Voters Elect State Senator, 2 Councilmembers Monday

Northville city voters will go to the polls Monday to elect two councilmembers from a field of five candidates and an unopposed mayor and municipal judge.

Both city and township voters will decide upon the 14th district's state senator in a battle between Democrat Edward McNamara and Republican Farrell Roberts. Former Governor John Swinson will be unopposed for circuit judge in Wayne county.

In the city council race the candidates are incumbent Beatrice Carlson, Del Black, C. Oscar Hammond, W. Wallace Nichols and Charles Toussaint.

They will be seeking two four-year terms now open on the council. While Mrs. Carlson is seeking re-election, fellow Councilman Richard Ambler did not choose to run again. Winners of the council race will join John Canterbury and Fred Kester on the council.

Mayor A. M. Allen is unopposed for his fourth two-year term. Judge Charles McDonald has no opposition for the city's municipal court office.

The result of Monday's contest between McNamara and Roberts will give Northville representation in the state senate. The two candidates are seeking the seat won last November by Republican Paul Chandler, who died in December before serving.

McNamara is now a member of the Livonia city council and the Wayne county board of supervisors. Other offices he has held include a trusteeship on the Dearborn township board of education and vice-presidency of the Wayne chamber of commerce. Last year McNamara served as campaign manager for Bill lie Farnum who was elected to Congress from the 19th district.

McNamara, 38, holds a degree in political science from the University of Detroit and is a veteran of World War II. Roberts, 43, is a former state representative and senator, elected for two terms in either body.

Prior to reapportionment, Roberts as a Senator represented all of Oakland county. The 14th district only includes western Oakland county and Livonia, Plymouth and Northville in Wayne county.

Instead of seeking re-election to the senate last year, Roberts chose to run for the court of appeals. He was successful in the primary but not in the November election.

Roberts was instrumental in establishing the court of appeals, serving as chairman of the senate judiciary committee in 1963-64.

Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

City precinct one residents vote in the council chambers of city hall, while precinct two residents vote in the library of the same building. Precinct three is located at the American elementary school.

In the township precinct one votes at the Northville community building, while precinct two votes at the township hall.

It's Friendly Affair

City Candidates Speak Out At Chamber Public Meeting

About 100 voters turned out last Thursday evening to hear state senate and city council candidates speak at the Chamber of Commerce sponsored program in the community building.

It was a "kid-glove" affair generally leaving the voter to decide which candidate was the purest of the pure.

Only one council candidate, Charles Toussaint, had anything to say that might have been considered controversial; he said city services left something to be desired and he didn't like the sidewalk snow-removal program.

Following are brief biographies of the council candidates and excerpts from their Thursday evening remarks.

DEL BLACK
Owner Del's Shoes, 33, lifelong resident, married and three children, lives at 896 Carpenter, member board of appeals.

Black pointed to his success in business, his acquaintance with both new and old residents and his interest in the community as demonstrated by his many activities. He called for "balanced planning" for the future but cautioned against doing away "with the good qualities our city already has."

MRS. BEATRICE CARLSON
Incumbent councilwoman, resident since 1934, lives at 201 Fairbrook, widow with five children, formerly operated Carlson Health Studio with husband, active in numerous community organizations.

Councilwoman Carlson pointed to her experience on the city council, her faithful attendance at planning commission as well as council meetings and said she favored "wise planning for the future," but cautioned against "moving too quickly." In answer to a question from the audience concerning better city-township cooperation in planning, Mrs. Carlson said that jointness of effort did exist and was improving.

W. WALLACE NICHOLS
Business graduate of Cleary college, credit manager, lives at 219 South Ely drive, 58 years old, married and two children, vice-chairman city planning commission.

Nichols pointed out that Northville must be guided within the forces of population growth. "Any decisions about future planning should be made on the basis of thorough examination," he emphasized. He answered questions concerning the city's master plan and explained that a feasibility and cost study was now underway. He took a $2 million guess at the cost of the central business district plan. Nichols also stressed the importance of retaining the "charm the community has been endowed with."

C. OSCAR HAMMOND
Lives at 511 North Center, resident for 23 years, married, three children, retired builder, former state commander American Legion, headed local civil defense committee.

Hammond emphasized his ability to get along with people and pointed to the fact that the Michigan American Legion won the national public relations trophy during his year of command. He said this experience could help him get things done. "Our community can't stand still and I want to see Northville progress," he said. He could devote full time to the job and would represent the whole community.

CHARLES TOUSSAINT
34 years old, single, lives at 528 Horton, lifelong resident, graduate Northville high school and Detroit Business University, an accountant and serves as trustee for Federal Bankruptcy Courts.

Toussaint said he had no political leanings and advocated "getting in touch with people to see what they want not what the council thinks they want." He said that he thought residents could get better service for their tax dollar and criticized the council for providing sidewalk snow removal "which many people don't want." He also said the city should do more for its large taxpayers and pointed to Northville Downs as an example. He suggested building wider, better streets for Downs traffic "which the rest of the community would enjoy, too." He called for improvement of the business district but retention of the small town atmosphere and criticized the proposed mall plan as too expensive.

Downs Attracts Record In 'Dead Heat' Opener

"The weather outside was frightful ... and the heat was not delightful" ... or however the song goes ... might have been the theme for Northville Downs and its infrared heating system introduced last weekend.

Nevertheless, 6,753 chilled fans set a record for opening night at the harness track and managed to warm up enough to pass $306,239 through the pari-mutuel windows, another opening night record.

Saturday night fell off sharply as unseasonably cold weather continued. Some 5,133 fans showed up Saturday and wag-ered $230,211. And Downs' officials would just as soon forget Monday night. A bonfire would have provided adequate heat.

Engineers installing the new grandstand heat lamps had an explanation. This time of the year temperatures usually hover around 40 to 50 degrees. And, they explain, the system was designed to boost such temperatures up to 60 to 70 degree mark.

But the low twenties? Just too much for the lamps! To make matters worse, the wind came whipping in from the south — the open front of the grandstands. Anyway, Executive Manager John Carlo still has faith in his $100,000 heating plant and the inevitable upward climb of the mercury.

Northville's 18-night spring meet is the earliest in the history of Michigan racing. Last, and only, time the Downs had a spring meet (April 18, 1957) the opening night crowd was 6,300 which bet $270,000. But the 1957 Saturday night compared to last Saturday was far better. It attracted 8,654 fans and $339,651 at the mutual wind-dows.

Plymouth Township's Supervisor Lindsay Dies

Roy Russell Lindsay, long standing supervisor of Plymouth township, died Saturday at his home, 1100 McClumpha road, of heart failure. He was 73.

Mr. Lindsay had held his township post since 1953 was re-elected last fall by a 3-to-1 margin.

Services were held Tuesday at the Schrader funeral home in Plymouth with Ted R. Hermans, first reader of the christian science church, officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery in Northville.

He is survived by his widow, Evelyn, and a brother, Harlan Lindsay Walters.

Mr. Lindsay, who was born in Ontario, was raised in Northville and had lived in Plymouth township since 1938. He had operated his own real estate business since 1946.

He was a veteran of World War I, one of the original organizers of the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors, a member of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and the Out-County Supervisors Association.

