

Juday Banquet Ticket Sales End Saturday

There'll be plenty of football talk next Tuesday night at the Northville high school cafeteria.

On hand to honor Northville's Steve Juday in a tribute postponed from December 8 will be MSU Head Coach Duffy Daugherty, co-captain Don Japinga, Assistant Coach Dan Bosture, Master of Ceremonies Norm Masters and about 250 friends, relatives and community boosters.

Special guests with Steve will be his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Juday, brother Bill and his wife, and Jim, who attends MSU with Steve.

The Juday tribute is being co-sponsored by the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce, City of Northville, Rotary Club and Northville Record.

Chairman Essie Nirider, chamber president, said this week that plans are being made to accommodate 250. But tickets must be purchased by Saturday. They're available at Manufacturers National Bank, Northville Drug, Northville Record, Northville Hardware and Detroit Federal Savings.

Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty

Nirider announced that another sports' celebrity will attend the 6:30 p.m. dinner program—Harry Gilmer, Detroit Lions coach and now a resident of the Northville-Nowi area.

Masters, a former MSU All American and Green Bay Packers' star, will toastmaster the evening program, while Coach Daugherty will make the principle address. Japinga will also be called upon to comment on his roommate and Spartan co-captain.

Chances are the Rose Bowl will receive little mention. The Spartans compiled a perfect 10-0 season and won the right to represent the Big Ten in the annual bowl classic. But New Year's Day UCLA team took the measure of MSU, 14-12 in a disappointing afternoon for Spartan fans.

Steve bounced back in the Hula Bowl a week later, however, and was named outstanding back for the winning North team.

Tuesday night's tribute to Juday is in recognition of the publicity he has brought to the community and his outstanding performance as a student and athlete both in high school and college.

Mayor A. M. Allen has proclaimed Tuesday, January 25 "Steve Juday Day" and a special section in this edition of The Record recaps his career and accomplishments.

FEELING BETTER—Dick Juday, flanked by two of his three sons, is well on the road to recovery. The community tribute to his son, Steve, was postponed from December 8 until January 25 because of a heart attack suffered by the senior Juday in November. Shown with their dad last Saturday are Steve and Jim, home from MSU classes. Son Bill and his wife joined the family later as they celebrated a "postponed Christmas".

Bond Sale Starts For $200,000 Plant Expansion

A drive to sell $40,000 worth of 15-year debentures yielding six per cent interest was launched this week by the Northville Area Economic Development Corporation.

The project to encourage area development is number four on the list of undertakings by the local, non-profit group.

And it marks the second expansion of Foundry Flask and Equipment Company under the program. Specifically, the Cady street industry is adding a 60 by 120-foot addition for manufacturing space. The project totals some $200,000 including $80,000 in new equipment.

A loan from the federal government's Small Business Administration has already been approved. But as its share of the total package, the local development group must provide $40,000. SBA provides the remaining $160,000, less 10 per cent which is being financed by Manufacturers National Bank.

The booming Foundry Flask underwent an expansion in 1964, also financed through the local development group and SBA. At that time office space plus a 120 by 150-foot plant expansion was completed at a total cost of $185,000. Some $27,750 worth of six-per-cent debentures were sold at that time.

Officials of the development group point out that the loans are secured by a title to Foundry Flask property and buildings. These will be repurchased by the company for a nominal fee when all loans have been retired.

Foundry Flask's latest addition is already near completion, but financing had been held up by SBA, because of other obligations which curtailed industry loans temporarily.

The firm manufactures flasks (steel boxes into which castings are poured) for the automotive, farm implement and plumbing industries. Steady business growth has forced expansions, but because the company requires most of its working capital for equipment it has turned to the local development group for financing help.

In turn, the expansion accomplishes the objectives of economic development—to provide greater local tax base and expanded employment opportunities.

Foundry Flask is headed by John A. Weber, president; his son, John W. Weber, executive vice president; Peter Kitzens, sales manager; and Harold E. Bittner, treasurer.

The Northville Area Economic Development Corporation is now in its fourth year. It was formed jointly by the city council, township board and board of education. In its short history it has financed the first Foundry Flask addition, purchased and torn down an apartment building at 123 West Main street which is now owned by the city for parking, and purchased the former John Mach agency building at 117-19 West Main street. This building is now being leased to the city for temporary storage but will be torn down this spring.

Certificates for purchase of debentures in denominations of $100 are now available from Manufacturers National Bank in Northville. Members of the development committee also have certificates.

As an incentive to encourage early purchase of debentures, the development group is offering interest from January 1, 1966 on purchases made by February 10.

Donald Lawrence is president of the overall economic development committee, while Fred Kester heads the corporation. Active members include A. M. Allen, Gunnar Stromberg, A. M. Lawrence, William Davis, C. A.

Smith, Robert Shafer, Nelson Schrader, H. B. Putnam, A. R. Clarke, Donald Hannabarger, John Canterbury and John Carlo. Philip Ogilvie is legal advisor to the group.

Tax Bills Half Paid

City and township taxpayers haven't reached the halfway mark yet in payment of annual "winter" taxes—for schools, county and township government.

Deadline for payment is not the same in the city and township. City residents must make payment at city hall by February 14 or a four per cent penalty is invoked. After February 28 payment must be made directly to the county and a half-per cent month penalty is added to the four per cent.

Township taxpayers have until February 28 to make payment without penalty.

In the city the total levy for school and county taxes is $512,062.09. To date $219,373.63 has been collected. Payments may be made at city hall.

In the township some $260,000 of the $567,763.93 levy has been collected. Payments may be made at Manufacturers National Bank during regular banking hours, or directly to Treasurer A. M. Lawrence at the bank on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Replacement Splits Novi School Board

Although Novi's board of education resolved its superintendent problem last week, another problem presented by the resignation of Board Treasurer David Fried will apparently be left to the county school officials to solve.

Fried resigned effective with the regular January session Wednesday when it was accepted "with regrets." He has moved to a Bloomfield Hills home.

The remaining board members are at a stand off in their attempts thus far to choose a replacement. Fried's vacancy leaves two factions squared off with opposing views on candidates thus far suggested.

If the local board does not appoint a replacement within 20 days, school law provides that the county board shall make the appointment. February 1 is the 20th day.

Board President William McDermid indicated following a special session held Friday that a compromise candidate did not seem likely to emerge from the local deadlock. Former board president, Arthur Heslip, and Trustee Russell Taylor have publicly supported Bruce Simmons, a 1963 election candidate who lost by 11 votes. McDermid and Secretary Richard Bingham Friday proposed an undisclosed name.

When neither faction showed willingness to compromise, the discussion was dropped, said McDermid.

Fried was a board member for five years and was treasurer the current term. He emphasized that his resignation was due only to having moved from the community. "We sought a larger house and found the one we liked in Bloomfield Hills, that's all," he stated.

During his tenure on the school board and especially during his second election campaign he had been the subject of a bitter fight.

While on the board he generally represented the compromise view between the Heslip-Taylor and McDermid-Bingham factions and most often gave the decisive weight to the McDermid-Bingham objectives. Thus, his decisions have generally allowed the more liberal policies in the face of more conservative measures supported by Heslip and Taylor.

To Open Bids Feb. 10

Board OK's Design Of New Elementary

Bids for Northville's new Eight Mile road elementary school are scheduled to be opened and awarded February 10, the board of education having approved final plans at a special session Monday night.

Plans for the one-level school designed by Birmingham architects O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach were approved with minor changes. The school, which will be set back from Eight Mile road 15 feet below road grade level, uses area-concept design and features a mansard roof style. Roof fronts and side panels will be copper-sheathed, designed to be ornamental but maintenance-free.

At the suggestion of Robert Shafer, board trustee, sidewalk entrances to the building are to be widened, downspout and blacktop changes were directed and verification that the building will have a low-pressure boiler system was requested.

Board member Eugene Cook questioned the architects' representative, Robert Tucker, whether he felt the August 15 occupancy date "realistic." It was generally agreed that there is little chance the school will be completely finished by September opening. Tucker said a great deal depends upon the contractor's selected as it is almost impossible to hold them to scheduled dates.

During the meeting the board inspected and approved a Vermont-blend brick of reddish-tan hue for the building, approved colored glass blackboards and plastic playground fencing for the kindergarten area.

In studying the copper roofing and paneling, which Shafer pointed out is "purely decorative," Board Secretary Donald Lawrence expressed the general feeling that "public buildings need not look like a barn." Cook pointed out that the copper is maintenance-free.

During the work session the board also studied the parking situation at the school, ascertaining that in addition to the 36-space lot there could be parking on driveway areas and possibly even on lawn areas for a large function.

Bus turn-ins to the school from Eight Mile road also were discussed. Elroy Ellison, administrative assistant, said he anticipated children from Northville Estates, Taft Colony and other adjoining areas would become walkers.

Superintendent Alexander Nelson and Raymond Spear, assistant superintendent, announced that Milton R. Jacobi had accepted the post of principal of the new school. He is expected to join the system February 28. He presently is an elementary school principal in Highland Park.

Next board meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Progress of plans to bring water to the new Eight Mile road elementary school was scheduled to be discussed Wednesday (yesterday) by Northville school administrators and city and township officials.

At its special session Monday night the board of education tabled until next Monday night a discussion of the water situation for the school in order to learn what was done Wednesday.

Thomas Dale
Novi School Superintendent

Novi Finally Hires Superintendent

The bouncing ball has stopped in Novi. A new superintendent of schools has been hired.

He is Thomas Dale, superintendent at Kingston.

Robert Young, the on-again, off-again candidate presumably secured for the job last month, took his last bounce last week by telephoning his second decision to decline after having served in absenteeism for less than three weeks.

And with his last bounce the Novi school board let the air out of the job offer.

Friday they returned to the interview table in special session and came away with their prime choice of men who applied during the search for a replacement for Tom Culbert, who resigned in August.

Dale, superintendent of the Kingston school district has accepted a one-and-one-half year contract to June, 1967 at a $13,000 yearly salary. He visited the schools Tuesday and Wednesday and plans to split his time between his old and new district until matters there can be settled.

Board President William McDermid here announced the hiring. He said that Dale had been the board's unanimous first choice after the second round of interviews last fall but had been unable to accept the position at that time. Feeling he was unavailable the board had turned to first round choice Young.

Young twice accepted the Novi post—and twice backed out. His first change of decision prompted the local school board to tack an additional $1,000 on the yearly salary and Young came downstate from his Freeland district to sign a contract.

About midnight Monday last week, according to Board Secretary Richard Bingham, Young telephoned to say he would not be coming.

When appraisal of the refusal during Wednesday's regular board session, the four standing members unanimously determined to hold the Friday interviews. They announced to the approximately 15 persons in the audience that evening that "at least part" of the session would be an open meeting.

The interviews were conducted in private, as some interested persons who showed up made no effort to intervene, and the announcement of the job offer to Dale was made immediately afterward. The would-be audience had departed by then.

It's Exam Time

Exams and the semester break will take place in Northville schools next week. The schedule will be identical in the junior and senior high schools. All students will have Friday, January 28 off and begin second semester Monday, January 31.

Exams in junior and senior high academic classes will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, January 25 and 26, and the students need not return to school Thursday and Friday, January 27 and 28. Report cards will be sent home February 4 with the students.

The elementary students will be off January 28 only.

Business as Usual For Farm Crest

Farm Crest Dairy isn't going out of business!

Owner Bob Haass called The Record to emphasize this point after a story appeared last week announcing the proposed development of his 340-acre farm on Six Mile road into some 800 homes by Thompson-Brown company.

Haass has retained five acres at the site of the dairy store. He said Farm Crest will continue its dairy operations and that his 300-acre farm on Six Mile between Sheldon and Beck will be used to supply the dairy.

County Levies Sewage Fee Hike

Wayne county's department of public works notified the city and township of Northville this week that charges for sewage treatment will be hiked.

The fee, paid as a part of the user's water bill, will go up one-half cent per 1,000 gallons—from 5 1/2 to six cents.

