

Rotary Needs Overnight Homes for 100 Foreign Students

Expect 350 Youngsters At Annual Farewell Event

Northville Rotarians are seeking homes for 100 foreign exchange students.

Already they have found accommodations for nearly 250 youngsters who have been living with American foster parents during the past year.

July 25 these 350 youngsters will say goodbye to their American parents at the annual Rotary - sponsored farewell exchange dinner.

That evening, and all day Sunday, the youngsters will be the guests of Northville families — if Rotary can find enough local hosts.

"We can turn to the Plymouth Rotary club for help. They're eager to take some students there, but we'd like to make it an all-Northville week end," A. R. Clarke, Rotary president and chairman of the accommodations committee, stated.

Here's what the Northville Rotary club has outlined for the exchange student week end:

— students will arrive from throughout Michigan, Indiana and Ohio with their foster parents Saturday afternoon; they'll be registered at the high school;

— a box lunch picnic dinner is planned for the high school grounds at approximately 6 p.m. This function will be attended by Rotarians, consuls representing the 13 foreign countries from which the visiting youngsters come, the students and their foster parents.

— overnight Northville hosts will be asked to call for their youngster (or youngsters) at approximately 8 p.m. following the dinner. If this is not possible, Rotarians will deliver the students to the homes.

— on Sunday it is hoped that Northville hosts will take their young visitors to church. Ministers of the First Baptist, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, Our Lady of Victory and St. Paul's Lutheran churches have agreed to honor the students by directing the theme of their sermons to the foreign exchange program.

— Northville ministers are urging their church members to house youngsters overnight.

— after church the Northville families would be expected to host the youngsters for dinner and perhaps take them on a tour of the area. The youngsters must report to the high school for briefing at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. They leave on buses enroute for the New York World's Fair at 8:30 p.m. Box lunches will be provided for the bus trip.

A week later they will board ship at Montreal and head home.

The entire foreign exchange student program is sponsored by the Ann Arbor-Washenaw Council of Churches and is designated as the Youth for Understanding program.

Rotarians hope to make the brief stay in Northville a memorial one for the youths. Their pictures will be published in The Record the week before their arrival and additional copies will be printed for students and families. The program itself will also be featured in the following week's edition and arrangements have been made with the Council of Churches to provide copies to the students and their American parents.

Of immediate importance, however, is the completion of accommodations.

Local residents willing to serve as overnight hosts may contact Clarke at FI-9-3300, William Sliger at FI-9-1700, or the pastor of one of the five churches previously mentioned.

If it is more convenient, the adjoining coupon may be used and given to Clarke at the Manufacturers National Bank, Sliger at The Record, or any of the following committee members: Dr. H. L. Dyer, E. V. Ellison, Bruce Potthoff, Raymond Spear and Dr. Pasquale Buoniconito.

Fall Election Poses Problems In Townships

A cloud of confusion which has hung over the date of township elections has cleared. But fall-out from the cloud remains to plague officials in Northville and Novi townships, as well as all others in the state.

It's official now, however. Township officials will face election in November. And a September 1 primary is also a possibility if more than one candidate files for the same office on either the Democratic or Republican ticket.

The new state constitution provides that township elections will be held in November to coincide with state and national contests. In the past townships held April elections with primaries in February.

An effort by the Michigan Township Association to collect some 300,000 signatures and thus call for a September 1 vote to amend the constitution and hold township elections in April failed.

As matters now stand, township officials elected in November do not take office until April. This gives rise to a possible "lame duck" period should one of the incumbents lose or choose not to run for re-election.

Other dates which now become official with the definite setting of the September 1 primary are the deadline for filing petitions for office—July 21—and the final day for voter registration—August 3.

In Northville township the offices which will be up for election in the fall include the supervisor, clerk, treasurer, one trustee (Donald Robinson), justice of the peace and constable.

Only trustees and the justices of the peace are elected for four year terms. Others serve two years. In Northville Trustee Wilson Tyler holds the only board seat not up for election this fall.

In Novi township Supervisor Hadley Bachert has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Other Novi offices up for election include the clerk, treasurer, two constables, one trustee (Lloyd George) and one justice of the peace (Judge Robert Anderson).

Trustee Frank Watz's term has two more years to run. Board of review members will no longer be elected under new state legislation. It is also provided that in the future the supervisor cannot serve on the board of review.

But presented elected members will serve out their term and future members will be appointed by the township boards.

Geake to File For State Legislature

R. Robert Geake, a Northville resident, has taken out petitions and will file as a candidate for the state legislature in the newly-formed 35th district.

The 35th district is composed of the city of Northville and Northville township in Wayne county and the city of Livonia except that part lying south of the C&O railroad between Merriam and Middlebelt roads.

Paul Chandler's old 21st district was divided into the new 33rd, 34th and 35th districts. Chandler has indicated he will run for the state senate in the primary election September 1.

Geake, who holds three degrees from the University of Michigan, is now employed as school psychologist and director of research in child development at the Edison Institute in Dearborn. He is 28.

He is a member of the National and Michigan Education Associations, the American Psychological Association and the board of canvassers of the Northville school district.

Geake is married and resides at 4825 West Eight Mile. He and his wife, who is a research biologist at U-M's school of public health, have a foster daughter, age 13.

Geake, a Republican, is entering politics for the first time. All candidates have until July 21 to file for office.

Geake is the only Republican who has announced his intentions. However, David Jones, assistant director of public works in Livonia and a Democrat, has thrown his hat into the ring.

Jones, 48, has served as president of the Livonia Taxpayers association for three years and was a member of the Livonia city council from 1954 to 1958.

School Board Elects Kipfer

NEW BOARD—Northville's board of education held its organizational meeting for the new year Monday night and elected James Kipfer president. He succeeds William Crump. Attending their first meeting as members were Eugene Cook and E. O. Weber, elected in June. Pictured (l. to r.) are: Crump, Cook, Kipfer, Vice President W. C. Becker, Weber and Robert Shafer. Cook was elected secretary. Edward Angove was not present. He was elected treasurer, succeeding Dr. Waldo Johnson, who retired from the board.

Northville's new school board got down to business immediately Monday night after clearing away a number of preliminary details.

These included the election of officers, deciding to meet again this year on the second and fourth Mondays — but in the new board of education offices in the old Wing street library — renaming James Littell as board attorney and appointing Board Member Robert Shafer as board auditor.

The board spent considerable time discussing teacher tenure with Attorney Littell. It becomes effective statewide on August 28.

Under the provisions of the act all teachers with two or more years service are automatically entitled to tenure status. The board may by unanimous action, however, elect not to place a teacher under tenure. But this action must take place between August 28 and the first day of employment of the school year, September 8, Littell explained.

The board has scheduled an August 28 meeting to review all teachers coming under tenure and has asked administrators to provide in advance the names of any teachers who they believe should be placed on probation, rather than granted immediate tenure.

Because it is possible that all members of the board cannot attend the August 28 meeting, the board also asked Littell to determine whether "unanimous" action applies to all seven members or a quorum present.

Board members could not agree on the issuance of fleet insurance for the buses. Because the low bid (by $300) was changed due to the failure to include medical payments, Members Crump and Shafer favored retaining the present agent. The corrected bid was about $200 lower than others. Members Cook and Weber argued that the original bid should be binding and that a difference of $300 was worth considering on a total policy cost of approximately $1100.

The matter was finally tabled when Cook suggested that the contents of the low-bid policy be examined and compared with the present coverage. A public hearing date on the 1964-65 budget was set for July 20 at 8 p.m. in the Main street school offices. E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services, reported that a balanced budget of slightly more than $1,200,000 would be possible.

Township Board Differs On Water Unit Members

Northville township plans to put its water and sewer commission back into active service.

The commission was discontinued temporarily about a year ago. However, R. D. Merriam, township supervisor, and Alex Lawrence, township treasurer, have been carrying out the functions of the commission.

Now the township board seeks to re-establish the commission as the township faces more water and sewage problems. But an effort to reactivate it was frustrated Tuesday night.

Merriam put forth the names of Lawrence, David Dodge, 15531 Lakeside drive, and Herbert Frogner, 18651 Sheldon road. Appointment was blocked because the township trustees — Donald Robinson and

City Studies Vote On New Court

An amendment to the city charter to replace the justice of the peace system with a municipal court will probably go to voters in the November election.

