Pool, Additions To High School Up for Study

A special meeting of the Northville board of education will be held Monday evening to study plans for additions and alterations to the high school including a swimming pool.

The proposed additions would increase the capacity by 288 to 938 and would provide for future expansion to 1,100 students. Teaching stations are increased by 13.

Specifically, the proposals as submitted by architects include:

- expanding the cafeteria into the library area by removal of a partition;
- construction of a new unit directly south of the present kitchen area as a materials resource center (library);

- moving the arts and crafts area from its present location beneath the library to the present shop area at the northwest corner of the school;
- expanding the present arts and crafts area for larger commercial department;
- construction of a new comprehensive industrial arts unit with split-level facilities at the southeast corner of the school;
- construction of science unit directly northwest of the industrial arts unit to include three new classrooms, two science laboratories and a multi-purpose area;
- installation of a pool and locker room area west of the new science section adjoining the present gymnasium on its eastern wall.

In a preliminary presentation of plans to the board architects pointed out that the new resource center would provide, in addition to library services, audio-visual materials section and an opportunity for individual and small group study.

Several questions concerning the additions were posed by both citizens and board members relating to costs, location of office area for the pool and locker capacity.

The pool construction is limited to $500,000 by a separated voted bond proposal. The remaining bond issue of $2,800,000 to cover the new elementary and junior high school plus additions at the high school and other school area improvements is presently $149,000 over estimates, it was noted. Although federal funds may be available for certain areas of the high school expansion, it was generally conceded that the board must decide where cutbacks can be made in original plans. A bus garage and administrative offices planned in the existing junior high school were mentioned as possibilities.

Architects also mentioned four possibilities for improving the entrance off Center street to the high school. These included: a traffic light at the entrance; widening of Center street and providing a run-off lane for cars going south on Center and planning to enter the high school; widening Center street and making one-way traffic into the school with counter-clockwise traffic exiting out of East street; construction of a spur off the entrance drive onto widened Center street with one-way traffic into the present entrance for a distance of about 200 feet.

In final action the board accepted teacher resignations from David Mohrhardt, Bonnie Humphrey, Roland Peterson and Mrs. Wendy Roadhouse. New teachers approved were Marjorie Croll (high school algebra), Barbara Marion (elementary art), Patti Mix (third grade), David Adair (junior high counseling), Linda Edgerton (elementary librarian), Julia Holmes (junior high counseling).

Monday's meeting will be held at board of education offices at 7:30 p.m.

Ballot Language Approved

A special meeting of the Northville board of education was called Thursday evening to approve wording in the two propositions for millage increases that will go to voters June 13.

Superintendent Alex Nelson reported that the proposals for a 10 mill renewal and a seven mill increase as approved in action by the board last week had to undergo legal changes that required board action. The meeting lasted only a few minutes.

Specific language of the proposals as approved by the board is as follows:

Proposal I -- Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Northville Public Schools district, Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw counties, Michigan, be increased by ten mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in said school district for a period of five years, from 1966 to 1970, both inclusive, for the purpose of providing additional funds for operating expenses (the same being a renewal of the 10 mill tax limitation increase voted in 1956 and which expired with the 1965 levy)?

Proposal II -- Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed . . . (as above) . . . be increased seven mills on each dollar . . . (as above) . . . (this being a separate proposal and not a part of the 10 mill renewal proposal submitted at this same election)?

In addition to the millage request voters will elect two board members from a field of seven candidates to four-year terms and one of five candidates to a one year term.

Biographies and statements by the 12 candidates will be published in next week's Record.

Another June 13 ballot proposal is a request for 77/100 of a mill by Schoolcraft college (see Speaking for The Record, page 8B).

HE HELPS AGAIN—C.E. Langfield of 501 Seven Mile road, a financial booster of many civic projects over the years, offered his helping hand again this week, contributing a $1,000 check to the Northville high school band and a $250 check to the Boy Scouts of Northville. Receiving the checks at the Langfield residence on Memorial Day were Band Director Robert Williams, Sue Hill, band president, and Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, who accepted the check on behalf of the Boy Scouts.

Webber Elected To Head Chamber

Robert Webber, owner of Northville Camera Shop, has been elected president of the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce by fellow directors. He succeeds Essie Nirider, whose term on the board of directors expired last week.

Other officers were re-elected to their respective posts: H. Thomas Quinn as vice president, John Carlo, treasurer, and Mrs. Margaret Zayti, secretary.

Webber becomes the third president of the relatively new Northville chamber. First president was Dempsey Ebert, still a member of the board of directors.

Webber opened the Northville Camera Shop and Webber Photographic Studio at 200 South Main street last October. Previously, he had been Latin-American Operations Coordinator for the International Division of Ford Motor Company. He was with the Ford Motor company for 12 years.

The 106-member organization has been plagued by disappointingly small turnouts at its general membership meetings. At the May meeting, Webber was elected to the board along with John Mach replacing Dr. L. W. Snow and Nirider. Mrs. Margaret Zayti was re-elected.

Despite small attendance, enthusiasm for participation in community projects was high. Retiring President Nirider reviewed the Chamber's activities during the past year and called upon members to propose ideas for Chamber projects.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson suggested beautification of the South Main street boulevard entrance into the city. She also proposed beautification of the city hall park with a memorial to veterans as a focal point in the park.

A business district office where community information would be available was suggested by Mach. Director Ebert pointed out that lack of funds has made this impossible.

A proposal that the Chamber might offer its members a group insurance plan was turned over to Earl Wineman for investigation and a report.

President Nirider suggested the formation of a youth employment bureau should be considered.

The audience of 15 members and nine directors heard City Manager Frank Ollendorff call upon the Chamber for suggestions and opinions on city matters. He said council welcomed their assistance and asked if he could bring issues to the Chamber for its consideration.

Among the possible uses listed by Superintendent Nelson in his report are the following:

- Additional classrooms, laboratory space, outdoor study area, facilities for in-staff training, summer school activities, vocational training in conservation practices and landscape maintenance, remedial and enrichment programs in science education, field biology, nature study, water pollution study, storage space, teacherage, administrative offices, special service personnel, meeting place for community groups, heritage museum, neighborhood school space, teen-age center and senior citizen center.

The report noted that funds to operate the facility would be limited, but listed a number of state and federal sources as well as charitable foundations and private enterprises.

Ebert pointed out that the board meets on the first Thursday of each month, usually in the offices of Northville Downs, and that the meetings were open to the public. He noted that general membership meetings are held but twice yearly.

The new board will now consider all proposals and make recommendations for projects.

Area Valuation Increases

Increases in valuation were recorded in the city, township and school district of Northville as final figures were approved by the state.

The state equalized valuation of the township of Northville rose from $15,746,049 in 1965 to $17,271,430 in 1966.

In the city the figures increased from $14,876,700 to $15,980,416. The latter figure is composed of an equalized valuation of $4,454,736 in the Oakland county portion of the city and $11,525,680 in the Wayne county section.

Total state equalized valuation of the school district, which includes all of the city, most of the township and portions of Novi, Salem and Lyon townships, is $36,354,607, compared to $33,035,220 in 1965.

The figures represent property values, both real and personal. They serve as a basis for levying school, county and township taxes. The city levies its millage against local assessments, rather than state equalized valuations.

Filing Deadline June 14

Township Race Gains Interest

With the deadline for filing less than two weeks away petitions for township offices are beginning to circulate.

