A truck slides into a school bus. Nobody was injured.

Slick Surface Stalls Traffic, Pedestrians

Old Man Winter pushed the wrong button Friday. Maybe it was foggy, too, in Weathersville as he unleashed a torrent of freezing rain in the Northville- Novi-Wixom area.

Everyone tried to avoid sliding on slick roads or slipping on icy sidewalks. Some succeeded. Some didn't.

According to E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services for the Northville school district, it began "misting" about 6:15 a.m. Friday morning. A half hour later it was raining and by 7 a.m. roads were slippery.

Weather conditions got worse. Fog blanketed the area along with the rain. Seven Mile road became a big ice pond. Cars couldn't climb the hilly terrain and numerous accidents were reported.

Around 8 a.m. a Novi school bus was creeping along the shoulder of the curve at the Eight Mile cut-off. The driver was trying to get traction on the glassy surface.

Then a big truck — much longer than the bus — attempted to negotiate the incline. It came up to the bus and then started to slide. The truck ended up smack against the bus. No one was injured and the bus sustained only minor damages — a broken rear view mirror and directional signal Northville officials dispatched a bus to get the students to their destinations.

Tom Culbert, superintendent of schools in Novi, reported that another district bus approaching the cut-off slowed down. A car rammed the second bus. Again no one was injured and the bus was unscratched.

The car sustained a wrinkled front fender. Ellison said no buses landed in ditches but there was one near-miss. A Northville bus traveling north on Clement road couldn't scale the grade near Man street.

Board Votes To Continue 5-3-4 Plan

It's 5-3-4 all the way in Northville.

It may sound like a football signal but actually it constitutes the structure of the educational system in the public schools.

Members of the Northville board of education reaffirmed the system by a 6-1 vote Monday night. Board Secretary Eugene Cook was the lone dissenter.

"It is premature," Cook stated. "It is a little confusing."

Under the system, grades 1-5 will be together in the same building and the same holds true in the 6-7-8 and 9-12 blocks.

There was no argument concerning the 9-12 grouping. As Superintendent Russell Aerman pointed out: "It lends itself better for counseling, preparing a high school program and socialization."

But there were some mixed feelings on the set-up for the junior high and elementary grades. Right now sixth graders are part of the junior high because of the shortage of elementary classrooms.

Ray Spear, principal of Aerman elementary school, said sixth graders should be put back in the elementary schools.

Spear contended that he has lost some of the service girls and safety boys and "misses the leadership" provided by the sixth graders.

He claimed that the level of maturity differs greatly between the fifth and sixth grades and "perhaps we are preparing for a change a little early."

James Kipper, school board president, said that there was some concern about the sixth graders at junior high being "second-rate citizens."

Kipper said that the younger students are excluded from some social functions, such as dances, and have no athletic program.

Donald Van Ingen, principal of the junior high, suggested that perhaps a square dance program could be launched for them.

Asked his opinion on the effectiveness of the 5-3-4 system, Spear said: "You have to use your best judgment and consider the children you serve and the community you serve."

Robert Shafer, a board trustee, could see an "academic advantage" to the present system. It could lead to departmentalization of subjects on the junior high level.

Shafer meant experts in English or history, like teachers at the high school, would teach the youngsters — "not a single-room teacher."

Kipper said the system could place the board in a dilemma. "If we go the 6-7-8 route we may end up having to build a junior high and elementary building."

Cook apparently wanted to spend more time discussing the sixth graders "who are sixth graders in body only," but other board members brought the question to a vote.

Northville will take Novi's 10th graders next fall — but it will be for the last time.

After that, it will be up to Novi to provide its own high school program.

By a vote of 5-2 Monday night, the Northville board of education decided to accept the 10th grade tuition students. Then a gradual phase out will begin.

Thus the last Novi students will graduate at NHS in June of 1968.

In its motion, the board pointed out that it "agrees to accept (Novi) 10th graders for one more year and add new arrivals (in the Novi district) in grades 10, 11 and 12."

"Even though it compromises its earlier stand of producing Novi to teach its own students in September, the Northville board 'achieved its end.'"

Its objective was to commit the Novi board to set up a 10-12 grade program. At the moment, Novi is running a kindergarten through ninth grade program. It is only one of three districts in Oakland county without a high school program.

But Novi school officials have indicated that another classroom wing will be attached to the new junior high school to accommodate a high school program.

James Kipper, Northville school board president, told his colleagues that there is "no reason to put it (the decision) off." Debate followed. Trustee William Crump thought "nothing has been offered to change our unofficial stand. Novi offers nothing in rebuttal. We'll be crowded this year and I fail to see why we should rescind our stand."

Bolstering Crump's stand, Trustee E. O. Weber argued that "29 to 34 youngsters in a speech class, for example, is too large a class. Under these circumstances we cannot entertain Novi's request."

But Secretary Eugene Cook brought up a new dimension to the Novi problem, as it has been called. Quoting from a report from the administrative staff he said:

"It (the administrative staff) won't object to Novi 10th graders for one more year."

Cook noted: "We've already had a bit of objection by the teachers themselves." Members of the NHS English department had outlined their program earlier in the board's meeting.

Newspapers Plan Switch To Offset

Plans calling for a complete change in the method of printing the Northville Record, Novi News and South Lyon Herald newspapers have been announced by William C. Sliger, publisher of the community weekly newspapers.

Beginning approximately April 1, all of the publications will be converted from "letterpress" to "offset" printing.

To the average reader the change should be immediately noticeable through the excellence in reproduction of pictures. A second improvement is the addition of color, attractive to reader and advertiser alike.

In the production of the newspaper, offset printing introduces a completely new method. Instead of printing directly from metal type, all pages are "pasted up" in dummy form and photographed. The negatives are used to make thin, page-size offset plates from which the newspaper is printed.

Key piece of equipment in the new process is the offset press.

To provide the very best in newspaper production Sliger announced the formation of a new corporation with two other weekly newspaper publishers. Together these publishers have purchased a Goss Suburban web offset press. The new press is capable of printing up to 16 standard-size newspaper pages at one time at speeds up to 18,000 papers per hour.

The new corporation, Inter-City Press, Inc., will have its plant located at 46585 Grand River in Novi. The 48 x 70 foot building will house the Goss press and photographic and plate making equipment.

Officers and equal stockholders in Inter-City Press are: Robert Silbar, president, publisher of the Fenton Independent; Russell Strickland, vice president, publisher of the Novi News; and Allen C. Heyn, owner of the property. The building, located on the south side of Grand River about two miles west of Novi road, will be leased by Heyn to the corporation.

Delivery of the new press is scheduled for February 15. Installation and test runs will require at least one month.

Meanwhile, new equipment for production of the Record, Novi News and Herald newspapers has also been ordered. Although letterpress (or hot metal equipment) will be retained for commercial job printing, Sliger announced that the newspapers will convert to "cold type" production.

Explained simply, this means that the news copy, headlines and advertisements will be set by machines not unlike typewriters. The proofs will then be pasted in place on page layouts and prepared for the camera.

In the production of the newspapers, scissors, glue (wax) and layout light tables will soon replace the linotype, metal saw and "stone" composing tables.

The new process will require rearrangement and remodeling of the production area. A more complete explanation of the offset "cold type" production method along with pictures is planned for the future when the conversion is complete.

