Problems Plague New School

Bond Sale Held Up; Sewer, Water Unsolved

The still faint hope that Northville might break ground for its badly needed elementary school this year became even less of a flicker this week.

Superintendent of Schools Alex Nelson announced that the state attorney general's office had held up Northville's bond application and that the bond sale go-ahead had been indefinitely delayed.

Other problems plague the new building program. It was pointed out to board members and citizens attending Monday night's board of education meeting that construction costs are rising above original estimates and that a definite solution has not yet been reached in providing sewer and water facilities for the school.

The meeting convened in the junior high boys' gymnasium with 16 citizens present for the presentation of plans for the proposed elementary and initial sketches for high school additions. The meeting was arranged by the board to give those who worked on the bond election last spring an opportunity to see plans and ask questions. Board President W. C. Becker also told citizens he anticipated their aid would be needed in getting increased operating millage when the schools open.

Superintendent Alex Nelson warned that sewer costs to the Eight Mile road site for which the board is negotiating for the elementary school undoubtedly will be much higher than originally thought. He based the report that it may cost approximately $100,000 to make sewer connections to the Beck road interceptor based upon sewer estimates just received by Northville township engineer William Mosher for a township sewer on Seven Mile road.

The board, when it reconvened in regular session following the public presentation, discussed possibility of moving the school to a different location on the site, or even to a new site.

Nelson said afterward, however, that the Eight Mile site still is the one the board intends to build upon, as it best meets population needs. He said various ways of supplying water and sewer facilities will continue to be studied with Architects O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach planning wells and septic field installations should neither township or city facilities be feasible.

He said the board also is waiting for the city to complete its study of the possibility of extending its facilities out Eight Mile road.

Although it would not be a permanent solution, the architect now believes that an approved sewage disposal system (septic field) could be constructed for $24,000, an increase of about $15,000 over original estimates for sewer service.

In response to a question from William Secord of the citizens' committee, C. Henry Haberkorn, administrative coordinator for O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach, anticipated that the June estimate for the elementary site and school of $645,000 probably would run closer to $660,000.

Secord, who has been active in population and classroom need studies for the board, drew attention from Haberkorn that the "centrum" areas incorporated with kindergarten, lower and upper grade classrooms would not be future classrooms. The new school presently is planned with two kindergartens and 15 classrooms. With double kindergarten sessions this would be 19 classes at the optimum of 25 pupils a room for a total of 475 students in the school. This, Nelson and Haberkorn agreed, would keep the school to a maximum under 500 students. It is not planned to be expandable, both stressed.

Superintendent Nelson was most disturbed by the news this week that the bond sale for the elementary school has been held up.

The board cannot move to purchase the building site until bonds are sold and money is available.

Nelson pointed out Tuesday that Northville's application was sent to the state on August 13. Last week, he said, assurance was given that the application was "in order" and approval by the municipal finance commission could be expected Tuesday.

The Northville superintendent said that instead it was reported Tuesday that the attorney general's office is questioning the application for the pool and the school bus garage. Nelson said that further information has been requested and that it has been indicated by the state that the application did not reflect that the swimming pool is an integral part of the program and attached to the high school.

Nelson says that the application report contained this information along with complete drawings.

How long this may delay the bond sale is difficult to predict. But Nelson believes it eliminates all chance of groundbreaking this year. The architect, however, has still not given up on a September opening for the school.

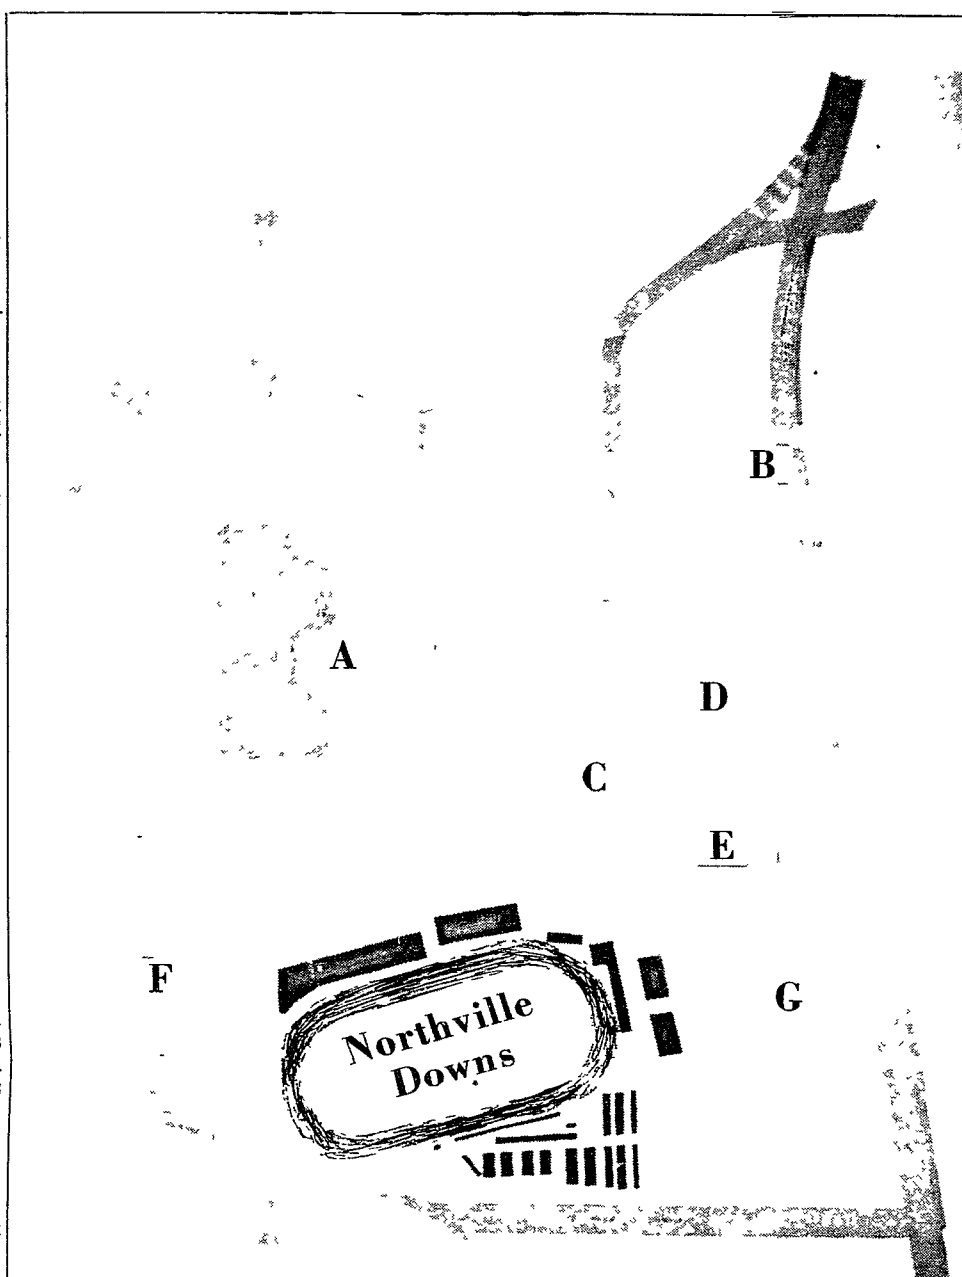

Turning to the junior high school, Haberkorn estimated it will be six weeks to two months before surveys will be complete and interviews held with educational needs committees for the junior high school.

Emphasizing that the drawings be presented have not been studied or approved by the board, Haberkorn showed suggested expansions for the high school. This, because it is an addition rather than new construction, Haberkorn said, will go faster.

First of a two-phase program for the high school, the sketches shown moved arts and crafts to the present industrial arts areas.

An industrial arts addition was projected for the southeast corner of the property. More centrally placed was an academic wing for physics and electronics labs. Then adjacent to and south of the gymnasium was the pool and locker room.

The pool was drawn in an L-shape with diving unit. A spectator area was drawn to seat 300.

New Traffic Plan Proposed

Representatives of the city council, planning commission and chamber of commerce reviewed this latest proposal for an improved city traffic plan last Thursday. It incorporates a circular pattern for the proposed central business district, a new north-south route and proposals from Northville Downs to alleviate traffic problems for quick entrance and exit. "A" is the central business district bounded by a two-way circular drive composed of Dunlap on the north, Wing on the west, an extension of Beal on the south and Hutton-Church on the east. "E" is the extension of Wing street to Seven Mile road. Center street is cut off at Dunlap and converted to track parking south of the central business district. "B" is the proposed extension of Novi road to South Main street, a proposal which has been given renewed attention and has already gained consideration at county and state levels since last week's meeting. "C" is the extension of Griswold across Cady ("D") to a widened and improved Beal street ("E"), while "F" is proposed new parking for Northville Downs extending to South Main street on the east. The broken line on the extension of Beal street indicates that the street would be closed to traffic during the race meets so that the area could be used for parking. During the off season it would be re-opened as a through street. For additional comment, see Speaking for The Record, page 8-B.

'Trick-Treatsters' To Prowl Saturday

Spacemen, Goofy Grapes and Morticia Addamses will join beatniks and ballet dancers as well as conventional witches and ghosts for both trick-or-treating and the annual Halloween party sponsored by the Northville recreation department this Saturday night.

Because Halloween actually falls on Sunday, October 31, it was necessary for city, township and recreation department officials to designate Saturday night as the more suitable "witching eve."

Northville Mayor A. M. Allen proclaimed the Saturday date, which will give tired masqueraders a day to rest their feet—and recover from quantities of sweet treats. Township supervisor R. D. Merriam agreed.

Ken Conley, recreation director, announced that the department's annual Halloween party will begin at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the community building (junior high lunchroom and boys' gymnasium).

Judging of costumes in many categories will begin at 6:15 p.m. in the junior high boys' gymnasium. There will be prizes for the winners. Refreshments are to be served throughout the evening in the meeting room.

A dance for students of junior high and high school age will begin at 7:30 p.m. and continue until 11 p.m. Conley announces that prizes also will be awarded at the dance for outstanding costumes. Refreshments will be served.

Financial and supervisory assistance will be provided at these events by the Optimist club, Jaycees and Northville retail merchants.

In choosing the Saturday date for celebrating, Northville is following the lead of Detroit and surrounding communities.

Lights On for Treats

Area residents willing to be visited Saturday night by children trick-or-treating are asked by Northville Police Chief Eugene King to turn on their porch lights. King also asks parents to instruct children to call only at homes with lights on.

He points out that the city has many elderly residents who are unable to answer their doors easily. By not turning on their lights they will not be bothered, if Chief King's plan is followed.

King adds that he wants parents to instruct youngsters not to solicit "treats" in downtown bars. Last year, he said, this was attempted, and it was necessary to post a policeman in town to stop the practice.

Light Vote Seen Tuesday For Judgeships

Last September 14 only 10 per cent of Northville's city and township voters in Wayne county bothered to register their preference for circuit court nominees.

City Clerk Martha Milne thinks the turnout at Tuesday's election may be even slimmer.

"At least in the primary there was some local interest," the clerk recalls. Northville Municipal Judge Charles McDonald was in the race, but failed to win one of the eight nominations.

Tuesday the eight nominees will compete to see which four win election to terms on the Wayne County Circuit bench running until January 1, 1971.

All township registered electors are eligible to vote, but only residents of the Wayne county portion of the city -- precincts one and two -- may vote.

Candidates for the four seats are Robert E. DeMascio, Harry J. Dingeman, Jr., Charles S. Farmer, Thomas J. Foley, Orville L. Hubbard, Blair Moody, Jr., Joe B. Sullivan and Anthony J. Szymanski.

City precinct polling places one and two are located in the city hall. Township precinct one for electors living west of Sheldon road is located at the community building (junior high school), while precinct two for electors living east of Sheldon road is located at the township hall.

Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

School Board Approves MEA as Teacher Agent

Northville's board of education Monday formally adopted a resolution recognizing the M.E.A. as sole bargaining agent for Northville teachers.

Superintendent Alex Nelson was appointed the board's representative to enter negotiations and develop contracts with the M.E.A. representatives. The board acted upon the advice of its attorney and after Nelson reported on interpretations by Dr. Julius Barbour, executive secretary of the state school board association, of Public Act 379, requiring such action.

Implications of the act were discussed at the board's regular session following the public presentation of building plans. An executive (private) session followed the business meeting adjournment after 11 p.m.

The board instructed the architects to check possibilities of having the school electrically heated after receiving a communication from Detroit Edison company and learning that Schoolcraft college is heated electrically.

The board approved purchase of government surplus equipment — jeeps fitted with flatbeds that could be used to haul garbage — according to E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services.

Request from Miss Oaklee Noblit, a sixth grade teacher, to participate in the U. S. International Educational Exchange Program under the Department of Health, Education and Welfare was approved under condition "C" — without salary and without participating in the exchange portion of the program in which a foreign teacher is supplied in exchange.

'66 Auto Plates Out Monday

Michigan's 1966 license plates have more than a new look. When the new "beige and blue" plates go on sale Monday, the process of purchase will be considerably slower than in the past. Michigan's new law establishing a motor vehicle accident claim fund makes it mandatory for the motorist to provide proof of insurance.

The plates themselves are definitely "plain Jane" in color. The background is sort of a desert sand (hardly "water wonderland") color with numerals of dark blue.

In Northville the secretary of state's branch license plate sales office at 116 East Main street opens at 9 a.m. Manager Harold Hartley expects an early deluge and hopes that all motorists are aware of the new law.

It's been changed during the past week. The fee for uninsured drivers has been increased from $25 to $35. Motorists with proper proof of insurance must pay a fee of $1.00 into the claims fund.

This was only one of several major changes in the new law which actually doesn't take effect for processing claims until after the first of next year.

Other amendments were:

- Raising the minimum in property damage to $200;
- Removing all minimums for personal injury claims. Previously these had been set at $50;
- Removing all hit-and-run accident claims which do not involve personal injury.

Secretary of State James Hare said he thought the amendments "strengthened the fund to a great extent and would go a long ways in guaranteeing its solvency. "The $10 increase in the uninsured motorist fee," said Hare, "could add up to $3-million more into the fund if our estimate of 4.7-million insured drivers paying the $1.00 fee and the remaining 300,000 uninsured paying $35 is correct. Original estimates at the old levels of collections would peg the fund at the $12-million mark.

Even though the uninsured driver must pay $35 into the fund, Hare warned, he gets no insurance benefits at all. "The $35 fee is for the privilege of driving in Michigan."

High fees in other states, Hare said, have resulted in increased "incidence of fraud. The only way to discourage this is to throw the book at offenders. This is what we plan to do."

"Upping the property damage minimum to $200 from $50 is going to eliminate many minor fender-scratching claims, while removing hit-and-run property damage will result in eliminating many of the fraudulent claims in this area," Hare noted.

As a companion measure, the Legislature also passed a bill which makes the purchase of uninsured motorist endorsement with private liability policies mandatory upon all drivers unless they specify otherwise in writing to their insurance companies.

"This also will help the Fund's solvency," Hare said, "by making it incumbent upon all claimants to first file against a private insurance company before they claim against the Fund."

Hare said that the major influx of "early plate" buyers would undoubtedly be "dollar customers."

ON SALE MONDAY—Motorists can buy their 1966 auto license plates Monday. But they'll have to provide proof of insurance or pay a $35 fee in addition to the cost of plates. Harold Hartley, manager of the Northville license branch office, displays the beige and blue plates.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

FAR AWAY PLACES no longer have strange-sounding names as Northville travelers chart itineraries from Alexandria-to-Athens or Toledo (Spain)-to-Tangier.

After a business stop in Philadelphia next week, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Whittington will continue east to New York. From there they will fly to Lisbon, Portugal, to begin a vacation which will take them along the coast through Coimbra into Spain. Stops there will be at Salamanca, Madrid, Granada and Madrid.

Their tour is to continue across the Straits of Gibraltar to Tangier, Rabat, Casablanca and Fez. They will return to Lisbon via Seville and Cordova.

A seasoned traveler herself, Mrs. Whittington confides happily that this is the first time she has convinced her husband to take a guided tour. She has participated in such special-interest trips as the one to famed gardens of Europe last year.

'BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S' also can be a reality, Mrs. Whittington attests. For those of us who thought this was only possible in movies Mrs. Whittington relates that she did dine in that venerable store -- as part of a promotion gimmick when she accompanied her husband to a purchasing agents meeting. Now she is the possessor of an unsolicited charge account at that New York emporium of fabulous jewels.

EGYPT, GREECE, ITALY and France are among the countries being visited in leisurely fashion by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chapman. They left October 5 with reservations in their pockets for a freighter trip up the Nile river from Alexandria, Egypt. Their schedule then calls for stops in Crete and Italy before touring France.

Planning on almost three months of travel, Mrs. Chapman said before leaving that the only deadline is to be home for Christmas.

INDIVIDUAL TRAVEL PLANS have to be dovetailed at the George Merwin home. Mrs. Merwin, who was in Washington, D.C. to attend a national board meeting of Children of the American Revolution, flew home last week just in time to say goodbye to her husband, who was leaving for Texas and Arizona.

This week she received a call from him -- in Alaska! This business junket took him from 80-degree temperatures to a cool 14-above in Alaska.

In Washington Mrs. Merwin also attended a meeting for the committee of the national CAR convention to be held there next April. Mrs. Merwin will be in charge of processions during the three-day convention.

GREENFIELD VILLAGE Postscript -- another facet to the item last week noting that Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum furniture is being reproduced is the news that reproductions also are available of the intricate, faded hook rugs in the village and museum.

Barbara McBride, owner of Northville Village Shoppe, called to tell us she can order a variety of authentic patterns and color key them to individual rooms.

She already has samples which she can show, and enthusiastically recommends the rugs as 'heirlooms of tomorrow.' Like all handmades (and these are crafted by the hill people of Kentucky) they are not inexpensive.

GUESTS AND HOSTS—The Meredith Willsons (center) were welcomed to Northville and the Town Hall stage by Mayor A. M. Allen and Mrs. William Slattery, Town Hall president. Willson was the delighted "Iowa Farm Boy" and his wife, Rini, was the envy of all in her bountiful red feathered hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Music Man Win Town Hall Hearts

Meredith Willson came to Northville last Thursday. He brought an hour of his own delightful music — and his attractive wife Rini Zarova to sing it. Together they captivated Northville Town Hall's opening audience.

It was a case of "Here's Love" between the durable words—and music man, his French-Russian wife and the audience from the moment they sang and played the title song of one of his hits. The Willsons were welcomed by Mayor A. M. Allen who pointed out that Town Hall in its fifth season was bringing the "culture and entertainment that Northville deserves."

Mrs. William Slattery, Town Hall chairman, confided to her audience that the Willsons seem to function especially well as a couple as they "have a reputation for being very much in love." Married 17 years, the couple's apparent appreciation for each other's talents did add a dimension of feeling in "Good Night My Someone," "Til There Was You" and other songs from "The Music Man," "Unsinkable Molly Brown"

and "Here's Love."

Between songs, Willson talked informally with his capacity audience in the high school auditorium. He also went to the band classroom to talk with band members.

The Music Man became completely serious when he told his audience he felt the "obligation of anyone in the music business to comment on songs of today."

"Kids of today represent the finest young generation, I hope," he said, "They find out they have a marvelous heritage one of these days. A lot can be said for their dancing," he continued, pointing out that it gets A-plus for lack of self-consciousness, but their music he scorned as "amateurish."

He hoped young people would come to discover "the best by such magnificent songwriters as Mercer and Berlin." At the celebrity luncheon afterward at Meadowbrook country club he advised parents to counteract present-day teenage music by "supporting your high school band and for the rest — grin and bear it." He cited band activity as the "crack under the door" to good music as he pointed out, "band publishers are doing their part with fine arrangements of good music." He added another plus: students in band know the necessity of following a leader.

Rini Willson also had a recommendation for her audience. With dark eyes flashing appreciatively she praised the movie now showing in the Detroit area of the opera "La Boheme" filmed in Italy. The Willsons who stayed at the Statler in Detroit during their visit, had seen the film the evening before.

Mrs. Willson wore a light navy silk sleeveless sheath and oversize turban created of wine-rose curls of feathers. She was born in Leningrad and was smuggled out of the country as a child with her older sister, Willson told the luncheon guests in response to questions about her French-Russian accent. She had been a concert singer with her own career.

Now Willson, who was born May 18, 1902, in Mason City, Iowa, and his wife tour only 10 days to two weeks a year. They were returning shortly to their home in Brentwood, California, where he is working on an historical musical which, he expects, will be ready for production next October.

Willson, who declared he was in on both the birth and death of radio, recalled those days with "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." His audience seemed to feel, as one, it had been blessed with what Mrs. Slattery termed "music all around that we never heard so beautiful before."

Debaters Find Tourney Exciting

Eight Northville debaters participating in four debates met and defeated two previously undefeated Belleville teams and one Dominican High School team, and bowed to a Dominican High affirmative argument.

This was October 19 at Belleville High and again on the question of compulsory arbitration of labor unions in basic industries.

Northville students participating were Chris Becker, Sarah Lindberg, John Bunn, Kurt Kinde, Steve Jordan, Buzzie Colloco, Pam Smith and Karen Stefanski.

All debaters acclaimed the tournament and the new association with students from other schools as exciting and worth the hours of research and preparation.

Coaches Miss Florence Panatoni and Mrs. Jean Dugan experienced real satisfaction when Chris Becker and Sarah Lindberg, after winning the first debate said, "We didn't think we could ever get so interested in a topic like this, but it's really fun to dig and learn."

Shotgun Strategy Stuns Mighty Milford, 19-7

If you can't go through them, go over them!

That was the philosophy adopted by Coach Ron Horvath Friday night as his lightweight Mustang eleven completely surprised the giants of Milford and walked off a rain-drenched homecoming field with a 19-7 victory.

Milford, a team that averages 235 pounds from tackle to tackle and was challenging for the conference lead, had little opportunity to display the strength of its defense on the line.

Northville almost never called a running play.

From the opening kick-off in a steady mist of rain the Mustangs ran their offense from a "shotgun" formation and fired passes.

Quarterback Tom Baughman threw 28 passes and completed 21 -- both new school records -- for a game total of 242 yards through the air and two touchdowns. The third TD was the result of a one-yard plunge, set-up by a pass play.

Captain Jerry Inslund, Northville's rangy end, had the finest night of his career and led his team to the upset victory.

With Quarterback Baughman lined up eight yards behind the line of scrimmage and receiving a direct snap from center everyone knew what was coming. But Baughman was near-perfect despite the slippery pigskin and Inslund was phenomenal in picking-off 13 aeriels for 141 yards.

On a muddy, rain soaked field, he was superb, time after time leaping high into the air to spear the ball with defenders clinging to him. On defense he was no less impressive, making tackles all over the field.

He turned in the defensive gem of the game. When Milford's speedy Halfback, Mike Yeager, approached Inslund's end, he cut inside behind two blockers, veered to the left and was off for an apparent TD.

Inslund who had been knocked down, got up, circled back and caught Yeager 70 yards downfield, knocking him out of bounds on the Northville four yard line as the first half came to an end.

Other sure-handed targets were Halfback Mike Turnbull with three receptions for 35 yards; Fullback Doug Swiss, three for 16 yards and one TD; and End Steve Evans, two for 50 yards and one touchdown.

No mistake about it, Northville was primed for this one -- and thanks to Head Coach Horvath and his assistants, Bob Kucher, Dave Longridge and Alex Klukach, their charges pulled the upset.

