Dwight Steele's First Landing

Non-Flyer Lands After Pilot Dies

A Milford man who had never piloted a plane took over the controls when his brother-in-law suffered a fatal heart attack and landed a plane safely Saturday night in a Salem Township field.

Dwight Steele, 35, said he and his brother-in-law, David Wright, 38, had just taken off on a "pleasure ride" from the New Hudson airport when his brother-in-law suffered the heart attack.

Steele, who landed the plane at 5:20 p.m. on the Ed Porath's "Watercrest Farms" on Six Mile road, suffered only a bruise. He was taken to St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, examined, and released shortly thereafter.

"We weren't up more than a minute," Steele said, "when my brother-in-law fell over my shoulder. I grabbed the steering wheel and tried to operate it like an automobile."

"First, I spent a little time trying to wake the pilot up," he continued. "Then I tried to familiarize myself with the controls. It took quite a bit of time. In the process, I lost sight of the airport."

Unaware of his location and with dark coming on, Steele said, "I reached the conclusion that I would have to land. So I looked for a pasture or open field."

He anticipated a rough landing. "I was certain it wasn't going to be a smooth landing," the father of two young sons said. "I knew I was going to hit something."

But he held tight to the controls as the small Cessna 170 bounced to a halt against a wire fence on the Porath farm. Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies said the right wing tip and the landing gear were broken, the propeller was curled back and the windshield was cracked.

The Poraths who were home watching television at the time reported not hearing a thing. Notified of the accident, a local farmer called police.

"We were up in the air for an hour and one-half," Steele said. "I tried to ignore the seriousness of the problem and make the most of the situation. I thought when it happened that I was in serious trouble, but when I saw the plane wouldn't nose over I settled down to learning how to fly the plane."

Other than commercial flights as a passenger, Steele said he has never flown a plane before.

He explained that his brother-in-law, who was from Landenberg, Pennsylvania, was on a two-week vacation. He was visiting Dwight's brother, Keith, who lives in Lyon Township.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Phillips Funeral Home.

City Urged to Buy Church Property

A council-appointed committee advised the city Monday night to purchase the Dunlap street Methodist church property "at a fair market value."

The committee also recommended including the parsonage in the package. With the exception of one residence, the church owns all the property on the south side of Dunlap street between Wing and Center streets.

There's evidence that the offer, as proposed by the special study committee, may not be acceptable to the church body, however. It is known that one or more major oil companies have offered in excess of $100,000 for the church site and a vacant corner at Dunlap and Center owned by the church. The offer substantially exceeds the appraised value.

The site, located within the central business district, is not zoned for service station use, however, and there's little likelihood that the city's planning commission would consider rezoning.

A recent appraisal of the church site (not including the parsonage) places its raw land value at $60,000. The appraisal indicated that the property would be of most value to another church group. For this use the value was tabbed at $80,000. It was noted, however, that such sales are infrequent and that down payments are normally minimal.

In its report the committee suggested that two qualified appraisers should be retained to review the year-old appraisal. Because the city's intended use of the property would be as outlined in the master plan — for widening of Dunlap street, commercial development and parking — the appraisal price would be based chiefly upon the land value.

Legion to Serve Breakfast Monday

The recipe may be a secret but certainly not those tasty pancakes due to come off the griddles Monday morning on Veterans Day.

For the umpteenth time members of the American Legion Post 147 will stage their annual pancake and sausage breakfast from 5 to 10 p.m. at the Legion Hall, corner of Dunlap and Center Streets.

Further the committee recommended that the purchase agreement should include "an early cash payment of a large portion of the agreed price, with the balance due at such time that the main building was no longer needed for church purposes." In the interim, however, the vacant land would come under city control.

The council unanimously accepted the committee recommendation and authorized its own real estate sub-committee, composed of Mayor A. M. Allen, Councilman Del Black and City Manager Frank Ollendorff, to carry out the recommendations of the report.

The church property, excepting the parsonage at Wing and Dunlap, is now being offered for sale and is in the hands of a real estate agent.

George Clark served as chairman of the special committee. Other members were A. R. Clarke, Councilman Charles Lapham, William Sliger, Mayor Allen, George Zerbil and Manager Ollendorff.

Committee Named To Promote Area

Because its recommendations went beyond the proposed purchase of the Methodist church property, the committee headed by George Clark was given another assignment by the city council Monday night.

Specifically, the committee added the following two points to its church property purchase proposal:

—We recommend that the city council take immediate action to establish a public information campaign to let all citizens know what property is available and for what purposes. Specifically, we recommend that a meeting be held immediately with all appropriate local organizations and including all local realtors and brokers;

—We further recommend that the city council immediately begin an action program aimed at proper and speedy redevelopment as outlined in the master plan for the central business district, and attempt to involve other governmental bodies and civic groups

Anyway you look at it — from the presidential race down to local county supervisor battles — election 1968 has already laid claim to a page in history as a major political puzzle.

As The Record-News went to press Wednesday, more than 15 hours after the polls closed, Richard Nixon had been elected president by a razor thin margin, but other national, state and county partisan races were as scrambled as pre-election polls.

If there's one sure lesson to be learned from the results it is that voters are becoming less party oriented, splitting their tickets at all levels.

Generally, Republicans grabbed the edge locally with but few exceptions as voters turned out in record numbers.

*See page 8-A for a precinct-by-precinct tally of how Northville-Nowi-Wixom residents voted Tuesday.

Typical of the strange election results was the way two local incumbent congressmen, Republican Marvin Esch and Jack McDonald, swept to victory—while—Republican Representative Louis Schmidt lost out to Democrat Marvin Stempien, Northville city attorney, at the state level. Carl Pursell, Republican, candidate for the local Wayne County Supervisor post, defeated his Democratic opponent, Donald Friedrichs of Livonia — a community that tipped the scales for Democrat Stempien.

Particularly startling was the fact that Pursell grabbed one of only two Republican seats on the entire 26-member Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Despite Nixon's slim national victory, Michigan was giving Vice-President Hubert Humphrey a 48-percent to 42-percent edge, with Wallace picking up 10-percent of the state vote as opposed to the 14-percent he was holding nationally late Wednesday morning.

Nixon was the favorite of most local area voters, although Wixom gave Humphrey a slight edge.

In what is generally considered a Republican territory, Wixom Councilman Raymond Lahti, a Democrat, scored heavily but narrowly lost to Republican Lew Coy, also of Wixom, for the local Oakland County Supervisor post.

District vote totals for local area candidates were:

including the Northville Board of Education, Northville Township Board, Northville Area Economic Development Corporation and Northville Chamber of Commerce.

Committee Chairman Clark explained that few real estate agents are aware of the exact amount and location of land owned either by the city or economic development body within the central business district. He said the committee hoped an energetic campaign could be launched to promote proper development of the land.

He noted that the committee believed that the entire community should be interested in development of the commercial area, if only for tax benefits derived.

The council liked the idea and reappointed Clark chairman of the committee with the same members to begin work on the new project.

Clark promptly called his first meeting for Monday noon.

For the 19th Congressional seat, McDonald 103,094 and Gary Frink 74,624; 2nd Congressional seat (incomplete), Esch 20,120 and Wes Vivian 15,438; 35th Representative seat, Stempien 18,605 and Schmidt 15,872; 60th Representative, Smart 13,678 and Todd 8,269; 35th Wayne district court, Davis 6,837 and Healy 5,528; 52nd Oakland district court, Boyle 6,569 and Weick 5,615; 26th district Wayne County supervisor, Pursell 24,670 and Friedrichs 23,521; and 27th district Oakland County supervisor, Coy 5,601 and Lahti 5,451.

And with Michigan voters picking district judges for the first time in history, Dunbar Davis won over Thomas Healy in the Wayne County race, and Martin Oakland defeated John Weick handily in Oakland County.

Northville supported the Wayne County home rule charter proposition, but it lost county-wide thus nullifying all results of the charter commission races. And Oakland County voters approved that county's lone proposition, abolishing the coroner system in favor of a medical examiner.

In Oakland County only one Democrat won a county office. Democrat Thomas Plunkett edged his Republican opponent, Richard Kuhn, for the prosecutor's post. All Wayne County offices were won by Democrats.

In neighboring Salem Township, the liquor-by-the-glass proposition went down to defeat, 484-287. With returns incomplete, Floyd Taylor, Republican, was leading John Starwas, Democrat, by 515 votes in the race for supervisor of Washtenaw County's third district.

Three of the five state propositions appeared to have been approved, although one — Daylight Savings Time — was hanging on by a thread. Water pollution and recreation proposals appeared sure to win, while the graduated income tax and the dual office propositions were soundly defeated.

Northville Township and Novi Township Republican incumbents, of course, were returned to office by virtue of the fact that none were opposed. Peter Alcalá, Novi Democrat, was unopposed for the Novi Library Board.

Incumbent Representative Clifford Smart, a Walled Lake Republican, easily defeated his opponent, William Todd, who broke ranks with the Democratic Party to support Alabama's George Wallace. Somewhat surprisingly, however, Todd scored heavily in Novi, nearly winning the second precinct vote. He had 42-percent of the vote in total vote of both precincts.

Actually, Wallace picked up a lesser percentage in most local communities than he did on the national level. He had 13-percent in Novi, 18-percent in Wixom, 6-percent in the City of Northville, and 9-percent in Northville Township.

Nixon had 58-percent of the vote in Northville Township, 52-percent in the City of Northville, 44-percent in Novi, and 36-percent in Wixom.

Clerks and electionworkers in all area communities worked to the midnight hour Tuesday counting the heaviest balloting in history. Lines were reported throughout the day at most polls, but they were especially long in Novi's first precinct and Northville's third. In the latter, voters who were standing in line at the 8 p.m. close were casting ballots up to 9 p.m.

