New Chamber Elects Ebert to Presidency

The Northville Community Chamber of Commerce officially came into being last week. By-laws were adopted and the first board of directors elected Wednesday evening, May 20.

The new directors then met last Tuesday evening and elected Dempsey Ebert first president of the new community-wide organization.

The complete slate of directors as elected by a meeting of approximately 30 businessmen includes:

Three year terms — John J. Carlo, Dempsey Ebert, John Macauley; Two year terms — Keith Deacon, Dr. L. W. Snow, Mrs. Margaret Zayti; One year terms — Howard Atwood, Thomas Quinn and Wynn Wakenhut.

Other officers elected in addition to President Ebert were: Wakenhut, vice president; Mrs. Zayti, secretary; and Deacon, treasurer.

Board Speeds Through Agenda

Northville's school board moved through its official agenda in record time Monday night adjourning at 9:30 p.m.

The board then went into executive session with administrators to discuss disciplinary actions involving several high school students.

Progress was reported in signing teachers for the 1964-65 school year by Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant superintendent of schools. The board approved four contracts: Donna Love, junior high school math; Robert Kucher, high school science; Judith Dombrowski, special education at Amerman; and Rita Deighton, second or fourth grade.

One resignation was announced, Miss Mabel Bowers, vocal music teacher at Amerman and the junior high school. Miss Bowers is in ill health.

Dr. MacLeod reported that five teacher berths remain to be filled. But he noted that to date the school had signed everyone of its "first choices."

E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services, reported that two new 66-passenger buses will be purchased at a total cost of $14,008.32. The board also voted to advertise for bids on the school bus insurance.

Parade, Services To Honor War Dead

Traditional Memorial Day services will be held Saturday promptly at 9:30 a.m.

Walter Sousa of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post is in charge of the program to honor our country's war dead.

The observance is scheduled to last about one and one-half hours, said Sousa, and will feature a parade led by the Northville high school band and representatives of the VFW and American Legion and auxiliaries, boy scout and girl scout troops and the usual contingent of youngsters riding decorated bicycles and other vehicles.

The band and marching units will form at the American Legion post home at 9 a.m. and step off promptly at 9:30 a.m. The parade will march along Dunlap to Hutton, Hutton to Main and east on Main to Wing street.

The marchers will then turn down Wing to Cady and stop at Oakwood cemetery where a VFW firing squad will fire a salute at the Veterans grave.

From Oakwood the parade will continue to Rural Hill cemetery. The Navy's war dead will be remembered by the traditional dropping of a wreath in the Rouge River and the firing of a salute by the American Legion.

Official ceremonies will take place at the Veterans Plot in Rural Hill cemetery.

Invocation will be given by the Reverend Robert Spradling, pastor of the First Baptist church of Northville.

The principle address will be given by Ernest Stratyck, state commander of the VFW.

Terry LaRue, a high school senior, will also give a brief address in memory of our nation's war heroes.

The program will conclude with the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, a joint salute by the firing squads of the American Legion and VFW and the playing of taps.

Rows of Reminders of Fallen Heroes

'Mobile Home' Rage Hits Novi

Novi has been hit by a rash of "mobile home rezoning requests."

So many, in fact, that the village council and planning board has called for a special public hearing to air at least four, and possibly six, proposed sites.

One of the locations under consideration is on Beck road, not too far from Northville Estates. The proposal has brought strong protests from both cities of Northville and Novi residents.

The council and planners decided Monday night to toss all the requests into a single meeting, June 29 at the Novi Community building.

Four such requests have come from individuals. The council has two sites of its own in mind and may well add those to the growing list.

Planners received two requests in April — one from Frank L. Davis for a 20-acre site on Beck road near Nine Mile and another from Russell Butten for property south of I-96 on the east side of Novi road extending to Eleven Mile road.

Monday night a request was received from Robert R. Flynn to rezone 40 acres on the south side of Ten Mile road near Beck from AG to R-3 for mobile homes.

A letter from Joseph T. Brennan, representing Patrick Mason who holds an option on 30 acres on the east side of Seeley road, requested rezoning from R-1H to R-3 for mobile home units. The property is reportedly now owned by Harold and Viola E. Seeley, Esther

M. White and Winifred M. Proctor.

Meanwhile, the council has called a meeting for June 8 to consider mobile home zoning for two parcels recommended by the village consultant as suitable and logical sites for mobile home districts. Both of these proposed sites are on Haggerty, one on the west side at Ten Mile and the other north of I-96.

In other business Monday night the council-planners approved a request by Ralph Buffmeyer for rezoning some 120 acres R-1H at West road and Pontiac trail to permit construction of an 18-hole golf course.

A request by Leo Harwood to rezone approximately five acres of his property on Novi road north of Grand River from R-1F to C-2 was turned down. A petition signed by 11 residents of the area opposed the request.

Council-planners rezoned approximately 20 acres at the southwest corner of Haggerty and Grand River from agricultural to M-2. The request was made by Jack T. MacFarlane to permit erection of storage and office facilities.

Planners then received a request from B. J. Pollard to rezone 60 acres on Novi road near Oakland Hills cemetery for another cemetery. The property is now zoned R-1. Planners referred the bid to their consultant to determine whether R-1 permits cemetery use.

No decision was reached on a request from Village Councilman Ray D. Harrison to rezone 1.29 acres at Twelve Mile near Novi road from R-1F to C-1. The request was referred to the consultant for determination.

SMOOTH — Residents of old Baseline road are happier these days. The Detroit water line is installed and the inconvenience of construction gone. What's more the new road is smoother than ever.

Township OK's Detroit Water Pact

Northville township completed final details this week in clearing the way for installation of a water system and purchase of Detroit water.

In a public hearing held Monday evening the board approved final confirmation of the assessment roll for 18 homes in Plymouth Gardens subdivision. Many of the wells serving the homes in the southeastern section of the township have run dry.

Under the terms of the special assessment project water lines will be constructed in the area at a per-lot-benefit cost of $1,358.67.

Tuesday morning Supervisor R. D. Merriam signed a water contract with the city of Detroit.

