

First Baby Family

A happy Yamamoto family — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth, First Baby Scott Allen and big brother Kenneth, 2.

'65 Stork Race Won By Scott Yamamoto

Scott Allen Yamamoto is First Baby, 1965 in the Northville-Novi area.

The husky and healthy son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Yamamoto of 50888 West Nine Mile road, Novi, Scott Allen was born at 10:35 a.m. Friday, January 1.

There were no other entries even close to Scott in the race for prizes and First Baby honors.

The fact that their son arrived too late to be counted as a 1964 income tax deduction didn't disturb the Yamamotos. "We're just happy he's normal and healthy," said the proud father.

Scott Allen's not the first little Yamamoto. He has a two-year-old brother, Kenneth.

First Baby, 1965 was born at Woman's hospital in Detroit. His parents have lived in Novi for 1½ years and Dad works in the new car service department of a Detroit auto dealer.

Only two other births were reported that were close to giving Scott Allen competition in the First Baby contest.

Mickey Shawn Robertson was born at 7:15 p.m. on January 5 at University hospital in Ann Arbor. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, 9422 Chubb road.

A daughter, Margaret Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Olivich, Jr., at St. Mary hospital in Livonia at 2 p.m. January 6. The Oliviches live at 635 Horton.

Scott Allen brings the standings to five girls and four boys in the First Baby contests which began in 1957. He succeeds Mark Thomas Moran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moran of Novi, who was First Baby, 1964 and celebrated his birthday January 6.

For the Yamamotos, the First Baby title means the following gifts from area merchants: a baby blanket from Brader's Department Store; a baby toiletry kit from Northville Drug; a baby cup from H.R. Noder's Jewelry; a diaper bag from the D&C Store; a gift certificate from The Little People Shoppe; 24 cans of baby food from Kroger; a month's supply of milk from Cloverdale Farms Dairy; a dinner from Mother and father from Old Mill Restaurant and a case of baby formula from Novi Rexall Drug.

Other possibilities were to educate the 10th grade class in the fall and then transfer it to NHS for 11th and 12th grades. Or Novi could keep its own students for the 10th and then complete plans for a high school program which would start in September, 1966.

Apparently the last suggestion has won support.

William MacDermid, president of the Novi board, proposed that "the time is right for Novi to break out on its own we've got to do it someday. A women's voice from the audience rang out: "I've got six more kids coming up — let's get moving and get our own."

She was referring to finishing off the junior high school which was opened in September. One wall would be knocked out and an additional classroom wing built.

Such an addition would run between $200,000 and $300,000. A bond issue would be necessary to raise the funds. The addition, if a bond issue were successful, would be opened in the fall of 1966.

With the new addition, the school could handle 700 students. At the moment about 280 students are enrolled.

Someone asked about consolidation of the two districts. It was agreed that Northville "already has enough of its own problems." Besides taxes would go up.

Superintendent Tom Culbert said there is money in the district's budget to provide for the 10th grade program next year.

"The $40,000 we would pay in tuition would give us money for extra teachers," Culbert said. "We'll still operate a balanced budget."

Another advantage for retaining the students was magnified by Trustee David Fried. "There would be less of a classload here than in Northville," Fried pointed out. "With smaller classes there would be more attention for each child."

"We would give a better education here."

A parent agreed, saying: "We don't want to crowd the kids (in Northville) and make them feel they are intruding."

Board Secretary Richard Bingham opined that the present ninth graders "could be the leaders and set the pace for the school."

Only major limitation to staying in Novi was that the students could not participate in athletics until accreditation was granted. It could take a few years.

Speed Plans to Alleviate Northville Squeeze

Novi Eyes Own High School

If the preponderance of ninth grader parents in Novi get their way, the school district will embark on its own high school program, cutting the educational apron strings with Northville.

That's the conclusion reached last Wednesday night at a special meeting with the Novi board of education.

A poll was taken to ferret out the position of the parents on setting up a 10th-12th grade curriculum. Right now the district is only operating a kindergarten-9th program.

By 2-1, the parents said they would like their children to remain in the Novi system after June. The vote was 35 to 17 with several abstentions.

Members of the school board indicated that the parents' feeling would be weighed in drawing up a formal request to submit to the Northville board of education.

Northville school officials are trying to eliminate tuition students — most come from Novi — at the high school. Classrooms are overcrowded — and the "squeeze" could get worse.

Northville's board has prodded the Novi board to teach its own tenth grade next fall with the last Novi senior at NHS graduating in 1967.

Since the time a few months ago when the Northville board announced its intention to drop tuition pupils, the Novi board has faced many alternatives.

It could ask the Northville administration to accept the students who advance to the 10th grade in June. Or possibly enroll them in other school systems in the area — North Farmington or Walled Lake.

Other possibilities were to educate the 10th grade class in the fall and then transfer it to NHS for 11th and 12th grades.

Or Novi could keep its own students for the 10th and then complete plans for a high school program which would start in September, 1966.

Apparently the last suggestion has won support.

Township Attorney

Edward Draugelis took up his duties this week as new township attorney.

One of his first assignments was a suit brought by the Alex Gordon Building Co. against the township for refusing to issue a permit to remove sand and topsoil from a 95-acre site on Bradner road.

Draugelis won a postponement of the Wayne county circuit court hearing from January 12 to January 27.

The Plymouth attorney was named by the Northville township board last week. He also serves as city attorney for Plymouth and as attorney for Schoolcraft college.

Citizens Hear Details On Proposed Project Of Homes, Apartments

Approximately 60 area residents filled the Northville council chambers Tuesday night to hear Thompson-Brown President Robert H. Carey explain the apartment-residential development planned for 135 acres at Taft and Eight Mile roads.

The two-hour presentation produced numerous questions but few objections to the proposal.

The meeting was called by the planning commission to introduce the "cluster" or "open space" concept of development and to give residents a preview look at the first major apartment project in the community.

Specifically, the Thompson-Brown plan calls for construction of 225 homes and an equal number of apartment units. The total project is estimated at $10 million.

Planning Chairman George Zerbel opened the meeting and told his audience that it is the planners' desire to see that Northville develops in the best manner possible. "We're glad you're here to help us decide if this is the way it should be done," he stated.

Carey then displayed a number of color slides which traced the origin and development of open space planning. In a nutshell, the concept reduces the lot size on which houses or apartments are placed and uses the excess land for park and recreation area serving the development.

