City - Township Agree To Study Unification

With the Vietnam toll rising daily, this year's Memorial Day festivities here will take on a particularly somber meaning as the community pauses Tuesday to pay tribute to the war dead.

But the color and pageantry of the traditional Northville activities will not be missing, promises American Legion Parade Marshal Howard Kern, who announced plans this week for a parade and ceremonies at both Northville cemeteries.

Guest speaker for services at Rural Hill cemetery will be Lawrence Gubow, United States attorney for the eastern district of Michigan.

A native of Detroit, Gubow served with the Army during World War II. He was wounded and captured in Europe, later being discharged with the rank of captain. He is a member of many veteran, civic and professional organizations and in 1958 was named Wayne county veteran of the year, followed a year later by a similar Michigan veteran title.

In 1966 he was named federal administrator of the year by the Federal Executive association.

Gubow is married and has three children.

According to Kern, formation of the parade will get underway Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. in the Kroger parking lot. It will start at 10 a.m.

Four Firms Start Building Here

Groundbreaking on a 70,000 square foot building to house four Detroit businesses that will employ more than 200 persons took place Thursday afternoon at the southeast corner of Nine Mile and Novi roads.

The new facility, expected to be ready for occupancy next winter, is located on extreme eastern section of a 40-acre site in the village of Novi but within the Northville school district. It will face Nine Mile road just west of the Knapp cemetery.

Occupants of the new block and

As usual, the parade will be led by a police car escort, followed by color bearers from both the American Legion and the VFW. Next in the lineup will be the veterans' rifle squad, the parade marshal and Assistant Parade Marshal Walt Sousa of the VFW, and the Northville high school band.

Members of the American Legion and its auxiliary and the VFW and its auxiliary will follow the band, with six cars bearing guests and officials next in line. Girl and Boy Scouts, some of whom will be carrying the three wreaths honoring the war dead, will follow, with children on bicycles bringing up the rear.

The parade will travel down Hutton to Main street, Main to Wing street, and Wing to Cady and the Cady street cemetery where it will pause for a brief ceremony that will include a rifle salute. A wreath will be placed at the veteran's grave.

Following this ceremony, the parade will continue west on Cady to First street and south on First street to the Seven Mile entrance of Rural Hill cemetery. At the bridge crossing the river into the cemetery, the Scouts will toss a wreath into the water in memory of Naval war dead.

Continuing, the parade participants will go to the veterans memorial plot. Here a rifle salute will take place and the flag raised while taps echo across the graves. The band will play the National Anthem and a number of other selections.

In addition to the main address by Gubow, Glenn Delbert, recent American Legion oratorical contest winner, and Pamela Smith, VFW Voice of America award winner, will present brief speeches.

The Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville, will offer the prayer.

Returning, the parade participants will not stop at the entrance, as has been the custom, because no ice cream will be given away this year. They will travel north on Rogers to Dunlap street and east on Dunlap to the American Legion post headquarters where the parade will disband.

KEY TO CITY—Two kindergarten pupils did the honors for the community Monday in awarding the city key to officials from Pinconning during Our Government Day festivities. Pausing during the program are (l to r) Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson, Kindergarten Mary Johnston, who also assisted her classmate, Kent Freydl (right) in presenting flowers to guests and city officials, Councilman Wallace Nichols, Pinconning Councilman and Mrs. Glenn Martin, and Mrs. and Mayor John Erdody.

City and township officials decided Tuesday night to join hands in a joint "unification study" confined to the two Northville governmental units.

In so doing, they declined to join in a broader study of unification with Plymouth township, the city of Plymouth and Canton township.

The decision was surprisingly swift as the two bodies met for less than an hour at the city hall. All members of both bodies agreed that a broad, five-community study, proposed by the Plymouth chamber of commerce, would be of little value.

Instead, they called for a study using impartial, professional agencies on the advantages and disadvantages of forming a single unit of government to serve both the city and township.

A skeleton plan was outlined that calls for appointment of two representatives each from the city council and township board and a representative from the newly-formed "Citizens for Area Progress" (CAP).

Without wasting time the township named Bernard Baldwin and Gunnar Stromberg as its representatives, while the council appointed Del Black and Wallace Nichols.

It was suggested that this committee would outline the objectives of the committee, perhaps suggest citizens from the city and township to work on the study, and determine the cost of retaining professional assistance.

Mayor A. M. Allen started the discussion and noted that a letter had been received from Donald Lawrence, chairman of CAP, proposing a city-township unification study be assigned to CAP.

Allen told the members of the two bodies that he favored a city-township study "to give the public answers to questions that have long been asked about the advantages and disadvantages of one government for the area." The mayor stressed the importance of hiring an outside consulting firm.

"Any information garnered could not be harmful", chimed in Councilman Nichols.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam said he agreed that experts might be helpful in such a study. He noted that the proposed broader, five-community study had been a device used in Plymouth "to scuttle unification" and expressed the opinion that the Plymouth chamber of commerce would prefer Northville to conduct its own study.

The township supervisor also pointed out that the township is "17 times larger in area than the city with 40 per cent tax free property, really not a good bargain for the city".

Trustees Baldwin and Stromberg supported the city-township study plan with Baldwin noting that the Plymouth study was designed with the idea of establishing Plymouth as the urban center of the area. "I'm not criticizing this, it's the right thing for them, but we should settle first what is the right thing for us".

City Stalls On Moraine

Action wasn't as swift on the matter of annexation to the city of Moraine school as it was on the unification study when city-township officials met in joint session Tuesday evening.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam informed the city that the township was ready to comply with the school district's request for annexation to the city of the 10-acre school site on Eight Mile road.

Mayor A. M. Allen wasn't so anxious. "Personally, I think the city ought to think about this before assuming such a responsibility".

Councilman Del Black pointed out that other schools are planned for the township. "Is it necessary that everyone be annexed to the city?" he asked.

"It's OK with me, we'll just sit on our hands", replied the township supervisor.

Ogilvie Named Judge

Philip Ramsay Ogilvie, Northville city attorney, was appointed by the city council Tuesday night to fill the unexpired term of Municipal Judge Charles McDonald.

Ogilvie has been city attorney since incorporation in 1955 and had served as village attorney for two years. The council appointment becomes effective July 1. Visiting judges are now handling local cases.

No action has been taken by the council in naming a successor to Ogilvie as city attorney. While it is mandatory that an attorney residing within the city limits serve as municipal judge, there is no residency requirement for the city attorney post.

McDonald resigned last week after purchasing a tavern in Novi. State law does not permit a law enforcement officer to hold a tavern license.

Ogilvie, 48 today, moved to Northville in 1950. He attended Lawrence Institute of Technology, Detroit Institute of Technology and received his law degree in 1949 from Detroit College of Law. He is married and resides with his wife, Ethel, and two children, Janet, 16, and Gary, 12, at 525 Linden court. He has law offices at 162 East Main street.

Although the appointment extends until the next city election, April, 1969, there's a strong possibility that Northville's municipal court will be abolished by January, 1969 in favor of the new district courts as provided under the new state constitution.

Letters Protest Maybury Center

Letters protesting the proposed Detroit vocational training center on the Maybury Sanatorium property here have been sent to Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh by both the Northville school and Northville township officials.

In his letter to the mayor, Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam emphasized that the township does not have sufficient funds for police protection that would be necessitated by the center.

He noted examples of violence that have occurred in other communities with job training programs.

And School Superintendent Alex Nelson wrote that it is customary for the board of education of a local school district to be consulted prior to "any outsider" beginning educational classes in the local district.

Nelson also noted that the Northville school system had not been contacted nor allowed to propose some local use for the facility.

Blood Time

Northville area citizens were reminded this week of tomorrow's community blood bank to be held at the First Methodist Church from 2 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. C. C. Winter, chairman, urged residents to donate blood to help build up the supply of the community bank.

"Your donations Friday may be a lifesaver later for your neighbor or yourself," she said.

Any person between the ages of 18 and 59, who is in good health, may donate blood. However, persons between the ages of 18 and 21 must have parental consent.

Anti-Superintendent Petition Gets Cold Board Reception

Petitions calling for the removal of Northville School Superintendent Alex Nelson were accepted by the board of education Monday night — but no action concerning the petitions was taken and there is little likelihood that any is forthcoming.

Given to Board President Wilfred Becker last Friday afternoon, the petitions were read at Monday's meeting, sparking a public dispute at the meeting over their propriety.

The petitions, signed by a reported 248 persons, read:

"For the best interest of the present and future of the Northville Public Schools: We the undersigned qualified electors who are freeholders residing in the Northville Public School District, Northville, Michigan, do hereby respectfully petition your honorable body to remove from office of Superintendent of Schools Alex M. Nelson no later than the current school term ending in June 1967."

In listening to and commenting during the general discussion that ensued board members present (three members were absent, Stanley Johnston, James Kipfer, and Richard Lyon) agreed that in light of the fact that neither charges nor substantiating evidence of any wrong-doing were presented, they need take no action on the petitions other than accepting them as presented.

Generally, the tenor of the discussion was that petitioning for the removal of the superintendent, without specific substantiated facts, is a poor, devious maneuver that does more harm than good to the educational system and the community. The majority of persons in the audience who spoke took this stand.

On the other hand, several persons voiced strong convictions that the root of Northville's school problems stems from Nelson.

Specifically, Larry Wood, grandson of Charles A. Smith who spearheaded the petitions, and Edmund Yerkes, one of the persons who circulated them, charged that there was a great deal of community disfavor with Nelson and that a good many more persons would have signed — and still would — if necessary. Wood said many people favored the superintendent's removal but declined to sign petitions "because they didn't want to get involved."

Wood also stated, but declined to name names, that people within the school system itself are dissatisfied with the superintendent.

Yerkes strongly objected to a suggestion that persons signing the petitions were not aware of what they were signing, and he was particularly disturbed by one statement implying that

School Break

An extra long weekend is in store for school children of Northville and Novi.

