

Police Fear He May Strike Again

'Wixom Bomber' Shatters Dance Hall

Demented perhaps but outwardly appearing normal to his neighbors and friends, the Wixom Bomber probably has begun building his fourth explosive device.

He may try to touch it off tonight, tomorrow or the next day. No one but one person knows just when.

That's the consensus of Wixom Police Chief Frank Jadzinski and Lieutenant D-Arcy Young as they attempt to piece together clues from the wreckage left by the Bomber's most recent brainchild.

There's a special urgency in the air too as lawmen go about their business. Unless he's caught — and caught soon, the Bomber's next exploit may cost some lives.

Early last Saturday morning, the Bomber waited until after a Wixom patrolman had made his regular check of the Finnish recreation-dance hall off Loon Lake road.

Working quickly and quietly, he crept to the rear of the large frame building carrying a time-bomb weighing more than five pounds. Unless something happened he had one hour before the patrolman would return for his next check.

He carefully placed the bomb on the rear porch, close to the door that opened into a large hall stacked full of picnic tables and benches. Then he left, perhaps by automobile or on foot.

Minutes later when the small hand of the clock reached a point that would have been 2:55 a.m. an explosion rocked the neighborhood. Many who heard it thought it may have been a jet's sonic boom.

Others guessed it was the Bomber.

With the force of two or more pounds of black gun powder, the blast ripped open the rear wall of the building scattering broken boards in all directions. The blast also tore a hole in the floor, knocked down part of a basement wall and destroyed music equipment in the basement.

Pieces of the building were found hundreds of feet from what had been the porch.

Insurance officials have not yet fixed the cost of damage, but it is expected that damage will be "in the thousands."

The noise of the explosion "just about knocked" Chief Jadzinski from his bed — his home is across the lake, and with the noise still echoing, Lt. Young pulled on his clothes and sped to the hall several blocks away from his home.

Young was the first on the scene.

Catching sight of the damage and not knowing if the Bomber was still on the premises, the police officer fired four shots into the air hoping to arouse neighbors to call for help. His car has no radio.

Hours later many people were talking of the "shot fired at the Bomber."

By daybreak, Young and Jadzinski had collected bits of the bomb, checked out a number of leads, and had taken a plaster cast of a tire track in the sand at the north entrance to the Finnish recreation camp.

The state's arson squad was at the scene several hours later, and by Monday a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was sent to Wixom.

According to Jadzinski, the latest bomb probably was of "about the same size" as the one found on the same porch and disarmed by Lt. Young a month ago — and shortly after the first time-bomb ripped apart a metal door to the basement of the dance hall.

Young found the second bomb minutes before it was timed to explode and, according to the chief, quickly disarmed it. That second bomb, which contained two pounds of black powder, and fragments of the first bomb were sent to the state crime laboratory at Lansing for examination.

Reports of state findings have not been made public. Jadzinski said the bombs are charged with black powder, timed by standard alarm clocks, and exploded by dry-cell batteries. Checks of all area business places that might sell these items have been made.

The police chief told this newspaper that each of the members of the private club that operates the dance hall and surrounding grounds has been checked but that nothing has been uncovered to lead police to believe that a member is the Bomber.

He said police have not yet come up with a motive. "Either he has something against the club or he's just plain crazy," the chief said.

Jadzinski urged citizens to come forward with clues that might lead to the Bomber's capture — no matter how insignificant a clue it might be. "We've got to catch him soon. So anything we can get will be appreciated," he said.

WALL DISAPPEARS — The wall that once enclosed the south end of the dance hall is gone. Just splintered wood remains.

YIPES — It's really just a gag. The needle that Dr. Thomas Heslip will be using Saturday at the annual dog vaccination clinic isn't nearly as large as the one aimed at "Mittzi," the Orson Atchinsons' poodle. But it should serve to remind all dogs (and their owners) that the city and township clinic will be held from 9 a.m. until noon Saturday at the city fire hall. In addition to administering the two-year vaccine, licenses will be available. They must be obtained before May 31.

Detroit Water Wins Township Approval

The Northville township board agreed Tuesday night to buy water from the city of Detroit.

A resolution passed by the board gave approval to a water service agreement with Detroit and set the stage for construction of a water system to serve 18 homes in Plymouth Gardens subdivision in the township's southeast section.

The board has negotiated for several months with the Detroit Water Board in an attempt to reduce the purchase guarantee which the contract stipulates in future years. Under terms of the agreement Northville township must purchase nearly 28 million cubic feet of water annually from Detroit by 1985. This approximates 7,600 homes.

The board agreed there is no way of accurately projecting future demand.

After accepting the contract the board set May 25 as the

Blood Bank Friday

Friday is World Red Cross Day and will be observed by some 102 nations around the world.

Northville's branch of the American Red Cross will mark the occasion with its annual blood bank, scheduled to be held at the First Methodist church from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m.

Volunteer blood donors are asked to call either FI 9-1330 or FI 9-2361 to make an appointment.

Salem Supervisor Renwick Suffers Fatal Heart Attack

Salem Supervisor Glenn Renwick of 7596 Angle road died of a heart attack Wednesday, April 29 while working at his home.

Efforts to revive the 66-year-old township chief executive at his home failed and he was rushed to the University hospital in Ann Arbor where he was pronounced dead.

Members of his family said he had not been ill and apparently was feeling fine when he left his house a short time before the attack to do some odd job outdoors.

Mr. Renwick, who worked 7 1/2 years as a maintenance man for the Northville school system before retiring from that position in 1962, was born in Salem in 1897 to John and Effie Jane (Savery) Renwick. His wife, Edith, survives him.

Besides his wife, Mr. Renwick is survived by a son, Jack of Salem, two grandchildren, Steven and Pamela, and two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Hines and Mrs. Cora Springer, both of Plymouth.

A life-long resident of Salem, he was a retired farmer. As a maintenance employee, he worked at the Main Street ele-

Northville's senior city councilmen and mayor pro tem has informed fellow councilmembers that he wishes to retire from public life.

John S. Canterbury, now in the second year of his third four-year term, informed his associates on the council of his intentions Monday night.

Canterbury

The Record learned Tuesday that Canterbury had given each council member a letter marked "confidential" at the close of Monday's session.

He said that his reasons "for desiring to be relieved of my council responsibilities include a number of purely personal factors."

Canterbury left the timing of his resignation almost entirely up to the council, but indicated that "sometime this summer might be advantageous."

The announcement throws a cloud of confusion over the council status.

Mayor A. M. Allen's days as the city's chief executive may be numbered. It was considered a certainty that if Allen resigned, Canterbury would be named his successor.

Allen has been mum about his intentions, but since purchasing a house in the township and failing to win township approval for annexation of his future residence to the city, it has been generally believed that the mayor would resign to move into his new home by mid-summer.

Tuesday Mayor Allen said he still did not know what he would do. He admitted the Canterbury letter "could cause some problems" and indicated he wanted to talk the situation over with the council.

Following is the complete text of Canterbury's letter:

"I thought it advisable to tell you in writing of my previously expressed desire to submit in the near future my formal resignation from the Northville City Council.

"As some of you know, I definitely had not planned to seek re-election in 1963. At the time of making the decision to run one more time, I had thought that I probably could not serve for another full 4-year term. While I have no specific exact timing that is highly important to me, I have thought that a resignation effective sometime this summer might be advantageous. No special election or added expense to the city would be necessary, and it would give the Council an opportunity to appoint a well qualified person who might gain experience and become better equipped to seek election next April. This might be some advantage because otherwise there might be an almost complete change in the council in 1965.

