LONE CASUALTY—City Manager Frank Ollendorff, known in racing circles as Better Luck Next Time, streaked down the hillside Friday morning to open the first annual soap box derby sponsored by the Northville recreation department.

It was a thrilling run even though it ended half-way down the course with a spill—the only one during the entire morning of racing. See the sports page for the story and more pictures on the younger, more expert drivers—11-A.

Will Negotiations Block Opening Of Schools?

With nearly 75 hours of negotiations under their belts, teacher and board representatives appear little closer to hammering out a mutually satisfactory economic package.

The two sides met 24 hours on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of last week, but progress was made in only the less controversial, non-economic areas.

With the bulk of the total package still to be resolved, the next meeting of the two sides will not take place until August 23. Board representatives sought an earlier date but teachers balked.

Said teachers in a written explanation:

"The August recess of negotiations has been long anticipated due to teachers summer school obligations... Specifically, the board team was notified on July 28 that the middle three weeks in August would have to be set aside from negotiations but teachers yielded three dates within this period to further progress in negotiations."

Asked what might happen if a master contract is not agreed upon by the September opening of school, a teacher spokesman replied: "I guess school won't open."

Says Salem Operator

'Sanitary Landfill, Please, Not Dump'

He bounces around the mountains of earth and rubbish and garbage, amid giant, grunting machines, showing off the place as if it were a gleaming, new Cadillac.

"Beautiful, isn't it," he exclaims periodically.

About as beautiful as landfills come, probably, but for Mr. Average Citizen who has not yet encountered The Admonition it's still the place where the trash barrel and garbage can finally are emptied.

That admonition was dished out to a young student one afternoon last week when he drove up with a trunkload of trash and asked if he had found the "Salem Dump."

In his best Swedish accent, Gunnar Stromberg shot back, "If you're looking for the landfill you've come to the right place—a dump, look someplace else."

It's become a standard reply for Stromberg and other operators like him who are constantly battling the ugly reputation of dumps as they go about the big, legal business of filling holes with rubbish and garbage and covering it with dirt.

Stromberg, Northville township trustee and planning commission chairman, supervises the 60-acre Salem landfill, located at Five Mile and Chubb roads, for Sheldon Hayes who in turn has a contract with the city of Plymouth which owns the property.

necessary public service.

An estimated 95-percent of Salem's citizens are satisfied with the Salem landfill. And Township Supervisor Floyd Taylor is one of them.

But it wasn't always that way. In fact, Taylor figures about 95-percent of the people were "dead-set against it" two years ago—and earlier—when Plymouth operated it as a dump. It was in 1965, when the state was wading knee-deep in citizenry complaints about dumps, that state lawmakers hammered together a controversial bill that literally outlawed the "old fashioned dump". That bill, now Public Act 87, prohibits dumps that continue to operate in this area—some which have the sanction of the governing body.

Take a look at just three requirements under this law and see if that "dump" in your area operates legally:

---The bottom of the dump must be two feet above the water level.

---Rubbish or garbage (the state makes no distinction) must be laid down in layers no more than two-feet thick and in tiers not to exceed eight feet, with a six-inch layer of compacted dirt applied to the top layer or at the conclusion of each day's operation.

---Once the pre-determined grade level is about to be reached, a final two-foot layer of dirt—bringing it to grade level—must be added and the entire area seeded.

Under the law, Plymouth found it was operating its Salem dump illegally. And to operate it legally, it learned, was a financial impossibility. It means expensive engineering costs, increased employment, and huge investments in machines capable of hauling, pushing and covering the garbage and rubbish. That's when the city turned to Hayes.

Hayes was willing. But he couldn't turn it into a financially sound investment handling only the refuse of Plymouth. So a contract was drawn up, giving Hayes the right to handle materials from other communities at rates established competitively by Hayes.

And under a five-year agreement between Plymouth and Salem, during which time the landfill must be completely filled and covered, Salem and its citizens were given the right to dump their rubbish and garbage free of cost. That agreement extends to 1971.

Plymouth pays 25-cents per cubic yard for using the landfill.

It was during the interim period, while negotiations for the contract were

Annual Sidewalk Sale Saturday

Northville merchants don't expect any customers in their stores Saturday. But they're hoping for plenty of action out in front—on the sidewalks and streets!

Saturday Northville retailers will conduct their annual "Sidewalk Sale". Nearly 30 merchants and community organizations will display their wares—from garbage cans to automobiles to paintings and pottery.

This year for the first time both Main and Center streets will be closed to vehicular traffic so that shoppers may roam through-out the business district.

Main street will be closed from Center to Hutton, while Center street will be roped off for shoppers from Main to Dunlap.

Sale Chairman Gerald Stone said that space is still available in certain areas on Main and Center where merchants from outside the central business district, or organizations wishing to conduct a sale to raise funds, may reserve space. Arrangements may be made by calling Stone at FI 9-2323.

Hundreds of outstanding values await shoppers at the day-long Sidewalk Sale. Most merchants use the event to clear their shelves of summer merchandise to prepare for the fall season. Many of the items are not seasonal, however, but have just "been around too long" and are sacrificed at ridiculously low prices.

For specific examples of many of the values turn to pages 8-A, 9-A and 10-A.

Those participating in the sale include: Northville Drug, Old Mill Restaurant, Lapham's, Freydl's, Gunsell Drug, Noder's Jewelry, Little People Shoppe, Lila's Flowers, Stone's Gamble Store, D & C Stores, Brader's, Del's Shoes, Schrader's Home Furnishings, Spinning Wheel, Northville Record, Northville Hardware, Leone's Bakery, Jaycettes, C. R. Ely & Sons, John Mach Ford Sales, Hartley-Powers Gallery, Rathburn Chevrolet, G. E. Miller Sales & Service, Barn Door Antiques, Mothers Club, Littlest Gallery and Main Street Antique.

City Escapes Water Hike

But New Detroit Rates To Hit Township, Novi

An increase in water rates announced by the Detroit Water Board to take effect November 1 will probably mean that users of Detroit water in Novi and Northville township will pay more for water.

Surprisingly, it will not change water rates in the city of Northville, which is supplied completely by Detroit.

The Detroit Water Board notified all its customers that a "pumping and transportation" charge will be added to the present price.

This amounts to about 6 1/2-cents per thousand gallons of water, although the exact increase varies slightly between communities.

In Northville township, for example, the increase represents a 16 per cent hike, or about $6.40 per year to the average home user. The township has only 20 customers on Detroit water, mostly in Plymouth Gardens subdivision at Bradner road near Five Mile road. The Northville road Kings Mill apartments will soon be connected to the system.

The increase in Novi, if passed along to the 400 users, is estimated at $3 per year to the average customer.

Northville City Manager Frank Ollendorff said the city rates would not change due to an agreement reached last summer with the Detroit Water Board.

At that time, when the city first started buying Detroit water, Detroit officials reported that rates were currently under study and would soon be raised. It was therefore agreed that Northville would assume the anticipated new rates with a three-year guarantee of no further increase. It was also stipulated, said Manager Ollendorff, that if the new rates were lower than estimated that the city could expect a decrease.

Actually, the city will receive a slight decrease in its rate from Detroit. Currently the city pays 23.2 cents per thousand gallons of water. The new rate will become 22.4 cents, said the manager.

In Northville township water is purchased on a quantity formula ranging from 15.6 cents to 21.2 cents per thousand gallons. These rates will now be increased by 6.5 cents per thousand gallons, which is more than a 30 per cent hike to the township, but would mean only a 16 per cent hike to users if the township decides to add the increase to the flat rate charge of 35 cents per thousand gallons paid by individual customers.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam said this would be a matter for the water commission to decide and the township board to approve.

In the city individual customers are charged on a quantity basis ranging from 65 cents per thousand gallons up to 12,000 gallons, 40 cents per thousand gallons for the next 738,000 gallons and 30 cents per thousand gallons over 750,000 gallons.

In Novi customers pay the village $6 for the first 7,500 gallons (80 cents per thousand gallons) and 40 cents per thousand gallons for more than 7,500. If the 6 1/2-cent increase is passed along, it would mean a hike to average users of about $3 per year.

POSTMASTER STEIMEL

You can take the "acting" off the title of postmaster in Northville.

After two years on the job John Steimel has been awarded the official status of "postmaster."

The 39-year-old Steimel, who succeeded Leland Smith after he retired because of ill health, passed examinations for the position last March. The appointment, which must be approved by both the House and Senate, became effective July 21. But Steimel did not receive official word until this week.

He now has a document proclaiming the appointment signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson and Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien. It'll be framed and hung on his office wall.

Steimel and his wife, Lorraine, reside at 488 Hill street. They have two boys.

The mother of the bride wore an imported pink silk dress with pink accessories and a corsage of deep pink roses.

