

'Candy' Dumps Heaviest Rains in Area History

What may have been the worst rainstorm in local history inundated whole sections of the Northville-Nowi-Wixom area Tuesday night, causing many thousands of dollars damage to scores of homes, businesses and streets.

Riding on the crest of Tropical Storm Candy, the day-long rainfall dumped nearly 2.3 inches of rain at Metropolitan Airport, with unconfirmed reports of up to five and six inches of rainfall in the northwest section of Wayne County.

Several accidents were blamed on the storm here, but police departments of the three communities report the number was "amazingly small". Only a few injuries were reported.

Dozens of near accidents, however, plagued unsuspecting motorists who lost their brakes driving through scores of road lakes in the area.

Hardest hit areas in Northville were Center Street north of Randolph, Maplewood Street, and Hutton. In Novi, hardest hit was Novi Road at the G&O Railroad, Meadowbrook Road north of Grand River, and isolated sections near Walled Lake. Twelve Mile Road took "worst" honors in Wixom.

Many other streets were covered with water. The intersection of Taft and Eight Mile was a lake. Scores of basements were flooded.

Wixom's Lincoln Plant closed its Wednesday day-shift because of flooding. The basement of St. Mary Hospital was flooded. A house-size hole was gouged in the Northville Downs parking lot, but the horses ran anyway Tuesday night. Attendance was slashed to 1,551 and the mutual handle fell to $129,000.

Raging Rouge River branch water swept into Northville, pooling a foot deep on Center Street and inside Northville Laundry where it damaged equipment and forced closing of the business. Across the street, water washed away shrubbery stock of C. R. Ely & Sons. Stock was damaged inside the store by waves created by cars passing through the lake out front.

Behind Ely, the Little Hill apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ware on Hutton Street were flooded as the rampaging river water gushed up over foot bridges.

The Ford mill pond bridge was torn loose and was washed under Main Street southwest toward the Downs. Cass Benton Park was flooded and the parkway drive was closed.

In the north end of the city, homeowners worked frantically to dike up water surging down from the north. Children boated in their driveways and on their lawns.

A car was completely submerged in flood waters on Meadowbrook, one-quarter mile north of Grand River. A motorist was forced to swim from his car stalled on I-96 expressway.

The normally placid creek adjacent to Stricker Paint Products at Novi Road and the railroad ballooned from six inches to 10-foot deep within hours, causing a gigantic whirlpool. Three feet of water filled the paint store, destroying or damaging hundreds of dollars of wallpaper, equipment and stock.

Motorists everywhere were stranded when their cars stalled in the lakes.

At least one store in the Walled Lake area was reported flooded with considerable damage.

"It's by far the worst thing I've seen in the 22 years I've been in Northville," gasped the DPW Superintendent Herman Hartner, who worked through the night with his crew to answer problem calls. Oldtimers could recall nothing worse.

Hartner said drains in Northville were not clogged, but the flood waters were just too much for them to handle. Water rushed through, beneath and above drains.

Novi's night police dispatcher answered hundreds of calls as residents and motorists reported flooded basements, stalled cars, accidents, and flooded roads.

Bob 'O Link Golf Course turned into a giant lake that spread completely across Grand River.

Two roads were washed out and were closed indefinitely. They are

If Millage Fails

Board Eyes Budget Cuts

Trimming "fat" from what board members already consider a lean budget was the bone of discussion during a budget session Monday night following the regular Northville Board of Education meeting.

Reviewing the entire 1968-69 budget, board members concluded that some $120,000 in services would have to be axed in part or in total should the

Downs Betting Up 21 Per Cent

Northville Downs enjoyed its biggest week in history as betting for the week ending Saturday night, June 22 hit $1,898,708.

Through the first 21 dates of the 54-night season the local harness racing track has averaged $318,987 in mutual handle per night. The best season for the 25-year-old track to date was 1966 when nightly betting averaged $292,896.

Percentagewise, the track is up 21 per cent over last year in betting. Attendance is up too — 11 per cent — with 91,360 fans over the first 21 nights. Saturday night attracted a crowd of 7,222.

Saturday night's mutual handle was $431,361. Total betting for the 21-nights through Saturday was $6,698,719. In rebates from the state to the city of Northville, that's $71,668 in revenue.

Band Concerts Saved By Private Donations

Northville's community band will present the first of four weekly concerts Wednesday, July 3 at 7:30 p.m. near the parking area behind the high school.

The traditional concerts almost became a victim of the school system's tight financial condition. Superintendent Raymond Spear noted that the concerts had cost the school more than $1,000 each summer. He said he did not feel the school could afford the expenditure this year.

An appeal to the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce produced two sponsors for the summer program—Northville Downs and the Northville Driving Club. Each contributed $500 to the support of this summer's concert program.

second millage proposition fail again on July 29.

In addition, the board discussed the possibility of increasing student fees to pick up an additional $28,000 in revenue.

Board members were explicit in their deliberation that a combination of cuts in services and an increase in charges would be necessary to replace the $100,000 additional revenue represented by the proposed 2-mill increase.

While the board failed to establish specific areas for cutback, it indicated that reduction is likely to occur in these areas:

—Decrease in teaching staff, thus eliminating some services and possibly

Negotiations Recess in July

Northville teacher contract negotiators, who met yesterday and who may meet again before the week is out, have agreed to recess during the month of July.

With little likelihood of a settlement before July, the two sides will carry their differences to the bargaining table on August 1 when the month-long recess ends.

Meanwhile, it was revealed that the Northville Education Association has voted not to return to work next September without a new contract.

—Complete elimination of all extra curricular activities, including both athletic and academic areas such as sports, forensics, band, etc.

—Reduction in instructional supplies and materials for classroom instruction.

—Reduction in transportation services, including the elimination of field trips and spectator buses and the reduction of regular bus runs to mile roads only.

—Elimination of new instructional and non-instructional equipment purchases.

In addition to these possible areas for trimming, the board also considered possible sources for additional revenues, including:

—Increase in elementary book fees.

—Establishment of rental fees for all non-school building use.

—Increase in all student fees, such as lab, shop, pool, etc.

—Increase all athletic event admissions.

—Investigate the possibility of requiring tuition for students living on non-taxed lands.

SUCCESSIONS—Arthur J. Heslip, longtime Novi dairy farmer and former president of the Novi Board of Education, died early Wednesday after an extended illness. At press time Wednesday it was learned that funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Victory church in Northville. Rosary will be said at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) at Casterline Funeral Home.

One Trustee Seat Open for Write-In Township Election Cleared Up, But Still Confusing

The already-tangled township election picture became more confused this week by instructions from the election's office of the secretary of state.

But at least the new confusion appears to be official and therefore final, which comes as a relief to Clerk Eleanor Hammond.

All townships have been somewhat up in the air because of a court decision that made it appear necessary for all township board office-holders to run for election again this fall. The basis for the decision dates back to the changing of township elections from spring to fall with the adoption of the new state constitution.

Northville township developed further complications when Supervisor R. D. Merriam succumbed in April. The board was advised at the time that the successor named to Merriam's post would serve the balance of his term—until November, 1970.

But Clerk Hammond was informed Monday by state election officials that the appointment could extend only until the next election, this fall.

Fortunately the new supervisor, Gunnar Stromberg, filed for office along with all other board members—not because his appointment was on an interim basis, but because of the belief that all board members must stand for election in November.

Had he not filed, his term would have ended abruptly in November and any write-in candidate could have won the supervisor's post.

This is exactly what will happen to the position of trustee vacated by Stromberg when he accepted the supervisor's position.

None of the candidates filing for trustee submitted petitions to serve out the unexpired term of Stromberg. Therefore, his trustee seat on the board will be won by a write-in candidate.

Here's what the state told Clerk Hammond this week:

1—Because his appointment should have been made only until the next election, Supervisor Stromberg must run for re-election. (He filed before the June 18 deadline and is unopposed for the seat).

2—The clerk, the treasurer and the trustee receiving the most votes in the 1966 election do not have to run for re-election this year. Their terms extend until November, 1970.

This means that the petitions filed by Clerk Hammond, Treasurer Alex Lawrence, and Trustee Thomas Armstrong were not necessary and they do not have to stand for election.

3—All other trustees must stand for election and their terms will extend for four years. The terms of the board officers (supervisor, clerk, treasurer) will be for two years.

This means that Trustees Bernard Baldwin and James Tellam must run for re-election. They have filed and they face competition from Allan

Early Copy

Because of the Fourth of July holiday next Thursday, The Northville Record—Novi News editions will be published one day early next week.

It is requested that all news items and advertising copy be submitted as early as possible.

Deadline for classified advertising will be 1 p.m. Monday. All news and general advertising copy must be received by 4 p.m. Monday.

The Record—News office is open Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The telephone number is 349-1700.

Maltby, M. Richard Mitchell and Joseph Straub.

4—The fourth trustee seat on the Northville township board is up for grabs. Technically, no one has filed for the seat. It represents the unexpired term of Stromberg and runs until November, 1970.

Therefore, the winner of the two-year trusteeship on the board must be a write-in candidate.

It's possible that one of the five candidates for the two four-year trustee seats could win the two-year vacancy.

It's also possible, Clerk Hammond points out, that one of the five trustee candidates could win both a four-year seat and a two-year seat. In the event that the same candidate garners the most votes both for the four-year seat and the two-year write-in seat, that person must declare which term he desires to hold, the clerk declared.

Such a declaration would put the double-seat winner in the position of being able to decide who would occupy the other seat on the board—the second place write-in candidate, or the next highest vote getter for the four-year term.

At any rate, confused or not, Clerk Hammond says it's official now:

—There is one candidate for supervisor—Stromberg;

—There are five candidates for two four-year trustee posts—Incumbents Baldwin and Tellam, and Maltby, Mitchell and Straub;

—Any qualified write-in candidate can win the remaining two-year trustee term on the board;

—There will be no election for clerk, treasurer and the trustee position held by Armstrong. (At least, that's the latest word).