Plans also call for a public open house inspection of the new facilities when fully completed, probably by mid-summer.

Founders Day Set

Otto Yntema

Otto Yntema, director of field services at Western Michigan university, will be the main speaker at the founders day banquet next week sponsored by the Aerman elementary PTA.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. next Thursday night in the high school cafeteria followed by Yntema's speech at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Tickets are $2 each. Reservations can be made through Friday at the school.

Currently Yntema is first president of the Adult Education Association of Michigan and a past president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers. He served in the latter capacity from 1961-64.

A native of Michigan, Yntema received his bachelor and masters degrees from Hope college. Now a resident of Kalamazoo he has been a member of the Western faculty since 1936.

New Building Underway For Ford Dealership

There's a new Ford (showroom) in John Mach's future.

The Northville Ford dealer personally broke ground this week on a new 15,000 square foot building which will be the new home of John Mach Ford Sales when it is completed this summer.

Mach said construction will begin this week, weather permitting. The agency is slated to move from its 117 West Main street building in July. The new facility will be located on the Seven Mile road cut-off directly across from the Good Time Party Store.

The entire project represents an investment of some $225,000 and is designed to enable the agency to handle 900 new car sales a year.

Mach took over the present agency on May 1, 1959 and sold 425 new cars and trucks that year. This year, with the help of the new building, the agency expects to boost this total to 700.

The new building, designed by Cuthbert & Cuthbert architects of Dearborn, will be constructed by Conser Construction company. It will provide expanded service facilities including a 16-stall service area and enlarged parts department.

The showroom will be 72x32 feet, enough space to display six cars comfortably.

Mach emphasized that the agency's used car operation will be greatly expanded. The present North Center street lot will be retained in addition to the area at the new site. Late-model used cars will be emphasized, he stated.

Assisting Mach in the planning of the new agency have been his department heads: Grant Howard, general manager in charge of new car sales; Gil Winner, used car manager; Bill Pratt, service and parts manager; and Carol Barrett, office and business manager.

Africa Film Coming Up

The fifth in a series of six travel and adventure programs will be presented Tuesday by the Northville Rotary club at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

Larry Linnard, explorer, engineer, landscape architect, conservationist and lecturer photographer, will present his all-color, adventure film, "African Wildlife in Action".

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

SNOW BREAKING — It really couldn't be called a ground-breaking ceremony, not with all that white stuff. But John Mach turned over a shovel at the site of his new agency building just the same. Looking on Monday were: (l. to r.) Peter Cabay, Ford field manager for the Detroit district; Mach General Manager Grant Howard, City Manager Bruce Potthoff and Mayor A. M. Allen.

Two cars ended up going wrong way on Seven Mile.

Glass-like roads made motorists cautious.

'Thriller'

You can't always tell a book by its cover and the same holds true for the Northville Players Guild's mid-winter production on tap the weekend of February 5 and 6.

Judged by name alone "Ladies in Retirement" sounds harmless enough, but the dam-sels that carry the dialogue in this drama would make Alfred Hitchcock's hair curl.

Their spine-chilling misadventures bear the earmarks of the celebrated "Arsenic and Old Lace" complete with a sprinkling of comic relief to spell the suspense.

Directed by Dr. Hans Kolbe, the thriller returns to the footlights a cast of seasoned Players Guild performers.

Sharing the billing in the three-act are Coy Sandrock as Louisa Creed, Ellen McNelece as Emily Creed, Fran Bissa as Sister Theresa, Edd Austin as Albert Feather, Peggy Jones as Leonora Fiske, Mary Welch as Lucy Gilham, and Gladys Weiss and Betty Schulz as Ellen Creed.

"Ladies in Retirement" will be presented on the stage of the Northville high school auditorium. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Pre-School Conferences Next Week

The Northville Co-operative play group, will hold parent-teacher conferences, February 1 and 3.

The split sessions will allow more convenience for the 32 mothers to confer with teachers, Mrs. Francis Gazlay and Mrs. Glenn Delbert, about the progress of their pre-schoolers.

The school sessions run according to the Northville public school schedules.

Anyone interested in enrolling a pre-schooler can call Mrs. Ralph Luckett, membership chairman at 349-1046.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

THE PLAY'S THE THING — and Northville is finding itself in pleasant proximity this winter to both amateur and professional theater. Northville Players' Guild is in rehearsal for a suspense play, "Ladies in Retirement," while the Plymouth Theatre Guild is readying a sing-along musical, "California to the New York Island," for next month.

In Ann Arbor the professional repertory theatre of the University of Michigan goes into rehearsal this week with an original new play, "An Evening's Frost," a dramatic treatment of Robert Frost, one-time poet-in-residence at the University, written by Donald Hall, University poet and poetry editor of Harper's magazine. It will be presented February 10-14 in Lydia Mendelssohn Theater, except for February 13, and will draw a group of Northville ticket holders.

Among the most enthusiastic ticket holders are the Rev. and Mrs. George Jerome, who are delightedly reporting that two pre-Broadway productions viewed in Ann Arbor, "War and Peace," and "Man and Superman," received critics' approval in New York.

"LADIES IN RETIREMENT," will be presented by the Northville Players' Guild at 8:30 p.m. February 5 and 6 in the high school auditorium. It is a cloak-and-dagger suspense story — and the Players' costume committee is seeking the loan of a proper cloak or "ulster" for the play. A long cloak for a woman also is needed. Anyone with such treasures in her trunk who is willing to lend them may call Mrs. George Weiss. Tickets for the play will be on sale at the door.

A standing-room-only success was scored by the Northville Players' Guild in its production of "Rumpelstiltskin" given January 16 at the high school under PTA sponsorship. More than 600 children attended the matinee.

PLYMOUTH AREA folk musicians will be featured February 12 and 13 when the Plymouth Theatre Guild presents "California to the New York Island," which is described as a "pocketful of Brags, Blues, Bad-Men Ballads, Love Songs, Okie Laments and Children's Catcalls by Woody Guthrie."

Two public performances are planned, the first being February 12 in the Northville State Hospital, with a portion of the proceeds going to the hospital's patient benefit fund. The second performance, February 13, will be in the Plymouth high school auditorium, with part of the proceeds going to the Plymouth State Children's home for the swimming pool fund. Both performances are scheduled for 8 p.m.

NORTHVILLE TOWN HALL ticket holders are being invited to "Pull Up An Easel" by Artist Norman Garbo, who will speak at 11 a.m. Thursday, February 4, in the P&A theater.

Chairman Mrs. William R. Slattery and her Town Hall board have announced a change of arrangements for this meeting only. There will be no celebrity luncheon following the program, but a question-and-answer period will follow Artist Garbo's talk at the theater.

An added attraction: There will be a drawing for the painting made by the artist during his lecture-demonstration. Garbo is known for his humor, and his outlook that art is for "fun and relaxation."

Norman Garbo, Mrs. Slattery reports, while spreading the enthusiastic philosophy that "Anyone who can hold a paint brush can learn to paint," has received many artistic honors. Since 1945 he has been an established portrait painter and has painted both former Presidents Truman and Eisenhower.

Novi Tuition

Treasurer Edward Angove asked: "How many classes do we have with over 30?"