"I want to assure each and every one of you that my desire to resign is not in any way because of any of you. I respect and admire each of

OK Improvements On Three Streets

Installation of storm sewers, curb and gutter on West, Pennell and Butler streets is scheduled to get underway almost immediately as a result of action taken by the city council Monday night.

The council confirmed the special assessment roll without objection and awarded the contract to the low bidder for $10,023.35 on West street and $13,711.10 on Butler and Pennell. The cost is nearly $10,000 less than, originally estimates.

On other street improvements the city set May 19 as the night for public hearing on confirmation of the roll for Maplewood. This project involves improvements between the city and the developers of Village Green. Under a contract arrangement the developers pay

Set City Hall Open House

Dedication ceremonies for Northville's new city hall have been set for Thursday, May 21 during the Michigan Week celebration.

Clerk Martha Milne heads up a committee making arrangements for the observance. She stated that open house tours would be conducted from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. with official dedication ceremonies slated for 8 p.m. Details of the program and official participants are incomplete.

Filing Deadline Draws Near As Six Enter School Race

The June 8 election for three seats on the Northville board of education will have at least six candidates — four seeking the two four-year terms and two running for the one-year term.

With the deadline for filing petitions coming up Saturday at 4 p.m. it appears unlikely that more candidates will enter the race.

Board Member William Templeton announced Monday night that he would not run for the remaining one year of the four-year Donald Lawrence term which Templeton has filled by appointment during the past year.

Earlier Dr. Waldo Johnson, board treasurer, stated that he would not seek re-election.

Board Vice President James Kipper is a four-year candidate for re-election.

He will face:

—Eugene K. Cook, 118 S. Ely drive, a sales engineer for the Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors. The Cooks have three children.

—Arthur J. Prodder, 208 N. Ely drive, a vehicles' specification coordinator for Ford Motor Company. Mr. and Mrs. Prodder have five children.

—Hurd Sutherland, 418 W. Dunlap, an appropriations' analyst for Chevrolet division of General Motors. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have three married children and one in school here.

G. M. Bown and E. O. Weber will compete for the one year term.

Bown lives at 202 Debra Lane, has five daughters, and is on the faculty of the University of Michigan teaching in the graduate school of social work.

Weber is manager of salaried personnel, division staff, for the Ford Motor Company. The Webers live at 20360 Woodhill and have two children.

Census Time

The annual school census probably will be taken early next week, school officials reminded area residents Tuesday.

Making the census, which is required by state law, will be Mrs. Charles Angell, Mrs. I. Paul Terry, Mrs. Lloyd Moore, and Fred Hart.

Mrs. B. A. Zahti is the census coordinator.

Census figures are used to help project enrollment next fall and longer range growth potential.

United Effort Sought to Obtain Fish Hatchery

The city council agreed Monday night to lend its support to the board of education in the proposed acquisition of the 14-acre fish hatchery property.

But township officials were reluctant to accept an invitation to do the same.

Meanwhile, the school board has suggested a joint meeting of city, township and school officials with Congresswoman Martha Griffiths on Saturday, May 16 to present a unified effort and avoid possible controversy that might reduce chances of obtaining the property for community use.

Prospect of obtaining the fish hatchery site came into being recently when the U.S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries announced it would turn the property over to the General Services Administration at the end of this year. If no other governmental agency has need for the site, it will be sold.

City, township and school officials have expressed interest in the site and each has sent communications to federal agencies and political representatives indicating their desires. Citizens representing the local historical society also appealed for the site.

The site is divided by Fairbrook with the area north of Fairbrook and all the buildings south of Fairbrook lying in the city and the remaining 10.4 acres lying in the township.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam has indicated that the township is interested in the site for a future township hall.

Merriam told board members Tuesday night that Mayor Allen had suggested the city and township join with the school in the project. But he indicated that immediate action was not necessary. The comment brought no response from board members and no action was taken.

Mayor Allen said Tuesday that the council believes all community taxpayers would save money if the school could obtain the property at a token figure. He indicated a belief that it would still provide community recreation facilities.

School officials face an almost immediate need for a new elementary school. Growth patterns reveal the fish hatchery site to be ideally located to meet the need, Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman noted.

School Employees Win Pay Hike

A pay schedule for maintenance and operational employees, calling for an "across the board" raise of $200, was adopted by the Northville board of education Monday evening.

The schedule provides for a $200 raise for each employee for the 1964-65 school year — in addition to any raises due employees who are not now at maximum salary; it makes the Friday following Thanksgiving a paid holiday; and it increases sick leave to a total of 100 days, accumulative at one day per month, 12 days per year.

In adopting the new schedule, the board declined to grant two requests of employees "because the same benefits cannot be supplied at this time for all school personnel." These included: Partial or total payment of Blue Cross-Blue Shield premiums, and severance pay for employees leaving the school's employment.

Board members also approved

CAR Members Enjoy Conclave

A delegation of Michigan Society members of the Children of the American Revolution, including area members and officials, attended the 69th annual national convention in Washington, D.C., April 24 through 26.

Upon arrival by chartered bus, members enjoyed a day of sightseeing before the first meeting convened at 8 p.m. that evening. Seniors were invited to attend a coffee at 8:15 a.m. in the DAR Constitution Hall for Mrs. Wallace Earle Hawley, senior national president.

The senior national board of management meeting followed, in which Mrs. George F. Merwin of Northville, senior state president, gave her state's annual report.

The senior national officers club held its luncheon meeting at the Washington Club, with Grahame T. Smallwood Jr., librarian general presiding. Mrs. Robert Willoughby of Plymouth and Mrs. Merwin attended.

On Friday evening, the session opened with a concert followed by an entrance march of all national member officers and flags representing each state with a society. The Michigan flag was carried by Larry Carlson, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby.

Saturday was a full day of meetings and election of new national officers. The evening was capped with a banquet followed by dancing and a reception for Mary Huston Armstrong, the outgoing member president. Senior held a reception for the senior national officers following dinner.

Sunday started early, with checking out of the hotel and loading of the buses which formed a cavalcade to attend the memorial services at the Washington Cathedral before going out to Mt. Vernon for installation of newly elected national officers and state presidents. Michigan's state president, Fred Ayer of Battle Creek, represented this state. Wreaths were also laid at the graves of George and Martha Washington.

The home and grounds of Mt. Vernon were toured by Richard Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin of Whipple, Northville, Larry Carlson of Plymouth and Mrs. Merwin with her daughters, Mimi and Jacki.

Ruth Marroni, champion weight-losser and queen of the Northville Eater Beaters (TOPS) club, was honored along with other club queens at the state meeting in Lansing Friday.

Mrs. Marroni claimed the local title by losing 53 pounds during the past year. Eleven members attended the state meeting.

The queen also was feted at a dinner program two weeks ago at the Thunderbird Inn by local club members — who, incidentally lost an average of two pounds per person last month.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

"I always get 'homesick' at apple blossom time," former Northville resident Eleanor Breitmeyer admitted on one of her frequent trips here. Although she moved into Detroit a few years ago to keep up with the demands of a metropolitan newspaper job — she's been society editor of The Detroit News for almost a year — Eleanor very much considers Northville her home town.

