State and local authorities bend over the body of Detroit policeman Alphonsus Coughlin found shot to death Tuesday in Novi.

State and local police today are probing the fatal shooting of a 40-year-old Detroit police officer Tuesday in Novi.

The officer has been identified as Alphonsus J. Coughlin, 6175 Guilford, Detroit. Coughlin was attached to the harbor master division and a 16-year veteran of the force.

His body was discovered shortly after 4 p.m. in an open field on Taft road between Nine and Ten Mile roads by Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole.

BeGole, first on the scene, was investigating a suspicious car report. Mrs. Rex Smith, 48800 Nine Mile road, reported there was an abandoned car in the area.

Another witness, Clarence Smith, 26200 Taft road, told police he had seen Coughlin's car in the field at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday.

"I went by and slowed down long enough to observe the car and field, on my way to work," said Smith, a construction worker.

BeGole said Coughlin's body was not visible immediately. It was hidden from view by a small cluster of trees about 15 feet off the road.

Coughlin was lying prone on the ground with a pistol — a Colt cobra 38 special — in his right hand. A bullet hole was in his right temple.

As soon as he determined Coughlin was dead, BeGole summoned state police. Sergeant Adolph M. Ploehn headed the state police detachment.

Dr. Wellington C. Gibson, Oakland county coroner, came from his office in Milford and, after observing the body, ordered it to be sent to St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Pontiac.

Dr. Richard Olson, a pathologist, was scheduled to perform an autopsy yesterday afternoon.

"It could be a murder or a suicide but we won't know for a few days," BeGole said.

Another unexplainable fact about the case, police said, was that Coughlin's car was locked. Sergeant Vern Loeffler, Novi detective, gained entry by breaking a vent window.

"I cannot understand why a man would close up his car before shooting himself," BeGole said.

Sgt. Ploehn said the pistol would be taken to Lansing for a ballistics rundown. It was found not to be the type that a police officer carries while on duty.

Ploehn added that Coughlin was the fourth Detroit policeman to die in a week. Two were killed in traffic accidents and the other was shot to death in California.

Voters Pull Party Levers Tuesday

Two Races in Township

Treasurer Alex M. Lawrence

Elsie M. Price

Two Compete for Treasurer's Post

Township political activity stepped up this week as Republicans drew sharp lines in their campaigns to nominate a treasurer and trustee.

Incumbents Alex M. Lawrence, treasurer, and Donald Robinson, trustee, have strong opposition from within their party.

Mrs. Harold B. Price is seeking to unseat Lawrence, a veteran office-holder in the township.

Gerald Dresselhouse and James Tellam are in the race for Robinson's post on the board.

Because of the Republican majority in the township, GOP nomination normally means election.

There's no doubt, this year.

Clerk Marguerite Young revealed this week that she has received a state attorney general's ruling that township Democrats cannot "write in" local candidates.

Clerk Young says this means that the Democrats cannot be represented on the township ballot in November.

Township Democrats may, however, vote for the Republican nominees for township office even though they vote the Democratic lever for state, congressional and county offices, the clerk explained.

Although it took some last-minute repairs, township machines are now able to handle the complete ballot.

This marks the first time that township elections have been combined with national, state and county elections. The lengthy ballot is expected to slow down voting.

In addition to the treasurer and trustee races Republican voters will nominate a supervisor, clerk, justice of the peace, constable and three party committeemen.

Incumbent R. D. Merriam is the Republican nominee for supervisor; and Clerk Young and Constable M. Richard Mitchell are also lone nominees.

There are no nominees for justice of the peace or party committeemen, but because Republicans have nominees for other offices voters can "write in" for these posts.

Local Democrats have a candidate on the county ballot for delegate to the county convention: He's William G. Kinnaid. The Republican nominee is Harold B. Price.

Liquor License in AG Zone Opposed by Township Planners

Northville township planners ruled Tuesday night that the issuance of a liquor license in an AG (agriculture) district "was contrary to the intent of the zoning ordinance."

The planning commission's action came about as the result of a letter submitted to the township board last month by Glenn Cummings, 43525 West Six Mile road, regarding protests by property owners to the possible issuance of a liquor license to Brooklane Golf Club, Sheldon at Six Mile.

The township board turned the letter over to the planning commission for consideration

Pat Dorrian

Northville high school English teacher, Miss Patricia Dorrian, has been dashing nightly to the Henry Ford Museum Theater to participate in the American Drama Festival.

Miss Dorrian plays the elegant Mrs. Mountchessington in the Lincoln favorite, "Our American Cousin", and Maude Hartshorn, wife of the town drunkard, in the greatest of all Indian dramas, "Metamora."

Miss Dorrian was selected from two hundred applicants that auditioned in June for the American Drama Festival Repertory company. Her prior dramatic work with the Plymouth Theater Guild gave her background enough to capture the important acting assignment with the American Drama Festival company. She appeared in "Biggest Thief in Town", "The Mousetrap", and "The Drunkard".

In addition to her acting chores, Miss Dorrian sings, dances, and plays the pianoforte every evening during the musical interludes that spice up the melodramatic proceedings.

Producer Ted Payne recently added still another task to the ever-broadening shoulders of the ambitious Miss Dorrian — the task of being head costume mistress.

"Our American Cousin", is being performed every Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 8 p.m. in the Henry Ford Museum Theater at Greenfield Village.

"Metamora", a heart-stopping bit of American history, storms on stage every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings. "Metamora" is the true account of the final Indian uprising in the colonies. Miss Dorrian gets stabbed nightly in this epic.

The American Drama Festival will run until September 8. Six nights a week family entertainment is being presented in an air-conditioned theater. Prices are moderately scaled. Best seat is $1.50.

The office of Treasurer requires participation on the five member Northville Township Board. This aspect of the job demands a willingness to discuss, study and analyze issues related to the operation

To the Voters Of Novi Township

With the primary election coming up next Tuesday, I would like to give recognition to the fine people that have served on our Township and Village Boards for the past two years. We have enjoyed good government in both places, and our tax rate is below any of the communities around us.