Four newcomers have already indicated intentions of seeking office on the township board. And two of the four board members whose terms expire have announced they'll seek re-election. The third incumbent is still undecided.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam and Treasurer Alex Lawrence will seek re-election. They're both Republicans.

Trustee Wilson Tyler, also a Republican and completing his first four-year term, has taken But Tyler said Tuesday that his plans are not certain as to whether he will run or what office he will seek.

Mrs. Marguerite Young, clerk on the all-Republican board since 1959, has announced that she will retire from office when her present term expires.

Three trustee seats on the board are also up for election. Other announced candidates are:

Bernard Baldwin, Republican for trustee;

Joseph J. Fiorilli, Democrat for supervisor;

Mrs. Crispin Hammond, Republican for clerk;

Gunnar Stromberg, Republican for trustee.

Northville township's five member board of trustees (supervisor, clerk, treasurer, and two trustees) will be expanded to seven members with the addition of two more trustees in the fall election.

Trustee James Tellam is the lone member of the present board whose term does not expire.

Deadline for filing petitions for office is Tuesday, June 14 at 4 p.m. Because township elections are conducted on a partisan basis, if there is more than one candidate for any one office on the same political ticket, a primary run-off will be held in August.

Nominees from both parties then square off in the November election. But because of the change of township election laws under the new state constitution, the winners do not take office until April. Present office holders came into office when township elections were conducted in the spring and therefore their terms continue until April.

The new terms of the elected officials will extend four years with the exception of the elected trustee running third in the balloting. That term will run for two years to coincide with Tellam's term and give the board four trustees with alternating four-year terms.

Baldwin, who will be seeking one of the two new trustee posts, lives at 19810 Meadowbrook road. He is director of personnel for the Hydra-matic division of General Motors and has been a member of the township planning commission for four years.

Mrs. Hammond, candidate for clerk, has been employed in the township offices for the past 15 months. Her husband is controller for Michigan Forging in Dearborn and the Hammonds reside at 47100 Timberlane. Mrs. Hammond has been active in community affairs and was charter chairman of the board of directors of the Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic of Western Wayne county.

Fiorilli, the only Democrat to enter the race thus far, will seek to unseat incumbent Supervisor Merriam.

A resident of 39914 Harbert, Fiorilli is supervisor of scheduling for the automotive assembly division of Ford Motor Company. He has lived in Northville township since 1963 and is a frequent member of the audience at board meetings.

Stromberg has been a member of the planning commission since 1958 and now serves as chairman of both the planning commission and board of appeals. He retired April 1 from Western Electric company after 42 years. He was department chief in charge of maintenance and equipment. Stromberg now works for the Sheldon Hayes land development company. He lives at 20138 Whipple.

Multiple Zoning Gets Second 'No'

Northville township planners denied for the second time a proposal to rezone 12 1/2 acres on Five Mile road at Robinwood from single family residential to R-M, multiple dwellings.

The latest denial came Tuesday night. On April 26 planners had opposed the proposal of the Greenspan Building Company to construct a complex of one and two-bedroom apartments but had been urged by the township board to reconsider the plan.

Tuesday night James Littell, former attorney for the township, presented the case for Greenspan. His presentation met with strong protests from a standing-room-only audience. And the board voted to deny the request for the same reasons previously given, that it "constitutes spot zoning in an established single family residential area" and is "not in accordance with land use in the area".

In attempting to win support for the apartment development Littell pointed out that the prop-posed site had been "an eyesore" for many years. He cited reports dating back to 1954 at which time the wooded area had been under criticism because of litter and junk cars. He said the apartment project would be an improvement for the area, would not constitute spot zoning and would add to the township tax base.

The attorney said that the apartment proposal was closely related to the 375-home development planned by Greenspan on an adjoining 118 acres extending north and west to Bradner. He said the two projects would add some $20,000,000 to the township tax base.

But residents of the area were unanimously opposed to apartment dwellings. Instead they suggested that the 12 1/2-acre parcel be included in the single family dwelling development.

Planner Bernard Baldwin said he still considered the apartment project as "spot zoning" and moved to deny the request. The motion was given unanimous support.

City Dump Faces New Restrictions

Changes in operation of the Northville dump area have been recommended by City Manager Frank Ollendorff so that compliance may be made with new regulations of the Wayne County Department of Health.

If adopted, operating hours of the landfill would be sharply reduced.

The manager's report, which is slated for council consideration Monday night, resulted from a meeting with county health authorities.

It points out that the city must continue restrictions against garbage, ban dumping in swampy areas until filled with dirt, restrict dumping to small areas at time, limit burning to trees only and then only 6-8 times per year, seek a permanent solution to disposal with other communities, cover and compact all rubbish within 24 hours of each dumping period, submit engineering plans of site at present and as contemplated when filled, and submit a performance bond.

Manager Ollendorff proposes limiting dumping to two periods per week, perhaps Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning and Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. He also suggested stockpiling fill dirt from street improvement projects, such as Randolph.

Calls for Citizen Support

School Makes its Bid For Fish Hatchery Site

A proposal for transfer of the 15.5-acre fish hatchery property from the federal government to the Northville public school district has been submitted to the department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Although the report lists a number of possible uses of the Seven Mile road parcel, recently declared surplus property by the federal government, basically it points to its educational potential as an outdoor laboratory.

The Northville school system is competing with Wayne State University, which has also filed an application for use of the property as a biological field station for research.

Superintendent of Schools Alex Nelson said an answer is expected no later than July 1.

He has appealed to all residents to contact their elected representatives in Washington to help obtain the site for community use.

Copies of the Northville proposal were sent to Senators Hart and Griffin, as well as Representatives Farnum and Vivian. Because of the reference to education in conservation and beautification, a copy was also sent to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who has been a strong promoter of "keep America beautiful" programs.

The site, originally a fish hatchery and later used by the federal government as a research laboratory, includes a large three-story building containing some 8,600 square feet. It is located on the south side of Seven Mile road along with a two-story frame garage and storage building.

On the north side of the road is located two houses, one containing 12 rooms and the other seven. There is also a two-car garage.

Among the possible uses listed by Superintendent Nelson in his report are the following:

- Additional classrooms, laboratory space, outdoor study area, facilities for in-staff training, summer school activities, vocational training in conservation practices and landscape maintenance, remedial and enrichment programs in science education, field biology, nature study, water pollution study, storage space, teacherage, administrative offices, special service personnel, meeting place for community groups, heritage museum, neighborhood school space, teen-age center and senior citizen center.

The report noted that funds to operate the facility would be limited, but listed a number of state and federal sources as well as charitable foundations and private enterprises.

Northville Girl Wed In Dearborn Ceremony

A honeymoon in Northern Michigan followed the Saturday afternoon wedding of Barbara Lynn Wallace and William Michael Ross at St. Sarkis Armenian Apostolic Church in Dearborn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Wallace, 1012 Canterbury, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross of 15745 Pinehurst, Detroit.

The 4:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Reverend Fr. Gorun Shrikian at an altar banked with stock glads, mums and greens.

For her wedding, the bride chose a Grecian style empire waistline gown with a silk organza A-line skirt. The bodice and front panel of the skirt was fashioned with embroidered alencon lace adorned with seed pearls.

The sleeveless cathedral-length train coat, appliqued with matching alencon lace accented the ensemble. A jeweled crown of pearls and crystals held an elbow-length bouffant veil.

