

Bill Crump and Bob Shafer—a bit of parting advice for future school boards after 18 years of service.

To School Board

Crump, Shafer Bid Farewell

Concerns about future school financing and increasing pressures on school boards are expressed by Robert Shafer and William B. Crump as they retire the end of this month after a total of 17 years' service on the Northville board of education.

Shafer, who joined the board in 1956, has been a board member since the incorporation of the district in its present size. Crump was named to the board to fill a vacancy in 1958. Also retiring is E. O. Weber, who was appointed in January to fill the unexpired term of Edward Angove until the next election. Weber previously had served a one-year term on the board.

In addition to serving as board president for two years and as board secretary for four years, Shafer's community service during the past 17 years includes 10 years as Northville township zoning board chairman (until 1958); Northville township zoning appeals board chairman for the same period; member of the Northville new school study committee which terminated in 1955 and school advisory and population sub-committee chairman prior to 1956.

Crump, who presently is finishing his term as board treasurer, originally filled out the year-term of H. Adrian Willis on the board and then was elected to succeeding terms.

As he decided not to seek reelection in order to devote more time to his engineering business in Troy, Crump supported Robert Froelich in his successful bid for a four-year term on the board.

In retiring he issued the following plea to school district citizens:

"In our country, we are fortunate to have a representative form of government. Also we are fortunate that it is not the town meeting type where lots of noise but little of consequence takes place. School boards are subject to severe pressures to be agreeable with their constituents, but many times the board is acquainted with background data which makes this agreeableness not in the best interests of the school district.

"I believe that school board members should be freed of most community pressures during their term of office so that each could base his decisions on good judgment only. The occasional maverick would be policed by his own associates on the board and eventually by the voters at the polls.

"My plea to our citizenry would be: (1) Elect people that you respect and trust. (2) Help them with suggestions. (3) Never pressure their decisions; and (4) Support them with your votes and comments for better schools."

Spear pointed out that under the latest salary proposal all teachers would receive raises ranging from $250 to $2,000 annually.

Differences still exist in areas involving sick leave, extra credit pay and release time for the president of the teachers' club.

Teachers' Club President William Case summarized the breaking off of negotiations Saturday as follows:

"The way things looked Friday it seemed as though we were going to play ball on Saturday. Both teams met at the ball field. Their team gave us the rules. Our team is pretty well organized and we had some fine points which we thought should be discussed. We stated these points and wanted to discuss them. They picked up their gloves and all, and left. We just stood there by ourselves thinking, 'hey, Charlie Brown, I thought we were going to play ball.'"

Spear said he thought the teams would get together again within a week or two.

development study committee and charter member and director of the industrial development corporation until his resignation in 1964; member, St. Mary hospital administration advisory board, 1957-60.

Looking ahead, Shafer said he feels the real problem facing the school board in the future will be financing to keep the quality of education high as Northville continues to expand.

The question of financing, he stated, is not easily resolved. Shafer expressed the fear that people have not yet accepted the fact that it is going to take progressively more money to maintain the schools as the district grows.

With the community remaining residential in character, he predicted, the tax base will continue to be diluted at a disproportionate rate. Shafer pointed out that he had stated in 1960 that by 1970 the district taxpayers would be paying 170 per cent of their 1960 taxes.

In retiring, Shafer referred to his 17 years' community service and said he feels it is "time to take it easy" and devote time to Tri-West Products, Incorporated, in which he is vice-president.

He's 30-Year-Old Inkster Detective

An Inkster police department detective has been named chief of the Northville police department.

Appointment of Samuel Lee Elkins was announced Tuesday by City Manager Frank Ollendorff.

The 30-year-old Elkins has been a member of the Inkster force for seven years, the last year as a detective.

He will take over for David LaFond, acting chief since last November when former Chief Eugene King was named to the city's administrative staff.

Manager Ollendorff said the 24-year-old LaFond, who was a patrolman when appointed acting chief, would be given the rank of sergeant. The eight-man department has one other sergeant, Louis Westfall.

Elkins was one of 30 applicants for the police chief position. The list was narrowed down to seven for personal interviews, Manager Ollendorff stated.

A native of Dearborn where he graduated from high school, Elkins brings an outstanding record of police service to the community. He has attended and completed nine police courses with a record average above 90 per cent. They include study at Wayne State University, Delahanty Institute, FBI school, University of Michigan, Wayne county and Army General School officers candidate school.

In two competitive promotional examinations at the 38-member Inkster force he topped the department. Elkins jumped the rank of sergeant, gaining promotion from patrolman to detective.

Manager Ollendorff expressed pleasure at obtaining a man with Elkins' experience. "He has an outstanding record, highest recommendations and should fit in well with our highly capable young department", the manager stated.

The new chief, now on vacation, is slated to come to Northville Friday to become acquainted with the department. The manager said it is still uncertain as to whether Elkins would have to remain in Inkster for two more weeks or could report here immediately for work.

Elkins was hired at an annual salary of $8,177.

Work Begins On Randolph

The city of Northville began this week to get into the swing of its summer construction season.

While City Manager Frank Ollendorff announced the schedule for Randolph street improvements, the city council was opening bids for installation of a water line to connect the city of Detroit main at Center and Baseline to the city's water tower.

Four bids ranging from $40,649.72 to $47,131.65 were received for the water line project. A special meeting was called for tonight to award the bid.

Although the water line installation was estimated at 60 days for completion, Manager Ollendorff is still hopeful that the project can be accelerated so that Detroit water can be connected to the system for peak summer hot weather.

A contract with the Detroit water board has been prepared, but some points remain to be negotiated. Rates have been agreed upon, however.

A schedule of work on Randolph street was presented Monday night by the city manager. Copies were distributed to residents of the street.

Sanitary-sewer installation began Monday. Paving contractors will also begin work this week with storm sewer installation scheduled to begin July 1, paving on July 15 and sanitary sewer construction along North Center from Randolph to Rayson and Hutton streets starting July 25. Work is set for completion August 20.

Shoppers Can Win Leisurely Week End ing their entry in their ad space.

One of these entries will be the eventual winner for that week. There is no purchase required to register. There will be 10 families from the Northville area that will be the guests of Albert Pick Motels and Hotels for their full weekend.

The sponsoring merchants, where you can register, are: Brader's, C. R. Officials Air One-Vote Difference

A one-vote difference in totals as tabulated in the June 13 school election was explained this week after principles involved in the election raised questions on the issue.

Officially, 1,629 votes were cast. This total was shown both on the poll books and the protective counters on the voting machines.

The public counters, visible to the voters inside the booth, added up to 1,628 ballots, however. Mrs. Frank Angle, one of the four members of the board of canvassers who must verify that the election results as recorded are accurate, reported that explanations given her for the difference in the vote tally later proved to be inaccurate.

Richard Martin, a candidate for a four-year term who lost a draw to Stanley Johnston after both received 510 votes, also expressed concern to school administrators and board officials over the handling of the matter.

Martin said he had asked before the drawing if the results had been verified and "everyone was satisfied that the count was accurate."

Martin said he was assured that it was. "But no one mentioned the one-vote discrepancy, so I don't think their answer was 100 per cent," Martin added.

He said that as far as the outcome of the election, that if there was a vote error it could have gone either way and he had no intention of seeking a recount. "I just think a full explanation should have been made at the time of the drawing."

This week E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services, gave this account of what happened. The third voter in the morning, who was the first voter to use machine number one, reported that the curtain wouldn't open when he completed his vote. A service man was called immediately and the trouble was found and corrected.

After testing the machine, the seal was broken on the public counter and reset at zero. The protective counter, which is never reset, then recorded six more counts, the number of times the machine was tested. The machine was then resealed.

The machine functioned properly the remainder of the day. Another machine, which functioned properly all day, showed a difference of one vote at the end of the day. The protective counter was one higher than the public counter. The protective counter coincided with the poll book records.

