

Special Easter Services Mark End of Holy Week

Holy Week in area churches will climax this weekend with traditional sunrise services, many to be followed by breakfasts, and Easter Sunday sermons with music that include the inspirational theme, "He Is Risen."

Seven area Protestant churches will participate in three Good Friday union services at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The First Baptist churches of Northville, Novi and Wixom have scheduled a joint Good Friday service at 1:30 p.m. at Novi Baptist church, Eleven Mile and Taft roads, with Pastor Robert Spradling of the Northville church bringing the message.

Northville First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches will hold a combined Good Friday service from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. at the Methodist church with the Reverend Lloyd Brasure of the First Presbyterian church speaking on "That Man on the Cross." The offering is to be given to the King's Daughters for local charities.

Novi Methodist church will hold a union Good Friday service at 1:30 p.m. with Willowbrook Community church at the Methodist church. Both the Reverend R. A. Mitchinson and the Reverend A. V. Norris will participate.

An outdoor sunrise service at 7 a.m. Easter Sunday morning in Cass Benton park near the baseball field is planned by the Northville First Baptist church. This is to be followed by a breakfast at 8 a.m. at the Aunt Jemima pancake house in Wixom. Pastor Robert Spradling will bring the Easter message at 11 a.m. worship service. An Easter cantata by the church choir will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Entitled, "Hallelujah, What A Savior," by John Peterson, the cantata will be directed by Richard Rowe, Dewey Gardner, church minister of music, has announced.

A sunrise service at 7 a.m. also will be held Easter morning by the Northville Methodist church. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will be in charge with a portion of the service being "A Dialogue on Easter Dawn." The Methodist Men's club will serve Easter breakfast from 7:45 to 8:15 a.m.

"The Deeper Meaning of Easter" will be the Reverend S. D. Kinde's topic at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services. There also will be a 7:30 p.m. Communion on Maundy Thursday.

Northville First Presbyterian church has scheduled a 7 a.m. Easter sunrise service in the form of a series of playlets performed by the 11th and 12th grade classes under Mrs. George Weiss, entitled "Eyes Upon the Cross." Jane Jerome will narrate the dramatization, which is planned as "a bridge to cross the chasm between tradition and today's terminology." The playlets also were to be performed at the church White Breakfast Wednesday.

The junior high group of the church will serve a continental breakfast at the church following the sunrise service. At 9:30 and 11 a.m. services the Reverend Brasure will speak on "The Resurrection." The Bell Ringers will play at the services. Leslieanne Brasure and Sarah Hornar will present special organ music before and after the services. A Communion service is scheduled for 8 p.m. Maundy Thursday.

An Easter Festival service is planned at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Northville, the Reverend Charles F. Boerger announced. Both the junior and senior choirs are to provide special music of the season for these services.

A light Easter breakfast will be Continued on Page 8-A

Annual Egg Hunt Scheduled Saturday

The annual hunt for Easter eggs, sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, will be staged Saturday morning on the high school athletic field beginning at 10 a.m. sharp.

According to Jaycee Chairman Dennis Dildy, he and fellow members are bracing themselves for an expected invasion of the army of youngsters that in past years has climbed up over the 200 mark.

This year, he said, the hunt will be limited to children from pre-school age through the sixth grade, and the hunt itself will be conducted in stages to permit the younger children to start searching first.

In addition to hundreds of eggs, the Jaycees will offer 50 prizes for youngsters finding specially marked eggs and a single "grand prize" of a giant stuffed animal. Prizes have been donated by merchants, Dildy said.

Giving the Jaycees a special hand in supervising the hunt will be members of the Jaycee auxiliary and several high school students.

School Valuation Up $8 Million

An increase of approximately $8 million in the equalized valuation of the Northville school district appears likely this year based upon assessment figures and estimates of municipalities within the district.

The school district valuation may increase from $43 million to $51 million.

Unofficial figures of the city of Northville and that portion of Novi in the Northville school system, which are expected to stand up with the county assessing office, show assessment increases of $961,360 and $813,000, respectively.

That part of the school district within Northville township (excludes that part within the Plymouth school district, or about 1/10th of the township) is expected to increase by about $5.5 million.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam reports that the new township valuation is $21,421,710 in real property and $4,688,830 in personal property for a total of $26,110,540. This total includes property in both the Northville and Plymouth school districts.

If the assessment of Lyon and Salem townships, located within the Northville school district, increases by the usual six-percent, assessments are expected to jump by $21,000 in Lyon and $824,750 in Salem.

If indeed the $8 million is eventually verified by the county, the Northville school system can expect a tax increase of more than $260,000 based on the school's current 32.9 millage levy. However, it should be noted that as the district's valuation increases its state aid decreases.

Ford Holds City's Top Assessment

Forty-five percent of all taxes paid in the city of Northville are derived from business and industry, according to unofficial assessment statistics disclosed this week by City Manager Frank Ollendorff.

This percentage surprised even the manager who, like many residents of the community, had guessed that residential taxpayers accounted for considerably more than 55-percent of the taxes.

The manager noted that 34.7 percent of the city taxes are paid by 20 industrial and business establishments in the community. Nearly 20-percent of them are paid by two taxpayers—Ford Motor company and the Northville Downs (the latter includes the Driving Club and leased property). These percentages are based upon property assessments (real and personal).

Ford Motor accounts for $2,229,010 of the city's total 1968 assessment of $19,873,540 or 14.7-percent. The Downs' assessment is $1,015,340 or 5.1-percent of the total.

Most of the assessment increase, the manager explained, results from increases in personal property (inventory, machinery, etc.). He estimated that only about 1-percent of $200,000 of the total assessed value of the city resulted from reassessment of real property.

Of the total assessment increase of $961,360, approximately $550,000 is in personal property, he said.

Although Northville's assessment may be slightly less than 50-percent of the true cash value of the property here, it is probably "not too far out of line with the county's three year average," Ollendorff said. Because it is so close, he explained, the county is expected to accept the city's 1968 assessment figures and apply no factor this year.

The top 20 taxpayers and their 1968 assessments are:

Ford Motor company, $2,929,010; Northville Downs, $1,015,340; Detroit Edison company, $482,060; Foundry Flask & Equipment company, $458,000; Consumers Power company, $232,570; Kroger company, $191,520; Thompson-Brown company (includes vacant property only), $173,280;

Fairbrook Apartments, $163,530; Manufacturers National Bank, $132,380; John Mac Ford, $131,110; Northville Lanes, $129,460; Anger Manufacturing, $108,280; Eastlawn Convalescent Home, $104,810; Northville Laboratories, $101,710; A & P, $101,330.

Runaway School Bus Crashes into House

An empty, runaway school bus plowed through a utility pole and snow fence, streaked across Center street at the high school entrance, leaped a high embankment, and crashed into a house early Tuesday morning.

But for the fact that the usual heavy traffic to the school had not yet begun, the bizarre accident might have been disastrous.

As it was, no one was struck or injured, the house was damaged to the tune of about $1,000, and the bus was only slightly damaged.

The accident so upset the bus driver, Mrs. Norma Richardson, she was excused from her regular morning run.

According to police and school officials, Mrs. Richardson had driven the 14,000 pound bus to the drive directly in front of the flag pole at the high school, parked it and got out to make her regular pre-run safety checks, including tires, lights, blinkers, etc.

One Seat Open In Township

Nominating petitions for the office of township trustee are now available, Northville Township Clerk Ely Hammond has announced.

Up for election at the August 6 primary will be the post of James Tellam, who has not yet decided if he will seek re-election. Tellam is a Republican.

Petitions for Allan Maltby of 15930 Marilyn, also a Republican, are already being circulated. Deadline for filing of petitions is June 18.

The regular election will occur at the same time as the Presidential election on November 5.

Vacation Begins

Northville and Novi school districts both will recess at the close of classes today (Thursday) for Easter vacation, administration officials have announced. School will resume at the regular hours Monday, April 22.

She turned on the heater, left the bus running, and returned to the school garage to wait for the 1963 bus to

School Board Petitions Ready

With nominating petitions now available, one of two Northville school board members has indicated that he probably will seek re-election.

Board President Eugene Cook told The Record Monday that "as things stand now I probably will take out nominating petitions." Trustee James Kipfer, the other board member whose term expires in June, said he is still undecided as to whether or not he will seek re-election.

Nominating petitions for the two four-year posts are now available at the board of education office. Deadline for filing the petitions is May 13. Petitions must have not less than 20 nor more than 25 signatures.

The final date for registering for the election is May 10.

Kipfer has been a member longer than any other member, first coming to office in 1960. He is serving his third consecutive term, having won re-election in 1964. Cook was elected to a four-year term in 1964.

It's Most Colorful Record Edition

This edition of The Record-Now! News sets a record for color. There's more of it than ever carried before in a single publication, and there's a first in four-color reproduction.

The four-color photograph is the first such local picture ever to appear in The Record-News. Four-color process photos have appeared in past editions, but they were reproductions of objects, such as Easter eggs or warm up.