Area Communities Prepare For New District Court

A committee to study the provisions and options of the new district court plan will be formed by the five communities making up the district to include Northville, Plymouth and Canton.

Representatives of the cities and townships of Northville and Plymouth and the township of Canton met Monday night in Plymouth and decided to name a 10-member committee composed of two elected officials from each community to conduct the study.

Among the questions to be considered by the committee will be where the district judge will hold court, what salary should be paid, and whether or not townships should contribute monetarily if the judges salary is increased above the $18,000 paid by the state.

Last week representatives of the city councils of Northville and Plymouth discussed the possibility of hiking the district judge's annual salary to $23,000 with Northville contributing $2,000 and Plymouth $3,000 additional.

Under the provisions of the new district court plan the judge must hold court in the cities of Northville and Plymouth. It is not mandatory, however, for the judge to hold court in a township unless its population was 12,000 in 1960. None of the townships in the local district meet that population requirement.

The judge may, if he chooses, hold court in the townships but the latter would be required to provide court space.

While the judge's salary is set at $18,000 annually by the state, additional salary up to $27,500 may be paid by the political subdivisions of the district.

Candidates for district judge have until July 2 to file for the new post. Candidates must be licensed attorneys and registered voters of the district.

Dunbar Davis in Race

Judge Dunbar Davis of the Plymouth municipal court has announced his candidacy for the new position of district judge of the Northville, Plymouth and Canton Township areas.

Judge Davis formerly resided in Northville and has been a practicing attorney in this area for 30 years. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and of Earlham College. He is chairman of the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist church of Plymouth and is active in several youth groups.

It is known that several other area attorneys are considering entering the district judge race, but Davis is the only officially announced candidate.

Two men have announced their candidacy for the new Wayne county supervisor position.

They are Carl Pursell of Plymouth and Henry Sladek of Livonia. Both are Republicans. They are running for supervisor from the district that includes Northville, Plymouth, Livonia and Canton township. Their announcements appear on Page 10-A.

Double Ring Rites Held in Plymouth

Margaret Jean Knight became the bride of Raymond C. Sypniewski in a 1 p.m. double-ring ceremony Saturday, June 15. Father Jim Machak officiated at the ceremony at St. Kenneth's Church in Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Knight of 795 Carpenter. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund S. Sypniewski of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor-length wedding dress. The gown was trimmed with daisy motifs which circled the waist, the sleeves, and the bottom of the dress. Daisies also encircled the bottom of the detachable train which fell from the waistline in the back. It was fastened under a large white bow at the waist. Her fingertip veil had daisies at the crown, and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and small yellow roses.

Miss Eileen Sypniewski, sister of the bride groom, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length yellow rayon and chiffon dress, trimmed at the neck and waistline with white daisies. Her small veil was yellow as were her accessories.

Donald Francoeur of Plymouth was best man, and the guests were seated by ushers Floyd Carter of Ypsilanti and the bride's cousin, Donald McCreadie of Berkley.

Mrs. Knight chose a two-piece pink lace dress with pink hat, shoes, and bag. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Sypniewski wore a light green dress with green accessories white carnations.

The bride's great-aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan, who are in their eighties, drove with their son and his wife from Britton, Michigan. The bridegroom's grandfather came by the bus from Pennsylvania.

Following the ceremony, a reception for sixty-five relatives and friends was held at the Botsford Inn. Earlier a pre-rehearsal dinner for 14 was held at the Thunderbird Inn by the bridegroom's parents.

After their honeymoon the couple will live in their new apartment in Westland. They both will be attending summer school at Eastern Michigan.

David Filkin Takes Bride In Germany Ceremony

A former exchange student to Northville married the son of her host family on June 1.

David Filkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Filkin 621 Fairbrook, married Uta Rosenbrock in a ceremony at Immanuel church in Konigstein Germany, the bride's home town.

The new Mrs. Filkin visited here in 1961 and was graduated from Northville High School. She then returned to Germany and finished her education in Munich with a language major. Her father is Martin Rosenbrock, a director of the Deutsch Bank in Germany.

The bridegroom, also a '61 Northville alumnus, is a graduate of Kalamazoo College. He has studied at Erlangen in Germany and spent two years with the Peace Corps in Nepal. Presently, he is employed by the Frankfurt Bank in Germany.

Attending the wedding from the United States was Mrs. Filkin, the bridegroom's mother. She spent most of her time in Germany, but she did take "Several side trips up the Rhine, to Rotterdam, and to Switzerland."

The new couple will return to the United States about August 1 to take up residence.

Vows Spoken In South Lyon

Mrs. Georgia Thompson of South Lyon and Leslie Charbonneau of Novi announce their marriage Saturday, June 15. The ceremony took place at 9 a.m. at St. Joseph's Rectory in South Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph St. Andre of Chassell, cousins of the groom, were the honor attendants.

Breakfast for the immediate families was served at the bride's home following the ceremony.

The Charbonneaus will reside at 335 North Lafayette street, South Lyon. Later they plan a trip to Florida where they will purchase a winter home.

They're the winners of the grand opening prizes given by Salon Rene', now located at Novi road and Allen drive.

Mrs. Richard Schirk, Mrs. Jerry Kampmann and Mrs. M. J. Willing won one year, six months and three months' free hair care, respectively.

Teens in Action

By PRUDENCE HARTT

Most government classes are dry and complicated, yet young people seem to be intrigued by the complex world of politics. This summer many of them have involved themselves in political activities proving once again that learning is an active process.

In keeping with the theme of Youth in America, the Student's for McCarthy are planning a float for the July 4 parade. They have the construction well underway, but they are looking for marchers to show community support. Persons of all ages who are interested in marching should report to the Northville Town's Parking Lot at 9 a.m. next Thursday. They will be given literature and signs to carry in the parade.

Members are also hoping for the presence of Ronald Mardios in order to complete their exhibit. Mardios, of the 19th district, is the only state delegate supporting Senator McCarthy.

Anyone interested in working for the Senator is urged to contact the group. The state headquarters are in Detroit near San Juan and Six mile, but residents of Northville are invited to call Larry Forth at 349-1416. Larry, who was once mayor of Northville High School, is now running in Novi as a candidate to the Democratic district convention in 1970.

Girls, too, have been actively involved in government as three Northville juniors have just returned from Girls State at the University of Michigan. After several days of vigorous campaigning by the 462 citizens, several Northville girls were elected as officers.

Delegates to the American Legions Auxiliary's Girls State, meeting last week at the University's Markley Hall chose Christie Becker to serve as secretary of state. Christie served on the gubernatorial staff with the newly elected governor, Alexis Johnson of Muskegon Heights.

Another Northville girl, Stacy Evans, was elected to the House of Representatives from her city. She served as the minority speaker in the House. Pam Witzke, the third Northville delegate was a councilwoman for her city and a nominee for the Senate.

The program, based on the American electoral processes, included election of officials from two parties, serving '21 mythical cities and seven mythical counties. Besides working in mock elections, the girls had instructions in governmental matters. They also listened to several featured speakers, including Mrs. George Romney and U.S. Representative Marvin L. Esch, (R-Ann Arbor).

A different type of governing procedure was experienced by the Rainbow Girls last week. Fourteen members of Northville Assembly No. 29, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, attended the Grand Assembly in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The Local officers attending were Averil Green, Worthy Advisor; Judy Wainwright, Associate Worthy Advisor; Nina Bosworth, Hope; Deborah Duey, Faith; Nancy Wainwright, Chaplain; Susan Famuliner, Secretary; Terry Sweetman, Nature; Enid Penn, Immorality; Robin Barker, Patriotism; Jill Young, Service; and Cheryl Dixon, Confidential Observer.

Bonnie Bradford and Averil Green acted as Grand Pages during the Assembly. Deborah Cook was a candidate and was initiated at the Grand Assembly.

The girls were accompanied by Mother Advisor Mrs. Harold Penn, Harold Penn, Mrs. Herbert Famuliner, and Mrs. Ray Hood.

The Northville Assembly was honored in having Kathy Davies elected associate Grand Worthy Advisor, the second highest position. Others appointed to positions were Enid Penn, Grand associate drill leader; Susan Famuliner, Grand representative to the State of Colorado; Shona Davies Baker, Fraternal Relations committee chairman; and Ida B. Cooke to the Arc committee. She has been a member of this committee for many years.

The Northville Assembly has been invited to attend the Grand Reception at Highland Park Temple, Saturday, June 29 at 6 p.m. The reception will honor E. Alberta Coburn, Supreme Nature of the Supreme Assembly and Supreme Inspector in Michigan, and Miss Nancy Frisz, Western Assembly No. 8, Worthy Grand Advisor. The Grand Officers will exemplify the degrees at the initiation. Enid Penn will be acting Drill Leader.

Finally, there will be a meeting of the Human Relations Council this Friday, June 28, at 8 p.m. in the Waterman Building at Schoolcraft College. The public is invited with a special invitation to all young people who would like to help. At the meeting the agenda for the coming year will be organized to include all aspects in the field of human relations on a local, state, and federal level. In particular, the council would like to initiate some discussion on gun control laws.

Showers Fete Bride Elect

About 15 persons attended the household and linen shower given in honor of Diane Howard Friday. Hosting the shower were Tammy Lojin, a friend of the bride-to-be, and her mother, Mrs. Eduard Faust. Assisting as co-hostesses were Mrs. Charles Paquette and her daughter, Janis.

Diane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard of 49225 11 Mile. Friday night she will marry Dale Chamberlin of North Farmington. A graduate of North Farmington High School, he is now serving in the U.S. Army as a chaplain's assistant. On July 24 he will leave for Germany where Diane will join him in October when she graduates from nursing school.

Diane has had several other showers given in her honor recently, including a family shower at the Forest Hills United Missionary Church. The highlight of this shower was a mock wedding arranged by Mr. Anthony Thomas. The bride-elect also was given a surprise shower last Thursday by some of her friends at the nursing school.

