IF IT'S NEWS...AND IT HAPPENS IN NORTHVILLE...YOU CAN READ IT IN THE RECORD

Vol. 98, No. 5, 18 Pages, Two Sections • Northville, Michigan—Thursday, June 15, 1967 • 10¢ Per Copy, $4 Per Year In Advance

It was 'farewell to Northville High' for 202 graduating seniors Monday night. But 68 percent of them will soon return to the classroom in two or four-year colleges.

The solemnity of commencement quickly switched to gaiety as the seniors celebrated at an all-night community building party.

Martin, Orphan, Secord Elected to School Posts

Poll Turnout Under 18%

What a difference a year makes.

Three candidates who didn't quite make it in last year's board of education election came back strongly Monday to claim victories at the polls.

Richard Martin and Andrew Orphan had easy sailing in copping the two four-year seats in a race against four other candidates.

B. William Secord found the competition stiffer but was the winner of a six-year seat on the Schoolcraft college board of trustees. Only 13 votes separated Secord and runner-up Paul Hunt. The vote was 305 to 292.

Glenn Deibert, seeking election for the first time and opposed for the single two-year school board post, led all candidates by piling up 589 of the 749 total votes cast.

And George Martin upset Incumbent Leroy Bennett in the at-large race for a six-year Schoolcraft post. He won locally 276-230 and in all four other school districts. The unofficial total vote was 3,607 to 2,960.

Less than 18-percent of the estimated 4,200 registered electors in the Northville school district turned out to vote. Last year—with three millage propositions on the ballot and 12 candidates seeking school board seats a record 1,629 votes were cast.

Top vote-getter in the race for a four-year Northville school board term with 588 votes was Martin, who last year tied Board Secretary Stanley Johnston only to have it washed out in a tie-breaking draw from a hat. Later, however, he was appointed to the board to fill the vacated seat of Donald Lawrence, who resigned.

Orphan, running a strong second with 495 votes, was elected to the other four-year term. The next closest candidate for a school board post was Charles Toussaint who polled 126 votes.

Deibert, Martin and Orphan will join Treasurer Eugene Cook, Robert Froelich, James Kipfer and Johnston on the board. Only Kipfer and Cook have served for more than one year.

Leaving the board after serving seven years is President Wilfred Becker. Richard Lyon, who was elected last June along with Johnston and Froelich, also is leaving office. Neither Becker nor Lyon was a candidate for reelection.

Secord takes over Northville's seat on the Schoolcraft board of trustees from Dr. Gordon Forrer, who has served for four years.

Terrill Services Friday Morning

Roy M. Terrill, a life-long Northville resident and former township treasurer for 21 years, died late Monday evening at the Whitehall Convalescent Home in Novi. He was 81 and had been in ill health for four months. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at the Casterline Funeral Home.

Mr. Terrill resided at 50900 Six Mile road near Napier road, where four generations of Terrills have lived. He is survived by his wife, Mary, and daughter, Mrs. Beverly Strasen. A well-known business and political figure in the Northville area for nearly half-a-century, Mr. Terrill was appointed township treasurer in July, 1941. Previously, he had been a member of the township board of review.

He retired as treasurer in 1962, turning over his post on November 1 to the present treasurer, Alex Lawrence.

Mr. Terrill married Mary Kohler on July 17, 1905. From 1905 until 1923 Mr. Terrill farmed. Then he accepted a job as milk inspector for the Detroit Board of Health, a position he held until 1940. In 1932 Mr. Terrill started converting his farm to a fruit orchard and later became an active commercial fruit farmer until leasing his apple and peach orchards to Ralph Foreman in 1957.

Mr. Terrill served as a director of the old Lapham State Bank from 1918 until the formation of Depositors State Bank in Northville in 1934. He remained as director of the latter bank until 1957 when it was merged with Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. He was a member of the Northville Advisory Board for Manufacturers National Bank until the board was dissolved recently.

He was also a member of Masonic Lodge No. 186 and Northville Rotary Club.

Surviving besides his wife and daughter are a granddaughter, Mrs. Sandra Jordan of Key Biscayne, Florida, and two great granddaughters.

The Reverend S. D. Kinde, pastor of the First Methodist church, will officiate at the services. Masonic graveside services will be held prior to burial at Thayer cemetery, Northville township.

Township Grants 'Second Look' At Rezoning Bid

It was a split vote, but Jerry Helmer won a delay from the Northville township board last week in what otherwise was almost certain to be a rejection of his request for office-service zoning of a lot at the northwest corner of Five Mile and Bradner roads.

Helmer recently purchased the R-4 (residential) zoned 100 x 525-foot parcel with the idea of constructing a professional clinic on the site.

But an April public hearing brought a barrage of protests from neighborhood residents and subsequently the bid (on May 23) was denied by the planning commission on the basis that it would constitute "spot zoning". The planners' recommendation on the request came before the township board for final action last week.

Helmer was there to appeal for reconsideration.

He said he was surprised by the objections. He told the board that he was now better prepared to present his case and asked that the matter be returned to the planners for another hearing.

Helmer pointed out that the land had been owned by an individual for 23 years without sale success for residential use. He said the site was not suitable for residential use.

Treasurer Alex Lawrence said he would like to take a look at the site. "I'm not familiar with it", he stated. But Trustee James Tellam moved for rejection of the proposed rezoning, as recommended by the planning commission. Tellam was joined by Trustee Bernard Baldwin in voting for the motion, but Lawrence, Clerk Eleanor Hammond and Trustees Thomas Armstrong and Gunnar Stromberg voted against rejection and in favor of "taking a closer look". The board did not send the request back to the planners. Instead, the board will reconsider the request at its July meeting.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam announced that negotiations had been completed with the county in purchasing another CFS (cubic foot per second) capacity in the Middle Rouge Interceptor sewer system. The additional capacity brings the township up to approximately 1,700 taps, or a total of 2.6 CFS. Less than 300 taps are now being used, but nearly 1,000 more have already been pledged by planned development, Merriam noted. The 1 CFS cost $78,000.

In other business at the June 4 meeting the board approved purchase of a Chevrolet station wagon for use by the dog warden at a low-bid price of $2,177.

A vacant commercial building at Seven Mile and Northville roads came under criticism of the board. It was decided to notify the owner that it no longer conforms with zoning regulations and that it is in violation of building codes.

While a preliminary plat of a proposed Greenspan North Colony Estates 102-home subdivision on Bradner was approved by the board, approval of final plat plans was withheld from Thompson-Brown's adjoining subdivision until certain details, now underway, are completed.

A low bid of $36,076.50 was awarded to the Bohn Company to install a water line to serve the new Smoker King's Mill apartment project on Northville road. The developers deposited the sum for installation with the township.

No Decision Yet On Randolph Suit

All testimony has been presented in the city versus Randolph street residents assessment case.

A decision is expected soon from Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph B. Moynihan, Jr., who heard the testimony.

The Randolph residents involved in the protest against the 25 per cent assessment claim the paving and storm sewer installation did not constitute an improvement and that the cost should be entirely paid from general fund tax monies.

Training Instead of Treatment

Maybury Faces New Challenge

Abandoned for four years, neglected and victimized by vandals, a 500-foot long building complex is beginning to breathe again at William H. Maybury Sanatorium.

Pumping new life into the facility that once housed children with tuberculosis is a crew of 13 young, unskilled men, who will become the core of a locally controversial job-training program sponsored by the city of Detroit.

Maybury Sanatorium is owned by Detroit. It is located on the north side of Seven Mile, west of Beck road in Northville township. Only a portion of the many buildings on the nearly 1,000-acre site is used for care of tubercular patients today.

The abandoned building that once housed children and later served as a rehabilitation unit was chosen for Mayor Jerome Cavanagh's proposed new program for training underprivileged and unemployable youths.

A section of the self-contained building is to have been ready for occupancy today. Actual use of the facility, however, probably will not occur until late this month or early next.

Eventually, the program reportedly will include:

---Prevocational training or basic education of up to 100 volunteer teenage boys who will live in the facility.

---Training and retraining of up to 200 teenage boys in various skills. They will commute daily by bus.

--- Summer recreation and crafts for hundreds of young Detroit boys and girls on a day-camp basis. They also will commute daily.

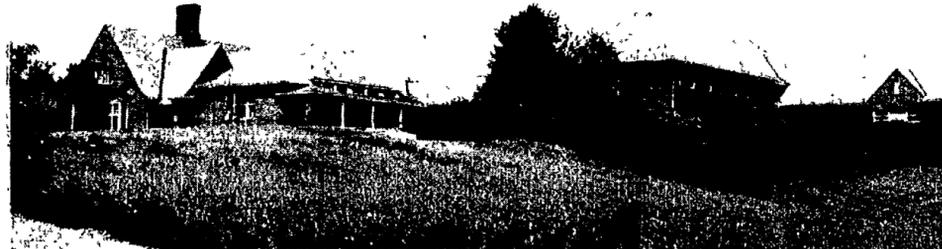

--- Retreat for occasional seminars conducted by staff members of various Detroit poverty programs.

The bulk of these programs await the outcome of Detroit applications for federal aid, but one or two of them are expected to start this summer — with or without federal monies. Those to start first probably will include day-camp activities, similar to those already underway in Detroit and prevocational training of the 13 Detroit teenagers who for the past three weeks have been repairing the facility. These 13 and the supervisory staff will be the first to live in the building.

