

$100,000 Fire Hits Farm Crest Barn

Workers Save 106 Guernseys

Two Full Pages of Pictures - 4-A and 5-A Fire completely destroyed a 200-foot-long barn at the Farm Crest Dairy, 42270 Six Mile road, late Tuesday afternoon.

The spectacular blaze could be seen for miles and attracted hundreds of curious firewatchers.

Estimates of total damage could not be immediately determined, but it was conservatively set at more than $100,000.

Firemen from four community departments battled the flames to save the adjoining dairy and retail store.

Fire broke out in a hay loft at approximately 4 p.m. The Northville department was called and Chief Herman Hartner, Jr., immediately summoned help from the Novi, Plymouth township and Salem departments.

Before firemen arrived Farm Crest employees had already escorted 106 Guernsey bulls, cows and calves from the barn. The cattle, most of which were registered, are valued at more than $75,000.

All efforts were exerted towards saving the dairy, located at the extreme west end of the long, multiple barn. Fully loaded with hay, the sturdy wooden barn was engulfed in flames and defied control. Only a concentrated effort at the west end, plus the fact that fire broke out at the east end of the barn enabled firemen to save the dairy.

Water supply also hampered the firefighters. Working with tankers and pumps they shuttled between a hydrant at Five Mile and Bradner and the dairy farm to keep hoses pouring water on the blaze.

"We're fighting a battle of water," Chief Hartner remarked as it became apparent that there was a 50-50 chance that the entire dairy would be engulfed in the flames.

Firemen stayed at the scene throughout the night and Chief Hartner said that bulldozers would be brought in early Wednesday morning to remove hay piles and debris from the dairy store area.

Cause of the fire was established as spontaneous combustion in the filled lofts.

Burgess Rakke, a Farm Crest employee, was milking in the barn when he heard an explosion and "saw a flash". Working with him were Elmer Bennett, Jerry Bulmon and Wayne Janetzke. They shouted the alarm to another employee, Jim Angerine. While the men escorted the cattle into a field, Mrs. A. Laurence Hill, office manager of the dairy, called the Northville fire department.

Lost in the blaze were mechanical milking equipment, numerous supplies plus tons of hay. Three silos filled with corn and chopped hay remain standing next to the barn site. Their silage was ruined and firemen were concerned that the structures, two of which were some 80 feet high, might also break into flames. Late Tuesday night the silos had still not burned, but were "dangerously hot", firemen said.

Owner of the 400-acre Farm Crest Farm is Robert Haass. He was called to the scene shortly after the fire broke out. Haass said he would "definitely not" rebuild barns at the dairy site and planned to move his cattle temporarily to neighboring barns.

The Haass property, ideally located for homesite development, is rumored to be near the sale stage. But Haass had stated that the dairy operation would continue to operate at its present site. Relocation of barns would undoubtedly be on other Haass property, not near the probable home development area.

Tuesday's fire is the second to hit the Haass' property in recent years. In 1956 the well-known Grennan homestead, then located just east of the barn area, burned to the ground. The late Mrs. Haass was a member of the Grennan family. At that time the Haass' family lived in the old homestead.

Farm Crest Dairy provides dairy products for some 40 retail outlets in the Detroit area. The dairy building was filled with milk and other products ready for the next day's delivery.

Chief King Given New Job

Firemen battle to save dairy as flames engulf barn. The entire barn section was gutted but dairy and retail store saved at the Six Mile road dairy farm.

LaFond Heads Police Force

A major shift in personnel recommended by City Manager Roger Rehberg won approval of the Northville council Monday night.

Named to the newly created position of "administrative assistant" was Police Chief Eugene King.

Patrolman David LaFond was appointed acting chief of police to succeed King.

The shift won unanimous council approval, but drew some fire from one citizen attending the council session.

Manager Rehberg had forewarned the council of his proposal in a written communication. And the council huddled in a special (private) session Sunday to discuss the recommendation.

Although Mayor A. M. Allen was absent at Monday evening's meeting, he took part in the Sunday discussion and favored the action.

The manager's communication to the council was carefully worded and strictly outlined the area of duties of the new position which King will fill.

"It is my opinion that Northville needs an additional position as administrative assistant due to the demands that are being made upon the administration because of growth of the community", Rehberg wrote.

He said he felt that King could serve as an assistant to the manager as well as provide assistance to the municipal parking authority, serve as chief defense director, assistant assessor, health officer, housing code inspector and carry out "administrative work assigned from time to time".

LaFond was named by Rehberg as "acting chief for the next six months, whereupon the city could establish a permanent police chief by open examination or otherwise".

Manager Rehberg emphasized that "the transfer of King is intended to provide assistance to administration on items of administration which do not now get full attention. In no case will it affect present departments or department heads, as this transfer does not reflect authority over the various departments.

The manager called for the change to take place Tuesday, November 2.

King's salary remains at $7592, while LaFond will receive an increase to $6708.

Sidney Frid, the city's representative on the Oakland county board of supervisors and a regular (and usually lone) member of the audience at council sessions, objected to King's appointment.

"Why isn't the administrative assistant job open to public examination, like the police chief's job or city manager's", Frid asked.

Councilman John Canterbury, acting as mayor in Allen's absence, pointed to King's tenure and noted that "service to the community sometimes overrides competitive hiring". Manager Rehberg said he was "trying to utilize the men we have" and said that he believed King would be valuable to the city in this position. "If I'm wrong, then we could open it to examinations", the manager concluded.

"I still don't agree with it", said Frid.

King has been Northville's police chief since 1959. When he was hospitalized following gunshot wounds last February, Patrolman LaFond served as acting chief.

LaFond was happy with the new arrangement. He said he would "give it all I can" and said he hoped to win permanent title to the position.

LaFond is 23 and has been on the Northville force for 28 months. He is married and his wife Lynn is the daughter of the E. V. Ellisons of Northville. The LaFonds have two boys and live at 411 North Center.

Presently, Northville's police force is short three officers. Oral examinations were held yesterday.

Other members of the force are Louis Westfall, Herb Zachmann and Gus Aleck. William McGee has been ill but is presently back on duty on a limited part-time basis.

Only 414 Vote Here For Judges

Wayne County's circuit court election attracted a slim 12 per cent of the registered electors to the Northville city and township polls Tuesday.

The light turnout was still an improvement over the September primary when only 10 per cent bothered to vote.

In the township 12.8 per cent of the 1653 registered electors cast ballots for a total vote of 213.

In city precinct one, 126 votes were cast out of 804 registered electors and in precinct two only 75 of the 791 registered voters cast ballots.

Candidates attracting most support in Northville were: Harry J. Dingeman, Jr., 290; Blair Moody, Jr., 281; Thomas J. Foley, 261; and Charles S. Farmer, 197.

The eight nominees were seeking election to four circuit court judgeships with terms running until January 1, 1971.

Following is a tabulation of the vote in Northville city and township with the elected judges in capital letters:

Northville Tops UF Goal

Northville city and township again has gone "over the top" in its annual United Foundation torch drive residential collections as the official total of $2,535.71 exceeded the area goal of $2,200 by more than $335.

Mrs. Arthur Hempe, divisional chairman, announced Monday. In announcing the successful total Mrs. Hempe lauded her workers as "an exceptionally good team with many workers gaining from previous experience." Mrs. Hempe, who was residential divisional chairman last year also, said that many of last year's workers had rung door bells again this year.

She also reported that Northville was the second area in the Western Wayne county region to reach its goal, coming behind Livonla. Last Friday the Western Wayne county region became the first three-time consecutive winner of the "sugar bowl" award given the Metropolitan-area region turning in the highest percentage of collections in the residential campaign by Community Campaign Day. Other areas have won the sugar bowl two times in a row, Mrs. Hempe reported, but this is the first time an area has claimed it three times running.

The sugar bowl of Irish Bel-leek china will be displayed locally sometime during the year, Mrs. Hempe said, as it tours shopping areas in the winning region. Originally, it was an impetus award given the United Foundation for the torch drive campaigns by the J. L. Hudson company.

Ray Spear Named Assistant To Superintendent Nelson

Raymond E. Spear was appointed assistant superintendent of the Northville school system at a specially-called meeting of the Northville school board Monday night.

Spear, who has been principal of Amerman elementary school since coming to the Northville system in September, 1962, will continue in his present post until a successor is found, Superintendent Alex Nelson said Tuesday. Nelson and Spear will cover duties of the assistant superintendent post between them, he added, until the new principal is named, probably in February.

Actually, Nelson said, the district will be principal-hunting to fill both the Amerman post and the principalship of the proposed elementary school. Applications will be considered, he reported, from qualified teachers within the system as well as from other systems.

In a realignment of staff responsibilities E. V. Ellison was named administrative assistant. Both Spear and Ellison will report independently to Nelson in their new positions, which are top line-and-staff posts under Nelson in the new administrative chart. Ellison formerly held the title director of administrative services. He continues at a salary of $13,300.

Spear, who is 34, will be replacing Dr. Kenneth MacLeod who left Northville in September to take the post of professor of education in charge of student teachers at Adrian college. He will draw a new salary of $12,500.

Spear lives with his wife, Freda, and two children, age 6 and 7, both students at Amerman school, at 22304 Connemara drive, Northville.

He came to Northville from Cherry Hill school district in Inkster, where he served as principal for three years. Prior to that he taught fifth grade for one year at Hayward, California.

He received his BA degree from Plymouth Teachers college, Plymouth, New Hampshire, and his master's degree from University of Michigan where he served on the staff of the University school as a sixth grade supervising teacher for two years. He presently is working toward the Educational Specialist degree at University of Michigan. He also served for four years with the Air Force during the Korean war.

In the new alignment of duties Spear will be responsible for instruction, teaching personnel and related policies. Ellison is business manager and also will direct management and policies related to cafeteria and maintenance. He will keep the district's financial and accounting records and be responsible for purchasing, lunch program, child accounting and attendance.

In other business during Monday night's meeting, which was unannounced to either the public or the press, the board learned that the bonds which had been held up last week for detail questions all have been qualified by the attorney general's office.

Approval was received Tuesday afternoon from the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission so that bonds can be advertised for sale within 30 days.

It was pointed out that the advertising for bond sale and for bids on plans for the proposed elementary school can overlap with building bids ready to be opened immediately following the bond sale.