Last year's fray with Milford provided the solution. In that one, the Redskins' towering linemen battered down Baughman's passes behind the line of scrimmage. As a result, Northville lost, 14-7.

By putting Baughman eight yards back of center, the coaches minimized the effectiveness of Milford's rush and gave Baughman ample time to throw.

Each Northville scoring threat was thwarted in the first quarter, which ended scoreless. But then the Mustangs exploded for two quick TDs within the last three and one half minutes of the first half.

Milford came back with a tally by intercepting a Northville pass and returning it 75 yards to close the gap to 13-7, with only three minutes gone in the third period.

Northville added a clinching TD just before the close of the third quarter, covering a fumble on the Milford four and scoring on a pass on the next play.

Milford threw everything it had at Northville to pull this one out -- to no avail. Yeager was Milford's prime weapon. He sprinted for 134 yards in 17 carries on a slippery turf, 70 of those coming on that run to the Northville four.

In the late stages of the game, Milford resorted to the pass, but Northville, protecting against the long gainer, gave the Redskins the short yardage. It was too late then.

This game had everything -- three blocked punts, one blocked field goal attempt, two lost fumbles, two intercepted passes, long gainers through the air and on the ground, and one TD called back on each side.

Northville struck paydirt first on a 45-yard pass to Inslund, who leaped high, plucked the ball out of the air over a defender's head and raced into the end zone, only to have it nullified by a clipping penalty early in the first quarter.

A Milford interception stopped another Northville TD threat on the Milford 28 yard line in the same quarter. It was returned 54 yards to the Northville 18, but three plays netted six yards, and a field goal attempt was blocked.

Northville came right back, marching from its 29 to the Milford 14, where Milford again intercepted. In the drive, Baughman hit Inslund for two and six yards, Turnbull for 19 and 14, and Swiss for 16 yards.

Despite a 15-yard clipping penalty late in the second quarter, Northville finally scored, marching 51 yards for the TD in eight plays to gain a 6-0 lead.

Instrumental in the surge was Inslund, who accounted for 45 yards by catching passes good for 19 and 26 yards. Swiss capped the drive by diving one foot for the score. The extra point kick was short.

Northville took the succeeding punt on its 50 and scored in two plays. Inslund snared a 24-yard pass and then Evans grabbed a pass on the left sideline over the head of a defender, and raced in for the TD with 34 seconds left in the half. The kick was perfect to make it, 13-0, Northville.

It looked like a safe Northville lead with just six seconds to go, but Milford's Yeager electrified the homecoming crowd by knifing through the Northville secondary and sprinting down the left sideline 70 yards. Racing diagonally across the field, Inslund knocked him out of bounds on the four.

Time had run out. Earlier in the quarter Northville's Daley Hill caught a Milford back who had broken into the open on a last-ditch diving tackle.

Fired up, Northville took the second-half kickoff and once again took to the air. Baughman connected with Inslund for 13 and three yards and with Evans for 24 to move the ball from the Northville 31 to the Milford 35.

Milford then intercepted a pass on the 25 and returned it 75 yards down the right sideline for the touchdown. The kick for the extra point was good and Milford was back in the game, trailing 13-7.

End Roger Kline provided the spark for the next Northville drive by blocking a Milford punt on the Milford 49. Northville marched goalward on the passes of Baughman, but a fourth down pass complete to Inslund on the 14 fell one foot short of a first down and Milford took over.

On Milford's second play from scrimmage, a host of tacklers knocked the ball loose, and Northville's Steve Kehrler recovered the fumble on the Milford four yard line. Baughman's pass, deflected off Inslund's hands, was grabbed by Swiss who was right behind Inslund in the end zone. The kick was wide as Northville led, 19-7.

Fireworks were far from over, however, as Northville, then Milford threatened in the fourth quarter.

Northville's chance came on another blocked punt by Kline, this time on the Milford 18 yard line. Four plays netted only one yard, and Northville gave up the pigskin.

Resorting to the same tactic, Milford blocked a Northville punt on the 14. On the first play, a Milford back took a pitch out and raced over right tackle into the end zone. A penalty, however, nullified the run; Northville held to snuff out Milford's last chance.

Novi Frosh Win Again

Novi's freshman team squeaked by Milford Junior High by 7-6 to win their second game in a row.

This puts the Novi frosh squad 2-2 for the season.

Novi's touchdown was scored by Jon Van Wagoner as was the point after. The score was set up on a pass play from Gary Boyer to Lee Snow.

Milford also scored on a pass play.

John Osborne, coach at Novi, said that the outstanding feature of the game was the defensive game played by Joe Morrison.

Looking forward to this Thursday's game against Northville Osborne would comment only that the two wins in a row should give Novi some momentum, but that the Northville team is also looking good.

The game in Northville will be played in Northville at 7:00 p.m.

Hockey Call

Hockey players age 18 and under in Northville - Plymouth area may register Thursday, October 28, for the season.

Little Time for Leisure In Steve Juday's Day

The following article was written by Donald Busch of Northville as one of the requirements for a journalism course at Michigan State university. Busch is a senior in advertising at MSU.

Co-Captain Steve Juday of Michigan State has more trouble getting free off the gridiron than on it.

Off the field Steve has a full schedule of classes with the studying that comes with them. Besides his classes he is a member of four honorary organizations. With his activities, classes, study, and football he finds little time for leisure.

Because of his football ability Steve has become a member of four MSU honorary organizations: Blue Key, Sparta, Excalibur, and the Varsity Club. During the football season Steve has to overlook some of these clubs to study.

A normal day for Steve begins at 10 a.m. when he goes to his first class. By three in the afternoon all of his classes are over and he heads for the practice field.

Steve is usually the first one out for practice. Most of his early practice he spends working on some of the special offensive maneuvers for the coming game.

After practice is over at 6 p.m. Steve heads for the training table in the field house. He usually finishes dinner at seven and goes back to the dorm to study.

If there isn't a club meeting, Steve sits down to study at eight o'clock. He finishes his studying at mid-night or later depending on the amount of work.

Though he has a hard schedule Steve still manages to maintain a B- average in Marketing.

Football takes up a great portion of Juday's week. Besides the normal three hour practice session Steve spends nine or ten extra hours a week studying films and talking over plays with Coach Duffy Daugherty.

This year football puts more of a mental strain on Steve than in the past. State has started one of its greatest seasons. Steve is the quarterback and co-captain of this team. A great deal of the responsibility of how the team does in the coming games falls on his shoulders.

When I asked him how he accepts this extra pressure Steve said, "I don't even feel it."

In his past two seasons Steve has broken many of State's passing records. Some of these records are held by very honored players. Such men as Al Dorow and Earl Morrall, quarterback for the New York Giants, are the target of Steve's college career.

This year Steve's record-breaking drive is off to a strong start. He has 50 completions of 88 passes for 628 yards, 2 interceptions, and a pair of TD's. Only 213 yards stand between him and Morrall's '55 season mark. Steve needs 60 more passes with 29 completions to break his own 1964 records.

Steve already has the single game completion record of 28 against Notre Dame last year.

Eighty-five yards stand between Steve and Earl Morrall, the leader in yards gained in a career.

Steve tops Al Dorow with 304 attempts and 159 completions. He is fourth in TD passes, 16, and third in passes intercepted, 19. (Note -- above statistics do not include last Saturday's Purdue game).

Steve's brother Jim is also a member of State's football team. Jim has been given an extra year's eligibility because of an arm injury which doesn't allow him to play this year.

Steve and Jim live together in Wilson dormitory.

Frosh Wins At Milford

The Northville Frosh evened its season record at 2-2 last Thursday by beating Milford Highland on the road, 19-7.

Northville completely dominated the ball game, said Coach Jack Townsley. "They didn't get the ball at all in the third period," he added.

Playing on a soggy field, Milford fumbled twice in the first half and each time Northville countered. On the other hand, Townsley said, "we made very few mistakes."

Everybody in the Colts' starting backfield had a hand in the scoring.

Fullback Kim Marburger plunged for a TD from one yard out; Left Halfback Pat Cayley teamed up with Quarterback Stan Nider on a six-yard pass play for a score; and Right Halfback Craig McDermald scampered four yards for the other tally.

Local frosh will wrap up the season at 7 p.m. this Thursday against Novi on the high school field.

BOWL BOUND?—Michigan State's victory over Purdue Saturday makes the Spartans the heavy favorites to represent the Big Ten at the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. One of the chief reasons for the success of MSU has been the play of Quarterback Steve Juday of Northville. This article about Steve was written for The Record by one of his classmates at MSU, Donald Busch of Northville.

It's Team Effort Player of Week?

Player of the Week? Not this week after Northville's sterling upset victory over Milford, 19-7.

In an unprecedented move, Head Coach Ron Horvath picked the whole Mustang squad for honors.

"It was a team victory all the way," he said. "Everyone played an amazing game. It was the biggest win of the year, even bigger than the win over Plymouth (a 45-0 rout). We were outweighted 80 pounds per man," Horvath concluded.

Stars? Horvath had a fist full of them.

End Jerry Inslund played the best game of his career, grabbing 13 for 141 yards, despite the slippery ball and clinging defenders. Right now, he has set a school record for receptions -- 41 -- and he's on his way to breaking the yards gained receiving record of 437, held by Jim Petrock. Inslund has 434 this season.

He and Tackle Daley Hill both saved touchdowns. Hill came from behind to tackle a Milford runner on the Northville 18 after the Milford man had intercepted a pass in the first quarter.

And Inslund turned the same trick, getting off the ground to knock Milford's speedy halfback, Mike Yeager, out of bounds on the Northville four as time expired in the first half.

Quarterback Tom Baughman fired 28 passes, clicking on 21 for a total of 242 yards. He also handled the Mustangs' punting chores for the first time. His first punt on third down rocked the Redskins back on their heels, and kept Milford loose on third down to guard against the quick kick.

Baughman is gaining another distinction. He's fast closing in on Steve Juday's single season passing mark of over 1100 yards. Baughman has hit for 932 yards on 78 completions in 125 attempts, an average of 62.4 percent. "He was great under terrific pressure," said Assistant Coach Dave Longridge.

Horvath lauded his offensive linemen for protecting Baughman against the Milford line which averaged 235 pounds. "They nailed him only once or twice," Horvath said.

Forming the wall were Tackles Jim Kleinsorge and Bud Rathert, Guards Terry Fraser and Center Bill Bailey. "There wasn't one bad pass from center," noted Horvath.

With two regular defensive halfbacks out with injuries, Sophomore Don Beller and Senior Bob Bartski filled the gap. And Linebacker Steve Kehrler, who spelled injured Ev Grier, recovered a decisive fumble.

There was an offensive switch, too, and Dave Boerger came off the bench to take over as blocking fullback, and fullback Doug Swiss moved to halfback to fill in for the injured Jim Zayti.

Going all the way against rugged Milford were three veterans, Inslund, Evans and Mike Turnbull. "They led the team," Horvath noted.

The weapon the Mustangs used to whip Milford? Passes from a shotgun offense.

"We knew we couldn't run against them," said Longridge who came up with the idea for the shotgun offense. "And they knew it, too. But they didn't expect us to pass on a wet night, and we did."

"I may have given Ron the idea," continued Longridge, "but he designed the pass patterns."

How did Northville block two Milford punts? That came as the result of the observations of Assistant Coach Alex Klukach, who saw that Milford was one man short on the left side of its line.

And Assistant Coach Bob Kucher was the man spotting from above. What's more, he handles the coaching of Northville's ends, who gained 191 of those 242 passing yards.

Shotgun Strategy Stuns Mighty Milford, 19-7

If you can't go through them, go over them!

That was the philosophy adopted by Coach Ron Horwath Friday night as his lightweight Mustang eleven completely surprised the giants of Milford and walked off a rain-drenched homecoming field with a 19-7 victory.

