably can escape danger even with a leaky exhaust. The most dangerous time comes sitting in a parked car with the motor running and the windows closed.

Admittedly neither the City nor Township have a department of natural resources. There is to my knowledge no ordinance covering a natural resource shared equally by two governments. They have their own resources and their own sovereignty to think of without messing around in the area in which neither has exclusive jurisdiction. Wouldn't this be an argument for a single government?

However no one can say the Township Government can't take responsibility. It is in the record that it took the sole responsibility for permitting the deep gravel operation and dump without benefit of public hearing, nor is provision made for a public hearing in the new ordinance pertaining to land fills.

Herein is illustrated in graphic form how a government which refuses to share responsibility with the people can go away out on a very long limb, but a government which follows democratic procedures can do no wrong.

I do not imply that deep gravel operations caused the demise of the spring. I'll leave that department to the Engineers altho the City Engineer is on record as believing so. However it is in the record that the Township Zoning Board of which I was a member at the time had that eventually in mind. As a secretary I wrote in the minutes on September 27, 1961 ... it was observed by the board that the water supply threatened with pollution is in the area of the Silver Springs. The Silver Springs water once bottled and sold commercially is a community attraction and asset one of the few sources of chemically untreated water remaining. Its natural purity has caused it to be featured in local area restaurants. The public in increasing numbers haul it away weekly in jugs and containers of every description. Some local residents are wholly dependent upon this water for drinking purposes. The board is not deceived into thinking its water supply is inexhaustible."

The Board considers ... the question of water pollution transcends political boundaries and suggests that the council of the city of Northville be informed of these proceedings."

In tendering my resignation to the township zoning board June 6, 1962, and it was a protest resignation — I wrote: "The reasons for my resignation are fully documented in the township files together with the engineering reports of our technical advisers on refuse fills. The validity of these reports has never been challenged until now ... the primary consideration which entered into all previous zoning Board decisions where a refuse fill was concerned has been the preservation of our irreplaceable water resources. The Northville Springs water which was the basis for the strongly worded Waring & Johnson report is now according to the new township engineer safe from pollution in a refuse fill. While this point is being argued the water is even now in a state of questionable contamination."

"In my view it is a distinct possibility a sign may some day appear on the spring reading 'unfit for drinking purposes.' Who would want to assume the responsibility of precipitating this event?"

It seems prophetic that the Rotary Club should have erected a monument at the site of the spring.

All that remains is to write the epitaph: Here lies the Silent Spring. Loved by many, mourned by all. Obit 1964.

Recovery Panel Attracts 200

An "open to the public" panel demonstration was presented by 10 members of Recovery, Inc., Sunday at Our Lady of Good Counsel church in Plymouth.

Recovery, Inc., is a national organization devoted to the prevention of relapses in former mental patients and chronicity in nervous patients.

Through a demonstration of this kind, the organization not only explains its systematic method of self-help, but demonstrates the method in action.

The panel was conducted by Mrs. Ann Humphrey, who is the area leader for Detroit and outlying communities. The meeting consisted of a brief history, a panel discussion by Recovery members and a period for questions and answers. After the meeting coffee and cookies were served through the courtesy of the women of Church.

Nearly 200 persons were in the audience.

Recovery, Inc., was founded in 1937 by the late Dr. Abraham A. Low, Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Neurology at the University of Illinois Medical School.

It is a self-sustaining organization which holds panel sessions in recreation centers, church social rooms and other suitable public places. It has no religious affiliations, but is endorsed by religious leaders and physicians.

There are over 140 Recovery groups in Michigan. The most convenient group in this area meets every Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel School Library, Penniman avenue and Church street, Plymouth. Anyone who is interested in learning more about Recovery is invited to attend and observe meetings. There is no charge for attending meetings, but a free-will offering to help cover expenses.

CAP Drills Set

Civil Air Patrol drill practice within Group 10 was launched recently in preparation for Michigan wing drill competition.

All four squadrons of the group, Northville, Walled Lake, Milford and Pontiac, will practice each Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

According to officials, the top 19 candidates from the group will be selected, along with two alternates, to represent Group 10 in wing competition slated for April 26 at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station.

The winning group drill team will compete later against eight states in this region of CAP, and winner of regional competition will travel to Colorado Springs and the Air Force Academy for national competition.

The national championship squad is sent throughout the United States during the summer months, giving exhibitions in drill — including a demonstration for the President of the United States.

Representing Northville are:

CSS Lynn Baughman, C-B Robert Moe, C-AIC Tim Dickinson, C-A3C Robert Hardesty, C-B Ed Horsfall, C-M5 John Kaake, C-A2C Charles Lanning, C-AIC David Orphan, C-B Raymond Parmenter, C-M5 Robert Parmenter, C-TS Russell School, C-B Gray St. Thomas, C-A2C Paul Tabor, and C-AIC Gary Williams.

