

'Give Once for All' Campaign Gets Underway Here Tuesday

One-hundred and fifteen women, all volunteers, will open Northville's eighth annual United Foundation Torch Drive next Tuesday. By the end of the month they will have called upon every resident in the city and township for contributions to the "Give Once For All" campaign.

Heading up the residential drive is Mrs. Arthur Hempe. Goal of the house-to-house collection is $2,100.

Meanwhile, Carl Johnson is directing the business solicitation with a goal of $1,200, while select prospects are the responsibility of Fay Waldren. The latter quota is set at $300.

From all sources the local Torch Drive hopes to collect some $3,600. Last year the campaign fell slightly short of its $3,500 goal with about $3,400, but the dip was in business contributions, not residential.

Last year door-to-door solicitation netted $2,119, and Mrs. Hempe is hopeful that her volunteers can top this total.

Serving as area chairmen are Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Herbert Weston, Mrs. Archie Richardson and Mrs. David Timbrooks.

District chairmen include Mrs. Donald Boor, Mrs. Daniel Boland, Mrs. Walter Avery, Mrs. Jack Willis, Mrs. Hugh McKay, Mrs. Edward Hodge, Mrs. David Vincent, Mrs. Richard Rusche, Mrs. Robert Prom, Mrs. Victor Lonn and Mrs. N. G. Loeffler.

According to Mrs. Hempe, district chairmen will meet with their volunteer solicitors at individual "coffees" Monday night. Last minute instructions and United Foundation kits will be distributed at that time.

Working on the business district solicitation with Johnson are Fred Kester, Charles Carrington, Wilson Funk and Del Black. They started their calls last week.

Founded in 1949 in Detroit, the United Foundation Torch Drive has been operating in Northville since 1957. Funds collected in the united campaign support 197 service agencies.

Locally these include the boy and girl scouts, recreation program and Kings Daughters.

Other well known agencies supported by United Foundation funds include Salvation Army, Children's Aid Society, Children's Hospital of Michigan, Children's Leukemia Foundation, Detroit Cerebral Palsy Center, Emergency Psychiatric Facilities for Children, Leader Dogs for the Blind, Michigan Association for Retarded Children, Michigan Cancer Foundation, Michigan Heart Association, Michigan Society for Mental Health and many others.

ATTRACTIVE CALLERS — These ladies will be among the 115 volunteers who will knock on doors at Northville homes beginning next Tuesday calling for contributions to the annual Torch Drive. They are: (l. to r.) Mrs. Robert Prom, Mrs. Victor Lonn, Mrs. Daniel Boland, Mrs. P. David Vincent, Mrs. Hugh G McKay, Mrs. David Timbrooks and Chairman Mrs. Arthur Hempe.

Ballot Still Up In Air

Some question still remained this week as to the exact content of the Northville city ballot November 3.

The question also involves the township ballot, at least for 12 residents of the West Main street area seeking annexation to the city.

In the city it is still not determined whether or not the proposal for a municipal court will appear on the ballot.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie said this week that he had received verbal confirmation from the state, but the official notice has not yet arrived at city hall. This is necessary for publication of election notices next week.

Meanwhile, an election notice for the annexation election continues to be published (see page six, section two). Due to errors of description of the property, petitioners have asked that the election be called off.

Only the secretary of state can do this, however. Until he gives notification to the contrary, the annexation election stands "as advertised."

Township board members have agreed to let the property owners join the city by joint action of the township and city if 100 per cent of the property owners in the area involved so desire. Reportedly, they all do.

Program to Accept Novi Tuition Pupils May Face Revision

With classroom space at a premium, Northville school officials are contemplating the day when they can weed out all tuition students in the district.

Thus Novi would have to provide facilities for its 10th, 11th and 12th graders now attending Northville high school.

"Novi's tenth graders are giving us trouble," revealed Northville Superintendent R. H. Amerman. "We are picking up more students from the area than we graduate."

Last month, Novi opened its own junior high and pulled its ninth graders out of the Northville system, reducing the number of tuition pupils.

But Amerman explained: "We'll be getting the present ninth graders next year when they enter the 10th grade. There will be about 80 new Novi 10th graders compared to only 66 Novi seniors graduating."

"This problem is critical and we should review with the Novi board of education the future of its students here."

At its regular meeting Monday night, the Northville board of education tentatively scheduled a joint session November 18 with the Novi board to discuss mutual problems.

In tabulating enrollment figures for the 1964-65 school year, it was discovered that total number of tuition students has slackened off from a year ago.

Last year, there were 270 paying tuition from Novi. But the count dipped to 210 this September, according to a Northville survey. Officials had expected 230.

As a result, revenue in the district will decline $16,000 with the drop-off.

At present there are 185 in the freshman class at the high school. If all were promoted next June, coupled with the students from Novi, the sophomore class would stand at 265.

Right now, 233 are enrolled in the tenth grade.

"As our ninth grade increases in the next year or so, we will only be able to handle our own students," Amerman emphasized. "Novi will have to find a way to take care of its own tenth grade."

Amerman suggested that the Novi students could be thinned out in "an orderly procedure."

10th grade could be excluded, leaving only juniors and seniors. The next year, the 11th grade would be eliminated and finally the 12th.

"We should get the two boards together," Amerman said, "and get some answers."

It was pointed out that Novi is only one of three school districts left in Oakland county without a kindergarten through 12th grade program.

Other classes are bulging, too, in the Northville school system.

William Crump, a school board trustee, stressed Monday night that there are enough students in the sixth grade to compromise one-third of the enrollment of another elementary school.

Absence No Excuse

Township residents who will not be present for the November 3 general election may now apply for absentee ballots from Clerk Marguerite Young at the township hall.

Five sixth grade sections exist at the junior high with a total of 151 students. And bigger fourth and fifth grade classes are coming up.

"We should have a new elementary school right now," Crump declared.

Presently, a citizens advisory group is undertaking the planning of a new school, by next June. However, a building would not be expected to be in operation until the fall of 1966.

Overall, 2,402 students are enrolled in Northville schools this year. A breakdown shows that 1,047 are at the two elementary schools, 488 at the junior high and 867 at the high school.

School officials' estimates were only off by two students, having figured 2,400 for budget purposes. Last year, there were 2,267 in the school system.

It was further disclosed that Our Lady of Victory school has 362 pupils with two fourth grade classes and St. Paul's Lutheran lists 57.

Never Too Old

Eighty-three Year-Old William Forsyth of Northville shows how it's done in a senior citizens' league bowling match held Tuesday at Northville Lanes. Forsyth bowls in four leagues and holds a 144 average. One of his teammates, a youngster of only 71, missed a perfect game by one pin recently for a 299.

Detroit Daily Strike Enters Fourth Month

As the newspaper strike enters its fourth month, hope of settling the dispute between the two dailies and pressmen and paper and plate handler's unions has diminished.

A special commission, impaneled by Governor George Romney to study the difference between the two sides has been disbanded.

Dr. Clarence Hillberry, president of Wayne State university, who headed the commission, reported that no progress could be made.

So again this week, we'll try to bring news of the outside world to area homes.

CIRCUS TENT? — No, Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey aren't coming to Northville. The huge tent erected this week in the infield of Northville Downs' track will be the scene Friday and Saturday of the ninth annual Michigan Standard Bred Horse Sale. It marks the first time the sale has been staged in Northville and Downs' Manager John Carlo is hopeful that it will become a regular event here. Some 280 trotters and pacers will go on the auction block. The sale is expected to attract 2,000 prospective buyers. Equipment will be sold from 9 until 10 a.m. both days with the sale of horses beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing until approximately 7 p.m. Anyone interested in observing the auction is welcome to attend.

Seek Compromise in Track Zoning

A full house audience attended Tuesday night's hearing on the proposed rezoning of River street property for track use and while no definite decision was reached, a give-and-take compromise suggested by Planning Chairman George Zerbel seemed to win majority approval.

