

Novi Cityhood Goes to Voters

Novi voters will go to the polls Monday to decide a controversial city incorporation proposition that has been in and out of court for years.

Specifically, voters will decide whether or not Novi should become a city and they'll choose nine city charter commission members from a slate of 14 candidates.

The city incorporation question on the ballot will read: "Shall the territory now incorporated as the village of Novi, with the county of Oakland, state of Michigan, be incorporated as a home rule city, without change of boundaries and to be known as the city of Novi, pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 279 of the Public Acts of the state of Michigan for 1909, as amended: For city incorporation (yes), for city incorporation (no)."

Township Fights To Keep 1 Mill

While the Northville school district was making a strong appeal to gain a bigger slice of the millage pie, as served up by the Wayne county allocation board, Northville township is busy trying to save its one-mill levy.

Both Northville township and the Northville school district were scheduled for the annual allocation board meetings last week. But Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg revealed that a request for a postponement until today (Thursday) was granted after it appeared that the township's prepared budget might not qualify for more than .75 mills.

"We're going to redraft it more realistically," Stromberg stated, noting that provisions for fringe benefit increases to employees, higher fire protection rates, and other rising costs had not been reflected in the budget. A one-mill levy, which has been the traditional rate in the township, brings in $26,000 based on the new $26 million assessed valuation of township real and personal property.

The loss of a quarter-mill would cost the township nearly $7,000.

It's the job of the allocation board to establish what share of the 15-mill limit each of the governmental units—the school district, county and township—receives. Last year the county received 6.07 mills, the school district 8.9 mills and the township one mill. (Admittedly, that adds up to 15.97 mills when 15 mills is supposedly the limit. A "differential", which a county authority was unable to explain in this newspaper, accounts for the .97-mill addition).

Last Friday Superintendent Raymond Spear and Business Manager Earl Busard presented the school budget to the county allocation board. They asked the board to increase the school slice of the total by 1.75 mills to 10.65 mills.

They argued that a great portion of their district is tax free, that efforts to gain additional state support to relieve the burden were unsuccessful, and that their budget substantiates the need. Further they noted that local taxpayers are being asked to approve a two-mill increase.

Most likely the school district will be given the same millage slice as last year. And the township will probably be able to save its one mill portion.

But the name of the game at the allocation board meetings is "get all you can". The board must listen to all arguments, then decide how to slice the pie most equitably. The results are announced the end of May.

Board Honors R. D. Merriam

The Northville township board paid tribute last week to its late supervisor, R. D. Merriam, by adopting a resolution at its first regular meeting following the death of the supervisor.

Trustee James Tellam introduced the resolution that stated:

Be it hereby resolved that this Township Board pays tribute to our late Supervisor, Bob Merriam for the sincere and dedicated contribution he made while serving Northville Township.

His many years of untiring devotion to our community and the selfless spirit with which he performed will long be remembered and appreciated by us all.

PTA Carnival Style!

It's Country Fair Time

"See you there at the country fair" is the byword this week as Northville's five schools prepare for the annual time at the new Ida B. Cooke junior high school on Taft road from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m. this Friday.

Theme for this year's carnival is the Olde Time Country Fair with midway events chosen with this in mind. In the Country Kitchen—the school cafeteria directly inside the front entrance of the school—spaghetti dinner will be served from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

Tickets for the all-you-can-eat spaghetti dinner are being sold at each school Wednesday and Thursday and also will be available at the door at $1.25 for adults, 50 cents for kindergartners through sixth graders, with pre-schoolers free. Mrs. Herbert Weston, dinner chairman, announced that the ten-cent carnival tickets can NOT be used for the dinner as it has resulted

Board OK's Teacher Changes

Contracts for nine new teachers and resignations of 12 others were accepted by the Northville board of education Monday night.

In approving the contracts, only Secretary Glenn E. Delbert cast a negative vote. His position was that the contracts are meaningless because teachers may resign whenever they wish, and because, in view of the questionable financial picture next year, hiring of the teachers may be premature.

The board earlier had informally approved 4 1/2 additional teaching posts for the 1968-69 school year while hammering out the new, tentative budget.

Of the nine contracts approved, two are for additional teaching positions. Concerning the latest resignations, Superintendent Raymond Spear said a total of 25 teachers have now indicated they are leaving the local school system in June. He noted that 21 of the 25 have been with the system three years or less.

Most of those leaving are young women and only four have considerable teaching experience, he added.

Reasons cited for leaving include: retiring (2), husbands are moving from the area (7), leaving teaching to take up housekeeping or concentrate on duties of mother (2), traveling or taking additional studies (2), maternity reasons (5), moving outside state (1), hired temporarily and not certified (1), relocated inside state (1), taking a job outside education (1), death (1), promotion to a community college position (1), and elimination of the position (1).

The new teachers are: Ben Lauber, men's swimming; Charles Shonta, boys' physical education; Miss Linda Sharp, elementary; Miss Sherrin Kimble, elementary; Norman Jacobs, math/physical education; Miss Merry Evans, English; Miss Marilyn McCarthy, speech; Miss Diane Taylor, English; and Cyril Nichols, social studies.

The latest resignations are from Phelps Hines, Eleanor Richardson, Mrs. Mary Waterloo, Mrs. Patie Flanagan, Mrs. Jamie McGlone, Larry Greenway, Mrs. Cynthia Pringle, Stanley Markavitch, Mrs. Mary Brown, Del Burson, Richard Rusche and Mrs. Barbara Marlon. The other, Mr. Larry Rogers, recently died.

Most of the newly hired teachers have several years of experience, Spear said in noting that past records show that teachers least likely to move from the district are those with teaching experience behind them.

In other personnel matters Monday, the board voted to discontinue one teaching post—special education (mentally handicapped), and approved a summer remedial program for educationally deprived youngsters.

The board also approved seven textbooks recommended by administrators and department heads next school year.

School Employees Vote to Unionize

Custodial, maintenance, and cafeteria employees of the Northville school system voted Thursday in favor of representation in Local 547 of the Operating Engineers union.

All 50 of the employees cast ballots, supporting the union representation 33 to 16, with one challenged ballot.

The vote results will be certified by the state mediation board, according to Business Manager Earl Busard, and then the labor demands of the newly unionized employees will be placed on the bargaining table.

Budget Hearing On Monday

A public hearing on the 1968-69 budget calling for a tax increase of 3.8 mills will be held Monday night by the Northville city council at 8 p.m. in the council chambers.

The new budget calls for a levy of 13 mills. Expenditures in the budget total $802,680.

In other action the council is expected to approve purchase of the fish hatchery property from the federal government for $16,375, estimated to be half the value of the 13.5-acre site on Seven Mile road.

It is proposed to be used for community recreation purposes.

Northville will roll out its welcome mat Monday and the curtain will go up for a special Michigan Week exhibit as the community hosts seven representatives of Hastings for the traditional Our Government Day festivities.

The guests will be welcomed by Northville officials following a flag-raising ceremony and presentation of the 'city key', later will be guests at a luncheon sponsored by the Northville Rotary club, and then will tour the exhibit at the community building here.

Coming to Northville from Hastings will be Franklin "Ping" Beckwith, mayor; Ed Wietnik, city councilman; Floyd Craig, city assessor; Mike Kovanich, assistant superintendent of public services; Mrs. Donna Kinney, city clerk; Mrs. Elsie Furrow, assistant city clerk; and Miss Sue Engle, mayor of Hastings high school.

Visiting Hastings from Northville will be this city's mayor, A. M. Allen, Councilman W. Wallace Nichols, and Bruce Math, mayor of the Northville high school student council.

The Hastings representatives will be met in Novi, escorted to the high school here where Miss Engle will spend the day visiting with teachers and students, and then continue by car to the city hall following behind Northville's marching band.

Scheduled to arrive at the city hall at 10 a.m., the officials will take part in a flag-raising ceremony, under the auspices of the American Legion Lloyd H. Green Post. Selections will be presented by the band and the guests will receive the key to the city. Then the officials and their hosts will move inside to tour city offices and discuss projects and problems of mutual concern.

At noon, the guests will be feted at the annual Rotary Michigan Week luncheon at the First Presbyterian Church. Following the luncheon program, they will tour the Michigan Week exhibit, co-sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, in a special pre-opening show.

Monday evening, after the Hastings officials have returned home, the exhibit will be opened to the public from 7 to 9 p.m. It will reopen at the same times, on Tuesday and Wednesday as well. Tuesday and Wednesday morning, students of the public and parochial schools will be shown through the exhibit. Hosting this special day-time show will be members of the Jayceettes.

Feature attraction of the show will be a prototype moon vehicle which the aero-space division of Bendix is building for the United States government. The 8 foot by 17 foot vehicle, a version of which will one day crawl across the face of the moon, will be displayed in front of the building.

Other exhibits by Northville manufacturers and by firms outside Northville in which Northville residents hold key positions, include: Michigan Seamless Tube company, Shatterproof Glass corporation, Ford Motor's valve plant, Warren Products, Northville Laboratory, International Diamond Tool, Cogsdill Enterprises, Allen Monument Works, Federal Mogul (Haller division), Reef Industries, Northville Downs, Foundry Flask, Normac, Mergraf Oil, Anger Manufacturing, and the Northville Record.

Displays also will be shown by Consumer Powers (Napier road installation), Detroit Edison, and Western Electric.

Members of the Northville Newcomers club will serve coffee during the Tuesday evening showing.

Other Michigan Week activities include planting of a tree in the city hall park by the Northville Woman's club on Saturday (Civic Pride Day), and a cleanup of the Rouge River near Northville on Saturday, May 25, by Northville Scouts, Girl Scouts will prepare lunches for the Boy Scouts, who will be assisted by Jaycees.

Seven Enter Board Race

With only one announced candidate going into the final week of circulating petitions, competition for the two Northville school board seats suddenly stiffened as seven persons filed nominating petitions by the Monday afternoon deadline.

The seven are:

Eugene K. Cook (Incumbent president), 118 Ely drive, South; Robert E. Deisley, 936 Allen drive; Reginald D. Holloman, 320 Orchard drive; Roger E. Rinaldi, 1076 Grace court; Dr. Orlo J. Robinson, 718 West Main; John J. Seales, 370 Welch road; and Robert A. Stenger, 21326 Summerside court.

Cook seeks re-election to one of the two four-year terms. The other post is currently held by James Kipter, who decided not to seek re-election.

Absentee voter ballot applications are now available at the board offices, officials revealed. The offices are located at 405 West Main street.

Mrs. Timothy A. Moisan

Hall-Moisan Vows Spoken in Dearborn

Judy Kay Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, 345 Sherrie Lane, Northville, became the bride of Timothy A. Moisan in a candlelight, double-ring ceremony May 4 at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Dearborn.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moisan of Wayne, is a third class petty officer serving aboard the U.S.S. Canberra. Following the ceremony, the newlyweds left on an auto trip to San Diego where his ship is in port.

The Reverend L. F. Weigel officiated at the altar decorated with white mums and glads. Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of antique white silk organza, fashioned with a fitted bodice with scallop neckline and long sleeves. A design of white seed pearls decorated the neckline and adorned the skirt. A matching rose held her shoulder-length veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and glads.

Krystal Ann Hall was honor maid for her sister in a floor-length gown of yellow taffeta with white nylon dotted swiss overskirt. She carried a colonial basket of Tropicanna roses and white daisy mums with blue stock and matching ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Nancy Vieu and Norma Moisan, sister of the bridegroom, in gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. They also carried floral baskets.

John Purcell of Westland was best man with Ronald Vieu of Westland and Randy Hall, the bride's brother, ushering.

For the wedding and buffet lunch reception following for 125 guests at the bride's parents' home the bride's mother chose a powder-blue brocade taffeta ensemble. Her flowers were white tea roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a lime-green linen costume and wore Tropicanna tea roses.

For her wedding trip to California the new Mrs. Moisan wore an aqua linen suit. She was graduated from Northville high school in 1967 and has been working for the last year as a secretary at Sky Tool company in Novi. Her husband is a 1965 graduate of Wayne Memorial high school.

Guests attended the wedding from Port Huron, former home of the bride's family, and from Wayne, Northville and near-by areas.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

UMBRELLAS were stashed in the entrance of the J. F. Keese home on West Main street Tuesday morning as Mrs. Keese welcomed the area's newest residents to the Northville Newcomers Club annual get-acquainted coffee.

Informality - a key word in all club activities - prevailed as conversations sprouted over cups of coffee. Mrs. Axtell greeted guests officially and explained club functions before new officers were elected and she turned the presidency over to Mrs. Kent Mathes.

The club now has more than 100 members with general membership luncheons or coffees planned for sociability. Members also gather in smaller interest groups to golf, play bridge and pursue arts-and-crafts hobbies. Organized to help the newcomer become acquainted with her new community, the club now permits membership for five years.

Because it is so large and many new people are coming to the area, a discussion of whether to limit the time to three years will be held at a joint board meeting of new and retiring officers May 27 at Mrs. Axtell's home.

Also welcoming the new residents was Mrs. Robert Lang, new Northville Town Hall chairman, who invited them to subscribe to the 1968-9 series and to become active in the TH program.

Other newcomer officers elected Tuesday are Mrs. Frank Ollendorff, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Rosselot, secretary; Mrs. Thomas Handy, treasurer, new chairmen are Mrs. Joseph Kluesner, interest groups; Mrs. M. L. Rinehart, social; Mrs. Daniel Swayne, membership; Mrs. David Cheek, telephone.

Husbands are included in two events still in this season's agenda for the Newcomers - a steak roast May 25 at the Rosselot home on Beck road and a dinner-dance June 7 at Lofy's in Plymouth.

MEADOWBROOK country club, now 52 years old, is planning its spring formal dinner-dance around an art show and wine-tasting party. It is to be Saturday, May 25, beginning at 6:30 p.m. with members and their guests invited to try California wines and their German counterparts while viewing more than 70 paintings on exhibit in the lounge and main dining room. The paintings are from the House of Paintings in Detroit.

For the fourth year, the club will be "an art gallery for a week," James Cornelius, manager, commented.

Wines also will be served with dinner courses, he added. Shelby Lee's orchestra is to play.

Early reservations have been made by Northville members, the Philip Wegens and the Bernard Baldwins.

