

Reapportionment Brings New Faces to Political Scene

Here's Breakdown Of Local Districts

Michigan's legislative and senatorial districts and U.S. congressional districts have been remade into a new political pie and sliced up.

So that readers of this newspaper are clear on reapportionment, a list of new districts and their boundary lines in the area follows:

STATE LEGISLATIVE DISTRICTS

35th DISTRICT — City of Northville and Northville township in Wayne county and the city of Livonia except that part lying south of the C&O Railroad between Merriman and Middlebelt roads.

60th DISTRICT — Townships of Argonne, Fenton and Mundy in Genesee county; townships of Brandon, Commerce, Groveland, Highland, Holly, Lyon, Milford, Novi and Rose in Oakland county; portion of Northville in Oakland county; cities of South Lyon, Walled Lake and Wixom.

STATE SENATORIAL DISTRICT

14th DISTRICT — Townships of Plymouth and Northville and cities of Plymouth and Livonia in Wayne county; city of Northville in Oakland and Wayne counties; that part of Oakland county west of the townships of Brandon, Independence, Waterford, Bloomfield and Southfield and west of city of Southfield and the city of Sylvan Lake and Keego Harbor.

U.S. CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS

2nd CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT — Counties of Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Washtenaw; townships of Plymouth and Northville and city of Plymouth.

19th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT — Townships of Brandon, Commerce, Farmington, Groveland, Highland, Holly, Independence, Lyon, Milford, Novi, Orion, Oxford, Rose, Springfield, Waterford, West Bloomfield, and White Lake, and cities of Farmington, Keego Harbor, Pontiac, South Lyon, Sylvan Lake, Walled Lake and Wixom in Oakland county; city of Northville lying in Oakland and Wayne counties; township of Redford and city of Livonia in Wayne county.

Area voters will encounter some political fence-jumping this fall.

Conversely, cities, villages and townships covered by this newspaper will find themselves reshuffled into new state legislative and senatorial districts. Old districts have evaporated.

Reason: two historic court rulings handed down recently.

The state supreme court allowed redistricting to take place under the so-called one-man, one-vote plan. This decision came in the wake of a landmark U. S. supreme court action. In the state legislature, there will still be 110 representatives but each seat will be tied to a more equitable population footing.

Unlike the lower house, the state senate is growing. In the fall election, an additional four senators will be added, increasing the total from 34 to 38.

Four counties — Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Genesee — may hold the key to power in the state senate. Twenty of the 38 senators will be elected from these counties.

Wayne will name 13 instead of 7. Oakland will jump from one to three senators, Macomb and Genesee from one to two.

Number of constituents in each senatorial district will vary from 205,000 to 207,000.

Locally, of course, there will be a lot of transitions. Incumbents in the old districts will be entering races in the new districts. And newcomers will be throwing their hats in the ring, too.

Paul Chandler, a state legislator in the former 21st district, plans to run for the Michigan senate.

Chandler, a Republican, represented Northville, Livonia, Plymouth and Redford in the state legislature. His district was one of the largest in terms of population.

The old 21st district has been split up into three new districts, 34th, 35th and 36th. The Wayne county portion of the city of Northville, Northville township and Livonia are included in the 35th.

The newly-created 14th senatorial district serves Wayne and Oakland counties on a 50-50 basis.

Northville, (both Wayne and Oakland county sections), Northville township, Novi township, South Lyon, Lyon township and Wixom are included in the 14th senatorial district.

Raymond Baker of the old 4th legislative district in Oakland county has indicated he will be in contention for the seat in the newly-formed 60th legislative district. He would represent some of his former constituents.

Situated in the 60th are the Oakland county portion of the city of Northville, Novi township, Wixom, South Lyon and Lyon township.

Baker is a Republican.

Farrell Roberts, a state senator from the old 12th district in Oakland county, has a new goal: to run on the Republican slate for the new state court of appeals.

Part of his former senatorial district is in the new 14th. Ray Dzendzel, state senate minority leader who served Northville and Northville township in the old 18th district, will no longer be a threat to his Republican foes in the area.

Because of reapportionment, his district has been sliced up into three new ones, 12th, 13th, 14th. Indications are that Dzendzel will be a contender in one of two new Democratic strongholds in Wayne county — the 12th or 13th districts.

The 14th senatorial district is predominantly Republican.

Like Dzendzel, Martha Griffiths has seen her 17th congressional district divided. Her power base has been shifted to Detroit, where Democrats usually fare well.

Part of her old district was inherited by Republican George Meader, who has been in Congress 13 years. It is now the 2nd Congressional district and includes Northville township.

And another congressional district, the 19th, was drawn up. The district will be represented in Congress by a new face as no incumbent serves the area.

In part it encompasses the city of Northville (both Wayne and Oakland county sections), Novi township, South Lyon, Lyon township and Wixom.

William Broomfield, a Republican, used to represent the Oakland portion of Northville, Novi and Wixom in Congress. His district was the 18th.

His district's number is still the same but his political boundaries have been switched to include just the eastern and southeastern portions of Oakland county.

Party candidates will be decided by voters at the September 1 primary.

Chamber Hits 'Boycott' By Retailers

Visibly upset by the lack of attendance at the first general membership meeting of the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce, President Dempsey Ebert accused local retailers of "boycotting" the newly formed organization.

Facing an audience of 19, including seven of the nine-member board of directors, Ebert emphasized the point by adding words apparently directed at the press, "and you can quote me".

The meeting was called last Wednesday evening for the purpose of outlining aims and objectives, gaining paid membership and hearing William Bott, manager of the Ann Arbor chamber of commerce, explain the role the chamber in promoting and guiding community development.

The blunt-talking Bott said he decided to change his prepared speech as he viewed the rows of empty seats.

He suggested Northville could do one of two things: bury the chamber of commerce; or give it life.

But he then let it be known that Northville could use an organization, whatever its name, functioning in the role of a chamber.

"You're going to grow because you lie west of Detroit. You can control the destiny of your development, or by sitting and doing nothing, you also make a decision to let outsiders determine the manner of development," said Bott.

He advised the new chamber to start small... "tackle one problem and solve it" ... and he emphasized the need for compromise and cooperation with the community.

Bott pointed out that political boundaries are only lines and that community growth requires cooperation between all governmental units.

In answer to a question from the audience of what project might be undertaken initially to help assure the success of the chamber, Bott pointed to industrial development.

He pointedly noted, however, that "a project to know your community" might be needed first.

In a general discussion session at the city hall meeting Philip Ogilvie suggested the formation of a strong membership committee to sign up those who have expressed interest. In addition he proposed an attendance committee to remind members of meeting dates.

Directors attending the meeting in addition to Ebert were Howard Atwood, John Carlo, Keith Deacon, John Macauley, Thomas Quinn and Dr. L. W. Snow.

'Not True' Says Sedan

Retail Merchants' President Harry Sedan denied this week any plot on the part of local merchants to boycott the new Northville Chamber of Commerce.

The head of the retailers association said he had already called for a meeting of the boards of the two groups to clear up any misunderstanding.

It was Sedan's contention that the merchants will support the chamber, but feel they must present a solid organization themselves to be a strong asset to the chamber.

And he noted that the retailers were having attendance troubles of their own.

Dry Bed at Old Mill Pond

DRAINED — The old mill pond in Northville was drained this week to make way for the Novi sewer line. Work began in February at "both ends" of the line — near Seven Mile road in Northville, where it is connected to the Wayne county interceptor — and near Nine Mile road in Novi where it will extend westward to Center street, northward to Ten Mile and southward along Novi road to connect to the southern end of the line. In Northville the line is now just west of Griswold across from the Ford plant. It will swing north through the drained mill pond roughly following the railroad to Novi road. Water will then be run back into the pond.

No Parade But Plenty Of Fireworks

Northville will not have a Fourth of July parade this year.

In recent years the Jaycees have undertaken to sponsor and promote the holiday attraction, but Jaycee Karl Knoth stated that this year's celebrating will be confined to fireworks only.

The display will be fired at 9 p.m. promptly from the high school baseball diamond on the north side of the Eight Mile road cut-off.

A colorful, all-Japanese display of fireworks that will last one hour should provide thrills for the entire family, Knoth promised.