It's "Assistant Superintendent" Ray Spear, now.

King's Career Marked By Series of Crises

Chief Eugene King's tenure of office in Northville has had its uneasy moments. They have been a mixture of trial and tragedy. Joining the force in March, 1954, King succeeded Joseph Denton in May, 1955. Chief Denton, a popular old-timer who was beloved by all and befriended everyone, was not an easy man to follow.

King had no sooner assumed his duties as chief of the Northville department when tragedy struck. An army jet plane crashed into the yard where the King children were playing. David, then 9, and Beth, 3, suffered serious burns. While his children were being rushed to the hospital, Chief King had to help bring order to the chaos that surrounded the crash area at Cady near Rogers streets.

Then there were two unpleasant episodes when Chief King recommended expulsion of officers on misconduct charges. In both cases the officers called for public hearings. Although the city council upheld their chief, the hearings resulted in heated testimony that left its mark on both the department and its morale.

Last February tragedy struck again when Chief King was shot twice by a bank robber. He returned to duty after several weeks in the hospital and a recuperative period at home. But personnel problems in the Northville police department have continued and keeping a full force of patrolmen and a contented staff of dispatchers has been a problem that has plagued city managers and councils.

Whether the move of King to a new post and the introduction of David LaFond, a 23-year-old newcomer, to the chief's position will alleviate the situation remains to be seen.

But Manager Roger Rehberg thinks King has talents that will help improve organization of systems at city hall. And he believes that LaFond can become a good, working chief of police.

He told the city council Monday night that he wanted to make the switch immediately ... effective the next day. And the council gave the new manager their blessing.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

WHERE ELSE, but in Our Town, can you buy first-week edition license plates -- and a limited edition ceramics or an original painting at the same time?

For many newcomers the purchase of license plates brings them to the Hartley-Powers Gallery at 116 East Main street for the first time. This year the gallery offers surprises for oldtimers, too. Catherine and Harold Hartley now are including a selection of unusual imports, many selected especially for the Christmas season.

While displaying jewelry, ceramics and wood items from Mexico, Portugal, India, Greece, Norway and Ethiopia, Mrs. Hartley is quick to point out that the gallery does not intend to slight its original purpose of displaying and selling the works of Michigan artists.

ANGELS FOR CHRISTMAS

decorating are import line and in prominent in both the Michigan artists' works. Most unusual are three kinds of orient -- in red clay. These are candle holders with the candles illuminating very approachable faces under imposing crowns. Creator of the unusual sculptures is Ralph Kelly, an English teacher-artist new to the gallery. He joins such regular exhibitors as Roy Pedersen, whose ceramic pots and owls are well known; W. G. Case, whose stoneware is on exhibit; and Margaret Cramer, whose silk screen cards now include Christmas designs.

Mexican Christmas angels are bargains -- straw figures are 95 cents; while steel gray clay creations are 59 cents. Also from Mexico are bubbled glass liqueur or standard-size glasses, in bright blue, wine ruby or green shades. Wooden bowls to heap with fruits and greens are hand-hewn by Mexican craftsmen.

Also appropriate for the holidays are fat, squat bayberry candles, Portuguese and Greek bells, priced from 80 cents. The jewelry imports are one-of-a-kind treasures. The unusual necklaces are created of old Greek coin designs, glass from the Holy Land and silver crosses from Ethiopia.

UNICEF will receive its usual helping hand from Mrs. Hartley again this year as she plans to display and sell the United Nations Christmas cards and note paper created by artists of many lands to aid children in many lands. She expects to have them available by mid-November.

ACCENT ON YOUTH with Music and Art is to be the theme of Northville Woman's club program to be given at 2 p.m. this Friday in the high school auditorium. Mrs. H. O. Evans, chairman of the day, has worked with Fred Stefanski, high school principal, to plan the student program which is becoming a fall tradition for the club.

Music by the Northville high school stage band and the girls' triple trio (a special girls' choir) will be interspersed with readings. Margaret Becker is to give an interpretative reading while Susan Shafer and Glenn Deibert will present humorous ones. A demonstration of art department materials also is planned.

Tea will be served in the cafeteria following the program.

Mrs. William Crump, president, has invited members to bring their daughters to this program as it falls during school recess for the MEA convention.

IF YOU KNOW what a John Marzetti is, then you are "in" -- along with Northville high school students in whose esteem this casserole dish rates high. In typing the high school's weekly lunch menu for publication, we had to confess we had no idea of what this dish consisted. Mrs. Marie Knapp, therefore obligingly sent along this recipe, which, she says, also is known as "Poor Man's Lasagna."

John Marzetti

- 1 lb. hamburger
- 1 c. diced onions
- 1 c. diced celery
- 1 c. med. sharp cheese
- 1 bag med. noodles
- 1 can med. tomatoes
- 2 sm. cans tomato sauce
- salt and pepper to taste

In frying pan, place hamburger, onions, celery, salt and pepper. Fry until done or browned a little. Have boiling salt water ready to put noodles in and boil for 5 min. Then drain. Put all ingredients together and place in casserole and bake in 350 degree-oven for 30 min. Or just simmer 20-25 min. on top of stove. Serve immediately.

Talent Auction Here Monday

Mrs. Russell Atchison, 332 South Rogers street is opening her home for the annual Talent Auction of the Farmington Delta Gamma alumnae at 8 p.m. Monday. All Delta Gamma members living in Livonia, Plymouth, Novi, Redford and Farmington are invited to join Northville members for this event.

"Going, going... gone," are the familiar words that open the yearly event for which members utilize their special talents to make items for auction. Money raised within the group is added to the treasury for use in helping blind children in the Detroit area.

Council Moves Forward On Randolph Project

Appointment of a new administrative assistant and police chief topped the agenda of action by the city council Monday night. But there were other matters such as:

--approval of a new ordinance regulating operation of all-night coin laundries with stipulations that such business places must be closed from midnight until 5 a.m. unless an attendant is on duty;

--a decision to limit the road improvements in Northville Estates to some $2,500 instead of undertaking more costly complete sealcoating; --agreement on waiving of bids so that a contract can be signed with Robert Cole for snow removal from city sidewalks this winter, but final contract still awaits council approval; the contract calls for $6,500 this winter with an option of a two-year renewal at $7,000 per year; --a decision to delay action on a request for building permits on two lots in Oakwood subdivision until reasons for the planning commission's opposition to the proposal can be determined; City Attorney Philip Ogilvie advised the council there was no legal basis for the denial; --and calling for a city manager's report on determination of necessity for improvement of Randolph as the next step in the special assessment procedure. The latter project, which includes improving Randolph from Center to Taft with storm sewers, concrete paving and installation of a new culvert has been estimated at some $122,500 by the city engineer.

Preliminary figures show that total assessments against property owners might reach $24,000. This figure is expected to be reduced somewhat in the final report by the manager. Hearings are expected in December so that bids for the project may be received in January.

Councilmembers emphasized that the Randolph project must be coordinated with sewer and water needs in the proposed Thompson-Brown project at Taft and Eight Mile and the possible extension of water and sewer to Beck road along West Eight Mile.

VFW Offers Scholarships

High school students in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades this year have an opportunity to win two local scholarships as well as to compete for state and national awards in the 19th annual Voice of Democracy scriptwriting contest co-sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary.

In the local contest Northville VFW Post 4012 is offering a $500 and a $300 scholarship for the two top entries on the theme "Democracy: What It Means To Me." Eight follow-up winners will receive citations and 20 will receive letters of merit.

Don Butler, VFW contest chairman, has announced the contest has almost 692 students at Northville high school writing what Democracy means to them. The contest, which has the approval of the National Education Association, is being conducted as an English class assignment, according to LaGene Quay, who is acting as coordinator with the VFW post.

The contest is open to high school students in public, parochial and private schools and is to be the personal belief of the writer who may not refer to race, creed or national origin in the script, which should take between three and five minutes to read.

Butler said the local VFW post has allocated the awards this year as it believes in the importance of the contest theme and wishes to "be part of the community" with this youth project.

Scripts of Northville high school students participating are to be completed by November 15 when the high school's English teachers will select the best 20. On November 18 a panel of judges will be invited to select the top 10 from the 20 semi-finalists and designate the first- and second-place winners.

Final judging of the scripts is to be on content, 40 per cent; originality, 40 per cent; and delivery, 20 per cent.

Top winners then will compete in district contests which will be completed by January 15, 1966, with these winners entering the state contest which then will be completed by January 31.

Each state winner is provided with a five-day all expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., plus the opportunity to compete for five national scholarships of $5,000, $3,500, $2,500, $1,500 and $1,000.

Harvest Tea

A harvest tea is planned for the next meeting of the Northville branch, National Farm and Garden Club, at the home of Mrs. Charles Walker, 21101 Cambridge road, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Pine cones and dry arrangements for the holidays will be demonstrated by Mrs. James Kipfer in the program: "Use What You Have." Mrs. Douglas Straith is chairman for the day.

Halloween Honors Go To Jolly Green Giant

In Northville last Saturday it was The Jolly Green Giant, rather than Charlie Brown's Big Pumpkin, who captured top Halloween honors.

The "giant" was nine-year-old Debra Frounfelter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Frounfelter, 46780 Timberlane. In an all-green costume, complete with matching make-up, she was chosen grand prize winner at the contest sponsored by the recreation department in the junior high boys' gymnasium.

Debra, a fourth grader at Main street school, wore her mother's liquid make-up with green food coloring added to win the judges' top award. (Yes, it all washed off.)

There were prizes galore, too, for other witches, monsters and television characters attending. Kenneth Conley, recreation director, and his assistants from the Optimist club, Jaycees and Northville retail merchants, had three-prize winners in each of 27 categories. Categories ranged from fairies and Indians to animals and "just plain pretty."

Categories and their winners listed in first, second and third place order (with several categories having more than one in third place) include: storybook characters -- Darryl Dyer, Bill Cross, Susie Johnson, Laurie Day; Indians -- Barbara Johnson and Chere Hillgast, Marty Lay, Steve and Dick Roberts, Jeff and Cindy Slessor; skeletons -- Jerry Gross, Edward Pawlowski, Allen Macaulay; devils -- Lori Smith; fairies -- Kathy Macaulay, Lori Valade; historical characters -- Carol Witke, Debbie Flynn, Roberta Day, Patti Gray, Charlotte Johnson; foreign characters -- Richard McCarthy; oriental characters -- Bruce Ely, Kenny Ely; animals -- Theresa Tabor, Barry Grady, Susan Thomas, Ann Olenwik.

