

Father Suffers Heart Attack

A heart attack suffered by Richard Juday, a former Northville city councilman, has prompted planners of the "Steve Juday Day" recognition dinner to postpone the event from December 8 to Tuesday, January 25.

The senior Juday, whose son quarterbacked Michigan State to an undefeated season and a Rose Bowl appearance, was stricken Monday, November 22 in Traverse City.

His condition is reported as improved, but he must remain in the hospital.

New Honors For Steve

A host of honors have befallen Northville's Steve Juday in recent weeks.

The popular Spartan quarterback will receive the "college-scholar-athlete award" for 1965 at the fifth annual awards banquet of the Detroit Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame tonight at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

Guest speaker will be the Honorable Gerald Ford, Michigan congressman and member of the 1932-33-34 U of M football teams.

A host of former All Americans will attend as special guests at the banquet.

Next Tuesday evening, December 7, Steve will be one of eight college scholar-athletes from throughout the nation to be honored at the national Hall of Fame banquet at New York City.

(Speaking for The Record interviews Steve on page 6B).

Traverse City Osteopathic hospital for another two weeks. He cannot receive visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Juday had gone to Traverse City Sunday, November 21 for deer hunting. They were scheduled to be joined by their three sons, Bill, Steve and Jim.

Monday Juday went to the hospital for a check-up. He had not been feeling well and had intended to visit a friend who is a physician in Traverse City. After leaving the hospital Juday became ill and was rushed back to the hospital in an ambulance. He remained under oxygen for four days.

Mrs. Juday is staying in Traverse City and all three boys have visited their dad.

Steve said Monday that he was sure the postponement would help ease his father's concern. The senior Juday is naturally disappointed that he cannot attend the Rose Bowl and the numerous other programs at which Steve is receiving honors.

Hopefully, he will be able to attend the Northville banquet.

Program Chairman Essie Niderer said that tickets will remain on sale, and only the date is changed. Spartan Coach Duffy Daugherty will be the principle speaker, Norm Masters the master of ceremonies and Steve's fellow co-captain at MSU, Don Japenga, will appear as previously planned.

Tickets sales are being chairmaned by Dave Biery. They're available at Manufacturers National Bank, Northville Drug, Northville Record, Northville Hardware and Detroit Federal Savings and Loan.

It's School, County Tax Collection Time

Nearly 4,000 tax notices will find their way into city and township homes and business places this week and next.

The annual "winter tax" includes levies on real and personal property for school, county, community college and township support.

Winter taxes are payable beginning December 1. Township notices have already been mailed, while city tax bills were scheduled to be mailed today.

The total levy for school and county in the city is $511,430.08, compared to $467,403.02 in 1964.

Of this total Wayne county property owners of the city will pay $376,192.70 and Oakland county taxpayers $135,237.38.

The total levy in the Wayne county portion of the city is 41.40 mills, as levied as the assessed valuation. The school district receives 30.86 mills of this total, while the county and community college receive 9.35 and 1.19 mills, respectively.

Oakland county residents pay a slightly lower total, 39.74 mills, chiefly because of a lower county tax rate.

Northville's school tax rate is up some 2.3 mills this year. The debt retirement total was raised to the seven mill limit (a hike of 1.3 mills) to provide for the current school building program. Another mill was gained for operating expenses from the 15-mill limitation due to a provision in the new state constitution.

Township Treasurer Alex Lawrence has some 1,900 tax bills to collect. His total levy is $567,764 compared to $502,620 last year.

The township tax rate is 42.20 mills this year compared to 40.42 last year. In addition to the same school, county and college tax paid in the city, township residents pay a one mill township tax.

City residents pay taxes to the city government in the summer, a levy of $12.50 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

Deadline for payment of winter taxes varies in the city and township. City residents may pay their tax bills at the city hall without penalty until mid-February (the exact date is set by the city council).

Township residents have until the end of February. Bills may be paid by mail, at the Northville office of Manufacturers National Bank during regular banking hours, or directly to the treasurer Tuesday and Friday afternoons in the bank beginning December 7.

Oppose Randolph Assessment

Residents to Submit Petitions at Hearing

Northville city councilmen can expect opposition Monday night when they conduct a public hearing for Randolph street improvements.

Monday night's meeting is the first hearing called on the improvement project that would pave, install curbs and gutters, make culvert repairs, widen the road and remove the curve at the western end of Randolph where it joins Eight Mile road.

Specifically, the residents will protest the 25 per cent assessment on the basis that the road is now satisfactory for residential use and that "rehabilitation" is necessary only because of excessive use of the street as a main thoroughfare.

Mrs. Paul Steencken, 562 Randolph, who acted as a spokesman for residents of the street when an apartment project was opposed recently, said that a petition would be presented Monday night with signatures of a majority of the property owners on Randolph.

It will state that the property owners oppose an assessment to rehabilitate the street.

Recent traffic counts show that an average of 2400 vehicles travel Randolph on a week day.

City Manager Roger Rehberg estimated that about $18,250 of the total estimated cost of $122,500 for the Randolph improvement project would be assessed against abutting property owners on a front-foot basis.

He pointed out in his recent report to the council that the street would require concrete and should be 33-feet wide because of its heavy use. But he recommended that assessments against property owners be based on a normal 30-foot, asphalt paved road, as is the custom in other residential areas of the city.

The city council had planned to improve Randolph early next spring with advertisements for bids scheduled soon after January 1 to take advantage of off-season bidding.

The project is closely related to the proposed extension of water and sewer facilities on Eight Mile road to the new Thompson-Brown project at Eight Mile and Taft and as far west as Beck road.

Councilmen are still studying the possibility of water and sewer service to the proposed new elementary school on Eight Mile road across from Northville Estates. Sewer lines to this area would run beneath Randolph for a short distance and would therefore be installed prior to any paving improvements.

He's making a list and checking it twice! See more pictures and story of Northville's Santa Workshop on Page 3A.

Experts Take Second Look At Area Site for Atom Plant

Major interest focuses on a Northfield township site near Whitmore Lake and South Lyon for placement of a proposed National Accelerator Laboratory of gigantic proportions.

The Northfield township site is one of 85 which survived a preliminary "paperwork" elimination and remains in contention along with another Michigan site at Fort Custer near Battle Creek.

The $300 million facility has been proposed by the Federal Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) and competition for it has been great with 200 sites in 46 states have been proffered.

The 3,840-acre tract near South Lyon has distinct advantages, both technically and politically.

It has a flat, solid terrain which offers ideal conditions for an immense three-mile oval grounds with a one-mile primary underground laboratory. It is located ideally near the vast research facilities of the University of Michigan and Ann Arbor, jet transportation at Metropolitan airport and Detroit's excellent industrial facilities and know-how.