According to the supervisor, documents for the bond issue to finance the project should be ready for approval at the June 2 board meeting. He said municipal finance corporation approval requires from six weeks to 90 days. He expects construction of the water system can begin within 90 days.

Until the Detroit water line is extended from Baseline at Center in Northville to the Wayne County Training School Northville township will receive its supply through a line now serving the Training School and running through the southeast section of the township. The Detroit supply would come through Livonia. When the new extension is completed, the township will assume ownership of the old Training School line and the supply will be reversed, coming from the direction of the Training School, rather than through Livonia.

Coach David Longridge asked board permission to use school facilities one night a week during the summer so that boys wishing to take physical education and basketball training on a voluntary basis could do so. There would be no charge.

Longridge said he would be assisted by Ron Horwath in the program. The board had no objections but asked that the request be re-submitted when it was learned if the program could come under the recreation program.

A suggestion that school be closed either Friday or Monday for the Memorial holiday was not acted upon.

Closed Monday — Because Northville city offices will be closed Monday in observance of the Saturday Memorial Day holiday, the regularly scheduled city council meeting will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Township Denies Gravel Permits

Two requests to remove sand and gravel from parcels on Bradner road in Northville township were denied last week by the board of appeals.

Two hearings were held earlier in May and the board spent two study sessions considering the requests.

One application came from Alex Gordon to remove sand and gravel from about 96 acres on the east side of Bradner north of Elk road. The request had indicated that land needed leveling for development of a proposed 192-home subdivision.

The second application was made by the Fruehauf company. It involved 160 acres owned by Robert Haass on the south side of Six Mile and east of Bradner. The township engineer estimated this request would result in the removal of 875,000 cubic yards.

In denying the requests the three member board, composed of Gunnar Stromberg, Alex Lawrence and John Miller, outlined the following reasons:

- 1 — the premises are zoned R-1;
- 2 — removal of the sand and gravel would not improve the property;
- 3 — premises as presently existing are admirably suited for residential subdivision use;
- 4 — that the proposed sand and gravel operation create an area too low for gravity drainage to the interceptor sewer;
- 5 — sanitary sewer currently available and water supply imminent;
- 6 — earth moving should be confined to site proper and used for filling low areas;
- 7 — proposed operation would also tend to diminish market value of adjacent land and buildings, create a nuisance and impair general welfare.

STATE CHAMP — Jim St. Germain, Northville high school junior, topped all high school golfers in the state by firing a 71 over the Midland course at the state high school tourney last Saturday (See page 7 of this section).

Robert Turnbull, a freshman at Michigan State University, took part in the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "The Pirates of Penzance" presented last week by the university's Performing Arts Company. In the first act he played the part of one of the pirates and in the second act he was a policeman. Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Turnbull of Thayer boulevard, along with Mrs. C. B. Turnbull, Mrs. Pearl Lundquist, Dave Lane, and James Diew attended the Saturday night performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Simpson, 19620 Clement road, returned last weekend from a vacation trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg.

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist church of Northville will hold its annual picnic at 6:30 p.m., June 2 at the home of Mrs. Rhea Wilcox, 129 West Cady. The regular auction will be conducted.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Fred Greer of South Rogers street last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Macomber of Ann Arbor.

Readers Speak Carnival Workers Praised

To the Editor:

We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who participated in this year's PTA Carnival. First of all, we want to thank all the people and children who came to the Carnival and, we hope, had a lot of fun. Also, our thanks go to the school administration, teachers and custodial staff. The complete tally of receipts is not finalized, but it appears that income was more than 10 per cent over last year, setting a new record. The four PTA's in Northville will be able to continue their program of providing scholarships to graduating seniors, buying equipment for the schools, supporting the safety patrol and service girls, and numerous other activities.

We especially want to thank the General Chairman of the Carnival, John Wisner; the Senior Midway Chairmen, F. P. Gazlay and I. F. Marburger; Outside Activities Chairmen, A. J. Prodder and G. E. Diebert; Junior Midway chairman John Gorczynski; Dinner Chairman, Mrs. A. R. Hempe, Jr.; Door Prize Chairman, Myron Utley; and Publicity Chairman, D. G. Day. Each of these people received tremendous support and help from the numerous mothers and fathers and service organizations in manning the booths, and the services of each and every individual too numerous to mention are appreciated. This is truly a community-wide effort and provides good community fun for a worthy cause each year. Everyone in the Northville area should be very proud. We hope next year's Carnival will be even bigger and better.

To the Editor:

My, didn't all the folks look nice last Thursday wearing those "Purty red flowers". Would you thank all those people for us, I spent the day last Thursday, in the street in front of your office and I tried to thank everyone for their thoughtfulness. However, the traffic must keep moving and I didn't get a chance to answer all the questions and I may have even forgot to thank someone.

I hope that all the people know that their contributions, (every cent, whether large or small) is used to aid needy veterans and their families. Some of the money collected is forwarded to our Department and National Officers to help carry out our Veteran Rehabilitation programs on the State and National Level. However, most of the money is retained by our own Post and is spent right here in our own Community. The motto of our organization is "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living". The people of Northville, by their generous support will help us keep this motto working.

One other observation. There is much talk these days about juvenile delinquency, and a recent report from our neighboring big city seems to indicate that the problem is getting bigger all the time. If we have this problem in Northville they took a day off last Thursday. Car after car of students drove past me. Many bought those "purty little red flowers." Some of the cars containing many students pooled their money and bought one flower for the car. Little children bought Poppies with their pennies. Most important, these were smiling, wholesome kids; no cutting remarks, off color words or unkind deeds. Tell the people of Northville they can be proud of their children.

Don't forget to get up early on Memorial Day. The Parade starts at 9:30 a.m. and when the band plays and Our Flag goes by, let's all take a deep breath of Free Air and stand real tall. It sure feels great to be an American.

Yours very truly,

LET'S TALK CARS

When Can You Get the Best Deal on A New Car?

We're often asked that question and we usually answer factually that ANY time of the year you are assured of better than average value for your money from John Mach in terms of trading difference, honest dealing and warranty guarantees.

The point is well taken though. Because there is, in general terms, a best time to get the least trading difference on a new car purchase. Common sense will tell you that that time is when the dealer can realize the most money for your car.