Jaycees Elect John Macauley

John Macauley officially took over his duties as the 1964-65 president of the Jaycees at a banquet Sunday evening at the Black Whale.

Other officers installed by Karl Knoth, the retiring president, were: Richard Norton, first vice-president; Ken Roberts, second vice-president; Scott Krause, secretary; Douglas Harger, treasurer; Roy Herald, state director, and George Miller, director.

Afterwards the Jaycees adjourned to a party at Knoth's home.

THE MILL POND gave up these former inhabitants — a moss-back snapping turtle and three, good-sized carp. Ward Riley, an employee of the Ford Motor company, estimates the turtle he's holding is 50 years old. Bill Burton and Roger Casteel "captured" the carp as they floundered around in the shallow water. Riley recalled that the mill pond was drained in 1936 to gravel the bottom.

Development Group Seeks New Property Investors

The Northville Area Development Corporation has undertaken its third project.

Last week the non-profit corporation composed of local residents interested in promoting the industrial and commercial welfare of the community purchased the Frank Sumner residence, 111 South Wing.

The purchase ties in closely with the recent purchase of an apartment building just around the corner at 123 West Main.

Eventually, the development is hopeful that property in the block can be converted to business and revenue producing commercial enterprises.

Meanwhile, the corporation is again seeking buyers of six per cent debentures, similar to those sold locally for the expansion of Foundry Flank and Equipment Company.

Presently, apartments in the house are rented. The development group plans to continue renting the property as a residence for an indefinite period.

Persons interested in purchasing debentures are urged to contact either N. C. Schrader, A. R. Clarke or Philip Og-

Novi Denies Bid For Mobile Unit Near Northville

A controversial issue in Novi — the establishment of a mobile home site — is simmering down today.

After a five-hour meeting, the village council Monday night approved one trailer coach location and took a second under consideration.

Council approved a site submitted by the Novi planning board. It is on the west side of Haggerty road just north of Interstate 96. Mrs. Floy L. Barks holds deed to the property.

The other site, situated south of Golden Acres subdivision at 11 Mile and east of Seelye road, will be reviewed July 6 at a council meeting and then be accepted or voted down. This tract of land is owned by Patrick Mason.

Mason contemplates a "subdivision of metal homes." It would cost about $500,000 to construct. On the premises would be underground television and utility hook-ups, a water system, swimming pool and recreation area, Mason stated.

Rejected were sites proposed by Frank L. Davis of Northville, A. Russell Button of Novi and Robert R. Flynn of Novi.

Davis' parcel was on the west side of Beck road just south of Nine Mile, Button's on east side of Novi road, south of I-96, and Flynn's on south side of 10 Mile between Taft road and Haggerty road.

Since Novi wrote trailer home regulations into its zoning ordinance four years ago, council had to select a site or sites suitable for the mobile units.

If it had taken no action, the village faced the alternative of a court fight.

Howard Bond, village attorney, told the combined meeting of the planning board and council that Novi shouldn't "try to zone out trailers."

He elaborated: "The state supreme court would find that Novi has plenty of vacant property and a comprehensive zoning plan." He emphasized that the court would rule that Novi "must find some place for trailer homes."

The matter came to a boiling point because there was no provision in the village's master plan for mobile homes.

Thus zoning classifications had to be altered to carve out a spot for the trailers.

As council deliberated the matter, it overturned recommendations of the planning board. Actually the planners can only advise the council; its decisions are not binding. Council has final word on local ordinances.

Planners suggested that the council adopt the Button property — along with its own site — for rezoning. But council declined. Instead, it preferred to weigh each of the five sites and then pass judgement.

Earlier in the evening, homeowner association spokesmen, local residents and attorneys representing their clients in the rezoning dispute debated the advantages and limitations of mobile home sites. Most of the comments were negative.

Protests against the proposed Davis trailer project were heard from Northville, too. Both the city council and school board registered complaints.

Specifically, the school board said in a letter:

"Use of trailer coaches ... by families having children of school age is accelerating rapidly ... such expanding use tends to impose a burden on the public school system without assuming a fair share of the ... property tax burden."

In other words, trailer owners don't pay as much in school taxes as permanent, residential home owners.

To counteract this loss of revenue, the Northville school board, among others, is asking the state legislature to increase the tax levy on occupied house trailers.

A representative for Northville Estates, a subdivision of high-priced homes near the Davis site, reasoned that a trailer park would "lower property values and create traffic problems."

W. A. Bartschi, of 22126 Beck road, who owns 10 1/2 acres near the Davis site, bluntly told the audience of about 100 people:

"We don't have a great amount of industry in Novi so there has been a development of better-than-average homes here. There has been a healthy real estate boom."

"If a trailer park is allowed here, it will set back growth, hurt the village as a whole and property owners."

He indicated that there must be a place for mobile homes in the village but said he "was opposed to it in areas of prime development."

A Birmingham attorney, George F. Taylor, who represented Steven Darcy of 46250 Nine Mile at the hearing, revealed the "bad side" of trailers. Taylor told the village to proceed "very carefully and very cautiously on mobile home sites. There is more crime and you would have to increase the police department."

"The applicants' interests in the sites are only monetary."

Another attorney, Anthony Renee, sided with Taylor. Renee represented Leo Harra-wood, of 26460 Novi road.

He said the council should be aware of the appearance of the trailer park. "You wouldn't want it to look like someone with egg on his face but dressed in his best suit going to church on Sunday. As an eyesore it would reduce property values."

But Dale Libby, the attorney in the Button bid for rezoning, argued that trailer parks are not a breeding ground for crime. He contended that most are self-respecting.

"There are many more white collar than blue collar workers. They include salesmen and teachers."

"Their trailers are like a modern home. Some have 1 1/2 baths, three to four bedrooms and a kitchen with all the appliances."

"A park manager can't afford trouble-makers because he would probably lose some renters."

Joe Brennan, attorney for Mason whose site is undergoing further study, emphasized that mobile homes "are no longer gypsy wagons."

"You shouldn't isolate a trailer site behind a snake pit or near a swamp. If trailer occupants think they're second-class citizens, you'll get just that."

"There may be suspicion or lack of understanding and you may think they have two heads but if you meet these people you'll find they'll be an asset to the community."

Philip Ogilvie, Northville city attorney mentioned that his client, Robert Flynn, wanted to build a trailer park "he wouldn't be ashamed of."

"He wants high-class trailers and occupants. People who live in mobile homes like to live in a nice place."

"You shouldn't pick the worst property or property ringed with industry. You wouldn't get the right kind of development or right kind of occupants."

Asked why there isn't a trailer site in Northville, Ogilvie responded: "There is no area suited for one. Northville is small, only about 2 square miles. Novi is bigger. It is 36 square miles."

European Garden Tour Thrills Club Women

Exhausted and glad to get home to that 'good ole American breakfast', 13 members of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association and four husbands returned May 28 from a three week "wonderful and breath-taking" tour of European gardens.

The continental breakfast of a hard roll and coffee was the only thing they didn't like in Europe.

The one local resident of the European excursion, in addition to Mrs. C. D. Hill who planned the trip for Travel Plans, Inc., was Mrs. Louise Whittington of 46945 Stratford Court, who gave the Record an account of the Association's travels.

The journey to the other side of the Atlantic, which took the group to eight countries, began and ended by plane but in the interim consisted of 32,000 miles covered by bus.

They saw the tulip fields of Holland where Mrs. Whittington reports "tulips as large as dinner plates. You just have to see it to believe it."

Also on the itinerary were the Chelsea Flower Show in London, and visits to Amsterdam, Innsbruck, Heidelberg, Venice, Rome, Milan, Switzerland and Paris.

Venice was a "scene straight from fairy land" said Mrs. Whittington, and naturally the first thing they did when they arrived was to take a ride in a gondola.

On the way to Rome, they managed to see Michael Angelo's "David" in Florence. "Ari critic or not, you couldn't help but be overwhelmed by its magnificence," she said.

When in Rome they did as all other travelers do and visited the Forum, the Coliseum, St. Peter's in Vatican City where "as we entered the cathedral a mighty shaft of light bathed the altar in sunshine and caused each one of us to catch our breath," reported Mrs. Whittington.

They saw Pisa's Leaning Tower, but, as Mrs. Whittington said, no one dared to climb it.