Politically Michigan has the advantage of being in an area which thus far has not been favored with a major federal scientific plum. Also, the Northfield site has the only congressman with a scientific background, Western Vivian of the second congressional district, going for it.

A team of experts composed of AEC investigators, U-M staff members and representatives of local governments toured the site by bus Monday. This inspection is being made of all 85 remaining competing sites as a preliminary to a second elimination process. The top 15 sites will be submitted to the Joint Atomic Energy Committee of congress prior to final selection. A man very intimately concerned with the possibility of a 200 billion electron volt atomic accelerator being planted in his backyard accompanied the tourers Monday. That was Northfield Township Supervisor Peter S. Kelley.

He was best able to point out the environmental features of the

Rezoning on Novi Road Sought for Development

A Northville merchant Monday night requested rezoning of a 24-acre Novi site to allow development of a professional center, service-type commercial businesses and light manufacturing which would serve both communities.

Charles Lapham, proprietor of Lapham's Men's Wear in Northville, asked the Novi planning commission to grant rezoning to C2 and M2 of a parcel on Novi road immediately north of the new Guernsey Farms dairy facility and just across Novi road from Northville's city limits.

He explained that the three-acres adjacent to the dairy is planned for a professional center. The Novi road frontage for about 1300 feet further north and about 350 rearward from the road center will be platted for service businesses, and the remainder abutting the Chesapeake and Ohio railway will be designated for industrial use, according to his presentation.

Lapham told the planners that he felt the professional center and service businesses would be beneficial to Northville especially, in view of a need for that type of enterprises. He and a portion of the planning board argued with Planning Consultant Waldemar Johnson, after Johnson gave his opinion that complete industrial development would be more beneficial for the area in question.

Johnson contended that industry would present less problem with traffic on Novi road and would be less subject to future blight as has been experienced by many metropolitan commercial "strips."

Lapham said that he considers the area to be in the only feasible direction business has to go from Northville - other directions being practically "sewn up" by residential and industrial developments.

The outcome of the proposal will become known after a public hearing which Novi planners scheduled for Monday, December 27 at 8 p.m. in the Novi Village Hall.

 Three other rezoning requests were submitted this week also, and schedule for public hearing on the same December date.

Two of the requests were related in terms of proposed usage although they were submitted separately by respective property owners.

James N. Erwin of South Lyon and Lionel Silverman, industrialist, with another owner's permission, requested M2-light manufacturing rezoning of 40 acres each - adjoining - to allow erection of offices and a cleaning compound factory.

The property is located in the northeast corner of Taft and 12 Mile roads. It is adjacent to present M3 zoned acreage westward across Taft road. It extends approximately three-quarters of a mile northward along Taft in an agriculturally zoned area. Novi's master plan allows industrial use of the tract.

One of Novi's largest currently expanding industries may be responsible for attracting another, it was revealed in still another rezoning request submitted this week and scheduled for the December public hearing.

A major supplier of the Michigan Tractor Corporation plant addition on Novi road, LeClerc Industries, Incorporated, fabricators of pre-stressed concrete materials for bridges and buildings, seeks an 8.6 acre site.

With the property owner's consent, George LeClerc requested rezoning to M3-heavy manufacturing a tract along the west side of the C and O railway south of Nine Mile road and in close proximity to the Lapham tract.

LeClerc told the planners that continuing customers in this area and a need for expansion have prompted his 46-year-old Centerville company to look to Novi.

For Novi Officer

Death Ends Retirement Plans

Last week Detective Sergeant Vernon C. Loeffler of the Novi police department was pictured on the front page of The Novi News receiving a retirement gift. A party was held November 19 at the Novi village hall to celebrate Loeffler's retirement. He had been on the force nearly 21 years. One week prior to his retirement he had been promoted from Detective Sergeant to Lieutenant.

Because he had had heart trouble, Loeffler was retiring to an easier life in Florida.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 1 for the well-liked officer.

Loeffler, 55, was stricken Saturday evening at his home and was rushed to St. Mary's hospital in Livonia, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

From 1945 to 1955 Loeffler served as Novi township constable. He was one of the first three policemen to be hired by the Novi village police department when it was formed in 1955.

Born in Dexter, Michigan on January 17, 1910, he was the son of John C. and Mathilda Elfring Loeffler. He moved to Novi 28 years ago and resided at 45382 West road. He is survived by his wife, Dorothy; his mother, also of Novi; a daughter, Mrs. Fred Lapham, and a son, Lorne Loeffler, both of Walled Lake; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist church of Novi with the Reverend Paul E. Barnes officiating. Arrangements were handled by the Casterline Funeral Home. Interment was at Oakland Hills cemetery.

Vernon C. Loeffler Retirement was short-lived.

Jaycees Promote Armed Forces Day

Northville's Jaycees are urging local businesses and residents to display flags December 7 as a sign of appreciation for what the nation's servicemen are doing in defense of freedom.

"It is also hoped that all individuals will take it upon themselves to write persons in the military and express thanks for what is being done," Jaycee Richard Norton said. Letters can also be written to President Johnson expressing personal appreciation for our armed forces, the Jaycees' proposal points out.

Mayor A. M. Allen has officially proclaimed December 7 as "Armed Forces Appreciation Day" in Northville.

In another move to show appreciation for our armed forces Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond launched a local campaign last week to join the "Mail Call Vietnam" effort. This is a nationwide effort to mail thousands of greeting cards to soldiers fighting in Vietnam.

Cards should be addressed to "Mail Call Vietnam", Box 450, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania.

Curtain Up Saturday On 'Chain of Jade'

Tickets will go on sale at Northville Junior high and both elementary schools today for the PTA children's play, "Chain of Jade," to be given at 1 p.m. Saturday in the high school auditorium.

Tickets will be sold before school both today and Friday and at the door before the play Saturday. Mother volunteers from the elementary PTAs are selling the tickets. They will be available at the junior high office. Tickets are 45 cents for children and 75 cents for adults this year.

PTA drama committee co-chairmen Mrs. Addison Kline and Mrs. Betty Sellers from the elementary schools remind parents that last year's production was a sell-out and that tickets can be sold only to auditorium capacity. They advise buying in advance at the schools.

The play, a one-act musical based on the story "The Stolen Prince" by Dan Totheroh, is being presented by the Northville Players Guild, who also presented last winter's PTA play.

The play is written in the style of the classic Chinese theater with a one-man chorus who speaks directly to the audience. There also is an indolent property man who is obliged to impersonate a duck and an onstage orchestra clanging cymbals and beating on drums.

