A Congratulatory Kiss from a Proud Mother

Junior Miss Leanne Gains State Finals

Her smile stretching from Redford to Northville, pretty — talented Leanne Steeper was named a Junior Miss regional winner Sunday afternoon.

The 17-year-old high school senior, who late last month was crowned Northville's 1969 Junior Miss, took a giant step towards becoming Michigan's Junior Miss in regional competition over the weekend at Redford.

She was one of 12 girls in a field of 26 talented teenagers who earned the honor of competing for the state crown next month in Pontiac.

All 26 girls, who were winners in Jaycee sponsored local pageants similar to the one held here in Northville, were given interviews by a team of six judges on Saturday to judge their mental alertness and poise. Their scholastic achievements also were reviewed.

The regional pageant was held Sunday at Redford Union High School, with each contestant given an opportunity to perform her own individual talent in the performing arts category. Leanne again presented her vocal solo of the song, "Sunrise, Sunset" and was warmly applauded by the audience.

She and the other 26 regional competitors were guests in homes in the Redford area during their three-day stay there. Leanne stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker of Livonia.

Leanne and the 11 other regional winners will join 12 regional outstate winners in the state finals at Pontiac on January 17 and 18, under the auspices of the Pontiac Jaycees.

Leanne's victory at Redford had Northville Jaycees beaming with pride. For the second straight year in sponsoring the Northville pageant, a Northville girl has advanced to the state finals.

Last year, Pam Smith garnered the Northville crown, advanced to the finals and then won the coveted Michigan title. Though she did not win in the national competition, she represented Northville and the state well and earned the respect of national officials.

Spokesman for the Northville Jaycees, who are being accused of harboring the state's most talented girls, are convinced Leanne will go "all the way" again this year and keep the state title in Northville.

Leanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Lorne Steeper of 19320 Marilyn Road, isn't quite as optimistic but she's nevertheless excited and enthusiastic about next month's colorful state finals.

Meanwhile, she's got plenty to keep her occupied here at Northville. One of the most active girls in the community, Leanne is a member of numerous student and church-sponsored organizations.

An A-minus student, she is a member of the Honor Society, secretary of her class, past board member of the Cavern teenagers club, member of the GAL board, teen chairman of ALSAC, vice-president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and a member of the high school and her church choir, Forensic and Thespians, Pep Club, and a staffer with the high school newspaper, The Mustang.

She is one of three children of the Steepers. Her two older brothers are equally talented and former Northville students. Fred is presently at the University of Michigan working on his doctorate, and Robert is a senior at Western Michigan University. Her brothers were unable to attend Sunday, but both were waiting by their phones for the results.

After graduation from high school in June, Leanne plans to enter Schoolcraft Community College and then transfer to Western where she'll major in English and eventually become a teacher.

Big Growth Seen

Winter Racing Holds Key to Downs' Future

There will be more harness racing at Northville Downs in 1969 than in any previous season of its 26-year history.

And many observers believe it's just the beginning of an expansion into winter racing dates for the local track.

Racing Commissioner Leo Shirley announced last week that Northville would have two meets — 54 nights from May 28 through July 29 — and then Jackson Raceway will conduct a 30-night meet here from November 24 through December 30.

Early Papers For Holidays

Because of the Christmas and New Year's holidays, the next two editions of The Northville Record-Now News will be published early.

Home delivery for the next two weeks will be made on Tuesday instead of Thursday.

Deadline for all news and advertising copy is Saturday noon.

Newspaper offices are open daily until 5 p.m. and Saturday until 1 p.m. All persons having news or advertising copy to submit are asked to do so as early as possible. Telephone number for news or advertising is FI 9-1700.

The 84 nights are the most ever held in a single season at Northville. And the December 30 closing date marks the latest racing has been conducted in Michigan.

To gain 30 nights of the Jackson meet (Jackson Raceway was awarded 40 nights from October 8 through November 22) Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo had to agree to spend some $2 million to construct a tri-level clubhouse, enclose the present grandstand and install heating and air conditioning.

Commissioner Shirley admitted that Northville would stand to gain more winter dates in the future because of its cold-weather accommodations. In addition to the clubhouse and stands, Northville is the only Michigan track providing winterized barns.

While there have been some efforts in the past to introduce thoroughbred racing to Northville Downs, Carlo has generally stood opposed to this on the basis that Northville has only a half-mile oval and that concentrating improvements on harness racing can result in making the Downs one of the finest harness tracks in the country.

To accomplish this objective Carlo has sought new tenants, specifically Leon Slavin, operator of the Jackson meet. "In order to spend the money necessary to make this a first-rate track we need more racing dates," Carlo has argued. He hopes that the Downs can continue to stage its meet during the prime summer season and that eventually Slavin, or another operator, can race 50 or more nights in Northville in October, November and December.

The expansion of racing at Northville Downs involves more than just the facility itself. An agreement between the track landlord, Northville Driving Club, had to be reached. While Northville Downs, under the direction of Carlo, operates the racing meet, the Driving Club owns the property and holds the racing license.

Both the Downs and the Driving Club stand to gain by the additional racing dates. Although the Driving Club agreed to a 10-year cut in rent to help finance the cost of the improvements at the track, the additional facilities immediately increase the value of the real estate. And revenues after the 10-year period promise to jump sharply.

The city of Northville also has a stake in the future of the track. Recognizing that traffic problems will be complicated by increased attendance at the track, the council has already set forth plans to extend Wing street south to Hines drive to provide an alternate route around the track during busy hours.

And this week the council pledged itself to another future project directly related to relief of track traffic problems. This entails the extension of Griswold south across Main Street to Beal and includes the widening of Beal. This project, which may take three or four years to accomplish, will provide a second inlet and outlet for track traffic and undoubtedly serve as the major route to the track from the new expressway planned along Haggerty road.

For its part the city stands to gain additional tax monies, both from the $2 million property improvements and from the rebates from mutual handle (betting).

Under state law the city in which a track is located receives 20 per cent of the state's share of the mutual handle. Actually, this amounts to one per cent of the total mutual handle. Last year the local track averaged more than $300,000 nightly, thus giving the city about $30,000 per racing night for the 54 night meet.

While attendance and betting is certain to increase after clubhouse

Sgt. LaFond Gift Wraps Meter

City police came up with a special Christmas gift for shoppers this week.

In a cooperative gesture with Northville retail merchants, Police Chief Samuel Elkins ordered his department Tuesday to honor "free" two-hour parking in downtown Northville.

And the merchants gift-wrapped the meters with bags that wish shoppers a merry Christmas.

Free parking will continue during the remaining few shopping days before Christmas.

facilities are completed, winter racing does not attract as many fans as summer.

Conservative estimates show the city gaining $60,000 in revenues from the 30-night winter meet in 1969. The summer rebates should increase, too, bringing the city's estimated share of 1969 mutual handle at Northville Downs to $240,000.

The limit cities can receive in rebates from the state is $500,000 annually. Some observers are predicting the limit will be reached within a decade.

Based on these anticipated revenues, and the fact that the theory behind state rebates to cities where tracks are located is that the money is needed to provide for exceptional traffic and police problems, Mayor A. M. Allen recently told the council that he would favor moving ahead immediately on the Wing and Griswold street extensions.

"I think we need these improvements anyway, but they're especially necessary for the expanded track traffic," the mayor stated. The council unanimously supported the proposals.

Wing street is scheduled to be completed this year.

There were indications Monday night, however, that the Griswold-Beal project might take awhile. City Manager Frank Ollendorff reported that the city's share of the project would be between $190,000 and $280,000.

The mayor suggested that the matter should be considered at budget time and that perhaps property purchases should be made piecemeal.

Novi Agrees to Pay Higher Drain Cost

With promise of an additional $9,500 from Novi in hand, the Northville city council moved a step closer this week to shoring up flood problems in bordering sections of the two communities.

Specifically, Novi councilmen agreed Monday night to pay a total of $35,500 — $9,500 more than originally agreed upon when the two communities decided to share the cost of installing a 42-inch storm sewer to drain an area servicing both communities.

Lowest bid for the shortest route, including engineering and inspection fees, came in at $71,000. An alternate route bid was $5,000 greater. Originally, the project has been estimated at $52,000 and Novi told Northville to go ahead with the proposal, agreeing to pay one half the cost "up to $26,000".

In addition to sharing half the cost of the sewer project, Northville will pick up an added $4,000 cost for a culvert under Grace Court.

After securing a promise Monday from the Novi Village Council to ante up extra money for the project, Northville officials returned to their own council meeting to get down to the business of choosing one of two routes for the sewer.

Although no choice was made, it appeared that most officials favored a route along an existing easement across the yards of several property owners along Allen Drive.

The alternate, longer route, which would cost an additional $5,000, would continue south on Novi Street South to Allen Drive and then be extended eastward along Eight Mile Road right-of-way to the river.

Councilman Delbert Black

opposed the shorter route because of the problems that could result with the property owners. Since they probably will object to having their yards cut up, any damage to their property outside the 12-foot easement would likely lead to suits against the city, he reasoned.

It was noted that a 42-inch line already is located along the easement and that installation of another line will require a cut up to nine feet deep, seven feet wide.

Supporting Black's position were City engineer Harold Penn and Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff, Mayor A. M. Allen and Councilman Wallace Nichols backed the shorter route, however. Among their arguments were: it's less expensive, property owners are aware the easement exists ("if the city can't use easements what good are they?"), and the alternate route will require approval by Oakland county which could delay the project from 30 to 60 days.

The disagreement was temporarily resolved when the council agreed to explore a suggestion of Attorney Marvin Stempien that the city rent additional space from property owners along the 12-foot easement to permit easy access by digging equipment, piling of dirt, etc.

Whichever route is picked, the new sewer is expected to help alleviate flood problems that have plagued the area in recent years.

The drain will serve an area extending from Northville Heights northward to Connemara subdivision in Novi. It will start at Maplewood about 150 feet west of Horton and extend along undeveloped Horton to Hill, then east to Novi Street and then go in one of the two proposed directions.

City OK's New Ordinances

Citizen conduct and driving habits received a stiff shot in the arm Monday night as the Northville City Council approved new regulatory ordinances.

The new laws include a uniform traffic code and all-encompassing disorderly conduct regulations. The former becomes effective immediately.

Approval of the misconduct regulations means the present laws will be amended and expanded to prohibit everything from drunkenness, begging, nude swimming, and fortunetelling to spitting.

Anyone engaging in any of the 39 violations listed in the ordinance faces disorderly conduct charges and may be prosecuted for committing a misdemeanor.

Furthermore, the ordinance provides that a wife may testify against her husband without his consent.

The uniform traffic code also approved by the council was given immediate effect so that traffic regulatory laws are similar to those in other communities within the new district court area. The district court begins operation January 1.

In other business Monday, the council approved the sale of Taft Road improvement bonds to Kenower MacArthur & Company, which submitted the low average interest bid of 5.369-percent. The only other bidder for purchase of the $89,000 worth of bonds was Bayport State Bank at 5.4 percent.

Approval also was given to scratch

School Closing Nips Flu Bug Invasion

It's probably a blessing in disguise that tomorrow marks the last day of school before Christmas vacation.

Hong Kong flu, rapidly sweeping across the state, has invaded many school systems, including Northville, and has just begun to boost absenteeism.

Many area college students returned home this week and last as at least two colleges closed doors early because the disease was rapidly reaching epidemic proportions.

the name of Mrs. Eileen Ramsay from the liquor license of Ramsey's Bar, 105 North Center Street. She is moving from the community, leaving William Boyd as the lone license holder.

Temporarily shelved was the appointment of a member to the board of review, replacing Russell Amerman who is ending a three-year term.

In Northville, Superintendent Raymond Spear said Monday that student absenteeism had risen to about 12 to 13-percent (300 students), absenteeism runs between 8 and 10-percent, he said.

Novi Superintendent Thomas Dale saw no abnormal absenteeism rate in his system, however, with the high school at about 13-percent and elementary grades at 12-percent.

Classes will resume here on Thursday, January 2.

Ron Asher Takes Bride in California

Beverly Blanchard and Ronald Asher were united in marriage Saturday, December 7 at Trinity Assembly of God in Pasadena, California. The afternoon ceremony was performed by the Reverend P. A. Zimmerman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Blanchard of Pasadena, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Asher of 453 Grace Street.

Soloist at the wedding was Bill Katter, with Rhoda Norheim the organist. Songs were "Because" and the "Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of white silk organza and French reembodyered Alencon lace. The gown featured a high-scooped neckline, three quarter sleeves and a detachable Watteau train. Lace appliques trimmed the sides and front of the slim skirt as well as the train. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, baby breath and detachable orchid.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Barbara Blanchard, wearing a hot pink Alaskine, empire-waist gown with portrait neck and back-flared panel attached to the dress with fabric roses. Her flowers were a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, baby breath and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Judy Farrell and Miss Rebecca McCormick, both cousins of the bride. They wore hot pink Alaskine gowns like the maid of honor's and also carried cascades of white and pink flowers. Susan Nelson served as flower girl, wearing an empire dress like the other attendants.

Best man was Gary Nelson; with Dennis Farrell and James Netherton serving as ushers. Keith Blanchard, the bride's brother, was ringbearer and Tommy Blanchard and Richard Asher were candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Blanchard chose a two-piece ensemble in hot pink silk featuring rhinestones on the collar of the dress. She had a corsage of butterfly orchids and white rosebuds. Mrs. Asher chose a lilac silk two-piece ensemble, and also had a corsage of butterfly orchids and white rosebuds.

