

Brisk Business Greet Opening of Spacious New Library

Attractive Wing street entrance opens into two-level library providing ample display area.

There aren't more books in the new library in City Hall, but there are a lot more on the shelves that couldn't be displayed in the old library. "We just didn't have the room before," points out Miss Kathleen Sprenger, the library aide.

Opened to the public for the first time last week, the library is not yet completed. There are still three tables, three adult to match the yellow chairs, one round table to go by the easy book section and one table for the juvenile section, coming next week. The tables now occupying the first floor, will be moved up to the balcony.

The balcony will be reserved as a study area. However, in order to control discipline in that area, passes will be given to students before they go up and must be returned as they leave. This will enable the librarians to keep a closer watch on any activities in the balcony.

A large oval mirror hangs to wall of the balcony railing facing the librarians' desk. "Now we don't have to keep running up and down the stairs, as we did in the old building, to keep an eye on what is going on," said Miss Sprenger.

"The first two days we saw all our patrons," said Mrs. Ruth Richwerger, the librarian. She estimated that 975 books were circulated during those first days.

Also housed in the new library is the Mary S. Moerke Memorial Collection of 67 books representing the best in literature, past and present, for children in the primary grades, said Mrs. Richwerger.

The funds for this collection were donated by friends and neighbors of the late Mary S. Moerke. The books were selected by Mrs. Richwerger.

Mrs. Richwerger also emphasized there would be no book drop in the new library. Books must be returned to the desk during the hours and days when the library is open. Summer hours are 12-3 Monday through Thursday and 10-5 Friday. The library is closed Saturday.

After Labor Day, the library will be closed Friday and open Saturday. The hours will be the same as the summer months, 12-3 Monday - Thursday and 10-5 Saturday.

An artistic touch by local talent also adds to the decor of the library. All the lettering was designed and done by Linda Edgerton of Northville. The Three-Cities Art Club in connection with the Hartley-Powers Gallery is displaying pictures throughout the interior.

Board Eyes Plans For New Elementary

A few thoughts on "future needs" were outlined Monday night by Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman and placed his emphasis on plans for a new elementary school.

In a session which marked the end of a two-term career for Dr. Waldo Johnson and a one-year board stint for William Templeton, the board moved swiftly through a routine agenda and looked forward to a new year.

Monday, July 6 the board — with new members Eugene Cook and E. O. Weber — will reorganize and elect officers.

The superintendent urged the board to consider: —selection of an architect to assist in a site choice and elementary school plan; —formation of a citizens' committee to assist in study of elementary needs and bonding proposals.

And "in the not too distant future" Amerman noted the necessity for an addition to the junior high school and a clarification of the policy with Novi for accepting students in grades 10 through 12.

Amerman pointed out that "although Novi's ninth graders have been withdrawn" some definite policy must soon be adopted in regard to future acceptance of Novi tuition students in grades 10-12 as the high school facilities become taxed to their limit.

Both Board President William Crump and James Kupfer, vice president, backed-up Amerman's recommendations and emphasized that such action should be taken by the new board immediately.

Crump noted that "there seems to be strong feeling in the community that the new elementary school should follow the Amerman school design, and not the campus style of the high school."

The board approved a two-year lease of the old library building with the city and township of Northville. The Wing street building will be used for board of education offices and present offices in the Main street school will be converted to classroom use.

The lease calls for no rental fee, but the school must pay all insurance, improvements and maintenance.

Center St. Rezoning Rejected

A bid to put up apartments along North Center directly across from the high school has been rejected by the planning commission.

In a 5-3 vote Tuesday night, the planners turned down a request to rezone seven lots for construction of multiple dwellings.

John Badalutz, Frank Davis, Norman Denne, and Bernard McClan submitted the rezoning question to the board.

Commissioners heard arguments from residents seeking and attacking the housing plan. Favorable contentions: It would "not deprive people use of their land," would give the city an architectural "blend" and add tax dollars.

On the other side of the issue, Charles Altman confronted the panel with a 10-point document and a petition signed by 130 property owners.

His main views: Any action would set a precedent, there are enough multiple units already in the city and "a few property owners would realize a higher profit at the expense of others."

Don Bauerle Joins Record-News Staff

Don Bauerle, formerly make-up editor for the midwest edition of the Wall Street Journal, joined the editorial staff of The Northville Record-News this week.

He replaces Jack Hoffman, who recently became assistant to the director of publicity for General Motors Coach and Truck division.

Bauerle and his family moved here last week from Park Forest, Illinois and reside at 514 West Cady.

