Bus Service Refused Moraine

Too Muddy, Say Drivers

Two Northville school bus drivers refused to deliver children to Moraine elementary school Tuesday morning because of what they called "unsafe" conditions caused by the school's muddy parking lot.

Their action, Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear said, "was unauthorized". He said the two drivers, Mrs. Charles Kehrer and Helen Hay, had called parents Monday night—without authorization—to inform them that they would not pick up their children Tuesday morning.

These children, he said, were not picked up.

However, other buses arrived at Moraine, he explained, and were unloaded in the entrance to Northville Estates subdivision. With the help of the city police and sheriff's deputies, Spear and Superintendent Alex Nelson "walked" the children across Eight Mile road to the school property.

Approximately 45 children were absent from school Tuesday morning, primarily because the two buses did not pick up children, school officials reported. Half of one kindergarten class was absent.

Because many parents took their children to school, explained Spear, the traffic situation was further complicated.

A meeting of school bus drivers and the administration was scheduled to take place Tuesday afternoon, Spear said, in an effort to work out a satisfactory solution. He said temporary plans call for a bus to enter the Moraine parking lot, unload and leave before another enters. Hopefully, he said, this plan will work until after "the ground has had a chance to soak up melting snow and ice."

Spear said he appreciated the bus drivers' concern for the safety of children—particularly since some of the buses unloaded Monday while parked on Eight Mile road—but he emphasized that the refusal to pick up children without authorization from the administration constituted a violation of contract.

He declined to comment on whether or not any disciplinary action will be taken against the drivers.

Questioned Monday night by the board of education, an architectural representative said the situation at Moraine would not improve appreciably until after the thaw. However, he was to investigate the possibility of channeling water from the parking lot and the drive turn-around.

Construction of a pedestrian overpass on Eight Mile road, between Moraine elementary school and Northville Estates subdivision, is expected to get underway soon with completion slated within 90 days.

The Northville board of education gave the green light to the overpass Monday night by awarding the contract for its construction to Hill & Thomas at a low bid of $15,700.

Bids were opened two weeks ago from three firms, ranging from the low to a high of $19,500.

In a related Moraine safety matter, Superintendent Alex Nelson reported that flashing caution signs have been ordered "on top priority basis", following approval by the city council for assuming one-quarter of the cost of the $1,500 outlay for the signs.

The overpass, which will include a screened enclosure of the overhead walkway as well as the stairways, will be erected just east of the entrance of the subdivision at the crest of the Eight Mile road hill.

In response to a question from

Mrs. Marian Szezepanski, the board emphasized that the responsibility of ensuring that children use the overpass and do not cross the road elsewhere remains with the parents.

She questioned the necessity of an overpass if adult supervision becomes necessary to ensure use of the overpass.

Concerning a question why a traffic signal is not erected, Nelson re-explained a previous finding that neither the state nor the county would permit a traffic signal at Moraine.

Finally, Fred Schwarze, on behalf of the residents of the subdivision, thanked the board for voting to erect the overpass and taking steps to install the flashing caution signals.

In another money matter, the board opened bids on library equipment for the new high school addition. The three bidders and their bids were:

Industrial Furniture Manufacturing company, $27,094; Remington Rand, $30,526; and Howard and Smith, Inc., $14,300 with additional volunteered items costing a total of $12,400 (the latter was not part of Howard and Smith's base bid).

The bids were turned over to the architect and the administration for review and recommendation.

The board also approved sharing the cost of paving for that part of the proposed re-routed Bradner road (near Six Mile in the township) abutting on school-owned property. The school district's share of the road improvement, based upon estimates of $16 to $18 per front footage, was put at a maximum of $4,100.

According to a representative of Thompson-Brown company, which has plans underway for a giant residential complex in the vicinity, the Wayne county road commission plans to pave all of Bradner, from Six Mile to Five Mile roads, with adjacent property owners sharing the cost.

It was noted that the school's share of the cost could be paid for from either the existing building and site fund or from any future new school bond issue concerning a school in the area.

North-South Routes Reviewed by Council

A "work session" turned into a lengthy special meeting Monday night for the city council.

Originally, the council had called a brief special meeting Monday to approve a resolution recognizing the formation of the Association of Northville Policemen. Action had been delayed until the city attorney could review the proposed resolution.

The motion required but a few minutes. But several other matters arose carrying the session until past midnight. They included:

--a change in membership on the board of review (see story on this page);

--discussion of the proposed north-south route;

--completion and final payment of the recently paved Randolph street.

The council reviewed a report from the Northville Citizens' Advisory Committee concerning a north-south route. Four routes were proposed, but two were rejected by the study group. Purpose of the new route is to provide an alternate to Center street for north-south traffic.

The two remaining routes, labelled "blue" and "red", would take traffic from Novi road to South Main street (Northville road).

The blue route follows a course just west of the C & O railroad and is described as the most direct. It connects to South Main near the old spring site. It is the same route proposed several years ago to the county by the Northville planning commission. It was declined by the county and described as too costly at an estimated $1,200,000.

Current estimates set the cost at $1,740,000.

The red route follows the same route from Novi road as the blue, but uses Griswold street as its southern connection to Main street. Its estimated cost is $960,000.

The committee report recommended the more expensive blue route because of its directness. Principle objection to the red route was the possible traffic problem that might arise at the Main street intersection.

The council discussed the two routes but tabled the matter for further study.

Frank Rooney, representing the Maccomb Concrete Corporation appeared before the council seeking payment for the paving of Randolph. The city has withheld $12,600 pending satisfactory completion of the job.

Rooney admitted that the surface required smoothing to remove unevenness but stated that this could be done by a grinding process. He said the company would complete this in the spring.

It was suggested that partial payment be made retaining enough to cover cost of blacktopping over the concrete if grinding is not successful. The council declined, however, taking the position that the road must be acceptable before further payment is made.

City's Salt Cost Zooms

Hog wash! The Farmers' Almanac failed to produce the big blizzard predicted for Monday.

But no one, except maybe the die-hard ski buff and the operator of the Detroit salt mines, is complaining—certainly not area municipal leaders who were overheard this week discussing something about the Vernal Equinox and quoting Shelley, "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?"

Come Tuesday and the official start of spring, one of the longest whitest winters on record hopefully will come to a screeching halt.

Believe it or not, more snow fell two years ago than this—about 50 inches, and oldtimers (the boss will like this) are still talking about the Big Snow of '26 when 78 inches of the white stuff fell.

Those kind of figures dwarf this year's tally.

But it was way back in early November when this area was treated to its first snowfall and it was just two weeks ago when another blanket smothered the community. In between, an estimated 45 inches of snow fell and lingered on and on and on.

Last year just 18 inches fell all winter.

For municipal leaders there's a more accurate way to gauge winter's severity than in inches. They figure it out in dollars and cents or tons.

Take Northville for instance. City Manager Frank Ollendorf estimates the city has spent about $15,000 for snow removal this winter—nearly double the $8,100 outlay for the big snow two years ago.

That $15,000 adds up to nearly 300 tons of salt, give or take a few tons, dumped on city streets, plus a good many hours of time and a half for DPW crews, says Ollendorf, because "four big snows this year came at night." Of this money $3,536 was spent on salt alone.

Last year Northville used only about 50 tons of salt, and two years ago about

Annual Meeting Slated April 1 in Township

There are busy days ahead for the Northville township board.

Meetings are scheduled for March 21, April 1 and April 4. The March 21 session is labelled "settlement day". It is the meeting at which the board annually accepts the auditor's report and reviews the proposed budget for the coming year.

This meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the township hall.

On Saturday, April 1 at 1 p.m. the annual meeting will be held at the community building. At this session the taxpayers of the township hear year-end reports by their elected officials and consider adoption of the proposed budget.

Tuesday, April 4 is the regular monthly meeting night for the board. It will mark the final meeting for Clerk Marguerite Young. Her term ends officially April 10.

Joining the expanded board (from 5 to 7 members) will be Trustees Thomas Armstrong and Gunnar Stromberg. They'll sit on the board with Supervisor R. D. Merriam, Clerk Ellie Hammond, Treasurer Alex Lawrence and Trustees Bernard Baldwin and James Tellam. First meeting for Clerk Hammond and Trustees Armstrong and Stromberg will be May 2.

Police Prepare to Bargain

After officially receiving recognition as the sole bargaining agent for Northville patrolmen, members of the newly organized Northville Police Officers' association will hold a meeting tonight

Cutler Leaves Review Board

The city council made a quick switch on its board of review Tuesday. The action was taken to avoid a possible charter conflict.

Named at a special meeting Tuesday morning to replace James Cutler on the board of review was Kenneth Rathert, a Northville insurance agent. Rathert was appointed just in time for board of review hearings which began at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

The change came about when it was pointed out to the council Monday night that Cutler had been retained as a consultant to assist the city in assessing properties.

The city's charter states that employees of the city cannot serve on the board of review. City Manager Frank Ollendorf maintained that Cutler was not an employee, but had been retained only as a consultant.

Cutler had offered his resignation to avoid any conflict.

Councilmembers finally decided that it would be in the city's best interests to replace Cutler. Rathert was nominated for the post and accepted. He was appointed at a special meeting at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Other members of the board of review are Russell Amerman and Richard Lyon.

to appoint spokesmen to carry their requests to the bargaining table.

A letter of request for recognition was discussed at last week's meeting of the city council. A resolution of acceptance was adopted Monday night.

Six patrolmen are presently members of the association, including President Roger Beukema, Secretary-Treasurer Philip Young, Howard Reeves, Lawrence Towne and Ron Wankowitz. It is these men who will appoint two spokesmen tonight.

A state law empowers the officers to organize. Because of uncertainty about that part of the law applying to ranking officers, Sergeants David LaFond and Louis Westfall declined to join the association, it was reported.

Hopefully, Young said, bargaining will begin immediately. "Undoubtedly, we'll ask for a salary review," Young stated. "The city has been pretty good about this whole matter."

"We would like to have a voice in what we do and what we get," Young stated. "We'd like to have channels to air our grievances," he stated, adding that there were no great problems at the present time.

Attorneys Cliff Hill and Herman Mohlman have offered their services as legal counsel in negotiations, Young stated.

REVIEW DAY—94 petitions to review assessments were heard in afternoon and evening sessions by the city's board of review at its first hearing Tuesday. After explanation of the assessments about 30 of the protests were withdrawn. The others will be considered by the three-member board and notice of decision sent to petitioners prior to the March 28 hearing. That's the last day that taxpayers have to protest the 1967-68 assessments, unless more petitions are filed than can be reviewed. The March 28 hearings will be held from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at city hall.

New Teacher Need Outlined

Faced with an administrative request for 21 1/2 additional teachers for the 1967-68 school year, the Northville board of education climbed out on a financial limb Monday to rescue part of the personnel package.

The board authorized Assistant Superintendent Raymond E. Spear to begin search for 12 additional teachers—at a cost not to exceed $70,000.

Spear had recommended a total teaching station increase of 21 1/2, at an estimated additional cost of $130,000, but a possible cash shortage prompted the board to limit authorization at this time to a dozen new teachers.

Even so, the limited authorization was questioned by the board's newest member, Richard Martin, who was sworn in Monday as a replacement for Donald Lawrence. Martin, who voted against the measure, pointed out that he was not sufficiently apprised of the district's capability of paying for the additional teachers to cast a favorable vote.

Other board members voted for the measure based upon estimates by Superintendent Alex Nelson that additional tax dollars resulting from increasing assessments and development. Additional income from this source was put at $70,000—the amount authorized for the additional 12 teachers.

Because the board chose to authorize 12 teachers rather than pick teaching positions as outlined by Spear, the assistant superintendent said he would review these positions with the superintendent before deciding where the additional teachers are to be placed.

Actually, the board of education must still vote on the hiring of any teacher that Spear may recommend. He noted that the board may later decide that it may not wish to hire one or all of the 12 teachers.

Spear's recommendation as presented to the board had called for one elementary remedial reading teacher, five elementary classroom teachers, four and one-half junior high school teachers, five senior high school classroom teachers, one elementary resource person, two elementary fine arts teachers, one elementary physical education coordinator, one elementary foreign language teacher, and one instrumental music teacher.

"It is my opinion," said Spear, "that we need all of these positions in order to provide a well-rounded educational program; K-12. The elimination of one or more of these positions from our staff for the 1967-68 school year will represent a cut in services for the students of our school district."

