

They Get Fun Out of Destruction

Vandals bend the signs... then tear them off. Letter removing is also a great sport.

A rash of vandalism is costing Northville taxpayers money and city administrators concern.

George Clark, Northville's interim city manager, pointed out this week that more than 30 street signs required replacing during the past four months. First the name plates are torn from the posts and frequently, Clark stated, the posts are then bent.

The city is now relettering its municipal building signs for the third time.

And last week end two of five concrete benches in the city hall park were turned over and broken.

They had been donated to the city by Mayor A. M. Allen a month ago to provide citizens with a pleasant place to relax on a summer's afternoon.

The benches are valued at about $30 each.

The 30 street signs cost about $15 each, not counting the time to straighten the posts or install the cross-signs.

The letters on the municipal building signs are specially made, and not inexpensive.

Clark is genuinely concerned. "I can't understand it. The city tries hard to make its community look good," he said, pointing to the new street signs, municipal signs and park benches.

"A few youngsters, who apparently have no sense of community pride, destroy it all," Clark lamented.

Vandalism is frustrating to community officials everywhere. It is difficult, almost impossible, to catch vandals at work regardless of the number of law enforcement officers on duty.

They receive their satisfaction from destroying the handiwork of others. There is no personal gain--like stealing--less it be in "boasting" to the gang.

So the responsibility for stamping out this thoughtless destruction of property lies with every individual--not the police, alone.

Parents should counsel their children. Youngsters should let it be known that such performances do not draw "bravos". And all citizens should be alert to report instances of property destruction to authorities as soon as possible.

Perhaps if the youngster eager to pull down signs or break benches were assigned to the public works' crew for a few days as they repaired the damage, they would gain some appreciation of the meaning of "community pride".

Donated benches could have provided comfort for citizens in city hall park. Two of the concrete bench slabs were cracked when tipped over.

Fires Follow Fireworks

It was truly a sizzling Fourth of July in Northville and Novi. Hundreds of people viewed the fireworks display sponsored by the Northville Jaycees Sunday night near the high school.

But, after the show, some unscheduled events came off that lit up the sky.

The fireworks show ended about 9:50 p.m. At 10:22 p.m. the Northville fire department responded to a blaze at the Whipple estate on Eight mile.

A barn was afire.

Northville Fire Chief Bud Hartner said his crew spent three hours bringing the fire under control. He said that arsonists probably ignited the blaze.

Late Tuesday, Hartner said the Salvation Army which owns the estate "assured me that it will get in touch with Northville township officials to dispose of the remaining buildings."

Some three out-buildings are still standing on the Whipple property, Hartner said.

It cost the taxpayers about $300 to douse the fire. Some 12 volunteers were at the scene.

In late April, arsonists reduced the old Whipple house to a mound of ashes. The house was built sometime in the 1860's.

Meantime, another fire broke out in Novi at 12:24 a.m. Monday.

An old schoolhouse at Nine Mile and Taft was burning. The roof was gone when the firemen arrived, said Novi Fire Chief Fred Loynes.

It took four hours to smother the flames.

Two firemen--Anthony Skeltis and Bill Sprenger suffered burns on their hands, Loynes said. Fire trucks left the scene at 4:54 a.m.

Late Monday evening the fire started up again at the schoolhouse but it was quickly put out, Loynes said.

Township Buzzes Police Force Study OK'ed

Business is booming in Northville township.

On the heels of announcements that a 300-home development is on the drawing boards and plans for an extensive water system are well underway came action Tuesday night by the township board to investigate the establishment of police protection.

The motion by Trustee James Tellam won strong board support. Members agreed to submit names of candidates for a police protection study committee at the board's August meeting.

Tellam said he would draft objectives for committee consideration. He reported that his request was in response to queries from many concerned residents.

He proposed that the committee study all possibilities, including establishment of a joint force with the city, increasing sheriff's deputies and setting up a township force.

The committee findings will be reviewed by the board.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam supported Tellam, pointing out that "vandalism is spreading."

But the supervisor noted that the cost would be high. "To keep one man on duty seven days a week, 24 hours a day would cost between $50,000 and $60,000 a year," he stated. "This would mean employing three men and replacements, which is five or six men altogether, plus cost of a car, gas and so on."

In taxes this amounts to an increase of 3 1/2 mills, Merriam stated.

In other business Tuesday night the board heard a report from Township Attorney Edward Draugellis on the long-delayed contract for rental of the Northville Library with the city.

Annual rental fee to the township is approximately $1,500. This figure is based on percentage use of the facility by township residents. In 1964 this was 34.4 per cent. This year it has been 31.8 per cent.

In arriving at the rent one half the actual cost of the library portion of the city hall was determined. Then the township is charged on a basis of one per cent per month for its percentage use. One half the actual cost of the building was used because the federal government paid half the cost of construction.

While Attorney Draugellis told the board he found the contract acceptable, Trustee Wilson Tyler took exception. He said he was opposed to including landscaping in the cost and added that he "didn't agree with the formula whatsoever."

Supervisor Merriam stated that the board has already agreed to the formula. But Tyler said he did not agree with passing on formulas before the figures are known.

The board tabled the matter until the supervisor and city and township attorneys draft and the final contract for approval at the next board meeting.

Water System Eyed

A Northville township plan to sell city of Detroit water to Northville State Hospital and Plymouth State Home may lead to the development of a water system capable of serving the entire eastern portion of the township.

It would also give the township annual water revenues in excess of $100,000 from the two institutions.

Both institutions, now served by their own wells, have indicated a desire to purchase Detroit water. Because the township has become a Detroit water customer, the sale would be through the local government.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam revealed this week that a June 22 meeting between local and state officials in Lansing produced possible avenues to follow that would lead to realization of the plan by July 1, 1967.

Only real threat to the plan lies with the failure of the state legislature to approve funds in the state hospital budget for purchase of the water.

Supervisor Merriam said tentative plans call for extension of the Detroit water line on East Eight Mile road across Meadowbrook Country Club to Northville State Hospital on Seven Mile road. This line could also serve the golf course as well as residents throughout the area.

Plymouth State Home on Sheldon road would be served by the line presently being constructed along the road from Northville to Five Mile. This line will also be connected to an existing water line serving the Wayne County Training School which now extends eastward to Five Mile to the township's easterly border at Haggerty. Merriam said the lines would be connected forming a loop by extending the line from the state hospital to Six Mile and then to Sheldon road.