In Tuesday night's meeting the city council called for a special session August 4 to consider the ballot proposal.

It has the strong support of City Attorney Philip Ogilvie and Judge Charles McDonald.

One of the chief reasons for seeking municipal court status is the fact that the new constitution provides that justice courts will be eliminated. The possibility therefore looms that the city would be without its own court, unless a municipal court were established.

By going to a municipal court it becomes mandatory that the judge is an attorney. Jurisdiction is also extended to high misdemeanors not presently within the JP court and civil jurisdiction would be extended from cases involving $500 to $1,000. Fine limits would be extended from $100 to $250.

It is not anticipated that the total volume of work would be increased greatly, but a report by City Manager Bruce Potthoff noted that the local court's activities have increased to some $15,000 annually, about twice the cost of the court.

Councilman Fred Kester urged attention to the matter, stating that "it's too bad we've let it slip this long."

The council prefers a November vote, even though it adds another measure to the already crowded national and state ballot, so that the issue could be settled before the April city election when the position of judge is again up for consideration.

In other business Tuesday night the council awarded the 1964-65 rubbish and garbage collection contract to a new firm, C-B Rubbish Disposal. The firm bid $9,600. The present collector bid $11,400 and another firm $12,000. The city manager said that collection days would be changed from Monday and Tuesday to Tuesday and Wednesday. The switch will not be made until August.

Three bids were received for city hall draperies ranging from $1,325 to $1,779. They were turned over to the manager for study.

The council awarded the city's gas and fuel oil business to Marathon and motor oil to Standard, both low bidders.

Attention was also turned to the "no left turn" off Main street into the central parking lot. Council agreed that it was not adequately marked and called for an overhead sign to warn westbound traffic. A double yellow line will also be painted on the street and the old street painted warning repainted.

George Zerbel and Warren Stoddard were reappointed to the planning commission. William Slattery indicated he would not serve another term, so a replacement will be sought.

The council accepted the city manager's recommendation that a one-year contract renewal be offered the township on use of the city dump at $2500, same as last year. It was stipulated, however, that institutions or commercial collectors within the township could not use the facility.

WORK UNDERWAY — A painter is putting the finishing touches on the first floor of the new administrative headquarters for the Northville school district in the old public library on Wing street. School officials will move from the Main Street elementary school by the end of July. Minimum repairs have been made on the old library, which has stood for over 100 years. E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services, said the relocation "is a temporary move." Besides Ellison, School Superintendent Russell Amerman and Assistant Superintendent Kenneth MacLeod will occupy the first floor. School board meetings will be held in the basement. When the Main Street school offices are vacated, they will be converted into a classroom and an office for Harry Smith, elementary school principal.

And Later The Bells Rang At Midnight

Northville, relatively quiet all weekend long, was a noisy place on the morning after the Fourth of July.

Around midnight, the fire siren let loose with a wailing, alerting volunteer fire fighters. It shrieked longer than usual, police said.

Equipment and crew responded to a blaze at the Ford Motor company valve plant. At first it was thought the roof was burning but the fire was confined to an air vent. After the smoke dissipated, damage was termed minor.

About an hour and a half later, residents weren't dreaming if they heard bells ringing. The bells were real — and were pealing at the First Methodist church. The time was 1:33 a.m.

Walter Nicholls, chairman of the church's board of trustees, was aroused by the loud and prolonged sounds and hurried down to halt them.

Nicholls threw a switch, cutting off electricity to the clock in the top of the steeple. The bells roared for the last time — and went dead.

And six residents who had notified police and countless others went back to sleep. Next day, Nicholls found that a short developed in a switch in the clock, causing the bells to thunder at the wrong time. The clock's bells ordinarily ring on the hour.

Garden Club Picnic To be Fun Affair

There's a surprise in store for those attending the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association meeting Monday.

The only ones who know the secret are Mrs. George Kohs and Mrs. William Slattery, initiators of the 'fun' program, "Flowers Go to Your Head".

The program is part of an afternoon guest day picnic beginning at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr., 39900 East Eight Mile road.

Those planning to attend are asked to bring a passing dish and table service.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Merner Eilber, Mrs. W. Cansfield, Mrs. M. Hoysradt, Mrs. K. Whipple and Mrs. C. Schoultz.

Guilfoyle — Daniel Vows

Jeanne Ann Guilfoyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Guilfoyle of Livonia, became the bride of Thomas A. Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Daniel of Northville, June 20.

She walked down the aisle on the arm of her father in the Calvary Baptist church of Plymouth Saturday. Reverend Patrick Clifford officiated at the ceremony.

Candelabras lighted the altar that was decorated with snow drift chrysanthemums and white summer flowers. Family benches were distinguished by white satin bows.

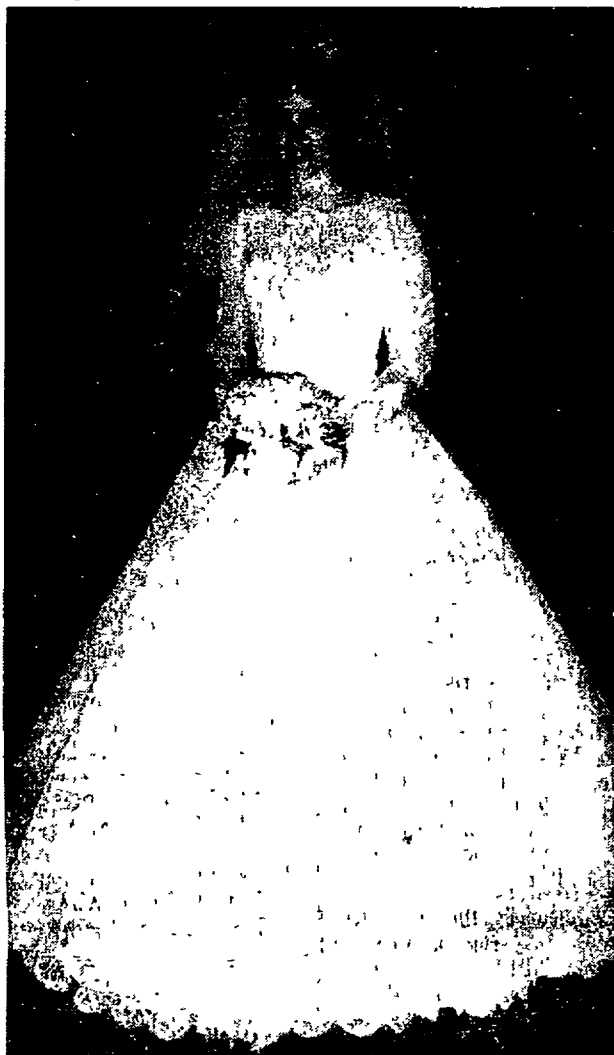

The bride chose a colonial wedding gown of silk organza fashioned with a hoop skirt and inserted with panels of chantilly lace. Her bouffant illusion shoulder length veil fell from a double crown of crystals. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses centered with a going-away corsage.

Barbara Larder, Lynne Laird and her cousin, Rosanne Rydman of Coleman, were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in ice blue floor length dresses with matching headpieces and long white gloves. They carried identical nosegays of white gardenias encircled with green leaves and tied with blue ribbons.

Mrs. Guilfoyle chose a shell pink dress and matching Dior veiled bow. Mrs. Daniel, mother of the groom, wore a beige dress and matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of miniature roses centered with a cymbidium orchid.

Mike Meyers was best man. Ushers were Bob Ebert, Don Biery, Jim Chapel and Dave Clark.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the ceremony. For her wedding trip the new Mrs. Daniel changed to a pink print blouse on dress with a white background. Upon their return from Mackinac Island, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel will make their home in Northville.

The Bednars relax in the front yard of their new home.

New residents of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bednar, are a busy couple. They just moved into an old cape cod home at 18801 Sheldon road two months ago and are in the process of remodeling it themselves. The Bednars came from Mt. Clemens two years ago to Plymouth to be closer to Mr. Bednar's job. He's a pilot for General Motors corporation and works out of Willow Run airport. They rented in Plymouth until they found their "dream" home, which happened to be right in Northville. Their renovation even includes chopping down trees that surround their property. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bednar are great golf enthusiasts. In fact they owned a golf course in Ypsilanti, Herb's Driving Range, which they sold when they bought their home. "Since my husband is out of town a lot, he doesn't have time for many hobbies," said Mrs. Bednar. "He spends most of his free time working on the house."