Schools, both public and parochial in these two communities, will be closed through Tuesday, Memorial Day, beginning with the end of classes tomorrow.

the signers are not close enough to the educational process to recognize real and unreal problems.

Among those who spoke against the petitions, the petitioners or the superintendent's removal were Mrs. Frank Angle, Mrs. Wilfred Becker, Mrs. Robert Arlen, and Moraine Principal Milton Jacob.

Their major contentions were (although not all made the same comments):

That the petitions constitute a "nasty" slap at the superintendent without foundation of fact, that the petitions were based on hearsay, that the petitions do not represent the feeling of the majority of people, that the petitions serve only to further divide the community and show a poor adult image to school children, that the petitions show disrespect for the professional educator and the office of superintendent, and that the solving of school problems will not come with the superintendent's removal.

Jacobi said the biggest problem facing the community today is the image it is generating by its devious actions, and that the greatest need now is to "pull together."

Northville's new school business manager, Earl Busard, asked by letter to be excused from the meeting if the petitions were brought up because of his belief in and support of the superintendent. The discussion was well underway before his letter was read and he was subsequently excused.

Superintendent Nelson did not speak during the discussion.

Pauli-Bickner Exchange Vows at OLV

Our Lady of Victory Catholic church was the setting Saturday morning, May 13 for the wedding of Janet Pauli of Northville and Private First Class Harold W. Bickner of Bloomfield Hills. Officiating was the Reverend Fr. John Wittstock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Frank G. Pauli of 508 Gardner, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bickner of Bloomfield Hills.

Two vases of flowers adorned the altar for the ceremony. The organist was Miss Anita Wetterstrom and the soloist was Karen Wetterstrom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza and lace, with an empire waist, long sleeves of lace, and a chapel train that fell from the shoulders. Her headpiece was of organza petal with seed pearls with an elbow length illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Maureen Pauli, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a yellow gown of organza over silk with a panel back, a yellow organza petal headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of long-stemmed talisman roses trimmed with light blue velvet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. P. R. Nieukoop, sister of the bride, and Dixie Rakkola. They wore light green gowns similar to the one worn by the maid of honor and they carried long stemmed pink roses, trimmed in avocado green velvet ribbon.

Miss Mary Joanne Pauli, also a sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. She was dressed the same as the bridesmaids.

Denis R. Eble of Toledo, Ohio was the best man, while Robert Bickner, brother of the bridegroom, and Frank G. Pauli, Jr., brother of the bride, served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pauli chose a turquoise raw silk and lace dress, with beige gloves and bag. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua ensemble, with white gloves and bag. Both wore orchids.

A dinner reception for 125 guests was held at the Thunderbird Inn. Guests attended from as far away as New York, Washington, and Milwaukee.

For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Bickner chose a three piece knit, geranium color suit with black patent accessories. The couple returned to Ft. Benjamin Harrison in Indianapolis, Indiana where the bridegroom is stationed.

Both the bride and the bridegroom attended the University of Detroit.

ALL HANDS ON DECK is the invitation for Sunday afternoon — with the "deck" being that at the Northville Swim Club atop water tower hill.

The club's annual clean-up, pick-up, paint-up and spruce-up work day is set for 1 to 5 p.m., May 28, Bernard Bach, club president, announced. As in previous years, he added, teen-agers and youngsters old enough to be helpers are welcome to join parents in the work bee that will ready the family club for its opening.

The club will open for its fifth season June 10 when school is out. Club directors moved the opening date to June this year to avoid problems of getting life guards earlier — and also because of the cool spring. The club expects to have a full staff of Red Cross life guards, collegians and high school students, on duty this season. James Patterson is returning as club manager for the fourth season.

Grounds committee co-chairmen Charles Altman and Charles Lapham, in announcing Patterson's return, point out that the club feels fortunate in having him back again. A teacher in Garden City, Jim also is studying for his law degree.

Situated on the crest of one of Northville's highest hills, the Bermuda blue clubhouse site affords one of the most scenic views of the area. Among improvements for the 1967 season will be electric entrance doors, two new lights at the west end of the grounds and sodding on the south side of the clubhouse.

Envisioned as a family-oriented club for local citizens by a charter committee of Charles Altman, Robert Bretz, Robert Bogart, R. J. Jackson and Edwin Langtry, the club opened late in the 1963 season. No record was kept of the hours spent in planning and promotion of the non-profit idea, but the profit virtually was a second career, time-wise, for them. Each donated $100 to initiate plans — and went to work to "sell" the club.

In 1966 the club expanded with a separate diving pool and deck. Membership chairman Douglas Day reports it still has some family memberships available. The club's address is 646 West Baseline, mailing box 151.

Youngsters on the swim club's team which competes with other clubs in summer meets have high hopes for a winning season as many have been keeping in condition and improving their strokes with winter lessons at the Clarenceville school pool.

METROPOLITAN OPERA week in Detroit is one of the highlights of the year for Mrs. Ernest J. Shave, who is serving for the ninth year on the General Opera committee, which she was asked to join during the initial move to bring the Met to Detroit.

Joining her now on this committee is Mrs. Donald Ware, who was invited to serve by Mrs. William M. Walker, Jr., general chairman.

This well-organized committee is at work early in the year, Mrs. Shave relates, recalling the January meeting at the Detroit Institute of Arts with the delight of meeting Francis Robinson. This week she and Mr. Shave will miss only opening night at the opera. This evening their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell who are coming from Toronto. Saturday evening they will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Schultz of Toledo.

The Wares have tickets for Tuesday and Friday night performances.

In a party with the Wares and the Shaves Friday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Zayti, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Zayti, Mrs. Rachael Hinman and Mrs. Milford Boersma of Ann Arbor.

BASELINE CHAPTER of the Questers antiques society elected Mrs. Paul Beard president at its May meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Leonard Klein, retiring president. Other 1967-8 officers are Mrs. Charles Ely, first vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Lovett, second vice-president; Mrs. William Crump, treasurer; Mrs. Howard F. Meyer, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. John Burkman, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Arthur Basel presented a paper on Tiffany Glass, tracing the career of Louis C. Tiffany, son of the founder of Tiffany and company, which gained for him the reputation as an "unmatched art glass colorist." While he did not actually originate the leaded glass lampshades called Tiffany shades, Mrs. Basel said, he "brought them to perfection."

Dr. and Mrs. Basel with their sons, Dean and Mark, will be moving to Midland about July 1. They already have sold their Northville home and have purchased a Dow-influenced quadlevel home in Midland. Dr. Basel has an office for private psychiatric practice in Bay City and plans to open one in Midland.

GARDEN CLUB members in the midst of the spring planting season have taken time out for work on the Northville branch beautification project — and also to make fall plans.

Monday Mrs. Denis Schwarz held her first committee meeting for the Flowers Internationale show to be held September 16. She is general chairman for the event to be held in the junior high boys' gymnasium (community building).

This year, the committee announces, there will be a pre-registration with the public welcome and invited to make entries. Children and young people will be included. The committee hopes these young-generation gardeners will plant flowers and vegetables to be entered in the show.

The Northville branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association has taken as a continuing project landscape decoration at the City Hall.

As their Michigan Week contribution Mrs. Gene Cushing and Mrs. Frank Whitmyer planted the building's downstairs planter box.

NORTHVILLE PTA's Space Age carnival broke records last Friday, grossing $5,800, according to chairman Mr. and Mrs. William Heffner and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kline. They expect this will net about $3,000 for the schools, topping last year's total by $1,000.

A many-orbit carnival such as this annual one, however, does not bring in this sum without hours and hours of volunteer work and planning. The Heffners, who assumed its chairmanship, did so as relative newcomers, having lived in Northville Estates only a year and a half.

For men like Frederick, Ben Kline, John Malone, Fred Schwarz and Robert Arien the carnival was a day and evening project as all were on hand all day long.

Mrs. Heffner estimates that "400 people" helped with the annual fund raiser, counting members of assisting organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Williams returned Sunday by plane from a week's vacation and reunion in Miami. They visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Houghton, and became acquainted with their new grandson, Michael. Mrs. Houghton is the former Donna Williams.

Visiting with them was their son, Tucker, who has returned to San Francisco.

New JH Principal Proposal Hits Financial Snag Here

An administrative recommendation for an assistant principal in the new Northville junior high school ran into a financial snag Monday night.

The proposal for an assistant, who would serve half his time in administrative work and half as an instructor, was left on the board of education table pending a clearer financial picture of the 1967-68 school year.

It was the first public disclosure that an assistant is desired, although apparently it had been discussed previously.

Trustee Richard Martin, who earlier in the meeting voted against a teacher-hiring proposal because of his repeated contention that he must first be shown conclusively that money is available, took the same position on the assistant principal proposal.

He said that no matter how much he might be in agreement to a proposal of this kind he cannot approve it until the problem of sufficient financing is solved.

Treasurer Eugene Cook said that in view of the fact the board could not approve all of Assistant Superintendent Raymond Spear's recommendations for hiring additional teachers, he could not justify the hiring additional administrators.

And Trustee Robert Froelich, who agreed that "dollars are important", said he could not approve such a proposal until a total review of the administrative structure, particularly as it concerns future educational goals of the school system, has been made.

Concerning the future financial picture, Superintendent Alex Nelson reported that the Wayne county clerk had advised him that the preliminary allocated tax rate for the Northville district has been set at 8.9 mills - the same share given to the district last year by the county allocation board.

Final hearing on the matter was to have been held Tuesday afternoon at which time the actual tax rate was to have been set along with an indication of the district's state equalized valuation.

A preliminary school budget, which hinges on the tax rate and other income sources such as the state, has been submitted to the county. Officials have, without disclosing figures, indicated that it probably will have to be revised considerably before reaching final packaging.