Others are: just plain pretty -- Anita Larson, Lisa Webster; army men -- Doug Webster; novelty costumes -- Arlene Kay Grady, Paul Taylor, Carol Dyer; sports costumes -- Bruce Thomas, Mark Price, Cress Hammabarger; gypsies -- Linda Brown, Susie Roberts, Suzy Brown, Donna Guard, Debbie Guard.

Still others are: monsters -- Scot Cummings, Bill Earehart, Mark Johnson; witches -- Jamie Loy, Eve Williams, Tommy Haygarth; hoboes -- Rick Bingley, Margaret Penn, Deanna Balko, Brian Butler; TV characters -- Vanessa Patterson, Debra Frounfelter, Patti Bowers.

Others are: Clowns -- Sally Mahoney, Leslie Ann Brasure, Carol Weber, Scott Balko; bandits -- Robert Williams; fairytale characters -- Jean Gaser, Bryn McAllister, Jackie Lloyd, Ann Bon; movie characters -- Guy Cole, Randy Loy, Brad Westphal; space costumes -- Teryn Cushing, Colleen Cushing, Sam Hollis; scary characters -- Ann Price, Wayne Brasure, Brian Holloman; princesses -- Sharlene Holloman.

Prizes at the dance went to Bonnie Wilson, Joan Gosnell, Cathy Hempe, Susan Derrick, Nancy Niemi, Terry Lee Hempe and Debbie Wilkie.

Boland Comes Close At 'Punt-Pass' Meet

As a result of his win three weeks ago in the 'Punt, Pass, Kick' contest sponsored by the John Mach Ford agency, John Boland, 8, of 313 Ely drive competed with 50 other boys from throughout the state in the sectional finals at the University of Detroit stadium last week.

At U of D young Boland placed third with a total of 136 points. If he had been able to repeat the 166 points he racked up in the Northville contest he would have won top honors again. Top total at U of D was 158. The winners at U of D will compete during halves of the Lions - 49'ers game.

Winners in other age groups of the contest held October 8 at Northville's Ford Field were: John Forrer, 46995 Main street, in the nine-year olds; Phillip Groudin, 649 Dunlap, in the 10-year-olds; Joe Boland, 313 Ely drive, in the 11-year-olds; Steve Utley, 771 Grace, 12-year-olds; and Bertie Bach, 21255 Summer-side, 13-year olds.

The boys in the 8-10 year-old categories were awarded warm-up jackets. Plaques were given to the 11-13 year old winners.

Style Show

A style show of fashions from the Alice Rebecca shop and hair styles and wigs from the Paris Room is planned for the life-member party of Mother's club to be given at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Donald Schwendemann, 46907 Grasmere.

Models, all club members, are Mrs. A. L. Wistert, Mrs. Chester Lipa, Mrs. Glenn Delbert, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Edwin Mueller and Mrs. H. O. Evans. Mrs. Thomas McDonough will commentate. Fashion 220 make-up will be used by the models, who will be assisted by Mrs. Mueller, a make-up consultant.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Clifton Hill, Mrs. Bernard Bach, Mrs. Blake Couse and Mrs. William Secord.

Spectacular Fire Destroys Huge Barn

Flames and smoke soared into the sky as the hay-filled barn burned furiously.

Hundreds came to see the giant blaze and their cars caused traffic problems along the highway.

Farm Manager George Van Hellemont and Owner Robert Haass appraise the damage and hope the flames can be contained in the barn area.

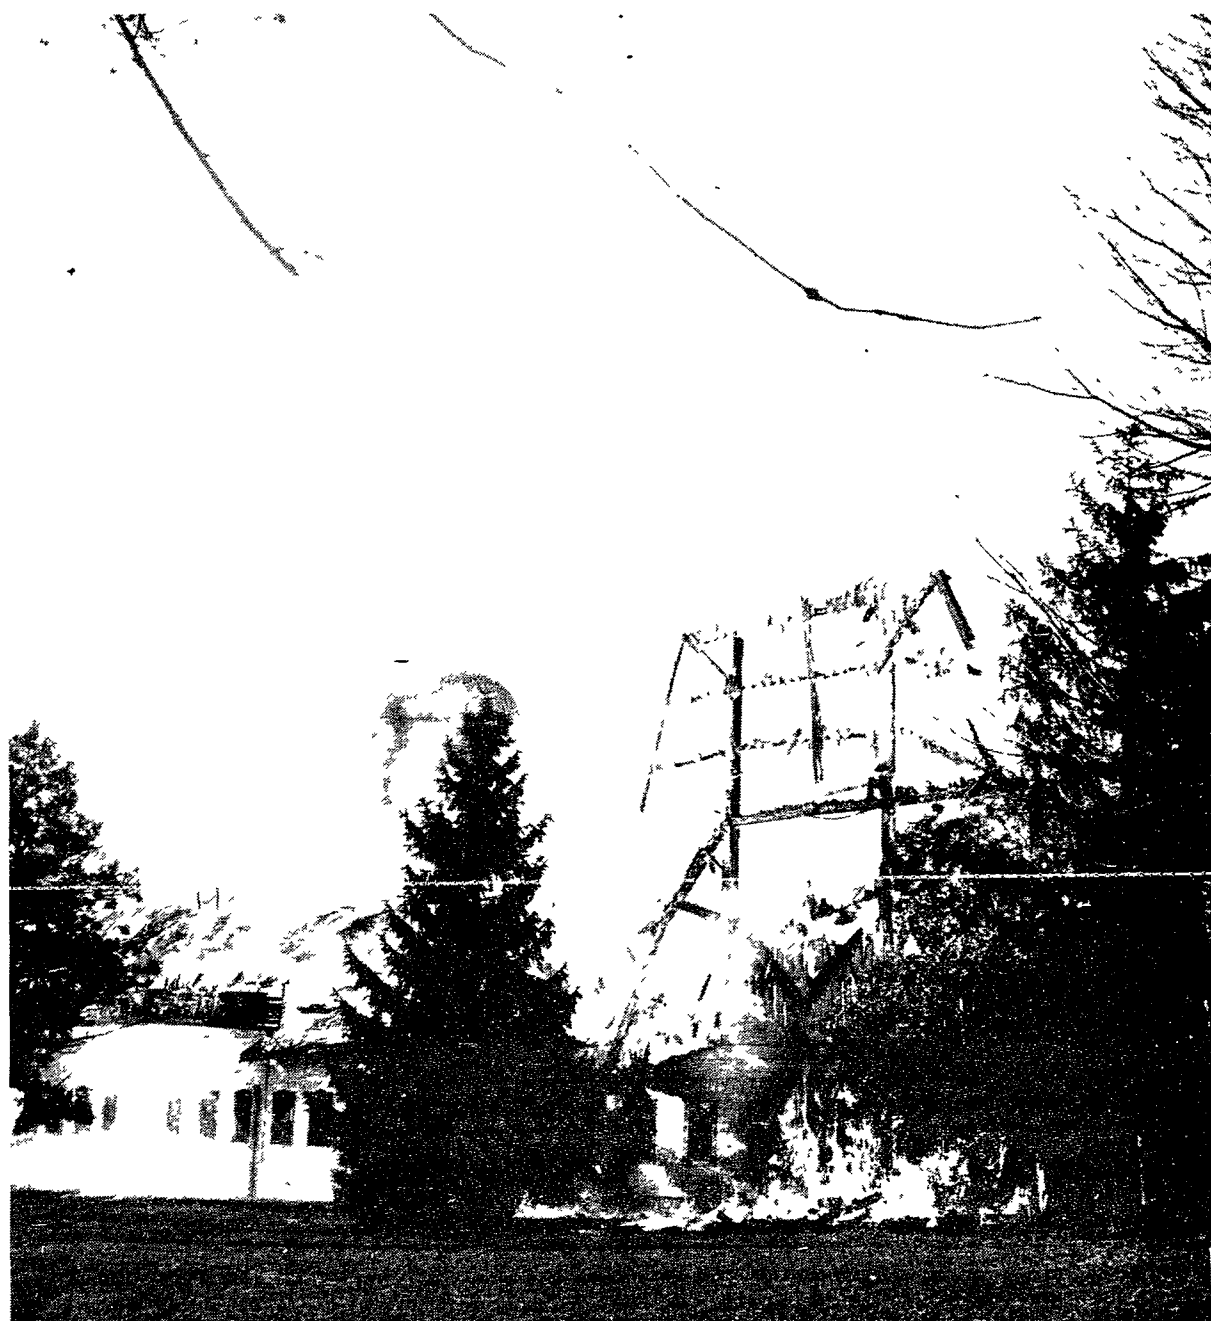

Firemen from four community departments fought the blaze on the ground . . . from the roof and on all sides of the barn.