SENATE-SEEKERS — Democrat Edward McNamara (left) and Farrell Roberts (right) spoke at the "meet the candidates" program last Thursday night sponsored by the Northville Chamber of Commerce. Both state senate hopefuls stressed the need for fiscal reform but differed on the structure for a state income tax. McNamara favored a graduated tax schedule while Roberts proposed a flat rate. The moderator was Northville Municipal Judge Charles McDonald.

Developer Proposes 7-Mile Road Sewer

Installation of a new Seven Mile road sewer in Northville township became a strong possibility this week as board members agreed in special session Monday night to draft a proposed contract.

The sewer would be the forerunner to construction of a 100-bed nursing home or a 100-bed hospital, or both.

In all likelihood, it would also trigger further development along its route.

Specifically, the line would extend from Marilyn road along Seven Mile to Northville road and then south 1200 feet to the present interceptor line.

The Seven Mile road sewer line has been discussed at the township board for many months. Installation of the facility was considered by the owner of property at Marilyn and Seven Mile, Dr. W. E. Gizynski, who proposes to erect a nursing home or hospital on the site.

Sewer facilities are necessary for such a structure and initially Dr. Gizynski considered financing the project with Sheldon Hayes, owner of gravel pit areas slated for home development in the future on Seven Mile.

Now Dr. Gizynski proposes to pay for construction of the line alone under a "pay back" agreement with the township. Details of the agreement were outlined Monday night by William McDermott, chairman of the township water and sewer commission.

It provides that Dr. Gizynski would finance the installation of the sewer, estimated at $75,000. During the next 20 years Dr. Gizynski would receive $200 for every tap made into the line along Seven Mile road with the pay-back not to exceed the cost of the sewer. Presently, the township charges a $400 tap fee.

If there were not a sufficient number of taps during the 20-year period to repay the cost of the sewer, this loss would be borne by Dr. Gizynski.

The sewer, as designed by township engineers, Mosher Associates, extends along the South side of Seven Mile road. Installation would be under direction of the township and Dr. Gizynski would be required to deposit $10,000 to cover preliminary costs including bids, legal fees, etc.

Township Attorney Edward Draugelis called the proposal "a good deal" for the township.

"This is capitalism in action. Private enterprise puts up the money you couldn't accomplish a better purpose for construction," said Draugelis. Trustee Wilson Tyler expressed some reservations. He noted that the contract might be considered a debt of the township and also wondered what would happen if the township used all its sewer capacity before the conclusion of the contract thus depleting the tap source of revenue.

Attorney Draugelis assured the board that the contract would be written so that it would not become an obligation or debt of the township and that there would be no "reservation" of taps for the developer, thus no guarantee that he could recoup the entire sewer installation cost.

The sewer would be large enough to serve the entire area, Engineer Mosher stated. Board members voted unanimously to approve drafting of the contract by the township attorney, subject to final board approval.

In addition to the nursing home and/or hospital, Dr. Gizynski has plans to construct homes on the northern portion of the 55-acre parcel.

Township Pay Hikes Up For Okay Saturday

A representative audience of Northville township voters is expected at Saturday's annual meeting at the community building at 1 p.m.

The main attraction will probably be the adoption of the proposed 1965-66 budget, which includes a salary increase for township officials.

On the surface the new township budget looks considerably higher than last year's, but there's a ready explanation. Oddly enough, the city's to blame for the ballooning. Two services for which the township pays the city were not billed throughout most of 1964, Supervisor R. D. Merriam reports.

"We haven't paid the city for use of the dump since March, 1964 and we have no new contract for our portion of the rent in the new library since it was opened" (last April), said Merriam.

Thus the money, that had been budgeted in 1964, has been added to the 1965-66 budget as an expense. For example, $2,500 was budgeted for use of the city dump in 1964, but only $625 was paid. $6,000 was budgeted for the library and only the Wayne county assessment of $2,161 was paid. In the 1965-66 budget $4,375 is budgeted for the city dump and $8,000 for the library including the Wayne county fee.

The result is that the estimated 1965-66 budget stands at $74,750 compared to $67,000 in 1964-65, but only $57,806 of the 1964-65 budget was actually spent.

Proposed salary increases were approved by the township board by a 3-2 vote with Trustees Wilson Tyler and James Tellam dissenting.

The proposed hikes call for a boost for the supervisor from $4,000 to $5,000 and clerk and treasurer from $3,200 to $4,800 and the trustees from $20 to $22.50 per meeting.

Saturday's meeting will be conducted by Supervisor Merriam. The new budget will be one of the matters of business that the voters will decide, along with monthly board meeting time and designation of a depository for township needs.

Suspect Northville Boys In Gang Beating of Youth

A 19-year-old South Lyon boy lies in the hospital this week recovering from a brutal beating given him gangland fashion by several other youths early Sunday morning.

Albert Ray Burton, 300 Donovan street, was reported by his mother to be progressing well following an operation in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital to repair a fractured jaw. She said he also suffered a serious gash to the top of his head.

State Police Detective Ronald Schoonmaker of the Brighton post noted that body bruises and possible internal injuries had been inflicted also by Burton's assailants.

Burton was allegedly assaulted by six youths after midnight Sunday morning on Eight Mile road near the Pere Marquette railway viaduct.

Investigation has disclosed circumstantial evidence pointing to a Northville 17-year-old and at least two of his Northville teenaged friends. Formal charges have not been pressed, pending the recovery of Burton.

State Police said that the story obtained from Burton and four companions indicated that Burton had been out driving in the Northville area with his companions and that a group of youths in a car identified as that of the Northville suspect had chased Burton's towards South Lyon.

Just prior to the beating the Northville group had forced Burton's car to a halt, the stories indicated. Then, with beer bottles, a belt or strap and heavy metal hand weapons such as blackjacks or pipe, the Northville group assaulted Burton, who alone got out of his car.

Scared, his companions drove away, and notified South Lyon police patrolman Dan Fowler, who alerted State Police.

Burton told State Police he remembered being beaten with the instruments but that the must have blacked out, because he did not remember crawling to a nearby house and telephoning his parents for help.

He said he did not know the youths who beat him, but that he would be able to recognize them and would sign a complaint, said police.

The story told by the South Lyon group differed on two tellings as to circumstances preceding the chase but contained the information that the Northville group had thrown something at Burton's car during the earlier part of the evening.

At first, they told police, it had happened as all five were leaving Northville in Burton's car. Later, the story indicated that Burton and a brother had been alone in his car when the object was thrown and three others left another car to join in Burton's, going into Northville just prior to re-meeting the Northville group.

With Burton were his brother Arnold Burton, 15, of the same address; Douglas Burton, 15, 26499 Martindale road; and Stacy Lawson, 18, and Stanley Lawson, 16, both of 332 Donovan street, South Lyon.

None except Burton were reported accosted in the beating although the Northville group allegedly broke two right side windows in Burton's car at the time of the beating.

Aggravated assault and malicious destruction of an automobile may be charged, according to state police.

Northville police identified the vehicle said to be used by the Northville group as one belonging to a 17-year-old Northville boy whom they described as being a 'bully' along with his friends. They said a report had been received earlier that the same carload of youths were intoxicated.

The description given by Burton and his companions of the assailants matched that of the trio implicated by identification of the Northville car.

