

School Eyes Ungraded Plan Study

Northville board of education explored some long-range educational aims and plans at its meeting Monday night after covering the regular agenda in record time.

In bringing up the matter of ungraded schools for Northville, Board Secretary Donald Lawrence asserted that he wanted to "assure the community that the board was not going full steam ahead without thorough study."

"We're exploring all the implications and are inclined but not committed," he added.

But Board President W. C. Becker disagreed.

Pointing out that an ungraded program will not come "all at once," Becker recalled that the board had gone on record with a statement of philosophy when it adopted the current budget that stated: "We propose to continue and accelerate the upgrading of our curriculum, adding depth to subject-matter content wherever possible, and, extending curriculum as facilities become available. We propose to re-orient our educational program toward the philosophy of an ungraded school organization (K-12) within a team-teaching concept stressing individualized instruction."

It was the suggestion of William Crump, board treasurer, that Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear be permitted "some free rein" in working out the plan. Spear said that the ungraded concept could be instituted in the new elementary school scheduled to open in the fall of 1966, with it being adapted the following year for the junior high from which it would "filter through to the high school."

Spear repeated that he hoped to have an in-service program to give credit and train teachers in the ungraded teaching concept. Amerman and Main street elementary could go into the program on a "phase basis," he felt.

Superintendent Alexander Nelson reported that the school administrators were interested in the progress of such plans, termed "continuous growth programs," in the Essexville and Harbor Beach school districts and planned to visit in those areas. He reported also that plans for a telephone-meeting conference with Florida authority Dr. Brown on ungraded schools were being made.

The board discussed the necessity for informing the public about its future educational plans and how best to arouse interest in — and understanding of — the new concepts.

On the regular agenda the board was informed that total game receipts for the 1965 football season were $5,044. It approved the contract of Miss Bonnie Humphrey, a teacher in English and French, to start the second semester.

Informed that Mayor Allen had requested the superintendent to meet Tuesday with him and road commission representatives regarding an alternate route of Novi road through Northville, the board instructed Nelson to support such a move as it was the "real answer" to traffic problems at Sheldon and Eight Mile roads near Amerman school.

The board voted to pay the $10 fee per school district to send Nelson and any board member able to attend to a MSBA-MASA labor relations workshop to be held in Plymouth November 30 by the Michigan School Board Association and the Michigan Association of School Administrators, in labor and negotiations.

The board also learned that it had been necessary to resubmit forms to the municipal finance office to conform to the office's request that the 1954 debt retirement, which the board had changed to 1957, to be resubmitted intact and then have application to change to 1957. The superintendent also reported that administrative procedure has been established requiring a minimum of three supervisory reports from each principal per week.

Board Repeats Action

Northville board of education Monday night acted unanimously to mend its public relations fences and to leave no doubt that it intends to conduct its business "in full compliance with the statutes and regulations of the state school code" as it passed a resolution that included the minutes of the special November 1 meeting at which Raymond Spear was made assistant superintendent and E. V. Ellison, administrative assistant.

The Northville Record pointed out in its November 11 edition that the board's November 1 meeting was an executive session and that any action taken was thereby illegal.

The board resolution read: "Whereas, some doubt had been created by The Northville Record to legality of actions taken by the board of education at the 1 November 1965 meeting, and; "Whereas, it is the sincere desire of the board of education, individually and collectively, to conduct itself truthfully and sincerely, in full compliance with the statutes and regulations of the state school code, with the best interests of the entire school district in mind as well as what is best for the boys and girls of the district, and;

"Whereas, it is not the intent of the board of education to create friction in the community or to encourage misunderstandings, but rather to foster good-will, mutual understanding and to conduct the district's business in good faith, and

"Now therefore be it resolved that the action taken by the board of education at the 1 November 1965 meeting be hereby ratified and confirmed in this regularly called meeting, and further be it resolved that the minutes of said meeting be read and attached to this resolution as a part of the resolution."

The Eight-Mile-road turkey farmer has been in the business for 37 years and started with just two birds, purchased only because "he liked turkey."

Churches Hail Day of Thanks

Before sitting down with their families to a traditional Thanksgiving dinner many area families will begin the holiday in churches holding special services.

Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated at 8:00 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Victory church by the Reverend John Wittstock. The collection taken up at the Mass by the Saint Vincent de Paul Society will be used for the needy of the parish. Father Wittstock said that the Thanksgiving collection which began last Sunday and continues through this Sunday will be shipped to the needy overseas.

"Give thanks unto the Lord! But how? And for what?" will be the theme for pastor Charles F. Boerger at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church. The senior choir will also present an anthem.

Services designed for music, Thanksgiving and prayer will be held at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the First Baptist church of Northville. The praise and prayer meet-

'Viet Mail Call' Urged Locally

There are some who believe U.S. fighting men in Vietnam enjoy the moral support of a majority of Americans despite sit-ins, lie-ins, teach-ins and tattered or burned draft cards.

They have an opportunity at this holiday season to show those servicemen that attention-getting demonstrations against the Viet war are not completely representative of the feelings of the folks back home.

A project called Mail Call Vietnam is underway which seeks to distribute thousands of greeting cards to G.I.'s on the front lines. Originated by a Pennsylvania housewife, it has been extended nationwide through several organizations.

And it has caught on here. Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond, 511 North Center, Northville, a past president of the Northville American Legion Auxiliary, is promoting Mail Call Vietnam.

She said that after hearing Mrs. Claire Chennault at the Northville

Town Hall Thursday she was impressed enough to follow-up of "Mail Call." Mrs. Chennault, a Voice of America radio personality, said that one thing civilians can do about Vietnam is to show their fighting menample support (See story on page 3).

By addressing a card to "Mail Call Vietnam, Box 450, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania," that type of support can be assured. Cards received from across the nation at that address will be re-addressed and mailed in bulk to distribution centers in Vietnam. There they will be guided into the hands of troops on the front.

Simply take a Christmas card write a little personal note of good wishes and encouragement include your name and address and place in a plain, unaddressed, unsealed envelope.

Place this in another envelope and address to Bryn Mawr. Mrs. Hammond suggests a simple note on the Christmas card: "We're behind you."

Long Awaited, Bells Now Chime On Schoolcraft College Campus

Friday was a big day on the campus of Schoolcraft Community College. Students, faculty, photographers, reporters, and interested visitors witnessed the placing of three large chiming bells in their niches of the bell tower.

The tower has become a trademark of the college, with its four white columns rising to a peak from a louvered brick base. Its 90-foot spire commands the campus from the lawn in front of the administration building.

But for two years it has been like a lighthouse without a light, for the chiming bells have been missing.

They were ordered in 1963 after being donated by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kemi, vice president of the National Bank of Detroit, Plymouth. The Kemi's gift amounted to $10,000, for three bells, weighing 1400, 700 and 300 pounds.

Made in England by the almost 565-year-old firm of the John Taylor Bell Foundry, they were shipped last year to New York City. A dock strike forced the bells on a return passage 9,000 miles across the ocean.

After the strike was settled the bells were again shipped to the New York port. Again misfortune struck. The bells were dropped during unloading and the biggest cracked. Back they were sent to John Taylor's.

The 1400-pounder was recast — and thus bears the marking '1965' while the smaller two are marked '1964'. All three are engraved "Schoolcraft College."

On the fourth voyage across the Atlantic they were successfully docked and transported to the Verdin Bell Foundry of Cincinnati, Ohio for installation of clappers and solenoids.

And Friday they arrived at the campus.

Installation was done by Max Campbell, contractor, under the supervision of a Verdin representative, as well as the watchful, apprehensive eyes of the students and faculty.

