When the Fish Hatchery was a tourist attraction, it looked like this. Game fish filled the ponds and visitors would stroll the grounds observing the many varieties.

Fish Hatchery Days Down to Final Few

The Northville Fish Hatchery, a landmark in Northville since 1891, will be defunct sometime in September or October, it has been predicted.

That's when the Fisheries' division will leave Northville for a new home in Ann Arbor, Melvin Johnson, supply officer for the United States Bureau of Commercial Fisheries in Ann Arbor, reported last week.

What then will become of the hatchery with its 15 acres?

Time will tell. But Johnson, after some conjecture, doubts very seriously whether it will be put to use by any other government agency. "What can they use it for?" he asked rhetorically. "It would require a lot of fixing up," he said.

When it was first disclosed April 9 of last year that the hatchery would be vacated, both the city and township expressed interest in obtaining the site. About 10 acres lies in Northville township and five in the city.

It was also considered as a possible site for construction of a school by the Northville school board, but architects advised that it would not be suitable grounds.

Neither the city nor the township has indicated what plans, if any, they might have for the property.

There is an official government procedure, however, for disposition of the property.

When the move to Ann Arbor is completed, it will become available to any other department of interior agency. Here Johnson said, "It's doubtful any other agency would occupy it."

In this eventuality, the General Services Administration would take over the hatchery on paper and dispose of it. What that means only officials in Washington would know.

At any rate, a definite answer to the fate of the hatchery will be forthcoming, so says Johnson, when all the operations have been moved.

Included in the hatchery property, located at 767 Fairbrook, are two buildings and several ponds on the south side of Seven Mile road and two houses and another pond on the north side.

Ever since the government purchased the parcel in 1891 from Cold Springs Cream and Butter company until 1957, it had been a bee hive of life, both as a tourist attraction and as spawning grounds for game fish. After 1957 until recently it was used for research activities.

Downs Betting Booms

Business continues to boom at Northville Downs.

A new betting record was set for the second successive week last Saturday night.

On July 3 fans topped the $400,000 betting mark here for the first time with $401,121.

Last Saturday night 8,449 fans wagered $429,602.

The average mutuel handle through the first 18 nights of the 39-night summer meet stands at $291,815, also a record.

Total mutuel handle to date has been $5,252,667, while the total attendance mark is 89,273.

Betting is up 7.3 per cent over last year and attendance 9.2 per cent.

Merchants Meet

The Northville retail merchants division of the chamber of commerce will meet at eight o'clock tonight at the basement office of the Detroit Federal Savings.

Topic for discussion by the merchants will be an August sidewalk sale promotion.

Farnum, Griffiths, Vivian Head Postal Dedication

Northville's new post office, in operation since June, will be formally dedicated Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony will begin at 2 p.m.

Postmaster John Steimel said that local, state and national dignitaries will be on hand for the event.

They are Congressmen Billie Farnum and Weston Vivian, Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, State Representative Marvin

Stempien, Northville Mayor A. M. Allen and Northville Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam. (Eight pages of this week's Record are devoted to the post office dedication. See Section C)

Donald L. Swanson, regional director of the Chicago office of the U.S. post office, will be the main speaker. He is responsible for the operation of postal service to 16,000,000 people.

Swanson is well-known in Michigan. Earlier, he served as secretary-general manager of the state fair for six years and was the mayor of Southfield for three years.

In addition, Mrs. Griffiths and Farnum will talk and then present an American flag to be flown at the new post office, 200 West Cady.

Music at the program will be provided by the Northville high school band. The Reverend Father John Wittstock will give the invocation and Reverend S. D. Kinde the benediction.

Northville Councilman John Canterbury heads the dedication committee.

The dedication caps several years of efforts to secure a new post office facility. Shortly after Postmaster General John A. Gronouski took office three years ago he announced plans for a new post office in Northville.

Originally appointed by the late President John F. Kennedy, Gronouski was re-appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson and was sworn in February 19, 1965.

Swanson will represent Gronouski at the ceremony.

Once Gronouski made the announcement, months of search for a suitable site followed before the Cady-Wing street location was selected.

Proponents of the Cady-Wing location said it helped to complete and complement a complex of government units in the area. The Northville Municipal building and the recreation building are located nearby. All are colonial-styled.

Construction of the post office was finished after a long delay. Originally it was scheduled to open in the fall of 1964.

Apartment Complex To Cost $8 Million

Although still on the drafting board, a proposed apartment development on 47 acres of property on Northville road is envisioned as a "luxurious" complex of 450-500 units.

They were described as "town houses, beautifully designed" by Mandell Berman, vice president of the Bert L. Smokler company of Detroit, developers of the project.

Estimated cost of the completed project is between $7,500,000 and $8,000,000 each unit costing approximately $17,000. Berman predicted that the first building of apartments would be open for sale or rent next spring.

Exact location of the site is between Northville road and Hines drive across from the root beer stand.

Each two-story building will house four to eight apartments, and all of the one, two and three bedroom apartments will have over 1,000 feet of living space.

Besides the apartment facilities, Berman said that there would be a large community building or clubhouse and swimming pool.

Whether the apartments would be for rent or sale depends on the market.

"We will build in sections," Berman said. "We will build one section and rent or sell depending on the market. The results of the market survey will determine what shifts will be made in further developing the project."

Berman lauded township officials for their enthusiastic acceptance of the project, but said his firm was now in the process of working out planning problems.

There are two problems immediately facing Smokler planners - securing water and gaining access to the apartments.

"We are surrounded on three sides by the park which is controlled by the Wayne County road commission," he pointed out. The only access we have so far is Northville road."

He indicated that getting water was an expensive proposition. At present there is not enough water pressure, Berman said, but headway was made on securing a source of water when the road commission recently okayed an easement from Sheldon road across the parkway to the site, he added.

A third plan will be completed soon by Smokler architects and engineers and submitted to company officials for approval; two sketches have already been thrown away, Berman noted.

Ever since the company purchased the property and approached township officials a few months ago with plans for development, all municipal obstacles have been cleared.

First order of business was the rezoning of the 47 acres from M-1 to R-4 in the township's May 4 meeting. Then recently permission was given by the road commission granting a water easement across the park.

Engineer L. W. Mosher is determining costs of the proposed installation.

School Board Hires Expert To Save Interest on Bonds

A securities specialist has been hired by the Northville board of education to market the district's $3.3 million bond issue.

Robert Russell, representing First of Michigan Corporation, will be retained on a fee not to exceed $5,000.

First of Michigan Corporation is the 17th largest bond house in the U. S.

The board will meet tonight in special session with Russell to consider a debt payment timetable for the bonds and a resolution to put the bonds up for sale. At the same time the board will decide where to locate the new swimming pool.

Voters in the Northville school district approved June 14 an issue for $2.8 million for a building program and $500,000 to construct a swimming pool.

The board agreed to hire Russell Monday night. Russell's main task is to save the district money on interest over the 25-year lifetime of the bonds.

Russell indicated that he could pare interest expenses for the district. This would be achieved by starting an "accelerated" principle retirement program.

Usually, a school district, like a homeowner, makes heavy payments on its debt in the first few years while little is applied towards the principle.

Under Russell's plan, the Northville school district would speed up its interest payments while the amount applied towards the principal remains constant.

"This makes good sense," Russell told the board "and it will save you money."

Russell urged the board to tap the state school bond loan fund to meet its obligation. The board said it planned to do this.

About 12 mills would be spread to cover the building program. The school district must levy seven mills but can "borrow" anything above seven mills from the state to meet its annual payment."

