

It's Goodbye Dusty Roads

Gravel streets in the city of Northville will be treated with a seal coat process in the next few weeks at a cost of approximately $6,110.

City manager Roger Rehberg was instructed to proceed with the project by the city council Tuesday.

Under Rehberg's recommendation work on the dozen streets involved will be done by city crews. Work will begin almost immediately as the council passed a resolution waiving the requirement for sealed bids for 543 tons of stone and 21,000 gallons of prime and sealer as Rehberg indicated the prices he quoted of $1,775 and $3,570 are the best that can be obtained for the quality material he felt is needed for a satisfactory job.

Some 21,724 square yards of street will be seal coated. Streets involved include River, Gardner, Johnson, Linden court, Spring, Grandview, Horton, Carpenter, Grace, Scott, Fairbrook court and Hill, if construction work is not slated there.

The council adopted Rehberg's proposal after he pointed out that the road treatment will be about the same cost as the present program of grading and oiling. The city will rent a tire roller and chip spreader to do the work.

The manager also was instructed to proceed with a leaf collection program this fall using the leaf sweeping machine purchased from the city of Plymouth for $450 and a city crew of three. The four-year-old machine was sold, Rehberg explained, as Plymouth has purchased a machine that also is a catch-basin cleaner. Under Northville's program residents will be asked to sweep leaves to the street edge between the sidewalk and curb. City crews then will rake them into the street to be picked up by the machine.

Street Lights Extinguished

A curtain of darkness fell over parts of Northville Thursday night when a fuse on a transformer blew out.

Street lights only were effected, beginning at 7:35 p.m.

They were extinguished for nearly six hours on Center street from Eight Mile road to Main street, on Main and Dunlap streets and spots of Hutton and Rodgers streets. Lights came on again at 1:50 a.m.

Streets shrouded in darkness for a shorter time, two hours, were all in the city's southwest sector, including Center, those south of Dunlap, extending to Seven Mile road, and Orchard drive. Power was restored in this area at 9:24 p.m.

Police Officer Louis Westphal heard what sounded like an explosion, and lights went out. Detroit Edison repairmen were immediately called.

New Subdivision Plat Approved

Final approval of the plat for Northville Heights subdivision No. 2, containing 69 lots, was issued both by the Northville planning commission and the city commission Tuesday night.

Builder Dave Pink was granted the approval after entering into agreement with the city regarding off-site improvements, including drainage culvert under North Center street and sanitary sewer lines to Grace court and Novi street east. He agreed to pay $735 as his share of water main costs. The city manager was instructed to contact Oakland county department of public works to facilitate connection to the new Novi relief sewer.

ment of public works to facilitate connection to the new Novi relief sewer.

Pink told the council he has two models under construction in the Northville Heights subdivision No. 1, ranging in price from $18,500. Colonials will run approximately $22,900.

A public hearing on the request of Cutler Realty and Earle McIntosh to rezone lot 444, plat 5, on Randolph street from R2 to R2 A (Multiple dwelling) was set for the next regular council meeting, September 20.

Chamber Meets Tonight

A general membership meeting of the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening at eight o'clock at the city hall.

Slated to be one of the main topics of discussion will be the chamber's recommendations for street and traffic improvements in the city.

Among the changes proposed by the chamber's traffic committee are: the extension of Griswold south to Cady street; widening and improvement of Beal; extension of Wing street south to Hines drive; and widening of Wing street along its easterly side.

Some of the chamber's recommendations have coincided with the city planning commission's master plan. The improvement of Randolph street had also been cited by the chamber as a prime project. It is currently on the city council's list of early street improvement projects.

The Northville Record

IF IT'S NEWS . . . AND IT HAPPENS IN NORTHVILLE . . . YOU CAN READ IT IN THE RECORD

Vol. 95, No. 17, 16 Pages, Two Sections

Northville, Michigan—Thursday, September 9, 1965

10c Per Copy, $4.00 Per Year In Advance

These are the four women in City Manager Roger Rehberg's life: Kim, Kathy, Terry and Wanda.

City Manager and Family

Meet the Rehbergs

Although Roger Rehberg's been on the job as city manager of Northville for a month now, his family are "newcomers".

Just getting nicely settled in their home at 207 Beal avenue are Mrs. Rehberg (Wanda) and the Rehbergs' three daughters, Kim, Kathy and Terry.

They arrived two weeks ago after leaving the home of the Alfred Smiths.

The Rehbergs moved to Northville from Cheboygan where Roger had been manager for the past three years.

And they like it here . . . their house and the community.

The neat three-bedroom home is ideally suited to their needs and the Rehbergs fully realize how difficult it is to find a home to rent in Northville.

And the community impresses them as both friendly and clean.

Like other Northville youngsters, school starts today for the Rehberg girls. Kim's in sixth grade at the junior high school;

Kathy is a fourth grader and Terri is a second grader, both at Main street.

Getting settled in a new job, house and community and getting the girls ready for school have occupied most of the Rehbergs' time and attention to date. But they have other interests.

Wanda likes to bowl and hopes to join a league. Roger is sports minded, too, but he's more interested in football. While in college at Michigan State University he worked with the Spartan football squad as assistant to the equipment manager.

Roger is originally from Jesup, Iowa. He attended both Michigan College of Mining and Technology and MSU, graduating from the latter.

He met Wanda in her hometown of Sault Ste Marie when he was stationed there as a member of the Air Force.

Roger served as city clerk in Brighton for one year as well as teaching school there. He was manager of the city of Reed City for two years prior to going to Cheboygan.

Police Study Group Named In Township

A seven member citizens' committee was named Tuesday night by the Northville township board to "determine the short range and long range Northville township police protection needs".

The study was recommended and outlined by Trustee James Tellam, who said he had been approached by several residents on the subject.

Selected by the board to undertake the study were:

Richard Endress, 19550 Clement; H. O. Evans, 20311 Woodhill; Eugene Guido, 20390 Westview; F. W. Hemmery, 9300 Napier road; Hugh McKay, 45924 Seven Mile; E. O. Weber, 20360 Woodhill; and Mrs. Carl Wilson, Six Mile road.

The proposed study calls for investigation of present needs with reference to service by constables, special sheriff's patrol cars, township police force and joint township-city force. The latter is broken down into three possibilities -- with Northville, Livonia or Plymouth.

The committee is also asked to explore future needs, quality of training, experience in other townships and local growth trends.

The board's discussion brought some reaction from the audience. One citizen asked "if there's a current crime wave" and wondered if the taxpayer had anything to say about supporting a police force.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam explained that a vote would be necessary if additional millage were needed to provide police protection. The supervisor said the county sheriff's department had estimated a cost of $50,000 to provide one man with one car on full time 24-hour duty.

Treasurer A. M. Lawrence said a study he had conducted in 1956 indicated the cost of a full force operated by the township would be $60,000 annually.

