

Merchants to Move Counters to Sidewalks Saturday

Scenes like this will be repeated in Northville Saturday.

Northville merchants are moving their merchandise to the "low rent district" Saturday. And local shoppers will reap the benefits in low, low prices.

The event is the annual "sidewalk sale", when some 30 businesses and organizations will set up counters on the sidewalks from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

The carnival-like event will feature a variety of bargains. The Retail Merchants Association has made arrangements to sell bread at five cents a loaf and salt for five cents a bag.

These two specials will be offered twice during the day-long sale — at 11 a.m. in front of the theatre and at 4 p.m. in front of Schrad's Home Furnishings.

Chairman Charles Lapham says only a hard rain will cancel the sale. In that case it will be held Saturday, September 28.

"But even if it rains, we'll have to sell the bread or it will spoil. So, rain or shine, we'll sell bread as advertised," Lapham added.

In addition to the curbside counters shoppers will find a music and popcorn and candy apple wagon.

Some of the values that are certain to attract thrifty shoppers include:

- dollar stretch socks at 25c;
- furnace filters at 37c;
- sweaters for ladies, 75% off;
- sport shirts at $1;
- $4 cotton slacks at 50c;
- Kleenex tissues at 5c per box;
- nylons at 47c per pr.;
- jewelry dollar grab bag;
- greeting cards for a nickel;
- $14.95 lamps for $4.95;
- Many other bargains are featured in sidewalk sale advertisements throughout this edition of The Record.

Still more can be found when you visit the business district this Saturday and browse around.

Bring the family. You'll find values for all ages.

Hefty Mustangs, Fleet Rocks Open Friday in Plymouth

It promises to be muscle against speed when Northville clashes with traditional rival Plymouth tomorrow night in the opening game of the local 1964 prep football season.

A squad of 55 Mustangs will make the short trip to Plymouth where the contest is scheduled to get underway at 8 p.m.

On the strength of a veteran line, the Black and Orange gridders rest their hopes of reversing two consecutive losses at the hands of the Rocks.

Plymouth parlayed the breaks and heads-up play into a 19-6 and 26-12 victories the past two years. Northville's last triumph, 19-0, took place in 1961 with Steve Juday calling the signals.

Northville will field a veteran line, averaging 180 pounds, while Plymouth's front wall, short on experience, will average 165 pounds.

A fleet stable of eight lettermen backs, however, will put the Rocks on even footing and they may even give the home team the edge. Back are speedy Gary Grady, who streaked 65 yards to paydirt last year, and his running mates Roger Tobey and Curt Irish.

Quarterback John Daniel rounds out the veteran starting Rock backfield. And there's four more lettermen standing by to fill in the gaps.

Despite Northville's reported weight advantage, Mustang Mentor Ron Horwath is wary of the Rocks. He's quick to point out that Plymouth always comes up with big boys in the line.

And what's more, Horwath has had to rebuild the entire offensive and defensive backfields due to graduation losses. Unless the Mustang secondary is alert, Plymouth's scabbacks could make shambles of the inexperienced defenders.

Northville's ability to move the pigskin is unknown. "We usually have a tough time moving the ball against Plymouth," Horwath noted. "To stay in the ball game, we'll have to throw the ball."

For the Mustangs, it should be their toughest game of the year, a good test of their mettle, before entering Wayne-Oakland Conference competition.

Hoping to turn the victory trick for the Mustangs on offense are Junior Ends Jerry Inmsland and John Jameson and Seniors George Burchfield and John McMillan.

Tackles Bob Tuck and Jerry Burns, both 200-pound seniors, may have to go all the way.

Alert Druggist Blocks Narcotic Forgery Attempt

An admitted dope addict is behind bars today because of the alertness Monday night of a Northville pharmacist.

Robert Dickerson, a 32-year-old Detroit, is being held in custody by the Wayne county sheriff for possessing fraudulent prescriptions to procure narcotics.

Police Chief Eugene King indicated that enough evidence was gathered so that it "may open the door to a narcotics ring for the sheriff or Detroit police."

Dickerson said he had printed prescriptions for at least six different drug stores and confessed where he got narcotics in Detroit.

Al Laux, who owns Northville Drug, tipped off local police on Dickerson who was sought for trying to obtain dilaudid, a drug containing morphine.

Laux identified Dickerson from a report he had received from local police. Around 1 p.m. Monday a teletype message informed police that a dragnet was out for Dickerson.

Local authorities immediately notified the drug stores. At 7:49 p.m. Dickerson asked Laux to fill a prescription. Laux recognized Dickerson but didn't want to scare him off. He said he was out of dilaudid and would order it at a drug store down the street.

Instead, he called police and said: "Need some dilaudid to fill a prescription. Will you send it right way."

Helen Teska, police clerk on duty, tied Laux's plea to the teletype and sent Officer Robert Pankow to the drug store.

Pankow apprehended Dickerson who was about to leave after growing impatient. Chief King praised Laux for his "cooperation and alertness." Laux later told King that if he hadn't been alerted "I would have filled the prescription."

Dickerson told King and Pankow that he got the prescription from a friend and came to Northville on the bus. Police knew his story was false. (Continued on Page 8)

To Boost Area Chamber Seeks Ideas

The first general membership meeting of the newly-organized Northville Community Chamber of Commerce has been called for Tuesday, September 29.

An appeal to all of the 80 charter members and prospective charter members has been mailed out by Chamber President Dempsey Ebert.

Formation of committees will be the main item of business on the agenda. Members have been asked to express their preference for serving on the following list of committees: education, traffic and transportation, zoning and planning, business development activities, professional development, recreation, taxation and utilities.

Suggestions for community improvement have also been requested on special return postcards.

In sighting its purpose the chamber, outlined the following goals:

- To develop, encourage, promote and protect commercial, agricultural, industrial, professional and general business interest of the Northville Community.
- To promote and encourage the development of transportation, communication, and other facilities of the Community.
- To advance the civic interests and general welfare of the Community.
- To promote integrity, good faith and equitable principles.
- To develop a unified and active public spirit.
- To bring about a better understanding of business, community, economic, civic and social problems.
- To make our Community more beautiful, more healthful, more prosperous, more enjoyable, and a better place in which to live and to transact business.

The September 29 meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

Board Steps Up School Building Study Program

OK Water Bond Sale

The long-delayed water system installation for 18 Northville township homes plagued by dry wells took a step nearer realization this week.

Sale of $24,000 worth of water main bonds was approved by the state municipal finance commission and bids will be opened September 24 (see official notice, page two, section two).

Supervisor R. D. Merriam said it is hoped that construction bids can be opened October 6. Installation would begin in October and the project is expected to be completed in 30 to 40 days, the supervisor said.

The system will serve Plymouth Gardens subdivision with Detroit water. It is being financed by special assessment.

Northville's school board is moving on two fronts this week — to form a citizens' advisory planning group and to hire an architect.

The advisory group, which will be organized early next month, will assist school officials in laying the groundwork for the district's educational needs.

Seven committees will be launched. They are population and facilities, operations and systems, curriculum, personnel, planning and salaries, transportation and planning.

Each committee will be composed of a school board member, one or two school administrators and citizens. All members will vote.

Names of over 50 candidates for the group were submitted at the board's meeting Monday night. All residents listed will be contacted and asked to appear at 8 p.m. October 5 in the junior high school library.

Board President James Kipper said "that the whole advisory program will be outlined and committees formed. Then we'll put them to work."

In addition, Kipper said that any citizen "who is interested in joining the group should make his appearance at this time."

Board Member Robert Shaffer added that "the citizens' greatest gain will be their own education. They'll get acquainted with the school problems and engage the cooperation of the community."

As was pointed out earlier, three committees — population and facilities, curriculum and financing — will probably be activated first.

Board members will make their selection by a mail ballot sent to the board secretary. The secretary will cast his vote with the majority and reveal the results at the next session.

The chosen architect's first project undoubtedly will be drawing up new plans for the much-discussed elementary structure. There has been talk about constructing an administration building and an addition to the high school.

In other business in Monday night's meeting, the board: — adopted a motion allowing a gate in the fence of the property of C. J. Sissom, 319 Ely drive, so Northville Heights students have access to Amerman school.