Flat rate charges, where meters are not used, will be boosted from $6 annually to $12 and flat rate commercial charges will rise from $25 to $35 per year.

The changes will be made April 1 for service during the previous quarter.

The township sewer and water commission decided it would not increase charges to township users. But Mayor A. M. Allen encouraged council members to add the hike to local bills, noting that city operational costs are increasing just like the county's.

A decision was delayed by the council until all members are in attendance.

Council Defends Pay To Acting Manager

The city council, two members short, breezed through its agenda in less than two hours Monday night.

Included in the business handled was the passage of amendments to the building code requiring exterior wall and ceiling insulation in dwellings and half-inch plywood roof sheathing; the es-establishment of February 14 as the deadline for payment of school and county taxes; and approval of an agreement to lease for equipment storage the former John Mach auto agency building from the Economic Development corporation for several months at $100 per month.

At the outset of the meeting the council defended its payment of $500 monthly to City Attorney Philip Ogilvie for serving as acting city manager.

Thomas McDonough, 663 Thayer, asked the council how it arrived at the figure. "It seems like a lot to pay in comparison to what is paid some fulltime employees," said McDonough.

All three council members present—Mayor A. M. Allen, Councilman Del Back and Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson—defended the fee. It was pointed out that Ogilvie spent nearly half of each day at city hall and was on call for city business at his of-ice. Mayor Allen noted that it would be impossible to hire someone familiar with city affairs on a temporary basis and he pointed out that Ogilvie was losing costly time in his own office to accommodate the city.

The mayor reported that several applications for the city manager post had been received and that interviews would begin soon.

In other business the council approved appointments by Mrs. Carlson to the beautification committee. Named were W. C. Becker, Essie Nirider, Mrs. William Slattery and Ed Welch.

Time limits on unmarked off-street parking lots was also discussed and the council gave approval to providing a clearing along the north side of North Center street between Hill and Maplewood so that school children do not have to walk in the street.

Sponsored by both Northville city and township, the club, according to Mrs. Boyden, owes much of its success to the Conley's efforts as director.

A second square dance for all square dance enthusiasts in the area will be sponsored by Our Lady's League of Our Lady of Victory church at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, January 29, in the church social hall. The committee stresses that beginners are especially welcome. Refreshments will be served.

"GOO-EY, THIS SPAGHETTI!" decides Master Chef-and-dinner chairman Mrs. Donald Schwendemann, second from right, as she and her committee cook up a trial batch of spaghetti in preparation for the organ-fund-raising spaghetti dinner to be given at Northville Presbyterian church from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 26. The cooks are, from left, Mrs. Albert Pfluecke, Mrs. Phillip Fisher, Mrs. Schwendemann and Mrs. George Jerome.

In Our Town

By Jean Day

THIS IS A WEEK with talk of many things - of "muscle-tone" and "music" (organ), of "benefits" and "bicycling." Feeling that the holiday season may have added a pound or so and that mid-winter is a good time for "firming up," some Northville area women have been investigating the possibility of having a weekly class in calisthenics and wonder if there might be others who would enjoy and benefit from getting back into shape together.

Mrs. Eugene Guido, who talked with Kenneth Conley of the Northville recreation department, is hoping to find 30 women to meet from 8 to 10 p.m. one night a week to do an hour of exercises followed by an hour of volley ball. The organizers tentatively are thinking of "working out" on Monday nights, but this could be changed if another night would be more suitable for most participants. Sounds like a fun-way to improve muscle tone after the holiday indulgences - or a baby - or after just "letting go."

Anyone interested can call Mrs. Guido, 349-2039, Mrs. Thomas A. Taggart, 349-1028, or Mrs. J. Ray Jackson, 349-1157.

A SPAGHETTI DINNER at Northville Presbyterian church is being planned to aid the organ fund. It is scheduled from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 26, with the committee hoping to serve between 400 to 500-people. Planning the event are church choir members under chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Schwendemann, with an assist from the Men's club and church teenagers.

Mrs. William Williams, one of the church organists, emphasizes that the church has a "very, very nice organ" but the two ranks of stops (61 pipes) it is hoped will be added to the keyboard, she explains, will add color and variety. Improvements planned include a set of Deagon chimes.

The additions are expected to cost about $3,000; so the committee hopes the whole community will come for spaghetti, French bread, tossed salad, dessert and beverage. A similar event several years ago purchased choir robes. Working on the committee are Mrs. Phillip Fisher, Mrs. Albert Pfluecke, Mrs. Robert Froelick, Mrs. George Jerome and Mrs. J. O. Sarto.

THE FOUNDER'S DAY banquet being planned by the Northville PTAs for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 2, offers the challenge, "You Can Change the World," topic of the talk to be given by Herbert A. Auer, secretary of the Michigan PTA and director of post-graduate education programs for the Michigan State Medical society.

This challenge also is being taken up by the Northville high school art club under the direction of Roy Pedersen. The group plans to "interpret" it in table decorations for that evening. These decorations arrangements are under chairmanship of Mrs. Gene Cushing.

Deadline for ticket reservations is this week. Parents can send the $2.25 to school for each ticket or may contact Mrs. Charles Wheatley or Mrs. John Malone. Working on arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Slabey, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Prodder and Mrs. Donald Williams. Program and publicity are being handled by Mrs. Charles Guider, Mrs. John Stuyvenberg and Mrs. Virgil Matheus.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Donald French, Mrs. Jack Willis, Mrs. Clyde H. Vadner, Mrs. E. O. Weber, Mrs. William E. Switzer, Mrs. Charles Fountain, Mrs. Hugh McKay, Mrs. Elwyn Kaake and Mrs. Ben Duguid.

JOHN HYDE, Northville academic counselor and biology teacher, will take members of Northville Woman's club on a 450-mile tour of "Europe by Bike" at their meeting at 2 p.m. Friday in the meeting room of the Presbyterian church. Place of the gathering has been changed to the church so that slides may be shown.

At their January 7 program club members and their guests heard Mrs. Shata Ling of Ann Arbor describe a tour of Europe with senior citizens. Speaking on "Growing Older With Humor," Mrs. Ling said aging is "a real job if you are without a sense of humor."

Births

A daughter, Lynn Anastasia Mitchell, was born January 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Mitchell, 8707 Chubb road. The baby, weighed six pounds, seven ounces at birth in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. Mrs. Mitchell is the former Theresa Laney.

This is the couple's first child. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Mitchell of Seven Mile road. Maternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Roy Laney.

Women to See 'Europe by Bike'

"Europe by Bike" is the title of the travelogue slide-lecture to be given before the Northville Woman's club at 2 p.m. Friday in the meeting room of Northville Presbyterian church.

John Hyde, Northville academic counselor and biology teacher, will recount his adventures as a member of an adult youth hostel group touring Europe by bike last August.

During his four-week tour he bicycled 450 miles, touring England, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland and France.

This summer Hyde plans to take a group of high school students on a four-week bicycle tour of Switzerland and the Rhine Valley. The group will be composed of boys and girls at least 16 years old. Hyde reports he considers students at that age or in their junior year in school "ideal" for Europe.

Hyde is a graduate of Michigan State university and has a master's degree in teacher education. While in school he set six track records which still are unbroken.

He sings with the Northville Methodist church choir, is a member of the Show Stoppers of Farmington and of the Northville Players Guild.

Hyde says his major summer project has been his "Christmas tree plantation" on his farm near Yale. He previously has taken two summer trips in the United States with Northville high school boys.

Ten boys of Den Three, Pack 721 Cub Scouts, went ice skating Tuesday on a pond near Haggerty court and afterwards were guests of Mrs. Charles Fountain for cocoa. In December the pack went Christmas caroling in the Village Green and Northville Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Arden Chapel invited the boys in for hot chocolate and cookies afterward. Mrs. Ernest Lusk is den mother for the active group.

Dance to Test Interest In Local Teen Club

The proposed organization of a teen club in Northville will get its first "trial run" at a dance sponsored by the Northville Mothers Club Saturday, January 29.

The teen club idea has been under study by the Mothers Club for several months. Information has been gathered on the success of such clubs in Farmington, Plymouth, Livonia, Wayne and Birmingham. Presently, a committee headed by Mrs. Gordon Forrer is being formed to consider a location, financing and recruiting community help.

The project has been given approval of the Mothers Club. High school students have already been surveyed and a high percentage have indicated interest.

Some indication of the strength of this interest will be learned at the January 29 dance when teen club membership tickets will be sold.

A "live combo" has been hired to play for the 8:30 until 11 p.m. community building dance.

Mrs. Forrer said the idea of the teen club would be a place for teens to entertain themselves - providing dancing, ping pong, pool, etc., and that Mothers Club members would not be involved in the activities of the proposed teen club.

Wed 60 Years

Sixty years ago this week, on January 18, 1906, Sadie May and William Henry Parks exchanged marriage vows in her mother's living room in East Tawas, Michigan. They marked the anniversary date with a family celebration at their home at 1980 Austin drive, Walled Lake.

Mrs. Parks was born in East Tawas June 26, 1882. Her husband is a lifetime area resident, having been born in Novi, May 8, 1884. He worked in various places, retiring in 1956 from six years of custodial duties with the Novi schools. They have lived in Plymouth, South Lyon, Ypsilanti, East Tawas and for the last 20 years in the Novi area.

The couple has four "foster" children - William Lowe, Mrs. Fred Fogg, Mrs. Albert Champagne, all of Ypsilanti, who were children of Mrs. Parks' brother; and Gormog Groves of Walled Lake, a cousin. There also are 14 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Parks

Rumpelstiltskin to Return

Rumpelstiltskin, a favorite fairy tale character, will come to life February 12 when the drama group of the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women presents its sixth annual production on the Plymouth high school auditorium stage.

Rumpelstiltskin has been adapted from the original story by Mrs. A. E. Gulick. Mrs. Wendell Smith, director, points out the production is an annual effort on the part of the AAUW to bring the experiences of live drama to area children. The production is written to appeal to youngsters from four to nine years old. Four performances will be given February 12, beginning at 10 and 11:30 a.m. and at 1:30 and 3 p.m. Tickets, at 40 cents, will be pre-sold in area schools beginning February 2.

The cast includes Patricia Dorrian and Mrs. David Van Hine of Northville, Mrs. William Fronk, Mrs. James Knowles, Mrs. James McKeon, Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Glenn Arendson, Mrs. T. F. Devereaux, Mrs. Juergon Badindieck, Mrs. J. M. Hopkins, Mrs. Richard Fritz and Mrs. Jerry Yohey.

Mrs. Jack Maas of Northville, assistant director, is in charge of music. Mrs. Van Hine also is serving as costume chairman.

Old Church Making Way for School

A landmark church building in the city of Wixom will be no more. It is scheduled for razing this month to make way for progress of a school next door.

But parishioners and area residents probably will not mourn the loss. The building had seen its glory, faded and withered gracefully, fostering a new edifice with its name and descendants several times the number of its original children.

Until last month it was still serving a useful purpose providing Sunday School classrooms. Then even they were transferred to newer quarters in the Wixom Elementary school. It is the school, which wants to extend the front circle drive, that is razing the church.

The old First Baptist Church building on Wixom road, a white clapboard structure whose stained glass windows betray its 101-year age, will leave the scene proudly. Some 250 members now worship at a new brick building about one-quarter mile further north on Wixom road. They have consecrated the old building, dedicated in January, 1865, by incorporating its cornerstone in the new building.

From an article of historical highlights written by a member for the dedication in September, 1960, of the new church, here is the past that the fated building has known:

On March 21, 1838 a dozen families who had settled in Michigan, coming from New York State, organized under the leadership of Rev. C. P. Goodrich, "The First Free Baptist Association of Commerce." They met in homes until 1854 after which they met in a red frame school house 36x40 feet. This stood by the road in the present cemetery. A balcony over the front door seated the choir; the pulpit was opposite. On either side were three rows of splintery plank seats on three levels. There was one chair in which Deacon Wright, 93 years old, always sat. Before long this building was outgrown and a red brick building was placed just to the north and back from the road.