"BROWSING" in-out-of-the-way antique shops is a prerequisite on field trips taken by members of the Base Line Questers society, admits Mrs. Thomas Lovett, trip chairman, who planned today's jaunt to the Jackson area to allow time for such stops. The final field trip of the year will be a repeat, taking members who have not been there to the Ella Sharp museum. Time permitting, Mrs. Lovett adds, they also will visit Waterloo House in the Stockbridge area, an historical project of Stockbridge women who demonstrate and sell craft products.

Mrs. C. O. Brosius will welcome members of the chapter to her home in Milford for the May meeting at 1 p.m. May 27. Mrs. E. A. Chapman will speak on old china. As it is the final meeting of the year, new officers will be elected and installed.

CHERRY HILL, New Jersey, was this year's locale for the national convention of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association attended last week by Mrs. William Slattery. In addition to being the retiring president of the Northville branch (she returned just in time to turn presidency over to Mrs. Clyde Whittlesey last Friday), she is corresponding secretary of the Michigan division and will be starting her second term at the state election May 22.

THE GLENN JORDAN family will be going East when school is out to make their home within commuting distance of New York City, where Mr. Jordan already has been transferred. With sons Tom and Clifford, they have been active Northville residents on Hill street for three years. They also have a son, Steven, at the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Jordan was honored last Thursday at a birthday luncheon given by her neighbor, Mrs. George Weiss at her home on Grace street.

Luncheon guests included Mrs. Weiss' sister, Mrs. John Thacker who with her husband was a house guest of her sister. The Thacker's left Tuesday for their home in Hialeah, Florida.

Next Thursday morning Mrs. Robert Froelich will be honoring Pat at a coffee at her home at 369 Maplewood for friends to wish Pat well.

Northville Accredited

Northville high school has again been accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, board members were informed Monday night.

In explanation to the board, Superintendent Raymond Spear and Principal Fred Holdsworth noted that accreditation means, in some instances, that students need not take entrance examinations to some colleges and universities.

Accreditation also means the Northville system meets the high standards of the association as regarding courses offered, library books, laboratory equipment, etc.

Through its qualification for accreditation, the association provides school systems with a guideline for providing an exceptional education program, Holdsworth explained.

Considers Lot Sizes

Novi Council OKs Pre-Plat Plan

Although a developer received planning board and council approval for a pre-preliminary plat on a 90-lot subdivision off Meadowbrook road Monday night, attention was focused on possibility of raising the minimum lot size for single-family dwellings.

Plat approval for the Meadowbrook No 2 division occurred following a public hearing that saw the developer withdraw a request for approval of a portion of the land east of Meadowbrook road at Nine Mile.

Withdrawal of the request resulted when the village engineering firm contended an area at the north end of the site should not be approved until the elevation was raised to a point above effects of periodic high waters that occur. The withdrawal was for an area labeled Meadowbrook No 1.

Council and planning board members aired some of the conditions under present zoning that must be considered in any action taken to raise the minimum lot size from 7,500 square feet.

The council suggested the question of raising minimum lot size specifications be placed on the agenda for discussion at the board's next regular meeting, Monday, May 27. The council also requested the planning board to study all the existing unplatted areas in the village now zoned R-1.

Discussion on minimum lot size requirements revealed several topics of concern, including school taxlevies.

Councilman Ray Evans said that raising the minimum lot size "provides a degree of control over density of population, which is of critical importance to the school district and to local tax rates necessary to support the schools."

"If we raise the lot size requirements, don't we price the working man right out of the housing market in Novi?" asked Planning Board Member Olen Green.

Evans rejected the idea that working families would be priced from the market if requirements were raised to three or three-and-one-half lots per acre. When Green cited Allen Park as a community where fine quality homes were erected on lots as narrow as 40 feet, Evans said, "That's exactly the sort of thing we have to consider. Allen Park also built new schools that they couldn't occupy for lack of money to operate."

Councilman Donald Young commented that today people shop for a community to live in just as they shop for a car. "We've got to decide what sort of community we want to live in and make our decisions accordingly," Young said.

Young pointed out that there are areas in Novi where features of development would probably better lend themselves to development for lower cost housing and smaller frontage lots than those likely to be erected on half-acre and larger lots. He said that it is "gradation" from choice residential to less attractive sites for housing development that will be the critical topic for zoning decisions.

Hot Novi Budget Debate
Centers on Police Request

While the number of councilmen outnumbered the public at a hearing that saw the council adopt a record budget last week Wednesday night, members of the audience did engage in a spirited debate with the council that grew into words between councilmen and prompted village manager Harold Ackley to enter the discussion over personnel needs of the village.

Lines of the debate were drawn after a request for three additional patrolmen from Police Chief Lee BeGole was denied.

Councilman Leo Harrawood pointed out the police department was already receiving about one-third of total village general fund income.

BeGole said he recognized this but his job was concerned with public safety and it was his duty to inform the council of the community's needs as he viewed the matter.

"I'm fighting a losing battle to maintain the high standard of law enforcement the community is accustomed to," BeGole said. "I want this council to know that as Novi continues to grow you will be receiving complaints about our service because we will be unable to maintain the past level of efficiency."

In regards to wages, BeGole produced a study he said was prepared by the Novi Police Officer's association that showed Novi to rank number 60 in a list of 60 metropolitan area communities.

Noting that Northville's salary for officers and for the police chief is higher than Novi, BeGole said that law enforcement demands are far more rigorous and complex in Novi. He cited the presence of I-96, a much larger total area and higher population, more and increasing numbers of industrial plants, and the presence of a large body of water, Walled Lake, as conditions that make for a more demanding law-enforcement task.

Harrawood offered strong counter argument to BeGole, noting the one-third of the total budget that goes for the police department and objecting to transfer of funds from other budget areas to the police department.

Village manager Harold Ackley commented that every employee in every department of the village was performing in a versatile capacity and working under difficult, overcrowded conditions.

"I don't know where in the world we'd find room for three more police

Justice Court

Kenneth P. Little, charged originally by Novi police with fleeing officers during lawful arrest pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of failing to stop on a police officer's signal. Little was sentenced to pay a $50 fine and $15 costs or serve five days in jail.

A two-day jail sentence along with a $10 fine and $5 costs was handed down to Richard Luttman, Lakeland, after he pleaded guilty to driving on a revoked license.

James W. Montgomery, Detroit, drew a $15 fine after pleading guilty to driving without an operator's license.

Artemus F. Clover, Detroit, charged with violating ordinance No. 14 by unlawfully dumping trash along 12 Mile road drew a $10 fine and $5 costs.

Clarence R. Steele, Ypsilanti, pleaded guilty to a disorderly person charge and was sentenced to pay a $25 fine.

Nab Shoplifter
At Freydl's

A Detroit man was arrested in front of a downtown Northville store and charged with larceny from a building early Monday morning.

Northville police arrested William M. Ferrell after being called to Freydl's Mens Wear store at 112 East Main street shortly after the store opened for business.

Charles Freydl, Sr., the proprietor, detained Ferrell on the sidewalk until police arrived. Four sports shirts valued at about $16 were recovered from under Ferrell's clothing the police said.

Ferrell, who was reported loitering in Lapham's Mens Shop earlier in the morning, is reported to have asked for credit but was slow to depart the establishments after being refused.

Patients' Fund
Gets Receipts

Funds from the car wash, sponsored by patients at Northville State Hospital Friday, will be deposited in the Patient Benefit Fund, Dr. E. G. Yudashkin has announced.

A hospital representative earlier had indicated the money would be used to help purchase an X-ray machine. However, Dr. Yudashkin subsequently re-emphasized that the Legislature has already appropriated funds for the machine.

Monies in the benefit fund, it was explained, are used for purchases for ward improvements and social activities similar to those the patients may have been able to enjoy in their home communities.

Plans for these purchases are made jointly by staff members and patients.

Cityhood Forum

Jaycees Review
Major Questions

EDITOR'S NOTE - Following is a review of some of the questions fielded by the Novi Jaycees and answered in The Novi News pertaining to the cityhood issue on which voters will decide Monday.

1. Q - What is the basic difference between city and village forms of government?

A - A village is a unit of government providing local services for its citizens such as police and fire protection, water, sewer, etc. A village is part of the township which carries out legally required duties. These township duties include property assessing for the school district and the county, collection of township, school and county taxes, conducting elections (except village), furnishing a representative to the county board of supervisors, and providing a primary or justice court system.

A city is a unit of government that provides both local services and legally required functions as previously stated. Incorporation of the village would dissolve that portion of the township within the city boundaries and the city then would assume those responsibilities now required of the township.

2. Can surrounding cities such as Wixom, Walled Lake or Northville annex parts of Novi now? Have they done so in the past?

A. As long as there is a legal stand pending for cityhood (such as an election date) no annexations may take place. However, generally under village status, a city may annex parts of Novi. Novi has seen three separate annexations to Northville, one to Wixom.

3. Q - As a taxpayer in the village of Novi, do I pay duplicating taxes for duplicating services, and, if so, will being a city change this?

A. - A Novi village resident pays two taxbills a year, summer and winter. The winter tax includes the county and school tax, which would not be affected by becoming a city other than that the tax would be collected by the city treasurer's office. Instead of the township. Winter tax also includes a township tax of .97 mills and the library tax of .5 mills.

The summer tax includes the village government levy of 5 mills.

Summer and winter taxes do involve some duplication. Namely, they support two governments (township and village), including two treasurers, two attorneys, two tax rolls, two clerks, two voter registration rolls, two land assessment records.

Becoming a city would dissolve both township and village governments and create a new city government that would perform the combined functions of both the village and township.

4. Q - How would becoming a city affect our school districts?

A - There would be no changes whatsoever in any one of the four school districts in Novi. Local government is not involved in any phase of a school system, other than to provide a means of collecting the school tax and distributing it to the various school systems.

5. Q - What are the basic reasons why we should become a city?

A - The following reasons are compiled from information from Michigan Municipal League technical bulletins:

(A) Boundary protection. Cityhood would establish city limits and enable Novi to plan its future development without the constant threat of annexation by surrounding communities.

(B) Tax base protection. Cityhood would prevent large tax-paying industries from being annexed, such as happened with the Ford-Lincoln plant now within the city of Wixom.

(C) Simplification of government. Cityhood would abolish the two forms of government now in Novi and thus eliminate some duplicating functions.

(D) Modernization of government. Cityhood would provide Novi with an opportunity to update its form of government, if believed necessary, through the blue-printing of a new charter.

(E) Removal of partisan politics in local government. Cityhood would abolish the custom of political affiliation at the local level. Under a city, no person would have to commit himself to a particular political party in seeking office as happens now in township elections.

Novi Joins Wayne Library System

The Novi Public Library is now a member of the Wayne County Federated Library system, the 18th library in Oakland county to join the extensive system which serves 45 public libraries in Wayne and Oakland counties, according to Walter H. Kaiser, system director.

Since there is no Oakland county library service center, the Wayne County Federated Library system makes its services available by contracts with local communities. The contracts enumerate the services available and may be amended or terminated by either party upon six months notice.

The decision to join the system, one of the largest in the nation, followed a series of meetings between Novi public library board members and system officials.

Mrs. Robert Flattery, Novi librarian, listed some of the services which will be available to Novi residents. —Free borrowing privileges in any of the 45 libraries of the system, including the Dearborn main library. (Collection totals more than 1.1 million.)

—A collection of 3,500 films for loan to local organizations without charge. Films will be delivered directly to the Novi library and returned there. A film catalog will be kept at the Novi public library for examination by library users.

—Reference and interloan of books. The Novi library will be called daily by the system's service center at 33030 Van Born road in Wayne, to receive requests for books and subjects desired by Novi residents. If the books are not in the system's central collection or other member libraries, the request will be phoned through a daily "hot line" to the State Library and other libraries as required.

—Photo copies of periodical materials not available in the Novi library will be sent directly to the patron's home by the service center at a nominal fee.

Mrs. Flattery noted other advantages in joining the system:

—Important, expensive and specialized books, vital to library service but an unwarranted expense for one library to buy, are loaned to member libraries for three months.

—New books for the Novi public library will be ordered and processed at the system's service center. Such centralized procedures result in substantial savings for member libraries through larger discounts and saved time. Centers for examining newbooks have been set up at the Southfield public library and the service center in Wayne.

—General administrative, supervisory and consultative services as requested by the local community.

Members of the Novi public library board are Richard W. Vykdyal, Dirk Groeneweg, Mrs. Juan Alcala, Mrs. George Atkinson, Mrs. Neil Nichols and John Parent.

CARNIVAL FUN — Several youngsters in the second grade class of Mrs. Winifred Ling get in some pre-carnival fun before tomorrow night's (Friday) event at Novi's Orchard Hills elementary school. Like last week's exciting fair at Novi elementary school, tomorrow's carnival will feature food, games and booths. Beginning with a 5 to 6:30 p.m. spaghetti dinner, the carnival action will follow immediately.

Movement of the Mexican jumping bean is caused by the full-grown larvae of a gypsy moth which lives inside the bean. When the larva moves, the bean jumps.

Bartlett Day Shaping Up

With a goal of $3000 and cash contributions received of less than $400, the Frank Bartlett Scholarship committee is expecting a flood of donations before Bartlett Day ceremonies Sunday, May 26.

Gifts may be sent or taken to Gerald Dilloway, Assistant Cashier at the State Savings Bank. Committee members stress that this fund is not connected in any way with the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation.

Bartlett Day will include an Open House beginning at 2 p.m. at the South Lyon High School.

Salary Inequity Hurts Education

EDITOR'S NOTE — The Northville Education association has asked permission to write a series of articles on education. Following is the second.

Throughout the school year, construction has continued at Northville high school on the addition of classrooms, an instructional materials center, and a pool. Of the men working on the construction, at least one holds a degree from college — and a teaching certificate. In fact, this construction worker once taught in our system.

What might motivate a young man to give up a teaching career for construction work? Perhaps he discovered that over a twenty year span as a teacher he would earn $12,000 less than a janitor and $116,000 less than a skilled worker such as a die maker.

If these figures seem a bit too astonishing to be true, consider this breakdown in the case of a teacher-janitor salary comparison. A teacher must earn a degree after high school and thus is nearly $30,000 behind a janitor after four years. Assuming a 15 year average salary of $5,600 for the janitor, and further assuming a starting salary of $6,000 and a maximum of $9,300 for a teacher with a B.A., after 20 years the teacher will have earned a net salary of $101,500 and the janitor $113,500. Of course, this comparison does not consider the additional expense the teacher incurs when he returns to do graduate work as is required under Michigan law.

