

Which Comes First - Elementary, Junior High - or Both?

One thing appears certain as the citizens' advisory groups near the conclusion of their assignment by the Northville board of education.

At least one new school building is needed in the system almost immediately.

But whether it should be an elementary, junior high school (or both) is still a matter of conjecture.

The committees met with board representatives Monday night. A joint meeting of the three committees, school administrators and the board is scheduled for next Monday's regular school board meeting when a representative of the school planning division of the state department of public instruction will be on hand.

And by February 22 the board has asked the study groups to have their final reports submitted so that definite steps may be taken on a school building program.

The student squeeze has hit the Northville system at all grade levels. Phasing out of the Novi tuition students at the high school has already begun: ninth graders no longer attend here and 10th, 11th and 12th grades will leave a year at a time beginning in 1966.

Elementary schools were alleviated this year by moving sixth grade classes to the junior high school.

But by the fall of 1966 everyone agrees more classroom space will be needed.

When the citizens committees were formed last October Board President James Kipper emphasized that all reports should be completed by March 1 "so we can be set for a bond election by July 15."

But it was generally assumed by administrators and board members that a new elementary would be given top priority.

A poll of the population and facilities' committee, however, indicated by a 9-4 vote that the members would prefer building a new junior high school.

Specifically, this committee, headed by William Secord, favored its "plan one" which calls for a 600-student junior high school in 1965-66, conversion of the present junior high school to a 300-student elementary with other facilities for special education, administrative offices and maintenance, followed by certain improvements at the high school (not an addition) and then purchase of an elementary site.

Board President Kipper noted that the board had told the committees to provide alternatives. "This committee is doing a service which we couldn't have done as a board. When their report is in, we'll have to decide upon a course of action," he stated.

Kipper hopes that the committee members will gain more help in reaching their conclusions when they meet Monday night with Dr. Lloyd Fales. An official of the department of public instruction for Michigan, Dr. Fales specializes in school planning.

During the day Monday Dr. Fales will review citizen committee reports to date, inspect present facilities and examine prospective school sites.

"He will not take the ball away from us or rubber stamp what's been proposed," emphasized Kipper. "But he will react to our method of procedure and reflect the point of view of the department of public instruction on bonding, kinds of buildings and facilities," Kipper added.

Several prospective school sites have been suggested by the citizen committees. One lies on the east side of Taft road north of the Eight Mile road cut-off as far as the access road to the high school athletic field. This has been eyed as a possible junior high site. Sites on Eight Mile west of Taft and on Maybury Sanatorium property at the end of Main street near Beck road have also been proposed for elementary locations.

In addition to the population committee, the citizen groups include the financing committee headed by Dewey Butt and the curriculum group headed by Mike Abbott.

Bullet Can't Stop Rocky

Eight-year-old Eddie Kritch can smile now. His pet cat, "Rocky Colavito" is on the road to recovery. But there were some trying days after Rocky was shot through the neck and dragged himself home. After 10 days at the Northville Veterinary Clinic, and several visits by Eddie, Rocky was able to return home. Dr. T. N. Heslip said a "slug", probably a .22 caliber, had entered the pet's neck and went out through the back (see picture below). Eddie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kritch of 806 Spring drive, wonder what kind of a sportsman would practice his marksmanship on a pet cat.

Plan Reappraisal Of All Buildings In City this Year

Reappraisal of all buildings in the city of Northville has been recommended by City Assessor Harold Penn.

But before this is undertaken, Penn proposed to reduce assessments on houses built since 1962 to bring them into balance with assessments on comparable homes built prior to 1962.

Penn's recommendation came about as the result of an investigation of assessments on buildings in the Oakland county portion of the city. At last year's board of review hearings several complaints were registered by homeowners in Northville Estates and Yerkes Estates and Yerkes subdivision number five.

Penn's study revealed that assessing has been uniform between properties, but that assessment procedure used since 1962 was more thorough in detail. The assessor called for reduction of these assessments, which he estimated at 100, at the board of review meetings (this March).

It has been eight years since city property has undergone reappraisal.

Councilmen supported Penn's recommendations and emphasized the importance of maintaining uniform assessment practices.

In other business Monday night the council set March 1 as the night for a public hearing on two special assessment projects — paving of West street and Butler and Pennell streets. Cost of the West street paving project was estimated at $4,000 with the 2% property assessments totaling $799.94 and the Butler-Pennell at $5,675 with a total of $1,218.82 in assessments.

The question of city-wide sidewalk snow removal was settled, at least for this year.

Agreement was reached between the city and Robert Cole, who will remove snow from walks for the remainder of this winter for $4,400. The city owes Cole $600 for three trial removals, so his total contract equals $5,000.

It was noted that there are certain areas in the business and residential sections where it is impossible to operate a tractor. The city manager and Cole plan to review these areas and determine how to serve them.

If the program proves satisfactory, the city will advertise for bids to continue the work next year.

A school bus ordinance drafted by City Attorney Philip Ogilvie was approved by the council for hearing February 16. The ordinance is similar to state law, but must be adopted by cities. The state law which prohibits motorists from passing a school bus which has stopped to unload or receive students applies in townships, but not cities, Ogilvie stated. He said the city's most post signs indicating the bus ordinance is in effect.

Northville's board of education has urged passage of the ordinance by the city.

In final business Councilman Richard Ambler asked the city attorney if the city could take legal action to curb the disturbances at an all-night restaurant at Dunlap and Center streets and at the unattended automatic laundry on North Center street.

Mothers Collect $1,525

Despite the cold and icy weather, the mothers march in Northville topped last year.

Mrs. Howard F. Meyer, Jr., who lead her volunteers in the city and township last Tuesday night, said $1,525 was raised. Last year, $1,400 was collected.

The march is the chief money-raising project for the March of Dimes. About 130 mothers battled the freezing temperatures to solicit funds for the dimes' drive.

There was other good news, too.

Angie Gadioli, proprietor of Northville Lanes, said over $700 was contributed at his establishment over a two-week period in the March of Dimes bowling tourney.

"All leagues were behind the March of Dimes 100%," Gadioli noted.

Harold Penn, general chairman in Northville, said $120 so far have been donated by local businesses.

And this Saturday Northville high school students will hold their peanut sale in the business district, Penn said. All proceeds will be turned over to the dimes' campaign.

In 1964, the mothers' march and other projects netted over $2,000. So far this year $2,345 has been collected.

Don't Wait to Buy License Plates

Time is running out for area motorists to buy 1965 license plates.

Slightly more than three weeks remain for purchases to be made. The deadline is February 28.

"But the last day will be a Sunday," according to Harold Hartley, manager of the secretary of state branch in Northville.

"No one can get them then. It is not the policy of secretary of state offices to be open on Sunday. So it looks like Saturday, February 27, will be a busy day."

Expecting a last-minute rush, Hartley has extended the hours at his branch. They are: 9:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. on Monday through Thursday, 9:30 a.m.-8 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m.-noon on Saturday.

Although sales are lagging

now, Hartley said business boomed shortly after the plates were introduced in November. At that time plates that were sold carried a DX prefix. Some 1,150 were available.

Now the CT prefix is being offered.

"I have already sold a few thousand plates," Hartley indicated but instead of stocking 4,500 like he did last year he started out with 5,500 three months ago.

In a plea to local drivers he said: "We'll be crowded the last few days. So come in now and get your plates."

Meanwhile, Secretary of State James Hare, who issues license plates to more than 4 1/2 million Michigan residents is looking for vintage license plates.

Hare is trying to find plates dating back to 1908 when the state first began licensing autos.

Hare is hoping "good samaritans will donate plates, especially those issued before 1950." All plates prior to 1960 will be accepted, however.

Reason for the search is that "we're trying to build up a complete collection of plates for an exhibit which can be used at fairs, auto shows and other exhibits," Hare said.

Hare said his department has one plate display but it is permanently affixed to a wall in the basement of the state capitol.

Area residents who wish to contribute old plates are requested to take them to the local secretary of state branch. Then they will be sent to Hare.

Township Sees End Of Sewer Capacity

Additional Taps To Cost $77,000

The critical need for more capacity in the Middle Rouge interceptor sewer system was pointed out to members of the Northville township board Tuesday night by representatives of the planning commission.

Bernard Baldwin and Lewis Alexander told the board that the township is "six years ahead" in estimated future use of sewer capacity.

Northville township is currently using .24 cubic feet per second of its total 1.6 CFS purchased in the system. Projecting the additional capacity required to service four proposed developments already in the planning stage, the planners noted that the township would pass its allotment in the system.

The township's sewer capacity explained in numbers of residential "taps" amounts to some 1,100 taps. Right now 197 are being used. But Baldwin noted that one industry could use up several hundred of these taps. And he emphasized that if the township is to acquire any industry to reduce the tax burden on residential properties, it must provide sewer capacity.

When the new interceptor was developed about three years ago, Northville township could not afford to purchase its complete allotment. A host of taxpayers opposed any purchase at that time, but the board did acquire 1.6 of the 3.6 CFS available.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam has recommended that the township purchase the last CFS available from Wayne county. This capacity, which would provide an additional 720 "house" taps, can be purchased for $77,000.

The board has indicated approval of the purchase, but some means of financing at least half of the amount must be negotiated with the county.

In other business Tuesday night the board decided to write the city council to ask its cooperation in aiding Taft Colony residents who appealed for larger lot sizes on the proposed Thompson - Brown development adjoining the township subdivision.

Attorney Edward Draugelis, attending his first official township board meeting, told the board that he had filed an answer to the complaint of the Gordon Building company regarding the township's refusal to permit soil removal from a 95-acre site on Bradner road. The attorney said he had asked for a jury trial, which might postpone action as long as 30 months.

He also revealed a new hope — that the property might be

AMBLER

HAMMOND

He's bowing out...he wants in.

Hammond Files For City Council

C. Oscar Hammond became the first candidate to officially enter the race for city council yesterday.

He filed petitions for the April 5 election with Clerk Martha Milne.

Meanwhile, two of the three councilmembers whose terms expire in April announced they would seek re-election. One said he would not.

Mayor A. M. Allen revealed he would be a candidate for a fourth term. Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson said she would seek re-election to a second term.

But Councilman Richard Ambler declared he would not run again — at least not this year. Ambler has served one four-year term.

The other two councilmembers, John Canterbury and Fred Kester, still have two years to serve on their four-year terms.