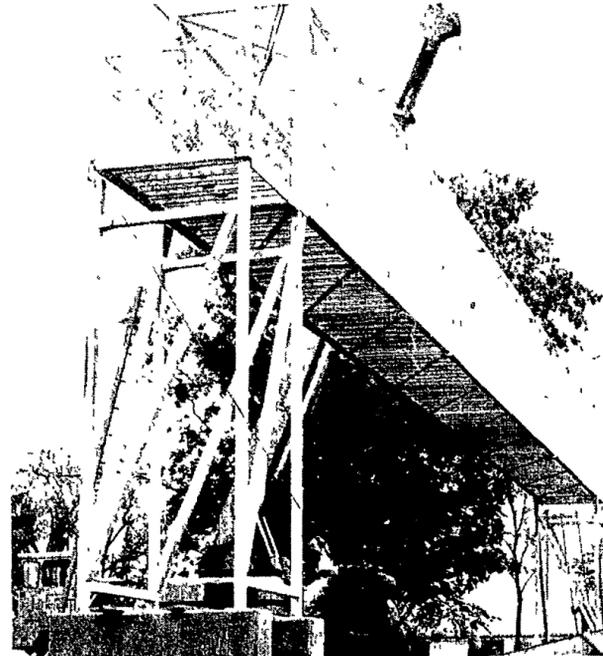

The facility is to be called the Maybury Human Resources Development Center. Its administrator is Burton Bradley.

Northville Girl To Tour Europe

Thirty-three college students, including one from Northville, will leave Tuesday, June 13, for the two-month Albion College European Summer study-Travel program.

The group, under the direction of Dr. Coy H. James, history department chairman and director of the summer program, will stop at London first.

Participating from Northville will be Emily R. Canterbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Canterbury, 204 Randolph.

"Traveling by air and bus, the group will visit Berlin, Budapest, Vienna, Istanbul, and Athens. From Athens, it will go to a small city in southern Greece for a two-day rest," said Dr. James.

"From there, the tour will fly to Rome, then to Florence by either plane or bus," he said. The first phase of the tour will end in Geneva when the students leave for Neuchatel, Switzerland, and the University of Neuchatel for a month of studies.

"The travelers will see many points of interest in their tours of the cities," said Dr. James. In each city, the day will begin with a guided tour of the city and group tours of museums and monuments.

Afternoons will be free so students may tour places not seen on the group tours and gain the feeling of the foreign city.

"During their month of studies, students will study under European professors teaching in English. Courses will include philosophy, political science, French drama, and French," said Dr. James.

At the end of the study session, the group will re-assemble in Geneva for trips to Lisbon and Madrid before returning home August 17. Dr. James described this as "post-seminar" session, saying students will be free to tour the cities on their own. They may include side-trips to other points of interest.

"Some students may have time after their studies to spend four or five days in Paris, Stockholm, or Munich," Dr. James added.

ORCHID ENTHUSIASTS Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown display choice blooms from their greenhouse as part of the illustrated talk given Monday for the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden association. He is president of the Michigan Orchid society of 150 members which meets monthly in Detroit. Also a member is Mrs. Clyde Whittlesey, who introduced him.

ORCHIDS - Both verbal and botanical - were presented to three happily surprised members of the Northville branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, at the club's June dessert meeting Monday afternoon at Northville Presbyterian church.

The orchid plants were the gift of Thomas Brown, president of the Michigan Orchid society, who shared his orchid-growing hobby with members and guests and displayed examples of specimen blooms.

In presenting one of the gift orchid plants to Mrs. William Walker, Club President Mrs. William Slattery cited her long service to the club, including serving as a national garden club council representative. She added that Mrs. Walker will be hostess at her East Eight Mile road home for the club picnic and splash party July 10. (By then the plant should be thriving in Mrs. Walker's own greenhouse where she also has grown the "queen of flowers.")

During the meeting it was announced that Mrs. Slattery also will be serving the Farm and Garden association in an upper echelon capacity: She was elected state corresponding secretary at the 41st annual state meeting in Lansing, becoming the first member of the Northville club to serve as a state officer. As secretary she will be a trustee of the Farm and Garden Foundation.

The First Awards went to the Northville branch at the state meeting as the ways and means luncheon last fall under chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Ward won the best special projects ways-and-means award and the branch civic improvement program also was best-of-class. The club newsletter also received a citation.

SECOND ORCHID gift recipient was Mrs. L. M. Eaton, who, Mrs. Slattery explained in the verbal part of the bouquet, "diligently headed the award-winning civic-improvement program" which includes city hall beautification.

As tea hostess chairman for Monday's meeting, Mrs. Eaton with her committee created the novel flower-pot ice cream dessert in brown plastic cups. Postes bloomed from straws inserted in the ice-cream and cake filling.

NEWEST GARDEN club member, Mrs. Herman Bedner, received the tiny orchid plant that the speaker explained was an old English favorite to be grown on a windowsill.

Mrs. H. J. Frogner, membership chairman, introduced Mrs. Bedner at the meeting. She is the club's sixth new member in 1967. Others are Mrs. William Crump, Mrs. Paul Robinson, Mrs. Chris Kontos, Mrs. Charles Haynes and Mrs. Donald Keith Wright.

Mrs. Clyde Whittlesey, who introduced the speaker and his wife, had entertained them earlier at her home where they inspected her greenhouse.

Mr. Brown explained that he is considered an amateur grower as he has never sold a bloom although he has between 1,000 and 1,500 plants in two greenhouses. Many growers, he said, do sell to florists who like to get fresh blooms in order to pay for their hobby. The fascination of orchids - spider, pansy, vanda or cymbidium - he said, is that their blooming season is from September to May when outdoor Michigan is bleak.

His tip for anyone who might like to try a windowsill orchid: Don't water them - or any other houseplant - with softened water.

FLOWERS INTERNATIONAL, the garden show of flowers and vegetables to be sponsored by the garden club

September 16 in the junior high boys gymnasium building (community building), also is to include a special folk craft demonstration.

Mrs. Denis Schwarz, show chairman, announced there will be a special section of entries for children. Despite Monday's soaring temperatures, she looked cool and very "now-fashionable" in a brief white pique dress with a low black patent belt.

Folk craft project chairman Mrs. John Begle, in a blue print, explained that crewel work, weaving and perhaps quilting will be demonstrated. Mrs. C. E. Ratliff will be chairman of entries.

Mrs. William Slattery

Also presenting a cool, fashionable appearance was publicity chairman, Mrs. Orson Atchinson, whose friends called her sleeveless shift of orange, yellow and pink flowers "psychedelic."

A full-tuition college scholarship given by the Northville branch of the garden club has been renewed for another year for Olivia Jo Hildebrandt, Mrs. John Burkman, scholarship chairman, announced. Jo, she added, will be spending the summer in Germany as an exchange student.

THIS WEEKEND the Roger Soucy family will be leaving for Africa. Last Wednesday Mrs. Soucy was entertained at a luncheon given by Mrs. E. O. Weber. Guests were friends who have been in Girl Scouting with Mrs. Soucy. Mr. and Mrs. Soucy were honored last Saturday evening at a surprise bon voyage party given by the William F. Schliefs.

SARAH ANN COCHRANE chapter, DAR, will hold a potluck picnic next Monday, June 19, gathering at noon at the home of Mrs. Earl Mastick, of Stone Rowe, Lone Tree road, Milford.

ORIENT CHAPTER, Past Matrons Club, will meet for lunch at 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 21, at the Thunderbird Inn. Reservations are to be made before Monday with Mrs. C. N. Ely or Mrs. H. A. Boyden, arrangements chairmen.

BASELINE QUESTERS society members, 15 strong, antiqued in the Jackson area as they visited the Ella Sharp museum and lunched in that city Tuesday. Also on the tour which concludes the club year was a visit to Waterloo Farm Museum, a restoration house at Munith.

There, Mrs. William Crump, tour chairman reports they were to be met by guides in farm costumes of calico and dust mop caps.

Mrs. J. E. Straus Retires June 23

A Novi woman will end 34 years in the teaching field on June 23 when she retires from William H. Maybury Sanatorium.

One of two teachers in the children's building at Maybury, Mrs. J. E. Straus of 23893 Beck road, began teaching special education at Maybury 14 years ago. She teaches grades three through seven.

But even before starting teaching at Maybury Mrs. Straus had served as the eighth grade homeroom teacher at Detroit's Bagley elementary school for 20 years.

Concert Series To Feature Haydn

Music by Haydn and Paul Hindemith will predominate in programs of the four court concerts planned this summer for the Schoolcraft College Summer Music Festival, according to Wayne Dunlap, Festival director.

In announcing the programs for the concert series, Dunlap explained: "The court concerts have been planned to complement our summer music school, which has as its focal point the idioms and techniques of chamber music, with particular emphasis on contemporary music."

"Haydn's music, now coming more and more to the front, is much in the classic mode and is surprisingly contemporary in style. Hindemith, though he is no longer alive, is, of course, considered a contemporary composer. Like Haydn, he wrote much of his music for small groups and in the classic tradition."

Programmed for the four concerts are seven works by Haydn and four by Hindemith. In addition, works by Handel, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Telemann and Addison will be performed.

