Request Goes to Township Board December 6

Air Apartment Zoning

Arguments for and against the proposed rezoning of 19 acres on Five Mile road from R-4 (single family residential) to R-M (multiple dwelling) were heard Tuesday night by the Northville township board and planning commission meeting in joint session.

Planners approved the petition for rezoning on October 12. But a petition for another hearing before the township board was made by property owners in the area who were represented at the hearing by Attorney Thomas Healy.

A final decision on the proposed rezoning must be made by the township board. Supervisor R. D. Merrilam indicated after the Tuesday evening hearing that the matter would come before the board for consideration at its next regular meeting, December 6.

The zoning request has come under heavy fire from residents of the Five Mile road area between Bradner and Haggerty. Protest petitions bearing signatures of some 170 residents have been presented to the board and strong opposition was voiced by the residents at planning commission meetings.

Request for the rezoning was made by the Fred Greenspan Building Company, which proposes to construct an apartment development containing some 275 units. The parcel fronts on Five Mile road and is adjacent to the eastern boundary of the Lutheran church property. It connects to Greenspan-owned land totaling 130 acres which extends to the west side of the church property and northward along Bradner road. A development of single family homes is proposed for this remaining area.

In an orderly hearing which lasted little more than one hour Attorney Healy told the board that residents of the area opposed the rezoning on the basis that it would create a "radical increase in population density," would cause auto congestion, remove the "spacious atmosphere" and cause loss of a wooded area and scenic beauty.

The attorney also classified the proposal as "spot zoning" and noted that the zoning ordinance creating the present R-4 zoning was only eight months old.

Healy urged township officials to "halt the fast growth" and said the issue is "whether Greenspan or the township officials are doing the planning".

He then quoted from an October 13 article in The Northville Record dealing with area development in which Joseph Staub, vice president of Greenspan, was quoted as saying that "approximately 13,210 people will live in homes and apartments on a 130-acre site" ... in Northville township.

Healy said this could only be possible if the developers planned to request more multiple dwelling zoning. (The 13,210 figure was a typographical error. Development of the 130 acres as proposed with approximately 20 acres for multiple dwellings and the remainder single family dwellings would account for an estimated 1,300 people).

While maintaining that the basic position of the residents of the area was to oppose the rezoning, Healy suggested that if the board was disposed to grant the rezoning it consider imposing certain conditions to provide greenbelts for abutting residences and to stop further multiple development to the north.

Healy's remarks were called "almost wholly repetitious of previous statements given by residents at the original public hearing" by attorney James Littell, representing Greenspan.

Littell said that the development of the remaining portion of the 130 acres would be R-1 as previously stated. He pointed out that traffic cannot be considered as a factor in determination of zoning, that woods in the area would be lost even if R-1 development took place, and that the architectural beauty of the proposed apartment development would be an improvement for the area. He said that the Greenspan company was receptive to providing greenbelts and had proposed their use.

The attorney also denied that the request constitutes "spot zoning" because it is in general keeping with the community plan and does not harm the general welfare. Littell called it "short-sighted to think we can retain forever what was here five, 10, or 15 years ago". He quoted population growth estimates and said "we can't expect it (the growth) won't spill over into Northville township".

Township attorney John Ashton told the board that it had no power to invoke certain conditions on the rezoning that were more restrictive than the ordinance.

Littell Replaced

School Appoints New Attorneys

Northville's first official school attorney, James E. Littell, lost his job here Monday by unanimous action of the board of education.

Named to replace Littell, who is associated with the legal firm of Poole Warren & Littell, are Miller Canfield Paddock & Stone and Keller Thoma McManus & Keller.

The former firm, as specified by the board, will handle bonding and general legal matters while the latter firm, with whom Attorney Fred Schwarze—a Northville graduate—serves, will handle the school's legal role in teacher negotiations.

Reached by telephone Tuesday morning, Littell expressed surprise at the board's action.

A letter of appreciation is to be sent Littell, thanking him for his services in past years, the board agreed.

Littell was named attorney for the school in 1950.

With his appointment, Littell became the school district's first official attorney.

Over the years, however, the school has retained Miller Canfield Paddock & Stone specifically for bonding work. And last summer, Schwarze was retained to handle teacher negotiations.

Although the board has not discussed Littell's role in public, it is generally known that the relationship between the attorney and at least some of the board members was a strained one.

Superintendent Alex Nelson declined to discuss reasons behind the board's actions, but he noted that Miller Canfield Paddock & Stone would be hired on an annual retainer of $500, while the other firm would be retained upon specific request at a rate of "about $25 an hour".

Littell, too, had worked for the school on a $500 retainer.

Board Notes

Remedial Reading Teacher Added to High School Staff

Hiring of a remedial reading teacher at the high school level was approved by the board of education Monday night.

With the approval, the Northville school system now has one full-time remedial reading teacher in the high school, two in the elementary school, and a part-time teacher in the junior high school.

Still to be decided by the high school principal is whether concentration of the remedial reading program should be made at the freshman grade level or spread throughout the high school grades.

In answer to a question of the board, Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear re-emphasized administrative intentions of concentrating remedial reading work at the elementary grade level, but he noted that a high school improvement program should not be neglected.

He indicated that work at the high school level is somewhat temporary because improvements in lower grades should eventually mean fewer reading problems in the high school.

As approved earlier in the master teacher contract, the board voted to specifically grant release time for kindergarten teachers, effective beginning Monday. Kindergarten children will attend school from 8:45 to 11:15 a.m. for morning sessions, and from 1 to 3:30 p.m. for the afternoon sessions.

*****

Opening of bids on the proposed high school addition, originally scheduled for November 28, was postponed until December 5—the date originally pinpointed for awarding of contracts. Contracts will not be awarded until later in December.

Upon the request of parents in the Griswold - Butler street area, who complained in a letter to the board that the safety of children was endangered while walking past the Ford plant, some 12 children will be bused to school, Superintendent Alex Nelson reported to the board.

Trustee Robert Froelich recommended that administrative personnel investigate steps necessary at the state level to effect year-round classes in Michigan schools. Trustee Donald Lawrence advised that consideration be given to establishing a citizens group to study the advisability of launching a year-round school program in the Northville district.

NO PLACE TO GO—Evicted, broke and with no place to go, Lloyd Boursaw was a worried man this week as he and his family huddled near their trailer home that was moved to the edge of Ridge road, between Five and Six Mile roads. Their three oldest children, eight-year-old twins Kathy and Kenneth, and Lloyd Jr., 5, attend Northville schools.

Trailer Family Out on Road After Eviction

While his wife hugged a crying baby, Lloyd Boursaw, 36, talked about "injustice" and worried about where his wife and four children would live.

He and his family were evicted from a trailer site in Northville township Saturday morning and their trailer was pulled off the property and parked beside Ridge road, between Five and Six Mile roads.

The trailer was still parked there Tuesday afternoon.

Meanwhile, the family has been spending nights with relatives in a nearby three-room house. "We got to get out of there, too," said Boursaw, "because the owner can't let that many people live in three rooms."

Ranging in age from eight-year-old twins to a 9 1/2-month-old baby, the children have been unable to attend Northville schools regularly since the eviction.

Boursaw said he offered the trailer wheels in trade for food, "but a friend wouldn't take the wheels—he just gave us some groceries."

An order to vacate was issued by Plymouth Judge Edward Draugelis, upon the complaint of James Osborn of Jackson, who reportedly leased the property several years ago from the owner, Max Migdoll of Detroit.

"They came out here and just hauled us out lock, stock and barrel with the family and me inside," said Boursaw. "What am I going to do? No one will take the trailer. We can't find a place to rent. Our money's gone."

The Record could not reach Osborn at his home in Jackson, and Migdoll disclaimed any part in the eviction, pointing out that he had leased the property and did not know there were trailers parked on the 38-acre parcel.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merrilam said the trailer park is an illegal one and that township officials have been planning action against the owner, but put it off temporarily until settlement of another trailer park dispute in the Gerald avenue area.

Until the removal of Boursaw's trailer, the property contained three trailers. Now it has two. One is rented from Osborn by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, who also board 11 horses on the property. The other is occupied by an elderly couple, friends of Osborn.

"Look," said Boursaw, "I didn't cause trouble. I paid my rent and took care of the place. Now I'm mad, and I hope they close the place up—like they should have done a long time ago. How can he kick me off of something that's not legal?"

Mrs. Jenkins vouched for the Boursaws' character: "It's not like as if they were boozing it up and lazy. They're good people. Osborn just wants more room for his friends back there."

Boursaw explained that he hurt his back "about a year ago" while working as a bulldozer driver. He said he hasn't been able to work full time since. Meanwhile, he and his wife have been doing part-time janitorial work in Northville and Plymouth "to keep going."

"We were on welfare for about a month. No one likes to take handouts. So my wife took the part-time job."

The evicted trailer owner said he has searched all of the area trailer courts but because of restrictions or lack of space, he's been unable to locate a site for his trailer.

"I called the Welfare and they said they didn't have any luck in finding a place either."

UF Goes Over Top

Northville Torch Drive officials were full of smiles this week as both business and residential collections zoomed past UF goals before last Wednesday's deadline.

According to Mrs. David Vincent, residential chairman, collections totaled $2,682.92 by the close of the campaign—more than $100 over the 1966 goal of $2,560. Earlier, Business Chairman Mrs. Margaret Zayti reported business collections had netted nearly $200 more than the goal of $1,162.

To Meet Tuesday On Horse Ordinance

A special meeting of the Northville township planners has been called for next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock to discuss the newly adopted amendments to the horse ordinance.

Horse owners who have objected to the new restrictions are invited to attend the session at the township hall.

Survival Just One of Municipal Court Problems

Northville municipal court is facing a crisis.

Already threatened with abolition at the hands of the legislature, the court has recently received two directives further complicating the local judicial process.

Issued by the state supreme court, one directive states that the local court must have a court recorder to transcribe all felony and misdemeanor cases, excluding traffic violations. Furthermore, the court must appoint an attorney at government expense if the defendant cannot afford one.

Details must be worked out, but Northville Judge Charles McDonald said hiring recorders and appointing attorneys would prove costly.

For instance, a recorder receives 50 cents and more per transcribed page, McDonald said. It is assumed, he added, that the city would bear the cost of cases involving infraction of municipal ordinances. The county or state would apparently bear the cost, McDonald said, in cases involving state statutes.

Scheduled to take effect January 1 of next year, it is rumored that the supreme court may rescind the directive or the implementation date may be pushed back, the Northville judge confided.