In the comparison with a die maker, the teacher loses $50,000 while in college due to the much higher wages paid skilled workers. But the truly depressing aspect of this comparison is that the teacher loses further ground because he will never earn as much as the average wage of a die maker.

The maximum salary for a teacher with a B.A., even in the best paying districts, is less than the $10,962 reported as the average wage paid in 1964 to die makers in the Detroit area.

The young teacher-turned-construction-worker probably thought of all he could provide his family with an additional $100,000 in the next 20 years. Perhaps he is selfish to put the welfare of his family ahead of the welfare of the community that he served as a teacher. Certainly it is a shame to see money and time invested in teacher training wasted in this way. But he is only one of the 171,000 qualified teachers in this nation who made the unhappy decision to leave teaching for other employment. And in his case, the decision was made worse by the fact that he was among the very few male elementary teachers in the nation. We who study the problems of American youth know the significance of this loss to our schools.

Novi Youth Faces Indecency Charge

A charge of taking indecent liberties with a female child has been brought by Novi police against a 17-year-old Novi youth.

The charge stemmed from incidents occurring Monday afternoon, May 6, after which the parents of an eight-year-old girl complained to Novi police. The youth, who is reported to have been home alone, is alleged to have taken the girl into his home.

Other recent police action included helping at a fire that caused an estimated $600 damage to the home and contents of William C. Plaseck at 4844 West Nine Mile road. The fire, believed to have started in a utility room shortly after 8:00 a.m. Monday, was extinguished by a force of eight Novi firemen shortly after their arrival.

At the time of the fire on Nine Mile road, Novi police were assisting

State Police and Wixom police in halting traffic on I-96 at Meadowbrook while a construction crew moved power lines across the roadway. Both east and west-bound traffic was halted for about 20 minutes while workers of the Harlan Electrical Construction company pulled the lines across the traffic lanes.

In another case, Novi police investigated a complaint involving steel drums, labeled as containing chemicals, that were abandoned in a field off Wixom road north of 10 Mile. Labels on the sealed drums led police to the Western Solvents and Chemical company, Detroit.

Officials of the company said the drums were filled with sludge, derived from plastics manufacturing processes, but they could offer no enlightening information as to how the drums came to be abandoned in the field.

Thieves Hit Building Site; Estimate Loss at $2,000

Thieves hit the construction site of the Hydrumation Engineering company at 43300 Nine Mile road for the second time in recent weeks, making off with light fixtures, copper tubing, and other tools and equipment sometime Monday night or early Tuesday morning.

Trailers housing tools and materials at the construction site were broken into and ransacked with loss to the thieves estimated at $2,000. Novi police are investigating the case.

Two young Detroit men were recently sentenced in Oakland county circuit court for another burglary of the site on March 3.

Thomas Chapman, 19, and his brother Donald, 18, were arrested by Corporal Gordon Nelson and charged with malicious destruction of property and larceny. Nelson said he was aided in the investigation of the March 3 case by alert citizens.

The Chapmans pleaded guilty before Judge James Thornburn. Thomas was sentenced to three years probation, Donald was ordered to Boys Training School.

Novi Teacher Gets Briefing

Milan Obrenovich of South Lyon, was among nearly 200 education leaders from throughout Michigan attending the MEA President's Conference May 9-11 at the MEA Conference Center near Battle Creek.

Most of these units are negotiating agents for teachers in more than 500 Michigan school districts and community colleges.

Obrenovich received MEA orientation and instruction to help him become a more effective local professional leader.

Here's Tips on Safe Pesticides for Home

"Use the safest pesticides available and be sure to read and heed the labels on their containers."

That is the pointed appeal of Conservation Director Ralph A. MacMullan to Michigan householders who are planning to apply commercial chemicals this spring to control pest and weed problems around their homes and gardens.

He particularly urges residents to avoid DDT and some other "hard" or persistent pesticides which have a serious long-term impact on wildlife, soil organisms, and water purity. Others on the Conservation department's "black list" include Dieldrin, Aldrin, Endrin, Chlordane, Lindane, and Heptachlor.

MacMullan stresses that even with safer, shorter-lived pesticides, householders can't be too careful. "All pesticides are poisons," he explains, "and they must be used with care and all directions on their labels should be followed to a 'T'."

Before the U.S. Department of Agriculture allows a pesticide to be registered for sale, its manufacturer must show proof that the chemical, used at dosages recommended on the label, will kill the pests listed.

On this point, MacMullan notes: "If the labels says to use one tablespoon in a gallon of water, you shouldn't use two. Excessive amounts will be wasteful and could cause added dangers to other organisms. On the other hand, under-dosages may not do the job."

Michigan's Conservation director sums up his "read it and heed it" warning this way: "Safety precautions are listed on each label for a purpose. You should pay strict attention to them—for your own safety, for the good of others, and for the safety of non-target birds, fish, and animals."

The Conservation department, hoping to turn the tide on pesticide pollution and spearhead steps toward a cleaner environment, offers the following list of some safer pesticides and herbicides for recommended home and garden use:

1. METHOXYCHLOR—for controlling houseflies, lice, ticks, leafhoppers, Japanese beetles, army worms, codling moths, spittlebugs, scale (crawlers), and many others.

2. SEVIN (also called CARBARYL)—for controlling aphids, codling moths, scales, leaf hoppers, army worms, spittlebugs, thrips, grasshoppers, stink bugs, cucumber beetles, and many other, including ticks, fleas, and mites on dogs and cats.

3. MALATHION—for controlling aphids, mites, scales, flies, leaf miners, loopers, army worms, grasshoppers, lice, ticks, ants, spiders, mosquitoes, and many others.

4. PYRETHRIN—for controlling mosquitoes, flies, aphids, mites, beetles, loopers, lice, and many others.

5. ROTENONE—for controlling beetles, weevils, slugs, mosquitoes, thrips, fleas, lice, flies, and many others.

6. NALED or DIBROM—for controlling loopers, mites, aphids, houseflies, army worms, leaf miners, cutworms, fruit flies, thrips, mosquitoes, gnats, grasshoppers, and many others.

7. 2, 4-D—a commonly used, safe herbicide which will handle most weed problems. Check the label to make sure the chemical is recommended for your weed situation.

8. DALAPON—a herbicide used to kill grasses.

9. 2, 4 5-T—for eradicating brush and other woody plants. This is a more powerful herbicide than some of the others and should be carefully used according to the label instructions. Keep away from streams and other surface water.

While there are other safe chemicals for special uses, those listed here should cover many of the householders' needs around the home and garden.

Some of the other "soft" pesticides are extremely dangerous to use and should never be applied except by trained specialists who use special equipment. These include parathion, TEPP, thimet, and temik. A drop of temik in the eye could be fatal.

For Duties, Qualifications

Board OKs Policy on Principals

A policy governing duties and responsibilities of principals was approved by the Northville board of education Monday night upon the recommendation of the superintendent and a board subcommittee.

The policy, as it pertains to qualifications, is to be used as a guideline for hiring of a principal for Amerman elementary school.

One of the five qualifications was challenged by Trustee James Kipfer as being too restrictive, but it was noted that the superintendent and the screening committee will use it as a guideline and that they can, if they choose, adjust it to retain the best qualified.

The qualifications are:

1. Holder of a Michigan permanent

2. An earned master's degree at an accredited institution with a major in administration and supervision.
3. Advanced study beyond an MA degree with evidence of commitment to furthering his educational background.
4. A minimum of seven years' experience in public school education of which at least five years are at the level he will administer. (Kipfer argued that this qualification might discourage an application from someone with a healthy background in some related field but who does not meet the specified requirement. It was noted, too, that the words "public school" might discourage application from good parochial school administrators).

Following are the duties and responsibilities of the principal as noted in the policy:

1. He shall be directly responsible to the superintendent for all organization, administration and supervision within his building.
2. He shall be responsible for the educational leadership of his staff and curriculum development in cooperation with the curriculum coordinator.
3. He shall be responsible for carrying out board policy and administrative directives.
4. He shall be responsible to maintain an effective public relations program for his building.
5. He shall keep the superintendent fully informed as to the conditions of - the school and the activities therein.

6. He shall work cooperatively with all members of his staff and the administrative staff.
7. He shall be responsible for the health, welfare and all activities of occupants of his building.
8. He shall take an active interest in his professional organizations and community affairs.
9. He shall be responsible for the assignment of teachers within his building in accord with district practices and procedures.
10. He shall work cooperatively with other principals in establishing staff and pupil needs of his building.
11. He shall evaluate his staff in accord with district policy.
12. He shall be responsible for the classification, promotion and retention of students within his building in accord with district practices.
13. He shall be responsible for all administrative details of the building, including attendance, pupil conduct, playground activities, lunchroom, etc.
14. He shall be responsible for ordering all instructional supplies, materials and equipment necessary for the effective operation of his building. This shall be done in cooperation with the business manager.
15. He shall operate his building in accord with all applicable laws, board policy and administrative regulations.
16. He shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the superintendent of schools.

With Our Servicemen

San Diego April 29—Marine Private Roger L. Casteel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Casteel of 649 Horton street, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

Drop 2nd Game

Wildcats' Race For 'C' Title Dims

The Novi Wildcats hopes of a league title were dimmed early this week when Manchester took a 6-2 win to hand the Wildcats their second loss of the season.

The loss came following a win over Grass Lake Thursday that saw the game called at the end of five innings when Novi pulled ahead by more than 10 runs and a league rule was invoked that permits ending play after five complete innings.

Lee Snow pitched the first five innings for the Wildcats, while Gary Boyer took the mound for the final two innings.

Novi nearly got some help in halting front-running Clinton last week when Columbia Central pushed the RedSkins into an extra inning contest, but Clinton took the decision in nine innings.

In demolishing Grass Lake Thursday, the Wildcats scored two runs in the opening inning, saw Grass Lake tie it with two runs in their half of the first. The Wildcats broke the game with a big six-run third inning, added two in the fourth and three in the fifth. Invoking the league rule that if a team is ahead by 10 runs after five innings and if both coaches agree the game can be called, John Osborne and the Grass Lake coach agreed to end the affair.

One benefit to the Wildcats was that their hard-working pitcher, Snow, could well stand the rest, with the game with Columbia Central today (Thursday) and league leading Clinton on Monday.

Snow pitched only four innings of the abbreviated game, yielding two hits and two runs while striking out five. Phil McMillan pitched the fifth and final frame, walking one and giving up one hit and posting one strike out.

The big sixth inning got underway when Boyer reached first on an error. The next three Wildcats Paul Faulkner, Dan Flaherty, and McMillan—singled, with Boyer and Faulkner scoring. Steve Davey then hit a shot that zipped through the shortstops legs, rolled past an outfielder, and kept rolling while Davey circled the bases. Two men crossed the plate in front of him.

With five runs in, Snow kept it going with a three-base hit and scored on Rick Dale's single.

Novi came up with improved all round play in the contest. Osborne pointed to improved play in the field, the Wildcats had no errors charged during the five innings, and alert base running as significant areas of improvement.

In the first inning, Dale caught the Grass Lake napping and scored from second on a ground ball play. Dale walked, stole second, and on an infield out made the turn at third and kept going for the plate to the complete surprise of Grass Lake. Novi got the second run of the inning on a double by Faulkner and a single by Flaherty.

Faulkner and Flaherty each contributed three hits to pace the Wildcats attack.

Softballers Collect 18 Home Runs

Northville Lanes grabbed the top position in the first two weeks of men's softball competition, crushing Pyles Industries, 17-3, and then edging Lapham's, 4-3.

Tied for second place are the Jaycees and Perkins with 1-0 marks. The Jaycees dumped Plymouth State Home, 13-2, and Perkins downed Ford Motor company, 16-4, in games last week.

Other scores in the initial two weeks include: Lapham's over Matatali, 9-6; Matatali blanked Pyles Industries, 16-0.

The softballers slammed a total of 18 home runs in the first two weeks. Jeff Goodrich and Jerry Imsland led the way with three homers each. Those with two include Ken Kujula, Marv Fodor, Joe Humphries, and Don Thomson.

One of the most decisive four-baggers came off the bat of Kujula in the game between Northville Lanes and Lapham's Monday. Pressed into extra innings on a tie score, the powerful Lanes batter smashed a game winning homer. His wasn't the only in the game, however. Four others hit round-trippers.

Salmon Film Now Available

A new color and sound film, telling Michigan's Coho Salmon story, is now available for showing around the state, according to Representative Louis E. Schmidt.

"This spectacular and well-narrated film is available free from the Conservation Department's film loan section in Lansing", Schmidt said. "The film runs 28 minutes, and should be of great interest to sportsmen's clubs and other organizations throughout our area."

He stated that there is bound to be an extremely heavy demand for the film, so groups should request reservations at least three weeks in advance of the planned showing date. It might also be wise, he added, to list an alternate booking date in case the limited number of copies are all reserved ahead.

"To reserve this exciting film," he repeated, "simply write the Film Loan Section, Michigan Conservation Department, Mason Building, Lansing 48926."

During the regular school year of 1967, more than 15,000 Michigan youngsters and their teachers learned first hand about natural resources by camping in outdoor centers managed by the Conservation Department. They came from more than 150 schools, representing over 50 school districts.

Michigan's own Conservation School at Higgins Lake offers opportunities for teachers and youth leaders to learn first hand about natural resources. Here adults combine classroom and field experiences in workshops and seminars, seeing for themselves the effects and importance of Man on the land.

On Way to Two Victories

Thinclads Post School Records

In what Coach Ralph Redmond termed "a really tremendous week", Northville's varsity track team toppled several school records, notched leading state marks, and for the first time in history defeated Lutheran West.

The Mustangs thumped Lutheran West last week Tuesday, 70-48, and two days later edged Bloomfield Hills, 64-54.

Northville led Lutheran West throughout the meet, coming out of the field events with a 25-11 lead and then continued to pile up the points in the dashes and hurdles. The Mustangs posted nine firsts. These included:

Bill MacDermald, shot put, 47' 10"; Mike Ratliff, 11' pole vault; Jim Peterson, 6' high jump; Ron Gjoetznar, high and low hurdles, with times of 16.5 and 21.3, respectively; Bill Harrison, half mile, 2:04.3; Randy Simpson, 100 yard dash, 10.8 and 220 yard dash, 24.3.

The ninth first was posted by Northville's 880 relay squad, which posted its fastest time of the season, 1:34.7. Members of the squad include Greg Carr, Gjoetznar, Al Earehart and Simpson.

