The Reverend S. D. Kinde, pastor of the First United Methodist Church for the past five years, will preach his final sermon here Sunday before leaving to become pastor of the Bethany Methodist Church in Clio.

Rev. Kinde's transfer, together with an announcement that the Rev. Gunther C. Brandstner of Detroit will replace him, was revealed Tuesday at Adrian College by Bishop Dwight E. Loder of Detroit in cooperation with his cabinet of district superintendents.

A farewell, potluck dinner is planned in honor of Pastor and Mrs. Kinde on Tuesday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the church.

Rev. Kinde, who has a married daughter, Mrs. Dennis McCreary, in Pasadena, California, and a son, Kurt, who will enter his sophomore year at Western Michigan University next fall, came to Northville from Chelsea where he had been pastor for 10 years.

Under his guidance, the Northville congregation voted to build a new church and has secured a site at Eight Mile and Taft Roads. Working drawings for the new church are rapidly nearing completion.

While in Northville, Rev. Kinde was an active member of the local Rotary Club.

The Clio church was formed by the merger of the First M.E. Church and the First M.P. Church. Ten years ago they built a new church and educational unit costing more than $400,000, and this year the congregation celebrated the final payment on that debt. It has a church membership of more than 800 and a church school enrollment of more than 400.

Clio is located about mid-way between Flint and Saginaw off US-23.

Rev. Brandstner, father of four school-age children, has been pastor of the Jefferson Avenue United Methodist Church in Detroit for the past 5½ years. He transferred to Detroit after serving for seven years as pastor in Gaylord.

A graduate of Flint Central High School, he received his college education at Asbury College in Kentucky. His children are ages 16 (Mark), 14 (Bruce), 11 (Holly), and 5 (Todd).

School to Try Again for 2 Mills?

Preliminary action to set legal machinery in motion for a special election in the wake of Monday's millage failure was taken by the Northville Board of Education Tuesday night.

However, with only five of the seven members present, the board voted to reserve a final decision, probably next week, when all members can be present for a special meeting. Date of the special election and the amount of millage to be put to voters will be made at that time.

Decision to take legal steps for a special election, without actually approving it, was prompted by the fact that delay might eliminate the possibility of a third election late in August following a July millage defeat.

An election later than August would not, even if a millage issue passed, be in time to spread the millage on the winter tax roll. Should a special election be held in July, as probably will be the case, voting would necessarily be by paper ballot only since the law requires voting machines to be closed a month before the August primary election.

Secretary Glenn Deibert, who considered Monday's "no" vote a mandate of the electors, was opposed to another election on the millage question. Though he, like all other members of the board, sees the 2-mills as a necessity for operating the system, he considered the people's decision final. He interpreted non-voters as casting "no" votes.

Trustee Andrew Orphan, who also viewed Monday's results as a mandate, was more concerned with voting on a special election without a full board present. Upon his compromise motion, preliminary election steps were approved pending formal approval of the election at a special meeting.

The election failure also sparked considerable debate on the hiring of a girls' swimming instructor. Deibert, who favored approving 10 other replacement teachers as recommended by Superintendent Raymond Spear, voted against hiring the swimming instructor in light of the election results. This, he said, was an area the board could cut if necessary.

Orphan probably would have voted against the measure but for a compromise motion to hire the swimming instructor in a "replacement" capacity and that the total instructional outlay not increase beyond 15-percent in event 2 mills are not eventually approved.

The board also put a 15-percent increase limit on secretarial and clerical positions.

Among other action Tuesday, the board unanimously approved hiring William Craft, 45, an assistant principal in Detroit and a member of the Livonia Board of Education, as principal of Amerman Elementary School and it named Robert Kucher athletic director for the 1968-69 school year.

Robinson, Cook Win; Millage Bid Defeated

The 2-mill proposition failed by only 14 votes Monday as electors of the Northville School District returned President Eugene Cook to office and elected Dr. Orlo J. Robinson to fill a board vacancy.

With 969 voters of the 4,799 qualified electors (20.04 percent) casting ballots, the 2-mill increase proposition went down to defeat, 484 to 470. Fifteen voters failed to vote on the increase.

The second proposition, however, was approved 467 to 392. It changes Northville from a fourth class to a third class district. One-hundred and ten electors did not vote on this question.

Last year 749 electors, or 18-percent of those qualified, went to the polls, although two years ago 1,629 voters cast ballots.

Dr. Robinson, seeking election for public office for the first time in his life, polled the greatest number of votes for one of two four-year terms—504. Cook, president and veteran member of the board, ran second with 413 votes.

The next closest vote total was garnered by John J. Searles with 251. Other losing candidates and their vote totals were Roger E. Rinaldi, 205; Robert A. Stenger, 187; and Robert E. Deisley and Reginald D. Holloman, each with 102.

Dr. Robinson won the post of Trustee James Kipfer, senior member of the board who decided not to seek re-election.

Ironically, Cook was returned to office even though the millage proposition, which he and fellow board members proposed and firmly endorsed, was defeated.

Failure of the millage issue came as a shock to most school officials who had campaigned vigorously for its passage. Labeling the proposed millage increase as "very minimum", they had emphasized the necessity of the additional tax monies to meet spiraling cost of operating the school system.

Neither the big jump in equalized valuation of the district nor the increase in state aid was seen as sufficient to meet anticipated expenditures in 1968-69. In fact, Superintendent Spear had noted that even with the increased millage initial salary demands of the teachers would far exceed revenues.

The change from fourth class to third class status is not expected to result in any immediate changes so far as the makeup of the board of education is concerned, Spear said Tuesday. The only immediate change, he said, will be formal, legal reclassification of the district-involving paperwork, and the elimination of teacher certification at the county level.

Novi Voters OK 1.5-Mill Hike

While Northville voters were defeating a millage proposition, electors in the Novi School District, were approving two millage questions—one involving a 5½-mill renewal and the other a 1½-mill addition. Both were for operation.

The renewal was approved 276 to 73, while the addition received voter approval, 207 to 120.

Veteran Board Member Russell Taylor was returned to a four-year term, while three other newcomers received board posts. They are Verne DeWaard, four-year term; and Herbert Anderson and Gilbert Henderson, three-year terms. The unusually large number of new board members resulted because Novi is expanding from a five to a seven-member board, a requirement since Novi next fall will operate a full, kindergarten through 12th grade program.

Losing candidates in the election were Harley Beach, Lisabeth Berry, Keith Branch, Dorothy Farah, Ralph MacKay, and Benjamin Pierce, Jr.

Board President Arthur Heslip, senior member of the board, did not seek re-election. He has been ill for the past several months.

Big Gap Divides Teachers, Board

School's out and the initially proposed ratification date has past but teacher and board of education negotiators are "still miles apart," Superintendent Raymond Spear said Tuesday.

The next scheduled meeting of the bargaining teams won't be held until Thursday, June 20.

Meanwhile, Novi Superintendent

Raymond Spear revealed Tuesday that a settlement has been reached with the Novi Teachers Association. Formal ratification was to have taken place last night.

The contract reportedly calls for an increase of $525, from the current starting BA salary of $6,175 to a new starting salary of $6,700. MA degree teacher salaries are increasing from $6,575 to $7,100.

Township Candidates Must File by Tuesday

Although the deadline for filing petitions for the county board of supervisors, district court judgeships and court of appeals has been extended until July 2, all other candidates for office in the August primary must file petitions by Tuesday, June 18 at 4 p.m.

The June 18 deadline applies to all candidates for township board offices. Until last week it was thought that only one trustee on the Northville township board, James Tellam, would be standing for re-election in the fall. But a circuit court ruling stating that all township officials must stand for election this year has prompted the county clerk to advise township clerks to issue petitions for all board seats.

It's possible, Clerk Eleanor Hammond reports, that a state supreme court ruling could upset the lower court opinion. But to be safe, incumbents and prospective candidates are urged to file.

All Northville township board members—all Republicans—have taken out petitions. In addition, a petition has been filed for Allan Maltby, 15930 Marilyn, for trustee on the Republican ticket. No other township offices have been challenged. No Democrats have filed.

Legislation has been passed by the state creating a district court plan that will eliminate Northville's municipal court. The local district court area will include the cities and townships of Northville and Plymouth and township of Canton.

The new district court judge posts calls for a salary of $18,000 annually to be paid by the state with provisions for an increase to $26,000 if the difference is paid by the local communities within the district.

Under the new 26-district county supervisor plan Northville city and township will join with Livonia, Plymouth (city and township) and Canton township in electing one of the 26 supervisors to the Wayne county board.

Power Cut Here

Most Northville area residents were about a half-hour behind schedule Sunday.

Between 3:31 and 4:06 a.m. Sunday electrical power was cut off to some 5,000 community homes. George Tuttle, Detroit Edison director of public relations, reported "interference" with power lines leaving the Beal Street substation. He said the company was investigating the cause.

Many residents reported being late for church and other Sunday morning engagements because of electric clocks having stopped for the 35-minute period.

After 8 Years Kipfer Reviews Board Service

EDITOR'S NOTE— James Kipfer will complete eight years service as a member of the Northville board of education when he retires next month. He did not seek re-election. His seat on the board will now be taken by Dr. Orlo Robinson. In this "Letter to the Editor" the former school board president looks at the strengths and weaknesses of our school system, as well as the joys and frustrations of board service.

The most difficult task for a Board of Education and its individual members is to stay with its policy making role, avoid doing what you pay administration to do and keep your eye on the target of providing a better plan for, and education of, children. As in most good legislation, long hours of individual home work and committee work is necessary. Of necessity, decisions are finalized at public meetings, but there is much which must precede this. I have never known a Board or Board member who didn't honestly try to respond to any and all queries.

Finally, let me indicate those things which still trouble me:

1. Apathy on the part of the citizen who never takes time or trouble to find informed answers to their questions about education in Northville or who "sounds off" first and seeks information later.

2. The increasingly difficult job of the Superintendent of schools who must answer for all the mistakes and shortcomings of others in his administration, sometimes without the real authority or access to the tools for change. The same could be said for principals in a somewhat lesser and different way.

3. Those who feel the cost of education exorbitant or out-of-line. Yes it's costly to provide 12 years of education for children, but we should be doing more and doing it better. Dollar for dollar, education of children is still your best tax dollar buy.

With these few reflections, let me conclude by saying I have enjoyed serving on the Board of Education, and would recommend it as one of the best contributions a citizen can make to his community. Since all of you can't serve on a Board of Education, do the next best thing by giving your interest and your attention to your kids as parents and your schools as citizens.

Sincerely,
James F. Kipfer

KIPFER—"Education of children is your best tax dollar buy"

To The Editor:

If I were to write a headline for this piece, it would have to be "Board Member Reflects on Eight Years of Service on the Northville Board of Education". I have been moved to write to the "Record" many times this past eight years, but have felt it inappropriate and not in the best interests for a single board member to speak out as an individual to the press. I write now because my board tenure is at an end and hopefully because what I have to say will cause someone to think further and with some appreciation of what I am trying to say.

First, let me react to the most often repeated comment made to a member of the Board of Education "It's a thankless job". I've heard it at least a hundred times, usually said with some sympathetic tone and with good intention. I have been prompted so often to respond with the most obvious simple answer by saying "why don't you say 'thank you' to your Board members". We can then respond appropriately and get on with the job feeling compensated. In my eight years on the Board I have been "thanked" exactly three times by citizens; twice by students and once by a parent. As an aside at this point, it might be appropriate to wonder out loud why school board members have never been included in the annual recognition of the town's public officials or invited to service clubs. Let me be quick to add, however, that there are satisfactions in Board service which for most is adequate compensation. Not the least of these is, of course, seeing and feeling change and improvement in the quality of school experience for boys and girls. Make no mistake—our curriculum is improved and improving. Our personnel practices are better, our immediate and long range planning is reality. We do have quality education. This is not to say we can't do better or can rest on our record.

Another interesting phenomenon of Board membership occurs at the time of annual elections of Board members. Invariably some candidate's voice is heard raising doubts about the need for and wise expenditure of school monies. It is easy to criticize when you are outside looking in, but once these critics come on the board or make the effort to become informed, the reality of running today's educational system soon brings the "thinking" critic to different conclusions. "Thinking" critics and constructive criticism are an asset both on and off the Board, however.

