

98th Graduating Class Receives Diplomas Monday

Assignment for Principal Holdsworth—202 Diplomas to Autograph

A record number of 202 seniors will parade to the rostrum Monday night to receive their diplomas in the Northville high school gymnasium.

Religious services for the 1967 graduating class will be held Sunday, also in the gymnasium. The 98th annual baccalaureate services and commencement program are both scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Highlighting graduation will be the address of Dr. Harold E. Sponberg, president of Eastern Michigan university. Speaking on the subject, "Opportunity and Responsibility," he will be introduced by Alex M. Nelson, Northville superintendent of schools.

Leading the processional and recessional to the musical accompaniment of the high school band will be Class President Steve Jordan and Secretary Cindy Haynes.

Presenting the graduating class will be Fred Holdsworth, high school principal, while Board President Wilfred Becker will grant diplomas.

Reverend S. D. Kinde, pastor of the First Methodist church of Northville will deliver the invocation. Reverend Father John Wittstock, pastor of Our Lady of Victory church, will offer the benediction.

Among the musical selections will be "The Festive Overture" by Alfred Reed, played by the band under the direction of Robert Williams, and "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America", directed by Donald Valentine.

Delivering the valedictory speech will be Kathy Irwin, while Lynn Elkins will give the salutatory speech.

The Reverend Robert K. Spradling, pastor of the First Baptist church of Northville, will be the key speaker during Sunday's baccalaureate services. Subject of his speech is "Life's Eternal Dimension."

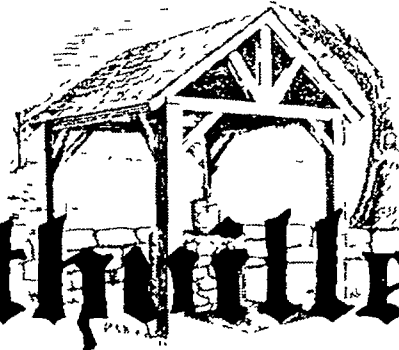

Joining with him on the religious occasion will be the Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure, Pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Northville, who will deliver the invocation and scriptural passage, and The Reverend Charles F. Boerger, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, who will recite the benediction.

Choir selections will include "Alleluia," "The Impossible Dream," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America", directed by Valentine.

Planists Pam Smith and Linda Johnson will play the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance."

Sponsors of this year's graduating class are Valentine and Jack Townsley.

Public, Parochial Classes Closing

Classes for Northville's public and parochial school students officially will come to a close next week amid graduation exercises and year-end wrap-up festivities.

Getting the jump on other local school students are Northville high school seniors, who finished exams this week, prior to baccalaureate and graduation ceremonies.

Otherwise, summer vacation will begin Tuesday noon, June 13, for all public school students.

Our Lady of Victory school doors will close today, climaxed by graduation ceremonies for 36 eighth graders.

The Reverend Father John Wittstock will preside over the day-long send-off, beginning with an 8 a.m. mass. A breakfast for graduates, their parents and seventh graders will then be held in the social hall.

Highlighting the day will be graduation ceremonies, including presentation of honors, at 7:30 p.m. in the church. St. Paul's Lutheran church will wrap up its school year with a chapel service and a picnic in Edward Hines parkway next Wednesday.

Diplomas will be bestowed on nine graduating eighth graders during ceremonies, slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. on June 15 in the parish hall.

City to Increase Fee Schedules

Everyone from dogs to peddlers will find life a little more expensive if proposed new fees and schedules are approved at an upcoming public hearing.

Northville city council Monday set June 19 as the hearing date on these nine items:

Business registration, sanitary sewer rates, water main connections, schedule of permit fees, dog ordinance (license fees and impounding), peddlers' licenses, building permit fees, bicycle licenses, and restaurant licenses.

The new, increased fees reportedly reflect higher costs for services and stepped-up controls.

In discussing a revised business registration, the council noted the proposal means businesses will be required to pay a $5 fee for registering names, addresses, etc. with the city, and $1 annually for renewals.

Sanitary sewer rates will increase from 11.5 cents to $2.50 minimum quarterly charge for up to 7,000 gallons of water used, and 15 cents per 1,000 gallons used thereafter.

Water and sewer main connections (taps) will increase from $200 to $300.

Dog licenses will become $2—both male and female as compared to the present fee of $1.10 for males and $2.10 for females. Fines for impounding or catching and returning of dogs will increase to $5 for the first offense, $10 for the second offense and $15 for each offense thereafter.

In addition, another $10 fine will be assessed the dog owner when the animal is found not to be vaccinated. And a $4 per day fee will be charged for caring for the dog when impounded.

Peddler fees will increase to $50 for a three-month license, $75 for six months, and $100 for one year. Peddler helpers will be required to pay $10, $15 and $25 respectively.

The peddler proposal has been referred to the city attorney to define the word, and city officials have been informed representatives of the Northville Chamber of Commerce will attend the hearing to offer their thoughts on this proposal as well as the business registration proposal.

Under the building permit schedule, no permit will be required for buildings costing less than $200; those costing $1,000 or less will change to $8; from $1,000 to $10,000, the fee becomes $4 per each $1,000; and for each $1,000 cost above $1,000 the fee becomes $3.

Billboard and sign fees become $5, wrecking buildings under 500 square feet, $5; wrecking buildings from 500 to 800 square feet, $10; over 800 square feet, $25.

Appeals board fees will be raised from $5 to $10 and restaurant licenses will increase from $5 to $10.

C. A. Smith Withdraws From Race

Charles A. Smith announced to The Record Monday that he wished to withdraw his candidacy for the Northville board of education.

One of six candidates seeking two four-year seats in Monday's election, Smith stated that he would prefer supporting "younger men with more time and energy to devote to the responsible position."

Smith, 74, is currently active as leader of a campaign to incorporate the village of Novi into a city. He is owner of Marquette Realty in Novi and is active in the Northville Rotary club and Northville Area Economic Development Corporation. He lives at 43643 Nine Mile road.

Smith's name was connected with the recent filing of petitions calling for removal of Superintendent of Schools Alex Nelson.

* See Candidates' Comments Pages 6-A and 7-A.

In removing himself from the race Smith stated that he would give his support to Richard T. Martin, an incumbent candidate, and Charles Toussaint.

Although he has officially announced his withdrawal, Smith's name will appear on the ballot Monday.

Township To Start Appraisals

A program to re-evaluate and re-appraise real and personal property in Northville township had its beginning Wednesday.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam informed his board of trustees Tuesday night that a meeting was scheduled Wednesday (yesterday) with a representative of the Wayne county bureau of taxation to initiate the reassessment, which may require all summer.

Under state law communities must bring property assessments to 50 per cent of market value for purposes of levying school, county and township taxes. Currently, township assessments average about 35 per cent. Consequently, assessments in Northville township were increased last year by a 1.28 equalization factor. This year the factor will be increased to 1.38.

Merriam said the objective of the reassessment would be to eliminate the factor for the 1968-69 tax year.

He said the program calls for review of all land values, an auditing of personal property, application of depreciation credit to buildings and subsequent reassessment to the 50 per cent level.

A six-man battle for two four-year board of education seats highlights Monday's annual Northville school election.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m., with all voting taking place at the Northville city hall.

In addition to the six-man race, one candidate is running unopposed for a two-year term on the board, three are seeking a six-year term as Northville representatives on the Schoolcraft college board of trustees, and two candidates are seeking a six-year term as representatives at large on the college board.

Certain to win a seat on the seven-member board of education—barrigan unlikely victory by a possible write-in candidate—is Glenn E. Deibert, a 45-year old Ford Motor company supervisor who has long been a regular attendant at school board meetings here.

He is seeking the two-year, unexpired term of Donald Lawrence who resigned several weeks ago and who was replaced by Richard T. Martin as a board appointee.

Martin, who last June barely lost a school election bid (actually, he tied with Treasurer Stanley Johnston but came out the loser in a drawing from a hat), is seeking one of the two four-year terms. Founder and principal officer of Warren Products, Inc., he is the only incumbent seeking election.

Pitted against him are Andrew G. Orphan, 47, a Bell Telephone company executive; Roger Rinaldi, 35, executive for the National Seal division of Federal Mogul corporation; Charles A. Smith, owner of Marquette Realty; Billie Thomas, 36, manufacturers representative and owner of Tant Enterprises; and Charles Toussaint, 36, a Michigan Hospital Service administrative assistant.

Orphan, Martin and Toussaint have sought an elective position in the past. Martin barely lost in his school board bid last June, Orphan was also a candidate for the board last June, and Toussaint was twice a candidate for the Northville city council.

No matter who wins the three board seats, at least two new faces are assured on the board. Richard Lyon, who won election to a one-year unexpired term last June, and Wilfred Becker, president and veteran member of the board, are not seeking re-election.

Seeking the six-year college seat presently held by Dr. Gordon Forrer, who decided not to seek re-election, are Paul R. Hunt, dean of occupational studies for Washtenaw Community college; Bertram William Secord, parts analyst for the Ford Motor company, and Edmund P. Yerkes, Northville attorney.

In addition, local voters also will pick either Leroy C. Bennett or George E. Martin, both of Livonia, as representatives at large on the college board of trustees.

Date Changed

Next Monday's regularly scheduled meeting of the Northville board of education has been postponed until Tuesday, Superintendent of Schools Alex Nelson has announced.

The postponement, he explained, was ordered because board members will attend high school graduation exercises.

Candidates to Meet Public Friday Night

Candidates for the Northville board of education and the Schoolcraft college board of trustees will answer questions Friday night at a special candidates' forum sponsored by the Main Street P-TA.

The forum, which starts at 8 p.m., will be held in the high school auditorium. Moderator will be Mrs. Jerome Bates, voter service representatives of the Livonia League of Women Voters.

Candidates for the board of trustees—including those seeking the seat as representatives of Northville as well as those seeking seats at-large—will be the first persons to speak. Each will be permitted to speak for five minutes in addressing themselves to these two questions:

1. What educational needs do you believe Schoolcraft Community college should fulfill in this community?

2. If elected how would you contribute to the operation of the college?

Following these talks, the college candidates will be provided time to answer questions from the floor.

Each candidate for the Northville school board will then be given five minutes to answer these two questions:

Novi Votes, Too

Three candidates are seeking a three-year term on the Novi board of education.

They are J. F. Buck, Elwood Coburn, Sr., and Russell L. Smith. Coburn is a former appointee to the board and the two other candidates are new

Jaycettes Sponsor Little Miss Contest

Plenty of fun and excitement is in store for some lucky little girl come July 4.

That's because the Northville Jaycee Auxiliary has announced that it will sponsor a Little Miss contest in conjunction with the Jaycee festivities on the Fourth.

According to Mrs. F. J. Zillich, the first 10 entries in the contest will be eligible for the Little Miss title to be awarded on July 4. All 10 contestants will ride a special Jaycette float in the parade.

The Little Miss, to be crowned prior to the parade, will ride in a special spot on the float.

Sharing the float with the Little Miss contestants will be Lynn Thilikka, the Jaycee Junior Miss.

The Little Miss will receive a $10 certificate from The Little People Shoppe. The nine other little girls will receive recognition gifts.

Girls - ages 3 to 5 - may be entered in the contest. To enter, the child's name, age, address, phone number, and the parents' names must be sent to Mrs. Zillich, 350 Sherrille Lane, Northville, by June 19. Only the first 10 entries received will be eligible.

News Around Northville

Mrs. Irene Slater of 40311 Sunbury combined green thumb with literary skill recently, writing an article for the national gardening magazine, Joe's Bulletin, on a plant called Comfrey. Mrs. Slater, who raises plants as a hobby, reports it was her first attempt at writing for publication.

Miss Mildred Young, 270 South Center street returned last week from a 61-day camera tour in the South Pacific. She visited New Zealand, Australia, New Guinea, Fiji and Tahiti.

Parents of seniors still wishing to donate money for the senior graduation party, Monday, June 12, may send it to Mrs. Glenna Grant, 24481 Willow Lane, Novi, MI 48050.

Richard Foss of Petersburg, Nebraska, James Foss of Albion, Nebraska and Robert Hensen of Bismark, North Dakota, all nephews of Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond, attended the funeral last week of Mr. Hammond. They spent three days in Northville before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clarke of 720 Fairbrook recently returned from Ithaca, New York where their son John W. Clarke, a former Northville high school student was graduated on May 27 from the Cornell School of Law. John was the recipient of special recognition because of his accomplishments in Moot Court competition. He and his partner Jonathan Weld were first place winners in the Cornell senior competition. They represented Cornell in district arguments which they won and for which they were awarded, for their college, the New York State Bar association plaque. John Clarke was also awarded the trophy for the best oral argument of the district meet. He has accepted a position with the law firm of Maser Johnson & Reef of Rochester, New York.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

EXPO IS "In". It seems everyone wants to make the swinging centennial scene on the St. Lawrence-and several Northville families already have managed to do so.

Evidence of the high interest in the Montreal exposition was the audience of more than 300 which viewed Robert Webber's colored-slide Expo presentation at the high school auditorium Sunday. Although tallies were incomplete the first of the week, ticket chairman Carl Johnson estimated the Rotary - sponsored benefit to help reactivate Northville's historic well will yield "close to $400."

Webber, owner of the Northville Camera shop, shot 500 pictures of government and industrial buildings and other Expo scenes when he flew there in mid-May.

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN LANGTRY, who were in Sunday's audience, were just back from Expo and enthusiastically agreed with Bob Webber that it was worth the 600-mile trip. They had been lucky enough to get reservations at the Holiday Inn and were near the action.

THE LEROY ORDING family of Mayo drive drove to Expo over the long Memorial holiday. Mrs. Ording confesses she and her husband were as impressed as their youngsters, Richard, Linda and Reed, and would like to go back in October.

Adding to the fun of the international atmosphere, she said, was meeting the French-Canadian family of the landlord of their efficiency apartment.

THE ROBERT BOGARTS with their son and daughter, Mike and Judy, were encountered accidentally by the Ordings at the French pavilion and again at the LaRonde amusement area. Barbara Bogart, whose end-of-the-semester studies kept her home, expects to hear the travelers' experiences as they return today.

From Montreal the Bogarts went on to Quebec and then to New Jersey for a family visit with Mrs. Bogart's mother, Mrs. Willard Hutchinson.

THE PAUL STEENCKENS were joined by their daughter, Mrs. Edwin Hammer of Columbus, Ohio, for a Memorial holiday trip to Expo. Also in the group was daughter Linda and her friend, Marilyn Putanc.