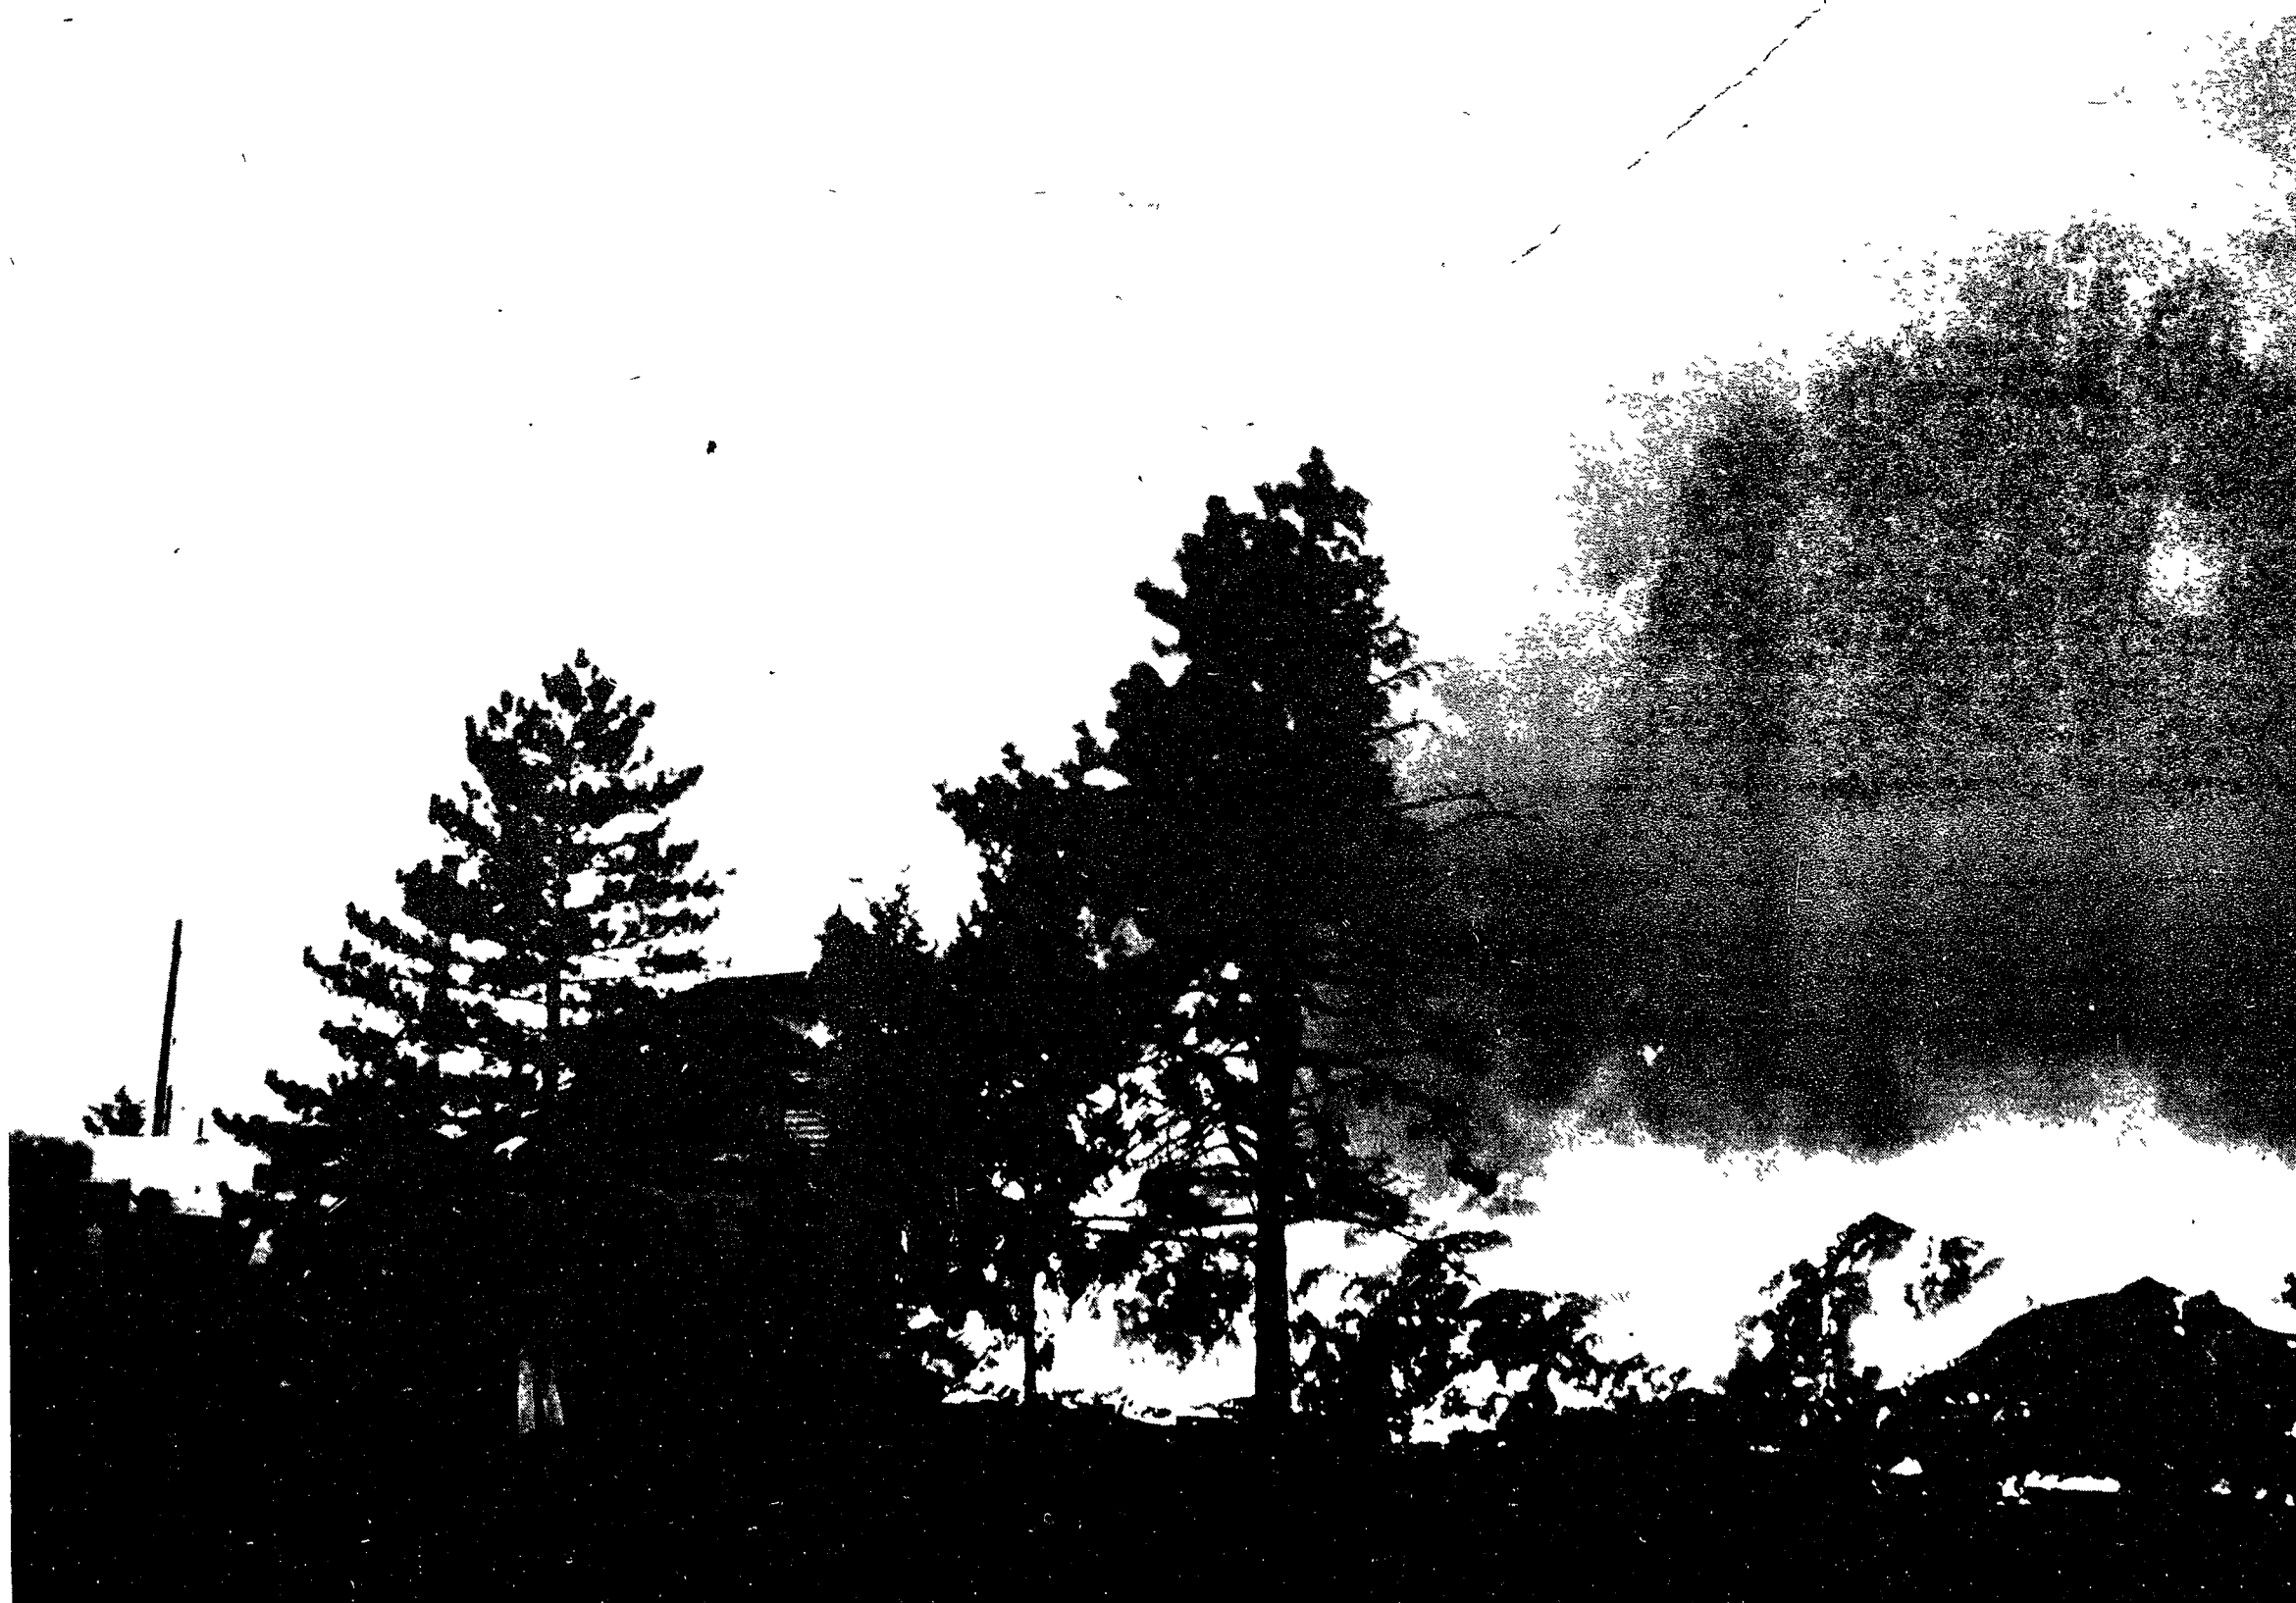

at Six Mile Road Farm Crest Dairy

The firefighters poured water down on the smouldering hay from atop a Detroit Edison ladder truck.

