

Opening of Santa's Workshop Hails Christmas Season

SANTA'S HELPERS — Adults as well as youngsters will thrill at the Santa's Workshop which will serve as Santa's headquarters in Northville. Mrs. Ethel Hummel (seated), Mrs. Isabell Partridge and Mrs. Ruth Lutz are shown preparing one of the elves. Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLean of the Spinning Wheel Fabric Shop were in charge of the project. In addition to the women above they had help from Mrs. Charles Lapham, Mrs. Donald Hoover, Mrs. Douglas Slessor, Mrs. Nina Bloomhuff, Mrs. Edward Eskie and Mrs. Doris Baker. The workshop opens Friday at 3 p.m. at the American Legion building.

The excitement of the Christmas season will begin as Thanksgiving departs Thursday evening. On Thanksgiving night the traditional lighting of the Christmas decorations in the business district will take place.

And beginning Friday Northville merchants open their annual Christmas shopping promotion. This year there'll be a new and exciting treat in store for youngsters. Santa will be stationed in his workshop, a wonderland of toys and dolls, and complete with a host of elf-sized helpers. The Santa headquarters is located at the American Legion hall, Dunlap at Center street.

Santa will be on hand each Friday and Saturday afternoon beginning Friday at three o'clock to greet his small friends and provide them with a candy treat. The exact hours during which Santa will be in his Northville workshop are published on page one, section two. In addition to the workshop headquarters for Santa local retailers have added new sparkle to their Christmas lighting display. It will feature several first-time displays. Most merchants will begin staying open evenings until Christmas starting Friday.

Post Office Timetable Set On Yule Mail

A little planning during the Thanksgiving holiday can help avoid the "Christmas Rush". Postmaster Leland Smith reminded residents this week.

The Northville postmaster has some tips which will not only put ZIP into Christmas mailing, but help local postal employees move the record-breaking mountain of mail that is expected this Christmas season.

1. Find last year's Christmas mailing list. If you don't find it, or didn't have one, make one up.

2. Check to see that all addresses are correct. The phone book is usually a good source for local addresses.

3. Wherever possible, add the ZIP Code to the addresses on the list. Because ZIP Codes speed your mail, always include the code for your area in return addresses. This is the best way to inform friends, relatives and business associates of the code number for your area.

4. Determine your list of gift purchases which must be mailed. Such planning allows you to shop early when selections are greatest and you can stock up on mailing materials in advance. Be sure to purchase enough material so that parcels will be packed securely.

Important deadlines were underscored by the postmaster. They are:

to Hawaii and Alaska by November 30; gift parcels to distant U.S. points by December 5; air parcels to APO's by December 10; greeting cards to distant U.S. points by December 10; local gift parcels by December 14 and local greeting cards by December 15.

The postmaster emphasized that poorly wrapped and loosely packed cartons are the major cause of parcel post damage.

He suggested that the address be written on only one side of the exterior wrapping and that a duplicate be included inside the carton, in case the outer covering is not secure and comes off.

Smith said that the post office department in Washington is predicting that a record seven billion pieces of mail will move through the postal system during the Christmas rush.

"The cooperation of all mailers is vital for us to deliver each holiday card, letter and package before Christmas day. A little planning will make the Christmas rush less hectic for everyone."

Area Churches Plan Thanksgiving Services

Inter-Urban Trail

This trail along West Eight Mile road marks one of the few remaining area signs of the Detroit Urban Railway, which once whizzed along the above path at speeds up to 70 mph. The picture was taken on the south side of Eight Mile road facing the Griswold road intersection. The DUR came from Detroit along Grand River swinging south through Farmington on Farmington road to Eight Mile. It cut to the south side of Eight Mile at Haggerty and into Northville on Griswold. It would turn south off Griswold at a Y-intersection onto Main street, then "back" into the village on Main street to Center before returning to Detroit. The line also extended down South Main to Plymouth, Wayne and Detroit along another route. According to Attorney Edmund Yerkes, who provided the information on the line's route, the DUR offered speedy service every hour. It operated from 1899 until 1927.

Most area churches will fling open their doors this week for traditional Thanksgiving services.

Many congregations in Northville, Novi, Salem and Wixom will rejoice for their blessings Wednesday evening or Thursday morning.

A few churches, however, celebrated Sunday with special hymns and prayers.

A united protestant service is slated for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at First Methodist church in Northville under the auspices of the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches.

Reverend Lloyd Brasure of First Presbyterian will deliver a sermon entitled "Thanks Be To God." Host pastor, Reverend S. D. Kinde, will preside.

Music will be provided by the sanctuary choir under the direction of John Grew and the offering will be turned over to CROP — the Christian Rural Overseas Relief program.

Both clergymen stressed that the service will bring before the parishioners the customary hymns and ritual as prepared by the Augsburg (Lutheran) publishing house.

"The Twin T's of Our Christian Life — Thanking God and Trusting in Him" will be the subject of Reverend B. J. Pankow's sermon to be presented at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church.

His message is based on Psalm 146.

Rev. Pankow noted that choir director Warren Zabell will lead his group in "Praise to the Lord Almighty" during the service.

