

Record Owner Purchases The Brighton Argus

Announcement of the sale of the Brighton weekly newspaper, The Livingston County Argus-Dispatch, was made jointly this week by Dr. Thomas A. Barton of Howell and William C. Slinger, publisher of The Northville Record-Now News and South Lyon Herald newspapers.

Dr. Barton, who has owned the 89-year-old Brighton newspaper since 1961, sold the newspaper to Slinger last week, who took over publication of this week's edition.

Roland Peterson, who for the past

18 months has been managing editor of The Herald, has assumed the duties of managing editor of the Brighton newspaper.

Meanwhile, Ernest Brown, a reporter for The Record for eight months, has moved into the post of Herald editor in South Lyon.

In the first publication of the Brighton newspaper this week a new name and a new format was introduced.

Actually, an old name was restored. Until two years ago the Brighton publication had always been known as "The Brighton Argus".

This week it became "The Argus" again.

In an editorial written in the Brighton newspaper in its Wednesday edition Slinger stated "we believe it is our responsibility to serve the community of Brighton first... thus we are bringing back the name that we have for so long associated with Brighton - The Argus".

Editor Peterson wrote in his first column for The Argus that "the words on the new flag on the front page of this week's Argus - "The Brighton Argus... Brighter Than Ever... Serving Your Community... Better Than Ever" - are more than an empty motto. To me, they are a commitment to the people of the Brighton community."

The addition of The Argus to the Slinger family of newspapers provides a coverage of an area extending from Northville, Novi and Wixom to South Lyon, New Hudson, Whitmore Lake and through the broad Brighton area.

To the local subscribers of The Record, Novi News and Herald the addition of The Argus will make no noticeable change - except for the fact that the classified advertising pages now cover a wider area. As has been the custom with The Record-News and Herald, the want ads in all the newspapers will be the same. Thus classified advertising users may place an advertisement in four newspapers at a single rate. Total paid circulation of the Slinger newspapers exceeds 13,000.

The shifts of Peterson and Brown made it necessary for Record Managing Editor Jack Hoffman to add new staffers at The Record. These changes will be announced next week.

Herald Editor Brown came to The Record from Petoskey last summer. He was graduated from Michigan State University in 1965 after having been discharged from the army in 1964.

For three years he taught English and French in Imlay City Community Schools, English at Boyne Falls High School and elementary grades as well as serving as principal in Petoskey.

Retiring Councilwoman Cheered

Officials Take Oaths

Before an audience of about 57 citizens, most of whom had come to attend a public hearing for a request of rezoning property at Allen Drive and Novi Road for a service station, Northville's new councilmen were sworn in at Monday's council meeting.

Conducted by city clerk Martha Milne, the swearing-in ceremony was one of sentiment, followed by an informal standing ovation to retiring Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson. Mayor A. M. Allen first was given the oath of office, followed by Paul F. Folino and Kenneth R. Rathert.

Mayor Allen mentioned that four generations of the Paul Folino family were in the audience, including a great-uncle - James Spagnulo, Louis Folino, Mrs. Paul Folino and daughter. Also present, Allen added, were Mrs. Rathert and his own wife, daughter and grandchildren.

As Mayor Allen thanked Mrs. Carlson for her service, the audience paid standing tribute. She said she "enjoyed every minute" and welcomed the new councilmen, pointing out that "the chairs you now are occupying are chairs of challenge."

As she moved to a seat in the audience, (other outgoing Councilman Del Black retired at the last meeting), the new council moved to consider first the request of Marathon Oil Company and Beniecke and Krue, owners, to re-zone two and a half acres at the southwest corner of Allen at Novi from C-2, general commercial, to C-1, local business.

After hearing Robert E. Childs, attorney representing Marathon and the real estate owners, who pointed out that Marathon "is purchasing more property than needed for a retail service station site," and Rodney Kropf, Livonia attorney representing the subdivision civic association, who pointed out that "people who bought homes relied upon the zoning," the council heard individual protests from six members of the audience.

The council adjourned the hearing until the next regular meeting May 5 when it promised a decision, based upon consideration of material presented.

After Childs argued that the area would have "more protection under C-1 zoning" and offered a promise that Marathon would provide a "good green belt," a brick building and non-glare lights and sign placement, Councilman Wallace Nichols asked what traffic is generated in the area.

Childs reported that the firm's marketing opinion showed it "well warrants" a station and stated that a turn-off lane could be provided. At Rathert's request a summary of the planning board's rejection of the petition was read.

For the property owners, who later indicated by show of hands at their attorney's request an overwhelming objection to the station, Kropf mentioned that a "number of accidents have occurred at this location and a gas station draws in-out traffic". He stressed that home buyers in the area had relied upon the zoning.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff confirmed that he knew personally that two of the six closest home owners had checked zoning with city hall.

From the audience:
Mrs. Pat Kunst, 568 Langfield Drive, and Charles Wallace, 1012 Canterbury, pointed out that the adjacent Convenience Food Mart was creating problems and that promises made regarding its structure "had never been kept."

Douglas Loomis, 1000 Canterbury, noted how many stations now exist between Allen Drive and the expressway, stating he had noticed the "number is not supported by traffic now."

Mrs. Patricia Newbold, 1020 Allen, objected to the amount of traffic now coming to the group of stores next to the location in question from streets above her and pointed out the danger to the many small children in the subdivision.

Returning to the agenda, the council:

- Postponed the continuation of the public hearing on the petition of John Badalutz, owner, for rezoning of lots on North Center south of Eight Mile from one-family residential to two-family until May 5 upon request of Badalutz as he did not have plot plans drawn.

- Set Tuesday, May 20, as the date for public hearing of the 1969-70 city budget and also changed its regular May 19 meeting to that date to avoid conflict with Michigan Week activities.

- Instructed the city manager to

16 File for Seats On College Board

If numbers mean anything two Northville residents and two from Garden City will have a good crack at the two at-large seats on the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees.

By the filing deadline Tuesday afternoon 16 men had filed petitions - nine of them from Livonia.

The only other post up for election June 9 is for a trustee representing Plymouth, involving only Plymouth residents. Election of the two at-large candidates will be determined by voters of all five secondary school districts comprising the Schoolcraft district.

Latest to enter the race from Northville was Dennis Dildy. He joins Dr. Robert Geake, who announced several weeks ago.

Filing from Garden City were John Thomas and Walter Nevill.

The large number of candidates from Livonia, largest populated center in the college district, is likely to lead to wide vote splitting, thus giving the other three candidates a better chance for election.

Those who filed from Livonia include: Charles Chandler, J. Patrick O'Brien, Joseph E. Sullivan, Robert F. Swanson, James E. Taylor, John M. LaRue, James W. Schaefer, Kenneth H. Robiner, and Jerome R. Pikulinski, Calvin Strom, Lester A. Waldman, and Ray M. Wyatt.

In Plymouth, where candidates are seeking the unexpired term of Harold Fischer, who resigned, three persons filed by the deadline. They include Mrs. Jane Moehle, current board president, and Eldon W. Martin and Mrs. Jean Navarra.

Trial Ordered For Gloetzner

Ronald E. Gloetzner, 18-year-old former Novi resident, will face trial May 6 on charges of sale and possession of drugs (marihuana).

A temporary court order that had placed Gloetzner under the Holmes Youthful Trainee Act was lifted and he was ordered Thursday to stand trial.

Conviction of sale carries a mandatory sentence of 20 years in jail.

Gloetzner was one of five youths arrested last winter for either possession or sale of marihuana. One of the five - a Northville youth - is already serving a 1 1/2 to 10 year term in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for possession.

Gloetzner is free on a $10,000 bond pending his trial.

Local Post Still Open

With just about two weeks remaining before the deadline for filing of nominating petitions for a four-year term on the Northville Board of Education, no one had filed by Wednesday.

Up for election is the post currently held by Trustee Glenn Deibert.

According to Business Manager Earl Busard, petitions have been given to Deibert and Dr. Paul Hunt, although neither has indicated they will seek the "post."

Trash Piles Up at Dump

Advent of spring weather has tripled Northville's dumping problems, City Manager Frank Ollendorff reported to the city council Monday as he said usage was up three times that of six weeks ago.