Six property owners petitioned the city for rezoning of their lots on the west side of River street between Beal and Seven Mile from R-2 to T-1 (two family residential to track use).

John Carlo, executive manager of Northville Downs, stated that track plans call for removal of the houses, concrete covering of 200 feet of the river to provide additional parking, and construction of a 152 by 84 foot building that would serve as a sales arena for horse auctions and a receiving barn for pre-race housing of horses.

The auction (see picture at left) would become an annual fall event, but would not run more than three days, Carlo said.

At the outset several residents indicated opposition to the zoning. They pointed to manure odors that might become more potent with near-by construction of a barn; and they said the expansion of the track tended to decrease their residential property values.

The planners heard pro and con arguments for about an hour before reading the opinion of the city's planning consultants, Waring and Johnson. Basically, the consultants looked upon the proposal as a "logical request" for extension of present use. But it was recommended that a six-to-eight foot opaque fence be erected to protect neighboring residents from car lights and other disturbances.

Zerbel made these further recommendations: — that all houses be removed within one year; — that only the land on which the barn would be constructed should be zoned T-1 and the remainder of the land involved be zoned T-P1 (track parking); — that the barn be built far back from River street as possible and practicable; — and that all plans be approved prior to construction by the city's planning commission.

In a show of hands only two residents of the area still objected to the rezoning.

And Carlo wasn't ready to accept all the provisions, either — especially replacement of an existing by an opaque fence extending from Beal to Seven Mile.

But Zerbel suggested that there was room for more discussion and a basis for agreement.

A decision was deferred and another meeting called for Tuesday evening, November 3 in a lower-level meeting room of city hall.

The planning commission then will send its recommendations to the city council, which must call another public hearing before taking action to approve or disapprove the proposal.

Strongest argument against the rezoning was set forth by Frank Pauli of Gardner street. He objected to track odors and charged that the track depreciated adjoining residential values. He said that "little by little the track is poisoning the neighborhood and eventually everyone will be forced to sell at a loss."

Pauli produced figures to show that residential lots in the track are increased in valuation in relation to their distance from the track. He also said that assessments of track property were low compared to residents in the area.

City Manager Bruce Pott-off refuted this indicating that the track acreage, if subdivided into lots, would add up to comparable valuation to the existing residential lots.

A hitch to Zerbel's compromise proposal developed when it was revealed that the Downs does not have options on two of the lots, those owned by L. W. Snow, Jr., and Herman Janke. Removal of these houses would, of course, be contingent upon purchase of the property.

Dr. L. W. Snow, president of the Northville Driving Club, owners of the track property, attended the session on behalf of the track request and pointed out the need for more parking and facilities to keep up with the growth of racing.

But Dr. Snow took a position in agreement with Zerbel's compromise plan stating that he, too, believed that residents should be given adequate protection.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thomas Busch

Sharon Hinchman Weds Don Busch

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, was the scene of the marriage September 12, of Sharon Lee Hinchman and Donald Thomas Busch.

The bride, former employee of the Northville Record, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hinchman of 522 Baseline road.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Busch of 230 North Center street.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of 'peau de soie, with a soft chapel train falling from a butterfly bow at the waist. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a bow and she carried white fusi mums entwined with ivy.

Mrs. Victor Plumley of Plymouth was matron of honor.

She wore a ming-blue organza over taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of brown Fugi mums, and brown wheat, trimmed with gold velvet ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Gagg of Plymouth and Arlene

Norris of Northville. Their gowns were the same as the matron of honor.

Victor Plumley of Plymouth, was best man. Ushers were: Duane Busch, brother of the groom; Rollin Gaab of Plymouth and Richard Rayl of Northville.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hinchman wore a green aqua crepe dress trimmed with a lace top and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow mums.

Mrs. Busch chose a beige crepe dress with detachable lace jacket. She also wore brown accessories and yellow mums.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the American Legion hall in Northville.

The couple's wedding trip included Washington D. C. and Virginia. Donald and Sharon are making their new home in Spartan Village, East Lansing. Donald is a student at Michigan State University.

Listening Post Opens With Maurer Wednesday

The first speaker of the 1964-65 Plymouth Listening Post lecture series sponsored by the Plymouth — Northville branch of the American Association of University Women will be Wesley H. Maurer, professor of journalism and chairman of the department of journalism at the University of Michigan.

His specialty at the university is a course entitled "Freedom to Publish" through which he teaches the relation of freedom of the press to a free society and its dependence upon the virility of all other democratic civil liberties.

Professor Maurer will speak on "The Meaning of the Conflicts of Our Time," next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Plymouth high school auditorium.

A few tickets are still available. Those interested may call Mrs. Webber at GL 3 — 3047.

Northville Girl Wed in Plymouth

Barbara Ann Steencken and Dr. Edwin J. Hammer, spoke their wedding vows September 13 in a double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian church in Plymouth.

Dr. Henry J. Welch officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Steencken of Northville. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Hammer of Grosse Pointe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of silk peau de soie. The lace trimmed bodice was accented with iridescent sequins and tiny pearls, lace appliques trimmed the full skirt.

Her finger tip French silk illusion veil was made by her mother and hand-appliqued with chantilly lace. It was held in place by a tortoise shell mantia belonging to the groom's mother. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow roses and white stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Katherine Johnson of Belding, Michigan was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta and carried a cascaded bouquet of yellow Fugi and bronze pom-pom mums.

The bridesmaids, Linda Steencker, sister of the bride, Mary Kris Hammer, sister of the groom, and Carolyn Longlry of Northville, wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. All wore matching blue tulle veiling held in place by blue crowns trimmed with pearls and crystals.

Thomas Hammer, the groom's brother, was best man. Joseph Steencken, brother of the bride, was an usher along with Joel Prescott III, Donald Groom, H. Rex Hartson, Dr. Robert Hensinger, Dr. Murray Rehlfrev.

The bride's mother chose a printed gold lame' sheath with beige accents. The mother of the groom wore a beige print marquisette. Both mothers wore Cymbidium orchid corsages.

A garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Northville for more than 200 guests.

For her wedding trip to Northern Michigan, Mrs. Hammer wore a beige and brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and feathered carnations.

Mrs. Hammer is a graduate of Plymouth high school and attended the University of Michigan. Dr. Hammer is a graduate of the University of Michigan medical school and is interning at the Riverside Methodist hospital in Columbus, Ohio. The couple is now residing in Columbus.

WSU Week Coming Up

Wayne State University will be a showcase for Michigan during WSU Week, which opens Saturday, and runs through the following Saturday.

Theme for the week is "Wayne State University serves the state."

Heading the "WSU or Bust" caravan to the campus will be alumni from 83 counties and residents from the entire thumb area community of Marlette who received a special "get acquainted" invitation from WSU.

Marlette Day opens the week and a week-long open house, beginning Sunday will feature daily conferences in commerce, health, culture and education to give the public a better understanding of the university's role in meeting the needs of the community and state.

The open house will also include concerts, clinics, lectures, plays and other events.

A family day will close the special entertainment for children, a homecoming football game (WSU versus Eastern Michigan), an alumni open house, and the Mackenzie Union's "Governors' Ball" at Cobo Hall.

THE ARTS OF POLITE conversation and manners are being nurtured in the very young by Mrs. Lola Alexander in the Saturday afternoon classes she conducts at her Spring drive home.

Technically, youngsters are learning creative dancing and rhythm, but parents report that small sons and daughters also are receiving gentle encouragement in the social graces — to the delight of both child and parent.

A very few years ago "dancing class" was the place junior-high teenagers learned how to ask for a dance and how to accept gracefully. (Such rules seem as archaic as the maid in tiny cap and apron that most kindergartners don't even recognize on picture identification tests of home life they're currently taking.)