Both Bauerle and his wife, Betty, are native Detroiters and are 1960 graduates of Wayne State University. Don holds a B.A. degree in history and journalism and Betty a B.A. in education.

They have two youngsters, Nancy, 3, and David, 18 months.

Don began his newspaper career as a copy boy for The Detroit News. Also while attending Wayne State, he worked one summer at The Tecumseh Herald.

After graduation he became associated with Wards Automotive Reports in Detroit and later joined the staff of the South Macomb News. He also wrote for the News' sister paper, the Mt. Clemens Daily Monitor-Leader.

He joined the Wall Street Journal in Chicago as a copy-reader and was promoted to makeup editor two years ago.

Youthful Trio Off for Europe

Summer for David Chabut, Gordon R. Hammond and Susan Shafer will be a travelogue of excitement. Dave, Gordie and Susan will be spending about two months in foreign countries living with families under the sponsorship of the Youth for Understanding Summer Exchange Program of the Michigan Council of Churches.

Dave, who left for Ogtgeest, Holland Monday, will be staying with the Hesselinks who have three children, a daughter, 20, and two boys, 18 and 16.

He will attend school with the youngest boy until July 3 and the 10th the entire family will vacation at Bordaux, France for the remainder of the summer.

Son of Mrs. George Chabut of 18585 Sheldon, Dave, 17, will be a senior at Northville high school when he returns in the fall.

He choose to go to Holland because "it's an interesting spot with all the windmills and everything. The country appealed to me very much."

Trying to study Dutch on his own, Dave feels he knows at least how to say "Hello", and a few basic words, but expects to become almost an expert by the time he returns home. He will have no communication problems with the family he is staying with since they all speak English.

On the other hand, Gordie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hammond of 47100 Timberlane, will be living with a family that doesn't speak one word of English and he has been studying German for only three months.

Gordie will be leaving June 27 for Fritzlar, Germany which is just 50 miles from the eastern border. The 18-year-old Northville high school graduate selected Germany because he wanted "to see the Berlin wall in person." Taking 13 rolls of colored film, he expects to use all of it.

He has been studying German on his own by listening to language records and studying text books. What he didn't learn at home he will learn once he gets to Germany for, as he says, "I'll have no other choice."

The family that Gordie will be staying with are the Karl Lederles, parents of three children, two boys and a girl.

During his stay abroad, Gordie and the boys will bicycle to Holland with the Youth Hostlers. They will visit the foreign exchange student in Hague that stayed with the Hammonds two years ago.

Returning in the latter part of August, Gordie will attend Michigan State university.

Susan Shafer left from Metropolitan Airport Wednesday for Gorinchem, Holland where she will be staying with Mr. and Mrs. Dynkenma and their eight children. There are four girls, one of whom is Susan's age and is graduating from high school, and four boys.

Mr. Dynkenma is a professor at an agricultural school in Holland.

Susan also expects to bicycle around Holland and she too joined the Youth Hostlers as did both Dave and Gordie. The Dynkenma girls already have a camping trip planned for Sue, some 30 miles southeast of Rotterdam.

There will be no language barriers between the Dynkenmas and Susan since they speak English and she is learning Dutch, which she calls a "difficult language as is German because of the guttural sounds."

Holland was Sue's third choice of a country to live in for the summer. Her first two were England and Denmark. However, because of the number of students taking part in this program everyone couldn't get their first choice and she is as excited about going to Holland as she would if it were her other selections.

"Holland was one of my choices because it is a small country. It impressed me because the people are individuals and I wanted to learn about the culture of one country."

Susan felt that in a small country, she would be able to accomplish this in the relatively short time she has. "The trip will also be a good preparation for my career," she added.

When Susan does return in late summer she will attend Michigan State university where she will major in elementary education.

Susan, Dave and Gordie are just part of 500 students taking part in this exchange program which is approximately 13 years old. Michigan is the only single state that has a program of this type. Most others are on a national basis. The program, however, does not pay for traveling or living expenses but does make all arrangements. The student must pay his own way which cost, including incidentals, approximately $1,000.

The lone north-south route through the city has been a source of concern to Northville officials as the traffic flow increases annually.

Plan $110,000 Improvement Of Novi Road Entry to City

"A joint venture in goofing" will be corrected this summer by the Oakland and Wayne County road commissions.

That's how Frazer Staman, Oakland county road commissioner and former Novi township supervisor, describes the Novi road entrance into Northville.

But he promises that the highway bottleneck will be improved this year.

Oakland county will handle the construction details, but the cost will be split 50-50 with Wayne county. Estimated cost of the project to alleviate the traffic foul-up is $110,000, Staman stated.