The first of the four concerts is scheduled for Wednesday evening, July 5, when Pianist William Doppmann will be soloist. On successive Wednesday nights, Mezzo-soprano Leslie Eitzen will appear with the orchestra on July 12; the Kenneth Jewel Chorale will be featured on July 19, and Violist Paul Doktor will perform on July 26.

All concerts will start at 8:30 p.m., in the court amphitheater being constructed on the campus. Tickets for individual performances are $1.50 and will be sold at the door. Advance reservations will not be taken, Dunlap said.

The court concert orchestra will be composed of members of the summer music school faculty, all of whom are or have been performing members of the Detroit Symphony, augmented by members of the Plymouth Symphony, according to Dunlap.

The programs:
July 5—Music for the Royal Fireworks, Handel; Concert in A Major for Piano and Orchestra, Mozart, William Doppmann, soloist; Kleine Kammermusik for Five Wind Instruments, Hindemith; Symphony No. 88 in G Major, Haydn.

July 12—Suite No. 2 in B Minor for Flute and Strings, Bach; Cantata, "Miseri Noi, Misera Patria," Haydn, Leslie Eitzen, Mezzo-soprano; Septet in E flat Major for Violin, Viola, Cello, Double Bass, Clarinet, Horn, and Bassoon, Beethoven; Songs from "The Marienleben," Hindemith, Miss Eitzen; and Symphony No. 100 in G Major ("Military"), Haydn.

July 19—Suite of French Dances, arranged for small orchestra, Hindemith; Symphony No. 45 in F sharp Minor ("Farewell"), Haydn; Mass in D Minor ("Nelson"), Haydn, The Kenneth Jewel Chorale.

July 26—Concert in C for Lira, Strings and Two Horns, Haydn; Music of Mourning, Hindemith, Paul Doktor, violist; Concerto in G Major, Telemann, Paul Doktor; Wellington Suite for Two Horns, Piano, Strings and Percussion, Addison; and Symphony No. 101 in G Major ("Clock"), Haydn.

Six from Here Play in Detroit

Six player from Northville's 1967 Wayne-Oakland Conference champions will be playing in the tough Detroit Baseball Amateur Federation leagues this summer.

Catcher Doug Swiss and Outfielder Chris Holman, both of whom graduated, and Senior-to-be Dennis Primeau, a shortstop, got their baptism recently with the West Seven Athletic club of the Class D league for boys 18 and under.

Swiss was the hero in a 7-6 victory. With the score tied, 6-6, the husky catcher belted a home run over the left field fence for a 7-6 win. Primeau had his batting clothes on, too, as he went two for three.

At Northville Downs Betting, Attendance Off to Slow Start

The weather hasn't been helpful to Northville Downs through its first nine nights (through last Saturday) of the current 54-night season.

Betting is down 15 per cent and attendance has dipped about 13 per cent over last year.

Rain storms have threatened on several nights, while one night was nearly completely washed out.

The average nightly handle through last Saturday was $265,698, compared to last year's average of $292,896. Average attendance has been 4,011, although Saturday attracted a crowd of 6,880.

Mrs. Margaret Zayti, secretary to General Manager John Carlo, pointed out that current comparisons are being made against last year's opening week which fell on the Fourth of July holiday.

Feature of Saturday night's meet will be the first Invitational Exchange Pace.

The exchange event will feature the two fastest trotters from The Meadows, Scioto Downs and Buffalo Raceway tracks.

Representing the Downs against the visiting speedsters will be Craig Creed and General Knox.

Lakeland C League to Dissolve

Distance Erases Conference Bonds

Athletic conferences, like humans, can't escape the ravages of time. Although it's not official yet — the announcement is scheduled to be made June 23 — Holly will be pulling out of the Wayne-Oakland Conference after the upcoming school sports year.

Things are much more drastic in the Lakeland C Conference, in which Novi will be competing for the first time this fall. With the disaffiliation of Manchester, Clinton and Brooklyn after the 1967-68 season, the conference will be dissolved.

In each instance, the reasons are twofold: reluctance to travel long distances to play conference opponents and the desire to play natural, nearby rivals on a continuing league basis.

One of Holly's natural rivals, for instance, is Fenton, only five miles from Holly. In all probability, these two schools will form a league with other schools near Flint in Genesee county.

Not until after the official announcement, of course, can encores be made to possible replacements for Holly. Before the fall of 1968, however, the selection will be made by remaining W-O members, including Northville, Clarenceville, Brighton, West Bloomfield, Bloomfield Hills, Milford and Clarkston.

The school being eyed to restore the league to full eight-team strength is Waterford Kettering, a class A school from the Pontiac area. Now an independent, Kettering was cut loose this year when the Tri-County league underwent re-organization.

According to a reliable source, Kettering will have little difficulty in garnering a majority of four votes needed for entry into the W-O league. It would bring the number of class A schools to four; others are Milford, Clarkston and Bloomfield Hills.

Selection of Kettering may trigger further re-shuffling in the league, the source continued, primarily because it will mean stiffer competition and more travel for conference teams not located in the Pontiac area.

Rumor has it that one W-O team (not Northville) has made overtures to another league, but was turned down. Two conference schools are ranking, it is reported, from inability to win in the W-O. Given the opportunity, they might jump the league.

Brooklyn and Clinton of the Lakeland C wish to hook up with other Lenawee county teams to form a new circuit, while Manchester is gravitating toward a Jackson area league.

The pattern in the W-O and Lakeland C conferences is not unusual. Through expansion, schools are outgrowing old ties. New schools are springing up, and there are more to come in the near future, forming new, closer rivalries.

Actually, Novi is a case in point. Beginning next year, the senior high school will house three grades, nine through 11. This year, Novi played a conglomerate schedule of JV and varsity teams.

Then, Novi joined the Lakeland C by default. After being accepted, Ypsilanti St. John wanted out, thus giving Novi its opportunity — for one year. St. John, in turn, will join a new suburban Catholic conference.

Realizing that change is inevitable and re-alignment necessary, athletic directors from three counties — Macomb, Oakland and Western Wayne county — have banned together in hopes of resolving these problems brought on by time.

Unofficially called "The Tri-County Athletic Directors Association," the group already has held three meetings. No earth shaking decisions have been made, but the group is taking a long, hard look at conferences with the intent of planning for the future.

Dave Longridge, Northville athletic director, and John Osborne, Novi athletic director have been attending these meetings. They firmly believe in the necessity for the organization.

"You'll see an awful lot of this (re-alignment) going on in the future," the Northville AD said, "and we want to anticipate problems where ever and when ever possible."

With the changes already contemplated in the W-O, with Plymouth and Walled Lake in the process of building new high schools, with Northville high school growing, changes are inevitable, Longridge said.

STATE FINALISTS — Randy Burnett (left) and Jim Long are two reasons why Northville finished third in the class B state tennis finals last week. The third is Ken Boerger, missing here, who teamed up with Burnett in the doubles. They dropped only three matches all year long, as did Long in the singles.

Northville Netters Take 3rd in State

Northville had a string broken last week, but Coach Dick Norton's not kicking. His netters finished third in the state class B tournament.

Northville, which scored 4 points, was beaten out by Sturgis with 8 points and Rockford with 6.

Throughout the season, the Mustangs have been second in the league race, the league tournament and the Walled Lake Invitational tourney — to Clarkston, a class A school. The tournaments afforded Northville the chance to shake the Clarkston shadow.

Three boys carried the Northville banner into the state finals. Playing in the singles, Jim Long reached the semi-finals, and the doubles team of Randy Burnett and Ken Boerger got as far as the quarter finals.

Clarkston qualified one man for the state class A finals, Mike Dougherty, and he was eliminated in the first round. That sent Clarkston home without a point.

Long, the W-O singles champ for the second year in a row and the regionals titlist, whipped through two opponents before meeting Artie Tetzlaff from Rockford. Long lost 2-6, 0-6.

Tetzlaff, playing his "big game," then waltzed to the class B singles crown. "The guy was tough," Norton said, "no getting around it." The closest match he had was 6-3, 6-3.

To reach the semi-finals, Long likewise had to be tough. After a first-round bye, the Northville senior handily beat Todd Kraal of Fremont, 6-1, 6-3. In what Norton termed "a good match," Long then edged Glenn Beier of St. Clair 6-4, 6-3 in the quarter-finals.

The sledding was rougher for Boerger-Burnett, both juniors and the W-O and regional doubles champs. After a first-round bye, they won an extended match from Steve Dontje and

Esch at Schoolcraft

Congressman Marvin L. Esch will visit Schoolcraft college at 11 a.m. on June 16, lunching with the college president, his assistant, and other officials.

At 1 p.m. he will meet with Washenaw county intermediate school board and school district superintendents. Northville Superintendent Alex Nelson has been invited to attend as has Russell Ishister, Superintendent of Plymouth schools.

In the quarter-finals, Scoop Blain and Pete Peerbolte of Sturgis blitzed the Northville duo, 0-6, 2-6.

It was an all-Sturgis affair in the doubles finals. Blain and Peerbolte, however, lost to their teammates. "I can't understand how they lost," Norton said. "They were really good."