Garden Club Plans Auction

A plant auction is being planned by the Northville Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

The auction will take place at the annual picnic on July 8 at the home of Mrs. William Walker of 39900 East Eight Mile.

Members are urged to bring guests for the special day which is set to begin at 12:30 p.m. They also are requested to bring several unusual plants which are marked by name, with the place where the plant usually grows best.

Proceeds from the auction will be used to entertain a group of representatives during an old-fashioned supper on September 11 at the William Walker home. These women are attending a triennial conference in Lansing of the Country Women of the World.

Co-hosting for the picnic are Mrs. E. E. Ratliff, Mrs. William Crump, Mrs. George Adams, and Mrs. Gene Cushing.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Cox of 50165 West Eight Mile Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Ival Ann, to Steve Pierce Beane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beane of Plymouth. An October 26 wedding is planned.

Pupils Make Walls Sparkle At Amerman

It's a rare grade school that teaches interior decoration, yet children at Amerman enjoyed some excellent lessons in wall design before school adjourned.

Under the direction of Barbara Marion, the elementary art teacher, students constructed both a rug and a mosaic mural which will be used to decorate the halls of Amerman.

The third grade classes joined forces on the mural, which depicts a typical playground scene at recess. Carefully, they arranged the tiles so that children wearing real belts and watches are playing with real marbles and baseballs.

The entire venture, which is 24 x 4 feet high, took about one month to complete. Initially production was delayed for lack of funds, but when the PTA gave money for the tiles the project lost no time getting underway. It is now mounted and hangs near the side entrance of Amerman School.

The Mothers Club donated yarn for the rug, which is displayed on the wall near the front door. Working with blues and greens, the teacher had fourth graders fashion the threads in the form of a fish. The completed tapestry is 4 x 5, with a colorfully artistic design.

Purpose of these art projects was to "provide a lasting project on the grade school level which could be used to beautify the school." Undoubtedly both of these art works will enhance the walls of Amerman for many years to come.

THIRD GRADE MURAL—With the assistance of Barbara Marion, the Amerman art teacher, third grade classes made this tiled mural in a little over a month. The mural, which is 24 feet long and four feet high, shows a play ground scene at recess.

RUG HOOKING may be an old fashioned craft, but Amerman fourth graders have revived the skill. Together they worked with the yarn donated by Mothers' Club to make this rug with the fish design. Here several of them are showing the completed project to Mrs. C. A. Hoffman, president of the Mothers' Club.

To Attend Workshop

2 Boys Win Library Honors

For the first time in history of the Northville High School Library Club two boys are going to the Student Assistants Workshop in Kalamazoo.

In previous years there has only been one other boy selected to represent Northville.

The two iconoclasts are Mark Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley of 41845 Eight Mile, and Dave Reynders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reynders of 49200 Ridge Court. They were chosen for this distinction by Mrs. Marion Sullivan, the high school librarian.

On July 7 the boys will enroll in the Student Librarian Assistants Workshop at Western Michigan University. This begins a busy week of regular classes in audio-visual skills and library techniques. Sandwiched in between will be planned recreational programs involving 100 other student librarians from throughout the state.

Sponsoring the boys will be the Northville Mother's Club and Mr. John T. Carlo of the Northville Downs, who are paying all the expenses. In years past, the Mother's Club has sponsored other student librarians including Andrea Bissa, Debi Harrawood, Marilyn Bowen, Margo Harper, and John Bunn.

Mrs. Sullivan and members of the high school Library Club expressed their gratitude for the community support and encouragement.

LIBRARY AWARDS—Thanks to generous donations coming from the community, these two boys will be attending the Student Librarian Assistants workshop at Western Michigan University. Pictured here left to right are Mrs. Marion Sullivan, the high school librarian; Mrs. Clifford Rollings, a representative of Mothers' Club; and the lucky boys, Dave Reynders and Mark Wiley.

A new son, Daniel John, has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boland of 313 Ely. The new baby made his debut on June 2, weighing eight pounds and one ounce. He is joined at home by two brothers and two sisters, aged 14, 13, 11, and 8.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Caracciolo of 415 North Center Street announce the birth of twin daughters named Margaret Anne and Judith Anne. The babies were born on June 19 at the University of Michigan Woman's Hospital weighing 6 pounds and 3 ounces each. Awaiting their arrival at home are three older brothers and three sisters.

Mrs. Nellie J. Freydl, 93, Dies

Floyd Taylor to Seek County Supervisor Seat

By filing a petition for a seat on the Washtenaw county board of supervisors, Salem township Supervisor Floyd Taylor tossed his hat into this year's political ring.

He is the first person from the newly created 3rd district to declare his candidacy. A Republican, Taylor hopes to represent Salem, Northfield, Superior and Ann Arbor townships on the board.

In all probability, Taylor will not go unopposed in the November general election. A Democrat from another township has reportedly expressed intention of running.

If Taylor is elected as the 3rd district representative on the county board, the Salem township board must then appoint a successor to replace Taylor as the township supervisor.

Elected in 1966, Taylor's two-year township term was extended to November 20, 1970 under state legislation that sought to eliminate lame-duck sessions. There is doubt about the legality of extending terms, so Attorney General Frank Kelley is expected to rule on the matter soon.

"It took a lot of soul searching," Taylor said of his decision to give up his township post if elected to the county board. "I feel I can do more good for the district, including Salem, as a county supervisor."

Taylor pinpointed three areas in which he has had considerable experience that are of major importance to townships — roads, drainage and taxes.

As a member of the county Board of Supervisors, Taylor is chairman of the Equalization Committee, has been chairman of the Drain Committee and served on the Road Commission. He is also a member of the Economic Opportunity Committee.

Taylor first served the township for two years as treasurer before becoming supervisor. He also was president of the Wash-Oak school district board from 1962-64.

A mink breeder since 1938, Taylor and his wife, Hazel, live at 55815 Eight Mile road. They have six children, including one who is entering the Peace Corps to serve in Peru.

Washington, D.C. Flag Flies At Township Hall

The flag which once flew over the Capitol building in Washington, D.C. is now waving from a flag pole at the Northville Township Hall. How it got there is another story.

When township officials became concerned about the lack of a flag, they called Miss Ruth Knapp, who is a member of the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion. Miss Knapp then called Senator Philip Hart for help in getting the desired flag. He in turn arranged for the Legion to purchase the flag from the U.S. government.

Last Friday afternoon during a small flag-raising ceremony, the flag was donated to Northville Township. During the ceremony three representatives of the American Legion presented the flag. They were Mrs. Mable Cooley, Dr. Waldo Johnson, and Miss Knapp. It was received by Gunnar Stromberg, township supervisor.

Cherne's Back, Lends A Hand

By DARYL HOLLOWAN

The Cavern Board and sponsors alike, not to mention myself, were elated last Friday night at The Cavern's Alsac Benefit Dance when former Cavern President L. Paul Cherne made the scene.

L. Paul, having taken up residence in Detroit in preparation for the fall semester at Wayne State University, came back to his former haunts not only to take a break from his proposed literary ambitions—but to lend a helping hand to the success of the Alsac Drive as well.

A long-time believer that The Cavern is an organization meant to serve the better interests of the community, L. Paul had this to say regarding The Cavern:

"I'd say that first of all, of course, it provides a meeting place for teenagers of Northville which also serves the community by its promotion of various things like Alsac (Aid to Leukemia Stricken American Children).

"It shows that many of the teens are behind these goals that organizations like Alsac stand for. The Cavern should be commended for this gesture.

"It is impressive to see a crowd of teenagers responding to an activity which is strictly theirs. It's very easy for teenagers to have a detachment, however, The Cavern creates a unity to the benefit of all who attend.

"This brings to mind the expansion of ideas which are now being used by The Cavern personnel as shown in particular by The Cavern Coffee House.

"This provides something for those who do not prefer to attend the dances, and shows both talent and diversity of interests. This is the place where a teenager can relax to soothing music."

As Leo mentioned, The Cavern Coffee House certainly is a place where teens in town and out of town can congregate in a relaxed fashion to the entertainment of local and out of town folksingers.

This, coupled with the Friday night dances, is essential to the teens of this community as well as to those of surrounding communities.

Such is the case which The Cavern serves—it provides a location under adequate supervision of police and chaperones which aid The Cavern Board Members in establishing a teen-club organization in Northville where Northville teens can mingle with not only other Northville teens, but associate with teens outside of the immediate community as well.

They'll have to do so later in life, so The Cavern serves the community by functioning as a convenient stepping stone as it entertains to the level and needs of Northville's teenage citizenry.

This is much the same idea L. Paul Cherne was expressing in regard to his philosophy pertaining to The Cavern.

Now, in an effort to turn away from intellectualism, I'll brief you on some of the additional highlights in store for you if you patronize The Cavern Bash this Friday night. It features The Frost and The Stuart Avery Assemblage, or if you simply desire to relax Monday night in the atmosphere cast by The Cavern Coffee House and its folk-entertainment.

The immediate highlights include a juke box, ice cream vending machines, and a couple of game machines are reportedly on the way.

The Cavern's juke box includes both recent hits and past hits, not to mention a picture of Herb Alpert for all his fans to drool over Looking ahead to the following week, Cavern members are preparing The Cavern's float for the Fourth of July Parade.

Cavern members were to decide upon the type of float at their open meeting Tuesday night, so your guess is as good as mine as to the type of float they'll present before the public next Thursday.

Veteran Inkster Policeman Named Northville Sergeant

A veteran Inkster policeman has been appointed to the Northville Police Department with the rank of sergeant, Police Chief Samuel Elkins announced last week.

The new Northville police sergeant is Charles Martin, who had been with the Inkster force for the past 14 years.

Martin's appointment increases the local department to three sergeants, six patrolmen, two cadets and two women dispatchers.

A graduate of Carol High School,

Martin is a native of Concho, West Virginia. He served in the United States Air Force from 1946 to 1949 and was discharged with the rank of sergeant. He also served briefly in the Marine Corps.