Two containers are not sufficient at this time of year, he said, adding that within the past couple of weeks someone had set fire to one container and damaged it.

Northville will have to consider seriously restricting use to the dump to city residents, he continued, stating he had told Northville township officials in a telephone conversation Monday that unless it can come up with a suggestion to provide service for both communities, as at present, the restrictions will be made.

"Last week the dump opened at 10 a.m. and both containers were filled by 10:20 a.m.," he cited. He told the council that the containers were "hopscoched" periodically to save possible building sites in the dump region.

TAKE OATHS - Clerk Martha Milne swears in newly elected city officials (l to r) Councilman Kenneth Rathert, Mayor A. M. Allen (re-elected), and Councilman Paul Folino.

$1.5 Million Clubhouse

Downs Building Underway

Harness racing got a shot in the arm Monday morning as formal ground-breaking for a $1.5 million clubhouse was staged at Northville Downs.

Michigan Racing Commissioner Leo C. Shirley joined the Downs' executive manager, John J. Carlo, and Cass Hoffman, Driving Club president, and a host of other racing dignitaries and local city officials for the ceremony and an inspection of work already underway.

Carlo, who has been planning for the facility for years but who was able to push it to a reality only after the Downs was awarded extra racing dates this year, took guests on a tour of the facility.

The first floor of the clubhouse will be ready for use well in advance of the 30-night Northville-Jackson meeting starting November 24, said the boss of the state's pioneer parimutuel betting harness racing plant.

Construction of the clubhouse foundation and installation of aluminum frames for glass-enclosure of the entire grandstand structure has already begun.

"The frames and all the work up to the actual installation of the glass partitions," said Carlo, "will be completed well in advance of the Northville summer meeting beginning on May 28. We will complete the project and resume work on the new clubhouse as soon as our meeting ends on July 29. When completed the project will cost approximately $2 million."

Carlo pointed out that heating units were installed in the grandstand three years ago and only a few more will be needed to heat the 320-foot long structure. The air conditioning units will be put in place at the same time. The grandstand has an over-all capacity of 5,500 with seating for 3,500.

The new 100 x 200 foot clubhouse will have three floors when completed in another year. The first level, to be completed this year, will be connected with the adjoining grandstand.

It will have its own mutual department, space for 2,000 spectators, concession stands, and it will be air conditioned. Plans for the remaining levels are elaborate and will give the Downs one of the Midwest's finest plants. Entrance will be on the Center Street side of the plant, with circular drive opening into a huge entrance. Cars will move into valet and regular parking

Parents Still Pray For Missing Airman

Parents of the Salem airman missing off the coast of Korea are still praying for his safe recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Graham, who have received telegrams of sympathy from President Richard Nixon and Chief of Navy Personnel Vice-Admiral C.K. Duncan, refused to give up hope that their son, 21-year-old Gene K. Graham, may yet be found alive.

Young Graham was one of 31 U.S. Navy crewmen aboard the Super Constellation aircraft shot down over the sea of Japan April 21 by North Korean jets. Two bodies have been found but the others were still missing yet this Wednesday.

Nixon, in his telegram, expressed his and Mrs. Nixon's deep grief over the incident and sorrow over the resulting tragedy.

Admiral Duncan kept alive the parents' hopes by noting the start of a full-scale investigation into the possibility that survivors may have been taken prisoner.

Graham, an aviation electronics technician, entered the Navy in December, 1966, and had been in Japan since March, 1968.

Girl Scouts Invite Dads to See Camp

Sunday will be Dad's Day if you're a father of a Northville Girl Scout. For the first time local Girl Scouts are entertaining their fathers at Camp Linden, Scout council's camp in northern Livingston County.

All Northville Girl Scouts, including Brownies, are inviting dads (or a substitute grandfather, uncle or family friend) to see the camp and its facilities.

George Zerbel is in charge of Northville arrangements for the day, serving as chairman with Charles Clements, Jr., of Plymouth for the outing which is a combined project of the Northville-Plymouth Scouts.

Northville Senior Scouts with their leader, Mrs. Glenn Deibert, are to be in charge of the campfire entertainment program, holding a guitar-accompanied sing-along.

Scouts and their escorting fathers are to arrive at camp from 11 until 12:30 p.m. when Senior Scouts will begin canoeing, safety, cooking and first aid demonstrations. At 2:30 p.m. a half-hour program for dads only will show filmstrips, site plans and architects' drawings for the camp, explained by the Camp Development Committee.

A special attendance award will be presented to the troop with the largest representation of fathers. Registration badges will be given each father with all dads asked to register so that a tally can be kept.

Mrs. Edward Hancock who has been making arrangements for the outing, assisted by Mrs. Craig Rathburn, suggests that Scouts wear camp clothes appropriate for the weather.

Fathers and daughters arriving early are invited to bring a picnic lunch.

Mrs. William Switzler will assume her duties as Northville Area Girl Scout Chairman at the spring meeting for all adult members of the local council at 1 p.m. today, April 24, in the Scout-Recreation building.

The troop leader represented by the largest number of registered adults is to receive a prize, Mrs. Francis Jennings, Girl Scout consultant, announced, as she urged troop committee members to support their leaders by attending.

Mrs. Switzler succeeds Mrs. William Schlieff as area chairman.

Luncheon Today

A chicken pie luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today at Northville United Methodist Church by Mizpah Circle, King's Daughters. A bazaar and bake sale is being held in conjunction with the annual luncheon.

Vows Exchanged In Methodist Rites

Newly wed Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Laraway now are making their home in Plymouth following a wedding trip to Canada. Before their marriage March 8 at Northville, First United Methodist church the bride was Susan Werdehoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Werdehoff, Jr., of Plymouth and formerly of Northville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lewis Greenhoe of Novi and the late Mr. Laraway.

The Reverend Guenther Branstner officiated at the late afternoon ceremony at an altar flanked by baskets of white gladioli and yellow spider chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of slipper satin fashioned on Empire lines with long sleeves and a chapel train.

Lace applique adorned the neckline, sleeves and skirt. Her headpiece of matching lace petals and satin roses held the shoulder-length veil. White roses, carnations and stephanotis were used in her cascade bouquet.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Ray Graham, was matron of honor in a gown of yellow chiffon over satin styled in an A-line similar to that of the bride. She carried a mixed bouquet of Dutch irises, gladioli buds and acacia.

Ronald McHale was best man. Richard Myers and Ray Graham ushered.

A buffet dinner reception for 125 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Drive Plans Set For Cavern

Plans were finalized for a month-long community appeal for funds to be conducted during May at a meeting of the Cavern Fund-Raising Committee Monday.

A letter explaining the need for funds to convert the Cavern's new quarters in the basement of the old junior high (now board of education headquarters) and to pay its adult advisor is being sent to parents of all high school and eighth grade students in Northville, as well as to others who have indicated interest in the teen-age Cavern club.

Cavern members are addressing envelopes this week for the mailing, Mrs. Harold Wright, Cavern Fund-Raising chairman, reported.

Final dance in the Cavern's present quarters in the old community building will be a league dance hosted by the local club Friday. About 1,000 teen-agers are expected.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

WHO — in our town — is project to save the old library, adding almost $125 to the fund.

"Elegant?" Using the definitions provided by French Fashion Expert Mme. Genevieve Dariaux last Thursday Northville Town Hall goers played an "Identification Game" at the celebrity luncheon following.

As usual, the final Town Hall of the 1968-69 season brought out our town's women in best spring fashions. (We may have looked a little bright to the dignified French speaker who equated elegance more with solids and pastels, but the navy-with-red-and-white, the clear yellow costumes and stripe knits were a prominent "Welcome Spring!" look... Northville has "flair.")

New Town Hall Chairman Mrs. Nelson Hyatt proved herself a fashion independent as she wore a brimmed navy straw with her sleeveless navy suit and polka-dot blouse. "I do love hats!" declared the petite chairman as she introduced Madame Dariaux and thanked Mrs. Robert Lang, retiring TH chairman, for her year of dedication to the organization.

Mme. Dariaux, who often has been pictured wearing mink hats, admitted she also liked the look of hats but was reporting current fashion dictates when she said they are "out."