In accordance with a United States Supreme Court decision, the second directive was issued through the circuit court.

Effective December 1, all prisoners, whether charged with a misdemeanor or felony, must be arraigned and bond set immediately, McDonald pointed out, to ensure due process of law.

Providing the local judge is unavailable Saturday afternoon or Sunday, any person apprehended in Northville will have to be arraigned at the prosecutor's office in Inkster or in Detroit, McDonald explained.

"It's the general trend to protect the accused," he said, "but the result may well be to speed up the creation of a district or similar court."

This is the proposal now under study by a 26-member blue ribbon committee. It will eliminate the present lower court system and consolidate courts, possibly Northville's, into a district court.

Legislators actually have no choice in the matter, said Marvin Stempfen,

Early Deadline Next Week

Deadlines for news and advertising copy in The Northville Record-November News and South Lyon Herald newspapers will be advanced one day next week.

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday Thursday, the newspapers will be published early for Wednesday home delivery.

Deadline for classified advertising will be Monday noon. News and display advertising will be accepted until 4 p.m. Friday. Copy that can be submitted Friday, Saturday morning and Monday morning will be appreciated. Our telephone are FI 9-1700 and GE 7-2011.

state representative of the 35th district and a member of the committee.

The new Michigan constitution makes it mandatory to abolish justices of the peace, Stempfen declared. Although the constitution does not demand it, Stempfen feels that municipal courts likewise should be eliminated.

Plans now call for the inclusion of Northville, Northville township, Plymouth, Plymouth township and Livonia in the district. A minimum of three elected judges will preside in this district, it was reported.

Dispute broke out over the inclusion of Redford township in the district during the last meeting of the blue ribbon committee held October 15, Stempfen said.

Under proposed plans, residents who live in the Oakland County portion of Northville will have to travel farther to get justice. They are included in a district, subject to change, which includes South Lyon, Novi, Wixom, Milford, Walled Lake and Commerce, Highland and White Lake townships.

Size of the districts and the number of judges to serve them are just two of several problems recognized by committee members, Stempfen explained.

The biggest problem, he said, is "how to retain experienced and qualified personnel. The new system will have to be designed for smooth integration."

Another problem he pointed out, is culling of present statutes to assure there will be no conflict of laws when the new system goes into effect January 1, 1969.

"We're trying to make the areas smaller with more judges," Stempfen said.

Generally, there are 83 districts, roughly corresponding to the state's 83 counties. On this basis, the committee has arrived at the population figure of about 50,000 people per judge. But these figures are subject to change, he said.

The law governing the organization of the new district court system must be adopted next summer, Stempfen declared, because judges must be elected in November of 1968 in order to permit smooth transition and implementation of the law.

Tight as the timetable might be, the proposed system, calling for consolidation of municipal as well as justice courts, faces attack and rigorous scrutiny before it becomes law.

Parent Poll Against Junior High Dances

A poll taken at the Northville junior high school PTA openhouse last Thursday reveals that the majority of parents attending prefer mixed dancing parties only at the senior high school level.

In announcing results of the ballot, Del Black, P-TA president, pointed out that the meeting was well attended with about 250 parents filling the lunchroom. In written ballots, filled out without discussion, 41 percent of the parents favored dancing with varying restrictions. The remaining 59 percent indicated they did not wish dancing in the junior high.

Included in the 41 percent were parents who favored restricting dances to after school rather than evenings. Other parents indicated alternate activities they would like to have available.

Afterward parents followed a condensed version of their children's school day, meeting teachers in their classrooms.

Pre-Holiday Fashion Show To Spotlight Children

A pre-holiday fashion show, involving Northville's Little People Shoppe, will be sponsored by Our Lady of Good Counsel Church on Wednesday, November 30 in the Mayflower Meetinghouse beginning at 8 p.m.

Plan Benefit Festival Here

The annual Thanksgiving Festival, sponsored by the Our Lady of Providence School, will be held Sunday at the school, 16115 Beck road, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Open to the public, the festival will include a tour of the school, door prizes, refreshments and sale of arts and crafts products made by children of the school.

Highlighting the event will be the appearance of Santa Claus for resident and visiting children.

Planned especially for the Northville-Plymouth area, the show will feature fashion presentations tied to Broadway musical numbers sung by members of the parish, including children.

The first song, "It's a Big Clown Balloon" will be followed by "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas," featuring music by the children as they decorate a large Christmas tree with pine cones and holly.

The spotlight will then go to a mother singing, "That Man Over There is Santa Claus" to her young child. Lastly, Hugh Brown will sing "My Wish", a touching love song to his little girl, Erin.

Nineteen children will model fashions from the Little People Shoppe, and adults will model clothing of Plymouth and Farmington stores.

Ticket information can be secured by calling Mrs. Voss at GL 3-3845.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

DATES ARE SET for the two-day pre-Christmas sale to be held by the Northville State hospital auxiliary. On November 30 and December 1 the auxiliary room at the hospital will be brimful of usual-and-unusual holiday gift items.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. hospital staff members, employees and the public are invited to make early selections. Mrs. Louis Pearlman of Livonia, buyer for the gift shop, has ordered the Christmas items. Afterward they will be on sale until Christmas in the gift shop.

Both Thanksgiving and Christmas are occasions for special ward parties under sponsorship of the auxiliary. This past Tuesday 120 residents of H building were entertained at a Thanksgiving punch-cookies-and ice cream party under the direction of Mrs. Charles Ratliff, ward party chairman. She is planning a large Christmas party for December, which will be "mobile" and go into closed wards of the main building.

Mrs. Ratliff also is in charge of the annual birthday luncheon to be held February 14. Mrs. Robert Lang, auxiliary president announces. At this always-festive event members of the auxiliary who push carts into wards, serve in the lobby gift shop, bake cakes, etc., themselves are guests. Plans already are under way for a patient fashion show at the luncheon with patients who have been sewing every Tuesday modeling their creations. Mrs. E. L. Fogler, Mrs. John McGraw and Mrs. Kenneth Vickery are volunteers who have been giving the sewing lessons.

NORTHVILLE SENIOR Citizens' club is making plans to entertain the Plymouth Senior Citizens' Club at a cooperative dinner at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 22, in the junior high boys' gymnasium (former community building.) Mrs. H. A. Boyden, club president, reveals that in addition to cards and other games during the social hour there will be a surprise guest program which the committee is "keeping under wraps."

The Plymouth club of 200 members has been host to the Northville group on previous occasions. The Northville group has 160 members and has outgrown facilities of the scout-recreation building for its dinner meetings. Mrs. Boyden reports that the last potluck was attended by 77 members. Its business meetings, she says, will continue to be held in the scout building which members affectionately feel is "home" as the group has met there from its beginning.

"SEE DICK, see Jane, See Dick and Jane Have Fun!" - that's the "fun" title conceived for the annual youth program of the Northville Woman's club to be held at 2 p.m. this Friday in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Robert Yoder, program chairman for the day, has arranged a program of student talent. The 22-member high school jazz band will play. Senior varsity cheerleaders will demonstrate their pom-pom routine, and the High Timers, a folk group, will sing. Glenn Delbert is to give the humorous reading that is presented in the state school championship. Mark Hesse, high school senior and finalist in the Merit Scholarships, will introduce the program.

Although this is not a guest day club members with junior high students are invited to have them attend. (There is no junior high Friday for seventh and eighth graders as it is their conference day.)

BEAUTIFICATION of our town can be an individual project. For example, the live specimen orchids that often appear on the check-out desk of the library are the donation of Mrs. C. W. Whittlesey, who usually also provides the botanical book illustration to give added information. The blooms are from Mrs. Whittlesey's greenhouse, but, she notes regretfully, now are going into a dormant period.

This fall blacktop replaces mud at the rear of the Northville junior high school with railroad ties and landscaping bringing beautification there.

COMING EVENTS ---
Nov. 17 (Today) - 11 a.m. Northville Town Hall, Ann Landers, P and A Theatre. Celebrity luncheon, Meadbrook Country club.
Nov. 17 - (today) No school for sixth grade - conferences.
Nov. 18 - 2 p.m. Northville Woman's club youth program, high school auditorium.
Nov. 18 - No school for sixth, seventh and eighth grades - conferences.
Nov. 24 - Thanksgiving.

Here's Cooking Tips For Preparing Turkey

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, area housewives may appreciate the following tips on preparing the traditional Thanksgiving turkey:

Q. What size turkey shall I buy?
A. This depends on the number to be served. When buying ready-to-cook turkeys under 12 pounds, allow 3/4 to 1 pound per serving, over 12 pounds 1/2 to 3/4 pound per serving. (Turkeys over 12 pounds generally have more meat, less bone.)

Ready-to-Cook
Turkey
8 to 12 pounds 10 to 20
12 to 16 pounds 20 to 32
16 to 20 pounds 32 to 40

Q. How do I thaw a frozen turkey?
A. Leave bird in its original body wrap. Place on tray in refrigerator. Allow one to three days for thawing, depending on size (24 hours per 6 pounds of turkey meat).

Q. How much stuffing do I need?

A. Allow 1 cup per pound of turkey.

Q. When should I stuff the turkey?

A. Not until it is time to put in the oven. Then combine the dry and moist ingredients used in making the stuffing and fill the neck and body cavities.

Q. What is the best way to stuff the turkey?

A. Fill neck cavity first - don't pack. Fasten neck skin to back of turkey with a skewer. Stuff body cavity lightly. Don't pack. Stuffing expands during cooking.

Q. What is the easiest way to truss a turkey?

A. Push tail under band of skin into body cavity. Tuck legs under band of skin. Fold wings and tuck under turkey. Fasten with skewers. Brush with vegetable oil.

Smokler to Build It

Novi Woman Helps Plan 'Ideal' House

How many women, in complete exasperation, have found themselves saying, "It must have been a man that planned my home ... I wish he'd asked me how to design it... I'd tell him what we women really need!"

Mrs. Annie Nichols, 44000 Durson, Novi, had that chance this month when The Smokler Company and Parent's Magazine held a conference with 55 Metropolitan Detroit housewives and asked them to plan a new home. (Presently, Smokler is developing an apartment complex in Northville, south of Seven off Northville road.)

The home that the women designed will be built in Pheasant Run, The Smokler Company's Downriver community on Sibley road in Riverview. The home will be completed early in 1967 and will be featured in the March issue of Parent's Magazine.

And what did the women want? A 4-bedroom, full basement, 2-story, traditional home with 2 1/2 baths won the popularity poll.