A proposed contract is now being drafted by Township Attorney Edward Draugellis and Engineer L. S. Mosher. It would call for sale of water to the institutions by July, 1967 at a rate of 39 cents per 1,000 gallons.

Approval of the contract by the state would provide the township the needed guarantee to start revenue bonding procedures.

Supervisor Merriam said revenue from the two institutions would total some $120,000 annually, sufficient to finance construction of the system from its revenues.

Northville township pays between 18 and 22 cents per 1,000 gallons from the city of Detroit depending upon volume. Its rates to residential customers presently is 35 cents per 1,000 gallons plus a $2 per month service charge.

Presently, the township sells Detroit water to fewer than 20 customers in Plymouth Gardens subdivision.

Another potential township water customer is a proposed multiple unit apartment complex on a 47-acre parcel across from the root beer stand on Northville road.

At Tuesday night's township board meeting it was revealed that approval has been received from the Wayne County road commission for an easement across Cass Benton park so that the township might construct a water line from Sheldon road across the park to the site of the development.

Engineer Mosher is presently studying costs of the proposed installation.

300 Homes Planned

The sale of 118 acres in Northville township has produced double results:

--it closed the doors on a pending law suit brought against the township;

--and it opened the way to development of the property into a 300-home subdivision.

The land is located on the east side of Bradner road north of Elk road and extends east and south to Five Mile road.

New owner of the property is the Fred E. Greenspan Building Company, developers of Lakepointe Village, located just across Five Mile road in Plymouth Township.

The land was formerly owned by the Alex Gordon Company, which had been denied a permit to remove sand from the acreage by the township planning commission.

When its mining permit was denied, the Gordon company brought suit against the township. It held that the lowering of high areas on the acreage was necessary for development of the property, that it would create a nuisance and be detrimental to the value of other land in the area.

With the sale of the land to Greenspan the lawsuit has been dismissed. Township Attorney Edward Draugellis stated this week.

Joseph L. Staub, a partner in the Greenspan Company, said that plans call for building some 300 homes on the property. He said the company hoped to purchase an adjoining 12-acre parcel on Five Mile road.

According to Staub, building will begin as soon as water is available. A Detroit water line already extends through the area and now serves the Plymouth Gardens Subdivision overlooking Phoenix Lake near Bradner road. But adequate pressure will not be available until the new Detroit water line being extended along Sheldon road is complete.

Staub said that work would probably begin next spring, but possibly as soon as mid-winter. Unless something unforeseen happens, Greenspan expects the development to be complete within three to five years.

The homes will be similar to Lakepointe Village and sell for $22,000 to $30,000. All roads within the subdivision will be paved. Sewer service will be available. The township now owns the sewer line previously installed by the Gordon Company on the west side of Bradner road across from the proposed development. This will be extended by Greenspan to serve the area.

Detroit Seeks Gravel Permit

Northville township sidestepped one request for an earth removal permit this week (see story above) only to be faced with another.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam announced Tuesday that Maybury Sanatorium, owned by the city of Detroit, had filed a request with the township for removal of sand and gravel from a 12-acre parcel on the Seven Mile road Maybury property.

The request goes to the board of appeals, which must call a meeting within 10 days, Merriam stated.

The supervisor said that the request indicated that revenues from the mining operation would be turned over to the city of Detroit's social welfare fund.

Council Steps Up Search For New City Manager

Northville city council members came back from the long July Fourth weekend to face an equally long agenda and a 3 1/2 hour session Tuesday night.

They also learned that the council work load will become heavier unless a permanent city manager is found soon.

George Clark, who has served as interim city manager since Bruce Potthoff left on June 1, notified the council officially Tuesday that he would like to be released from his duties not later than August 10.

Clark owns Northville Realty and must return to his business.

The council called a work session for Monday night to consider a list of applicants for the manager's post.

In other business Tuesday the council approved advertisement of bids for some $6,500 worth of sidewalk repairs throughout the city. Engineer Harold Penn said that all portions of sidewalk within the city considered dangerous had been marked for replacement. All but about $700 worth will be assessed to property owners. The city has that much repair work on its own walks. Penn said 156 residences required sidewalk replacement work.

Only Randolph street, where improvement plans may change the grade, was left off the survey.

Bids will be opened August 2. The council approved pay increases to auxiliary policemen and regular officers when on duty at Northville Downs. Auxiliary policemen were raised from $2.25 per hour to $2.50 for track duty. Regular policemen on duty at the track received a 25-cent per hour boost over their current pay. The hike was made effective July 1. Wages for officers on duty at the track are paid to the city by Northville Downs.

The council delayed any action on proposed stiffening of curfew and dog ordinances. The subject came before council at its last meeting when a citizen complained of running dogs and noise and vandalism by teenagers.

Councilman John Canterbury wondered aloud if stricter enforcement of the existing ordinances might not be as effective as stiffer ordinances. He also called for review of the proposed revisions by the city attorney.

Curfew changes submitted by Police Chief Eugene King would place an 8 p.m. curfew on youngsters under 12 (it's 10 p.m. now), 10 p.m. under 16 (now midnight) a midnight curfew for 16 year-olds.

Chief King proposed increasing dog fines. And he suggested making ownership of more than two dogs in the city unlawful (under the rule that it would constitute a kennel operation). His fine schedule would go from a warning on first offense for permitting a dog to run loose to $10 and $5 costs on the second offense and an increase of $5 per offense thereafter. A $4 fee would also be charged for each day the dog was impounded.

The council approved prohibition of left turns off Eight Mile road onto Novi, Horton, Grace and Carpenter streets between the hours of 6 and 8 a.m.

The council also took the position that it should continue to issue driver's licenses to citizens from throughout the area. The license business has been brisk in Northville since South Lyon decided it would not issue licenses under the state's new system of requiring a photo.

Presently, Northville is issuing driver's licenses as before. But Chief King said he expects the new photographic equipment to arrive later this month.

Both Mayor A. M. Allen and Council Canterbury stated that "the citizen should not be left holding the bag" in seeking an office to obtain a driver's license. It was agreed that the local office would handle all customers "as long as possible".

The council appointed John Stubbenvoll, a former city councilman, to serve as chairman of the newly formed municipal parking authority. No other members have been named.

Superintendent of Public Works Herman Hartner reported that gasoline odors in the Fairbrook area that once caused an explosion in sewer lines near the residence of Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson had been traced. He said the gasoline was leaking from a storm drain into the sanitary drain at a nearby service station. The leak had been corrected, Hartner stated.