A new pastor, graduate of Hillsdale College, James D.

Drew, thought the church should have its own building. On June 24, 1864, Alonzo Sibley deeded land from his farm on the corner of West Maple and Milford Roads "for meeting house purposes only."

Quoting a lady of the times many years later "The church was built by donations of time, means, lumber, labor and money from people of all denominations with the promise that it could be used by all denominations for funerals."

As part of this agreement a "Board of seven trustees a majority of whom should be members of the church and all members of the Society" was elected and incorporated.

There is still in existence a copy written in long hand of the contract with the carpenter as minute in detail as the specifications for the tabernacle given Moses. The price was $625.

On January 12, 1865 the new church was dedicated with a sermon by President Fairfields of Hillsdale College. After the sermon Deacon Sibley's oldest daughter Harriet came down the aisle and was married to Pastor Drew.

In 1897 Rev. J. C. Robinson proposed moving the building into the center of town. This took two weeks in October 1897 using a team of horses and a sweep with planks underneath on which rollers were used. It was moved across the corner down through a cornfield where our new church stands and across the road to the present site. All on record of the dedication after this move is that a history of the church and of the moving, a Bible and current newspapers were sealed in the cornerstone.

The young people, led by Rev. H. E. Sayles, built the first addition and dedicated it October 8 and 9, 1910. Rev. H. J. Thibant was pastor from 1921 - 1925 and, led by him, a basement was put under the first addition. On July 1 and 2, 1938, the Parish Centennial was celebrated.

Before Rev. Whaley left in 1952 a four year program of addition was instituted and carried out by Rev. Bill Green. This pointed out the necessity of more parking space. In 1958 a new building site of five acres was bought. Another 1-1/2 acres was later acquired, one acre donated by Rollin J. Porter. The new church building, 106x37, was constructed and furnished in 1960 for approximately $100,000.

The building board who planned for and supervised the construction included: Joseph Porter, chairman, Howard Coe, Martin Edwards, and Chester Armstrong. Future plans call for two more units to be added as possible, first of which will be an educational unit, according to the present pastor, Rev. Robert Warren.

TO PERISH—This 101-year-old First Baptist church on Wixom road in Wixom will soon be razed from the path of progress.

Unheralded Barons Bounce Mustangs

An inspired lot of Barons from Bloomfield Hills struck fast and fought off fighting Northville to post the biggest upset of the Wayne-Oakland Conference season last Friday night.

They hit on 26 of 54 shots to record a convincing, 64-46, victory to knock Northville from lone possession of first place into a tie with West Bloomfield with a 5-1 mark.

It was strictly Bloomfield's night as the Barons beat the Mustangs at their own game — rebounding, to take two, three and even four shots on goal in a row.

Only once did the Mustangs threaten to cut Bloomfield's lead and that was at the outset of the third period. Trailing by 10 at half time, Northville pressed all-court to cut the margin to five points.

But an injury to Guard Jim Zayti, the sparkplug in Northville's harrying defensive tactics, put an end to hopes of a comeback. Bloomfield then severed the press and scored on several break-aways to mount the lead and put the game out of Northville's reach.

While Bloomfield was shooting at a hot 48 percent pace, Northville connected on only 33 percent of its shots (16 of 48).

Center Jerry Inmsland with 21 and Forward Mark Cushing with 14 were the only two Mustangs to score more than three points, which slowed Northville's attack to a snail's pace.

Bloomfield, on the other hand, had four players who scored in double figures, so the Mustangs could not concentrate on any one man. Tom Robillard and Bill Griffin shared honors with 14 points, Bill Hall garnered 13 and Bob Mersky 11.

Advance reports pegged the Barons as also rans, but they proved otherwise. Junior Hall at 6'5", and Seniors Griffin and Robillard at 6'2" gave Bloomfield height to battle the Mustangs off the boards. And little, 5'8" Mersky kept the Mustangs loose with his hot hand from outside.

Coach Dave Longridge put it in a nutshell: "We found out that Bloomfield Hills came to play ball, and we didn't."

It didn't take the Mustangs long to find that out either. By driving the baseline and across the key, Bloomfield spurred to a 14-8 lead. Northville, befuddled by Bloomfield's tight man-to-man defense, couldn't get untracked.

After Inmsland had converted a free throw to cut the margin to 14-9, Bloomfield exploded with nine straight points to gain a 23-9 lead. Robillard cashed two free throws, another Baron hit from the side, Hall converted a free throw, then Mersky arched shots through from the corner and the free throw circle in a quick order.

Moments later Northville fell even further behind as Robillard netted a free throw, and rebounded his second missed shot from the foul line and laid it in. Bloomfield then intercepted and passed to Hall who scored on a fast break to open up a 30-13 lead.

Northville switched to the all-court press to take the impetus away from the Barons and to cut the margin to 34-24 at halftime. Inmsland with two buckets and Evans with one and a free throw sparked the comeback.

Northville came out in hot pursuit of Bloomfield as the second half opened and sliced the lead to 43-38 on Inmsland's baseline drive, but that was as close as Northville could come. Bloomfield surged back to take a 51-40 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Northville continued its press throughout the fourth period in an attempt to get back in the ball game, but Bloomfield would have none of it as they kept the pressure on to assume a 64-44 lead just before the final buzzer.

In other games played Friday night, West Bloomfield edged by weak Clarenceville, 54-48, Clarkston turned back Holly, 67-59, and Brighton squeaked past Milford, 79-75.

JV's Win 47-44

It was a rare night for the Colts last Friday.

They barely eked out a 47-44 victory over a determined, yet outmanned junior varsity five from Bloomfield Hills to record their eighth victory of the season, against only two losses.

Coach Bob Kucher's cagers are 6-0 in Wayne-Oakland Conference competition.

Northville almost defeated itself as it fumbled passes and blew several "clutch" shots to give renewed life to Bloomfield. Not until the final moments of the fourth quarter did the Colts take the lead, and then only by five points.

Bloomfield kept scrapping away until the final whistle, as it had done all night long to give the visitors fits. Bloomfield led at halftime, 25-20.

"We were flat," said Kucher. "It was our worst game of the season. We made too many mistakes and missed easy layups."

Center Jim Peterson led the local scorers with 19 points; Guard Dennis Matthews bagged 13.

Schoolcraft Splits Meets

The Schoolcraft College swim team won and lost dual meets, this week to balance out its season record at two wins and two losses.

Doug Jaskierny and Larry Fitzgerald were the big men for Schoolcraft in the 57-35 victory over the University of Windsor. Jaskierny won the 200 yd. individual medley, 500 yd. freestyle and 200 yd. breaststroke. His performance was matched by Fitzgerald's wins in the 50 yd. freestyle and 200 yd. butterfly.

Oakland University showed too much depth and speed and pulled away to a 57-38 victory in the Oakland pool.

Saturday Schoolcraft will take on the strong squad from Henry Ford C. C. who appear well qualified to defend their state championship.

TWO VICTORIES?—Nothing could be finer, as far as these Mustangs are concerned, than to walk off with back-to-back victories this weekend in Wayne-Oakland Conference play. Giving the victory sign are (left) Steve Evans and John Jameson in hopes of beating Holly on the road Friday night and West Bloomfield Saturday here. Two wins would find Northville in first place all alone on Monday morning.

League Crown Up for Grabs

Just how good are the Mustangs?

That is the penetrating question which will be answered, at least in part, over the coming weekend of Wayne-Oakland conference competition.

Two of the largest hurdles in Northville's path will loom up on successive nights, first in the shape of the Holly Broncos on Friday night, then West Bloomfield Saturday here.

It could prove a nightmare for the once-beaten (5-1) Mustangs who are riding high, but not completely dry in first place. It could prove to be a nightmare if the Mustangs fail to hold their poise. And against these two teams, it will take solid play to walk off the winner.

It's first things first as far as Mustang Coach Dave Longridge is concerned. To look past Holly toward the impending battle with West Bloomfield, also 5-1 and tied for the league lead with Northville, the following night could be fatal.

Northville barely squeezed by Holly there, doing it by a 54-50 score in the second game of the season. In that one, the Mustangs almost squandered a 10-point margin in the closing minutes of the game as Holly succeeded in pressing them.

With seconds remaining and Northville holding grimly to a 52-50 lead, Center Jerry Inmsland took the ball out of bounds, firing the ball way down court to Guard John Jameson who scored all alone to ice the game.

Tomorrow night the Mustangs will have to face Holly on its home court, which makes the Broncos all the tougher. Spurred on by their avid fans, the Broncos normally go on a scoring rampage.

The Mustangs, however, will be much stronger than in the encounter. Absent from the Northville lineup was 6'3" Forward Steve Evans, who was bed ridden with the flu. He'll be ready to go tomorrow night.

And according to Coach Longridge, his cagers have come a long way since that first engagement. "We're a lot steadier now than we were then," he said. "We've improved a lot."

Holly, which has a deceptive 2-4 record in league play, has beaten Milford, 53-47, and Bloomfield Hills, 53-39, while losing to Northville, West Bloomfield, 60-50, Clarkston, 53-42 and Brighton, 80-66.

Whether or not the Mustangs lose Friday night, Saturday's contest looms as a struggle between the two top contenders, which could ultimately decide first place.

In Center Tim Molner at 6'1" Forward Bob Bert at 6'2" and Guard Greg Hipinstall, the Lakers have a potent scoring trio. In addition to Molner's deft touch, he is a cat on the boards. Brighton was the only outfit to mar the Lakers' record, and it was a decisive 76-52 Brighton victory. The Bulldogs utilized height to good advantage. Northville beat Brighton, 70-52.

Coach Longridge indicates that Northville, too, will depend on its prime weapon, board strength, to control the game. "We'll have to move to beat them," he noted. West Bloomfield employs a tight man-to-man defense and runs at every opportunity.

Scores indicate that West Bloomfield with its lack of extraordinary height is a good scrapping and shooting team. The Lakers have beaten Bloomfield Hills, 51-40, Clarkston, 60-58, Milford, 86-60, Holly, 60-50 and Clarenceville, 72-51.

Matmen Split

The Northville matmen picked up their third win of the season then dropped the next decision to a fired-up Farmington team last week.

Northville took the measure of a sub-par Cranston squad Tuesday by a 34-18 margin.

There were local winners galore. Bob Baber (103 pounds), Dennis Cook (127), Pat Janes (133), Dale Ashby (145) and Bob Sprenger (165) pinned their men, and Marty Richardson (112), Tom Wright (120) and Norm Dicks (138) took decisions. Chuck Keegan (95) won by forfeit.

Farmington, which had been upset the previous week by Clarenceville, came to town with blood in its eye and whipped Northville, 39-8, Thursday.

Only three Mustangs copied victories, Bob Baber (103), Marty Richardson (112) and Dale Ashby (138), all by decision.

There were several, however, who turned in "outstanding efforts", including Tom Wright (120), Dennis Cook (112) and Bob Sprenger (154). "All were just nosed out," said Coach Jack Townsley.

Northville now has a 3-5 record.

In Our Courts

Two men charged with fighting lost in their bouts with Northville Municipal Judge Charles McDonald, Monday.

Howard Wright, 625 Grace street, paid $27.50 in fines and $19 in restitution after pleading guilty to assault and battery in front of Nick's Barbershop, Seven Mile road on December 31.

Fighting on the corner of Dunlap and Center streets, January 14 drew Curtis Smith a fine of $32.50 after pleading guilty to being a disorderly person.

Improper passing on Northville road, which caused a property damage accident January 7, drew a fine of $25 for Patrick Mahoney of New Hudson.

James Adkins, 29, was sentenced to 45 days additional time for escaping from DeHoCo on December 13.

Robert Rich, 24, was also given an additional 45 days when he pleaded guilty to escaping DeHoCo on December 31.

William Cigna, 17, was given an additional 30 days for escaping from DeHoCo on November 25.

Two Youths Take Tires

Two juveniles, who had earlier taken four tires from a storage lot of the John Mach Ford dealership, were turned over to Northville police by the Wayne County Sheriff's department Friday.