Apparently, officials explain, she neglected to engage the emergency brake. "It was an apparent oversight, one of those things that might happen to any of us," said Business Manager Earl Busard.

Unseen by anyone at about 6:55 a.m. the bus started rolling east, down the steep high school drive, picking up speed as it went. About half-way down the drive, it left the roadway, snapped through utility pole and flattened a section of the snow fence lining the drive.

By the time the bus reached Center, it reached an estimated speed of about 40 MPH, "leaping" the four-foot embankment in front of the S. C. Benton home, 776 North Center, and crashing into the front of their concrete block house.

Mr. Benton was in the bedroom, Mrs. Benton in the kitchen when the accident occurred. They reportedly heard only a "slight bump" before discovering the bus in their front yard and several caved-in blocks of the house.

Had the bus traveled a few feet south, it probably would have demolished three cars parked in the drive and perhaps plowed through a breezeway between the house and garage.

Color is also used on page 1-A and 10-A, 4-B, on four pages of Focus, and in a special advertising supplement.

RUMMAGE SALES—or, if you will, next-to-new or garage sales, are being discovered anew by antique-hunters, toy-seeking children and mothers of large families—and thus are becoming a better-than-ever way for clubs to raise money.

Last Friday and Saturday the American Legion auxiliary sponsored a rummage sale at the Legion home. Members found that the "sell out" was the toy department, with old dolls especially popular. Books also were high on the browsing list... and among the dishes and appliances were old pottery crocks that antique collectors fill with everything from geraniums to ice cubes.

NORTHVILLE MOTHERS' club already is making preparations for its sale set for Saturday, May 4. As an added attraction, it will be held in the newly decorated West Main street quarters of Cavern, the teen club sponsored by Mothers' club.

The sale will provide the public an opportunity to see what the Cavern youngsters have accomplished on a budget, with lots of work and with volunteer help from interested adults. The former junior high cafeteria now resembles an old English tavern with dark-stained rough cedar beams half-timbered on cream walls.

In addition to clothes, toys and dishes the sale will have a section of antiques and of consignment items. Mrs. William Wiley and Mrs. Karin Johnson are co-chairmen of the barn sale. Working on the committee are Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Blake Couse, Mrs. E. O. Weber and Mrs. Harold Wright.

Incidentally, the "barn sale" theme was chosen to carry out the rustic atmosphere of the Cavern... and is being used on the reminder posters made last week by Mrs. Wright and other committee members.

Presbyterian women already have the date set for their early-fall rummage and clothing sale to be held September 27 and 28 at the church.

THE VFW Ladies Auxiliary is planning a rummage sale April 19 at the VFW headquarters at 438 South Main street starting at the bright-and-early hour of 8:30 a.m. and running until 3 p.m.

KING'S DAUGHTERS will hold their annual benefit luncheon and bazaar from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Thursday, April 25, at Northville First Methodist church.

Mrs. Douglas Bolton, general chairman, points out that this is the group's one big money-raising project that provides funds for King's Daughter welfare work and aid to the children's hospital in Ann Arbor.

Co-chairman is Mrs. Harold Marks with Mrs. Donald Ware in charge of dining room arrangements.

Mrs. Ware and her committee announce that they plan to cater especially to teachers and businessmen with limited lunch hours. If such groups make advance reservation, she said, they will try to accommodate them as soon as they arrive. Tickets are available from Mrs. W. H. Canfield or Mrs. C. Harold Bloom or any K.D. member. The menu will feature homemade pie desserts.

TOWN HALL will complete its seventh Northville season next Thursday, April 18, when composer-lyricist Richard Adler talks about musical comedy. He will be introduced by Miss Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator for the Northville schools.

Hostesses for the 11 a.m. program at the P & A theatre will be Mrs. C. Harold Bloom, Mrs. Donald Ware and Mrs. Donald Boor, chairman.

Hostesses for the celebrity luncheon, which again will be at Meadowbrook country club following the lecture, will be Mrs. H. O. Evans, Mrs. Gordon Forrer, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Hiram Pacific and Mrs. Donald Hannabarger, chairman.

Mrs. Robert Brueck, retiring TH chairman, will introduce Town Hall officers for next season.

CALENDAR
April 11 — Rotary travelogue, 8 p.m. high school.
April 12 — Good Friday. No school in Northville-Novl until April 22.
April 16 — Historical society, 8 p.m., 571 Randolph.
April 18 — Town Hall, 11 a.m., P & A theatre.

St. Paul's Sets Registration

Registration for kindergarten and grades one through eight for the fall term will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Christian Day school on Friday, April 26, between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m.

If parents are unable to come in, they may call the school office (349-2868) for information and an appointment, officials note.

If any parents are interested in a Christian education for their children, they are encouraged to contact the school office for more information.

Police Report Area Citizens Observe Curfew

Area citizens were praised by law enforcement agencies for the cooperation that resulted in a quiet and peaceful weekend in Northville, Novi, and Wixom.

While most citizens were affected to some extent by provisions of the curfew, officials in the area reported an extremely low frequency of law enforcement incidents.

Only one arrest under the firearms provision of the Governor's proclamation was made in Northville Saturday night. It was associated with larceny from a Northville service station and not with any threat of civil disturbance.

Odus White of Westland was apprehended at the Clark Service Station at 510 South Main street when police answered a report that someone was loading items on a truck about 11:30 Saturday night. White was arrested and charged with violation of the proclamation when a loaded 12-gauge shotgun was found behind the seat of his truck. He was also charged with attempting to steal 13 bags of ice cubes, a can used for filling radiators, and a battery-water jug.

All area police agencies worked extra hours and pressed additional men and cars into service.

Boundaries caused some confusion about implementing the proclamation in Novi. Police Chief Lee BeGole said his force carried out the bar closing order shortly after 11 p.m. Friday night. However, liquor was sold in Walled Lake, just beyond the boundary, which produced some traffic through Novi Friday evening.

"We made no arrests, but we issued many warnings about the curfew and sent people home," BeGole said.

BeGole and Northville Police Chief Samuel Elkins reported that Saturday night was extremely quiet. With all Novi police and firemen on duty, BeGole said that they took advantage of the assembly to practice communications and tactics among the two agencies.

Wixom also had complications with the 14-Mile road (Pontiac Trail) boundary. Chief D'Arcy Young remained on duty around the clock over the weekend to carry out terms of the proclamation. One wedding could not be held at the Union Hall and special permission had to be obtained to permit the Wixom city council to meet, but Young said that there was a general spirit of cooperation despite the disruption of routine.

Easter Seal Collection Climbs to $737 Here

By last week Northville had contributed $737 to the current Easter Seal society campaign of Western Wayne county being conducted March 1 through Easter Sunday, April 14.

A total of $415 has been collected to date through the general mail campaign of Easter seals. An additional $322 was collected through special letters. Not included in this total were those funds collected through the lily sale here last weekend.

By the fifth report in the campaign, April 4, a total of $33,527 had been collected in Western Wayne county.

LAST OF THE great Linden trees that lined Linden street in Northville lies across the pavement after it was felled by Monday's strong wind.

Wind Topples Last Linden

The last of the Linden trees on Linden street was removed from the scene last Monday.

It crashed to earth early last Monday afternoon, falling across the street and tearing limbs from a tree on the opposite side as it fell. It was quickly cut up by a city crew equipped with a chain saw to clear the street in the 200 block of Linden just off Dunlap street.

According to Edmund Yerkes, the tree was wounded by a bolt of lightning several years ago, which might have weakened it to where it could not withstand the force of the wind that swept through the area Monday.

Yerkes, who lives at the corner of Dunlap and Linden, was walking on the sidewalk near the tree when it fell. He said that he had adequate warning and observed the fall as the towering tree fell away from him, falling almost in a straight line across the street.

Novi Man to Show Book Collection

A Novi man, Dr. George E. F. Brewer, will participate in "Detroiters Collect", an exhibition of books and manuscripts from private collections in the metropolitan area, April 19 to May 18, in the Detroit Public Library.

During March in Northville Township

Building Hits 1.5 Million

Permits for a total building valuation of nearly $1.5 million were issued during the month of March, the Northville township board was told last week.

The 20 permits netted the township $2,216 in fees.

Most of the building valuation involved the Smokler company's multiple housing development on Seven Mile road.

Altogether, building department fees for construction, violations, permits and registrations for electric, heating, gas, and plumbing work totalled $3,127.

In addition, $456.45 was paid into the township treasury during the month for dog licenses, dump permits, board of appeal hearing, rezoning request, re-payment of fire calls, and zoning books and maps.

In the water and sewer account, the township collected $238,204.18 - most of which ($184,065) resulted from a security deposit from Thompson-Brown company for its Northville Commons development. In addition, Thompson-Brown paid $26,810.58 in inspection fees for this development.

Concerning Thompson-Brown's security deposit, the board voted to release a refund of $49,680 of the $184,065 security deposit for work completed and reviewed by the township's engineers.

In other action last week, the board authorized installation of a "safety pilot" in a pressure reducing valve between the Wayne County Children's Development Center at a cost of $535; approved $7.50 fees for temporary disconnection and for rehook-up of water meters; and voted to install new meters for nine property owners along Five Mile road, charging only $44.15 for each meter and nothing for the installation.