The reception was held in the church's Fellowship Hall. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ben McCormick, Mrs. Fred Griffin, Mrs. Allen McAlister, Mrs. Bill Katter, Mrs. Steven Fry, Miss Melowdie Fresisen and Miss Becky Skrede.

Special guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sessions and Mrs. Ed Asher, all of Northville.

For her going-away outfit, the new Mrs. Asher chose a navy blue crepe A-line dress with long sleeves and Alencon lace trimming the collar and edge of the sleeves.

For their honeymoon the newlyweds will visit several of the outstanding sights in Europe before settling in Bitburg, Germany where they will live for the next two years. The bridegroom, an Airman First Class in the U.S. Air Force, is a medic stationed in Bitburg. After their return from Germany, they plan to live in Northville.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of John Muir high school in Pasadena and attended Pasadena City College. Her husband is a graduate of Northville high school.

MRS. RONALD ASHER

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

THIS IS THE season of warm hospitality with holiday greetings being exchanged at many parties and open houses.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Fountain continued a tradition begun in Canada and instituted here last year as they opened their home on Pickford road last Sunday afternoon for a Sherry Party.

Sunday evening the Warner Krauses of Fonner Road entertained church and neighborhood friends at an open house. A decorated Christmas tree already was in place, which the Krauses and daughter, Mary Jo, planned to enjoy now as they are leaving the day before Christmas to spend the holiday with family in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allan continued the tradition begun when they moved into their home on Shadbrook five years ago, holding an early December open house on December 8. The Frederick Hartts have planned a small buffet dinner party this Saturday evening at their home on Thayer Boulevard.

The William Wileys, who will be leaving for Rochester, New York, early in 1969, were entertained at a Christmas potluck of one of their bridge groups the first weekend in December at the home of the Gordon Forrers.

FIRST OPEN house of the season probably was the one given by the William Hefners at their home on Chigwidden the Sunday after Thanksgiving.

All neighbors in Northville Estates subdivision were invited to the smorgasbord dinner Tuesday evening at Thunderbird Inn. The thought of getting together informally to exchange holiday wishes was the William Tuckers. They sent out invitations to everyone in the growing subdivision and expected at least 32 couples.

Meadowbrook Country Club's annual Christmas dinner dance will be this Saturday evening. Northville couples with reservations include the Bernard Baldwins and the Philip Wegengs, who have a table for six.

TRASH 'N' Treasures is the name for the flea market sale being sponsored by Northville Historical Society January 11 at Northville First Presbyterian Church. It was selected by Mrs. Jack Scantlin, general chairman, as being descriptive of the arts-and-crafts, antiques and "old things" to be found in its booths.

Already 14 booths have been reserved, promising a variety of "browsing" material. Individuals as well as dealers are welcome, she emphasizes, adding that the society hopes to have a total of about 20 in all. They are rented at a nominal $6.50 each and there is to be no admission charge for the flea market.

"A first" for the historical society, the market will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Booths already have been reserved by Mrs. James Hayward for "old treasures"; by Bernie Bach who began assembling a wide collection of old bottles last summer; by Mrs. William Crump for herbs and colonial dried bouquets; by a mother-daughter duo from Plymouth who will have hand crafts and paintings; by Mizpah Circle, King's Daughters, who will have a bake sale; by local dealers as well as others from as far as Waterford.

Still others, including Mrs. R. G. Wetterstroem and Mrs. Margaret Zayti, are making tentative plans to sell paintings and craft work.

Barb Scantlin herself is considering taking a booth to "houseclean" her basement and attic of old goodies. Last week she was making market arrangements and saving time to take the Christmas Walk of Birmingham homes. Then after the sale she hopes to take a winter vacation in Florida and visit her parents there.

Taking a moment off from Christmas activities and preparations for her booth, Marion Crump visited the annual Christmas display at the Henry Ford Museum on opening day.

THE MUSEUM'S presentation this year is Nativity Scenes and Figures as the museum recalls the "true meaning of Christmas... showing the importance of creches in American households during past Christmases."

An announcement from the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village adds that "some of the creches date back to the late 18th century and are made of many types of materials and come from all parts of the world." In Greenfield Village many of the historic buildings are decorated in the way they might have been by their original occupants.

Other holiday-season visitors who had planned to go to the museum last Saturday were Lisa Luehrs and several classmates. The outing was to be a "farewell" for the Moraine fourth-grader, who is moving to Wyckoff, New Jersey with her brother and parents, the Harry Luehrs. Weather conditions cancelled the trip, so a going-away party for Lisa was held right here in Northville. The Luehrs family moved to Northville Estates 15 months ago from Grand Rapids.

AN OLD-FASHIONED musical Christmas program is planned for this Friday for Northville Woman's Club. It will be at 1:30 p.m. at Northville Presbyterian Church. Mrs. H. O. Evans is chairman.

The program traditionally honors new members of the club. It will conclude with a holiday tea.

MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE Nanci Slattery is filling in at the women's desk here during the holidays and would like your news - especially about college students.

I wish you all Merry Christmas and a Happy Holiday season.

Patients Get Bowling Treat

Sixteen patients of Northville State Hospital were guests of the Northville Jaycee Auxiliary in a Friday afternoon of bowling fun at Northville Lanes.

Project Chairman Mrs. Janet Lindholm, was assisted by five other Jayettes in organizing and carrying the special program to a successful conclusion. To assist the busy women, two other Jayettes played babysitters for the afternoon.

State hospital patients ranged in age from 14 to 21. Although some of them had never bowled a game in their lives previously, all thoroughly enjoyed themselves, Mrs. Lindholm reported.

Jayettes also provided snacks and soft drinks for the group.

The afternoon of fun was part of the continuing program in the mental health field sponsored by Northville Jayettes.

Assisting Mrs. Lindholm were Mrs. Sue Anger, Mrs. Mary Hilton, Mrs. Sheila Norgen, Mrs. Lesa Buckland and Mrs. Pat Klocke. Doing duty as baby sitters were Mrs. Carol Belz and Mrs. Judy Totten.

Meadowbrook Plans Snow Ball

The second annual Snow Ball for the young set will be held at Meadowbrook Country Club Friday, December 27. Following a buffet dinner, there will be live music. Guests are welcome, but must be accompanied by a member.

Announce Engagements

Dean and Mrs. Alton Sawin Jr. of Madison, New Jersey announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Douglas Warren Arlig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Arlig of Winchendon, Massachusetts. The bride-to-be is a 1965 graduate of Madison High School and will graduate in June from Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts with a degree in civil engineering. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stanford of 612 Orchard drive and the daughter of the former Eugenia Stanford.

Her father is the Dean of College Students of the College of Liberal Arts at Drew University, Madison, New Jersey.

Her fiance graduated from Winchendon high school in 1965 and will also graduate from Tufts University in June. He will receive a degree in electrical engineering. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. A late June, 1969 wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sasse of Coleman, Michigan announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Donald L. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coleman of 25615 Clark, Novi.

The wedding date has been set for April 19.

Old Yule Tradition Survives Cooky Baking's Still A Favorite

"Cooky baking" is one old-fashioned tradition of the Christmas season that still is continued in area kitchens. Unlike popcorn and cranberry stringing and candy making, it has not become a rarity.

Recipes are handed down and shared as many cooks become known for the Christmas specialties. Several of those that appeared at holiday parties have been shared with the paper.

Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton not only made the original tin cooky cutters in the shape of the old library that are destined to become a "trademark of Northville Historical Society" but also lent her basic sugar cooky recipe to make them.

These cookies will make their official debut at the Trash 'n' Treasures flea market the society is sponsoring January 11 at the Presbyterian Church. The idea for such a library-shaped cooky was Mrs. H. H. Sutherland's. She has been assisting with the baking, as has Mrs. Jack Scantlin, market chairman.

This sugar cooky recipe, Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton shares, is a basic that lends itself to many variations. "You can do anything with it," she asserts, recalling that it originally came from Genoa, Ohio, "from Em Turner who lived next door to my Grandmother."

MOTHER'S SUGAR COOKIES

The basic recipe: (A drop cookie)

- 1 c. shortening
- 2 c. sugar (1 white, 1 brown)
- 2 large eggs or 3 small
- 1 c. thick sour milk
- 4 1/2 c. flour sifted with

- 1 tsp. soda
- 1 rounded tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. fresh grated nutmeg

Variations:

If you have no sour milk substitute sweet milk and 3 tsp. lemon juice or half milk and half grapefruit juice or 1 c. orange juice.

Prepare the milk and juice mix first and let it stand till you are ready for it. The juice alone makes a crisper cooky than the sour milk.

The recipe may be used as a plain sugar cooky or you may add 2 cups of fruit and nuts as for fruit cake. Drop by teaspoons on a baking sheet and press down gently with the bottom of a glass that has been buttered lightly and dipped in granulated sugar.

For shortening, says Mrs. Edgerton, Mother used lard, I use oleo.

Flavor: she used tutti-frutti but I haven't seen this on the market for years. I use 1 tsp. vanilla, 1 tsp. lemon, and a few drops of orange.

If you want butterscotch flavor, use two cups of brown sugar and only the vanilla flavor.

If you use a rounded up cup of shortening (be generous) and an additional 3/4 cup of flour you can roll these. If you do this, keep the dough cool.

This German confection cooky does "melt in your mouth." Mrs. Warner Krause originally obtained the recipe directly from Frankenmuth, Michigan, where such German treats are a specialty. The rosette iron needed for them now is available at hardware and department stores.

Because the recipe makes 50 of the fragile rosettes, Mrs. Krause recommends it for large groups. She made all the ones served at the Christmas tea of the Northville branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, last week at the home of Mrs. George Kohs. She warns that there is breakage of the fine rosettes, however.

EISENCKLE

- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 2 tsp. sugar
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 c. milk
- 1 c. flour
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract

Add sugar to slightly beaten egg. Then add milk. Add pre-sifted flour and salt, stirring into first mixture until batter is smooth - about consistency of heavy cream. Add flavoring.

Dip rosette iron into hot fat to heat it. (Use cooking oil, says Mrs. Krause). Use a fry pan or deep fryer. Oil should be hot enough to brown a piece of bread while counting to 60. Batter won't come off the iron unless it is hot enough.

Drain iron on paper towel and dip heated iron into not more than 3/4 height. Plunge batter-coated iron into hot oil and cook 2-3 min. until cookie is light brown and comes off the iron. Remove from oil and drain on towel and while still warm dip in powdered sugar.

The cookies will freeze well.

When Novi's Orchard Hills school held its International Night earlier this month, Jean Michaels obtained two cooky recipes that had brought "rave" notices.

From Mrs. Casaglos comes this Greek Cooky:

KOULOURAKIA

- 1 c. butter
- 1/4 c. Crisco
- 1 c. sugar
- 5 eggs
- 1/2 c. orange juice
- 4 tsp. baking powder
- 1 Tbsp. vanilla
- 4-5 c. flour

Cream butter. Add sugar and

Crisco, beaten eggs. Stir in dry ingredients and add flour until it kneads to a doughy consistency. Pinch off pieces and shape into twists. Glaze: brush on egg and sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake 350 degrees 15 min. or until lightly brown.

This Czechoslovakian recipe is from Mrs. Pat Arbour:

- 1/2 lb. butter
- 1 c. sugar
- 2 egg yolks
- 2 c. flour
- 1 c. chopped walnuts
- 1/2 c. strawberry jam

Start oven 325 degrees and grease WELL an 8 inch square pan. Cream butter. Add sugar slowly and blend in egg. Gradually add flour and fold in nuts. Spoon half of batter into pan. Then spread the jam over it. Place remaining dough in blobs and spread with knife as much as possible. Bake 1 hour at 325 degrees. Cool and cut in 1 by 2 inch bars. Makes 2 1/2 dozen.

LUCKY STARS

This Pillsbury Grand National Prize recipe is such a favorite of Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton's that, when she once misplaced it, she wrote the company for the duplicate:

- 1 1/3 c. sifted Pillsbury's flour
- 1/2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/2 c. butter
- 1/4 c. sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract
- 1 tsp. almond extract
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 egg

Oven 400 Degrees. 2-3 dozen cookies

Sift flour with baking powder. Cream butter in mixing bowl. Gradually add sugar; cream until light and fluffy. Blend in vanilla and almond extracts, salt and egg. Gradually add the dry ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Roll out on floured surface to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut with star-shaped cooky cutter. Place a teaspoonful of filling in center of each star. Bring the five points upright. Starting at the base, pinch sides together so points stand up, allowing filling to show. Place on ungreased cooky sheets. Bake 400 degrees for 7 to 10 minutes until light golden brown.

NUT FILLING

- 1/2 c. ground or finely chopped walnuts or pecans
- 1/3 c. sugar
- 1/16 tsp. butter, melted
- 2 tsp. water
- 1/16 tsp. maple flavoring

Combine nuts, sugar and salt. Add butter, water and maple flavoring; mix thoroughly.

MOLASSES CRISPS (To Decorate)

- 1 c. Molasses
- 1 c. sugar
- 1/2 c. butter or oleo
- 1/2 c. lard

Bring to boil and simmer in sauce pan. Pour over

2 c. flour
2 beaten eggs

Around Northville

A bridal tea was held recently in honor of Mrs. Lolah Noll at the home of Mrs. M. J. Willing, 19300 Smock Road. Mrs. Noll, secretary at Ida B. Cooke Junior High School, will marry George Scheuder in January. Thirty ladies attended the tea, including secretaries, teachers and other friends.

Northville Estates subdivision held a Christmas dinner party Tuesday night at Thunderbird Inn. It was organized by Mr. and Mrs. William Tucker.

The King's Mill Teen Club is having a Christmas holiday dance this Saturday evening. A Christmas tree trimming party was held this past Sunday.