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Reverend Paul M. Cargo, pastor of Northville's First Methodist Church for six years, was appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church of Caro. He was succeeded by the Reverend S. D. Kinde of Chelsea, who at the time had served in the Methodist ministry for 30 years.

...State legislators gave final approval to a congressional reapportionment bill that placed the Oakland County portion of Northville and Novi Township and Wixom in a newly-created 19th Congressional District.

15 YEARS AGO...

...Albert E. Jones, coach and teacher, was named new athletic director at Northville High School, replacing Harry B. Smith, who served in the post since 1946. Smith had requested to be relieved of the post so he could devote all his time to driver training and to teaching mathematics. Jones was starting his sixth year at Northville.

...A new slate of officers, headed by President J. K. Eastland, was scheduled to take over the reins of the Northville Optimist Club on July 1.

...Mrs. Eliza M. Wagenschutz became the first woman member of the Northville Board of Education since 1924 in voting on two vacancies Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., was re-elected to fill the other vacancy. Both were to serve three year terms.

65 YEARS AGO...

...The Record printery had issued some unique and very handsome invitations for the graduating class of 1903, Northville High School, whose members were Misses Charlotte Ferrell, Shirlee Tinham, and Estella Angell, and Messrs Raymond Holcomb and Edwin Perrin.

...A Northville citizen, who the previous fall might have realized a fair profit for his bunch of onions, of which he had 200 bushels, drew the entire lot into a field and there spread them to fertilize the air. As the balm from the Northville bouquet filled the nostrils of the United States Court for the western district of Michigan, he took an inspiring sniff and congratulated himself as not the only bulb speculator who held for a "raise" and raised only a smell.

OUT OF PAST—Workmen at Manning & Locklin Gravel company mine east of the old Northville depot uncovered part of an old railroad last week. According to oldtimers, the tracks were a spur line used by the DUR many years ago in obtaining gravel for its rail beds. They guessed the spur line was installed about the same time the DUR came into existence in 1899. The DUR, which many residents recall as the principal means of transportation between Northville, Detroit and other communities, was abandoned in 1927. How far the spur line extends beneath the sand and gravel awaits further excavation.

STEVEN QUAY

Steven Quay, son of former Assistant High School Principal LaGene Quay, will graduate Tuesday from Sparta high school where his father is principal.

The former Northville student will enter Western Michigan University next fall on a pre-medical program.

Young Quay was a member of Sparta National Honor Society, varsity band, and varsity basketball, track and cross country teams. The latter placed seventh in the state "B" competition last fall.

As a member of the track team, he broke a 27-year-old school record in the quarter mile and was a member of the mile relay squad that broke a seven-year record.

Gribbs to Get Wayne Sheriff Job

Roman S. Gribbs, Detroit Traffic Court referee and a former assistant prosecuting attorney, has been appointed Wayne County sheriff.

Gribbs, 42, will finish out the term of Sheriff Peter L. Buback, who resigned effective June 1. The term runs to the end of the year.

Gribbs said he will seek election to the sheriff's office in the coming August 6 primary and November 5 general elections.

Appointment of Gribbs was made by a three-member panel established by state law. Its members were County Clerk Edgar M. Branigin, Prosecuting Attorney William L. Cahalan and Presiding Probate Judge Frank S. Szymanski.

Gribbs will head an organization which, with a staff of 388, is the largest police force in Michigan outside Detroit. The Sheriff's annual budget is $4.3-million.

Gribbs has been a traffic court referee (magistrate) for two years. Previously, he was a Wayne County assistant prosecuting attorney for nine years and then was in private law practice for two years.

Born in Detroit, he attended grade and high school in Capac, Michigan. He then attended the University of Detroit. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree, magna cum laude, and a Bachelor of Laws degree, finishing third in his class and winning a scholarship award for the highest four-year grade average in his class.

In Wayne County Hearing Delayed On District Plan

A Circuit Court hearing on a lawsuit which seeks to nullify a 26-district plan for revamping the Wayne County Board of Supervisors was continued until this past Tuesday.

Opening arguments were presented before Judge James N. Canham, Tuesday, May 28.

Canham set another hearing for 10 a.m. Tuesday, June 4.

He said he did so to give other communities time to join the lawsuit, which was filed by the Dearborn Heights city administration.

Canham took the action after Dearborn Heights City Attorney Duane Dunick told the court that at least nine other communities plan to join in the suit. Attorneys for Belleville and Livonia said their cities intended to join in the suit.

The suit, filed on behalf of Dearborn Heights Mayor John L. Canfield, three Dearborn Heights Councilmen and the city itself, charges that the five-member apportionment commission which devised the 26-district plan was illegally constituted.

Canfield later sent telegrams to every mayor and township supervisor urging that their communities join the suit.

Under the reapportionment plan, one supervisor would be elected on a partisan basis from each of 26 districts to replace the present 135-member Board of Supervisors. Suburban officials are opposed to the plan because, they charge, the new board would be dominated by Detroit and that many out-county communities would be effectively denied representation because the districts would cut across so many local boundaries.

The 26-district plan was devised by a special commission set up in accordance with the apportionment law, which the State Legislature passed in 1966.

The commission consisted of three county officials—the Clerk, Prosecuting Attorney and Treasurer—and the county chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties.

The suit contends that the commission membership was illegal because the two party chairmen were neither statutory chairmen nor appointed by the state central committee chairmen of the two parties, the two stipulations contained in the state law.

as the makeup of the board of education is concerned, Spear said Tuesday. The only immediate change, he said, will be formal, legal reclassification of the district-involving paperwork, and the elimination of teacher certification at the county level.

Novi Voters OK 1.5-Mill Hike

While Northville voters were defeating a millage proposition, electors in the Novi School District, were approving two millage questions—one involving a 5½-mill renewal and the other a 1½-mill addition. Both were for operation.

The renewal was approved 276 to 73, while the addition received voter approval, 207 to 120.

Veteran Board Member Russell Taylor was returned to a four-year term, while three other newcomers received board posts. They are Verne DeWaard, four-year term; and Herbert Anderson and Gilbert Henderson, three-year terms. The unusually large number of new board members resulted because Novi is expanding from a five to a seven-member board, a requirement since Novi next fall will operate a full, kindergarten through 12th grade program.

Losing candidates in the election were Harley Beach, Lisabeth Berry, Keith Branch, Dorothy Farah, Ralph MacKay, and Benjamin Pierce, Jr.

Board President Arthur Heslip, senior member of the board, did not seek re-election. He has been ill for the past several months.

Big Gap Divides Teachers, Board

School's out and the initially proposed ratification date has past but teacher and board of education negotiators are "still miles apart," Superintendent Raymond Spear said Tuesday.

The next scheduled meeting of the bargaining teams won't be held until Thursday, June 20.

Meanwhile, Novi Superintendent

Raymond Spear revealed Tuesday that a settlement has been reached with the Novi Teachers Association. Formal ratification was to have taken place last night.

The contract reportedly calls for an increase of $525, from the current starting BA salary of $6,175 to a new starting salary of $6,700. MA degree teacher salaries are increasing from $6,575 to $7,100.

Township Candidates Must File by Tuesday

Although the deadline for filing petitions for the county board of supervisors, district court judgeships and court of appeals has been extended until July 2, all other candidates for office in the August primary must file petitions by Tuesday, June 18 at 4 p.m.

The June 18 deadline applies to all candidates for township board offices. Until last week it was thought that only one trustee on the Northville township board, James Tellam, would be standing for re-election in the fall. But a circuit court ruling stating that all township officials must stand for election this year has prompted the county clerk to advise township clerks to issue petitions for all board seats.

It's possible, Clerk Eleanor Hammond reports, that a state supreme court ruling could upset the lower court opinion. But to be safe, incumbents and prospective candidates are urged to file.

All Northville township board members—all Republicans—have taken out petitions. In addition, a petition has been filed for Allan Maltby, 15930 Marilyn, for trustee on the Republican ticket. No other township offices have been challenged. No Democrats have filed.

Legislation has been passed by the state creating a district court plan that will eliminate Northville's municipal court. The local district court area will include the cities and townships of Northville and Plymouth and township of Canton.

The new district court judge posts calls for a salary of $18,000 annually to be paid by the state with provisions for an increase to $26,000 if the difference is paid by the local communities within the district.

Under the new 26-district county supervisor plan Northville city and township will join with Livonia, Plymouth (city and township) and Canton township in electing one of the 26 supervisors to the Wayne county board.

Power Cut Here

Most Northville area residents were about a half-hour behind schedule Sunday.

Between 3:31 and 4:06 a.m. Sunday electrical power was cut off to some 5,000 community homes. George Tuttle, Detroit Edison director of public relations, reported "interference" with power lines leaving the Beal Street substation. He said the company was investigating the cause.

Many residents reported being late for church and other Sunday morning engagements because of electric clocks having stopped for the 35-minute period.

After 8 Years

Kipper Reviews Board Service

EDITOR'S NOTE— James Kipper will complete eight years service as a member of the Northville board of education when he retires next month. He did not seek re-election. His seat on the board will now be taken by Dr. Orlo Robinson. In this "Letter to the Editor" the former school board president looks at the strengths and weaknesses of our school system, as well as the joys and frustrations of board service.

To The Editor:

If I were to write a headline for this piece, it would have to be "Board Member Reflects on Eight Years of Service on the Northville Board of Education". I have been moved to write to the "Record" many times this past eight years, but have felt it inappropriate and not in the best interests for a single board member to speak out as an individual to the press. I write now because my board tenure is at an end and hopefully because what I have to say will cause someone to think further and with some appreciation of what I am trying to say.

First, let me react to the most often repeated comment made to a member of the Board of Education "It's a thankless job". I've heard it at least a hundred times, usually said with some sympathetic tone and with good intention. I have been prompted so often to respond with the most obvious simple answer by saying "why don't you say 'thank you' to your Board members". We can then respond appropriately and get on with the job feeling compensated. In my eight years on the Board I have been "thanked" exactly three times by citizens; twice by students and once by a parent. As an aside at this point, it might be appropriate to wonder out loud why school board members have never been included in the annual recognition of the town's public officials or invited to service clubs. Let me be quick to add, however, that there are satisfactions in Board service which for most is adequate compensation. Not the least of these is, of course, seeing and feeling change and improvement in the quality of school experience for boys and girls. Make no mistake—our curriculum is improved and improving. Our personnel practices are better, our immediate and long range planning is reality. We do have quality education. This is not to say we can't do better or can rest on our record.

Another interesting phenomenon of Board membership occurs at the time of annual elections of Board members. Invariably some candidate's voice is heard raising doubts about the need for and wise expenditure of school monies. It is easy to criticize when you are outside looking in, but once these critics come on the board or make the effort to become informed, the reality of running today's educational system soon brings the "thinking" critic to different conclusions. "Thinking" critics and constructive criticisms are an asset both on and off the Board, however.

The most difficult task for a Board of Education and its individual members is to stay with its policy making role, avoid doing what you pay administration to do and keep your eye on the target of providing a better plan for, and education of, children. As in most good legislation, long hours of individual home work and committee work is necessary. Of necessity, decisions are finalized at public meetings, but there is much which must precede this. I have never known a Board or Board member who didn't honestly try to respond to any and all queries.

Finally, let me indicate those things which still trouble me:

1. Apathy on the part of the citizen who never takes time or trouble to find informed answers to their questions about education in Northville or who "sounds off" first and seeks information later.

2. The increasingly difficult job of the Superintendent of schools who must answer for all the mistakes and shortcomings of others in his administration, sometimes without the real authority or access to the tools for change. The same could be said for principals in a somewhat lesser and different way.

3. Those who feel the cost of education exorbitant or out-of-line. Yes it's costly to provide 12 years of education for children, but we should be doing more and doing it better. Dollar for dollar, education of children is still your best tax dollar buy.

With these few reflections, let me conclude by saying I have enjoyed serving on the Board of Education, and would recommend it as one of the best contributions a citizen can make to his community. Since all of you can't serve on a Board of Education, do the next best thing by giving your interest and your attention to your kids as parents and your schools as citizens.