Ellison amplified that parents "of children in the school district may not pay the board for transportation. But Novi can accept a fee from parents of non-resident children transported to a non-public school."

Village Green is in the Oakland county portion of the city of Northville at the Novi road entrance to the city.

The Northville board has gone on record that it will not furnish transportation for public or non-public students within the city limits unless walking conditions are perilous.

Certain areas in the city, like Northville Estates, and within the 1½-mile distance in the township are provided bus service — even though state aid is not granted — because no sidewalks exist.

Salem to Make Good College Tax Shortage

Action of the Salem township board has made possible the payment of over $1,000 of 1963 taxes owed to Schoolcraft college by the Salem portion of Northville school district.

Harlow Ingall, township supervisor, revealed that the township has assumed the debt and that make payment in full.

Said Ingall, "An opinion from the Washtenaw county prosecutor has shown that the responsibility belongs with the townships not with the township treasurer or his bondsman."

He explained that the opinion of Prosecutor Peter W. Forsythe showed the law to hold the township supervisor responsible for not having spread the Schoolcraft levy on the 1963 tax roll. The law, in fact, held that the supervisor could be held personally responsible.

Since the supervisor in office at the time has since deceased, further investigation into the law was necessary, said Ingall. Provisions are made in such a case for the township as a whole to assume the supervisor's responsibility.

"The blame, if any, must be placed upon the supervisor — for not 'spreading' the roll," said Ingall. The township treasurer must be held blameless because he properly fulfilled his duty — of "collecting" the roll as spread. Likewise, his bondsman must be blameless."

Ingall noted that the error of not spreading the Schoolcraft tax was unusual since it was handled not only by the supervisor of Salem township, but also by the county tax officers and Schoolcraft officials prior to final approval.

At the time of the mistake, said Ingall, laws were in effect which make it illegal to regim the unassessed taxes by spreading them on future tax rolls.

Therefore, he noted, it seems clearly up to the township as a whole to make good the levy. He stated that investigation into all aspects of the incident show the responsibility to be clearly that of the township. No loophole has been found which would place the responsibility elsewhere.

"That being the case we wanted to make good and settle the debt honorably," the Supervisor said.

The following resolution was passed at the September township board meeting:

"In as much as this board has received a written opinion from the Washtenaw county prosecutor's office, and since that opinion is: that the township of Salem, and this township only, is responsible for the payment of a certain one mill levy which should have been spread on the 1963 tax roll against all property of this township in the Northville school district 'but which was inadvertently omitted' from said roll: it is therefore resolved that payment of one thousand seven and 61-100 dollars ($1,007.61) should be made to Schoolcraft college, and such payment is hereby ordered."

Since the supervisor in office at the time has since deceased, further investigation into the law was necessary, said Ingall. Provisions are made in such a case for the township as a whole to assume the supervisor's responsibility.

News Around Northville

After traveling 8,000 miles in three weeks Mr. and Mrs. Philip Nauman of Connema drive have returned to Northville, bringing with them their son, Robert Nauman. The Naumans picked up Bob at Fort Lewis, Washington and continued on down the coast of Oregon and California, taking the route along the ocean, visiting all the sights along the way, San Francisco, Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, and the top of Pikes Peak, 14,110 feet in the air.

Several Northville Jaycees and their Jaycettes attended the performance of "Golden Boy" Sunday at the Fisher Theater in Detroit. Proceeds from tickets sold by Jaycettes were for the benefit of emotionally disturbed children.

Those attending from Northville included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koziaia, Mr. and Mrs. John Macauley, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Roberts, Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, Mrs. Robert Pankow, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herald and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parton.

Deborah Stafford, 23939 Forest Park drive, was one of 300 new students who enrolled at Carroll college in Waukesha, Wisconsin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gazlay and their children, Martha, Mark, Julie and Chris spent a week in the Catskill mountains, in New York state. They attended the annual Gazlay family reunion and visited New York City and the World's Fair.

Mary Heslip, 42680 Nine Mile road, is one of the new students who attended the orientation at Mercy college in Detroit Saturday.

The VFW rummage sale at 438 South Main has been cancelled until further notice, a spokesman for the group said.

The Northville high school class of 1959 will hold a reunion December 26 at the Parker House in Farmington. But some classmates cannot be reached. They are Velma Blount, William Smith, Scott Adams, Joseph Miles, James Robertson and Nancy Canaan. If anyone knows their whereabouts, please call Chuck Parton at 349-3677.

Members of the Northville high school band made their annual appearance at the Michigan state fair on Labor Day. After their appearance, Governor George Romney talked to the students and signed autographs.

The Northern Lites home extension study group meets at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Stephen Cherne, 18435 Beck road. Mrs. Harold Seden will relate her experiences at a summer conference at Michigan State university.

Waterman-Cirka Vows Exchanged

Nyla B. Waterman and John Cirka Jr. exchanged marriage vows August 15 at the First Baptist church in Northville with the Reverend Robert Spradling officiating at the evening ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Waterman and the late John A. Waterman of 533 Horton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Cirka of Hazel Park.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace cover taffeta gown with a bell shape skirt. A pearl crown secured her veil. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Judy Fern of Redford township was the maid of honor, wearing a street length gown of pale blue and matching accessories. Her bouquet consisted of pink rose buds and mums.

Sharon Allen of Northville was the bridesmaid. Her dress and flowers matched the maid of honor's.

On the esquire side, Evert Angell of Northville was the best man. Ushers were Paul Cirka and Joe Diskin of Livonia. James Waterman gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Raymond Westphal of Northville sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

Mother of the bride was dressed in pink chifton and wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a floral dress and orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the wedding. The couple now reside in Farmington.

Hobart-Niemi Vows Spoken

Martha C. Hobart and William Brian Niemi exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony September 5 at First Church of Christ in Longmeadow, Massachusetts.

Niemi is the son of Mrs. Robert A. Niemi and the late Mr. Niemi. The Niemi family formerly lived in Northville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill S. Hobart of Longmeadow.

For her marriage the bride chose a white silk organza gown enriched with appliques of peau d'ange lace and fashioned with scoop neckline, brief sleeves and Watteau panel chapel train accented with Dior bow and matching lace motifs.

A mantilla of peau d'ange lace formed her headdress and she carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and sweet-roses with ivy.

Miss Susan Scribner of Coventry, Connecticut, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, wearing an aqua organza over taffeta gown designed with scoop neckline, short sleeves and Watteau panel. She carried a basket of yellow pompoms and white sweetheart rose with ivy. Bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Chalke and Miss Maxine Krim, both of Longmeadow, and Mrs. Robert Niemi of Lansing. They wore companion ensembles in light yellow with empire embroidered midriffs and carried baskets of pompoms and roses.

Robert Niemi of Lansing was best man and ushers were Thomas Schwarze of Lansing, Thomas Brown of Northville and Richard Matulewicz and Peter Hobart, the bride's brother, both of Longmeadow.

Receiving guests at a reception in the church parlor, Mrs. Hobart wore a robin's egg blue silk shantung with lace bodice and her corsage was of golden garnet roses and stephanotis.

She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a Wedgewood blue matelasse sheath frock and corsage of white orchid and stephanotis. A cake prepared by Harold Searfoss of Northville was served. Searfoss, who runs a local bakery, said it was a six-tier white wedding cake and was transported 700 miles to the church. It arrived in perfect condition.

Searfoss said he has known the groom's family for a long time and Niemi grew up and went to school with his son.

Other guests from Northville were Mrs. Searfoss and son Harold and Mr. and Mrs. James Cowie of 895 Horton.

The bride is employed at St. Francis hospital in Hartford, Connecticut and the groom is an engineering student at the University of Hartford.

Vicki Boyd Weds Martin Kovach

Vicki Janice Boyd and Martin L. Kovach were married September 5 in a morning ceremony in St. Peter church in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Boyd, 605 Horton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kovach of Livonia.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon over taffeta with sabrina neckline with lace applique, controlled skirt with detachable overskirt and train and a princess pearl tiara with a short net veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and fugi mums.

Maid of honor Edith Barr and bridesmaid Carol Leavenworth wore gowns of apricot chifton over taffeta featuring a sabrina neckline and controlled floor length skirts with floating panels. Their bouquets were composed of white carnations.