Mrs. Lang announced that next season's tickets now are on sale with lectures to be held on the second Thursday — hopefully, again at the high school. Each of the four lectures will be followed by a celebrity luncheon, which all TH ticketholders may make reservations to attend — luncheons often turn out to be the "frothing on the cake" as speakers answer questions from the audience.

GWEN FROSTIC, Northern Michigan businesswoman-artist, also proved to be a poet as she read original pieces revealing a deep appreciation of nature at the guest meeting of Northville Historical Society last week.

Among the 250 attending from Northville — and the entire Detroit area — were friends who had known Miss Frostic since the days she began her own studio-print shop in Wyandotte.

Local cartist RoseMarie VanIngen, wife of Main Street Principal Donald VanIngen, was among those who actually worked in the Wyandotte shop. She recalled cleaning the press in the days when Artist Frostic printed "everything — even wedding invitations."

Today Miss Frostic's Presscraft Papers at Benzonia is a million dollar enterprise with 10 presses turning out books, stationery and other paper goods decorated with the artist's nature sketches. Mrs. VanIngen works in many mediums as both an artist and teacher. (Her golden paper-mache figures annually have been added to and serve as Christmas-season decoration at Northville Presbyterian Church.)

Miss Frostic made her appearance a "gift" to the Northville Historical Society's ANNUAL USED book sale of the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women (which includes several Northville women) will be held in a new location this year. It is to be next week — May 1-3, at Westland Center.

For 13 years the annual even had been held in Plymouth, but it has outgrown previous quarters while raising increased funds for the AAUW Fellowship Program. The money from this year's sale will go to support a fellowship program for graduate women students and a scholarship for a female student at Schoolcraft College.

Looking back to the original sale 14 years ago, records show that two Northville women were part of the committee... Mrs. John Barnes and the late Mrs. Jean Collins. Wilma Barnes still is a most active AAUW member.

Northville women can assist in the project by attending the three day sale and donating books (more still are needed) by calling Mrs. Douglas Whitaker, 349-5714. Books also may be left at 1455 West Ann Arbor Trail.

"OPERATION Purchase" — the State Jaycette project to secure a kidney machine with Betty Crocker coupons from General Mills products which Northville Jaycettes are aiding locally — needs lots of coupons.

Mrs. Norman Norgren, local Jaycette chairman, reminds housewives they can help by remembering to save the coupons. They may be deposited in a box at the D & C store or sent to Mrs. Norgren, 861 Allen Drive.

CERTAIN BITS of "household trash" are valuable to Northville's Jaycettes in a new money-making project they have entered upon with radio station WJBK in the station's community club award program.

Local Jaycettes report they can earn money for its service projects by turning in to the station certain proof of purchase of advertisers' products.

These are: Pepsi Cola bottle caps and zipper strips from Pepsi cartons; L & M cigarette packages and cartons; boxes from Lipton tea and main dishes; Pennsylvania Dutch noodle bags; lids or labels from Kal Kan pet foods; Marathon receipts and price labels from all Sanders products.

The Jaycettes add the collection of a sufficient quantity of the proofs is a problem as the group is competing with others in the metropolitan area and, therefore, ask Northville-area housewives who wouldn't mind saving them to give a "great boost" to the project. Any Jaycette, or Mrs. Robert Hilton, chairman of the project, 349-0583, will pick them up. Money raised is to be used for community service projects.

News Around Northville

Mr. and Mrs. James LaRue and son Rick, 51105 West Seven Mile Road, have returned from a three-week Easter-season vacation in Florida where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaRue of Leesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCarthy and their son, Richard, 19450 Clement Road, have flown back from a 10-day spring vacation in Florida. While staying at Treasure Island they visited St. Petersburg to see the week-long Parade of States Band Festival with bands from many eastern states participating.

Most impressive, they report, was a nighttime parade of floats. The event held special interest for Richard, who is a Northville band member.

Town Hall'ers Get French Rules for Elegance

Elegance — keynote of the fashion philosophy of French couture directrice Mme. Genevieve Dariaux who spoke to Northville Town Hall last Thursday — can be as much a matter of pounds as dollars.

While denying that money — the word most often linked with elegance — is necessary to achieve it, Mme. Dariaux admitted that "it helps to be rich... especially if you budget only one coat a year, you had better choose the right one."

As for the pounds, Mme Dariaux termed them "elegance's public enemy number one," adding that the ten best-dressed women on those fashion lists must also be "the ten hungriest ones." Calling one's silhouette "more important than the face," Mme. Dariaux stressed the importance of a good figure, grooming and carriage in achieving over-all elegance

The dignified French directrice, who was with the French couture house of Nina Ricci for ten years and whose fashion name first was established in costume jewelry designing, made no pretense of approving all current fashion.

Commenting on the "bareness," as exhibited at the Academy Awards by Barbra Streisand, Mme. Dariaux's French-accented observation ran:

"I don't think one's husband would be happy whose wife shows for free what he has had to pay for."

At the celebrity luncheon following at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth, Mme. Dariaux said that Jackie Kennedy Onassis was "elegant," especially during the period she was in the White House.

Mrs. Nixon also has elegance — "more so than Mrs. Johnson."

Commenting that hemlines "can't go higher," Mme. Dariaux predicted that "if hemlines do something, they will go down — it's sure to come."

"For the first time in history little girls have a fashion of their own," Mme. Dariaux explained as she advised older women on budgets not to buy fad fashions, adding that no one should buy fashions that do not suit the figure.

"Women lose everything clutching at the juvenile look."

Obviously, exposed knees were a problem even to the French expert who admitted they cannot be ignored, saying "the only solutions for the over-fifty are to be out of fashion or ridiculous."

She solved the problem for herself by wearing her coatdress just above the knee-bend. Of navy wool with faultlessly tailored A-lines the coatdress was softened with a white chiffon scarf at its neckline Scarves were suggested as a good current fashion to be used at the neckline, and also as belts.

Following her own dictum that it is aging to place one's jewelry at the shoulder, Mme. Dariaux pinned a large gold bug on the coatdress closing below the waist. Her other eye-catching jewelry was a large, domed ring with clusters of smaller diamonds surrounding the center stone

"Don't try to grow up with enormous high heels even if you're too short," she admonished, advising women who still might have spike heels to give them away as square or round-toed shoes with stocky heels are in fashion — "even though men hate the flat look."

In describing the "total look of elegance" to be achieved by a woman on a budget, the French expert advised a good coat and matching skirt (to be worn with blouses) in a solid such as beige or grey "which are good all year."

She added the warning that "you must be careful with navy," preferring the pastel neutrals or black for the woman trying to achieve "Elegance on a Budget" — topic of her TH talk. She advocated pastels rather than bright colors, used in soft fabrics, for "the elegant woman knows color harmony."

Other fashion comments for "the elegant look"

• A good bag is an investment that lasts for years... it should match one's wardrobe.

• The crocodile bag is "sportish — should go to sleep after five, as when alive."

• This season's suits with long, belted jackets are a good fashion for women.

• Hats are out — there are a few helmets, hoods, turbans and scarves (not tied like a peasant woman's), but no hats.

• Pant costumes have replaced the beaded dress for at-home entertaining.

• If you still have a shirtdress, bring it up-to-date with a scarf at the neckline — or used as its belt.

• Laces, sheer wools and a generous décolletage (not strapless) are good for the mature woman while elegance-killers, on the other hand, to be avoided are to vivid colors, too darkly colored hair, eye liner, too tan skin.

Mme. Dariaux, author of "Elegance on a Budget," also drew upon her book, "Entertaining With Elegance," and a present manuscript, "Behaving With Elegance," as her final comments ranged away from fashion to living and entertaining "with elegance."

Mme. Dariaux, whose appearance closed the 1968-69 Town Hall season, was introduced by Mrs. Nelson Hyatt, new TH chairman. Mrs. Robert Lang thanked her committees and the large audience for their support before turning the chairmanship over to Mrs. Hyatt.

TOWN HALL hospitality (above) is offered final speaker of the season, Mme. Genevieve Dariaux, by Mrs. Nelson Hyatt, new president, who introduced the French fashion authority last Thursday. With them are Mrs. Claude Crusoe, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Arthur Schnute.