The teacher-hiring proposal which drew Martin's "no" vote concerned seven teachers, two of whom will be additions to the staff while the others will be replacements. The proposal was passed.

Two of the teachers, Jean Findlay and Carol Zalma, will be assigned here under the Schoolcraft internship program, which prompted William Secord to urge that the board pay special attention to the matter of supervision.

Assistant Superintendent Spear assured him that both would receive close supervision by local staff members as well as special Schoolcraft supervisors. Furthermore, he noted that both have been working with teachers in the local system for the past semester and come highly recommended as well qualified beginners.

The other teachers hired are: Norman Hannewald, junior high replacement; Charles Yahne, a former teacher here who has been on a leave of absence for a year, and Wayne Saunders, both of whom are replacements at the high school level; and Michele Whittaker, who will teach in the elementary level, and James Hudson, at the high school. The latter two represent additional teaching stations.

Spear said eight teaching positions remain to be filled - three of which are for new teaching stations.

In other matters concerning personnel, the board accepted the resignations of three teachers, Jane Farris, Carolyn Worek, and Oaklee Noblit effective with the conclusion of the present semester. All said they enjoyed their experience here, although Carolyn Worek in her letter of resignation said she had been treated with a "certain amount of indifference."

Moving to other matters, the board gave its stamp of approval to drawing of a 10-year lease to Northville township board for use of the township hall, which is a former one-room school building owned by the school system.

The lease, to be drawn up by the administration and submitted for final approval, will extend the present $25 monthly rental charge over the period of 10-years and require the township to absorb any additional insurance costs that may occur during this time.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam, who was present for the school board meeting, explained that the township is considering the possibility of acquiring a vacant, small house on the Haas property and having it attached to the township hall. He said additional space is needed and that the house - provided the cost of acquiring, moving and attaching it are not prohibitive - may satisfy these needs for five or six more years when a new township hall site may be made available. He did not elaborate.

In other business Monday, the board accepted a letter of retirement from Mrs. Leslie Lee, reading specialist and English teacher, and extended her its appreciation for her work in the local school system.

Heard a letter read from a representative of the Salvation Army in which the school district was granted the right to construct a path between Moraine school and Taft Colony subdivision - provided no granting of easement is necessary.

Heard that Thompson-Brown will share the cost of locating a sewer line (to the new junior high school) under Eight Mile road at Taft.

Asked that the city be reminded of the importance of widening of Taft to the new junior high and urged that school administrators step up their survey as to sidewalk needs.

Opened and referred to administrators bids on five new school bus chassis to be obtained under the newly approved bus purchase-lease program. Five bids were received, ranging from $16,857 to $19,135 (not counting alternates or specification changes).

Randolph Suit Near Conclusion

Conclusion of the Randolph street assessment suit against the city of Northville was expected Wednesday afternoon.

Testimony was heard Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday before Judge Joseph B. Moynihan, Jr., in Wayne county circuit court.

The plaintiffs, residents of Randolph street, completed their testimony Tuesday. City witnesses were heard Tuesday and Wednesday. They included the city engineer, clerk, mayor, director of public works and police chief.

In their suit the residents maintain that the installation of curbs, gutters, paving and widening of the street were detrimental to the residential, not improvements, and that they should not have been assessed 25 per cent of the cost.

Mustang Nine Eyes Championship

Northville will travel to Clarkston today (Thursday), and the winner will cart off the Wayne-Oakland Conference baseball championship.

Nothing more, nothing less. The two teams are tied for the league lead with 11-2 records and today's ball game is the season finale for both teams.

Some lusty hitting and good luck placed Northville in the showdown battle.

Clarkston was leading the pack with only one loss when Bloomfield Hills got some strong pitching from John Baumann and some timely hitting against Clarkston's Dan Fife to post a 2-1 upset last week.

Meanwhile, Northville was winning both of its ball games.

The Mustangs edged Milford, 5-3, last Thursday as Milford committed seven errors. "They gave us unexpected help," Coach Bob Kucher quipped. Only one Northville run was earned.

Furthermore, Milford pulled the boo-boo of the year. Glenn Cascodan slammed a home run but was ruled out when, in glee, he took off his protective batting helmet on the base paths, which is against the rules.

There was nothing freakish about Northville's victory Monday over

Bloomfield Hills to break a three-way deadlock for the league lead. Northville touched Baumann, the same man who had stifled Clarkston, for 11 hits and went on to a 10-1 victory.

That, in essence, is what happened, but it can all be forgotten, pending the outcome of the Clarkston-Northville clash.

Kucher indicates he'll go with his new-found winning mound combination of Bill Skelly and Dennis Primeau. Skelly will work the first three or four innings or until he tires, then Primeau will come on to finish up.

The strategy has clicked for Kucher. Take the last two games, for instance. Skelly pitched the first five innings against Bloomfield Hills, giving up three hits, and one run walking one and striking out five. Primeau went the last two innings, giving up two hits and no runs, walking one and striking out three, all three whiffs coming in the final frame.

Against Milford, Skelly hurled the first three innings, allowing two runs. Primeau finished up by giving up three hits and one run, walking three and striking out five. Once again he struck out the side in the seventh inning.

Skelly is sporting a 5-1 record; Primeau is 4-1.

A five-run sixth-inning splurge against Bloomfield Hills dealt the Barons the crushing blow Monday. Until the outburst, Northville was hanging tightly to a 5-1 lead.

Centerfielder Pat Hall triggered the blow-up by lining a home run over the left field fence with a man aboard and two out. Northville went on to score three more runs.

Hall led the attack. His homer and a double knocked in three runs. He also scored a run.

Second Basemen Stan Nirider got the most hits, however, three singles in four at bats. Rightfielder Chris Holman also had two for four.

Northville made the most of four hits and Milford's seven errors last Thursday.

With Milford ahead, 1-0, Northville tallied three times in the second inning. Singles by Joe Donner and Skelly plus three errors accounted for the runs.

After tallying once in the third on a two-base error and a single, Milford made its bid for victory in the fourth. Jim Kaspor walked leading off and Cascodan then lined his home run over Holman's head in right field. But the umpire called Cascodan out.

Instead of a 4-3 lead, Milford was forced to settle, at the time, for a 3-3 tie. Northville scored twice in the sixth inning to put the game safely in the win column.

Golfers Hit Low Mark '67 Season

The leaders were no where in sight when the Northville high school linksters, who turned in a "disappointing performance," walked away from the regional golf tournament Friday.

Northville needed to finish in the top three to qualify for the state class B tournament, but finished near the middle of the 22-team pack.

Scores skyrocketed as Tom Fagan shot a 90, Keith Mueller and Billie Thomas each shot 94's and Mike Hohenic fired a 99 for a team total of 377.

"The seniors let me down," Coach Al Jones said of Mueller and Hohenic. Fagan and Thomas are sophomores. "We just had a bad day," the coach blurted.

In the Pontiac Press tournament Monday, Northville finished 13th in a field of 25 class A and B teams and third among class B teams.

Mueller shot an 84, Fagan an 85, Hohenic an 88 and Thomas a 91 for a total of 348.

Little League Opens With Ceremonies

The Novi Little League got underway last week Monday with ceremonies honoring last year's top individual players.

Most valuable player and batting champion was Tom Van Wagner; top hurler was Ron Cavill. For 9 and 10-year-olds the top pitcher was Tim Assemany and the top batter was Dale Smith.

Flynn Modernization beat the Rexall Pillars, 21-0; Novi Party Store defeated Paragon Steelers, 10-5; the Jayhawks beat B-V Construction, 12-1. In other games, Flynn beat Novi Party Store, 27-1; B-V beat Paragon, 15-14, and Jayhawks nipped the Pillars, 9-5.

OUCH—Northville's Randy Pohlman put a little football into baseball Monday when he met the Bloomfield Hill's catcher, who was stretching high for the throw, head on. Both players went sprawling. Although the catcher held onto the ball, Pohlman was ruled safe for having beaten the throw.

Northville Title Bid Falls Short

Northville's bid for a second consecutive Wayne-Oakland Conference tennis championship failed during the past weekend as Clarkston claimed first place in the league tourney — by a scant one and one-quarter points.

But Northville still claimed two distinctions.

Senior Jim Long waded with ease through four opponents to repeat as the league singles champ. And the duo of Ken Boerger and Randy Burnett won the doubles championship to give Northville its second doubles title in two years.

Long was at his best. He whipped Doug Plante of Bloomfield Hills, 6-1, 7-5, in the first round, Bill Richards of Bloomfield Hills, 6-3, 6-1, in the second, Duane Addis of Holly, 7-5, 6-1, in the semi-finals and Mike Dougherty of Clarkston, 6-3, 7-5, in the finals.

Boerger-Burnett sliced up three opponents to gain the finals against Kirk Beattie and Tom Bullard, the only duo to beat the Northville pair this year. Boerger-Burnett won the rubber match, 6-3, 6-3.

"The boys performed real well," Coach Dick Norton commented. "I was satisfied with the way they played, but not with the way the score read."

Clarkston posted 15 points, Northville scored 13 3/4 points, Bloomfield Hills had 6 1/2, Holly 4, Clarenceville 3/4 and Milford 0.

For winning first place, Clarkston garnered 10 points. Coupled with the 10 points awarded for winning the regular season race, Clarkston thus earned a total of 20 points. Northville, for finishing second in the league and tournament, garnered a total of 17 points.

Actually, luck of the draw had a finger in the results. Northville's number two and three teams were eliminated by Clarkston's top team of Beattie and Bullard, before they were beaten in the finals by Boerger and Burnett.

And Bloomfield had Beattie and Bullard on the ropes in another doubles match. But the Clarkston doubles team came back from a 5-3 third set deficit to win.

"We were looking for a break, but we didn't get it," Norton said.