Mother of the bride wore an off-white brocade jacket dress with green accessories while the groom's mother wore blue taffeta with blue accessories. Both had white orchids.

Joe Antanazzo was the best man and Sam Genuis seated the guests.

Following a reception for 100 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the eastern states. The bride's going-away outfit was a green tweed suit with black accessories.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Northville high school. Her husband graduated from Commerce high school in Detroit in 1961 and is now manager of a shoe store in Wyandotte.

The newlyweds will make their home at 260 2nd street in Wyandotte.

The Reverend and Mrs. S. D. Kinde

300 Guests Attend Kindes' Anniversary

A reception was given by the congregation of the First Methodist church of Northville honoring the Rev. and Mrs. S. D. Kinde on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon. Guests were received in Fellowship hall at the church.

A tiered white wedding cake, decorated by Mrs. Fred Clark, a friend of the couple, served as a table centerpiece. It was topped by a cluster of silver bells, each tier decorated with tiny white and silver roses. Tall white candles in silver candelabra flanked it.

In the receiving line were Pastor and Mrs. Kinde and their two children, Kathryn, a senior at Albion college, and Kurl, a sophomore at Northville high school.

Three hundred guests were in attendance representing the parishes served by the Kindes: Saginaw, Fairgrove - Watrous, Iron Mountain, Trinity, Chelsea and Northville, as well as other communities.

Hostesses pouring at the guest table were Mrs. William Cansfield of Northville, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Detroit Annual Conference; Mrs. Raymond Schairer of Dexter; president of WSCS, Ann Arbor district; Mrs. Douglas Bolton, president of the local WSCS; Mrs. Dewey Butt, wife of the chairman of the Official Board of the local church.

Mrs. Charles George served at the punch bowl while Mrs. Fred Hicks welcomed the guests and Mrs. Donald E. Robinson registered guests. A committee of church women prepared and served refreshments. Mrs. Grant Wessel of Dearborn and Mrs. Howard Wessel of Saginaw, sisters-in-law of the Kindes, assisted at the gift table.

Ralph Gallagher, on behalf of the local congregation, spoke words of appreciation for the honored couple and presented them with silver serving pieces from the Northville church.

The couple received many gifts from friends and relatives including a 'money tree' decorated with dollar bills and silver bows presented by 65 couples from Chelsea.

Ministers and wives attending were Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Brasure of Northville, Rev. and Mrs. LaVere Webster of Novi, Rev. and Mrs. Ellis Hart of Walled Lake, Rev. and Mrs. Cardwell Prout of Wayne, Rev.

Scout Troop 731 Canoes Rifle River

Twenty-three boy scouts of Troop 731 enjoyed a 35-mile canoe trip down the Rifle river last week end.

They were accompanied by Scoutmaster R. L. Hay and J. W. Baker, H. Thomas, W. Walters, B. Bowen, A. Orphan, F. Whitmyer and M. Weston. The troop was also joined by its former scoutmaster, Ray Gregerson, who no longer resides in Northville.

In addition to the fun of the trip, the youngsters managed to greet their ex-scoutmaster with a friendly impromptu dip in the river.

Troop members taking part in the trip were Tom Walter, Bill Baker, Don Tiffin, Mike

TUESDAY NOON

1-Card of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone for their kindness and thoughtfulness during our bereavement, the passing of our beloved husband and father, Jesse M. Campbell.

Mrs. Jesse Campbell and Family
H38cx

I want to thank everyone for the visits, cards, gifts and all other acts of kindness shown to me during my illness. They were greatly appreciated.

Agnes Coe
H38cx

We would like to express our thanks to Mr. James Wallace of the Bonnie Doon Co. who donated our knee socks for the football season. Sincerely,
The Varsity Cheerleaders
South Lyon High School

We take this opportunity to personally thank our neighbors, friends, First Baptist Church, Rev. Spradling, F & A M No. 186, OES No. 288, Forrest Phillips, and all others concerned who so thoughtfully aided us during our bereavement and loss of husband and father.

Mrs. George H. Gardner

Northville '9' Wins Playoffs

Northville defeated South Lyon, 14-8, in a playoff for the Class A Livonia league baseball championship.

In a surprising sequence of events leading to the Northville-South Lyon playoff, Northville downed Ypsilanti and Wayne while South Lyon dusted Willow Run and Livonia.

Surprising were the results because Northville started the season slow — and failed to gain leadership in any of the three rounds of regular season play.

And, South Lyon, who won the first round from Livonia, suffered defeat by the same team for the lead in each of the next two rounds.

A five-run Northville outburst in the seventh inning wrested the championship from a hard-pressing South Lyon crew.

Northville had only a scant lead, 6-5, going into the seventh frame. Tom Swiss came through with the key hit, a bases-loaded single — in that inning.

Northville had gained an early lead with three in each of the first two frames.

South Lyon could not regain mastery of the game. It was a sparkling testimony for that team, however, to reach the final playoff against the odds.

Next year, it has been announced, the team which carried the South Lyon colors this year will have new sponsors. For their efforts, a trophy will be presented to the winning Northville team late this month by the Livonia Recreation department.

The team will then present the trophy to Angelo Gadioli at Northville Lanes, for his sponsorship and support, according to the manager of the Northville Athletics, Joe Kritch.

He's Youngest Golfer

St. Germain Passes Qualifying Test In National Amateur

Northville's Jim St. Germain, who has been piling up golf honors all year long, added the finishing touch this week.

He qualified for the United States Golfing Association's 64th National Amateur championship at Canterbury Golf Club in Cleveland.

At 17 Jim is the youngest competitor in the field of 64 pair off for two more 18-hole matches today (Thursday). The four remaining semi-finalists pair off in 36-hole matches Friday and on Saturday the surviving finalists meet in the 36-hole championship match.

St. Germain shot rounds of 75-76-151. It took a score of 153 or better to qualify for head-to-head matches.

The field of 64 was scheduled to be narrowed to 16 by Wednesday night after playing two 18-hole matches. Survivors of Wednesday's play will hole matches today (Thursday). The four remaining semi-finalists pair off in 36-hole matches Friday and on Saturday the surviving finalists meet in the 36-hole championship match.

St. Germain has had a phenomenal year on the links. He started the season by winning the state high school crown for all class schools.

In July he gained the semi-finals in the national junior championships in Oregon.

In Cleveland he's up against the best amateur golfers in the United States. Defending champion is Deane Beman, a Walker Cup player. The field also contains such popular names as Billy Joe Patton, Bill Campbell, Dale Morey and Bob Gardner.

The course is also championship caliber. It has been a test for the world's best professionals and has twice been the scene of the National Open — in 1940 when Lawson Little defeated Gene Sarazan in a playoff and again in 1946 when Lloyd Mangrum downed Byron Nelson after both scored a four-round total of 284.

St. Germain proved himself a cool player in both Monday and Tuesday qualifying rounds. On the tough par-36 first nine he shot 40 on Monday. But he came back with a par 35 back nine to be well-up among the first round leaders.

On Tuesday Jim was coasting along safely within the qualifying range until he reached the 358-yard par four 15th, a testing hole, with an elevated green. St. Germain took a triple bogie 7, but refused to become rattled and finished with a respectable five-over-par 76. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. St. Germain of 39805 Phillips. He's a senior at Northville high school.

Mustang Harriers Get Call

Rugged workouts began last Monday for eight members of this year's cross country squad, Coach Chuck Yahne reported this week.

It's all part of the training program to get a "green" team in shape for the fast approaching meets. Only Dick Forester has had experience.

Other hopefuls this season are Rich Castillo, Ken Boor, Mark Lipa, Tom Dixon, Jon Kaaka, Bob Harrison and Tim McIntosh. One of the eight must fill the shoes of the stellar harrier Chuck Annett, who graduated last year.

Six matches are on tap and others are being arranged. Those already on the schedule are Clarenceville, Bloomfield Hills, West Bloomfield, Oak Park, Dearborn Riverside and North Farmington.

Coach Yahne pointed out that it's still not too late for high school boys to join the squad.

Color Me Gone — tops on the drag strips.