KIPPER—"Education of children is your best tax dollar buy"

Lt. Wetterstroem Takes Bride in Ohio

MRS. LOUIS PETER JAMES

MRS. ROBERT S. WETTERSTROEM

Rita Mary Hyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hyle, Cincinnati, Ohio became the bride of Lieutenant Robert S. Wetterstroem, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wetterstroem of 501 West Dunlap on Saturday, June 1. The wedding was held at St. Martin of Tours Church in Cincinnati, with the Reverend Father Niehaus officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin-finish organza and imported Venetian lace. Daisy motifs of the lace encircled the waist and elbow length sleeves with a deep border of the same lace edging the hemline. A detachable train fell from the waistline in the back. The chapel length veil was made of silk illusion with motifs of matching lace scattered along the length. The bride's bouquet was formed from a cluster of sweetheart roses and white daisies.

Clara Hyle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Other attendants were Maxine and Marlene Engles Mrs. Ted Hyle, Jr., and Karen, Anita and Nanette Wetterstroem. Together they wore gowns made of almond pink silk linen with an empire style bodice and A-line skirt. The bridesmaids wore chapel length veils of matching pink silk. They carried spring bouquets made of pink sweetheart roses and white, pink and blue daisies.

Others in the wedding party included Lieutenant Harry Buckle who served as best man. The ushers were Lieutenant Kevin Brown, Ronald Baily, Ted Hyle, Jr., Frank Hyle, Robert Hyle, and Tom Wetterstroem.

The noon ceremony was followed by a breakfast for the bridal party. This buffet was given at the home of the bride for out-of-town guests. Following in the evening was a reception for 250 friends of the new couple.

After a brief honeymoon, Lieutenant and Mrs. Wetterstroem returned to Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, where the bridegroom is presently stationed.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

THERE'S A FRESH, new face at The Record office this week as Prudence Hartt joins the editorial staff to cover social and club news as well as the activities of Northville's young people.

Prudy is taking over for me this summer and is looking for news of "the young" activities.

The blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hartt, 777 Thayer Boulevard, she has just finished her freshman year at Hanover College, a small liberal arts college in Hanover, Indiana. She is a 1967 graduate of Northville High School.

She plans to return to Hanover for her sophomore year and expects to be on the staff of the college paper. In high school she was co-editor of The Mustang and copy editor of the school yearbook.

A member of the Northville High School model United Nations organization, she continued this interest at college, serving as a member of the Little United Nations Association at Indiana University. She also is a member of the Hanover Young Republicans and Students for McCarthy. She has been social chairman of her college dorm and has affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority.

In addition, she has continued piano studies, having previously taken from Northville teachers for seven years.

Have a happy summer and please call Prudy with your club, vacation or social news.

One note before bidding farewell for the summer: the Michael Willings of Smock road hosted an open house for the Harry Smiths Sunday. Mrs. Willing is Principal Smith's secretary at Main Street School. Smith has retired and will soon be moving to Florida with his wife. Fifty-six school friends attended the farewell open house.

Ann Ware Speaks Vows In Detroit

A small family ceremony June 1 united Ann Elizabeth Ware, daughter of Donald A. Ware, 239 Hutton, and Mrs. Dorothy Ware of Grosse Pointe, and Louis Peter James in marriage at the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Detroit.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Peter James of Detroit and the late Mr. James.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Donald J. Ware, as her father who is recuperating from a heart attack was unable to attend the ceremony.

The bride's gown of white peau de soie was fashioned on simple, unfitted lines. The neckline, long sleeves and hemline were outlined with a roll-effect of the same material. A wedding ring crown held her mantilla of fine Alencon lace.

The bride carried a colonial bouquet of violets surrounded by lilies of the valley fashioned of flowers picked in her father's garden.

Fresh garden flowers also were used to decorate the bridal table at the reception which was held at the Whittier Hotel in Detroit. Topping the tiered wedding cake was a miniature arrangement of sweetheart roses.

The bride's matron of honor, Mrs. Carlos Marin of Puerto Rico, wore a pink gown and carried a nosegay of sweetheart roses of matching hue. Bill James was best man for his brother.

After the wedding the couple paid a brief visit to the bride's father, who had just returned home from the hospital. The new Mrs. James afterward changed to a two-piece ensemble of rose linen for a short wedding trip. The newlyweds hope to take a longer trip to Europe in August.

The bride is a speech therapist at Redford Union School. She received degrees from Eastern Michigan University and University of Michigan. Her husband is affiliated with the psychiatry department of the Detroit Board of Education and presently is working on his doctorate. He was graduated from Wayne University and University of Michigan.

They are making their home in Detroit.

Karen McAllister

Open House Fetes Graduate

The huge cake in the form of a boat wore the slogan of the Interlochen School of Music, "In the arts there are no enemies". Around the house and in the yard 160 guests milled, soaking up sunshine and relaxed conversation.

Karen McAllister, the reason behind the festivities, had just graduated from the Interlochen School of Music. With honors

In honor of the occasion Karen's mother, Mrs. William McAllister, held an open house last Sunday afternoon at their home on 15674 Lakeside Drive. The affair was catered by Thunderbird Inn and developed into quite a gay gathering, a fitting reception for a daughter like Karen.

3.5 average during her stay at school. As a symbol of her scholastic achievement Karen received a golden rope. This she wore with her black robe in graduation ceremonies indicating the mark of a high achiever.

Karen has been studying music since she was very young and took up the organ, her favorite instrument, when she was about 10. Besides the organ she demonstrated talent in other musical fields by playing the piano and singing in a special choir and madrigal group at school. Karen, who just turned 18 in May, plans to attend the University of Michigan Music School this Fall. She was accepted at three other schools but chose Michigan because it was closer to home.

Patients Plan Talent Show

Patients of the young adult unit at Northville State Hospital, 41001 Seven Mile Road, will present a talent show, Tuesday evening, June 18 at 8:30 p.m. in the hospital's activity therapy building. The general public is invited.

"This is the second of our talent shows to be presented by our unit," commented Mrs. Royanne Baril, M.T., staff member in charge of the event. "The patients decided several weeks ago to produce another evening of entertainment. Another fund raising activity we have had has been a car wash. All of these have made an extended recreation program possible with our patients being able to go into the Greater Detroit area to visit Cranbrook, art institutes shows and ball games."

Numbers in the talent show will include: jazz; rock and roll; combos; a choir, singing pop songs; and skits.

Tickets for the occasion—50 cents for adults and 25 cents for patients and students—are available at the door. Preceding the show, parents of the patients will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the building's game room with E. Gordon Yudashkin, M. D., medical superintendent, and Samuel Davis, executive director of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children.

ART SHOW—Patients of Northville State Hospital presented a professional-like art show at the First Methodist Church of Northville this past week, drawing praise from scores of visitors who viewed the exhibit on the stage and in the fellowship hall. It included sculpture, oils, water colors and pastels.

Showers Fete Bride Elect

GIRLS STATE BOUND—Awaiting the annual Girls State program at the University of Michigan, slated for June 16 through June 23, these four lucky high school girls were named to attend the nationally praised program by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion. Shown here with Mrs. Oscar Hammond co-chairman with Mrs. Raymond Kehr (not shown) and Mrs. Charles Denune (left), auxiliary president, the girls are Pamela Witzke, Stacey Evans Katherine Vusick, and Christie Becker.

Spring must seem like a rosey blur to Mary Joanne Jackson, who is getting married next Saturday after a whirl of showers. Mary, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Jackson of Allen Park, has had three showers given in her honor within the last month. She is engaged to Walter E. Clark, son of the Richard Clarks of 10650 West Seven Mile road.

The most unexpected shower was a surprise luncheon given by the St. Luke's Episcopal churchwomen of Allen Park on May 27. The 25 members turned their regular meeting into a gala meal served on tables set with silver and flowers. The tables were decorated with silver candle holders and silver loving cups filled with blossoms.

Two other showers, both miscellaneous, also have been given for Mary. The first, given April 30 by Mrs. Nick Macunovich of Allen Park, was a planned luncheon for several neighbors. The other was arranged on May 28 by Mrs. James Watson, sister of the prospective bridegroom. With the help of sister-in-law Mrs. Richard Clark of Northville she entertained 20 guests in her home in South Lyon.

Miss Jackson has already chosen her attendants. Serving as matron of honor will be Mrs. Robert Quandt of Allen Park. Bridesmaids are Mrs. Richard Juchartz of Wyandotte and Miss Mary Low of Highland Park. Danielle Juchartz and Kimberly Quandt will be flower girls and ringbearer will be Gerald Watson, nephew of the groom. The wedding is set for June 22, at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Allen Park.

Wrap-Up Near On Unification

The final meeting of all sub-committees together with the steering committee of the Northville city-township unification study will be held tonight (Thursday) at eight o'clock in the Northville city hall.

Councilman Del Black, who serves as chairman of the committee, said that the reports of each sub-committee will be read so that all members of the study will be familiar with the findings of each group.

Within a week or two, Black reported, the steering committee will prepare its final report and recommendations.

Mrs. Scantlin's Rug Wins Second Place

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Jack Scantlin, 46287 Pickford who took second place in the annual Rug Hooking Bee held at Greenfield Village last Sunday.

Mrs. Scantlin was one of the more than 40 experienced rug hookers who, in authentic costume, demonstrated their craft from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the Village Green. The design of her winning entry was a gold eagle on a medium blue field. As a true artist, she blended and painted with thin strands of wool which she had dyed previously to make six different shades of the same color.

Mrs. Scantlin's rug was second out of nearly 100 hand-made rugs, with first prize going to a rug which was hooked in the shape of a United States

map. After the demonstration a lecture was given on The Therapeutic Value of Rug Hooking, completing the old-fashioned Rug Hooking Bee and Exhibit.

Mrs. Hammond Gets Top Post

The Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters and Sons installed Mrs. Oscar Hammond as president recently, at the annual June picnic. About 40 members were present for the event which was held at Happy Acres, home of Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr.

Other officers were installed by Mrs. John Litsenburger. They are Mrs. Donald Ware, vice-president; Mrs. M. L. Hoystradt, secretary; Mrs. Herbert Brown, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mary Alexander, financial secretary; and Mrs. Ralph Simons, treasurer.

Mrs. Hammond, acting as the new leader, presided at the business meeting. The group agreed to send a gift of $200 to the Chapel Fund of the Northville State Hospital and $10 to each church in the city having a vacation Bible school. These donations were made possible through the success of the spring luncheon and bazaar.

The Circle also discussed the annual bazaar to be held at the King's Daughters Home next Thursday. They agreed to help by furnishing food. Members volunteered to supply cakes, cookies and sandwiches for the luncheon.

Cooke PTA Picks Officers

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Massel of 43726 Dorisa Court were elected co-presidents of the Northville Junior High School PTA at a regular PTA meeting Thursday night.

The presidents and the other newly elected officers were nominated by a special committee and chosen by members at large.

Other new officers include:

Dr. and Mrs. John Bethea, 20145 Beck Road, vice-presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luehrs, 21183 East Chigwidden Drive, secretaries; and Mr. and Mrs. William Heffner, 2100 East Chigwidden Drive, treasurers.

HELPING HAND—Wixom's Helping Hand program is in full swing reports Neil Taylor, Wixom Elementary PTA president who discussed the meaning of the Helping Hand sign with young Wesley McAtee and other youngsters. Homes with such signs are safe places for youngsters to go in emergency situations such as injury or molestation cases, while going to and from school. The program will be in operation throughout the summer as well, Mrs. Taylor adds.

More 'Helping Hands' Needed for Northville

With the coming of warm weather the Jaycettes are making another effort in their drive to secure more mothers in their Helping Hand Project.

All children in the Northville School System have been told that they will find immediate help at any home displaying the wordless sign. However, the drive will be ineffective if there are no helping hands on the child's route to and from school, officials emphasize. "In order to help, a mother needn't be home at all times, just the hour or so when the children are traveling to and from school."

At the present time there are only about 120 mothers who have volunteered to become helping hands. "Surely there must be more mothers than this who are home with pre-schoolers during the day. It must not mean that one of our local children meet with terrible tragedy before the importance of the program sinks through. The Jaycettes have invested a large sum of time and money to make Northville a safe place to live."