Since the Township Supervisor's Office is up for re-election at this time, I would like to remind the readers that Mr. Hadley Bachert has served this community extremely well both as Township Supervisor, and for many years previously, as Township Clerk. In my opinion he deserves to be re-elected.

It is with regret I note that Mr. Chas. Goers, our Township Clerk, is not running for re-election. Some people think that this is not a very important office now that we are incorporated as a Village, but this is not so.

I would like to see someone fill this vacancy that has both the qualifications and the time to make it a full time job, as Mr. Goers has.

Township Candidates: Backgrounds, Statements

For Treasurer

Treasurer Alex M. Lawrence.
A resident of 16775 Meade road, a registered mechanical engineer. Served on the township board since 1955. Appointed treasurer in 1962, elected to office again in 1963. Now serves as president of Wayne County Township Treasurers Association.

I have been a continuous resident in the Township since November 1939, a home owner and a taxpayer.
I have served on the Township Board of Northville as Trustee and Treasurer since December 1955.

I am a member of the Northville Area Economic Development Committee.
I was formerly a member of the Northville Optimist club, serving on the Food and Concessions Committee, for the Annual Horse Show and as second and first vice-president of the club.

I served voluntarily in the Coast Guard Temporary Reserve from 1942 to 1945, in Detroit and rose from a Seaman First Class to a Lieutenant Junior Grade in command of Flotilla No. 1705.

I am a Registered Mechanical Engineer in the State of Michigan 4108 and have many years of experience in the contract and construction industrial field.

I worked many years as designer, engineer, salesman and treasurer for the Peters-Dalton company, Inc., an Industrial Sheet Metal Fabrication and Construction Company doing work in the United States, Canada and many other countries. I have been and will continue to give my full time as treasurer of Northville Township.

Mrs. Harold B. Price
A resident of 48221 Bloomcrest, married, one son. Previously employed for 13 years in accounting offices. Studied accounting, business administration, economics and political science. Charter member, former treasurer of Northville Republican club.

I am a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Northville Township in the primary election, September 1, 1964. I believe my qualifications and experience in accounting can help:

1. Fully implement the expressed wishes of the electorate regarding the payment of taxes.
  2. Review the auditing needs of the township.
  3. Recommend to the township board the most advantageous application of surplus funds.
- As treasurer, I would commit all of my time and efforts to the office in an effective and thorough manner.
The office of Treasurer requires participation on the five member Northville Township Board. This aspect of the job demands a willingness to discuss, study and analyze issues related to the operation of the township. I believe my abilities in this area are needed to:

1. Provide a sense of proportion and objectivity to the sharply divided township board.
  2. Improve two way communication between the board and the electorate.
  3. Broaden citizen participation in township affairs.
- As a member of the Northville Township board, I would be pledged to promote those policies which best represent the interests of all Northville Township Taxpayers. I would appreciate your vote.

For Trustee

Gerald Dresselhouse
A resident of 19730 Smock road, married, 25 years old. A civil engineer with the Wayne County Road Commission, graduate of Northville high school and Lawrence Institute of Technology. Has lived in community for 13 years.

I live at 19730 Smock road, Northville township, own my home, married, and a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Northville. I am a civil engineer with the Wayne County Road Commission and have six years experience in the design and construction of roads and sewers.

Most of my work has been in and around the township, so I am familiar with the area and the people.
I have an interest in the welfare of the township, and feel that I can help in maintaining and furthering, orderly residential and commercial development in the township, through good government.

Trustee Donald Robinson
A resident of 39955 Six Mile, married, 1 daughter, a graduate of Northville high school and Michigan State University with a degree in business administration. A sales engineer, resident of township since 1947, board member since 1962.

Northville Township is one of the last townships in Wayne County to be developing as a residential district. I say residential because the advantages to industry are few and the attractions to suburban dwellers are many.

A community dependent upon a residential tax base to pay for required services is therefore faced with a very serious handicap in the collection of revenue sufficient to meet the needs of the school district and such minimal services as we presently require.

Development (progress) requires sewer, water, police and schools, or put in another way, it requires dollars. The financial disasters of our neighboring counterparts of Livonia and Farmington are living examples. Each of these communities enjoy a good proportion of industrial tax base while Northville Township finds the State, County and City of Detroit occupying one third of its land area as tax free residents. Add to this the gravel mining operation within our borders and the problem multiplies.

Developers (progress) should be required to supply their own services such as sewer and water and not expect an already taxburdened community to, not only give away their assets, but contribute to services that they themselves do not and cannot enjoy.

As to my qualifications for the office of trustee, may I say that I have represented the voters for over six years in various positions within the township and I will continue to serve if it is the voters' pleasure.

1958 — 60 Twp. delegate to Republican County and State Conventions; 1960 — 62 Twp. Board of Review; 1962 — 64 Twp. Board and Twp. Planning Commission)

James Tellam
A resident of 20031 Caldwell, married, three children, 30 years old. Civil engineer, graduate University of Toledo. Technical service engineer with Peerless Cement. Past president GOP club and Main street School P-TA.

On September 1, 1964, a primary election will be held in Northville Township. I am a candidate for the office of trustee.

Northville township is presently faced with all the problems that rapid growth can bring. I am sure all of us would agree that planning must begin now. Controls that will insure the maintenance of our fine residential area are essential. Immediate attention must be given to the development of water and sewer facilities.

From an engineering standpoint, I view these utilities in relation to: 1. Need; 2. Cost and 3. Customer potential. Experience in the construction field has demonstrated to me the need for a constant reappraisal of our zoning practices. If we fail to examine our planned growth in relation to our actual growth, we will be in trouble. As your representative on the Northville Township board, I would encourage the study and discussion of these issues, and make every effort to remain objective about them.

I would welcome the opportunity to talk with you personally before the election. If you have any questions regarding my position on issues or my candidacy generally, please call me at FI 9-2441. I would appreciate your vote on September 1.

