This enterprising youngster "dropped everything" in his enthusiasm to find a cool retreat from the heat.

Mercury Hits Summer High

The temperature didn't quite blow the lid off Northville or Novi last Sunday, but what seemed like boiler pressure heat sent the thermometer soaring up, up, up.

The mercury finally stopped at an official 94 degrees Fahrenheit. It was the hottest day on record for this area since the United States Weather Bureau at Willow Run was established in 1947.

Previous high reading for August 15? A relatively cool 89 in 1959.

But relief is in sight. The five-day reading Tuesday through Saturday promised a high of just 84, and a cooling 61 at night, eight degrees below normal.

To top it off—the cool weather, that is — one half to one inch of rain was forecast for the five days. That will contribute toward a normal August precipitation of 2.84. Already, 1.13 inches has been recorded this month.

Merchants Meet Tonight

Northville retailers will hold their monthly meeting tonight at the conference room below Detroit Federal Savings.

The meeting will be held at eight o'clock. Chairman Essie Nirdler said among the business items to consider will be a last-minute recap of plans for Friday's Sidewalk Sale.

Precipitation for the last four months ending August 1 is below normal, however, the weather bureau reported. Rain fall for the period has been measured at 4.11 inches below normal, in fact. In July alone there was a 1.48 inch shortage.

Unlike counties west of here, where drought conditions prevail and appeals have been made for federal government assistance, this area is having no such difficulties.

Weather experts pointed out that although precipitation has been below normal for the growing season, intermittent showers have supplied enough rain for crops. There is no particular drought, they say.

To gain relief from Sunday's torrid heat, area residents flocked to nearby and distant swimming spots, turned on the sprinklers and fans, and simply relaxed in the cool shade.

Meadowbrook Country Club was virtually inundated with bathers seeking relief, said Alexander McInnes, pool director. On a day that would normally draw 140 swimmers, there were 260 on hand.

To beat the weather, McInnes pointed out that he set the pool's new heat control at 82 degrees. "The weather beat me," he said, "it pushed the temperature in the pool up to 90 degrees.

It was the same story with variations at the Northville swim club. Over 600 people came

Crash Kills Man in Novi

A 26-year-old Southfield man with a long string of previous traffic violations became the second person to die on Novi highways within five days last week. And both accidents occurred on Grand River, less than a mile apart.

The latest victim was Paul T. Morath, who was pronounced dead on arrival Wednesday, August 11, at Botsford General Hospital, Farmington.

Traveling at a high rate of speed, according to witnesses, he drove his new pickup truck into the rear of a Gulf Oil company tank truck just east of Meadowbrook road on Grand River.

Novi officers, Kent Mullins, Pat Meyer and Vern Loeffler received the call at 8:47 p.m. Four days before, eight-year-old James Monger was struck by a car on his return from the grocery store at 8:30 p.m. with a carton of milk. He died Tuesday, August 10, in the hospital.

Morath had a record of 17 traffic convictions, most of them for speeding and careless and reckless driving. One of the convictions was for driving under the influence of alcohol in Novi. Morath was also involved in three previous auto accidents, one in which four people were injured.

In Wednesday night's accident, the one which took his life, he slammed into a newly filled tanker driven by Erwin J. Bantis, 45, of Allen Park.

After filling his truck at the Gulk gas terminal, Bantis turned east onto Grand River. His truck had attained a speed of 15 to 20 miles per hour, he told police, when the pickup truck, also heading east, plied into the rear end.

The front end of Morath's vehicle was crushed, while the back bumper was torn off the tanker and the left rear smashed. Damage to the Gulf truck was estimated at $600.

Novi firemen were called to the scene because gas from Morath's truck flooded the road, police said.

It was the third Novi traffic fatality this year.

21'ers Banquet Marks Its Silver Anniversary

A tradition that began 25 years ago under the sponsorship of the now-defunct Coordinating Council will be continued Thursday evening, September 2 when the American Legion sponsors the twenty-fifth annual 21'ers Banquet.

Purpose of the banquet is to honor new voters—both those who have just attained their 21st birthday and newly naturalized citizens.

Serving as chairman of this year's program is Harold Penn, commander of the American Legion. The Northville Legion post took over the sponsorship of the 21'ers banquet last year after poor attendance at meetings prompted the dissolving of the Coordinating Council.

The program will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Morris R. Boucher, academic dean of Olivet college, will be the speaker.

Penn said some 116 invitations had been sent to new 21'ers and citizens. He urged the guests of honor to respond as soon as possible and reminded them that if they cannot attend it is suggested that they can be represented by their parents and receive their certificates of recognition.

The first 21'ers banquet was held on October 29, 1940. Speaker of the evening was Detroit Mayor Edward J. Jeffries. He urged the new voters "to be alert and attentive to the problems of the day, to make yourselves a driving force for democracy, and that the best citizen for citizenship is the good old fashioned business of doing right to the best of our ability."

Chairman Penn said he would like to have as many as possible of the group of 21'ers from that original banquet to attend this year's program.

Honored 21'ers that evening were: Dorothy Price, Alice Banks, Scott Cole, Francis Huff, Lloyd Spencer, Isabelle Tewksbury, Dorothy Niles, Kenneth Calkins, Cloyce Myers, Ted Williams, Hope Wilcox, Phyl Stimpson, Carl Stephens, Mrs. Dayton Deal, Betty Randall, Charles Strautz, Fay Moody, Norman Running, Mrs. Hal Horton, John Stubenvoll, Robert Lyke, Elma Noreen Blake, Fred Hicks, Jr., Maurice Hagemester, Howard Beller, Barbara Calkins, Jean Thompson, William Holdsworth, Hattie Marie Moore, Harold Blake, Elizabeth Brodie, Ralph Bogart and Llewellyn Kingsley.

City Parking Authority Set

The city council made its final appointments to the municipal authority Monday night.

Joining John Stubenvoll, who was appointed chairman and given a three-year term, are: Charles Altman, Jr., and Scott Krause, two years; and Richard Lyon and Jack Ruland, one year.

The authority was established upon recommendation of the planning commission as a part of its central business district master plan.

Specifically, the job of the authority will be to plan for the establishment of adequate off-street parking for the business area and provide a method of financing.

But Chairman Stubenvoll points out that there is much preparatory groundwork to cover first.

He said the committee will hold an organizational meeting first so that members may become acquainted. Then meetings with the city council and planning commission will follow.

As the overall parking picture is studied, it's possible, Stubenvoll said, that the commission would want to hold public meetings with businessmen to determine their opinions on the how parking should be provided and financed.

Camera, Photo Services To Open in Northville

A new business will soon open in Northville in the former automobile agency building on South Main street.

Robert F. Webber of Plymouth announced this week that he had purchased from Wilbert J. Petz the building at 200 South Main street, which was formerly the Gib Bergstrom auto agency and previously the Petz agency.

About October 1 Webber will open the Northville Camera Shop and the Webber Photographic Studio. The camera shop will carry photographic equipment and supplies, while the studio will provide portrait service.