Some of the additional teachers, Spear said, will be needed to handle additional student enrollment which he said probably will exceed 2,823 students next fall, an increase of 117 over the present enrollment. The projected increase, he explained, is based upon a five-percent increase formula—which by experience has fallen short of the actual enrollment.

He said these projections take into account loss of Novi tuition students.

Several of the additional teachers had been authorized last year, but because of financial limitations they were not filled, Spear said. He noted that the proposed remedial reading teacher, which he listed as top priority, would mean the school could aid at least 50 additional children who had to be discharged from the program.

Furthermore, he indicated the additional teachers would create a better teacher-pupil ratio—nearer the desired 25 to one ratio—at all levels.

Cuts in his recommendation, he said, would mean "establishing phases of our instructional program which we feel can no longer be carried out to the fullest possible extent...."

Deibert Wins State Contest

Northville's Glenn Deibert won a $500 scholarship and the state championship Monday by defeating four other finalists in the American Legion oratorical contest held at Ann Arbor high school.

A high school senior, Deibert thus became the first student from Northville to win the coveted title. Sponsoring him was the Lloyd H. Green American Legion post of Northville.

He will compete April 3 against other state finalists for the regional crown and a $2,000 scholarship. If he wins, he will be the first Michigan student to accomplish that feat.

The semi-finals will be held April 10 and the national championship on April 15. First prize in the national competition is a $4,500 scholarship.

To win the state title, Deibert delivered an oration on the constitution, then spoke extemporaneously for three to five minutes on the subject: That a supreme court should be established and such other courts that are deemed necessary.

Sample-Werenski Exchange Vows Here

Sally Helen Sample of Northville and Robert Paul Werenski of Dearborn Heights were united in marriage in a 4 p.m. ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church of Northville Saturday, March 4. The Reverend Lloyd

G. Brasure, pastor, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony Sample II of 20803 Chigwidden Drive, and bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony W. Werenski of Detroit.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of ivory silk satin fashioned with Empire lines. Hand-corded Alencon lace bordered the portrait neckline, sleeves, and French scalloped hemline of the controlled A-line skirt. The bridal veil featured matching Alencon lace bordering a floor-length mantilla.

Mrs. James Anthony Sample III of Livonia, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert W. Sample of Detroit, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Philip Garcia of Melvindale, Mrs. Thomas W. Hassett of Detroit and Mrs. David S. Owen of 21805 Connemara Drive, all friends of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore floor-length dresses of gold crepe and Cluny type lace, styled with controlled skirts and Watteau panels. A matching band of satin created an Empire effect.

Serving as best man was Stanley A. Berry of Oak Park, friend of the bridegroom. Ushers included James Anthony Sample III of Livonia, the bride's brother, Robert W. Sample of Detroit, also a brother of the bride, Robert Ryan of Dearborn and Charles Feltner of Detroit, both friends of the bridegroom.

Soloist for the wedding ceremony was Joseph H. Walbridge of Mason, the bride's uncle and brother of the bride's mother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sample selected a fern-green raw silk dress accented by hand-beaded neckline. Her pill-box hat was fashioned with matching fabric.

Mrs. Werenski chose an Azure blue dress of raw silk with jacket accented by a Dior bow. Her hat was a tiny pill-box of matching fabric.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds left on a two-week trip to Florida. Upon returning, they will reside in Dearborn Heights.

The bride is a junior member of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the bridegroom is employed as an engineer with the Ford Motor company in Dearborn.

Mrs. Robert Paul Werenski

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

SPRING --- for our gardeners is forsythia and pussy willow blooming indoors -- for our clubwomen it's annual meetings and state conventions -- for the children it's squishy mud -- and for everyone it's a mere five days distant!

Members of Mizpah circle, King's Daughters, have set Thursday, May 4, as the date for their annual benefit luncheon and bazaar which will be given from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Northville Methodist church.

Emphasis at the spring event will be on hand made items with a new gift boutique planned under the direction of Mrs. Merritt Meaker. Mrs. K. H. Babitt will head the apron counter, and Mrs. Roy Matheson, the bake shop. Mrs. Douglas Bolton and her committee promise a new luncheon menu. Mrs. Paul Beard is in charge of dining room and table arrangements.

Tickets now are available from any Mizpah member or from Mrs. Harold Bloom. The chapter uses benefit proceeds to assist the King's Daughters home in Detroit and also makes donations to the children's unit of the University hospital (the new Mott Center) in Ann Arbor. Traditionally, its welfare fund helps necessity cases in town and provides Christmas baskets locally.

Under the leadership of Mrs. A. J. Buckley, Mizpah chapter has about 100 members who meet the first Tuesday of each month.

SARAH ANN COCHRANE chapter, DAR, is scheduled to be represented by seven members at the 68th state conference being held Tuesday through Thursday of this week in Kalamazoo. Planning to attend from Plymouth and Northville were Mrs. Claude Crusoe; Mrs. Harry Gettgey, regent; Mrs. Walter Gemperline, state conservation chairman; Mrs. Walter Hammond, registrar; Mrs. Felix Hoheisel, state American history month chairman; Miss Ruth Knapp; and Mrs. George Mervin, senior state chairman, Children of the American Revolution.

Speakers highlighting the convention include Robert Gerholz of Flint, chairman of the board and past president of the U.S. Chamber of commerce; Mrs. Zolo Woodford Schroeder, Detroit attorney and chairman of International affairs, National Federation of Women's Clubs; and Charles Smith, associate professor of English, Western Michigan university. A Livonia Bentley high senior, Karen Nadvornik, is a page at the conference.

Convention reports will be brought to the regular meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter, which will begin with a luncheon at noon next Monday, March 20, at the home of Mrs. Theodore Benson, 38620 Morningstar drive, Livonia. Hostesses are Mrs. Maxwell Austin, Mrs. Arlie Fairman, Miss Elizabeth Eltz and Mrs. Fred Van Atta. Members are asked to bring articles for a "blind auction" (white elephant sale). Proceeds will be used to help stage the children's antique show slated for April.

IRONSTONE and its markings will be examined by members of the Base Line chapter of Quakers when they meet at 1 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Orin Hove, 18395 Pinebrook.

Mrs. Hove will present a paper on ironstone and invites members to bring any pieces they wish to identify. Original ironstone, she comments, had varied patterns and is different from today's plain variety. Ironstone, she adds, can be dated quite precisely by its markings -- if it's marked "England", it probably was made in the 1890s, but if it's marked "made in England," it's 20th century.

NORTHVILLE WOMAN'S club will conclude its 74th year this Friday at the annual meeting and tureen luncheon to be held at 12:30 p.m. at Northville Presbyterian church. As is traditional, new members will entertain with a comedy skit under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Nelson.

Life members will be honored, officers elected and annual reports will be given.

NORTHVILLE VACATIONERS go both north and south. When Mr. and Mrs. Myron Sarnes flew to Miami three weeks ago, they found by happy coincidence their Woodhill road next-door neighbors, the Harold Fraziers, were leaving the same time and arranged to be on the same flight.

Mike and Ruth Sarnes headquartered at Marco Island, 30 miles south of Naples, while the Fraziers cruised on the S. S. Regina, returning Monday.

Golf enthusiast Mike Sarnes found a bonus attraction at Marco in the first Tony Lama memorial tournament being played there with such celebrities as Perry Como, Jimmy Mantle, Don McNeil (of Breakfast Club fame), and Richard Nixon. Since they were staying at the same hotel, the Sarnes' had the fun of encountering Nixon on the beach and chatting with McNeil and his wife. Como and his partner's won the charitable event, Mrs. Sarnes relates, with proceeds to benefit Hanna boys' center in California, a favorite charity of Lema's (he had been club pro at Marco).

The George Zerbels and the John Begles relaxed last week end at Otsego ski club. They were able to ski until the sun turned snow to ice and water -- then they adjourned to suntan on the sun deck.

Calendar

- March 16 (today) -- Town Hall, Pegge Parker, 11 a.m. P and A Theater.
- March 17 -- Northville Woman's Club, tureen luncheon, 12:30 p.m. Presbyterian church.
- March 18 -- "Legend of Sleepy Hollow", Northville Players Guild PTA play, 10 a.m., 2 p.m., high school auditorium.
- March 20 -- Questers -- see above.
- March 20 -- Sarah Ann Cochrane, DAR, -- see above.
- March 21 -- Northville Historical Society, 8 p.m., Amerman Multipurpose room.
- March 21 -- Northville Newcomers coffee, Mrs. Victor Lind, 18127 Shadbrook, 10 a.m.
- March 24-31 -- Easter vacation in schools.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Nester of Plymouth became the proud parents of a 6-pound, 11-ounce baby boy on March 6 at St. Mary hospital. The baby was named Douglas Patrick.

Mrs. Nester is the former Carolyn VanAtta of Northville.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Van Atta of Northville and the paternal grandmother is Mrs. Hilda Nester of Plymouth.

Novi to Cheer 'Pageant' Girl

Novi will have a special reason for cheering Michigan's entry in the national Junior Miss Pageant at Mobile, Alabama when the television cameras play on the contestants Saturday night.

Representing Michigan will be Kathie Fliss, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fliss of Southfield who for several years were residents of Novi's Willowbrook subdivision.

Kathie, who attended Novi schools and St. Joseph Academy in Adrian, earned the role of being the state's representative in the national pageant by successfully winning out over three dozen other Michigan contestants, including Northville's Lynn Tiilikka, at Pontiac earlier this year.

Sponsored locally and nationally by the Jaycees, the pageant will mean about $10,000 in scholarships for Kathie if she wins at Mobile.

The national pageant will be televised at 8 p.m. over Channel 4 Saturday.

Engaged

Mary R. Miller

The engagement of Mary R. Miller to Andrew Rubas was announced this week by the bride-to-be's parents, Mrs. Katherine Davis of 43100 Eleven Mile road and William A. Miller, 439 Chester Court, South Lyon.

Miss Miller is employed by the Wixom Ford Motor company credit union. Mr. Rubas, who lives at 23906 Lloyd court in Dearborn, is employed by the city of Dearborn.

No wedding date has been set.

History Group To Show 2 Films

Restoration of two famous landmarks will highlight films to be presented next Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Northville Historical Society. The meeting will take place in the multi-purpose room of Amerman school beginning at 8 p.m.

One of the features, entitled "Williamsburg Restored," is a 35-minute color film. It shows the activity at the Governor's Place at Williamsburg after the Boston Tea Party; values of the accurate restoration of colonial Williamsburg; Rockefeller's role in restoration; and preliminary archeological and architectural research.

The second, 15-minute color film, "Saugus Ironworks Restoration," concerns the restoration of the first ironworks in America at Saugus, Massachusetts.

Following Tuesday's meeting, the next regular meeting is slated for April 18. The Society will return to the Randolph street home of Miss Linda Edgerton for this meeting. It will feature a talk, "Pioneers in Michigan," by Ferris Lewis of the Dearborn Junior College.

All Historical Society meetings are open to the public. Anyone interested in learning more about the organization is urged by the Society's president, Miss Ruth Starkweather, to attend next Tuesday's meeting.

Novi Justice Court

A 20-year-old Livonia youth was fined a total of $55 in Novi Justice court on two counts of having liquor in his possession. The infractions took place on successive days.

Kenneth G. Ochen was first cited for having liquor in his possession on March 6 near the intersection of Grand River and Novi road. On the following day, March 7, Ochen was ticketed for the same offense on Eubank street and South Lake drive.

He was arraigned the same day, March 7, before Justice Robert K. Anderson and pleaded guilty to both charges.

Hauled into court for furnishing beer to minors, including Ochen, was Richard C. Dunn, 29, of Farmington. He pleaded guilty to the charge and paid a $20 fine for the infraction at the intersection of Novi road and Grand River.

John J. Laszlo, 19, of Detroit was also picked up for having liquor in his possession on Eubank and South Lake drive, along with Ochen. Laszlo was slapped with a $35 fine.

Terry Maxine, 22, of Dearborn was also fined for aiding and abetting minors in acquiring liquor. He was fined $25 for the infraction that was detected on 11 Mile road west of Taft road in Novi.

Ronnie L. Blackburn, 19, of Willis was fined $50 for driving a car south on Wixom road without a driver's license. He explained that he never had a driver's license, reports revealed.

For driving a vehicle with a defective exhaust, Samuel F. De La Rose, 45, of Walled Lake was assessed $20 costs. He was cited as he drove south on Novi road near the expressway.