While Thompson-Brown proposes a park development in the middle of its project, its lot sizes for homes and area requirement for apartments exceed the minimum specifications of local zoning ordinances.

Rezoning of the northwest corner area at Taft and Eight Mile is required, however, to permit construction of apartments. Presently the area is zoned R-15, although a commercial trucking operation is now non-conforming on the site.

A 33-acre park area on rugged terrain which was formerly a gravel raining operation adjoins the 21-acre apartment site on the north in the Thompson-Brown plan. Single family residences would be constructed north of the park on both sides of Taft as far north as the city limits and abutting Connemara Hills in Novi.

Another area of single family residences would be constructed on a 35-acre parcel south of Eight Mile road, directly across from the apartment units. This parcel is in the township and would require annexation to the city.

Thompson-Brown's feasibility study indicates water and sewer service can be extended to the area, Carey said.

In general the presentation seemed to impress the audience. Carey answered all questions without hesitation, pointing out that his company has leased the land from Gerald Taft and had completed its preliminary plans which must be approved before the firm will proceed with purchase.

In answer to question from the floor Carey revealed: "that Thompson-Brown will build and own the apartment units; if plan approval is received sewer construction would begin this year, house construction on the southern portion in 1966 with full completion by 1970; the park area would be completed before public sale of houses began, he added;

the park would probably be owned by an association of the property owners and the value of the land assessed to the individual houses and apartment buildings benefitting from the area;

apartments would be one and two bedroom and rent for $125 to $175, houses would begin at $25,000.

Representatives of school study committees were interested observers at the meeting.

By a 4-3 vote Shafer's motion carried. Supporting him were Kipfer, Treasurer Edward Angove and Vice President Wilfred Becker.

On the other side of the issue were Trustees William Crump and Weber and Secretary Eugene Cook.

Board Drops Letter on Racing Dates

Most of the members of the Northville board of education favor the spring racing dates for 1965 at Northville Downs.

But they seemingly hope it is only a temporary arrangement.

In a 4-3 showdown vote, a motion to send a letter to the state racing commission expressing "concern" about the early dates was killed.

The Downs was awarded a split 57-night harness season in December. Racing will open locally March 26. Just 18 nights later it will shift to Wolverine Raceway in Livonia.

Fans and horses will return to the Downs June 29 for 39 more nights of racing through August 4.

Reason for the split dates is that construction at the Detroit Race Course, where the Wolverine meet is held, wouldn't be completed before March 26.

At its regular meeting last month, the board faced the issue of whether the track attracts undesirable elements to the city. It was contended that the oval draws a few.

At that time Trustee E. O. Weber opposed operating the track during the school term because he was "concerned about the safety of youngsters in the evening" with "these characters running around."

Board President James Kipfer brought the matter to a head at the school board meeting Monday night. Kipfer felt a "personal contact should precede a formal request."

Weber, however, already had prepared a letter which was passed out to other board members. He indicated the board should "go on record" with its position.

Weber got little support at first. Board Secretary Eugene Cook retorted that the city "wants to get as many racing dates as possible. I am agreeable to getting more dates."

"I would hate to see us go on record against the apparent will of the school district," Trustee William Crump rebutted that many would approve fewer racing dates.

Weber then proposed that if the "matter is of no concern to the board, we should drop it."

Veteran Trustee Robert Shafer reiterated that if Weber maintains his stance he should "so state it with substance...not only responsibility but duty to do it."

Shafer admitted he "has no use for the track" but emphasized that he couldn't "see where something has been spelled out." He referred to Weber's charges as "speculation."

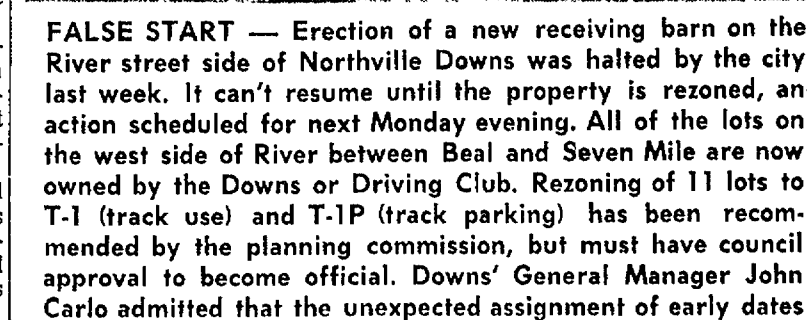

Weber further stated that he envisions the early meet as "not just a one shot thing."

Responded Board Treasurer Edward Angove: "I don't think it is a permanent thing. You'll hear some hollering if it is."

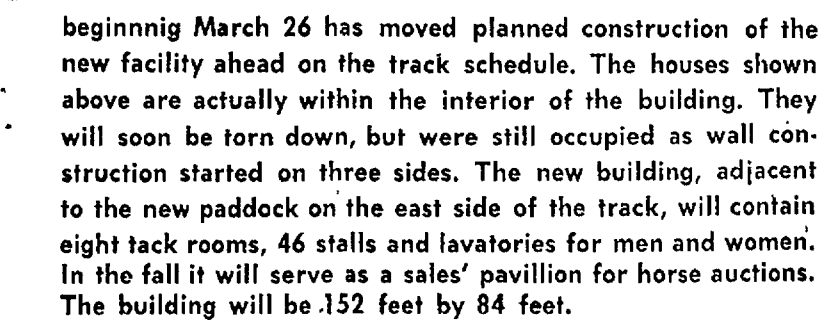

Weber then called for the motion.

Crump and Vice President Wilfred Becker backed him but Kipfer, Cook, Shafer and Angove defeated the motion.

It will not be the first time the Downs has opened while classes are still in session. April dates have been allocated in previous years.

FALSE START — Erection of a new receiving barn on the River street side of Northville Downs was halted by the city last week. It can't resume until the property is rezoned, an action scheduled for next Monday evening. All of the lots on the west side of River between Beal and Seven Mile are now owned by the Downs or Driving Club. Rezoning of 11 lots to T-1 (track use) and T-1P (track parking) has been recommended by the planning commission, but must have council approval to become official. Downs' General Manager John Carlo admitted that the unexpected assignment of early dates beginning March 26 has moved planned construction of the new facility ahead on the track schedule. The houses shown above are actually within the interior of the building. They will soon be torn down, but were still occupied as wall construction started on three sides. The new building, adjacent to the new paddock on the east side of the track, will contain eight tack rooms, 46 stalls and lavatories for men and women. In the fall it will serve as a sales pavilion for horse auctions. The building will be 152 feet by 84 feet.