Northville can be proud to number her as one of its outstanding graduates. She was valedictorian of the Northville high school class of 1944, which numbered "about 60." The Martin Breitmeyer family at that time lived on Seven Mile road near Farmington road. (Mr. Breitmeyer has died and Mrs. Breitmeyer is visiting family in Orange, California.)

Even in high school Eleanor was in the newspaper business, working after school and Saturdays at The Record office, then located across the street from its present location in the space now occupied by the Carrington Agency.

When she began her journalism studies at University of Michigan, Eleanor continued to work at the Record at Christmas, Easter and summer vacations. "I'll always be grateful for my Record job and paycheck," Eleanor says, explaining that it was this part-time work from publisher, William H. Cansfield that enabled her to receive her degree from the University in 1948.

She was able to repay her publisher's faith in her after his death not a month after her graduation. She became managing editor of The Record in July, 1948, staying there until February, 1952, when she joined The Detroit News as society writer. She later became club editor and moved up to her present job last July. The Record was sold in 1952 to Glenn Cummings and N. W. Hopkins, who sold to the present publisher, William Sliger.

Learning the complete operation of a newspaper, Eleanor feels, has been invaluable experience. She also gives much credit to encouraging teachers: "I hold great affection for Miss B. Ione Palmer, my French teacher who is now librarian, and Edward C. Mollema, my history teacher." She also remembers the help given by Principal Gerald V. Harrison.

Today the ad-taking experiences in her early days at The Record seem a far cry from donning a long white evening gown and covering such glamorous events as Lundi Gras at London Chop House or the World of Shakespeare opening at the Detroit Institute of Arts. These assignments were part of a height-of-the-season nightly string that also included a society wedding and Overture to Opera reception.

Her work has not gone unrecognized. Eleanor was awarded the first certificate of appreciation given by Mayor Cavanagh for her contributions to club activities and social welfare. Three years ago she was named woman of the year by the Quota Club and St. Raphael's Guild awarded its journalism medal for contributions to Eleanor.

"Isn't it glamorous?" friends ask and our former Northville reporter agrees but feels it was her basic experience which now helps her feel "comfortable" with the Big City challenge.

It's always special, she remarks, to run into Northville citizens. Recently she saw Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr. at the Detroit Athletic Club. She also was delighted to spot Mrs. H. A. Boyden and Mrs. Emma Reed looking as "young and erect" as ever when she came to town to bank. (She still banks and has her dental work done in Northville). Laurie Chabut's engagement and wedding also aroused memories of another admired Northville family ... for Eleanor Breitmeyer forgets neither a face nor a name.

With "top-down" weather and a flowering countryside creating Sunday traffic jams in town it's rather nice to know that we're drawing back former citizens as well as strangers. And we can take pride that youngsters who dreamed under blossoming apple trees have become achievers.

Farm Bureau Says Party's A Big Hit

"A great success ... best turnout ever."

That's the report of Novi Farm Bureau officials as they reviewed results of the Bureau's annual card party held in the Novi community building on Saturday.

Much of this success, officials emphasized, was due to the fine work of the chairman, Mrs. Nelda Riley, a helping hand by many other members and non-members, and by area businesses which contributed door prizes.

Among those businesses which donated door prizes were:

Northville office of Detroit Edison, Ely Garden Supply, Farm Crest Dairy, Hunt's Market, Jake's Gulf Service, Janice's Beauty Shop, Lila's Flowers, Mobil Oil Service Station, Novi Drug, Saratoga Farms, and Rosewood Inn.

In addition to an evening of cards, persons attending the party enjoyed refreshments.

JOSEPH H. AUSTIN, SR.

Joseph H. Austin, Sr., 84, of La Puente, California, who was a pioneer manufacturer's agent to the automobile industry, died Thursday, April 30 in California after an illness of two weeks.

Born August 25, 1879 in Ontario, Canada, he was the son of John and Esther (Cook) Austin. In 1902 he married Louisa Richards, who died in 1938.

Survivors include one son, Joseph H. Austin, Jr. of La Puente; three daughters, Mrs. Esther Young of Traverse City, Mrs. Marion Wagner of Mesa, Arizona, and Mrs. Wilma Campbell of Northville; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Der Slie of Washington, D.C.; and nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Owner of the J. H. Austin company until he retired, he was a life member of Zion Lodge No. 1, F&AM, Detroit Consistory and Moslem Shrine.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, May 4 from Ebert Funeral Home under the auspices of the Zion Lodge. A graveside service was held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Evergreen Cemetery, Detroit, with the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Northville, officiating.

FRED L. SMITH

Fred L. Smith, 86-year-old retired Detroit House of Correction guard, died Saturday, May 2 at the Whitehall Convalescent Home after an illness of two years.

Mr. Smith, whose home was at 34549 Fendt road, Farmington, was born January 28, 1878 in Coltin, England. His wife, Lottie, preceded him in death. Survivors include a son, George of Farmington, and three grandchildren.

A resident of this area most of his life, Mr. Smith retired as a Detroit House of Correction guard after 27 years service.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, May 4, from Casterline Funeral Home, with the Rev. Walter Ballagh, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Farmington, officiating.

Burial was in Glen Eden Cemetery, Farmington.

ERNEST W. HAMMOND

Ernest W. Hammond, 76-year-old father of Crispin Hammond of 47100 Timber Lane, died of a heart attack this past week while cutting grass at his Livonia home.

Mr. Hammond, who was a pharmacist, is survived by his wife and four children, 15 grandchildren and many great grandchildren. He willed his body to the University of Michigan for medical research.

School Employees Win Pay

ed contracts for four new teachers. They are Miss Jeane Cook of Alma College, who will teach in the high school; Mrs. Carol Godwin of the American University, elementary; Miss Mary E. Kennedy of Mercy College, elementary; and Miss Elaine Sue Vanderkarr of Western Michigan university, elementary.

Bids were opened on school buses, reviewed and then turned over to E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services for analysis and recommendation. Five chassis bids ranged from $3,091.16 (Ford) to $3,548 (International), and six body bids ranged from $3,875 to $3,935.

Salem Supervisor

mentary school and the high school.

In April, 1961, he was elected treasurer of Salem township — a post he held until his election as supervisor in the spring of 1963. He succeeded Harlow Ingall first as treasurer, and then two years later as supervisor.

The Supervisor had one more year to serve on his two-year term of office.

Mr. Renwick was a member of the Salem Federated Church, Plymouth Rock Lodge-47 F&AM, the Farm Bureau and the Plymouth Grange. He also was a past sponsor of a junior farm bureau group and had been a member of the Salem Republican club.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon from Casterline Funeral Home of Northville, with the Rev. Elwood Chipchase, pastor of Salem Federated, officiating.

Burial was in Salem Walker cemetery.

Double Cast Prepares For Upcoming Operetta

"H. M. S. Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan will be presented by the High School Choir Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 14, 15, 16 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The scene is set aboard ship in Portsmouth, Harbor, England around 1875. The high school art classes, under the direction of Mr. Roy Pederson, are preparing the scenery.

Miss Patricia Dorrain is in charge of costuming the operetta and has arranged to rent the costumes from a Detroit firm.

In most instances a double cast will be used on alternating evenings.

The accompaniments will be played by Linda Line, Sonya Clark and Nancy Shafer. Leslie G. Lee will direct.

Tina Larson will head the make-up committee while Eliza Batzer and Carol Yahne are handling the tickets.

Gretchen Schneider heads the publicity committee.

The operetta's theme is that "love levels all ranks". Many interesting situations arise when this principle is put into practice.

