In Our Town

Record Woman's Editor Jean Day is touring Europe with a party of press people from the Detroit area. Her guest columnist this week is Mrs. Frank (Barbara) Defina, a member of the Northville TOPS club.

Would the threat of wearing a pair of shocking pink, oversized long Johns keep you from eating that extra helping, make you refuse a piece of pie or cut out those between meal snacks? Members of "Eater Beaters", Northville chapter of TOPS, hope so, as such a pair of underwear does exist and is present at their weekly meetings. TOPS stands for Take Off Pounds Sensibly.

The local club, which is part of an organization which has clubs in every state and many foreign countries, was formed in Northville in 1959 and has a membership of 30 active participants. We meet each Monday evening at Amerman school and are sponsored by the Northville Recreation Department.

The original TOPS club was founded in January, 1948 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin by Mrs. Esther Manz, a housewife who suffered from overweight, the same as thousands of others. It was started as a local club with only four members and as a result of its effectiveness, and sane and sensible approach to the problem, has won the approval of the medical profession and obese for whose benefit it was begun.

TOPS is set up on the theory that obesity is not like any short term illness, but an incurable affliction such as diabetes, alcoholism and many others that fortunately we can control.

Just as Alcohol Anonymous is organized that members might help themselves, the TOPS club tries to provide a psychological atmosphere to make reducing easier by gathering with those with a similar problem, and is dedicated to sensible reducing and weight control. In TOPS we hope to control obesity by drawing inspiration and motivation from planned group therapy.

Weekly meetings are always preceded by weighing-in, when each member notes the number of pounds lost or gained during the previous week. Between 7:30 and 8:00, shrieks of delight may be heard from the successful dieters, but occasionally statements such as "something must be wrong with the scales", are heard.

Our leader, Mrs. Victor Lonn, opens the meeting at eight o'clock and everyone repeats the pledge. The usual reports are given by treasurer, Mrs. Othal Baggett, and secretary, Mrs. Gregory Penrod. Co-leader, Mrs. Herbert Bissa, completes the roster or 1966 officers.

Weight recorder Mrs. Foster Ashby then calls roll and each member reports her progress for the preceding week. Losers are applauded and cheered but gainers are booed soundly. As mentioned before, the biggest gainer must don the long underwear for the evening and sweat-shirts, appropriately decorated, are worn by lesser pigs.

But so far we have only mentioned penalties. There are many rewards besides the important ones of losing ugly fat, better health, looks and attitude. The biggest loser is crowned queen of the week and the winner in each weight group is presented a prize. Recognition programs are held on local, state and national levels.

Contests help stimulate interest and we try to keep one in progress at all times. Winners may receive money, a centerpiece, or even a lovely hat which was won recently in an Easter contest.

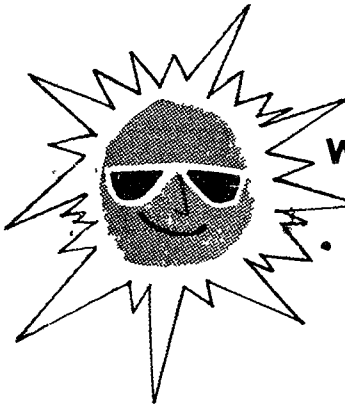

Five of our most faithful members are KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) and they weigh-in every week. Most of these ladies attained their goals six years ago, losing from 16 to over 50 pounds, and they claim that the only way they can be sure to keep the pounds off is to be present each Monday night. They are a constant source of encouragement to other members.

We also have three Kops-in-waiting at present, that is they're waiting to become KOPS, not the other kind, although we do have an expectant mother among us. When a TOPS reaches the goal set by her doctor, she becomes a Kops-in-waiting. Like regular KOPS she is allowed to gain three pounds or lose seven more and still be within her goal. At the end of three months she is given a party by fellow reducers and is graduated in ceremonies held in Detroit once a year.

We invite anyone interested in our fight against obesity to call 349-1823 or 349-0271 for more information. Or drop in any Monday night at 7:30-teacher's room, Amerman School. Our good-night slogan is always "See You Lighter".

'Packed House' Sees St. Paul's School Show

More than 300 persons attended the first spring festival of St. Paul's Lutheran school Friday evening.

Proceeds from the program will be used to defray expenses and to support the school's fine art program.

The three-part program included nursery rhyme portrayals by pupils in kindergarten, first and second grades, a musical presentation by third, fourth and fifth grade classes, and a puppet show by sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

The latter program featured puppets made by the students, who also wrote and directed the play called "Tale of The Lonely Goatherd." Adult supervision for the show was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wroten and Mrs. Charles Boeger.

Dressed in colorful costumes, the lower grade pupils portrayed characters from nursery rhymes. Featured were a live lamb and two kittens. Assisting the children were Mrs. Donald Millar, Mrs. Keith Pixley, Mrs. Arthur Witzke, and Mrs. James Vlassis.

Carol Witzke and William White were soloists in the musical presentation, which featured songs from the "Sound of Music". Mark Zabel, James Tellam, Fred Shipley, and William White performed as a quartet.

Assisting the songsters were Miss Dorothy Bartusch and Warren Zabel, principal of St. Paul's.