Bill Milne Crews on Top Dragger

Mention "Color Me Gone" to a drag-racing enthusiast and he'll tell you that it's the Top Stock Eliminator and winner of the grand prize in the 1964 Hot Rod Association meet at Indianapolis earlier this month. Drag-racing fans will probably know, too, that Roger Lindamood is the driver of "Color Me Gone" and that Dick Branstner is the chief mechanic.

But there's a third member of the crew. He's Bill Milne, Jr., a 1962 graduate of Northville high school and a resident of 264 Hutton.

Bill's a dynamometer operator (which means he tests engines) at Chrysler engineering in Highland Park.

Drag-racing is his spare time hobby and he travels with the "Color Me Gone" crew to week end races all over the nation.

The car is a stock model with a Dodge 330 body, a 425-horsepower Ramcharger engine with a hemispherical combustion chamber.

In winning the NHRA trophy in Indianapolis "Color Me Gone" defeated the "Ramcharger", well-known in drag-racing circles as the tops in stock cars.

"Color Me Gone" covered the quarter mile distance (from a dead stop) in 11.31 seconds, developing a speed of 127.84 miles per hour. The fast start proved to be the margin of victory for "Ramcharger" developed a speed of 128.34 miles per hour, but took 11.47 seconds to cover the quarter mile.

Bill thinks there's a good chance the race will be on the television program, "Wide World of Sports" in October. "They were filming us throughout the race," Bill stated.

The prize for winning the 1964 NHRA event? To the "Dodge boys" of the winning "Color Me Gone" went a 1964 Mustang!

Senior Citizens

The Northville Senior Citizens' club will meet Tuesday September 22 in the Scout-Recreation building for a 6:30 p.m. cooperative dinner and social hour.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

The Appraiser's Job

There was a time, not so long ago, when a dealer appraising a customer's car would take a walk around, glance at the tires, bounce it to test the shocks and "guess" he could allow so much.

In today's competitive market, a dealer cannot afford an "approximate" idea of what a customer's car might be worth. He must know exactly. If his appraisal is too low, he could lose the new car sale. If it is too high, he could lose money.

A quality dealer, therefore, is as much interested in the good points of a car being traded in as he is in the items that will need reconditioning. If he plans to retail the car on his own lot, and therefore stake his reputation on it, he must know the state of wear of the engine, transmission and other major components.

We are especially anxious to acquire top quality used cars, for these are the class of used cars for which we have a premium market among buyers who rely on our reputation for quality. They are always in short supply. Because of a pre-sold market, we can generally offer you more competitively for your trade-in.

This is a good time to make a good deal on a new car. We have a large selection of new 1964 models available on which you can still trade for big savings.

Juday to Handle Reigns Of Green MSU Backfield

East Lansing — Challenges are becoming perennial for Steve Juday.

Last year the former Northville high athletic star successfully challenged veteran Dick Proebstle to become the first sophomore quarterback to start an opening game of the season for Michigan State since 1949.

He was in the middle of a great initial season when a shoulder separation in the Wisconsin game sidelined him for the year.

Steve returns to the No. 1 quarterback position this fall to face a new test. He'll be the only 1963 regular returning to the Spartan backfield and he'll guide an offense minus its four top ground gainers from last fall.

In six games Juday completed 30 of 68 pass attempts for 509 yards and five touchdowns. With the Spartans blessed with an abundance of able flankers, he should throw even more this fall.

Steve was a member of the Spartan baseball team in the spring, lettering as an infielder.

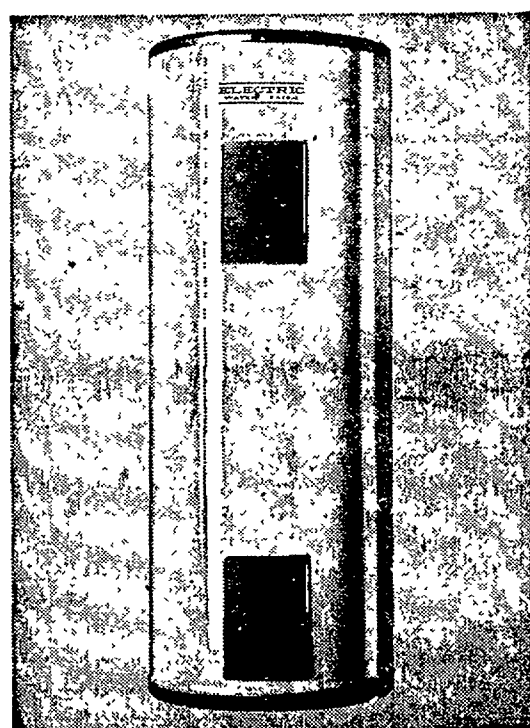

His young brother, Jim, joins him at MSU this year and will be a member of the frosh football team. An older brother, Bill, will co-captain Vanderbilt's team.

A 1962 graduate of Northville high school, Steve played on undefeated football and baseball teams his senior year and was a member of the basketball team that was unbeaten until meeting River Rouge in the state semi-finals.

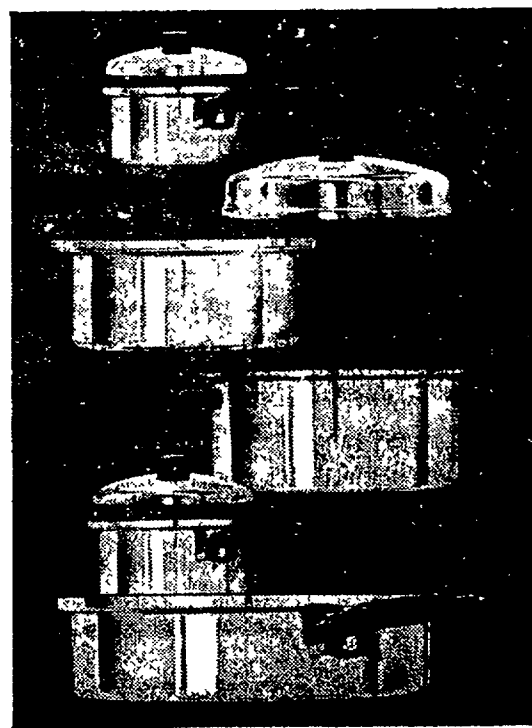

Steve Juday — lone veteran in MSU backfield.

In Justice Court

George S. Maxon got off easy in Northville justice court. Maxon, 225 Debra, was ticketed for speeding 30 mph in a 25 mph zone September 2. He was arraigned September 8, pleaded not guilty and was released on $25 bond.

At his trial Monday, Judge Charles McDonald found him innocent and dismissed his case.

But other defendants were not so lucky.

James Mazel of 41695 Grand River in Novi was fined $25 and $5 costs for being a minor in possession September 6 on the driveway to the high school athletic field. He pleaded guilty at arraignment September 10.

William C. Stewart was told to leave Northville after he was arrested as a disorderly person. He pleaded guilty to the charge and Judge McDonald suspended the fine and costs.

John Overly of Marshall was fined on two counts September 10 — for being drunk and disorderly and a minor in possession. He admitted he was guilty and was fined $50 and $5 costs.

Charles Hill of Ann Arbor had no valid operator's license on his person September 10. He paid a $10 fine Monday.

William Templeton of 21875 Novi road in Northville was caught speeding 30 mph in a 25 mph zone September 2. Arraigned September 8, he entered a plea of not guilty. At trial, he was found guilty but the judge suspended fines and costs.

George Wynne, a patient at Maybury Sanatorium, was arrested September 11 for being in possession of alcoholic beverages. Wynne pleaded guilty at his arraignment and was sentenced to 10 days in the Detroit House of Correction.

For trespassing at Maybury Sanatorium September 6, two Detroit teenagers — Frank Wilcox and Carl Landon — were strongly reprimanded by the judge. He suspended fines but made them pay $5 each for court costs.

Engaged

Dorothy Boyer
Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Boyer, 50050 West Seven Mile road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Julian Kampf of Mt. Pleasant, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kampf.

Kampf is a senior at Michigan State university and is majoring in electrical engineering. Miss Boyer holds a bachelor's degree from Central Michigan university and is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company in Battle Creek.

The couple plans a spring wedding.

