

Schmidt vs. Stempien: Campaign Battle Heats Up

interview CAMPAIGN '68

Schmidt...

Poking holes in his opponent's campaign strategy, GOP Incumbent Representative Louis Schmidt says voters will return him to office because they know he's a full-time lawmaker who emphasizes quality legislation over quantity legislation.

He concedes the election "will be close" but he nevertheless is confident of victory, charging his opponent with making exaggerated claims in his struggle to regain the seat he lost to Schmidt two years ago.

Referring to political advertisements of his opponent claiming sponsorship of more specific legislation than Schmidt, the GOP candidate said:

"It's interesting to note that he claims he was the sponsor of all of those bills. The first two on the list he does not appear as the chief sponsor — he is the co-sponsor. I am having the others checked.

"By the same token he did not give me that courtesy. He listed only those that I sponsored — less one that was passed after his research group had dug up stuff because there is one bill — the one on the fireworks permit — that was not even listed. He failed to list that I had a bill in on the Wayne County Community College which I withdrew because the Senate had already passed their bill and it was the same vehicle. He also didn't put in Stempien...

Northville's school system and the local taxpayer's pocketbook have suffered during the two years of his Republican opponent's tenure, according to Marvin Stempien, Democratic candidate for the 35th District.

Claiming that Northville received less state aid in the past two years than during his previous two years as state representative, Stempien argued that his opponent failed to work vigorously in behalf of the Northville taxpayer, thus indirectly accounting for the three recent millage failures here.

Comparing his own record in the field of education with that of his opponent, Stempien said "the record is much more favorable to my position since I have done more.

"Let's look at the figures as to what Northville has experienced over the four comparative years of my record and the incumbent's record for school aid to the Northville public schools. In the two years that I was in the legislature, 1965 and 1966, there was an increase in every category of state aid to the Northville public schools. The total increase in 1965 was $114,986. In 1966, the total increase in all categories was $149,635.

"When the incumbent went to Lansing in 1967 the Northville public schools were out $97,680 in special education funds. They were increased only $317 in membership allocation.

20th Torch Drive Opens Tuesday

Northville and Novi Torch Drive chairmen this week are supplying door-to-door volunteers with collection kits for the 20th annual United Foundation campaign which opens Tuesday, October 15.

Both Mrs. David Goss and Mrs. Richard A. Rusche, Northville and Novi residential division chairmen respectively, hope to exceed their last year's collections, which serve as the 1968 goals.

Northville city-and-township residential goal is $2,585 while Novi residential goal is $1,500. They are part of the Greater Metropolitan Detroit goal of $27,550,000, which is up $1,189,505 from last year's total goal but is less than the $27,573,109 actually raised.

The campaign will run for three weeks following the Kick-Off day, concluding on November 5, election day.

Both Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Rusche said they have requested their marchers to try to cover their neighborhoods as soon as possible after the campaign opening. They report their totals as part of the Western Wayne and Oakland County goals, respectively.

Northville's residential quota is approximately the same as that for 1967, which was $2,596, but Novi's has been increased about $200 from the 1967 goal of $1,300. Both residential chairmen said they, their area and neighborhood chairmen all are working to exceed last year's totals.

Under Mrs. Goss in Northville are four area and 15 neighborhood chairmen. In Novi Mrs. Rusche has five area and 15 neighborhood chairmen. Under the neighborhood chairmen are about 40 to 50 mother marchers.

After first residential totals are in, marchers will begin call-back visits to families not reached. These call-back reports will be completed by October 25 with communities vying for the "sugar bowl" trophy which goes to the highest report.

Several of the Northville-Novu area chairmen are holding meetings this week to distribute campaign materials to the workers who will ring doorbells. Mrs. Edward Hancock, area 3, district 2 volunteer chairman, invited her workers to an advance thank-you tea at Meadowbrook Country Club Wednesday afternoon. Chairmen Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Paul Sobol also were to be guests.

Under over-all chairman Calvin J. Werner, Robert E. Metz, president of Inter-Lake Window Industries, will direct the Oakland County community business solicitation.

Harold A. Poling, a Ford Motor Company executive, is in charge of the Western Wayne County business campaign.

There's an option to renew the temporary pact for nine more months, but in the meantime City Manager Frank Ollendorff is looking for alternatives.

One might be the purchase of a rubbish truck by the city. Then there's the matter of finding a dumping site. Manager Ollendorff said that the Salem landfill would be available for at least a year.

At any rate, he'll bring a study of comparative costs to the council before the three-month agreement terminates.

Maybe $2,500 per month is a bargain!

City Down in Dumps Over Rubbish Rates

While it's true that the cost of living is going up, Northville's city council would argue this week that living cost hikes are peanuts compared to rubbish removal rates.

Monday night the council approved a three-month contract for weekly rubbish pick-up for all city residences at a price of $2,500 per month.

"For the past two years the city has paid the same collector, and the only bidder for the job, at the rate of $1,520 per month.

The $1,000-per-month increase prompted the three-month agreement.

Police Force Adds $15-A-Month 'Joe'

An addition to Northville's police department was approved Monday night by the city council. His name is Joe.

Any officer will tell you he's by far the best at tracking down escapees, sniffing out bomb plants and providing a fighting mate for his fellow officers.

What's more, he's only asking $15 per month for his services.

"Let's hire him", echoed councilmembers.

"Joe's" a German shepherd belonging to Officer Roger Beukema. He's been trained as a police dog and has already won credit for finding one DeHoCo escapee in the area. He also helped fellow canine officers sniff for bombs in the high school following an anonymous call last winter.

Actually, on the advice of the city attorney, the council agreed to "rent" Joe and pay his owner at the rate of about $15 per month for his services.

City Adopts CBD Plan But Zoning, Mall Still Undecided

In its most significant master plan step taken to date the Northville city council Monday night approved the six-block central business district (CBD) concept.

In so doing the council: —endorsed the planning commission's proposal setting forth the area bounded by Dunlap on the north, a block south of Cady on the south, and between Wing and Hutton streets as reserved for commercial business and customer parking;

—adopted the 3 to 1 parking for the CBD ratio (three square feet of parking space per one square foot of retail space);

—recognized the desirability of a circular drive around the business district;

—took under consideration the separation of pedestrian and vehicular traffic movement;

—and encouraged implementation of the plan through minimum demolition of existing structures.

The council must still face the real controversy of the plan — specific zoning and the "mall" concept.

Although councilmembers and planners sidestep the term "mall" (that's what's meant by "separating pedestrian and vehicular traffic"), there are strong feelings both for and against the idea of closing traffic on Main street and creating an open mall area between stores.

Opponents of the plan refer to it as "planting grass on Main street", while advocates prefer to call it "removing obstacles in the shopping aisles between stores".

Even sharper lines are expected to be drawn when the council finally calls public hearings on specific zoning in the CBD area.

Certain portions of the CBD have been designated as CBD zoning, or sites for business places. Other areas, mostly on the circumference of the inner-core CBD, have been proposed as CBP zoning (parking). Some building owners, who find their shops in the CBP zone, have voiced strong objections. Nearly all homeowners in the area south of Cady object to the CBP designation.

A public hearing was held nearly two years ago on the proposed zoning within the CBD by the planning commission. It is expected that planners will soon hold a second hearing with some modifications.

Among them will almost certainly be a proposal to allow nearly all residences within the CBD to remain under residential zoning.

A word of caution was expressed by Councilman Charles Lapham, who strongly favors action to implement the CBD plan. "This doesn't mean that we've adopted the 'mall' idea — only that we'll consider it", he stated.

And as if to provide further assurance to CBD skeptics, Mayor A. M. Allen added that "we don't want to nail down that it's got to be this or that — the plan's still flexible".

In other business Monday night the council agreed to go along with a $5,000 increase for the new district judge over the $18,000 salary to be paid by the state. The extra $5,000 must be paid on a proportionate basis by the communities in which the judge holds court. It was also decided that, pending agreement with property owners, plans should be started for extending Carpenter street from Maplewood south midway through the block to a cul-de-sac. Plans to extend the street north from Hill were dropped when property owners involved refused to dedicate land needed for the cul-de-sac.

NPSD Hits $11,000; Tuesday Goal $14,388

Optimism prevailed early this week as donations and "firm" pledges neared the $11,000 mark in the community's effort to raise $19,184 to pay for extra-curricular activities in the Northville school system.

Deadline for raising the total is October 23 — but next Tuesday is the date when 75-percent of the total or $14,388 must be raised.

Officials of the citizens group, Northville Public Schools Donation committee (NPSD), enthusiastically predicted "we'll make the second plateau ($14,388) just like we made the first."

Monday's collection count of $10,732 was just the tonic needed by campaigning citizens who are determined to pump new spirit into the junior and senior high schools facing elimination of all extra-curricular activities because school funds are insufficient to provide for them.

Many of the activities were temporarily reinstated last week on the basis of early collection success. But these will be trimmed unless the $19,000 figure is reached.

NPSD officials saw success in the fact that more and more organizations — including student groups — are joining with individual citizens in making donations. In addition, the Ford Motor Company has pledged to contribute 50-cents for every dollar donated by their employees.

STUDENTS HELP, TOO — With citizens of the community trying hard to raise $19,000 to pay for extra-curricular activities in the junior and senior high schools. Northville's sophomore and junior classes pitched in by pledging $210 for the cause this week. Donations from other student groups are expected soon, and several student activities are in the offing to help boost the campaign. Proud of their class contributions and anxious for success are Connie Mohr, sophomore secretary, and Kim Marburger, senior president.

Ford employees who wish to take advantage of the company's offer must first make their donations directly to the high school principal who will then certify that the donation has been made by the employee. Non-Ford people may make their tax-deductible donations at Lapham's Men's Shop, 120 East Main Street, Dayton Deal's office, 103 South Center Street, or by mail to NPSD, Box 1968.

Northville students, anxious to aid the campaign, won approval from the city council Monday, to erect three "wishing wells" on downtown streets. Shoppers may toss in their coins and join with others in wishing the campaign success.

Superintendent Raymond Spear emphasized this week that the additional $20,000 Northville will receive in state aid because of greater than anticipated enrollment does not begin to cover the nearly $100,000 chopped from the budget.

Spear said the $20,000 "bonus" will be used to offset a $36,000 deficit in the budget.

Waterless Car Wash Tough Doing Business

If there's anything worse than a dried up desert camel its got to be a car wash without water.

Just ask Fred Korzon, co-owner of the car wash on Novi Road just south of Nine Mile Road. He's got a spanking new business that's within 10 days of opening but he is still looking for his first drop of water.

He built his business in anticipation of extension of the Detroit water line in Novi but delays in water line construction have left him high and dry. The line was to be extended from West Ridge subdivision across the street.

Novi village councilmen took the problem Monday night, agreed that something must be done and done immediately, but they couldn't reach a solution. Nevertheless, the council, Village Manager Harold Ackley, and the village engineering firm, Anderson & Johnson, promised to press for a solution yet this week.

The new Pepper Tree Restaurant, located just south of the car wash, had the same problem before opening several weeks ago. But the restaurant owner came up with a temporary solution by tapping into the next door Guernsey Dairy well. Korzon can't do the same because the minerals in the well water would foul up the automatic car washing equipment.

Terry Krug Weds Pennsylvania Girl

Terry Wayne Krug claimed Carol Louise Hurst as his bride in a September 8 ceremony in Ephrata, Pennsylvania. After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, the newlyweds are making their home in Alexandria, Virginia, while the bridegroom is serving with the U.S. Army Engineer Corps in Fort Belvoir, Virginia.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLean, 46800 West Eleven Mile Road, Novi. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Hurst of Stevens, Pennsylvania.

For the afternoon ceremony at Mohler's Church of the Brethren the bride wore a gown of imported peau de soie, the Empire bodice fashioned with long sleeves ending in a wrist ruffle. It was overlaid with fine lace accented with pearls and crystals. The A-line skirt was swept into a "giant carriage" back and extended into a train. Her headpiece of three seed-pearl roses held her chapel-length veil of illusion.

She carried an arrangement of gladioli. Matching arrangements of gladioli and carnations decorated the candlelit altar as the Reverend Jacob C. Wine officiated at the ceremony.

Janice Elaine Hurst was her sister's honor maid in a leaf-green chuffon gown with a flowing train and blue velvet accents. The bride's cousin, Glona J. Hurst, and Carol Texter wore sapphire blue gowns matching the maid of honor's, as did the junior bridesmaids, Sandra J. Hurst, another sister of the bride, and Cathy Krug, sister of the bridegroom. All carried baby mums with harvest wheat tied with velvet.

Wayne Powell of Florida was best man Tim Krug and Barry Hurst ushered.

Ninety guests were welcomed at a reception at the Denver, Pennsylvania, Fire Hall. The bride's mother wore an aqua faille suit while the bridegroom's mother chose champagne beige with hot pink accessories. Both wore white baby mum corsages.