Dr. Eric J. Bradner, Schoolcraft president, said the bells may be heard in Northville when they chime the "quarters". The smaller bells strike a melody each quarter hour and are joined on the hour by the appropriate number of gongs from the 1400-pounder.

This hour gonging will be the signal for classes to change at Schoolcraft. The bells will be silenced in the evenings, said Bradner.

But these are not the only bells in the Schoolcraft tower. Reposing there, awaiting their more talented big brothers, have been four "Little Red Scowinouse" bells donated by the four school districts which originally comprised the Schoolcraft district — Plymouth, Livonia, Clarenceville and Garden City. Northville joined the district at a later date, but isn't represented by a bell.

These differently shaped bells hang lowest in the tower and are posted near the corners. Directly above them hangs the grand bell with the 700-pounder above it and the 300-pounder up at the peak.

Strangely enough the bell tower was not a part of the college's original planning, according to Dr. Bradner. It was an afterthought of the architect who realized that being an all-electric campus, a huge transformer would have to be positioned on the grounds.

Beauty had been a watchword in the design of the Schoolcraft buildings and it just would not do to have an ugly metal transformer defacing the landscape. The transformer is hidden by the base.

So the tower was conceived. A brick structure, loosely joined to form louvers between the bricks was constructed as the base. And the four square columns were raised to a common peak from its corners.

From this structure hang the Bells of Schoolcraft College.

BELLS ARRIVE—Three chiming bells were placed in the Schoolcraft college tower last week. Last to go up was the 1,400-pounder.

Juday Tickets on Sale Friday

Plans for the "Steve Juday Day" observance in Northville picked up steam this week as more details were finalized.

Juday, the Northville boy who has led Michigan State's football team to an undefeated season and number one ranking in the nation, will be honored here at a high school banquet on December 8.

It had been confirmed earlier that MSU Coach Duffy Daugherty would be principle speaker at the dinner program.

Two more outstanding Spartan gridgers have also been lined up to participate in the Juday tribute. Accompanying Steve from East Lansing will be his close friend and team co-captain Don Japinga.

Serving as master of ceremonies will be former MSU All-American and outstanding professional player, Norm Masters. Ticket sales will get underway this week with Dave Biery in charge. A limited number have been printed and sales will be on strictly first-come, first-serve basis.

Biery stated that tickets will be on sale beginning Friday at Manufacturers National Bank, Northville Drug, Northville Record, Northville Hardware and Detroit Federal Savings.

Like Juday, Japinga is a good student as well as fine athlete. And his hometown is even smaller than Steve's — it's tiny Wayland, population 2,019.

Although only 5'-7" and 160 pounds, Japinga is a stalwart in the Spartans' defensive backfield. He's also a fine runner and last year led the Big Ten in punt returns.

Masters played on two Michigan State Rose Bowl teams, 1954 and 1956. He attended State from 1952 until 1956 and was named All-American tackle in 1955.

Drafted as the number two pick by the Chicago Cardinals in the professional football draft, Master chose Canada instead and played one year for the British Columbia Lions. In 1957 he returned to the States and joined the Green Bay Packers. He was a member of the mighty Packer teams that won three Western Division titles and two world championships.

Masters remained with the Packers until this year, when he announced his retirement. He is now associated with the New England Mutual Life Insurance company and lives in Detroit, but is contemplating moving to Northville.

Mrs. Chennault Appeals For Firm Stand in Asia

"The firmer we stand in Asia the shorter time the war will last," predicted Anna Chennault, widow of the Flying Tigers' General Claire Chennault, to Northville's Town Hall audience Thursday.

Mrs. Chennault reported that she recently had returned from one of her frequent trips to the Far East and Southeast Asia, including Viet Nam, where she found citizens and soldiers "encouraged to know the American public is more aware of the situation."

Mrs. Chennault does a weekly broadcast for Voice of America in Southeast Asia and China for which she prepares her own scripts at the office she maintains in Washington, D.C. She also has an apartment in that city for herself and her daughters, Claire, 15, and Cynthia, 14.

"A little woman doing a big job," was the way Paul Williams, director of public affairs for stations WWJ and WWJ-TV, introduced Anna Chan Chennault. He said he had flown back from New York especially for the introduction because of his great admiration for General Chennault rating the Flying Tigers' help in the Far East as important as the air support given Britain. He had served as an air combat intelligence officer.

The best way to describe her husband, said Mrs. Chennault, was to relate Winston Churchill's comment the first time he saw the leader of the Flying Tigers and asked who he was: "What a face! I'm glad he's on our side."

Her talk, however, dwelt on her interest in the Far East. She requested those of her audience who asked at the celebrity luncheon about her life with the General to read her book, "A Thousand Springs."

As an American citizen, she said, she was trying to carry on her late husband's "unfinished business" in the Far East.

"The future of the free world is being determined now in Asia ... the real trouble is not Saigon but Peking," she declared, pointing out that the Communists are creating "a spiritual A bomb" with their campaign of "Asia for the Asian."

With 50 percent of the world's population behind an iron or bamboo curtain, she stressed, "We have to show firmness, as Communists respect only strength."

Interviewed about the use of her late husband's name as a John Birch supporter, Mrs. Chennault pointed out that at the time her husband knew John Birch there was no such movement and Birch was a very young intelligence officer in Asia when Chennault was in command there. She stressed that neither he nor she believed in any "extreme" movements.

Mrs. Chennault looked like a fashion model in her coral wool sheath and overjacket with matching satin piping, designed with an Oriental mandarin collar. She said she still designs for herself but lack of time had necessitated giving up her designing career.

In addition to working for the government in Voice of America, she writes newspaper columns for papers in Asia.

Asked what an American citizen can do to support anti-Communist action, she declared it the duty of everyone to find out facts, to guide young people seeking knowledge and to see that the government tells the public what we're doing in Asia.

The government, she said firmly, should tell our friends and allies to stop trading with Red China. She pointed out the importance of food to the Communists as their "lifeline."

She also encouraged letters to let soldiers know Americans in the United States know and care about what is going on in the Far East.

MRS. CLAIRE CHENNAULT, widow of the World War II leader of the famed Flying Tigers, reflects the seriousness with which she interpreted the situation in the Far East and Southeast Asia for Northville Town Hall last Thursday as she visits with Paul Williams, director of public affairs for WWJ and WWJ-TV who introduced her, and Mrs. Robert Lang, celebrity luncheon chairman of the day.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

AT THANKSGIVING and the harvest season we express appreciation for the yield of our land. One Northville-area resident has been capturing and preserving the beauty of the tiny flowers of the field, a modest-seeming yield that is turned into charming miniature pictures.

Mrs. John Begle, 41700 Nine Mile road, has combined deft fingers and an artistic eye into a hobby that is blooming into a career. For the tiny flowers she dries and uses for miniature pictures Mrs. Begle has collected as far away as the Rocky mountains while visiting a cousin in Denver. In fact, we first learned of her project through a feature in the Denver Post in September. Reporter Joanne Ditmer wrote:

"The flowers that bloom in the spring, summer and even the fall are the coveted treasures that Mrs. Begle of Northville, Michigan, collects."

"That is, if they're tiny enough. If they're big and beautiful Mrs. Begle will appreciate them (after all, she's a garden club president), but she doesn't collect them. The flowers she collects immediately are placed flat between newspapers. The dried flowers then are used to make exquisite miniature pictures

"Drying takes 10 to 14 days. For background Mrs. Begle uses white rice paper, or satin. Materials used to form the pictures are tweezers, manicure scissors and glue ... She uses small frames, ovals or circles, and ordinary glass. The non-glare glass, she decided, ruins the effect. 'I like my flower compositions to look like paintings,' she declared."

