State Senate Race Attracts 4 Hopefuls

Three Democrats and one Republican have announced that they will be candidates for the 14th State Senatorial District seat left vacant by the death of GOP Senator-Elect Paul Chandler.

Governor George Romney has set February 15 as the primary election date with Monday, April 5 as the election.

The deadline for filing for the primary is next Monday, January 4.

To date only James P. McCarthy of Livonia, who was defeated by Chandler in the November general election, has filed his petitions in Lansing. But two other Democrats have announced their intentions. Both from Livonia, they are Mrs. Elsie Gilmore and Edward H. McNamara.

Mrs. Gilmore has been active in both state and county Democratic organizations. McNamara is a member of the Livonia city council.

On the Republican side Farrell E. Roberts, a former state senator who gave up his seat and made an unsuccessful bid for the Oakland county court of appeals, has announced his candidacy.

In addition to selecting a new state senator, Wayne county residents will also elect a judge to the circuit court. Former Governor John Swainson has announced his candidacy for this post.

Northville city voters will also elect council members and a municipal judge at the April 5 election.

Three council positions now held by — Mayor A. M. Allen, and Councilman Richard Ambler and Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson — are up for election.

Call Public Meeting to Explain $10 Million Development Plan

First Baby Race Begins

It's about time Mr. Stork changed the odds in the annual "First Baby Contest".

The boys need a stronger voice.

He has delivered five girls but only three boys have claimed the title of first baby of the year in the Northville-Novi area.

Maybe the gap will be narrowed in 1965.

Of the eight babies who have won since the contest was started in 1957 by the Northville Record - Novi News, six have had Novi parents while two were born to Northville couples.

So let's go, Northville!

Rules for the contest are simple. The hard part is getting Mr. Stork to cooperate.

The rules are: — Baby must be born to parents having Northville or Novi mailing address. It is not necessary that birth take place in Northville or Novi, however.

— Exact time of birth must be verified by attending physician.

— All applications must be received by the Northville Record, Northville, Michigan, by 12 noon on Friday, January 8.

And the winner for 1965 will be proudly announced on January 14 — we hope.

This year the deadline was extended for another week on January 6, the same day Mark Thomas Moran made his debut at 4:21 p.m. in St. Mary hospital.

Mrs. Edward Moran of 4040 Ten Mile in Novi, ranks as the biggest and latest newcomer so far. He weighed a whopping 10 pounds, four ounces.

Previously the latest baby was Sherry Coykendall who was born January 5, 1958. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Coykendall of Novi.

Two have bowed on January 1 — Danny Rolph in 1960 and Ruth Ann Edgin in 1957. Danny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rolph of Novi road and Ruth Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgin of Northville.

Danny arrived at 1:50 a.m. to carry off the "earliest baby" honor while Ruth Ann checked in at 8:30 a.m.

Other babies who have pinched down the blue or pink ribbon are Sherry Lynn Folsom of Willowbrook in 1963, Kimberly Ann Berger in 1962, Tamara Ann MacDonald in 1961 and Timothy McDonald in 1959.

Each year local merchants give out valuable prizes. The 1965 winner will receive a baby blanket from Brader's Department Store, a baby toiletry kit from Northville Drug; a baby cup from H. R. Noder's Jewelry; a diaper bag from the D&C Store; a gift certificate from The Little People Shoppe; 24 cans of baby food from Kroger; a month's supply of milk from Cloverdale Farms Dairy; a dinner for mother and father from Old Mill Restaurant and a case of baby formula from Novi Rex-All Drug.

A $10 million development that would provide 225 homes and a like number of apartment dwellings in the city of Northville will be explained to interested citizens at a city hall public meeting Tuesday evening, January 12.

The development would be located in the Taft-Eight Mile road area and would introduce the "cluster" principle of land use in the multiple dwelling area.

Because the concept is relatively new, and the multiple dwelling project marks the first extensive development of this kind in the community, Planning Commission Chairman George Zerbel proposed an open meeting so the public may receive firsthand answers to questions.

The project has been proposed by the Thompson-Brown company, one of the largest land development firms in the metropolitan area.

Robert H. Carey, Thompson-Brown president, will explain the proposal using preliminary drawings.

Thompson-Brown obtained an option on 135 acres owned by Gerald Taft at the Eight Mile-Taft intersection. A portion of the area (see drawing) is south of Eight Mile (about 35 acres), while the largest parcel lies along the west side of Taft, north of Eight Mile. A third parcel, about 55 acres, is east of Taft.