In specific features, mud rooms rated highly. Most women wanted an area large enough for a 1/2 bath, close to a side or back-yard entrance, not a garage entrance, and having enough space to serve as a utility room where the ironing board could be left up on a permanent basis. The women also voted to give up a first floor "powder room" if they had to choose between it and a more practical half-bath in the mud room area.

The real surprise came when the women indicated a substantial preference for a wider, shallow lot with room between neighbors rather than a deep front or back yard.

What features or design rated highly with these women? Over half said the following items were necessities in their new home: hardwood floors, ceramic tile, built-in dishwasher, built-in garbage disposal, insulating glass, formal dining room, family room adjacent to the kitchen, separate laundry area, washable wall paper, vanities in the bath, linoleum floor coverings, attic fan, brick exterior, walk-in closets, large bath mirrors, cedar closet, walk-in pantry, window over sink in kitchen (and a kitchen at the rear of the house so the children can be watched while playing), ceramic tile backsplash, slate foyer floor, built-in bookshelves and lighted bedroom closets.

Some glamorous items, included by builders in an attempt to make their model homes more attractive, were rated as unnecessary by the women. These items included built-in intercoms, french doors, sunken living rooms and a family that isn't adjacent to the kitchen.

Surprisingly, the women by-passed several items as being desirable but not necessary in their next home. These included air-conditioning, wood panel-

Junior Miss Pageant Set for December 10

A girl studying today at Northville high school may not know it now but she's headed for state and national laurels.

She's the student who will win the first Northville Junior Miss Pageant to be held here December 10 under the sponsorship of the Northville Jaycee organization.

Entry forms for the contest have been distributed in the high school, according to Jaycee officials, and interest is growing daily.

Preliminary plans call for the pageant to be held in the high school auditorium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Contestants will be judged upon scholastic achievement, personality, poise and appearance, youth fitness, and creative and performing arts.

"The Junior Miss Pageant is not a beauty contest," officials emphasized,

"and bathing suit competition is not allowed. It's simply a program to recognize and honor outstanding high school senior girls in our community."

Winner of the local contest, in addition to receiving a scholarship and community laurels, will be eligible to participate in state competition at Pontiac. Should she win at Pontiac, she'll travel to Mobile, Alabama to represent Michigan in the National Pageant.

DAR Chapter to Hear Talk on Photography

"History of Photography" will be the topic of a talk Monday noon at a meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The featured speaker at the meeting, to be held at the Plymouth home of Mrs. Norman Saunders, 12176 Amherst court, will be Charles H. Haynes, a member of the teaching staff of Winona School of Professional Photography at Lake Winona, Indiana.

Haynes, who also is a member of the board of directors of the Professional Photographers of America, has been an accountant, buyer, salesman, and a writer and editor of a trade publication in the tool and die industry. He also is a partner and the only active owner of the O'Connor Studios operating through the J. L. Hudson stores.

A native of Detroit and a graduate of the University of Michigan, he served as an infantryman during World War II and was decorated for gallantry under fire by both the United States and the French governments.

*****
The national society of the DAR has announced plans for its history scholarship award of $8,000. Students must apply before the February 1 deadline. Application forms may be secured by contacting Mrs. Harry Geitgey of the Sarah Ann Chapter.

Those eligible include:
Boys or girls in the senior class of Northville high school who are in the upper one-fifth of their class. They must be American citizens and be recommended by the principal, guidance director of the school, and a committee of at least five members of the faculty, one of whom must be the instructor in American history.

KD Alumnae To Hear Schuldt

Louis F. Schuldt, director of community relations for Northville State Hospital, will be the speaker at the November meeting of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Sorority.

Mrs. Elden Johnson, 11428 Berwick, Livonia, will hostess the November 21 meeting, which will begin at 8:30 p.m. Co-hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Harry Hayward, also of Livonia.

Members are reminded that fruitcake orders must be in by this meeting. Proceeds from the fruitcake sales support the sorority's philanthropic projects, one of which is Northville State Hospital. Alumnae from the Northville area interested in attending the meeting may contact Mrs. William Young, 349-0584.

She Receives More Honors

Another honor has come the way of Mrs. Frank L. (Maude) Billman, 19675 Marilyn, a real estate broker for more than 35 years.

The 80-year-old Northville township resident has been notified that her name appears in the 1966 editions of the Directory of International Biography and the National Social Directory.

A year ago her name was listed in the latest edition of Who's Who of American Women.

Working out of her home because of the illness of her husband, Mrs. Billman has served on the women's council of the national realtors association and is a past director of Western Wayne County Board of Realtors.

Teachers Seek $6,500 to Start

Northville school district negotiators can expect teachers to go all out to gain substantial salary increases and fringe benefits when bargaining for a new contract begins around the first of the new year.

That's the opinion of Donald Brown, 1966 chief negotiator for the Northville teachers club, a branch of the Michigan Education Association (MEA).

His comments followed the adoption of a resolution by MEA region seven council delegates, endorsing a minimum starting bachelor's salary of $6,500 and a master's maximum salary of $13,000 for the school year 1967-68. Region seven includes MEA teachers in Oakland county.

"Our (region two) salary aspirations will certainly be similar to region seven's," Brown predicted. Northville is in region two which includes all MEA affiliates in Wayne county excluding Detroit. Northville raised its beginning salary to $5,600 this year.

"I think it's a realistic goal," Brown added.

"I think considerable effort will be expended for fringe benefits such as life insurance, income protection insurance and a sabbatical leave policy," Brown declared.

"Considerable effort will also be put forth," he continued, "to bring about smaller class loads to establish a better learning environment."

Brown said that no negotiations have presently taken place, but he indicated that teachers will begin negotiations for a 1967-68 contract around January 1.

"In accordance with this year's contract agreement," Brown explained, "the teachers club will notify the school board when negotiations will begin."

A new chief spokesman will probably be leading local teachers, however. Brown said Tuesday that he would not resume the position.

A meeting of the Northville Teachers club was held yesterday to select a new chief negotiator.

The resolution adopted by region seven also called for the Michigan Education Association to "provide active support to those member districts which negotiate in good faith with their respective boards of education to this end (salary goals), such support to include:

"Recommending that sanctions be placed upon those school districts which refuse to meet these salary standards, and financial support for those teachers who, at the direction of their local associations, refuse to work without a mutually agreed upon salary schedule."

Court Faces Many Problems

Main argument put forth in defense of reorganization is the fact that streamlining is long overdue. "There are confusing jurisdictions under the present set up," Stempien said, "a problem that is the product of change from an agrarian to a suburban area. The courts didn't keep up with the change," he explained.

Consolidation will rectify the situation, he claims, by bringing misdemeanors and civil cases involving $5,000 or less for settlement in the district court. Stempien further points out that political pressures on municipal judges and justices will be relieved.

Northville Judge McDonald agrees that revamping is called for, but he reserves his own thoughts on details of organization.

"Several plans and modifications of existing plans are floating around," the judge said. "The senate and house judiciary committees haven't taken any testimony yet."

The Wayne County Municipal Judges association has suggested one alternate plan, McDonald said, calling for retention of present incumbents, upon application and approval, to serve as district judges. They would serve until an election in 1974, he explained.

"Too many things at this time remain unanswered," McDonald said, "so it's difficult to comment. But we must have safeguards."

Where the permanent seat of the district court will be established is one major problem, McDonald declared. If Livonia is designated, he said, it could prove inconvenient for local law enforcement officers and expense involved would be a question mark.

Stempien offers a remedy. "It's my proposal that a local option should be included in which each municipality could provide a seat for the court." The judge would spend perhaps a day in each community providing a seat.

McDonald points to another problem - salary. "It's a matter for the legislature to set, subject to a lot of influence and pressure," he pointed out that if a lawyer was elected for a four-year, full time term, he would be forced to give up his practice. If defeated in the next election, the lawyer would have to start his practice anew.

A minimum of $20,000 has been suggested, Stempien reported. He added, "We're going to go over this thing detail by detail to keep the best of the old and bring in the new."

Don Holman Wins Grid Quiz

Top prize of $10 on last week's football contest was won by Donald Holman of 512 Whipple, South Lyon. Don's entry tied with two others, Sandy Kritch of 429 Lake in Northville, and Virginia Gould, 42509 Parkhurst, Plymouth. Sandy won second prize of $5 and Virginia won $3 for third place.

Don topped the other contestants with only three wrong by coming closest on his prediction of the score of the Detroit Lions-Minnesota game.

The football contest closes this week. The final quiz appears on page 8B.

GO-GO SCHOOLCRAFT—These three members of the Schoolcraft College cheerleading squad interrupted their practice long enough to pose for the photographer. It's all part of getting ready for the 1966-67 basketball season in which the girls hope to make their contribution to the Blue and Gold success on the courts this year. Left to right are Linda Secord, Northville; Cathy Stager, Livonia; and Kathy Rowden, Redford Township.

Winless Schoolcraft Looks Up Basketball Tourney Opens Today

With nowhere to go but up, Schoolcraft college basketball hopes for the 1966-67 season rest on a handful of "firsts" as a 17-man squad opens its season here today with an Invitational Tournament.

Winless in 18 games last year and holders of a 2-32 record in its two seasons on the court, the Blue and Gold is counting on (1) a new coach, (2) the fact that it will not only practice, but play all its home games in the same gymnasium, and (3) a squad composed of several promising freshmen backed up by a small cadre of experienced sophomores.

Schoolcraft is host team in the first Schoolcraft Invitational Tournament which will run through Saturday at the Northville community building.

The tournament will bring together Lorain (Ohio) community college, Western Ontario Tech, Windsor; Monroe community college, Highland Lakes community college, Auburn Hills community college, and Schoolcraft in a single elimination—consolation game test.

Schoolcraft will face Monroe in the first round at 8:30 p.m. today, following the Western Ontario-Auburn Hills game, which begins at 7 p.m.

Estimated starting time for tomorrow's game are 6:30, 8 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday's consolation game will begin at 7 p.m., with the finals being played at 8:30 p.m.

Athletic Director Marvin Gans said that a $1 tournament ticket will entitle the holder to seven games.

Schoolcraft will open its 20-game regular schedule against Henry Ford community college at Dearborn next Wednesday. The schedule includes 17 games against Michigan Junior college Athletic association opponents. The Blue and Gold is still looking for its first victory in MJCAA competition.

Bob Leggat, who took over the basketball coaching duties this year from Wilson Munn, is building his team around Jeff Stevens, a returning letterman, and four freshmen.