While the organdy cap may go, many observers of social life are wondering if some things good aren't being lost. Last month the Birmingham Eccentric's social editor, Mary Ellen Mead, looked at manners in her area and regretted the passing of the day when young people rose to their feet and said, "Yes, Sir." (Some parents are doing a fine job themselves, but for others help seems indicative. Mrs. Mead points out in the Birmingham area traditional dancing classes are resuming.)

Mrs. Alexander confides she had been hoping to institute a charm-type course for teenage girls, but right now is conducting the 10-week continuing sessions instituted last year for five-to-ten year olds. Vivacious Mrs. Alexander is a long-time Northville resident and a life member of Mother's club. Her professional training was taken in New York and Germany.

"ONCE UPON A TIME" used to be standard introduction to children's stories, but we doubt that this beginning is used in many of the 600 children's books published this year — which will be on exhibit here next month.

In a special Book Week exhibit November 2-6 in the junior high library students and parents will have opportunity to examine the books from 50 publishers. Miss Linda Edgerton of Gallery Books and Miss Ione Palmer, junior high librarian, are cooperating to show the new books. Children will see them during school hours while parents are invited from 3 to 8 p.m. November 2, 5 and 6. The books are for kindergarten through ninth grade children.

POLITICAL PERSUADERS have been in this week, attesting to the interest Northville women have in politics, especially at the national level, this year.

Incumbent Republican Representative George Meader was scheduled to meet Northville township women at a coffee given Wednesday morning by Mrs. Harold B. Price at her Bloomcrest home. Meader now represents the township which has been made part of the second congressional district. He is an Ann Arbor resident and an attorney.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. James Telam, Mrs. Wilson Tyler and Mrs. C. A. Hoffman. Mrs. Stuart Campbell was in charge of campaign literature.

Mother's Club members and guests heard Edgar W. Waugh, professor of political science at Eastern Michigan university, speak at the Napier road home of Mrs. Glenn Deibert. A teacher and author, Professor Waugh was Democratic candidate for superintendent of public instruction in 1961. He entertainingly gave historical reviews of past campaigns and, at the state level, discussed the Massachusetts ballot as well as the presidential campaign.

Club members also completed plans for their bi-annual Nearly-New sale to be held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, October 24 in the junior high boys' gymnasium (community building) on Main street.

Chairman Mrs. Donald Schwendemann stressed that the items to be on sale all will be in very good condition. In addition to clothing there will be some books, toys and dishes. Proceeds will be earmarked for school needs.

A MICHIGAN RECIPE was published last month in the Washington, D. C. Evening Star. The Star has been using the choice recipes of state First Ladies. Mrs. George Romney gave Michigan onions a boost by sending her stuffed onion recipe which requires a dozen medium onions be cooked in boiling, salted water 20 minutes.

Then drain and cool. Remove centers and stuff with combined rice (1 c. cooked), 4 oz. can drained mushrooms, 1½ c. chopped pecans (or blanched almond meats), and 2 tbs. butter. Sprinkle with small amount of grated American cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for half hour.

Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter DAR will host the state regent and board members at luncheon Monday noon at the home of Mrs. Walter W. Hammond, 1312 Maple, Plymouth. Mrs. James V. Zeder of Bay City is state regent. Her board members are: Mrs. Walter Kleinert, first vice-regent, Birmingham; Mrs. Jerry Moore, second vice-regent, Dearborn; Mrs. Kim Jepson, state recording secretary, Lansing; Mrs. Neil Murry, state corresponding secretary, Battle Creek; Mrs. Lowell Chapman, state treasurer, Big Rapids; Mrs. Leslie Carlin, state registrar, Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Hebert Beck, historian, Manistowic; Mrs. Harold Egger, state director, Dearborn Heights.

Assisting Mrs. Hammond as hostesses are: Mrs. Wilbur Elliott, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Theodore Benson, and Mrs. Eugene Entz, Northville; and Mrs. Fraser Carmichael, Drayton Plains.

Members are reminded to bring their used clothing which will be sent to the DAR schools.

Uniform Exchange

Each year the girl scouts have a uniform exchange program. Anyone interested in selling, exchanging or donating uniforms can call Mrs. William Schiefer, FI 9-0731. Brownie, Junior, Cadet or Senior uniforms will be appreciated.

Cotter-Crawford Vows Said in Novi

At a candlelight ceremony, at the Novi Methodist church, September 26, Kathleen Sharon Cotter became the bride of Hugh Douglas Crawford.

Sharon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Cotter, formerly of Novi, and now residents of Oakridge, Tennessee. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford of Novi.

The couple spoke their marriage vows before an altar covered with flower arrangements of pale pink gladiolas and chrysanthemums with a background of cathedral candles interspersed with stephanotis. The Reverend La Vere Webster officiated at the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of blush-pink slipper satin trimmed with Alencon lace, embroidered with seed pearls. She wore a matching head-piece designed in pill-box fashion, trimmed with lace and seed pearls. Her chapel length veil was of pink illusion net. The bride's dress and veil were designed and made by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sam Outlaw of Nashville, Tennessee.

Nancy Cotter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a dress fashioned of lavender net over taffeta, she carried a bouquet of feathered mums. Barbara and Jan Cotter were bridesmaids.

Jeffery Crawford was his brother's best man and ushers were Jack Crawford and Neil Davis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cotter chose a bronze and gold sheath dress and wore a corsage of white and gold Cimbidium orchids. Mrs. Crawford wore a rose-pink sheath dress and wore a corsage of orchids.

Luncheon was served at the casino followed by a meeting conducted by Mrs. John Begle, president.

A "hobby" to most is just a pleasant past-time, but for newcomers Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, their hobbies grew into a business. Mr. Parker owns a hobby shop in Farmington.

The Parkers, with their 7-month old daughter, Susan, are making their new home at 23653 West LeBost drive in the Willowbrook subdivision in Novi.

The couple met several years ago in Norfolk, Virginia when Bill was a seaman, 2nd class. Their previous home was in Hyattsville, Maryland before taking up recent residence in Novi.

Mrs. Parker is busy getting their new ranch home in order and making preparations for the new addition to the family, who will be arriving soon.

Tour Belle Isle

Thirty members of the Northville Garden club chartered a bus for a tour of Belle Isle Monday afternoon. Of special interest to all members was the conservatory where they saw rare orchids grown and received slips from exotic plants.

Luncheon was served at the casino followed by a meeting conducted by Mrs. John Begle, president.

WHAT IS YOUR STAKE IN THE NOVEMBER ELECTION?

The most important ballot you cast in next month's general election will be that of State Representative! This is the one office that has direct and continuing influence on YOUR daily life. No other branch of government comes closer to functioning as YOUR legislative VOICE. That's why — regardless of your State and national political views — you'll want a representative who is dedicated to represent YOU — not this or that special interest faction. That's why you'll want...

Holly Humbles Mustangs, 18-0

Even snow flurries failed to cool off a fired up Holly team as the visiting Broncos blitzed Northville, 18-0, Friday night. Suffering their first loss in the Wayne-Oakland conference, the Mustangs are now 2-1 in loop play and tied for second with Holly. In first place is Milford with a 3-0 mark.

Holly's blazing one — two punch of Halfback Jim Starr and Fullback Mark Phalen turned Northville's bid for a third successive victory into a holocaust. Although apparently stopped many times for no gain, they wrestled loose for five to ten yards more.

Combined yardage of Starr and Phalen accounted for 211 of the Broncos' 212 yards, all on the ground. Despite the fact that Holly did not throw a pass, the Mustangs were simply unable to stop the visitors' ground game.

Although outplayed, Northville was definitely in the fray until halftime, trailing by just 6-0 Holly then struck swiftly for two touchdowns at the outset of the second half to extinguish the Mustangs' victory chances.

While Northville's defense was taking a battering, the offense was having difficulties of its own. Within striking distance three times, the Mustangs failed to churn out much-needed yardage on crucial plays.