Trustee Tellam explained that the study would consider whether there is a need or not and, if so, provide some alternatives and costs.

The committee is asked to submit its findings "no sooner than six months from the date of formation".

In other business Tuesday night the board approved library and fire hall rental contracts with the city. Trustee Wilson Tyler voted against the library contract "because the scope and principle involved are not agreeable to me."

The library rental agreement calls for the city and township to share the rent based upon one per cent of the cost of the building per month. This figure amounts to $438.48. The rent is divided on a use basis determined by county library figures on percentage of city-township use. This year the township's percentage of use is 31.8 per cent. The same division of costs is applied to maintenance and utility expense.

Rental of the fire hall amounts to $125 monthly. The city and township divide the cost of fire calls on the basis of the number of calls made to the township and the number of volunteer firemen responding. Trustee Tyler voiced some objection to this formula also, but voted for the fire-hall rental contract.

A new schedule of engineering fees submitted by Mosher Associates, township engineers, was approved. It was agreed that the contract would be reviewed annually.

The board approved Edenderry Hills plat number four, a continuation of the township development of homes which includes 21 more lots.

Rezonning of 2 1/2 acres from agriculture to R-1H was approved. The land adjoins Shadbrook subdivision and will provide four more building lots for that development.

Garbage Stench Irks Supervisor

Supervisor Merriam is fed up with unsightly and "smelly" garbage and rubbish.

He told the board Tuesday night that he had inspected areas in Northville township last week with a representative of the county board of health. "The conditions", said Merriam, "were definitely undesirable".

The supervisor explained that he had received complaints from residents that exposed garbage was attracting rats. He said he inspected two sites, one commercial and the other residential, and found them to be health hazards.

Merriam urged the board to consider a local ordinance governing disposal of garbage and rubbish. He said the county health official had advised him that this would provide the township with stronger enforcement. Presently, action through the county is slow, Merriam stated.

Before taking any action on an ordinance the board decided to press the complaints through county health and prosecutor's office channels. If this proves unsuccessful, a local ordinance will be considered.

Such an ordinance would set forth regulations for disposing of all rubbish and garbage -- either by garbage disposal, inside incinerator or contract pick-up.

Primary Election Slated Tuesday

Wayne county residents will go to the polls Tuesday to nominate eight candidates for the circuit court.

Four of the eight nominees will be elected in November to terms ending January 1, 1971.

There's plenty of competition for the $29,000 per year posts. The field includes a list of 46 hopefuls. All have been vying for endorsement in the heavily-populated center of Wayne county, Detroit.

A primary contest for mayor and common council in the city of Detroit promises to attract more voter interest than in areas, such as Northville, where only the judgeship nominations are at stake.

Northville has local interest in the election, however. The city's municipal judge, Charles McDonald, is one of the 46 hoping to win one of the eight nominations. McDonald, 36, has been judge for the city since 1961. He has law offices in Redford.

The Northville judge was one of only 19 of the 46 candidates to receive mention by the Civic Searchlight, a non-partisan organization which researches and rates them either "preferred and well qualified", "well qualified" or "qualified". Five went top rating, three were listed as "well qualified" and 11, including McDonald, were given "qualified" status.

Polls open Tuesday at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Residents of Northville township living in precinct one (west of Sheldon road) vote at the community building (junior high boys' gym), while precinct two votes at the township hall.

Wayne county residents of the city (south of Baseline) vote as follows: precinct one (west side of Dunlap north of Main street and West side of Center south of Main street) -- at the council chambers of the city hall; precinct two -- at the library.

Following is the complete list of 46 candidates:

Julius E. Allen, J. Connor Austin, Antonio Bonfiglio, Michael W. Bradley, Lonnie H. Brashner, John E. Breen, Evan H. Callanan, Arthur J. Cyrowski, Robert E. DeMasco, Harry J. Dingeman, Jr., Richard D. Dunn, Dee Edwards, Robert Lee Evans, Charles S. Farmer, Thomas J. Foley, Paul Harty, James A. Hathaway, Austin A. Howard, Orville L. Hubbard, Patrick J. Keating, Cornelia G. Kennedy, Paul M. Koch, William Krueger, Mary Jane Liddy, John E. MacDonald, Seymour Markowitz, George T. Martin, Charles W. McDonald, Lee C. McManus, Blair Moody, Jr., Warfield Moore, Jr., Robert C. Murphy, James D. O'Connell, William N. Ponder, Harold M. Ryan, John Safran, Abe A. Schmyer, Ronald R. Stempfen, Joe B. Sullivan, Anthony J. Szymanski, Royal G. Targan, Victor Targonski, George W. Tobias, Robert P. Van Wiemeersch, Lucille Watts, Ben L. Williams.

NEW CITIZENS—Fifty people, including 13 award recipients, attended the 21'ers Banquet honoring new voters last Thursday night at St. Paul's Lutheran church. The Lloyd H. Green post of the American Legion sponsored the banquet with Legion Commander Harold W. Penn acting as chairman and master of ceremonies. Dr. Morris R. Boucher, academic dean of Olivet college (see picture at right) spoke on "My Personal Freedom". The honorees were front row (l-r) Margaret Knight, Muriel LeFevre, Kathie Lee, Rita Bradford, Linda Deal and Sharon Bongiovanni; back row, Rick Marshall, R. C. Schneider, Charles Weiss, Bruce E. # South of Border Summer Agrees with Local Youths

Earthquakes, bullfights via the television set, playing jal lai, hot and spicy Mexican foods, learning Spanish and visiting the age-old pyramids and ultra-modern structures of Mexico City were a few of the highlights of Mike Chabut's and Pat Raubar's two-month stay in Mexico this summer.

Both were representatives of the Youth for Understanding exchange program.

Mike, the son of Mrs. Elaine Chabut of 18505 Sheldon road, and Pat, the daughter of the John Raubars of 640 Fairbrook, returned last Thursday.

The earthquakes that made front page news in America this summer were a reality to Mike and Pat. Mike explains that "I was in the mercado (market) when I said to my friend, 'I feel like I'm going to faint.' Well, my friend said he felt the same way. Then a Mexican shouted 'Earthquake!'"

We weren't allowed out of the building. The electricity went off all over the city. Five people were killed during it. Things just shook in the market, and there was no real damage to it."

Pat relates that "I was trying to write a letter. The wall kept coming toward me. I wondered what was going on. I didn't know until the next day what had happened." She said three earthquakes occurred during her stay.

In their quieter moments, the two enjoyed their family life. Mike lived with the Garcias who have six children, a cousin who lived with them, two dogs, four cats and eleven rabbits.

Pat lived with Mrs. Isabel Cillerio Vda-de-Lopez, her four daughters and 19-year-old son. Both are wealthy Mexican families and live in the most prosperous neighborhoods.