Witnesses to Hear Circuit Minister

David Bowman accompanied by his wife Grace is visiting the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses this week. Bowman is circuit minister of Michigan circuit No. 8 which is composed of sixteen congregations in the southeastern section of Michigan.

The presiding minister of the local congregation, "C. Carson Coonce, reflected, "we always look forward to the visit of Mr. Bowman and deeply appreciate the good counsel that he gives us from God's word. Then, too, we enjoy the special week of fellowship and spiritual up-building."

The week of activity will be climaxed Sunday at 4 p.m. when Mr. Bowman will deliver the public address: "Building a Happy Human Family." All meetings are free and the public is invited to attend. The Kingdom Hall is located at 281 S. Union St., Plymouth.

Schoolcraft Scholarships Explained

Scholarships — their need and relative small cost — were noted this week by the chairman of the scholarship committee of Schoolcraft College.

Dean Lois L. Waterman stated that "too frequently organizations feel that they must give a large sum in order to assist students. With our tuition only $210 for the year, a $100 grant is a substantial help. This amount can make the difference between a student's attending college and not attending college."

Dean Waterman pointed out that students are now registering at the Haggerty and Seven Mile road college which will open this fall. Some students, she noted, have asked for information concerning financial aid.

At this time Schoolcraft has available a limited number of scholarships. The term "scholarship" as used by the college applies to an award for superior academic achievement. Grants-in-aid will be given to those who may not qualify for scholarships, but who have average grades and display promise of success. The element of need is considered in both types of aid unless otherwise stated by the donor.

Several scholarship funds already have been created by both organizations and individuals in the community college area of Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville. Anyone interested in establishing a scholarship is asked to contact Dean Waterman at the college.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

"There are 19,038 teachers in Wayne county. Of these, 18,385 teachers are employed in schools having a higher B.A. minimum than Northville."

"Out of the 19,038 teachers in Wayne county, 18,628 can receive a higher B.A. maximum than teachers in Northville."

These quotations are taken from a report compiled by a committee of Northville teachers. The "minimums" and "maximums" referred to are salaries.

I've never considered myself a drum-beater for higher teacher salaries. Many teachers are over-paid; and all teachers enter their profession with their eyes open.

Therefore, I won't buy the comparison study compiled by the teachers insofar as the relationship between teacher salaries and the salaries paid in other professions is concerned.

There are thousands of hard-working, degree-holding, underpaid accountants, attorneys, auditors, engineers — and journalists — who receive and expect no "minimum guarantee". And their "maximum" is determined by their individual ambition and ability.

This is neither the time nor place to fight the battle for the nation-wide level of teachers' pay.

But the competitive position of Northville in relation to neighboring districts is alarming.

Any business must "meet the competition" if it is to succeed. And in the field of primary and secondary education we're dealing with a mighty important product. We all want a good education for our youngsters.

Northville has long prided itself on its excellent school system. We believe our youngsters are better than average. Our facilities and programs of extra-curricular activities are certainly above average. The level of administrative salaries has been classified as above average in professional reports.

Why, then, should the salaries of the most important of all ingredients in the educational process be below average?

I do not think we can tell our good teachers to look elsewhere if they want more money.

I do not think we are saving money when we replace an experienced teacher with a lower-paid beginning teacher.

We are cheating ourselves. We're being unfair to our children. And we're creating unrest and snuffing out enthusiasm when we forever knockdown reasonable teacher salary proposals.

It is my understanding that the board of education is sympathetic to the teacher request. There may be differences of opinion in regard to "index factors" (i. e., the ratio of increase depending upon years of experience), but the pay-hike proposals are not unreasonable. They would put our teachers in the "average" pay class and certainly strengthen our position in teacher retention and recruitment.

But the increase would cost an additional $82,000 annually.

Next year's fiscal picture cannot be predicted 100 per cent because the state aid formula is still unsettled and the exact state-equalized valuation of the school district for 1964-65 remains to be determined.

It appears evident, however, that it would require up to 2½-mills additional to meet the salary increase.

While some board members have taken the position that the teacher request should be granted (even if it means deficit financing), others are reticent.

Apparently they fear lack of voter support. And they know that next year a 10-mill levy for operating expenses comes up for renewal. They also know the need for more elementary space is from one to three years away.

While the matter is still in the hands of administrators and teachers for study, a recommendation must soon be made. And in the final analysis the board must decide.

I believe our system has reached a critical point in its salary negotiations where praise and promises have little meaning. We're talking now about keeping competent teachers.

If the facts are made known, I have no doubts of voter reaction.

"A cloud of dust, a speed of light, a fiery shot and a hearty hi-ho Silver."