Northville police report that the tires were taken from two cars that were parked outside at about 3 a.m. The youths were picked up by the sheriff's patrol in the township after the theft was reported by Northville police.

Police Friday night issued violations to two men for fighting at the corner of Dunlap and Center streets. Curtis Smith of Detroit pleaded guilty before Northville Municipal Judge Charles McDonald on the charge and paid a fine of $32.50. The second man, Clifford Carter, will come before McDonald next Monday on the same charge.

Family Concert Sunday

For the fourth offering of its 20th season Plymouth Symphony orchestra will present an annual family concert, one of the most popular offerings of the orchestra planned for all age groups at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Plymouth high school.

A highlight of the varied program will be "Fantasy on a Theme of Thomas Tallis" by Vaughan Williams for which strings from the Ferndale high school orchestra will join the Plymouth group to make a total of 110 strings. Kenneth Sanford is conductor of the Ferndale orchestra while Wayne Dunlap conducts the Plymouth orchestra. "Jonathon and the Gengery Snare" by Ward will be narrated by Henry Austin, a member of the speech department staff of University of Michigan who assisted with this same number during the 1961 family concert.

Concluding the program will be folk songs in serious music, providing the younger members of the audience with opportunity to compare serious and popular folk music. Also on the program is the first movement of Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 3." The concert is open to the public without charge.

R.L. Bingley Dies at 39

Robert L. Bingley, 120 West Cady street, Northville, died Saturday, January 15 at St. Mary's hospital. The 39-year-old father of three boys was taken ill suddenly. Cause of death has not been determined.

Born December 19, 1926 in Plymouth to Russell and Carrie (Norris) Bingley and married July 25, 1953 in Northville to the former Jean Shoebridge, he was a Plymouth resident until 1949 when he moved to Northville.

Survivors include his wife, parents and children, Robert B. Bingley of Detroit, Ricky Lee Bingley at home and Charles Harrison of Plymouth. Also surviving is a brother, William J. of Northville.

Bingley was manager of the Plymouth Elks Lodge, Number 1780 from March, 1965 to his death. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge, Number 238 of Plymouth.

Memorial services were conducted Tuesday by the Plymouth Elks.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, January 19 at Schrader Funeral Home, Plymouth. The Rev. Henry J. Walch, D.D. of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth officiated. Cremation followed with entombment at Woodmere Crematory, Detroit.

Children's Story Hour Set in Novi

A weekly story hour for preschool children was instituted Wednesday at the Novi Public Library. Mrs. Robert Flattery, Novi librarian, announces that the story hour will be held each Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m.

Working with Mrs. Flattery on the project is Mrs. Donald Waldenmayer, library volunteer, who will be reading stories to the youngsters. Story selections will be made by Mrs. Waldenmayer and Mrs. Flattery.

Nearly Drowns

A Novi youth is breathing easier after a near drowning while he was swimming in the pool at Mumford high school.

Jack West, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester West of 23895 Le-Bost suffered a muscle spasm of the diaphragm after a deep-breathing exercise which sent him to the bottom of the pool. He lay there for two minutes before his three classmates discovered him.

Jim Ferels, a fellow student at the Detroit Bible College, went into the ten feet of water to aid but West slipped from Ferel's arms. A life guard was summoned and brought him from the water. The guard administered mouth to mouth breathing and revived him after five minutes.

West was then taken to Mount Carmel Mercy hospital, examined and released. He was back in classes at the college the next day.

A spokesman for the college pointed out that West is an accomplished swimmer and swims four hours a day, six days a week during the season.

Deadline Set

Deadline for the purchase of tickets for the second annual PTA Founder's Day banquet to be given at 6:30 p.m. February 2 in the high school gymnasium has been extended to Wednesday, January 26, the ticket committee announced this week.

Mrs. Charles Wheatley, ticket co-chairman, said that tickets are available at all four Northville schools and that local merchants also are cooperating with the PTA by selling tickets in their stores.

Northville's debaters picked up more laurels last Saturday, this time in a stiff pre-district tournament warmup at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Single out as one of the top nine schools, Northville was one of 100 entrants. It won five of six debates.

Gaining an "excellent" rating was the varsity debate team of Meg Becker, Sue Conley, Glen Deibert and Larry Thibos. Joining them was Junior Steve Jordan who made his varsity debut and posted one of the victories.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Do You Deserve The Respect Of Your Family?

By Jane Sherrod Singer
Too many people take their family-life for granted... all take and no give! Based on divorce facts, early marriages which happen as the result of unhappy homes, and psychological surveys, here are some interesting questions which may help you to know if you are earning your family's respect and warmth.

- | | | |
|--|-----|-----|
| 1. Do you constantly find reasons for being away from home? | YES | NO |
| 2. Do you feel that your home is the place for you to be untidy and lazy? | () | () |
| 3. Do you participate in the hobbies of the other members of the family? | () | () |
| 4. Do you have excessive vices or expenditures? | () | () |
| 5. Do you feel and show your initiative and ambitions? | () | () |
| 6. Do you store up your bad disposition until you get home? | () | () |
| 7. Do you join your family on their outings? | () | () |
| 8. Do you secretly feel that you are superior to the other members of your family? | () | () |
| 9. Do you feel that your money is YOUR money? | () | () |
| 10. Are you capable of showing genuine human warmth toward the members of your family? | () | () |
- DESIRABLE ANSWERS: All will be NO, except 3, 5, 7 and 10.
Scoring: 8 to 10 desirable answers: You deserve the respect of your family. If respect is not there, something is wrong with them.
4 to 7 desirable answers: It is likely that you are loved despite your shortcomings. But think how wonderful it would be to erase your personal inadequacies!
0 to 3 desirable answers: You may think you have the respect of your family, but it is unlikely if it has come to you, it is a gift you have not earned as a human being.

Swindling Ourselves

None of us like to be cheated. There is, however, the story of an elderly woman who, after painstaking and laborious checking of her grocery list, discovered that she had been short-changed two cents. She snapped at the clerk. "It's not the principle, it's the two cents." To most of us it's the principle of the thing. We hate to be deliberately cheated.

Yet it is something we do to ourselves every day. We rob ourselves of abiding joy and happiness because we refuse to believe Christ's prescription of the abundant life. We swindle ourselves of life's richest treasures because we do not "seek" the Kingdom of God. We miss life's deepest blessings because we follow a route that is not the Way of Life, Christ's Way. Life will work out only one Way and that is Christ's Way and the sooner we find that fact out and come to grips with it the better off we'll be. Yes, we go on swindling ourselves every day.

Isiah asks: "Why do you spend your money for that which obviously is not real bread?" As another has suggested: "The things that matter most are too often at the mercy of the things that matter least."

Every day we sacrifice something of infinite value to purchase something of doubtful worth. We go on fleecing ourselves. We rob ourselves of some things we can ill afford to lose. Thousands of homes that God intends to be happy are hanging precariously on the edge of the precipice of destruction all because of selfishness.

We not only rob ourselves continuously of the real joys of life but we rob others. One might steal five cents and receive a jail sentence. Another might steal all the laughter and joy out of human hearts and go stark free. We allow ourselves to be swindled out of the riches of human love and friendship because of pride and pettiness. We rob ourselves of the joys of the greatest of all friendships, the friendship of Christ. Because of our hardened hearts we refuse to believe and to commit ourselves to the truest and most wonderful friend any man ever had.

Men will barter their souls for a mess of pottage. For the sake of earthly gain they will sacrifice something of eternal significance. What consummate folly for any man to think he can get along without God and that he can cast aside the Commandments of God and the Sermon on the Mount!

"What shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul?"

A WORLD IN TROUBLE

What has happened to this marvelous world of ours in this twentieth century of God's grace? Mankind seems to be passing through a sea of troubles which has no counterpart in human history.

There are wars and rumors of wars among the nations, and many of the nations themselves are split into warring factions, each faction striving for supremacy, and each intolerant of the views, hopes, and rights of others.

The great trouble with the world is that men have forgotten God. They no longer seek spiritual guidance, but follow the vain ways of the modern world. We have become a cynical, materialistic generation.

If this drift toward world tragedy and chaos is ever stopped, the churches of the world must do it. The world's hope—our hope—is in God and His Church. He alone can save mankind from a sorrowful fate.

The Church seeks to turn the hearts of men from the ways of war and fear and hate to the ways of peace and love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FIRE DRILL—The city of Northville accomplished two objectives Saturday. First the fire department had an opportunity to practice fire-fighting. Chief Bud Hartner's men burned down a city-owned residence at 633 Randolph. The site has since been cleared and levelled. The house had to be removed to permit reduction of the Randolph street curve, a project that will be a part of the city's proposed improvement of Randolph this spring.

Jerry Freydl Injured In Boston Plane Crash

A former Northville resident, Jerry Freydl, 31, was injured but reported in good condition after a Civil Air Patrol plane in which he was a passenger crashed through the ice on Lake Populatic, near Norfolk airport outside Boston January 9.

The accident in which the pilot, Lieutenant Colonel Robert S. Phillips, was killed occurred during what appeared to be an attempted forced landing.

Freydl, who makes his home in Medfield, Massachusetts, is the son of Mrs. Elsie Freydl-43095 West Seven Mile road. He is married and the father of three children. He joined the CAP last month.

He was taken to Norwood hospital, suffering face lacerations, and was transferred to Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary for surgery.

According to Norfolk newspaper reports, the two-seater Stinson L5 plane took off from Norfolk airport on a Sunday afternoon training flight. The pilot made two low passes over the field and was attempting a third when the engine failed.

A graduate of Michigan State university, Freydl is affiliated with Cadillac division, General Motors corporation, in the Boston area. He is a licensed pilot.

Northern Lites Meets Monday

Student Describes Health Center Visit

(Editor's Note: The following is an article as prepared for this newspaper by Suzan Boyer, a sixth grade student at Novi Orchard Hills elementary school).

By Suzan Boyer
Orchard Hills Sixth Grader
Thursday January 6, 1966 Mrs. Beltz' sixth grade of Orchard Hills school went to the Oakland County Health Center.

The children were divided into five groups. There were five rooms that the sixth graders visited.

In one room your pulse and blood pressure were taken. First they handed out stethoscopes to every other person. You first would talk into the stethoscope while your partner listened. Then we would listen for each others heart beat. Next you would take each others blood pressure. It was all very interesting and we enjoyed it very much.

In the next room we dissected pig's hearts. Each sixth grader received a pig's heart, a pair of scissors and four straws. Gradually by cutting the heart open with the rest of the class you saw each chamber of the heart. Through each chamber we stuck straws into the next chamber. We saw the valves of the pig's heart. Some of the pigs had blood clots.

Next we went into the cell room. We learned many things about cells that most of us never knew about.

It was all very interesting, we all enjoyed it very much. We sixth graders would like to say thank you to the Oakland County Health Center.

Mr. Tucker a weatherman from the Metropolitan Airport, came and talked to the third grades of Orchard Hills school. He is a radar observer.

Each child received a weather map. Every map is made up in intervals every three hours. He showed maps of how the weather can change in a day.

Some of the questions the third graders asked were: How can a tornado start? Mr. Tucker explained how they can tell if there is a tornado in Florida even here in Michigan. He gave the third grade teachers, Mrs. Blaze and Mrs. Osborne a book about tornados. It is published by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Weather Bureau.

Shown here recording the assets of the junior high school library are, from left to right: Mrs. James Miller, Miss lone Palmer, librarian, and Mrs. Lester Phillips. Letter from Michigan Public Service Commission dated December 16, 1965, relative to order from them to C & O RR, ordering installation of additional back-to-back flashing-light signals mounted on cantilever arms no less than 12 feet in length with flashing lights to be attached to signal installation in southwest quadrant at Seven Mile road, Northville road crossing to supplement the existing flashing light signals.

Notice from Wayne County DPW stating increase of 1/2¢ per 1,000 gallons of water used in present sewage rate - this to be effective April 1, 1966. This was turned over to the City Attorney for review.