Milford, a team that averages 235 pounds from tackle-to-tackle and was challenging for the conference lead, had little opportunity to display the strength of its defense on the line.

Northville almost never called a running play.

From the opening kick-off in a steady mist of rain the Mustangs ran their offense from a "shotgun" formation and fired passes.

Quarterback Tom Baughman threw 28 passes and completed 21 -- both new school records -- for a game total of 242 yards through the air and two touchdowns. The third TD was the result of a one-yard plunge, set-up by a pass play.

Captain Jerry Inmsland, Northville's rangy end, had the finest night of his career and led his team to the upset victory.

With Quarterback Baughman lined up eight yards behind the line of scrimmage and receiving a direct snap from center every one knew what was coming. But Baughman was near-perfect despite the slippery pigskin and Inmsland was phenomenal in picking-off 13 aeriels for 141 yards.

On a muddy, rain soaked field, he was superb, time after time leaping high into the air to spear the ball with defenders clinging to him. On defense he was no less impressive, making tackles all over the field.

He turned in the defensive gem of the game. When Milford's shifty and speedy Halfback, Mike Yeager, approached Inmsland's end, he cut inside behind two blockers, veered to the left and was off for an apparent TD.

Inmsland who had been knocked down, got up, circled back and caught Yeager 70 yards downfield, knocking him out of bounds on the Northville four yard line as the first half came to an end.

Other sure-handed targets were Halfback Mike Turnbull with three receptions for 35 yards; Fullback Doug Swiss, three for 16 yards and one TD; and End Steve Evans, two for 50 yards and one touchdown.

No mistake about it, Northville was primed for this one -- and thanks to Head Coach Horwath and his assistants, Bob Kucher, Dave Longridge and Alex Klukach, their charges pulled the upset.

Last year's tray with Milford provided the solution. In that one, the Redskins' towering linemen battered down Baughman's passes behind the line of scrimmage. As a result, Northville lost, 14-7. By putting Baughman eight yards back of center, the coaches minimized the effectiveness of Milford's rush and gave Baughman ample time to throw.

Each Northville scoring threat was thwarted in the first quarter, which ended scoreless. But then the Mustangs exploded for two quick TDs within the last three and one half minutes of the first half.

Milford came back with a tally by intercepting a Northville pass and returning it 75 yards to close the gap to 13-7, with only three minutes gone in the third period.

Northville added a clinching TD just before the close of the third quarter, covering a fumble on the Milford four and scoring on a pass on the next play.

Milford threw everything it had at Northville to pull this one out -- to no avail. Yeager was Milford's prime weapon. He sprinted for 134 yards in 17 carries on a slippery turf, 70 of those coming on that run to the Northville four.

In the late stages of the game, Milford resorted to the pass, but Northville, protecting against the long gainer, gave the Redskins the short yardage. It was too late then.

This game had everything -- three blocked punts, one blocked field goal attempt, two lost fumbles, two intercepted passes, long gainers through the air and on the ground, and one TD called back on each side.

Northville struck paydirt first on a 45-yard pass to Inmsland, who leaped high, plucked the ball out of the air over a defender's head and raced into the end zone, only to have it nullified by a clipping penalty early in the first quarter.

A Milford interception stopped another Northville TD threat on the Milford 28 yard line in the same quarter. It was returned 54 yards to the Northville 18, but three plays netted six yards, and a field goal attempt was blocked.

Northville came right back, marching from its 29 to the Milford 14, where Milford again intercepted. In the drive, Baughman hit Inmsland for two and six yards, Turnbull for 19 and 14, and Swiss for 16 yards.

Despite a 15-yard clipping penalty late in the second quarter, Northville finally scored, marching 51 yards for the TD in eight plays to gain a 6-0 lead.

Instrumental in the surge was Inmsland, who accounted for 45 yards by catching passes good for 19 and 26 yards. Swiss capped the drive by diving one foot for the score. The extra point kick was short.

Northville took the succeeding punt on its 50 and scored in two plays. Inmsland snared a 24-yard pass and then Evans grabbed a pass on the left sideline over the head of a defender, and raced in for the TD with 34 seconds left in the half. The kick was perfect to make it, 13-0, Northville.

It looked like a safe Northville lead with just six seconds to go, but Milford's Yeager electrified the homecoming crowd by knifing through the Northville secondary and sprinting down the left sideline 70 yards. Racing diagonally across the field, Inmsland knocked him out of bounds on the four.

Time had run out. Earlier in the quarter Northville's Daley Hill caught a Milford back who had broken into the open on a last-ditch diving tackle.

Fired up, Northville took the second-half kickoff and once again took to the air. Baughman connected with Inmsland for 13 and three yards and with Evans for 24 to move the ball from the Northville 31 to the Milford 35.

Milford then intercepted a pass on the 25 and returned it 75 yards down the right sideline for the touchdown. The kick for the extra point was good and Milford was back in the game, trailing 13-7.

End Roger Kline provided the spark for the next Northville drive by blocking a Milford punt on the Milford 49. Northville marched goalward on the passes of Baughman, but a fourth down pass complete to Inmsland on the 14 fell one foot short of a first down and Milford took over.

On Milford's second play from scrimmage, a host of tacklers knocked the ball loose, and Northville's Steve Kehrner recovered the fumble on the Milford four yard line. Baughman's pass, deflected off Inmsland's hands, was grabbed by Swiss who was right behind Inmsland in the end zone. The kick was wide as Northville led, 19-7.

Fireworks were far from over, however, as Northville, then Milford threatened in the fourth quarter.

Northville's chance came on another blocked punt by Kline, this time on the Milford 18 yard line. Four plays netted only one yard, and Northville gave up the pigskin.

Resorting to the same tactic, Milford blocked a Northville punt on the 14. On the first play, a Milford back took a pitch out and raced over right tackle into the end zone. A penalty, however, nullified the run; Northville held to snuff out Milford's last chance.

Novi Frosh Win Again

Novi's freshman team squeaked by Milford Junior High by 7-6 to win their second game in a row.

This puts the Novi frosh squad 2-2 for the season.

Novi's touchdown was scored by Jon Van Wagoner as was the point after. The score was set up on a pass play from Gary Boyer to Lee Snow.

Milford also scored on a pass play.

John Osborne, coach at Novi, said that the outstanding feature of the game was the defensive game played by Joe Morrison.

Looking forward to this Thursday's game against Northville Osborne would comment only that the two wins in a row should give Novi some momentum, but that the Northville team is also looking good.

The game in Northville will be played in Northville at 7:00 p.m.

Little Time for Leisure In Steve Juday's Day

The following article was written by Donald Busch of Northville as one of the requirements for a journalism course at Michigan State University. Busch is a senior in advertising at MSU.

Co-Captain Steve Juday of Michigan State has more trouble getting free off the gridiron than on it.

Off the field Steve has a full schedule of classes with the studying that comes with them. Besides his classes he is a member of four honorary organizations. With his activities, classes, study, and football he finds little time for leisure.

Because of his football ability Steve has become a member of four MSU honorary organizations: Blue Key, Sparta, Excalibur, and the Varsity Club. During the football season Steve has to overlook some of these clubs to study.

A normal day for Steve begins at 10 a.m. when he goes to his first class. By three in the afternoon all of his classes are over and he heads for the practice field.

Steve is usually the first one out for practice. Most of his early practice he spends working on some of the special offensive maneuvers for the coming game.

After practice is over at 6 p.m. Steve heads for the training table in the field house. He usually finishes dinner at seven and goes back to the dorm to study.

If there isn't a club meeting, Steve sits down to study at eight o'clock. He finishes his studying at mid-night or later depending on the amount of work.

Though he has a hard schedule Steve still manages to maintain a B- average in Marketing.

Football takes up a great portion of Juday's week. Besides the normal three hour practice session Steve spends nine or ten extra hours a week studying films and talking over plays with Coach Duffy Daugherty.

This year football puts more of a mental strain on Steve than in the past. State has started one of its greatest seasons. Steve is the quarterback and co-captain of this team. A great deal of the responsibility of how the team does in the coming games falls on his shoulders.

When I asked him how he accepts this extra pressure Steve said, "I don't even feel it."

In his past two seasons Steve has broken many of State's passing records. Some of these records are held by very honored players. Such men as Al Dorow and Earl Morrall, quarterback for the New York Giants, are the target of Steve's college career.

This year Steve's record-breaking drive is off to a strong start. He has 50 completions of 88 passes for 628 yards, 2 interceptions, and a pair of TD's. Only 213 yards stand between him and Morrall's '55 season mark. Steve needs 60 more passes with 29 completions to break his own 1964 records.

Steve already has the single game completion record of 26 against Notre Dame last year.

Eighty-five yards stand between Steve and Earl Morrall, the leader in yards gained in a career.

Steve tops Al Dorow with 304 attempts and 159 completions. He is fourth in TD passes, 16, and third in passes intercepted, 19. (Note -- above statistics do not include last Saturday's Purdue game).

Steve's brother Jim is also a member of State's football team. Jim has been given an extra year's eligibility because of an arm injury which doesn't allow him to play this year.

Steve and Jim live together in Wilson dormitory.

Frosh Wins At Milford

The Northville Frosh evened its season record at 2-2 last Thursday by beating Milford Highland on the road, 19-7.

Northville completely dominated the ball game, said Coach Jack Townsley. "They didn't get the ball at all in the third period," he added.

Playing on a soggy field, Milford fumbled twice in the first half and each time Northville countered. On the other hand, Townsley said, "We made very few mistakes."

Everybody in the Colts' starting backfield had a hand in the scoring.

Fullback Kim Marburger plunged for a TD from one yard out; Left Halfback Pat Cayley teamed up with Quarterback Stan Niderer on a six-yard pass play for a score; and Right Halfback Craig McDermald scampered four yards for the other tally.

Local frosh will wrap up the season at 7 p.m. this Thursday against Novi on the high school field.

BOWL BOUND?—Michigan State's victory over Purdue Saturday makes the Spartans the heavy favorites to represent the Big Ten at the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. One of the chief reasons for the success of MSU has been the play of Quarterback Steve Juday of Northville. This article about Steve was written for The Record by one of his classmates at MSU, Donald Busch of Northville.

It's Team Effort Player of Week?

Player of the Week? Not this week after Northville's sterling upset victory over Milford, 19-7.

In an unprecedented move, Head Coach Ron Horwath picked the whole Mustang squad for honors.

"It was a team victory all the way," he said. "Everyone played an amazing game. It was the biggest win of the year, even bigger than the win over Plymouth (a 45-0 rout). We were outweighted 80 pounds per man," Horwath concluded.

Stars? Horwath had a list full of them.

End Jerry Inmsland played the best game of his career, grabbing 13 for 141 yards, despite the slippery ball and clinging defenders. Right now, he has set a school record for receptions -- 41 -- and he's on his way to breaking the yards gained receiving record of 437, held by Jim Petrock. Inmsland has 434 this season.

He and Tackle Daley Hill both saved touchdowns. Hill came from behind to tackle a Milford runner on the Northville 18 after the Milford man had intercepted a pass in the first quarter.

And Inmsland turned the same trick, getting off the ground to knock Milford's speedy halfback, Mike Yeager, out of bounds on the Northville four as time expired in the first half.

Quarterback Tom Baughman fired 28 passes, clicking on 21 for a total of 242 yards. He also handled the Mustangs' punting chores for the first time. His first punt on third down rocked the Redskins back on their heels, and kept Milford loose on third down to guard against the quick kick.

Baughman is gaining another distinction. He's fast closing in on Steve Juday's single season passing mark of over 1100 yards. Baughman has hit for 932 yards on 78 completions in 125 attempts, an average of 62.4 percent. "He was great under terrific pressure," said Assistant Coach Dave Longridge.

Horwath lauded his offensive linemen for protecting Baughman against the Milford line which averaged 235 pounds. "They nailed him only once or twice," Horwath said.