While attending police training school, he earned a 98.5 grade average, and he had a score of 91.8 for 128 hours of training under the Southeastern Chief of Police Association. He has attended FBI seminars on law enforcement, officers and crime habits, and was graduated from a nine-week fingerprint course with a grade average of 96-percent.

Martin and his wife, Martha, moved to the Fairbrook Apartments this past week.

Elkins also announced the recent appointment of Wayne Royal West, 256 Novi, as a police cadet, replacing retiring Mrs. Helen Teshka.

A 21-year-old Northville High School graduate who attended Schoolcraft College, West served two years in the United States Army and was discharged with the rank of Specialist E-5.

West is the second cadet hired under the department's cadet program.

But School Sets Maximum

Paving Assessment OK'd

Northville's school board voted Monday night to accept 100-percent paving assessment for the district's Taft Road property—but only up to a maximum of $9,000.

The board's action reserved the right to reconsider if actual paving cost boosts the school's 100-percent proportionate share above $9,000. Latest estimate of the city puts the school's share at $8,700.

Citizens concerned with their own property assessment, pegged at 75-percent by the city, attempted to persuade the board to scuttle plans for district participation in hopes of forcing the city to either scrap its paving plans entirely or reconsider the assessment formula for individual property owners.

Although board members balked at the city's request for an open-end 100-percent assessment they nevertheless favored participation. They did so, it was explained, because paving is desirable for the school system, because participation will spread part of the cost over the entire school district and reduce the proportionate share assessed individual property owners, and because the city's assessment formula appears to be less objectionable than earlier suggestions.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Zander argued that the board, by agreeing to participate, would "lock-in" individual property owners like themselves at the 75-percent figure—a figure which in their opinion is ridiculously high.

The road is in need of repair, admitted Zander, "but in all fairness we cannot afford 75-percent." The board, he argued, ought not to take an action that uses tax dollars to work a financial hardship on people who provide part of that tax money.

Richard Robinson, speaking in behalf of his mother, urged the board to ignore the "threat" by the council that unless the school participates the road will not be paved. The board, he said, should not be subject to "either-or else" demands.

Board members sympathized with the property owners, but emphasized that they had little recourse. The road will be paved eventually, no matter what action the board takes, and since participation will help cut cost to the individual property owner approval is in the best interest of these property owners, they concluded.

In other action Monday, the board approved, Business Manager Earl Busard and Curriculum Coordinator Florence Panattoni. Salary adjustments were withheld pending settlement of teacher negotiations. A policy governing salaries, contracts and conditions of employment also was approved.

Two resolutions were adopted, one recognizing the services of past board member James Kipfer and the other the service of a retiring teacher, Mrs. Isabelle Spooner.

Board members also approved 41 maintenance, custodial, cafeteria and mechanical positions (same as this past year) at a cost not to exceed $180,835.

Referred back to Superintendent Raymond Spear for review and change was a proposed policy governing the new high school swimming pool. Spear was directed to redraft a board policy together with detailed rules and regulations concerning times, fees, etc.

A contract was awarded to Sinclair Refining Company which submitted the low bid of 13.4 cents per gallon of gasoline from July 1, 1968 through June 30, 1969.

The Grand Trunk railroad track near the new Walled Lake high school on Beck Road was closed because of a washout. Numerous flooded basements were reported in Wixom. Twelve Mile Road was still flooded Wednesday morning.

Elsewhere in the metropolitan area, conditions were similar: "Terrible, just terrible!" Hundreds of accidents, scores of injuries, and several deaths by drowning and traffic accidents were reported.

Metropolitan Airport weather officials said the more than two inches of rain that fell there would represent more than 20 inches of snow.

For Wayne Supervisor Post

Pursell, Sladek Seek GOP Nod

Carl D. Pursell of Plymouth, president of that community's Chamber of Commerce, has announced his candidacy for the Wayne County Board of Supervisors from District 26.

A Republican, Pursell is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and a former captain with the United States Army infantry.

President of the Plymouth Chamber for three years, he was selected "Outstanding Young Man of The Year in 1966," was a candidate for the State Senate the same year, is founder of the Hillsdale Leadership Conference, director for the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, charter member of the Plymouth Historical Society, and an honorary member of the Plymouth Jaycees.

Associated with Fehlig Real Estate, he also is a member of the Landfill-Incinerator study for this area, and he is married with three children, ages 7, 4, and 2.

Following is part of his announcement statement:

This rapidly growing area should have a representative who is familiar with these governmental communities and one who is keenly aware of its problems on the local, county, state and federal levels.

As the Republican candidate who topped the ticket in Wayne County in the last state senatorial election I have had the opportunity to acquaint myself with the basic problems.

We are on the threshold of a major transition from a rural to an urbanized area and the ability to solve problems should be prime requisite of any candidate.

It long has been felt that county government should be re-vamped to make it more efficient and functional. Now, that the opportunity is here it is time to elect fresh, new leadershipmen with organizational ability.

Another area of personal concern is the recreational area commonly known as Hines Park, which is part of the Rouge Parkway. With a little effort this could be made into a beauty spot in the state with good, wholesome outdoor recreation the year round. At the moment, its lakes, rivers and general park conditions leave much to be desired. Our Supervisors should be working out a plan of action to restore this beautiful area in order that it could be used by our people, especially in the days ahead when more leisure time will be available for everyone.

Lastly, my commitment to strengthening local government is widely known. The ability to solve problems at the local level is, in the final analysis, the most economical and the most efficient. As the leader of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce I have been exposed to such problems and their solutions for some time.

Henry R. Sladek, district manager for Western Electric Company in Plymouth and a resident of Livonia, has announced his candidacy for election to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors from the 26th district (Plymouth, Northville, Livonia and the three townships of Canton, Northville and Plymouth).

Chairman of the Wayne County Republican Committee, he was the GOP representative on the special committee that came up with the new Wayne County supervisor district plan. Contrary to some contentions, Sladek considers the new district plan "the best possible."

A member of the Livonia Rotary Club and active in PTA work, he is married and has four children, ages 21, 18, 13 and 4.

In announcing his candidacy, Sladek charged that Wayne County and Detroit "are in the same plight as our government in Washington. The problems and troubles of these governmental units arise from the same cause...a terrible breakdown in the administration of government. Inept and improperly trained elected officials have created this dilemma. Voters too often and too regularly have elected officials trained and experienced in professions that do not require or test leadership skills"

"I think I could do an exceptional job as your, County Supervisor. I have this self-confidence because of my educational background and extensive administrative and managerial training plus 22 years experience as a professional manager and executive for Western Electric Company. I know from experience how to establish a lean budget involving several departments competing jealously for the same dollars. Managing a successful multi-million dollar organization is not new to me. Neither is decision making or problem solving.

"My successful experience as chairman of the Wayne County Republican Committee, a third largest political unit in the United States, is also a test of leadership and has provided a wide range of valuable experience related to the operation of government at all levels...local, county, state and federal.

"In all probability, the question will be asked of me sooner or later 'Why do you want to run for political office?' The state of affairs today is compelling me to do this. Personally, I am completely fed up with the way things are going."

She also was fined $35 and $15 cost or face an additional 90 days in jail.

Also jailed was William H. Stephens of 135 Eubank, who pleaded guilty of operating a vehicle with a defective exhaust at Grand River and Taft Road. Fined $15 or 15 days in jail, he was committed.

Pleading guilty of being a minor in possession, Dave D. Storm, 18, of Livonia was fined $25.

Miles R. Cook, Jr. of 25672 Jackson was fined $10 and $5 costs upon pleading guilty of driving without a Michigan operator's license. He also was fined $10 and $5 costs for driving a defective vehicle.

A $100 fine was levied against Timothy Devlin of Detroit, in lieu of a 30-day jail sentence, on a charge of reckless driving on Grand River.

William F. Maxwell of 3345 West Maple, Wixom, was fined $50 for speeding 85 MPH in a 55 MPH zone on Grand River, between Taft and Beck Roads. He also was fined $10 and $5 costs for driving without headlights.

Fined $25 upon pleading guilty to being a minor in possession at Meadowbrook and 12 1/2 Mile Roads was Mary M. Solar of Farmington.

A $35 fine was levied against Wesley G. Asch of Walled Lake when he pleaded guilty of reckless driving at West Road and South Lake Drive.

Found guilty at his trial on June 20 on a charge of being a disorderly person near his home was Fred H. Buckner, 2215 Novi Road.

SAFE CRACKED—Nearly $4,000 in cash and checks were stolen from this metal floor safe, located in the office of Northville Coach Line, Inc., 41122 Seven Mile Road, early Thursday morning. According to State Police, who are continuing their investigation this week, the combination dial was pried loose and the two safe doors forced open. Entrance to the building was gained through a downstairs window and the office door was forced open. Nothing else was taken, reported the manager, Adolph Schiller, who inspects the safe.

Young Man Faces Novi Theft Charge

A 20-year-old Detroit man will appear in Novi Justice Court today (Thursday) on a charge of larceny of a billfold from a Highland Hills trailer home on June 17.

He is Chris Morris, who Novi police say has admitted taking the billfold, containing $18 in cash and six credit cards, from the home of James Yawn, 25659 Lincoln, while making a delivery for a utility company.

Assisting local police in apprehending the youth, who reportedly tried to purchase tires valued at $177 with one of the stolen credit cards, was the utility company's legal department.

The youth's employer has dismissed him pending conclusion of the case. All property has been recovered, police said.

A car stolen in Dearborn early Monday morning was driven to Novi, stripped of all valuable parts, and then torched in just two hours, police reported.

The vehicle, totally demolished, was owned by Robert L. Martin of Detroit. It was driven to West Road where it was set on fire. Novi's Fire Department responded to the call.

Police are seeking the whereabouts of a set of 8-22.5 Goodyear truck tires, valued at nearly $500, which were stolen from a truck parked at the U-Haul Tractor Company over the weekend. The tires are imprinted with the U-Haul name.