Horwath Happy Over Big Grid Turn-Out

With the official start of the high school football season actually gets underway will the picture determine Northville's chances in the upcoming season. But the man best able to take a fling at predicting Northville's 1964 season. Not until the football football fortunes is Coach Ron Horwath.

On the basis of the June sign-up for football, Horwath forecasts the largest turnout in his five year reign as the Mustangs head mentor. The number of hopefuls could reach as high as 80.

This, in itself, is a good indication that unexpected help might be in the offing. If Northville hopes to improve on last year's showing a few surprises are a must.

The Mustangs copied a share of the 1963 Wayne-Oakland Conference title by tying Clarkston 13-all in the season finale. They posted a 5-1-1 league mark and a 5-2-1 record over all.

"Last year, the kids played much better than we thought possible," said Horwath. "We got a lot of help from transfers Lance Hahn (an end) and Dave Kerr (center) and we won four of five close ones."

"This year, on the basis of returning personnel, we should be stronger and faster," added Horwath. "We're also hoping to be surprised by a few good transfers and by the maturing of a few reserves."

There's no denying, however, that Horwath and his assistants, Backfield Coach Dave Longridge and Line Coach Alex Klukach, have yoman work before them to fill out the gaps left by graduation.

Hardest hit were the backfield ranks. Gone are Fullback Ron Rice, the Mustangs' work horse; Halfback Dave Cummings, the best break-away threat; Quarterback Gary Stobbe, who took over the helm and passed and ran with increasing confidence.

Also lost are Fullback and Halfback Mike Hall, a hard runner; Halfback Bill Wilson; and Defensive Halfback Gary London, who transferred to Milan this year.

As a result, Horwath has already begun manipulation of players on paper.

Lettermen Tom Baughman will bring experience to the quarterback post. Doug Dingwall, who saw spot action as a signal caller, is in contention, as are Chris Holman, up from the reserves, and Mark Wilson, a transfer student from Madison Heights. He played on the reserves there.

To fill the shoes of departed Fullback Rice, Horwath will move two former halfbacks up with last year's second string Fullback Jack Winner. They are sophomore letterwinner, Doug Swiss and Mike Turnbull, a junior veteran as a defensive halfback.

With the exception of Halfback Jerry French, Northville's best pass-receiving flanker last year, there are no experienced halfbacks.

Speedy John Mach will be given a thorough tryout at one of the halfback spots. Mach was the leading quarterback candidate last year, until he was injured in a pre-season scrimmage. If his injured knee holds up, he could provide the open field running that is needed.

Other halfback hopefuls are Ken Kipper, a dash man and pole vaulter on the track squad and one of last year's reserve halfbacks, Jim Zayti.

Reason for Horwath's optimism stems from a full array of returning linemen. In fact, in some spots, line strength runs two and three deep.

Northville lost its two starting guards, Dave Jerome and Jim Mahoney, but letterman Greg Penn is returning and veteran Tim Krug may be moved over from tackle.

In addition, letter winner Bob Beller will be on hand and reserve Dick Bongiovanni may surprise.

There will be plenty of strength and speed at tackle, where three veterans will probably get the call.

Rugged Bob Tuck will anchor one side of the line, while Ted Jacques, who played defensively last year, may go both ways at the other spot.

Horwath pointed out that Jerry Burns, a former center, and Tom Wicke may end up at tackle if they are not needed at other line positions.

There's a wealth of material at end and center. Two of the best ends in the conference, veteran Juniors John Jameson and Jerry Inslan, should upend any halfback hoping to turn the ends.

They, along with letterman Gary MacMillan, should also make fans forget the departure of Lance Hahn, a good pass receiver.

Anchoring the middle of the line will be Dave Kerr. As a transfer last year, he was appointed center on the Wayne-Oakland Conference team.

Behind him are Daley Hill, a letter winner, and Bob McHugh.

Horwath will groom two hopefuls as linebackers. Artie Forth will be transferred from defensive end where he earned a letter last year, and George Burchfield, who transferred to Northville last year, will also be given a try.

On the basis of their past performances, these hopefuls will form the nucleus of a team as practice sessions begin Monday, August 31, in preparation for the season ahead.

Horwath noted that the league will be tougher this year, with Holly and Milford playing the favorites' roles. And West Bloomfield, Horwath pointed out, is always a tough outfit.

Clarenceville and Brighton will also be improved.

Last year's co-champions, Northville and Clarkston, are "in the same boat", Horwath declared. Both are solid in the line, but there are question marks in the backfield.

Unruly Driver

A Union Lake driver has paid the consequences for being unruly in Novi.

Winding his way down Novi road, H. Lee Caudill was finally curbed for failing to stop for an officer early Saturday morning.

Officer Ronald Randolph asked for an operator's license but Caudill's had been revoked. Next, the patrolman charged him with drunk driving.

Randolph said he found Caudill "hard to understand because he was slurring his words together."

So Caudill was taken to Oakland county jail and then returned to Novi later that morning for arraignment.

Judge Allen C. Ingle, pinching for Judge Robert Anderson who was away for the weekend, slapped a $200 fine on Caudill, $100 for each count.

Night Classes

Registration for adult evening courses and recreation activities in Plymouth Community schools is set for September 8 and 9. Hours will be from 9-5 and 7-9 on both days.

Classes start the week of September 21.

In Justice Court

Judge Charles McDonald faced a light docket Monday in Northville justice court.

Clare D. Albright, 39517 Seven Mile, South Lyon, was fined $10 for speeding. Arrested August 1 for going 65 in a 55 mph zone, he was arraigned August 15 but pleaded not guilty.

Sydney R. Lewis, 373 Linden, was charged with reckless driving August 15 on Main street. Lewis, 21, was cited for drag racing and pleaded guilty. Judge McDonald set his fine at $50 and $5 costs.