Canvassers were informed that this difference could occur if someone stepped into the booth, closed the curtain, but did not vote and merely opened the curtains. It was stated this would advance the protective counter but not the public.

It has since been determined, Ellison stated, that this is not possible. When a person enters the booth and turns the lever to close the curtains, both the public and protective counters record one vote.

Ellison said there was no explanation as to why the counters were not identical.

Downs Opens Monday Night

Harness racing returns Monday night to Northville Downs for a 35-night meet.

The "opening" is actually three months late. The season was originally slated to begin March 25 for a 25-night spring meet, but striking horsemen and mutual clerks changed all that.

Now settlement has been reached with both groups. The horsemen agreed two weeks ago, while the mutual clerks signed up last week. Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo said that the agreement with clerks was the same as at other tracks, a $5 package over a four-year period. The employees received a $1.50 raise for 1965, $1.00 this year and $1.25 for 1967 and 1968.

The summer meet marks the 23rd season for Northville Downs, pioneer of night harness racing in Michigan. And if the track is to match last year's performance it must draw record crowds.

Last summer during its 39-night meet the Downs set a record for nightly betting with a mutual handle average of $293,465.

Altogether the Downs had a total of 57 racing nights last year with a 18-night spring meet. Total handle for both meets was more than $15 million, with the summer meet running over $11 million.

The city shared handsomely with mutual handle rebates from the state's share of track betting totaling $179,770. This year, however, the city's cut from racing will drop sharply. Although more dates were awarded Northville this summer (60), the increase was in the spring meet (from 18 to 25 nights). The summer meet is down from 39 in 1965 to 35 nights.

If betting approximates last year's mark, the city will receive about $110,000 in racing revenues.

More than 750 pacers and trotters will be quartered at Downs' barns by Monday. They'll be moving here from Wolverine Raceway where the current meet ends Saturday night.

The sponsoring merchants, where you can register, are: Brader's, C. R. Ely & Sons, D & C Store, Del's Shoes, Freydl's Men's and Ladies' Store, Gamble's, Glenn Long Plumbing, Guernsey Farms Dairy, Lapham's Men's Shop, The Little People Shoppe, McAllister's House of Decorating, Monson Trailer, Northville Camera Shop, Northville Drugs, Northville Glass, Northville Hardware, Noder's Jewelry, Phil's Pure Service, Reeve's Self Service Laundry and Spinning Wheel Yarn and Fabric Shop.

Carlo takes one thing at a time. And while the track's difficulties with the horsemen and mutual clerks were being settled, the plans for expansion of the local harness track were shelved.

Now his attentions are again seriously turned to improvements to accommodate increasing attendance.

They include projected expenditures of some $4 1/2 million for acquisition of more property for parking, installation of a tote board, construction of a clubhouse and a new grandstand.

Carlo admits that he needs help to accomplish his expansion program.

First, he hopes to work-out a long-term agreement with horsemen on purse percentages. The settlement he has now reached is for one year only and, as Carlo puts it, "what good is an improved facility if you don't have horses?"

Secondly, he's looking to the city for traffic improvements around the track. Carlo has made two proposals, both of which he believes to be necessities if proposed plans are to be carried out.

He wants Griswold street continued southward through to a widened Beal street to provide better traffic flow to and from the track. Carlo plans additional property purchases in this area with the land converted to parking.

The extension of Wing street through to Hines drive is also important as Carlo views the track expansion. The proposed new clubhouse would permit traffic to enter from Center street, and Carlo maintains that making Wing a through street would take traffic off Center street and permit vehicles coming south from Randolph to continue through to Hines and around the track.

As Carlo sees it now, the tote board (which calculates odds immediately and shows the amount of money wagered on each horse) will be the next addition to the track. It will replace the board now in the infield. Acquisition of more parking space and construc-

Monday night.

Manager Carlo announced that among the outstanding stables reserving stall space at the Downs are Wally McMurray, Elmer Conrad, Don Hall, Don McMurray, Jim Merriman Jr., Mike Novick, Ted Taylor, Jay Russell, Gene Brown, Gordon Norris, Bud Foster, Hoyle Elvins, Bill Deters, Bob Stansell and Lee Sattelberg.

Conrad will have his speedy Craig Creed, who won the honors as the pacer with the most wins at the Downs a year ago.

High Spots of the season are the $10,000 added Michigan Pacing Derby, July 13; and the $10,000 added Michigan Trotting Derby, July 20. The former attracted 19 nominations and the latter has a total of 17.

Carlo's traffic proposals have had Chamber of Commerce support and have been viewed by both the city council and planning commission. The Griswold street extension has been given a warmer reception than the Wing street proposal.

In a recent board of directors meeting of the Chamber of Commerce the economic effect of the closing of Northville Downs during the spring meet was viewed. It was noted that Northville lost some $700,000 in tax revenues, employment and retail business.

Essie Nirider, retiring Chamber president, said that the Chamber had planned to send a delegation to Lansing to appeal for help from the Governor and legislators if agreement had not been reached when it was with the striking groups.

Red roses in altar vases decorated the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Allen Juday

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton H. Deal of 2016 Springwood drive, wore a floor-length white lacesheath trimmed with lace. Her arm bouquet was made of pink and white roses.

Miss Gail Anne Gillospy, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length blue lacesheath and blue lace headpiece. An arm bouquet of pink roses completed her outfit.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Wade H. Deal, the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Willard Jackson, the former Grace Brinson. Their blue gowns were the same as the maid of honor's but they had bouquets of red roses.

The bridegroom, son of the Richard H. Judays of 304 Lake street, had his brother, James R. Juday, as best man. Seating the guests were William R. Juday, another brother of the groom, Wade H. Deal, the bride's brother, and William Weidner.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deal chose a deep rose linen dress with matching coat. Mrs. Juday wore a pink silk suit. Both mothers had white orchid corsages.

A garden buffet supper was held for over 200 guests after the ceremony.

The bride's going away outfit for their honeymoon in northern Michigan was an off-white lacesheath with a gold and white linen coat.

Both attended Michigan State university, and will return there in the fall. They are now employed by the Dow Chemical company for the summer.

Their future home will be in Midland.

Welcome Line Done in Rhyme

A novel change-of-address note is being received by friends of the George Hanley family who moved from Northville Estates to Ohio last week. The original thought of their nine-year-old daughter, Mary, the verse goes:

"We're spreading out the welcome mat for friends afar and near

We're spreading out the welcome mat for friends so very dear

The George Hanleys have a new address,

It can't be left to chance or guess at 6321 Brighton Drive North Olmsted, Ohio, come inside 44070."

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lytle of 523 West Main street announce the birth of a son, Gerald Thomas, on May 29 at St. Mary Hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 11 ounces at birth.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Earehart of Northville, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Lytle of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen P. Whitaker

Northville '62 Grad Weds in Arkansas

Dana Lynn Rowland, a 1962 graduate of Northville high school, became the bride of Glen P. Whitaker in a candlelight wedding ceremony at Searcy, Arkansas on May 28.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray M. Rowland, Jr., of Plymouth, she was married in West-side Church of Christ by Dr. Clifton L. Ganus II, president of Harding College.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Squier of Lubbock, Texas.

Church decorations for the wedding included yellow pew bows, two candle stands, yellow carnations, roses and gladioli. Cecil Ethridge of Dallas, Texas, soloist, sang "Because," "O Promise Me," and "My Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over satin, with scalloped sleeves of lace and scalloped neckline. A long illusion veil fell over the top of the train which fell from a large bow in the back at the shoulder. The headpiece was a crown of seed pearls and crystal.

The bride's sister, Jill Ann Mc-

Guffie, was the matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of white bonded lace over yellow. It was accented with a bow at the bodice. The headpiece was of yellow tulip bows topped with yellow illusion veiling.

Bridesmaids were Carole Brown of Nashville, Tennessee, the bride's roommate and sorority sister, Glenna Whitaker, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, and Kathy Squier, the bridegroom's sister, both of Lubbock.