1964 Building Up in Township

Building activity in 1964 slumped sharply in the city of Northville, but rose steadily in the township.

Meanwhile, Novi and Wixom experienced decided dips, due to school and Ford Motor company projects that had made 1963 banner building years so far as permit totals are concerned.

In the city of Northville a total of $636,868 worth of building took place.

In 1963 the city recorded $1,350,549.

Permits were issued for 26 new homes compared to 33 in 1963. Total valuation of the homes was $398,800, the principle form of building activity in the city during the year.

House alterations were up from 33 to 39 and accounted for $40,443, while three new commercial buildings amounted to a total valuation of $1,300,000.

Township building activity climbed above the $1 million mark in 1964, moving from $892,237 in 1963 to $1,715,641.

Fifty new homes in the township accounted for a total building valuation of $1,323,816, while commercial activity added $267,743 to the total. Garages and pools accounted for $36,842, while alterations and additions totaled $87,240.

The building dip in the city can be traced to 1963 activity which included the new city hall, Foundry Flak addition, Presbyterian church and Anger Manufacturing. In 1964 there were no new industrial permits issued.

Novi building activity fell in 1964 from $1,680,729 in 1963 to

In Our Town

By Jean Day

FEBRUARY IS THE MONTH the birthdays of St. Valentine, Lincoln and Washington are celebrated. For 55 years it also has been the month of a lesser-known observance—February 17 is PTA Founders Day. This day is being marked increasingly, not only as an honor to the two women who founded the PTA movement in 1897 but also as a time for parents and teachers to rededicate themselves "to service for all children and youth."

In this spirit Amerman school PTA is in the midst of plans for its first Founders Day observance, a banquet meeting to be held Thursday, February 4 at the high school. Otto Yntema, president of the Michigan Parent-Teachers Association and director of field services at Western Michigan university at Kalamazoo, is to be the keynote speaker.

A reservation form is going home with the children this week. To entice fathers as well as mothers, a gourmet buffet dinner at $2 a person is planned by Miss Margaret Sours, teacher vice president, who is handling dinner arrangements. Plans for a Founders Day observance initially were discussed by the 1963-4 Amerman PTA board with the feeling that it would strengthen the fellowship between school and parent. The present board, headed by Al and Helen Myers, adopted the idea and decided to go "all out" with a banquet when Mr. Yntema promised to be the speaker.

The decoration committee has chosen a red, white and gold color scheme for the banquet as a "Valentine" for founders Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst who made their concern for children nationwide when they drew 2,000 persons to Washington, D.C. in 1897. From the beginning they earned that Valentine with their concern for establishment of child health and labor laws and kindergartens.

The initial program used that day in Washington observed, "Character cannot be talked into or taught into a child; it must be lived into him."

"MIRROR OF AMERICA," the prize-winning film belonging to the National Archives, Washington, D.C., assembled from the collection of films belonging to the late Henry Ford, will be shown at the January meeting of the Northville Historical Society at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the meeting room of the Northville office of the Detroit Savings and Loan association.

The movie is composed of original film clips taken by the Ford Motor company motion picture department started in 1914. During the 1963 Ford centennial celebration all the Ford films were presented to the National Archives, with $200,000 to process them. Viewers will take a nostalgic trip through the years 1914 to 1927.

EVEN A ROSE is enhanced by the proper vase. Perhaps with this thought in mind, the Distaff Botanists garden group is touring the Abernathy Pottery Studio in Ann Arbor at 12:30 p.m. today. Members will return to the Cady street home of Mrs. Rhea Wilcox afterward for coffee and discussion.

"THE ART OF LAPIDARY is as old as man," Paul Gowan told members of Northville Women's club last Friday as he traced the history of stone collecting and beautification from 1200 B.C. At that date, he said, there is Biblical reference to the 12 tribes of Israel being represented by 12 stones.

In introducing the retired civil engineer whose hobby is lapidary, Mrs. Arthur Basel commented, "He improves upon the natural beauty of stones." Members agreed as they inspected the exhibit case of his polished stones and gems in delicate mountings.

Collecting instincts were aroused as the speaker pointed out that Michigan yields such unusual stones as the 300-million-year-old Petoskey stone found in the northern part of the state. While few Michigan stones are worthy of being faceted, he continued, many, many are worthy of being rounded and polished.

Cited as particularly choice were Lake Superior agate, Isle Royale green stones, petrified wood from the Upper Peninsula and varieties of quartz. Would-be lapidarists were encouraged further as they learned that a simple abrasive kit for beginners costs about one dollar.

A delayed fine was paid in Northville Municipal court by a Detroit accused of drunk and disorderly conduct at Northville Downs Raceway last July 2.

Giovanni Silvestri of 8682
Grand River was picked up last July by Northville police on the charge, posted a $50 bond and was released pending trial July 13.

When Silvestri failed to appear his bond was forfeited.

Letters of warning went unheeded and a bench warrant was issued. Northville police finally tagged him and he was arrested before Judge Charles McDonald January 8. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was assessed a fine of $25.

A complaint was made by ter streets December 30 and causing property damage to charged at his arraignment January 11 and paid a $10 fine.

Brantford Elliott of 672 Tayler boulevard was fined $5 for speeding 35 in a 25 mile zone on North Center street.

Every week Novi police and justices of the peace continue to crackdown on motorists who drive defective vehicles.

In his courtroom last Thursday Judge Emory Jacques handed out three fines.

A Wixom resident, George Brydges of 2987 Potter, paid a $5 fine. Donald Bemis of Madison Heights was assessed a fine of $5.

William Childress of 25500

ing with defective lights. Like the others, he paid a $5 fine.

A stiff fine for driving under the influence of alcohol was paid by Amos R. Mopps of 9199 vember 30, found guilty and assessed a $50 fine and 30 days in jail.

Moors was driving on East
Lake drive when ticketed.

Cagers Sweep Pair To Move Up in W-O

Results of last week's games in Wayne-Oakland play turned the conference into a 'Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World.' Two teams are tied for the loop lead and no less than three are deadlocked for third place.