WORLD TRAVELER Chilton Hill, a veteran of fairs in Brussels, Paris, Seattle and New York, was a May visitor to Expo with daughter Beverly. He enthusiastically approved visiting the nationally buildings and also the many international shops, boutiques and eating places in LaRonde.

Among the Northville attorney's "don't miss" recommendations in LaRonde: Laterna Magica (Magic Lantern) exhibit by Czechoslovakia which synchronizes real life and movies, using four screens and live actors. "Take the gyro ride," he adds, and for souvenirs he suggests the Russian boutique and the Icelandic shop with its whale mementos.

NOT EVERYONE journeyed to Expo during last week's holiday. The Stanley Chaveys with their son and daughters crossed the Mackinac bridge to vacation in the Upper Peninsula. A highlight for the youngsters was seeing four deer.

The William Crumps flew to Charleston, South Carolina, where their schedule included seeing a performance at the Dock Street theater. This week daughter Connie's house guest is an Alpha Xi Delta sorority sister, Karen Sado of Hawaii. They arrived Tuesday from Albion where Connie will be a junior next year - she is carrying the gold key that signifies she is serving as the sorority's treasurer.

AN UN-BIRTHDAY PARTY honored Mrs. George Weiss at the Round Table in Plymouth last Wednesday. Mrs. George Jerome who planned the luncheon with Mrs. H. O. Evans explained that Mrs. Weiss was vacationing in New Orleans on her actual birthday a couple of months ago; so the group of friends who customarily celebrate planned the delayed event for fun.

"INTRODUCTION TO ORCHIDS" is the program theme for the June meeting of the Northville branch of the Woman's Farm and Garden association at 12:30 p.m. Monday in the Presbyterian church fellowship hall.

The speaker will be Thomas Brown, a retired General Motors executive who has been growing orchids for 20 years. Although he has 1500 plants in his own greenhouse, he has grown them as a hobby and is considered an amateur. The talk will be illustrated with slides. Planned to interest orchid-lovers as well as orchid-growers, the program is a guest day.

Mrs. L. M. Eaton is chairman of the tea committee, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Hempe, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. C. H. Bryan and Mrs. William Davis.

NORTHVILLE TOWN HALL ticket chairman Mrs. Robert Flaherty has been filling ticket orders for the 1967-68 season so steadily that this week's count shows "fewer than 100" tickets available. Because the series will be held at the P and A Theater in Northville again next season, tickets still will be limited to 550.

Mrs. Robert Brueck, Town Hall chairman, says she hopes newcomers to the area especially realize that this is the only time tickets are available. They are sold for the five-lecture series only at $10. Checks should be sent to Northville Town Hall, Box 93.

NORTHVILLE SENIOR Citizens club will be entertained by one of its own members at its next meeting Tuesday, June 13.

Miss Ruth Knapp will present a travel program, showing slides and giving highlights of a European trip of 1960. At that time she was one of a group of faculty and students from Wayne State university who toured England, Germany, France, Italy and Switzerland. Her slides include views of a trip down the castle-dotted Rhine river and interiors of European palaces.

Also on the evening's agenda will be a business session at 7:30 p.m. in the scout-recreation building.

NORTHVILLE STATE Hospital Auxiliary will continue what has become an end-of-the-year tradition - again this year - an annual picnic is planned for 11 a.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Crispin Hammond, 47100 Timberlane.

New officers will be installed. Mrs. Robert Lang, retiring president, hopes to find summer volunteers so that the auxiliary's gift shop and cart program can be continued through the vacation season. Anyone who can give four hours a week or a month is asked to call Mrs. James Sugrue, Jr., 349-1229.

Music Recital Slated Tonight

A music recital will be presented by pupils of Selma Schnute tomorrow evening (Friday) at St. Paul's Lutheran parish hall beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Participating piano students include: Patricia Aenechbacher, Nancy Anderson, Vickie Ashby, Joan Batzer, Nancy Bell, Judy Bell, Lorri Boerger, Kathy Boland, Pamela Colbert, John Gillahan, Debbie and Kathy Gutzman, Beth Hines, Patricia Hoffman; Janice Hughes, Diane Keith, Marcia Kelly, Brian King, Anita Larson, Ingrid Larson, Leif Larson, Allison, Ellen and Ruth McLaughlin, Patricia Mallette, Janet Moore, Tiffany Pierson, Diane Pitak, Susan Salmeto, Celia Schuchard, Julie Smith, Kristine Terry, Michael Umbricht, and Kristine Williams.

Organ students include: Charles Churella, Rhonda Clark, Frank Denkhous, Debbie Dettore, David Lorenz, Debbie Luckett, Debbie Neal, Kathleen Pinney, Nancy Sizemore, Jon Steimel, Linda Thomas, Dawn and Debbie Trotter and David Wickie.

Violin Students are Marguerite Grayson and Jason Range.

FINAL OUTING—Wrapping up another season of activities, the King's Daughters chapter here held its annual picnic Tuesday at the home of Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr. off Eight Mile road near Haggerty. The gathering included a "silent auction" of some of the materials made by members for sale in the community to raise funds for the group's many service activities.

It's Picnic Time Again

Kings Daughters End Season

Another season of service came to a close Tuesday afternoon as the Mizpah Circle of the International Order of the King's Daughters held its annual picnic.

The picnic took place on the lovely property of Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr. off Eight Mile road.

Regular meetings and service activities of the Northville group will resume in the fall.

The Mizpah Circle was formed here in May of 1895 — nine years after the first circle was founded in New York City.

Its chosen motto then and now is "Look up, not down; look forward, not back; look out, not in; and lend a hand." It represents the attributes of Faith, Hope and Service.

The watchword at the time of its organization was "In His Name", and the text, "Not to be ministered unto but to minister."

In the nearly 75 years since its organization, the Mizpah Circle, officials emphasize, has strived to live up to the challenging motto, watchword and the text.

Before the advent of the welfare check and unemployment insurance, Mizpah Circle took up the challenge of caring for the needy, furnishing food, clothing and fuel to those who were temporarily without. Today, the circle continues this practice, filling emergency welfare cases as well as taking a larger role in other state-endorsed measures of service.

Examples of its state-wide services include the home for the aged located on Pierson Avenue in Detroit. The King's Daughters and Son's circles of Wayne county and the Mizpah Circle are represented on the board of directors of the home.

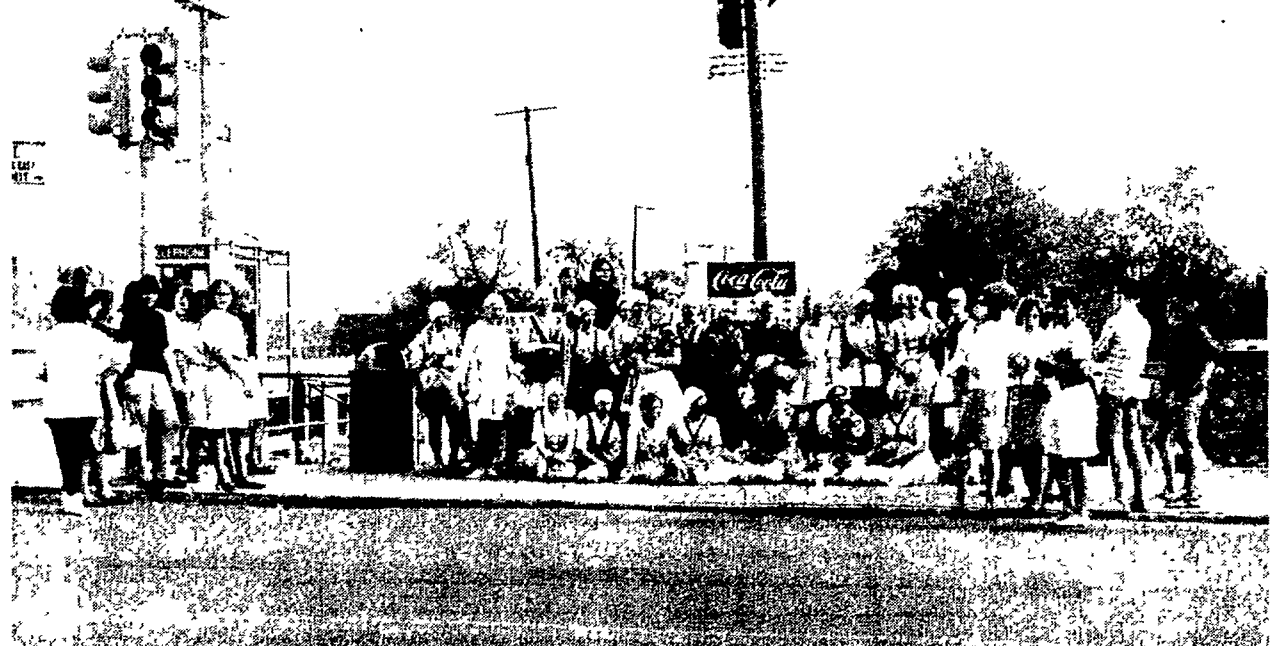

The King's Daughters also is active in support of the children's unit of the University of Michigan Hospital, with the Mizpah Circle contributed many hours of sewing for youngsters hospitalized there.

The state branch also owns and operates Camp Missaukee, a girls camp at Lake City. Annually, two girls from Northville are selected to attend this camp.

Biggest annual project of the local circle is the Spring Luncheon and Bazaar, which has won the support of the entire community, officials note.

Holding a special place in the local organization is Mrs. Georgia Johnson of Wing street, who has maintained continuous membership since the roll call of 1905, contributing many years of service.

Officers of the local circle are Mrs. Allen Buckley, leader; Mrs. Arthur Junod, vice-leader; Mrs. Oscar Hammond, secretary; Mrs. Gerald Taft, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Alexander, financial secretary; and Mrs. Herbert Brown corresponding secretary.

INITIATION—The Northville Girls' Athletic League (GAL) held its annual spring initiation recently. Under the direction of upper classmates, the girls were paraded through the center of town in special costumes and masks.

Later, the girls enjoyed a banquet at the school marking their entry into the league. The teacher sponsor is Miss Pat Bubel.

Christian Scientists Hold Annual Meeting

Christian Scientists gathered from around the world for the Church's Annual meeting today heard a call for sharply expanded outreach to the world and the community.

"Christ Jesus showed his deep involvement with the world of his day," The Christian Science Board of Directors reminded the audience.

Erwin D. Canham, editor in chief of The Christian Science Monitor and retiring president of the denomination, described a "period of unprecedented ferment in the world's religious thought." Each individual has a "mission in the marketplace of human thought and experience," he emphasized. "For Christian Scientists, need and opportunity have never met more challengingly.

About eight thousand members, many from distant parts of the world, filled the auditorium of The Mother Church Extension and the adjoining original Church edifice. Closed-circuit television carried the meeting to an overflow audience seated in a nearby theater.

A modest groundbreaking ceremony took place during the morning, as the first spadeful of earth was turned for the Church's new Administration building. The 26-story structure will be the first of several buildings in the Church's new $15 million Center in the Back Bay area of Boston.

Little Miss

Pictures will accompany the entries.

Once the 10 entries have been determined, pictures of the little girls will be attached to canisters to be placed in downtown stores. "To vote for your favorite candidate," Mrs. Zillich explained, "pennies may be dropped in the canisters. The contestant receiving the most pennies will be judged the winner."

"But don't forget," Mrs. Zillich reminded Northville residents, "only the first 10 entries will be eligible to compete for the Little Miss title. Mail your entries today."

1-Card of Thanks

I want to thank all those who heralded my retirement. All of your good wishes will be remembered.

Lillian Rakestraw H23p

Words cannot express our deep appreciation and thanks to all the wonderful friends of Northville, out-state Legionnaires, all organizations and the many people too numerous to mention, who in many ways helped to ease our sorrow in the sudden passing of our loved one, C. Oscar Hammond. The response was overwhelming and we deeply appreciate all service rendered. God bless one and all.

Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond
Mr. & Mrs. Russell Corbin
Mr. & Mrs. Howard Wright
Mr. Walter Hammond
and grandchildren

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many cards and visits during my husband's stay in the hospital and at home. Floyd and Elaine Gregory.

2-In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband Wilson who died June 8, 1965. I often sit and think of him and think of how he died. And grieve I couldn't say goodbye before he closed his eyes. I little thought when he left home he would no more return. That he so soon in death would sleep and leave me here to mourn. I've lost my sole companion a life linked with my own. Day by day I miss him more as I journey through life alone. His wife Catherine Wilson

Candidates Speak Up...

Northville Board of Education

The following two questions were asked of candidates for the Northville board of education. Candidates were asked to limit their answers to the two questions to 300 words.

1. In your opinion, how much of the board of Education deliberations should be done in public?

2. What contributions can you make to the school system as a member of the Board of Education?

One Year Terms

GLENN E. DEIBERT
45, married with four children, lived in community nearly 11 years at 9825 Napier road, graduate of Michigan State and Wayne State universities, employed as supervisor of safety and security at Wixom Assembly plant, Ford Motor company, elected in 1960 as Republican delegate for Salem township, prior activity with local Scout troop, little league baseball coach, high school P-TA representative, Northville Player's and Schoolcraft Community chorus, member of Oakland county law enforcement association and national safety council, past president of Northville Optimist club, P-TA carnival committee member for three years.

DECISIONS by the school board, by law, public information. CONCERNING the mechanics of arriving at a decision, particularly on very difficult and/or sensitive matters, a review of pertinent facts and opinion, and debate thereon, are best conducted in other than public sessions to assure complete, uninhibited expression and to avoid the risk of misunderstanding or misconception which can occur should this problem solving work take place in the presence of the public. Board members need the opportunity to prepare themselves through free inquiry and expression, and, for the record, the result should reflect a positive and singular point of view. Most of us thrive on positive action which unreservedly evidences an absence of indecision and equivocation. Of course, one of the most revealing sources of information available to the Board is the free expression by citizens in public sessions, in letters, or otherwise, which information the board includes in decision making sessions.