Building Report for December, 1965 and 1965 Annual Building Report for City of Northville received.

Old Business:

The Public Hearing for Randolph street improvement Special Assessment was called to order by the Mayor. Mrs. Frances Steencken, 562 Randolph Street, represented the property owners on Randolph street and stated they had not changed their attitude toward the proposed assessment since they felt it was an improvement for the general public and not for the benefit of the property owner. Mrs. Steencken asked that the council review the case concerning Sheldon road in Plymouth, Michigan as stated in Michigan Reports, Volume #358 which was decided in favor of property owners. Councilman Canterbury stated that a list dated August, 1962, that Randolph street was scheduled for improvement; and even before in Mayor Claud Ely's time the county had been urged to improve Randolph St. and the bridge.

The City Engineer reviewed in detail the cost estimates for this proposed 30' street and explained that property owners were being assessed only for black-topping or asphalt whereas concrete would be installed.

City Engineer explained the lessening in depth in American Legion property at Randolph and N. Center St. and removal of steps allowing flaring of this intersection.

Moved by Black, supported by Kester to adopt the Resolution of Determination for Randolph St. improvement and instruct Assessor to spread the Assessment Roll. Unanimously carried.

New Business:

The Mayor asked consideration to deviate from order of agenda and proceed to Item 1 concerning annexation of Gerald Taft property in the Northville Township to City of Northville.

1. The City Attorney read the proposed resolution requesting annexation of 35.72 acres of land as shown on Plat Plan marked Exhibit B to the City of Northville.

Mr. James Littel explained that this petition had involved meetings with the Township of Northville and that preliminary discussions have resulted in some improvements to this plot plan as previously discussed by Taft Colony residents - that is larger lots. Mr. Carey of Thompson Brown was present to answer questions. Moved by Allen, supported by Carlson to adopt resolution annexing Gerald Taft property (35.72 acres) to the City of Northville. Unanimously carried.

Old Business: (Resumed)

2. Mayor Stated that the Planning Commission has had their Public Hearing and recommended the zoning of Parcels a, b, c, d, e and f1 of Lot #1 and parcel of Lot #6 of Knapp's Sub-division to R-1S. Moved by Kester, supported by Canterbury to adopt said resolution. Unanimously carried.

3. Since only one unsealed bid was received for fire hose; moved by Black, supported by Canterbury to advertise for bids for 1,000 feet of hose (with new specifications) - these bids to be due Monday, January 24, 1966, 8 p.m. (Special meeting). Unanimously carried.

A report will be made to Council in the near future on the Fire Contract with Northville Township.

4. The City Attorney reviewed the procedure for changing name of street on the plat and reported this could be changed by resolution and property owners would not necessarily have to be notified.

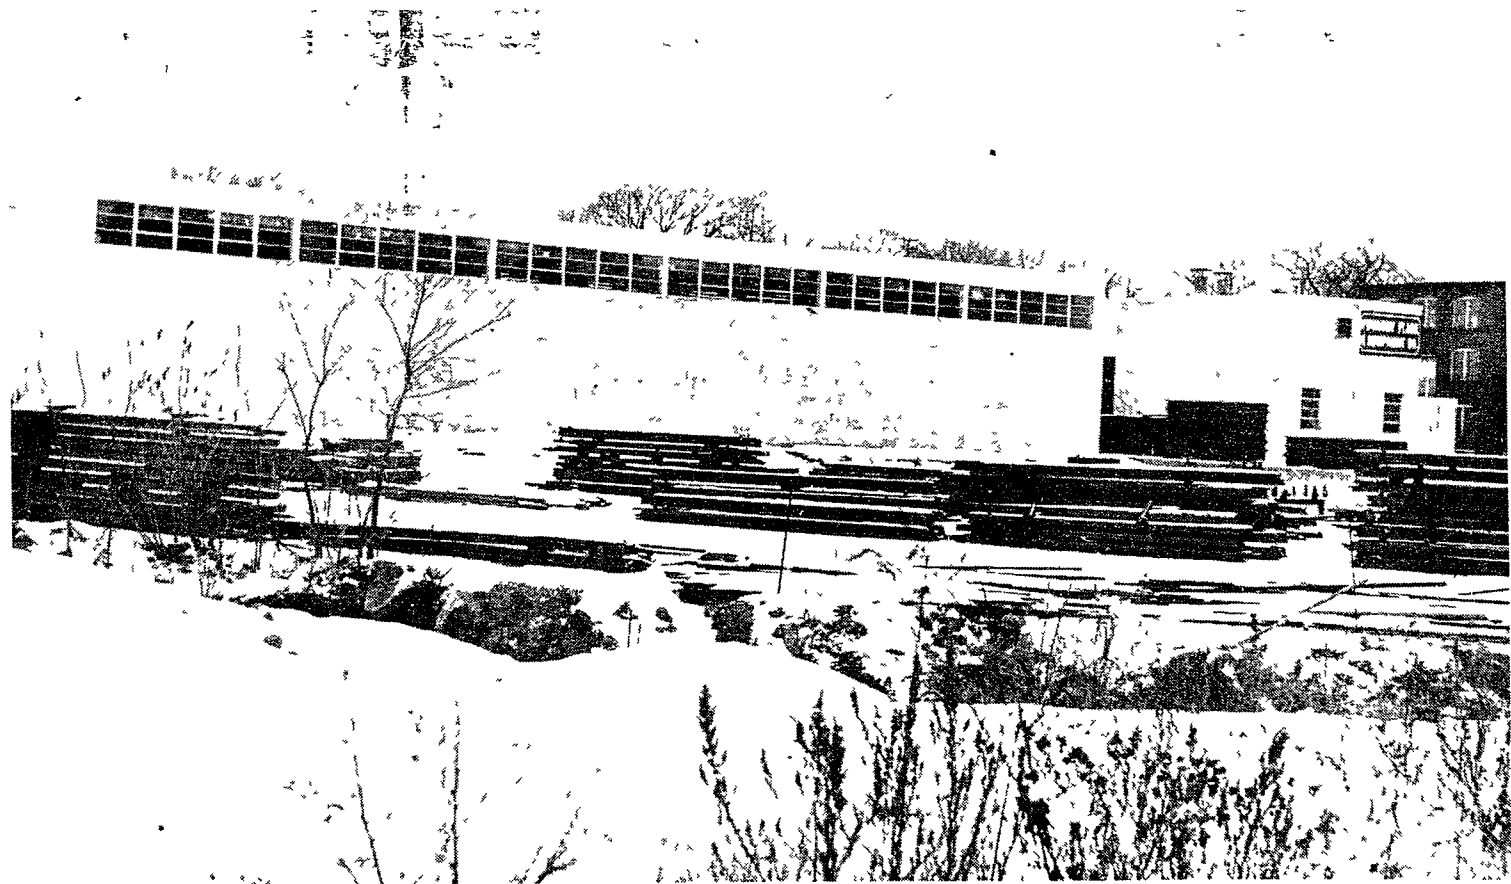

Moved by Black, supported by Canterbury that N. Ely drive not be re-named. Unanimously carried.

5. Matter of Library Commission appointments to be discussed at work session of January 10, 1966.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m.
Respectfully submitted

City Clerk

Modern Math

By Edward Marquardt, Principal South Lyon Elementary School

This column has not appeared since the Christmas holidays, but that does not mean that our holiday has lasted three weeks. Nor does it mean that the children have not been practicing, learning, and working with principles of modern math.

We have, in previous articles, discussed the development of modern math, tried to explain some of the vocabulary, and then explained some facts about sets. During second semester we will continue trying to explain fundamentals, but we will also devote some space to problems taken from pupils' textbooks.

Today we will deal with a property which will surely be recognized, after explanation, by everyone. We have all used it, but in all probability, we did not identify it.

Before we put a name or title to the mathematical concept which we will work with, let us consider some actions which are comparable, but outside of mathematics.

Many parents drive to work from South Lyon to Livonia, Northville or Ann Arbor. They commute between their home and their place of work. Regardless which direction they go or come they remain basically the same person.

In multiplication we also say that numbers commute. We are all familiar with the multiplication tables and know that $7 \times 4 = 28$ or $4 \times 7 = 28$. It is just as true to say that $4 \times 7 = 28$ and $7 \times 4 = 28$. The factors which produce the product can be interchanged. The 7 and the 4 can go backward or forward in the binary operation of multiplication. Like the commuter described above the end result remains the same: $28 = 7 \times 4$.

We can show this in a diagram which we call an array:

xxxxxx  xxxx
xxxxxxx  xxxx
xxxxxxx  xxxx
xxxxxxx  xxxx
A. 4 X 7 = 28  xxx*
          xxx*
          xxx*
          xxx*
          xxx*

B. $7 \times 4 = 28$

In the old arithmetic children frequently learned all of the multiplication tables and never realized that they were memorizing duplications. If children understand the commutative property of multiplication they know that factors can be reversed, or "changed around".

The commutative property is not learned by telling children, "Look, just change the two numbers around and you get the same answer. See, 4×7 and 7×4 are the same thing."

Children learn by seeing an array or diagram for many examples. Each row of the array is a set. In A each set has 7 members. If children count the members in each row (set) they have an additional problem of $7 + 7 + 7 + 7 = 28$. Children understand mathematics when they realize what happens during the multiplication process. The child who memorizes $4 \times 7 = 28$ does not always know why a certain product (28) is the correct answer. We know from experience that many children are never able to memorize the "tables" in their grade in school and they end up hating arithmetic because they never understand what they are doing.

Now let us return to another idea outside of mathematics. Suppose your morning coffee is too strong to drink. You decide to dilute it with water. It won't make much difference whether you add water to the coffee or pour coffee into the water as long as your amounts are the same both times.

The same idea is true in addition. Whether we add 4 to 7 to make 11 or reverse the addends and add 7 to 4 makes no difference. In more formal terms, the commutative property of addition allows a student to change the order of two addends without changing the sum. So $11 = 7 + 4 = 4 + 7$

Will the commutative property apply in the subtraction or division process? We need try only one example:

$8 - 5 = 3$ but $5 - 8$ is a different problem.

$8 \div 2 = 4$ but $2 \div 8$ does not equal 4.

As has been stated before the value in the new math is to understand a principle and apply it. This is especially true for a mathematical property such as we have learned today.

Notice also that we have used much of the vocabulary we learned earlier. Try to remember and use the words and the idea, or process, consistently. A set is a group which belongs together. A binary operation is one which involves two numbers. An array is a picture or diagram of a problem. Factors are the two numbers multiplied so as to get the answer which is termed a product. In addition the answer is called the sum and the numbers added together are termed addends.

Space permitting, we will try to have a column for you every week until we have caught up with lessons missed. Next week we will have a sampling of problems from grades 3-6 using what we have learned so far this year.

Election Year Stalls Tax Reform Talk

LANSING - Official record has now been set down: There will be no attempt at fiscal reform in this election-year legislative session.

This comes somewhat as a surprise only in that it implies Gov. George Romney has, in part, given in to what he refused to admit last week: The fact that lawmakers have no inclination to make themselves unpopular unless absolutely necessary.

Last year, memory recalls easily, the Governor pushed hard to convince the Democratic majority that action should be taken on fiscal reform despite the strong surplus in the treasury.

MAIN ARGUMENT voiced against it, at least openly, was that the Governor's proposals, as the Democrats saw them, were not equitable. It was only in private conversations that many legislators would admit they didn't plan to vote for any tax revision plan.

Now Romney has come to the position where lawmakers have maintained since the Swainson administration days when revenue income started the upturn. "We still need tax reform as we have in former years," said Romney. "The only difference is that we do not need additional revenue at this time."

Even with the rising cost of government expected to boost the spending budget well over the $900 million mark in the coming fiscal year, only a sharp split in the economy could keep Michigan from maintaining a sizeable surplus.

The bipartisan announcement of a no-tax session this year probably put many lawmakers at ease. Another gubernatorial push similar to last year's could have put incumbent Republicans in a tight spot in an election year when all strength is needed.