Sammy Bateman, III, pleaded guilty to having no operator's license in his possession while driving on Paramount street near Lashbrook street. He was fined $30. Twenty years old, Bateman lives at 510 Paramount.

Cited for speeding 65 miles per hour in a 50 zone on Novi road, James H. Herrmann, 21, was fined $20.

Jack B. Anglin, 19, of 42750 Grand River was fined $20 for following too close to a patrol car. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Two Novi residents were fined $10 apiece for violating the village's junk ordinance. They were Mrs. Irene S. Rivard, 47, of 46779 11 Mile road and Ambers Church, 22, of 143 Penhill street. Mrs. Rivard was reported to have six junk cars in her yard.

William B. Brown, 25, of Farmington was fined $10 for violation of the village dumping ordinance. The infraction took place on Nine Mile road west of Beck road.

Municipal Court

A Detroit man lost his license, was sentenced to 90 days in jail, and was ordered to pay a $100 fine and $12 costs in Northville Municipal court Tuesday when he was found guilty of driving under the influence of liquor.

Edmund Tolini's sentence will be appealed to the circuit court and he was released on an appeal bond. He is 42.

Charges were filed against Tolini after he reportedly ignored requests and signals to pull over to the side of Seven Mile road. Police said they first spotted Tolini under the influence in the Bel-nor restaurant parking lot and chased him three miles into Livonia before pulling him over to the side of the road.

A 17-year-old Northville youth was arraigned before Judge Charles McDonald on three separate counts.

Rudy D. Marquardt, 1984 Currie road, was fined $27.50 for having liquor in his possession on East Main and Griswold streets. He was also ordered to pay $10 costs for speeding 60 miles per hour in a 50 zone on Eight Mile road from Randolph to Beck road. Charges of making excessive noise with a car were suspended.

Also nabbed with Marquardt for having liquor in his possession was James G. Schmitz, 19, of 18745 Ridge road. He also was ordered to pay a fine of $27.50.

Frederick R. Bodnar, 18, of 8595 Seven Mile road was fined $27.50 for having liquor in his possession in the parking lot of Paul's Hamburger restaurant on Center street.

Bruce J. Boor, 17, of 20297 Woodhill was assessed $15 costs for altering his driver's license. He was cited on West Main street.

Man Breaks Ankle on Ice

A 41-year-old Novi man broke his leg Friday when he reportedly fell in the parking lot of the Condeco corporation, 44455 Grand River.

Pat Martin, 44963 11 Mile road, was taken to Botsford General hospital for treatment. Martin told police, whom he summoned, that he slipped on ice in the parking lot, and broke his left ankle.

Threatens Police With Shotgun

Twice threatened with a shotgun, Novi police reportedly wrestled a loaded weapon away from a Novi man March 7 and charged him with felonious assault.

Ralph Mausolf, 27, of 1529 East Lake drive was arraigned March 8 before a Farmington judge. Mausolf pleaded not guilty and bond was set at $500. Examination will be held today in the court room of Novi Justice Robert K. Anderson.

Around 8:38 p.m., police obtained information about the presence of a shotgun from Mausolf's wife, who had fled home at 1529 East Lake drive because of family difficulty.

When Sergeant Richard Faulkner and Patrolmen Ronald Arbour called at the front door, police reported, they got no answer from the darkened house. When they walked to the rear door, flashlights in hand, Mausolf confronted them with a shotgun, the officers said, and they took cover.

Thomas Robinson, 29, who lives at 1605 East Lake drive and who was within the house with Mausolf, recognized Faulkner's voice and beckoned him to come into the house, police said. Inside, police said, Mausolf again pointed the shotgun directly at Faulkner.

Faulkner then grappled with Mausolf, and aided by Arbour, finally wrestled the gun away from Mausolf. He was immediately placed under arrest and lodged in the Oakland county jail under the charge of felonious assault with a dangerous and deadly weapon but without intent to murder.

City's Salt Cost Zooms

91 tons of salt were used. Novi Village Manager Harold Ackley, who hails from the Upper Peninsula where snow is measured in feet not inches, says this winter "wasn't too bad. We came through it in good shape."

The village purchased 500 yards of "sharp" sand and mixed it with about 40 tons of salt, reports Ackley. That represents an investment of about $800 for salt and sand. Last year the village used only about 20 tons of salt.

Up in Wixom — which lies a little closer to this year's snow belt — DPW Superintendent Robert Trombley says the city has spent about $2,000 for salt and sand this winter. That figures up to about 450 tons of salt and sand, he says.

Last year Wixom used about 100 tons of salt and sand.

Goodwill Pickup

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday, March 20.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pickup, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Motorist Hurt On Novi Road

A young Northville woman suffered minor injuries Thursday when her car crashed into a semi-truck on Novi road at 10 Mile road.

Treated at Botsford hospital for a neck injury was Linda Willnow, 504 Reed street.

According to Novi Patrolman Warren Thrushman, the woman was driving north when her car crossed over the center line, forcing the truck, driven by Theodore Williams of Taylor, to the turning apron of the road before striking it almost head-on. A witness said she was driving about 50 miles per hour.

Theft Mars Appearance Of U-M Chorus Here

Marring the appearance here of the University of Michigan Glee club last Thursday night was the theft of at least $120 from the all-male chorus. Final amount stolen has not been determined, but estimates run as high as $150.

The money was reported stolen from the Northville high school band room, where choral members had placed their clothes after changing into tuxedos for the performance. Wallets were replaced after the money was taken, Northville Police Chief Samuel Elkins said.

The band room was unguarded during the performance in the auditorium, the chief said. Not until the singing group was on its way back to Ann Arbor was the theft discovered.

Chief Elkins said he suspects the theft was the work of somebody from the Northville area.

This is the third occurrence of this type, the chief pointed out. Recently, the chief said, money was also reported stolen from clothes in the basement of the junior high school boys' gymnasium, while athletic games were in progress upstairs.

Actual amount stolen will be determined this week when the Glee club holds one of its regular meetings. The fifth annual appearance of the Glee Club was sponsored by the Northville Mothers Club.

In Northville School District New Bus Policy to Start Soon

A controversial school bus transportation policy, adopted recently by the Northville board of education, will go into effect shortly after Easter. Recommended for adoption by a special board committee which drew it up after lengthy study, board members who subsequently adopted it are hopeful that it will eliminate "patchwork" scheduling and promote safer, more economical transportation.

Parents of certain subdivisions in the school district, however, have already voiced their strong disapproval of parts of the policy that curtail the number of stops in their neighborhoods and in some cases that eliminate present bus runs altogether.

Specifically, the section that says "buses shall not turn around in private driveways nor encounter situations where backing up to turn around shall become a regular part of the route" is objectionable to them because it means present runs of this kind will be discontinued.

Furthermore, in some cases the section states there shall not be more than four stops per mile with clear vision at least 500 feet in either direction of the bus.

Board members, who point out that the policy will eliminate the patchwork of irregular scheduling that now exists, contend that elimination of "back-tracking" will make for safer transportation of children while reducing the amount of time that children must spend riding buses.

Furthermore, they emphasize that the policy adheres to the rules set down by the state for qualification for state school bus aid.

Under the policy, persons wishing special consideration for deviations from these regulations must appeal to the superintendent of schools or his administrative assistant — not the board of education nor school bus drivers.

Deviations can be made only upon the written approval of the superintendent or his assistant.

Following is the statement concerning routing of buses:

"Recognizing that 'drivers' visibility is limited and the safety of children on and off buses is paramount, bus routes shall be established so that buses do not travel dead-end roads. Buses shall not turn around in private driveways nor encounter situations where backing up to turn shall become a regular part of the route.

"Bus stops or pick-up locations shall be in conformity with the School Bus Code — i.e., not more than four stops per mile with clear vision at least 500 feet in either direction of the stop.

"Bus routes through subdivisions shall follow the most direct route through the subdivision leading to the next adjoining main road or mile road. Back-tracking is prohibited."

Riding limits as spelled out in the policy fall within this statement:

"Children living in the district will be entitled to transportation between their homes and schools located within the district in accordance with es-

Band Uniforms Near Reality

Two band uniform companies are expected to submit sample uniforms — based upon specifications of the Novi Band Boosters uniform committee — to the Novi school system within three weeks.

Selection of the company which will ultimately prepare 80 uniforms for the Novi band will take place after inspection of these sample uniforms, according to Band Director Keith Rolston. Rolston and other representatives of the uniform committee were present last week Wednesday as the board of education opened sealed quotations from four uniform companies.

After the quotations were opened, the committee studied them while the board considered other matters and then returned with a recommendation that samples be requested from these two companies.

Demoulin, which quoted unit prices of $12.68 for the hat, $35.27 for the coat, $16.76 for trousers, $15.81 for the skirt, and $22.72 for the overlay, and Sol Frank, which quoted prices of $10.83 for the hat, $35.12 for the coat, $17.18 for the trousers, $14.86 for the skirt, and $19.99 for the overlay.

Based upon 80 complete uniforms (only 40 skirts), the total quotation from Demoulin was $7,627.80 and from Frank, $7,244.

The two other companies, Fehelmer Brothers and Ostwald, Inc., came up with total quotations of $6,648 and $7,443.60, respectively. The committee, however, concluded that the uniforms as proposed by Demoulin and Frank more nearly met the quality and style of uniforms desired locally.

Depending upon how soon after the final selection is made and the length of time needed to come up with sizes, etc., delivery of the uniforms is expected to be in time for next fall's football season, Rolston said.

Actually, the board of education has not yet voted to purchase any uniforms, although in previous board meetings members had indicated that their purchase would certainly be part of its 1967-68 budget studies.

Should the board vote to purchase the uniforms, the total outlay for the school district is expected to be three or more thousand dollars less than the total price because that much money has or will have been raised by the Band Boosters to help pay for the uniforms.

In other board action last week, members (Arthur Heslip and Russell Taylor were absent) approved the following building changes and costs for the high school addition:

Girls restroom partition and door, $765.14; drinking fountain in the commons area, $407.77; modification of the girls locker rooms, resulting in a deduction of $50; and provision for hook-up of a safety cabinet in the chemistry laboratory, $643.05. Total cost is $1,765.96.

Concerning a recommendation of the superintendent, Tom Dale, to appoint John Osborne as the high school athletic director, the board agreed that Osborne is a logical choice but the deferred action pending a decision as to the additional salary required for the post. Presently, Principal Gerald Hartman is acting as the athletic director.

Dale suggested the following as the duties of the director: Scheduling and control of athletic events; engaging referees, umpires, gatekeepers, ticket sellers, etc.; supervising eligibility lists; representing the district at league meetings; recommending budgets and requisitions to the principal; keeping records of equipment and supplies; conducting meetings with athletic and physical education staff members to coordinate activities; and preparing an annual report of physical education and athletics.

Concerning sports reports, Dale noted that Hartman had prepared figures showing that during the 1966-67 season, income exceeded costs by $211.15. Income (from admissions) totaled $539.15 and expenses (cost for officials) totaled $328.

Back Seat

The expression "take a back seat" started in England, where those members of Parliament who belong to the majority party get the front seats and those in the minority are left with the back seats.

Novi Board to Air Teacher Contracts

A special meeting of the Novi board of education for the consideration of teacher recommendation and appointments is planned for next Wednesday.

At that time, the board will review records of teaching personnel and decide which teachers should be offered new contracts. Superintendent Tom Dale has noted that probationary teachers must be given 60 days notice if they will not be re-employed.

Next Tuesday, board negotiating representatives will meet with teachers, at the request of the teachers, to discuss salary proposals for the new year.

Two other items which were on last week's agenda may or may not come up again next week. They include a proposed policy for driver training and a recommendation by Dale for re-appointment of the three Novi principals and a decision as to their 1968-69 salaries.

Concerning the 1967-68 budget, Superintendent Dale noted that it must be submitted to the county tax allocation board by April 17, meaning tentative board approval should be made at the April 12 meeting.

"We will not actually know where we stand in regards to the budget," he said, "until we know the state aid formula for 1967-68 and the valuation of the district."

Frosh Stars Moving Up

JV Cage Coach Savors Future

Contemplating the future can be difficult, especially when you're a high school basketball coach and there are some talented youngsters coming up.

That's the enviable position Northville JV Coach Bob Kucher and Varsity Coach Dave Longridge find themselves in. They can sit back and savor the future of this year's cagers on the freshmen basketball team.

Kucher will get them first, and he recognizes they're above average in potential. "They have quick, good instincts," the Jayvee coach stated, "natural instincts, not mechanical."