Before the new state constitution was adopted, Russell said the loan fund was limited to $100 million annually. Now no limit is imposed.

Russell added that the state has charged interest ranging "from zero to 2.25%" in the past.

In relation to the building program, Superintendent Alex Nelson said he will make a recommendation tonight on the location for the swimming pool.

Two possibilities exist. It could be part of the new junior high school or else be built at the high school.

In other business, the board: -Hired Mrs. Charles Castillo as a sixth grade teacher at the junior high.

-Approved an anticipatory tax loan of $225,000 from Manufacturers National Bank at an interest rate of 1.9%.

-Okayed the purchase of state of Michigan flags to be flown at all school sites as recommended by the superintendent.

-Considered cost of repairing sidewalks at the junior high. This will appear on tonight's agenda.

Appeal Board Hears Gravel Bid Tonight

Northville township's board of appeals will meet tonight at eight o'clock to consider a request by the city of Detroit to excavate gravel on a 12-acre parcel on its Maybury Sanatorium property.

In other recent requests Northville township has looked with disfavor on such mining requests, particularly in residential areas, on the basis that the operation creates a nuisance.

Representatives of the city of Detroit are expected to present their proposal to the three-member appeals board at tonight's meeting but it is unlikely that an immediate decision will be rendered.

Treasurer Alex Lawrence, Bernard Baldwin and John Miller serve on the township's board of appeals.

Local Man Killed In Car Crash

A Northville man, driving without an operator's license, was killed instantly last Friday morning when the car he was driving in Cass Benton park suddenly flipped over several times and threw him approximately 150 feet.

The victim, Roger W. Lanstra, 30, of 502 Grace, was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident at 10:07 a.m. Employed at Foundry Flask and Equipment company, he was the father of three children.

Lanstra was traveling east on Edward Hines drive one-half mile from the Northville entrance when he apparently lost control, sheriff deputies reported.

A witness, Lester Beckwith of Detroit, saw the accident from a vantage point on top of an adjacent hill where he was relaxing.

"I heard a terrific noise, then I saw a car rolling over and over," he said. "The car cartwheeled right down the road around five times," he exclaimed, "and the body was thrown around 150 feet when the car stopped."

He then stated that "apparently speed had a lot to do with it, the way it looked."

Sheriff's deputies found no identification on the body, and traced Lanstra through fingerprints.

Police reported that Lanstra was on parole at the time of the accident, having served just over one year of a one to five year sentence for unlawfully driving away an automobile.

A Michigan State parole official stated that Lanstra had purchased a car and was driving it without permission at the time of the accident. He further stated that Lanstra had been warned not to drive.

He had called Foundry Flask early Friday morning, saying he would not be in to work because one of his children was ill, it was reported.

The car shown above flipped over several times before throwing the victim's mutilated body (right) 150 feet along the roadside.

FACELIFT FOR MAIN STREET-For a brief interval Monday afternoon traffic abandoned Northville's Main street between Center and Hutton. Paving had just been completed. The new coat of asphalt now extends from Rogers to Hutton on Main. Work is being completed on Dunlap this week. Resurfacing will then be undertaken on Rogers and Thayer.

Yearly Picnic Well Attended

Mrs. William B. Walker greeted nearly 50 members of the Northville branch Woman's National Farm and Garden association at her home on 3990 East Eight Mile road Monday.

The club gathered for its annual picnic which closes the year's activities until September.

The picnic tables beside the gardens and swimming pool were decorated with baskets of daisies. Mrs. Donald Ware and Mrs. James Kipfer made the arrangements.

The luncheon at noon featured specialty dishes brought by the members.

Following a short business meeting conducted by president Mrs. John Begle, the members made colorful swans of net and ribbon.

It was announced at the meeting that the first event of the new season will be a flower show for members only held in September. Details will be announced later.

Father Drowns in View Of His Daughter and Son

A 39-year-old Green Oak township man drowned in a lake bordering his property Saturday afternoon shortly after disciplining his six-year-old son, who was boating.

James Henry Scroggins, 8015

Maltby road, near Brighton, was lost to the waters of Wells Lake within full view of son James and 15-year-old daughter Shirley. The three had been picnicking on shore.

A neighbor, Carl Eldred, 324 North First street, was credited by investigating state police troopers with a commendable life saving attempt. He swam in the area Scroggins was last seen for 10 minutes, found the body, swam to shore and applied artificial respiration until police arrived.

Livingston county medical examiner Dr. B. N. Shertzer, Howell, pronounced the father dead of drowning when efforts to revive him failed.

According to the account given police, Scroggins had just finished a meal when he swam out to the boat to spank his six-year-old. He then swam around the boat. His daughter told police she saw him go under the surface three times from her position on shore.

The lake is about 70 yards north of Maltby road.

Brighton Post state police said they have had a drowning almost every weekend in the Brighton area, which is dotted with numerous lakes.

BEST DRESSED—These three Novi junior high school cheerleaders won an award for being the best-dressed cheerleaders at Camp All-American held at Walden Woods near Brighton recently. The girls are Pat Ling, Kathy Winner and Laura Beadle.

The Appeal Board minutes of June 17th and the Planning Commission minutes of June 22nd and 29th, 1965, were discussed and accepted. Correspondence: The following were read by the clerk

1. Letter from Northville Ins. Agency and refunded check for 15% of the premium Alex M. Lawrence's $50,000 bond taken in April 1963.

2. Letter from Wayne County Board of Supervisors Re: Establishing a procedure for holding regular meetings of the Coordinating Council and cost of a Special.

3. Letter from State Representative Stempien advising that House Bill 2731 granting Northville Township an easement across Northville State Hospital property had been signed by the Governor and given immediate effect.

4. Letter from Mr. Leonard Klein accepting his appointment to the Planning Commission.

5. Report from Constable M. R. Mitchell Re: Woodchuck which he had delivered to Herman Kelfer Hospital for rabies check as requested by township.

Old Business:

1. Clerk Young read letter from Robert M. Montgomery, Director of Elections of the State of Michigan, addressed to Mr. Edward Draugelis, stating that Mr. Draugelis's opinion given to the Township Board on June 1, 1965, was correct and that the additional trustees cannot be elected until the next regular township election. 2. Clerk Young read letter from C. Harold Bloom Agency advising the cost of the Township Comprehensive Commercial Policy with increased liability to 100,000 - 300,000 and including the new 3,000 gallon tanker. The cost was compared with previous policy cost and accepted 3. Contracts with City of Northville Supervisor Merriam stated that he had met with Mayor Allen and Mr. Canterbury regarding the library, sanitary landfill and fire department rent contracts. Mr. Canterbury was of the opinion that the Township had these figures for sometime but in finding this not so, directed Mr. Ogilvie to meet with the township's attorney, Mr. Draugelis, and work out the contracts.

Mr. Draugelis informed the board that he had met with Mr. Ogilvie once and after investigating, was of the opinion that the library contract was acceptable. The sanitary landfill and fire department rent contracts were still pending as he was asking Mr. Ogilvie for one or two minor changes. There was a meeting scheduled for Thursday, July 8th with Mr. Ogilvie at which time Mr. Draugelis thought the contracts could be completed. He said he would have them drafted and ready for the township board's approval at the next board meeting.

New Business:

1. Treasurer Lawrence informed the board that the Water & Sewer Commission balance would permit a $5,000 payment to the General Fund on loan made to the Water & Sewer Commission at the time of its formation. He recommended that the money be returned and that he be allowed to invest this $5,000 in a Certificate of Deposit.