Because of the congestion in the community building — board of education office parking lots in Northville, police blocked off Cady Street so school buses could be loaded from that point at the close of classes Tuesday.

Here's the percentage of turnout locally in comparison with the 1964 presidential election.

City of Northville — Precinct 1, with 885 registered voters, 84.8-percent compared to 77-percent, Precinct 2, with 787 registered, 73.8-percent compared to 72-percent, Precinct 3, with 1,153 registered, 86.5-percent compared to 89-percent.

Township of Northville — Absentee ballots were not divided by precinct so only the combined percentage can be compared. With 2,114 registered, 87-percent cast ballots Tuesday compared to 88-percent in 1964. Thus the township edged the city in voting percentage — 87 percent to 82 percent.

Novi Township — Precinct 1, with 1,848 registered, 80-percent; Precinct 2, with 1,492 registered, 81-percent; four years ago 81-percent of the combined precinct registration turned out at the polls.

Wixom — With 829 registered voters, a 90-percent voter turnout was recorded as compared to 84-percent in 1964.

Ogilvie's Turn Again

It isn't official, but it's a good bet that Northville Municipal Judge Philip R. Ogilvie and City Attorney Marvin Stempien will complete a game of musical chairs come January 1.

Judge Ogilvie's job will be abolished when the new district court comes into being January 1. At the same time Stempien will be taking over as state representative in Northville's 35th District.

When Ogilvie was appointed municipal judge last year, Stempien was named to succeed Ogilvie as city attorney.

It now appears certain that the city council will ask Ogilvie to return to his old post as city attorney.

Canadian Trip Caps Plymouth Wedding

A wedding trip to Canada followed the double-ring ceremony in which Lorraine Carrie Sell became the bride of Mack Everet Harvey October 18 at Plymouth First Presbyterian Church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sell, former Northville residents now living in Livonia. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Irv Harvey of Farmington.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full, floor-length gown of white silk organza with a cathedral train. Beading edged the long sleeves and neckline. The beading motif was repeated on the train and was scattered over the bodice and skirt. A double crown of lace and pearls held her elbow-length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations surrounding an inserted corsage of white roses.

Terri Armstead, honor maid, wore a floor-length, Empire-waisted gown of yellow chiffon. The bodice, short bell sleeves and train were fashioned of matching yellow lace. Her matching headpiece was adorned with pearl embroidery.

Bridesmaids Linda Armstead and Sue Durham wore blue and pink gowns styled like the honor attendant's. They all carried floral cascades to match their gowns. All are from Northville.

Kathy Carson and Rhonda Harvey were flower girls in white floorlength gowns with inserts of pink and blue.

Don Harvey was his brother's best man. Ushers were Robert Harvey, another brother from Detroit, and Randy Brown of Northville. Clint Harvey, a nephew, was ring bearer.

For the candlelight ceremony and reception following for 150 guests at the VFW hall, Northville, the bride's mother wore a blue and silver brocade after-five dress with silver accessories. Mrs. Don Harvey represented the bridegroom's mother who was unable to attend because of illness. Both wore carnation corsages.

Out-of-town guests attended from Florida, Ohio and Indiana.

The newlyweds are making their home in Detroit.

Newcomers Party Set For Wednesday Evening

Deadline for reservations for the Newcomers Card Party being given by Northville Newcomers Club at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the Miles Standish room of the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth is this Sunday.

The committee emphasizes that all women new to the area as well as club members are invited to the card party. Only for women, the event was planned as an opportunity for women to get acquainted over a card game. The club regularly sponsors bridge interest group meetings, but planned this card party as a chance to play other games, if members prefer. Games. Prizes are planned. Coffee and dessert will be served.

Reservations at $1.75 should be mailed to Mrs. Keith Ehrenreich, 23215 Balcombe Drive, Novi. Co-chairman of the party with Mrs. Ehrenreich is Mrs. Joseph Petro.

Choir Pumps 'Organ Dinner'

Our Lady of Victory Choir is sponsoring a spaghetti dinner to be served from 4:30 to 9 p.m. this Saturday in the church social hall. The "Evening in Venice" Italian dinner is open to everyone in the community and is a benefit to help raise funds for a new organ for the church.

Menu for the complete spaghetti dinner includes rolls, salad and apple pie dessert. Tickets are available from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Cornelius Suddendorf, or at the door. They are $1.50 for adult portions and 75 cents for children. Youngsters under four years old are free.

A VICTORIAN ARRANGEMENT of dried flowers is exhibited by Marshall Engle, Greenfield Village florist and Henry Ford Museum floral arranger to Mrs. Francis Gazlay, Northville Woman's Club program chairman of the day, and Mrs. Blake Couse, president, right, at last Friday's club meeting.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

'PERMANENT BOUQUETS' of dried flowers — popular winter room brighteners in colonial days — are experiencing a renewed popularity today.

The hobby of dried flower arranging is mushrooming in our town as growing numbers of our residents have goldenrod and other wild flowers strung from attic rafters.

More than 100 members and guests of Northville Woman's Club turned out last Friday to hear an expert in this art, Marshall Engle, greenhouse supervisor and flower arranger for Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum.

They also heard a report from their Girls' State representative, Stacey Evans, daughter of club member Mrs. H. O. Evans. Stacey gave a very personal insight into the value and depth of her experience as she read from the diary she kept of her feelings as she unsuccessfully tried for the lieutenant governor's post at the mock session.

Creating a Victorian type arrangement of flowers "solidly placed" against a framework of goldenrod, the arranger pointed out that many colors can be combined in such a bouquet.

There's still time to dry such later flowers as chrysanthemums, Florist Engle said, but spring is the time to begin collecting.

Some tips for beginners:

—Dry everything as fast as possible — in a dark, dry place, such as an attic (basements are too damp.)

—Pick goldenrod when half open (it continues to develop after being cut), tie securely and hang upside down. Statice, backyard coxcomb and strawflowers all dry upside down.

—Use goldenrod, statice and other filler flowers for background rather than leaves, which have to be pressed in glycerin. He tries to use natural stems stripped of their foliage as much as possible.

—Don't "anchor" all the stems in your arrangement. They do not have to be inserted all the way into the base to stay.

Marshall Engle added that only in late Victorian times were flowers used on dining tables.

They previously were placed on sideboards with epergnes of fruit usually centering the table.

Among Northville women hearing the expert were several who now have flowers strung from rafters at home, including Mrs. John Begle, Mrs. William Crump and Mrs. Blake Couse, club president.

Mrs. Couse, who created flower arrangements to blend with room colors in her new home for last winter, agreed with Mr. Engle that the arrangements do not last "forever." They fade in about six months, but do provide bright spots of color in the dreary wintertime.

NORTHVILLE BRANCH of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association also is thinking about indoor flower arrangements.

Mrs. P. N. Ashounes, past Michigan state program chairman, will be guest speaker at the club meeting at 12:30 p.m. next Monday at the home of Mrs. Charles Walker, 21101 Cambridge Drive. She is to present a talk-demonstration, "Happy Holidays," showing arrangements for not only Thanksgiving and Christmas but for all seasons of the year. She will be introduced by Mrs. William Switzler, program chairman.

It is to be a guest day. Hostess chairman of the day is Mrs. H. J. Frogner, assisted by Mrs. John Burkman, Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. Eugene Guido.

A HOSPITAL TOUR has been arranged for members of the Northville State Hospital Auxiliary so that they may see and understand the many recent changes and improvements. Members will tour the facility with Mrs. Jean Bachelder, new volunteer services coordinator, at 11 a.m. next Tuesday following the regular monthly meeting at 10 a.m. in the auxiliary room.

Luncheon is to be served afterward in the Terrace Room. Members are asked to make reservations for luncheon by this Friday with Mrs. Chester Teasel, 349-3217. (In this day of soaring food costs, it's remarkable to note that the luncheon will "cost no more than 75 cents...")

Mrs. L. M. Eaton, auxiliary president, reminds that dues now are payable to the auxiliary's new treasurer, Mrs. Richard Stuber, 345 Orchard Drive. Mrs. Stuber, the former Elsa Couse, is following in the footsteps of her mother, Mrs. Walter Couse, in taking an active part in the auxiliary. She is replacing Mrs. Dewey Horning, a dedicated auxiliary volunteer who assumed the treasurer's post after serving as auxiliary president. Ill health has forced her retirement.

Ohio History Trip Revealed

Arrangements for a tour of the Wolcott Museum at Maumee, Ohio have been completed and reservations are now being accepted by the Northville Historical Society.

Members of the Society and interested citizens wishing to make the Saturday, November 23 chartered bus trip are urged to purchase their tickets immediately because of the limited number available.

Tickets for the round-trip are $3.75 each. They may be purchased at the Northville Record.

Purpose of trip and tour is two fold: it's a social outing for friends of the Society interested in history, and it gives local citizens an opportunity to explore the methods used by the Maumee Valley (Ohio) Historical Society in establishing the famous Wolcott Museum. The trip will take the place of the Northville Society's regular November meeting.

Northville Historical members, who for months have been collecting data concerning museums throughout the midwest, hope to establish a museum in Northville. Their immediate aim is to preserve the 125-year-old library building, now used as the Northville Township hall, for this purpose.

Officials of the Maumee society, besides giving Northville citizens a special tour of their facility, will explain how the Ohio group went about establishing their museum.

The Ohio museum is the former home of Judge Wolcott. A large structure, it was built about 1800. The Wolcott family, active in Ohio history, built the Toledo docks.

Persons making the trip are asked to bring box lunches for themselves since the bus will leave at 10:45 a.m. and not return until late Saturday afternoon.

The bus will leave Northville from the community building parking lot.

News Around Northville

Cindy Ann Masson of Northville is one of nine new pledges of the Kappa Iota sorority at Alma College.