Choir to Stage Operetta

Members of the high school choir are busily engaged in rehearsal for this year's operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance". Leslie G. Lee, who is retiring this year after 30 years of teaching music at Northville High School, directs the choir in this, his last school production. The operetta will be presented in the high school auditorium May 25 and 26, at 8:00 p.m. Principals consist of Frederick, a young pirate apprentice, who, having served his indentures, falls in love with Mabel, one of Major-General Stanley's beautiful daughters. Ruth, Frederick's middle-aged nursemaid, is the woman spited.

pirates, led by their king and his lieutenant. They all desire marriage with Major-General Stanley's wards. But the major-general, knowing the famous pirates have a weakness for orphans, professes to be an orphan to save his daughters from that plight. His small lie soon proves to be a fighting matter, as the pirates learn of his deception, and return to revenge themselves. The small police force is scared into action. Larry Wood as Frederick plays opposite Susie Hill and Linda Johnson portraying Mabel. Edith will be played by Nancy Shafer, and Sue Werdehoff. Kate is portrayed by Debra Forsyth and Kathy Schneider. The girls chorus compose the rest of the wards. Ruth will be played by Dianne Howard and Pam Smith. Mike Moody stars as the major-general, with Phil Andrews and Chris Winkler as the pirate king. The king's lieutenant is played by Robert Wood and Jerry Williams. At right, the Lapeer visitors, Rotary President Harold Bittner, and the guest speaker, Lawrence Good, are shown at the head table during Monday's Rotary luncheon program. Below, Northville Councilman Fred Kester, official city host for Mayor A.M. Allen, who was attending a similar program in Lapeer, and guests enjoy the music of the high school band during the flag raising ceremony at the city hall Monday. Mrs. Allen and Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson accompanied Mayor Allen in Lapeer.

SENIOR PROM-The senior class of Northville high school held its annual prom last Saturday night at the Meadowbrook Country Club. Couples danced to the music of Tom Houghton and his band from 9 to 12 p.m. Dinner was served before the dance. An added feature was the appearance of a guitarist-humorist, who performed for half an hour. This year's there wad "Til Then".

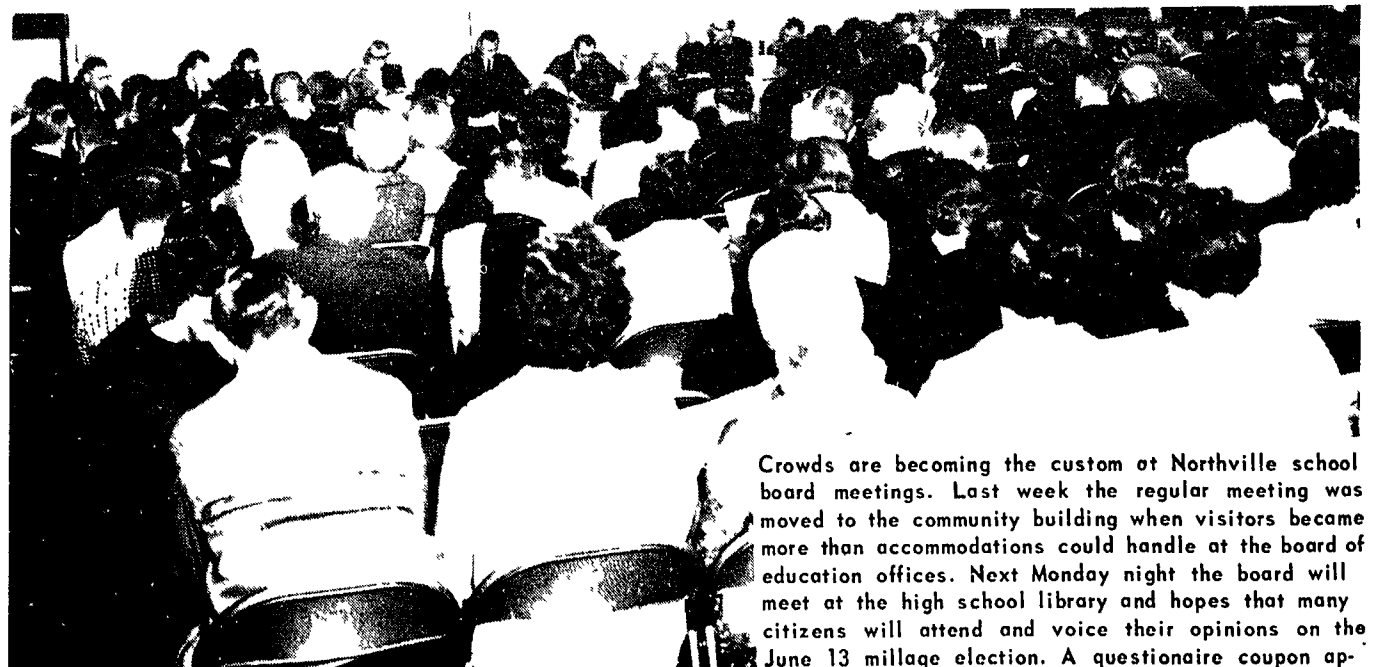

ROTARY SPEAKER-Robert E. Hall (second from right), director of Michigan's Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund, explained provisions of the new act to members of the Northville Rotary Club last week. He described the new claims act, which requires the insured motorist to pay $1 into the fund when he obtains his auto license plates and the uninsured motorist to pay $35, as the first of its kind in the United States. Benefits from the program, he said, go to the insured motorist. Pictured (l. to r.) are: Jerry Conway, administrative officer for the claims fund; Ken Rathert, Rotary program chairman; and Rotary President Harold Bittner.

SAFETY FIRST-This new metal sign, donated to the city by the Lloyd H. Green American Legion Post 147, was presented to the City Manager Frank Ollendorff (left) by John Steimel at the Rotary club's mayors' exchange luncheon program on Monday. The sign will be erected at the city limits.