Tellam moved, supported by Tyler, that $5,000 of Water & Sewer Commission money be paid back to the General Fund and the money be invested in a Certificate of deposit. Yeas: All. Motion carried.

2. Young moved, supported by Lawrence, that Supervisor Merriam be authorized to sign the State of Michigan Highway Department's "Memorandum of Understanding" Yeas: All. Motion carried.

3. Tyler moved, supported by Tellam, that Resolution #65-7 authorizing Louis H. Funk Wayne County Treasurer, to act as representative and agent of the township of Northville in requesting the Department of Conservation to withhold from auction sale any state acquired properties in Northville township and enable the owner of such to apply for a reconveyance under the provisions of Section 131C, Act 206, Public Acts of 1893, as amended, be adopted. Yeas: All. Motion carried.

4. Remington typewriter service contract cost was discussed. Decision reached - When recently purchased Remington was one year old, consideration would be given to putting both Remington typewriters under service contract.

5. Supervisor Merriam informed the board of the progress of the newly rezoned R-4.47 acre parcel on Northville road, stating that the builders were planning on building one unit of apartments plus a swimming pool and recreation center to start. The Wayne County Road Commission had given approval of an easement across Cass Benton Park to construct a water line from Sheldon road to the property and that study was being made by Mosher Associates on cost of this line. If the cost proved to be prohibitive, the developers will put in Plymouth water until such time as Northville township is able to put a water line down Northville road and furnish Detroit water. There will be only one meter on this property since the developers plan on furnishing water to the residents.

6. Supervisor Merriam advised the board that the Business Manager of Maybury Sanatorium had been in the office and filled out a request to remove sand and gravel from the Maybury Sanatorium property. He had been turned down by the building inspector and had requested a hearing by the Zoning Board of Appeals. Before a hearing would be held, Maybury would be requested to furnish plans, a plat map, etc.

7. Trustee Tellam advised that he had been approached by concerned residents as to Police protection for the township. He proposed that a committee be appointed to study all possibilities and their findings be presented to the people for their consideration. Supervisor Merriam agreed with Mr. Tellam that a study should be made. After further discussion, Mr. Tellam said he would draft objectives for committee consideration and names would be submitted for the committee appointments at the August board meeting.

No further business, Tyler moved for adjournment. Meeting was adjourned at 9:38 p.m.

Dan Brown to Tour With 'M' in Europe

Dan Brown, Northville's contribution to the University of Michigan basketball squad, will join his teammates next month in an exhibition junket through Near Eastern and European countries.

Dan Brown

Billed as a "goodwill tour" sponsored by the United States department of state, the tour will take 10 members of last year's team to four countries, including Egypt August 1-7, Turkey August 8-15, Greece August 16-21 and Algeria August 22-29. "They will play exhibition contests and participate in clinics," Les Etter, university sports publicity director said. "It is not a regularly scheduled game tour," he pointed out.

As a result, there will be no pre-tour practice, but there are plenty of preliminaries to take care of before the team leaves New York City July 31 by plane, bound for Cairo.

The state department is presently preparing advanced publicity, primarily the translation of information into five languages and other dialects.

In the meantime, team players are busy lining up inoculations and preparing information for visas. They will meet July 30 for a state department briefing.

Six-five Brown, a senior next year in the school of architecture and design, has been a member of the squad for two years.

He has seen spot action on Michigan's Big Ten championship teams of 1963 and 1964. Last year he made a brief appearance in the NCAA tourney at Seattle, where Michigan finished second nationally behind UCLA.

The son of Dr. and Mrs. Philip Brown of 39450 Haggerty Court, Dan was a three-letter man at Northville high school. He led the 1962 prep cagers to the Wayne-Oakland Conference title and into the quarter finals of the state tourney.

Disagreeing, but not too much, is Rick Bingley at the bat as recreation worker Steve Evans calls a strike. Bob Shaffer is the catcher.

Yankee captain and pitcher Gary Allen displays big league form.

It's all in the game—an adjustment of catcher's equipment, that is. Here Dave Jerome fixes Rick Bell's knee guard. Rick plays for the Dodgers.

Lots of Fun, Runs, Errors in Knothole

In Knothole softball or baseball anything can and usually does happen on the diamond.

There may be as many as 34 runs, 23 errors, six home runs—all in one game—or any other combination of runs, hits and errors.

It's understandable, however, for softball is the bottom rung of organized recreation ball for local youngsters, ages seven through nine.

Knothole baseball is one notch higher; boys 10 to 14 get into the act. But it's still sandlot ball in the elementary stages.

All the youngsters approach the game with a seriousness, playing it for all they are worth. And yet it's fun. For seven innings, the knotholes vent their energies while learning the points of the game. That's why the game can take sudden turns.

Almost as quickly, there can be a change in the standings.

As a result of last week's play, for instance, there was a shakeup in the standings. No team bounced from the bottom to the top, but there were significant changes.

Still holding on to first place in the Knothole softball loop were the Clippers, who posted two victories recently to up their record to 4-0.

Bob Strange was the big cog in the attack.

First, he banged three singles in his team's 6-3 victory over the Bears, July 6. Team-mate Wally Read, with a hot bat, stroked two doubles. Then last Thursday, Strange came through with two more singles to pace his mates to a 13-1 trouncing of the Cubs.

The Lions put out with a loud roar, moving past the Tigers into second place with a 3-0 slate. They upended the Tigers July 6 in a showdown battle, 7-5, coming back July 8 to whitewash the Colts, 11-0.

After posting two opening triumphs, one by a 31-3 score, the Tigers dropped the net to the Lions and, in turn, dropped into third place with a 2-1 record. All other teams are below the 500 mark as of last Thursday's contests.

The Colts are 1-2, losing their only outing to the Lions.

The Panthers and Cubs are deadlocked for fifth place with records of 1-3. Winless before, each won one and lost one. The Cubs blanked the Panthers, 11-0, and lost to the Clippers.

In a closely played tilt, the Panthers' Steve Anderson knocked in the winning run with a long double. Earlier he banged out a triple and single in an 8-7 victory over the Bears last Thursday.

Anchored in the cellar are the Bears, who are still looking for their first win after dropping three.

Indians Lead Loop

In Knothole baseball, the Indians took over sole possession of first place. They have a 3-0 slate.

They clobbered the Yankees July 9, 13-2, with Pitcher Rick Baldwin striking out 11, walking four and allowing only three hits.

Without playing a game last week, the Angels held onto second place at 2-0.

Just behind the Angels are the Giants with a record of 2-1. Formerly undefeated, the Giants dropped their only outing, 6-1, to the Athletics. Athletic twirler Rick Moore set them down by striking out 13 and walking six. Moore also got two singles.

In third place are the Dodgers with a 2-2 record. The Pavers topped them, 11-8, in an upset. The Pavers, now 1-2, had dropped two previous decisions by substantial margins.

They and the Athletics are tied for fourth place with identical records.

All alone in last place is the winless Yankees, 0-4.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Are You The Romantic Type?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

Based on the personality studies done by Professor L. Gross of the University of Buffalo, the following statements will help you to determine whether you are an emotional iceberg or the valentine type . . . or an inbetween . . . when it comes to romance. Answer the sentences true or false as you see them.