Possible title winner at this point is anybody's guess. Northville did its share in throwing the W-O race into a hectic scramble as the Mustangs posted back-to-back victories to run their record to 3-2 for a piece of third place.

Coach Dave Longridge's charges turned back a spirited Brighton squad Friday night, 49-44, and pulled one out of the fire, 53-46, Saturday night against Milford. Both games were played on the road.

Surging Bloomfield Hills nudged the title picture by edging Holly Friday night, 51-47, to pin the first league loss on the pre-season favorites.

Then Bloomfield came back Saturday to trounce once-beaten Clarkston, 71-56, after the Wolves had polished off Clarencville, 61-37, Friday night.

The victories moved Bloomfield into a tie with Holly for first place with a 4-1 slate. Northville's two wins, Clarkston's split and West Bloomfield's 57-38 pasting of cold-shooting Milford Friday night placed the three teams in a tie for third place, all with 3-2 records.

In the only other contest played during the weekend, previously winless Clarencville upset lowly Brighton, 60-63, Saturday night. Clarencville, Milford and Brighton have identical 1-4 marks.

The double sweep gave Northville's basketball forces a real shot in the arm, despite the fact that the opponents were not court powers or even solid opposition.

Friday night's fray with Brighton was a wild contest, decided in the final minutes in the Bulldog's small gymnasium. Northville trailed, 42-40 with just two minutes remaining in the game.

Guard John Jameson tied it up when he converted two free throws. Back-court mate Tom Bingham provided the clutch basket moments later on a sparkling give-and-go play to give Northville a 44-42 lead.

Forward Mark Cushing fired one through the hoop with 43 seconds to go after an interception, and Inmsland converted a free throw and Bingham two more to give Northville its biggest lead of the game, 49-44, with seconds left.

Before the Mustangs put on the last-minute flurry, it looked like a Brighton victory as the Bulldogs led most of the way. At times, the Mustangs spurred to cut the gap and to take slight leads, but each time a miscue tripped them up.

Brighton forged into a 14-9 first quarter lead and hung on for a 23-10 margin at halftime. With both teams fast-breaking in the undersized gym, the ball flew furiously through the air. Many of the passes were wayward.

Northville muscled into a 25-23 lead by scoring three consecutive two-pointers to open the second half. The lead exchanged hands three more times before Brighton took a slim 32-31 advantage at period's end.

The see-saw battle began again in the final quarter until the Mustangs' final burst. Bingham provided the spark that the Mustangs needed as he flipped in 17 points to pace his mates. Center Jerry Inmsland chipped in with 11.

Hot man for the Bulldogs was Cliff Ritter, who scored 19 points for game honors. Highly touted Center Bruce Evenson bagged 13.

Brighton was the next victim Monday evening here as the Northville frosh turned in their best game of the season, a 59-42 victory.

Standout performer was Northville's Jim Peterson who tallied 22 points, and with the aid of Bob Hubbard, controlled the backboards.

Peterson got solid scoring support from his teammates as Matthews hit for nine, Joe Andrews and Hubbard each dropped in eight points, and Randy Burnett came through with six, all in the second half.

"It was the best ball game we have played this year," said Kucher. "We looked real sharp in running our patterned offense."

The two victories pushed the Northville freshmen's record to 4-2. Their two losses were suffered by slight margins, two points to Milford and four to Plymouth.

And Kucher's cagers will have a chance to soothe the pain of the previous loss to Plymouth, 42-38, when they take on the Rocks at 4 p.m. tomorrow on the home court.

With a gleam of determination in his eye, Kucher said that the Northville frosh led all the way in that one, only to lose in the last minutes.

The Mustangs increased their lead to 28-20 at halftime, but again errors prevented them from busting loose, especially in the last minute and one-half of play when Northville had a 12-point lead.

It was all Milford in the third period. The Redskins outscored the visitors, 19-14, as Northville simply cooled off from the floor and led by merely, 42-39.

By moving his cagers from a man-to-man into a zone defense, Longridge threw Milford off balance for a minute in the fourth period that made the difference.

Inmsland took over from there.

JV's Split

The Northville JV five split weekend engagements by wallowing Brighton, 62-31, Friday night, then taking a 65-50 licking at the hands of Milford Saturday night.

Mustangs Host Clarkston Five

Riding the crest of a three-game winning streak in W-O loop action, the Northville Mustangs will be out to push it to four when they take on visiting Clarkston tomorrow night.

The varsity tilt will get underway after the finish of the JV clash, which begins at 6:30 p.m.

Winning became a way with the Mustangs just before the Holiday vacation. At that time, Coach Dave Longridge's cagers registered its first win of the season by trouncing Clarencville.

After absorbing two losses while winning only once in the Rouge prep tournament, the local five returned to action last weekend in impressive style by bringing back two victories.

Three consecutive wins in the conference moved the Mustangs into a tie for third place with West Bloomfield and Clarkston, and all but wiped out the memory of previous league losses to West Bloomfield and Holly.

Northville shouldn't have any difficulty getting up for this one.

Not only is Clarkston a threat to the Mustangs' title ambitions, but there's the thought of two losses last year to the team from north of Pontiac.

One of those clashes was decided by just three points in the closing minutes of the ball game at Clarkston. The return match was a humiliating affair from a Mustang's viewpoint as Clarkston won, 56-39.

It's a different outfit that will face Northville.

Gone are Clarkston's three aces, Ken Miskin, Mike Bray and Dan Craven, who led the Wolves to a share of the W-O crown with Bloomfield Hills on the basis of a 12-2 record.

But in the talents of six-one Sophomore Dan Fife and di-

Frosh Dump Highland

The Holiday layoff seemed to be just what the doctor ordered for the Northville freshmen as they resumed play the past week by hammering two opponents into submission.

First to feel the eprowess of Coach Bob Kucher's cagers was hapless Milford Highland which fell, 42-14, last Friday.

It was simply a question of too many guns as Northville sprinted to a 29-2 margin and finished off the first half, leading 29-5.

From there on in, Kucher emptied the bench as the score mounted.

Center Jim Peterson with 15 points and Guard Dennis Matthews with eight paced the local attack.

Brighton was the next victim Monday evening here as the Northville frosh turned in their best game of the season, a 59-42 victory.