Attends Fraternity Meet

Robert B. Semple, president of Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation, spoke on "Inside the Board Room" at the April 22 meeting of SIE, a National Honorary Management Fraternity of Wayne State university's School of Business Administration.

The meeting, held in Wayne

State's Alumni House, concluded with an interesting question-and-answer period on the organization and operation of the Board of Directors of a large corporation.

Several local residents are members of SIE, including Donald J. Stewart, 40976 Holly Dale.

One of the things most people do when they look at a used car is kick the tires.
But it won't tell them a thing.
It won't tell them, for instance, that the car has passed a rigid safety and performance test.
Or that it has been completely reconditioned, tuned-up, tightened-up, washed and polished inside and out.
Come in and kick the tires, slam the doors, bounce up and down on the upholstery, if you like.
Then go out for a spin.
We sell more VWs that way.
We sort of get a kick out of it.

Motorcyclist Hurt In Car Collision

Two Plymouth men suffered minor injuries Saturday evening when their motorcycle was struck by a car driven by a young Northville motorist.

Injured at Northville and Five Mile roads were Richard Hudson, 29, and a passenger, William Vanata, 20.

According to the deputy sheriff at the scene, they refused medical care.

The Northville driver, Curt Douglas, 17, of 2148 Whipple, was ticketed for leaving the scene of an accident.

His Speed Marks Him As Top Man

Mt. Pleasant — The leading quarter-mile on the 1964 Central-Michigan University track team is junior Tom Darling.

The former Northville High runner is following in the hall-famed CMU footsteps of another Northville great, Dick Biery, who graduated from Central in 1962.

The bespectacled Darling is the team's top man in the open 440 and had a :50.8 clocking in his most recent outing, a good time for so early in the outdoor season.

He's also the anchor man on the CMU mile relay team and has turned in some good times with that quartet, his best this year being a creditable :50.2 last week.

The defending champion in the Interstate Conference, Darling is expected to defend his title in late May in the annual loop meet at Charleston, Ill., home of Eastern Illinois University. Darling won the title last year with a :49.5 clocking with the meet held at CMU.

Mustangs Cop 1st Win But Lose Two More

It was another week of harrowing experiences for the Northville nine, although the Mustangs walked off with their first win of the season.

Monday's contest with Milford was marked by extra base hits, including two triples and a home run — all by Milford, which won 5-0.

Northville's Eric Peterson relieved starter Steve Evans in the third inning with none out and pitched hitless ball the rest of the way. Northville had three hits.

It was a long wait, but Northville finally eked out a win over Holly, 3-2, to record its first win of the season.

A two-run first frame gave the Mustangs a lead which they never relinquished, although they were forced to hang on for dear life in the late innings.

Larry Angove walked to start the rally, and advanced to third when a pick-off play went awry. John Mach then sliced a single to left to score Angove. Having advanced to third on a passed ball and an error on Jerry Inslund's grounder, Mach was cut down at the plate, trying to score on a short passed ball.

Inslund, who had advanced to second, scored on Bob Beller's clean single for Northville's second run.

The Mustangs scored again in the second when Doug Swiss walked, took second on a wild pitch, stole third and scored on John Jameson's single.

That was all the scoring for Northville as Holly put on the pressure.

Only the fast fielding on center fielder Beller prevented a runner from scoring from second in the fourth frame. Holly had more success in the fifth, scoring twice on two walks, two errors and a single.

Starter Inslund was relieved by Peterson in the fifth with the bases loaded, none out and one run across. Peterson struck out the first man, but the next ball was bobbled as a runner streaked home. The Mustangs' twirler fired a third strike past the next man and got the last man to pop out.

Nobody threatened the rest

Golfers Upset Bloomfield Hills

The Northville linksters played the role of spoiler Monday night as they upended a strong visiting Bloomfield Hills squad, 157-161, to break the Barons' winning streak.

Bloomfield, winner by 12 strokes over Northville in an earlier season encounter, saw its 47 dual meet winning skeen smashed. In addition, the Mustangs were only two strokes off the pace in an attempt to break the school low team tally of 155.

Two Jims, St. Germain and Berton, tied for medalist honors with 38's on the front nine at Meadowbrook Country Club. A few strokes behind were Rick Talbot with a 46 and Bob Regenhart with a 41.

As a result of the win, Northville once again gave notice that it will be a serious contender for W-O and state golf honors. According to Coach Al Jones, a team mark of 155 — under normal conditions — should take the state class B title.

Only one West Bloomfield run was earned as Northville dropped a 3-0 decision on the road.

In fact, the Mustangs' path to West Bloomfield, but the singles weren't timely. Northville stranded seven.

Leading the local attack was Dave Jerome with two hits. Beller, Angove and Swiss garnered one apiece.

Northville's best opportunity came in the sixth, when it loaded the sacks with two out to no avail.

Novi Little League Eyes Season Opener Monday

Little league (majors) competition will get underway in Novi Monday evening, League President Les Ward announced this week.

According to the president six teams will compete in "major" competition, including Paragon, Cole Heating, King Electric and Smith Excavating, Novi Rotary, Novi Drug, and Novi Party Store.

Paragon will clash with Cole Heating at Monday's opener;

King & Smith is slated to meet Novi Rotary on Tuesday; Novi Drug will meet Novi Party on Wednesday; Paragon and Rotary will square off Thursday; and Cole Heating and Novi Drug will clash Friday.

All games begin at 6 p.m. at the Novi school diamond.

Minor league competition, which started last week, is conducted each Saturday at 1 p.m. under the direction of Dan Ritter.

Netters Near Lead In W-O

The youthful Northville netters posted a brace of wins to run their Wayne-Oakland conference slate to 4-2, putting them in second place back of first-place Bloomfield Hills, 5-0.

Bloomfield put its record on the line last night when it played the Mustangs here. Results were not available at press time.

Northville acted the part of the unamiable host Friday to Holly, when the Mustangs slipped by, 3-2. Then Milford made winning easy by forfeiting a Monday affair.

It was no easy matter, however, disposing of Holly. Two doubles wins and one in the singles turned the trick.

Northville's Norbert Parent fought for a 7-5, 6-3 conquest of Jeff Jones. Recording the other points for the local netmen were the team of Jim Wiedner-Bruce Dayton, who won 7-9, 6-3, 6-4, and Dave Schmidt and Randy Caliguri, who posted an impressive 6-1, 6-1, win over Dekker Helweg and Ron Ronger.

Coming out on the short end for Northville were number one singles man Bob Langtry, who lost 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, and Jim Long, an 8-6, 7-5 victim.

Hazel Park Opens Meet

The $10,000 Inaugural Handicap, for three-year-olds and up at a mile, on Saturday afternoon will highlight the opening weekend of thoroughbred racing at the Hazel Park Race Track.

Hazel Park will open its 72-day meeting Friday, May 8, and continue through Thursday, July 30, excepting Sundays. Post time will be 3:30 p.m.

St. Germain once again copied medalist honors. He carded a 38 against Oak Park. Other Mustang cards were Berton, and Talbot, 43's, and Regenhart, 47.

Lowest score for Oak Park was a 40, with the highest being a 49.