Specifically, the county plans to make the following changes:

—block-off Novi road at Novi avenue;

—create two double-lane connection strips between the Eight Mile road cut-off and Novi road just east of the newly blocked-off intersection of Novi road and Novi avenue;

—reduce the severity of the Novi road curve by widening the road at the apex of the curve;

—widen the connecting strip between the old Eight Mile road and the cut-off where they join at the eastern end of the cut-off.

Staman points out that the latter improvement is most necessary for any vehicles eastbound on the cut-off wishing to turn onto old Eight Mile and travel around Northville via Griswold. It will also permit easier entrance onto the cut-off by vehicles which have entered Eight Mile off Northville road at Griswold and wish to continue northward on Novi road.

Presently, these northbound cars — and especially trucks — have little space between old Eight Mile and the cut-off and frequently find their vehicles in the line of traffic of both roads when attempting to maneuver this turn, Staman noted.

The Oakland county road commissioner admitted that it may require condemnation action to acquire property needed to widen the Novi road curve and the connecting road between the cut-off and old Eight Mile road.

But he indicated the county might proceed anyway and ask for construction bids in August. "The proposed improvements won't give us a highway that should have been built originally, but it will be better than what we have now," Staman stated.

When he was appointed to the road commission early last year, Staman promised area authorities that one of his first projects would be to correct the Novi road snarl.

In addition to causing confusion for motorists, the sharp curve and Novi road-Novu avenue intersection have been traffic hazards and the cause of numerous accidents.

Both Northville city and school officials have called for correction of the condition. But while the changes will reduce the traffic hazard and aid the flow of traffic, it will not materially change the amount of traffic that will be directed onto Center street through Northville.

Wun Hi and Imari exchange glares as O Mimosa looks on in 'The Geisha'

'The Geisha' Opens Three-Night Stand

Northville Players Guild will celebrate its first birthday in grand style this weekend by staging three performances of Sydney Jones' musical comedy "The Geisha" in the Northville high school auditorium.

Curtain time tonight (Thursday), Friday and Saturday is at 8:30 p.m. Tickets priced at $2 for adults and 75c for students can be purchased at the door.

Two months in rehearsal, the musical spotlights a cast of homegrown talent and brings to a close the theatre guild's first season. Dr. Hans Kolbe is directing the production. His technical director is Rita Sprenger.

Set in the Japanese Tea-house of Ten Thousand Joys, "The Geisha" serves up generous helpings of entertainment for audiences young and old. It offers a happy blend of whimsical dialogue and sprightly music topped with colorful Oriental dress and scenery.

Characters run the gamut from the bustling, chatterbox Chinaman Wun Hi, played by Gino Farrar, to the demure and delicate geisha O Mimosa San, portrayed by Geraldine Mills. Others cast in principal roles are: Tom Williams, Lt. Reginald Fairfax; Carolyn Oldford, Molly Seamore; Tom Griffin, Marquis Imari; Betty Sterner, Lady Constance Wynne; Sharon Mazanec, Juliette; John Hyde, Lt. Katana; Jim Drew, Lt. With "The Geisha" the players' guild adds a musical fillip to a season that opened with three one-act plays last December. In February the guild produced the tragic melodrama "East Lynne."

Seek Overnight Homes

An appeal to local residents to provide overnight homes for visiting foreign exchange students on the evening of Saturday, July 25, was repeated this week by the Northville Rotary Club.

More than 350 youngsters from 13 foreign countries will attend the Rotary-sponsored "farewell dinner" at the high school and prepare to board buses. Rotary is providing box lunches for the bus trip to New York.

A. R. Clarke, chairman of student accommodations, points out that local residents are urged to take one or more students for overnight only. If possible, the students should be picked up at the high school following the farewell program. Local "parents" may attend the program, but not the dinner.

The overnight parents would provide Sunday breakfast and are encouraged to attend a Northville church with the youngsters. After church services the youngsters will gather at the high school and prepare to board buses. Rotary is providing box lunches for the bus trip to New York.

Mark Bells Awarded $107,000 In Suit

A Northville couple has won a judgement of $107,000 in an auto accident suit against the Ford Motor Co.

Last Thursday, after a two-week trial, a Wayne County circuit court jury awarded Mark Bell, 54 of 530 Baseline, $97,000 and his wife, Lucille, $10,000 in damages to settle the suit. The Bells were represented by David Fried, a Novi resident.

Earlier, Bell had asked $250,000 compensation and his wife had requested $50,000 for grief and loss of her husband's companionship.

Bell says he suffered permanent injuries in the accident that occurred September 9, 1960.