All attendants were dressed alike and each carried one long-stemmed yellow rose.

H. E. Squier, the bridegroom's father, was the best man. Attendants were Ross McGuffie, brother-in-law, and Arthur and Jeff Whitaker, brothers. Ushers included Garry Heath, Terry Cruce, both of Plymouth, and William Flippen of Union City, Tennessee.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rowland wore a coral street-length dress and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a fern green dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore complimenting orchids.

A reception followed the wedding in the church hall, with about 100 college friends attending.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a calico print dress with white lace trim, black patent shoes, black straw hat, black straw purse and an orchid from the bridal cascade.

Following a week's visit to Hot Springs, Arkansas, the newlyweds took up residence in Kansas City, Missouri.

Both are graduating seniors of Harding. She is a member of Zeta Phi Zeta, and he is a member of Alpha Phi Kappa and the varsity basketball team. He soon will begin work with Phillips Petroleum company.

Teachers Ok Salaries In Novi

Novi's new teacher salary schedule was ratified by both the teachers' club and the board of education last week.

Teachers ratified the increased schedule on Tuesday and the board gave its approval the following day.

Under the new schedule, the basic annual salary of a teacher with a bachelor of arts degree was raised from $5,100 to $5,500. Salaries of teachers with masters degrees were raised from $5,300 to $5,800, and teachers with masters degrees plus 30 hours of additional graduate work will receive raises of $500, from $5,600 to $6,100.

Top salaries of these three categories were raised to $7,827 for bachelor of arts, to $8,254 for masters degrees, and to $8,682 for masters degrees plus 30 hours.

According to Superintendent of Schools Thomas Dale, eight of the original 15 teacher vacancies have been filled. He said a good number of applications are yet to be processed, and he predicted the remaining vacancies will be filled within two weeks.

Increased elementary enrollment, plus the addition of a grade at the high school necessitates the hiring of nine additional teachers.

Dale said these additional teachers include second, fifth and sixth grade teachers at Novi elementary, an elementary music teacher, and business education, science, mathematics, English and social studies teachers at the high school.

NOVI SCORES HIGH—Novi athletes scored high in the fourth-annual Junior Olympics, sponsored by the Walled Lake-Wixom Kiwanis club before the closing of school last week. Of the 13 special awards given to participants who won at least two first-place events, Novi garnered four of them. Two of the special award winners are shown here. Jon VanWagoner soars to a record-setting, 10-foot, 6-inch jump in the pole vaulting class, while Marjorie Marque takes a second in high jump. The two other special award winners were Kathy Radtke and Jim VanWagoner.

WALLEYE WHOPPER—Usually when Bill Wiley, 41845 Eight Mile road, goes fishing they were biting yesterday. But his trip to Georgian Bay was perfectly timed. Top prize of his catch was his 30-inch, eight-pound Walleye pike.

Braves Win 2, Grab Class 'F' Lead

Casterline Braves grabbed first place — at least temporarily — in the opening week of action in the Class "F" recreation league by winning its first two contests.

Other members of the eight-team league, for boys 13 and under, had only one game scheduled in the opening week.

The Braves blanked the Orioles last week Tuesday, 5-0, and then pounded Ely Oilers, 11-6, on Friday.

Steve Utley hurled for the Braves in the opener, while Jerry Crawford was tagged with the loss. Leading hitter for the winners was Bernie Bach, who doubled twice in three trips to the plate. The Orioles were held to three hits.

Bach came back to pitch and bat the Braves to their second victory. He was the leading hitter with three doubles in four times at bat. Rick LaRue, the Braves' catcher, also picked up three hits in four attempts.

Other big guns for the Braves were Utley, Matt Liacos, Jim Hostettler, Hugh Jones and Jeff Moon, all of whom came up with two hits apiece.

Jim Sanders started for the Oilers and was relieved by Ricky Moore. Ken Lach was the leading Oiler hitter with two hits in four turns at bat.

Other teams in the league include the Wayne county training school, Plymouth Jaycees, University Litho, DePonio Builders, and Bill's Market.

Other scores last week included a 9-3 decision by the Northville Plumbers over University Litho in the Class "E" league. The Plumbers turned up another triumph Monday night, defeating Spagy T-Birds, 12-7.

In still another Class "E" contest Monday, General Filters trimmed Bloom's insurance, 11-7, with Joe Donner taking credit for the victory.

Donner helped his team's cause by collecting two hits in four trips to the plate. Gary Boyer stroked three hits and Mike Bingham picked up two hits for General Filters.

Reminder

Managers of recreation baseball teams are reminded to turn in information of games to The Record office no later than Monday of each week.

Information should include names of competing teams, league, date played, score and first and last names of winning and losing pitchers and top hitters of both teams.

Lady Golfer Stops Losing

It just goes to show what a little infamy can do.

Two weeks ago Joanne Johns won the mystery game of the week in the Tuesday Morning Ladies Golf League by losing five balls on the back nine. Along with the prize went a little good-natured razzing, of course.

This week the razzing turned to raving. She came in without a loss.

Meanwhile, Pat Gates and Lorie Griswold stormed into first place by taking three points from Margaret Williams and Kay Goepf.

Previous leaders Roz Krawoski and Mary LaVassaur ran into trouble in the form of Norma Wallace and Dorothy Phillips and dropped two points. Norma was two strokes under par in that upset game.

Fifth and sixth places are tighter than a golfer's girdle going into the eighth week of play. Four teams claim each, and the places are split by merely one-half point.

Three-pointers last week were Ruth Wingard and June Todd, from Mary Ellen Brummer and Eleanor which boosted them to fourth and out of the middle momentarily.

Betty Spencer and Jackie Town moved from 13th place to 8th by taking three from Elisea Nord-man and Marion Avery. Virginia Letzring and Evelyn Phillips copped three from Peggy Evasio and Joyce Cardwell, moving them from 14th to 9th.

There were two mystery games this week: Roz Krawoski won low actual game minus putts with 34 and Jean Peevey won high actual game minus putts.

Motorists Hurt in Novi

Two persons were injured in Novi auto accidents this week, neither of them seriously.

Ralph McCoy, 40, of Brighton, suffered head and leg injuries when the car he was driving was struck by one driven by Philip Robertson, 33, of 2444 Potter, Wixom, at Grand River and Beck roads early Tuesday morning. McCoy was treated at Botsford hospital.

According to police, Robertson had stopped at a traffic sign and then started across the intersection when he did not see McCoy's approaching car. He was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Helen Miller, 16, of 217 Faywood suffered head injuries when the car driven by Robert M. Miller 20, of the same address, collided with one driven by Walter Woodward, 70, at the corner of Faywood and Lodlow Monday afternoon. She was treated by a private physician in Walled Lake.

Miller was ticketed for improper lane usage.

Frederick Campbell of Plymouth was treated at St. Mary Hospital last week Wednesday for cuts and bruises sustained in a Novi accident.

According to police, Campbell was driving a car that crashed into the rear of one driven by George A. Loupos of Howell on Novi road, south of the C&O railroad crossing, as the latter was making a left-hand turn.

Campbell was ticketed for not driving with an assured clear distance ahead.

Teachers Criticized

Editor:
Teachers of Northville:
What will you have really gained, even if your demands are met?

Breaking your word by not fulfilling your individual contracts involved a moral principle that has put concerned parents in the awkward position of not backing teachers with their youngsters. For most of us this is a departure from a stand we have always felt vital to maintaining rapport between home and classroom. The youngsters who were turned away by teachers from the front door of the Main Street school (to the back door) were a confused lot.

Junior Hi students, watching a teacher who had heretofore deplored the same tactics in the classroom, physically barring the door to teachers, rightly drew their own conclusions. Astute High School students read with amusement the second edition of the White Paper;—an attempt at justification in typical contrived ad-man language, with its questionable statement about "voluntary" return to the classrooms.

We're sure you have some valid claims, and trust your lot will be a better one, BUT, is there among you any who did not realize the monetary situation of teaching when you decided this was what you wanted to do back in college? Were you not aware that you would be working for a non-profit organization?