She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounding a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Sella of Lincoln Park was the matron of honor. She wore a floor-length sheath gown of ice blue shantung, fashioned with an empire waistline trimmed with velvet, and a matching sleeveless coat.

The bridesmaids were Miss Georgia Webb of Novi, Miss Marge Schultz of Redford and Miss Jacquelyn Wallace, sister of the bride. All wore long empire sheath gowns of aqua chiffon accented with a band of satin flowers and leaves in deeper shades of blue and green at the bodice.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids all wore a headpiece of three petals which held a bouffant veil. They carried cascading arrangements of blue and white carnations with lily of the valley.

Dawn Tian, the flower girl, wore an aqua floor-length gown fashioned with an empire waistline. She wore a ringlet of flowers in her hair and carried a basket of rose petals and miniature carnations.

The bridegroom chose Charles Gelloian, uncle of the bride, as his best man. Ushers were Allan and Matthew Ross, brothers of the bridegroom, and Charles Aiello.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a blue crepe floor-length gown with a sheath skirt and a beaded bodice. A matching crepe stole highlighted the gown. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose chiffon gown. Both mothers wore orchids. Michele Wallace, sister of the bride, wore a gown of apricot organza on an A-line skirt, and she carried a corsage of yellow roses.

Centerpiece of the bride's table was a five-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Howard Miller of Novi, and two smaller cakes joined to the larger one with blue and white satin ribbons. Garlands of greens and large bouquets of blue and green carnations with white stock decorated the table.

The 22 tables for guests were decorated with blue and white carnations and white stock.

Music was provided by two bands.

A reception was held in the church hall immediately following the ceremony, with approximately 240 guests attending from Lansing, New York, Detroit, Novi, Northville, Trenton, Southfield, and Dearborn.

Guests of honor were Miss Maie Wallace of Charlotte, North Carolina, aunt of Mr. Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. Theo Kocian, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom from Germany.

For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Ross wore a two piece beige suit with matching accessories.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in the vicinity of Plymouth.

Mrs. Ross, a 1963 graduate of Northville high school, is employed as a secretary by the Ford Motor Company International division in Wixom, and she attends Schoolcraft college where she expects to receive her business degree in December. Mr. Ross is employed by the Standard Oil company.

As a student Miss Plamondon has been active in the Detroit district of student nurses. She has held several offices, among them, president of the student nurses as a freshman, member of the board of directors of the DDSNA as a sophomore and junior, and chairman of the sophomore-senior dinner as a sophomore.

In Our Town

The final guest columnist for Record Women's Editor Jean Day is John Hyde, Northville high school science teacher, who will cycle through Europe this summer with a group of Northville youngsters. Mrs. Day, who has been in Europe with a press group from the Detroit area, will resume "In Our Town" next week.

I am always pleased for the opportunity to tell people about my European Youth Hostel trip. Especially now that many of our high school students are having the privilege to spend part of this summer in Europe.

The title for this writing could well be "Northville in Europe". There are two hostel groups preparing for their forthcoming trip and many others going for various reasons.

The first group of hostellers, 10 high school students, is going with me through Central Europe for one month — July 9th to August 10. We will fly from New York to Iceland, staying for a day at the Hostel there. From Iceland the countries we will visit in order are England, Belgium, Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland and France. We will fly home from Luxembourg. Our transportation, if we include hiking, will include 10 modes of travel, including 450 miles by bicycle. Visiting such places as London, White Cliffs of Dover, vineyards and castles along the Rhine River, and Heidelberg, we will then turn to the Black Forest and Zurich, Lucerne, Bern, Swiss Alps the international city of Geneva, ending in Paris. The Northville students going are Barbara Bogart, Tim Dickinson, Bill Forsyth, Tom Frountfelter, Chad Hines, Roger Kline, Bill Sliger, Brian Tabor, Robin White, and Torb Guenther from Plymouth.

The second group will be going for the month of August to the Scandinavia countries. Beginning in England, they will go by boat to Norway, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands, and Belgium, flying home from Brussels. Mrs. Wendy Roadhouse, from our high school faculty, will be leading this group consisting of Marilyn Bowen, Carole Clark, Joyce Stuckey, Bob Hempe, Mike Chabut, all from Northville, Ken Burman of Plymouth and Jim Johnson of Yale. This trip will take them to Shakespeare's Stratford, University at Oxford, to gigantic fjords of Norway, glacier-covered peaks, high waterfalls, stave churches, Bergen, Oslo, Stockholm, Renaissance castles, Hamlet's castle at Helsingor and Royal Copenhagen. While in Amsterdam, Mike Chabut is hoping to visit with Hank Penseel who was our foreign exchange student and lived with the Chabut family while he was here.

Richard Martin is going with a college Hostel group through the Central Europe countries and Frank Martin is going with another high school group. Following four weeks of group travel, they will tour together for two additional weeks. These boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Martin.

Steve Quay, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaGene Quay, is taking an extensive hostel trip through our own eastern states with a high school group in August. He will be cycling through Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Dutch country, battlefields at Gettysburg, rediscovered paths of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal with stops at Harper's Ferry and Seneca, Shenandoah National Park, Jamestown plantations, old Williamsburg, and will end in Washington D.C.

Hostels (from the old English meaning "resting place") are inexpensive overnight accommodations. They are located throughout the United States, Canada and 33 foreign countries. A hostel may be a camp, college dorm, ancient castle, sailing ship, converted building, or specially constructed building. Resident houseparents are in charge of each hostel. Most have cooking and recreational facilities.

To become prepared for these trips we are presently organizing a weekend hostel trip to Kensington Park where the Foote Hostel is located.

Our students are in for a very pleasant experience as there is no finer way to meet the people of these other countries.

CORNER

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stiles

Mention camping to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stiles of 27939 Novi road and you're sure to get plenty of comments - all favorable.

Camping for this young couple has a double meaning. First, it means plenty of outdoor fun, and second, it recalls to mind their romantic first meeting at Grass Lake in Jackson less than six years ago.

"My parents (Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Winner of 24003 Hartwood drive) wanted me to go tent camping with them one summer, and I guess I wasn't too interested. But I went along anyway and, well, I met Bob. It was a glorious summer."

At the time, Dr. Stiles, a chiropractor, was sharing a practice in Jackson, shortly after graduating from the Logan College of Chiropractic in St. Louis, Missouri and completing his internship there.

Following their marriage, the couple took up residence in Jackson, where Dr. Stiles was an active member of the Kiwanis club, district chairman of the Land-O-Lakes Boy Scouts, and a Big Brother.

He is a native of Wyandotte, where he graduated from high school.

Mrs. Stiles is a native of Detroit. She moved with her parents to Novi in 1961 and was graduated from Northville high school in 1962.

Before moving to Jackson, she was employed at Ford's Wixom plant. In Jackson she was a secretary in the city hall.

Besides caring for her five-month-old daughter, Kimberly Sue and doing the housework, she is assisting her husband in his own first office in Novi. She's serving as his receptionist and does all the typing for the business.

The couple combine their love for camping with other outdoor activities such as sailing their little "Sunfish" on Grass Lake. In the winter, they head for the hills for the thrills of skiing.