Record $401,121 Bet at Downs

Northville Downs set a new mutual handle record Saturday night when 8,229 fans wagered $401,121.

The mark was the highest ever recorded in the track's 22 year history.

It brought the year's nightly average for the first 12 nights of the 39-night summer season up to $285,881, another all-time high.

The previous record night of betting was set on a July Fourth weekend, too. July 3, 1964 fans showed $385,640 through the mutual windows.

Last year the Downs enjoyed its best average nightly handle, $278,108. For the 1965 summer meet to date the track is 7.3 per cent ahead of this pace.

Total handle through last Saturday night was $3,430,573.

Papal Blessing Bestowed At Zucal-Crusoe Vows

A Papal Blessing was bestowed upon Carolyn Marie Zucal and Lt. (j.g.) John Allen Crusoe as they were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, July 3, in St. Michael Church, Southfield. Rev. R. J. Feurstein, S.J. officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Zucal of Southfield. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Claude A. Crusoe of Northville, and the late Mr. Crusoe.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a Bianchi gown of bouquet taffeta designed with a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The controlled A-line skirt swept into a court length train. A matching pillbox held her elbow length veil of silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias, miniature carnations, and ivy.

Mary Jane Poshak was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard E. Byrne, sister of the groom, Kathy Dudzinski, and Bonnie Burd. They wore floor length white pique gowns accented with Venetian lace and pale pink ribbon. Matching hats and bouquets of pink carnations and white snowflake chrysanthemums completed their ensembles.

Suzanne Beaulac, in similar attire attended the bride as flower girl and Robert Ramsay served as ringbearer.

The bridegroom asked Gale Gilbreath to be best man. Seated the guests were Howard E. Byrne, Lewis D. Crusoe, II, and Lt. Lawrence J. Zucal. Lt. Zucal and his wife, Helene, traveled from Anchorage, Alaska where he is stationed with the United States Air Force, for his sister's wedding.

The bride's mother chose an aqua silk organza sheath, while the groom's mother was attired in mauve silk linen. They accented their gowns with cymbidium orchid corsages.

After a reception at the Raleigh House, the newlyweds left for a northern Michigan honeymoon. They will reside in Norfolk, Virginia where Lt. Crusoe is stationed with the United States Navy.

Nancy Beard, Dean Smith Wed

MRS. DEAN SMITH

Nancy Elizabeth Beard and Dean Thomas Smith exchanged their wedding vows July 3 at the First Methodist church in Northville. The Reverend Kinde of Northville and Dr. John Tennant of Albion officiated at the evening ceremony.

The church was decorated with white floral bouquets and candles. Mrs. Richard Somers was the organist.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown with lace bodice and sleeves. Flowers were embroidered on both the dress and train. Her headpiece was a fingertip veil of silk illusion attached to a silver crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses mixed with lily and stephanotis.

Rosemary Frost was maid of honor. She was dressed in a white dotted swiss gown with full skirts and a red ribbon sash. She also wore a short veil attached to a bow of the dress material.

Bridesmaids were Katy Beard and Margaret Beard, sisters of the bride, and Dorothy Teitelbaum. Their dresses were the same as the maid of honor's.

James Smith served his brother as best man. Roy Boyer, David Lowe and Craig Emerick were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beard chose a blue silk chiffon dress with a floating panel and beaded bodice. She wore a matching hat.

Mrs. Smith wore a pink silk linen dress with matching accessories.

A reception for 200 followed the wedding at the church. Guests attended from Detroit, Jackson, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rochester and Ann Arbor.

The bride's going-away outfit was an aqua linen suit. The couple took a wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Both are graduates of Albion college. The groom is currently enrolled at Wayne State University medical school. They will make their home in Detroit.

Newcomers Name Slate

The Northville Newcomers club installed new officers at its June dinner-dance meeting.

The officers are Mrs. Earle McIntosh, president; Mrs. Charles Bauer, vice president; Mrs. Kent Mathes, secretary; and Mrs. Fay Waldren, treasurer.

Top bridge winners for the Newcomers' bridge group this year were Mrs. Fay Waldren, first place and Mrs. Charles Sountain, second place.

Mrs. Kent Mathes will entertain the summer bridge group today (Thursday) at her home, 24062 Willowbrook in Novi.

Engaged

Lynn Ellen Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Johnson, 800 West Main, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lynn Ellen of San Francisco, California to James Sherwood Tipton of San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Tipton of Ashland, Ohio.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs school of New York. Tipton, a graduate of Purdue University, was a member of Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity.

A September 3 wedding is planned at the First Presbyterian church in Northville.

Correction

In last week's announcement of the engagement of Lynn Ellen Johnson (which appears correctly above) it stated that Miss Johnson was engaged to James Sherwood Tipton. It should have said "James Sherwood Tipton."

CORNER

"Look at me," 11-month-old Tracey Reid seems to say as she poses with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Reid.

A combined interest in painting and drawing helped spark the romance of newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Reid of 23966 East Le-Bost. Mrs. Reid says, "That's how we met!" referring to their artistic hobby. The young couple graduated from Southfield high school. They lived in Southfield until their move to Novi in April. Tracey, their 11-month old baby daughter, keeps them both occupied at home. Mrs. Reid states, "With a baby we haven't been out very much."

However, Mr. Reid does find time to work as a formica counter-top maker. His wife, daughter and Peanut are at home to greet him after work. Peanut is the Reids' pet bird.

Their new home also keeps them busy. In fact, their vacation this summer will be "a vacation to work around the house!" Oh, yes, and in their spare time, they still pursue their interest in painting.

The Northville high school class of 1955 is holding a class reunion this Saturday at the Thunderbird Inn. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. So far 40 couples have made reservations.

Readers Speak

To the Editor:
Novi Cityhood schemers are at it again. The small group of local residents that are interested in this move, have only a pure selfish motive. While they are dining and wining over this issue. I am sensuous.

I agree with Mr. Medowcraft, manager of the City of Inkster, when he proclaimed that he "doesn't know why a village exists. It's nothing." This same Cityhood group sold the citizens of Novi a few years back, that a village government is the best for us, which would protect our boundaries. I disagreed with them then as well as I do now as to cityhood for Novi.

As to having a voice on the Oakland county board of supervisors, and double assessment rolls creates no problems here in Novi, and justice of the peace courts will be eliminated by the new State Constitution within two years.