This is not big business where deficits can be buried or proposed expansion plans set aside.

With so little industry Northville taxpayers almost solely support their schools. As a result there are no frills that can be pared to offset a deficit. Children can't be turned away.

It is basic economics. Why did you apply for a position in Northville? Was it perhaps because you liked living and working in a small pleasant community? Was it because the schools had very few social problems among its student body, in contrast to neighboring communities? There teaching is frequently only a daily struggle to keep order in a crowded classroom. Don't many of you mothers teach here because it is a job compatible with raising your family?

We know there are many fine dedicated teachers in our school system. But where were you when your spokesmen were being chosen? Did you stand up to be counted?

Unfortunately by associating yourself with a mass movement you abdicated your professional standing and must expect a generalized reaction.

Will the end have justified the means?

Sincerely
Harold S. Hartley

... and Supported

To the Editor:
More important than buildings and more important than the curriculum they teach, are the teachers themselves, in my opinion. Their enthusiasm inspires, or the lack of it adversely affects children and young people. I believe that the Northville teachers have taken the action they have in recent weeks to protect this enthusiasm and to protect the children. I therefore hope that the school board will make every effort to grant what the teachers have asked.

Defends Parsons College

To the Editor:
In regard to the recent issue in Life magazine concerning Parsons College, I would like to make known the fallacies existent in said "magazine." As a student at Parsons college, who is proud to be associated with this institution, I therefore feel that it is necessary to help correct any misunderstandings about the college, that the article may have imparted. Here are just a few facts that Life did not bring to life:

1. 85% of our faculty have earned their Ph.D's.
2. The team teaching system that has been set up, gives the student a better chance to gain a fuller understanding and knowledge of his courses.
3. In regard to the housing unit with the low I.Q., we have yet to find that unit.
4. As for the pictures of the students with the sweatshirts from their old colleges, Life failed to note that most of these students transferred to Parsons with a "C" average or better.

5. One would think the photographers from Life had never seen a shark before, and it is quite evident that they were more excited than the students.

6. Somehow, the people from Life became so interested in the social life, that they completely forgot to see the Dean of Affairs. The Dean of Affairs is here to handle all things pertaining to the faculty and the academic achievement of the students. One finds it hard to believe that anyone could possibly write an in-depth article of anything without first consulting those who are most directly involved and have access to the facts and not merely second hand opinions. If there are any questions about Parsons college, I would be more than happy to answer them and I know the college is always ready to help in any way possible.

Sincerely yours,

Northville area farmers were reminded that they have less than a month to take out price support loans on any 1965-crop corn or soybeans they may still own. To be eligible for price support loans on 1965-crop corn, the producer must have participated in the 1965 Feed Grain Program, last year. There are no special requirements for eligibility for price support on the 1965-crop soybeans.

Receiving the award at the dinner program was Charles Hughes who, according to Scoutmaster William Thomas, has lived up to the ideals of scouting in his daily activities at home, school, church and community. To receive the Eagle rating, the Scout must pass all the steps through the ratings of Tenderfoot, second class, first class, Star, and Life.

Hughes also received several other citations including soil and water conservation, camping, safety, lifesaving-personal fitness, citizenship in the community, senior patrol leader badge, bugler badge and bugle, and senior stripe.

Other award-winners were Rick

Sukow, junior assistant leader and senior stripe; Rick Ording, star scout; John Stopper, star scout and auto safety; Bruce Cinader, first class and two year pin; Bryan Cinader, first class; Tommy Johnson, second class and swimming.

Detroit Faces Trial For Theft

A 25-year-old Detroit man will be examined June 30 here on a charge of grand larceny from a horse barn near Haggerty and Nine Mile road.

Free on a $2,500 bond pending his examination before Justice Robert K. Anderson is Willie G. Watkins, who pleaded innocent before Judge Alice Gilbert of Bloomfield Hills Saturday morning.

Watkins was arrested Friday night in a barn owned by Detroit Lions Coach Harry Gilmer of 22279 Haggerty road.

According to police, Watkins was apprehended inside the barn as he gathered equipment in a blanket. Police were making a routine check of the area following Gilmer's report of a theft a week earlier.

Watkins told police he was "looking for a stolen horse". Upon inspecting the trunk of his car parked nearby, police found a saddle and other equipment that Gilmer identified as the equipment stolen the week previously.

Watkins' girlfriend, Amanda Gridgs and her three small children, who were waiting inside the car, were released following questioning.

INFLATION AND USED CAR PRICES

It is no secret that we're in the midst of an inflationary spiral that is averaging about 3% annually. Like to hear some good news? Used car prices have been going the other way in Northville as well as major markets throughout the country.

Our prosperous economy is putting a new car well within the reach of most wage earners who otherwise might buy a used car. Money is more plentiful and terms more liberal. Competition in the market place more severe.

New car dealers generally are wholesaling up to 50% more of the cars taken in on new trades than a few years ago. The remainder—slightly more than one used car for every new one sold—are the pick of the crop and very competitively priced.

While the market was never better for buying well, you can still go wrong if you are not wise in the ways of judging used car values.

A quality dealer will avoid selling you a car that in any way would turn you against his dealership for your future business. Remember, that unless you're an experienced used car appraiser equipped with testing equipment, you are relying more than you realize on his good judgement and honesty. Where you buy can't help but influence how well you buy. See you next week.

John J. Fricke, Vicar
Holy Cross Episcopal Mission, Novi

There are times when a clergyman mounts the pulpit in the great hope that he and the souls committed to his charge might examine the implications of the Christian Faith. Probably the biggest question that he and his parish family have is how to use what they have. There are other times when he will examine with his people the matter of holding their faith in the face of adversity and doubt; then determine how to hold what they have. There are other times when the clergyman comes to his family and directs his thoughts to hearts which have lost something, and like Little Bo Peep, don't know where to find it again. Or perhaps, other sermons at other times are directed to beginners who are trying to find a faith in the first place.

I wonder which of these four categories is our need today ... this eve of the (second) day of summer. Like many of you I am looking forward to that time we call "vacation" and all that it entails. I look forward to a time when I can reflect on the past year; a time to play and not have to worry about the time of day; a time to walk in the north woods with my daughters and with them examine the wondrous works of God. Yet, somehow, even this brings us back to the first things of the faith; it brings us back to that eternal ringing question, "Who is God?" "Who is this God whose works we examine?"

Down through the ages God has been known in might and power. The ancients worshipped the power of the sun; they fell down before the spirit of fire; they offered sacrifice to appease an angry god. God lived in their places of worship, and they built altars and knelt before them.

Among more gentle people, in more peaceful times, God has been known to men in beauty. He is in the moon and the stars. His abode was in a holy glen or a peaceful glade.

More recently, God has been seen as an historical process. The optimists of the 19th century, including Marx, saw some kind of divine power, or irreversible force of wisdom working objectively, in and through the history of mankind.

And yet our world no longer looks at a mountain and calls it "he". We no longer speak of the moon as a "she." Thunder is no longer someone's voice or lightning their anger. All these once-holy phenomena are now things. They have lost personality, and for the most part, are merely different forces we study in physics class. Everything has turned into an "it". Personality, personhood, is gone from our creation and the result is that we even treat another like things, like "its."

Before we can begin to know the answer to our question, or before we can begin to know God Almighty in Jesus Christ, we must first know something about ourselves. I suppose that I should have said, we must first admit something about ourselves, and that is this: We are not the center of things. We are not even the rim around the core. Whatever "it" is, whoever He is, God is that center. God is that "thing" about which all things revolve ... not us. God is indeed not just might and power; not impersonal and "out there". He is not just a process, or beauty, or even the most real reality of them all. He is consummately personal, the basis of the personhood of all things. We are not a number to Him, or a digit. We are not computed on an IBM machine and registered by a computer in the files of heavenly statistics. We are loved by God, and God is love in its fullness. The power of God's love is upon us and within us whether we know it or not. The glory of it all is that it is the glory of God, not our own.