That time is right now, when the annual Spring rush of used car buyers provides a peak market for used cars taken in from new car buyers. A rapid used car inventory turnover means less inventory cost to the dealer; rising market prices on used cars up the figure at which a dealer can afford to take a used car in. Finally, it is the season he sets his sights on increased volume.

If you buy your new car from John Mach you can be sure that it has been thoroughly serviced after shipment from the factory. Wheel alignment, engine performance, body tightness — in fact, some seventy odd check points are adjusted by a mechanic looking for flaws. The process usually requires at least a day.

We could just skip this work and save the expense, but instead we take extra special pains with it. Experience shows that conscientious 'pre-delivery service' pays dividends on the investment. The dividends are the customer's future business and recommendations to his friends.

NHS LINKSTERS — Beaming over the first place trophy that they won the week before last in the regional tournament are (l-r) Rick Talbot, Bob Regenhart, Jim St. Germain, Coach Al Jones and Jim Bertoni. The squad also took fifth place in the state class B tournament this past week and second place in the Pontiac meet.

TOP PUTTERS — The putting contest sponsored by Del's Shoes, Lapham's and Stone's Gamble Store attracted hundreds of enthusiastic golfers, but only 100 reached the finals. And the top 100 were reduced to this trio of winners in play-offs Saturday morning. Pictured (l-r) are Del Black and Charles Lapham with the first, second and third place winners — John Andrews, Ed Wilson and Bruce Dayton — and LeRoy Stone. Andrews sunk six out of 12 tries over the three courses in the finals and won a $50 gift certificate. Wilson defeated Dayton in a play-off for second and won a caddy cart. Hush Puppie shoes were the third prize.

Vandy Elects Bill Juday

Bill Juday, veteran lineman for Vanderbilt University and former All State griddler for Northville high school was honored by his fellow team mates by being named co-captain of the 1964 Vandy eleven.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Juday of 304 Lake street.

Thinclads Disappoint In W-C, State Finals

While the local pole vault record went up, up, up — thanks to the efforts of Kent Kipper — the fortunes of Northville's track team in Wayne-Oakland competition went down, down, down.

For the third time this year, Kipper cracked the school pole vault mark, the last time being Tuesday of last week in the league meet at Clarenceville. His vault of 11 feet eight and three-quarter inches, however, was good for only second place.

In Kipper's big chance in the state finals Saturday at East Lansing, he failed to qualify at 10 feet 10 inches. Coach Roy Herald explained that it was "just one of those days". Kipper had cleared that height frequently this year.

But competition in the state finals was better than ever. Held on the same day as the Big Ten outdoor meet, the preppers bettered the collegians' marks in four or five events.

The top high school pole vault record, for instance, was 13 feet seven and three-quarter inches.

Northville's efforts in the league track meet at Clarenceville were disappointing. The Mustangs garnered only four and one-half points. Milford took first, Bloomfield Hills second and Clarenceville third.

Only senior Terry Winner in the 220 qualified for the finals in the dashes, but he failed to place. Northville's entrants did run strong thirds in the sprints however. And most of them were freshmen and sophomores.

Ralph Caliguri copped a third in the preliminary hurdles and the 880-yard relay team tied for fifth in the league.

St. Germain Cops State Golf Honors

In the eyes of Northville's young prep golfers, the grass is getting greener and greener on the links as they open up new vistas in tournament competition.

The new all-class state medalist champion is Northville's Jim St. Germain, who fired a sparkling 35-36-71, one under par, Saturday at the Currie Golf Course in Midland. Another laurel was heaped on St. Germain, when he shot a par 35-39-74 Monday in the Pontiac Press tournament to win class B medalist honors.

St. Germain's teammates also scored well to help bring new team honors back to Northville. The Mustangs improved on last year's seventh place finish in the state class B finals by copping fifth place with a four-man total of 326.

But after a two year class B reign in the Pontiac Press tourney, Northville was upended by West Bloomfield, 414 to 419. Coach Al Jones noted that his golfers played well in the state competition, but a lack of depth in the Pontiac meet hurt the Mustangs' chances for a repeat championship.

The state tourney furnished some surprises with defending champion, Kalamazoo University high, and Whitehall, tying for first with 319's, and Ludington and Jackson St. Johns carding 322's to finish in a dead heat.

As a result of the ties, Northville members will be awarded third place medals, no mean feat in a field of 15 top class B teams.

Other team scores in Midland were Jim Bertoni 41-41-82, Rick Talbot 39-44-83, and Bob Regenhart 45-45-90.

Bloomfield Hills, a team, Northville beat by 20 points in the regionals last week, furnished an upset surprise in the all-class Pontiac meet by registering a five-man team total of 385, an average of 77 strokes per man.

Bloomfield thus beat the previous record of 397 by a wide margin. It topped a field of 20 strong class A and B entrants.

Besides St. Germain's 74, Bertoni carded a 79, Talbot and Regenhart 83's and Mike Hohenic scored 100.

Teams in order of finish behind winning Bloomfield Hills were Rochester (403), Southfield (408), Royal Oak Kimball and Milford (408), defending champion, Walled Lake, and Waterford (412), West Bloomfield (414), Northville (419), Waterford, Kettering (423), Clawson (432), Oak Park (436), Pontiac Northern (440), Leeper (443), Royal Oak Shrine (445), St. Fredericks (454), Ferndale (456) and St. Michel (500).

The irony of Northville's loss of the Pontiac title lies in the fact that last week Tuesday Northville beat West Bloomfield, decisively, 184-187, at Draper Country Club.

St. Germain led the field again with a 39, followed by Bertoni's 41, and Talbot's and Bennett's 42's. West Bloomfield scores were 44, 44, 49 and 50.

Peterson Hurls Two-Hit Shut-Out

Northville's ace twirler Eric Peterson pitched his strongest game of the season, last Thursday, winning, 4-0, then did an about face against Holly, losing, 8-4. Both were home contests. Peterson was in control all the way against West Bloomfield, limiting the visitors to just two singles, walking only one and striking out six.

A big three run first frame was all that Peterson needed.