Webber said his businesses will occupy some 3,000 square feet of the 4,800 square-foot building. He expects to lease the remaining space for other business use.

Remodeling of the building will begin immediately, Webber stated.

Photography has been a hobby with Webber for many years. Presently he serves as vice president of the Photographic Guild of Detroit. He has been employed, however, as Latin American operations coordinator for the Ford Motor company international division.

A resident of Plymouth for 15 years, Webber lives at 190 Blank with his wife and three children. He has been active in community affairs as president of the junior high PTA, former president of the Plymouth Symphony Society, member of the Housing Commission of Plymouth and a choir member of the First United Presbyterian church.

Sidewalk Sale Offers Full Day of Bargains

Tomorrow Northville merchants move outdoors. It's the annual Sidewalk Sale event when prices are slashed to make room for new fall merchandise.

Really, it's more than a sale. The event is carnival-like ... a day for fun as well as savings.

Chairman Charles Lapham points out that there will be refreshment concessions in the street (on Main between Center and Hutton) along with an exhibit of automobiles by the three local dealerships and a display by Hartley-Powers Gallery.

Joe Malik is scheduled to add a touch of humor when he dons his clown outfit and rides his "mini-bike".

An added attraction to this year's sale will be the Jaycees' auction. At 1:00 and 7:00 p.m. they'll sell items ranging from household furniture to an automobile.

The Jaycees are selling the merchandise for anyone on a 10 per cent commission basis. Chairman Paul Sobol said they'll accept additional sale items up until noon Friday. The sale will be held at the vacant service station on the corner of Main and Hutton.

Davis Suit Set For August 31

Frank Davis' suit, challenging the village of Novi's trailer park ordinance, will go to court August 31.

Filled a year ago, it contends that property on Beck road south of Nine Mile road was suitable for a trailer park. The village rejected his appeal at that time, and Northville school board and city council have since also registered complaints against Davis' plans.

City Orders Halt to 'Extra' Refuse Calls

A clamp-down on "extra" refuse pick-ups was ordered by the city council Monday night when it was revealed that public works trucks have been hauling four to six truckloads each Friday.

The city pays a private contractor to haul away rubbish and garbage each week. This system was initiated by the city several years ago to relieve department of public works crews for other duties.

When council members expressed surprise at the extra service apparently enjoyed by a relatively few citizens, Public Works Director Herman Hartner told them "this service has never ceased. It's been ordered by every city manager."

He said his department would be happy to get rid of the job. "We have a list of work waiting to be done," Hartner stated.

Councilman John Canterbury expressed surprise and shock at the service.

"People who complain get this extra service while others pay to have done or haul the items away themselves," pointed out Canterbury.

Clerk Martha Milne pointed out that the problem arises when residents have items—such as old chairs, water heaters, etc.—that are too large for the regular pick-up crews to haul away. "They call here (city hall) for help," she stated.

When questioned as to who had given the orders to provide this extra service, Hartner told the council that "all" city managers had approved the service and that most recently he had been told to continue the pick-ups "as good public relations."

Mayor A. M. Allen proposed a review and publication of the regulations governing what may be left at the curb for pick-up by the contractor crews. Size and type of containers are specifically stipulated in the agreement with the contractor. Limbs and brush, for example, must be cut to easy handling size and tied.

With the understanding that residents would be notified of the regulations governing what may and may not be left at the curb for regular contractor pick-up, Councilman Fred Kester moved that all "extra" pick-ups by city crews should halt effective September 1. The motion won full council support.

It was a night for refuse.

Attending his first meeting as Northville's new city manager, Roger Rehberg submitted to the council a list of recommendations governing both residential pick-up and operation to the city dump.

First he proposed an additional pick-up in the business district, paid by the city, with businesses paying for large containers centrally located throughout the commercial area where the refuse could be collected. He proposed 14 one-yard containers (at $105 each) and 7 two-yard containers (at $175 each). Rehberg showed the council a number of pictures taken in the business district. He said the large containers would eliminate the messiness and be a benefit to the entire community.

Rehberg estimated the additional pick-up would cost the city $1,000 annually. Councilman Canterbury balked at this and proposed that the businesses should assume the cost.

Councilman Del Black also opposed city payment of the additional collection for business places. But Manager Rehberg maintained it represented "a small price to pay" for a sanitary improvement. He also pointed to the difficulty in determining how much to charge each merchant on the basis of use of the additional pick-up. The manager's proposal also called for a clampdown on residents not using proper containers for garbage and refuse. He proposed a system of tagging leaking or improper containers to warn residents that refuse will not be picked up until proper containers are provided.

The manager then moved to the city dump for further recommendation. He proposed longer hours, better control of the dump to specify dumping areas and a sunken cage for burning papers. Rehberg also asked permission to have the city's public works area, which adjoins the dump, fenced in. He said this area is used as an entrance to the dump when the main gate is closed.

In his recommendation the manager asked to extend the dumping time to six hours daily. Presently, it is open 10-12 Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 10-4 Saturday and noon to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

It was pointed out that several firms now have keys to enter the dump whenever they wish. Rehberg noted that longer hours would eliminate the need for keys and provide control of dumping practices by having someone on duty when dumping is done.

Councilman Canterbury questioned the additional cost of having an attendant 40 hours weekly, but Manager Rehberg argued that the cost would be a minimal considering the elimination of the nuisance of black smoke and uncontrolled dumping which has caused additional bulldozing.

The manager was instructed to pursue the plan along with the recommendation to install a water line to the dump to help control fires that might break out.

TAKING IT EASY - Resting up for the big Jaycee auction Friday are Dick Norton and Paul Sobol. While they sit amid the variety of items to be sold, Pam Grunheid tries an exercise bike. Hundreds of items are scheduled to be auctioned. The biggest is an automobile.

TEEN-AGE LOOT - This was the haul of four local juveniles, two girls and two boys, who raided the Northville DPW yard last Monday night. They were apprehended by Officer Bill McGee (above), who was assisted in identifying the stolen items by DPW worker, Julius Saner. The girls were charged with violation of the curfew law, and the boys with larceny. Reports on all four were forwarded to juvenile authorities, and the youths were released to their parents.

News Around Northville

Two Northville girls, Judith A. Insland of 19800 Fry Road, and Constance Tegge of 16580 Franklin, have been awarded two of the 1,500 additional college scholarships granted from the Michigan Higher Education Association Authority. A total of 4,350 scholarships have now been given. Judy will be a freshman at Hope College this fall, while Constance will be a freshman at the University of Michigan.

Amid the ancient ruins and ultra-modern structures of Mexico City, Chris Moase is studying this summer at the University of the Americas. Chris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Moase of Randolph. They are staying in Mexico for one year as part of Mr. Moase's job. The University of the Americas has a student body representing over 20 countries. Besides regular classes, the university sponsors trips to many famous Mexican landmarks. Chris graduated from Northville high and attended Schoolcraft College. She is majoring in education.