We come now to that most impossible moment of them all. Into the arena of human life ... that life filled with pain, suffering, of idolatry and indifference; into this arena of human love gone sour, of human love, loving only the self ... the

Bishop Announces Methodist Transfers

Two area Methodist ministers were appointed to new districts during the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church at Adrian College June 15-18.

They are: Rev. LaVere Webster, pastor of the New Hudson and Novi Methodist churches, transferred to Birmingham, and Rev. Ferris Woodruff, pastor of the South Lyon Methodist church, to Williamston.

Newly appointed to these districts, as announced by Bishop Dwight Loder, are:

Rev. Robert A. Mitchinson, formerly of Ridgeway, to New Hudson and Novi, and Rev. Roger Merrell, formerly of Milan, to South Lyon.

Rev. S. D. Kinde, pastor of the Northville Methodist church, was returned to his fourth year. Other transfers and appointments include:

Rev. Hugh White of Plymouth to Flint, and Rev. Herbert C. Brubaker of Saginaw to the First Methodist of Plymouth; Rev. Richard T. Markham, pastor at Farmington, to Lapeer, and Rev. W. Leslie Williams of Flint, pastor of the Northville church from 1941 to 1947, to Farmington;

Lay delegate to the conference from the First Methodist church of Northville was Dr. E. J. McClendon. The junior lay delegate was Robyn Moon.

NEW Perspective

She went up and up. "Again, Daddy, again," until from her great height she looked down on a strangely distorted scene. Daddy was different from the top. Mommy was little and far away. Even the familiar old tree had hidden its friendly trunk and she caught her breath with a thrill of the unknown. I saw her expression change and suddenly there was a cry tinged with fear, "Don't Daddy!"

I dropped back while the swing slowed down. She tumbled out of the swing into my arms and I realized that there was a vast and unfamiliar world ahead for my child, with many distorted themes. I looked across the house tops to a church spire and thanked God for a foundation of faith ... to guide her through the uncertainties ahead.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OK Funds For Study Of Schools

A $19,260 federal grant to finance a study of the educational media needs of area schools has been approved, Dr. William J. Emerson, superintendent of Oakland schools, was informed today.

The project, which will begin in September, will involve representatives from each school district in Oakland county, resource people from the communities as well as representatives from area libraries and museums.

Working with two full time professional librarians or audio-visual specialists yet to be named, the committees will determine ways the cultural resources of the area can be incorporated into school programs.

They will also study the possibility of establishing centralized film, sound and video tape libraries, mobile museums and planetariums.

Five months have been allocated for the study. Applications for further federal grants will be based on the findings of the study committees.

6-Week Typing Class Underway

A capacity class of 30 students was scheduled to start in a beginning (personal) typing course, which will run for six weeks, under sponsorship of the Northville school system, Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear announced.

The class is to run from June 20 through July 29, convening from 9 to 11 a.m. daily with Mrs. Ann Osborn, high school commercial teacher, as instructor.

Spear said that 36 applications had been received for the course. To keep to the limit of 30 it had been necessary to eliminate one late application, those whose vacations would interfere and those at the youngest grade level. To parents of children in the younger grades he expressed the hope that the school system would operate the class continually in future summers.

Offer Brochure On Tornadoes

A new, 16-page brochure entitled "Tornadoes," is available from the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, at $20 each. "Tornadoes" was published by the environmental science services administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce. It contains detailed information on how to protect yourself from the dreaded twisters. It was prepared as part of ESSA's continuing effort to protect the public from all kinds of natural disasters.

The 16-page brochure explains what tornadoes are, when and where they occur, how they produce their destructive effects, what they look like, and what to do when tornadoes threaten. Its numerous illustrations show various forms of tornadoes, as well as certain harmless phenomena which look like tornadoes.

Out Of The PAST

ONE YEAR AGO...

...A suit challenging Novi's trailer coach ordinance was temporarily adjourned in Oakland county circuit court. It was delayed, village officials said, because an expert witness for the plaintiff — Frank Davis — was not able to testify.

...Northville learned that it would lose two of its six-man police force. Interim City Manager George Clark announced that Patrolmen Robert Pankow and Philip Young had submitted their resignations effective July 1.

...A Northville resident fed up with stray dogs and youthful vandalism asked the city council to "put teeth" in its ordinance.

FIVE YEARS AGO...
...Novi's first superintendent of the consolidated school district, Dr. William H. Medlyn, announced his resignation effective July 31.

...Calvin H. Monfils, administrator of Community General Hospital in Northville since its organization two years earlier, resigned to accept a position as assistant administrator at Mt. Clemens General Hospital.

...Charles Freydl, Jr., became president of Northville Exchange Club when new board members and officers were installed at the Wednesday noon meeting of the local service organization.

...Northville's new justice of peace, Charles W. McDonald, was sworn into office by Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan, Jr., while council members, judges and attorneys from neighboring communities looked on. The new justice was Northville's first salaried justice.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...
...Fraser Staman, Jack Crawford and Sue Watson were candidates for the Novi School District No. 8 board.

...Nelson Schrader was appointed chairman of a committee to undertake the redecoration of the sanctuary of the Presbyterian church.

...Mrs. Morris Cohen of the Lloyd H. Green American Legion Post was elected president of the 17th District American Legion auxiliary.

...The worst accident in the eight year history of Northville Downs occurred when two horses were killed. The drivers escaped with minor injuries.

Honey Siskiyou was pacing around the track in a time trial and Wilana was jogging in the opposite direction. The horses collided head-on with that Honey was pierced by the shaft of the sulky and died instantly. The other horse was taken to the barns but died a short time later. The sulks were demolished.

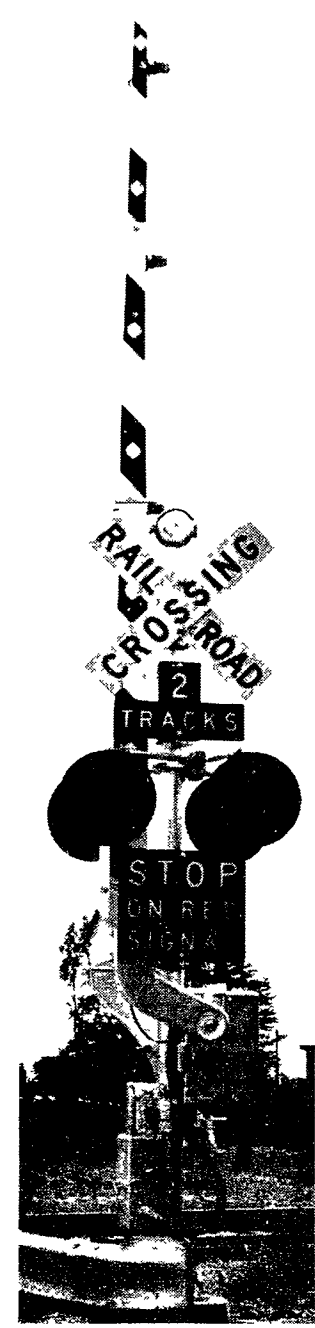

...Andrea Owen, delegate of the local American Legion Post, was inaugurated governor of Girls State in Ann Arbor.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
...M. C. Gussell was installed as president of the Northville Rotary club.

...Harry F. Wagenschütz was elected president of the Exchange club for the next six months. ...Officials announced that the Northville village tax rate would be lower in 1940.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...
...Friends of Dr. E. B. Cavell, Northville sportsman and owner of one of the finest dog kennels in Wayne county, were pleased to learn that he has been elected president of the Michigan Veterinary association at its convention in East Lansing.

...For the protection of its depositors, the Lapham State Savings bank voluntarily closed its doors, June 30.

INSTALLED — Crossing guards ordered following investigation of a train crash fatality at the Six Mile road railroad crossing in Salem are now in place.