Twenty points down early in the meet, the Mustangs came back strong to squeak out its victory over the Barons in the final event of the meet—the mile relay.

"It was really a team effort," said Redmond. "The kids were all up for this one and gained a lot of momentum. It should be real valuable to them as they come into the regionals next week-end at Belleville."

In regional competition, Northville will be up against 18 other Class "B" schools.

Big firsts chalked up by Northville against Bloomfield Hills included the jumps of Peterson and Gjoetznar in the high jump and pole vault events, respectively.

Peterson sailed over the high jump bar at 6' 2 1/4", establishing a new school record and notching himself second place in state competition of Class "B" schools for the event. Gjoetznar vaulted 13' 6", setting another school record and tying the highest current vault of all other Class "B" vaulters in the state.

Gjoetznar also broke his own school record in the low hurdles, bringing it down from 20.3 to 20.1.

The 880 relay team finished first in a time of 1:34.7—just one-tenth second off the school record, and Simpson came in with a time of 22.5 in the 220 yard dash—just .5 of a second of Jim Petrock's school record notched in 1961.

Northville slammed the hurdles, with Gjoetznar leading the way. In the highs, Peterson and Barry Campbell finished in a tie just behind Gjoetznar who posted a time of 15.4. They were tied at 15.6.

Other firsts included MacDermald's put of 47' 4 1/2", and that meet deciding run of the mile relay team at 3:39.6. This squad includes George D'Haene, Harrison, Earehart and Greg Marshall.

Chuck Keegan, back with the squad for the first time since the Howell Relays, finished second in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.5 and, according to the coach, "he wasn't even pushing." Also back from the injury list, Ratliff finished second in the pole vault with a jump of 11' 6".

Campbell finished second to Gjoetznar in the low hurdles with his best time of the season—20.9, and Carr was second to Simpson in the 220 with a time of 22.8.

Mustang Nine Two Games From Another W-O Title

A victory this afternoon and one Saturday would sew up another Wayne-Oakland League championship for Northville's varsity nine—and that's just what the Mustangs have in mind.

Leading the race by three full games, the Mustangs' closest rivals are Milford, Holly and Bloomfield Hills, all of whom are knotted in the second place slot with identical 6-4 records.

Northville boasts a 9-1 record as it invades Bloomfield Hills this afternoon and prepares to battle Brighton in a make-up contest at Brighton on Saturday. Earlier, the Mustangs edged the Barons, 4-3, and bombed the Bulldogs, 10-3.

With its pitching at a peak, the Mustangs will have the added advantage of a husky team batting average when they take on these two teams. They're hitting at a .275 clip, up .022 from a week ago. And if that's not enough, consider the fact that none of the staff's pitchers are hitting under .300.

Latest victims of the Northville pitching and hitting blitz are West Bloomfield and Milford. Both suffered earlier defeats at the hands of the Mustangs, and in the latest encounter they fell 13-5 and 10-0, respectively.

Against the Lakers, Northville was behind by four runs before it launched its attack. West Bloomfield scored three runs in the opening inning and added another in the second. Northville came back with one in the second, another in the third, and seven big ones in the seventh.

Jeff Taylor, who went the distance, got off to a shaky start but soon turned on the pressure in picking up the victory. He fanned 14 Lakers and Fred Holdsworth fired a four-hitter in throttling Milford, with seven strike outs and one walk. The biggest Milford threat of the game came in the first inning when it put two men on base.

Northville scored two runs in the second (Anglin clubbed a double and drove in two runs), three in the fourth (Holdsworth doubled and drove in two runs), and five in the fifth on five hits.

Following Saturday's game at Brighton, Northville will have but two remaining league games: Clarkson here on Monday and Clarenceville on the Trojans' diamond next week Thursday.

On May 25 at 6 p.m. the Mustangs will meet Redford Union (10-4) in the first round of the Livonia Invitational on Livonia's Ford Field.

Northville's overall season record thus far is 10-1. Only Holly has managed to squeeze past the red-hot club, taking an 11-8 game on May 6.

Motor City Pace Scheduled Today

The 16th renewal of the historic $25,000 Motor City Pace at Wolverine Raceway today may bring the nation's most sensational star to the attention of Michigan harness racing enthusiasts.

He is none other than Cardinal King, an invader from Australia in the powerful Stanley Dancer Stable, who has won two $50,000 stakes this year and is considered as the best of the aged campaigners on the Atlantic Seaboard.

Inasmuch as Cardinal King was shipped to the United States with very little earnings showing on his performance card, he became eligible for such rich early closing stakes as the Motor City. It is limited to non-winners of $20,000 prior to this year.

Dancer also has Cardigan Bay, the oldtimer who is nearing the million dollar mark in winnings, in his stable.

The Motor City attracted a list of 57 entries including the spectacular Reed's Waylay, the converted Michigan trotter who has won 10 of 12 starts this year as a pacer under the handling of Harold Fisher of Adrian. The speedy mare won seven in a row at Pompano Park and then added three in Chicago before having the string snapped by Easy Prom in a $10,000 overnight.

Reed's Waylay is a certain starter as are O. C. Mego, Idona's Faith, Greenleaf Douglas and Careless Time, all Michigan owned.

The Motor City is scheduled for two dashes of one mile each.

Racing's Old Hat For Cobb Family

Roscoe Cobb, a 56-year-old driver-trainer from Northville, tells you harness racing has been a part of his family for four generations.

"As a kid I envied my grandfather, John D. Cobb, Sr., who had a stable of horses at West Baden, Indiana, near French Lick. My father owned and raced horses and now my son, John, Jr., is in the business."

"I guess you can say it's a family trademark," Cobb smiled.

Cobb admits he doesn't get in a sulky very much anymore. "When John runs across a trotter he can't handle or break he turns him over to me to get straightened out," Roscoe said.

OUT OF THE FEEDBAG: Paul Champion of Howell isn't giving up on the six-year-old Alice's Champ, named after his wife ... The Champ has earned only $685 in his lifetime but Champion claims his horse has been racing in hard luck ... "He got a bit crossed in his mouth two races ago and the last time stepped into a hole,"

Chow Time on Scout Campout

About Boy Scouts

Leaving behind the inclement weather that usually prevails on their campouts, the Scouts of Northville Troop 731, sponsored by the First Methodist Church of Northville, spent an exhilarating weekend canoeing on the Rifle River near Alger.

The 29 Scouts, accompanied by 11 fathers, left Northville Friday evening and returned Sunday afternoon. They spent the weekend in the Sunset District's camp located on the Rifle River. On Saturday, following a bacon and egg breakfast, troop members piled into cars and headed to the starting point of their canoe trip—35 miles upstream.

Equipped with life jackets, sneakers and a change of clothing (just in case), the Scouts set off in 20 canoes, paddling downstream. Apparently the "Don't do as I do, do as I say" instructions issued by Scoutmasters George Whitesell and Howard Wright paid off because the only casualties were Whitesell and Wright, who received a thorough dunking in the ice-cold water.

After spending more than eight hours on the river with only a short break for lunch, the Scouts returned to camp for a steak dinner prepared by their leaders. Tired, they hit the sack early. The next morning, prior to breakfast, most of the Catholic members of the troop attended Mass at a nearby church. Following breakfast, they broke camp, policed the area and headed for home determined to return again next year "even if we have to earn the money to finance the trip."

Following are some of the events on the troop's calendar for the next months:

May 25—Cleanup of the Rouge River in the Northville area, from approximately 8 a.m. until about 2 p.m. Lunch is to be served by Northville Girl Scouts.

May 30—Participation, in full dress, in the Northville Memorial Day parade.

June 8—Troop participation in the Northville beautification program.

June 23—Court of honor.

August 18 through August 24—Troop will attend Charles Howell Scout Reservation for one week under the direction of Scoutmaster Whitesell and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Chris VanEe.

Wixom Mayor McAtee

Stalls Police Chief Reappointment

Mayor Wesley McAtee's lack of action on reappointment of the police chief for the city of Wixom, while other administrative posts were routinely filled by reappointing incumbents, caused a period of interested concern among the audience and the council at the regular city council meeting Tuesday night.

McAtee's lack of appointment action also brought a charge of playing politics from a citizen in audience. The charge of "playing politics with the chief of police post," was leveled near the end of the meeting by a man who failed to give his name and address before speaking. He was the second speaker to ignore the usual rigid introductory procedure.

"We might as well turn our law enforcement over to the state police of Oakland county," he said. "I'm not playing politics," McAtee said, as his gavel rapped the table. "This meeting is adjourned."

Earlier in the meeting Councilman Charles McCall questioned McAtee about failure to take action to fill the post, currently held by D'Arcy Young.

"I've attended several executive sessions, heard some remarks made that leave me completely in the dark," McCall said. "Now I'm asked to make a judgment, by not taking action, in a situation in which I have few facts and little information to go on."

"You have the right to call for a meeting of the council," McAtee said.

McAtee informed the council that as far as he was concerned the present police chief, D'Arcy Young, would serve in that capacity until appointment action was taken.

During a brief conference between McCall and City Attorney Gene Schnelz, McCall and the audience received a partial explanation of procedure on appointment protocol.

Schnelz explained that when the mayor failed to act on an appointment, he relinquished his right to make the appointment, as well as the right to veto an appointment the council might make.

"It's a basketball game," Schnelz said. "The mayor has just passed to the council."

McCall then asked for an executive session of the council to meet next Tuesday night. He found quick agreement from fellow councilman.

The reappointment of Robert Trombley as administrator of the department of public works, Elizabeth Waara as city clerk and treasurer, and Robert Potter as fire chief were promptly approved.

McAtee informed the council that he did not at this time have an appointment to offer for Wixom Justice of Peace. The justice position, which will be eliminated in several months as part of Michigan's reorganization of courts, is open as a result of the resignation of Elwood Grubb, city postmaster.

The possible make-up of a citizens advisory committee also stimulated discussion between the mayor and council. Work of the advisory committee, a requirement of the federal government associated with the workable program for community improvement associated with urban renewal projects, is described in broad, general terms. It is charged to analyze deficiencies in the community, make recommendations, develop active interest among citizens groups, and work to aid informing citizens about their community.

McAtee proposed appointing the Wixom planning commission to serve as the citizens advisory committee. McCall suggested that this might provide opportunity to involve other interested citizens beyond those already giving service on the planning commission.

Councilman Ray Lahti objected to the broad general description of the committee's duties, contending that it might result in a wasteful duplication of effort by other groups serving recreation, library, and schools.

Action on the appointment of the planning commission to the advisory capacity was tabled, with a decision to seek clarification from the city's planning consultant.

The council accepted the resignation of a six-year member of the planning commission, noting its regrets and directing that a letter of appreciation for services rendered be sent to Oscar Scheffler. His resignation letter informed the council that he was moving from the city.

Northville Township Board Tackles Routine Business

With newly-appointed Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg presiding the Northville township board returned to the routine of regular business last week by making two appointments, investigating an alleged landfill violation, promising to expedite its study of fringe benefits for employees, calling for an examination of the patrol log of the township constable and policeman and determining to settle the matter of salary for the building inspector.

The board was criticized by a member of the audience, Eugene Guido, for being "slow in considering fringe benefits, salary scale and vacations for employees."

Trustees Bernard Baldwin and James Tellam replied that a study was underway, but that it was time-consuming as well as important to be certain of the cost of benefits pledged. They also noted that raises had been given recently, but agreed with Guido that a salary schedule and benefit plan deserve top priority.

The board heard Township Attorney John Ashton state that Arthur Jahn, proprietor of a root beer stand on Northville road, had violated a permit for a landfill next to his business by exceeding the boundaries of the fill and placing materials in a flood plain area. Jahn admitted the violation but did not think it was serious.

Attorney Ashton called upon the board to decide on what action should be taken. On a motion by Trustee Baldwin the board appointed the supervisor, engineer and building inspector to investigate and report back to the board. Possibly, the board noted, removal of the fill would be required.

Trustee Thomas Armstrong pointed out that a final agreement has not been reached with the building inspector. He noted that the board had offered a salary, while the inspector prefers a fee basis. He said it was his understanding that the monthly fees should not exceed an amount that would take the annual salary above $12,000. He noted the April fees amounted to $1,026.50.

The board determined that there had been "no meeting of the minds" on the matter and directed the supervisor to investigate and report at the next meeting.

The board also reiterated its position that the township has no police department and that a hired police officer and the constable were authorized only to use the police car for enforcement of township ordinances, such as no hunting, burning, rubbish, etc. A log of the patrols made by the car was requested for the past two months.

In final action the board named Supervisor Stromberg to the water and sewer commission succeeding the late supervisor and appointed H. O. Evans as the township representative on the recreation commission.

Detroit Man Charged With Rape in Cemetery

A 21-year-old Detroit man stood mute in Westland Municipal court last Sunday when arraigned on charges of raping a 62-year-old Northville woman. A plea of innocent was entered for him by the court. Allen R. Switala will face examination on the charge in Northville Municipal court next Monday, May 20. He was released on $1,000 personal bond after being arraigned.

The assault is alleged to have occurred in Rural Hill cemetery near midnight Saturday. Northville police went to the cemetery when a group of Northville young people came to the station and reported seeing a nude woman running through the cemetery.

Patrolman Howard Reeves and Auxiliary Policeman Robert Schronce investigated the report. According to the report, the officers located the woman in the cemetery and found Switala hiding among bushes in the area.

According to Northville police, the woman and her husband encountered Switala, who was an acquaintance, in a downtown bar Saturday evening. Some time during the evening the woman said she was forced to accompany Switala from the bar by what she believed to be a gun held at her back. He is alleged to have forced her to drive with him to the cemetery.

Police said that at one point during the events the woman rode the car over a steep embankment, 60 to 70 feet high, when she lost control of the vehicle in an attempt to flee. The car was demolished but she escaped serious injury.

Policewoman Alice Ritchie was called to minister to the woman who was suffering from hysteria when located by the officers. She was taken to St. Mary hospital, Livonia, for treatment.

VFW Backs Poppy Sale

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow..."

So went the immortal words of Colonel John McCrae's poem. Little did he realize when he penned those lines that some day the very poppies of which he wrote would be the true symbol of all those who gave their lives in the nation's wars.

But that is the case today. Annually, the Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsors the Buddy Poppy sale in the Northville area to raise money for needy and disabled veterans.

It's the VFW's way of "honoring the dead by helping the living."