Anyone interested in assisting with this project is urged to contact Mrs. Jan Lyndholm, the new chairman, at 349-1596.

Kings Mill

Residents of Kings Mills are having their luck put to test. Coming up next week is a card party to be held in the card room of the club house. The party is set for Sunday, June 23, from seven to 10 in the evening.

Also being planned is the Mother's Club Luncheon which is scheduled Wednesday, June 19. This will provide an opportunity for members of the King's Mills Mother's Club to get together and go out to lunch. Social activities for the next few weeks appear to be blooming, however, due to the recent heat wave all social events planned for this weekend have been canceled.

BIRTH

Another potential All-American bowed in May 31 as Mr. and Mrs. Steve Juday, 304 Lake Street, became the proud parents of a 7-pound, 15-ounce baby boy at St. Mary hospital.

Little Richard Duane's father is a Northville High School star and a former All-American quarterback at Michigan State University.

Grandparents of the baby are Mrs. Richard Juday of the same address and Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Deal, 20116 Springwood Drive.

STREET SIDE FLEA MARKET—They didn't exactly come in droves, but those who did found plenty of exciting buys at the antique-and-arts flea market, sponsored last week Wednesday by the Northville Retail Merchants Association. Billed as a success, this "first" in Northville was held on Main Street, blocked off at Center and Hutton Streets to permit easy pedestrian access to the two-dozen booths and displays lining the street.

TROGLODYTES Plymouth Apple Corps' Tops

By Daryl Holloman

During a recent discussion at The Cavern Gary Klotz approached me with the following question: "Holloman, where did you come up with a name like 'Troglydytes' for a Cavern column?"

The answer is that a troglodyte is "one who dwells in caves or creeps in and out of holes or caverns." With this in mind, Troglydytes features Northville Teen's comments regarding The Cavern, plus the bands and rock groups which creep in and out of The Cavern from week to week.

Speaking of groups, The Thyme and The Apple Corps put forth a great show last Saturday night which proved to me that their appearance by popular demand was justified.

The Thyme from Ann Arbor always performs well, but I was really impressed with The Apple Corps from Plymouth. They've come a long way in a short time since their debut performance at The Cavern March 23.

The five man group is made up of former members of The Museum, The Phyre, and The Southampton Rowe which had dissolved for various reasons.

I understand that The Apple Corps recently performed at Eastern Michigan University in "Pittidoe the Colormaker," the third rock-musical ever produced following in the path of Broadway's "Hair."

I've also been informed that the group is currently corresponding with major labels for a future recording contract.

However, I didn't spend all of the performance absorbing the sound waves. I ran into a longtime friend of mine who comes up from Miami every summer by name of Albie Curry.

Turning to The Cavern's future events for the summer, a revolutionary new development is being inaugurated the night of Monday, June 17 from 8-11 pm.

On that date, and every Monday night for the remainder of the summer, The Cavern Club Room will be converted into a "Coffee House".

The Coffee House will be free of charge to members, and a 50 cent cover charge has been established for non-members.

Cavern President Sue Jarvis states that "We'll try to have Folk-singers," but the scoop is that the refreshment stand will be turned into a Boutique.

Year-Round School Hangs on Vacation

Fourteen members of the concept and implementation subcommittee of Northville's year-round school study committee agreed practically unanimously at their meeting last week.

that "the vacation period still is a strong concern" to Northville school district families.

The feeling was that no plan of expanding or extending the school curriculum or classes could succeed unless a family could retain a unified vacation time.

Beyond this point the group ran into a semantics problem of extended or expanded programs being variously interpreted. Reports were given by individuals who had studied a variety of plans in operation in New York (which shortened the year-span, bringing earlier-age graduation, not locally advocated), the community school plans of Flint and Plymouth, and the Marine City plan of longer school days with students able to use the same facility at different times.

Chairman Kenneth Rathert appointed a committee to study proposals discussed and present specific plans with definitions for the final general meeting of the sub-committee at 8 p.m., Monday, June 24.

He named Miss Florence Panattoni, Mrs. Kallin Johnson, John Hyde, Dr. Paul Hunt and James McCurdy to this group. They will meet and evaluate in order to present a specific report from which the concept and implementation committee's final recommendation will be formulated.

This report is due the end of June to the steering committee.

Local Jobs Go Begging

"We're hungry for workers but students apparently are not interested."

That's the surprising statement of Rudolph Newman, general manager of consulting Services, Inc., located in the new ABC Photo plant on Nine Mile Road near Novi Road.

"We've advertised and repeatedly contacted the school in hopes of attracting graduating senior girls who we could train to become IBM processing employees but without a thread of luck."

Newman said his company is anxious to become a part of the community, and eventually would like to have about 90 percent of its personnel from this area. "But now we're wondering if that will be possible."

Graduating seniors who would like to interview for jobs are asked to contact Newman.

BUILDER IN ACTION—This picture of Robert Letarte busy at work was featured in a recent edition of Ford World, a Ford Motor Company publication, as part of a story about Northville pupils using scrap styrofoam in creative art studies under William Case of Main Street Elementary and Barbara Marion of Amerman Elementary. Case, who came up with the idea, and Walter Tubbs, high school industrial arts teacher, had visited the plant and spotted the styrofoam and a pile of scrap metal. Tubbs and several students picked up the metal for high school shop use, and numerous loads of styrofoam were shipped to the elementary schools. The styrofoam can be tacked, pinned, pasted or wedged together. With a little paint the scraps became alligators, giraffes, houses or other objects d'art that strike young artists' fancies.

Rexall Unleashes Scoring Attack

Rexall Drugs collected an even dozen hits Friday to bomb Wroten Brothers, 21-7, in Novi Little League competition.

With Rexall's Roger Pelchat on the hill, Wroten managed to squeeze out eight hits despite the lopsided loss. Extra base hits were picked up by Pelchat and Eric Hanson (doubles) and Mike Halrayde (triple) for the winners Glen Gault and Don Ling doubled for the losers, and Rick Gault blasted a triple.

Michigan Tractor turned a 15-hit attack into a 16-5 victory over Paragon on June 3 as Roger Provo picked up the win. Tim Assemany's big bat accounted for two doubles and a round-tripper, while Ron Wilenius smashed two doubles.

Steven Waathell doubled and Tom Hardecki tripled for the losers.

Also on June 3, the Jayhawks edged Wroten, 4-6, as Kevin LeFleche tossed a one-hitter. The Jayhawks slugged seven hits, including a double off the bat of Chris Polak. Craig Love accounted for the lone hit—a single—for Wroten.

Carl's Shell turned 11 hits into a 16 to 10 triumph over B-V on June 4 as Kevin Tobel fired an eight-hitter.

Jim Campbell doubled for the winners, and Glen Kundrick and Tom Wilkins picked up doubles for B-V.

Dave Brown hit one Novi Party Store to just four hits on June 4 as Rexall took a 15-2 victory. Brown added to his own cause byounding out a double and triple while Roger Pelchat homered. Mike Alexander slashed a double for the losers.

Doubles off the bat of Kevin Tobel (two) and Jim Campbell (one) helped Carl's Shell to an 11 to 8 victory over Paragon on June 6. Peter Anderson was the winning hurler. Steve Waathell doubled for Paragon.

Tim Assemany fired a one-hitter against B-V on June 6 as Michigan Tractor edged B-V, 4-1. Actually, it was a pitcher's dual since Michigan Tractor was able to pick up only two hits—singles by Assemany and Roger Provo. Bill Livingston accounted for B-V's lone hit, a single.

Larry Taylor was credited with the winning pitching performance on June 7 as Novi Party Store outlasted the Jayhawks, 11-6. Both teams collected six hits each. Larry Taylor and Bob Pierce doubled for the winners and Chris Polak doubled for the Jayhawks.

Sonny Fortune Races Tomorrow

Two longtime favorites of Detroit area and Michigan harness racing fans will share the spotlight over the weekend at Northville Downs in the Open Trot Friday and the Preferred Handicap Pace Saturday (June 14 and 15).

Sonny Fortune, the state's champion trotter as a two and three-year-old who had a string of four in a row during the recent Wolverine meeting, headlines Friday's $4,500 feature. Craig Creed, the veteran speedster from the Elmer Conrad stable, tops Saturday's $5,000 pace.

Sonny, owned by Lloyd Spencer of Northville, is generally rated as the most outstanding Michiganbred trotter in recent years. He took off for Chicago and Philadelphia after his successes at Wolverine where he ran second to Carlisle in a rich stake.

But Spencer, owner of the Briar Lea Farm of Northville, wanted to see his star perform on the home track and ordered him back to Northville.

Going against him will be Little Dominion, winner of the ancient Merchants and Manufacturers stake at Wolverine; Oak Grove and Dan W. Diller. The three are the top starters at the track.

Craig Creed, long one of the Midwest's speediest side-wheelers, will bid for his initial win of the year after a three week layoff due to a leg injury. When right, Craig has the fastest finish of any pacer in the area and Owner-Trainer Conrad feels he's ready.

Coming back to challenge Craig are Philip Brian, Sudan's Comet, Way To Go, Brady's Adios and Boy Diller.

Faculty Wins Over Varsity

Northville's high school golf team went down to defeat Monday—but it was all in fun as the faculty and one father carded better scores in the annual faculty-student tilt at Meadowbrook Country Club.

The lone father, Billie Thomas, fired a sizzling 38 to lead everyone, followed by Coach Al Jones' 43. Other faculty scores included: Richard Norton, 45; Jim Hudson and Charles Yahn, both of whom carded scores of 48; Dennis Palmer, 50; Donald VanIngen, 51; and Robert Prom, 52.

Bill Thomas and Dan Condon turned in the best scores for the students—each with 45. Others included Ed Zywiec, 48; Jim Penrod and Mark Dickson, each with 49; Jack Jones, 54; Tom Fagan 55; and Dan Lister, 56.

9-Under Wins Salem Tourney

Gary Robinson and John Jakubiak combined talents to score a nine-under-par score of 67-68-135 in the monthly 36-hole best-ball tournament at Salem Hills last weekend and cop championship flight honors.

Larry and Gary Dowell shot 75-74-149 to win the first flight prize, while Art Sheridan and George Yee turned in a best-ball of 86-81-167 to lead the second flight competition.

The two-man, best-ball tourneys are held monthly at Salem Hills with Pro Bob Szilagyi providing prizes to the winning teams in each flight. An 18-hole round is played Saturday. Teams are then divided into flights for Sunday's final round based on first-round scores.

Professional Szilagyi says there are openings for more teams. The next event is slated for late July.

'69 Varsity Looks Great

JV Thinclads Sweep Meet

Northville's varsity track team, which finished the season with the finest mark in history, is likely to shine again next spring based upon the junior varsity's showing last week at Milford.

The JV thinclads performed even better than predicted, sweeping an all-league outing with a comfortable 44 point margin.

The Colts defeated both Clarkston and Clarenceville, garnering a total of 85 points to Clarkston's 41 and Clarenceville's 38.

"It looks like another real promising season next year," said Coach Ralph Redmond, who piloted the varsity thinclads to an overall season record of 11 victories against one defeat. Fifteen of his 28 lettermen will be back to bolster next year's squad.

Highlights of the underclassmen's performance included:

-Ron Hubbard and Tom

Hutcherson took second and third, respectively in high jump—good for seven points.

—Second in pole vault (10'6") was Jim Armstrong, who garnered four points

—Fred Hicks picked up another four points in the shot where he placed second.

—In the two-mile race, Northville's John Pauli, Rick Bell and Dale North finished second, third and fourth to pick up nine big points.

—In a big surprise, Glenn Heffner, Ed Beller, Hutcherson and Dave Veresh turned in an exceptionally good time of 1:40 flat to take first place in the 880 relay.

—Rick Lamp placed first and Chris Kline took third in the one mile race.

—Rick Pickren, another promising freshman, finished third in the high hurdles even though he hit three hurdles in the race, and Veresh placed fourth.

—First and second places went to Northville in the half mile (880) as Phil Kennedy and Paul Bedford accounted for 10 points.

—Second in the 440 yard dash was Hubbard.