Coach Ron Horwath conceded nothing after his team's loss. "We could have beaten them," he said. "They were a good ball club, but not that good. They just came to play ball."

Holly's first TD was the result of a gift in the first quarter. Stopped on the Northville 39, Holly punted to the 19 where a Mustang fumble gave the Broncos a scoring opportunity. Six plays later, Starr bolted four yards over right tackle for the score, but the extra point kick was wide to the left as Holly led, 6-0.

With Fullback Doug Swiss leading the charge Northville surged 42 yards to the Holly 12, only to give up the ball two plays later when two passes to End Jerry Imsland on the left sideline were overthrown.

Holly came back on its longest march of the night — 75 yards to the Northville four yard stripe — but the Mustangs put on a sparkling goal line stand as the half ended.

Northville gave Holly second-life on the drive when the local gridders roughed the punter on Holly's 48. That's all Holly needed as it surged goalward.

With their backs against the goal post, however, the Mustangs stopped three thrusts with the aid of two penalties for illegal procedure. On fourth down, Holly Quarterback Tom Pegan, back to pass fumbled the ball back to the 40 yard marker, where Northville took over.

Holly atoned for the missed scoring opportunity as the third quarter got underway. The Broncos ripped the right side of the Mustang line and secondary. Starr bullied two yards into the end zone only nine plays after Holly received the second-half kickoff.

The run for the extra point was stopped short with the score remaining, 12-0. Minutes later, Phalen electrified the small group of partisan fans who remained to brave the cold, by racing 40 yards to pay dirt. He slammed over right tackle, bowling over several Mustangs, and sprinted to the score. The extra-point placement was fumbled.

Northville stole the offensive fire in the fourth period, mounting two drives to no avail.

A 19-yard scamper by Halfback Kent Kipfer on a Statue of Liberty play, a 13-yard pass to End John McMillan and two personal foul penalties, good for 15 yards each, ate up most of the yardage to the Holly 27 yard line.

But a fourth down pass from the Holly 27 rolled off a receiver's fingertips on the 12. Northville penetrated to the Holly 27 once again, this time on the wings of Quarterback Tom 'Baugman' arials to End George Burchfield for nine yards and to Flankerback Jerry French for 14. The offensive spark died, however, when a second-down pass was intercepted with approximately a minute remaining in the game.

Northville will place its 1964 chances for a second successive share of the Wayne-Oakland Conference title on the line Friday afternoon at Bloomfield Hills.

The game gets underway at 3:30 p.m.

Four teams are presently deadlocked for second place with 2-1 records of last Friday's contests. Holly, Northville, West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Hills are just a game off the pace of front-running Milford, which has a 3-0 slate.

Milford is the odds on favorite to at least gain a tie for the crown. The Redmen proved their prowess by slaughtering Clarkston, Friday 43-0.

Clarenceville gave West Bloomfield a tough battle before succumbing, 12-6. And Bloomfield Hills primed for the Northville tilt by beating Brighton, 21-7.

Only common opponent which both Northville and Bloomfield have faced is Clarkston, the Mustangs winning, 13-6, and the Barons gaining an 18-7 decision. Statistics, then, give the edge to Bloomfield. What's more, the Barons will have a home field advantage!

Injuries may cripple Northville's chances for victory. Most recent loss is Linebacker Art Forth, an aggressive ball player, who is out indefinitely with a head injury.

Also on the disabled and indefinite list are Halfback John Mach and Tackle Jerry Burns, both out with leg injuries, and End John Jameson, Northville's chances for victory.

SAD SIDELINES — Bundled in winter clothing on a brisk football night, the Northville coaching staff and the team physician look solemnly on as Holly posts an 18-0 win. They are (l-r) Dr. Tom Johnson, Line Coach Alex Klukach, Backfield Coach Dave Longridge and Head Coach Ron Horwath. Longridge is conferring on the phone with a grandstand observer, who relays information to the field so the staff can make quick decisions.

Frosh 11 Loses, 6-0

A five yard penalty stood between victory and defeat for the Northville Ninth grade eleven last Thursday when Plymouth walked off with a 6-0 win.

After marching 43 yards to the Plymouth two yard line following a Plymouth fumble, the Colts' Fullback Scott Berge charged into the end zone. But the tally was called back because of an offside penalty.

Making the defeat even more painful is the fact that the Colts played the entire first half in Plymouth territory, yet failed to score.

There were several entries with five wrong, but most were far down the list. All contestants missed the Dallas — New York Giants game which ended in a tie score.

Second place was won by Gerald C. Martin, Ely drive, Northville. Another Livonian, Linda Hoffman of 18230 Gillman, and Jack Williams of 505 Rouge, Northville, tied for third and split $3.

There were several entries with five wrong, but most were far down the list. All contestants missed the Dallas — New York Giants game which ended in a tie score.

United States doesn't come up with a new policy on Viet Nam "we will be kicked out in less than a year, lose all of south-east Asia in three years and end up with a major war to defend the Philippines."

Secretary of State James Hare urged that the state needs a program to protect traffic accident victims against uninsured motorists. Hare said Michigan motorists have the option of carrying an uninsured motorists protection in auto policies but 14 states have established mandatory programs.

SPORTS

If the Yankees knocked off the Cardinals yesterday afternoon, the final game of the World Series will be played today in St. Louis. The Cardinals held a 3-2 edge going into Wednesday's contest. Odds-makers made the Redbirds a 2-1 choice to cop the series.

Meanwhile, the Baltimore Colts trampled the St. Louis Cardinals, 47-27, Monday night. The victory put the Colts in first place in the western conference of the National Football League. America got off to a good start at the Olympic competition in Tokyo. Jed Graef, 22, led the U.S. to a 1-2-3 sweep in the men's 200-meter backstroke championship. Graef set a new world record of 2:10.3.

Even so, the Russians are aiming for 110 medals at the games, seven more than they won and 39 more than the U.S. received four years ago in Rome.

The Wolverines suffered no serious injuries in handing Michigan State a 17-10 defeat last Saturday and Coach Bump Elliott will have a full-strength team to send against Purdue Saturday.

In the meantime, Michigan State is in sub-par condition for its tilt against Indiana. Two players have knee injuries. Duffy Daugherty isn't underrating the Hoosiers, who have lost to Northwestern, Ohio State and Iowa.

The New York Rangers kicked off the National Hockey League season Monday night by defeating the Boston Bruins, 6-2.

Novi Public Library Adds 40 New Volumes

Book of the month for September at the Novi public library is the complete works of William Shakespeare.

Mrs. Robert Flattery, local librarian, said the two volumes of Shakespeare, including all of his plays and poems, were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Layne Robinson of Neenah, Wisconsin. The Robinsons grandchildren use the library.

New books for adults are Rector of Justin, You Live Only Twice, The Third Day, Rough Magic and The Presidents Lady.

Mrs. Flattery said that many new titles have been added to shelves for young people. They are:

Ameriga Vespucci, Going Steady, Time to Laugh, Shining Trail, Betsy and the Great World, How to Make a Speech, Young Mr. Big, Light in the Forest, The Red Car, Luigi and the Long Nosed Soldier, Tulip Time.

The Checkered Flag, Two Dogs and a Horse, A Wind on the Road, Children of the North Pole, Who Really Invented the Airplane?, Wagonmen, The Sun-Star Number One, David Livingstone Explorer, The Al Kaline Story, Knitting Without Needles.

Your Future in Meteorology, The Vikings, Aircraft at Work, Wonders of Animal Architecture, Meet the Remarkable Adams Family, Whales and Dolphins, The Outdoor-Indoor Fun Book, Exploring Light and Color, The Golden Book of Magic, The Golden Book of Renaissance and Do it in a Day Puppets for Beginners.

Students to See Travel Film

"America Of Thee I Sing", presented last week to the opening audience of the Rotary club's travel and adventure series, will return to Northville, thanks to the Northville Driving Club.