Behind the top three of Sturgis, Rockford and Northville, came Big Rapids, Kalamazoo Hackett, Comstock and Albion, tied for fourth with 2 1/2 points. St. Clair, Mason, Holland Christian, Wyoming Park, Allegan and Cadillac, tied for eighth with 1 1/2 points, and Coldwater, which finished 13th with one-half a point.

For Summer Recreation

Novi Gets Go Ahead Signal

With a promise of township funds, another hurdle appears to have been cleared by Novi's summer recreation program for 1,500 youths.

Representatives from the Novi Youth Protective association, the sponsoring organization, received a verbal commitment from township board members to the tune of $500 to help finance the program.

Blocking immediate action, however, was inability to find a township ordinance specifically establishing a Youth Protective association for the township. A check of records uncovered official publication of the ordinance in The Novi News.

June 26 was set as the date for reconsideration of the request. At that time, the township board also will hold its annual hearing on the 1967-68 budget.

Representing the Novi Youth Protective association were Chairman Richard Faulkner and Secretary Mrs. Hubert Farah.

Township President Hadley Bachert suggested that funds might be made available through the Oakland county

deGuere Leads In USGA Play

In the second weekly play of the Woman's Suburban Golf association last Friday at Salem Hills, Cecelia deGuere of Birmingham came up with the low gross in the championship flight with an 86. The low net winner was Ruth Langford of Dearborn Heights.

First flight low gross winner was Roz Karwoski of Farmington with a 99, and the low net winner with 81 was Myrna Hartner of Northville.

Second flight low gross winner was Mildred Claus of Southgate with 108, and June Todd of Plymouth was the low net winner with 87.

Tomorrow the WSGA will travel to Carleton near Monroe. The opening round two weeks ago was played at Braeburn.

Novi Rec To Start Tomorrow

While the call is going out for staff personnel, registration for Novi's infant summer recreation program will begin tomorrow, Charles Comito, chairman of the recreation committee, announced this week.

Registration will take place at the Novi village hall, from 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. tomorrow and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, June 17, and Saturday, June 24.

A registration fee of 50 cents is being charged for the program. It will be underway July 10 and will run through August 17, Monday through Thursday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m.

The need is urgent, Comito said, for site directors at the Novi and Orchard Hills schools, and for volunteer help in arts and crafts, sports and the swim program.

$75 million for recreation programs under E.O. About $75,000 to $80,999 had been allocated for Oakland county.

Treasurer Duane Bell said, "If there's any legal way, I'm sure we (board members) will go along with your request."

Last week, the Novi village council set aside $700, and gave up any claims it had to about $150 in a defunct service organization's coffers for financing of the summer recreation program.

In Record Office Tigers Sign Swiss Today

Doug Swiss, star catcher on the Northville high school Wayne-Oakland Conference champions, has indicated this week that he will sign with the Detroit Tigers.

Swiss will sign the contract Thursday morning in The Northville Record offices, with Louis DeAnnunzio, Tiger scout, representing the Bengals.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swiss of Ridge Road, Doug was a high class A pick in the recent draft of 500 ball players across the nation.

Inking of a contract means that Doug will be unable to play for the university of Michigan, where he will enroll this fall. He will attend school there, however, his father said and play for a Tiger farm team during the summer.

The husky catcher, long a prime prospect, has been assigned to the Erie, Pennsylvania, Tigers. He will report either Friday or Saturday.

Homers Bury Ford Motor

Lapham's Men's Store smothered the Ford Motor company under a deluge of five home runs Tuesday night at Ford Field for a 19-6 victory. The win gives Lapham's a 2-2 mark in the Men's Six-Pitch league.

Don Thomson and Don Williams shared the hitting spotlight. Thomson socked a three-run and two-run homer, while Williams hit one with a man aboard and one with the bases empty.

Ernie Ling had the other homer, a solo blast. Lance Hahn was four for five.

The Northville Jaycees continue to lead the league with a 4-0 record. Behind them are Northville Lanes and Ed Matafall Builders, both 3-1, Lapham's, Perkins Engines (1-3) and Ford (0-4).

Thefts Continue to Climb

There was no abatement of thefts this week in Northville.

Gasoline was drained from broken line on a tank truck during the weekend. The vehicle was parked at the C. W. Myers Fuel Oil Bulk plant, 215 Railroad street. Amount of gasoline stolen and cost were unknown at the time the theft was reported at 12:38 p.m. Monday by C. W. Myers of Plymouth.

A welder and 100 feet of welding cable were reported stolen over the weekend from the Taft road junior high school now under construction. Walter Carlson, foreman for Zeni & Maguire company, reported the theft at 10:23 a.m. on Monday.

Cyril Frid, 515 Dubuar, reported a $50 radio stolen from his home sometime Saturday night. There was no forced entry.

A child's riding tractor, valued at $26, was stolen from in front of 624 Fairbrook, apparently on June 6. Reporting the missing toy was Russell Palmer, 628 Fairbrook.

Three windows in the east wing of the First Presbyterian church, 111 West Main street, were broken between Friday and Sunday morning. Rocks were found near the three 8x10 windows.

A Ferndale man, Ernest Allen, was rolled in the parking lot of Northville Downs late Friday night. His wallet and $12 were reported stolen by three men, who attacked him.

Pickpockets lifted a wallet containing $100 sometime Friday night at Northville Downs, according to the robbed man, Bertrese Carter of Detroit.

In Northville Municipal court, two youths were fined $27.50 apiece for having liquor in their possession on the Seven Mile road cut-off.

James J. Zaytl and Thomas R. Peterson, both 18, pleaded guilty to charges. Zaytl lives at 47500 Eight Mile road and Peterson lists his address as Southfield.

Ralph D. Franklin of Detroit, was ordered to pay a $27.50 fine and $7.50 costs for being drunk and disorderly on Seven Mile road and River street.

Thomas Nock, who gives his address as Northville Downs, was cited for having no driver's license on his person while driving on Dunlap and Center streets. He paid a $25 fine.

TOPPING 100—Northville's Community Chamber of Commerce celebrated a special event this week as it "topped 100" in membership by signing Ford Motor Company to its roster. Ford Valve Plant General Superintendent Joseph Bujok (left) is shown handing the company's membership check to Dempsey Ebert, chamber president.

He'll Study On U-K Campus

A 17-year-old Northville high school student will be attending the University of Kansas summer session for journalism students from June 18 to July 30.

Daryl Holloman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Holloman of Orchard drive will join approximately 150 other high school students from across the nation.

A member of the Mustang staff, and author of the sports column, "Hoofbeats," the junior was granted a $90 scholarship to help defray expenses.

Aside from basic class room courses in News reporting, feature writing, photography and broadcasting, Holloman will be a summer reporter on "The Kansan," the University's semi-weekly newspaper. He will also be a member of the "Tempo" yearbook staff, and a member of the summer session newspaper.

"BEHOLD THE MAN"

"Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!" John 19:5

The hours of Lord Jesus earthly ministry were drawing to a close. In a period of three years He accomplished more for mankind than anyone before Him or since. The last verse of John's Gospel states:

"And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written everyone, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written." John 21:25

As He stands before the angry mob, His face disfigured from the severe beating, the crown of thorns pressed into His blessed brow, the purple robe mockingly thrown over His shoulders, He no doubt contemplates His greatest work yet to be accomplished. He must die to save a lost totally depraved human race. He was born of the Virgin Mary to die in sinful man's place. Christ's fore runner John the Baptist declared, "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh the SIN of the world." John 1:32.

There are three areas in which mankind must "behold" the Lord Jesus Christ. We must behold Him in His miraculous birth, which was foretold hundreds of years before He was born. He took upon Himself human flesh, God incarnate.

Then we must "behold" Him in His atoning death, the just suffering for the unjust. Isaiah states, "by His stripes we are healed." "The wages of sin is death, He paid the price."

Lastly we must "behold" Him in His resurrection. Because He defeated the grave and hell and those who receive Him as Saviour shall also defeat the grave and hell. To receive Him one must see His sinful, hopeless condition, realizing if he were to die in this state he would spend eternity in hell. Then one must repent of his sin, ask God's mercy and forgiveness, accepting Lord Jesus death as his own.

When the Lord Jesus stood before the angry mob and Pilate stated "behold the man" they refused Him; what of you today who are asked to "behold the man", will you refuse Him or accept Him?

"Whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved" Rom. 10:13.

Celebrates His First Mass

Newly ordained priest Father Thomas McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire of 240 Orchard Drive, will celebrate his first Mass on Sunday at 1 p.m. in Our Lady of Victory Church, 770 Thayer Boulevard.

Father McGuire, who has been assigned to development work for the Maryknoll Fathers in the United States, will be stationed in Chicago.

He was ordained a priest of the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America on June 10 at Maryknoll Seminary in Maryknoll, New York.

The Most Reverend Charles E. Brown, M.M., of New York City, auxiliary bishop of the diocese of Santa Cruz, Bolivia, was the ordaining prelate.