Larry Thibos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thibos of 535 River, has returned from a Leadership Training Workshop at the Iron County Youth Camp, better known as Camp Ba-ta-wa-ga-ma. About 80 student council officers attended from all over Michigan. The workshop included clinics, committee meetings, general sessions and outdoor activities. Larry will be mayor of the Northville high student council this fall.

Two Northville girls, Judy Bogart and Laura Guter, attended a similar leadership camp for junior high school student council officers at Big Bear Lake near Kalamazoo recently. Leadership classes took up four hours each day, and the rest of the time was free for recreation. The girls camped out in the woods every night. There were a couple dances for entertainment as well as canoeing and other sports. The boys and girls came from all over the state.

With the State Fair drawing near, Mrs. Fred Cobb of 21355 Beck road is preparing her entries in the three classes of the Home Arts division—needlework, cakes and canned goods. She has been entering and winning awards at the fair for over a decade. She has won the grand sweepstakes three times and has accumulated nearly 100 other awards. Fruiteake is her new entry to the fair this year. Altogether she will have 20 entries. The fair will be held August 27 through September 6 this year.

As summer's golden days glide by, the sun shines on Northville's many gay activities. The town resounded this week with the excitement of parties, vacations, visits, and back-to-school doings. Meadowbrook Country Club was the setting Friday night for a Night Club Party. The large turn-out of members and guests danced on the patio and lantern lit porch. A seashore buffet and a floor show starring The Personalities from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, highlighted the evening.

"Northville-ites" attending the party included the Charles Hooks and Wilson Tylers with a party of 14, the William Tuckers, the William Kellys hosting the Phil Hoopers and Milton Wests, and the Robert Hallams with the John Hanns and Gilbert Winners as guests. Jerry McVety and his parents, weekend guests from Ohio, also attended the party.

The Northville Swim Club is planning an impromptu bring-your-own-steak roast at 6 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Fred Hart asks adult members interested in attending to sign up at the club, although reservations aren't required. Besides steak everyone is asked to bring a passing dish. A community song fest accompanied by guitars will be featured during the evening.

The list of returning vacationers begins with the Gene Entz family of 20300 Beck Road who are home from a trip to Canada.

Doctor and Mrs. R. G. Wetterstroem have returned from a week in northern Michigan.

The Joseph Fiorilli family of 39914 Harbert spent their vacation in Florida.

The Donald Wares of 239 Hutton were joined by Mrs. James Kipper for a week's vacation at Harbor Springs.

Visiting is a pleasant summer pastime. Mrs. T. C. Croft has returned to her home in Georgia after visiting her daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hollis Jr. and Cheryl of Thayer Boulevard.

Mrs. Rhea Wilcox, retired Northville librarian, has spent most of the summer visiting her aunt in Alhambra, California. Now she's back home on 129 West Cady.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaRue of Leesburg, Florida, recently visited the Jim LaRue family of 738 North Center. The Jack LaRues lived in Northville for about 35 years. He worked for Maybury Sanatorium.

News from the Lonns-Judy Lonn, and her fiancé, Robert Annett, were honored recently at the home of Mrs. John Binkle-man. Mrs. Binkleman and co-hostess Mrs. Ray Scherf, are Robert's aunts. Thirty guests attended from White Lake, Troy, Royal Oak and Lathrup Village.

Friday the 13th was a lucky day for Robert as he was surprised by Judy's parents, the Victor Lonns of Apollo Road, with a 21st birthday celebration. Attending were his parents, the Clifton Annetts; his two brothers, Charles and Jon; his grandmother, Mrs. Oscar Heuer from Alton Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. John Binkleman and son Bill, and all the Lonns. The evening included a buffet dinner and splash party. Judy and Robert will be married this Saturday.

Northville's new residents from Garden City, the Clove Myers family of 118 Linden, are really "old" residents. Mr. Myers lived in Northville as a youth and graduated from Northville high. Mrs. Dorothy Myers, a Cooley high graduate, came to Northville in 1939. They moved away during the war. Mr. Myers is a retired air force man who now works for Parsons, Inc. The Myers have four children, George, a married son living in California; Richard, 15, whose interest in sports includes football and baseball; Debra, 11, who likes to dance; and David, 5. They also have a beagle named Herman. They recently visited their son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. George Myers in California, stopping in Disneyland too.

After greeting new friends to Northville, it is now necessary to bid farewell to old friends. The O. J. Barnes are moving to East Grand Rapids soon from 1977 Meadowbrook road. Mrs. Barnes was honored last Thursday at a luncheon given by Mrs. William Soellner of Dorisa court in her Polynesian recreation room. Those attending included Mrs. William Cheetham, Mrs. George Glenn, Mrs. Grant Allen and Mrs. Wilson Tyler.

A reminder to 1960 Northville high school graduates—A class reunion is planned for August 29 at the Highland recreation area. Contact David Nash, 349-1372 or Janet (Wilson) Juday, 427-5037, for more information.

Edward Zywlec of 21430 Summerside, Donald Lawrence of 417 Welch and William Slattery of 46812 Dunsany all celebrated birthdays on August 11.

DAR Sponsors Bridge Tourney

The Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of DAR is sponsoring its second found robin bridge tournament beginning September 15. There will be two groups, one consisting of 20 individual players, the other of 10 couples. One game will be played every three weeks until 10 games have been played. Sixteen consecutive hands will be played each time.

Each month a designated hostess will collect $1 from each player. The games will be played during the daytime at the discretion of the hostess and players involved.

There are still openings in either group. Interested persons should call Mrs. James Sample at 349-2308.

Proceeds from last year's tournament were used for many educational activities, both local and national.

Letter Recalls 1907 Salem Train Crash

(Editor's Note - The following was written by Carl E. Phelps of Saginaw, who 58 years ago on July 20, 1907 was aboard the Ionia PM Salem special which collided with a freight train at Salem near here killing 40.

To the Editor:

It was the morning of July 20, 1907. The day opened bright and warm as several hundred Ionians made their way to the Pere Marquette railroad station to board the special train that would take them to Detroit for a day of recreation and enjoyment. As the crowd gathered at the station there were greetings, smiles and hand shakes for it seemed everybody knew everybody.

It was a free train provided by the Pere Marquette allroad company for the pleasure of employees and their families. Engine 155, a proud, shining beauty, slowly puffed its way from the car shops to the station to be coupled to the combination car, and the merry makers would soon be on their way. The train was in charge of Conductor Pixley and Engineer Alvord.

The departure was on schedule. Conductor Pixley with departure papers soon appeared and with arm raised and the usual "a-board" signaled the start. Several stops were made along the way for orders, water, etc.

As the train roared through Salem, the Station operator notified Plymouth "The Special just passed." Then came the agonizing reply: "The freight just left for Salem." It was immediately sensed that a wreck was almost a certainty. The passengers didn't appear to realize that disaster was about to strike.