Watershed Group Hears U-M Official

The Huron River Watershed Council met Thursday in the basement conference room of the Ann Arbor city hall.

Dr. William Gable of the Institute of Public Administration of the University of Michigan described the background and development of watershed policy concerning water supply, drainage, waste water disposal, recreation, irrigation and flow control.

The Huron River Watershed Council is an intergovernmental effort to promote and coordinate planning in water resources in the Huron River Watershed. Cities, villages and townships in Oakland, Livingston, Washtenaw and Wayne counties appoint representatives to the council and support the activities of the council financially.

Other items on the agenda included: a report on the river sampling program of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, by Joseph Price of the Washtenaw county health department; consideration of the creation of a Citizen's Information committee and of appointments to the committee; approval of additions to the Technical Advisory committee; annual budget including $2000 educational fund.

In Justice Court

Four motorists were fined for reckless driving and one for driving while under the influence in Novi justice court this past week. Those fined in the court of Justice Robert Anderson after pleading guilty included: Clyde A. Jackson of Detroit, who paid a $100 fine for reckless driving on Novi road near 12 1/2 Mile road June 4; Farrel E. Fuller of 44220 Grand River, who paid a $100 fine for driving under the influence of alcohol at Novi road and Grand River on June 5; Thomas W. Gibson of Bloomfield Hills, who paid $100 for reckless driving on Grand River at Novi road on June 15; Orville E. Van Sickle of 47861 West 10 Mile road, who paid $75 for reckless driving on 10 Mile road near Taft on May 23; Vincent G. Law of Detroit pleaded guilty of reckless driving on May 24 on 11 Mile near Grand River and was fined $60 and $15 court costs by Justice Emery Jacques.

In Uniform

Private Randolph L. Willis, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Willis, 5605 Halstead road, completed advanced infantry training at Fort Ord, California, June 4. He received specialized instruction in small unit tactics and in firing such weapons as the M-14 rifle, the M-60 machine-gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher. Electrotape plates made by J. A. Adams, a wood engraver in New York, was used for printing in 1841.

Novi Police Cases Down

Novi police cases for the month of May dropped from 319 in 1965 to 294 this year, Police Chief Lee BeGole reported this week. In reporting the drop, BeGole explained that one of the chief reasons for the reduction was that fewer trained officers were on duty. Of the serious crimes, he said four breaking and enterings were committed this past May, one of which is still open. Others were nine felonious larcenies, five of which are open; 12 simple larcenies, five unsolved; two auto thefts; one unsolved check law violation; and one solved weapons violation. Other complaints included: Drunk driving, six, nine personal injury accidents, 13 disorderly conducts, 20 delinquent minors, and 15 dog complaints. A total of 186 violation tickets were issued, compared to 279 a year ago and 188 two years ago. Court costs and fines for May of this year totaled $2,719. The split between the two justices was $1,751 in Justice Robert Anderson's court, and $968 in Emery Jacques' court. The total number of hours worked by six officers during the month was 1,313 1/2. BeGole noted that two of the new officers did not begin work until late in the month. Miles patrolled during the month were 9,068, with 41 auto assists, 196 auto investigations, 2,154 property inspections, 210 verbal warnings and 16 liquor inspections.

Will the strike at Edison affect your electric service?

Local 223, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO, representing about 3000 of Detroit Edison's 9500 employees, called a strike at midnight, June 15.

Local 223 is chiefly composed of operators of power plants and substations, underground linemen, and construction and maintenance personnel.

As in the case of Local 17, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, which is already on strike, the issue is money.

The present average pay of Local 223 members is $3.46 an hour. Benefits are additional. Edison has offered the union a two-year contract—21.4 cents an hour more in cash and benefits in 1966 and 17.2 cents more in cash and benefits in 1967. The offer amounts to a 10.9 per cent raise in cash and benefits by June 1967. According to Edison's understanding, the union leaders want a 12.5 per cent increase.

Edison has always treated employees fairly. Pay and benefits are higher than those provided by most other major employers in the area. The company is widely known as a good place to work.

On any basis of comparison, the present offer is a good one.

Although about one third of our employees are on strike, Edison intends to maintain near-normal customer service with the help of supervisors and other employees. Unless a severe storm causes an emergency, it is unlikely that the two walkouts will affect users of electricity.

Old Business: 1. Public Hearing - Special

Assessment District S-2 - Northville road.

Supervisor Merriam called the Public Hearing and asked for any objections or questions from the citizens attending the meeting. He explained that since the proposed sewer to be constructed would only service the east side of Northville Road as the property on the west side was public property, the township board had agreed to pay the cost of the fall out sewer and all engineering and legal costs.

Mr. Donald Meek asked how the $8,755 figure was reached? Did this proposed new sewer tie into the Seven Mile sewer?

He was advised that the estimated figure submitted was reached when the township board agreed to assume some of the cost and that the Seven Mile sewer would not front on Northville road so there was no way of connecting the two sewer projects.

Mr. Don Severance asked what would happen if the cost of the sewer would be more than the estimated cost?

He was advised that the township would have to start over again if the cost of the proposed sewer was more than 10% higher than the estimated cost.

Mr. Donald Meek asked how the sewer was to be assessed? He was advised that the assessment could be spread over a twenty, fifteen or ten year period subject to the request of the assessed landowners.

It was agreed by the landowners attending that as long as the assessment could be paid off at any time, they would prefer that the assessment be spread over a twenty year period.

Supervisor Merriam asked for further objections or questions. There being none, Trustee Tellam moved the adoption of Resolution #5 covering Special Assessment District #S-2 for the estimated cost of $8,755 to be paid in equal annual installments over a twenty (20) year period plus interest at six (6%) percent on the unpaid balance and this be spread on the tax roll starting with the 1966 roll, if possible.

Lawrence seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Supervisor Merriam announced the Public Hearing closed.

New Business: 4. Award bid for construction of Seven Mile road sanitary sewer (Dr. Gizynski project)

Supervisor Merriam stated that bids for this project had been received and publicly opened on Monday June 6, 1966 at 2:00 p.m. There were four bidders and that the low bidder was Don Gargaro Co., Inc. at $87,386.80, he submitting a certified check for $4,500. He further stated that the contract could not be awarded until such time as the township was in receipt of Dr. Gizynski's deposit for construction.

James Littell, attorney for Dr. Gizynski addressed the board, stating that the doctor had elected to proceed under the agreement and accept the new bid and presented a letter to Supervisor Merriam from the doctor.

Supervisor Merriam read the letter to the board. The letter stated that Dr. Gizynski was agreeable to the Gargaro construction bid and wished to proceed with the construction of the sewer, it being understood that before such award is made the township will finalize its arrangements with the State of Michigan in respect of the acquisition of that portion of the State of Michigan sewer as proposed. Also, in view of the fact that the proposed Seven Mile road sanitary sewer had been redesigned and relocated in part from its original design and location and in view of the lapse of time since the aforesaid agreement was entered into, he asked that an addendum be added to the original agreement changing the beginning date of the twenty-year period for payback of costs. An addendum was submitted with the letter.

Mr. Littell stated that the doctor would make his deposit with the township shortly but he would like some evidence that the Don Gargaro company had made a bid acceptable to the township.

Mr. Mosher, township engineer, agreed to furnish Dr. Gizynski with a photo stat copy of the original bid from Gargaro, which was agreeable to Mr. Littell.

There was further discussion of possible extra costs over and above the construction bid, a rough estimate being $3,000. Mr. Littell stating that any additional costs that were necessary, would be taken care of by the doctor.

The addendum working was discussed with John Ashton, township attorney, asking to be permitted to add to paragraph 3 the following "including all reasonable and incidental expenses."