One thing that surprised the students was the combination of very wealthy and very poor sections in the same area. Mike says "The good sections ran right into the slum sections." Everyone living in the Garcia neighborhood was an engineer, but right across the street the poorest Mexican families lived.

Pat adds, "Part of Mexico City is gorgeous. They have beautiful gardens right down the middle of the streets. But then you go to the slums and you just about cry."

They attended a school for exchange students. They both went to Spanish classes in the morning, but went to separate programs in the afternoon.

Pat was part of the lecture group. She heard lectures on a wide variety of subjects, including bullfighting, folk dancing and music and history.

Every Thursday the group took a tour to such famous sights as the volcanoes at Cutia, the ancient Indian pyramids outside Mexico City, the floating gardens at Xachimilco, the national museum of anthropology, the gold-plated churches and outdoor markets.

They also saw the National Palace where the president lives, silver factories, glass being blown, and the Desert of Liona with its castle and dark tunnels.

She went golfing, attended a Mexican wedding and saw several American shows with Spanish subtitles. It costs 64 cents for adults to attend the most expensive theatre in Mexico City, while some theatres run as low as 32 cents.

She also worked in her family's candy store when she had spare time.

Mike was on the day camp program. His group went to a private club every afternoon for swimming, basketball and other sports.

He also went on several tours, including most of the same ones as Pat went on. He went to Chapultepek Park besides, which is "about a mile square" and has the largest roller coaster in the world, a castle and man-made lakes.

He visited Acapulco with his family. The Garcias have a home there, besides their home in Mexico City. He thought it was "the best place I visited. It was real pretty with beaches and resorts. Our house was near the Cabana club." One drawback to Acapulco was the sharks.

Mike and Pat saw bullfights on television, but the season doesn't officially open until October so they were unable to attend one.

Mike did learn a popular Mexican sport called jal lai, which is similar to tennis. His family had a jal lai court in their backyard. In men's jal lai a large scoop and hard ball are used, while in women's jal lai a racket and soft ball are used. Miami, Florida is one of the few American cities where jal lai is played.

Both exchange students attended several parties. Singing, guitar playing, a church service, dancing (rock and roll, not folk) and refreshments highlighted the fiestas. Mike reports that the Beatles and other English groups are popular in Mexico, too. The popular songs there, however, were generally popular in America a year ago.

All in all, they had a wonderful summer. Mike says, "It was really nice. I wouldn't have missed it."

Pat claims, "I just loved it. My sister is going back to live with my family next year (Gigi is 14) and I want to go to Spain." In the meantime, she is preparing to return to Mexico in February with her Girl Scout troop.

Patients Compete in Poster Contest

A new feature of the Northville State Hospital's Thirteenth Annual Patients Fair, to be held the afternoons of September 14th and 15th, will be a judging of posters emphasizing fire prevention.

For several weeks, approximately 80 patients have been planning and drawing their entries, within their wards or in one of the hospital's Occupational Therapy Shops.

Charles McQueer, the hospital's safety officer, is alert to the emphasis that should be placed upon National Fire Prevention Week, scheduled for October 3 to 9th. Since he assumed the responsibility of safety officer at the 2,258-bed state psychiatric hospital last November, he increasingly has become aware of the responsibility, not only of the hospital's 900 employees, but of its patients in the prevention of fires.

While over 25 volunteer groups and employees are monitoring the booths of games, the food line, the entertainment, and the music of the Patients' Fair, the exhibit of all of the entries in this year's Fire Prevention Week contest will be receiving its share of attention. Individuals who have been selected to serve as judges of the poster contest are:

Mrs. Blaine Ford, Farmington, artist-volunteer who last June, with the hospital staff, planned an exhibit of art work completed by patients of "H" building; Bernard F. DeCoster, Fire Marshal of the City of Detroit; William Sliger, editor of the Northville Record; and Jacob Miller, M.D., the hospital's clinical director.

"All of us are certain," commented McQueer, "when our employees and volunteers have the opportunity to view the total exhibit, that they shall gain many practical ideas to include in our week-to-week efforts at fire prevention. In addition, with this interest stimulated in our patients they, too, will gain a better understanding of the regulations and restrictions we outline."

FORCE!—Two unidentified ladies and Mrs. Ross Griswold typified the costumes worn on Doe Day.

Gals Leave Frustrations Behind Ladies Golf Goes Wild

Everybody had a good time, what with the wisecracks about silly get-ups and chides about not being able to putt with an iron and not being able to hit a 10 foot circle 100 feet away with a pot holder glove on.

And remember the old saying about not being able to hit a bushel basket? Well, the ladies of the Salem Hills Ladies Golf League proved the point Thursday.

It was "Doe Day," the final day of competition (?) and a time to get rid of the frustrations of the past year. So out on the course they charged, wearing everything from "Daisy Mae" shorts to "Never on Sunday" accessories. One even had on an honest-to-goodness unmentionable. And we won't mention it.

After the warmups of putting on a damp green, chipping into (to) a bushel basket, driving in to (at) a circle and then playing the course with a single club, the gals went to Andy's Steak House for an afternoon luncheon and to the Letztrings' pool for a cooling dip.

The officers thanked the participants in the league for "a good turn out and fine cooperation, and expressed the hope of seeing them all again next year. To Bob Sy-lagi, Salem pro, they offered a "big thanks" for allowing the ladies to finish out the season at the beginning rates. And they turned in a financial report.

Distinctions earned by the several golfers were recognized; including "Most Improved Golfer" Marion Avery who trimmed her average by 39 strokes during the summer, and Jerry Cogger and Mary Dorsch, who showed perfect attendance. Donna Thomas, it was learned, copped a 45 for nine holes in league play, which they say is "pretty good" swinging at Salem for anybody.

Ron Krawoski and Ruth Wingard topped the league in the final standings with 33 1/2 points, followed by Pat Gates and Lorrie Griswold with 31 and Donna Thomas and Peggy Evasic with 27 1/2.

Mrs. Thomas had low average with 50, followed by Mrs. Krawoski with 54 and Mrs. Gates with 57.

Other finishers, in order of points, were: Ann Snelgrove and Marie Meyer - 27, Flo LeMieux and Mary Dorsch - 26, Jerry Cogger and Norma Wallace - 25, Wes Schmidt and Ila Griswold -

24, Dutchie Wagner and Marilyn Weinburger - 24;
Ruth Stephens and Betty Push-les - 22 1/2, Joanne Johns and Marion Avery - 21 1/2, Jean Pee-vey and Verdine Lloyd - 19 1/2, Virginia Letzring and Evelyn Phillips - 18, Edna Johnson and Ruth Wilson - 17, Kay Goepf and Billie Lawrence - 13 1/2, Vera Holman and Dorothy Holman - 13 and Louella Nephew and Joanne Jones - 13.