Keep Skin Young — Watch Sun!

The Sunburn season is here again. It's a completely safe prediction that at least ten million people will succeed in roasting to a turn on the first long, hot weekend at the beach or pool, or even in the backyard garden. If you want to get a sunburn, it's easy. Just stay out in the summer sun too long. However, do this with the knowledge that the physical benefits of tanning are at best dubious, and that there is solid evidence that continued exposure to sun weathers and ages the skin. If you want to get tanned, the American Medical Association offers some pointers on how to do it without burning too much. Gradual exposure to the sun is the safest and simplest method of acquiring an attractive tan. As a general rule, begin with 15 minutes exposure the first day, and increase the time by a few minutes a day. The time of day is important, with the mid-day period, when the sun is directly overhead being the hottest for burning purposes. Actually, the slim possible benefits of tanning are more than offset by its potential hazards. One skin specialist who has studied the problem said recently that he foresees the day when tanning will no longer be a status symbol and the fair, creamy complexion will once again be the vogue. Continued tanning brings gradual changes in the blood vessels of the exposed surfaces. The connective tissue of the skin degenerates, causing wrinkles and a coarsening of texture. The "V" of the neck becomes permanently reddened and freckle-like dark spots appear on the skin. These spots can sometimes be the start of skin cancer. Sun bleaches the hair, too, and over a period of time the sun bleached hair becomes brittle and unmanageable. However, the damaged hair will eventually grow out. The only really beneficial effect of sunlight on the skin is formation of vitamin D, but the American diet already provides an adequate supply of this vitamin. Despite the adverse physical indications, doctors are well aware that many of their patients still will continue to work on a suntan each summer. If you feel that you must get tanned, remember the basic rule for gradual tanning — 15 minutes the first day, increased by about a third each day. With care, it may be possible to tan without too much burning and a minimum of peeling.

Car Dealer Robbery Is Solved
James Morris, 19, of 23 Arbor Way in Country Estates, admitted early Wednesday morning to robbing Rathburn Chevrolet Sales June 25 of tools valued at $400. He was questioned after Northville police received a call from an informant late Tuesday afternoon. The caller also told police that Morris sold the tools to his brother in Detroit. Northville police went to his brother's home, but he wasn't there. Later his brother told police that Morris did sell him some tools for $5. It was then that Morris confessed. Morris was arraigned before Judge Charles W. McDonald for breaking and entering at night and was bound over to the Wayne county circuit court.

TUESDAY NOON

1-Card of Thanks

To the President
Michigan Seamless Tube Co.
South Lyon, Michigan
Mr. W. McHattie:
On my retirement:
I wish to thank him very much. Without his cooperation and efforts for his fellow men it would not have been possible.
He is most fine, noble, honest and understanding of his men. He worked hard all the years down through my life. Working under him and for him, I have learned a thing of myself but only he has helped our boys and the community. Without such a man it would not have been possible. Thanks a million.
May God bless him forever and his family, and the Michigan Seamless Tube Co. of South Lyon.

Brownie Elich
My very grateful thanks to all who were so kind and thoughtful during my stay at St. Mary hospital.

FUN SPOTS — Two new recreation facilities opened last weekend in Northville. Above is the clubhouse of Brook Lane, a nine hole par 3 golf and driving range located on Sheldon and Six mile roads. It's owned and operated by Blake Northup and Ernie Shave. Below is one of the sporty miniature golf holes at "Whistle Stop", an 18-hole putting course to test the skill of young and old. It's located on Seven Mile road just east of Northville road and is owned by Mrs. Elsie Freydl, who is better known for her classroom work as a Northville elementary teacher.

Downs Breaks Week's Record At Bet Windows

Northville Downs keeps notching new betting and attendance records.

Last week fans passed $1,725,942 through the parimutuel windows during the six nights of racing. It was the best weekly total in the history of the Downs.

At the halfway point in the 48-night season, handle stands at $6,620,534, up 18.6% from $5,580,910 in the first 24 nights last year.

Average nightly wagering so far amounts to $275,856, in contrast to $232,538 at the same time in 1963.

Downs officials said attendance for the first half of the season totals 112,891, an increase of 12.8% from last year. In 1963 it was 100,096.

Fans will get a preview of the $10,000 Michigan Trotting Derby Friday in a $2,500 open handicap event that matches most of the fast-class trotters at the track.

The derby, third and last of the rich stakes on the Downs program, attracted 30 nominations, including many of the top trotters from the midwest, east and north.

Most won't check in until the latter part of the week but at least six will go postward in Friday's open event.

With a final chance to prepare for the derby, set for Wednesday, July 15 this week's field includes: Our Joy, Dutch Bardia, Jan Kaye, Chorus Girl, Charming Valley and Voltreonic.

There is a chance that the Chris Boring stable entries of Scotch Rodney and Josedale War God will be on hand for the big purse.

Turtle Time Tuesday

Highlighting another round of special events sponsored by the Northville Recreation department will be Tuesday's turtle races — an annual occasion when youngsters are seized by the racing fever.

Site for the races will be the back of the Scout-Recreation building at 10 a.m., announced Director Ken Conley.

The judging of the largest, smallest, best decorated and most originally decorated turtles will precede the race at 9:30 a.m.

Every participant must be registered with the recreation department, noted Conley. Conley also urges participants to secure their own turtles, but a limited number will be available at the recreation office tomorrow (Friday) and Monday.

Conley also announced that a second trip to the Detroit Zoo will take place next Wednesday, July 15.

Reservations must be made in advance at the recreation office or at one of the day camps.

According to Conley, the bus will load at 9 a.m. at the Amerman school and 9:10 a.m. at the Community building.

Charge will be 35c to cover the cost of the Chimp show and train rides. The increase of 10c over last year's charge is due to an increase in the cost of train rides.

Conley pointed out that participants must bring a lunch or money to buy a lunch at the zoo.

Rounding out the fare of special events is the July 20 nature hike at Kensington park.

Limited to 35 youngsters, the bus will leave Amerman school at 9:30 a.m. and return at 11:45 a.m., Conley said.

Reservations must be made at the recreation office or at the day camps before July 20.

Men's Softball Schedule Set

The Men's Softball league games are being played at Cass Benton number two at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and at the Northville State hospital field on Wednesdays. Director Conley announced this week.

Indians Remain Undefeated in Knothole Loop

The Indians came out on top in a battle of undefeated teams in the Knothole baseball league as they beat the Giants 5-1 in a closely played contest Monday night.

A trio of Indian twirlers, Woody Filkin, Phil Grandin and John Pauli, limited the Giants to just one hit, a single by Jack Morvat. They struck out 11.

The Indians, however, didn't fare much better against the offerings of Joe Boland, who hurled a two hitter. But seven walks and four errors were enough for the winning margin.

A three-run outburst in the last inning turned a tight pitchers duel into a rout for the Indians.

In another Knothole contest the Athletics trounced the Cardinals 11-2.

John O'Brien was the only Cardinal batsman to garner a hit off the slants of Charles Wooten. O'Brien had two for two.

Supplying the punch for the Athletics were Jim Hostetter with a double and Joe Hines and Jim Darnell, both with singles with men in scoring position.

It was sunny weather but the Spagy - Thunderbirds were having some stormy sessions on the baseball diamond the past week.

The T-Birds, Northville's top entry in class E, are now in second place, two games behind the front-runners, Loper and Fisher Shoes.

The T-Birds, in their most dismal showing of the season, lost their second game in a row in class E ball as Fisher Shoes waited out a 7-2 victory July 1.

The Northville contingent committed 10 errors and Pitcher Keith Mueller was off his usual pitching form as he walked 10 men.

At the plate, the T-Birds were also ineffective, collecting only three hits — one a double by Mueller. Bruce Durham had a single. Fisher's, on the other hand, mixed six hits with their errors and walks to win with ease.