New Town Hall officers, left, Mrs. Jack Doheny, first vp, and President Hyatt show next season's program, to Mme. Dariaux and Mrs. Robert Lang, outgoing president.

At Northville Library

5,000 Books Set Record

Northville library has caused to mark National Library Week April 20-26 as it recorded its highest circulation in history last month with 5,000 books being checked out.

Especially satisfying to Librarian Mrs. Helen McClatchey is the fact that many of those checking out books are no more than counter-high. In the three years that she has been Northville librarian, Mrs. McClatchey has seen juvenile circulation double and now, almost triple.

Mrs. McClatchey came to Northville from Trenton where she was children's librarian, which, she admits, is partly responsible for her joy in the children's circulation. It must help also to be the mother of six — ranging from ninth grade to post-college graduate age.

She adds quickly, however, that both juvenile and adult circulation is "very good" for a library of Northville's size. Circulation also is "well-rounded" with users interested "in just about everything." This includes antiques, travel books, English and history books for students and latest fiction.

Mrs. McClatchey finds there's a large group of women fiction readers and says she buys "as many best sellers as I can with conscience."

Working with Mrs. McClatchey are two library aides — Miss Kathleen Sprenger and Mrs. Edith Lindbergh. The library is part of the Wayne County Federated Library System and also has a local city-township library commission.

The commission meets every two months with the librarian and the Wayne County system representative. Serving on it are Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. W. H. Cansfield, Mrs. Charles Chase, Miss Linda Edgerton, Hurd Sutherland, Joseph Fiorilli and Mrs. Roy Mattison, chairman.

Explaining that she buys about 800 books a year from lists of the Wayne County Federated Library System, the librarian adds that the total is increased by memorial and special interest gifts, some given yearly.

The local library commission, noting that the gifts have been both of specific designation and of a general type, hopes to make area residents more aware that such gifts and tributes are welcomed by the library.

In addition to books, the library subscribes to the Sunday edition of the New York Times, takes a daily paper and The Record.

Thinking wishfully of the men who frequent the library, Mrs. McClatchey would like to be able to budget the Wall Street Journal — and wonders if any area resident who does subscribe would ever be willing to bring in day-old copies.

"Wouldn't it be wonderful, too, to have someone donate a stock paper, such as Barron's Weekly," she added, indicating that buyers of words also have problems of "balanced buying."

BPW to Hear Police Chief

Northville Business and Professional Women will hear Northville Police Chief Samuel L. Elkins at their dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in Hillside Inn, Plymouth.

To illustrate his talk about local police work, Chief Elkins will bring samples of various drugs police encounter.

Dinner reservations must be made with Mrs. Hester Gow, 349-0539 or 349-5282, by noon Friday. The program is being arranged by the club's civic participation committee headed by Mrs. J. L. McKinney.

A special wind fall of funds may be forthcoming as plans are being made to have a used book booth at the Our Lady of Victory flea market next month with proceeds to go to the library. Miss Linda Edgerton, an elementary school librarian, has had interested women contacting her about the project.

Talking to librarians it's apparent that new books are as eagerly welcomed as any family new arrivals. Those going on Northville's shelves in the past ten days range from an English grammar and an antiques price list to a guide for selecting colleges and a best seller.

Specifically, they include "A Grammar of Present-Day English," R. W. Pence; "The Complete Antiques Price List — A Guide to 1969," Ralph Kovel; "Barron's Profiles of American Colleges," Benjamin Fine (facts needed to choose a college); "Buyer's Guide to 1969 Automobiles," "Thirteen Days," Robert Kennedy; "Candy Jones' Modeling and Other Glamour Careers," "Secrets of Shuffleboard Strategy," O. C. Catan; "1969 Guidebook to Michigan Taxes," and "Whipple's Castle," Thomas Williams.

Chosen to have something that appeals to everyone from Northville's many antique and car collectors to students and older women readers, the books should help the library keep spaces on its shelves — and 5,000 books in local homes.

And just to keep the total absolutely honest, Mrs. McClatchey stresses that last month's 5000-book record was the largest for any normal month. There probably were more books out when the library held "operation move" a few years ago into its new quarters, but last month's check-outs were out just to be read!

Northville Schedules Blood Bank

Northville's annual blood bank will be held Friday, May 9, at Northville First United Methodist Church from 2 to 5 and from 6 to 8 p.m. Appointments for prospective donors now are being accepted.

Area residents are urged to participate in the program by the local Red Cross committee and may do so by calling 349-2361 before 10 a.m. or after 2 p.m. or 349-1330 any time to make arrangements to donate at their convenience.

Northville, the committee points out, always has had a sufficient supply of blood for local needs, but demand is increasing and, as many regular donors who have given for many years no longer can give for various reasons, there is urgent need for new donors.

Anyone living in the City of Northville or in Northville township may draw on this community bank. There is no charge for this blood. The person requesting the blood, however, is asked to secure donors and replace the amount received so that there always is a sufficient supply for emergencies. This is not required immediately.

There is a yearly blood bank held here during the month of May and there is a monthly blood bank at the Red Cross Center at Five Mile and Merriman Roads. Every type of Red Cross service is available at this office.

The Northville chapter also is pleased to serve anyone who wishes to replace blood to a hospital or who wishes to credit blood given to a personal or other account. The chapter has given hundreds of hours of volunteer service in factories and at the Northwest center.

Contest to Focus On Beautification

Northville Beautification Commission is sponsoring a poster and essay contest open to all Northville children as an at-home project about beautification. Separate essay and poster competitions have been set up with a May 8 deadline. Winning posters and essays will be displayed during Michigan Week.

Children 7-9 and 10-12 years old are eligible for the poster contest with posters to feature the theme: "Let's Make Northville Beautiful." They are to be no larger than 8 by 11 inches.

Students 13-14 and 15-18 are eligible to compete in the essay contest, "How I can Help Beautify Northville." Essays must contain between 300 to 600 words.

First and second prizes will be awarded in each age group. Although this is a "home" project, the commission said, librarians in each of Northville's public schools have offered to accept the posters and essays and turn them over to the beautification commission. In parochial schools children may turn entries in to the principal's office.

As well as being on display during Michigan Week, winning posters and essays, together with pictures of the winners, will be included in the 1969 beautification scrapbooks that are sent to the national Beautification Congress.

Interested youngsters are asked by the commission to check details on posters in their schools or to call Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, commission chairman, at 349-1330.

Go-Betweens To Air Busing

Fourth meeting of a new Novi Junior High group called the "Go Betweens" will discuss school bussing May 20. At its meeting April 15 "Curriculum and Accreditation" were discussed.

Calvin Schmucker, English department head, and Richard Hendrickson, science and chemistry teacher, spoke on the junior high curriculum. Hendrickson also has been coordinating the efforts of all school personnel in regard to accreditation.

Speaking on school bussing will be Novi Bus Supervisor Mrs. Hazleton and Bruce Simmons and William MacDermid, school board members. Three areas of interest have been indicated: Preventive maintenance for the bus fleet; possibility of a school bus garage with a full-time mechanic; and provision for adequate transportation for extra-curricular activities.

A question and answer period follows formal presentation.

All interested citizens of the community are invited. Every meeting convenes at 8 p.m. and concludes at 10 p.m. sharp, the "Go Betweens" promise.

Library Furniture Needs Told

Although the city of Northville may not have been aware at its meeting Monday that this is National Library Week, it took special note of the Northville library's operation as City Manager Frank Ollendorff included a discussion of library furniture needs on the agenda.

Foreseeing furniture as an upcoming major expenditure, he pointed out that nothing had been purchased in the way of new equipment for the library until last year when an expenditure of about $1,000 was split with the township.

The council motioned that Ollendorff work out an arrangement with the township for furniture to be purchased by the city and amortized over the years by a percentage split, paid according to the year's division, as are present operating expenses such as janitorial work and lights.

Ollendorff explained to the new council that the library is a joint city-township operation with Wayne County Library Board supplying books and materials. City-township cost split is determined by the book usage and presently is 60 percent city, 40 percent township.