"The background and dried flowers are fitted over cardboard cut to fit, and placed in a frame. She then uses wall-paper to cover the back. Mrs. Begle started her miniature flower pictures just a year ago for her own pleasure, but now is selling them to three shops. It's a hobby anyone can start and the results are 'charming,' concluded Reporter Ditmer, adding, 'There's only one problem.' 'I used to come out here to look up at the mountains, and now I come out and look at the ground,' Mrs. Begle ruefully told her."

MARY BEGLE, who now is selling her miniatures to a few, selected shops and decorators, is encountering small problems of production, such as the scarcity of frames. She is using mostly European imports for which even husband John keeps a seeking eye out ... so that beauty can be framed.

FOR CHRISTMAS reading and literary gifting Northville Woman's club members and guests received suggestions last Friday from Mrs. Helen Williams of Rochester. "Space Child's Mother Goose", she said, makes an ideal gift for teenagers as it updates nursery rhymes to tickle modern funnybones.

For reading aloud, she suggested Dylan Thomas' "A Child's Christmas in Wales." In commending family reading aloud, Mrs. Williams declared that today "only the eye is feasting -- the ear is on a meager diet."

She also said she is most concerned about "lost laughter," feeling that joy, laughter and humor should be yields of reading together. She recommended and read from "American folktales of the Ozarks" as an example of rich American humor.

"He who laughs, last," she declared.

NORTHVILLE TOWN HALL goes last week received a verbal bouquet from the men in the audience. WWJ and WWJ-TV's director of public affairs Paul Williams, who confessed he'd spent the time before the program frankly "people watching", told the audience that he had never seen a more smartly attired group. And he was introducing Mrs. Claire Chennault who looked like the fashion designer she formerly was!

The Record's Editor Dennis Pajot also remarked upon the "dressy look" of the audience as theatre-goers entered in furs and HATS, from bright big ones to gleaming feather beauties.

THE GREENS ARE UP as downtown Northville is decked for the holiday season. If Santa asks me what I'd like for Christmas -- civily -- I'd beg for yellow lines in the parking lot behind the Methodist church and Center street stores. I'm convinced it could accommodate more cars if spaces were allocated.

School Tells Dates to Expect Report Cards

Second report cards of the current school year for Northville junior and senior high school students will be sent home with students December 10, LaGene Quay, assistant principal at Northville high school, announced this week. Occasionally, he said, parents have called to see when cards would be issued.

Junior and senior high report cards, he said, are scheduled for December 10 and February 4, March 18, May 6 and on or before June 20, 1966. He added that in the event a parent fails to receive his child's cards at these times he should feel free to call the principal's office at either the junior or senior high school.

Report cards will be issued in the elementary schools for the first time during the current school year January 10, 1966, according to Raymond Spear, assistant superintendent. A second parent-teacher conference is scheduled for March at elementary level, he reported. A second report card will be sent home May 2 with the final elementary card going out June 15.

Here's Chance To Call Overseas

An opportunity for area persons to speak with loved ones overseas at this Christmas time is being offered by the local chapter of the Communications Workers of America (CWA).

Local 4015, CWA, is sponsoring 10 three-minute calls from the Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, Livonia area.

Anyone desiring to make such a call is asked to write a 25-word letter to the project chairman or local president explaining why and giving reasons they should be allowed to do so. Letters must be mailed not later than December 10.

Project chairman Jim Fagan, 15886 Denby, Detroit, said that the letter is the only means they will have to go by selecting the limit of 10 calls from an expected avalanche of requests. Each call costs $15 to the sponsoring local.

It is a nationwide CWA project, but this is the first year the area local has participated, said president Gerald Greer, 600 Ross, Plymouth.

Fagan, who prompted the project, said that the local will assist anyone desiring to participate in a similar service provided by the American Red Cross also.

He pointed out that the Red Cross annually provides a "Soundscaper" record service by which persons can make and mail a 12 minute record to their overseas serviceman. There is no charge.

Nearest location at which these records can be made is the Red Cross offices at Five Mile and Merriman roads.

Referring to the Communications Workers' project of telephone calls, Fagan said that chances to book calls to Viet Nam are "remote" since appointment calls have already been booked through mid-January by the telephone companies.

Northville Players, P-TA To Present 'Chain of Jade'

For the second year the annual children's play sponsored by the Northville PTA will be presented by the Northville Players Guild, now in rehearsal for "Chain of Jade," to be given at 1 p.m. December 4 at the high school.

The presentation is a one-act musical, based on the story "The Stolen Prince" by Dan Totheroh. In addition to the story concerning a stolen Chinese prince, there will be an abundance of songs to keep a young audience interested.

In the cast are Bob Fisher as Long Fo; Linda Johnson as little sister, Wing Lee; Sharon Johnson, royal nurse; John Hyde, fisherman, HiTee; Donna Bissa, Li Mo, his wife; Jim Kleinsorge, Joy, the stolen prince; Edd Austin, Gene Stermer, soldiers; Jerry Burns, the executioner; Gino Farrar, the chorus; Gary Webb, "property man"; Martha Staff, Bill Yerkes, orchestra.

Dr. Hans Kolbe is directing the production with Rita Sprenger serving as technical director.

Gary Webb is stage manager, and June Gasser, properties.

Mrs. John Stuyvenberg, Jr., a member of the Plymouth branch, will open her home at 18101 Shadbrook. It is one of Northville's newer homes and is designed and decorated in Early American. Garden landscaping is planned around a swimming pool.

Other homes, which will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Plymouth area, belong to Mrs. James Gilbert, 10440 Warren road; Mrs. George Rowland, 10550 Warren road; Mrs. Bruce Richard, 9417 Ivanhoe drive; Mrs. E. G. Ott, Jr., 1440 Linden; Mrs. Howard Hill, 628 Evergreen; Mrs. A. D. Johnson, 11750 Turkey Run.

An eighth stop on the Walk will be the Mayflower hotel where the garden group will have a bake goods sale.

Plan Open House For Anniversary

An open house 25th Wedding Anniversary celebration will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bush, Farmington, Sunday, November 28.

The 2-6 p.m. open house will be at the West Bloomfield Township hall, 4460 Orchard Lake road.

Lifelong residents of the Novi-Farmington area, the Bushs lived on Haggerty road for over 20 years. The occasion of their 25th anniversary is being noted with this open house by their children, Kathleen, Paul and David.

To Give Recital

A Northville youth will give an organ recital Sunday in the First Methodist church of Wayne.

Sam Chizmar, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chizmar of Marlyn avenue, is an organ major at the University of Michigan.

He recently performed his bachelor's degree organ recital in Hill Auditorium, and is working on his master's degree at the university.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Rose Bowl, anyone?

So far the response to a proposed Northville charter flight to the Michigan State-UCLA Rose Bowl classic has brought just so-so reaction.

Thirty definite reservations have been made. Many other inquiries have been received, but most people are reluctant to decide until they know that charter arrangements are definitely complete.

It's impossible, of course, to complete arrangements without enough tentative reservations. And promoters of the charter flight indicate it requires 60 to 80 reservations.

The Rose Bowl charter idea came about as a natural companion to the "Steve Juday Day" celebration scheduled for December 8. The thought was advanced that it would be more fun and show solid Northville support for Juday and State if Northville fans could go to the game together.

And, incidentally, the round-trip charter saves quite a few dollars.

The proposed Rose Bowl charter offers a few sidelights in addition to the game.

It includes reserve seats to the famous Tournament of Roses Parade as well as the Rose Bowl game. Transportation to these events and back to excellent hotel accommodations is also included. In addition, there's a day at Disneyland tossed in.