"You, too, can pay your respects on Thursday, May 23," the veterans have announced, "when the Buddy Poppies will be on sale in this community..."

"Do your part—buy a poppy and wear it proudly."

School Board President Explains Two-Mill Proposal

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the first of four articles concerning the operational millage election slated for June 10 in Northville. The first, written by Board President Eugene Cook, and the remaining three will explain why school officials believe passage of the 2 mills is essential to the operation of the school system. The other articles will be written by Superintendent Raymond Spear, Curriculum Coordinator, Miss Florence Panattoni and Business Manager Earl Busard.

Last weeks "Northville Record" carried the front page story "School to Ask for 2 Mills." The decision to ask the voters for additional support, for your schools was not an easy one for your Board of Education. Since February, we have been studying preliminary budget figures, evaluating requirements, estimating income and weighing alternatives. Members were not always unanimous in their judgement of priorities but with a lot of conscientious work, finally were able to unanimously decide that this 2 mills is necessary.

Why are 2 mills necessary? It is because the approximate $100,000 income it will generate is required to maintain our "Program of Excellence." By "Program of Excellence" we mean that we do much more than teach "reading," "ritin" and "rithmetic." At the high school and junior high level, we have more courses—more for honors students, more for average students and a wider variety of vocational education in our new facilities. At the elementary level, we have art programs, music programs, and physical education programs, and are doing more in the area of individualized instruction. Classes are small and effective, and we hope this can be maintained. Next year our new swimming pool will open requiring two additional teachers and the necessary maintenance. We expect this will be scheduled for use by as many students as possible, not just high school students.

Almost 75 percent of our current year's budget is for instruction and this percentage will be about the same for next year. This is for teachers and this is obviously the most important part of the budget. Salary negotiations are underway but not yet finalized. We must maintain a salary schedule that is fair and competitive to get good teachers. Our statistics show that very few teachers ever leave Northville for higher paying teaching jobs in other districts. We want to keep it this way. Costs are going up as you know from your own household expenses, as are all wages. Therefore, our costs for materials, equipment, housekeeping supplies, as well as salaries for custodians, maintenance people, cafeteria people, bus drivers, and clerical people must also be competitive.

The valuation of our district has increased recently. This results in more income to the schools. The rea-

Officials Launch Sales Campaign

Members of the Northville board of education are taking part in a "sales" campaign.

Specifically, they're telling anyone who will listen why the Northville public school system needs two more mills for operating expenses. District electors will be asked to approve the millage increase at the June 10 election.

Board President Eugene Cook spoke Wednesday, May 8 to the Northville Estates Civic Association; May 9 Board Treasurer Richard Martin addressed the high school PTA; and Vice President Stanley Johnston outlined the millage request to Northville Rotarians Tuesday noon.

A call to the superintendent's office — 349-3400 — is all that is needed to arrange for a board member or school administrator to speak before any local organization.

son we are asking for only 2 mills is because of this increase in valuation. If the valuation had not increased, the proposition might have had to be 6, 8, or more mills. This is the amount that many other districts are asking for. Subsequent articles will compare and discuss these figures in more depth.

Our expenditure for school operation is higher than the state average. Northville is a higher than average community and has in the past supported the concept that we wanted better than the average. The fact that our system is better is supported by the testimonials that Northville real estate people get from families looking for homes. They come to Northville because of the reputation of our school system and they also want the best for their children.

We know that no one likes more taxes, be they federal, state, city, or school taxes. We are also convinced that responsible people will not protest all taxes by voting "no" on a school issue. This will only result in short changing the educational opportunities provided children in the Northville Public Schools. Tax dollars spent for education are not a cost—they are an investment in the future. We urge your support of the 2 mill proposal on June 10.

OK Rebuilding Of New Garage

Completion of Wixom's new municipal garage was assured when the city council voted unanimously to enter into a contract for reconstruction of the building. The building was severely damaged by a fire early this year when the new structure was nearly ready for occupancy.

At Tuesday night's meeting a motion by Councilman Gunnar Mettala to enter into a contract for the reconstruction was approved without dissent and without discussion.

Hastings: A City Among Many Lakes

Located in southwestern Michigan, Northville's Michigan Week exchange city—Hastings is the county seat of Barry county which boasts 327 lakes that give it the unofficial title, "City Among Lakes".

The city of 7,000 plus population is located on state highways M-37, M-43 and M-79 in the heart of a choice vacation land and rich farming area. It also is the home of several well-established and flourishing industrial plants.

One of its most popular recreation sites is Tyden Park on the Thornapple River, featuring tables and grills, children's swings, slides and other playground equipment amid stately trees.

For the tennis enthusiast, four tennis courts are located at Hastings' Johnson field. They are hard surfaced with large fences to back them up.

The downtown street and lighting improvement program, completed in the summer of 1962, has given the entire shopping section of Hastings a "new face". This project, accomplished at a cost of approximately $130,000, was entirely city financed, largely with funds earmarked for street purposes in advance of the work.

The municipally owned airport, just 3.2 miles from the downtown area, provides directional blacktop, lighted runways for private aircraft capable of landing twin engine aircraft. It is approved as a Class "B" facility by the Civil Aeronautics authority.

Among its major industries are: E. W. Bliss company, Chenoweth Machine company, Hastings Aluminum Products, Inc., Hastings Manufacturing company, Hastings corporation, Tyden corporation, Actionrod, Inc., Actionflex division of Consolidated Metal Products, Flexfab, Inc., Hastings Fiber Glass Products, Inc., Dow-I-T company, Hastings Burling, Vaults, Midway Polishing and Buffing company, and the Viking corporation.

Seek Letters On 'Airport'

The Federal Aviation agency has called for letters citing reasons for protest to the construction of the proposed Oakland-Orion Airport, according to Glenn Swindler, president of the Oakland County Homeowners and Taxpayers association.

"We are grateful for the opportunity," said Swindler, "since our protests to the Oakland County Board of Supervisors have been falling on deaf ears.

"The Power Clique on the board have decided that they are going to have this airport at this site come hell or high water. They were advised against the site in 1964, and they paid $10,000 for that advice. Then they hired somebody else for another $4,000, and they came up with the kind of advice they wanted.

"The FAA found the site objectionable from an air safety standpoint five years ago," continued the group's spokesman, "how can it be any less objectionable now?"

The Homeowners association was organized in 1962 to fight the purchase of this airport (then called Allen Airport) when plans for the project were introduced full-blown to the public only 10 days before the initial purchase of land.

In a recent letter to the FAA, the Homeowners group pointed out the irony of the situation in that the scheme was dreamed up and planned in secret by "a handful of men on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors — and the very presence of a majority of those men on the Board has been ruled illegal by the U.S. Supreme Court."

"This handful of men," the letter continued, "have denied the citizens of Oakland County an open hearing on the airport proposal while spending tax moneys taken from those citizens to secure the land for the airport."

The Homeowners association takes the position that the citizens of southeastern Michigan have already paid for multi-million dollar air facilities at Metropolitan and Willow Run, just 50 miles away from the proposed Orion Airport, as well as all the other tax-subsidized airports in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties.

The Board of Supervisors now hopes to convince the State and Federal government to spend more of the taxpayers' money on this particular airport venture.

WHITEHALL MEMORIAL—A lecture in memory of her father, who had been a resident of the Whitehall-Novi Convalescent home, is presented to the home by Mrs. Orpha Milligan, 19216 Lahser road, Detroit, in ceremonies Sunday preceding a church service and an open house marking the beginning of Michigan Nursing Home Week. From left are Mrs. Ruth Madigan, home administrator, the Reverend Robert Mitchinson of Novi Methodist church who dedicated the lecture and will use it to conduct services, Mrs. Milligan and Lloyd R. Johnson, Whitehall owner. During this week, area residents are asked to visit and perhaps bring a small gift to a nursing home patient as many lonely patients have outlived family and friends.

Graduation Party Plans Progressing

Plans for the Northville high school senior party are well underway. Committee chairmen report that each of their committees are working hard to make for a successful evening for seniors.

The party is slated for graduation night, beginning at 11 p.m. and continuing until about 4 a.m., on June 10.

Invitations will be mailed shortly, inviting all seniors to join with their classmates in the Hawaiian Night Aloha party — a farewell gesture among seniors, many of whom have been classmates throughout their school days.

Plans call for a wide variety of entertainment, including live bands, guest entertainers, etc. Snack and pop bars are planned, and winding up the festivities will be a breakfast served about 2:30 a.m.

All seniors will be asked to sign in at the party and sign out if they leave early. Those who sign out early will not be readmitted.

Parents who have not yet made a donation ($5) may do so by sending a check to Mrs. R. Hahn, 464 Welch, Northville, payable to the Northville high school 1968 Senior Class Party.

Methodists To Confirm 14

Confirmation Sunday will be observed at the 11 a.m. service May 19 at the Northville First United Methodist church.

The Reverend S.D. Kinde, minister, will question the class on teachings from the membership manual of the United Methodist church and on their personal faith.

To be confirmed as full members of the church are Richard William Ambler, Merilee Becker Brian Donald Butler, Robert James Bloomhuff, Lori Diane Cook, Deborah Sue Frounfelter, Jean Ellen Fritz, Jackie Ann Gray, Janet Lynn Moore, Sue Ellen Peterson, Laurie Schoultz, Diana Lee Sellers, Cynthia Jane Todd, Deborah Ann Wilber.

Each will be presented with a Bible by the church. The class has met weekly since the first of the year. The young people in the class were entertained at a picnic given last week by the Commission on Membership and the Commission on Education at Cass Benton park.

Your VOTE will decide the future of NOVI

"YOUR MOST ASKED QUESTIONS"

- WHY IS BOUNDARY PROTECTION SO IMPORTANT?
- WHY IS TAX BASE PROTECTION SO IMPORTANT?
- WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO MY TAX BILL?
- WHAT WILL CITYHOOD DO FOR MY COMMUNITY & ME?

— Under state law, areas of a township or village are readily annexed by surrounding cities. Novi has had annexations before 3 separate annexes to Northville, and 1 to Wixom; (This involved the Ford Lincoln Plant and a transfer of $25,000 cash assets to Wixom)

BECOMING A CITY WOULD ELIMINATE THIS

— Other cities, when thinking of annexing, do so with the thought of reaping rewards such as increased tax revenue with minimum of expenditure, such as happened with the Ford Plant, and could happen with the Perkins Engine Plant, ABC Photo* F. W. Kerr Co. or such vacant industrially zoned property.

BECOMING A CITY WOULD ELIMINATE THIS

— Services on the local level cost us tax dollars. If the cost for these services are spread over a large number of residences, businesses and industries, the individual cost is small. But,* if areas continue to be annexed, we all must pay higher taxes just to maintain what we now have without any improvements

BECOMING A CITY WOULD ELIMINATE THIS

UNDER A CITY FORM OF GOVERNMENT

- *NOVI WOULD HAVE BOUNDARY PROTECTION
- *NOVI WOULD HAVE TAX BASE PROTECTION
- *NOVI WOULD HAVE A SIMPLIFIED MORE ECONOMICAL SINGLE CITY GOVERNMENT INSTEAD OF DUAL TOWNSHIP-VILLAGE FORM OF GOVERNMENT(S)
- *NOVI WOULD HAVE A GOAL — TO PLAN FUTURE NEEDS AND TO DEVELOP THESE NEEDS INTO A CITY WE ALL CAN BE PROUD TO BE A PART OF.

BECOMING A CITY WOULD DO THIS

THE NOVI JAYCEES HAVE CONCLUDED, THROUGH STUDY AND RESEARCH, THAT, "CITYHOOD FOR NOVI" IS ECONOMICALLY JUSTIFIED, PROPER AND WISE AT THIS TIME.

News Around Schoolcraft

The names of 57 Schoolcraft college students, including one from Novi, have been placed on the Dean's List for academic achievement during the winter semester which ended May 4, it has been announced by Vice-President for Instruction John H. Brinn.

To be placed on the Dean's List a student must maintain an academic grade point average of at least 3.5000 of a possible 4.000 in a minimum of 12 credit hours of class work. Twelve students completed the term with a perfect 4.00 grade point average.

The Novi student is Diane Pallunas, 23645 Ripple Creek, who earned a 3.714 grade average.

Associate Degrees and Certificates of Program Completion were awarded to 160 candidates for graduation at Schoolcraft College at the Third Annual Commencement at the college on Sunday, April 28.

According to Registrar Norman E. Dunn, who released the list of degree and certificate recipients, degrees were awarded in six areas. Of the 160 students who were graduated, 18 received Certificates of Program Completion, Dunn said.

The local graduates and the type of degree or certificate they earned are:

From Northville: Associate in Arts: Karen Sue Hembrey, 9300 Napier, associate in arts; and Larry Arthur Forth, 21718 Kilrush drive, associate in general studies.

From Novi: Diane Pallunas, 23645 Ripple Creek road, associate in business studies; Peter M. Wharton, 24283 Coral Lane, associate in general studies; and Terry Edmund Goyt, 41118 McMahon Circle, associate in science.

Anthony V. Rizzo, geography instructor at Schoolcraft College, is the author of an "Atlas of Michigan's Foreign Born Population," published recently by Free World Press of Dearborn.

The 31-page atlas is believed to be the first of its kind published for Michigan and is intended as a basic reference work for college, high school, and public libraries.

A variety of maps, charts and graphs, accompanied by statistical tables, cover such areas as continent and country of origin of the state's foreign born population, distribution by county, urban and rural distribution, and average age and age structure. Data is also given for first generation foreign stock by country of parents origin and county of residence in Michigan.

Rizzo has been a member of the Schoolcraft faculty since the college opened in 1964, and is the author of "Notebook of Systematic Geography," a college freshman geography text, published in 1957.

The atlas sells for $3.95 and is available from the publisher.

Northville Police Activities Zoom

Increases in the frequency of fires, of complaints involving alcohol coupled with vandalism and animal complaints topped the March Northville police report.

This year 502 calls were serviced during March, while 376 were serviced in March 1967. Total activity for the first three months also is up over a year ago with a 1,618 total exceeding last year's 1,353.

The increase came from within the city, as the 53 calls serviced in the township in March matched the number serviced in 1967.

Part of the increase stemmed from officers encountering more doors and windows being left open—44 over the 19 listed last year.