For a good many of us there's plenty of adventure and nostalgia wrapped up in that short, colorful sentence, enough to send us groping happily through the pages of radio history in search of other adventures, tragedies, and comedies.

Television replaced radio in the field of entertaining narratives and even absorbed the hi-ho Silvering Lone Ranger and his companion Tonto, but the monster does not, in my opinion, match the tear-jerking melodramas offered by radio years ago when "Little Sir Echo" was sweeping the country.

What TV program, for example, can match the home-narrative or the longevity of that famous radio classic, One Man's Family, and its colorful characters — Father and Mother Barber, etc.?

There were numerous other family-type programs which drifted out of the big, face-like radios of years gone by that were equally popular though perhaps less sophisticated than One Man's Family.

Here's a few of that kind we remembered this past week.

Our Gal Sunday — you remember, she was the little gal who came from the little mining town out West to marry the wealthy young Englishman; good old Stella Dallas and Helen Trent, one of which found happiness at 35 and beyond; Life Can Be Beautiful; Young Doctor Malone; The Second Mrs. Burton; Ma Perkins; Lorenzo Jones and John's Other Wife. All came our way in 15-minute afternoon segments.

Then there were the 15-minute adventure series aimed at the youngsters returning home from school but catching the attention of a good many adults too:

Jack Armstrong, "the all-American boy" who ate Wheaties morning, noon and night; Terry and The Pirates; Captain Midnight; Tom Mix; Superman; and I love a Mystery.

Among those supplying adventure in half-hour segments were: The Shadow, alias Lamont Cranston; The Green Hornet and his companions, Kato and the Black Beauty; Big Town with Steve Wilson; The Hermit's Cave, featuring the squeaky door; Death Valley Days; Lights Out; Gang Busters; Bulldog Drummond; and Mr. District Attorney.

Little Orphan Annie, Happy Hank and Let's Pretend were especially liked by children.

Undoubtedly, one of the most-liked radio programs was the Monday night presentation by Cecil B. DeMille called Lux Presents Hollywood. The only other program that approached the caliber of Lux was Grand Central Station, "the little theater of Times Square — crossroads of a million private lives."

For comedy and homespun humor we could turn to:

Fred Allen in Allen's Alley; Duffy's Tavern, where the elite met to eat; Can You Top This; Amos and Andy; Lum and Abner; Joe Penner Show, "Wanna Buy a Duck"; Jack Benny; Edgar Bergen; Bob Hope; Fibber McGee and Mollie; Ozzie and Harriet; George Burns and Gracie Allen; Baby Snooks; Eddie Cantor, with Parkyourcarcus; Henry Aldrich ... "Henry, Henry, Henry Aldrich ... Coming mother!" The Great Guildersleeve; Corliss Archer; and Truth or Consequences.

For music we had Bing Crosby's Kraft Music Hall, the Rudy Valley Show, Lucky Strike's Hit Parade, Kate Smith and her noon-day show; Major Bowes' Amateur Hour; and the Kay Kayser Show and his college of musical knowledge.

For news we had Ed Murrow, Walter Winchell — "Good evening Mr. and Mrs. America and all the ships at sea ... let's go to press"; Jimmy Fidler; Speed Allen; and the most famous of all, Lowell Thomas.

Of course there were many others, some of which were popular before my time. How many more can you remember?

Teen Drivers: Color Them Green

Simple solutions sometimes help with complicated problems.

An example of such an idea is now before the Legislature. It might help in dealing with juvenile problems.

The House has sent to the Senate for consideration a measure to issue a distinctive driver's license for minors. Introduced by Rep. John Toepp, Cadillac Republican, the bill called for a green tint on driver's licenses provided for drivers under 21 years of age.

Differentiating between a minor and an adult on a driver's license would be an effective deterrent to "doctoring" licenses for use as proof of age. Michigan licenses have been claimed as doctor-proof for several years, but many minors have been able to beat the system of the special paper used.

A different color license probably would make "doctoring" more difficult. Another effect likely in the color change would be to readily identify minors in traffic violations.

There is a move afoot in the Legislature to bring juvenile motorists under Michigan's point system of traffic violations. With a different color license there would be no question, with or without the point system in effect, as to which motorists were in the juvenile range.

Introduction of the color license measure by Toepp appears in itself to have some significance. Toepp, a long-time radio broadcaster, has been working with youth for several years. He has teenagers in his own family.

Toepp's approach to the juvenile delinquency problem seems to be a realistic one. He is not a proponent of the "this younger generation is not what it used to be" school of thought. Juvenile delinquency, like the school dropout problem and a number of other questions facing state officials, is one in which some small effort could lead to a wise solution. Colored license plates might be the first major step in this area.

Drivers' license changes have been proposed in the past, however, and money to accomplish the aims has been a major obstacle.

Lawmakers and state administrators must weight the question in this area of whether the investment in having different kinds of licenses is worth the corrections such a change might prompt.