Miss Masson, a senior at Alma, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Masson of 977 Novi Street.

A meeting of the Northville Senior Citizens Club will be held Tuesday in the Recreation-Scout Building beginning at 7:30 p.m.

"Meal Planning for Two" will be studied by the Northern Lites Family Living Study Group at the next meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Howard Atwood, 121 High Street. Mrs. Edward Mollema is co-hostess.

Presenting the lesson will be Mrs. Robert Gotts and Mrs. Harold Marks.

A cafeteria-style luncheon will be served from 11 30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today at the Holly Mart Bazaar of the Northville United Methodist Church. The Holly Mart will be open from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.

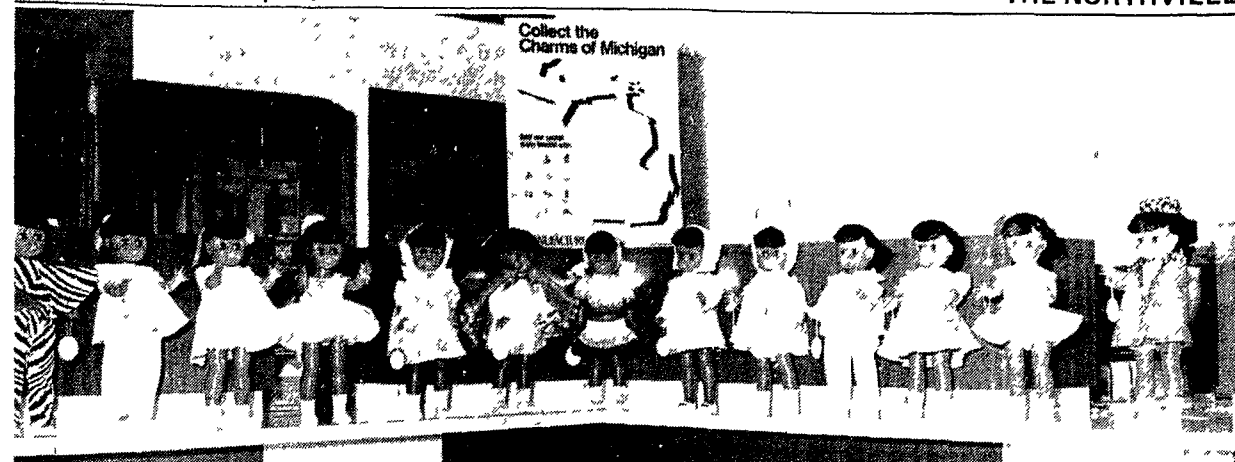

A casserole main dish and salad will be served with cake and pie for lunch. There also will be hot dogs for children.

Booths at the Holly Mart will be filled with decorations for the Christmas season as well as gift items. They include stuffed, handmade toys, linens, aprons, baked goods, candy, a post office booth with surprise packages from other places and a booth of miscellaneous goodies. Mrs. William L. Brown, chairman, invites everyone in the community to attend.

Northville's annual Girl Scout uniform exchange will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, November 16, in the Scout-recreation building on Cady Street.

Anyone with unwanted uniforms is asked to take them to Mrs. Robert Hilton, 43785 Doris Court. For additional information she may be called, 349-0583.

The exchange is a Scout service project which provides the various types of uniforms at nominal cost.

DOLLS FOR CHRISTMAS—These dozen dolls will be distributed by the Detroit Goodfellows at Christmas. They have been dressed by tellers of the Northville Manufacturers National Bank and will be sent to Detroit December 1, joining 500 others. The dolls are purchased with funds from the Old Newsboys Collection.

Announce Engagements

KATHLEEN JO KRINGS

A winter wedding is being planned by Kathleen Jo Krings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Krings of Schenectady, New York, who announce her engagement to Robert W. Van Hellemont, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Van Hellemont, 41750 Six Mile Road.

The bride-elect, an alumna of Mohoasen High School, Schenectady, expects to receive her BA degree in elementary education from the University of Michigan in December.

Her fiancé, a Northville high school graduate, received his BA in Economics in June from the U of M, where he was a member of Theta Xi fraternity. He presently is employed as contract administrator at Defense Contract Administration Services in Detroit.

NANCY ELLEN REUTER

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reuter, 41211 Llewellyn Drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ellen, to Kurt Brinker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brinker of Bad Axe, Michigan.

MARTINA CLAIRE BURNS

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Burns of Detroit announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Martina Claire, to John Bertoni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Bertoni, 40640 East Eight Mile Road.

Miss Burns is a graduate of Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, and received her master's degree at the University of Michigan this year. She is a member of Chi Omega, Mortar Board and Sigma Alpha Eta. Her fiancé is a graduate in the honors program of Xavier University, Cincinnati, and now is a medical student at the U. of M.

They will be married December 28 in Gesu Church in Detroit.

BONNYE BELL BRADFORD

Announcement is made this week of the engagement of Bonny Bell Bradford to Kenneth W. Woods. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. George N. Bradford, 211 West Dunlap Street, and the late Mr. Bradford. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Woods of Essexville, Michigan.

Miss Bradford is a 1966 graduate of Northville High School. The couple attends Michigan State University. A March wedding is planned.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Rebecca, was born Monday to Record Editor and Mrs. Jack W. Hoffman, 573 Langfield, at St. Mary Hospital. She weighed six pounds, fourteen ounces.

She joins three sisters, Deborah, Mary and Jennifer, and two brothers, James and Joel, at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Musselman, of Plymouth, announce the birth of a daughter, Candace Lynn, on October 22 at Botsford Hospital. The baby weighed six pounds, fifteen ounces.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bogart, 221 Lake Street, and Mrs. Vivian Musselman, 984 Allen Drive.

PTA Plans Told Here

The elementary reading program in Northville schools will be explained at a joint meeting of Moraine and Main Street parents sponsored by the schools' PTAs at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 13, in the Moraine multipurpose room.

Mrs. Joseph Petrock, elementary reading specialist, and teachers from different elementary grade levels will outline what a child is expected to accomplish by steps through fifth grade. Enrichment, basic and high interest-low vocabulary programs being used at each grade level will be explained.

The PTA program exploring one basic elementary subject continues a series begun last year by Milton Jacobi, Moraine principal, who earlier developed a special PTA program on the new math.

Mrs. Edward Kelly, Moraine PTA president, and Mrs. Keith Wright, Main Street PTA president, urge all mothers — and fathers who can come — to attend the study meeting.

Mothers of Main Street PTA will serve refreshments.

An annual feature of the Northville High School open house at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday will be a "capsule day" with parents following their children's schedules and spending 10 minutes in each classroom where the teachers briefly will outline the programs for the year.

For parents who would like more time to see the school facilities, including the new pool, and to visit classes in regular session, Principal Fred Holdsworth has issued an open invitation to drop in at the school any time during the school day next Tuesday.

Nurse to Talk On 'Vets' Day

An Armistice Day (or Veterans Day) program will be presented at the November meeting of Alpha Nu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma to be held at 7:30 p.m., Monday, November 11, at the home of Miss Julia Holmes, 114 West Street.

It will be conducted by Miss Ruth Knapp, who served as a nurse with the United States Army during World War I. All members are asked to attend.

On Saturday, October 19, five Alpha Nu members visited the Beta Iota Chapter in West Branch. Miss Florence Keith, Miss Myrth Gooding, Miss Ione Palmer and Mrs. Leona Theeke joined Miss Ada Fritz of Rose City to attend the professional teaching society meeting.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Mrs. May F. Smock, member of the families for whom Smock and Fry roads in Northville Township were named, celebrated her 96th birthday as friends gathered for a surprise party Monday at Whitehall Convalescent Home where she resides. Born November 4, 1872 in Northville, Mrs. Smock's maiden name was Fry. Her parents and the family of her husband owned the two large farms from which the Seven Mile Road subdivision was carved. A former Northville teacher, she gave her friends this philosophical reminder Sunday: "Blessed is Nothing, because if you have nothing you have no problems."

1-Card of Thanks

My sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors, who sent cards to me, and for the many acts of kindness to my wife, during my stay in the hospital.

Victor E. Kingsley H45

I wish to thank all my relatives and friends for the many cards and acts of kindness extended to Dora and me while I was in the hospital.

Claude Swift H45

1-Card of Thanks

The family of Mrs. Dee Murphy of 459 Hill Street wish to express their gratitude for the help and sympathy extended by friends and neighbors in Northville following Mrs. Murphy's death.

We would like to express our deep gratitude to all who comforted us during our bereavement. To those who sent food, flowers and cards. Special thanks to Rev. Branstner, Castlerlines, Whitehall, Dr. Westerstrom and the ladies of the Methodist church.

We wish to extend our thanks and deep appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown our husband and father, George Webb during his illness and death. A special thanks to the Wixom Ford Motor Co., and employees, Blue Star Mothers of Novi, Novi Rebekahs, The Milan Baptist Church, all our friends and the Thayer Memorial Home in Farmington.

The George Webb Family

The family of Paul Clark wish to thank everyone for their many thoughtful gifts and kind remembrances during the recent bereavement over the death of their mother, Mrs. Regina Hirschfeld.

Paul & Irene Clark
Laura & Richard Thorp
Hermina Hirschfeld
L. J. & Magdalene Tafel
Harry & Pat Kimmel & Children H45

A warm thank you to all of my friends and relatives for the many cards, inquiries and visits during my stay in the hospital. My appreciation and thanks to the VFW and Auxiliary for the flowers and fruit.

SCOTT BUTLER HAS HELP IN MAKING KEY RECOVERY

Defeat Trojans, 20-0

Mustangs Win Football Finale

CLARENCEVILLE — Three key fumbles revitalized a sputtering Mustang offense Friday night and helped force Clarenceville to keep the Vinegar Barrel for another year.