Northville reversed its showing the following Monday when it came from behind to tie a tough Party Pantry outfit, two-all. The game was called because of darkness.

Head-up play by the T-Birds produced the tie.

With Pantry leading 2-0 at the end of four, the local nine allied once in the fourth and seventh frames.

The first marked was scored by Larry Beller, who singled, moved to second on a wild pitch, to third on Mueller's single and crossed home plate on Scott Bergo's fly ball.

Pitcher Glenn Deibert then singled in the seventh, slid into second on a force out, scampered to third on an ensuing walk and hustled home on a sacrifice fly.

The playoff is scheduled tomorrow night at Cass Benton.

Where the T-Birds were having their troubles, the Northville Plumbers were feeling their oats as they pushed Party Pantry to the wire and clubbed Bill's Market.

For the third game in a row, the Plumbers went hitless, but Pantry wasn't much better, getting only two singles July 1.

Both Pantry runs were picked up in the third frame.

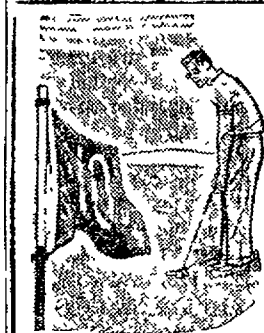

The Plumbers then broke the no-hit ice on a hunt single by Larry Biddle in the first frame, and went on to blast Bill's Market Monday 9-2.

In fact, the usually silent Plumbers, rang out a total of six hits to back up the five-hit pitching of Bill Skelly.

It was the local outfit's first

Brigh spot of the evening was the initial performance of Pitcher Jim Mazel, who twirled five impressive innings. He gave up five runs but walked none.

Mazel, Steve Evans and Dave Jerome paced the local attack with one single apiece. Encouraging to Coach Hay was the fact that they hit the ball solidly each time at the plate.

Is Jon Van Wagner's motion illegal?

Sports - atorial

A minor controversy raged in Novi Little League circles recently, provoked by the form of one of its stalwart hurlers, Jon Van Wagner.

An arate adult fan or two picked on the form of Van Wagner of the Cole Jay-hawks, contending that when delivering the ball, he did not stand on the pitcher's rubber. He was using the groove in front of it to push off so he could get closer to the plate, they contended.

The baseball legality was resolved, however, when league President Les Ward asked officials. As far as they were concerned, Van Wagner's motion was completely legal.

Brought to mind by the affair is the question whether parents or adult spectators, in the heat of enthusiasm, should direct adverse criticism at these young athletes.

They are supposedly benefiting from sports' competition with the emphasis on fun.

Are these vehement adult spectators, then, exceeding their bounds by pushing these youngsters toward professionalism?

Salem Opposes Trailer Zoning

A recommendation not to rezone property at the corner of Six Mile and Currie roads to allow a trailer park has been forwarded by the Salem township zoning board to the Washington county coordinating committee.

Township Supervisor Harlow Ingall revealed the long-awaited recommendation Tuesday. He said the outcome is not certain, but that county officials are known to be against this particular rezoning request.

The request was made by Post Lane Farms, Inc. of Detroit. According to Louis Savage, development of two industrial buildings on a portion of the corner site depended on approval of the trailer park.

The Salem township board will act upon the coordinating committee recommendation, or if it is not received within 30 days of the zoning board recommendation, the board will be able to act on zoning board opinion.

Richard A. Langstaff, 18, of Wilcox didn't make his examination before Judge Robert K. Anderson July 2 because he overslept after working all night and nobody woke him up. There was one catch — he was out on a $1000 bond after being charged with felonious larceny. He is accused of taking $400 from Novi Auto Parts where he was a delivery man.

His mother called the Judge when she got home from work and found her son still sleeping. Langstaff came before Anderson in the evening and his examination date has been rescheduled to July 23.

Other cases appearing before Judge Anderson July 2 were: Kenneth F. Hutek of Detroit received $25 in fines after pleading guilty to careless driving, June 21, and contributing to minors.

A Detroit, George Penczak, received a $10 fine for contributing to minors at Novi township park. The minors, five from Detroit and two from Utica, received $10 fines each.

For driving with a defaced license May 29, Joel Allen Clay of Mt. Clemens was fined $10. The case against Dick's Bumping and Painting Shop for violation of electrical ordinance was dismissed after they complied with the ordinance.

Items on Judge Emery Jacques calendar this past week were:

Charles K. Webb was fined $10 at arraignment for making excessive noise June 16.

A Detroit, Edward A. Janowicz, was assessed a $10 fine June 25, for speeding. He was driving 50 mph in a 40 mph zone on Novi road south of 12 Mile road June 14.

For failing to yield the right of way on South Lake at Austin drive June 25, Robert H. Hansz of Livonia was fined $5 at arraignment that same day.

David Stanton of Tampa, Florida was assessed a fine of $10 at arraignment June 25 for operating a defective vehicle June 19.

Noah William Hook of Walled Lake was charged March 29 with being a traffic hazard. June 29 he was fined $5 on that charge.

For operating his automobile with a defective muffler May 22, D. E. Jaken of Union Lake received a $15 fine June 29.

The charge against Glenn E. Schenemann, 26029 Whipple, was changed from reckless driving to careless driving at Beckers Drive Inn June 21. He was assessed a fine of $15 on the altered charge June 29.

The case against Herbert Thomas Kelly of Farmington was closed when Kelly paid $65 in fines and costs June 30. Kelly was charged for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor April 22. At arraignment the same day he pleaded not guilty and was placed on a $250 bond. He was tried April 30. The charge was changed from as originally stated to reckless driving.

George N. Schroeder of Northville Downs was fined at arraignment June 20 for driving with an expired driver's license June 22.

At arraignment July 2, Larkin Stamper of Milford pleaded guilty to speeding 70 mph in a 55 mph zone on Grand River June 28. He was fined $20.

Firecracker Ignites Expressway Grass

Apparently someone still had the Fourth of July spirit on July 6th in Novi.

Mrs. Ed Presnell, 26720 Meadowbrook, heard an explosion under the Meadowbrook overpass of the expressway. She called police who investigated.

When police arrived at the scene, a grass fire was spreading. Officers theorized that a passing motorist threw a firecracker to get resonance under the bridge and it ignited the blaze.

A new thrill at the Walled Lake Amusement park is pitching rocks at roller coaster riders.

Dean and George Marsh of Walled Lake told police last Sunday that they were targets for the rock-throwers while on the coaster. They said they saw a group of suspicious youths doing the skullduggery but no identifications could be made, police said.

Teenagers have been marauding property again in the Novi area. Two incidents were reported to police.

Richard Wagshnar who owns a house at 319 Elm court in the Walled Lake section of Novi said that within the last two weeks teens had been seen entering his home. They used it for a rendezvous or for a party. Screen on the front porch was cut. Nothing was missing from his property, however.

Seven arrests were made last Sunday on the deserted Henry Bachert property on Beck road and Nine Mile. All arrested were from Garden City.

Henry Bernhart told police that vulgar language was used and yelling heard before the party was broken up at 2:30 a.m.

Charged with being abroad at an unusual hour were Carl Essory, 19; Ronald Bussinger, 26; Connie Miller, 19; Pamela Northouer, 17; Laura Wittbrodt, 18; Donald Klouski, 29; and John Eebbs.

All will appear in justice court July 16.

Two mail boxes were destroyed Monday — but not by any firecrackers.

Instead, Ray Noder, 18, of 125 Ely, Northville, didn't have his car under control while driving south on Novi road at a normal rate of speed. Police said his attention was diverted and he ran his car into a ditch and mowed down the mail boxes.

Demolished boxes were on the property of Ollie Nichols, 25275 Novi road, and Mrs. Alfred Gow, 25301 Novi road. Noder will plead his case in justice court Thursday. Who needs hot water in Novi?

Police are pondering this question today. John Douglas of Oak Park, who owns a vacant house at 1320 West Lake drive, reported a larceny to police Tuesday.

Someone had stolen a 50-gallon hot water heater from his basement. He estimated his loss at over $100.

Richard Dryer of 43382 Grand River is mad because someone hit his car parked in a lot at Walled Lake park on July 4 and didn't notify him. Damage was confined to the hood and grille — and it'll cost $150 to repair.