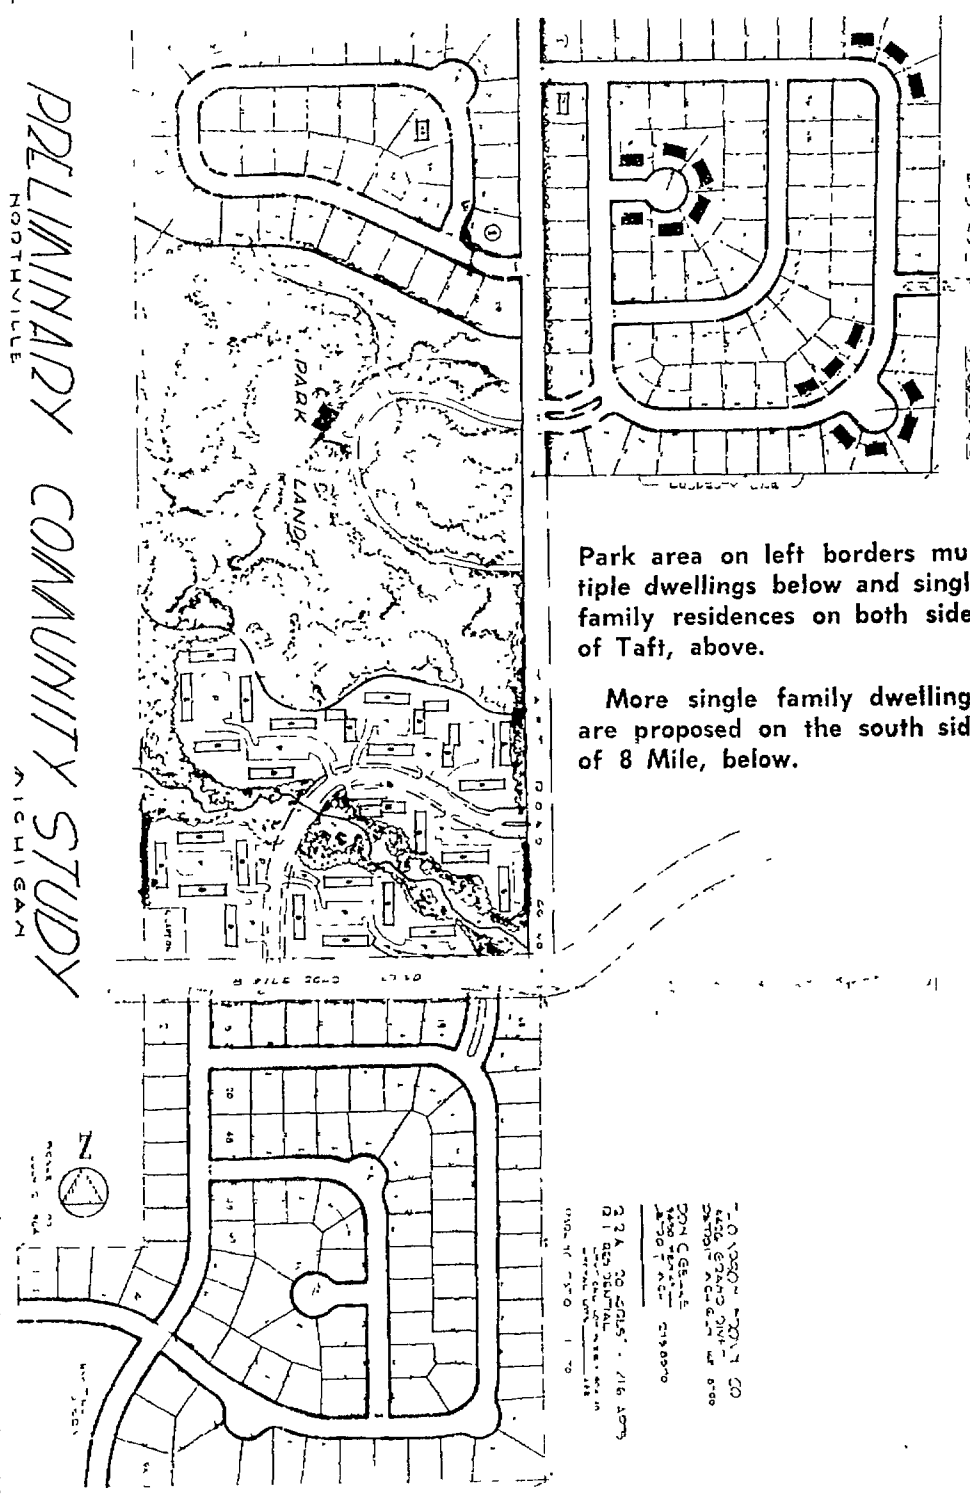

The development firm has already completed a feasibility test to determine the cost of bringing sewer and water facilities to the area.

If it receives city approval on its plan, the company will begin sewer installation by mid-1965, Carey said. Initial construction would take place on the south side of Eight Mile — an area that lies in the township and would require annexation to the city before the project would proceed.

Carey said the homes would be in the $25,000 and up class with minimum 90-foot frontage. All of the lots proposed, by Thompson-Brown exceed the requirements for its R-1-S zoning in the area.

The total project, when completed, would add some 1,100 people to the city's population—a 25 per cent increase.

Carey said studies of other projects show that apartments average only 1.5 persons per dwelling compared to 3.5 persons per single family unit. The January 12 meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the council chambers.

Park area on left borders multiple dwellings below and single family residences on both sides of Taft, above.

More single family dwellings are proposed on the south side of 8 Mile, below.

Roger Babson's 1965 Forecast

It's 50-50 Red China Will Enter UN

Promising the people of the United States "peace and prosperity," President Johnson was carried to victory last November on an overwhelming landslide. By nature he is more likely to compromise than to contest. Also, he is deeply sincere in his desire to accelerate the economic growth of his country and to wipe out poverty.

But we must not forget that both Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt promised to keep America out of "foreign" wars. And already the British financial crisis has forced the Federal Reserve to raise its discount rate to 4% — despite President Johnson's dislike of higher money rates.

Therefore, as we look forward to 1965 from our more than 60 years of experience in forecasting and analysis, we emphasize once again that the great rolling tides of economic fundamentals and social currents are likely to have a greater impact on what is to unfold than will the campaign promises of successful candidates.

1. There will be no war with Russia during 1965. The Russian people want some of the "peace and prosperity" that President Johnson promised our citizens.

2. Watch Russia's satellites in 1965. They will try to make a deal with the new Moscow Administration which will involve more trade and prosperity and less politics. Following Khrushchev's fall, the satellites will aim for more consumer goods for their people rather than for more personal freedom.

3. Russia will not bring the Berlin issue to a crisis in 1965. The tendency will be to soft-pedal talk about Berlin until Red China's course of action becomes clearer.

4. Red China made the biggest news in 1964 by exploding a nuclear bomb. In 1965, Communist China's greatest effort will be to gain admission to the United Nations. World leaders cannot ignore this awakening giant with its 700,000,000 people. We believe there is a 50-50 chance that the Red Dragon will get into the UN in 1965.

5. However, Communist China will not risk all-out war in the year ahead. She has neither a sufficient stockpile of nuclear bombs nor adequate means of delivering them in quantity. Red China's biggest use of her new-found power will be to "blackmail" the West.

6. Regardless of what happens in the next few months, we look for President Johnson to compromise on the situation in South Vietnam sometime during 1965 and move toward "neutralization".

7. Conditions in Cuba are not likely to change radically in 1965. The Russians will do nothing to handicap Castro; neither will they do much to help him. Thus Castro will be unable to deliver the economic help he has been promising other Latin American nations.

8. And with world sugar prices down, the Cuban chieftain will try to make a deal with the United States before the end of 1965.

9. Our Defense Department, under Secretary McNamara's leadership, will increase efforts in 1965 to produce new super-weapons. It is realized there would be no Maginot or other "line" to protect any country in future wars. Control of space will be the new aim in defense.

10. Intensified emphasis on new space-age defenses will provide more jobs in 1965 than the closing down of obsolete installations will eliminate.

11. The stock market will continue to be a paroxysm in 1965. The Dow-Jones Industrial Average may push to 1000 before any real turn-around takes place. Many stocks, however — including numbers of issues oriented to conventional warfare and defense — will still do little or nothing. Look for greater selectivity in stocks next year.

12. 1965 may be an advantageous time for investors to put very small sums of money into "space" stocks. These are outright speculations, but so were the ventures of Columbus, Magellan, and other explorers of the past. If there were no risk-takers there would be no progress. Such "investments", however, should be well diversified and limited to amounts you would be prepared to lose.