TWO INJURED-Mrs. Gary Wyman, 24 of Novi, shown here being loaded into a Casterline stretcher, underwent surgery last week at St. Mary hospital for an arm fracture suffered in a two-car crash at Novi street and Eight Mile road. She was a passenger in her husband's car. Her year-old daughter and her husband were not injured. Lawrence Bogart of Ypsilanti, formerly of Northville, was the driver of the other car. He suffered cuts and bruises and was treated at St. Mary.

Crowds are becoming the custom at Northville school board meetings. Last week the regular meeting was moved to the community building when visitors became more than accommodations could handle at the board of education offices. Next Monday night the board will meet at the high school library and hopes that many citizens will attend and voice their opinions on the June 13 millage election. A questionnaire coupon appears on page 8B.

Plea to Older Voters

To the Editor:
 On June 13th Northville will have a second opportunity to vote a millage through that will benefit all citizens of Northville. The amount per taxpayer will be minimum and the rewards are, of course, maximum.

For the senior citizen who saw fit to vote on May 9th, and who may possibly have had a hand in pulling the NO lever ... it would be prudent to consider this millage an insurance for the future of the junior citizen ... just as this country has seen fit to provide the assurance of Medicare for the comfort of the senior citizen.

For as one is relieved of the possibility of financial hazards unforeseen, one must not hesitate to come to the aid of a community that is faced here and now with educational hazards. It is the responsibility of everyone of voting age to vote YES on the millage proposal, June 13.

Hopefully,
 Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, Jr.

Randy L. Birckelbaw of Plymouth was found guilty of speeding 45 MPH in a 35 MPH zone and was fined $5 and assessed $5 costs in lieu of a two-day sentence.

Samuel H. Robertson of Garden City paid a $15 fine and $5 costs in lieu of a five-day sentence after he pleaded guilty of failing to stop in an assured clear distance ahead, resulting in a property damage accident May 7 on Northville road.

Win W-O Tourney Netters Claim Title

There's no doubt in anybody's mind who's the best tennis team in the Wayne-Oakland Conference.

After sweeping through an 11-game schedule with nary a blemish, Northville outdistanced the field in the league tournament last Friday to nail down first place.

Combination of 10 points for a first place finish in the regular season race, plus another 10 points for taking first in the tournament, gave Northville a grand total of 20 points, a perfect score.

The closest competitor, Clarkston, garnered a total of 17 points, nine for second place in the league race and eight for copping second in the tournament.

In singles, Northville's ace, Jim Long, and number two man, Norbert Parent, deadlocked for the championship Friday at Bloomfield Hills, necessitating a playoff.

Because of rain and cold weather, Coach Dick Norton brought his two top hands home to square off for first place after resting off. Long beat Parent for the title Saturday at Cass Benton Park, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Norton's notion to switch number three singles man, Larry Thibos, to doubles to team up with Bill Hart paid off. They won first place with surprising ease in their first appearance in competition together.

All Northville entries got by the first round, Quay in the singles, and the teams of Ken Boerger-Dave Eberhard and George Kohs-Randy Burnett in the doubles to wrack up more points for the Mustangs.

"We looked real good as a team," said Norton, "and the performances of the second and third doubles teams was especially pleasing."

Long and Parent encountered little difficulty in beating three successive opponents to gain the finals. Both played against opponents they faced during the regular season.

Long began his bid for the top with a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Holly's Ron Ranger. Then, in order, he beat Clarkston's Mark Erickson, 7-5, 6-1, and Rick Robinson of Bloomfield Hills, 6-1, 6-0.

Parent had an even easier time, soundly whipping Bernie Kent, of Clarenceville, 6-0, 6-0, and Brian Carrier, of Bloomfield Hills, 6-2, 6-2. In his semi-final victory, Parent met Clarkston's Mike Dougherty, who previously beat Long during the regular season, but Parent wasted no time in disposing of Dougherty, 6-0, 6-0.

Thibos and Hart waded through their opposition, but they got a breather along the way. In a move to rest his top doubles team, Norton decided to give Thibos-Hart a default victory over teammates Boerger and Eberhard in the second round.

"I hated to make the move," said Norton, "especially since Boerger and Eberhard had played so well in preliminary and first round matches. But I felt it was best for the team."

Thibos and Hart earned their second round bid by dumping Neil Fellender and Bryan Schoenberg, of Clarenceville, 6-0, 6-0. After the second round default victory, the winning duo beat Jack Sampson and Brian Galippo, of Clarkston, 6-3, 6-3, in the semi-finals, and topped off their victory skeen by beating Kim Beattie and Tom Bullard of Clarkston, 6-1, 6-2, for the doubles title.

Before their elimination, Boerger and Eberhard posted convincing wins, 6-2, 6-2, over Clarenceville's Mark Eberhart and Jim Altman in a preliminary round, and 6-1, 6-1, over Milford's Dave Powers and Jim Beck.

In the other doubles quest, the team of Kohs-Burnett battled to a 6-8, 6-4, 6-3, victory over John Brummeler and Ken Foss, of Holly, in the first round, then lost to Kim Beattie and Tom Bullard, of Clarkston, 6-3, 6-3.

In singles competition, Quay beat Milford's Jim Demko, 6-1, 6-0, in a preliminary match, then lost to Duane Addis, a tough Holly opponent, 3-6, 6-3, 3-6.

Northville thus wound up its season on top of the league, followed by Clarkston, Bloomfield Hills, Holly and Clarenceville, both tied for fourth, and Milford.

Evans Hurls 4-0 No-Hitter

Steve Evans personally took care of Milford Tuesday.

Northville's ace pitcher hurled a brilliant no-hitter against the previously undefeated Redskins and slugged a three-run homer to win his own game, 4-0.