Orient Chapter No. 77, Order of the Eastern Star will hold a business meeting this Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Northville Masonic Temple.

A Christmas party, refreshments and revealing of Secret Pals will follow the meeting.

Gail Nirider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Essie Nirider of Grace Street, will be student teaching for a term off-campus beginning in January. A senior at Michigan State University, she is majoring in history. Another senior at Michigan State, Nancy Bosak, daughter of the Frank Bosaks of Nine Mile Road, just completed her term of student teaching.

Guilds Pack Gift Baskets

The first activity of the newly-formed guilds of Our Lady's League at Our Lady of Victory church is preparing Christmas food baskets for needy families in the Inner City.

Thirteen neighborhood guilds are working together on this initial project. The guilds were formed to increase the effectiveness of the League by extending it into the neighborhoods. Through the guilds the women are able to become better acquainted with the League and with each other by working in smaller groups, officials explain.

Heads of the individual guilds are Mrs. Frank Korte, Mrs. Gregory Penrod, Mrs. Paul Hunke, Mrs. John Frakes, Mrs. Robert Flattery, Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. John McGuire.

Also, Mrs. Bernard Adams, Mrs. Claude Crusoe, Mrs. William Furtges, Mrs. Roger Rinaldi, Mrs. Norman Faustyn, Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Mrs. Richard Alspaugh.

BASKETS FOR NEEDY — Our Lady of Victory Church women have been busy packing baskets for the needy in the Inner City. Shown putting the finishing touches on one of their gifts are (left to right) Mrs. Paul Hunke, Mrs. Frank Korte and Mrs. Andrew Pelto. Absent when the picture was taken, but very active in the packing according to Mrs. Korte, was Mrs. Gregory Penrod.

For Contest Entry Scrapbooks Take Shape

A mountain of clippings, pictures and letters are rapidly being whittled down into a concise but graphic story of Northville's efforts to win the 1968 edition of the National Clean Up Contest.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson reported Thursday that much of the preliminary work has been done, with the bulk of the remaining work involving the assembly of material in the two - perhaps three - scrapbooks.

Similar preparations by communities throughout the United States are underway as each makes a bid for top honors in the annual contest. Judging is based upon the material, telling the local community's efforts to improve itself, contained in these books.

This year, for the first time, she explained only the top scrapbooks in the nation will be placed on display at the National Congress on Beautification at Washington, D.C., February 23 to 25.

A panel of seven judges will pick the national winners.

The conference, where awards are announced and municipal officials confer each year, has a new name. Now the National Congress on Beautification, it formerly was called the National Cleanest Town Conference.

The new name fits the Northville program "to a tee" since the local municipal agency that boosts better community appearance throughout the year is itself named "Northville Beautification Commission."

Hard at work on the local scrapbooks are Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Levi Eaton, and Mrs. Edward Landau, newest member of the commission.

Original paintings, which will depict famous Northville landmarks, will be used as scrapbook covers. They are being painted by Mrs. Harold Hartley of Hartley-Powers Gallery.

Thieves Hit Church Again

The First Presbyterian Church has a hard time holding onto the Christmas wreaths used to decorate the large, double front door of the church.

Last year, both wreaths disappeared soon after they were put up on the door. Now, again this holiday time, churchgoers Sunday discovered one of the wreaths has already disappeared from the door once more.

TABLE SCRAPS-With compilation of Northville's 'Clean Up' contest entry about to begin, paper, pictures and letters stretched from table to table in the home of Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson. When work is complete, the material will fill two and possibly three scrapbooks for entry in the national Clean-Up contest conducted annually at Washington, D.C.

Recitals Fill Holiday Air

Christmas recitals of local piano students have filled the holiday air with music this week. Last Friday the students of Mrs. William Williams held a recital, with a Christmas party following.

Students taking part were Eric Horner, Wayne Brasure, Esther Fountain, Roberta and Laurie Day, Debbie Curl, Robin Couse, Kurt Kastner, Allison Lamb.

Also, Mary Stephens, Charles Sandford, Patti Johnson, Liza Luehrs, Kim and Cathy Slotnick, Mike and Jill Polkinghorn.

The piano students of Mrs. Robert Froelich are holding their holiday recital today, and will also follow it by a party.

Those in the recital include Donna and Debbie Guard, Candy McCurdy, Brian Dyer, Cyndi Hunt, Janine and Carol Pelt, David and Sarah Pixley, Kathy Sechler, Kathy Jones and Shelly Millard.

Christmas Services Set Sunday

The celebration of Christmas begins this week with many local church services and programs. In Northville, St. Paul's Lutheran church will present its Sunday school Christmas program Sunday evening. The lower division will present its program at 6, the upper at 7:30.

A special holiday cantata, "The Wonder of Christmas" will be held Sunday at 7:30 at First Baptist Church of Northville. Dewey Gardner is directing the hour-long cantata.

Children are encouraged to attend worship services along with their parents this Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church for a special family worship. Services will be at the usual times, 9:30 and 11 a.m. Bellingers will provide music.

The First United Methodist church will have a special musical emphasis during its 8.30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday. The combined choirs will sing at both services.

Other area churches are beginning to celebrate Christmas this week too. The Orchard Hills Baptist Church has a party planned for senior citizens at Oak Hill Nursing Home this Friday. Sunday a Christmas program is planned at the church at 7 p.m. with the Training Union preceding the program at 6 p.m. for all ages.

The Choir at the First Baptist Church of Novi will perform Sunday at the 11 a.m. service. The message at the service will be "Born to Die". The Sunday school Christmas program will LEARNING HOMEMAKERS — In a special "learning program", students in Ida B. Cooke Junior High School home economics classes Monday night served as hostesses for an open house in their decorated classrooms. Parents and guests while visiting the gaily decorated rooms were treated to tasty refreshments whipped up by the girls. According to the girls' teachers, Miss Meroe Stanley and (student teacher) Miss Angela Butler, the open house served a two-fold purpose: it gave the girls an opportunity to demonstrate some of their newly acquired homemaking skills and it gave parents an opportunity to visit the classroom and meet the teachers.

OBITUARIES

Saratoga Manager Dies

VIRGINIA FAYDENKO
Virginia Therese Faydenko, 41, a prominent and popular area businesswoman died Monday night of last week. She had been ill for the past few months.

Mrs. Faydenko was the assistant manager of Saratoga Farms Restaurant in Novi which is owned by her mother, Mrs. Joseph (Rose) Marchesotti. Mrs. Faydenko resided with her husband, Steve, and three children at 33608 State Street in Farmington. She is survived by her mother, husband, son Gregory J. (attending Michigan State University), and daughters Marguerite M. and Annette R. at home.

A nearly lifelong resident of Farmington, Mrs. Faydenko (who was born in Detroit) was a member of Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church where rosary was read Thursday night. Msgr. Thomas P. Beahan officiated at the funeral Friday at Our Lady of Sorrows. Interment was at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Detroit.

TEMPORARY SIGN — While Northville Township officials considered monuments of more permanent nature, a temporary sign has been erected in the township's historic Waterford Cemetery on Franklin Road. Dr. Robert Geake (left), who suggested a monument and improvement of the cemetery property to township officials, looks over the township sign with Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg.

PAUSE THAT REFRESHES—Following a guided motor tour of the city Sunday afternoon, officials of the city and township of Northville and a representative of the Northville School Board stopped at the newly rejuvenated Fish Hatchery storage building for coffee and tasty refreshments served up by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prom. It was at Prom's suggestion as recreation director that the building has been converted to a "skating shanty" in anticipation of a winter season of skating fun on a fish hatchery pond. The building is now heated, contains toilet facilities, and is just perfect for warming freezing toes. Moving past the refreshment table are Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson and Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg. The two men on the left are DPW Director Herman Hartner and Prom. At the right is Councilman Charles Lapham. By the way, the skating pond isn't quite ready yet but Prom's hopeful skaters can start using them by Christmas.

PASS GET THROUGH — This pass got through from Terry Mills to Jeff Taylor despite the efforts of Lee Snow as Northville showed too much finesse and speed for the Wildcats in the first meeting ever between these two natural foes.

Wildcats Swamped, 76-46

Northville Nips Novi Win Streak

With the start of what may become a keen rivalry, Northville's Mustangs upended the previously unbeaten Wildcats of neighboring Novi Tuesday night, 76-46.

It was the first game in history between these two schools — Novi having just become a full high school.

Meanwhile, the Colts kept their winning streak intact, drubbing Novi's winless JV quintet, 77-33, in the preliminary contest at Northville. It was Northville's fifth-straight win.

Using a press that forced the Novicagers to play its game, Northville took the lead in the first quarter and then widened its edge in each of the three remaining stanzas.

Forward Ron Hubbard, enjoying his hottest night of the season and the best single scoring performance this season by any Mustang, netted an even dozen field goals while converting on both of his free throw attempts.

Ten of the other 12 Northville players hit the scoring column in a demonstration of an evenly distributed offensive attack.

Novi, on the other hand, with a victory over Ypsilanti Roosevelt still warm, just couldn't find the basket. Highest scoring mark for the Mustangs was a pair of 10-pointers turned in by Gary Boyer and Lee Snow. Novi's sky-jumping star, Jon VanWagner, was held to a meager nine points.

The host team led 16-10 at the close of the first quarter, increased the lead to 40-25 at the intermission, and climbed to 56-36 at the three-quarter mark.

The JV contest was much of the same. Although Novi's Bob Vivian flipped in 18 points to lead both teams in scoring, his effort wasn't even threatened by his teammates. Northville's highest point-getter was Forward Steve Utley with just 14, but 11 other players hit the scoring column to aid the Colts' cause

Wildcats Nip Ypsi, 46-41

Novi streaked to a seven-point halftime margin and coasted to their second straight win of the season Friday night.

The score over Ypsilanti Roosevelt at Eastern Michigan's Bowen Fieldhouse was 46-41.

Both squads seemed destined for a close, low-scoring contest when they poured through 11 points each in the opening stanza. However, the Wildcats established a lead they were not to relinquish in the second period when they outpointed Ypsi 13-6 to take a 24-17 halftime advantage.

Outscoring the Roosevelt cagers 10-8 in the third quarter moved the Novi margin to 34-25 and enabled the Cats to hold off the determined final rush which saw Ypsi outpoint them 16-12 in the last period to establish the 46-41 outcome.

A sparkplug throughout for the losing cause was Mike Lundy who made his presence felt in every quarter and wound up topping both squads with 18 points for the night.

Tops for Novi were Jon VanWagner (again) and Tom Boyer who had 15 and 12 points, respectively. Also scoring for the Cats were Dave Bingham with seven, Gary Boyer — six, Lee Snow — five and Don Maki, who added the other tally.

Redskins Scalp Mustangs, 78-55

It's great to be fast 'n scrappy — but, man, a few more inches in height can sure tip the scales in today's brand of basketball.

It's a big man's game nowadays. This truism was never more obvious than last Friday as Northville's varsity quintet dropped its first Wayne-Oakland League contest in two starts. Ask Coach Bob Kucher.

"A few inches can really make the difference," he commented following the Mustangs' 78-55 loss at Milford. "Our boys hustled as hard as they could but they gave away the height advantage... and that made the difference."

The Mustangs tossed the press, man-to-man, and a variation of a zone press against the Redskins but none was fool proof as Milford hugged the boards and kissed the nets almost at will in solemnizing the victory.

Breaking away with a 23-11 first-quarter lead, the Redskins forced the Mustangs to switch from a zone defense to a man-to-man press. Milford just wasn't supposed to be tough from outside the battle zone — at least that's what the scouting reports showed. But its tall front line popped them in anyway.

The press slowed the Redskins but not enough to prevent them from boosting their margin to 14 points at the intermission, 38-24.

Going into the final quarter, Northville continued trying to hurry the ball and the resulting mistakes were disastrous. By the end of the quarter, Milford had added 22 insurance points to Northville's 8.

The Mustangs hit on 22 of its 60 shots for just 35-percent, pumped in 52-percent of its 21 shots from the free throw line, and came up with 33 rebounds. Best shooting effort was by Forward Jeff Taylor, who hit on half of his 16 field goal attempts and six of his 10 free shots for a total of 22 points.

Three Milford players broke the 20-point mark, with Mark Giegler leading the way with 24 points.

Matmen Pinned Again

Northville dropped its second straight wrestling match Thursday night, but not before staging a stirring comeback.

Waterford Kettering took a 24-21 victory over the Mustangs in the first Wayne-Oakland encounter of the season for each.

Down 21-5 after seven of the 12 matches had been completed, Northville's matmen had to win the final five to pull out a victory. Brad Conklin, recovering from a cold and an ankle injury, lost 2-4 to Mark Stites to seal the Mustangs' doom, but they did sweep the other four bouts to nearly claim an upset win.

Winners for Northville included the always impressive Captain Curt Olewnik, 145-pounds, who beat a tough Gary Jones 10-1. Other fine wins were recorded by 154-pound Randy Marburger who came from behind 7-4 to pin Scott Dennis at 3:09, by Heavyweight Fred Hicks who pinned Tom Berden at 1:53 of the opening period, by David D'Haene who beat Larry Burns 9-5 in the 175-pound class and by Bill Kris who was wrestling up one weight and defeated Dave Manganello 4-0 in the 120-pound class to register Northville's first decision of the meet.

A big decision was gained for Kettering when Joe Van Druska upset Mark Griffin 2-0 in the 112-pound weight group.

Other Northville wrestlers included Chris Jones, who was pinned by Larry Bridgewater in 33 seconds (95 pounds); Jeff Forth, who fell to Tom Smith (103 pounds) by 9-6; Jim Armstrong (127 pounds) who drew with Jim Walton; Ron Newby (133 pounds) who was pinned by Mike Gray and 138-pound Brian Jones who lost a decision to Joe LeMarbe.