He was driving south on Hines drive, approaching Joy road. He was about to make a left turn onto Joy when his car was struck from behind by one driven by Ward Hummel, of 47139 Grassmere, a Ford Motor Co. supervisor.

Then Bell's car was hit again, witnesses said, and "exploded."

The impact of the rear-end collision forced his car to the other side of the road. It was smashed in the front end by another car going north on Hines. Bell's car was demolished.

Bell was in serious condition after the accident. X-rays showed that all the ribs on his left side were broken and he suffered from a collapsed lung and brain damage. He stayed in St. Mary hospital in Livonia 21 days. He recuperated at home until December of 1960 and then returned to work.

Two Local Men On Safety Body

Two Northville residents are helping to make Michigan's highways safer.

Ben Duguid and Oscar Hammond have been appointed commissioners on the committee of public information and organized citizen support by Governor Romney. This group is part of the governor's special commission on traffic safety.

Duguid, 20336 Woodhill road, is public affairs manager for Allstate Insurance Companies in Detroit. Hammond, 511 North Center, is state commander of the American Legion.

Commissioners Duguid and Hammond will assist in drawing up a blueprint for telling the need for traffic improvement and arousing motorists into action.

Both attended a meeting June 12 of the full traffic safety commission in Lansing.

During the summer, the eight study committees of the commission will meet periodically. Early in September, all committee reports will be reviewed and recommendations made. Governor Romney will then receive a final report on the commission's findings.

Ultimately, five or six governor's conferences are planned to present the commission's report, learn citizens' reactions and develop support for the traffic program.

Plumbers Rebound In Recreation Ball

The Plumbers bounced back and Northville Recreation continued its downhill slide, when the Plumbers won a top-sided contest, 26-0, Tuesday.

A combination of 20 walks, timely hitting by Marty Richardson (a double and three singles) and Rod Braun (a double and a single) and three-hit pitching by Bill Skelly nailed down the win for the Plumbers.

Two lopsided decisions marked the opening of the Knothole baseball season Saturday morning at Ford Field.

In the first contest of the doubleheader, the Athletics beat the Dodgers, 15-2, on the strength of Charles Wooten's pitching.

He gave up only one hit, while walking seven in a three inning stint. David White bagged the only hit for the Dodgers to spoil Wooten's no hitter.

letics at the plate with a walk, single and a double.

A no-hitter was narrowly averted in the last inning by the Yankees, as they lost, 12-0, to the Angels.

Dave Yoder spanked a single to left to spoil Tom Hotchkins' no-hit bid. Hotchkins however, pitched stellar ball, walking eight and striking out 14 in five innings.

Two more Knothole baseball contests were played Monday evening with the Giants blasting the Cardinals, 13-3, and the Indians beating the Athletics, 10-6.

Kenny Zach sparked the Giants win by allowing three hits in four innings on the mound and clubbing two singles.

The class D Northville Plumbers took one on the chin June 16 when South Redford trounced them, 13-2.

Downs Eyes New Bet Record

Even the Friday night downpour — which caused major damage in surrounding areas Friday night but only drenched Northville — couldn't dampen the enthusiasm of harness racing fans at Northville Downs.

Attendance and betting continued to top last year's pace. Last Saturday was the one-quarter mark in the Downs' 48-night season and the mutual handle is up 20 per cent and attendance 10 per cent.

Through Saturday night fans have wagered $3,198,442 compared to $2,674,651 in 1963. The average handle to date is $266,537 nightly, compared to $222,888 last year over the same period. Attendance stands at 52,335 compared to 47,745 last year.

Friday night's races continued uninterrupted despite the deluge of rain. Rain continued from the second through the eighth races, but fans still bet $283,211.

On Saturday night the mutual handle was $347,696. A week previous a record was set at the Downs when fans wagered $367,627.

Executive Manager John Carjo predicts that Friday night's card could produce a new betting record. The $10,292 Harness Tracks of America Pace will attract the nation's best 4-year-olds to the local track.

Overtrick, considered the greatest pacer of all-time is expected to head the field which also includes Country Don, who chased Overtrick to a world's record in the Little Brown Jug Classic last fall.

In Northville Justice Court

Edward Fust, 18, of 25911 Clark street, Novi, was assessed a fine of $10 and $5 costs after pleading guilty at arraignment, June 22. He was charged with being a minor in possession of liquor.

Pleading guilty to reckless driving, June 14, Howard D. McElhane of Detroit was fined $50 and $15 in costs, Monday by Judge Charles W. McDonald.

A new jury and a trial date will be selected for Harold J. Jacobs of Plymouth. At trial, June 15, the six man jury could not agree on a verdict. The "hung" jury was dismissed.