Several youths were apprehended and one fined last week when they tried to enter a locked rear door of the Novi Inn, corner of Novi Road and Grand River, on June 2. The door and door jams were damaged. Fined $25 for malicious destruction of property was William H. Stephens, 20, of 135 Eubank.

Car Hits Dirt; Driver Injured

A Novi motorist suffered a broken nose and face cuts when his car ramed into a pile of dirt resulting from Novi Road reconstruction about 3 a.m. Saturday.

Treated at Botsford Hospital was Ralph L. Beebe of 40646 Rockhill.

According to Novi police, Beebe was headed south on Novi Road, past a construction barricade, when his car hit the dirt pile.

Police Chief Lee BeGole reported a series of complaints this past week by the Novi Road reconstruction crews about motorists who ignore construction barricades, thus interfering with construction.

The road has been completely closed, from I-96 expressway to 12 1/2 Mile Road, and motorists are advised to use alternate routes.

BeGole also revealed that one of the village fire trucks has been temporarily stationed in the Walled Lake area while construction is underway. The alternate route, he said, threatened to delay response to fire calls so it was decided to station the fire truck at Wheaton Chrysler-Plymouth Company.

Jaycees Plan Big Fourth

A parade, a barbecue and fireworks will highlight the traditional Fourth of July celebration next Thursday in Northville.

As usual, the event will be sponsored and conducted by the Northville Jaycees. Chairman of the day-long program is Russell Anger.

In addition to calling attention to the nation's declaration of independence the celebration is designed to provide and encourage family entertainment at home in the American tradition.

The parade will be a mixture of bands, marching units, drum and bugle corps and floats. It will begin at 10 a.m.

Immediately following the parade the Jaycees will serve up barbecued chicken dinners. The outdoor dining area will be set up in the park behind city hall.

Chicken will be served until 8 p.m., or at least as long as it lasts.

The fireworks display will begin at dusk, also at the high school athletic field.

A complete schedule of the Fourth of July and a listing of floats and other attractions program will be carried in next week's edition of The Record, which will be published one day early because of the holiday.

Full Salvation Union

Many times we have been asked to explain what we mean by our oft repeated expression of the necessity of a "complete surrender to God without a mental reservation" on the part of each potential member of the Body of Christ in order that that Body may be made manifest in the earth as a literal fact. To explain as best we can our inspiration of understanding in regard to this expression is the purpose of this article.

All of the different religious bodies in this world have been formed by those who have been willing to cooperate together in the framework of understanding which each group has developed and asserted to be essential. Each individual member of these various groups has more or less pledged allegiance to the ideas that go together to make up the distinguishing framework of understanding of each group. This is true also of each individual who may not be identified with any particular religious group but who gives his allegiance to the framework of his own understanding.

Our thought is that God is greater than any understanding of Him. Therefore to truly worship God we must surrender to Him without a mental reservation. That is, we must not hold on to any of our ideas in an improper way, but we must be willing to "let God be true and every man a liar."

Only in this way can the potential members of the Body of Christ be perfectly joined together in God's mind. If one person, as it were, hides some treasured thought or idea "under the floor of his tent," perfect oneness in Christ cannot be attained. That is the reason all of our ideas—"the way that seems right to us," no matter how biblical or inspired it may seem—to be must be surrendered without a mental reservation in order for the Body of Christ to be made manifest in this earth as a literal fact.

God is greater than the Bible and your understanding as to what it teaches. We must believe that "He is and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." Only as He is revealed today in a many-membered Body perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, all speaking the same thing can we receive the reward of our inheritance in the saints, even life for ever more.

To reach this place in God we must be willing as Esther of old to take a chance as it relates to our own understanding and mental reservation for God is in the "Holy of Holies" and we as the High Priests of our generation must find Him revealed in that oneness for which Christ prayed.

At the beginning of this age Christ opened up a new and living way. The veil of the temple was rent in twain from top to bottom. Now it is up to us, the called and chosen of God at the end of this age to enter into Oneness and prove God, "that the world may believe."

Esther's attitude was, "If I perish I perish." After doing all that she knew to do to prepare herself she surrendered "without a mental reservation" and went in. Even so we must go beyond all that we know and surrender without a mental reservation for who knows but that "we are come to the Kingdom for such a time as this." In Esther's day only the Jews were in deadly peril. In our day it is the whole world that trembles on the brink of self-destruction. Who can afford to hesitate at such an hour as this?

The three Hebrew children were willing to take a chance on God. They did not know whether God would deliver them or not but they were willing to surrender to Him without a mental reservation. The record of the result of their surrender should strengthen all of us today who are "chosen in Him" to go beyond the outer courts of religious faith and practice into the very "Holy of Holies" of full surrender to God without a mental reservation.

The High Priest had to take a chance once a year on his own ability to prepare himself to meet God in the Holy of Holies for Israel's sake. Even so God is calling today for those who will not only prepare themselves by "perfecting holiness in the fear of God," but will go on into that perfect "Oneness in the Body of Christ" which can only be done by surrendering to God without a mental reservation.

For many generations God has been hidden in the subjective experiences of His people. Now we have come to the time of actual birth in an objective reality never made manifest before in this world.

"Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the Lord." The answer is obvious, and yet it is for those who will surrender without a mental reservation to bring it to pass.

Christ revealed the way on the cross of Calvary when he bowed his head and gave up the ghost saying, "Father into thy hands I commend my spirit." The awful darkness of conflicting ideas was past and the light of full surrender without a mental reservation was shining. Oh, "Let that light from the light house shine on me."

Love is trust. It is belief. It is faith, and like faith it is the substance of all things hoped for. Faith is a young man and woman standing before the altar to be united in holy matrimony. It is a little child holding his mother's hand. It is a patient looking into the eyes of the doctor. It is a mother or father sadly waving goodbye to a son, off to war.

Faith is all this and more! It is trust in divine providence, a belief in joyful reward. It is all mankind kneeling before God in quiet prayer... at home... in church... or under the canopy of heaven.

Church is for all of us—a place to strengthen, to increase, to confirm our faith. You can make your faith stronger by going to church this Sunday.

J. M. Keyes Gets Award of Merit

John M. Keyes of Northville, manager of Heat Transfer Products Sales, Wolverine Tube Division, Allen Park, was granted the Award of Merit by the American Society for Testing and Materials on June 26 at the Award's Luncheon held during the Society's 71st Annual Meeting at the San Francisco Hilton, San Francisco, California, June 23-28.

ASTM is an international, nonprofit, technical, scientific, and educational society concerned with research and standards for products and for materials of every type. It is the largest developer of nationally used voluntary standards—both industrial and consumer—in the United States.

A native of Detroit, Keyes received his B.S. degree in chemical engineering in 1938 from Michigan State University.

He began his career as a metallurgist with the Great Lakes Steel Corp. in 1939. After a 5-year tour of duty with the U.S. Coast Artillery Corp. during World War II, he joined the Wolverine Tube Division in Detroit as a metallurgist in 1946. From 1947-51 he was chief metallurgist at Wolverine in Decatur, Alabama and from 1951-57 was a steel metallurgist at the Division's Detroit location.

During these years at Wolverine Keyes was concerned with process metallurgy and the supervision of a plant metallurgical Quality Control Department. He specialized in the fields of processing of integral finned tube, the welding of steel tube, corrosion investigation, failure analyses, and quality control investigations. He then installed metallurgical and quality control departments in a new plant and set up similar metallurgical and quality control departments for a new welded steel tube facility.

In 1958 he transferred to the company's Allen Park, location as technical manager and assumed his present position in 1967. Since 1958 he managed the metallurgical inspection, quality control, and process engineering functions for the three plants of the Division. He has been a major contributor to the company's research work on the development of integral finned tube and to research on in-process quality of control. He is currently managing the promotion of six new products which are being marketed in 1968 for the first time in volume.

 About Our Servicemen *****

GREAT LAKES, Illinois — Seaman Apprentice Randall L. Soubliere, USN, 19, son of Mrs. Anita Soubliere of 1031 Canterbury, Northville, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

STEC-4 Lynn R. Ruona, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ruona, 28665 Summit Court, wounded recently in Vietnam, is returning home after two years in the United States Army. He is a 1965 graduate of Walled Lake High School. He may go on to college following his return, his parents report.

Word has been received here by his parents that their 18-year-old son, Private First Class John Carver, serving with the 4th Marines in Vietnam, has been awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received on May 17 and May 25.

PFC Carver was serving near Dong Ho on those dates when he was wounded by enemy rocket fire. He has since returned to field duty.

Enlisted in the Marine Corps in October, 1967, the Northville youth is married to the former Debbie Ann Wikaryasz. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carver, 616 Oakland Place.

U. S. Army, Korea — Army Private Ray A. Crabtree, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Estal R. Crabtree, 147 Walled Lake Court, Walled Lake, was assigned as a combat construction specialist with the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea, May 22.

A former Northville High School student, Merl Meadows, was fatally wounded in Vietnam recently. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Meadows, Sr., 1843 College Road, Lincoln Park, received the following letter from Captain David Murrow:

"It is with the deepest sympathy that I write to you concerning the passing of your son.

"Merl was with his communications section and was preparing the communications network for the battalion firebase approximately 10 miles west of Dak To, Kontum Province on 25 May 1968 at 1900 hours. The firebase was brought under intense mortar and rocket fire and an enemy ground attack. As Merl was returning fire on the attackers his bunker was hit by an enemy rocket, fatally wounding him.

"The knowledge that your son will no longer be with us comes as a great shock. He was an exemplary soldier and was respected for his professional ability. His loss will be deeply felt, and I sincerely hope that you can take comfort, as we do, in the knowledge that he gave his life in the service of his country, and in the defense of the principles for which it stands. Memorial services were held for Merl by Chaplain Ingram.

"Merl's personal property has been collected and will be forwarded to you without delay. We know that you will treasure his possessions and that a part of Merl will always remain with you.