Concerning the application for a new permit by the A. M. Thompson gravel mining operation on West Seven Mile road, the board adopted an amending resolution clarifying a position that unit fees (not renewal request fees) apply only to new operations. However, the board reserved the right to review the present escrow agreement with Thompson relative to monies for reclamation of the property.

Township Supervisor R. D. Merriam was instructed to inform property owners along the Huff drain near Seven Mile and Clement roads that any cost of cleaning the drain must be borne fully by the property owners.

Tabled until more quotations have been received was the question of a life insurance and sick leave compensation program for township employees.

NEWS BRIEFS

Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, nationwide violence followed by a curfew affecting Wayne county and part of Oakland county, peace overtures from Hanoi, and indications that Vice-President Hubert Humphrey will seek the Democratic presidential nomination marked major news events this past week as the Detroit newspaper strike approached the 150-day figure.

Dr. King, killed by a gunshot in Memphis, was buried Tuesday as the nation mourned his tragic death.

Hanoi, which earlier indicated it was willing to talk peace with the United States, preferred Phnom Penh, Cambodia as the site for peace talks. Finally, it appeared certain Tuesday that Humphrey would seek the Democratic nomination, joining two other political hopefuls, Senators McCarthy and Kennedy, in a battle for the nomination.

The count stood at 39 dead and 33 missing Monday as weary searchers sifted the rubble of the explosion and fire that wrecked almost two city blocks in downtown Richmond, Virginia on Sunday. State police said the blast erupted in the basement of the Marting Arms company sporting goods store where a stock of gunpowder was held for sale to hunters and skeet shooters.

The Soviet Union launched an automatic space station toward the moon Sunday, touching off wide-spread speculation that the craft might be intended to circle the moon and return to earth as a trailblazer for a manned flight.

A brigade of the United States Air Cavalry Division relieved the Marines who had been weathering an enemy siege since January in Khe Sanh, New enemy activity was reported along the cross-country highway leading from the A Shau Valley near Laos to Hue.

Canada's Liberal party choice of Pierre Elliott Trudeau, a 46-year-old bachelor with a left-wing background, was generally well received despite misgivings of some old-line politicians.

South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Van Loc has signed a decree extending the draft age to men of 40 and recalling older veterans to military service in the first step in President Nguyen Van Thieu's general mobilization.

Scotland's Jim Clark, two-time world auto racing champion and winner of the Indianapolis 500 in 1965 died when his car cracked up in the fifth of a 25-lap race at Hockenheim, Germany. Clark's Lotus Ford broke through a fence lining the track and crashed into a tree after flipping several times. Doctors said he probably was killed instantly after suffering a compound skull fracture and a broken neck.

In honor of the visit the post is planning a breakfast at 9 a.m., Saturday, April 20 at the South Main street post at which time Commander Scerra is expected to address the group.

World Trip Takes Month

Back from his fifth trip around the world is Clifford D. Hill, Northville attorney.

Hill returned this week from a month-long journey that included stops in Alaska, Tokyo, Taipei, Hong-kong, Bangkok, Chong Mei, Karachi, Cairo, Rome, Vienna, Frankfurt and Amsterdam.

In Tokyo he visited Merle Clarke, brother of A. R. Clarke of Northville. Merle is a civilian employee of the air force in the field of education.

"We've only received four or five calls from persons interested in participating in a golf league," Prom said, "and if we don't get any more response we'll have to drop the whole project."

The director had hoped to start a men's league as well as a women's league, playing at a nearby golf course. Interested persons are urged to call him at FT 9-2287.

The final Saturday gymnasium class was conducted last Saturday and the gym program is not expected to resume again until next fall.

Two weeks ago in the regional meet at Eastern Michigan, the Mustangs picked up sixth-place honors in competition with 51 teams. In winning seventh-place last weekend, they battled 68 teams from throughout the state.

"Our guys were not out there just to run," declared the coach, "they were determined to win."

He cited Al Earhart's anchor position competition in the mile relay in which Northville finished in sixth place with a clocking of 3:39.8. "He ran the 440 like a 100 yard dash, pushing himself so hard that he could hardly take another step at the finish."

Big guns in the competition were Ron Gloetznor's first place in the pole vault event and the shuttle-hurdle relay team, which also took first after its disappointing disqualification at Ypsilanti two weeks ago.

Gloetznor duplicated his 13-foot vault at EMU in winning his first-place trophy at MSU.

Jim Peterson, Barry Campbell, Randy Simpson and Gloetznor matched a Spartan Relay record in turning in a 29.5 time in the shuttle relay. The Mustangs, each of whom was awarded a trophy, share the record with Romulus which first set the record in 1966.

Peterson fell short of his six foot high jump at EMU, sailing over the bar at MSU at 5' 10" for fifth place. The winning jump was 6' 1".

Northville's two-mile relay team, made up of Paul Bedford, Greg Marshall, Phil Kennedy and Bill Harrison, chopped nine seconds off its showing at EMU and finished sixth in the Spartan Relay with time of 8:35.

Also finishing sixth was the mile relay, which includes Earhart, Marshall, Harrison and Kennedy.

Bill McDermid, who wanted to break the school record (48' 7"), finished in the top 10 but fell short of his shot put at EMU. His put went to 46' 9" —three inches short of his EMU mark.

Redmond said Northville picked up a total of 10 1/2 points at East Lansing. He explained that Northville garnered fewer points at East Lansing than at EMU because of a scoring difference. Points were awarded for first through eighth place at EMU and only through the top five places at MSU.

Last year Northville took 25th place at East Lansing with 1 1/2 points.

Tuesday's meet with Brighton was cancelled, so this afternoon's triangular competition here with Brighton and South Lyon, beginning at 4 p.m., will be the first regular season competition for the thinclads.

A 1965 model car, stripped of wheels and tires, resting in a field off 10 Mile road, east of Taft, was recovered by Novi police early Thursday morning. Ownership of the vehicle was traced to a Redford township man. The car was stolen early Wednesday evening.

Novi police released the vehicle to a towing service dispatched by the Redford owner, after examining the vehicle for fingerprints.

A GROWING PINE tree "fence" along the rear boundary of the new Ida B. Cooke junior high school is admired by Earl Busard, Northville school district business manager, this week. The pine trees were the gift of Nolan Brown of Walled Lake whose grandchildren are students of the Northville schools and whose daughter-in-law, Mrs. Richard Brown, is a leader of Girl Scout Cadet Troop 371 which meets at the junior high. With Boy Scouts of Troop 755 they dug the 47 trees last Saturday and re-planted them along the 300-foot stretch. So efficient were the youngsters that the conservation project was completed long before the anticipated 3 p.m. "quitting time."

Ray Pippins, Minister
Church of Christ, South Lyon

"You can't play the game Without the rules"

Whether it's a woman baking a cake, a contractor building a house, a lawyer arguing a case, or boys playing marbles, we have to go by the rules. We accept the fact there are rules, patterns, recipes, or blueprints for everything that we do constructive.

In fact life would bog down if we didn't have standards to live by. The wheels of industry would stop without a formula and standards of manufacturing practice. Commerce and trade would cease if we didn't have laws, treaties, and monetary standards. The courts of law would close if there were no legal precedents or judicial regulations. There could be no games, businesses, municipal organizations, and very little else if we did not have recognized and duly constituted authority by which these things could function.

Likewise there must be authority in religion as well. Conflicts in religion arise from different sources of authority. There must be the divine standard to which we can appeal in deciding our religious activities.

God has given us that standard or rule of religion in the commands of His Son. The religious leaders of Jesus day asked Him - "By what authority doest thou these things?" (Matt. 21:23) God's answer is clear, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye Him". (Matt. 17:5) All authority in heaven and earth has been given to Christ. He has commanded that, all nations be taught, that they be baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: Taught to observe all thing He has commanded; and He would be with us always even unto the end of the world. (Matt. 28:18-20).

The commands of Jesus are therefore the authority in religion. His word alone must be the eternal criterion of faith. The apostles of Christ recorded his will for us in the New Testament; it's pages contain the commands of the Master. Paul writes: "Now we have received not the spirit of this world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual". (1 Cor. 2:12-13)

The revealed will of God must be our sole authority in religion. We must not add to, or subtract from His divine revelation (2 John 9) We will be judged by the things written in the book (Rev. 20:12). Our Lord plainly says, "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day" (John 12:48).

Christ has not given to anyone the authority to change the rules. Man does not have the right to govern himself in matters of religion. Jeremiah said, "I know O Lord, the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. (Jer. 10:23) There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof is the ways of death. (Prov. 14:12) God closes his rule book with this warning: "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the prophecy of this book, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things that are written in this book (Rev. 22:18,19). How about you? Are you playing by the rules?"

HALLELUJAH

Eddie was the smallest one in the choir today. He stood at the end of the front row, stretched tall as he could, and sang with his whole heart.