Peter J. Crawford was arrested August 4 for having no operators license and for speeding on Main street. He was released on $25 bond. Pleading guilty at arraignment Monday, he was assessed a fine of $5.

Yeggs Steal Tools

Burglars stole $2,000 worth of equipment and tools early Tuesday morning at the site of the Gulf Oil tank field on Grand River in Novi, police said. The loss was reported by O. Jennings, superintendent of the Chicago Bridge and Iron Co. which is erecting the large storage tanks for petroleum products. Sgt. Vern Loeffler is investigating.

Mrs. Merwin, Daughters Attend CAR Meeting

Mrs. George Merwin and her daughters, Mimi and Jacki, attended the Ninth Mid-Western Regional Meeting of the Children of the American Revolution last weekend in Chillicothe, Ohio. The Adena and Ohio State Societies were hosts.

Early arrivals Friday evening were entertained at the Holiday Inn, headquarters for the gathering, with a meal and swim party. Saturday started early with a tour of the Ross county Historical Museum, formerly the McClintock family home, showing exhibits of the early white man's life in the area. The Mound City Group National Monument a cremation grounds for the Hopewell and Adena Indians was next on the tour.

Mimi and Jacki, representing the Plymouth Corners Society, acted as pages for the afternoon meeting which was officially opened by the senior national vice president, Miss Virginia Klaren of Kentucky, who turned same over to Fred Rothert, national vice president from Indiana.

Michigan was represented by nine other members and seniors other than Fred Ayers, state president from Battle Creek, Mrs. Merwin, senior state president, and her two daughters.

The meeting recessed for the National President Van R. H. Sternberg of Washington, D.C.

LET'S TALK CARS...

USED CAR ECONOMICS

Two used cars change hands for every new car sold in United States and better than have NEVER purchased a new car.

The reason for this is mainly price, of course. But there is a very large percentage of drivers who consistently buy used cars in preference to new, even though they could easily afford a new one. They do it because they are convinced they are making real savings in avoiding the big depreciation drop in the first few years.

If the motorist buys wisely, there is much to be said for this reasoning. Especially with the NEW compacts appearing on the market at comparable prices and forcing a lid down on what a large quality used car will bring.

There are pitfalls though! And no matter how carefully a used buyer checks his prospective purchase, he stands a real risk of losing his savings in future repair bills unless he knows his dealer.

At John Mach Ford Sales we have five fundamental rules to help protect you. We never knowingly misrepresent a car to be something it is not, we never sell at retail former taxicabs or police cruisers unless they are specified as such and priced accordingly, we never repair and sell cars which have been in a major collision; all cars are plainly priced with the optional equipment specified; the name and address of the former owner is available on request.

It might seem on some occasions that you pay a little more. But you END UP with a lot more for your money. The cars you might have bought cheaper have been wholesaled in large city auctions where they are disposed of to used car dealers who turn them over at a profit.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Robert K. Spradling, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Northville

Several months ago this writer was accompanying his wife and daughters on a shopping trip, when the older of the girls was attracted to a revolving door in a department store. After an extended "chase", she was persuaded not to play in the door. From there the procession led to the escalator, but that is another story! This incident reminded the writer that the Scripture has a great deal to say about doors.

Jesus said, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in he shall be saved and shall go in and out, and find pasture." (John 10:9) Our Lord is saying in this verse, that what a door is to a building, or more literally, what a door is to a sheepfold, He is to the Kingdom of God. He is saying, "I am the place of entrance into the Kingdom of God." He is saying, "There is no other way to Heaven except thru the Door, Jesus Christ. This same general truth is expressed in John 14:6 where Christ said, "I am the way..." He is the one and only way to the Father. It is impossible to enter the portals of glory apart from God's divinely appointed way, Jesus Christ.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus talked about another door, a door of seclusion in prayer. "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly." (Matthew 6:6) Our Lord is teaching that the prayers of the saints should not be like those of the hypocritical Pharisees who thought they were heard for their long public prayers. On the contrary, secret prayer is the answer to power with God. This is the answer to many of the personal, complex problems of our pressing age. The place of solitary prayer is the place of communion with God.

In the parable of the ten virgins, five were wise and five were foolish. The five foolish virgins had neglected to make proper preparation for the return of the Bridegroom. As a result of this failure, the Bible says they were excluded from the great marriage feast. The words to describe this action were these: "...and the door was shut." (Matthew 25:10) This was a door of separation. There was no second chance to make amends for their failure. The five foolish virgins were kept outside and the five wise were ushered into the presence of the bridegroom. In this parable, Christ pointed out a longstanding Scriptural truth. There is a day coming when the Lord will separate all men by this standard, namely, their relationship to Christ. Those who have ignored the claims of Christ thru the gospel will be banished from God's presence. Those who have loved and served the Saviour will enjoy his presence forever.

Plenty of Fun, Attractions On Tap at 115th State Fair

There'll be something for everybody — and more of it than ever before — at the 115th Michigan State Fair, which will open at 6 p.m. Friday (August 28) and run through Labor Day September 7.

State Fair officials expect, for the third straight year, more than a million visitors to the 10-day and 11-night extravaganza of entertainment, agricultural and livestock exhibits including great horse shows, displays of the home-maker's arts and youth and children's activities.

And, after the general admission of $1 to the Fairgrounds is paid (children 12 and under are free when accompanied by an adult), all but a few of the attractions of the 164-acre Fairgrounds will be free.

The State Fair's schedule of free entertainment is loaded: —Programs at the Music Shell from morning through the evening will feature big-name stars such as Count Basie and his band, singer Nancy Wilson, the New Christy Minstrels, the Jimmy Wilkins Band, Hillsville, U.S.A., an array of top recording stars, and others.

—In the Coliseum, before the Horse Show events, Grand Ole Opry singing stars Faron Young and Buck Owens, and others will perform country and western music.

—At the Grandstand, three shows daily will feature Castle's International Circus, with clowns, acrobats, aerialists, animals and other specialty acts.

