TOP WINNERS—Sharing the spotlight with their prizes and Subscription Contest Manager Mary Ware Saturday evening were these

It's McAtee, Baluha In Record Contest

Battling a surprising and determined last-week effort by Steven Baluha, the Wesley McAtee family of Wixom took first place in The Northville Record-Now! News subscription contest that closed Saturday.

The McAtees took home a Coronado color television console for their efforts, while runner-up Steve took home a black and white portable television set.

Other top winners and their prizes were:

Richard Alspaugh, 601 Reed Court, a power lawn mower; Ian Dingwall, 225 Ely Drive, AM-FM clock radio; Verna Biddle, 4700 Nme Mile road, fishing rod and reel; and Debbie Arien, 44560 Country Lane, and Mary Egbert, 20910 East Chngwiddden, each won transistor radios.

In his final week's effort, 14-year-old Steve, who lives at 463 Maplewood, turned in 31 new one year subscriptions, eight two-year subscriptions, and 19 two-year renewals for a total of 585 points.

The McAtees, who live at 3031 West Maple road, turned in 16 new one year subscriptions, 19 two-year subscriptions, and four two-year renewals for a total of 525 points.

Steve's final drive fell short of the mark, however, as the McAtees took first place with a grand total of 1,455 points compared to Steve's 1,395 points.

Altogether, the McAtees sold 30 one-year subscriptions, 63 two-year subscriptions, one four-year subscription and seven two-year renewals, while Steve sold 70 one-year subscriptions, 17 two-year subscriptions, and 58 two-year renewals.

The third-place winner picked up a grand total of 555 points, while the fourth place winner came up with 500 points.

McAtee, who is mayor of the city of Wixom, said his family's effort served a dual purpose. It helped them win a color television, he said, and it helped to build up the Novi News subscriptions in Wixom. "That's important because it's our official newspaper and the people ought to be reading it."

In addition to prizes received by the top contestants, all contestants will be paid 50 cents for each new one-year subscription or for each two-year renewal; 75 cents for each two-year new subscription; and $1.50 for a four-year new subscription.

Second-place Steven Baluha, who earned fewer points than did the McAtees — primarily because more of his sales were for one-year subscriptions and two-year renewals — he nevertheless earned himself more money. In addition to the portable TV he earned $76.75, while the McAtees earned $66.25.

Richard Alspaugh earned $22.95, Ian Dingwall earned $23.50, and Verna Biddle earned $9.50.

Checks will be mailed to all contestants.

Prizes for the contest were ordered through Stone's Gambles store in Northville.

NEW LIGHTS in the business district will double the illumination. Councilman Del Black sighed "At last" when he witnessed the installation. See "Speaking" 8-B.

Bus Leasing Program Adopted by Schools

A bus leasing-replacement program, which reportedly will save the Northville school district an estimated $42,000 over a six year period, received board of education approval Monday.

It calls for leasing of four and possibly five new buses from the McFadden Corporation this year, two more next year, two in 1970 and two in 1971.

Trustee Robert Froelich cast the lone dissenting vote in board approval of the plan. His objection was based upon the fact that the board acted without getting bids on similar lease-replacement plans that might be offered by other companies.

Business Manager Earl Busard, who recommended approval of the plan, stated that no other Michigan company offered a plan of this kind.

Basically, the program means that the school system will ask for bids on chassis (McFadden obtains bids on the body, which are limited to Wayne) based upon its own specifications, award the bids, and McFadden will then finance the buses, replacing them with new buses after four years and picking up the unpaid balance on the original four buses. At this point McFadden will resell the original buses to some other school district and finance the new buses in the same manner as before.

According to officials, McFadden makes its profit in financing new buses and in reselling the old ones.

Advantages to the Northville school district reportedly include:

---Savings of $42,000 over six years, not counting savings in maintenance expenditures.

---Replacement of vehicles prior to incurring maintenance costs.

---Making it possible to forecast needs and budget more effectively, thus establishing a more nearly "pay-as-you-go basis".

---More efficiency in operation; less breakdowns, and more efficient buses, which means safer vehicles for the transportation of children.

---Less requirement of time and effort by key personnel.

Under the McFadden plan the board may, if it desires, continue payment on the "leased" buses after the four-year period until they are paid for in full and become the property of the school district.

In recommending approval of a six-year "master plan program with McFadden" together with a four-year replacement policy, Busard noted that ---Northville has had no master plan for bus replacement in the past.

---Current methods of financing replacements cause peaks and valleys in the capital outlay budget, whereas the McFadden plan makes possible budget forecasts for the next six years or more.

---Four present buses are in need of extensive overhaul estimated at $4,000, with one bus considered past the point of repair.

---Past practice has been to maintain an "outdated and in most cases a totally unuseable and unsafe bus for a spare."

---Past practice of keeping a bus for six, seven and eight years has caused "vast sums" to be spent for repair costs.

---Past practice has caused difficulty in trying to stock spare parts.

In another matter concerning buses, the school board approved a professional evaluation of the bus fleet operation, including bus routing to be conducted under the direction of a transportation consultant. Estimated cost of the project was put at "less than $1,000".

Sunday will be a special day for all mothers, but for these two Northville-Now! moms, it will mean more than two-dozen "Happy Mother's Day" tributes. That's because Mrs. John McGuire (L) is the mother of 14 children and Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin, an even dozen. See Page 1B.

'Spanking' OK'd By School Board

A student behavior policy, which permits corporal punishment (spanking, etc.) by or under the direction of the principal, was approved by the Northville board of education Monday night.

The written policy, which supports many of the unwritten procedures that have been carried out in the school system in the past, drew one negative vote — that of Trustee James Kipfer who objected to the permissive corporal punishment clause.

Kipfer contended that spanking is a poor method of disciplining. It's "never appropriate to belt a kid," he asserted.

Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear said the policy establishes guidelines for administrators and teachers "within the realm of control". He noted that the permissive corporal punishment clause is supported by state law and he hoped the board "would not remove this right" granted to teachers and administrators.

(Novi recently adopted a similar policy and it too was opposed by a single board member).

Under the punishment section of the policy, it is noted that group punishment for the offenses of a few is not justified.

"Detention for misconduct or neglect of duty may be imposed at the close of the afternoon session for a period not to exceed one half-hour in

Two More Bid for Board Seats

Two more persons have pitched their hats into the election ring for the Northville board of education and the Schoolcraft college board of trustees.

The newest announced candidates are Charles Toussaint, 528 Horton, who is seeking one of two four-year seats on the Northville school board, and Paul R. Hunt, 344 Debra Lane, for the single six-year seat on the board of trustees.

The latest entries brought the total seeking the four-year terms to three candidates. Toussaint and Incumbent Trustee Richard Martin have filed, and Andrew Orphan has announced his candidacy. The lone announced candidate for the single two-year post on the board is Glenn Deibert.

Toussaint is a past candidate for the Northville city council, and Hunt is a past candidate for the board of education.

In the board of trustees race, Hunt and William Secord have announced their candidacy for the single six-year term.

Petitions for two candidates are still out in Novi for the seat now held by Trustee Carl Rowley who is moving from the area upon completion of his term in June. The only announced candidate is Fred Buck of Willowbrook.

Nominating petitions are available at the board of education offices of both school districts. Petitions, which must contain a minimum of 20 signatures for the board of education seats, must be filed no later than 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 13, in Northville and 4 p.m. on Monday, May 15, in Novi.

Petitions for the Schoolcraft post must contain a minimum of 50 and not more than 200 signatures of registered electors. They are available at either Schoolcraft or at the Northville board of education offices.

Deadline Near

Final days for registering for the Northville and Novi school election — June 12 — fall on different dates.

In the Northville school district, citizens must register by 5 p.m. Monday, and in the Novi school district by 5 p.m. Saturday.

Citizens of the respective communities may register at the city halls or at the Township offices

Township Cool Towards City Unification Study

The oft-talked about marriage of the city and township of Northville may be headed for the rocks even though the couple has yet to send out its wedding invitations.

At least that could be one conclusion following Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam's observation last week that a combination of Northville township and the Plymouth community would be more advantageous than unification with the city of Northville.

The supervisor's remarks came close on the heels of a presentation concerning the proposed unification study spearheaded by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

A similar presentation will be made at Monday's meeting of the Northville city council.

Purpose of the presentation was to show a need for the study, emphasize the growing support for the study, and to ask Northville township if it planned to endorse the study either by joining it or by simply offering its blessing.

Trustee Bernard Baldwin pressed Carl D. Pursell, president of the chamber, for clarification of the study, asking if unification implies more than cooperation between governments.

Pursell suggested that the township might wish to become a part of the study to ascertain the advantages and disadvantages for a single government made up of the city and township of Northville.

Whereupon Baldwin commented that a portion of Northville (southern part) is closely tied to the Plymouth community but that the greater portion of the township is more closely allied with the city of Northville. He wondered aloud if by joining the study the township would be giving its support to unification with Plymouth.

The trustee noted that township long-range plans point towards close ties with the city of Northville.

These plans, however, could change with changes in population, quipped Merriam, who then pointed out that Plymouth offers a better tax base than

Doggone! Clinic's THIS Saturday

Ready again? We're calling all dogs THIS Saturday, for sure.

Last week The Record goofed and several dog owners showed up at the city hall fire station expecting to have their dogs vaccinated and purchase 1967 licenses.

The clinic is Saturday, May 13 from 9 a.m. until noon. A two year vaccine will be administered at a fee of $4. The clinic is sponsored jointly by the city and township.

Deadline for new licenses is May 31 both the city and township and vaccinations for all dogs is mandatory under city-township ordinances.

does the city of Northville.

Asked by Baldwin if he was suggesting ignoring the city of Northville, Merriam replied that he favored unification of the entire area — city and township of Northville, city and township of Plymouth, and Canton township — over unification of the two Northvilles.

Citizen Eugene Guido, a township member of one of the intergovernmental committees sponsored by the Plymouth chamber, agreed with the supervisor pointing out that unification of all five communities would produce a more attractive tax base.