No operator's license cost a Detroit a ticket last Sunday morning.

At 2:24 a.m. police arrested Salvador Jose Monico, 12123 Cherrylawn, Detroit, behind the Wilkins Parts and Equipment company, 45900 Grand River. He told officers he had pulled off the road to get some sleep.

When asked for his license,

DRIVER ESCAPES — Northville firemen doused a burning truck last Thursday afternoon on Eight Mile near Novi road. The truck is owned by Barkman Trucking company, 10787 Taft road. Police said the driver, George McGee, noticed smoke billowing out of the right side of the tractor cab. He stopped and jumped clear before it went up in flames. McGee wasn't injured but another employee of the trucking firm was. William Hamer, who was called by police to turn off the engine, suffered a third degree burn on his right hand. He was treated at St. Mary hospital. The cab of the tractor was demolished but extent of damage to the engine isn't known.

Library Shelves Filled With New Supply of Books

An ideal way of spending "those lazy-hazy-crazy days of summer" while getting that tan would be with a good book.

And the Northville public library has plenty of them.

Every month, as far as budget will allow, Librarian Mrs. Ruth Richwerger orders new books. "We have almost every one that is on the best seller list, for fiction that is," she said. She selects books that would be of general interest to the people of Northville — something for everyone. Some of the most recent books lining the book shelves with a brief synopsis are: "The Spire" — a novel by William Golden, author of "Lord of the Flies." An allegorical tale of a medieval deacon who has dedicated himself to building a spire to his cathedral although it has no foundation. It eventually becomes a religious obsession.

"A Chosen Sparrow" by Vera Caspary. A woman refuses to believe that terror has visited her a second time. The first, was in a Nazi prison camp when she was a child, and now it's in her marriage.

"The Hand of Mary Constable" by Paul Gallico. Could it be a confidence trick? A father believes that his daughter is communicating with him from the dead.

"The Bells of Bictre," by Georges Simenon. A French newspaper tycoon after being paralyzed by a stroke, examines his past and contemplates on his future.

"A Moveable Feast" by Ernest Hemingway. Reminiscences about his life as a young writer in Paris after a lapse of 40 years. The novel is published post-humously and is drawn from numerous unpublished works and fragments found after his death.

Some newly acquired books on the non-fiction side include: "Introduction to Psychiatry" by O. Spurgeon English, M.D. and Stuart M. Finch, M.D. A study of the recent developments in the field of psychiatry. Oriented along the psychoanalytic line, it discusses personality formation and mental illness according to the latest theories and practices.

"The New Antiques" by George Gtroz. A discussion of what to look for when buying Victorian furniture.

"The South and the Southerner" by Ralph Emerson McGill. The editor of the Atlanta Constitution combines historical facts with autobiographical notations in discussing the problems facing the south today.

"The American Revolution" by Sir George Otto Trevelyan. The book, first published at the beginning of the 20th century, is a one volume abridgement of the six volume work.

"Congress: Politics and Practice" by Norman C. Thomas and Karl A. Lamb. A paperback study of the policy process in the national government and Congress' role in it for the general reader.

Dave Chabut Sends Word From Holland

EDITOR'S NOTE: David Chabut, son of Mrs. George Chabut of 18585 Sheldon, is one of three Northville students who are spending two months living with families in foreign countries under the sponsorship of the Youth for Understanding Summer Exchange Program of the Michigan Council of Churches. The following is a letter Dave sent to The Record about the first leg of his two month journey.

I flew from Metropolitan Airport, June 22, a very excited and happy person. My destination was Hordijk 66, Oegstgeest, Netherlands. I was among 114 young adults who were just as excited as I was. However, their destinations were different — some were going to other parts of Holland, while others were going to Paris, Switzerland and Spain.

Our first stop was Gander, Newfoundland. I found it a very beautiful airport. No one, of course, had any sleep upon arrival at 5 a.m. Gander time (2 a.m. our time) and so we were all very tired.

Our second was Shannon, Ireland — a long six hour ride over the ocean. We either slept or looked out the little porthole to see the water and the huge icebergs.

I found that Shannon was quiet and the color of green was on the trucks, the buildings, the cars, and everything else. Even at 3 p.m. it was a quiet for an international airport. We were held there for about an hour and a half in which we wrote home a card and either sat down and rested or walked around to loosen our weary limbs.

Our last and final stop was Amsterdam, Holland and I know that we were all glad to see Schiphol, the modern airport of the Netherlands. Arrival time was 9 p.m. All we did here was to see it. We got to our hotel as soon as we could to get some sleep so that when the family we were going to stay with arrived the next day we could greet them without being too tired.

The next day we had free until lunch time and after we met our new parents. In the morning I went all over Amsterdam enjoying the sights and taking pictures.

It was a joyous occasion to meet the mother of the family with whom I was going to stay. From Amsterdam we went by train to Oegstgeest.

The Hesselink family is very enjoyable and wonderful one. The father is a chemical engineer for the company of Chemical Unilever, a branch of Lever Brothers in the United States.

They have two sons and one daughter. The one daughter is studying history at the University of Leiden. Fritz, the eldest of the two boys, just graduated from his lyceum, or high school as we call it. Eddie, the youngest, will still be in school until the third of July. Eddie's school has five classes or years as we call it. At the end of the five classes they take an exam.

It is the only one which covers all of the five years in which they have been there. The family and I have been planning a trip to a small village outside of Bordeaux, France where they just bought a house. We plan to stay there the rest of the summer.

Jewelry Robbed

Noder's Jewelry had one less wedding band on display last Thursday. John Poster, a clerk in the store at 101 East Main, told police that a young man had asked to see some "diamonds." As Poster turned to get them, the man grabbed a gold wedding ring worth $27 and ran out the front door. He was last seen near Hutton and Main. Police cruised the area in pursuit of the robber but couldn't find him.

'Baby Talk' Important To Child's Improvement

The cooing and prattle most mothers seem to instinctively lavish on their children isn't just so much "baby talk."

Psychiatrists and pediatricians now recognize such maternal "gushiness" as highly important to the emotional development of children, say the American Medical Association.

The absence of such development, in turn, is a factor in mental retardation. Indeed, most authorities agree that 75 to 80 per cent of the mental retardation in this country seems from a lack of emotional development.

Of course talk isn't the only thing that stirs interest, curiosity and intellect — factors which go to make up emotional development — an infant. But it is one of the most readily-available means of communication between parent and child — even if they don't understand each other's words — and early communication is the basis for emotional development.

All babies, except those with congenital disorders, start out babbling and cooing. But if the child gets no encouragement — if no one cuddles and talks to him — he loses interest after awhile and fails to learn words when he should.

Words, and the ability to link them into thoughts, are highly important tools of learning. If these tools aren't learned, the child has difficulty developing. He becomes, in effect, walled off from the normal world about him.

It is, of course, possible to over-coddle a child. Because a rich stimulation of a child is good doesn't mean that more stimulation is better. He can be pushed too hard, made to develop too fast, and this can create its own set of difficulties.

The important thing is to make certain that your child does have a rich stimulation; that he gets the attention and the praise he needs to encourage his curiosity, interest and imagination.

$96.4 MILLIONS! That's what your telephone company plans to spend on construction this year, to keep pace with the telephone needs of Michigan businesses and families. "Construction" includes such things as laying cable, installing equipment, and putting up new buildings or building additions.

This year, and in the future, we expect to keep on building to meet Michigan's increasing needs for communications. And we'll be putting millions of dollars directly into our state's economy at the same time.

HALF THE FUN of a vacation is sharing it with the folks back home — by telephone. (Can't you just see the gang, as you describe the fish you caught, or the putt you sank? And of course a considerate person always lets the folks know at once, when he reaches his destination safely. Make a note now to phone back often while you're away. It's almost as essential to happy vacationing — as phoning for reservations before you go!