Mrs. Dillenbeck chose a turquoise silk peau de soie sheath with a matching coat of silk organza and accessories. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

The reception was held at the American Legion Memorial Building, Brighton. Mrs. Richard Helman of Livonia, the bride's cousin, was in charge of the guest book.

Assisting were Mrs. Winton Smith of Howell, Betty DeRose, Lenore Spagnuolo, and Kay Galbovie, all of Lansing, and Mrs. Robert Mauk of Howell.

Dinner music was followed by dancing.

The couple honeymooned in the upper peninsula. The bride's going away outfit was a pink linen dress with white accents.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Penn State University.

They are now at their new home at 703 West Crane Street, Howell.

Family Dance Plans Continue

Another meeting has been called to organize a community street dance tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the social hall of Our Lady of Victory church.

At last week's meeting a tentative date, September 30, was set for the dance and suggestions were made that each of the clubs and organizations sponsor a booth of some sort to add to the fun.

The street dance will be a non-profit social event for the entire family. The booths would pay for the musicians that will be hired. Weather permitting, the dance will be held out-of-doors.

A representative from all clubs and organizations in town is asked to attend tonight's meeting.

Table Setting Takes A Touch of Artistry

There's more to setting a table than plunking down a cup, saucer and napkin.

Take it from Mrs. John Burkman, chairman of the table settings division of the September 16 Flowers International show, who this week presents rules and some suggestions for those entering the competition.

Mrs. Burkman has won many blue ribbons for table settings and floral arrangements in past flower shows and was awarded the special purple ribbon for the table setting judged "best of the show" in 1957.

Here's what she has to offer:

In the words of the late Frank Lloyd Wright, "Arranging the table for dining is a great artistic opportunity."

Our tables today with their bright color schemes, unusual, even flamboyant accessories, give us wide scope to express our personality. In fact table setting, instead of being a chore, can present both challenge and fun for the hostess, and a surprise and delight to her guests. Reaction to a colorful table setting is instantaneous and will stimulate conversation and set the pace of the party.

There are a few basic rules which govern tables to be judged.

1. Your table must follow the schedule in your flower show brochure.
2. The cloth or place mats must complement your china and be of suitable texture.
3. The cloth may hang to the floor or overhang the edge of the table twelve to fourteen inches. It should have only one crease and that should be a very light crease in the center of the cloth.

4. Napkins should be folded in a rectangle and placed on the left of the place plate, close to the silver and one inch from the edge of the table. They may also be placed in the center of the place plate with the top corners turned under. The open edge is usually placed to the left.

5. The goblet or glass is placed to the right and above the knife. If wine or cordial glasses are used they are placed below and slightly to the right of the goblet.

6. The cup and saucer should be on the right, with the handle of the cup to the right and parallel to the edge of the table.

7. The bread and butter plate should be on the left (for informal settings), opposite the goblet.

10. The centerpiece of flowers or fruit should be low enough not to obstruct the vision of the guests. It should not take up more than a third of the table length.

11. Candles may be used for dinner table settings and should be high enough to be above the line of vision. The wicks should be charred.

12. For buffet settings the dishes should be placed so that the guests may progress along the table and be conveniently served. The placement of the serving dishes must be balanced.

13. Flat silver is not allowed in judged table settings so the position it would occupy must be taken into consideration in placing napkins and goblets.

Some of the above rules must be waived at the discretion of the judges, to follow the customs of the countries called for in the schedule, where their customs differ from ours.

News Around Northville

Mrs. Donald Harrington

Mrs. Donald Harrington, wife of the late Richard T. Baldwin, former editor and publisher of The Northville Record, visited the newspaper office this past week.

A widow, Mrs. Harrington now lives in Albion — close to the college where she and her first husband, Mr. Baldwin, were graduated shortly after the turn of the Century. She was here as the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Atchison.

While her husband operated the newspaper, Mrs. Harrington contributed a column of interesting news items for women under the title of "Mrs. Editor". She re-read some of those items last week from 1937 issues of The Record.

Now 84, Mrs. Harrington said she is happy to see the newspaper office, even though it has since moved from across Center street, but saddened too. "When you put so much into something, it becomes part of you and you never forget. That's how it is with this paper."

The Record has been published continuously by a succession of men dating back to 1869. The oldest weekly newspaper in Wayne county, it will celebrate its centennial two years from now.

Sister John Elise, visited her family, the John McGuire family of 240 Orchard, from July 28 through the first week of August. She has now returned to Rockwood, Michigan.

A reminder to Northville Senior Citizens club members that the group will attend the Tiger Baseball game this Saturday. The bus leaves the Recreation Building at 12:15.

Sister Lloyd Thomas left last week for Joliet, Illinois after a week's visit with her parents, the Lloyd Phillips of 461 River. Sister David Michael joined her here for a three days' visit last week also.

Mrs. Edna Tremor returned home from St. Mary Hospital, Livonia, last weekend following an appendectomy on Monday, August 7. She is reported in excellent health.

Michael David Pressly leaves August 26 to enroll at Roosevelt Military Academy in Aledo, Illinois. He will be a sophomore.

He will return home for the weekend of September 9 to attend the wedding of his sister, Patricia Pressly, to Thomas Wehman. He will give the bride away.

He is the son of Mrs. William N. Pressly of 413 Ely drive.

Kris Delbert, daughter of the Glenn Deiberts of Napier road, will return for her junior year at the University of Michigan in two weeks to continue her special education major. She has worked as a waitress at Meadowbrook Country Club all summer. Kris was valedictorian of the class of 1965.

Activities center around the Invitational Golf Tournament this weekend at Meadowbrook. The tournament begins today and lasts four days, with the final rounds being played Sunday. Tonight the contestants will be feted at a dinner. Friday night a buffet dinner is scheduled and the annual Invitational dinner dance is planned for Saturday night.

Dianne Wedemeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wedemeyer of Nine Mile road, was president of Asher Women this year at Michigan State University. The group moved into a new house last fall. An identical house was built for Asher Men. Both groups are for Christian Scientist students and are active in service, social and scholastic projects. Dianne is a senior now.

Another Michigan State coed, Janice Mattison, was initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, an honorary organization for women students who earn a 3.5 All-University grade point average. Among the services the group performs are tutoring and encouraging scholastic achievements among new freshmen. Her parents are the Roy Mattisons of 39861 Six Mile road.

Longtime friends, the O. W. Carsons and their son, Carey, of North Dade, Florida visited Mr. and Mrs. William R. Slattery of 46812 Dunsany road last week. The Carsons are the owners of the North Dade Country Club near Miami.

Mrs. Carl H. Johnson of 800 West Main street is in New York City this week on a business trip. She is a gift buyer for the Greyhound Corporation.

Joel Andrew Deisley son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Deisley, Northville has been enrolled at Castle Heights Military Academy at Lebanon, Tennessee for the semester starting in September.

The new cadet has been attending Northville junior high school where he was in the 6th grade.

Mental Health Officials Say

Riot Sparks Heart Warming Aid

Officials at the Department of Mental Health's Detroit area institutions are praising staff, volunteers and patients for their participation in a series of dramatic and heart-warming "happenings" which took place during the Detroit riot emergency.

Warehouse clerks became chief cooks, typists fed retarded children, patients took over staff duties, and volunteers turned out in record numbers — all to replace some of the hundreds of persons unable to report for work. In some institutions during the height of the emergency as many as 75 to 80 per cent of the staff members were absent.

One official termed the past week's activities at his facility "a tremendous cooperative effort;" others spoke of "dedication" and "devotion." Words like "amazed" and "overwhelmed" were repeated frequently. They cited examples such as:

--the Lafayette Clinic warehouse clerk, a former Army cook, who quickly volunteered to be chef for the institution.

--the Northville Hospital social services coordinator and her secretary who stood side by side washing their way through mounds of dirty dishes.

--the 118 volunteers who flocked to Plymouth State Home Monday just 90 minutes after a telephone chain was started to find persons to help feed the noon meal.

--the patients at Northville who asked "What can I do to help?" and were put to work feeding others who were bedridden.

At Detroit's Lafayette Clinic, located on the fringe of the rioting, business executive Anthony Drabik pointed out that though only 20 to 25 per cent of the hospital employees were able to report for work Monday, the nursing staff maintained 75 per cent coverage. Many nurses worked two eight-hour shifts in a row, stayed overnight and began work again in the morning.

Citing others who did "an outstanding job and worked wherever needed," Drabik told of one staffer who came in and singlehandedly prepared breakfast, including special diets, for 100 patients at the institution. The director of computer laboratories became a switchboard operator, and a housekeeper took over three jobs including office manager. One of the clinic's regular drivers risked repeated trips into the riot-ridden area to pick up workers and milk.

John Tallafiero, newly-named coordinator of volunteer services at Northville, found an unexpected source of aid — the patient's themselves. Many came in and volunteered to help wherever needed. Others who have regular work assignments in the hospital reported on schedule and brought friends along to help.