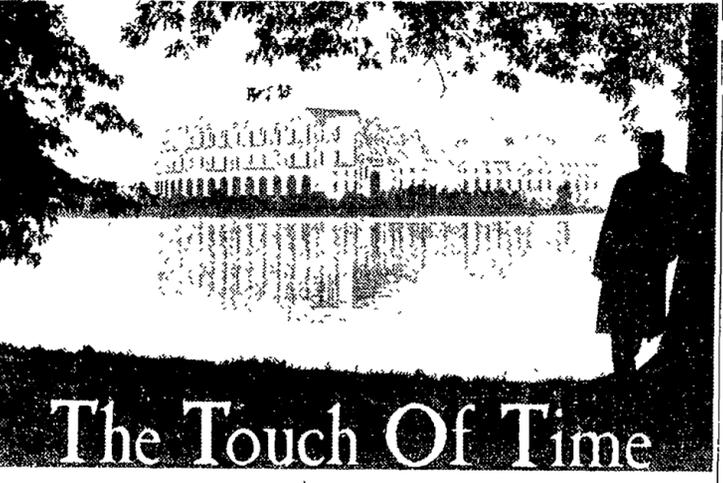

Following the Mass at OLV where the Rev. John Wittstock is pastor, a reception for Father McGuire will be held in the parish hall for all relatives and friends.

The Touch Of Time

What marvelous buildings has man erected through the centuries. What lofty and inspiring structures has he created.

But how many of these glorious accomplishments stand intact today? We can see famous ruins the world over — mute reminders that what man builds is not permanent.

Today our buildings contain great slabs of concrete holding hidden wire and steel that will not break with stress. But can we be sure that today's creations will be standing a hundred years or two hundred years from now? Of course not.

Of what can we be certain? What does last?

Certainly the gifts of God tower indestructibly today as they have for generations . . . the things of the spirit — faith, hope and love. Our church buildings may crumble or be destroyed, but the fellowship of believers is perpetual throughout the ages.

Discover for yourself the great spiritual truths. Discover for yourself through His Church, those things which endure forever.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Schoolcraft Sets Hearing On Budget

Schoolcraft college board of trustees will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m., Wednesday, June 21, on a proposed $2,599,776 operating budget for the college for the 1967-68 academic year.

The hearing will precede the board's regularly scheduled meeting and will be held in the board's regular meeting place in the conference room in the administration building.

Of the total requested for operating the college during the year which begins July 1, $2,173,251 is budgeted for faculty and staff salaries. Operations of the college are financed by a one-mill tax levy on all property in the college district, by tuition and fees, and by state aid based on a fixed sum for each full-time student.

A series of construction projects - immediate and long-range - including the college library and a greenhouse and arboretum, were approved by the Schoolcraft college board of trustees at its regular meeting Wednesday night, June 7, at the college.

Trustees approved an administration request that a consulting architectural firm be hired to plan development of expanded library facilities for the college. Dr. Eric J. Bradner, Schoolcraft president, told trustees the present library will be inadequate to accommodate a student body of 7,500 expected on campus within five years.

Trustees also approved a recommendation by the administration that the development of a greenhouse and arboretum be started this year with the construction and equipping of a greenhouse. The facility will be used primarily in the biology program and was initially requested by the college's biology department.

The board authorized the expenditure of $8,000 during the coming school year to erect the greenhouse and to provide other equipment and material needed for the first phase of the project.

Three change orders affecting construction projects already underway were approved by the board. One authorized the relocation of a language laboratory from the library to the new liberal arts classroom building on which construction has just begun.

The other change orders authorized removal and stockpiling of additional top soil at the site of the south parking lot, now being developed, and of relocating utility lines in the administration building where a remodeling program has begun.

Trustees also approved purchase by the college of an $8,050 computer to be used in the electronics instructional program, and okayed purchase of carpeting for office spaces in the remodeled administration building.

One instructor and two members of the secretarial staff at Schoolcraft College recently received certificates of completion of a secretarial review course sponsored by the National Secretaries Assn.

Completing the 42-hour course were Mrs. Christine Covert, business and typing instructor; Mrs. Jean Stearns, secretary to Dean of Academic Instruction Robert A. Stenger; and Mrs. Olga Taylor, secretary to Evening College Director Fred Stefanski.

The course covered a variety of business areas and was given in preparation for the Certified Professional Secretary examination.

Mrs. Covert and Mrs. Taylor are residents of Livonia. Mrs. Stearns is a resident of Westland.

Summer Classes To Swell

Students from four-year colleges and universities throughout Michigan are swelling enrollment lists for the eight-week summer session at Schoolcraft college, and may push it to a record high this year.

Schoolcraft Director of Admissions Miss Barbara Geil said that of 148 new students accepted for enrollment as of June 2, 88 were so-called guest students from four-year institutions.

Miss Geil, who pointed out that the start of the summer session is still several weeks away, compared the 88 guest students already admitted to about 40 who attended the 1966 summer session.

"The 148 students admitted thus far are students who will be attending the college for the first time. We expect the number of these new students to increase by the time classes begin," Miss Geil said.

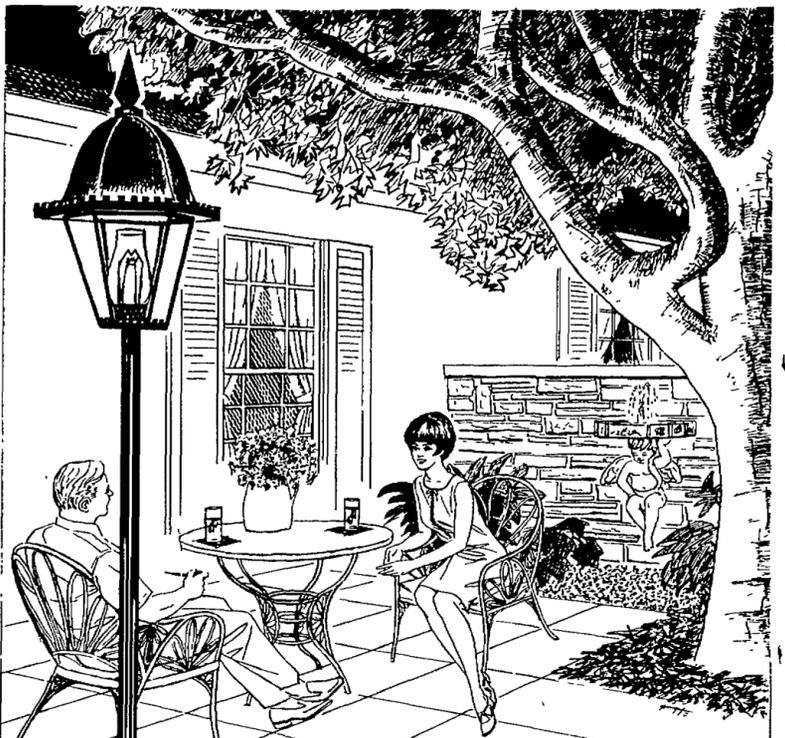

"The guest students are those who are coming here to take freshman and sophomore level courses which they need to fulfill graduation requirements at their own schools," Miss Geil explained. "Credits and grades earned here during the summer are automatically transferred to the parent institution and become part of the student's record."

The guest students, Miss Geil explained, use a uniform application form available from the registrar of their own college or university.

The student indicates on the form that he will be attending Schoolcraft college for example, and the completed form is sent to the summer host school.

Summer session registration at Schoolcraft will be on June 26 and 27. Classes start Monday, July 3, and the session ends on August 25.

Enrollment for the 1966 summer session at Schoolcraft was 543 students. As of June 2 reporting date used by Miss Geil, admissions for this summer were double those of last year at the same time.

If you listen to me, you'll ask your dealer for the money to buy your new car.

Maybe you're like a lot of people: you want a car, but don't have the money to buy it.

Don't let that hold you back. I know where you can get the money. Just ask your dealer. He can make all the arrangements for an NBD Auto Installoan. He has a direct phone line to the Installoan Department at the National Bank of Detroit. His call is answered by a specialist who works exclusively with auto financing all year round. There's no long waiting period, no red tape. Your dealer can usually get an answer for you in thirty minutes or so.

If you wish, you can get your car insurance included in your loan. Life insurance to cover the unpaid balance is also available.

And remember, you don't have to be an NBD customer to get an Auto Installoan. So if you're ready for a new car, go pick it out. And have your dealer make the arrangements for an NBD Auto Installoan at the same time.

Just take my word for it; at 11 o'clock, P.M. on channel 4. Ardis Kenealy.

Maybury Gets Face-Lifting

bury project sparked letters of protest by the Northville township supervisor, R. D. Merriam, and School Superintendent Alex Nelson. Their objections to the proposal were representative of others in the community.

Most objections here stem from a fear that the influx of teenagers from Detroit will result in poiting problems similar to those that occurred elsewhere in the state in connection with the government's job corps programs.

Anticipating local opposition, Bradley told The Record two weeks ago that meetings with local governmental leaders and citizens will be held to explain the program. However, the meeting dates have not yet been set.

Actually, the latest Detroit proposal for Maybury property is but one of several that have raised objections here over the years. Others have included gravel removal, an incinerator, a half-way house, and last month's offer by Cavanagh to provide the county with facilities for housing juvenile delinquents. Only the Human Resources Development Center idea has gone beyond the stage of planning or suggestion.

According to Scott Mitchell and Frederic Pinchem, who are members of the task force charged with getting the program off the drawing boards, the job of renovating the building is gigantic. The facility includes six wards, a huge dining room, kitchen auditorium, classrooms, offices, and quarters for nurses. All suffered extensively from vandalism and neglected maintenance.