I looked up at his round freckled boy-face and wondered what he was thinking as the Easter anthem rose in crescendo and blessed the April air. Were his thoughts on chocolate bunnies and rainbow-colored eggs, or on the stirring story he was singing—"He is not here, but is risen"?

Of one thing I am certain. When he is grown and thinks of Eastertide back home, it won't be the candy eggs and Easter baskets he'll remember; but the smell of lilies at the chancel rail, the joy of joining his voice to a Hallelujah chorus.

Give your child a lifetime gift. Celebrate special Sundays and every Sunday by going to your church and taking him with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Out of THE PAST

Five Years Ago...

...The Northville Presbyterian church announced plans to expand its Christian education facilities with the addition of a 9,000 square foot unit. The new $120,000 addition, a two-story structure, measured 44 feet by 102 feet and provided 16 classrooms.

...Northville school board members gave unanimous approval to a preliminary 1963-64 budget that, for the first time in the district's history, predicted expenditures over the $1 million mark. The budget called for expenditure increases of more than $80,000 and a deficit of just over $8,000.

...The first official minutes of the Northville township board were published in The Record.

...Plans calling for the relocation of Northville's municipal headquarters from its present city hall to temporary quarters at 122 North Wing street were approved by the council.

...Joe Spagnuolo returned to Northville after catching an 82-pound amberjack off Miami Beach. It was the top entry in the Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament.

Ten Years Ago...

...Novi's fight to stop dumping operations on a farm near Willowbrook subdivision was dropped after a circuit court judge told board members they would have little chance of winning.

...Old wounds were opened at Novi's annual meeting when two township officials came under fire for allegedly failing to carry out the township's best interests. Township Attorney Anthony Renne was fired by a vote of those present, but board members later agreed that the action was illegal and would not stand. A similar move to replace Building Inspector Harold Ackley failed to pass.

Leon Dochot and Miss Eugenie Choquet, who sought Renne's expulsion, charged that he had failed to fight for Novi's interests in two cases: an annexation suit against Northville which Renne settled out of court, and a current fight to prevent dumping on a farm near Willowbrook.

...Wixom's planning commission approved the village's new zoning ordinance and set April 25 as the date for a public hearing. Herbert Abrams, chairman of the planning commission, sought to forego a planning commission public hearing in favor of a single hearing by the council. But Village President Joseph Stadnik held that two hearings should be set.

Fifteen Years Ago...

...Assessed valuation of all land parcels in Northville township in excess of four acres was increased 50 percent by the Wayne county tax commission. Aggregate increase for the township was $558,000 bringing the total assessed valuation for 1953 township, county and school taxes to $6,578,000 compared with $6,020,000 the previous year.

...Two thugs who mercilessly tortured and robbed 94-year-old Peter Wall of Griswold street on February 23 pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery unarmed April 15 in Wayne county circuit court.

...Speedy action to alleviate the serious parking situation in Northville was urged upon the village commission by the Northville Retail Merchant's association. Merchants protested the long delay by the council since the planning commission had presented a comprehensive off-street parking program to it the previous summer.

...Newly installed officers of the VFW Post 4012 were Stanley Myers, Arthur Ash, Glenn Gerrard (commander), Barnaby Bird, Robert Dearling, Bud Baker, Lawrence McArthur, Floyd Kupsky, Arthur Carlson, Wilfred Throop, Clayton Myers, Milton Weeks, Frank Light and John Shanks.

...Newly elected officers of the North West Wayne Ministers association included the Rev. Harold F. Fredsell of the Northville Presbyterian church as president.

...Chosen to start in Northville's first baseball game against Holly were: German, fielder; Rutenbar, third base; Robinson, catcher; Stalker, shortstop; Campbell, first base; Pottinger, second base; Gray, first base; Niven, fielder; Kremkow, pitcher; Stover, pitcher; Gunsell, catcher; Heaton, shortstop or second base; and Myers, shortstop.

...Listed as American Heroes in The Record were these three servicemen: Archie Lester Niles, Howard Niles, and Norman Niles.

...Elmer E. Perrin, head of Northville's civilian defense, was congratulated on the excellent work done in Northville.

...Northville school children set the pace for the 13 Billion War Bond Drive in the community with sales at the school totalling $4,540.10.

Sixty-Five Years Ago...

...A severe storm of lightning, thunder, rain and hail swept over the country Saturday and got in its work in Northville and vicinity with telling effect. Among the damage was the new iron bridge on South Center street, which was wrecked to an extent that would take some hundreds of dollars to make good.

...Twas a predicament Representative F. S. Neal was in, when, as president of the Eastern Michigan Press club, he was leading the party through the administration building at St. Louis, and brought them before the genial director of works, Isaac S. Taylor, who had general charge of the scenic effects and disposition of everything on the grounds. Neal, Record publisher, was chairman of the House ways and means committee and in that capacity had to pass upon the appropriation for Michigan's exposition exhibit and building. Taylor, unaware of that fact, told of the magnificent buildings other states were to have and appealed to Neal to use his influence for a generous sum for Michigan, asking him if he did not think the occasion one for the exercise of liberality. "In my position," said Neal, "it would not do to express an opinion."

...R. H. Porter, Northville's up to date telephone man, gave the high school physics class an illustrated lecture on the practical workings of the telephone.

Plan Fluoride Program Here

The Wayne county department of health topical fluoride program will start in the Northville school district soon after Easter vacation.

Envelopes have been distributed to all the eligible parochial and public school children in kindergarten, second, fifth and eighth grades. Four appointments will be necessary and the total cost is $4 per child. These four appointments will be administered at each school set-up, during school hours.

If the program should not be completed during school session, then it will continue through June, until all the children are finished.

According to the health department, many people are of the opinion that when fluoride is added to the drinking water, children will no longer need the topical fluoride applications. "This is not true because children who drink fluoridated water from birth will benefit far more than those who do not begin drinking fluoridated water until they are 5 or 6 years or older. Children in this age group, and older, should have regular topical fluoride applications for the next 5 to 8 years to give their teeth the most effective weapon against tooth decay."

The eighth grader has 28 permanent teeth and he is especially in need of the protection against dental decay which fluoride provides, the department explains.

U.S. Air Forces, Thailand - Airman First Class James Suszek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Suszek of 45310 Ten Mile road has been recognized for helping his unit, the 388th Tactical Fighter Wing at Korat Royal Thai AFB, Thailand, earn its second U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award (AFOUA).

Airman Suszek, a munitions specialist in the 388th, will wear a distinctive service ribbon as a permanent decoration.

The unit was cited for achieving an exceptionally meritorious rating for its destruction of important enemy facilities and lines of communication in North Vietnam to greatly reduce the enemy's capability to conduct insurgency operations against free world forces.

During the period of the award, July 1966 through June 1967, the 388th, which flies F-105 Thunderchiefs in Southeast Asia, logged more than 22,500 combat sorties, totaling more than 54,000 combat flying hours.

The unit received its first AFOUA for raids on the Hanoi petroleum storage area on June 29 and 30, 1966.

The airman, a graduate of Northville high school, attended Schoolcraft college.

Specialist 4 Merl R. Meadows, a former Northville student now serving in Vietnam, 40 miles from the DMZ, recently expressed his indignation over anti-war talk in the United States.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Meadows, the infantryman indicated that its tough to watch buddies die, "one by one", while back home people carry signs, fight the draft and fail to recognize the freedom for which the soldiers are dying. His comments are "kind of strong, but that's the general feeling here," he said.

Meadows' brother, Mark, is serving in Korea and another brother, Richard, recently completed a tour of duty with the army tank corps.

Bell Starts Installation Of Switching Complex

The Western Electric company is beginning in Plymouth the largest single equipment installation project ever undertaken for the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Western Electric, the manufacturing and supply unit for the Bell System, is starting to build a huge switching complex in the newly constructed, "blast resistant" building adjacent to the Michigan Bell central office at 1360 Ann Arbor road near Sheldon.

For the next year or more, upwards of 200 Western Electric people under the supervision of Melvin A. Green, project supervisor for Western, will be assembling a telephone switching center.

John Peard, Michigan Bell manager here, said the new $12 million facility, known as a 4-A office in the telephone business, will provide faster, more efficient long distance service for the southeastern area of the state.

Peard said the Plymouth 4-A office will augment facilities in downtown Detroit in the routing of incoming and outgoing long distance calls.

When completed, the new Plymouth switching system will handle long distance calling for an area that extends from downriver communities north into Oakland county and from west Detroit exchanges to a point beyond Ann Arbor.

By taking some of the burden off the Detroit 4-A office, the Plymouth switching center will provide customers throughout southeastern Michigan with improved long distance service.

The Plymouth 4-A office will become a part of the nationwide communications network.

Plans for the new Plymouth facility were announced last year after studies showed a need for an additional switching center. In recent years, there have been significant annual increases in long distance calling.

Michigan Bell's engineers began developing plans and specifications for the new 4-A office in 1966. These involved the purchase of land and detailed specifications for the building, equipment and the millions of conductor feet of cable that will radiate to other area telephone offices.