The bride, a graduate of Cocalico High School, is employed by the Veterans' Administration in Washington, D.C. The bridegroom was graduated from Northville High School and attended Schoolcraft College.

The newlyweds are living at 536 North Imboden Street, Alexandria, Virginia.

By JEAN DAY

"ISSUES" won't be skirted next Friday when Northville Woman's Club members and their guests hear Robert Alan Schoenberger, University of Michigan assistant professor of political science, present a non-partisan view of November election issues.

Beginning at this October 18 meeting the club will convene at the new meeting time of 1:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of Northville Presbyterian Church.

Professor Schoenberger, whose research and writings have been on political parties, political ideology and pressure groups, joined the university faculty in 1966. Prior to that he taught for a year at the University of Rochester in New York while working on his Ph.D., which he received there in 1967. He received a B.B.A. degree from City College of New York in 1955.

His professional honors include membership in Beta Gamma Sigma professional fraternity, 1954. He was a fellow at the University of Rochester, 1963-66.

His article, "Conservatism, Personality and Political Extremism," was published last month in the September issue of American Political Science Review. He also served as editor of "The American Right Wing: Readings."

Professor Schoenberger was born in New York in 1934, is married and has a young son.

This will be a guest day meeting with tea following the program. Mrs. Keith Wright is program chairman for the day.

Mrs. Blake Couse, club president, expressed the hope that every member could bring a guest as the university speaker was programmed at this season to try to help answer questions troubling voting citizens.

WHEN NORTHVILLE BRANCH of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association is the hostess for the Michigan Division Fall Council Meeting October 24, chairman for the day will be Mrs. William R. Slattery.

Mrs. Slattery, who is a petite package of efficiency, is past president of the Northville branch and now is serving on the state level as corresponding secretary of the Michigan division executive committee and on the Michigan National Council.

Northville President Mrs. Clyde Whittlesey has a well-organized committee of garden club members working to have all details go smoothly during the registration and coffee from 9 to 10 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church. This will be followed by a branch presidents' meeting and three forums.

Luncheon will follow at Meadowbrook Country Club when Mrs. H. M. Hallion, who has just completed her term as president of the Country Women's Association of Australia, will talk about Country Women "down under."

Mrs. Hiram Pacific, registration chairman, met with her committee Monday to finalize arrangements for the influx of garden club members from all over the state. Working with her are Mrs. Frank Whitmyer, Mrs. Francis Jennings, Mrs. John Begle, Mrs. John Canterbury and Miss Betty LeMaster.

Other chairmen are Mrs. Denis Schwarz, hospitality; Mrs. William Wiley, reservations; Mrs. William Switzer, coffee hour; Mrs. George Kohs, luncheon centerpiece; Mrs. E. O. Whittington, assisted by Mrs. Donald Ware and Mrs. Alfred Millington, favors.

GARDEN CLUB Members will have a "fun" day next Monday when they meet at 12:30 p.m. at Northville Presbyterian Church to hear about "The Worm and I," a humorous talk about the fun side of gardening, given by Mrs. Roy P. Jensen. Mrs. Jensen, who had earned a reputation for her charming wit, is truly a dedicated gardener and bird watcher.

Chairman for the meeting, which is a guest day, is Mrs. Denis Schwarz. Assisting her are Mrs. William Lepper, Mrs. Gerald McKenna, Mrs. Jack Scantlin and Mrs. Vernon Lind.

LAST SATURDAY was a multi-event day in our town with the second annual tour of the Presbyterian Woman's Association, the opening of Northville Republican Headquarters and the DAR Indian show in Plymouth involving many volunteers. And, of course, all were competing with the Tigers!

Approximately 75 people visited Northville Republican Headquarters, located at 149 East Main Street. TARS (Teen-Age Republicans) who helped Saturday were Mari Egbert, Sally Sliger, Merrie Hartt, Lynne Rathert, Dan Taylor, Kurt Sauer, Metin Demisar and Chairman Doug Waldren.

Also a first-day hostess was Mrs. E. O. Weber, wife of the Wayne II district chairman, who has been assisting William Heffner in scheduling volunteers to work at the office, which will be open through November 5.

THE DAR Indian show Saturday and Sunday drew an audience of an estimated 500 children and almost as many adults, reports Mrs. Thomas Lovett, who adds that even the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter volunteers were surprised - and delighted - at the number of youngsters who attended with parents or scout leaders.

Our area's women are "great volunteers" for good causes. One of the most enthusiastic at the DAR show was Mrs. Claude Crusoe, whose knowledgeable background commentary on the Indian exhibits generated a lively interest among the young viewers.

A HOME TOUR guide who imaginatively pointed out dolls, miniatures and jewelry in the collections at the Howard Meyer home Saturday was Mrs. George Jerome. She particularly delighted in exhibiting a lady's silver chatelaine, demonstrating how

Actress to Speak Here October 17

Kitty Carlisle Opens Town Hall Series

When Kitty Carlisle comes onstage at the Northville High School auditorium to open Northville Town Hall's eighth season October 17, her audience can identify her as a popular television panelist ("To Tell the Truth"), movie and stage star, nightclub artist, Metropolitan opera singer or widow of playwright Moss Hart.

Miss Carlisle's subject is "First Person Singular" — an intimate topic to take her audience behind the scenes of her varied careers.

Mrs. Robert Lang, 1968-9th chairman, will open the series, being held for the first time entirely in the high school, at 11 a.m. This season, also for the first time, all the celebrity luncheons will be held at the Mayflower Meeting House, Plymouth. Reservations deadline is this Friday. Reservations, accompanied by a check for $4, should be sent to Town Hall, Box 93, Northville. Season tickets at $10 for the five-lecture series will be sold at the high school auditorium door.

Baby sitting by Our Lady of Victory students again is available. Ticket holders interested should call Mrs. Robert Brueck, 349-2250, not the school, to reserve.

Known for her charm and grace, Miss Carlisle made her professional debut in New York in a condensed version of the musical "Rio Rita." Moving to Broadway, she was a smash hit in "Champagne Sec," based on the Johann Strauss light opera, "Die Fledermaus." Four months later she was in Hollywood, beginning a long string of motion picture roles, including "She Loves Me Not," "Here Is My Heart" with Bing Crosby, and a classic of comedy, "A Night at the Opera" with the Marx Brothers.

Between nightclub tours she met and married playwright-Director Moss Hart. The Harts had two children, Christopher, born in 1948, and Cathy, born two years later.

In recent years the actress-singer starred in "Anniversary Waltz" and "Kiss Me Kate" at the New York City Center.

Following her husband's fatal heart attack in 1961, Miss Carlisle was inactive in show business for a time, living quietly in California. She returned to the field to become a regular panelist on "To Tell the Truth" and now lives in New York.

She made her Metropolitan Opera House debut on New Year's Eve 1967, in her original role as Prince Orlofsky in the "Fledermaus." She sang with the Metropolitan during the winter season of 1967 and toured the following spring.

Miss Carlisle served as chairman of Governor Rockefeller's Conference on Women in 1966 and became special consultant to the governor on women's opportunities. Her column, "Kitty's Calendar," appears in Women's Unit News, a monthly newsletter.

Born in New Orleans, Miss Carlisle accompanied her mother to Europe when her father died. She attended school in Switzerland and went on to finishing school in Paris, where she also studied voice and piano. She also studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in London.

about Women and the family

Historical Society To 'Show 'n Tell'

There's an item in your home — perhaps it's just a tiny trinket — that's got some historical significance in your family or the community so why not share it with others.

That's the word from the Northville Historical Society as it prepares for its second meeting of the 1968-69 year — a "show and tell" program scheduled Tuesday evening.

Open to the public, as are all society meetings, the 8 p.m. fun session will take place at the home of Mrs. W. H. Cansfield, 404 West Dunlap Street.

Area residents and members of the society are asked to dig out items of family or community interest and to show and discuss them in an informal conversation fashion.

"It's simply amazing some of the little but precious things that we keep hidden away in our homes," said Mrs. Cansfield, society vice-president. "They may not be especially valuable — except to their owner — but the story behind them can be historically significant, funny or sad.

"We'd like to see your special treasure and hear the story behind it. Won't you please join us?"

Society officials have revealed that among upcoming programs will be a bus trip to a museum near Toledo, Ohio and a flea market. The bus trip and museum tour reportedly will take place on a Saturday, instead of on the society's usual third Tuesday of the month meeting date, so that members and guests may "make a day of it."

QUAINT QUESTER CONVENTION centerpieces are concocted by the clever fingers of, from left, Mrs. William Crump, Mrs. Orin Hove and Mrs. Leonard Klein as the antiques club prepares to hostess the state meeting Wednesday, October 16, at Meadowbrook Country Club. The calico centerpiece flower pots will be at the luncheon tables. Luncheon speaker is Mrs. Frank Seichter of Birmingham, who will present an illustrated program, "Outstanding Period Furniture in Detroit-Area Homes."

MORAINÉ MOTHERS COFFEE — Turn-out was almost 100 percent for the Moraine room mother coffee last week as new room mothers for the year were welcomed and visited the classrooms in which they will be helping with parties and outings. Getting acquainted, above, are Mrs. Wilford Wilson, Mrs. Jack D'Haene, Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mrs. W. Paul Reagan and Mrs. William Bates.

Two Sororities to Meet Monday

"Seminar Focus" is the program planned for the dinner meeting of Alpha Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Sorority, at 6 p.m. Monday at Hillside Inn.

Reports will be presented by Ada Fritz, Juha Holmes, Ione Palmer and Leona Theeke who attended the Asheville, North Carolina, seminar this past summer.

Northern Lites 'Go Hawaiian'

Northern Lites Family Living Study Group will "Go Hawaiian" at its potluck dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Andrew Orphan, 356 South Rogers.

Members are asked to dress in native costumes (mummuus) while they eat a native dinner of Hawaiian dishes. The study of Hawaiian foods, customs and traditions will be presented by Mrs. Edward Mollema and Mrs. Fay Waldren. Members are to bring table service.

A special guest of the evening will be Dr. Naida M. Dostal, Alpha Iota State president.

Members unable to attend are asked to call 349-1066 or 349-0629.

The Farmington Alumnae Association of Delta Gamma will meet Monday, October 14th at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gerald Upp, 14496 Stonehouse, Livonia, Michigan.

After a brief business meeting the group will make 14 nightgowns for the blind-retarded girls and women at the Plymouth State Home and Training School. The nightgowns will be presented to them in time for Christmas.

All Delta Gammas in Farmington, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth are urged to attend this meeting.

Kings Mill

A travel lecture in conjunction with a wine-tasting party is planned for Kings Mill Townhouse residents this Saturday, beginning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Clifton Hill of Travel Plans, Inc., will escort armchair travelers on a coast-to-coast tour of places of interest in the United States, via a new travel-this-country film. St. Julian winery will be host for the wine-tasting party.

Time for the weekly Friday cocktail party has been moved to a later hour. Starting tomorrow it will be held at the clubhouse from 6 to 8 p.m.

Kings Mill Mothers' Club will serve an ice cream social from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. The group will hold a social meeting at 1 p.m. next Wednesday.

Past Matrons Change Meeting

An evening meeting instead of the usual daytime session is scheduled for Orient Chapter, Past Matrons Club, for 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, October 16, at the Lakepointe Village home of Mrs. P. N. Pattison.

Northville women who "sing in the shower and with the vacuum" are receiving an open invitation this week to join with their "singing sisters" in the Suburban Chorale. The group formerly was known as the Livonia Women's Chorus, but since many members came from surrounding suburbs, the name was changed last year.

Sponsored by the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation, the group meets every Wednesday in the vocal room at Clarenceville High School.

Mrs. Kenneth Meyers of Northville, who has been a member of the group for three years, praises the director and says her interest has been high as this is "really a great group." She invites any women interested to call her at 349-3043. Auditions are not required.

Any interested women, homemakers and career women, are invited to attend a Wishing Well membership tea to be given October 16.

Kay Tyler Wins Wings As American Stewardess

FORT WORTH, TEX. — Miss Kay Louise Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Tyler, 19772 Meadowbrook Street, Northville, has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess and has now been assigned to flight duty out of Chicago.

She received her wings as a graduate in the twenty-third class this year at the American Airlines Stewardess College, Fort Worth, Tex. Miss Tyler, who was born in Detroit, was graduated from Northville high school in 1965 and attended Schoolcraft college and Western Michigan University.

She is 5' 7" tall with blonde hair and blue eyes.

Miss Tyler studied more than 100 different subjects during her six weeks' training at American's Stewardess College. Subjects ranged from make-up and grooming to in-flight food service and theory of flight.