Standout performer was Northville's Jim Peterson who tallied 22 points, and with the aid of Bob Hubbard, controlled the backboards.

Peterson got solid scoring support from his teammates as Matthews hit for nine, Joe Andrews and Hubbard each dropped in eight points, and Randy Burnett came through with six, all in the second half.

But in the talents of six-one Sophomore Dan Fife and diminutive Gary Pearson, Clarkston has the remnants of last year's squad that is still dangerous.

Both cagers are especially good shooters.

They've led Clarkston to victories over Clarencville, Milford and West Bloomfield (which beat Northville in the opening game).

The Wolves dropped games to Brighton, which took advantage of its small court and sharp shooting to upset Clarkston, and Bloomfield Hills, a team now tied with Holly for first place.

A loss will drop either Clarkston or Northville out of a tie for third place and damage one of the team's title hopes.

In other W-O contests, Friday night, Clarencville is at Bloomfield Hills, Holly at Milford and Brighton at West Bloomfield.

Matmen Look Good In Defeat

There are not many coaches who would be "happy" if their team lost a wrestling match by a 30-11 tally, but that's exactly how Northville Coach Dick Gray felt last Thursday.

His matmen had just dropped the meet to powerful Flat Rock, a team that beat defending state champion River Rouge earlier this year.

Reason for Gray's elation was the fact that the Mustangs lost only two matches by pins, a significant accomplishment in itself.

And the local team had its winners. Bob Orr, a veteran wrestler at 180 pounds, 154-pound Mike Horner and 103-pound Tom Wright all won by decision. Fighting his man to a draw was 127 pound Denny Cook.

2 Injured In Accident

A Plymouth resident and a Detroit were injured in an auto accident Tuesday morning near Five Mile and Sheldon roads: Taken to St. Mary hospital were William J. Edward Jr. of 45757 Five Mile and Armita Ross of Detroit. Miss Ross made a left turn in front of oncoming traffic, according to a Wayne county sheriff report.

a beating by four assailants. Myers apparently suffered a few broken ribs, police said, but is still under a doctor's care.

Police Chief Eugene King said his department has almost concluded its investigation of the beating and will request warrants for the arrest of the quartet.

He identified its members as David Luedtke, Charles Klocke and Dennis Madigan of Northville and Joseph Early of Farmington.

Myers was with a group of friends when Early appeared to antagonize him and began bumping him with his elbow, police reported. When the argument was settled, Klocke began making sarcastic remarks, the report stated.

Myers got up from his seat and headed toward Klocke, the chief stated, and then Myers was jumped. "The others worked him over," King said.

The restaurant was damaged in the melee, the chief said. But no estimate has been made of the destruction.

Senate Hopefuls To Address Democrat Club

Candidates for State Senatorial primary February 15 will speak to the regular party meeting of 2nd District Wayne County Organization at 8 p.m. Monday night at Plymouth Credit Union Hall, 500 South Harvey.

The 14th senate district election was made necessary by the death of senator-elect Paul Chandler.

Other business to come before the meeting will be the election of several members to the board of directors. All Democrats are invited. Coffee will be served.

Dog Licenses Due in Township

Northville township residents were reminded by Clerk Marguerite Young that 1963 dog licenses are now due and available at the township hall.

A clinic for dogs requiring shots will be held at a later date this spring, she said.

Disputes 'Broken Record'

To the Editor,

The Northville Record headline, 10-8-64, said Tyler Remark Prompts Resignation by Littell. A front page story 11-12-64 said it again. An editorial reference 11-19-64 said it again. A review of 1964 news 12-30-64, page 4, said it again. The front page 1-7-65 is still saying it. Your oft-repeated version is beginning to be quoted like Gospel and requires some exploration.

Will Mr. Littell's bleeding ego ever heal if we relive his anguish weekly? Did Mr. Littell resign because his feelings were hurt by a chance remark? Was Mr. Littell able to serve Northville Township Nineteen years because chance remarks were never uttered in his presence?

Did Mr. Tyler's chance remark merely act as a catalyst for Mr. Littell's planned resignation? Mr. Littell's image of cogency rather than capriciousness suggests a more valid reason for his resignation.

You will recall that Mr. Littell had a rough evening at the October meeting. Both Supervisor Merriam and Clerk Rita Young vainly sought Mr. Littell's confirmation of their version of alleged counsel, given to Clerk Young, relevant to her admitted violation of a township ordinance, which she had sworn to enforce. All of this Mr. Littell emphatically denied.

Please kind Editor, LET Mr. Littell heal in peace. Clerk Young has been permitted to forget her ordinance violation. Supervisor Merriam has been spared the painful recollection that he overstepped his authority in issuing a building permit for an illegal building on Clerk Young's property. I can only conclude that you must think very highly of Mr. Tyler since you seem determined to blot out his stains with printer's ink. Come to think of it, what was his sin?

Elsie Price

Thanks

Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters wishes to thank local citizens, merchants and the Senior Citizen's group for their gifts of money, clothing and services as an assist with our Christmas project. Because of this generosity we provided ten fully-stocked baskets and sweaters, jackets and toys for twenty children.

Thirty plates of fruit were distributed to shut-ins at home and Eastlawn sanitarium. During the year we serve as an emergency relief unit for Northville and Northville township and to provide the means for this we have bake sales plus a bazaar and luncheon in the spring which the community generously supports. As a result we have also been able to provide groceries for eight needy families, fuel for two families and shoes for the children of two other families.

As a community service we support the four local Bible Schools and each year send two local girls to summer camp for two weeks. Five-thousand cancer pads were made by our group during the year and we furnished layettes to the Children's hospital in Ann Arbor, plus seventy Christmas presents for the children there.

Many hours of volunteer service have been given by our women to the State Mental Hospital and the American Red Cross. As our obligation to the International Order we contribute to the support and maintenance of the King's Daughters and sons Home for the Aged in Detroit, Camp Missaukee, Chautauqua International and Indian relief.

Northville Players Star

Curtain Rising Saturday On PTA's Rumpelstiltskin

Rumpelstiltskin, that storied little man with a heart as big as his name, is coming to Northville Saturday.

Appearing with him will be all the charming and picturesque characters that have made his fairy tale life a favorite of children down through the ages.

Staged in a fantasy world complete with music, it's all part of the fifth annual live drama for children program sponsored by the Parent-Teacher associations at the Amerman and Main street elementary schools.