- |   | TRUE | FALSE |
|---|------|-------|
| 1. There is no place for jealousy where there is real love.   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 2. In the life of each person there is never more than one great love.  | ( )  | ( )   |
| 3. "Love conquers all." (Social differences, parental objections, etc.)   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 4. A woman should expect her husband or lover to be gallant at all times.   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 5. In a real "love-marriage" there are no disillusionments.   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 6. When people are truly in love, they tell each other everything about their past, their thoughts, their hopes.                            | ( )  | ( )   |
| 7. The feminine type of woman makes a better mate than the down-to-earth, practical wife.   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 8. When people are in love, they are so well suited that there are never any disagreements.   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 9. "Absence makes the heart grow fonder."   | ( )  | ( )   |
| 10. A person who is truly in love will show it by always remembering birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions with gifts, cards, etc. | ( )  | ( )   |
| 11. Love should be expressed . . . even if it is contrary to the moral standards of your community or associates.                           | ( )  | ( )   |
| 12. Economic security bears little or no relationship to a happy marriage, provided both mates are deeply in love.                          | ( )  | ( )   |

SCORING: Give yourself 1 point for each TRUE.

ANALYSIS: 10 to 12 points: You are a walking example of a "hopeless romanticist." You are unrealistic and have your eyes so much on the stars that you are likely to stub your toe. Better start using your eyes and not your heart. Take three happily married couples you ACTUALLY know (not story-book characters) and apply this set of questions to them. You'll be surprised!

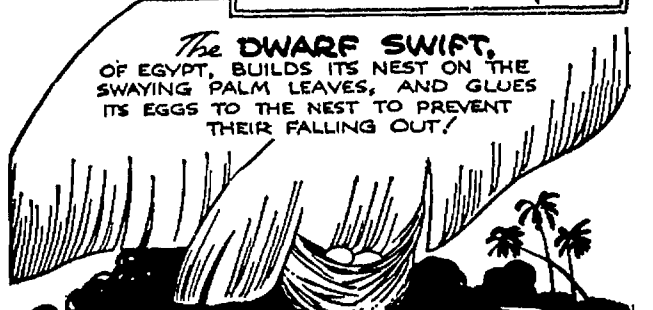

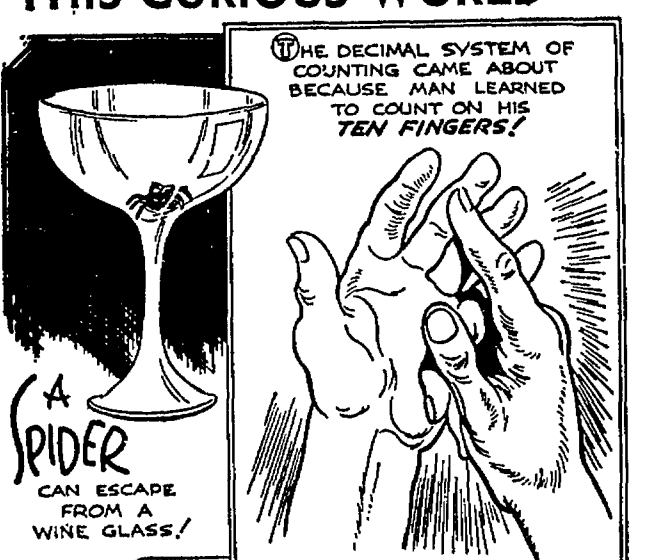

6 to 9 points: You are romantically inclined, but you are saved by practicality on many counts. Just be careful that some flight of fancy under a full moon in June (or any other month) doesn't land you in trouble, romantically speaking.

1 to 6 points: Your head rules your heart. You may get a kick out of a hearts-and-flowers movie, but you take a cool, clear look at your date on the way out. If you follow your good sense, it is unlikely you will be disillusioned in matters of love.

0 points: You are practicality and no monkey-business. You are the type who calls a spade a dirty old shovel. You may be surprised but you're seldom disappointed.

(It has been found on this test that men usually rate less romantic and more practical than women. If this is true in your case, don't worry; it's just one of the differences between the sexes.)

THIS CURIOUS WORLD®

FIVE MILE BOUND—Contractors extending the Detroit water line from Baseline road in the city of Northville to Five Mile and Sheldon road were approaching Six Mile road this week. When the installation is complete to Five Mile, the crews will return to the city and connect the line from Fairbrook at Center (Sheldon) to a point just south of Seven Mile road on Sheldon. The work from Fairbrook south was discontinued when the races started at Northville Downs June 21. It cannot be resumed until after the summer meet closes August 4.

Set Hearing for Lumber Yard

A public hearing will be held August 23 to consider a zoning change on 10 Mile road so a lumber yard can be established. Albino Fuoco asked the Novi planning board Monday night for the change from a residential to a restricted manufacturing zone (M-2) on 14 acres of his property.

Plan Swim Program

A swimming program is being eyed for Wixom youngsters.

Recreation Director Tom Burke approached the city council Tuesday night and upwards of $60 was appropriated for a pool rental for two nights.

Burke will test the youngster's reaction to such a program. It would be offered at a day camp at West and Beck roads.

Although council has consented to underwrite the project, an admission fee of 25 cents likely will be charged. The pool will cost $30 each night.

Dates for the swimming experiment will be announced later, Burke said.

If the program works out, Burke said that since the pool at the day camps small classes for different age groups would be set up.

Burke hopes at least 120 local youngsters turn out. At a quarter a head, the rental fee would be covered.

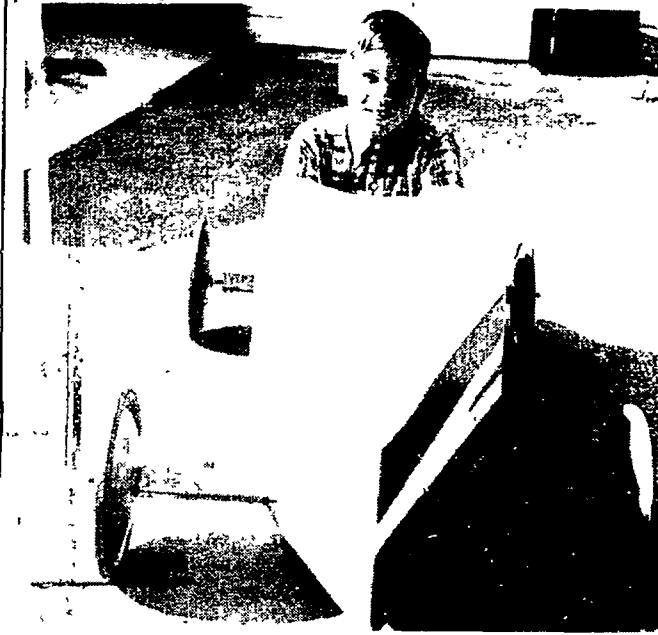

Members of the parks and recreation committee and other adults would supervise during the instruction periods.

New Look

The Novi community building will soon have a "new look". The township board Monday night approved the purchase of metal awnings for the building at a cost of $597.50.

BALLOON WINNERS—These five youngsters were the winners of the Northville merchant-sponsored balloon contest. Balloons with numbers inside were dropped from an airplane Sunday and prizes were awarded on the basis of the highest numbers turned in to participating stores Monday night. Pictured (l. to r.) are: Barry Deal, who won fourth prize, flight instruction; Randy Marburger, fifth prize, drill; Fred McLean of the Spinning Wheel, one of the sponsoring merchants; Susan Olewnik, third prize, tape recorder; Fred Kester from the sponsoring D&C store; Pat Caley, first prize, radio; and Rick Bell, second prize, bicycle. Other sponsoring merchants besides Spinning Wheel and D&C were Del's Shoes, Lapham's, Northville Hardware, Schrader's, Noder's Jewelry, Freydl's, Alice Rebecca, Stone's, Northville Drug, Cloverdale Farms Dairy and Gunsell Drugs.