Also on the April city ballot will be the office of municipal judge. Judge Charles McDonald has indicated he will run again. While the judgeship is on the April ballot the four-year term does not begin until July 4. The Northville court was recently changed from a justice court to a municipal court and the salary hiked to $4,200 annually beginning in July. The new court calls for an attorney to serve as a judge.

Petitions, now available at the city clerk's office, must be filed in February. They require signatures of not less than 50 or more than 75 qualified city electors.

Allen moved from councilman to the office of mayor in 1958 upon the death of Mayor Claude Ely. He first ran for mayor in April 1959 and has been re-elected every two years since that time.

Mrs. Carlson is completing her first four-year term. She is the first woman ever to be elected to the council.

Ambler, a lifelong Northville resident and popular member of the council, said that new business responsibilities have prompted his decision not to seek re-election. He was recently named manager of salary administration, corporate personnel office, at Chrysler corporation.

Hammond is a retired builder. Last year he held the office of state commander of the American Legion. He lives at 511 North Center street and has been a Northville resident for 23 years.

GOP Candidates To Appear Here

The six Republican candidates who will compete against one another in the February 15 primary for the 14th district state senate seat are scheduled to appear in Northville next Wednesday evening.

The Greater Northville Republican club will sponsor the "meet the candidates" session at the lower-level meeting room of Detroit Federal Savings & Loan at eight o'clock. Entrance to the room is at the rear of the building on Dunlap street.

Republicans seeking nomination for the seat vacated by the death of Senator - Elect Paul Chandler are George Ames of Novi, Allen C. Ingle of Farmington, Paul Kern of Orchard Lake, Thomas J. McHugh of Sylvan Lake, Fitzhugh Prescott of Farmington and Farrell Roberts of Pontiac.

After informal discussions with the candidates a coffee hour will be held. GOP club officials have issued an invitation to the public to attend.

Democratic voters will decide between three candidates: John Burke of Farmington, and Mrs. Elsie Gilmore and Ed McNamara of Livonia.

Winning party nominees will run for election to the office on April 5.

JC's Tell Own Story

The Northville Jaycees and Jaycettes have scheduled orientation meetings this month to tell men of Jaycee age (21-35) and their wives of the purposes, history and values in belonging to their organizations.

The first meeting was held at the home of the Charles Elys last Monday. The next session is slated for Monday evening at the home of Richard Norton of Ely drive.

Anyone interested in attending the meetings can call Mr. Norton at 349-2467.

Tax Dollars Rolling In

Wixom, smallest of area communities, is leading the others in collecting winter taxes.

Mailed out in December, the tax bill is for schools and county and township governments. Residents living in the city of Wixom or Northville don't pay any township millage, however.

City taxes in both places are imposed in the summer.

Elizabeth Waara, acting city clerk in Wixom, happily reports that 95% of the tax tab has been paid up. This amount represents $730,974.

Total levy in Wixom is $161,731.

Mrs. Waara said that the big reason that such a high percentage has been recorded is that Ford Motor Co. has paid its share of taxes.

Ford, which builds Thunderbirds and Continentals in Wixom, is the city's largest taxpayer, footing 85% of the bill. In Northville, Northville township and Novi township, the tax-collecting race is tight.

Martha Milne, Northville city clerk, said 61% of the tax levy has been accumulated — or $291,076 out of $474,317.

Just behind Northville is Northville township. Treasurer Alex Lawrence says that 55% or $272,000 has been garnered. Total township levy is $498,000.

Picking up steam is Novi township. "We'll really be busy in the next two weeks," said

Treasurer Duane Bell. To date only 52% or $341,258 of the $655,000 roll has been received.

Deadline for meeting tax bills without penalty is February 15 in Northville, Wixom and Novi township. After that, a 4% penalty will be added until the end of the month.

Only exception is Northville township. Its residents have until the last day of February to pay up without a penalty.

All delinquent accounts are turned over to the county after March 1.

HEARTS AND FLOWERS — Mrs. Charles Fountain, social chairman for the Northville State Hospital Auxiliary, and assistant chairman Mrs. Herbert Weston prepare table decorations for the auxiliary's seventh birthday.

'Little Elves' Back Players

You might call it the plight of the little-knowns.

Take Santa Claus and his elves for instance. Everybody knows Santa Claus. He's the crimson clad fellow from the pole who gets top billing for making good on all those Christmas lists.

But, who knows the elves? They're just elves, little little-knowns who year in and year, out toil tirelessly to stack their boss's sleigh.

They're really the power behind the beard and yet you, probably wouldn't be able to tell a North Pole elf from a Black Forest elf if you saw the two of them standing side by side on a street corner.

The Northville Players Guild, which is polishing its second production of the season for presentation at the high school Friday and Saturday nights, has its little-knowns, too.

They're the production people, the committee volunteers who do everything from building sets to pouring punch at intermission. They work all around the footlights but seldom bask in the limelight.

Like Santa's elves their reward comes from a job well done, a smoothly run performance on the big night.

Those working on this weekend's suspense thriller "Ladies in Retirement" are taking their cues from Director Hans Kolbe and Technical Director Rita Sprenger. They are:

Gary Webb, stage design; June Gasser, Muriel Ross, Pearl Weber and Betsy Van Ee, properties; Alice Hosback and Kathy McNeiece, script; Edd Austin, Muriel Ross and Sharon Mazanec, publicity; Betty Sellers and Dwight Grayson, program; Muriel Ross, tickets; Betsy Van Ee, intermission refreshments.

Carrying the show to the footlights will be a veteran Guild cast including Coy Sandrock, Fran Bissa, Ellen McNeiece, Gladys Weiss, Peggy Jones, Edd Austin, Betty Schulz and Mary Welch.

Curtain time for both performances of "Ladies in Retirement" will be at 8:30 p.m.

The Players Guild will close out its second theatre season the end of May with Gore Vidal's "Visit to a Small Planet."

HEADLESS WORKER — His head out of view, Jim Drew nails the scenery together for the Northville Players Guild. Andrea Bissa helps, too.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

WEDDING BELLS are about to chime for a member of one of Northville's most musical families. Donna Lynn Williams, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Williams of Eaton drive, is to be a Valentine-season bride. She has set February 13 for her marriage to Richard Houghton of Tampa, Florida.

For this ceremony her mother is forsaking her role as organist at Northville Presbyterian church to be mother-of-the-bride. Donna's father is director of music at the church, leading the harmony and chancel choirs and the bell ringers group.

The Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure, who will officiate at the 8 p.m. ceremony, comments that this is a musical family with whom it is a "constant pleasure" to work. The Williams family has made its home in Northville since 1950.

Donna continues this musical tradition as she plans to teach piano when she settles in her new home in Florida. She has been studying music therapy. She was a member of the Michigan Youth Choral touring the Scandinavian countries during the summer of 1963 under sponsorship of the Teens for Understanding Exchange Student Program.

A BRIDAL SHOWER this Saturday will honor both Donna Williams and Carolyn Langtry, who is to be a June bride. Hostesses for the luncheon and miscellaneous shower which will be held in the John Alden room of the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth are Mrs. William B. Crump, Mrs. George Weiss, Mrs. Crispin Hammond, Mrs. E. G. Sprunk and Mrs. John Blackburn.

Carolyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Langtry of Thayer boulevard, will be both a June graduate and a June bride. She will be graduating from Michigan State university and is to become the bride of David Anderson of New York on June 19. Carolyn met her fiance when he was her French teacher at State. He has been teaching on fellowships and presently is instructing in his home state.

FRIENDS OF Donna Williams have been invited to a personal shower in her honor this Sunday being given by Kathy Gallagher at her home on Carrington drive.

VALENTINE'S DAY will set the theme for the meeting of the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association next Monday at the home of Mrs. W. L. Howard on West Eight Mile road. The meeting time has been changed to 12:30.

Valentine floral arrangements are planned by Mrs. William Slattery and her program committee. Mrs. Alfred Millington is co-hostess. Other hostesses for the day are Mrs. Karl Weiss, Mrs. Charles Altman, Dr. Irene Sparling and Mrs. R. G. Nelson.

WOMAN'S CLUB SPEAKER Miss Eleanor Breitmeyer will be honor guest at a luncheon before the club meeting Friday being given by Mrs. R. M. Atchison at her Rogers street home. Guests will be long-time friends who knew Eleanor when she worked at The Northville Record. She now is society editor of The Detroit News.

Another Year Older

Red hearts and white flowers, carrying out a valentine theme, will decorate the luncheon tables next Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. at the seventh annual birthday party of the auxiliary of the Northville State Hospital.

One large birthday cake with seven candles will highlight the party.

Guest speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Carolyn Seefeldt, social service director of the hospital, who will talk on social service work.

Mrs. C. W. Fountain, social chairman is in charge of decorations and assisting her is Mrs. D. W. Horning.

Reservations for the luncheon can be obtained by calling Mrs. H. E. Weston, 349-9714. The party will be held in cafeteria A of the hospital.

Topic for the evening will be "economical landscaping."

Bentley-Schuster Vows Exchanged

Cathy Anne Bentley became the bride of Corporal Joseph W. Schuster, USMC, at a double ring ceremony January 2 at the First Church of Christ in Altoona, Pennsylvania. The Reverend Carl Alexander officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Bentley Jr., of Novi and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schuster Sr., of Altoona.

Mrs. Schuster, sister-in-law of the groom was matron of honor. Serving as his brother's best man was William Schuster, Jr.

For her wedding the bride wore a white wool sheath with burgundy accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations tipped with burgundy.

Mrs. Bentley, mother of the bride, wore a green silk dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Schuster, mother of the groom, chose a kelly green knit suit with black accessories and also wore white carnations.

A reception following the ceremony was given by Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Moore of Altoona, grandparents of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Northville high school. The groom, a graduate of Altoona high school, is now serving in the 1st Force Reconnaissance company of the U.S. Marine Corps.

The couple will reside in southern California.

Recieve Degrees

Five Northville residents were among the 470 graduates to receive degrees from Eastern Michigan University at commencement exercises held January 24.

Chris Allen Krauter received a bachelor degree in business administration. Gennaro C. Macri got a masters degree in industrial arts as did John A. Swallow. Douglas H. Ware and William S. Chizmar earned bachelor of science degrees.