Think Thin - Tops Do

"Think thin in 65" is the theme that highlighted the TOPS (take off pounds sensibly) convention at Cobo Hall last weekend.

The Northville group, known as the Eater Beaters, sent its queen, Mrs. Trexie Gardner to represent them at the convention.

Mrs. Gardner earned her crown by losing 100 pounds last year.

Mrs. Victor Lonn, weight recorder for the group, reported that the collective pounds shed by the Northville group totaled 159 pounds.

The weight loss of all members of TOPS clubs throughout Michigan adds up to the hefty sum of 64,224 pounds or 32 tons.

Mrs. Gardner was accompanied by her daughter, Vonne Dumka and daughter-in-law Betty Ramsey.

Other members of the club from Northville who attended the convention were Mrs. Viola Baldwin Mrs. Shirley Golze, Mrs. Bernice Baggett, Mrs. Fran Bissa, Mrs. Theresa Duguid, Mrs. Fran Sklies, Mrs. Esther Ashby, Mrs. Frank Deima, and Mrs. Dorothy Ippolito.

Cronin-Hopper Vows Said

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Hopper

Carol Ann Cronin and Talbot Hopper exchanged their wedding vows, February 27, at a nuptial mass at St. Theresa's church in North Reading, Massachusetts with the Reverend George F. Murray performing the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Cronin of New Reading and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hopper of West Seven Mile road.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk gown fashioned with a lace over silk bodice, and scooped neckline. The bell-shaped skirt was trimmed with lace appliques and fell softly into a chapel train.

Her three-tiered shoulder length veil was attached to a crown of organza petals and sprigs of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a single white orchid.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of yellow and white roses. Mr. Joseph Pothier was the organist.

Mrs. James Groom, was matron of honor. Her gown was dark blue velvet, street length, with long sleeves. Her headpiece was a net circle attached to a matching velvet bow and she carried a cascade bouquet of French roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary M. Slep, Virginia Eaton and Pamela Salter. They wore gowns of burgundy velvet and carried cascading bouquets of white carnations.

Daryl Hopper was best man for his brother and Dwight Hopper, Gary M. Slep and David J. Cronin seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cronin chose a pink lace street length sheath dress with long sleeves and brown accessories.

Mrs. Hopper, mother of the groom, was dressed in a powder blue lace, street length sheath with blue accessories.

A reception followed for 65 guests.

For her going away ensemble, the bride wore a gray tweed sheath with black accessories. After the reception the couple left for Marietta, Georgia, where they are making their home.

Mrs. Hopper graduated from North Reading High school and Massachusetts General hospital school of nursing. She was employed in the surgical department of the hospital.

The groom is a graduate of Northville high school and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is employed by Lockheed Aircraft Company as administrative assistant in engineering procedures.

A July wedding is planned in the First Presbyterian church in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

"IF THE FIRST SIX YEARS are the most important of a child's life, you can see how valuable a good pre-school experience is," declares Mrs. W. Roy Hawkins of Birmingham, Michigan, who has served as first president of the Detroit Cooperative Nursery Council and also as first president of the American Pre-School Council now known as the Parent Cooperatives Pre-Schools International.

Mrs. Hawkins is to be guest speaker at the April meeting of the Northville Cooperative Pre-School Play Group at 8 p.m. Monday in the Scout-Recreation building. Members are invited to bring guests. Mrs. Harold Wright, president, also invites any area resident interested in attending to call Mrs. Ralph Luckett, membership chairman, FI-9-1046.

In explaining her continuing dedication to the pre-school movement, Mrs. Hawkins asks, "If you can do something to teach a child to be a good member of society, isn't it much better than providing delinquent institutions later on?"

Mrs. Hawkins, who is just back from a convention of the Cooperatives International in Indianapolis, feels so strongly about their worth that she has continued to work for the movement even though her youngest child now is 16. (We suspect that the separate listing in the Birmingham telephone director for Larry, Peggy and Mary is needed because MOTHER is so in demand.)

From her experiences, which began in the Allen Park cooperative nursery school, Mrs. Hawkins is quick to point out that "nursery education is good for most children, but it is not for every child. It is the only thing in the world that serves as a grass roots educational organization for parents."

Mrs. Howard F. Meyer, Jr., Northville cooperative program chairman and friend of the speaker, reports that a key belief held by Mrs. Hawkins is the statement that what co-oping parents learn through these programs carries through the whole of their lives. She calls co-ops an "in-service training program for parents, to know their own children better and also to broaden their perspective with regard to the whole community."

Northville Cooperative Pre-School Play Group is one of those definitely "community oriented". (This is the small child's sphere rather than the whole world.) Leaders Mrs. Francis Gaylor and Mrs. Glenn Deibert take their young charges on walks to the fire department, the florist and even the race track on spring days.

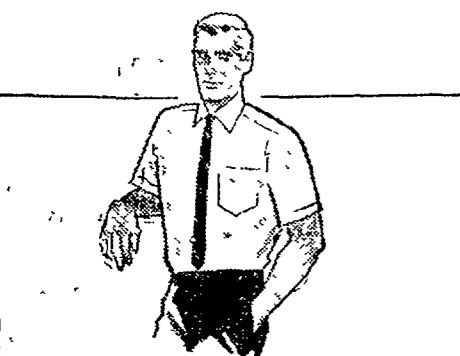

The group of three- and four-year olds meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings in the Scout-Recreation building. It is limited to 32 children.

A MEXICO-MICHIGAN friendship that began through a youth exchange program culminated this week in the visit of Dr. and Mrs. Garcia Cuervo of Mexico City with the Kalin Johnson family of Novi road.

Three of the Cuervo family children have been houseguests of the Johnson family, beginning with Gerardo, who came as a Michigan Council of Churches exchange student. He was followed by his sister Raquel and then, last December and January, by his sister Leticia.

Gerardo accompanied Leticia to Northville and was the guest of the William Wiley family on Eight Mile road. Tuesday the Wileys took Dr. and Mrs. Cuervo on a tour of the Ford Rouge plant. Before coming here Dr. and Mrs. Cuervo visited in Topeka, Kansas where Raquel was a first-of-her-kind guest. They are flying home to Mexico today.

MOTHERS' CLUB will have a business meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Robert Yoder, 20189 Whipple drive. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Essie Nirider, Mrs. B. William Secord and Mrs. Donald Schwendemann.

Rattenburgs Mark 70th Anniversary

A matrimonial milestone was recorded at the Rattenburg residence at 326 Cady street Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rattenburg celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary. And the occasion marked the 90th birthday of Mrs. Rattenburg.

Mr. Rattenburg, 91, was superintendent of grounds at Maybury sanatorium for over 30 years and he and his wife have lived in Northville for 40 years.

The Rattenburgs were married at the family home in Livonia in 1895. They are members of the Methodist church and Mr. Rattenburg is a Mason.

On hand for the celebration were the Rattenburg's three children, Mrs. Hugh Richardson of Northville, Mrs. Robert Power of Detroit and George of Indianapolis; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Following a honeymoon in the Florida Keys, newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. John Young are making their home in Southfield.

The former Jacqueline Howard and John Young Jr. were married at a candlelight ceremony at the Grace Lutheran Church in Redford February 27 with the Reverend Victor Halboth Sr. officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard of Novi and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Young Sr., of Longwood, Florida.