Weber interjected: "An awful lot. More than enough for teachers to be effective."
Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant superintendent, informed the board "that several months ago we were unhappy about retaining the Novi students. But now we have a cut-off point in 1966."

"Last week the administrators met and we decided we would live with it for another year."
In mentioning another aspect of the problem, Cook emphasized that "we could not have gotten rid of Novi students" without a financial pinch.

Kipper remarked that "we have been working on a minimal basis. We should spend more money for teachers and classrooms. This annoys and concerns me."

Trustee Robert Shafer, veteran member of the board, opined that "we aren't ready this spring for a bond or millage issue."
"People don't know what crowded conditions are today," compared to six years ago before the present high school was built.

Shafer said, "more material plans should be developed plus the psychological effect of kids being squeezed. People should be made to realize this condition at the high school."

"We just aren't ready this spring, to pull the stopper," Shafer then made these points: "Novi has been forced to commit itself, we need their money or else we'll run into a deficit situation and crowded conditions won't hurt too much."

"We can do a better job of selling bonds and operating expenses next year," he said. If Northville had turned away the Novi 10th graders, it was felt the board would have to go to the voters and ask for additional revenue to operate the school system.

However, citizen advisory committees are now studying the need for more classroom space in Northville. A new elementary building is on the top of the priority list.

Salem Denies Landfill Request

Permission to use about 85 acres in Salem township for sanitary landfill was denied this month by the Salem township zoning board of appeals.

In a unanimous action the board of appeals voted after a public hearing January 5 to deny the request of Charles R. Christner of Livonia for landfill on property owned by James Brummel north and south of Six Mile road near Napier road.

About 40 interested persons gathered in the township hall for the hearing. Appeal board members Arthur T. Graham, chairman, Floyd Taylor and Fred Varran heard arguments pro and con.

"The consensus of opinion of those present was overwhelmingly against the ... application on any terms or conditions," recorded the secretary.

Five specific objections were raised:
1. That although the application was for "sanitary landfill" on the premise that it would be neither "sanitary" nor a "landfill," that on the contrary it would be offensive because of odors from the dumping of urban refuse and waste material and, that it would be a haven for rats and other obnoxious vermin.

2. That the requirement of five to seven million cubic yards needed to fill the present gravel pits would take several years, as many as seven to ten years, during which period of time the local gravel roads would necessarily be used by a large number of heavy trucks which would not only constitute traffic hazards but would also be injurious to the township roads.
3. That the proposal would place a great burden upon the township of continuous inspection of the conduct of the work to attempt to minimize the offensive features attendant and incidental to such use of the premises.
4. That the proposal to use one foot in depth of natural soil for each three feet of refuse would really constitute an unsanitary dump with all of the nuisances attendant and incidental to the dumping of refuse and would therefore be a detriment to the locality and the township as a whole.
5. That to grant this application would set a bad precedent and would start the township of Salem on the way to becoming a "dump" for the refuse and rubbish of nearby urban areas.

In addition, the appeals board cited the following reasons for denying the application:
1. That no benefit would result to the township or inhabitants thereof by granting this request.
2. That the granting of such applications does not appear to be essential or desirable to the public welfare or in furtherance of the best interests of the public.
3. That it has not been shown that the locating of a so-called "sanitary landfill" at the locations in question would not be injurious to persons and property in the vicinity and the board believes that the granting of this application would result in inconvenience, detriment and injury to the township of Salem and its people.

JP Organization Offers Court Plan
Northville's municipal court will probably survive even though justice of the peace courts in the state must be abolished within four years. In a proposed "district court bill" written by the Michigan Justices of the Peace Association, municipal courts would remain in operation.

In its "legislative suggestion," the JP group advocates that "any city having a municipal court, court of common pleas or recorder's court shall be exempt from this act."

Judge George Hutter, president of the JP association, outlined the proposed bill at the Novi Rotary club meeting last Thursday.

However, the JP's suggestion is not the last word on the matter. It is up to the state legislature to act and establish a court system to replace the existing justices of the peace. Northville voters established a municipal court in the November 3 presidential election. The vote was 1,275 to 335 and the city charter was thus amended.

Many have rebuked the JP system because the judge is paid on a fee basis and is not required to be an attorney at law.

Northville abolished the fee system three years ago and Judge Charles McDonald is paid a salary and is an attorney. He is elected for a four-year term.

Until the municipal court was adopted by vote in Northville, it was not mandatory that the elected judge be an attorney.

On Record Staff

John Harrington has joined the staff of the Northville Record-Now News and South Lyon Herald as manager of the display advertising department.
He replaces Donald Golden, now selling for the Observer newspapers in Livonia.
Harrington, 26, previously was employed by the Gratiot County Herald in Ithaca. He started work there in 1953 while still in high school as an apprentice in the printing shop. For the past two years he was employed as an advertising salesman for the Herald.

A lifelong resident of Ithaca, Harrington and his wife, Alice, have two children, Jeffrey, 5, and Michael, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington plan to purchase a home in the area in the near future.

Campaigning Hiked For Senate Primary

Campaigning for the nomination in the February 15 race for the 14th state senate seat vacated by the death of Republican Paul Chandler has stepped up.

Three Democratic candidates have announced their withdrawal from the race. They are James McCarthy, Leo Meagher and Paul Livingston. Still competing for the Democratic nod are John Burke of Farmington and Mrs. Elsie Gilmore and Ed McNamara, both of Livonia.

The Republican candidates are Farrell Roberts, Allen C. Ingle, Fitzhugh Prescott, Thomas J. McHugh, Paul A. Kern and George Ames.

Mrs. Gilmore brought her campaign to Northville recently, speaking at an afternoon tea held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Kahn.

She emphasized the need for immediate action to insure the safety of people on streets and highways. "This terrible loss of life as highlighted by the traffic toll this year can and must be prevented."

Mrs. Gilmore was a member of a Presidential Bi-Partisan Citizens Committee on Foreign Affairs, as well as past chairman of the Wayne County Democratic Committee for 7 years and the recipient of the American Heritage Foundation award in 1960.

"Most of the subjects on the docket in the Senate were recommendations originally formulated in our Democratic Committee meetings in Wayne County while I was chairman," said Mrs. Gilmore. "Therefore I have a thorough knowledge of the issues."

Mrs. Gilmore included such subjects as "expanded community mental health services to prevent the large number of 'in-patients' in our state institutions" and "increased state aid to local school districts," in her discussion.

Novi Police Assail Teenage Drinking

Novi Police Chief Lee Be-Gole called December the "busiest month in the history of the department."

Some 303 tickets were written, double the number in the same month in 1963, the chief said. Twice as many verbal warnings were made.

"Had these preventive arrests not been made, many more accidents would have resulted. Many more beer bottles would have littered our roads and many more cases of malicious destruction of property, assault and battery, and drunk and disorderly would have occurred."

"Most of the people involved in the liquor cases come straight out Grand River to Novi which they consider the first open area and to Kensington park to do their drinking."

"The seriousness of this problem may be realized if one considers a report by the chief ranger at Kensington, that teenage drinking in the park increased 200% in 1964."

Congressman Vivian Quits Conductron

WASHINGTON — Congressman Weston E. Vivian, Democrat of the Second District, which includes Northville township, announced this week that he had resigned from the board of directors of Conductron Corporation and that he had disposed of all of his stock holdings in the corporation.