READY TO ROLL—Crouched behind the wheel of his sleek racer, Brad Cole will represent Northville Saturday as he competes in the Soap Box Derby in Detroit. Brad is the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole of 356 Fairbrook. He and the car weigh 250 pounds.

Two Local Students Spending Summer South of Border

Two Northville high school students are spending the summer in Mexico as representatives of the Youth for Understanding Exchange program.

They are juniors Mike Chabut, son of Mrs. Elaine Chabut, 18505 Sheldon, and sophomore Patricia Raubar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Raubar of 640 Fairbrook. The program is sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches in Ann Arbor. Fifty high school students from Michigan are in Mexico this year.

They are living with Mexican families and attending a school run by the Youth for Understanding, studying all aspects of Mexican culture.

Jim Ames of Ann Arbor runs the school. He has been in Mexico for two years. Several young people are working with him this summer who were once Mexican exchange students.

On the weekends the students take guided tours of the country. The group left about two weeks ago and will return to America at the end of August.

The Chabuts have received a letter from Mike. He is staying with a wealthy family in a suburb of Mexico City. The family has five children, three servants and a chauffeur.

The boys are 15 and 14, while the girls are 13, 8 and 7. Only the two boys speak English.

Mike is the second member of the Chabut family to be an exchange student. His older brother, Dave, 18, was an exchange student to Holland last summer.

Also, the Chabuts have been hosts to Dutch exchange student Hank Penseel this year.

There has been no news from Pat because Mrs. Raubar is also taking a trip. She is in Florida for a few weeks.

Boys on Musical Tour of Mexico

Three Northville boys left Monday for a singing vacation in Mexico as part of Musical Youth International.

They are Larry Forth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Forth, 21718 Kilrush; Ray Waldren, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Waldren, 231 South Ely drive, and Larry Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wood, 43641 Nine Mile.

Musical Youth International is a new group consisting of nearly 100 young musicians from southern Michigan and northern Ohio.

Senior Citizens Can Tour, Too

There is something new in the offing for members of the Northville senior citizen group.

The Senior Citizens Society of Michigan is now taking reservations for a 30-day tour of Western Europe and the Eastern Mediterranean.

Departure date is September 17 on a Canadian Pacific flight, so reservations must be made as soon as possible, Ken Conley, recreation director said.

At a total of $789, the price includes a roundtrip by jet, transportation and transfers on land, meals, stays at hotels throughout Europe and Mediterranean cruise accommodations, complete with shore excursions and meals.

It is an outgrowth of the Michigan Youth Chorale division of the Youth for Understanding program.

Lester McCoy, who started the Youth Chorale in 1958, now directs M.Y.I. This year the Chorale is touring in Europe.

The group's first concert stop in Mexico is at Culcan. Subsequent stops include Mazatlan, Durango, Guadalajara and Mexico City.

The combination band and choir will march into each city before the concert.

The musicians will be taken to small towns around the large cities to perform, too.

Each concert will end with the song "El Sol" ("The Sun") performed in Spanish. The song was written by Carlos Chavez, Mexico's leading composer. Senior Chavez will attend the final concert in Mexico City.

After the group returns to Michigan August 4, it will record an album for local distribution and give several concerts. Upon returning the group will give a concert at the University of Michigan's music school.

Larry Wood and Ray Waldren will be seniors at Northville high school in the fall. Larry Forth, a 1965 graduate of Northville high, will be a freshman at Schoolcraft College. All three boys have appeared in operettas at the high school.

Band Concerts Begin Tonight

Tunes from two musicals will be featured tonight when the Northville Community band under the direction of Bob Williams begins its 38th annual summer concert program in the high school parking lot.

Scheduled to get underway at 7 p.m., the program will include hits from "Most Happy Fella" and "West Side Story." It will be the first of three concerts to be given this summer by the 110-piece band.

Other concerts, with the spotlight on "light music and show tunes", are scheduled for the two following Thursdays. Two high school band contingents will also swing into action during July.

The stage band will compete in "the Battle of the Bands" July 17 in the Garden City shopping center, corner of Middlebelt and Ford roads. Northville will make its bid for jazz honors at 10 p.m.

It's on to the "Ontario Tattoo" July 24 for members of the Northville high school marching band.

In fact, the local band, the only one from the United States will be featured at the festival which includes bands from all over Ontario, Canada, Williams said.

Bandsmen have been preparing all summer long for the jam-packed July schedule.

THE MASTER IS COME

(John 11:1-44)
TEXT: "The Master is come, and calleth for thee" V. 27.

The reason the Lord Jesus came to this world was to die on the Cross that men and women, boys and girls could be saved and go to heaven. In the Scripture before us we see the Lord Jesus comes to those in need. The Lord Jesus said, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." Mark 2:17. This is the first need of mankind, righteousness. Man's righteousness is nothing but "filthy rags" in God's sight. Lord Jesus told one of the most righteous men in the Bible, Nicodemus, "ye must be born again". God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." John 3:16. Christ first comes to man as Saviour, as a Saviour He will come in three outstanding ways.

- I. He will come in times of Despair.
- II. He will come in Distress.
- III. He will come in Delight.

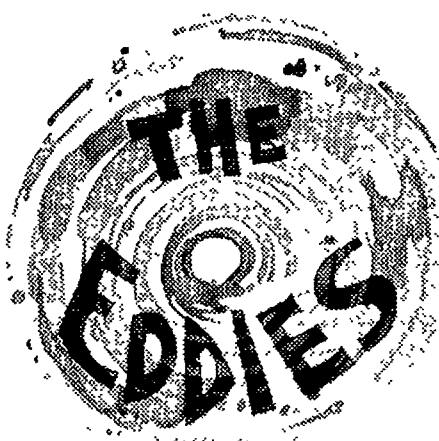

Mary and Martha were heart sick because of the death of their brother. Many of their friends came to comfort them but little comfort could they give in this time of sadness. When Jesus came there was hope, no one but Jesus can bring hope to a funeral. Is your heart broken because a loved one has been taken from you, look to Lord Jesus He will come to you in this time and all other times of despair.

II. He Will Come in Distress. The disciples saw the Lord walking on the water and Simon Peter ask the Lord if he could walk on the water, Jesus granted his request and Peter stepped from the boat and walked toward the Lord. Because of unbelief he started to sink, he cried "Master save me." Jesus came to him and lifted him from the raging sea. Are you sinking in the raging sea of life, the Master of the wind and waves and He will come to you in your hour of distress.

III. He Will Come in Delight. In the first chapter of the book of Acts two men declare that Lord Jesus will come in like manner as He went. Lord Jesus ascended and a cloud received Him out of their sight. One day He will return in the air to receive unto Himself all those who have received Him as Sacrifice for their sin. What a delightful time it will be when He comes to take repentant sinners to Heaven. He said, "In my Father's house there are many mansions—I have gone to prepare a place for you." What a delightful place He had prepared, there will be no death, nor sorrow, no tears, nor pain only joy and peace. Are you prepared to meet Lord Jesus in Delight or will you meet Him in judgement? You may meet Him in Delight if you will trust His finished work on the Cross of Calvary, for the Bible says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved." God Bless You.

We spend our summers by the Inlet. Eddie and I love to walk the beach, watching with fascination the wild churning of the water where the ocean waves meet the strong river current.

"That's my name," he said, when I told him the churning water was called an "eddy."

It's more than his name. It's a picture of his life — and every child's.

Growing up is a succession of crosscurrents. The influences of the home meet those of the school — the playmates — the community — the times. Strange, new experiences must be fitted into the child's ever-widening world.