Upon agreement by Mr. Littell, Treasurer Lawrence moved that the Addendum as amended, be adopted by the township board. Trustee Tellam seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Trustee Tellam moved that the township board award the bid to Don Gargaro Company conditioned upon the acquisition of the State Hospital easements from the state of Michigan and upon receipt of the $87,386.80 from Dr. Gizynski. Trustee Tyler seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

3. Authorize Supervisor Merriam to sign agreement with C & O Railway to install 15" sewer pipe line under railroad.

Supervisor Merriam read the letter from the C & O Railway re: signing of agreements and cost to the township.

Trustee Tellam moved that Supervisor Merriam be authorized to sign an agreement with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. to install a 15" sanitary sewer line under the C & O Railroad approximately 1/2 mile south of Seven Mile road, Township of Northville, Michigan, and authorize payment of the $75 to be submitted with this agreement. Trustee Tyler seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Old Business: 2. Contract - Vilcan Leman Associates.

Supervisor Merriam informed the board that he had met with Mr. Vilcan and discussed his contract charges. That in his opinion, the township had one of the best of planning consultants in the area and should keep him and pay the fee asked.

After discussion, Young moved that the Vilcan-Leman Associates contract as submitted to the board, be entered into. Treasurer Lawrence seconded. Trustee Tellam, Lawrence, Merriam and Young. Nays: Tyler, Motion carried.

Trustee Tyler wished to go on record stating that the retainer fee was excessive for the township needs and the board had not explored an alternate basis of fees with Mr. Vilcan.

New Business: 1. Smoker request for guarantee of sewer taps as recommended by the Water & Sewer Commission.

Supervisor Merriam asked Mr. McDermott, chairman of the Water & Sewer Commission to explain the situation to the board.

Mr. McDermott stated that since the township had a limited number of sewer taps and that the Smokler company wanted some assurance that they would be able to obtain enough taps for their Town House project of 471 single family units, the Water & Sewer Commission had met and decided the following:

The township should reserve a total of 283 taps for a period of two years. Builder should purchase taps in advance in minimum lots of not less than 40. Builder could not assign his rights to the reserved taps to any other party. At the end of two years a new determination of available taps will be made each six months.

Lengthy discussion followed, it finally being decided that the township attorney draw an agreement stating that the first forty taps be ordered out upon signing of the agreement and forty taps be taken out every five months thereafter. This subject be tabled until the next Board meeting.

2. Insurance Policy - Commercial Liability on Fire Trucks, Etc. Treasurer Lawrence moved that the township board renew the Comprehensive Commercial Insurance Policy with C. Harold Bloom agency covering the fire trucks etc. Clerk Young seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

5. Trustee Tyler moved that the recommendation of the Planning Commission to rezone property ("233" of the N'ly 2.75 acres of the E. 1/2 of the N.E. 1/4 of the S.E. 1/4 of Section 8) from R-2 to B-1, be adopted. Trustee Tellam seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Old Business: 3. Police Study Committee report.

Trustee Tyler stated that he felt the committee should have advised the township board that they were taking steps at the Michigan State level to obtain financial help for the township police and this was the reason he took the stand he did. House Bill 4026, as a piece of legislation, was taking a direction that the township had not initiated. The situation had developed in the community and it was up to the community to work out solutions before other governmental units were asked to help out. He further stated that the report had been very well done and he was particularly interested in the committee's efforts to do something thru the city of Northville or thru some joint facility.

Supervisor Merriam advised that Plymouth was attempting to get the five communities (Canton, Plymouth and Northville townships and Northville and Plymouth city) together and had asked that a member of Northville township's police committee meet with them so that they could study an area wide protection. He had asked Mr. Guido to serve and choose one other member of the committee to work with him.

Mr. Guido stated that it was Mr. Lauterbach's suggestion that an organization meeting of this group be held sometime between now and September and they would like two members from the township community. Mr. Guido further stated, referring to House Bill 4026, that his letter included with the committee report, pretty well explained the situation. It started out as a citizen talking to his legislator and it snow balled from there. The news of the legislation was news to him when Mr. Merriam advised him of it.

Treasurer Lawrence commended Mr. Guido on the committee report and agreed with the thinking of the report that a police force for the township was far too expensive for the township to support alone.

Trustee Tyler moved that the police study committee be discharged with commendation and a simple letter be written to the committee members with a note of thanks and that Mr. Guido be temporarily appointed to the community police protection committee.

Treasurer Lawrence seconded. Motion carried unanimously. No further business, Lawrence moved to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 10:35 p.m.

Northville township hall, Monday, June 13, 1966. Meeting called to order at 8:00 p.m.

Members present: R. D. Merriam, Supervisor; Marguerite N. Young, Clerk; Alex M. Lawrence, Treasurer; Wilson D. Tyler, Trustee.

Member absent: James H. Tellam, Trustee.

Visitors: Mr. Ziemet and Mr. Berman of Bert Smokler Company; William McDermott, chairman Water & Sewer Commission; Frank Arlen, member of Water & Sewer Commission.

Purpose of meeting: Sewer taps for the Smokler Town House Project. Other matters as may properly be brought before the board.

Supervisor Merriam informed the board that the meeting had been called because he had talked with Mr. Berman after the June 7th regular meeting and had been advised by him that unless they had some type of guarantee of needed sewer taps from the township board, they would have to stop their project at once. The Smokler People were investing hundreds of thousands of dollars in the township and they felt they should have some consideration.

Mr. McDermott again presented the thinking of the Water & Sewer Commission to the township board and why and how they had reached their decision.

Discussion by the township board members, members of the Water & Sewer Commission, Mr. Ziemet and Mr. Berman followed.

Decision was reached as to policy to follow and the township attorney was instructed to meet with Supervisor Merriam and the Smokler representatives and draw a new agreement. This agreement to be presented to the township board at the July regular board meeting.

Supervisor Merriam asked the board for adoption of resolution #66-18 which would provide for placing the question of No Hunting in the Township on the primary ballot of August 2, 1966.

Legislators Eye Full-Time Status

LANSING — Disgruntled and disillusioned, most legislators took to their home districts to campaign for another term.

At the beginning of this session there was much praise for the legislature's performance. Members seemed to be settling down sensibly and determined to get things done. But the pace soon bogged down.

Box score for the '66 session showed it took nearly as many days to pass slightly more than half the number of bills enacted in 1965. In 103 days this year, as compared to 126 for all of 1965, some 252 bills were passed through both chambers. Last year the Governor received 442 bills.

Numbers alone do not measure the value of activity, but the record will show that there was much time wasted, much hot air expended and much left undone.

Biggest problem of the legislator is a changing philosophy about his own job. That leads to the next biggest problem he faces.

Until recently, legislators were picked from various communities to represent people in state government. They were, for the most part, farmers, merchants, lawyers, real estate people. They came to the Capitol, conducted state business, went home.

MORE RECENTLY, the legislator has viewed himself as a full-time, career man.

There is no doubt that need for representative efforts has increased as society has become more complex. There is room for doubt the state needs full-time people as legislators.

There is also room for suspicion that the present bodies could make their own operation much more efficient if they worked at it.

Second problem is the legislator's pay raise. Most legislators feel honestly entitled to a higher amount and most of these feel that the public does not understand how hard they work.

The image of the legislator has suffered a great deal this year because of the publicity received by some of his colleagues. The public expects that men who make laws for them to obey ought to be very careful about obeying laws themselves. Despite the fact that some of the men who got in trouble this year show some good points on their records and despite the fact that most of the legislators had no legal troubles at all, general public reaction is to lose respect for the legislative body as a whole.

This is a major problem for anyone seeking a pay increase, and it is easy enough to see why the legislators are disgruntled and disillusioned when their frustrations are understood.

ONE OF THE newer traffic problems got three-pronged attention in the legislature this year: the mounting problem posed by the increased use of motorcycles. Any city newspaper tells the tale daily. In the Lansing area, for example, a two-week period recorded motorcycle accidents almost every day. Injuries were involved in every accident.

Concern over this problem is great at least partly because of the higher potential for serious injury in crashes involving motorcycles. Laws regulating the use of motorcycles are nonexistent in most states.

The National Safety Council started a major campaign this year to encourage states to control motorcycle activities to some extent.