Vivian, one of the founders and formerly a vice president of Conductron, an Ann Arbor-based corporation which specializes in research and development of sophisticated electronics equipment, made the following announcement:

"I have recently been assigned to serve on the Committee on Science and Astronautics of the House of Representatives. Because Conductron Corporation is a contractor in this field with the federal government, I have decided to sever all financial and business connections with the corporation, to eliminate any possible conflict of public and personal interest."

"I have therefore resigned as a director of the company and sold outright the shares of Conductron stock I owned when elected to congress, except for 400 shares which will be placed in irrevocable trust for the benefit of my children."

"During my campaign this past year for the seat which I now occupy in the United States House of Representatives, I strongly supported the point of view that no representative of the public should expose himself unduly to questions of conflict of interest and, further, that he should make a full financial disclosure annually of his income and holdings even though such action is not now required by law. I intend to make such a financial disclosure myself in the very near future. In addition, I shall intend to make such a financial disclosure myself in the very near future. In addition, I shall in the 89th Congress, support legislation requiring such 'full disclosures.'"

After the frenzied excitement of the campaign and pulsating fever of waiting for election returns, comes this pledge:

"I, Marvin R. Stempien do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of Michigan and that I will carry out the duties of the office of State Representative to the best of my ability."

On January 13, along with others who have been chosen to represent the voice of the voters in Lansing, we made this solemn pledge in the State Capitol. On this solemn occasion, all of the campaign pledges that I made and the purpose of my campaign came into sharp focus.

As a freshman legislator, I became keenly aware of the real responsibility with which I had been entrusted.

The rattle-dazzle of the inauguration passed quickly and at once we were in the role of law-maker.

In rapid succession, we were called upon to (A) sign a bill providing for payment to the widow of Rep. Paul M. Chandler, his salary for his unfilled term in the House; (B) to co-sponsor, with Rep. Lucille McCollough of Dearborn, a bill providing for tax exemptions for persons over 65 on the first $3,000 of their real property valuation. This bill, No. 2001, also requires that the annual income of these senior citizens not exceed $3,000 and their assessed property value not exceed $7,500.

Governor Romney's state message and the complexity of the proceedings occupied much of our second day as your State Representative.

The Governor outlined our joint responsibilities and made one comment that should be repeated because of its importance.

He said, "Those persons and organizations who point out the needs of the people that government must meet, have a co-relative duty and obligation to help government officials find the sources of revenue to pay for the cost of meeting those needs."

The Governor used this means of stressing that we all have a stake in selling the State's need for fiscal reform, even if such a sales-job results in a State income tax.

Next came the assignment of State legislators to various committees. We were surprised (but well gratified) to be placed on three of the four committees for which I had indicated a preference. In addition to my selection as chairman of the Apportionment committee, I was given a seat on the Education, Judiciary and State Prison Committees. The importance of these committees to the residents of the district I serve, is obvious. In committee, we will work on bills concerning the feasibility of revising the current formula of distribution of state funds to local school districts, means of aiding school districts with construction and maintenance financing, implementation of the State Constitution to streamline our present lower court system, and a comprehensive analysis of reapportionment.

Following this whirlwind of activities, we were granted a recess, during which time, I discussed the Plymouth Road traffic situation with highway officials. Inasmuch as the traffic menace of this vital artery was listed as a prime objective of my pre-election campaign, I intend to explore every avenue to find a solution.

The solution will not come easy nor in a manner of weeks. You have my assurance that we will pursue the problem with dogged determination until we have gained a measure of relief.

That briefly, is a thumb-nail sketch of all that happened in the first few days as your State Representative. With your help, with your suggestions, with your comments, and your criticism, we will be able to fulfill the role in which the voters of this district have placed me. I urge you to contact me in person at my Livonia office at 31707 Plymouth road, and drop me a line in Lansing if I can be of assistance on problems that are of common community interest.

In future reports, I will be discussing the controversies that might await, including the county home-rule bill, tax reform, and new sources of state revenue. Above all, please feel free to let me know of your opinions, dissensions, and comments.

Mustangs Extend Streak to Five

Fever is running high in Northville these days. But that's okay as far as local basketball enthusiasts are concerned. And there's hope that just about everybody in these parts will contract — the winning spirit.

Responsibility for the outbreak rests at the Mustangs' doorstep, for Coach Dave Longridge's cagers have caught fire. After dropping the first two loop games of the season, they've won five straight. In their last outing Friday night, the Mustangs polished off West Bloomfield in unprecedented fashion by a 59-45 count to surge by the Lakers in the Wayne-Oakland Conference standings.

But the weather man came up with just what the doctor ordered Saturday night — inclement weather — to momentarily check the fever by forcing postponement of Northville's scheduled clash with front running Bloomfield Hills.

As a result, the Mustangs must be content with sole possession of third place with a 5-2 record in the W-O Conference. They will at least have to sit tight until tomorrow night when they take on Holly here or until the Bloomfield game is re-scheduled.

Meanwhile, Bloomfield still rests atop the league with a 6-1 slate, followed by Holly (6-2), which topped from a first place tie a week ago Tuesday when Clarkston beat the Broncos, 60-54.

Both of the top two teams, however, posted victories Friday night over also rans to remain ahead of Northville. Bloomfield thumped Brighton, 79-58, and Holly turned back Clarenceville with ease, 81-43.

West Bloomfield's loss on its home court was the worst licking suffered by the Art Paddy-coached Lakers at the hands of Northville.

Northville's win even topped the 1962 team's performance, a 49-41 win by a local team that won the loop title and went on to the state semifinals.

Northville passed another milestone, winning its sixth game of the season to surpass last year's dismal show of five wins against 12 losses.

The Mustangs now own a 6-4 season record.

"We played our best game of the season against West Bloomfield," Longridge noted. "We never played that well up there before," he added.

The victory was especially sweet, since the Lakers pinned an opening game defeat, 60-50, on the Mustangs at home.

What had been touted as a sure-fire tussle Friday which either team would be fortunate to win by a point or two, was turned into a rout in the fourth quarter when the Mustangs fired 23 points through the hoop to 14 for West Bloomfield.

Guard Jim St. Germain, who is fast gaining recognition as one of the best 'sixth men' in the league, provided the spark, along with Center Jerry Imsland.

With Northville leading 38-31 going into the final period, Imsland hit a jumper from 15

Rematch Set

The Northville - Bloomfield Hills basketball game, postponed last Saturday because of slippery road conditions, will be played next Tuesday, Northville Athletic Director Al Jones announced this week.

feet out, then converted a free throw while the Lakers countered with a field goal.

St. Germain came off the bench and broke the game open moments later with two sparkling buckets, both coming on driving lay-ups, one from the right the other from the left to boost Northville's margin to 43-33.

Imsland and St. Germain continued to score as the Mustangs assumed a 56-39 lead — their biggest of the night — then Longridge began pulling his regulars off the court with two minutes remaining in the game.

Imsland led all scorers with 22 points, 10 in the final quarter. And although St. Germain only saw spot action, he tallied eight points in the last quarter and finished second to Imsland with 10.

Despite the Mustangs' smooth offensive display, it was on defense that the home forces really shone.