Architectural design of the building was by Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates, Inc., of Detroit.

Construction of the three-story building is nearing completion. Workmen are now putting the finishing touches to the windowless structure. The general contractor is Darin and Armstrong, Inc., of Detroit.

Orders for the equipment were placed as long as 18 months ago by Michigan Bell engineers. Western Electric has manufactured the equipment. Some of it already has arrived. Other components will be arriving almost daily.

During the next year, Western Electric installers and foreman from throughout the Midwest will bring 11-foot frames and pieces of intricate switching equipment into the building.

When the installation work reaches its peak, probably sometime this summer, approximately 200 Western Electric people will be working in the Plymouth 4-A Office, according to Green, the project supervisor. The job will be completed sometime next year. Then, Western men will test the new system and turn it over to Michigan Bell.

Meanwhile, Michigan Bell has named Robert E. Morrison to the newly-created position of Plymouth district plant manager. Morrison is helping to coordinate work on the new Plymouth facility.

Morrison recently returned to Michigan Bell from Western Electric. He was on loan for five years to Western Electric. He worked in New York City and Washington, D.C. on complex switching systems for the United States government's communications network.

While the new building has been under construction, Michigan Bell construction crews have been pulling cable through underground conduit throughout the area. Also existing cable is being converted to carrier systems and Michigan Bell has been arranging for new T-1 carrier systems. Carrier systems enable two pairs of wires to carry either 12 or 24 conversations simultaneously.

Other Michigan Bell employees have been going to school to learn how to operate and maintain the 4-A office once it is working. One class was held in Wayne. Two more classes are now in session in Farmington.

Instructors are now teaching local switchmen about a new electronic translator system with an associated stored program control. This new system will do the actual routing of calls in microseconds (millionths of a second). This compares with the milliseconds (thousandths of a second) required to switch calls by existing system, which helped bring customer-dialed, long distance calling.

The new electronic translator system permits improvement maintenance procedures. Also, the system has a larger capacity for growth and expansion than earlier 4-A systems.

The new Plymouth facility will be phased into operation. Area Telephone offices will be linked to the switching system gradually to avoid interruptions in long distance calling.

Morrison expects that between 50 and 60 plant employees will be working here to service the new 4-A office.

Another phase of activity, scheduled to begin in 1970, is the gradual buildup of the staff of telephone operators, in addition to the 240 operators and supervisors currently employed, others will be required to operate 124 new traffic service "positions."

The new operator "positions" will feature cordless, pushbutton-operated consoles that will greatly speed the handling of person-to-person, credit card and collect calls.

Customers will dial these special calls themselves. While the equipment is automatically making the connections, operators will come on the lines to assist customers and to get necessary information.

The company estimates that eventually 250 additional operators and supervisors will be needed to handle long distance traffic through the Plymouth office.

By the early 1970s, the number of employees in the new 4-A office is expected to reach 600. These people will be in addition to the 619 now employed by Michigan Bell in Plymouth and the 700 Western Electric employees, who work at Western's distributing center at 909 North Sheldon.

THIS VIEW of new Plymouth long distance center shows structural use of concrete in the "blast resistant," windowless building.

THIS PHOTOGRAPH shows the interior of the new long distance switching center in Plymouth. Equipment will occupy most of the building's 91,000 square feet of space.

Distribute New Directories

Distribution of the new 1968 telephone directories began here Tuesday, April 2.

Included in the distribution are 325,000 West and Downriver directories which will go to subscribers in 42 local communities. It will take two weeks or more for the distribution to be completed.

The new format for emergency numbers on the inside front cover which features emblems associated with an emergency has proved a success, John Peard, Michigan Bell manager, said.

Parents again are urged to fill in their respective telephone numbers opposite these emblems — such as a flame for the fire department, a shield for police, a star for sheriff and state police — and point out this page to their children to familiarize them with the symbolic emergency numbers.

The current distribution of the Detroit directory marks 90 years of its publication. The first printing, in 1878, listed 124 subscribers and their addresses, but not their phone numbers. Calls were placed by giving the operator the name of the person being called.

Telephone customers who need one or both of the other two area white pages directories — North and East — may obtain them by calling the local Michigan Bell business office.

THIS ARCHITECT'S rendering shows how Michigan Bell's new Plymouth 4-A office will appear when fully landscaped. The new $12 million long distance switching center (at right) will augment present facilities in downtown Detroit, which now serve the southeastern area of the state. In left foreground is Michigan Bell's telephone central office at 1360 Ann Arbor road.

CONSTANT PLANNING

DOLLAR STRETCHER

Before you build a new home, you'd be wise to consult a Consumers Power "Dollar Stretcher." Or have your builder consult him. He's the man who can advise you, free of charge, about saving money by proper planning of utilities services in your home. He can show you how, by planning ahead, you can economize on home heating, water heating, air conditioning.

Consumers Power consultants are out working every day, helping homeowners, architects, engineers and contractors to plan for the best economies in building homes and institutional, commercial and industrial buildings. It's part of our business as energy experts.

We do another kind of planning that affects your pocketbook, too. Planning to keep our rates down. In the face of continuing inflation, that's not easy, because all of our costs are rising, too. Add to that our increasing taxes — local, state and federal — and you'll see that we have to plan constantly to find new ways to keep rates low.

(Speaking of taxes, did you know that in 1967 alone Consumers Power paid more than $80-million in taxes? That's enough to build 12 modern public schools.)

Constant planning. It's a way of life at Consumers Power.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Recently I received a letter from Dr. L. W. Snow, who expects to sell his Florida home and return to Northville later this month.

He sent clippings from The Tampa Tribune that concern a campaign being conducted in Broward county, Florida by Dr. David Lehman. Dr. Snow, who is gathering more information on the program, believes it would be an excellent project for Northville and suggests it might be sponsored under the Optimist club's Youth Program and perhaps in conjunction with Judge Philip Ogilvie's probation department.

Dr. Lehman calls the campaign "Project Alert". It employs the weapon of knowledge to crack down on teenage drug use. He claims that 40 per cent of the secondary students in the Broward school system now use or have used some form of drug illegally.

"Project Alert" has enjoyed phenomenal success. It has reached between 30,000 and 35,000 students, some 3,000 parents and numerous civic clubs. For the students it provides a fact-packed six-hour course on the actual problems of drug abuse, alcohol, and sex experimentation. For parents the program stresses the incidence of drug abuse, recognition of symptoms of drug usage, and the problems that drug use can create.

Dr. Lehman became concerned and deeply interested in the matter through talking to his teenage daughter and hearing about the availability of drugs at school and the amount of knowledge and misinformation she had on the subjects of drugs, sex and alcohol. He studied the problem, created a file, then asked the local medical association to endorse an educational effort to wipe out drug abuse in schools.

Since this beginning the doctor has become totally involved in the program. Pressure from the medical community and parents prompted the school board to acknowledge the problem and endorse the educational program. Dr. Lehman talks to any group that will listen. He points out that the program is based on absolute honesty... "you can't lie to a teenager or you're dead."

He doesn't tell students not to use drugs. Instead, they are told just what drugs are and what they do. The fact that the information comes from practicing physicians appears to have some impact on the students. Dr. Lehman reports. Attorneys also cooperate by outlining the possible legal consequences of drug abuse, but again with the same ground rules.

The program is too new to have established any statistics. But Dr. Lehman is enthusiastic about its acceptance by both parents and students. The former are now aware of symptoms of drug abuse, and the students know that parents and teachers are capable of recognizing these symptoms.

Also the program has brought the problem out into the open, where previously there was reluctance on the part of school and police officials to admit to its existence.

The involvement of professionals in the program holds special appeal. Too often, it would seem, our doctors and lawyers are reluctant to take part in such programs of education and preventative action, somehow feeling their role in life is to heal conditions and solve situations after the fact.

Hits Rates For Water

To the Editor:

In writing this letter, I do not expect to find any solution to a problem, but at least to confirm what I believe many people in this town already feel.

Ever since the advent of Detroit water to most of Northville, we have been billed for such outrageous amounts of money, we are beginning to wonder if it is only water we are receiving, or indeed, is it some rare and valuable liquid one could hardly afford even to drink?

A few weeks ago there was mention on the news of the rates of water being raised by small towns. This is being done at a considerable profit to the city governments - the people, or customers, having absolutely no alternative but to pay whatever rate they choose to assess.

Is it possible that the city of Northville needs to have its rates investigated, the same as other cities' rates are being investigated?

We are a large family, and have need of the use of a lot of water. Our last water bill was in the amount of $33, and is not the highest bill we have had since the new rates.

In comparing this amount with a neighbor family of only four, we found that their bill for the same period was only $7 less.

I think it is time the people of Northville question this matter, and possibly ask for an explanation, if not for an investigation.

Thank you,
Mrs. E. Coreoran

themselves on the matter of open housing. It was right and just that our neighbor to the northeast of us, Birmingham, Michigan, adopted open housing as part of that community's way of life.