Starting with those sections most heavily damaged, the young workmen — most of whom had no previous carpentry experience — replaced dozens of windows and frames, repaired woodwork, scrubbed floors and peeled paint from walls and ceilings. Then last week-end other teenagers from Detroit neighborhood youth corps began painting.

All of the youngsters are volunteers, earning $1.25 an hour in a 32-hour work-week. Work of the initial 13 boys is viewed as a pilot of the forthcoming job training program in which they eventually will be enrolled. "One of the boys," explained Mitchell, "has already earned $9 fixing a neighbor's windows—a job he wouldn't have been able to do before his experience here."

Despite three weeks of steady repair, however, a good deal of work in other sections of the facility remained to be done by Monday of this week — just three days away from the scheduled completion date.

Referring to fears of Northville area residents and officials, Mitchell, a former minister, said both live-in and commuting teenage boys will be closely supervised. He anticipates no delinquency problems, emphasizing that the youngsters who will be using the facility are volunteers — not prisoners.

"They'll get only one chance to prove themselves," said Pinchem. "If they get out of line, out they go. Just don't pre-judge them."

Unlike commuters who will be bussed to and from Detroit, the live-ins will be free to come and go as they please during off hours, they explained. "Why shouldn't they? It's not a reform school."

They said trips to town will be under adult supervision or at least sanctioned by staff members. But because the live-ins will not have private transportation few will get out into the community. Guards will patrol the property, they said, to prevent outsiders from coming in and upsetting the program.

All live-ins and commuters except for those involved in the day-camp program — will be boys. Some are high school graduates who still are unable to read or write adequately, some are school dropouts, and some are boys who have been unable to find work or who have lost their jobs and need re-training.

Many of the staffers and teachers, Mitchell said, will be graduate students from Wayne State University, which cooperates closely with the Detroit sponsored poverty programs.

Ideally, the program will become a showplace for programs throughout the United States, another spokesman said, utilizing new methods of training that have been "too expensive" to try in the past. These could, if federal monies are made available, include a sophisticated computer system, closed circuit television, use of the latest techniques in teaching of basics such as reading and arithmetic, and a completely furnished vocational center.

Should federal aid fall short of the requests, the program will be curtailed accordingly, he said.

Meanwhile, it's full steam ahead for at least the initial stages of the program with little likelihood that local opposition can muster enough influence to block its start.

RENOVATION—Victimized by vandals, a giant Maybury Sanitarium building is being renovated for a job training program sponsored by Detroit. Above, two program officials, Frederic Pinchem (r) and Scott Mitchell, look over the dining room. Below is the corridor in an office complex.

"YOUR HEALTH IS OUR BUSINESS"

It's good for the economy.

Yours. You can buy a brand new Volkswagen for a lot less than many used cars will cost you.

A Volkswagen is good for your economy in other ways, too. Like 27 miles to the gallon of regular gas and 40,000 on original tires. No need for anti-freeze, radiator repairs or water hose replacement. A bent VW fender can be repaired without replacing the whole side of the car. Even license plates and insurance cost less. High resale values are an additional bonus to VW owners ready for a new one.

Speaking of economy, better come in and see us right now before new car prices go even higher. Drive a Volkswagen ... it's an economy move.

Member Froelich: Questioned where we are going with our total program, we cannot make a decision at this time, I am more concerned about the direction of our total educational program. Tabled by the president.

TEACHER NEEDS 1966-68

Information relative to teacher needs for the 1967-68 school year was distributed to members of the board.

Member Froelich suggested that information be released to the public in laymen language, through the press.

THOMPSON-BROWN/SEWER 8 MILE

Superintendent Nelson reported that Mr. Carey of Thompson-Brown informed the board that Thompson-Brown will be happy to share in the cost of locating sewer line under 8 Mile road, also that it is expected that the city will reimburse Thompson-Brown for the District tap fee. Tap-in fee yet to be determined.

The buildings go with the land and we will assume additional insurance protection. Member Froelich questioned the townships long range plans. Mr. Merriam stated with our water contract with Northville State Hospital we will be able to float bonds as we are in need of DPW yards and fire department, therefore our present quarters would not be sufficient for twenty years. Motion No. 595, by member Cook, supported by member Froelich, and unanimously carried directing administration to have a lease prepared for a period not to exceed ten years and the additional insurance on present buildings be Township responsibility.

MAYBURY SANITARIUM

Supreme Court Favors Northville Coach Lines

A suit against the Department of Street Railways (DSR) is returning to Wayne County Circuit Court following a supreme court ruling June 6 in favor of the Northville Coach Lines, Inc.

According to a spokesman for Northville Coach Lines, headquartered in Northville township at 4122 Seven Mile road, court action against the DSR for damages will continue in circuit court where it started several years ago barring an appeal by the DSR to a higher court.

Northville Coach Lines, which initiated the suit and was later joined by the Michigan Motor Bus association, contends the DSR illegally has extended its services to the Seven Mile area where Northville Coach has a franchise to operate.

Northville Coach contends the DSR must comply with the Michigan Public Service commission as does Northville and other bus firms. Presently, DSR operates to the Livonia Mall. Northville has the Seven Mile franchise extending to Seven Mile and Grand River.

"There's no doubt about it," the local coach line spokesman said, "the illegal extension of service by DSR has hurt us. We intend to continue our fight. While the case continues in circuit court our attorney may attempt to secure an injunction against DSR."

HOW MUCH PROFIT DO DEALERS MAKE ON A CAR?

Take a guess. $1,000? $50? Answers on opinion surveys among car buyers have varied that much.

That is one of the main reasons why price advertising that offers "fantastic discounts" is so often believed. The image of high profits naturally makes large savings plausible.

"Discount" is a magic word. It has been misused until it is meaningless, but it can still make buyers forget all about their used car allowance, substitute inferior equipment for standard factory components and no service.

Last year the average net profit of auto dealers across the country was 2.1%. It was 1.8% in 1964, 1.9% in 1963 and 2.2% in 1962. Average over the years: 2%. When a dealer sells a $3,500 car then, he keeps a net profit of $70. Where the hundreds of dollars he could discount is going to come from is a mystery, for the low profit figure dealers operate on these days is the lowest practicable.

Under these conditions, if a dealer ACTUALLY sells his cars for a significantly lower price than the going market level he must short-change the customer to recover what he gave away.

There are many ways to do this if he doesn't care whether he sees the customer again. Keep in mind that price is only one thing to look for if you want to get your money's worth. See you next week.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Did you ever ask, "where do our tax dollars go?"

While it may seem like a small sum, city taxpayers can trace about $1,000 to making repairs for vandals who get their kicks breaking or stealing street signs.

DPW Director Bud Hartner reports that 53 street name signs in the city are either missing or broken. The signs atop the poles cost $11 each. By the time repairs and installations are made the cost of labor nearly doubles the expenditure.

Another neat trick is to turn the street signs around to confuse motorists.

Although minor in terms of cost compared to other acts of vandalism, the street-sign destruction is pesky, time-consuming and exasperating to strangers relying on the signs for directions.

It's also a pure waste of money that could be diverted to more constructive forms of exercise and where it is needed in the community recreation program.

It's reasonable to assume that our street signs are being vandalized by youngsters, probably even pre-teens.

But small fry can't be blamed for a popular pastime that has become a source of concern to fire department officials.

Hartner, who also doubles as Northville's fire chief, reports that local firefighters are plagued by fire engine chasers.

In the last two weeks area fires have attracted between 100 and 200 cars per fire. Some 200 cars were estimated at a Haggerty road fire, while a call to Edenderry subdivision had a following of more than 100 cars.

At the Edenderry fire a string of cars tagging fire engines extended all the way from the residence inside the subdivision to Seven Mile road.

"If we had needed to bring a pumper to the house, it couldn't have gotten past the traffic", Harnter reported.

Manager Frank Ollendorff said that police have been instructed to clamp down on fire chasers, especially those tagging dangerously close to volunteer firemen in their cars or the trucks.

Police always precede firefighters to fire scenes, and do their best to keep traffic moving and the area clear. But the large number of vehicles driven by the "fire watchers" brigade complicates the job.

Watching fires is a time-honored practice and there's no law against it. But spectators are urged - for the sake of safety and the assistance of the firefighters - to keep cars out of the immediate area and watch from a reasonable distance.

Out in Novi Safety Director Lee BeGole finds some comfort in fire-watchers.

"We're not bothered by cars chasing us," BeGole lamented. "Usually I look around for a car or two because sometimes we need help and we put the watchers to work".

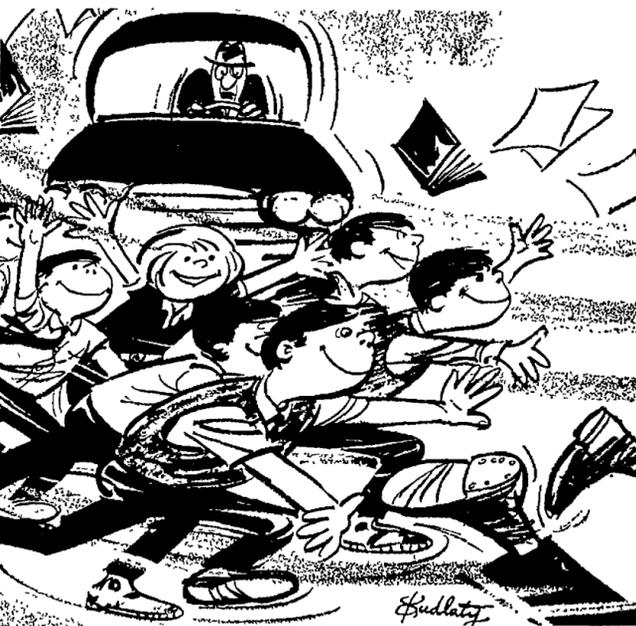

BeGole related a couple of experiences where citizens volunteered their help when needed. "One businessman dressed for work just happened by the scene of a fire and pitched in when he saw we needed help. We really appreciated it, but he looked a mess when the fire was over," BeGole recalled.