Randolph, flagship of Task Group Alfe, the Sixth Fleet's anti-submarine force, composed of surface, subsurface anti-submarine patrol aircraft, Boy. Was I in the dog house. My old car was a classic calamity on wheels and me with no cash and another six months to go on payments.

Then I sighted Bob Mallory's Arbor Chrysler-Plymouth dealership on Ann Arbor Rd. (you know where he is, at Lilley). I'd heard about the great deals he has been giving on his '65 stock so I decided to drop anchor next time I chugged by.

What do you know... they handed me cash for my old car and let me talk them into just $58.90 per month on a brand new '65 Plymouth Fury.

It's more fun to have a title in your hand than one over the door... try it.

PERFECT PITCH?—Not this one. The hole closed up fast in Saturday's scrimmage and a defender came along to bat the ball down.

Scrimmage Reveals Holes In Mustang Interior Line

The first full scale scrimmage of Northville high school grid-ers Saturday confirmed what Coach Ron Horwath suspected all along -- the Mustang interior line is woefully weak. In this age of behemoth tackles, not even a high school eleven can afford to field too many linemen of the light-weight scrappy variety. By sheer force of weight, the opposition can wear them down. What's more, Horwath is feeling one sting of inexperience brought about the graduation of almost the entire crop of interior linemen. But with all his problems, the Mustang mentor has some pleasant surprises. Foremost is the progress his stalwarts have made in mastering the offensive phases of the game. "We're in better shape physically and further advanced on offense than we have been in the previous two years," said Horwath. And if last Saturday's scrimmage is any indication, Horwath isn't wrong -- at least not completely. It all depends on how you look at it. The first two squads, composed of the top candidates who will probably carry the brunt of the Mustangs' fortunes during the season, crossed the goal line eight times, while holding the opposition scoreless. Top performer was Jerry Im-land, an end who was off expected form last year. He definitely showed signs of coming to life. He gathered in 10 passes, good for 127 long yards and three TD's. And on other offensive assignments, Horwath liked the way he looked, to say the least. There were other sparkling performances, too. Tom Bauman, the number one quarterback, fired 19 passes, hitting on 12. And the Mustangs' forte, their running game, panned out as expected. They amassed 346 yards, with Fullback Jack Winner leading his mates with 97 yards. Behind him came Halfback Bob Bartski with 66 and Halfback Doug Swiss with 62, before he pulled up lame. He suffered an ankle injury that will slow him up for a few days. Other markers were tallied by Bartski (2), and Mike Turnbull, Jim Zaytl and Swiss, one each. But for all the offensive fireworks, there is a fly in the football ointment. Keep in mind the fact that first line was playing against second stringers. That's part of Horwath's pre-season strategy -- to keep his top hands working together as a unit. It's an attempt to develop esprit de corps, and winning ways. Now that intensive offensive drills are out of the way, Horwath has a better idea of what boys can move the ball. "We've got good ends, adequate backs and we're scrounging for linemen," said the Mustang coach. At ends are Imiland and veteran Steve Evans. They're backed up by Mark Wilson, Mark Cushing, Rod Braun and Bob Hubbard. In the backfield there is plenty of weight, but not quite as much speed as last year when the Mustangs depended on the fleet foot of Halfback Kent Kipfer who has graduated. But at tailback there is Swiss, all 190 pounds of him, and Bartski; Winner at 175 pounds fills the fullback spot, but he's getting competition from Dave Boerger and Pat Hall; Turnbull is conceded to have an edge over Zaytl at wingback. Turnbull weighs in at 175. Now it's on to the defense in preparation for the opening game Friday, September 17, against Plymouth. Northville will be host.

Court Reports

A Las Cruces, New Mexico, man paid $20 on two counts in Novi justice court last Thursday afternoon, and proceeded to put up three mail boxes he had knocked down with his truck. Thirty-seven year old Albert Killeen was fined $10 costs for leaving the scene of a property damage accident, August 30 and $10 costs for being disorderly. Police said Killeen came out of a bar, hopped into his truck, and headed down Grand River near Joseph drive and Seely road. He traveled 600 feet on the wrong side of the road, knocking down three mailboxes, police said. He apparently fell asleep in his truck, and the window had to be broken to wake him up. Three youths were fined $25 apiece for having liquor in their possession August 28 in a car parked in the Club A-Go-Go parking lot. They were Jack LeClair Jr., of Texas, Ernest Tromink, of Allen Park and Craig Farison, of Southfield. All boys were 18. William Buyers, 43, of Detroit, was cited for disorderly conduct August 29 on Novi road near Charlotte street. He was staggering down Novi road, said police. Arraigned last Thursday before Judge Robert K. Anderson, Buyers was fined $25.

Porter Jefferson, 37, of Davisburg, brought before Judge Jacques, was fined $35 and $15 costs for reckless driving. Driving on Novi road just south of Grand River, Jefferson made an unsafe turn left, backed up, and pulled out squealing his tires as he headed back down Novi road, police said. Police reported that he refused to give them his Michigan driver's license when he was finally stopped. Corporal Richard Faulkner dragged Jefferson from the car, handcuffed him and brought him to the police station. Bruce Potts, 18, of Wyoming, paid a dollar for each mile he exceeded the speed limit August 18 on 12 Mile road near Meadowbrook and Haggerty road. He was fined a total of $30 for driving 80 in a 50 zone by Judge Anderson.

Young Wixom Baptists Journey to Mackinac

On August 27-28, 30 young people and sponsors from the First Baptist Church in Wixom traveled from Wixom to Mackinac Island.

The group left early Friday morning from the church on their new church bus and travelled as far as Houghton Lake where the State Youth Camp is located. Here they tented out for the night. The afternoon was spent swimming at nearby Higgins Lake.

The youths then attended as a group the evening service at the camp along with some 200 other youth from across the state. Early Saturday morning the group packed up their belongings and set out on the bus for Mackinac Island. The young people enjoyed sightseeing and a bicycle ride of nine miles around the island, as well as the boat ride on the State Ferry to the island. The group returned to the church late Saturday evening tired but having enjoyed their time together.

The sponsors who went with the young people were: Sid Counts, Mrs. Thelma Westervelt, Miss Bonnie Harris, Miss Evelyn Beckley, and the Pastor, Rev. Robert Warren.

On Thursday, September 2, the youth of First Baptist took a canoe trip to Kensington Park, and then enjoyed a picnic lunch at the Proud Lake roadside park. A time of devotions was conducted by Pastor Warren.

First Day At School

GETTING ACQUAINTED—Hundreds of five-year-olds will be experiencing "the first day of school" today in the Northville- Novi-Wixom area. As their formal education begins, one of their first "assignments" will be to learn to play and work with others. It's a lesson that must be learned well, because it remains as a challenge throughout life. Little Matt Davis, a kindergartener at Main street elementary school in Northville, seems perfectly content as he stares up at his teacher, Miss Grace Pollock. Matt is the son of the William Davises, 352 Orchard drive.