In the alcohol category, 12 disorderly person (drunk) complaints, 17 minors in possession, contrasted with three and six for each in March 1967. In a related category, 16 impounded vehicles, where there were none for March 1967, reflects application of the impoundment ordinance.

In activity with animals, police serviced 40 animal complaints in addition to 27 complaints involving stray dogs. Nineteen complaints were handled in each case last March.

The animal complaints are up sharply for the first three months, with a total of 103 contrasting to 56 to this date a year ago.

The March report is clean of major crimes. Frequency of major larceny is down, with one larceny of more than $100 listed for this March to six for March 1967 and seven larcenies of amounts less than $100 this year to eight last year.

Auto accidents were the same, with three injury accidents in a 14 figure accident total for March of each year.

Moving violations show a big jump while parking violations show a marked decrease from March 1967. Moving violations reached 134 this March, compared to 47 a year ago. A total of 342 were recorded during the first three months this year to 126 in 1967.

Two hundred ninety seven parking violations were recorded this March—down 100 from the March total of last year. The total to date this year is 929, down from 1,222 for the same period last year.

Municipal Court

Disorderly person charges for fighting or drinking led the list of cases coming before Municipal Judge Phillip Ogilvie last week Wednesday.

Henry F. Kay, 22222 Beck road, Northville, was arrested on the charge of being disorderly and drunk on west-bound Randolph between Linden and Eight Mile. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $30 and $3 costs.

Jack F. Moffitt, 341 East Main street, Northville, was arrested and charged with being drunk and disorderly on West Main street at North Center April 27. He pleaded guilty and was fined $30 and $3 costs.

A charge of being disorderly and fighting on North Center street in the downtown area March 31 was filed against Michael G. In the same incident Hugh F. Burns of Southfield was charged and pleaded not guilty but changed his plea to guilty last week. He was fined $30, $3 costs and placed on six months' probation also.

On motion of the city attorney and the complaining officer, the original charge was dismissed and the plea of guilty was assessed to the added charge of driving with no operator's license on his person. He was fined $50, three days in jail and was placed on three months' probation.

Out of THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...A third candidate, William C. Soeliner, indicated he would enter the race for two seats on the board of education. Earlier incumbent board members Edward F. Angove and W. C. Becker announced their intentions of seeking re-election.

...Northville's economic development corporation learned that its loan application for $185,000 through the Small Business Administration won approval in Washington. The local, non-profit corporation obtained the loan to assist Foundry Flask and Equipment company, 455 East Cady, in expansion plans.

...Free Saturday afternoon movies for Northville area youngsters began on a three-week trial basis.

...Bud Guest, WJR star, spoke at the Presbyterian Men's club annual ladies night in the church's Fellowship Hall.

...Members of Northville's new swim club voted to go ahead with plans for an olympic-size pool and awarded a contract for construction of the pool, wading area and bath house.

...One of the top sophomores on Central Michigan university's track squad was Tom Darling, a graduate of Northville high school whose parents were residents of Novi.

TEN YEARS AGO...

...Donald Lawrence and Robert J. Herter were slated to compete in the June 9 election for the single vacancy on the Northville board of education.

...Construction of the proposed 2,000 home Lincoln Village development in western Novi township was delayed "nine months to a year" because of the then current recession. But a spokesman for Thompson-Brown company, which planned to build the $40,000,000 subdivision, said Lincoln Village "definitely has not been abandoned."

...Roy Pederson and Jack VanHaren were named winners in the creative arts competitions in Detroit and South Bend, Indiana.

...Hundreds of voters were expected to go to the polls in Wixom to decide whether a proposed city charter should be accepted.

...and who should serve as the city's first mayor, council and justice of peace.

Odds were heavy that Wixom would approve the charter by a wide margin. It has been thoroughly aired at public meetings and had sparked little opposition.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

...Cost of garbage collection in Northville were scheduled to increase unless residents agreed to set their garbage pails on the curb to make the collection easier. Background of the increase was the new state law forbidding feeding raw garbage to pigs, which had been the customary practice for many years. This practice was no longer legal, leaving collecting firms with two alternatives: One was to cook the garbage before feeding, which was regarded as too costly and impractical, and the other was to dispose of it in a sanitary landfill, which was the police description for dumping in on the ground and then covering it with earth.

...Seventy-year-old Jay Goodale operated the grain grinder of the Northville Milling company for the last time as the business was scheduled to be discontinued on May 29 because of a gradual decrease over the years of farming in this area and diminished demand for custom grain grinding. According to the owner, D. P. Yerkes, Jr., the lumber end of the business was slated to continue operation. The original mill was located near the Ford pond near Griswold but was moved to the Baseline road location in 1921.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...

...Jack Grey received his team's Good Sportsmanship trophy from A. Bauer, secretary of the bowling league.

...Ben Tinkem of Ben's Novi Inn announced the installation of a large commercial television set for the entertainment of his patrons. The set was the largest in the area and it presented all current news, sports and entertainment.

...Novi Baptist Church elected the following officers: J. Brent Munroe, deacon for three years; Mrs. Oscar Graham and Miss Pauline Graham, deaconesses for three years; Mrs. W. D. Flint, clerk; Miss Margaret Ann Hill, assistant clerk; Earl Banks, treasurer; Mrs. William Martin, financial secretary; Mrs. Albert Hill, benevolence treasurer; James Sprague, Bible school superintendent; Rev. M. J. Remeln and Miss Dorothy Remeln, choristers; Mrs. Florence Button, pianist.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...The Raging Rouge no longer rampant was almost back to normal as flood tide waters subsided after a 24-hour downpour of some two inches. The deluge raised the levels of all nearby branches nearly four feet and water covered the major part of the Rouge Parkway, running over the bridges and dams, about three feet high. On North Center the flume across the street near the laundry plugged up and water covered the street to a depth of about a foot. Old-timers said the height of the water equalled that of the flood of 1935.

...Names as American Heroes in The Record were these three Northville servicemen: Tom Frank Martino, Donald Kimmel and Harold Schoultz.

...James Erwin, Novi director of the Second War Loan Drive, reported that all returns were in, giving Novi a record of $32,000. Two belated returns were in the Gallant class. They are Mrs. Walter Harling, who sold $3,000 and William Mafrs, who sold a bit over $1,000 worth.

...Called to service was Charles Pink, Northville athletic coach, who was scheduled to leave for the United States Navy on June 1.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...The Puritan Health Food company was organized by prominent Detroiters, Gillespie & Collins, the owners of the well known "Argo Mills" of Northville, and several prominent gentlemen of Tiffin, Ohio. The company has organized for $100,000 with $57,500 paid in. The Argo plant will be constructed to twice its present size of buildings, with grain elevator attached. The capacity of the health food department will be 200 barrels of hygienic whole wheat flour per day. The curtain shade building also will be purchased, or leased, shortly and the plan of purchasing all kinds of farm produce and live stock will be made a specialty in connection with the other business noted above.

...The apportionment of primary school interest money was to be made. The apportionment among the counties of the state, Wayne county excepted, is $442,588.02. Wayne county gets $63,595.40. The township of Plymouth has 577 school-age children and gets $346.20 while Northville with less youngsters gets $34.20.

...Mrs. George B. Sinclair and Mrs. Charles A. Sessions died.

...Secretary of State Warner's crop report indicated that farm laborers throughout the state were scarce and that the average wages for such are about $21 per month.

VISITS GETTYSBURG - Richard Norton, 11, of 325 Ely drive, South, representing safety patrol boys of Northville, was among 129 Michigan boys and girls at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania on Friday where they began a day of sightseeing as part of the Automobile Club of Michigan's 32nd annual safety patrol trip. The patrol delegation, representing 100 Michigan cities, visited scenic and historic areas around Gettysburg as part of a four-day, all-expense-paid trip which began Thursday. Richard, a student at Amerman, (immediately next to Ernest P. Davis, the Auto Club's retiring director of safety and traffic) and two Grosse Pointe patrolers, Stephen Zaranek and Douglas Anderson, present Davis with a plaque honoring him for "33 years of meritorious serving in helping 'Bring 'Em Back Alive' on Michigan highways." Davis, who retires in July, helped organize the first safety patrol trip in 1936.

Woman Falls From Horse Near 8 Mile

A Detroit woman suffered fractured ribs and other injuries in Novi early last Thursday afternoon when a horse she was mounting reared and fell backwards on her.

Novi police were called to assist the injured woman, Mrs. Eleanor Robinson who was lying on the ground in a field about 50 yards south of the roadway at 48525 West Eight Mile road. Corporal Gordon Nelson responded to the call for aid placed by Mrs. Robinson's husband.

Nelson said that the husband was holding the reins of the horse, which Mrs. Robinson had just mounted, when the horse reared high on his hind legs and fell backward on his fallen rider.

Mrs. Robinson was taken by ambulance to St. Marys Hospital, Livonia, and received treatment for six fractured ribs and other bruises and injuries.

State Income Tax Revenues Trickle In

LANSING—$155 million poured into the state treasury since last October when Michigan's personal income tax took effect. Additional revenue from the taxes on corporations and banks, which began Jan. 1, is just now beginning to trickle into state coffers.

Officials now calculate the net yield at more than the $218 million they formerly estimated for the current fiscal year ending June 30. "The estimates were on the conservative side," admits State Treasurer Allison Green.

A PETITION drive, now underway throughout the state, may change the picture this fall. State fiscal officers and budget-minded legislators are watching to see if the required number of signatures are obtained to put the income tax question to a popular vote.

If that happens, tax-resistant voters could produce chaos in the state's financial affairs. The problem could be compounded even more if, in addition to losing the tax, the state is compelled to refund all of the withholding tax it has already collected this year.

The prospect has led to behind-the-scenes maneuvering. Emergency proposals are being prepared for use if the income tax petition drive is successful. One would ask voter approval to raise the sales tax to six percent.

REVENUE FROM sales tax collections in fiscal 1967 places Michigan fourth in the nation behind New York, California and Pennsylvania. Each of the four states collected more than $1 billion from sales tax.

In per capita state taxes, however, Michigan ranks 16. The average U.S. citizen paid $161.92 in state taxes last year; Michigan residents paid $178.33. Residents of Hawaii paid the highest state taxes, $297.05 per capita; residents of Nebraska paid the lowest, $95.09. Seven states, Michigan included, accounted for 46% of all state tax collections in the 50 states.

AN EXPERIMENT begun two years ago by the Michigan Department of Corrections promises to be an effective means for rehabilitation of inmates. Under the program selected inmates leave the prison during the day to hold regular jobs at regular pay. They return to prison each evening. Money earned is either saved for release or sent to families. In many cases, the income lowers welfare costs.

Since its inception there have been 329 men and eight women placed with 67 different employers. Three-fourths of those placed continued on the job until released from prison. Some were removed because they could not handle the work, some because of prison rule violation.

Almost all were rated highly by employers. The average weekly pay totaled $82, but the range was up to twice that amount for skilled workers. A total of $425,000 was earned by all inmates during the two year period. About $100,000 of this amount was sent home to dependents, most of whom had been Aid to Dependent Children recipients. Another $25,000 was contributed to the state general fund. The rest was saved by inmates.

TRANSPORTATION to and from the job is the biggest problem, according to Gus Harrison, Director of Corrections. It is not provided at state expense. A solution to that problem plus location of a few more employers would permit the placing of about 100 inmates per day. Currently, 65 men participate in the program.

Jobs cover a wide variety of industries and include manufacturing, contracting, auto washes, farm work and wholesale suppliers. The eight women in the program work at a theological seminary.

Harrison indicated that the department was following progress of early parolees who had worked under the work-pass system. Harrison states,

"We don't need to know the parole outcome to conclude that the program is clearly worthwhile. In addition to the money sent to dependents, our parole agents report that saving have helped re-entry of many men into the community. We can't measure the gains in self-esteem and satisfaction, but those who work with these men say that improved morale is apparent."

The corrections commission recently approved a new program which permits selected inmates to attend nearby academic and trade courses. This program offers training not available in institutions and also eases the re-entry of prisoners into society.

Fifty Year Old Post Office Seeks More Air Mail

BABSON PARK, Massachusetts. This week, as the Post Office Department marks the 50th anniversary of air mail, it is pursuing with vigor a program to move more first class mail via air. By sometime next year, there could be a merger of first class mail and air mail into a single class of priority mail dispatched by the fastest means of transport available.

Despite these evidences of progress, the P.O. is in deep trouble. Sharply increased postal rates put into effect some months ago are failing to give it the shot in the arm predicted, partly because of rising wages and other costs and partly because the vast, sprawling system of more than 32,000 post offices continues to be locked tightly in the grip of a patronage-hungry Congress.

Last month's resignation of Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien after a short term in office has focused attention anew on the fact that Postmasters General often have not served long enough to come to full grips with the problems involved, much less long enough to bring to a happy fruition long-range plans and projects of rejuvenation and reform.

ACTUALLY, we have had 59 Postmasters General since President George Washington first appointed Samuel Osgood in 1789. Theodore Roosevelt had 5 during his two terms. Over a similar span Grant had 4. Yet Calvin Coolidge held on to a Harding appointee through all his own five years in office.

Fifty-nine Postmasters General may seem too many, but it is about par for the course as far as some of our major government departments are concerned. Beginning with Washington's time and carrying down to the present, there have been 55 Secretaries of State, 58 Secretaries of the Treasury, and 66 Attorneys General.

UNQUESTIONABLY, it would be a step forward if Postmasters General were responsible only for their department's administration and operation. The time-honored custom of assigning political and other duties to an incumbent Cabinet official has had its critics from the beginning and rightly so. Even though dictated by expediency, it never was a good idea. Now that the P.O.'s work load has increased so many fold, it is unjust to permit its chief to be "borrowed" more or less continually for political and other tasks.

Equally detrimental to the postal service is the practice of presidential appointment of city, town, and area postmasters at the special pleading of members of Congress. Much too often this "spoils" system has led to the appointment of postmasters who just haven't been equal to the challenges confronting them in office.

A PRESIDENTIAL commission headed by Frederick R. Kappel, retired chairman of American Telephone & Telegraph Company, has completed an in-depth study of the P.O. and its operations. Members believe that within 5 to 10 years as much as $1.5 billion could be saved annually if the department were to be converted from its present Cabinet status to a non-profit corporation similar to the Tennessee Valley Authority. The commission contends that perhaps as much as 20% of the P.O.'s annual budget is wasted because of old-fashioned methods and antiquated buildings, and it cites especially the failure to make use of more labor-saving devices.