Sometimes Novi policemen, who are controlling traffic at the scene of a fire, must be used to assist firefighters. "Then I just deputize a citizen or two and they direct traffic," BeGole explained.

"Really, we owe them (the fire-watchers) our thanks for the help they've given us."

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

It will have taken place by the time this column hits the street. But it's my guess, without having seen it, that it will make Wednesday night viewing of the tube less of a summertime bore and make us plead for more. I'm speaking - out on the limb - of the "Steve Allen Comedy Hour" that debuted last night.

I greet Steve Allen with mixed emotions, elated because he is returning, sad because his stay this time will be short-lived (the summer), his appearance each week all too infrequent and his talents watered down by the sponsor's dictates for a popular time slot. Allen's rightful place is a late-night show, where he can give full vent to his many talents and indulge his imagination.

Yes, the return of Steve Allen is a time for reminiscing and begs the obvious comparison between the father of the "Tonight Show" and Johnnie Carson. There is only one conclusion: the absence of Steve Allen, the ribald, rollicking intellectual, has created a late-night vacuum a million Johnnie Carsons could not fill.

Both men are fast on the draw. They respond quickly to a situation and extract the honey of humor - not easily done when formats restrict latitude and sponsors' content. Not everyone can make turgid comedy air out of casual discourse, but these two are past masters.

That's as far as the similarity goes. Allen works from a broader intellectual base. He has a firm, if not intimate, knowledge of politics, music, sports, show biz, personalities and the world in general. As a result, his humor often takes the shape of satire. Carson's humor is largely topical, confined to joke jokes, those empty barbs, intended more as a change of pace than any serious attempt at making humor the handmaiden of satire.

Allen is a host par excellence, at home with politicians, musicians, pundits and off-beat types. When Steve Allen's show was revived from Hollywood, he had Pierre Salinger as a guest. What transpired was not unique. Allen unstaged the would-be senator, not through any deliberate attempt to malign him, but through sheer superior political

For the first time in many years, the once routine proposal for extending the Selective Service Act found itself faced with serious questioning and a few new additions. While it passed the House with only nine dissenting votes, indications are that the administration of the draft will be in for some close Congressional scrutiny during the next four years perhaps leading to major revisions in the future.

The House version, passed two weeks ago, differs from that passed in the Senate where the present Selective Service Act was, for the most part, merely extended in its present form. Extensive hearings and study by the House Armed Services Committee led to several desirable changes which I supported and most of which restrict the President's authority over draft policy. Undergraduate college student deferments were continued by the House and the institution of a draft lottery is prohibited unless the President finds it in the national interest and gains Congressional approval.

Kuhn...

Senator George W. Kuhn has been promoted to the rank of commander, U.S.N.R., according to an announcement by the Navy Department.

Active in the Naval Reserve since 1943, Kuhn saw active service in both World War II and the Korean conflict. He served as Finance Officer for Pacific Fleet Submarine Force during World War II and was also stationed at U.S. Naval Air Station in New York.

McDonald...

One of the major problems facing the nation is the deterioration of our urban areas. The cities are overcrowded. They are crime-ridden. And the blight continues unabated.

Many solutions have been suggested. But, the most promising has only recently been proposed. It is a bill to provide people of modest means an opportunity to rebuild their neighborhood and own a decent home.

Conceived by Senator Charles Percy of Illinois and Congressman William Widnall of New Jersey, the bill establishes a mechanism whereby mortgage assistance can be provided to lower income Americans unable to afford and obtain conventional mortgage financing. Beyond that, it would provide these people with budget counseling and job training in order to assist them in their endeavor to become and remain a home-owner.

Essentially, the plan works at the local level. Neighborhoods seeking to improve themselves would establish corporations composed of local business, civic, professional, religious, and labor leaders. They would borrow funds from a national foundation to loan residents who are willing to purchase a home that has been rehabilitated.

Schmidt...

Parliamentary procedures in both the House and the Senate revived measures that had run into opposition in the other house. Sunday liquor sales supporters in the Senate tacked several amendments on a House bill making it an omnibus liquor bill including the Sunday Liquor Sales provision. This procedure by-passes the House Liquor Commission which had already "killed" two Sunday Liquor proposals this session.

House proponents of the district system for elections in Detroit used the same technique in adopting an amendment providing for one-man one-vote election of Detroit school board members. The Senate elections committee killed a similar proposal to outlaw Detroit's at-large city elections several weeks ago.

The House of Representatives again considered the tax-package and fiscal-reform. The new version was two fold. If enacted, one program would start about October and be in effect until June 30, 1969. In November 1968 the people would vote on an identical package.

The plan as proposed provided for:
1. 2 1/2 percent personal tax; 5% corporation tax; and 7% financial institutions tax.
2. Repeal the business activities tax; increase intangibles tax exemptions; and provide for a $600 exemption under the personal income tax.

3. Property tax relief of 14% of school and county tax. (The Senate version was a sliding scale up to $265 maximum.)

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

"It'll be a challenging two-year camping trip," the young man in boxer trunks and tennis shoes explained laughingly as his wife and five children readied themselves for a new kind of adventure.

Roger Soucy and clan, who for the past nine years have called Northville their home, have made numerous camping trips in previous summers - to all parts of Michigan, Ontario, and even up into his home state of New Hampshire. This summer and for the next two they'll be "camping" in strange, new places - places where when Soucy's imaginative son, Paul, says he's just spotted a lion or two he won't be dreaming. For, you see, the Soucys are off to Africa on a two-year adventure that will take them to the heart of big game country.

Two months ago Soucy was one of about 25 teachers selected from across the country by the Agency of International Development to become part of a teacher education program in East Africa. There were nearly 700 applicants for the 25 positions.

The fact that Soucy and his family are made of that rugged material required of a camper was a key to their selection. But the man himself had to meet other requirements such as having a master's degree, at least five years of teaching experience, and acceptance to the Columbia university graduate school.

Soucy had these. He earned his BA at the University of New Hampshire, his MA at the University of Michigan. Since 1955 he has been teaching math at Southfield high school. And he has been accepted by the Columbia graduate school where, for the next six weeks he will be taking credit classes to prepare him to teach young African teachers. He and his family will leave for Nairobi, Kenya and the Kenyatta Teacher college about mid-August.

Not only Soucy will be attending Columbia classes, however. His wife and children will be taking classes especially prepared to orientate families to living in East Africa.

Recalling how their adventure started, Mrs. Soucy said she and her husband had been looking "for something a little different" to do for the past three or four years. Then last year they read of the government sponsored African program in the Michigan Education Journal. Their application was too late to qualify them last summer so they crossed their fingers and waited for word on this year's program.

By Christmas most of the paper work was done, and in February a coordinator for the program from Columbia spent a day here interviewing and testing the applicant. Then in March word came that he had been selected.

Since then the Soucy house at 43757 Park Grove has been filled with excitement and preparations. And with seven in the family preparations are no little chore even though camping has regimented their activities. Besides the senior Soucys, the family includes Francis, 14, James 12, Rose, 11, Gary 9, and Paul, 7.

The Soucy family is the largest ever to participate in the program. Most couples have only one or two children. The family's easy adaptability to unusual conditions - a result of outdoor living - probably offset any disadvantages seen by program officials for large families, Soucy guessed.

"At any rate they picked us. The adventure and educational value for the children should be one of the greatest assets," he said. "And, of course, my experiences should be of value when I return to Southfield." Soucy has a leave of absence. He plans to return to the school in two years, and the family plans to return to Northville and their home here, which has been rented.

In Africa, the Soucys will live in an apartment, partly furnished with their own furniture and cooking utensils that have already been shipped. Living quarters represents part of his stipend paid for by the government of Kenya. It will be supplemented by a small salary paid by the United States government.

Naturally, not all the Soucy living will be inside an apartment. They fully expect to "get in some camping" - the tenting kind - during their stay.

Mrs. Soucy, local assistant leader of Girl Scout Troop 234, has an official invitation to become involved in similar scouting activities in Africa, and the other members of scouting will continue their activities in Africa.

"Anyway you look at it," the Soucys agree, "it'll be bigger and better than any of the camping trips we've had before."

And, says Paul shouldering his wooden rifle, "I'm going to shoot an elephant."

OFF TO AFRICA-Packed and ready to leave for a two-year adventure in Africa is the Roger Soucy family of Northville (l to

Court, Newspaper Hurt Community

EDITOR'S NOTE: This newspaper welcomes letters to the editor. We ask that they be received at this office by Monday noon for publication the same week and that they be limited to 300 words. All letters must contain the signature of the writer, but names will be withheld on request. This newspaper reserves the right to edit letters for brevity and to avoid profanity or libelous statements.