The Trojans began their giveaway program near the end of the third quarter and Northville capitalized for all of the touchdowns in its 20-0 victory by the middle of the final stanza.

Dave Brandemuhl, the fine and versatile Trojan back, treated his guests to the ball when he missed Fullback Bill Wagner with a handoff which Fred Hicks alertly grabbed.

Brandemuhl continued the post-Halloween handouts by fumbling on the Trojans' next series when he was hit trying to pass. Scott Butler pounced on this one.

Marc Sheffer's kickoff following the second touchdown was too hot for Chuck Kolodziejczak to handle and Butler claimed the loose ball for the Mustangs once more.

Only the first of these three bobbles was difficult to convert into paydirt as scrambling Quarterback Rich Adams was nearly nailed for a loss on fourth down when he spotted Fred Holdsworth standing in the end zone all alone and hit him with a nine yard strike.

Barry Deal socked home the two fourth quarter TD's on runs of four and 20 yards shortly after the recoveries deep in Clarenceville territory. The latter score by Deal came on a perfectly executed halfback Statue-of-Liberty as he ran away from the overshifted (strong side right) line and the flow of action with the ball on his hip, turned left end and scampered past the stunned defenders.

Terry Mills booted two of three conversion attempts to round out the scoring if not the action.

One note on the first half: both teams moved well between the twenties, neither beyond there.

It was overheard that the hot second half takeoff by the Mustangs was precipitated by a warming session during halftime, but whatever the reason, the Northville squad returned to the field with a vengeance.

The initial drive following the kickoff was enhanced by a beautiful third and 13 pass play from Adams to Holdsworth, good for a first down at the Clarenceville 45. Eight plays later, the Orange and Black had the pigskin at the hosts' eight yard line, fourth down and five for a first.

The Trojans held Deal to two yards, however, and took over the ball. Wagner and Brandemuhl moved it to the 19 in three carries, but Brandemuhl lost the elusive ball on his next try, setting up the Mustangs' icebreaking TD.

The next "setup" came much sooner in a Clarenceville drive as Butler recovered the ball on the Trojan 17 on the first play following Sheffer's kickoff

But It's Still Best Ever

Loss Mars Wildcats' 1968 Season

FLINT — Both teams showered the field with passes here Saturday night but St. Mary's aerial bombardment and umbrella defense proved more effective as the Flint eleven blanked Novi, 19-0, in the final game of the season.

Only its second loss of the season, Novi had sandwiched five impressive victories between the season opening defeat at Hartland and Saturday's shutout on Flint Atherton's gridiron.

Despite the season-ending loss to under-rated St. Mary, the Wildcats still managed to nail together its best win-loss record in the history of the young high school.

Unfortunately for Novi, St. Mary — which had started the season on the short end of several scores — picked Saturday to combine its best offensive and defensive performances. That, plus the fact St. Mary was bristling for a victory, proved to be the downfall of the high-riding Wildcats.

The St. Mary Wildcats waited until minutes before the intermission to uncork its first touchdown. Quarterback Ray Owens fired a pass to flanker Ron Prieur, who scooted in from the 10 for the TD. Another pass went wide of the mark on the try for the extra point.

Novi came back with six straight passes, moving from its 38 to the St. Mary 48, before the Flint squad intercepted to nip a budding threat. At the half, St. Mary was knocking on Novi's door again — this time inside the Wildcats' 20.

Forcing a Novi punt on the first series of the third quarter, St. Mary pushed to the Novi 12 where a fumble temporarily halted its touchdown drive. Halfback Jon VanWagner recovered the fumble, but on the first play from scrimmage Novi fumbled in a drive off tackle and St. Mary regained possession at the 17.

Two passes went incomplete — one resulting in a five-yard loss — and then Owens fired to his brother Dale, playing end, who scrambled into the endzone for the second TD. Once again the PAT attempt failed.

Novi recovered its own fumble on the kickoff but two plays later another fumble was scooped up by Roger Buchard and St. Mary launched its third and final touchdown drive.

A sweep around end failed to net Flint a single yard, but on the second play Owens fired a long one to his brother Dale who galloped to the Novi one before a Novi defender brought him down. Bill O'Conner dived over for the TD, and another Owens to Owens pass accounted for the extra point with just under three minutes to play in the quarter.

St. Mary's Ray Owens nipped another possible Novi threat just before the start of the final quarter by intercepting a pass at the 50 on the Wildcats' second down with eight to go.

Neither side was able to muster a sustained drive in the fourth quarter, although a fourth-down fake kick at the close of the game nearly netted St. Mary another touchdown.

On fourth down, 10 yards to go and nothing to lose, Gary Boyer faked a punt and was dropped for a four yard loss on the Novi 16. Then on the last play of the game, — St. Mary's first from scrimmage — a Flint pass was intercepted in the endzone.

Winter Recreation Draws Close Here

The Winter Recreation schedule for Northville is going into full swing and Director Robert Prom offers the following items as proof positive.

Swimming classes at the Northville High School Pool will begin the week of December 1.

Classes for women and girls will be held on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. at a cost of $6 for eight weeks. Twenty-five participants are needed to ensure the classes will be held.

The same financial and participant numbers are also in force for the men and boys class which will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Thursdays.

The Beginners Instructional Class will meet on Saturday mornings from 11:30 to 12:30 at $6 for eight weeks, but the required number of pupils will be 40.

Mail your registration checks to Northville Recreation Department, City Hall, Northville, Michigan, 48167 by November 20, Prom urged. If classes are cancelled due to an insufficient number or registrants, checks will be returned.

Plymouth Recreation Department is forming a Men's Basketball League and has extended team membership to Northville residents. Anyone interested is to call Prom at 349-2287.

Action will begin Saturday of next week in the fall and winter program of the Northville department in the high school gym. Following is the program schedule.

Kindergarten through second grade, 8:30 to 10:00 a.m.; third through fifth grades, 10:00 to 11:30 a.m.; sixth through eighth grades, 1 to 2:30 p.m.; and high school and young adults, 2:30 to 4:15 p.m.

Participants must be registered with the department at the following rates: Students, $1.25; adults, $2 for residents of Northville and Northville Township, and non-residents, $10. Those who were registered for the summer program need not register or pay an additional fee this year.

Sports included in the program will be basketball, floor hockey and other games.

Winners Repeat In Grid Contest

Two Plymouth residents, winners in the last football contest three weeks ago, won the two top prizes again last week — missing just two of the 16 listed games.

Virginia Gould of 42509 Parkhurst took first place by virtue of a more realistic score in the Los Angeles-Detroit game. The second place winner was Barbara Hoffman of 42350 Hammill.

Third place winner was Tom Hochkins of 105 East Base Line Road, who came up with three mistakes and was just 11 points off the real score in the Detroit-Los Angeles game.

Nine other persons submitted entries containing three misses but they were way off in guessing the professional game score. Nevertheless all nine of them correctly picked LA over Detroit.

The nine were Gordon Bunn, Byron Brown, Terry Hoffman, Larry Hoffman, Mrs. J. Rapp, Gary Holman, George Yee, Eddie Kritch, and Jim Anderson.

Contest judges gave one mistake to all entries since none correctly guessed the 7-7 tie between Washington and California.

Many of the contestants either let their emotions guide their thinking or they really felt an upset was in the making because they picked Michigan State to win over front-running Ohio State.

Most correctly guessed Michigan's win over Northwestern and Northville's triumph over Clarenceville. But Novi's loss to Flint St. Mary caught many of them in the wrong column.

Minnesota's loss to Iowa was one of the most missed games, and Auburn's victory over Florida also caused problems for the prognosticators.

Football fans have another chance to try their luck at picking the winners this week. The lineup and contest rules appear on Page 7

Cage Practice Underway Here

The 1968-69 basketball season in Northville and Novi is fast approaching.

Full squad practice sessions for the Mustangs got underway Tuesday afternoon, while the Wildcats are scheduled to take the court for the first round of practice on Monday.

The Northville cagers will be under the helm of athletic director-coach Robert Kucher. Coaching the Wildcats again this season will be Jim Ladd.

Mayor Slaps Sewer Proposal

The city council breezed through a brief agenda Monday night in a record time of 1½-hours.

Chief matter of business was a committee report recommending purchase of the Methodist church property by the city (story elsewhere).

In addition the council purchased two new police cars. Low bidder was Rathburn Chevrolet at $1503 each, including trade-in allowance.

Another matter aroused the ire of Mayor A. M. Allen, however. It involves a request from the Wayne County Department of Public Works to allow Oakland county to introduce additional sewage into the Rouge Valley system.

"We were sold out many years ago on this", exclaimed the mayor, who recalled that a moratorium on building was declared in Wayne county when faster-growing communities east of Northville filled the original interceptor to capacity before Northville had attained its capacity in the line.

At that time it was necessary to construct an additional interceptor to serve the area and permit continued building.

It was Mayor Allen's contention that Wayne county communities have paid for the sewage capacity in the interceptor "and it shouldn't be given away to Oakland county."

Manager Frank Ollendorff was more cautious. He noted that Wayne County Director George R. Bingham had set a meeting for Tuesday at 10 a.m. to discuss the proposal with all communities involved. "I'm not ready to support or oppose it until it's explained," he stated.

Councilman Del Black also urged study of the proposal first. But Mayor Allen noted that he had received a letter from Dearborn Heights Mayor John Canfield, who was also alarmed by the proposal and who had called for a meeting of Wayne county communities involved Thursday afternoon (today). "I'm planning to attend that meeting," said the mayor.

Specifically, Wayne county is proposing increased use of the interceptor system by Oakland county (through its Novi sewer line running through Northville) for a period of from 10 to 15 years. "The purpose of the request", says Bingham, "is to avoid the construction of a sewage treatment plant in the Walled Lake area, discharging effluent to the Rouge River".