"The officers and men of Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion, 12th Infantry extend to you our most profound sympathy in your bereavement. If I can be of any personal assistance please feel free to ask."

Specialist Fourth Class James C. Boyer, 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer of 450 Gardner Street, left Saturday for Vietnam where he will be assigned to a helicopter unit. An honors trainee at Fort Rucker where he received his training prior to being assigned overseas, Specialist Boyer is a graduate of Northville High School.

attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms.

Interspaced with constant emphasis of proper physical conditioning, diet, rest and health habits, will be ample opportunity to utilize USATCA's many and varied recreational and religious facilities.

Following the completion of basic training, Private Osaer, who is the son of Mr. Jerry R. Osaer of 46605 West 7 Mile Road, will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify him in a specialized military skill.

Save a cool 25%

with electric central air conditioning.

If you're like most people, you'd like to have central air conditioning but you think it costs too much. Right? Wrong. Not if you get electric central air conditioning. It costs a cool 25% less than gas. And that's only a beginning. If your home has a forced warm air furnace in good operating condition, you're halfway to having air conditioning. It doesn't make any difference what kind of forced air system it is—gas, oil or electric. All you do is have an electric cooling coil, condenser and controls added. And, presto, your heating system becomes a cooling system. You can cool a 1,200-sq.-ft. house for as low as $24 a season. That's another 10% estimated savings over gas. The man to call is your Air Conditioning Contractor in the Yellow Pages. He'll give you a cost-to-install estimate (which you'll find encouragingly low), and tell you what financing he can arrange. Ask about electric central air conditioning. It's well within your reach.

Kazoo Youth Traps For Fun, Money

"The Michigan Sportsman" presents a long-delayed film feature about a Kalamazoo high school youth who traps after school, Saturday, June 29 at 6:30 p.m. on WXYZ-TV, Channel 7 Detroit.

Host Jerry Chiappetta points out that trapping in Michigan is becoming a lost art, although there are plenty of fur-bearing animals which bring good prices, such as skunk, muskrat and fox. He notes that because of low trapping pressure, these animals are becoming more numerous and more of a nuisance.

The feature shows one Michigan Sportsman enjoying a lot of sport and a little profit, in a satisfying hobby that keeps him off the street.

Rita's Back from Hollywood

Rita Bell, hostess of the weekday "Prize Movie" on Detroit's WXYZ-TV, returned this week from a day's work on the set of "Big Valley", ABC-TV show seen Mondays on Channel 7.

Rita appears in the scene-setting prologue of "The Long Ride" episode, to be shown in the new fall season. The exact date will be announced later. As the wife of a rancher, she explains the plight of a stunned Audra Barkley, played by Linda Evans, to her mother, portrayed by Barbara Stanwyck.

"Barbara is a delightful person to work with," Miss Bell states. "She would finish a scene, leave the set and talk with us — then return for the next scene with all her new lines letter-perfect, never looking at a script."

Talking of her own performance, Rita said, "I managed to get through it four times without blowing my lines. Afterward, Barbara gave me an autograph reading 'to One-Take Rita'."

Miss Bell also filmed an interview with Peter Breck on the set, while still in costume for the guest role. The film will be sent to her for use on "Prize Movie".

PROPOSED WIDENING program for Sheldon Road south of Northville is nearer reality as the final steps at the State Capitol have been completed, clearing the way for construction. State Representative Louis E. Schmidt (R-Livonia-Northville), right, looked on as Governor George Romney recently signed into law a bill authorizing transfer of the necessary property for the highway route. Schmidt sponsored the legislation (HB 3740) which allows the State Administrative Board to transfer land along the Plymouth State Home and Training School property to the Wayne County Road Commission. "Enactment of this bill," Schmidt said, "will point up the need for alleviating the traffic congestion problem on Center Street in Northville. Studies are underway on methods of routing traffic from the south, through the Northville area, to I-96 and U.S. 16. A special Northville committee has also been working hard on alternate routes to divert traffic from Main and Center Streets. Now that the way for the Sheldon project has been cleared from the legislative end, efforts by the Wayne and Oakland County Road Commissions should proceed full speed toward ending this serious traffic congestion situation."

Out of THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Northville Postmaster Leland Smith announced the zip code, a new system to speed up delivery of the mail.

...81 Novi voters filed a petition calling for a recount in the June 10 school district election. The voting was done by paper ballot and included some 27 candidates, all running for community college trustee. Under state law the school board was required to set a recount date which met the approval of all the candidates and to stand any costs involved.

...Construction of Novi's first sanitary sewer system, also scheduled for use in Northville was postponed for at least a month due to condemnations proceedings of private property easements.

...The post office department announced it was seeking competitive bids to build and lease a new post office building in Northville.

...The Northville High School gymnasium was filled to capacity with 155 graduating seniors and proud parents and friends. They heard Russel Wentworth, assistant director of Michigan State University admissions give the commencement address, "Spring House Cleaning."

TEN YEARS AGO...

...A Saturday strike by drivers and loaders of the Kroger Company sharply reduced Northville's grocery shopping facilities.

...More than 200 representatives of the Detroit Presbytery met in Northville for their first meeting since the merger on the first of May, of the two large Presbyterian bodies.

...Work was progressing on schedule for Northville's $1,500,000 conversion from manual to dial telephone service, according to John Kamego, Northville's Michigan Bell Telephone manager.

...Carol Spewock, 16, of Dearborn won the Miss AMVET title over 14 other contestants in the annual beauty contest at the Walled Lake Casino.

...Wixom's first budget, a $106,359 bundle covering two years of expenses, was approved without change or opposition.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

...Plans took shape for the huge Fourth of July celebration to be held at Ford Field on the national holiday. Activities planned included a penny scramble, bike races, and boat races on the Ford Mill Pond.

...Hundreds of automobiles poured into Northville Downs as the track opened a 48 night harness racing meeting.

...More than 100 entries were expected in the Triangle Riding Club horse show, to be held June 14 at the Northville Riding Academy. The club had been newly organized sometime before in an effort to combat juvenile delinquency.

What would your wife say if you came home with an Olds tonight?

You've probably been talking new cars. So it's mainly the fact that it's an Olds she'll be reacting to, right? So...

If she's the practical type, she'll blow a gasket. Because she thinks an Olds is more car than you were planning to buy.

You'll have to talk fast and make the point that this Cutlass cost less than many of the low-priced "names" you looked at. Now, if she's the emotional type she won't care about details. She'll take one look at Cutlass and kiss you. Then she'll look at that plush Cutlass interior, and kiss you again. Either way, you'll be a hero tonight.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Samuel W. Little, who started this newspaper 99 years ago next month, would throw up his hands in disgust if he walked into The Record's composition shop today.

No ink, no type cases, no metal. Not even a proof press. What might be even more shocking to an ink-blooded printer, there's more women than men putting up the pages.

To the modern printer working at The Record the changes in newspaper production have been welcomed as improvements. And most of us even accept the female contingent as a necessary and capable addition to the new system.

About three weeks ago we added the latest improvement—the IBM Magnetic Tape Selectric Composer system.

We think we're one of the first newspapers in the state—and well up among the first in the nation—to convert all our typesetting to this newest method.

The first hand-made models were introduced by IBM nearly two years ago. We liked what we saw and placed an order immediately. The first installations began this spring.

Basically, IBM typesetting is simply setting type by typewriters. That's what we've been doing for three years, but we believe that the new IBM machines provide the best quality we've seen.

What's more the speed has been increased immensely—up to speeds of 14 characters per second.

Now our Gals on the typewriters set their copy on electronic tape. If they make a mistake, they simply type over the error and the correction is automatically inserted on the tape.

Or, if there are changes or corrections to be inserted in a story, a new tape is made and the corrections automatically made as the final copy is set electrically in justified columns.

Now all the talk around the composition shop is "programming the composer" and "modes"—whatever that means.

All I know is that IBM has taught our composing room girls to set copy for news, advertising and commercial printing faster and better than ever before.

Once in awhile we get a little mixed up in our "programming" and the copy comes out one-column when we wanted two, or indented when we wanted it centered. But eventually the girls bring the electronic monster under control and it spits out copy so fast that even Samuel Little might have considered trading in his type stick.

One of the things, for example, that we tell the IBM not to do—and it doesn't—is to hyphenate a line. When "programming" a story, we instruct the machine to letter-space each line so that it will not have to break a word in the middle.

We don't have to do this—and don't for quality brochures—but it's much faster and completely acceptable for setting newspaper columns.

Here are some of the other features of Selectric Composer: it sets six point... eight point... 10 point... 11 point, up to 12 point in size.

It sets light face and bold face and italic.
It will set copy flush left....

or flush right.

It will do a wrap-around, if for example I should, like some popular columnists, wish to insert my picture in the column.

There's very little our new composing machines won't do... that is, if you feed them the right information.

Next we expect to find a machine that will gather the information. Then we'll just wait around until Thursday to see what's new.

Sam, The Peanut Man turned Junk Man, eased his 79-year-old frame into an escapee of the Northville dump and said, "It was a great life... but all good things usually come to an end."

He reached back easily into this past to recall the peanut stands he operated for more than a decade in Northville, Novi and New Hudson before taking up his current profession—dump superintendent.

Both jobs are exciting, sighed Sam Dickey, "but selling peanuts... ah, well, there's a job to make any man happy. Why, if the city would let me I'd be back on the street tomorrow. Could make more in a week selling peanuts than I make in a month here at the dump."

From 1943 to 1956 this active old man, who lives on the edge of the dump he superintends hawked peanuts at the Northville Spring, Novi Road and Grand River, and on Grand River in New Hudson.

Eventually, his success led others to hustle vegetables, eggs "and what have you" until finally Northville came up with an ordinance "running us out," he explained.

He probably would have continued his stands at Novi and New Hudson, but the speed of cars was too much. "Besides," he added, "old age was Repeat Elections: Democratic?

To the Editor:

Due to the prevalence of medieval thought I have been unemployed for one week. During this time I have had an opportunity to look at TV and a few old newspapers.