Northville had two other wins in the singles. Bruce Griesiewicz and Chuck Skene both won in the first round, Griesiewicz by forfeit and Skene by a 6-3, 3-6, 9-7 count. But they lost in the second round.

Aside from the victories of Boerger and Burnett, Northville won only two other doubles matches. Mark Gazlay and Mark Sheffer won 6-3, 6-4 and Bruce Durham-Jon Eberhart won 6-0, 6-0.

Six Thinclads Qualify For Michigan Finals

Northville qualified five trackmen for the state finals Saturday at East Lansing.

Finishing in the top three in the regionals Friday and Saturday at Clarenceville to earn a state berth were Ron Gloetznar and the mile relay team of Jack Crawford, Greg Marshall, George D'Haene and Bill Harrison.

With 19 points, Northville finished fourth in a field of 18 teams. Clarenceville scored 51 points, Lutheran West 30 and Dearborn Crestwood 22.

Gloetznar turned in the top performance. The lean junior pole vaulted 11' 10" to win first place and finished second in the 180-yard low hurdles.

In winning the pole vault, Gloetznar, who has gone as high as 12'4" this year, beat two other pole vaulters who have topped the 12-foot mark, Clarenceville's Jim Amick and Lutheran West's Tim Kramer. Amick went 11'4" and Kramer reached 11'.

Tom Harborne, Clarenceville's speedster and one of the top hurdle men in the state, beat Gloetznar in the hurdles.

"It was a bad day for running," Coach Ralph Redmond said. "The times were cut down by a stiff wind blowing into the face of the runners."

Northville's mile relay team finished third in the event. Redmond credits the addition of Crawford for boosting his team into the finals. It's the first time that Crawford has run a 440 leg.

Northville suffered in the dashes as a result. Crawford is the top local speedster.

"That was the first time that group of boys has run together and they did a good job," Redmond said. "I expect improvement in the state finals."

Northville narrowly missed out in

RIBBON WINNER — 12-year-old Debbie Arlen won a first and two fourth place ribbons Sunday on her horse "Commander" at the 4-H fairgrounds in Belleville. Debbie took first in the saddle and hunter equitation competition and fourth in Morgan English pleasure and costume classes. Other Northville area residents winning awards at the show were: Eddie Earehart, first in Morgan fine harness on "Bay Dolphin" and second in stallion in hand on "Atomic Storm"; David Earehart, second in stock seat equitation and third in equitation stakes on "Peables"; Walter Kane, first in Morgan mare in hand and third in Morgan fine harness on "Deerfield Pamela"; Melanie Cole, first in costume on "Punch"; and Patty Swank, third in Morgan gelding in hand on "Mister Allen".

Lift Rods, Reels From Shanty

An estimated two or three fishing rods and reels were stolen from a locked fishing shanty at Walled Lake in the vicinity of 1185 East Lake drive.

The breaking and entering took place some time between May 17 and last Friday at 6:12 a.m., when the theft was reported.

Entry to the shanty was gained by breaking the glass in the door and removing a top hinge. Owner of the fishing equipment is Tony Fragnoli of Bloomfield Hills.

Municipal Court

With visiting Judge Robert K. Anderson of Novi presiding, only one case was tried in Northville municipal court.

Michael A. Krause, 18, of Plymouth was found guilty of careless driving at the Clark Gasoline station on South Main street. He was fined $25 and placed on probation to the court.

Terms of probation provided that he either scrub down the service station drive or pay damage restitution of $40. Krause scrubbed the driveway to the station attendant's satisfaction.

Boy Scouts

Nineteen Boy Scouts and 11 adults enjoyed a camping and canoe trip in Northern Michigan this past weekend.

The group left Northville Friday, motoring to Grayling where they set up camp on an island in the Au Sable River. Main event Saturday was a 25 mile trip down the river by canoe.

Added attractions included the watching of Army paratroopers practicing drops from helicopters at the National Guard base near Grayling.

Scout leaders report that "high spirits were maintained by all despite high winds, cold weather, rain and snow."

Officials to Relive History in Barn

A page of Northville history will be relived tomorrow when area officials meet in a Plymouth barn.

Northville city and township officials, together with Canton township officials, have been invited to join the Plymouth township board for its 7 p.m. meeting in the barn where 140 years ago today the first local area township meeting took place.

The barn, located on Territorial road on what is now the Ralph Garber farm, was the property of John Tibbetts on May 25, 1827 when the first township meeting convened. At that time the township included all of Northville, Plymouth and Canton.

Besides conducting its regular business meeting, the Plymouth township board and its guests will hear Ferris E. Lewis, Dearborn Community college professor of history, speak on pioneer life. Lewis, a familiar speaker at meetings of the Northville Historical Society, will end 42 years in the teaching field this week.

Less than 10 years after the historic first township meeting in what is now Plymouth township, the township of Canton was disconnected from the remaining area to function as a separate government.

Present day Northville and Plymouth continued to operate jointly until in the spring of 1898 the two communities split, forming the township of Plymouth and the township of Northville.

Ironically, it is the same five community area (city and township of Northville, city and township of Plymouth, and the township of Canton) which today is pondering the question of unity.

Jehovah's Witnesses Plan Assembly Here

A circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses will be held at Northville high school, 775 N. Center street, Northville, Michigan, the weekend of May 26-28.

Sixteen southeastern Michigan congregations will be represented. Mr. C. Carson Coonce, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation stated that approximately 115 delegates will be attending from the Plymouth-Northville area.

The theme of the assembly is "Supply to Your Faith Endurance". Many talks and demonstrations will emphasize this theme. The program, to be detailed later, will be under the direction of C. L. Cecil, circuit minister.

The principal speaker of the assembly will be Marvin L. Holien, who has been a district minister of Jehovah's Witnesses since 1964.

The main feature of the assembly will be presented on Sunday afternoon, May 28, when a color motion picture will be shown entitled, "God Cannot Lie".

Esch to Visit Here Tomorrow

Two stops tomorrow are scheduled in Northville by Congressman Marvin L. Esch on his Memorial Day weekend trip back to the Second Congressional district.

From 3 to 4 p.m. the Ann Arbor Republican will meet with Northville city, township, and school leaders to discuss the acquisition of fish hatchery property for local use. The group will gather at the Northville city hall.

From 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., Congressman Esch will hold a public office hour for residents of Northville township in the township hall on Franklin road. Persons experiencing difficulties with federal government services or who have views to express on national legislation may meet personally with Congressman Esch during this time.

WE ALL HAVE OUR LIMITATIONS

Copyright 1967 Keeler Advertising Service, Inc., Stairburg, Va

There's a great lesson in blowing bubbles. We're so sure we can blow the biggest bubble ever blown. And, for a second, we're sure we have.

Then the bubble is gone... with it our unreasoning self-confidence. So we content ourselves with blowing smaller bubbles—the biggest smaller bubbles we can... the kind of bubbles that last awhile!

The best time for your child to begin religious training is before he becomes conscious of his limitations. When he starts gradually to recognize the boundaries of his ability, he'll need real guidance and encouragement in devoting himself to goals which last awhile.

The rich, full, happy, useful life is not wasted on shallow dreams that are but for the moment. It is dedicated to doing one's best.

And, for centuries, it has been our Faith, taught and nurtured in our churches, which has inspired in men their best.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Reverend James Andrews
Full Salvation Union

"Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Eph. 4:3).

This effort which some have been making for many years, must ultimately bring us to the "Unity of the Faith" — or it has failed in its purpose.

Keeping the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace has been a matter of exercising charity toward one another in our differences of religious doctrine and practice, realizing that there is only "One God and Father of all, Who is above all, and through all, and in you all."

Those who have been doing this are to be commended; for many in Christendom have failed to do the will of God in this regard. We have only to look upon the divided Church today to know that this is true. However, it is not enough to endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit but we must move on out of that wilderness of religious ideas based upon man's understanding as to what the Bible teaches into the "Unity of the faith."

This is not a unity of doctrinal concept or of religious sacraments in the church; but it is a unity of the faith, which is realized in a state of complete surrender to God without a mental reservation. God demands a complete perfect, pure faith in Himself rather than in anything else such as religious doctrine, the Bible, the sacraments, forms and ceremonies, etc.

To lead us into this reality Christ gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers. The tragedy is that many have used the gifts God has given to build religious babylon instead of the kingdom of God. Instead of leading God's people into the Unity of the faith they have led them into all sorts of religious sects that emphasize certain ideas and practices which divide and separate.

God's purpose and effort through the years has been to bring His people into the promised land of Oneness in this unadulterated, absolute, perfect faith in God Himself alone.

It is difficult for many to give up to God without a mental reservation because they are so devoted to their church and its doctrines and religious practices; but no one can go on in to the "Unity of the faith" until they are willing with all things to part, until they reach the place where they no longer put any confidence in the flesh. Oh, God, help us to be made One in such reality.

The ecumenical movement of today will continue to wander in the wilderness of endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace until all those who are unwilling to commit themselves fully to the mind of God revealed in this reality of which we speak perish out there and a new generation arises who will not be afraid to enter in and be made One in the faith of the Son of God Who loved us and gave Himself for us.

It is simply a matter of giving up to God without a mental reservation and being made One in that pure faith in God alone.

As this is done we will then be able to observe with our intelligence the acts of the Son of God revealed in a manymembered body joined together in the Unity of the faith; and this observation will give to us the knowledge of the Son of God for we will see Him revealed in this manifestation. This knowledge cannot be obtained in any other way.

Such knowledge will move us on to a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

And the result will be that we will be no more children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love we will grow up into Him in all things, which is the Head, even Christ.

There is no way to keep from being tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine out there in the wilderness of endeavoring to keep the Unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, for that is the very nature and essence of that realm. Those who have not been tossed about are those who have identified themselves with a certain wind of doctrine and they are no longer endeavoring to keep the Unity of the Spirit. Rather they are always blowing in a certain direction, compassing sea and land to make a proselyte. And when they have made him, they make him two-fold more the child of hell than they themselves.