The group of first-year men is headed by Steve Moore, 6-3, 170 pounder, who captained the Farmington High cage team last year; and John Felmet, who comes to Schoolcraft via Highland Park High.

Cliff Peach, the tallest man on the squad at 6-4, and Al Jose, who played his high school basketball at Livonia's Franklin High, complete the probable first five. Peach was a basketball letterman at Redford High and has been conditioning himself for the cage season on the highly successful Schoolcraft soccer team, also coached by Leggat.

Felmet, 6-0, 180 pounds, brings a reputation as a good rebounder with a fine hook shot.

Returning sophomores, other than Stevens, are Jim Smith, Alan Frame and Ron Bennett of Northville, all of whom won letters last year.

Leggat may get some unexpected help from two other area high school basketball stars, both of whom are now on the "doubtful" list: Gary Slade, former Garden City West player; and gag the Blue and Gold will have its third coach in as many seasons—the team has found a "home" at the Northville Community building.

"We hope this is going to make a difference," said Leggat. "Last season we played 11 home games on eight different courts. Things were no better the year before. Our boys have never had a chance to feel at home on any one floor."

"We really look for some improvement this year," Leggat continued, "but we could still improve considerably without making a better record. We are still a few years away from being a factor in the MJCAA."

The conference race this year shapes up as another two-way battle between Alpena and Port Huron, last year's co-champions. Flint community college, with its entire 1965-66 team returning, has added a number of Detroit area and Battle Creek high school stars to its roster and is expected to challenge the leaders, as Jackson community college is banking on the same starting team that went to the finals of the national JCAA regional tournament last spring.

In spite of the team's past performances, interest in basketball hit a new high on the Schoolcraft campus this fall when 46 boys answered Leggat's first call for talent.

Leggat pruned the list of hopefuls to 17 and will start the season with this group.

Sports

JH Looks Good Too

JV Performance Polishes Grid Hopes

It remains to be seen, but if the junior varsity and junior high school performances this year are any indication, Northville will have solid football players for years to come.

Under the eye of Coach Dick Willing, a former Northville high school star, the jayvees tacked up four victories and didn't lose a game.

Only blemish was a 19-19 tie with Belleville, a game in which Northville had what Willing termed, "tons of penalties." "It actually beat us," the Eastern Michigan university graduate said.

Why the undefeated slate? "It was team effort and a desire to win," Willing explained. "We employed the Woody Hayes philosophy on offense—three yards and a cloud of dust. And we had a real fine defensive unit."

In the local jayvees' final game last week Tuesday, it was an impregnable defense that provided a 7-6 victory on a rain soaked field.

Early in the first quarter, Willing reported, a back actually slipped through Northville's prevent defense that was expecting a pass. He ran 65 yards for the touchdown.

Novi Field Set For '67 Season

Novi gridgers will have a new home field when the 1967 football season opens next September, Tom Dale, superintendent of schools, announced this week.

Construction has already begun, Dale said, to ensure that the field, complete with encircling track and bleachers and new sod, will be ready next fall.

It will be located approximately 50 yards north of the present football field, Dale reported.

Optimists Laud Area Youth

As part of its celebration of Youth Appreciation Week, the Northville Optimist club hosted debaters from the high school Forensic club last night.

The special program was held at the Thunderbird Inn.

Officials pointed out that the week of November 14 through 20 has been set aside for observance of Optimist International's Youth Appreciation Week.

"Objective of this observance," they explained, "is to recognize and applaud the overwhelming majority of teenagers who believe in and practice decency, not delinquency."

The annual observance was instituted 10 years ago by Optimist International, a men's service organization with 87,000 members in 2,500 clubs throughout the United States and Canada.

Nationally known by their slogan, "Friend of the Boy" Optimists have been lending a helping hand to youth since their organization was founded 48 years ago. This week they ask: "Won't you join with us in saluting the fine youth of the Northville area?"

for 17 years on a farm on Nine Mile and Chubb roads.

Born on March 19, 1901 in Assaria, Kansas, he was the son of Olaf and Esther (Trulson) Molander.

Surviving Mr. Molander are two sons, Lance E. of Bloomfield Hills and Myron H. Pickard of Bay Shore, Long Island, New York; a daughter, Mrs. Joyce Wenker of Butler, New Jersey; two brothers, O. B. of Stockton, Kansas, and Emmett of Salina, Kansas; a sister, Mrs. Olive Feline, and nine grandchildren.

A yard conductor and switchman with the New York Central railroad until he retired March 31, 1966, Mr. Molander was a member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Salina, Kansas, VFW post number 334 of Detroit, the American Legion of Detroit and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today at the Casterline Funeral home, with the Reverend Charles Boerger, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Northville, officiating.

Burial will be at Roselawn Park Memorial cemetery, Salina, Kansas.

BILLIE M. THOMAS

Billie M. Thomas, 66, formerly of Northville township, died at Ft. Lauderdale, on Friday, November 11 following a short illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday, November 15 at Plantation Funeral Home in Ft. Lauderdale, where Mr. Thomas had lived.

Council OK's Kipfer on Panel Fine Hikes At Menninger Clinic

The city council whipped through a brief special meeting agenda Monday night before adjourning into a work session (see Speaking for The Record, page 10B).

The meeting was called specifically to establish higher overtime parking fines and authorize purchase of parking meters.

Councilmembers agreed to recommend a new schedule that would boost fines for overtime parking from 50 cents to one dollar. If the fine is not paid within 24 hours the penalty will become $3. After 10 days the violation becomes a court matter and the fine can be increased at the court's discretion.

Parking in a prohibited area would draw a fine of $5 under the council's new recommendations.

Purchase of 72 meters for proposed employee parking lots on Wing street, Dunlap street and an alley lot adjacent to the Presbyterian church was approved. Cost of the meters is $4,177.50. Under terms of the contract payment is made by earmarking one-half the revenues from the meters.

The new employee lots will contain meters that will provide one hour parking for five cents, two hours for a dime, three hours for 15 cents, four hours for 20 cents and a full 12 hours for a quarter.

It was noted by the council that the lots will be open for use by anyone, but that employees will be encouraged to use the fringe-area lots so that shoppers may use those nearer stores.

Thieves Steal Horn, Drum

A baritone saxophone, a snaredrum and stand, valued at $750, were stolen from the junior high school gymnasium (Community building) sometime between November 3 and November 7, it was reported.

"There were no signs of forced entry," Police Chief Samuel Elkins said. A number of groups had used the building. Elroy Ellison, Northville school administrative assistant, said.

The instruments were discovered missing on November 7 by Band Director Robert Williams when school resumed after closing Thursday and Friday for a teachers convention.

2 Area Students Honored at MSU

Two area students were among 536 honored at Michigan State university recently for achieving all-A records during spring and summer terms.

They are Dianne M. Steiner, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Steiner of 395 West Walled Lake drive, and Harry Colestock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Colestock of 58311 Ten Mile road, Lyon township.

Names of the students are placed on the honor roll, which offers "recognition of the highest attainment in scholarship."

James F. Kipfer, 914 Ely Court, will serve as expert consultant at a three-day nationwide meeting of psychologists and educators November 16-18 at the Menninger Clinic, Topeka, Kansas, the Menninger Foundation has announced.

Kipfer, assistant executive director, Michigan Society for Mental Health, and member of the Northville school board, will participate because of his experience in school mental health projects at Oak Park and 31 other Michigan school districts.

Roy W. Menninger, M.D., and Edward D. Greenwood, M.D., co-directors of the Menninger Division of School Mental Health, stated that the meeting has two purposes: 1 - To obtain a better understanding of the wide range of problems and needs which confront educators of teachers themselves; and 2 - to examine such problems with experienced educators toward defining how and what preventive mental health efforts should be made in the school setting.

The Menninger Foundation is an internationally-recognized, privately-endowed center of research into human behavior and treatment of emotional troubles.

It is among the first national programs aimed at prevention of emotional handicaps through education channels. In 1962 Kipfer developed and directed the first federal Technical Assistance Project conference of school administrators on school mental health. He has published articles on school mental health in "The American Journal of Orthopsychiatry," and is called upon often for consultation to teacher inservice training projects on classroom mental health.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Ray Pippins, Pastor,
Church of Christ, South Lyon

In 11 Cor. 4:1-5 The apostle Paul made some statements that are worthy of our consideration. He said, "Therefore, having received this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. (verse 1) Paul counted it a great favor to be given the privilege of preaching the unsearchable riches of Christ." How many of us today count it a grace to be permitted to teach the gospel of Christ? Likewise may we never lose heart amid all the discouragements and setbacks of this life. Paul heeded his own advice given in 1 Cor 15:58 where he said, "Be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. May we not be weary in well doing, for we shall reap if we faint not. (Gal. 6:9.)

Paul goes on to state in verse 2, "We have renounced disgraceful, underhand ways." Paul did not believe in the modern doctrine, "The end justifies the means". He withstood Peter to his face when his actions were not consistent with New Testament Christianity. (Gal. 2:11-12). He continued in verse 2, "We refuse to practice cunning, or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of truth we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God." May we as Paul, believe in the all sufficiency of the Word of God. When the Spirit of The Lord speaks may we be satisfied. He took his own advice given by the Spirit to the elders at Ephesus, when he said, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among them that are sanctified.

The Hebrew writer said, "The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart." (Heb. 4:12). But if we or an angel from heaven, preach any gospel unto you than that which we have preached let him be accursed. As I said before, so say I now again, if any man is preaching a gospel contrary to that which you received, let him be accursed. (Gal. 1:7-9).

Paul did not believe it didn't make any difference just as long as the preacher tickled the listeners ears. Rather to Timothy he condemned the things that would be taught to satisfy itching ears. (11 Tim. 4:3 & 4.) He told the Thessalonians that God would send a strong delusion to those that did not have a love for his truth, that they might believe a lie and be damned. Knowing this it is understandable that he would say, "By an open statement of truth, we commend ourselves to every man's conscience."

So as all times should be a time of thanksgiving let us thank God for his word, and for the privilege of studying it, and show our appreciation for it by not tampering with it. But by believing it and obeying it. Jesus said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32.) Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

St. Joseph's Men's Club Elects Currier

The initial meeting of the Men's club of St. Joseph's Parish was held October 24 at the parish hall. Officers for the new club are: Patrick Currier, president; Don Curtis, secretary-treasurer; Frank Clements, first vice president; and Jim Rockel, second vice president.

The purpose of the club is to activate the men of the parish as a charitable organization. Preliminary plans are underway by the group for a Dinner-Dance to be held in conjunction with the dedication of the new St. Joseph's Catholic church being built on South Pontiac Trail.