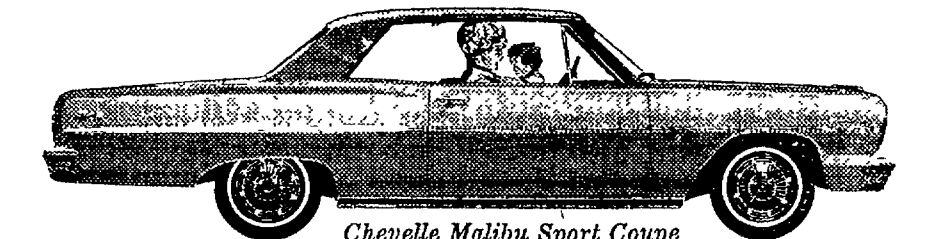

EASY TO HOLD plus easy to talk into plus easy to listen to... equals your modern telephone! A lot of scientific research and engineering know-how went into making it so. Research, for instance, on the average distance between mouth and ear, the range of loudness of people's voices — even the width of their fingertips. (Those dial openings have to be big enough, you know!) It all contributed toward making your phone a pleasure to use.

So why not stop in at your Chevrolet dealer's soon and see what we mean. And don't be surprised if you see your neighbor there. More people do.

What's In the Bible?

When a Sunday school teacher asked the question: "What's in the Bible?" a nine-year old raised his hand and replied: "I know everything that's in the Bible. My mother's marriage certificate is in it, my baptismal certificate is in it, and there is an old letter from grandmother in it."

How many of us would be able to give a much better answer? Many people know that the 23rd Psalm, the Golden Rule, and the Sermon on the Mount are in the Bible, but how much more do they know of the contents of this book?

The Bible contains the answers to life's most important questions, and it is as timely today as when its many chapters were first written. In it, God tells us of our creation; He speaks to us about our sinful condition; and above all, He gives us the good news of pardon, peace, life and salvation in and through the sacrifice of His Son Jesus Christ.

What's in the Bible? The water of life is in the Bible. We like to refer to our state as the Water Wonderland.

And how refreshing are its clear lakes and streams! But much more wonderful is God's Wonder Water which He gives to us in His Word. There Jesus tells us: "Whoever drinketh of this water (the earthly water) shall thirst again; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into eternal life." (St. John 4:13-14).

Let us not forget to hear and to read God's Word, also this summer.

DEDICATION RITES — Members of First Baptist church, 11 Mile and Taft road in Novi, have dedicated their new building. Pastor Paul E. Barnes said the building took two years to complete. First Baptist was founded in 1846. Clergymen from Northville, Wixom and Plymouth attended the ceremony.

Reverend Harold Fredsell To Speak Here Sunday

Pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Northville from 1941 to 1954, the Rev. Harold F. Fredsell will speak there Sunday, July 12.

Dr. Fredsell is now director of the department of new church development and building aid of the Board of National Missions, United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

He counsels with churches planning major building programs about their long range building plans, financial arrangements, and sites. He has had wide experience in banking, as a local church pastor, and a synod director of church extension. From 1954-62 Dr. Fredsell spearheaded a record-breaking new church program as Michigan's church extension executive. Forty-two new Uni-ed Presbyterian churches were started during the years, 22 of them in metropolitan Detroit.

A native New Yorker, Dr. Fredsell is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking and New York university. He received his master's degree in 1940 from Teachers' college, Columbia university, and his bachelor of divinity degree in 1941 from Union Theological seminary, New York City. Between 1948 and 1951 he studied at the University of Michigan. He has also studied at Wayne university, Detroit.

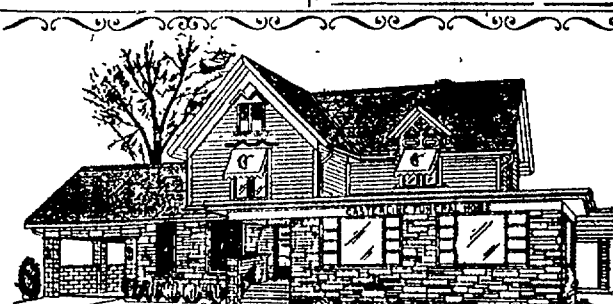

Moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit in 1952, and Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, he has held a number of offices in both the Detroit and Michigan councils of churches. Dr. Fredsell was awarded an honorary doctor of divinity degree from Alma college following the publication in 1950 of his "History of the Presbyterian Church in Michigan." He is

Schools to Open Full

Because the crystal ball is a bit hazy, it's not clear whether there'll be a "squeeze-in" in Northville schools in the near future.

Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant superintendent of schools, says all Northville schools will be filled to capacity in September but there still is room for 150 more students, if necessary.

It means that classes would have to be slightly larger, he indicated. A class of 25 pupils would have to be increased to perhaps 28 students.

"We wouldn't like it," but it could be done, said MacLeod.

This problem is relatively new for Northville schools. It has just been in recent years that school officials have encountered the problem of ending up with more students in June than started in the fall.

In fact, this past year the number has been greatly increased. An additional 38 students finished up the school year. However, the past trend has been to lose students by June except in 1961-62 when there were three more pupils. In 1962-63 there were five more.

Thirty-eight, however, is not indicative of an across-the-board increase. Additional students in lower grades and special schools outnumbered the high school drop-outs.

MacLeod compiled this information in a census report to the board of education.

Like New Library

There has been a terrific run on books since the library moved into its new location in the city hall building. In fact, there was as much business during the first fifteen days of its opening than there had been for any previous month.

Until now, an average of 2800 books were circulated a month. Circulation for June 15 through June 30 reached 2735 books.

It appears that books in the new library are in greater demand and that librarian Mrs. Ruth Richwerger, and her assistant, Miss Kathleen Sprenger, can expect busier days ahead.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LANSING, MICHIGAN

REPORT from LANSING

By PAUL CHANDLER

State Representative, 21st District

LANSING — Not all the new laws passed by the Michigan Legislature made headlines, but some of those which passed quietly nonetheless have huge significance to those they affect.

For instance, how many of our readers are aware that there now is a law which permits the Court to make assignments on the wages of those who have fallen behind in their alimony payments? It is Public Act 175 of 1964 and went right now, there is a new fund through the Legislature as House Bill 161.

And few realize that as of $500,000 for a State of Michigan college scholarship program. It is available to those who can show financial need and it is available up to $800 per year to public or parochial students for use at the college of their choice. (Application blanks are available from the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority, 905 Prudden Building, Lansing).

P.A. 173 requires a cosmetology student to be at least 16 years of age; for manicurists at least 17 years of age. From now on it will take a prescription to obtain a paragon.

Townships and cities now can buy fire equipment on title retaining contracts or chattel mortgages — if the cash isn't available at the time.

Police cars are required to carry specified dry fire extinguishers.

Hereafter there must be at least one voting machine for every 600 registered electors.

All highway-railroad crossings must be marked with reflectorized warning signs.

There is $30,000 available for experimental pilot programs in three school districts dedicated to special job upgrading for unemployed youth — aimed at the school drop-out problem.

The Conservation Commission now has power to set a limited hunting season on elk.

P.A. 276 authorizes two hours per week for public school students to attend classes in religious instruction, of public school property during school hours, upon written consent of parents.

Any vehicle with a capacity of eight or more, used to transport students to school, now must have the flashing red lights and other safety markings, just like school buses.

Townships may operate recreational areas and charge fees to non-residents for use.

Townships no longer are limited to $100,000 as the amount which can be on deposit in any one bank.

Respiratory illness and heart disease of police and firemen are within terms of "personal injury" under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Starting in 1966 there'll be a penalty of $1,000 or one year in jail or both — for dumping garbage or waste within three miles of a Great Lakes shoreline.

Persons who use the telephone to "harass" others are subject to "disorderly person" charges and punishment.

This is only a portion of the bills which passed the House, the Senate, and received the Governor's signature — all within a period of less than five months.

Philippines — Robert J. Gotro, aviation structural mechanic third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Biegert of 224 Lake street participated with Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron Eight in a combined sea-assault and airborne combat training exercise called "LIGTAS" May 12 to June 10 under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

What is Sales Resistance?

Literally dozens of books are written each year on the art of selling for salesmen — most of them earning handsome profits for their authors.

How useful they are, it seems to me, depends on how adept the salesman is at side-stepping their usual complicated formulas, and gaining out of them one of the basic things that make any real difference to his success — a stimulus to his enthusiasm.

With a little thought you will realize that the real heart of sales resistance — the customer's state of mind that stands between the salesman and a sale — is simply lack of sufficient confidence. While temporary advantage may be achieved by high pressure and fast verbal footwork, the only lasting way a dealership and its salesmen can be successful is to gain ever greater customer confidence.