Text:--Heb. 4:14 -- "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession."

In discussing this fundamental doctrine, let us first try to get a clear conception of this High Priest, and then look at some duties based on such an office.

I, Christ, the God-Man, He was "Jesus, the Son of God," Jesus the Saviour, the Redeemer, the God-man, who gave his life as a ransom for sinners. He was Jesus "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world." He was Jesus the Redeemer, who "laid down his life for his friends." He was Jesus the Physician of souls, the Saviour of sinners. He was Jesus, the man Jesus; who was born of a woman, and yet had a sinless human nature that partook of human infirmity; that was a first; that was an hungered; that sweat great drops of blood; that was crowned with thorns; that was nailed to the cross. Yes, he was Jesus, "the Man of sorrows," "the root and offspring of David," but "a root out of dry ground, without form or comeliness." He was Jesus, who "wept at the grave of Lazarus;" Jesus, who was the Son of a Carpenter; Jesus, who "trod the winepress alone," who spent a whole lifetime in poverty and humiliation; who died as a malefactor upon the cross, and was buried at the hands of charity.

But while he was all this, he was also "Jesus the Son of God." Not only a man, but "God manifest in the flesh." He was "Immanuel, God with us; God in human nature," "God and man in two distinct natures, but one person forever."

II. A sinless High Priest Not only as to his person is he great, but as our High Priest, there are certain official functions that make him more conspicuous than all others that ever lived. In the very next verse, we read:

"For we have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin."

Here are eminent qualities that must ever elevate him very far above and beyond all other high-priests that ever lived. He was sinless, perfectly sinless in his nature. He was holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners. "He knew no sin, neither was there any guile in his mouth." He had no infirmities to acknowledge, no shortcomings to confess, no personal faults to depress him. When he went into the "Holy of Holies," it was not required that he should first sprinkle blood for his own sins. No, unlike all other priests, he went into the Holy of Holies without spot or blemish -- "pure as God is pure, and holy as God is holy."

How striking the contrast with all these other priests. Here then we have a High Priest who was not free from temptation, not devoid of trials and tribulations, not without a severe test of his divinity and human character. But while in all points tempted like as we are, yet was "without sin." A sinless High Priest, and at the right hand of God!

III. The Friend of Sinners. And then, too, notice: "We have not a High Priest who cannot be touched with a feeling of our infirmity." He is not like some of the priests among heathen nations, who shut themselves from the common people, and regard themselves too sacred and holy for such association. No, while here he was known as the friend of publicans and sinners; and now, exalted to the right hand of God as our High Priest, he can "be touched with a feeling of our infirmity." He knows how to succor them that are tempted; he appreciates all our weakness and all our frailties; he is not ignorant of Satan's devices, and knows how to shield us from all these envenomed shafts. And he not only knows what we need as a safeguard, but he gives us grace to all these powers of darkness.