A jaunt to Switzerland consisted of their bus speeding around hair-pin turns one after another with "every one hanging on for dear life." Everyone, that is, except Mrs. Hill who daringly stood on the back seat of the bus, hung her camera out the window snapping pictures "like crazy," said Mrs. Whittington.

During the remainder of the trip, they visited all the tourist attractions including Versailles, Notre Dame and British Parliament.

Then it was over. "It seems like a lovely dream — not of many individual gardens, but of Europe as one big May Garden," said our trip correspondent. She called it a 'trip of a life time.'

Red Cross Needs Drivers

Volunteer motor service drivers are urgently needed by the Detroit chapter of the Red Cross.

"Motor service drivers are the 'wheels' of the Red Cross," said Mrs. Walter W. Chlopan, motor service chairman.

They take part in every aspect of transportation for the chapter; delivering blood to hospitals; transporting educational materials to schools, civic and business organizations; and personnel to bloodmobiles. Drivers also provide transportation in emergencies.

They are essential to the mobility of Red Cross.

Persons in the Northville, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth and Redford township areas are asked to call Mrs. Donald Crain, 11424 Ingram, Livonia GA 2-1754 or Mrs. Paul Diamond, 9100 Melrose, Livonia 425-4559 for further information.

They saw Pisa's Leaning Tower, but, as Mrs. Whittington said, no one dared to climb it.

A jaunt to Switzerland consisted of their bus speeding around hair-pin turns one after another with "every one hanging on for dear life." Everyone, that is, except Mrs. Hill who

Crusoe — Byrne Exchange Vows

Miss Mary Ellen Crusoe and Howard Edmund Byrne, Jr. exchanged marriage vows in an 11 a. m. nuptial mass Saturday in Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. The bride's cousin, Rev. Clement J. Crusoe S.J., of Toronto, officiated at the mass and double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Claude Allen Crusoe, 43180 W. Nine Mile road, Northville, and the late Mr. Crusoe. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Howard Edmund Byrne, Sr., of Royal Oak, and the late Mr. Byrne.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Ensign John A. Crusoe, the bride wore a gown fashioned of ivory peau de soie made with an oval cathedral-length train which was covered by an heirloom veil of Brussels princess lace with rose point lace inserts. The gown was styled with a Sabrina neckline and three-quarter length sleeves touched with alencon lace. The floor length skirt extended from a self belt at the waistline which featured a back bow. She carried a modified cascade arrangement of Amazon lilies.

Miss Kay David Schloff of Wyandotte was maid of honor. Miss Elizabeth Gersich of Highland Park, and Miss Mary Ellen Rosenthal of Lafayette, Indiana, were bridesmaids. The bride's cousin, Miss Greta Crusoe of Birmingham, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were attired in floor length gowns of white organza over pale green taffeta, highlighted by front panels of popcorn organza. The brides featured V-bodices and brief sleeves. A floating panel of the organza provided back interest. Each wore a round headpiece of daisies with brief illusion veils and carried an arrangement of daisies.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Wm. Michael Byrne, to serve as best man. Ushering guests to their places were Ens. Crusoe, James Carney of Bloomfield Hills, and Robert Goulet of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Crusoe wore a dress of dusty mauve silk linen made with a tucked organza bodice, touched with self appliques at the waistline. The dress featured a scoop neckline and capped sleeves. Her floral hat was in deeper tones of mauve and pink and she had a corsage of cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Byrne chose a parchment silk crepe dress with an over bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace. She wore a matching hat of straw chiffon with draped crown and a corsage of Amazon lilies.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted guests at a reception for the immediate families at the Meadowbrook Country Club.

The bride was graduated from Marquette university in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and the University of Detroit Law school. She is a member of Kappa Beta Pi. Her husband was graduated from the University of Detroit and received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law. He is affiliated with Delta Sigma Pi and Delta Theta Phi.

After a brief wedding trip the newlyweds will reside in Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wiatrowski

Newlyweds Head For 'Windy City'

Marjorie Ann Baker became the bride of Arnold Wiatrowski June 13, at a ceremony officiated by the Rev. Father John Wittstock at Our Lady of Victory church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baker, 18915 Balden avenue. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiatrowski, South Haven.

The bride walked down the aisle in a gown of organza with a beautiful floor length skirt slightly flattered in front which spotlighted the delicacy of the peau d'ange lace. Flowery lace motifs made a fashion point in back along a graceful bow-topped waist train. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Carole Lemmon who wore a bell shaped floor length gown of pink silk organza. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations interlaced with roses. Wearing similar gowns but in deeper shades of pink were the bridesmaids, Chryal Baker, the bride's sister, Mildred Smith and Sharon Overhuel.

Connie Smith, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and Brian Baker, the bride's brother, served as ring bearer.

Sam Polverento was the best man. Ushering were Jim Patulski, Peter Biondo and Robert Overhuel.

Mrs. Baker, for her daughter's wedding, wore a turquoise dress of silk organza with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of pink lace, pink accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The newlyweds greeted approximately 200 guests from Chicago, South Haven, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Allegan and Northville at a reception in Roma Hall.

Dressed in a navy blue suit with white accessories, the new Mrs. Wiatrowski and her husband left for their honeymoon trip to Chicago.

The couple will later make their home in Mobile Village, Stevensville, Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of Northville High school and Cleary College. Her husband graduated from South Haven High school and Ferris Institute.

Two Local Women Attend Presbyterian Convention

Mrs. George Jerome, 743 Horton and Mrs. Richard G. Nelson, 22005 Napier, were among 5,000 United Presbyterian Women who gathered at Purdue university, June 22-27 to consider Christian freedom.

Meeting in their triennial assembly, they heard from leading churchmen and met with special guests and delegates from overseas.

Study and action theme for the next three years which will be taken up locally by the 626,000 members was launched.

Under the theme "Called to be Free and Obedient" the Women considered what real Christian freedom means in relationship to oneself and to others.

Helen Kromer, noted religious dramatist, presented a play she wrote especially for the meeting.

Noted speakers on different aspects of the theme included: Dr. Ernest Gordon, dean of Chapel at Princeton university; Rev. Eugene Carson Blake, state clerk of the United Presbyterian church in the U. S.; Dr. Paul Pruyser, director of the education department of the Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. Abbey C. Jackson, national president, Women's Home Foreign Missionary Society of the A.M.E. Zion Church.

Reports of the accomplishments and failures were given as well as future emphasis for United Presbyterian women.

Special music was provided by a large choir of the Women, the Princeton Theological Seminary choir and the Octet from Inter-American university of Puerto-Rico.

SCHOLARSHIP FOR DIANE — William C. Pine, Ford Motor company fund scholarship director, is shown presenting a four-year scholarship award to Diane L. Haynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Haynes of 46355 West Main street. Diane was one of 70 in the nation and 30 in Michigan winning a 1964 Ford Fund scholarship. The presentation was made Sunday while the winners were attending a three-day conference in Dearborn. Diane will use her scholarship at Wheaton college in Illinois studying to become an elementary school teacher. She graduated from Northville high school this year.

'Recovery' Changes Meetings

The Plymouth group of Recovery, Inc., moved to the Plymouth high school (room 114) from Our Lady of Good Counsel school library for its meeting place this week. The group will continue to meet every Wednesday evening, but the time has been moved up a half-hour to 8:00 p.m.

Recovery, Inc. was founded in 1937 by the late Dr. Abraham A. Low, Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Neurology at the University of Illinois Medical School. After years of research, study and treating patients, Dr. Low developed the Recovery system of self-help techniques to prevent chronicity, in nervous patients and relapses in former mental patients. However, it is not necessary to have been hospitalized or under the care of a psychiatrist in order to take part in Recovery meetings.

Recovery, Inc. does not supplant the physician. Recognizing limitations as lay people is part of the leaders training. At every Recovery meeting it is made clear that leaders are not physicians or authorities or experts in any sense of the word. The training deals only with that portion of a person's life where he is expected to practice "self-leadership".

Recovery, Inc. has no religious affiliations but is endorsed by religious leaders and physicians. Meetings are open to the public. All interested persons are invited to attend and observe the meetings.

Troop 731 Gains 2nd Eagle Scout

A Northville youth has earned the highest award in scouting.

William Harrison, 14, of 851 Carpenter, became an Eagle Scout last Thursday night during an honor court of troop 731 held at First Methodist church.