Pace, Trot Handicaps Coming Up

With the $400,000 betting mark cracked for the first time in its 22 years, Northville Downs enters the second half of its 39-night summer meeting.

Business is at an all-time high with wagering up 7.2 per cent and attendance soaring to 9.2 per cent over 1964 figures.
A crowd of 8,329 wagered $401,221 on Saturday, July 3, to start the 'Downs off to its greatest holiday in annuals.

Racing Secretary Harry Peterson has two open events carded for the coming weekend with a field of six scheduled to clash
Friday (July 16) in the Opening Handicap Pace and as many as seven in the Open Handicap Trot on Saturday (July 17).

The pace will find Craig Creed, the seven-year-old star of the
Elmer Conrad Stable of Corydon,
Ind., trying to better his mark of 2:02.1 in a victory on the opening Saturday. Going against him are such fast ones as Patti J.
Adios, Bobby Axland, Livonia
Boy, Knight Latch, Monticello and Philip Brian.

Saturday's trot will find El Darno, the four-year-old owned by Gayton Seifert of Battle Creek, trying to start a new winning streak after having a string of four snapped last week.

El Darno faces such competition as Winter Hanover, Kar-sten's Gay Song, Seth, Lind
Frisco, Solon Pick and Bill G.

NEWS FROM WILLOWBROOK

Marion Berry 474-7470

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jennings and family of Hollydale spent the weekend of the Fourth at the AuSable Lake. They were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jennings. The children enjoyed water skiing and swimming at the lake.

The Jennings' daughter, Markl and Judy Fried also of Hollydale, accompanied Mr. Fried to his office in Detroit recently, and were his guests for lunch at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel.

A newcomer to Willowbrook is little Dana Kalinovich, born to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kalinovich on May 27 at St. Mary's hospital, Livonia. Dana weighed in at 6 pounds 6 ounces. She has a little brother, Dean, who is 2 1/2 years of age. Maternal grandparent is Mrs. John Rector; paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Kalinovich.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Toth of West LeBost had as guests in their home last week their three grandchildren: Stephen, Michele and the baby, Mary Beth. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Balog flew to North Carolina for a week's vacation.

The Toth family also celebrated Joe's 13th birthday on June 30 by having family and friends for ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison of LeBost have as house guests for the summer their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Morrison and their little daughter, Kimberly, seven months old. Thomas is a student at the Michigan Technology Institute, Houghton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berry and family of McMahon spent the weekend of the Fourth visiting John's parents in Coloma. Mr. and Mrs. Max Hoke and daughter, Holly, from Anderson, Indiana were also guests. Mrs. Hoke is John's sister. A family group including cousins of the younger group attended Silver Beach, St. Joseph and enjoyed the rides and recreation offered there. They also climbed Thunder Mountain and went swimming in Lake Michigan.

Mr. McDonough of Thayer Blvd., spoke at some length on the dog ordinance and consideration of possible amendments to facilitate enforcement. He also spoke about damage done to his home; careless driving by young people on Thayer Blvd., particularly in the evenings; and stated that a definite program should be formulated relative to a curfew for teen-agers (minors) and possibly an amendment to the curfew ordinance should be considered. Mayor Pro-tem Canterbury told Mr. McDonough that Council was interested in the enforcement of both the ordinances and these would be reviewed by the City Manager and Chief of Police and report made at the July 6th meeting. Speed signs on S. Rogers are to be checked. Miss E. Etz, S. Rogers, was also present and spoke regarding speeding on S. Rogers and dogs running loose. Mr. Canterbury asked that Police Department do more checking on this and review recommendations of the previously appointed traffic study committee. This is to be discussed at June 28th work session.

Report from City Attorney on Storm Water Disposal Ordinance: City attorney felt that this should be discussed at the June 28th work session.

1965 Sidewalk Program: Mr. Penn, city engineer, reported that he had made a wide survey of the city and finds the following amount of sidewalk necessary to be repaired or replaced:

City manager is to determine if allocation was made in budget for this and check other municipalities that have used this equipment.

Approval of Two Easements so City can build two storm drains on River street;

City manager explained the request for two easements to enable city to build two storm drains on River street. These easements would be on lots 196 and 198 of Assessor's Northville Plat #2, running from River St. south to creek. It was also recommended that the following properties be serviced in this same matter - S. Frid, E. Mala St., Glazier and Olsen on River St., and Don Starr's sidewalk on River St.

Moved by Canterbury, supported by Black that in view of agreements with citizens and due to damage beyond their control and for which they bore no responsibility as a result of construction by Northwest Construction Co., the City Council authorizes the city manager to rectify these minor complaints and fulfill the agreements of citizens with minor requests; excluding major requests such as light poles, etc. and continue to pursue efforts to be reimbursed for such reparation. Unanimously carried.

Miscellaneous:

Mr. Allen asked the city manager if there was any word on the repair of Wing street. # Education Serves Landful, Not Handful LANSING-Northern Michigan University at Marquette may become a haven for high school graduates with difficulties enrolling in overcrowded colleges. The philosophy of Northern President Edgar L. Harden is that education must become more inclusive to allow more young people "the right to test themselves against the realities of college or university life."

Harden described his view recently at the summer meeting of the Michigan Press Association at Marquette. "Higher education must serve a landful of people, not a handful," he said.

Students who find other colleges closed to them because of low entrance examination results or other problems might do well to try Northern Michigan.

Roger Babson

"We do not believe that test scores alone can measure ability. We do not believe that arbitrary percentages or inflexible admission policies should turn the key that locks the classroom door to the student who wants to make the effort."

"Neither do we believe that admission should be contingent upon the size of dad's pocketbook or mother's position in the social register," says Harden.

Currently one of the smaller of Michigan's state-supported colleges, Northern is looking toward tremendous growth which likely will be helped partly by its president's view of the role of higher education.

"Those who would limit higher education contend that too many of our young people already are in college." In reply, Dr. Harden contends, "Our greatest concern should not be for those who are in college but for those who should be. When you diminish the opportunity for education, you compound the growing problems of delinquency, unemployment, irresponsibility, immorality and indifference."

PREDICTIONS are sometimes interesting to view in retrospect. One such was made last November and in succeeding months by Harry R. Hall, executive vice president of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Immediately following the November election, Hall set out through the state to fulfill part of his responsibility. This is to keep Michigan businessmen informed of state legislative activities.

At that time Hall felt compelled to warn businessmen that there would be troubled times ahead. The 1965 session was to be the trouble spot because of the new majority control by Democrats.

One obvious factor was cited by Hall in his gloomy series of remarks. The sheer newness of many legislators would make it more difficult to foresee what would happen. He termed the session "the most staggering challenge" in the history of Michigan business.

Hall thought, however, that "some developments can be predicted with a high degree of fidelity."

"The power struggle between the Democratic Legislature and the Republican executive office will make previous battles between these two, when party alignments were switched, seem like summer picnic games by comparison," he said.

In this his main prediction the legislators fooled him. Relations between Gov. George Romney and the lawmakers were relatively good. The few battles were very mild when compared with those of previous years.

One good score goes to Hall for his foresight in predicting the flood of legislative proposals for increased employer-paid benefits. In this area, however, Republican lawmakers also agreed some changes were needed in the law.

To be judged well, Hall's forecast should be reviewed again next year at the end of the session.

Joe: "Washing machine? That was a porthole."

Flo: "No wonder I never got my clothes back."

Trolley to Make Comeback

BABSON PARK, Mass. — We are heading for swift changes in our cities and their immediate suburbs as a result of the traffic explosion. Already most urban centers — particularly those that overflow into one another, such as all along the Atlantic Coast — are swamped by highway and parking problems that are becoming more desperate every day. Fortunately — with the population skyrocketing, and per-capita auto ownership along with it — solutions are closer than most of us realize.