Second sacker, Larry Angove started the surge by singling to left. Centerfielder Larry Belter, safe on an error, was cut down at second while Angove proceeded to third. Catcher Doug Swiss spanked a single to left to drive Angove across with the first run.

Howie Jones followed with another single. Swiss then scored on Mach's single. The third marker was scored by Swiss, who came around when Jerry Imsland's grounder was muffed.

A combination of two walks, a hunt single and a fielder's choice brought the final Northville run across in the sixth. Leading the Northville attack was Swiss with two singles.

Even with an all-underclassmen squad, the Mustangs posted a respectable 5-9 season slate and a 5-5 record in W-O league competition.

Considering that the team was young and inexperienced, Coach Dick Norton noted that his boys just about lived up to his pre-season expectations. He added that he was pleased with their progress.

In hopes of engendering more tennis enthusiasm amongst grade schoolers and to feel out freshmen potential, Norton has scheduled a few matches for seventh and eighth grade hopefuls.

Success did not mark Northville's season finale. In the final dual meet and regional play, the local netters salvaged only two matches, both in doubles competition.

Larry Thibos-Tom French copped Northville's lone victory in the first round of the class B regional tournament at Cranbrook Friday by winning, 6-4, 7-5. But they were tripped-up the second time around, 6-4, 2-6, 2-6.

The duo of Dave Schmidt-Tom Long posted the other win in Wednesday's encounter with visiting Walled Lake, which Northville lost 6-1. Their winning margin was 3-6, 6-4, 6-8.

In other regional matches, Bob Langtry was sidetracked in the second round, 6-0, 8-6, after gaining a bye in the first. The doubles team of Schmidt-Long suffered the same manner of defeat, but by the close score of 6-4, 2-6, 6-8.

Eliminated their first time out were Rick Ricketts, 6-0, 6-2, and Jim Wiedner-Randy Caliguri, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Norbert Parent, who extended his man to three sets with Walled Lake, was the only other entrant to come close to victory in Northville's loss.

Holly climbed all over Peterson Monday, scoring five times against him in six innings. But reliever Steve Evans, who came on in the seventh, suffered more humiliation by giving up three runs.

Holly's victory was no mistake as it pounded out 11 hits, including two solid circuit clouts, one a two-run homer off Evans.

Northville, on the other hand, could muster only six hits. Jones provided the big shot, a triple leading off the seventh frame. He also collected a single to lead the local attack.

The Mustangs never held the lead as Holly tallied twice in the first, once each in the second, third and sixth and three times in the seventh.

The Northville Jayvees absorbed their worst defeat of the season Monday when Detroit Catholic Central hung one on, 18-1.

It was a run away from the beginning as the Colts booted the ball to make things easy for Detroit. In addition, the local squad was unable to muster any steam of its own.

The JV's season record now stands at 3-8 with one game remaining on the schedule.

WHY should you buy a Studebaker?

Because it's good common sense. Studebaker's shape means small car maneuverability without sacrifice in comfort. It's compact front and rear, but full-size in the living room. Its style doesn't change from year to year, so your investment is protected, and so is your resale. Studebaker has big 15-inch wheels (most other cars are 13 or 14) for better roadability and longer tire wear. Its Armor Guard frame is durable. And, its performance is economical. Your dealer invites you to see, hear, and feel the 28 extra value features that make Studebaker the Common-Sense car.

Northville High School to Send Biggest Contingent to Boys State

For the second successive year, more Northville High school students than students from any other Michigan school will attend Wolverine Boys State in June.

According to John Steimel, chairman of the Boys' State program for the Lloyd H. Green Post 147, a total of 29 Northville sophomores and juniors will attend the week-long assembly slated for June 18 to 25 on the campus of Michigan State university.

Last year, 28 boys attended from the local high school.

Boys State candidates, who represent either the sophomore or junior classes, are individually sponsored by civic, social, fraternal, governmental and patriotic organizations in Northville and Novi.

Assisting Steimel in lining up Novi sponsors for Novi boys attending Northville high school was Dicron Taffalio, coordinator.

Primary objective of Boys' State is to stimulate boys to take a deep interest in the development of home and community life and to encourage them to be better citizens of tomorrow.

"Wolverine Boys' State," explains Steimel, gives attending boys a knowledge of national, state and local government through actual practice.

"It gives them a state of their own, a session governing themselves through democratic procedures by becoming elected officials of towns, counties and state. In this way the boys have an opportunity of learning first hand about the government of their state.

The cry of the people today in this world of unrest is "Know Your Government." The American Legion has a key to this in their Wolverine Boys' State program.

As soon as the boy reaches the university campus, he is assigned to a "city" and maintains permanent residence in that "city" for the entire period of Boys' State. He is assigned to one of two political parties, and is identified with that party until after the elections when the entire program is conducted on a non-partisan basis.

The "51st State" functions under these political subdivisions for a period of eight days under the basic laws of the State of Michigan, using the Constitution of the State of Michigan and the Constitution of the United States as basis for their political activities.

The caucus and convention system is used throughout Boys' State in the nomination of candidates for city, county and state offices.

Three accepted divisions of government, including judicial, legislative and administrative branches, are formed and are under the supervision of chief counsellors.

The Boy Governor, with the approval and consent of the Boys' State Senate, makes appointments to fill the various appointive positions throughout the Boys' State, corresponding as nearly as possible to the actual Michigan setup.

Northville high school boys attending the assembly and their sponsors are: Bob Fisher, 21501 Currie road, Northville Exchange Club; Bob Beller, 771 Horton street, Northville Optimist Club; Jim Ritchie, 821 Spring Drive, Northville P-TA; Jerry Lyke, 21550 Napier, UAW-CIO Local 896; Gregg Penn, 46150 Main street, Northville Lodge No. 186, F.&A.M.; William Jansen, 39700 Grand River, General Filters, Inc.; Jim Berton, 40640 Eight Mile road, Ray Warren Excavating Service;

"There is no power but of God." This Golden Text from Romans (ch. 13) establishes the theme of this Sunday's Bible Lesson at all Christian Science churches. The subject is "Ancient and Modern Necro-mancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."
Some of the Bible readings tell about the building of the wall at Jerusalem through Nehemiah's acknowledgment that
"The God of heaven, he will prosper us" (Neh. 2).
Passages from "Science and Truth" with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "There is no power apart from God. Omni-potence has all-power, and to acknowledge any other power is to dishonor God" (p. 228).