Harold Fischer, another representative of the Chamber, suggested unification means a combination of those communities of "like interests" such as the city and township of Northville. It is logical, he said, for a combination of those areas within the same school district. (Part of Northville township lies within Plymouth school district).

Despite informal talk of unification with Plymouth, there's no certainty that the city will be left at the altar. Its would-be partner decided Tuesday to defer action on the study proposal until after the city takes a look at the chamber presentation Monday.

There's one certainty, however. Pursell told The Record the study will go ahead with or without the two Northvilles.

Sam Stephens to Direct Advertising - Printing Sales

Samuel K. Stephens will join The Northville Record Novi News and South Lyon Herald Monday as advertising manager of the community weekly newspapers.

The appointment was announced by William C. Slinger, publisher of the newspapers.

"I'm particularly happy to have Sam joining our staff for many reasons", explained Slinger. "First of all I've known him for many years and we once worked together on The Plymouth Mail. Secondly, he brings a wealth of knowledge and ability to The Record that I believe will round out our staff and make it second to none in the weekly newspaper field. His experience in advertising and commercial printing will be extremely valuable to our customers. Also important is his acquaintance with the community having graduated from Northville high school".

For the past nine years Stephens has been employed in the Detroit offices of D. P. Brother & Co., a national advertising agency. He has been copywriter and copy chief for new car sales promotion, used car merchandising, new car accessory promotion, sales training, direct mail, publications, local dealer advertising materials, and national magazine advertising for automotive options and accessories.

Prior to joining D. P. Brother, Stephens worked for one year as a copywriter for The Cerre Company of Detroit. For six years he worked on the staff of The Plymouth Mail as advertising salesman and manager handling general retail accounts and national advertising.

He was also employed for one year by the J. L. Hudson company in Detroit as a copywriter for men's clothing, sporting goods, photographic equipment, luggage and furniture.

Stephens is 41 and lives with his wife, Diane, and four children at 16200 Homer in Northville township. He was graduated from Northville high school in 1943 and from the University of Minnesota and University of Michigan Graduate School of Business Administration. He is a veteran of World War II and is a naval reserve officer.

In addition to advertising, Stephens will concentrate on servicing and expanding The Record's commercial printing business.

While Stephens assumes the responsibilities of advertising and printing sales, Jack Hoffman, managing editor of The Record News and Herald publications, will direct all news operations. Dennis Pajot serves as editor of The Herald and is assisted by Marilyn Herald, Roland Peterson and Jean Day round out the news staff at The Record.

News Around Northville

Mr. and Mrs. Leland H. Mills, 225 Church street were among the 700 parents attending the annual Parents' Weekend, April 29-30, at Adrian College in Adrian.

Their daughter Shary Lee is a sophomore majoring in music at Adrian, a 122-year-old Methodist-related liberal arts college.

Parents and students were given the opportunity on Saturday to meet with their professors and to discuss the individual academic development of each student.

RECEIVES WINGS—Miss Cathy Dawn Souder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Souder of Plymouth has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess after completing training at American's Stewardess college, Fort Worth, Texas. She has been assigned to flight duty out of New York City. Miss Souder, who was born in Detroit, graduated from Northville high school in 1964.

Charles D. Lute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lute of 19380 Newburgh road, was graduated from the University of Detroit recently. He received a degree in civil engineering.

He is currently on a two-month tour of Europe. Following the tour he will take a position at Baker, Oregon.

Jill Rockefeller, recent graduate of Schoolcraft college, has been selected as a Schoolcraft representative in Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.

Daughter of Mrs. Stuart Rockefeller, 43450 Reservoir road, will attend Western Michigan university. She received an associate degree in science at Schoolcraft earlier this month.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald LeVan (nee Gail Ann Hartner) of Detroit announce the birth of a baby boy on Wednesday, May 3 in Sinai Hospital. The baby, named Daniel Gerald, weighed 9 pounds, 13 ounces.

Grandparents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LeVan of Chestnut Ridge, New York and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartner of Northville.

From Kaiserslautern, Germany, comes news of the birth of a daughter to Sgt. and Mrs. Duane L. Butler, Jr. The baby, named Teresa Lynn, was born April 6 and weighed 10 pounds, 4 and a half ounces.

Mrs. Butler is the former Bonnie Emory of Petersburg, Virginia. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Duane L. Butler of Summerside Lane, Northville, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Preston Emory of Petersburg.

The baby has a brother, Duane III, who is 22 months old. Sergeant Butler is serving with the Army Signal Corps in Germany. He was a Northville high school student.

CAR OFFICERS—The Plymouth Corners Society of the Children of The American Revolution elected new officers Saturday morning, picking Thomas Jordan (left) as the new president, replacing the outgoing president Patricia Entz. Other new officers (1 to 7) are: Wendell Wegeng, first vice-president; Blair Robinson, treasurer; Jacki Merwin, chaplain; and Mellissa Lovett, registrar.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Salo of Wixom announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann Louise, to William D. Mahn of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Ann is a 1963 graduate of Walled Lake high school and Western Michigan university. Her fiance will be attending Wayne State university in the fall and is presently youth director of Nazareth Lutheran Church in Detroit.

An August 19 wedding is being planned.

Piano Recital Slated Sunday

Piano students of Mrs. Leland Mills will present a recital Sunday at 3:30 in the First Methodist church.

The program will include standard classic works by Bach, Beethoven, and Chopin, but will emphasize music of modern contemporary composers.

Solos will be played by John Bedford, Marie Bedford, Bruce Edwards, Susan Edwards, Martha Gazlay, Craig Eshleman, Mary Hubbard, Mark Jones, Barbara Lang, Peggy Lepper, Shannon Lovett, Courtney Lytle, Dawn Lytle, Julia McDaniel, Mark McDaniel, Dorothy Shipley, Wendy Wheaton and Lisa Willis.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

THE LILACS, AZALEAS and dog wood are in full bloom in the East; so spring should come to Northville in about two weeks. That's the encouraging prediction of a foursome just back from the national Questers convention in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles Ely and Mrs. George Miller attended the convention May 1-3 as delegates from the Base Line chapter of the antiques society. They were accompanied by Mrs. Orson Atchinson and a former Northville resident, Mrs. William Seibert of Birmingham.

In addition to touring Society Hill and Chester county homes the group made a stop at Peddler's Village in Lahaska, Pennsylvania. The charm of this community of colonial and antique shops was enhanced, the travelers report, by the colorful flowers.

Undoubtedly 1967 is Mrs. Ely's Travel Year. Last Month she and her husband took a flying three-week trip to Mexico, visiting Mexico City and Puerto Villarta, a native town on the coast which is growing in popularity. There they stayed at the El Prado del Villarta and browsed in tiny Mexican shops.

Next the Elys are looking forward to visiting Expo 67, combining the visit to Montreal with a cruise along the seaway on the South American. Their plans also include a late summer trip to Europe.

FLORAL HOW TO DO IT demonstrations of pressed flowers on note paper and spring flower arrangements are planned for a workshop meeting of the Northville branch, Michigan Farm and Garden association, at 10 a.m. Monday in the V.F.W. hall.

Mrs. Kimsey Bell will demonstrate her technique of pressing flowers on note paper. (On her own stationery she even places a miniature "signature" arrangement at the bottom of the back sheet.)

Mrs. E. O. Whittington will show members how to create the floral arrangements step by step. Members interested are asked to make reservations by calling 349-0387 so that sufficient flowers will be available. Those attending should bring needleholders, containers and a sandwich. (Coffee will be provided.)

ONE OF THE SPECIAL pleasures that many young teachers find in their profession is the interest of their students in their lives. This proved to be especially true for Elsa Couse who teaches biology at Bentley high school in Livonia. Her students were so excited about her marriage to Richard Stuber, which will be at 2 p.m. this Saturday at Northville Presbyterian church, that they "couldn't wait" to give her the towel gift the girls themselves chose.

Elsa, the daughter of Mrs. Walter Couse, has been feted in a round of showers and teas given by many long-time friends. Friday evening parents of the bridegroom to be, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Smith, will entertain at a buffet dinner at their home on Orchard drive following the rehearsal for members of the wedding party and out-of-state guests.

Last month Elsa was honored at a tea given at the Martha Cook dorm at University of Michigan by Mrs. Ellen Scott and Mrs. E. H. Wood. Mrs. Scott, who formerly made her home in Northville, is assistant director at Martha Cook. Each guest brought the bride-elect a favorite recipe. Elsa also, was entertained at a tea given by Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz and Mrs. Theodore N. Kamp, at the latter's home on Hagerly road.

Dick and Elsa, who were Northville high classmates, were given a couple shower April 28 by the Thomas Hensons of Westland. Following the "something old" tradition, guests first gave the couple an old "fun" item, followed by the new gift.

Earlier the bride-to-be was honored at a linen-kitchen shower given by Mrs. Orson Atchinson, Mrs. D. Harper Britton and Mrs. Elroy Ellison at the Atchinson home. Mrs. W. J. Howard and Mrs. C. Harold Bloom hosted a kitchen shower at the latter's home on West Main street.

MOTHER'S DAY is this Sunday, but many mothers of Our Lady of Victory church were "appreciated" a week early as men of the church served breakfast to 330 at the annual mother-daughter breakfast following Mass last Sunday. For the third year Ted Marzonia was chairman of the event which brought fathers to the church at 6 a.m. to prepare the breakfast. Co-chairman was Dr. Arnold Konczal.

A Northville Estates father who "helped" by staying home was Earl Egbert, who cooked breakfast for eight neighborhood youngsters so that their mothers could attend the OLV event. In addition to his own sons, Jim and John, he invited Chuck Karret, Ted, Tom, Doug, John and Robbie Marzonia to breakfast and an outing in the park.

NORTHVILLE TOWN HALL tickets for the 1967-68 season already are more than half sold and are selling "so steadily", the committee expects they will be a sell out as early as they were last year.