POOL ADDITION—This giant hole next to the Northville Swim Club's pool will soon become a diving area. The 35 by 40-foot addition will be used strictly for diving, leaving the pool itself reserved for swimmers. The Swim Club opened last week end for a few hearty souls who braved chilly weather. It will be open week ends until June 18 when the pool remains open daily for the summer. The club is still seeking new members. Douglas Day, FI-9-0701, is membership chairman.

Wash Oak To Vote Monday

Wash Oak school district voters will decide Monday whether or not they will annex to the South Lyon Community Schools district. The election will coincide with the regular school board meeting in the school house on Currie road Monday, June 6, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. It will be a special election, called to decide the issue prior to the June 13 annual school election — after which the decision could become much more complex. Three questions must be decided by ballot of the Wash Oak district's eligible electors. If all three pass annexation will be assured. The propositions are: "1. Shall school district number one fractional of Salem and Lyon townships ... annex to the school district of South Lyon...?" "2. Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed against the property in (Wash Oak district) be increased so as to correspond to those increases ... heretofore approved by ... South Lyon Community schools?"

"3. Shall (Wash Oak district) assume its pro rata share of the outstanding bonded indebtedness of ... South Lyon Community schools ...?" According to Marvin Partridge, Wash Oak school board secretary, 83 are eligible to vote on the simple annexation question but only 61 are properly registered to vote on the millage increase. No count is kept on the property owners. Annexation will mean about 12.63 mills increase to Wash Oak taxpayers this coming year.

TALE OF TAPE—This is the way things looked around most of the meets in which Northville participated—with Jim Trotter (gritting teeth) flashing across first. In the 100 against Brighton and South Lyon, Sophomore Chuck Keegan (far right) finished second and Jack Crawford (left of Trotter) took third. Winning time was 10:2.5.

Track Coach Says

'66 Record's Mighty Gratifying

The record doesn't mean a lot, says Coach Ralph Redmond of his trackmen, but just looking at the record alone is a gratifying experience.

In its ventures this year, triangular and dual meets, Northville broke even at 5-5, a considerable improvement over the previous years' performances. Last year, for instance, Northville finished in the cellar of the Wayne-Oakland Conference, but finished fourth this year.

What Redmond was getting at was that in track the Mustangs are out to improve on times and distances in each successive meet. This the Mustangs have done with surprising regularity.

Northville's speed chopped Clarkston to pieces, 65-44, in a recent match. Northville swept the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Jim Trotter, the Mustangs' best in the 100, broke the tape in 10:4, followed by Jim Crawford and Chuck Keegan. Crawford ran the 220 in 23:4 to beat Trotter (23:5) and Jim Kleinsorge (23:6).

Dave Orphan, who has twice broken the local record in the mile, switched to the 880 for the first time and won the event in 2:03.7. Senior Pete Sutherland took second.

Roger Kline won the mile in 4:51.6; Chet Godley whipped Clarkston's Norman Gratz, who had beaten Godley twice before, by throwing the shot 41' 10 and 1/4 inches, and Northville took first and third in the 440 as Bill Harrison finished in 52:4, Jon Kaake in 53:9, just behind Wayne Stalker of Brighton, who ran the event in 53:8.

Northville was an easy victory in a triangular with Brighton and South Lyon. Northville scored 84 points, Brighton 39 and South Lyon 15 last week Wednesday.

The mile relay team of Jack Winner, Kaake, Harrison and Kline set a new school mark with a time of 3:35.7, beating the previous mark of 3:36.6 that has stood since 1961.

Northville slammed in the sprints once more. Trotter ran his best 100 in 10:2.5. Sophomore Chuck Keegan, however, surprised with a 10:5, good for second. Crawford took third with a time of 10:7.

In the 220, Crawford took his specialty in 23:4, followed by Trotter (23:6), Kleinsorge (23:8) and Keegan (23:9).

One of the most closely contested races was the 880, in which Northville's Tom Baughman came from behind at the tape to nip Brighton's Bruce Needham. Baughman posted a time of 2:09.4, Needham 2:09.5, Sutherland 2:12.4 and Sophomore Marty Richardson 2:12.5.

Returning to his familiar role, Orphan won the mile in 4:42.5, about seven seconds off his record mark, but Orphan paced teammate Roger Kline, who turned in his best time in the event of 4:44.6, good for third. Tom Bair, of Brighton, ran second.

Sports

NO HURDLE—It's a hurdle, but it doesn't stop Greg Carr as he sails right over. Just a sophomore, Carr is gaining experience he can use in future competition.

Golfers' Opposition Scores High in Tourney

Northville's fortunes may have sunk in golf this year, but the Wayne-Oakland Conference is still holding its head high.

In the Pontiac Press tournament, Bloomfield Hills led a field of 20 class A and B teams with a team mark of 397. The Barons are the Wayne-Oakland champs, and finished high in the state class A rankings.

West Bloomfield successfully defended its class B crown, but it did it in convincing fashion, shooting a 409 to second place Northville's 434. Last year, West Bloomfield upset Northville by a mere two points.

Once again it was the veterans who came up shy of expectations that crippled Northville's chances of making a strong show.

Rick Talbot shot an 85 and Bob Regenhardt an 87. Tops for Northville was Junior Keith Mueller's 82, followed by Freshman George Neisch's 87 and Junior Mike Hohenic's 93.

After Bloomfield Hills came Waterford Kettering (400), Walled Lake (408), West Bloomfield (409), Southfield (410), Pontiac Central (417), Rochester (419), Waterford Township (427), Clarkston (428), Oak Park (429), Milford (430), Northville (434), Romeo and Lapeer (437), Pontiac Northern (443), St. Frederick and Avondale (449), Royal Oak Shrine (452), Clawson (454) and Orchard Lake St. Mary (462).

Advance in Pontiac Tourney Mustang Nine Wins 2 More

A hungry bunch of Northville Mustangs gobbled up two more opponents during the Memorial Day weekend to advance in the Pontiac Press baseball tournament at Pontiac.

If Northville survived its scheduled clash with Pontiac Central yesterday, then the local outfit will square off in the finals at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Site of the tournament is Jaycee Park, corner of Joslin and Watson Boulevards.

Favorites to gain the finals in the other bracket is Southfield, a hard hitting team that gains the nod as the team to go all the way. Southfield defeated Milford, 3-1, in the second round Monday, and like Northville, was scheduled to play Wednesday.

As of Monday's victory, Northville's record was 17-2, the best mark registered by a Northville team since the 1961 season when it won the Wayne-Oakland Conference title and also the Pontiac Press tourney. Coach Bob Kucher wasn't taking any chances Saturday and Monday, for he chose his ace pitcher, Steve Evans, to hurl both games. Evans was equal to the task.

He gave up eight hits against Romeo, five of a shady variety, and he was especially tough in the clutch. He struck out 13, walked four and hit one as Northville won, 6-5, in the eighth inning of a regularly scheduled seven by scoring two runs.

Evans came back Monday against Waterford Township, giving out only three hits, striking out nine, walking none and hitting one. Northville won, 6-1.

And Evans may be all Northville's opponents will see in the tournament. Kucher has declared that Evans will be his choice the rest of the way.

Romeo was a tough foe, jumping to a 3-1 lead with single runs in the first, fourth and sixth frames, but Third Baseman Dave Boerger lashed Northville's first single to center to score two runs and tie the ball game at 3-3.

It looked like curtains for Northville after the top of the eighth; Romeo scored twice to take a 5-3 lead.