The stereo-color presentation is narrated by its author, Robert 'Brouwer, well-known travelogue artist.

Arrangements have been made by the Driving Club to have the travelogue shown to all high school classes at a general assembly on November 18.

Dr. L. W. Snow, Driving Club president, said the project was undertaken as a community service.

Break-In Not Funny

To the Editor:
What else can you call the Novi Police Department after what happened to me and my family Sunday morning at approximately 3 a.m. — at which time I called the Novi Department to report that two men were trying to break into my home. They were ripping the screen off the front door. I made two calls to the Novi Police dispatcher. He thought it was amusing and he said the car was on 14 Mile road. I live on Haggerty and imagine my surprise when I see the car coming from 13 Mile side. Well, to make a long story short, these two guys are breaking into my home. The Novi Police finally showed up and they don't even get out of the car to investigate my door. The two guys were ripping thought the screen door when the Novi Police finally came. I wanted to sign a complaint but what did Novi do? Let them go, of course, after helping these guys start their car. They gave them a ticket. Honestly now! Of course, my wife and my five children were terrified, but your Novi Dispatcher was very jovial about the whole thing. I hope this happens to one of the Councilmen, then maybe there will be a shake-up and get something done about this "Comedy of Errors" they laughingly call a police department.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Passes Inspection

The annual inspection meeting of the ladies auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 was held October 7. Present as inspecting officer was Fourth district President Helen Werbin.

Democrat Club Select Officers

The newly formed 2nd Wayne congressional district official Democratic party organization (Wayne II) held its first organizational meeting in Plymouth September 21.

Thomas H. Heary was elected chairman. Other officers are Mrs. Lois Jensen of Plymouth, first vice chairman; George Bennett of Northville, second vice chairman; Robert Dwyer of Plymouth, secretary; and John Murawski of Plymouth, treasurer.

The executive board consists of the delegates from all the precincts encompassing the second district. They are James Garber of Plymouth, Alice Woodruff of Northville, Edith Shepard of Plymouth, James Garber of Plymouth, Maurice Breen of Plymouth, Richard McGinn of Plymouth, Jane Zobel of Plymouth, Eugene Rice of Northville, Harvey Kahalas of Plymouth, and Clark Finley of Plymouth.

The chairman appointed Mrs. Woodruff to head the program and agenda committee.

Purpose of this meeting was to inspect the general welfare, working order and chairman's books and to check on the various activities of the auxiliary to see that the national program is being enforced.

At this meeting the auxiliary voted for the cancer group insurance program for all of its members. It required 100% participation and the vote was unanimous.

The meeting was followed by a luncheon served to members and guests.

The fourth district meeting of the ladies auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held at the Northville Post 4012 September 13. The Northville auxiliary was hostess for the quarterly meeting.

Helene Werbin, district president, called the meeting to order. National and department officers were present.

Discussed at the meeting were plans for the annual hospital party at Ypsilanti State hospital October 22. Donations of food, money and clothing will be accepted.

Plans for the district dance and district past commanders and past presidents banquet were discussed. The various chairmen gave their reports and explained the functions of their chairmanships.

At the conclusion of the meeting, dinner was served by the hostess auxiliary.

Punt, Pass On Tap Saturday

A punt, pass and kick competition sponsored by John Mach Ford Agency will be held this Saturday morning. It was incorrectly reported previously that the event was last week.

Some 120 boys between 8 and 13 have already signed up. Registration ends at 6 p.m. tomorrow at the local auto agency.

Boys will vie in their own age group. Prizes for the 8 through 10-year-olds are: 1st, warm-up jacket; 2nd, place kicking outfit; and 3rd, a football. Boys 11 through 13 will be squaring off for plaques.

Local winners will have their scores entered in zone competition. Grand prize is a "tour of champions" with parents of Washington, D.C.

'Youth in Focus' Program Friday

"Youth in Focus", a program sponsored by the Northville Woman's club, will be held at 2 p.m. in the community building. All members are urged to invite their teen-aged daughters to attend.

Carol Yahnke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Yahnke, Jr. of Eaton drive, will report on her experience as a delegate to Girls State at Michigan State university, last summer. Miss Yahnke was sponsored by the local chapter of the Woman's club.

Karen Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Lang of Stratford court, a senior at Northville high school, will entertain the group with a demonstration of her hobby, handwriting analysis.

Rounding out the program of youthful talent will be musical selections by the Madrigal Singers, a local group composed of Linda Polack, Gretchen Schneider, Larry Wood and James Drew.

Following the program refreshments will be served.

Appeal Board Denies Garage

The board of appeals for the city of Northville heard two requests last week, granting one and denying the other.

A request to build a three-car garage by Oliver Collins, 335 First street, was denied. Under the city's building code, a house and auxiliary buildings cannot cover more than 25 per cent of a residential lot. On this basis the permit to build was denied.

The appeal was actually a re-hearing. Previously, Collins had been issued a building permit. He complained that it had been withdrawn after he had torn down his old garage. A neighbor, George Kohs of Cady street, took the position that the city had no right to hear Collins' appeal a second time. It had been denied once by the board, but the building dimensions used in making the first denial were inaccurate.

Earl Van Cise, 681 Allen drive, was permitted to complete a side porch on his home, which had been started by a previous owner, without a building permit.

Alert Citizen Helps Police Catch Offender of Youth

An alert citizen and fast action by the Northville police department resulted in the arrest of a 23-year-old man here Tuesday on a charge of gross indecency between male persons.

The accused enticed a seven-year-old boy into his car and later made the boy disrobe, although no criminal assault took place.

By Tuesday evening local police had apprehended and placed Richard Anthony Palmieri, 23, under arrest. He is a resident of Detroit and an employee of the Ford Motor company valve plant in Northville. Palmieri has a previous record on the same charge, Police Chief Eugene King reported.

Palmieri was stated to be arraigned before Northville Justice Charles McDonald on Wednesday. If the Wayne county prosecutor upholds the charge, it could result in a sentence up to five years in prison.

The sequence of events surrounding the incident as reported by Chief King went like this: When the youngster was returning home from school Tuesday afternoon a man in a white car stopped at the intersection of Grace and Eighth Mile road. He asked the boy to get in, sit below the seat, close his eyes. He said they "would look for his dog and go to the cabin."

The act was observed by a resident of the area who obtained the car license number and called the police.

The accused drove 200 feet north of Hill street on Grace, parked and took the boy into a small cabin. After asking the boy to disrobe, the accused released the boy.

Northville police traced the car to the Detroit address, where Detroit police apprehended Palmieri. Both the witness and the boy made a positive identification, police stated.

Campaigning Governor Sets Fast Pace

With the November 3 general election approaching, Governor George Romney is running hard for re-election.

And he can leave you breathless.

If his visit last Friday afternoon to the Novi-Wixom area is any indication of his vitality, the Governor should try out for the Olympic decathlon team.

Walking at a fast clip, he soon outdistanced his aides and the press as he toured three local manufacturing plants.

Apparently he was making up for lost time — he got off schedule earlier in Farmington. Romney showed up at his first stop in Novi at 2:45 p.m., 45 minutes late.

Springing from his car — a Rambler, of course — he was effervescent and looked trim. At once he launched his political sales talk and shook hands with office personnel at General Filters, Inc.

Racing down a corridor, he managed to meet 10 employees in about as many seconds. Before two photographers could get a picture set up, the Governor opened another door and nonchalantly introduced himself to production workers.

In the next few minutes, his partisan fervor emerged. Waving or pointing a finger, he told a group of workers that "two years ago, Michigan was in a mess — but now confidence has been restored — now it's on top — let's keep Michigan moving —"

Turning, he motioned to his assistants and said: "Let's go." He took off with the press hot in pursuit.

But Romney had too much of a headstart. His car was already on Grand River and heading toward Interlake Windows.