Jacobs was charged May 3 with disobeying a stop sign at Hutton and Dunlap streets. At arraignment, May 18, he entered a plea of not guilty and demanded trial by jury.

The case against Walter L. Cohen, 17, of Detroit, was dismissed, June 22, providing the conditional payment of $35 in costs. At his arraignment the same day, Cohen pleaded guilty, but Judge McDonald after a hearing rejected the plea due to Cohen's age. Cohen was charged with possessing a mutilated driver's license, June 17.

James Christopher Allen of Bloomfield Hills was charged June 9 with soliciting encyclopedias without a permit on East Cady street and was found not guilty at trial, June 22 and his case dismissed.

Charged with drunk and disorderly conduct, June 23, James G. McCourt of 46 Meadowbrook, pleaded guilty at arraignment, the same day and was fined $25 and $5 in costs.

Edward P. Yackley of Farmington pleaded guilty to driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors June 23. At arraignment held the same day, he was fined $75, $10 in costs and his license suspended for 90 days.

Entering a plea of guilty at arraignment, June 22, Daryl Mark Hopper of 4773 West Seven Mile road, was assessed $15 in fines and costs. He placed a $25 personal bond after being charged, June 17, with driving with improper plates.

Novi Justice Court

Gerald A. Schaefer, 23, of Detroit didn't like the tickets Novi police gave him for reckless driving and for carrying identification belonging to another person, June 7. He was racing around Novi Park when his auto hit a tree stump. He had a blow out. When he was brought to the station, he told police, in no uncertain terms, what he thought of them and their tickets. He was brought before Judge Emery Jacques, June 18, on the one charge of using vulgar language. At first, he pleaded not guilty, but changed it to guilty. He was fined $35. Schaefer will be arraigned, August 21, on the other two counts.

Walter Strauss of Southfield pleaded guilty to driving 80 mph in a 70 mph zone, May 31. He was fined $10 at arraignment, June 18, before Judge Anderson.

Robert C. Unis, 391 Wolverine Drive, Walled Lake was charged with being a disorderly person, February 5, 1964. He was arraigned February 15 and entered a plea of not guilty. A warrant was issued for his arrest. Personal and $50 cash bond. February 20, he was fined $50 and 10 days in jail or 60 days in jail without the fine. He filed an appeal February 27, but never completed the filing. June 8, a bench warrant was issued. He went to trial June 18 before Judge Anderson. His cash bond of $50 is being converted to pay his fine, the jail sentence was dropped.

Richard A. Langstaff, 18 of Wixom, was charged March 17 with stealing approximately $80 from Novi Auto Parts where he was a delivery man. He would collect money for orders but never turn it in. Further investigation discovered that the amount was closer to $400 thus changing the jurisdiction of the case from the Justice Court to Circuit Court. Langstaff is now charged with felonious larceny. He was released on a $1,000 bond set by Judge Anderson until examination date set for July 2.

SAD DAY AT LAKE — A little shaken but maintaining their composure, (l. to r.) Bruce Jensen, 12; Bob Findling, 13, and Don Hummel, 15, relax outside of the bathhouse at Whitmore lake Monday after discovering the drowned body of Fred Martell of Ann Arbor. The boys were among 183 Northville youths visiting the beach with the Northville recreation department. Kenneth Conley, recreation director who supervises the Northville group, said he would like to reassure parents that every possible precaution against this type of accident is taken by the recreation department. He commended the actions of the three youths. "The boys were very alert. They certainly reported it immediately, giving the boy (Martell) every chance for survival."

Brooklane Salesman's Sample Case Par 3 To Open Nets Thief $1,000 Here

The nine-hole par 3 Brooklane Golf Course, located at Sheldon and Six Mile roads in Northville, will open for play Wednesday, July 1.

The new course has a lighted driving range and clubhouse in addition to the nine-hole layout. It is owned by Blake Northrop, Jr., and Ernie Shave of Northville is general manager and professional.

Shave said this week that the course will be open daily from 7 a.m. He pointed out that the tees and greens are in excellent condition, although fairways still need time for full growth.

He said a grand opening event would be planned at a later date.

A salesman's sample case containing 35 trays of assorted sterling silver jewelry, including earrings, charms, and pins and valued at $1,000 was taken from Raymond Stillson's garage, 300 Ely Drive.

Stillson discovered the theft, at approximately 8:30 a.m. June 19 when he went to get his car out of the garage. He left the case lying in the back of his station wagon the previous night.

The garage and car were unlocked.