Under Coach Dave Madden, the frosh posted a 13-2 record, using those "natural instincts." A closer look at their record, however, reveals more than the season record does.

— They scored 809 points against 570 for their opponents, a per game margin of victory of 54-38 or 16 points.

— They were 6-1 against Wayne-Oakland Conference competition, a mark that augurs well for Northville's future in the league.

— Against tough outside competition, the frosh were 2-1, beating Belleville, a class A school, and splitting with Willow Run, a hot-bed of basket ball.

More than any other games, the two against Willow Run indicate the teams potential. In the first encounter at Northville, Willow Run outscored Northville 16-6 in the final quarter and ran up a 58-43 victory.

"We were rattled in the fourth quarter," Coach Madden said. "We were scared, I guess." Northville apparently cracked under Willow Run's reputation for a sterling but frenzied brand of ball.

In the return match, however, Northville didn't fold — a mark of basketball maturity. The local frosh employed a zone which broke up Willow Run's lightning pass-and-go patterns and gave Northville the boards. Madden's crew hung in there for a 37-36 victory at Willow Run.

Northville used the same defense — the zone — to whip Belleville, 51-41. "The zone bothered them," Madden said.

It permitted Northville to come back from a seven point deficit and tie the game at halftime. In the second half, the frosh poured it on, outscoring Belleville in the final two periods, 10-7 and 12-5.

Northville's only loss against seven league opponents came at the hands of West Bloomfield in what Coach Madden described as Northville's "worst game." West Bloomfield won, 53-52.

A disastrous first half made the difference. West Bloomfield, capitalizing on a lax Northville defense, raced to a surprising 48-31 halftime lead. Northville battled back to make a game of it, but fell one point shy.

In the previous encounter with West Bloomfield, the local frosh trounced the little Lakers, 68-36. Other league teams got the same treatment as Northville whipped Brighton twice, 62-46 and 62-38, Milford, 40-36 and 45-32, and Clarenceville 57-26 and 68-22.

Conspicuous for their absence on the frosh schedule were Bloomfield Hills and Clarkston, the two class A schools in the conference who annually put out two of the stronger teams in the league. Games with them would have provided another indicator of the potential of this year's freshmen.

Two other opponents the freshmen faced — and beat each of the two times they faced them — were Novi and Milford Highland. According to Coach Madden, Novi was the most improved team Northville played this year. His comment came on the heels of a 75-62 victory, in which Novi came back from a 20-point deficit and scrapped for the lead in the fourth quarter, forcing Northville to play heads-up ball to win. Northville won the first game by a decisive 60-29 margin.

Pacing the Northville scoring attack was Ron Hubbard, a 5'11" forward. He tallied 172 points during the season for an average of 11.5 points per game. He was also strong on the boards and rates high as a corner.

Providing beef and muscle under the boards was Center Marc Sheffer, 6'2" and about 180 pounds. He was second high in scoring with 153 points or a 10.2 per game average.

Although he didn't score consistently high, Brian Myers, a 5'10" forward, was a vital cog on the Northville squad. He is being hailed as a "strong rebounder and a good defensive player," who, if he develops as a scorer, could be tops in later years.

Three 5'9" guards ranked as the number three, four and five scorers, indicating there is no lack of punch in the back court. They are Terry Mills (125 points and an 8.3 average), Rich Adams (103 points and 6.9 average) and Fred Holdsworth (69 points and a 4.6 average).

In the free throw department, Sheffer had the highest percentage, 65.6 on 21 of 32 attempts. Other regulars hitting for 50 percent and better were Hubbard with 54.8 on 17 of 31 shots, Mills 53 percent on 26 of 49 tries and Holdsworth with 50 percent on eight of 16 attempts.

These cagers, plus an eager group of back-up men, including Dave Veresh, Dave Coe, Bruce Griggs, Dale North, Dave Johnston, Jim Penrod, Rex Balke and Will Sollmoer, will figure prominently in the fortunes of next year's Jayvee squad.

Prep Coverage Doubtful on TV

Basketball will be in the limelight this weekend.

The championship game of the NCAA basketball tournament can be seen on channel 2 (WJBK), starting at 9:30 p.m. Saturday night.

But it was doubtful, as of Tuesday, whether the high school basketball finals will be televised on channel 50 as they were last year. That's the word from Larry Adderly of the WKBD sports department.

The problem, arising from a unique situation, is simple enough: lack of sponsors. According to Adderly, beer and cigarette companies, prime sponsors of sporting events, are prohibited by state law from sponsoring the telecast of high school sporting events.

But channel 50 is not giving up. Adderly said. Attempts to secure a sponsor will be made through Friday.

Golf Classes

Special golf classes will begin April 4 in Plymouth, sponsored by that community's recreation department.

Classes will be conducted Tuesday and Thursday of each week for a total of 10 sessions. Registration fee for the class is $10.

Three separate classes will be conducted each evening, 7 to 7:40, 7:50 to 8:30 and 8:40 to 9:20, at Gallimore elementary school on Sheldon road, just south of Joy road.

Interested persons, ages 14 and over, may register prior to the first class. Information about registration procedures may be obtained by telephoning the department at GL 3-3100, Extension 4.

Jim Zayti Reaps String of Honors

Northville's Jim Zayti is reaping the rewards of a season well played. A string of honors are being thrown his way.

He became recognized as one of the top 30 players in class B in the state when the Detroit Free Press named him to the sixth team Sunday.

Other honors garnered by the Mustang captain include:

---Wayne-Oakland Conference first team, selected by the league's coaches.

---Oakland county class B first team, selected by the Pontiac Press.

---Most valuable player on the Northville squad, voted by his teammates.

A senior, Zayti was the Mustangs captain and leading scorer this year with a 16-point average. This marks the second year that he has lettered in basketball.

Named to the all-league second team was Junior Jim Peterson. He was the second leading scorer on the Mustangs with a 14.6 average.

Other members of the W-O first team were Dan Fife of Clarkston, Greg Averyhard of Holly, Bruce Hall of Bloomfield Hills and Ron Ray of Clarenceville.

Besides Peterson, other members of the second team were Mark Giegler of Milford, Larry Lamorie of Brighton, Randy Nicolson of Clarkston and Mark Wellman of Brighton. Peterson, a junior, and Giegler, a sophomore, are the only two underclassmen on the first and second teams.

Guard Ken Boerger, a junior who climbed into a starting position during the latter part of season, was chosen by his teammates as the most improved cager on the local squad.

Guard Joe Andrews was picked as captain of next year's team.

Wolverine Eyes Earliest Racing

Michigan's earliest racing season in history opens on Saturday, March 25 when Wolverine Harness Raceway opens its doors for the first of 58-night programs.

Wolverine operates its meeting at the Detroit Race Course, Middlebelt and Schoolcraft roads, in Livonia.

For an entire month, Wolverine will be the only race track-harness or runners — operating in Michigan. The Wolverine meet continues through May 31.

The two other harness programs in the Detroit area include: Northville Downs, Thursday, June 1 to Wednesday, August 2 (54 nights); and Hazel Park, Thursday, August 3 through Saturday, October 7 (57 nights).

Following the Hazel Park campaign, the trotters and pacers move outstate to Jackson for 54 nights starting Monday, October 9 and concluding on Saturday, December 9 — the latest closing for any meet, harness or thoroughbred, in the state's annals.

The two thoroughbred tracks, Hazel Park and the Detroit Race Course, have been allotted 84 days each with the former opening on Monday, April 24 and closing on Saturday, July 29. The DRC will begin its 84 days on Monday, July 31 and end on Saturday, November 4.

THE CAR BUYER'S PROBLEMS

It was recently estimated the average motorist spends $26 per week on his car. This includes the financed purchase price, annual depreciation, insurance, license, and of course, oil and gas. The fact this represents more money than some families spend on their homes indicates how important the automobile has become to all of us. Its importance has made the car industry the largest single business in the country by far.

It is possible for the average motorist to get more value out of his motoring dollar than he now does? We think so. So we're planning to devote this space each week to some plain talk about the automobile business.

How can a motorist deal most wisely who is trading in his old car on a new one? Or make the even more difficult decision of what used car to buy? And how can he get the most performance satisfaction out of the car he now has?

This industry is changing rapidly, even for our changing world. Being on the inside looking out we'd like to share some of our knowledge of this business with you. We're sure a lot of light can be shed on a problem by discussing it impartially.

Marketing studies show 65 percent of buyers are looking for useful information before buying their car. We hope you'll find at least some of what we have to say fills this need as well as proving interesting.

Rotary Slates Final Travel Film

"Alaska, America's Frontier State" will highlight the final production of the Northville Rotary Club's annual travel and adventure series.

Featuring Harry R. Reed, photographer, lecturer and writer, the program will be held at the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 29.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Reed is a graduate of Santa Ana college and Occidental college, and he has taken post-graduate work at UCLA, Columbia and Santa Barbara State. He has written many feature articles for such magazines as Liberty, Colliers, Holiday, Popular Photography, Look and This Week.

Considered to be one of the world's foremost authorities on Finland and Lapland - Arctic Finland and Arctic Norway, he has lectured on Finnish radio and television about travel and tourism within Finland and the Scandinavian Arctic. Besides being an authority on the Scandinavian countries, Reed also is a specialist on Alaska and the American Arctic and the Southwestern desertlands.

His program on Alaska has been hailed as a "thrillingly beautiful film lecture exhibiting superb color photography and brilliant narration."

In this film, Reed gives an unbiased report on Alaska as it is today. The film features unusual pictures of natives and their arts and crafts, the Alaskan interior and the Arctic. There are many rare animal sequences including the shy caribou, giant moose, bothersome black bears, rare Toklat grizzly, illusive mountain goats, busy beavers, and heart-capturing, Parka squirrels.

Pictures of the brilliant midnight sun reflected in the mighty Yukon River proves Reed's talent in cine-photography.

Boy Scouts Honor Major Louis Babbitt

Major Louis Babbitt, son of Mrs. K. H. Babbitt and the late Mr. Babbitt of 306 South Rogers, recently was awarded the coveted Silver Beaver Award, highest national award given in Boy Scouting.

Major Babbitt, a native of Northville who maintains his permanent residence here, is the chief penetration officer at Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Indiana.

The award was given to him at the annual meeting of the Three Rivers Council of the Boy Scouts of America held at the Logansport (Indiana) national armory building.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Robert Griese, All-American from Purdue university.

Major Babbitt, who was born and raised in Northville and who was active in scouting here, credits Orlo Owen, Dick Loomis, and Charles Schultiz for interesting him in scouting.

Presently, his daughter, Cheryl, is living with his mother here while attending Schoolcraft college.

In Northville High School

New Policy Spurs 'Laggards'

A policy governing "ninth semester" students, recommended by Northville Superintendent Alex Nelson and High School Principal Fred Holdsworth, was adopted by the board of education Monday night.

The policy is aimed at those students who fail to complete their high school education by the end of the regular eighth semester. It was prompted, explained Nelson, by "some problems" arising with students who must remain in school an extra semester before graduation.

These problems were not spelled out, although Holdsworth indicated that some students may stay in school an extra semester to "escape the draft".

Under the policy, students admitted for the ninth semester will be placed on probation and "be expected to maintain passing grades in all subjects and conduct themselves as good citizens in school. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in recommended voluntary withdrawal, or suspension from school for the semester."

Exempted from the policy are those students, who through no fault of their own, are unable to complete their high school education by the end of eighth semesters. Sickness was cited as an example of an exception.

Also approved by the board was a book selection policy recommended by the National Council of English Teachers. It was recommended locally following a study by the English department.

Basically, the selection procedure outlines steps by which citizens must follow in order to protest the use of a book that they may consider objectionable.

Up to now, most school districts handled such complaints without any guidelines, it was explained. Through this written procedure, districts may now "handle criticism objectively," school officials said.

The procedure or policy pertains only to English text books and assigned reference books.

Although Librarian Miss Linda Edgerton explained that the policy was an aid to teachers, Citizen Glenn Delbert challenged the policy, saying it was "tantamount to book burning."

He said he would prefer leaving the matter up to the teacher for an independent judgment.

In reply to an objection that the guidelines spelling out ways to protest the use of a book would spark numerous complaints, Trustee Richard Martin said school board members morally could not nor should not shut off citizen complaints.