A minute or so later, however, your reporter was just behind Romney — his economy job couldn't outrun a gas guzzler.

At Interlake there was time for two pictures, but little else as Romney sped through the loading, storage and assembly areas of the plant shaking hands along the way.

But he was stationed in one place at the final spot on his agenda — the main gate at the Ford Motor company assembly plant in Wixom. Your reporter relaxed.

Romney was in friendly territory. A few months ago, Henry Ford II, board chairman of the auto firm, publicly endorsed the Governor for another term. And most Ford workers were enthusiastic about Romney.

Typical remarks: "Hello, Governor — Here's the man I want to meet — When are you going to clear up the newspaper strike? — 'I've been waiting a long time to see you—"

Few workers rebuffed his handshake.

In touring the Novi-Wixom area last Friday, Governor Romney stopped off at three local manufacturing plants — General Filters, Interlake Window and the Ford assembly plant in Wixom. Above the Governor is shown with Mrs. Grace Redner, president of General Filters.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

HERE ARE THE RULES

Take a plain piece of paper and number down the left hand side from 1 to 24.

You will notice that each square below is also numbered from 1 to 24 and each contains a football game to be staged this coming weekend. To complete your entry you must do the following:

- (1) after each number on your paper write the name of the sponsor of the corresponding numbered square.
- (2) following the sponsor's name — write the name of the winning team.
- (3) in addition you must pick a score on the outcome of the game in square 24. This will be used in the case of a tie and then the contestant whose score is closest to the actual score will be declared the winner.

Be sure to write your name, address and phone number plainly on your piece of paper (your entry).

Enter just once a week, but you may enter as many weeks as you wish. In case of ties, prize money will be split.

Copies of the contest will be posted at the Northville Record and South Lyon Herald office each week.

Entries must be postmarked or brought to either of our offices no later than 5 p.m. each Friday.

How can you know you'll like an electric water heater?

We guarantee it!

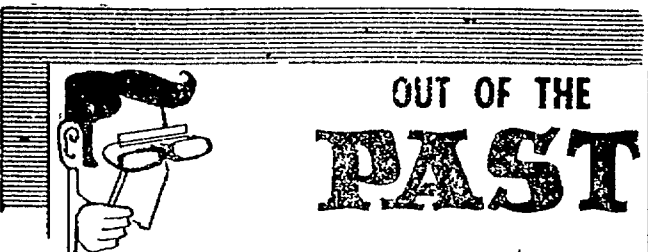

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
BY DETROIT EDISON

We're so sure you'll like an electric water heater, we guarantee your satisfaction—for a whole year! If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, you get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter where you bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

EDISON

P.S. If you buy an electric water heater during October, we'll see that you get a free GE double-bed-size electric blanket. (As if you really needed the extra push.)

This offer is good at participating appliance dealers, department stores, or plumbing contractors. Just look for our free offer display.

ONE YEAR AGO —
Fullback Ron Rice scored all of Northville's 33 points as the Mustangs conquered the Holly Broncos, who scored but once.
Bov Springer of Novi won first place in the Northern pike division of the Michigan Outdoors fishing contest. He caught a 21 pound, 7 ounce beauty in the upper peninsula in June.

Steve Juday sparked in his debut as starting sophomore quarterback for Michigan State University. Juday engineered the Spartans to a 31-0 victory over North Carolina Ken Rowe, former Northville baseball star, picked up his first win in a relief role with the Dodgers and he may be in line for action in the world series with the Yankees.

Northville township board considered purchasing a five-acre site for a future township hall, located on Sheldon and Six Mile road. The parcel is priced at $13,000.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new junior high school in Novi were set for October 13.

Extension of a water line to Northville is expected even sooner than originally planned. And with it comes a new offer by the city of Detroit that has prompted township officials to re-examine its choice of sources for residents of the "dry-well" south-east section of the township.

FIVE YEARS AGO
Young Door plant facilities at 45420 Grand River in Novi were sold to Michigan Midjet Movies of Detroit, manufacturers of kiddie rides and coin-operated machines. Young Door is moving its operations to Indiana for a "better geographic location for distribution."

Northville councilmen are expected to approve pay raises for all city employees at their next meeting Monday night. The increase has been under consideration but no definite recommendations have been made to date. Privately, however councilmen have admitted that they favor hikes for all city workers.

Northville scored another strike on the gridiron Friday after losing the opener two weeks ago. The Mustangs bowled over the Holly Broncos, 27-0, to post their 26th W — O league victory.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
The Mustangs will begin a five-game home stand under the lights tomorrow night at Ford field when they take on the Holly Broncos. Northville defeated Holly last year, 24-7, an improved Mustang eleven battled to a 6-6 tie last Friday with Dexter. Lee Holman scored the only Mustang touchdown.

At a special school board meeting, the bid of Halsey, Stuart and Company of Chicago for the purchase of $165,000 of bonds was accepted. The board set a levy of 7 mills on the school district property for payment and interest on the voted bond issue for the nine-room addition to the elementary school.

Northville Downs closed its 1949 harness season last week-end. The mutual handle showed about an 18 per cent drop from last year when the take was $11 million.

The public is invited to the scout building every Saturday afternoon at 1:15 p.m. during the football season to see their favorite games on television.

The Novi Farm Bureau elected new officers. J. W. Erwin, chairman, A. J. Heslop, vice-chairman, Iva Christensen, secretary, Frank Dunham, discussion leader and Harold Miller, recreation leader.

OUT OF THE PAST

TWENTY — FIVE YEARS AGO

Willard Ely was elected to the Northville board of education at a special election. He was opposed by Merrill C. Sweet and fills the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Sherill W. Ambler, a trustee for 11 years.

Two Northville students, Lucille Lapham and Laura Marie Lord, made high scores in an English examination taken upon entrance to Albion College. Both were among the first 25 in the test.

Mrs. Arthur C. Carlson took over the president's chair of the auxiliary of the Lloyd H. Green Post in an installation conducted by Mrs. W. H. Johnston.

Marie Angove was named to head the Orange and Black columns for the school year by members of the journalism class.

There were 1,032 telephones in service in Northville in September, a gain of 15 over August, according to Michigan Bell officials.

Mrs. B. E. Larson resigned after serving five years as custodian of the Northville branch of the Wayne county library. Her successor was Mrs. Carl H. Bryan.

The Mustangs will play their first night game in the school's history Friday at Melvindale.

Two cheer leaders — Phyllis Jones and Louie Babbili — were introduced to the student body at a recent pep rally.

Northville school enrollment is only 27 students short of last year's all-time high of 838, school officials reported.

Fined $15 For Cursing

It doesn't pay to talk back to a judge's secretary — especially in a vulgar tone. Floyd C. Carr, of 327 Kentucky avenue in Monroe, paid a $15 fine last Thursday for cursing and swearing by the name of God August 20 on the telephone. Jean Forbes, secretary for Novi Judge Robert K. Anderson, was on the other end of the line.

A bench warrant had been issued for Carr's arrest on two counts. Besides using foul language, he was charged August 17 with reckless driving. A local resident had signed a complaint against Carr.

He was arrested in Monroe and spent the night in Oakland county jail. The next day, August 21, he was arraigned before Judge Allen C. Ingle in Anderson's stead. Carr stood mute and was released on $500 bond on each count.

In Anderson's courtroom last week, it was uncovered that Carr was not driving recklessly. He was falsely identified — the complainant jotted down the wrong license plate number.

But for using profanity he was reprimanded and assessed the fine.

— Goodwill Pick-up —

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pickup, call the local Goodwill representative ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

YES, SIR, DAD — Colonel Ward H. Van Atta (right), who recently assumed command of the Army map service of the U.S. corps of engineers, administers the oath of office as a second lieutenant in the Army ordnance reserve to his son Peter. Lt. Van Atta is a 1964 graduate of Michigan State university with a bachelors degree in electrical engineering.