The next meeting of the club will be held Monday, November 21, at 8 p.m. at the parish hall. A special effort to increase the membership of the newly formed organization will be made prior to that meeting.

Nip and Tuck

How I had dreaded cleaning the attic! But it was all worth it after I found the picture of Nip and Tuck when they were puppies. I sat down there and then in the cold, dusty room and recalled the day when Bob brought them home to Carol. How she laughed and loved them and flung her arms around both our necks in excited gratitude. How much fun we three had, watching the cunning antics of the canine infants.

Nip is gone now, duly mourned and buried under our apple tree, and Tuck, gray and crochety, limps if he moves too fast. Carol lives in Cincinnati in a happy home of her own, and I carry roses to the cemetery on the hill.

What a wonderful gift is memory. My days are rich with remembrances of the good life Bob and I had. How glad I am that we shared, not only a home, but also a love for God and His Church so that though now I am lonely, yet I am not alone.

News About Schoolcraft

Holiday recess, MAJCC's 1967 meeting, a "beat" poet address, a comedy film, and a new appointment were among the announcements made this week by Schoolcraft college officials.

Gary Snyder, regarded as one of the finest poets of the so-called "Beat Generation", will be the guest of Schoolcraft for two appearances on campus today (Thursday).

Snyder will speak at 3 p.m. in the Waterman Campus Center, and at 8 p.m. in the college library. His appearance at the college is sponsored by the college Creative Arts on Campus fall series. The public is invited without charge.

Schoolcraft students and staff will not have an opportunity to sit down to the traditional Thanksgiving holiday dinner without concern for classes, but they'll have the rest of the week to enjoy it.

The annual holiday will begin at the close of classes on Wednesday night, November 23. Classes will resume on Monday morning, November 28.

Apprenticeship program classes scheduled for Friday night and Saturday morning, November 26, also will be suspended for the holiday.

A star-laden cast topped by Claudia Cardinale, Marcello Mastroianni, and Vittorio Gassman commit a delightful comedy of bungled burglary in "The Big Deal on Madonna Street," scheduled for tomorrow.

Also part of the fall semester series, the film will be shown at 2 p.m. and at 8 p.m. in the amphitheater in the Forum. It too is open to the public without charge.

Schoolcraft's 91 fulltime faculty members voted overwhelmingly to attend the 1967 meeting of the Michigan Association of Junior and Community Colleges scheduled for next fall at Delta college.

Schoolcraft, which was host college to the MAJCC's 1965 meeting, had the largest faculty and administrator attendance - other than the host school - at the 1966 meeting at Kellogg Community college, Battle Creek, on October 21.

James H. Blakeley, former data processing supervisor for the Grosse Pointe board of education, has joined the staff as IBM supervisor. Blakeley, who has six years experience in IBM installations, will be responsible for setting up a new college information services center, using a computer leased by the college and scheduled for delivery this winter, as well as other data processing equipment already installed.

King, Bellefeville, Stipp, Anglin, Lorenz, Ozark, Smith, Evans and Warren.

All ladies planning to attend the Vera Vaughn Christmas party December 13, 7:00 p.m. at Skippers Table, please contact Mrs. Carl Evans. Meet at the church at 6-6:30 and go in a group. Plans also include bringing a plastic toy Christmas wrapped to the church no later than November 27 so they can be mailed in time for Christmas to the United Indian Mission.

The annual harvest dinner was held Saturday night at the church. The program included singing, special music by Rev. and Mrs. Roscoe Lee, turkey talk by Ron Ozark and message from Dr. Wins, pastor of Gratiot Avenue Baptist church.

NOVI REBEKAHS

The Novi Rebekahs and Oddfellows report a very successful roast beef dinner at the community hall this past Sunday. They could have sold many more tickets.

The Past Noble Grands will meet at the hall tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 for their meeting beginning with a planned potluck supper. Hostesses for the evening, Irene Kahrl and Doris Darling.

There will be no meeting Thursday, November 24 but a special meeting will be held on "How to Win the Game," Continued on Page 6B

After giving them the best years of our life...

A GAS INCINERATOR!!

"Imagine... replacing us after we've sat out here in the snow and rain for all these years. We were good enough until they heard about that young upstart that consumes rubbish and refuse indoors. Since then we've had nothing but complaints about flies, smoke and odor, and the unpleasant chore of endless trips with trash and garbage. You'll see... replacing us with an automatic Gas Incinerator will make a big difference in their life!"

You, too, can end trash and garbage problems by switching to a new smokeless, odorless Gas Incinerator!

Out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO...

...Livonia asked Northville township for 10 acres of land so that the neighboring city might realize an additional annual revenue of $600,000. Specifically, Livonia Mayor Harvey M. Moelke stated that Livonia's population has increased from 60,000 in the 1960 census to some 95,000. He explained that a new census could be taken under the provisions of a state law if the city's borders were changed.

...A movement was afoot to establish a charter flight to the annual New Year's Day Rose Bowl classic to lend support to the Spartans of Michigan State and especially, Quarterback Steve Juday of Northville.

...A December 6 public hearing was scheduled to start special assessment machinery rolling so that Randolph street can undergo improvements early next year.

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...The news was encouraging, City Manager Bruce Potthoff told city councilmen following his return from Chicago where he submitted the city's application for matching funds to construct a new city hall.

...Northville Township Supervisor George Clark told township board members that he would not be a candidate for re-election the following spring. Clark first ran for supervisor in 1959 and was re-elected in 1961.

...The Novi township board appointed Clerk Hadley Bachert as supervisor of the township. Bachert replaced Fraser W. Staman, who resigned a week earlier to seek an Oakland county road commission post. Staman's appointment to the $10,000 a year commission was made shortly after his resignation. Naming of Bachert was made on the motion of Trustee Frank Watz. Treasurer Duane Bell supported the action, and no other names were suggested. The name of Lloyd George of Willowbrook was submitted as a candidate for the clerk's position by Trustee Emery Jacques.

...It was a night for the defense as Northville's Mustangs bombed an uninspired Clarkston football team, 60-6. Scoring most for the Mustangs was Joe Hay, who carried for three TDs, kicked five extra points and blocked punts to set up two additional touchdowns. The Mustangs were in third place in the W-O league.

...Novi police arrested 25 underage youths on charges involving possession of alcoholic beverages.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

...Election of General Dwight D. Eisenhower as president of the United States by an overwhelming majority of the greatest number of Americans who ever took part in a national poll marked the ebb of the great political tide that swept of the Democratic Party into power in 1932.

...A military funeral was held for Corporal Richard W. Arndt at Casterline Funeral Home. Corporal Arndt, 20, the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Elwell of Northville was killed in action August 13 in Korea while serving with the First Marine Division.

...Margaret Coykendall was commissioned by the First Baptist Church of Northville as a missionary to serve under the Sudan Interior Mission in Nigeria, Africa.

...Roberta Malott was chosen as Football Queen in voting by Northville high school students. Her court included Jackie Keyes and Carolyn Ratiff.

...The slim margin of an extra point kicked from placement by Jurgen Bonnet, German exchange student attending Northville high school, separated the high school football team from defeat. The Mustangs slipped by Oxford high school by a score of 7 to 6 at Ford Field.

...Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox sold their home on Novi road and moved to Wixom.

...Five local girls were freshmen at Michigan State college, including Gay Duerson, Mary Jean Woodruff, Sylvia Hollis, Cece Bloom, and Marilyn Funk.

THIRTY YEARS AGO...

...Funeral services were held for Charles E. Rogers, well known industrialist and long time resident of the community.

...Petz Corner Fleetwing Service station was broken into and more than $400 in cash and checks were stolen.

...Northville invested a total of $47,125 in Defense Bonds and stamps during the month of October.

...The "Stage Door Canteen", was chosen by the senior class as the main theme for its annual Senior Prom.

...The first Christmas greeting received by The Record came from Corporal Richard G. Allan in Australia.

FIFTY YEARS AGO...

...By vote of the council, the village placed an order for two cars of soft coal, one of stove coal and one of chestnut. Because of a shortage, the coal was to be sold in one-ton lots only.

...James A. Huff hardware advertised a high speed motor washer that featured spiral cut gears, a four winged wooden dolly that churned hot suds, metal faucet, and a high art wood finish.

...Another daylight robbery was perpetrated in town when the Methodist Church was broken into.

...Weitzman's Grocery featured these items:

Gold Medal flour, $1.65; corn flakes 8-cents; Old Tavern coffee, 29-cents a pound; ginger snap cookies, 11-cents a pound; butter, 48-cents a pound; 2 large cans of milk, 25-cents, and one small can, 6-cents; six bars of Rub-No-More soap for 27-cents; a two-pound pail of peanut butter for 50-cents and a pound of home-made mince meat for 18-cents.

...Canada offered free homestead land.

...A 56-year old Lansing resident, who was a pro-German, was kidnapped, taken to the links of the Lansing Golf club and given a coat of tar and feathers, The Record reported.

...Another pro-German farmer was beaten by a 70-year-old Civil War veteran in Escanaba.

...Frank Lauer, Center street blacksmith, claimed that his severe backaches disappeared after taking several Doan's Kidney Pills.

...Frank N. Perrin & Sons of Northville offered a Ford Coupelet for $505.

...Action by Yale, Princeton and Harvard to suspend gridiron activities for the duration of the war, led to reports that the game of football would die permanently.

...New Hudson officials reported that an average of 17 motor trucks a day were passing through the village loaded with potatoes.

...From the Wixom Whisperings came word that Wixom was to be doctorless with the moving away of Dr. Mowers.

...From the Walled Lake Warbles came word that Fred Pratt was the owner of a new Ford automobile.

...And from the Northville Newslets came word that Carl Salow and family of Novi had bought the W. H. Ambler residence on West Dunlap.

Northville Debaters Defeat 2 W-O Teams

Victories fell like fall leaves to the Northville high school debaters last week - in droves.

In the first Wayne-Oakland League tournament, held November 8 at Bloomfield Hills, Northville debaters, Kurt Kinde, John Bunn, Carolyn Collocatt and Kathy Erwin, defeated teams from West Bloomfield and Milford.

Another varsity squad, composed of Glenn Delbert, Pam Smith, Cristie Becker and Kathy Erwin traveled to Hope college in Holland to compete in an all-day tournament Saturday.

The affirmative team of Deibert and Miss Smith and the negative team of Miss Becker and Miss Erwin each won two out of three debates.

Kinde accompanied the debaters to Holland as official time keeper.