But Northville came to life, scoring three times to win the ball game. Left Fielder Dennis Primeau singled to center, and Jameson lined a double into the leftfield corner to score Primeau to make it 5-4.

First Baseman Jerry Inmland, the Mustangs' hottest bat during their stretch run for a tie for the W-O championship, unloaded a triple off the 400-foot marker on the fence in center field to score Jameson with the tying run. Right Fielder Phil Andrews then spanked a single to right to send Inmland across the plate with the winning run.

Waterford was a much more docile foe as Northville piled up a 6-0 lead before Waterford got its only run sixth frame, much too late with Evans boring down.

Northville gave Evans all the runs he needed in the fourth inning as it scored three times to assume a 4-0 lead.

Andrews reached first on an error, as did Boerger; whose butt rolled through the legs of the charging third baseman. With runners on first and second, Center Fielder Mike Turnbull hit a ground ball over second that the shortstop grabbed and tossed to the second baseman for the force on Boerger coming in.

On the attempt to nab Andrews who had rounded third, the second baseman hit Andrews and he scored as Turnbull took second. Catcher Randy Pohlman slammed a triple to right center to score Turnbull, and he in turn scored on Second Baseman Bob Bartski's single to right. Score: 4-0.

Jameson ignited Northville's two run fifth with a single. Inmland then doubled Jameson home, and Inmland took third on the outfielder's error.

After Andrews walked, Northville executed a double steal, with Inmland slugging into the catcher who had received a return throw from second. The catcher dropped the ball, and Northville took the field in the sixth with a 6-0 lead.

Jay Hawks' Van Wagner Hurls 1-Hitter in Novi

Firing a one-hitter, Tom Van Wagner came up with a 7-1 win for the Jay Hawks over Smith Excavation in Novi Little League action this past week.

Richard Erwin collected the only hit for the losers, a booming double. Smith gave up seven hits, including a homer by Les Branch.

In other action, the Jay Hawks downed Party Store, 12-7, behind the five-hit pitching of Robert Cavel. Joe Campbell tripled for the losers, and Branch collected four hits in four trips to the plate, accounting for nearly half of the winner's 13 hits.

Paragon defeated Rexall, 17-4, with Roy Callan hurling for the victors. He gave up four hits, including doubles by Vince Fodera and Terry Butler. Callan tripled for the winners.

Party Store edged Flynn, 14-13, pounding out eight hits, including a triple by Mark Lytle. Steve Bozak, the winning pitcher, gave up nine hits, including triples by Jim Wilenius, Gary Colton, Jim and Tim Assemany.

Paragon also swamped Smith, 12-2, as Darrel Winn fired a four-hitter while fanning 17 batters. Robert Taucher picked up a triple to lead Smith. Smith gave up 11 hits, including two triples by Callan.

Netters Aim High In Area Invitational

Northville prospered at the expense of outside competition last Thursday to make its record, 13-5, for the season with only the Walled Lake Invitational Tournament left on the schedule.

Any victories that Northville takes away from Walled Lake today and tomorrow will simply be topping to an already highly successful season. Coach Dick Norton's crew is the new Wayne-Oakland Conference champs, going undefeated in nine league starts and sweeping through the league tournament.

Walled Lake fell to the champs, 5-1, here, even though North-ville's top men did not go to the serving line.

Jim Long, Northville's ace and W-O singles champ, quickly disposed of Mike Sims, 6-0, 6-1. Steve Quay won, 6-4, 6-1; Ken Boerger whipped his opponent, 6-3, 6-1, and Jonathan Eberhart finished a sweep in the singles by beating his opponent, 6-2, 6-4.

Top doubles team of Randy Burnett and Bruce Durham won, 6-0, 6-2, but the duo of George Kohs and Bruce Grysiwicz dropped their match, 3-6, 4-6.

Number two and three singles men, Norbert Parent and Larry Thibos, sat this one out.

Reader Disputes Mrs. R.E.D.

Dear Editor:
This is concerning the letter written by a Mrs. R. E. D. and printed in your May 19 issue. She seems to dislike everything in the school system except the old 3R's. I don't know exactly what she means by this, but I think times have changed just a bit since the one-room school houses.

a part-time algebra teacher and football coach.

Madame, do you really believe that the Northville school system is so bad? Check to see how many Northville High graduates are going to college this year, or check the percentage of graduates that went to college as compared to those who didn't in the last five years. Or better yet check the percentage that have made it in college. With the teachers always "preaching in class" or "skipping chapters" and "rushing off to coach instead of answering questions" I wonder how this was accomplished. If you believe the school system is so bad, why do you even permit your children to go to school here?

Sincerely,
Rick Talbot
"Class of 66"

DEDICATION—A new flag pole at the Scout Building was dedicated during Memorial Day ceremonies in memory of the late Arthur C. Carlson, organizer of Cub Scouting in Northville. The pole was donated by the Michigan Seamless Tube company where Mr. Carlson was employed for many years. The first Northville man to receive the coveted Silver Beaver scouting award for leadership, Mr. Carlson also organized and promoted a local drum and bugle corps, two boys' baseball teams, and boys boxing matches. On hand to unveil the plaque at the base of the pole was Mrs. Carlson. Participants included Scout Jon Steimel of Troop 731, who read a prayer, commanders of the local VFW and American Legion posts, Clayton Meyers and Robert Miller, Harold Penn and Walter Sousa.

Smith Speaks In Salem

Roy Smith, Chairman of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors and a Republican candidate for the Michigan State Legislature from the 52nd District, told Salem Township Republicans that the principle most completely forgotten by the current administration, and by the social planners and promoters of the "Great Society," is the late John F. Kennedy's poignant challenge.

"Only five and a half years have gone by," Smith pointed out, "since a President of the United States said, 'Ask not what your country can do for you! Ask what you can do for your country!' It doesn't seem possible, does it?"

The Streets Belong To Children These Days

John Mach

Any motorist who has had the sad experience of running over a dog with his car knows how unpredictable an animal can be in the time of danger.

Why is this? It is simply because a playful animal just doesn't realize the danger to his life that an approaching automobile can be. Often as not he acts on a fear impulse, runs in the wrong direction—and right under the car's wheels. If the motorist can't stop in time, an animal can be killed or badly injured by the impact that even a small car can cause.

A motorist driving in the Northville area, where children are present during these Summer vacation months, must realize the burden of caution is on him. Children engrossed in play are like playful puppies, unaware of danger, and just as unpredictable.

The extra-low speed limits of school zones were not designed by legislators to harass motorists. They were designed so that in an unpredictable emergency—such as a care-free child dashing unexpectedly onto the road—a motorist can stop abruptly.

Give children at the roadside a wide berth, especially youngsters riding two-wheelers. And slow down when passing groups of children on the highway where no signs order you to.

It's better to lose a little time than a youngster. Don't you agree? See you next week.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Pastor Alton Glazier
Fellowship Baptist Church

Christianity is not a stand still proposition. God expects when the new life in Christ is begun there will be a steady, forward movement in our spiritual life.

Paul, in Phillipians 3:13,14, likens it to a race. He says, "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." To do this he says he forgets the things behind and reaches forth to the things which are before. This should be the attitude and action of every believer.

Let us consider first the forgetting of those things which are behind.