The trains met with crushing force a short distance from a point called "Wasburn's crossing." A high bank on each side of the track evidently prevented Engineer Alvord from seeing the slow moving freight in time to prevent the wreck. As the brakes were set the cars seemed to jump and sway from side to side. The first seven were badly shattered and some were completely locked in each other. This writer with a brother and sister, occupied seats near the front of coach number eight, the first to remain on the rails. As the train came to a jerking grinding stop, we got out as fast as we could—and the horror that we saw was never to be forgotten.

Just a short distance ahead of number eight was the passenger engine to the right of the track partly buried in the soft ground. The hissing steam and cries of the injured added to the ghastly sight. More than forty people killed and nearly all from Ionia. Detroit was notified and a relief train appeared at approximately 11 a.m. with doctors, nurses and the necessary equipment. They worked feverishly to aid the injured before putting them on the train for further treatment at hospitals. The dead were in rows along the side of the track.

An engine from some point west of Salem soon appeared to take the last four cars back to Ionia with those fortunate enough to escape serious injury. Arriving at Ionia later in the afternoon it seemed all other residents were at the station to get the story of the wreck and the scenes that followed.

Why did the freight leave Plymouth instead of waiting for the special to pass? It developed later that the Plymouth operator had written the orders on a slant and the freight conductor by following straight across appeared to have plenty of time to reach Salem ahead of the special. What a tragic mistake!

Fifty-eight years have passed since that day of sorrow. The saddest in the city's history.

NORTHVILLE VISITOR - Uta Rosenbrock, a 1960-61 exchange student to Northville from Germany is visiting until early September with the American family she stayed with four years ago, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Filkins of 621 Fairbrook, and their three children: David, also a 1961 graduate who will return from camp this Sunday; Sally, who is studying at Kalamazoo this summer; and Woodrow. Uta returned to America to "see the Filkins and to see more of the United States." Her five-week stay in America began with a two-week tour of the Eastern States. She will remain with the Filkins until her departure for her home in Frankfurt September 8. She has been attending the University of Frankfurt, but will begin studies at Munich University November 3. She is a French and English major who will "probably be a teacher." She attended the Rotary club meeting Tuesday noon, which she enjoyed since she attended the meetings weekly while here as an exchange student and because her father is a Rotarian back in Germany.

She'll Head Teen Drive

Donna Tymensky was recently appointed teen chairman to head the September 12 Novi drive for funds for research to eradicate childhood diseases.

Executive chairman of ALSAC, (a fund raising organization) Mrs. John Bekolay, also announced two other appointments. Jim McHugh and Pat Wachtel, as co-chairmen, will assist Miss Tymensky in recruiting leaders and marchers for the two-hour drive.

Novi's goal has been set at $500.

All proceeds will be donated to St. Jude Children's research hospital, located in Memphis, Tennessee. Opened three years ago,

St. Jude's makes it possible for pediatricians and biological scientists to combine their talents and efforts to conquer the medical problems of children.

Patients are admitted upon recommendation of their physician and without regard to race or creed.

Driving under the influence of alcohol cost a Detroit man $100 plus the loss of his driver's license for six months in Judge Charles McDonald's municipal court this week.

The charge was levied against Bishop Stewart Graves of 140 Sibley, Detroit, August 6, by the Northville police department at Griswold and Butler streets. He was released on bond. At his arraignment August 16 he pleaded guilty.

Charles Alfred Wright of Hazel Park Race track faced a felony charge August 9 of breaking and entering the Northville Standard Service, 250 East Main. He pleaded not guilty at arraignment August 12.

In default of bond, he was committed to Wayne County jail. The exam was heard in court August 16 at which time the Wayne county prosecutor recommended that the charge be dismissed. The recommendation was accepted by the judge.

Wright pleaded guilty to an added count of larceny from a building in an amount less than $100 (a misdemeanor). He was assessed a $50 fine plus $25 costs or 30 days in jail and a restitution of $10. Unable to pay the fine and costs, he was committed to the Detroit House of Correction.

Assault and battery was charged against Roger Keith of 41009 Malott, Novi, August 3, by Kenneth Bratrun of Garden City on behalf of his 15-year-old daughter. The offense was committed at 410 West Main, Northville.

Keith was arraigned August 9, and entered a plea of not guilty. He was released on bond pending trial August 16. Following testimony at the trial, Judge McDonald found him guilty and fined him $50.

FIX-IT TIP

Towel racks can be lengthened temporarily, when there are house guests, with pieces of dowel or broomstick. Tie or tape the extension to the regular towel racks. For added touches the extensions may be wrapped with colored, water-resistant tape to match or contrast with the bathroom decor and a strip of tape bearing the name of each guest may be placed on the wall above each towel position. The extensions can be removed and stored for future use

Four ounces of paraffin wax dissolved in a quart of gasoline will make an excellent paint brush preservative. Clean brush thoroughly in thinner, then dip into gasoline-paraffin solution. Hang brush in open air without wiping or shaking dry. Gasoline quickly evaporates but paraffin coating will keep bristles soft and flexible indefinitely. To ready brush for use, wash it in gasoline to remove paraffin.

Spagy's, Braves Win First Northville Tourney

The first annual intra-city class E and F baseball tournaments were held last week in Northville. With three entries in each league, the recreation department decided to put on a show of its own to determine the Northville champions, and to sharpen the tourney-bound Casterline Braves and the Plumbers.

The Braves won the class E final last Thursday night at Cass Benton Park, 9-7, after whipping Bloom's Insurance, 7-0, August 10 in the opening round. The Braves came through as expected, copping the class F title by beating the Ely Oilers, 11-4, last Thursday night at Ford Field. They gained the finals by dumping the Orioles August 10, 9-0. (Top) Recreation Director Ken Conley turns umpire. His right arm shoots out, indicating a strike against the Braves' Mike Utley. Rick Asher of the Oilers is the catcher. (Bottom) Conley presents a jug emblematic of the champion, to Braves' Captain Rich Evans, while Coach Jim LaRue and team members look on.

Braves Win, Plumbers Lose In Tourney

Rain washed out the Casterline Braves' bid for a second round victory in the class F inter-city tournament held at Ford Field in Livonia. The game was scheduled to be played Wednesday.

The Braves gained the second round by winning a 6-5 extra-inning thriller Monday morning over the Lincoln Park nine.

Man of the hour was Charlie Fox, who blasted a three-run homer in the top of the seventh inning to pull the Braves even at 5-5. Then he doubled to right center in the ninth frame to set up the winning marker.

Pete Kunst, who came into run for Fox, took third on a wild throw, and scored with ease as the ball got past the third sacker.

The Braves jumped off to a one-run lead in the first inning. Rich Adams walked with two out, stole second, and tallied on Larry Bogart's single to right field.

It was a 1-0 contest until the bottom of the sixth, when Lincoln Park scored five times on three hits, two walks and a costly error. That set the stage for Fox's game-saving blow in the top of the seventh.