Board members also approved a $5,000 allocation for salary increases to school secretaries, a sum included in the current budget but withheld pending development of job descriptions. In voting the money for salary increases, Superintendent Nelson was instructed to prepare a salary range for use in upcoming budget studies.

In other matters, the board ---

Accepted the resignations, at the end of the current school year, of Judy Henry and Susan Taylor, elementary teachers who will be moving from the school district.

Learned that the Michigan Association of School Boards was to meet at Lansing Tuesday to protest the Municipal Finance Commission's new policy on the state school bond loan fund, which basically means schools will be required to share a greater portion of the "matching millage" formula.

Approved an additional $100 expenditure for the operation of the high school home economics program.

Authorized preparation of a list of top priority projects that it wishes the newly organized Committee for Area Progress to consider.

Instructed the architect to develop a plan for an auxiliary parking lot at Moraine elementary school.

Learned that plans for a formal dedication of Moraine are in the works.

Voted to present ex-administrator E. V. Ellison a book plaque in "recognition of his many years of faithful and meritorious service."

Approved an "averaging" method of computing the regular rate for personnel as provided in the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Awarded contracts for cleaning and maintenance equipment, primarily for Moraine.

Learned that the repair of the recent water pump failure was made at no cost to the school district.

Teacher Negotiations Near

Only three more ground rules remain to be worked out between Northville teacher and board of education representatives before negotiations for a new contract can get underway.

Unresolved as yet are these three points:

---"Release time" for teacher representatives to attend negotiating sessions during regular working hours.

---The role of the press at negotiating sessions.

---Specific times of negotiating meetings.

Personnel making up the two sides include:

For the teachers - Pat Bubel, chief teacher negotiator; Donald Brown, and Robert Sharrar of the high school; Judy Henry of Moraine elementary; Richard Norton of the junior high school; and William Case, an alternate negotiator, elementary schools.

For the school district - Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear, chief negotiator, together with Ron Horwath and Robert Stafford on one team; Milton Jacob and Donald Vaningen on a second; and Fred Holdsworth and Harry Smith on a third. Superintendent Alex Nelson is an alternate on all three district teams, which will alternate in meeting with the teacher representatives every three weeks.

Besides agreeing upon the personnel for the negotiating teams for both sides, teachers and board representatives have agreed to the following ground rules:

---That an informal agenda shall be prepared at the end of each meeting for presentation at the next session.

---That no meeting shall last longer than two hours unless mutually agreed upon by both sides.

---That meetings will be conducted on a regular basis, with specific times yet to be determined.

---That all individual agreements shall remain tentative until both sides have agreed to the overall master contract, and that "extreme care and consideration" shall be taken by both parties should one or the other decide to eliminate one of the previously agreed upon clauses.

---That "outsiders", such as attorneys and consultants, will not be present at the bargaining table until both sides have been advised in advance.

Concerning the still unresolved point as to the "role of the press", both sides are considering the possibility of inviting a representative from The Record to attend all bargaining sessions - a unique step in any labor-management negotiations.

Old Man Winter

Here's Salt in Your Eye!

Taking a big chance in provoking Old Man Winter, Royal Keller of the Northville DPW pitches a characteristic shovelful of salt in the eye of winter which officially bows out next Tuesday after one of the longest whitest four months on record. Mountains of salt were spread on roads in Northville, Novi, and Wixom in what seemed like a futile if not expensive effort to combat the snow and ice. See the front page story on just how much salt was used and how expensive snow removal was for these municipalities.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. Father John Wittstock
Our Lady of Victory Church

All Christians should strive to become involved in the Ecumenical Movement. Simply praying for Church unity each January is not sufficient. The Apostle John records the Lord's prayer for unity, sublime and simple "That they may be one as we are - that they all may be one as you, Father, in Me and I in you - that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe - that they may be one even as We are one - that they may be made perfect in one."

This prayer inspired an Anglican clergyman, Fr. Paul James Francis, S.A., of Graymoor to establish the program of prayer in January of 1908. All of us, as believers and followers of Christ, should recite the prayer of unity very often throughout the year and furthermore do everything in our power to promote programs that will enable all of us to understand each other a little better.

Many of these promotional programs should be started by lay-people, both adults and teen-agers. For example, a dance could be promoted for the Church youth groups in the community. As a cultural activity the youths of the different denominations could try to organize a Glee Club. A few of the Protestant sects have come to Our Lady of Victory Church as a part of their religious activity in order to observe our worship and to ask questions regarding doctrine, symbols, mass vestments, sacred vessels etc. We wish our young people would reciprocate and visit other churches in the community to learn what Protestants teach and believe.

Adults too should take the initiative to encourage programs whereby not only all Christians benefit but everyone in the community profits by them. If Christians everywhere only understood the many things the various sects have in common then surely they would be in a better position to put up with the differences that exist in each of the churches.

The ecumenical movement is a recognition of the evil of separation in the Christian family and the expression of the will to annihilate this evil for the accomplishment of Christ's fervent wish "that all may be one", then the motive of every true Christian in taking an active part in the ecumenical movement is very evident.

First of all we must take for granted the good faith of all Christians everywhere. We certainly must be impressed from time to time by the spirit of faith, the firmness of hope and amplitude of their charity. Among most of them we find, if we seek without prejudice, prayer, sacrifice, a deep appreciation of sacramental baptism and a love for the breaking of bread described in the Gospel. It is true we also find scepticism and unbelief, a disregard of the faith of the New Testament Church, but then we find these weaknesses amongst some Catholics who do not live a life of faith. One thing we know that salvation and holiness will come to all baptized Christians if they follow what is authentically Christian in their denominational traditions.

Orchard Hills Baptist Plans Revival Sunday

Orchard Hills Baptist Church, Northville, is planning a week of revival services beginning Sunday, March 19.

The pastor, Fred Trachsel, announced that the church has secured the services of two outstanding young men for the evangelistic meeting.

A nursery will be provided for children. Services will begin at 7:00 p.m. nightly and at 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Sundays.

The public is cordially invited to attend these special meetings at the church, located on Novi road between Nine and Ten Mile roads.

EDISON

Palm Sunday! After services, I lingered for a moment in the sanctuary. The sun patterned the floor with gold and stippled the palms by the altar. A quiet stillness held me and for an instant it seemed I saw a crowd waving branches and heard them shouting "Hosanna to the Son of David; Hosanna in the highest."

And Jesus came, riding through the tumult of rejoicing. He had been in Galilee making blind men see, and lame ones walk, lifting up the dead and quickening men's hearts to goodness with his teachings. Many voices sang his praise, yet in a few short days, their screams would swell a cry of "crucify Him."

How could they, we wonder? How could anyone be blind to the goodness of this man, the rightness of His Word?

And still today, as we turn away from the hungry, the poor, and disregard the needs of our fellowman; we just as surely add our voices to that cry.

scheduled for Thursday, March 23.

Saturday, April 1 the IOOF will serve a pancake supper family style at the community hall from 5-7:30

Rummage and bake sale is slated Friday, April 23. The Rebekahs will serve a lunch. Begin to save rummage for the sale now.

The Rebekahs had a very good turnout at their last Rebekah meeting. Approximately 45 attended the dinner at Saratoga Farms honoring Mrs. Pearl McGreger assembly conductor.

NOVI BOY SCOUTS

Novi Boy Scout Troop No. 54 spent this past weekend at Bruen Lake. Attending were 22 scouts, Scoutmaster Harold Sigsbee and Scout leaders Robert Wilkins, Robert Robertson and Gerald Wachtel. They learned a lot about camping at this campout.

Northville Council Minutes

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Pro-Tem Canterbury on Monday, February 6, 1967, 8 p.m. at the Northville City Hall.

Present: Black, Canterbury and Nichols. Absent: Allen (on vacation), Carlson (at Beautification Convention).

Minutes of the Regular meeting of February 6, 1967 and Special Meeting of February 13, 1967 were approved as printed.

Moved by Nichols, supported by Black that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General	$163,984.35
Water	4,189.00

Unanimously carried.

Communications:

Letter received from Gordon L. Thomas, Chairman of Mayor's Exchange Day and Michigan Week, relative to drawing of cities on February 23.

Letter from W. Wallace Nichols, resigning as a member of the Northville City Planning Commission.

Councilman Canterbury stated that Mr. Nichols had served long and faithfully on the Planning Commission but he could appreciate Mr. Nichols' views as stated in his letter of resignation.

Moved by Black, support by Canterbury to accept Mr. Nichols' resignation from the Planning Commission and to extend Council's thanks to Mr. Nichols for his long and faithful service on the Planning Commission. Unanimously carried.

Mr. Canterbury said he has 2 letters which he would like to have read but this could be done after the agenda matters had been discussed and decided.

Minutes of the Northville City Planning Commission of February 14, 1967 were placed on file.

Police Report for January, 1967 was placed on file.

Approval of Liquor License application for Northville Cocktail lounge:

City Manager requested that this be postponed until Special meeting (possibly February 27) or regular meeting of March 6, 1967 as the report necessary for council's consideration had not been received from Lansing.

Mr. Gadiola stated he would go along with the postponement; Mr. Canterbury felt this postponement was a wise move as only 3 of the 5 council members were present.

Mrs. Audrey Becker, 543 Dubuar street, was in attendance to present petitions to Council requesting denial of the liquor license for Northville Cocktail lounge located at 132 S. Center street. Mrs. Becker explained she had read about this application and had prepared petitions and circulated them and had also written a letter to Mr. Gadiola stating that she and other parents feel that presently Northville Lanes is a fine place for young people to go for recreation. Mrs. Becker asked that if this matter was not discussed at the current meeting that she would appreciate being given an opportunity to speak to the absent members of the council at a meeting when this matter does appear on the agenda (this is to appear on March 6th agenda). The attorney is to determine whether the matter to be approved by Council, or disapproved, is the licensing of the establishment or the proprietor.

Attorney's Report on Northville Heights' Sub. #2 Drainage: Mr. Ogilvie reported that the Novli attorney, Mr. Bond's, opinion was slightly different from that of Mr. Ackley's as to the water flow on the city limits line. Mr. Ogilvie believes that assistance can be obtained from Mr. Bond and Mr. Ackley in this regard. City Manager stated that the problem is already worse.

Mr. Doug Hortst, resident of Northville Heights' Sub. #2, was present and stated that the dike erected by Northville DPW restricts the view of residents as to children playing in this area.

Mayor-pro-tem Canterbury asked that the attorney have a report on this matter for the March 6th meeting and that the city manager be presented with information before that date.

Public Hearing for Adoption of Beautification Ordinance:

The Clerk read the ordinance as it was published in the Northville Record. Moved by Nichols, support by Black to adopt the Beautification Ordinance, this to be effective 10 days after publication. (Ordinance on file). Unanimously carried.

Set Date for Public Hearing for Amendment to Zoning Ordinance on Rear & Side Yard Requirements:

Moved by Black, support by Nichols, to set the date for Public Hearing to consider the adoption of amendment to Zoning Ordinance relative to Rear and Side Yard Requirements for Monday, March 6th, 1967, 8:00 p.m., at the Northville City Hall. Unanimously carried.

Joint Incinerator Study Committee Report:

The city manager reviewed the background of this committee and said he felt there would be an acute need for this incinerator within the next five years. City Manager asked for authorization to meet with Detroit House of Correction authorities and other officials of the city of Detroit to explore the possibility of the DeHoCo site as a potential site for an incinerator.

Unanimously agreed by all council members present that the city manager pursue the above matter.

Purchase Agreement on W. Main street Property, Lot 202, Assessor's Northville Plat #2:

City attorney reviewed the figures concerning the purchase of the Lot 202 of Assessor's Northville Plat #2 (Bunn property) and was instructed to represent a purchase agreement for this property at the March 6, 1967 meeting.

Cancel Public Hearing on Ordinance Adopting Minimum Employment Standards of Michigan Law Enforcement Officers' Training Council, as set for March 6, 1967:

The Mayor Pro-tem explained why it was unnecessary to hold the Public Hearing to adopt an ordinance concerning minimum employment standards for police officers but explained that this could be done by resolution and still qualify for possible reimbursement of funds for police schooling (This resolution adopted at the Feb. 13th Special meeting).

Moved by Nichols, support by Black to cancel this Public Hearing. Unanimously carried.