A traditional gown of white silk organza and hand-clipped chantilly lace was chosen by the bride for her wedding. Her gown was embroidered with seed pearls and lace applique, designed with a sobrina decollete. Her chapel length train was also trimmed with chantilly lace.

Her tiered veil was secured by a scalloped Diadem crown with embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of cascading white roses and stephanotis.

Dianne Howard, of Novi, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of cascading pink roses and stephanotis. The bridesmaids were Carol Kappeler of Farmington, Kathleen Farley of Northville and Karen Kinsey of Arlington Heights, Illinois.

The attendants, including the maid of honor, wore matching moss green gowns with cut velvet bodices and floor-length A-line skirts of peau de soie. Their headpieces were moss green satin with silk illusion veils. They carried bouquets of cascading pink roses.

Loren D. Gerber of Farmington served, as best man, and ushering the guests were Dale Chamberlain of Farmington, Timothy Thomas of Novi and Michael Carlton of Redford.

The bride's mother Mrs. Howard, chose a pink lace sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Young, wore a blue satin brocade dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Forest Hills United Missionary church fellowship hall, Farmington.

For her trip to Florida, the new Mrs. Young chose a two-piece aqua silk dress with beige accessories and pinned a corsage of white stephanotis to her dress.

Final Lenten Supper

The "Seven Last Words of Christ" by Theodore Dubois will be presented at the final Lenten supper program at Northville Presbyterian church at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 6, by the combined choirs of Northville Presbyterian church and Calvin Presbyterian church, together with the Calvin Presbyterian young people's orchestra.

The program will follow the dinner at 6 p.m. Mr. William G. Williams will conduct both choirs, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Williams.

Churches Schedule

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will conclude its 19th season with the presentation of "La Boheme" by Puccini Saturday evening at the Plymouth high school gymnasium. Performing with the orchestra will be the Turnau Opera Players of New York.

"La Boheme" is the story of struggling young artists of the Latin quarter in Paris. The time of the setting is the 1830's. Much of the text is based on the experience of Puccini as a music student.

The Turnau Opera Players group of former students of the late Professor Josef Turnau in Europe, Professor Turnau had been a leading stage director prior to the Nazi. His career in the United States was dedicated to the fostering of young operatic talent to the end that opera might become here, as in Europe, a widely enjoyed and practiced part of life.

Consisting of 6 young singers, stage manager and musical director, the Turnau Opera Players have staged over 350 performances of 40 operas and have given premieres of 5 contemporary works. In addition to a busy itinerary which takes them to all sections of the country, the company has resident seasons in Sarasota, Florida and Woodstock, New York. This is their sixth national tour.

Wixom PTA

The Wixom Elementary PTA will meet April 6, at 8 p.m. The Walled Lake fire department will give a demonstration on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and show a film.

An election of officers will be held. Teachers will be in their rooms at 7:30 p.m. to talk with parents.

Honor Aides

Recently honored at Northville State hospital were its psychiatric aides of the year. Miss Airtelle H. Bates of Detroit and Stanford L. Miles of Wayne each received, at a tea in their honor, a $25 savings bond for outstanding service in the care of the mentally ill.

"This is the tenth year in which our hospital has made these selections," commented Philip N. Brown, M.D., medical superintendent. "We depend heavily upon our psychiatric aides throughout the hospital for day-to-day, patient care."

Golfers, Netters Look Good

If the odds makers are right, the upcoming spring sports season will be a happy one in Northville.

On the list of potential winners are the local golf and tennis teams — for good reason. Both are solid with veterans returning in most of the key spots.

Making Coach Al Jones' heart jump for joy is the fact that his top five golfers are back in the fold. And what an array of talent.

If Senior Jim St. Germain lives up to expectations, or even matches last year's performance, he must be considered one of the top young golf prospects in the nation.

Last year he copped a slew of honors, including medalist honors in the Wayne-Oakland Conference, the regional meet, the state finals and the class B division of the Pontiac Press tournament.

He finished among the top 16 in the state men's amateur tourney and topped last season's performance by garnering third place in the National United States Golf Association Junior tournament. On the way to the NUSGA semi-finals he upset the top-seeded junior player in the land.

Although St. Germain's teammates aren't in the same class, they're still a threat in the W-O league, and good prep golfers by anyone's standards. And on a given day, any one of them can give St. Germain a tussle.

Rounding out the top four are Jim Bertoni, Rick Talbot and Bob Regenhart. If they shoot consistently, Northville should take the title.

Despite Northville's strength on the links, Jones is still on the lookout for a fifth man who can card some low scores. Inability of that vital fifth man to come through with low, tally last year spelled trouble for the local prepsters.

This year Jones may find the answer in veterans Ron Bennett or Mike Hlohinec or transfer student Ted Bunker, a former member of University of Detroit high school team.

Only thing stopping Jones from definitely deciding on the best possible fifth man is the weather. The Mustang linksters haven't had one workout due to inclement weather — and they're scheduled to open the season Monday against West Bloomfield at the Pontiac Country Club.

Hoping to knock Northville off its favorite's perch are Milford, winner of the W-O title last year, and perennial contender, Bloomfield Hills.

With six veterans back for duty, Tennis Mentor Dick Norton is optimistic about his team's chances in W-O play.

"We should give the top teams a real battle," said Norton. "We lost four boys because they transferred or because they have to work, but we'll be up there." Other strong contenders are Bloomfield Hills, which walked off with the championship last year, and Clarkston.

Norton pointed out that Bob Langtry, Jim Long and Norbert Parent are heading the race for the top three singles experience on the front line.

Just behind them are three more veterans, Larry Thibos, Randy Calliguri and Bill Frenkel. Last year all three had ch. Although any one could move up with a show of improvement, they'll probably team up in the doubles.

At present, Calliguri and Thibos are hooked for one doubles team. French will head the other, with either Bill Hart or Dave Eberhart or some dark-horse teaming up as his partner.

Like the golfers, the netmen have been stymied by the weather. After two weeks of workouts in the junior high school gymnasium, there's little hope that the sun will dry the courts before next Monday's opener against Holly at the Cass-Benton courts.

"We may have to sweep the courts to give the sun a chance," Norton said.

"We've been doing all we could indoors, working on ground strokes, forehand, backhand and service," he said. "but we need to get on the courts." To keep in condition, Norton has been sending his stalwarts through limbering up exercises and running heats.

Newcomers, especially, need the rigors of live court play to improve. Included among the ranks of the untried but promising are two freshmen, Steve Quay and Randy Burnett. Other Mustangs vying for team berths are Freshman Russ Hannis, Juniors Jim Hill and Ron McCollum, Sophomore Clifford Smith and Senior Dave Kerr.

Scholars

Two students from the Northville area were among 784 at Central Michigan university who received grades of B or better for the fall semester.

They are Judith Marie Ritter, a junior from Novi and Jeffrey J. Crawford, a sophomore from Northville.

PTA Carnival Plans Underway

Plans are underway for the annual PTA carnival in Northville.

Mrs. Myron Utley, chairman of the event, announced that it will be held Saturday, May 15, at the community building and junior high school from noon until 7 p.m.

This year a food booth will replace the meal that has been prepared in the past, Mrs. Utley said. It will be open from 11:30 a.m. until the carnival closes.