13. Cash dividend payments should increase in 1965... although at a much slower rate than has been the case this year.

14. No assessment of finances in the United States can be made without carefully weighing Britain's plight. We are convinced that unless the Labor Government adopts strict austerity measures, the pound will fall before the end of 1965.

15. Until the fate of the pound is resolved, short-term interest rates must be kept high to prevent foreigners from withdrawing their deposits here. Also, domestic demand for credit promises to remain strong. Hence, interest rates will edge upward during 1965.

16. There may be some erosion in bond prices as interest rates move upward, but there should be no massive decline unless a real credit crisis develops. Investors making new purchases would do well, however, to stick now to bonds maturing within five years. Sometime during 1965 longer bonds may become good buys.

17. Inflation fears may rise in 1965; but we do not look for runaway prices next year as productive capacity is too large.

18. More wage hikes are certain in 1965. Liberal concessions won in the auto and other industries in 1964 provide tempting targets for the steel unions and secondary labor groups to shoot at in 1965.

19. To the extent — and this could be considerable — that higher costs cannot be compensated for by price hikes and greater efficiency, profit margins will suffer in 1965.

20. Indeed, despite the projected 2% cut in the corporate income tax rate next year, we look for only a very slight overall rise in corporate profits... nothing to compare with this year's huge 20% expansion.

21. Labor disputes will be numerous in 1965. Many labor pacts can, and will, be reopened for wage adjustments during the coming year.

22. Employment will continue favorable in 1965, but additions to rolls will be most noticeable in fields such as teaching, personal services, and government work.

23. Little real progress will be apparent in the drive to reduce unemployment. We are only now just "touching off" the big new explosion in growth of the labor force.

24. Due to rising labor costs, look for business to turn even more to automation and labor-saving devices in 1965. Pressures on profit margins will spur cost-cutting and efforts to raise productivity.

25. Because of rising expenses and overwhelming competition, a further increase in failures will be seen in 1965.

26. As a result of automobile strikes in late 1964 and the fear of a possible steel shutdown in mid-1965, we look for a

Post Office Handles Record Mail Output

Northville's post office handled a record amount of Christmas business this year but without heavy peak loads.

Assistant Postmaster Elmer Balko had high praise for local residents who heeded the advice of the post office department and "mailed early".

"We had a steady flow of mail throughout the season and kept right up to schedule on our deliveries," commented Balko. He said that the local post office delivered all mail on the 24th received on that day.

Volume of letters and cards mailed out through the Northville office was up six per cent with a total of 280,000 pieces. Some 4,500 packages were mailed through the local office, an increase of 10 per cent, said Balko.

The additional business was handled with normal one-day deliveries and the same number of part-time employees as in former years, although Balko said many of the regular employees had worked longer hours.

City to Clear All Sidewalks For Next Two Snowfalls

If you live in the city of Northville and it starts to snow, don't run for your shovel.

The city plans to clean your walk "free" — at least for the next two snowfalls.

The city council has toyed with the idea of providing sidewalk snow removal for the entire city for several years. Councilman John Canterbury revived the proposal earlier this year. Last week Mayor A. M. Allen proposed a couple of trials. Robert Cole, a city resident who already provides the service for many residents on a fee basis, will undertake to remove all sidewalk snow at a fee of $200 per removal.

If the project proves successful and gains public support, the city will probably enter into a contract for annual service.

In other business in the final council meeting of 1964 last week the council: — adopted initiatory resolutions for the following special assessment improvement projects: paving West street from Randolph to West Dunlap; paving Butler and Pennell; curbing, gutter and pave River street; and pave Novi street from Baseline to Rouge.

— appointed Richard Lyon to the board of review; — decided to meet in special session to discuss the central business district ordinance and act on the proposals at the January 18 meeting.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

THE ROSE BOWL GAME, New Year's Day is eclipsing New Year's Eve celebrations as holiday-week interest focuses on whether the University of Michigan football team will take its fourth victory in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of West Main street will be watching the game on television but thinking of their daughters who will be at the "bowl". The game actually will provide a reunion for daughter Lynn, who is living in San Francisco, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwarze of Ann Arbor. Fred, a senior law student at U. of M., and Carla went west Saturday with a Detroit alumni charter group by train. They also will be at the game with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwarze, Sr. of Cambridge road, who have been spending some time in Ventura, California. The game also is part of a family reunion for the Donald Matzens of Novi road. They will meet their son and his wife, the Lynn Matzens, who live in California.

Leaving Monday on one of the five U. of M. charter planes was Heidi Handorf, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Handorf, of Wing court. Bob Hallam, son of the Robert Hallams in Northville Estates, also has gone west for the game and expects to tour the state before returning.

Another Northville Estates student, Tom Slattery, was lucky enough to be able to borrow his mother's car for the trip west. The game holds high interest for Tom as his Sigma Chi roommate is Charles Kines, a member of the first team. Sixteen members of the fraternity are numbered on the first team. Tom, a U. of M. junior, and his fraternity brothers have been invited to play golf with Bob Hope while on the coast.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM SLATTERY of Dunsany road, hoped for a telephone call from Tom, saying he had arrived on the coast, as they entertained 30 couples from their subdivision at a holiday buffet supper Sunday evening.

Other holiday entertaining included a dinner party Sunday evening given by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Wright of Westhill road for their house guests, the Robert Beerbowers, who moved to Dayton from Northville. Guests were members of their former bridge club.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison B. Kline, who are spending their first Christmas in their new home on Fonner court east, invited their neighbors on the court in Saturday evening for a holiday get-together.

A progressive dinner Monday night provided a festive way to view each other's decorations for six couples whose lawns adjoin. Starting with cocktails at the Myron C. Sarnes home on Woodhill and then visiting each home for various courses were the Arthur Hemptes, Jr., E. R. Kaakes, of Fonner court west, the Eugene Konrads, Benjamin Duguids and the Harold A. Fraziers, all of Woodhill road.

NEW YEAR'S EVE always is the BIG night at Meadowbrook Country Club where Eddie Schick's orchestra will be playing for dancing. Among those with reservations are the Arthur Hemptes, Jr., whose guests will include his parents, the senior Hemptes, who will be here from Chicago. The William H. Kellys of Cottisford road, Brookland Farms, have reservations for a party of 20 friends.