Discussion of Motor Vehicle License Office in Northville:

The City manager explained that Mr. Paul Follino had written to the Secretary of State's office asking that he be appointed manager of the Northville Branch and had received the reply as to the branch being presented to Council. Mr. Follino again contacted the Deputy Secretary and was told that the negative reply was final at this time. The city manager was instructed to draft a diplomatic but firm letter to the Secretary of State presenting the view of the Northville City Council—that this office would be advantageous to our citizenry; that there are few branches in this area and that the city council would very much like a branch re-established in the city of Northville.

Discussion of Remuneration for Assessment Program advisors:

City manager reported that Jim Cutler, George Clark and Harold Penn have completed their work on the re-assessment program. He recommended a maximum of $10 per hour and a minimum of $6.00 per hour.

Moved by Black that $6.00 per hour be paid for Assessment program advisor's work. Motion died for lack of support.

Unanimously agreed that City Manager would pay $8.00 per hour for this work. Councilman Canterbury suggested that in the future, City manager have firm agreement, in advance, relative to remuneration or rates of pay for work to be done.

Ordinance Amendment for Construction Water Rates:

City manager explained that the error was made last fall when the amendment for Detroit water rates was adopted. There have been complaints from several contractors on the present construction rates. A letter was read, from the Water Department, presenting rates from three neighboring communities. The city manager recommended the following rates:

Up to 1" line—Flat rate of $10.00, payable with building permit.
Up to 1 1/2" line—Flat rate of $30.00, payable with building permit.
Up to 2" line—Flat rate of $50.00, payable with building permit.

After 6 months, an additional payment of $10.00.

Attorney was instructed to draft a resolution naming people and amounts to be rectified for their previous water construction billings under the present amended ordinance.

Ordinance to be drafted and presented for March 6th meeting.

Mayor pro-tem Canterbury asked the Clerk to read two letters, one addressed to the Northville School board, dated February 18, 1967 (in the absence of Mayor Allen), and a reply from the Northville School board, signed by President Wm. Becker, dated February 19, 1967; both letters relative to the matter of bus vandalism and disciplinary action taken regarding vandalism.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
Martha M. Milne City Clerk

Our Legislators Report.....

The first of a series of district-wide conferences on major federal problems and legislation will be kicked off by Congressman Marvin L. Esch tomorrow (Friday).

Residents of Northville township and Plymouth are invited to visit Esch and discuss these matters with him at a meeting in the Mayflower Hotel, 827 West Ann Arbor road in Plymouth, between 10 and 11:30 p.m.

From Representative Louis E. Schmidt:

Daylight savings time, legalized abortion and the rights of automotive passengers to sue the driver were major topics in the state legislature this past week.

The House state affairs committee reported the bill to exempt Michigan from the federal uniform time act out to the floor for debate. The Senate has passed the bill. Both Houses must give the bill a two-thirds majority for immediate effect. That means 74 votes in the House and 26 in the Senate. The Senate passed the bill 24 to 11. The Federal Act which would require Michigan to observe Daylight Savings time goes into effect April 1, unless the exemption bill is passed with immediate effect and signed into law by that time.

A bill to permit abortion in certain cases and to legalize sterilization was introduced in the Senate. The measure immediately sparked a hot debate among Senators, but the House may not get a chance to even discuss the plan this year. Protests were raised when the bill was assigned to the Senate judiciary committee. Some Senators thought it would go to the committee on health, retirement and social services because the workload in the judiciary committee might prevent the bill from being considered during this session.

The primary feature of the bill would be to allow abortion in cases of rape or incest. A county prosecutor and three physicians would have to agree before the operation would be allowed. Another feature of the bill is legal sterilization if a patient and doctor agree on the operation.

Another heated debate took place at the opposite end of the legislative halls when the House took up a bill to allow passengers to sue the driver of a car involved in an accident. Similar measures, the most recent one last year, have been proposed before in the legislature and soundly defeated. The revival of the idea was roundly criticized from both sides of the aisle. Backers of the bill express no more than slight hope it will be passed this time around.

A Constitutional amendment to increase the tax on retail sales from four to five per cent has been introduced by Senator George W. Kuhn, state senator for the 14th district. It was co-signed by 12 other Senators.

"This one cent increase in the sales tax will realize in revenue approximately $170 million, which is more than enough to cover Governor Romney's increased budget requirements of $128 million," Senator Kuhn said.

"More important, however, the Constitution earmarks one-half cent for schools and one-eighth cent for local government. This would mean approximately $80 million more for education, instead of $15 million in the Governor's program, and $20 million more for local government."

Senator Kuhn emphasized that the sales tax amendment would be an alternate in case the fiscal reform program fails to pass the Legislature. "While I do feel that there is a need for fiscal reform not only on the state level but also on the national level, I am proposing the sales tax amendment as an insurance measure," he said.

"Sales tax machinery is already set up and needs no further cost of administration or facilities to collect the tax, as opposed to the income tax. Then, too, the sales tax would bring in much revenue from our heavy influx of tourists where the income tax would not bring in anything from the visitors."

Northville 4-H'er Eyes Iowa Trip

Three dozen Oakland county 4-H Club members, including a Northville high school boy, will spend a week with individual families in Black Hawk county, Waterloo, Iowa this summer—provided they raise the nearly $3,000 needed for travel expenses.

Among the 36 delegates and three alternates who will make the trip beginning about July 6 are Neil Balko son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Balko of 52730 West Eight Mile road, Douglas Canfield of New Hudson and Larry Kenworthy of Farmington.

Howard, 15, is a sophomore. In Iowa the young people will spend a week in homes of individual farm or urban 4-H members in order to better comprehend similarities and differences in their daily lives.

A return visit from Iowa 4-H members will be hosted by the Oakland county clubs next September.

Delegates were chosen from among 4-H members who applied on the basis of their achievement records. Emil Fimbling, Oakland county's cooperative extension agent, and three mothers will serve as advisors on the trip.

Cost to delegates will cover transportation, food and housing along the way.

To help offset this cost, 4-H'ers are busy selling candy. In addition, plans are underway for a beef sale and an old-fashioned auction of vintage Americana ranging from horse collars to antiques.

Persons wishing to donate items for the auction are asked to call Neil Balko at 349-0968 before April 4.

News About Schoolcraft

Eleven students, all but one a freshman, were inducted into the Omicron Iota chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, at Schoolcraft College in ceremonies Sunday (March 5).

Among the students inducted into the society since the chapter was chartered last fall was Theodore A. Jacques 19, 21551 Napier road.

The ceremonies were directed by Dr. Ralph Atchley, chemistry instructor at the college and faculty sponsor of the society. Alan Tope, one of the charter members inducted into the society last fall, presided.

Immediately after the induction, new officers were installed. They are: William Pfeiffer, president; Thomas Doyle, vice-president; Linda Antonelli, secretary; Lynda Herndon, treasurer; and Steven Moore, council member.

A reception for the inductees, parents and friends, and faculty and staff members of the college followed the ceremony in the Waterman Center.

From future airlines hostesses to future zoologists, a record number of students are enrolled in 45 specific curricula at Schoolcraft for the winter semester now underway.

According to official figures released this week by College Registrar Norman E. Dunn, winter semester enrollment reached 3,078 for the term which began January 3, and which ends April 30.

Of the 3,078 students, most — 1,952 — are enrolled in the first two years of study programs leading to a bachelor's degree at a senior college. This group is enrolled in 21 specific curricula, including the professions, teaching, and liberal arts.

Another 1,126 students are enrolled in 24 different one- and two-year career oriented programs. The group includes 198 students in the college's new apprenticeship program, which this semester is providing classroom instruction in 13 different occupational areas.

Although the winter term enrollment reflected a normal second-semester drop from the record fall term figure of 3,188, the second semester decrease was not as great as in previous years at the college, Dunn's figures showed.

For example, the between semester enrollment drop-off in 1964-65 was slightly more than 13 percent. This year, drop-off had shrunk to less than 3.5 percent. Dunn's figures also show 1,528 full-time students enrolled this semester, and 1,549 other students taking less than a full-time classroom load. The campus population includes 2,071 residents of the college district, and 1,007 who live outside the district, but who take college level courses at Schoolcraft. Statistically speaking, at least, the college is still a co-ed's delight: men students outnumber women students 1,937 to 1,141.

Most Schoolcraft students attend day classes.

10 Mile Accidents Injure 2 Women

A one-mile strip of 10 Mile road in Novi was the scene of two separate collisions last Thursday in which two women were injured. An injured man declined medical treatment, police reported.

Mrs. Beverly McDaniel, 34, of South Lyon and Mrs. John K. Cool, 38, of Farmington both sustained head and leg injuries and were taken to Botsford General hospital, Farmington. They were treated and released.

The first accident happened around 9:42 a.m. at the intersection of 10 Mile and Haggerty roads. Kathleen Cool-ey, 20, of Plymouth was ticketed with failing to yield the right of way.

As she was driving north on Haggerty road, she told Novi police, she stopped at the intersection with 10 Mile road and proceeded ahead, when the car she was driving was hit from the side.

Driver of the other car was Mrs. McDaniel. She told police she was traveling east on 10 Mile road at about 50 miles per hour (the posted speed limit) when the Cooley car pulled out. Police said Mrs. McDaniel's car skidded 48 feet after she had braked trying to avoid the collision.

The second accident occurred around 2:45 p.m. at the intersection of 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads.

James F. Ratliff, Jr., 20, of Pontiac told police he was driving a pickup truck south on Meadowbrook road, stopped at 10 Mile road, and proceeded across when a car slammed into the truck from the side.

Driving it was Mrs. Cool. She was ticketed for failing to yield the right of way.

Upon impact, according to Novi police, the car driven by Mrs. Cool skidded across the intersection, over a curb and bounced off a telephone pole. The ladders atop the pick-up truck came down on the roof of the car, caving it in and totaling the car, police reported.

Ratliff and a passenger, Michael Elwell, 20, and also of Pontiac, were thrown from the truck, which spun around twice before coming to rest on 10 Mile road. On the first spin, police said, Ratliff was thrown across Elwell and out the door. On the second spin, police said Elwell was thrown onto 10 Mile.

Although Elwell's arm was swollen badly, he refused medical treatment, police reported. They suspected a broken arm.

Colonel VanAtta

Army Colonel To Give Talk

Colonel Ward H. VanAtta, commanding officer of the Army Map Service, will address the 1967 convention of the American Society of Photogrammetry (ASP) and the American Congress of Surveying and Mapping (ACSM) tomorrow in Washington, D. C.

A native of Northville and the son of Mrs. Fred VanAtta of 136 East Cady street, Colonel VanAtta will speak on "Mapping in Southeast Asia. His discussion will include the development of mapping media and the success of the Army Map Service in meeting the demand for military maps.

Colonel VanAtta is a 1937 graduate of Michigan State university. He was commissioned in the United States Army Corps of Engineers, receiving his MS degree in engineering from Harvard in 1947. He also completed advanced management program training in the Harvard Business School and received an MA degree in international affairs from George Washington university in 1961.

The Northville born officer will close out his military career this summer after more than 30 years service.

Farm Bureau Representatives Visit Capitol

Nearly 100 county Farm Bureau legislative leaders, including two from this area, carried current farm issues directly to their Congressmen when they flew to Washington, D. C. Monday for a three-day visit.

The local representatives were Edward Erwin of Novi and Mrs. J. Champion of Wixom.

A portion of those who made the trip - including Erwin - were designated as "legislative spokesmen", persons picked to represent farmers of their counties and districts and selected to speak for them in visits with Congressmen.

One issue discussed is the rising level of dairy imports into the United States. Another issue of concern discussed is Senate Bill 109 - the unfair practices bill aimed at protecting the right of farm producers to join marketing and bargaining cooperatives without fear of reprisal from processors or other buyers.

FAREWELL PARTY-Eighty-five friends and fellow educators paid tribute to E. V. Ellison and his family Friday night at a dinner held at Thunderbird Inn. Ellison recently resigned after 28 years in the Northville school system and accepted a post as assistant superintendent in the Crestwood school district. Presentations included a wrist watch, luggage and an engraved plaque from the Teachers Club. Many former and retired Northville teachers and administrators as well as present faculty members attended the affair. They included Dr. Kenneth McLeod, now of Adrian college, Fred Stefanski of Schoolcraft college, Mr. and Mrs. LaGene Quay, now of Sparta, and Russell Amerman, former superintendent.

W. B. Heffner Gets New Post

W. B. Heffner Jr. of 21000 East Chigwidden drive was transferred on March 1, from the Western Electric Detroit area installation office to Western's Michigan distribution center at 909 North Sheldon road.