This year for the first time the PTA found a cast of storybook people right in its own backyard.

The two-year-old Northville Players Guild will present the "Rumpelstiltskin" production Saturday at 3 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Tickets will be sold in the schools today (Thursday) and tomorrow and at the door on Saturday. They are priced at 35 cents for children 50 cents for adults.

Both the PTA and players' guild are hoping for a capacity turnout of 600. "Rumpelstiltskin" has never received such deluxe treatment in the estimate of NPG Director Hans Kolbe.

"This version is far better than the average children's show. It has all the elements of the fairy tale and the music is excellent."

"It's really a good miniature musical with solos, a bit of choral work and incidental music," Kolbe said.

Depicting the characters are: Edd Austin, the miller; Fran Bissa, his wife; Harriette Patterson, Grizelda, their daughter; Muriel Ross, Lucy, a sister; James Drew, the king; Gene Sterner, an elderly page.

On the technical side Dr. Kolbe is being aided by Rita Sprenger, assistant director; June Gasser, properties; Muriel Ross, costumes; Florence Rowland, makeup; and Gary Webb, scene design.

Mrs. E. O. Weber and Mrs. Betty Sellers, chairmen of the PTA drama committees at Main Street and Amerman, were instrumental in bringing this fifth annual production to Northville.

Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe

(discover the difference) Find out what 350 hp feels like in America's favorite intermediate size car

Next time you're feeling low, come on in and plunk yourself down in the bucket seat of a Chevelle Malibu Super Sport. Flick the ignition—bring that special-order 350-hp power plant to life. Then go find a road and try not to smile. We think it's the greatest pep pill since weekends—and that goes for the other Chevelle V8's too. The 195-hp. And the 250- and 300-hp jobs we can order for you. And of course if power doesn't sell you right off, maybe Chevelle's short turning radius and overall handling ease will. Or its Full Coil suspension ride. Or its all-vinyl, carpeted interior. Or maybe it's just plain old Chevelle value.

The way in which the immortality of life becomes a reality for every individual will be explored in the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science churches this Sunday.The subject is "Life," and it is keynoted by the Golden Text from Galatians (6:8): "He that soweth to the spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."The theme is amplified by this passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Being holiness, harmony, immortality. It is already proved that a knowledge of this, even in small degree, will uplift the physical and moral standard of mortals, will increase longevity, will purify and elevate character. Thus progress will finally destroy all error, and bring immortality to light."

to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 492).

By Rev. John I. Wittstock

Our Lady of Victory Church, Northville

ARE YOU GOING STEADY WITH GOD?

We hear much about, but mostly against, going steady.It really depends on the maturity and intention of those"going steady." Is marriage in the near future? Then going steady is good. Otherwise it is a one way street that leads to a dead end called trouble.All of us in a spiritual way are walking down the one way street that leads to death but there is no trouble there because we then experience the beginning of eternal life. There is no trouble at that end, of course, if we have been going steady with God during our life on earth.You certainly have been going steady with God all the while that you have had a strong desire to please Him in your daily actions. "If you will enter into life, keep the commandments." (Matthew 19, 17); "if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me." (Luke 9, 23).These texts prove that faith alone won't save us, but we must be doers of good works. The idea that faith alone is sufficient for salvation comes from certain isolated texts of scripture, often divorced from context and considered apart from other texts, like those quoted above, which complete and explain them.Salvation and sanctification are not a single process, no more than lying in this world is a simple, unified action. You cannot give a man the rules of correct human living in one easy maxim.God has destined man for heaven, which is life with Himself, a life of happiness beyond all human imaginings. Living with God is not ordinary human living. It requires more than human facilities. Human intelligence is not enough for knowing God as He is. Human will isnot capable of loving Him with the happy entirety of heaven. Therefore God intends man to do something which is impossible for man alone to do; live in heaven.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO —

Northville township board members assumed a cool attitude Tuesday night toward a proposal to permit a residence purchased by Northville Mayor A. M. Allen to be annexed to the city. Only a motion to table the matter until the next board meeting saved the request from defeat. Denial by the township board could mean that Allen, mayor of the city since 1958, would have to resign his office. His present term expires in April, 1965.

Permits for construction of more than $4 million worth of commercial, residential and industrial development were issued during 1963 in the Northville-Novi area. The estimated construction value was nearly double the amount recorded the previous year. For the second year in a row, Novi led the way, having $1.6 million in new construction.

Charles F. Carrington, a real estate and insurance agent, was named to the Northville board of review.

Dun Rovin, the 18-hole golf course in Northville township, expects to have its new $80,000 clubhouse ready for spring golfers.

FIVE YEARS AGO —

An outbreak of Asian flu is destined to reach epidemic proportions in Northville. The area-wide illness has been on the rise locally since Christmas. Local doctors now admit it will become a "true" epidemic.

Two youngsters, aged 10 and 11, escaped Monday night from the Wayne County Training school and broke into the D&C store on East Main street.

Petitions calling for the annexation of Northville Estates in Novi to the city of Northville will be filed in Lansing Friday.

A raging three-alarm fire, apparently started by a defective fuse box, destroyed a $30,000 unoccupied home in Northville township Sunday evening. The home was located on old Five Mile road east of St. John's Seminary. It was owned by the state and was to have been used as a staff house for the new Plymouth State Home and Training school.

Northville plunked in only 13 field goals but sandwiched between were some important charity shots as the Mustangs edged West Bloomfield, 44-43. Christmas was "quiet and lonely" for Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Wills and their four children who ventured to Alaska with the famous "fifty-niners" caravan. There were no songs or music in their log cabin Christmas eve because the radio battery went dead.

Novi Police Chief Lee Be-Gole was elected vice president of the Michigan - Ontario Juvenile association.

15 YEARS AGO —

Several windows were broke at the Scout building by village boys. Their antics were climaxed Monday evening by a snowball being thrown through a window splattering glass on boys playing billiards in the basement. The Northville recreation committee has deemed it wise to close the boys' club temporarily.

Mrs. Harriet Rogers died. Her parents — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton — were early pioneers in the area. Mrs. Rogers, 82, was one of the oldest living members of the First Methodist church.