2. ENCOURAGE fiscal policy which incorporates a thoroughly prepared, detailed, documented spending plan sufficiently visionary to achieve real need and realistically supported by income. RUNNING deviations from the final budget will be challenged. WORK for year ending surplus as opposed to deficits, the latter being too easy to achieve. RECOGNIZE that forward looking education is a product essential to sustaining an enriched life. Upgrading its quality and quantity requires a palatable sales effort throughout the system and the community. SUPPORT a continuing and timely enrichment of a curriculum sensitive to technical, trades, and higher education needs. SUPPORT administrators and teachers in their application of appropriate controls. Encourage parents and students to understand this need and to appreciate that undue resistance or interference discourages initiative in following through on this fundamental task. STRIVE to direct the prime time and talents of the Board and school administration towards accomplishing their daily purpose of serving and aiding the teacher and student. WORK for a board agenda that has been studied beforehand to assure the subjects are timely and that members are prepared to render a decision. An agenda containing surprise items and/or matters which have had no more than cursory preparation detracts from stability and progress.

ANDREW G. ORPHAN
Age 47, married, wife Faith and two sons, David and Dale, live at 356 Rogers street, resident of Northville 22 years, one son David is graduate of Northville high school and now studying at University of Michigan, other son a freshman at Northville, employed as plant engineer for 28 years with Michigan Bell Telephone company, served in Air Force during World War II, was candidate for school board in 1966, president of high school P-TA, president of Kiwanis Club of South Lyon, served on school study and planning committee.

1. The problems within our school system cannot be overcome with money alone. The rumors of internal strife remain to impede progress. Only by conducting all business during public sessions can elected officials hope to stop these rumors and clear up the unrest. The one exception are those matters that concern personnel problems that by necessity must be handled privately to safeguard individual rights. If the nature of all the executive sessions are the result of personnel problems the only logical conclusion is that great errors in judgment have been made in the selection of those individuals who are responsible for this condition. It is contradictory to enlist the help of the community through the use of citizen committees, attesting to their abilities in one area while denying them the right to witness all the deliberations of the board. An informed community can be a great asset to any elective body. Through unified efforts maximum time can be expended toward constructive programs rather than defending decisions resulting from "secret" or executive sessions.

2. My occupational experience of dealing with local, county, and state agencies, architects, developers and the general public has equipped me with the practical experience to develop plans, budget available monies, and validate expenditures. My concern necessarily must be that sound practical use is made of monies that we do receive so that we can provide quality education with the least amount of cost. The voters demonstrate their confidence in the ability of the candidates they elect to manage the affairs of a $1.6 million a year business whose total revenue is derived from taxes in one form or another. With this size of an operation we cannot guess our way into the future at vast expense.

ROGER E. RINALDI
Age 35, married, wife and three children live at 1076 Grace Court, received BS degree in engineering from Duke University in 1957, MBA degree in 1963 from Northern Illinois university, is division manager of quality assurance for the National Seal division of Federal Mogul corporation, lived in Northville school district two years.

1. As a publicly elected body, all of the deliberations of the Board of Education should be open to the public. Committees, study groups, etc. set up by the board need not follow this concept if their findings and reports are openly published.

It should be noted that this concept may at times present difficulties in the fact that certain segments of the public may not be fully informed as to what is being done. However, this

CHARLES A. SMITH
Age 74, married, has four children, 12 grandchildren three of whom attend Northville schools and another graduated from Northville high school last year, lives at 43643 Nine Mile road, has been a resident of the school district since 1953, attended Carlton College in Farmington, Missouri, owner of Marquette Realty, chairman of the Novi incorporation committee, member and past president of Northville Rotary club, past president of the Northville Area Economic Development corporation.

Charles A. Smith did not submit a statement. He informed The Record Monday that he was withdrawing from the school board race. His announcement appears on The Record page one.

BILLIE THOMAS
Age 36, married, wife Ellen and four children, Penny, 18, Billie, 16, Christopher 12, Kelly, 8, live at 40301 Fairway Drive, children have had all their schooling in Northville except for Penny, moved to present home in April, 1957, is a self employed sales engineer, owns Tant Enterprises, a manufacturers representative since 1953, previously employed by Corneil-Dubilier Electronics whom he now represents, Scoutmaster of Troop 755 for four years, assistant hockey team coach.

1. All deliberations should be done in public with the possible exceptions of disciplinary and related actions. I support public rather than private actions.

2. I can help create an atmosphere of respect (and all that's implied by the word respect) and cooperation between the voters, administration, board, students and teachers. Doing this, the controversy - real or otherwise - would disappear so the board and administration could return to the job of building a superior educational system, within our ability to support it financially. I would support a strong athletic program, both boys and girls, intermural and interscholastic. I would support community recreational use of school facilities if available.

CHARLES TOUSSAINT
Age 36, life-long resident of Northville, graduate of Northville high school and Detroit Business university, employed as administrative assistant by Michigan Hospital Service, serves as trustee for the Federal Bankruptcy court, member of National Association of Accountants, National Association of Credit Management, and past member of Northville Jaycees, candidate for city council in 1965 and 1967.

1. I am of the opinion that the majority of the board of education functions should be held in open sessions so as to let the general public contribute their ideas and suggestions. Members of the school board should always remember that they are elected by the public to serve the citizens within the school district. In what better way can the citizen express his desires than at an open meeting where his ideas and suggestions should be welcomed and given every consideration. This could help to improve the relationship between the public and the School Board.

2. As to what contribution I can make to the school system as a member of the board of education, I feel that my sincere interest in seeing that our children obtain the best education obtainable is the best contribution that I can offer. If elected I shall do my utmost to obtain harmony and cooperation in our school system. The citizens in the school district have proved, in the past, that they are willing to pay the cost to furnish each and every child with a good basic education.

What the citizens do not want is waste in administering the school funds, buildings that have fancy price tags, but that do not meet the needs of the community; nor do they want dissension and bickering within the system.

My ability to obtain and maintain a harmonious relationship in my daily occupation should be an asset that could be utilized as a member of the School Board.

Schoolcraft Board of Trustees

Six Year Term

Northville candidates for the Schoolcraft college board of trustees were asked to answer the following two questions, limited their combined two answers to 300 words:

1. Schoolcraft college has rapidly expanded since its opening, becoming a popular facility for many adults as well as high school graduates. What proposal can you make to encourage similar use of the college by high school students within the Schoolcraft College district?
2. As Northville's representative on the Schoolcraft college board of trustees, what will be your main objective?

PAUL R. HUNT

43, married, wife Mary Ann, has two children, Bonnie and Joel, lives at 344 Debra Lane, served with flying combat service in Far East during World War II, graduated from Detroit Time Study School, Wayne State university with BS degree in industrial arts, MA degree in special education for mentally handicapped children and Ed. D. with dissertation on effectiveness of job upgrading methods for youth, served in several educational capacities and now is dean of occupational studies for Washtenaw community college, member of more than a half dozen professional affiliations and numerous working committees having to do with youth and education, past president of Northville P-TA council, candidate for school board in 1960, past member of citizens advisory committee, and currently Republican representative on board of canvassers for Northville school system.

1. Schoolcraft is a COMMUNITY COLLEGE. It has an obligation to people of varying backgrounds, objectives, and educational needs. This would include not only the most academically talented but those whose talents may display themselves in other ways. The latter include adults and young adults who did not graduate from high school. I propose that:

The college maintain an open door policy for non-high school graduates, 18 years and older. In this instance, however, an open door policy does not suggest an open curriculum, but it does suggest that multiple curricular services, including counseling and remedial instruction if required, be offered those students who do not plan for educational and occupational objectives beyond those provided by the community college.

It would seem unsound to duplicate some educational services in the college district. Vocational, technical education is one example, although others exist. I believe there are avenues through which selected students, while yet in high school, could receive advanced placement in the community college. By no means do I suggest the college take over the role of the high school. But I do suggest there are undeveloped relationships that could be mutually agreeable to both our secondary and post-secondary educational systems.

2. My main objective will be to help contribute to the formulation of quality educational policy that best produces the opportunities for youth and adults to find the path that leads them to productive, intelligent action and rational behavior in the best interests of themselves, their community, and all their fellow citizens, for I believe these to be the main objectives of those people whom I seek to represent.

BERTRAM WILLIAM SECORD

Age 41, married, two children, one daughter, Linda, attends Schoolcraft college, another, Nancy, attends Northville high school, lives at 46675 Seven Mile road, lived in school district 14 years, employed as parts analyst for Autolite-Ford Parts division of Ford Motor company, P-TA carnival chairman in 1962, chairman of a citizens study group for Northville school system in 1964, member Masonic Lodge, candidate for Northville school board last June.

1. The use of Schoolcraft college facilities by high school students of the Schoolcraft district is a possibility with much merit but requiring serious consideration. There are many fine college transfer, career and technical courses offered at Schoolcraft. I would propose that, upon high school recommendation and/or Schoolcraft approval, select high school students could enroll as special students in select courses that would be instructed on an advanced or college level, as they are now, and not to be "construed as 'just another' high school course. Courses of this type could be made available to those students who are superior and outstanding in their field of interest. By their senior year, these high school students have completed all the courses in their areas of interest that can be offered by their respective high schools. The addition of specialized courses to the high school curriculum to facilitate these special students would be financially and scholastically infeasible. These students, then, would be eligible to participate in a cooperative program with Schoolcraft. Such courses would be on an individual tuition basis to be paid by the student so as not to cause an undue financial burden on Schoolcraft college, Northville school system, or Northville taxpayers.

2. As Northville's representative on the Schoolcraft Board of Trustees I would bring to the college twenty years of business training, experience and thinking. I believe business experience is a necessary prerequisite for a Trustee of a Community college or any educational board. My background will enable me to better analyze recommendations of the administration in relation to monies available. Due to our critical tax position in the Northville school district, a close scrutiny must be maintained on our school tax dollars. At the same time I recognize that Schoolcraft must grow both physically and academically if it is to continue to provide an acceptable college transfer program, an equally meaningful career program, and an up-to-date adult education program. The balance between Schoolcraft requirements and tax dollars is my major concern.

EDMUND P. YERKES

Married, father of two children, William and Charles, and grandfather of three, he has been a life-time resident of this area, lives at 504 West Dunlap, received a BA degree from the University of Michigan in 1930 and an LL.D degree from the Detroit College of Law, has been a practicing attorney since graduation, was justice of peace of Novi for 22 years, is curator of the Northville Historical Society, and a member of the First Presbyterian church of Northville.

1. I believe it is essential that the vocational education program at Schoolcraft College be enlarged and integrated with the high school programs within the college district.

2. As Northville's representative on the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees I would address myself to a number of objectives. Among these would be an attempt to have Schoolcraft become a four-year institution and to upgrade the faculty salary schedule.

Novi Board of Education

Three Year Terms

The following question was asked of candidates for the Novi board of education.

If you are elected, is there some change in the school system or special program that you personally would like to spearhead?

J. F. BUCK

Age 49, married, wife Kay, has two sons, has been a resident of Novi for 12 years, lives at 24350 LeBost Drive, attended University of Detroit, is sales executive for American Motors corporation, past president and currently director of Willowbrook Community association, active in Cub Scouting, minor league and little league baseball and other Novi civic organizations, spent 6 1/2 years on educational committee of Automobile Manufacturers association, former service training manager giving lectures on education at universities and high schools across nation, participated on several educational TV programs, served in Europe and South Pacific during World War II.

I have decided to seek this seat on the school board because, as the father of two young sons, I want to do all I can to improve the level of educational possibilities in this area. My objective is: Not to be just a school board member, but to act and participate in creating more interest in education for students to prepare themselves to be better citizens and to help them qualify for their position in the business world.

ELWOOD COBURN, SR.

Age 44, lives at 28075 Dixon road with his wife and five children, has lived in Novi since 1947, has been a senior claims adjuster for the Ford Motor company for the past 13 years, and prior to settling here served six years in the United States Navy, was an appointed school board trustee from February to June of 1966, attended Henry Ford Community college, is secretary of the Novi Little League and a member of the Novi Baptist church and the Walled Lake Masonic Lodge.

Considering the fact that some of our eastwardly and southeasterly located communities are bursting at the seams, with both industrial and residential building projects flowing westwardly, it is only natural that Novi will receive its share of the overflow. This is evidenced by the ever increasing number of requests made on our village council to rezone to industrial sites. This is good but at the same time, we must think of our school needs as brought on by this industrial expansion trend.

With this in mind and if I am elected, I would like to become a part of or head up a study group for the purpose of projecting and planning our total school needs covering the next 10 to 15 years. This would naturally involve population studies considering and acquiring future building sites, tax base, financing, etc.

Novi Bats Boom In Little League

The Mobarak Jayhawks and Flynn Modernization, two titans of the Novi Little League, had a field day at the plate during the past week.

The Jayhawks shelled out 21 hits to whip B-V Construction Saturday, 22-4, in a game highlighted by a triple play, Shortstop Mark Bumann to Second Baseman John Pantalano to Third Baseman Dave Ward.

The Jayhawks are 5-0 on the season.

Jim Van Wagner limited B-V Construction to just one hit, a single by Dave Winkler. In addition, Van Wagner helped himself by hitting two triples and a double.

Ward led the Jayhawk batsmen with four doubles in four trips. Pantalano had two doubles and a triple, Joe LaFleche had a double and triple and Kevin LaFleche had two doubles to raise his average to .600. Ron Frisbee also had a double.

Flynn Modernization kept pace with the Jayhawks by winning twice, 7-3 over the Rexall Pillers and 21-6 over Novi Party Store. Flynn's record is 5-1.

Heading the 21-hit route of Party Store was Steve Jacques with five for five, including a double and triple. He is batting at a league-leading .695 clip.

Winning Pitcher Jim Assemany, who gave up six hits, helped his own cause with a double and triple. Other batting stars were Eddie Jacques with a triple, and Gary Colton, who is batting .625, Tom Ritter, Roger Provo, and Ron Wilenius with a double apiece.

In a losing cause, Joe Campbell hit a double and triple to hike his average to .636. Larry Taylor had a double.

Colton had two doubles and pitcher Tom Ritter gave up only five hits in Flynn's victory over the Pillers last Thursday.

Teacher-Board Cooperation Urged

"This is the year that teachers and boards either learn to work together or they can become such bitter adversaries that they will set back the whole public education program."

With that informal statement, Raymond MacLoughlin, executive secretary for the Flint Education association, set the stage for his informal discussions with Northville teachers Tuesday night.

MacLoughlin spoke to the Northville teachers group during its annual dinner and election at the high school. His topic was "Teachers Uniting to Build a Profession."

During later discussions with teachers, however, MacLoughlin bore down on the importance of cooperation between boards of education and teacher groups.

"Unfortunately, school boards are spending thousands of dollars for legal assistance to oppose the very people who make good education possible," he said. "If they spent the same kind of money in sitting down together as partners they could revolutionize the whole system of education in five years time."