First Baptist church of Northville will offer a 9 a.m. Thursday praise and prayer service, according to Reverend Robert Spradling. Music will be provided under the direction of Dewey Gardner. Rev. Spradling will give a brief devotional message on the theme of Thanksgiving.

A Mass of Thanksgiving is scheduled at 8 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Victory church. Reverend Father John Wittstock said the collection is for underprivileged people in the parish.

In addition, Father Wittstock said a used clothing drive that was launched Sunday will continue until next Sunday for the poor and needy overseas.

Full Salvation Union on Eight Mile will conduct special meetings at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. beginning Thursday and running through Sunday, said general pastor James F. Andrews.

In Novi, Reverend Paul Barnes of First Baptist announced that a 7:30 p.m. Wednesday service is scheduled including special music, testimony and scripture passages by members of the congregation. Pastor Barnes will render a short devotional message.

Climaxing the service will be the baptism of Mrs. Warren "Tait," Mrs. Clarence Stipp, Mrs. Del King and Sue Presnell.

Holy communion will be celebrated during the Church of the Holy Cross 9 a.m. Thursday service in the vicarage chapel, 44080 Marston in Novi. Reverend Peter Tonella of the Episcopal congregation will speak on "Thanksgiving in the Space Age."

Novi Methodist Church and Willowbrook Community church will be dark Thanksgiving day. Special hymns and prayers were part of the regular worship Sunday. "We Give Thank" was the title of Reverend Marvin Rickett's sermon at Willowbrook Community while Reverend R. LaVere Webster of Novi Methodist talked on the "Meaning of Thanksgiving."

Both pastors said "many of our people plan to go 'home' for Thanksgiving." At Salem Federated church, Reverend Elwood Chipchase will emphasize Thanksgiving during the regular 7:30 p.m. Wednesday service.

Traffic Rolling Again On Novi Road Curve

After a long wait, the bottleneck at Novi road and Eight Mile, cut-off has finally been straightened out.

Frazer Staman, Oakland county road commissioner, said the road has been improved leading out of Northville and passed its final inspection Tuesday.

It was then officially opened to traffic.

Unofficially, area motorists had been using new sections of the road as they were completed since the project began in mid-August.

Cost of the project was $104,764 with Oakland and Wayne counties splitting the bill 50-50. It was finished a week later than anticipated.

Construction was undertaken at two points to alleviate the flow of traffic into Northville. The sharp curve on Novi road was made larger and not so tight. Then Eight Mile was widened from the overpass to Horton street.

Next, Novi road was blocked off at Novi avenue and two double-lane connection strips were laid to link Novi road and Eight Mile.

At the other end of the project, workers eliminated the fork at the point where Old Baseline road and the cut-off came together just east of the Northville city limits.

A "larger" turn island was built at the junction to accommodate cars entering and leaving Northville and Old Baseline ends there.

A safer road undoubtedly has evolved from the improvements that were made, road officials said.

Traffic on the curve is separated by a green strip 10 feet wide and 250 feet long. A new southbound lane was added on the curve.

Staman pointed out that the extra lanes on the cut-off will make it easier to turn onto Novi road.

Previously cars would be jammed up at the intersection as motorists made a left turn onto Novi avenue and then swung quickly to the right and entered Novi road.

In addition to creating congestion, the curve and Novi road - Novi avenue intersection in the past have been the scene of many accidents.

Schoolcraft Eyes 4 New Buildings

Schoolcraft college — feeling the "squeeze" of its first student body — is ready to undertake an expansion program.

At a meeting November 18, the college's board of trustees announced that bids will be opened, December 7 from $1,250,000 of bonds authorized by the voters last June.

Representatives of the architectural firms of Eberly M. Smith and Associates and Ralls, Hamill and Becker were present to discuss the construction plans for a campus center and another classroom building.

Trustees said that as soon as the bonds are sold and federal assistance is assured contracts will be let for the structures.

There is enough money to build the center and classroom facilities but the addition of a physical education and technical buildings "hinges on government aid."

Earlier, college officials were eyeing an early spring completion date for the four units.

Schoolcraft is currently housed in three buildings — administration, library and science. In addition, there is a maintenance building.

Right now, the daytime enrollment is 1,000 full-time students with 48 faculty members. Night sessions are attended by another 1,000. By 1970, some 4,800 students are expected to be taking courses.

Ground was broken for the Schoolcraft campus in June of 1963. When the proposed additions are put up, the college will represent a $5 million-plus investment.

Five school districts constitute the college district. Besides Northville, they are Plymouth, Livonia, Clarenceville and Garden City.

In other business the board of trustees:

— Gave its approval to hire a nursing instructor for the upcoming two-year registered nursing program and additional secretarial and accounting help.

— Authorized the college along with the five school districts to create a non-profit educational television corporation. Schoolcraft would like to establish a TV station for use locally but its application is pending in Washington.

Justice Court On Last Legs

Meeting in special session Monday night the Northville city council officially recognized the amendment to the city charter which establishes a municipal court.

The council learned from City Attorney Philip Ogilvie that the conversion from a justice court to a municipal court becomes effective immediately upon filing notification of the amendment with the state. Filing must take place within 30 days of the November 3 election.

Clerk Martha Milne was instructed to send the notification this week. The boost in pay to $4200 annually, which goes with the new municipal judgeship, does not take effect until the next term, however — July 4, 1965.