Although definite plans cannot be made due to the uncertainty of the charter, the schedule would probably call for departure Thursday, December 30, a day for relaxation Friday, and parade and game Saturday and return on Sunday.

How's that for a long, pleasant week end?

Temperatures, by the way, will be in the mid-seventies.

Interested? Call FI 9-2021.

All hope is not lost for an alternate north-south route through Northville.

Community officials were scheduled to meet yesterday with Wayne County road commission representatives to discuss possibilities.

Mayor A. M. Allen arranged the session. He expected to have city, township, school and chamber of commerce representatives with him.

The local group is still insisting that the best way to relieve the funnel of traffic on Center street is to continue Novi road southward along the C & O railroad tracks until it joins with South Main street somewhere in the area of the Old Spring.

While county authorities have repeatedly said such a plan would be too expensive, local planners still think it's the best idea.

There's some hope that federal funds might be available to share the cost.

Officer's Character Important

To the Editor:

I am in accord with giving the police department, just pay for their services.

Let us reason together, that, because a policeman quits, is not in all cases the direct result of faulty wages. An individual should take advantage of an opportunity which will better himself, and I wish them much success, who takes this step.

A high paid police department helps to make the work more appreciated by them. The police department will strive more earnestly than before to protect the community, in which they serve.

As special deputy sheriff for a time, the writer was also a plant protection patrolman, for a large manufacturing concern for eight years.

It is my earnest conviction that a vast amount of years, chucked up to an individual experience as police officer, does not by necessity, qualify the latter to be chief, of the department.

A policeman should be hired and promoted according to his behavior, habits, conduct, ability, suitability, readiness to learn, honesty, integrity, etc.

Then after all this is said and done, overtime should be allowed in case of an urgent need. Additional permanent and temporary policemen will fill the bill as needed.

MODERN MATH

by Edward Marquardt

The definition of a set, and the understanding of what makes a set is very simple. The use of sets in mathematics begins in grade one and continues through senior high school and college.

What is a set? A set is a group of a particular kind, a specific collection which is clearly defined and identified. In the elementary school children learn what sets are by identifying them in familiar settings. For example, the children of each class are the set of pupils assigned to a particular room. Mother, father, brothers and sisters, are the members of the set which we identify as family. We speak of a set of dishes, a chess set, a set of encyclopedias. We identify sets with other words such as a herd of cattle, a flock of chickens, a pack of dogs or a battalion of soldiers.

It is impossible to give all details of this topic in the space available, but we will deal with some definitions, combinations, and applications of sets.

We may have a set which is empty. If we wished to identify the set of teachers in South Lyon Schools over seventy years of age we had none. If T represents teachers over seventy years of age we would write T equals () or T equals Ø. Such sets are called empty sets or null sets.

The ideas, objects, things, or quantities that make up a set are called the elements of the set. If set A is made up of (a,b,c) then A equals {a,b,c} and the elements of Set A are a,b,c.

Parts of sets are identified as subsets. We may identify set A as the set of all school children in grade one in room three of South Lyon Elementary School. We may also identify Set B as the set of all boys in that particular classroom. We may identify Set C as the set of all girls in room three, grade one. We may make other sets to identify the children seated in each row in that classroom. All of these smaller groups; only the boys, just the girls, just a certain row are subsets of Set A. We would describe these by writing or B C A. We would read this as "The set of boys in room 3 is a subset of the set of all pupils in grade one room 3. B is a subset of A and means that all members of B are also members of A."

(Boys of room 3) C (All pupils of room 3)

We can match, or pair the elements of two sets if each element of one set is paired with a single element of the other set. For example Set X is the set of all seats in a football stadium and Set Y is the set of all people needed to fill the seats in the stadium. We can match one seat from Set X with one person from Set Y. We would say we have put them in one-to-one correspondence.

If we have exactly as many people as we have seats in the stadium we have placed the elements of the two sets in one-to-one correspondence. We say the two sets are equivalent. We would write this as $X \sim Y$. Notice that equivalence is not the same as equality.

The important thing about sets is being able to recognize sets when they are used. Sets help children see the pattern and structure of mathematics. We deal first with familiar objects and this helps children advance and understand abstract mathematics.

At the sixth grade level children have problems such as:

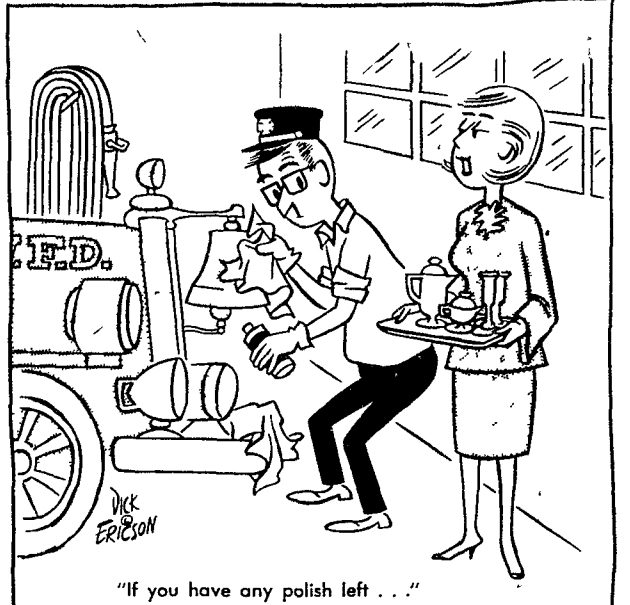

List the set of all odd numbers.
Answer: {1,3,5,7,9,...} infinite
List the set of all fractions equal to 1/2.

Answer {1/2, 2/4, 3/6, 4/8, 5/10, 6/12,...} infinite

The dots indicate that there is no final set element which would be the conclusion of the answer. Therefore the set is infinite.

Next time: Union of sets, and intersections.

Propose Rating Plan for Civil Service

LANSING — Evaluating job performance of state civil service employees will take a step toward efficiency if proposed changes are adopted.

Agencies involved, employee organizations and other interested parties have submitted suggestions to change the long-standing method of appraising work performance.

Previously, periodic ratings of all employees were required by the Civil Service Commission. Many complaints that this annual rating system is unwieldy, costly and of little value provoked the proposed changes.

SATISFACTORY work by an employee would be noted by a simple list from each agency under the recommended revision. Only in cases where a conditional or unsatisfactory service rating was indicated would a personnel officer of a department be required to fill out a full report.

Present rating policies would remain in effect for rating probationary employee. The probationary period is usually six months or one year. A full report, but geared to a new yardstick of efficiency, would be required in these cases.

WHY THE question over whether a state employee is performing? A study in 1963 of 26,971 annual ratings required showed 99.3 per cent indicated satisfactory work. Over 70 per cent of the reports did not contain sufficiently detailed comments on performance by supervisors to be of any value in trying to improve the work.

MORE THAN once the commission has been asked to abandon the rating system entirely, but this has been rejected.

Commission staff members feel the new system will provide more meaningful evaluations.

The new probationary rating forms have been pilot-tested in two state departments. The staff believes it will provide better ratings because it will be more detailed in nature and based on a job factor analysis established at the time of hiring.

LEGISLATIVE observers often hear a recurring refrain when regulatory measures are proposed. It goes: "Why bother? Even if we write the law we don't have the manpower to enforce it."

Sometimes this has proven true after enactment. Other times it is surprising to note what can be done with minimal manpower. The latter is aptly demonstrated by Michigan's local jail situation. A federal jail inspector said recently that collectively Michigan's jails are among the best in the nation.

LESS THAN 20 years ago, however, Michigan's jails included many prime nominees for a "before" example in a "Before and after" picture of detention facilities.