Oh, God, save us! To Thee we reach our hands. Lead us into the Unity of the faith, that we may see Christ revealed in a many-membered body, that we may have the knowledge of the Son of God, and be like Him because of seeing Him as He is.

Ordination Set For New Pastor

An ordination service will be held Sunday evening at the Presbyterian Church of Harbor Beach to ordain Mr. Timothy C. Johnson, recently called to serve as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville, into the Gospel ministry.

The 7:30 p.m. service will be conducted by the Presbytery of Lake Huron, with the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the Northville church, participating. Several members of the Northville church will be attending.

Mr. Johnson will be presented to and received by the Presbytery of Detroit, meeting in the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham on May 31 at 7 p.m., and installed by the pastor in the Northville morning services on June 4.

A dinner for the Johnsons will be held by the Church School Council on June 6 in the Northville Fellowship Hall beginning at 6:30. Church school teachers, husbands and wives, and youth fellowship sponsors will attend this dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are residing now at 19818 Clement road.

Psychedelic Posters

Teenagers Really Dig New Art

An exciting and puzzling art sweeping the country has invaded Northville and is leaving colorful but twisted forms in its wake.

It's all part of the psychedelic poster craze, picked up by young local artists who can't keep up with the demand. Not enough to go around, the posters are ripped from bulletin boards, ferreted out of store windows and plastered on the walls of teenagers who spend hours gazing at them in an attempt to decipher their meaning and read into them their own personal meanings.

The posters defy standard rules of advertising—simplicity, ease of reading, admits one of the young artists, Northville Senior Donald Forsyth.

"Sure they're hard to understand but that's what makes them so great. It's the most exciting new form of art we have.

"It's great because it lets you do just about anything you want with colors and forms. It's a liberal form of art."

Take Don's poster, which appears on Page 1-B, for example. It's typical of the psychedelic posters used by The Cavern in sponsoring its Saturday night teenage dances here. The posters are so popular that The Cavern pays the artists $5 to paint them and several times that to have them printed and duplicated for distribution, says The Cavern publicity chairman, Robin Armstrong.

In explaining this poster (it takes an explanation because it's not an easy one to understand), Don says it borders on surrealism. "You take a familiar object, like the head, and put it in some unrealistic setting. Of course, you can let your imagination go.

"I know The Cavern will like this poster, but not because of the meaning I put in it. The head is nailed down and is screaming out to be released. That symbolizes the restrictions The Cavern has at its dances."

No need to explain the long hair, but what about the flower?

"I like flowers and almost always put one in my posters. It has no meaning. I just like 'em."

The fact that the words around the head are difficult to read "really makes" the poster. "If you could read it easily it wouldn't be psychedelic."

"In having it printed, though, The Cavern kind of ruined it by having the words 'psychedelic dance' at the bottom. They shouldn't be there. The poster says that it's a psychedelic dance without the words."

Don's posters are done in either India ink or with Magic Marker pens, using two or three colors.

Other local artists sharing his interest in this new art form, which reportedly originated in San Francisco, include Chad Hines, Mark Butler and Joel Symms.

Forsyth and Hines do most of their posters for the Grande Ball Room in Detroit, operated by Russ Gibb, teacher and radio commentator.

New Development Spotlights Local History

King's Mill Townhouses, an exciting new $10 million cooperative community located in Northville in Cass Benton Park on Northville road between Six and Seven Mile roads, will have its grand opening this weekend. It is the last in the $27,000,000 Townhouse series currently being built by the Smokler company, one of the nation's largest builders and a pioneer in townhouse developments.

King's Mill is located in an area of Michigan which was settled by some of the state's first pioneers. Several months ago, the Smokler company commissioned a special study of history and traditions of Northville. As a part of the grand opening, a special display of rare articles, documents, and photos of the community in earlier years can be viewed in the King's Mill Museum. Townhouse models are named after prominent long-ago Northville citizens: John Miller, Arnold Whipple, Adin Cummins, B.A. Parmenter, Brayton G. Webster, and William Dunlap.

The John Miller, is a two-story, three bedroom home, with formal dining room, 1 1/2 baths and full basement. The home, named after the pioneer who built the first mill in the King's Mill area, is a spacious colonial townhouse, with privacy insured by positioning the living room and dining room in the rear of the house. A large step-saving corridor kitchen makes cooking and serving much easier for the homemaker. Upstairs, there is a big master bedroom, plus two additional bedrooms for children, guests, or a family den.

The Arnold Whipple, commemorating one of the area's first farmers, is a dramatic two-story, two-bedroom home with dining area, 1 1/2 baths, and full basement. The large living room spans the entire width of the house, while the dining room and "U" shaped kitchen overlook the rear yard. Upstairs, the master bedroom, guest bedroom, and main bath complete this luxury atmosphere.

Adin Cummins, known to early Northville as "The Patriot" because three of his sons fell in the Union ranks during the Civil War, is remembered at King's Mill with a two story townhouse that makes the most of available space. This home encompasses a large living room, dining area, two big bedrooms, bath and full basement.

B. A. Parmenter established in old Northville a cider mill that is still operated by his descendants. The townhouse named after him has two stories with two bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, and a full basement. The first floor features a vestibule entry, rear living room, formal dining room, powder room and step-saving kitchen with paneled breakfast nook. The master bedroom on the second floor features massive triple closets.

The William Dunlap, a townhouse named after a leading pioneer who posted Northville's first deed, is a single story ranch-style townhouse, perfect for the young couple starting out or for an older couple who wants a more compact home. With one bedroom and one bath, this townhouse features a spacious front living room, convenient kitchen with dining area, and bedroom with huge walk-in closet.

The Brayton G. Webster commemorates a Civil War hero and Northville craftsman. This is a two bedroom ranch home for families wishing one-floor convenience combined with a den or second bedroom for overnight guests.

Distinctively designed, these King's

Mill townhouses, offer up to 1,150 square feet of carefully-planned living space, plus a full private basement, a back yard and individual front and rear entrances.

King's Mill townhouses contain all the luxury features usually found in Smokler communities. Each air-conditioned townhouse offers a formal dining area as well as a kitchen eating area, plus these kitchen appliances: a giant G.E. 14 cubic foot double door refrigerator, dishwasher, disposal, hood fan, built-in oven and range. Care-free kitchens are assured by custom furniture-finished cabinets; copper-patterned Vikon tile backsplash behind the range; and the highest quality inlaid floor covering.

In the master baths, townhouses have easy-to-clean Formica-topped vanities which extend to the floor for extra linen and medicine storage; expensive scored crystalline ceramic tile, and a large plate glass makeup mirror over the vanity.

Basements offer plenty of room for hobby and recreation areas plus storage and laundry. The laundry tub is made of popular, long-wearing fiberglass. Privacy in each King's Mill Townhouse is assured by the latest in double wall sound-conditioning. Silent long-lasting mercury light switches are used throughout and each townhouse includes luxury lighting fixtures.

Outdoor luxury features include: front and rear yards sodded and attractively landscaped with trees and shrubs; automatic sprinkling system and attractive, lighted paved parking areas.

King's Mill residents are automatically members of the fabulous Town Club which offers a huge 3500 square foot pool, uniquely shaped with special children's shallow wading area and with a separate diving section. Bathhouse and barbecue facilities adjoin the pool, and a pool director and trained life-guards are on full-time duty. Clubhouse facilities include the huge main clubroom where dances and parties for members will be held. Other facilities include a creative corner, nursery, meeting room and a complete kitchen for the preparation of anything from party snacks to full course meals. A full-time social director will arrange community get-togethers as well as private parties.

King's Mill is nestled in the heart of Cass Benton Park... richly wooded rolling parkland with picnic, skating, tobogganing and year-round activities.

As a cooperative community, King's Mill provides the benefits of private home ownership and the benefits of luxury apartment living without any of the drawbacks of either. After an initial low down payment, residents pay a monthly fee to the cooperative.

Each resident owns a share of the cooperative without any personal mortgage liability and the cooperative takes care of real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance except redecorating. That includes electrical, heating, and plumbing repairs plus landscaping maintenance and snow removal. The cooperative also takes care of replacing appliances when they wear out.

Furthermore, townhouse residents have the same income tax benefits of an individual homeowner. A member of the King's Mill cooperative deducts his annual share of interest on the mortgage and real estate taxes on the cooperative. It is estimated that 61% of the monthly payment will be deductible the first normal year of operations. Plus, as the townhouse community increases in value, each resident shares in the increased equity.

Furnished Townhouse models will be open daily and Sunday from noon to 8:00 p.m. and on Saturday from noon to 5:00 p.m. They are closed on Thursdays. Townhouse monthly payments start at $157.

King's Mill Townhouses Feature One, Two, and Three Bedrooms

GRAND OPENING: King's Mill Townhouses

If you ever wanted to kiss the city goodbye... live where you can hike, bike, picnic and swim in country sunshine and fresh forest breezes... now is the time, and King's Mill is the place.

Have you had enough of the city?

We know where you can live in a majestically beautiful park made by Nature, not by man... where you can walk for hours in clean open air... where your youngsters can romp in grassy fields and splash in an Olympic-sized pool... and your door is always open to your neighbor.

It's near a town called Northville. There, just 15 minutes from northwest Detroit, but in other ways another world away, stands King's Mill.

LUXURY HOMES OUT IN THE COUNTRY

King's Mill Luxury Townhouses were built by The Smokler Company in the middle of Cass Benton Park, one of the loveliest areas in southeastern Michigan. Here luxurious 1, 2 and 3 bedroom Townhouses, magnificent Town Club, and Olympic-size swimming pool sparkle below the tree line.