Forming the wall were Tackles Jim Kleinsorge and Bud Rathert, Guards Terry Fraser and Center Bill Bailey. "There wasn't one bad pass from center," noted Horwath.

With two regular defensive halfbacks out with injuries, Sophomore Don Beller and Senior Bob Bartsch filled the gap. And Linebacker Steve Kehrner, who spelled injured Ev Grier, recovered a decisive fumble.

There was an offensive switch, too, and Dave Boerger came off the bench to take over as blocking fullback, and fullback Doug Swiss moved to halfback to fill in for the injured Jim Zayfi.

Going all the way against rugged Milford were three veterans, Inmsland, Evans and Mike Turnbull. "They led the team," Horwath noted.

The weapon the Mustangs used to whip Milford? Passes from a shotgun offense.

"We knew we couldn't run against them," said Longridge who came up with the idea for the shotgun offense. "And they knew it, too. But they didn't expect us to pass on a wet night, and we did."

"I may have given Ron the idea," continued Longridge, "but he designed the pass patterns."

How did Northville block two Milford punts? That came as the result of the observations of Assistant Coach Alex Klukach, who saw that Milford was one man short on the left side of its line.

And Assistant Coach Bob Kucher was the man spotting from above. What's more, he handles the coaching of Northville's ends, who gained 191 of those 242 passing yards.

OBITUARY

MRS. JAMES (IRENE) MAIR Funeral services were held Saturday from Casterline Funeral Home for Mrs. James (Irene) Mair, who died suddenly October 19 while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Krezel, and family in East Haddam, Connecticut. The Reverend LaVere Webster, Novi Methodist church, officiated. Burial was in Oakland Hills cemetery.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tabor, she was born July 21, 1901, in Pickford, Michigan. She was married to James Mair, October 17, 1936. A Novi resident for 29 years, she was a member of Novi Methodist church, Eastern Star Friendship chapter No. 463, Detroit, and Novi Rebekah Lodge.

In addition to her daughter, she leaves her husband, James, of 25540 Seeley road, Novi; three sisters, Mrs. Miriam Mason, Wayne; Miss Ora Tabor, Pontiac; Mrs. Elsie Allen, Fairfax, Virginia; and two grandchildren.

The Snazzola Digs the Warden

Jimmy Durante (no further identification necessary) volunteered two performances at the Detroit House of Correction last Saturday when Superintendent William Bannan renewed an old acquaintance at the performer's current stage, The Elmwood Casino. Bannan met Durante in Las Vegas and their friendship brought a performance soon afterward at Bannan's former post, Jackson State Prison. Needless to say, the old trooper, now 73, wowed 'em. Appearing with Jimmy Durante was his famous partner Eddie Jackson.

DRUGS

114 East Main

Two Northville youths were hospitalized following a traffic accident Thursday about 9:30 a.m. in which their car rammed into the rear of a loaded dump truck on East Seven Mile road.

Don Biery, 21, 217 W. Dunlap, the driver, and Lance Hahn, 19, 464 Welch street, were ambulated to St. Mary hospital.

Biery remained hospitalized this week with a fractured breast bone, deep cuts to his head and chin, with internal injuries made complicated by a cold.

Hahn was released to home care Sunday. He suffered a concussion, whiplash neck injury, broken right arm, broken left shoulder blade and a punctured kidney.

Hahn said that Biery, driving, had taken his eyes off the road to put glasses in the glove compartment. When he looked up his car was topping a rise and the slow moving gravel truck was in the path.

According to the Wayne County Sheriff's deputies, the accident, one-half mile east of Northville road, occurred when the dump truck was pulling a heavy load up a grade. The Biery car approaching from the rear hit it straight on.

South Main street was the scene of a collision at 3:46 p.m. Monday, involving a Detroit man and a Ypsilanti woman.

Leona Hurst, 31, Ypsilanti, was treated at St. Mary hospital and released. Robert C. Tesch, 24, Detroit, did not require hospital treatment.

Tesch told Northville police that he was driving south on south Main street when the Hurst car pulled out in front of him at the intersection of the Seven Mile road cutoff.

A Plymouth man was hospitalized after his car jumped the dividing island on Novi road east of the intersection of Eight Mile road.

Robert Burns Ribar, 25, was admitted to St. Mary's shortly after the 9:24 p.m. Sunday accident, with fractures. Tuesday the hospital reported Ribar in satisfactory condition.

A Northville lady was hospitalized with a dislocated shoulder and head cut Friday following a traffic accident in which her car was struck by an oncoming car while in mid-turn.

Mary Elizabeth Edgerton, 60, 571 Randolph, was admitted at St. Mary hospital shortly after the 7:59 a.m. mishap at the intersection of Eight Mile and Novi roads.

Monday her condition was reported "good" at the hospital where she remains with internal injuries.

The driver of the other car, Clarence Wayne Johnson, 55, Detroit, was treated for facial cuts and released.

Northville police investigating the accident were able to get a statement from Johnson only. He said that the Edgerton car was beginning a left turn from its eastbound Eight Mile road lane, and that although he tried to stop he could not. He said he was traveling 35 mph.

The pavement was wet from rain which was still falling at the time.

Municipal Court

Northville area institutions, or their inmates, that is, contributed two significant cases to the Municipal Court docket this week.

An escapee from the Detroit House of Correction earned 45 additional days behind bars. Charles Bishop, 38, jumped jail October 10 and was turned over to the court by a prison official. He was arraigned October 25 before Judge Charles McDonald and pleaded guilty.

Henry Jalink, a patient at Maybury Sanatorium was sentenced to five days in DeHoCo after pleading guilty to possession of alcoholic beverages as charged by a sanatorium official

Grid Quiz Winner Misses Only Three

This is the week for three's when it comes to the football contest.

The winner, Bill Bunn of 9791 Mathews road, South Lyon, was the only one to miss three. He is the third winner from South Lyon this season. Bill picked U-M, where he is a freshman, as his third loser. This is the third time he has won the contest, but according to his father, Gordon, he always picks the Wolverines.

Most of those who lost made the mistake of picking these three losers; Texas, Detroit and Milford.

Second and third place was determined by the score closest to the final score of the Lions-Bears game.

Mrs. Frances Kritch of 860 Spring, Northville had the score closest to the final Lions score. Mrs. Kritch, who writes up the entries for five members of her family each week, picked the Bears by a score of 34-17. Even though she writes five different score sheets each week this is the first time in years, she said, that she has won.

Coming in third, with the second closest Lions score, was Fred Robinson, of 21060 Taft road, Northville. As third place winner he receives $3.

Most of those who entered had five wrong, after that the group with four wrong was used to see which had the closest score to the Lions to determine the second and third place winners.

NEW REPORTER - Frank Gresock of Flint has joined the editorial staff of the Northville Record - Novi News. Frank attended Michigan State university as a junior last year in journalism. He'll cover general news throughout the Northville - Novi - Wixom area. He's now living in Northville.

Smiling Queen Dawn

Rain fell on the football field and washed out the traditional pregame and halftime ceremonies at Friday night's Northville-Milford football game. But the rain didn't dampen the joy in the heart of Dawn McAllister when she was named Homecoming Queen. She reigned over the Homecoming Dance following the game. For pictures of this event see page 3-B.

"The Treasure"
Most of us have dreamed of finding buried treasure. Our dreams were spurred on by "Treasure Island", by rainbows, and by fabulous contests outlined on cereal boxes.

But we have matured, and we know now that there are no treasures to be claimed. All that there is for us is a paycheck for every forty hours of labor. Let the children dream. We know better. All of the nooks and crannies of this globe have been searched and all the treasures claimed.

How wrong we are. Just last year an enterprising fellow searched the waters off Florida and made discoveries valued at more than a million dollars, with unknown amounts yet to be retrieved from five unexcavated vessels. What was found is believed to be the remains of ten Spanish ships carrying 14 million dollars in gold and silver and other valuables. These vessels were sunk in a hurricane in 1715. For 250 years this great treasure has lain beneath fifteen to thirty feet of water waiting to be claimed.

Men have swam these waters, and water-skied over them. They have enjoyed the pleasure that is to be found on the surface. Let us recognize that some folk treat the things of God like this. They accept the mere surface pleasures. They come to church and seek the pleasure that comes from change of pace and from contact with fellowman. These are good, but shallow treasures if sought alone.

Men have fished these waters. They have dropped their hooks and taken from the waters the single leed for the day. They have gone and bragged about their "treasure." What say they now that they know what they missed. Again, we find a parallel to spiritual things. They have dropped their line and have sought to snare the one thing that would meet their momentary need. To some degree, perhaps, they have succeeded. But they have still missed the great treasure.

But some have believed that there was a greater treasure. In spite of the scoffings of friends, they have plunged beneath the waters to find out for themselves. And they have not been disappointed. They have found unlimited treasures in Christ.

Romans 11:33 says, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out."

The Apostle Paul's privilege was to "preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ..." Ephesians 3:8.

The Lord Jesus said, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Matthew 6:19-21.

The treasure off the coast of Florida can no longer be claimed by you or me. It is too late. But the heavenly treasures in Christ can be. However, if we continue to ignore them, seeking only the light treasures of the moment, the day will come when it is too late for these, also.

WHAT TREASURE DO YOU SEEK?

Plan Salem Party

The Salem PTO and Salem township fire department are combining forces this year to give the community a gala Halloween party on Saturday, October 30, beginning at 7 p.m.

In an effort to cut down on trick or treat visitors many parents are donating candy, cupcakes and other goodies for the party. There will be prizes for all and a ride on the fire truck for a special treat.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Herald, 845 Spring drive, Northville, are announcing the birth of their third daughter on Sunday, October 17. Margaret Alice Herald weighed six pounds and ten ounces when she arrived at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor. The new baby has two sisters, Kathy who is six and a half years old and Lynn, almost four.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Enders and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Herald, all of South Lyon, are the happy grandparents.

Parents as well as children are asked to come in costume.

PERSONAL call

These days, our minds are as busy as switchboards! There are so many things to think about, at work, at school or at home. Even our leisure hours often require a lot of mental activity... and peace of mind seems very far away.

Yet peace of mind is possible for us all, when we turn to God for relief from the tensions of modern living. He is fully aware of all our problems and difficulties, and He is always ready to lead us to a greater serenity of spirit than we have ever known.

That is why, when we take a little time from our busy lives to attend church, we leave feeling refreshed and strengthened. We have shared in His divine gift of peace.

This Sunday, God's call to a new and certain way of meeting the pressures of life is a personal call... for you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily:
(1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Homecoming Fit For Queen

A happy, tearful Dawn accepts the congratulations of Principal Fred Stefanski when it was revealed at the Friday afternoon pep rally that students had elected Dawn queen. Senior queen candidates Rosie Frontera and Susie Hill graciously applaud the outcome.

COURT AND ESCORTS—The queen's court and their escorts (l. to r.) are: Kim McCormick and Barry Deal, Rhonda Bongiovanni and John Remington, Susie Hill and Steve Evans, Queen Dawn and Larry Thibos, Rosie Frontera and Mike Turnbull, Cindy Haynes and Roger Kline.

Junior PTA To Sponsor Swap Sale

Northville Junior High PTA will repeat the skate-boot swap sale it originated last year with a sale to be held Saturday, November 6, in the junior high lunchroom.

Mrs. William Switzler, chairman, announced that the event is being repeated as last year's sale was so popular, with almost 100 articles changing hands.

The sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. with items to be sold including outgrown skates, boots, raincoats and all types of sports equipment. The PTA will collect a 25-cent handling charge which is to be donated to the junior high school.

All items to be sold are to be taken to the back entrance of the junior high boys' gymnasium Thursday and Friday, November 4 and 5, between 9 and 10 a.m. or 1 to 3 p.m. No articles can be accepted for sale after 3 p.m. Friday. Anyone with items to sell should tie them together and attach a plain, unsealed envelope with name, address, telephone number, article size, designation for boy or girl and price desired.