By 5 p.m. it was apparent that the barn was completely lost.

And by dusk firemen were confident that, although the huge barn had fallen, the adjoining dairy building could be saved

Baughman-Imsland Passes Give Northville Rally Win

The Northville Mustangs saved their best til last Friday night on a cold, wind-swept field at West Bloomfield and walked off the Victor, 14-7.

Northville's best? The pass from the shotgun offense that met with so much success the week before against Milford with Quarterback Tom Baughman standing eight yards behind the line, gathering in the pass from center, and coolly picking out his receivers.

Not until the second half did Northville switch from a more conventional split-T to the shotgun, but when it did, Northville quickly wiped out a 7-0 deficit to win.

Once again it was End Jerry Imsland who wrecked the West Bloomfield defensive secondary. The six-two, 190-pound end with the glue fingers caught 11 passes, good for a record total of 216 yards and both Northville TDs. That makes 357 yards in two games.

Like Milford the week before, West Bloomfield knew what was coming. The Lakers knew that Imsland was Baughman's favorite target. But no matter. Imsland simply outmaneuvered and outgrappled pass defenders.

On Northville's first TD drive of 62 yards, Imsland snagged passes of six, 11, 37 and eight yards to personally account for every yard the Mustangs gained.

Imsland's second TD was a long strike, a 57-yard pass play. Flashing good speed, Imsland got behind a defender as he raced down the right sideline, gathered in a Baughman pass over his shoulder on the 20 yard line and romped into the end zone.

That reception gave him 216 yards, and a new Northville season pass receiving mark of 650, surpassing the previous mark of 437 held by Jim Petrock. And there's still one game remaining at Brighton, tomorrow night.

Until the second half when Northville came up with its shotgun antics, West Bloomfield had stolen some of Northville's spassing thunder. The Lakers, with Quarterback Greg Hepinstall rolling out, had struck for a third quarter touchdown.

It started on the Northville 35. Hepinstall hit End Tim Molner with a short pass in the left flat on a vital third down play, good for 14 yards and a first down on the Northville 22. Three running plays gained 16 yards. Then Hepinstall rolled left, picked out Molner in the end zone, and flipped a pass into his arms. The kick was perfect for a 7-0 lead.

Northville then fumbled on the Lakers' 43, and West Bloomfield charged downfield. Halfback Rick Vick, one of the fastest men in the W-O, picked up a first down on the Northville 47.

Hepinstall hit Molner, who lateralled to a halfback coming around for 17 yards and another first down on the 30. Two running plays netted 17 yards and another first down on the 11.

With their backs against the goal line, the Mustangs yielded only eight yards in four plays as time ran out in the first half.

Northville returned fired up at the start of the second half. On the first series from the shotgun, Baughman hit Imsland for 31 yards, but a clipping penalty set the ball back to the West Bloomfield 46.

Imsland got loose moments later, grabbed a pass on the 37 and ramblod to the West Bloomfield 10 yard line. On the next play Hepinstall stepped inside, and intercepted a pass intended for Imsland to end the threat.

It only delayed the inevitable. Northville scored but not before a scare at the eight yard line.

Imsland got things underway on the Northville 38 by taking a six-yarder across the middle from Baughman. Again Imsland went down six yards and across, caught the ball and drove forward for five more yards. It gave Northville a first down on the West Bloomfield 45.

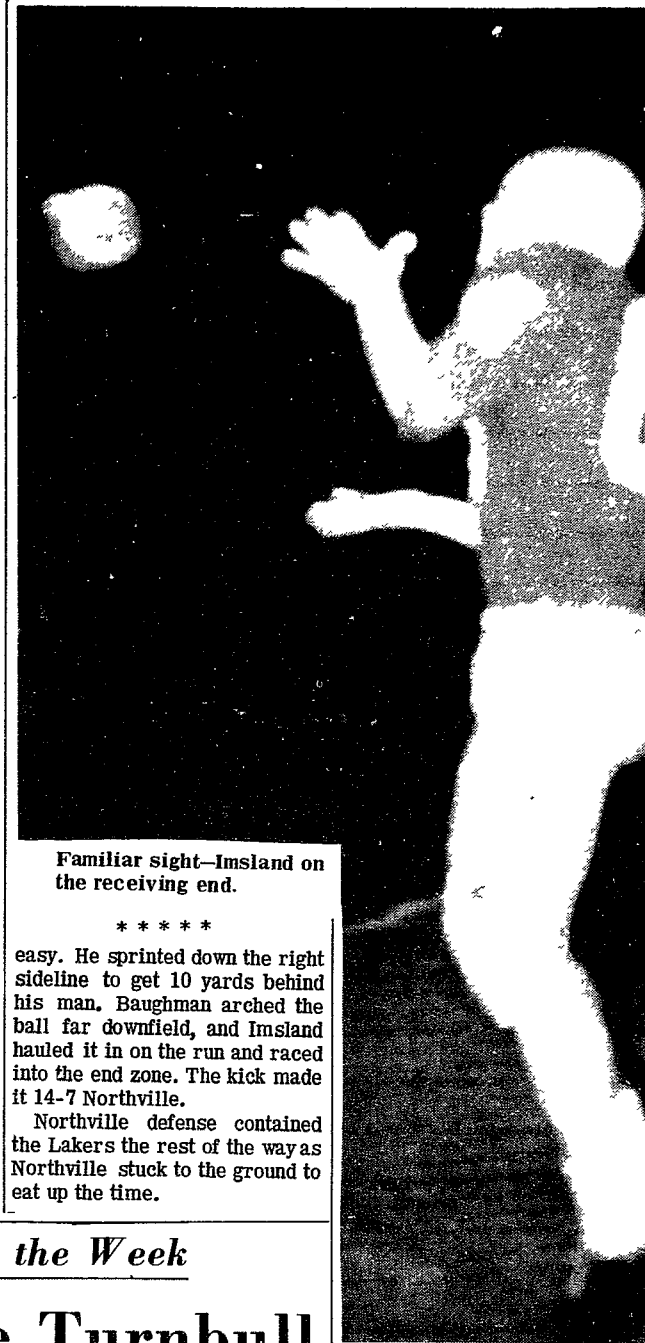

Imsland reversed the pattern next time. He faked to the inside, and cut toward the right side-line. Hit as soon as he caught the ball, Imsland wiggled free and ran down the sideline to the eight yard line before he was tackled.

Twice Baughman tossed to Imsland; both times the ball missed its mark. Then Baughman hit End Steve Evans for five yards down to the three, but a penalty on the subsequent play set Northville back to the eight yard line.

On fourth down, Baughman fired to Imsland. The big end, who had slanted inside, reached down and caught the ball as he fell to the turf. The kick was good to tie the game at seven-all.

The long bomb gave Northville the winning TD mid-way through the final quarter.

Imsland made this one look easy. He sprinted down the right sideline to get 10 yards behind his man. Baughman arched the ball far downfield, and Imsland hauled it in on the run and raced into the end zone. The kick made it 14-7 Northville.

Northville defense contained the Lakers the rest of the way as Northville stuck to the ground to eat up the time.

Player of the Week

Solid Mike Turnbull

An "old pro," Mike Turnbull, is this week's choice as Player of the Week.

He's the stabilizing influence in the Mustang defensive secondary that has been riddled this year with injuries. His specialty is hard-nosed football.

Mike Turnbull

Coach Ron Horwath pointed out how vital Mike is. Confronted with the possibility of West Bloomfield throwing everything at inexperienced defensive halfbacks, Horwath came up with a solution to the problem.

Northville went into and stayed in a defensive huddle until West Bloomfield broke out of its huddle. Then Turnbull would take a defensive spot in the backfield where West Bloomfield might strike.

Besides standing out as a defensive back, Turnbull has also taken over the right halfback post on the strength of his pass receiving and strong running. As such, he is one of the Mustangs' top scorers.

A two-year letterman, Mike received the Sportsman Award last year, given annually to the gridder who exhibits the most spirit.

Turnbull has also gained distinction in two other sports. He lettered in basketball and baseball. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Turnbull of Eaton drive.

Novi Frosh Wins Here

In a game that couldn't be closer, a determined Novi frosh squad upended Northville last Thursday, 14-12, in the season finale for Northville.

The game went down to the wire. Northville moved to the Novi one-foot line with seconds to go in the game, but a penalty set the colts back five yards. On the next play, Novi held as time ran out.

Before that, Novi came back twice to wipe out deficits. Conversions, by Mike Farah and Lee Snow, were the margin of victory.

Northville struck first in the opening period. Halfback Pat Caylay broke off left tackle, cut to the right and raced down the sidelines for his first TD. The kick failed.

Novi then marched 10 yards for its first score by Jon Van Wagoner to take a 7-6 lead. But Northville bounced back as Caylay once again slipped over tackle and outraced the Novi secondary 65 yards into the end zone. The extra-point went awry.

Novi tallied the clinching TD on a 35-yard sprint by its quarterback, Gary Boyer. The extra point kick sailed through the cross bar.

Northville posted a season mark of 2-3. Novi has a season record of 3-2 so far with their final game against Clarenceville Thursday at Novi.

Four Share Cash In Grid Quiz

Surprise was the rule for the football contest this week.

This week the contest had first place and second place ties. All four contestants won for the first time this week.

Because there were four in the first two places prize money was divided among them and no third prize was given.

The tie-breaker decided first and second ranking, but even this failed to eliminate ties. Each of the four had five misses. The winners each had ten point spreads on the Lions' game. Second place was earned with 14 point spreads.

Sharing first place were Carey Skinner, 144 Rexton, Walled Lake, and Norman Boerger, 220 Elm street, Northville.

Skinner has been entering the contest every week for the past two years.

Boerger's entry was submitted by his brother, Kenneth 15. Both boys are sons of the Rev. Boerger of the Baptist church.

Second place went to Steve Adams, 45201 Mayo drive, Northville, and Mrs. Janet Cobb of 10987 Silver Lake road, South Lyon.

Season Ends at Brighton

Northville will close out the 1965 football season when it travels to Brighton Friday night to take on the Brighton Bulldogs.