Boots Gregersen, also of troop 731, is an eagle scout.

Bill, who will enter high school in the fall, accumulated 28 merit badges. Only 21 are required. It took him two years to win his award.

Other awards given out were:

Tenderfoot — Mike Breen, Roy Tiffin and Kerry Cushing.
2nd Class — John Bowen, Tom Durham, Dale Orphan,

Most 1964 Graduates Carried 'Extra' Classes

Northville high school graduates didn't "mick-mouse" their way through school for four years.

In fact, for most students, it was exactly the opposite. They worked.

Evidence, compiled in a report by Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant school superintendent, shows most graduates, not only content to take the requirements, subjected themselves to extra classes.

For example, every student is required to take four years of English. But in Northville 78 percent had five and half years of English. The surplus included speech and reading.

The report as a comparison study of every third student who graduated in June.

With the advent of astronauts, students put more emphasis on science. Some 26 percent of the graduates during their four years of high school, had a total of three years of such courses. Only two years were required. Forty-five percent took at least two and a half years. Some sixty-five percent studied mathematics for one and a half years.

On the cultural side where there are no requirements, but 40.9 percent studied music and 53.2 percent art.

Each student must have at least two years of a language to graduate. Three languages — Spanish, French and Latin — are taught. Spanish seemed the most popular. According to the report, one student had three years of Spanish.

MacLeod's study point out that out of the 18 credits needed for graduation, a majority of the students carried an average of 19 and one-fourth credits.

hours. Fourteen students took twenty or more hours.

In his study, MacLeod compared the achievement of the graduating class of 1964 to their potential. Generally, the two coincided.

However, there were exceptions. One student who had a potential rating of "C" ended up in the top ten of his class.

Another with a potential of doing "B" work was in the last half, the report shows.

CAP Practices at Wixom

Northville's Civil Air Patrol was on practice alert last weekend at Spencer airport in Wixom.

It was among five squadrons of group 10 participating in a two-day mission under the command of second lieutenant Russell Schoof, a member of the local unit.

Purpose of the mission was to train the group in ground, air-search and rescue procedures. Activities included classes in military education.

Cadet Schoof appeared on a television program June 20 to tell viewers in the metropolitan area about the air patrol.

Senior Citizens

Members of the Senior Citizens Club are urged by Recreation Director Ken Conley to make their reservations now for the July 10 trip to Bob-Lo Island.

Reservations may be made by calling the recreation office (349-0203) or by calling club President Mrs. H. A. Boyden (349-2255) before 12 noon July 7. Conley announced this week. The charge will be two dollars and members are requested to bring a picnic lunch.

NEW MODEL

A new model home is open in Parklane Estates, Plymouth. This home is a one-story ranch decorated in the earth tones, and combines Early American and Grecian periods of decor.

You will note the livability of the color scheme used. The rooms have a sense of togetherness with no abrupt clash of color harmony.

We have available any wallpaper you may see in other model homes — and we probably can suggest a more unique and functional use for the wallpaper as adapted to your home.

— Out of the Past —

ONE YEAR AGO
July 3, 1963

—Linda Gombas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gombas of Novi, reigned as Northville's Jaycee Queen in the Fourth of July parade.

—Jaycees sponsor the Fourth of July celebration with general chairman of the event, Karl Knott. Activities will include sky divers falling free from a plane at 5,500 feet to an altitude of 2,000 over the high school baseball diamond. At 1:00 p.m. all area church bells will ring for four minutes as part of the nationwide "Let Freedom Ring" celebration originating at Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia.

The parade will be headed by Joseph Denton, former Northville police chief, township and city officials, Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, State Senator Raymond Dzondzel and State Representative Paul Chandler. The parade will have 100 units including floats.

—A new program for mentally ill children was initiated at the Northville State hospital. They are putting into practice the philosophy of treating mentally ill kids like kids with young desires and needs, not like little adults.

—Awarded contracts for the new city hall-library were Carl Luomo, general contractor, Inter Lakes Mechanical Contractors, plumbing and heating, and Gillis Electric, electrical. Work will begin next week.

—William B. Templeton was appointed by the school board to fill the board seat vacated by the resignation of Donald B. Lawrence.

—Rosemarie Kominski of Novi, salutatorian of the 1963 Northville graduating class, is a winner of the 1963 Ford Fund Scholarship.

—The Women's Society of Christian Service will sponsor an old-fashioned ice-cream social at the First Methodist Church tomorrow.

—Judy Insland, Sandy Parmenter, Sally Winner, Joan Brevik, Jackie Henschell, Gail Nivrid, Northville high cheerleaders, capped top honors at the fifth summer camp session of the United States Cheerleading association.

—Mrs. E. A. Chapman received a certificate of appreciation in recognition of her 15 years in the school system. Mrs. Chapman, English teacher at the high school, is retiring.

—Rosemary Frost, Stephanie Brown and Judy Stamann attended the International Girl Scout Roundup at Silver Springs, Colorado.

—The city of Wixom continues its fight against alleged discrimination by the county tax commission.

mal approval to the city for the sale of bonds. The approval came just four weeks after the city's request. Normally the procedure takes three months.

—The paving from Taft road to the bridge at the C & O railroad near Novi road and from the east side of the bridge eastward to Eight Mile road may be undertaken in September.

FIVE YEARS AGO

July 2, 1959
—Community Hospital, Inc. will be the new name of the now defunct Sessions hospital when the new institution reopens in Northville, August 1. Work is now under way to remodel the hospital.

—The winner of the Northville's Downs Days' all-expenses paid vacation for two to romantic, glamorous Jamaica is a bachelor, 25-year-old, Charles Dickinson of 333 Yorkes.

—Northville residents made a sentimental lunge for the antiquated desks at the junior high school and thus cleared the way for the junior high $200,000 rehabilitation program.

—Prospects of a heavy-tax take from state rebates of Northville Downs pari-mutuel handle were less than bright this week as betting was 8½ percent below last year's level.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

July 7, 1949
—The special school election has been set for Wednesday, July 30. The vote will be on two questions: 1) whether the school district shall be bonded for the purpose of erecting an addition to the present Grade building and 2) of increasing the tax rate limitation.

—Ground will be broken for the first part of the Novi Community building within the next ten days.

This first section of the proposed building will include space for the fire department, township offices, Justice Courts, heating plant and kitchen.

—Morris Cohen was elected commander of the Lloyd H. Green Post American Legion at a meeting June 28.

—Chief of Police Denton issued his monthly report covering June at the regular meeting of the Village Commission. Police calls answered, 88; accidents investigated, 8; traffic violations, 108; summons, 101; arrests, 11; petty larceny, 3; breaking and entering, 2; publishing and forgery, 6; court cases, 1; prowlers, 2; bicycles stolen, 3; bicycles recovered, 2; persons to Elouse, 1; dogs to Dr. Cavell and destroyed, 5; total fines collected $475.

—Kenneth Rowe won the senior high football at the Fourth of July celebration sponsored by the American Legion at Ford Field. The Northville High school band led the parade with colors followed by children upon their decorated bicycles and others leading their pets to be judged at the field.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

July 7, 1939
—Sunday night while returning home from Walled Lake, Albert Schlesinger, proprietor of the Northville Recreation, was held up and robbed of $819.

—Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery received the carload of water pipe which the village ordered for mains on base line road to North Center street.

—Fred W. Lyke and George Stalker (incumbents) and Gerald F. Taft and Eural P. Clark announced their candidacy for the school trustee posts. The election will be held Monday, July 7.

—Tom Edmondson began his term as president of the Exchange Club Wednesday.

—After drilling 275 feet through clay soil Dunbar and Sons, contractors, for the well which is to supplement Northville's water supply, have abandoned the project until a meeting of the village commission is held.

—Although the rain chased some 8,000 persons to shelter late Tuesday afternoon at the fairgrounds, practically all of them were on hand again for the evening events in the largest Fourth of July celebration held here in years, sponsored by the Lloyd H. Green post of the American Legion.

—Both hospital and police department report a sane Fourth in the village. No emergency cases involving holiday pleasure seekers had to be treated at the hospital. The police department received no accident calls. No traffic violation arrests were made.

Thieves Take Tools From Rathburn Sales

Thieves broke into Rathburn Chevrolet Sales, 500 South Main early Thursday morning, June 25, and took tools valued at $400 from the garage.