IV. Our profession. The Injunction, "Let us hold fast our profession" is peculiar, but absolutely necessary.

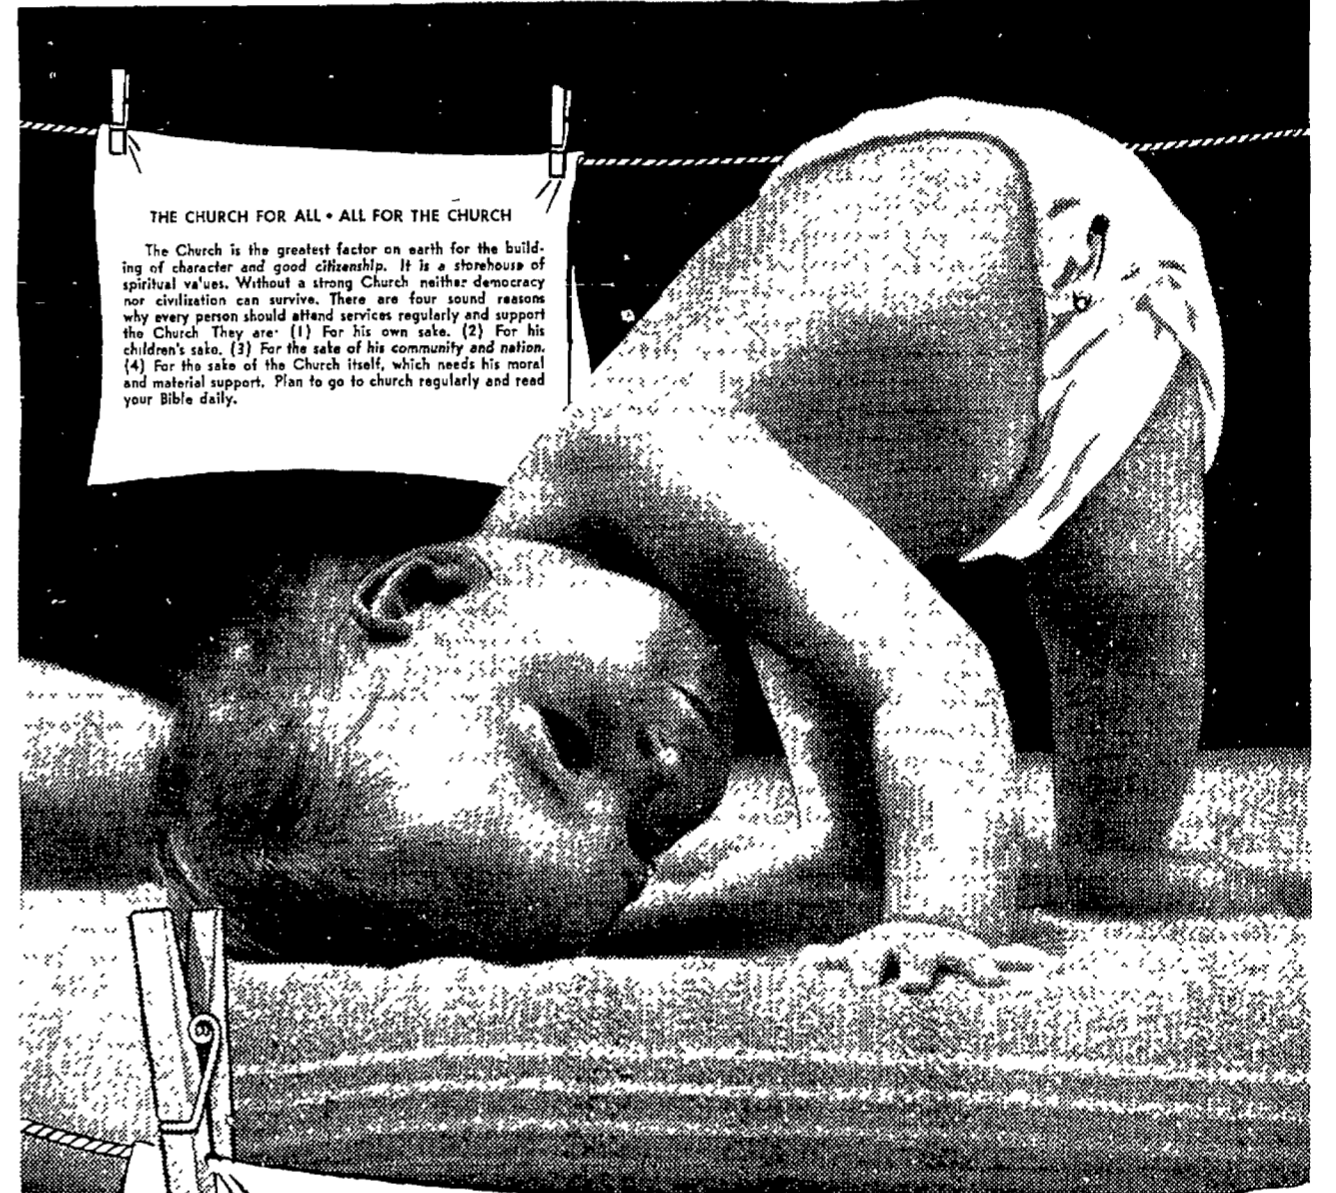

Every Christian, as a matter of course, is a professor of religion. As such, we are under the most solemn vows to God, in regard to both principle and practice. Of our own accord, we have taken these solemn vows, and God has written them in his "Book of Remembrance." They are very strict and comprehensive in bearing, and we find it hard to keep these solemn vows, and to be steadfast in our profession. But here is a duty we have imposed upon ourselves, an obligation voluntarily taken, a responsibility we cannot shake off nor get rid of.

As to what we believe. There is not a member of the Church who does not profess to believe in the existence of God, in the truth of the Bible, in the Divinity and work of Christ as a Saviour, in the work of the Holy Spirit. There is not one who does not profess to believe in the necessity of the new birth, in the depravity of the human heart, in the immortality of the soul, in justification by faith, in sanctification by the Spirit. In the resurrection of the dead, in the final judgment, in the unspeakable splendors of heaven, and the retributions of an undone eternity.

These are grand, fundamental doctrines that are founded upon the Word of God. Theoretically, they are engrafted upon the creed of every professing Christian. But when we come to practice, do we "hold fast our profession?" Is there no latent spark of practical atheism in our minds and hearts? In other words, do we never practically doubt the very existence of such a God as the Bible describes?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Change In View

There's nothing like a new perspective to change your attitude toward life. When Junior is bored, he simply stands on his head for a new slant at things. The floor flips to the ceiling, with tables and chairs hanging from it, and people walk upside-down. At least that's the way it looks to him. It is a good idea to gain a different perspective -- to step back and get a new slant on things around you. But you don't have to stand on your head to do it. Instead identify yourself with a church. Take your family and go regularly to worship. You will find a new perspective. Genuine values will keep their importance; unimportant things will diminish. Today's life will be happier; tomorrow's full of hope. Nothing is upside-down, but everything claims its rightful place when you view life with the faith of a Christian.

Women Drivers? School Likes 'Em

Take a Northville school bus and leave the driving to four winsome women who have been a vital part of an impeccable traffic record.

That's sage advice as statistics bear out. Since the inception of the Northville-owned school bus service in 1951, there hasn't been one personal injury accident while children have been in transit between home and school.

The four women who help put parents' minds at ease are Mrs. Vern (Engla) Imsland, Mrs. Jack (Delores) Boyd, Mrs. Robert (Norma) Richardson and Mrs. Ralph (Helen) Hay.

They, along with six men drivers, travel an average of 335 miles a day -- a distance spanning Northville to the Soo. That includes two runs in the morning, 7-8:45, and two in the afternoon, 2:40-4:30. And four drivers take on an extra load by driving the kindergarten children to and from home during the noon hour.

They will transport 1400 students this year, half the school population, a boost of 200 over last year. It all stacks up to a lot of responsibility falling on the shoulders of a very few. One slip up, and it could end in disaster. When scanning the women's records, their boss, Administrative Assistant Elroy Ellison, glowers. Understandably, for in some respects they're better drivers than men, he said. "They tend to be better disciplinarians," he claims.

Their good record is no mistake. All the drivers must pass a physical examination, obtain a chauffeurs' license and attend bus school one evening during the month just to keep up with latest safety practices.

The spotless record comes from conscientious devotion to their jobs, too. "The wages don't compensate for the responsibility they have," said Ellison, adding "everyone is community minded." Drivers get $2 per hour, but there is a 25 or 50 cent wage increase in the offing.

Senior woman member of the driving corps is Mrs. Imsland, personable mother of two children. Her daughter, Judy, who graduated last year, will attend Hope college in a few days. Her son, Jerry, is a solid three-letter man, and a senior at the high school.

As Ellison pointed out, it's not the income that appeals primarily to Mrs. Imsland. Far from it. She has an inveterate love of children, an enthusiasm for meeting people and cultivating friends, and civic pride.

"I like to be where kids are," and I like the school system," said Mrs. Imsland, as she looks forward to her sixth year as a bus driver in Northville. In addition, she thinks it's a good part-time job for any woman.

Actually, she's been behind the wheel of buses for nine years. And it all started as a joke. "They were looking for someone to drive a bus for a Livonia church school," she said, "so I jokingly said I'd drive the bus." The next day, she was seriously employed.

She faces hazardous driving conditions calmly. Always alert, she simply but significantly drives with more caution when motoring on icy, snowy or muddy roads.

Only once has she had an accident. With two or three children on the bus, it slid on mud into a ditch. She said she quickly led the children out, and called back for help. Contrary to most popular belief, Mrs. Imsland finds driving a bus little more difficult than handling a car. "Norma, I think, had never driven anything larger than her Volkswagen before she became a bus driver last year. And she immediately was a good driver," Mrs. Imsland said.

Besides the regular runs, Mrs. Imsland derives pleasure out of special trips. It's purely voluntary, but she has taken more than her share.

With a view to supplementing classroom instruction with field trips, the administration has sent groups of students to Greenfield Village, the Detroit Zoo, and theatres in the area. Last year, for instance, Mrs. Imsland saw the play "J.B." at the Bonstelle theatre in Detroit when an extra ticket was available.

Her longest trip as a bus driver? A jaunt to North Carolina this summer to pick up a new bus. "It was a lot of fun," she said. The only thing she rues is that her husband, Vern, could not go along. As the owner of a gasoline station in Northville, he had to stay on the job.

The school system has a mechanic of its own to keep the buses in top running condition. He is Charles Kehrer. His work allays any fears the women have that the buses will break down. They seldom do, said Ellison.