Chief Eugene King indicated that fingerprints were lifted off the door of the car, but that as yet no suspects have been found.

Other police news includes: An accident involving two Detroiters, Henry M. Jarczewski and Roger M. Willis, at Main and Center streets.

Willis, making a left turn off North Center onto east Main, crossing the street. Willis told police he was trying to avoid an oncoming car which was going at a high rate of speed and did not see Jarczewski until it was too late.

Jarczewski was taken to St. Mary hospital and apparently suffered no serious injuries.

Another accident occurred Thursday, June 18 at 12:50 a.m. Fredrick W. Bryce of 19578 Smock road was thrown clear of his car as it hit the bank and bridge on Sheldon road. The car slid about 225 feet before turning over.

Bryce, driving down Sheldon road, stated he was going too fast and tried to stop for a red light, but when he applied the brakes the car began to slide.

He was taken to St. Mary hospital. Officers at the scene said he had been going approximately 75 mph in a 35 mph zone and had apparently been drinking.

CAP Training Shows Up In Boy's Flight North

Cadet Lt. Robert Parmenter proved the worth of his Civil Air Patrol (CAP) training, June 12, when he made a cross country flight from Spencer Field in Wixom to Traverse City Airport without any trouble despite a rain storm near Clare, Michigan.

Landing at Clare for gas, he waited a half hour until the rain cleared.

Parmenter made Traverse City airport, 185 air miles, in two hours and 40 minutes flying time. "The training I had in CAP for my observer wings, ground school and cross country navigation experience, helped me a great deal on this long trip," he said.

The rest of the family, Capt. and Mrs. Parmenter and two sons, made the trip to Traverse the hard way by auto, which took 5 1/2 hours by expressway hauling the family boat.

The family aircraft, a Piper J-3, is tied down at Traverse City airport for the summer months.

Parmenter and his father will take additional flight instruction while based at the airport.

The Parmenters will stay at their summer cabin in Elk Rapids on Grand Traverse Bay for the summer.

"Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein" (Mark 10). These words of Christ Jesus will set forth one of the major themes of the Bible lesson to be heard Sunday at all Christian Science churches. Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include these lines: "Willingness to become as a little child and to leave the old for the new, renders thought receptive of the advanced idea. Gladness to leave the false landmarks and joy to see them disappear, — this disposition helps to precipitate the ultimate harmony" (p. 323). The subject is Christian Science."

SALEMANSHIP
Promotion of Earl E. Poyner to assistant sales director for A&P Food Stores' Central Western Division was announced by Division President Byron Jay.
Samuel Van Til, former assistant personnel manager, will replace Poyner as personnel manager of the company's Detroit Unit.
In his new assignment, Poyner will assist Sales Director Robert J. Murray in directing sales activities for the division's six-state area, extending from Memphis, Tenn., to Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.
Poyner has spent his entire A&P career in the Detroit area starting as a store clerk in 1938. He also served as a super market manager and store supervisor for several years.
In addition, he served in the Detroit sales department — first in charge of bakery sales and later as produce sales manager. In 1957 he was promoted to personnel manager, in which capacity he served as a member of the executive committee.
Van Til first started with the food chain in 1935 as a store clerk in Colon, Mich. He also operated A&P's egg depot in Coopersville and managed several company stores in western Michigan prior to coming to Detroit. He joined the personnel department of the Detroit Unit in 1950, and became assistant personnel manager in 1953.

Ye Must Be Born Again
"What man knoweth the things of a man save the spirit of man which is in him. Even so the things of God knoweth no man but the Spirit of God." 1st Cor. 2:11.

A man knows about the things of a man because he is a man. If he sees a man laugh or weep he knows how that man is being exercised in such expressions. But if a man sees a horse running in the pasture with its mane flying in the breeze he does not know how that horse feels because he does not have the spirit of a horse. He is a man and not a horse. He does not know about the things of a horse like he does the things of a man.

Even so the things of God are not known by man except by the Spirit of God. That is the reason it is necessary for man to be born again in order to see the kingdom of heaven. If you have normal intelligence you are able to study and learn the principles of mathematics, of physics, chemistry etc. But you cannot know the things of God in that way.

The Bible says, "As the heavens are higher than the earth so are God's ways higher than man's ways and God's thoughts than man's thoughts." "By wisdom man cannot find out God." "The things of the Spirit are not discerned by the natural man neither can he know them because they are spiritually discerned."

There is a great difference between the way our minds work here in this world and the way God's mind works. Only as we are translated out of the kingdom of Satan (the mind realm) into the kingdom of God's dear Son are we able to understand and appreciate the things of God.