News Around Northville

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson of Fairbrook avenue returned Monday from a 10-day trip to Florida. While there she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Noemie and was also on hand to help celebrate the 21st birthday of her grandson, Robert Hanson, a student at the University of New Mexico. Mrs. Carlson also relates the death of Chet Gooding, who was known to many in Northville. She also visited the Sidney Junods at their North Palm Beach home.

Mrs. C. E. Woodruff, legislative chairman of the Northville-Plymouth branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, attended a seminar in the nation's capital January 24-27, the opening event of the 50th anniversary of the organization. While in Washington, she invited Senators Philip Hart and Patrick McNamara, and Representatives Billie Farnum and Wes Vivian to a special luncheon. Next she went to Philadelphia for a meeting of the national board of the WILPF from January 29-31. Mrs. Woodruff is scientific contracts committee chairman of the national board.

One Northville traveler who is enjoying her stay in Europe is Judy Nauman. Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Nauman of Connemara drive, received a letter from Judy, who was in St. Moritz, Switzerland, skiing and bob-sledding. She was a spectator at the two-man bobsled championships, which were televised on the "Wide World of Sports" last Saturday.

Judy has been traveling in Europe since September. She spent a month at Lech, Austria, while skiing in the Alps and remained there for the Christmas and New Years holidays. Judy's plans for returning to Northville are undecided.

Mrs. M. A. Gardner of Randolph street left Saturday for Sacramento, California for a two-week visit with relatives.

A rush-tea for new members was held by the Eta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority at the home of Sorority president, Mrs. Dwight Eckler, Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Members are from the Northville, Plymouth and Livonia areas.

Preparations are underway for the 52nd Birthday of the Girl Scouts of America. Local girl scouts are busy rehearsing for a celebration March 8 at the Junior high gymnasium. The celebration, for the Northville scout groups and their leaders, will be under the direction of Mrs. Marge Jennings who has been active in scouting for 25 years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blackburn of Orchard Drive spent a week visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Smith of Alexandria, Virginia. The Blackburns saw their first grandson, Brian Lee, for the first time. The Smiths also have another son, Noble Jr.

A former resident of Northville, Mr. Ray Utley is a patient in St. Mary's hospital. Mr. Utley would like to receive visitors, his room number is 418.

To Meet Monday
The Mothers club of Northville will hold a business meeting, Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Conley, 302 Orchard drive. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Chester Lipa, Mrs. J. S. Canterbury and Mrs. A. L. Wistert.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance.

— Samuel Johnson

When neighborhood women want something special on the family menu, they can call on their "new neighbor" Mrs. Russell Smith. Mrs. Smith (Dée) to her many friends makes gastronomy her hobby. Directions for plain or exotic dishes can be obtained from her large recipe cache.

The Smiths moved into their new tri-level contemporary home at 23963 Lynwood drive, Echo Valley, shortly before the first of the year.

They have five children — four boys and a girl — ranging in ages from three months to seven years. Their oldest daughter, Stacey, attends Orchard Hills school and David, 5, is in the kindergarten class at Novi school. The other boys are Jeffrey, 3, Steven, 2, and Gary, three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Novi from Saline, Michigan where they made their home for 10 years. However, their home town is Litchfield, Michigan where they met while students at Litchfield high school.

Mr. Smith graduated from Eastern Michigan University in 1962 and is a systems analyst for the Michigan Bell Telephone company in Southfield.

They are members of Our Lady of Victory parish.

Before becoming a mother and homemaker, Mrs. Smith held a position with the accounting department at the University of Michigan.

A "taste" of Mrs. Smith's excellent cooking is being passed on to our readers with the following recipe:

CHEESE CAKE PIE

This recipe makes two nine-inch pies.

1-3 oz. package of lemon jello
1 cup hot water
2 T lemon juice
1-8 oz. package of cream cheese
1 cup sugar
1 t vanilla
1-14 1/2 ounce can evaporated milk

Combine first three ingredients. Chill to the consistency of egg whites and whip. Cream cheese should be at room temperature. Whip cheese with sugar and milk. Chill can of milk in freezer until ice crystals form on outside of can, and whip until stiff peaks form.

Fold jello mixture into cheese mixture and add milk. Pour into graham cracker or pastry pie shells and chill until firm.

Included in the cast are: Mrs. Jack Maas, Mrs. Richard Fritz, Mrs. Thomas Devereaux, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. James Knowles, Mrs. William Fronk, Mrs. Richard Doherty, Mrs. David VanHine.

Performances are scheduled for 10-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-3 p.m.

Northland Exhibit

The 3 Cities annual juried art show will be held February 8-13 in the Northland shopping center dome. Paintings, ceramics, sculpture, graphics and weaving will be exhibited by artists from southeastern Michigan.

Exhibits will be judged by Cyril Miller of Highland Park and John Loree, assistant professor at Eastern Michigan university.

Admission is free. The dome will be open during shopping hours at Northland.

Women to Hear Society Editor

Eleanor Breitmeyer, society editor of the Detroit News, will discuss the people and events she writes about at the 2 p.m. meeting of Northville Woman's Club Friday in the junior high library.

She will be introduced by Mrs. William H. Cansfield, whose late husband was publisher of The Northville Record when Miss Breitmeyer began her newspaper career as a part-time member of its staff.

The daughter of the Martin Breitmeyers, who lived on Seven Mile road near Farmington road, Eleanor was valedictorian of the Northville high school class of 1944. She went on to major in journalism at the University of Michigan.

"During high school and college she worked part-time at The Record. After graduation from the University in 1948 she became managing editor of the paper. She assumed the post upon the death of Mr. Cansfield in the summer of 1948 and held it until 1952 when she joined The Detroit News society staff.

At the News she later became club editor, moving up to her present job in 1963. She received the first certificate of appreciation given by Mayor Cavanagh for her contributions to club activities and social welfare. She also has been honored by Quota Club and St. Raphael's Guild.

Many of Miss Breitmeyer's friends in Woman's club will have an opportunity to renew acquaintances after the program at tea planned by Miss Elizabeth Etz and her social committee.

To Elect Officers

A biennial election and installation of officers of the Farmington alumnae association of Delta Gamma will be held February 8, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Harward, 32229 Bonnet Hill road, Farmington.

A program featuring hair styles will be presented after the election. A leading hair stylist will design coiffures for models Mrs. William Gravius, Mrs. John Harward and Mrs. Thomas Mooney.

Delta Gammas in the Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Novi and Farmington areas will attend.

Cupid Caper

Our Lady of Victory Teen Club will sponsor the "Cupid Capers" dance at the social hall Saturday, February 13 from 7:30 to 11 p.m.

There will be a band and records. Teenagers can dress casually. Admission is 75 cents.

Fin 100 Church Posts

The fourth annual meeting of the Northville Methodist church was held last Thursday with the Reverend Joseph Edwards, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district, presiding.

Over 100 church members were elected to offices for the year beginning June 1, 1965.

Board of trustees: Charles George, Leland Mills, and Walter V. Nicholls.

Elected stewards: Mrs. S. J. Barrow, Dewey Butt, Oliver Collins, Claude Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stamatin.

Committees ordered for the year include: Building committee, records and history, membership cultivation and department superintendents, a committee on music and a nominating committee.

Reverend S. D. Kinde was designated to remain as pastor for the next three years.

Snappers Topic Travel Pictures

The Northville Camera Club will meet next Wednesday, February 10 at 7:43 p.m. at the Wayne County Training school.

A lecture will be given on "How to plan your travel picture."

ONE YEAR AGO

In the wake of mass resignations by members of the Northville fire department, Mayor A. M. Allen ordered that a stand-by force be set up.

A salary increase for teachers in the Northville school district was being eyed. Members of the Northville school board agreed that the boost would be necessary to remain competitive with other districts.

Mayor Wesley McAleer of Wixom said that Councilwoman Lottie Chambers, a candidate for the mayoralty post, should resign because the electorate would have no opportunity to select a replacement for her unexpired term on the council.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniels and their six children were left homeless when a fire destroyed their rented home on Wixom road.

A federal grant was awarded Northville to complete its master plan. Some $15,378 was approved for the project. Uncle Sam pays three-quarters of the total cost.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Sixty census takers were poised for the big count — the U.S. census which is taken every 10 years. Northville with 3,297 residents in 1950 is expected to have close to 4,100 today. Meanwhile, the township with 4,184 a decade ago now has a population approximating 7,800.

Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole, who started the department seven years ago, resigned to become chief of the Chey-bogan force.

Detroit water is available to the Northville-Novu area for the asking. Water lines from Detroit will be extended through the area within 2 to 5 years, depending on the demand and desires of the communities.

Petitions were being circulated in Novi to return the village to township status. Some 300 signatures were obtained.

The area's economic outlook was given a bright new prospect with the announcement by Ford Motor that its Wixom assembly plant will add a second shift. Ford officials stated that an additional 800 employees would be hired and begin work February 29.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Patricia Johnston, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson of West Dunlap, was among the 106 students on the dean's list at Albion College.

About 1,000 Northville youngsters, through the generosity of local business people — will be taken to the Shrine Circus.

Lt. Col. Richard Loomis was promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel in the Air Force.

A DeMolay chapter of the Mason is being organized in Northville for boys between 14 and 21.

Frederick Bernhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernhardt of West Nine Mile, is the 1950 winner of the Bosch and Lamb Honorary Science award medal for achieving the highest scholastic record in science subjects during his high school course. The scholarship has a value of $3,200.

Northville Downs will be host to harness racing from May 15-July 15, a total of 54 racing nights.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

A contest for the Northville township clerk post in the February 19 election came to light. It was rumored that Fred Lyke will oppose incumbent John Litsenberger.

Two residents on Orchard drive were overcome early Friday morning by fumes that escaped from a broken main in front of the M. J. Boelens home on Grandview avenue.

Mr. Manley Harvey of 224 Orchard drive and Mr. J. Kelner of 385 Eaton drive had to have medical attention as a result of the escaping gas that followed the sanitary sewer line.

According to Depositors State Bank, a sum of about $17,500 remained unclaimed in the settlement pertaining to the liquidation of two former Northville banks.

An alarm Thursday noon sent the village fire department to the home of Don Miller, 310 First Avenue, where it was discovered that soot had stopped up the chimney, filling the house with smoke. Officer Richard Loomis, on duty at the time, reports that no damage was done.