With both teams out of the Wayne-Oakland Conference race, the game stacks up as a battle to preserve respectability. On paper, the Mustangs get the nod to take this one.

Brighton is presently rooted in the cellar of the conference with a 1-6 record. But there's a hitch. The Bulldogs do have the capability of rising to the occasion.

When Holly was hot on the trail of league leading Bloomfield Hills, the lowly Bulldogs took Holly to task, beating the Broncos, 20-19, in the upset of the league season.

Last week, Brighton came within a hair's width of pulling another upset. But inability to convert for the extra point cost the Bulldogs a tie as they went down to defeat at the hands of Clarkston 14-12.

Sparking the Brighton offense is Fullback Larry Flowers, a 5'-10", 173-pound work horse. Not exceedingly fast, Flowers depends on aggressiveness and savvy to grind out the yardage.

Transfer student, Kevin Ross-wurm, is Flowers' running mate.

Described as fast, Ross-wurm keeps the defense loose as a break away threat.

Off on the wing stands six-five End Bruce Evenson, better known for his exploits on the basketball court. He's the Bulldogs best receiver, and on occasion, he throws the ball on an end around.

Northville, which came out of the West Bloomfield scrap without any injuries, will polish up its passing game in hopes of carrying home a victory.

That's the weapon that has proved so successful in the Mustangs' last two wins, one over Milford and the other last Friday over West Bloomfield.

It'll be the last chance for the passing combination of Quarterback Tom Baughman and End Jerry Imsland to add to their already impressive high school records.

With his 282 yards passing against West Bloomfield, Baughman broke Steve Jacy's single season passing mark of 1111 yards. Baughman has a season total of 1214.

Baughman's percentage completion is nothing short of phenomenal. He threw 28 passes against West Bloomfield, connecting on 15 of them to give him a season mark of 93 completions in 153 attempts.

Imsland, too, is rewriting the local high school record books. The strapping end caught 11 passes last Friday night for 222 yards. He now has 52 receptions for a total of 656 yards.

Besides having to cope with the Mustang aerial game, Brighton will also have to break the firm hold of Northville's defensive forces. Northville held West Bloomfield to a mere 41 yards in the second half, and 97 yards for the game. West Bloomfield hit on six of 14 passes for 49 yards.

Methodists Off to Good Start

More than two-thirds of the $100,000 goal in the building fund crusade of Northville's First Methodist church was pledged by Monday night. Sunday, opening day of the crusade, $65,000 was raised with the total going to $71,000 by Monday night, Charles Skene, general chairman, announced.

While the congregation is participating in the financial crusade, investigations are being conducted for selection and purchase of an expansion site. This has not been determined and must later be voted upon by the congregation. Expansion could be in the form of an addition to the present structure or a new facility.

Home visitation teams have been set up under Skene. Teams and their captains are: team one, David Amerman, captain, Mr. and Mrs. Skene, Ralph Gallagher, Mrs. Arlie Thomas, Mrs. Charles Castillo, Mrs. Jack Slotnick, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Becker, William Asher; team two, Russell Amerman and Lloyd Moore, co-captains, Mrs. S. Edwin W. North, Mrs. William Canfield, Mrs. Richard Nash, the Reverend S. D. Kinde, Kathryn Giltner.

The Reverend Dwight Woodworth of the national board of missions of the Methodist church has been working with the local staff in conducting the crusade. He is an ordained minister in the Ohio conference, giving full time to fund raising under the mission board.

The church already has retained William P. Lindhout as architect for the expansion. When an available site is found, the Reverend Kinde confirmed, he will make sketches of a proposed building with members of the congregation to be called for a meeting of approval or rejection of plans and site.

Prior to purchase of a site, approval of the Ann Arbor district building committee of the church also is needed. The official board and quarterly conference, the Reverend Kinde said, already voted in favor of building on a new site.

Jerome on Wooster's Parent Day Committee

Dave Jerome, a sophomore at Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, is on the committee for the 1965 version of Parent's Day to be held November 13 on the campus for parents and prospective students.

His parents, the Reverend and Mrs. George Jerome, 743 Horton, plan to attend; they expect to arrive in time to attend the first performance of T. S. Eliot's "Murder in the Cathedral" Friday evening at the First Presbyterian church in Wooster. The college's little theater group is presenting the play both Friday and Saturday evenings.

Class visits, meetings with the faculty and a full sports program are scheduled for the weekend. Parents are being invited to attend a pep rally and bonfire Friday evening, a prelude to the Wooster-Oberlin football game the following day. Jerome is working with Jean Hughes of Rochester, New York, in making arrangements for class participation in Parent's Day.

Three Hurt, One Arrested In Traffic

Three persons were sent to Botsford General hospital, Sunday after two cars collided on Novi road.

Harry Blakely, 19, of Plymouth hit a car driven by Ivan Hunt, 62 of Six Lakes while Hunt was attempting to turn onto westbound I-96 from northbound Novi road. The two drivers and a passenger Mrs. Beulah Hunt were all treated and released with abrasions at the hospital.

Also, police in Novi charged an Orchard Lake man with leaving the scene of an accident and driving under the influence of alcohol after an accident on Haggerty and Novi roads Thursday night. According to police, Louis Larsen, 47, 43089 Grand River was driving west on Grant River with his wife and son when his car was forced to ram another.

The driver of the second car, Arthur Adam Irwin, 60, 7227 Arrowhead Drive, Orchard Lake, stopped at the stop sign on Haggerty road but then drove in front of Larsen's car and a collision resulted, said police who reported that Irwin continued north on Haggerty road before they arrived.

An area blockade was set up, and the Irwin car was stopped seven miles north of the scene of the accident by a Wolverine Lake police car.

After being turned over to Novi police for arrest he was lodged in Oakland County Jail. Irwin will be arraigned before Judge Emery Jacques, Thursday, November 4.

Five citations were awarded. Cy Frid, although not in attendance, was cited for his long service on the city's board of review. He has indicated he cannot serve on the board again next year.

Officers Louis Westfall, Dave LaFond and William McGee were presented citations for outstanding acts on duty as police officers. And Mrs. Harvey Ritchie was given a citation for never missing a day of duty as police dispatcher for the past five years.

Municipal Judge Charles McDonald served as master of ceremonies. Councilman Del Black was chairman of the program.

Mr. Canterbury asked Council to read the proposed Housing Ordinance and be prepared to discuss it on the agenda of November 1 meeting. The city manager is to get Northville city planning commission's feelings on this ordinance.

The city manager was asked to get feeling of Northville Township Board on future landfill.

The matter of a north-south route for Northville was briefly discussed and the city manager is to have this at a work session in the future.

Brief reports from the Wayne and Oakland County Board of Supervisor representatives from the city of Northville are deemed advisable and they will give same at interims of a month or six weeks. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Martha M. Milne
City Clerk

Northville City Council Minutes

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen at the Northville City Hall, Monday, October 18, 1965, at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Allen, Black, Canterbury, Carlson and Kester. Absent: None.

The minutes of the regular meeting of October 4, 1965 were approved and the work session notes of October 11, 1965 were accepted.

Moved by Kester supported by Carlson that bills in the following amounts be paid:
General $19,447.60
Water 1,241.26
Unanimously carried.

Communications:
A letter from Roy VanAtta and the residents of Randolph St. thanking Council for their consideration on the recent question of re-zoning lot 444, Assessor's Northville Plat #5.

Planning Commission minutes for October 5, 1965 were received.

Old Business:

The notice in the Northville Record was read by the Clerk relative to the Public Hearing on "Unattended Coin-Operated Laundries and Dry-Cleaning Establishments". Mr. Donald Paquette, Michigan Ass'n. of Coin-operated Laundries, was present to discuss the Association's position on this type of Ordinance. His main objections were (1) the laundries becoming responsible for loiterers, and (2) cleaning of driers every 12 hours, (3) question of hours and night-time operation. After considerable discussion, Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester that the Public Hearing be adjourned and re-convened on November 1 at next regular meeting. Unanimously carried.

There are four points to be considered:

(1) Has owner of laundry on N. Center street had sufficient time to contact Council.
(2) Perhaps hours could be different than those stated in proposed ordinance.
(3) The place of business should be closed or an attendant present.
(4) Examine City of Detroit ordinance presented by Paquette.
(5) Think of safety or other necessary precautions.

Chief King commented that there had been more than one police call at the N. Center St. Laundromat for various reasons. Mr. Paquette asked cooperation from the Police Department as far as records they might have pertaining to this matter.

The clerk read the notice asking for bids as published in Northville Record and reported that there had been 3 bid notices sent to three different firms. The city attorney opened the bids with the following results:

G. E. Miller Sales, Dodge Polara - 120" $2460.33, (48 days delivery) minus 1075.00 equals $1385.33.
G. E. Miller Sales (alternate bid) - Dodge Coronet - 117" $2218.61; (48 days delivery) minus 1075.00 equals $1143.61.

John Mach Ford Sales - 1966 Ford $2028.00, Custom Fordor minus 900.00 equals (4 weeks delivery) $1128.00.

Moved by Carlson, supported by Kester to excuse Councilman Canterbury from voting on proposed motion. Unanimously carried.

Moved by Black, supported by Kester that the bid of John Mach Ford Sales for a 1966 Police car be accepted provided that it is the low bid and that it fully meets the required specifications.

Unanimously carried.

New Business:
Moved by Carlson, supported by Carlson to appoint Duane Butler, 21405 Summerside Lane, Northville, to serve the two year term on the Municipal Parking Authority to fill vacancy created by resignation of Scott Krause. Unanimously carried.

The city manager and Robert Cole are to work out and submit a contract to council for snow removal for the city of Northville based on the Manager's Newsletter of October 14.

Resolution of Necessity to Waive Bids along with contract to be sent to Northville Council with advance agenda.

The City Engineer reported on the proposed maintenance improvements for roads in Northville Estates. The City Manager, who was not present, is to be informed by the DPW Supt. or City Engineer of discussion and present the most reasonable and economical program for repairing these roads at November 1 meeting.

Miscellaneous: Moved by Kester, supported by Carlson that the city manager advertise for bids for fire hose, these bids to come in at first possible meeting. Unanimously carried.