"By having the booth we hope to allow more adults to enjoy the carnival with their families and have their meals at their leisure," Mrs. Utley said.

Besides the familiar games and prizes, Mrs. Utley said it is hoped a "carnival day special" will be sponsored by Northville merchants to lend a gay mood to the business area.

In Our Courts

The following cases were heard last week in Northville Municipal court by Judge Charles McDonald.

James Cornelius of 40940 Eight Mile road, manager of Meadowbrook country club, charged Gordon Davis of Detroit with simple larceny at the club last August 16.

Davis stole shrimp valued at $20.

The Northville police were unable to locate Davis until February 23, when he was arraigned by Judge McDonald and pleaded innocent, posted a personal bond of $100 and was released.

At his trial Davis was found guilty as charged and fined $25 or 5 days in jail.

Dan O'Hare of Jackson, was charged by the state department of agriculture with violation of the agriculture quarantine.

O'Hare transported hay from Jackson county which is a quarantined area to the Northville racetrack, a non quarantined area without a permit or fattening.

O'Hare was arraigned March 24 and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $25 or 2 days in jail.

Donald Johnson of Dearborn Heights was found guilty of disobeying a flashing red light at Seven Mile road and Center streets March 22. He was fined $20.

George Singer of Livonia was charged with being a drunk and disorderly person on Rogers street March 26. The Northville police released Singer on a $100 personal bond pending trial March 29. At his trial, Singer pleaded guilty and was fined $25.

A reckless driving charge was made against James

O'Donnell Jr., of Detroit at East Main street March 11. At his arraignment, O'Donnell pleaded innocent and posted a $100 personal bond. At his trial, the reckless driving charge was dismissed and an added count of speeding 40 in a 25 mile zone was made. He was fined $15.

Ronald Beyer of Livonia was charged with reckless driving March 15 at Main and Griswold streets.

At his arraignment March 29, he entered a plea of innocent. The reckless driving charge was dismissed and an added count of driving without due care or caution was made.

He pleaded guilty as charged and was fined $25 or 5 days in jail.

Zing into spring! Corvair by Chevrolet

The steering's crisper, the ride's flatter, the style's racier—even the grass looks a shade greener from behind the wheel of this new Corvair.

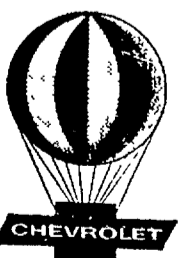

For all its finely calibrated instrumentation—tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs—the most important thing that happens when you get a Corvair Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you.

You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version).

Drop down to your dealer's now—while the trading's extra good—and see for yourself.

Readers Speak

Record Blows Prank Out of Proportion

Dear Editor

In all due respect to Northville's fine paper, I think its a shame that the writers can not find any better articles to put on the front page than the one entitled "Fire Cracker Bombers Sentenced to Pen-manship", which appeared in last weeks record. I can't believe that news is that rare! Secondly, it seems that the whole article is blown out of proportion. Shooting off fire-crackers sounds far less than "little sticks of dynamite", referring something much bigger. What it all boils down to is two boys pulling a prank. Two boys who have a reputation for never getting in trouble. But for one small prank, they receive a "black-balling" by the paper. I would like to ask the Record: "Why does this 'prank story' appear on the front page while the following articles are hidden on the last page: 1) Dope pills, described as 'goofballs' were found when local officers were investigating a drinking party on 13 Mile road. Minors were furnished with alcoholic beverages. 2. Breaking and entering of a dance hall last weekend. 60 bottles of alcohol were taken along with $31. 3) Police are looking for a man who started a brawl in a local restaurant, smashing several dishes, chairs, and tables 4) Man spends night in jail and is fined for 'excessive noise' and driving with a revoked license. 5) Minors in possession of alcohol. 6) Six different traffic violations appeared in one small article."

It is true that these boys need some punishment, but do you not think that $15, a 3,000 word theme and what punishment they may receive from their parents is enough? Do they deserve a front page smear? What will people think of these boys after reading a story that is so terrible and so extraordinary that it has such a write up? Do people know that these boys have never gotten in trouble before?

Last year, two boys from the senior class were caught breaking into parked cars and stealing tires. According to police, this crime must have been far worse than the "little sticks of dynamite" story, because the punishment was far worse. But where did this tire incident appear in the Record? It appeared on the last page. Hidden behind front page stories, sports, school news, church news, yes even the want ads. It had no picture. No big write up

I wonder, is it really the opinion of the Record that this firecracker story — which appears with such stories as

Thanks

To the Editor:

This letter is being written to the residents of the community of Novi on behalf of myself, my mother Mrs. H. O. Ostlund, and my sister Mrs. Frank Bokor of Garden City.

As you know, my father Herbert Ostlund, was stricken with a fatal heart attack in Echo Valley during the snow storm Thursday evening, February 25.

We wish to thank the Novi Police and Fire departments for the tremendous effort they made on that terrible snow-bound night. We feel they did everything humanly possible to help.

It gives one a good feeling to know that Novi has people who aren't afraid to ignore personal comfort and convenience to help in every way they can when called upon to do so, even under extremely adverse conditions.

It is also a good feeling for other service men stationed so far from home, I am sure, to know that there are good people serving the community, while they serve their country.

Sincerely

Jailed, Fined

A Brighton woman has learned that a woman's place is definitely not in jail.

Mrs. Mary E. George, of 6088 Briggs Lake drive, Brighton, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of alcohol, last Thursday night at Grand River and Wixom road. She was arraigned by Judge Emery Jacques, found guilty, sentenced to three days in the Oakland County jail and fined $100.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

MISCELLANEOUS

The fact that the automobile is so much a part of everybody's existence these days is shown by the number of human situations associated with it.

A city commissioner of Muskegon, Michigan, has raised a fuss about traffic jams and bottle-necks on the main street being caused by over-affectionate wives. He says that husbands being driven to work by their wives receive such long, tender and lingering farewells from their mates that the traffic gets piled up for blocks.

A policeman in a large eastern city questioned a man he came upon removing a set of tires from a car. "Jim asked me to change the tires," the man stated. The policeman replied as he escorted him to the police station that the car belonged to him, that his name wasn't Jim, and that he didn't recall issuing those instructions.

All the warnings about being ultra careful when driving take on new significance when you think about this piece of scientific research: the human eye blinks once every three seconds or twenty times a minute. At 60 MPH this means that a motorist is travelling about 18 yards blind, or one tenth of every mile, or one mile in every ten!

Finally, there was a taxi driver bringing a young fellow and his girl home from a dance when his old hack started having transmission trouble. "What a horrible clutch!" he exclaimed at last.

"And what business is it of yours?" came the reply from the back seat.

Trailer Burns; Damage $2,500

The Novi fire department responded to an alarm at 5:39 a.m. Monday at 26270 Wixom road. A trailer home was reported ablaze and Fire Chief Fred Loynes said it was destroyed. Damage was estimated at $2,500 Loynes said. It belonged to Jacquelyn Bliss who is employed at Northville Downs. Loynes said an oil heater left lit apparently caused the fire.

ELECT CHARLES TOUSSAINT COUNCILMAN

A firm believer in government for all of the people, operated on a sound business basis providing services at the lowest possible cost.