What is full-time?

full-time \,fŭl-,tīm\ adj :

"to fill a blank space for a length of time"

"to supply a blank space with matter or decorative work"

Time is precious; it's unrecoverable. In the past two years, considerable amounts of time have been spent "filling" the position of State Representative in Lansing . . . with virtually nothing accomplished. An expensive waste.

Don't let the expression "full-time" fool you. Elect EFFECTIVE ACTION . . . get EFFECTIVE RESULTS. Elect MARV STEMPIEN, the man who had more bills passed than any other Legislator in the 73rd Legislature.

2 Northville Girls Merit Top Honors

Two Northville High School students have been named semifinalists in the 1968-69 National Merit Scholarship Program and four others have been awarded letters of commendation honoring them for high performance on the 1968 National Merit Scholarship qualifying test, Principal Fred Holdsworth announced this week.

Mavis L. (Micky) Donahue and Jeanette M. Gensley have been named on the list of 15,000 semifinalists who will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1969 to the nation's most intellectually able seniors.

Don't Forget Treasure Hunt

Deadline for making reservations for the Saturday, October 19 Jaycee sponsored treasure hunt is Friday, officials reminded young adults of the community this week.

The 7:30 p.m. treasure hunt, which includes a dinner, promises to test the skill of the best sleuths in Northville.

Anyone interested in accepting the challenge and joining the fun is asked to contact Mrs. John Malone, 349-9976, no later than tomorrow. Entrance fee is $7 a couple.

Commended students are Cristie J. Becker, Nancy J. Dawson, Gary W. Klotz and Rosemary VanFossen. They are among 39,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two per cent of those who will graduate from high school in 1969.

The semifinalists — Micky and Jeanette — are among the students who were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, given last February in 17,500 schools nationwide. They constitute less than one per cent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States. Semifinalists now must advance to finalist standing to be considered for Merit Scholarships by receiving endorsement of their schools, providing information about their achievements and interests and taking a second examination.

Finalists are considered for 1,000 National Merit Scholarships of $1,000 and for four-year scholarships provided by some 400 corporations and organizations.

John M. Stalaker, president of the NMSC, states, "Although Commended Students advance no further in Merit Scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program deserves public recognition." Their names are reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges they named as their first and second choices.

Dutch Springtime Blooms at Northville

The sights and sounds of a Dutch springtime will be presented on three screens with four projectors and hi-fidelity sound by Robert Brouwer for the first Northville Rotary travel and adventure series program of the 1968-9 season at 8 p.m. Wednesday, October 23, in the Northville High School auditorium.

"Spring Captures Holland" is the title of the color tour which will take Rotary travelers to The Netherlands at an ideal time of the year.

The program is the first of six travelogues being presented in the series. Tickets will be on sale at the door and are $6 for the series or $1.50 each. Students are 50 cents.

After many of his slides won national contests, Robert Brouwer was encouraged by friends to produce a slide program. A resident of Grand Rapids, he has been in the electrical contracting business for several years. He brings his own equipment to present the unusual "movie-slide presentation."

His travelogue on Holland was commissioned by travel officials of The Netherlands who, in an unprecedented arrangement in the travelogue field, underwrote expenses.

There are many reasons why spring is the ideal time to visit The Netherlands, Brouwer illustrates. In April the broad, flat polderlands, from Haarlem to Leiden, are a solid mat of color. He takes viewers on a stroll of the winding lanes of Keukenhof Gardens where a wooded landscape blends with flower beds and through lush green countryside scenes that inspired Dutch masters that are duplicated today.

He invites viewers to be "charmed by fair tale castles of DeHaar and Muiderlot, intrigued by miniature Madurodam (Holland's tiniest town), educated in historic Delft at Arnhem's open air museum, impressed by resurrected Rotterdam, the water gateway to Europe."

Other Dutch attractions to be seen

Piano Solo to Top Opening Concert

The first concert of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra's 23rd season will get underway at 4 p.m. Sunday at the Plymouth High School.

Concerts are free and open to the public.

Guest soloist for the initial concert will be William Doppmann, pianist, who currently is pianist-in-residence and associate professor of music at the University of Iowa.

Doppmann has performed extensively throughout the United States. Since his Town Hall debut in 1954, he has performed as soloist with the Detroit and Chicago Symphony Orchestras, and his recital appearances in Washington, D.C., Cincinnati, Detroit and New York have been rated "brilliant, sensitive". The Berlin press praised his versatility when he performed in Germany in 1966.

For several years he was a performing participant at the Rudolph Serkin Marlboro Festival and School of Music, where he recorded the Ravel Piano Trio for Columbia Records.

Program performances will include: Slavonic Dances, Op. 46, by Dvorak; Concerto No. 4 in G major, for piano and orchestra, by Beethoven; Aubade, Choreographic Concerto for piano and 18 instruments (1929), by Poulenc; and Til Eulenspiegel, by Strauss.

The 100-member orchestra is conducted by Wayne Dunlap, director of music and chairman of the humanities department at Schoolcraft College. He has been conducting the orchestra since 1951.

Dunlap is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music, was a student of the celebrated French conductor, Pierre Monteaux, and was a Fulbright scholar in Vienna. He was director of orchestra and opera work-shop for seven years at the University of Michigan.

Founded in 1945, the orchestra includes professional or highly talented volunteers. University of Michigan and Wayne State faculty members play in the orchestra as well as members from the Detroit Symphony, Toledo Symphony and the Schoolcraft College Court Orchestra.

Following Sunday's concert, the next program will take place on October 13, featuring Roma Ridell as guest soprano. On the program will be Overture to "Tandredi", Lieder eines Fahren den Gessellen (Songs of a Wayfarer), and Symphony No. 2, "A London Symphony".

Northville Municipal Court

Two men appeared before Municipal Court Judge Philip Ogilvie on Saturday, September 19.

Gery D. Nitzel of 317 River Street pleaded guilty to having been a disorderly person for fighting at the Clark Gas Station at 510 South Main Street. He paid $40 in lieu of eight days in jail and $4 costs.

For violation of financial responsibility Walter E. Adams of 40941 West 8-Mile Road paid $40 and $15 costs and served two days in Detroit House of Correction upon pleading guilty.

Three escapees from Detroit House of Correction were returned there by Judge Ogilvie on Saturday, September 26.

Herman L. Beavers of Detroit was returned for 45 days, Ronnie Warnsley of Inkster and Andy R. Johnson of Detroit were sent back for 15 days each.

On October 1 Judge Ogilvie sentenced Robert E. Martin of Milford to pay $70 and $15 court costs or to serve 18 days and pay $7 costs when he pleaded guilty to an added count of disorderly person after the charge of carrying a concealed weapon had been dismissed against him.

Last Thursday, the regular court day, was a very busy one.

Donald C. Root of South Lyon entered a plea of guilty to having been a minor in possession at the Tavern and paid $40 in lieu of eight days and $4.

Phillip E. Coan of Olney paid $15 in fines on two counts when his truck was stopped at East Main and Center. He pleaded guilty to driving where a commercial vehicle was prohibited and to having improper plates on his trailer.

A plea of innocent was entered by Michael J. O'Conner of Plymouth on September 19 to driving under the influence of liquor. The charge was dismissed when he pleaded guilty to the added count of driving while his ability was impaired. He paid $75 fine and $15 costs in lieu of serving 15 days in jail.

Gordon L. Wabeke of South Lyon had entered a plea of innocent on August 26 to driving left of center line.

He was found guilty and paid $25 rather than spend five days in Detroit House of Correction.

A plea of guilty by William F. Trusty of Walled Lake to the charge of improper plates brought a $15 fine.

Terry L. Dockett of Whitmore Lake entered a plea of innocent on July 25 to having defective equipment (a rear light not visible). His case was dismissed by Judge Ogilvie upon payment of $5 court costs.

A plea of guilty to failure to yield right of way causing a property damage accident at South Center and Cady brought Ina M. Hopper of 350 South Wing Street a $20 fine.

Calvin R. Rock of Walled Lake paid $5 on a plea of guilty to having improper license plates.

Two cases also were heard by Judge Ogilvie last Friday.

Billy R. Reed of Westland pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor and was assessed $40 or eight days and $4 costs if the fine was not paid.

Hubert Florida of 40941 West 8-Mile Road pleaded guilty to being disorderly by being drunk and was ordered to pay $30 and $18 costs and serve five days in Detroit House of Correction. An additional 10 days were to be served if the fine was not paid.

FIREMEN COME VISITING — Because of cutbacks in extra-curricular activities this fall, Moraine Elementary kindergartners might have missed their visit to the fire department during Fire Safety Week. But firemen saved the day by driving up to the school in one of the department's gleaming red engines and fireman Royal Keller explained some of the engine's fascinating instruments while getting in some comments on fire safety.

GRAND OPENING — Now celebrating its grand opening is Michael's Fine Meats store, one of the newest businesses in the Convenient Food Mart Center. Located at 1063 Novi Road, the new business is operated by Michael Dracca and features custom cut meats.

Novi Justice Court

Several people drew fines from Justice of Peace Emery Jacques in a morning session at Novi Justice Court last Thursday.

Kenneth Z. Barbb of Detroit paid $15 following a plea of guilty to passing a stopped school bus.

Don A. Thorpe of 23951 Willowbrook Drive entered a plea of innocent on March 16 to the charges of reckless driving and no operator's license on his person. He was found guilty and fined a total of $60.

Also facing two counts was Willie McGlown of Detroit who paid $50 for pleading guilty to improper use and display of commercial tractor plates and no valid registered plates on his trailer.

John W. Troxell of Walled Lake stood mute on November 1, 1967 on the charge driving on a revoked license.

He was found guilty and paid $100 fine and $15 costs and received a 10 days suspended sentence.

Failure to stop in a safe assured distance involving an accident cost Paul E. Watkins of Livonia $15 following his plea of guilty.

Speeders were also reckoned with by Judge Jacques with the following fines of note being assessed (all entered pleas of guilty):

Gary E. Best, Livonia, 90 MPH in a 70 MPH zone — $25; James Belser, Jr., Detroit, 85 MPH in a 70 MPH zone — $25; Bernard Groves, Farmington, 80 MPH in a 70 MPH zone — $15; and Bobbie D. Allen, Walled Lake, 55 MPH in a 40 MPH zone — $15.

He Denies Driving Novi Fatality Car

Jerry Weaver denies that he was behind the wheel of the car in which Marcella Elsie Hatfield was killed in a recent accident on South Lake Drive.

At his examination Thursday, Weaver, through Attorney Robert Greenstein, denied having driven Miss Hatfield's car which collided with the car of Karl Kovach and caused the instant death of the Union Lake girl. Weaver, 24, of 42479 Thirteen Mile Road, was found beneath the steering wheel of the vehicle which collided with the Kovach car while Miss Hatfield had to be pried free from the passenger side door in which she was imbedded. He is charged with involuntary manslaughter.

Only a few considerations were established at the examination before Justice of Peace Emery Jacques in the marathon session which lasted from 1:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. before adjourning to today.

Expert witness Gordon H. Sheehy, former Vermont highway patrolman who is now the head of the traffic center program at Michigan State University, established via skid marks at the scene that the death car entered the curve preceding the crash at a speed in excess of 70 MPH and slid 80 feet sideways prior to the impact.

Doctor Paul Flanagan, associate pathologist of Pontiac General Hospital, testified as to the exact medical explanation for the girl's death and that her body was in the wreckage.

Also established at the hearing was that three people, Weaver, Kovach and Miss Hatfield were definitely involved in the accident and that two cars were involved.

Safety Course

Aimed at Hunters

The course will begin Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Northville police firing range in the basement of the city hall. The course will be opened to the first 14 boys and girls to call Recreation Director Robert Prom, 349-2287.

Lakers Take W-O Lead

Errors Stagger Mustangs, 21-6

LAKER QUARTERBACK BITES DUST

Capitalizing on their opponent's errors, the Lakers of West Bloomfield staggered the high-riding Mustangs here Friday night by snatching a 21-6 victory.

The Northville loss — first this season — dropped the Mustangs to fifth place in the Wayne Oakland League. And, coupled with the Andover Barons' defeat, the Lakers took undisputed possession of the conference lead.

Earlier Northville had trounced Brighton in the only other league contest of the season after claiming non-league triumphs over Plymouth and Waterford Mott.

It was a heartbreaking loss for Coach Alex Klukach, who blamed the loss on "mental errors" by his charges even though he said they outplayed the Lakers much of the game.

Key to the Lakers' triumph was a dazzling 90-yard touchdown in the last day of the first half as Terry Conley, Bloomfield's star halfback and track speedster, picked off a Northville pass and galloped the length of the football field.

The stunning interception gave West Bloomfield an important psychological (7-6) edge going into the second half.

Up to the point of the Lakers' first touchdown, Northville was by far the strongest team. On the first series of plays, the Mustangs pushed to the Bloomfield 10 before a fumble put out their TD threat. Moments later the Mustangs were again knocking on the opponent's goal line but this time their passing attack was smothered on the Bloomfield 10.