Bingham says the Wayne county system can handle the additional sewage except for a few peak days per year. It is proposed to require Oakland county to construct a sewage storage vehicle of some nature to hold back the flow during peak periods. It is noted that Oakland county would pay Wayne county a transportation charge and that such payments would be credited to the interest and principle payments and reflected proportionally to all municipalities (such as Northville city and township) now in the district and making payments.

Wayne county prefers that Oakland does not build a sewage disposal plant in Walled Lake, but instead construct interceptors in the future "in accordance with the regional plan."

Development throughout the Novi-Wixom-Walled Lake area depends upon a system for sewage disposal — either a plant at Walled Lake, or as now proposed, use of capacity in the Wayne county interceptor.

OBITUARY

Carl H. Wilson

Funeral services were held Friday for Carl H. Wilson, 69, who died Tuesday after a year's illness. Services were conducted at his residence, 48151 West Six Mile Road, Northville, under auspices of Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 33, F & AM.

The body rested in state at the residence until the funeral. Arrangements are by Casterline Funeral Home. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery, Plymouth.

An electrical engineer, Mr. Wilson was retired from Ford Motor Company transmission plant in Livonia. He was a member of the Northville Commandary, a life member of the Plymouth Rock Lodge and a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit.

A resident of the community for 15 years, he was born August 6, 1899, in Helena, Montana, to Henry H. and Marie (DeVirgin) Wilson.

He leaves his wife, Constance; three daughters, Emilie, Dorothy and Claire of Northville; two sons, William, East Lansing, and Clifford, Ann Arbor; and two grandchildren.

Book Fairs Scheduled

Orchard Hills Elementary School will sponsor a student book fair from November 11 to November 13.

The book fair will be open during the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Books will be on display in the Library room.

The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will not only help spur student interest in reading and building home libraries, but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school earns 20 percent of all sales and profits will be used for library materials.

The Booster Club is sponsoring this event, with Mrs. Kenneth Beers serving as book fair chairman.

*****
Northville Mothers' Club is sponsoring a book fair of new books with emphasis on those for Christmas giving, including selections on decorating and gardening as well as children's books. The fair will be held November 15 and 16 at The Cavern.

TRAIN DEMOLISHES TRUCK — A 125-car C&O train smashed into a pickup truck near the Novi Road entrance to Northville early Thursday morning, dragging it some 75 feet before the truck spun off between two concrete supports beneath the overpass. The truck driver, Raymond C. Kirchoff of Ypsilanti, wanted by police elsewhere for traffic violations and bad checks, was uninjured. According to Northville police, Kirchoff was driving south on Novi Road, lost control at the curve and the truck skidded onto the tracks. While he was searching for a wrecker, the south-bound train, traveling about 45 mph, smashed into the truck at 4:30 a.m. The accident tied up train traffic in both directions for nearly two hours.

Northville Youth Stars In Schoolcraft

A Gershwin musical and a Shakespearian production are in the offing on the schedule of the Schoolcraft College Masque Players.

Patrick Janes of Northville will provide old-style comedy in "Girl Crazy," the 1930 Gershwin musical which made stars of Ethel Merman, Ginger Rogers and Ruth Gordon. This will be the Masque Players' opening production November 6-9 in the new theater in the recently opened liberal arts classroom building at Schoolcraft.

Starring in the Merman role will be Sharon Saie, a Livonia sophomore, and the Rogers role will be taken by Noel Little, a Detroit actress who has appeared in many roles for the Masque Players.

Other students in the cast are

Governor Visits Northville

One of the earliest candidates for the presidency — and the first to withdraw from the race, Governor George Romney, was back on the campaign trail Friday afternoon. Visiting the Northville Republican headquarters briefly, he put his own voter appeal on the line in boosting the election of local area GOP candidates, including Representative Louis Schmidt. Sharing a position in the crowd of autograph-seeking children and adults was Schmidt's Democratic opponent, Marvin Stempien, who waved his own autographed letter from the governor, vintage 1966, in which the governor thanked the Democrat for his "hard work" and "service to the people," as a legislator. Stempien's appearance at the GOP rally drew a sharp rebuff from the governor.

"Lung Cancer"

Deaths attributed to lung cancer in the United States numbered 2,800 in 1930. The figure rose to 46,000 in 1965. It is estimated that it will be 65,000 in 1975.

There is one sure way to prevent yourself from being one of those 65,000. Don't use tobacco!

I have often thought of a boy, Bob Shores, whom I knew well as a lad. He was a year or two older than I was. We grew up in the same community.

Bob had a fine beginning in life. He had an excellent home. His parents were good people, fairly well off financially, and active in the church. Bob inherited a strong, healthy, vigorous physical body and a good mind. As a lad he was good in wrestling and sports. His parents were active, healthy, and of medium height.

Beginning as a small lad Bob started using tobacco. Although his parents probably were aware of it, they didn't seem to object. Then Bob dropped out of school before he had completed the 6th grade. His health didn't seem to be impaired much from his use of tobacco except that his growth was stunted. He used to tell me that I would be stronger if I would use tobacco! He was a bright boy and had no trouble getting employment. At one time he was manager of a small grocery store.

One day Bob fell very much in love with a fine girl. At one time they were engaged. I didn't blame the girl however when, probably partly due to Bob's lack of education and stunted growth, she broke the engagement.

That was a terrible blow for Bob. He had a very difficult time getting over it. He never seemed able to get hold of himself again. He never married. When less than 50 years old, after a rather melancholy existence, he died in an old people's home.

Everything would probably have been very much different if Bob had never started using tobacco!

This is a serious thing. But it is not nearly as serious as the harm done from the use of alcoholic beverages or drugs such as LSD.

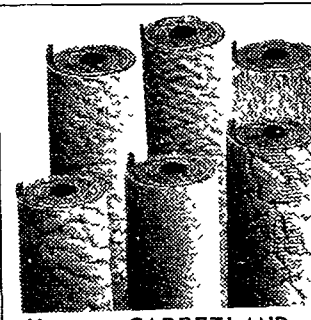

The world would be a much happier place if all of us would just remember that our bodies should be temples of the Holy Spirit, to be kept pure and in health, that in them we may serve and glorify God.

(1 Cor. 6:19, 20, Romans 21:1).

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter? A lot of homes will.

In wintertime people in houses with flame type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking. Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat. You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat. So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and explain the guarantee. And now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for a no obligation electric heat survey. Look in the Yellow Pages under "Electric Heating—Equipment and Systems." He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

One of Oldest Area Churches Given New Look

This was the way the church looked before the spire was chopped off.

Pastor Gary Herne inspects 1886 Bell.

It's a small country church building with all the charm of 82 years of service and the members of the Salem Congregational Christian Church are endeavoring to preserve the simplicity of former years while maintaining their structure for future generations.

In line with this, the congregation has recently undertaken several redecorating and restoration projects, including storm windows on the church and parsonage. Their latest enterprise has been the complete painting of the brick veneer exterior of the building. The church is now a sparkling white — an attractive and integral part of the village of Salem.

The church, now pastored by Gary L. Herne, was first organized as the "First Congregational Church of Salem and Lyon" at a meeting called on the 14th day of September, 1851. Present at that first meeting were: William Anibler, chairman; H. Phillips, clerk; Jason Steel, Daniel Pomeroy, John Harriet, and John B. Waterman, James and Lida M. Clark, Sarah and Phidel A. Phillips, Lewis Mason, Thankful Stout, Malah and Eleanor Pomeroy.

Well-preserved and complete records of the early days show that several area ministers and laymen came to participate in the first worship service.

They were: the Rev. J. Smith Hobart of Ann Arbor who delivered the sermon; Rev. Silvester Cockran of Northville; Rev. Mr. Harris of the Worden Church at Five Mile near Pontiac Trail and laymen, John Pebbles, Seth Thorwport and Sebra Perkins, all of Worden.

The Rev. James Morton was called to be the first minister of the church in February 14, 1852.

It was on February 6, 1859 that the Wesleyan Methodist class which worshipped at the Thayer School house located at the northeast corner of Six Mile and Napier Road united with the First Congregational Church of Salem and Lyon. The combined membership of the two churches was 61.

The name of the church was changed on January 7, 1860 to "The First Congregational Religious Society of Summit." An interesting note in the records of that time read: "The following persons agreed to draw one cord of wood to the church and pile it up; Lewis Lary, Hiram Whitaker, Ed Jones, Rufus Thayer, Peter Coldren, Charles Sealy, Ed Pratt, C. Root, and Joseph Mirret. Signed, J. Waterman — Clerk".

In January 1886 the trustees were instructed to take "measures looking towards the moving of the church edifice or building a new church at Salem Station." The congregation voted on April 16, 1886 to construct a new building which would be 42 feet by 54 feet and Mr. Wordman was hired to build the church. The projected cost of the building was to be "under $2600."

The church pews, were purchased from the Michigan School Furniture Company in Northville in the fall of 1886 at a total cost of $184, delivered and installed. Those pews, their finish gleaming with the polish of years of use, are still a part of the church furnishings.

On November 29, 1886, the church board voted to instruct a bell committee to order a 600 pound bell from the Buckeye Bell Foundry in Cincinnati, Ohio. The bell was shipped by the "Detroit, Lansing and Northern Railroad Company" on December 31, 1886. The shipping bill, carefully kept through the years, shows the cost of shipping the crated bell weighing 1017 pounds was $4.58. The total cost of the bell with shipping was $137.06. The bell was guaranteed "not to break while being rung for two years from the date of purchase."

That bell has now been used for 82 years, notes pastor Herne.

The parsonage property, adjoining the church, was obtained from Abram Shear for $680 in April 23, 1888.