Money and unsold articles must be picked up by 2 p.m. the Saturday of the sale, Mrs. Switzler warns, with unclaimed articles to be given to the Goodwill and the money to the junior high.

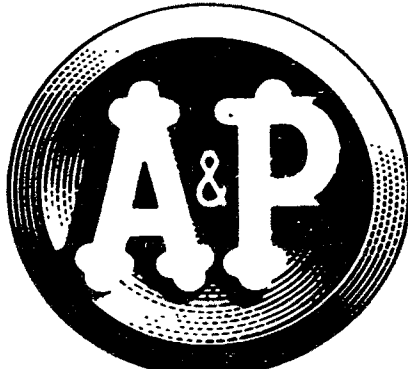

NOTICE

The regular monthly meeting of the Northville Township Board will be held on Wednesday, November 3, 1965 instead of Tuesday due to the November 2 election. Board meetings are held at the Township Hall beginning at 8 P.M.

Marguerite Young
Township Clerk

Rain Friday night curtailed the pre-game parade and halftime ceremonies that normally accompany the Homecoming game. But it didn't dampen the spirits at the dance following the game. Queen Dawn McAllister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McAllister, reigned over the ceremonies. Her court included Seniors Rosie Frontera and Susie Hill, Junior Cindy Haynes, Sophomore Rhonda Bongiovanni and Freshman Kim McCormick.

Novi Methodist Church WSCS will hold its annual bazaar and luncheon next Wednesday November 3 at the Novi Community building. Doors will open at 11 a.m. A roast beef luncheon will be served.

At the booths will be Christmas gifts and decorations, stuffed toys, aprons, pillow cases and miscellaneous articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkwood of Summit drive were married 25 years October 26. They celebrated their silver anniversary Saturday at a surprise party given by their children at the home of Mrs. Kirkwood's sister, Mrs. A. Garvin in Warren, assisted by another sister, Mrs. C. Mitchell also of Warren. Another sister called from California to wish her sister and brother-in-law many happy returns. Twenty-six members of the family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warren and daughter, Janet, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Button attended the wedding and reception of Sharon Dutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dutton, and Donald Hill at St. James Methodist church in Detroit Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Upton who spent the past year with her niece, Mrs. J. W. Erwin, and family and other relatives in Michigan has returned by plane to her home near Dudley, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fishback hosted a birthday dinner for their grandson Eddie Fulner, last Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John French, Mrs. Fishback's luncheon guests Friday were Mrs. Ruth Judd and Mrs. Crawford Muschott of Highland.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Fishback attended the funeral of Mrs. Rose Holcombe at Troy.

Former Novi residents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman of Livonia were visitors at the home of Mrs. Hattie Garlick Sunday. In the afternoon they all called on Mrs. Carolyn McCollum.

Mrs. Hildred Bachert, who had an eye operation at Beaumont hospital in Royal Oak last week returned to her home on Fonda street Tuesday.

Sunday company at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haas of West Grand River were the latter's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Riorden and four children from Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Hildred Hunt entertained her Jolly Eight Pedro club last Wednesday. Before playing cards they were served a dessert luncheon by the hostess.

Mrs. Otto Rexin, Mrs. Clyde Wyatt and Mrs. Hunt attended the Farm Bureau district women's meeting in Ida last Monday. Five counties were represented.

Last Thursday Mrs. Andy Kozak, Mrs. Erwin F'Geppert, Mrs. Ted Slentz, Mrs. Lloyd Coleman, Mrs. Anthony Skeltis and Mrs. Millie McHale had dinner at Win Schulers in Jackson. They are all members of a bowling group.

Novi Farm Bureau held its first fall meeting at the community hall Tuesday night. A potluck supper preceded the meeting. Phil Anderson, chairman, presided at the business session.

Denise, Kathy and Patti Ward, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Ward, spent Friday night at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ward. Saturday night the Ward girls attended a birthday party for their cousin, Jeanne Panzica, at the Panzica home in Detroit.

Mrs. George Mairs was the guest of Mrs. Ed Putnam at the Putnam cottage in the woods near Lewiston for the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rackov and grandson Brian spent several days at their cottage near Marion during Mr. Rackov's recent vacation.

Today Mr. and Mrs. James

Wilenius plan to go to Caro to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex LaPlante.

Duane Bell and Ray Hinz left Monday for Northern Michigan for a few days of partridge hunting near Glennie.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS
Novi Chapter 47, Blue Star Mothers, will meet at the home of Mrs. John K. Klasner for a November meeting Thursday, November 4. The Blue Star Mothers report a very successful bazaar and luncheon last Tuesday. They served approximately 120 diners.

Mrs. Margaret Nichols of Detroit won the quilt and James Robertson, the ceramic cannister set.

NOVI METHODIST CHURCH
Last Sunday was World Order Sunday and United Nations Day at Novi Methodist church. The Reverend R. LaVere Webster's sermon was on Extremism, A Christian Social Concern.

The W.S.C.S. Commissions meet at the home of Mrs. Arlene Gillett Tuesday evening to make reports.

The Discussion Group will serve a moose dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday, November 5 at the church. The moose was supplied by a member. Only a limited number of tickets are available and may be purchased from Dan Ritter.

NOVI BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS
Record-and-Book Sunday has been extended another week at Novi Baptist church. Christian literature including missionary book, christian fiction and children's stories as well as Christian records will be on display at the church during the morning hours. Next Sunday will be the last time to order.

Special guest who spoke Sunday morning on Christian literature was Miss Margaret Epp from Waldeim, Canada, who has written several books, including "A Fountain Sealed" just off the press.

Following morning worship students from Detroit Bible school and Grand Rapids school of the Bible and Music were welcomed. Plans were made for their Christian work assignments. They were guests at a ham dinner supplied by the Vera Vaughn circle and hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ozark. Assignments are as follows: Beginner church, John Bailey and Ruth Sweeney; primary church, Sharon White, Dave Ardelean and Tim Krest; junior church, Linda Davis and Don Kamen. Other students working throughout the Sunday school and church are Judy Button, Gloria Bugni, Connie Warner and Bob Taylor.

Anyone who has registered for the 20th annual convention of the M.S.S.A. may pickup registration badges in the vestibule. Others may register by contacting Mrs. Marian Presnell. Transportation pools will be set by the weekend; so all delegates are asked to look over their programs and be prepared Sunday to designate which workshop they will be attending. Convention opening is 5 p.m. next Thursday at Temple Baptist church. The convention continues through Friday and Saturday. Friday evening during the general session, which is open to the public at 7:45 p.m. music will be presented by Korean orphan's choir.

plus convention band. Ethel Barrett will be speaking on the "Story Message". There will be exhibits and displays.

Missionary Internes, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reimer and son, Myron, attended a week's seminar on Missionary Internship in Farmington. They also attended lectures on scheduling and time organization. Special speakers included Gordon Donelson and Fred Rennick.

Twenty-six people from Novi and Wixom attended the couples retreat at Sarnia, Canada. They had Chinese dinner at the American restaurant. Devotions were brought by Pastor Paul Barnes, Interne Gerald Reimer, Pastor Warren and Interne Art Rhoads. Special film strips were shown. The group also had fellowship and participated in several activities, such as shuffleboard and swimming.

Halloween plans for church families include Jr. Hi costume party at the home of the Diems on LeBost Friday. Sr. Hi, CBA group will meet at church Friday for a hayride to undisclosed destination. Saturday the Koranda class is sponsoring an adult costume party at 9 p.m. at the church. A pictorial director is to be prepared by Charles Studio of Farmington. Everyone will be contacted to come to church to have pictures taken. There is no cost to the church or to individuals unless they desire to order additional copies.

Dr. Howard Sugdon, reputed to be among the funniest Bible teachers and pastors in the nation, will be here the last four Tuesdays in November. Everyone in the community and surrounding areas is invited to attend these Deeper Life meetings.

NOVI REBEKAH LODGE
Rebekah General assembly was held at Grand Rapids last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Those from Novi lodge who attended were Noble Grand Florence Sentz, Vice Grand Hazel Bailey, Nellie Rackov, Francis Curtis and Thelma Cheeseman. The Independent Rebekah club will meet Monday, November 1, at the hall.

Tonight will be the first nomination of officers for 1966 at the regular meeting.

Visitation at Novi Rebekah hall is scheduled for November 11. The Rebekahs will have a rummage sale the middle of November. Call Market 4-1993 for a pickup.

NOVI CUB SCOUTS

The monthly Cub Scout pack meeting will be held Friday at the Novi community hall. The boys will come in costume, and the big feat of the evening will be the space rocket derby. Each boy scout made his own space rocket. Each den will compete. Awards will be given for advancement.

There are now six dens working.

Den 7 had elections. Gary Newhouse is the denner and Tim Skeltis is assistant denner. Besides finishing work on their rockets they made a centerpiece which will be on display at the pack meeting Friday.

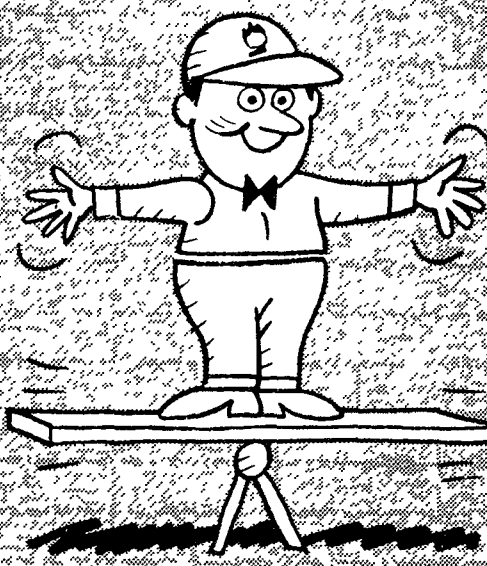

Den 5 finished work on the space rockets and made Halloween tray favors for the Novi Conventual home. They will be on display at the pack meeting.

NOVI BOY SCOUTS
Novi Boy Scout Troop No. 54 had a very successful paper drive, filling their trailer. Boys who worked on the drive were Lev Tarrallan, Tim Bell, Rick Josephson, Ralph Paria, Jay Hansor, Len Dietrick, Perry Adams, George Garcia, Andy Bowman, Cris Bowman, Tim Bowman, Robert Robertson, James Robertson, Tom Ritter, Robert Collins, George Gombasy and Mark Muenchow.

Modern Math

BY EDWARD MARQUARDT
PRINCIPAL, SOUTH LYON
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In our first "lesson" two weeks ago we discussed the events that led up to the development of new math programs. We concluded with consideration of what a numeral means, and also took a quick look at structure of mathematics.

If you ask your child about his mathematics you probably find that he is learning to speak a new mathematical language. If you look at his written work, you find that he uses symbols different from any signs, symbols, or words familiar to you. Our second lesson will deal with these new words, signs and symbols.

1. Set -- a Set refers to a group or collection. For Set A we might ask for the set of odd numbers between 3 and 15 inclusive. We would say A equals {3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15}

2. A numeral is the symbol which stands for an amount or quantity. This might be better understood if we consider the C-O-W is not the animal which walks around in the pasture. C-O-W is only the symbol. So 7 is not xxxxx or whatever we wish to count. It is a numeral.

3. A number is an idea. We add, subtract, multiply and divide numbers. That is, we operate with numbers.

Cardinal numbers tell us how many or how much. Cardinal numbers identify eleven men on a football team, or three cookies on a plate.

Ordinal numbers tell place, order or position. Ordinal numbers identify the third boy, or the fifth place, or the tenth page.

4. Factors are numbers we multiply together to get a product. In the problem 3×7 equals 21, or 7×3 equals 21, 3 and 7 are factors.

5. A prime or prime number is a number which can be divided only by itself or 1. 11 is prime because it is divisible only by itself and 1.