Halfback Terry Mills quickly picked off a Laker pass, however, and once again Northville smashed forward — this time to the one-yard-line before a 15-yard penalty cost them the TD.

It wasn't until the second quarter that Northville finally pushed the ball into the endzone. Starting at the Bloomfield 33, Northville powered its way to the three yard line where Co-Captain Barry Deal punched his way across the magic marker.

With the opening of the second half, Mills snatched another Lakers pass but the advantage was short-lived. Bloomfield regained possession on its own 40 and then pushed upfield to the Northville 7 where Quarterback Robin Brennan uncorked a TD pass to Conley.

Twice, following this TD, Northville failed to muster a sustained attack and were forced to punt. And Bloomfield, gaining confidence, took up the smashing ground and aerial attack again. The Lakers picked up 76 yards and then Fullback Ed McKenna sliced through the line from the 10 to score.

PICKING UP BLOCKS, BARRY DEAL BREAKS AWAY

Interception, 76-Yard TD Clinches Win for Wildcats

Tackle turned fullback Joe Morrison showed his heels to the Waterford Mott Corsairs on a 45 yard dash in the first quarter and Nov's Wildcats appeared to be off and running.

Events proved otherwise, however, as it took Rick Hill's scintillating 76-yard TD on a pilfered Gerald McNair pass to clinch the hard fought struggle for the hometown Wildcats.

Novi won the game, 19-6.

The play that killed Novi's offensive momentum was on the kickoff following Morrison's touchdown. Speedy Flanker Terry Ruffato appeared stopped around his own 40 on this electrifying return, but broke free and sprinted 82 yards to score Mott's only TD.

Both teams played uninspired ball the remainder of the first half, but Novi regained the will to win during intermission and wore down the Mottmen enough to enable them to sustain a drive of 64 yards at the end of the third and the beginning of the fourth quarter. Quarterback Gary Boyer capped this march by sprinting seven yards around left end on a statue of liberty play to score.

Down but not out, the Corsairs stopped a forth down and one dive attempt by the Wildcats' workhorse Jon VanWagner and started a march of their own by dazzling fans with McNair's passing as they moved all the way to Novi's 18.

On first down at that point, McNair was unable to pass and found himself on his back at the 26, one of many times he got grass-stained by determined defenders. Forced to pass on second down, McNair found his deep men covered and shot a pass to to his left flat. Hill tipped it out of the intended receiver's hands, picked it out of the air and dashed down the right sideline to end the Corsairs' hopes.

Fumbles and penalties cost the Wildcats several good scoring opportunities. Even though this performance was far short of last week's stellar showing against Dearborn Heights Annapolis, it did show that Coach John Osborne's charges can get tough when they have to against strong competition.

Bloomfield Lahser's Next

Coach John Osborne had particular praise for his scouting staff and for defensive coach, Milan Obrenovich, for their parts in helping the Wildcats defeat Waterford Mott Friday.

Osborne felt that the defenses devised by Obrenovich, which he based on scouting reports, were instrumental in the victory. He also praised the blocking and running of Rick Hill and the strong game played by the entire team.

A really rugged test for the Wildcats looms tomorrow at 3 30 p m at Bloomfield Hills Lahser, says Osborne. Despite its 1-2 record, Lahser has outgamed every opponent and has one boy, Jeff Kezlaran, averaging 176 yards per game from his tailback position.

Osborne also respects the depth of this Class A school which, like Novi, goes through the 12th grade for the first time this year.

The Knights' coach, David Coatta, also looks for a good ball game. He's pinning his hopes on Linebacker Eric Tirrell and Defensive End Larry Andreas in addition to Kezlaran.

Experts Galore Bid for Grid Prizes

There were experts galore in last week's football contest — but only three managed to submit entries with but a single error.

Anne White, 11846 Riverside drive, and Dennis Gould, 42509 Parkhurst, both of Plymouth, and Robynn Bell, 537 Grace, Northville, each missed but one game. Anne's entry was tops, however, as she missed predicting the Detroit-Minnesota score by a scant four points. Dennis was just seven points off, so he won second money, while Robynn had to be content with third prize. The winners received $10, $5 and $3, respectively.

There were a dozen entries with only two wrong and 21 contestants missed only three games. It was the best week ever for the prognosticators.

One contestant was eliminated from the contest because he submitted three entries under the same name. Two of his entries missed but two games, the third only three. Contest rules state that each contestant can submit but one entry per week. Many families send in several entries, but each contains the name of a different individual.

There's another contest this week on page 4-B. So come on, losers (and winners), try again.

It's Banquet Time Again

The on the feedbags, kids, the annual Novi Little League Banquet is approaching again.

The banquet, open to all Novi little league and Babe Ruth athletes as well as farm team players who will be admitted free of charge as guests of honor, and to all sponsors, coaches, umpires and other interested people at $2.25 each, will be held Wednesday, October 16, at 7 p.m. at Roma Hall, 27777 Schoolcraft in Livonia.

Managers are to individually contact their players to inform them of the banquet. Anyone desiring ticket or other information should call Bill O'Brien at 474-7131.

Colts to Host Tigers Sunday

Playing better ball than in their previous game, the three Northville Junior Football elevens nevertheless lost out to rain and experience Sunday afternoon.

With the rain falling throughout the afternoon, the Colts simply could not penetrate the Livonia Orioles veneer of experience. They lost all three games — the frosh 13-0, the junior varsity, 14-0 and the varsity 26-0.

The Colts will be back in their own territory this Sunday, hosting the Garden City Tigers at the Northville high school football field.

Game time is 1 p.m. and fans are welcome.

Zayti Moves Up

Mike Zayti of Northville has replaced Ferris State College's star halfback, Andy Johnson of Battle Creek.

Johnson suffered a knee injury two weeks ago and Zayti was moved up to fill in the important position.

Records Fall In Decathlon

Several records fell in this year's Wixom Decathlon for Wixom Elementary School children sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

A record number of little competitors took part in this year's highly successful event, according to statistician Wilfred J. Waara.

Four girls' records fell, two of them in the dashes, as three girls won gold medals in three events apiece. The records to fall were in the 4th grade 50-yard dash (Judy Spencer), the 5th grade 50-yard dash (Maureen Callahan), the 3rd grade running broad jump (Donna Sutherland) and the 4th grade 220-yard bicycle race (Terry Bogues). Winners of three first place gold medals each were 2nd grader Karen Robinson, 3rd grader Donna Sutherland and 5th grader Valerie McAtee.

In the boys' events seven records fell and two were tied. Only second grader Steve Posey and fourth grader Darrell Woodke were able to capture three events each in the fierce competition. Posey won the 35-yard dash, running broad jump and baseball throw, while Woodke captured the identical events in his grade (50 yards was the length of the 4th grade dash).

Grid Injuries Hurt Northville

Help! Alex Klukach needs backs whose bones won't break.

Pat Cayley, fullback and placekicker, has joined Quarterback Stan Ninder on the sidelines as a result of a broken foot suffered in the Brighton game. Both have ended their 1968 season due to these injuries.

Mustangs' Coach Klukach reports that Terry Mills was slightly injured in the heartbreaking loss to West Bloomfield Friday night.

Klukach said before the Lakers contest that they would "give you a touchdown and take two back." The only problem was they got greedy and took three back.

The remaining starting back from the Plymouth opening game was the object of special praise by Klukach for his performance against West Bloomfield. The coach said Barry Deal again played a great game, which was borne out by the fact that he picked up 119 yards.

Coach Ralph Kenyon of the wolves underlines this anxiety by stressing that his squad's greatest strength has been its defense of opponents' running games and by pointing out that this will be Clarkston's homecoming game.

Kenyon feels that his defensive ends, Eric Hood and Bill Anderson (who also plays offensive end) and two-way Halfback Rich Porritt have been his steadiest performers.

Northville may have been a loser on the field but it was a winner on the sidelines and in the stands Friday night as the high school's prize winning marching band and cheerleaders turned out in uniforms for the first time since the last school year. Band and cheerleading, along with other extra-curricular activities, had been chopped from the school program this fall because of a shortage of funds. But thanks to early efforts by citizens to raise funds for this purpose, many of the extra-curricular activities were reinstated on a temporary basis last week. (See more pictures on Page 3-B).

Rev. Roger Merrell
First Methodist Church of South Lyon

From the awful routine of the daily grind, good Lord, deliver us! A well-worn legend tells of three men working on a great cathedral who said in answer to the question, "What are you doing?"

The first: "I'm chipping stones."
The second: "I am earning wages."
The third: "I am building a cathedral."

Sounds noble, doesn't it — the answer that the third man gave? But we wonder if the author of the legend ever did a good day's work. Work is hard. It's a grind. It wears us out. At the end of every day our muscles ache and nerves are strained. And the plaintive tone on our lips is: "Ya load sixteen tones and what-ya-get? Another day older and deeper in debt!"

But man was made to be a working man. Why should drudgery exist? How can you whistle while you work? Why do we get hooked on the wheels of the machinery or work at a stupid job that gives us the heebie-jeebies? Why do we have to plead, "From the daily grind, good Lord, deliver us"?

The good Lord doesn't promise to deliver us from the daily grind. But He does promise to deliver US. He never said that we would not get tired, but He did assure us that He would give us rest. And He goes with us — into the daily grind of life, to support us, sustain and strengthen us. He gives point and purpose to our work. He gives a service we can render — to Himself and to a brother. He gives us a reason for the job; but more than that, He puts us into the struggle, but He makes the struggle worthwhile.

You are delivered! You are delivered by a Christ who saved you from a life of uselessness and self-centeredness.

WHAT BELONGS WHERE? ??

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The hub of a railroad—the classification yard. Could you, without training or experience, take charge here? Could you sort and "spot" thousands of cars, have them ready at the right time on the right track to go out with the right train?

But every day your mind performs an operation even more complex. You sort and classify your thoughts and impulses. You decide what is right and wrong. You determine which actions are urgent, and which can be deferred. You resolve that some goals are important, and others are secondary. And every decision affects your life, and the lives of others!

Preparing men and women—and boys and girls—to make the right decisions is one of the great functions of the Church. There are sound Christian standards by which life's choices should be sorted. There is confidence and strength for those who seek, learn and practice the true Way of Life.

...First step in the appeal action of Warren Products in its suit protesting annexation into the city of Northville was scheduled when the state supreme court considered a "right to appeal" request.

...The man "who" led Novi's incorporation movement from its very beginning was sworn into office as first president of the village of Novi.

Walter Tuck was elected to the office by the unanimous vote of his four fellow councilmen, Dirk Groenenberg, Russell Butten, Dicron Tafalian and Philip Anderson.

Howard on West Eight Mile Road. The charter member of the association's at the home of Mrs. W. L. Howard on West Eight Mile Road. The charter member of the association's Plymouth branch spoke on "Famous Gardens and Parkways in Michigan."

...A conducted tour of the Cranbrook Institute was planned for the Northville Woman's Club meeting.

...A conducted tour was also made of the Record Office. Mrs. William Madigan took the 13 youngsters from her Northville Co-Operative Nursery School class through the office to observe a paper being put together.

...H. J. Hayward, representative of the Ann Arbor firm of Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May, agreed to submit a price on re-evaluating Northville water rates as the Village Commission took another step toward boosting water revenue.

...Marianne Ratliff, Adeana Gleason, Jackie Ling, Craig Rathburn, Mike Herbert, Charles Fox, Jim

Rambeau and Peggy Hammond were the Northville students who traveled to Detroit to attend a meeting of high school sociology students from the Detroit Metropolitan area.

...Totals for first three games: Northville 90, opponents 7. This was the sports page headline after Coach Al Jones' Mustangs had slaughtered Milford 36-0 for their third straight victory of the 1953 season.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...

...Congressman George A. Dondero was the guest speaker at the Methodist Church House dinner honoring 21st and new voters in the community.

...Village Council discussed the proposed construction of the Seven Mile cutoff which was expected to be begun in 1950.

...Villagers had received pledge cards through the mail enabling them to support the Sister Kenny polio fund drive. Chairman of the drive was A. Russell Clarke.

...John J. Shiraf II, noted lecturer on Russia and Finland, addressed the Northville High School assembly.

...Local high school teachers Charles Ketterer and Harry B. Smith attended driver-training institute classes at the University of Michigan campus.

...Superintendent Russell Amerman and other educators returned from Camp Custer with enthusiasm about the arrangements made for the induction of new soldiers at this Army reception center. The purpose of the visit was to determine in what way schools could better prepare graduating seniors for service.

...The Novi Farmers' club met at the O.M. Whipple home to listen to George Yerkes speak on American citizenship. He had some complaints to make about local violation of the criminal laws relating to the liquor traffic.