Brenda Louisa Bartski
Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bartski of 22126 Beck road announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Louisa to William Joseph Pintal of Detroit. Pintal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pintal of Escanaba.

Miss Bartski graduated from Northville high school in 1961 and recently completed nurses training at Henry Ford hospital in Detroit. She will be employed at Wayne County General hospital.

Pintal holds a bachelor's degree and teaches sciences at Marygrove college in Detroit. A January wedding is planned.

Local members of the Daughters of the American Revolution (left to right) Miss Ruth Knapp, Mrs. James Sample, Mrs. Maxwell Austin and Mrs. Eugene Entz last Thursday presented a picture and biography of their chapter's namesake to Mayor A. M. Allen. Both items are on display in the Northville public library.

Bestow Portrait on Library

A picture of the namesake of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution hangs today in the Northville public library.

Mayor A. M. Allen accepted it and an accompanying framed biography of Sarah Ann Cochrane on behalf of the city and library at a special ceremony last Thursday afternoon.

Representing the DAR were Mrs. Maxwell Austin, first vice regent, Mrs. James Sample, second vice regent, and two members, Mrs. Eugene Entz and Miss Ruth Knapp.

Sarah Ann Cochrane was born July 28, 1832 and died July 10, 1917. She is buried in the Northville cemetery along with her father, mother and brother Lyman, who was a lawyer.

She came to Michigan from Poulney, Vermont at age five. Her father was the Reverend Sylvester Cochrane. He moved his family with a group of friends who had the "western fever." This group founded Vermontville, Michigan.

Later, Rev. Cochrane took his family to Olivet where he established the Congregational church. The next stop was Northville where he founded the Northville Academy, where young men studied before entering the university.

Lyman and Sarah helped with the teaching until 1857 when the school closed. In 1858, Sarah graduated from the Monroe Female Seminary. She then re-opened the Northville school as a unit for "young ladies." It closed in 1860.

She entered the service of the Detroit public library in 1883 "to do any kind of work." She was described as "reserved, dignified and a resourceful woman with a keen interest."

Miss Cochrane made an extensive study of the Dewey decimal system and it was under her supervision that the Detroit library was catalogued. In 1906 at the age of 74, she resigned from the staff as second assistant librarian.

Miss Cochrane had five Revolutionary ancestors listed at the Burton historical library. It was at the suggestion of the local chapter be called "Sarah Ann Cochrane." It was organized December 13, 1926 for women of Northville and Plymouth.

Alert Druggist Aids Police

"There were no buses running then in the city and the teletype mentioned that a blond woman and two children were in a faded green car driven by Dickerson," Chief King said.

After confessing that he was an addict, Dickerson said his wife probably left because he stayed in the drugstore for such a long time.

Leaving the station, King and Pankow drove slow along Main street. King spotted a suspicious looking car. It was green but its license plates didn't match those on the teletype. The police car circled the block. King got out.

"The car was parked in front of Spagy's market and its occupants were focusing attention to Northville Drug," King remarked. I was in plain clothes so I left the police car to check out the license plate. "Its license read SG 7223 and we were looking for a car tagged SG 6786. But inside the car was a blond, four children and a Negro man.

"I ran through Spagy's to tell Pankow who was then parked in the alley. When we returned the car was gone." Later, however, Pankow saw the car proceeding south on Center street. He pulled over the driver for having no light over the license plates. The driver, Helen Dickerson, was charged with having no driver's license or registration. She was taken to the station.

The other passenger in the car was identified as James Bridges, 1951 Canfield, Detroit. Dickerson called Bridges a "pusher". Dickerson, it turned out, owned two sets of plates and switched them at his fancy, King said.

Police uncovered a forged prescription in Mrs. Dickerson's purse and in Bridges's possession.

All three eventually admitted that three syringes and needles were thrown out of the car in the city. Bridges and Mrs. Dickerson had disposed of them before being arrested.

So a block-by-block search began and police scraped up all the broken pieces of evidence.

Their route was North Center to Lake and then east just past Grace.

"A lot of residents probably wondered what we were doing at 10 p.m. Now they know. We were flashing lights in gutters and along the road to find the evidence," King said.

Northville police handed over the three items plus the children to the racket squad of the Wayne County Sheriff's patrol. However, Mrs. Dickerson and Bridges were released Tuesday on "insufficient evidence," according to Detective Eugene Daley.

Last Call For Bridge Marathon

Shuffle the cards and deal them out. It's last call to all area bridge players!

Saturday is the deadline for entering the Northville Mothers' Club "Bridge Marathon". The nine-month event is open to all area bridge players and features prizes of $50, $20 and $10 to the top winners in each group.

Enthusiasm has been high for the event according to Mrs. Gordon Forrer, the marathon chairman, who says nearly four evening groups for couples have been formed. Groups are also open to singles, mixed couples and ladies. Women to complete groups in the afternoon and evening groups are particularly needed. Group schedules will be mailed soon.

Entrants will play 20 consecutive hands; once each month as scheduled. One table will be permitted in a home with the hostess responsible for collecting $1 per person each game and turning in scores and monies to the group leader.

Scoring is done as in rubber bridge: 700 for two game rubber; 500 for three game rubber; 300 for one game; 50 for dangling score; and the usual points for honors.

Last minute reservations will still be welcomed by calling Mrs. Forrer, FI-9-0348.

Mixed Up 'Henrietta Hen' Crows Like 'Henry Rooster'

Henrietta, a black fluffy hen, could gain as much notoriety as Christine Jorgenson.

Christine made headlines in the mid-1950's by being transformed from a man to a woman in Europe. Henrietta, on the other hand, is a she that sometimes acts like a he. She crows like a rooster.

"It's the darndest thing," exclaimed Charlie Verhaag of 45640 West 12 Mile road in Novi. "She is a bantam hen and lays about five or six eggs a week. But every morning she lets loose and wakes me up."

Henrietta is a pint-sized fowl and Charlie keeps her as a pet. "She isn't big enough for eating — and besides, she is too old and would be too tough."

Charlie has observed Henrietta ever since she cracked her shell. She is now three years old and the only poultry in Charlie's animal menagerie. Others are a cat, dog, two horses and a colt.

"I used to own 12 chickens and a few roosters," he recalled. "But during the winter a varmint got into my out building and the flock gradually disappeared. Henrietta survived."

"I raised hundreds and hundreds of chickens as a kid. My father loved chicken. But I have never seen or heard of one like Henrietta."

Henrietta's masculine trait popped up this spring.

Charlie said: "She just gurgled at first and flapped her wings. But in a few days she was producing a full-size crow. I couldn't believe it. I had to stand there and watch her."

Henrietta undoubtedly has fles Charlie. At the same time, she is considered an "odddity" by experts in animal husbandry.

Dr. Thomas Heslip, a Northville veterinarian, ventured an opinion that Henrietta "has some goof-up in her hormones."

He amplified "My guess is that her male hormones are stronger than her female hormones. A rooster crows to show off his masculinity."

But Dr. Heslip suggested that a specialist at Michigan State University be called, to verify his diagnosis. "Chickens aren't my field," he said.

Dr. Robert Ringer, a physiologist and professor of poultry at MSU, tried to explain Henrietta's condition.

"There is sex reversal in chickens," he revealed. "Something happens internally and hens stop laying eggs."

"I am surprised that Henrietta is still laying eggs, a good number for a bantam, and crowing. This is very unusual."

"Genetically, she is still a female but is probably having trouble with her ovaries. She is following the usual pattern, going from female to male."

Dr. Ringer admitted that Henrietta is peculiar and her abnormality is hard to define but "these things occasionally happen in chickens as they age."

He added:

"I even hear of roosters that lay eggs."

Henrietta acted shy for being a celebrity. Every time the photographer was ready to snap a picture she scampered off in another direction. But she did hold still once for a few seconds.

RUMMAGE SALESMEN — These Ugashonton Club members are planning a rummage sale at the American Legion hall Friday and Saturday. They'll use the funds from the sale to repair the piano shown in the picture above; then the boys will give the piano to the unit of mentally retarded girls at Wayne County Training School. The Ugashonton boys have 12 members in their club, which is directed by Leonard Bogotaitus. They conduct various projects, donate many of their funds, and also take pleasure trips. Last week end they canoed down the Pine river at Manistee. Previously, they have visited Quebec and Yellowstone National park. Pictured (l. to r.) are Leader Bogotaitus, Tom Metzner, Tom Gow, Tom Ling, Earl Leavenworth, Stan Magiera and Dave Smith.