METAL MONSTERS—At first glance (inset at top) these twin culverts might not look large enough to drive a truck through. But they are . . . and then some! The two corrugated steel culverts are being installed under Edenderry drive, entrance to Edenderry and Shadbrook subdivisions in Northville township. The road is being widened and improved. The culverts will carry a tributary of the Rouge river under the road. The large size of the culverts is necessary to handle drainage and possible peak flooding conditions. The culverts are 11 feet high, 17 feet wide and 84 feet long. Completion of the road is expected within a month, although paving will probably be delayed until spring. Waving from inside one of the culverts is John Brown, son of Dr. and Mrs. John F. Brown, 45730 Fermanagh.

It's Swap Day At Junior High

Bargain hunters anticipating frigid, frozen days that come as early as Thanksgiving are urged to come early to the Junior High PTA boot-skate swap sale being held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, November 6, in the junior high lunchroom by Mrs. William Switzler, chairman.

Mother's needing boots, skates or raincoats a size larger for fast-growing offspring can sell outgrown gear by bringing it to the back entrance of the junior high boys' gymnasium from 9 to 11 a.m. or from 1 to 3 p.m. today or Friday. Then size-larger items can be purchased at bargain prices Saturday.

Mrs. Switzler reports that more than 100 items changed hands in this manner last year. Items to be sold are to be tied together with a plain envelope attached, giving name, address, telephone, article size, designation for boy or girl, and price desired.

A 25-cent handling charge is added to the price of all articles. The skate-boot sale committee warns that all money and unsold articles must be claimed before 2 p.m. Saturday — immediately after the sale. Unclaimed articles will be given to the Goodwill and money to the junior high.

She's Active in MSU Religion Crusade

By Donald Busch
Senior Student at MSU
Religion can be mixed with a college education. Karen Peterson proves this at Michigan State University.

Karen, a 1963 graduate of Northville High, is a member of Campus Crusade for Christ. It isn't a club, but a group of interested students. "We are mainly people who get together to discuss Christ and His influence today," says Karen.

There are no elected officers of this group. It consists of a staff which leads the discussion. The group meets one hour every week. As a usual part of their meetings they have a invited speaker. He or she will deliver a speech and then answer questions. Karen's interest in this group took her San Bernardino, California last summer. The purpose of her trip was to participate in a 10-day study and discussion of Christ.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Peterson of Fry road and is majoring in retailing and living in Yakeley dormitory. She is a junior.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Reverend S. D. Kinde
First Methodist Church of Northville

When you awakened this morning did you know that this was to be a happy and eventful day in your life? Did you feel that you would be successful in some worthy undertaking? Did you begin the day looking for trouble, discouragement, failure? Some folk have misfortune every day because they look for it, plan for it, expect it. They keep their minds on trouble, catch every suggestion of difficulty, enlarge their worries and woes by thinking about them, and at the close of the day they are worn and weary, exhausted, discouraged by life as they have found it.

Should we awaken to a new day with a sense of being afraid, doubtful, weary of the struggle to live? Better that we dash cool water on the face to awaken us and then sing a song while waiting for breakfast. A few confident thoughts upon the goodness of life will prepare us for the day. A vigorous affirmation of faith in God and in people will give us a lift.

I am reminded of the little old lady who had an optimistic outlook upon each day and sang a song regardless of the weather outside. Sunshine or shadow, cold or hot, winter or summer, she smiled upon each new day. When she was asked how she kept such a happy outlook on life she replied, "I have a slogan written on my windowpane which reads, 'This is the day the Lord hath made, I will rejoice and be glad in it.'" Then she added, "If I look outdoors through my window at sleet, rain, or sunshine the message on my window is unchangeable... 'This is the day the Lord hath made, I will rejoice and be glad in it.'"

An elderly negro began his day with the thought, "Nothing is going to happen to me today that God and I together can not handle." A cultured and educated scholar was accustomed to begin his day by saying, "By the grace of God and my own training, I am prepared to meet the worst that comes today, and make it good."

I like the story from the book for children about a little train chugging up grade, "I can, I can, I can, I can," and that little train chugged and always made the grade.

You may call this a 'psychological trick' and it is but it is more. It is active cooperation on our part with God. We bring our lives to such a position that God can work through it to bless our souls. We are set free from mental tension and given mental calm so that we experience the abundant life.

Long ago a man in a difficult situation fixed his eyes upon God and said, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." His faith strengthened him for whatever the day might bring. He might face trouble, but he had God! And God and a man are a match for any situation.

We too need to fix our eyes upon God in an act of faith and trust and then we shall know his strength for our day. We make Him our partner in this game of living. When the day is done and evening comes and the world is hushed we see that God's hand has been with us along our steps through the day. He has been faithful to us and the day has been good.

YOU WON'T KNOW YOURSELF!

Dressing up is always fun! Whether it's Hallowe'en, Mardi Gras, a Hawaiian luau or a masquerade ball, almost everyone of every age enjoys wearing a costume. It makes us feel "different"... less restrained and more light-hearted. Perhaps it's a relief to leave our everyday self at home for a while. For many of us, that tired, worried, unhappy self is far from satisfactory but we seem to be stuck with it.

Yet consider this. The burden of self that we carry is unnecessary... and we have a standing invitation to lay it down! One of the joys of following Jesus is that we must "leave self behind." There is no place in the Christian life for worry or woe, because the logical sequences of faith in God are contentment and serenity. Yes, the gloomiest pessimists become clear-visioned optimists when they are filled with the light that only God can give.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

For The Gardener

This column on gardening information is compiled by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

Last week's article discussed what African violets needed in the way of light, temperature, and water. This week is a continuation of the needs of these plants.

Correct potting: Clean pots are of primary importance. Plastic pots can be washed inside and out, very easily. Wash the pot pieces you place in the bottom too. When small plants like a two inch pot. Only when their roots are growing through the potholes will they need a larger pot, and only one size larger. A 2 1/2 inch pot is the next step after a two inch pot. Few violets except the really huge ones, need a pot larger than four inches.

Food: African violet food is sold under various names. A small bottle serves for a long time. Use it exactly according to directions. A little diluted food every two weeks or so keeps your plants thriving.

Baths: Spray heartily once a week in the sink, using lukewarm water. Let the plants dry naturally in the shade.

Propagation: Easy. A healthy leaf, cut off with a sharp knife from a section half way down the plant, will root readily. The leaf stem should be at least two or three inches long. Cut off the very tip of the stem and lay it aside for an hour or more. Make a hole with a pencil in African violet soil to a depth of two inches or so and insert the stem of the leaf-only a half inch of stem should be covered. Firm the soil around the stem and give it light and a little moisture. When new leaves appear around the leaf stalk, and attain a length of about one half inch, the entire cutting can be set in a two inch pot. The final result is a new plant started. Rooting leaves love a crowd so put several in a saucer to root together. The result is plenty of plants.

Troubles: They aren't likely to have any, but if they do, spray with an aerosol bomb, obtainable in any plant center. When using the sprayer be careful to hold it a foot or so away from the plant to avoid burning or damage.

Joys: They're innumerable. Color in the house, the admiration of visitors, and perhaps a new interest for you. Try African violets without coddling.

In Justice Court

In the court of Justice Emery Jacques Thursday, 16 arraignments and two trials took place. In the two trials no immediate action was taken, one case had the action deferred for 30 days and the other was adjourned for 30 days.

Lee R. Munn, 29166 Wixom road, Wixom was fined $25 for driving without a license.

William G. Hawkins, 1107 S. Lake road, Novi, was ordered to pay $25 for speeding.

James Turner, 150 Northaven, Novi was fined $65 for reckless driving on Novi road.

Kenneth E. Puff, 15857 Ridge road, Northville was sent to jail for 10 days of a 30 day sentence and put on one year probation by Judge Robert K. Anderson for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Neighborhood Hunters Frighten Township Girl

To the Editor:

I am very concerned about the hunting in our neighborhood. When hunters come within thirty feet of our house I can't play in the woods behind us. The woods are on the Whipple property near the site chosen for the new elementary school. What will happen when it's built?

Also I am very worried about our cat, she is a brown and white calico cat, who looks like a rabbit. Since she is used to roaming in the woods we just can't keep her inside.

It seems to me hunters should hunt in the country — not where there are lots of pets, children and houses.

Sincerely,
Roberta Day, Age 11

'Charge It' Living Hits Record Heights

BABSON PARK, Mass. — As the U.S. approaches the end of the fifth year of an economic upturn that has set many records, we are concerned about our rapidly rising private debt. We all, in fact, might well ask ourselves: How long will the inflationary state of mind of the public continue? Many factors have combined to produce the business boom: Among these are population growth, technological advances, international tensions which have made it necessary to spend more and more for defense, the large amounts poured into foreign aid, and constantly climbing wages. Even so, without rising debt to feed on, the business boom would have long since burned itself out.

There has been a tremendous boost in private debt in this country over the past few years. From 1955 through 1964, the advance amounted to 104%. Going back further, to 1945 at the end of World War II, private debt through 1964 racked up a phenomenal rise of 463%. Adequate increases in credit are necessary, of course, to keep the economy on the upmove; rising debt provides the momentum for growth and progress. But the persistence and rate of the upsurge are governed by the capacity and willingness of leaders and by the capacity and willingness of borrowers.

A very sharp step-up in the use of installment credit has been perhaps the biggest factor in keeping consumers spending heavily for goods and services. And it appears that they will be buying still more on installment in 1966. They have been "brainwashed" by long years of watching more and more people piling up debt and yet still seeming to keep their heads above water. The years of climbing personal incomes -- in the face of steadily rising prices -- have made debt repayment appear easy.

There is now some $64 billion in installment debt outstanding -- an increase of 50% since the beginning of the present economic upturn in 1961. We look for installment debt to move still higher over the next six months at least -- unless the Federal Reserve ups interest rates before then and thus clamps a lid on the boom.

There is no denying that total private debt outstanding -- corporate and individual -- is at record levels. Yet, high thought may be, it is still apparently supportable. The big question we have to face is the rate of rise. There is a sympathetic relationship between Gross National Product and private debt. Some economists claim that the present rate of rise in private debt is fully justified by our expanding GNP. We do not agree. From the end of World War II through 1964, GNP increased about 194%; gross private debt expanded 483%. This disparity has widened further in recent months; it is definitely a caution signal.