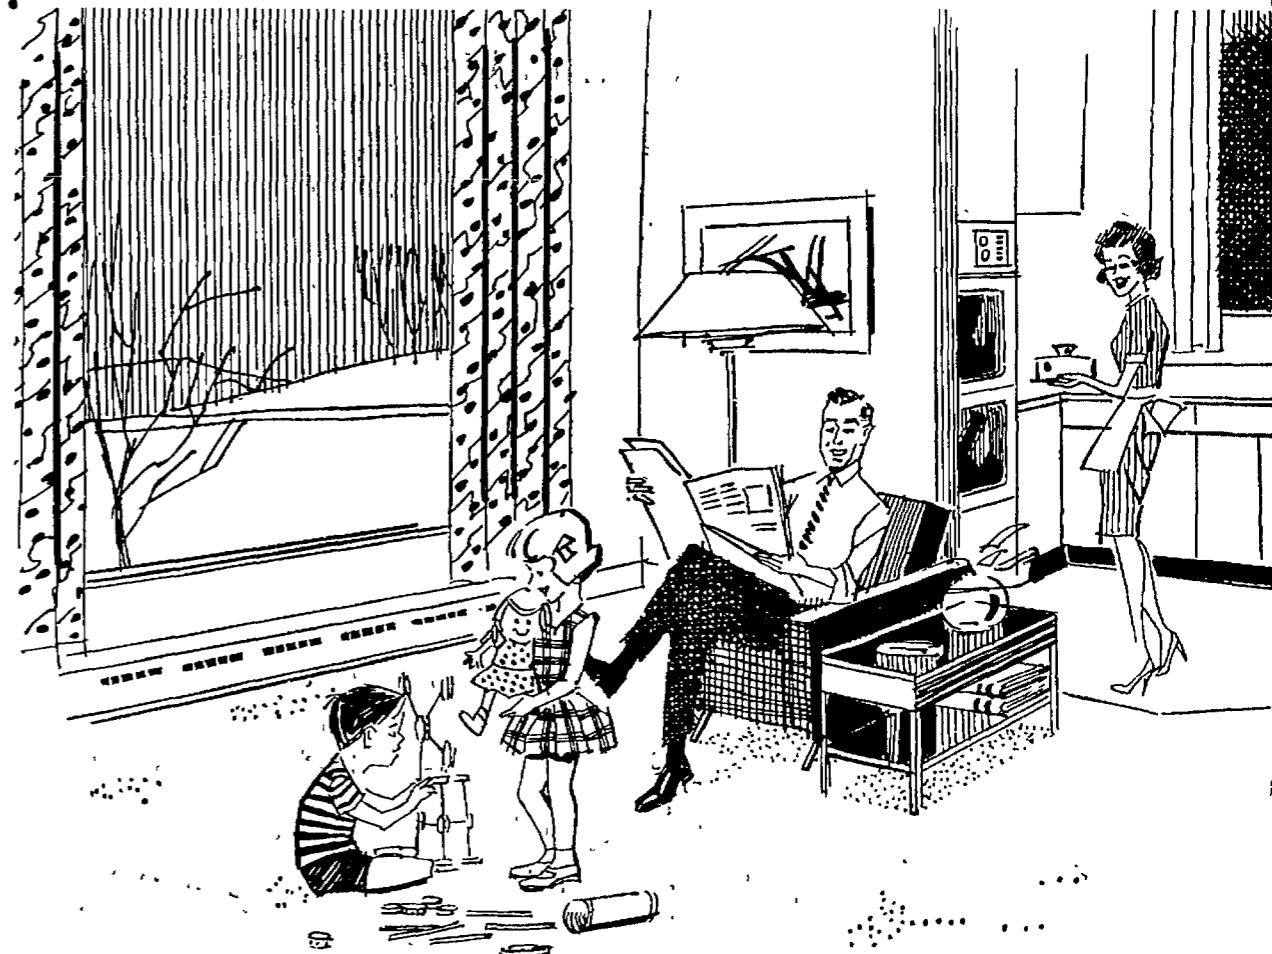

I am in favor of annexation to the city an area large enough to provide for our growth over the next 20 years.

I am in favor of a master plan of such an area that would provide residential homes, multiple dwellings, and an area zoned for light industry so as to provide local employment as well as a tax base that would give tax relief to the individual home owner.

VOTE FOR CHARLES TOUSSAINT, COUNCILMAN, APRIL 5th

I would like to be able to serve you as your councilman and will appreciate your support.

ELECTRIC HOME HEATING

NOW SOLD AND INSTALLED IN THE WESTERN WAYNE COUNTY AREA
by DETROIT EDISON

Here's important news! Especially if you're wondering how best to replace a tired out, old heating system. Or if you have a newly added room to heat. Or a room that's always been chilly.

All you have to do is phone or stop at your Edison Office. One of our Electric Heating Specialists will gladly call on you. He'll give you an estimate on the cost to install electric heat. He will recommend a system best suited to your needs. Then, if you'd like, he'll arrange for installation and financing. You'll get all the exclusive benefits of flameless electric heat PLUS the same prompt and considerate service you've come to expect from Detroit Edison.

HOW ABOUT ELECTRIC HEAT OPERATING COSTS?

Electric heat costs more than other types of home heating. But you will be surprised at how little more when you consider how much you gain in comfort and convenience.

And there's an All-Electric Domestic Rate which can reduce all your electrical operating costs, including those for electric heat. Yes, when your home is heated electrically throughout and when the major appliances you have are all electric, you qualify for a lower electrical rate.

Remember, if you'd like to know more about electric heat and the All Electric Rate, just stop or call your Edison office. It costs nothing to get the facts!

P.S. Recent downward rate adjustments can make supplemental electric heating lower in cost too. Supplemental electric heat's just the thing for cold corners and always-chilly rooms.

Northville Women's Club Bamboozles 'Mankind'

Christopher Columbus (Mrs. Doris Stuyvenberg) spots the shores of America but he wasn't the first there. He was greeted by hot-dog vendors and popcorn sellers chanting "You can't tell the players without a program."

Why did John the Baptist (Mrs. Pat Brown) go wandering in the wilderness? Now the whole truth — "Nag, nag, nag. All that woman does is nag." As John departs, his wife (Mrs. Doris Brasure) shouts: "John, John, you forgot your rubbers."

Adam (Mrs. Florence McDermott) munched an apple and appeared between acts. At the end of the skit Adam said sadly: "Knew I had another rib someplace."

Ludwig Von Beethoven (Mrs. Kathy Hughes) asked for his "fifth" and his wife (Mrs. Estelle Hanley) complied and commented: "Another masterpiece down the drain." Music heard in the background: "How Dry I Am".

Painter Salvador Dali (Mrs. Joan Moorhead) lost his brush but that didn't stop him. He used a squirt gun to finish his canvas.

Well, men, they did it. The Northville Women's Club spoofed us from Adam to Dalu last Friday in the Presbyterian church house.

New members of the club presented an original skit called "Men of History." And they even made apologies to "those who originally made it."

Fellas, we couldn't even defend our record.

In the cast were Mrs. George Hanley, Mrs. Lloyd Brasure, Mrs. Walter Gall, Mrs. Paul Hughes, Mrs. Eugene Karrer, Mrs. Hugh McKay, Miss Florence Keith.