Bus drivers working as an enthusiastic team have helped to perpetuate the image of a good Northville school system. "They are a most important part of system," Ellison declared.

"Really, they are our ambassadors," he added.

Plans were made to attend the Fall Rally to be held at Calvary Memorial church at Stansbury and Grand River Friday, September 17 at 7:30. Those attending will hear Bennie Treplett, program director of Forward in Faith Radio hour and one of the nations outstanding speakers.

Plans will continue for the promotion of "Back to Sunday school" emphasis as during the summer attendance falls off due to vacations and hot weather. Now that vacations are over, the teachers plan a "Round Up" everyone. The committee working on this almost completed their plans for the parade on September 11 starting at 1:30 with the theme Christ the Same Through the Ages. Following the parade, a corn roast will be held at the church for those participating and a singstration.

ELECTRIC HOME HEATING

NOW SOLD AND INSTALLED IN THE WESTERN WAYNE COUNTY AREA

by DETROIT EDISON

Here's important news! Especially if you're wondering how best to replace a tired out, old heating system. Or if you have a newly added room to heat. Or a room that's always been chilly.

All you have to do is phone or stop at your Edison Office. One of our Electric Heating Specialists will gladly call on you. He'll give you an estimate on the cost to install electric heat. He will recommend a system best suited to your needs. Then, if you'd like, he'll arrange for installation and financing. You'll get all the exclusive benefits of flameless electric heat PLUS the same prompt and considerate service you've come to expect from Detroit Edison.

HOW ABOUT ELECTRIC HEAT OPERATING COSTS?

Electric heat costs more than other types of home heating. But you will be surprised at how little more when you consider how much you gain in comfort and convenience.

And there's an All-Electric Domestic Rate which can reduce all your electrical operating costs, including those for electric heat. Yes, when your home is heated electrically throughout and when the major appliances you have are all electric, you qualify for a lower electrical rate.

Remember, if you'd like to know more about electric heat and the All Electric Rate, just stop or call your Edison office. It costs nothing to get the facts!

P.S. Recent downward rate adjustments can make supplemental electric heating lower in cost too. Supplemental electric heat's just the thing for cold corners and always-chilly rooms.

State Seeks Jobs for Mentally Retarded

LANSING - Two areas of emphasis in mental health work are placing Michigan in the spotlight across the nation. Most other states have just scratched the surface in these areas or are still thinking about entering them.

dicts the new program will result in a significant reduction in institutional waiting lists during the next few years.

"By reducing the number of persons now institutionalized simply because of lack of employable skills and job opportunities, we can accommodate those who do need residential care when they need it," he said.

OTHER STATES have entered this field previously but only on a very small scale or pilot project basis. Michigan officials estimate their program will benefit more than 3,000 mentally retarded persons.

patients already identified as employment potentials.

"We will provide these people with a variety of job skills and then, with the cooperation of other agencies, find appropriate jobs," says Dr. V. A. Stehman, director of services for the mentally retarded.

Initially the project will involve the state hospitals at Lapeer, Fort Custer, Mount Pleasant and Coldwater, where 82 percent of Michigan's retarded are housed.

"We hope to empty our institutions of those who are capable of leading productive lives outside, of those who can attain some degree of economic and social self-sufficiency in the community," said Stehman.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL requirement to reduce the number of state agencies from 130-plus to not more than 20 has been met officially but it will likely be several years before the revision is a reality.

Even then it appears the change will be most evident in the state telephone directory rather than in practice. The smaller state agencies which now exist will then be listed as divisions of the major unit to which their function has been assigned.

CREATION OF 19 departments under the 1965 government reorganization law is slated to be implemented early next year by action of the governor on recommendations from the various department heads.

The legislature will also have a part in this implementation project because many old laws will have to be reworked to dovetail with the new alignments in various agency functions and authorities.

From all appearances, reorganization will be a continuing process over the next several years. Even in the 1965 session there were several new boards and commissions created which were not put into the new plan for a compact state government.

Commodity Prices to Rise

BABSON PARK, Mass. - This is the time of year when commodity prices tend to strengthen. For the most part, the rise is seasonal, reflecting the quickening pulse of business as autumn nears.

During the past year, strength in commodity prices on balance has been more decisive than for years. The Bureau of Labor's comprehensive wholesale price index recently stood at 102.9. This compares with 100.4 a year ago; 100.6 two years ago; and 100.8 in July 1960. Industrial prices also were fairly stable for some years before they started their present climb. The index for these industrials (which are labeled "all commodities other than farms and foods") recently read 102.5; a year ago it was 101.1; two years ago, 100.8; and in July 1960, 101.2. A somewhat similar price uplift has been traced in farm products, with this index now at 100, compared with 94.1 last year; 96.8 two years ago; and 97 in July 1960.

Yet, despite the over-all price strength of the past year, there have been significant sags in prices of many individual commodities. Among these are: Anthracite coal, cocoa beans, cotton, rosin, rye and wool. Hence, it is vitally important to buyers and sellers of raw materials -- whether agricultural or industrial -- to measure carefully supply-demand ratios in both domestic and world markets before making commitments. For, by and large, it is these supply-demand ratios that will principally determine the direction and extent of price movements.

Mounting production and transportation costs for industrial raw materials have been more directly responsible for price boosts in this group than has the impact of the war in Vietnam. Supplies generally are fully adequate for requirements in the months ahead ... except, of course, for certain metals.

At the moment, only a handful of metals markets are in a really strong position, with supplies narrow-to-tight. We foresee higher prices for steel products and possibly also for ingots, for aluminum, and for zinc. But -- unless there is a big widening of the war in Vietnam -- domestic copper and lead prices will become more vulnerable to downward pressures by late winter. And these downward pressures will come from abroad ... where markets are already showing weakness.

While supplies of selected food items in the 1965-66 season may well be in close balance with requirements, over-all shortages will probably be avoided. Even so, as the season works along, higher prices for foods will become more likely and could even be marked.

Large corn and soybean outturns -- still to come -- will keep grain and feed quotes somewhat depressed for several weeks more and may even further delay the broad seasonal price recovery which usually gets under way by early winter. However, because of short grain crops abroad and heavy demand here at home, by late winter grain and feed prices should be well above year-earlier levels. Look for more weakness than strength in best-fed cattle quotations and for no more than ordinary seasonal easing in hog prices will not cut very deep or be prolonged.

The price strengthening of the past several months has resulted from rising costs for production, marketing, and transportation rather than from intensity or insistence of upturn in demand. And it has been helped mightily by climbing wages and soaring credit. Actually it is these which have exerted upward pressures on production, marketing, and transportation costs and, hence ... ultimately ... on prices.