—Turning in his best time of the season (10.65), Heffner took first and six points.

—In an exceptionally tight race, Beller nipped Gary Hood of Clarkston at the tape to take first in the low hurdles while Dave Mitchell, another promising freshman, took third. Together they accounted for nine points.

—Posting a good time of 23.9, Heffner took first in the 220.

—Kennedy, Jeff Dawson, Bedford and Hubbard posted a time of 3:45.0 flat in the mile relay—good for first place and another six points.

FIELD DAY'S BIG HIT—An army of Northville elementary youngsters invaded the high school track Monday for an exciting series of competitions in about every kind of track event imaginable. From start to finish, it was a big success, reported Robert Prom, who will announce the winners in next week's paper. Enthusiasm was so great that in the dashes one wave of girls swept completely around the oval ignoring the normal finish line.

Varsity Takes 3rd In W-O Tourney

Outstanding season-long performances turned sour in the league meet as Northville's toughest track team in history managed to snag only third place behind both Bloomfields.

Taking the league trophy was West Bloomfield with 66 points, followed by Bloomfield Hills with 46½, and Northville at 44. In fourth was Milford with 34, followed by Holly at 17, Clarenceville at 8, Clarkston at 6 and bringing up the rear, Brighton at 4½.

Primeau Gets Tiger Offer

Northville's slugging shortstop, Dennis Primeau, was expected to confer with Detroit Tigers officials this week concerning a contract offer by the professional baseball club.

The Tigers announced Thursday that they will offer the 18-year-old Northville senior a professional contract.

Neither Dennis nor his father had discussed the contract with the Tigers yet on Monday. His mother was uncertain as to how the offer may affect Dennis' plans to enroll at Port Huron College on an athletic scholarship.

Mr. and Mrs. Primeau recently moved to 9045 Lionel, Livonia, from Nov.

Calling it a "good meet in some respect", Coach Ralph Redmond said the Lakers were just too strong in the short sprints—one of Northville's weakest areas, mostly because three key players, Chuck Keegan, Bill Harrison, and Mike Ratliff, had been sidelined earlier for injuries and never really regained their full-potential.

Five Wayne-Oakland League records fell in the meet. These included: Mike Seyler of Clarkston, first in the two-mile with a time of 9:52.3; West Bloomfield in the 880 relay with a time of 1:31.3; Tom Sutton of Milford, 50.3 in the 440 yard dash; West Bloomfield's Tim Conley who tied the 100 yard dash record with a time of 10.1; and Bob Starb, who established the new long jump record of 20' 10½".

Probably Northville's best performance was turned in by Randy Simpson who chalked up a new Northville record in the low hurdles—a 20.0 mark good for first place.

John Stuyvenberg, an outstanding freshman, turned in his best long jump of the season—a 20' 7½" leap, which was good for second place.

First place in the high jump went to Jim Peterson who leaped 6' 1".

In an upset, Northville's mile relay team—predicted to take fourth—zipped around the oval at 3:31.9 to take second place. Members of the team are George D'Haene, Al Earehart, Bill Harrison, and Gregg Marshall.

Steve Evans Near Top of U-M Hurlers

Steve Evans, Northville's contribution to the University of Michigan's baseball team, struggled with controls problems in his first varsity year, but came on strong to finish second among Wolverine hurlers.

A sophomore, Evans wound up with a 4-4 record and an admirable 2.83 earned run average to rank next to Dave Renkiewicz in both important departments. Renkiewicz was 5-5 and had a 2.06 ERA.

The lanky right-hander from Northville hurled 63 2/3 innings gave up 52 hits, 25 runs (20 earned), struck out 56 and walked 36.

Evans got off to a wobbly start during the Wolverines spring swing through the Southwest, but he improved with every game in Big Ten play. One of his victories was a four-hitter over Michigan State University.

Michigan finished the season with 17 wins and 16 losses a record that proclaims a strong comeback. The Wolverines lost nine consecutive ball games out west, before untracking in conference play.

Novi Man Robbed, Two Held

Novi Patrolman Dale Gross and his police dog, Rusty, apprehended two juveniles last week following an 80-mile an hour chase of a stolen car from Kensington Park.

The officer chased the youths from I-96 and Novi road south to Grand River and then east on Grand River. Near Saratoga Farms Restaurant, after repeated attempts to force them over, Gross fired a shot at the fleeing car.

The young driver pulled the car into the ditch and he ran in one direction and his companion in another. The officer ran after one boy, sent his dog after the other. Both were apprehended and turned over to county juvenile authorities.

Both 15-year old boys also are accused of looting several other cars at Kensington.

Last week's apprehension of the car.

Two boys with the assistance of the police dog, represents the second time in the past month the dog has been involved in a successful police action. Just last week, the police chief of the city of Farmington sent a letter of appreciation to the Novi department for the dog's role in successfully determining the escape route of Farmington burglars which led to recovery of stolen goods.

10 Receive EM Degrees

Ten Northville-Novu area residents were graduated from Eastern Michigan University Saturday in the 115th June commencement exercises.

Aside from the awarding of diplomas, the address by Dr. John R. Emens, president of Ball State University, highlighted the graduation exercises. Dr. Emens said reports of student unrest on university campuses have been blown up to distort the true picture.

Degrees were awarded to a record-breaking 1,264 students. Those receiving awards from this area are:

Francis Martin is one of 70 boys who graduated Saturday from Cranbrook School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Martin, 20173 Whipple Drive.

Speaker for commencement ceremonies, held in Christ Church Cranbrook, was Robert P. Griffin, U.S. Senator from Michigan.

Cranbrook School is an independent six-year college preparatory, boarding and day school for boys which enrolls students from all parts of the United States and several foreign countries. It is one of the six institutions of Cranbrook, a cultural and educational center, founded by the late George G. Booth, Michigan newspaper publisher, and his wife, Ellen Scripps Booth, and located 10 miles northwest of Detroit.

Typing Classes To Start Monday

Registration for a summer typing class for beginners are still being accepted.

Slated to begin Monday and continue daily through July 30, the class will be held in the typing room of Northville high school.

Interested persons are urged to call the high school extension 9.

According to registration figures Monday, only 12 persons had enrolled. A maximum class of 35 is the target, with tuition based upon the number of persons enrolled.

The class is open to junior and senior high school students and adults. Objective of the program is to develop enough basic typing skills to enable the student to type his personal papers. Procedures will include drills on the location of and the reaches to all the letter keys; instruction on the use of all the parts of the machine and how to use them quickly and automatically; and practice in typing letters, manuscripts, outlines, postcards, reference cards, etc.

Attendance rules will be strictly applied. Absences are limited to two excused classroom absences.

Credit for the class will be given in grades 9-12. Those students entering the eighth grade next fall will not receive credit for the course.

Man Jailed For Stabbing

A 31-year-old Novi man, James F. Bailey of 44240 11 Mile road, is in jail today awaiting an examination on intent to do great bodily harm, a charge growing out of a stabbing at the home of Raymond Grewing, 45280 12 Mile road, on Sunday.

Stabbed following an argument was Lyall Thompson, 46 of Walled Lake, who was treated at Botsford Hospital for arm wounds.

Thompson reported the stabbing to Novi police late Sunday morning. About 45 minutes later, Novi police spotted the suspect in a car at Beck and Grand River and followed it to the scene of the crime. There, local police and a State Police officer halted the car at gunpoint when the driver, Freida Brown, 41 of Howell, started to drive away.

Two other occupants in the car, one a 10-year-old girl, were released after questioning.

Upon arraignment before Justice Emery Jacques Monday, Bailey demanded examination, which was set for June 20. He is being held in lieu of $2,500 cash bond.

The woman, charged with not having an operator's license, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to jail for 15 days and fined $50 or serve another 90 days in jail.

Novi Patrolman 'n Dog Nab Fleeing Car Thieves

Two young Farmington suspects face possible prosecution for the armed robbery of an Echo Valley resident early Saturday morning.

Walled Lake Fair's A Hit!

Blue, sunny skies formed a perfect setting for the record-breaking Walled Lake Elementary PTA School Fair on Saturday, May 25.

According to the fair chairman, Edward Page, the record turnout of children and adults surpassed all expectations. Proceeds from the fair will be used to provide visual aids and additional educational materials for the classrooms of Walled Lake Elementary.

Offering goodies for the adults were a bake sale, greenhouse, and a "white elephant" sale. A delightful and tempting "doll" cake, donated by Mrs. Burton Dingeman, was raffled and the lucky winner was Mrs. Arthur Maxwell of Novi.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 924, under the leadership of Mrs. Peter Alcala, sold hot dogs, coffee and Coca-Cola to aid in financing a trip to Washington, D.C.

One suspect, a 16-year-old, was in the custody of Novi police Tuesday, while the other, Richard G. Mapley, 18, is being held by Highland Park police on a charge of fraudulent use of a credit card.

Highland Park police arrested the pair Monday when they tried to use a credit card, stolen from Edward A. Brown, 48114 Brushwood, Echo Valley, at 2:10 a.m. Saturday.

According to Novi police, a third, unidentified suspect is being sought. The 16-year-old reportedly has admitted his role in the armed robbery.

Apparently, the suspects followed Brown from Farmington to his home, police said. Upon arriving home, Brown said a car pulled in behind his car. He ran into the garage, slammed the door shut and attempted to enter the house when the men broke a window and opened the garage.

Forced outside by knife-point by two men, his billfold containing about $7 and numerous credit cards were taken. After reporting the robbery to Novi police, the credit card companies were notified, and on Monday the Sears & Roebuck store on Woodward Avenue reported someone tried to cash one of the stolen cards. Highland Park police then arrested the pair.

Seniors Bid High School Goodbye

Twelve years of school came to an end for nearly 250 members of Northville's high school graduating class Monday night as they marched solemnly into a sweltering, packed gymnasium while the high school band played the commencement processional. The night before the graduates had gathered in the gymnasium for the traditional baccalaureate service. And following the commencement exercises they enjoyed an "Aloha '68" party in another part of the high school where their parents had created a "bit of Hawaii."

from the Pastor's Study

Rev. Charles F. Boerger
St. Paul's Lutheran, Northville

An outdoor bulletin board in front of a church had a catchy question: "Does God seem farther from you now than before?" Beneath these words was another question in smaller print: "Who has moved?"

Who has moved when God seems farther from us than He once did? Most people blame God. They say: "God left me. He isn't interested in me as He once was. When I pray, He doesn't even listen, let alone answer."

That's an odd way to talk about God. If there's one thing His Word tells us about Him, it's this—God doesn't move; He doesn't change. He tells us through the prophet Malachi: "I the Lord do not change."

Many people in the Bible had to learn this the hard way. As a boy, David faced the giant Goliath without running because he trusted that God was with him and would help him. But a few years later David murdered and stole and in other ways often failed to act like God's child. Who had changed? God? No, God continued to love David and brought him back to faith and obedience.

What about Peter? Remember him saying to Christ: "If the whole world denies You, I will not deny You." Yet a little while later, when a young woman said: "You are one of His disciples," Peter cursed and swore, denying that he ever knew Jesus. Quite a change—for Peter. But God didn't change. He loved Peter and forgave Him.

God always loves and cares for us, too. He never leaves us even for an instant. If we ever feel that God is far away from us and that He is no longer our Father, the problem is not with God. He wants to be God and Father to each of us. Who moves away? We do! We refuse to believe He is there with His unfailing mercy, forgiveness, and help.

Let's ask God to keep us faithful, always leaning on Him. He is always near and can be leaned on. "The eternal God, is your Dwelling Place, and underneath are the everlasting arms"

One of the earliest emotions a child experiences is fear. And from the first loud noise that awakens him until the moment of his death he knows no day without the recurrence of some foreboding danger.

From the beginning of time religion has been our tested antidote to the poison of fear. In the dark forests of antiquity, on the boiling seas of exploration, in the fox-holes of modern strife, men have calmed the body's trembling with the soul's faith. We have faced the unknown, the hostile, through trust in the Known, the Faithful; we have challenged the insurmountable, confident in the power of the Almighty.

How essential, though, that each generation passes on our Faith to the next! Who dares deprive a child of the chance to conquer fear? Who would rob his son's soul of the Christian heritage martyrs died to preserve?