It might be a poor start. There have been numerous incidents when runners have had poor starts, and have gone on to win. But let's recognize this, it never happened to the one of weak determination. Victory was for the one that could forget the poor start and press on all the more vigorously. Many Christians have made poor starts. It is really not surprising. We do not get into the race for Christ by qualifying. We do not go through certain training. We become a new creature in Christ, and immediately enter the race. Do not let this discourage you. We are not all

"on our own". We have the strengthening of Christ. But, we do have much to learn. It is not surprising, then, if we are a little slow at the shot.

It might be a serious stumble that we have to overcome. Again, men have taken serious falls, bounded to their feet, and won the race. And, too, the Christian may take a fall. God never said the track for His children would be without hurdles or pitfalls. We need to be ever on the alert so that we will not fall. We need to remember that if we do fall, we are not to lie there in defeat and self-pity. Psalm 37:24 says, "Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand." God is ready to pick us up, set us on our feet, and start us off again.

Behind us, also, is the pursuer. He is Satan. He is not there to beat us, but to defeat us. His goal is to trip us, maim us, or disqualify us. We must forget him. Not in the sense that we become confident and slack our pace, but in the sense that we do not look back. "I will beat you to the house, Daddy," says my seven-year-old son. I give him a "head start" and away he goes. But as he approaches the house, he just cannot resist the impulse to look back. Down he goes. Or at least he slows down.

There is one more thing behind us that should be forgotten. That is the crowd of onlookers. There is a time to hear their cheers. That is at the end of the race. To be "crowd conscious" can be disastrous. Forget their cheers or taunts, whichever it may be. Just keep running.

And press on toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Remember this: No one can claim your prize, but you can lose it.

Enrollment Underway

Northville area residents interested in a full-time Christian education for their children may make application for enrollment for the 1966-67 school term at St. Paul's Lutheran school, Elm and East streets, officials announced.

St. Paul's Lutheran school is maintained by the local congregation to provide religious instruction and a Christ-centered secular curriculum for its children.

Its program includes kindergarten and grades one through eight and is fully recognized by the Michigan Department of Instruction through the Lutheran schools office in Ann Arbor.

The staff will be increased next fall with the introduction of a teacher's aide in the primary grades, bringing the teaching staff to a total of six.

For information, residents may call the principal, Warren O. Zabel, at 349-2868 or 349-2033.

In ancient times the world waited breathlessly for every new king. It was always man's crying hope, man's fervent expectation — that under a new king the world would be different.

Today we no longer put our faith in kings — nor in any government that does not represent the people. We believe that tomorrow will be determined by the hopes and ideals of the young men and women who today prepare for their role in life.

There aren't any Christmas bells at graduation time. But it would be well for us to remember those learned men — the Wise Men — who came across the desert to Bethlehem. They came to pay homage to a new-born King... One who did change this world.

And the sons and daughters upon whom we look with fond hopes today must find their foundation of faith in the same Lord.

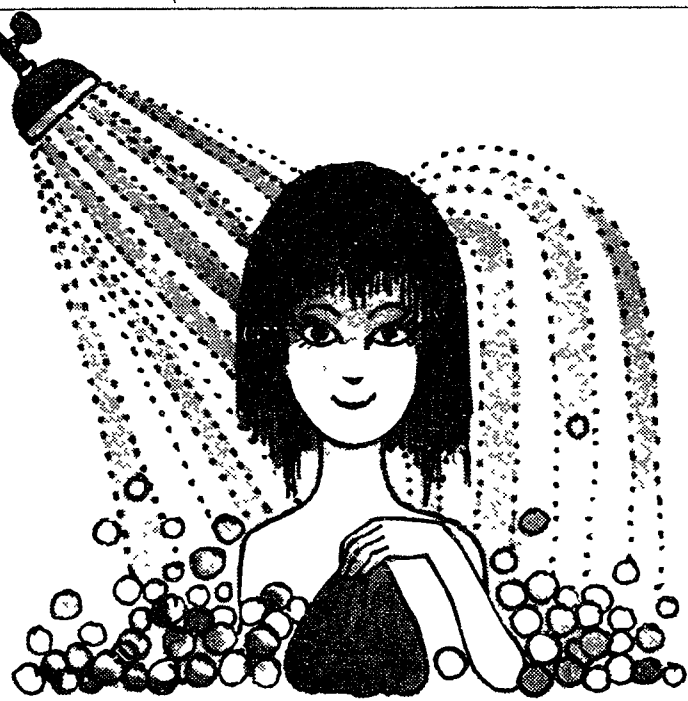

With its ministry of teaching, its inspiration to service and sacrifice, the Church points their path to tomorrow — and ours!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
BY DETROIT EDISON

An electric water heater is for the people who don't like to run out of hot water. We're so sure you'll like one, we guarantee your satisfaction — for a whole year! What do we mean by satisfaction? Simply this: If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, you get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter where you bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

EDISON

P.S. Average-size families with electric water heaters pay as little as $3.88 a month — a standard rate — for hot water. How much are you paying?

KNEE HIGH SCHOOL—Northville's new elementary school on West Eight Mile road reached the knee-high level this week as work resumed after a brick and block-layers' strike curtailed activity at the site for nearly two weeks. E.V. Ellison, director of administrative services for the school system, said Tuesday that a September opening of the 17-room facility is still planned, although the project is admittedly behind schedule.

Priest Marks 50th Jubilee

The Reverend Fr. Joseph G. Schuler, who was instrumental in establishing the Catholic mission in Northville as a parish, marked his golden jubilee of ordination last week Sunday.

Observances of the occasion included a solemn Mass Sunday morning and a jubilee banquet at Roma Hall in the evening.

On June 13, Archbishop John F. Dearden will preside at a second solemn Mass of thanksgiving, at which Archdiocesan clergy will be special guests. A reception for clergy will follow the Mass.

Fr. Schuler has been pastor of the populous eastside parish—

Guardian Angels — for the past 30 years.

At the age of 15, and with the financial aid of a Lutheran neighbor, he obtained his first formal education for the priesthood at St. Francis' Seminary in Milwaukee. He was ordained June 17, 1916 at St. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, Detroit.

His first appointment was to St. Elizabeth's Parish, Detroit. After six years, he was named administrator of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, Plymouth, and a year later Bishop Michael Gallagher sent him to Northville to make the long-time mission a parish.

The 40 Catholic families in Northville had no church, so Fr. Schuler ordered a ready-cut frame church from Grand Rapids. Assembled in two weeks, it served the parish for 30 years.

Catholic churches were few and far between in the area. In 1928 the summer resorters at Walled Lake requested a Sunday Mass there. Fr. Schuler obliged. Mass was offered in a wooded grove. It was perhaps the first Catholic "drive-in" church, with motorists hearing the Mass from their cars, which encircled the altar.

Funds for a chapel grew and a cinder block building was started in the spring of 1929 and dedicated that August.

Postal Survey Shows

Women 'Out-Zip' Men

Immediate steps to make ZIP codes more accessible to the mailing public were announced by Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien.

The measures are being put into effect following a nation-wide poll which showed that while virtually every American - 96 percent - is familiar with ZIP code.

Further action should be taken to make it easier and more convenient for the public to know the ZIP codes they need for letters and packages they send through the mail, he said.

The postmaster general advised:

1. In the coming months carriers will deliver to every household in the nation a form to be filled out with a list of the addresses most used in correspondence by members of the family. The post office will supply, without charge, the ZIP codes they need for each mailing address on that list.