Adams twirled the first five innings until he tired from the blistering heat. Bruce Griggs, coming on in relief, pitched three innings of scoreless ball, limiting Lincoln Park just two hits.

Three times the Braves were in hot water in extra innings. They got out of a jam in the bottom of the seventh when a cut-off play worked to perfection. With two men on, Adams grabbed a throw from the catcher and fired to third, to catch the runner off the bag.

Again in the bottom of the eighth, with a man on first and third and two out, the Braves came up with a gem. Rich LaRue retrieved a slow dribbler in front of the plate and tagged out the runner coming in from third.

Wayne took the lead in the second frame and was never headed.

Sixteen errors by the Plumbers opened the scoring gates for Wayne. In fact, Northville out hit its opponent, seven to six.

After Wayne assumed a 4-0 margin in the second, the local nine came back with two runs in the third. Ken Boerger walked, Larry Biddle reached base on an error and Marty Richardson brought them both home with a long triple.

Wayne picked up two more markers in the fourth. Then it broke the game wide open with a seven-run sixth inning -- on just three hits and a bundle of errors.

Northville tallied twice in the seventh on Barry Deal's single, and that was the old ball game.

Father, Son Become Chutists

Lester St. Thomas, 333 North Rogers, and his 17-year-old son Gary, have taken up an unusual hobby.

They're becoming "sky divers".

Two weeks ago St. Thomas made his first parachute jump. Last Sunday Gary also parachuted. Both were at Brooks Field in Marshall with the Marshall Sky Divers.

Young St. Thomas said he hoped to complete two more parachute jumps this Sunday. To qualify for club membership five parachute jumps must be taken.

Water Show Rescheduled

The Northville Recreation Department's water carnival, originally scheduled for Tuesday, August 17, will be held today, weather permitting, director Ken Conley announced. The bus pickup times will remain the same, he said.

Annual Pet, Doll Show Attracts Biggest Crowd

With an overflow crowd of 500 spectators looking on, the Northville Recreation department staged its annual pet and doll show last week Wednesday.

In fact, records were broken for the number of participants, as well as for the number attending.

There were enough floats, decorated bikes, dogs, cats and dolls to strike everyone's fancy. There were some unusual pets, too, topped by Barry Prom's smallest pets -- ants, a whole jar of them.

He had some rough competition in the smallest pet category. Duncan Millar brought his two turtles, and Earl Bingley was right there with his hamster.

Kicking off festivities was a parade through the downtown business district, followed by the judging behind the Scout-Recreation building. To wrap things up, all competitors were treated to an ice cream bar.

The list of categories and the winners in each are listed below in order of finish:

GEORGE W. MARTZ
George W. Martz, 85, a retired Ford Motor company employee, died Sunday at his home at 15000 Greenlawn, Detroit. He had been ill for two years. He was preceded in death by his wife, Eva, on January 29, 1949. Mr. Martz was born March 24, 1880 in Detroit. He lived in Northville for 45 years, but moved to Detroit five years ago. He is survived by his daughter, Eleanor, and his sister, Mrs. Walter Carroll of Southfield. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. from Casterline funeral home. The Reverend W. Riley Parson officiated. Interment was at Rural Hill cemetery.

He lived at 43021 11 Mile road, Novi. Born December 31, 1956, he was a third grader at the Novi school. Two Cited In Burglary

Two 21-year-olds from the Hazel Park raceway were implicated in a breaking and entering incident last week. Only a few dollars were stolen.

Charles Wright, who was arraigned last Thursday before Northville Judge Charles MacDonald, pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of larceny. He was committed to the Detroit House of Correction for 30 days when he failed to pay a $50 fine, $25 court costs and $10 for restitution.

Charged with breaking and entering is his companion, Charles R. Bunting. Bunting is on a trip to Alabama to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Police Chief Gene King said.

A call from a South Main street resident alerted police at 2:38 Monday morning, August 9. He told police that two men were outside his bedroom window.

Officers Herbert Zachmann and Gus Aleck apprehended the men after being told in which direction they had headed. Both were released after questioning, King said.

Later that morning, around 6:30, a check of Hester's Standard Service station, corner of Church and Main streets, and City Shell Service, corner of Gardner and Main streets, revealed windows had been broken in the stations' doors.

Entrance had been gained, however, only to Hester's, and a few dollars stolen from a drawer, King reported.

Wright was picked up August 11 and given a lie detector test. Confronted with the results, he confessed to his part, said King. He admitted that his partner, Bunting, had actually broken the windows and stolen the money. It was Wright's first violation, King noted.

Baby-Sitter Bill Disrupts Meeting

Northville's city council waded through a rather hefty agenda Monday night in a meeting that ended on a sour note.

A grievance involving baby-sitting services for Police Chief Eugene King's family during the period he was hospitalized after being shot twice by a bank robber erupted into an argument which prompted Mayor A. M. Allen to adjourn the session abruptly.

The baby sitter, Melinda McKernan, attended the meeting with her father, Fred McKernan of Rogers street.

Miss McKernan had asked for $10 per day for her services at the King home during the period from February 10 through March 9, it was reported. The total bill was $300. The matter came to council attention when Chief King requested vacation pay so that the bill might be paid. Councilmembers took the position that he should not have to stand financial loss as a result of the injury suffered while on duty.

Miss McKernan had worked as a part-time dispatcher for the police department and was taken from this duty to assist the King family at the time of the shooting. The city continued to pay Miss McKernan for the hours missed at city hall, but made no arrangement to pay for the remaining days.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie had been instructed to investigate the matter and made his report to the council Monday night. He pointed out that the city had paid Miss McKernan $131 during this period.

An argument then pursued with Miss McKernan and her father challenging the report and stating that Chief King had failed to keep his promise to pay.

Although Chief King was in the council chambers, he remained silent.

The attack by the complainants on Chief King brought a strong rebuke from Councilman Fred Kester. Finally, Mayor Allen called for adjournment although Miss McKernan protested.

The council later decided to make payment in full and Mayor Allen stated that he would deliver the check personally Wednesday.

In earlier business the council was told by City Engineer Harold Penn that cost of paving Novi street for 280 feet south of Baseline would be about half as much as estimated. The bid by Oakland Paving was $1,100, he reported. The lower price will cut previously estimated assessments to property owners by 50 per cent.

The council approved a recommendation by City manager Roger Rehberg which called for recapping three blocks of Wing and Fairbrook streets where the Detroit water line was installed. The manager proposed that three-fourths of the cost should be paid by the water line contractor. He also proposed that no permit to complete the installation in the city should be granted until property repairs are made along the route of the line already installed.

Cars, Rain Banned For Sidewalk Sale!