The win pulled Northville closer to the league lead, which Milford still holds with an 11-1 mark. Northville is currently tied with Clarkston with a 9-2 Wayne-Oakland Conference record.

But the victory was especially significant since Milford will have to face Clarkston, Bloomfield Hills and Northville before closing out the season next week. That clash with Milford, which looms bigger than ever now, will take place Monday at Milford.

As superb as Evans has been all season (he's only given up one earned run while posting a 7-1 record), the tall right hander exceeded his previous efforts. He struck out 14, a season high for him, including the side in the last inning to finish with a flourish. In addition, he walked only three.

Closest Milford came to a hit was a trickler down the third base line that squirmed through the third baseman, but it was ruled an error. And Evans pitched his way out of a jam with runners on first and third in the fifth inning by striking out the third man.

Northville bagged all its runs in the third inning. Catcher Randy Pohlman lined a single to center, leading off. Outfielder Mike Turnbull then grounded to third, but the first baseman dropped the throw as Turnbull bulled into him.

Second Baseman Bob Bartski reached first safely on an error as Pohlman scored. Evans then clubbed a home run high over the left field fence to give Northville a 4-0 lead that Evans protected.

Swiss Lost For Season

Prospects for a championship diminished somewhat last week Tuesday when Doug Swiss, the top catcher in the W-O league and one of the top prep catchers in this area, was lost for the season because of injury.

Swiss suffered a severe shoulder separation in practice that necessitated immediate operation on his right shoulder at St. Mary hospital in Livonia. He is now recuperating at home.

According to Coach Bob Kucher, Swiss was running a relay on the base paths when his and another player's feet became entangled. Swiss fell full force on his right shoulder, Kucher reported.

Three hours after the injury, a specialist performed a two-hour operation that will speed the healing of torn ligaments where the shoulder was separated from the collar bone, Kucher said.

Kucher said the operating doctor felt Swiss will be able to play ball and throw with the same efficiency. The doctor said, however, that Swiss will have to relax through the summer months to permit the shoulder to heal properly.

Billiards Exhibition Coming Up

An exhibition of pocket billiards by Jimmy Moore, billed as the "fastest player in the world", will be held Friday, May 27 at 7 p.m. at the Northville Cue Ball, 120 West Main.

Moore finished second five times to world's tournament champion, Willis Mosconi and once defeated Mosconi, 500-393 in match play.

He holds the high record for tournament play of 185.

Moore will display fancy and trick shots as well as playing a match against Denny Wilson, owner of Northville Cue Ball.

Thinclads Win Tie For Novi

Novi's junior high school track team tied for team honors Friday in the Milford invitational.

The local squad came up with four first places in competing with Milford, Highland and Birney junior high schools.

Winners were:
Jon VanWagoner and Ken Osborn, who claimed the high jumps with leaps of 5' 8" and 4' 6", respectively.

Andy Pantaleo and Mike Farah, who turned in broad jumps of 15' 8" and 18' 8", respectively.

Gary Boyer, Osborn, Tom Holmes and VanWagoner, who won the shuttle-hurdle relay with a time of 56.7.

Holmes, Pantaleo, Farah and Douglas Earl, who were first in the sprint medley relay with a time of 1:56.4.

Coach Fred Hanert singled out Farah and VanWagoner for "exceptional performances" during the current track season. "Both boys," he boasted, "are performing as well as many older high school boys."

Little Leaguers Washed Out

Rain has clouded Novi's little league season, with four of the first six scheduled games postponed.

In the only action of the first full week of play, Smith Excavation defeated Flynn Modernization and Hurler Tom VanWagner picked up a victory for Jay Hawks over the Paragon Steelers, 15-1.

VanWagner struck out 10 batters and gave up only one hit before he was relieved. Paragon's losing hurler fanned nine but gave up 13 hits.

Big sticks for the Jay Hawks were Tom and Jim VanWagner, each of whom came up with four hits in four trips to the plate.

Final Putt Sinks Northville

The fairways were oozy and the skies overcast at Glen Oaks Country Club last Friday, site of this year's regional golf tournament.

Northville, winner of three consecutive regional Class B titles, was making its bid for an unprecedented fourth championship. And in the thick of the race, the local prepsters were as the teams finished nine holes.

In fact, Coach Al Jones' golfers were tied with Fenton for second place at 171 as the teams made the turn — and the easiest nine holes were coming up.

Detroit Benedictine, with sharp shooting Rocky Pozzan leading the way, was leading the field by an impressive spread of seven points. Northville's title was ebbing away fast.

But there was still an excellent chance of finishing in the top three to win a berth in this week's state finals that will be held this Friday and Saturday at Meadowbrook Country Club. This was what Coach Jones and his golfers were now shooting for.

But the bubble burst on the back nine as the local golfers cracked under pressure and finished out of the running by a bare stroke at 345. The last Fenton golfer sunk a five-foot putt to give his team a total score of 344.

"The back nine was easier than the front," said Jones. "We expected to shoot three or four strokes better, but we didn't."

"Sure I'm disappointed that we didn't shoot better," Jones lamented, "but I'm not as disappointed as the kids are. By losing by one stroke, they're looking back, seeing where they could pick up a stroke, blaming themselves. They were real quiet on the way home."

There was no matching or even approaching Benedictine, the team that broke Northville's win streak with an impressive total of 317. Closest competitor was Holly, Northville's conference foe, which posted a 331; then came Fenton and its 344 and Northville's 345.

Behind them in the 22-team field came Monroe Catholic Central (348), West Bloomfield (350), Airport (351), Riverside (357), Dearborn Crestwood (360), Dearborn Sacred Heart (365), Clawson, Royal Oak Shrine and Grosse Ile (379), Livonia Stephenson (387), Dundee (392), Milan (405), Madison Heights (423), Riverview (426), Salem (444), Flat Rock and Detroit Cathedral (449).