To the Editor:

I have been a citizen of this community for over 30 years but until last week have never realized just how little an individual's word and dignity means to many in this town. May 131 was issued a traffic ticket that I felt was unjustly issued. "Railroading" was the adjective that came to mind as Officer Beukema allowed only 3 days time for a court date - to May 16. (Ironically this was the day that Judge McDonald was going out of office). On the back of the ticket it specifically states "If you are protesting this ticket notify the court seven days before court date" -

I was not given seven days. When Officer Beukema was asked by Judge McCann why he allowed only three days the officer replied "I didn't have my calendar in the car". His inaccurate account of the occurrence was believed over the defendant, myself, whose word was apparently insufficient to prove herself innocent at the accusation.

But that frustrating experience in court wasn't enough. It is dismaying to see the local newspaper is only all too ready to pick up the least infraction of the law and print it as if it were vital for the community good - scandal sheet wise - for all to see including one's age! The other local newspapers don't stoop to such gossipy space-fillers. It is hardly a credit to our town that even children and teenagers aren't spared of having whatever trouble they get into printed relentlessly and mercilessly to the further humiliation of themselves and their families.

Indeed, small towns have the reputation of struggling and trying to preserve individual dignity and rights. In my view, both this city's newspaper and courts detract from that struggle. Margaret H. Tegge

Retirements Cut into State Police Ranks

LANSING - More and more bright young men are attracted to careers with the Michigan State Police.

Better base salary, fringe benefits, shorter work weeks and other overall conditions brought renewed interest in this important job.

Turnover is low, but the force is now hit hard by current retirements. Continual expansion of the department requires additional recruiting. The department doubled in size in the past 20 years. It is estimated it may grow to 2,000 men by 1970.

Although applications have increased, the number of young men who do not meet the standards is high. Col. Frederick E. Davids, State Police Commissioner, notes that about 35% of those who begin training do not graduate.

OPPORTUNITIES for advancement are excellent. Each retirement opens vacancies through the ranks which means several promotions per retirement. Troopers are eligible to take promotional examinations after five years of service.

Salaries begin at $6,368.40 per year. Annual raises bring a trooper's pay to $9,437.76 after seven years. Higher rank increases pay, of course, with a police captain drawing about $15,000 per year.

Civil Service pay increases will raise salaries to a higher level beginning July 1.

Other benefits include longevity pay after six years of service; travel allowance; free uniforms and equipment; vacation and sick leave; free moving when transferred; group medical and life insurance; a retirement plan which allows half-pay for life after 25 years of service.

Work weeks have been reduced to 40 hours, but the job is still demanding and the training rigorous. Basic school at headquarters in East Lansing includes classroom instruction in police administration and related subjects. First aid, firearms, boxing, judo, swimming and other skills are also taught. After graduation, troopers are encouraged to seek additional school.

"IT'S JUST BEGUN," said Don Weeks, executive director of the Greater Michigan Foundation. This, despite the fact that Michigan Week "ended" May 27.

The 14th consecutive Michigan Week observance involved an estimated 15,000 people in leadership roles with hundreds of thousands participating.

Weeks looks upon Michigan Week as a rallying time and likens it to a business convention. The observance, itself, he maintains is merely a "charging up" of leaders and citizens with the hope that interest and pride in the state will linger for the remaining 51 weeks.

"It is nothing but a place on the calendar," Weeks says when referring to Michigan Week. A county chairman may begin organizing plans in the summer. By the time school starts he will have recommended programs which schools and service clubs can immediately use to promote Michigan Week ideals within their own organizations.

Year-round promotions need not bring monumental results to keep with underlying principles of Michigan Week. Any original program which endeavors to demonstrate the state's friendliness, brings people closer together, builds community pride or improves opportunities for Michigan youth is considered a direct result of Greater Michigan promotion.

IMPROVEMENTS in the seven-day event constantly take place. This year, addition of Michigan Minuteman Governor's Awards became a part of Livelihood Day.

Nominations for the award were submitted by state associations, city and village councils, and county boards of supervisors. One hundred people received the Governor's citation at special ceremonies.

Another attraction this year was a tour by five former Michigan Governors during Government Day. Wilber M. Brucker, 1931-32; Murray D. VanVoght, 1941-42; Harry F. Kelly, 1943-46; G. Mennen Williams, 1949-60; and John B. Swainson, 1961-62 visited some of Michigan's larger cities and were met by enthusiastic crowds at each stop.

Next year's observance, set for May 19-25, is already in the planning stage.

Guaranteed Wage: Key to Bargaining

BABSON PARK, Mass., - No matter which side of the fence you're on - the employer's or the employee's - you can't help but be fascinated with the idea of a guaranteed annual wage for everybody. And it is especially "hot" right now because Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers, is out to get a guaranteed yearly income for employees in the auto factories, from top to bottom.

Men and women in seasonal enterprises know how tough it is to be laid off when the work load drops. They may have to put up with it, but they never get used to it. It means getting temporary jobs or signing up for unemployment insurance, and it almost always adds up to "going without" for a while. Mr. Reuther won't have much trouble selling the idea of a guaranteed annual wage to his members, especially the beltline and blue-collar men who get laid off when the new-model changeovers are being made or when the car market suddenly dries up.

A DOZEN YEARS ago he took a giant step in this direction when he won from the big auto concerns what is known as supplemental unemployment benefits. They work like this. After a year's job tenure an employee can get company payments when he is laid off. A high-seniority worker can get this type of help for as much as a year, which isn't too bad when it is added to state unemployment outlays. With this combination a man may get up to 62% of his regular straight-time wage, and an extra $1.50 a week for each dependent up to a total of four.

This is fine for the worker, up to a point. But now Mr. Reuther thinks the time is ripe to plump for a yearly pay guarantee for everybody. In short, all the production employees would be on an annual salary just like the executives and the department heads. The managements are being told that it means only a slight extension of the supplemental unemployment program, but changeovers can be smoothed out so that the men are busy about all the time.

Reuther is going to have plenty of support for his proposal, not only among the hourly workers but even among some of the salaried men. He is planning to ask for big wage and fringe benefits, far bigger than he expects to get, so he can cut back on these expensive demands if the company negotiators look as though they could be "bought around" on his guaranteed annual pay proposal.

The companies are not going to be a pushover for this concept. They don't like it. Even the labor economists are willing to admit that it may cost the firms as much as 10% more in labor costs if a full yearly income is assured for all. If they admit that much, it very likely would cost far more than 10%, at least during the early trial stage. And it seems like a pretty big order at a time when output is down, sales have been discouraging, and the government's safety regulations are needling the industry.

EMPLOYERS in other fields will keep a sharp eye on this issue as it is "bargained out" in Detroit this year. Many times before, innovations that have started in the auto industry have gradually spread out through other lines. It is our opinion that the guaranteed annual wage in one form or another is on the way and that it will be turning up more and more at bargaining tables everywhere. Employers know it will be expensive and they will fight it as long as possible.

Those people operating services and retail outlets in heavily industrialized localities will have a special interest in the expansion of the guaranteed yearly income. It could mean far greater stability for their businesses, particularly where highly cyclical enterprises now prevail. It could lower buyer resistance stemming from uncertainties about seasonal layoffs, and at the same time increase consumer desire to purchase a wider variety of goods and services. This is longer-term stuff, but merchants will be watching.

Methodists Return Area Ministers

Mrs. Louise Cansfield and the Reverend S. D. Kinde, lay delegate and ministerial delegate to the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist church attended the conference sessions June 5-17th at Adrian College. They represented the First Methodist church of Northville.

During the week Mrs. Cansfield was elected as a Conference lay-delegate to the General Conference of 1968, one of the highest honors for laymen within the church.

The Conference this past week voted on the union to be formed between the E.U.B. church and the Methodist church. Of the 596 votes cast by delegates, 550 favored the union and 42 opposed with four abstaining. The only point of contention was whether or not a pattern of segregation of Negroes was carried on into the new church.

All Methodist ministers in this area were re-assigned to their churches by Bishop Dwight Loder with but three exceptions - Ronald K. Corl of Macon was assigned as associate minister of the First Church, Plymouth, replacing Peter Schweitzer who was left without appointment; Charles R. Kishpaugh, Stony Creek went as associate minister of First Church, Ypsilanti to replace Timothy Hickey who went to Waterford; and Russell L. Smith went to Highland and Clyde from Mt. Olivet Church, Dearborn.

The Rev. Mr. Kinde was reappointed to Northville for his fifth year.

Senator Griffin Speaks at Central

Three Northville residents were among the 974 candidates to receive diplomas at commencement exercises Saturday at Central Michigan university in Mt. Pleasant.

This year's commencement was one of the featured events of the university's 75th anniversary celebration. It was the 75th commencement as well. Those receiving diplomas from Northville were Jeffrey John Crawford, bachelor of science; Samuel LeRoy Dibble III, bachelor of science; and Sandra Kay Parmenter, two-year secretarial.

In addition to the regular graduates receiving degrees, approximately 50 persons from last January's cancelled commencement also took part in the ceremonies. Inclement weather caused cancellation of commencement in January.

The commencement address was given by Michigan Senator Robert P. Griffin, a CMU alumnus. Title of his address was "Where Do We Grow From Here?"