The robbery occurred sometime between 12:05 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. according to police.
Employees left the building at midnight. They discovered a broken window on the north side of the building when they returned at 8:00 a.m.

After entering through the window, the robbers tried to pry open the parts department door, police said. They tried again when they found a lug wrench and stuck it in the door from the show room. Both attempts failed.

Officers Louis Westfall and Robert Pankow are still investigating the case.

The next time a moth flies into his car, Gladwin Olsen of Warren, will let it alone, at least while he is driving. Tuesday, Olsen was driving north on Griswold street. A moth did enter his car and as he tried to get it out, he hit a parked car.

Olsen received a bad cut on his nose and was sent to St.
Mary hospital for first aid. The right front hood of his car was damaged.

Clarence Haynes, Wauseon, Ohio, stopped for the stop sign at Wing street at Dunlap.
He looked east but not the other way, according to the police report. As he began to make a right turn onto Dunlap, he turned into a car driven by Howard Atwood, 121 High.
There were no injuries.

Two Detroiters, Donna Schroeter and Joseph Poller, Jr.
were involved in an accident,
Saturday at the stop sign at Seven Mile road and Northville road. Poller was driving behind Miss Schroeter. Both stopped for the sign. Poller, according to the police report, checked traffic and seeing it clear, started to move. He didn't notice that Miss Schroeter was still standing still. Despite a couple of slightly damaged cars, there were no injuries.

Highway 'Swimmer' Gets Fine in Novi

Miss "Novi Road of 1964" will never win any beauty contests.

A young Detroit woman was found Sunday night wandering down the middle of Novi Road near Erma. She was inebriated. And the only clothing she wore was a swimsuit.

Officer Spencer tried to convince her to take a cab home but she wasn't too cooperative. He said she was very unsteady on her feet and was loud and profane.

So she spent the night in Oakland county jail. The next day she was fined $40 in Justice Court for being drunk and disorderly.

Wanted: a roto-tiller that somebody stole instead of bought.

John Kemkrow, of 50100 10 Mile, told police he had a for-sale sign hanging on the piece of garden equipment Sunday on his front lawn. At dusk, he removed it to a shed behind his garage. He closed the door of the shed but didn't lock it.

That night he heard a strange noise in the back of his home but didn't investigate. Around 11 p.m. Kemkrow discovered that the tiller was missing.

A 23-year-old Novi resident, who was ticketed June 21 for reckless driving was fined $15
last Thursday in justice court.
Pleading guilty was Glenn E.
Schenimann, of 26029 Whipple.

It was pretty expensive for William Noah Hook to get another ticket Sunday in Novi.

Police stopped him for driving a defective vehicle. One headlight was missing. Then it was learned he had never paid three previous tickets issued in the village. Two were for operating a defective vehicle and the third was for being a traffic hazard.

Hook faced both Judge Anderson and Jacques the next morning. Anderson fined him $45 for not paying two of the old defective vehicle tickets.

In Justice Court

Kenneth Ray Noder's trip to court Monday cost him $30.
He was charged May 25 with speeding 40 mph in a 25 mph zone on East Main. State police ticketed him May 31 for having a noisy muffler. Noder pleaded guilty to both counts.
He was fined $20 on the first and $10 costs on the second.

Other cases before Judge
Charles W. MacDonald, June 29 were:

The arraignment of Edward Sabbaugh, 19 Woodland. He pleaded guilty to speeding 45 mph in a 35 mph zone on South Main, June 12. He was fined $10.

At trial, Robert D. Bosak, 4300 East Nine Mile road, was found guilty of backing his car approximately 900 feet on the high school drive hill. The charge was made by E. V.
Elison, director of administrative services, Northville high school. Bosak entered a plea of not guilty at arraignment
June 22 and was placed on a $50 personal bond.

Constance P. Andrews, Birmingham, pleaded not guilty at arraignment to driving with a restricted chauffeur's license.
He was ticketed June 19 and released on a $50 cash bond.

He was assessed a fine of $20
and $10 costs.

Frank Lee, Northville
Downs, entered a plea of guilty at arraignment for operating a car with no valid license,
June 21. He was fined $10.

Elijah Owens, also of Northville Downs, entered the same plea, received the same fine—$10—for the same charge—no valid operator's license. However he received his ticket
June 20.

At trial, Nicholas Zanders of Plymouth was found guilty of driving 30 mph in a 25 mph zone on South Rogers, June 16.
He had been found not guilty of the charge as it was originally stated, speeding 35 mph in a 25 mph zone. Zanders had entered a plea of not guilty at his arraignment, June 22.

He was assessed a fine of $5
on the changed charge.

Found guilty of making a prohibited left turn onto East Main from Area I parking lot, Anna Merte of 401 N. Rogers received a $5 fine. She pleaded not guilty at her arraignment June 22 for the offense which was committed June 12.

LUCKY GRAD — Janelyn Kaake had the lucky number and with it went a beautiful woman's wrist watch. The drawing is sponsored annually by H. R. Noder's Jewelers for the graduating class of Northville high school. Police Chief Eugene King drew the winning name Monday morning.
Janelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Kaake, 46234 West Fonner court, picked up her prize from Ray Noder Monday afternoon.

Recreation Baseball

T-Birds Suffer First Loss to Loper

Loper Firestone of Plymouth slowed down Northville's Spagy-Thunderbirds Monday night at Cass Benton diamond, 6-0.

The T-Bird — Loper game brought together two undefeated nines in class E recreation baseball.

Last week Spagy-Thunderbirds trounced Northville Recreation, 37-5, in a Wednesday night contest. The T-Birds drew 23 walks and rapped out 13 hits, including a triple and two doubles, while Bruce Durham and Doug Dingwall were hurling no-hit ball.

The T-Birds started out with 13 runs in the first inning. Leading hitters were Tom Dixon, Larry Beller, Scott Berge, Tom Frounfelter and Durham, each with two hits.

Friday night the T-Birds won a previously rain-out game against Novi's General Motors.

Keith Mueller hurled a one-hitter and struck out 13 to lead his mates to a 6-1 win.

But Monday it was all Loper Firestone as the left-handed slants of John Williams were too much for the T-Birds to solve. The fast-throwing Williams gave up only three hits, while fanning 18. Mueller collected two of the hits, a double and a single. Ted Budek singled for Northville's third hit.

Meanwhile, Glenn Deibert settled down to steady pitching for the T-Birds after a shaky first inning when Loper leaped to a five run lead scoring all its runs after two outs. The T-Birds loaded the bases with none out in the third, but Williams then fanned the side.

The victory left Loper undefeated and the T-Birds took a 6-1 record against a tough Fisher Shoe nine at Plymouth high school last night.

Vernon Biddle's Class E Northville Plumbers are finding it almost impossible to get a base hit.

The Plumbers have gone hitless in their last two games. They were shut out June 24 by the DePonio Contractors, 13-0.

Then the Plymouth Fisher

Shoes' nine closed the door on the Plumbers Monday night, 12-0.

In the DePonio game Pat Williams pitched no-hit ball and was backed up by heavy hitting, which included a triple, two doubles and 10 singles.

Dennis Matthews started on the mound for the Plumbers and was relieved by Larry Biddle.

J. Robertson fanned 18 for Fisher Shoes as his teammates lashed out two round trippers, a triple, double and single in Monday night's 12-0 win over the Plumbers. Biddle was on the mound for the local nine.

As a result of last week's play, the Indians and Giants are deadlocked for first place in the knothole baseball league.

The Giants were hard pressed by the Yankees June 24 before they eked out an 8-7 victory. With a man on third base and two out for the Yankees after they had come through with some late-inning scoring. Pitcher Joe Boland struck out the last man to preserve the win.

The Indians remained undefeated by easily beating the Cardinals, 13-0, Friday. Woody Filkin held the Cardinals to two singles, while his mates were giving him good support in the field and at the bat.

In other Knothole baseball games, the Dodgers tied down two victories. They outscored the Angels June 24, 10-6, and upended the Yankees Friday, 4-1.

In each contest, the Dodgers scored all their runs in one inning; against the Angels, the fatal inning was a 10-run second; against the Yankees, all the Dodgers markers were scored in the third frame.