Spring Fling Set Tomorrow

For the "Spring Fling" Orchard Hills fair and spaghetti dinner being held at the school Friday night every room in the building will be open for games or booths, the sponsoring Orchard Hills Boosters' Club reports.

Spaghetti dinner will be served from 5 to 6:30 p.m. with booths and games to be held from 5:30 to 9 p.m.

A special program of entertainment, "Le Secrete," will be presented in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. by teachers of the school. Mrs. Joan McAllister is general chairman of the "Spring Fling." Name for the event was chosen by Orchard Hills student Kathleen O'Neal in a school-wide contest.

Roving fathers will sell tickets for games and booths throughout the building.

Kindergarten Roundup Set

Parents of kindergarten-bound Northville youngsters have been invited to attend an orientation meeting slated for Thursday, May 8.

Specifically, the program is for parents of children who will be five years old on or before December 1, 1969. Parents are requested to bring birth certificates for their children along with the registration forms that were mailed out last spring.

New parents to Northville will be given these registration forms at the May 8 meeting, which will be held at the Northville High School auditorium.

Nichols Named Pro-Tem

Northville's new city council named its new mayor pro-tem and appointed its fledgling councilmen to representative positions at the first meeting of the new council Monday.

The recommendation of Mayor A. M. Allen was accepted that, based upon seniority, Wallace Nichols be named mayor pro-tem.

Kenneth Rathert was designated representative to the Michigan Municipal League from the council.

Paul Folino was named to represent the council on the Wayne County Office of Civil Defense — and informed that the first meeting would be Tuesday morning, the next day.

Folino also was named the council's representative on the Northville Recreation Commission, replacing Ed Welch. Del Black, who has been serving as its president, was renamed to the commission.

Mayor Asks for Report Northville Police Use Mace

Mace, a temporarily disabling chemical, is in use now by the Northville police department, the Northville city council was told Monday as it was asked to approve purchases of tear gas grenades and other protective equipment approved last spring.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff told questioning councilmembers that, at this time, police still are authorized to use Mace. Mayor A. M. Allen asked for a report on its use as soon as possible and Ollendorff said he would bring the police chief (Sam Elkins) and city attorney to the explanatory session.

The council learned also that approval had been given by the county for a flashing arrow turn signal for westbound traffic on Main Street so that traffic may turn right onto Hutton

AWOL Soldier Arrested for B & E

A 17-year-old Walled Lake youth, reported AWOL from the army, was arrested in Novi Monday afternoon after fleeing from police on foot.

Lodged in the Oakland County Jail on charges of breaking and entering and carrying a concealed weapon is Terry Teeple of 138 Welfare.

After receiving an AWOL report from the army and acting on a tip, Novi police attempted to arrest Teeple at a home on West Lake Drive. As the patrol car approached, however, Teeple fled on foot.

With policemen from several other departments assisting, Novi Corporal Dale Gross and Officer Jack Grubb arrested the youth hiding in a field off North Haven an hour later. Beside him on the ground, police said, was a fully loaded 7.65 Italian Beretta.

Police have charged Teeple with breaking and entering a house at 1603 West Lake Drive between January 1 and February 24 of this year.

A 100-pound statute was stolen from the grounds at 44000 Nine Mile Road on Friday, Ronald Hoskins of that address reported to Novi police. An old fashion horse tie-down, it is in the shape of a boy with an outstretched hand, police said.

Theft of a motor bike from 1322 East Lake Drive was reported to police earlier last week by Dave Belanger of the East Lake Drive address.

A 15-year-old Novi boy, apprehended in California and returned

Faulty Siren Costs $393

Faced with its third repair bill in recent months for the Northville fire siren, the Northville City Council Monday thought the cost of parts and labor "came high" as it was billed $393 for what City Manager Frank Ollendorff said was five hours' work.

Ollendorff pointed out that the work was done by the "only authorized repairer" of the manufacturer. He added that the city would be getting approximately 60 percent back in July when costs are split with the township.

He added that "several proposals" are included in the upcoming budgets for new fire department recommendations. Mayor Allen mentioned that the siren, now several years old, was purchased advantageously with helping federal aid.

Novi OKs Budget For County Review

A preliminary Novi school budget, calling for a 1969-70 outlay of $1,249,450, was to be submitted to the Oakland County Allocation Department this week.

Members of the board of education reviewed the preliminary figures last week before authorizing their presentation to the county board.

The budget, which was not discussed publicly except for total expenditure and revenue, reportedly anticipates a deficit of $1,536. (Revenue was put at $1,247,914).

In a memorandum to the board from Superintendent Thomas Dale, it was noted that the school's objective is to secure an increase in allocation by the county from 8.70 mills to 9.70 mills.

"Our extra voted millage would remain the same as it is — 11.50 mills," said Dale. "The total then for operation for the 1969-70 school year would be $21.20 per thousand of state equalized valuation. If the valuation comes close to the $40 million mark, the income from local taxes would be about $848,000 for operation."

Subsequent to the superintendent's remarks, however, it was learned that the SEV of the school district has been pegged at $38,407,567.

MILDRED M. DORAN
Funeral services were held Monday in Livonia for Mrs. Mildred Murphy Doran, 54, a former Northville businesswoman, who died April 17 at 9905 Mayfield, her Livonia home.

Mrs. Doran had been a tax consultant who operated her own business in Northville for 10 years, later becoming a partner in the firm, Doran and Kates, before retiring eight years ago. Prior to establishing her own firm, Mrs. Doran had been an employee with the Internal Revenue for several years.

She leaves her husband, Vincent, and a son, Michael.

She was born November 4, 1914, in Detroit to John and Millicent Murphy, both now deceased.

Requiem Mass was said Monday at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Livonia. Scriptural readings were given Sunday evening at the Ted Sullivan Funeral Home, 14230 McNichols. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

LEWIS W. CARVER
Funeral services were held last Friday for Lewis W. Carver, 49, who died suddenly April 16 at his home at 616 Oakland Street. The Reverend Cederick Whitcomb of Northville First Baptist Church officiated at the services at Casterline Funeral Home. Interment was in Rock Island, Illinois, at Rock Island National Cemetery last Monday.

A machine operator at Ford Motor Company Transmission Plant, Livonia, for 17 years, Mr. Carver moved to Northville four and a half years ago from Dearborn.

He was born January 21, 1920, at Rock Island. Parents were Willard C. Carver and Mrs. Gertrude Hill Carver, who still lives in Rock Island.

Other survivors are his wife, Mary; four sons, John, Ralph, Marvin, Norman; two daughters, Jean and Nita, all of Northville; a brother, Paul of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; three sisters, Mrs. Fay Sweeney of Rock Island, Mrs. Cleo Gritton of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Mrs. Bonnie Reno of Chicago.

MRS. FERN HART
A former Northville resident, Mrs. Fern Iris Hart, 55, of Pleasant Ridge, died April 19 at Detroit Osteopathic Hospital after a long illness.

Her husband, Frank, was affiliated with The Record printing operations many years ago. He now is owner of update plans for concrete paving of North Center Street from South Ely to the city limits, agreeing to set a date for a public hearing afterward.

City Engineer Harold Penn, pointing out that the paving has been considered at various times since 1963, gave an approximate figure for storm sewers and asphalt paving of $35,300, as requested.

It was noted that Novi has said it will be paving north from Eight and a half mile in late spring. Because it will be heavier than usual residential traffic, the feeling of the council was that plans to use concrete should be retained. This is estimated at 20 percent higher cost. Mayor Allen indicated that cost-splits would be considered in study sessions and at the meeting later.

In approving bill payments, the council noted that 21 Norway maple trees have been planted throughout the community, about half in Northville Heights No. 2 and the Novi Street-South Maplewood area and the other half throughout the city.

Upon questioning of Rathert, Ollendorff explained that the city pays Consumer Power bills for the fish hatchery, used in the recreation program, as no decision has been made for participation by the township and school board. He indicated such accounts are being kept individually and can be broken down for apportionment.

Three Bitten By Dogs Here

Three Northville residents were bitten by dogs during the past week.

William Berner Jr., 13, 234 Church St., was bitten on the back of his right leg. The incident occurred April 16, at 7:30 p.m. on East Cady St.