The Northville duffers were off form in the triangular at St. Germain fired a 40, Talbot and Berton, 43's, and Regenhart, a 46, totalling 172. Okeanos posted a 165 and Brighton, 169.

parking and alley area behind the church. It was proposed that the city would exchange 2600 for 3100 square feet and provide a greenbelt along church property on Wing street adjacent to the new parking lot which replaces the temporary city hall Allen and Canterbury suggested reducing the strip from 20 feet to 10 feet. Councilmembers Ambler and Kester were satisfied with the agreement, but Mayor Allen suggested that it be re-negotiated.

The council agreed to go ahead with the purchase of an apartment building at 123 West Main street. It will be purchased from Northville Area Economic Development Corporation at its cost, approximately $9,600. Another $1,000 will be paid to demolish the building. The site will be purchased over a five-year period. Temporarily it will be rented as parking space to either adjoining John Mach auto agency or merchants interested in securing employee parking.

"I realize the heavy workload and many problems the council faces, and also I realize that any one of us leaving in advance does place an added burden on those remaining. Therefore, I wanted to let you know in advance, and in writing, of my desire to resign. "You may wish, individually or collectively, to discuss my intentions — particularly related to timing and the idea of the council having the advantage of selecting an appointee. Subsequent to such discussion and agreement, I will submit a formal resignation in accordance with the timing which we can work out."

Seek Trailer Camp Rezoning

Salem township's zoning board will conduct a public hearing Tuesday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. on a proposed zoning change.

To be considered, according to the published notice, is "an application on file for a change in zoning from agriculture to M-1 (light manufacturing) so as to make use of the property as a trailer park."

The property concerned is located on the west side of Currie road and the north side of Six Mile road. It is described as the southeast quarter and the southwest quarter of section 10, Salem township, Washtenaw county.

According to the zoning board chairman, Arthur T. Graham, the request has been made to rezone the property to permit the use for a trailer park and accessory buildings.

But an application placed with the township clerk by Post Lane Farms, Incorporated, 1266 Penobscot Building, Detroit, asks to have a portion of the described property rezoned M-1 "for the purpose of erecting factory buildings to lease."

That portion of the site is described as being 488.81' by 1173' deep 600 feet north of Six Mile road on the west side of Currie road.

An accompanying plot plan indicates that the remainder of the overall property is intended to become the site of a trailer park and single family dwellings.

The westernmost 820' of the parcel extending about 2568' north from Six Mile road is indicated as single dwellings, with the remainder of the property in the two quarters of the section to be devoted to 265 trailer lots and accessory facilities.

Described are an office, swimming pool, laundry building, playground area, public lavatories and a sewage treatment plant.

Bandit Hits Store Here

A lone, armed bandit robbed the proprietor of Don's Friendly Market, 17071 Northville road, of $450 last Saturday night.

According to detectives with the Wayne county sheriff's department, teletypes have been sent out describing the bandit that robbed the township grocery store but as of Tuesday no one had been picked up for questioning.

Donald Sell, proprietor, told deputies that a Negro about 30 years of age entered his store about 10:17 p.m., pulled a snub-nose revolver from his shirt and announced, "This is a hold up."

The bandit demanded Sell's wallet. He laid the revolver on the counter, removed $150, tossed the wallet on the floor and then took $300 from Sell's shirt, detectives said.

Sell told deputies the bandit jumped into a late model car and sped south toward Plymouth.

Area Construction Gains Momentum

NOVI SANITARY SEWER — While construction crews worked on the northern end of the Novi sewer near Nine Mile road, another crew of men this past week knocked out the remains of the old concrete bridge near Cady and Main streets to make way for the sewer line through Northville. Oldtimers will recall that the bridge once spanned a pond of water that fronted on the old Globe Furniture factory. The pond was opposite the depot of the old Flint & Pere Marquette railway. Also located nearby was the old Hanrahan Refrigerator company plant as well as the J. A. Dubuar Manufacturing company.

CITY HALL BITES DUST — Another Northville city hall, this one the temporary offices of the city while construction of the new building (below) was underway, bit the dust this past week as workmen razed the old, two-story frame building on Wing street, between Dunlap and Main. A power shovel scoops up a "mouthful" of wreckage in the picture above to deposit it in a waiting truck. Below, still other workmen prepare the new city hall grounds for sidewalks and drives. Officials hope the work will be completed in time for dedication during Michigan Week later this month.

CHURCH ADDITION — Construction of the Christian Education building at the First Presbyterian Church is moving along rapidly, and officials are predicting the building will be ready for opening by the end of August. Cornerstone laying ceremonies were conducted this past Sunday. See pictures elsewhere in this edition. The view in this picture is from Church street.

STILL BONE DRY — City workmen bored more than 50 feet under the C&O railroad bed to the opposite side this past week in an all-out attempt to learn what happened to the water that has stopped flowing at Northville's historic well. Workmen used a special auger and an electronic device to trace the pipe route. The iron pipe from the well was hooked to tile beneath the tracks. Early search failed to disclose any water. Shown here operating the auger are Robert Moe (left) and Charles Nichols.

be a major theme at Christian Science churches this Sun-and Fallen Man", and the responsive reading opens, with Genesis (1:27): "God created man in his own image." The Lesson will conclude with these lines from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The great truth in the Science of being, that the real man was, is and ever shall be perfect, is incontrovertible; for if man is the image, reflection, of God, he is neither inverted nor subverted, but upright and God-like" (p. 200).

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

Godpleasing Prayer
"Prayer moves the hand that moves the universe" is a well-known proverb. Luther said regarding prayer:
"To pray diligently is half the task." King Gustavus Adolphus once remarked:
"To pray often is almost to conquer." And the Apostle James writing by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit said: "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avaieth much." (St. James 5:16).

Yet there are those who are skeptical about prayer, saying that it does not avail much. There are those who even complain about many unheard prayers. For such it would be well to ask whether they have prayed rightly, whether their prayers have been Godpleasing. God's Word says: "Ye ask and receive not, because ye ask amiss." (St. James 4:3).

The Essence of Godpleasing Prayer
To be Godpleasing prayer
must naturally be addressed to God not to any other creature, but to the Triune God, who alone deserves the honor and the worship of our prayers. Jesus said: "It is written: Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him

only shalt thou serve." (St.
Matthew 4:10).

To be Godpleasing prayer must be from the heart. As one has stated: "In prayer it is better to have a heart without words than words without a heart." Jesus criticized the prayer of the hypocrites because it was only outward show: "This people draweth nigh unto Me with their mouth, and honoreth Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me." (St. Matthew 15:8). How often the heart is absent in the praying of the Lord's Prayer. Luther said: "The Lord's Prayer is the greatest martyr upon earth. It is a pity above all pities that such a prayer by such a Master should be so abused in all the earth."

Absence of the heart! Is it not that which is so often wrong not only with our praying but also with our whole act of worship?

To be Godpleasing prayer must further be in the name of Jesus. He Himself teaches us: "Verily, verily,
I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, He will give it you." (St. John 16:23). This means that we must approach the Heavenly Father through Jesus, the Son of God. Everyone who appears before God in his own righteousness, who in his heart bases the answer to his prayer on his own conduct, prays in his own name, no matter how often he may pronounce the name of God in his prayer. Such self-righteous prayer is an abomination unto God, and the gates of heaven are closed to it. Praying in the name of Jesus, however, is Godpleasing. This is the kind of prayer that remembers and believes that it is only because of the merits of Christ that God is favorable to us. Such prayer comes from the hearts of those who believe and trust that Christ died for their sins, and that He is the only Go-between, Mediator, Advocate, and Way that leads into the presence of God.