A family-type New Year's Eve celebration has been planned by a group of Northville friends who will go north to Lost Lake Woods at Lincoln, Michigan, near Alpena. In the group are the Edwin R. Langtrys of Thayer boulevard, who will be bringing guests from Pittsburgh; the William Davises, Richard Ambler, Alfred C. Parmenters and the H. O. Evans family.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS, both indoor and out, reflect much care and imagination this season. While most outdoor decorations emphasize the front of a home, the Charles Hooks' on Woodhill road must be viewed from the rear: In a whimsical mood, the Hooks "extended" the tree in the rear picture-window of their family room through the roof. Both trees twinkle brightly, creating an image of one giant tree.

Next door, the tree in the living room of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Weston glitters with handmade ornaments — all the result of many evenings of work by Mrs. Weston.

In Shadbrook there is an added "tree" in the living room of the Orin Hove home on Pinebrook drive. It is an old-fashioned cookie tree of wooden dowels made by Mr. Hove and decorated by Mrs. Hove with cookies and miniature apples. The Hugh McKays of West Seven Mile road have a Victorian tree with candle lights and handmade and antique ornaments.

Everywhere it's happy holidays and BEST WISHES FOR THE COMING YEAR!

YULE GIFT — A Christmas tree now adorns the lawn at Orchard Hills elementary school in Novi. Mrs. Sally Nelson's second grade class (shown here) decorated the tree and placed it in the school last week. Custodians planted the tree in the schoolyard Thursday morning.

Lime - Yellow Chiffon Chosen by Mrs. Romney

A floor-length Empire gown of lime-yellow chiffon and slipper satin is the choice of Mrs. George Romney for the New Year's Day Inaugural Ball in the Lansing Civic Center.

The gown, which Michigan's First Lady will wear to her second inaugural ball, is not a designer's original, she says. She purchased it at a women's shop in Birmingham from a selection of about six dresses. She says the color was the Governor's choice.

The satin bodice of the gown is fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, three-quarter length sleeves trimmed with crystal embroidered cuffs and a set-in waistband accented with a tailored double bow.

The flowing chiffon overskirt is detailed with waist stitching. With the size 10 gown, Lenore Romney plans to wear plain pumps in matching color and a single pearl necklace, a gift from the Governor. She does not plan to wear gloves or flowers.

The Romneys' two daughters, Mrs. Bruce (Jane) Robinson of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Loren

(Lynn) Keenan of Bloomfield Hills, will wear frocks of pink and pale green, respectively. The Governor plans to wear a tuxedo.

In revealing details of her ball gown, Mrs. Romney emphasized that dress for the ball will range from business wear to formal costumes.

For inauguration ceremonies earlier in the day on the lawn in front of the state capitol, Mrs. Romney plans to wear a red wool suit with matching coat. However, she says, if the weather is extremely cold, she will top the costume with an outer coat.

Among the relatives and personal friends of the Romneys who have been invited to the inauguration day activities are: Miles Romney and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Romney (both men are brothers of the Governor), Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stewart of Palo Alto, California, cousins of Mrs. Romney, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Marriott of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Romney said also that she plans to accompany the Governor to Washington, D.C.,

DISTINCTIVE BRONZE MEDALLION, featuring the handsome profile of Governor George Romney on the front side and citing the four seasons recreational advantages of Michigan on the reverse side, has been designed to commemorate "Inauguration Day, 1965." A privately-operated Michigan Inaugural Committee is financing the production of the impressive medal. Committee members believe the medallion is the first souvenir piece ever produced for a Michigan inaugural celebration.

Companion Horace Friend, President of the Association, will be in charge, and in attendance will be Grand Treasurer Penn F. Naylor, Past Grand High Priest, Grand Royal Arch Captain, Thomas B. All Companions are invited by High Priest Herman A. Wedemeyer to attend this meeting which will open immediately following the Union Chapter's family pot-luck dinner.

Night College Begins

Approximately 600 students have pre-registered for the second semester at Schoecraft evening college which opens January 4, according to Dell Reed, evening college director. Another 400 to 500 students are expected to enroll during registration January 4, 5, 6 and 7, from 8:30 to 9 p.m., in the college library.

Openings still remain in many of the classes," Reed said, "but some of the sections have been filled and closed. Additional sections have been added to accommodate more students such as English composition, introduction to business and accounting. Openings remain in many of the business and technical classes as well as in science and in the foreign languages."

There will be no registration after Thursday, January 7.

Flapjacks Coming Up

The Northville Service Club offers the perfect opportunity. A pancake supper Wednesday, January 6 at the First Methodist church.

There's an "all-you-can-eat" menu with service from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m.

Proceeds from the dinner will be used by the Wednesday noon service club to promote its charitable activities.

Telephone Tips off Police Dial "P" for Prison

It is all right to have a car telephone if it works, according to Wixom police.

A Belleville resident, Elmer Hodge, didn't — and he is behind bars today.

Hodge's trouble started when he was stopped December 12 for speeding on Beck road and Pontiac trail and for driving with an expired license.

At that time police confiscated a wall telephone which "is illegal to transfer," Hodge told police he was moving. His car was loaded with household items.

After questioning, Hodge was released.

Pastor's Christmas Tree Stolen

Someone did an unkindly deed just three nights before Christmas in Northville.

A minister's home was robbed.

A Christmas tree belonging to the Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of First Presbyterian church, was snatched from the back porch of his home. He and his family live at 542 West Main street.

"It was a beautifully symmetrical tree over eight feet tall," remarked Diane Brasure, who was home for the holidays from Alma college. "It was grown in Pennsylvania."

Diane said the tree was taken sometime after midnight on December 22. It was missing the next morning.

Undoubtedly the Brasures were disheartened so close to Christmas but another tree was purchased at the last minute.

Said Diane: "My parents went out for a second tree but they were all picked over. They came back with a scrawny tree but at least it was a tree."

tin of 29283 Beck road reported a breaking and entering at his home. Chief D'Arcy Young investigated the felony.

While checking the Martin residence, Young noticed that the phone had been torn from the wall. Martin related he hadn't removed the phone.

"I then told Martin that an officer stopped a car the night before and took a phone from the driver," Young said.

Then Young and Officer Alen Prudhomme began to track down Hodge.

Arriving at Hodge's address in Belleville Young and Prudhomme observed two station wagons and a truck partially loaded with clothes and household goods.

"It gave the appearance of them moving," Young said.

Talking to Mrs. Hodge, the policemen learned that Hodge had left the house that morning and no one knew where he was. But one of Hodge's children announced:

"My daddy ran out in the field."

After a two-hour search Young found Hodge lying face down behind a trash pile about 300 yards behind his house. Hodge, 29, surrendered without a fight, and was taken to the Wayne county sheriff's office.

Clark paid the fine December 21.