A second name change occurred in 1888 when the congregation voted to add to their name "the Second Congregational Religious Society of Salem." In that year, too, the church purchased an organ from the Ranville Wood and Son Pipe Organ Company of Northville at a cost of $475.

Pumping the organ in those days was a real manual task and the church records note. "Salem, March 2, 1901, Treasurer of the Cong'l society please pay Ralph Ryder fifty cents (.50) for pumping organ ten Sundays and oblige, John Munn, Clerk".

During the 40's and early 50's, the congregation decreased and the church was not used for regular meetings for some years — a time during which church records are sketchy. Rumor has it that during this time, two families — the Clarks and Burgesses — went each Sunday and opened the church to maintain the property for future generations — otherwise the property would have reverted to the governing body of the Congregational churches.

In the year 1950, the towering church steeple was taken down because people feared it might topple in a strong wind.

The doors of the church were reopened for regular services with a part-time pastor in January, 1954. The church also was given its present name in that period.

Presently, church records show approximately 25 members with an attendance of between 45 and 50 persons each Sunday. This congregation, though small in number, is large in devotion, and the people are presently considering further projects — possible basement excavation and a full-time pastor — which will enable them to better serve the growing community of Salem, according to Pastor Herne.

Whatever their future decisions may bring in the way of expansion, Pastor Herne said they plan to keep the dignity and beauty of their nearly century old building.

This is the way the First Congregational church looks as it appears now.

Municipal Court

Judge Philip Ogilvie of Northville Municipal Court faced a relatively light docket last Thursday.

Three men were returned to Detroit House of Correction after pleading guilty to having escaped that institution. The offenders are listed with their date of escape and their sentence.

Edwin Gates of Detroit (October 19) returned for 45 days.

Andrew D. Menzie of Detroit (October 19) returned for 30 days.

Jimmy Gismond of Garden City (October 22) returned for seven days.

Among other cases, Judge Ogilvie heard one state police charge, Donald R. Heilman of Livonia was ticketed on October 12 for spilling a load of dirt on Seven Mile Road from his '68 Chevrolet tree-mover. His plea of guilty brought a $10 fine and $11 in costs.

Donald M. Burns of Detroit was arrested on two charges on October 19 on Seven Mile Road between Edward Hines Drive and Main Street. Pleading guilty to both having improper license plates on his vehicle and to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, Burns had a $5 fine suspended on his first count and was assessed $25 court costs on the second.

Improper license plates was also the charge brought against James I. Berger of Farmington when Northville Police stopped him on Eight Mile Road at Novi Road on October 25. His guilty plea brought a $5 fine.

Novi Justice Court

Last week was a busy one for Novi Justice Court.

Among the cases heard by Justice of Peace Emery Jacques were three in which the defendant had a pair of charges to be heard.

Leon C. McCormick of Troy pleaded guilty to failure to signal a turn and to defective exhaust. His fines and costs totalled $30.

Eighteen year old Michael M. Robb of Detroit pleaded guilty to having had no operator's license on his person and to improper registration. He paid fines and costs totalling $40 in lieu of a total of 20 days in jail.

A total of $20 was assessed Paul C. Bonham of Pontiac following his plea of guilty to driving with an expired operator's license and to driving a truck without a chauffeur's license.

Driving while his license was revoked, suspended or denied was the charge upon which James D. Yorch of Detroit demanded examination when he was arraigned on September 12. At his hearing last Thursday (the date of all the above sentences), Yorch was found guilty of driving on a revoked license and is serving 51 days in Oakland County Jail as a result.

Speeding fines were assessed against Lawrence T. Moore of 2444 Potter Road in Wixom and Raymond F. Hoban of Detroit following their pleas of guilty. Hoban paid a $10 fine and $10 costs for speeding 85 mph in a 70 mph zone, while its cost Moore a $20 fine for driving 45 mph in a 30 mph zone.

Two persons were fined $15 each for failure to stop in safe assured distances involving property damage accidents. Donald G. Farley of Milford pleaded guilty to this charge last Tuesday and Duana D. Teddy of Walled Lake entered her guilty plea on Thursday.

A $15 fine was also assessed against Francis J. Collins of 236 North Center Street when he pleaded guilty to defective exhaust (no muffler on the right side of his car) Thursday.

Richard F. Duff's guilty plea, to driving a truck with an uncovered load cost him $10.

Schools Boom U-F Campaign

In what may be the best response by area school systems, Northville school employees contributed $1,762.90 to the United Foundation's 1968 campaign.

Earl Busard, chairman of the school's U-F contribution, reported that the '68 figure represents a 69.4 percent increase over last year's total contribution of $1,040.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Enter Today! You May Be A Winner!

HERE ARE THE RULES

Take a plain piece of paper and number down the left hand side from 1 to 16.

You will notice that each square below is also numbered from 1 to 16 and each contains a football game to be staged this coming weekend. To complete your entry you must do the following:

(1) after each number on your paper write the name of the sponsor of the corresponding square.

(2) following the sponsor's name — write the name of the winning team.

(3) in addition you must pick a score on the outcome of the game in square 16. This will be used in the case of a tie and then the contestant whose score is closest to the actual score will be declared the winner.

Be sure to write your name, address and phone number plainly on your piece of paper (your entry).

Enter just once a week, but may enter as many weeks as you wish. In case of tie, prize money will be split.

Copies of the contest will be posted at the Northville Record office each week.

Entries should be addressed "Football Contest" and must be postmarked or brought to our office no later than 5 p.m. each Friday.

Employees of The Northville Record—Novi News or sponsoring merchants are not eligible.

News Around Schoolcraft

Winter semester registration plans for the Schoolcraft College Related Instruction program for industrial apprentices have been announced by Ronald J. Monfette, apprenticeship coordinator at the college.

Pre-registration for apprentices currently enrolled in the program is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, December 9 and 10, Monfette said. Students will be advised and class reservations made. Registration hours on these days are 1 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. in Room T-500 in the Technical-Vocational Building.

The following week, on Monday and Tuesday, December 16 and 17, apprentices entering the program for the first time and those being reinstated in the program will register, be advised, and make class reservations. Registration hours are 1 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m. on each day, in Room T-500 in the Technical-Vocational Building.

On Monday and Tuesday, January 5 and 7, 1969, all apprentices registered for the winter semester are scheduled to return to Room T-500 for payment of tuition and fees and confirmation of classes, Monfette said. Tuition, including a student activity fee, is $10.50 per credit hour for resident students, $18.50 for non-resident students. The hours for fee payment are 1 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. on each day.

A late registration charge of $2.50 per course will be made if apprentices fail to appear on either of the two fee payment days in January, Monfette said. No student will be admitted to the program after January 14.

Classes in the related instruction program will begin on Wednesday, January 8.

"After an apprentice reserves a class during the pre-registration period," Monfette said, "he is expected to attend. Withdrawals from reserved classes must be made in writing before January 6, or during the hours posted for fee payment on January 6 and 7. If you plan to withdraw, notify us immediately so that other apprentices wishing to enter the program will not be deprived of an opportunity to select classes."

Monfette said company sponsors should designate apprentices who will enroll in the related instruction program by Monday, December 9, so the R. I. Department at the college can properly advise the students on December 16-17.

Schoolcraft College faculty and staff members, secretarial, clerical, maintenance and other classified employees contributed $2,118 to the 1968 Wayne County United Foundation Torch Drive, an increase of $662 over the 1967 total, according to David Perkins, English instructor and chairman of the campus UF campaign. In 1966, the UF drive total at the college was $1,317, Perkins said.

"The growth of our participation has thus been good," Perkins said, "and we can no doubt look forward to even better participation next year."

CONTINUING PROGRESS

Down-under at a Consumers Power regulator station, underground agents are at work. Agents of progress. Adjusting the pipeline pressure to feed natural gas into your home, they are helping to make sure we meet your needs for gas, day in and day out.

Underground and aboveground, Consumers Power people are working to give you efficient, safe service today and to provide for increasing service in the future.

Gas pressure regulators, as shown above, and other types of equipment receive periodic inspection to insure safe, dependable service.

Our older pipelines are continually checked and double-checked for safety. Within the next three years, we will clean, inspect and retest more than 500 miles of transmission pipelines.

To meet growing demand, we are planning to increase our gas supplies by 82 percent in the next five years.

Continuing Progress. It goes hand in hand with safety, with helping you enjoy the good gas life

Kids Dress up Halloween Parties

Halloween is always an exciting adventure for youngsters but it's both exciting and colorful for the youngsters — and the adults — who turn out each year for the annual Halloween parties in Northville and Novi.

This year was no exception as the Northville Recreation Department and the Novi Chamber of Commerce sponsored some humdingers at the Amerman Multi-Purpose Room and the Novi Community Building, respectively.

At the top left Novi children parade in costume, while first-place prize winner, Alison Moorhead, shows off her winning Northville costume (middle left).

A beetle crawled into the Northville party and the pretty, little charmer (below) showed up as well.

On Halloween eve, more than two dozen Novi Girl Scouts of Cadet Troop 149 were feted at a fun-filled Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Willis Miller, 46489 Grand River. Picked as top winners (bottom) in the costume judging were Patti Tuck, Sandra Carter, Susan Morris and Vickie Smith.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Now that the presidential campaign has taken its place in history, we can return to reality... which is not quite as bad as we've been told it is, and not quite as bright as we've been promised it will be.

And this campaign, like its predecessors, should leave us more convinced than ever that it is not the man in the White House who will cure the ills of our nation and world.

Inescapably, it is the individual. When he becomes honest, law-abiding, clean, non-bigoted, energetic, compassionate... and all the other things that we create laws and finance federal programs to promote, then we can hope for peace and prosperity that is meaningful.

And think how many thousands of words this would cut out of the political speeches. That alone should be incentive enough to encourage individual review of our personal conduct.

I hope that incident in South America involving a retired admiral and an editor doesn't gain popular acceptance.