Our huge highway programs, both federal and state, are fine for the long haul, but they are no answer to the in-city dilemma. That requires imagination, ingenuity, and an entirely new concept of transportation planning. Those who take the long view have been trying for some years to alert government officials, city planners, and the apathetic public to the need for taking realistic steps to keep the auto invasion from choking the life out of downtown areas. Now, at long last, more than one metropolis has planners and engineers at work plotting the inevitable city of the future.

That city will, of necessity, rely more and more upon rapid public transit — requiring the rehabilitation of feasible railroad and trolley systems once thought obsolete and the construction of new very-fast-moving conveyances, both between city centers and into them from the key suburbs. Monorail transport, already tried out in a few places in this country and even more ambitiously in Japan, is in the cards for a number of jam-packed localities. It is no longer a question of whether we can afford it; it's a matter of simply having to do such things to save our cities from traffic "death."

In the years not too far away, our modernized cities will have strict regulations on traffic in commercial cores. There will be convenient highways looping around the urban limits, connecting with strategically placed rapid transit terminals with spacious parking facilities. From these terminals passengers will be whisked downtown to, or very close to, their destinations. Even in heavily populated suburbs there will be increasingly drastic restrictions.

While it may sound like a fantasy right now, there will be wide reliance in restricted areas upon tiny motor-or electric-driven carts and buses, as well as upon more conventional shopping scooters and bicycles. Heavy auto traffic will be prevented from funneling off cross-city highways and turnpikes into urban and suburban streets which simply cannot handle the input.

The idea of blocking off one or two city streets and turning the area into a pedestrian shopping mall will be greatly extended. President Johnson's beautification and urban renewal programs will fit in nicely with the planting of trees and flowers, the installation of fountains, benches, tables, entertainment areas for children, etc., where auto traffic is excluded. Pedestrian mobility will be aided by more escalators, even by moving floors and sidewalks. City centers will be enhanced by plazas — such as those already successfully established in Rochester, N.Y., and Fresno, California — which will be easily reached by transit lines coming in from the outerloop highways. Access will be available in these attractive, heated, and/or air conditioned plazas to the finest department stores, restaurants, offices, museums, and entertainment centers. As new plans are blocked out in more and more cities, business men, bankers, architects, and designers should take full advantage of the opportunities offered by these emerging cities of the future. Businesses dependent upon auto traffic alone should be sure that they are not left holding the bag in a locality destined to become nearly — or maybe entirely — devoid of the auto traffic that once filled their crowded streets.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

A man looking for a job stopped by for a little information one day recently.

It turned out that he is one of the candidates for the Northville city manager position and I guess he figured that maybe he could find out something about the council and community before his interviews.

I won't mention his name .... I don't want to hurt his chances by suggesting that I liked him.

But obviously, his approach immediately won me over. I like people who think of the newspaper first when they want information. If the newspaper's worth its advertising rates, it will have plenty of information and opinions.

Anyway, it turns out that this fellow has heard all our problems before ... in two or three other communities.

As a city manager, he's been faced, for example, with delicate situations involving city-township relations ... with citizen protests over property reappraisal ... with merchants, councilmen and planners over master plan proposals and redevelopment of business districts.

Communities may have different names. But they have the same problems.

Really, it's the people who make the difference.

And despite the needles that occasionally come flying from this corner, when the man with ambitions of working in Northville asked me about our leaders and our people (both city and township, because he said that he believed we must think as a community if we are to enjoy orderly growth), I ran out of problems.

The quality of membership on our council, township board, school board, planning commissions, etc., outstrips anything described by the young man looking for a new job.

And officials are chosen by the people ... the thing that makes the difference.

On Wednesday, July 28 Northville will be invaded by more than 400 European youngsters who will be completing a year's stay with foster families in the United States.

They're being hosted here by the Rotary club. In past years the club has made arrangements to have each child stay overnight with a local family. This year, however, the youths will stay just one day. The sponsoring Youth for Understanding organization will conduct briefing sessions at the high school during the afternoon and they'll board buses in the evening.

During the day, however, the youngsters will wander about the community visiting stores and perhaps chatting with local citizens.

Rotary welcomes the public to the high school area when the "invasion" takes place. This year's program will be more informal than in the past, although it is hoped that Governor Romney may visit briefly to speak to the youths.

It's an ironic coincidence that on the same day, July 28, 1914, World War I began.

We're making progress with our invasions.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson has taken a survey of the community's "tree lawns" (that's the portion of the lawn between the sidewalk and the street).

They could use more attention, she concludes.

Mrs. Carlson has headed up the council's clean-up campaign and so she's suggesting to residents that they do their best to mow, plant or beautify these tree-lawns areas.

"It will make a big difference in the appearance of our community", says our councilwoman.

Fume Relief at Last

TO THE EDITOR:

Thanks for the last paragraph of the article "Council steps up Search for New City Manager." I hope all residents on Fairbrook read it.

Thanks, too, to Bud Hartner and the boys for responding day or night all those months that we on Fairbrook were plagued with gasoline fumes seeping into our homes. If a peculiar sound is heard in this area, don't be alarmed, it will only be Fair-brook Citizens snoring, getting a good night's sleep now that the trouble has been found and corrected.

Novi Police Commended

To the Editor:

Friday, July 2nd, while sitting on a garden bench in her own front yard, our nine year old daughter was sprayed with the pellets from a shotgun, discharged in the field across from our home on Eleven Mile road. Fortunately, she was not seriously injured, and the illegal and flagrant mis-use of firearms in this area is not the real purpose behind this letter.

As soon as the accident occurred I called the Novi police, and their action was prompt and to the point. Within 45 minutes, the report had been taken and the culprit apprehended. (He was arrested on the charge of "illegal use of firearms.") This was excellent police service for any time of the day, and for any area, and we were even more amazed when we learned that the only scout car on duty when our call came in was at 8 Mile and Gill roads.

We had no idea how few men are on the Novi police force and we feel that they are really doing an excellent, almost impossible, job of law enforcement, under the circumstances. 32 square miles of territory must be patrolled, and as we understand it, this also includes the Casino and Novi public beach at Walled Lake. The trouble which can develop at these two places alone would be sufficient to demand the full time of several patrolmen.

We honestly don't know how they managed to give us such excellent law enforcement with the few men they have on duty, and we just felt that if even a few of the people in this area read our letter, and realized the situation, they might give their police department a vote of thanks, and a little more consideration. They are active; they are on the job; and if the "Court Proceedings" column would list all the cases brought before the judge by the Novi Police, this would further help to enlighten the people. We read the paper. We are familiar with the area and its problems. But, we really didn't realize what a king-size job the Novi police department was doing, until we discovered the number of calls they can, and do, receive in one hour's time, and how few men are now employed to handle these situations.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Mr. & Mrs. W. Larn E. O'Hara

Legislator's Praise Leaves Voter Cold

Dear Editor:

I missed a minute or so last week reading the some 18 inches the Record devoted to Rep. Marvin Stempelen and his reasons for sponsoring a minor bill changing voter margin requirements for passage of bond issues.

Mr. Stempelen couldn't have been more lavish with praise for himself than if he had written the State Constitution by himself.

I suggest that the space might have been put to better use if Mr. Stempelen had used his eloquence to explain the reasoning that led to his vote favoring a legislative pay raise to $17,500 a year.