Fred Simmons and Alec Miller have petitions in circulation for the village council vacancies cause the expirations of terms of Commissioners J. W. Perkins and Floyd Shafer. Mayor Arthur Nichols terms ends this year and he doesn't seek re-election.

What's New from McAllister's House of Decorating

Our most interesting item is the arrival of "American Legacy" series III by Greff.

This new Greff series, a copyright with the Henry Ford Museum, was previewed by us at the Park Shelton last Wednesday evening. We have a brochure on the new wallpapers and fabrics being offered. However, the samples will not be here for approximately three weeks. Believe us — this is worth waiting for!

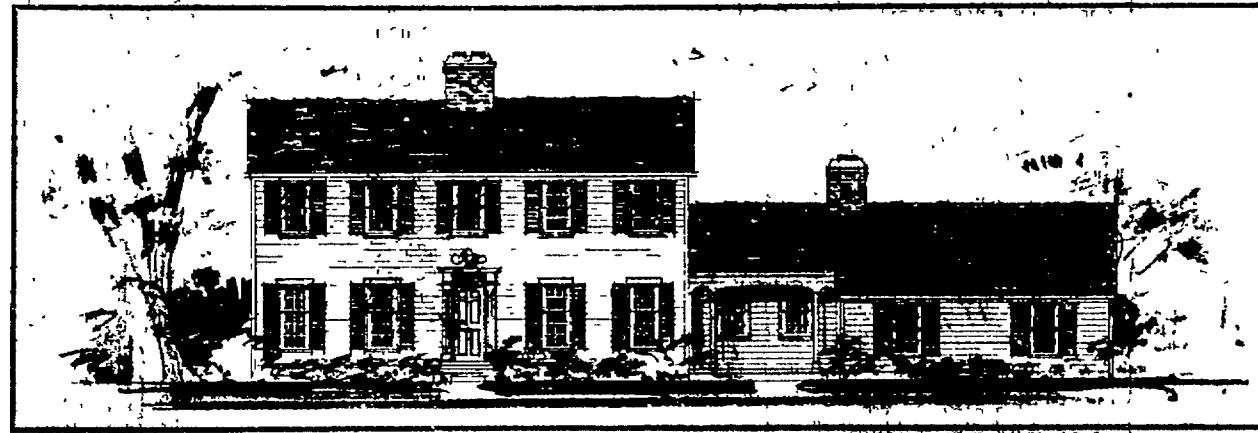

Along with this new collection there are also many new books and fabrics in from Schumacher, Jones and Erwin, Sullivan's, James Seeman, Astor, Fisher and Embassy, to mention a few.

Have you driven through the newer West 7 Mile area lately? There are many nice things happening out "that-a-way". Folks seem to be coming to Northville from all points. In "Edenderry" we are working with Mr. and Mrs. Pelton, who are building the "French Provincial" on the corner. They are coming out from Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are building the "Colonial" in "Shad Brook" — between "Hoves Barn" and "Knapp's Farm". They are heading this way from Ann Arbor. Around the bend is a blue and white "Colonial Cape" which is being built by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Finney from Plymouth. Also, from Plymouth, down the road apiece at the next fork is another "Barn" with blue gables. This is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lind. Across the road, Mr. and Mrs. Shields are building the "White Farm". They are also leaving Detroit for Northville. We are already acquainted with all these folks and we know they will be an asset to this community.

You are welcome to take a Sneak preview of the new "American Legacy Series III" at our Shoppe by way of the brochure. Also, the "Williamsburg" wallpapers are authentic — and a free brochure on these papers is available at our Shoppe. We have had this book of wallpapers for some time now, and the brochure gives nice decorating tips of decorating during the 18th Century. As one illustration — painted woodwork — other than white — was all the vogue.

We'll be writing again later — when we can pass along some more friendly tips —

Bruce and Beverly McAllister

'The Belevederes'

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen on Monday, January 18, 1965, 8:00 p.m. in the Northville City hall.
Present: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Kester.
Absent: None. Others present:
Wallace Nichols, Robert Cole,
Essie Nirider, Delbert Black,
Margaret Zayti, Dempsey Ebert,
Carl Johnson, Richard Lyon,
Harley Cole, Donald St. Lawrence and Charles Lapham. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that bills in the following amounts be paid:
General $13,742.01
Water 1,760.53
Unanimously carried.

Communications:
A card of acknowledgement from the family of the late Carl Bryan to the city of Northville and City Council.

A letter from the Wayne County Board of Road Commissioners was read, concerning the proposed interchange at I-96 and 7-Mile road. Letter stated this matter was being referred to the Route Location
Division of the Michigan State Highway Dept. and that the city will be contacted when study is completed.

Notice from the Michigan
Municipal League setting date for Regional III Annual Meeting for Thursday, March 4, at Lincoln Park, Michigan.

Communication from George R. Lindoerfer, 27910 Woodingham, Echo Valley, Northville, Michigan commending the Northville Fire Department on the excellent work they accomplished at his home on December 20, 1964.

A letter of thanks was read from the Chamber of Commerce Retail Committee to the city, City Manager and work crews relative to the Christmas decoration work in the business section of Northville during the past Christmas.

A letter from the Northville Township board, Mr. R. Merriman asking for appointments to a joint committee to study possible re-location of City dump. This letter tabled until later in meeting.

Communications from Citizens:

Mr. Robert Cole asked council's wishes relative to his snow removal service, which has been done on a trial basis.
There was considerable discussion regarding amount of time needed for snow removal, length of contract with Mr. Cole (he wishes 3 year contract) manner of removal so as not to affect grass area abutting sidewalks. It was suggested that the manager determine if there was any basis for contracting without bids for the service. Mr. Cole will do another snow removal.

President of Chamber of Commerce wishes to appear before Council.

Mr. Dempsey Ebert, President of Northville Chamber of Commerce, appeared before Council to report his meeting with Mr. Pohlson, a representative and member of the Fire Prevention Association. These men come to a community as an inspection team, working without charge, and do an inspection of the business district and business buildings in the city. This is a one-day program. Their report will be given to the owner of each building and to the City of Northville Fire Chief. The fire chief is asked to follow up on their recommendations within 30 days. This is voluntary on the part of the business men.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that permission be given to the Michigan Prevention Association to work with the City Manager and Fire Chief on an inspection program in the city of Northville (sponsored by the Northville Chamber of Commerce). Unanimously carried.

Amendment to Zoning Ordinance:
Mayor Allen explained council's feelings that these amendments are tools whereby changes may be made if considered necessary.

Mr. Harley Cole, S. Center street asked permission to address Council relative to his desire to build apartments on S. Center street. He feels that the proposed amendments curtail his development of property for apartments. The city attorney explained that these proposed amendments are a tool that council may or may not use.

Moved by Ambler, supported by Carlson that the proposed amendments on Central Business district, Central Business Parking district and Authority to Establish a Municipal Parking authority to be approved for publication and the date for public hearing be set for Tuesday, February 16, 1965, 8:00
p.m. at the Northville city hall.
Unanimously carried.

Authorize Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May to act as consultants concerning water routes and rates in connection with the Detroit Water Board's request.

The Mayor explained that the above firm is the same consulting firm as was employed on the previous Water Board project. He also explained that council is faced with the problem of deciding whether Detroit water should be routed south-down N. Center street or if an alternate route is possible. The proposed study will gather facts concerning the routes as well as rates, and data to help in determining if and when Detroit water should be used by the City of Northville.

Moved by Canterbury, supported by Carlson that the City of Northville employ the firm of Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May to act as consultants concerning water routes and water rates from Detroit Water Board. Unanimously carried.

Mayor Allen stated he had a call from Mr. Remus of the Detroit Water Board. After Mr.
Allen told him of the proposed study, Mr. Remus asked to be advised of this agreement.

Preliminary report by the City Manager relative to a revised insurance program:

The city manager explained his report on the insurance program for the city which would provide procedures and specifications for adequate insurance protection at least possible cost to the city. Council will examine report before any action is taken.

Second Reading, final Adoption and immediate Effect for Rezoning of Property on W.
Side of River street:

The clerk read the notice in the paper concerning this hearing. Moved by Carlson supported by Canterbury that the following motion be adopted and this to take immediate effect! Unanimously carried.

Following amendments to the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Northville be adopted:
1. That lots 192 through 195a inclusive of Assessor's Northville Plat No. 2 be rezoned from R-2 classification to T-1
classification

2. That lots 185 through 191
inclusive of Assessor's Northville Plat 2 be rezoned from R-2 classification to T-1-P
classification.

The immediate passage of the foregoing amendments being deemed necessary to the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the city, it is hereby ordered that they be given immediate effect.

Building Activities Report for the year 1964.

The building report for 1964 from J. Stanley Waterloo was accepted.

Financial report for the month of December, 1964:

Miscellaneous:
The joint meeting with the Planning Commission scheduled for January 19 will be held on Tuesday, January 26, 1965,
8:00 p.m. at the city hall.

Notices to be sent to members of both bodies and to the city attorney.

Mrs. Carlson reported that she and Mr. Kester have obtained the Northville School System, policy regarding the use of their buildings for the public. By next meeting she will have a complete report to present to Council on buildings available for meetings in the Northville Community.

Mrs. Carlson asked if Council is desirous of appointing a Mayor's Committee to work on a Northville City Beautification program under the Southeastern Michigan Beautification Association. The Chamber of Commerce is to be contacted regarding their possible participation in this activity. Mrs.
Carlson was asked if she would be chairman of the committee.

Moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that the Regular meeting of Monday, February 15, 1965 be changed to Tuesday, February 16, 1965, 8:00 p.m. because of the February 15 Primary Election.

Mayor Allen mentioned he had attended the Out-County Supervisors' meeting the previous week regarding the Poverty program and how it will apply to Wayne County. Mr. Allen will consult with Mr. Amer-man regarding the possible development of this program in the community.

Mr. Canterbury asked regarding additional information on the Northwestern Child Gudane Clinic. The city manager is to determine whether other communities have given the suggested 5 cent per capita of their population to this organization.

The letter from Mr. R. Merriam of the Northville Township board which had been tabled was reviewed. Mr. Fred Kester was appointed to represent council Mr. W. Nichols, who was present from the Planning Commission, was asked to pass this information on to the Commission and ask them to appoint someone to represent their group. A copy of this letter is to go to Mr. Nichols.
The city manager is to write a letter to the Northville township when appointments have been made.