He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia, for treatment. The dog is owned by Dale and Karen Fisher, 146 North Center.

A Post Office employee, Mary Reimer, 254 Linden Street, was bitten on her knee, when she was delivering mail Thursday. The dog, owned by Hans F. Kaling, 527 Reed St., came out as she walked up to the house. No medical attention was required.

A 13 year-old girl, Patricia A. Jackson, 876 Allen Drive, was bitten Thursday while playing with her dog. She was taken to Botsford Hospital, Farmington, where she was treated for a bite on her right arm.

Redford Falls Twice

Mustangs Nine Wins Doubleheader

With two stingy Northville hurlers sharing turns on the mound, the Mustangs snatched both ends of a double bill at Redford Union Saturday afternoon.

The twin victory came on the heels of Thursday's postponed contest with West Bloomfield because of weather conditions. The game is tentatively rescheduled for next week.

Class A Redford, unbeaten going

Bulldogs End Streak

Question: When is a catcher a pitcher? When all of the pitchers who happen to be seniors take off on a senior trip.

That's what happened Monday to Brighton. Normally a catcher, Ed Gardner went all the way in gaining credit for a 5-4 victory over Northville — even though his teammates managed only two hits.

Gardner struck out two, walked four and gave up six hits, but he was tough enough in the clutch and he got some defensive back to nip two Northville rallies.

Defense actually won the game for Brighton. A double play in the fifth into Saturday's double-header, simply could not cope with sizzling pitches served up by Northville's Jeff Taylor and Fred Holdsworth.

Taylor, who came within a hair of a no-hitter, led the Mustangs to a 4-2 triumph in the opener while Holdsworth gave up four hits in claiming the second 4-1 victory for the local nine.

In that first game, Taylor had a frame quelled a Northville uprising, and a pick-off play at second provided a key out in the seventh inning with the winning run on base for Northville and one run across.

Ken Lach, who was lifted in the second for Jeff Taylor, was tagged with the first Mustang loss of the season. Northville had tied an earlier W-O outing but had put together five straight non-league triumphs.

Coach Dick Willing had only recently moved Lach up from the junior varsity squad. The young sophomore gave up only one hit, but walked three batters and hit another. Taylor allowed one hit, fanned eight and walked two.

Brighton scored all of its runs in the first two innings, while Northville came up with a single run in the first, one in the third, one in the fifth and one in the final frame.

In that seventh inning, Terry Mills led off with a single to center and then stole center. Barry Deal gained base on an infield error, and then Pat Cayley singled to left scoring Mills.

Now with two men on, no outs and just two runs from a victory, a double play and an infield out wiped out Northville's final threat.

The Brighton loss and the manner in which the Bulldogs scored and the Mustangs failed to launch a sustained rally was "too much like last year's 7-5 loss to Brighton," said Coach Willing as he tried to get his players set for the "game of the year" this afternoon at Milford. Willing expects to send Fred Holdsworth to the mound.

no-hitter in his hip pocket going into the sixth inning. But in that inning Redford unleashed a three-hit, two-run barrage to spoil his effort. He fanned six batters and walked but three in going the distance.

Northville set the stage for the triumph by pushing across two runs in the top of the third. Craig Turnbull was safe at first on an error, Stan gained base on a fielder's choice as Steve Utley, who walked, was tossed out, and Terry Mills singled to drive across Turnbull with the first score of the game. Barry Deal walked to fill the bases and Taylor was hit by a pitched ball to force home the second run.

In the fourth, with two outs, Utley took first after he, too, was beamed by Redford Hurler Jim Scheele. Turnbull singled and Stan Nirider walked to fill the bases. Mills then laced a single to center driving across Utley and Turnbull.

According to Coach Dick Willing, Taylor's performance was near perfect — his best this season. All three of Redford's runs were unearned.

Three runs in the third was good enough for the second triumph as Northville picked up an insurance tally in the sixth — the same inning in which Redford scored its lone run.

Holdsworth fanned eight batters, walked two and gave up just four hits in going the distance.

In that game-deciding third inning, Holdsworth helped his own cause by singling to center and then stealing second. Rick Adams brought him home on a single to center and then took second himself on the throw to the plate. Dave Coe singled to left to score Adams and streaked to third on an error.

With Tim Marburger at the plate, Coe galloped towards the plate on a squeeze bunt situation. Marburger missed the ball but Coe, caught in a run-down, scored when Redford's catcher missed the ball.

In the sixth, Mills led off the inning with a booming triple to right. Taylor was safe at first on a pop-up error and then stole second. Then with two outs, Adams singled Mills home. Taylor, attempting to score from second on the play, was nipped at the plate.

HORSE SHOEING — If you're studying horsemanship and all of its ramifications what better way to learn than first-hand inspection. That's what members of Cadet Troop 407 did Saturday as they watched Mike Dedes of Northville shoe one of the Charles Wallace horses in Novi Saturday afternoon. The learning activity is part of the cadets' progress towards a horsemanship badge.

GRJC Wins Golf Match

Grand Rapids Junior College edged out Schoolcraft and Highland Park colleges here Friday in a triangular golf meet shortened because of rain.

The winning squad came up with a team score of 174, while Schoolcraft finished second at 183 and Highland Park came in at 206.

Ron Higgins led Schoolcraft, shooting a 43 for nine, while Carl Patron carded 46 and Fred Zrmack and Tom Karwaski came in with identical 47 scores. Normally an 18-hole match, competition was trimmed to nine holes because of rain.

Reshuffled Mustangs Dump Brighton, 77-40

Victory is sweet in any case but it's especially tasty when young athletes who shine in unfamiliar events, have a hand in it.

That's how Coach Ralph Redmond viewed his squad's 77-40 victory over Brighton's relatively weak track team here Thursday afternoon.

"We had scouted them," explained Redmond, "so we knew they weren't a big threat. We figured it was a good opportunity to run some of our younger boys to build up their endurance. They did real well and got in some varsity points."

Among the changes were Dave Mitchell, who ordinarily runs the hurdles, took on the 100 and 220 yard dashes; big Fred Hicks, Northville's stellar shot putter, ran a leg in the 880, taking a handoff from Bob Froelich;

Rick Bell, a two-miler, ran the mile; Sophomore Dave Wright crossed the half-mile tape in first place — normally Greg Marshall and Phil Kennedy would be out front for Northville; Brad Cole and Phil Guider, both freshmen, ran the 440; and John Stuyvenberg teamed up with Marshall, Kennedy and Glen Heffner in the mile relay.

Because of the wide shuffling of competitors Northville scored few impressive times or distances in the field and track events, admitted Redmond, "but like I said: we got some good experience."

Altogether, the Mustangs garnered nine firsts and a basketful of second and third place points. Here's how the competition went:

Long Jump: Stuyvenberg (20'6"); Joe Hoffman (19'5"); and Bill Conrad (19'1/2").

Long jump. Dave H Harmon, Brighton star who eclipsed his own school mark (6'7/8"), Rick Pickren (5'4"); and Jon Stine and Mitch Braddon, tied for third.

Champs Dumped

League Champion West Bloomfield took it on the chin here Tuesday afternoon as Northville's thinclads came up with a thrilling 62-55 upset despite damp weather. John Stuyvenberg soared 22'3/4" in the long jump — best effort posted this year by all Michigan high schools.

Shot Hicks (47'1/4"), Brian Myers, who "is looking better every day with speed and kick from the circle" (42'1"); and Richard Ruland (38'2 3/4").

Pole vault. Jim Armstrong, barefooted Mustang who had little competition from Brighton (10"); and Larry Todd (8').

Two mile: Paul Bair (10:55.9); Richard Lamp (11:02); and Guy Dixon (11:26.8).

880 relay: Northville (1:37.2). Mile run: Paul Bedford (4:50.7); Bell (4:59.5); and Paul Bachelor (5:02.6).

High hurdles: Jeff Dawson (18.2); Pickren (18.3); and Dave Veresh (18.6).

880 run: Wright (2:14); Ron Wilson (2:18); and Mal Petteys (2:21). 440 run: Hoffman (54.1); Cole (56.2); and Guider (56.8).

100 dash: Braddon (11.1); Mitchell (11.2); and Stine (11.3).