A lively discussion followed the meeting and several ladies were reportedly ready, with hatchets if necessary, to change things in Novi for the better.

...A large attendance was predicted at the play at the opera house opening under the auspices of the King's Daughters.

WELCOME BACK—Only the score of Friday's Mustang-Lakers football game dampened spirits of fans who enthusiastically welcomed back the Northville High School cheerleaders and marching band during the Parents Night game. There were lumps in throats as the uniformed boys and girls came out of drydock to demonstrate their talents. The color and sounds of the two groups were missing at earlier games because extra-curricular activities were chopped from the program because of shortage of school funds. Citizens of the community took up the challenge, however, and began raising money for these activities. Then last week, as donations passed the first plateau on the way to the $19,184 goal, school officials temporarily reinstated many of the extra-curricular activities.

Schoolcraft College's Omicron Iota Chapter of the national scholastic honorary society for Community colleges, inducted four new members in ceremonies at the college on Sunday afternoon, October 6.

Inducted in the special rites were Maureen Hayes and Mary Polancih, both of Livonia; Donald Weigand, Plymouth; and Frederick Flynn, Detroit.

Theodore Pfeiffer, president of the chapter, presided at the ceremony. Dr. Ralph Atchley, chemistry instructor at the college, is faculty advisor. A reception followed the ceremony.

Twenty-six skilled trades apprentices enrolled in the related instruction program at Schoolcraft College were placed on a special honors list for compiling grade point averages of 3.500 or higher of a possible 4.000 during the summer trimester which ended in August, according to Ronald J. Monfette, apprenticeship coordinator.

All of the honors list students were enrolled in a minimum of 10 credit hours of classroom work, Monfette said.

The local students, their occupation, sponsoring company, and grade point average:

Michael Medwid, 45285 Grand River, Novi, tool and die maker, Vicete Die and Engineering, Novi, 3.862;

Cameron Cogsdill, 3146 Benstein, Milford, toolmaker, Cogsdill Enterprises, Northville, 3.524; Jimmy Lawson, 3059 Edgewood Park, Union Lake, tool and die maker, Commerce Industries, Walled Lake, 3.500.

Pianist William Doppmann will present a recital at Schoolcraft College at 8 p.m., today in the new theater in the Liberal Arts Building.

Doppmann's appearance on the college's fall term Humanities Series will inaugurate the use of the 176-seat theater for musical events.

Currently pianist-in-residence and associate professor of music at the University of Texas, Doppmann has enjoyed acclaim from both press and public on his concert tours of the United States, Canada and Europe. He appeared as soloist with the Schoolcraft Court Orchestra during the 1967 and 1968 summer concert series and has made several appearances with the Plymouth Symphony.

A $1 admission charge will be made for today's recital.

Carl Pursell Calls For New Leadership

Carl Pursell, candidate for the newly formed Wayne County Board of Supervisors, called for a program of fresh new leadership "to impliment much needed reform in Wayne County."

"It is the most out-dated and antiquated governmental level we have," said Pursell.

"After reducing the board from 130 to 26, we can begin to establish new lines of responsibilities. I believe the board should consider hiring a chief executive administrator to be fully responsible for all county operations and report directly to the new board. "This would eliminate the present buck passing such as seen in the county jail problems," stated Pursell.

Also Pursell noted that it will be important to recognize that local units of governments are more and more sharing and effecting programs with their neighboring governments. It is therefore important that the next elected supervisor from this district have had experience with all the six governments in the 26th district.

"I am pleased to have worked with every government in this district over the last few years," said Pursell. Leadership and experience in government, education, and the business world will be needed to provide sound principles to the re-organization of county government.

Pursell, selected as "Outstanding Young Man of the Year in 1966 - also remarked firmly on the proposed salary scale mentioned by other candidates. "I am opposed to major salary levels for members of the new board of supervisors," said Pursell. "Hire a chief administrator and let the board set policy. The county is operating a deficit budget now," stated Pursell. "Even increases in present major office holders in the county now approved by the Ways and Means committee are ill-timed and improper in this inflationary period. "We should be holding the line and develop a more responsible fiscal budget."

Judge Candidate Healy Favors Probation Plan

The attention of the Wayne County Circuit Court focused this week on one of the issues raised by District Judge Candidate Thomas H. Healy in his primary campaign.

A volunteer citizen probation system was called for by the Circuit bench in a meeting with representatives from 14 suburban communities.

Healy went on record early in the primary campaign in favor of such a system.

The meeting was called to plan a volunteer system for outcounty communities.

The purpose of the program, according to Circuit Judge Horace W. Gilmore, chairman of the Wayne County probation committee, is to reduce the load on the already overburdened County probation staff and to get community involvement in probation in an effort to stem the rising crime rate among youthful offenders.

During the primary campaign, Healy urged such a program in the "District Court area which includes the Plymouth, Northville and Canton Communities.

"I feel that, particularly in cases of young first offenders," Healy said in remarks to the Plymouth YMCA Board of Directors, "there should be the opportunity for a probation program which includes guidance and counseling."

The Plymouth YMCA had established a cooperative arrangement with former Municipal Judge Edward Draugelis and, on a voluntary basis, was able to provide satisfactory guidance to young people referred by the judge.

Draugelis' successor, however, did not continue the program.

An active, successful probation program has been in effect in the City of Northville for some time, under the guidance of Municipal Judge Philip Ogilvie.

Judge Ogilvie was defeated in the primary election for District Judge.

Healy met with Judge Ogilvie, his probation counselors and Chief Probation Officer Dennis Dildy recently in Northville. There, he reiterated his support of probation.

One of the reasons he entered the campaign for District Judge, he told the Northville group, was because of the earlier success the Plymouth Y enjoyed with its short-lived counseling program.

"I was disappointed that it didn't continue," Healy said.

The Northville probation group also heard Jerry M. Hall of Dearborn, a counselor on "Project Return", an effort funded by the U.S. Department of Justice in cooperation with the City of Detroit and Detroit's Catholic Archdiocese.

The project concentrated, during its 15 months of operation, on lowering the rate of return for violators at the Detroit House of Correction.

Project Return enjoyed marked success. Of 100 men assigned to it, only five returned to prison. The normal rate of return is 55 per cent.

DR. R. ROBERT GEAKE Republicans Tap Dr. Geake

The appointment of R. Robert Geake of 48525 West 8 Mile Road, as Republican absentee voter chairman for the Second Congressional District in Wayne County was announced in Lansing this week.

Dr. Geake's appointment was made by County Republican Chairman Elmer O. Weber and approved by State GOP absentee voter drive chairman Michael J. Gillman of Bay City.

The new Absentee vote chairman will be responsible for maximizing GOP votes among the elderly, servicemen, vacationers, the ill, and persons out of the community on election day. Brochures outlining the rights of absentee voters will be available through chairman Geake next week.

Tigers Go For Nixon

Saturday is the day to trade in your Tiger bumper sticker for a Nixon sticker.

That's the word from local Republican officials who are inviting area residents to three GOP headquarters to make the switch.

Motorists will have the choice of their favorite GOP candidate's bumper stickers. Besides the newly opened headquarters in Northville at 149 South Main Street, two other headquarters - one at Redford and the other at Livonia - will offer the stickers.

Romney, Brooke to Stump For Representative Esch

U.S. Representative Marvin L. Esch (R-Michigan) announced that two more Republican leaders will be campaigning on behalf of his bid for re-election to Congress. Governor George Romney will put in a full day for Esch on Friday, October 18 in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area. Senator Edward Brooke of Massachusetts will appear in Ann Arbor on October 11.

Senator Brooke's schedule calls for a U of M campus appearance at 3:30 p.m. in the League Ballroom. Brooke, the first Negro U.S. Senator since

Friedrichs Agrees 'Jail Conditions Apalling'

Democratic county supervisor candidate Donald E. Friedrichs (26th District, Plymouth, Northville, Canton, Livonia) toured the Wayne County Jail last week and found conditions "as appalling as the recent reports have said they were."

"But I was also impressed with the steps being taken by sheriff Roman Gribbs to improve dark and dingy cell blocks that haven't been painted in years, broken plumbing and unrepaired windows," Friedrichs said.

Friedrichs is seeking one of the 35 seats on the newly organized Wayne County Board of Supervisors. Active in the Livonia Rotary Club and YMCA, Friedrichs is director of secondary education for the Livonia Public Schools, and former principal at Bentley High School.

He visited the jail at the invitation of Gribbs, toured several cell blocks in both the old and new wings, and talked with Gribbs about what the new board would have to do about the conditions in the jail.

"The recent report of the Sheriff's Committee cited deplorable, cruel and inhumane conditions in the jail. The report does not exaggerate, but steps are being taken to improve conditions," Friedrichs said.

"On my tour I saw cleanup-paint-up crews working on the cells, as well as cells with broken plumbing and walls that hadn't been painted in years," he said.

Friedrichs cautioned against acceptance of the entire report of the Sheriff's Committee.

"For instance one recommendation calls for a pre-trial detention facility to be built to replace the present jail. Since the current building had a new addition in 1963, I have reservations about implementing plans for an entirely new detention facility without careful study. Before such steps as these can be taken, it is obvious we must take a look at reorganizing the tax structure of the county and the administrative operation of the jail," Friedrichs said.

Friedrichs said he hoped to meet with the committee, headed by Plymouth city councilman and vigorous member of the current Board of Supervisors, Arch Vallier.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY BILL-On hand for Governor George Romney's recent signing of the Fireworks display bill sponsored by Representative Louis Schmidt was Livonia Fire Chief John Bunk and Schmidt. Primary aim of the bill, according to Schmidt, is to insure local control over the storage, use and display of fireworks. Previously, a permit could be obtained in one municipality for display in another.

Stempien Seeks Crime Fund Law

A plan for special funds to be made available to individual communities for intensified law enforcement programs was announced by Marvin R. Stempien, candidate for State Representative.

The plan, according to Stempien, would require a new law to allocate funds to eligible communities based on their specified needs. It would also provide additional training for policemen, new approaches to crime prevention, advanced law enforcement planning, and other improvements as deemed necessary for a community.

The monies, according to Stempien, are already available in the Fund created in 1966 which charges an additional 10% over fines to persons convicted of crimes and the $56 million state surplus recently announced by Governor Romney, thus no new taxes would be required.

Stempien stated, "My plan would include communities such as Livonia and Northville, with eligibility determined by a review board consisting of trained law enforcement administrators of the Michigan State Police, County and local governments who would also administer the funds."

Projected uses of funds would include special allocations to local government to fund enrollment of local police officers in special schools on a State level. The special state schools would be conducted continuously as new developments in law enforcement occur. Special inter-community cooperation and "crime" detection methods are also planned.

"The Grants to Improve Local Law Enforcement is a plan which I firmly believe is necessary to add a touch of professionalism to the Officer on the street," Stempien said.

"I believe strongly that adding personnel will improve local law enforcement, but if all of our police personnel are not sufficiently trained, our money has not been properly used. More important, we do not get the police protection we expect, this is, order with justice. My plan is designed not only to add 'power' to local law enforcement, but also to assure effectiveness," he added.

Schmidt vs. Stempien: Campaign Battle Heats Up

They were increased only $297 in transportation for a net loss or cut off $97,066. The following year, in 1968 — that's this present school year — we did receive an increase in every category. Thank goodness for that. But the total increase was only $76,843 compared with approximately double that the second year that I was in the legislature.

"Now what does this mean to a Northville taxpayer? In substance it means in 1967 we lost the equivalent of five mills of taxation because the state equalized valuation of the Northville public school district raises approximately $43,044 for every mill assessed in 1967-68 school year.

"Now the Northville school district tried to pass two mills three times this year, and the taxpayers have said in effect 'we can't carry this burden anymore. we can't increase it, we are already supporting public education to the maximum of our capacity on local property taxes.' So there has to be an alternative. The alternative is obvious: it has to come from the state treasury because we can't turn our back on education. And if you look at the record you can see who has been more effective, who has gotten action in this area."

The present financial system of supporting schools, said Stempien must be eliminated, because "we are trying to run a modern, progressive school system on a horse and buggy finance system."

He continued:

"My proposal has been, continuously as far back as 1964 when I was in the legislature and on the education committee, that we have to revise the school aid formula and we have to get away from locally levied millage. Now one proposal that was made when I was there by Senator Robinson was a statewide levied millage. The objective was to take some of the inequity out of the district-by-district differences in the amount of local support for schools. That's a step in the right direction, but that's not far enough. We have to get away from the idea altogether that a man should be taxed on the home that he lives in to support education and start thinking in terms of taxing income producing means within our society."

As for the specific kind of substitute tax, Stempien said it would be only "speculative" on his part to identify it. "There are a lot of ideas that people disagree upon. People might propose the sales tax, or people might say the state income tax, etc."