Election of a judge takes place with the regular city election in April. The term for municipal judge has been set at four years.

The "Silver Beaver", highest award that can be given a volunteer scout worker, was presented to Crispin M. Hammond of Northville last week.

The presentation was made at the annual meeting of the Sunset District of the Boy Scouts of America held in Livonia.

Hammond becomes the third

Northville Rotary club will present its third program at its "Travel and Adventure Series" next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The featured artist will be Howard Pollard, who will present his latest travel film, "Holiday in Quebec". Pollard is a resident of Detroit and has a background in engineering and photography.

Crispen Hammond Wins Silver Beaver Award

Northville resident to receive the Silver Beaver. The late A. C. Carlson won the high honor and two years ago Philip Ogilvie was the recipient of the award.

Hammond has been active in scouting for more than 30 years. He has been the scoutmaster of several troops, a committeeman at the district level and is presently a member-at-large on the activities committee of the Sunset district.

Hammond resides at 46100 Timber Lane with his wife, Elsie. They have six children including four boys who have been active scouts.

He has produced several films for medical and surgical use, and technical films for veterinarian instruction. He branched into travelogue photography and has produced three travel films, including: "Brazil — Under Tropical Skies", "Colorful Colorado" and now "Holiday in Quebec".

"Holiday in Quebec" is an all-color travel-film of the great province of Canada that is filled with charm of the Old World and the excitement of a new one. Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier in 1534 and settled by the French under Champlain early in the 17th century. Quebec hasn't lost its Old World flavor. Hand looms, outdoor bake ovens and spinning wheels are still in daily use.

He will also show the usual activities and scenic spots of this colorful area. Imposing buildings in Montreal and Quebec such as the great Chateau Frontenac and Ste. Anne de Beaupre are included. The scenic attractions of the Laurentian Mountains and the important structures of the St. Lawrence Seaway will long be remembered by those who see this travelogue.

Tickets are available at the door. Three more travelogues follow on January 5, February 2, and March 9 for which season tickets may be purchased.

Give A Book on Gardening for Christmas

This column on gardening information is compiled by the National Farm and Garden Northville branch of the Club.
Christmas is coming — all too soon for some of us procrastinators! For friends who are gardeners, books about gardening should be high on our list. There are many kinds available. One kind tells how to grow plants well and keep them healthy. This requires far more than knowledge of a few simple rules. For the experienced gardener or the novice there is always something to learn. That is one of the fascinations about working with plants. Age is no barrier — children love the gay color and fragrance of flowers. Grandparents welcome the latest schemes for gardening the easy way.
There are books that tell how to design gardens for year-round beauty, and how to choose the right plants for attractive effects and easy upkeep. The plan may be simple, but it should be as lovely as its owner can make it. Indoors, a few plants on a window sill still give much pleasure. Many kinds do well in a surprising amount of warmth and dryness. But given the right conditions, a year-long indoor garden is possible. There are books for the kitchen gardener. Many City folk raise a few fruits and vegetables, and the herbs that add their piquant flavorings to many dishes. A what-to-plant and how-to-do-it book would be gladly welcomed by many an amateur gardener.

What more welcome choice for a homemaker than a book on flower arrangement. This sometimes difficult, always interesting art, has many facets. There is something for every taste and every purse. So — happy choosing and happy reading!

whether the arrangements will dress the house for a party or appear at a flower show. Legends and poetry, exploration, the planning of a summer holiday trip are but a few of the extra dividends to be found in gardening books. There is something for every taste and every purse. So — happy choosing and happy reading!

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for instance. Comes with 335 hp. Or 360 at extra cost. Plus bucket seats. Carpeting. Walnut dash. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. Then there's the Le Mans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Same kind of low price. Slightly smaller teeth. So price a tiger.

Dems Praise Voters

The Northville Democratic party is deeply pleased by the great voter turnout on election day, and is glad to know that it had a part in bringing out this vote.

We thank the voters of the community for their strong support, and especially commend the courage of those citizens who put aside long-time voting habits to vote in a manner which they believed would best serve the interests of the nation.

We believe that the program of the President leading toward a realization of the principles contained in the preamble to the Declaration of Independence...

LET'S TALK CARS...

CARS AND PEOPLE

Automobiles affect different people different ways:

In Santa Monica, California, a driver was fined one dollar for over-parking but convinced the court he should only pay 48 cents. "The officer who slipped the ticket under my wiper broke it," he said, "and it cost me 52 cents to repair it."

In one of our larger cities undergoing the usual street alterations a motorist was fined recently for going the wrong way on a one-way street. Later that day he received a second ticket for going the opposite way on the same street. Naturally, in the meantime traffic was rerouted and the one-way signs were put up in the other direction.

In case you ever have to use this argument here's a case history: A late-registering motorist was driving home with his new license plates on the front seat of his car when he was ticketed for not having new plates on his car. The judge became so confused by the on and off arguments that he finally dismissed the case.

On the border of France and Switzerland, recently, some fleeing smugglers dumped a barrel of tacks on the road to delay pursuing customs men. The wary customs men drove around them but 47 motorists coming along later weren't so lucky and received flat tires.