The debaters were housed in dormitories and Coach Miss Florence Panatoni was a guest at the Alumni house.

Northville high school hosted novice debaters from Dearborn, Detroit Country Day, University of Detroit, Belleville, and Dominican high schools on November 7.

Northville debaters, Debbie Forsythe, Wayne Miller, Kinde, Bunn, Kim McCormick, Pam Witzke, Rosemary Van Fossen, Craig Balko and Susan Genesley, won six of eight rounds.

Following the debates, the contestants enjoyed a delicious dinner arranged by Mrs. Ruth Knap and her assistants, Miss Panatoni reported.

Assisting Miss Panatoni in directing the local debate teams is Mrs. M.

Brown, French and English teacher. The affirmative team of Karen Stefanski and Sue Jensenel and the negative team of Carolyn Collocatt and Pam Witzke competed in the second round of the W-O Conference debates Tuesday at West Bloomfield. They opposed Clarenceville and Brighton.

A tournament was also held Tuesday at the University of Detroit.

Northville will kick off competition in the state program debates today at Redford Union high school.

What's Cooking

MYI Picks 3 Students For '67 Tour

Three Northville students have been selected to participate in the Musical Youth International 1967 European Tour Band and Chorus, officials announced this week.

They are Sue Jones, senior; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claren Jones; Gary Becker, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Becker; and Jane Jerome, junior, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Jerome.

The three local students, along with 97 other high school students from Michigan and Ohio - representing 50 schools, will make up the group that will leave Metropolitan Airport on June 23 and return July 29.

On August 5, the group will appear at EXPO 67, the Montreal World's Fair and, on August 9, at Washington, D.C.

The Musical Youth International tour group is again an affiliated teen club of People-to-People, sponsored by the Ann Arbor chapter.

Edward Downing, director of instrumental music at Belleville high school, will direct the 1967 MYI band. A staff of 10 experienced teachers will assist in rehearsals and on tour, which will begin in the London area and continue to Wales, Germany, and other countries to be announced later.

Focus on Child Welfare

David McDougall of 9330 Napier road, has just returned from The American Legion's 40th Annual Midwestern Area Child Welfare Conference at Indianapolis, Indiana, November 3-5.

Child Welfare leaders of the American Legion and American Legion auxiliary from 12 Midwestern States convened to discuss their child welfare program plans for 1967 and to hear reports from distinguished child welfare leaders.

The theme for the conference was "Character Weavers" - which is to illustrate the responsibility voluntary organizations have for helping to shape the character of youth. Specific areas of interest considered by the conference were outdoor recreational facilities improved services for mentally ill children, juvenile delinquency and child safety.

Focus of the conference was directed toward stimulating community action to implement the many new programs developed recently to alleviate youth problems brought on by our increasingly complex way of life and automation.

Harold Hartley

He Turns Poetry Into Wooden Art

Turning poetry into wood has won the acclaim of Michigan artists for Northville's poet-carpenter Harold Hartley, Sr.

A large, intricately carved wooden tablet of the 680 Randolph resident has been selected from among hundreds of works to hang at the Detroit Institute of Arts for the forthcoming 56th annual exhibition of Michigan artists.

Earlier this month, the tablet was picked as a "significant piece of art" by the Franklin Siden Gallery of Detroit, where it has been on display.

Called "Peace Shield", the tablet was carved with a hand router. It is one of several produced by Hartley, who turned from poetry to wood carving easily because of his 25-years of experience as a carpenter.

Winner of poetry honors in past years, Hartley explained that the new outlet is a "natural because I'm able to apply the basic principals of poetry to wood carving."

Both require rhythm, contrast, repetition, symbolism and metaphors, he explained.

Hartley said he started carving about three years ago, using the power router as he would a paint brush. He sold a few pieces locally and then turned to larger works.

The "Peace Shield" is an example of the larger works.

The exhibition opens Friday, November 18 and continues through December 31. Some 160 juried entries from throughout Michigan, including painting, water color, pastel, drawing, collage, assemblage, prints, sculpture and photography, will be on display.

A total of 1,646 entries were submitted by 928 artists. Artists eligible to submit entries (maximum two) for the Michigan artists show are those born in Michigan, those who have worked or studied in Michigan for a minimum of two years, and current residents who have lived in the state at least one year.

Area Police Chiefs Warn Defective Car Owners

Three area police chiefs this week alerted all drivers that patrol officers have been instructed to increase violator contacts particularly during the next four months and to pay special attention to vehicle condition and operator's license status.

Making the joint announcement was made by Wixom Chief D'Arcy E. Young, Novi Chief Lee BeGole, and Northville Chief Samuel Elkins.

In an effort to identify and bring to the motorist's attention vehicle safety equipment needing maintenance attention, officers are asked to check the condition of all vehicles stopped for violations. Items to be checked include:

- Steering - for excessive play or hard operation.
- Brakes - for effective braking action.
- Horn - for proper operation and loudness.
- Mirrors - for adjustment and clear vision.
- Windshield and Windows - for unobscured vision.
- Visibility Equipment - for effective operation of defrosters, windshield wipers and washers.
- Headlights - for intensity and aim.
- Other Lights - for proper working order.
- Tires - for wear and for indications of poor wheel alignment and/or faulty balance.
- Exhaust system - for dangerous leaks or noise.

Officers will report their findings for local and statewide tabulations and analysis to encourage needed legislation to make Michigan streets and highways safer.

"We have no intention of being unduly harsh with motorists in our area," they pointed out. "This is fair warning that we simply want to do all we can to improve driving behavior and help make sure we have safer vehicles on our highways."

"Unless we do more and unless the public does more to halt the spiraling trend of the past five years in our traffic toll, the next few months threaten to be the worst in Michigan's history. That's the pure and simple reason for this united effort by Michigan enforcement agencies, and that's why our department is cooperating."

Statewide organizations backing the program include: the Michigan Sheriffs Association; the Michigan State Police; the Michigan State Safety commission; the Michigan Federation of Safety organizations; Traffic Safety for Michigan, Inc. (which underwrote the publication of program materials), and the Michigan State University Highway Traffic safety center (which is handling the statewide compilation and summarization of reports).

In Our Courts

A Northville man was ordered to pay a $100 fine or serve 60 days in jail Monday on a charge of reckless driving.

Curtis R. Cole, 21, of 346 First street, pleaded guilty at his arraignment before Judge Charles McDonald in Northville Municipal Court.

For passing a check with insufficient funds, Harold Searfoss, of 46215 Frederick street, was fined $35. He also made restitution of a check for the amount of $24.

Cited for being drunk and disorderly, Clarence A. Cariveau of Livonia was assessed a $35 fine or serve sentence of 15 days.

There being no questions or corrections, the minutes of the township board meeting of October 4, were approved as submitted.

Treasurer's report was read. No questions, approved as submitted. Office receipts, Water & Sewer Commission receipts for October 1966 and bills payable were reviewed.

Mr. Tellam moved, supported by Mr. Baldwin, that the bills be paid Motion carried unanimously.

Building Inspector's report for October 1966 was approved as submitted.

No questions, the Planning Commission minutes of October 11 & October 25, and Appeal Board minutes of October 10 and October 24, were approved.

Correspondence: 1. Letter from Donald P. Boor accepting his appointment to the Township Planning Commission, was read. Old Business:

1. Horse ordinance - report from Leonard Klein. Supervisor Merriam stated this matter would be held over until later in the meeting.

2. Amendment to Resolution #63-19 Land Fill

After due consideration, Mr. Baldwin moved the adoption of Resolution #66-28 as an amendment to Resolution #63-19 covering land fill operations. Mr. Lawrence seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

The question of the motion to Mr. Arthur Jahn for his one acre landfill, which had been granted, was brought under discussion.

Mr. Tellam moved that $50 should be the charge for the Permit and a $200 charge to cover the deposit for purposes as defined in the Township Land Fill Ordinance. Mr. Baldwin seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

3. Rezoning of N.W. Corner of Five Mile and Haggerty road from R-4 to B-1 as recommended by the Township Planning Commission.

A letter dated October 3, 1966, from the Wayne County Coordinating Zoning Committee acknowledging the proposed change of zoning and making no objections to same, was read.

Supervisor Merriam stated it was in order to make a motion approving the recommendation of the Planning Commission.

Mr. Lawrence moved that the recommendation of the Planning Commission as submitted in their minutes of September 27, 1966, for rezoning the N.W. Corner of Five Mile road and Haggerty road, as advertised and publicized, be rezoned from R-4 to B-1, be allowed by the Township Board. Mr. Tellam seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Old Business: 1. Horse Ordinance Mr. Leonard Klein not being able to attend the meeting, Mr. Geake was asked to be spokesman for the citizens attending the meeting.

He stated that there had been meeting of the committee appointed by Mr. Merriam at Mr. Klein's home and that they had drawn up a substitute ordinance which they would like the board to consider. They asked for the following change.

Under Section 4.2(1) One horse shall be allowed on one acre and an additional horse on an additional acre or major fraction thereof.

(3) The horses shall be confined in a suitably fenced area, or paddock, in such a manner that they may not approach any closer than 50 feet from any dwelling on an adjoining lot nor 10 feet from the lot lines, except that where by mutual agreement of the adjoining owners, this subsection shall not apply.

Mr. Ashton advised the board that this material should be returned to the planning Commission for their consideration before the township board take action.

Clerk Young moved, supported by Mr. Lawrence, that the Horse Ordinance along with the substitute ordinance be referred back to the Planning Commission for their consideration. Motion carried unanimously.

New Business:

2. Heating Code Ordinance Supervisor Merriam informed the board that the original Reciprocal Heating Code which the township had adopted was recommended to the township by the Heating Council as a Model Code but now they had come out with a National Code which he thought should be adopted by the township board to replace the Heating Code now in force.

After further discussion, Mr. Tellam moved to adopt Reciprocal Heating Code No. 23 as set forth in the copy attached to the Agenda at the regular meeting of the Northville Township Board of November 1, 1966. Mr. Lawrence seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

3. Supervisor Merriam brought under discussion a Rubbish Ordinance to cover dumping of garbage and cans on private properties, stating that the township were somewhat handicapped in prosecuting where people did not co-operate.

Discussion of how such an ordinance should be written followed.

Decision reached - Mr. Merriam would again contact Mr. Adelson of the Wayne County Board of Health and ask him to take action.

4. Supervisor Merriam advised the board that the Deputy sheriff had been in the township office twice asking that Northville township pass a Fire Arms Ordinance and referred the board to the Model Fire Arms Ordinance in the township's manual.