Laker Rick Hacht, who flipped in 22 points in his team's previous victory over Northville, was held to a mere eight points, and all but blanked off the boards. The six-two center didn't haul in one rebound in the first quarter.

Just as indicative of the Mustangs' tight defensive play was the job they did on Forward Jay Williams, who has averaged nearly 15 points a game against Northville. He was held to just one point.

Taking up the scoring slack for West Bloomfield was Randy Hogan with 12 points and Tim Moller with 11, but those were longer shots from around the key as Northville jammed up under the boards.

That was the story all night long as the Mustangs controlled the boards, grabbing 43 rebounds to the Lakers' 32, something few teams do against Paddy's scrappers.

Except for a brief three minutes in the first quarter and a tie just before halftime Northville led all the way.

With West Bloomfield out front, 5-1, Northville gained control of the boards and the game as Guards Tom Bingham and John Jameson and Forward Mark Cushing paced the Mustangs to a 13-9 first quarter lead.

To keep the Lakers off balance, Northville came out in a zone defense in the next period. Taking the Mustangs' cue, West Bloomfield began to fast break to beat the defense, tying the score 23-all with seconds left on the clock before the half.

Then Mustang Forward Rick Milne came through in the final second. Imsland fired the ball from mid-court as the seconds ticked off. The ball caromed off the boards and Milne tapped it in to give Northville a 25-23 lead and life at the buzzer.

Both teams cooled off in the third period, victims of violations and interceptions brought about by tight defenses. At one time, they played two and one-half minutes without a score.

But with Northville on top by a 33-31 margin, Milne duplicated his halftime fete by tipping in a rebound with two seconds left in the period. Fouled on the play, he converted to give the Mustangs a 36-31 advantage to start them rolling.

In another contest Friday night Milford upset Clarkston, 74-68, and the only game played Saturday night, West Bloomfield rebounded to wallop hapless Clarenceville, 83-40, and run its record to 5-3, just a half game behind Northville.

Holly Next

If Northville comes through the next five days of court activity unscathed, they'll assume the favorites role in the Wayne-Oakland Conference.

But that's no mean feat as Coach Dave Longridge is quick to admit, for the Mustangs will square off against second place Holly at the local gymnasium Friday, then travel to Bloomfield Hills Tuesday to take on the league leaders.

"We're ready to play," said Coach Longridge, "and I think these boys have the stuff to win the title. Of course, it's not going to be easy," he declared, "but we've come a long way since the first of the season and we don't intend to stop now."

First to challenge the Mustangs will be Holly, previous victor over Northville by a slim, 55-53, margin on Holly's home court.

That's the contest in which the ball bounced off the Northville rim as the buzzer brought the curtain down on a real hair raiser. Only Northville's poor shooting kept it from winning, as the Mustangs out shot and out rebounded the Broncos.

But Holly, with a 6-2 record, will be out to give the Mustangs a real battle Friday night.

In the persons of Tom Fagan and Mark Phalen the Broncos have two marksmen who have hit consistently. Fagan, a six-one forward, seldom sinks below 20 points per game, and Phalen, a brawny little guard, can drive with the best in the loop.

Holly has lost two games thus far. The Broncos dropped a four-point decision to Bloomfield Hills on the Barons' home court, and lost by seven points last week to Clarkston on its home floor.

Tuesday night will be the big one, regardless of how the Mustangs fare in Friday night's contest. That's when Northville will clash with Bloomfield Hills in a re-scheduled game that was postponed last Saturday due to bad weather.

Only a 43-42 loss to West Bloomfield mars the Bloomfield conference record, and it will have the advantage of a home court.

And the Barons have essentially the same team back from last year, one which beat the Mustangs twice, 73-40 and 68-48.

Frosh Cagers Win 2

Northville's freshmen cagers hit extremes during the past week — just like the weather — in posting victories over two neighboring fives.

Coach Bob Kucher's stalwarts took to the road to first dispose of South Lyon Friday, 61-35, then they went away again to edge Novi, 29-23.

In winning their seventh straight ball game, Northville pushed its record to 8-2.

The contest with South Lyon was a runaway. Right from the start the local cagers took the upper hand and raced to a 23-4 lead at the end of the first quarter.

From then on it was just a case of how many points Northville would score as Kucher emptied the bench. In fact, his starting five played only 10 minutes of the 32-minute fray.

Three local frosh hit double figures. Jim Peterson once again led the field with 13 points, and Joe Andrews and Bob Hubbard both bagged 10.

"We were just too big, too much material," said Kucher, "and we had a good defense and shot well from the floor."

The scales were a little more balanced, however, when Northville met Novi for the first time Monday night.

Sporting its first ninth grade team, Novi gave the Black and Orange a real tussle. But they were aided by Northville's cold shooting and sub-par play.

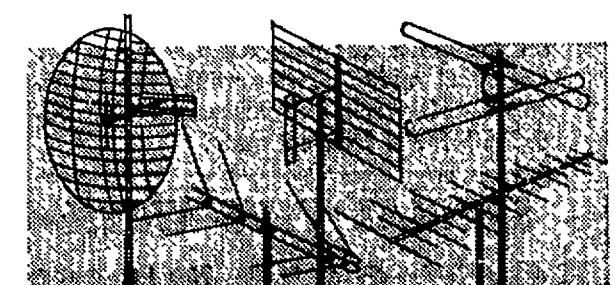

Coach John Osborne's cagers out-hustled Northville in the first half to assume a 13-11 lead at the end of the stanza, but Northville's determined ninth graders came back to outscore and outrebound their neighbors.

Peterson tallied 13 points, and he and Hubbard teamed up in the second half to control the boards.

Colts Nipped, 54-52 By W. Bloomfield

It's becoming a habit with the Northville Colts, one that Coach Alex Klukach would like to stop immediately.

After losing an overtime affair to visiting Clarkston the week before, the local J's dropped another cliff hanger last Friday.

Matmen Drop Two

The fortunes of this year's wrestling team continued to spiral downward as Northville lost two close matches.

The Mustangs lost a tight battle to Willow Run January 14, 29-23, then lost another hard fought match January 19 by a 29-14 margin to Clarenceville in a Wayne-Oakland clash.

Winners for the local mat team against Clarenceville were Marty Richardson at 112, Dennis Cook at 127 pounds, Bob Steeper 120, Bob Orr 180 and Jerry Burns heavyweight.

West Bloomfield was the spoiler this time by a 54-52 score as a Laker converted two free throws with four seconds remaining on the clock.

The Colts dropped their third contest in a row as a result of lax defensive play in the third period. West Bloomfield tallied 15 points to just eight for the local cagers to wipe out a 31-29 Mustang margin.

Also hurting the Mustangs chances for victory was the board play of the West Bloomfield cagers, who froze the Colts away from the backboard. "They were getting the inside all night long," said Klukach.

Guard Jim Zayit again led the Mustang scorers with a 19-point performance. Forward Jeff Crawford tossed in 10.

T-Birds Falter

The T-Birds, Northville's entry in the Livonia class A basketball league, were jolted after a fast start.

Winning their first two games, the Northville five lost two of their next three contests. The T-Birds were dumped by Rolhe-Barrett, 61-47, after holding a three-point lead in the third quarter. Cap Pethers and Dennis LaRoque led the T-Bird scorers with 18 and 15 points, respectively.