The most recent example of proposed change not implemented is the license photo requirement enacted into law several years ago. Cost of the equipment needed has not been resolved yet.

Legislative thinking this year indicates both the color change for minors and use of photos might be a fact of life in the near future.

The danger point in human absorption of radiation has never been officially set by scientists, but every attempt is made to keep this exposure at a minimum.

X-rays, one source of radiation, are constantly under study to find ways to reduce the already slight amount of radiation emitted.

In dentistry, for example, a survey has been made throughout Michigan to protect the public where x-rays are concerned.

Test pictures were taken on about 3,500 dental x-ray machines in Michigan to measure the amount of radiation to which the dentists and his patients were subjected.

Beam size was measured in tests conducted by the State

Health Department and dentists whose machines indicated excessive beam size were given a lead disc or filter to reduce the intensity.

Less than half the machines tested required adjustment, said Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis. The machine test is still under way, and officials expect that the total reduction in radiation as a result of the program will amount to well over 1.5 million roentgens per year, at an average of 5 roentgens per film.

Post-Christmas "debt pooling" can be a fool-hardy gimmick, warns State Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley.

"Ads which offer to help you retain peace of mind, get your creditors off your back, avoid garnishments, get out of debt without a loan, protect your job and your credit, all by turning over $15 or $25 a week to a debt pooler, sound good but the results can be most sad," said Kelley.

Recent complaints to the attorney general's office indicate some persons have had as many creditors at the door as ever, even after conscientious agreed upon sum for months.

Kelley emphasizes each person has a right to hire a budget manager, or debt adjuster. "But you should know that if the person you hire does not satisfactorily adjust your debts and carry out the glowing promises so often made, there is little the law can do to help you out of your troubles."

Insurance, Land and Prayer

BABSON PARK, Mass.,

Some years ago, I was National Moderator of the Congregational-Christian Churches. At a large meeting, I was asked, "What would Jesus, as a young man, do if He were living today?" I assumed He would not be a carpenter, but suggested that He probably would be a life insurance agent. This was quoted throughout the country, and even today I receive letters about it.

If insurance agents would take their work seriously enough, they would make their sales part of their religion and carry them on in a prayerful manner. In fact, I believe that any readers who wish to buy life insurance should deal only with active, praying salesmen. I have always felt that life insurance is a "good example of applied Christianity." It is for this reason that I advise dealing with truly religious insurance salesmen — "whether Christian or Jewish." Let us not forget that Jesus was a Jew.

Next to purchasing insurance from religious-minded agents, we should be sure that our children are being brought up by religious parents. In other words, be sure of what you believe, and love your children enough to bring them up properly.

Above all, teach them to pray. I might add that a praying parent is the best insurance we can provide for our children.

After one buys a reasonable amount of life insurance, he should buy some land and build thereon a little house on a bus line on the "right side" of his town. This method of selecting a home site is described in detail in a previous weekly column of this paper; therefore I will not repeat it at this time. Whatever may happen to stocks and bonds in future years, children and a little fertile land may be the best investment you can have. I now believe there will be no nuclear World War. However, to prevent such a nuclear war, we must all teach our children the great danger in communism. I doubt if any reader of this column will ever see World War III as a nuclear war.

The Kremlin may have no religious principles, but the Russian people do have brains. They know that a World War III based on nuclear attack would be a devastating loss to them as well as to us. Many young Americans talk in favor of "coexistence." They appear to believe that we of the United States will gradually become more socialistic, while Russia will become more capitalistic. This may be true; but to attempt to conduct such an experiment would be like trying to mix oil and water. Such a mixture depends upon constant agitation; this would mean continual small wars such as are now being carried on in Vietnam and other Southeast Asian nations. We have tried this "coexistence" in Korea for many years, but with no success.

Russia's method of obtaining control of countries by infiltration is clearly shown by what she is now doing in Cuba. No shots have been fired, yet Russia today is in control of Cuba.

Cuba is only 90 miles from Florida where I dictated this weekly column. The next step is for Russia to try to jump over to Central and South America. The great country of Brazil is nearly ready to turn communist.

Communism would make useless all of our present insurance. In other words, communism would wipe out the value of whatever insurance we are depending upon, as well as the value of the land which we are also depending upon.

Therefore, I cannot close this column on insurance without issuing a special warning against the infiltration of communism, which is creeping into this country and gaining control by indirect methods rather than through warfare. The value of insurance has an intimate — but opposite — relation to communistic ideas, which must be nipped in the bud and not allowed to develop as they have in Cuba and which are now extending further into Latin America.

So, to return to my subject on the value of insurance, I must close with a strong reminder that any insurance that we might now have would be worthless if we should become too "soft" to communism and thereby let it become too common and widespread here in the United States.