This art of Godpleasing
prayer can be taught to us only by the Holy Spirit, of whom Jesus prophesied: "He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance." (St. John 14:26). "Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities; for we know not what we should pray for as we ought;
but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us" (Romans 8:26).

To Show Billy Graham Film

The new Billy Graham feature length sound-color motion picture, "Lucia" will be shown tonight at the First Baptist church of Novi.

Open to the public without admission, the film will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the church, located at the southeast corner of Taft and Eleven Mile road.
"Lucia", which comes to the screen with all the pathos and poignancy that transcends its Latin setting to embrace the spiritual needs that are common to every culture and clime around the world, was made in its entirety in Buenos Aires.

The fire and excitement of gaucha folk music, South America's unmatched scenic grandeur and the excitement that belongs to one of the world's largest cities, are all enriched by full color and authentic sound.
But the real impact of "Lucia" is to be found in its intimate, utterly honest treatment of an individual's emptiness and frustration apart from the filling of the "God-shaped vacuum" with which all mankind is born.

With this newest of the Billy Graham Films, "Lucia" enters into the area of domestic discord and the romantic triangle — and what the Bible has to say in resolving the emotional problems that are the hallmark of 20th Century living.
The public is urged to attend the film's showing here.

Choose Local Man To Direct Education For Unemployed

Paul R. Hunt of Northville recently was appointed, through a special grant of the U.S. office of education, to direct the federally supported training program in the metropolitan area.

The office, an adjunct of the Detroit public schools, translates policies set by the Detroit metropolitan advisory committee on manpower into action programs set to reduce the effects of poverty through basic education and pre-vocational training.

The advisory committee draws its members from the policy making elements of education, labor, industry, state employment services and the major public welfare agencies.

The training programs, initiated through "coupling" federal funds from various departments, will provide basic education and literacy training for adults and youth who are among the least employable.

It is estimated there are some 45,000 in the metropolitan area who make up the "hard core" unemployed. Additionally, there are many youth and adults in Michigan's smaller population centers and rural areas who require this training.

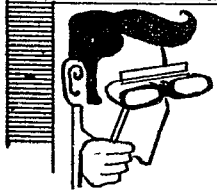

It is planned that residential programs will be provided for these people adjacent to Detroit's major industrial complexes.

In addition to the manpower programs presently in operation the expanded pre-vocational and literacy training programs will start operating after July 1, 1964.

Paul Hunt, 39, lives with his wife Mary Ann, daughter Bonnie and son Joel at 344 Debra Lane.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

May 9, 1963

A third candidate, William C. Soellner, indicated he would enter the race for two seats on the Northville board of education.

With an eye on future development the Northville township board decided to explore the possibility of purchasing additional capacity in the Middle Rouge Interceptor sewer system.

"Patience", that gay and melodious operetta written by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented by the Northville high school music department in the auditorium Thursday and Friday.

At press time Wednesday afternoon word was received that Governor Romney had signed House Bill 758. Superintendent Amerman reported that petitions for the college vote and trustee candidates are now available at board of education offices.

Northville's economic development corporation learned this week that its loan application for $185,000 through the Small Business Administration has won approval in Washington.

Free Saturday afternoon movies, organized by Leo Markham and sponsored by some 50 business people of the community, will begin Saturday on a three-week trial basis.

Mrs. John Begle of Northville was re-elected president of the 135-member Plymouth State Home and Training school auxiliary.

Bud Guest, WJR star, will speak at the Presbyterian Men's Club annual ladies night in the church's Fellowship hall.

A 19-year-old Northville motorist, who survived a 100-mile-per hour chase by police and a fiery crash minutes later near South Lyon was sentenced to jail Monday.

FIVE YEARS AGO

May 7, 1959

The city council, by a vote of four to one, approved the rezoning of four lots on Cady street for the proposed construction of a supermarket.

Only Mayor A. Malcolm Allen voted against the measure. With the deadline for filing petitions two days away, only four persons have indicated they will seek election to the Northville board of education.

A move to purchase Sessions hospital, 520 West Main street, for operation as a community sponsored institution, may reach a climax tonight in a meeting of Northville area doctors and civic leaders.

Members of a pre-corporate committee appointed a week ago will report on legal and financial technicalities involved in purchase of the hospital, owned by Mrs. Irene Slater.

Dr. L. W. Snow, who is the unofficial chairman of area doctors actively seeking ways of purchasing the hospital, has obtained an option to buy the hospital from Mrs. Slater for a reported $30,000 cash and some $53,000 of hospital debts.

Reports by the Beautify Northville committee was to highlight a meeting today at the city hall.

Officially speaking, Northville has a new police chief. Chief Eugene King was sworn in Monday by Mayor A. Malcolm Allen as the successor to the retiring chief, Joseph Denton.

Actually Chief Denton is still on the job. Beginning May 15 he'll be on a two weeks vacation. June 1st he concludes 15 years on the Northville department.

Councilmen gave a preliminary okay to once-a-week collection of rubbish in Northville.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

The main speaker for the occasion was Rev. F. A. Hartwig, pastor of Getsemane Lutheran church, Detroit, and a vice-president of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran Church.

Other guest ministers who participated in the ceremony were Rev. Otto Turk, Rev. Eugene Frederick, Rev. Pranchette, and Rev. Alvin Schnute.

Absent: Mr. Robert Shafer, Dr. Waldo Johnson, Mr. Edward Angove.

Others present: Superintendent R. H. Amerman, Assistant Superintendent K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison; Principals R. Spear, F. Stefanski, D. Van Ingen and H. Smith; School Attorney James E. Littell; Mr. E. O. Weber, chairman of the Transportation Committee; and various interested citizens.

II. The minutes of the last regular meeting, on March 9, were read and were approved as read. The minutes of the meeting of March 30 were then read by the secretary and there being no additions or corrections, were approved as read.

III. Communications:

1. City of Northville, expressing appreciation for use of Community Center for civic purpose.

2. Wayne County Department of Health, advising that their inspection of Amerman School had shown inadequate lighting in the kitchen, which is being used as a Special Education classroom.

3. Mr. John Badalutz, requesting use of the High School gymnasium, 5 classrooms and the cafeteria, by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York and Jehovah's Witnesses, on Friday, June 19, Saturday, June 20 and Sunday, June 21.

4. Delbert Black, requesting use of the Community Building on Sunday afternoon and evening, May 17, by the Northville Michigan Week Committee, for a cultural exhibit of art and photography and a dramatic presentation.

5. Teacher Resignations, Miss Rita Salan, Mr. David Madden, Mrs. William Sliger, Mrs. Donna Kress.

6. Mr. Stefanski, Principal of Northville High School, advising that the Salutatorian Valedictorian of the Class of 1964 are Anna Martin and Anne Hambrey, respectively.

7. Mr. Stefanski, oral announcement of various awards and honors which have come to Northville High School students and groups in recent weeks.

IV. Report of Superintendent:

1. Traffic Signal — Mr. Amerman announced that he has an appointment with officials of the Wayne and Oakland County Road Commissions and the City of Northville on Wednesday, April 15, between 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. at the corner of Sibley road and the Eight Mile road Cut-off, for the purpose of discussing the placing of a traffic signal at this intersection. Mr. Becker and Dr.

MacLeod will attend this meeting with Mr. Amerman.