Finally, there was a car purchaser who returned his recent purchase to a used car lot where he located the salesman who had sold him the week before. "Would you be kind enough to tell me about this car once more," he said, "I'm getting discouraged."

Cadet Alan Hill Gets Air Time

Air Force ROTC Cadet Alan L. Hill, Jr. son of A. L. Hill, Sr., 20076 Valley road, Northville received an hour's flight in an Air Force C-47 aircraft on October 17, 1964. Cadet Hill is enrolled in the freshman year of the four-year officer training program at Michigan State University.

One hundred ninety-five freshmen cadets participated in flights, which originated at Capital City Airport in Lansing. The cadets were given an aerial view of the Michigan State campus and were then flown to Brighton, Ann Arbor, Jackson, and back to Lansing. The highlight of the flight for each cadet was the opportunity to sit in the cockpit's seat and handle the controls of the aircraft for a few minutes on the flight.

The purpose of the flight was to acquaint the AFROTC freshmen with flying operations in the Air Force. Cadet Hill is one of 40 freshmen enrolled in AFROTC at Michigan State this year — the largest enrollment in AFROTC since the University adopted voluntary ROTC participation in 1962. Cadet Hill, an electrical engineering major, will receive a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force upon completion of the AFROTC program and graduation from Michigan State in 1968.

Men in Uniform

Second Lieutenant Robert P. Starnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rumley of 441 Butler, Northville, Mich., has completed the rigorous U. S. Air Force survival and special training course conducted by the Air Training Command at Stead AFB, Nevada.

Lieutenant Starnes, a pilot, received combat-type escape and evasion training to enable him to survive under adverse climatic conditions and hostile environments.

The lieutenant is being assigned to a unit at Travis AFB, California which supports the Military Air Transport Service mission of providing global airlift of U. S. military forces and equipment.

A graduate of Northville high school, he received his B.S. degree from the University of Louisville, Kentucky. His wife Grenda, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Brookshire of 306 Colonial drive, Florence, Alabama.

Controlman First Class J. S. Waterloo, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Waterloo of 134 Rayson recently graduated from the Ground Control Approach Controller school at Naval Air Technical Training Center, Glynco, Ga.

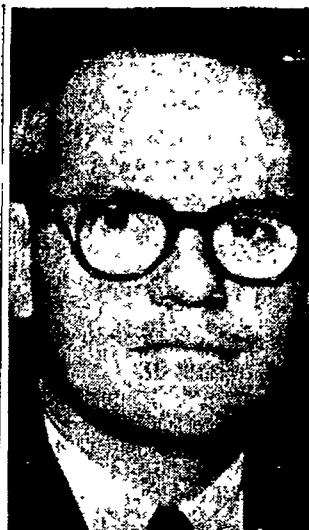

A graduate of Northville high school, Waterloo entered the service in December 1954.

Dave Filkin Studies Off-Campus Project

Kalamazoo, Mich. — David L. Filkin of Northville is among 92 Kalamazoo college seniors taking part in off-campus study during the fall quarter. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Filkin, 621 Fairbrook.

The seniors' projects range from preparing a civil war soldier's diary for publication and surveying the effectiveness of Federal Aid to practice teaching. A mathematics major, Filkin is doing research on the correlation of symmetry and the development of architecture.

Under Kalamazoo's Plan for year-around education each senior is required to study off-campus one term. The 85 fourth-year students remaining on campus this fall will undertake independent projects during the winter quarter.

PROMOTED — David G. Cameron has been appointed vice-president of marketing, and elected to the board of directors of Westran corporation, Muskegon. Cameron, a former resident of Northville, started his business career as an apprentice toolmaker at Wright Aeronautical corporation, Woodridge, New Jersey. His career includes various shop engineering and sales positions at Haller, Inc., Northville. He attended the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit Schools of Engineering.

Yost Wins Final Quiz

The curtain has fallen on another football season and the annual football contest.

Winners of the final contest were Pete Yost, 709 Fairground, Plymouth, C. O. Rapp, 12192 Inkster, Livonia, and Mrs. Muriel Hinchman, 522 Baseline, Northville.

Yost was all alone with only four wrong. He won $10. Rapp and Mrs. Hinchman tied for second with five wrong but Rapp came closest to the Lions-Vikings score with a 23-21 prediction. The game ended in a 23-23 tie and all contestants missed this contest. Rapp won $5 and Mrs. Hinchman $3.

Basketball Opener Saturday

Schoolcraft college launches its first basketball season Saturday in the Clarenceville high school gymnasium. Game time is 8 p.m.

All home contests will be played at Clarenceville, Franklin and Plymouth high schools this year but the Schoolcraft gym is expected to be finished in time for the 1966 season. Sixteen games are scheduled. Among the rivals are Adrian junior college, University of Windsor, Michigan Lutheran college, Muskegon junior college and Henry Ford community college.

Marvin Gans, athletic director, announced that the 14-man squad has been picked but noted that Schoolcraft "will have a year of building."

Jack Hooper, a five foot nine-inch guard, is the only Northville representative on the squad.

All Sports TV Station To Open Soon in Area

Plans for an early-January (1965) premier of Kaiser Broadcasting's Detroit TV outlet, WKBD, are on schedule according to Richard C. Block, vice-president and general manager of Kaiser Broadcasting Corporation.