—All over, the State Fairgrounds there will be strolling bands offering music from many lands from noon to midnight: Hawaiian, gypsy, ragtime, Balkan, Polish, folk music, Jamaican calypso, square dance, Dixieland, and Greek-Armenian.

Of special appeal to teenagers will be the Teenage Fair, admission 50 cents, with shows and exhibits aimed at them.

And there'll be a "We Love You, Beatles" Day, Sunday, September 6 with Beatlemania in the Music Shell.

For the younger children there will be the free TV Fun Circus in the Theater for Children, featuring such TV stars as Captain Jolly, Ricky the Clown, Poopdeck Paul, Bwana Don, Bozo the Clown, Johnny Ginger, and Sagebrush Shorty. There'll be shows in the Children's Puppet Theater featuring TV puppet star Howard the Turtle.

The Kiddie Farm area will be a big attraction for the children, and it will be the scene daily of the Junior Jamboree, a big free giveaway for kids 12 and under, with drawings for junior size Corvetts, puppies, dog food, hams, blouses and candy.

Great attractions each year, of course, are the horse shows. This year there will be 15 performances in the Coliseum at which prize horses and their riders will be judged. Free, of course.

The traditional features of the State Fair will be bigger and better than ever, too, including the big Midway, featuring the W. G. Wade Shows, with international rides, and other entertainment. There also will be a Junior Midway, designed especially for the kids.

Almost 5,000 head of purebred livestock will be shown — sheep, swine, cattle and horses. The agricultural exhibits — everything from bees to prize crops — have a bigger entry list than ever.

Home arts exhibits, offering the finest efforts of Michigan's homemakers in needlework and other handicrafts, home baking and canning, will be in a new home this year, the fine $600,000 Home Arts Building.

Upside-Down Bike Gives Rider a Lift

Everyone looks up when Toby Butt comes down the street.

For Toby is riding high. As a matter of fact, Toby, 318 South Rogers, literally has a bird's-eye view of town as he cycles along on side streets near his home.

A lanky 14-year-old, he might be best described as a giant on a two-wheeler. If he stands up on the pedals and outstretches his long legs, he is about 10 feet above the ground.

An average cyclist is seated approximately three feet above the surface.

Toby is a bona fide member of the "upside-down" bicycle clan, but he takes no credit for designing his unorthodox bike. He read about it in a magazine and newspaper articles.

"An upside-down bike is just a regular bike that has been turned over so that the sprocket is up higher," according to Toby.

"It is different because there is an extension attached for the seat and handlebars. As you can see, the pedals are much higher than on a regular bike."

For parents who haven't been approached yet, Toby's handlebars — which have been tagged "butterfly bars" or "French bars" — are the latest rage.

With the help of his father, Dewey Butt, Toby put his bike together in a few days, starting with an old frame.

When he took off for a trial spin, he was a little shaky. He said: "At first it was harder to get on and off since the pedals are higher and it was harder to balance myself."

"It was precarious, too. When I fell a few times, the bike landed on top of me. But now I just put on the brakes, hop off to the side and the bike comes down with me."

What's it like to be perched so far off the ground?

"Kind of funny," Toby laughed. "When you talk to somebody next to you, you have to talk down."

"And people stare when I ride by and blurt out something like 'look at that kid on the bike.'"

Toby said that upside-down bikes are becoming a fad around Northville. Since his has appeared, he has seen others and frequently has been asked how to build one

"As far as I know, the upside-down trend started in Detroit," Toby explained.

Meanwhile, down closer to terra firma, Mike Conley, 14, of 302 South Orchard drive, is pedaling another unusual bike around town.

Instead of handlebars, his sports a steering wheel.

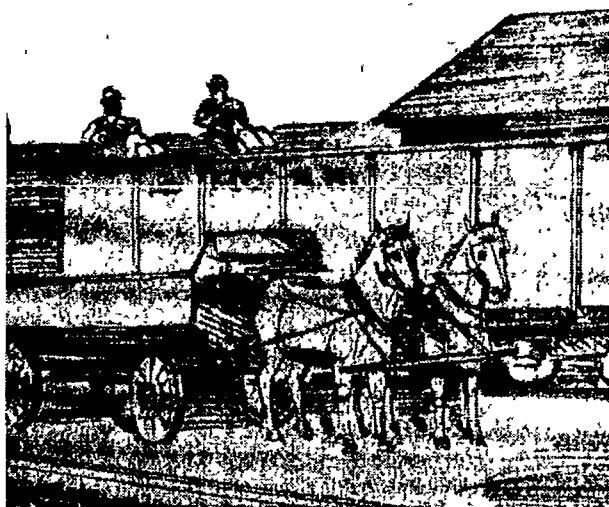

But Mike wants to make his two-wheeler more flamboyant. "I have an old car horn and button I would like to install on it," Mike said. "All I need now is a battery — but that costs about $9."

Establish lakes levels in Genesee, Oakland and Livingston Counties, also, where necessary as part of a state-wide program. The State requires licenses for fishing, hunting and boat registrations, yet they do not enforce safety laws or try to control lakes or their levels. You and I living on the lakes have our money invested in homes, also people who pay taxes to support roads, schools, etc., have to live with this stinking mess. Let us correct this situation.

Exempt all persons over 65 years of age from paying any state or local taxes. They paid taxes, built schools, roads, parks, etc., while you and I were too young to assume this responsibility. We were allowed to have a care free youth. Now, let us give them a carefree retirement. Perhaps in a small measure, this will give them more cash to grow old gracefully and be independent.

Exclude food, clothing, medical and school supplies from sales tax, also other essential commodities. Large families with several children in school, need this extra money to keep their children in high school. Perhaps there will be less drop outs if they have decent clothing and enough food. This also would give some relief to retired people who have sickness in their families.

Assist local government units solve their problems such as water and sewer, schools, roads and other problems that confront them from growing pains and above all give them the representation that is needed to make them first class.