The story concerns a prince—Joy—stolen at birth and raised by a poor-but-honest fisherman, his wife and their little duck. In a bad season, facing starvation, the duck steals the Emperor's sacred Scarlet Fish. He is captured and the family is taken to the palace to be executed. There Joy's true identity is discovered. He is reunited with his real father, the Emperor, and the poor fisherman is rewarded.

The lyrics of David Rogers and the music of Mark Buccell spark the story with songs, such as "Honorable Audience," "Chain of Jade" and "Poor but Honest Fisherman."

Joy, the stolen prince, is played by Jim Kleinsorge, HiTee, the poor fisherman, is by John Hyde with Donna Bissa playing his wife, LiMo. Others in the cast are Bob Fisher, Long Fo, little son of the royal cook; Linda Johnson, Wing Lee, his little sister; Sharon Johnson, royal nurse; Edd Austin and Gene Stermer, soldiers; Jerry Burns, executioner; Gino Farrah, chorus; Gary Webb, property man; Martha Staff and Bill Yerkes, the orchestra.

Dr. Hans Kolbe is play director.

'CHAIN OF JADE'—PTA children's play to be presented at 1 p.m. Saturday in Northville high school auditorium by Northville Players Guild—reaches a climactic moment as executioner Jerry Burns (left) is stopped from executing Joy, the stolen prince, played by Jim Kleinsorge, by Edd Austin, a soldier. Tickets for the musical are on sale at the elementary and junior high schools today and Friday and will be sold at the door to capacity.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

IT'S DECEMBER -- and the "festive board" is set in Northville as the hospitality season opens. One of the first to have invitations in the mail for a Christmas coffee was Mrs. William McDermott whose green Christmas tree invitations brought friends to her home at 46126 Pickford court Wednesday morning.

This Friday Mrs. Alfred C. Parmenter and Mrs. Edwin R. Langtry are co-hosting a holiday coffee at the latter's home at 712 Thayer boulevard. About 50 guests have been invited to drop by from 10 a.m. on. Mrs. Parmenter and Mrs. Langtry also will be hostesses at a Christmas luncheon December 10 at the Round Table club in Plymouth where 16 guests will be entertained.

Mrs. R. T. Martin is inviting friends to a Christmas coffee at her home at 20173 Whipple drive next Tuesday morning. Sons Rick and Frank have returned to their schools after being home for the traditional Thanksgiving celebration.

Rick has returned to his studies at Bradley university in Peoria, Illinois, and Frank and his houseguest, Guy Neff, have gone back to Cranbrook. Neff's parents currently are in Colombia, South America.

SHIMMERING GOLD and white are the colors of Christmas at the West Fonner court home of Mrs. Edwin E. Mueller. Mrs. Mueller's tree is known for its jeweled beauty as she personally has created each velvet-bowed ornament of be-sequined and jeweled egg shells or satin balls. All will be hung carefully on a long-needle pine tree by Sunday, December 19.

On that date she will give her traditional birthday dinner for sons Jan, whose birthday is December 20, and Keith, whose birthday falls on December 23.

NORTHVILLE WOMAN'S CLUB members will become do-it-yourself-ers this Friday when they meet at 2 p.m. in the junior high library to create their own tree ornaments under Mrs. Mueller's guidance. Members are to bring blown egg shells or satin balls with sequins, velvet ribbons and even broken jewelry bits to trim them.

Mrs. Mueller, who has been creating her own ornaments for three years, promises to confide some of her professional shortcuts to achieve easy results. She will be introduced by Mrs. Arthur Basel, program chairman for the day.

THE CHRISTMAS GREENS Market to be held by the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday, December 11, in the lobby of the junior high boys' gymnasium will feature Christmas breads and decorations as well as holiday greens.

While the market will be on a much smaller scale than that of previous years in which as many as 13 area clubs participated, it will have lots of items for festive decorating. There will be wreaths, roping and pine cones for colorful burning as well as Christmas card baskets and gold angels.

Mrs. Frank Whitmyer, chairman, stresses that the market will be open for anyone in the community to drop in and browse without charge.

News Around Northville

Orient Past Matrons club has invited husbands, past patrons, honorary members and their wives to a Christmas party Saturday at the Northville Masonic Temple.

The party will begin with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by entertainment and a social hour.

Northville local VFW Post 4012 and auxiliary gave an auditorium party at the Ann Arbor Veterans' hospital November 17, serving light lunch and coffee to 135 veterans. Games and canteen books were given as prizes. Twelve members represented the local groups at the party, one of a series of ward parties.

Northern Lites Extension Study group will hold its potluck dinner-Christmas party at 6:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Andrew Orphan, 356 South Rogers. A gift exchange will be a feature of the party. Members are to bring their own table service and a passing dish.

Ivan Ely of East Cady street left Saturday to join his wife in Cairo, Egypt. Mrs. Ely has been visiting her daughter and son-in-law, the Reverend and Mrs. John Koch, in Temora, Australia. Mrs. Ely also visited Hong Kong and Bangkok. Mr. and Mrs. Ely will go from Cairo to Rome, the Isle of Capri, Florence, Venice and London before returning to Northville in mid-December.

Mrs. Harold Bloom will open her home at 710 West Main street for a Christmas tea at 2 p.m. Tuesday for members of King's Daughters. Members are asked to bring items they have been making for hospitalized children.

Mrs. Jennie Turnbull, 222 Fairbrook, was feted at a birthday party given November 20 by her sister, Mrs. Pearl Lindquist and her daughter, Mrs. George Russell (the former Marion Turnbull) of Dearborn. Luncheon guests attended from Northville, Plymouth and Dearborn.

Northville, Farmington, Livonia and Plymouth members of the Farmington Alumnae association of Delta Gamma also will be working on gifts for children at their meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, December 13, at the home of the president, Mrs. Richard Boyesen, 14169 Harrison, Livonia. During the meeting they will sew terry cloth slippers for blind retarded children at the Plymouth State Home and Training school. They are to be delivered there so that the children may have them before Christmas.

Two Northville Students Chosen for Music Tour

Two Northville high school seniors have been chosen to participate in the second summer tour of the new Musical Youth International group. Margaret Becker and Larry Wood are among 94 outstanding student singers and musicians from 39 western Wayne county, Ann Arbor-Saline area schools who will tour Scotland, England and West Germany next summer.

This will be Larry's second tour with the group as he participated in the tour last summer to Mexico. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Wood, 43641 West Nine Mile road, he has been awarded a Musical Youth scholarship for $300 to pay half of his tour expenses.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Becker, 543 Dubuar, is making her first trip with the group, which is a non-profit association organized to foster good international relations in the arts and family living. She will sing alto with the chorus. Larry is a tenor.