Primary reason was the 1,500 cycle deaths recorded the past couple years. The council noted, cycle owners often had no special knowledge about their vehicles, although safe driving requires know-how and extra ability.

Salesmen were known to give only brief instructions on the mechanical processes for getting the vehicle on the road.

MICHIGAN'S legislature became one of the first to take steps aimed at making motorcycling safer.

Their bill would first prohibit cyclists from passing between lines of cars going in the same direction. Like auto drivers, the motorcyclists will have to pass on the left.

A second part of the bill passed through both houses will require rental establishment operators to explain the operation of the vehicle to the renter, and to refuse the customer if he appears incompetent.

The final section relating to motorcycle operators will require them to have a driver's license, be insured, and wear a protective helmet at all times.

Roger Babson

'New Economics' Booms Economy

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Before World War II, most economists and businessmen accepted cycles as being as "normal" as marriage and babies. The Biblical fat years would be followed by the lean years. The upward, or action, phase of the business cycle would be followed by reaction. Babson's made Newton's theory of action and reactions...as applied to economics...during the early decades of this country.

But after World War II, people began asking: "Must we have the hardship and pain of recessions?" Across the seas in England a new economics prophet emerged... Lord John Maynard Keynes. He greatly influenced the thinking of President Roosevelt before the war, and later the attitudes of Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, and Kennedy. In a word, Lord Keynes said that business cycles were not necessary, that they could be flattened out by the government's applying stimulants to a lagging economy and curbs to a booming one.

GENERALLY, Keynesian economics held that, when conditions were depressed, government should spend more heavily to offset lack of spending by consumers. Then, however, and this is most important...the English financial wizard held that inflation should be avoided by the administration's collecting more in revenues than it paid out. Apparently, he recognized that if more and more were spent and more and more lent, prosperity would degenerate into inflation and a grand bust. So impressed were the politicians in the U.S., that they passed the Full Employment Act of 1946, making it the government's business to see that depressions would be outlawed.

During the terms of Presidents Truman and Eisenhower, there was a strong disposition to avoid overstimulating the economy. But, toward the end of President Eisenhower's time in office, and especially during President Kennedy's short stay—a great impatience with the nation's rate of economic growth spread thru an important group of young, "liberal" economists. They emphasized that other Free World nations were growing faster than the U.S. They blamed this on our government's habit of applying the brakes too soon.

they are now called, promoted inflation as a way of life. Claiming that a "little" price advance was far better than the sufferings of unemployment and meager profits, they preached perpetual prosperity. Growth must never cease...our economic climb must be more impressive than anyone else's.

UNDER THE Administration of President Johnson, the New Economists have had things pretty much their own way. U.S. growth has been admittedly phenomenal. But in the last year the price level for consumers rose almost 3%. Strangely enough, the same public who accepted this 3% cut in their purchasing power without a whimper would have hollered to high heaven if the President had suggested a 3% sales tax on all production to pay for the Viet War.

Also, it should be noted that the New Economists readily admit that some inflation is the price we must pay to avoid the hardships of recessions. But no one of them has stated flatly how much is enough, and how much is too much. And that is where the big danger lies. To many of us old-fashioned economists, it looks as if the new theories are no more than the old boom-and-bust credit spree that were first made infamous by the South Seas Bubble in England and by John Law in France over two hundred years ago.

And while the controversy rages, we notice that it is taking more and more dollars of inflation to make a lesser addition to the dollar price of our Gross National Product. In the last five years government spending rose by 47% and Federal Reserve credit climbed 50%, yet GNP was able to move up only 34%. If this trend continues, we may find that the medicine of the New Economists will "work" only when first applied. Like so many other stimulants, the long-run effect may turn out to be bad.

SPEAKING for The Record

By Bill Sliger

There are some things to be said about teacher negotiations.

If a poll were to be conducted locally, or statewide, it is probable that the results would show a majority of the public:

- shocked that teachers would strike for higher wages;
- disgruntled that teachers would leave their classrooms;
- amazed at the union-like approach to negotiations by teachers who "refer to themselves as professionals".

Extremists might say "if they don't like teaching here, let them quit."

A few applaud the teacher efforts to improve their lot economically. But in general the action by teachers in their first year of bargaining has resulted in both a poor press and a less than desirable public opinion rating.

Certain impressions have seeped into this normally management-oriented viewpoint during the past few weeks that cause concern and, frankly, some inner frustrations. If it were to be conceded that this writer had one, it could be argued that he had been brain-washed.

Although negotiation sessions have been closed to the press and public, both sides have recently taken time to inform the press and define their positions.

Information meetings have been held with negotiators from both sides, together and individually. In addition, the press was permitted to sit in on the teachers' "professional day" caucus.

There is no change in the opinion that the teachers acted illegally when they did not report to their classrooms. Whether the law has been tested or not, it states that teachers cannot strike. Call it whatever you want, they did strike as we'd define it.

But even in taking this drastic action, the teachers demonstrated a sense of responsibility that should be recognized. It was acknowledged by the administration several weeks ago that a walk-out might occur. And they were finally notified of the plan four days in advance. There was ample time to organize a team of room monitors, as once proposed, if desired.

The act of bargaining is a new experience for both teachers and boards of education. It would serve little purpose to point out mistakes on both sides as they strive to do the best job they can for the interests they represent at the bargaining table.

Passage of legislation last year gave teachers the right to select a sole bargaining agent and to negotiate "wages, hours and working conditions" with their boards of education.

The impact of the law has been felt in every school district in the state.

And certain things become obvious, at least locally, as our teachers take their first dive into the waters of negotiating.

They are seeking more than money.

They seek a recognition that reflects dignity and respect; they seek consideration that recognizes their astuteness, their qualification as spokesmen for educational philosophies.

They want to be on the "inside" of policy-making decisions that directly determine how school is to be taught.

Money is important, of course. And unfortunately, one is frequently accorded recognition in direct relationship to the money he has or makes.

But I hear filtering through all the haggling a desire by the teachers for more recognition as a member of the educational team in our community.

Can any employer find real fault with employees who want to do a better job and think that they have some worthwhile ideas on how it can be accomplished?

There are certain things, I believe, that must be recognized and accepted by the community:

- our teachers have been under-paid and they will do all within their newly-gained power to improve their financial status;
- they are ably represented and they stand solidly behind their leaders;
- definite steps must be taken to improve board-teacher relationships and create a mutual trust based upon respect for one another.

There is no intention here to point a finger of guilt at anyone—board member, administrator or teacher. But a condition does exist that needs attention—the wounds are open and should be healed.

"I'm sorry, Dad."

A simple sentence. Just three little words. But for a seven-year-old boy convinced that his father had unfairly reprimanded him, the words were a mile long.

For more than a week he stubbornly held his ground, refusing to apologize for leaving his new bike on the lawn after repeated warnings. No apology, no bike, he was told.

So for eight days the boy's two-wheeler sat in the garage begging for a seven-year-old's companionship. And for eight days the boy sneaked glances at the bike and secretly longed to climb aboard and streak down the street with the summer breeze slapping his tanned cheeks.

But no apology.

So for eight days, the father watched his son, hoping the three words would come. And for eight days he ached to tell his son to forget the apology, climb aboard and sail into the breeze.

But like his son, the father was stubborn too.

For him it mattered little that the boy had unthinkingly dropped the bike to carry out a chore for his mother. The rule had been broken. It demanded apology. So he thought. Stubbornly.

But it was painful. Self guilt. So he took to encouraging his son, asking matter-of-factly if there wasn't something the boy wanted to ask. Then as the week grew older and the guilt heavier, the encouragement was more direct: "Wouldn't you like to ride your bike?"

A negative shake. No apology. Neither budged.

Then came the eighth day. Home from work, the father saw the bike and the cobwebs. And he saw the boy's furtive glances at the garage. Words were trying to form...

Some hurts are too hard to bear. Besides, Father's Day was coming.