Mrs. Fred Tuck, publicity chairman, said that the first report session in April revealed more than 250 sold of the 550 available—and now about 300 are gone. The Tucks, who spent April in Sarasota, Florida, tell rain weary Michigan citizens that Florida is in a dry situation with water rationing a possibility.

MOTHERS' CLUB MARATHON bridge tournament is in its final month of play. Mrs. Blake Couse, chairman, reminds that all games must be played by May 20 with scores reported to her. Evening players will play their league games individually. The afternoon league is to complete play at an afternoon play-off at the Couse home in Edenderry at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 17. Dessert will precede the play.

PAST MATRONS club of Orient Chapter will meet at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Dunstford in Detroit.

BLOOD BANK HELPS—Jo Flattery is a mighty happy girl today. Recent heart surgery, together with an important contribution by a local blood bank, helped save the life of her father, Robert Flattery of 24367 LeBost.

Blood Bank Means 'Savings' for Future

It's something you don't think about until something like this comes up. Then it can mean the difference between life and death.

Those are the sentiments shared by J.R. Potter, 724 Spring drive, and Robert T. Flattery, 24367 LeBost drive.

Thanks to the Northville and the Our Lady of Victory blood banks respectively, they were given blood upon request for major surgery. No red tape was involved; there was only the moral obligation to promote the donation of blood for others in need.

To ensure a continuing supply of blood for local residents, the Northville blood bank will be staged Friday, May 26 at the First Methodist church from 2 to 5 and 6 to 8 p.m.

"Appointments for prospective donors are already being accepted," Mrs. C. C. Winter, blood bank chairman, said. "Area residents are urged to call 349-2361 or 349-1330 and make arrangements to donate at their convenience."

Blood donated, Mrs. Winter stated, may be credited to the community bank, a group account, a personal account or as a replacement.

"There is urgent need for new donors," Mrs. Winter said. "Many of our regular donors who had given generously through the years can no longer give for various reasons." Potter can be counted among the generous. "I started giving blood during WWII and continued until age 60," he said.

The Northville bank has always had a sufficient supply of blood for local needs, Mrs. Winter pointed out, but the demand is increasing. Blood is used as medicine. Whole blood is used for treatment of shock, replacement because of excessive bleeding or during surgery, transfusion in RH babies, for severely burned patients, anemia and during heart surgery.

When there is a need, Northville residents may call Mrs. A. C. Carlson or Mrs. Winter and blood will be released immediately.

Town Hall Plans Profit Sharing

The awards committee of the Northville Town Hall Series is accepting applications from organizations who wish to share in this years profit.

Any organization who does not receive tax support is eligible to apply.

Applications should include a description of the organizations purpose and activities. An application can be made on or before June 5th by writing to the Awards Committee, Northville Town Hall, Box 93, Northville. Any questions can be answered by calling Mrs. Wagenschutz, 349-2976.

Historical Society Eyes Election

Election of officers will highlight a meeting of the Northville Historical Society Tuesday as it closes out its 1966-67 season.

A slate of candidates, made up of present officers, will be submitted to the membership. Additional nominees may be made from the floor, however, President Mrs. Ruth Starkweather said.

"Our annual meeting is always a very important one," she said, "so all members - even those who were unable to make any of our other meetings this year - should try to make Tuesday's meeting."

Sharing the spotlight with the election and business meeting will be a film presentation concerning the history of Northville by Mrs. Helen McCarthy. Following the meeting refreshments will be served.

The meeting will be held at the home

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Berridge of 835 Scott street celebrated their silver anniversary Sunday, April 30, with some 48 friends and relatives joining with them in the celebration.

1-Card of Thanks

In appreciation and thanks to all of our church friends for the many lovely cards and other remembrances, especially the surprise party so beautifully staged by our good friends in observance of our Golden Wedding Anniversary. May God Bless each one of you.

Mr. & Mrs. Roy Matheson

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the many flowers, cards, condolences, and for all acts of kindness which were bestowed upon us during the time of the passing of our beloved husband and father, Fred G. Mandlik. A special thanks to Rev. Kinde, the Casteline Funeral Home, and the Blue Star Mothers.

Mr. & Mrs. Fred Mandlik & Family

We wish to thank those who have been so kind to us at the time of our sorrow, for the many flowers, cards, memorials and kind words of sympathy.

Mr. & Mrs. Harry Kreeger
Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Torbet
Mr. & Mrs. L. W. Kingsley

I wish to thank all my friends and relatives for the many cards, flowers and visits, while in the hospital and since returning home. Fred Kidman

The children who broke all the windows in my hen house were seen doing this by my neighbor and can be identified. If they will see Mrs. Slater they can save themselves and their parents a lot of trouble. Unless I hear from them in one week it will be necessary to call the sheriff's department. Mrs. Irene Slater, Meadowbrook subdivision.

C. R. Ely & Sons Founded with Aid Of A Streetcar

"He bought it while waiting for a streetcar." That's how one of Northville's oldest businesses, C. R. Ely & Sons, Inc., got its start nearly a half-century ago.

Charles Ely Sr., who owns the business along with his brother, Ivan, traced a little of the corporation's colorful history this week in the newly remodeled facilities at 316 North Center street.

"My father (Carl R.) had sold his Ford business two years before," recalled Ely, "and moved to Florida. On his way back in 1920 he was waiting to take a street car from Northville to Farmington when he bought the coal and ice business of a Mr. McCann."

At that time the business was located between Main and Dunlap streets where Schrader's Home Furnishings is located. He operated the business in this building for about two years, then moved into new quarters across the street a building that featured an ice-making plant.

Initial operations, Ely said, depended upon four or five horses and wagons for carrying the ice and coal to homes in and near Northville. But the founder soon added several trucks to the business which continued to expand.

Fifteen years after the late founder bought the business it was moved to an old building, now gone, next to the present headquarters. In 1945 the present building was erected.

Charles and Ivan Ely became partners with their father in 1933. In 1947 the business was incorporated. Today, the business is shared by the two sons of the founder, with Charles Jr. and Ivan Jr., sons, sharing key supervisory roles.

Besides operating an ever expanding fuel oil business, with six delivery trucks, the company still sells coal and, from its Center street facilities, operates a complete garden center.

The Center street building was recently enlarged upward, with a second floor addition that triples the store's storage capacity. The store now sports new paneled walls, carpeted floor and stairway, and a new service elevator to the second floor.

LOOKING BACK over 50 years of business in Northville, Charles Ely Sr., son of the founder, this week recalled the company's colorful beginning back in 1920.

Pinconning To Send 3

The mayor and two councilmen of Pinconning will visit Northville during Michigan Week, city officials here have learned.

They will arrive here early on Monday, May 22, to take part in Northville's celebration of Our Government Day. They are John Erdody, newly elected Mayor, and Councilmen Merton Peacock and Glenn Martin. Their wives may accompany them.

Local officials have not yet decided who will make the trip from Northville to Pinconning on the traditional officials' exchange day.

The visitors to Northville will take part in flag raising ceremonies at the city hall, be guests of the Northville Rotary club for a special luncheon program, and tour Northville industries, schools and other attractions.

Michigan Week will begin on Saturday, May 20 - Civic Pride Day - with the traditional street cleaning project, and close the following Saturday, May 27, with a host of activities at the community building.

GOING UP-Business is really going up at C. R. Ely & Sons, with completion recently of a giant second-floor storage area and installation of a new elevator. On their way up are Ivan Sr., his son, "Chip", and Charles Ely, Jr.

Northville Trial Set For 8 Boys

Trial of eight Northville boys charged with having liquor in their possession was set for June 20.

They are Bruce G. Allan, Thomas Peterson, Donald Kushmaul and Walter Patrick, all 18, and Mark Hesse, Douglas J. Dingwall, Michael G. Moody and Kerry Luedtke, all 17.

Luedtke and Allan stood mute when arraigned May 2 before Judge Charles McDonald in Northville Municipal court. The other youths pleaded not guilty.

Charges arose from a party at 228 Church street, where Luedtke resides in a rear apartment.

Mustangs Tame Wolves

The Northville Mustangs did what no other team has done this year - beat Clarkston, leader of the Wayne Oakland Conference, 5-1.

Still the question goes unanswered. Just how good are the Wolves?

Pitcher Bill Skelly, a junior, turned in a brilliant performance in limiting the Wolves to two hits. He struck out eight, and walked only one. "He was ahead of almost every hitter," Coach Bob Kucher said. "He made them hit his pitch."

Still, the question goes unanswered. Just how good are the Wolves?

In winning, Northville gained ground on the two front running clubs. Northville is 5-2 in league play; Clarkston and Bloomfield Hills are 6-1.

But there's still cause to wonder.

Here's the rub.

Clarkston was playing without five starting seniors, including team leader Dan Fife, who chose the comfort of a senior trip, rather than showing up for Friday's clash at Northville.

This took some of the glitter away from Northville's victory and delayed proof of supremacy until May 25. That's when the Mustangs will take the bus to Clarkston for the return match.

In the meantime, another crucial game will be played. Clarkston, which beat Bloomfield Hills in their first encounter, will hook up with the Barons. Those two games - Clarkston vs. Bloomfield and Clarkston vs Northville seem destined to determine who will finish where in the W-O.

Skelly was at his best in setting down the Wolves with just two hits. His shutout bid was spoiled in the fourth inning when Jerry Ostrom, Clarkston first sacker, pulled a screaming home run over the right field fence to tie the game at one apiece.

On Golf Course

Sophs Spark 2nd Win

It wasn't enough to put Coach Al Jones on cloud nine, but last week's performance of his golfers was heartening.

For one thing, there was consistency for a change. And the underclassmen, Sophomores Bille Thomas, George Neisch, Tom Fagan and Phil Nelson, are improving with every outing.

Northville posted its second triumph against five losses and a tie by nipping Franklin, 168-169, last Friday.