The city attorney brought up question as to whether proposed ordinance for school buses be made effective throughout city or at certain designated areas such as Northville

Estates. There are 6 areas that might have to be posted. The attorney will make a report on this at the next meeting. It should be determined whether the village of Novi has such an ordinance.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at

For the Gardener

This column on gardening information is compiled by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

Another year has rolled around. It's time to pause and reflect on the successes and failures of the past year and think ahead for the next. What do you want from your garden? What are its shortcomings? How can they be improved? Make up your mind that you won't be afraid of a change. Resolve to try some new things in plants, equipment, and pest controls. The most challenging field of all is garden design.

PLAN — Take a stormy weekend to get organized.
Make a list of your wants,
try to work out a time schedule, and make a list of the materials and equipment you will require. Prepare your plans, designs, and color effects. You will be surprised how such organization will help you in your work. If you keep records, check them and

W. L. Howard, M.D., superintendent of Maybury Sanatorium, has been named to serve on the campaign and public relations committee of the Respiratory Disease Association, state Christmas Seal agency.

The committee directs statewide efforts to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

"ALL THAT GLISTENS ISN'T GOLD"

Estimating the condition of a used car is a job that requires an expert. But any motorist with ordinary car sense can spot some of the more obvious faults that show up in a brief inspection.

Here are a few of the things
we look for at John Mach Ford. They may help you avoid making an obvious mistake.

Wear on mats, pedal pads and upholstery give a good indication of mileage and are a better guide than the speedometer. Normal use for a car is 12,000 miles per year though mileage in excess of this is not necessarily a bad sign if the car has been well cared for.

Look along the fender in a good light for signs of previous body damage. Body damage becomes important when a collision is sufficient to twist a car's frame. A car will sometimes never operate properly after that, though minor collision damage is unimportant.

While the engine is warmed up, press lightly on the accelerator. Uneven sounds, heavy clicking or knocking can mean future trouble. This is a good time to check for worn rings since several pumps on the gas will send blue smoke (from burning oil) out of the exhaust pipe.

A test drive will tell even an inexperienced person much about a car's condition. We must add a word of warning though: even an expert can be fooled unless he makes a thorough mechanical inspection such as we perform in our shop. Your best guarantee is still a dealer you can trust.

Red-Hot Mustangs Cooled by Bloomfield After Topping Holly

After moving into sole possession of second place in the Wayne - Oakland Conference Friday with a 57-52 victory over Holly, the Northville Mustangs suffered a crippling blow Tuesday.

That's when league leading Bloomfield Hills turned back the Northville threat, 50-37, to remain safely atop the conference with an 8-1 record.

In the process, Bloomfield snapped Northville's six-game winning streak in loop play. Northville also slid into a tie with Holly for second place. Both teams have 6-3 slates.

Bloomfield was clearly on the beam on its home court as the Barons turned a close contest into a rout at halftime. They led by a 30-16 margin at intermission.

Except for an opening spurt at the outset of the second half, Northville just couldn't find the range going into the home stretch. When Northville closed the gap to 31-20, the Barons spurred back into a 39-22 lead.

With the score 45-25 at the end of the third period, Bloomfield began substituting and its second stringers succeeded in keeping the mantle on the Mustangs' offensive.

With height to match Northville's, Bloomfield won the battle of the boards in the early going — when it counted.

And the Barons hit with uncanny accuracy from the free throw stripe, converting 18 of 24 attempts as the Mustangs fouled in an effort to get the ball. Northville cashed in on only nine foul shots.

Big guns for Bloomfield were Mike Richter and Greg Anderson. Richter, a six-three pivot man, topped all scorers with 18 points and was a bear on the boards. Anderson, a tall guard at six-one, fired home 12 points and directed the offense.

Key to Bloomfield's defensive effort was the job done on Northville's Jerry Imsland.

A top scorer all season long who tallied better than 20 points in most of the Mustangs' games, Imsland was held to just eight points as the Barons doubled and triple-teamed him near the bucket.

With Imsland bottled up, Northville just couldn't hit with consistency from the outside to make up the difference.

Solid performances were turned in by Northville's Rick Milne and Tom Bingham, who scored 10 and 12 points, respectively.

The Mustangs will attempt to recoup their losses tomorrow night when they travel to Clarenceville to take on the loop cellar dwellers. Clarenceville has a 1-7 record.

Substitute Forward Steve Evans came off the bench in the Holly contest to score five clutch points to give Northville the victory here Friday night.

With 1:28 remaining in the game and with Northville holding frantically to a 51-50 lead, Evans took a pass under the basket and flipped the ball through the net. He made it a three-point play by converting the free throw after the shot.

Then Evans stilled the Bronco threat for good just 10 seconds later as he pulled the ball off the Northville rim and banked it in for a 56-50 margin with 1:13 left on the clock.

In losing, Holly proved it was a game ball club, and the Broncos also pointed out a glaring weakness in the Mustangs' offensive machinery.

Northville pushed its halftime bulge of seven points to a 39-23 third-quarter lead by scoring nine points in a row. It looked like a rout, but that's when the Holly cyclone hit.

The Bronco switched to an all-court zone press to harass get to close the gap to 44-38 at ward Tom Fagan, Holly's all-conference guard, fired on target to close the gap to 44-38 at the end of the period.

It was the same strategy — the all-court press — that almost paid off in the final period as Holly caught the Mustangs at 47-41 on a three-point play by Forward Bill Jones.

Northville had the poise when the chips were down, however, as Imsland and Bingham cashed in on two free throws apiece before Evans came on with his heroics.

Imsland sparked in leading all scorers with 24 points, backed up by Bingham's 10 and

Evans' nine. For Holly, Fagan fired in 18 points, Bill Taylor 10 and Jim Stark eight.

Northville once again had the rebounding edge, grabbing 42 to Holly's 31, but because of interceptions and Mustang violations the Broncos took more shots on goal, 20 for 56, while Northville hit 17 of 49.

Compared with the final frenzied moments, the opening quarter was a tranquil period in which both teams played deliberate ball to set up the sure bucket.

Holly gained a 13-12 advantage by overloading a zone to free the lane or a side of the court for a driving layup.

Northville, on the other hand, took advantage of its height by maneuvering its cagers into position under the hoop.

Complexion of the game changed radically in the second period as Northville shifted to collapsing zone defense to befuddle the Broncos. Northville also "whipped the ball down court before the Broncos got set on defense to break into a 30-23 lead at halftime.

The Mustangs employed the same tactics when they returned to the court to race to a 39-23 margin before Holly could gather his forces.

Imsland started things off by converting a free throw, then in quick order Cushing potted a jumper, Bingham tapped in a rebound, Imsland dropped in a jumper and Bingham scored again, this time on a fast break to open the big lead.

That's the biggest margin the Mustangs could mount as Holly came back.

In other W-O league games Friday night, Bloomfield Hills bounced West Bloomfield, 57-36; Milford slaughtered Clarenceville, 68-47, and Clarkston blasted Brighton, 83-49.

RIDE 'EM BRONCO — Just like in the days of yore, Holly's Mark Phalen is trying his hand at the wild west sport of bronco busting. Actually, he was riding a Northville Mustang, John Jameson, in an attempt to block a shot in Friday's clash. Jameson converted a free throw moments later as Northville proved too tough to handle in posting a 57-52 win.

Frosh 5 Extends Win Streak to 9

The freshmen cagers made winning look easy the past week when they posted two impressive victories to run their win skeen to nine ball games.

Coach Bob Kucher's stalwarts now stand 10-2 on the season.

Northville "killed" visiting Milford Highland Friday with a zone press to win, 70-35.

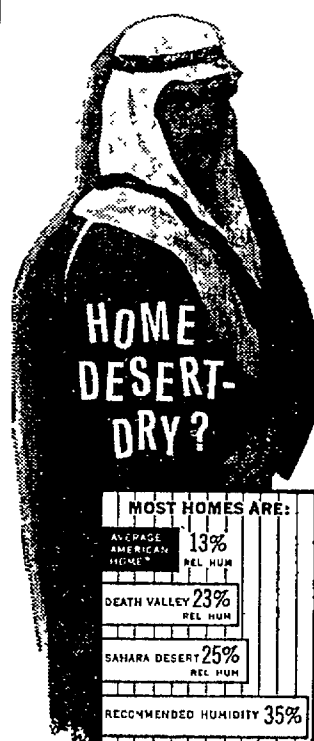

The game was a runaway from the start as the local cagers didn't let Milford across mid-court until after they had scored 15 points. Score at the end of the first period was 38-1.

Center Jim Peterson, who has been sparking the team all season long, reached a personal high by tossing in 30 points. Back of him came Dennis Matthews with 13 and Bob Hubbard with nine.

Brighton put up stiffer opposition Monday on its home court, but Northville prevailed by a 62-41 count.

Balanced scoring was largely the story of the game as the starting five contributed 60 of the 62 points.

Peterson again led the pack,

JV's Drop 4th in Row

Holly's JV's made a three-point spread at halftime stand up here Friday night as they posted the fourth defeat in a row on Northville, 50-47.

A 20-point second quarter did the trick as the junior Broncos wiped out a 9-6 first quarter deficit to take a 26-23 lead into the second half. Both teams tallied 12 points in the third and fourth periods.

Scoring balance boosted Holly to victory as three starters hit double figures.

Northville's Jim Zayti paced the Colt attack with 21 points, but failure of his teammates to back him up in field goals nullified any chance for a Northville win.

Matmen Fall

The Northville matmen lost a 31-11 decision to Redford Union last Friday.

The three winners for Northville were Heavyweight Jerry Burns for forfeit, and 154-pound Mike Horner and 120-pound Bob Steeper by decisions.

Northville's scheduled match Monday with Willow Run was postponed due to a mixup in site of the meet.

TOM BINGHAM — A good eye and a soft touch make Tom Bingham a constant scoring threat at a guard post. In his second year as a member of the varsity squad, Tom is coming into his own after seeing spot action last year. His best performance to date was a 17-point performance against Brighton, which gave Northville a victory. A slim, six-one senior, Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bingham of LeBost drive, Novi.

Post Office Civil Service Exams Set

LeLand Smith, the postmaster at Northville, Michigan, announced that a new civil service examination for career clerks and carriers will open on February 2 for the Northville, Michigan post office. Temporary indefinite, limited and part-time positions will also be filled from this examination.