Nurses at Northville also worked double shifts and stayed overnight in order to fill in on days like last Monday when 75 persons, nearly two-thirds of the nursing staff for one shift, were late or unable to report.

Tallafiero also had to tap his lists of volunteers to assist in departments like food service where only 18 of 40 workers appeared for one shift.

Volunteers also played an important role at Plymouth State Home in Northville, community relations director William Boyd reported, Monday, when less than 50 percent of the staff appeared for work, over 100 volunteers from nearby communities rushed to the hospital and kept coming during the next several days. Among members of the emergency volunteer brigade were 32 Felician nuns who reside in a convent near Livonia.

Staff members at Plymouth also received large measures of praise. Nearly all changed their working hours without complaint, Boyd said. For the mid-night shift this meant arriving about 8:00 p.m. to beat the curfew imposed across Detroit and working 10 to 11 hours until the day shift came on duty.

Other staffers did double duty. Typists, social workers, various therapists and housekeepers helped with noon feedings and then stayed on after their working hours to help with evening meals. Others worked three consecutive shifts and gave up days off.

This same type of doubling up and long hours by staff members on the scene helped keep Hawthorn Center operating at a nearly-normal schedule, personnel director Harold Kaufman reported.

Many institution officials are making plans to honor those who helped in the emergency, but as one put it, "We'll never be able to contact everybody."

Scribe's Itchin' to Start

Seventeen-year-old Daryl Holloman, fresh from a summer journalism session at the University of Kansas, is itching to put his newly-acquired knowledge to work on the high school newspaper, The Mustang.

A member of the newspaper staff last year and author of the sports column, "Hoofbeats," the senior was granted a $90 scholarship to help defray expenses at Kansas where he spent June 18 to July 30 studying all phases of journalism — newspaper, TV and radio.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Holloman of Orchard drive, he participated in the special summer journalism program with 150 top high school journalism students from throughout the 50 states.

His classes included advertising, reporting, yearbook, campus publications, photography, radio-TV, editorial writing, feature writing, editing, and press conferences with such prominent figures as Skitch Henderson and Coaches Bob Timmons and Ted Owens.

Besides contributing to The Kamp-er Kansan, a summer publication for participants in the university's Midwest music and art program, Holloman also wrote a sports column for the Summer Session Kansan for college students attending the university during the summer.

In addition to convincing him to pursue a journalistic career, the summer program also convinced Holloman of one other thing: "I'm going to attend Kansas after graduating from Northville."

At Novi High School

Three Vacancies
Still Go Unfilled

The Novi teaching staff is complete except for three remaining vacancies at the high school level, board of education members learned last week.

According to Superintendent Thomas Dale, the only positions remaining to be filled are general science, mathematics, and English-journalism.

(As yet, the 1967-68 master teaching contract has not been resolved. Representatives of the board and the teachers reportedly are nearer agreement, but differences in salary proposals still represent a stumbling block. Also, the superintendent has reported that the salary schedule of custodial personnel has not yet been settled.)

In addition to adopting the 1967-68 school calendar last week, the school board established the following fees:

Kindergarten — $5, plus $2.50 per semester for milk and cookies; elementary — $10 for texts and workbooks; and junior-senior high school — $10 for texts only, with additional costs for workbooks, lab materials, etc.

Contracts for fleet insurance, milk, gasoline and fuel oil were awarded to the following bidders:

Fleet (bus) insurance — Novi Realty, $1,297.90; milk — Bodker Dairy, .057 cents per half pint of white milk in cartons; gasoline — Standard Oil company, 12.95 cents per gallon; and fuel oil — Standard Oil company, 10.54 cents.

Board members also decided to continue school participation in the federal lunch program.

In a report to the board, Superintendent Dale said progress on the new high school addition has slowed because of the shortage of help.

Landfill, Please

underway, that most of the citizenry's objections were aimed at the town hall, the Salem supervisor recalls. Plymouth continued to operate it as best it could, which was neither up to the lawful standard nor up to the people's expectations, Floyd says.

Finally, the engineering, which involved establishing the water level, the ultimate grade level, and estimates of daily, annual and ultimate fill were completed at considerable expense to Hayes. Huge pieces of equipment, including a 30-ton bulldozer, two loaders, a 30-ton compactor, a dump truck, a water tank truck, and two water pumps and a sprayer were purchased and Stromberg was hired. And the landfill was underway.

Weekly, Hayes pays $100 to Salem for inspection of the landfill three or four times a week.

Eventually, complaints started dropping off until today relatively few are lodged against the landfill.

"It's the finest operation around now," says Taylor, who admits as does Stromberg that citizens still occasionally complain. "But when that happens Gunnar always takes care of the problem."

Complaints usually concern rubbish falling from trucks onto the road or private property, damaged roads in the springtime, or smell.

These, says Stromberg, are dealt with quickly. The landfill is sprayed daily to cut down on smell, roads have been repaired by Hayes, water is laid down daily on C'abb road near the landfill to cut down dust, and rubbish is picked up.

Inspectors and Stromberg usually find that rubbish strewn along the roadway has either fallen from vehicles of private citizens on the way to the landfill or by senseless people who purposely dump their trash by the roadside rather than drive to the landfill. "But we pick it up anyway," Stromberg adds. "We want to keep our good public image."

Stromberg has a philosophy peculiar to most landfill operators. "We provide a necessary public service. As long as you have a grocery store you're going to have garbage and you're going to have to have someplace to put it."

"People say they're against landfills because the big cities haul their fill out to their communities. Well, without cities like Detroit where would these communities be? Everyone takes something from the big, central cities but not many want to give anything."

The landfill supervisor agrees that where landfills are operated, citizens deserve the protection of the law. "We want them to want us. That's why we do everything the law says and more here in Salem."

Apparently, Stromberg's words ring true for Salem's township supervisor, who, looking ahead to 1971 worries aloud:

"Where are we going to put our rubbish when this place is filled? Our own people will have to have a place."

Novi Justice Court

Traffic violations took the spotlight in Novi justice court last week before Justice of Peace Emery Jacques.

John C. Hasley of 41010 Malott was fined $30 and $10 costs for speeding 100 MPH in a 70 MPH zone on I-96 between Taft and Beck roads.

DAY

Summer Fun Comes in Colorful Packages

Tri-Wheeler Tops Racers

Three big winners wouldn't satisfy thrill-hungry fans Friday morning as they screamed, laughed and cried their way through the first annual soap box derby sponsored by the Northville Recreation department.

For them a big question mark remained.

So derby officials - who admitted they were as curious as the fans - pitted the three winners in a final, unofficial streak down the track over on Maplewood.

And the three boys and their gleaming racers finished just as suspected: Fred Myer and his three-wheel wind breaker that had won first place in the bearings division crossed the finish line first.

Taking second in the unofficial race was Rick Gotts and his hot car that had grabbed first in the non-bearing class, while close behind in third was David Lemon and the Cadillac of the entire field.

All three were happy winners, however, as Mayor A. M. Allen presented them with trophies for their first-place showing in the bearing, non-bearing and most original construction classes.

The derby was a success from start to finish - marred only by City Manager Frank Ollendorff's test run that opened the colorful event. Ollendorff, taxing the capacity of his borrowed racer, got off to a creeping start but picked up speed quickly. He apparently got tangled in the steering system, however, and flipped over before the car was half-way down the track.

His was the only accident of the entire race that included 18 different heats.

The bearing division winner was determined until the final heat when Fred Myers beat out Jaymie Schrot in a tongue swallowing swish down the hill-side.

In the 17th heat, Rick Gotts bested Dave Fleck and Greg Pello, in that order, to claim top honors in the non-bearing class.

Following is a list of the heats, names of the boys and the positions in which they finished:

1. Greg Pello, first; Steve Rinald, second; and David Lemon, third. (Dave's finish may not have been the fastest, but his racer was the finest built - resulting in the trophy).
2. Mark McDaniel, first, and Richard Searless, second.
3. Gary Winemaster, first, Brian Highway, second.
4. Jaymie Schrot, first, and Dean Hicks, second.
5. Fred Myer, first, and Jim Klaserner, second.
6. Jeff Harwood, first, Kevin Hartshorne, second, and Ken Weiser, third.
7. Kevin Pello, first, B. Hartshorne, second, and Jim White, third.
8. Rick Gotts, first, Steve Baluha, second, and John Klaserner, third.
9. Steve Smith, first, Ed Hammond, second, and Frank Knoth, third.
10. Chris Jones, first, Tim Rushlow, second, and John Leffler, third.
11. Rick Rushlow, first, Jeff Rushlow, second, and Mike Phillips, third.
12. Greg Pello, first, Gary Winemaster, second, and Mark McDaniels, third.
13. Fred Myer, first, and Dean Hicks, second.
14. Rick Gotts, first, and Kevin Pello, second.
15. Dave Fleck, first, and Jeff Harwood, second.
16. Chris Jones, first, Steve Smith, second, and Rick Rushlow, third.
17. Rick Gotts, first, Dave Fleck, second, and Greg Pello, third.
18. Fred Myers, first, and Jaymie Schrot, second.