Civil War Film Slated

"Red Runs the River", a Civil War film, will be featured at the watchnight service at 9 p.m. Thursday at the First Baptist church of Northville. It tells the true story of the conversion of Richard Stoddard Ewell, hero of the Confederacy. The movie is not just a story of the South. Rather its theme centers on courage, conviction and sacrifice. Its title has a two-fold meaning. It refers to the waters of Bull Run, which ran red with the blood of soldiers as the rain washed over the fields of Manassas. And, in the words of "Stonewall" Jackson, it is "the wide, red river that flows from Calvary, into which all must plunge to be free from the stain of sin."

Melvin Rooker, a truck driver who lives at 139 Walnut street, was found not guilty of crossing the double-yellow line on Seven Mile road and forcing a car off the road. The charge was made December 17 by Miss Milenda McKernan of 210 South Rogers. At his trial Monday Rooker entered a plea of not guilty and told the court he had his truck under control at all times. He had had no moving violations. Following testimony, the judge dismissed the case. Charles W. Elwell Jr. of 124 East Dunlap was charged December 15 with driving with a suspended license. At his arraignment, he plead not-guilty to the charge. But at his trial he was fined $25 and $5 court cost and sentenced to two days in jail. In Novi, Judge Emery Jacques dismissed a case against Robert J. Mitchell of Highland. He was charged with violating a restricted license.

Will Northville Become Town Business Forgot?

To the Editor:
This last week I happened upon an old Record dated August 21, 1952. The front page editorial by Glenn Cummings "for the Record", dealt with the Parade of Progress sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association. He lauded them for their becoming aware of the threat to their business by Plymouth and other neighboring shopping areas. He went on to discuss 'offstreet parking' to make it easier and more pleasant for those who drive here to shop.

In 1952 Sheldon, Wonderland, Northland, Farmington Terrace and Mall, and Livonia Mall did not exist but your last week report of the actions of the plan commission and city council would seem to show the local leaders who aware still do not have the courage of their convictions. One businessman and his crisis can make two groups which have spent inestimable time on exploration, question their goals sufficiently to have them: 1 allow a building where none is planned; 2. allow a building which services will not comply with the zoning; 3. decrease the minimum desirable parking area, accompanying the building; 4. allow for a delay in the completion of the building pending the nebulous future of another building. It is interesting to note that the planners talk in minimums necessary to do a job but the businessman wants relief so he can be the exception and do less than the minimum. I believe our east side of North Center street's "China Town" with its signs are a good example of exception, relief, and hardship. With the resultant visual hardship on all and a business advantage to none.

A few more exceptions before action takes over and the Northville Coach Line can run a shopper's service to Northland, Wonderland, Plymouth, Farmington and soon South Lyon as it now does to the Livonia Mall. Northville may soon become "The Town That Business Forgot".

My immediate problem may be one of parking in competition with pipes on a plumber's truck if your paper and the plan commission's misgivings have gotten thru to me all 'whispering and muddled.' As a point of information, because I can't spend the time going thru all the old papers — Did this same businessman once have to have a court injunction against him by his neighbors to get him to move his trucks, warehouse, and business out of his home lot which was zoned Residential Family One?

PERFECT SAFETY RECORD
AMERMAN
— NORTHVILLE —
1963-1964

SAFETY-SEEKERS — Amerman elementary school in Northville copped its second perfect safety award last week. On hand to receive the pennant were Ralph Redmond, a teacher at Amerman for four years, Principal Ray Spear, and Brian Dunn, a former teacher at the Main street school. Redmond and Dunn, now both junior high instructors, were presented pen and pencil sets for their work with the safety patrol boys at their respective schools last year.

Wally Taber Adventure Film Slated for January Showing

The late Johnny Mock, outdoor sports editor of the Pittsburgh Press once said the greatest tribute one can pay to Wally Taber is merely to mention he still is alive.

In Plymouth to publicly screen his latest pair of living-color, high-adventure films from Mexico and India, the globe-girdling former newsman advised he no longer is living so dangerously. Instead, he is writing his memoirs — "How to Live Dangerously... And Live."

"Doubtless the cobra could have struck me, the wounded gaur gouged me, the tiger mauled me, the leopard mangled me, the jaguar ripped me asunder, the sharks have eaten me," Taber admitted, "doubtless all this could have happened, but doubtless it never did."

Taber, popular film raconteur, former newsman, author of books, entertainer of millions and with it all ordinary gent, will appear in person, "still alive and still in color," Tuesday — January 11, 8 p.m. at the Plymouth High School Gym.

"From India, Taber brings an exotic, living-color, high-adventure film that documents an India even Kipling scarcely knew," Art Roberts Exantor, Ruler of the sponsoring BPOE 1780, said.

"And from Mexico, within rock-throwing distance of his home in Texas, Taber rolled his cameras on such sights as most Americans and many Mexicans scarcely would believe existed — a pack trip after jaguar in mountainous jungles festooned in moss; an unbelievable study in motion among the predators called by uncanny mimicry within arm's length distance; a successful stalk after North America's currently most coveted big-game mammal, the desert big-horn sheep; fishing in the Sea of Cortez for rman-eating sharks and acrobatic sword-fish....

"Armed with rod, rifle and camera, even bow-and-arrow," Roberts said, the high-adventure seeker this time added the shotgun to capture more thrills from exotic game birds — rock pigeon, white-winged dove, jungle fowl and peacock."

Like all Wally Taber Safari Shows, this is wholesome, whole - family entertainment popularly priced for whole-family attendance. Advance tickets for students up to 16 are 75 cents and adults, $1.25. Tickets at the door are 25 cents higher.

Dave Hay — all-conference defensive back.

Dave Hay, a Northville high school graduate, was one of 10 seniors honored at Central college, Pella, Iowa, recently as a member of Coach Ron Schipper's Iowa Conference football co-champions.

Schipper coached Northville's football team during Hay's high school days.

Scrimmage Schedule Tough for Mustangs

By Roland Peterson

Unofficially, the Northville Mustangs have played 11 ball games even though the cage season is only four months old. Yet Northville has an official 1-3 record.

The seven games that are not part of the record have been practice tilts with area teams, most of them class A ball clubs.

It's all part of Coach Dave Longridge's plan to give his Mustangs experience under game conditions against tough opponents. "By playing other non-scheduled contests, we can really see what we've got. There is no loafing," he said. Northville has limbered up against Howell, Livonia Franklin twice, Redford Union, Southfield and most recently, twice against the alumni.

Under game conditions, it gives Longridge a chance to stop the action to point out a defensive error or to smooth out the offensive wrinkles.