Colonel Van Atta was born and raised in Northville and was commissioned in the Army corp of engineers in 1937 after graduating from MSU. Mrs. Fred Van Atta, the colonel's mother and lieutenant's grandmother, reside at 136 East Cady.

St. Paul's Plans Mission Week

A week long "open house" schedule of services and special events directed toward Michigan's non-church going residents is scheduled for October 25-29 in some 250 churches of the Missouri Synod, according to the Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church, High and Elm streets, Northville.

"Actually the program has already begun," Pastor Pankow pointed out. "Community canvassers have been held in many of the parishes, some as early as last spring."

Start of the "mission week" will be marked by a "Families for Christ" rally to be held Sunday, October 25 at 3:30 p.m. at the State Fair Coliseum. Rally speaker will be the Rev. Theodore Raedeke, director of the synod's national evangelism work.

An area-wide "youth rally" will be held the night before at 7:30 p.m. at the coliseum.

During the week, concerted effort will be made to bring both the member families and unchurches families to a greater Christian commitment, hence the name — "Families for Christ."

Lutherans will urge their neighbors and friends who have no regular church home to visit the special services that have been arranged for each evening Monday through Thursday, October 26-29, at 7:15 p.m.

Guest speakers from all over the midwest will be featured in each participating congregation. The services will also include Bible study, a hymn sing, and a segment devoted to youth and children. The Rev. Dr. Andrew Melendez of St. Louis, Missouri, will be the guest missionary here.

The "Families for Christ" committee at St. Paul's church is headed by Mr. Carl Waidelich, general chairman.

Other members of the committee include: Egon Rodenbeck, Ralph Williams, Elmer Scheunemann, Harry Larkin, Nelson Liebold, Melvin Johnson and Elmer Weber.

Gates Retires At Mich. Bell

Aubrey A. Gates, 6643 Napier road, retired from Michigan Bell Telephone Company October 1 to end a 39-year career with the firm.

A native of Plymouth, Gates started with Michigan Bell there as a lineman. He continued working there installing telephones and repairing switchboards until he was transferred to the Northville office in 1951.

Retiring as an exchange repairman in the company's Plymouth office, where he was transferred in 1960, Gates' work has included the maintenance of most types of outside telephone equipment, and the repair of telephones in homes and business establishments.

Gates and his wife, Doris, have two children Terrence, a Michigan Bell installer at Plymouth, and Mrs. Cynthia Darling. They also have four grandchildren.

STUDENTS WELCOMED — Rev. Lester E. Phipps, president of the Appalachian Bible Institute in Bradley, West Virginia, greets two freshmen students from Northville, Richard Marshall and Lou Ann Casteel. Lou Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Casteel, 649 Horton, and Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, 727 Carpenter. Both students are members of First Baptist church and 1964 graduates of Northville high school.

For The Gardener

This column on gardening information is compiled by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

What next spring's garden will look like depends largely on what you do this Fall. Take advantage of brisk autumn days to make any garden changes you have in mind. Think in terms of maintenance, too. Someone (usually meaning you) has to do the work. So, plan to reduce unnecessary drudgery to a minimum. Then you will have more time for the things you enjoy doing.

Search your catalogues carefully for spring flowering bulbs. Daffodils and tulips are always outstanding and some of the new ones are sensational. Put these in choice locations in your garden and don't overlook the small bulbs — snowdrops, squills, chionodoxas, species tulips, crocus and grape hyacinths. They lend a lot of interest as well as big splashes of solid color if you mass them in large enough numbers. Order early to get the varieties you want.

Perennials need to be divided and replanted: iris, peonies, lily-of-the-valley, phlox, and many others. Prepare your beds carefully because they grow for several seasons without having to be moved. Discard some of your older varieties in favor of improved types.

Beds for roses should also be well prepared and in many areas underdrained to insure deep root growth. Whenever manure is available the rose bed deserves a generous application worked into the soil. Deep spading now and early ordering are important. The plants will arrive fresh and in excellent condition, ready to establish strong root systems before winter. Check over your present roses for insects and disease like black spot and mildew. The newer dusts or sprays are so effective that it is wise to use them.

Lawns can be remade this month or reworked to improve their vigor. Good soil preparation is the first requisite of a good lawn. Second is good seed. Without it the best soil will not make a satisfactory lawn. Topdress old lawns with a light application of loam and reseed at the rate of two pounds of seed to 1000 square feet, but no amount of topdressing will take the place of feeding. Lawns in good shape should be fed a good high nitrogen fertilizer. In heavy soil aerating is also worthwhile and should be done at least once a year.

Evergreens and deciduous shrubs can be planted from now on. Change your existing planting, introduce new plants or complete your planting effects with woody materials. New shrubs will do a lot to pep up your garden and make your garden more beautiful next spring.

ENDURANCE RUNNERS — With six meets under its belt, the Schoolcraft college cross-country team confronts Port Huron in a meet tomorrow. Tony Rizzo (left) is the coach and Marv Gans (right) is athletic director for the college. Members of the team are (back row, left to right) Tom Lepping, Malcolm Ramsay, Glenn Klos, Nikola Sihon, and Keith Watson. Kneeling are (left to right): Wolf Flees, Bob Geist, Dennis Brant and Jerry Koski. Other intramural sports — tennis, golf and touch football — are also in progress at the school.

NEW LOOK — A. Schiller, president of Northville Coach Lines, stands in the doorway of the first new bus ever purchased by his firm. Previously the line obtained used equipment. It is a 37-passenger diesel and will operate on the Northville to Five Points run. Schiller said another bus is on order but won't be delivered until after the United Auto Workers strike against General Motors is settled. Price of the two buses is $35,000.

LET'S TALK CARS . .

HOW TO READ ADVERTISING

There are several schools of thought on automobile advertising.

Some dealers subscribe to the idea of listing the car without prices, with the purpose of attracting customers out of curiosity. Others list prices, but pick out a late model junker they can advertise at a low price. The idea here is to entice the public to their lot on the hope of getting a bargain.

Still other dealers advertise and so down," etc — Here the idea is to intrigue the buyer with little cash by emphasizing small payments. This is apparently done on the assumption that most buyers do not realize longer finance terms mean higher finance charges. Or that all dealers can offer them the same terms.

The type that most misleads the public, however, is a vicious type of false price advertising in which the dealer advertises his cars at prices that cannot possibly leave him a profit. Since no business can operate without a profit, this type of dealer is then forced into endless trickery and shenanigans to snatch back the profit he advertised he was giving away.

We believe in plainly pricing cars. When we advertise prices they are TRUE prices, either for new cars (with accessories listed) or good quality reconditioned used cars. We will not misrepresent a car to sell it. Our advertising may not entice as many customers as some other, but experience shows more of them STAY our customers.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

I'm getting awfully bored with breakfasts without the Free Press and post-dinner periods without the News.

This being National Newspaper Week (October 11-17) it seems an appropriate time to complain.

I can't buy any theories that the absence of Detroit newspapers helps local business.

It floods the community with pitifully-poor substitutes; it encourages throw-away shopper publications; it leaves conscientious newspaper readers sadly uninformed.

Radio and television do not fill the gap. They try hard, but these mediums complement the written word. They can never replace it.

Suburban weekly newspapers, like ours, have enjoyed greatly increased sales on the newsstands. And all suburban publications have received some additional revenues from display advertising, especially in automotive new model announcements.

Several of the near-Detroit papers have had whopping advertising gains.

But, in my opinion, there are no financial gains large enough to offset the loss of the most valuable source of information we possess, our daily newspapers.

To those who would pretend to fill this void with news-less publications concocted to grab off a few advertising dollars, I have no sympathy. And I suspect their adventure will prove less profitable than their expectations.

To the representatives of management and labor involved in the three-month-old Detroit newspaper strike I would hope sincere consideration of their responsibility to the public would soften the position of both sides enough to bring about agreement — and renewed publication.