In Class A, conference rival, Bloomfield Hills, once again gained a berth in the state tournament by shooting a 322, second to Birmingham Seaholm's winning score of 321. Other top A teams of the 23 were Royal Oak Kimball (329), Brother Rice (330) and Mount Clemens (336).

Junior Keith Mueller paced the local golfers with a score of 82 (40-42). He was followed by Senior Bob Regenhart's 86 (43-43), Senior Rick Talbot's 87 (43-44) and Junior Mike Hohenic's 90 (45-45).

Pozzan, who was beaten in a playoff last year by Talbot for runner-up honors in the regionals, copped medalist honors in both classes with a 71. The honor was won last year by Northville's Jim St. Germain. Next highest score was a 75.

Benefit to Aid Area Workshop

A mammoth benefit, the like of which has never before been presented in Western Wayne County, is expected to attract more than 2,500 to Roma Hall on Wednesday, May 25 and raise as much as $15,000 for the Community Opportunity Workshop, located at the intersection of Newburgh and Ann Arbor Roads in Livonia in the old Newburgh elementary school.

There'll be Lions, politicians, business and industry leaders, governmental heads from all levels, entertainers and the plain citizens who believe in the Sheltered Workshop for retarded adults and are willing to use a benefit of this type to make contributions.

There is a possibility that a few Tigers will be in the audience if the proper arrangements are made with Detroit Baseball Company officials to have some of the players appear.

The benefit, started two months ago by Mrs. Rosalie Bales of Plymouth, has caught fire in the past two weeks and now appears certain to become the biggest money raising program for the Sheltered Workshop since it was opened to retarded in the communities of Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford Township last September.

Originally started by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce, the workshop quickly spread into the four communities and has plenty of applicants for work - but as expected from a still very young group, lacks financing.

It was this financing that Mrs. Bales noted was missing and personally decided that something should be done. She contacted scores of workers in all four communities to volunteer, personally made contacts in high places for speakers and for high ranking personages to appear, arranged for Roma Hall and then finally saw her idea begin to jell in the past two weeks.

The principal speakers are Mrs. Lenore Romney, wife of the governor, and William Patrick, Jr., former Detroit city councilman and now legal counsel for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Consumers Plans Car Inspection

Northville area motorists were invited this week to have their cars safety checked Friday, May 27 at the Livonia service center of the Consumers Power company.

Cars will be checked at the center, located at 11801 Farmington road, from 1 to 5 p.m.

To kick-off the annual safety inspection, Consumers Power will hold a pancake breakfast for all its employees May 24.

J. P. Thomas, division manager, said that during the two days the company also will inspect 150 company vehicles and all employees' personal cars.

Banners, posters and placards will remind Consumers Power employees of the significance of vehicle safety.

Woman Injured In Crash

A Novi woman and a former Northville resident were injured late Friday morning in a two-car crash at Novi street and Eight Mile road.

Taken to St. Mary hospital in Livonia were Mrs. Gary M. Wyman, 24 of 44109 Grand River, who underwent surgery for an arm fracture, and Lawrence Bogart, 43 of Ypsilanti, who suffered cuts and bruises. Bogart was treated and released. Mrs. Wyman is reported in good condition.

Mrs. Wyman's one-year-old daughter, Sheri, and her 24-year-old husband, driver of the car, were not injured.

According to police, Bogart was driving east on Eight Mile road when Wyman started to cross the highway on Novi into the path of Bogart's car. The collision slammed Wyman's car into a utility pole.

In another two car accident later the same day, a Union Lake man was injured slightly. He was Raymond Sutcliffe, a passenger in a car driven by George Lowther, Jr., also of Union Lake. He was not treated at the scene.

Police said Lowther's car was struck by one driven by Kerry B. Luedtke, 16080 Northville road, near the Novi road curve into Northville. Luedtke and three passengers in his car were not injured.

Luedtke reportedly lost control of his car on the curve and skidded into the path of the Lowther car.

William Patrick, Jr.

Senator Robert Griffin, recently appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Patrick McNamara, will appear. There is a possibility that he may be influenced to give an insight into his visit to Viet Nam.

Then there is Mrs. Elly Peterson, Republican national committeeman and head of the Republican Party in Michigan; Neil Staebler, Democratic National committeeman who is Mrs. Peterson's counterpart in the state for his party.

Former Governor G. Memmen Williams, who is a candidate for the senatorial seat, will be represented by his wife and son Gary. Detroit Mayor Jerry Cavanagh will be represented by Dr. John Hanlon, Wayne County's Health Commissioner.

Others in the political field include State Representative Marv Stempin, State Representative James Tierney, State Representative Edward Robinson and Carl Pursell, of Plymouth, who is a candidate for a state senatorial seat; Congressman Weston Vivian, and Congressman Billie Farnum.

Mayors Harvey Moeke of Livonia, A.M. Allen of Northville, James Houk of Plymouth and Township Supervisor John McEwen of Plymouth and Jack McDonald of Redford Township will be in the audience.

The various school districts will be represented by Superintendents Benton Yates of Livonia, Russell Isbister of Plymouth, Russell Hilbert of Redford Union, and Alex Nelson of Northville. Circuit Court Judge Thomas Foley, of Plymouth, will be the master of ceremonies.

The Detroit Lions will have a six or eight man delegation present to autograph programs and generally add to the spirit of the evening.