Bring your children to God's House every Sunday.

THE CONQUEST OF FEAR

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Six Travel Films Scheduled

Rotary Club Plans Another Armchair World Adventure

Northville "armchair travelers" will roam from "The Atlantic Coast" and "The Canadian Far West" to "Adventures in Switzerland" and "Windjammer to Australia" in the eighth season of Travel and Adventure Series sponsored by the Northville Rotary club.

Six well-known travel experts are scheduled for the 1968-69 series to be given at 8 p.m. Wednesday or Thursday evenings monthly from October through April, excluding December, at the Northville High School auditorium.

An innovation this season, Rotary Chairman Robert Webber announces, is a special rate of 50 cents a lecture for students. Adult tickets for the entire series are $6. Tickets may be purchased from any Rotarian or at Manufacturers National Bank branch, C. Harold Bloom Insurance Agency, Northville Camera Shop, Northville Drug Company, or Northville Insurance Agency.

Robert Brouwer, who will speak and show an unusual film story, "Spring Captures Holland," will open the series Wednesday, October 23. Using three screens, several projectors and hi-fidelity stereo music, he will take his audience on a springtime tour of Holland which will include the Keukenhof Gardens—the Dutch bulb growers showcase—tourist towns of Marken and Volendam, fishing villages, canal towns and rural scenes as well as the main cities of Amsterdam and Rotterdam.

Dick Reddy follows Thursday, November 21, with "Adventures in Switzerland." He has made a conscientious effort to trace the coach tracks of Mark Twain, who set sail for Switzerland in 1878. From the towering peaks of the Jungfrau to the cold dark dungeons of the Castle of Chillon to balloon flights, sleigh rides and flights over the Alps a first effort was made to follow the famous author's journey.

Wednesday, January 15, 1969, Art Erickson will island-hop across the Pacific aboard the famous brigantine "Yankee" in "Windjammer to

Wayne County Receives Grant

Wayne County has received a $31,666 federal grant to help finance initial development of a county master plan.

The grant will be used in a six-month study which will lay the groundwork for development of a comprehensive master plan to guide Wayne County government in establishing programs and setting priorities.

"The master plan will indicate how we can best relate county programs to the plans and needs of the local communities," said County Planning Director Francis P. Bennett, who will direct the study.

Award of the grant from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development was announced in Washington by Senator Philip Hart. The study will cost a total of $47,500, with the county contributing $15,834 in services.

Australia." One of the last of a vanishing breed of proud sailing ships, the "Yankee" sails to strange, isolated Galapagos Islands, Pitcairn Island of Bounty Mutiny fame, the Society Islands, the Cooks, Tokelaus, Solomons and many others.

Arriving in Australia, Erickson takes his audience 14,000 miles by land Rover into the interior to visit the Aborigine.

Don Cooper in "The Canadian Far West" on Thursday, February 13, deals with Alexander Mackenzie's attempt to establish a route to the Pacific Ocean. As a result of the explorations, Mackenzie became the first man to cross the northern part of North America. His route traversed such a wild and hazardous part of the world that it was never used. However, it gave Canada its first valid claim to the West Coast and was of great importance in the subsequent boundary negotiations between United States and Canada. Cooper's unusual film deals with the portion of Mackenzie's trip from Western prairies to the sea.

Wednesday, March 12, James Forsee will narrate "The Atlantic Coast"—on a tour that takes his audience from the rocky cliffs of Acadia National Park to the beautiful islands of the Florida Keys. High lights include the Statue of Liberty and New York's harbor, Washington, D.C., the glassblowers of Jamestown and the cabinetmaking and weaving in Williamsburg, Virginia. The trip continues to the United States Marine Boot Camp at Parris Island, South Carolina, and the ocean surf with Florida's famed dolphins.

James W. Metcalf concludes the series Thursday, April 10, with "Wings to The Bahamas." The wings are the private aircraft from which visits are made to the Bahama Island off Florida's east coast.

Beginning just 55 miles off the U. S. Mainland, 800 exotic tropical islands dot the Atlantic for an area of 4400 square miles. Here Columbus discovered the New Worlds and a boisterous, fascinating history was in the making before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock. With Metcalf today's tourist will see such sights as natives trimming sponges in Nassau market.

All the travel pictures are in color and narrated by the photographic artists themselves.

Proceeds from the Rotary club series will be used in the club's community projects.

GM Promotes Frederick Schwarze

The promotions of George B. Morris, Jr., to director of labor relations of General Motors and Frederick H. Schwarze of Northville to assistant director of labor relations were announced last week by Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president in charge of the personnel staff.

Morris, who has been manager of the Labor Relations Staff since February, 1966, succeeds Earl R. Bramblett who Monday was elected a vice president of General Motors and named executive assistant to Mr. Seaton.

Born in Detroit, February 26, 1917, Morris joined GM in 1941 as assistant supervisor of labor relations at Fisher Body's Pontiac plant following graduation from Notre Dame University with degrees in arts and law.

In June, 1942, he was promoted to the Fisher Body Central Office at Detroit as one of the four original members of the Division's industrial relations section which was then being organized.

Morris was appointed to the staff of the Vice President in charge of the Personnel Staff in March of 1948, where he has handled arbitration cases with all of the unions with which GM does business and has been a key member of GM's bargaining team in every subsequent round of bargaining with the United Automobile Workers. Additionally, he has responsibility for day-to-day contract administration.

Schwarze has been responsible for the General Motors arbitration machinery and contract administration and negotiation between GM and the International Union of Electrical workers.

Born in Detroit, December 31, 1915, he joined GM at GMC Truck & Coach Division after graduation from the University of Michigan. His transfer to GM Central Office was in December, 1946.

Youths Beat Hitchhiker In Novi Friday

A 26-year-old Southfield hitchhiker was beaten into unconsciousness early Friday morning and dumped in a Novi barn at Nine Mile and Haggerty Roads.

Treated at Botsford Hospital for multiple head cuts and body bruises was Richard M. Shive, who told Novi police four young unidentified assailants had picked him up at the intersection of Southfield and Grand River about 2:30 a.m.

When Shive asked to be let out of the car at Inkster Road the white youths told him to "shut up sit there where you are," police said. Somewhere west of Farmington, the car turned down an unidentified gravel road. It was stopped, he was forced from the car and told to raise his hands.

As he did so, the youths began beating him with their fists and kicking him into unconsciousness. About 5 a.m. he regained consciousness, found himself in a barn, and then made his way to a nearby home for help.

The case was to be turned over to State Police for further investigation.

Presidential Primaries Not New to Michigan

LANSING—With presidential primaries holding the national and international spotlight, talk about reviving Michigan's presidential primary system is again making the rounds.

Michigan abandoned presidential primaries some 40 years ago.

Those favoring such a law, including some political scientists argue that the presidential primary gives voters a voice in the selection of candidates.

Opposing forces generally cite the added cost, both for the states and for candidates who already are subject to widespread criticism for excessive campaign expenditures at nearly every level.

Secretary of State James M. Hare estimates it would cost the state about $700,000 to hold a presidential primary here.

"It would, in effect, double our costs of voting for a president every four years," Hare said.

"At the same time, it would boost campaign outlays by candidates which we have sought to bring under tighter control in Michigan as concerned leaders of both parties have been attempting to do in Washington."

Under a law proposed last year, the secretary of state would issue a list of presidential primary candidates after observing "individuals considered by the national press to be potential candidates for each party's nomination."

Those named would appear on the primary ballots for each party. No candidate would be permitted to withdraw unless he filed an affidavit stating that he was not a candidate.

Candidates listed would run in a presidential primary to be held the first Tuesday in April.

Winning candidates would select a list of delegates to represent them at their parties' national conventions.

If Michigan adopted such a law, it would be going back to a system which prevailed in this state through four presidential elections—from 1916 through 1928.

The Michigan legislature passed a presidential primary law in 1912. It was repealed in 1931.

Some illustrious names from the political past were entered in Michigan's four presidential primary elections, including Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company, and former President Herbert Hoover. Curiously, Ford and Hoover ran on both Democratic and Republican tickets at various times in Michigan.

Ford won the Republican primary in 1916 and the Democratic primary in 1924. But he failed to gain the nomination of either party.

Hoover won the Democratic primary in Michigan in 1920 and the Republican primary in 1928, when he was elected President.

In three out of four instances during Michigan's presidential primary era, the winning candidates here won their party's nomination and were elected President...Democrat Woodrow Wilson in 1916 and Republicans Calvin Coolidge in 1924 and Hoover in 1928.

Republican Warren G. Harding, elected in 1920, was not entered in his party's Michigan primary, won that year by Hiram W. Johnson.

The solution to summer heat may be right at your feet. All you need to do is cool and dry the air in your home. If you have a forced air heating system, you have ductwork. And a furnace blower. So you're already moving and filtering air.

That's a big part of an electric central air conditioning system. All that's left is to cool the air and wring the steamy dampness out.

Add two compact units—cooling coil and condenser—and, presto, your heating system becomes a cooling system too. A system that cools, dehu-midifies, cleans and quiets your home. For less money.

That's right. Electric air conditioning costs less to buy, less to install, less to operate than the flame type.

Electric cooling works efficiently, like your refrigerator. Cools a 1,200-square-foot house for as little as $24.00 per season.

Call an air conditioning contractor, right away. He'll give you a free estimate and show you how electric central air conditioning is well within your reach.

Following discussion of green belt standards, the residents were advised to meet with the Planning Commission.
 BOARD AND COMMISSION MINUTES:
 There were no questions on minutes of Zoning Board of Appeals meeting May 1st; also Planning Commission meeting of May 7th.
 NORTHVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT accepted as reported.

PUBLIC HEARING FOR CITY OF NORTHVILLE 1968-68 BUDGET:
 Sid Frid, 956 Grace Street, made the statement that Township Police budget is about nil and questioned why City Police answer calls in the township. City Manager stated that City police are not to answer any calls in the township except in a limited case for the protection of the fire department on a heavily travelled road.
 City Manager read letter from citizen John Canterbury. Mr. Canterbury referred to the proposal to increase property tax rate by more than 41% on our increased assessed valuation. This property is strictly for recreational purposes. Board Member Nichols is not in agreement with purchasing it at 50% and thus having it remain the property of the Government.

Have met with Mr. Casterline and Mr. Ebert and the problem was discussed with them. Mr. Ebert is not interested in the service. This service should cover only such calls where city police are required to call an ambulance. It was agreed that if after 90 days Mr. Casterline is unable to collect the fee, the City will assume the bill and will make an attempt to collect from the individual. Each bill have to be approved by the Council.

Volunteer Dental Team on the Way

Mexican Toothaches Awaiting Northville Remedy

Today, somewhere in the hills of Mexico's isolated scrub-bush country, some painful toothaches are awaiting the arrival of a special Northville Township remedy—called Dr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Fitch.

The Fitches, joined this summer by their neighbors Mrs. William (Lois) McAllister and her teenage daughter, Karen, left Northville Wednesday in a bulging station wagon on their annual volunteer dental expedition into Mexico.

Hardened to the rigors of the hills and the elements and already brimming with the satisfaction that goes with this annual dental project, the Fitches this year expect to get their biggest kicks "out of watching the reactions of Lois and Karen."

"It's sure to be an experience of a life-time for them—just like it was on our first trip," predicted Dr. Fitch. "We'll be able to relive those first precious experiences again through them."

They and their neighbors live on Lakeside Drive, just east of Phoenix Lake.

The Fitches first became interested in Mexico as tourists years ago. After several exciting archeological excursions into Southern Mexico and Central America, they decided they'd like to provide some kind of dental care for the remote areas of Mexico which have no dentists.

So with that in mind, Dr. and Mrs. Fitch loaded their Piper Tri-Pacer plane with as many supplies as they could handle and set off for Mexico in May of 1966.

They set up their headquarters in the student center of their own church—the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints—at Saltillo. From there, in the company of a missionary, the Rev. Rodney Northrup, they traveled into four remote villages south of Saltillo.

It was a thrilling experience, they recalled, filled with heart-tugging incidents involving poor but independent and appreciative adults and children, many of whom sought out the "healing" of a doctor for the first time in their lives.