How is this done? And any successful business man will tell you it isn't done overnight, but it is always done the same way: by DESERVING confidence.

It is really self-evident that every time a business can render a service or handle a sale in a manner that wins the customer's goodwill, it is planting a seed of confidence that will bear fruit in more sales at a later date.

That is our selfish motive in making our new and used car guarantees mean something and our service result in satisfaction. It turns buyers into customers.

organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

"LIGTAS", meaning "Saved" or "Rescued", in the Philippine language, was sponsored by the United States, and hosted by the Republic of the Philippines.

All member nations participated in the exercise which was part of a SEATO general counter-offensive to be used if an "enemy" should invade South-East Asia and gain control. The exercise tested the effectiveness of the SEATO forces to assault and regain control of areas behind the "enemy" advance.

The operation was designed to train allied forces in planning and execution of this type of assault. Closer working relationships and understanding among member nations was an important objective of this training.

"LIGTAS", the second training exercise this year and the 27th since 1956, was part of a long-term schedule announced by SEATO Headquarters in November 1963 to maintain joint military defense.

Murnau, Germany — Pic Larry D. Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal C. Snow, 24880 Novi road, completed a four-week wheeled vehicle maintenance course at the U.S. Army school, Europe, in Murnau, Germany, June 12.

During the course Snow received instruction in maintenance procedures related to engines, power trains, chassis units, and fuel and electric systems.

Snow is assigned as a mechanic in Headquarters Company of the 39th Infantry's 1st Battalion, near Worms, Germany.

The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in August 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

He is a 1962 graduate of Northville high school.

Patrolman, Hit by Car, Is Bruised

Even a policeman isn't safe on city streets.

Patrolman William McGee, of 540 Carpenter, was directing traffic last Wednesday night at North Center and Dunlap when he was struck by a car. He wasn't seriously hurt.

McGee was stationed at the intersection to keep traffic from Northville Downs flowing smoothly out of the city, according to Police Chief Eugene King.

King said Albert Flower of 49609 Oak, Plymouth, was heading south on North Center when his car hit McGee. Extent of damage to the car: aerial was broken off and dent was put in left door.

At impact, McGee was spun around but didn't fall to the pavement. King said he was treated by Dr. H. L. Dyer. X-rays showed no fractures but McGee's left arm was badly bruised.

Flower was ticketed for violating a state license restriction. Flower told police he had broken his glasses three days earlier and his vision was impaired.

McGee was back on his regular shift the next day.

CIRCUS IN TOWN — The best part of any circus is the clowns. Just ask any kid. "Happy the Clown" — to the delight of children — did a few more tricks outside the big top. Cole's Circus, brought to town by the Northville Jaycees, took over Ford Field Monday. Attendance at the afternoon performance was low because of the extreme heat. However, in the evening the show was a sell-out. The venture proved financially profitable for the Jaycees. "This is one project we didn't have to work for and still made money," said Karl Knott, last year's president.

Wolverine Girls State Proves Valuable Experience for Local Trio

Carol Yahne, Jean Downer and Kris Deibert, Northville's representatives to Wolverine Girls State, had invaluable first-hand knowledge of how a state government operates.

From July 16 through 25, 462 Michigan girls ran a mock government, including conventions, elections and inauguration ceremonies, on the University of Michigan campus. The annual event is sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. The girls are chosen by faculty recommendation.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yahne of 512

Eaton drive; Jean of Mr. and Mrs. Gael Downer, 46056 Frederick; and Kris of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Deibert of 9825 Napier.

As members of the Federalist party, Jean was elected city municipal judge; Carol served in the House of Representatives and chairman of the Massachusetts Ballot Committee and Kris was a member of the county board of supervisors.

The other faction at the convention was the Nationalist party. Kris, one of eight girls interviewed, was selected as an alternate to Girls Nation which will be held in Washington, D.C. during the last week of July.

Agreeing with their "real" counterparts, the representatives passed the Civil Rights Bill. "Everyone was in favor of it," said Kris. The Massachusetts Ballot and a resolution that girls sent to Girls State should have a faculty recommendation were also passed.

The latter resolution was approved because as Carol, Jean and Kris found out, some of the girls were elected and as a result it was just a popularity contest and not an achievement or worth basis.

However, for the most part, as Carol said, "The girls were great. Everyone was broad-minded and willing to make allowances for other people's ideas."

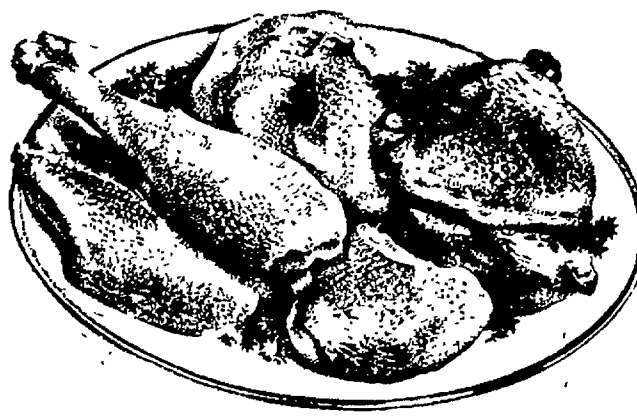

During the mornings, they attended classes in government and listened to many speakers including state and local officials. "We discovered through the speakers that the best people aren't in government," said Kris.

Kris also noted that she felt a lack of patriotism in the schools and wished that it could somehow be increased. "People don't know how to act when they see a flag anymore," she said.

In all, the girls bristled with excitement and enthusiasm about their venture in government, agreed that they learned a lot. Jean summed up their feelings when she said, "a very important function of the American Legion auxiliary is Girls State. Many thanks to them for sponsoring this program."

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Last November Northville township received a $17,764 federal grant to pay three-quarters of the cost of a comprehensive planning program.

Since that time township planners have been working with planning consultants, Vilican-Leman & Associates, and have completed two of six studies to be included in the two-year undertaking to develop a comprehensive plan to guide the township's future growth.

The first two studies, neatly recorded in book form, include the "inventory" and the "residential areas and facilities plan."

A more detailed report of the studies will be published next week, but some of the findings and recommendations which seem most interesting include:

— the present population of the township is 7,673 persons, of which 4,446 (or 57%) reside in institutions within the township;

— the 1980 population is expected to reach 17,000 persons;

— presently, the township is 55.1% developed, with institutions constituting the largest single developed land use, some 2,976 acres of a total township area of 10,725 acres;

— the condition of the township's housing supply is substantially better than that of the state as a whole. Field inspections and the 1960 U.S. Census indicated that 15.6% of the dwelling units in the township were substandard, as compared to 21.3% for the entire state.

The above statistics were reported in study number one — "inventory". Study number two — "residential areas and facilities plan" — gives some indication of future needs.

Among other things the report states:

— Twelve residential planning units have been considered with population capacities ranging from 2,680 to 4,850 persons. The ultimate population holding capacity of the Township, based upon the considered units and the recommended densities, is 46,110 persons;

— There will be a need for 12 elementary schools, three junior high schools and two senior high schools at ultimate development. The need for one senior high school can be satisfied by expanding the present high school in the City of Northville;

— As the Township population increases, there will be an increased demand for governmental services and administrative functions. A community center plans has been under study utilizing an example site located east of the C&O Railroad adjacent to Six Mile Road; however, several other sites are just as logically suited for a community center;

— Two future fire stations will be necessary for a Township of this size. These future stations, along with the existing station in the City of Northville, would provide adequate coverage for the Township.

The four other master plan studies to be completed include Economic Base Analysis, Major Thoroughfare Plan, Future Land Use Plan and Effectuation Study including zoning text and map.

Members of the Northville planning commission are: Gunnar Stromberg, chairman; Lewis W. Alexander, vice chairman; and Bernard W. Baldwin, Luke Bathey, J. Ralph Gibson and Donald E. Robinson.

Attorney Ed Yerkes believes the city needs to improve its Main street signs prohibiting left turns off Main street into the central parking lot.

He claims several persons have been ticketed for the turns. But the only warning — until you have already completed the turn and are entering the lot — is a worn-out and rather dim job of yellow lettering on the pavement.