To apply you must be at least 18 years old (or 16 if you are a high school graduate) and be a resident or bona fide patron of the Northville post office. This examination will be open to both men and women.

Eligibles will be placed on a single register and will be offered both clerk and carrier positions, as vacancies occur.

Since carriers may have to drive collection trucks and similar postal vehicles, persons wishing appointment to this position must pass a special road test before appointment, in addition to the written test, and must be at least 18 years of age.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for equal employment opportunities, including order, without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin.

These postal clerk and carrier positions offer a starting pay of $2.48 an hour, automatic annual increases, night pay differentials, liberal vacation and sick leave plans, low cost insurance benefits, generous retirement plan, and a uniform allowance.

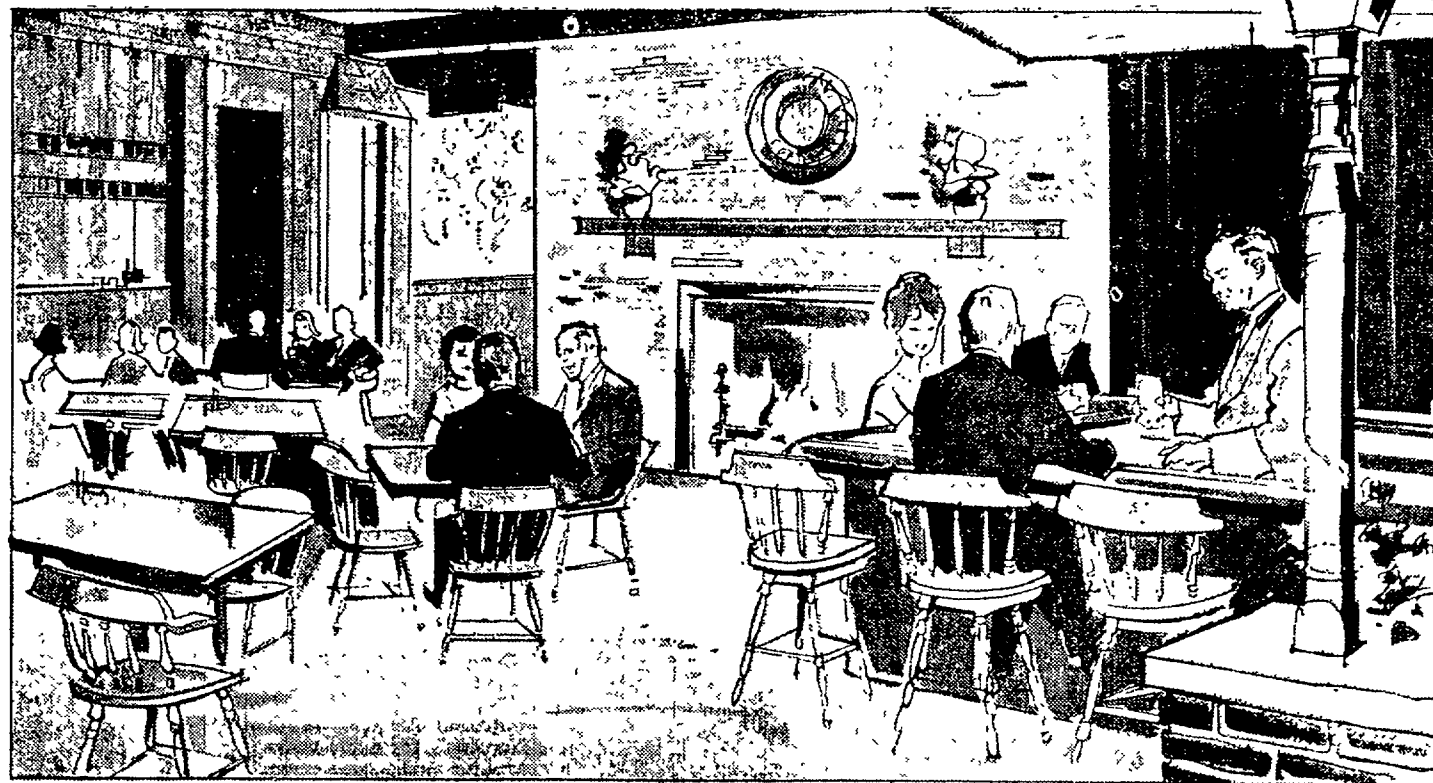

Complete information and application forms may be obtained from the Northville post office.

Dumps Trash, Lands in Jail

Novi police are trying to stamp out the image that parts of the village are dumping grounds.

They are making some headway. Violations have been given out sporadically in the last few months for illegal dumping. Four cases were tried in court last week.

A Detroit, James Bock is confined to the Oakland county jail for 20 days. Judge Robert K. Anderson handed out the sentence.

Bock came out from Detroit to unload some trash near Meadowbrook and 10 mile roads.

In another case Donald Thompson littered the Beck road area south of 10 Mile. Officers found Thompson's name on letters he had thrown out. Thompson was fined $20.

Two local residents appeared before Judge Anderson. Ralph Caliquiri spread out trash along Meadowbrook road and Grand River. Evelyn Wilson disposed of garbage and trash. Both were fined $20.

In patrolling the village, police pick up dead dogs, trash, tin cans, beer bottles and even a deer carcass. "A curse is the throw-away beer bottle," said Police Chief Lee BeGole. Illegal dumping is a misdemeanor and is punishable by 90 days in jail and a $100 fine.

Bank Elects Ex-Resident

Thomas R. Carrington, a former Northville resident, was elected president of the Berkshire County Savings Bank in Pittsfield, Massachusetts last week. He had served as treasurer and was elevated to the presidency at the annual stockholders meeting.

Carrington graduated from Northville high school in 1935, received his degree at Eastern Michigan in 1939 and master's degree at the University of Michigan in 1941. He also attended MIT and served in the air force during World War II. Carrington is married and has three children.

He is the son of the late T. R. Carrington and Mrs. Carrington, who now resides at 229 Hutton. His brother, Charles, is a partner in the Carrington & Johnson insurance and real estate agency in Northville.

CANDIDATES MEET — Northville Mayor A. M. Allen (left) who has a little campaigning of his own to do when he seeks re-election April 5, met Farrell Roberts (right) last week. Roberts is one of six GOP hopefuls in the February 15 primary for the 14th district state senate seat. Stan Schaefer introduced the two candidates.

P&A Looted; $100 Missing

Approximately $100 was taken from the P&A theatre last Wednesday evening.

Manager of the theatre, Philip Drewke, reported to the police that he believed the robbery took place after closing that night. Drewke discovered the money missing from a safe in his office at 5:55 p.m. Thursday when he was getting ready to open the show for the evening performance.

The receipts were kept in a metal box inside a safe in a second floor office. The suspect or suspects broke a plate glass window to gain entrance to the office, opened the safe and fled with the cash, police said.

Seek White Goods

The need for white sheets and shirts continues to grow for the making of cancer pads. Anyone who can contribute white material for this purpose can contact Mrs. Frank J. Sullivan at 349-2181. The meeting of the cancer pad group was held Wednesday, February 3, at the home of Mrs. Sullivan on Woodhill drive.

Council Names King

William King, an electrician, was appointed to the Novi electrical board Monday night, replacing Ray Howey who has moved out of the area. Harold Ackley, village administrative assistant; Herb Fisher, an electrical contractor, and a representative of Detroit Edison constitute the board.

Koester Calls It Quits

Herbert Koester, a perennial candidate for village and township offices in Novi, is bowing out of politics and community activities.

"You won't see me running for office again," Koester stated Tuesday afternoon. He revealed that last Tuesday night he resigned as treasurer of the Novi Youth Protective Committee — a post he held for four years.

Koester, who was instrumental in establishing the youth group, said: "I have done everything I could do but I failed to get any consideration from the village council or township board."

"Five years ago Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole and I set out to curb juvenile delinquency. We were faithful to it."

"Through the local schools and churches we helped people who needed help."

In a glum voice he mentioned that "I put my heart and soul into the youth program. When I lost out there, I lost interest in everything" — even politics.

Koester, a resident of Novi for 15 years and a retired Detroit policeman, was a Democratic candidate many times for public office.

During his career, Koester ran unsuccessfully for the village charter commission, and township clerk and twice for justice of the peace, township supervisor and village council.

A year ago when he was the first to file for the village council race, he recalled a 21-vote defeat for a council seat and said:

"Determination is bound to pay off one of these times."

Junior High P-TA To Hear Educator

"Student drop outs" will be the topic of a talk to be given by Dr. E. J. McClendon at the junior high P.T.A. meeting February 11 at 8 p.m. in the junior high boys' gym.

Dr. McClendon has a rich background in the fields of education and health. He is a consultant in secondary education, health education and curriculum study procedures on the staff of Wayne county intermediate school district. In January Dr. McClendon was awarded his doctorate by Wayne State University.

During his career he has been a teacher, assistant principal, project director for school health, and state department of health and education in Oklahoma and more recently was program director for the Health Society of Wayne County. He is now working with the Livonia Youth Commission.

Over 300 parents attended the November P.T.A. meeting and the teachers and P.T.A. Board hope that the February meeting will be as successful.

Obituary

CLARENCE SHANKLETON

Clarence Shankleton, a resident of Northville for the past few months, died January 31 at the University of Michigan hospital. He was 56. Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Leidsel funeral home in Maybee, Michigan. Interment was at the McIntyre cemetery in Maybee. Surviving are his wife, Ruth, and five children.

JAMES HENRY COREY

Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday for James Henry Corey, 83, at the Casterline funeral home. Reverend G. Glenn Vaun officiated. Burial was in Oakland Hills memorial gardens in Novi. Mr. Corey, born December 2, 1881, was a resident of Colorado Springs, Colorado and died there January 27. A retired builder he was a native of Dutton, Michigan. His wife, Ethel, preceded him in death. Survivors include a son, Glenn of Colorado Springs, and nieces and nephews from the Northville area.

RUSSELL ALGER

Russell Alger, a resident of Northville for many years, died Monday at his home, 256 Griswold street, after a long illness. He was 51. Visitation will be at the Casterline funeral home. A funeral mass will be held at 8 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Victory church officiated by Reverend John Wittstock. Interment will be at St. Mary's cemetery in Milford. Surviving are two brothers, Leslie of Northville and Chester of Detroit; and two sisters, Mrs. Helen E. Benhoeh of Tampa, Florida and Mrs. Esther Vincent of Classon, Michigan.