Novi Schedules Grid Practice

Practice sessions will get underway at 8 a.m. Monday, August 28 for Novi high school football candidates. Coach John Osborne announced this week.

In issuing the call to practice, Osborne reminded candidates that physical examination cards must be in the hands of the coaching staff on or before that date.

No one will be issued equipment, he said, unless the cards are filled out and turned in by that date.

Similar reminders have been given candidates for the Northville varsity, junior varsity and freshmen football teams. Practice begins at the same time for Northville varsity candidates.

EVERYONE WINS-Fun was the biggest prize so everyone came out a winner in last week's pet 'n doll show and the local soap box derby. At top, racers wait for the streak down the track (second from top). Above, fans and participants wait for the parade to start and then, in the next picture, the parade begins. At left, Mayor A. M. Allen congratulates the three top race drivers (l to r) Rick Gotts, Fred Meyer and David Lemon. In the next two pictures top parade participants show fans why they're winners.

Biggest ovation of the 11 a.m. ceremonies was reserved for Donald W. Shelley of Columbia, a pre-medicine graduate who completed his undergraduate work with all "A's", or a perfect 4.0 grade-point ratio. The only other Clemson graduate to accomplish such an honor in the institution's 74-year history was Joseph T. Bailey, a 1959 graduate in ceramic engineering.

Meanwhile, officials of the Novi Rotary Club have firmed up their plans to sponsor a booth in the event and formally open their public park on the First Methodist church property off Grand River near Novi road.

Whoever coined the expression, "those dog days of late summer," probably had someone in mind like Mr. Humphrey, the sourpuss Basset Hound of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, 48114 Rushwood Lake in Echo Valley subdivision. But, believe it or not, the waning weeks of summer fail to dull the activities of this bashful fellow, who romps about Echo Valley subdivision as if he were one of the neighborhood kids on his way to a picnic.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Reverend Lloyd Brasure
First Presbyterian Church of Northville

Here we are way into the middle of August again. The summer hasn't been too warm but it most certainly is moving along, and vacation days for children (and parents fortunate enough to get away for a time) are disappearing too soon. Having returned recently from our annual trek into the northern reaches of the state for a vacation on the shores of ever beautiful Lake Michigan, I reflect upon the wonders of the world around us and find strength and encouragement. Some people don't get away during the summer but travel in other seasons. Whenever the time, most folks realize that a change of pace is good for the body as well as the spirit of mankind. It gives us a chance to consider the world around us that shows man a celestial beauty and an earthly order.

This is a time to call ourselves into the Presence of the Almighty. We need to examine our own soul's true desire, to know our own inner restlessness, to see the fear that grips us in the face of the unexpected, and to seek the realm of confidence and trust. Vacation time or any period of meditation in the sanctuary of man-made temple or God-created woods and water wonderland, should call each one of us to the knowledge that God has for all a life that can be worthwhile. Also, the courage and power that comes from reflection upon the truths of God's world and order, will transfer into the lives of those around us.

When you golf or fish, swim or hike or ride, relax in the sun or read quietly in the shade, or whatever you do to change the pace—do so with Christian purpose: that could be to assume a new stature of spiritual insight and personal purpose to please God and serve one's fellow-being. Freshen and strengthen your Christian discipleship this summer. Gain a new grip on uncertainty and overpower your fears with trust and confidence. "Be strong and of good courage—" is a portion of several Bible verses. Let Christ be your guide, and courage will be yours.

Trades Sales Career For Life of Minister

A former Northville resident, who traded a successful sales career for the ministry, was a guest preacher at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at two morning services Sunday.

He is Mr. Carl Waldeich, who with his wife, Diane, and two daughters, Fawn and Shell, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rathert, 450 Maplewood, during their visit to Northville where two years ago he decided to give up his job with drug company and become a Lutheran Minister.

During the past two years he has been studying for his theological degree at Concordia University in Springfield. He has one year of schooling left before receiving that degree.

He has been serving as a vicar in an Illinois Lutheran Church during the summer. He'll return to Concordia at the end of this month.

It was more than 10 years ago that Mr. Waldeich first began studying for the ministry, finally switching to the sales field. He received a degree in business at Michigan State University, joined a major drug firm, and moved to Northville.

Then in October of 1965, at the age of 33, he gave up this successful position in a decision to become a minister and take up studies he had dropped more than a decade earlier.

'Witnesses' Eye Convention

Mr. C. C. Coonce, and Mr. Victor Szalma, presiding ministers of the Plymouth and South Lyon congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced that the group will attend a four-day district convention in Jackson, Michigan this month.

The gathering is to be held August 24-27 in the Jackson County Fairgrounds and is sponsored for Jehovah's Witnesses by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, N.Y. Attendance is expected to reach 7,500 persons from at least seventeen states and Canada, they stated.

"The convention's theme will revolve around 'disciple-making,'" they said. "The program will feature outstanding Bible discourses and staged, fully costumed dramatizations of Bible events and accounts that are filled with meaning for persons living in these critical times."

The Jackson convention is one in a series of 64 being held by Jehovah's Witnesses this summer in the United States, Canada and Bermuda.

"These assemblies are the yearly highlight in the lives of the local Witnesses," they explained. "We feel that inasmuch as they are patterned along the lines of Biblical assemblies they play a vital role in equipping persons for a service to God in disciple-making even in the difficult days ahead."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Copyright 1967 Kester Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

In every city, there are places that never sleep. Industries, hospitals, police stations, fire stations, churches... yes, churches! Oh, you may drive past one at three in the morning and find the building dark, but the Church is not asleep!

For the Church sets the moral tone of our society and without the concern that the Church injects into our community there would be no hospitals, nor homes for children and the aged, nor even police and fire stations. It was only after people learned to care about each other that they began to provide these services, and His Church has always cared: "As I have loved you, love one another."

Every minute of every day and night, compassionate hands are reaching out to someone in need because the Church is awake to that need.

The Church is made up of people. When you become a part of a church, you have contributed to the continuity of its work which has sustained and refreshed humanity through the centuries. Also, you are helping to perpetuate and strengthen your own faith.

News Around Schoolcraft

Persons taking the general education development test at Schoolcraft college will pay a higher fee, but they'll be able to take the test at a more convenient time, under a new procedure approved by college trustees.

The higher fee of $5 (up from $2.50) will enable the college to administer the tests on a self-supporting basis, according to Dean of Student Affairs Edward V. McNally. The $5 fee is the minimum charge recommended by the National General Education Development Testing service.

At the same time, procedural changes approved by the trustees on McNally's recommendation will schedule the tests on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings instead of during the day on Thursdays and Fridays.

"This change should be more convenient for working people who have had to lose two days' work in order to take the test," McNally said.

Demand for the GED test at Schoolcraft has increased during the past two years. McNally said 124 persons took the test in 1966, against 67 in 1964. The dean said 83 persons had taken the test by June 1 this year.

Under the new procedure, the testing fee would not be applied as a credit against the college admission fee if the test applicant seeks admission to the college. In the past, the $2.50 fee had been deducted from the admissions fee.

GED tests will be given to residents of the college district who meet the age qualification, and to adults who are not district residents but who seek admission to the college, McNally said.

If the test applicant seeks admission to the college he must be 20 at the time classes start. If the applicant does not seek admission to the college, he must be 21 when he takes the test.

The test is also given to adults who are not district residents, but who are seeking Civil Service jobs within the college district, such as with local police and fire departments.

According to McNally, the battery of GED tests will be scheduled once each month. Two of the tests will be given on a Friday night, and the other three will be scheduled for Saturday morning. Average time for the battery of five tests is 10 hours, McNally said.

Applications for the tests should be made to the admissions office at the college.

Minutes of the Northville Board of Education

REGULAR MEETING JULY 10, 1967

Meeting was called to order by the Secretary, Stanley Johnston, at 7:32 P.M. in the Library of the Junior High School Building.

Mr. Johnston was appointed Acting Chairman until new officers could be elected.

Members Present: Mr. Stanley Johnston, Mr. Eugene Cook, Mr. James Kipfer, Mr. Richard Martin, Mr. Robert Froelich, Mr. Glenn E. Delbert, Mr. Andrew Orphan.

Others Present: Mr. Raymond Spear, Acting Superintendent; Mr. Earl Busard, Business Manager.

Visitors Present: (11) See Register. Acting Chairman Johnston declared that a Quorum of the Board was present and directed the Board to proceed with the regular order of business.