The Panthers gave notice that they will be tough to beat in Knothole softball by winning two game as the season opened June 23.

Rick Bingley paced the Panthers to a 8-1 victory over the Clippers June 23, as he hurled a one-hitter, a single by Ken Ely.

Bingley again gained credit for the win when he pitched the Panthers to a 15-8 conquest of the Tigers. Michael Konopaski had a perfect day at the plate for the Panthers, clubbing out three singles.

The Colts squeezed by the Cubs June 23, 4-3, but suffered their first loss to the Clippers, 8-0, Thursday.

The Clipper-Cub contest was a strange affair as neither team could get a hit, but the Clippers capitalized on 12 walks.

In other Knothole softball games, the Bears upended the Tigers, 11-6, and the Cubs salvaged a 9-8 victory over the Lions Thursday. Four runs in the last inning turned the trick for the Cubs.

Although the Northville Plumbers of the Class D league were idle the past week, Coach Dave Hay was lamenting his team's poor showing this season.

Hitting has been the source of the trouble, he noted. "Since the first ball game, we have managed only five hits in four ball tilts, and only two runs. It's obvious why we aren't winning," he pointed out.

Hay also pointed out that the pitching has been more than adequate, with Steve Evans and Eric Peterson looking good on the mound, but unless the bats bring out the hits, "we won't get into the win column."

The Ely Oilers kicked off class F baseball play with a resounding, 27-0, victory June 16 over the Wayne County Training School.

Winning pitcher was Jim Peterson, who, in addition, slammed a round tripper and two singles. Pat Gayley backed Peterson up with two singles and a triple.

The Oilers came backstrong June 18 with a 11-4 conquest of the Braves.

Last Thursday the Oilers knocked-off the Loper nine, 10-4. Peterson held the Plymouth team to four hits as the Oilers overcame a three-run deficit in the sixth and seventh innings.

Craig MacDermid hit a bases-loaded home run to high light a nine-run seventh inning for the Oilers. Jerry Asher hit a double and John Gustaf collected a pair of singles.

Downs Still Shows Gains

Northville Downs continued its fast pace in both betting and attendance as the third week of racing ended last weekend.

The biggest crowd in more than two years, 7,346 fans, were on hand for Saturday night's meet. They bet $358,521.

On Friday the $10,000 HTA Pace brought some $340,335 through the parimutuel windows.

Attendance is up 13 1/2 percent over last year with a total of 81,723 fans — an average of 4,550 nightly.

Betting is up 19 1/2 percent with $4,894,592 wagered during the first three weeks of the 48 night meet compared to $4,082,667 during the same period last year.

The average nightly handle to date is $271,922.

St. Germain Scores With Best in State

Northville's Jim St. Germain, with still another year of high school ahead, demonstrated last week that he's already one of the state's top amateur golfers.

17-year-old Jim marched to the third round of the Michigan Amateur Golf Tourney at Belvedere Country Club in Charlevoix before losing 1-up on the 18th hole.

The youngest to gain match-play, Jim became one of the 64 qualifiers in a field of 226 top golfers by scoring 74-75.

In first round play he knocked off Dave McIlarg of Dearborn, 5 and 4.

St. Germain then squeezed by Jeff Ferries of Midland, 1-up in 20 holes.

With the field reduced to 16 players Jim came up against Dan Townsend of East Lansing in the third round. He lost 1-up on the 18th hole.

Sunday the amateur title was won by Doug Hankey of St. Johns, a member of the MSU golf team.

St. Germain has been playing top golf all year. This spring he capped state high school honors by topping 64 entries from every class high school. Then in June, he won first round honors in the National Jaycee tourney held at Burroughs Farms. He'll play in the state finals in mid-July.

This summer Jim will keep his game sharp in Detroit District tournaments for juniors each Monday. He's a member of Meadowbrook.

So Does Jim Mazel

'White Lightning' Travels Fast

Jim Mazel owns a hot car but is "cool-headed" behind the wheel.

He drives with a feather-weight foot on the accelerator on streets and highways around Novi and Northville. However, he pours on the gas at the dragstrip.

Mazel, an 18-year-old resident of Novi and a June graduate of Northville high school, is fast becoming a top contender in his class at strips in the area. He has been racing a year.

His machine, a 1958 Ford hardtop named "White Lightning", is not souped-up. It is rated as a stock car. But it has been modified slightly by using optional equipment offered by the manufacturer.

"All modifications are allowed by the National Hotrod association which sets all the rules, checks engines and places a driver in the right classification," Mazel said.

He has altered the four-wheeler with a 332 cubic inch Thunderbird interceptor special engine developing 245 horsepower by installing a carburetor with bigger jets and a special rear axle.

At first glance, his car seems out of proportion outwardly. Reason: there are two different sets of tires on the rims. As Mazel explained:

"I use regular-size tires on the front end. They are 800x14. On the rear, though, I have a pair of 950x15. The latter provide traction."

Mazel has not lost a drag since mounting the larger tires on the back wheels.

Inside, Mazel's dashboard resembles the cockpit of an airplane. Besides the usual instruments, he keeps his eyes on a tachometer ("tells me the right revolutions per minute for shifting"), a vacuum gauge ("it indicates when car is misfiring or carburetor is acting up") an amp gauge for the battery and an oil pressure gauge.

"White Lightning" has lived up to its name, Mazel said. Ever since Mazel took it out for the first time for a test-run and discovered it was a threat to other challengers, he has accumulated a lot of trophies.

"It's the fastest Ford at the Detroit Dragway and I've collected 14 trophies so far. In my first race I took first place," Mazel said modestly. Dragging is different than other forms of racing. It does not feature a large field of entrants on the track at one time. Instead, it pits two drivers against one another.

Mazel has turned a quarter mile in 16.25 seconds or 86 miles per hour. The record stands at 16.19 seconds or 87 miles per hour in his class.

He regularly beats all the cars in his class and has walked away with the so-called stock eliminator award twice so far. In a stock eliminator contest Mazel's "competing against cars in other classes so I am given a slight head-start."

Earlier this year at an NHA regional meet at Detroit, Mazel "placed" in his class out of 43 entrants. For his showing he racked up four points, two more than needed to qualify for the U.S. National Drag-race this summer in California.

Although his car "flies" on the strip, Mazel never uses city streets as a proving grounds. "White Lightning" may top end at 130 miles per hour but I never go over 90 on the track. High speeds put too much pressure on the engine. I could blow an engine that way."

Mazel mentioned he is often challenged "by punk kids" to drag on city streets. I just laugh at them. I would get kicked off the dragway for racing somewhere else. I couldn't risk my standing."

Before he embarked on racing, though, Mazel admits he was ticketed for speeding — but only once.

Mazel, who lives at 41695 Grand River, will enter Michigan State university in the fall to pursue a course in business administration and mechanical engineering.

He'll then put White Lightning in mothballs.

Thomson's Lead Men's Softball

Three games were on the slate as play began in the Northville Recreation's Men's Softball League last week. Heading the action was Thomson's Gravelpitters, champions of the league for the past three years, who resumed their winning habit by copping two victories. In the third game of the initial week the Walled Lake Merchants turned back Mid-7 Party Store 10 to 7.

The Gravelpitter's victories were hard-earned. Against the Northville State Hospital Misfits, Thomson's squad was forced to 10 innings before they edged their rivals, 13-11. The Gravelpitters picked up two runs in the tenth on a walk to Joe Kritch, singles by Steve Juday and Ken Kisabeth, and a sacrifice fly by Jim Juday.

The Gravelpitter's second victory was gained against the Lapham's Men's Shop. Extra base hits in the first inning by Donald Van Ingen and Don Thomson highlighted a four-run uprising that proved to be the decisive margin for the Gravelpitter's in a five to two victory. Orson Atchinson, the Lapham's pitcher, allowed only four hits and one run after the first inning outburst. Charlie Sorenson allowed only three hits while going the route for the Gravelpitters.