Wixom Study Group

The Wixom extension home study group held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Erwin Welfare January 19. Mrs. Mildred Wimmer of Pennsylvania was guest at the meeting. The program consisted of simple sewing lessons with Mrs. Dairy Wight as instructor. Mrs. L. Nelson gave a quiz on food. Two members of the group, Mr. Charles Curtiss and Mrs. George Berg, Sr., attended the leaders training program held in Pontiac January 20.

Sponsoring FBI School

A training program conducted by FBI agents will be held February 23 at the Northville police department. The topic will be due process in criminal interrogation.

This school, sponsored by Police Chief Eugene King, will acquaint officers with what must be done before and during an interrogation of persons accused of a crime.

According to special agent Bernard C. Brown of Detroit, recent U.S. supreme court decisions have applied the provisions of the 14th amendment to local officers to such an extent that they are now governed by the same rules of procedure as Federal officers.

Special agents taking part in this program are C. H. Kokolakis, Ross A. Brink and Richard H. Senter. This school is one of many the FBI conducts for local law enforcement officers throughout the country.

Officers from nearby communities as well as prosecuting attorneys and judges will be present.

Hunter Bagged

A Detroit hunter went hunting in Novi recently but ended up being captured by local police.

Everett Simmons was fined $75 last week for carrying an uncased shotgun in his car.

Police said a 12-gauge shotgun was displayed on the back seat of Simmons' car and shells were strewn on the floor.

BeGole Adds Up

Reason for Officer

Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole's mathematical calculations add up to another policeman for the village force.

In addressing the village council Monday night, Chief BeGole indicated that a seven not six-man force is needed. But his request for an extra man must wait until spring budget hearings.

According to BeGole, each officer on duty works 48 hours a week. Thus 48 x 6 equals 288 hours.

Twenty-four hour service is required seven days a week. So 24 x 7 equals 168 hours. And since two policemen should be available at all times, the total is doubled to 336 man-hours.

Now, subtracting 336 from 288, the chief said, a deficiency of 48 hours shows up. Or another policeman.

Another pet is this roughleg hawk. Thornton got it in December. It was involved in an auto collision in Novi. The bird was only bruised.

Hartley Thornton, naturalist at the Proud Lake recreation area, shows off his ferret, an European weasel which is illegal in Michigan.

Hartley was 'King'

His Pet Lion Scaredy-cat

How do you make a lion behave?

"You just bop him on the nose," responds Hartley Thornton of the Michigan conservation department who is an authority on animals.

Whop! — and the creature cowers like a boxer who fears the last blow that will drop him to the canvas.

Hartley, who is stationed at the Proud Lake recreation area just north of Wixom, is well-acquainted with the "king of the jungle."

He kept a pet lion in his animal menagerie when he was an instructor at Boy's Republic, a private school in Farmington. After teaching there 19 years, he joined the conservation department three years ago.

Nuby was the lion's name

— and he knew that he could be dethroned whenever he acted up. Hartley was the boss — period.

"A blow on the nose would stun him," Hartley explained. "If he got too playful and I would raise my hand Nuby would bring his paws up over his face."

"He got conditioned after a while. You should have seen the expression on his face. It seemed to say 'I am sorry I did it.'"

Any animal can be subdued by a forceable swat on the snout, Hartley claims. "A ferocious bull can be brought to his knees by turning a ring in his nose."

"The nose is a tender area and the shock is felt in the brain."

At one time "you could put your hand in Nuby's mouth but as he got older he realized his strength," Hartley revealed.

"A lion is a cub until its third year. Nuby was a pretty big baby. About 350 pounds of lion. When he was five years old he weighed 450 pounds."

Other animals in his collection included an alligator, crocodile and even a mouse. All were raised by Hartley — and they were tame!

When he left the school, Hartley "turned loose the animals that could be let go and gave the others to private exhibitors around the state."

"Nuby died about a year ago."

Now as naturalist for the Proud Lake area Hartley still keeps animals — but they are ones that could pop up in your backyard.

They are a ferret (European weasel), a possum and a roughleg hawk.

Hartley, who has done extensive research on wildlife, uses them for lectures and demonstrations. He is a PR man for his department.

He can be seen frequently on television and taking school youngsters on nature hikes at the recreation site. All the while he is promoting conservation.

Right now he is making a film to be shown on channel 56. It will convey to children in the city "that milk comes from a cow, not from a bottle you buy in the store."

In "interpreting the outdoors to the public," Hartley further conducts reptile studies, tree identifications or talks on soil or geology.

"Conservation is a hard word to define," Hartley admitted. "It involves water, plants, minerals, wildlife and soil. It is the total of all this."

"You cannot take one part away without destroying another."

As a spokesman for conservation, Hartley employs "gimmicks" to put across his point. One is a magic box that puts youngsters in a trance.

"I can keep about 60 kids engrossed for over two hours. I start with today and go back 10 million years."

"I may pull a fox skin, bobcat skin, animal skulls, an odd piece of driftwood that looks like a woodpecker or a prehistoric fossil out of the box."

"I talk to them in their language and try to tell that it is 'fun' to learn."

To spark their interest, Hartley further shows his audience "how to start a fire with steelwood and batteries. I can do it in a few seconds."

Meanwhile, if you are walking down the street and just happen to meet a lion you can ...

A threesome found in Michigan includes a loon, hawk and bobcat. Hartley said the loon is a streamlined water bird and a loner. "It is not too tolerant of civilization" and stays in remote areas.

A winter beehive is recorded. After Thornton pulled off the protective covering, a squirrel, who had fattened up on the honey, shot up the tree trunk. You can see the honeycomb inside. It was warm inside — bees don't completely hibernate during the winter—and zero outside.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor
on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a house of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy
nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake
of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor
on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a house of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy
nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake
of his community and nation. (4)

Willowbrook

Myers GR 4-8015

Mr. and Mrs. John Hood of Mooreside drive have a "new" little girl, Susan Joan born January 15 at Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit. Susan made her debut a little premature, weighing only four pounds ten ounces, at birth. She is still in an incubator at Mt. Carmel, but doing very well. Her brother John 9, and sisters Mary Jo 8, Grace 7 and Beth 2, are anxiously awaiting her arrival home. The grandparents are: Mr. and Mrs. John Hood of Detroit and Mrs. Josephine Hughes of Plymouth.

The kindergarten classes of Orchard Hills School and the Novi School, went on an imaginary "trip" to Hawaii last Thursday, with the assistance of Mrs. Robert Pohlman of McMahon Circle and her mother, Mrs. Frank Puchert of Farmington. Mrs. Pohlman and Mrs. Puchert wore authentic Hawaiian costumes, and slides were shown with Mrs. Puchert narrating for each class. Mrs. Puchert has spent many vacations in Hawaii and has collected many of their items such as grass skirts, leis, jewelry, leis, foods, Tiki Gods etc., which were on display at each school. Both teachers, Mrs. Batter of Orchard Hills school and Mrs. Hart of Novi school were presented with a gift from Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bentley and family of McMahon Circle attended the marriage of their daughter, January 2, at Altoona, Pennsylvania. Kathy Bentley was married to L. Corp. Joseph W. Schuster at the First Church of Christ of Altoona. Reception was at her grandmother's, Mrs. F. B. Moore. The Schusters will be living in California.

Jeffrey Albright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Albright of Willowbrook drive celebrated his tenth birthday at a family party last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parent and children Mary Kay and John of W. LeBost, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woody Gordon of Grosse Pointe Woods Sunday. They spent the afternoon ice skating at a park near the Gordons' home. The Raymond Freres of LeBost drive had as guests Sunday, Mr. Freres' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Frere of Detroit. The family celebrated the senior Mrs. Freres' 65th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Alles of Ripple Creek road have just returned from a two week holiday in Florida. They toured Florida, spending four days in the Keys and going as far as the Plantation Keys. They spent a few days with Mr. Alles' sister, Mrs. Ford Carter of Boynton Beach. Their daughter, Mrs. Jean Merolis of Detroit, made it a real vacation for the Alles by staying with her sister Amy and brother Russell, while their parents were away.

Mr. Richard Reid of McMahon Circle is spending the week in Grand Rapids. He is sales representative of the Miller Falls Tool Co. and will be showing his "wares" at the Lumber Mills Convention being held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter of W. 10 Mile road were guests at a party Saturday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Irv Lewis of Detroit.

Mr. Ray Mason of W. LeBost returned home Tuesday of this week after a 10 day stay at Botsford General hospital. Timmy Koskella, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Koskella of McMahon Circle, has returned home from Mt. Sinai Hospital after a weeks stay there.

Tuesday Penochle was played at Mary Jane Goyts' home on McMahon Circle. Carol Pohlman, Ruth Promo and her sister, Agnes James of Walled Lake were guest players. Carol Pohlman took first prize, Allean Carter second, Mary Jo Fritz third and Mary Jane Goyt consolation.

Wednesday Bridge was played at Virginia Bosak's home on Nine Mile road. Pat Crupi was guest player. Marguerite Parent took first prize, Ruth George second and Virginia Barnes consolation.

How to add a room...

without cooling off
the rest of the house

consider electric heat

Give your new room its own heating system—a modern flameless electric heating system. Electric heat is clean, comfortable, perfectly controllable. Simply dial the warmth you want and you get it exactly—without stealing heat from the rest of the house. How much will electric heat cost to install and operate? That depends on your particular home. One thing sure, it won't cost you a cent to find out. An Edison Heating Specialist will gladly come out to discuss equipment and cost of operation with you. No obligation for this estimate, of course. Just give us a call.

Manufacturers Bank is looking for people who want to earn 4% on savings...

People like Earl Johnson. Married and father of a seven-year old daughter and nine-year old son. He wants them both to have a college education.

But with college costs rising every year, every dollar he saves must work harder.

At Manufacturers Bank, all savings earn 4% interest. The maximum allowable—which we pay and compound four times a year—March 1, June 1, September 1, December 1. Interest is computed on every dollar on deposit. And all deposits made by the tenth of the month earn interest from the first.

Manufacturers Bank is looking for people like Earl Johnson to pay 4% to. We're interested in helping their savings grow.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The Michigan Press Association held its 97th annual meeting in Lansing last week end.