NEW LOOK - Friday's side walk sale will be the best ever, Chairman Charles Lapham promised this week. First of all, there'll be no cars on Main street between Center and Hutton (thus the big "X" on the picture of the event taken last year.) Secondly, also unlike last year, there will be sunny skies instead of rain. And finally, says Lapham, there will be more and bigger bargains. Just in case Lapham slips up on his weather prediction, the sale will be held Saturday in case of rain.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Harold Hawley
South Lyon Church of Christ

In recent years we have heard much about the desirability of unity among people professing to follow Jesus Christ. The uniting of some religious bodies and the Ecumenical Council have emphasized this trend. It is well that people should think in this direction. That Christian unity is pleasing to the Lord is certain. Jesus earnestly prayed for unity in John 17. "I pray for them (the apostles)...Holy Father, keep through Thine own name those whom Thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are" (John 17:9, 11).

In the same petition to the Father, He prayed that all believers might be united. "Neither pray I for these alone (the apostles), but for them also which shall believe on Me through their word, that they may all be one" as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us: that the world may believe that Thou has sent Me" (John 17:20, 21). Yes, the Lord greatly desires that all believers shall be united.

The all-important question then comes: "How can all men be united in religious faith?" The answer is: "The scriptures provide the basis for Christian unity." The same Lord who desires unity of all believers sent His apostles out to preach the gospel and the unity must come through this one gospel, if at all.

Several years after they had first preached the gospel, the Apostle Paul wrote the Corinthian Christians as follows: "I beseech you, brethren, by the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10). Here is the key to unity: (1) All speak the same thing. Paul asked them to have the same doctrine, to teach the same thing about conversion, about the church, about worship, and about right living. (2) He asked that there be no divisions, or factions with different names and practices, but (3) that all be perfectly or completely joined together. In several other places in Paul's writings the same ideas are expressed.

This then brings up another question: "Are the scriptures sufficient as a basis for unity among all believers?" We note two passages, "all scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect (complete), thoroughly furnished unto all good works" (2 Tim. 16, 17). Peter expresses the same thought: "According as His divine power hath given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him that has called us to glory and virtue" (2 Pet. 1:3). May men so work together with God's word that some day perfect unity among believers will be a reality.

QUANDARY

Would you like to be as young as she is? Would you like to wake up tomorrow and find yourself standing in a field of Queen Anne's lace, with the summer breeze blowing and fleecy white clouds sailing overhead?

Would you really like to be as young as she is? If you've been measuring up to life, the answer should be no. Naturally, you can look at her with nostalgia. But think of the lessons she has yet to learn — lessons you learned long ago. Add up your experiences, both good and bad, which wouldn't be yours were you to revert to youth. The total should make you glad that you are exactly the age you are.

If you aren't — something's missing. Somewhere, you've gotten off the track. In this case, you don't need to return to childhood. You need, rather, a new approach to adulthood, a new grasp, a new understanding. Start finding it now . . . in the church of your choice.

Correction

The message in last week's "Pastor's Study" was inadvertently credited to Mr. Hawley, pastor of the South Lyon Church of Christ. It was actually written by Rev. Lloyd Brasure, First Presbyterian Church of Northville. Mr. Hawley's message appears above; The Rev. Brasure's will appear next week.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A HEAP OF TROUBLE - This mound of debris was dumped in Novi last week, right across from the Novi Village Hall. Thanks to the efforts of Village Manager Harold Ackley, the culprit, Paul Garavaglia of Detroit, was apprehended and fined $100. Ackley spotted the man driving his dump truck away from the scene. He notified Novi police, who sent out a bulletin. Garavaglia was picked up in Farmington Township and returned to Novi, where he stood trial before Judge Emery Jaques last Thursday. He's one of a number of people who have dumped trash in Novi and suffered a stiff fine as a result.

He's New Head Of Craft Group

William G. Case, Northville elementary art teacher, was recently elected chairman of the Michigan Craftsmen's Council for the next two years. He is currently heading the State exhibit of crafts, which will be open to the public October 3-16 at America House-Michigan in Birmingham. A state organization of more than 600 craftsmen, it is affiliated with the national organization. Case has exhibited his pottery in numerous shows throughout Michigan, Wisconsin, Tennessee and New York.

Novi Court Proceedings

Six youths who were nabbed by Officer Vern Loeffler August 7 for having liquor in their possession, were arraigned last Thursday before Judge Robert K. Anderson in Novi court. The driver, David Brickner, 18, of Southfield, was originally stopped for driving 40 in a 30 mile-per-hour zone on Novi road near 12 and one half Mile road. He was subsequently fined $10 on the possession charge and $5 for failing to have a driver's license in his possession. Five other minors who were passengers were all fined $10 a piece. They were Walter Zaccac, 17, Larry Logan, 18, Craig Klester, 18, and Allen Florine, 18, all of Southfield, and Robert Serra, 18, of Livonia. Peter Sucura, 17, of Hazel Park was committed to Oakland County jail after arraignment July 29 before Anderson. He was charged on two counts, one of driving a defective motor vehicle, and the other of having no driver's license. The incident occurred July 10 at the intersection of 12 Mile and Meadowbrook roads. There was a broken tail light on the car, and no light on the license plate. Michael Ferrell, 19, of Detroit, was fined $30 by Judge Emery Jaques for speeding 70 in a 50 mile-an-hour zone. July 24. He was arraigned last Thursday. Novi police Chief, Lee BeGole, reported that Ferrell and Richard Christensen, who was fined the week before, revved up their motorcycles and raced down Novi road. BeGole said he finally caught the youth near Eight Mile road.

WILLOWBROOK

Marion Berry 474-7470
Mr. and Mrs. William Murray of McMahon had as houseguests for two days recently, friends of long-standing, Mr. and Mrs. William Schneider and their son, Gregory, 3. The Schneiders are from Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Mr. Schneider is the art director of Station WKJG, television.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reuther and children of Maude Lea spent 10 days vacationing at Rondeau Park in Ontario, Canada. The family enjoyed summer activities on Lake Erie.
Mr. J. L. Reuther, Don's mother is visiting Laura, Don and the children for several weeks. Mrs. Reuther makes her home in Belleville, Illinois.
Mr. and Mrs. Len Ucinski and children, Kathy, Steve and Marcy just returned from a two-week vacation touring Kentucky. They pulled a trailer and camped along the way. First they went to the General Butler State Park and camped and went sightseeing in Mammoth Cave. Then their itinerary was to Bowling Green National Park. There was a swimming pool, a zoo and a huge amusement park. Next they went to Cumberland Falls State park. Here there was square dancing in the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coyt of McMahon recently returned from a 10-day vacation in northern Michigan. They had their sons Terry and Brad with them and also a little nephew, Dennis Nickerson of Inkster. They went in a five-car caravan. One couple was from Farmington, one from Inkster and three couples from Dearborn.