WHAT CAN YOU look for in the new legislative session? One package certain to get heavy emphasis from several corners is a group of traffic safety proposals.

Why? Partly because the estimated cost of traffic accidents among Michigan's 4 million motorists has now reached the $400 million mark annually, and partly because in each of the past two years more than 2,000 people have been killed on state highways.

If these statistics are a little difficult to fathom, look at it this way: Autos damaged in 1965 accidents would more than cover bumper to bumper, all four lanes of I-96 from Detroit to Muskegon and all four lanes of U.S. 127 and 27 from Jackson north to the Mackinac Bridge.

State Police, the State Safety Commission, Michigan State University's Traffic Safety Center, the Secretary of State and Governor will all be pushing hard for several facets of traffic safety legislation introduced in past years but not passed.

An increase in the present fee for the driver's license likely will be part of the package, as will centralization of the licensing procedure under a state agency.

Strengthening the present driver education program in the schools is being pushed. Specialists also feel it would be wise to require driver training for all new license applicants, not just those 18 and under as at present.

A 17-year-old minimum age and a requirement that new drivers use their license for 90 days only in the presence of another licensed driver also will be proposed.

ONE VERY interesting part of the traffic safety program has been tried once or twice and can be expected again this year.

That is the stipulation that motorists 65 years and older have a physical examination every time their license must be renewed. Some traffic safety experts say this arbitrary age is just a beginning, that actually a physical should be required of every driver.

It is interesting to note that Pennsylvania did just this a few years back. Some 8 million motorists were licensed in that state when the law requiring physicals of every driver was enacted.

Closest statistics available show about one million of these motorists either sent their licenses to the state or allowed them to expire rather than undergo the physical. The experts assume nearly all of this number realized they were not physically capable of continuing to drive.

HUE AND CRY over the fall, 1965 raise in student fees at the University of Michigan might be seen in better perspective if parents with high school children checked the college information directories.

The books show the Ann Arbor institution now ranks high among the 10 state colleges and universities at $348 for the school year in tuition and fees for Michigan residents. This does not include housing, books and other extras.

Lowest of the Michigan schools is Ferris at $275. Michigan State and Wayne State charge $324 and $312, respectively, and the others charge $300.

But even at these rates, the various Michigan institutions compare very favorably on the basic cost factor with other colleges and universities across the country with similar academic standings.

"RIGHT NOW I'M THE HEAD OF SO MANY COMMITTEES THAT I HAVE TO BE IN TOUCH AT ALL TIMES!"

U-M Prof Cites Value Of Community College

ANN ARBOR - The frustration of being denied admission to college and at the same time being ill-prepared to enter the world of work is one which thousands of "middle level" high school graduates are experiencing today," says Norman C. Harris, University of Michigan professor of technical education.

"In many states these youth have no resources but to remain unemployed, join the armed forces, or gradually infiltrate the labor force through part-time, pick-up jobs," says Harris.

He points out that in many Michigan communities, however, such youth have a much more acceptable alternative - further education at the local community college. "Some of this 'middle group' may eventually move on to a four-year college and a baccalaureate degree. But most of them are best suited to community college occupational education programs. "Tuition is low at Michigan's community colleges, most high school graduates are acceptable for entrance, and community colleges are rapidly increasing in numbers so that soon the youth of most areas of the state will have ready access to post-high school occupational education," Harris says.

He cites three troublesome factors in this otherwise favorable picture: 1) Most of these youth have little if any real understanding of the career opportunities available to them in the semi-professional and technical occupations;

2) Most of these youth are not adequately prepared to enroll in and succeed with college-level technical studies; 3) Many youth (perhaps a third of the graduates of Michigan high schools each year) even though they completed a college-prep curriculum with a C average or less, still think of themselves as baccalaureate degree aspirants. With their parents as willing accomplices, they insist on enrolling in university-parallel curriculums in community colleges even when all the facts (high school grades, standardized test scores) indicate that an associate degree objective would be a far wiser choice.

Harris points out that sociological pressures - lack of interest in non-professional jobs and in less-than-baccalaureate degree educational programs - are in some ways at loggerheads with technological developments.

"Community college occupational education programs are thus trapped in the middle of a 'squeeze play' between these two contending forces," he says.

Youth Moves Up in Unions

BABSON PARK, Mass. - For at least a decade the labor movement has been almost static. Organizing drives have been half-hearted, and their results have been slight. Scandals of various sorts within some of the biggest unions have been widely aired. There has been an underlying incompatibility between the conservative craft-union men of the AFL-CIO and the more ambitious "vertical" unionists that re-entered the Federation after years of separation.

Over the past year or so, however, there have been changes brewing beneath the surface. Younger men have been moving ahead in the hierarchy of labor leaders, and they have begun to displace some of the old-timers. In brief, there is a new pulse beating within the body of organized labor. Walter Reuther, who has been holding together his 6,000,000 members of the Industrial Union Department of the AFL-CIO for the past ten years, is getting restless within the confines of the basically unventuresome Federation.

Reuther is beginning to speak once more with a loud voice. He is pointing out that there are still some 15,000,000 unorganized workers who could readily be brought within union bounds. His declared objective is to bring in what he calls the "working poor", even if they have to be given membership without contributing any dues payments. What this would amount to would be adapting the Great Society concept to the unions... bringing up sub-standard wages and gaining fringe benefits - such as health and death insurance, pensions, unemployment and severance pay, etc. - for those not now covered.

The sort of vibrancy that Reuther and some of his younger followers create can be very catching. Even many of those unionists who have felt that labor's days of growth were largely over are being stirred anew. The stand-off between AFL-CIO President George Meany and the far more revolutionary Walter Reuther seems to be closing. Union members have long recognized that Reuther has his eye on the presidency of the Federation, when the day comes that Meany must step down from his top office.

Some 1,500,000 teamsters, who have been going their separate way under the direction of controversial James Hoffa, may be back within the Federation fold before too long. Mr. Hoffa appears to be heading for jail, indicted on some of the numerous charges that have been brought against him. His successors are more than likely to accept an invitation to remerge with the AFL-CIO once the Teamsters Union is caused it to be cast out of the Federation. Readers may expect Reuther and his cohorts to take every possible step to cement all of the major union units together. Jurisdictions will be clarified, and jurisdictional strife will gradually become old-hat. Employers in most areas and practically all industries will feel the impact of this emerging re-birth of union determination and vigor. Organizing drives will be hot and heavy, no longer half-hearted. Young blood will be encouraged for leadership at all levels, with particular concentration on men (and women) of outstanding intelligence and resourcefulness. Leaders, and candidates for union positions, will be trained and educated in bargaining tactics, statistical analyses, oratory and debate, and human psychology.

There will be drives for wages and fringe concessions along a steadily broadening front. Employers in relatively low-wage localities must look for organizing drives even in smaller companies. Concerns already unionized will be confronted with new demands in terms of pay, hours, health and death benefits, vacations, working conditions, and a roster of other items. This does not mean that management need be hit today, or even tomorrow. But it does mean that the trend toward tougher bargaining (look at the New York transit strike), new demands, and more forceful organizing campaigns is already developing.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

For a change of pace this week a series of notes, reflections, releases and reminders....

Voters in Northville township will have its biggest election ever this fall in terms of number of office vacancies to be filled.

In addition to the terms of supervisor, clerk, treasurer and one trustee expiring, the board is slated to be expanded by two additional trustees.

Action taken at the annual meeting last Spring resulted in the new seven-member board that cannot be established until the next regular election.

One of the problems certain to face the township board, regardless of its size or membership, is sewer capacity. Recently announced home and apartment projects will gobble-up all the capacity in the Middle Rouge interceptor that the township can acquire - probably within five years. This without considering normal and potential residential, commercial or industrial expansion.

Employing hindsight, it's obvious the township erred in not acquiring more capacity when it had the opportunity. But public opinion was strongly opposed to the investment.

The city council purchased its allotment, but had an opportunity to acquire additional capacity passed up by other communities. Only one councilman proposed buying more than the allotment. With city growth also accelerating it appears that Richard Ambler, now retired from the council, had keen vision.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson shook up the sobriety of the council chambers Monday night when she turned to City Attorney Philip Ogilvie and asked, "what's a golden rule drunk?"

The question caught Ogilvie by surprise. The councilwoman had been reading court reports and noted the reference.

"Well, if it's the general reference," said the attorney, "it means a drunk who is not causing much disturbance but needs a night in jail to stay out of trouble and sleep it off".

"I see. That's fine", replied Mrs. Carlson.

I like this release from the Ford Motor Company:

What proper name means "automobile" to sixth-graders?

In the case of 28 out of 31 pupils in one class at a Rockland County, N.Y., elementary school, the answer was "Ford."

The class was asked to substitute a proper noun for a common noun as part of an English assignment, and the word "Ford" won hands down as the name used in place of the word "automobile."

Intrigued by the response, the classroom teacher asked her colleagues to run a similar test with other sixth graders in the school system and report back with the results. Out of the 233 English students tested, 130 named Ford.

Evidently there were some animal lovers in the class, because the next highest number of students responding (eleven), chose the name of a car with "tiger" connotations in its advertising.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas Steve Juday did as a student of Northville High School perform both as a scholar and athlete in the highest tradition, and bring credit to his school and community;