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. Lloyd Brasure
First Presbyterian Church

In the 22nd chapter of the book of Proverbs, we read these words, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." This verse has been used many times by those who firmly believe in the neces- sity for teaching the grow- ing minds of the commu- nity the responsibilities and obligations set out in reli- gious doctrine and forms of worship. The several parts of the religious community of Northville, each in its own way and place sub- scribe to this practice, and take time, people and mon- ey to provide this instruc- tion. This well and good. However, I feel there is a large segment of the teaching community that is large- ly overlooked who also give of their time and talent in teaching certain self-evid- ent truths of great moral worth and importance. They are not in the strict sense, religious, or Church teachers, but they are by their sense of loyalty to truth and goodness, giv- ing of themselves to pre- serve the rights of mankind and the orderly processes of the inquiring mind. The teachers in the schools of this community regularly offer instruction to the chil- dren from our homes in the many areas of knowledge and what is necessary to be properly equipped to live and give as they grow into adulthood and attain a greater degree of responsible maturity.

I feel I owe a great deal to the men and women of our school system who do this great service. I have known many of them through the years and have learned to have an abiding re- spect for their patience, their persistence and their devotion to their chosen pro- fession.

Protests Bus Service For Non-Public Students

Dear Editor:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion..." Clearly, succinctly and unmistakably Article I of the amendments to our constitution sought to avoid the pitfalls encountered by our fore- bearings who left the Eurasean continent to escape the results of an amalgamation of church and state.

I would be less than faithful to the precepts of my belief in the freedoms I cherish, if I didn't protest, publicly, the transgression announced by the Northville School District, though allowed by State Law, that it was preparing to act to afford transportation to students attending non-public schools. This action, in my opinion, does use the power inherent in our system of public education to promote the private in- terests of a sectarian group. How, may I ask, does this action square with the first article mentioned above? Is this not making an enforcing a "law respecting an establish- ment of religion"? Am I not forced, upon penalty of fine and confiscation of property if I fail to pay my taxes, to sup- port the tenets of a religious group which I may reject alto- gether?

I question whether those citi- zens who worked towards im- plementing the transportation of non-public students to their destinations gave sufficient thought to the implications of their action. These things have a propensity for enlarging themselves, sort of like the camel allowed to get its nose under one side of the tent.

There may be some who will wonder at the kind of person who would deny little children a ride to their school, especial- ly if one conjures a day of cold, wind and sleet. What an abom- inable ogre, such a person must be! Yet, unless we explore all the possible ramifications of our actions, we might awake some fine morning to find that the quality of our freedoms has deteriorated, and our free- dom of thought restricted.

I invite you to study the re- sults of church-state union by reviewing the experience of Protestant groups in Spain, Portugal and Columbia.

Cordially,

Jehovah's Witnesses To Hold Seminar Here

Announcement was made this week of a large convention to be held at the Northville High school in Northville on June 19-21.

According to Mr. C. Carson Coonce, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, it is ex- pected that nearly 1,000 dele- gates will be in attendance at the three day seminar.

The event will bring together 16 southeastern Michigan con- gregations comprising Michi- gan Circuit No. 8.

"This convention," said Mr. Coonce, "will further the under- standing and good will among the various races and national- ities of Jehovah's Witnesses, and will also forcefully demon- strate how the Bible message and Christian living can unite people from all walks of life, regardless of race or other backgrounds that tend to divide the world."

"Only common interest in the pure worship of the Creator, Jehovah God, can do this," he concluded.

Although the program ar- ranged by circuit minister D. F. Bowman will use 17 dif- ferent ministers, the principal speaker for the meet will be J. W. Filson district director of Jehovah's Witnesses through- out Michigan. Mr. Filson will address the assembly on Sun- day at 3 p.m. on the subject "Facing Up to the Urgency of Our Times".

An interesting feature of the assembly will be the showing of a color motion picture of the 1963 "Around-the-World" tour of Jehovah's Witness- es during which delegates from this country travelled more than 26,000 miles, stayed

City Hall Wins Citizen Praise at Dedication Ceremony

Northville officially opened its new municipal building Thursday evening at dedication and open house ceremonies held in conjunction with the week-long Michigan Week observance.

More than 400 citizens toured the facility during the day with about half that number attending the dedication ceremonies.

Officials of the program, chairmaned by Clerk Martha Milne, report nary a criticism. The taxpayers liked what they saw.

The building and grounds shined for the occasion. Landscaping was completed in the front "just in time" and the weather cooperated to make the occasion a success.

The only portion of the new building not yet in use is the library. But shelving arrived last week and the move from the old library across the street to the new, two-level facility should be completed within a month.

Northville high school's band under the direction of Robert Williams opened Thursday evening's program. The Reverend E. E. Rossow, formerly of St. Paul's Lutheran church and now in Saginaw, gave the invocation. Mayor A. M. Allen introduced members of the official family, past village and city officials and members of the Northville township government in attendance.

Following the official ceremonies tours of the building were conducted. Members of the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce assisted as tour guides, while girl scouts of troops 236, 222 and 574 under the direction of Leaders Mrs. Alex Johnson, Mrs. Fred Russell and Mrs. Douglas Lorenz served refreshments and handled the guest book.

Paintings by Michigan artists were displayed by Hartley Powers Gallery, a tradition that will continue in the city hall. Photographs and documents of old Northville were displayed by Edmund Yerkes.

Mrs. Milne was assisted in program arrangements by Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. John Burkman, Jack Ruland and William Sliger.

The State Championship Color Guard team from the American Legion performed at the presentation of American and state flags to the city hall by the Lloyd H. Green post. State Commander C. Oscar Hammond presented the flags to Mayor Allen.

JUST FOR FUN — The photographer wanted to get a picture of someone in the police department's new jail. So the Ringle sisters, Deborah and Sharon, volunteered. They attended the dedication and open house with their mother.