Northville bounced back against DeHoCo, 96-72 with Ken Kisabeth scoring 32 points and Pethers 20.

Moore Construction stopped the T-Birds last week, 53-49, despite a comeback effort that saw the local five draw to within two points with 16 seconds remaining in play after being behind 15 points at halftime. Pethers led scorers with 28 points.

Walled Lake Overturns Wixom, 8-0

Wixom Pee-wees were shut out last Tuesday night in a hockey game against Walled Lake. The score was 8-0.

Tom Burke, coach of the Wixom team, said that Bill Marley and Sam Lindsay led the attack for the visiting team. Dennis Lambert was in the net.

Wixom used two goalies, Robert Trombley and Roy Robinson, but to no avail.

In another face-off last Monday night, the Wixom men's team downed the opposition from Plymouth by a 2-to-1 margin. Wixom notched ten goals to five for Plymouth.

Harvey Taylor was high scorer for Wixom, tallying five goals. Jim Byrd and Tom Burke collected the rest of the goals.

LET'S TALK CARS... THE RIDE IS IN THE BALANCE

There is an easy way to make a brand new, finely tuned automobile ride like a truck by adding only ten ounces to the body weight. The trick is to fasten that weight in equal, five-ounce portions to one spot on each front tire-rim. Then drive it at 60 m.p.h. You'd never recognize it as the same car.

For instance, only two ounces of imbalance weight on a 15-inch wheel hits the pavement at 214 pounds pressure at 40 m.p.h., 482 pounds at 60 m.p.h., and 856 pounds at 80 m.p.h. If this imbalance weight was concentrated on one side of the wheel only, then dynamic imbalance, or cross shake shimmy, would add to the car's vibrations. This shortens the life of the body, shocks and tires.

Wheel balance requires patience, skill and the right kind of equipment. The tire, wheel and hub must be taken off the car and balanced as a unit, both dynamically and statically — on a sensitive electronic balancer.

Attempts to balance car wheels on the car with portable, roller-type equipment, usually at a "cut-rate" price, is simply throwing money away.

If your wheels are balanced in our service shop, accumulated grease and dirt will first be cleaned off the inside of the wheel and hub assembly. It is bound to fall off sooner or later making the balance obtained with weights useless. With the wheel and hub off the car, the brake linings, grease seals and bearings will all be checked and adjusted if necessary. These things can't be done "on the car".

A quality job won't be the cheapest, but it will cost less in the long run.

Ice Comes; Cars Skid, People Slip

Motorists didn't fare well either in the morning rush-hour traffic. Auto accidents abounded. Alice Ritchie, Northville police clerk and dispatcher, said her telephone rang for three hours straight.

"But most of the accidents were in the township or along Seven Mile road" from Northville road to Haggerty road, she said. "There were only six minor accidents reported in the city over the weekend. "It seems most Northville residents slow down when the roads get slippery."

Some traffic signs took a beating when cars spun off glossy roads. "A 'Do-Not-Enter' sign at the Seven Mile cut-off and Hines was flattened in a mishap and 'Signal Ahead' sign on Sheldon road south of Seven Mile was knocked down," Mrs. Ritchie said.

"We had a rash of minor accidents in the village," said Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole. "We sent three to the hospital as a result of falls on the ice."

In Wixom Police Chief D'arcy Young said "we were lucky. We had no traffic accidents over the weekend."

Chief Young, however, did station an officer at the Ford Motor Wixom plant on Friday and Saturday during shift changes to direct traffic.

"This way we minimized accidents," he noted.

With the advent of the adverse weather, some merchants in Northville experienced a drop-off in business Friday. Del Black, who runs a local shoe store, commented:

"Friday definitely was a bad day. Sales were pretty good Saturday but the weather held business down."

On the other hand Lapham's Men's Shop reported that sales "were surprisingly good both Friday and Saturday."

Other merchants who were polled generally agreed that they had an "off weekend" at the cash register.

Local clergymen said that many parishioners stayed home Sunday because of the icy conditions.

First Baptist Church of Novi postponed Sunday school and morning church service. But the regular Sunday night service was held.

The Reverend S. D. Kinde of the First Methodist Church of Northville remarked: "Attendance was down at both worship services and was due to the weather."

At Our Lady of Victory, the Reverend Father John Wittstock faced a small turnout at the first mass but was "surprised at the attendance at later masses."

As might be expected in a sleet storm, many residents went topsy-turvy in an attempt to remain upright — and a number of personal injury cases were reported.

At the Atchison clinic on Dunlap street in Northville a nurse said: "We started out with a big bang Friday. A lot of people sustained head injuries and broken bones. Emergency calls tapered off after the weekend."

About 20 patients were treated at the Dyer clinic on Dunlap for bruises and strains. There were a couple of fracture cases, too.

In Novi Dr. Lyle Fettig said, "I had a half dozen injury cases. Three had broken arms and three had minor concussions from falling on the ice. Mostly the patients were older people."

Janice Moon, a student at the high school, took a spill near the bottom of the hill at NHS Friday and seven stitches were required to close a head wound.

In Salem township Mrs. Anne Good apparently broke her arm and hip Monday while on the way to the mailbox. Casterline ambulance service was called and attendants had to carve out a path to get to Mrs. Good. She is recuperating in St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor.

William Hazen of Novi road suffered a back injury Monday and was treated at St. Mary hospital in Livonia.

Youngsters at local schools were treated for facial cuts and bruises but nothing serious, according to Northville principals.

Recess was called off at Amerman elementary because "it was so icy youngsters couldn't keep their footing." At Main Street elementary, Principal Harry Smith told his charges that recess would be allowed if "they used caution."

Smith didn't follow his own advice, however. He said he "went outdoors at noon and fell down myself."

In an effort to keep cars moving in the area, DPW crews worked tirelessly to clear main arteries and side streets.

Robert Trombley, DPW director in Wixom, said his crew spread 40 tons of salt and sand over the weekend to keep the roads open.

In Northville Bud Hartner and his workers dumped about 120 tons of salt on city streets. "We diminished our salt supply," said City Manager Bruce Potthoff.

"We got more in Monday, though. Our five trucks and graders were going all weekend."

Novi dispersed the most salt. Howard Miller, head of the DPW, said 300 tons of the melting substance were sprinkled on village roads in a three-day period.

Local Residents Graduate From Eastern Michigan

100 Pounds During Year

She Wins Crown by Losing

By Kay Findling

Mrs. Tressie Gardner of Wixom made a New Year's resolution in 1964 — and she carried it out.

So Monday night she appeared with a streamlined figure and was crowned the queen of the Northville Eater Beaters, a chapter of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly).

She was honored for losing the most weight in a year. It was an "enchanting" year for her to start off 1965.

Now she belongs to KOPS, a society for members of the club who slim down and continue to "keep off pounds." Mrs. Gardner tipped the scale at 250 pounds a year ago. Since then she has worked off nearly 100 pounds.

She deducted 50 pounds at home, struggling along under a doctor's supervision. "Diet aids were of no help," she said.

The second step in her reducing campaign was to accept an invitation from Mrs. Victor Lonn, president of the Eater Beaters.

Mrs. Gardner, after joining the group, subtracted an additional 48 pounds.

"During the difficult times of dieting and fighting calories, members of the club would call and ask how are you doing or tell you to keep up the good work," commented her majesty.