This group will have a hard time trying to sell the citizens of Novi on Cityhood, because we have been betrayed before. Nevertheless talented interested Novi citizens and myself will keep a keen eye on this movement as a civic duty.

In closing, ask any citizen in the City of Livonia the price they are paying in taxes, since it became a city.

Caravan To Tour VFW Home

The Northville Veterans of Foreign Wars post is planning a caravan Sunday, July 18, to the national VFW home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

The caravan will leave the local post at 11 a.m.

The day in Eaton Rapids includes amusement rides, visits to the home and fireworks at night. Anyone who would like to go must bring a passing dish and table service. The VFW will furnish the hot dogs and pop.

IT'S ROUND-UP TIME—Mary Louise Horsfall (left) will represent Northville Senior Girl Scout Troop 222 at the senior roundup July 15-28 at Farragut, Idaho. Marilyn Pubanz (right) is the alternate. Some 9,000 Girl Scouts will attend from the U.S. and foreign countries.

Wins Medal In Viet Nam

USS MIDWAY—Navy Lieutenant Junior Grade John P. Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Chase of 39876 Harbert drive, has been awarded the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal for service off the coast of Viet Nam while serving aboard the U.S. Seventh Fleet's attack aircraft carrier USS Midway.

Midway pilots have been making daily air strikes against communist military installations in North Viet Nam and Viet Cong concentrations in South Viet Nam.

The Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal is awarded to servicemen in an area of operations for 30 or more consecutive days.

Excursion

Some 41 senior citizens from Northville will take part Friday in a trip to Bob-Lo island. The affair is sponsored by the Recreation Association of Michigan. As an extra feature, the boat will go past the amusement center to the mouth of Lake Erie and then return.

The group will depart at 8:20 a.m. Friday for the trip.

Heading For Spain

Antoinette Alexander, a 1965 graduate of Northville high school and a former Northville resident, left this week for Spain as part of the Youth for Understanding exchange program.

Antoinette is one of more than 600 young people from over 200 high schools in Michigan taking part in the program.

Antoinette and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Alexander, moved to British Columbia in May.

Three Attend Girls State

Three Northville representatives returned last week from Girls State at the University of Michigan. The girls were Margaret Becker, Bonnye Bradford and Susie Hill.

They were chosen by the high school faculty on the basis of scholastic ability, leadership and personality.

The seven-day session is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. This year 462 girls attended from all over Michigan. Girls State is set up like its male counterpart, Boys State. There are cities, counties and states. Each division has its own government.

The local girls were all elected to government positions. Susie was mayor of her city, Drakee. Margaret was both city attorney and on the board of county supervisors. Her city was Crakes. Bonnye held the same position as Margaret, but she was elected from the city of Schultena.

At the state level, there was a party convention and two political parties, the Nationalists and Federalists. A governor was chosen at the state convention who will retain her title until next year.

Bonnye explained that several government officials who had studied at the University of Michigan spoke on various aspects of government.

Mrs. George Romney welcomed the girls the first day. The president of Boys Nation also spoke one day. The girls particularly appreciated the bouquet of red roses sent from Boys State, held at Michigan State University the same week.

Besides the planned activities, several spontaneous events arose during the week. There was a birthday party one night for one of the girls.

Another day the governor pro-

Plumbers Notch Twin Victories

The Northville Plumbers ran wild in the Class E league, soundly whipping two opponents the past week.

They moved into second place as a result, only one-half game behind front running Fisher Shoes. Northville has a 3-1 record.

First the Plumbers knocked off Spagy-T Birds June 28, 10-3, as Pitcher Larry Biddle whiffed 10 batters and spaced six singles.

Errors contributed to the mounting score as the T-Birds committed seven. Marty Richardson paced the win with three singles. Scott Berge bagged two singles for the losers.

Walks, errors and lusty hitting marked the Plumbers 22-1 pulverizing of Bloom's Insurance last Friday.

In all, the Plumbers banded out 12 singles and three doubles, and garnered 11 walks. Ken Boeiger and Barry Deal topped the attack with three hits apiece.

The Casterline Braves held sole possession of second place in the class F league. They did it by splitting two games.

Walks and timely hitting were the big difference in the Braves 17-7 conquest of Plymouth last Thursday.

Both teams had 12 hits, but the Braves got them when they counted.

Rich Adams was the hero June 29, but his efforts weren't enough as the Braves dropped a 7-5 decision to Hoffman.

Adams stroked a home run and a single, getting two of his team's five hits. Hoffman likewise got five hits, but combined them with five walks and two hit batsmen.

Extra base power was instrumental in Hoffman's win, including a home run and two triples.

While the Braves were holding their own, the Oilers won their lone contest and the Orioles dropped two.

The Oilers bumped the Orioles, 8-6, even through the Oilers were out of it, 9-5.

But the Orioles bumped into tough Hoffman last Thursday and lost, 4-1.

Orlone batters were held to just two hits.

GOING UP—A bagful of balloons will be dropped on Northville Sunday afternoon. It's all part of a stunt by Northville merchants to promote Monday night shopping. Each balloon will contain a ticket with a number which should be taken to one of the sponsoring merchants on Monday between 6 and 9 p.m. Details appear in an advertisement on page 3A. Merchants Del Black (left) and Charles Lapham are shown at the plane that will be used for the balloon drop.

Two Mustangs On Tiger Team

Two local high school youths with professional potential have been selected by the Detroit Tiger organization to tour with a hand-picked team.

Junior Doug Swiss, a catcher, and Senior Steve Evans, a pitcher, made the team on the basis of performances in workouts held every Saturday at Dutzel field in Detroit.

The team will play exhibition games with other teams in the Detroit area and Michigan, including some contests in Canada. Members will also participate in baseball clinics, sponsored by the Tigers. They will demonstrate techniques of the game.

Both Swiss and Evans were key figures on the 1965 Mustang baseball squad.

As just a sophomore last season, Swiss' second as a regular, he was one of the top backstops in the Wayne-Oakland Conference.

Evans was the top hurler on the team, posting a 5-2 record.

In Justice Court

An international representative of the United Auto Workers was fined $25 for reckless driving last Thursday in Judge Emery Jacques' courtroom.

Robert Farnum, of 385 West Huron in Pontiac, was arrested June 28 after he hit a dog on East Lake drive and didn't stop. He was exceeding the speed limit, police said.

Farnum was apprehended at Novi road and Grand River by Novi police. He was taken to the station and his car was impounded.

He pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Jacques.

Douglas Riddell of 33677 Harlow in Farmington was assessed a fine of $25 for reckless driving on East Lake drive near Monticello June 16. He pleaded guilty to the violation.

A $65 fine was levied against John L. Harris of 9392 Artesian in Detroit for reckless driving. He was found guilty at his trial and also had to pay $10 costs.

Harold Ransier, 19, of 1957 Hoeft in Walled Lake pleaded guilty to being a minor in possession June 23 on Beck road south of 10 Mile. He was fined $25. In addition he was fined another $10 for violating a temporary driving instruction permit.

Robert Scherf of 9057 Cardwell in Livonia, who violated a restricted license June 29, was fined $10 and five days in jail. The jail sentence was then suspended.

For driving on a revoked license Fred R. Schenman of 26029 Whipple in Novi was fined $25 and 10 days in jail. His jail sentence was suspended, too.

James Breen of 106 Ely drive in Northville, who was ticketed for being a traffic hazard in front of the Novi hardware on Grand River, was fined $15.

Francis Balester of Detroit paid $15 for littering on Dixon in the village June 23. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

In Judge Robert Anderson's court, William Van Sickle balked at a $10 fine for a defective exhaust so the judge added another $10 to his tab.

After a little grumbling, Van Sickle paid his "double" fine.

It cost Dennis O'Brien a $10 fine and 10 costs for sleeping in his car May 29 on the median strip of Interstate 96 near Meadowbrook road. He was ticketed for being a traffic hazard.

Fined $150; Goes to Jail

An ex-convict was fined $150 in Judge Emery Jacques' court last Wednesday and sentenced to five days in Oakland county jail.

Louise Snider pleaded guilty to reckless driving and indecent exposure.

Officer Fred Stafford spotted Snider last Tuesday night on 14 Mile road. Snider, who was alone was standing beside his car and was disrobed.

When he saw the police car, Snider took off at a high rate of speed, even running the stop sign at 14 Mile and Haggerty. Stafford couldn't catch him.

Returning to the scene, Stafford found Snider's wallet. Stafford arrested Snider at a relative's home with the assistance of the West Bloomfield police.

Local police said Snider had a long record of convictions.

FOR REAL—It may look like something out of the Arabian Nights but Northville police took away this knife from a 14 year old juvenile last week. The knife is over 17 inches long while the blade measures 7 1/2 inches. That's a 15-inch ruler in the picture.

Fun at Day Camp

"They must be coming out of the walls." That's how Northville Recreation Director Ken Conley described the response to the summer day camp program held at the Scout building and Anemman school. Youngsters can do a lot of things: Fred McKenna, 8, (upper left) eyes his target; Randy Armstrong, 11, and his brother, Wally, 8, (upper right) compete at the tether ball game; a bunch of young boys (bottom left) prepare to launch a boat trip to nowhere; and a nimble girl (we forgot to get her name) poses at an unusual angle.

Reverend Charles F. Boerger
St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Northville

Scripture: Isaiah 26:3

Does sickness make you unhappy? It's not that way with everybody. Some people seem to enjoy ill health. They are happy in their sickness. In some instances, because they enjoy feeling sorry for themselves; in others, because that's the only way they can get the attention and sympathy of others. But we can be happy in a more wholesome way, even in sickness. There are many who have learned to be cheerful even under intense pain. They have learned to be useful in spite of some handicap. A defect turned into an asset, a seeming curse into a blessing, because they have kept their inner peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. This peace is like the ocean depths. There may be great storms up on the surface lashing the waves into foaming fury, but underneath there is a great calm.

The first thing we must do in order to be kept by the Lord in perfect peace is to take God's offers of peace. Our taking is the act of faith. "Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." (Romans 5:1). Sin causes unrest. God forgives our sins for Jesus' sake. Thus we are kept by the Lord in perfect peace when we have forgiveness of sin and peace with God. We can confidently join the song of the saints, and say to our reconciled God with Isaiah: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee."

Notice how that passage calls it a perfect peace. It is a deep, lasting inner peace. It stays in the soul even when there are outward disturbances. As we go through much tribulation into the Kingdom of God, we are kept steady because we keep that inner peace. The mother in the midst of her noisy household of children can have it. The man going into the din of clanging machinery may carry it deep in his heart. The Apostles had it when they could come out of floggings and imprisonments "rejoicing because they were accounted worthy to suffer shame for His name." It was this perfect peace in which the Lord kept Paul and Silas when they passed the time in prison up to the midnight hour singing praises to God. All their troubles and the persecutions they had endured could not shake their solid inner quietness because they were kept by the Lord in perfect peace.

Secondly, you can be kept by the Lord in perfect peace by continuing to trust in Him. Trust in God is a steadying influence in us. It enables the Christian to keep well balanced amid the changes of life's experiences.

An old sea captain, being at sea, ran into a dreadful storm. His wife, sitting in the cabin near him, was filled with alarm for the safety of the ship. She was surprised that her husband could sit quietly by and read a book with complete composure. She said: "My dear, aren't you afraid? How can you possibly be so calm in such a terrible storm?" The officer thereupon rose from his chair, drew his revolver from his desk drawer, and pointing it at his wife, exclaimed: "Now are you afraid of me?" She said: "Of course not!" "Why?" asked the husband. "Because," replied his wife, "I know that the gun is in the hands of my husband, who loves me and will not harm me." "So," said the captain, "I also know in whom I believe; it is my heavenly Father. He who holds the wind in His hand loves me and will protect me from harm."

Trust in God is a source of peace which no one can take away from us. It is a reserve of strength to draw upon when man's enmity and adverse conditions become disturbing.

We have no word of comfort for those who are always rushing away to seek the happiness of peace in the wrong places. You can't find it in drunkenness, for instance. You need not look for it in the enjoyment of the senses. Temporary pleasure can be found in some earthly things, yes, but it is the kind of pleasure that turns to ashes on your lips and to dust in your hands. It is nothing like the deep and lasting peace the Savior gives. Don't be looking for that in the world's palaces of pleasure. There's a difference between pleasure and happiness, you know. If it's gaiety and pleasure we want, there are places where these can be bought for a price. But if it's perfect peace and lasting happiness, that inner joy and quietness and rest of soul - then go to Him who alone can give it. "Thou Lord, wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because He trusteth in Thee."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Who would guess that just out of sight there's a six-lane turnpike! Thousands of people drive past this peaceful place every day, and never know it exists. Occasionally, through a break in the sheltering trees, someone glimpses shining water and green pasture-land in the distance . . . then the road curves, and the lovely scene is forgotten.