Present and past community officials sat to the right of the speakers' table in front of the new city hall. About 200 citizens attended the brief ceremony Thursday evening. Congresswoman Martha Griffiths sent regrets at being unable to attend. Governor George Romney was represented by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt, who read a telegram from the Governor saying "next time I'm in Northville I'll look forward to touring your new building."

The Northville Record—Novi News—Thursday, May 28, 1964 Section Two — Page 3

Northville Businessman Nelson C. Schrader made the dedication address. He called the new municipal building the result of citizen interest and participation in community affairs.

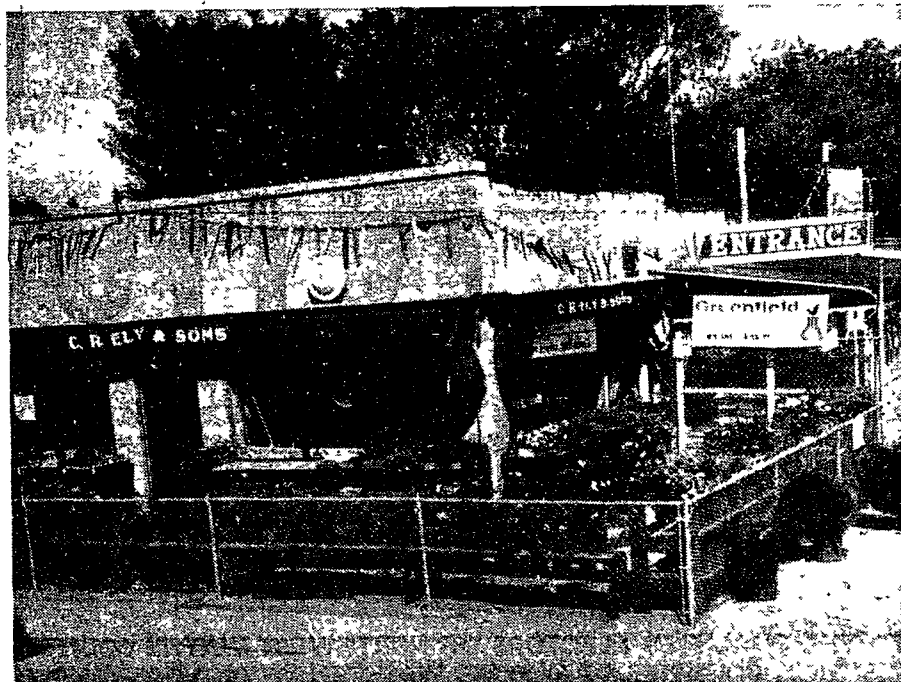

Mayor A. M. Allen uncovered the cornerstone, which had been set when the building was under construction. He noted that a metal tube behind the stone contained a history of the building and Northville, "so when our great, great grandchildren replace this with a modern building they'll know all about us."

TURN the steering wheel on Bolens newest riding mower. Ordinary riding mowers have four wheels on a one-piece frame. Turning requires a "wide sweep," or a series of "back-ups" to make square corners. Bolens new Lawn Keeper is a riding mower with a two-piece frame. And the frame does the turning! Turn the steering wheel and this one pivots within a 14-inch radius. Jaycees "Clean Up"

Survey Shows Library Use

Over a million people used public libraries in Michigan during the week of February 10-15, 1964. The Michigan State Library sponsored a state-wide survey of Michigan libraries during that week and the Northville Public Library was one of the 271 participating libraries. The survey counted circulation of books only and made no effort to measure the use of reference and other special services.

The survey showed that one out of every three students enrolled in the elementary and secondary schools in the state used books in their local public library during the week. Over 135,000 business men and women and 140,000 housewives were users of the library. In the Northville Public Library, 89 were students, 32 were from industry, and 44 were housewives, reports Northville Librarian, Ruth Richwenger.

The Northville Public Library users checked "Personal" in 132 cases explaining their use of the library and 52 uses were for school. Statewide, the most uses of books were for personal reasons, then for school, and then for job related reasons.

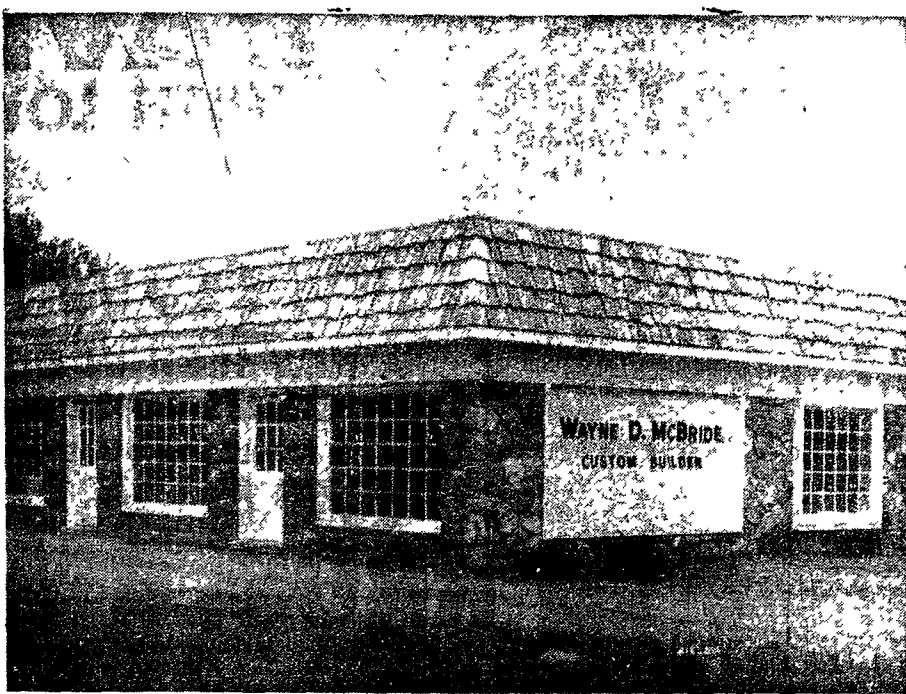

State Hospital Nurses To Graduate June 5

Graduation exercises for attendant nurses will be held on June 5 at 8 p.m. at Northville State Hospital. Twenty-six attendant nurses who have completed the inservice training program, comprising 200 hours of class instructions and 200 hours of supervised clinical practice, will participate in the graduation exercises.