"They came to us, voluntarily, with all kinds of diseases, even though we were equipped with but the barest essentials for treatment of teeth. About all we could do—and about all we'll be able to do this time—was to pull teeth and pass out medicine for mouth diseases."

The Fitches quickly learned that these people are not looking nor will they accept handouts. They insisted on paying, so the Northville couple—out of necessity, charged token fees ("maybe 25 cents") just to satisfy their patients. In some cases, though barely able to survive off the land, the Mexicans of Indian and Spanish ancestry offered food as payment.

Sleeping in sleeping bags and eating out of cans, the couple worked from sun-up to sun-down—and even into the night using a flashlight. Their "hospital" usually took the form of a shaded area beneath some village tree. Utensils were sterilized in boiling pots of water, a stump or some nearby box became their dental chair, and the dusty, village street served as the waiting room lined with patients, from the very old to the very young, in front of their thatched roof homes.

In February of 1967, the Fitches traveled in to the bush country of Honduras, Central America, about 80 miles from San Pedro Sula. Their trip was even more rugged than the one they're on now. They spent seven days of continuous work, walking for miles in mud and, in one case, they were forced to ford a swollen five-mile wide lake to reach an even poorer, more isolated people.

"We had one banner day," laughed Mrs. Fitch, "213 extractions!"

This summer the Fitches are going modern. They've taken with them a crude but dependable dental chair and portable drill that operates off an equally portable generator, and, of course, their new assistants. They and their Northville companions will experience the same living conditions, however—sleeping under the sky, eating food from cans, and enjoying only a few changes of clothes.

"We'll be living out of the station wagon," said Dr. Fitch, who practices dentistry in Plymouth.

This year the cost of Dr. Fitch's project will be partially underwritten by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club of which he is a member. It'll represent the club's international relations project. As in the past, however, most of the cost will come out of the doctor's pocketbook. "Really, we don't mind at all. It's our way of spending a good vacation."

This year's itinerary calls for this unusual dental team to arrive in Saltillo on Sunday. They'll leave Saltillo, after volunteer dental work at the student center, on June 22 and drive 160 miles over the roadless countryside to set up their primitive clinics. With them will go cartons of donated medicine and piles of trinkets for the children. They'll spend three full days in the area—and "if we're lucky" they'll sleep one night in an old schoolhouse. They'll arrive back at Saltillo on June 25.

"How do you know the people will be waiting?" Dr. Fitch was asked.

"No worry about that," he replied, "the word's already out. 'The doctor is coming!' We've already been told the people are waiting."

DENTAL TEAM—Two key pieces of equipment in the meager outdoor laboratory of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Fitch include a simple stool and a portable drill.

JOIN EXPEDITION—Relaxing just before joining their neighbors on a rugged adventure into Mexico are Mrs. William McAllister and her daughter, Karen, who live on Lakeside Drive in Northville Township.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The swift action by President Johnson following the latest Kennedy tragedy in calling for a commission to study the causes of violence in our nation seems entirely appropriate and necessary.

When the President asks what it is in our nature that moves us to violence, he poses a question that promises to hold many answers.

Why are the seeds of hatred so easily planted, so fertile?

The findings of the latest Presidential commission may well be the basis for a new approach to many old American customs. Certainly among them will be the tone of political campaigning.

But whatever the recommendations, we have known the answer for centuries. It's the application to our daily lives that presents the difficulty.

*****

While Novi and South Lyon voters were approving school millage requests Monday, Northville's two-mill bid lost by the narrow margin of 14 votes.

There are many disturbing aspects to the Northville election. First, only 20 per cent of the registered electors voted. Secondly, the closeness of the vote and the apparent need for the funds makes it almost a certainty that another election will be held next month on the same question.

Finally, it's unfortunate that one candidate for the board used a tactic in opposing the millage that went unchallenged. It must be assumed that at least some voters were persuaded by the argument.

But let all Northville school district voters be assured of this fact: county and state tax authorities have declared that our district is assessed at the 50-per-cent level as prescribed by law.

The truth of this statement is proven by our equalization factor, which is "one". If our assessments were not up to the level required by the state, then we would be penalized by a factor of 1.2 or 1.5, or whatever would be necessary to hike assessments to 50 per cent.

Recommending an increase in assessments to gain more operating millage would cost taxpayers much more than a tax hike of two mills for schools, mainly because the new assessments would also be used for all other taxes, such as city, county and township.

Further, and more important, it would remove from the taxpaying citizen the right to vote for or against a tax hike.

Increasing assessments is an easy method of raising taxes without asking the public.

Some councilmembers are reportedly having second thoughts about burning down the huge fish hatchery building. In fact, firemen have been told it will not be burned down.

It's news to City Manager Frank Ollendorff, who will still recommend destruction of the building. He reports estimates of between $30,000 and $40,000 to make the building safe for public use.

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

Novi's missing a great show—and it's really too bad.

The basis for a new government is in the making at Novi but so far the action of the newly elected city charter commission appears to be of little interest to the community's citizens. In the first two weeks of its existence only one private citizen has bothered to attend the commission's public meetings.

Meetings are held each Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the Novi Village Council Chambers.

Apparently, Bewitched, Dragnet and Peyton Place are too entrenched. That's unfortunate because none of them are as interesting nor as exciting. And there's no commercials.

Here is grass roots government at work—the kind of stuff so many of us complain is being eaten out of our society by big government. But we complain after the fact, not before.

College students returning home for the summer and high school students, for that matter, would do well to audit the governmental process underway at Novi. It may not be as much fun as drag racing, hopping from drive-in to drive-in, or invading administrative offices but it's safer and a whole lot more educational.

In the wake of last week's tragedy, some of my friends questioned the validity of the statement that we are a "sick nation" guilty of assassination. I do not. And I don't think we need a commission to tell us why. We need only look at the breakdown in the family to find the answer.

For years the professionals have cautioned against too much parental control and influence over our children. Don't stifle individualism lest you mar initiative and creativity, let your children express themselves, give them a role in determining parental decisions, and above all, don't spank them.

Hogwash! It's this kind of parental permissiveness that says "maybe the other kid did it but certainly not mine," that dictates leniency in our elementary and secondary schools and forces teachers to turn their cheeks, that supports storming of college administrative offices, and that spawns the crime in our streets.

The only problem with my peculiar philosophy is that I'm probably meeting out sufficient justice with my own youngsters to make up for the lack of it elsewhere. As a matter of fact, the topic so inflames me I think I'll go home and get in a lickin' or two just to be on the safe side.

'Gun Nuts', Not Guns Disturb Him

To The Editor:

The time has come to shout "Arouse and Beware" for once again, the gun nuts are abroad in the land. Let me define a gun nut as one of the minor, but irritating, brand of bleeding heart liberals who insist upon solving people problems by attacking things. To get rid of political assassinations is simple, they conclude, you stamp out guns. The fact that political assassinations were here at least 4,000 years ahead of gunpowder doesn't seem to bother them a bit. These same people would solve a host of problems in this simple fashion (for example: to get rid of slum people you trot out the bulldozer and eliminate the slums. The theory being that a displaced and homeless bum is somehow less a bum).

I deplore the shooting of public figures, but I cannot logically arrive at the firearm as the villain of the piece. It is only a thing, a thing without life or purpose. It is a tool which can serve or destroy man just as the atom can. If you permit yourselves to be stamped into outlawing firearms because someone has used one to kill a famous or beloved person, then you must permit me to outlaw the Christian cross on the same grounds.

I have two separate rights to possess firearms. First, I have the constitutional bill of rights which states clearly that I may keep a firearm. Second, I have a fundamental legal right to protect my person, my loved ones and my possessions. I have observed an alarming tendency of liberal political advocates to look the other way during rioting and burning, particularly where decisive action might cost a few minority votes. Can you return any congressman to office who would strip you of these fundamental rights?

The chief gun nut was Senator Dodd (Dem.-Conn.). He can't front for the group any more since he is under censure for showing less concern for propriety in handling campaign funds than his concern for firearms. I see some evidence that Senator Hart of Michigan is making noises like a gun nut. I would hope that the voters would point out the error of his ways.

He should at least realize that federal gun controls will only remove guns from the hands of decent people.

One final observation. It has become stylish to preach that anti-gun control people are part of the National Rifle Association lobby. For the record, I am not and have never been a member of the National Rifle Association.

Dislikes Track 'Detour'

To The Editor:

I would like to express what I think about this one auxiliary policeman Saturday night, 6-1-68. He was trying to direct traffic for the races. I live in Northville and pay taxes to live here. I worked eight hours last Saturday and was stopped for 10 or 15 minutes to allow these race fans to get out of the parking lots. I was traveling north on Sheldon road, but was detoured east to go two miles out of my way to get home. I told this auxiliary policeman I did not live that way and yet he made me turn east and go out of my way to get home.

I believe that they should allow traffic to pass and hold up some of the race fans traffic. They were using my right of way to go north on Sheldon road to let four lanes of traffic to go south and southeast. I ask you if they are more important or privileged than I.

JH Students Praised

To The Editor:

I'm writing this letter because I believe I have some information that the people of Northville will be interested to learn. My husband passed away on April 26th after a lengthy illness. He was a math teacher of the Ida B. Cooke Jr. High School. The last day he worked was January 5 1968. Upon learning that my husband had used all of his "sick pay" they (students) started a fund raising project for him. They sold candy.

Last Wednesday, Mr. Van Ingen, the principal, called on me. He brought three students who had quite a bit to do with the candy sale, with him. They presented me with a sizeable amount—the profits from the candy sale. One of the students had sold eighty-five boxes alone. Realizing all of the time and effort that went into this project, I believe the students at the Ida B. Cooke Jr. High are to be commended. I wish my husband had lived long enough to know what they had done for him, he'd have been so proud—Northville certainly can be proud of their children.

Thank You

Here's Bouquet For the Gal

To The Editor:

I was privileged to have attended the Northville High School G.A.L. banquet given by the cheerleaders.

It was truly wonderful to see the relationship between the girls and their sponsors. Both Miss Bubel and Miss Dorrian are to be commended for the time and effort they have contributed in making this organization so successful.

I shall never regret the after-school trips between home and the high school gym after seeing the wonderful results.

I am sure each Senior G.A.L. Member will leave with regrets but will take with them only the fondest of memories I know for I, too, have been a G.A.L. member.

There's Probably a Lobbyist in Your Corner

LANSING—You may not know it, but chances are good that your interests in government are represented by at least one lobbyist. This thought comes as a shock to many, especially those who consider a lobbyist to be a little bit evil.

Lobbyists, who prefer to be called legislative agents—perhaps to avoid the sinister aspect of the older title—are like any other group. Most of them are honorable, hard working gentlemen, trying hard to get their job done. And most of them suffer to some degree because of the reputation of a few.

A very strong lobby, for example, is maintained by educators. Teachers, school boards, school administrators and colleges all have lobbyists at the state Capitol to look out for their interests. So do doctors, lawyers, nurses, insurance men. Farmers are well represented; big labor and big business too. Retail merchants are well represented. Funeral directors, food dealers, churches, movers, wine makers real estate people, bankers; you name the group, and chances are you'll find it has a lobbyist. Even state employees have lobbyists. The only group which doesn't have a lobbyist among the 200 registered with the state might be the lobbyists themselves.

Main responsibility of a lobbyist is to protect the interests of the group he represents. He does this by counseling with legislators when legislation is proposed which affects his group. He is expected to supply information about the proposal and the effect it will have. In other words, he states the reasons his group supports or opposes these proposals. Sometimes he can suggest changes which eliminate the damage to his group while permitting other changes to become law.

Because government is somewhat ponderous and confused at times the lobbyist is expected to trace the progress of each proposal affecting his group and keep the group informed.

Legislators depend on lobbyists to reflect attitudes of voters in their own constituencies and to supply information which helps them make wise decisions. Woe comes to the lobbyist whose reputation is blemished by trying little tricks which mislead legislators.

The lobbyist's most important tool is his own integrity. Each one guards this carefully, for once he is labeled as less than dependable, his effectiveness is lost.

Lobbyists, or legislative agents if you prefer, perform an important function in the lawmaking process. If you don't know who your lobbyist is think about it awhile. You probably have, several whom you didn't realize existed.