Scrimmaging the varsity during the past week has been the alumni, including the Judas (Steve and Jim), Lance Hahn, Jim Bell and Dick Brown.

And there's more rough practice games on tap for the Mustangs if all goes according to expectations. They will play Southfield and Franklin once more, Dearborn Fordson and Royal Oak Dondero.

Longridge explained that under Michigan state prep regulations a team may play any number of practice games.

Leading the Mustangs at the free throw line is Junior Center-Forward Steve Evans who has converted 13 of 16 shots for 81 per cent. Just behind is Jerry Imsland with a 65 per cent average.

If Northville wins its first tournament game with Thurston, the Mustangs will in all likelihood take on River Rouge. Rouge came to life against undefeated Beritley December 22, thrashing the Livonia five, 84-50. It was Rouge's best performance of the season.

On the basis of last week's workouts, most improved ball player on the Mustang squad is Forward-Center Mark Cushing. A six-five junior, Cushing has been moving better on offense and gets his share of rebounds, Coach Longridge reports.

Regardless of its performance in the Holiday tournament at River Rouge, Northville will enter the same tournament next year, Athletic Director Al Jones reported this week. "We've already signed the contract to participate," he said. The Mustangs will have their eyes on Lutheran West when it meets River Rouge in the Holiday tournament. Lutheran West, one of the six teams competing in the district tournament at Clarenceville next March may be Northville's opponent (See tournament story).

T-Birds Cop Two In Livonia League

Northville's entry in the Class A Livonia recreation basketball league is off to a flying start.

The John Mach T-Birds, composed of ex-Mustang cagers, won its first two games in the fast Livonia league.

In their opener against the Livonia Shamrocks the T-Birds coasted to an easy 92-56 win with Ken Kisabeth and Cap Peters leading the scorers with 25 and 25 points, respectively. Holloway Sand & Gravel fell to the T-Birds last week 64-47 with Dennis LaRoque scoring 16 points, Peters 16 and Bill Yahne 11.

The T-Birds are idle until after the holidays when league play resumes. All games are played at various school gyms throughout Livonia.

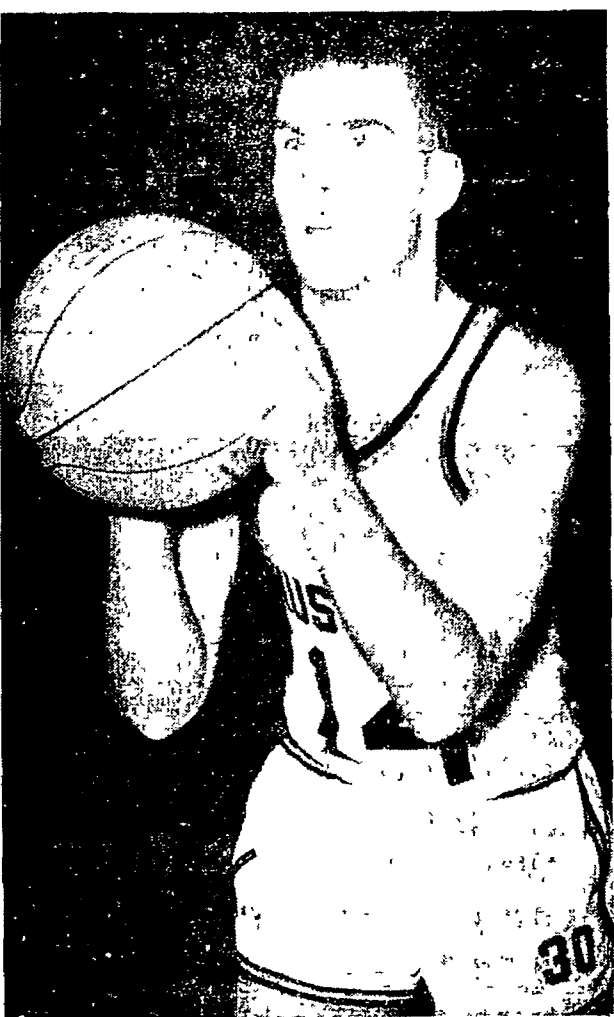

On the T-Bird roster are Roger Atchinson, Dave Biery, Dan Howell, Kisabeth, Joe Kritch, LaRoque, Pethers and Yahne.

Cager of the Week

JOHN JAMESON — Sparkplug of the Northville cage squad this year has been John Jameson, who moved up from last year's junior varsity to grab a starting berth as a guard. His jump shot from the key has made the Mustang offensive more effective. Just a junior, Jameson is best known for his football exploits, having held down an end spot since he was a freshman. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jameson of 550 Langfield drive.

Northville Drops Tournery Opener

In a game marked by miscues and fouls, the Northville Mustangs dropped a 65-53 decision Monday to Thurston in the opening round of the River Rouge Holiday basketball tournament.

Coach Dave Longridge's cagers were scheduled to play Lutheran West at 5 p.m. Tuesday in the losers' bracket at the Rouge high school gym. If the Mustangs win against West, they will play again at 8 o'clock tonight. A loss will push them into the losers' consolation game at 5 today.

Results of other first round games pitted Monroe against Lincoln Park and River Rouge against Thurston; Tuesday in the winners' bracket. Monroe upset tourney favorite Ecorse, 62-50, and Rouge waltzed over Lutheran West.

Tenor of the game was set in the first minute and one-half of play when Northville committed five errors and Thurston three as the Eagles held a 1-0 edge.

Then Northville came to life, playing their best ball of the evening to assume a 14-6 lead at the end of the first period.

It looked like the Mustangs had found themselves as they bottled up the Eagles' pass-and-go patterns off the pivot with a tight man-to-man defense. On the boards, the local cagers were demons, at one time grabbing seven consecutive offensive rebounds.

Smiles on the faces of Mustang fans, however, disappeared in the second quarter.

Thurston put six-four Mike Shaner into the fray to offset the Mustangs' height advantage, went into a full court press and got that vital second try at the bucket to lead, 28-21, at the half.

Only the sparkling performance of Center Jerry Imsland kept the Mustangs in the contest as he poured in 15 points, 10 of these in the second half.

Northville broke apart when he fouled out with five minutes and 40 seconds left in the game. Thurston then sprinted to its biggest lead of the night, 58-46.

In the opening round of the Junior Varsity tournament on Monday at River Rouge, the Colts were stung by Thurston, 83-56.

As a result, the local JV's were scheduled to clash with Lutheran West Tuesday in the losers' bracket. If the Colts win, they will play in the losers' finals at 1 o'clock today. A loss would drop them into a losers' consolation contest at 10 a.m. today.