Former president of the Michigan Education association, MacLoughlin said it would be "disasterous" if it takes us 30 years to discover what negotiations in private industries can teach us today.

"I still have hopes that some boards of education and many more teacher organizations will bring to the bargaining table concrete and workable proposals for the improvement of education."

Concerning MacLoughlin's main address, outgoing Northville president, Donald Brown, said the speaker "helped define the professional roles of the teachers."

Newly elected officers here are: Richard Rusche, president; Margaret Sours, first vice-president; Carl White, second vice-president; Marjory Sliger, recording secretary; Cynthia Cuthbertson, corresponding secretary; Julie Holmes, treasurer; Pat Dorrian, delegate to the regional council; and Diana Lance, delegate to the representative assembly in Lansing.

*****

The next meeting locally for teacher-board negotiations have been set for June 15. The bargaining teams last met on Thursday.

City Reappoints 26 Members

Reappointment of 26 persons to commissions and boards was approved by the city council Monday night.

One vacancy remains since the council has received a letter of resignation from Levi Eaton, whose term on the board of appeals expires July 1.

Persons reappointed and their new terms of office are:

Planning commission - George Zerbe, Warren Stoddard, Clarence Hinck, all three-year terms.

Board of appeals - David Biery and Francis Gazlay, three-year terms.

Municipal parking authority - Duane Butler and Jack Ruland, three-year terms.

Beautification commission - Mrs. E. O. Whittington, Ed Welch, and John Wortman, all three year terms.

Citizens' advisory committee - all one year terms, John Mach, George Clark, Essie Nirider, Russell Clarke, Rev. Lloyd Brasure, Mrs. Nancy Schoultz, Robert Hart, Arthur Adams, Robert Bretz, Arthur Prodder, Harry Wagenschutz, Robert Horner, Mrs. Virginia Bake, Kenneth Rathert and Stanley Johnston.

CONTROL CENTER-An operator, Alan Housner of American Teletimer corporation, looks out over the infield from one of the centers that control the giant new "tote" board at Northville Downs. Besides showing one-quarter, one-half, three-quarter and finish times of the leading horse, the board shows odds, gives win, place and show pools, race results, time of day, post time, minutes to post, race number, and personalized messages. In addition, two infield indicators along the track tell the drivers times of the leading horse and warns them of any spills on the track.

Silver Star Awarded To Dead Vietnam Soldier

A Silver Star for gallantry was awarded posthumously to S. Sgt. Leslie E. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright of South Lyon, in a recent ceremony at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

The citation for Sgt. Wright related the events of November 8, 1966, when he lost his life in Vietnam.

Serving as a platoon leader with Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 28th Infantry, Sgt. Wright distinguished himself by going to the aid of first one and then another of the injured men in his unit during Operation Attleboro near the Cambodian border.

Disregarding his own safety, he braved the fire of enemy automatic weapons, small arms, rockets and mortars to help his men until he, too, was mortally wounded.

Accident Claims Life of Welder

A 20-year-old Detroit man was killed Monday morning while working on a freight car at the Evans Products plant in Plymouth.

Killed instantly when struck by a section of steel was David S. Klemczak, 7619 Penrod. A welder, he was helping in construction of the under-frame of a freight car. Klemczak had been employed at Evans since October of 1965.

An Evans spokesman said about 270 employees asked for and received passes to leave work following the accident. Early reports that the men "went on strike" were untrue, the official said.

OUT OF THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...

... A plan to provide a new north-south traffic route in the city of Northville was scuttled when results of a feasibility study by the Wayne county road commission were revealed.

In a report signed by Oscar M. Gunderson, county planning and negotiating engineer, the total cost of pavement-not including right of way acquisition-was placed at $993,000 for a 24-foot pavement and $1,544,000 for a 48-foot width.

... Earl Fiene was elected president, Richard Martin, vice president, and Mrs. Daniel R. Brown, secretary-treasurer of Whipples Estates Property Owners association.

TEN YEARS AGO...

... Dr. Anthony Abruzzo was named assistant superintendent of the Wayne County Training School.

... Another attempt to find water on city owned property in the Gerald Avenue-city dump area was underway.

... Roy Utley was appointed dog warden for the city and township of Northville.

... A public hearing for a proposed city budget calling for expenditures of $2978,828.76 was scheduled.

... Mrs. Edith McKenna retired as dietitian of William H. Maybury Sanatorium where she had been a familiar figure for 32 years.

... Al Myers was named to head the newly elected officers included Robert German, vice-president; Charles Lapham, secretary, Merle Parsons, treasurer. The board of directors included Fred Kester, Fred Stefanski, and Gene Quay.

TWENTY-YEARS AGO...

... Announcement has been made of the appointment of Dr. W. Leonard Howard as medical superintendent of the Maybury Sanatorium.

... Emory Mapes was elected Worthy President of the Northville Eagles.

... George Simmons of Novi was elected Commander of the 17th District of the American Legion.

... Those selected to attend Wolverine Boys and Girls State were: Marilyn Brummel, Patricia Johnston, David Pottinger, Robert Campbell, Robert German, Mickey Nagey, Barton Connors, Roland Getts, R. Stover, Mac Pierce, Gene Rutenbar and Edward Lanning.

THIRTY YEARS AGO...

... Two Northville high school students, Fred Casterline and Albert

Vradenburg, went to the model airplane contest at Toledo, Ohio and came home with second and fourth place honors.

... A police radio was to be installed in Northville's new police car.

FIFTY YEARS AGO...

... A sneak thief broke into the William Gorton clothing store and got away with goods valued at $200. Entrance was gained through a cellar window, by prying off the grating.

... The following O.E.S. officers were installed: Nellie Freydl, W.M.; Edwin Fuller, W.P.; Belle Simmons, A. M.; Arabella Tinnam, secretary; Maude Parmenter, treasurer; Ruth Gillis, Con.; Rua Taft, A.C.; Helen Ball, chaplain; Aline McCully, marshal; Grace Dolph, organist; Rose Carrington, Ada; Georgia Tinnam, Ruth; Flora Van Dyne, Ester; Kittle Coif, Martha; Mina Fuller, Electa; Alice DesAutels, W.; and D.F. Griswold, sentinel.

Downs Honors Driver 'n Wife

Northville Downs honored one of its first sulky drivers and his wife Monday evening on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carrièreau of Seven Mile road were saluted with a special race at which the winner was presented with a blanket.

The Carrièreaus, accompanied by six of their eight children, their husbands and wives and friends, were presented a gift. Mr. Carrièreau was a driver at the Downs when it opened in 1944.

New Chess Club Seeks Members

A call for more adult participation in a chess club was issued this week.

Rick Myers and Barton Harper, acting leaders of the new chess group sponsored by the Northville recreation department, urged adults to test their chess skills at the next meeting of the club on Thursday, June 22.

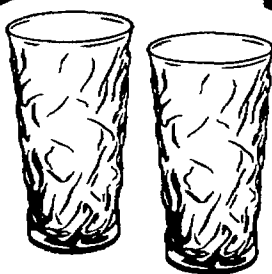

The meeting will be held in the Scout building beginning at 8 p.m. Presently, the club has a minimum age limit of 15.

Amazes Even College Coach JH Thinclads Smash Records

:6.8 in the 60 yard dash. Not so hot. The world record is :6.1. 18 feet 9 inches in the long jump. Respectable, for a high school senior, but nothing to clamor about. :10.5 in the 100 yard dash. Good again, for a high school senior, but nothing unusual. But when those marks are reached in the eighth grade, that's nothing short of sensational. Ask Larry Dzioback (pronounced Jobek), coach of the Northville junior high school track team. These are just a few of the records his seventh and eighth graders set this year while going undefeated in four meets. "It's terrific," Dzioback declared. Ask Ralph Redmond, high school track coach. "Tremendous," Redmond replied with obvious elation. Better yet, ask Don Canham, University of Michigan track coach and one of the top college mentors in the business. Admitting that he didn't know exactly what eighth graders were doing, he estimated that each mark was "well above average. A good college 60-yard dash man will run it in :6.2," he said. "That :10.5 is also very good." The boy who fairly flies in the 60 yard dash and in the long jump is John Stuyvenberg, a will-o-the-wisp eighth grader. No one has come close to beating him this year. The same holds true for Brad Conklin, another eighth grader who holds the mark in the 100 yard dash — no one has seriously challenged him. He's built a little different from Stuyvenberg. Conklin is 5' 10" and 180 pounds, and Dzioback said assuringly, "It's all muscle."

Understandably, Dzioback has nothing but praise for all 23 of his boys who, the Northville coach believes, have broken every local junior high mark this year. Uncertainty arises from the fact that accurate records have not been kept. "I expect these boys to do something in the state finals when they reach high school," Dzioback confided. Besides Stuyvenberg and Conklin, there's a batch of top-flight material: Rick Pickren in the 60 yard high hurdles (:9.5) and the 100 yard low hurdles (:13.4); Bernie Bach in the shot put (43'10"), the 75 yard dash (:9.1) and the 220 yard dash (:25); Woody Filkin in the 440 (:64); Kerry Cushing in the high jump (5'3") and Tom McIntosh in the pole vault (7'9").

In the team events, there's Dave Martin, McIntosh, Robin Miller and Stuyvenberg in the 440 yard relay (:47.2) and Mike Beard, Rick Sechler, Cushing and Conklin in the 880 yard relay (1:47.2).

Other strong eighth grade performers singled out by Dzioback were Steve Utley in the 440, Mike Schronce, Mark Hlohenic and Andy Cain. Seventh grade standouts are Phil Guider, Carmen Jackson, Mike Rosenski, Scott Evans, Dan Fleck, Randy Hall and Kevin Hartshorne.

Surprisingly, despite the talent, Northville narrowly beat out Clarenceville in two meets this year. The score was 55-54 each time. Otherwise, Northville romped 97-12 over Novi and 70 to 45 and 15 over Milford and Highland in a triangular.

In Rec Program It's Sign Up Time For Summer Fun

The Northville Recreation department will kick off its annual summer program Saturday with registration, Director Bob Prom announced this week. Registration will be held from 8 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 10, and Saturday, June 17, and Monday, June 12, through Friday, June 16, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Scout-Recreation building. Late comers may register Monday through Friday from 8 to 12 p.m. throughout the summer.

Fee for Northville city and township residents will be 75 cents. For non-residents, the fee is $8.

During registration, schedules of practice and games will be given to boys interested in playing Knothole softball and baseball. Knothole softball is for boys 7-9; baseball is for boys 10 to 14 years of age.

The summer program will get into full swing on June 18 when the track program for boys and girls 10 years and older starts at the Northville high school track. Subsequently, a full spectrum of track and field events will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Monday and Wednesday and each Saturday from 9 to 11 a.m.

The Day Camps and swimming are scheduled to get underway June 21. The three day camp locations are the Moraine and Amerman elementary school playgrounds and the Scout-Recreation building, from 9 to 11:45 a.m. Monday through Friday.

Swimming for those eight years and older will be held for the first time at Kensington Metropolitan park; previously, the swimming site was Whitmore Lake. Buses will load at the three day camp sites each day at 12:45 and leave promptly at 1 p.m. Further information pertaining to bus schedules are available at the Scout-Recreation building. The swimming fee is 25 cents.

Pee Wee baseball for boys five and six will begin June 22, and will be held each Thursday morning from 10:15 to 11:30 at diamond number two in Cass Benton park.

Archery will be held each Friday at the rear of the Scout-Recreation building, beginning on June 23. Boys and girls 6 to 10 years are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. and boys and girls 11 and older at 10:30 a.m.

On June 26, tennis and swimming instruction will get underway. Tennis instruction will be given from 10 to 11:45 a.m. for boys and girls 10 years and older each Monday and Wednesday at the Cass Benton park courts. Swimming lessons for those 13 and older will be given Monday, Wednesday and Friday by certified Red Cross Water Safety instructors in conjunction with the swimming program.

Evening swimming for those 13 and older will be held at special times, obtainable at the Scout-Recreation building. The charge is 40 cents.

Area youngsters will get a chance to learn canoeing each Tuesday and Thursday, beginning June 27. Participants will meet at the Scout-Recreation building at 8:15 a.m. for the trip to the Proud Lake recreation area.

Restricted to children 12 years and older, the canoeing program is climaxed by the annual AuSable river canoe trip. The fee is 35 cents.

Trips to the Detroit Zoological park are also scheduled to get underway on June 27. Limited to 55 persons, the trip will cost 35 cents and reservations must be made. Other trips are on tap for July 12 and July 25.

Another annual feature, nature hikes, will be taken to Kensington Metropolitan Park on July 6 and July 20. Reservations for the trip limited to 35 persons must be made.

A full fare of special events will again take place, including a trip to Tiger stadium, a turtle race and pet and doll show. Details will be announced beforehand in the Northville Record.

If enough interest is expressed, Director Prom said, a softball league for girls 10 and up will be formed.

College Awards Letters At Sports Banquet

Varsity sports letters were awarded to five members of the golf team, including one from Northville, and five members of the tennis team at the annual spring sports award banquet at Schoolcraft College on Thursday evening, May 18.

The presentation followed a spring season in which the Schoolcraft golfers compiled a 7-6 record and the tennis team finished with a 1-6 record.

The golfers, under Coach Bob Leggat, took two matches each from Monroe County Community College and Highland Park Junior College, split a pair each with Oakland County Community College Highland Lakes and Macomb County Community College, and took a single match with Oakland County Community College Auburn Hills.

The Northville member of the golf squad was Ron Bennett, 19, of 568 Reed avenue.

Kiwanis Sponsors Olympics

A host of Novi and Wixom students participated in the fifth annual Walled Lake Kiwanis Junior Olympics the past weekend, and Novi's Doug Osborn and Natalie Hare emerged as outstanding participants.

They will be feted at a dinner, probably in the fall.

Competing from Novi were Pat Boyer, Jeff Anderson, Jim Van Wagner, Gary Collins, Eric Hansor, Chris Polak, Eric Karschnick, Mike Miller, Mike Vivian, Bill Witke, Kathy Radtke, Beth Reid; Penny Marchetti, Debbie Kuick, Denise Taffallan, Kristie Killeen, Sue Primeau, Steve Pomeroy, Pat Dye, Jim Wilenius, Darryl Winn, Jay Hanor, Larry Green, Leslie Branch, Rick Josephson, Rick Hill, Roy Ary and John Campbell.

Wixom participants include Frida Waara, Kathy Combs, Valerie Potter, Janice Hughes, Lanny Enders and Tom Sutherland.