Detroit's newest TV station is also the nation's first outlet to offer viewers a specialized format of sports during prime evening hours with emphasis on sports in the Detroit and Michigan area.

According to WKBD General Manager, John A. Serrao, Channel 50 will produce approximately 38 hours of live and live-on-tape sports each week covering professional, collegiate and interscholastic contests. Live coverage will include all (35) Detroit Red Wing road games, key basketball games of the Detroit Pistons, the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and the University of Detroit. Other U. of M., MSU and U. of D. collegiate sports: hockey, track & field, baseball, swimming, tennis, wrestling, fencing and soccer, plus football which will be televised on a 24-hour, delayed basis, beginning next fall.

High school sports will be featured Monday through Friday plus a "Game of the Week." High school coverage will be expanded to include district regional and state championships.

Other WKBD weekly features: bowling, wrestling, hot rod and auto racing, skiing, boating, roller skating, plus a nightly half-hour film wrap-up of horse racing from Detroit's tracks.

WKBD will telecast on Channel 50 (UHF) reaching an ever growing audience of TV homes accelerated by the government's all-channel law which became effective last May 1st. The law requires all TV set manufacturers to produce sets capable of receiving Channels 22 through 83. Owners of existing TV sets (purchased prior to May 1, 1964) can receive WKBD's sports programming by purchasing an inexpensive converter. The Ducker Research Company (Troy, Michigan) completed an exhaustive study of the Detroit market in May of this year and indicate that there will be over 300,000 converted or all-channel homes when WKBD goes on the air in January, and well over a half-million TV homes able to receive Channel 50 by the end of 1965.

WKBD's modern studio facilities and 1000 foot tower are located on a 50-acre site in Southfield. Remote pick-ups will be handled by the station's three fully equipped mobile units.

NOTICE

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackle is calling a public hearing at 8 p.m. on December 1, 1964 in the gymnasium of the Lee M. Thurston high school located at 26255 Schoolcraft road in Redford Township.

The purpose of this meeting is to explain to interested citizens the proposed location for Interstate Highway 96 in Wayne county outside of the city of Detroit, and in Oakland county. It is planned and proposed that Interstate 96 will be constructed as a limited access freeway with bridge separations at major crossroads and interchanges at designated points.

This meeting is called in accordance with Section 116 c of the federal aid highway act of 1956, section 128 of title 23, U.S. code. This meeting is also held to hear testimony from interested citizens regarding the economic effect of this project upon the area and communities involved.

Judy to Captain 1965 MSU Team

Steve Judy was honored by his Spartan team mates this week when he was named co-captain of the 1965 Michigan State University football team. Judy will share the field captaincy with Don Japinga, a defensive halfback.

Number one quarterback for MSU for the past two years, Judy is a junior.

He can't claim family honors as the first captain of a college eleven, however. His brother, Bill, captained the Vanderbilt squad this year.

Steve graduated from Northville high school in 1962 and was a member of Northville's undefeated football and basketball teams. Judy is also a member of the Spartan baseball team.

He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Judy of 304 Lake

Schipper, Hay Standout in Iowa

Ron Schipper and Dave Hay are doing right well at Central college in Pella, Iowa!

Schipper, former mentor of the Northville Mustangs, coached the Central Dutchmen to an 8-1 season and a share of the Iowa Conference championship.

The championship was the first for Central since 1956. The season mark gave Schipper a four-year record at Central of 28 wins, seven losses and one tie.

Hay, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hay of 46141 Sunset, was a standout on defense for Schipper's eleven.

He led the team in interceptions with eight. The senior halfback also turned in a good running record with an average of 5.2 yards for 34 carries. He scored three touchdowns for Central.

Ski Bus Service Offered Youngsters

A new idea for parents who can't take their youngsters skiing as often as they would like has been introduced by Mrs. Donald Boor of Northville.

It's a "ski bus".

The idea is to provide transportation weekly to and from Mt. Holly. While there will be some adults on the bus, the service does not include supervision other than that normally offered at the site by the ski patrol.

Mrs. Boor explained it this way:

Transportation will be provided for students who ski, or wish to learn, aboard a Northville Coach Line bus leaving Thursday, December 3 from behind the junior high school gymnasium (community building) at 3:30 p.m.

Permission slips will be available at the school offices on Monday, November 30. All children must be responsible for themselves. The bus rate is one dollar.

The bus returns to Northville around 10:30 p.m. Students must be picked up by their parents.

Reservations and permission slips must be in the school office by Wednesday afternoon.

Wrestlers, Cagers Set To Open Schedules

Biggest and best indoor sports season yet — that's what's in store for Northville fans as high school teams hustle through the third week of practice sessions.

Coach Dick Gray's matmen will get the program rolling today when they meet Livonia Bently at 6 p.m. here in the first of 19 matches. It's the biggest schedule ever for the local wrestlers.

Northville's varsity cagers will face their toughest schedule. Besides the usual dose of league and non-league contests Coach Dave Longridge's Mustangs will compete in a holiday tournament at River Rouge, December 28, 29, and 30, which promises to be a slam bang affair.