Northville to Host Regional Play

When basketball reaches a fever pitch during the state tournament, Northville will be in the thick of things.

Northville high school gymnasium will be the site of the regional eliminations the second week in March, Athletic Director Al Jones reported this week.

Winners of the district crowns at Lansing Gabriel, Mason, Fenton, Pontiac Central and Clarenceville high schools will square off here in hopes of grabbing a quarter final berth.

At Northville, regional games will be played March 9, 10, 11 and 13. Tuesday's winner will have to play one more game to gain the finals Saturday. All other teams will have to win just once to gain the finals.

Northville could be one of the regional entrants.

It all depends on whether the Mustangs pass the district test at Clarenceville's new high school gymnasium. District preliminaries will be played March 1, 2, 3, and 4, with the finals to be held Saturday, March 6.

Furnishing opposition will be Lutheran West, Clarenceville, Garden City West, and Dearborn Haston and Riverside.

Frosh Five Wins, 43-37

Coach Bob Kucher's freshman five evened its season record at 2-2 December 22 by whipping West Bloomfield, 43-37, in a game punctuated by whistles.

Fifty-four fouls were called. "It was a poorly played ball game," declared Kucher.

"The close officiating caused the boys to tighten up and make mistakes — that would account for many of the fouls," he said. "And of course, we made mistakes that were strictly our own fault."

Both teams were off at the free throw line as Northville converted only 17 of 44 attempts and West Bloomfield 19 of 35.

Center Jim Peterson backed the attack with 15 points, paced off by Guard Joe Andrew's 11.

The game was tied twice early in the fray, but the local frosh forged ahead late in the first period and led the rest of the way. Due to the number of fouls, everyone saw action.

These Events Made Headlines in 1964

JANUARY

A revolt in the fire department confronted the Northville city council. Volunteer firefighters protested that their chief was a policeman, objected to combining police and fire departments and wanted a voice in choosing new members or naming a chief.

Novi officials optimistically predicted that construction of the village's first sewer trunkline would get underway in January. The Michigan Municipal Finance Commission approved the $1.5 million project.

Pat Haley, a seventh grader at Novi school, was off for Lansing to become a pageboy in the state house of representatives. He was one of two boys in the metropolitan area selected for state capitol assignments.

The Russians were blamed for the delay in completing Northville's city hall — honest to Khrushchev! Roof trusses for the structure could not be sent from Oregon because rail boxcars were reserved for shipment of wheat to the Soviets.

Three petitions were filed for the post of mayor in Wixom — Incumbent Wesley McAtee, Councilman Lottie Chambers and Justice of the Peace William Welke.

FEBRUARY

Nine veteran members of the Northville fire department resigned but a training program was launched for 14 new volunteers and five department members who remained on the force. If Northville Mayor A. M. Allen moves into his newly-acquired home in the township, he will have to resign as the city's chief executive. The Northville township board by a 3-2 vote turned down the mayor's request that his property at 900 Scott be annexed to the city.

A Novi landmark — the First Baptist church building on Novi road — was razed. The old church was vacated two years ago in favor of a new edifice on Taft road and 11 Mile.

Northville's famous Old Spring was acting like a dry well. A survey was undertaken to trace the source of the well underneath the familiar landmark on South Main street.

Incumbent Mayor Wesley McAtee and William Welke, present justice of the peace in Wixom, will battle for the mayor's post in the city election in April. Both were nominated at the primary. Councilwoman Lottie Chambers finished third.

Herman "Bud" Hartner was named chief of the Northville fire department by City Manager Bruce Potthoff. The appointment was made after William McGee, former chief, submitted his resignation.

MARCH

Using a "soft sell", the Northville planning commission unveiled a plan for revitalizing the city's central business district. The present shopping area would be converted into a complex of stores divided by malls and encircled by parking zones.

Russell H. Amérman, superintendent of Northville public schools since 1933 and an administrator in the system since 1927, announced he will retire in June, 1965.

All three incumbent Novi councilmen — Joseph Crupi, Philip Anderson, and Dean Leneiser — were returned to office in the village election.

Oral vaccine polio clinics were announced for Northville, Novi and Wixom residents. Immunization stations will be set up in local schools.

A 21-year-old River Rouge man, Ambrose Beaton, was bound over to Oakland county circuit court for killing a hunting companion on Meadowbrook road in Novi February 26 by careless discharge of a firearm. The victim, Erwin Weiss, 24, of Ecorse died more than six hours after a bullet struck him in the face and lodged in his brain.

APRIL

Gulf Oil corporation said a gigantic bulk storage and distribution center will be built in Novi this year.

Northville councilmen upheld the dismissal of Andrew Cain, former police sergeant.

Wixom Mayor Wesley McAtee was re-elected. Councilmen Gunnar Mettala and Oscar Simmons were returned to office while newcomer Donald Nissen unseated Councilman Fred Beamish. Elwood Grubb was elected justice of the peace in the city election.

The U.S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries announced that the Northville fish hatchery will be closed soon.

Novi officials signed a contract to purchase Detroit water. Financing for the trunkline to bring the water to local homes would be provided by revenue bonds.

Continental Motors, a Novi taxpayer for nearly five years, revealed that it was closing down its governor plant in the village.

High wind, dry ground, and careless burning sparked an unusually high number of spring grass fires in the Northville-Novi area.

Northville's new $260,000 city hall opened.

MAY

Northville's senior councilman and mayor pro tem — John Canterbury — said he wants to retire from public life. Canterbury said he would quit "sometime this summer."

Glenn Renwick, Salem township supervisor, died. He was 66 and a township official for three years.

"The Wixom Bomber" set off a home-made bomb at the Finnish recreation hall near Loon Lake road. The blast ripped open the rear wall of the building, tore a hole in the floor and knocked down part of a basement wall.

Mrs. Pearl Willis resigned as Wixom's city clerk after serving two years. Mrs. Marjorie Preston was named acting clerk.

A 34-year-old construction worker from Garden City working on the Novi sewer line was crushed to death when a power bucket fell on him.

Six Northville township residents are seeking annexation of their property to the city. One of the property owners and originator of the plan was George Clark, former Northville township supervisor.

Wixom officials survey damage at a Finnish recreation hall at Loon lake following mysterious bombing.

JUNE

A hold-up man who predicted he would "probably get caught" walked out of the Northville office of Detroit Federal Savings and Loan with $6,565 stuffed in a paper bag.

Incumbent James Kipfer and newcomers Eugene Cook and E. O. Weber were elected to the Northville board of education.