Three or four years ago I was privileged to have been an officer of the Northville Human Relations Council. A series of meetings were held at which speakers from nearby universities led discussions on open housing and related matters. As a resident of Northville I was glad to have felt that the general feeling among those who participated in those discussions was one of concern for the protection of basic human rights for all citizens.

Within several miles of Northville there are a number of institutions

(City, County, and State) which employ hundreds upon hundreds of Afro-Americans. Many of them are doctors, nurses, social workers, and psychiatric aides who, some day, will want to live near their place of work and give up having to drive half a hundred miles a day. Many of them have made it their life's career to work with the mentally ill, the mentally retarded, and with those who are handicapped in other ways. As a resident of Northville I welcome them. As your neighbor I ask that you join with me in offering them what in our society is rightly theirs - an opportunity to work and live where they will.

Cordially,

Wants Negro Teachers

To the Editor:

Recently I read your "Readers Speak" column and agreed wholeheartedly with the suggestion concerning the addition of Negro teachers to the Northville school system. Today I read an article condemning the idea because of Negro teenage prejudices in Detroit in the Forties. To this man I am probably a young "whipper-snapper" because I feel that he is a hypocrite. How can anyone accuse another man of being prejudiced while he himself is?

Racism and prejudices are not instincts born in man but two of the many bad traits that can be formed in childhood. I feel Northville students cannot afford this possibility if we are to live as human beings in the world about us. As a student I wish that the word Negro had more meaning than what we learn in Northville. Without any real experience we can become prejudiced by reading letters as presented in the paper today. I hope Northville isn't as prejudiced as exemplified in that letter and I hope in the future we may have Negro teachers teaching in our school.

Discrimination Kills King

To the Editor:

Ervin A. Sedlow's reason for not hiring negro teachers is an outright racist's declaration of an age old problem. It is this type of racial discrimination that kill Nobel prize winners and decays the very heart of our country's founding principles.

Black men and white men are defending this nation to protect the principles that make this country great. I feel that it is about time that persons like Sedlow should begin to help the situation, not by blind racial sarcasm, but by an understanding of our fellow American through non-violence.

Therefore, I think Northville's school system should hire negroes, as they would any teacher, if they meet the academic standards. This is only fair if this is a free and democratic land.

Yours truly,
Richard Van Ee

Year-Round
Idea Opposed

To the Editor:

I would like to comment on the year-round school concept. I believe I am speaking on behalf of students all about us when I say the year-round program should not become a reality here.

It is my opinion that students and teachers should be free to have a vacation because the students and teachers are very busy and entitled to some relaxation.

If year-round school becomes a reality the student will not learn anymore at school. He probably will become lazy and bored and even rebel against it.

But, on the other hand, I can understand why taxpayers would want such a program. It would save the taxpayer money by keeping the school open. The school is just sitting there; it is not being used. It is just being wasted.

In conclusion, I believe we should have a summer program which would be for that student who is interested in learning more in his free time.
Diana Folino

Some of my best friends are bigots.

They come in all sizes, shapes and sex but only one color. They are church and unchurched. They hold jobs in government, schools, business and industry. They are professionals, skilled and unskilled. And they live in Northville, Novi and Wixom.

Some of my favorite clubs and organizations are bigots.

They come in all sizes but only one color. They have beautiful charters, noble purposes and worthwhile projects. They are religious and non-religious, civic-minded and social. Their members are men and women from all walks of life. And they exist in Northville, Novi and Wixom.

Some of the clergymen in our three communities are bigots.

They, too, come in all sizes and shapes but only one color. They preach Salvation, the miracle and meaning of the Risen Christ. They baptize, confirm and bury their members. And they pray for peace and brotherhood.

All of the governments of Northville, Novi and Wixom are bigots.

They are small, efficient and they govern only one color. They provide services, pass laws and enforce them, and they prepare for the future development of our communities.

Like some of my best friends, favorite organizations, some of our clergymen and our governments, I AM a bigot.

The circumstances aren't exactly realistic and the setting is glamorized, but "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" is a movie that valiantly probes a delicate subject and comes off with a surprising winning smile.

The story concerns itself with a young, exuberant white girl, Joanna Drayton (Katharine Houghton), who meets a Negro, Dr. John Prentice (Sidney Poitier), in Hawaii. Less than two weeks later, airborne on the wings of impatient love, they confront their parents with their intentions to marry.

Unrealism, which nagged this viewer, entered the picture when the two lovers pressure their parents into making a decision in one day. The reason seems insubstantial. Dr. Prentice, a world renowned and gifted doctor, must attend a business conference out east, then fly to Geneva, where his fiancée is to meet and marry him.

Although the story is air-tight and makes a convincing show of the need for an immediate parental decision, still the grave social implications of the marriage of white girl to black man dictate a careful decision, not to be reached in 24 hours. The same applies to unmixed marriages.

The plush set also contributes somewhat to this unreal atmosphere. It's composed of frothy stuff, straight out of a Doris Day-Rock Hudson flick. Joanna's parents are well-heeled, he as the publisher of a west coast newspaper and she as an art dealer. Clearly, money removes the story from the ordinary.

Despite these narrative cracks, however, William Rose's story weighs heavily on the conscience, for it treats a controversial, taboo subject with surprising candor - the marriage of black and white, which, in something like 18 states, is still a violation of state statute. The screenplay might just earn Rose an Academy award.

We are bigots-not because we espouse the hate and separatism that exists in our society-but because we condone it or ignore it and do not speak out against it.

At our bridge parties, in our clubs, and at work we listen to foul-mouthed racist jokes and even laugh at them rather than risk a friendship. We are silently remorseful over the death of a Negro leader and temporarily sympathetic to the cause for which he died, but we are immediately vocal in condemning the rioting that bubbles up out of the ghettos of America.

In our churches we preach the words of Christ but tip-toe around Civil Rights rather than risk the harmony of our congregations on an explosive, Christian challenge. That all men are created equal but remain unequal is not of our doing and hence not our concern.

In our governments, we spend large sums of money to provide special services. We accept but supplement state and federal regulatory laws with our own, but see no need to take up a matter as unimportant as open housing since the Constitution guarantees this right. The big city problems are not our concern.

When the flags go back to the top of the pole, when memorial services end, when school resumes, when the curfew ends, we will have done our part in solving racial problems. What more can they ask?

Poitier, almost a perennial best-actor nominee, and Miss Houghton, a promising newcomer, both turn in creditable performances, but they did not get Oscar nominations. And the reason is that although the story revolves around them, the movie is not theirs.

It belongs to Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy, nominated for best actress and actor. As Mr. and Mrs. Matt Drayton, the parents of Joanna Drayton, the weight of decision and the fate of the marriage rests on their shoulders. Without their willing consent, there will be no marriage.

But even more important, only insofar as Miss Hepburn and Tracy give a convincing performance does the story succeed. It emphatically does. Together, they are a magnetic pair, as surely and naturally immersed in credibility as fish are in water.

For the late great, Spencer, "Dinner" was his last movie, and a moving tribute to his acting genius. He is Matt, the hard-nosed newspaper publisher, whose liberal theories, for the first time, are tested on the anvil of personal involvement in his daughter's impending marriage.

Miss Hepburn's performance is a memorable one, approaching her stirring part in "The African Queen." Her luminous, watery eye is present in "Dinner," the airy grace and the romantic charm of a woman who feels and loves life. Where her husband has theories to propound and consequences to weigh, Miss Hepburn as Christina Drayton has, as a sure guide, the happiness of others and an implacable faith in love's bond.

An added surprise and the source of comic relief, so necessary to the heart of the story, are the performances of Cecil Kellaway and Beah Richards, two relative unknowns. Both received, and rightly so, Oscar nominations for their supporting parts.

Kellaway is the venerable Monsignor Ryan, a close, long-time friend of the Draytons (although they are not Catholic), who prods Matt with unblemished honesty and a tart tongue. He sums up Matt's predicament, for instance, in the terse jibe: "You are a broken down old liberal come face to face with his principles."

Miss Richards plays Hillery, the Drayton's headstrong, outspoken maid. Her brusque, mammy manner does not wholly escape the Uncle Tom image, but then, that is her purpose, her traditional attitude as opposed to the burgeoning, enlightened Negro attitude of equality. In this part, she contributes substantially to the comic aspect.

Control of Pesticides Shrouded in Disagreement

LANSING — Pesticide poisoning of humans and wildlife is a growing concern for many conservationists and agricultural leaders. Both groups recognize the potential and real danger of such chemicals as DDT and agree that controls are necessary.

Disagreement arises over the best control methods. Those in agriculture note that "harmful" pesticides are being replaced by less toxic chemicals with shorter lives. They stress the need for insect and disease control in modern farming, estimating that crop yield would drop up to 20% if insecticide use were prohibited. They feel that present research methods can develop still safer chemicals and keep pesticide residue below the danger level. They see little need for additional controls, pointing out that such existing bodies as the Conservation, Agriculture, and Public Health departments have power to control pesticide pollution.

Legislation proposed by the Department of Conservation would establish a nine-man committee with absolute authority over pesticide use. The department feels that the problem is of general concern, far beyond the scope of agriculture alone.