For the year 1949, village officials reported 304 births and 91 deaths in Northville. Robert Freydl and Tom Heslip were among the members of the boy's glee club that performed during a concert January 12 at the high school. Rowena Salow was installed as noble grand of the Rebekahs of the Novi lodge.

25 YEARS AGO —

More babies were born in 1939 than 1938. The totals were 113 and 108, respectively.

At its annual meeting the stockholders of Depositors State bank re-elected all directors to the board. They were: E. S. Beard, G. C. Benton, E. M. Bogart, John A. Boyce, Alex. Christensen, Harry B. Clark, E. H. Lapham, Floyd A. Northrop, L. G. Stewart and R. M. Terrell.

Mrs. Roy Matheson was named president of the Northville branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association.

Northville's Ford valve plant — a test case for Henry Ford's small factory idea — was mentioned in an article in the Christian Science Monitor about Ford's decentralization.

The Northville fire department answered 24 alarms in 1939. The biggest fire was at the Northville Fairgrounds which occurred August 24. The poultry house and secretary's office were burned.

— City Council Minutes —

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen on Monday, December 21, 1964 at 8:00 p.m. in the Northville City Hall.

Present: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Kester.

Absent: None. Others: Charles Carrington, Robert Cole.

The minutes of the previous meeting of December 7, 1964 were approved with no corrections.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Canterbury that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General	$14,325.27
Water Dept.	1,276.03

Unanimously carried.

Communications from Citizens:

Because Mr. Cole was in the audience, the manager reported his findings on snow removal from city sidewalks as had been previously requested. He had talked to the three following men:

Pulkinson, Plymouth — $6,500 — based on 22.25 miles of sidewalk (3 yr. contract).

Priestop, Plymouth — Had no figures at present time but would bid next year.

Robert Cole, Northville — $6,670 — 23 miles of sidewalk 945 sweepable homes (3 yr. contract).

After considerable discussion between Mr. Cole and the City Council, moved by Canterbury, supported by Kester that the City Manager enter into an agreement with Robert Cole to sweep all sweepable sidewalks in the City of Northville on a trial basis, for the next two snowfalls (which require sweeping) and it is understood that Mr. Cole will be reimbursed $200 for each time that sidewalks are swept. Unanimously carried.

Further Consideration of Following Proposed Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance:

- Central Business District.
- Central Business Parking District.
- Municipal Parking Authority.

Mr. Ambler spoke in favor of adopting these ordinances which are simply vehicles which may be used as a directive for any possible future plans for the business area and periphery of the City of Northville. Mayor Allen asked if Mr. Stevenson, the new consultant, had been consulted about the adoption of said ordinances.

At Mr. Canterbury's suggestion a work session to discuss these ordinances more fully will be set at the next regular Council meeting on January 4, 1965.

Report from the Meeting at the Northville Township Hall Concerning the Proposed Expressway in the Area of Haggerty Road:

City Manager's report was read by the Clerk. Mayor Allen mentioned that the C and O river will be in this vicinity about January 15th concerning the requested gates for the railroad crossing at Seven Mile. After lengthy discussion, the City Manager was instructed to write a letter to the Wayne County Road Commission expressing the Council's views relative to the interchange at Seven Mile road;

the grade separation at Seven Mile road and the straightening of Seven Mile road in relation to the above project.

Report from Councilmen Ambler and Canterbury Concerning their meeting with Mr. Remus of the Detroit Water Board:

Mr. Canterbury reported that he and Mr. Ambler had met with Mr. Remus and Mr. Michaels of the Detroit Water Board. They were reminded by Mr. Remus and Mr. Michaels of a previous agreement by a former Council whereby the Center street route was designated. Mr. Canterbury reviewed previously mentioned alternate routes and mentioned an additional which he had not heard discussed — the Elm, East and High street route. Mr. Canterbury felt that alternate routes should be more closely examined and these and the Center street route discussed more fully from engineering cost figures.

The City Manager is to talk over total problem with the City Engineer and approach it in detail with relation to present staff or whether it might be advisable to consult with water consultants. This is to be reviewed from the following points:

- routes — where and why (basis for decision).
- rate structure — in relation to possible change in rate.

Consider an Appointment to the Board of Review:

Moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that Richard Lyon of Merkes street be appointed to the City of Northville Board of Review for a term of 3 years beginning January 1, 1965 (to succeed Alton Peters). Unanimously carried.

Discuss Manner in Which the Variant Lot at 123 W. Main street is to be used:

The city manager reported the building 123 W. Main street has been demolished and would like Council's wishes expressed in relation to its use.

The Parking Committee is to take this under advisement and make decisions relative to the N. Wing street and W. Main street lots early in 1965.

At the present time W. Main street lot is to be used by the public.

Initiatory Resolutions Directing City Manager to report on special assessments for the following projects:

- Paving West Street from Randolph to W. Dunlap.
- Paving the entire length of Butler and Pennell streets.
- Curb, gutter and paving for the entire length of River street.

After some discussion on above streets and other streets within the city, it was decided to pave Novi street between Baseline and Rouge. Moved by Kester, supported by Canterbury to adopt the above resolution and include Novi street, south of Baseline to Rouge for paving. Unanimously carried.

Miscellaneous:

Mr. Sliger made a suggestion of taping parking meters with Christmas red and green tape for free parking during the Christmas season.

Mr. Ambler asked the City Attorney if there had been any progress with the Peterson property and was told they have not heard from the appraisers.

Mr. Kester asked regarding the progress of the property at 123 W. Main street.

City Attorney reported that the purchase of property from C. R. Ely and Sons had been signed and a $50 check given to them in lieu of the complete purchase price of $1,000.

Mayor Allen made a report on the meeting he attended previously in the day at Lansing which Mayor Wernette of Plymouth had asked him to attend. This hearing was held before the Public Service Commission relative to the removal of passenger trains on the C and O railroad line going through Plymouth.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne
City Clerk

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

School board concern over the safety of our children is unquestionably a proper function of the body, but the Northville board's recent discussions of spring racing dates at the Downs leave some members sitting with their prejudices showing.

At least three of the board's seven members feel that racing dates during the school term pose a threat to the safety of our youngsters that does not exist during summer vacation.

They point to "undesirables" and drunkenness that they associate with followers of the sulkies.

Their statements are very broad and suggest what they really oppose is the operation of a race track in Northville at any time of the year.