Referring to the state income tax, he said it "was passed off onto the people in this area, strongly supported by education people, on the basis that it would be true fiscal reform and, secondly, an additional boost for education. And at the same time we got a $97,000 cut in Northville. So on the one hand we've had a proposition that there is some fiscal reform here — that we've raised some more money — but we've never addressed ourselves as a state to reform of spending. We have no spending reform in Michigan and we never have had and it's about time we started. The area where we spend the most is in education and that's where we've got to begin. We may be able then to say to the citizens of this area somebody does care about your problems of not being able to afford the taxes that you are paying locally. We are going to address ourselves to the primary one that bothers you, the primary one that gives you problems in your home — the large local school millage."

Stempien, who said he no longer had any desire to pursue political ambitions when he took the job as city attorney of Northville, was asked if he may have taken the job to generate some Northville support for some future political campaign, the Democratic challenger refuted the suggestion, noting that he "already had a lot of support in Northville. I have run much better in that area than any Democrat since Martha Griffiths so that was not a consideration at all."

He said when he discussed the matter with the city council at the time, he was "sincere" when he indicated that he had absolutely no plans "to ever be a candidate again."

What then caused him to change his mind?

The assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy, replied Stempien who was one of his earliest supporters in his quest for the presidential death, Stempien re-examined his own role in life "because one of the things that Robert Kennedy continually preached was commitment and if there was any man who didn't have to be committed to his fellow man it was Robert Kennedy."

Of the three announced presidential candidates at Chicago, Senator George McGovern was

MARVIN STEMPIEN

Stempien's favorite. But, said Stempien, he supports the convention's choice. Yet he "believes in working for change in the Democratic Party. That's one of the reasons why I am a candidate because I want to be involved in seeing the changes come about that have to come about. And unless I work to get myself into a position of strength within the Democratic Party I really don't have much grounds to criticize on... And of course this is the strength of the Democratic Party in that those of us who disagree will not turn our back on the party but will fight to make it better than it is."

Stempien, who sees the candidacy of Governor George Wallace "as a threat to the world", concedes that the Alabama governor may take as high as 20-percent of the vote in the 35th District. "But I don't think that a Schmidt...

...I don't have my law practice back in Livonia to worry about.

...I think I'll win the election.

...I am not opposed to open housing per se.

...It's a sad commentary, but we haven't gotten to the point where the haves are willing to give to the have nots.

Stempien...

...We have no spending reform in Michigan and we never have had and it's about time we started.

...The Alabama governor may take as high as 20-percent of the vote in the 35th District.

...When an incumbent says I cannot vote for something because I want to get re-elected he doesn't belong in office.

substantial portion of these people who will vote for Wallace are voting for racism or for repression of ideas or repression of freedom... In this particular area, in the 35th District, most of those people are saying, 'I've had enough, I've had enough of the national Democratic Party and I've had enough of the national Republican Party. I want to see someone get in there and make some changes!'

"My approach to George Wallace has been to ignore him, to ignore him as a person but to fight against his principles, and to fight against his principles in a constructive way. In other words, I don't say that I disagree with his principles on law and order, but I say that I, too, am for law and order and I have taken a very definite stand on that issue of law and order and justice and however else you want to put it in colloquial terms. And I'm trying to say in a constructive way that there are things that can be done in terms of order in our society, in respect for law, etc., but it begins at the lowest levels, it begins in the party, in our schools, in our legislature etc."

Concerning "law and order", Stempien said the problem of crime must be attacked in two ways:

"The answer to society's need to prevent crime obviously lies in the general area of people having respect for law and having a desire to obey the law. Our free society has always been based on the philosophy that people obey the law because they want to obey the law, not because a repressionist police group, whether it be a department or the government in general, is holding them in check. So we have to work primarily in the area of improving attitudes of people toward law, toward order in our society. We can't, on the other hand, ignore the need to punish criminals and to impress upon people when they disobey the law that there is a penalty for it. So you're dealing with a problem that involves long term social need, that is correcting people's attitude about law, and probably some short-term procedural problems with regards to enforcement of the law.

Now the thing that we can work on immediately is the area of enforcement of the law, particularly administrative type of problems."

An example of an "administrative" problem, said Stempien, is keeping driver's license records straight in the department of state and enforcement of these records. "You give the secretary of state a real tough, good, workable law to keep drivers off the road that have too many points or have been convicted of drunk driving or whatever it may be and you don't give him the wherewithal to enforce it. He hasn't got the enforcement officers and he hasn't got the administrative help in Lansing. This you can lay right at the doorstep of the horse and buggy legislatures that have been up there for years."

Livonia, he said, voted a special tax for police purposes only. "And we have a fine department now because we have given them the extra money. But again you've had to go to the homeowner to put more taxes on his home to do it. Where was the legislature then?"

Stempien said there are "very few" new substantive laws that can be created to make some act a crime. "But I see daily things that we can do in terms of procedure and administration that are crying needs", and the legislature is the only body that can remedy the situation since "it has the taxing power to raise the funds to do the sort of job and because it is a state-wide problem, not a local problem. Actually, it is a national problem, but I have always been a strong believer in state's rights. I don't like to see Washington get into the act. I would rather stay away from that bureaucracy in Washington and let Michigan cure Michigan's problems. But they have to be cured on a state-wide basis."

Asked if he supported the state open housing bill, he said he was "not close enough" to the terms of the bill to approve or disapprove of it, but he said he did then and does now support the open occupancy concept.

"I, however, criticize very greatly the incumbent and his position in that he appeared before the Better Human Relations Council and told them that he wanted to get re-elected and therefore he could not support the bill. At least he could have taken a position that he disagreed with the bill or that it wasn't good for the community or that it wasn't properly drafted. But when an incumbent says I cannot vote for something because I want to get re-elected he doesn't belong in office."

35th District

The 35th Representative district in which incumbent Louis Schmidt and his Democratic challenger, Marvin Stempien, are running includes the Wayne County portion of the City of Northville, the Township of Northville, and the City of Livonia. Representative Clifford Smart and his Democratic challenger, William Todd — interviewed last week — are running for office in the 60th District, which includes the Oakland County portion of Northville, Novi, Wixom and Walled Lake.

there that one section of a bill that I introduced was taken practically in total and put into the state aid bill. Now there are a number of others, like water resources. I'm a co-sponsor on a bill with Lee Smit of Ann Arbor. And I could give you a number of others. In his list they did not give me credit except for a specific bill.

"I'm not saying that he did not have a lot more than perhaps I did, but I would say that some of these are a result of changes in the constitution. Others are not. But I don't think having a lot of bills is necessarily good or bad. You know every time we have a law passed you and I lose a little bit more of our freedom. So sometimes you have to be chary about what you do in terms of bills.

"Another thing on some of his bills... the votes on them were stupendous, a 100 to 0, 91 to 2, 89 to 1, 93 to 0. Now most of those I was involved in are controversial."

In the field of education, Schmidt said his experience is much greater than that of his opponent. I have 33 years experience in administration, I am conversant with budgets, and undoubtedly, in all fairness and I hope not in vanity, I am probably as well versed in education, with the exception of one other legislator in the present House of Representatives," he said.

What are his chances of winning? "I think I'll win the election. I think it will be close; it will be a tight situation. I think, perhaps, in some key precincts in Livonia which have been predominately Democratic for years and years and years, I'll have problems and I'll probably lose the precincts. But I would say that on the overall I think I'll take over half the precincts in the city of Livonia, and I feel reasonably sure that I'll take the precincts in Northville and Northville township."

Although he does not see crime prevention as the number one priority in Northville and Livonia, he does see it as of vital importance to the state as a whole. He suggested that improvements in probation procedures and greater rehabilitation work among juveniles as two ways of hitting the rise in crime.

"There are too few of these courts that have existed below the circuit court that have had any type of probation department. As you know Northville has a probation department and Livonia has a probation department, and I was responsible for the amendment in the court reorganization bill which retained the right to have a probation department. But we need more of this kind of thing to deal with these people.

"Now it's true in regard to juveniles that we have a problem as far as facilities are concerned. This is one of the reasons why I have been advocating, along with others, the establishment of some facility in western Wayne County. Just putting these kids through the front door of a juvenile home, let them stay overnight and then go out the next morning doesn't make any sense. There's no opportunity to work with them."

While advocating more extensive probation departments, he nevertheless indicated that greater use of the state's penal institutions for adults should be made. He said there is little truth to the argument that most prisons, such as Southern Michigan at Jackson, are overcrowded. Actually, the number of inmates in some of these institutions "are going down. I think punishment should be for rehabilitation but sometimes there has to be a penalty involved and there has to be some protection for you, your kids and mine," he said.

Stricter gun controls are another means of combatting crime, said Schmidt. Specifically, he suggested a more definitive law spelling out the crime and establishing appropriate punishment for carrying a concealed weapon.

Financing of education poses some of the toughest local problems to this area — particularly among newly married couples "just getting started" and among the retired. School taxes based on property is unfair, he said, and for that reason he has advocated changes. "In fact I advocated, in terms of the income tax, that we try to waive 50-percent of the property tax. Well I didn't get too far in the caucus, I'll admit that. The best some of us diehards could get was 20 percent."

"I think the legislature should assume a greater role in the education of children. This means not another tax on top of tax but a redistribution of the tax as it is today. There are some districts that, because they have $300,000 back of each child, they levy one mill and get $300. Northville levies one mill and they get $16. It's a sad commentary but we haven't gotten to the point where the haves are willing to give to the have nots. The haves want to hang on to what they've got and they want some more, too."

Although he said he was successful in getting a significant change in the present act to aid those districts with greater need and more especially those districts with very low values behind their children, he said more changes are needed. "I hope we can come to something that some of us have been working on, and that is a base program of so many dollars no matter where the kids go to school — a realistic base and not as we now have it in the state aid formula. And then if the district wants certain other things that's their responsibility."

Despite the fact that he and other "school minded" lawmakers contend the tax structure must be immediately altered to help provide more money for education, Schmidt said the change is not likely to occur overnight. "We don't have quite the number (pro-school legislators) that we need to get the legislation that we would like."

Turning to the candidacy of Governor George Wallace, Schmidt said it offers little threat to his own candidacy. "I know there are a number of people in Livonia and in Northville who will vote for Wallace. At least they say they will. But whether they do when they get behind that curtain is another thing. I've had people who say, 'will it make any difference to you if I put a Wallace sign in the window along side yours'. My only answer is I don't own their house. I can't tell them what to do in their own home. If I had my rathers, I'd rather they didn't have it on a wall next to mine because I couldn't vote for the guy under any condition. He's too much against the things that I have believed in — terms of good, common decency, in terms of rights of people. You should go to Alabama if you want to see what progress he's made."

Schmidt, who originally fought for a change in the proposed state open housing law, was asked why he didn't vote on the matter when it came up for a vote.

"I am not opposed to open housing per se. I am opposed to giving the right to the Civil Rights Commission in making the rules, judging the rules and then making the decision on their own rules. I felt right from the beginning that what should happen is that the court should be allowed into the picture if the person wanted the court to come in. I am a little bit tired of government by agencies for which no one has any control. And as fine as the Civil Rights Commission may be I don't care to give them any more rights than I would somebody else because every time you give it to an agency you take it away from the legislature and it's a hard job in getting it back."

Nevertheless, Schmidt said he favored the bill that was passed even though he didn't vote on it. "I fought for one amendment all the way through and that was that the Civil Rights Commission in its investigation couldn't do it purely for the purpose of harrasing the guy who was being charged. Unfortunately, the day the bill came up for final vote I wasn't there. Bill Hampton put in the amendment for me. It was one of the few days that I missed and that was the day my mother passed away so I couldn't be there. I would have supported it."

Concerning absentism, Schmidt said he missed "only four days in the two years that I was there (in legislative session) but my opponent missed at least 11 if not more. I was late once and I think he was late about 14 times. I missed 74 roll calls, he missed 370. I missed three committee meetings out of 117, and in two of those I was involved in meetings away from Lansing that were tied in with the committee. He missed about 19 committee meetings. Now he says he's interested in education. There were 40 meetings in the two years and he missed 13 of them."

"I felt when I was elected that I had sort of solemnly promised the people to represent them and I intended to so while I am there. And I say this, not smidely, I don't have my law practice to worry about back in Livonia. Now is the thing is that they want a part-time legislator again that's their problem."

Referring to his role in the legislature, Schmidt said "by in large I was probably on more vital committees (including education) than most any other legislator where there was a lot of work involved — again, I'm sure, that's because they knew I was available full time."

"I think I am charged with a responsibility. I think the people in education would look to me to try to do something in that area."

What difference does it make if citizens elect a Democrat who favors more educational aid or a Republican who favors more educational aid?

"Put it on the basis of strictly the name of the game, Politics. I don't think there is any question that the Republicans will have the majority. They've got the majority in the Senate, there's no question about it. And I don't think there is any question that they're going to have the majority in the House of Representatives."