Jaycees Cop Early Lead

The Northville Jaycees heads the Northville Recreation department's Slo-Pitch league with a 3-0 record as the second week of play begins.

Tied for second are Northville Lanes and Ed Matatall Builders, both with 2-1 records. Lapham's Men's Wear and Perkins Engines have 1-2 slates, while the Ford Motor company team occupies the cellar with a 0-3 record.

Games are played three nights a week — Monday, Wednesday and Friday — starting at 6:15 p.m. at Ford field.

1967 W-O CHAMPS—Posing with their trophy, emblematic of the Wayne-Oakland Conference baseball championship, are (front, l-r)

Bill Skelly, Steve Kehrer, Pat Hall, Captain Doug Swiss, Coach Bob Kucher, Chris Holman, Randy Pohlman, Dennis Primeau, (back)

Manager Bob Fisher, Jeff Taylor, David McMillan, Stan Nirider, Joe Donner, Larry Biddle, Doug Anglin, Rich Suckow and Bob Hubbert.

They'd Like 3rd Title

Baseball Champs Eye '68

It wasn't the winningest baseball season on record, nor was it tops for Coach Bob Kucher, but for stirring finishes, 1967 has them all beat.

Trailing favored Clarkston in the Wayne-Oakland race by two games, Northville surged back to sweep its last eight games and win the conference championship.

The climax was Northville's 3-1 victory over Clarkston in the season finale. That gave Northville a 12-2 league mark and Clarkston a 11-3 record.

The important point to remember, however, is that this was supposed to be a rebuilding year. With the exception of Catchers Doug Swiss and Randy Pohlman and Pitcher-Outfielder Dennis Primeau, the starting lineup that tied for the league title with Milford graduated.

Northville won its first two games this spring, then stumbled to a 4-2 league mark — with inexperience showing. A few switches and the team congealed into a winner.

Not even Northville's post-season loss to Livonia Bentley, 3-2, in the semi-finals of the Livonia high school tourney last week could put the damper on the first outright league title since 1962. Northville won its first game, 4-2, against Clarenceville.

For Kucher, 1967 wasn't the best season. Overall, the Mustangs had a 14-6 record, losing to Plymouth twice, Walled Lake and Bentley in non-league play. Last year's mark was 19-3 (12-2 in the W-O), and coupled with a 10-9 mark Kucher's first year, that gives him an enviable record.

In three seasons, his teams have a 33-9 conference record, two championships and are 43-18 overall.

Good? You bet. And next year, Northville is getting the nod to successfully defend its title for the third consecutive year.

Only three regulars will be graduating — Catcher and Captain Doug Swiss, and Outfielders Pat Hall and Chris Holman. Pitcher Steve Kehrer, who saw limited action this year, will also depart.

Swiss will move on to the University of Michigan, where he will join Steve Evans, former Northville pitching great, on Moby Benedict's Wolverines. Ironically, Dan Fife, the Clarkston hurler whom Swiss hit with unabashed glee in this year's showdown battle (a two-run homer and a double), will also join Swiss at Michigan.

No doubt, Swiss' loss will be felt, behind the plate where he was one of the top prep catchers in the state, as team leader and at the bat. He led this year's club with a .375 average, in hits with 24, runs scored with 16, doubles with nine and triples with two. He led in strike outs with 18 and being hit by pitches with two.

Recently, his teammates voted him the most valuable player on the team.

The task of filling Swiss' shoes will fall to Randy Pohlman, this year's first sacker, who will captain the 1968 Mustangs. But he promises to be a better-than-average replacement.

For one thing, Pohlman has had experience behind the plate, having taken over the catching in 1966, as a sophomore, when Swiss was sidelined with an injury. Furthermore, Pohlman, a husky 6'3" and 185 pounds, wields a mean bat. This year, he batted .274, led the club in RBIs with 16 and home runs with four and tied Swiss in triples with two.

This year's back-up man at first, Bob Hubbert, a husky, hard-working junior, will get first shot at first base. If he comes through, that could solve one of Kucher's big problems.

Gone from the outfield will be Hall and Holman, two aggressive ball players, who chased a fly ball with the same zeal they swung the bat. Hall was a perfect lead-off man. He was the second-leading batter with a .333 average, led the team in walks with 16 and scored the most runs, 18. Holman batted .296 and knocked in 12 runs.

It'll be a toss-up for their outfield spots, but in the thick of the race will be Dave McMillan (.000 on 0 for 7) and Rick Suckow (.166 on 1 for 6). Pressed, Kucher might have to move Pitcher-Infielder-Outfielder Dennis Primeau back to the outfield, when he's not pitching, just as he did in 1966.

Back in left field will be Joe Donner, a .285 hitter this year, who swings from the left side and plays a steady defensive game.

Northville's forte should be the infield, where no less than five experienced hands will be returning. Surprise of this year was Stan Nirider, a sophomore, who improved with every outing and finished as a polished veteran. Nirider, besides executing the double play with finesse and covering second like a thirsty Hoover, batted .301 and led the team in stolen bases with five. He's a natural.

Biddle, who lost his job to Nirider at second, showed he could play a solid shortstop. In the championship finale, he and Nirider teamed up to give Northville a near air-tight infield. Weak at bat, Biddle had a .105 average.

Holding down the hot corner will be Dave Anglin, who found himself toward mid-season when he was shifted from shortstop to a more familiar third base. He hit .210.

It's St. Germain In Buick Open

Jim St. Germain, ex Northville high school state champion golfer and now a sophomore at the university of Houston, was one of five amateurs to qualify for the Buick Open Monday at Warwick Hills, Grand Blanc.

St. Germain fired a 73 to finish well up in the qualifiers, who were led by pro Pete Brown, an ex Michigan open champion. He fired a 65.

Play in the Buick Open begins today, with the top professional golfers in the nation competing.

Records Fall As Thinclads By Poor Fielding Finish 4th

Northville eclipsed two more local high school records in the Wayne-Oakland Conference track tournament last week, but Bloomfield Hills, Clarenceville and Milford outshined Northville in the race for the team title.

For the second year in a row, the Mustangs took fourth place with 19 and 1/2 points. Milford had 30. Basking in the sun at the top were Bloomfield Hills with 78 points and Clarenceville with 65.

Only two record break-throughs cheered Coach Ralph Redmond, who had hoped to nudge Milford out of fourth place.

Junior Bill Harrison, competing in the mile for the third time this year, ran the distance in 4:34.2 to break the old record of 4:36.6, set last year by Dave Orphan.

Harrison had a had in the other record, too. He teamed up with Jack Crawford, Greg Marshall and George D'Haene in the mile relay to set a new school record of 3:31.7, breaking their own record of 3:32, also set this year in the state finals at Ann Arbor the previous week.

Neither Harrison, nor the mile relay team won, however. Both took second.

Too much too late is the story of Harrison's defeat in the mile. He turned it on in the stretch, flashing by Milford's Tom Sutton, but failed catching Clarenceville's Rick Adams, who was losing ground fast. Adams, a senior was clocked in 4:34.

A reversal cost Northville vital points. Jim Amick of Clarenceville upset Ron Gloetznor of Northville, the favorite in the pole vault. Amick, whom Gloetznor had beaten twice this year, vaulted 11'8", while Gloetznor and teammate Mike Ratiiff went 11'3". Gloetznor has gone as high as 12'4" this year.

In the low hurdles, Gloetznor took third with a time of :20.8. Tom Myhra of Bloomfield Hills, who finished fourth in the class A state meet, won the event in :19.2. Northville's Randy Simpson, in his best time, won fourth place in :21.3.

Jim Peterson finished fourth in the high jump. He leaped 5'8". Dave Hall of Bloomfield Hills won at 6'.

BODY ENGLISH—Giving the soft-ball toss plenty of body English is Steven Kaake, participating in the first decathlon event started at Northville Monday.

Novi Nine Hurt By Poor Fielding

Shoddy fielding and lack of depth combined to put the brakes on Novi's hopes for a winning baseball season.

The Wildcats, playing primarily against JV competition, closed the season with a 3-5 record.

They booted the ball 38 times. Victim of poor fielding support was the big right hander, Lee Snow, who pitched all but three games and had a 2-3 record. In 33 innings, he struck out 49 and walked 11.

Shortstop Gary Boyer was the leading batsman on the club. He had the highest average (.392, 11 for 28) and led the team in hits and runs scored.

Snow helped his own cause by batting .347, the same as Centerfielder Andy Pantaleo, who also batted in nine runs. Both prepsters were eight for 23.

Phil McMillan, only a ninth grader, had the next highest average, .337, coming on eight hits in 24 trips. Pat Haley led in RBIs with 10 and batted .320. He had eight hits in 25 at bats.

Novi's latest loss was to South Lyon, 7-6. Trailing 7-1 going into the final frame, Novi scored five times, but the rally fell short.

Next year, the Wildcats will become an official member of the Inter-Lakes Conference. Coach John Osborne doesn't think the title is out of reach — if...

"We need depth, especially pitching depth," he said. "If we don't win, we'll come close in the league — if we get another pitcher."

The Children's Season

Now that school will be out soon and our streets will be full of carefree children running around like playful puppies, it is best to ease up on the throttle.

The law recognizes the fact that children are not responsible for their acts in the broad sense that adults are. They dash out on a road without looking, despite dozens of warnings from anxious parents. Caution and carefree youth have a difficult time together. That's why school zones have extra-low speed limits, usually rigidly enforced.

When school is out for the summer, school zones are spread out everywhere children roam. So, if you see children playing on the road, slow up well in advance and give them a wide berth when you do pass.

In the United States there is a death on the highway every 13 minutes and an injury every 23 seconds. At this rate, one out of every two Americans faces the prospect of being killed or injured in a traffic accident during his lifetime.

The most tragic of these accidents are those involving children who are killed or crippled before their life has hardly begun. To lose a little time on the chance of saving a little life, are odds that any motorist would be foolish indeed to ignore.

He can be on the right end of the odds by just reducing speed, the number one cause of fatalities.

Silence Marks City Public Hearing

Not even a cue stick was raised Monday as the Northville city council breezed through two public hearings, granting a zoning change and approving a billiard ordinance amendment.

Despite public silence on these two measures, such was not the case concerning recent council action to prohibit parking on Wing Court. Three residents on the deadend street off Wing voiced displeasure over the ban but failed to convince the council to either rescind or temper the measure.

The zoning change gives a parking classification to the present Ford parking lot west of Griswold together with several lots extending into what is now part of Ford Field. The Ford company, which plans to enlarge its parking facilities, originally requested a manufacturing zoning. But the planning commission convinced company representatives to change the request to parking. Both the existing parking lot and the section of Ford Field that will be used for additional parking had been zoned R-2 (two-family residential).

City Manager Frank Ollendorff explained that the extension of the parking lot into Ford Field will not affect the recreation department baseball diamond.

The amendment concerning billiard and pool rooms requires written parental permission to be placed on file before persons 14 to 17 may be permitted to play or frequent these places. Permission is to be written on cards furnished by the proprietor. The card, which is to be on file at the business place for inspection at any time by the city police department, must be delivered to the proprietor by the parent or guardian signing it.

Spokesman for those on hand to protest the recent action banning parking on Wing Court was Jerome Sullivan, who said the ban will force visitors to Wing Court homes to park on an adjoining street because there is not sufficient drive-way space to accommodate visitors' cars.

He argued that a limited parking regulation from morning until night and an all-night ban would be sufficient to provide time for snow removal. He disagreed with the city manager's report that the street was too narrow to permit street parking and access by fire department trucks.

Council members explained that the ban was taken "to protect" the residents on the short, deadend street, since the street is considered too narrow for emergency equipment. They suggested that property owners provide additional parking space on their vacant land on the opposite side of the street.

It was also explained that the parking ban does not prohibit short, five to 10-minute stops by service vehicles.

Although the council declined to budge from its position, it agreed to pursue a suggestion by the property owners that lower than 25-MPH speed limit signs be installed on the street.

In other business, the council discussed a proposed new contractual agreement with the city engineer and then referred it to the city attorney for review.

As proposed, the agreement calls for $10 per hour for general engineering services; $15 to $18 per hour for survey crew; $75 per day for inspection; and 1.5-percent of construction cost for review of subdivision plans.

Upon council suggestion, the proposal was amended to require that inspectors be approved by either the city manager or council, and that the engineering subdivision section include the words, "unless otherwise negotiated".

Councilwoman Mrs. Beatrice Carlson gave a report on the beautification campaign, noting the accomplishments by the beautification commission and various groups and individuals who assisted. The presentation was supplemented with slides, shown by John Wortman, which pointed up sections of the community that need improvements.

Firestone Store To Open Here

A new Firestone tire sales and repair headquarters will open here within two weeks.

Richard Ashton of Livonia will own and operate the business in a remodeled building at 446 South Main street. Assisting him will be Buddy Smith, mechanic, and Robert Tyler, handling commercial truck and tractor tires.

Together, the three men represent a total of 27 years of tire experience. The business will handle all Firestone truck, tractor and automobile tires, offer tire retreading, and operate a brake and front end service. In addition, a truck and air compressor will be operated for on the job or on the farm tire service.

Ashton, who expects to move to Northville soon, was previously manager of a Firestone store in Detroit for two years, a territory manager for four years, and for four years a commercial truck and tractor tire salesman.

Thieves Loot Car Here

A pair of binoculars, a three-piece pool stick, a sport coat and $115 were stolen from a rented car parked on Fairbrook street between Wing and First streets last Friday.

James K. Booher of Plymouth, who reported the theft at 10:11 p.m., told Northville police that entry had been gained through a wing window on the driver's side.

The theft was believed to have taken place between 8 and 10 p.m.

A horse trailer, owned by William J. Kummer, 117 Fairbrook, was stolen between May 25 and May 30 from the barn area at Northville Downs.

Kummer reported the theft at 8:55 a.m. last Thursday.

*****

A boy's bicycle was stolen May 31 from 539 Reed street, the home of James Bell.

He reported the theft at 8:55 p.m. and estimated the bicycle was stolen between 3:45 and 7:30 p.m.

*****

Groceries stolen from Kroger's store on Center street were recovered after a search for two men who escaped apprehension on May 30.

Manager Edward Barnes reported the incident at 10:50 a.m. The thieves made good their escape when police said they doubled back and drove away.

*****

A large plate glass window at the rear of Schrader's Home Furnishings, 111 North Center street, was broken Friday night, apparently by youths throwing beer bottles.

The broken six by eight window was reported at 10:30 p.m. A witness told police that he had seen several 17-19 year-old boys throwing beer bottles in the alley behind Schrader's earlier that night.