WHETHER OR NOT motorcyclists can be forced by law to "keep their hats on so they won't lose their heads" may be settled by the State Supreme Court.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley is appealing this question following a decision from the Appeals Court that a 1966 law requiring helmets for those riding motorcycles is unconstitutional. In the meantime, at least one county prosecutor (Ingham) has ordered policemen to arrest anyone riding a motorcycle who is not wearing protective headgear.

The legal point may be decided by the high court. The logic of the law is in safety figures.

According to State Police, there were 8,200 more motorcycles in 1967 than in 1966 and more accidents. But since the law was passed, there have been fewer deaths. In 1966 one death was registered for each 12.8 registered cycles. In 1967, this dropped to one death per 10.4. In 1966, there were 104 killed in cycle accidents; in 1967, when there were more vehicles, the death total dropped to 86.

ARRESTS for drunk driving increased 78 percent the first four months of 1968 over 1967, Michigan

State Police report. Law enforcement agencies throughout the state, from January through April, asked 5,154 drivers to take the test. Seventy-six percent of those tested exceeded the presumptive level of intoxication, and 12% were in the "impaired driving" bracket. Police said 1,214 drivers refused to take the test.

Under Michigan's "Implied Consent" law, refusal is cause for suspension of an operator's license. Secretary of State James M. Hare reports that of 1,236 drivers cited for refusing to take the chemical test, 631 persons appealed the license suspension. Licenses were restored, after hearings, in 95 cases and denied in 524; 12 cases were awaiting hearing dates.

There are now 850 Breathalyzer operators in the state, and another 100 will be trained before the current school is completed, State Police say. Instruments have been placed in 40 sheriff offices, 39 city police departments, three township police departments and 59 State Police posts. Forty-seven more will be installed in the near future. The slogan, "If you drink, don't drive," may soon be obsolete. The replacement seems to be, "If you drink and drive, be prepared to walk!"

Tips For Returning Servicemen

BABSON PARK, Massachusetts—June 13. The end of the Vietnam war is not yet in sight. But even now, thousands of servicemen (and women) are returning to civilian life each month. If you have relatives or friends due to be discharged, or if you are an employer, you should know what Uncle Sam is doing to help these veterans.

All vets who were employed before entering service have 90 days after discharge to apply for restoration to their old jobs. If you know any returning serviceman who is having trouble getting his old job back—and this is not uncommon, especially in small companies whose owners or managers just don't understand what the law requires of them—tell the vet to contact the nearest Veterans Re-employment Rights Office of the U.S. Department of Labor for assistance.

Vets who worked for Uncle Sam before going into service, or who would like to work for him now, should contact their local U.S. Civil Service Commission Office. Note that the Federal Veterans Preference Act accords former servicemen priority on government jobs for which they qualify. Many states give a similar break to vets qualifying for state civil service jobs. In addition, President Johnson has empowered federal agencies to hire vets for some government jobs without requiring competitive examinations.

ALL VETERANS who have had more than 180 days of active service, or who have been discharged for service-connected disabilities, are entitled to one month's schooling for each month of active-duty service, for a total of no more than 36 months' schooling. Such instruction may be taken at any public or private secondary school; vocational, correspondence, or business school; junior college, normal school, or teacher's college; college or university; professional, scientific, or technical institution.

The Veterans Administration administers this program. Government help amounts to $130 per month for a single vet in a full-time educational pursuit. With one dependent, the total rises to $155, with two to $175. Assistance for each dependent after the first two is $10 monthly. Not widely known is the fact that veterans may receive a monthly allowance if they choose to take farm co-operative training comprising institutional agricultural courses plus related work on the farm. For a single vet, the allowance is $105 per month; $145 for a vet with two dependents, $7 for each additional dependent.

All discharged military personnel possess a most important asset in their Servicemen's Group Life Insurance policy. This protection is continued for 120 days after they leave the service. If not converted to a commercial-type policy within that period it lapses. So, if you have a query about GI insurance, don't guess, or be content with partial answers. Get in touch directly with the Servicemen's Group Life Insurance, 212 Washington Street, Newark, New Jersey.

MOST OF US are aware that vets have 10 years from discharge date to get a VA-guaranteed home or farm loan. But many do not realize that, to this 10 years, an extra year is added for each three months of active duty. Loans are made by private lenders with VA guarantees. For homes, the guarantee ceiling is now $7,500, or 60% of the loan (whichever is less); for farm real estate other than acquiring a home, the top is $4,000, or 50% of the loan. Legislation is now pending in Congress to raise these guarantee ceilings.

VA disburses disability compensation on a monthly basis to vets who have incurred wounds in line of duty or who have suffered injuries or contracted diseases while in service. Such payments range from $21 to $850 per month. All through life; veterans are also entitled to full care in VA hospitals at no cost for service-connected disabilities; and for treatment of non-service-connected illnesses when beds are available and they can certify they are unable to pay for hospital care elsewhere. For complete, up-to-date information on total possible benefits, contact your local VA office.

Paul Newman Plays Comic at P & A

Imprisoned Paul Newman lectures German POW Commandant Werner Peters on the Geneva Convention for prisoners to little avail in Universal's hilarious World War II comedy, "The Secret War of Harry Frigg," photographed in Technicolor. Sylva Koscina co-stars with Newman.

Of all the ingenious ways for secret agents to pass information, this seems the best to us... and James Bond looks like he's getting the message. Again starring as Agent 007 in "You Only Live Twice," in Technicolor and Panavision at the Penn Theatre, thru United Artists release. Sean Connery's lovely masseuse is actually Akiko Wakabayashi, prettiest agent in the Japanese Secret Service!

Clint Eastwood doesn't see as much to laugh about as Eli Wallach in this scene from "The Good, The Bad and The Ugly," now in Technicolor and Techniscope at the Penn Theatre. Lee Van Cleef co-stars in the Civil War drama released through United Artists, a Transamerica Company..

Paul Newman is a comedian!

That's what movie-goers will learn from Universal's hilarious World War II comedy in Technicolor, "The Secret War of Harry Frigg," now playing at the P & A Theatre. For the first time in his spectacularly successful career, Newman is cast in an out-and-out comedy. And for romance, he teams with beautiful Yugoslavian-born Sylva Koscina.

Set in Italy and Germany during World War II, the story has Newman as a born loser—an army private who spends his military life in the guardhouse, and escaping from it. It is the latter attribute that singles him out for a special mission. He is promoted from private to general and assigned the task of effecting the escape of five Allied generals held captive in the Italian villa owned by the widowed Miss Koscina. The fun begins when the assignment is made and keeps rolling at a fast clip to the end.

The jailbird character is not new to Newman, but this is the first time for him that the role is played for laughs. His triumphs in drama are well documented with many awards and a number of Academy Award nominations. Recently he has been seen as an ex-convict in "Cool Hand Luke," a private detective in "Harper" and a scientist in "Torn Curtain."

Miss Koscina, who was raised in Italy, makes her first appearance in an American-made film, and it marked two other firsts for her; her first trip to Hollywood, and her first appearance opposite Newman. She found it difficult to decide which was the most exciting. She had last played a bikini-clad murderer in "Deadlier Than The Male."

The five imprisoned generals represent the armies of America (Andrew Duggan and Tom Bosley), Canada (John Williams), England (Charles D. Gray) and France (Jacques Roux). The Italian Colonel, in charge of the prison camp, is Vito Scotti, while his German counterpart is Werner Peters. All are easily-recognized players with many feature motion picture and television credits.

Peter Stone and Frank Tarloff wrote the screenplay from the latter's original story. This is the same team that won an Academy Oscar for writing "Father Goose." Stressing the hilarious comedy in his megging, Jack Smight directed for producer Hal E. Chester who spared no effort or cost in the production.

Small Boats Dangerous

The most treacherous waters in the world surround the Michigan sportsman. They're made more treacherous by the small boats he is tempted to use, according to "The Michigan Sportsman" program of Saturday, June 15 at 6:30 p.m. on Detroit's Channel 7.

Jerry Chiappetta, "Michigan Sportsman" host, believes most of the coho fishermen getting out on Lake Michigan for the first time have no concept of how dangerous it can be. Many of them feel the sudden storm that took the lives of seven fishermen and destroyed 200 boats last fall was an unusual occurrence. "They should talk to a sea-captain who has navigated both the Lakes and the North Atlantic," says Jerry. "He can tell you a Great Lakes storm can be worse."

Men to Reply To Girl Talk

"For six years, the theories and proclamations of women have gone unanswered on 'Girl Talk.' We are going to give the men a chance to talk back." With those words, "Girl Talk" Producer Monty Morgan announced that for the first time in 1,085 half-hour programs, "Virginia Graham's Girl Talk" will welcome male guests to the highly popular ABC Films syndicated show.

"Men have been asking for years for a chance to come on the program and answer the women," continued Morgan, "and we've decided to let them - occasionally - beginning with two of the most outspoken men around, Broadway producer David Merrick and sportscaster Howard Cosell."

Merrick and Cosell taped their "Girl Talk" appearances May 10 at the Colonial Theatre for airing in Detroit Thursday and Friday, June 13 and 14, respectively, at 10:00 a.m. on Channel 7.

"From now on," explained producer Morgan, "when the subject of a 'Girl Talk' show clearly pertains to men, we intend to have a man on board to give his thoughts and opinions."

David Merrick, who is unquestionably the most successful Broadway producer ever, will have the honor of being the first man to guest on "Girl Talk." Appearing with him will be actresses Peg Murray and Jane White. Mr. Merrick has already indicated his desired topic for the program, "When a ship is sinking, why is it always women and children first? I think men should go first."

New Course Ready for Pros at Buick

GRAND BLANC, MICH.—There's happiness today at Warwick Hills Golf & Country Club with the approach of the $125,000 Buick Open, Thursday through Sunday, July 4-7, instead of the gloom of a year ago.

One of the most-relaxed persons is Bill Bair, greens superintendent whose course will present a new look for the third straight year to around 150 PGA pro golfers in the opening round.

A year ago Bair's course was called a disaster area because reconstruction on the back nine ran behind schedule and a cool spring failed to produce lush grass on the greens for early June play.

This year's different. The tournament is a month later and reconstruction on the front nine was completed last September, so Warwick Hills takes its place again among the toughest courses on the PGA tour.

Members have played the front side for more than a month. The greens are filling in well, and Jim Holmes, agronomist for the United States Golf Association and the PGA, pronounced the course in good condition on a recent inspection. Bair adds: on a recent inspection. Bair adds:

"We have few unplayable lies right now. We could get the course ready for the tournament on only a couple days notice."

The reconstruction program, designed to give the course more character and meet some of the pros' criticism, included recontouring all greens and relocating some holes.

All greens are covered with Toronto C-15 grass a strain developed for Michigan climate.

Last year's back-nine reconstruction reduced yardage by 97 yards; now front-nine rebuilding cuts off another 182 yards.

That means official yardage for 1968 is 7,001, compared to 7,126 last year and 7,280 for the first nine Buick Opens.

Most of the shortening came at

Nos. 4 and 5. No. 4 now a new hole with a dogleg left, was cut to 401 yards from 468. No. 5 was cut 52 yards to 412

Considering that only three pros, have scored lower than 280 in ten years of The Buick Open, there's plenty of course left.

Now that there are 21 new traps on the front side and 93 on the entire course, the reduced length will be little consolation to the contestants.

The Buick Open, purse increased $25,000, again is the only major national golf in Michigan all year; the week's big sports spectacular on television; and, prices unchanged, the biggest spectator bargain in professional sports.

One-dollar advance tickets, five to a book, have gone on sale over most of southern Michigan. One is valid for admission Mon.-Fri., two Sat.-Sun. Gate admission is $2 Mon.-Fri., $4 Sat.-Sun. Parking is free for as many as 12,000 cars.

Tickets are available by mail for $5 per book and stamped, addressed envelope sent to "Buick Open Tickets," P. O. Box 205, Flint, Mich. 48501.

The Buick Open will be on CBS-TV 5-6 PM (EDT) Sat., July 6, and 4:30-6 PM (EDT) Sun., July 7.