That would give reason for all of us to celebrate National Newspaper Week.

I read an interesting article (in a Chicago daily) recently that contained good advice for all parents.

It urged mothers and fathers of school children not to downgrade teachers.

The point of the article was that children who think well of their teachers, and suppose their parents do, learn best from them.

The author proposes that parents take the attitude that "teacher knows best". Even though there might be some truth in the child's complaint, the belief that he was mistreated can grow out of proportion, it is pointed out.

If you really think something's wrong, wait a few days until you have control of yourself, then talk with the principal or teacher.

But, remember, the usefulness of many a teacher has been seriously impaired by a remark at a bridge table, party or church meeting.

The prospect of sewer and water facilities in Novi have sent property values up, while attracting many developers to the area.

The Detroit water line extending along Eight Mile road and north on Haggerty to 10 Mile will be looped with a 16-inch line running along 10 Mile to Meadowbrook, then south back to the Detroit line on Eight Mile.

This should be completed by spring. The 42-inch sewer extending to 10 Mile from the interceptor in Northville will soon be completed. Developers have already bid for most of the taps and lateral lines are certain to reach out to many new homes in the near future.

In some quarters it's been suggested that Novi should again take a long look at city incorporation in the face of prospective development and resulting need for governmental services.

For a closer, here's a story (probably not true) that made me laugh:

A carpenter stood gazing silently at the crib where his firstborn lay gurgling.

After watching the tender scene for a moment, his wife tiptoed over and put her arm through his.

"A penny for your thoughts, dear," she whispered.

"I can't get over it," answered the carpenter softly. "How the devil can they turn out a crib like this for only $29."

New Faces to Take Over Legislature

Lansing — Extremely high turnover in legislative membership next year will increase the problems of state executives.

Several department heads had planned a big push for approval of major budget hikes for the next fiscal year now that Michigan's books are in the black. These plans were made before the present legislative apportionment plan was approved.

Convincing some of the long-term lawmakers it is time for less conservative budget-writing would have been hard enough in itself, but with a new majority rule in the House and a high percentage of new members in the Senate, this tough job is complicated even more.

Department heads will have to get to know the members, their pet projects and dispositions.

Two administrative chiefs will feel this complication particularly. Both the heads of the Conservation and Mental Health Departments are new to their jobs since the current year budget appeals were made.

They will have the task of not only getting to know new members and selling their programs, but of convincing the old-timers they have the administrative ability for which they were selected.

New Conservation Director Ralph A. MacMullen is not entirely new to state government, having served previously in his department's game division.

He is hoping the new Legislature will bring a major change in past behavior where his department is concerned. He will again plead for repeal of the bounty system, a $250,000 item which has failed to pass during several previous attempts.

Saying he can "defend every dime" of a proposed $33 million budget, MacMullen says his request represents "catching up" after 10 years of enforced austerity which have shrunk the department's employe force and buying power.

He proposes $8.5 million alone for improved and added state park facilities for campers, picnickers and swimmers, an area of development in which he will get outside lobbying help.

Only time will tell whether the surplus on the books and the new legislators will give department chiefs the money they have been waiting for during the long austerity periods.

A chronic teacher shortage still exists in Michigan despite the sharp increases in college enrollments and completions, Department of Public Instruction records show.

Michigan schools experience a dropout of about 5,000 teachers annually who do not return to their jobs, and a need for an additional 3,000 professionals to fill new positions.

The most serious shortage remains at the elementary level, although certain subject areas in secondary schools also lack capable instructors.

Despite many years of attempting to eliminate the special certificate for full-time teachers, Department records this Fall showed about 4,500 positions in public schools had to be filled by teachers holding these special permits.

The number of special certificates in use by persons who have not fulfilled all educational requirements for regular certificates has dropped over the years, however.

Department officials say the reduction in special certificates has been significant but must be further lessened "so that all children in the state will be taught by fully prepared teachers."

The perennial attempt to eliminate Michigan's sales tax and replace this major revenue source with a state lottery and off-track betting laws may be missing next year.

This set of proposals has been introduced during most of the past 10 years by Representative E. A. Fitzpatrick, Detroit Democrat.

While Fitzpatrick usually obtained several members to join him in sponsoring his series of repeal bills and new proposals, very few members voiced very serious convictions on the program.

Fitzpatrick was one of several House members dropped from the election list in the primary balloting.

His main objection to the sales tax was that it hit the low income family hardest.

Substituting the sales tax and several of the so-called nuisance taxes with an off-track betting system and state lottery would more than replace the lost revenue, he contended.

Nation Needs Revival

Babson Park, Massachusetts. The "revival", which has had an important place in the religious life of many in the United States, is largely a Protestant phenomenon. It has been conducted in some cases by local ministers, but in most cases by a specialist who came at the request of the local churches.

In the olden days, some of these preachers would describe the horrors of perpetual torment in an effort to scare — if they couldn't persuade — members of their audience into improving their religious lives.

More recently, revivalists have placed less emphasis on the horrors of hell, but stressed the departure into sin of many from the "straight and narrow way". They have called on listeners to "repent of their sins" and "be born again".

The latter occurs (1) as a result of an awakening by people to their need of a change in heart and life and (2) as a result of their making a personal and total commitment to God. A true experience of this sort changes them from persons averse to all things religious into devoted religious individuals, willing and anxious to help others achieve the same new relationship with God.

Dr. Billy Graham has recently completed a series of revival meetings in Boston preaching to some 200,000 persons in 10 days. In his first sermon he insisted that we must "be born again." This brings to my mind my youth in Gloucester, Massachusetts where I first heard the Reverend Dwight L. Moody, the most famous of the nineteenth century evangelists, preach on the same subject. He was assisted by Dr. Munhall. I was won over by his appeal, and walked up the aisle and signed a pledge which was turned over to the church that my family attended.

In truth, I was born again that day. I left my old careless way of life and became interested in religion, especially in Christian Endeavor, a youth group founded by Dr. Frances E. Clark in 1881. The central purpose of Christian Endeavor was to tie young people to the life of the church through a pledge to support the church and by regular attendance at meetings they conducted themselves. I became so sincere in my devotion to Christian Endeavor that when I was to lead the grand march of the High School Cadets, I first attended the Christian Endeavor meeting while my partner waited for me. That early interest has stayed with me through many later years. I have endeavored to carry out those principles and have participated in the life of my local churches. Moreover, I was at one time Moderator of the National Conference of the Congregational Christian Churches.

Readers will recall that I have pointed out many times that every major depression in this country has been followed by a great spiritual awakening — with one exception. My reason for discussing this subject right now is that Dr. Graham is here in my New England area, pointing the way to a spiritual rebirth for thousands upon thousands who nightly crowd the auditorium and overflow to the grounds outside. From my observation, I feel strongly that this may well be a big step toward that spiritual revival for our nation which it has failed to experience during the many years since the big depression of the 1930's.

Dr. Graham's message is essentially the same one I have tried to hammer home to readers in the past. He points out that the situation in the U.S. today bears the same marks as those which preceded the fall of the Roman Empire: Rising divorce rate — with 12 million children who no longer live with their parents; a nation insanely bent on pleasure; a nation building huge armaments against an outside foe, when the real danger lies within the hearts of its citizens, rising church attendance, but with religion largely decaying into mere form; high and rising taxes.

One of my men tells me that he has been to every one of the Boston meetings. Over all, 7% of those attending have signed "decision cards" such as I signed when I went up the aisle in the D. L. Moody meetings. The tenth night of the crusade saw the largest response ever recorded at a regular Billy Graham Crusade meeting in the U.S. — 12.5% of the audience.

I cannot stress too strongly the importance of such a spiritual commitment. I agree wholeheartedly with Dr. Graham that the only way we can remain free and can continue to prosper as a nation is through a great spiritual and moral reawakening.