Then in 1950 the legislature adopted a law giving the Department of Corrections a strong hand in governing the operation of local jails. Since then 51 new county jails have been built in Michigan to help give this favorable impression to the federal inspector.

Even in 1950 some lawmakers likely wondered aloud what good the proposal would do if it could not be enforced. It has been enforced, and by essentially one man.

Yes, Michigan has only one official jail inspector. He spends most of his time throughout the year traveling the 83 counties checking compliance with the law.

With 15 years gone by the inspector's job is now becoming easier as more modern facilities are in use.

This single area of state government activity might provide a good object lesson of what a little manpower can do to make major improvements.

Education in Michigan will be headed by one of the state's highest paid administrators under the government reorganization established by the 1963 Constitution.

The new State Board of Education is nearing a decision on a man to fill the $30,000 a year appointive post of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

As the non-voting chairman of the State Board, the new administrator will be the top leader of Michigan's public school system. He will also be the board's spokesman in dealing with the various independent state colleges and universities.

Responsibility falling on the superintendent will involve every aspect of Michigan's official concern with education.

In addition to membership on the State Administrative Board, Municipal Finance Commission and a half-dozen other units, he will have budgetary responsibilities of great magnitude.

One of his chief functions will be to prepare the annual budget for education, from kindergarten through some university and adult education programs, and to defend it to the Governor's advisers and the legislative committees.

The new $30,000 salary design-nated for the superintendent still to be found is the same as that received by Michigan's Governor.

Government Tab Booms

BASON PARK, MASS. — Now and then there is a public blast about the ever-increasing costs of government jobs. But most of the time, up and up they go and nobody says a word. Political patronage and pressure groups appear much more powerful than the lowly voters at the grassroots level who are somehow lulled into apathy and inertia by the "bigness" of it all. But the voters should never forget that it is their taxes that pay government salaries.

The bigger a bureaucracy becomes, the more expensive it is. We now have expanding bureaucracies of one sort or another at federal, state, and municipal levels. It is the bright hope of political planners all up and down the line to do constantly more things for more people. That is the unmistakable direction being taken. Our citizens have proved at the polls that they support such a trend. So government costs are going to keep on going up at a good pace.

Since the recently adjourned Congressional session was more than generous with taxpayers' funds, this should be a good time to look hard at the realities of government spending. How rapidly is government personnel rising? How much of the rise is essential? How long are we going to be able to pay for the inevitable costs added by gains in employment? What are some of the ways that we at the grassroots may see to it that proposed new government jobs are actually necessary? How can costs be held within reasonable bounds?

Most political aspirants talk about balancing the budget. They usually say at one time or another that they intend to cut back government employment rolls. Then they get into office and these promises are forgotten—more often because of political pressures than through intentional deceit. Federal employment did manage to lighten somewhat in the past couple of years; but in the first two months of the current fiscal year totals rose by 42,000 more than had been originally planned for the whole twelve-month period!

It should be noted, too, that civilian employment at all government levels has just moved above the 10-million mark for the very first time. Naturally, some steady advance must be expected when we have swift economic expansion and when there is a great climb in the nation's population. But it certainly gives pause to find that one out of every seven civilian employees is getting paid from some government source or other. The ratio was only one out of 15 in 1929, and one out of ten in 1949. In fact, the number of government jobs has risen at a more rapid rate by far than the economy as a whole, the national population, and employment in lines other than government.

This all may seem very well while prosperity reigns. But what will the story be when an economic correction sets in? Then taxes will suddenly be a terrible burden, and our citizens will wonder whether all these government jobs, all this endless outlay for the operation of government, are necessary. We consider that now is the time for all of us to bring pressure to bear on politicians and planners for greater efficiency and economy throughout government. We must try every way possible to put an end to the mounting deficits, the up-soaring trend of debt.

We should insist upon efficient use of manpower in government, the elimination of unnecessary jobs and duplicated work. Some cities and states are marking progress in this direction, but it will take a real recession to hurry things up. Get behind your chambers of commerce and your boards of trade, your business organizations, your civic groups. Give them a real hand in pushing for tighter government personnel policies and in reducing basic operational costs. When savings are accomplished, it will be your money that will be saved, -- no matter how far away it may now seem from your pocketbook.

The Greater Society
Critics say that even President Johnson's "Great Society" has its faults; they are inbred. There is bound to be waste and corruption in administering it; the multitude of rules and regulations can be stifling; the delights of big planning and big spending will eventually turn to surfeit and nausea.

Too many of those who receive the blessings of this "Great Society" will lose out in terms of their own human greatness; they will lose their own initiative and self-reliance and perhaps their full freedom. And the whole body politic, the whole great structure of America's "Great Society" can not get out from under the shadow of destruction from war and nuclear devastation.

And yet all men of good will must do what they can toward building a safe, happy and prosperous world for all!

Let the Democrats, then, see how they may perfect the Johnson program; and let the Republicans see what constructive alternatives they may offer!

But God -- God has his own plans. God plans a greater society. It is the society he has begun in his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a society in which God is first and last, believed and honored by all. It has unlimited justice for all; there are no discriminations; no East or West, no black or white, no first-class citizens and no second-class citizens.

True and unselfish love, which is so utterly impossible for selfish, self-centered man, is granted as a divine endowment upon all members of God's greater society. And through God's indwelling Spirit, such genuine care for others is actually practiced by them!

Suffering becomes sanctified, and is finally replaced by complete health, youth, and eternal

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

We dare not forget that when our forefathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day they weren't at all sure that their meager harvest would be adequate to sustain the little community through a long hard winter. About all they could give God was thanks!

Gratitude for our blessings in time of abundance discovers a new dimension. We can become partners with the Almighty in His mighty aims.

For the very season in which Christians give thanks to their Lord is the season in which they plan their stewardship—their support of the Church's continuing work.

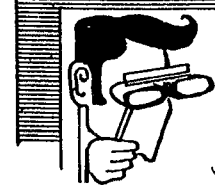

If you are a church member, demonstrate your thanksgiving in earnest commitment to your congregation's spiritual opportunity. If you are not a church member, express your thanksgiving by discovering your own spiritual opportunity.

Spiritual dedication is about the only life resource of which we do not have more than we absolutely need!

Cagers to Open Season Tuesday

One thing the Northville Mustangs will have this year is height and plenty of it on the front line. That is what Coach Dave Longridge hopes will carry his cagers to the Wayne-Oakland Conference title.

That's no easy pickings, not with class-A size schools, Bloomfield Hills and Clarkston on the prowl. Last year they finished one-two, with Northville coming in strong to cop third.

Fans won't have long to wait to assess the capabilities of the local cagers. Northville will square off against visiting South Lyon in the season opener here next Tuesday at 8 p.m., then swing into league play the following Friday here against Holly.

The Lions, winners of the Southeastern Conference championship last year, stack up as a solid, but none too potent team, due to losses through graduation. Gone is the starting five.

South Lyon Coach Bill Thomas, who had brought the Lions from the depths of basketball despair, has only three lettermen back in the fold. They are 6'1" Eric Liddell, 5'10" Mark Doecker, and 5'6" Jim Tate.

Although Liddell is the only veteran over six feet, the Lions do have the tall cagers capable of pulling off those rebounds in Alan Weamer at 6'3" and Don Deaton at 6'1", both of whom will get the call to hold off Northville's skyscraper forwards.

In the back court, Thomas could field two guards who stand six feet even. They are Larry Brown and George Bennett.

Backbone of the Northville attack is rugged football end and veteran center Jerry Inslund. When he's not bruising opponents under the boards, he's whipping the ball through the cords with a soft jumper from outside.