*****

An object, thought to be a beer bottle, was thrown through the front windshield of a car at Baseline and Center street last Thursday.

Robert Wishaw, 4139 West 10 Mile road, was in the car at the time the window was smashed at 9:10 p.m.

*****

Extensive damage to an air conditioner at 333 Debra Lane was caused by youngsters throwing large stones.

Reporting the vandalism on May 31 was Edwin Burgis, 333 Debra Lane.

Stones, candy and marbles were found at the base of the air conditioner when Northville police investigated. The incident took place between 2 p.m. on May 30 and 5:54 p.m. on May 31, when police were informed.

Municipal Court

Two Northville men charged with being disorderly were arraigned Tuesday before visiting Judge James R. McCann of Livonia and were fined $50 apiece in Northville Municipal Court.

Durward C. Hartsell, 61, of 521 West Main street, and Jack D. Taggart, 40, of 610 Oakland, were both cited for separate infractions taking place on Main street.

Bruce J. Boor, 17, of 20297 Woodhill road was fined $50 for careless driving on South and East Main street. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

For speeding 60 miles per hour in a 25 zone on Randolph street, Don G. Steele was fined $35. Judge McCann found him guilty.

Three youths were fined $27.50 for having liquor in their possession.

They were Michale D. McGuire, 18, of 240 Orchard drive, for a violation taking place on Eight Mile road near Novi street, and Donald A. Needham, 19, and William T. White, 17, both cited at the Clark gas station on South Main street. Needham lives at 41066 McMahon in Novi.

Cited for careless driving, Larry

Justice Court

A Union Lake man with a poor driving record was fined $30, sentenced to 30 days in jail and put on two-year probation in Novi Justice court.

Orville McIntosh, 40, was cited for driving on Ludlow and Faywood streets while his license was revoked. He was fined $5 for having defective lights on his vehicle.

James H. Holmes, 25, of 48580 12 Mile road, Wixom, was fined $100 and had a 30-day jail sentence suspended. He was charged with reckless driving on I-96 from Novi road to Haggerty road at speeds estimated at 105 miles per hour.

James M. McKinstry, 28, of Hamburg was fined $75 on a reduced charge of reckless driving. Novi police clocked him at an estimated 90 miles per hour as he was driving east on Grand River.

Three drivers were ticketed and fined for speeding on Novi roads.

Daniel D. Godfrey, 61, of Walled Lake paid a $20 fine and $10 costs for speeding 70 miles per hour in a 40 zone on Novi road near 13 Mile road.

William Sage, 41, of Pleasant Ridge was fined $20. He was cited for speeding 70 in a 55 zone on Grand River between Taft and Novi roads.

Arthur C. Lipton, 26, of Walled Lake, cited for speeding 45 in a 30 zone on East Lake drive, was fined $20.

Roger W. Burkowski, 24, of 40034 Jefferson in Novi was arraigned on charges of assault and battery at his home. A fine of $10 and $10 costs were handed down.

Ed Cramb, 1101 South Lake drive, was fined $10 when he was found in violation of Novi's junk car ordinance. The infraction occurred at his place of residence.

LET'S MON PLAY BALL

Larry is in seventh heaven. He got his baseball suit yesterday, and is finally a full-fledged member of the neighborhood team.

He is the youngest one in the lot, and certainly the smallest. But he packs a great deal of leadership ability in that half-pint frame. We had not lived in our neighborhood one month, before he was bat boy and unofficial mascot. In just a few short weeks, "morale" improved. Two of the boys, nicknamed, "Loudmouth" and "Fatso" became "Speed" and "Lefty." The boys began to cooperate and play better as a team. They moved steadily upward in the league.

You can imagine what this did to our spirits. How proud we were, and yet humble too, for we knew we could not take complete credit for his sense of fair play. You see, he has been brought up in the Church as well as in our home. It's a wonderful feeling to realize that in such a few short years our son has shown the influence of Christian training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Rev. S. D. Kinde
First Methodist Church of Northville

This month throughout the United States thousands of young people will be graduating from high school and college. They will all dress much the same in colored cap and gown. How proud they must be as they carry home a diploma indicating they have reached a goal in education.

How mature they seem to be! How grown up! But how adult are they? How do they act in public?

I recall a story of a distinguished looking gentleman who on New Years Eve wore a paper hat askew on his gray locks and was riding "piggy back" on the shoulders of a strapping young athlete, and tooting a tin horn with the vim of a four year old.

Someone on the sidelines remarked: "Why doesn't he act his age? Why doesn't he behave like an adult?"

This man had many of the earmarks of maturity, but something about the gay old blade smacked of adolescence. He acted like a child and had never grown up.

Becoming a mature person means more than donning a cap and gown and boasting the possession of a diploma. It even means more than turning gray or becoming wrinkled. It implies a stability of thought and behavior.

Some students leave high school a little short of being illiterate while others under the same teachers, the same curriculum and educational system, seem very mature and ready to face college or whatever life will open to them. They have sought a good education and have found it and are now ready to take on the responsibilities that are to come.

There are several characteristics which youth should acquire toward being mature: The ability to take disappointments. To take responsibility. To weigh values and make decisions. To practice self control. To respect the rights of others. To put something into life. To take criticism. To appreciate. To view life philosophically. To think seriously and honestly.

The Apostle Paul was one of the most learned men of the First Century. He gives us a sound formula for growing up into adults when he says, "When I was a child, I spoke as a child; I understood as a child; I thought as a child, but when I became a man I put away childish things."

Philip Wylie said, "We are a nation of children who refuse to grow up."

We wish the very best for all who graduate this month. May the future find you mature persons who are spending your lives for something that outlives you.

Holy Cross Mission Dedicated Sunday

Holy Cross Episcopal Mission church serving Novi and Northville was officially dedicated in a special service Sunday afternoon.

Located on 10 Mile road, west of Taft, the new chapel was completed last winter.

Guest speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Canon A. Fletcher Plant, Eng. D., administrative assistant to the Episcopal Bishop of Michigan the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich. Canon Plant read the dedication service and was the guest speaker.

The service, which included the traditional knocking on the church door and the blessing of the church, featured a presentation by a 30-voice choir under the direction of Kathryn MacLean of Southfield.

Refreshments were served following

GAS LAMPS ADD A PLEASANT GLOW TO OUTDOOR LIVING

The soft glow of a gas lamp adds a nostalgic touch of charm and beauty wherever it is placed. Its gentle, ever-present radiance provides a warm welcome to guests - stretches outdoor fun into the evening hours. It offers protection against intruders, too. Gas lamps are available in several styles, from "gay nineties" to "ultra-modern". Choose one to fit your decor - better yet, choose two or more.

News Around Schoolcraft

If you are planning to attend the summer session at Schoolcraft College but have not yet been admitted to the college, call the admissions office as soon as possible.

If you have been admitted to the college but have not yet been counseled, make a counseling appointment as soon as possible.

That's the advice of Schoolcraft Registrar Norman E. Dunn and Director of Missions Barbara Geil.

The eight-week summer session begins on Monday, July 3 and continues through August 25. Registration for the session is scheduled for June 26 and 27.

In addition to advising early action on seeking admission and counseling, Dunn also announced plans for a mail-in registration for summer session students.

"Students who have been tested and counseled for either day or evening classes have received, or shortly will receive information on how to register by mail," Dunn said. "All they will have to do is complete the registration form by indicating when they wish to take a particular course and return the form with a check for tuition and fees."

"Students who have been admitted, but who have not yet been counseled, should call the college as soon as possible to make a counseling appointment. These students will receive information on how to register when they come in for their counseling session."

"Students who do not come in for counseling until June 26 or 27 will register at the college at the same time," Dunn said. According to Miss Geil, there is still time for students who wish to attend the summer session to make application to the college. These students, however, will be restricted to taking a limited number of courses being offered in either the day or evening programs, Miss Geil said.

Two Get Diplomas From Universities

Two Northville students have received degrees in commencement exercises last weekend at Purdue University and the University of Wisconsin.

Receiving a bachelor of arts degree in home economics at Purdue University was Deborah Ann Baldwin, 37955 Rhonwood. She was graduated with distinction.

At the University of Wisconsin, Michael P. Adas of 21371 Stanstead received a master of arts degree. He was one of more than 3,600 students who filed across the commencement platform at Madison to receive diplomas.

Of these, 1,000 received higher degrees as did Adas. The Purdue university graduation class included nearly 5,000 students. Miss Baldwin was graduated with "distinction" for ranking in the top 10 percent at Purdue.

Official Minutes of the Northville City Council

SPECIAL MEETING

Mayor Allen called the meeting to order on Tuesday, May 23, 1967, 8:10 p.m. at the Northville City Hall. Mayor Allen stated that with the consensus of the council, considering the fact that the meeting with Northville township had been concluded early it was unanimously agreed to open the Special meeting at 8:10 p.m. instead of the scheduled time of 8:30 p.m.

Present: Allen, Carlson, Black, Lapham and Nichols. Absent: None.

Consideration of Bids for Volunteer Firemen's Insurance and Awarding of Policy:

The City manager reported, as per council's request, that the firemen are covered under these policies (including Workmen's Compensation) the same as full-time employees. He, therefore, saw no reason to raise the amounts of coverage in this policy from the present amount.

Discussion followed regarding the difference of $13.85 between the low bidder and second low bidder - second low bidder is a local business man.

Moved by Black, support by Nichols, to accept the bid of the Insurance Co. of America (Carrington & Johnson, Northville - agents) in the amount of $279.05. Unanimously carried.

Set date for Public Hearing for City of Northville for 1967-68:

Council unanimously agreed to discuss the budget later in the evening and set this date following the discussion.

Agreement Between City of Northville and Connemara Agency:

This will appear on the agenda for June 5, 1967.

Consideration of Resolution to join the Plymouth Community Study on Joint Unification:

Moved by Black, support by Carlson, that the city council of Northville, after due consideration and deliberation, are declining the invitation of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce to join the governments of Plymouth city and township to engage in a study of joint unification. Unanimously carried.

City manager is to convey thanks for said invitation to the Chamber of Commerce.

Appointment of a Municipal Judge to Fill Vacancy created by Resignation of Judge Charles W. McDonald:

At the last regular meeting of May 15, 1967, the resignation of Judge McDonald was accepted, effective May 17, 1967. At that time, it was agreed to make the appointment necessary to fill this vacancy at the next regular or special Council meeting.

Moved by Allen, support by Black, to fill appointment of the unexpired term of Charles W. McDonald (until the next regular city election), this appointment to be effective July 1, 1967. Unanimously carried.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Martha M. Milne
City Clerk

SPECIAL MEETING

By unanimous agreement of all five Council members (all being present), the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor A. J. Allen on Tuesday, May 23, 1967, 10:00 p.m. at the Northville city hall.

Present: Allen, Black, Carlson, Lapham and Nichols. Absent: None.

Moved by Carlson, support by Black to reconvene meeting (previously adjourned at 8:35 p.m.). Unanimously carried.

Moved by Black, support by Nichols, set date of Public Hearing of the City of Northville 1967-68 budget on this agenda. Unanimously carried.

Moved by Nichols, support by Black, to set the date for Public Hearing on the 1967-68 city of Northville Budget for Thursday, June 8, 1967 (Special meeting) and advertise in the Northville Record of June 1, 1967. Unanimously carried.

JOINT MEETING

City of Northville Council and Northville Township Board - Minutes of May 23, 1967, Northville city hall.

Present: City: Mayor Allen, city manager Ollendorff, Black, Carlson, Lapham, Nichols.

Township: Supervisor Merriam, Treasurer Lawrence, Clerk Hammond, Armstrong, Baldwin, Stromberg, Telam.

Meeting called to order at 7:05 p.m. by acting Chairman, Mike Allen.

Allen stated that the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce had proposed a five community study, leading toward unification. The Chamber had given the same presentation, with slides, to both the Northville City Council and the Northville Township Board. He asked: "Are we interested in jointly entering into this program?" He went on to say that it would be useless for the city to do so without the township, and that he believed the city council is more interested in a study of our own two communities. He requested Township Clerk Hammond to read a letter from the Committee for Area Progress which suggests a study of a future master plan. Allen pointed out that the letter was from Don Lawrence, the Chairman of the C.A.P., and did not necessarily represent the thinking of his whole committee.

Supervisor Merriam remarked that he felt Supervisor McEwan had hoped to include the Northville area in the Plymouth study in order to foil the chances of success for the Plymouth unification, and that he felt the Chamber of Commerce wanted us not to join the study. Carlson and Allen both expressed much the same sentiments.

Merriam said that it would be much more practical for the township to join a larger governmental unit in order to make a better tax picture rather than to join with a community 17 times smaller than our own.

Allen proposed that an outside, unbiased group be hired to come in and help us decide on answers to questions that have been asked about the advantages or disadvantages of one government for the area.

Nichols volunteered that any information to be garnered couldn't be harmful.

Carlson felt that we should study only the Northville area as Plymouth really doesn't want us, but she felt that we could handle the study locally, without outside help, as we know better than any others what our problems are.

Merriam maintained, however, that a group of experts, or an expert, could answer a lot of questions.

Stromberg recalled that before last November's election all the candidates were polled on this very question of unification and that many of them at that time had said they felt that it would be right, almost inevitable, in fact, to combine at some time in the future. He suggested that we appoint a local committee to start the study going and then call in the experts. He further urged that we use citizens of the community rather than elected officials, and that we should try to get the long range view. He wishes to have the study made only within our own two units of government.

According to Baldwin, the request from Plymouth seemed to indicate that they wish to annex Canton Township and the S.E. corner of Northville Township. He feels that Northville might well become another urban center, such as Plymouth appears to want to be. He asked that the cost of a professional study committee be investigated.

Mr. Allen reiterated his conviction that we need an outside committee, to be chosen by a joint local group.

Baldwin said that we have to settle first what we will become in our own area, before we tie ourselves to a larger community grouping, such as has been suggested by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

Armstrong proposed that at this point we appoint a five man study group to be composed of one person from the C.A.P., two persons from the township, and two from the City.

City Manager Ollendorff had a four point program, to wit: (1) give a definite answer to Plymouth by Thursday, May 25, 1967; (2) appoint Don Lawrence of C.A.P. to the study committee; (3) use citizens in any study that we do, and (4) appoint eight or ten people to this committee. Under point four he thought that four joint representatives of the city and township should appoint the citizens for the larger committee. Then the citizens committee itself could meet and decide what type of expert help was necessary.