No further business, Mr. Tellam moved to adjourn.

Meeting adjourned at 10:05 p.m. Marguerite N. Young, Clerk These minutes have not been approved by the township board and are subject to correction.

Soo to Florida

I-75 Completion in Sight

Construction of I-75 from Sault Ste. Marie to St. Petersburg, Florida has reached the two-thirds mark, the State Highway Commission reported today.

As of June 30, the Commission reported, 980 miles of 1,496-mile superhighway was opened to traffic and an additional 256 miles was under construction.

The remaining 255 miles will be put under contract within two or three years.

I-75 starts at the center of the International Bridge at Sault Ste. Marie and extends through Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Georgia into Florida as far as St. Petersburg on the Gulf Coast.

Enroute, it passes through or near Detroit, Cincinnati, Ohio; Chattanooga, Tennessee; and Atlanta, Georgia.

Following is a state-by-state status of I-75 as of June 30;

MICHIGAN—Route total, 394 miles; open to traffic, 279 miles; under construction, 43 miles; to be built, 17 miles.

OHIO—Route total, 212 miles; open to traffic, 170 miles; under construction, 27 miles; to be built, 15 miles.

KENTUCKY—Route total, 183 miles; open to traffic, 108 miles; under construction, 39 miles; to be built 38 miles.

TENNESSEE—Route total, 141 miles; open to traffic, 26 miles; under construction, 41 miles; to be built, 74 miles.

GEORGIA—Route total, 351 miles; open to traffic, 233 miles; under construction, 58 miles; to be built, 60 miles.

FLORIDA—Route total, 213 miles; open to traffic, 164 miles; under construction, 48 miles.

WHY ARE BALD TIRES DANGEROUS?

Not, as many drivers think, because they have lost their casing strength, though this may be the case. It's because that with the tread worn most of their stopping power.

While this condition can be dangerous on dry Summer days, it can easily be fatal in Winter slush.

Tread on rubber tires was put there by the manufacturer because it will grip better on all surfaces than smooth rubber and it will dissipate dangerous heat.

In Winter, when smooth rubber hits watery slush, an aquaplaning action is set up that can cause the car to "slide" right off the road while turning or braking.

You are gambling with your life by putting off buying new tires when your old ones are becoming smooth. At very least, they should be retreaded, providing the casings are undamaged.

While we're on the subject of safety, the main benefit of premium tires is that they provide a safer ride because of their stronger construction rather than longer life.

If longer tire life was the only object, you would be farther ahead to buy two sets of standard tires.

Premium tires have stronger cord, better rubber, more effective tread and most are blow-out proof. These qualities may only be vital once in a lifetime, but once could be enough.

This year's new cars are all equipped with dual brakes. Remember, brakes only stop the wheels. Tires stop the car.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Here are the Rules

Take a plain piece of paper and number down the left hand side from 1 to 20.

You will notice that each square below is also numbered from 1 to 20 and each contains a football game to be staged this coming weekend. To complete your entry you must do the following:

- (1) after each number on your paper write the name of the sponsor of the corresponding square.
- (2) following the sponsor's name - write the name of the winning team.
- (3) in addition you must pick a score on the outcome of the game in square 20. This will be used in the case of a tie and then the contestant whose score is closest to the actual score will be declared the winner.

Be sure to write your name, address and phone number plainly on your piece of paper (your entry).

Let's Cut Campaigns

LANSING — Late fall elections in Michigan were held during the War and in 1964 when the new Constitution was being implemented. Some sources predict a permanent move to a later primary election in future years.

Why? Simply because a three-month campaign resulting from earlier voting is hard on candidates, both physically and financially, and the voters don't seem up to it any more.

Candidates easily reach many more people through newspapers, direct mail and other advertising methods than they do at club meetings, streetcorner hand-shaking stops or even official party functions.

Judging from turnouts at many campaign stops this year, voters want to make up their minds in the quiet comfort of their own homes rather than an outside political rally.

Even perennial campaigners like Secretary of State James M. Hare have been complaining for years of the absurd cost of running a campaign.

This year many candidates noted that smaller and smaller turnouts resulted at public appearance functions.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS on a candidate would considerably be relieved by reducing the campaign time.

Many candidates feel sure that the fewer number of campaign meetings in a given area would restore meaning to public appearances and thus increase the voter turnout.

Farmers complain about spring and summer weather this year, but the tourist-oriented businessmen could hardly be happier.

A summer's end survey by the Michigan Tourist Council indicates an average 15 per cent increase in tourist business over the previous year, the biggest year on record.

The report is based on figures compiled by some 75 Chambers of Commerce, key tourist attractions and traffic measuring points throughout the state.

State parks continued this summer to handle a heavy volume of tourist activity. Daily attendance at parks was up 22 per cent and camping increased by 34 per cent in the year.

Much of the boost in tourist activity seemed to result from travel northward, the survey indicated. The Mackinac Island Chamber of Commerce office, for example, reported a 50 per cent increase in business. Other U.P. and extreme northward attractions noted business well above the average.

SEVERAL SOURCES in the regional tourist associations reported their areas handled as much business as possible with present accommodations, indicating room for considerable expansion in the various facets of the industry.

Tourist Council Director William T. McGraw is still awaiting final dollar figures from some sources but says indications are that Michigan, fast becoming the Florida-of-the-North, will do well over a billion dollars in recreational travel spending for 1966.

Incidental perhaps to the tourist survey was a figure which gives rise to a new call for legislative action.

The Mackinac Bridge has been a major tourist attraction as well as a traffic measuring point since it was opened in 1957. In the past couple years serious attempts have been made to decrease the tolls on this span.

In the 1966 summer business report, the Tourist Council received word that traffic was up on the bridge by seven per cent over the previous year. This was well below the state average gain despite generally better-than-average boosts in the northern regions of the state.

PREVIOUS ATTEMPTS to get the Mackinac tolls lowered were not primarily based on helping increase tourism, but rather on giving commuting residents of the two sections of the state a break on travel cost.

Passenger cars pay $3.75 per one-way trip across the bridge.

Complications enter the reduction picture because of the bonds sold to finance construction of the $10 million span, but proponents of the lower tolls indicated refinancing could be arranged.

When you love your work, it shows.

Pontiac Motor Division

And we love our work. So much that we couldn't bear to stop with the slickest-looking split grille ever to grace a Wide-Track. (Or any other car, for that matter.)

We went ahead and made the windshield wipers disappear. The car not only looks cleaner, but the wipers are less subject to icing and freezing, too.

Then we got rid of the vent windows on all Grand Prix hard-tops. We replaced them with nifty monograms and a flow-through ventilation system.

We even designed a rather unique hood-mounted tachometer option that's available on all Pontiacs. As are our other new options like stereo tape and stereo radio.

And, of course, our handsome interiors have to be seen to be believed.

All Pontiacs have standard safety features that include a dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, outside rear-view mirror, and GM's energy absorbing steering column.

Isn't it time you decided to see your Pontiac dealer? If you love our work the way we do, it's the least you can do.

Today's Man Must Be Alert to Change

BABSON PARK, Mass. — There was once a day when only specialists paid much attention to national economic trends. That was a time when life was more casual, more "local." There was no jet-plane transportation, no swift-as-light communication. But now the pace of change has quickened and deepened in business, finance, social developments, international relations, and family life. If a man is to make the best of his abilities, his assets, and his domestic situation, he must be pretty much of an "economist" himself.

Today an individual (and, of course, his family) is more of a cog in the wheel of our total society than ever before. For top success a man must be truly flexible, quick to sense new tendencies and get ready for their emergence. No matter what field a worker is in, he ought to keep an acute eye on the probable prospects for his occupation. Automation and other dynamic innovations cause the phasing out or the narrowing of many jobs.

A MAN CAUGHT in the upswing of technology should recognize the dwindling opportunity in his job. New areas are opening up constantly, and a study of basic economic trends will reveal where the best positions will be and where wages and salaries will be highest. It is up to an ambitious family head to decide whether he should shoot for further experience and training in his present field, or move immediately into a more promising pursuit. The one who makes up his mind intelligently and takes the appropriate steps toward betterment is most likely to end up on the top of the heap.

Once a young husband or father has established a home, assumed a fair degree of insurance protection, and has a reasonable nest egg in the bank, he should think about building his estate. Part of a well-balanced holding would usually consist of carefully selected stocks, bonds and eventually some real estate. Here again each man will find that he must become more or less an "economist" himself in order to proceed safely and wisely.

He will want to know what businesses and industries will benefit most from the direction our economy and our society are taking. A higher standard of living and a more sophisticated attitude on the part of consumers will alter the needs and preferences of the general public. Automation is turning into an ever-greater business, while computers are steadily changing the landscape of our service and industrial fields. The foresighted man will determine the liveliest fields, — for investment, for job chances for himself, and for giving direction to his children's education.

A FATHER must play the part of the economist in planning for the education of his children. In our ever-expanding economy, costs of schooling will be going up like other living expenditures. What might appear to be an adequate education fund right now may prove pitifully inadequate in a few years. Hence, economic trends must be projected so that a family education fund will be sufficient when needed, even though it may mean some temporary "austerity" on the home front.

Every man should think about plans for retirement while he is still young, not wait until he is pushing senior citizenship. Chances are strong that retirement living at the level of his choice will be substantially more costly in the years ahead than it is now. True, there have been dramatic gains in provisions for retirement payments, medical care, and other personal benefits. But the fact remains that a man must be versed in economics if he is going to aim for the highest possible standard of living for his wife and himself in retirement. He must know where the economy is heading and how rapidly, where he is heading and how efficiently. He must learn as he goes along and take advantage of every opportunity to better his leverage and increase the estate on which he can finally retire — and probably eventually leave to his family. He must be his own "economist."

OIL HEAT OR GAS?

6 questions to ask yourself before you spend hundreds of dollars.

1 Which is more modern—oil heat or gas?

The answer may surprise you. Oil and gas are equally modern. Their equipment looks alike and performs alike. Their efficiency is rated equal by the Public Housing Administration. There's only one difference. You save the cost of converting to gas. Modernize with AMOCO* Sta-Warm oil equipment. It matches any made—gas or electric. And you don't have to pay for a "gas line".

2 Which costs more—oil heat or gas?

Gas does, if you now have oil heat equipment. Consider these costs. You can pay hundreds of dollars to have a new gas heating system installed. Your pilot light can cost about $10 a year. You can be penalized for late payment of monthly gas bills. You have none of these with oil. Before you spend needlessly—compare.