2. Special Education — Mr. Amerman reported that he had attended a meeting with Mr. Isbister, Superintendent of the Plymouth Schools, Mrs. Thornburn, currently physiological diagnostician for the Plymouth and Northville Schools, and Mrs. June England, Consultant in Special Education for the Wayne County Intermediate School District. As a result of this meeting, Mr. Amerman was able to tell the board that there will definitely be a class for trainable retarded children in this area, beginning in September, 1964. The location has not yet been announced.

At this point Mr. Kipfer joined the meeting.

3. School election — Mr. Amerman advised the board that a final date must be officially designated tonight for the acceptance of registrations of voters. It was moved by Mr. Templeton that the final hour and day for acceptance of voter registrations will be Monday, May 11, 1964 at 5:00 p.m. The motion was supported by Mr. Kipfer and carried.

4. Teacher Resignations — It was moved by Mr. Templeton that all the resignations submitted tonight be accepted. Mr. Becker seconded the motion, which was carried.

5. Teacher Contracts — Mr. Amerman presented contracts for board approval, for the following people: Miss Wendy Wistert, to teach High School English, and Mrs. Nelson C. Schrader III, to teach elementary. It was moved by Mr. Kipfer that these contracts be approved. The motion was supported by Mr. Templeton and carried.

6. Legislation — Mr. Kipfer gave the board a report of the current status of education bills before the legislature. The probable State Aid Bill will provide $234 per pupil, with 4 1/2 mills deductible.

7. Budget — Mr. Amerman and Mr. Ellison presented the budget they are proposing for 1964-65, for board approval. The total amount proposed was $1,208,352.50, and exceeded the anticipated revenue by $80,876. Because of the uncertainties of the State Aid amount and the State Equalized Valuation for 1964, the administrators had used a somewhat conservative estimate of revenue, and felt that the difference between revenue and budget may be somewhat decreased when the uncertain figures have been decided.

The board carefully reviewed every figure in the budget and suggested several areas where it was felt reductions could be made. Mr. Ellison was instructed to reduce the expenditures by approximately $40,000 before presenting it to the Tax Allocation board. The board also felt that an even more conservative estimate of revenue should be used. It was therefore moved by Mr. Kipfer that the budget be approved with the suggested amendments and the figure of $31,000,000 used for State Equalized Valuation, and with an addendum attached containing items which could be subtracted to bring the budget more nearly into balance. This motion was supported by Mr. Becker and carried.

V. Report of Secretary: Mr. Becker reported the following moneys received in the General Fund in March: 1963 taxes, $177,534.26; Delinquent taxes, $1,248.16; Interest on taxes, $90.50; Rent of school facilities $259.50; tuition, $94,848.30; Abatement of Expense, $223.61; From other school funds $484; Total $274,688.33.

VI. Report of Special Committees:

1. Transportation — Mr. Weber, the chairman of the Citizens' Transportation committee reviewed with the board the recommendations of this group, a copy of which are attached to Minute Book. The board accepted the report and thanked Mr. Weber for his fine work as chairman of this committee.

In connection with the committee's recommendations, a letter was read from Northville Coach Lines offering their services in the transportation of parochial school children.

VII. Report of Treasurer: Although Dr. Johnson was absent, a financial report had been prepared, as follows:

Cash in bank in General fund at February 29, 1964 — $92,909.85; Cash received in March, 1964 — $274,688.33; February Balance plus March Cash — $367,598.18; Disbursements in March, 1964 — $87,265.51; Cash in Bank in General Fund at March 31, 1964 — $280,332.67; Cash Received in April to April 13, 1964 — $1,264.97; Cash on Hand in General Fund at April 13, 1964 — $281,597.64.

It was moved by Mr. Kipfer that the report of the Treasurer be accepted. Motion supported and carried.

VIII. Report of Auditing Committee: The Auditing Committee approved the following bills and payrolls for payment: General Bills, $12,873.10; Payrolls, $75,007.43; Cafeteria bills, $5,585.65; stadium funds, $13.82; payment on tax anticipation note, $50,000. It was moved by Mr. Templeton, seconded by Mr. Kipfer, that the report of the Auditing Committee be approved. Motion carried.

IX. New Business:

1. North-South By-Pass — We have been asked by City officials to write a letter to the Wayne County Road Commission urging construction of a north-south by-pass around the town of Northville. The board agreed that this is a needed highway and that the letter should be written.

2. Chapman School — Mr. Littell, the school attorney, has been approached by the attorney of the property surrounding the old Chapman School, with a request that the Chapman School property be returned to the estate from which it was originally granted in accordance with the provision that it be returned to the estate when it was no longer used for school purposes. Mrs. McHugh is prepared to offer the school some financial reimbursement for the return of the property, which is approximately one-eighth of an acre.

The board viewed Mrs. McHugh's request and offer with considerable favor and placed the matter into the hands of Mr. Littell for negotiation.

3. Rental Requests — The board considered first the request of the Watchtower Society for use of high school facilities. Mr. Ellison had prepared an estimate of school custodial and maintenance expenses which would be entailed by this rental, an amount of approximately $427. It was decided to grant this request. The Michigan Week request was also granted.

Mr. Crump announced that there would be a meeting of School and City officials, in the Board of Education offices, on Wednesday evening, April 15 to discuss possible rental of the library building by the school. Mr. Amerman, Dr. MacLeod and Mr. Ellison are to represent the school at this meeting.

X. Adjournment: There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:15 a.m., on motion of Mr. Becker, supported by Mr. Templeton.

THE NEW CAR CLEANUP

If you have been putting off the decision to purchase a new car this year you would be well advised to not delay any longer. 1964 models — which have proved extremely popular with the public — are going to be in short supply as the production year tapers off.

National sales of all makes averaged out have been selling 10% ahead of last year and automobile industry analysts are practically unanimous in forecasting unusually low dealer stocks or the end of the model run.

Though dealers are not expected to be carrying heavy inventories from now until the 1965 models make their appearance, year end discounts are traditional and make good sense to both dealers and the public.

You will be able to buy a new car from John Mach from now until the new car introduction — at a lower net price than any other time of the year. 1964 models at this time of year have been through a multi-million-mile road test that has given factory engineers a chance to iron out any minor performance faults that might have shown up in first-of-the-year models.

Regardless of savings in the purchase price, however, your new car from John Mach will be thoroughly pre-serviced as usual. Wheel alignment, engine performance, body tightness — in all, some seventy check points are adjusted by a mechanic looking for flaws and the process usually takes most of a day.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

One day soon, probably this year, Detroit water will be flowing through Northville. For the present its principle destination will be the Wayne County Training School.

Eventually, the line will wend its way southward through Plymouth completing a loop of the system that was first designed by Wayne county before Detroit took over operations of the metropolitan water system.

Presently, it appears that Northville township and the Village of Novi will become the first community users of Detroit water in the area.

Novi's village council has agreed to purchase Detroit water. Details of financing are still being studied, but it appears that revenue bonds in the amount of $100,000 or more will be required. Novi could then build water transmission lines from Haggerty at Ten Mile along Ten Mile to Meadowbrook and then south to Nine Mile. Detroit will soon begin construction of its water line from Eight Mile to Ten Mile along Haggerty.

This line would serve new subdivisions within that area. One hitch that, if overcome, would aid Novi in customer potential and financing security is the acquisition of the existing Willowbrook subdivision water system, supplied by wells within the Ten Mile road development.

A $25,000 offer for the system by the village has been refused.