Allen supported Armstrong's suggestion.

Northville Hosts Jehovah's Witnesses

Northville was host to some 1,200 Jehovah's Witnesses last weekend as Michigan Circuit No. 8 held a Bible educational forum at the high school.

Marvin L. Holien, district minister in charge of Witness activity in five states, was the principle speaker.

The convention theme, "Supply to Your Faith Endurance," was struck by Holien Friday when he said, "The present unsteady world has caused many serious thinking persons to weaken in faith, if not to lose faith entirely. Who can have faith in a God they declare to be dead? This claim has shaken many. One Bible writer said that faith is not the possession of all people and Jesus said that in the last days because of the increasing of lawlessness the love of many would cool off, and he added, 'But he that endures to the end will be saved.'"

"You folks," Holien continued, "have assembled here because you want to endure to that end. Our assembly, we hope, will add to your faith and increase endurance."

Carlton L. Cecil, circuit minister, was program director and arranged for speakers from Addison, Adrian, Ann Arbor, Dundee, Monroe, Ypsilanti and Bryan, Ohio.

Particular emphasis was given to parents aiding their children and Saturday's program featured demonstrations by children illustrating the value of parental discipline and Bible training.

The feature of the meet was the showing of a color film, God Cannot Lie, which presented evidence that the Bible is true and is a reliable guide in these modern times.

Mr. Holien concluded the meet by saying, "Every normal human wants to live. If our heavenly father holds out the hope of everlasting life, shouldn't we do our utmost to serve him with just that in view? Many have lost sight of that view due to the cares of this life. Others have gone with the world's moral standards. These are not God's standards and will not give us life. If you are to endure, shun this world's apathy toward a spiritual life. Continue your personal study of the Bible," he concluded.

OPERATION CLEANUP - Boy Scout Troop 731 joined the Northville Jaycees Saturday in a day-long attack on debris clogging the Rouge river winding through Cass Benton Park. Next Saturday Troop 755 will complete the job. Co-sponsored by the Jaycee chapters of Northville and Plymouth, the project is self-explanatory. Scouts, their leader and Jaycees and other adults removed everything from doors, tires, and cans to a dead turkey and a refrigerator from the stream. Two Northville city trucks carried nearly a dozen loads to the dump.

Mrs. Judith O'Brien, sponsor of the Main Street elementary service girls, and Mike Janchick, sponsor of the Main Street safety patrol. Ceremonies took place last Thursday at the junior high school boys' gym.

CPCU Taps Rathert for V-P

Kenneth R. Rathert of Northville Insurance Agency, 160 East Main street, has been elected vice-president of the Greater Detroit Chapter of the Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters (CPCU).

Rathert, who lives at 450 Maplewood, assumed the office on June 1. He was elected at the chapter's annual meeting at the Northland Inn in May.

Other officers are: C. Graham Stilling, president; William N. McConnell, Jr., secretary; J. H. McCormick, treasurer; and Richard P. Sutkin, director.

Northville Council Minutes

gestion for a five man committee, and strongly urged its acceptance.

At this time the meeting recessed to enable each municipality to confer and elect representatives.

Baldwin and Stromberg were chosen to the study committee from the township and Black and Nichols from the city. The C.A.P. is to be asked to appoint the fifth member.

Baldwin moved that each Northville community officially notify the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce before Thursday, May 25, 1967, that our joint boards have rejected the idea of a five-community study.

In further business of the joint meeting, the subject of the annexation of the Moraine school property by the city was discussed. Merriam said that the township would be willing to give the property to the city as it now contributes no tax revenue to the township. However, he feels that the city and township should not have to pay a crossing guard. It is not done anywhere else, and the expense rightfully belongs to the school board.

Mayor Allen said that the city would not want the school property if it would be a burden to the city. The city council wishes to take it under further advisement.

Black mentioned that all schools in the school district do not necessarily have to become a part of the city. The matter was tabled for a later meeting. Meeting adjourned at 7:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Eleanor W. Hammond, acting
Secretary
Clerk of Northville Twp.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

In terms of value received per dollar invested there can be no greater bargain in all the world than the education provided American youngsters through the public school system.

If you doubt it, compare your annual school tax bill with what you spend on almost anything else — cigarettes, booze, hobbies, entertainment, food, clothing, lodging, automobiles, transportation or private school tuition.

Then ask yourself, how does the public school tax tab stack up against these other expenditures?

Taking the position of the severest critics and conceding nothing to the educational effort, it costs the average Northville taxpayer (in local property taxes) about 25 cents per classroom hour to get their kids out of the house and into the classroom. That's about half the going rate for baby-sitters.

(It's really 'cheaper-by-the-dozen'... just two cents per hour per child!)

Yet school taxes represent our biggest single local expenditure for public services and the bill comes in one grand total that must be paid in a lump sum. So they do not escape recognition like other nuisance taxes, such as sales, gasoline, cigarette, etc., do. And they put a dent in the family budget all at one time.

Because it is tax-supported, and because nearly everyone has been exposed to an education somewhere and is therefore something of an expert on the subject, the public school system has more than its share of armchair quarterbacks. Ask anyone... housewife, merchant, doctor, student, editor... and they'll give you their theories on how to run the school system and how and what to teach.

They've paid the price of admission, so that's their privilege.

But when all the clouds of conversation are cleared away, only a few hard facts remain to be encountered:

--one cannot honestly complain about the cost of education;

--the quality of education relates directly to what the taxpayer is willing to pay;

--prudent and skillful use of available funds is necessary to guarantee maximum value received per dollar spent;

--the success of any community school system depends to a large degree upon the quantity and caliber of citizens willing to devote time and talent to the board of education and its study committees.

This brings us to Monday and the election of school board members. A relatively small field of candidates exists despite high interest in school affairs.

There's no competition for the two-year post. But the lone candidate, Glenn Deibert, is one who has long shown interest and devoted time to the school system.

Six candidates seek two four-year seats on the board.

My first choice is R. T. Martin, incumbent.

He's really a newcomer to the board, having replaced Don Lawrence following his resignation in March.

Martin's educational philosophy is considerably more conservative than mine, or the average.

But that shouldn't interfere with his function on the board. He's a keen businessman who places importance on income and expenditures. He likes to keep them balanced. I believe he adds a "hard-headedness" that's again catching the fancy of a tax and cost-conscious public.

It's difficult to pick a second candidate. There are several who would undoubtedly perform well.

But my vote will go to Andrew Orphan.

He's stayed close to school matters, has served on numerous committees and as a "second-time-out" candidate demonstrates that he has determination.

Voters must also make an important choice in electing a Northville representative on the Schoolcraft college board of trustees.

There are three qualified candidates.

Two of them have especially strong credentials in school matters. They are Dr. Paul Hunt and Bill Secord.

I'll vote for Hunt because of his experience in community colleges (he's the dean of occupational studies at Washtenaw community college) and because of his statement which appears elsewhere in this edition.

It hits exactly the lone criticism that I hold for the record of Schoolcraft to date. And this is not as much a criticism of the college, perhaps, as it is our own school system.

At any rate, Dr. Hunt holds that greater use of the college can be made by students, while still in high school, who are not necessarily superior students academically, but who demonstrate certain technical talents that could be expanded at the college.

He suggests that there are "undeveloped relationships" between the community college and the high school. I agree. Some youngsters cannot be inspired by an education-keyed to academic requirements for college entrance.

When you go to the polls Monday, I urge you to vote for Martin, Orphan and Hunt.

Give me a light switch and I'll show you how to electrocute yourself in one easy lesson. Or hand me a click-twitch safety razor and I'll demonstrate a weapon even before lathering up.

And that's because if it has more than one cog, two parts or three screws it's far too complicated for these hands.

I'm what the mechanical smart-aleck refers to as a lilly-white. My wife calls it laziness. I call it greasophobia.

Take the ordinary foot-chomping power mower. Your's may be alright. But mine, well, mine is different. It has a built-in enmity that zeroes in on me like a toad zapping flies.

Twist the starter and it slaps back. Boost the gas and it dies, only to suddenly bark back to life as I reach blindly for its insides. Like all mowers it spits stones, but this one only in my direction. Push it uphill and the handle comes loose, forcing me to dance as the angry thing comes nipping back at my feet.

It's been in for repairs so many times, the repairman charges me rent. It probably hasn't an original part in its body. And yet it balks.

"Why don't you fix it yourself," my wife chided me last week, forgetting probably the last time she asked me to do something around the house. I'd performed an admirable job of enclosing the bottom part of the utility room sink. She was pleased until her pails and scrub brush turned up missing. I'd permanently enclosed them.

Obviously, she'd forgotten too a recent repair job on the garbage disposal. I unclogged it rather quickly, but burst a pipe and forced all the sludge up onto the recreation room floor in the process.

Anyway, I took up the challenge last week and, after gingerly testing the mower until I was certain it wouldn't suddenly start hacking weeds and bones, the operation was begun.

Piece by piece parts were removed. Don't ask me why. I just figured that if I took everything apart and then put it back together again the monster might be fooled into starting. Since I'm not an expert on mower parts, I can't properly

Esch...

The first big battle of the 90th Congress is over and now that the dust has settled we can get a good perspective on exactly what happened. While the Elementary and Secondary Education Act passed the House, it did so only after extensive alteration to this federal program for aid to local schools.

On opposite sides were the administration forces who favored the present Washington-controlled approach and those of us who favored more state and local involvement. At 2 a.m. when the House finished three days of debate on the bill, it was clear that neither side could claim a total victory. Defeated was the so-called Quile Amendment which would have brought about state involvement in the total program. At the same time, the House also rebuked efforts to keep the program completely intact.

What emerged was a compromise which places two key titles of the bill under a state plan system with block grants of funds and cuts back the power of the Office of Education.

IT'S THAT GLORIOUS TIME OF THE YEAR, AGAIN!

By ROLLY PETERSON

At last, a western to beat all westerns.

There's more bloody, unmitigated action in one scene of "A Few Dollars More" than in the collective western past of Hollywood. All that has gone before — Tom Mix, Giant, High Noon, — are doves in comparison, the difference between reading Mickey Mouse, and playing with a coral snake that delivers quick death.

Gun play is rampant, bodies fall like felled trees and a new claimant to the title, Fastest Gun in the West, has been found. He's Clint Eastwood, formerly of "Rawhide", who has taken on a completely new demeanor.

No longer is he the straight-shooting cattle drover, championing justice. As the star of "Dollar", he's meaner than a viper and twice as quick with a gun. Enter three scummy villains as Eastwood, the bounty hunter, raps his prey against a bar. "Unhand Red," they demand. In one lightning-quick motion, Eastwood whirls and fires. Three men drop dead.

Absurd? Of course, as are all westerns. And herein lies the magnetic appeal of "Dollars." While other movies, in pursuit of realism, put the breaks on our hero, "Dollars" knows no such limits. In short, the wraps are off Eastwood. Giddyup is the cry, and once this movie has begun, there's no stopping the maverick.

One law prevails in this movie: kill or be killed. Good is relative. While Eastwood is no paragon of virtue, he has no moral peer. The man who shoots the killer of women and children is our hero. Eastwood's motives are forgotten.

His are mercenary. Coolly he chews a cigarette and methodically tracks the killer with a price on his head. One, two, three gunmen are no obstacle. He puts them away with equal, devastating dispatch to boot hill.

Unbelievably, Eastwood meets his equal in another bounty hunter, Colonel Douglas Mortimer, a tall, lean killer. He is an older Eastman of 50, minus the reckless abandon of youth, and has perfected the techniques of professional killing. Together, they form a deadly duo.

Matching wits with them is El Indio, the mad Mexican. He has no peer among desperadoes, including Billy the Kid and Geronimo. A misanthrope, El Indio kills men for the joy of it, and women and children too. Only his men, a noxious, bedraggled group, match him for vicious cruelty. Like vultures, they spill for blood.

The man responsible for assembling this marvelous cast of wayward character is Sergio Leone. His talents are as diffuse as a resplendent rainbow, for he is also the scenarist and director.

His vision is a unique amalgam of fantasy and realism, leading to an incredible but believable movie. His characters are giants, all memorable. But they seem real, with their scruffy beards and swarthy faces reflecting a life of frontier hardship.

Ironically, this American western was filmed in Spain, produced through an Italian studio and stocked with actors from various countries. Spain's desiccated mountains defy the imagination, thrusting up above the western towns.

Towns jump with people. In an El Paso hotel, a sleazy, gaudy structure, worn with years, a woman, with lipstick slung from ear to ear, smiles leeringly at the male customers. A heavy air of gloom hangs over the packed, rowdy saloon, like Los Angeles smog, thick and cloying. It's all memorable, a perfect background for an explosive film.

That section of the Act which aids supplementary education activities and innovative projects will now be planned and carried out by the states with the Federal government providing the funds. The provision for statewide educational planning will now be entirely state administered also. The final version, which I supported, will not disrupt current aid to parochial schools.

While other titles remain firmly in the grip of Washington authorities, the compromise indicates an encouraging trend in the House toward a recognition that state and local governments have a role to play in solving their problems and planning their futures. Recognizing that there are weaknesses in state and local agencies, the bill as amended also sets out to strengthen these units.

The most important issue which the House faced early that morning was much more than federal assistance for elementary and secondary education. It was a question of whether we should continue centralization and grantmanship or whether we should develop a new, innovative structure involving the expertise and leadership of local and state communities. The House made the first step toward the latter — a step which may lead to broad, across-the-board federal revenue sharing with the states.

The Department of Commerce's Environmental Science Services administration has asked that we pass on to you information about what to do if a tornado threatens. When you receive a tornado warning, seek inside shelter, preferably in a steel-framed or reinforced concrete building. Stay away from windows. In an office building or school, stand in an interior hallway on a lower floor or basement. If at home, go to your basement; if you have no basement, seek shelter under heavy furniture in the center of the house. Do not stay in house trailers, and avoid auditoriums, gymnasiums, and other structures with wide, free-span roofs.

The American Mutual Insurance Alliance reminds us that those intending to visit EXPO '67 should request their auto liability insurer to provide them with a yellow Non-Resident Inter-Province Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance card. This card will provide proof of compliance with the Canadian financial responsibility laws and help to avoid undue delay should you have the misfortune to be involved in an accident. Most Canadian provinces require that vehicles be insured in the amount of $35,000 to cover public liability and property damage.