3 Which offers better service—oil heat or gas?

Standard Oil Hot Line Heating Service offers an insured budget plan to spread your payments. Sta-Ful automatic Delivery of oil. Exclusive Sta-Clean Additive to protect your equipment. Service so fast we can be on the way 60 seconds after you call. Modernization now, on easy terms, for less than gas conversion costs.

Don't buy the "Gas Line" until you call Hot Line.

IN NOVI DIAL
349-1961

You expect more from Standard and you get it!

4 Which heats water faster—oil or gas?

Oil heaters do. 3 times faster. Our 30-gallon AMOCO Sta-Warm Water Heater has 3 times the recovery capacity of gas-fired heaters. And costs less to operate. You can run your faucet for 25 years, and never run out of hot water.† Heats water as fast as it will flow.††

†Above estimate is based on a faucet rated not more than 1½ gallons per minute.

††Our water heater will recover 90 GPH . . . 100 degree rise.

5 Which is cleaner—oil heat or gas?

Heard the old wives' tale that oil heat is dirtier than gas? It's totally untrue. Both are equally clean. Chemical analysis shows it's cooking fats, tobacco smoke and airborne dust that cause dirt—not heating.

6 Is it worth the expense to convert to gas?

Put it this way. Why spend heavily for gas if you can't get any more than you get from oil right now? Aren't there other things you'd rather do with the money? Remember—there is no type of heat more modern than oil heat, with new Standard Oil Hot Line Service. It's the service that has revolutionized oil heating. So get the facts first. You risk nothing. You may save a lot.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Sometimes city council work sessions can be pretty productive.

Take Monday night, for example.

With an audience of three—reporter, police chief and track owner—the council decided to get serious about a project that would trigger the following:

--a $1,100,000 clubhouse facility at Northville Downs;

--some $30,000 in additional revenues annually for the city;

--a new house for a council member.

It all came about when John Carlo, executive manager at Northville Downs, asked the council if it would listen to a plan he had in mind.

Unlike some elected bodies, the council has maintained a policy of keeping its work sessions open. Frequently, there are matters discussed at such sessions that are not immediately reported for various reasons, and the council has taken the position that it trusts the judgment of the press to make this determination.

The above paragraph has more point than just to needle. Partly, it's to point out that elected bodies spend many hours in consideration of numerous issues before they come up at the council table. And partly it's to reveal a proposal before it becomes official because in this instance the impact has community-wide significance.

It's been a matter of public record for sometime that the Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the extension of Wing street through to Hines drive.

Carlo told the council Monday night that he had been driving influence in this request and he told them why.

He'd like to start building an enclosed, luxury clubhouse at the first turn on the northwestern corner of the track near Center street. He foresees traffic problems on Center street as cars line up to enter the clubhouse unless there is an alternate route.

Carlo proposes cutting Wing street right through Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson's house in a southeasterly direction to Hines drive near the Center street intersection.

North-south traffic could then flow around the track at busy evening hours.

The track operator said the clubhouse would increase the nightly handle at the track by some 15 to 25 per cent, or a minimum of $500 nightly in tax rebates to the city, which amounts to about $30,000 yearly.

He also mentioned the beautification of the track by the addition and tossed in the possibility that the food-serving portion of the clubhouse might be operated on a year-around basis giving the community a fine dining establishment with spacious, built-in parking.

What would it cost the city?

An estimated $44,000 to construct the road and a yet undetermined amount to acquire a small portion of Wayne county park land.

Carlo pledged presently-owned track property for the right-of-way. He also said the track would be willing to purchase all the remaining property along the south side of Fairbrook from Wing to Center street. This area would become track parking.

And, he told Councilwoman Carlson, "we'll build you a new house!"

The council liked the idea—for more reasons than just financial. The new route fits in with the general master plan and it could be accomplished at minimal expense.

First step is for Mayor A.M. Allen, Councilman John Canterbury and the city manager to huddle with county officials on the land purchase. Engineering studies will follow.

And then, if there are no hitches, private enterprise will take over and work will begin in 1967 on a project scheduled for completion in 1968.

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

Apparently unaware that this writer several years ago gave his readers a scientific explanation of how best to tackle the Thanksgiving dinner, an encyclopedia company sends us a three-page release on carving the turkey.

That the encyclopedia is the proper place for such a dissertation is conceded.

But the encyclopedia's kitchen editor asks, "Will that succulent Thanksgiving turkey be carved into beautiful, mouth-watering slices, or will the man of the house hack it into a mangled wreck?"

How dare she suggest that the man of the house might wreck 'ol Tom! She's probably the gal who backed into my neighbor's car and then left a note explaining that if her husband hadn't taught her to drive it wouldn't have happened.

It is the woman not the man who needs carving instruction. Why else would the woman, who purportedly is king of her culinary castle, reserve the turkey carving for the husband? Could it be because the can opener has yet to be invented that will carve drumsticks?

I put the question to the king in our castle. Her reply: "Why, because it is the man's duty to do the carving. It is the proper thing to do. It is an act of graciousness."

Tactful but evasive. The kitchen editor continues: "Carving the turkey is an annual trauma...."

Come, now, Miss Editor. The only traumatic experiences in most households are triggered by thoughtless wives who demand that their husbands turn off the Thanksgiving football game and take them for a ride in the country.

*****

Since the kitchen expert sent her release to the woman's editor, I am extremely fortunate in having intercepted it before it could appear carte blanche. Now as she gives her instructions I'm able to make the necessary corrections.

"First, remove the leg by turning the turkey on its side with its breastbone away from you. Hold the end of the drumstick and pull it forward as the knife cuts through the joint."

Obviously, a blundering first move.

In Support of UN

To the Editor:

I have toured the United Nations in New York City as well as many of its training centers and projects including UNICEF in Mexico and Central American Countries. My observation of starving, deprived children receiving some of the basic needs of life, substantiates all of the positive information I have read about the United Nations and its many branches extending the helping hand of love and understanding. I kept thinking of the Scriptural words of Jesus, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me (Mat. 25:40b).

One of the most important rules followed is to help countries to help themselves by establishing permanent self-sustaining programs. It is interesting to note that only 3 of the 100 countries helped have Communist governments (and they received 3% of the total), the 10 countries with Communist governments made contributions.

UNITED NATIONS COMMUNIST CONTROLLED? No major Russian proposal in the UN has ever been able to overcome the opposition of the U.S. and the free world. Russia can rarely count on more than 5 supporting votes out of the 60 in the General Assembly of the UN.

The United Nations is one of the strongest organizations working toward "Peace on earth goodwill toward men". Again I quote — "Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God" Mat. 5:9.

The UN has resolved at least 87 major conflicts between countries that might have developed into world war, saving thousands of lives of our sons in battle as well as innocent persons throughout the world.

Roger Wm. Merrell, pastor
South Lyon Methodist church

To the Editor:

Regarding the statement that the United Nations is "controlled by the Communists", it seems to me that someone else, though sincere, hasn't "been told the truth!"

Sincerely,
N. A. Riedesel

To the Editor:

Mr. Heslip's analysis of UNICEF and the United Nations was incomplete.

While it is true that the ruling-class bureaucrats of so-called "communist (socialist)" Russia have a veto in the Security Council and use the General Assembly as a forum, so too do the ruling-class capitalists of our own United States. Both of these contemporary economic despotisms are ruthless in the exploitation of their workers — physical and mental or both — and their quest for control of shrinking world markets and raw materials, viz — Vietnam!

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

The title is innocuous enough — "Alfie."

It sounds like the latest movie from the fairy tale mills of Walt Disney. But the name loses its innocent overtones once Michael Caine, the rising British star, makes the scene at the Trans-Lux Krim in Detroit.

As Alfie, Caine shocks the sensibilities. Even the blasé sophisticate will look on with astonishment as Alfie, the miscreant, satisfies his ego by exploiting women.

Alfie has storied predecessors: Don Juan, Tom Jones and Lord Byron. But none can compare to Alfie, the modern anti-hero, a chip lost on an existential sea with no past and a tenuous future.

He lives for the present, extracting the life juice from every ripe moment. Selfishly, he lives for himself in an unconscious effort to claim his individuality from the anonymity of the ages.

We see six women in his life. Five willingly succumb to his wiles, for different reasons. There's Siddie, the fun-loving other man's wife; Gilda, the child of romance; Annie, the child of misfortune; Carla, the whimsical nurse, and Lily, the confused mother of three.

One by one, Alfie disposes of them, apparently without remorse. Almost inexplicably, however, a more tender side, a drop of compassion is miraculously distilled. Alfie, we say, may be human.

But reality does not admit fancy. Despite the fact that Alfie briefly indulges his illegitimate son and weeps for the death of his aborted child, there is no fantastic change of character. His tender moments are merely blips on the oscilloscope, momentary and fleeting.

Girls always have been and always will be "birds" to Alfie. Alfie is Alfie. For romantics, there is a sliver of hope. It comes in the final scene when Alfie candidly asks, "What's it all about?"

For the first time, he recognizes that something is wrong, that he does not understand what life's all about. To assume, however, that Alfie's realization will lead to change does not meet with the facts.

Nor does his bland acceptance of life constitute innocence. In truth, he is a child, and like a child, he unwittingly visits untold cruelties on others. But, in fact, he cannot be judged as a child. He is a man who must bear the responsibilities of his acts.

In the beginning, humor issues from this ignorance. Alfie is like the legendary rogues who are caught in a web of incongruous circumstances. He speaks directly to the audience, expressing his wry view. The audience laughs.

But things change. What at first seemed humorous slowly pales and Alfie's antics take on a pernicious twist. His tom-foolery results in the cruelest act of all — an abortion.

There is no redeeming grace in his final admission of ignorance. Like the executioners at Auschwitz, he has left a trail of broken lives behind him, all in the name of pleasure.

Only one woman escapes Alfie's snare. She's Ruby, played by Shelley Long. It's a part that Miss Storyline plays with aplomb — the unctuous woman of the world, Alfie's female counterpart, earthy and voluptuous.

Perhaps the most vivid bit part is played by Vivien Merchant. As Lily, the fallen mother, Miss Merchant rends the heart with her poignant appeal for compassion.

But it is Alfie who will be remembered. He is the focal point in this movie, which is a series of episodes, rather than a plot with a strong story line.

Helious as Alfie is, the role will propel Caine into movie prominence, and rightly so. He puts a roguish eye and ruddy complexion to good theatrical use. His cockney is impeccable, his mannerisms true to character.

There are undoubtedly Alfies in this world. One can't help wondering why they live.