"Sometimes there would be a card in the mail or just a note which was really an inspiration."

The Eater Beaters meet every Monday night at the Amerman elementary school at 7:30 p.m. Even children and teenagers are encouraged to join A group for men is in the offing.

An incentive plan is offered to help get over the "bumps."

The biggest loser for the month — four pounds or more — receives a silver dollar. A trophy is presented to the queen for the year.

Her nomination is based on losing 50 pounds in a year and keeping her weight down. Members pay weekly dues of 25 cents and are penalized 25 cents for each pound gained from Monday to Monday.

Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Lonn will represent the club at the state TOPS convention to be held later this year at Cobo Hall.

Mrs. Gardner summarized her happy story by saying: "I feel wonderful," one year later and exactly 98 pounds thinner.

A weekly ritual is performed. Mrs. Victor Lonn, president of the local TOPS chapter, tips the scales for Mrs. Foster Ashby, weight recorder.

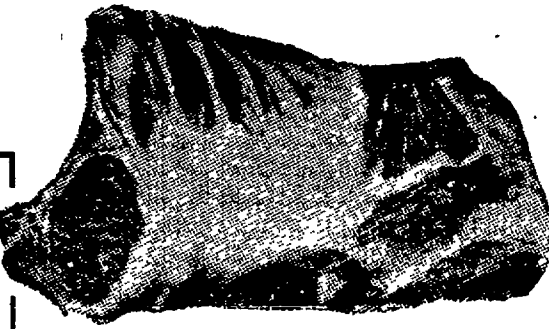

Newly-elected officers of TOPS are (left to right): Mrs. Ashby, Mrs. Lonn and Mrs. Frank Defina, secretary, and Mrs. Herbert Bissa, treasurer.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Reverend Peter Tonella
Holy Cross Episcopal Church

'God All In All'

I am happy to be a living and growing being.

I am happy to share with and Christian the goal of our destiny which is to develop in us the image of Christ. I am fascinated by two men who spelled out for us: What is the American Dream and what is the Christian dream. Both of them used the same formula.

One said: "We cannot speak with any truth or realism about the future of America unless we understand the past."

"Ours is a Covenant nation . . . The only surviving nation on earth that had its origins in the determination of the Founding Fathers to establish a settlement to the Glory of God and to the advancement of the Christian faith."

The other man said, "I am a Christian pilgrim of the future on the way back from a journey made entirely in the past.

In attaining my Christian dream, and merging myself with it, I have the whole universe in front of me, with its noble endeavors; its entrancing search for knowledge, with its myriads of souls to be perfected and healed.

"I can say that God for us is in the process of formation everywhere around us, as in St. Paul's words: 'God all in all'."

This state is reached not by identification (God becoming all) but by the differentiating and communicating action of love (God all in all).

By now maybe you have identified their names: Peter Marshall and Peter Teilhard de Chardin.

In my opinion the true image of God, achieved by us through Jesus Christ, is not all clear to be found in churches unless we all unite into one church as America is united into one nation.

Editor's Note — Vicar Tonella is a newcomer to the pastor's study column. We welcome his sermonettes to this newspaper.

A Boy's Best Friend

GARY WARE, 4, ALL FOR HIS BEAR.

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a school of spiritual life. Without a religious faith, neither a citizen nor a Christian can survive. There are four spiritual reasons why every parent should attend services regularly and support the Church. (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs the moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Gary stood at the window this morning waving and hugging the little plush dog I brought him home from my trip. How easy it is to make a small boy happy. I love to bring him things and take him places and watch the wonder and delight glow on his face, sparkle in his big blue eyes. Right now his Dad is his best friend and hero.

It won't be this easy always. I know that as Gary grows so will his desires and the scope of his delights. I won't be able to supply his every wish or stand between him and the disappointments that come to every boy. But as friend and father I do hope to share with him the principles that have sustained me in discouragement, augmented my joy. These truths I learned from God and my Church and I know of no better way to insure for my son a life of peace and fulfillment than to encourage his religious development.

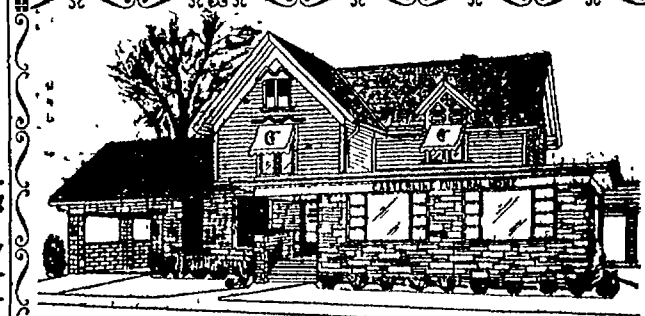

Go to your church and take your child with you.

3. Street Light — Westview Drive and Eight Mile Road.

Supervisor Merriam informed the Board that this intersection was the most dangerous in the Township, that you could hardly see Westview Drive at night. He had talked with Wayne County Road Commission about the situation but they could not help as Eight Mile Road was under the jurisdiction of Oakland County Road Commission and they refused to do anything about the condition. The cost of a light would be $95 a year and legal by the Township could spend the money.

Inasmuch as there were other areas that needed street lights and the Township could not afford to take care of all of them, Tyler stated that Westview Subdivision should exhaust their own efforts to come up with the $75 a year.

No action.

4. Proposed installation of Sewer Main on Seven Mile Rd.

Supervisor Merriam told the Board that Dr. Gizynski had decided to build his nursing home on Seven Mile Road providing he could have sewage.

There were two other Doctors who wanted to build a hospital in the area, Sheldon Hayes would not enter into the building of sewer. Dr. Gizynski wished to build the sewer on the south side of Seven Mile and Northville Township wanted it built on the North side.

The difference in cost is more than the Doctor wishes to invest. Mr. Walter Sarcovich, who is the Doctor's representative, will be in the office Monday with more information.

5. Supervisor Merriam informed the Board that Alex Cordon had filed suit against the Board of Zoning Appeals of Northville Township, consisting of Gunnar Stromberg, John Miller and Alex M. Lawrence. Also R. B. Willis, Building and Zoning Inspector. 6. Release of Northville Sand & Gravel Company's $2500 Escrow monies.

Supervisor Merriam said that Northville Sand & Gravel had cleaned up their gravel operation very satisfactorily with the exception of a small amount of grading which would cost approximately $50.

They are asking that their money be returned.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Last week end was a nightmare for area public works' employees, firemen and policemen. Mother nature acted like the woman she is and changed her mind almost hourly from rain to snow and freeze to thaw (see story on page one).

One of the emergencies during the ordeal points up the value of a service that many residents may not realize exists. I think it deserves special mention.

I'm talking about the mutual aid fire protection program.

Early Friday evening Northville City Manager Bruce Potthoff, driving with his wife on Eight Mile road, noted flames coming from an auxiliary house on the W. B. Chase property. He contacted Northville police who called both the Northville and Novi departments. The Chase property lies in Novi.

It soon became apparent that more help was needed, so Novi Chief Lee BeGole summoned a Farmington township tanker to provide water. Meanwhile, the Northville and Novi pumpers were refilling their water tanks at a Northville hydrant nearby in the city on Baseline.