After graduation next June Margaret tentatively plans to enter Wayne State university next fall. She plans to go into the field of nursing and has done volunteer work at the Plymouth State Home and Training school. A National Honor Society member, she also is in debating and Thespians and currently is president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Larry expects to enter Schoolcraft college in the fall. He is a member of the high school choir, Schoolcraft college glee club, Madrigal singers and Central Woodward Christian church choir. He has appeared in local operettas and with the Northville Players Guild. He is a Forensic club member.

Among the 15 students being awarded tour scholarships also is Larry's cousin, Greg Webster of Hastings, Michigan, who will appear with the band. A concert December 18 at Oxford, Michigan, is planned to help raise funds for the MYI scholarships.

Lester McCoy, musical director of MYI, formerly was founder and leader of the Michigan Youth Chorale group from which he retired after a heart attack. Jack Bittle, director of instrumental music at Sturgis High school for eight years, is band director. During the tour from June 23 through July 27, 1966, the repertoire will be both formal and informal. The band and chorus will be featured both together and separately, McCoy reports.

Local appearances, both before and after the tour, will be scheduled during the 1965-66 season. Last year the group gave 34 concerts in 32 days in Mexico. They already have received more invitations, McCoy says, in Europe than they will be able to accept on the tour.

Rudolph Joins Santa's Crew

There's a bright, new addition to Santa's workshop headquarters in Northville this year. It's Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer.

He's joined the familiar crew of sleigh-pullers: Dasher, Dancer, Prancer and Vixen -- Comet, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen. And they're all decked out in brand new blankets.

The Santa workshop -- located at the American Legion hall at Dunlap and Center streets -- is drawing even more applause than last year, thanks to the work of Mrs. Fred McLean and her committee of volunteers.

Sponsored by the Retail Merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce, the workshop makes an excellent setting for Santa to greet his young friends.

He began his annual session of listening to the young, wide-eyed world of believers last Friday and Saturday. And his Northville schedule calls for him to be in his workshop Friday, December 3 and 10 from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m. and on Saturday, December 4 and 11 from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Beginning Friday, December 17 Santa will be in his workshop daily from 10 until 4 and from 6 until 9.

Most Northville stores are already staying open until 9 p.m. daily for Christmas shoppers.

The workshop has become as much an attraction for adults as children. There may be larger workshop attractions, but few exceed the Northville creation for ingenuity and authenticity.

Twenty-two elves are busily engaged in making toys, preparing pastries, telephoning for supplies, compiling the list of names of good little boys and girls, sorting mail and tending Santa's reindeer.

A sleigh is piled high with packages ready for Christmas eve delivery and, while visitors sit upon Santa's knee, the elves are busy decorating a Christmas tree and playing familiar Yuletide music.

Some of the authentic items donated for use in the workshop included a one-seater sleigh, a child's antique writing desk and chair, animated toy soldiers and a special stable from which three of Santa's deer peer out at visitors.

Perhaps the star of the show (aside from Santa, of course) is a polar bear who entertains the kiddies by dancing the "twist".

Open House To Fete New Bride

An open house from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday will introduce the new Mrs. Seth Lemmon to her husband's friends. Mrs. Lemmon is the former Mrs. Carrie Pike of Manton, Michigan.

The open house is being given at the Lemmon home at 336 East Cady by Mr. Lemmon's niece, Mrs. Owen Horsfall. The Lemmons were married November 17 at his Northville home by the Reverend Vaughn Bryson of Farmington Missionary church.

OES to Honor Two Members

The newly installed officers of Orient Chapter No. 77 will hold an exemplification of the degrees on Friday, December 3 in the Masonic Temple.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of Gold Certificates and Gold Pins to two local members who have reached 50 years of membership in the Order.

D.J. Stark III

D. J. Stark, former Northville township clerk and a realtor locally for many years, is critically ill at Kalkaska hospital in Kalkaska, Michigan.

It's busy, busy, busy at Santa's Workshop in Northville. In the upper left picture the elves are busy in the bakery shop while Mrs. Claus relaxes. Another elf is washing and hanging monogrammed blankets for Santa's reindeer. At left the reindeer peer out at the sleighful of toys they'll be delivering Christmas Eve, while at upper right the polar bear does the "twist" while one of Santa's helpers has trouble with a mail bag.

The workshop is located in the American Legion hall, Dunlap at Center street.

They'll Dance

Pupils in Mrs. Lola L. Alexander's creative dancing class will perform for their mothers at the final session of the fall series of lessons at 4 p.m. Saturday at Mrs. Alexander's home, 752 Spring drive.

The young dancers are Toni Bongiovanni, Devin Glenn, Laurie Day, Lora Sepp, Debbie Walker and Kathy Till.

Mustangs 'Cage' Lions In Opener Rout, 72-45

"They simply wore us down," said Coach Bill Thomas of South Lyon as Northville broke a close game wide open Tuesday and coasted to a 72-45 victory.

In the opening game for both teams, it was Northville's big front line that made the difference. The Mustangs' Jerry Imslund and Steve Evans, both 6'3" and 6'5" Mark Cushing scrapped the backboards clean and kept the Lions off balance with their lunging defensive thrusts.

The outcome was no surprise. But South Lyon's first half battle, which kept it in the ball game, had the crowd on the edge of their seats.

Led by 6'1" veteran Eric Liddell and diminutive 5'6" Jim Tate, South Lyon exchanged the lead with Northville throughout the first half. Not until the waning moments of the second quarter did the game, but lighter Lions, begin to wilt.

Holly Here Friday

One game does not a season make, but Northville's opening game victory over South Lyon could be an indication of good things to come.

Just how good, Northville fans won't have long to wait to find out. The Mustangs will get a real cage baptism Friday when the Holly Broncos come to town. Last year, Holly and Northville split in a home and home series. The Broncos narrowly clipped Northville, 53-51, early in the season, and Northville won the return match, 57-53.

Northville came on strong to finish third in the W-O with a 9-5 record. Holly, one of the pre-season favorites last year, posted an 8-6 record.

Holly will have a solid nucleus of veterans in the fold Friday. Heading the list is Mark Phalen, a scrappy 5'9" guard. Other cagers who will give Holly some beef up front are Jim Hanks at 6'1" and Joe Erwin at 6'2".

"They may not be as strong as we are," said Coach Dave Longridge, "but they're big, and aggressive."

Calling All Adult Cagers

Any men of the community interested in forming an adult basketball league are asked to meet at 7:30 p.m. today at the Northville junior high boys' gymnasium. Supervisor Robert Prom may be contacted at 349-2287 for additional details.