180 dash: Dawson (23.8); Veresh (24.0); and Jim Wood (25.1).

220 dash: Braddon (23.7); Mitchell (25.1); and Stine (25.2). Mile relay: Northville (3:39.2).

Errors Hurt

Wildcats Split Opening Games

Snow pitched 5 1/3 innings, giving up seven hits, seven walks and struck out seven. McMillan finished out the game, giving up two hits, striking out one, and walking six.

Big gun for Novi at the plate was Paul Faulkner, who picked up four hits in five turns at bat. The left-handed slugger scored three times and drove in two more.

All other Novi regulars collected at least one hit.

Actually, the Wildcat hurlers were hampered, said the coach, because of the long periods of inaction while Novi hitters stretched out a couple of innings.

"The potential's there but we've got to clean up our own mistakes," Novi Coach John Osborn commented this week in reviewing his baseball squad's split of the first two games of the season.

The Wildcats, after blasting Chelsea last week Wednesday, 17-9, committed six errors in losing to Livonia Churchill Thursday afternoon, 5-1.

In that game at Livonia, Novi held the hosts to a 1-1 tie until the bottom of the sixth when Livonia came up with four big runs to win going away.

James Poole, who performed on the mound for the Wildcats, was tagged with the loss. He gave up seven hits, walked one, and fanned four.

Meanwhile, his teammates managed to scrap up only four hits in producing their lone tally. The run came on singles by Paul Faulkner and Gary Boyer, with Faulkner taking RBI credit.

The game at Chelsea was a different story. The Wildcats collected 13 hits to back up the two Novi hurlers, Lee Snow and Phil McMillan, in posting the opening victory.

College Netters Triumph Twice

With two straight victories under its belt, Schoolcraft's tennis squad will host Flint Community College at Stevenson High School in Livonia Saturday.

Last Saturday, Coach Jack Washka's collegians downed Macomb Community College 5-2 in four of five singles matches while splitting two doubles matches, to notch their second team victory.

In singles, Jim Bajor won the opener 4-6, 6-3, and 9-7; Randy Johns came up with a 6-3, 6-0 victory; Randy Burnett scored a win with 7-5, 10-8; and Dave Eberhart topped his opponent, 6-1, 6-1.

Bajor and Burnett teamed up to take the lone doubles victory for Schoolcraft, winning 6-4, 7-5.

Rain Cancels Novi Track

A postponed Friday track meet has resulted in a switch in the spring schedule for Novi thundclads, Coach Fred Hanert revealed this week.

The Wildcats, who were originally slated to host the Whitmore Lake Trojans (it was rained out), last Friday, will host both Whitmore and Roosevelt on Monday, May 5 in a previously unscheduled triangular meet. Novi originally was slated to meet Roosevelt on Tuesday, May 6.

In addition to the Whitmore-Roosevelt change, Novi will participate in the Tecumseh Relays on Saturday, May 10, Hanert said.

'Bump' Elliott Talk Set for Banquet

Chalmers "Bump" Elliott, athletic department executive and recent head football coach at the University of Michigan, will be the guest speaker at the Second Annual All Sports Banquet in Northville on May 14, the Northville Boosters Club announced this week.

Serving as master of ceremonies again this year will be Andy Bertoni of Northville, and sharing the limelight will be Jim Peterson, last year's Athlete of the Year.

The dinner program will get underway at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, with the awards ceremony set to start at 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Dinner tickets have been reduced this year from $5 to $3.75, but NBC officials emphasize that there are only a limited number of tickets available. Persons who do not attend the dinner are nevertheless invited to attend the awards program.

The NBC has expanded the Athlete of the Year presentation this year to include varsity cheerleaders.

Police Nab Suspect Thefts, Vandalism Hit City

Northville police investigated six incidents involving larceny, vandalism and breaking and entering over the past week.

Dale A. Demankowski, Union Lake, was arrested and charged with breaking and entering the Northville Marathon Service Station, 480 East 7-Mile Road.

During a routine early morning check April 17, police noticed a broken window at the station. Investigation revealed Demankowski hiding in the building. Nothing was reported missing.

Damage to clothing worth over $900 was reported by Mrs. Irene Earehart, 113 Walnut, after someone broke into her home April 19.

Police said the intruder gained entry into the home by kicking in the front door.

Reported missing are a cashmere coat with mink trim, valued at $150; a light brown mink stole, $500; and 10 or 15 pairs of pierced earrings, valued at more than $150.

According to police, a white and brown rabbit with fox trim winter coat, valued at $100, and a dark brown uniform coat were slashed down the back with a razor-like instrument.

Reports indicate that all clothing left in the home was slashed with the sharp object.

Police investigated a possible breaking and entering April 16 at the Brenton Morrow residence, 43714 Dorisa Court, after a neighbor noticed a curtain move.

The neighbor, asked to watch the house while the Morrrows move to Portland, Oregon, said a number of items in the home were missing.

A portable phonograph, portable television, sewing machine, floor lamp, end table and wicker chair were among those listed as missing. Police were unable to reach Mrs. Morrow for verification before she left by plane for Oregon.

Harlow Wagenschutz, 46162 Sunset Street, reported the theft of two snow tires from the rear seat of his car, April 19. He said they were taken from his unlocked car parked in front of his home.

A 20-inch boys red bicycle with chrome fenders was reported stolen from the Richard McCally home, 1015 Allen Drive.

Mrs. Oren Schneider, Union Lake, reported vandals had entered an unoccupied home at 364 South Wing St. late last week.

The home, owned by the Schneiders, was entered by climbing on top of an electrical box and breaking a window pane to gain access to the second story.

The vandals turned the thermostat up to 80 degrees and sprayed the contents of two cans of rug cleaner over the basement floor. No estimate of damage was given.

Motorist Injured In Three-Car Crash

A three-car accident on Eight Mile Road near Center sent one man to the hospital Thursday.

Kenneth J. Rossetol, 19750 Beck Road, was injured when the car he was driving hit the rear of a car stopped for a red light in the westbound lane of Eight Mile Road, police said.

The stopped car was driven by Dr. Andrew Freier, Windsor, Ontario.

While the Rossetol vehicle was stopped, a car, driven by Carroll N. Smith, Ann Arbor, ran into the Rossetol car.

Smith said he was following Rossetol's car when it hit Freier's stopped auto. Smith said he was unable to stop in time.

The Northville fire department was called to extinguish a fire in Freier's car caused by the accident.

Rossetol was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia, where he was treated.

No arrests were made.

Northville Police investigated an accident on the corner of Seven Mile and Sheldon Sunday afternoon.

A motorcycle driven by Carlin G. Cooper, Jr., Farmington, was struck from the rear by a car driven by Margaret Dawson, Plymouth.

Mrs. Dawson said she assumed Cooper would go through the amber light and did not see him stop. She hit the motorcycle from the rear. The impact threw Cooper into the air and he landed on the bike, striking the foot rest and side of the bike with his back.

Mrs. Dawson was ticketed for failure to stop within a safe distance.

Police arrested Craig M. Zurn, 20, 42400 West 12-Mile Road., on a charge of a minor in possession of alcoholic beverages while in a vehicle.

The police responded after a resident reported a man slumped in a car at the intersection of Hutton and Rayson Streets. Upon investigation, they found Zurn asleep in the car with the lights on. They found an open beer can on the front seat and a six-pack in the rear seat.

Zurn was released on a $35 cash bond. He will appear in court April 29.

Ronald J. Hoffman, Plymouth, was stopped by police for speeding, April 18. Northville police were notified that an open warrant for arrest had been issued by the Wayne County sheriff. He was released on $25 bond and will appear in court April 28.

lots - one adjoining the clubhouse and the other across Center Street at the intersection of Seven Mile Road.

Patrons will walk into the clubhouse at the second level where stairways and elevators will be available for transportation to the large dining room area on the third level.

The clubhouse second level will be one of the most unusual ever planned for a racing plant. It will have three rows of seats in tiers along the glassed front, all with permanent chairs and a counter. Two hundred chairs will be of the swivel type. The second level will have a capacity for 700, including the 200 in the swivel chairs.