Detroit is exerting an effort to register voters; apparently many people have not been voting and many more fail to register to vote. One might speculate as to why the vote is not used by more people. It might also be fun to toy with the idea of possible consequences if millions walked into the booth and pulled levers for the sheer pleasure of pulling levers.

News commentators lead one to think that any choice among presidential candidates must involve Nixon and Humphrey. To consider McCarthy or Rockefeller as candidates appears to be nothing other than mental gymnastics and lends itself to mathematical possibilities only. This is very interesting when one realizes that roughly three-fourths of the Democratic votes cast have not been for Humphrey. I have yet to find material which suggests that the man-in-the-street Republicans have swarmed to the leadership role of Nixon.

The Northville Board of Education has decided to have another election on the previously defeated millage. Does this possibly indicate that those who were interested enough to vote at the June election are not worthy of having their vote count? Is it possible to arrange for further elections if some of

1968 Grads

Say 'Thanks'

To the Editor:

The Northville High School graduating class of 1968 would like to extend a sincere thank-you to all parents and persons who helped make our graduation party as great as it was. The food was delicious, the entertainment excellent, the decorations fantastic. Thank-you from all of us for what must have been the best party yet.

Sincerely,
Chuck Frögner
President of the class of 1968

my "good guys" do not win the first time around? Through a series of repeats, using the odds within infinity, voters would eventually come up with the right decisions—all coinciding with mine! This is fine democratic rule.

I am not sure that it is relevant to the outcome of the June election that 17 registered teachers did not vote. All employees of the District do not necessarily support the millage as proposed. Recall the November election in '64; many people voted for various candidates but refrained from voting for a president because they endorsed neither Johnson nor Goldwater.

I have two months to give these matters some thought since my seasonal employment as an educator does not begin until sometime in September.

William G. Case

Suspicious? You Bet!

To the Editor:

I was very disappointed with your editorial of June 13. You suggest that, if the taxpayers do not approve millage requests, "increasing assessments is an easy method of raising taxes without asking the public." In other words we may as well vote yes or we get it "down the throat" anyway. It is this type of tactic which has made many people lose faith and trust in the entire school system.

I also wish to bring to your attention, as well as that of the voters, that as a class C district the board can now sell bonds for construction in the amount of 5% of the district's valuation and not the 2% stated earlier in this paper. This House-introduced bill was passed about a month ago and gives school boards the authority to do this without any vote of the people!

No wonder only 20 percent voted. Does it really matter what taxpayers think? Perhaps many, this writer for one, feel that many of our teachers are not doing the job they are paid to do and more money is not necessarily the answer to the many problems which do exist. We really need more music teachers and swimming teachers and while we're at it let's get a few golf and fishing instructors. Taxpayers must live within their income and it's past time that our school district did the same!

In regard to "year-around" school proposal I would like to see the facilities in use but can't help wondering if this is not a perfect excuse to hire 75-100 more teachers so we can have the class load at 15-20.

Suspicious? You bet I am! And to you, Mr. James Watt, you are only one of many with the same feelings. You stated it perfectly!

Mrs. Rose Williams

EDITOR'S NOTE — The editorial to which the writer refers opposed, rather than supported, increasing assessments as a means of raising taxes. It challenged a board candidate who had opposed the two-mill request on the basis that assessments should be increased instead. The sentence, immediately preceding the one quoted by the writer above, stated The Record's principle reason for opposing assessment increases, because... "it would remove from the taxpaying citizen the right to vote for or against a tax hike". The 5-percent bill referred to by the reader was killed in the House of Representatives. Even had it passed, Northville would not have been able to borrow money under its provision. According to the school's bonding attorney, this third-class provision permits a school district to borrow 2-percent for debt retirement purposes ONLY if the district's present bonded indebtedness is less than 2-percent of its SEV. Northville's indebtedness is estimated at more than 10-percent.

Why Blame The Teachers?

To the Editor:

At a time in our country when there is so much deviousness and finger pointing I was very dismayed to read an article in last week's Record which placed the blame for the failure of the passage of the bond, issue on the seventeen teachers who did not vote.

To me, statements of this kind do nothing to further the cause of education but only serve to antagonize the public against this cause. I want it understood that I am not in any way looking to excuse those who did not vote any more than I can condone the other 80% of Northville voters who also failed to do so.

What I am trying to do, is see that the facts are kept in their proper perspective. It should be noted that over 60% of the school employees did vote, compared with 20% of the total electorate.

We should take more concern in looking forward to improving the overall attitude of the electorate rather than making statements that could lead to the polarization of the school board, administration, teachers and general public.

Interested in Northville's Educational Future

catching up to me."

In the decade that he sold peanuts, Sam developed a sales pitch "nobody could resist." That plus his sharp business eye produced profits that others in the business seldom matched.

He bought peanuts by the tons, roasting them in the shed next to his little frame house, then carted them out to his collapsible stands. At one time he had about 18 boys working for him, and he made the rounds from one stand to another to make sure "those kids got out there and worked the cars."

In one profitable move, Sam recalled, he bought 20 tons of unroasted jumbo peanuts "before the guy knew the price had gone up, and I made a killing. You gotta be on your toes."

Sam carefully measured out 80 bags of peanuts to every half-barrel and always saved out two peanuts from each bag. "Those two peanuts were enough for my overhead," he laughed. When the wholesale price of peanuts went up, Sam kept the same size bag and his sale price but reduced the number of peanuts per bag. "The people couldn't figure out how I could keep going with prices going up. They'd look at the same size bag but never count the peanuts."

He learned early that the slightest change in location of the stand could make a difference. Up at Novi, for example, he was selling at the southwest corner. Then one day his old friend from union days, Dearborn's Orville Hubbard, suggested he switch to the northeast corner. "I did it and doubled my sales."

Prior to going into the peanut business Sam drifted from one job to another. His profession, then was the foundry. He also was a union organizer and a "ward healer" in Detroit, scaring up votes for politicians. The auto companies were responsible for many of his moves, he said, "because they never liked to keep union people in one place for long."

The switch from peanut sales to managing the dump was a natural. He still met "all kinds of people," and many of his peanut customers became his dump customers. But now, instead of judging 'em by the size and condition of their cars, he can "pretty quickly judge a guy by the kind of junk he's got."

And judging by all that good stuff that decorates his home and yard, Sam's customers are a pretty affluent lot.

Roger Babson

What to Look for During Last Half of 1968

By most standards, first-half 1968 has been a very good period for business: Numerous new records in production and shipments; a Gross National Product gain of close to $38 billion; economic strength abounding despite social, economic, political, and international crises.

Even so, it is obvious that this prosperity has not been shared by all segments of the economy. Farm income has lagged. Dollar gains in personal income have been whittled down—in some cases to the vanishing point—by heavier total tax levies and rising living costs.

Our Babson Forecast for July-December is for further over-all betterment in business...although at a slower rate than recently.

GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT — Best estimate is that Gross National Product will average out at $848 billion for the year. This would represent a gain of $63 billion, or a little more than 8%.

Roughly 5% of this boost has already been attained in the first half. Reasons for the anticipated slowdown in the upward momentum of GNP: Expected heavier taxes, possible cutbacks in federal spending, and a slowing of the upmove in capital expenditures.

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION — The difficulties besetting the economy in this eighth consecutive year of cyclical upturn are more fully reflected in the recent flag performance of the Federal Reserve Index of Industrial Production than in the exuberant GNP. Whereas GNP includes the zooming services, and is reckoned in dollars (hence nearly half of recent gains stem from higher prices), industrial production is calculated on quantity of goods produced. Despite the excellent rate of activity in steel, the FRB Index has been able to make only modest gains in recent months. Prospect is for some further easing in the third quarter followed by later recovery...no big letdown but no big upsurge either.

MONEY AND FINANCE — Major financial and monetary problem of the time ahead is twofold: (1) Within the U.S.; (2) throughout the whole international field. And the two are closely interwoven. For if the fires of inflation here are not cooled, the dollar—already weakened—could collapse abroad. Higher taxes will do little to reduce the fever...if the nation offsets this action by whooping it up on the spending front. And, even forbearance on spending will not remove the threat if some unexpected foreign aggression puts new pressure on our military posture...with attendant financial drain. With interest rates at century-high levels, look for continued—but perhaps not quite so lofty—money costs to rule.

CONSUMER SPENDING — Throughout this economic upswing that began early in 1961, consumer spending has been a major growth factor. While the rate has varied, the direction has been consistently up. It promises to continue upward in the coming six months, even though pared by heavier tax burdens. In fact, consumer purchases will be one of the mainstays of the economy, averaging at least 5% above a year ago. We predict moderate gains in both durable and nondurable goods buying and fully expect Christmas retail sales to reach an all-time high.

PERSONAL INCOME — Our bullish forecast for consumer spending is predicated on the belief that personal income will climb to new record highs during the period under review, with disposable income (after taxes) running about 6% above a year, earlier. Total personal income gains over the 1967 last half should be even greater, possibly 8%, reflecting still rising wages, bigger social security and other government payments, and higher dividend and interest rates.

LABOR DEVELOPMENTS — During the first six months of this year, wage increases have been the largest in the nation's history. And this trend will continue in the second half, spurred by the record raises expected in aluminum and steel. Basic patterns will likely contain multi-year raise guarantees of at least 6% annually and, in many instances, across-the-board pay provisions substantially higher. Fringe benefits will be either expanded or initiated where contracts face reopening or expiration. Labor will also move to tighten the security of private pension plans — which cover upwards of 25 million employees and involve assets of more than $100 billion.

AUTO OUTLOOK — So far, buyer interest has been very well maintained and there is good reason to expect 1968 output to top 8,500,000 units. As usual, there will be a letdown during model changeovers. However, we predict that last-half output will top the strike-diminished year-earlier figure by about 10%.