The list includes Bruce Hamer, Gall Cogsdill, Daryl Sanders, Tom Watkins, Pat Studstill, Joe Schmidt, Frank Taylor and Wayne Walker.

Just to give the youngsters something to think about, the Detroit Lions have donated several packets of football pictures and they will be presented to the kids as long as they last.

The Sweet Adelines, one of the area's most popular singing quartets, will furnish some of the entertainment with more groups expected to join the parade during the next few days.

Use Brick to Smash Windows

Thieves Strike Again

Well over $1,000 worth of merchandise were stolen from two Northville stores early Saturday morning as the number of break-ins here continues to mount.

Saturday's thefts occurred shortly after 1 a.m. at Ellis Electronics, 110 East Main street, and at H. R. Noder's Jewelers, 101 East Main street.

According to police, the thieves used bricks to break store windows in gaining entrance. A witness reported seeing three men get into a car and speed away east on Main, but he was unable to identify either the men or the car.

Stolen from Ellis were two portable television sets. A third set was damaged as were neon light fixtures. Eight sapphire rings, four Hamilton watches, an automatic watch, two electric watches and three Accutron watches were taken from the showcase at Noder's.

The latest thefts recorded in the downtown area to five during the past two weekends.

Police theorize that the men involved in the break-ins either are monitoring the police radio or are closely watching the movements of police patrols. The break-ins over both weekends took place within minutes after patrols left the area, police said.

PACKING HOUSE SUPER MARKET

It's no joke, Northville's annual P-TA carnival scheduled for tomorrow will be packed full of fun and good things to eat, and all of it is planned to please the youngsters and to tickle plenty of adult funnybones. And if Batman shows up, he's in for a real treat. He can toss bean bags at his old arch enemy, the Joker. Putting up the teathy public enemy as they set the stage for tomorrow's big show are James Lowery, (left) and Paul Rebitzke. The 5 1/2-hour carnival will be held at the community building and the junior high school at 4:30 p.m.

New Township Development Plan Sees 47,000 Maximum Population

A total of 12 district residential areas have been provided for in Northville township's recently completed community development plan.

These areas, together with recreational, community facilities, thoroughfares, and industrial locations, are based upon studies of the township's location in respect to the surrounding areas, upon population characteristics and population trends, and upon the township's physical characteristics.

In developing the plan, for example, planners projected a maximum population of 47,435 persons, which they believe will not be reached for many years. Nevertheless, this "holding capacity" projection permitted them to provide for the required residential areas in their overall plan.

A significant feature of the residential unit plan is that it calls for large portions of present institutional property to be used eventually for residential purposes.

Of the 13,847 potential dwelling units provided for in this plan, 12,807 are single family dwelling units and 1,040 are multiple dwellings.

Total population capacities reflect a ratio of 3.5 persons per family for single family dwellings and 2.5 per family for multiple dwellings.

Based upon these projected figures, the planners estimated a need for 13 elementary schools, all within the present confines of the Northville school district. Two of the proposed schools would be located in a residential area east of Northville road, between Five and Six Mile roads, because of higher projected density.

Although planners admit that there are numerous sites within the township for a community center, their plan calls for location of this facility between Waterford Lake and Six Mile road east of the railroad.

This site location, they explain, contains approximately 39 acres, is a short distance east of the intersection of Northville and Six Mile roads, and would serve as a buffer between the railroad and any future residential development to the east.

A sketch of this proposed development includes an administration building, library, cultural facilities and a police and fire station.

The sketch indicates that the police and fire station should be located on the western edge of the site and buffered from the remainder of the community center buildings.

The administration building, library and auditorium, under this plan, would form a building complex overlooking Waterford Lake. The parking area is suggested between this building complex and Six Mile road.

Another possibility as indicated in the sketch, is a band shell built on a platform in the lake, utilizing the natural topography of the site.

Functions which planners conclude may ultimately be required in the community center are general governmental offices, police station, fire station, branch offices of the county, state or federal government, public library, community auditorium and meeting rooms, community recreational buildings, park, and off-street parking.

The plan calls for ultimate development of more than $87.4 million for retail and service expenditures. This development, planners determined, could utilize 60 acres of commercial land.

On this basis, they point out, the township could support six commercial centers that would adequately serve the maximum population.

General location of these proposed centers are: corner of Six Mile and Ridge, Six Mile and Beck, Seven Mile and Beck, Seven Mile road near the Northville state hospital, Six Mile road east of Bradner, and Five Mile road near Maxwell.

Three separate industrial districts are provided for in the plan. The first, located on Five Mile road in the Ridge and Napier roads area, contains 469 acres of land.

The second industrial district, comprising 235 acres, is the existing industrial corridor paralleling the north-south railroad right-of-way, and the third district is in the Six Mile and Haggerty roads area containing a potential 526 acres of industrial land.

The total 1,230 acres of potential industrial development represent 12-percent of the total area of the township—a relatively low acreage figure for a community containing 10,683 acres, according to planners.

At ultimate development this amount of industrial acreage could provide approximately $65 million of assessed valuation, based on $53,000 per acre of assessed valuation, or 30-percent of the total assessed valuation of $217 million.

Commercial land use at ultimate development, under this plan, should provide $2 million of assessed valuation, while residential land use could be expected to provide $150 million of assessed valuation, or 69 percent of the total assessed valuation. The thoroughfare plan recommends a major and secondary route system for the community. All major routes, the planners advised, should have minimum county standard rights-of-way of 120 feet.

Haggerty road is indicated as a major north-south route, primarily because the proposed location of the future I-275 freeway is parallel to Haggerty and located within the city of Livonia.

With four interchanges proposed on I-275, including one at Eight and Six Mile roads, planners believe the traffic volume on Seven Mile road will not be particularly heavy.