Coach Longridge has another strong rebounder in Forward Steve Evans, whose specialty on offense is a soft hook shot with either hand. It was he who led the Mustangs to a district title last year. That's when he came into his own.

Tallest of the tall is Mark Cushing, a 6'5" lean forward. As Longridge points out, if Cushing doesn't wither from the basketball pace and the energy eating mauling under the basket, he could be a much improved ball player this year.

Inslund, Evans and Cushing were instrumental in the Mustangs' post-Christmas flourish that saw them win their last 11 out of 13 ball games and push the leaders in the conference.

Turning point of the last season was the Christmas tourney held at River Rouge. There the Mustangs bumped into some tough competition, and while losing two out of three contests, it gave them the chance to get much needed experience.

Coming on fast this year in practice is Forward Glenn Delbert, who at 6'2" gives Longridge a good back up man up front. A junior, Delbert played with the JV's last year.

Surprise of the cage drills has been the performance of Doug Swiss, better known for his baseball and football exploits. Swiss, at 6' and a husky 185 pounds, gives Longridge an untied, but promising junior forward.

Letterman returning at forward is Mike Turnbull, a 6'1" scrapper. In Mike Hohenic, the Mustangs have a "dead-eye", whom Longridge intends to use should the opposition throw up a zone to contain his cagers.

Three guards are on the front firing line, vying for the starting berths. John Jameson, a letterman, admittedly has the edge if an injury suffered in football comes around in time. Jameson's specialty is a quick jump shot from the free throw area.

In Ron Asher, small at 5'8", Longridge has a ball player with quick moves. He uses them to good advantage on defense, but Longridge noted that Asher must convert on his drives to the basket.

One of the best rebounders on the team is 6-foot guard Jim Zayti, who, along with Delbert, moved up from the JV's this year. Zayti is a threat from the outside with a good shot.

Back of the top three contenders come three more cagers capable of flashing first string brilliance. Dave Boerger, who stands 6', is untested but steady in practice. "He's not afraid to mix it up," the Mustang mentor said.

Junior Pat Hall at 5'9" is a hustler. Nelson Hyatt, a transfer sophomore student, is working out with the varsity, but prep rules prohibit him from playing until the second semester. Longridge said that Hyatt has the moves, and just might surprise later in the season with his uncanny touch from the outside.

That's how the Mustangs shape up thus far. They'll be out to improve on last year's season mark of 13-9, and 9-5 in the league.

Two Gridders Honored

Two Mustangs were honored last week by being placed by league coaches on the Wayne-Oakland Conference first and second all-star teams.

Jerry Inslund, Northville's pass catching phenom, gained a first team berth and Quarterback Tom Baughman was selected to the second team. Together the two gridders broke every Northville passing record.

End Steve Evans, Guard Roger Kline and Halfback Mike Turnbull were given honorable mention. All are seniors except Kline, who is a junior.

Bloomfield Hills, W-O grid champ, placed four on the first team. They were End Dave Robillard, Center Joel Godfrey, Tackle Brian Marshall and Halfback Dick Kraatz. No other team had more than two on the first squad.

Holly landed two, Guard Jim Hanks and Halfback Mark Phalen, as did Milford with Tackle Chuck Andrews and Halfback Mike Yeager. Other members of the first squad were Guard Bob Brown of West Bloomfield and Quarterback Dan Fife of Clarkston.

Joining Baughman on the second eleven were Milford's Tackle John Griffin and Guard Bill McCracken, Clarkston's End Dave Osgood and Guard Paul Hoxie, Clarkston's Tackle Jim Prisk and Halfback Chris Hawkins, West Bloomfield's Center Steve Jarlitz, Bloomfield Hill's Halfback Randy D'Armette and Fullback Larry Flowers of Brighton.

Inslund gained another distinction Sunday. He was selected as an end on the first team of the Detroit News North-Central Area squad. Others chosen from the W-O League were Andrews, Fife, Phalen and Kraatz.

Matmen Short On Experience

A young Northville mat team, short on experience, will make its debut today when it journeys to Livonia to meet Bentley High school.

"We're green, so we'll probably take our lumps in the early going," said new Coach Jack Townsley, "but we can be tough later in the season. If we hang in there and work, we could be a good team," he added.

For the past three weeks, Townsley, who came here from Whitmore Lake, has been slugging up the 34 youths out for wrestling.

It's no new routine for him. Townsley started the sport at Whitmore Lake, and last year, his squad out scored Northville in the regionals by 20 points. Whitmore Lake has a school population of 130 as compared to the local high school's 850.

Townsley has picked his tentative starters, and among the 12 entries, nine are underclassmen.

Only six of them have seen previous varsity action. They are Chuck Keegan, and Bob Baber, 103 pounds; Marty Richardson, 120 pounds; Dennis Cook, 127 pounds; Dale Ashby 145 pounds, and Norm Dix, 133 pounds.

Although Townsley has his lineup set, he said he's still in need of big boys. "I was disappointed the turnout wasn't bigger," the new coach said, "but the boys now out have worked hard this far."

Northville will take on South Lyon here December 2 in the first home match.

Spirited Tony Mason Here for Grid Banquet

One of the most sought after football speakers will address a gathering of gridders and their fathers at the annual football banquet December 7 at the high school.

He's Tony Mason, offensive line coach at the University of Michigan and a previous high school coaching sensation in Ohio. Teams coached by Mason have won 87, lost only nine and tied seven.

Mason's coaching feats read like a "Who's Doing It" in football.

In his first year at the University of Michigan in 1964, Mason was credited by many with firing up the Wolverines to a fever pitch that gained them a Big Ten title and a victory in the Rose Bowl.

In his first coaching assignment at Brookfield high school, Brookfield, Ohio, his teams compiled a 28-game winning streak that included three straight undefeated seasons. Brookfield won 40, lost six and tied one under Mason.

But at Niles, Mason exceeded his previous coaching marks. McKinley high school whipped through four straight undefeated seasons during Mason's six-year tenure, winning 47, losing three and tying six.

The 1961 squad took just about every honor in sight. McKinley was named Ohio state football champ and second best in the nation, while Mason was voted Ohio's Coach of the Year. As such, he was selected head coach of the North squad all-star game played in Canton, Ohio.

McKinley repeated as Ohio's number one eleven in 1963, and copped second in the state in 1960 and 1962.

Mason, a native of Sharon, Pennsylvania, graduated from State College, Pennsylvania, and received his masters from Westminster college, also in Pennsylvania. He served in the Korean war with the 45th Infantry division.

One Family Takes All Grid Prizes

A single family walked off with all the prize money in the final football contest of the year.

The Joseph Kritch family of Northville topped all other entries and took first, second and third places for a total cash haul of $18.

The best entry was signed by the youngest member of the family, Eddie, age nine. His entry had five wrong. Eddie's mother, Mrs. Joseph Kritch of 860 Spring drive came in second with six wrong. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Kritch, Jr., of 429 Lake also mixed six, but didn't come as close on her prediction of the Lions-Bears game.

The Kritch family has always been closely associated with sports. Joe, Sr., is a former big league baseball scout and Joe, Jr., was an outstanding athlete at Northville high school.

The final week's contest had more than the average number of misses with the Michigan-Ohio State, Detroit-Chicago and New York Jet-Houston results producing the most errors.