Many travellers hurry along life's road with empty hearts and unseeing eyes, never realizing what the transforming beauty of the Christian faith could mean to them. Because they always expect to find happiness around the next bend, they overlook the still waters of spiritual peace.

In the quiet, hallowed atmosphere of the Church, God answers man's deepest needs. Through prayer and worship, our souls are strengthened and restored. And when we continue our journey, we are not alone. God is with us.

CLASS OF 1931—Howard M. Christensen, who graduated from Northville high school 34 years ago, has been named staff manager in industrial relations at Dow Coming in Midland. In his new post Christensen will coordinate industrial relations for a new plant in Kentucky and be in charge of corporate contributions, matching grants and various college and community relations programs. He graduated from Albion college in 1935.

For the Gardener

This column on gardening information is compiled by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

How to preserve flowers at their peak of beauty is something we all would like to know. Whether we want to keep flowers for a dinner party or for a future flower show, it is important that we learn how to preserve our flowers so that they will be of the finest quality at the time we want to use them.

To hold any bloom out, put the bloom in an air-tight plastic bag and store in the refrigerator. Remember, it is important that the stem not be put in water before placing in the plastic bag!

The following general practices apply to all flowers, the individual differences you will learn from a little experimentation.

Choose "show type" varieties. The texture should be smooth and heavy, the color clear and sharp. After four o'clock p.m. preferably or before ten o'clock a.m., cut the stem on a slant with a sharp knife. Have your stem as long as possible without ruining your plant.

If the flowers are damp, stand in EMPTY container and let dry completely before packing. Place flower heads together with stems in line, flat on a table so all face upward and slip a rubber band gently around stems and up to the heads of the flowers. Put another rubber band around the bottoms of stems to keep the stems straight.

Place the flowers in the bag, head first, having ample room to place another rubber band tightly around bottom of bag to keep air out. Place bag flat on a shelf in the refrigerator, seeing that the bag does not touch the side of the refrigerator so it will not freeze. Do not put in the hydrator. If you only have a few flowers in bag, blow your breath into bag to give added moisture. Do not add any other moisture!

The day before you use them, remove flowers from bag, cut one-half inch from end of stem and place in tepid (90-100 degrees) water at least six inches deep, put in cool place out of sun and drafts and let stand until ready to use.

Flowers and branches treated this way will keep in plastic bags from four to six weeks and will last two or three days when removed from bags.

NEWS FROM WILLOWBROOK

Marion Berry 474-7470
Willowbrook Community Church is holding vacation church school on July 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. on the following Sunday, July 18 there will be an outdoor worship and "sharing program" from the vacation church school. Immediately following the program, a picnic will be held for the children and their parents; outdoor games and sports are slated.

The Reverend Rickert, Pastor, Willowbrook Church, and Mrs. Bud Heard, Farmington, sponsors of the Youth Fellowship Group went with five members of this group to Alma College for their state youth convention; Gary Boyer had already been there the week of June 21.

In the past week two families moved from Willowbrook: Mr. and Mrs. William Reiss and family of West LeBost moved to Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Miklas and family of West LeBost also moved.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reid of McMahon visited their folks in Logan, Ohio, recently. Their daughter Ameda brought a friend Beverly Guess, 14, home with her. Beth also brought a friend home, Marly Rauch 13. The visitors expect to stay for the rest of the week before returning to Logan. Kathy, the eldest daughter, just graduated from Northville high. As a graduation present, she went by plane to Daytona Beach, Florida where she'll be staying about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reynolds of Hollydale went camping with a caravan of trailers to Frontier City in the Irish Hills. Kathy says it is like a town from the old west with cowboys, etc. Beth, Susie Kathy and Harvey went on a stage coach ride and were held up by bandits. The children were really in make-believe land. While the Reynolds were there the "Grand Ole Opry" was at the Frontier city and entertained the campers with music.

Mr. and Mrs. David Soule of West LeBost are the proud parents of a new baby girl, Denise Diane, born June 22 at Beaumont hospital, Royal Oak. Sarah was one of the first patients in the new maternity wing at Beaumont. Denise has two sisters: Marie 7; and Lisa, 5. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Gertrude Woerner, Grosse Pointe Woods. The paternal grandfather is Mr. Howard Soule of Fern-dale.

Bob McHale, Birmingham, celebrated his 37th birthday with his family and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mason and family of E. LeBost as guests.

Emmy Logue is here visiting her sister, Carol and the Mason family. Emmy is from Erie, Pennsylvania. The Reid girls of McMahon are showing Emmy a good time.

Mrs. Gerald Laub of McMahon last week attended funeral services for her grandfather, Mr. Frederick Sutton of London, Ontario. Mr. Sutton was 94. He was the oldest living member of the Masonic lodge in London, and was presented with his 63-year pin in 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flattery of West LeBost had an open house honoring their daughter, Jo. Close friends and relatives were guests June 20. Jo was honored on this occasion as a graduate of the class of 1965 from Northville high.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Gensing of Mallot attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miley June 19 at Toledo. The candlelight ceremony was performed at the Grace Lutheran Church. Fritz was head usher for his sister and little Fritz Carl (5 years) was the ring bearer. Grandma Gensing took care of little Mike and brought him to the reception, which was held at the church. The new-lweds are taking their honeymoon in Canada. On their return, they plan on residing and teaching in Waterford township near Pontiac.

Little Heather Andrews, two months of age, recently had a hernia operation at St. Joseph hospital, Pontiac. Heather has recovered from the surgery and is home and doing fine. Heather is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Andrews of West Ten Mile.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chapman recently attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chapman, performed in an afternoon ceremony at Glenblenne, Maryland at St. John's Catholic church. Donald is Arthur's brother. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herrman of McMahon attended an open house for her sister on June 20 at the home of Edyth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosak of Nine Mile road. This occasion was in honor of Nancy Lee Bosak's graduation from Northville High. About 50 guests attended from Garden City, Redford township, Northville, and Novi.

Marguerite Parent of E. LeBost was hostess for Wednesday bridge this week. Guest player was Linda Gensing of Mallot. Prizes were won: 1st, Dorothy Flattery; 2nd Virginia Barnes; and consolation by Marion Berry. The next evening of bridge will be at the home of Dorothy Flattery July 14.