The interchange proposed at Six Mile road is in close proximity to the potential industrial district proposed at Six Mile and Haggerty roads.

Sheldon and Northville roads are major north-south thoroughfares in the township linking the cities of Northville and Plymouth and, according to planners, these routes will not lose much significance with the introduction of the future I-275 freeway.

Several collector, or secondary thoroughfares, with 86-foot rights-of-way are indicated in the plan.

Among problems that planners suggest be avoided are problem intersections, sub-standard rights-of-way (in width), inadequate turn-around (minimum 60-foot right-of-way radius) and excessive block length of over 1300 feet.

Williams' Papers Not Public

LANSING - Consideration of changing the name of the Mackinac Bridge to the G. Mennen Williams Bridge has been dropped for now but an interesting sidelight of the proposal can be found in history. It is not known whether anyone asked the former governor's opinion on the question this year, but he expressed himself on the matter some years back. Back in 1957, right around the time the bridge opened, a group of Upper Peninsula Williams enthusiasts proposed it be named after the governor who was the moving force in its construction. They were ready to circulate petitions when they wrote to him regarding the use of his name. His answer was short and to the point: the bridge should be called the Mackinac Straits Bridge because of its location.

nature or because the people involved are still alive. IT IS COMMON PRACTICE, as was seen in the case of some records of the late President Kennedy, to suppress papers for a period of years or until the death of the principles if there is any chance embarrassment could come from disclosure. Many interesting ideas behind the Williams administration over 12 years can be found in the Papers which are open for research, however. Apparently the followers of Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh thought the Papers would be good digging ground for ammunition against the former governor in the current campaign. A member of Cavanagh's campaign staff went to Ann Arbor to go through the papers shortly after the Mayor announced he would run against Williams in the primary. He was turned away. His purpose was not deemed to be worthy under the library's concept of historical research. SUPERMAN wasn't available so the State Board of Education found a man right here in Michigan to serve as the first appointive Superintendent of Public Instruction. The qualifications of Ira Polley to serve in the new $30,000 a year post are being questioned by professionals in the field, but that is a matter to be decided by the legal experts. Worthy of note in the selection of Polley is the process itself. When the State Board of Education was created by the 1963 Constitution and elected the following year, it set about quickly to find a replacement for Lynn M. Bartlett. He was leaving to accept a federal post shortly after his elective term expired.

That was nearly a year ago. As in the search some time back to get a psychiatrist to head the Mental Health Department, nationwide efforts were undertaken to get a field of candidates from which to choose. The figure heard most during the closed-door deliberations was about 30 applicants interviewed.  NARROWING this field was a big job. Some of the applicants withdrew themselves and the Board dropped others from consideration. When it came to a final decision, an offer reportedly was made to an out-of-state man who declined the position. There followed several weeks of meetings during which Polley's name reportedly was the only one given serious consideration. Finally, a deadlock vote was broken when one board member changed his mind. Said Dr. Edwin L. Novak of Flint, "We had been looking for a superman who didn't exist." Other state government units might remember Novak's observation when looking for other top level personnel.

Why Market Slumps

BABSON PARK, Mass. - When 1966 opened, optimism on the stock market was rampant. This column agreed with the bulls, freely predicting that the Dow Industrials would climb above 1,000 before the end of 1966. But not many investors are thinking about that magic figure now. Since the spring slump, most of them are asking: "What's gone wrong with the stock market?" To move ahead strongly, the stock market likes to feel confident and certain. Recently, all has been confusion, particularly among our leaders in Washington... political, military, and economic. After working hard to convince the public that it has the correct formula for prosperity without end, we find the Administration split from end to end on what to do next. ONE OFFICIAL holds that the economy is not overheating, that inflation is a long way off. Another states flatly that the business bulge in the first quarter was "faster than we ought to try to sustain". The Chairman of the Federal Reserve calls for higher taxes to dampen inflation. The Secretary of the Treasury right afterwards warns that a bigger tax bite now might tip over the economic applecart. Confusion also reigns with regard to what we should do in Vietnam. Our parents had an old saying: Doctors differ and patients die. Another way of putting it was: Too many cooks spoil the broth. That about describes what is going on today - not only in Washington - but also throughout this country and abroad. In South Vietnam, with Communists attacking from within and without, the army is split into factions and the Buddhists are fighting the Catholics. Amid this terrible confusion in that unhappy country, Vietnam elections are scheduled for late summer. Already anxiety is spreading that, no matter how the actual voting goes, civil war in South Vietnam may break out. Feeling is that the loser will not abide by the decision of the voters; this seems most likely if a strong military clique comes out the underdog. If the South Vietnamese front against Communism should crumble, it is very hard to see how the American military could continue to press the battle against the Viet Cong and against infiltration from the North. We have already had a foretaste of what is likely to happen... when riots recently swept South Vietnam. If the situation were a thousand times worse, it seems we would have no choice but to withdraw our men and materials.

THE RESULTS of such a removal would not be simply a battle lost. Americans have lost battles before. We refused to win in Korea; but we were not defeated. But to try and protect a nation against Communist takeover - and then to have to abandon such a country - would certainly be the same as losing a war. Even the "doves" might be stilled; for it is one thing to withdraw as a matter of considered decision, but quite another to lose a war. The "hawks" surely would scream. It is not hard to find stocks and stacks of favorable economic facts. Business generally was never bigger or better. Profits, although not racing ahead as fast as last year, are still climbing. Order backlogs are up, and tilting higher. Autos may be tapering a bit; but steel and other metals are booming, and pointing up. Money is more expensive; but we don't see any business starving for lack of funds. WHY, THEN, is the stock market out of gear with the business statistics? Because it is always afraid of confusion and uncertainty. It is not today that worries it... but tomorrow. Investors are wondering how long business statistics will stay favorable if our leader's cannot make up their minds about the danger of inflation, about taxes, about Vietnam. It is our belief that the Dow would get back on the track toward 1,000 if our leadership would unite. It is time to set the course and call the crew to man their stations.