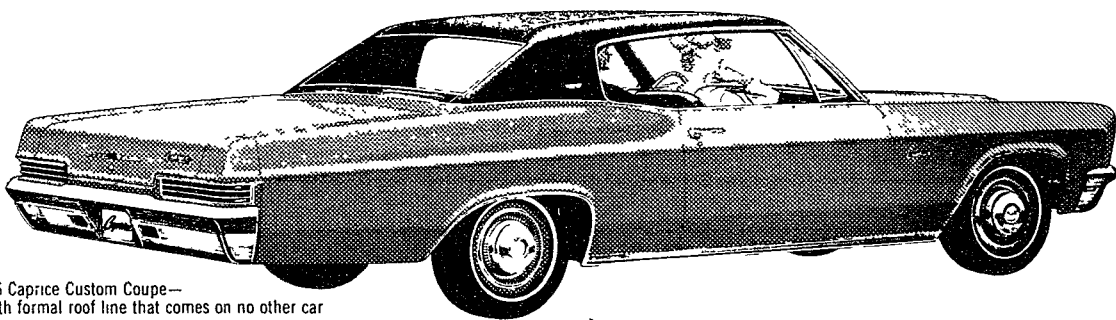

Correction

A number of students at the Main Street Elementary School also took part in the Red Cross project for Vietnamese children reported in last week's paper. They worked with the Junior Red Cross at the Junior High School. Amerman students did not participate in the project.

Mr. Robert Mallory
Mallory Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc.
Lilley Rd. (Mill St.) corner of Ann Arbor Rd.
Plymouth, Michigan

Dear Mr. Mallory:

I am compelled to write you this letter to inform you just how pleased I am with my 1966 Plymouth Fury III two-door hardtop with the four-speed transmission I purchased from you last week. In over 40 years of driving, this is the finest automobile...appearance, comfort, safety and operation that I have been privileged to drive.

It was also a great pleasure meeting service manager Harry Mowen. He gives me the feeling of utmost confidence in the service performance of your dealership.

Allow me to ask now about a service appointment to obtain the item you had advised me was missed by the factory upon delivery...the motor.

Love and kisses,

Grandma

P.S. You might also advise your customers of the other great advantage in buying those beautiful Plymouth and Chrysler cars from Mallory Chrysler-Plymouth...it ingratiates them with the Irish...and this is important...what with St. Patrick's day almost upon us!

It's a Wedding Present

"OUR BOSS JUST GOT MARRIED. SO WHILE HE'S ON HIS HONEYMOON WE HAVE REDUCED PRICES ON OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF USED CARS FOR A SELL-OUT THAT'S RIGHT, WHILE HE'S GONE WE WANT TO MOVE OUR ENTIRE STOCK. HE DOESN'T KNOW WE ARE DOING THIS SO COME JOIN IN THE FUN AND SAVE A HOPE CHEST FULL."

Members present: R. D. Merriam, Marguerite N. Young, Alex M. Lawrence, Wilson D. Tyler and James H. Tellam.

Consultants: Mr. Edward Draugelis and Mr. John Ashton, township attorneys.

Visitors: A few township residents, Mr. William McDermott, chairman of the Water & Sewer Commission and Mr. William Slinger of the Northville Record.

Consideration of minutes of regular meeting of October 5, 1965. Trustee Tyler asked that his quote under New Business, Item 1 be changed to read "his opposing vote was not in opposition to consideration to increase salaries and fees, but he thought the increase was a misappropriation of township funds because he felt that the facts and merits did not warrant the increase."

No further corrections, the minutes were approved.

Treasurer's report for the month of October 1965, was read and approved.

The following reports were reviewed: Office receipts for October 1965, $1,568.25; Water & Sewer Commission receipts for Oct. 1965, $3,719.66; Township bills payable, $7,216.93; Water & Sewer Commission bills payable, $6,483.58.

Trustee Tyler moved, supported by Tellam, the payment of the bills Ayes: all, motion carried. The building inspector's report was presented for review. No question.

Correspondence:

1. Letter from Marvin R. Stemple, State Representative, advising that all "No Hunting" legislation was held in the House Conservation Committee until next year.

2. Letter and program from Oakland University inviting all interested parties to a Congressional Conference on Community Growth on Nov. 10, 1965.

3. Letter and Resolution from Wayne County Road Commissioners advising that Edenderry drive would be closed from Seven Mile to Pickford Ave. from Oct. 19 to Dec. 17, 1965.

4. Letter from Senator Farrell E. Roberts advising the Legislature took no action with respect to Bill No. 2734 this fall.

Visitor Business: Supervisor Merriam advised the board that there would be a meeting of the Northville Township Water & Sewer Commission, Mr. Draugelis, Mr. Mosher and Mr. James Littell and Mr. Joe Skwiercz on Thursday, November 4, 1965, to discuss the proposed Seven Mile road sewer installation.

Old Business:

1. Sewer tap charge for community buildings. No action.

2. Garbage & Rubbish Ordinance discussed. No action.

3. Appointment of Water & Sewer Superintendent.

Mr. McDermott, chairman of the Water & Sewer Commission had presented the board members with a four page detailed report of the duties of a water and sewer superintendent which had been compiled by the commission. This report was discussed at some length with no decision being reached.

Trustee Tellam moved, supported by Trustee Tyler, that the matter be tabled. Ayes: Tellam and Tyler. Nays: Lawrence, Young, and Merriam. Motion not carried.

Supervisor Merriam stated that since he had heard no motion for appointment of a superintendent for the Water & Sewer Dept., the matter would be held over.

4. Procedure Policy.

Trustee Tyler read part of his outline on a Procedures Policy Manual which had been presented to the board for study, asking Mr. Draugelis for his opinion as to the legality. Mr. Draugelis advised the board that what Trustee Tyler was discussing was clearly a policy matter for the board to decide. In his opinion the board could adopt such a Policy Manual but it would not be binding on any future board.

After further discussion, Trustee Tellam suggested that board members look over Mr. Wilson Tyler's outline again and the clerk place it on the December meeting agenda for further discussion. Agreed.

New Business:

1. Appointment to Planning Commission (3 yr. term) After discussion, it was decided that this matter be given up at the December meeting, allowing members to present recommended appointees.

2. Drain tax for M-73 B Middle Rouge Installation and S-16 Sly Drain maintenance. Supervisor Merriam asked the board to consider taking over this drain maintenance tax instead of spreading it on the tax roll inasmuch as a number of citizens who pay $2 and $3 each year are not served by these drains anymore due to the building in the township.

Trustee Tyler moved that the M-73B Middle Rouge Interceptor Tax and the S-16 Sly Drain maintenance fee NOT be spread on the tax roll for 1965 and in the future be paid out of Water and Sewer Commission funds. Trustee Tellam seconded. Ayes: all. Motion carried.

3. Consider black topping Main street Hill from Clement road to Woodhill road. Supervisor Merriam informed the board that due to the difficulty encountered in maintaining this Main street hill, he had talked to the Wayne County Road Commission about widening and black topping this section. The cost of 1400 feet at $5.00 a foot of black top 22 feet wide would be in the neighborhood of $7,000. The road commission would pay one-half so the cost to the township would be $3500 and he recommended that the board give this matter serious consideration.

There was general discussion, Supervisor Merriam stating that the board did not have to make a decision at once but suggested that they not wait too long as Wayne County Road Commission monies might not be forthcoming later on.

Decision reached - Place question on December agenda.

4. Plymouth Township proposal on building inspection. Supervisor Merriam advised the board that the Plymouth township supervisor had approached him on the two townships sharing a full time plumbing and heating inspector, Plymouth township to pay 2/3rds of his salary and Northville township 1/3rd and at the end of the fiscal year, the percentage of inspection made would be considered and an adjustment made. There was also a possibility that Northville township might lose their present electrical inspector. When questioned as to cost, he advised that Plymouth township had stated they would pay a maximum of $9,000 per year. It was decided that Supervisor Merriam should continue to explore the situation.