As production manager, he will have charge of approximately 500 employees performing repair functions on communications equipment returned by the local Michigan Bell Telephone company to Western. In his previous assignment Heffner was an area staff manager in the installation organization.

Heffner, who came to the Detroit area installation in November 1965, attended Hillside high school and later Newark College of Engineering, Newark, New Jersey where he earned his BS degree in mechanical engineering.

Heffner started his career with the company as an installer in 1946 in the Newark, New Jersey area. After this assignment he held various assignments as an engineer and supervisor in the systems equipment engineering organization in Newark, New Jersey. Just prior to his transfer to Michigan, he was assistant superintendent of college relations and training for service division in the west and was located in Sunnyvale, California.

He and his wife, Marjorie, have four children; Glen 16, Leigh 14, Janis 13 and Donn 11.

Political Overexposure May Scorch Romney

LANSING — Overexposure can be fatal to politicians as well as sun bathers and camera film.

Within the past decade, several presidential hopefuls have discovered this too late to avoid it. Early presidential primaries in several states have given the boot to quite a few politicians who thought the way to the nomination was to start early and run fast.

Considerable assessment is going on behind the scenes in the several groups now boosting Michigan's Gov. George Romney for the presidency to determine whether he might already be getting nowhere in a hurry.

On his recent tour westward, Romney returned greatly encouraged by the public response.

Response from the national press entourage which followed his every move on this trip indicated, however, that he may join the ranks of the overexposed by the time the 1968 nominations are handed out.

Living in Michigan it is difficult to properly assess Romney's impact as a national figure. His press relations have not always been to his satisfaction, but have generally been very much in his favor.

National correspondents, especially the columnists who have been through countless campaigns, are a much tougher breed than the newsmen Romney deals with daily in Lansing.

Already, several national columnists are making predictions about the Republican nomination and the greater percentage do not give the nod to Michigan's chief executive.

Computers, used so heavily in the prediction of election outcomes even before all votes are cast, have not come into general use yet in predicting convention delegate preferences.

Even the next year, however, the science of political prognostication could conceivably include extensive use of mechanical brains to predict convention outcomes months before the delegate votes are cast.

With Romney's apparent penchant for coming out well against difficult odds, the national columnists now sticking their necks out and, indeed, computers betting against him could be proven wrong.

PROSPECTS for a decrease in the present $3.75 auto fee to cross the Mackinac Bridge are considerably brighter this year than ever before.

On the one hand, the State Highway Commission is about ready to resell bonds on the remaining debt. Machinery has been set in motion to have new bonds ready for the market any time there is indication a decent interest rate can be negotiated.

Officials are looking for the bond market interest rate to drop to 3 1/4 per cent. Bonds sold in 1952 to finance the $100 million span carry a 4 1/4 per cent rate. Reselling bonds on the remaining debt would save the state about $1 million annually in interest rates.

Officials say a new issue of bonds would enable a slight reduction in the toll fee now imposed.

These fees, the lowest being that for a one-way auto crossing, have been a bone in the throat of Michigan lawmakers almost since the bridge opened in 1957.

Since the auto ferries once operated on the Straits of Mackinac have been sold, there is no alternative available to the general public wanting to travel between the state's two peninsulas.

Highway commission spokesmen have set no amount for any reduction made possible by a bond issue, but many people feel any decrease would be a step in the right direction.

ON ANOTHER FRONT, Wallace D. Nunn, Commission member from East Tawas, has gone on record saying he would support earmarking part of a proposed gasoline tax hike to retirement of the Bridge bonds.

Putting more money into paying off the remaining debt, which stands at about $98 million, would still enable a reduction in the toll fee, Nunn contends.

Emphasizing he spoke as an individual rather than as a member of the Highway Commission, Nunn said he thought the passenger car toll on the bridge could be reduced to about $2.40 if a new bond issue was sold at the lower rate.

If new bonds were sold and part of the gas tax was earmarked to pay off the bonds, the East Tawas spokesman estimated the toll could be but to 50 cents, or perhaps even eliminated entirely. A 50 cent fee, which he would prefer would essentially cover maintenance and administration costs, Nunn said.

'Hot' Draft Law Means Congressional Heartburn

BABSON PARK, Mass. — This year Congress has several "hot potatoes" to handle. One of the very hottest is Selective Service. The present draft law — which is widely criticized as unfair in several of its aspects and applications — expires July 1.

In a nation as large as ours probably no military draft law can be fully equitable, or be administered with complete impartiality. The present law has proved workable over a long span of years. In its essentials it is the same system that was used during World War II. However, until the past couple of years ... when our greatly expanded military commitment in Vietnam has focused more attention on the system and its weaknesses ... there has been no cry for serious and fundamental reforms.

Last year President Johnson appointed a 20-member National Advisory Commission on Selective Service to study the system and to suggest specific reforms. Also in 1966, a congressional study commission, headed by retired General Mark W. Clark, was given the task of making recommendations for changes in the law to the House Armed Services Committee.

AGREEMENT is pretty general — in and out of Congress — on the need for changes in the draft law. But there is no agreement at all on what reforms, improvements, or alternatives to the draft are possible and feasible. One point on which there are dramatic differences of opinion is the thorny question of student deferments.

As it stands now, any boy who gets through high school and manages to get accepted at college is safe from the draft so long as his grades are good. And if he wants to go on to graduate school, he'll be safe there too. Thus present Selective Service policy seems to favor "professional students", allowing them to postpone military service until they reach an age where they are much less likely to be called to arms.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Roger W. Babson, renowned economist and founder of the Publishers Financial Bureau of Babson Park, Mass., died March 5 at the age of 91. His column will be continued by his staff.

General Clark's commission recommends continuing student deferments, but only until the youth is 24 years old or has received his bachelor's degree, whichever comes first. Post-graduate students would be deferred only if they were training in professions considered essential to national security. Some people argue that the only way out of the student-deferment impasse is to institute universal military training with no exemptions. This idea makes sense and is worth serious consideration, but the nation is not yet ready to adopt it.

Defense Secretary McNamara and anthropologist Margaret Mead are among those who advocate compulsory national service, whereby all young people — girls as well as boys — would be required to register at age 18 for a two-year draft. Registrants could state a preference between military service, hitch in the Peace Corps, or participation in other such federal programs as might be established by Congress. Chances of enactment of such a proposal this year, however, are slim.

Congress now has less than four months to decide what to do. If it can't agree by the end of June, the present draft law will have to be extended. And it would certainly be much wiser to extend it than to amend it hastily or scrap it in favor of a program providing for youth regimentation.

Meanwhile, we must live in a world sharply divided by different ideologies and by different concepts of what is right and what is wrong. Clearly we must have a strong military system, with all the manpower requirements that implies. This fact should spur us to devise a better and fairer draft whose impact on civil life and on the economy will be as constructive as possible.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

For a change-of-pace column this week here are bits of a variety of things heard, read or thought.

The name selected for the recently appointed community study committee has real merit, at least from a newspaper standpoint.

It's Committee for Area Progress, or "CAP" for short.

That's what we like about it, CAP fits nicely into a headline and easily into news stories, unlike such cumbersome titles as "Northville Area Economic Development Corporation".

*****
If Northville police department ever wants a testimonial to its efficiency, Dave Biery's their boy.

The assistant manager of local branch of Manufacturers National Bank was the victim of a set of circumstances one morning last week that left him shaking.

It was one of those days for Dave. His wife was having car trouble. He wanted to give her a hand, but first he had to stop at the bank's drive-in branch and open the vault.

In a hurry and driving a borrowed car, Dave parked at the rear of the Hutton street drive-in, left the car door open and ran into the bank.

While he went through the normal procedure for opening the vault, something happened to set off the burglar alarm, which rings at the police station but not at the bank.

Two minutes later as he ran from the bank headed towards the open-door car he was confronted by three gun-drawn policemen.

With his eyes crossed at the end of a gun barrel, Dave tried to explain that he worked at the bank.

"Don't move. Now turn around, raise your hands and put them against the wall", ordered Chief Sam Elkins.

While he was being frisked, the girls inside the bank were confused and upset by the commotion. Finally, they identified Biery and Chief Elkins and his two speedy patrolmen apologized.

Biery's remarks weren't recorded.

There's another story involving the bank. It's a mystery.

Fish keep disappearing from the aquarium.

First it was a Beta "Siamese Fighting Fish". A great favorite of all employees and customers of the bank, the fish just turned up missing one morning. A thorough search that included the inside of the vacuum cleaner gave no clue.

Now a large Red Sword is missing.

Biery says the bank can account for every penny in its vaults, but it can't find the big "Sword".

I suggested that its six finned friends might have gotten a little hungry between meals. But he says the sword was too big for that.

But taking fish from a bank! That's like eating a peanut butter sandwich at a banquet.

*****
It wasn't fish that a culprit or culprits lifted from the wallets of the University of Michigan's Men's Glee Club last Thursday night.

A preliminary tally indicates that $120 was taken from the young singers while they were entertaining on stage.

It was a disappointing turn of events for the sponsoring Mothers Club organization. The world-famous glee club has five times as many offers for appearances as it can accommodate. By vote the youngsters have chosen to come to Northville because Mothers Club members annually prepare "the best meal we get all year".

The turnout for the performance was poor, hardly clearing expenses.

But more discouraging is the fact that Northville will now be remembered by the young artists as the place they were robbed, rather than the nice little town with the home-cooked meal.

And incidentally, their performance was excellent.

Those who attended received far more enjoyment for their price of admission than the culprits will from the money they sneaked from the wallets.

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

He smiled and said, "Well, if it were me I'd just write a letter to the headquarters in San Antonio and ask to be transferred down there. If they have a position open they'll send for you."

The sneer on the sergeant's face showed he had tipped me off; it was just his way of getting a one-way ticket to the stockade for me.

Ever since that day when he'd accused me of "stealing" his girl in one of his drunken dreams things had been going badly for me. Like the time he made me haul the foot locker out front of the barracks and stand it at attention. Did it in pretty good time, too, but he made me polish the latrine brass just the same. Said my locker failed to salute him.

Finally tiring of his harrassment, I went to him with a suggestion:

Sergeant, my wife is in the Air Force, stationed in San Antonio. What's the chance of getting a transfer to Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio? Isn't there something in military regulations that husband and wife can be stationed in the same place?

He assured me it could be done. Just write a letter, he said.

So I wrote the letter, carefully noting the outstanding qualities that had landed me a job in an infantry line company, sealed it in an envelope and sent it by special delivery to the commanding officer at Fort Sam.

A week past, then two weeks. I went to the sergeant. You sure the letter will work, I asked hopefully.

"Sure, kid. You'll hear," he laughed, "you'll hear."

Finally, after about a month, the good sergeant sought me out. "Told you the letter would work," he said, "the captain wants to see you. You'll be on your way in no time."

Corporal Hoffman reporting as requested, sir, I snapped, clicking my heels together and giving him one of those British salutes that sort of high-jumps to the forehead and then parachutes to the floor.

The captain didn't look up, just fingered a wad of papers in his fist and then pitched them to my feet. "Pick them up, Private Hoffman, you'll be interested in seeing them."

Something in his voice told me he was suffering a migraine or maybe indigestion.

"Count them," he barked, "and when you're done, count them again."

One, two, three...

"Stop that, you imbecile," he screamed, shaking his swagger stick menacingly. "I'll tell you how many there are. There are seven, that's how many there are. Seven."

Seven what, I thought without daring to look at the papers.

"Why didn't you write to the president?" he asked, his voice rising an octave. "You couldn't have caused any more trouble."

"One of those is a memo from the Fort Sam office of the commanding general to the Fort's post office brass. Seems they made him sign for a letter from one of my stupid men. There's one from Fort Sam's post office brass to the Fifth Army Headquarters at Chicago. And there's one from Chicago to the commanding general's office of this post. And another to the general of this division. And one from the general to the colonel of this regiment, and then one from the regiment to me. And do you know what they say?"

No, sir, I said meekly, amazed by the postal efficiency.

"I'll tell you what they say. They say that you're company commander is stupid, that he is a misfit, that he has failed to teach his enlisted men that all military correspondence must go through the proper channels. That's what they say."

The more he screamed the more I was convinced that the charges of "misfit" were pretty accurate.

"And do you know what the seventh says? Do you know who wrote it?"

"I'll tell you who wrote it. I wrote it. That's who. And do you know who it is channeled to? I'll tell you. It's to Sergeant Hill. From me. And it tells Sergeant Hill that you and me are friends. That you and me are so friendly that he had better see to it that you get all the friendly, dirty jobs he can find. Now, get out of here and tell Sergeant Hill to come in."