Ease a state highway department restriction on signs along expressways so that greater exposure could be given to tourists and travelers. This restriction has forced many merchants and resort persons out of business that were in business before the expressways were built. This did not stop the highway department from closing the roads or refusing them the right to advertise although we are suppose to have freedom of speech and freedom to earn a living.

Last but not least and perhaps the most important of all problems is the deaths and injuries on our highways and lakes. This my friends is a grave situation and will remain so and become more so as long as the state, county, cities, courts and police take a complacent attitude. It's hard to tell widows, widowers and orphans that it was just an accident, and that insurance will take care of their grief. There must be a will and a desire on the part of the state legislators to correct this situation. They could start by chasing all lobbyist and individuals out that oppose legislation. That perhaps would help correct the mass murders on our highways and lakes. Let us work and strive to bring about enforcement and legislation that will protect our loved ones and all who may chance upon our highways and lakes.

Thayer Wins Endorsement

Paul D. Bagwell, Republican candidate for Governor in 1958 and 1960, has formally endorsed Stan Thayer for the Second District Republican Congressional nomination. Speaking at a dinner held in Ypsilanti on August 17, Bagwell said that the rapid changes in our experience make it imperative that our lawmakers "do not cease to learn" and retain an open mind to the world about them.

At the dinner Thayer was also endorsed by former Federal Judge John Feikens, who is former Republican State Chairman and currently co-chairman of the State Civil Rights Commission, and by Norman Stockmeyer, secretary of the Republican State Central Committee.

Former State Senator John Stahlin of Belding, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor in 1962, also endorsed Thayer, and praised his great political honesty and his devotion to principle. Stahlin had worked closely with Thayer in the State Senate where Thayer has been Majority Leader.

Men in Uniform

Dennis Scantlin, Seaman USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scantlin, 46287 Pickford, has returned to duty at the end of a two week leave spent at home.

Upon completion of "boot" training in January of this year Seaman Scantlin was assigned to Fire Control Technician school which he successfully completed on July 31. His first ship assignment is the Destroyer Hanson, DD832, which is now in drydock undergoing major modification and overhaul at the Hunters Point Navy Yard in San Francisco. A Pacific cruise is likely in store once the ship returns to sea duty.

Defends 'Obstructionism'

One of the candidates for the office of Township Trustee has referred in his campaign advertising to obstructionism in our township government.

As it appears in the political advertisement, it might be construed this is directed to the other candidates for the same office. However, it is quite obvious because the candidates are not well known to each other, because the candidate in question has lived in the township for such a short time, and because he has not attended many board meetings it must, therefore, refer to obstructionism someone feels is now in existence on the township board.

Whether this is directed at

A Boost For Alex

EDITOR'S NOTE — We consider this an out-and-out advertisement which would normally be published only at political rates. But we've made an exception — for readers over 90 years old.

To the Editor:
I regret that my residence is not in the Township so that I could vote for my son-in-law, Alex Lawrence, for township treasurer. There are various reasons why I would vote for him: When we all lived in Detroit he belonged to a large engineering firm — the largest of its kind in the United States. His experience in that firm gave him a wide knowledge of business and of engineering which has been of value in helping the Township Board to decide on engineering matters. His wife, Jennette McColl Lawrence, in whose memory the Scout-Recreation Building was named, used to say that Alex' middle name was "Integrity". Integrity is of vital importance for officials in public service, as we have lately learned from investigations in national political circles. There is also a personal reason why I would vote for Alex if I could — he is good to his old mother-in-law.

Belle McColl
P.S. — During the War, Alex was head of the Detroit Business Men's Volunteer Flotilla on the Detroit River and his flotilla had the reputation of being the best volunteer flotilla on the Lakes.

some of my activities does not embarrass me, but if my inquiries and actions have resulted in an interpretation of obstructionism, I should like to list some for public review.

If it is obstructionism to request all subjects for decision be communicated to all board members prior to board meetings

—inquire into apparent inaccuracies in the recorded minutes of the board

—inquire into the non-performance of a public mandate relative to tax payment procedures —suggest our professional staff be advised their purpose is that of guidance when asked rather than to initiate opinion and legislative participation —question the lack of plans for the forecasting and investing of township funds.

—disapprove the unappropriated purchase of rolling stock and subsequent expenditures equal to cost to place it in useable condition.

—question the practice and advisability of paying hourly rated staff for lunch periods and question the rate of pay increase approved —question the source of approval for the hiring of the constable by private enterprise and last, though this does not exhaust the list,

—inquire into the acceptability of a pay-back arrangement for a proposed installation of a section of sewer on Seven Mile road which inquiry would result, if the arrangement is consummated, in a savings to the township of approximately $30,000.

If these inquiries and actions are obstructionism, I plead guilty to all counts and charges and rest my case with public opinion.

I should like to assure everyone that I inquire with sympathy about a person's illness over which he has no control. But incompetence, misrepresentation and non-feasance are administrative illnesses for which I have no sympathy and which I shall continue to attack relentlessly.

To the Republican Voters Of Novi Township

May we present for your consideration a man who we all know to be the hardest working and the most consistent Republican in our township and ask your support in electing him for NOVI TOWNSHIP TREASURER.

Our friend and your friend did not seek the office. And we are all fortunate in having him consent to run.

Most everyone in Novi knows Charlie Smith, as Smitty, or Chuck, or C. A., and they also know him as one who is a hard worker for the Republican Party and Novi.

Just to mention a few of his local accomplishments, we cite the well known fact that it was Smitty who worked so hard to organize the Volunteers for Romney in the Novi and Northville area; it was Mr. C. A. Smith who organized the Northville Area Development Corporation, that has done fine work in Northville — and he is determined to do the same for Novi, to bring new industries added to the ones we now have.

Chuck is active in all our local organizations — Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, etc. and a hard worker in the church of his faith. Charley is well educated, both college and business school. He founded and operated a successful local and international business in Novi for several years.

Chuck is a leader we can all be proud to vote for — so Vote Republican and Vote for Charley A. Smith for Township Treasurer.