Coach Jack Townsley said he felt his boys were coming along somewhat slowly, but that they were definitely outmatched at some weights. He added that the comeback made a very exciting match of it and that strength and experience should bring about more favorable performances by his boys in future meets.

Townsley was hoping for an all-out attempt at maintaining the Dexter Invitational championship for Northville (see story) over the weekend. Three boys have really pleased him with their performance. Olewnik and Marburger have done very well and Hicks has been especially strong for a first year wrestler.

Gracious Sakes, Dexter!

Dexter proved an ungracious host last weekend.

It won its own wrestling tournament, unseating last year's champion, Northville, which finished fourth.

Colts Survive Fouls, Milford

The Colts' raised their season record to 4-0 Friday night, but it was an all-out effort to do so.

Opposition was furnished by Milford's JV Redskins and some spoiling officials' decisions, but the Colts eked out a 59-54 victory.

Bernie Bach, the only member of Northville's tall and imposing front wall who didn't foul out, netted 20 points to lead both squads. Bach was the only Colt in double figures, but Mike Monnier had 19 and second-half hotshot Tom Harris (both fouled out) had 13 in the losing cause.

A total of 50 fouls were called (25 a side) as whistles ruled all action. The quarter scores (Northville led at each and is listed first) were 15-6, 30-29, 41-38 and 59-54.

Hall of Fame Picks Chick

Melvin R. "Chick" Harbert, well known in the Northville area as the longtime golf professional at Meadowbrook country club, has been named the 39th member of golf's Hall of Fame.

Now headquartered in Florida, Harbert was voted into the elite circle by the 25 living members of the Hall of Fame.

Harbert, a native of Battle Creek, capped his career by winning the PGA championship in 1954. He was a member and captain of the U.S. Ryder Cup team and won a half dozen PGA tour events.

The long-hitting Harbert was always at his best in match play. He defeated Walter Burkemo of Detroit in the finals of the match-play PGA tourney to win his crown, and previously had reached the finals twice — losing on the 35th hole to Jim Ferrier in 1947 and on the last hole to Jim Turnesa in 1952.

Northville Coach Jack Townsley said that if his team had not had to forfeit the 165 pound weight class due to the illness of David D'Haene (Brad Conklin wrestled at Dave's 175 pound weight, the Mustangs might have wrestled third place from Clinton, but Dexter and second-place Chelsea were just too strong.

Curt Olewnik continued to uphold his coach's faith in him by capturing the 145 pound championship. Northville also registered two seconds with Conklin and Randy Marburger (at 154 pounds) coming through. Fourth were won by 95-pound Chris Jones, 103-pound Jeff Forth and 127-pound Jim Armstrong as several wrestlers began to show improvement for Townsley.

Townsley says that he hopes the experience gained in the tourney will stand his matmen in good stead when they take on Brighton at Brighton tonight.

Brighton's Bulldogs were among the bottom four finishers in the Dexter tourney. East Jackson followed Northville, and Saline and Pinckney joined the Bulldogs in the bottom trio.

Renewal Sought

Township Studies Mining License

A request from A. M. Thomson for renewal of a permit to remove sand and gravel in the Six Mile-Ridge Road area is currently under consideration by the Northville board of appeals and awaits approval of that body pending certain qualifications.

The permit would be for five years, subject to annual renewal.

Specifically, the board of appeals directed the township engineer and attorney to draft a permit that would set forth boundary lines, a 6 to 1 slope requirement, placement of the dump drain, rehabilitation of the property and an increase in fees.

Thomson appeared before the appeal board and indicated that he planned to develop a golf course on the property at the conclusion of mining. The township's planning consultant cited possible use of the property for recreational purposes, as an alternative to residential. It was noted, however, the only hard fill, such as earth could be used in rehabilitation, and definitely not incinerator ash.

Set back requirements suggested were 250 feet from the center line of Beck Road and 103 feet on Ridge Road.

In other business the appeal board granted a renewal of a one year permit to Sheldon Hayes to operate an asphalt plant. A request for a renewal of a permit for removal of sand and gravel by Sheldon Hayes was tabled until a recommendation is made by the planning commission.

In its last meeting the township planning commission tabled a rezoning request by the Slavik Realty Company on Six Mile Road and denied a rezoning request from Michigan Commercial Contractors. The latter asked for rezoning from single family residential to multiple dwelling for the purpose of erecting 62 condominium apartments. The proposed site is at Bradner and Franklin Roads.

A similar request in the same area by Smokler Development company was tabled. A request for rezoning on Haggerty Road from R-4 to B-2 to allow construction of a car wash was made by H. J. Wilson of Wil-O-Mac. It was referred to the planning consultant for recommendation.

Finally, planners denied a request for rezoning 16.5 acres on the west side of Beck Road between Six and Seven Mile Roads from R-2 to R-4. This would permit single family residences on smaller lots. The planning consultant advised the board that if the request were granted the entire area would have to be considered for smaller lots.

Hams See Film On Earthquake

A film, "The Day The Earth Moves", highlighted a meeting of the Stu Rockafellow Amateur Radio Society Tuesday evening in Plymouth.

The club, which includes members from Northville and Novi, also saw 45-minutes of pictures with sound of the Alaskan Earthquake and the part played by amateur radio operators in aiding the victims of the disaster.

Members also enjoyed a Christmas party at this December meeting.

School Concept Explained

What's 'Quadrimester' Mean?

EDITOR'S NOTE - Following is the third in a series of articles by a Northville School committee which has been studying the possibility of adopting an extended year program for this school system.

What is the Quadrimester Concept?

"Quadrimester Concept" means an extended school year broken into four parts. It is an idea that has developed over a period of years of experimentation in other systems in the country and has reached its present form through practical application and necessity.

With the changes that have occurred in education in the last decade, the pressing burden of the tax structure and the taxpayer's resistance to it, school systems are faced with economic problems of a disturbingly overwhelming nature. Drastic changes, like half days or split shifts, threaten us and with them we face a breakdown of educational excellence.

There's a lot to be learned today. While the Quadrimester isn't the big heaven-sent "answer" to everything, it does offer certain alternatives to the majority of our educational problems. It has great flexibility and flexibility is vital to both the family unit and educators. Its purpose is to help accomplish four tasks:

- 1. To advance the quality, scope and flexibility of the educational program.
2. To realize tax savings by getting a greater amount of pupil education per tax dollar.
3. To allow for a more effective use of the teaching staff.
4. To increase the use of the school properties.

After the purpose, the method. It's method is in the revamping of the school calendar. If you set up four semesters rather than two, stretch them from 9 to 11 months, and rotate the students so that there are 75 percent of them in session at one given time and 25 percent out on vacation at one given time, you can achieve the purposes stated above.

The family unit looks at this new idea with some trepidation. To alleviate any pre-conceived notions we can fall back on flexibility again. With Quadrimester, families can arrange to be in school at the same sessions, whatever the amount of children or schools involved. Families can then plan vacations accordingly. Traditional Christmas and Thanksgiving holidays will continue to exist and the entire system will close down for two weeks in July. These breathers are important for everyone and the summer vacation should be significantly helpful in calming the cries of children.

Many schools operate summer sessions and many universities operate year-around with quarterly or tri-semester systems. Government and industry operate, more or less, all year 'round. The American Public School System is the only major institution in the nation functioning fully on the average of only 180 days out of 364. Yet the total expenditure for public education is second only to national defense.

If family situations can be satisfactorily arranged with Quadrimester, what about teachers? Under the present system a large number of highly skilled professional people are using their valuable training only three-fourths of the year, because only a small portion of the teachers have the chance to pursue their careers the remaining one-fourth of the year. The economic and social waste in the nation is significant.

Because of this, many teachers view teaching as part-time employment. Some may argue that teachers can get summer jobs, however, comparable positions aren't readily available and teachers are faced with taking what is available or becoming an unemployment statistic. Labor Department employment tables bear this out. The NEA reports that almost 75 percent of married men teachers hold two year 'round jobs or work summers, or both, in order to supplement family income. Forty-percent have wives who work, as compared with a national average of 34.3-percent of all men in the labor force. Consequently, the teaching profession simply can't attract or retain capable male teachers in keeping with the need, and this, along with the same principle applied to the entire profession, creates a turnover rate that is higher than in any other occupation.

A teacher's certificate identifies the bearer as being one who has accomplished years of professional training. This is a commodity that can be efficiently employed elsewhere. We lose many fine teachers to industry. Quadrimester is designed to make teaching a permanent, full-time profession by providing the teachers with 11 months' professional employment.

If the teachers taught all four quarters we would theoretically need only 75-percent of the teachers required for a traditional schedule. This is because only 75 percent of the student body is in session at one time. With the reduction in the teaching staff, the shortage of good teachers would be alleviated. Since pupil enrollments will be increasing here as elsewhere, 25-percent fewer new teaching positions would be necessitated with any given increase in enrollments. Schools would need fewer teachers who are not fully qualified.

Salary adjustments would be made. The annual salary for the average teacher would now be substantially higher and schools would be in a much stronger position to compete with industry for highly qualified male and female personnel; schools would probably hold their teachers longer; teachers would no longer suffer the demoralizing effect of a forced annual three month retirement, and, with teaching salaries supporting the entire family unit the year around, employment figures would shift and part time jobs would be available to others.

Studies indicate that this teacher transition to Quadrimester, by reducing the instructional staff 25-percent and increasing the pay of those remaining by 20-percent, would result in a total payroll saving of 10-percent. Since about 70-percent of total current expenditures represents teacher salaries, this is a major savings.

One of the most valuable contributions we could make to our children and their future would be to improve the status of the educational profession. This would attract and retain more capable people.

A chain reaction would occur: Better teachers would provide better instruction and motivate students to better prepare themselves for college or the technical skills of industry. This kind of stimulus could reduce the drop-out rate in high school. Certainly, Quadrimester offers to increase the social usefulness and economic productivity of a vitally important and highly skilled professional group, while improving educational instruction for our children in the process. At a savings of 10-percent it's looking better all the time, isn't it. More next week.

Four Injured In Auto Crash

A jarring crash split the early evening stillness of downtown Northville Sunday as passengers of two cars met unexpectedly at the Main and Center intersection.

Four persons were injured.

At about 6 p.m. a car driven by Charles H. Crumm of Orchard Lake and carrying his two 12-year-old sons, Colin and Charles, attempted to make a left turn onto Main Street from the southbound lane of Center. The Crumm vehicle turned directly into the path of a northbound vehicle driven by Glenn A. Melow of Plymouth. Melow's car contained Margaret Melow and Mary Sackett.

Northville said four persons were injured, two of whom were treated for cuts and bruises and were released from St. Mary Hospital. The other two apparently were not injured enough to warrant hospitalization. Treated were Margaret Melow and Colin Crumm.

The elder Crumm was issued a ticket for making an improper left turn.

NEW BUSINESS FULLY AUTOMATED

Car Wash Opens Doors

The Northville- Novi area's newest car wash officially opened recently when Robo-Wash started its 75-cents per car operation.

Robo-Wash currently has two bays and takes two minutes to fully wash an auto in either. Plans are in the offing for an additional bay on the east end and room has been provided for this.

Manager Don Kres says that "the real beauty" of his operation is that nothing ever touches the car but soft water and "you don't have to get out of your car at all."

The wash is located on 350 feet of land, 110 feet wide next door to the Pepper Tree Restaurant on Novi Road.

This is the same "waterless carwash" that drew some notoriety over the past several weeks when delay in water line construction left the new facility "high and dry."

With the problem solved now, however, the new business is off and running.

Caring for Park Tables No Picnic Even in Winter

Caring for picnic tables is no picnic — even in winter.

It's hard work, which picks up steam locally during the winter months as workmen at nearby Parkview Yard repair tables, damaged by time and vandalism, for Cass Benton and the Middle Rouge parkway.

New tables are built in Wayne in the spring of the year, as needed, but repair of some 200 to 300 tables each year goes on all winter in the various local Wayne County shops, like Parkview Yard.

Repair workmen say they'll use 915 bolts, 60 (4 x 4) legs, 15 pounds of washers, 30 (2 x 6) seat ledgers, 40 (2 x 8) center ledgers, 40 center braces and 35 end ledgers as well as numerous seat and top boards and end braces before their winter 'picnic' job is done.

To construct a single picnic table of the Indiana variety (the type Wayne County uses) the Wayne shop — which is the only one in the county with the necessary equipment, including jigs — will use the following material: 42 nuts and bolts (with washers), three top seats (seven-foot 2x10's), two seat boards (same dimensions), two end ledgers, three seat ledgers, two braces and one center brace. All wooden items are made of fir.

Some tables which were built in the 1930's are still in use, but these hardy cypress tables are too expensive and difficult to repair to use any longer, workmen explain. "They were not cut to exact dimensions, the wood is too expensive and labor costs are prohibitive."

C. L. Porter, head of Wayne County's Parks and Forestry division, estimates that the county is using some 4,500 tables, with 2,500 of them located along the Middle Rouge Parkway. The Cass-Benton Park makes use of approximately 500.

Tables are treated and painted after they are built to uniform specifications. Treating is done with a wood preservative and by soaking the tables in vats. Painting and labeling with the date follows this process before tables are hauled away for placement.

Thirty dollar tables are built by the county for the county's own use, according to Porter. He adds that this helps keep down overhead and keeps the parks looking their best during all seasons.

The Parkview Yard is under the supervision of Joseph Bauman and employs about 15 men who work at repairing tables, operating and maintaining winter sports activities (as well as summer) and cleaning comfort stations and keeping them open for citizens to use throughout the year.