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION — Despite high costs for land, materials, and mortgage money, we feel that home building will make nominal gains over year-ago levels, with apartment units continuing to be favored. Public construction will be hurt by cutbacks in federal spending, especially roadbuilding... dipping below recent levels but holding close to final-half 1967 outlays. Commercial construction prospects are likewise dim; expenditures could drop as much as 5% below the first half though holding some 10% above a year ago.

FARMING — We are moderately optimistic about the over-all position of farmers in the next six months. Quotations for livestock should be edging up and we expect that harvest prices for some key crops will be a bit higher than they were late last summer and in the autumn. While farmers' expenses are still on the rise, the climb should be at an appreciably slower pace than in the first half.

WAR AND PEACE — All the foregoing predictions are based on our conviction that the road to peace in Vietnam will be long and rocky. So far, the Paris talks have gotten nowhere; and the conflict rages more fiercely than before we cut back our bombing of North Vietnam. If peace comes to Vietnam this year — and it will only if the U.S. makes far-reaching concessions to the Reds — it will come so late in the year as to have minimal impact on the economy. The balance between war and peace elsewhere in our troubled world has seldom been more delicate. Sentiment for resumption of the Korean War is strong in North Korea. In the Middle East it is becoming harder to hold the lid on the boiling cauldron of mutual fear and hatred between Arabs and Jews. More than any other nation, Russia holds the key to peace in Korea and in the Middle East; but there is no more than a 50-50 chance that she will quench the embers now smoldering.

POLITICS — Politics will hold center stage in the U.S. right through the second half. Vietnam will continue to be a big issue politically, but Ho Chi Minh's tactics on the battlefield and at the conference table could cause anger and resentment sufficient to weaken the position of political doves running for office. Crime, civil rights, and the war on poverty will be given equal billing with Vietnam as campaign issues. We forecast also that leaders of both parties will be in general agreement as to national goals... differing only in methods of attaining them. This, as much as anything, could make for a close election... perhaps close enough to give the House of Representatives the chance to make the final decision.

Michigan Mirror

Most Millage Votes Pass

LANSING — School Millage votes fared slightly better than 50 percent during the first five months of 1968, reports the Michigan Education Association. From January through May, 182 elections proposed extra operating millage for schools; 98 were successful and 84 were defeated.

Proposals to bond districts for school construction enjoyed greater success. While 53 percent of elections for increased operating millage met voter approval, 64 percent of elections for construction were successful. Some 33 elections were held; 21 were passed and 12 defeated.

This is the first year records of success and failure have been compiled. MEA notes that in previous years only those elections approved by voters were catalogued by the State Department of Instruction.

LARGER bookcases may soon be needed by attorneys and others who make use of the Compiled Laws of the State of Michigan. Each year a new volume appears which lists all legislation passed during the current session. The dark blue books are usually obvious in law offices, state departments, courts, and local government offices.

The last time Michigan statutes were organized and compiled into complete volumes was 1948. Since then, 19 separate books have been published to show new laws, repeal of and amendments to existing statutes. By publishing a new set of compiled laws, these 19 volumes could probably be reduced to five or six. Legislators who seem to be concerned over lack of room for their offices might welcome such a space-saving move.

Provision for publishing a new set of compiled laws must come from the lawmakers. A bill, passed in the House, made such authorization but ran into trouble in the Senate. It has been sent back to a Senate committee and for all practical purposes is dead. This means volume 20, now, will be added to the pile of reference books. There have been only three such compilations in the history of Michigan: 1915, 1929, and 1948. It is time for another.

CAMP DOSS, located in Grand Ledge, prepares young men for military service whose faith prohibits them from bearing arms. The youths, 16 to 19 years of age, are Seventh-day Adventists. Their training at Camp Doss includes basic medical instruction, discipline and drill.

All conscientious objectors receive military training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. About 35,000 medics are processed there each year. Of this number, 2,600 medics are conscientious objectors and about 65 percent of them are Seventh-day Adventists.

Each June SDA youths from almost every state, including Alaska, travel to Michigan for the two-week encampment. Camp Doss is held on the campus of the Seventh-day Adventist Grand Ledge Academy, which becomes a virtual "tent city." This year approximately 150 young men are participating in the training.

Col. Clark Smith and Lt. Col. Charles Martin are in command of the Grand Ledge camp named for Desmond T. Doss, the only conscientious objector ever to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"Men from the Seventh-day Adventist Church are among the top medics in the Army, according to my commanding officer," stated Maj. James A. Stanford, staff chaplain at Fort Sam Houston.

"The cadets come in properly motivated and disciplined to accept training." Major Stanford has been a guest lecturer at the camp. Purpose of his visit, he says, is to share helpful information with the command and in turn to learn anything which might be useful in the training of medics when they report to Fort Sam Houston.

Retirement of Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris opens the door to clear-cut decisions by a majority vote of the High Court. In an effort to do away with stalemates created by 4-4 decisions of the eight members of the court, the 1963 Michigan Constitution provides that the first vacancy in the court created by death, retirement or resignation shall not be filled.

Although his retirement will not be effective until July 1, the 42-year-old justice indicates he will no longer sit on the bench and participate in decisions. His departure gives Republicans a technical majority on the court for the first time since 1955. In the past, the court has at times come up with a 4-4 deadlock on an issue, leaving the outcome "in limbo." The most recent example was the tie decision on whether the Michigan Court of Appeals had the right to investigate a state agency.

Souris, one of the court's more liberal members, was the chief force behind landmark decisions that applied the one-man, one-vote principle to the Legislature and, more recently, to county boards of supervisors. One of the most prolific writers of the court, he authorized 192 opinions between 1964-68.

Local Musician Keeps Going At 91

Slowly the gentleman hobbled into the room and eased himself into a chair. "I bought that piano," he mumbled, indicating the baby grand lodged in the corner of the Presbyterian Fellowship Hall.

"We got it second hand for $125. Yes, we found it under a pile of chairs in a junk shop in Detroit—Reverend Fredsell and a couple other church members. They asked me to go along. It didn't look like much but I saw the numbers on the strings and knew it was a good year."

If anyone in Northville is qualified to judge the worth of a musical instrument, it must be Henry Schnute, Northville's popular music man who Saturday celebrated his 91st birthday.

Friends gathered recently at the church to see a movie concerning the life of this still active musician. The photographer, Percy MacKenzie, and the narrator, Felix Lorenz, had worked with Schnute's daughter, Selma, to compress nearly a century of the man's life into the 45 minute film. The result is a fascinating documentary entitled, "Four Score and Ten."

Henry Frederick William Schnute was born June 22, 1877, in a log cabin in New Menton, Illinois.

When he was five his mother bought an autoharp, and the boy immediately learned several tunes including, "Home Sweet Home." Recognizing her son's talent, Mrs. Schnute enrolled him in music lessons—and he continued to study until he was graduated from college in 1898.

Following graduation he taught school in Detroit and on August 2, 1902, he married Matilda Wagner. Three sons were born, Milton, Arthur and Alvin, and the couple lived together until Mrs. Schnute died in 1912. Later, he married Augusta Katheryn Myer, who died in 1960. A daughter, Selma, was born with this second union.

For a while, Schnute continued teaching in Detroit, but eventually teaching 80 students in a one-room classroom became too much and, upon his doctor's advice, he moved to the country—purchasing a Northville farm home now owned by Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Wetterstroem.

Except for 10 years in Monroe, he has lived in Northville since then. It is here that his children grew up. Milton graduated from Michigan State University with a major in zoology and Alvin followed his father to Concordia Lutheran College. Arthur served as Northville's assistant postmaster until his death in 1962. Selma, the youngest, is living at home giving music lessons along with her father.

Throughout his life, Schnute has been immersed in music. Years ago he organized the Northville Community Orchestra and sometime later the senior choir for senior citizens. He has directed numerous church choirs and was, for a while, organist in one of the local churches.

In his life-time he has mastered more than 15 instruments—all of which he has taught from time to time. More than a 1,000 students have taken lessons; from him and the number continues to increase. At present he has approximately 15 students.

Although he has never performed in public himself, some of his students have become quite successful. He recalls one student in particular "who used to live on the corner of Rogers and Cady." The student, whose name he cannot remember, moved away and lost touch with his Northville teacher.

One day, turning on his radio, he heard the announcer state that his former pupil would be conducting the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra in Chicago.

Life has not been too easy. He has suffered several heart attacks and had cancer of the lip. And soon after his 90th birthday he suffered a serious illness which doctors presumed would be fatal.

But the colorful old man lives on, teaching music and doing the things that have made him, in his own way, a living Northville legend.

C. W. Waidelich To Be Ordained

Carl W. Waidelich, former resident of Northville and a 1968 graduate of Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Illinois, will be ordained on Sunday, June 30 at 4 p.m. in a special service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, High and Elm Streets, Northville.

Pastor Charles F. Boerger will serve as the officiant in the solemn rite of ordination and the Rev. Eugene Krentz, assistant to the president of Concordia Lutheran Junior College, Ann Arbor, will deliver the ordination sermon.

Mr. Waidelich was born in Saginaw, received his elementary education in Lansing, attended high school in Saginaw and then attended Concordia College, Milwaukee, Wisconsin for pre-theological training before entering the Seminary in Illinois. After two years there he discontinued his education to serve the country as a military security agent. After his service years he graduated from Michigan State University and eventually became territorial manager for Wyeth Laboratories, a drug firm and became a resident of Northville in 1963.

In 1965, receiving encouragement and financial assistance from the members of St. Paul's, he returned to the seminary to complete his training for the ministry. As part of his required course of study, he served a year of internship as assistant to the pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Crystal Lake, Illinois.

Rev. Waidelich was married to Diane M. Kay of Worcester, Massachusetts, on December 31, 1956 in Trinity Lutheran Church Wahawau, Hawaii. They have two daughters, Shell and Fawn, and one son, Eric.

Rev. Waidelich will assume his pastoral duties at Grace Lutheran Church, Killeen, Texas in July.

The public is invited to attend the service at St. Paul's. A reception for the Waidelichs is planned, following the service of ordination.