Think of the difference in understanding and comprehension between a hop-toad hopping through the grass and man. A hop toad's thoughts are not your thoughts and his ways are not your ways. There is a great gulf of separation here, and yet by patient effort a man is able to train a hop-toad to act in certain desired ways. But he can never change the hop-toad in such a way that it would be able to understand the things of a man.

Even so it is true that men can be trained to act in certain desired religious ways without being changed into the image of God.

Religious training is good, but when in connection with it we think that we are what we ought to be simply because we have been trained in a certain way we deceive ourselves.

There must be an operation of God through the Spirit in our lives. We must be changed into His image. The psalmist, David wrote, "I shall be satisfied when I awake in His likeness."

Training and education are good but they do not enable us to know the things of God. To do that we must be born from above, not of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. "Ye must be born again."

After discussion, Mr. Shafer amended his motion to include the phrase "and that the school district cease and desist from laying claim to the building". Mr. Templeton also supported this amendment. Both motion and amendment were carried.

2. Buses for Recreation — Mr. Conley, City Recreation Director, appeared to answer the question raised at the last meeting regarding fees charged by the Recreation Department to residents of the school district who live outside the City Limits. After this discussion it was moved by Mr. Shafer, supported by Mr. Angove, that the request for use of the buses be granted on the same basis as other years. Motion carried.

3. Summer Physical Education Program — Mr. Longridge was again present and advised that the City Recreation commission has not yet acted on his proposal for sponsorship of the summer physical education program which he and Mr. Horwath have volunteered to operate. SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

If anyone said "it couldn't be done," about 75 parents of Northville high school seniors can smile with the satisfaction that comes from determination, hard work and success.

Acting merely as a group of parents — with full approval, but independently of the school — they planned an all-night party for graduates following commencement last week.

Early predictions were that a handful might show up. But this didn't discourage the parents.

They didn't ask the graduates what kind of a party they'd like; they made all the preparations, created the format and set the rules.

The party was held in the community building. It started at 11:30 p.m. and it ended at 4 a.m. It was for graduating seniors only — no outside dates. No one could leave and return; no one could join the party after 12:30 p.m.

The parents, mostly mothers, worked many long hours to transform the community building into a festive sea-going vessel, "The S.S. Escape Hatch".

Passport pictures were taken as the youngsters "boarded ship" and given as mementos. Hors d'oeuvres were served until 2 a.m. and then breakfast until 4 a.m. A disc jockey brought along a couple of combos for entertainment and dancing, and there were games like ping-pong and shuffle board.

Not every senior attended, but 120 of the 159 graduates did. And the parents believe they had fun. Parents were scarce at the party, only those working were on hand. And at 4 a.m. they had to tell 70 seniors, still enjoying the fun, that the party was over.

Harold Guenther was chairman of the parent group. He's a former mayor of Plymouth and has worked on numerous civic committees.

"I've never seen any group work like this one did," beamed Guenther.

It was a happy climax to a memorable evening.

A full report, and a few dollars left over, will now be turned over to high school administrators. The committee's work is then complete. They hope they have set a precedent.

Watch out! Stare too long at a Catalina, and next thing you know you're shattering another sales record in Pontiac's best year.*

People like to look at big, handsome Wide-Track cars, though. And drive them. And buy them. Obviously. We're selling more Pontiacs this year than ever before. Catalinas, naturally. And Tempests. Le Mans. Bonneville. And Grand Prix. Each with Pontiac style. Pontiac ride. Pontiac power. Pontiac resale value. All this is just what you're looking for, you say? Well, okay, go ahead and stare. Wide-Track Pontiac

*Latest figures show Pontiac a solid third place in sales again, up 24.24% so far in 1964, and every Pontiac bought now sets another all time high.

State to Award 1,000 Scholarships

LANSING — Screening an estimated 20,000 to 25,000 applicants for Michigan's first state-supported scholarship program poses a big job for one of the smallest government agencies.

The Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority distributed about 300 scholarships under a private funds-guarantee program in slightly over two years.

Now plans call for the Authority to award 1,000 college aids by fall. A total of $500,000 was appropriated for the scholarships by the Legislature.

Applicants will first be narrowed down to about 7,500 through consideration of the various available intelligence tests. Then, partly on a statewide basis and partially on the basis of legislative districts, the financial need of individual students will be considered.

Scholarships are expected to average around $500, said Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett, who serves as chairman of the Authority. The maximum allowance in the 1964 legislative act is $800 per student per year.

Students who finally receive the scholarships will have their choice of many institutions. All accredited colleges and universities in Michigan, 47 in all, including private institutions. The scholarships are renewable and some community colleges, are eligible for use of the scholarships.