CITY-STYLE 1, 2 AND 3 BEDROOM HOMES WITH LUXURY KITCHENS AND AIR-CONDITIONING

Each Townhouse is an individual one or two story home with up to 1,150 square feet of living space, plus a full basement. You'll have your own private entrances, large living room, separate formal dining area, full-size bedrooms, and plenty of closet space. Double wall sound conditioning shuts out any noise from next door, and air-conditioning shuts out the heat.

King's Mill kitchens feature over $1,000 worth of brand new, top-of-the-line appliances: 11 cu. ft. double-door G.E. refrigerator-freezer, G.E. disposal, hood fan, Dishmaster, oven and range, Vikon backsplash, and furniture-finished cabinets.

YOUR OWN PLUSH COUNTRY CLUB AND OLYMPIC-SIZE SWIMMING POOL

In the luxurious Town Club, you'll find card, billiard, teen, and meeting rooms, nursery, fully-equipped kitchen, and a unique "Creative Corner." Adjacent to the Club is an Olympic-size swimming pool with full-time pool manager and lifeguards. Both Town Club and pool are included in the cost of your Townhouse. You won't pay a penny extra.

With all these luxuries to enjoy, you probably won't find time to do any maintenance. So we've hired full-time crews to cut the grass, shovel the snow, do the landscaping, and take care of plumbing and appliance replacement and repairs. You won't have to pay for it, either.

TAX DEDUCTIONS CUT THE COST OF LUXURY LIVING

What do you pay for? Just your Townhouse.

King's Mill is a cooperative with a modest 5 1/4% mortgage, sold and managed by a non-profit corporation, the FCH Company. To move in, you pay the cooperative a very small membership deposit. Monthly payments — as low as $157 a month — then increase your equity. Yet about 3% of each payment is deductible from your income tax. And, you have no personal mortgage liability. Should you ever wish to move, just give the cooperative sixty days' notice, and they'll buy your Townhouse from you, or undertake to sell it for you.

But we think you won't want to move. We think you'll stay at King's Mill. Come out and see it today.

And get ready to kiss the city goodbye.

King's Mill Townhouses are located on Northville Road between Six and Seven Mile Roads. Model Phone: 349-5820. Open Daily and Sunday — Noon to 8 p.m. Saturday — Noon to 5 p.m. Closed Thursday.

News Around Schoolcraft

A total of 54 Schoolcraft college students were listed on the winter semester dean's list, released this week by John H. Brinn, vice-president for instruction. The list is comprised of students with scholastic averages of 3.5 and above.

Those from Northville and Novi are:

Cass J. Kershaw, 330 N. Center street, 3.786; Danny E. Larkin, 503 N. Center street, 3.571; Michael E. Hall, 454 River street, 3.563; Theodore A. Jacques, 21551 Napier road, 3.5; Mrs. Betty J. Willis, 310 W. Dunlap, 3.5; and Diane Palunas, 23645 Ripple Creek, 3.778.

The executive board of the Michigan Personnel and Guidance association, will meet at Schoolcraft college on Thursday, June 8, for a planning session on the organization's 1967-68 program, which includes the American Personnel and Guidance association's convention at Cobo Hall, Detroit, next April.

The APGA meeting will attract upwards of 10,000 personnel and guidance administrators from throughout the nation.

Patrick Egan, director of guidance at Springfield high school, Battle Creek, is MPGA president. John Weber, assistant dean of student affairs at Schoolcraft college, is president-elect.

Nearly 1,000 seniors from area high schools, and their parents, got an early exposure to college life at a get-acquainted orientation meeting in the Lois L. Waterman Campus center at Schoolcraft college Monday night May 15.

The seniors, all of whom have been accepted for enrollment at the college, were invited to the campus as part of a new plan which this year concentrates the college's orientation procedure on the campus. In the past years, Schoolcraft counselors and other Office of Student Affairs administrators have conducted orientation meetings at the individual high schools in the college district.

Filling the main dining room of the Center, the students and their parents, were welcomed by Dr. Eric J. Bradner, Schoolcraft president, and then were briefed on some over-all aspects of college life by Dean of Student Affairs Edward V. McNally, John Cansfield, financial aids officer, and Marvin Gans, director of physical education.

Fifteen Schoolcraft college students have been accepted for inclusion in the first listing of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges, a companion directory to one listing top students in four-year colleges and universities.

They were selected by a committee composed of three students, two members of the faculty and a member of the administrative staff.

$15,000.00 October 1, 1979;
$ 5,000.00 October 1, 1980.

Interest on said bonds will be payable on April 1, 1967, and semi-annually thereafter on October 1st and April 1st of each year.

Said bonds will be dated August 1, 1966, will be coupon bonds in the denomination of $5,000.00 each, will be numbered consecutively in direct order of maturity from 1 upwards, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding five per cent (5%) per annum, expressed in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of 1%, or both. The interest rate on any one bond shall be at one rate only and all bonds maturing in any one year must carry the same interest, and each coupon period shall be represented by one interest coupon. Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds, which paying agent qualifies as such under the statutes of the State of Michigan or of the Federal Government. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Bonds maturing in the years 1976 to 1980, inclusive, may be redeemed at the option of the Village, in inverse numerical order, on any interest payment date on or after October 1, 1970, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption.

Notice of redemption shall be given to holders of bonds to be redeemed by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once, in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan, which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds. No further interest payable on bonds so called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption, provided the Village has money available for such redemption with the paying agent.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from July 1, 1967, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Village. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds herein offered, or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

The bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments on Special Assessment Roll No. 9 to finance the special assessment districts share of the cost of sanitary sewer improvements in the Village of Novi for their payment.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $4,900.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the Village of Novi, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest will be allowed on the good faith checks, and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys, of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof. The Village shall furnish bonds ready for execution at its expense. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan. The usual closing documents, including a certificate that no litigation is pending affecting the issuance of said bonds will be delivered at the time of delivery.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The surprise and concern that accompanied the submission of petitions calling for removal of the Northville superintendent of schools Monday night must be given top billing as the greatest act of the year.

If the community has been disgraced by the event, the board of education must accept full responsibility.

The presence of the petitions has been well known for many weeks, perhaps months. A strong board could have either prevented, or adequately answered, the petitions.

But forthrightness is not one of the Northville board's characteristics. Instead it has buried its head firmly in the sand and pretended that if enough time passes the unpleasantness will go away.

The right of taxpayers to petition elected bodies can never be denied. The reason makes little difference — recall, removal or opposition to liquor licenses. People petition when they are concerned about the direction in which their elected officials are moving.

Action, or lack of action, by elected bodies prompts petitions.

It is time the Northville board of education displays some leadership, defines its position and stops asking people to "read between the lines".

A secretive, wishy-washy policy gives rise to rumors and unrest and usually results in someone taking matters into their own hands and circulating petitions.

One further thought. The usual aftermath of unpleasant meetings, such as took place Monday evening, is now occurring. The press is being asked to "play down" the ugly matter.

We heard the same complaints when petitions were being circulated against a local liquor license. Too much space was given to the objectors... who really represented an unimportant minority.

Now the press is going to paint a distorted picture of the community by reporting what took place at a public board meeting. And pretty soon we'll be able to blame the whole affair on "newspaper talk".

That's a comfortable, and popularly acceptable, solution.

It's an old line, but we'll say it again: The Record doesn't make the news, it reports it... as accurately and objec-tively as possible in its news columns. Sometimes the actions of people at public meetings are regrettable and sad to report. But if you select only the good, you no longer have a newspaper... you have a publication full of prepared "releases".

This page of The Record is reserved for opinions... ours and yours. It is open to letters from readers, who must only sign them to have them published (provided, of course, their words are not libelous or profane).

It is our opinion that the Northville school system is a good one that will become even better. But the board must learn to place confidence in the ability of the public to understand.

I cannot think of a business, large or small, that has not experienced personnel problems, particularly during times of transition.

Our school system is not a private business, however. It belongs to the public. It should be considered a happy circumstance that they are deeply interested.

Given the facts to which they are entitled, they might provide some helpful assistance.

Hats Off to...

Lawrence A. Wright, who three years ago spearheaded a project to publicize Michigan, was awarded the coveted Governor's Award in ceremonies on the capitol steps at Lansing yesterday.

The presentation was made by Governor George Romney. Wright, who lives at 40241 Fairway drive was nominated for the award by the 1966 Michigan Week Council by virtue of the fact that the council awarded him a Michigan Minuteman citation for "extraordinary service". A panel of judges then picked him for the Governor's Award in the Michigan Minuteman honors program of 1967.

Of the more than eight million people living in Michigan, only 100 individuals are given the Governor's Award.

Back in 1964 Wright was twice nominated for the Product of the Year award for producing and selling postcards — all of which carried interesting and educational messages about Michigan. Sold in lots of 200, each card carried a different message.

Since then he's been pushing the cards and boosting the image of the state.

"DADDY, DID HE BURN HIS DRAFT CARD?"

By ROLLY PETERSON

One of the most frustrating and humbling experiences in this wide world, exclusive of nothing, is a visit to a bookstore. Back to back and belly to belly, the books repose volume upon volume on shelf upon shelf, book rack next to book rack, like great overlords looking defiantly over their vassals, the browsers. After an hour or so of intense searching, even the most astute scholar can be driven over the brink of lunacy.

Things were bad enough when the brittle backs alone occupied the shelves. At least the reader had an out: The cost of hard backs was prohibitive; he could say, or there wasn't enough shelf space in his home. And in fact, there were less books. No longer, however, can the reader marshal excuses.

Along — in the 1950's — came the paperback, cheaper and attractively bound in the economy size. Old publishers stepped up production, universities became their own clearing houses and new publishing firms popped up like dandelions, most of them dealing exclusively in paperbacks.

Communications were definitely improving. So were printing processes. And to further complicate matters — adding to the frustration of avid readers — our technological age was becoming an age of specialization, adding to the proliferation of books, paperback and hard back.