Some 293 weekly and 54 daily newspapers belong to MPA and most of them were represented at the two-day convention at Kellogg Center.

The Saturday night All-Michigan dinner is always the highlight of the occasion. That's when Joe Wells of the state department of agriculture shows off the versatility of the Michigan farmer by compiling a menu of state-produced foods.

For example, the dinner started out with Michigan navy bean soup, crackers, marinated Michigan carrots, cottage cheese with chives and radishes. Moving into the main course the 700 newsmen and their wives had old-fashioned Michigan chicken with gravy, whipped potatoes and a variety of buttered Michigan vegetables. The salad was Michigan cherry perfection salad in Michigan lettuce leaf and the hot biscuits were simply supplied with Michigan butter.

Spy apple pie with a chunk of Michigan cheddar cheese and a glass of Michigan milk topped off the dinner.

"No other state can furnish a table so completely from its own fields and orchards," boasted Wells.

The Michigan agricultural product story does not end with the meal. Traditionally, a bushel basket of samples of other state products are left at each dining place for the press to carry home.

This year the "loot" included apples, apple sauce, baby food, bacon, navy beans, kidney beans, celery soup, cereal, cherry pie mix, chili mix, chip and dip, crackers, fruit juice, luncheon meat, mushrooms, onions, pancake flour, pickles and sugar. In addition the take-home basket included packets of throat lozenges, lunch box wrap, flower seeds and a living blue spruce seedling.

It was news to me that Michigan produces more than 99 per cent of all the world's navy beans. But I was aware that Michigan navy bean soup is the only food in the world required by law to be served in a nation's capitol.

The late Speaker Joe Gahm of the U.S. House of Representatives so enjoyed the soup usually served in the House restaurant that one day, when it was not on the menu, he introduced a bill which requires the soup to be served every day the House is in session.

I can understand his enthusiasm for the soup. Normally I regard food as little more than fuel, but Congressional Michigan Navy Bean Soup is the exception. It occurs that the recipe may have been published in this column some years ago, but, if so, it must have been lost at our home. Here it is again, (serves 6):

1 1/2 pounds Michigan navy beans
1/2 pounds smoked ham hock
Salt and pepper to taste
1 onion (optional)

Cover the beans with cold water. Soak overnight. Drain and cover with water. Add smoked ham hock and simmer slowly for about 4 hours, until beans are tender. Add salt and pepper. Just before serving, bruise the beans with a large spoon or ladle just enough to color.

The version of this recipe served in the Senate restaurant includes the onion. It is chopped and braised in a little butter until light brown and then added to the soup a short time before serving.

Main speaker at the final evening dinner meeting was Dickey Chapelle, an attractive foreign correspondent who looks like women correspondents should but rarely do. She had a few definite opinions about the action in Viet Nam, not designed to win friends back in prosperity-stricken U.S.A.

Miss Chapelle is a career reporter who has been on front-line action since 1942 when she was the youngest American war correspondent going home with the troops at Iwo Jima and Okinawa. She just returned from special assignment in Viet Nam. Christmas day she accompanied a troop of Vietnamese soldiers and their American "advisers" on a border action where fire was exchanged and men were killed.

She has experienced more than 20 such actions, which to her add up to a "war" in Viet Nam. "And we're losing," she told her audience.

Miss Chapelle criticized American policy and expressed the fear that after Viet Nam the communist wave will move to the Philippines.

"If we want to win the war in Viet Nam we can," Miss Chapelle stated. "But to do so we must provide better leadership, more trained men."

She said that the Vietnamese are willing, able fighters but they need capable leadership. And the men we send there need encouragement because they are torn two ways — by the desperate situation in Viet Nam and the complacency at home.

And she concluded her talk to the newsmen by adding this terse remark to the reasons for our failure in Viet Nam:

"What's needed in Viet Nam is your sons."

Michigan Mirror

It's GOP Turn to Claim 'Foul'

LANSING — Dialogue remained the same, but the participants traded scripts in the early days of the 1965 legislative session.

When committee assignments were announced, this session it was the Republican members who claimed they were the victims of unequal representation.

In past sessions, year after year, the Democrats complained they never got representation on committees proportionate to their strength in the legislature. These were the years Republicans held majority control.

Tables turned this year and house minority leader Robert Waldron was given the role of chief complainer about committee assignments.

Waldron apparently didn't feel he should issue a blanket complaint. He concentrated instead on the important committees, the same ones on which Democrats had attempted to gain members in recent sessions when the partisan house division was nearly equal.

Democrats this year increased the ways and means committee, most powerful in the house, to 16 members. This is three above previous sessions, but the minority party still was given only four seats.

This important committee dispute was the only major complaint Waldron voiced, although in past sessions Democrats said they were also short-changed in two other areas.

Democrats long and loudly lamented that ruling Republicans refused to accept their recommendations for committee assignment of their own party membership.

Waldron said he was pleased his recommendations for GOP member placements were accepted this year.

The other traditional complaint, proportionate division of committees, found Waldron straddling the fence. He said Democrats "came close to the Republican-Democratic ratio of the total house membership" but "fell short of fair" on the more important working units.

Mental health must be allowed to remain an independent unit of state government, according to an advisory council serving in this area.

Being the largest government agency already, the council said, "Any further combining of the department with other departments would interfere with its ability to deliver quality service, rather than strengthen it."

Goals of the department's new director, Robert A. Kimnich, are set high for the next few years. He says it could be possible to eliminate the waiting list of committed patients within two years and sharply decrease the waiting list of retarded persons.

These possibilities, of course, would be contingent upon full financial support from the legislature for the department's budget requests and retention of a separate mental health unit.

If the sheer facts of size do not convince legislators this department should remain untouched, the advisory council has served notice it will further back up its argument.

All of the more populous states, with the exception of Pennsylvania and Ohio, administer their mental health programs through separate departments of mental health or mental hygiene, council officials said, as part of their supporting argument.

Professional educators, looking to Lansing for a major boost in funds this year, point first to a continuing percentage drop in state aid during the past 15 years.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett says that since 1950-51, the state's share in aid for all purposes dropped from 52 to 41 per cent.

In operational costs alone, the head of the Michigan Association of School Administrators, notes that state aid was 58 per cent until five years ago and is now down to about 48 per cent.

Rising costs and the population explosion are heavily burdening local school districts. On this point educators fully agree.

The rash of school millage proposal defeats recently and currently curtailed educational programs "makes it both obvious and imperative" that local school costs are excessive and must be relieved at the state level, according to Bartlett.

An estimated two million students are not attending public schools in Michigan and enrollments are increasing by about 55,000 annually, so educators see no effective relief except from state government.

With the cultural level of the people rising and, with a constantly greater number of families building on college backgrounds, the tendency of buyers is toward goods of more polish, more elegance. Sales are steadily on the increase for books, recordings, objects of art, antiques, luxurious rugs, imported foods, more expensive autos, exotic china, furs, etc. With spending money as free as it is — and promising to become even freer for some time to come — the trend toward more fastidious purchasing will continue. Those stores providing goods of excellent quality, coupled with service and courteous attention, will do well in 1965 and beyond, regardless of size or special field of sale.

The Customer's King!

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Customers change their attitudes more quickly today than ever before in our history. Therefore retailers must have a sixth sense in foreseeing new fads and buying habits before their rivals do. Otherwise they will be left trailing behind in terms of turnover and net profits. How customers are going to react tomorrow is even more important than how big today's "take" is.

In the old days — and not so very long ago — the largest retail outlets were established and grew prosperous in the city centers. People were content to take subways, trains, trolleys or buses to shop downtown. They could count on more or less regulation prices, depending upon the basic quality of the goods they might want. Clerks were expected to give personal attention; and any subsequent services needed for exchange or repairs or replacement were taken pretty much for granted.

The evolution of self-service began about the same time that city decentralization into the suburbs was starting. Since that time, changes in buying and selling patterns have been little short of spectacular, aided by the almost universal use of automobiles and the "explosion of suburbia" outside all the big cities.

Here it was that a lot of retailers were left out in the cold because they didn't foresee the surge toward self-service, shopping centers, and supermarkets in outlying areas.

The idea of discount selling had been used by a few go-getters for a long while, but it was not until the blossoming of huge retail centers that their full possibilities were realized. Discount outlets quickly webbed out in the feverish attempt to gain as much of the new suburban and outlying trade as possible. Costs were kept at a minimum by almost complete reliance on self-service.

and by virtual elimination of the delivery and other "convenience" services maintained by standard department and variety stores. Discount prices were the "come-on" that attracted eager consumers.

But, as is the case in most "mushrooming" crazes, the discounters tended to overextend, sometimes beyond the boundaries of financial safety. And comparison buyers began to note increasing instances of lower-quality goods at prices not very far below those for higher-grade articles at regular variety stores. The result of such developments inevitably is a gradual consolidation, with the strongest and most intelligently operated firms driving out the get-rich-quick elements. Though the discount houses are obviously here to stay, there will be important changes in their operations.

Family incomes are on an up-tit at the highest level in the nation's history. There is a vast reservoir of discretionary spending money that can be used without much need for penny-pinching. As a result, there is a new attitude developing among the buying public. More and more consumers want top-quality merchandise of all types. They also are coming to expect more personalized attention from store employees, more consideration in terms of "follow-up" requirements such as installation, helpful instructions and suggestions, deliveries, and courteous servicing.

With the cultural level of the people rising and, with a constantly greater number of families building on college

for relaxation and pleasure

Once again many Long Distance rates are reduced

Low Evening Rates now apply to daytime calls on Saturday. Low Night Rates now in effect anytime on Sunday and one hour earlier on other nights.

Here's what it now costs you to make a 3-minute station call from Michigan:

	To Anywhere in Continental U.S. (except Alaska)	To Anywhere in Michigan
Mon.-Fri. 4:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. (Day Rates)	$2.10 or less	$1.00 or less
Saturday 4:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mon.-Fri. 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. (Evening Rates)	$1.40 or less	$.70 or less
Sunday anytime Mon.-Sat. 8 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. (Night Rates)	$1.00 or less	$.50 or less

The above rates apply only to station calls. They do not include the 10% Federal excise tax which applies to all calls, or the 4% State sales tax which applies only to calls within Michigan. Rates for "collect" station calls between points in Michigan are somewhat higher.