But there was no mistaking the signs of fatigue. With South Lyon out front by a surprising 26-25 margin late in the second quarter, Cushing triggered Northville's big move by dumping in a rebound and quickly followed with a jumper from the side to give the Mustangs a 27-26 lead.

Northville pressed its advantage to walk off the floor with just a three point lead at 35-32, and never trailed again. It was an indication of what was to come, and come it did in the second half.

Northville outscored South Lyon 19-6 in the third quarter and 18-7 in the fourth to ease into the winner's circle. Northville Coach Dave Longridge pulled his starting five with approximately six minutes remaining in the final period.

Imslund was the Mustangs' tower of strength. The 190 pound senior with two years of varsity experience under his belt held the Lions at bay up the middle. Seldom did South Lyon get more than one offensive crack at the bucket.

On offense, Imslund sparked as he laid the ball through under the hoop and peppered the nets from the outside with a soft jumper to tally 27 points, high for the night.

Backing Imslund up with his base line drives was Forward Evans, who scored 11. Not far behind were Cushing and Guard Jim Zaytti, both with nine.

Liddell led the Lions with 12 points, followed by Tate's 10. Mark Doecker and George Bennett had eight apiece.

As Coach Longridge commented, this was a "typical opener." Both teams, suffering from jitters, committed errors, at times charging pell mell up and down the court.

"We put it together at times," said Longridge, "and I'm pleased with the team's performance. We improved in the second half, and of course, the rebounds paid off."

The statistics don't belie the outcome. South Lyon hit on six of its 11 shots in the first quarter, and six of 15 in the second to keep in contention. But in the second half, the tired Lions just couldn't find the hoop, hitting on just three of 27 shots.

Northville was consistent. The Mustangs converted 15 of 32 field goal attempts in the first half, and 13 of 36 in the second to nail down the victory.

What happened came as no surprise, for Coach Thomas' Southeastern Conference championship squad of last year was depleted by graduation. In fact, South Lyon lost its starting five.

Billed as big and strong in the pre-season tally with veterans on the front line, Northville was all of that. The Mustangs finished in third place in the Wayne-Oakland Conference last year with a 9-4 record, after a slow start.

JV's Continue Winning Ways

It was just like old times last Tuesday night as the Northville junior varsity squad crushed South Lyon, 66-32, in the Northville high school gymnasium.

The same group of cagers that posted a 15-3 record as freshmen under Northville Coach Bob Kucher picked up where they left off last year. And what's more, Kucher, like his cagers, moved up to this year's junior varsity.

Last year, Northville's freshmen handled South Lyon in a similar fashion, winning 75-48 in the final game of the season. Now as they picked the unsuspecting Cubs up all over the floor and forced one mistake after another.

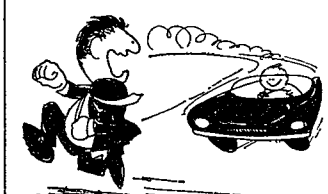

Not until the second half did South Lyon solve the Northville all-court press, and then it was too late. Northville led at half time, 31-4, but in the second half, South Lyon scored only seven points less than Northville.

Northville's Bob Hubbard sparked in his team's first game of the season. He tallied 23 points on 10 field goals and three free throws. And he was a demon on the boards, grabbing 16 rebounds to lead the field.

"At times we played good ball," said Kucher, "but at other times, we didn't look very good. It may have been a case of first-game jitters, but we have to work to improve certain phases of our game."

STRICTLY FRESH

Some motorists not only take care of their cars, they keep pedestrians in good running condition, too.

It's foolish to argue with your doctor. He probably has inside information.

There's no harm in having nothing to say as long as you don't try to say it.

As a general rule, there is too much work left over at the end of the money.

Sports

It's John Jameson for a two-pointer, despite defensive efforts by Lion Jim Tate.

Little Chance for Downs To Win Jackson Meet

It looks as though Northville Downs will have to be content with one race meet and hope for more racing nights to come from an extended schedule rather than an additional fall meet.

For several years, and three racing commissioners, Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo has sought to have the fall Jackson meet moved to Northville Downs.

Even Leon Slavin, president of Jackson Raceway, has appealed for the transfer.

The clincher was expected to be the opening of the new Windsor track this fall. It was supposed to "kill" the Jackson meet and change the commissioner's mind on the switch from Jackson to Northville.

But by his actions Slavin has indicated he has given up. He's investing at least $200,000 at Jackson to enclose the stands, a la Windsor.

Wrestlers Humbled In Opener

Old Father Time has healed many a wound, and Northville wrestling Coach Jack Townsley, is hoping the grim reaper will do a repeat.

Townsley's green matmen had just suffered a 39-13 defeat last week Tuesday at the hands of Livonia Bentley in their first outing of the year.

"Inexperience and a lack of numbers in the heavier weights hurt us," Townsley said. "Time, I hope, will remedy some of the problems as the season progresses."

It was on the lighter side of the scales that Northville registered its three victories. Chuck Keegan, a tenth grade feather weight at 103 pounds, pinned his man in the first period. Marty Richardson, a 120-pounder and also a sophomore, duplicated Keegan's feat.

Only other victor was Sophomore Bob Hove, who weighs in at 112 pounds. He gained a decision.

Although they were upended, 127-pound Dennis Cook and 145-pound Dale Ashby, were lauded by Townsley for "putting on a good show."

Northville will have its second go at it today in the local gym, when it hosts South Lyon at 7 p.m. Willow Run will come to town next Wednesday.

Football Banquet Slated Tuesday

Over 50 Northville gridders will be feted next Tuesday night at the annual football banquet, sponsored by the Northville Service club.

Scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, the father-son affair will be highlighted by popular football speaker, Tony Mason, assistant coach at the University of Michigan.

Following Mason's address, awards will be presented to the Most Valuable Player, honorary captain, lineman of the Year and top sportsman.

Clifton Hill, member of the Northville Service club, will be master of ceremonies.

Keynote speaker, Mason, has an extraordinary record as a football coach. Before joining the Michigan staff that produced a Big Ten and Rose Bowl champion in Mason's first year, he was a legendary prep coach in Ohio.

His teams won a total of 87, lost only nine and tied seven.

Suzanne Cookson To Report

Suzanne Cookson, 12, of 23605 West LeBost, Novi, has been named Co-ed Correspondent for the 1965-66 school year, according to an announcement by Miss Margaret Hauser, editor of Co-ed Magazine.

Miss Cookson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cookson, is in the 7th grade at Novi junior high school. Her appointment was made by Mrs. C. Ralston, Home Economics teacher at Novi.

Selected for her qualities of leadership and her enthusiasm for home economics, Miss Cookson will serve as junior advisor to the editors of Co-ed, national magazine for teenage girls published by Scholastic Magazines, Inc.