Obituary

MICHAEL A. BAGGOT

A local resident since 1940, Michael A. Baggot, 70, of 537 Randolph, died suddenly at home last Wednesday. Rosary was said Friday at Casterline Funeral home. Funeral services were conducted Saturday by the Rev. Fr. John Wittstock. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery. Mr. Baggot, who was born October 2, 1893 in Limerick, Ireland, was a member of Our Lady of Victory Parish, and men's club and a veteran of World War I. He was retired. He was preceded in death by his wife, Alice. Survivors include two sons, Michael M. Baggot of Los Angeles and John A. Baggot of Cherry Point, North Carolina; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Manley of Detroit, Miss Helen Baggot of Limerick, Ireland and sister Mary Reginald, I.H.M.; two brothers, Thomas Baggot of Inkster and Patrick Baggot of San Francisco.

ORA E. PICKELL

Mrs. Ora E. Pickell, 86, who lived in Northville from 1917 to 1962, died Monday in Ford Hospital after a short illness. She had been living in Detroit since leaving the area two years ago. Mrs. Pickell was born November 22, 1877 in Carlton Center, Michigan. While in Northville, she belonged to the Royal Neighbors and order of Eastern Star, Orient chapter no. 77. Services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Casterline Funeral home. Pastor Elwood Chipchase of Salem Federated church will officiate. Interment will be in Rural Hill cemetery. Mrs. Pickell is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Francis Lenetelsor of Detroit and Mrs. Mildred McLean of Hollywood, Florida; two sons, Milton Hall of St. Ignace, Michigan and Carlos Hall of Hallondale, Florida; a brother, Ray Burd of Nashville, Michigan; four grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Busy Northville Recreation Staff Places its Emphasis on Youth

Backbone of the Northville Recreation department's summer program is an enthusiastic and ambitious staff of workers, headed by Director Ken Conley, who have placed the emphasis on youth.

More and more local youngsters are taking advantage of the program, which includes arts and crafts, swimming and special events.

Since Conley took over as director four years ago, canoeing, swimming instruction, physical fitness and nature hikes have been added. And there's no indication of a cutback. Thanks to the virtuosity of recreation personnel, there has been no increase in the number of workers however. Eleven people still handle all the chores.

In view of the fact that the jobs are not especially lucrative, satisfaction comes in working with youngsters. Of paramount importance in considering an applicant is a sincere liking of young people, says Conley. "This is a must," Conley pointed out. He noted that since his helpers like the youths to begin with, it makes the job more palatable and an alert staff is assured.

Willingness to work, a recreation specialty and the ability to learn the "whole business" are other qualifications that the staff members must meet.

"We don't have room for any prima donnas," Conley declared. "Everybody has to pitch in to make the program a success."

"Pitching in" means anything from sweeping the floor and watering the grass at the Scout-Recreation Building headquarters to supervising special events and just creating a healthy atmosphere for youngsters.

Many times the staff is on call for duty.

The list of personnel and their qualifications and experience are extensive.

Julie Gazlay, in her fourth year with the department, is a tennis, canoeing, archery and swimming instructor. A junior at Olivet college, she is a teaching major.

Dave Hay, one of Northville's best high school competitors, is a take-charge guy. With three year's experience in the department, he manages the Knothole baseball program, in addition to coaching the class D Plumbbers and the Class E Spagy-Thunderbirds.

Hay also is a water safety instructor. He attends Central College of Pella, Iowa.

Phil Jerome is another individual with three year's experience. He heads the Men's softball league and is active in Knothole baseball and softball and as a water safety instructor.

Lorita Spooner, who will be a sophomore at Eastern Kentucky university, co-supervises the arts-and-crafts program at the Scout-Recreation building. In addition, she is a water safety supervisor and assists at Senior Citizens' functions. This is her third year on the staff.

Rita Bradford, in her third year and a junior at Central Michigan university, is a co-supervisor of arts and craft at the Amerman School.

Bob Prom, who is an elementary teacher at the Main street school, does triple duty in this, his fourth year on the staff. He coaches the class F Orioles and drives the bus on swimming junkets to Whitmore

In Uniform

Fort Riley, Kan. — Army Pvt. Kerry C. Madigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Madigan, 4277 E. Eight Mile road was assigned to the 1st Infantry Division at Fort Riley, Kansas, June 6 for advanced training.

Madigan, assigned to Company A, 1st Battalion of the division's 28th Infantry, entered the Army in March 1964 and completed basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1962 graduate of Northville high school.

AC12 Ronald and Mrs. Eggers (the former Gloria Hollis) left Monday for Lemoore, California to make their home where Ronald is stationed at the air naval station there. He has just completed six weeks advanced course in radar at Brunswick, Georgia.

DRIVER HELP — Driver education films designed to reduce auto accidents through expanded teenage driver education were presented to the Northville public school system last week through the courtesy of the local Standard Oil and Ford Motor company dealers. In the picture above Howard Hester, whose station is located at Main and Church streets, is shown presenting the films to High School Principal Fred Stefanski. The safety-film project is also being sponsored locally by John Mach Ford Sales.

LET'S TALK CARS...

The Least Expensive Way to Service Your Car

There is a simple rule to follow if you want to keep your car service bills to a minimum. That is to get that service done by the most experienced mechanic you can find.

The reasons are fairly obvious: a fully qualified mechanic can diagnose car trouble in most cases immediately without wasting costly service time trying this or that alternative. Furthermore, once diagnosed, the trouble is remedied on a factory-set time basis under a guarantee that the customer must be completely satisfied with the job or it will be done over without further charge.

That is the way our service shop is run at John Mach. Whatever your trouble is we have a mechanic who has done that same job repeatedly. He acquired his specialized knowledge at factory schools where he was taught the right way as well as skill in using modern time-saving equipment.

In case you think this applies only to complicated tune-ups and transmission jobs you are mistaken. Recently we had occasion to repack a customer's front wheels only to find that both wheel bearings were ruined by loose nut adjustments from the previous packing 5,000 miles earlier. It is one small example of very many. Repacking should be done with a repacker and grease gun which forces old grease out of the bearings; not by just slapping new grease into the bearings by hand.

Every reputable car dealer knows more car SALES come through his service entrance than the showroom door. That is the fundamental reason he makes his service superior.

Northville Boys Elected To Wolverine Offices

Like their fathers, two local youths have been exposed to the day-to-day affairs of running a government.

Gregg Penn, of 46150 W. Main and Jim Ritchie, of 821 Spring drive, now have some notion of the problems a public servant faces.

Gregg and Jim were among 12 of 29 representatives of Northville high school — the biggest contingent at the 27th session of Wolverine Boys' State — who were elected to city and county offices at a mock convention. All were in East Lansing from June 18-25.

Gregg was voted into the job of assistant county health director. His father, Harold, is Northville's city engineer. Jim, who became a city councilman, is the son of Harvey Ritchie, a city planning commissioner.

Other "politicians" named at the conclave were:

Bob Beller, of 771 Horton, street commissioner and delegate to national convention; Steve Chismark, of 23980 Le-Bost, city councilman; Bruce Dayton, of 317 Baseline, police deputy; Ralph Hay, of 383 N. Rogers, county board of supervisors; Kent Hunter, of 46901 W. Main, county chairman.

Mike Horner, of 351 S. Rogers, city councilman; Bob McHugh, of 44507 Chedworth, assistant health commissioner;

Bill Templeton, of 21875 Novi road, surveyor; Richard Van Ee of 49151 Ridge court, city engineer; Don Wayne, of 44031 Brookwood drive, police deputy.

Purpose of Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion, is to "instruct and educate the boys in the principles and values of a democratic and constitutional form of government."

There were 1161 teenagers from all parts of the state participating in the latest parley.

Win EMU Degrees

At the 111th annual June commencement ceremonies at Eastern Michigan university, June 13, seven Northville students were among 854 receiving degrees.

The Northville graduates are: Frank H. Bosak, Jr., B.S. degree; Carol A. Fritz, B.S. degree and elementary provisional teaching certificate; Mary J. Harrington, M.A. degree in education; Kathryn I. McDonald, B.S. degree and secondary provisional teaching certificate; David E. Ryder, B.S. degree and elementary provisional teaching certificate; Paul R. Sobol, M.A. degree in history and Ronald K. Spencer, M.A. degree in industrial arts.