The goal is to put the P.O. on a more businesslike and — hopefully — self-sustaining basis by untying the patronage strings that hold back progress and by setting up a more flexible and equitable postage-rate structure. When can we expect such reforms? Probably not soon, for too many congressional toes would be bruised in the process. Never? That depends on how much we care and how forcefully and persistently we make our will for reform and economy known in Washington and felt at the ballot box.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Northville City Attorney Marvin Stempien may be average in stature, but he's long on staying power.

Back in 1965 when Stempien was a state representative from this area he helped author legislation that would provide for election of county supervisors on a one man-one vote basis.

After a series of hearings throughout the state the bill was drafted and in April, 1966 passed by the legislature and signed into law by the governor.

Since then the law has been in a state of suspended animation, caused chiefly by an advisory opinion from the Michigan Supreme Court that the law was unconstitutional.

The state high court rendered its opinion (not an official decision) because the U. S. Supreme Court had not ruled on a case involving local governments in the "one man-one vote" controversy.

And when legal action was taken in Michigan to initiate an election of county supervisors based on the new law and the "one man-one vote" formula, the State Court of Appeals upheld the advisory opinion of the State Supreme Court.

But on April 1 this year the U.S. Supreme Court did uphold the principle in a Texas case. On April 15 the State Court of Appeals reversed its previous decision and last week the State Supreme Court reversed its advisory opinion.

The next day, Thursday, May 9, Wayne County Circuit Judge James Canham ordered the county clerk to accept a petition of a candidate for the Wayne County board of supervisors under the new one man-one vote plan.

The candidate who had applied for a petition for office was Marvin Stempien, the ex-legislator.

He says he really isn't going to run for the county board of supervisors, but his action created the test case that will now cause the 83 counties in the state of Michigan to divide themselves into equal representative districts and elect between 25 and 35 supervisors to their respective boards - this fall.

Wayne county had already devised a plan for 26 districts under the Stempien legislation, but like other counties in the state didn't act to initiate the plan because of the high court rulings.

Presently, supervisors are either elected or appointed, based pretty much on the whim of the governmental bodies they represent within the county. But Michigan's constitution says that "every township shall have one supervisor".

Northville township has one supervisor on the Wayne county board. The city, because it lies in two counties, has one each on the Wayne and Oakland county boards.

This is exactly what Stempien and his cohorts objected to when they set out to draft a one man-one vote law for the state's counties.

"We tried to follow the mandate of the United States Supreme Court in establishing as the primary objective equal representation based on population", Stempien declares. "Instead our county boards of supervisors represent units of government primarily, not people".

Under the new Wayne county plan the city and township of Northville will be included in a district with Plymouth city and township, Canton township and Livonia. The district will have one supervisor on the 26-member board.

Stempien maintains the area will gain, not lose power on the board of supervisors. Some suburbanites dispute this.

But it is a matter of mathematics and what set of figures you choose to use.

Right now Northville (city and township) has two votes on a board of 130 supervisors. Under the new plan Northville will be part of a district having one vote on a board of 26 supervisors.

Admittedly, one-26th is more than two-130ths.

But the district now has a total of eight votes: Northville and Plymouth, 2 each; Canton, 1; and Livonia, 3.

And one-26th doesn't give the district as much voting power as the present eight-130ths.

(Sorry about that, Marvin. I double-checked my arithmetic, too.)

Regardless of the mathematics, the formula will change with the population. And presently, all representation is based upon the 1960 census.

Importantly, a more equitable system of representation will be employed and a cumbersome body will be trimmed from 144 to 26.

And Attorney Stempien discovered again something he must have learned many years ago - the wheels of justice truly do turn slowly.

Happily, however, their movement is forward.

To the Editor:
The members of the reactivated Northville Human Relations Council take this opportunity to commend Mayor A.M. Allen and the Northville city council for "facing up to its responsibility of community leadership," in proposing and unanimously endorsing the open housing ordinance for public hearings.

We encourage the community to think in concert with its elected officials, and express our confidence in the citizens of Northville to exhibit the high quality of integrity for which they are known.

almost everything; taxes, millage, teachers, school curriculum, etc. etc. This is fine and I commend our fine citizens for their attitude in these matters!

However, what does it take to get these same fine people concerned about the safety of Northville's youngsters as they go to and from school? I truly hope it's not going to mean one of the local children must meet with a terrible tragedy before the importance of the Helping Hand program will sink through.

The Northville Jaycettes have invested a large sum of money and time to try to make Northville a safer place for all children. We have sent hundreds of pass out sheets home with students; we have spoken about the program at local PTA's and other organizations; we have had numerous articles and advertisements in this paper. After all this, would you believe that there are only 120 people in Northville concerned enough to place a hand in their window?

We are grateful to these people—but can't help but wonder how so many others can sit back and do nothing! I'd hate to see my group give up the Helping Hand project and yet it's VERY discouraging to us when after all our attempts we must fight this apathy!

It does NOT cost anything to become a Helping Hand—but by having hands throughout our city we may save the price of a life someday.

Please call TODAY for more information and / or to say, "I care, I'll be a Helping Hand."

'Give Chance'

To the Editor:
As a student of Northville high I would like to comment on Mrs. Dodd's letter that was in the Record's May 2 issue. I read Mrs. Dodd's letter and I thought she had a very good point. I think it would be kind of interesting having a Negro teacher in our school system. She said it would be preferable that these Negro teachers would conduct certain courses of music, art, and physical education. I think the Negro teacher would be good if we just gave them a chance.

"IT WOULD SEEM, SIR THAT WE HAVE AT LAST ATTAINED THE STATURE OF A UNIVERSITY."

By ROLLY PETERSON

The spectacle of students and non-students besieging administrative offices at Columbia university has provoked cries of outrage from university students, at Columbia and other universities, and particularly from what is considered the American community.

Columbia is not unique. Ever since the Berkeley flare-up in 1964, protests of lesser magnitude have plagued university campuses. Anybody - recent grads, old grads and non-grads - would be hard pressed to thoroughly explain the uprisings, but they definitely indicate a changing on-campus attitude.

Admittedly, as Newsweek magazine pointed out, "a great many university officials assume an ostrich-like position; even at Berkeley where it all started, there is little communication between students and administration except in times of crises."

Here is where a campus newspaper, acknowledged by administrative officials as a mirror of student attitude, can serve as a useful, if not a crucial, link-up between students and administration. Perhaps that way potentially volatile protest can be defused through enlightenment of the campus community and at the conference table.

Major campus newspapers, by and large, are accurate sounding boards of student opinion. Although, like all newspapers, they pipe a certain line - whether left or right of center - they are responsible. Students, administrators and teachers usually read with avidity stories in the campus rag, providing the paper is not merely an administrative puppet.

Columbia's Spectator, like other observers, noted that the battle between the administration and students had degenerated into one between "the intransigent insurgents and the ossified administration." In other words, that campus newspaper called the shot correctly, implying that both sides were at fault.

Even Margaret Mead, the noted anthropologist, concurred in this evaluation. She blamed the students for taking advantage of administrative leniency, but at the same time charged the administration with failing to recognize the students' protest reasons as being valid.

Other universities have avoided major, bloodletting demonstrations primarily by trying to communicate with students, many through campus newspapers. The President of Yale university meets regularly with editors of The Yale Daily News, the chancellor of UCLA regularly talks with staffers from "The Bruin."

On the University of Michigan campus, "The Michigan Daily" provides cogent commentary on campus activities. Students recognize that the paper enjoys a substantial amount of editorial freedom, and many grads, to remain in touch with the campus tenor, read the Daily with some avidity.

Clearly, campus rags such as The Daily, the Bruin, the Yale Daily News, The Spectator, are playing and can play an increasingly important role on campus. Administrators are slowly recognizing this fact in their dealings with these organs.

It's a must. For communications on sprawling, metropolitan campuses are imperative if anarchy and chaos are to be expunged and reason is to prevail.

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

Remembering smells isn't as easy as remembering those things that produce the smells. But if you really put your mind to it, those nostalgic odors from the past live again.

The rules are simple: take yourself back to a particular place and time, involve yourself in some past activity, concentrate - and boing - the smells are smelling again.

Take for instance the Saturday smells my brother Dick and I conjured up last weekend. We started with a simple one, spiced it with another and we soon had a hybrid that was as real as the original.

For me the Saturday smell in our home, where the kitchen served for both cooking and bathing, was the bread rising near the coal stove register, the German rolls baking in the oven, and the giant doughnuts sizzling in a pan of grease and then popped steaming hot into a dish of sugar.

"That's about right," said Dick, "but Saturday was really three smells

- morning, afternoon and evening. And they all sort of blended together to produce a blah smell that I'd rather forget."

He illustrated by adding a giant kettle of vegetable soup - so big that soup was part of our menu half-way into the next week. ("Doncha remember, it would sit on the stove for days - the grease on top congealed and terrible looking.")

By early evening the smell of soup, seasoned with the aroma of baked bread and rolls, melted into the steam from scalding tubs of bath water. And these, together with wet towels and wet hair, produced the blah smell he - and now I remembered.

Monday. Oh, Monday, that was a smelly day. That big copper tub on top of the two-burner kerosene stove in the basement. The pungent bars of Fels Naptha soap whittled into the kerchunking Maytag washer. The piles of dirty clothes. By mid-morning the clothes were out on the lines but the basement smell permeated the house throughout the day.

Some of the other smells we remembered:

The crock of sauer kraut, covered with a round, moldy board and held in place by a big rock. It shared the basement with the fermenting rhubarb wine, the heavy baskets of ashes, and dad's wonderful tool box with its musty, masculine smell.

The back porch of another farmhouse, where dirty patched coveralls hung beneath a sweaty straw hat. Where manure caked shoes sat ready for action. Where a wash basin sat next to an empty pitcher, a pail of cold water and a tin drinking cup. Where pots of plants thrived, where cats snoozed, and where farming started and ended.

The kitchen of the same house, with its huge wood-burning cook stove where heaping piles of starchy foods were prepared. And the seldom used parlor, clean and dark and still smelling a little farm-like.

"I've got a smell that tops 'em all," I said squeezing in my share of smells. "It's the smell of scarlet fever."

"You're kidding," he said.

"It's happened several times. I've been in or near a home where scarlet fever was present and I knew it before someone told me."

"What's it smell like?"

"I can't describe it, but it's scarlet fever just the same."

"Ever think about going to work with the health department? They probably could use a nose like yours."

Whereupon our conversation degenerated into a debate over whose nose was biggest. It ended with a remark that forced me to invite him to leave:

"Some smells are fishy, and yours are about as fishy as they come."

More on Paving

To the Editor:
I am a student at Northville high school and I am writing about the road coming into the back of the school. I think, and so do a lot of other students, that the road should be paved. The people who drive to school on that road are tearing their cars up. By paving this road all the students could come up that road and the buses could come up the front way. This road, if paved, would be of some use to the whole school. Thank you very much for your time and for reading this note.

Sincerely yours,
Charles Fox

Equal Rights

To the Editor:
The problems that we faced last summer and what we expect to happen could easily be stopped. If we could just understand the problems about the Negro's wishes to be treated equal. The main concern is that we take advantage of the Negro just because they were once slaves.

Does the white person have the right to push the Negro around? No! He does not. In reference to Mrs. Carlson's editorial she says "all people are God's children." To me all men are created equal no matter what their race, color, or religion.

Sincerely,
Larry Bogart (a high school student)

Shameful Act

To the Editor:
It was most disgusting and distasteful to learn that individuals who are opposed to Cityhood in Novi are so pitifully sick that as a "last ditch" effort have resorted to destroying the FOR CITYHOOD HAND BILLS posted throughout the area.

I am deeply ashamed to find that individuals of this stature exist in our fine community and unwittingly by their criminal behavior have only reinforced my belief that I have sided with the right group...those for Cityhood.

I would also like to mention that the source for the signs is practically infinite so for every sign they who oppose us tear down we will replace with two new ones.

About Bigotry

To the Editor:

The students who suggested the hiring of a Negro teacher are to be commended but I seriously question the need for adjustment of the thinking of our young people. They are most discerning of human values and I doubt there is any bigotry among them. Besides, it takes little strength of character to appreciate an educated, articulate person. They are welcome if they wish to come, but I would hope that the inner city, so lacking in qualified people, would not be deprived of even one competent Negro teacher who could be a concrete example to the youngsters that their environment can be overcome.

Why are we actually pointing out differences? When a child first lists that question of color he is so easily put off with no difference and the question never seems to come up again. Mrs. Carlson's letter points this out—they just came and were accepted.

On the other hand anyone should be allowed to live here if he so chooses. When our children come home from school and dash out to romp with our blessing an entirely different emotion grips the responsible Negro parent. He knows that going out means being subjected to the very dregs of society of both races; narcotics, prostitution, drunkenness, stabbings on the street in front of him, many times in the same building. His children play in the very areas we try to avoid when driving through the city.

The Federal Open Housing Bill has just been passed into law. Like many I very much resent the branding of all white people as racists, I am weary of those who constantly prate about our antagonism toward black people. Northville people are great and I know they will get behind Open Housing and help these people help themselves. Therein lies the only true progress. I am sure we will welcome them in our community with our traditional hospitality and dignity.

To the few skeptics, remember that the Government has appropriated vast sums to build housing for the poor and ghettos can be built anywhere. It is far better for us to accept these people individually into areas where it is economically feasible for them to live. It is the only way to avoid large concentrations of people which invite the same problems we are trying to abolish. Increased taxes for already monumental welfare rolls will be inevitable if we don't cooperate.

It is not only just and right—it is plain good sense.

Where's Books?

To the Editor:

As a resident of Northville, I would like to know how our tax money is being spent. Northville taxes are moderate as most residents realize; but comparing the town of Northville now to the town of Northville five years ago, there have not been any physical changes to speak of.

Even today we still have an insignificant library in Northville. Because of its relaxed manner of operation and small selection of books, residents of Northville have to travel to nearby communities to satisfy their needs. I, for one, have found myself traveling to Plymouth or Redford library to satisfy my need for information on ghettos and poor Negroes. I regret to say that I could not find one book covering this subject in the Northville library.

Likewise, a friend of mine was conducting a search for books by the author, Andrew Tully, but found only one book by this great author. In his haste, he had no alternative but to continue his search in the Plymouth library. Unlike Northville, he found five or six books by this author.