This was the scene in Governor Romney's office at the signing of Rep. Marvin R. Stempien's bill which will permit voter approval of municipal improvements by a simple majority vote. Pictured left to right: Rep. Stempien, D., of Livonia, and three co-sponsors of the bill, Representatives James Tierney, D., of Garden City; Francis W. Beedon, D., of Muskegon, and Stanley J. Davis, D., of Grand Rapids. Pens used by the Governor became souvenirs.

Stempien Bill Eliminates 60% Vote for City Bonds

Marvin R. Stempien, 35th district state representative, has won the support of the House of Representatives, the Senate and the signature of Governor Romney for his bill which will clear the way for future progress of Michigan municipalities by eliminating a major obstacle.

"Hereafter, voter approval of bond issues for much-needed municipal improvements will require a simple majority of votes cast instead of an unrealistic 60 per cent," said Representative Stempien.

"In our Democratic system a 60 percent majority is tantamount to a landslide. This requirement has defeated many highly desirable public works programs in cities throughout the state, despite the fact that these proposals usually win majority support of civic-minded and concerned citizens.

"The inequity of the old 60 per cent theory becomes obvious when we consider that all other referendum issues, including school bonds, have always required only a majority vote for approval.

Signing of House Bill No. 2367 was witnessed by Representative Stempien and by three of the bill's co-sponsors, each of whom received pens used by Governor Romney in attaching his signature.

From Out Of The Past

ONE YEAR AGO

James Kipter was elected president of the Northville Board of Education this week.

Some 350 exchange students are expected next week in Northville as part of the Rotary club's annual farewell event.

Northville high school cheerleaders brought home a trophy this week for the fifth consecutive year. The group placed fourth in competition with 175 girls. The girls were Kathy Bishop, Joanne Brevik, Sandy Parmenter, Susie Hill, Penny Peterson and Judy Imsland. Joanne also captured second place honors for individual cheerleading.

The recreation department will hold its annual turtle race Tuesday.

Two new recreation facilities were opened last weekend in Northville. They are Brook Lane golf course on Sheldon and Six Mile, and the "Whistle Stop" miniature golf course on Seven Mile.

There has been a terrific run on books since the Northville library moved into its new location in the city hall building. Cole's Circus performed at Ford Field last Monday. The evening show was a sell-out. Leo Harwood is the new president of Novi Rotary. He succeeds Judge Robert Anderson.

FIVE YEARS AGO

sponsored a mystery bus trip last week. A total of 23 people from the Novi area attended and went to Canada.

Five Northville high school cheerleaders captured the title of grand champion at Camp All-American at Hartland last week. The winners are seniors Recena Bailey and Corrine Bertoni, juniors Linda Deal and Susan Pharo and sophomore Vicki Stroh.

With three children bitten and close to a dozen dog complaints received in recent weeks, Novi police issued a warning to parents to keep their children away from stray dogs.

Reverend Marvin Rickert, pastor of the Willowbrook Community church has been elected president of the Novi Rotary club.

Lt. Gov. John Swainson carried his campaign for governor into Oakland county last week. He visited at the gates of the Lincoln Wxom plant Tuesday. More than 120 foreign exchange students from all over Michigan will gather in Northville Wednesday to attend the Rotary-sponsored farewell event.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO Charles Carrington was named commander of the Northville American Legion.

Starting Wednesday, the Northville Recreation committee plans to have a fish day each week. All Northville children are welcome to attend and the necessary equipment will be furnished by the recreation committee.

Pamela Parmenter, six-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Parmenter of Eaton Drive, celebrated her birthday with a party at her house. Attending were Murella LeFevre, Judy Stumm, Heidi Handorf, Laurie Chabot, Kathy Lee and Donna Loton.

The local branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will meet for their annual picnic next Monday at the home of Mrs. William B. Walker, East Eight Mile road.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Henry Ford, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Capt. Eddie V. Rickenbacker visited the Northville Ford valve plant Thursday. The three expressed their approval of the condition of the plant and grounds. Mr. Ford spent sometime explaining the power plant engine to Mr. Lindbergh.

A new record has been set by Brookwood Rita, a two and one-half year old Guernsey cow owned by Mrs. E. M. Bricker of Northville. Her official record is 16,580.5 pounds of milk and 918.4 pounds of butter fat.

Members of the Northville Rotary club, their families and friends will join in a picnic next Thursday at Cass Benton park. Floyd Northup and Don Yerkes are the committeemen in charge of the event.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

IT'S A WEEK FOR THIS AND THAT: Like the barber the other day saying that he thinks the city ought to either drill another well or hook the city's water system into the Old Spring.

"It's an attraction that's been in Northville so long that we shouldn't let it dry up," he pointed out between clips.

My time in the barber chair is relatively short these days, so there wasn't time to develop the subject further.

But the idea sounds reasonable. How about it, Mayor Mike?

The flags were flying July 4 in Northville, but there was something missing. No bands, baton twirlers, drum and bugle corps or marching soldiers. No floats, no carnival, no ice cream, no ball games.

Thanks to the Jaycees there were fireworks.

I understand that next year the Jaycees hope to again sponsor an all-out July Fourth celebration.

I hope this is true. Northville should join the thousands of communities throughout the United States that pause to celebrate in the old-fashioned, traditional way that most of us can remember as youngsters.

It's better than a history lesson. It's an impression that youngsters won't forget. July Fourth means something to Americans. It's the day in 1776 that our forefathers declared our independence.

Freedom and independence — both for nations and individuals — is still something pretty unique. We shouldn't start taking it for granted.

POOL PUZZLE — Now that the board of education has the O.K. to spend up to $500,000 for a swimming pool, the question arises, where should it be located?

The architect says it would be more costly to build it as an addition to the high school ... about $100,000 more. This means that a pool at the high school would be equivalent to a pool constructed as a part of the junior high school that would cost $400,000.

Or, looking at it another way, a $500,000 pool at the junior high school would have $100,000 more in facilities (stands, lockers, showers, etc.) than a pool in the high school.

Would the pool serve more youngsters at the high school than the junior high? If in 10 years we need another junior high school will we need to include another pool?

Or can the new junior high school be constructed in such a way that the pool is easily accessible from the nearby high school?

School board members and administrators must come up with the answers? Any suggestions from the taxpayers?