Hannah Arendt, noted author, teacher, political scientists and philosopher delivered the commencement address and was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Modern man's need for a new and greater understanding of Deity will be explored at Christian Science churches, Sunday, in a Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "God".
"It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony" — this is one of the references which will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p.390).
The Golden Text is from Habakkuk: "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY
Robert K. Spradling, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Northville
Man is a discoverer. His restless nature causes him to search for something new. From the beginning of human history, man has been making discoveries in the world in which he lives. He discovered the islands of the seas, the poles at the extremities of the globe and many of the mysteries of his environment. In this constant search, man eventually began to look out into space and now is engaged in seeking new discoveries beyond the earth.
The Apostle Peter was a discoverer. To be sure, his discovery was not of a material nature, but it changed the course of his life. The discovery occurred one day as Jesus walked by the sea of Galilee where Peter and his brother Andrew were busily engaged in casting their fish nets into the sea. Jesus said to Peter, "...Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." The Bible then states, "And they straightway left their nets, and followed him." (Matthew 4:18-19) In this instant obedience of Peter may be seen his great discovery. That day, for the first time in his life, the great apostle realized that the spiritual things in life are more important than the material things. It was more important for him to follow Jesus than to continue his fishing business beside Galilee's shore.
Peter's discovery is applicable today. In an age of unprecedented prosperity and material blessings, man is still restless and unsatisfied. The more he gets, the more he wants. Solomon described this attitude of heart long ago in the book of Proverbs, "...the eyes of man are never satisfied." Our possessions alone cannot bring peace of heart and mind; in fact, they tend to complicate this situation. Jesus said, "But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you." (Luke 12:31) God promises to bring satisfaction and peace to those who put Him first in their lives. Those who honor His Son will be blessed both spiritually and materially.
The story is told about an oil company that desired the assistance of a foreign missionary to sell their products in a distant land. When the missionary declined to leave his work for a salary many times larger than the one he was presently receiving, the representatives of the company asked him for an explanation. "It's very simple," said the missionary. "You want me to do a small job for a large salary, but God wants me to do a big job for a small salary!"
Life's greatest discovery is to know Jesus Christ as personal Saviour and to serve Him without reservation (John 1:12).

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

A few oldtimers around Northville will remember Virgil Venice McNitt. He was a member of the Northville high school graduation class of 1898.

It was just five years ago that he walked into The Record office and recalled that he had gotten his start in the newspapering business as a printer's devil at The Record when Frank S. Neal was publisher.

A friendly fellow, McNitt sat down at my desk, chatted and posed for the picture below.

His career in journalism led to a multi-million dollar enterprise — the McNaught Syndicate, a newspaper feature service of which he served as president.

He was also publisher of the Southbridge Evening (Mass.) News.

McNitt died at the age of 83 this month and his passing was recorded throughout the nation's newspapers and leading news magazines.

Time Magazine recalled that McNitt and Charles McAdam founded the McNaught Syndicate in 1922 and became immediately successful by selling the homespun column of Will Rogers to more than 700 U.S. dailies.

Other early features included Dale Carnegie and Joe Palooka.

Later McNaught added "Dear Abby", Mickey Finn, Dixie Dugan and The Flintstones.

Until his death, caused by cancer, McNitt remained active in the direction of his daily newspaper as well as the feature service.

Many "youngsters" will remember McNitt, too. He would, when able, return to the University of Michigan campus to personally present the McNaught awards for journalism to outstanding graduating students.

Political Scientists Oppose Massachusetts Ballot

LANSING — Political scientists have risen almost en masse against the Massachusetts ballot approved by the state Legislature.

Prior to enactment of the law putting into effect the "office block" ballot, a group of 26 political scientists at Michigan colleges and universities advised against its use.

Since the ballot was approved, some of these same 26 and others have vowed to fight it.

Describing their opposition as nonpartisan, six of these men, faculty members at Michigan State University, have formed an anti-ballot committee.

Samuel Krislov, spokesman for the Citizens Committee for a Free Choice Ballot, said the long-range effect of the Massachusetts ballot "is to really weaken both political parties."

The ballot removes the choice of voting a straight party ticket. It requires a voter to check his choice for each office.

Main objections to the Massachusetts plan: It discourages voters, provides an advantage for "name candidates and certain ballot position holders and returns the long-hated bed-sheet ballot to Michigan.

Krislov said the ballot represents a step backwards and "can only confuse and complicate the task of the voters and weaken popular control of government."

He contends the longer ballot is in conflict with the new state Constitution's aim to reduce the number of ballot choices.

Committee members will not participate in the petition drive being directed by the Democratic Party to prevent use of the ballot this fall, Krislov said.

Their main hope is to broaden the committee to each college campus in the state and make available speakers to discuss the issue at public meetings.

Krislov said statistics in states currently using the Massachusetts ballot showed that voting for lesser offices drops off very sharply when compared to the ballot now used in Michigan allowing either straight party or individual choice voting.

Treatment and rehabilitation of juvenile offenders could take a major step forward in the next few years with the increased use of so-called halfway houses in Michigan.

Private officials optimistically view the use of halfway houses as a means of providing adequate rehabilitation facilities for minor offenders while leaving the Boys Training School for youth who need closer supervision.

In the past, probate judges throughout the state have la-

Business Misuses Sabbath

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Nothing demonstrates more clearly the materialistic world which America is becoming than our misuse of the Sabbath. Instead of using this day for spiritual regeneration, we all too often try to cram into the hours between sun-up and bedtime all the worldly activities normally followed on a holiday or a day of vacation.

In a great many areas of the country, supermarkets and department stores, ready offices and nurseries, nearly all types of retail outlets, are open and doing a big business on Sunday. This is especially true in the Mountain and Pacific Coast states, where the almighty dollar is pursued even more avidly than it is in my own New England. Here, Blue Laws still put some curbs on Sunday selling.

Committee members will not participate in the petition drive being directed by the Democratic Party to prevent use of the ballot this fall, Krislov said.

Their main hope is to broaden the committee to each college campus in the state and make available speakers to discuss the issue at public meetings.

Krislov said statistics in states currently using the Massachusetts ballot showed that voting for lesser offices drops off very sharply when compared to the ballot now used in Michigan allowing either straight party or individual choice voting.

remember the days during the war when the old 9-to-5 business pattern began to change. Defense workers on round-the-clock schedules flocked to stores that first started to stay open evenings.

Next came the exodus out of the cities and into Suburbia, bringing with it a postwar transformation in consumer buying habits. People preferred to stay at home and shop in the suburbs, especially where retailers kept open evenings.

The rat-race for the consumer dollar then developed such rivalry, both in cities and in rural communities, that the next move from evening openings to Sunday openings seemed almost natural to buyers still following with the emergency conditions that prevailed during the war. Even Sunday Blue Laws, where they existed, were woefully weak or got only token enforcement. To me this mistreatment of the Lord's Day seems deplorable, and I will try to explain why I feel this way.

If any proof is needed to reveal how worldly our culture has become, it is the very fact that so many of our good citizens favor Sunday business. Just recall how many cultures throughout history were destroyed because spiritual development was neglected — then ignored.

Some people were shocked a been met by a corresponding increase in effective means of correcting the wayward youths. The halfway houses planned for major cities throughout the state are designed to prepare youths for the return to society and useful lives.

If there were no important state problems left, it is obvious from a recent dispute that someone would devise minor ones.

In the midst of discussions over apportionment, budget matters, Constitutional implementation and highway accident rates, the state Legislature became embroiled in a low-key argument over what should represent Michigan as the official state bird.

The robin, common to almost every state, is pictured on the official highway map as the state bird. This variety was designated as official by a legislative resolution in 1931.

The dispute on whether the robin should continue to represent the state centered on the fact it is such a common bird.

Some members felt a more unique bird should be named. The chief nominee was the Kirtland warbler, a rare bird which chooses a portion of Michigan's northern forest land as its only nesting place in the country. But no legislative action resulted from the debates.

An informal poll taken by Secretary of State James M. Hare, however, indicated more people favored the robin than the rare warbler, possibly because most have never seen a Kirtland warbler.

THE BANK THAT FARMINGTON BUILT

Your many favorable comments about our new Farmington Office were most welcome. We hope you'll come back soon and take advantage of the many banking services we offer.

For example, our office provides Commercial, Personal and Econ-O-Check® Checking Accounts and Regular and Investment Savings Accounts, as well as our Automatic Savings Plan and complete Loan and Trust Services. You'll also find ample parking, drive-in windows, night depository and a safe deposit vault. We'll be glad to serve you in any way we can.