6. A composite number has other factors than itself and one. The composite number is therefore divisible by numbers larger than one and smaller than the number itself. 12 is composite because it has 2, 3, 4, 6 as factors.

7. Rational numbers are the fractions which represent a number. As we mentioned in our first lesson on a number has many names. Fractions also, may be written, for example, as $\frac{6}{12}$, $\frac{18}{24}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$.

8. New math puts much emphasis on developing real awareness of comparative values and sizes of numbers. To write these comparisons in problem form we use several symbols.

= equal > more than < not equal < less than

We would have problems such as:

3×4 equals 2×6 $6 \times 7 > 40$

$\frac{8}{4} \neq 3$ $5 \times 4 < 22$

We can describe an array as a picture or illustration of a problem.

A Gas Dryer does much more than just replace the clothesline

IN ADDITION TO ENDING LIFTING, LUGGING AND HANGING CLOTHES ON WASHDAY A WORK-SAVING GAS DRYER WILL DO ALL THESE EXTRA JOBS

• VALET SERVICE—wrinkles can be removed from corduroy, velveteen or wool garments by placing them in dryer for short tumbling period with damp sponges or bath towels. Place sponges or towel in dryer before putting in clothing to build up steam. Use medium heat setting. Bath towels leave lint on dark cottons, so damp, colorfast sponges are best. There must be moisture to release wrinkles and prevent shrinkage. Remove garments before completely dry and hang on wooden or plastic hangers until completely dry.

• FLUFFING OR DUSTING draperies, chenille bedspreads or other articles that need airing. Place in dryer on "no heat" setting and allow to tumble for 5-10 minutes.

• REMOVING MOTHBALL ODORS from clothes that have been stored. Use "no heat" setting and short tumbling time.

• BATHING SUITS & SNOWSUITS can be dried in pre-heated dryer with bath towels (which have been in dryer during preheating). Dark towels are advisable with dark fabrics.

Lutherans Plan Rally In Plymouth

Wisconsin Synod congregations of Southeastern Michigan will participate in a Reformation Day Rally at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Plymouth, October 31 at 4:00 p.m.

Guest speaker will be The Rev. John C. Jeske, of Milwaukee, chairman of the Synod's Board for Information and Stewardship. The service will celebrate the 448th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation.

Pastor Jeske is expected to deliver a timely and relevant message setting forth the meaning of the Reformation for Lutherans of 1965. He will cover the issue of whether or not Lutherans are giving up their precious heritage of the Reformation.

Choirs of the participating churches will join in a mass choir under the direction of Ronald N. Kaiser of Ann Arbor. A joint children's choir will also be featured, directed by Gerald Cudworth of Wayne.

St. Peter's Lutheran church is located at 1343 Penniman Avenue in Plymouth.

In Uniform

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Seaman Recruit Richard B. McIsaac, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McIsaac of 224 Orchard drive, has begun nine weeks of Navy basic training at the U.S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, California.

In the first weeks of his naval service he will study military subjects and live and work under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian to sailor he will be taught and supervised by experienced Navy Petty officers. They will teach him the basic skills of seamanship as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

On completion of his recruit training he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires and the needs of the Navy.

USS ROBERT L. WILSON — Radioman Seaman apprentice Gerald L. Jerome, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jerome of 419 Dubuque, Northville, participated in operation Deep Furrow September 13 to 25 while serving aboard the destroyer USS Robert L. Wilson.

Deep Furrow was a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) exercise held in the Aegean Sea by units of the U.S. Sixth Fleet. Aircraft carriers launched simulated attacks on targets while amphibious ships landed troops on Greece. Wilson and other destroyers provided anti-submarine and anti-aircraft defense for the carriers, amphibious ships and auxiliary ships.

Upon completing the exercise, Wilson departed for port visits to Reggio di Calabria, Italy and Naples, Italy.

Northville City Council Minutes

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen at the Northville city hall on Monday, October 4, 1965.

Present: Allen, Black (late), Canterbury, Carlson and Kester. Absent: None.

The minutes were approved for the regular meeting of September 20, 1965 with one correction and the minutes for the work session of the city council-school board were accepted.

Moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General $115,937.40
Water 1,445.65
Other Government 154,731.14

Unanimously carried.
Relative to bill for signs, comment was made that bids might be considered on single purchases over $500 made by the City Manager.

Regarding the bill for work on the heating and air-conditioning system, Council asked the City Manager to contact the architect about the system which they recommended being installed; also examine the guarantee for this system.

Communications:
Clerk read the invitation from the Oakland County Juvenile court inviting council to attend the open house at Oakland County Children's Village which will be held on Sunday, October 17, 1965 at 1200 N. Telegraph road.

A letter from Frank Paul, 580 Gardner, Northville, protesting zoning of property and long-range plans for property in area of Northville Downs.

Planning Commission Minutes for September 21 and 28, 1965 were received.

Building report for September, 1965 was received.

Police report for September, 1965 was received.

Financial report for August, 1965 was received.

Old Business:

Clerk read the published notice for Public Hearing to rezone lot 444, Assessors' Northville Plat #5 from R-2 (2 family) to R-2a (restricted multiple dwelling). Approximately 50 property owners from this area were in attendance. Their spokesman was Mrs. Frances Steencken, 572 Randolph St. who asked the reasons for rezoning this property. Mrs. Steencken also read a presentation, which was distributed to those present, relative to the property owners' reasons for retaining the present zoning of R-2. After considerable discussion, Mr. Cutler and Mr. McIntosh, petitioners for rezoning, withdrew their petition; stating that they hoped the property owners would prefer 2 duplexes being built which was the probably alternative. Unanimous approval of the construction of duplexes was voiced by those present.

Motion by Canterbury, supported by Black to deny petition of Cutler and McIntosh to rezone Lot 444, Assessors' Northville Plat #5 from R-2 (2 family) to R-2a (multiple restricted dwelling). Unanimously carried.

The proposed vacation of the 16' public alley in rear of Lots 33 through 48 was reviewed. This petition had been examined by the City Planning Commission and had been approved with the recommendation a utility easement be reserved. The Engineer felt that any storm sewers would be placed in the 50' right-of-way. Moved by Kester, supported by Allen to adopt the resolution vacating the 16' public alley and that a 16' easement be reserved for utilities. Unanimously carried.

Moved by Black, supported by Kester to advertise for bids for a Police Car as per submitted specifications with bids to come in on Monday, October 18, 1965, 8:00 p.m. Unanimously carried.

Moved by Black, supported by Canterbury to accept the 1964-65 City of Northville Audit and approve payment of same. Unanimously carried.

New Business:
City Manager reported the result of the election amongst city employees for their delegate as Marion LeFevre.

Moved by Canterbury supported by Carlson that City Manager Rehberg be appointed Official Delegate and City Attorney Ogilvie the alternate delegate; Marion LeFevre as Municipal Employee Delegate and Martha Milne as alternate employee delegate. Unanimously carried.

The matter of the appointment to the Municipal Parking Authority to fill vacancy of Scott Krause is to be discussed at a work session on Monday, October 11 and members of the Municipal Parking Authority are to be asked to be present.

Coin-operated laundries and dry-cleaning establishment ordinance was discussed. Question was asked regarding proper numbering of this ordinance according to codification and city attorney replied that if such was the case this could still be published in present form and corrections made at a Public Hearing.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that a Public Hearing for an addition to the Code of Ordinances for Un-attended Coin-operated and Dry-Cleaning Establishments be set for Monday, October 18, 1965, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville city hall. Unanimously carried.

Copies of this proposed ordinance are to be sent to owners of such establishments within the city of Northville.

Chief King had submitted a letter relative to various problems connected with the newly-instituted Licensing Bureau. His letter asked for another clerk and mentioned a possible 40-hour week. After a discussion concerning different job classifications, pay rates, other types of dispatching than that presently used in the city of Northville, the city manager was instructed to hire a clerk for the Police Dept. on a temporary basis for day-time work.

There is to be a discussion of the hour schedule and pay scale in the Police Dept. at a future work session.

City manager reported that he and Mr. Cole had toured the city to see the streets which could be done this year that were not plowable last year. Mr. Cole said he wants to order a new tractor, which takes two or three weeks, and also narrow wheels on his present rig to better fit Northville's 4' sidewalks. He explained that he would be doing additional sidewalks during coming winter for the same price as present year. He would like the contract with a two-year option. This is to be discussed at a work session on Monday, October 11, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville city

Moved by Black, supported by Canterbury that the Mayor be designated to execute and sign the Memo of Understanding with the Michigan State Highway Department relative to planning for six-county metropolitan Detroit area.

Unanimously carried.

Miscellaneous:
A meeting is to be held of the Planning Commission, City Council and Northville Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, October 21, 1965, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City hall. Cards of notification are to be sent to these people.

Mr. Black announced the date of October 28 (Thursday) for the Civic Recognition dinner at the Presbyterian Fellowship hall, 7:30 p.m.

There is to be a work session to discuss long-range planning for sewer and water in the north-west section of the city—Friday, October 8, 9:00 p.m. at the Northville city hall; city attorney, engineer, clerk and manager to be present. A second choice is Thursday, October 7 at 9:00 p.m. Notifications to be sent by clerk.

There is to be a work session with Mr. Hoffman of the firm Ierman, Hoffman and Johnson on Monday, October 25, 1965, 8:00 p.m. at the Northville City hall. Sometime during the week of October 18 there is to be a work session with a representative of the Thompson-Brown Company on the proposed development of the north side of W. Eight Mile road. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne,
City Clerk

Car Fire

Novi's department responded with a single engine to quell a car fire at the intersection of Novi road and the I-96 expressway Thursday about 2 p.m. It was quickly extinguished. The driver was Roger Turner, 120 North Haven, Novi. A fuel line rupture had caused the fire.

Superintendent Named At Plymouth State Home

Homer Weir, M.D., medical director of Mt. Rainier State Home and Training School, Olympia, Washington, has been named superintendent Plymouth State Home and Training School by Robert A. Kimmich, M.D., director Michigan Department of Mental Health. He will assume duties at Plymouth February 1, 1966.

"We are pleased that Dr. Weir is coming to Michigan to add his professional and administrative skills to our rapidly advancing programs for the retarded," said Dr. Kimmich.

"His outstanding leadership in the development of improved clinical treatment practices and in mental retardation research have brought him to a position of national prominence."

Dr. Weir was formerly director of the Retardation Center, Department of Pediatrics, Baylor University, and director of the Consultation, Diagnostic and Evaluation Center at Rockford, Illinois.

He was graduated from the University of Illinois Medical School in 1940 and received certification in pediatrics in 1945.

Dr. Weir will fill the position at Plymouth left vacant by Robert Jaslow, M.D., who recently resigned to become chief of retardation branch of U.S. Public Health Service.

Dr. Weir, as medical superintendent for the Plymouth institution for retarded, will work under V. A. Stehman, M.D., director of the mental retardation division, Department of Mental Health.

Scott T. Harris, M.D., who is serving as acting superintendent, will resume his former position clinical director.

Out-of-State Students: Good or Bad?

LANSING — Despite legislative efforts to reduce the number of out-of-state students at Michigan's colleges and universities, the total changes little. Some legislators feel that students from elsewhere deprive Michigan students, whose parents are paying taxes, from attending schools here. They have tried to discourage enrollment by charging substantially higher tuition fees for out-of-state students. University officials feel differently. They argue with some logic that the opportunity for Michigan students to meet and mix with students from other states and countries is a necessary educational experience. They identify the extra costs paid by the out-of-state student plus the sizable amounts of money he and his family spends in the state while he is studying here as economic assets. At MSU, for example, a Michigan resident pays $324 per year for tuition; an out-of-stater pays $870. It is estimated that out-of-state student leaves an additional $1,000 to $2,000 per year with Michigan merchants. Officials from the state institutions also state that despite the influx of student applications, they have not yet had to refuse admission to a Michigan resident whose records indicated he could successfully complete a college degree. A STUDY prepared for the Midwest Council of State Governments shows that in the 1963-64 school year Michigan's public colleges and universities enrolled 12.5 per cent of their students from other states and counties. This included some 14,275 out-of-state students and 3,960 from foreign countries. Sixteen New England and Middle Atlantic states accounted for more than 11,000 of the 14,275 non-residents enrolled in Michigan in the study period. Migration of Michigan students to other states was considerably lower than the rate of influx. The other states admitted 5,902 students from Michigan.