Superintendent Says
Thanks to 3 Teachers

To the Editor:

A nostalgic time of year! While much of the community's attention is focused on graduating seniors from our school, there are three people leaving the educational ranks who in many ways have contributed mightily to the learning of these more than two-hundred teenage graduates. They are Mrs. Leslie Lee, Miss Margaret Giltner, and Mrs. Claude Waterman.

These three employees, of course, are the District's retiring personnel... three teachers who have devoted a good portion of their lives to helping today's youth take their places as responsible, productive members of this community and society.

It is impossible to summarize in these brief paragraphs the many and varied accomplishments of these really fine people who have in many ways, helped build this community from an isolated community to one of the metropolitan centers with an unlimited future. Even the merest "thank you" seems to be out of place for a group which has devoted more than ninety-one years, most of them to the younger generation of this country.

In this day and age of discussions over increased teacher salaries and more benefits for our instructors, it is well to reflect that every penny of public tax funds spent to reimburse these people for their time and talents has returned benefits to the citizenry of Michigan ten-fold, or even one-hundred fold when one merely pauses to consider the many untold sacrifices would be a temporary program to meet the immediate needs of the state. The other would be a permanent program which would be referred to the people of Michigan for a final decision on whether or not an income tax should be part of a tax program.

The programs previously introduced by Republicans, include a 2 1/2% personal income tax, a 5% corporate tax, and a 7% tax on financial institutions. The plan would also call for repeal of the Business Activity Tax, substantial property tax relief more equitable to all property owners, and an increase in exemptions from the intangibles tax.

The program includes a 3 cent hike in the price of a package of cigarettes and would provide for return of a portion of the income tax to counties and cities, villages and townships.

If passed by the House, the temporary tax plan could not be operational until October. Without immediate effect the bill would not take effect until October 20 under the present adjournment schedule. The loss of those 20 days would cost the state about 16 million dollars in lost revenues.

A number of controversial bills, already approved by one House of the Legislature, were buried in committee and failed to reach the floor of the other House. All such bills will be carried over to next year without loss of status and may yet come up for final passage.

Among the more significant measures held in committee were bills dealing with Sunday Liquor, uniform holidays, driver license seizure and discrimination in housing and hospital service.

Smart...

The new fiscal reform program was expected to reach the House floor for debate sometime during the last week of May or the first week of June.

Expected to get close scrutiny in the House is an amendment tacked onto the income tax bill that prohibits the inclusion of an appropriation measure in the bill, and spells out the public's right to petition for a referendum on the tax issue. The state constitution prohibits referendums on appropriation measures, which the income tax bill would become if a spending rider were attached.

The fiscal reform program, as passed by the Senate, would expire December 31, 1969. It is estimated that the program, in its present form, would provide the state $239 million in net new revenue, with about 70 percent to come from individuals and 30 percent from business.

Tax increase or tax reform, whatever you choose to call it, is a priority matter in the legislature and rightfully so. State expenditures are presently exceeding revenues by 12 million dollars per month. This situation will lead eventually to unmanageable state deficits. The legislature has a choice — either reduce state expenditures to conform to income or provide a tax structure which will support the budget level.

these retiring personnel have made in the name of education. These people dramatically underline the contention that education after all, is an investment in people and not in a commodity.

As a newcomer to the area, I have, nevertheless, known these educators personally as highly capable and qualified people and would, on behalf of the District, just like to add my word of appreciation for a "job well done".

Teen Tribute

Mr. Editor:

Much is written and possibly much more is spoken deriding the "younger" generation today. One needs only to listen to some of the "exploits" and devilry performed by our "older" generation when they were in high school to bring matters into proper perspective.

A fine well behaved, and representative portion of the '67 Northville High Senior class recently attended Expo '67 in Montreal, and they were a tribute to our school and city.

For one who had a fun time, I hope I can speak for all the chaperones in saying it was nice to be with the group.

Thanks Kids,

Mrs. G. W. Allen

State's Lawless Drivers Cost 'You' Money

LANSING — Michigan motorists will be hit again this year, physically in the pocketbook, or both, because it seems impossible to get lawless drivers off the highways.

A study recently completed by Michigan Insurance Information Service shows that 65% of those involved in accidents had poor driving records. This compliments studies already done by American Automobile Assn. Both organizations feel that basic re-evaluations of Michigan's point system must be forthcoming or people will continue to pay the price in lives, injuries, property and insurance premiums.

Roger Babson

EXAMINATION of 1,000 drivers' records, showing fault in accidents, disclosed:

37.8% had been subject to driver improvement action. Most of them repeatedly, yet were still driving and causing accidents.

26.8% had serious records, but fewer points than required for corrective action.

20% had minor records, and 15.4% had no records at all.

Also discovered were 162 drivers whose records were not available because they were driving without licenses.

es. Another 29 cases showed no police report of the accident.

AAA studies show similar findings. An analysis of 20% of Michigan's 2,290 traffic deaths in 1966 spotlighted two chronic highway offenders: the drinking driver and the repeating violator.

DRUNK DRIVERS are involved in 44% of fatal accidents. Any driver with more than 12 points in any two-year period runs the risk of a fatal accident eight times that of the average driver.

Flagrant violation of highway laws and ensuing accidents have caused annual death rates to climb by 900 per year since 1959. Accidents increased from 178,000 to more than 300,000. Personal injuries jumped from 58,000 to 155,000. Claims paid by insurance companies have gone from $117 million to more than $220 million.

This increase in cost is reflected in amount of premiums paid by policyholders, almost double that of 1959.

Secretary of State James Hare points out that the present point system works in about 95% of the cases. But the remaining 100,000 to 200,000 drivers seem impossible to rehabilitate, Hare maintains.

He notes that these offenders go unpunished primarily because law enforcement agencies are "understaffed and undermanned," causing a "lower priority on these kinds of violations."

Hare feels that improvements in the point system have been made through the years, but that more are needed.

Any major changes, such as re-examinations at the nine point level, would be extremely expensive and add further burden to law enforcement personnel, he says.

Hare feels a "tightening up" of the present system seems to be in order. Much depends on new legislation. But he reports that some of the bills introduced this year under the direction of his department "are either dead or stymied by lack of appropriations."

TRAFFIC SAFETY studies all point to the same general recommendations:

Earlier and stronger steps must be taken to get the irresponsible motorist off the highways and keep him off. Operating a vehicle without a valid license must carry stiffer penalties.

Drunk drivers, especially repeaters, should lose their licenses with no provision for restricted driving.

Law enforcement agencies must have additional men to adequately police highways and arrest those who disregard traffic tickets.

Additional legislation must be passed to eliminate loopholes in the present point system.

Courts must be as concerned about the future safety of other motorists as they are about the man pleading his case at the moment.

PEOPLE must be made aware of the growing need before any real improvements are made in highway safety. They must demand action and they must be willing to pay the price.

Enforcing meaningful legislation is costly. Increasing the Michigan State Police force by 400 by 1970 (recommended by AAA) carries a price tag of $5 million per year. City police and county sheriffs also need more manpower. These measures are also expensive.

Michigan people will pay either in a better legal system or in lives, injuries and dollars.

Unless the rising toll of highway accidents is turned, Michigan may soon record the highest traffic fatality count of any state.

Wages Up, Sparking Dollar Flow

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Although the dollar volume of total retail trade has been disappointing so far this year, consumer buying power is actually being supported by a record flow of wages and salaries, dividends and interest, pensions, annuities, and government payments.

Wage and salary income has been heading steadily upward since the beginning of World War II, and decidedly so during the past 10 years. Even now — although total number of hours worked has slipped from earlier high-hourly earnings are still advancing.

In the first four months this year, a gain of $6.8 billion in wages and salaries has brought this segment of personal income to an annual rate of $414.3 billion. Additional wage and salary hikes lie ahead, but over the immediate future the rate of upturn will likely be on a scale down from the sharp advances of the past couple of years.

DIVIDENDS and interest now constitute a sizable — and constantly growing — portion of total personal income. For the most part, funds received from these sources are used to supplement salary and wages and/or pension income to provide for the necessities of life. However, in a growing number of instances, dividend and interest payments are being spent, or invested, or even saved . . . at the discretion of recipients.

Pensions, annuities, and government payments (including social security) now permit many millions of Americans more freedom in their buying decisions. More important, income from these particular sources provides the aging with greater economic security than ever before. During the coming decade, pension and similar payments should increase faster than in the past 10 years.

AS RECENTLY as 7 years ago, only one-third of all American households had income on an annual basis in excess of $7,000. By 1971, 60% of all American families are expected to have reached this income-adequacy level. Hopefully, by 1976 — the 200th year of our Independence — 80% of our families will be enjoying income above $7,000 per year.

Such a sharp boost in family income should go a long way toward expanding markets for consumer goods and services. It should also mean that in the years ahead families will spend less and less of their total incomes for food, clothing, and shelter. Of course, expenditures for the necessities of life will still be increasing, but they will not be rising as fast as will TOTAL spending for consumer goods and services.

AS INCOMES rise to new highs, more and more American families will have more money to spend as they choose. A decade from now, today's upper- and middle-income market will be a mass market, for the up-trend in discretionary income promises to resist stubbornly any interruptions caused by cyclical and other forces.

However, the full enjoyment of our rising incomes may be blighted by heavier tax burdens at all levels as well as by a further whittling away of the value of our dollars through inflation, — unless we can persuade government officials to curb public spending that is superfluous or that could be deferred. If we want to increase our standard of living — or even to keep it from shrinking, we must rid ourselves of the idea that the only way to solve public problems is by government action via spending more and more taxpayers' dollars. If we continue to hand over our responsibilities as a society to government, even our steadily expanding incomes won't assure us a better life.

Dedication

Continued the dedication service by the women of the mission.

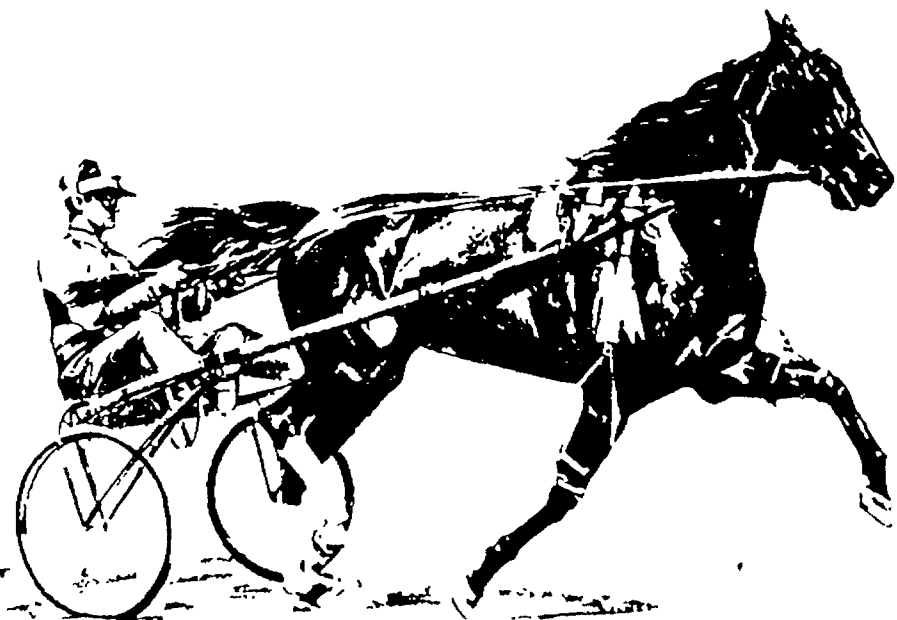

Dedication was made to St. Thomas the Apostle, patron saint of builders, the Rev. Father John J. Fricker, vicar of Holy Cross, explained, "In grateful thanks-giving to Mr. Virgil Cornwell, builder of Farmington, who made this first unit of Holy Cross through his generous gift and talent."

Cornwell was presented a copy of the dedication plaque following the service.

Money may not go as far as it used to, but it goes, just the same.

The self-made man should be careful to include all the working parts.

ROTARY ASSEMBLY—Officers-elect from throughout Rotary District No. 640 turned out Saturday at Northville high school as the Northville Rotary club hosted the annual district assembly aimed at preparing the new Rotary leaders for the forthcoming year of service.

The assembly has special significance for the local club since one of its own members Russell Amerman, is the governor-elect of the 640 District. The program included registration, plenary session, discussion forum, luncheon, and officer's instruction classes.

Shown here speaking during the discussion forum in the auditorium is Perry W. Richwine, past district governor, as four others on the platform listen. They are (l to r) Stanley Wojcik, Rev. S. D. Kinde, District Governor Steven Boyan, and Amerman.

2 Get Life For Shooting Cliff Hill

Marking a new era of sentencing for the Detroit Recorder's Court, two convicted assailants of Northville attorney Clifton Hill were handed life imprisonment sentences last week Wednesday.

Sentenced to jail for life by Judge Vincent Brennan were William and Lamond Grayson of Detroit. They were found guilty on both counts of armed robbery and assault with intent to murder following a jury trial on May 17.

In sentencing the two young men, Judge Brennan indicated it marked the beginning of stiffer sentences in Recorder's Court. The life-sentence is a rarity, officials noted after searching unsuccessfully for a past sentence of this kind.

The guilty verdict followed a three-day trial in which Hill identified his assailants a total of 28 times.

Hill miraculously escaped death when a bullet fired from the gun of one of the hold-up men passed completely through his neck.

He was confronted by the two men at an abandoned service station parking lot on Grand River near Olympia Stadium where he had been attending the Ice Capades show with his family and friends.

His assailants took his watch, checkbook and wallet containing more than $120. One of the gunmen then shot Hill and the pair fled.

With the Servicemen

Ft. Knox, Kentucky — Army Private Charles T. Weiss is assigned to Company D, 15th Battalion, 4th Brigade, here in the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA).

He will spend the next two months learning the fundamental skills of the soldier in today's modern, action Army — firing live ammunition under simulated combat situations, learning protective measures and first-aid for chemical, biological and radiological attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms.

Interspersed with constant emphasis on proper physical conditioning, diet, rest and health habits, will be ample opportunity to utilize USATCA's many and varied recreational and religious facilities.

Following completion of his basic training, Pvt. Weiss, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Weiss, of 925 Grace, Northville, will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify him in a specialized military skill.

DI AN, VIETNAM (AHTNC) — Army Private First Class Dennis A. Pierce, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen A. Pierce, 43931 - 12-1/2 Mile, was assigned to the 1st Infantry Division, near Di An, Vietnam, May 13.

Pierce, a rifleman in Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion of the division's 16th Infantry, entered the Army in November 1966.