It seems the newspaperman, who must be described as merely exercising his journalistic rights, published an uncomplimentary line or two about the admiral's service to his nation.

The admiral, obviously a man unable to accept criticism, challenged the editor to a duel.

One of the combatants was nipped on the cheek and the other on the ear before the duel was stopped.

The editor should have chosen Underwoods at 10 paces.

Two of Northville's most avid hunters were stripped of their game by Canadian custom inspectors recently.

At least that's the excuse Harold Bloom and Harry Wagenschutz are giving for coming home duck-less from a trip to the Bloom cottage at St. Joseph's Island in Canada.

Both claim they had two Mallards, the legal limit. But they had stripped all the feathers from the ducks except around the heads. The law says that one feathered wing must remain for identification of the fowl.

The customs official smiled and kept the ducks and sent the hunters on their way home.

Which reminds me of that old Joe Pennor line... or was it Wimpy?... anyway, somebody had a duck dinner and Bloom and Wagenschutz supplied the ducks.

STRICTLY FRESH

The gusty, shifting political winds this election year have put many a pollster up a tree.

When people say they have no will power, what they usually mean is that they have no won't power.

Friend of ours says that after polarization of the consensus concerning the executive potential in organizational initiative, he finalized plans to expand the area into which he wished to project his creative endeavor. His former boss says he fired him for not following orders.

What---No Protest?

By ROLLY PETERSON

The political year 1968 will long be remembered as one of the most unusual in the history of American politics. A lot has happened. President Johnson declared his intention not to seek re-election, Robert Kennedy was tragically slain, the Democratic convention was disrupted by hippy-police clashes, and last week President Johnson announced halt in the bombing of North Vietnam.

But Newsweek magazine topped them all this week by announcing unequivocally that Hubert Horatio Humphrey's first choice of a vice-presidential running mate was none other than, now get this, Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Where Newsweek got their inside information is not disclosed nor is it likely to be. But there it is, a blurb in the "Periscope" section of Newsweek that basically has the gravest implications for American politics.

It reads: "A Humphrey-Rockefeller ticket: this 'dream' combination for President and Vice President occurred to many politicians during the election campaign — including none other than Hubert H. Humphrey himself."

According to Newsweek, HHH twice asked the New York governor to be his vice presidential running mate: once after Rockefeller lost the Republican nomination to Nixon, once during the Democratic convention. Only after Rockefeller twice refused did HHH turn to Muskie.

As John Dotson of Newsweek's Detroit bureau said, only the correspondent himself would be privy to the source. Dotson surmised that the item originated either at the New York or Washington bureau.

Was Dotson surprised? "Why not? Ya," he retorted. "The things that appear in the 'Periscope' section," he added, "are dynamite items. Things few other people knew about."

Dynamite. That's putting it mildly. Nuclear would be a more apt term.

What perhaps is more surprising than the item itself is the apparent reaction of the press and political hawks in particular. As of Monday, Dotson knew of no hullabaloo over the blurb. The news media had apparently overlooked the report, or dismissed it as being too preposterous.

No one had bothered to ask Humphrey whether the allegation was true. Chances are he would deny everything. But what about Rockefeller? Since he's in the Nixon camp and since he would have nothing to lose, what would his reply be?

Maybe the whole matter will be a moot point by the time this column is printed — after the election. But one can't help wondering: What if...

Campaign Caller, Identify Yourself

To the Editor:

Here it is, the day before election day. My husband has gone to work. My daughter has gone to work. Three of the children have left for school and I am making a lunch for my son to take to school.

The telephone rings. Have I registered? Yes.

Am I going to vote in this election? Yes.

Am I going to vote for (name of candidate)? It is none of your business!

I am a party worker and have been told to ask this question.

What party? How do I know the man you name is your candidate? I am an American citizen, and I am going to vote my conscience.

I understand.

No, my friend, you do not understand. If you did you would have given me your name when you called. You had my name and telephone number.

Not only that, but you would have done me the courtesy of telling me what party you represented.

Then, and only then, would it be permissible to ask me if I would consider voting for the candidate of your party.

I in turn would have done you the courtesy of letting you be a real worker for your party by asking you why you thought I should vote for your candidate.

What an opportunity you would have had to tip the balance in favor of your candidate!

A wasted call? It could be. You'll never know, because you are working ineffectually when you approach me under cover of a nameless worker asking me to give up to you my precious privilege of the secret ballot.

Yes, I am registered.

Yes, I am going to vote in this election.

Yes, I am going to vote my conscience.

I still have self-determination and I still respect myself and you as a person with a name.

Yours sincerely,
Clair Sutherland

Firemen Praised for Work

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Walled Lake, Wixom, Farmington, and very especially the Novi Fire Departments for their prompt and efficient handling of the fire at our home last Friday night.

Due to the quick thinking and hard work of these men our damage was held to a minimum. Our downstairs furnishings were saved from damage by water through their moving the furniture carefully to another part of the house away from danger.

It gives us a very secure feeling to know that these men are on hand at all times to protect our lives and belongings and even though they are in a hurry at a time like this they still take time to preserve whatever they can for the householder.

Many, Many thanks and Three Cheers for these capable and considerate volunteers.

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the Novi Village Fire Department for a job well done.

Most certainly, had it not been for the department's rapid reply to our call Friday, October 25, damage to our plant would have been far greater.

To have two trucks at the scene within five minutes of our call speaks highly for the Novi department's efficiency. And to the fine people who make it so, we say thanks.

Electors in our kitchen polling place nearly came to blows election eve — proving, I guess, that we've raised a crop of belligerent winners.

"Listen," I demanded Monday night, "this is a democracy and..."

"You might be a Democrat," cut in my in-between daughter, "but we're not. We're Publicans. And we say, 'Anna Marie!'"

"That's right," chipped in my eldest. "We want 'Anna Marie' or maybe 'Gretchen'. But never 'Rebecca'."

"But Lassie's (our dog) middle name is 'Marie,'" argued the son who nominated 'Rebecca'. "We can't have two 'Maries'."

"We can rename Lassie," countered Miss in-between.

"Besides," added the eldest, "you're just mad because you can't have 'Daniel Boone'."

The nominator smiled as did his younger brother.

"Oh, oh, I know what you're thinking, smarty," his sister said. "Do you know what he's thinking, Daddy?"

"I know," said the youngest, proudly. "But I won't tell on you," she promised her brother.

"Since I'm conducting this election," I said, finally, "it will be conducted democratically. The majority rules. Don't try to cloud the issue with hints of fraud."

"But Daddy, he's cheating," argued Miss in-between.

"How is he cheating?" I demanded. "He nominated 'Rebecca', his brother seconded him, and your little sister tossed in her support. That makes three to two. The 'Rebeccas' have it."

"He's mad because it can't be 'Daniel Boone,'" she explained, "so he picked 'Rebecca'. That's Daniel Boone's wife's name, don'tcha know?"

Turning to the boys I asked, "Is that true?"

"Well..." said one hesitantly. "Yup," admitted the other, whose smile suddenly disappeared. "But moma promised me a boy. We've got enough girls. If they can have a girl we should be able to have the name."

Quite right, I thought, but being a fair-minded election worker I sought an equitable solution.

"Okay, it seems to me the decision hinges on Jennifer's vote. We'll ask her once more — and no coaching. Let her make her own decision."

"Now, think hard: how do you vote?" I asked.

As all of us waited, the five-year-old grinned, pressed her eyes shut in exaggerated concentration, and then, in a voice as husky as the one I heard at the hospital an hour earlier, she shouted: "I vote for boys!"

So the boys got their name, the girls a sister, and their mother another winner.

House Studies Ways to Streamline its Operations

LANSING—With little fanfare, a handful of state legislators has set out to strengthen the Michigan House of Representatives.

The goal of the effort is to make the 110-member body more efficient and thereby cut lawmaking costs.

Rep. Martin D. Buth, R-Comstock Park, chairman of a special house rehabilitation study committee, said several changes have been suggested.

They include cutting house membership, curtailing members' expenditures, eliminating "No-vote" explanations and streamlining preliminary debate procedures.

REP. DON PEARS, R-Buchanan, a committee member, said he would like to see the legislative schedule revised. He suggested advancing the deadlines for drafting and introducing bills.

"This would avoid the pileup of bills with too few days to consider them at the end of the session," Pears said.

According to Pears, the present system of clearing the backlog of bills in a hurry before final adjournment results in "round-the-clock sessions which often defeat good and pass bad legislation."

The handling of guest introductions also needs improvement, Pears said. "It is necessary to have visiting groups recognized, but something should be worked out to reduce the time this takes," he said.

REP. MICHAEL NOVAK, D-Detroit, doesn't believe reducing the number of legislators is the right approach. A better idea, he says, is stronger committee makeup.

"A small group won't be efficient unless there is committee reorganization," Novak said. "The house needs more committees to handle the large number of bills."

Rep. Albert Kramer, D-Oak Park, disagrees. He says there should be fewer, not more, committees.

"We should consolidate to avoid overlapping and conflict," Kramer added. "Fewer committees with a larger membership will eliminate having to look for a quorum."

COMMITTEES should also be able to coordinate bills rather than approve several on the same subject, Kramer said. "Instead of waiting for a bill to be printed, members should have duplicate copies available to them immediately."

Rep. George Montgomery, D-Detroit, agrees committee membership should be more closely regulated.

"No member should be on four or five committees, and minor committees shouldn't be allowed to meet in prime times (Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings)," he said.

Novak suggested committee chairmen be compelled to call meetings as soon as they receive a bill. "All too often they wait until there is a pile of them," he said.

Also, Novak added, the no-vote explanations are often a "waste of time." These are an individual's reasons for voting negatively on a measure.