Mrs. William McDermott, Mrs. John Moorhead, Mrs. Donald Kushmaul, Mrs. William Swank, Mrs. E. O. Weber, Mrs. John Stuyvenberg Jr., Mrs. Leonard Klein, Mrs. John Walker and Mrs. John Brown.

How the power of God operates in human affairs is explored in this week's Bible Lesson to be read at all Christian Science churches. The Golden Text is from Luke (18:27): "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

Several dramatic examples will be read from the Bible, illustrating the availability of divine power in overcoming the discordant conditions of material existence. The subject is "Unreality." Citations from the Christian Science Textbook will include these lines: "From beginning to end, the Scriptures are full of accounts of the triumph of Spirit, Mind, over matter... When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, pp. 139, 180).

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

by Rev. Elwood H. Chipchase

Pastor, Salem Federated Church

How many times I have been told, "I just can't understand all this about God, Christ, Salvation, Heaven and Hell," I do not know. There are many good-thinking sincere people who long for and search for soul peace and spiritual understanding only to run against a brick wall.

Wherein does the failure lie? Since Christ meant what He said when He stated, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37), why this lack of spiritual life in so many?

While memorizing some verses recently, a verse came up that gives a helpful note for this problem. The words of Christ in John 14:21, "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

There are many today who are searching for an easy way, a religion that doesn't affect their godless living, that doesn't convict them of sin... yet they want peace of heart. Christ is saying that peace and satisfaction will never come until by faith you receive Him, trust Him, and then live in obedience to the commands or the principles set forth in the Word of God.

There is no short cut to godliness, you must come God's way. Note the verse

REPORT from LANSING

By Marvin Stempien
State Representative, 35th District

Tax Revision — tax relief and overall fiscal reform. The number one question in Lansing, and everywhere in Michigan, for that matter, at this stage of the current session is, "Will there be any comprehensive attack on the problem of tax burdens and revenue needs?" The difficulty is that the problem itself is so complicated that few can agree on the questions, let alone the answers.

It is a stark reality that there are some who honestly believe that no fiscal reform is necessary at this time. This group is small. There certainly is a general willingness to recognize that the need for general overhaul of our tax and revenue structure is necessary and immediate.

The pressures for additional state spending are everywhere. Especially acute are the cries from educational interests in every area of the state. At every turn the Legislature is faced with a different segment of the populace demanding recognition of their long ignored right to a share of state revenue. Prime cases in point are the matter of property tax relief, mental health needs, record high budget demands from every department of state government, etc., etc.

This session of the Legislature will see a record number of bills introduced to meet sorely neglected social needs of the people of Michigan. The objectives of these bills are difficult to argue with. But, however essential they may be to the welfare of the people, no one in Lansing has come forth to date to point the way to obtaining the 800 to 900 million dollars that will be necessary to finance these legitimate programs.

There is no question in our mind that the state's present revenue structure will not produce the amounts of revenue that are required to meet the needs of the state. Since there is little support in Lansing for the proposition that spending should be cut, there is no alternative but to find new sources of revenue.

This is easier said than done. It appears to most public officials that the most obvious new source, a state income tax, would have to be outrageous in amount to produce the needed revenue.

Let's look at one theoretical example. It is estimated that the removal of the sales tax from food and drug sales would cost the state about 200 million dollars per year in lost revenue. To cover this one new tax exemption alone, if that were the approach taken, a state income tax would have to be levied in the amount of 3 per cent with a $500 per person exemption, or 3 percent with a $1,000 per person exemption!

The fact that shocks one into the reality of the situation is that the enormous price tag on the state's obligations to the many unmet needs is added on top of any tax relief granted. This appears to mean that a state income tax at a low rate might not be the only answer. It is obvious then, that the problem of fiscal reform is difficult not only because it agitates differing opinions as to where relief should be granted, but also because the essential ingredient of new areas of revenue is difficult to find.

What then are the prospects for solution in the near future? At present there appears to be general agreement in Lansing that reform can only come as a result of a genuine grass-roots movement from the populace. But it is also agreed that such a movement must take place with a true understanding of what fiscal reform really means.

It is here that the problem in semantics arises. To various people, fiscal reform means various things. To most, fiscal reform means cutting taxes. This simply is not true in all cases. The problem is one of structuring a system that allows more equity in how the burden of taxes is distributed while at the same time producing between 100 million and 200 million in additional revenue to meet the pressing needs above mentioned.

This is what the struggle of fiscal reform is all about. It represents a struggle of great import to every Michigan citizen. We feel that the importance of this problem demands that each citizen take the time to write to the Governor and to his legislators to express his feelings. It is important not only to express support of "fiscal reform," but more important to express readiness to assume any necessary new burdens, including a state income tax, if necessary.

In case anyone is not certain of our address, it is: State Capitol, Lansing, Michigan. In any event, we're certain there's more to come on this subject.

WELCOME BACK — Northville City Manager Bruce Potthoff was on hand last Thursday morning to greet Police Chief Eugene King as he returned to his office for the first time since he was shot February 10 by Warren Robert Wright. King was bringing Wright in for questioning about two robberies at the Northville branch of Detroit Federal Savings & Loan when he was shot twice in the abdomen. The bullets were never removed. King, looking much thinner, said he tipped the scales at 200 the day he was shot and now weighs 164. He chuckled that his uniform has to be altered two sizes—from 44 to 42.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

City voters have a problem Monday.

They must choose two councilmembers from a field of five candidates.

Usually at election time this column has some pearls of wisdom to pass along to voters, the effect of which is to make the choice easy (either believe or you don't).

This time, however, I find myself hung up on a fence, snarled in a gray area with no definite divisions of black and white.

It's an uncomfortable feeling. It also reeks of irresoluteness.

Fortunately, most voters aren't standing as close to the trees as this writer. Their vision is not cluttered by a countless series of conditions that when applied to most of the candidates makes them either rise or fall in their degree of qualification.

Cluttered as they may be, opinions I still have. If your mind's all made up, stop reading. The following may only serve to confuse you.

Taking the candidates one at a time alphabetically (ladies first) I see them this way:

Incumbent Beatrice Carlson — Just completed her first four-year term. Bea must be rated the favorite in the field. She didn't need the support of this column last time to win and probably won't again. She has a solid cheering section of long-time residents who frequently call upon her when there's a problem with city hall. She never lets them down. Bea has demonstrated an ability to listen, appraise and decide. She has matured in office, but cannot be classified as a leader in achievement. I'm not certain that this is a weakness in her case for her role on the council has not called for personal performance as much as it has endorsement of the work of others.

Del Black — A dynamo of energy with a record of business success to prove he does more than spin his wheels. Del would undoubtedly become a working councilman. If he has a weakness, it is his youthful enthusiasm. But he would learn fast with council experience. In community popularity he must be ranked with Mrs. Carlson and thus another favorite candidate.

C. Oscar Hammond — Another highly popular candidate, as well known as either Bea or Del. Now retired, his year as state commander of the American Legion has whetted his appetite for community service. Remarkably energetic, not easily flustered, he possesses a keen ability to get along with people. I do not think, however, that a Carlson-Hammond vote would be the best combination to be elected to the council.