Nearly four hours later the job was complete. The fire had had a head start, but damage had been kept to a minimum.

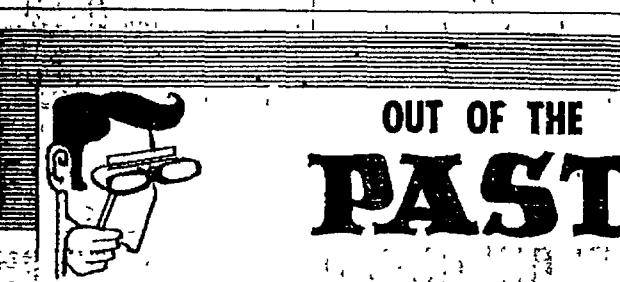

Three departments had cooperated in providing its facilities and manpower.

Later Northville's city manager received a call from a grateful Mr. Chase, who expected to receive a bill for services rendered.

But there is no charge. Mutual aid is a reciprocal thing that gives each department the combined strength of all the area departments.

The mutual aid program is not a loosely-tied agreement, but is kept up-to-date by regular meetings between departments at which time modern fire-fighting techniques are studied and practiced so that firemen from different communities may work well together as a team.

The full impact of its value becomes most apparent when it is needed, as demonstrated at the Chase fire.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO — Pat Haley — a 12-year-old resident of Novi — was named a page boy in the state house of representatives in Lansing. He was one of two boys selected from the metropolitan area.

Three candidates filed for the office of mayor in the city of Wyom — Incumbent Wesley McAtee, Councilwoman Lottie Chambers and Justice of the Peace William Welke.

Mrs. H. A. Boyden was elected president of the Senior Citizens Club in Northville.

Karen Stuyvenberg of Northville was chosen Miss Junior Achievement of Plymouth and will compete in the finals of the Southeastern Michigan finals of the national JA contest.

A four-man committee started work on resolving the differences that sparked the threatened resignation of 11 members of the Northville volunteer fire department.

Russia was blamed for a construction delay at the new Northville city hall. Roof trusses couldn't be shipped from the west coast because all available box cars were reserved for shipment of wheat to the Soviet Union.

FIVE YEARS AGO — Northville's city council eyed a plan to pave all the streets in the area. The project would cost around $450,000.

A plan for converting the Community Building into a new city hall was given preliminary study by the Northville city fathers.

A father-son team from Northville joined the Detroit Tigers. Joe Kritch Sr. was signed as a scout and Joe Jr. was invited to participate in the 15-day, Tiger-sponsored baseball clinic in Lakeland, Florida.

Campaign Spending Draws Fire

LANSING — A biennial ruckus over campaign-spending spirals appears to be holding attention this year longer than before, a possible indication there may be some changes made.

Michigan law books for several years have carried a limit on campaign expenditures, but the law was so written as to make it virtually impossible to enforce the limitation.

The legislature would be the action-taking unit in strengthening the law if any changes were to be made. It is an administrative agency, however, which is now shouting loudest for change.

Grand jury investigation was hinted by some elections officials last year following both the primary and general election campaigns in one legislative district.

Initial studies indicated to some members of the secretary of state's elections division that a clear and provable violation of the spending limit law existed.

Indications of a grand jury call have now all but disappeared and faded into the demands for revision of the expenditure reporting statute.

The law now limits expenses to $40 per thousand votes cast for governor in the previous presidential year. It also allows any number of separate campaign committees to spend this amount.

Financial support from outside the state in a campaign is totally beyond Michigan jurisdiction. And campaign committees are not required to register in any way, so no one really knows whether all expenditures are ever reported for any given candidate.

With these weaknesses pointed up this year and in past sessions, it now remains a question of whether the legislators will take action to place effective restrictions on a matter so dear to their own political lives.

Prison facilities and policies at both the county and state levels have undergone considerable change in the past decade, and still more is anticipated in the near future. Corrections officials now feel that clean, modern jail conditions at the county level are an aid toward rehabilitation of criminals, particularly first offenders.

In the past 10 years some 34 new county jails have been built in the state and another 11 are in the construction or planning stage now.

At the state level, corrections director Gus Harrison notes a sharp change in the entire philosophy of penology. The trend has been toward giving a man a chance while he is paying his debt to society, says Harrison. "Eventually I hope Southern Michigan Prison, the world's largest walled prison, will become obsolete."

More than a third of Michigan's prisoners are now housed outside the walls of the various penal institutions, either in trusty units, farm dormitories or outside camps.

The decade just past has also seen a change in pardon-parole practices, according to the state's top corrections officer.

"On life term prisoners who killed or were judged habitual criminals, we've had about a 99% success ratio in our policy of allowing eventual release," said Harrison. "We also believe in the so-called mercy policy for old men who don't want to die in prison."

With the improved employment situation in Michigan, men ready for re-entry to society can be moved out of prison into jobs faster. The corrections chief said over the past 10 years there was an approximate 10% increase in the probation rate.

Security measures in President Johnson's activities since his re-election have been greater than ever before.

This was particularly noted in the elaborate, inauguration plans and structures. It was clear the events of November 22, 1963 are still foremost in the minds of many, at least in Washington.

'Misunderstandings' To Erupt in Labor

BABSON PARK, Mass. — There will be a welter of labor wrangles, netting the nation's business during 1965. The temper of the times has already been established by the dock workers, who turned down the generous agreement won for them by their union leaders, and struck.

The strike along the East and Gulf coasts was attributed to a "misunderstanding." Readers can expect to hear of quite a few more "misunderstandings" in other fields in 1965.

Looming on the not-too-distant horizon is trouble on the steel front. In the two previous pacts, Big Steel and the steel workers have agreed on fringes instead of wage boosts. This time the union wants raises of at least 15 cents an hour and a doubling of the shift differentials. So far, the White House has let labor go way beyond the 3.2% annual productivity guideline in pay hikes (auto workers got about 5% last year) even though it has warned company managements against increasing steel prices.

There are many contracts that will be expiring and reopening this year, with raises and fringes being granted in many instances large enough to encourage fresh drives throughout the rest of the affected industries.

And pressure will be especially intense with business still zooming along and with the example of the 5% pay and fringe-benefit gains that have already been awarded the auto workers.

One reason for expecting more labor difficulties this year is that management's determination to reject excessive demands is as strong as labor's yen to make them. It will be seen that many employers — particularly those in the more experienced group — will prefer to risk an expensive strike rather than allow labor costs to move any nearer the danger point.

They reason that business will not always be this good, so they must plan against less prosperous times. Also, many feel that they will have to fight the profits squeeze without being able to lift prices very much, to avoid antagonizing the White House and weakening their competitive position in the market place.

Management, in general, is also getting its back up over the efforts being made by unions to have a say in a number of areas that employers have always considered their prerogatives. These include such key issues as automation, contract letting, and the shutting down or even sale of businesses. Management is finding that the National Labor Relations Board and other "referees" are inclined to favor unions in such incursions, and they know that the whole problem must be fought out at the bargaining-table level. Such discussions will stir up considerable trouble in 1965.

Security measures in President Johnson's activities since his re-election have been greater than ever before.

This was particularly noted in the elaborate, inauguration plans and structures. It was clear the events of November 22, 1963 are still foremost in the minds of many, at least in Washington.

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.