Keith Mueller turned in his best score of the year, a 40. Only two penalty strokes on the Warren Valley country club course prevented the senior from breaking the 40 barrier.

Just a stroke behind was Thomas with a 41. Fagan carded a 43 and Brian Tabor a 44.

Northville just missed finishing first in a triangular last week. Instead, the Mustangs tied Holly at 177. Stevenson posted a 175 to win.

One man made the difference for Holly. Mike Adams walked off with medalist honors with a 38. Otherwise Holly shot 44, 47 and 48.

On the other hand, Northville was consistent. Nelson and Neisch tied Mueller with a 44 and Fagan fired a 45. Thomas slipped to 50 and Senior Mike Hlohenic had a 51; their scores were

But Northville came back with two markers in its half of the fourth to give Skelly his second victory in three starts.

In the fifth, singles by Centerfielder Pat Hall and Shortstop Dennis Primeau and Swiss' second double of the day scored another run. Pohlman's line drive home run over the left fence in the sixth inning gave Northville its final run.

Swiss, who is now batting above .500, led the Northville attack with 3 for 3, including two doubles. Donner was 2 for 3.

not counted in the team total, since only the first four were included.

Stevenson shot scores of 42, 43, 44 and 46.

Call Goes Out For Novi Help

Novi will kickoff its Little League activities this Saturday - and there's still an acute shortage of umpires and supervisory personnel, President Lee Ward announced this week.

The most pressing demand, at this point, is the need of people to supervise the newly organized T-ball league which will begin this Saturday at the Novi school field. Volunteers are asked to report at 12:30 p.m. for a two-hour session.

Preceding T-Ball action will be a work bee at 8 a.m. to get the field into playing shape. "Bring along a rake or a shovel and a strong back," Ward urged.

The Little League is scheduled to open Monday.

Presently, only 12 umpires are in the fold; 15 is a minimum, Ward pointed out. "Come on out to the ball park and do something for the kids."

WINGING WILDCAT-Novi's Jon Van Wagner is a tough man to beat. He took first-place honors in the high jump Saturday at the Central Michigan Relays, besting 38 other class D high jumpers with a leap of 5'10". Just a sophomore, Van Wagner also copped fourth place in the pole vault with a mark of 11'2". His coach, Fred Hanert, predicts that Jon will be the man to beat in the class D high jump finals later this month at East Lansing.

Clarkston Dashes Northville Hopes

It was nip and tuck . . . But the jaws of defeat finally closed and all but chewed up Northville's chances of repeating as the Wayne Oakland Conference regular season tennis champs.

Northville's only hope is the back door. And it's doubtful whether undefeated Clarkston will falter twice within the next week.

Clarkston, you see, edged Northville 3-2 last Friday in a showdown between the league's number one and two teams. Victory, Clarkston's second over Northville this year, gave the Wolves a perfect 6-0 record. Northville came away with a 4-2 slate.

"We had it won," Coach Dick Norton exclaimed.

Things were even at 2-2 with Bruce Durham, number three singles man still on the court. He had outlasted Kirk Beattie 9-7 in the first set and was ahead 5-3 in the second. One more point and the match was Northville's.

But Beattie responded under pressure, came back to win the second set, 7-5, then blitzed to a 6-1 victory in the deciding set to put the final nail in Northville's coffin.

"Durham was playing too cautiously," Norton said, "and as a result he made mistakes. We really had them sweating."

That the Mustangs did, despite the loss of Mark Alexander, former number two man, who was dropped the previous week from the team.

Jim Long had virtually blown Mike Dougherty off the court with a 6-1, 6-3 victory. Dane Alexander gave Mark Erickson a tussle before going under, 5-7, 3-6.

Ken Boerger and Randy Burnett reversed the tables on Tom Bullard and Kim Beattie, the only duo to beat the Northville pair this season. Boerger Burnett won 1-6, 6-3, 6-3 to redeem a 2-6, 8-6, 1-6 loss earlier at Clarkston.

But Jon Eberhart and Bruce Griesiewicz lost 3-6, 3-6 to Jack Sansom and Rick Barry to put the spotlight on Durham with things evened up. Then came the coup de grace.

All's not lost in the league, however. The Mustangs may still pull out the conference championship, depending how they fare in the tournament.

The league championship is decided by a combination of points, garnered in the regular season and in the tournament.

Lose by Point

Down Thinclads Slip Up

Mental preparedness beat Northville, 59-58, last Thursday, although the records will show that Milford bested Northville by the same margin. Brighton tallied 31 points in the triangular.

"Yup, Milford was ready," Coach Ralph Redmond said. "They wanted us pretty bad. Several times we just choked. We got beat by mental errors."

That's the way it went, all right. Anywhere along the line Northville could have picked up the two points that would have made the difference. No such luck.

Most notable lapse came in the 440-yard race. Northville was going with its highly touted runner, Bill Harrison. He got beat as Milford's Randy Wilkins and Tom Sutton crossed the finish line "holding hands" in :51.8. Harrison was clocked in :52.9 in his specialty.

"He ran with his legs down," Redmond noted, "more in the style of the 880 run or the mile. He should have kept his knees higher for more drive."

Harrison made the correction, but too late. It came in the mile relay. Harrison took the baton trailing Wilkins by 20 yards. The Northville junior finished in second place, only three yards behind Wilkins.

"This was the type of mental error being made," Redmond said.

Northville took its share of firsts and seconds, but suffered loss of points in thirds and fourths.

The performance of Randy Smedlin of Milford was typical. He whipped Ron Gloetzer in the pole vault with the best he has ever vaulted - 12 feet. Gloetzer came in second with a mark of 11'6".

Gloetzer, however, finished first in the hurdles. He posted a :16.4 in the highs and :20.9 in the lows.

Senior Jack Crawford pulled out the most firsts for Northville. He leaped 19'2" in the long jump, and ran the 100 in :10.5 and the 220 in :23.5.

He also ran a leg on the winning 880-realy team, which included Greg Carr, Randy Simpson and Gloetzer. Their time was 1:36.1.

Northville came out with a vengeance against West Bloomfield Saturday and whipped the Lakers, 71-47. "We were prepared for this one," Redmond said.

Harrison turned in one of the best times in the Wayne Oakland Conference in the mile with a 4:46 mark. Phil Kennedy ran an "outstanding race" in the 880 and nipped West Bloomfield's Mike Donner at the tape. Kennedy posted a time of 2:13.2.

Gloetzer won the pole vault by soaring 12 feet. He cleared 12'4" later, but the mark, which would have established a new school record, was not official.

They'll Teeter To New Record

Students of Northville high school will get their share of ups and downs this weekend when the senior class sponsors a teeter-totter marathon at the A&W Rootbeer drive-in on Northville road.

The students will launch the marathon today (Thursday) with the close of school and, barring complications, will wind it up Monday with a new high school record of 89 hours.

The Marathon is the brainchild of Seniors Narda Foreman, Sue Bosak, Doug Guido, Ron Jones, and Juniors Pat Henschel and Sue

Hamlin, who said they wanted Northville to be "known for something more than a trouble spot."

Enthusiasm for the project was instantaneous, they report. Upperclassmen had the teeter-totter schedules filled in less than two days, with many students signed up for double and triple shifts.

One senior commented, "It's amazing how something like this can catch on!"

Kick off time is 3 p.m. today. The public is invited to drop in anytime during the marathon to lend encouragement.

B & E Suspect Faces Circuit Court Trial Today

Three youths suspected of being involved in two breaking and entering episodes were brought into Novi justice court recently for examination and were bound over to Oakland County circuit court for trial.

Two other breaking and entering were also reported in Novi during the past week.

James L. Martin, 20, and Varnell Hannah, 17, both of Detroit, stood mute before Justice Emery Jacques May 5 on a charge of breaking into Wards Service station on May 3. Bond was set at $500 apiece.

Roderick C. Snyder, 18, of Farmington appeared May 2 before Justice Jacques. Snyder, who waived examination, was placed on $1,000 bond and returned to Oakland county jail pending posting of bond. His trial date in circuit court before Judge William Thorborn is scheduled today.

Two juveniles, implicated along with Snyder for stealing from a tractor-trailer on Haggerty road, were referred to juvenile authorities.

The three youths were reported to have stolen a supply of lubricant, warning lights, materials, fan belts and a radiator, amounting to $293, by breaking a lock assembly on the trailer.

Owned by D. J. McQuestion and son, Inc. of Dearborn Heights, the tractor-trailer was parked on Haggerty road between 13 and 14 Mile roads. Suspicious of the youths' actions, a nearby resident reported them to Novi police, who found the youths with the stolen goods in their possession at the scene.

Fourteen cartons of cigarettes and six lighters were reported stolen from Jensen's Buttermilk stand at 39700 Grand River on May 1.

Furniture Auction Set for Carnival

Some 150 pieces of school furniture will be auctioned during the upcoming 1967 P-TA Carnival, William Heffner, general chairman, announced Tuesday.

Heffner reported that the Northville board of education Monday night decided to give discarded furniture, now stored in the basement of the junior high, to the P-TA Carnival committee. Board action left no strings attached. The committee, free to do with it as it wishes, decided to auction it off to the public. Nearly all proceeds from the carnival revert back to the school system anyway, Heffner noted.

While plans for the auction are being made, Mrs. Fred Schwarze is lining up the door prizes for the carnival, which this year has been titled "Space Fantasy". Two grand prizes will be offered, she said, including an original painting by Milt Kennitz of Ann Arbor.

The artist has displayed his paintings locally and in shows throughout the state. His works are in high demand, she said.

The second grand prize, still not announced, will be especially useful by children. Altogether, 28 door prizes will be offered.

The carnival will be held at the junior high school and Main street elementary school on May 19.

Scouts to Get 'Eagle' Awards

Kurt Wiley and Scott Thomas will receive Scouting's highest merit rank Monday evening in Court of Honor ceremonies of Scout Troop 731.