Special markings help hold down loss of tables through theft, but vandalism is a problem in most parts of the county. During winter, tables are often broken up for use as firewood, but the worst vandalism occurs during the spring when youths break them up during rumbles and parties and younger juveniles use them as rafts to float down river.

Vandalism, however, is not nearly the problem in Northville as it is in other parts of the county. "Northville people have been awfully good," says

Area Church Directory

from the Pastor's Study

Father Edmund Battersby, Pastor
St. Joseph's Church, South Lyon

Too often we search for answers in human wisdom, clothed in human words. At this season of the year as we attempt to fathom the mystery of Christmas we would do well to search the Scriptures for clues. In the words of the Prophet Isaiah the promise is made:

"Behold the Lord shall come to save the nations; and the Lord shall make the glory of His voice to be heard in the joy of your heart."

It is remarkable how in the prophecies, Christ's coming is characterized in glory for God and joy for those who receive him. Isaiah further tells us:

"Up, Jerusalem! Stand upon the heights; and behold the joy that comes to you from your God."

In another passage the promise is further developed:

"Rejoice in the Lord again; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men: For the Lord is near. Have no anxiety, but in everything by prayer let your petitions be made known to your God."

Perhaps best descriptive of the mystery and meaning of Christ's coming. The Psalms tell us,

"You have favored, O Lord, Your land; You have restored the well being of Jacob. You have forgiven the guilt of your people."

But of extreme importance to us, fear-ridden and guilt anxious as we are, the comforting words, "Say to those who are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is our God, He comes to save us."

All of which can lead us confidently to Christmas morn and the salutation of the angels — "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace to men of good will."

Pageant Traced To Early History

As young actors and actresses of this community rehearse their roles for their special Christmas play or pageant, they take part in a custom treasured through the ages.

Since the Christmas story first was told, mankind has sought and found countless ways to create it again and anew, in song and story, in art and drama. The modern Christmas pageant, a feature of church observances in communities near and far, may well trace its history to early religious dramas — the mystery, miracle and morality plays of the Middle Ages

Where did church drama actually begin? One possible source is the tradition of the Christmas crib, or manger scene, but scholarly research indicates that medieval religious drama probably had other, separate origins, according to the editors of Encyclopedia Americana

Easter Plays, Came First
Representations of the manger scene began with the use of doll figures, and history offers no evidence that people were ever substituted for the dolls. Living "actors" did, however, play a part in some early elaborations of church rituals

In the 10th century, special chants written to accompany church music on festival occasions began to take the form of simple dialogues. These were little more than dramatic inserts in the church services, but here, researchers believe, religious plays had their start.

Easter dialogues and plays probably came first, with Christmas plays developing as a natural result. Other religious dramas or mystery plays soon followed, until there were series or cycles of plays devoted to telling the entire story of the Scriptures

Covered Many Subjects
Mystery cycles of the 16th century included as many as 40 dramas, which might be presented over a period of several days. The cycles developed in virtually every European country.

Typical plays dealt with such subjects as "The Creation of the World and the Fall of the Angels," "Noah and the Flood," "The Annunciation," "The Passion of Christ," "The Death of Pilate," "The Resurrection and Ascension," "The Harrowing of Hell and the Coming of Antichrist."

Along with the mystery cycles were miracle and morality plays. Miracle plays recounted the miracles of the saints, while the moralities presented allegorical messages of moral instruction, with characters personifying, for instance, Vice, the Devil or specific vices such as Gluttony, Pride, Anger, Hatred

Robbers' Friend

Legends about St. Nicholas are many, but they all relate in some way to his reputation for generosity. Pawnbrokers took him for their patron, and robbers looked to him as their protector. In the Middle Ages, robbers were sometimes called Knights or Clerks of St. Nicholas, says the New Book of Knowledge.

Costly Cards

When Christmas greetings cards first came into their own in the United States, about 1875, some of the more elegant cards were encrusted with blown glass frosting and sold for as much as three dollars each

Salem Supervisor Resigns; Moves up to Bigger Post

Floyd Taylor officially tendered his resignation last week as supervisor of Salem Township, to become effective December 31.

Clerk Laura Verran said a new township supervisor — not a member of the present board — will be named at the January 6 meeting to replace Taylor.

Between the effective resignation date of December 31 and the January 6 meeting, Mrs. Verran will be acting supervisor. She will also chair the January 6 meeting.

She told the Record Tuesday that several people are under consideration, and that selection for the part-time post will be made on the basis of qualifications, time available and interest in the job.

Board members who will make the decision are Mrs. Verran, Treasurer Russell Knight, and Trustees Ferman Rohraff and Ralph Wilson.

Taylor's resignation came as no surprise. By law he was forced to resign to assume his new post as District three representative on the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors. The 13 supervisors will assume their posts on the newly reconstituted board on January 1.

FLOYD TAYLOR

In his letter of resignation Taylor said, "I will serve you as well as the other Townships on the County Board with the best of my ability, and will work closely with all Township Boards to accomplish this objective."

As the District Three supervisor, he will represent Salem, Northfield, Superior and Ann Arbor Townships.

In other business, the Salem board: —announced that a dog clinic will be held from 2-5 p.m. on January 11 at the Salem Township Fire Hall, with Dr. Richard Thompson, veterinarian, on hand to vaccinate dogs and Knight to sell dog licenses.

—waved the one percent tax collection fee.

—approved the transfer of grocery store and tavern ownership licenses from Jimmy D. and Thomas E. Davis to Katie Rusceak, who recently purchased the establishment she formerly owned, located at 9775 North Territorial Road.

High School Senior Wins Newspaper Cabinet Contest

Predicting President-Elect Richard Nixon's cabinet proved to be a pretty tough job for contestants in the "cabinet contest" sponsored by The Northville Record-Nowi News.

The best entry was turned in by Gary Klotz, a 17-year-old Northville high school senior. Gary had four of the 12 posts correctly matched with the men selected by Nixon and announced on a nation-wide television program last week.

Several of Nixon's selections "leaked out" during the last few days before his announcement, but the contest deadline had been set two weeks ago so contestants didn't have the benefit of the last-minute information.

None of the other entries had more than two correct predictions. Gary's accurate picks were: Walter Hickle, Secretary of Interior; Robert Finch, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; John Mitchell, Attorney General; and John Volpe, Secretary of Transportation.

Gary said he read newspaper and magazine articles and then "second-guessed" Nixon to come up with his list. He plans to enter college next fall and major in political science. Gary's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Klotz, 21465 Stanstead road.

Here's the complete cabinet as announced by Nixon: Secretary of State, William Pierce Rogers; Secretary of Defense, Melvin R. Laird; Secretary of the Treasury, David M. Kennedy; Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, George Romney; Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Robert Finch; Secretary of Agriculture, Dr. Clifford Hardin; Secretary of Commerce, Maurice Stans; Secretary of Transportation, John A. Volpe; Secretary of Labor, George Shultz; Secretary of the Interior, Walter Hickle; Attorney General, John N. Mitchell; and Postmaster General, Winton Blount.

Perkins Engines Names Managers

Perkins Engines Inc., based in Wixom, announced the appointments of Thomas J. Noteman as personnel manager and Edward J. Wagner as manager of manufacturing.

The appointments were announced by G. E. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer. Perkins affiliated with Britain's Perkins Engines Group, is a major supplier of diesel engines for trucks, farm machinery, construction and other off-highway equipment, and boats.

Noteman, 27, joined Perkins from Massey-Ferguson Inc., where he was employed resourcing specialist at the North American tractor, transmission and axle plants in Detroit. Previously, Noteman was employed by Michigan Blue Cross. He is a graduate of Wayne State University, Detroit.

Wagner, 48, succeeds Kenneth Fuller, who has been named manager of a new factory at Fletton, England, where Perkins is producing its first V-8 diesel engine.

A graduate engineer, Wagner studied at the Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, and Denver University. He was plant manager for Industrial Tectonics, Inc., at Ann Arbor, and manufacturing manager for J. A. Otterben, Inc., of Middletown, Conn., before joining Perkins.

CABINET WINNER — Gary Klotz looks over the two-volume "American Presidents" prize he won in The Record's Nixon cabinet contest. Gary picked four of the 12-member cabinet accurately.

Charles and Suzann Johnson celebrated their third wedding anniversary at a dinner with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McGilivray.

Home for the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William MacDermid are son, Bill who is attending Grand Valley State College at Allendale; and daughter, Lynn, who is in her senior year at Hillsdale State College.

The William MacDermid family helped to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. MacDermid's mother, Mrs. Lily Bingham, Saturday evening. Mrs. Bingham's birthday occurred on Friday, December 13.

A pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower was held in Birmingham honoring Sharon Marchetti, last Thursday evening. The girls who gave the showers were Sharon's co-workers at the West Bloomfield School District.

Annette Skellenger is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skellenger. This is Annette's first year at Michigan State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Salow spent Saturday evening with a cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Salow in Plymouth. The honored guest was Donald Salow who has just returned from two years of Mormon Missionary work in France. After the holidays, Donald will attend college at Redlands, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Farah and family celebrated the former's birthday by having dinner at Corrigans in Wyandotte. Other guests were Mr. Farah's mother, Mrs. Emma Farah, of Detroit and aunts, Mrs. Jennie Jacobs and Mrs. Marie Hines and cousins, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spence of Melvindale.

They also called on Mrs. Farah's mother Mrs. Evelyn Dyell who is a patient in Lincoln Hospital.

Pre-Christmas dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. H. D. Hendersons were her stepson and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson and sons, Chuck and Riley of Holt and stepdaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colby of Ithaca.

The Garland Killeen family and the William Lovett family went caroling in the Clark subdivision Saturday night. After caroling refreshments were served at the Dean Barnard home.

Dave Clark, who is attending Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, came home for the holidays. He will go back January 6, 1969.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Salow and Mrs. George Atkinson, Mrs. Frances Denton, Mrs. Hildred Hunt and Mrs. Jennie Champion drove to Detroit and had dinner at the House of Beef. Later they took the bus trip, "Detroit Aglow" around Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith entertained the latter's family for Christmas celebration Sunday afternoon: Mrs. Gertrude Story, Richard and Robert Story, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Merrill and their respective families were also in attendance.

WILLOWBROOK NEWS
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richardson entertained on Christmas day, their adopted family, Mr. and Mrs. James Phelps and their two children from Ann Arbor and Mrs. Rasuko and daughter, Marie of Chicago.

Mr. Errol Myers is back home again after a major operation on her ear at Providence Hospital.

The children of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Norris are recovering from a bout with the flu.

Pre-Christmas dinner was held at the Arthur Norris home on Sunday. Present were Mr. Norris' brother, Charles of Ypsilanti and a sister, Mrs. Clayton Meadows and daughter, Marilyn.

WILLOWBROOK UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Friday evening December 20, Jr. Fellowship at the church at 3:30. They are practicing at this time to sing in the morning worship service December 22. Juniors are also practicing for their part in the Sunday evening program.

Sunday December 22 the Christmas worship service at 10 a.m. During this service special music will be provided by both the junior and adult choirs.

The annual Sunday school program will be presented in the church sanctuary Sunday evening at 7 p.m. This will be followed by a birthday party for Jesus, to which everyone is invited in the Fellowship Hall.

At 8 o'clock, following the Christmas program, the young people and adults will unite in an evening of caroling.

Christmas eve a candlelight communion service will be held at 10 p.m. Novi United Methodist church will join with Willowbrook for this service. Please note the time 10 p.m.

NOVI UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

A social hour followed the Sunday school program Sunday evening. The MYF's are taking orders and selling Christmas decorations.

Tuesday membership and finance at 7:00 and official board meeting at 8:00.

The WSCS meeting and Christmas party was held at the church on Wednesday this week. A special offering was taken for the Plymouth State Home for children. Choir practice also on Wednesday at 7:30.

Thursday the youth leave the church at 7 p.m. to go caroling and leave Christmas boxes. Don't forget the mitten tree at the church.

Novi will join with Willowbrook at Willowbrook church for the Christmas Eve worship service at 10 p.m.

HOLY CROSS EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSION

Sunday December 15 first communion was held for all those who were confirmed by Bishop Crowley. Mr. Jerry Goffin was the lay reader and the acolytes were Dave Morrison, Keven Lentz and Tom Lehman.

Another Adult Inquirers class will be scheduled after the first of the year, and at that time dates will be given for resumption of confirmation classes.

Choir practice Wednesday 7:30 juniors at 8 o'clock adults. Men are still asked to join the choir.

There will be a men's cleanup squad on Thursday (today) under the direction of Phil Scott. Ask not what the church can do for you but what you can do for the church and the church does need cleaning.

Mrs. Nancy Liddle and Mrs. Vic Chamberlain have charge of the coffee hour for the rest of December.

Please contact Mrs. Betty Johns 474-0600 if you wish to have flowers at the church for the Christmas season.

Members of the church were sorry to learn of the sudden death in an automobile accident of Mrs. Charles Sauvage's brother, Thurman at Ortonville, Michigan. Mr. Sauvage was a deputy sheriff in Oakland County out of Pontiac. Prayers were also said for the family and the recovery of Mrs. Rose Waite, mother of Mrs. Sauvage, who is confined at St. Joseph's Hospital in Flint.

Mrs. George Atkinson, Mrs. Jennie Champion, Mrs. Frances Denton and Mrs. Hildred Hunt were the guests of Mrs. Leslie Mitchell one evening last week.

NOVI BAPTIST CHURCH

On Saturday the Max Davey Concert will be held at the Ford Auditorium. A group from the Novi Baptist church plan to attend.