W. Wallace Nichols — Perhaps the least known community-wide of the candidates. In my opinion, he may possess the best over-all qualification. His work on the planning commission may have been more harmful than helpful to his candidacy because he has been closely associated with future planning for the future. But Nichols is a planner, he knows the community better than most councilmembers and he could help bring many councilmembers up to date on what's happening outside the council level. A longshot, but a thorough one.

Charles Teussaint — A lifelong Northville resident, but least known (to me) of the candidates. An accountant, obviously intelligent and afraid to criticize. His proposal that bigger water and sewer lines should be built to accommodate areas that may one day be annexed reveals, however, an unfamiliarity with the government's obligations. Should pursue his interest by attending planning and council sessions.

All 14th district voters (city and township of Northville, Novi, Wixom, etc.) will decide Monday between two candidates for the state senate to fill the seat of the late Paul Chandler.

Our former endorsement of Farrell Roberts has been weakened by his appearance here in a book in debate with his opponent. A moderate Republican of the Romney type, Roberts is qualified by far to provide our district with representation at the state level.

But he'll need heavy voting by Republicans to win. Both parties have taken keen aim at this election and are watching results with interest.

Michigan Mirror

Legislative 'Veto' Session Seen

Lansing — Veto numbers could easily reach new highs in the next two years of state history.

Whether this occurs probably will depend largely on how much legislative reversing the Democrats do.

Already at least one reversal has been started. A bill to repeal the two-year voter registration law and restore Michigan to a four-year registration system is better than any way through the legislative process.

Bitterly fought by Democrats when they held the minority position, the two-year registration law just took effect for the last election.

It was an improvement, then-controlling Republicans said, because it would help clean out dead wood in clerks' files and prevent vote fraud practices.

Democrats said the two-year system was designed to make it more difficult for the many people who normally vote only in presidential years. Most of these, they said, were Democrats.

Work began early in the current session to restore the four-year system. It progressed rapidly through the legislative process.

This is but one area of legislation bitterly opposed by the Democrats in past years when they were in the minority.

Reversal of this election law and others in the fields of workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation would presumably draw a veto from Republican Gov. George Romney.

It would seem a shame if much legislative work time were wasted on reversal legislation the majority party knows would be vetoed. Such action might well provide good campaign material but concentration on such matters would hardly provide the public service expected of state lawmakers.

Any doubts about the magnitude of Michigan's tourist industry are dispelled by a look at the calendar of events published monthly by the State Tourist Council.

It indicates not only the large number of events being conducted on a local, regional or statewide basis but also the great variety of activity available which makes Michigan the "Winter Water Wonderland."

Even in the hardest months of the winter, the council calendar listed more than 50 events ranging from winter carnivals to sports car and dog races on ice, from auto shows to golf shows, invention displays and home shows.

The year-round impact of the industry is also indicated by the Council calendar of coming events.

A 12-month calendar distributed early in the year showed many communities were already busy with plans for special events scheduled in mid-summer or early fall.

Negaunee, for example, is thick in plans for its July 4 centennial celebration and Fremont has its "old fashioned days" set for July 23-24. Sault Ste. Marie's Hiawatha Festival Sept. 26-Oct. 3 was in the planning stages well before the first of the year.

As summer draws near an almost countless number of tourist-attracting events will be listed on the calendar, one of the most accurate barometers of tourist activity in Michigan.

A difficult task lies ahead for Michigan's state-supported colleges and universities.

It has several times been proposed that all 10 institutions join together in submitting a lump sum budget request to the Legislature.

Now a Governor's study committee proposes that not only this be done but also that the budget request cover a two-year period rather than being an annual appropriation item.

Difficulties are many in both proposals, which is one of several reasons the unified budget has not been accomplished already although it was first proposed several years ago.

Season for Self-Searching

BABSON PARK, Mass. — We have passed the midpoint of the season observed as Lent. This is a period of great religious significance to many millions of people throughout the world.

Protestants and Catholics alike find it a time of commitment and renewal, a seeking of the deepest spiritual values in life. The closing days of Lent also coincide with the observance of the Passover, commemorating God's deliverance of the Jewish people from bondage in Egypt.

Hence the Lenten season is a good time for all of us to ask what is wrong with the world ... and with ourselves; and, furthermore, what we can do about it.

We have only to look around at our world to realize what incredible progress science and technology have made, especially in the past half-century. Processes and products, discoveries and developments not even remotely envisioned in the early years of the 20th Century have followed one upon another at so swift a pace that our minds can scarcely comprehend their possibilities. We have learned how to do a great many things. But take a closer look at our world; certainly, we have been moving fast — but where, in what direction?

As communications have broadened, the world has grown smaller. That time is long past when difficulty in one small country could be dismissed as an isolated instance which could not touch the rest of the world. A trouble spot anywhere is now an ever-intensifying danger that could plunge the whole world into destruction. We are caught in a great world struggle, in which the forces of evil seem to be prevailing. Nations everywhere are racked by hatred, violence, and brutality. The U.S. is certainly not immune ... things have happened here that bring terror and shame to men's hearts.

For man, with all his forward progress in probing the mysteries of science and detailing the methods of technocracy, has not been able to make for himself a better world. It must be a frightening experience for those with no resources beyond their own puny strengths to view the shambles man has made of the world that has been given him. It has always been our conviction that science and technology, education and enlightenment — great as is their contribution — can go only so far in solving man's problems. Where they leave off, a Higher Force has to take over.

And at this point in our observance of Lent, probably the best question each of us can ask is: "What part does God have in my own life?"

The church is the sum total of its people; hence the church spiritually renewed has to mean a people spiritually renewed. We can think of no better time to undertake such spiritual renewal than in this Lenten season — a period which is a reminder of God's unfailing promise to help those who truly seek to do His will.

This should be a challenge to all of us to return again to the Bible, to read God's promises and heed His commands. If we look at the problems of this world through the eyes of man, we have to acknowledge that we cannot change human nature; but if we look at them through the eyes of God, just as surely we know that He can! We can never succeed by fighting godlessness with godlessness, indecency with indecency, dishonesty with dishonesty, or cruelty with cruelty. What we need is a return to the eternal values. We need to commit ourselves anew to the God who is greater than our highest hopes; to trust ourselves completely to His power, His wisdom, and His goodness.

It is still true that "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." We could turn back the forces of darkness and evil if we truly believed — and acted upon the belief — that God gave no idle promise when He said: "If my people, which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Lent will soon be over. But Lent could — and should — mark simply the beginning of our deepening faith in the God who created us. Man has demonstrated his pitiful inadequacy; let us humbly ask God to reveal to us His abundant sufficiency.

W. WALLACE NICHOLS
FOR CITY COUNCILMAN

MONDAY, APRIL 5

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Northville:

If we are to preserve the assets and charm with which Northville has been endowed, yet make it the complete community for today and tomorrow, we should take a sharp look at some circumstances that confront us.

Suburban growth and the general economy — forces that affect each of us as individuals and as a city — whether we like it or not — will impose community problems in the following areas in the months and years ahead:

Streets — traffic — parking; tax base — municipal services — municipal facilities; commercial development —

These problems will require clear-cut decisions and careful programming through the sound deliberation of our City Officials.

As your Councilman, I will bring to these decisions an honest and sincere dedication to serve the best interests of the City of Northville as a whole — without prejudice or bias.

Respectfully,

W. Wallace Nichols