To combat the tidal wave of books, three solutions present themselves to the average mind (if there is such a thing).

First, there is speed reading, popularized by John F. Kennedy who reportedly in a nod could read a book. Later, however, the facile process has undergone a debunking.

Second, there is the coward's way out. Negate the book store by staying away. Although this method does not meet the problem headon, (what happened to the original intent of learning something), it nevertheless saves the ego. Magazines, newspapers (no offense intended) and an occasional paperback, thrown haphazardly on the couch by a forgetful friend, become fodder for thought.

A third way of combating the book boom, and the most realistic approach, is shortcutting. Rather than attempting to wade through every new book, play the waiting game. Wait for the critics to sort the pulp from belle lettres. While this method may not keep you current, it does preserve the ego and satisfy the learning yearning at the same time.

The publishers themselves have enhanced shortcutting. More anthologies and criticisms are available to enable the reader to learn about new trends and ideas. Although a steady diet of time savers does not lead to a healthy perspective through intimate knowledge of the latest good books, they do provide enlightened leads to selective reading.

"The Theater of Protest and Paradox; Developments in the Avant-Garde Drama," for instance, is a pungent, book of criticism, especially valuable for its erudite remarks on the near-contemporary theatre. Originally published in 1964, the book is entertainingly written by George E. Wellwarth.

He follows the development of the normally perplexing avant-garde theatre, from the Ubu plays of Alfred Jarry, a French playwright of the late 1800's who was "the originator of the scream of protest later to be decreed by Artaud (Antonin) as the official theme of the avant-garde drama" to Friedrich Durrenmatt ("The Visit" and "The Physicists") and Edward Albee ("The Zoo Story" and "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?").

For one thoroughly confused by the dark panderings of Harold Ionesco, Wellwarth's book is a beacon in the dark. He lights the way to the core of the movement and spotlights individual plays to make his point.

Wellwarth is evangelistic in pursuit of his subject. He spares no words (blasting critics to whom many new plays are repugnant) but his bias is a welcome breath. It shows distinct taste, strong opinion, which, after all, provides the spark of discussion. And his knowledge, extant on every page, provides distinct leads to good avant-garde plays.

Top of the Deck

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

"However," he warned, "don't think lightly of trash in the mail box. No matter how speedily you throw it away, it's better than finding your mail box empty."

"At least," he concluded, "you know that someone, somewhere, cares enough, even if only to send the very worst."

It took W. T. Rabe four pages of triple spaced copy to make his rebuttal, but make it he did.

Readers of this column (I can count them on one hand) will recall that the bearded Mr. Rabe, director of public information for the University of Detroit (probably better known as the moderator of the popular radio show, "Ask The Professors") recently leaked out of my poison pen.

Taking up the cudgel, Rabe (almost rhymes with rabies) fired off a news release for public consumption that gets underway this way:

"America's wastebaskets are too small!"

"University of Detroit experts revealed today that extensive research (two or three of us were talking about it over coffee after lunch at the Faculty Club the other day) indicates the nation's wastebasket manufacturers aren't keeping up with the paper dissemination people."

"The research project, undertaken without federal or foundation assistance (which is another story for another time), grew out of a remark by a Northville Record columnist that 'most of his (Rabe's) releases find their way into my wastebasket'."

The fact that Rabe's name and the university were earlier used and now again, although not clothed in my Sunday best, is really a mark of success for a PR man in some circles. That's because some PR people believe in keeping names before the public, good or bad. And J. P. Owdziej, speech instructor at Schoolcraft and former cohort of Rabe, tells me this "good or bad" philosophy is especially espoused by Rabe.

Nevertheless, I am pleased to learn that university professors undertook the wastebasket study without federal financing. A study of this magnitude most assuredly would have been rated top priority by the government and perhaps have netted the university several million.

Continues the release: "The word," said U. of D. psychology faculty members James Freer, noted TV personality (WXYZ-TV "Morning Show" resident psychology critic) "is being escalated at a rate of proliferation that cannot be contained within the current or foreseeable supply of containers, which is also being proliferated, escalated, but to a less marked degree."

"Or to put it another way," Dr. Freer said, "we're in a mash over trash."

The research Action Team, Task Force Unit Twelve, of which Dr. Freer is the head, points the finger of blame at these factors:

1. Improved mimeograph machine technology.
 2. Xerox.
 3. Man's fear of being forgotten.
- The study quotes Some Observations on the Characteristics of Selected Mimeograph Machines when operated Under Limited Circumstances, in Three Midwestern Cities of Populations Less Than One Quarter Million in Culturally Deprived Areas, Chapter IV, Pages 7-8, H. Janson Fitch; dissertation in partial fulfillment of requirements for doctoral degree in Human-Mechanico-Engineering.

The result, according to the University of Detroit study, is that while more releases are being thrown into wastebaskets, more of the legible releases are being used because there are so few of them.

As to Xerox, the Detroit scientists charge, "what one man has made, another man can copy. In olden days this generally meant a company in Japan. Today it is any fool with a Xerox machine in his office or the office next door."

"Here," said Dr. Freer, "the law of inverse trashability applies. That is: The Less Use There Is for Something the More Copies will There Be Made. (Originally developed by the great German School of Trashmanship, hence the awkward grammatical structure)."

I accept the latter criticism of this column as constructive but make no promises to change.

The study also found that "the average man feels left out of it; so he makes copies of things and sends them with his name on them to many places hoping someone somewhere will save one of them, forever."

"If Shakespeare were alive today," Dr. Freer said, "he would be writing sonnets, not about how man's image is in his son, but in the output of his Xerox or mimeograph machine."

While admitting to this Freudian desire, I take no credit in sending Rabe the said column. It was done, I would imagine, by one of my half-dozen readers who was determined to share his agony.

Our Legislators Report....

Esch....

"The economic plight of the American farmer continues to worsen this year and the agricultural community is understandably concerned about what the future will bring," says Congressman Marvin L. Esch.

"Unfortunately, the federal programs, which have for the most part been responsible for existing conditions, do not appear headed toward any major corrections."

He notes the following recent statistics, released by the Republican Task Force on Agriculture and supported in the main by the Department of Agriculture itself, highlight the "Serious trends in agriculture":

---farm parity ration now stands at 74 — the lowest point since 1934.

---122,000 farms folded last year; at least another 82,000 drop-off is expected this year.

---1966 total farm debt increased 10 percent over 1965 — an average of over $1,200 increased indebtedness per farm.

Most startling, he says, is the comparison between farm income and that of non-agricultural sources. From March, 1966 to March, 1967 non-farm income rose approximately 8 per cent while farm income dropped 16 percent according to the President's Council of Economic Advisors. This same report showed all selected sources of income on the rise except that of the farmer.

McDonald...

Congressman Jack McDonald has urged the Judiciary Committee to submit to the Congress "a bill which would provide penalties of $1000 or one year in jail or both" for anyone who desecrates the American flag.

He also urged that the committee bill act concurrently with existing state laws in order to avoid preempting their authority.

In his testimony before the committee, the Michigan Republican noted that the right to dissent is basic to our freedoms.

However, McDonald went on to point out that "we should not permit the very symbol of our rights to be desecrated for such acts of desecration symbolically suggest a repudiation of the very rights our flag represents."

The Judiciary Committee is currently considering some fifty bills which would make it a federal crime to desecrate the United States flag.

The need for Congressional action follows the recent acts of flag-burning which began in Central Park in early April. Since then, many anti-Vietnam demonstrations have concluded with a flag-burning ceremony.

Kuhn....

State Senator George W. Kuhn cited his reasons for opposing the latest version of the state income tax package which passed the Senate by a vote of 22-16.

Kuhn said, "I would have liked to have supported a sound fiscal reform program recognizing the many needs of the state and local units of government as well as the schools. However, for the following reasons I could not in good conscience support this particular program:

"(1) Lack of control or constitutional limitation of 5 percent on the income tax. I believe this is not only extremely important, but reasonable, when you think that each 1 percent from the state income tax nets approximately $171 million, and with a 2 1/2 percent cushion with a 5 percent limitation this would mean $427 million in the reserve to enact.

"(2) The elimination of the last 1/2 percent of the city income tax on non-residents was not included. Therefore, we now have four forms of income tax in Michigan: federal, state, local and non-resident. We did, however, reduce the city and non-resident income tax 1/2 percent as a credit against the state income tax.

"(3) I could not approve the constitutional amendment providing for a graduate income tax without at the same time giving the people an opportunity to vote on a 5 percent constitutional limitation.

Schmidt....

In rapid-fire succession last week, the House and Senate approved and sent to the Governor a bill to reduce the amount of money the state must lend local school districts to repay their bond obligations.

The purpose of the bill, given immediate effect in both Houses of the Legislature, is to reduce the run on the state's school bond loan fund and protect the state's credit rating.

The measure (SB 425) allows schools full assistance in repayment of loans if they levy a tax of at least 13 mills. The present level for full loan assistance is 7 mills. Under the new plan a reduced, sliding, borrowing scale would be established for districts which levy 7 mills and above.

The House last week exceeded the 200 mark in bills approved. As of May 17, some 207 measures had been passed in the House with 25 of those coming in the past week.

One bill passed last week gained nation-wide attention for the Michigan Legislature. The measure would give Michigan a uniform system of Monday holidays and if enacted would be a pace-setting move for the entire country. With the exceptions of Christmas, New Years and Easter, all official Michigan holidays would fall on Monday, creating three-day weekends around the majority of observances. The uniform holiday proposal (HB 2665) will come under additional discussion in the Senate.

Among some of the arguments for the proposal are: increased tourism, convenience to citizens and reduced absenteeism in schools, business and government.

A case in point on the effect the bill would have is Memorial Day, now celebrated on May 30, which is a Tuesday this year. Under the House-passed bill, Memorial Day would fall on the last Monday in May.