2. Instructions are being issued to all postmasters to arrange to supply ZIP code information by telephone on a regular basis during normal business hours, and to have a special listing for ZIP code information in the telephone directories of the larger cities.

3. The telephone industry, including the Bell System and independent companies, will start putting improved ZIP code maps and information in prominent easy-to-find places in the yellow pages of telephone directories published throughout the country. The directories will come off the press late this summer.

4. The department's new executive planning board will begin immediately exploring other means of making ZIP codes more easily available to the public.

The poll, conducted by Elmo Roper and associates, found that about half of the population is using ZIP code. Of the remaining half not ZIP coding their mail, 80 per cent said the reason was that they didn't know the ZIP codes for the people to whom they write.

"The free ZIP coding of lists of most frequently used addresses for personal correspondence should help to increase significantly the use of ZIP Code," O'Brien said.

"This extra service will make it easy for individual mailers to include ZIP code as part of the accepted routine in addressing letters."

According to the Roper survey, 96 per cent of the public is familiar with the department's ZIP code system, and two out of every three endorse it as a sound program. Conversely, only two per cent react negatively to the department's method of routing and transporting its 75 billion pieces of mail.

About 50 percent of mail users put ZIP code in the destination address, the poll showed, and slightly more than 50 percent in the return address. When forms or applications request ZIP code, the ratio rises to 67 percent.

The Roper poll indicated that a large segment of the public has a broad understanding of the reasons for ZIP code. The "most compelling arguments" listed in favor of ZIP code were that it is designed for faster delivery and that it helps the department handle its increased volume more easily.

The poll took in a nation-wide cross-section of adults, from small and large cities as well as rural areas. Housewives were interviewed during the day and the heads of families in the evenings and on Saturday.

Women are more likely to use ZIP codes than men, the survey showed. It use varies considerably among different segments of the population, but is highest among groups which tend to be heavier users of the mail - women, upper economic groups and residents of large cities.

Use of ZIP code in the South is less widespread than in other areas, the poll concluded. It is used most extensively in the Midwest (68 percent) and has 64 percent, compared to 50 percent in the South. In cities with a population of 100,000 and over, the ratio is 66 per cent against 54 percent for rural areas.

The Roper survey provides information needed to develop the advertising council campaign.

Salem Church To Buy Bus

The Salem Federated Church is planning to purchase a 1959 G.M.C. 60 passenger bus in June. A bus fund has been set up to reach a goal of $500 by June 5, which has been designated as "over the top Sunday". At present the church is using a 1948 Chevrolet bus.

The ministry of the bus is to pick up children for Sunday School each week. The present route covers Eight Mile road to the north, to north Territorial on the south, Dixboro on the west, Chubb road on the east. The bus travels about thirty miles each way. There is an average of about 35 children each week. Hot donuts are served to the children every Sunday morning. Frank Davis of 9370 Brookville road is the regular bus driver. Bus Captain is John Davis, who acts as monitor each week. This is the fourth year the Salem Federated Church has had a bus ministry. The new bus will be used primarily for the Sunday School ministry. However, it will also have a unique ministry of transportation for Vacation Bible School, Summer Camp, and Youth for Christ meetings.

Armored Tanks Wouldn't Stop Slaughter

LANSING - Put every driver in an armored tank and some will still find ways to kill themselves and others on the road, is the contention of some who criticize the Congressional discussions of auto safety.

So many factors are involved in highway safety that it is impossible to place the blame entirely on any, whether it be the roads, the cars, the weather, or the drivers themselves.

The continually rising accident rate is constantly under study in Michigan by several governmental units, among them the State Highway Department.

One of the most recent steps undertaken by the highway unit in a never-ending effort to reduce accidents was the installation last year of "Do Not Enter, Wrong Way" signs on freeway exit ramps.

UNBELIEVABLE as it might sound to the safety conscious driver, 26 people were killed last year in accidents involving motorists who tried to enter freeways on the one-way exit ramps and found themselves on the wrong side of the road.

In the first three months of this year there were no accidents of this type, as compared with 12 crashes resulting in six deaths in the same period of 1965. The first wrong-way freeway fatality this year occurred in April, signaling a considerable cut in this type of crash for 1966.

Several other safety-gear projects also involve the Highway Department. These include the road design itself, lighting, edgemarking, curve reflectors, and, of course, sign posting.

In all, safety expenditures by the department last year totaled $4 million and a greater cost figure is placed on 1966 work designed to keep motoring safe in Michigan.

THE PUBLIC office bug seems to bite more persistently than the various virus strains prevalent in Michigan. Once a man gets a public position, like a legislative seat, the desire to stay there usually lasts and lasts.

This year, for example, one survey turned up only a handful who did not plan to try again for election to the legislature. These six or seven had their sights set on other offices.

Fortunately or unfortunately, depending on the point of view, the voters are not always inclined to understand this incumbency bug.

Voters two years ago, for example, decided in the primary that 25 House members and 9 State Senators should return to private life although they still had the bug. Then in the general election many more lost their seats to challenging newcomers.

Much of the high turnover in the general election was credited to the change in legislative districting and the heavy Democratic vote in the Presidential balloting.

THIS YEAR a relatively high turnover could again be seen, at least in the House, since Gov. George Romney is expected to draw a high vote. Straight ticket voting could restore several House seats to the Republicans on his strength.

In other areas, Republicans are counting on the pendulum swinging them back in this year assuming several Democrats who barely made it in 1964 are more vulnerable despite the incumbency designation.

Several Republicans ousted in the 1964 Democratic sweep will be trying to regain their seats. A few Democrats, beaten in the unusually heavy primary turnover, will also be trying to once again nurture the bug which has bitten them.

***** CRITICAL manpower shortages in the mental health field are sometimes laid to the public sensitivity to mental problems.

Many people say they could not stand to work with the mentally ill because it would be depressing. Those in the field tend to discredit this idea and frequently describe it as just the opposite. Professionals are more likely to see their work as inspiring.

Take Mrs. Doris Keller, a registered nurse who is supervisor of the Ann Arbor day care centers for severely retarded children, for example. The Ann Arbor unit recently sent its first "graduate" into the public school system.

Entry into special education classes of the public schools is beyond the ability of many children participating in day care programs such as that in Ann Arbor, notes Mrs. Keller.

The Ann Arbor child had learned the basic concepts of self care, social adjustment and citizenship and was ready for more advanced work.

"We didn't expect most of the enrollees to be capable of moving into the public school classes, but all of them are making some progress in such areas as self-care, feeding and socialization," said Mrs. Keller.

"Even if they never progress beyond this point, the program will have been worth every cent." In this statement from one supervisor in one city's day care program, lies much of the feeling mental health workers acquire in their jobs. Depressing? Hardly.

For Fall Semester

Expect GI Bill Rush

Application blanks for educational benefits under the new GI Bill are now available at Veterans Administration Offices throughout the country and at all major colleges, universities, high schools and educational centers, Mr. Robert M. Fitzgerald, Manager of the Regional Office announced today.

Information pamphlets and personal assistance in filling out the applications can be obtained at any VA Office, at colleges, and other educational institutions.

Earliest date for courses under VA payment has been set by law as June 1, 1966, with payment to be made the month following each month's study.

A normal Summer school enrollment is expected, according to VA officials, with the big rush for enrollment coming in September for the Fall semester.