"We worship spiritually, only as we cease to worship materially" will be one of the themes at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The quotation is taken from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 140). The Bible Lesson is on "Matter" and includes this verse from John (ch. 4): "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

Presbyterians Plan Dedication
Plans are now being outlined for dedication of the new Christian education addition to the First Presbyterian church of Northville.
The Reverend Lloyd Brasure expects the nearly-complete addition to be furnished by the October 4 dedication date.
Ceremonies will be held at 4 p.m. followed by a tour of the building and reception in Fellowship hall. Mrs. Paul Schulz is in charge of the reception.

Can't Get in College? Contact James O'Neil

James F. O'Neil, of Livonia, a member of the State Board of Education, has requested all students who are interested in attending college and have not been accepted to write to him immediately. O'Neil has promised to make every effort to assist those wishing to attend college gain entrance into one of the colleges in Michigan.

O'Neil stated that he believes every person desiring a college education should have this opportunity. Frequently, these opportunities are missed because there is no organized procedure for matching up the requests with the capacity.

O'Neil stated that he would appreciate being informed by any public or private college or university of any available capacity they might have. He stated that once he determines the magnitude of the specific needs of the students, he will contact the colleges regarding

San Antonio, Texas — Airman Charles F. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Johnson of 18800 Northville road, has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Airman Johnson has been selected for technical training as an aircraft maintenance specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Sheppard AFB, Texas. His new unit is part of the vast ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Northville high school.

READERS SPEAK:

Thanks to Northville From Myrtle Jardine

To the Editor: I wish to convey my thanks to the people of Northville for making my year there as an exchange student such a memorable one. The experience I have had will live with me for always, as I probably never will have an occasion to equal it again.

I made so many friends it would be hard to name them, but to one and all I want to express my thanks.

There is however one family to whom I owe a deep debt of gratitude, that is my American family, the Parmenters.

I hope some time in the future I shall return to Northville and have the opportunity to renew my many acquaintances.

Yours sincerely
Myrtle Jardine

Mayor Proclaims Constitution Week

WHEREAS, September 17, 1964 is notable as marking the 175th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States of America by the Constitutional Convention; and WHEREAS, to accord official recognition to this memorable anniversary, and to the patriotic exercise which will form a noteworthy feature of the occasion, seems fitting and proper; and WHEREAS, in accordance with Public Law No. 915, the President of the United States has issued a Proclamation designating September 17 through 23 as CONSTITUTION WEEK;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, A. Malcolm Allen, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of the city of Northville, Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of September 17-23, 1964, as CONSTITUTION WEEK in the City of Northville, Michigan, and urge all our citizens to pay special attention during that week to our Federal Constitution and the advantage of American citizenship.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Northville to be affixed at Northville this 8th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred sixty-four, and the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred eighty-eighth.

A. Malcolm Allen

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Folino, 210 South Center street, are shown as they registered September 9 for a three-day convention for State Farm Insurance agents at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago. More than 2,300 agents, and wives from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Iowa, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin attended the conference sessions where new developments in the insurance industry were discussed.

One Year Ago

Governor George Romney announced the appointment of Wilson D. Tyler to the Detroit metropolitan area regional planning commission. Tyler, an assistant vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., is a trustee on the Northville township board.

Starting salaries of the Novi police department were raised in the wake of two officers' resignations. Policemen will begin at $4600 a year, a boost of $200. In addition, Richard Faulkner was given a $200 hike, lifting his pay to $5200 annually.

Harwood's Standard station in Novi changed management. Leo Harwood announced that Herb Dryer is leasing the business. Harwood owned and operated the station at the corner of Novi Road and Grand River for 16 years.

Novi's board of education predicted that ground-breaking for the new junior high school would take place this week. Actual construction would take about a year as the board let bids of $864,770 for the new facility.

Growing concern over increasing crowded elementary classrooms prompted the Northville board of education to take three steps.

1—Hired another teacher for the Main street elementary school.

2—Agreed that board of education offices must be moved from the elementary school to provide more classroom space.

3—Eyes portable schoolrooms for possible use next year until another elementary school can be constructed.

Five Years Ago

Lewis D. Crusoe, a Novi resident for 10 years, has resigned as a director of the Ford Motor Company. He was executive vice president of the firm's car and truck division at his retirement in 1957.

Novi village residents voted against changing to a city by an overwhelming 766 to 175 decision, here, Tuesday. While stamping their disapproval on incorporation, the electors gave the village council and planning board a vote of confidence by their 532-388 decision to retain a much-debated zoning amendment.

The First Baptist church of Wixom broke ground for a new building to be completed by early spring. It is one of the oldest Baptist congregations in this section of Michigan.

Lincoln-Mercury division of Ford Motor Company revealed a plan for giving the city of Wixom a fire truck — free of cost. But the donation hinged on two conditions — the city must provide storage and maintenance and a volunteer firefighting unit must be organized.

Future of the Northville Community hospital — opened less than a week ago — became suddenly grim this week with the revelation it may not qualify for full Blue Cross membership. Without Blue Cross recognition, it is doubtful the hospital could continue to operate.

Coach Ron Schipper's Northville Mustangs make their debut Friday night against Plymouth, a traditional rival. Northville won its district championship in 1958, defeating all its opponents.

Fifteen Years Ago Orlov Owen, operational manager of Northville Downs, is appearing regularly each Thursday night on a Detroit television station.

One of the top awards at the state 4-H fair in Lansing last week was a Northville product. Gerald Taft, owner of Springbrook farm on West Eight Mile, donated a four-month old registered Morgan colt to the horse division of the 4-H club.

Total fines collected in Northville during August amounted to $696, according to Police Chief Joseph Denton.

Royal Blackstone, driven by Ernie Swarthwood, Northville, goes back into action Friday night in a $5,000 stake pace at the Downs. It will be Royal Blackstone's third appearance at the oval. The horse won a $3000 free-for-all two weeks ago.

Tom Houghton, a former Northville resident, wrote a song played over a Detroit radio station. It was entitled "It's Not Too Late" and was sung by Fred Kendall of Plymouth.

Bill Milloy, an 80-year-old driver and trainer, paused to talk about "sulkies to Bobby Watson, a local boy. Around horses for 51 years, Milloy claims the Downs is his favorite half-mile track.

Twenty Five Years Ago

James Fitzgerald was elected president and Frank Cody vice-president of the administrative board of the Wayne county training school.

About 1500 fans of fightdom were in the fairgrounds grandstands to cheer world heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis as he pranced into the ring for his second Sunday afternoon exhibition.

Harness racing fans were thrilled this week at the Michigan State fair where the sport is undergoing a revival under the watchful eye of Andy Adams, Litchfield, the superintendent of speed, and Dr. L. W. Snow, Northville, the secretary-manager of the exposition. It was said the horses were the first ones to set foot on the Detroit track since 1931.

Merrill Sweet and Willard Ely announced that they are candidates for the vacancy on the Northville board of education to be filled at a special election Sept. 22. Sherrill W. Ambler has resigned from the board.

The Northville high school football team will play its first game of the season September 22 against Walled Lake.

R. H. Amerman, Northville school superintendent, said he received his masters degree from the University of Michigan during the summer.

Member of the Lloyd H. Green Post are making preparations for the Armistice Day program. George Simmons is post commander.

Milton P. Miller of Detroit purchased the Cloverdale Dairy bar on North center street.

TRUCKS FOR '65!

More models, more engines, more Chevy workpower!

The long strong line of Chevy trucks for '65 is rolling in with miles of new working equipment. Like that handsome Fleetside pickup that leads the pack... one of the 18 pickup models in the line this year.

Further along, you'll find economical Chevy-Vans, a wide selection of walk-in vans, a bigger choice of big trucks, more job-tailored components—trucks built to fit your business and budget. And under those hoods you'll find the best in 4- and 6-cylinder, V8 and diesel power, 18 tough truck engines in all including 4 new lower cost diesels. Here's the huskiest bunch of haulers that ever came lurching for work!