They travelled to Hiawatha National Park the first day near the Mackinaw Bridge and pitched camp. Next day they drove to Lake Michigan and stayed at the Van Riper Camp for five days. While there they visited the Agat Falls and Bon Falls. Then they spent the rest of the vacation at Otsego State Park. They went sightseeing, fishing, played cards, and just plain relaxed.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore of Ten Mile recently returned from a canoe trip made on the Rifle River with four other couples. They drove to Standish on a Friday and went to the canoe livery. They went down river 17 1/2 miles on Saturday. On Sunday they paddled about the same mileage. The group stopped and barbecued steaks and had a real good time. Once Nancy was racing some of the others and dropped her paddle and in trying to regain the paddle fell overboard and tipped the canoe.
Nancy and one of her nieces just had birthdays. The family had a get-together to celebrate these birthdays. The Moores and their three sons drove up to Nancy's sister's in Ann Arbor, Mrs. J. R. Miller. Her younger sister, Karen Baker, her fiance, Gayle Helf, were also there to help celebrate.

WILLOWBROOK COMMUNITY E.U.B. CHURCH
There will be a farewell reception for the Robert Keating family of McMahon Circle after the church service on August 22. The Keatings are moving from this community.
Fish Story
Fishmongers in Oxford, England, are misleading their customers by selling dogfish and catfish as "mock halibut" or "Scotch hake" or "rock salmon," the magazine Oxford Consumer complained recently.
It added, "Catfish and dogfish may sound unattractive, but at least they are honest."

You'll See Variety of Events From State Fair Grandstands

There'll be fun and thrills aplenty in front of the grandstand during the Michigan State Fair, which opens Friday evening, August 27, and runs through Labor Day, September 6.

The grandstand shows will be just one segment of the whirl of activity at the fair, which is inviting visitors to "come early and stay all day."

The big event starts off with a mile-long downtown Detroit parade Friday at 8 p.m. on Woodward from Jefferson to Vernor.

First grandstand event will come at 9 p.m. opening night. A spectacular fireworks display is scheduled, free to all State Fair-goers.

The next day the Barnes and Carruthers circus takes the spotlight in front of the grandstand Fair visitors.

Among featured acts are the Flying Alexanders, John Cuneo's Horse Fantasy Revue, Mary Lou and Her Sway Act, plus clowns and elephants and chimps and the many other acts which make the circus an all-time favorite for young and old.

The circus will be presented three times daily from Saturday, August 28 through Friday, September 3. Times are 1:30, 4:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Horses and daredevils take over at the grandstand on Saturday, September 4.

The exciting horses pulling contests are returning to the State Fair after a 12-year absence. At 10 a.m. Saturday, the lightweight teams will compete in moving the weights. At 4 p.m., the muscular heavyweights will take over. The contests are free to State Fair-goers.

At 2 and 8 p.m. that Saturday, the Jole Chitwood Thrill Show, with an admission charge of $1, will be presented in front of the grandstand. The show includes 27 acts featuring some of the world's greatest daredevil drivers.

The thrill show also will be presented at 8 p.m. Sunday, September 5, and Monday, September 6.

At 2 p.m. Sunday, the traditional 250-mile Auto Race, an extra-admission event, is scheduled. At the same time Monday, a 150-mile race is on tap.

The grandstand events will wind up at 10 p.m. Labor Day with another fireworks spectacular.

Three Hurt In Saturday Collision

Three people were injured last Saturday afternoon in a head on collision on Cass Benton park roadway opposite the athletic field.

LeRoy Clough, 52 of Hale, and a passenger in his car, Miss Terry Fockler, 17, of Ypsilanti, and the driver of the other car, Thomas Patla, 39, of Detroit, were all taken to Wayne County General hospital that day and released after treatment.

According to Wayne county sheriff's deputies, actual cause of the collision has not been determined. They received the call at 2:05 p.m.

Deputies reported that Clough was heading south, and Patla's car north when the accident occurred. After the impact both cars were in the center of Hines drive, police said.

Damage to both automobiles was extensive.

have contributed towards the new hymnals. All who have not contributed do so right away as soon as possible. Each family is urged to supply at least one new hymnal.

This coming weekend August 20-21-22nd, Methodist families of the Novi and New Hudson churches will be camping at School Lake near Brighton. School Lake is near Brighton, 2 1/2 miles north on Route 23. Call Rev. Webster 438-8701 for details.

Candidate Ferency?

LANSING — Subtlety is an art in politics which very few men possess and even fewer use. When a person already in the public spotlight starts thinking of becoming a candidate-type politician, any subtle abilities he might have once possessed usually go out the window. Such is becoming more and more the case with Democratic State Chairman Zolton A. Ferency. Initially it sounded as if Ferency was merely taking his job of Republican governor prodder very seriously. He struck out at Gov. George Romney from minor vantage points which normally would go unnoticed. Then word began circulating that Ferency was considering facing the governor himself in 1966 if Romney seeks a third term. Although this was denied several times, the rumor has persisted and Ferency has now given more credence to it himself by informally announcing a change in his party activities. PRIOR TO FERENCY'S rise to the party chairmanship, the No. 1 Democratic organizer traditionally filled the post on a part-time basis, leaving the daily details to office staff. Ferency took over on a full-time, "I make all decisions," basis. INDICATIONS ARE that Ferency will start his informal but more open campaign early in 1966. He has told several sources, including at least one for publication, that he will become a part-time party chairman and resume some of his former law practice. Barring fall legislative action on tax reform, which daily grows more unlikely, the party chief has carved a niche slightly different from Romney's position. He will need considerable help in honing a smooth, sharp distinction. He has already called for a petition drive to change the state constitution to allow the enactment of a graduated income tax, now specifically prohibited. Romney and Ferency agree tax reform should be accomplished this year. Both know sentiment among Democratic legislative leaders is contrary to their hopes and that passage of such a drastic program would be sheer fantasy in the 1966 election year session. Oddsmakers now say Ferency will have a hard time getting his party's nomination. There appears now to be no real shining light on the Democratic side, however, and a volunteer may be what is needed come next summer.  EMPLOYE suggestion plans with monetary rewards have proved very effective in industry so the state plans to expand its activities in this area. The legislature this year gave the state civil service commission $20,000 to be used for such a plan, involving all state agencies. Previously, the commission has had a limited employe suggestion plan in use among its own employes. Plans provide for an award of 10 per cent of the first year's net savings accrued from any tangible suggestion and specified dollar rewards for ideas which cannot be accurately measured but do result in operational improvements. Optimistic estimates are that at least 1,000 of Michigan's 32,500 state employes would submit valuable suggestions in the first year and a savings of operational costs up to $100,000 could be realized.  Legislative activity in Michigan grows in leaps and bounds, although it might seem there should soon be a leveling off point when laws exist and are adequate in every area of public concern. In the past three years alone, a third or better increase has been noted in several of the many steps in the legislative process. These include bills introduced in both houses, measures sent to the governor, and new laws becoming effective. Considerably less change was noted in the number of bills which remained in committee or were killed. In 1963, for example, the legislature sent to the governor 254 of the 1,223 bills introduced. This year the governor got 405 of the 1,693 proposals introduced. As was expected Republican Gov. George Romney found more fault with the ideas passed by this year's Democratic - controlled legislature. In his first term, when his party was in command of both houses, he vetoed only 11 measures. This year he turned down 23 proposals and let several others become law without his signature. This veto record surpassed even the 17 vetoes handed down in a single year by former Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson when he was working with a Republican majority.