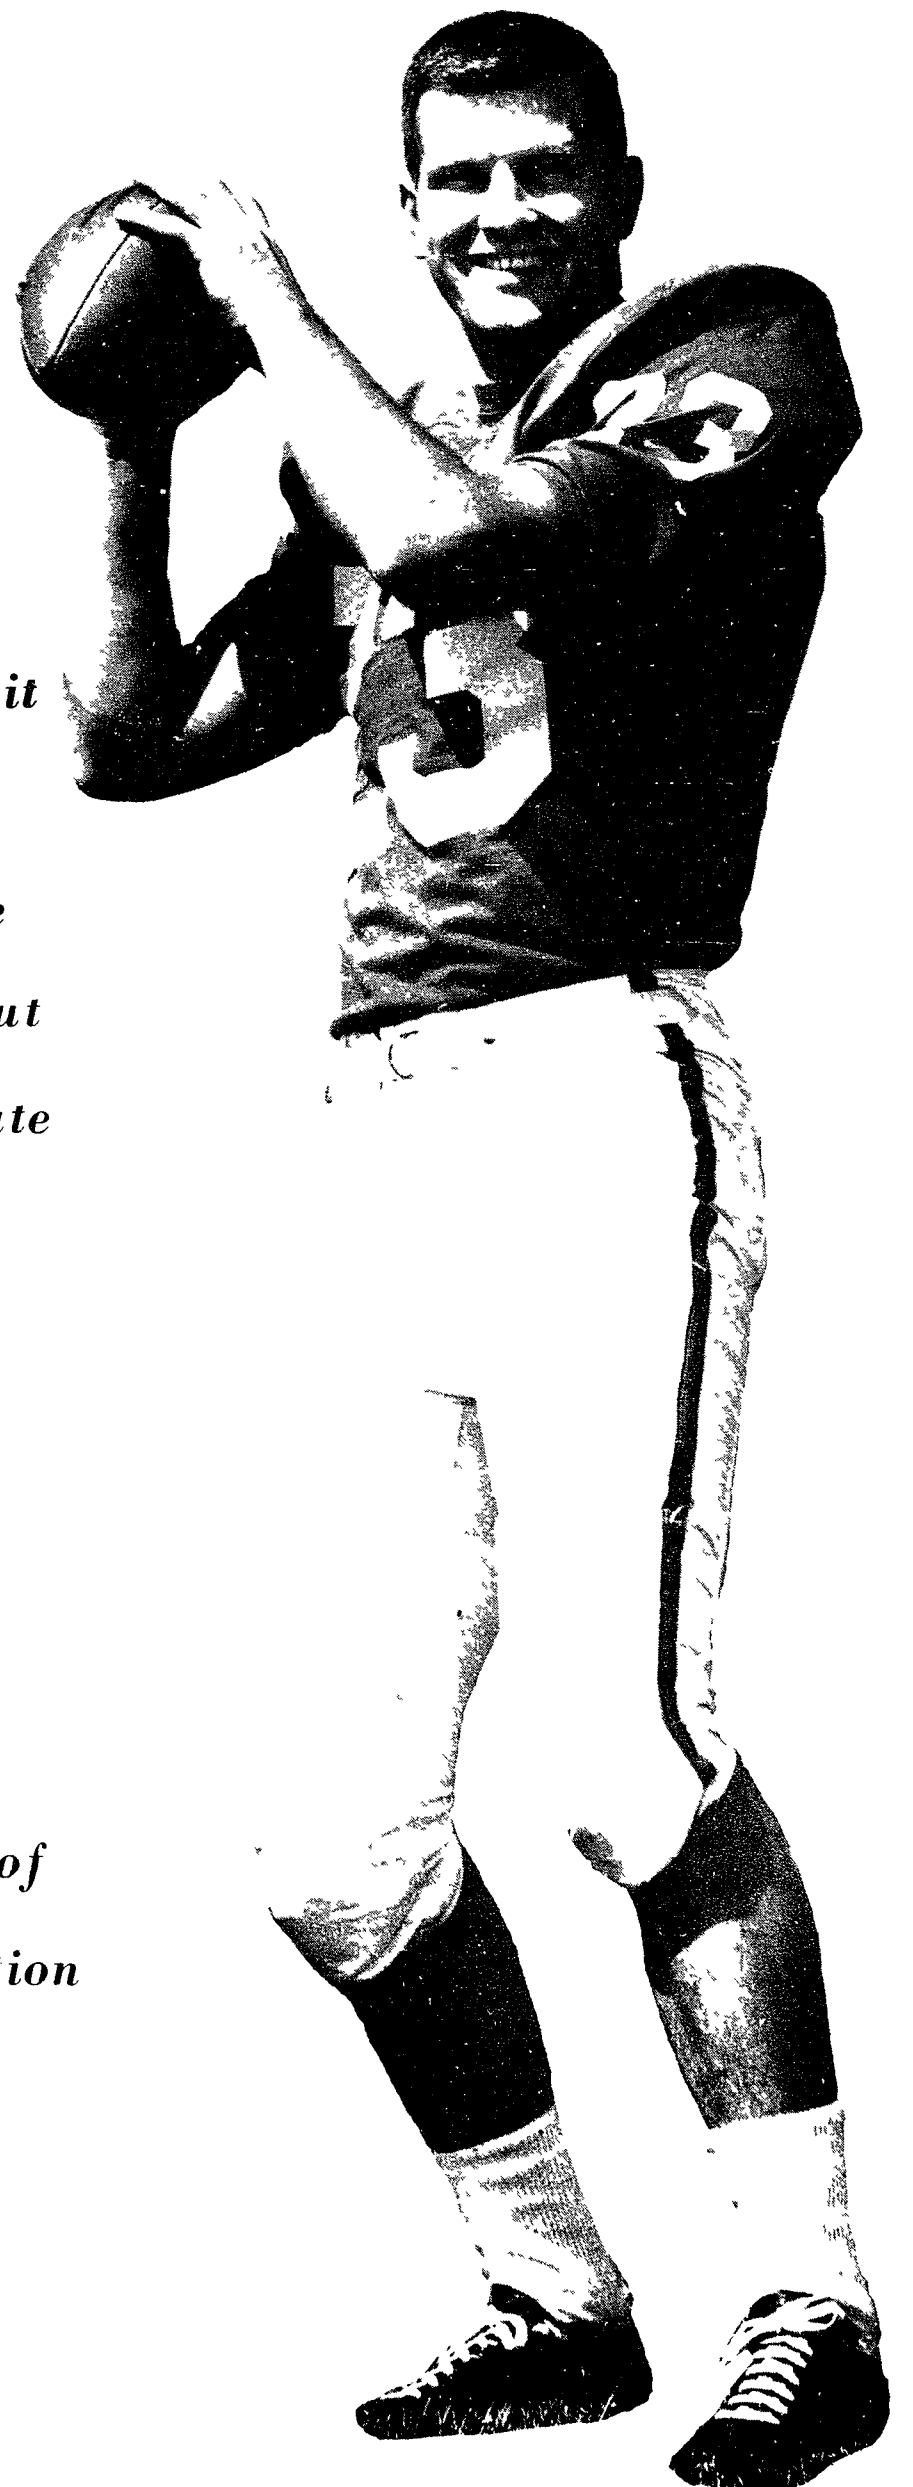

Whereas he did continue to demonstrate these outstanding characteristics throughout his four-year career at Michigan State University;

Whereas he has brought attention and great credit to our community wherever he has performed as All American quarterback and team leader throughout our nation;

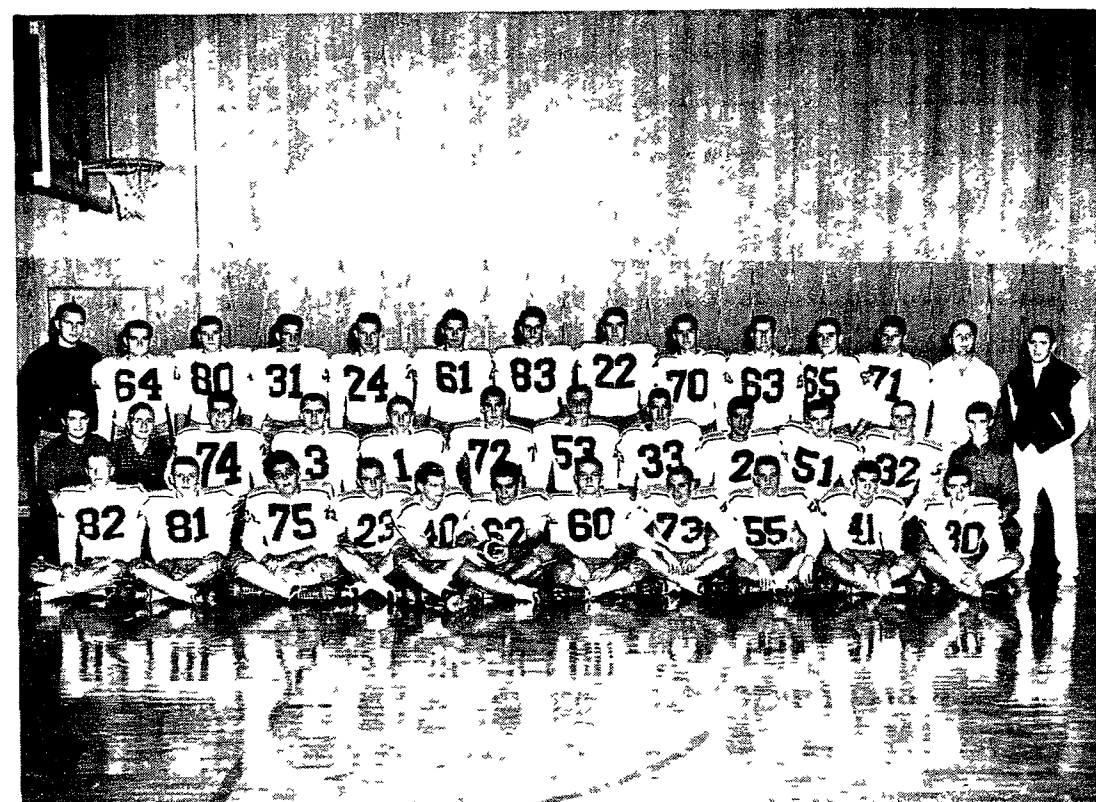

Now Therefore, I, A. Malcolm Allen, Mayor of the City of Northville, in appreciation of these acts do hereby proclaim Tuesday, January 25, 1966 as in the city of Northville, Michigan.