Our word for all this is workpower. That's the stuff that makes a truck a real truck. A hard-nosed money-saver. Yes, workpower's here and Chevy's got it, in such a variety of types and sizes that picking the best truck for your job will be easier than it's ever been before. If you're in the market, just get in touch with your dealer.

Minutes of The Northville City Council Proceedings

August 17, 1964
Mayor Allen called the Regular Council Meeting to order at 8 p.m. Monday, August 17, 1964.

Present: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson, Kester. Absent: None.

Correction of previous minutes regarding Northville Historical Society to read: "Mr. Kester mentioned that he and Mrs. Carlson had been appointed a committee to determine possible meeting places in town and establish a policy on meetings in the City Hall".

Minutes then approved.
Moved by Ambler, supported by Kester, that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General, $15,774.65; Water, $1,954.33; City Hall Construction, $15.81 Unanimously carried.

COMMUNICATIONS:

The Clerk read a letter from the Michigan Municipal League reporting the 66th Annual Convention of the League to be held in Lansing, Sept. 16-18, with headquarters at the Jack Tar Hotel. Moved by Ambler, supported by Canterbury, that Mr. Kester be the delegate with Mr. Potthoff as alternate. Mr. Ogilvie intends to be present.

ORCHARD DRIVE PAVING SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

City Manager read the report and resolution for a Public Hearing on Tuesday, September 8th at 8 p.m. at the City Hall. Motion by Ambler, supported by Kester, to adopt the resolution. Unanimously carried.

This matter to be put on the agenda for Monday night's meeting, Aug. 24th, at which time Harold Penh will be ready to review the plans and authorize bids.

MR. MCCREEDYS REQUEST FOR A PRIVATE DUMP

Council discussed the desirability of having a private dump in the city limits. After some discussion on this matter it was decided that the city attorney will attempt to find out the amount paid to Ely & Sons for his lot, with the thought in mind that the City might wish to purchase it and he will report on this at the August 24th meeting. To be put on the agenda for this meeting.

PLANNING COMMISSION

Discussion of the Planning Commission's memorandum is to be held over and placed on the August 24th meeting agenda. Mr. Ambler to supply copies of the Planning Commission's report prior to the meeting.

TRASH CONTAINERS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

Mrs. Carlson reported the condition in back of business establishments to be in very bad shape. Discussed the cost and adaptability of large containers to be used with Mr. Brooks' present equipment to clean up this situation. Motion by Canterbury, supported by Ambler, that Mrs. Carlson and Mr. Kester be appointed a committee to try and find a solution and report to the Council as soon as possible. Unanimously carried.

MISCELLANEOUS

Mr. Canterbury talked about parking problems — the meters are not consistent regarding time limit. This matter to be discussed later.

Regarding the proposed charter amendment to provide for Municipal Court for the November election. The city attorney will see about this and the Judge will sit in on the August 24th meeting. This to be placed on the Aug. 24th agenda.

Regarding Peterson property acquisition — E. Main Street. This to be put on the special agenda for Monday night's meeting, Aug. 24th.

In the matter of the Northwest Construction Company —
Herbert Koester
Supervisor
Novi
(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

there followed a lengthy discussion about the various complaints on the manner in which the jobs were left. Mr. Sid Frid was present and presented his case regarding the condition of the sidewalk on his property. It was finally decided that the City Manager would write a letter to Oakland County in detail and have the Mayor go over it with him.

Mrs. Carlson brought up the matter of cars parking at the Gulf Station and obstructing the vision and also the parking at Wing and Main. Chief King and the City Manager to attempt to find a solution.

The City Manager read the letter from the Michigan State Police establishing the speeds on 8 Mile road between Grand River and Beck road at 40 m.p.h. No discussion.

The City Manager reported on the cost of opening Horton Street from Hill to Maplewood. He will write a letter to Mr. Soellner. Council feels there are numerous streets that would take priority over Horton Street.

Regarding the flasher light at Center Street above 8 Mile Road. The city attorney will investigate for payment by County will follow through.

Mr. Canterbury brought up the matter of campaigning among friends to encourage publicity in favor of the Wayne County and will follow through. Primary Election. Mrs. Carlson offered her assistance. Motion by Canterbury, supported by Allen, that the Council go on record as favoring the 1 mill levy for County operation as being in the best interest of the citizens. Unanimously carried.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 10:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Hilda Boyer

THREE GOOD REASONS TO BUY AN ELECTRIC DRYER NOW

- low initial cost
- special installed price
- Edison no-charge service

When it comes to buying a clothes dryer, there are more important things to consider than an incomplete claim about a pennies-per-load operating cost.

Take dryer service, for example. No matter where you buy your electric dryer, Edison will repair or replace electrical parts with no charge for parts or labor.

How do you put a price tag on this extra-special service? One way is to look at what you'd pay for a dryer service policy. Typical charges, in this area, range from $70 to $150 over the first five years. This is the kind of money you save when you dry clothes the safe, gentle electric way.

Also, model for model, an electric dryer costs less to buy than a flame-type does—some electric dryers are $20 to $40 less.

And now, for a limited time, the price paid for an electric dryer includes its wiring, if any is needed. So you save even more.

What about cost of operation claims? Just this, an electric dryer costs about 5¢-7¢ per load to operate—and there are no other hidden costs.

Look at all the facts. They add up to electricity. EDISON

Fall Arrives Tuesday

Ann Arbor — Autumn will begin at 7:17 p.m. Tuesday, September 22.

The sun's apparent arrival at the autumnal equinox marks the opening of the season when the night becomes longer than day, University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh explains.

"Since June 21, the sun has been steadily moving southward, and on the day of the equinox it will cross the equator," Professor Losh says.

The sun will rise and set almost exactly at the east and west points, and the day and night will be said to be equal.

"Strictly speaking, however, this is not true," Professor Losh points out. "Due to refraction of the sun by the earth's atmosphere, the hours when the sun is actually visible on September 22 will exceed the time when the sun is out of sight by nine minutes."

Equal day and night will come on September 26 and, from then on, the day will steadily grow shorter.

Another astronomical highlight of the month:

Five bright planets will be visible between sunset and sunrise. Saturn, rising in the southwest around sunset, is visible the whole night through. Rising around 10 p.m., to the north of east, is bright Jupiter.

Mars and Venus rise in the early morning. On the morning of September 18, seldom seen Mercury will reach its greatest angular distance from the sun and will make its appearance in the east about an hour and one-half before the sun.

Wixom News

Mrs. Charles Ware MA-4-1601

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas suffered injuries in an automobile accident at Wixom road and Pontiac trail Saturday morning. The Thomas car was hit by a car going east on Pontiac trail that did not stop for a stop sign.

The Sunshine Social Service group will meet at the home of Mrs. Hilda Furman on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Scott will be honored guest that day.

Miss Margaret Sullivan and Mr. Pat Sullivan from Malden, Mass. are house guests of the Charles Wares.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Walsh from Detroit were callers at the Ware home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ray Burke has returned home from Pontiac osteopathic hospital.

On Saturday the Joseph Callahans honored their son Timmie at a birthday party. Timmie became ten years old. Miss Inez Pepper and Miss Mary Pepper from Detroit were the guests of the Callahans.

Robert Vollmer has returned from a week in Pittsburgh.

The Lloyd Prestons have returned from a one month's vacation in California.

Jim Hughes of Wixom road and Mike Greenly from Walled Lake will leave for Michigan Tech at Houghton, Michigan Friday. It will be Jim's sophomore year.

Henry Madigan has left for Northern Michigan college at Marquette.

Mary Keenan has left for Western Michigan university.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The route of the city of Detroit water line through Northville has strong political and economic overtones.

Presently, the line comes to a dead end at Baseline and Center street (Sheldon road). Detroit wants to extend the facility to Five Mile and prefers to follow the most direct route—right through the center of the city.

Center street merchants take a dim view of this prospect.

Legally, it appears that the Northville city council can refuse to grant a construction permit.

At least one councilman has proposed that the city take a firm position and adopt a resolution opposing the Center street route.

For the time being, however, the council is playing "wait and see".

Gerald Remus, manager of the Detroit Water Board, visited Northville to get a firsthand view of the problem.