Law enforcement bills passed last week would permit a policeman to take a traffic violator's license and give him a validated citation which would serve as his license until he appeared in court (HB 2023), and allow policemen with three years experience on a municipal police force to qualify for a private detective license if they meet other license requirements (HB 2445).

Dems Launch Publicity Campaign

LANSING — What's the state Democratic party doing in this "between elections" period when the Republicans are getting gobs of publicity?

Prominence of Gov. George Romney in the national scene naturally makes news for the GOP and a special problem for Zolton Ferency, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. But the "happy warrior" is not resting on his laurels, however battered they were when he opposed the Governor for that position in the last election. Mr. Ferency is hard at work.

Two programs are underway. The first, says Ferency, is to raise enough money to rid ourselves of all financial obligations we have incurred, and some of them date back five or six years.

Secondly, Ferency indicates, he is laying plans for the 1968 election. "We expect to have a fresh approach to a fresh campaign," the chairman said.

"We have not made enough use of newspapers and electronic media advertising in the past, and we'd like to correct that next time."

METHODS of campaigning have changed, stated the Democratic leader. "We noticed that it is increasingly difficult to get people out to our meetings," said Ferency. "We need mass media to get our story to the people." The Democratic leader said that funds are building so they are able to decrease their bills.

The party will profit by $35,000 to $40,000 from the Jefferson Day dinners they have promoted. Their Century Fund program, which is geared to $100 donations, is progressing well also, according to Ferency.

"It's a different ball game," said the party leader when he referred to the 1968 election. He was not considering the important difference in Michigan related to the national significance of Gov. Romney.

"For the first time in history," he said, "we will not vote for a U.S. Senator or Governor at the same time we vote for other candidates. This means campaigning will be on national issues and voting will be on local people," he explained.

A NEW APPROACH will be needed for this "unique" campaign, according to Ferency. He prefers not to relate specific plans at this time, but seems to live up to his name of "happy warrior" in giving the impression he has some carefully planned ideas up his sleeves.

Voters in Michigan will be electing some Representatives to Congress, some to the legislature in Lansing, numerous county officers, and eight to deal with education. Up for grabs will be two positions of boards of control at U-M, MSU and Wayne; and two for the State Board of Education.

SEA LAMPREY and alewife have plagued Great Lakes fishing but will soon be under control.

Lamprey entered Michigan's fishing grounds through the Welland Canal beginning in 1940. In the next 20 years they nearly eliminated the state's vast schools of lake trout. Other species of fish were affected so drastically that commercial fishing on the Great Lakes was seriously impaired.

The reduction of lake trout and other fish eating predators permitted astronomical rise of the alewife, an almost useless fish about the size of a herring. The alewife creates a serious problem in die-offs along beaches, clogged water intakes, and as a depressant to more desirable species of fish.

A lamprey poison was discovered in the late 1950's. Used extensively since then, it now appears that the control of lampreys and the rehabilitation of the lake trout is assured.

Control of the alewife should be accomplished by the introduction of an entirely new sport fish to Michigan's waters. Different species of salmon are raised in government hatcheries and released in the Great Lakes with surprising success. If early results are indications of future achievements, the salmon should find alewife tasty meals upon which to multiply.

SOME 850,000 coho smolts (Pacific salmon) were released in three Michigan streams early in 1966. Coho began showing up in commercial nets within three months, first a few and then substantial numbers of fat silvery coho ranging from 12 inches to seven pounds. By September about 2,000 had been caught by Michigan anglers. More coho smolts from Oregon, Washington and Alaska will be planted in Michigan streams this year and next. Up to one million Washington chinook salmon will also be released. If chinook take to Great Lakes living as well as the coho Michigan fishermen are in for a pleasant surprise, and the alewife problem will come under nature's law of survival.

The Fish Division of the Michigan Department of Conservation has plans for introducing and expanding the supply of other commercial game fish to Michigan waters in the near future. A brook trout-lake trout hybrid called splake is being reared for introduction in 1970. Expansion of coaster brook trout is underway. Summer steelhead and Atlantic salmon will be reared and released in Michigan as soon as expansion of hatchery facilities allow.

Paternalism in Government Spawns Revenue Problems

BABSON PARK, Mass. — A number of states are already struggling to cope with annual budgets in excess of $1 billion ... and the trend of state government expenditures continues sharply up. Even the mighty flow of federal grants to states — estimated at $15 billion in the current fiscal year — does not suffice to meet growing needs which are in most cases considerably beyond normal state revenues.

The need of the states for new sources of revenue to help maintain traditional government services and to keep abreast of the expanding need for educational and health facilities is serious. In certain instances, it is acute. There is some evidence that the states themselves have failed to answer the new demands placed upon them because of inept administration and/or recklessness in the use of public funds.

Yet the lion's share of the blame rests not with state governments' as such but with the widespread trend toward paternalism in government which has spawned a vast and costly Washington bureaucracy. To support all this, Uncle Sam now grabs for his own needs a large part of the total tax dollar, leaving states and local governments the short end of the stick.

The idea of Washington's sharing its tax take with the states is attractive. It is looked upon as an easy way out, even by many who are not connected with state governments. The specific proposal of Rep. William E. Brock of Tennessee which would direct the Federal Government to share up to 5% of its tax revenues with the states, with the provision that the funds be earmarked for education, has wide appeal and has received strong support.

But there are those who see in outright tax sharing new opportunities for the federal bureaucracy to extend its influence in the states. Some of these opponents advocate, instead, a type of indirect federal subsidy by permitting individual income taxpayers to use 40% of their state income tax payments as an offset against their federal income tax liabilities. This would permit the states to spend more and to tax more without increasing — at least initially — the individual's total tax liability.

OFFICIALS of some of the nation's larger cities are among the most articulate opponents of the idea of federal tax sharing. Mayor John F. Collins of Boston described the plan as the most dangerous idea in America today, the implication being that the states will not play fair with their large cities when they get a tax-sharing windfall from Uncle Sam.

This points up a serious inequity which has handicapped larger cities for some time. Until the recent Supreme Court decision decreeing reapportionment of state legislatures, city populations had not had adequate representation. This inequity has been a big factor in the deterioration of central cities and in the resulting outgrowth of social problems.

There can, of course, be no program of tax sharing until the Vietnam drain on federal resources is stopped ... we simply can't afford it before then. It is claimed, however, that outright tax sharing would cut red tape, prune federal government payrolls, and curb Uncle Sam's participation in local affairs ... and that it would help restore the prestige and power of the states. But chances are that it would also lead to a higher total tax bite in a nation where families are already paying a greater percentage of income for taxes than they are for food.

State Distributes Road Tax Monies

The Department of State Highways has started distributing Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections for the first quarter of 1967 to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

State Highway Director Howard E. Hill said gross collections during January, February, and March of 1967 amounted to $101,812,791 from which collection costs of $1,778,109 and the Waterways commission's share amounting to $221,485 were deducted before distribution.

The net amount of Motor Vehicle Highway Fund revenues available for distribution for the quarter amounted to $99,813,197, an increase of $2,819,081 over revenues distributed for the same period in 1966.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes, license plate fees and a small amount of miscellaneous fees are deposited in the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

After deductions, the money is distributed under provisions of state law which provides that 47 percent goes to the Department of State Highways for use on state highways, 35 percent to the state's 83 counties for use on county roads, and 18 percent to 522 incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

Under this formula, the Department of State Highways will receive $46,912,203 as its share of the collections, while the counties will receive $34,934,619 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $17,966,376.

The following amounts will be paid area communities:

Northville, $13,817; Novi, $28,833; Wixom, $8,990; Walled Lake, $320,559; South Lyon, $5,803; Plymouth, $26,518; and Farmington, $22,012.

Schoolcraft Awards Parking Lot Contract

Construction of a second 1,200-car parking lot for Schoolcraft college students was assured last week when the college Board of Trustees awarded a contract to Cadillac Paving Company, Southfield.

The lot will be developed at the south end of the campus on Haggerty road on approximately 10 acres of property recently acquired by the college. The lighted and paved lot is scheduled for completion by mid-August. With it, the college will have parking for approximately 2,400 student cars.

The board action was one of three affecting construction projects on the campus. Trustees, at a regular meeting Wednesday night, May 17, approved final plans for a proposed physical education plant on the campus and instructed the project architect, Eberle M. Smith associates, Detroit, to prepare bidding specifications.

The trustees also awarded a contract for $40,830 to Perfection Building company, Southfield, for remodeling work in the administration building.

The project in the administration building is keyed to remodeling work nearing completion in the former student center which will become the new home of the Office of Student Affairs.

The administration building will be modified to provide additional office space for the Office of Instruction, the Business Office and the President's Office.

Perfection was low bidder among five on the project. Other bids were Zervos Construction Co., Detroit, $41,186; Smith & Young Co., Wayne, $44,873; W. J. Howard & Sons, Inc., Ferndale, $47,200; and Lawrence G. Markey, Inc., Detroit, $51,623.

Cadillac was low among seven bidders on the parking lot, with a base price of $226,000.

Ralls-Hamill-Becker Associates, Inc., Livonia, are architects for both the parking lot and the administration building remodeling.

Mustanger Wins Top Press Honor

The Mustanger, the official Northville high school newspaper, was awarded a First Class rating by the National Scholastic Press association, it was announced this week.

It's the first time the tabloid newspaper, established in 1964, has entered any newspaper rating service. The NSPA is affiliated with the University of Minnesota.

Entries are judged in all areas of production, from coverage through writing and makeup. A First Class honor rating means the newspaper is excellent but lacks the outstanding qualities needed for All-American, the top rating. There are three other lower categories.

Journalism students are responsible for production of the newspaper under the supervision of Editor Lynn Tillikka. Publication advisor is Ralph Redmond, high school English and journalism teacher.