Basics of Medicare

BABSON PARK, Mass. — So much is being written about the Medicare program that the basic "whens" and "whats" are often smothered in a welter of too much information. Hence it may be helpful to many senior citizens if we highlight some of the key points in this newly passed national law. First, it should be emphasized that practically all people aged 65 or over are eligible for the basic Medicare benefits, whether they are poor or well off, are gainfully employed or retired, are under social security or not. True, a few federal employes appear to be without this coverage, but they are protected in a similar fashion by a 1959 statute. All in all, it is estimated that approximately 19 million people will be able to avail themselves of the new medical advantages. It should be made clear, however, that the first step in the basic plan -- involving hospital, home-nursing, and outpatient help -- does not become operative until July 1, 1966. The second stage -- establishing nursing-home provisions -- does not go into effect until January 1, 1967. So senior citizens should hold onto any hospital insurance they now have in order to take care of emergencies in the interim. Meanwhile, most insurance companies will be arranging to have existing policies revised by the time Medicare becomes effective. Duplication, of course, should be avoided in any revised policy, and marginal coverage should be worked out to pay for any possible bigscale illnesses beyond the scope of Medicare. The 17 million or so eligibles receiving social security or railroad retirement pension allotments will automatically receive the required identification cards through the mail. The other 2 million or so must get theirs by applying at any Social Security office. The system is paid for by payroll taxes levied on employes and employers with a first increase to come next January 1 and another increase a year later. Workers should realize that these two tax hikes will represent wage cuts wherever full payment is not assumed by employers. Starting next July 1, those eligible may be placed in a hospital by the doctor of their choice for 60 days of care, with $40 deductible; an additional 30 days is granted, but the patient must pay $10 a day for this. Basic hospital coverage is included; Room and board, regulation drugs, supplies, and ordinary services. Hospital outpatient treatment becomes obtainable at the same time, along with home visits by nurses and therapists. Not covered in basic Medicare are the costs for doctors, specialists, or private nurses. Starting January 1, 1967, free nursing-home care will be available for 20 days after at least 3 days in the hospital. Then, 80 additional days may be spent in the nursing home, with the patient paying $5 a day. For those over 65 who are willing to pay a $3 monthly premium, beginning next July 1, a voluntary plan gives further coverage for doctors' or surgeons' bills (in or

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Forty-seven states including Michigan are bidding for an atom-smasher facility which has been described as "the technical prize of the decade".

It may end up in our backyard.

Imagine, if you can, a low, rectangular building about a mile long and half as wide. The facility would cost about $350,000,000 (that's millions) and would employ "thousands".

And, it is estimated, the technical center would attract about 1,000 visitors each day.

Dennis Pajot, editor of our South Lyon Herald newspaper, spent an afternoon last week interviewing Congressman Weston Vivian, representative from the second district, which includes Northville township.

They talked about the atomic accelerator plant proposed by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

Naturally, Congressman Vivian is working diligently to bring the prize plum to his district.

The area under consideration is located in Northfield township in a quadrangle bounded by Dixboro road on the east, Five Mile on the north, Joy road on the south and the Ann Arbor railroad on the west. Fort Custer near Battle Creek is another site in Michigan under consideration.

Vivian is optimistic about the Northfield township site, but points out that it will be another year before any choice is made.

"I feel quite confident that we will get through the first elimination and will be in the final 15-20 sites", said the young Democratic congressman from Ann Arbor.

The narrowing-down process will take place this fall with the National Academy of Sciences making a recommendation of several sites to the AEC. The latter will then let its preference be known to the joint atomic energy committee of congress, which will then go to the floor for authorization early in the 1966 session.

Vivian feels the area site will rank high because of its proximity to the metropolitan Detroit area, the numerous universities nearby and the scientific facilities at and around the University of Michigan.

What's more, he notes, there are no other major federal installations in the area, a definite advantage over many other sites being considered.

The impact of such a facility in the area would be almost impossible to measure. It would undoubtedly attract numerous related businesses, not to mention the housing, personal services and other facilities required by great numbers of people.

The industry itself is described by Vivian as very desirable. Specifically, the atom accelerator, or smasher, is like a giant vacuum tube in which particles are accelerated at a constantly increasing speed until they literally disintegrate.

Yearly budget of the giant facility would be some $40,000,000.

The impact on the surrounding area is impossible to estimate. But it is safe to say that Northville, Novi, Plymouth, Wixom, etc., would feel the economic boom, as well as the other benefits and problems that accompany such growth.

Cadet Schoof, one of 52 outstanding cadets from 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico, received three hours of orientation flight in T-33 jet trainers during the week-long course.

The course is one of seven summer activities designed to prepare CAP cadets in aerospace sciences.

Cadet Doeksen is one of 1,500 cadets participating in the extensive six-week program which will end August 7. A wandering steer who led police and citizens on wild chases through the vicinity for more than a week, is back home today, probably telling all his friends about his exciting adventure. The steer escaped through a fence on the farm of Mrs. Mary Guntzville, corner of Taft and 11 Mile road.

Hundreds of people lined Northville streets and circled the city hall park Friday evening to watch beaming, proud youngsters show off their pets and dolls. More spectators were on hand for the recreation-sponsored parade and show than ever before, department officials revealed.

The Sally Bell Bakery has joined its next door neighbor, Roy Stone's Gamble store, in undergoing a complete face-lifting. The building is owned by James Spagnuolo. Constructed in 1893, the structure is known as the "Union Building."

The Gladstone Shoe Store is sponsoring a "Drean Design Contest." Consumers will have the opportunity to create their own idea of a shoe. Valuable prizes and fame await the winners. The contest is limited to teen-age girls.

The Executive Board of the P.T.A. Nursery School has arranged to hire a teacher and take registrations for the school which will open in the middle of September.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
Proper voting procedures made up the open discussions which characterized the young voters' meeting which was held August 19, in the Legion Hall, where Mrs. Levi M. Eaton was the adult member of the Coordinating Council sitting with the 21-ers. "Why Vote" was the topic discussed by Robert Angove, president of the newly organized club.

Post Office Full of PEP

Postmaster John Stelmel announced today that all Northville post office employees will be asked to take part in the new Postal Efficiency Plan announced Wednesday, July 22, by Postmaster General John A. Gronowski.

"The Postal Efficiency Plan includes comprehensive programs for improving postal service and reducing costs," Stelmel said. "It is our way of helping President Johnson fulfill his pledge to provide more effective and economical government services."

In Washington, Postmaster General John A. Gronowski termed the plan's twin objectives of economy and service betterment "a matter of highest priority" and called for total involvement of all employees through the Post Office suggestion program.

Semi-Annual reports will be made to the President, Mr. Gronowski said, and realized savings will be reverted to the Treasury or applied to improving Postal service.

A local committee will be organized to fulfill the two purposes of the plan:

1. Reduce costs
2. Improve services