We looked ourselves, and he's right. Motorists shouldn't have to strain to find traffic signals. A circuit court judge recently ruled in favor of a motorist driving the wrong way on an expressway entrance because markings were not clear.

Yerkes suggested that officers should warn, not ticket, motorists until the signal is improved. A good suggestion.

Business, not War, Sought by Japanese

Babson Park, Mass. — Some time ago I promised my readers a column on Japan. This week's release represents my own opinions, but I have given considerable study to the subject.

Japan realizes that she could be swallowed up by Red China, if the Chinese should break through the overrun all Malaysia. Japan would surely have to get into the fight and this could wind up with World War III, involving the U.S. and Russia as well. This is possible, but not probable.

At a reception given Henry Cabot Lodge on his return, he was asked a multitude of questions, which — by the way — he handled very splendidly. His audience apparently felt that he had been brought back here to prevent the nomination of Senator Barry Goldwater.

Mr. Lodge insisted that he wasn't "agin" anybody, but that he had come home to help Governor Scranton of Pennsylvania secure the nomination. What success he will have will be decided soon at the Republican Convention. But let me get back to my subject of Japan.

The Japanese at one time thought the way to success was through connivance and politics, without regard for right or wrong. Hence, while their chief men were in Washington talking peace terms with President Roosevelt's representatives, the Japanese admirals had already left Japan prepared to blow up our Navy at Pearl Harbor.

This move, which brought Japan into conflict with the U.S. in World War II, failed miserably; but I feel it taught Japan a lesson which is very valuable to her.

Japan nearly lost everything at the close of World War II. Her whole experience then made the Japanese people sick of war and anxious not to have anything more to do with it — not even to the extent of helping out, or protecting their interests in the Vietnam situation. It has been only her strategic position and her great industrialness which has since saved her. The two cities —

Hiroshima and Nagasaki — upon which President Truman allowed atomic bombs to be dropped were almost annihilated. Japan is now capable of making atomic bombs of her own, but has agreed not to do so, and — in fact — to stay out of the atomic field.

In order to avoid any possibility of being swallowed up by the Chinese or the Russians, or even the United States, Japan is now following a new program. She is no longer looking for military or similar honors. She is looking for business, and more business — and business in every part of the world. Japan is not mercenary, except as this involves bringing more business to Japan.

Japan is well represented at scientific conferences, but concentrates on those which will help her secure more business. Japan's new program calls for her to cease putting all her life lines into industry and wealth on the little island of Japan. She has decided, instead, to spread out and have hundreds of "little Japans" in different parts of the world. I base this belief of mine on careful study and on interviews with numerous people acquainted with the situation. I think it was confirmed by answers which Henry Cabot Lodge gave in his question period.

The Japanese, as I have said, are determined to spread out all over the world — to get business and to get more business — instead of building a small industrial Japan as their predecessors did.

The Japanese are determined to make more products, and to make them cheaper; to sell more at lower prices; and, to become the greatest manufacturers and merchandisers in the world.

I should think they might succeed in this program, except for one thing: In their eagerness for business and wealth they appear to have left "morality" and "spirituality" out of the picture for the moment. That is to say, they seem to be putting all emphasis on the materialistic. However, my Japanese friends tell me that their people are deeply devout. Only a very few of them are Christians. The vast majority accept Jesus on the same basis as they do Confucius, Buddha, and Mohammed — as a Great Prophet, but not as a part of the Deity. As to what effect Japan's religious beliefs should have in this article I leave each reader to decide for himself.

Milky Way Seen In July Skies

July is the month of the Milky Way.

Rising almost parallel to the eastern horizon, it shines as a soft misty light, says University of Michigan Astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

"Because it looks like a broad hazy band to the naked eye its true nature has always been a riddle to man. Over the centuries it has been thought to be a pathway, a glistening river, a heavenly snake, or according to an old Indian legend, dust picked up by a buffalo and horse racing across the sky.

"But telescopes show it to be made up of myriads of faint stars, star clusters, star clouds, bright nebulae, and dark dust clouds."

It is unusually bright in the summer because "we are, located midway between the center and edge of our galaxy, and in the summer night sky we are looking toward its farther border, and therefore, through a greater number of stars than during the winter."

Noticeable in the Milky Way are Cranus (The Swan) and Aquila (The Eagle) with its bright star, Altair. Just above two small constellations, Sagitta and Delphinus. Sagitta resembles an arrow and Delphinus (The Dolphin) or Job's Coffin is composed of four stars in a diamond shaped figure.

"Toward the southeastern horizon," Professor Losh notes "One comes to Sagittarius (The Archer), one of the finest of the summer figures. This Archer with his bow-outstretched is aiming a shaft at the flaming red heart of the Scorpion, Antares, lying just to the west of Sagittarius."

"Another feature of July," she adds, "is that on the 5th the Earth will have reached its greatest distance from the Sun." Can we then expect cooler weather? "No, for we will not be too much farther from the Sun, about 1,500,000 miles farther than the average distance.

Auditor General Still Unsettled

LANSING — Replacement of the elected Auditor General by one appointed by the Legislature is ordered in the new Constitution.

Implementation of this provision failed in two attempts this year. Administrative problems could result in January if no agreement is reached by then.

Gov. George Romney has indicated he would call the Legislature into special session after the election to resolve this problem if he thinks agreement can result.

Current Auditor General Billie S. Farnum would serve in his post until a successor is appointed under the provisions of the Constitution.

That is, he would serve unless he chose to run and was elected to another office, such as Congressman. In this event, Michigan would be without an Auditor General until such time as one was appointed.

Work on the Auditor General law was done by the Legislative Audit Commission, a joint House-Senate body working since 1962. It has been labeled the "watch-dog committee" which checked and rechecked much of the work of state departments which also was reviewed by Farnum's office.

Objections to the Commission's previous recommendations for methods of appointing the Auditor General centered around the power position the Commission wrote into the law for itself.

Some legislators said the proposed measures would have placed the Commission entirely in charge of the auditing process. The appointive Auditor General would have been a glorified errand boy, said the critics.

The Constitutional provision was designed to give the Legislature closer control over use of funds they appropriate to various state agencies.

Most members felt, however, that the Auditor General should continue to have basic administrative independence to carry out his job.

Every fall, thousands of Michigan school children get one or two days off while their teachers and school administrators attend regional conference sessions.

After a full summer of conferring with the children day in and day out, many mothers gasp, "Oh, no, not another day off." They loudly wonder at the purpose and effectiveness of the short refresher sessions for the teachers.

A look at the activities of a teachers conference answers these questions. Teachers hear general discussions of state, national and world problems, in education and attend smaller meetings dealing with their special field.

International understanding, quality education and aerospace education are typical subjects for general discussion of concern to all teachers and administrators.

In addition there might be as many as 75 to 100 smaller meetings dealing with such specialized teaching problems, extra-curricular social activities, the slow learner, team teaching, or teacher education and professional standards.

New techniques in teaching reading, under-achievers, elementary art, business, foreign languages, English, math, the sciences and even Kindergarten also get attention at the sessions.

One theory behind the conferences is that not every teacher can or does spend the summer studying new techniques in his field.

Every teacher needs periodic reviews of the methods and aids available, however, and conferences such as those sponsored annually by the Michigan Education Association provide exposure to these for every educator.

From the one or two-day conferences, it is up to the individual teacher to carry on with his ever-continuing education.

Acute examples of human indifference for the well-being of others first were noted in New York City.

More recently, however, several incidents involving needless human suffering have been reported in Michigan.

Two boys drowned because nearby fishermen did not heed a third youth's pleas for help in rescue. A woman died for failure of neighbors to listen to her screams of torment by assaulting teens. These are the most notable examples.

It would appear some revision of moral standards would be in order. An internal Peace Corps, or domestic "CARE" program might be appropriate to instill a sense of individual responsibility for the plight of other persons in need of more than compassion.

Surely no one wants to risk the ire of a robber or assaulter by interfering where this would be the only result.

Most of the recent cases, however, indicated a simple act such as calling the police or shouting a warning could easily have made the end results less tragic. In each example there appears to be some justification for the idea that to some degree each is his brother's keeper.