The upturn in commodity prices may persist for another six months. Beyond that, they may have trouble holding UNLESS the war in Vietnam has expanded enough by then to trigger shortages not now anticipated.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Do You Know How To Be Popular?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

Experience has long shown that popularity has very little to do with a pretty or handsome face, a large bank account or fashionable clothing. In the experience of this writer, the most popular person she has ever known was about the size of a baby elephant, was lean on the material things of life, but had a personality that shone like the noonday sun at the equator. Here are some key questions to help you with your search for popularity...

- 1 Do you have a ready smile? ( ) ( )
2 Do you know and like many different types of people? ( ) ( )
3 Do you often make sincere compliments to your friends and acquaintances... or even to strangers? ( ) ( )
4 Can you honestly say you are friendly yourself? ( ) ( )
5 Do you resent seeing your best friend or friends in the company of others? ( ) ( )
6 Do you usually dress so that you will look older (or younger) than you really are? ( ) ( )
7 Can you take disappointments with good humor? ( ) ( )
8 In general, do you respect the opinions of people who are older than you? ( ) ( )
9 Are you clean and well-groomed whenever possible? ( ) ( )
10 Do you like to be the center of attraction most of the time? ( ) ( )

ANSWERS: In ten high schools and colleges and in ten civic groups of young married adults, a poll was taken on the points of this quiz. The conclusion? To be popular, a person must honestly say YES to all questions EXCEPT 5, 6 and 10.

9 to 10 correct answers: Unless you have a great overwhelming flaw in your make-up, such as an uncontrollable temper, a sarcastic wit, or a deep prejudice, the chances are that your popularity rating is very high. You may never be elected to govern your nation, but you are a popular person.

5 to 8 correct answers: There is a certain group of people who admire you very much. If you want to extend your scope, improve on the missing points.

2 to 4 correct answers: No doubt you have a few staunch friends. Don't lose them through your errors.

0 to 1 correct answers: The British poet, Sir Edwin Arnold, can give you some help in his statement. "Use your gifts faithfully, and they shall be enlarged; practice what you know, and you shall attain to higher knowledge."

Retarded School Starts 2nd Year

Do you have an unused doll buggy, building blocks, large picture books, clay that won't harden, a rocking chair (for children 5 to 12 years), hammer, pliers, screw driver, nails, scrap lumber, a drum and sticks or an extra vacuum cleaner taking up space at your house? If you do, the House of Jack and Jill could put any of these items to good use and would greatly appreciate the contribution.

The school for trainable retarded children opened for its second year on Tuesday, September 7 with Mrs. Christie Bradley, a certified teacher in charge. School will be in session each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday morning and will maintain the same vacation schedule as the South Lyon Community schools for the nine month school year.

This year each child will have a desk in which to keep his possessions. Six discarded desks were obtained from the public school and painted and repaired by Mrs. Edgar Adams, Mrs. James Tate and Mrs. Bradley.

Publicity chairman, Mrs. Clifford Page, stressed that a child does not have to be a resident of the South Lyon school district to be eligible to be enrolled at the House of Jack and Jill, which is a parent-sponsored organization. At present four students are enrolled and it is the hope of the board of the school that more will be added. Any additional information concerning the school may be obtained by calling Mrs. Bradley, GE 8-4571.

Mrs. Page, also, stated that membership tickets for the school year 65-66 may be purchased from any of the officers or board members.

At their board meeting on Tuesday, August 31, the board of the school decided to erect, in the near future, a sign identifying the House of Jack and Jill at its location at 501 West Liberty street.

A rummage sale to benefit the school is being planned for early October. Anyone wishing to contribute to this, may call Mrs. Lloyd Brenay, GE 8-3666.

The House of Jack and Jill, originally sparked by the Jaycee Auxiliary, began operation on October 1, 1964 in the basement of the Catholic Church with Mrs. James (Pat) Brenay head teacher and Mrs. Nell (Joanne) Jones as full-time assistant. It later moved to its present home when in April, 1965 the house was leased to The House of Jack and Jill for five years for one dollar by William A. McHattie.

Officers of the school are: President, Mrs. Edgar Adams; Vice-President, Mrs. James Tate; Secretary, Mrs. Ralph Weinburger; Treasurer, Vernon Blaisdell. Committee chairmen are: By-laws, Mrs. C. H. Letzring; Ways and Means, Mrs. Lloyd Brenay; Auditing, Fred Thomas; Publicity, Mrs. Clifford Page, Teacher, Mrs. Christie Bradley.

NOW IS THE TIME TO PLANT GRASS SEED!

Extension-Research Information Department of Information Services Michigan State University, East Lansing

Seed New Lawns Now

One of the hottest times to be out in the yard is between August 15 and September 15. It's also the best time to seed your new lawn.

Weather conditions are ideal at this time and those hot temperatures are excellent for proper seed germination, according to James Tyson, soil scientist with the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service. Also, there are few hard rains which can wash away the seed during this period.

The soil needs to be moist to develop a good stand of grass. "Don't let the surface soil dry out after the seed once begins to germinate," cautions Tyson.

The development of good turf is much easier with generous fertilizer applications. A soil test will accurately determine just the kind of fertilizer to be used. One pound of nitrogen per 100 sq. feet of lawn should be applied to Kentucky Bluegrass three times during the growing season. Merion Bluegrass requires twice this amount of nitrogen.

Home owners seeding a new lawn this fall can get some timely tips and hints from County Extension Service offices. Just ask for extension folder-211--entitled "Making a New Lawn".

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Next January 1 Michigan's new "motor vehicle accident claims act" goes into effect. But on November 1 this year all vehicle owners, both insured and uninsured, start paying for the protection.

A recent release from Secretary of State James Hare's office explains the highlights of the law. Here's how it works: The law provides that if you are insured and are involved in an accident with an uninsured vehicle owner and he is proved negligent, you can file a claim for any medical or property damage bills you incur as a result of the accident above the sum of $50.

This includes only accidents which take place on or after January 1, 1966.

All uninsured vehicle owners will be required to pay $25 annually in the fund when they purchase license plates starting November 1, 1965.

All insured vehicle owners pay a $1 premium annually into the fund when buying license plates, also beginning this November.

When you buy your auto license plates this year you must show absolute proof that you are insured.

The $1 premium that insured vehicle owners pay into the fund protects them against any accident with a negligent uninsured driver which results in costs of over $50 in medical and/or property damage bills.

The fund actually augments the uninsured driver protection rider that many persons have with their private insurance policies. It is recommended that this rider be maintained as protection when driving out of state.

The fund protects against such contingencies as accidents with hit-and-run drivers, persons driving stolen vehicles, and out-of-state uninsured drivers who are involved in accidents in Michigan.

One word of caution:

There is no substitute for insurance... not even Michigan's new law. If a claim is made against the fund as a result of an accident caused by the negligence of an uninsured driver, he will be required to repay the fund in full. The driver is still subject to provisions of the financial responsibility laws of Michigan and could lose his privilege to drive.