Corporations -- and individuals

-- the country over are prospering from rising asset values and mounting earnings. Confidence abounds, and everywhere is heard the magic word "growth". Such attitudes are symptoms of the late stages of a boom. And the longer the boom runs without correction, the surer it is that more people will plunge themselves dangerously into debt.

How much is too much? Only you can tell, for you know best the details of your over-all position. We do say this: If we were owners of a small business, we would think twice today before undertaking expansions that would require large borrowings... especially if these were to entail repayments that could be met only on the basis of present volume and earnings. And if we were retail merchants extending installment credit, we would screen applicants more closely, keeping in mind that 10% of all families now owing installment debt are already using more than 20% of their disposable income for repayments. Above all, we would be careful not to assume that growth will proceed always as rapidly as it has during the past few years.

Romney Showing Signs of Potomac Fever

LANSING — Looking more and more like a national political candidate, Gov. George Romney has increased speculative reporting by a number of his agency appointments under the government reorganization law.

Inadvertently, or perhaps by design, he has placed in strategic positions several men who could be pulled out easily to work full-time in a national campaign by 1968 because they would have accomplished much of the important initial reorganization.

Whether these men, like former Congressman Jack McIntosh who was named chairman of the new Commerce Department, will be used in this way remains to be seen.

INCREASED TRAVEL out of the state for speaking engagements and the recent trip abroad which included Viet Nam add impetus to what had looked like a low-key test of the Republican winds.

Sitting here in Michigan it is very difficult to determine whether Romney is getting any encouragement for a bid to be the party's No. 1 candidate three years hence.

Many of the "men on the street" in other states know of him. For those who heard much of the fiscal problems of Michigan in past years, Romney looks like a good prospect because the cash crisis stories are no longer in print. The "miror" happenings which loom large in Michigan headlines for just a day rarely get published outside the state.

DIFFICULT AS IT is at this early date to clearly read the Governor's goals and possible progress toward these goals, a word of caution might be worthwhile in trying to get an accurate reading of his potential.

It isn't too many years ago that nearly every political writer in the state was booming then Gov. G. Mennen Williams as presidential timber. If he was unable to get the No. 1 slot, he surely had a better than average chance to be the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, they said.

A direct parallel is probably impossible between Williams and Romney. It must be remembered that when Williams was looking for his big chance, his party had a wealth of capable men with similar aspirations. Only he could get on the ticket and he wasn't one of them.

As of now, the Republican Party is in essentially the opposite situation. A willing candidate with good background and personality is sought.

Even in politics, it helps to be in the right place at the right time.

SOMETHING NEW was seen along Michigan's roadsides this year which state officials hope will grow considerably in size and gain widespread public recognition.

number 37 in 15 counties scattered around the state, just over a year after establishment of the organization.

IDEA BEHIND the association is to guarantee motorists fresh-picked, top-quality farm produce and discourage borderline or fly-by-night stand operations.

Placement of the association's markers means the stand operators adhering to a rigid code of ethics covering condition of merchandise, price marking, advertising, building cleanliness, and parking facilities.

One of the stipulations of the code requires sufficient advance signs visible from the highway so the motorist has time to slow down, thus preventing a traffic hazard.

Members of the association hope shoppers will learn the meaning of this sign and thus encourage other farmers to join together to maintain easily accessible, clean stands offering good grade produce.

A marketing specialist with the State Agriculture Department regularly checks the member stands to assure compliance with the voluntary code.

THE PUSH is on for a full six-month concentration to make every citizen aware of the 1966 Michigan Week observance.

It started more than a decade ago with a number of state, regional, county and community committees. As years have passed, the top six or seven units have been working nearly year-round on the project to increase the numbers involved at the lower levels.

Now the push is being made to get individuals, families and many neighborhood groups involved in the state promotion early in the year for the May event.

"PEOPLE, PROGRAMS and publicity" has been proposed as a keynote for the campaign to get Michigan's entire population, if possible, into a working attitude derived from a group known as the Michigan Minutemen.

The Minutemen, which originated in 1963, wanted to get many salesmen talking about Michigan "the way Texans talk in supermarkets" 52 weeks a year. Now the Michigan Week top campaigners hope to expand this same idea to many thousands more than have been reached to date.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Somebody, a statesman I think, said that "Democracy isn't perfect, but it's the best thing we've been able to come up with so far".

Any form of government, especially as it becomes bigger and more powerful, can prove irritating to the governed. By nature and heritage Americans are the most violent objectors to government that dictates and restricts.

Sometimes it seems, however, that we carry our objections to government that infringes upon our personal freedom to strange extremes.

Only an American would take advantage of his freedom to support a cause that threatens it.

Too infrequently do we really take time to count our blessings. This isn't the average American way. "So we've got a good thing in Democracy; so what? Big deal!"

Well, we do have a good thing. And only exposure to government that relieves you of the necessity of thinking can make you truly aware of the difference. It's something like being in the army.

The point of this introduction is a contest currently being sponsored in the Northville high school by the local VFW post.

It's the 19th annual Voice of Democracy contest which offers prizes to high school youngsters who write and then transcribe the best theme on "Democracy: What it means to me".

The Northville VFW post is going all-out in its effort to promote the contest locally. The members have taken the position that this is a pretty important subject on which to write and at this time and date in our history youngsters should be encouraged to look around and take stock of their surroundings.

The Northville post, a relatively small group of veterans, is providing some $900 in awards to youngsters who participate in this contest. First prize is a $500 scholarship.

At the national level the scholarship prizes range from $1,000 to $5,000.

Who can say what Democracy means to a teenager.

But it obviously ranks pretty high down at the South Main street VFW post. And the extra effort of these veterans to remind us, and our children, that Democracy is something special deserves recognition.

Change seems to be in style this week. Superintendent of Schools Alex Nelson announced that he had named Amerman Principal Ray Spear assistant superintendent.

City Manager Roger Rehberg revealed the appointment of Police Chief Eugene King as administrative assistant. And Patrolman Dave LaFond was named acting police chief.

So, congratulations are in order. They are intended for the "appointees" as well as the "appointees".

In many ways Superintendent Nelson and City Manager Rehberg are walking similar paths in Northville.

They are both new to the community and both have assumed jobs that demand certain actions be taken almost immediately. Decision-making is their business, so it's not too much to expect, but even an administrator seasoned in office would have some difficulty in selecting a new assistant or naming a new police chief, for example.

It's no secret that the schools' assistant superintendency was coveted by more than one; nor is it confidential information that Northville's police department has been torn by unrest.

So now the decision has been made and the pot-shooters can take aim.

There should be some solace in the fact that there are two men in the boat. One can always look over at the other and say, "nice play, Alex", and expect a reply, "you, too, Roger".

ONE YEAR AGO

In this year's presidential election President Lyndon B. Johnson swept both the city and the township of Northville something never before accomplished by a Democrat. Johnson however was the only Democrat to win in the city or the township.

Northville's retail merchants asked the city to erect and remove this year's Christmas decorations. It was announced that the merchants intend to boost this year's budget for decorations from $800 to $1800 to make this the biggest Christmas decorations budget so far.

Novi will be the hub for two new freeways to be built starting in 1967. The Edward Jeffries freeway will begin in Novi and end at the Ambassador bridge. The second freeway will be I-275 a route that will by-pass Detroit and will run from Monroe to Novi. Completion date for the project is 1972.

Although President Johnson swept Novi and Wixom, Governor Romney took the two areas because of residents voting on a split ticket. In Wixom 84% of the voters turned out Tuesday while in Novi 81% of the electorate voted.

FIVE YEARS AGO

At Monday night's City Council meeting the council was presented with a petition signed by 237 women of Northville asking that a new supermarket be brought in to Northville, because they felt that the existing markets did not provide adequate facilities for the shopper. In addition the ladies lead by Mrs. Gordon Forner will send their petition to Kroger and A&P officials in Detroit.

Community General hospital is still open despite the fact that Mich. Blue Cross has withdrawn from the hospital. The hospital said that they will absorb the difference between the $14 per day charged under the plan and the actual charge to Blue Cross.

This week the City of Northville took possession of a new 10,000 gallon pumper. This will replace a converted oil truck that has been used by the fire department up to now.

Construction of a new subdivision in Novi is expected to begin next month. The area will be known as Meadowbrook Lake and will be located in the Northeast quadrant of Nine Mile and Meadowbrook roads. According to the developer the 100 acre tract will eventually contain 147 homes. The area derives its name from a 20 acre artificial lake.

NOVI WENT OVER ITS GOAL OF $1,800 IN HOUSE TO HOUSE COLLECTION FOR THIS YEAR'S TORCH DRIVE.

Mrs. George Merwin announced that this amount still doesn't include money still coming in.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Adult driver education courses will begin with an organizational meeting November 6 in the high school. The course will be taught by Harry B. Smith with the use of a 1950 Chevrolet furnished by Rathburn Chevrolet.

Mrs. Judith Lowe of the University of Chicago addressed the Women's business and Professional Club. Mrs. Lowe described conditions of health and living conditions in Europe.

Girl scouts in Northville celebrated Girl Scout Week with an exhibit of scouting programs in the window of Schrader's Furniture store.

Northville's Exchange club will offer taxi service and baby sitting service so that voters will be able to get to the polls.

Mrs. W. Leonard Howard of West Eight Mile road held a tea for about 100 ladies from Northville, Novi and Detroit.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The annual Red Cross membership drive started in Northville on Monday. It has been pointed out that half of the $1 membership fee is kept in the village and the other half is sent to aid in war relief effort in Europe.

Ex-Governor, Wilbur Brucker will be the featured speaker at the Armistice Day program sponsored by the American Legion. Brucker will speak at 11 a.m. in the theatre, the program begins at 10:30 a.m.

Edward J. Jeffries, mayor of Detroit, addressed new voters at a banquet attended by 300 people. Doing right to the best of your ability, Jeffries said, was the best criterion for citizenship.

Names of 200 men were drawn in Washington for the first draft call, for Northville and surrounding towns. According to Officials at Board 61 it is believed that these names will be sufficient to fill the first three draft calls. The first call is slated for November.

Percy Angrove, of Northville was elected vice-president of the National Society for Crippled Children Inc. at their convention in Asheville, North Carolina, last week.

While attending the convention last week he visited his daughter at Greenboro College, Greenboro, N.C. where she is a student.