Sunday night at 7 o'clock the Sunday school program will be held in the church. All the children will receive candy. After the program refreshments will be served.

Sunday morning, Rev. Clark will continue his sermons on "God's Greatest Gift."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WIXOM

Have you been faithful in your study of the word the first 50 weeks of this year? If not, why not at least end the year right by attending services these next 2 weeks? Sunday morning "God's Greatest Gift" was Pastor Warren's message, with reception for new members following. Sunday evening the church's own, 26 voice choir, presented "Love Transcending" under the direction of Mr. Terry Angles; Mrs. Karen Angles, pianist; Miss Connie Suterland, flute; and Dan York, trombone. The cantata was excellent.

This week Wednesday, 7:30 p.m. Bible study and prayer, 8:30 adult choir rehearsal. Saturday 1:30 p.m. Sunday school Christmas program rehearsal, 5:45 p.m. "Glistening Gala" Jr. & Sr. High.

Sunday 11:30 a.m. "His Star" Christmas message by Pastor Warren. 7:30 p.m. annual Sunday School program, "Who is This Babe of Bethlehem."

December 31 annual Watch Night Service 9-12 p.m. January 3-5 Teen "Snosis" at Camp Co-Be-Ac, $200 regular deadline December 22.

January 8 - Rev. & Mrs. Ronald McDonald.

NOVI REBEKAH LODGE

The Novi Rebekahs entertained at Visitation representatives from several lodges in District No. 6 last Thursday evening at the Rebekah Hall. There were 96 present.

Novi presented a one act play called "Truth the Mischief" which was well received by those present. Taking part in the play were Sue Watson, Irene Staman, Loree Trickey, Kathryn Bachert, Doris Darling and Shirley Carter. A luncheon was served at the close of the meeting. The luncheon and the tables were very festive in keeping with the Christmas season.

The next regular meeting will be the day after Christmas December 26 at the hall.

NOVI GOODFELLOWS

The Novi Goodfellows had two successful days selling newspapers on Friday and Saturday. They received a total of $943.01. Local business groups donated a total of $620.25 and manufacturing places $170, making a total for the goodfellows $1733.26.

Those selling papers were Russ Taylor, Al Alcalá, Officer Gordon Nelson, Thomas Macaluso, Don Hallock, Marvin Tovel, Officer Falkner, Richard Bingman, Officer Johnston, Officer Gross, Officer Sternes, Officer Baradas, Ken Basset and Leon Dohot. Subdivisions working were Novi Heights, Willowbrook Association and Idemere Park Subdivision. Needy families call MA 41248.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS

At the last meeting of the Novi Chapter 47, Blue Star Mothers, the charter was draped and a memorial held for deceased members - Gertie Trotter and Helen Hallaman. The officers elected for the coming year were president, Lillian Miller; first vice president, Lucy Neeham, 2nd vice president, Dolly Aleanai; secretary, Laney Henderson; treasurer, Gertie Lee; Chaplain, Carolyn McCollum; historian, Hildred Hunt; hospital chairman, Lucy Needham; community service and civil defense, Lottie Race.

The annual Christmas party was held at the home of Gertie Lee on Monday, December 16 with 14 members present. After a potluck luncheon they spent the afternoon playing buncos. The prizes were ceramics made by Gertie Lee.

Here's Hours

For Santa

Time's running out for that planned visit to Northville's Santa Land mobile headquarters.

Jolly St. Nick will be here for only a few more days before taking off for his annual round-the-world trip Christmas Eve.

Hours for visiting him and touring the beautiful display, set up this year in a trailer next door to Northville Drug Store, are:

Thursday and Friday, 3 to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Monday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Tuesday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Municipal Court

Holiday drinking has apparently begun early, but it hasn't ended happily for several persons who appeared in Northville Municipal Court last Thursday before Judge Philip Ogilvie.

Driving while ability was impaired was the charge to which four miscreants eventually pleaded guilty. Each paid a $100 fine in lieu of serving 20 days in jail. Those fined were:

Tommy M. Wood of Lansing, Bruce V. Brown of Wayne, Frank L. Welch, Jr., 17, of Milford, and Gordon J. Kubiak of Garden City.

Two other men appeared on charges of having been disorderly persons when they were drunk. Edward A. Fisher of 336 East Cady Street pleaded guilty and paid $20 and $7 costs rather than serving five days in jail.

Also pleading guilty was Elgin R. Leach of Farmington who paid $30 and $3 costs in lieu of six days in jail.

Four others pleaded guilty and were fined for a variety of traffic offenses, each in lieu of jail sentences.

Thaddeus J. Cieslak Jr. of Wyandotte paid $10 and $15 costs for improper passing.

Daniel H. Dohany of Southfield paid $20 for failure to have his vehicle under control (involving a personal injury accident).

Andrew G. Cusson of 48905 West Nine Mile Road paid $20 for failure to stop in assured clear distance (involving a personal injury accident).

Paying $30 was Robert W. Tefft of 45152 Byrne Court for speeding 45 MPH in a 25 MPH zone.

She Performs With Choir

Jane Jerome, Alma College freshman from Northville, is a member of the college's A Capella Choir.

Miss Jerome, a 1968 graduate of Northville High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Jerome of 743 Horton Street.

It's the season to say Thanks

Thanks for being able to live and work in this fine community. Thanks for wonderful friends and neighbors. And, thanks for the privilege of serving your insurance needs. May you all enjoy a safe and happy holiday!

Northville City Council Minutes

Mayor Allen called to order the regular meeting of the Northville City Council on Monday, December 2, 1968, at 8:05 p.m. at the Northville City Hall.

Present: Allen, Black, Carlson, Lapham and Nichols. Absent: None.

Minutes of November 18, 1968, regular meeting were corrected as follows: Page 3 - last paragraph - state 2 items deleted from Resolution No. 68-15 "Transfer of Appropriations"; page 4 - paragraph 6 - Add "Councilman Nichols requested a Work Session for discussion of District Court".

Moved by Carlson, support by Black, to pay bills in the following amounts:

- General Fund $42,167.26
- Public Improvement Fund 1,525.28
- Water Fund 9,996.13
- Street Fund 1,038.60
- Other Government Fund 16,268.15.

Unanimously carried.

Mayor Allen asked that opening of bids precede other items on agenda.

Following are companies submitting bids. Terra Construction Co., Southfield, Mich.; O. E. Gooding & Co., Ypsilanti, Mich.; Sugden, Inc., Ferndale, Mich.; Dewey Burrell, Plymouth, Mich.; Territorial Construction Co., Plymouth, Mich.; Weissman Contracting Corp., Detroit, Mich.; Ernie Capoccia Equipment Inc., Detroit, Mich.; Simco Building Co., Detroit, Mich.

These bids were referred to the City Manager and City Engineer for checking and their recommendations. Contract award to be considered at a possible Special Meeting on December 9, 1968.

(a) Letter from Lew L. Coy, Supervisor-Elect for 27th Supervisory District, asking that he be placed on mailing list for Council Agendas.

(b) Notice of Michigan Municipal League meeting for Region 111 on January 16, 1969.

(c) Letter of resignation of Mrs. Margaret Dingwall from Beautification Commission. Letter of appreciation for service to the City to be sent to Mrs. Dingwall.

Mayor Allen welcomed members of the Government class from Northville High School.

Councilwoman Carlson asked if appointments could be made to the Beautification Commission later in meeting.

(a) City Mgr. reviewed the minutes of the November 20th meeting of the District Court Committee and asked that they be filed.

(b) City Mgr. reported that the experimental "revitalization process" used on E. Chigwidden Drive in Northville Estates recently is not proving satisfactory.

(c) City Mgr. referred to the list of 13 city employees (full-time) designated for longevity pay for 1968. These are for employees having 5 years or more service and represent 116 years service - an average of 9 years amongst the 13 employees.

Board of Appeals meeting of November 3, 1968:

City Mgr. explained the 2 requests - 384 First Street - variance granted because lot was one of record.

316 N. Center - request for second pole sign denied.

Planning Commission meeting of November 19, 1968:

(a) Presbyterian Church Sanctuary replacement approved except for parking requirements not being met - referred to Board of Appeals.

(b) Northville Downs' Club House plans were submitted for Site Plan and Approval - no objections.

(c) Northville Laundry face-renovation approved.

(d) Hugh Jarvis Gift Shop front-remodelling approved.

The appointment to fill unexpired term of W. E. McCarthy on the City Board of Canvassers held over until later meeting.

City Mgr. explained new state law requiring Board of Review members being appointed for terms of 1 year and that there are 2 re-appointments and 1 appointment to be made. This matter also to carry over to Dec. 16th meeting.

There are 2 vacancies to be filled on the MPA; this also held over to Dec. 16, 1968 meeting.

Moved by Carlson, support by Black, to re-appoint Ed Welch for 3-year term, appoint Mrs. Edward Landau and Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton for 3-year terms on Beautification Commission. Unanimously carried.

City Mgr. stated he and the City Attorney had met with Msrs. Joe Wasie and Roy Russell of Thompson-Brown Co. He also explained that the water line runs from Eight Mile northeast to Water Tower (1250 ft.) - their subdivision could be adequately served by a 10" main; master plan calls for 16" main for the subdivision and possibly Northville Township at $14.91 per foot or $18,697.14 is total cost to city. Thompson-Brown Company is installing 10" line instead of 8", going north and south. The alternate plans for this payback are:

(a) Payment of $172.14 from water department funds immediately - pay Thompson-Brown Co. immediately from water tap fee of $325 from first 57 building permits issued (60 platted lots) and this will be payment in full.

(b) Pay Thompson-Brown Co. $150 from each water tap fee until January 1, 1970 - and remainder to be then paid.

(This agreement to be drafted and presented to Thompson-Brown Company and then considered at Dec. 16th meeting).

City Mgr. reviewed his "Novi Well Site Specifications for bidders and said he felt No. 3 is most important. Council instructed City Mgr. to submit aforementioned specifications to Planning Commission at their Dec. 3rd meeting and send some one to Northville N.E. Civic Ass'n. and meet with this group.

Moved by Allen, support by Black to appoint Philip R. Ogilvie as City Attorney, effective January 1, 1969; salary to be $6,000 per year for first 6 months or last half of current fiscal year for regular and Special Council Meetings; work other than above to be paid at a rate not to exceed regular standard Michigan Bar Association minimum. Unanimously carried.

City Mgr. explained that under the new Michigan State Highway 1969 Tax, the Street Maintenance Fund

Budget must be set up on a calendar year basis, as per his communication of Nov. 19, 1968 to council.

Moved by Black, support by Lapham to set Public Hearing for Main St. Fund Budget on Monday, Dec. 16, 1968, 8 p.m., at the Northville City Hall. Unanimously carried. (Auditors recommend next 6 months budget be set in May, 1969)

City Manager reviewed program for City facilities and Project Tour to be conducted Sunday, December 15, 1968, 2 p.m. to begin at City Hall. (Names to be given to City Mgr. - guests)

Attorney is to be asked to begin work on Fill Ordinance. (Prepare draft for new City Attorney for a Public Hearing in January).

City Attorney explained that the Chief of Police and he want a Public Hearing set for Disorderly Conduct Ordinance.

Moved by Nichols, support by Carlson, to have a Public Hearing on Monday, December 16, 1968, 8 p.m. at the Northville City Hall to consider an amendment, Disorderly Conduct Ordinance, to the City Ordinances. Unanimously carried.

Mayor Allen recommended bonuses for Supt. of DPW and Chief of Police because of unusually long hours they have worked and extra duties during 1968.

Moved by Carlson, support by Nichols, that Chief of Police and DPW Supt. each receive a $150 bonus between now and December 25, 1968. Unanimously carried.

City Mgr. requested a Work Session to meet with John Carlo, also to discuss awarding of contract for Maplewood-Novu Drain.

Moved by Black, support by Nichols, to set Monday, Dec. 9, 1968, 8 p.m. as a Special Meeting to award contract for Maplewood-Novu Drain. Unanimously carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

In Uniform

Corpus Christi, Texas - Navy Ensign Robert Hallam, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hallam of 21456 Summerside Lane, reported for advanced flight training with Training Squadron 28 at the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

While undergoing training he will learn to fly the twin engined carrier based, anti-submarine TS-2A Tracker aircraft and will earn his first instrument rating, a certificate representing his ability to fly safely and effectively in all weather conditions. He will also qualify in landing the Tracker aboard one of the Navy's aircraft carriers.

Training Squadron 28 is one of the largest squadrons in the Naval Air Advanced Training Command.

New Officers Named

Junior Footballers Feted

A near capacity crowd was present Saturday evening for the first annual banquet of the Northville Junior Football Association in the social hall of Our Lady of Victory Church.

In addition to marking the close of the first season of the association, the banquet honored the young football players, their coaches and the cheerleaders for helping to make this first season one of the finest junior football seasons in the metropolitan area.

Parents, too, were awarded plaudits for their role in backing the youngsters and the junior football program.

Receiving a big round of applause and a plaque was the outgoing charter president, Richard Bloomhuff, who in turn presented a check to the association's head coach, Ed Bagdon.

Each of the boys who played football this past fall and the young cheerleaders who led the crowds in rousing cheers were presented with handsome trophies.

Newly elected officers of the association, together with the board of directors, were introduced. They are: Kenneth Chio, president; Dave Pink, vice-president; Rev. Lloyd Brasure, secretary; William Winemaster, treasurer; Earl Egbert, financial secretary; and William Bates, unit director.