STEVE JUDAY DAY

A. M. Allen

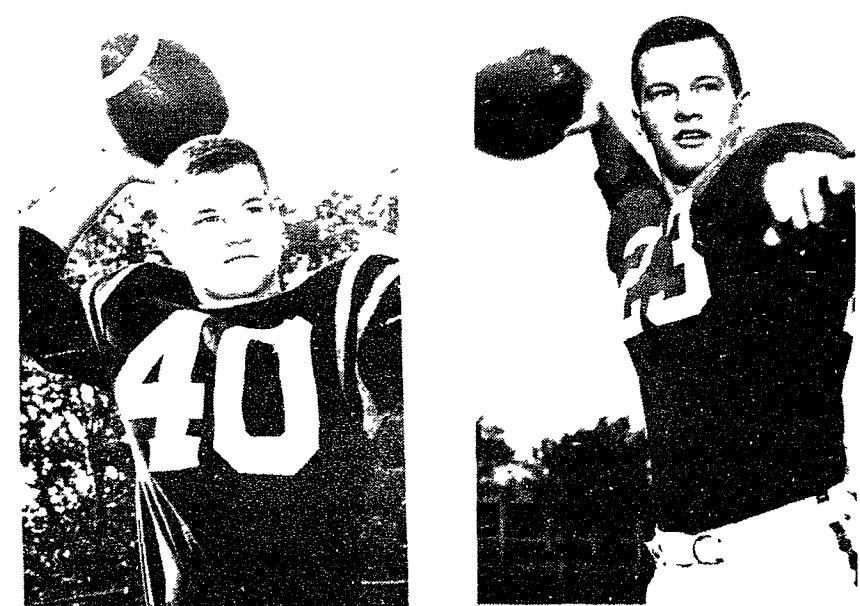

At Northville and State... Winning's Been a Juday Habit

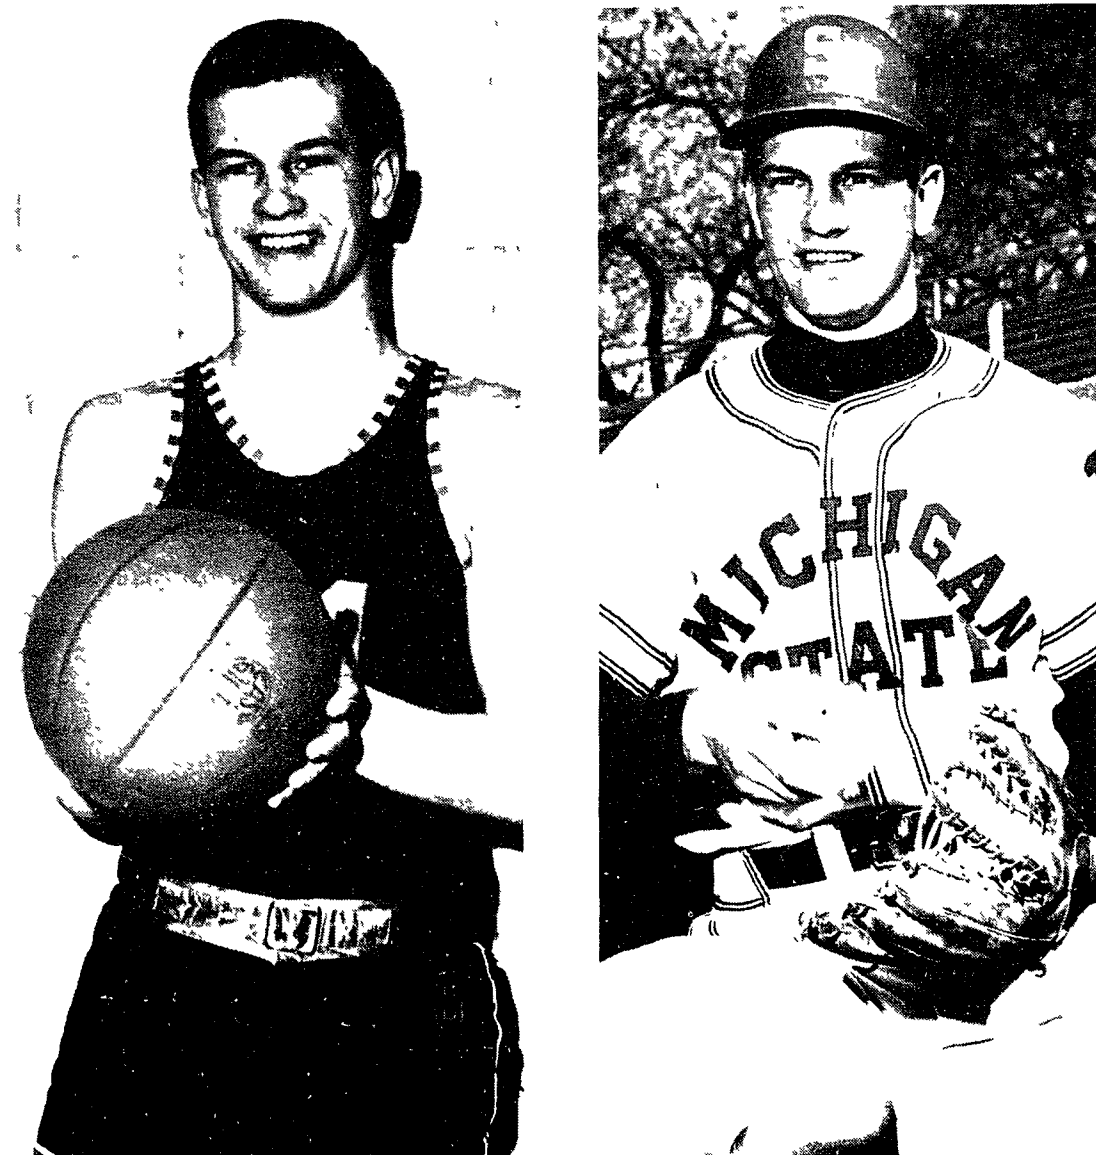

In 1961-62 Northville recorded its finest season on the hardwoods—20 straight wins before running up against perennial champions River Rouge in the semi-finals of the state tourney at East Lansing. Top six on the squad pictured with Coach Dave Longridge are Dan Brown (now a member of the U of M basketball team), Dick Bathey, Jim Juday, Tom Swiss, Steve and Craig Bell.

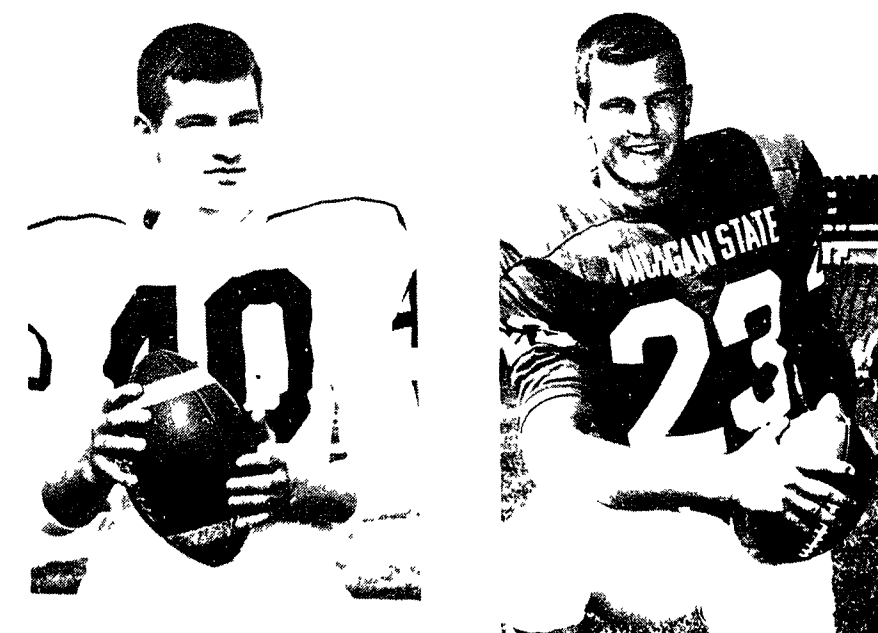

Also in 1961—Steve's senior year at Northville—the football team completed its season without a loss or tie. Pictured on the squad are: (front row, l. to r.) Dan Brown, Craig Bell, Jack Dowd, Dennis Gilbert, Steve Juday, Jerry Biddle, Bob Hallam, John Engle, Gary Nichols, Ron Rice and Don Biery; (middle row) Larry Angove, Dave Jerome, Terry Muns, Jim Jiggins, Tom Slattery, Gordon Hammond, Rick Rebitzke, Joe Hay, Dikran Ormekian, Bob Budlong, Ron Rebitzke and Dan Bishop; (standing) Coach Alex Klukach, Bill Krist, Jim Juday, Bill Elwell, Tom Swiss, Dean Busch, Jay Sugrue, Dick Bathey, Dave Clark, Dick Stamen, Ed Beard, Roy Rice, Head Coach Ron Horwath and Coach Dave Longridge.

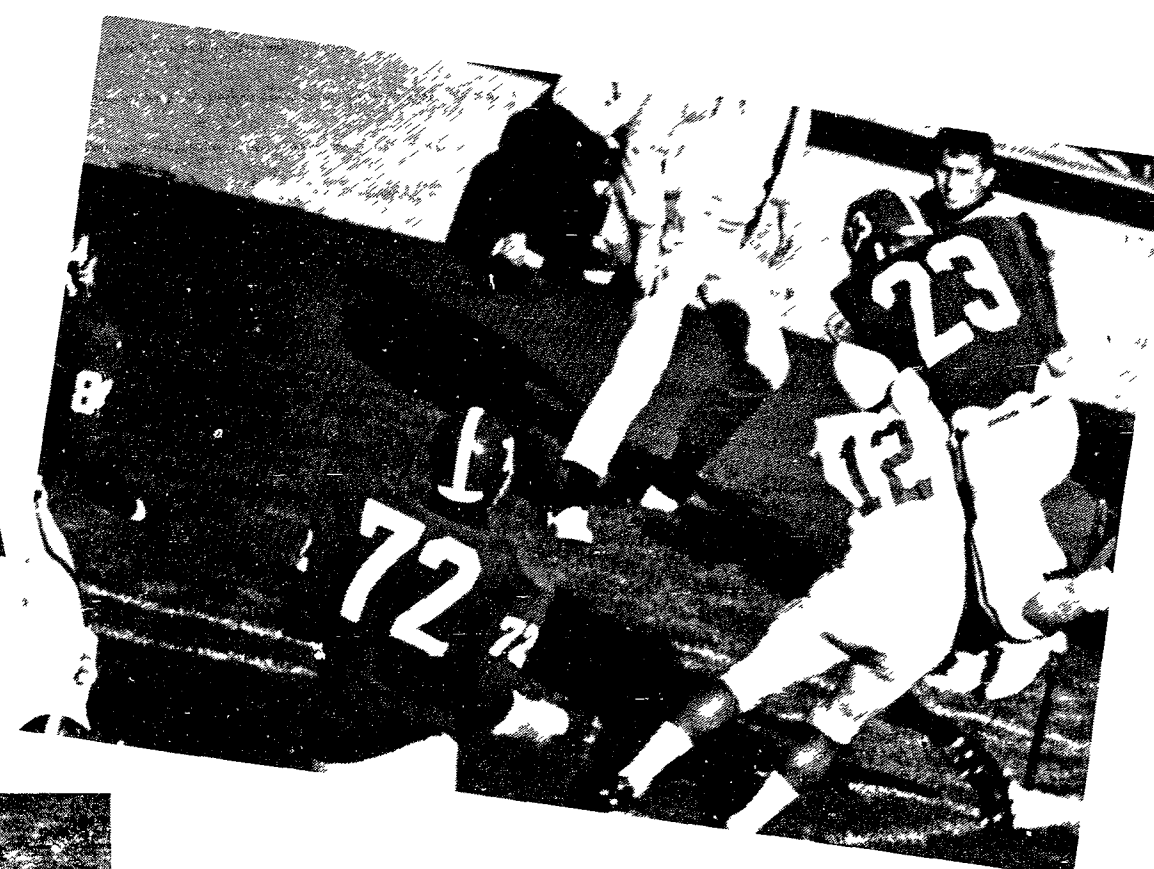

See any difference? The number "40" in high school and "23" at college. And the passing style shows signs of change. But otherwise Steve retains the All American boy look.

If there's a ball involved, you'll find Steve Juday ready to play. In the picture at left above Steve was just a junior in high school, but a regular member of the Mustang basketball team. He also excels in baseball and may wind-up in the pro ranks of that sport if football offers aren't appealing. Last year he batted .342 for the Spartan varsity as a shortstop-first baseman.

You'll Find Steve 'Where the Action Is'!

These action pictures of Steve were taken in games during his three years as Michigan State's number one quarterback. Juday's play resulted in a rewriting of the record book at State. He set new marks in yards gained passing, passes attempted and completed, touchdown passes and total offense. His 16 passes completed in one game also set a new State record. The above pictures reveal that getting the ball away sometimes presents obstacles. In the picture at top right Juday is shown scoring.

A Look at the Juday Record

Northville High School—1960-62

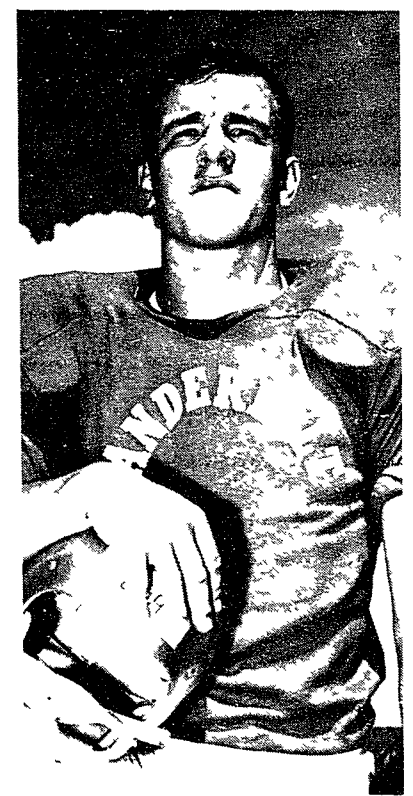

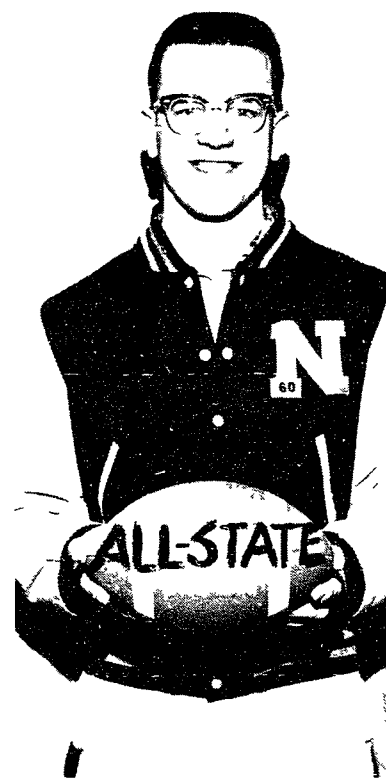

- All League selection in Baseball, Basketball and Football.

- Three-sport letter winner on Northville teams in 1961-62 that won 43 games while losing only two.

Michigan State University—1962-66

- Co-captain of 1965 Big Ten Champion Spartan football team.
- All Big Ten quarterback in 1965.

- Most valuable back in 1966 Hula Bowl game in Honolulu.

Meet Steve's Family...

There's more than one athletic star in the Juday family. Steve's big brother Bill was All-State guard at Northville high school and later became a stand-out center and captain of the Vanderbilt University team. Young brother Jim is now a sophomore at MSU and due to an injury suffered this year has three more years of football eligibility remaining. Jim hopes to make the 1966 Spartan squad as a tight end. He played football, basketball and baseball at Northville high school. We almost forgot... there's Mom and Dad, too. Dick's a fuel oil distributor and former city councilman. And as you might guess, besides being a housewife, Mrs. Juday is a sports fan!

That's Bill above when he was named All State at Northville. He's shown at right above as captain of the Vandy eleven. At right is Jim when he was named most valuable player on the 1963 Northville high school basketball team.