Assisting Longridge will be Mentor Alex Klukach, who will once again guide the fortunes of the junior varsity Colts.

And under the guidance of new coach Bob Kutcher, the freshman squad will also embark on a record round robin of 18 games.

Prospects for success for this year's teams is good.

Forming the backbone of the team are seven lettermen, including an all-state. They are co-captains Bob Steeper and Jerry Burns, Mike Horner, a 154 pounder, Bob Fisher at 145 pounds, Tom Wright, 103 pounds, Karry Liedtke, 112 pounds and Bob Orr a heavyweight at 180 pounds.

A 200-pound heavyweight,

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday, November 30. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pickup, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Burns is a proven veteran having copped sixth place in the state finals last year. He should lead the team along with 133 pound Steeper.

Although not as many matmen turned out this year, still more have survived the rigors of practice after three weeks — 35 grapplers. "They're a good group to work with," noted Gray, "hard workers and enthusiastic."

Hopes for a winning varsity basketball season lie with returning veterans, members of last year's squad which compiled a 5-12 record overall and 5-9 in the conference.

They are Jerry Imsland, Rick Milne, Tom Wicke, Jim St. Germain and John Callahan. Completing the roster are Mark Cushing, Steve Evans, Mike Turnbull, Tom Bingham, John Jameson, Art Forth, George Burchfield, Bob Lantry and Ron Asher.

Northville's collapse in the last half, figured Longridge, cost the Mustangs five games last year. "We led at halftime in five ball games," the Mustang coach pointed out, "and we lost each one by 15 or 20 points."

As a result, Longridge is stressing a disciplined, controlled offense. "Longridge said, 'and, of course, we'll take advantage of the fast break.'"

By emphasizing fundamentals, Longridge hopes his charges can avoid making costly mental mistakes that plagued them last year. He concedes, however, that it was a learning process, for young ball-players and as veterans they should show improvement.

The holiday tourney will test the Mustangs' mettle against strong class A and B teams, and at the same time, keep the Northville cagers in good shape for the stretch drive after the holidays.

It will be a round-robin tournament where each team will play three games win or lose. Other entries are River Rouge, perennial Class B state power, Ecorse, Lincoln Park, Monroe, Lutheran West of Detroit and Detroit Thurston.

As a primer for the December 4 opener, the Mustangs will take on Howell here in a full scale scrimmage this Saturday. The game, which will begin at 11 a.m., is open to the public.

Fundamentals and basic play patterns are the order of the day for the freshman cagers, noted Kutcher.

A newcomer to Northville, Kutcher is no stranger on the basketball court however.

He coached Brighton's varsity quintet for two years before moving here. "The basic idea is to develop the boys technically so they'll be sound in fundamentals," Kutcher declared.

Surviving the first cut to 15 players are Jim Peterson, Ralph Robinson, Bob Hubbert, Joe Andrews, Dennis Matthews, Jerry Williams, Chuck Frogger, Bobby Butts, John Brevik, Wayne Guetzwiller, Steve Quay, Rod Braun, Randy Burnett, Rick Jameson and Jerry Asher.

Mustangs Honored at Banquet

Varsity letters and special awards were handed Mustang gridders last week at the annual football banquet held at the Northville high school cafeteria.

The awards were presented by Coach Ron Horwath and his assistants, Dave Longridge and Alex Klukach.

Mustangs pictured above (l. to r.) are: Dave Kerr, named all-league center; Artie Forth, winner of the "sideline coach's" best defense award; Kent Kipper, elected by his fellow players as "most valuable" and also selected to the all-league second team at half-back; Bob Tuck, winner of the "linebacker of the year" trophy and best offensive linemen award; and Mike Turnbull, winner of the sportsman's trophy.

From Out of The Past . . . Board Hears Report On Special Education

ONE YEAR AGO —

Organization of a Northville historical society moved a step closer with the appointment of temporary officers and the selection of committee members. Mrs. Carl Johnson was named temporary chairman, Mrs. L.M. Eaton secretary and Miss Ruth Knapp treasurer.

Frederick Steeper, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Steeper of 19320 Marilyn, is one of 19 at Western Michigan university in the honors college. Steeper is a junior.

City and township taxpayers are receiving their annual "greetings" this week in the form of school, county and township tax notices. Winter taxes are payable December 1.

FIVE YEARS AGO —

Michigan's cash crisis — a dilemma which has made the state the focal point of unwanted publicity — is seemingly producing a "delayed reaction" from its own communities, long suffering from curtailment of state money.

Citizens in Novi, resentful that their school district face the necessity of borrowing money for the second time to meet operating expenses, will stage a bonfire rally to protest the condition next Tuesday.

Fred Stefanski, assistant principal of the high school, is leading the 1959 Christmas seal sale here with the assistance of the Northville Woman's club and the Future Nurses club.

Three seniors at Northville high school were cited for outstanding performances on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test last spring. They are Robert Hilton, Terry Cherne and Harold Hartley.

Anthony Mendolia, operator of the Novi Pizzeria, accidentally shot himself while hunting behind his restaurant and shattered his left foot.

Plans to have paving completed on the Eight Mile road cut-off before winter have been scuttled because of the steel strike.