Aside from these officers, other members of the board are Bagdon, Bloomhuff, Robert Cole, Lee Eaker, Robert Ely, Jack Harwood, Richard Huston, Ted Marzonia, Edward Pawlowski, Harold Price, Douglas Slessor and Keith Trumbull.

Pay Taxes Unwillingly

Homeowners Urge Protest

"Directors of Oakland County Homeowners & Taxpayers Association are urging all property owners in Oakland County to pay their taxes under protest," George H. Williams, chairman of the group's County Committee, announced this week.

"The Attorney General has not as yet ruled on our question of whether Oakland County is taxing beyond the legal limit in exceeding 15 mills," he said. "However, taxpayers would be entitled to a refund of that portion illegally collected if we get a favorable opinion."

"We urge all property taxpayers to advise either their city or township treasurer or their lending institution that they want their taxes marked 'Paid Under Protest.'"

Rep. Clifford Smart, R-Walled Lake, has forwarded the question on the 15 mill limitation to the Attorney General on behalf of the organization.

"While we don't know when the Attorney General's opinion will be released," Williams said, "people should be aware of this technicality in the event they pay their taxes before the ruling is made."

He said Oakland is apparently the only county in Michigan which has interpreted a sentence in the State Constitution as a loophole to impose nonvoted taxes over the 15 mill limit to initiate and pay for construction bonds.

"Although Oakland County officials have quoted a Michigan Court of Appeals decision in Berrien County as a basis for exceeding the 15 mills here, investigation shows that Berrien County's ruling was arrived at after the people had voted on the bond issue involved - something the citizens of Oakland County have not had the privilege of doing," Williams charged.

Library Seats New Director

Mrs. Glenn Salow has been formally seated on the Novi Public Library Board.

A write-in winner in the fall election, Mrs. Salow replaces Mrs. Neil Nichols who resigned upon moving from the community.

Other members of the board are: Dirk Groenenberg, president; John Parent, vice-president; Richard Vykdyal, Mrs. George Atkinson and Mrs. Juan Alcala.

Novi Justice Court

Just because justice courts are nearing the end of their existence apparently is no reason for them not to be keeping busy.

Certainly Justice of Peace Emery Jacques has been busy enough, as his last Thursday's docket will testify.

Unwise drinking habits highlighted Jacques' cases with Martin E. Sikkila paying $60 and $15 court costs in lieu of serving 15 days in jail. Sikkila, of 216 North Wixom Road, pleaded guilty to driving while his ability was impaired.

Three minors were guilty of being minors in possession, as well.

Two of the three Northville youths, Alan B. Abrams of 19260 Clement and Tom W. Fagen II of 46120 Fonner Court East, paid $35 fines and $15 costs apiece in addition to being given 30 day suspended sentences.

The other Northville teen, Joseph A. Bongiovanni of 232 South Center Street, paid $25 and $10 court costs. Oren S. Fisher of 47000 12-Mile Road was fined $25 and $15 costs in lieu of five days in jail for being a disorderly person.

The cost was $20 to Nelson J. Valdron of Drayton Plains for speeding 65 mph in a 50 mph zone.

Four other persons paid $10 fines each for traffic offenses. They were: Ola Tabone of Livonia for disregarding a red light.

Saverio Montalto of Warren for no registration on person.

Rudolph A. Johnson of 28400 Beck Road for noisy exhaust.

Morris M. Carmen of Detroit for improper turn.

Five days in Oakland County Jail was meted out to Wendell Guinn of Detroit for careless use of firearms.

The cost to Phillip S. Johnson of Walled Lake for careless driving was a $25 fine with $10 costs added.

Charles Klocke of 45601 Nine Mile Road forfeited $100 bond for failing to appear for depositing or throwing rubbish on a public passageway.

Peter Der-Stepanian of Belleville was assessed $20 and $5 costs for defective exhaust.

Goodfellows Net $17,733

Novi Goodfellows came up with $1,733.26 for this year's funds campaign, highlighted by last week's paper drive, Secretary Miss Eugenie Choquet announced Monday.

Sale of The Novi News over the weekend netted $943.01 of the total collected with the following breakdown given:

- Chairman Leon Dochot, $160;
- three subdivisions (combined), $114.71;
- Martin Tobel (only fireman who helped this year), $78.41;
- Patrolman John Johnson, $59.76;
- Patrolman Robert Starnes, $58.54;
- Peter Alcala, $57.15;
- Richard Bingham, $54.85;
- Sergeant Richard Faulkner, $53.90;
- Patrolman Dale Gross $52.63;
- Russell Taylor, $52.27;
- Patrolman Frank Barabas, $49.30;
- Ken Bassett, $42.84;
- Thomas Macaluso, $40;
- Corporal Gordon Nelson, $33.20;
- Patrolman Jack Grubb, $28.45;
- and Don Hallock, $15.

Novi's small businesses contributed $620.25 and the large manufacturers added $170 to round out the total. The school total was not yet reported by press time.

Miss Choquet said that the biggest reason for the great increase over last year was due to the help given the drive by Novi's police force.

She adds that any other subdivision still wishing to help may do so by calling her at MA 4-1248 or FI 9-9804. Also, anyone knowing of someone in need is asked to call either of these five numbers.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Credit City Manager Frank Ollendorff with a good idea.

Sunday he and DPW Director Bud Hartner hosted a tour of the city. Guests were the city council, several township officials and community leaders, the superintendent of schools and the press.

A caravan of cars equipped with "walkie-talkies" visited all sections of the city while the manager pointed out particular problems, projects and developments. His commentary was occasionally interrupted by questions and a running conversation was carried on between the touring cars that made the tour interesting and enlightening.

First stop was the Taft road area where recently-completed paving from Eight Mile to the city limits was viewed and proclaimed "well done" by the manager. He pointed out the acreage around the junior high school, on the northwest corner of Taft and Eight Mile and directly south of Eight Mile at Taft that will soon become a community of homes and apartments. First, he noted, drainage problems extending northwest into Novi must be solved before any development can take place. Solution to this is well underway, however, and models will be completed south of Eight Mile before winter is over.

School Superintendent Raymond Spear wondered aloud how youngsters residing in the first portion of the development would get to school. There are no sidewalks to Moraine, half-a-mile away, and there's no reimbursement for transporting students within the city limits.

In Northville Estates the manager pointed out continuing maintenance problems with roads, which will probably remain until water and sewer is extended to the Eight Mile-at-Beck Road subdivision. After excavation for installation of utilities, road paving would be in order.

Drainage problems in the northern portion of the city were pointed out and the two proposed routes for a storm drain to alleviate the problem noted. Although it would cost $5,000 more, the route down Eight Mile cut-off right-of-way seemed more attractive than the narrow easement between homes, at least to observers in one car. Fences, bushes, trees and garages line the shorter easement route.

As the tour continued, the manager pointed out examples of good sealcoating and bad; of neighborhoods where property owners were upgrading the area through improvements, and in others where this was not true; the proposed extensions of Wing and Griswold streets and the widening of Beal were explained as well as the future plan for the central business district and some of the offstreet parking improvements made by the city.

The caravan toured the "dump" area, which has been vastly improved and nearly levelled. The manager credited Township Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg with the new idea for handling community rubbish. It's dropped into huge containers and hauled away to the Salem landfill. This reduces operating costs and permits improvements at the Northville dump area, which is now earmarked for industrial development.

Finally, the group concluded its tour with a stop at the fish hatchery where Recreation Director and Mrs. Robert Prom had hot coffee and pastries waiting. It was served in the new "skating shanty", a facility provided by the city with help from the Northville Rotary club and Northville Downs.

The shanty is impressive. It's warm, clean and provides lavatory facilities. Missing, however, is a long bench, or series of stools, that would come in handy for skaters changing from street shoes. (Could be a welcome project for a local club).

I suspect that Manager Ollendorff and DPW Director Hartner had more than one motive for staging the tour.

In addition to bringing officials up to date through firsthand exposure to what's going on in the field, it offers a chance to promote a few pet projects.

The latter might include recreation facilities at the fish hatchery, a few more paved streets and continued improvement of the DPW garage.

Anyway, it was a worthwhile tour.

Next year, why not accept the school superintendent's offer of a bus and conduct a combined city-township tour?

"Having a Hard Time Landing"

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

Who's the most versatile man in show business? This question normally would meet with a flurry of choices, many of which would carry considerable weight. Yet, to this writer's mind, one man alone stands above all the rest and could be called Mr. Show Business.

That man is Jackie Gleason. Erstwhile Jackie is still going strong on television despite what might be called over exposure. His "Jackie Gleason Show" is rated 26th, no small feat in a whimsical business that has killed off some hearty souls and mighty big names.

Jackie is an institution, primarily because of his comic antics. He has that rare ability to convey the nuance of a situation through facial expression alone. When he gyrates his flabby shape into action, the laughter virtually rolls off him. He might be labeled a modern-day Falstaff.

But that is only part of the man. Jackie, if you pardon the expression, is a Jack of all trades. There's little he can't do, from a ballerina step to his skating, "Away we go" exit — both executed with surprising grace — and from a heavy dramatic role to his raucous part as Ralph in "The Honeymooners." Whatever the hat, it becomes the fat man.

He's also a composer and conductor. His widely sold albums of sweet music are testament to his genius, versatility and most assuredly, his showmanship.

Whatever might be said for his role, for instance, as Minnesota Fats in "The Hustler" opposite Paul Newman, or as the architect of best selling albums, it's as Jack Gleason, mastermind of the Jackie Gleason television show that his virtuosity reaches its zenith.

Never were Jackie's talents better displayed than during last Saturday's show, in which the rollicking fat man teamed up with his slap stick buddy, Art Carney. Together they sang, danced and clowned their way through an hour-long chapter of "The Honeymooners."

The episode started off in the usual manner, a mistaken impression, and specifically, Jackie's mistaken impression that his wife was pregnant. From a suspicious husband enraged at his wife's unexplained absences from home, Ralph blossomed into the dutiful father-to-be.

But a bus driver doesn't earn much money, so Ralph takes a parttime job as Santa Claus. And, of course, he presses Norton (Carney) into helping him, since the ad to which Ralph responded called for Santa and an elfin helper.

They make a ludicrous pair, Jackie appropriately attired in a Santa suit, and Carney dressed as a leprechaun. There's the usual hitch to the job; it's merely a cover for a booky operation.

This improbable situation leads to an expected imbroglio, an eventual understanding and a reconciliation. It may be the usual cut of the Jackie Gleason Show, but it's refreshing nonetheless.

What made the show clever in the extreme, however, was the inclusion of lively songs and dance numbers, with Gleason and Carney warbling in true vaudeville style as they went through their rib-tickling routines.

Northville's traveling attorney, Cliff Hill, who has logged almost as many air hours as Bob Hope, comes close to equalling some of Hope's stories, too.

Reminding his audience of bowling professionals a few days ago that he is, quite naturally, a little gun shy, having been wounded by a Detroit thug a few years ago and having had several chilling experiences in his years of law practice, Cliff unfolded the following little vignette:

Abed and nearly asleep one night awhile back, he detected the unmistakable sound of a prowler in the kitchen area of his home. No man is quite prepared to cope with a situation of that kind. Most, like myself, probably would send their wives down to reconnoiter the situation before bringing up reinforcements. But not Cliff.

Arming himself with a shotgun, the lawman... I mean lawyer... bound himself up in a robe and tiptoed down the stairs, listening for the slightest sound of danger.

Upon reaching the kitchen, where the noise had originated, Cliff raised the gun to the ready position and burst in to surprise the prowler. But instead of a masked man with a gunny sack full of silverware, he found just an empty room. And a quick, but cautious look around the other rooms disclosed little evidence of the prowler. Finding nothing, he placed his gun on the kitchen table and retreated to the bathroom.

Meanwhile, Cliff's wife, awakened by the noise of her prowling husband, entered the kitchen and, finding it empty, left to replace the gun that her husband obviously had forgotten to put away.

Returning to the kitchen, quite relieved now that his worst fears were unfounded, Cliff suddenly froze in his tracks, gripped by a shattering realization. The gun was gone! The burglar obviously was now armed and Cliff, wrapped in his robe, offered a pretty good target.

An unarmed prowler is bad enough. But a prowler with a gun... with your gun... is downright terrifying.

His knees a little wobbly anyway, Cliff dropped to all fours thereby reducing the gunman's target. Then, with the agility and stealth of a cat sneaking up on a mouse, he crawled from the kitchen into the adjoining room, expecting any moment the awful blast of a shotgun.

Rounding the corner on hands and knees, his progress was abruptly halted in a semi-darkened room by the legs of the prowler in his path. Fully expecting to look up into the muzzle of the gun, his gaze turned instead into the face of his disbelieving wife who probably figured Cliff was returning from a night on the town.

A principal in an Oakland County school, my brother, Dick, has been keeping me posted on the progress of four youngsters who joined his school awhile back. All four, together with their parents, recently immigrated to the United States from a Yugoslavian displaced persons' camp. Neither parents nor children speak English and no one in his school system can speak their native language — Albanian.

It's a fascinating challenge, says my brother, one that has his entire staff eagerly trying to teach four youngsters, who, at best, had but a few years of schooling before arriving here. Ranging in age from six to 14, they are "wonderful kids who everyone loves. But communication is pretty trying on both sides."

Simple things, like explaining the symphony of bells that signal class periods or like explaining that there will be no classes on a holiday, become major hurdles.

"I got them together in my office shortly after their arrival for a little word association," he said. "I would ask one to close the door, point to it and repeat the word. Then I'd get up and shut the door and return to my seat. I repeated it several times until one by one they learned to shut the door when asked. After each had tried, they giggled and started talking to each other in their native tongue. I'm sure they were laughing at me because it had to be funny. Here was this big goof, opening and closing the door, waving his arms, and muttering strange words."