Oath of office was administered by Mr. Kipfer to new Board members, Mr. Richard Martin, Mr. Glenn E. Delbert, and Mr. Andrew Orphan. An official welcome was extended to Mr. Martin, Mr. Delbert and Mr. Orphan as members of the Northville Board of Education.

Motion No. 1 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that Mr. Cook be nominated for President of the Board of Education. Motion carried.

There being no further nominations for President, Mr. Cook was declared elected and assumed Chairmanship of the Board.

Mr. Cook expressed a desire to have a Vice President of the Board of Education, who would be empowered to act in the absence of the President.

Motion No. 2 by Mr. Martin, supported by Mr. Delbert, that Mr. Johnston be nominated for Vice President of the Board. Motion carried. A motion by Mr. Orphan to nominate Mr. Martin was withdrawn.

There being no further nominations for Vice President, Mr. Johnston was declared elected.

Motion No. 3 by Mr. Johnston, supported by Mr. Martin, that Mr. Delbert be nominated for Secretary of the Board. Motion carried.

There being no further nominations for Secretary, Mr. Delbert was declared elected.

Motion No. 4 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Delbert, that Mr. Martin be nominated for Treasurer of the Board. Motion carried.

There being no further nominations for Treasurer, Mr. Martin was declared elected.

Motion No. 5 by Mr. Martin, supported by Mr. Johnston, that the official Board of Education meeting for the 1967-68 school year be held on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M. in the Junior High School Library, 405 West Main Street, Northville, Michigan. Motion carried.

Motion No. 6 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that a second meeting be scheduled on the fourth Monday of each month, and is to be known as a "regular special meeting," to be held in the Junior High School Library, 405 West Main Street, Northville, Michigan. Motion carried.

Motion No. 7 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that the agenda be adopted as presented, but that additional items may be added following an executive session to be held later in the meeting. Motion carried.

Motion No. 8 by Mr. Johnston, supported by Mr. Orphan, that the Minutes of June 13, 1967, and June 26, 1967, be approved as published. Motion carried.

Secretary Delbert read a letter from F. M. Thurn and attached resolution calling for a special millage election in August.

Secretary Delbert read a letter from Joel L. Piell of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys, regarding an agreement between the Northville Schools and Mr. Kellogg for granting sewer line easement to the new Junior High School.

Secretary Delbert read a letter from Tyler Realty and Investment Company indicating that they have a Children's Summer Camp for sale in our area.

Letters from Mrs. Dorothy Sjogren and Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr were not read due to the personal nature of the contents.

Secretary Delbert read a letter from State Representative Louis E. Schmidt regarding required days of student attendance and related bearing on state aid to school districts.

Discussion was opened on the merits of adopting the resolution calling for a special millage election at this time. It was pointed out that this would provide a necessary safeguard, because of the time element, to insure a December tax levy in the event additional funds were needed. Mr. Froelich expressed concern that we have not identified a need for additional monies. Mr. Kipfer suggested that we do know financial needs except for teacher salaries. Mr. Orphan indicated that the Board could be criticized if they shut the door on the possible needs, although he does not at this time feel the need for an election.

Motion No. 9 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that the resolution calling for a special election on August 28, 1967, be adopted. Motion carried, with Mr. Froelich registering a "no" vote.

Motion No. 10 by Mr. Froelich, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that Mrs. Dorothy Sjogren be informed that the Northville Public Schools School District does not desire to admit non-resident students on a tuition basis at this time. Motion carried.

Mr. Johnston suggested that a letter be forwarded to Mrs. Sjogren with an appropriate explanation for denying her request and expressing thanks for her compliment to the Northville Public Schools School District.

Motion No. 11 by Mr. Froelich, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that the Administration be authorized to accept the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr as a tuition student for the school year if necessary. Motion carried.

Mr. Spear was requested to draft a statement to cover general Board policy and individual merits of such requests in the future.

Motion No. 12 by Mr. Froelich, supported by Mr. Johnston, that teaching contracts be approved for Miss Diane Cooley, Mr. William Mills, and Mr. Dennis Palmer. Motion carried, with Mr. Martin abstaining.

Motion No. 13 by Mr. Johnston, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that a contract be approved for Mr. Richard Norton as half-time Assistant Junior High School Principal for a period of one year, at a salary of $5000. Motion carried.

Mr. Spear was requested to establish an additional scale for Assistant Junior High School Principal to be appended to the existing Principals' Salary Schedule.

The Board publicly acknowledged the contribution of The Rev. Lloyd Brasure, The Rev. Robert Spradling, and the Rev. Charles Boerger to the Baccalaureate Service; and the contribution of The Rev. S. D. Kinde and The Rev. John Wittstock to the Commencement Program. It was suggested that Mr. Spear and the Administration give consideration to formulating a suitable token of appreciation for routine acknowledgment of such services rendered by members of our community in the future.

Mr. Busard, Business Manager, gave an oral report on the Budget at follows:

GENERAL FUND

and other uncollected revenue (Voc. Education, Remedial Reading, etc.), it was therefore Mr. Busard's opinion that when the audit is complete, it will show the Northville Public Schools with no deficit to carry for 1967-68.

Motion No. 14 by Mr. Johnston, supported by Mr. Martin, that Bill Warrants and Payroll be approved as follows:

General Fund	$505,828.66

	$1,236,262.24

It was recommended by the Board that a list be established which would show remaining jobs to be done with the $3,300,000 Bond Issue, and other items needing attention or consideration, and indicate priorities. Mr. Cook appointed a subcommittee of three members, including Mr. Froelich, Mr. Martin and Mr. Delbert, to review the desired use of the remaining Bond Issue funds not earmarked. This subcommittee is to submit a progress report at a work session scheduled for July 20, 1967, at 7:30 P.M. in the Conference Room of the Superintendent's Office. Any Board member may attend the work session.

Motion No. 15 by Mr. Delbert, supported by Mr. Froelich, that the City be informed that the School District is no longer interested in the purchase of the north portion of the Fish Hatchery property, but that the District is still interested in pursuing potential merits relative to the south portion. Motion carried.

Mr. Spear was authorized to proceed with preliminary grading pursuant to installing a walkway to Moraine School from the west side of Taft Colony.

Mr. Spear gave a brief report on the architect's draft of the walkway to the new Junior High School and was authorized to proceed with securing bids.

Other items, including fencing on Eight Mile Road next to the overpass and other District fencing needs, utilization of the old Junior High School and Boys' Gym, and renovation of the Main Street School will be reviewed along with Mr. Spear's previous recommendations and submitted on the interim report of the subcommittee due at the July 20, 1967, work session. Authorization to obtain cost estimates for these areas of consideration was given.

Motion No. 16 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Froelich, that the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board be authorized to execute a "Preliminary Loan Application" for payment of Bonds due in 1968 in the amount of approximately $122,000. Motion carried.

Motion No. 17 by Mr. Johnston, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that shop equipment in the amount of $22,303.95 for the Junior and Senior High Schools be awarded to Howard and Smith.

Motion No. 18 by Mr. Froelich, supported by Mr. Martin, that the Junior High and Senior High School Furniture Bids for a total of $23,521.35 be awarded as follows:

Mich. School Service	$10,970.10
McFadden Corp.	8,000.75
Superior School Equip.	2,304.00
Classrooms, Inc.	1,840.00
Imperial Equip. Co.	406.50

Motion carried.

At this point in the meeting, Mr. Johnston indicated that he would like the Administration to examine the prospects of restricting student driving on High School premises to permits or other restrictions the Administration might arrive at after an investigation of means to curb student driving at the High School.

10:10 P.M., the Board recessed for an executive session to deal with personal matters not included on the agenda.

Meeting reconvened at 10:40 P.M. Following the recess, the following items were added to the agenda:

1. Status of Business Manager's Contract
2. Lease Status of Present Central Office Building
3. Status of Acting Superintendent's Contract
4. Memo re: NDEA Reimbursement Application
5. Naming of New Junior High School
6. Official Notification to Staff of Central Administration Change.

Motion No. 19 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Froelich, that the Business Manager's contract be reviewed after a period of six months of employment (dating from April 1, 1967) with consideration given to a salary adjustment at that time. Motion carried.

Motion No. 20 by Mr. Martin, supported by Mr. Delbert, that the Acting Superintendent, Mr. Spear, negotiate with the City and Township on a month-to-month basis for the present Central office building, located at 107 South Wing Street, Northville, Michigan. Motion carried.

Motion No. 21 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that a Rider be attached to the Assistant Superintendent's Contract designating Mr. Raymond Spear as Acting Superintendent, effective June 26, 1967, with a salary at the rate of $16,000 per year until not later than December 31, 1967.

Before a vote was called for, the Board recessed for 10 minutes at the request of Mr. Spear to review this motion. Following the recess, a vote was called and the motion carried.