Imbalance was noted in the report in all states except Washington, which took in 81 Michigan residents and sent the same number of students here. Students entering Michigan public schools from 31 states outnumbered those leaving here, while 17 states admitted more Michigan students than came here.

Out-migration from Michigan was most pronounced at schools in the far west and southwest. REAL PROGRESS seems apparent after the first full operative year of Michigan's community mental health services law. A total of 13 day care centers for severely retarded were opened during the past year to receive state funds under the law. Another six are in the planning stage. In all, the 19 centers will provide services for 350 people, primarily children. These new services were credited largely for reducing the state's institutional waiting list to 1,557 at mid-year. This was the lowest number on the list since 1961. NEW DAY-CARE centers ranged in size from a capacity to serve 12 persons, to the 96-person plan operating in a group of centrally-supervised units in Wayne county. Limitations are designed to keep a ratio of six students per instructor. Most of the 19 centers are geared to serve two dozen or less. The age range is from two to 26 years, but most set narrower limits such as 5 to 15 years of age. First centers to open are Wayne, Genesee, Kent, Jackson, Kalamazoo, St. Clair, Muskegon, Oakland, Saginaw, Macomb and Washtenaw counties. St. Clair and Macomb counties each have two day care centers in operation. Among the six new centers are additional facilities for Genesee and Oakland counties and new units to serve Ionia, Calhoun and Monroe counties. The first Upper Peninsula center is planned for next April.

Skilled Labor at Premium

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Business has been soaring almost steadily upward for 56 months — the longest boom in the nation's history. One of the results is a great switch. Instead of an economy weighted down by heavy unemployment, we now have an economy unable to satisfy the need for workers. This is especially true in fields requiring men and women with a high degree of training or refined skills.

Latest Labor Department figures reveal that the total jobless rate has now slid down to 4.4%, moving below the 3-million mark for the first time in eight years. While part of the decline has resulted from the absorption of young people back into schools and colleges, the long-term fundamental unemployment trend is still gradually downward. Economic expansion has been responsible for the greatest part of the unemployment downshift, and, conversely, for the encouraging advances in the number of employed over recent years.

This is, of course, all to the good for workers as a whole. It means a secure income not only for family heads, but also for wives, relatives, and children who want to earn their own spending money or be able to contribute to the household. The only people bothered by the situation are the employers. They are finding it harder than ever to fill their job wants, all the way from the clerical up to the executive level. In some areas it is reported that even unskilled laborers are hard to come by, often because they stall for higher pay.

Optimism is the order of the day. Manufacturers in virtually all lines are looking toward further expansion, allocating huge sums for extension of plant space, — renovations, additions, and brand-new buildings. With consumer demand heading steadily higher, few live-wire concerns feel that they have sufficient unused capacity to handle future needs. To ensure top use of capacity — and, of course, top productivity — they must have good workers all along the line. Right now, and doubtless for some time to come, this is a Number-One problem for management. It is not easy to find exactly the employees that are needed when the labor reservoir is dead-low.

At the moment, there is a definite shortage of well-qualified engineers, salesmen, computer programmers, physicists and chemists. Good typists and stenographers are also at a premium, especially in areas where offices of various types are highly concentrated. Executives ranging from department heads to operating officials are in brisk demand. Industrial selling departments are frequently at a loss to fill lead positions — at least partially because of the relatively few young students who train for the field of distribution.

There has been a gradual but steady uptrend in overtime — use of regular employees for extra work — in spite of the additional costs of time and a half. College and business school recruiting is being stepped up sharply, with large firms competing vigorously for outstanding graduates. On-the-job training is gaining in popularity; more companies are footling the bill for outside schooling for their promising young employees. Employers with large crews often find it more rewarding to upgrade their own workers than to search for others in the tight market.

Top-echelon salaries are showing constant pressure on the upside, both to hold current executive material and to attract desirable outsiders. The luring of officials from other companies, always a method of reinforcing operative management may become more prevalent than ever before. Now that bias against women and minority-group workers is legally forbidden, more attention is being paid to prospects often previously bypassed. One thing is sure: Despite the record labor force, the scarcity of first-rank employees will continue as long as the current boom keeps going full-tilt ahead.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

A meeting last week of city planners, councilmen and the chamber of commerce revealed a blending of plans designed to alleviate traffic problems at Northville Downs while still complimenting the long range master plan for the city's central business district.

Of immediate concern to the Downs are improved roads of ingress and egress to the track.

To provide this the Downs' management has proposed the extension of Griswold street south to a widened and improved Beal street. Griswold and Beal would then accommodate traffic north and south, to and from the track.

While some planners hold reservations about the extension of Griswold believing that a widened and improved thoroughway along the existing Church street route would suffice and give the city a start on its circular drive around the central business district, there appears to be no strong resistance to the Griswold plan.

But a key point was raised by city representatives concerning the method of procedure for the entire Downs' expansion plan.

Directly tied into the acquisition of improved thoroughfares on the north and east sides of the track is the provision of additional parking space. In an area east of the track bounded by Beal, South Main and Seven Mile road there are approximately 60 houses standing on a site earmarked for parking.

Obviously, if the track is to double its grandstand area and add a modern clubhouse facility, it is going to need additional parking space. The site proposed would accommodate 1525 cars.

So the development of the parking is a real concern to the track. Likewise, it is of great concern to the citizens living in the 60 houses slated for removal.

This point was touched upon ever so lightly last week. It was brought into sharper focus by a recent letter to the council and newspaper by a resident of the area.

As a private business, it is almost impossible to expect that the Downs could acquire the property in one sweep. The track management has stated that plans call for acquisition over a five-year period.

It is, I believe, an obligation of the city government to explore all avenues of protection for property owners in this area. Piecemeal purchase of the homes could prove highly beneficial to some residents, but damaging to others.

I have been told by planning authorities that there is a federal act which provides funds to city governments for land purchases involving private enterprise.

While the city is considering this possibility, it might be worthwhile to examine the advantages of city ownership of this entire area so that parking revenues would be retained by the city and the area could be developed for other community uses—possibly recreational—when the track was not in operation.

I've heard of long fish stories, but here's a hunting tale that tops all whoppers!

Glenn Deibert vows it's the truth and offers his wife's bridge club members as witnesses.

It happened opening day of the pheasant season. While Mrs. Deibert and Mrs. Harold Schmidt, Mrs. William Swank and Mrs. Harold Barnum were playing bridge at the Deiberts' Napier road home they noticed five brightly colored roosters in their nearby cornfield.

Shortly thereafter Glenn arrived home from work and Mrs. Deibert sent their daughter out to the garage to tell him of the birds.

Glenn grabbed his shotgun and with the bridge club huddled around the window observing the proceedings, he walked to the cornfield and flushed the birds.

He fired one shot... two birds fell. Do you suppose Glenn led the women to believe he always kills two birds with one shot?

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

Voting records are expected to fall in a record turn-out at the polls for the presidential election. This is based on an all-time high registration of 2,649 in the city and 1,740 in the township.

A civil defense "moth ball" hospital with 200 beds and capable of supplying austere emergency care is to arrive today at Wayne County Training School. A $45,000 unit, is one of 78 being prepositioned throughout the state.

The Torch Drives in both Northville and Novi are still lagging with only a week to go in the campaign. Mrs. Arthur Hempe said that only two-thirds of her goal of $2,100 had been collected thus far.

In Novi a similar situation is reported by the campaign chairman, Mrs. Albert Atherton for the residential committee.

F. Alden Shaw the founder of Detroit Country Day school will be honored by its students and alumni at the Homecoming football game Saturday. Shaw, founded the school 50 years ago and is a long time resident of Northville.

Plans to study a community college idea will be discussed at the first meeting of the Northville Citizens Curriculum Study group. The meeting Tuesday will begin the fifth year's activities of the group which is composed of citizens interested in improving the local school system.

Nineteen past presidents of the Northville Rotary Club were honored at a banquet Tuesday. The annual Guest Night dinner program is perhaps the first time the past presidents have been brought together.

Maureen O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien of 18831 Beck road is a delegate to the Second National Youth Conference on the Atom being held this week in Chicago. Maureen, a senior at Ladywood high school in Livonia, was selected as the Detroit Edison sponsored delegate because of her aptitude in science and mathematics.

After a meeting Tuesday night Novi officials have new hopes for establishing a new park in Novi. State conservation officials made it clear though that the money from the estate of Mrs. Mary McGuire Powers could be used only to purchase property for the park, not for its development.

Three teenage boys ended a Huckleberry Finn adventure after hunters and the cold forced them from their winter retreat in the woods. The boys from Redford township, who had become disgusted with school, planned to spend the winter camped in the woods, but soon succumbed to the cold and lack of food. At the end of the second day they "surrendered" to Mrs. Tom Pendleton of Novi who turned them over to Novi Police. The "surrender" ended a state alarm that had been sent out by their parents.

Sixty couples who recently moved into the Northville area were honored at the Northville Rotary Club's Rural-Urban dinner.

T. R. Carrington, Russell H. Amerman, and Cyril Frid attended the twenty-second annual International meeting of the Rotary club at the Prince Edward Hotel in Windsor, Ontario. The topic of discussion for the meeting was the United Nations.

Northville's churches are banding together to raise funds for the CROP program. Its purpose was explained to parishioners and donations collected. The project was headed by Rev. Lorenzo E. Woods of Our Lady of Victory church.

Edward J. Jeffries, mayor of Detroit, was the guest speaker at a dinner held for all newly registered voters. The new voters were the guests of the village of Northville at the Presbyterian church house for the banquet sponsored by the Northville Coordinating Council.

Adult recreation activities for the winter program will begin October 28. This season activities will include gym activities and hobby and craft classes if interest warrants it.

Reregistration of voters in Novi has brought 600 electors into the township clerk's office. Under the new process once a voter has registered he will be registered permanently.

Money For Fall Expenses

AL PARKER

"If you're facing additional expenses this Fall and need extra money to take care of back to school bills, heating repairs, new furniture, decorating and other household expenses—here's money for rent. Any amount up to $1,000 for a week, a month, a year, or longer.

"Simply phone me at Model Finance at 349-3320, and tell us how much you'd like to rent—then come in to 135 N. Center, Northville, and pick up your money."

Readers Speak Lauds Courtesy Of Policeman

To the Editor:

Today I witnessed an incident that made me proud to be from Northville.

I would like to personally compliment the Northville Police officer that escorted our funeral procession from the Casterline Funeral home to the Novi road intersection.

"Judge not according to the appearance." -- John III, 8
"When we hire someone to play, we're responsible to see that they look proper". -- Fred Stefanski, Northville Record

Dear Disciples:

Be assured that not every adult in Northville feels you have been judged wisely or well. Some of us feel that your talent and your conduct are proper criteria for hiring you for school dances, not the way you wear your hair.

The virtue in most request would seem to be conformity. "God forbid". -- Romans III, 31 Incensed Reader

Trains In 'C-130

Air Force ROTC Cadet Larry Hill received a one-hour orientation flight in an Air Force C-130 aircraft on October 16, 1965. The flight was sponsored by The Arnold Air Society, an Air Force honorary fraternal organization here at Michigan State University.

Cadet Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Laurence Hill, of 20076 Valley road, Northville is an electrical engineering major at MSU. He is enrolled in the four year Air Force officer training program at Michigan State. Upon completion of his officer training and degree requirements, he will be commissioned as a second lieutenant and will serve on active duty in the Air Force.