"In the name of simple politics, two years ago when the Democrats were in charge the Republicans had practically no chance at all because there were 73 Democrats and 37 Republicans. Now they are not going to give us much show to someone on the other team."

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Drug abuse among school age youngsters has become a source of such concern to Probate Judge Eugene Arthur Moore of Oakland county that he has written a letter on the subject to all school superintendents of the county.

"It is time for a concentrated effort of strict law enforcement, parental training and co-operation and proper education by all concerned citizens to combat the very serious drug abuse problem," states Judge Moore.

He points out that three years ago drug abuse was unknown in his court. "Now weekly in court we hear cases involving sexual promiscuity, emotional problems, behavioral conflicts, and law violations that are in part related to drug abuse."

Judge Moore notes that the incidence of drug abuse among youngsters appearing in his court has increased from nearly non-existence three years ago to 35 cases last year and 41 already this year.

"I feel that the schools can play an active part in preventing drug abuse by engaging in a comprehensive educational program for students and parents alike. While some youngsters will still continue to use drugs illegally, even after hearing about the possible harm caused therefrom, I feel the majority if confronted with the possible end results will not become involved," says Judge Moore.

The important thing for Northville- Novi-Wixom area parents to keep in mind is that we are not talking about a survey taken in some far-away, under-privileged, low-income community. We're looking at statistics involving our youngsters.

Northville Police Chief Samuel Elkins estimates there are "15 or 20" youngsters in the Northville public school system involved in the illegal use of drugs.

While Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole thinks the number is "zero" in the Novi system, he points out that there are "nine or 10 youngsters" who reside or "hang around" Novi and attend the Walled Lake public schools who are using drugs.

Chief Elkins believes an educational program would help, although he admits there is another school of thought that contends educational programs create curiosity and increase experimental usage.

One of the new dangers of youngsters "getting kicks" from using marijuana was noted by Chief Elkins. He says the professional pushers are now believed to be mixing small amounts of opium with marijuana to hook their customers.

And, adds Chief BeGole, "marijuana is never enough... it always leads to bigger thrills."

Statistics from the Public Health Service Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky reveal that of the more than 2,000 addicts treated there, 74 per cent began with marijuana.

Our courts and our law enforcement officers are concerned and they are warning us.

We can... in our homes... and in our schools, if we choose... conduct a program of preventative action.

It's a good bet that someone, sometime is going to challenge one of our youngsters "not to be chicken" and introduce them to the thrill of smoking pot.

It's up to us to tell them what follows the thrills.

The 177th annual edition of "The Old Farmer's Almanac" arrived at my desk today.

It's weather forecast for the winter of 1968-69 states: "a mild winter in the east but a cold and snowy one from Chicago on out west... March and April will be raw, uncomfortable, unseasonable, disagreeable, and definitely the months to be away in. In fact, the one really big storm of the Winter may be the one during the last week of April."

Back empty-handed Sunday from the North where annually my friends and I play Robinhood, I was greeted with the usual family guffaws and the perennial report - "Did you hear, someone with a bow shot an eight-point buck over by Brighton."

And, "The deer are never safer than when you're in the woods."

It's at times like those that I relish Jackie Gleason's favorite line, "One of these days! Pow! You're going to the moon."

Rather than repeat the result of this 13th annual hunt, I prefer to recall a supposedly true story told in our deer camp last weekend:

A farmer, harassed by hunters who continually took potshots at his cows, horses and sheep, was so exasperated by the stupidity of the hunters that he painted signs on the sides of his animals "This is a cow", "This is a horse", and "This is a sheep."

His unusual maneuver worked, too. The animals survived the hunting season. But some wise guy spoiled it all by shooting a hole in the side of his John Deere tractor.

Ex-Student Blasts School Board 'Fable'

To the Editor:

After reading the Sept. 26th and Oct. 3rd issues of the Record, a paradoxical situation became quite apparent. Headlines read, Citizens seek Donations For School Activities (Sept. 26), Administrators Get Pay Hikes (Sept. 26) and NPSD Clears First Hurdle: School Reinstates Some Activities (Oct. 3rd). Being a junior at MSU probably lessens my ethos with the older set, but I have a few questions to ask.

A few months ago the Board printed the proposed budget cuts that would be necessary if the millage failed. I remember remarking that the biggest cuts came from the students in the form of extra-curricular activities. The smallest cut came in the administrative costs (i.e. superintendent and principal salaries) because these men could get more some other place and would leave our school system. Through the Administration and Board's viewpoint the proposed cuts toward the students activities seemed like an effective bargaining tool. The Board seemed willing to gamble on the premise that Northville would not dare deny the students extra-curriculars. The citizens never had faltered in their commitment to the school in the past and it was worth a gamble. The sad fact remains, the citizens threw the Board a curve by defeating the millage three times. Prefaced with a brief statement of deep regret Mr. Spear outlined the "necessary cuts," selective pruning.

The discussion concerning the teachers contracts and administrative raises seemed incongruent with the mandate dictated by the three consecutive millage defeats. Are Mr. Orphan and Mr. Martin the only men on the Board who felt this civic responsibility toward the taxpayers who elected them. The citizens of Northville want economy in the school system. On the issue of teacher contracts Mr. Martin was quoted as saying, "we were almost stampeded into it. I didn't like it then and I don't like it now." He was referring to the fact-finders pressures. He went on to say, "I cannot rationalize an increase of 15%. It's an unrealistic approach." Apparently the other members of the Board saw these raises to teachers and administrators in a different light. Mr. Orphan questioned Mr. Spear as to where the additional monies to cover these raises would come from. The deficit Mr. Spear said, "Will be erased with further cuts in the program estimated at $30,000 to $36,000. Which part of the program will get the ax' now? The teachers have their contract, the administrators got their raises (amounting to $18,805) the students? Sorry, but they've already been scorched. For example have you attended one of the football games this year? I have, it was quite an experience. You really must - in fact, all the teachers and administrators who haven't gone to a game ought to. The one I saw was a farce. I understand things are better now. The band played and the cheerleaders performed at Parents night last Friday. Bravo! I picked the wrong night - I guess. In the future please announce the program for returning home alumni. The unlined field, lacking yard markers, graced with no cheerleaders or performing band at half-time was immaterial. The real thrill came when the Mustangs burst onto the field amidst the deafening yawns of sleepy fans who had sat thru an empty half-time chatting with friends, discussing school problems or just watching the younger set whose eyes stared blankly at the well lit void before them. Standing on those hallowed grounds a surge of emotion swelled up within me. Arriving home a handy Bromo helped curb this feeling. This was a night to remember.

The millage failed three times, the Board approved an "increase of 15-percent" for the teachers and $18,805 for the administrators. In regards to the apparent deficits Mr.

Orphan asked a logical question it seemed to me; namely where does this new money come from? As a youngster I remember a fable about a mystical old man who could take plan, everyday pies and increase their size with his secret power. Not much of a story but some fables never are. As a kid though I thought this was a neat trick. The Board would like to keep the teachers well paid and contented, the administrators satisfied, the students appeased, and the citizens happy. Unreal, imponderable, absurd? Yes. The pie the Board is working with isn't that big and never will be. It seems that

Mr. Spear and the Board have a couple of options, either keep within their budget or search for that mystical old man who could multiply the Board's financial pie into a more favorable size! Which will it be?

Urges Support of School System

To the Editor:

We in Northville are fortunate to have a fine school system. We have a group of intelligent men as members of the Board of Education. All of them contribute considerable time and effort to the maintenance of the best educational program possible and have a real concern for controlling costs. Naturally there are varying opinions among the members concerning programs and finances but this is a healthy condition and assures full consideration of all sides of the issues. I find that I question decisions made by the board but upon close examination of all of the factors involved find that they are well considered decisions.

It is my observation that the administrative staff is a dedicated staff striving to provide the best educational system possible for our community. As administrators they stack up with the best in the business. Certainly they cannot be held accountable for curtailment of school activities when funds are not available. Within the funds available it appears that they are placing the emphasis on the most important aspects of education. As career men in their field they continually endeavor to gain the best rating possible for our school and community.

In addition to our school board and administrative staff we have a sizeable staff of professional teachers. It has been our personal experience that they do a fine job. They have dedicated themselves to the field of education and some rank with the best in their field in the country.

The school board announced that we would have a $30,000 deficit based on funds available. The increase in state aid in the amount of $20,000 will aid substantially in reducing this deficit. Nevertheless the School District is about $100,000 short of funds necessary to provide a complete program this year. If the NSPD Fund Raising drive fails the activities reinstated in the past week or so will again be curtailed.

There now exists a two year agreement with the teachers which provides salaries which are justified in relationship with other school districts. With a two year agreement it will be possible to better estimate the school budget in the next school year and hopefully sufficient funds will be provided through millage elections and state aid to sustain our educational system. However, there are no funds to maintain the programs this year and if the drive fails the programs will be lost for one full year which can never be recovered.

'Will to Win'

Dear Citizens of Northville,

Running through a recent newspaper article, I noticed a quote from the late Robert F. Kennedy. It stated, "Consider for a moment what we achieve from athletics... the sheer fun of playing... the building of a healthy and alert mind... stamina, courage, unselfishness and, most importantly, perhaps - the will to win."

Consider this statement, and I am sure that you, the citizens of Northville, will make it your responsibility to support our activities. Support N.P.S.D.

On the basis of the above considerations I have made a decision to contribute to the fund drive. As one of the slightly over 1,000 citizens who voted for the millage increase I feel that even though in the minority I am agreeable, this one year only, to making a contribution. It seems to me we should now all pull together to continue to strengthen the Northville School System.

Pay Hikes Draw Fire

To the Editor:

Apparently no person has written in to protest the "Pay Hikes of the Administrators" that was written up in your newspaper in the September 26th issue.

I don't understand how the School Board, in good conscience, could allow these administrators to make this terrific amount of money. I can't go along with their flimsy reason. I didn't mind the teachers getting a raise since they have to have a living wage. But why is it necessary to give such huge salaries to the administrators?

If the Northville School System is in trouble this year, I believe it's going to be in even more trouble next year. Does the Board of Education think the people are going to pass any millage next year when they see in which manner our money is being spent. I, for one, did vote for the millage this year but am doubtful about next year.

By ROLLY PETERSON

The cards are, in a sense, stacked against any director who attempts to stage "Hamlet." Since Shakespeare's masterpiece enjoys widespread popularity, the audience is constantly making critical comparisons with previous productions. Yet, no matter how often it is staged, the play represents a serious challenge to the most sensitive and imaginative director because the indecisive Dane is truly an enigmatic character.

Despite the handicap, however, Ellis Rabb's production of "Hamlet" comes off with élan at the Lydia Mendelsohn Theatre in Ann Arbor. It is the APA Repertory Company's second production, and plays through Sunday.

The moving force, of course, is Hamlet, played last Thursday by Marco St. John. His was a refreshing performance. Rather than the ponderous figure of a 30ish Hamlet with a 50-year-old outlook, Mr. St. John escaped the usual mold and presented a youthful Hamlet.

It was an amazing transformation to watch. Suddenly, the man of many moods, the man whose actions are almost inexplicable, if not contradictory, springs to life in a different light.

Here is a Hamlet, voluble, almost feverish at times, whose moods range from the mournful sadness to manic exhilaration, from warm adoration to cold hate. Here is a Hamlet whose moods are understandable because of his youthful disposition, his juvenile tendency to waver between mental extremes.

Because of Hamlet's omnipresence, it's difficult to overshadow him. But three people in particular nearly reach that pinnacle. They are Richard Woods as Polonius, Amy Levitt as Ophelia and Drew Synder as Horatio. As one woman in the theatre said, "That's exactly how I pictured Polonius." And Miss Levitt and Mr. Synder in their roles were every inch the characters Shakespeare intended.

But that's only half of the APA transformation. The appearance of the actors in early 19th century dress give the play a near-contemporary air and make it more relevant. The division of the play into two extended acts give it a heightened tragic effect because inexorable string of fate is not broken by intermissions.

Elaborate settings are cast aside, too, and in lieu of substituted a single, stark setting, conceived in the tragic manner. The only props on the stage are two coffin-like benches. Behind them is a three-part, black curtain, and behind the curtain, a massive stone wall that reaches to the sky.

The setting is a master stroke, conveying the distinct impression of confinement, coldness, and evil. This is Denmark with the black clock of tragedy pervading every inch of it.

But all isn't perfection in Denmark. The most damaging aspect is the voice of King Hamlet's ghost. Disconcerting the lips of the disembodied spirit do not move, yet the words emanate from two giant amplifiers, one on each side of the stage.

Apparently, the audience is to suspend its disbelief and understand that the voice is god-like in origin. But it doesn't come off, despite the fact that the ghost's costume and movements give it a convincing unearthly appearance.