Mr. Cook pointed out that through special dispensation, the NDEA Application for 1965-66 Reimbursement was finally cleared. Appreciation was expressed for the Administration's efforts.

Mr. Cook suggested that consideration be given to the naming of the new Junior High School, in that we will probably have more than one Junior High School in the future, with names being solicited from citizens and students and submitted to the Board by letter. Mr. Orphan and Mr. Johnston were appointed as a committee to review suggestions. August 1 was set as the deadline for selecting a name. An appropriate means of recognition should be established for the winner.

The Board of Education authorized a letter be sent to all employees of the School District, informing them of the appointment of Mr. Spear as Acting Superintendent of the Northville Public Schools.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 11:18 P.M. Glenn E. Delbert

REGULAR SPECIAL MEETING-JULY 24, 1967

The meeting was called to order by President Eugene Cook at 7:33 p.m. in the Library of the Junior High School Building.

Members Present: Mr. Eugene Cook, President; Mr. Glenn Delbert, Secretary; Mr. Richard Martin, Treasurer; Mr. Robert Froelich; Mr. James Kipfer; Mr. Andrew Orphan.

Absent: Mr. Stanley Johnston, Vice President.

Others Present: Mr. Raymond Spear, Acting Superintendent; Mr. Earl Busard, Business Manager;

The President, Mr. Eugene Cook, declared that a quorum was present and directed the Board to proceed with the regular order of business.

Motion No. 26 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Froelich, that the agenda be adopted as amended. Motion carried.

Secretary Glenn Delbert read a Proposed Resolution approved by the Executive Board of the Wayne County Association of School Boards for consideration by the Association at a meeting held on July 27, 1967, which points out the Michigan law governing strikes by public employees and outlines the obligations of school boards under Michigan laws and the recommended collective bargaining policy and procedures to be followed in the event of strikes by school board employees.

Letters of intention to resign from their teaching positions were noted from Miss Andrea Sewell, Mrs. Charlene Lang, and Mrs. Joyce Paradine.

In a discussion of the Proposed Resolution to be considered by the Wayne County Association of School Boards, Mr. Kipfer expressed the feeling that school boards, collectively, concurred in the collective bargaining policy proposed for adoption in the Proposed Resolution. Mr. Delbert indicated some concern that the Proposed Resolution lacked flexibility in the area of collective bargaining.

Motion No. 27 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Martin, that the Proposed Resolution approved by the Executive Board of the Wayne County Association of School Boards for consideration by the Wayne County Association of School Boards be endorsed by the Board of Education of the Northville Public Schools. Motion carried, with Mr. Delbert registering a "no" vote.

Motion No. 28 by Mr. Kipfer, supported by Mr. Froelich, that the resignations of Miss Sewell and Mrs. Lang be accepted on the basis that replacements for them had been secured; and that receipt of the letter of resignation from Mrs. Paradine is acknowledged, subject to the conditions set forth in Mr. Spear's letter of response to Mrs. Paradine. Motion carried.

Motion No. 29 by Mr. Froelich, supported by Mr. Kipfer, that teaching contracts be approved for Mrs. Barbara Fenzl, Mrs. Mariann Zander, Mr. Peter Johnson, and Mrs. Irene Taylor. Motion carried, with Mr. Martin abstaining.

Mr. Spear submitted job specifications for the position of Director of Instruction to replace a vacant position in the Central Office. Mr. Froelich complimented Mr. Spear on his compilation of the job specifications as presented, but raised the question as to whom this person would report, and whether it would be a staff position.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

While the plan may not be feasible, or even legal, the Northville school board deserves an "A" for its effort to acquire school sites from subdividers.

Specifically, the board has asked city and township officials to make it mandatory for subdividers to dedicate school sites within their proposed developments to the school district. It appears that the intent of the board's proposal is that the sites should be free because the subdivisions are responsible for creating the need for new schools.

In theory it sounds fine, but the "dedication requirement" has many ramifications that would make application with any degree of equity near impossible.

The important issue here, however, is that an effort is being made to improve communications — to have one tax-spending arm of the community know what the other is doing.

Board Members Richard Martin and Andrew Orphan carried the appeal directly to township planners last week. In commenting on the need for "being on the ground floor of development" Martin pointed out that the cost of school sites "is sky high by the time we know of the subdivision".

Martin, it appeared, was well aware that the school district might not expect free land dedications, but that it would be happy with half-a-loaf — sites that had not been inflated in price by the presence of development. Orphan further noted that school sites, themselves, enhanced the value of development property and that this should be considered by subdividers.

City and township planners are studying the school board request and, presumably, will make recommendations to their respective elected bodies, the council and board.

Coincidentally, new revisions to the city's subdivision ordinance list among its requirements for approval of a preliminary plat the submission of such plats to the superintendent of schools.

Township Planner Bernard Baldwin pointed to one flaw in the best system of communication. He noted that planners do not learn of the new growth areas where schools will be needed until the subdivider comes in with his proposed plan.

plan. "By that time the property has been sold," he pointed out.

It should be noted, too, that the developer pays a high price for land — far higher than the assessed valuation carried on the tax roll previous to the sale. Thus, when he acquires the acreage it's immediately reassessed and the tax bill hiked in accordance with the value as established by the sale.

Usually, therefore, the developer wastes little time in getting his subdivision underway. And when he's approached to sell off 10 or 20 acres for a school site, he relates his costs to what he's had to pay — not to what many might remember the value of the land as recorded on old assessment rolls.

Therefore, picking school sites for the future becomes something of a guessing game, if the district hopes to make substantial savings. But the best heads of the community's planning commissions can prove helpful in this "game".

So it is hoped that this latest effort by the school board to improve communications proves more lasting than others.

Just as it is important for planners to inform the school board of prospective developments, so is it for the board of education to check with city and township officials before buying sites that may require certain improvements or services not previously budgeted.

To an avid "Cavern" member about the most important project since formation of the local teen club has been the acquisition of their own club headquarters.

They want a "hangout" where they can talk, drink pop, play ping pong or pool and dance on Friday nights.

Last week the board of education answered the need by offering to lease the cafeteria portion of the community building to the Mothers' Club-sponsored Cavern.

Their dances to date have given them operating funds, but to rent and furnish the new club headquarters more money will be needed.

So it's expected that a campaign drive for funds will get underway soon.

Meanwhile, it was refreshing and reassuring to learn that there are things more important to youngsters than their own welfare.

Last Friday they voted to send $200 of their savings to the "Teen Drop-In Center" in Detroit. The "Drop-In", located on Mack near Van Dyke, was burned down by rioters.

Northville's Jaycettes are excited about the "Helping Hand" program. Jaycette President Mrs. Richard Norton won council support for the idea last week when she explained how it worked.

"Hand" posters will be displayed in homes (selected by Jaycettes) throughout the community where children in need of help or information know they can turn for a "helping hand".

Community Receives

Lawmaker's Bouquet

To the Editor:

I want to express my appreciation to your community for the privilege of helping in your efforts to improve one of the most vital facets of public service, better police protection for the areas listed in the following request sent me in mid-April:

"BE IT RESOLVED by the citizens present at the Plymouth Community Leadership Conference of Saturday, April 8, 1967 representing the five communities of — Northville Township, City of Northville, Plymouth Township, City of Plymouth, Canton Township and the Plymouth Community School Board.

"That we request our State Legislators to introduce legislation enabling communities of any class, including mixtures of village, townships, cities and home-rule cities to join in mutual authorities or mutual contracts for the provision of unified police services.

"We have concurrently passed and transmitted to our respective elected boards and commissions, a similar resolution urging them to adopt individual resolutions (also addressed to our legislative representatives) to the same effect.

"As citizens, we wish to have the option for ourselves and other communities within the state of combining in the most efficient manner for the provision of the police protection so badly needed.

"Apparently, present law may not permit a mutual authority or mutual contract among a mixture of unincorporated and incorporated community governments of various classes. The vote was unanimous."

The authority to achieve the very worthy objective you sought has now been enacted and I hope it will be of value to all concerned. Incidentally, this goal of improved services through cooperative endeavor was also envisioned by the framers of our present State Constitution in Section 28 of Article VII as follows:

"The legislature by general law shall authorize two or more counties, townships, cities, villages or districts, or any combination thereof among among other things to enter into contractual undertakings or agreements with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof for the joint administration of any of the functions or powers which each would have the power to perform separately; share the costs and responsibilities of functions and services with one another or with the state or with any combination thereof which each would have the power to perform separately; transfer functions or responsibilities to one another or any combination thereof upon the consent of each unit involved; cooperate with one another and with state government; lend their credit to one another or any combination thereof as provided by law in connection with any authorized publicly owned undertaking."