The event will take place at the First Methodist Church of Northville, beginning at 7 p.m.

Presently holding the rank of Life Scout, the two boys will receive Scouting's coveted Eagle Scout ranking.

Main speaker for the evening will be Roger Ketchman.

According to George Whitesell, public relations chairman, a "very interesting and entertaining program has been planned and the public is invited to attend this special event."

A special invitation has been extended to members of Troop 755. They have been requested to appear in uniform.

P-TA Plans Art, Science Festival

The annual Northville science and arts festival will be held at the high school Monday evening beginning at 8 p.m., High School P-TA President Andrew Orphan announced this week.

All departments have been invited to display their work.

The evening's activities will begin in the high school auditorium with a short business meeting of the high school P-TA. Officers for the 1967-68 school year will be elected.

A total of 18 members of the 1967 graduating class at Schoolcraft college were singled out for academic honors during commencement ceremonies on Sunday, April 30, as 152 students received degrees and certificates of completion.

Vice-president for Instruction John H. Brinn presented the Schoolcraft College Science Award, offered by the science department to Danny Larkin, 503 North Center. The award is made for academic excellence in science subject areas.

Local graduates on the winter semester dean's list, with grade point averages (top of 4.000), were:

Danny Larkin, 3,571 and Mrs. Betty Willis, 310 North Dunlap.

Schoolcraft college was host to area service clubs last week as six organizations held regular luncheon and dinner meetings in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center and toured the campus.

On Monday, May 1, Livonia Rotary heard Dr. Eric J. Bradner speak on the history and future of the college, before inspecting campus buildings and facilities. Club members brought their secretaries as special guests.

On Tuesday evening, May 2, Vice-President for Instruction John H. Brinn was the speaker as the Northville Chamber of Commerce held its annual election of officers and Ladies' Night meeting.

Continued from Page One the elementary and junior high schools and one hour in the senior high school. In such cases the principal is to make arrangements with the parents to pick up the child.

The policy also establishes responsibilities of school personnel, of students and of parents in maintaining good student behavior.

Concerning suspensions, the policy provides that the principal may suspend a student for up to three days on his own prerogative or up to 15 days with the approval of the superintendent "when behavior exceeds acceptable limits."

When suspension up to 15 days proves unsatisfactory as a means of disciplining a student, the principal may recommend "exclusion" or expulsion from school to the superintendent, who after thorough study, may recommend the same to the board of education.

The policy states that students under temporary suspension or who have been excluded from school are not to be permitted on any school property, in any school building, or be admitted to any school function.

In cases where recommendations for exclusion have been made, the board is to discuss the matter in private. Vote on the matter in the regular meeting is to be limited to the motion without discussion.

Teacher Hiring, Release Time

Trigger Board Disagreement

Hiring of teachers and granting release time for the athletic director sparked disagreement Monday on the Northville board of education.

Trustee Richard Martin, as has been his policy in proposals that include hiring of additional teachers for 1967-68 without a clear indication of the amount of revenue the district can expect next year, voted against a measure that authorized two replacement teachers and one new one to the staff.

It marked the third "no" vote cast by Martin on similar issues. Several weeks ago he voted no when hiring approval for five teachers four replacements and a new one came up. He did the same when six more teachers three replacements and three new ones came up for approval later.

The new teachers being hired—those other than replacements represent a list of 12 new teaching stations authorized by the board several weeks ago following a recommendation by Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear that 21 1/2 new teaching stations be provided in the 1967-68 school year to meet pressing needs.

Because the majority of board members felt sufficient funds to pay for only part of these teachers are assured, the board cut Spear's recommendation to a dozen new teaching stations, leaving it up to him to decide where the teachers should be placed. Periodically, Spear has been recommending teachers for the dozen new stations, thus sparking Martin's repeated opposition.

Late last month Spear recommended the new teaching positions be stretched to 15 because of obvious need at the junior and senior high school level next year. The board tabled the matter, however, because three members were absent. It was not taken off the table Monday.

The latest additional teacher authorized for hiring is Miss Susan Decker of Saginaw, a 1967 graduate of the University of Michigan, who will teach at the elementary level. The replacements are Mrs. Nancy Gray of Northville, with six years experience, and Mrs. Laura Eshelman of Northville, with one year experience. Both will teach at the elementary level.

In a related matter Monday, the board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Marjorie Croll and Lawrence Dziobak and approved tenure status for Mrs. Rita Luitink.

Trustee Robert Froelich also cast a negative vote on a board matter—this one concerning one half day (two periods plus conference period) release time for the athletic director. Presently, he is not granted any release time.

During the discussion, Froelich asked for and received an estimated amount of money on athletics ($15,500 for staff compensation and $7,000 to $8,000 for supplies and equipment). Part of this outlay, although not estimated, is returned to the general fund through athletic revenue, it was noted.

Froelich said he was concerned about the amount of money spent on athletics.

In recommending release time, Superintendent Alex Nelson noted that demand on time for a "district" athletic director is increasing, and with the opening of the high school swimming pool he will need time for supervising this activity. In previous years, Northville granted release time for this position, he added.

Upon the recommendation of Trustee Martin, the board decided against a lighting plan of the architect for Moraine school, and instead, authorized only the installation of underground wiring, with plans to study comparative costs and efficiency of light systems before selecting these. Specifically, Martin said the architect's selection of light poles, etc. appeared to be based primarily upon artistic or architectural enhancement of the property and not necessarily upon efficiency or cost.

In other business Monday, the board approved investment of $316,000 from the general fund at 4.125 percent interest for 30 days, and $90,600 from the building and site fund at 4.125 percent interest for 30 days. In joining in the approval, Martin praised the superintendent for taking the investment action.

Tabled discussion of a bus compound location and garage and a foreign language laboratory for the high school.

Approved appointment of Marion Zayti, Florence Angell, Betsy VanEe, Martha Bingley and Fred Hart as school census enumerators.

Authorized formation of a utilization committee to plan for the use of the present junior high school building when junior high students are moved into the new facilities.

Lawrence Quits 'Appeals' Post

Election of Gunnar Stromberg to the township board has forced the resignation of Treasurer Alex Lawrence from the township board of appeals.

If that sounds complicated consider the rules that require the chairman of the planning commission to be the chairman of the appeals board but allows only one member of the township board to be a member of the appeals board.

In an effort to untangle the situation, Lawrence voluntarily bowed out of the appeals board, effective a month ago, leaving Stromberg and John Miller on the board.

Here's what happened:

Stromberg, veteran member of the planning commission and its chairman, is by law chairman of the appeals board on which Lawrence served. When Stromberg was elected to the township board that put two members on the appeals board—an illegal arrangement. Thus, Lawrence stepped down. Now Stromberg and Miller must appoint a new third member.

The only other solution would have been for Stromberg to resign as planning commission chairman and for the commission to elect a chairman who is not a member of the board.

All of which brought up another touchy subject. Trustee James Tellam took the position that there ought to be only one township board member on the commission. Besides Stromberg, Trustee Bernard Baldwin sits on the commission.

While tossing a bouquet at both Stromberg and Baldwin for their outstanding service on the commission, he suggested that one of the positions should be vacated so that some other citizen could take the post.

Neither volunteered to do so last week, but Supervisor R. D. Merriam noted that it wasn't a pressing matter since both terms of office will expire in November at which time a change could be made.

Over 'Incinerator' Proposal

Township Blows Stack

Northville township blew its stack over incinerator studies last week.

Sparking the blow-up was word that the intergovernmental studies into establishment of an incinerator at the Detroit House of Correction had crept onto Maybury Sanatorium property.

Township board members quickly voted to fire off a letter to the incinerator committee in opposition to any plan for a landfill at Maybury.

"Tell 'em we're very much opposed," chorused the board in deciding to give emphasis to Supervisor R. D. Merriam's reply letter by putting it to a vote.

Last month Incinerator Committee Chairman Richard D. Blodgett reported that Detroit officials had been receptive to the idea of perhaps establishing an incinerator at DeHoCo.

Since then Detroit apparently has expanded this suggestion to include its Maybury property as a possible location for the incinerator or a landfill in conjunction with the proposed incinerator at DeHoCo.

At any rate Blodgett's latest report to Northville township one of five communities involved in the study, noted this Maybury proposal.

Contacted by The Record, Blodgett, who also is city manager of Plymouth, said the idea is simply that—that it originated with Detroit not with his committee. Neither the DeHoCo or the Maybury plan is beyond the talking stage. He said his committee would certainly consider the township's position in its own studies.

Blodgett said he received the township letter Friday. Copies of it also went to Detroit.

In reporting the plan to the board last week, Supervisor Merriam said Detroit had talked about a landfill at Maybury several years ago. The subject of gravel removal operations at the sanatorium came up last year, he added. Merriam said Detroit had been informed of the township's opposition to these proposals.

Talk of a landfill at Maybury follows a suggestion by Detroit's Mayor Jerome Cavanagh that a portion of the facilities at Maybury be used as a juvenile detention home.

Another letter to the township board this one from the Wayne county road commission—puzzled members. It requested the township's signature to an agreement pledging the township's faith and credit on any delinquent assessments that might arise over the proposed paving of Bradner road, from Five to Six Mile roads.

The board decided against signing until after it had a clarification of its meaning. Specifically, the board questions if because the county—not the township—is sponsoring the project and because the agreement seemed to indicate that township payment of delinquencies would have to be made immediately after they occur rather than waiting for the sale of property of those in arrears.

A public hearing on the proposed paving project was held Tuesday morning in Detroit. The commission is to determine if the improvement is necessary based upon the comments, objections and supporting arguments heard at the hearing and upon letters from property owners that it has received.

Supervisor Merriam tossed out a suggestion that a small house on the

Smoke Problem To Disappear

With word that Detroit is considering a possible landfill at Maybury Sanatorium still ringing in their ears, not all looks black to Northville township officials.

In fact one of the blackest, most consistent problems facing the township and its residents for years appears to be nearing an end.