With a single but major exception, Northville's $300,000 water improvement program was nearly completed this week. The only job remaining is the erection of the huge water tower just west of the high school.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO —

The Public Services Commission had directed the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. to include Northville in its extended area program. New service is tentatively set to go into operation next year.

A french hour quarter consisting of Joyce Howarth, Celia Bloom, Marjorie DeJohn and Bonnie Hannah, were featured at the band recital at the high school.

In observing National Education Week, many students became teachers last Wednesday. Richard Lazar replaced Superintendent R. H. Amerman, Richard Scharchburg acted as high school principal and Fred Bernhardt was named grade school principal.

Mrs. Floyd Darling, will cook for the Novi school lunchroom which opened Monday.

A cow at the Wayne county training school has added to its life-time production of more than 100,000 pounds of milk. Its name is Wacots Princess Alta May. In nine yearly milking periods May has produced a total of 129,379 pounds of milk and 4,568 pounds of butterfat.

Members of the Northville board of education, heard a special report Monday night on the special education program in the district.

For teachers told the board about their activities. They were Miss Rosann Williams, speech therapist, Mrs. Louva Waterman, reading consultant Miss Judith Dombrowski, Special "A" and Dr. Carolyn Pratt, clinical psychologist.

Each was introduced by Ray Spear, principal of the Amerman elementary school and gave a five-minute talk. A question and answer period followed.

Superintendent R. H. Amerman indicated that similar reports about educational programs could be presented to the board periodically.

In addition, William Hensch told the panel in his annual report the that bookstore is operating in the black.

The Northville board and Novi board of education met Tuesday and discussed for the second time the Novi tuition student problem at the high school. Northville wants Novi to keep its own tenth graders next year.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

R. LaVere Webster,
Pastor Novi Methodist Church

Advent is the season of the Christian year in which we prepare our hearts to greet Christmas Day. Rightly used it will lead us to a deeper sense of understanding and a more reverent observance of the birth of the Christ-child in whom God revealed him- self to the world.

We will not find the spirit of Christmas in the rush of Christmas shopping or in the whirl of social parties. In- stead, the spirit of Christmas should enter the home. Only an observance of the Advent and Christmas seasons in the spirit of the Christ-child can bring to all of us the peace of his presence as we worship together.

Advent is the season that begins on the fourth Sunday before Christmas Day and ends on Christmas Eve. The word "advent" comes from two Latin words which mean "coming". In Advent we pre- pare our hearts and minds for Christmas, when Jesus was born by saying, "He is coming!" We want to make sure that on Christmas Day the spirit of Jesus is "born anew" in our hearts.

One way in which we may prepare our hearts for the coming of Christmas is simple advent worship in the home. An Advent wreath may be formed by placing one white and four purple candles in a wreath of greens. One candle is lighted on each Sunday in Advent. Appropriate Scriptures and hymns may be read and or sung.

First Sunday in Advent (No- vember 29) - Jeremiah 31:31- 34; Isaiah 52:7-10; Luke 3:1- 6
Second Sunday in Advent (December 6) - Isaiah 11:1-2; Romans 15:4-13. Third Sunday in Ad- venty (December 13) - Micah 5:2-4; Hosea 6:1-2; Malachi 3:1-4; Matthew 1:20-23. Fourth Sunday in Advent (December 20) - Jeremiah 33:10-16; Phi- lippians 4:4-7. Christmas Day peace, good will toward men." - Luke 2:1-20. Epiphany (Jan- uary 6) - Matthew 2:4-12.

O God, who has brought us again to the glad season when we prepare for and we com- memorate the birth of Jesus, welcome him to reign over our lives. Open our ears that we may hear again the angelic chorus of old; open our lips that we too may sing with up- lifted hearts, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

More Than Enough

We are the most prosperous people the world has ever seen! Even the poor among us live in princely comfort compared to some in other lands. Our country is famous for its beauty and fruitfulness, our cities are as modern as tomorrow, and our future glows with promise. God has indeed been good to us.

But with His bounty of wealth and power, God has given us responsibilities. Because we have so much, we are called upon to share what we can spare. And we are required to work and pray for the end of ignorance, poverty and suffering wherever they are found.

To be able to give is a blessed privilege. Let us fill our churches and join in heartfelt thanks to God that we have enough . . . and more than enough . . . to share.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the build- ing of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his chil- dren's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Statistically speaking, school officials claim that a resident must build a $30,000 home before his property tax pays for the education of his child.

At least that's the way I understood their position last week when they urged the city council to consider the consequences of a proposed subdivision of homes in the $15,000 to $20,000 class.

Even if the statistics are to be accepted as fully accurate, they leave an impression that a giant calculating machine is coughing out information unaccompanied by human analysis.

What the school officials didn't say (but with which I'm sure they would agree), is that not all families can afford, or even desire, to live in $30,000 homes. And our public education system is not keyed to any income level, which undoubtedly explains why our nation ranks so high educationally.

I'm certain that it was the intent of school officials to encourage upgrading of development as much as possible to avoid an overburdensome shifting of tax load.

In the case of the particular subdivision in question (adjacent to Northville Heights) it is also desirable that existing property values are not lowered by the new development.

But under our system of free enterprise, government is still (thankfully) limited in its power to control. Zoning and building codes set forth protective minimum requirements. But the courts frown on discriminatory regulations.