She will keep them informed of activities at Novi Junior High School.

Within two weeks -- not later than December 15 -- Racing Commissioner Berry Beaman must announce the harness meet schedules for Michigan's four tracks for the 1966 season.

And rumor has it that all tracks will be awarded extended seasons to offset the Windsor threat. And odds are better than even that Northville will open the season even earlier than last year's March 26 -- the earliest opening ever.

It's also a good guess that Northville will again have a "split" meet with the sulkies moving to the Wolverine meet in Livonia after a short opening stay at the Downs.

This arrangement was tried for the first time last year with Northville installing heat lamps in the stands.

The tip-off that Northville might open again came from Slavin, who was asked by the commissioner if Jackson would like to open the season next spring. Slavin said "yes" -- if he could run his meet at Northville. Jackson isn't equipped for an early meet, Slavin said. According to reports, Commissioner Beaman didn't brighten at this suggestion.

So now Slavin is planning improvements at Jackson, apparently deciding to settle down and do battle with the Windsor track.

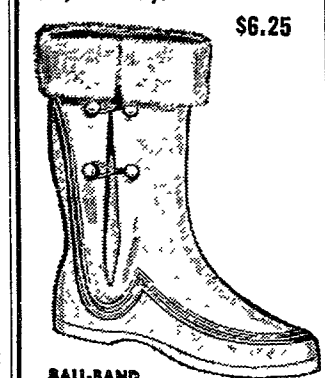

Meanwhile, Carlo has announced improvement plans of his own. A new enclosed clubhouse costing some $750,000 will get underway in February but won't be ready for use until the 1967 season. The lush layout will replace the existing bleacher at the first turn on the west end of the track.

And when that's complete, a duplicate grandstand, also enclosed, will be constructed immediately east of the present stands.

Carlo still won't concede that Jackson can attract as many VISITOR FROM MEXICO—Romulo "Capi" Becenna (left) arrived in Northville Sunday from Mexico City just in time for the winter's first snow—and the first snow he'd ever seen. Capi will be a two-month visitor in Northville under the Michigan Council of Churches' Youth for Understanding program. He'll live at the home of Mrs. Elaine Chabot, whose son, Mike, is shown greeting Capi. Both are 11th graders. Capi began classes at Northville high school this week. His father is an attorney in Mexico City, but Capi plans to study business administration in college.

tentatively outlined acreage. Although Michigan Department of Economic Expansion officials have said that any location within five miles of the specified region could be used, the area is mapped out with Five Mile road, Dixboro road, Joy road and the Ann Arbor railroad as its boundaries. Thus, it lies wholly west of Pontiac Trail.

Robert Weeks, a U-M School of Engineering representative and Ann Arbor City Councilman, represented Congressman Vivian on the tour. Vivian has been ill. Weeks is the brother-in-law of Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz.

Another investigator was Robert Burroughs, director of the U-M office of research information.

A dinner and informal reception for the AEC officials and other dignitaries was held at the Michigan Union that night. Tuesday the group was the guest of the Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce for a tour of the city and university.

From there they drove across Michigan to view the alternate site at Fort Custer, where Congressman Paul Todd is most interested in having the accelerator located.

Eight AEC inspection teams are visiting the various sites. On-site inspections were not originally planned but became a public relations necessity.

Apparently the greatest competition for Michigan will come from sites near Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, Denver, Indianapolis, Dallas and Madison, Wisconsin.

Vivian, as a former U-M faculty member and founder of Ann Arbor's research-based Conduction Corporation, knows the language of the scientific world as well as the political jargon, is perhaps best equipped to sell the site in his district to the AEC.

He is a member of the House Committee on Science and Astronautics. It has been his campaign since being elected in November of 1964 to deconcentrate federal research and development projects from east and west coast sites.

With the ammunition of an ideal site located practically door-to-door with U-M, Metropolitan airport, Michigan's second-to-none expressway system and Detroit's famed industrial resources he would seem to have the ideal sales kit.

He can also slip in mention of extraordinary living conditions. Ann Arbor's academic climate has the strongest attraction to scientific personnel. Several communities such as South Lyon, Whitmore Lake and Northville offer other advantages.

Should the facility with its prospective staff of about 1,000 scientific persons and another 1,000 support persons come to the Northfield site the surrounding areas would soon undergo a rapid development transition.

Congressman Vivian In Northville Today

Congressman Weston E. Vivian will return to the eastern Washington - western Wayne County area for office hours today (Thursday).

He will be available to meet with constituents at the following times and locations: 10:00 to 10:45 a.m. - Superior Township Hall; 11:00 to 11:45 a.m. - Plymouth Township Hall; 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. - Northville Township Hall; 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. - Plymouth Post Office.

All citizens interested in meeting Congressman Vivian or in discussing legislation or problems with him are urged to attend one of these sessions.

At noon on Thursday, Congressman Vivian will appear at a meeting of the Plymouth Businessmen's Forum at the Mayflower Hotel. He will speak on the United States Space Program and will discuss his work in this area as a member of the Science and Astronautics Committee and of the Subcommittee on Science, Research and Development of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Congressman Vivian will have returned the evening before from Los Angeles, where he is participating in a Congressional investigation of the reasons for the delays in the Surveyor lunar satellite program. Recently, Congressman Vivian visited Cape Kennedy on the same mission and, also in Florida, he addressed an international conference on the application of satellite technology to civilian uses.

At the meeting in Plymouth on Thursday, Congressman Vivian will also discuss and answer questions on the legislative activities of the First Session of the 89th Congress and on legislative proposals expected to come before the Second Session, starting in January.

In the evening, he will participate in the Otherlander Thanksgiving Program honoring foreign students in the western Wayne county area.

3 Injured In Accidents

Slippery roads in Northville caused two accidents Sunday which sent three people to the hospital.

Northville police report that a broken fire hydrant, utility pole, and a light pole at a service station on South Main street resulted when the car driven by Marshall Hudson of Detroit was unable to stop at Seven Mile road. The passenger in the car, Ophelia Bell of Detroit was taken to St. Mary hospital with injuries.

Two passengers were injured when a car driven by Margaret Chamberlain of Livonia, slid off Eight Mile road hit the guard rail and spun around. Police report that the car then hit a car driven by Austin Kennedy of South Lyon.

Injured in the accident were Lillian Ballhiem who was a passenger in the Kennedy car and Brian Chamberlain age 12, a passenger in the car driven by his mother. Both were taken to St. Mary hospital. Two other passengers in the Chamberlain car Louis Chamberlain, 50 and a daughter Lynn were unhurt.

Municipal Court

Psychiatric treatment and fines were ordered for two men on charges of indecent exposure this week in the Northville court of Municipal Judge Charles McDonald.