In Northville township special assessment proceedings are underway to construct a system in Plymouth Gardens subdivision, Bradner and Five Mile road, to provide water for 18 homes where wells are dry or near-dry.

Contract details must still be ironed out between Detroit and township officials, but it appears certain that the area will be served by Detroit water this summer.

The city of Northville has given no indication of when it might seriously consider buying Detroit water. Right now councilmembers are more concerned with the route the Detroit water line will take through the city.

At present the line is extended to the corner of Center and Baseline.

Detroit has insisted that the route will be Center street (Sheldon) south to the Training School.

But Mayor A. M. Allen reported Monday night that Detroit is now willing to consider other possibilities.

Alternate routes through or around the city could benefit potential township users, and would also avoid disruption of the city's main traffic artery.

John Northup, local builder, and George Schueder, an Evans Products executive who lives in one of the Northup-built homes in Shadbrook, put on their fishing togs early Sunday and drove to Proud Lake.

They returned to Schueder's, empty-handed Sunday afternoon just in time to see a couple of youngsters with a string of five trout caught in the stream behind Schueder's house.

The Days of Individualism

BABSON PARK, Mass., — I have long declared that moral rejuvenation is a "must" if we are to come through the rigors and dangers of the present day and age with our civilization intact. In an effort to specify ways of bringing this about, I have talked with you about religion, ethics, thrift, education, and even a closer attention to land ownership and its responsibilities as possible remedies for today's "moral" problems. At this time I want to discuss the importance of keeping rugged individualism alive in our society.

Undoubtedly the greatest threat to individualism is the dependence on social groups to bring about "improvements" in today's changing world. For example, politicians and labor leaders want men to be manageable in units. Their goals can be far more easily achieved if individualism can be submerged. It is next to impossible to get a story across to men separately, one at a time; but if ideas and thoughts can be instilled in social groups, objectives can be gained.

Look at the history of the Soviet Union and its successful expansion of Communism — not only within its borders but in many other countries as well. The Soviets developed collective farms chiefly because an independent farmer would think too much as an individual for them to be able to fit him into the Russian program. Even though the Russians and the Chinese leaders are now in open conflict, they still agree that individualism must be stifled for Communist success.

It is worth while for us to look back occasionally on the sort of past that brought about the democratic way of life for which we have often been willing to lay down our lives.

In America's a-borning period, the rugged individual never let his private convictions be smothered by the group judgment of a committee, a board of directors, or even a political party.

A man believed that "one with God is a majority." Democracy came from many hours of "cracker-barrel" discussion in country stores where quiet reigned. Thinking requires quiet, and time enough to relax and chew things over.

The change from the Little Red School House to the conformist type of school of today marked the end of a healthy era. A farmer's son in the days of the Little Red School House began his education in the early dawn. His best schooling actually began with his daily chores — feeding and watering the animals, operating the farm machinery, planting, growing, and harvesting crops. He had to be alert and ingenious enough to meet emergencies. Sane reasoning was essential. Out of such a life came honesty, thrift, common sense, industry.

Rough Rowing Ahead for Romney

LANSING — Growing disenchantment among conservative Republican lawmakers with the man they were supposed to follow as chief executive was present only in off-the-record comment until recently. Then Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings of Holland, long-term chairman of Senate Tax Committee, joined nine other GOP old guard members in supporting a Democratic-engineered Congressional and Senate districting plan.

The balk by Geerlings and the other Republican members was one of the first signs of possible trouble for Romney in his political activities. A carefully considered statement by Geerlings the same day, declaring he was becoming a nonpartisan, attacked the Governor's methods more than his programs.

Long before Romney was elected, it was forecast he would have a difficult time adjusting to the ways of politics. He was a business oriented executive who previously achieved his aims by simply telling people to carry them out. This doesn't work in the State Capitol.

Presumably Geerlings and some of the other 10 disenchanted members made their discontent known to their colleagues, and to the Governor's office prior to the open split on the apportionment bills. As in any private labor-management dispute, early attention to the Senators' grievances might have prevented the Geerlings public attack and the nine other votes which went to professional strategist Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski's apportionment plans.

Still another aspect of the somewhat blurred Romney image came the following day in the formal announcement by Ferndale auto dealer George Higgins that he would seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination against the incumbent.

The dangers to Romney incumbent in Higgins' announcement were immediately apparent to most regular Capitol observers. Lack of Democratic primary for governor and the Michigan law allowing switch-voting in the preliminary contest could give the "out party" a much better chance to get in again.

Enough Democrats voting Republican for Higgins in the primary could push Romney completely out of the political arena in the state. Chances of this seem unlikely, however.

Merger of state agencies will wait until 1965, unless a decision is made for a special session on the matter.

The new Constitution gave the Legislature two years to accomplish the reorganization of some 130 boards and agencies into 20 or fewer state agencies. If this is not done in that time, the reorganization will become the Governor's responsibility. Some progress was made toward this goal in the current session. In its way through the Senate, the proposal for reorganization was changed to meet objections of some groups. Stoppage of the bill in a House committee was blamed on the shortage of time to consider it. The problems of reorganization are very vivid. No one wants his ox gored.

Dr. Albert Heustis, State Health Commissioner, wants a single unit to handle all the state health functions, but he disclaims personal ambition to head any new agency which would be formed.

Acting Mental Health Director Charles Wagg, however, says the many duties of his department preclude its being absorbed into a giant, multi-purpose health unit.

Educational activities of state government should all be brought under jurisdiction of the State Department of Education, says Lynn M. Bartlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

He proposes this include the State Historical Commission, but Secretary of State James Hare contends the commission is and should remain a part of his department.

Legislators in both houses will find it difficult to distinguish between the personal ambitions and the reasonable arguments from these and other state bureaucrats in attempting the reorganization.

It is reasonably certain every effort will be made to effect the merger in the Legislature, rather than having it done by one man.

An excited little girl danced into the house clinging to a paper bag. It looked like an ordinary bag — but nothing could have been more special.

"It's for you mother it's for Mother's Day, you can't open it yet, I made it at school, but you can't see it yet," she exclaimed in a single breath.

An ordinary paper bag with a surprise inside.

For mother, the little surprise gift was a precious treasure. It was her first from her five-year-old. Just the thought of a gift from her daughter was a thrill for mom.

But children have a habit of compounding treasures.

She placed her mother's gift on the book shelf, in view of everyone who entered the room. And if someone failed to see it, she bubbled over again, "It's for mother, it's for Mother's Day, you can't see it yet, I won't tell you, but I made it in school, all the kids made them for their mothers."

So the ordinary paper bag clung to its secret atop the book shelf.

The next day the little girl paraded her friends through the house and purposely marched them past the book shelf and the paper bag. Each little friend was told about the gift inside — without, of course, learning of the gift's identity.

But with each passing hour it obviously was becoming more and more difficult to keep her secret.

Finally, as her mother tucked her into bed that evening before Mother's Day, away from the prying ears of sister and brother, she whispered: "The teacher told us the mothers could peek at the surprise just before Mother's Day — if they wanted."

Mother told her she would wait. So the anxious little girl had to wait too.

It must have been a restless night, because when the first rays of sunlight fell on Mother's Day she swept the ordinary paper bag from its perch and raced into her mother's room.

"Here's your present, open it, you can see it now," she exploded.

Then it was open and mother held a paper butterfly. With it was a decorated piece of paper — a card — that contained a scribbled name "Mother".

"Do you like it, I made it myself, do you like it?" "It's beautiful...."