I talked to Remus last week. Here's what he had to say. Detroit wants to move forward with its water line extension this fall. Remus pointed out that when the city of Detroit took over the water system from Wayne county it assumed an obligation to bring water to western Wayne county by 1965. Supervisors representing outlying communities insisted on this provision, Remus stated.

Certain areas in Northville and Plymouth townships are dependent upon this line for service — not to mention Wayne County Training School.

Further, Remus warns that ground well supply is not dependable and suggests that one day Detroit water may be very much in demand throughout this area.

The Detroit Water Board manager insists that any route other than Center street through the city of Northville would be too expensive. He would consider alternate routes, if the difference in cost were paid locally.

Remus also contends that the city of Northville has been offered most attractive rates based on the Center street route. He said the city now qualifies for a rate of $1.46 per 7500 gallons, which could become $1.75 if a more expensive route was necessary.

While Remus is eager to move, the Northville city council has other problems.

Councilmembers know that many residents and businessmen are still burning over the inconvenience and disturbance of the Novi sewer line through the city.

And Center street businessmen have left little doubt how they feel. Several believe that the construction would seriously damage their businesses.

Wayne county could play a role in the negotiations. Center street is a county road. And Remus acknowledged that he has checked, but has been unable to determine if the county can legally grant permission for the construction. But he said he would consider it "basically wrong" to proceed without city permission.

All eyes are on the council. Politically it would be suicide to okay the Center street route.

Economically? Who knows. Northville seems to be in the driver's seat. The city isn't interested in Detroit water at the present time.

But an adamant attitude could prove costly in the future. A compromise plan satisfying both sides would be a masterstroke.

State Eyes Anti-Poverty Funds

LANSING — Michigan officials hope to take full advantage of Federal funds available under the new anti-poverty program.

Gov. George Romney established a 30-member human resources council soon after the war on poverty legislation was signed by President Johnson.

Coordinating Federally-funded programs will be just part of this unit's job. The council was comprised of administrators from several state agencies concerned with human resources plus private citizens.

One state agency voiced its interest in anti-poverty activity even before council members were appointed.

Highway department officials said they could use 400 men in a work-training program on some 200 miles of freeways in Northern Michigan.

The proposal called for a sharp increase in the enrollment of the Department's student highway technician training program with funds largely from Federal coffers.

Some 40 students have been enrolled in the training program since it was initiated in 1957. They work half the year for the department and attend school the remainder.

Highway officials said up to 400 young men could be given training in forestry work which could lead to careers in the field, while the state would save money and accelerate efforts to beautify the freeways.

Expansion of the training program under the Federal anti-poverty law could help fill the continuing need for men with backgrounds in soil conservation, erosion control, forest management and related fields, they said.

Department spokesmen said this need exists in local road agencies as well as in the state governmental unit.

EASIER SHOPPING

Many consumers won't even notice it, but some packages being sold in Michigan have a new look because of the state's 1964 revision of the weights and measures act.

State Agriculture Director G. S. McIntyre said the new law gives the buyer an advantage he never had before through several features.

In the past, the law required a statement of quantity in a package of food but not on such non-food items as paint, antifreeze, varnish and oil.

Under the new law the quantity must be declared on all packaged items sold by weight, measure or numerical count. Thus, if a non-food item is sold in a container that looks like a quart, it must state the exact quantity inside.

Terms that tend to exaggerate content quantity such as jumbo, king-size, giant or full are illegal under the new law, which took effect August 28.

Some of the computing problems of shoppers also are cut down under the act. Each package must be labeled in terms of the largest unit.

A 20 ounce loaf of bread, for example, must be declared as one pound, four ounces, or 1 1/4 pounds.

Agriculture department spokesmen emphasized that under the old law already many packages of non-food items which did not come under the old law already labeled their goods by quantity, but there were some who didn't.

The old theory was that the size of the container spoke for itself.

Among manufacturers who did not label for quantity, no law violation occurred for a semi-filled container because the law did not require this declaration.

McIntyre said the new law would work to the advantage of both the consumer and the up-standing members of industry "because the chisler must now meet requirements that the honest member has complied with on a voluntary basis for years."

Red Cross Needs Volunteer Workers

There is still time to enroll as a Red Cross volunteer, according to an announcement by Mrs. John Hering, chairman, Office of Volunteers, Detroit Chapter, American Red Cross.

Openings exist in all Red Cross services. There are opportunities for both day and evening work and there is a job to suit each volunteer's talents, interests and available time. The Red Cross urgently needs to fill its volunteer ranks because, as communities expand, so do such services as the Red Cross Regional Blood Program expand, increasing the demand for volunteers.

Mrs. A. C. Carlson, 201 Fairbrook road, branch chairman of Northville area Red Cross, stated that there are numerous opportunities to serve at Northville hospital. Motor Service drivers are needed. Can-teen volunteers to serve refreshments to blood donors on bloodmobiles are needed. Registered nurses to staff bloodmobiles and Social Welfare Aides are also among Northville Red Cross' volunteer needs, stated Mrs. Carlson.

All new volunteers are fully trained for their duties. Since the Red Cross movement first began, volunteers serving their communities through Red Cross have enjoyed the particularly dedicated and strong spirit present in all areas of Red Cross work which makes Red Cross volunteer work continually constructive and rewarding.

Registrations will be taken the week of September 14, with training beginning in late September. Further information may be obtained by calling the Office of Volunteers, Detroit Chapter Red Cross, WO-1-3900.

Dividing Your Investments

Babson Park, Mass. — Readers are especially upset by the great difference of opinion at this time amongst well-qualified investment authorities as to the future of the stock market.

The Dow-Jones Industrial Average — especially — is looked upon today by many as a very important index of the stock market. As readers know it was started many years ago by founders of the Wall Street Journal. The editors simply took the prices of a small number of most active stocks and averaged them, publishing this average every day. It soon acquired much more importance than had been anticipated.

The managers, however, found that stock dividends and other changes affected these quotations in a way very difficult to index properly. I cannot state just how many times the Dow-Jones Industrial Index has been adjusted, but the number is considerable.

In an investment column I have just finished reading, I noted a suggestion that this index may go up to 1000. This may seem high to many people. However, it should be realized that the climb from 850, where the Dow now is, to 1000 is only 17%; and the index has risen over three times that much during the past two years.

The Standard & Poor's people of New York publish each night an index of what a very much larger list of stocks have done for the day. This index rises and falls much less sharply than the Dow Jones.

On the other hand, because it is less sensitive it is not referred to so often by many investors, who want something which moves more rapidly.

There are also other indexes, including some prepared by individual newspapers and by the Associated Press. I have sometimes been tempted to combine all these into one; but fail to see what advantage such an average would give to investors. Furthermore, substitution of stocks in any of these indexes would complicate matters even more.

I personally follow the custom of looking up the quotations of a few stocks in which I am interested and writing them down in a notebook with the date of their quotation. My favorite stock is American News Company. This I buy as most people would a bond, because of its remarkable record.

The dividend which was declared by the Board of Directors at their meeting on July 30th is the 590th dividend paid by the company since its founding in 1864. This last dividend continues the company's record for the longest uninterrupted number of monthly and/or quarterly dividend payments of any company that is listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

There are also indexes showing the fluctuation in bond prices. The fluctuation is very slight from day to day, but most of these sources carry a table which enables an investor to quickly note the changes in bond prices over a period of a few weeks or more.

These prices are important to consider at this time. They show that while stocks have been going up, the prices of bonds have been going down. This does not necessarily mean that bonds are the best buy today; but when you can buy U.S. Government bonds to yield over 4%, they should be an excellent purchase.

As a result of my years of experience I advise readers not to "get hip" on any one class of securities, but to divide their investments say one third in bonds, one third in stocks, and one third liquid in cash which can be used for some unexpected event which is sure to occur someday and depress the prices of good stocks, making them attractive for purchase.

As I write this column it occurs to me that there is no widely accepted index for preferred stocks. For tax and other reasons I am rather bullish on cumulative preferreds, but I would not buy any preferred stocks that are non-cumulative. When buying preferred stocks it should also be noted whether or not they are callable; and, if so, the date and the price thereof.