Both cases occurred in Northville one in the window of a Main street residence and the other in a car in the business district.

Richard P. Rayl, 22, 21 Main street, pleaded guilty to a charge of indecent exposure and was fined $50 by the court and ordered to see a psychiatrist within 30 days. If the report from the psychiatrist so indicates, treatment must be continued every two weeks for 90 days.

Larry W. Rogers, 21, of Wayne was ordered to pay $100 and receive psychiatric treatment for six months on a charge of being a disorderly person which was changed from indecent exposure. Rogers must see a psychiatrist within 30 days and receive treatment every two weeks for six months and report to the court at the end of six months. Failure to comply with these orders will draw Rogers 90 days in DeHoCo, Judge McDonald ruled.

Improper license plates on the car of Brian C. Mellen of Walled Lake brought a fine of $25.

Robert D. Turner, 26, Plymouth was fined $80 on a financial responsibility charge.

Edward Firman, 20, was given an additional 15 days when he pleaded guilty to escaping from DeHoCo.

Kenneth Davis, 17 of Plymouth was given an additional 20 for escaping from DeHoCo.

Eugene Williams, 19 of Plymouth was found guilty of assault and battery charges at DeHoCo and was given 60 days to run concurrent with the present sentence.

Three escapees from the Detroit House of Correction were sentenced in Judge McDonald's court Monday, November 22.

Alvin Florida, 16 pleaded guilty to the escape charges and was sentenced to an additional 40 days in DeHoCo.

Ronald Rogers, 25, Plymouth received an additional 20 days for his escape.

Kenneth J. Upshaw, 21, Plymouth was returned to DeHoCo with an additional 45 days added to his sentence.

At Junior Prom

It's All Moonlight and Roses

The theme was "moonlight and roses", but there was fun, dancing and conversation, too, at last Friday night's Northville high school Junior Prom. Pictured at top dancing up a storm are Jim Darnell and Kathy Lutes. Walking through the arbor are Roger Kline and Judy Hallam, while Jane Nelson saves one dance for her father, Northville's new superintendent of schools. Music was provided by the Tom Houghton orchestra.

SCORING: Give yourself two points for each "no" answer. 30 points—Your priest or pastor is very happy when he sees you in church. He looks for you and to you as the perfect member of the congregation, a person who is in church, not only to learn, but to set an example.

22 to 28 points—Your church manners are very good. Once in a while you slip, but you really don't intend to do so. You are basically thoughtful and know the meaning of religion.

12 to 20 points—You need to think through the reasons you go to church. Consideration for the solemnity, your priest or pastor and your fellow man should be taken into account. Remember Matthew VII:12.

0 to 10 points—Exercise your basic self control. You will be surprised how good you will feel when you can answer all these questions with a "NO".

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Pastor Robert Spradling
First Baptist Church of Northville

Jesus raised three people from the dead during His public ministry. The first was the daughter of Jairus, a wealthy, influential ruler of the synagogue. This young girl of twelve years of age had been dead but a matter of hours when Jesus came and took her by the hand and restored her to life and family. The record of this event is recorded in Mark 5:21-43.

The second person whom Jesus raised from the dead was the son of a widow who lived in the town of Nain. In this case, the son had been dead a day or so, and the funeral procession was enroute to the cemetery when Jesus came and restored the young man to life. The record is in Luke 7:11-15.

The third person was Lazarus of Bethany, the brother of Mary and Martha. He had been dead four days and was already entombed when Jesus brought him forth. The record is in John 11:19-44.

Lazarus, four days. However, the age and the length of time did not change the fact that they were all equally without life and that all received life from Christ.

The Bible says that all men who have not received Jesus Christ as Lord are spiritually dead. "And you hath he quickened who were dead in trespasses and sins." (Ephesians 2:1) "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." (1 John 5:12) What our Lord did for these three people physically, He is able to do for all men spiritually.

The Bible says that in order to enter heaven, men must be born-again, that is, they must receive spiritual life from God. This can be done only when men realize they need help from God and they turn in repentance and faith to Jesus Christ.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE GOOD LIFE

When Grandmother and Grandfather Todd came to say their goodbyes before leaving for Florida, we took their picture. Looking at it, I remember them as they were that day, serene and happy, anticipating their trip. To them there are no sunset years but always a new day ahead.

Life has truly been a table spread before them. Oh, there have been sorrows and trouble aplenty, but always His rod and staff have comforted them. Even in the shadow of death God has been with them, for the Lord is their Shepherd.

Such faith may be yours. Your church is the open door through which you may find that fellowship of understanding which has been to my grandparents their greatest treasure.

Attend your church and find there, through worship and prayer, the inspiration you need for religious growth.

Novi Dems To Hear Googasian

George Googasian, Oakland county Democratic chairman, will be guest speaker at the December meeting of the Novi Democratic club at a Dutch-treat dinner Tuesday, December 6, at 6:30 p.m. at Marco's restaurant on old Grand River avenue.

A business session will begin at 7:30 p.m. Raymond Frichtel, president, will introduce the speaker. Members are invited to bring guests to this meeting.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. Why, this year alone we've made available brand new wraparound buckets. Profile bench seats. More rich, genuine walnut paneling. And new or instrument clusters you've never seen. We even had our engineers take our test cars apart piece by piece to come up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs smoother, quieter, more enjoyable to drive. Really, though—we don't care which feature gets you inside a new Pontiac, as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

ONE YEAR AGO

Three committees studying school district building needs submitted reports to the Northville board of education this week. The population and facilities committee found that the greatest area of growth potential is in the northern portion of the district, Chairman William Secord reported.

The committees must determine what buildings must be built by the school district and where. One question concerns the present junior high school and whether it should be converted into an elementary and a new junior high school constructed. The city council of Wilcox passed a resolution last week calling for paving of all subdivision streets. The $150,000 project will be paid from general funds.

Continental Motors has asked for rezoning of its Novi road plant site from light to heavy manufacturing. Andrew Ureel, company spokesman, said that rezoning of the property is being requested so that the present plant and 6.6 acres of the parcel can be sold to a Detroit metal processing firm, which remained unnamed. It would employ some 150 persons, Ureel stated. FIVE YEARS AGO

The Northville Coordinating Council has decided to take an active interest in local issues. The members announced a plan to study area problems and report findings to member organizations of the Coordinating Council. At the December 15 meeting the Council will hear Mayor A. M. Allen speak on the Community Hospital Authority.

Five Northville junior high school students won a portable television set for the school as contestants on a television quiz show. Appearing on "Quiz 'em" Sunday, the local students defeated their opponents, Dearborn Junior High School, by 150 points. Appearing on the program representing Northville were Nancy Slattery, Nancy Shaffer, Jean Downer, Mike Horner and Roxanne Horning.