It's difficult to understand how children would be more endangered during school days, when normally they should be home earlier in the evening than vacation days.

But that's really beside the point. And before this viewpoint begins to look like a defense of racing as an All-American pastime, let's look at Northville Downs specifically.

It has operated in Northville for more than 20 years, through bad times and good. Track-community relations have been strained to the bursting point on more than one occasion.

In recent years, however, marked improvement has taken place. The management of the track has invested many hundreds of thousands of dollars in improving both the facilities and appearance of the track.

Track and city officials have worked more closely and established better understanding.

Northville Downs, like any other legal business in the city, is a tax-paying citizen subject to the same benefits and rules and regulations as any other citizen.

And the fact that Northville Downs is the city's largest single taxpayer cannot be tossed aside as an insignificant detail, anymore than one would slough off the importance of the tax base and employment provided by the Ford Motor company locally.

But such things must be kept in perspective. Industry has a right to expect community cooperation, even special attention from city government. But the amount of attention and degree of cooperation is not necessarily measured by the number of dollars the business is kicking into the local tax coffers.

Such notions create resentments and only give rise to suspicions that two sets of laws exist.

This, of course, is not true. Proof of this is shown on page one of this edition. The track, eager to start construction of a facility needed by March 25, began work on the new building last week. Although preliminary approval had been given rezoning of the property (owned by the Downs), final action does not take place until next Monday night's council meeting. The city, therefore, ordered the work stopped. And it was.

A misunderstanding existed, but it has been corrected in the same manner that it would have been for any other citizen.

There may be many of us who believe that a thriving industry providing year-round employment located on the track property would be a decided improvement for the community.

But this is not the situation. The track exists. It is a legal enterprise. It is not a monster which attracts only participants and fans of low moral character.

It has its trouble-makers. But so does any industry.

Northville Downs under the management of John Carlo has shown a strong desire to be a good citizen of the community. It has cooperated fully with the city police department in providing maximum police control during the racing season.

Chief Eugene King points out that the state racing commission, as well as local track officials, stands squarely behind the police in disbaring any undesirables from the track premises.

King points out that the track reimburses the city to hire 20 additional police officers during the track season to control traffic and other possible disturbances.

Some tracks, says King, hire their own private force which removes the authority from the local police department to make arrests on the private property of the track.

In the light of the obvious attempt of Northville Downs to take its role seriously as a good community citizen, it appears to this writer that school board officials were ill-advised to consider writing to the racing commissioner in protest of spring dates.

A far wiser, more community-minded process would have been to direct these fears to the management of Northville Downs to determine what additional safeguards, if any, are needed.

It is not unreasonable to assume that the track management is also interested in the well-being of our children. And I cannot think that they would ignore such an appeal.

To cause the local facility embarrassment and trouble by appealing directly to the racing commission is hardly the way to promote a good neighbor policy within our community.

Michigan Mirror

Dems Field Frosh Crew in Senate

LANSING — Lack of experienced Senators in the majority party may mean trouble for progress of legislation this year in that chamber of the legislature.

Democratic leaders lined up their committee chairmen before the January 13 start of the session, but face an important education job before the committees can be fully effective.

With only seven Democratic Senators returning to office this year, Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit had to fill 12 of the 20 committee chairmanships with freshman members.

Three of these 12 posts will be filled by men who previously served in the house and are familiar with the peculiarities of Michigan's legislative committee system, but the other nine are completely new to state-level government.

Dzendzel gave the most important committee chairmanships to veterans. Freshman Senators, however, will head such working units as elections, labor and taxation: three committees which do get a flood of important bills each session.

Presumably the seven veteran Democratic Senators will be placed strategically on these committees to assist the new chairmen in maintaining smooth operation of the all-important consideration required in the chamber's working units.

State government lost two top officers when members of the U.S. house of representatives were sworn in this month. Each was at the top, both from the standpoint of position and performance in his job.

They were Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, elected in the new 7th Congressional District, and Auditor General Billie S. Farnum, winner in the 19th District.

In Mackie's seven years as highway commissioner, Michigan saw completion of more than 1,100 miles of freeways and modernization of another 6,000 miles of other state roads.

This performance put Michigan in No. 1 rank in the amount of interstate freeways open, with 75% of the state's planned system. The national average for completion at year's end was 40%.

Both Democrats, Mackie and Farnum were not primarily known for their party affiliation during their respective terms of office. This is to their credit, as both jobs require objective, treatment.

Farnum was appointed to his post late in 1961 while serving as deputy state chairman of the Democratic party. Prior to that time he held several appointive positions.

He was elected to a full term as auditor general the following year and forthwith began a series of routine audits of state departments and agencies which drew criticism to him.

Agencies not complying to the letter of the law where state funds were concerned were publicly chastised and told to correct the errant practices.

These included major departments, colleges and universities and, most recently, the Michigan National Guard.

The criticism fired at Farnum for these public disclosures of alleged improprieties generally was based on the idea that he was trying to bring discredit to the agencies and glory to himself.

Despite this criticism, it was generally agreed the auditor general's reports were based on law and sound business practices and that he was wholly within his jurisdiction in seeking correction of exceptions to these practices.

Replacements for Mackie and Farnum are recognized men of proven ability. Howard E. Hill, named acting director for the highway department, has been with the operation since 1958 and has a reputation as a fine administrator.

Allison Green, Tuscola county Republican, replaces Farnum as auditor general. He was speaker of the house in the last session, and has a long record as a keen student of government.

Both of them have high standards to maintain if they are to operate at the levels of their predecessors, and there is nothing to indicate they will not.

A job for every college student who wants one. That's the new informal guarantee by Michigan State university.

The administration is talking about a bona fide, real job paying at least $1.25 per hour and 10 or more hours per week. Most of these are in food handling, clerking positions or in university buildings.

At present MSU cannot hire enough of its own students for campus work.

MSU is making an advantage of a disadvantage. There are several reasons for the current circumstance. Many students who would have had to work to stay in college a generation ago can get scholarships today. The general increase in living standards means more parents can better support students than previously.

The ever-present tendency of students to live college life to the hilt, which leaves little room for extra work, has not abated. The larger institutions have more jobs than previously. College work is harder and pressures are higher than many years ago so that some students must use all available time for study.

The special invitation has significance to bright students who don't have enough help from their own sources to attend college. It means that those who are willing to work can help themselves get an important education.