Certificates issued by the Department of Mental Health will be presented by the Director of Nursing, Alfred P. Galli, R.N., Richard Lilly, M.D., Assistant Medical Superintendent of the hospital, will be the speaker. A reception for relatives and friends of the graduates will follow.

In the history of the hospital, this will be the seventh graduation. In 1962 a basic curriculum was established for all the state hospitals in Michigan. The purpose of the educational program is to prepare the attendant nurse for his responsibilities on the nursing team and enables him to develop skills required for nursing of the mentally ill patient.

Miss Florence Glinicki, R.N., Ann Arbor, is instructor for the attendant nurses, assisted by Miss Kathleen Phillips, R.N., Detroit and Mrs. Aldean Chubb, L.P.A.M., Livonia.

NEW BUILDING — Builder Wayne McBride constructed these new offices for his own business at 43322 West Seven Mile road. At the same time he included a shop for his wife. It's called "Northville Village Shoppe" and will handle wallpapers, fabrics, carpeting and an interior decorating service.

Billie R. Canada, 20, of Plymouth, charged with speeding 80 in a 55 zone and also with being a minor in possession, pleaded guilty of both charges in Northville justice court on May 9. Judge Charles McDonald fined him $35, $10 costs or 15 days in jail for speeding, and $25, $5 costs or five days for being a minor in possession.

On May 1, Charles W. Lancaster, Jr. of North Carolina, who was visiting his parents in Plymouth, was arrested for reckless driving at Park Place and Main street. He posted a $100 cash bond pending arraignment on May 11. On that date he pleaded guilty and was fined $35 and $5 or 10 days.

Two charges were brought against William J. Koppel Jr. of Livonia, who was arraigned on May 11. He pleaded guilty of speeding and of having improper license plates, and was fined $35 for the former and $5 for the latter.

Baxter Boozier, a Maybury Sanatorium patient was sentenced to 30 days in jail and was fined $25 and $10 costs upon pleading guilty May 11 of possession of alcoholic beverage at the sanatorium on the previous day.

Troy VanEvery of 40941 West Eight Mile road was fined $75, $5 costs and was sentenced to five days in jail on April 21 for driving under a revoked operator's license. He is to serve an additional 30 days in jail if the fine is not paid.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

An article in the metropolitan press last week brought repercussions in Northville.

The first reaction came from Charles McDonauld, city of Northville's justice.

City police were also concerned, as well as a few township citizens and the majority, if not all, the township board members.

The rhubarb involves township constables — specifically, William L. Scott of Farmington township and Richard Mitchell of Northville.

The former won himself some publicity by using a flashing light on his car, wearing a bright, blue constable's uniform and badge, toting a gun and patrolling Northwestern highway traffic.

Oakland county circuit court ruled that the constable had to take the flasher off his car.

Scott declared he was doing his duty. But the Oakland county sheriff's office and Farmington township police take a dim view of his activities.

And the Farmington township police chief was quoted as saying (in the metropolitan press) that Farmington justice courts would not take his business and that he had been "taking his violations to Northville."

Not so, emphatically declares Judge McDonauld.

"Not one ticket has been received from the Farmington constable, nor from any other constable. It is our policy not to accept any tickets from constables because it is our belief that they are not duly qualified traffic policemen," concludes the Northville judge.

How does the Constable Scott episode involve Northville Township Constable Mitchell?

They're friends. One week ago last Sunday they patroled Shadbrook subdivision together—in their blue uniforms, badges and guns.

On another evening they radioed the city police department (over the citizens band radio-equipped car) that they had four boys they had arrested for speeding. They wanted to bring the boys to the Northville city police department.

Wisely, the dispatcher said they were free to use the public telephone in the lobby, but could not use city police facilities. According to city police, the youths were brought to the city hall and held by the constables until their parents were called.

A Shadbrook resident called city police on the Sunday that Scott and Mitchell were patrolling to complain about "the blue uniformed officer who told his youngsters they shouldn't swing from a rope in their yard."

The township resident thought the officer was a city policeman.

Editorially, a metropolitan newspaper declares that the duties of an elected constable are confined to process-serving. And the press was particularly harsh on Scott because of his own bad driving record.

But what authority does a constable have?

This is not easily answered. According to Township Attorney James Littell, under the old constitution it has been held by the attorney general that constables are duly qualified "peace officers."

Under the new constitution constables are unmentioned.

But by virtue of his election, a constable would, presumably, retain his peace officer status until his term expires.

Littell would not be pinned down on this point, however. "Admittedly, the best policy is for the township board to give directions outlining the constable's duty and authority," Littell concluded.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam states that the board has given Constable Mitchell no authority to patrol traffic. Trustee Donald Robinson, an outspoken critic of constable law enforcement, defines his duties as applying to dog control.

Obviously, the authority of the constable in Northville township needs clarification.

Constable Mitchell is well-meaning and conscientious. He is performing his duty as he sees it . . . and as the state constables' association sees it.

But does the township board concur? And who is responsible for any accident that might involve the constable or citizens arrested by him?

One fact should be apparent. Northville township does not need the services of Farmington Township Constable Scott.

Fewer Minor Parties on Fall Ballot

LANSING — Minor political parties will be fewer on Michigan's ballot this fall.

In the 1960 election, the last presidential race, Michigan voters had seven parties to choose from. This was the largest ballot in the state in more than 20 years.

The 1960 election, however, saw the five minority parties pick up only 10,302 votes of more than 3 million cast.

This year it appears at least one of the perennial minor parties will not be on the ballot although a new party has filed for ballot placement.

Indications are the Prohibition Party was not able to gain enough petition signatures to file for a place on the ballot. This party has been on the ballot regularly since the late 1940's.

The new entry this year will be a group originated in Detroit known as the Freedom Now Party. Its announced intention is to put up an entire slate of Negro candidates in an effort to further the civil rights fight for that minority group. Two traditional ballot entries are expected to be present again this November: the Socialist Workers' and Socialist Labor Parties.