James Tierney

'Booze Barons'

Get Toasted

To the Editor:

Those misguided men of influence always arguing to give the whiskey stores, party stores, and taverns a place of respectability in society, might try explaining why —

One of the first orders in such crisis as the recent rioting is for these merchants to close their shops. The order usually stands for several hours after the emergency is declared at an end.

We are for the order! There is no evil known to man which does not have beverage alcohol as its major contributor.

Could it be that there would be less rioting if the booze barons stayed closed?!!

to a guardsman who had fainted at the sight of blood.

By Sunday night, it was also apparent that more help was needed. Don Holt, Chicago bureau chief, and Marv Kupfer of Holt's staff whisked into town. Two other photographers were summoned from the East and a fourth was hired locally. Kurshmal had returned pronto on Sunday and Jones came flying in early Monday morning.

"At that point, we were at full battle strength," Kurshmal quipped. Through what he called "a brilliant stroke of genius," Jones had ordered four riot helmets from Chicago a month before, which the reporters donned hastily and began their staggered 24-hour-a-day vigil.

Had Jones fully expected a riot? "He was uneasy," Kurshmal said. "No, the riots were not expected, but Jones wanted to be alert." Furthermore, orders from higher up from the East had warned, "It will be a long, hot summer."

The pace was exhausting for the Newsweek team. They took up quarters at the Sheridan-Cadillac hotel and worked unbroken hours covering the riot. "At two one morning, we met Cavanaugh," Kurshmal said. "He had been up for 43 hours. We were dragging and had been up only 25."

Although crises demanded occasional improvisation, Jones, who shadowed Romney along the campaign trail, covered the political aspect. Dotson, a Negro, changed into old clothes and joined Negroes to get "the inside story." Kurshmal, aside from working headquarters, was the color man, the reporter who adds vivid general details, and Williams, Kupfer, Holt and the photographers roamed the embattled streets. The secretary operated what Kurshmal called "the command post" (the switchboard) round the clock.

Jones actually scooped a raft of reporters by gaining first knowledge of Romney's reaction to LBJ's midnight announcement sending federal troops into action. Jones had the governor's response Wednesday, but hope that Romney would not make his retort public collapsed Monday, before Newsweek hit the streets.

Dotson had the rarest time of all. Siding in with Negro groups, he saw the action "from the other side," as Kurshmal put it. So unusual was that other side that Dotson was given a by-line something rare for Newsweek.

Kurshmal had his moments, too. It was he who spotted the sign on one Negro establishment, "Very, very, very Black," (a variation of "Soul Brother") that was included in the wrap-up story, and he was there with a photographer and Kupfer when national guardsmen shot up the car bearing four unarmed Negroes, Kurshmal's reaction: "I was disgusted, nauseated."

The wrap-up story which appeared in last week's issue began shaping up Wednesday, when the first copy was wired to New York. The Newsweek staff collaborated and by late Saturday night, the normal deadline, the story had taken final form. Lines were held open until Sunday, however, for last-minute statistics and sudden new developments. Sunday night, one week after the first spark had ignited, the story was put to bed.

It was Jerry Hartman of South Lyon, I guess, who first torpedoed my image of principals.

Until he came along, these select guys and gals were old foggies who early in life had married a textbook and seldom, if ever, divorced themselves from the academic world. They'd closet themselves in their little cubbyholes, ponder only big problems and occasionally sally forth to administer justice wrapped around wooden sticks.

They were old, leathery and mean.

But then Jerry came along, older than I but not decrepit, leathery but not impenetrable, and mean but only when pointing an arrow at a deer.

More than that, he showed me that principals have a human side, have common, ordinary frailties, and are prone to worry, laugh and cry like all of us. Since then, many other principals have come along and displayed similar attributes.

Now comes my kid brother, the crew-cut, former college half-back off whose head I used to bounce green apples while daring him to carry his troubles to mother. Next month he becomes principal of an elementary school in a district where I once wrestled unsuccessfully with arithmetic.

A couple weeks back he asked me to meet him at the school.

"I've got a few problems," he said in handing out the invitation, "that I thought you might be able to help me with."

Imagine! My little brother (he's really not little anymore) wants me to help him resolve one of those weighty academic problems facing the principal. He need not look any further... his problems are solved — so long as they don't involve mathematics, I thought, building up my ego.

So after a lengthy tour of empty classrooms, he took me to his office where we were to discuss his problems. His "biggest problem" came first and, waiting enthusiastically, I was ready to field it with the finesse of a college professor.

"Do you think the teachers' toilet should have a fan?" he asked.

A long pause followed as I tried convincing myself that I'd misunderstood the question. Certainly, a matter of this kind was not one a principal would consider, and certainly, after earning himself a master's degree and a few hours toward a doctorate, he had tougher problems to which he could apply this training.

"Did you say 'toilet fan'?" I asked disbelievingly.

"Well, yes, but it's not only the fan, but the related problem of disguising the door to the john."

Pause.

"I'm speechless, Dick, to think that you would reserve such an important problem for me. But why all this concern about a toilet?"

Whereupon, brother Dick launched into a dissertation on how he would like to move his secretary's desk from an adjoining library to make more room for reading students. To do so obviously meant moving her into part of the teachers' lounge, located next to his own office, thus cutting down the size of the teachers' relaxation quarters.

A new principal fearing such a move might alienate the teachers, Dick sought ways of showing teachers he had a genuine concern for them. He and his wife had repainted the interior of the lounge, purchased a reading lamp, and did a few other little things to the room to make it more pleasant.

Now he wondered, because of the reduced size of the lounge if a fan would be appropriate in the adjacent, little restroom.

Or should he scrap the entire project and put his secretary, whom he had yet to meet, back into the library?

"Well, Dick," I said, "that's really not a problem. But I think you've missed one. Putting your secretary in the lounge area where she can 'spy' on teachers for you is a real sore spot."

"She's not going to spy."

"Yes, but can teachers be certain she won't? By the way, where is the men's lounge?"

"We've been talking about it. Men and women use the same lounge ... the same john."

"You mean if I'm a teacher I've got to walk past a woman to get into that john ... and then come out of there and wash my hands in that sink in front of everyone?"

"Yes, it's always been that way in this school."

"Ya, but look, you've shoved the teachers into an even smaller area. Why, they're so close to that sink now they'll get splashed just sitting there. How about a partition?"

"I've been thinking about that but it's expensive ... besides I don't think there's room. Gosh, Jack, I've done everything else I could to make it nice.

I put in a coffee pot ... they didn't have that before. I've rearranged the furniture a dozen times. You've got to consider the kids. That library space is valuable for their education."

"As I see it," I said finally, "you're sitting on a timebomb that's set to go off with the opening of school. Why not move your secretary into your office?"

"There's not enough room. I've already cut it in half to make a conference room. Where'd she sit in there?"

"Ever thought of your lap?"

"Thanks, brother, you're a big help."

"Well, what can I say? I'm here to solve those big academic problems you principals have. I'm not a plumber."

"Okay. Try this one on for size: Should the library space be enlarged?"

"You asked it, now answer it," I said, leaving. "I'm a newspaper man, not a principal."

LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

Lurid orange and yellow flames engulfed the skeleton building as two Negroes, one wearing a classic porkpie hat, stood silhouetted in the foreground, two burning ingots from the hearth of Detroit's violence. Slugged "Battlefield, U.S.A.", this was the recent blazing cover of Newsweek magazine.

Inside, bloody color prints were sandwiched between a cauterizing story, detailed and accurate, that told the grim tale of the most devastating riot in this nation's history. Upstaging the sweeping riot roundup, adding that rate personal touch — for Newsweek magazine — was John Dotson's poignant narrative of his experience with rebelling Negroes. In the business section, a cogent report spelled out the financial impact.

Within the short space of 11 compact pages, Newsweek had wrapped up a pulsating story that overlooked nothing. The Detroit maelstrom was The Story of the week, and Newsweek had done the job — anonymously, of course. But how? Had they ghosted it, letting the Detroit dailies do the leg work while Newsweek writers, with the exception of Dotson, sat securely at home?

Perhaps most people know better, but one question still hangs unanswered: just how had Newsweek apparently scooped other weekly magazines, especially with graphic and gory photographs? Larry Kurshmal of the Detroit bureau had the answer and anxiously imparted how an 11-man team of reporters, photographers and a secretary covered Detroit's riots.

Let's go back where all stories begin — at the beginning. "When the riots broke out," Kurshmal said, "we were spread all over the globe." Kurshmal, himself, was up north on vacation in Michigan. Bureau Chief Jim Jones was fishing in Florida. Bill Richards was ironically with the national guard at the Eighth army and Dotson was at home.

Early Sunday morning Richards was alerted through his guard unit. Dotson got a call from Negro friends. Although early reports were haphazard, the two bureau staffers were alert, as is the newsman's wont. In the absence of Jones, Dotson called the shots, Kurshmal said.