That's the word from Supervisor R. D. Merriam, who reported Monday that the county board of auditors has entered into a contract to eliminate the smoke and soot that's been pouring from the stack at Wayne County Training School.

He said the training school will be tied into the power plant system of the neighboring Plymouth State Home and Training school by September, thus ending the problem. Facilities at the state home, he added, have caused no problems.

Rain in May

The rainy days of April will stretch into May.

The weatherman at Metropolitan airport tersely predicted "heavy precipitation" for this month. Beyond that, he was non-committal.

April ran true to form with rainfall of 3.67 inches, .63 above normal.

Robert Haass property might be used as an addition to the township hall. He advised the board that the building may be available for moving because of Thompson-Brown's subdivision project on the south side of Six Mile road.

The matter was tabled pending further investigation as to availability, cost, and compatibility with the existing township hall architecture.

Merriam's suggestion followed his report that the Northville school board wanted specific information as to the length of lease desired by the township. The school district owns the building and property. The township had requested a long lease to ensure that any addition it might make to the building would be profitable.

It was informally suggested that a 10-year lease might be satisfactory.

In other business, the township board heard a report that the 1956 truck used by the township dog warden is beyond repair. Specifications for a new one are to be introduced to the board at the next regular meeting for discussion. Meanwhile, Merriam is to check into the possibility of temporary rental of a truck.

—Heard a report of two cases of vandalism, one involving damage to a door on the township hall and destruction of a shed on the property. Merriam estimated damage to the door at $80 and to the shed at between $100 and $150.

—Took under advisement a suggestion by the dog warden and township clerk that dog licenses and dog violation fines be increased.

—Voted to pay $5 monthly to the electrical inspector for attending monthly professional meetings.

—Adopted a fee policy for meters and their installation recommended by the water and sewer commission. It calls for meter cost plus 30-percent plus $10 for installation.

—Appointed David Dodge, B.J. Williams, and Helen Litsenberger to the board of review.

For Mother's Day
Here's 2 Big Tributes to Mom

There'll be plenty of tributes for at least two area moms Sunday as the community celebrates Mother's Day. Center of attention will be Mrs. Fredrick McLaughlin of 42580 Eight Mile road and Mrs. John McLaughlin of 240 Orchard Drive. Together, these two mothers boast 26 children and 1 grandchild. The 12 McLaughlin children (left) includes: (l to r, back to front) Christopher, Allison, Katherine, Frederick, Matthew, Fredericka, Mary, Jean, Ellen, Ruth, Andrew and Peter. Several of the 14 children of Mrs. McLaughlin are away and were unavailable for the picture at the bottom. Those present were (l to r): Rita, Lucy, Fran, Mary, Mike, Marty, Paul, Mrs. Peggy Lufts and her child, Ann Margaret, and Karen. One son, Tom, will become a priest in June; another, Hugh, is in the Army in Hawaii; one Sister John Elise, OP, teaches in Lansing; son Jim is married and lives in Plymouth; and Joe was working.

Novi Justice Court

Two Detroit youths caught in the act of dumping on Squires drive near Haggerty road were each assessed $35 in fines and $15 costs in Novi Justice Court.

Richard H. Larson, 20 and Grant E. Fitzpatrick, 17, were also instructed to rent a trailer and make a complete clean-up of the area in which they were dumping.

Discarded by the two youths were a sofa, chair, two car seats, three pillows and a garden hose.

Daniel A. Cushman, 19, and also of Detroit paid a $15 fine and $10 costs for dumping on property bounded by Meadowbrook road and Grand River. Police said they found Cushman in the process of dumping three truck loads of brush on the Holcomb property.

Alex Cierciecki, 44, of Wayne was fined $100 on a reduced count of reckless driving on Novi road near Flint street.

Algimantas J. Ramonaitis, 31, of Detroit was fined $15 and $10 costs for failing to stop for a school bus on Haggerty road near Squire drive. According to police, Ramonaitis brushed a young Novi school girl as she was walking across the road after debarking from the bus. She was not injured.

Goodwill Pickup

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday, May 15.

Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries pickup, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Richard J. Berber, 26, of Farmington was found guilty of being disorderly March 24 at the Novi Inn, corner of Novi road and Grand River. He paid a fine of $25 and $10 costs.

A Novi woman, Margaret M. Lemirande, 43, was found guilty on two counts. A resident of 40570 Rockhill Lane, she was fined $10 for careless driving November 24 on Rockhill Lane and $5 and $5 costs for driving a car with a defective exhaust August 3 on Novi road near 10 Mile road.

For making an unsafe start on East Lake drive near 14 Mile road, Terry L. Foley, 19, of Milford was assessed a $10 fine and $10 costs.

Thomas Fick, 36, of 44765 Grand River paid a $5 fine and $5 costs for having three junk cars adjacent to his place of residence.

IN THE AIR—David J. Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Allan, 18238 Shadbrook drive recently completed flight training school at North Central Airlines, Minneapolis. He will be based in Detroit.

What Makes You Think Your Car Is A Lemon?

JOHN MACH

When the United States Government first attempted to launch in space, a two-cent plastic dust cap caused a failure. The cap had been left in a fuel line by a workman for the Martin Company and escaped the ultra-careful continuous inspections of both government and company inspectors. Frustrating? Human failures usually are. Engineers say the modern automobile is made up of 20,000 parts fitted together to make one smooth-functioning mechanism. It is not nearly as complicated as a Titan rocket, but it can still be very frustrating when it lacks the fine hand of a specialized mechanic to locate its particular "dust cap" trouble. Despite rigid inspection control of present day mass production, an automobile is almost never perfectly adjusted when it leaves the factory. And even if it was, a "wearing in" period soon follows when individual adjustments are necessary. If a car fails to get this attention, separate annoyances pile up until the owner acquires a sour state of mind on the whole thing. Appropriately enough, he describes the car as a "lemon." There can't be anything wrong with your car that a trained mechanic, in Northville, can't set right. You'll get more service and satisfaction out of the family transportation if you remember this fact and, that "lemons" really only grow on trees.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. Charles F. Boerger
St. Paul's Lutheran, Northville

The Skipper and the Mate were taking turns keeping the log of their ship. One day the skipper ended his account with the words: "Mate was drunk again." The mate protested, "Please strike that last sentence," he said. But the skipper refused.

"It's true, isn't it," he asked. "Being true, it stays in."

Next day it was the mate's turn to write the log. He ended his account with the words: "Skipper was sober today."

The skipper didn't like it a bit. "Cross out that last sentence," he said. "You know I never drink!"

"I didn't say you did," the mate answered. "I only said you were sober. It's true, isn't it? And being true, it stays in."

Some things can be true and still not be the truth. And this unfortunately can happen even in our religion, and even when we fully intend to speak the truth.

"God saw you when you cheated," says Tom's father. "God always sees us when we do wrong." It was true, wasn't it? But since Tom had heard such words often, and never heard much about the love of God, Tom began to think of God as an angry, suspicious snooper who tries to catch you in some sin and then punishes you hard. What the father said was true, but it wasn't the truth. It had the effect of a lie.

"I prayed hard for rain," said the neighbor, "didn't want my lawn to dry up. But as you can see, it didn't rain." Every word was true. But in Bill's mind it had the effect of saying: "Prayer never helps." The neighbor's words were true, but they were not the truth.

"I told my son he wasn't doing right," said Mrs. Brown. "I told him, 'You make God sad when you do wrong!' I scolded him hard."

The words which Mrs. Brown said may have been true. But any heathen mother can scold. What she said was not Christian. It was only law, not Gospel. Therefore, though it wastrue, it was not the truth.

This leads us right into the middle of the difference between the Law and the Gospel.

Suppose my child sins, and he is sorry he sinned. What shall I tell him? Shall I tell him God's threat of punishment or God's promise of forgiveness? Both are true. But if at that point I tell him only God's threat of punishment, I am not telling him the truth.

In fact, I am hiding the blessed main truth of the Gospel from him—that God will forgive us when we are sorry for our sins and confess them.

We can of course be wrong the other way, too. Suppose Tom is careless. He does wrong things but his conscience never reproves him.

Suppose I tell the boy who doesn't care: "Don't worry, Tom, God forgives our sins!" Then haven't my true words given him a wrong impression?

It is not always easy to be a careful Christian parent. Getting to know the Bible can help us here, too. It can make us wise unto salvation, as Paul says, and well equipped for every good work—for instance, the work of being a Christian parent. 2 Timothy 3:15-17.

BABY COACH

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Customs may differ among the races and may change with the times, but certain institutions in human life have remained constant through the centuries. One of these is Motherhood.

Progress has given Mother new methods and new equipment for her age-old responsibilities. But the love and understanding which are the heart of Motherhood have never depended on science for their expression.

One unchanging sphere of material responsibility has been the religious development of children. From primitive tribal religions up to Christianity, mothers have guided and encouraged the growth of each successive generation in spiritual faith.

The Christian Church salutes all faithful mothers. They have led their families to an ever deepening realization of the sacred bond which unites the Church and the Home in a common devotion to Jesus Christ.

Orchard Hills Baptist Breaks Ground May 1

The Orchard Hills Baptist church broke ground recently at 23455 Novi road, for their new House of Worship. Construction was begun May 1.

The single story unit will provide educational space for all age groups, nursery through adults with an auditorium for worship.

Cuthbert and Cuthbert of Dearborn is the architect and Stoner Construction of Detroit is the contractor.

In March the Orchard Hills Baptist church launched a successful $75,000 church building bond program to help pay for the construction. The congregation offered to the general public an attractive rate of interest, 7 percent on the purchase of said bonds, according to Pastor Fred Trachsel.

The church is presently worshipping in temporary quarters on their five acre site where the new building is under construction.

Vandals Strike Twice in Week

Playground equipment valued at $200 and owned by St. Paul's Lutheran church was wrecked by vandals last week Wednesday.

Vandals also slashed the canvass top of a late-model convertible parked at 102 North Cady street.