As a taxpayer, I am in full sympathy with school authorities who are now feeling the pressures of a building program.

But I disagree with their statistics for more reasons than space will allow to describe.

Thirty-thousand dollar homes won't solve school tax problems. More accurately, a preponderance of such homes would reduce our tax base.

Does one $30,000 home buy twice the number of pairs of shoes, bottles of milk or loaves of bread than a $15,000 home?

What would happen to the tax base in our commercial district with half the number of homes, half the number of customers?

The answer, of course, is a balanced tax base—an increase in commercial and industrial, a cross-section of residential ranging from $15,000 to $50,000, or more, depending upon the nature of the land available for development and the services than can be provided.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS...

Trek South to Begin

BABSON PARK, Mass. — This column is not intended to advice to readers that this is the time to buy land in Florida. There certainly are such times, but Florida land ideally should be bought when public interest in "going to Florida" is much less keen than at present. Furthermore, the land to own is that on the seacoast or bordering large rivers or other bodies of water. For a great many years there will be plenty of land obtainable in the interior of Florida, but there can never be much more land than at present on the Florida seacoast, east or west.

Most of us living in the United States have spent one of the driest and coldest summers for over 30 years. Therefore many of us — especially in the eastern half of the nation — will be heading for Florida as soon as we can, by train or airplane, by bus or automobile. Unless some unexpected deterrent event occurs, Florida will have the largest influx of visitors it has ever had.

There are various reasons for this. Perhaps the foremost is the prosperity of the people in the North. "Going to Florida in the winter" continues to be an attainable luxury for a good many families. These are families who set aside a certain amount of money each month during the year for entertainment, and will use a part of this to go to Florida for a while this winter.

Also, many of the labor union contracts now have "fringe" benefits which favor their senior workers to the extent that they are able to take a vacation in the winter. This does not necessarily mean that they will all go to Florida. California, Arizona, New Mexico, Hawaii, and other such states also offer an attractive climate. Florida, however, is nearest for those in the eastern half of the country.

Practically all of the families who can enjoy such a winter vacation have automobiles. Many of them enjoy traveling by auto to a warmer climate, and will include the trip as part of their vacation. It seems certain, therefore, that Florida

Day-Care Centers to Aid Retarded

LANSING — Waiting lists at state institutions for mentally retarded children still number near the 1,800 mark, but this need not be so long, according to the experts.

Mental health officials have informed Governor George Romney that at least half of these children on waiting lists could adequately be accommodated in community programs. Programs currently call for the creation of a dozen community day-care centers for severely retarded children and additional homes for those needing full-time institutional care.

Many of these waiting children, however, are of the groups termed educable or trainable in extent of retardation. Unfortunately, many local systems which operate programs for educable or trainable children already are at capacity enrollment.

Mental health officials estimate some 200 or more retarded children not now enrolled in local school programs could be handled by the county-level programs to be created in the near future.

For more severely retarded persons, nearly 1,100 new beds are slated to be available at state institutions by next April and a completely new center in western Michigan is in the pre-construction planning stage.

On the local level it is surprising just how many school districts already have some type of program for mentally handicapped children.

A list compiled by the State Department of Public Instruction of available programs is based on those districts which last year received state reimbursements.

In all more than 350 systems at the local or county level in 55 counties provide either classroom or consultant programs for educable or trainable mentally handicapped at various levels in the school system.

A decision has been promised early next year on whether legal action is needed to curb below-cost sales of milk in Michigan.

The Legislature has been asked several times by individual members to outlaw all "loss leader" sales in stores or prohibit below cost sales of dairy product particularly. To date all these attempts have been unsuccessful and members of the dairy industry have fought them most vigorously.

Some dairy industry members this year however, felt some state action should have been taken to maintain the competitive position of independents.

Now Governor George Romney has asked a special committee to determine in time for the 1965 Legislative session whether any state action is warranted and what form it should take, legislative or administrative.

The reasons for use of mile as "loss leader" items in stores also is to be determined by this committee, Romney said. The Governor indicated concern in this matter at least partly because of the implications government action might have for other industries in the future.

"Any industry is better off if it can keep itself from getting into the position where it's regulated," he said. Citing his experience with American Motors in the appliance industry, Romney said, "It is not only better for the industry but it's better for customers, too, in the long run. But if this situation, which has been going on for years and is getting worse, isn't cleared up voluntarily, there's going to be state governmental action," he said.

History in the making is seen almost daily in the State Capitol as executive, legislative and administrative decisions which affect many future generations.

Perhaps one of the most profound marks on Michigan history to be made in recent years is now a matter of record, but visitors to the Lansing area can see a re-creation of the decision-making site.

Michigan's Constitutional Convention of 1961-62 was originally held in Lansing's Civic Center. During its sessions visitors were welcomed to viewing galleries in the auditorium.

At the close of the Convention, delegates donated the furnishings to Michigan State University, including the 144-seat United Nations-type auditorium layout.

Now this formal portion of the Convention's worksite has been reinstalled in a large room at MSU's new International Center. It will be used for lectures and meetings but is accessible to visiting groups as a reminder of the months of deliberation which went into the writing of Michigan's present Constitution.