Two Northville high school gridgers were named last week to the W-O All-League team. Dave Hallam was picked for the guard slot and Steve Juday as quarterback. Juday also received honorable mention for the class B all-state squad. FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

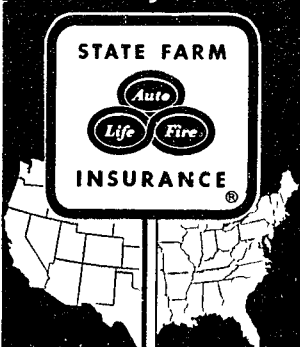

The new Atchison Memorial hospital will hold an open house Sunday, December 10. The hospital, which occupies the second floor of the present medical building at Dunlap and Linden streets, has 12 beds.

The village commission Monday night authorized the removal of diseased and dead trees from village land. The trees will be replaced with hardwood trees. The commission estimated that the program of removal and replacement will take several years.

The Northville post of the American Legion is donating eight six-foot Christmas trees to the Maybury Sanatorium as its Christmas community project. The trees will be delivered December 18.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The village commission has voted to add Northville businessmen in the purchase of more colored lights to decorate the business district. It was pointed out that this will not exceed $175.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

I talked with Steve Juday Monday night shortly after he and his brother Jim had returned to East Lansing from visiting their dad and mother in Traverse City.

As a page one story reports, the senior Juday is recovering from a heart attack and will have to remain in the hospital there for another two weeks.

Steve was naturally deeply concerned about his father, and by comparison his disappointment at not being drafted by a professional football team meant very little.

But we talked about his future.

Right now there's the Rose Bowl game. Then the Hula Bowl in Honolulu on January 7.

There seems to be some question as to whether or not playing in the Hula Bowl makes Steve a "professional" and thereby ineligible to play baseball for State in the spring.

Steve says the document he signed to play in the Hula Bowl indicates that expenses are provided for the players but that this does not change their amateur status.

He's uncertain, however, how the Big Ten conference views the arrangement.

But Steve's an athlete who likes to play ball -- whatever the season. In the spring it's baseball, in the fall football. He wants to play pro ball -- and if he could, he'd play both football and baseball.

"I had hoped to be drafted", Steve admitted. "But I guess it's my size and speed ... and everything else".

Steve hides a football a lot better than he does his disappointment. He almost had me forgetting that he's the quarterback that led Michigan State to its first undefeated season since it began playing in the big time; that he's broken all passing records ever set at MSU (and those include a couple of quarterbacks now making their living in the pro ranks); that he's been the first string signal-caller for the Spartans for three years; and that his leadership qualities are best expressed by his teammates, who consider him the greatest.

Whatever he lacks in size or speed he makes up in a sixth sense that only the greatest athletes display in competition.

Anyone who has ever seen Steve Juday play baseball, basketball or football knows this quality.

Viewers (and pro scouts) will see it at the Rose Bowl and again at Honolulu.

He'll get his chance. And I'll give you 10 points and UCLA that he makes good.

In the meantime, wouldn't it be a coincidence if that quarterback from Alabama, who was just about Steve's size when he played pro ball, decided that the Lions might be in the market for another quarterback? He could be right here in his own backyard.

I made a newspaperman's promise not to tell a secret. And I'm definitely pledged not to reveal my source (it wasn't Steve -- he doesn't know).

But there's a certain press association scheduled to release its All-American team Thursday.

Guess who was picked as first team quarterback?

Like I said, Harry, right here in your own backyard.

Last week I goofed on the telephone number to call for reservations on a proposed Northville charter plane to the Rose Bowl.

It's FI 9-2010. Friday's the deadline for arrangements. About 30 more reservations are needed for a charter.

Give Up Smoking? Not for their Lives

Despite scientific data on health hazards, smokers apparently would rather fight than quit, gkassociate Prof. Ross Wilhelm, business economist at The University of Michigan, cites figures which indicate that smokers have little brand loyalty, and that almost nothing will stop them from smoking.

"Despite the fact that last year the U. S. Public Health Service issued a warning that cigarette smoking is a health hazard, the consumption of cigarettes will reach an all-time record high this year," he points out. "Over the broad sweep of the record of cigarette sales, events such as the Public Health report have had only a minor impact on total sales."

After a temporary drop of 8.6 per cent in sales during the first five months after the report, the decline was nearly made up in the balance of the year which finished down only 2.4 per cent, Wilhelm says.

The older the smoker and the higher his educational level, the greater the probability of his having stopped smoking, he adds.

The U-M business economist, who discussed the subject on his radio program, "Business Review," says the switch to filter tip cigarettes has been one of the most dramatic consequences of the several health scares. Filter brand sales have risen from a negligible portion before the health reports to over 62 per cent of the market today. Cigarette advertising--which costs about nine cents per carton--has pushed this trend.

"Brand loyalty among cigarette smokers is very low and they switch readily when sufficiently motivated," Wilhelm says. "New charcoal filters already have captured 6.4 per cent of the market. Indeed, all of the growth in cigarette sales in recent years has come from growth in the sales of menthol cigarettes--now about 16 per cent of sales--and filters."

Cigar consumption, given almost a clean bill of health by the Public Health Service report, has risen steadily. Cigar sales rose 25 per cent between 1963 and 1964, the year of the health report. Pipe tobacco sales also increased 16 per cent in 1964.

"Judging from the temporary effect of the Public Health Service report on long-run smoking behavior, it seems likely that actions such as warnings on packages and advertising codes will have no effect on the smoking behavior of people," Wilhelm suggests. "This is little more than political window dressing."

"If the Federal government really wanted to take action to discourage cigarette smoking, it could do this through the tax system and the prices of cigarettes. The main action in this regard would be to cut or eliminate the excise taxes on cigars and smoking tobacco while keeping the taxes on cigarettes high. This would result in lower cigar and smoking tobacco prices

Rushlow of 892 Allen drive, both of Northville, participated in the U.S. First Fleet's training exercise "Range Bush" Nov. 18-24, while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger.

The week-long exercise off the coast of Southern California involved ships of the First Fleet and several naval air units, comprising "friendly" forces, in aerial reconnaissance, anti-air and anti-submarine warfare operations against the "enemy" air, surface and sub-surface units portrayed by other Navy units. The exercise will increase the combat readiness of the First Fleet.

Exercise "Range Bush" is under the overall command of the First Fleet Commander, Vice Admiral Lawson P. Ramage, USN. In addition to providing a mobile landing field at sea for patrol, attack, fighter and reconnaissance aircraft, the Ranger is also the "friendly" forces' flagship.