The equipment, which consisted of a series of pipes used for climbing, was dismantled, carried off and thrown in a creek near the church playground at 201 Elm street.

The cement base that anchored the pipes was dug out of the ground, but it was apparently too heavy to easily carry away, police reported.

The slashing took place between 10 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. Saturday.

Making the report was Mrs. Jean Bingley, owner of the car. She told Northville police that previously a set of golf clubs and a radio speaker had been stolen from cars parked at the same address.

P-TA DONATION—It didn't take long for this piece of playground equipment, donated to Main Street elementary by the school's P-TA, to become a center of attention. Underneath the laughing youngsters is a new merry-go-round that seldom stops spinning.

Will you pay the price of a Cadillac...and not get one?

Literally thousands of people are driving cars that cost as much as a Cadillac—yet provide far less in motoring satisfaction, distinction and lasting value. A few minutes with an authorized Cadillac dealer and a few miles at the wheel of a Cadillac can prevent you from making this unnecessary compromise. The fact is, if you're planning to buy in the medium-price range, an investigation could show that you are very close to a Cadillac in cost. And it is generally acknowledged that a Cadillac holds its value so well that it actually costs less to own than many lower priced cars. Right now, your authorized dealer has a fine selection of models and colors—with all the advanced engineering, superb performance and many safety features that make a Cadillac a Cadillac. Every year you wait is costing you its price in personal pleasure and satisfaction. Why not see your Cadillac dealer before the week is out?

Your Cadillac dealer has the answer.

Newsmen Puzzled by Pre-Trial Concern

LANSING — Is it much ado about nothing — or very little? This is the question in minds of many newsmen in discussions regarding pre-trial information.

The State Bar of Michigan arranged a May 2 meeting of lawyers, police and court officials, and representatives of newspapers, radio and TV to discuss this topic. Earlier Attorney General Frank J. Kelley called a small group of media representatives for a similar discussion. The only thing certain is that there will be more meetings between bar, police and media groups before the subject is considered closed.

There is no problem. This is the opinion of many newsmen and some from other fields. The Attorney General stated on several occasions that his office has no record of complaints that news coverage was involved in an unwarranted verdict.

U.S. Court of Appeals Judge George Edwards says that he has yet to see a trial which could not be fair if basic procedures now in effect are followed by courts. Judge Edwards warns that proposals by the American Bar Association which limit information which could be released are vague. He urges lawyers "not to throw the baby out with the bath water," stating that there really isn't much of a pre-trial information problem. He warns further that efforts recommended by the ABA constitute a dangerous form of threat to freedom of speech.

Some attorneys argue that pre-trial news does deprive defendants of a fair trial. No one could or would name a specific case where this was true when challenged to do so at the May 2 meeting.

NEWSPAPER REACTIONS VARY. At other times and places various newsmen have expressed themselves strongly. One editor said he is sick of discussing this topic in generalities and resents the implication that media have been doing something wrong.

Another argues that the courts are the key. If judges will use machinery now available to them, a fair trial can be guaranteed to any defendant. Still another points out that the discussion shows a lack of confidence in jurors. There is no reason to assume, he states, that a juror has to be ignorant of a case in order for him to make a fair judgment at a trial.

"Proposed orders which would restrict the release of information by law enforcement officers are an unwarranted judicial invasion of the executive branch of government," stated Norman C. Rumble, managing editor of the Midland Daily News and president of the Michigan Press Association. In addressing the State Bar meeting, Mr. Rumble questioned the basic concept that there is evidence to show that pre-trial publicity in the presence of sound judicial operation has limited a fair trial. He reported that The American Newspaper Publishers Association has a grant of $150,000 for an independent study to determine whether there is basis for claims that crime news reporting prevents fair trials. Mr. Rumble suggested that results of this study would better define the need for more discussion.

"GOALS OF THE PRESS and the bar should be the same, Mr. Rumble stated: "protect the public, acquit the innocent and convict the guilty."

Want to guess how many newspapers there are in the state? Here's the answer. There are 55 daily newspapers and about 300 weeklies.

Their combined circulation, according to figures at the beginning of 1967, is 3,680,594. This is an increase of three percent over the previous year. Circulation ranges from the Detroit

News with a Sunday circulation of nearly one million to the Fair Haven Journal with a circulation of 387. In between are some of the finest newspapers in the world, each serving its community.

There has been little variation in the number of newspapers in Michigan over the last 25 years. As economic changes have brought about new communities, local newspapers have been quick to spring into existence. At the same time, those communities which grew smaller and smaller found that the newspaper which served them either ceased publication or was merged with one nearby.

Circulation grew rather steadily over the past quarter century, a remarkable trend when it is realized that the Detroit Times and Grand Rapids Herald, both large dailies at the time they suspended publication, left a large total which had to be offset by smaller increases in many newspapers all over the state.

West German Fears Mount

BABSON PARK, Mass. The death of Dr. Konrad Adenauer, West Germany's strong man and father of the postwar Federal Republic, and the shocking treatment accorded Vice President Humphrey on his recent visit to Europe provide good reason for us to focus our attention on that sector of the world.

Europe today is a vastly different continent. Both the victorious and the vanquished nations are more powerful and more prosperous than ever before. The scope and the completeness of the resurrection from the ashes of World War II are amazing. West Germany alone in a number of important respects is better off than was the whole of Germany in the years immediately preceding the beginning of the war.

YET WEST GERMANY is fearful of the future. For, although Moscow has loosened its grasp on most of the East European Communist satellite states, she has tightened her grip on East Germany and she still maintains very close ties with Red Poland.

There is no chance that the partition of Germany into two states — one pro-West and fiercely capitalistic and the other militantly anti-West and solidly Communist-oriented — will be healed soon. The two Germans are in reality divided by quite a good deal more than the barbed wire and the mines strung along their mutual border. This heritage of Nazi excesses and collapse, and of Soviet imperialism, could well last for several more decades.

But even before Stalin's death in 1953, Adenauer had made West Germany strong enough to resist Communism and Communist threats against his government and its territorial integrity. Of course, the presence of our troops helped, too, but there is ample evidence that West German resoluteness and prompt moral support from all the NATO countries were the big factors governing the Soviet decision not to follow up its threats.

The Soviet Union is not at present rattling sabres in the direction of West Germany. And, undeniably, West Germany is now strong enough and prosperous enough to make greater provisions for her own military defense than was the case in the earlier postwar years. In the light of these facts, would it not be common sense for us to withdraw a substantial portion of our military garrison in West Germany? And might it not be worthwhile to make a reassessment of the situation to determine whether our troops are really needed at all?

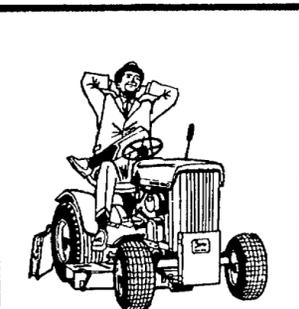

Right now we are maintaining upwards of a quarter of a million servicemen in West Germany . . . more than half as many as are concentrated in Vietnam. Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic majority leader, strongly believes that so large a military commitment is not warranted and is pressing for a cutback far beyond the token reduction proposed by the Administration.

It may not be feasible to pull all of our troops out of West Germany in the foreseeable future. But neither is it wise to maintain so large an Army there and to further undermine our shaky balance-of-payments situation by agreeing to additional costly arms purchases from Britain to enable her to support her own sizable armed forces in West Germany.

IN THIS COUNTRY from the grass-roots on up — there is urgent need to develop a much more critical approach to federal spending, including military spending. All proposals for new funds for whatever purpose must be scrutinized more closely. And we must strongly and consistently oppose unnecessary or marginal spending. Failure to do this will substantially lower our standard of living and will, in time, reduce our nation to second-class rank.

Lawn problem solvers

AGRICO Weed Control kills dandelions and plantain. Dandelions usually give you the first warning you have weeds in your lawn. As soon as you see them, it's time to apply AGRICO Weed Control with Fertilizer. Weeds die easiest when they are growing fastest. So hit them when they're young and vigorous. They just curl up and die. AGRICO Weed Control contains two weed killers to assure complete control of the usual lawn weeds. There's a complete fertilizer in every bag, too—that keeps your lawn strong to ward off weeds. $4.95 A bag weeds and feeds 5,000 sq. ft. of lawn

AGRICO Insect Control kills lawn insects. Many of the dead spots in your lawn that you've blamed on drought are caused by root-sucking soil insects. When you see the damage, the insect is usually gone. So protect your lawn from soil insects with AGRICO Insect Control. One treatment lasts about three years. There's a complete fertilizer in every bag, too. You give your lawn a late spring feeding when it needs it most. This protects your lawn from insects and keeps it growing vigorously into summer. Do both these lawn jobs today. $4.95 A bag treats and feeds 5,000 sq. ft. of lawn

Municipal Court

An accident in which four cars parked at a Northville curb were damaged resulted in a heavy fine and stiff probationary sentence for a 40-year-old Plymouth man.

Lewis E. Robb, arraigned Monday before Judge Charles McDonald, was fined $100 and placed on one year probation to the court.

The judge further ordered that Robb stay away from liquor completely and that he report twice monthly to Northville Municipal court. Violation of the court order would mean a 90-day jail sentence.

Robb pleaded guilty to the added count of reckless driving. A count of leaving the scene of the March 6 accident was dismissed because he voluntarily returned to the scene.

Besides the front end of Robb's car, four cars parked on the West side of Center street in front of Northville Lanes were damaged, evidently from a chain reaction. Robb was reported to have collided with the end car.

Woodrow Stidham of South Lyon was fined $38.50 on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in a parking lot at 113 South Center street.

Delfino Guevara, Jr., of Wayne pleaded guilty to speeding 60 miles per hour in a 35 zone on South Main street. He paid a $25 fine and $5 costs.

William E. Kohler, 40, of 505 Grace street was assessed a $15 fine and $5 costs for careless driving on Eight Mile road.