This post-Korean Educational Program will be open to all veterans with more than 181 days active duty service, any part of which occurred in or after February 1, 1955. The veteran must have a discharge that is other than dishonorable or if less than 181 days he must have been discharged or released for a service-connected disability.

These veterans will be eligible for one month of education for each month or fraction of a month that they were on active duty.

Maximum education will be 36 months. Courses may be taken at approved colleges and universities, vocational schools, correspondence schools and at high school level. Approval of the institution will be made by State Approving Agencies. Foreign course approvals will be by VA.

The VA will pay $100 a month to those veterans with no dependents who take full-time courses. Veterans with one dependent will receive $125 a month while those with more than one dependent will receive $150 a month.

Proportionate rates will be paid those taking part-time courses. Earned income of the veteran will not affect his monthly VA payment.

There is no deadline as to when a veteran must enter upon his education. VA payment will be made only to the eighth annual anniversary of his discharge from active duty with the exception that all veterans will be able to participate in the Program until May 31, 1974, regardless of their discharge date.

Save Guarantee Slip

BABSON PARK, Mass. - When you buy almost any standard article - from a wrist watch to a yacht - there is an implied guarantee that the product is as represented. That is a basic fact of purchasing overseen by the Federal Trade Commission. But usually a new, or even a more costly second-hand, product brings with it a specific guarantee or warranty not only to help clinch your sale but to specify what you can do about it if anything goes wrong.

Even though the liability of a company or store for any defectiveness in the goods bought may spur a buyer to complete the purchase, he is as likely as not to forget the guarantee almost before he gets home. The certificate may kick around his desk for a while, then be thrown out with the newspapers. Or a housewife may keep her guarantee on the kitchen shelf, intending to hold onto it for the year or whatever its length of duration. But often, if she does need it some time later, it's gone, nobody knows where or when.

So, the first thing to do when you are given a guarantee or warranty on any article is to put it - with the accompanying sales slip - in one spot specifically assigned for such papers. A manila folder in a desk drawer or on an out-of-the-way shelf is probably the safest and best place. Legally, a warranty is considered to be a manufacturer's statement of liability for his product and how far it goes. A guarantee, on the other hand, may be issued by somebody else along the line - such as the assembler, distributor, or retailer - who must answer for any lapse on the part of the maker.

IF YOU are completing a purchase of any article supplied with a warranty or guarantee, take the time to go over it with your retailer and find out just how you are covered. Ask questions. Who is responsible in case of failure, the manufacturer or the place of purchase? How long are you protected against product default? If a lifetime proviso is given, does it mean your lifetime, or the usual lifetime of such an article, or specifically what? If a retailer hesitates to answer such questions, take your business somewhere else.

If you are required to send in a filled-in blank at the time of purchase, do so at once, - then place the stub with date and other related information in your chosen file. If there is a breakdown or malfunction in any product that you may have bought relatively recently, check right off whether that particular item is under guarantee, and for how long. To hesitate or put it off may mean that the expiration date will have passed while you wait.

If you build a new home or do a big renovation job on your old one, be sure you add all the warranties and guarantees to your file. New stoves, refrigerators, washing machines, hot water heaters, electric dish washers, and a multitude of other household items come with liability certificates. These appliances can go on the blink, and sometimes they do. If you know just what your protection is, you can save a lot of money.

A SOAP dispenser in an electric dish washer can jam. If you don't know the terms of your guarantee or don't bother about its duration, you may end up paying $15 or $20 for a home visit, plus the cost of labor and parts. Your guarantee would have covered it all. A color tube in a TV set has been known to blow out short of the usual year's warranty. This can mean as much as $150 out of your own pocket if you haven't your certificate date on hand. An auto guarantee may run for two-to-five years or 24,000-to-50,000 miles, whichever is sooner. Many a man has simply forgotten that he might still have coverage, and he has laid out large sums for repairs or replacement.

Manufacturers and reputable outlets give such certificates because they believe in the quality and durability of their products. If something goes wrong, it is their fault, not yours. And they are usually prompt to see that the wrong is righted. Take full advantage of this way of assuring top value for your outlay.

Candidate Cites Forgotten Words

Roy Smith, Chairman of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors and a Republican candidate for the Michigan State Legislature from the 52nd District, told Salem Township Republicans that the principle most completely forgotten by the current administration, and by the social planners and promoters of the "Great Society," is the late John F. Kennedy's poignant challenge.

"Only five and a half years have gone by," Smith pointed out, "since a President of the United States said, 'Ask not what your country can do for you! Ask what you can do for your country!' It doesn't seem possible, does it?"

Methodists To Burn Mortgage

A mortgage burning ceremony is scheduled during the morning worship service at the New Hudson church, Sunday, June 5 at 11 a.m. Dr. Joseph T. Edwards, Superintendent of the Ann Arbor District of the Methodist church, will be the guest speaker at the service.

The mortgage to be burned is that on the parsonage at 30019 Wells street, New Hudson. The congregation purchased the house in the spring of 1962 and it is now fully paid for.

A sign has recently been erected on the property which the church owns on Grand River, east of Milford road, proclaiming it the future site of the new Methodist church of New Hudson.

One of the biggest lake trout ever caught in the world, weighing 88 pounds, was taken at Grand Haven in 1864.

SPEAKING for The Record

By Bill Sliger

Aside from our own public school system, one of the top assets of which our community can boast is Schoolcraft community college.

And credit for membership in the district belongs to the taxpayers who voted in favor of joining.

Without Schoolcraft Northville would have been included in the once-defeated Wayne County community college proposal, which, if ever realized, will be located far from this corner of the county.

Northville has enjoyed its full share of benefit from the facility, not only educationally but from the fact that its location on our borders has brought business as well as fine new residents to the community.

Growth of the college during its first two years of operation has been phenomenal. The first two semesters of the past year saw an enrollment of 2,500 students, while the spring session has nearly 1,000. Classes are conducted both day and night so that students may work while attending college.

The college has, I believe, kept faith with its district residents, by developing programs to meet community needs as rapidly as possible. When the current construction projects are completed in July the total expenditures for the college campus will have reached $5,835,082, of which $1,461,720 has come from state and federal sources.

Its accomplishments include:
-a strong transfer program that enables its students to transfer without loss of credits to Eastern Michigan, U of M, MSU, Wayne State, Western, Central Michigan and many other senior colleges;
-career courses have been developed including electronics, drafting, manufacturing technology and a soon-to-begin automotive program; other programs for careers include preparation for the food services industry (hotel-motel-restaurant), nursing and data processing.

Another plus factor of the college that area businessmen are just beginning to enjoy is the college placement bureau, which during the past 10 months has had more than 400 inquiries for part-time employees and has placed more than 300 students in these jobs.

Like our own school system, Schoolcraft must have money to operate and meet the growing demands on education. Originally its administrators believed that a one mill levy would be sufficient. Now they have had to take a second look into the future and re-evaluate needs based on these new demands.

After re-examination the board of trustees of the college is asking the district to add 77/100 of a mill to the one mill already granted.

In their best judgment the additional 77/100 of one mill will be enough to continue planned development of the campus and provide a program of quality instruction, hopefully forever.

It is intended as an all-purpose millage with 45/100 needed for operational expenses and 32/100 for debt service (buildings and matching funds for state and federal grants).

Northville voters should give this 77/100 of a mill request their full support. To the average taxpayer it's about the best $7 per year you could spend.