Gene Gazlay, assistant director of the Department of Conservation, said that present legislation is limited and that a "new approach" is needed for control. He noted that the proposed committee would have members with "diverse backgrounds," including representatives from conservation, agriculture, public health, universities, and the public at large.

The Department of Conservation, says Gazlay, is responsible for protecting "the entire environment," as compared to the narrower interests of agriculture.

Public hearings will bring to general attention many of the ramifications of the issue. It can be expected that the issue will become a hot one before it is settled.

CONSUMER acceptance of imitation milk may take longer than was originally feared by the dairy industry. When the product was test-marketed a few months ago, there was serious concern over the fate of "old bossy" and the dairy farm.

Perhaps the new "milk" has not sold rapidly due to taste, psychological reasons or marketing methods. The farmer's main interest is that the product hasn't caused a drop in milk consumption.

Although the industry is still worried over milk substitutes, it may have ample time to develop new products which use whole milk. This recognition of the need to "do something" marks a positive change in attitude formerly held by many in the industry.

When oleo was first introduced, dairymen were successful in passing legislation to prohibit the sale of "milk-filled" products in Michigan. A milk-filled product is one which substitutes the animal fat in whole milk with vegetable oil. The resulting product is usually comparable in taste and lower in cost. There have been many such products successfully marketed in other states.

The industry now seems convinced that it cannot legislate against the will of the consumer.

THEIR NEW IDEA: We must provide dairy products in the form the consumer wants rather than pass laws which try to make the consumer buy what we produce in the form easiest for us.

The American Dairy Association has proposed a "tax" on milk producers to finance research projects. Hopefully, this research will develop new uses for milk.

The Michigan Farm Bureau is re-assessing its position and may propose repeal of the very laws they advocated 20 years ago!

Elton Smith, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau, stated, "I don't think this is the time to panic over the threat of competition from filled and imitation milk. I do say now is the time to start working vigorously to meet the competition ... our solution is in the market place ... the dairy industry is presently hampered by too many regulations ... most of these regulations were needed when we got them adopted years ago, but now the situation has changed. We can't regulate these substitutes out of the market, we have to fight off their competition at the grocery counter, not in the halls of the legislature."

The consumer will benefit from this new approach to dairy foods. There is little doubt that research will develop substitute products which are as nutritious as whole milk, of comparable flavor and lower in cost.

If dairymen are successful in establishing milk as a base for these products, their future is also assured.

BABSON PARK, Massachusetts — Finding jobs for vacationing students will be a more significant problem than ever during the forthcoming summer season. Many youngsters will need money to meet the ever-mounting costs of education, especially those from large families and/or with limited means. Then, too, it is vitally important to keep teenage idleness at a minimum during the hot summer months when urban violence is so easily sparked.

The sudden and dynamic expansion of the labor force when schools and colleges close down for the summer is nothing new. It has always presented difficulties. But the summer of 1968 promises perplexities well beyond the usual. In the first place, Labor Department statistics for the twenty largest metropolitan areas of the nation indicate that some 2,555,000 mostly full-time positions must be found if work opportunities are to be made available for all the teenagers expected to be seeking jobs.

Total teenage employment during the summer of 1967 amounted to only 2,125,000. While the increase of 430,000 anticipated for this year's vacation season may not at first glance appear excessive, it will still take effort of private industry and of government agencies to absorb this additional labor reservoir. During recent years, both private and public employers have put on impressive campaigns to place young people in summer jobs with the smallest amount of delay and confusion. Vice President Humphrey has spearheaded these campaigns, and he will strive for even greater success this year.

While the question of finding summer employment is general throughout the country, the problem in urban centers is always particularly difficult ... there are just too many youngsters for the number of job openings. That is why special co-operation is essential among all concerned during the critical time of transition from spring into summer. Companies anxious to help by providing all possible full-time employment for the vacation period can find many sources of encouragement.

IN MOST areas the boards of trade and chambers of commerce are actively working to achieve maximum placement. Federal and state labor and employment security divisions will be ready to aid both in lining up openings and in channeling available boys and girls into them. Service clubs — such as Kiwanis, Lions, etc. — are working with business and industry to promote the fullest possible summer employment of young job seekers. Neighborhood groups are another important force where population is especially localized, frequently spurring retail and service outlets to expand their staffs for the summer.

With the basic labor shortage still acute, especially in lines demanding high skill and adaptability, astute employers will be on the lookout for temporary youthful workers who might become valuable permanent workers.

Personnel officials would therefore do well to observe their summer jobbers and their capabilities with exceptional care, even if the youths still have another year or more of education to complete. A great many concerns have found it rewarding to offer unusually gifted youngsters part-time employment after they have returned to school. On-the-job training and evening classes can develop some extraordinarily loyal and talented employees.

Ambitious youngsters with a keen eye to the future should seek out positions with companies that may be looking for likely young job aspirants on a permanent basis. In the long run, this will likely contribute far more to their careers than the immediately enticing prospect of "flash" jobs at summer resorts with perhaps tenor twelve weeks of operation at high pay. Wise parents will guide their teenagers in such matters, helping them to plan for their future working lives as early as possible.

DELEGATES — Photographed at Detroit university, these three students will attend a national model United Nations program at Georgetown university later this month. They are (l to r) Leo Cherne, Mike Conley, and Gary Becker.

Students Criticize Model UN Results

The weekend of March 15, 16 and 17, 13 Northville high school students attended the ninth annual Model United Nations at the University of Detroit.

Linda Johnson, Chris Walker, Stacy Evans, Betty Kline, Peg Tiliikka, Beth Angle, Jane Frew, Cora Beyer, Gary R. Becker, J. David Kenger, Mike K. Conley and L. P. Cherne represented the countries of Iraq, Niger, and Ghana, along with 600 other students representing the various countries belonging to the United Nations.

Due to other activities, Sue Jarvis, Gary Lotz, and Scott F. Berge were unable to attend.

The central activities during the weekend were debates on such international questions as The Admittance of Red China to the UN, How Israeli War Negotiations Should be Accomplished, and the pressing problem of World Refugees.

Other questions of discussion included the problem surrounding the Portuguese Territories in Africa, and a discussion of International Law.

Throughout the weekend meetings were held as preliminary discussion of the issues. From these meetings came the materials for the General Assembly Debates, which was followed by voting on resolutions which were made during the weekend.

Commenting on this year's MUN program, a spokesman said, "It seemed that the Secretariat had a difficult time operating this year, as many good resolutions never appeared.

"In spite of this, we resolved most of the problems. Two unfortunate results from this year were that the General Assembly voted not to admit Red China to the United Nations, due to political "amateurism" and a lack of time, and the fact that the friendly socializing often overrode the main activities."

Despite all this, what good is the Model United Nations?

The Northville high school Model United Nations club members feel that "As our world is growing smaller, and people are coming closer together, there is a need among students to understand how nations can learn to give together in a world community."

At the present time, four of the Ghana delegates, Gary R. Becker, Scott F. Berge, Leo P. Cherne, and Mike K. Conley are preparing for another event — The National Invitational Model General Assembly — which is to be held on the Georgetown University campus in Washington, D.C. later this month.

They will be discussing issues and resolutions concerning the United Nations as delegates of the nation of Uganda.

It's aimed at stimulating the interests and progress of junior and senior high school students and instructors by inviting students to enter their projects in the regional fairs.

Any student in grades 7-12 is eligible if he's enrolled in industrial education courses in any Michigan public, private, or parochial school providing he hasn't reached his 21st birthday at the time of submitting his entry.

The categories being entered by NHS students are architectural working drawings, a project comprised of working drawings of a resident or small commercial building.

Architectural models, scale models scale models of buildings etc., which would be shown to a client by an architect.

Beginning mechanical drawing, elementary drawings of machine parts with the proper instruments.

Detail and assembly drawing, detailed drawings of machine parts, accessories, gears, fixtures, etc. with the proper instruments.

Surface development drawing, surface development drawing of sheet material developments that may have either practical or theoretical application.

Pictorial machine assembly drawing, pictorial assembly drawings of machines or machine parts which involve shading or rendering techniques.

NFL Action Returns

When Bart Starr slammed through the Dallas Cowboys' rock-ribbed line with 16 seconds to go, scoring the winning touchdown and giving the Pack-ers their third straight NFL Champion-ship, the 1967-68 NFL season reached both its climax and conclusion in one big dramatic moment. A comprehen-sive review of this dramatic game establishes a thrilling kick-off show for NFL ACTION starting Saturday, April 13, at 1:30 p.m. in color on WJBK-TV 2.

"A Chilling Championship" was photographed from 10 different vant-age points to always keep the viewer where the action is. The vital plays are analyzed in super-slow-motion and from a variety of angles. The nuances of Green Bay's final touchdown drive and Bart Starr's winning score are all laid open for inspection.

Narrated by former Giants' star Frank Gifford, each show on NFL ACTION focuses on a feature of the game.

13 at Night

40 Tiger Games On TV This Year

Better viewing availability for base-ball fans is the keynote of Detroit Tiger telecasts to be carried this year by WJBK-TV 2. A complete slate of 40 games is scheduled for live coverage during the course of the 1968 American League season.