James W. Darnell, 18, of 400 Ely drive was found guilty of speeding 35 in a 25 zone on North Center street. Judge McDonald handed down a verdict of guilty Monday, but suspended fine and costs.

JH Concert Set Tuesday

Northville's junior high school band concert will take place Tuesday, May 23, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium (community building). Highlighting the performance by the 70 member band will be selections from the Broadway musical, Camelot.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Brighter nights are here for Northville's business district. Installation of 24 mercury vapor lamps in the shopping area has been completed. They'll provide more than double the previous illumination.

The new lighting has been a pet project of Councilman-Merchant Del Black, who started promoting the idea more than two years ago. Initially, it was believed that there would be an installation charge for the new lamps. So Black obtained pledges from fellow merchants to cover the anticipated $1,000 charge. It later developed that the city's lights were old enough to be replaced without cost by Detroit Edison.

Free or not, the lights were still mighty slow in coming. It was first announced that they would be installed for Christmas 1965.

But patience and perseverance have paid off and congratulations are due Councilman Black. Well lighted streets, parking lots and alleys are important improvements. And while it was slow in coming, the improvement was a well-timed addition to the community's "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up... light-up" campaign.

It was probably all in a day's work to Bud Hartner, Northville's director of public works. But one of my unpaid "reliable sources" relates the following experience that took place Monday night.

Hartner was called by the police dispatcher when it was reported that two small youngsters were stuck in mud at the creek behind the new Fairbrook apartments.

When he arrived he found one boy had pulled himself out, but the second was hopelessly stuck, waist-deep.

Bud plunged into the water and rescued the lad, who was deeply grateful. As he was taking the boys home, the one he had pulled from the creek asked "what is your name?"

Whereupon Hartner replied, "it's Bud, but if I catch you in that creek again, your name will be mud".

(Incidentally, the boys were both Clement road township residents. Bud probably never thought to ask first if they were city residents, which might indicate that city-township cooperation is possible and contrary to some reports at official levels, the city isn't all bad).

Northville was well represented in the recent 40th anniversary celebration of the Michigan Seamless Tube Company in South Lyon. The occasion also marked the official dedication of the expanding company's corporate offices.

William G. Troy, vice president in charge of purchasing, Production Manager M. F. House and Chief Engineer E. A. Zywiec are all Northville residents and were principals in the planning and staging of the open house observance.

Michigan Seamless Tube began operations in South Lyon 40 years ago and now has grown from annual sales of a few thousand dollars to more than $50 million. The company, headed by William A. McHattie, also owns Gulf States Tube Company in Texas and Standard Tube Company of Detroit and Shelby, Ohio.

The open house ceremonies included tours of the plant as well as the modern, two-floor office building which provides some 8,000 square feet of space.

Perhaps the highlight of the official dedication was a gift of appreciation from the city of South Lyon. Presented by the city's genial mayor, John E. Noel, the gift was the renaming of Lawton street, which ends at the new corporate offices, to "McHattie street".

Later Mayor Noel bemoaned the fact that he had forgotten to plant a little side remark in his speech to the effect that "if I had a street with my name on it, I'd sure see to it that it was paved".

Top of the Deck

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

He's a little fellow; 60 pounds packed into an 11-year-old kind of frame that Norman Rockwell would paint with freckles around the nose, with curly black hair, and with a smile that winds up like a clock at five after eleven.

He's a jack-in-the-box; bouncing up when the lid's off to chase a butterfly, to race around the yard brandishing a willow saber, to scoop up wiggling pollywogs from the pond down the street, and to shinny up a skinny Elm.

He's a walking question mark; wondering always why the grasshopper flits and falls while the bird dives and soars, why stars shine at night and not during the day, and why some people have a different "Christmas" but always the same Halloween.

And he's a faucet; dripping with hurts and happiness.

Danny's a good deal like the boy in your neighborhood, in your home. But he wasn't always that way. A year ago he was a loner, a boy who waited for someone to open the lid, and a boy who held back a tear because there was no one to catch it.

He's a boy without a father. "The first few times he came to the house, he'd stand around with his hands in his pocket instead of sitting, walk instead of running. 'Danny, would you like a bottle of pop?' I'd ask him. He wouldn't reply or he'd say, 'Nopel' To him I was a stranger and, well, I guess he was a stranger to me. You couldn't blame him. He saw me as just another guy giving him a pitch about wanting to be a friend but who probably would shove him out of the way like a used-up toy. His life was full of guys like that. His real father was gone and he'd had a couple of others who didn't care and who didn't last."

Carl Johnson of Northville was speaking. He was telling about the boy who "wormed his way into my life and took a piece of me. But I've got part of him, too, so I guess it's a fair trade."

Carl and Danny are brothers - not in the real sense of the word, but brothers in the boy-man relationship offered by the Big Brothers of America. Boy and man were introduced a year ago through the BBA office in Pontiac.

Danny was one of the hundreds of fatherless boys on the waiting list, and Carl figured he'd give the Big Brother pitch a tryout.

"At first it was really more of a challenge than anything else. He was a good enough boy, but he'd been in trouble a few times. He'd been shifted around so much from one man to another, he didn't really trust them anymore. And his mother couldn't fill the void. Just trying to get him to talk to me was a real chore.

"After a few months he started opening up, but even then he wouldn't put his full confidence in me. It didn't take an expert to see that he was testing me, probably wondering when I'd ditch him.

"I guess the first inkling that I had that he was changing was when his mother told me he was doing better in school and that whenever some question came up at home, Danny would say, 'Ask Carl.'"

The boy and man spent about four hours a week together, going to basketball games, touring the airport and just whiling away time at the Johnson home.

"Everything was going along just fine until I got a telephone call one day from him. He was crying. He said his family was moving from Wixom over near Detroit. He was afraid I'd drop him for sure.

"I told him it wouldn't change anything, that we'd be pals no matter where he went.

"What I didn't tell him was that I couldn't drop him if I wanted to. You learn to love a kid like that."

So the relationship continued, and the bond that tied them together grew tighter.

But a new problem is developing, explains Carl, even though the problem is really a gauge of success. The Big Brother organization figures the boy-man relationship has served its purpose, that the Big Brother has done his job well when the boy starts preferring companionship with boys his own age.

Danny's not a loner anymore. "But," says Carl, "it hurts a little when I call and ask him if he'd like to go to a game or something and he says, 'I'd like to Carl but Steve and I are going on a hike.'"

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

As much as Arthur Miller would like to think that his play, "The Crucible," transcends the ages, it doesn't quite span the gap. Nevertheless, it was a rattling good show as an entertaining historical piece. This was evident when CBS rang up a first last week with an unexpurgated version of the Salem witch hunt play that did span an unheard of two and one-half television hours.

The mere fact that Miller wrote additional dialogue for the television performance with hopes of convincing the audience of the play's relevance is a concession that something is amiss. Either Miller thinks the viewer is too obtuse to appreciate the play's pertinence or he is admitting that the play has lost its vitality.

Miller's particular problem is the contemporary milieu that give birth to the play. American had just shrugged off a witch hunt of its own - the McCarthy investigation of Communist conspiracy in the United States. Miller was one of those subpoenaed and implicated in the Communist plot. This prompted the playwright to search out an objective vehicle through which he could comment on the McCarthy persecution. Thus, "The Crucible."

Today, the McCarthy hearings that ruined more than one man have largely faded from memory, although some scar tissue remains. Where before the Crucible could be evaluated as a cogent comment on our times, it is now more valuable for what it reveals of the grim Puritan spirit. In this respect, Miller's play can take its place alongside Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter."

The facts upon which Miller based his story are these. Salem, Massachusetts of 1692 was gripped by hysteria. It began when 10 young girls accused a slave and two old women of bewitching them. Within four months, hundreds were whimsically jailed, 19 hanged and one pressed to death. The persecution stopped only when the governor stepped in.

Last week's performance proved that the play can stand alone, thanks to a strong cast, well chosen. Taking the lead was George C. Scott as John Proctor. This is basically his story and Scott made it come to life. Proctor is a fallen man, having committed adultery with his former house girl, Abigail Williams. She has since been dismissed by John's wife, Elizabeth, who knows of her husband's infidelity. When she is accused of witchcraft, her husband takes her part. He stands by her - and the truth - and goes to the gallows.

This is Scott at his best. He projects the image of independent, guilt ridden, uncompromising, yet human, John Proctor. He turns to his wife for advice.

Should he confess to a crime (witchcraft) which he has not committed and save his life, or adhere to the truth? In an anguished final scene, performed with elan, Proctor chooses to die.

The most surprising performance, however, was turned in by Tuesday Weld, known only for her shallow parts as a zany nymphet. In "The Crucible" she takes the part of Abigail Williams, the emotional and diabolical housegirl and does a bang-up job. Probably, for the first time, she is a serious actress of some magnitude.

There are two other notable performances, that of Colleen Dewhurst as Elizabeth Proctor and Melvyn Douglas as Governor Danforth.

It is this cast that makes The Crucible come off as a forceful historical comment.

OBSOLETE? - Part I

There's a bit of the beast in every bug.

It doesn't take much to unleash the savage fury of a Volkswagen.

Take almost any old VW, replace the body, make a few simple adjustments, and you've got a Formula Vee racer.

How can a mild-mannered, practical, everyday Volkswagen convert so easily into something so delightfully impractical?

In the words of the Formula Vee International Manual: "Volkswagen components seem to have been made expressly for use in a racing car."

"The engine, air-cooled and mostly aluminum, is light for its power output and already adapted to the rear-engine concept of modern racing cars.

"Its rugged construction provides a power plant which seems to be practically indestructible, even at racing speeds.

"Operating costs are amazingly low. One set of tires will ordinarily last more than a season and one oil change a year is sufficient."

It seems that the same things that make the VW a sensible car for people who aren't in any particular hurry to get somewhere also make the Formula Vee a sensible car for people who are in a big hurry to get nowhere.