"By Sunday night," he said, "it had become quite obvious that we had to get color art, which must precede the story, because processing is time consuming." Bill Clark, a local professional photographer, was called and Monday the first batch of 1,500 pictures was on its way to New York.

According to Kurshmal, the cover page picture was a product of luck, as he claimed were many of the pictures, including the sequence showing the dying Negro, shirt soaked in blood, lying next

Michigan Mirror

School Superintendent—'Man in Middle'

LANSING — Thankless. Demanding. Pressure. These words describe what is probably the most difficult job category in the state: school superintendent. It seems clearly predictable that fewer and fewer competent men will accept this job, regardless of the salary, unless something changes. And no changes are in sight to improve the situation.

Responsibility and authority to administer school policies as defined by

Roger Babson

Don't Invite Burglary

BABSON PARK, Mass. — Whether in the city or in the suburbs, people are a lot more likely nowadays to be victimized by burglars than ever before. So it is only sensible to know how best to avoid this disturbing—and often costly—circumstance. And to know, if it should happen, what to do to help recover lost possessions.

Police experts on burglary pretty much agree that carelessness in locking doors and windows makes an easy in for housebreakers, most of whom are likely to be amateurs. The old adage that any burglar who wants to get in will find a way is not taken too seriously by most students of the way of thieves. If entrance is made difficult, chances are that the average felon will keep looking until he finds a house or an apartment that is an obvious easy mark.

the school board rested in the hands of the school superintendent until recently. The trend now is for him to have responsibility as previously, but less and less authority.

What is bringing about the change? Several things, all developing at nearly the same time. The financial bind, which has always existed to some degree, is getting much worse. Parent groups, at least in some areas, are becoming more vocal and demanding.

A generation ago students were expected to mind the teacher, right or wrong. Today's student accepts no such idea and is apt to go on strike to change things as he thinks they should be.

Demands of society are increasing. A school must now provide better and more expensive education if students are to be trained for desirable jobs or for institutions of higher learning. TEACHERS are now "unionized."

The Michigan Education Association, which was once an organization of "professional" people, was stimulated into militancy by competing teacher organizations which demanded higher pay and better conditions. It now exerts as much pressure on school superintendents as does any union.

Principals are organizing too. They have their ideas of what should be expected of them and how much they should be paid for their services.

State and federal governments make more and more demands and requirements. These range from setting minimums of standard performance for schools to laws about the way the school can be operated.

As the "man in the middle," the superintendent gets pressure from all sides. Boards, public, students, teachers, principals, government. More and more superintendents or potential superintendents are saying, "No thanks."

The total number of school districts decreases steadily. It now stands at 790, reduced from almost twice that number three years ago.

LAST YEAR 93 superintendents' jobs changed hands. By July 1 this year, 52 more changes had been made. The MSU Placement Bureau listed 34 openings.

This astounding turnover emphasizes the problem. The "impossible position" in which the superintendent finds himself causes more of them to retire early, ask for reassignment as principals or teachers, or to leave the school system for other administrative jobs. At the same time, fewer and fewer young men want to put up with the pressure and are unwilling to prepare themselves for the difficult responsibilities.

"Appreciate the Superintendent Day" might be a good idea. In many smaller communities, the school is the biggest industry. In all communities it is one of the most important.

Wise school boards and thoughtful citizens will develop a new appreciation for the problems of the school superintendent and stimulate this appreciation in others.

The alternative is to see more and more capable men abandon the field beaten down by too much pressure; frustrated from too many problems; hamstrung by too much responsibility with too little authority; exhausted from too many demands on their time.

This leaves the community with still another demanding problem: what will happen to the school system?

A small office, one desk, three file cabinets and two chairs constitute the state office of the United Spanish War Veterans. Only 10 members attended last year's annual state convention.

There are less than 9,000 veterans of the War of '98 still alive; about 200 of them reside in Michigan. The average age of these veterans is 90.

Royal S. Peters, manager of the state facility, remembers when the organization was a moving force in the nation.

His time is now spent on visits to hospitalized Spanish War veterans, publishing a communications piece six times a year and "trying to hold things together."

ENTIRELY STATE SUPPORTED the organization operates on a slim $14,000 per year. All expenses must be paid from this amount including a secretary, Peters' salary, travel expenses, office upkeep and miscellaneous.

The state is broken into "camps" but each year the number grows fewer. The National Encampment, held in Lansing in 1963, listed a total of 44 camps in the state, a drop of two in one year. State membership was given at 451, a loss of 103 over the previous year.

The Michigan association was chartered in 1904, although originally organized in 1900.

moving into a new house or apartment, it is definitely advisable to have the locks changed; same is applicable when maids or other domestics are replaced, especially if theirs was short-term or temporary tenure. Any police officer will advise altering locks in a newly rented apartment, and this is only common sense in a high-rise where strangers constantly move about.

Windows create somewhat of a problem, since they can often be smashed and a simple catch released. In crowded cities metal grilles are frequently attached either inside or outside the panes. While locked inside grilles are a better guard against burglary than those that can be pried off from the outside, they present a serious hazard for residents in case of fire. Many fire departments have strong ideas on this, and reportedly some big-city departments are testing out window locks that are both safe and burglar-resistant. Night lights are a good idea when a home is to be left vacant; and cooperation of neighbors is helpful.

EVEN WITH the utmost precaution, robberies do take place. Authorities make it clear that they will be grateful if the victims do not put things in order after a place is ransacked. This makes it next to impossible to find the clues that most often lead to capture of a thief and recovery of the stolen goods. Insurance companies should be notified at once and provided with details on all valuable articles known to be missing. Both police and insurance agents are constantly appalled by people's inability to identify stolen goods. Insurers are urged to keep serial numbers of costly appliances. Women should note the furrier's mark on the skins in a luxurious fur coat, since any identification is likely to have been ripped off. In the case of expensive jewelry and such items as sculpture and paintings, color photographs should be taken and put in a secure place such as a safe-deposit box. It is wise, in fact, to keep notations of all valuables together in such a repository. This will do away with the vague descriptions and forgotten details that are so discouraging to police and insurance men.

Final reminder: Police officials insist that there is an excellent chance of successfully solving a burglary... if they are summoned immediately and if everything in the rifled home is left strictly as is until they have completed their inspection.

Here's Reminders From Schoolcraft

As more than 3,000 packets of registration material for the fall term went into the mail last week, Schoolcraft College Registrar Norman E. Dunn issued a last-minute word of advice to all students who have been admitted to the college and who are planning to enroll.

"Students who do not receive their packet by Friday, August 18, should contact the Registrar's Office at once," Dunn said.

The Registrar explained that while his advice was intended for all students: freshmen, sophomores, day or evening, "we are particularly interested in those sophomore students who have not yet been counseled."

The deadline for counseling, Dunn explained, is Wednesday, August 23. Students who have been accepted for admission but who have not been counseled should contact the Counseling Office at the college for an appointment.

Dunn also announced another deadline for the registration period.

"Evening students who intend to register by mail must return a completed registration form and a tuition check no later than August 21," Dunn said. "Returns postmarked after midnight, August 21, will not be processed, and the student will have to register in person at the college."

The registration packet mailed to day students contains five items: an instruction sheet, a schedule of classes, a registration appointment slip, a car registration card, and - for male students - Selective Service information.

Registration at the college is August 28 through 30. Classes for the fall term start Thursday, August 31. Those who fail to register during the regular period will be charged a late registration fee, Dunn said.

College officials are expecting a record enrollment of about 4,000 for the 16-week term which ends December 21.

Enrollment procedures for persons who want to improve their job skills by taking evening courses at Schoolcraft college this fall have been announced by Director of Admissions Barbara Geil.

A number of evening courses are available to residents of the college district who are interested in job-upgrading instruction but who don't plan to enroll formally in the college.

According to Miss Geil, these students should come to the Admissions Office in the Office of Student Affairs during the 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. evening program registration period, August 28 through 30.

They will complete the necessary forms and receive registration information, at this time, she said.

HIKE TO SURPRISE-Mark Gazlay, 16, and Mike Conley, 17, set off on a hiking adventure to "surprise" early Sunday morning. Carrying only a minimum of essentials, the boys plan to hike to beyond the Straits, but they declined to pinpoint the destination saying only that "if we make it your jaw will drop five inches." They estimate it will take them about three weeks to make where ever they're going. To condition themselves for the trip, which means sleeping in the open, the two Northville highschoolers tramped more than 100 miles about the community with their packs loaded with bricks. Mark's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fran Gazlay of 221 South Rogers, and Mike's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Conley of 302 Orchard Drive.

FIRE CALL-Northville firemen were kept busy this past weekend, battling this attic fire at the corner of Maxwell and Five Mile roads, an overheated television set at Northville Pizzeria on Saturday, and grass fires at 8 Mile and Novi road on Sunday and near Seven Mile and Northville roads on Monday.