The increase to thirteen night games with the remaining twenty-seven games being played on weekends will give Bengal fans more opportunity to watch their favorites in action.

The 1968 season promises to be just as exciting as last year's, which saw the pennant slip from the Tigers' grasp in the last ten minutes of their final game. No less than six of the ten teams in the American League are given an excellent chance of capturing the pennant this year. And the array of games to be televised is loaded with the teams expected to battle the Tigers down to the wire: five each with the pennant-winning Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles; six each with the Minnesota Twins, New York Yankees and Wash-ington Senators. Tiger television will also cover four encounters with the Cleveland Indians. The new Oakland franchise (formerly Kansas City) will be seen twice and the California Angels once.

For the sixteenth consecutive sea-son, WJBK-TV will be the originator of coverage for an eight-station Mich-igan-Ohio-Indiana network. In addi-tion, WJBK-TV will feed a large num-ber of Tiger home games to stations and networks representing the home areas of Bengal opponents. All the games will be televised in color. Producer-Director for Tiger games is Dick Meyers.

Former Tiger Star George Kell will continue to handle play-by-play descriptions of the game action, along with second-year man Larry Oster-man.

Fifteen minutes before each day game, Tiger sportscaster George Kell will add to the upcoming game excite-ment when he talks sports with either a member of the Bengal organization or another interesting personality from elsewhere in baseball on TIGER WARM-UP. This pre-game show will not be presented before night contests.

After every game, Wayne Walker, kicking and defensive star for the De-troit Lions and regular WJBK-TV 2 sportscaster, will recap the action of the game just seen and will provide scores of other tilts from throughout the country on Baseball Scoreboard.

ur lawn and garden can k like this all five seasons!

Save this guide for simple tips on what to do and when to do it...

WAKE UP your lawn as early as possible. It takes a lot less time and money to prevent lawn problems than to cure them. For openers, mow the grass short. Catch or rake up your clippings.

FILL IN low spots with top soil. Don't be discouraged by the ravages of winter. If as much as half your grass is still in good condition, there's no need to tear up and start over.

SEEDING? Now spread Greenfield Trebl™. Kills crabgrass and its cousins before they start. Kills grubs and other insect pests. Fertilizes for early vigor and lasting greenness. Covers 3,000 sq. ft. $9.95

SEED the same day with no harm from Trebl. Scratch bare spots with a rake and level the seedbed. Greenfield seed is a sturdy bluegrass blend for maximum resistance to disease and drought. 1 lb. $1.25

EARLY SPRING

REPAIR WINTER DAMAGE.
HEAD OFF CRABGRASS, INSECTS,
ALL OTHER INVADERS NOW!

NOT RE-SEEDING? If your lawn has survived in good condition, just apply Triple Action. It kills grassy weeds before you see them, also feeds your lawn and kills soil insects. Covers 2,500 sq. ft. $7.95

STOP CRABGRASS. Single-job Crabicide® is the economical way to kill the sprouting seeds of crabgrass, goosegrass and their cousins. One application lasts all season. Covers 2,500 sq. ft. $4.95

NO WEED PROBLEMS? Simply apply Green Power®, Greenfield's powerful lawn food that's iron-enriched for greener green. Long-lasting, non-burning. No watering in. 5,000 sq. ft. $4.95. (Save 95% on 10,000 sq. ft. $8.95)

START GARDEN EARLY. Get evergreens, azaleas, other acid-loving plants off to a brisk start with Ever Preen®. Keeps shrubs weed-free; fertilizes at the same time. Covers 400 sq. ft. $1.79

EARLY SPRING is a critical season of the year. A little time spent now can make your lawn the beauty spot of your neighborhood—and can help you keep it that way with a minimum effort, clear into next winter.

THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY to have lush and lasting greenery like this. That's with generous use of a powerful lawn food such as Green Power®. Nitrogen, essential to fast, sturdy leaf growth. Also phosphorous and potassium—vital for strong grass blades and a healthy root system. Iron to help the nitrogen green your grass green green the Greenfield way.

MOW EARLY AND OFTEN. Your grass is growing fast now. Resist the temptation to put off mowing to the weekend. 2" is a healthy height. Keep mower blades sharp and never cut off more than one-third of the plant.

Dandelion

Plantain

KILL BROADLEAF WEEDS. Two-way Green Power™ gives your lawn the booster feeding needed at this time. Also kills your broadleaf weeds—roots, leaves and all. 5,000 sq. ft. $5.95. Economy size, 10,000 sq. ft. $10.90.

LATE SPRING

KEEP WEEDS FROM BLIGHTING
YOUR LAWN'S NATURAL BEAUTY

Chickweed

Thistle

HARD TO KILL weeds need Dandelion & Chickweed Killer. One-two punch of 2, 4-D and Silvex kills 101 broadleaf weeds—annual morning glory to yarrow. Spray-type covers 6,300 sq. ft. $1.69. (Dry application, $4.45)

GUARD THOSE ROSES. Greenfield Rose Dust ($1.49) wards off disease, insects and mites. Rose and Flower Spray ($1.69) protects against insects, mildew, fungus. Rose Preen®, an organic rose food ($1.79) feeds roses and prevents annual weeds.

INSECT INVASION? Tri-Cide® kills insects three ways—on contact, residually and systemically. It actually goes inside the plant's system. Rain or watering can't wash it off. 8 oz. size, $1.98—pint size, $2.98

BOOST ALL FLOWERS. Strengthen all your flowers, minimize transplant shock with Plant Builder™. This 20-20-20 garden fertilizer dissolves quickly. Clean, safe and odorless. Spray or sprinkle. 1 lb. can $1.30.

RIGHT NOW you can almost hear the grass growing. Maybe your dandelions and other weeds, too? Every square foot of your lawn has some 60 to 70 grass plants competing for nourishment. Apply Two-Way Green Power™ now to avoid soil starvation—and kill your weeds at the same time.

A LAWN LIKE THIS ONE almost certainly gets considerable attention with a rotary or agitator spreader. And a spreader is worth its value in terms of the time-saving and efficiency it gives you. An important tip: clean your spreader after each use. Fertilizers, weed killers and insecticides are blends of powerful chemicals that can be harmful to your lawn spreader.

EARLY SUMMER

SOAK WITH WATER
WEED AND FEED

ELIMINATE INSECTS—Roses, ornamentals or other flowers under attack by insects now? Tri-Cide kills nearly all of the most damaging invaders. Fast, too, and with no foliage burn. 8 oz. $1.98—pt. $2.98

LATE SUMMER

ENJOY YOUR LAWN,
KEEP AN EYE
PEELED FOR INSECTS

FEEDING TIME. Your lawn need not go dormant. A third feeding of Green Power now will help it withstand hot, dry spells, keep it green right through summer. Watering is vital now, too. Soak down to the roots. Mow  $\frac{1}{2}$ " higher.

PATIO PROBLEMS? If patio, walks or driveway get infested with ugly clumps of growth, Contact Kill destroys them for a full season. Simply sprinkle or spray. Non-arsenical. $1.98 qt.—$5.95 gal.

CONTROL INSECTS. Notice strange brown spots in your lawn? Could be insects. Tan moths flying up in front of your mower are a sure sign of sod webworms. And they can ruin a lawn. Bug Out is the quick kill for bugs. 5,000 sq. ft. $4.45

Crabgrass

Dock

Goosegrass

Buckhorn

ALL KINDS OF WEEDS? If time didn't permit pre-emergence protection in the spring, you probably have crabgrass, broadleaf weeds, or both. Clean them out with Crabgrass and Broadleaf Weed Killer. 5,000 sq. ft. $6.95—Liquid Quart 2,000 sq. ft. $2.75

WEED-FREE GARDEN. Flora Preen, a lightweight fertilizer, well balanced for flowers and plants. And it keeps grass and weeds out of flower beds. 200 sq. ft. $1.79—1,000 sq. ft. $4.95

FINAL FEED. Water is vital now, so don't skimp. Soak at least once a week, dust and spray against insects and diseases. And fertilize for the last time with the Preen product best for your plants.

EARLY FALL

PREPARE FOR WINTER NOW

SEED AND FERTILIZE. A final feeding will help your grass develop a strong root system this winter, wake up vigorous next spring. Killing weeds now will let grass fill in. Lower the cut for last mowing. And now is the best time for reseeding.

AFTER FIRST FROST. Most flowers take care of themselves, but roses need special attention. Mound up the soil 8-10" around the plant base for cold protection. Bend tree roses and climbers to the ground, and cover with mulch and soil.

SHADED SPOTS in a lawn demand extra care, of course, but there's no reason to give up on them. Just apply the extra food and water they usually need because of the trees.

THERE'S PRACTICALLY NO PIECE OF LAND which won't support a healthy lawn. Sandy soil or heavy clay, heavy traffic areas, or you name it. Your local Greenfield dealer knows the special problems common to your area—and their answers. See him soon and grow green green the Greenfield way!