5. Livonia Annexation.

Supervisor Merriam informed the board that the Mayor of Livonia had approached him asking that Livonia be allowed to annex a small section of the southeast corner of Northville township. The section in question is the Wil-O-Mac Putting Course and one of the owners is a Livonia Council member. This section would be removed from Northville township when the I-275 expressway is built and therefore would not be a tax loss to Northville township. The reason stated for the request - allow Livonia to have a new census taken since their population has grown from 60,000 to 90,000 since 1960 and a change in boundary lines would allow this. Mr. Merriam further stated he had advised the Mayor that he would present the matter to the Northville Twp. board but he would not consider it himself unless he had the State Highway Survey showing the actual line of the annexation.

General discussion. No action, but consensus was that Livonia's attorney should contact Northville township's attorney to discuss the matter more thoroughly.

6. Trustee Tellam asked to have James Conway's request for a stop sign at Clement and Bloomcrest road be checked into again. Supervisor Merriam said he would contact the Wayne County road commission again regarding the matter.

No further business, Tellam moved for adjournment. Meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m. Marguerite N. Young, Clerk

Postmaster Gives Tips For Christmas Mailing

"Last Christmas the post office handled more mail than ever before, yet the operation was the most efficient in history," Northville Postmaster John Steimel said this week. Nationally about 99 per cent of the Christmas mail reached its destination before Christmas Eve.

"ZIP Code use and the cooperation of the public in mailing early were the main reasons for our success. With the same or better cooperation this year, we expect to handle an even greater volume of mail with less effort than during the 1964 Christmas rush."

Steimel had advice which would help mailers prepare for the upcoming mailing season.

A - Up date last year's address list and include ZIP codes. The phone book is usually a good source for local addresses.

B - Prepare a gift list as soon as possible. Shop early to take advantage of full stocks. Be sure to have on hand enough shipping materials; boxes, tape, wrapping paper, etc.

C - Use first class postage on greeting cards. This assures their being forwarded if the recipient has moved or that undeliverable cards will be returned if a return address is on the envelope.

The postmaster emphasized again this year that poorly wrapped and loosely packed cartons are the major cause of parcel post damage. He urged that cartons be packed tightly by using stuffing material to fill up the empty space around the merchandise. He also asked that all mailers make an effort to address their letters, cards and packages as clearly as possible and that they make every attempt to mail often, not waiting until the last minute to deposit all their gifts and greetings.

Poole Smith as winners of the contest which awarded prizes to the hunters who brought the largest pheasant tail feather to the Smith Sport Shop in Northville. Gurney's feather was 23½" long and gained him $10 in merchandise. Second place was taken by Beason's feather which was 21¾" long.

JUSTICE COURT

In the court of Justice of the Peace Emery Jacques three trials were held for offenses committed in September and October.

Arlie E. Johnson, 48, Union Lake was fined $125 on two charges. He paid $100 for driving under the influence of liquor and $25 for aiding and abetting minors by keeping them out after curfew on October 21.

Ray Sparks, 35, 26470 Novi road was ordered to pay $65 on a charge of reckless driving. Novi police issued the violation to Sparks on September 29.

Lawrence E. Riha, 20, Dearborn, paid $50 for being a minor in possession of beer. Novi police issued the violation on October 31 when they stopped to help Riha with a flat tire and discovered unopened beer in the car.

Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson sentenced Robert E. Cherry 24, Milford, to ten days in Oakland County Jail for excessive noise caused by a faulty muffler on the car.

Anderson in other action fined Arthur A. Irwin, 50, Orchard Lake $50 for reckless driving and $50 for failing to report an accident last month.

Correction

It was incorrectly stated in last week's issue that Eastlawn Convalescent home is located in Novi. Actually it is a long-established Northville home situated near the high school.

Charge Man With Exposure

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of a 22-year-old Northville man on charges of indecent exposure.

The complaint was signed Tuesday by the father of an 11-year-old girl who reported that his daughter and another girl observed the man exposing himself in the window of his home as they were walking along West Main street.

The suspect is scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Charles McDonald.

Police Chief David LaFond said the girls reported having seen the man expose himself on previous occasions.

Chief LaFond said that investigation to date indicates that the suspect in this case is not the same man sought on earlier charges of exposure throughout the community nearly one year ago.

While Hunting

J.P. "Pat" Malley Succumbs at 69

A heart attack while deer hunting apparently took the life of John Patrick Malley, 69, a former Northville resident, near his home at Indian River last Friday.

An architect-engineer, Mr. Malley and his wife Frances had lived at 21633 Beck road, Northville, until last June. Until selling his home here, Mr. Malley commuted for a few years between Northville and Indian River where he was in a pre-fab cabin construction business. He came to Northville in 1947.

Funeral services were set for 3 p.m. Tuesday from Casterline Funeral home with the Reverend George Jerome officiating. Interment was to be in Rural Hill cemetery.

Mr. Malley was a life member of Northville Optimist club, a charter member of Oakland County Kennel club and a member of First Congregational church Port Huron. In addition to his wife he leaves a daughter, Mrs. DeWitt Davis, Jr., of Grosse Pointe. He was born March 7, 1896, at Syracuse, New York, the son of John Malley.

Old 'Grit' Recalls 1910

Thanksgiving turkey 55 years ago was a "big" item on the presidential dinner table with President Taft one of the country's most active supporters of the traditional New England dinner, complete with cranberries and pie.

A copy of Grit newspaper for November 20, 1910, bears the headline, "Cranberries for King Turkey" and goes on to report that President Taft and his family would be dining on the pride of Turkeyman Vose's flock, a turkey weighing between 40 and 50 pounds.

The copy of Grit, a newspaper still being published in Pennsylvania, was rescued this fall by Northville Councilwoman, Beatrice Carlson when she had some remodeling done at her home. The newspaper had been used for under-window insulation.

The paper reported that President Taft was one of the "biggest buyers in the Washington market" as he presented gift turkeys to all married male employees at the White House. Besides sons Charlie and Robert, who were home from school, the presidential dinner party included nieces and nephews.

Art work on the Feast Day issue included a cartoon "Thanksgiving Story Without Words"—from egg to wishbone.

Other headlines in the 55-year old issue were "U.S. and Mexico Will Settle Peacefully" with a view of Guadalupe, Mexico and a warning (which Mrs. Carlson points out was 31 years early) that "Japs Plan to Whip US." Henry Rogers, son of a Standard Oil magnate, was reported making the prediction after a European tour. It also was predicted that the Japs would win.

Postman Returns Object from Sky

No Chicken Little is Fred J. Hicks, Northville Post Office rural carrier.

Remember that childhood storybook character who got all of his friends alarmed by jumping to conclusions with his, "The Sky is falling in?"

Hicks had occasion to witness an event Thursday which might have triggered Chicken Little. He had just stopped for lunch near Brae Burn golf course on West Five Mile road when a passing Navy helicopter loosed a piece of equipment. It fell about 100 yards away near the road on the golf course, said Hicks.

Although he was puzzled, he finished his lunch; then walked over to take a look. About that time the helicopter returned. It had lost its emergency escape hatch, an aluminum door about four feet by 2 1/2 feet square.

"I waved my arms, but I guess they didn't see me, and 'copter continued on, said Hicks. "Then he came back and this time I picked up the hatch and tried to use it as a mirror to gain the crew's attention. But still they didn't see me and went on by."

Then, said Hicks, the 'copter began a criss-cross course back along their original route, obviously seeking their hatch.

"At this point I began using my 'mirror' by starting the reflection on a bush and moving it upward and over. The 'copter suddenly made straight for me, circled and landed in some brush. A crewman got out and retrieved the hatch."