Major advantage of the program is provided to students who select any of the 23 accredited private institutions. The scholarships are renewable throughout four years of college, contingent on the display of satisfactory performance and continued financial need.

Michigan's governor will be among the highest paid chief executives in 1965, and state lawmakers will hold a similar place in rank among their counterparts.

Only New York, California, to have patience and "hold your fire." Profitable hedging against inflation requires careful timing and selection. When the prices of stocks and real estate are depressed, and when deflation rather than inflation is the watchword of the day, then investors should have the courage to acquire inflation-hedge investments — carefully and selectively. I believe more inflation is ahead of us, but now is not the time to hedge against it.

New Jersey and Pennsylvania pay their governors more than the $30,000 Michigan's governor will receive next year. The new rate is a $2,500 boost over the current salary.

Legislators gave themselves a bigger hike: with a 43 per cent raise in salary and 100 per cent increase in expense allowances. The new rates will be $10,000 salary and $2,500 expenses per legislator.

Many of the current Legislature members will not take advantage of the new rates, however. The 1965 session is expected to include more new faces than have been seen in many years past.

Redistricting and the new Constitution played major roles in the prospect of high change in the Legislature for 1965.

Several members have announced plans to retire rather than face another incumbent in a merged district. Others were eliminated from eligibility by the Constitutional provision prohibiting individuals on other public payrolls, such as city officers and employees, from running.

Still others have been lured into contests in new Congressional districts, and a few will seek election to the State Court of Appeals, a new creation in the judicial branch section of the State Court of Appeals, a new creation in the judicial branch section of the 1964 Constitution.

Initiative toward self-improvement in job knowledge and skills has been lauded in private industry for a good number of years. In the past three years, Michigan government has also recognized this initiative in its employees by paying part of the costs of continued education.

If Inflation Comes

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Most readers of this column are aware that since the panic-like stock market decline in the spring of 1962, the Dow-Jones Industrial Average has been marching upward, with only short halts, to successively new record highs.

The rapid shrinkage in stock values in the dark days of 1962 undoubtedly had its beginnings in distrust of the politico-business outlook. Then, as paper profits began to vanish, selling pressure rose to a crescendo, with investors hurrying to preserve what profits they had left, or to limit their losses. The market did regain its composure when investors realized that a business decline of the proportions indicated was not imminent. By that time, too, the "water" had been pretty well wrung out of the glamour and speculative stocks.

Thus it has been the sustained well-being of general business, powerfully assisted by consumer spending and res-identical building, which not only righted the stock market but launched it on a two-year advance, virtually uninterrupted, during which time the Dow-Jones Industrial Average rose from a low of 536 to a high of 830.

As I view the market now, many of the blue-chip stocks which have largely accounted for the two-year market advance, seem fully priced, and real bargains are harder to find. This is understandable, since the Dow-Jones Industrial Average's climb of nearly 300 points' outdistanced the gains of industrial activity and business profits in the same period of time.

Business and profits may rise further over the near term, to be sure, but such additional gains are probably pretty well discounted. Hence we must look to another element to propel the stock market on upward. This may well be speculative enthusiasm stemming from fears of inflation. It has been said that a whiff of inflation psychology can stir investor buying impatience.

Those who feel we are in for more inflation have many arguments in their favor. Since the last business recession, U. S. monetary authorities have been pursuing a policy of keeping money and credit plentiful. To the extent this has exceeded the legitimate credit needs of business, the surplus represents an inflationary potential. In addition, consumers have been expanding their borrowings, both for installment purchases of durable goods and for new home mortgages. Such borrowings are inflationary to the extent that purchasing power is boosted above the levels of earned incomes. The deficit operations of federal, state, and municipal governments are also inflationary; and we must not forget the steady inflation of labor costs.

On the other hand, President Johnson's economy drive in government spending is an attempt to prevent inflation from getting out of hand. The most effective barriers against inflation, in recent years, however, have been the surplus of most commodities and the excess of productive capacities in many industries.

The danger of inflation is most acute during and following wars. Under normal conditions, deflation is more likely to prevail. In today's "semi-war" economy and prolonged prosperity, therefore, the tug-of-war between inflation and deflation leaves the situation in doubt. Conceivably, this stalemate could continue with neither side gaining a clear advantage, even though over the long run rising government spending and the unreasonable demands of labor suggest further inflation.

It has been my experience that the best time to hedge against inflation is when the stock market and real estate prices are depressed. Hence, although the current bull market may yet penetrate higher ground, the "real gravy" is largely behind us and the risk factor greater from here on in. It might therefore be better