FUN WITH FIGURES — Determine your friend's age as well as the amount of change under one dollar that he has in his pocket in seven easy steps. Have him do the figuring and ask him to —

1. Multiply his age by 2.
2. Add the number of fingers on his right hand — 5.
3. Multiply by 50.
4. Add the amount of change under one dollar that he has in his pocket — ?.
5. Add the number of fingers on his left hand — 5.
6. Subtract the number of days in a year — 365.
7. Add 110 to this total.

The first two numbers of the total will be his age; the last two numbers will be the amount of change in his pocket.

Romney Boasts Milliken as Successor

LANSING — Lieutenant Governor of Michigan has been a stepping-stone position in the past and incumbent William G. Milliken hopes to continue the tradition.

The three men who preceded Milliken in office since 1955 have each stepped into higher posts: Philip A. Hart to the U.S. Senate; John B. Swainson to the governor's chair and then a court post; T. John Lesinski to the new State Court of Appeals.

Milliken, at 43, reportedly is Gov. George Romney's choice for the next GOP chief executive. Even when the Traverse City businessman first came into the State Senate it was reported he had his sights on the governor's chair.

Now in the No. 2 spot, perhaps largely by virtue of the Constitutional change which elected the governor and Lieutenant governor as a ticket, Milliken is trying to keep his public image good and clear.

His office has taken to publication of a periodical entitled "Dateline Lansing" which details his activities in addition to the standard job of presiding over the Senate.

The first edition published in May noted his first five months in office involved speeches to "many thousands of persons" and traveling more than 14,000 miles on state business.

His public exposure has been enhanced by the governor's frequent trips outside the state and Milliken's resulting assignment to many local activities where the chief executive's presence is requested.

Specialized police works rapidly becoming a reality, unheard of only a few years ago.

The use of lie detectors has required an expertly trained police officer for several years. Most often, however, the lie detector expert has worked in an ordinary job within his department.

Within the past five years or so another class of specialists has been added to the state police organization. The use of tracking dogs also necessitated training men to efficiently handle the animals in seeking to find missing persons, evidence or criminals.

The miles and miles of waterways in Michigan also creates the need for still other experts within state police and local law enforcement agencies.

Several sheriff's departments throughout the state now have specifically trained boating patrols on busy, large lakes and rivers. State police maintain several teams of skindiving experts at various posts.

The latter, given the title of underwater recovery teams, are volunteers drawn from within the state police ranks who train at a water-filled clay pit near Williamston diving as deep as 100 feet.

Use of the teams is primarily to recover bodies, cars, weapons and evidence.

Underwater recovery teams, just like the lie detector experts, remain permanently assigned to regular police duties. But it appears there may be a day soon when these and the dog trackers and boat patrol units will be fulltime specialists within the broad law enforcement organization in Michigan.

Precedence went by the boards recently when the State Board of Education issued a policy statement that teachers have the right to strike the same as do other workers.

"We would hope that no teacher group in the state or nation would resort to this means except as a last resort, but they should have the same right as any other citizen," said a board spokesman.

Prior to the board decision, teachers were deemed included under the Hutchinson Act, which calls for the firing of the public employees involved in a strike. The board said this act should be repealed.

Presumably the board considered the idea that the educator teacher and local boards of education will properly weigh the various problems in any given labor dispute.

Responsibilities come with all rights. Many teachers now feel the responsibilities placed upon them have long outweighed their rights where local education policies are concerned.

Salary compensation and fringe benefits are not the only areas in which teachers have occasionally complained although these do lead the list. Overbearing boards of education and overly heavy teaching loads have also resulted in a good share of teacher-community problems.

Since the State Board of Education's statement appeared designed primarily to give teachers more leverage in employee-employer disputes, it is to be hoped the policy will serve just this purpose. If the statement of policy is used as a blackjack, it would appear the board's philosophy will have been misinterpreted.

Review Your Will

Babson Park, Mass. — As we pointed out last week in this column, it is thoughtless and unfair for any person, whether of moderate or extensive means, to put off making a will. Much pain and confusion can beset one's heirs and family in case of death, if one's estate is not clearly allocated. Death—whether we like it or not—is one of the inevitable facts of life. And in this day of 70 mph speed limits on the highway and the feverish pace of every-day existence, sudden and unexpected death strikes too often.

Have your lawyer draw up your will with one carbon. The original should be signed, sealed, and placed in your safe deposit box for safe-keeping. Your duplicate copy may best be kept in an easily available place so that you may review its contents periodically. It should, of course, not be signed.

Most people should read over their wills at least once a year. If your holdings increase, you will undoubtedly wish to raise the provisions for your church and perhaps some of your favorite charities. Also, you may find there are surprising changes in estate assets; and, too, you may wish to make changes in potential beneficiaries. This is another important reason why you should make periodic revision of your will a significant part of your estate planning.

Choose your own executor, rather than have some judge appoint an executor who will almost certainly have less genuine interest in your affairs. He may be chosen in the original will or in the last codicil. But even your executor need not know what is in your will until it becomes his business after your death.

If there is a major change to be made in your will it will be better to have your lawyer draw up a new will and destroy your present will. If, however, your present will is quite complete as it is written by you, it may be better to let it stand as it is and have your lawyer draw a codicil covering what you wish added or altered.

A codicil is an amendment or change in the provisions of the original will.

When making a will, you can leave your executor certain powers to be sold or other complicated matters to take care of. Court liquidation could mean disposal of property without sufficient time for proper appraisal. It could also mean selling during a depression or in some period of local dislocation. Therefore, the judgment of a friendly executor may well save your estate thousands of dollars. A will also enables you to give personal effects to whomever you wish.

During the time of settlement your wife and children could be without funds for ordinary living expenses. Through a will or a codicil you can give your executor the power to pay out to your wife and/or children so much per month until final settlement is made. In case of illness or other emergencies, extra outlays may be made possible at the discretion of your executor.

Do not forget, too, that court disbursement of your estate could involve advertising for heirs and the appearance on the scene of unknown claimants you would not want as beneficiaries. Your own executor can make certain that your enumerated heirs get what you want them to have, particularly if he has the authority to divide property, investments, and other assets at their fair evaluation without going through the long process of reducing everything to cash before final distribution. By will, you can leave money in trust if you desire—so that your wife, brother or sister, or any chosen beneficiary can receive the income for life, and subsequent disposition can be made of the property in any way you may wish.

Above all, remember: A regular ritual of reviewing your will—perhaps on your birthday—could prevent the misfortune of "not getting around to" changes you really want to make.