SPEAKING for The Record

By Bill Sliger

Monday night a concerned handful of taxpayers filled the small quarters of the board of education offices and took part in a lively discussion on why the millage election failed and what should be done to win passage on the second try, June 13.

At next Monday's 7:30 p.m. meeting in the high school library the board will decide what new proposal will go on the ballot. Voters are being invited to submit their opinions on why Northville turned down its first millage request. And the board is seeking questions that can be answered at the public meeting.

There's a coupon on this page that can be mailed to board of education offices or given to any school administrator or board member so that it may be read and discussed Monday night. It is not necessary to sign the coupon.

Normally, interpreting a negative millage vote shouldn't be a very difficult task.

But these aren't normal times for the Northville school system so interpretations of the failure range from confusion over the ungraded system to protests involving both the board and superintendent.

Personally, I think we're so intent on seeking hidden reasons that we are completely overlooking the obvious.

The ungraded plan has been tossed out. Let's forget about it. The idea will be given a pilot test at the new elementary school. Advocates will claim it's a great success and opponents will say it's a flop and the controversy will continue just as it now exists throughout educational circles and even in systems where it is being used.

It is the board's responsibility to correct administrative problems. If there are complaints in this area, they should be taken directly to the board.

But the obvious reason for the failure of the millage request is that most voters do not want to raise their own taxes by eight mills.

And the Northville board is in a most unique position - they can return to the voters with a reduced proposal and still have their cake!

Now that the state equalized valuation has been definitely confirmed at $36,354,607 instead of $34,535,000 as estimated by the board of education, seven mills will raise $12,500 MORE in revenue than the board had sought under the eight mill request.

Despite this, and almost unbelievably, at least one board candidate and a board member and administrator or two were suggesting Monday night that an eight mill request (18 with the 10 renewal) should be returned to the voters June 13.

In other words, it is being suggested that the voters should be told "now that you've turned down our request for $282,000 in additional revenues, we're going to ask you to vote for an additional $316,000".

I hope the board is not led down this path. If it is, it is surely leading our school system to a third election and more confusion.

I favor giving the school system what it has said it needs, but under present circumstances, not a mill more. In another two years the board will be looking for more revenue to operate a new junior high school and an expanded high school. Right now it needs seven mills, no more.

"YES" voters who are sympathetic to the school system should also acknowledge the position of the "NO" voter. To disregard and flaunt this voice, which must now stand as the majority, would be to torpedo our school system.

Consider these facts:

Our state equalized valuation (tax base) has been firmly established at $36,354,607 for the 1966-67 school year.

If voters would approve a 17-mill increase (for a total operating millage of 25.9), the amount of revenue derived by multiplying 25.9 mills times the tax base is $941,568.

An 18-mill increase (or 26.9 mills) as previously proposed multiplied by the previously estimated tax base of $34,535,000 amounts to a revenue of $928,991, or a plus difference of $12,500 with the 17 mill levy.

In addition it is known that state aid is going higher than board estimates. This "bonus" can be used to reduce the $40,000 deficit that has been accumulated over the past few years.

I firmly believe a 17-mill request can pass. I'm equally convinced an 18-mill repeat request would fail.

A 17-mill package needs no apology. It represents the revenue the administration has said is needed to operate a good school program.

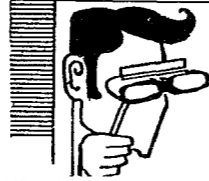

And it saves the dollar-conscious taxpayer one mill, at least for another year or two.

Why Did Millage Vote Fail?

BECAUSE...

OTHER QUESTIONS:

Please mail or leave this form at Northville board of education offices. The board will review and answer questions at Monday's 7:30 p.m. meeting at the high school library.

Readers Speak That's When I'll Vote Yes

To the Editor:

When educators bring back discipline for students as well as teachers - when children are taught to read, write and multiply instead of parties, PTA and poppycock - When teachers teach and grade their own papers and stop using the classroom as their soapbox for higher salaries and other gripes - When classrooms are built instead of swimming pools, fancy kitchens, football fields, etc - When teachers don't skip a chapter in math because they don't understand it - When teachers answer questions after school instead of rushing off to coach a ball game - In other words - When we taxpayers get what we're paying for, then and only then will we taxpayers vote for a millage increase willingly.

Investor's guide!

A Cadillac remains unmistakably a Cadillac regardless of year. New or previously-owned, its impressive size, its remarkable beauty and its continuity of styling have all contributed to Cadillac's reputation as the finest of all luxury car investments.

Every day, more and more wise car buyers are discovering that they can get more performance, luxury, distinction and pride of ownership in a previously-owned Cadillac than in many new cars of lesser stature. For example, Cadillac engineering has always been so advanced that many features of Cadillacs several years old are just now finding their way into new cars of other makes. And Cadillac has for years provided as standard equipment automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, power windows and power seats on most models, automatic cornering lights and many other conveniences that even now cost extra on most new cars. Consider, too, the extra reassurance of motoring in an automobile of Cadillac's impressive size and stature. Before you buy your next car, be sure to look for your authorized Cadillac dealer's used car sign. It is the best possible landmark for a wide, attractively priced selection of well cared for, previously-owned Cadillac cars.