Perhaps our legislator's touting of this unimportant piece of legislation on bond issues is his way of showing what great things we can expect from him if we pay him $5,000 more a year. Northville Voter

Bothered by Horses

To the Editor:

With betting at all time high Northville Downs officials are looking for their best year, and the City of Northville treasury is expected to swell to the tune of $200,000. This is fine, but what about the inconvenience to the neighboring communities who are left out on the limb without any compensation????

The least we can expect and demand of Northville Downs official is that they do something about the horses crossing 7-Mile road and Center street to get to the track. This is hazardous, causing accidents and delaying traffic.

State and county governments sure must be asleep to allow a condition of this kind to exist for the last several years.

Pony Express Rides Again

A horse named Joe once reigned as king of the road in Northville.

It was May 19, 1938 and Joe and Elmer Perrin, a local businessman, teamed up to deliver a sack of mail in the tradition of the Pony Express.

At 12:15 p.m. that day national air mail week was kicked off as Northville Postmaster Fred Van Atta handed Perrin a pouch of 483 letters.

Perrin then mounted Joe and they rode off for their destination, the Plymouth post office.

Hundreds of villagers lined the four corners to witness the event.

Once Joe and Perrin arrived in Plymouth, the mail was transferred to one of Henry Ford's stagecoaches driven by Harry Robinson and whisked off to Triangle Airport.

Other letters from South Lyon, Farmington and Plymouth were placed aboard the coach, too.

At the airfield, Cass Hough's plane was loaded up and Hough himself flew his special cargo to the Detroit City Airport.

It wasn't an unusual stunt for Perrin. He did it as a boy when his father had the contract to haul the mail from the Pere Marquette station to the local post office.

At the time of the observance Perrin was operating a trucking business and one of his contracts was to transport the mail from the depot.

Perrin told the Northville Record that he didn't break any speed records with Joe but the mail reached Plymouth in time for the flight.

Joe was loaned from Fred Hoffman's stables for the celebration.

Elmer Perrin, who died in 1960, served Northville as a councilman for four years and then as its mayor from 1942-43. He also served as village assessor.

Fred Van Atta, who was postmaster from 1934-1949, died in 1962.

Cass Hough, a well-known area resident, is now general manager of Daisy Manufacturing Company in Rogers, Arkansas.

Steimel Takes Over

John Steimel was appointed acting postmaster of Northville May 7, 1965.

Steimel, 37, succeeded Leland V. Smith who retired due to ill health. Smith, 62, had served as postmaster since October 1, 1949.

The appointment of Steimel was made for one year. At that time applications will be accepted for a permanent postmastership.

Formerly employed as a storekeeper at the Plymouth

State Home and Training School, Steimel has been active in American Legion Affairs.

He has served as commander of the Lloyd H. Green Post and as Wolverine Boys State chairman for four years. In addition, he has been commander of the Legion's 17th district.

Steimel and his wife, Lorraine, have two boys, Jon Jay, 11, and Brian, 8. The Steimels reside at 488 Hill street.

Smith Served Longest

Leland V. Smith, who preceded John Steimel, holds the distinction of having served the longest consecutive term of any Northville postmaster.

Smith spent over 15 1/2 years on the job.

But Fred VanAtta, who was postmaster prior to Smith's appointment, was a close second. VanAtta served just over 15 years.

Since the local post office was found in 1831, just one postmaster has served three times. He was David H. Rowland.

Two were named for two terms Hiram M. Perin and Edward S. Horton.

And, in operating the local post office for 134 years, only one woman has ever been in charge. Bertha Neal succeeded her husband, Frank S. Neal.

Post Office Humming

Business is humming at the newly-opened post office at the intersection of Cady and Wing streets.

Postmaster John Steimel estimated that the volume of mail averages 16,500 pieces a day.

Of the total, 9,500 pieces are received at the local post office while 7,000 pieces are sent out of Northville.

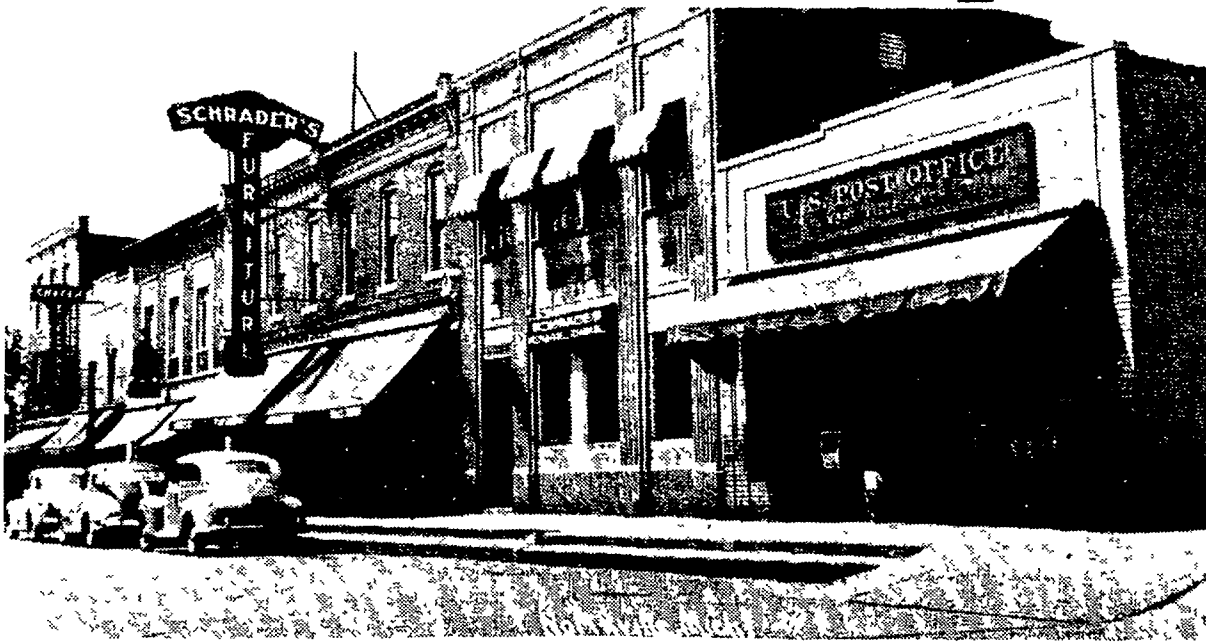

Steimel said that there are 1,930 families in the city delivery zone and 1,372 families who receive mail on the rural routes.

Last year the post office receipts amounted to $102,600, Steimel said. In 1923, for example, annual receipts totaled $7,000.

Northville's new post office is located at 200 West Cady.

Post Office Opened in 1831

This view of the old post office at 113 North Center was taken many years ago.

A post office was originally established in Northville October 10, 1831. The first postmaster was Iabesh M. Mead.

A history of the early days of the post office aren't available but Ray Van Valkenburg, a well-known Northville resident, recalls post office locations since 1894.

"That's when I came to Northville," Van Valkenburg of 400 East Main street remarked.

As far back as Van Valkenburg can remember, the post office was always situated on North Center street until the new structure was built at South Wing and West Cady.

Van Valkenburg first mailed letters at the post office in the building now occupied by Ramsey's bar. It remained there for about 23 years.

Next, Van Valkenburg said, it moved across the street in 1917 and was set up in the building where the Spinning Wheel fabric shop is doing business today.

Its final downtown location was at 113 North Center. Post office operations were shifted there sometime in the early 1920's.

Another resident, Harry Sedan, said that a pool room existed at 113 North Center before the post office changed its address.

Northville's new postal facilities at 200 West Cady (zip code 48167) opened its doors in June. The building is colonial styled,