The two others which earned listing in 1960, the Tax Cut and Independent American Parties, have been somewhat dormant since that balloting and are not expected to file.

People who have taken state civil service examinations in the past are getting a surprise in the tests now being given.

Instead of the standard multi-section written examination used for years, prospective civil service employees and those personnel taking promotional exams are faced with a stack of computer data cards. Answers to each question are checked on a single card.

State Personnel Director Franklin De Wald says the new automatic checking of the examinations has speeded up the testing, checking and recording process from a month or longer to about 10 days.

Intermittently in use for almost two years, the computer-type tests are confusing to some people, according to a state employee who recently took one.

"What happens, for example, if two cards stick together," the employee said, "Then all the answers beyond that would be wrong."

Civil Service officials hope and expect that errors of this type will be very rare. Human errors such as writing two answers on a single card and thus throwing off the rest of the examination, might occur more frequently.

Errors of this type would make a failing overall grade, undoubtedly, said De Wald. But one of the things a test of any kind determines is whether a person could follow written directions. A person who put two answers on a single card would not be following directions. Computer use is also designed to improve the quality of the civil service exams, as well as speeding up the correction process.

Now under study is the potential use of a computer in item analysis of exams. Previously a board of persons experienced in the field to be tested for checked each question considered.

Another trend in testing methods reducing the importance of group assembly examinations by giving more tests at the time of employment application, said De Wald.

This permits a much earlier classification of job seekers and helps weed out those who obviously are not qualified for a particular position. Thus, time is saved for both the applicant and the state.

Vietnam and War III

BABSON PARK, Fla. — Up until the present time, I had not been immediately concerned about the possibility of World War III; but with the developments in South Vietnam, I sent to Wellesley for my expert on international affairs, Donald W. K. Chun.

With Cuba so near to us here in Florida, it receives considerable space in the leading daily papers. Of course, none of us in Florida want to do anything to help Castro. We are very much opposed to his position regarding our reconnaissance planes flying over Cuba, and are provoked over his cutting off water and other supplies from our important base at Guantanamo Bay in East Cuba. We have owned this base since we freed Cuba from Spain 66 years ago.

On the other hand, everyone in Florida, especially in Miami, feels it would be a mistake to attempt another blockade of Cuba, particularly against Britain's ships.

It has been many years since I personally have been to Cuba, but delegations which have been recently feel that if we can avoid using force, Cuba will die on the vine, so to speak.

Mr. Chun feels strongly that the real trouble spot in the world is South Vietnam. Laos and Cambodia compound the difficulty. Cyprus, and even the African trouble spots, are not to be compared with the Southeast Asia problem. Congress should give President Johnson and Secretary McNamara the money necessary to protect South Vietnam. It is a key spot for checking the Communist spread in Southeast Asia. As long as the Peking Government can be held to the Chinese mainland, I believe there will be no war between the United States and Russia.

If, however, Vietnam should be lost to the Communists, the Chinese might be able to break through to the rich resources to the south. This would not only give the Chinese the necessary food for their people, but would bring several other nations immediately into the conflict to protect their own economic interests in Southeast Asia.

To begin with, France has large commercial interests in Southeast Asia. I personally believe that President de Gaulle went on his recent trip to Mexico and other countries to line up allies to prevent a collapse of Southeast Asia. De Gaulle recognizes that this would mean a great financial loss, and also a loss of prestige, to France.

But it could bring into the conflict other countries such as the Netherlands, Great Britain, Japan, and possibly the Philippines. This would not necessarily involve the United States and Russia at first; but it could easily lead to World War III.

Naturally, the United States does not want another World War at any time; but the Administration is particularly anxious to avoid such a catastrophe before the elections are over in November. Furthermore, Russia is now buying foodstuffs to make life more livable for her own people and for those of her satellites. If we should lose Vietnam and if the Chinese Communists should break through to the resources of Southeast Asia, the situation could worsen drastically.

I assume that our warships are now patrolling the waters in the vicinity of Formosa. At present our chief interest is Formosa — more than it is Chang Kai-shek, who is satisfied with things as they are since he represents China in the United Nations. If, however, Red China should be admitted to the UN, as de Gaulle and certain other leaders desire, it would be a great disappointment to Chang Kai-shek and to his wife.

I do not see clearly how both

Formosa and Red China could have representation in the United Nations, but this may be possible. Today, Formosa serves as a guard to the United States. We fought hard to get it; we would long hesitate to give it up.

This brings me back to the nub of my discussion on the possibilities of World War III. As long as we are able to hold South Vietnam and to keep the status quo, I have no fear of World War III in the reasonable future. If, on the other hand, the Communists should break through, it could so dislocate France, Britain, the Netherlands, the Philippines, and especially Japan, that it might start World War III. In another weekly column, I will discuss Japan in detail.

HOW TO PUT 600 MILES IN A DAY—AND LOVE IT!

Simply start out in a Cadillac.

For this is the one way you can spend from sunup to sundown at the wheel of a motor car and wish the day were longer.

The 1964 Cadillac was bred to the road as no other fine car before it. A combination of engineering advancements, which only the Cadillac owner can experience, makes every Cadillac mile a pleasure.

To begin with, there is the magnificent 340-horsepower V-8—the most powerful and efficient engine ever to enliven a Cadillac car. This is mated to a new Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission (or an improved Cadillac Hydra-Matic on some models) to produce both incredible smoothness and immediate response.

Then there is the feather-light handling of this newest of all Cadillacs. A beautifully poised suspension system together with precise power steering permits a degree of controllability that is normally associated with cars half a Cadillac's size.

Add to this the assurance of Cadillac's triple braking design—an exclusive safety benefit in this day of higher legal speeds and more crowded travel conditions.

Finally, there is the restfulness of a true fine car ride—the extraordinary room and comfort and conveniences that let you sit back in complete relaxation while the miles melt away.

Little wonder that Cadillac for 1964 is the most popular of all. Visit your authorized dealer to see why more people are selecting Cadillac than ever before. You won't need 600 miles to convince you. Just a few will do.