World's Top Golfers Compete for $200,000

The short hitters among 155 of golf's elite who will compete in the $200,000 Carling World Championship today through Sunday at Oakland Hills Country Club were warned today that there's trouble ahead.

Host Pro Al Watrous, whose shingle has hung at the club's pro shop for 35 years, declared: "The course is playing slower and longer than at any time since I've been here. Short hitters can consider par to be about 76 instead of the 70 that shows on the scorecard."

"It shapes up well for long hitters like Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and George Bayer," commented Watrous. "In fact, I look for Bayer to make an unusually good showing here. Sure, he hits 'em wild, but wild enough so the rough here won't hurt him."

The six-foot-five, 240 pound Bayer is known best for his behemoth tee shots, but he also can come up with a spectacular shot at any time. He did just that in the 1963 Buick Open when he scored one of the four holes-in-one he has made in tournament competition.

"On this course you have to putt steadily, not sensationally," stated Al. "You don't charge a putt at Oakland Hills — ever! One thing these fellows must remember is that you'll always get there on a downhill putt even if you fan it."

Watrous singled out Bantam Ben Hogan as another he expects to have a real shot at the championship. Hogan's pinpoint accuracy and his control of irons to the green were cited as the foremost factors, and then Watrous added: "What's more, the title of world championship may intrigue him. After all, he's won everything else, and he's conquered this course before. He just might do it again."

Following are starting times for today and Friday for some of the leading contenders for the $35,000 top prize:

Thurs. 8:20 a.m., Fri. 12:20 p.m. — Gene Littler, Sam Snead, Joe Campbell; (Thurs. 8:28 a.m., Fri. 12:28 p.m.) — Frank Beard, Don Whit, Walter Burkemo; (Thurs. 8:36 a.m., Fri. 12:36 p.m.) — Mason Rudolph, Don Fairfield, Al Watrous; (Thurs. 8:44 a.m., Fri. 12:44 p.m.) — Jack Nicklaus, John Bulla, Marty Fur-

More volunteers are needed to call upon neighbors to solicit funds for the 1965 budgets of health and community services during the 1964 Torch Drive starting October 20. Mrs. Arthur Hempe, 46246 Fanner Court, Northville division chairman, said this week.

"The Torch Drive is the greatest community effort in the world," she said. "We want everyone to have an opportunity to participate as a contributor or as a volunteer worker, or both."

Each volunteer is assigned a limited number of homes to visit. In addition to obtaining contributions from the home-makers own funds, and from persons who might not otherwise have an opportunity to contribute, they explain the purposes of the Torch Drive and distribute educational material.

Anyone wishing to give a few hours of her time to furthering the Torch Drive's effort in providing a wide, complete range of services, is asked to call the United Foundation at Woodward 5-7100 and ask for Recruitment, or call Mrs. Hempe at 349-2038.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Northville township Republicans are split into more factions than an atom at Oak Ridge.

Tuesday's primary race for treasurer and trustee has created some strange bedfellows.

With no Democrats on the ballot the outcome of the primary constitutes election to office.

Sparks are flying within the Republican ranks. An explanation of where the rub comes may prove helpful to the average voter.

Let's look at both sides.

We'll start with the "old guard".

Headed by Supervisor R. D. Merriam, Clerk Marguerite Young and Treasurer Alex Lawrence, this group has inherited the reigns of township government through long service.

When Treasurer Roy Terrill decided to retire, Lawrence was appointed to the job. Likewise, Trustee Donald Robinson was hand-picked to replace Lawrence as trustee on the board.

Now, however, the supervisor, clerk and treasurer are disenchanted with Trustee Robinson. Like Lawrence, he's up for re-election. But unlike Lawrence, he's running without "old guard" aid.

They've turned their attention, instead, to a relatively unknown candidate, Gerald Dresselhouse. They fear both Robinson and James Tellam because of their close association with Lawrence's opponent for treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Price, and the fifth member of the township board, Trustee Wilson Tyler.

Generally speaking, Tyler has not made life pleasant at board meetings. He's critical of many procedures and does not waste time on formalities in expressing his displeasure.

It's obvious to any observer that the situation has created tension and un-nerved both the supervisor and clerk.

The prospects of a board composed of Mrs. Price, Robinson or Tellam, and Tyler leave the supervisor and clerk cold. They've threatened resignation.

From their viewpoint Robinson and Tyler have obstructed progress and fly-specked every detail.

So they're plugging for Lawrence and Dresselhouse and hoping for a harmony that will drown-out Tyler.

Now let's turn the coin over.

A group of township Republicans that sees Tyler and Robinson as deterrents to hasty decision and give-away government is backing the candidacy of Mrs. Price for treasurer.

A split arose within this group when a choice between Robinson and Tellam had to be made. Robinson was a surprise candidate. He had indicated he would not seek re-election. By filing he embarrassed both "old guard" and "new breed".

Planning Chairman Gunnar Stromberg had been picked to run for Robinson's seat by the old guard. But this able, community-minded citizen withdrew when he learned Robinson was running.

Meanwhile, an undecided Robinson urged Tellam to run. Thus the new breed ended up with two candidates.

They laid it on the line to Robinson.

Will you run hard? He said he'd serve if elected. He'd stand on his record.

Tellam said he would campaign vigorously.

So Tellam won the group's support. Their ticket is Price and Tellam.

Robinson, Tellam and Mrs. Price all claim independence and deny a coalition with Tyler.

In general, they believe a coalition of thinking already exists between the supervisor, clerk and treasurer. They want to break it up and bring more discussion to the board table.

As accurately as I can see it from the sidelines, that's how the stage is set for Tuesday's election.

Now for conclusions (personal opinion).

First of all, I believe the township has capable and hard working representation in the supervisor's and clerk's offices.

Their performance, unlike their compensation, ranks far above average.

But they should stand ready to accept criticism from the board. And they have every right to expect it to be constructive.

Talk of resignation is contrary to their responsibility of office.