It's a small, nagging imperfection, not to be overlooked, but hardly of significant proportions to detract from an otherwise splendid performance. In this production, Rabb comes up with a fist full of aces.

innocent parked car behind the police station. Apparently, as in the Windy City, the press is fair game. He clobbered The Novi News reporter's car.

If you happen to spy a red-faced gal slinking about the town don't be surprised. It's just an embarrassed friend of mine who until a few days ago was bragging about the "great bargain" she picked up down the street.

Michigan Mirror

Most College Students Prefer Orderly Changes

LANSING — Campus demonstrators make the news. But the majority of students, even those who want more academic freedom, would rather have orderly change, believes Dr. Milton B. Dickerson, Michigan State University vice president for student affairs.

Such committees at MSU, Dickerson notes, helped solve many student-administration problems. They have developed effective channels of communication and provided the means for student representation in university policy-making.

An academic freedom report is the "blueprint" which spells out the process for altering rules and regulations at MSU. It was developed in 1966, shortly after "the Berkeley incident," but long before student protests became prevalent, Dickerson points out.

Requested by MSU president John A. Hannah, the freedom report was hammered out by eight subcommittees working in four general areas: academic rights; student records; "due process" in disciplinary problems; student publications. Two subcommittees, one composed of faculty members and one from student ranks, worked separately in each area.

Dickerson believes the freedom report somewhat parallels the U.S. Constitution and allows for a democratic process of change. For example, he cites former dress regulations imposed by the university during mealtimes. Student dissatisfaction arose over requirements for certain apparel when eating in dormitories. The policy was brought before ASMSU, the student governing body, with the recommendation that each unit set its own regulations. The recommendation was also approved by the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs and was sent to Dickerson for administrative action.

The recommended policy was adopted.

If the student group and faculty committee cannot agree on proposed changes, they break into subcommittees to "work things out," Dickerson states. He is quick to point out that this does not cause insurmountable problems. "Students are much more mature, more conservative and realistic than we are often led to believe," he says.

ANOTHER channel for orderly protest was established with the Office of Ombudsman. He is responsible only to the university president. Students who have individual complaints, feel they are caught in university "red tape," question procedures or "just have problems," find the ombudsman receptive and willing to investigate. Because of his freedom from "the system," Dickerson notes, the ombudsman can cut across traditional lines of authority to get answers for the student. He is counselor, advocate, and judge. He will support a student who has been justly wronged but will quickly withdraw if he finds the student has fabricated his story.

MSU was the first university in the U.S. to establish an ombudsman and one of the first to develop an academic freedom report. Some 20 universities now have ombudsmen and "thousands of copies" of the freedom report have been sent to colleges and universities across the country, Dickerson says.

Another step towards active student participation in university policy-making was taken last year when the by-laws of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs was amended to include student representation. This move is outside the design of the freedom report but is another step in giving students more voice in university affairs, Dickerson contends.

Incidents occur in spite of such programs. Last June, a demonstration erupted over arrests for violation of drug laws. Dickerson notes that "only a few of those arrested were students," and believes that some students will always disregard the law.

He feels that leaders of student militant groups use emotional appeals to whip students into active support of "causes."

"I think that they (militant leaders) subconsciously want to build a better atmosphere for learning... but they want to do it by tearing down everything as it now exists... believing that something good is bound to develop from the ruins. I just can't subscribe to that theory."

These types of programs undermine tactics used by activists and provide an orderly procedure to change rules and regulations.

Rule by consent is always best, Dickerson believes. "Bit by bit we're moving towards involving the student into areas formerly within only faculty and administrative jurisdiction," he concludes.

Robot Venders Gobble $4.5 Million

WELLESLEY HILLS, MASSACHUSETTS. Over the past couple of decades the automatic vending machine has developed into a robot controlling an impressive segment of big business. Just how great its significance was revealed at a recent convention in Philadelphia of the National Automatic Merchandising Association. The occasion drew approximately 9,000 delegates representing better than 6,000 vending service firms throughout the nation.

To those who may have assumed that the market for vending machines and the expansion of their use had reached the "glut" stage, figures from within the industry will come as a surprise. Total take in this field during 1967 reached a spectacular high of $4.5 billion. And the projection for the current year promises sales volume almost 9% higher, hoisting the dollar turnover for automatic merchandising devices to a new record of $4.9 billion.

Convention representatives of this thriving industry were especially optimistic about the future. About one-third of the concerns anticipate that within five years their sales volume will surpass present rates by 50%, a particularly rosy forecast in view of the wide selling base already established. Even more arresting, however, is the fact that one out of every five companies represented look for a sales advance of 100% during that span. Pessimists were almost nonexistent at the meeting.

MOST OF the business done by vending machines is concentrated in such lines as cigarettes, sandwiches, ice cream, milk, candy, chewing gum, soft drinks, and nuts. While discussion on the subject is still somewhat tentative, many insiders look for constant additions to the list of products machine-vendable. Planners for some department stores and discount houses, faced with steadily rising expenses, aim to test out the possibilities of machine-vending smaller items, clothing, kitchenware, appliances, etc.

For the present, though, surveys show that the quickest changes for the industry are likely to be involved with articles of food and methods of distributing them most efficiently. As the automatic-merchandiser operators have become larger, they have tended to run their own food kitchens rather than to buy from outside sources. This tendency will persist and become more prevalent, according to the surveys. In fact, close to one-half of the firms within the Association are currently turning out their food in their own commissaries, with still others expressing interest in this procedure.

ONE OF THE most striking revelations within the vending industry is the increasing reversion to non-machine techniques of selling and servicing. High on the list for development are more widespread regulation cafeterias and lunch counters. It should be noted, in fact, that some 35% of the vending-machine firms are already selling food by other than automatic-machine methods. Key emphasis for the future is "service" by whatever means. On the horizon, therefore, loom greatly extended tactics in truck catering and the letting out of concessions.

To save money, more and more of the smaller units are turning to the purchase of their convenience foods from concerns running their own output kitchens. Though the larger establishments are still somewhat divided, some purchasing their requirements and some running their own centralized commissaries, the trend is strongly in the latter direction.

Because of rising labor costs and other expense factors, the move toward consolidation of companies has gained speed. And this tendency will become stronger. Some executives in the field point to the inefficiency of workers as one of the worst drawbacks for the industry. Where profits are lagging, inept or indifferent personnel is often cited as the most telling cause. Hence, upgrading of hiring standards may well be a prime issue for the business in the years ahead.

Northville Public Schools Annual Report - 1967-68 School Year

Superintendent's Annual Report

October 1, 1968

This report is submitted in compliance with Michigan General School Laws for the purpose of informing the taxpayers of the Northville Public Schools, Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, regarding the educational program and receipts and expenditures of the District for the 1967-68 school year.

The District experienced a very good educational year during 1967-68 and is pleased to report a balanced budget to close out the year.

The 1967-68 school year established Mr. Eugene Cook as President of the Board of Education. Mr. Stanley Johnston was elected Board Vice President with Mr. Glenn Deibert, new member, as Secretary, and Mr. Richard Martin, newly elected, as Treasurer. The three trustee Board positions were filled by Mr. James Kipfer, who retired at the end of the 1967-68 school year, and Mr. Robert Froelich and Mr. Andrew Orphan, new member.

Board meetings were held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month during the school year. Due to the many problems confronting the District for the ensuing school year, many special meetings and work sessions were also held during the year.

The Board was extremely pleased that some of its many hours of extra work resulted in the securing of a new school site at no cost to the District. This represented a savings of approximately $50,000 to the taxpayers of Northville.

Other major projects of the Board during 1967-68 included:

1. Seeking of tax relief on the many acres of land in the District which is tax exempt.
2. Completion of the Building Program authorized in 1965.
3. District participation in the Fish Hatchery development.
4. A 6-year population projection and its resulting ramifications on facility and staff needs.
5. Establishment of a committee to study the feasibility of the Year-Round School Concept.
6. By vote of the electorate the School District was reclassified from a Fourth Class to a Third Class District.
7. Development of guidelines for the District's involvement in the development of all future housing within the District boundaries, including the acquisition of needed school sites.
8. The negotiating of a new agreement with the Northville Teachers Association and the Operating Engineers Union.
9. A program indicating the necessity for a 2-mill increase in operating taxes.
10. Initiation of new budgetary controls and procedures.
11. Also during this school year, the Board relocated its official offices from 107 South Wing Street to 405 West Main Street.

The administration of the District's program and activities was carried out under the direction of Raymond E. Spear, who was named Acting Superintendent in June of 1967 and appointed as Superintendent in October of the same year for a period of three years.

The Superintendent was assisted by Business Manager Earl T. Busard, who completed his first full year in this capacity in April.

In February, Miss Florence Panattoni was named to the position of Curriculum Coordinator to fill the position previously established as the Assistant Superintendent. The duties of the Curriculum Coordinator were designed to provide for a major focus on curriculum study and improvement rather than that of an administrative function. Administrative duties formerly held by the Assistant Superintendent are now being assumed by the Superintendent of Schools.

The individual school buildings were administered as follows:

Mr. Frederick Holdsworth served as High School Principal and Mr. David Longridge as Assistant Principal. Mr. Longridge replaced Mr. Horwath, who was assigned to the Amerman School Principalship in February due to the resignation of Mr. Robert Stafford, who accepted a position with the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Mr. Donald Van Ingen served as Junior High School Principal with Mr. Richard Norton assisting him on a half-time basis as Assistant Principal.

The three elementary schools were headed by Mr. Harry Smith, Main Street School Principal, Mr. Milton Jacobi, Moraine School Principal, and Mr. Robert Stafford and Mr. J. Ronald Horwath, Amerman School Principals for one semester each.

The teaching staff of the District increased by 17 new positions, which assisted the previous year's staff in carrying out a more well-rounded program designed to do a more effective job in meeting the needs of each individual student through program offerings and a reduced teacher/pupil ratio.

New positions established for the 1967-68 school year included:

- 5 Elementary Classroom Teachers
- 6 Junior and Senior High School Classroom Teachers
- 1 Remedial Reading Teacher
- 1 Instrumental Music Teacher (expanded from 1/2 time to full time)
- 1 Elementary Physical Education Teacher
- 1 Elementary Art Teacher
- 1 Elementary Music Teacher
- 1 Elementary Librarian
- 1 Half-time Junior High School Teacher and Half-time Assistant Junior High Principal

With the addition of these positions, the District employed a professional staff of 139 teachers.

The second Master Agreement between the District and the Northville Education Association was ratified during this school year. This Agreement, which resulted from many long hours of negotiations, provided salary increases for teachers which averaged $1074 per teacher, with a minimum raise of $735 and a maximum raise of $2413. The salary schedule established in this Agreement provided a beginning salary of $6150 per year for teachers with a B.A. Degree and $6650 for teachers with an M.A. Degree. Maximum salaries were established at $9545 for a B.A. Degree and $11,500 for an M.A. with 17 years of service. The average teacher's salary in 1967-68 was $7900.

The 1967-68 school year saw the school enrollment increase from 2666 pupils on D-Day in 1966 to 2690 pupils in 1967. However, our enrollment did reach 2752 pupils by the close of the school year.

Building facilities to accommodate our student population included the 17-room Amerman School; 19-room Main Street School, and the 17-room Moraine School.

Also available to our students in October of 1967 was the new Ida B. Cooke Junior High School with its 26 rooms, and the High School with its new facilities which provided for a total of 35 teaching stations. New High School facilities included five new classrooms, a new Materials Resource Center, a Language Laboratory, and a two-teacher teaching station Industrial Arts Laboratory. The major portion of the new $500,000 swimming pool was also completed during this school year.

The new facilities and increased teaching staff enabled the District to offer and maintain a teacher/pupil ratio of 26.4, which we feel assisted in carrying out a good educational year.

Our Extra-Curricular Program brought many honors to Northville during the 1967-68 school year. Some of these honors included:

1. All League Sports Trophy for overall sportsmanship and competitive record.
 2. Many college scholarships which resulted from both curricular and extra-curricular records.
 3. Regional Forensic Champions.
 4. Outstanding production of a Play and a Musical.
 5. Attendance of outstanding students at the National Model United Nations Assembly.
 6. Acceptance of two of our students in professional baseball.
 7. State Pole Vault Champion.
 8. Wayne-Oakland League Wrestling and Baseball Championships.
- Many other individual honors were also achieved as a direct result of this program.

All in all, the 1967-68 school year should go down in the record books as an excellent year.

Although the District faces a new school year which will experience curtailments from our 1967-68 program, the employees of the District will strive to make the program as full and complete as humanly possible.

The support and cooperation of the citizens of the District are encouraged, and are of the utmost importance if we are to continue to move forward in the task of providing a well-rounded education for the pupils of Northville.

Signed: Raymond E. Spear