The 95th graduating class at Northville high school bowed out. Some 159 seniors received diplomas.

Wixom councilman Ray Lahti, a Democrat, announced his candidacy for state representative in the second district of Oakland county.

Perkins Engines, Inc. — an affiliate of the world's largest producer of diesel engines — revealed it will move its U.S. headquarters to Novi.

The Northville public library, situated in the east wing of new city hall, opened for business.

Oakland and Wayne county road commissions said the Novi road entrance to the city of Northville will be improved at a cost of $110,000.

Famous Old Spring sputters and finally runs dry.

JULY

A controversial issue in Novi — the establishment of a mobile home site — simmered down. The village council approved one trail coach location on Haggerty north of Interstate 96, took another site under consideration and rejected three other sites.

James Kipfer was elected president of the Northville board of education. William MacDermid was tapped to head the Novi school board.

The Novi board of education scheduled a special election September 1 to adopt a three-mill increase for operating expenses.

A Zayti Trucking company driver escaped injury at the Seven Mile C & O crossing when his truck was hit broadside by a train. A semi-trailer of the gravel truck was demolished and the engine of the train was termed a total wreck.

Northville Rotarians were host to 1,800 foreign-exchange students and their American parents. The students said their goodbyes in Northville.

Robert K. Spradling, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Northville

In this age of increased learning and technical terms, it is difficult to be simple and to the point. Some people expect everything to be complicated, to the extent that anything said in understandable language is viewed with disdain.

However, when it comes to the matter of personal salvation, the Word of God is very clear. Even a child, who will read the Bible, can discover this truth. For example, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Romans 13:13.

This writer would suggest that anyone reading this verse, without theological bias, could know how to come to a saving knowledge of Christ. The story is told of an army chief of chaplains who questioned men planning to enter the chaplaincy. His procedure was to ask them the following questions: "I am a soldier dying with but three minutes to live. How do I get right with God?" Those who could not give a simple, Scriptural answer were not considered fit for duty in military service.

The late Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer once suggested that had the 23rd Psalm been written in our generation it might have read as follows:

"The unseen infinite is the source of my motivation, and I shall not want personality. He maketh me to experience true self-expression and to attempt new projects in the psychology of adolescence. He restoreth the right complex to my introvert soul. He leadeth me into the preface of morals for goodness sake. Yea, though I peregrinate through the present depression, exuberant health gives me a stiff upper lip. I can grin and bear my fate. Good luck is always with me. It's creative impulse and the pep of my elan vital comfort me. Surely normal behaviorism and carefully controlled altruism will follow me until the jig is up and then properly cremated I shall dwell in a marble urn forever."

The question is interesting. Men sometimes stumble over the answer. A right relationship to God comes by faith in Jesus Christ His Son.

Marching Band Arrives in California
Ann Arbor — The University of Michigan Marching Band of 205 men has arrived in Pasadena, California, for the Rose Bowl game New Year's Day. Under the direction of Dr. William D. Revelle, the band left December 26 by air. Several concerts are planned before the "Rose Bowl" parade and game. Appearances were scheduled for the San Diego State College stadium (December 28) and Disneyland (December 29), and in Pershing Square, Los Angeles (December 30, 7:30 p.m.).

Following the Rose Bowl, the ensemble will give two more concerts before returning home January 4. On January 2 they will appear on national television for the second day in a row at the Shrine Game in Kezar Stadium, San Francisco. A concert in Yule Stadium, Oakland, at 2:30 p.m. January 3 will close out the 10-day tour.

Their's magic in these sands of time, and as a child you were bewitched with endless fascination as you watched the grains sift from one glass sphere into another.

But as you grow older, the hourglass begins to have a different significance. Now you see the grains of sand as passing time—almost as if it were being snatched away from you. And there is a kind of desperation watching it go.

Why? Because never again can we recapture these minutes, hours, days!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Novi police officer felt like a zookeeper. He was told to round up a stray monkey. But the monkey "swung through the trees and escaped." Later, it found its way home on Wixom road.

Gulf Oil corporation said it will build a $1 million petroleum tank farm and redistribution center in Novi — one of the biggest installations of its kind in the U.S.

AUGUST

A traffic bottleneck was starting to disappear in Northville as workmen began to straighten out the Novi road curve and widen the Eight Mile cutoff.

Stanley Balon, a former Novi township and city of Wixom official, died at 49.

A brother and sister from Warren escaped death when their car struck a C&O freight train on 12 Mile near Taft road. The car was a total wreck.

A Novi village council meeting was adjourned after 15 minutes — undoubtedly one of the shortest sessions on record.

Governor George Romney was one of the main attractions at Novi's Gala Day celebration revived after an absence of two years.

Delay in repairs and clean-up operations on the Novi trunkline sewer project irked the Northville city council and many residents. Seven Mile road and South Main street were in bad shape and the Old Mill Pond was still dry.

A Detroit police officer, who was once attached to the vice squad, was found shot to death in a field on Taft road in Novi. His death was later ruled a suicide.

The Northville office of Detroit Federal Savings and Loan was robbed of $8,240 in cash by a man who said: "I am sorry I have to do this." It marked the second time in three months that the S&L had been robbed.

With classroom space at a premium, Northville school officials were eyeing the day when all tuition students could be weeded out of the system, including the ones from Novi.

Financing for an $800,000 sewer system in Wixom was under study. The system would bene-

Northville's new city hall was paid off. It cost $292,410.11.

A crackdown on vandals, believed to be local youths, was ordered in Northville.

Route of Detroit water lines became an issue in Northville. Detroit officials wanted to dig down Center street from Baseline to Five Mile road. Northville councilmen insisted there should be another way.

NOVEMBER

Traditional Republican Northville was swept up in the landslide vote for President Johnson. Johnson won in both the township and city — something never before accomplished by a Democrat.

In Northville, Novi and Wixom, however, Governor George Romney led by a wide margin over his Democratic rival. He carried the state by over 400,000 votes.

Novi township Supervisor Hadley Bachert retained his post while Charles Goers was selected as a trustee. Goers was formerly township clerk. In Northville township, all incumbents were unopposed.

Plans were revealed for an extension of Interstate 96 into Detroit and the construction of Interstate I-275. Both routes would cut through Northville and Novi with the latter becoming a hub of expressway interchanges in Michigan.

The Northville-Novi tuition student "honey-moon" was ended. Northville school board members prodded Novi officials to teach their own tenth grade next fall and phase out the rest of their high school students by 1967.

After a long wait, the bottleneck at Novi road and the Eight Mile cut-off has been straightened out—and Novi road was officially reopened.