I fully realize how deeply Supervisor Merriam considers the importance of Treasurer Lawrence on the board. And the Supervisor's support makes Lawrence the strong favorite.

But I cannot accept Lawrence's attitude toward the city of Northville.

He can be best described as anti-city, a short-sighted viewpoint that can only cost the citizens of our community money and bitterness in the long run.

One cannot expect a township official to be "pro-city", but city-township cooperation is imperative to the orderly, economical growth of our area.

Enough misunderstanding already exists between our official bodies. Unfounded accusations and critical remarks only serve to open old sores.

I believe Mrs. Price is an intelligent woman who is alert to both board and community problems. I do not believe she would take the responsibility of her election lightly.

Mrs. Price thinks objectively. She can contribute to board discussions and would, I believe, improve city and township understanding by sticking to the facts.

Selection of a trustee is highly important.

As much as I admire the principles and efforts of Robinson, it is evident he has lost communication with the supervisor. Tellam could breach this gap.

He is well-liked and informed on township affairs.

Like Merriam and Lawrence, he is an engineer. This knowledge, along with his ability to get along with people, would make Tellam the key man on the board.

Robinson has served in this position and could continue. He has not indicated a strong desire, however, while Tellam can't wait to go to bat.

New Family Boom

BABSON PARK, Mass. — A little more than ten years ago I talked to you at some length about the great impact that the volume of marriages has on business. At that time I was foreseeing dismal prospects, but now I am very optimistic. Let me clarify my reasons for changing from a red light over ten years ago on the matter of marriage totals to a green light today.

At the beginning of the 1950s, formations of families in the U.S. were dependent on the birth rate back around 1930. At that depression time births averaged only about 17 per thousand of population, approximately 20% below the rate of the booming 1920s. At the depression low of 1933, one-third fewer babies were born than during the highest year of the 1920s. So you can see why I warned businessmen in the early 1950s that new family formations would be static for at least a few years, with such a drop in the number of marriageable-age youngsters coming along.

At the present time, however, we have to look back into the 1940s to judge the prospects for family formation. The 1940s were a time of prosperity, and couples were marrying at a generally younger age. The war years were involved then too, resulting in earlier and more numerous marriages. An all-time high of about 120 marriages for each 1,000 unmarried females over 15 years of age was reached in 1946. As the babies who were born during that marriage upsurge in the 1940s reach marriageable age (starting just about now), there will begin to be a big increase in new family formations.

We all appreciate the social importance of the institution of marriage; but its tremendous economic influence is too often disregarded.

When a man and woman get married, an entirely new family entity is thereby created. This usually involves separate living quarters, and thus accounts in large measure for the continuing construction of apartment units and new houses. This means increased need for lumber, steel, glass, cement, gypsum, paper, electrical equipment and plumbing. Then come furniture, rugs, and household accessories.

Demand rises for electricity, water and gas. And the banks

Mental Health: $100 Million Budget

LANSING — One of Michigan's most pressing problems, the mental health picture, poses some statistics well worth pondering.

Approximately one-sixth of Michigan's general fund is spent for direct care and treatment of mentally ill and retarded patients. In the current fiscal year this will amount to more than $100 million.

Additional funds will be spent this year for new and expanded mental health facilities, but experts in the field say much more could and should be done. Indirect costs of mental illness are also great when computed in terms of work absenteeism, welfare costs due to homes broken by this problem, and legal costs arising from behavioral irregularities.

Perhaps even more staggering are the personal figures involved in records of mental and emotional illness.

The Michigan Society for Mental Health estimates 180,000 school age children are in need of psychological attention, while only about 30,000 are actually receiving such help.

There are about 800,000 persons all told in Michigan with some form of mental illness, but only 37,000 of these are in state institutions, according to Society officials.

Some relief for the imbalance between need and existing care is being provided through the relatively new community mental health facilities, but the Society says there is considerable room for improvement.

Recent figures indicated slightly over 17,000 persons in the state are being served in community psychiatric out-patient clinics. Each is hard pressed to meet the demands for service at this time.

The chief sources of relief for this problem lie, according to Society spokesmen, in future community action and greatly expanded and improved programs for children needing institutional care.

Michigan's contributions to world progress, primarily through industry and education, will be in the spotlight next May when the 12th annual Michigan Week is observed.

More than one billion dollars in industrial and agricultural products are being exported from Michigan annually, one of the factors considered in deciding on the theme, "Michigan: Dynamic in World Progress" for the May 16-22 event.

Woodward C. Smith, vice president of Central Michigan University who has served in various capacities for several previous Michigan Weeks, heads the 1965 promotion.

Continuing the tradition, the Governor formally announced the theme for 1965. Smith and his major planning committee were busy with Michigan Week activity for some time before this, however.

Research by the Greater Michigan Foundation, the sponsoring agency, shows about 1,000 Michigan industries and businesses are engaged in foreign trade and investments.

This volume of activity means that eight out of 10 manufacturing workers in the state are employed by companies involved in foreign trade.

Another major contribution to world progress is being made by Michigan's colleges and universities, which are involved in assisting educational institutions in many nations and in training students from all over the world on state campuses.

Some indication of the continuing growth of tourist interest in Michigan is evidenced in the requests for maps and information reaching state officials.

One aspect of Michigan's varied information services which is a good measure of the total picture is the at-the-scene highway tourist centers.

Highway officials note that the number of tourists stopping at these information centers in the month of July alone was up by nearly 10,000 over last year.

Strategically located at Ironwood, Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie, Port Huron, Monroe, New Buffalo and Mackinaw City the roadside centers are easily accessible to most travelers either at their point of entry or the very popular stopping places.

The Mackinaw City station, for example, gave good indication of the popularity of that region during July. Of 99,741 requests for information at the seven stations in July, some 40,753 were made to the Mackinaw City station.

Information activity during the first seven months this year has led highway officials to predict they will serve about 300,000 visitors in 1964 as compared to 280,000 last year.