Although their progress has been satisfactory, each day offers some new challenge.

The other day, for example, the 14-year-old girl guided her two younger sisters and brother through the lunch counter line and, upon reaching the cashier, produced a five-cent coupon cut from a box of cereal. It was to pay for a three-cent bottle of milk.

"If you don't think that was a tough one to explain, consider the fact that our cashier happens to be a French war bride who hasn't quite mastered her own language barrier. Here was the girl demanding two-cents change and our French cashier trying to explain the difference between money and a coupon.

"By the time I got there it was like a coffee break at the UN."

Lawmaker Takes Aim At State's Lottery Law

LANSING—Michigan's tangled lottery law is under fire again. Apparently another attempt will be made in the Legislature to clarify and stiffen the statute.

Representative George F. Montgomery, D-Detroit, says the present law is "too muddled" to be effective and should be cleared up in a hurry.

Montgomery spearheaded an unsuccessful effort in the 1968 Legislature to restrict all types of chance games, give-aways and other promotional gimmicks.

The lawmakers did pass a bill guaranteeing franchise store and service station operators the right to refuse to participate in games.

"The issue got all confused and mixed up," Montgomery said. "Now we must act to make the law crystal clear."

MONTGOMERY spoke out after two State Supreme Court justices called on the Legislature to clarify the definition of a lottery to say if it covers grocery store drawings and similar promotional ventures.

The justices said the present law is "unclear by reason of lack of precise legislative definition of lottery."

The 1963 Michigan Constitution prohibits the Legislature from authorizing any lottery or permitting the sale of lottery tickets but it does not say just what constitutes a lottery.

Montgomery said it is the responsibility of the Legislature to say what the law means. "We should spell it out for the people," he added.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley has also recommended the Legislature specifically say what is permissible and what is not under the law.

Kelley said if the desire of the Legislature is to outlaw business promotional schemes, then it should say so to help in prosecution of cases where violations might occur.

SUPPORTERS of a strict lottery law say they are encouraged by a Supreme Court decision that affirmed the Monroe County Circuit Court conviction of a grocer who conducted a weekly raffle.

The high court said the grocer was, in fact, operating a lottery in violation of the law and constitution. The finding reversed a decision of the state Court of Appeals.

However, because the Supreme Court ruling came on a 3-2 vote, with two justices not participating, no legal precedent was set.

MORE THAN a half million dollars was collected under an unconstitutional provision of a 1965 law imposing 10 per cent surcharge on penal fines, a check with the state

Treasurer's office showed.

It is not known if the money will have to be refunded, or if the State Court of Appeals decision knocking out the surcharge is retroactive.

The money was allocated to the State Officers Training Council to pay up to 50 per cent of the cost of equipping and instructing police recruits.

Martin Gardner, the Council's executive secretary, said more than 1,500 officers benefitted from the program in the fiscal year ended last June 30.

"This has been a tremendous boost to local police departments and sheriff's offices," he said.

The appellate court, in its recent ruling, said the surcharge was, in effect, a supplemental fine and therefore in violation of the State Constitution.

IT ALSO said the Legislature may not divert any portion of fines collected for violating penal laws to the training of police because of a constitutional requirement that such money go to the library fund.

The decision will not, however, force a cutback in training programs as the 1968 Legislature appropriated $250,000 to the Council for use if the surcharge was overturned.

Drug Industry Stocks Recover from Attacks

WELLESLEY HILLS, Massachusetts — As a group, the stocks of the leading drug companies present a mixed picture. Many issues are selling near their all-time highs. But others such as Parke Davis, G. D. Searle, Syntex, Smith Kline & French, and Upjohn are priced substantially below their peaks of some years ago. On the whole, however, the group has fared reasonably well, especially when considering the multitude of problems and pressures it has had to bear.

During most of the present decade the drug industry, which has been under the close scrutiny of the Food and Drug Administration, has been called on the carpet for high drug prices, monopolies, price fixing, patent infringements, and other irregularities. Although the FDA has been leading the attacks against the industry, other government agencies and even Congressmen have also taken swings at the drug group. Without doubt, the pharmaceutical producers have been the favorite "whipping boys" of the 1960's.

The constant pressure on this industry has had more than a psychological effect. Actually, it has resulted in a serious slowdown in new drug introductions even though the industry's research expenditures have remained very high. For example, in the first half of this year only 33 new drugs were approved by the FDA as compared with 48 in the 1967 first half. Furthermore, at midyear there were only 143 pending applications for official approval of new drugs as compared with 189 the year earlier.

Due to the slowdown in new products, plus greatly increased competition, the drug industry's profit margins in late years have been on the downturn even though sales have continued to increase. A recent report from the Pharmaceutical Association indicated that the average net income of the drug industry as a percentage of sales decreased again last year, to 10.1%. This compares with a high of 11.3% record in 1965.

Although the drug industry has been under fire often in recent years, there may be still further roadblocks ahead for many companies. For the last few years the National Academy of Science has been studying thousands of prescription drugs to find out which ones are ineffective. Their report has not yet been made public; but, when it is, there are certain to be many prescription drugs now on the market that will have to be removed from sale. Under new federal legislation, medicines must be proven not only safe but also worthwhile.

Naturally, all of the drug industry's problems cannot be blamed on the FDA or other agencies that have been applying pressure. For example, some companies expanded too rapidly. Others fell victim to patent expirations, which allowed competitors to move in. Still other firms were too dependent on a limited number of products and were thereby hurt by severe competition. And, lack of a sufficient number of new products from research in late years has handicapped certain other drug companies.

Over the short to intermediate term, it does not seem likely that most drug companies will make strong earnings progress. Over the long term, however, there would appear to be enough positive growth factors to assure continued gains. The best-performing segments of the industry will probably be hospital supplies and medical electronics. However, the stocks of most of the companies prominent in these areas, already reflect the bright future.

Currently the stock of well-diversified Merck & Co. appears to be in a very favorable position for continued long-range gains. Its research efforts have been particularly successful in late years. As a "comeback" candidate, G. D. Searle would appear to rate a nod unless, of course, it is found that the "pill" produces some currently unknown side effects. Searle is one of the leading producers of the "pill," but is also prominent in medical electronics.

Out of THE PAST

...Blessing and laying of the cornerstone for the new St. Mary Hospital in Livonia was scheduled.

...Temperatures dropped to zero and city crews were busy combatting the ice and snow problems with tons of salt.

...Plymouth Township voters were busy planning a cityhood election for "Plymouth Heights".

...Warren Products annexation fight was scheduled for state supreme court hearing after they lost the second circuit court battle with Northville.

...Walter Couse, general contractor, was accusing the city of holding up construction of the $2 million new high school.

...Forced retirement of city workers was protested before city council by Richard Clark and Roy Utley.

...An estimated 120 horses were scheduled to be housed in the Downs' new winter facilities.

...Rehabilitation of the junior high school building was the school board's discussion topic with completion of the high school now in sight.

...Candidates for city and township offices was lagging. Only one councilman, incumbent John Canterbury, had filed for the two openings.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

...Al Ifverson, named to football's second team Class B All-State as a guard the previous week, took to the basketball court but was unable to inspire victory over Plymouth as the Rocks dropped the Mustangs 47-35.

...The Mustangs reversed that first loss by dropping Brighton and South Lyon in the next two games. The Colts dropped their first two before bombing South Lyon's Cubs, 53-18.

...Snow shovels became the equipment of the day as a white Christmas appeared in the offing, although it was a bit early to tell.

...Three men were chosen to head Northville Masonic orders. George Mairs was installed as the new Worshipful Master of Lodge No. 186, F&A. M. and Howard I. Atwood was chosen as Thrice Illustrious Master of Council No. 89, Royal and Select Masons. In addition to these, William M. Parson was named High Priest of Union Chapter No. 55, Royal Arch Masons.

...Roy M. Terrill set up his station at Depositors State Bank for collection of township taxes.

...Business was on the upswing in the village of Northville with at least 25 new ones established in the past seven years.

...Northville Township taxpayers found an extra item on their tax bills as they were assessed for the construction of the Middle Rouge Interceptor Drain.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...

...The Mustangs and the Colts both swept to two victories, defeating Brighton and South Lyon, with two more contests apiece scheduled for the following week. Opposition was to be supplied by Keego Harbor and Plymouth.

...Foster Van Atta was named the new Cubmaster for Northville's Cub Scout pack.

...Free chest X-rays for tuberculosis were received by 1,324 persons in Northville at the village fire hall. Dr. V. George Chabut, village health commissioner, made the announcement.

...Northville Rotary Club announced it would award cash prizes for the best home and store decorations.

...Postmaster Fred Van Atta announced that the post office would be open Saturday afternoons to accommodate the heavy Christmas mail.

...Mrs. Don Matzen was in charge of setting up the annual Christmas tea for Northville Woman's Club members.

...Northville Recreation Committee was to show two Christmas movies at the Presbyterian Church House.

...Novi Board of Commerce slated a games party and free movies for Novi children at the I.O.O.F. Hall.

...Leslie G. Lee's production of "The Messiah" was produced by the community chorus and soloists at the Presbyterian Church. Soloists were Eleanor Peeke, Earl Reh, Harriet Boden Brask and Bertram Gable.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Northville's high school football squad was honored at the annual Exchange Club football banquet at the Methodist Church. Guest speaker was Coach Joe Gembis of Wayne University.

...Methodist Church presented a Christmas Cantata which featured the following soloists: Mrs. Elroy Ellison, Blanche Miller, Marvin Schoultz, W. L. Williams, Mrs. William Cansfield, Ida Marie Walker, Doris Tewksbury and Merritt Meaker.

...An open house was scheduled at the Scout Building, corner of Dunlap and Hutton Streets, for all Northville High School students. Activities were to include juke box music, dancing, ping pong and games.

...Mrs. Joseph Denton was named as president-elect of the Northville Blue Star Mothers.

...James Nairn was elevated to the post of High Priest of the Union Chapter No. 55, Royal Arch Masons.

...A Court of Honor was scheduled at Plymouth High School for all area scouts to attend.

...OPA announced that it would give two brown points per pound for all waste fat sold to merchants in order to spur the kitchen fats salvage campaign.

...Mrs. Arlo Hauger, Mrs. B. E. Warner, Mrs. A. M. Lawrence and Mrs. Joseph Hoehl went to Dearborn to work with the Blood Donors Bank assisting other Red Cross volunteers.

...Novi Blue Star Mothers planned a meeting at which officers for the coming year would be elected.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...The village council officially decided not to allow the street roller used outside the corporate limits at a fee of less than five dollars per day.

...E. J. Bradner was named commander of the K.O.T.M.M. for the coming year.

...Auditors Hawley Christian and Lou Burt had a fracas at the county auditors' meeting which resulted in Christian voting with Scullen to name Jack Crowley of Taylor to the "soft" $600 per year post of county poor commissioner.

...Elected president of Allen M. Harmon Woman's Relief Corps No. 225 for the coming year was Eva Lawrence.

...The village announced the purchase of six fire extinguishers from W. P. Johnson.

...Social highlight coming up was the L.O.T.M.M. ball.

...A musicale was slated in the sixth grade room at Northville School. Fifth grade pupils were to provide the entertainment with the proceeds to go toward beautifying the room.

WHAT IS IT — Until Saturday the most exciting item in 12-year-old Patrick Aenchbacher's growing rock collection was a 100-year-old uncut diamond. But his father, Horace Aenchbacher of 212 North Wing Street added a mystery to Pat's collection Saturday, upon finding an unusually formed, 40-pound rock while digging a grave at Rural Hill Cemetery. A one-inch layer of marble, obviously trimmed and polished by human hands, is sandwiched between a heart-shaped rock formation. "I don't know what it was used for, do you?" asks Pat.

Police Investigate Area Burglaries

Two major burglaries, netting thieves a combined total of more than $2,000 worth of cash and merchandise, are under investigation in Novi and Northville.

In Novi, Mrs. Frank Korte, 24480 Taft, had just left her home after having her picture taken for the Record with other ladies of the Our Lady of Victory basket-packing committee last Friday when one or more burglars ransacked her home.

Missing upon her return at 3 p.m. (she had left home less than three hours earlier) were two television sets (one a color TV and stereo console), a typewriter, a full tool box, three shotguns, a man's suit and a fur coat and perhaps other items as well.

Novi police are investigating the theft.

Northville's breaking and entering occurred at Northville Marathon Service station, 480 Seven Mile Road, just after midnight last Friday morning.

Entrance to the station was gained by breaking a window pane of the overhead roll door, police said. Missing, in addition to about $20, in change was nearly $900 worth of merchandise.

It's No Picnic

Parkview employee Jake Beller, who adds that it is "a real pleasure" to work in the Cass Benton area as opposed to other areas in the county.

Most tables are now stacked for winter storage but that some are still up.

Tables left up are not overlooked — they are there for use of winter sports enthusiasts who like a picnic of hot soup, etc., after using the toboggan or ski runs available to them, Porter said. So, even though most tables are in use only about seven months of the year, some never rest.

Diploma Purchase Signals New Status

Another sign that Novi's school system has come of age was the board of education's action last week in purchasing diplomas.

Upon the recommendation of Principal Gerald Hartman, the board approved a five-year contract with Inter-Collegiate Press Company for specially designed high school diplomas. (They'll cost the system about $4 each).

According to Hartman, the company has come up with a custom-designed cover for the Novi diploma.

Come June, Novi will graduate its first seniors in the history of the school system.

A related matter in last week's meeting included a report by school officials that the high school first baccalaureate service and commencement exercises have been scheduled for June 8 and June 10.