My wife was reading some of my old Army letters the other night and came across one that began:

"Don't bother to rent that apartment. The captain said I'm too valuable to transfer out...."

Slaps City Street Snow Removal

To the Editor:

As I am a longtime resident here, I thought I would add my few words to the general gripes and comments about the city of Northville.

As I live on one of its main streets, I have a good general view about how they are taken care of. The going comment seems to be about the snow removal. I can comment on that, too. Everybody, everywhere is having trouble with it but I have yet to see the city crew of men breaking their backs to remove the snow or clean the streets. During the last bad snow storm I saw city trucks come thru and spread salt on the street where I live but that is all I did see, except that the men who did have shovels simply pushed the snow over to the curb and let it pile up in front of the houses.

If the policeman who lives across the street from me had not gotten out with his own shovel he would not even have been able to get the police car in and out of his drive way.

The school buses had a bad time getting through and on this, one of the city's main thoroughfares, the cars were lined up, both ways, as far as I could see them; and the lines stood for many minutes at a time, for I stood in my front door and watched them. They could not get thru because of all the snow, slush and ice on the street.

While I am at it, I will also remark about the alleys and parking lots in the city, which it was almost impossible to use.

What is the matter with spreading a little salt in these lots and giving the men a chance to earn their money by doing a little shoveling? Perhaps the city would be money in their pocket by getting some of the teen-agers together, from age 12 and up, and offering to let them earn some spending money by doing some of the city work.

My 12-year-old boy did a better job of keeping the public walk on our end of the block clean than I have seen any city man do. He does not get paid for it. If we keep on like this we will soon have to dig ourselves out.

Last summer, on city clean-up day, the men were having a real gay time and making a big show of cleaning and washing down a couple of blocks in the business district with the city trucks and all the men out in full force, including the head of the city department, for which they had their pictures in the paper, as they always manage to do. Is that all that is important to the city and the city council?

There is always a lot of talk about repaving and resurfacing some city street or other. Why not fill in some of the low spots near the curbs and on the walks and make it safe for the people who are walking to do so?

Why do we not have the things that

Teens Need Center

To the Editor:

Is Northville concerned enough with the whereabouts and the welfare of our teenagers to establish for them a place to socialize? These kids have no place to go just to relax and have a good time.

One solution to the problem of these "kids on the streets" might be to establish a teen center, similar to the YMCA of other communities, with recreational facilities for all teens. The Junior High school students particularly need some place to go. Sure, we've got problems in the high school, but think of how many more we'll have in the next 2 to 4 years if these younger people aren't given some worthwhile activities and guidance now.

For the older teens, what about a teenager coffeehouse? This could be a place for socializing with light refreshments being sold. With strict rules and understanding it could both serve the teens of the community and be a money-making proposition.

Much credit is deserved by those who are making the Cavern Dances a great success, but, let's admit, they are no more than that - dances - and these teens need more than the physical exercise a dance provides (for some) or a place to go just to "see who's there" (we all know that all teenagers don't dance!)

To whom can we appeal? The Northville Area Economic Development Corporation? We read in the March 9 issue that they were considering property on Cady street for future development. This - a house re-made into a teen center would be ideal. The old fish hatchery property is another possibility.

Constructive Action Needed

To the Editor:

As the parents of two students in the high school, my husband and I attended the meeting called last night, March 8, to discuss the social problems of the students.

Having lived in this community for a comparatively short time, we have always been impressed and pleased at the interest and concern taken in the children and their problems. However, we were appalled to hear last night the abuse heaped on the very people to whom we are entrusting the care and education of our children. We are aware of the effects of constructive criticism, but the display of boorish manners and lack of respect made us ashamed as parents in the group.

How can we, as parents, expect our children to be respectful of authority, when, in fact, there is none shown on our part?

As a mother, I think the time has come for us to put aside our petty grievances and prejudices, and give some thought to constructive action in dealing with the problems of the students, whatever they may be.

Much Concerned

Let's hear something good about the youth of our city, but let's give them a helping hand and a place to start.

Mr. & Mrs. Don Valentine Editor's Note - The Mothers' Club, sponsors of The Cavern, has been attempting to acquire a teen center as described above. Their efforts have been publicized in The Record and their proposal made known to community officials.

Criticizes Novi Board of Review

To the Editor:

On March 7th I appeared before the Novi Township Board of Review along with many other citizens who were seeking relief of unfair property assessments. To our surprise we ran into a rubber stamp board consisting of Supervisor Hadley J. Backert, Peter Romanow and Kenneth Cook. You could see by their actions and remarks that their minds were made up not to do anything for anyone.

Take for example my few acres compared to Mr. Chase hundreds of acres that boards my land. They assessed me $2,400 an acre compared to only $1,500 an acre to Mr. Chase. They claimed you can get more money for a small plot of land than a large one. I maintained that large developers will pay 25 times more for a large plot of land than a small one. Of course my house was assessed in the same manner 200 per cent higher. The other citizens who appeared before this bias board complained in the same manner.

Mr. Ackley said that the Village Board of Review has to take the assessments laid down by the Township Supervisor (Mr. Backert).

With this unfair treatment, one could almost be persuaded to go for Cityhood, but regardless of what type of government you have, it will never change, unless you have a different breed of men separated from the old school heading your government.

P.S. I suggest to all citizens that appeared before this board and are not satisfied, make you appeal before the Michigan State Tax Commission. Let's storm this commission, and maybe they will see the light.

'Let's Save Bits Of Yesterday'

To the Editor:

Every Southeast Michigan resident can help to buy and preserve a priceless bit of Michigan's yesterday, by sending contributions to the Eastern Michigan Nature Association's TIMBERLAND COMMITTEE, Box 128, Davidsburg, Michigan, 48019.

Timberland Swamp Nature Sanctuary, in the Andersonville Swamp near Davidsburg, is one of the few true wilderness areas left in Oakland County. Its 160 acres contain songbirds, rare plants, some virgin hardwood trees, deer and small animals. Its star attraction every year is the blooming of millions of wildflowers, some of them extinct elsewhere, between April 25 and May 20.

Such unspoiled areas are fast disappearing. We must act today to save these bits of yesterday for tomorrow. They cannot be replaced.

Sincerely,
Miriam D. Stark

we already have taken care of instead of building more and making more streets which will not be taken care of any better than the now existing ones.

Tangled in Red Tape

To the Editor:

Well, here we go again! I am not keeping track of the rounds, but it looks like a full 15 rounds to me. Because of my ability to stay on my feet, I am again going to defend myself, my spouse and my family.

As many have remarked to me - "Well, Bruce, you made the Northville Beat again this week." Yet - that's true, but a few facts regarding the latest below the belt punch best be stated, inasmuch as I do have my side of "Behind the Wallpaper" incidentally, that's the title of a book spouse Beverly and I are writing. It should out-sell "Peyton Place."

Well, we thought we should add on a little space down here to enhance our appearance and improve our facilities. We received many encouraging signs for the undertaking from our customers, and some of the pasties up the street sure have been cooperative. Oh Brother!! First of all, we were told we could not receive a Building Permit. You would have thought we were going to build a branch for the National Bank of Detroit! Anyway, the new boy running the city gave permission to go ahead. He had only been here a few weeks, not yet properly schooled on doing business in Northville.

We started and planned on the winter months to finish up the interior ourselves. Spouse Beverly swings a mean paint brush. Yes, we needed lights - but the joint had lights when we moved in - we used them for 7 years for display purposes! Nothing said. I thought any day a scrooge from up the street might come down and try to turn off the Christmas display! We were notified under commercial code an electrical contractor had to apply for a permit and do any new lights. Some folks have suggested candles or lanterns. You gotta admit, it might come to that! Trying to do the right thing, we called an electrician and I told him of our plight. We were in no great rush - it's been a long cold winter and as long as spouse Beverly let the folks up the street know of our plans and we were assured we wouldn't have to resort to candles, things pretty much stopped. Except for spouse Beverly swinging the paint brush! She's really great!

Then they lowered the boom! Appear in court. I went and told the Great White Father I was not ready for burning at the stake and he was so generous he gave me a full week to prepare for court trial. We never did receive a formal invitation to come again for an audience and we still were not able to receive the help of a contractor - not the biggest job in the world you know! We were in no hurry and still using the old candle power used when the tombstones were located on this corner. Now you see tombstones growing in the most peculiar places.

You know, I could never take out a commercial permit - a contractor must do this. Well, he did get one three weeks prior to D-Day. That was the morning at 9:15 without even a warning signal from the Fire Hall, Great White Father's Princess calls up and says I was to be in court at 9:30. That would have been nice, I at least could have had time to brush my teeth and probably made it, except as I explained to Princess my wife was away and I couldn't bolt the door and walk out. "Well, that was my problem," said she. Now here I was handed the keys to the city. Appear or they would send out the squad for pick-up. I made it up to see the Princess and she called Great White Father and he was so generous again. $100.00 bond! That I had, much to their disappointment. I wasn't going anywhere, McAllister's have been in this area for 37 years and I hope some of them won't make it for that long!

This has been a dandy story and many things have gone unsaid. I am beginning to believe it's worth $75 to the public. The facts are here, and I hope everyone has been able to extract the meat from the potatoes.

We haven't been using our new addition, it is not completed. We are considering putting in a "Broom Shop". "What for," you ask? When they get through up on the hill at the "Glass House" they better consider cleaning "Tombstone Alley."

Bruce & Beverly McAllister P.S. - If you think this is good - wait until you read "Behind the Wallpaper".

Robert Frost is dead. Yet, this most gentle of human beings, a man whose life was a sea of troubles, a sky of dreams, and a land of compassion returned from the hills that are his home to renew old acquaintances at Ann Arbor Sunday.

The medium through which Frost communed was the play, "An Evening's Frost," written by Donald Hall, himself a poet. A friend of Frost's, it says on the program, and completely attuned to the same poetic muse, we might add. How else can one explain a play recreating Frost in his own image and likeness?

It was veteran actor Will Geer, however, who breathed life into the role of Frost. He played the part at New York's Theatre de Lys after the play was introduced at the University of Michigan under the auspices of the Professional Theatre Program.

There was no mistaking Frost, his alabaster hair, fragile and thin, set low and swept back from a strong forehead; his face creased and jowls sagging with wrinkled age; his eyes, deep and glimmering and thoughtful, hiding under their lids and opening, occasionally, with wonder; his small, bent body tenting his sagging clothes; his shuffle carrying him lightly forward and slowly backward, and his nose protruding bluntly.

Were the man mistaken (an unlikelyhood), the poetry of the four-time winner of the Pulitzer prize gave him away. "Poetry should begin in delight and end in wisdom, just like love," he said. And it did, for Frost, the poet returned, and the audience.

Some poems were somber as a church bell, tolling the death of a friend dearly loved, and others were grim as a mother, harboring the ill of a misbegotten life. Some were as light as a frolic child, others were as nimble as an agile grasshopper. But they were all memorable.

Hall felt constrained to arrange chronologically the story of Frost's life. The narrator, Thomas Cooley, added cogent comment to what the venerable poet said, giving the play perspective, and even parried words with the spritely old man.

On stage with Frost and Cooley was a woman, played by Ann Gee Byrd, who proved her versatility as an actress. (She was an actress, for she took many parts, although at first she could easily be confused with Frost's wife.) She was superb, especially as the distraught Amy in "Home Burial" and as the old, demented woman in "The Witch of Coos," two of the many dramatic interludes that the audience applauded roundly.

There was a young man on stage, Jack Davidson, posing as the young Frost, but he never fooled anybody. When he mouthed Frost's poetry, he lapsed often into sing-song, easily done when strong rhythm becomes master. Swept up by the words, realistically written, his voice approached the fervor of the prophet, something Frost was not.

But it was Geer as Frost who quickened the pulse and recreated the New England bard. He even played Silas, the hired man in "Death of the Hired Man" - and for a moment, we forgot - but quickly he reminded us that he was really Frost.

The deception was perfected by the faintest trace of scenery. A cluster of steps was in the middle of the stage, a carved pole jutting up in the middle. It suggested a porch outside and the stairs inside of Frost's home. To one side was a table and three chairs, to the other, a lectern. That's all.

The music was simple, a wan, pastoral flute piercing the silence with a premonition of Frost's coming. And he did return, borne on the wings of his words.