Northville high school's baseball field is to this day groaning to be finished. We have dugouts that were built last summer by energetic, self-sacrificing men and boys. The fruit of the labor can be readily overlooked because of the fact that the city has not, to this day, completed the job of painting them. We must not forget the field itself, which lacks being sodded. It isn't even equipped with such modern conveniences such as lights for night games.

I would like to place this question before the people of Northville: What is our money being spent on? It was spent in putting evergreens and containers in front of town stores. This shows an improvement, but a very small one. Therefore, in my opinion, it is a waste of money. There is higher priority that could have been satisfied such as the points stated above.

The people of Northville should take a stand on the affairs of Northville's miss-spent tax money. This is our town and this is the only way we can find out what our money is being spent for.

Sincerely yours,
C. Marino, Jr.

For Hatchery

To the Editor:

Someone's letter stated that he does not think that Northville needs any more recreation facilities because Northville is so close to a park. I feel that Northville needs more recreation facilities because it has more kids. Northville needs a place where a mother can let her children go without fear that she may not see her children again, or that something may happen to them. It needs a public swimming place so that kids don't swim at the gravel pit. Kids wouldn't play in the street if they had a place to go. And the old fish hatchery would provide the facilities that Northville needs.

Sincerely yours,
Mike Marroni

For Ice Rinks

To the Editor:

I'm writing in regards to a letter that was in your paper dealing with the problem of a new recreation center for Northville. My understanding is that the city is looking at the old fish hatchery land. I think that instead of the city spending money on this property, it should further the school sports program rather than invest in a new recreation center.

An ice hockey rink could be started in the future. Ice hockey is a growing sport. The people in Northville would be surprised how many kids who live in Northville have to go to Detroit to play hockey.

People in this town should wake up to the times. I myself have been playing hockey eight years. Sometimes the kids from Northville on the team this year had to get up at 4 a.m. Sunday to go to Detroit in order to practice. It was because of the lack of ice rinks that are needed desperately in the Detroit and Metropolitan areas. If Northville can backbaseball, football, basketball, and track (and there are many more) then I think it's time to start our hockey program. Livonia, Westland and Plymouth have already started theirs. Northville is not a poor town, that's for sure. I thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,
Cevin Valade

Opposes Open Housing

To the Editor:

The concept of open housing as well as equal opportunity is the only moral stand possible to a free country. However, open housing legislation is totally immoral and unconstitutional. What's the difference, you may ask. Well let's examine it from the standpoint of concepts and definitions.

The first and most important concept is that of the word "right". For years now we have heard it said that everyone has the right to a decent job, a good home, a livable income, medical care, etc. A single question added to each proposal would clarify the issue—"at whose expense?" If the cost of any so-called right must be borne by someone other than the recipient of that right it means the entire concept of rights has been reversed and turned into privilege. It means that some have "rights" precisely because they have not earned while others must provide these "rights" precisely because they have earned them. In short ability to earn becomes a millstone causing greater and greater effort to pay the bill imposed by those who demand the "right" to the fruits of his effort simply because they are not able to earn.

A right is that which man has by the mere fact of his existence. The right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are human rights not dependent on implementation by others. The founders of America had lived in societies in which a man's life belonged to the state and the government could revoke their permission to live at any time. They established a country in which every man was to be guaranteed protection in court from infringement of his rights by others and also guaranteed that government would not infringe upon those rights.

Since a right is personal, not collective, it means simply that man must provide his own sustenance, happiness, job, home, medical care etc. When we realize that—plus the fact that no one has the right to initiate the use of force against anyone else, we can understand that America used to be the only moral country on earth. It is no longer.

The right to life, since it requires man to provide for his own life and sustenance, implies the right to property. If you tell a man he has the right to earn property but disposal will be dictated by someone else you have done away with the right to life and eliminated the entire concept of rights.

This is the flow in all welfare and civil rights legislation. The implementation of the new rights is accomplished by force through either expropriation of the earned rewards of some for the benefit of others or by forcing a man to dispose of his property in a manner determined by outside authority. It is interesting that failure to comply with government edicts as to disposal subjects him to further economic penalties.

It is also interesting that the word used in the proposed legislation is "discrimination: which means choice." Therefore, the avowed purpose of the law is to eliminate freedom of choice which therefore does away with man's right to life and property. Also interesting is the fact that the law does not use the words bigotry or prejudice. This is done purposely since use of these words would eliminate the possibility of enforcement since you cannot prove what a person is thinking nor can you order him to think differently. The word discrimination is used precisely because it can be enforced subjectively and places the burden of proof on the property owner. He must prove he did not "discriminate" (meaning he did not choose) and this is clearly unconstitutional since the accused is supposed to be innocent until proven guilty.

In conclusion it can only be said that while bigotry is reprehensible and immoral it cannot be legislated against. However, racism works both ways. It consists of either crediting or blaming an entire race or group for the actions of a few. When we blame white Americans as a whole for the actions of a few we are as racist as the KKK member who claims all Negroes are children because his grandfather had a retarded stable boy.

In a free society in which freedom and human rights are in effect, no welfare or civil rights legislation is possible or necessary. In a society which treats man as a natural resource of the state or majority such legislation is a necessity since all must seek privileges at the expense of all and rights have no meaning at all.

Sincerely,
Scott F. Krause

Defends Self

To the Editor:

The unsigned letter printed in your newspaper last week (re the Novi Goodfellows meeting) was obviously referring to myself, but it mis-stated the situation and brings undue criticism upon myself and, indirectly, upon a fine, civic organization—The Novi Goodfellows.

Let me explain what really happened:

I was invited to attend the meeting as a member of the Goodfellows by the president, Chief Lee BeGole. But because of prior commitment to a Little League activity, I told Chief BeGole I would attempt to attend but would be late in doing so. As I came in a remark was made that I was representative of the cityhood committee (which I am).

In responding to this remark, I told the group (which was nearing the end of its meeting) that I was present not as a cityhood representative but as a Goodfellow. However, I did say that despite the fact Novi is a wonderful community it never ceases to amaze me at the small percentage of people who vote.

Although I am partial to cityhood, I noted that I was not present to promote cityhood. Nevertheless, I did encourage those present to vote Monday—regardless of their position.

Neither then nor now do I think talking politics at a Goodfellow meeting is in good taste. And for that reason I did not discuss it—even after the meeting. In conclusion, let me say that I bear no malice towards anyone; let the facts speak for themselves.

Against Negroes

To the Editor:

For the past few weeks I've read about bringing Negroes into our area. A few unaware students were in favor of it, some liberal parents thought it would be good, and last week the teacher with the brief career as an educator thought it would round out our children's education.

These people should visit Detroit, River Rouge or Ecorse. There's plenty of integration there. Any Problems? Just little things—like the white boys in the high schools being beaten, knifed and literally held up. The white girls are subjected to what might "liberally" be called embarrassing situations.

I really feel white children can do without this type of "enrichment program."

The Northville teacher needn't worry if the Negro will be offered a house. When they come they can have mine last.

Would you please reprint the enclosed letter to the editor from the May 10th LIFE. Its exactly the type of situation I personally am going to avoid. (Space prohibits use of letters to other news media, Ed.)

On Poppy Sale

To the Editor:

For more than 45 years red Poppies have been worn proudly by many Americans around Memorial Day. As this date draws near again, I would like to tell you about this flower's significance and the purpose of Poppy Day.

We in this country wear the Poppy once a year to signify the feeling of reverence in our hearts for the servicemen who died for America during the two World Wars, the Korean War, and the Vietnam conflict. The Poppy grew on the battlefields of Europe where so many men fought and died, and because of this, it has become the symbol of their sacrifice.

But in addition to serving as a memorial to the War dead, the Poppy helps lighten the burden carried by the men who returned disabled in body and mind. Making Poppies gives employment to veterans who otherwise would not be able to earn support for themselves and their families.

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 23, 24, and 25, all of us will be asked to wear a Red Poppy. Understanding the characters and purposes of Poppy Day... would any of us wish to ignore this appeal. I am sure all of us would consider it a privilege to wear a Poppy again this year on Poppy Day.

Thank you

On Race Issue

To the Editor:

The present system of Northville high school needs to be updated because of its lack of Negro teachers in its school system. To update Northville's present system with those of Detroit schools, as a student I urge the people to take under consideration that a Negro teacher might do some good. If we could have a Negro teacher (s) in the school system I would ask him to teach a class like gym, art, choir or some class that requires a lot of talking with the white student. We are becoming adults and in becoming an adult I feel that knowing a Negro as a teacher could not hurt anyone, especially if he or she is a teacher who is trying to help and teach you. I hope the people will think about it and try and come to a conclusion that would be suitable for your children and the residents of Northville.

Thank you,
George Liacos

Cadillac Standard of the World

Your new car may be the most important family decision you'll make this year.

To be sure you make the right choice, talk to your Cadillac dealer before you decide.

As a specialist in luxury motoring, your Cadillac dealer has some interesting things to say about quality and value in a new car.

The brilliant 1968 Cadillac gives him plenty to talk about. Quality abounds in the spacious, lavishly appointed interiors. In the smooth, quiet ride and in the solidity of Cadillac construction.

These Cadillac qualities are universally recognized. Year after year, Cadillac returns a greater portion of its original cost at resale than any other car built in the land. Major advancements this year, such as a totally new 472 V-8 engine (largest V-8 ever to power a production passenger car), further assure a high resale value.

There's no better time than now to talk quality and value with your Cadillac dealer. Your selection of models may never be better, your present car may never be worth more. See him before you decide.

Sid Lewis, a former Northville resident now living in Walled Lake, has been selected to represent Michigan in the national qualifications for the Olympic hair-dressing competition of the world.

Partner in a hair-dressing business in Birmingham, he was one of seven contestants from throughout the United States to undergo practice sessions this summer in Oklahoma City prior to national eliminations at Miami, Florida in July.

At Miami, judges will pick five of the seven candidates to represent the United States at the world Olympic competition (involving 30 different countries) in Vienna, Austria.

The seven candidates were picked on the basis of accumulated points won during three tryouts, involving a number of difficult hair styles. With Lewis,

Baloo finds that he has taken on more than he bargained when he tries to hold that tiger, mean-tempered Shere Khan, in Walt Disney's animated musical, "The Jungle Book," with the voice talents of Phil Harris, Sebastian Cabot, Louis Prima, George Sanders,

Sterling Holloway, J. Pat O'Malley and Bruce Reitherman. Filmed in Technicolor, "The Jungle Book" was inspired by Rudyard Kipling's "Mowgli" stories. It's now playing at the P & A along with "The Legend of the Boy and the Eagle."

Tutuvina (Stanford Lomakema) pets his tribe's sacrificial eagle with a touch of compassion, knowing that the golden eagle will soon be offered to the gods for a bountiful corn crop, in this scene from Walt Disney's new featurette, "The Legend of the Boy and the Eagle," in color by Technicolor.

Cabot Keeps Beard Bagheera

Actor Sebastian Cabot's trademark is his beard which he has cultivated for twenty years, sacrificing it only once, and at the request of Walt Disney for a role in "Johnny Tremain."

However, of late his beard has been spared as he has been heard and not seen in a string of Disney TV shows and animated movies, in which he has acted as narrator, like "Winnie the Pooh," and "The Sword in the Stone," though in the latter he also doubled as the voice of the blustering Sir Ector.

Sabby, as he's known to his colleagues, is back, beard and all, as the voice of the stern panther, Bagheera in Disney's animated musical comedy feature, "The Jungle Book."

Cabot, the son of a London photographer, attended St. Augustine School in London. He remembers that he excelled in science and was terrible at mathematics. His major accomplishment during his school years, he firmly believes, was his ability to win a place on the school's cricket team.

He earned his first money helping out in a London garage after school, then tried his talents as an apprentice chef at 14. When he discovered he had a penchant for mimicry and dialects, he put aside the culinary arts and enthusiastically pursued his new-found career with a repertory company in the provinces, and as a stage and radio actor in London.

The portly Cabot gained recognition for his film role of Lord Capulet in the Anglo-Italian picture, "Romeo and Juliet," starring Laurence Harvey. More movie and TV roles quickly followed. Then in 1953 he made his first Hollywood picture, "Kismet," with Howard Keel. Soon offers from all the top series monopolized his acting hours.

Cabot is currently the butler, French, in the successful TV series, "Family Affair" with Brian Keith. Before this he was a regular for several seasons on the "Checkmate" series and on the charade show, "Stump the Stars."

In Technicolor, "The Jungle Book" also features the voice talents of Phil Harris, Louis Prima, George Sanders, Sterling Holloway, J. Pat O'Malley and Bruce Reitherman.

Knotts Acts Like Lloyd

There's one fan letter Don Knotts cherishes above all others. It's writer — Harold Lloyd.

Knotts, now starring with Barbara Rhoades in Universal's Technicolor comedy, "The Shakiest Gun In The West," at the Penn Theatre, makes no bones about who it was he tried to emulate in shaping his celluloid characterization.

"What I try to do," he elucidates, "is base my work on the comic viewpoint Harold Lloyd invented — a loveable square."

Knotts received a fan note from Lloyd after his appearance in an earlier Universal film.

Novi Girl Wins Beauty Honors

The Northville-Novi area is "blooming" with beautiful young contest winners this spring. Announcement has been made that another area girl is a Miss Michigan contest winner. Virginia Clift, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clift, 45285 Grand River avenue, Novi, has been named to represent the state in the national Miss U.S.A.—Miss Universe competition in Miami this Saturday night.

The contest will be carried over Channel 7 at 10 p.m. Saturday.

Virginia, a Novi high school junior, became Miss Michigan in the contest held at the ASTRA ball at Detroit's Latin Quarter May 4. A similar title was won earlier this year by Pam Smith of Northville in the Miss Teen-Age America competition.

Last Friday Virginia joined winners of four regional states in Chicago to go to national competition in Florida. Locally, the contest was sponsored by the A-Plus Talent agency of Detroit. Regionally, it is sponsored by the Patricia Stevens Modeling schools.

Bob Hynes of the WXYZ-TV Morning Show was master of ceremonies for the local competition. Virginia later appeared on his show. Marce Haney of the talent agency reported that the Novi cheerleader literally "walked away" with the Miss Michigan title for which there were eight finalists.

In the Miss U.S.A. competition contestants are judged on four points: beauty, figure, poise and personality. Virginia became interested in the contest as a result of her recent entry into the modeling field.

If she captures the Miss U.S.A. crown this week-end, she will go into the Miss Universe contest in July.