Montgomery concurred that the no-vote explanation "has been much abused lately with much material not to the point."

OTHER REPRESENTATIVES pointed out that members' expenditures need examination and new regulation. The question of how to curtail expenses, however, seems unanswerable. Some "progress" has been made with the use of phones in the Capitol, giving toll free service to the Detroit area.

Another topic of considerable discussion is how to regulate the amount of mail members can charge to the state. "It amounts to an almost continuous mailing," said Pears.

ATTEMPTS were made to fix limits on the number of news releases a representative may mail at state expense. But the argument is raised that sparsely-populated areas rely heavily on such releases and shouldn't be restricted to a specific quota.

Another suggestion which rarely gets off the ground is to allot a certain amount of money for news releases and other mailings. When this money is depleted, the theory goes, the representative makes up the difference from his own pocket.

Whatever the case, the study committee promises to come up with concrete recommendations for presentation to the 1969 legislature.

If past history is any indicator, it will take more than a handful of lawmakers to convince a house majority that change is in order.

Thousands Still Hungry Despite U.S. Food Aid

WELLESLEY HILLS, Massachusetts — Although two full years have passed since the U.S. Food For Peace program was expanded, the hard reality of hunger is still encountered in a majority of the nations of the world. On every continent, except North America, there are tens of millions of persons who from birth to death eat poorly and scantily.

After a decade and a half of intermittent debate, in 1966 Congress passed a truly comprehensive federal food for peace program — Public Law 480. Under its terms U.S. farm commodities can be sold to friendly countries, with payment made in the local currency of the recipient nation. These funds are kept in the country to which the sale is made and can be used to pay U.S. obligations abroad, finance grants for economic development, make loans to private enterprise or foreign governments, or fund educational, scientific, and public information projects.

PUBLIC LAW 480 also authorizes gifts of U.S.-grown food to nations stricken by famine or other disaster. Such gifts are made from the farm products held in storage by the Commodity Credit Corporation. They may be used to aid economic and community development in recipient countries and for school lunch programs.

The United States has a long history of helping to feed the world's poor. Our people and our government have been quick to send supplies to those areas devastated by floods, fires, earthquakes, or war. Twice in this century-following World Wars I and II — Herbert Hoover headed our government's far-reaching efforts to feed people rendered homeless and jobless in those conflicts which devastated large areas of Europe.

TODAY the U.S. is a great symbol of hope for a world producing hungry mouths faster than it is increasing its food supply. If the world population—food crisis is not already the chief concern of mankind, it should be. In time we can work out a solution in Vietnam, in the Middle East, in Africa, in Latin America, and even in Europe itself. But if the human race does not learn to feed itself, despair is inevitable. And from such despair could come chaos and revolution that would drain the sustenance of the "have" nations while contributing not one whit to the "have not" nations.

There is, of course, a correlation between population and poverty, but it is certainly naive to assume that limitation of population alone will eliminate poverty and hunger. Some nations are chronically poor, not because they have too many people, but because they do not have enough people who are able to contribute the taxes needed for economic development.

A GREAT DEAL of the poverty and hunger in the world is caused by backward agriculture, low economic productivity, instability of primary commodity prices in world markets, and adverse political conditions. In short, these causes are economic in nature and the remedies must be economic too.

Hopefully, world population will not grow as fast as recent trends imply. But whether it does or not, it is obvious that mankind must work toward a realignment of economic priorities. In those under-developed countries where the primacy of agriculture has been displaced by too rapid and too ambitious a push toward industrialization, a more balanced approach to over-all economic planning must be encouraged. Common sense dictates that such an approach include not only more food production but also more varied food production. Here in the U.S. we raise 38 major food crops, although 95% of our food is derived from only 20 of these crops. In 87 countries — where hunger is rife — the average number of food crops is fewer than six. The world average is only 11.

A Gas Incinerator may not be an odorous invitation to pets and pests, but what a modern, sanitary, convenient way to get rid of all burnable refuse! Always at hand in your basement, garage or utility room, you can depend on a Gas Incinerator to consume your rubbish indoors. It can rain, snow, sleet, hail—your feet won't get muddled-up by weather... and your garbage won't accumulate either. The Gas Incinerator will quickly and quietly burn everything burnable—without smoke or odor. Costs only pennies a day to operate.

OUT OF THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Members of Northville's Woman's Club adopted the preservation of the old library building as a project. Library facilities were being moved into the new building which was being constructed as a part of the new city hall.

...Bids were apparently too high on the new Orchard Drive storm sewer and it appeared that City Engineer Harold Penn would not ask the city to accept any of the seven.

...Foundry Flask and Equipment Company broke ground recently on its $185,000 building addition at the Cady Street plant.

...The 42-inch Detroit water pipeline gradually neared Northville, moving westward along Eight Mile.

...People who planned to litter the streets with leaves or burn them there were warned of the possible fines they faced.

...West Bloomfield dropped Northville into a three-way tie with themselves and Clarkston when they defeated the Mustangs 25-13.

...Northville's Steve Juday continued to be Duffy Daughterty's regular quarterback at Michigan State as the sophomore worked to improve his passing.

...Plans were underway for the annual Halloween party cosponsored by the Northville Recreation department, the Retail Merchants Association, the Optimist Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

TEN YEARS AGO...

...The Mustangs won their twentieth consecutive Wayne-Oakland football game in a 27-6 squeaker over rugged West Bloomfield.

...Novi's Wildcats also got into the grid win column by evening their record at 1-1 with a 25-6 victory over the Clarenceville eighth graders.

...Two Northville grads, Dick Biery and Dick Buckley, were starting in football at Michigan colleges. Biery was a JV halfback at Central while Buckley was a freshman playing guard and center at Hope.

...Northville came a step nearer to completing its purchase of lots in the Gerald Avenue dump area. City Attorney Philip Ogilvie reported that all but three of the necessary lots had been purchased. Controlled use of the dump was to begin by the December 1 deadline.

...Local Torch Drive collections were lagging and it was feared that they may fall far short of their goal. With just three days remaining, only $910 of the proposed $4,858 had been collected.

...A date was set for a hearing before the planning commission to resolve the question of wintering horses at Northville Downs.

...The Optimist Club, Retail Merchants Association and city recreation department planned the annual Halloween dance under the guidance of recreation director Stan Johnston.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

...Building Inspector J. Stanley Waterloo ordered the Downs to halt construction of a grandstand addition until it obtained proper authorization from his office.

...Northville merchants were to unite in promoting a three-day celebration of major improvements in the village's shopping center that had taken place in the previous year. The event was to be known as Northville's "Harvest of Gold" because of the shopper bargains scheduled for these sale days.

...Parents, friends and Northville residents attended the annual Citizenship Banquet to honor 20 local boys and girls who had attained their 21st birthday and were eligible to vote. University of Michigan President Harlan V. Hatcher was the guest speaker.

...Toastmaster was Frederick Sterner, Mrs. L. M. Eaton introduced the guest speaker, and Mrs. Samuel Geraci awarded the certificates of recognition to the new voters.

...The contractor and architect constructing the Northville Community Building worked to untangle a materials snarl in an effort to avoid any delay in the $206,000 building's construction.

...The Mustangs improved their grid record to 5-1 with 27-6 victory over Clarkston in a Dad's night game at Ford Field.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...

...Voters were preparing for the upcoming general election. Five ballots and six amendments were facing them at the booths. In case you've forgotten, some of the major candidates were: President, Harry S. Truman vs. Thomas E. Dewey; U.S. Senator, Homer Ferguson vs. D. Hook; Governor, G. Mennen Williams vs. Kim Sigler; U.S. Congress, George A. Dondero vs. D. Brown.

...Having lost 52-0 to Keego Harbor, the Northville Mustangs eleven prepared to meet Clarenceville in NHS' homecoming contest.

...Melvin "Chick" Harbert signed a contract to remain club pro at Meadowbrook Country Club for another three years.

...Associate Professor Valentine D. Windt of the University of Michigan was to be guest speaker as the Northville Woman's Club hosted the Northville schools' faculty.

...Miss Bluma B. Weiner, a member of the staff of the Wayne County Training School, was to speak at the Presbyterian Church House on "Body and Mind".

...New officers elected in the annual meeting of the Meadowbrook Country Club were A. M. Mackey, Conrad E. Metz, James Montgomery and James Guez.

...Joseph Alessi of the Royal Recreation announced the recent installation of the electric "Spot-O-Matic" Backus pin-setter. Purported to be bowling's greatest triumph, a push of a button would set the pins accurately within seven seconds.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Winter came to Northville and left a blanket of snow an inch deep and 28-degree temperatures in the wake of its rare mid-October appearance.

...Northville and Novi schools were preparing to issue Series 4 ration books to residents.

...George Locke was named chairman of a local drive to obtain $3500; for the national War Fund intended to finance the USO at home and abroad.

...Before the combined membership of the Rotary and Exchange clubs, D. H. Van Hove presented three bonds to Frank Myers (with three sons in service) and two to Robert J. Porter (two sons in service) for their parts in the recent War Bond drive.

...Fred W. Neal, formerly of Northville, contributed a chapter to the book of Ray F. Harvey who wrote The Politics of This War.

...Harold Thompson of Detroit was scheduled to be guest speaker at the Rotary-Exchange luncheon. His subject was to be "Winning the Peace".

John D. Main Enters Bryan

John D. Main, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Main, 23939 Forest Park Drive, has begun his studies at Bryan College, Dayton, Tennessee.

Main, now a freshman, was graduated from the Northville High School in 1968. His home church is the First Baptist Church of Livonia.

A four-year Christian liberal arts college now in its 39th year, Bryan has completed a new classroom-laboratory complex, an off-campus dormitory, installed a new electronic chimes system for its chapel, and will open its $109,000 one-thousand seat gymnasium during the basketball season this fall.