The third level will include a plush dining room with seating space for 352 in a three-tier arrangement, looking out over the racing strip. In addition there will be a private dining room with a capacity of 20. While future use plans have not been formalized, Carlo hopes the dining facility can be made available for public use during the off season.

"Come rain, snow, heat or cold, we'll be ready for racing under any conditions," said Carlo. "We'll have the best all-weather harness track facilities in this part of the nation. We'll be able to accommodate more than 7,500 this year and will be able to boost that figure to more than 9,000 when the clubhouse is completed."

Carlo also revealed that future plans call for extending the present grandstand to the east for the accommodation of an additional 5,000 people.

'70 College Census Pegged At 11,000

It appears enrollment in the Oakland Community College will hit 11,000 by 1970, according to the 1967-68 OCC annual report issued this past week.

This latest estimate, the report indicates is about midway between the 8,000 to 14,000 projection seen in a report published back in 1962 shortly after a move to establish the college were undertaken.

"The September, 1967 enrollment was 5,487, which was an increase of 25.4 percent over 1966's 4,089, and 29.6 percent over 1965's 3,860."

Continuing the report states: "Following the opening of the college with its enrollment of 3,860, a record at that time for an opening enrollment for a community college in the nation, the 1966 "flattening out" to 4,089, an increase of only 5.6 percent, was a disappointment. It was not a personal insult or embarrassment for OCC, however, for a comparable leveling off was experienced by the other Michigan community colleges and the freshman classes at the four-year institutions..."

A projection of approximately 7,000 students is being forecast for September, 1968, the report indicates.

Concerning the Orchard Ridge campus, closest OCC facility to this area (Farmington), the report notes:

"The 11-building, $18.5 million campus, the design of which received an award citation at the American Association of School Administrators convention in 1966, has already received a fine acceptance by the community, and visitors who come to the campus from throughout this nation and abroad are similarly gracious in their comments.

"Orchard Ridge was one of 19 campuses to be visited on an airborne planning seminar for new community colleges conducted by the American Association of Junior Colleges in August and was the only educational institution visited in the state of Michigan on that tour."

PRETTY BOOSTER — Pretty Joyce Zalewski of Farmington was in town Saturday lending a hand with the Northville campaign to raise funds for the Detroit center of Synanon, a national self-help organization aimed at combatting dope and alcoholic addiction. If you missed her last week, don't fret — she and others will be back again this Saturday looking for your donations.

'Metro' Center Seen for Novi

TALUS Weighs Five Future Land Use Patterns

Results of a crystal ball look into land use possibilities for Southeast Michigan by 1990 have been revealed by the administrative committee of TALUS (Detroit Regional Transportation and Land Use Study).

Approval of this preliminary land use plan awaits a review by the TALUS technical study team.

Summarized in a 150-page "review and description" and depicted on a seven-by-nine foot map utilizing 25 different colors, the preliminary plan calls for "metro centers" and "planned communities" in suburban areas and for extensive redevelopment along new policy lines within the City of Detroit, Irving J. Rubin, TALUS director, said.

In this area, a "metro center" is seen in the east-central vicinity of Novi and a "planned community" is pegged in Northfield Township south of Whitmore Lake.

Conferences with staffs of planning agencies for the seven counties covered by the study (Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne) and the City of Detroit assisted the development of the preliminary plan, Rubin said.

Efforts will be continued to obtain general public reaction and additional suggestions, he added.

Creation of "metro centers" in areas not yet developed or sparsely populated is balanced in the TALUS preliminary plan by redevelopment proposals for the City of Detroit, including construction of the new stadium in downtown Detroit.

The "metro centers" would become nuclei of activity within the fabric of the metropolitan area, Rubin said, rather than separate "islands".

Each would provide regional shopping opportunities coupled with offices, high-rise apartments, cultural and entertainment facilities and in some cases, community college or university campuses.

The "metro centers" would range in population from 50,000 to 200,000 with larger centers ringed by satellite sub-centers.

Five such "metro center" locations are indicated in the TALUS preliminary plan. The locations:

- In Macomb County, the New Baltimore area.
- In Oakland County, the Paint Creek area in the southern part of Oakland Township; the proposed M-59/M-275 interchange area near the border between White Lake and Waterford Townships; and the Novi area northwest of the proposed I-96/M-275 interchange.
- In Wayne County, the Van Buren-Sumpter Township line area, south of Belleville.

In addition, the preliminary plan recommends development of "planned communities" by building new complexes or expanding existing communities at the following locations:

- In Monroe County, at Carleton.
- In Washtenaw County, at Chelsea and in Northfield Township south of Whitmore Lake.
- In St. Clair County, at Algonac and in the St. Clair-Marine City area.
- In Oakland County at Keatington in Orion Township.
- In Wayne County in Plymouth Township near Plymouth and in Taylor Township near the intersection of Eureka and Telegraph roads.

• In Macomb County Community College North Campus site between Mt. Clemens and Utica.

Although no "planned community" as such is suggested for Livingston County, the TALUS preliminary plan indicates there could be substantial growth at Brighton, at Howell and along US-23 from Whitmore Lake north to the Genesee County line.

Among the principal growth factors guiding TALUS planners, Rubin said, are:

Population will increase from 4.4 million in 1965 to 6.9 million by 1990.

Total annual personal income of residents of the region will increase from about $11 billion in 1965 to $34 billion in 1990.

As income increases (from a median family income of $7,710 in 1965 to $14,800 in 1990) and as work hours decrease, there will be tremendous pressures for increased mobility and for more recreational facilities.

Growing vitality in the City of Detroit will be essential to the overall enduring strength of the region, thus the new stadium should be located downtown, he said.

"It is TALUS' recommendation that any new major recreation facility provided for regional and national athletic events be located in the area of the C.B.D.," Rubin said.

"The investment that would be required for such a facility would be large, and the difference in investment within the City as contrasted to elsewhere in the region would be relatively small, compared to the implications.

"The provision of a new major stadium in the area of the C.B.D. would stimulate hotel and motel construction to at least the same degree as did Cobo Hall and would reinforce the vital image of the City as the center of the region.

"Only the City is able to provide the amount of hotel and motel space, the restaurant facilities and other support services required by such a facility without having to start from scratch."

"The C.B.D. is the most accessible single place in the entire region and as additional freeway construction continues, will be even more accessible to larger numbers of people in the region.

"The existing public transportation system, inadequate though it is, focuses on the C.B.D.; and this area will be the hub of the public transportation system expansion and improvements which are recommended."

Detroit Regional Transportation and Land Use Study (TALUS) planners for Southeast Michigan (SEM) are in the process of finalizing a land use plan.

A preliminary proposal for this plan has been submitted to the TALUS Administrative Committee by the TALUS staff.

This proposal blends concepts expressed in all the patterns depicted here.

During coming weeks and months, additional decisions will be made detailing and modifying the 1990 SEM Plan. Thus, your expression of opinion at this time will become part of the "input" utilized in finalizing the plan.

The ultimate test of the 1990 SEM Plan produced by TALUS will be the degree to which it is accepted and implemented by governmental agencies at local, county, regional, state and federal level.

Neither TALUS nor the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) is empowered to impose any plan.

Local units of government must approve those elements of the plan affecting development within their boundaries and that approval ultimately will reflect the wishes of the people of the region.

Mark and mail this "ballot" now to TALUS, 1248 Washington Blvd., Detroit, Mich. 48226.

TREND means continuing sprawl. Land area in urban use would nearly double by 1990 with only a 57 percent population increase. Implies relatively high sewer, water and highway costs per household, little public transit improvement, great disparities in tax base in different communities.

MODIFIED TREND would impede sprawl somewhat. Implies slightly lower sewer water and highway costs per household, opportunity for better public bus transportation, some what greater opportunity for variety and differences in new suburban areas, little change for old cities.

CENTERS means "new towns" of 50,000 to 100,000 inside and outside of developed suburban areas. Implies possible water sewer and highway economies, greater mass transit potential, rapid transit possible, more opportunity for revitalizing Detroit and decaying sections of older cities.

CORRIDORS means development along transportation arteries with residential complexes (e.g., garden apartments), and commercial and industrial clusters. Implies lower water-sewer highway costs, improved mass transit and probably rapid transit, revitalization of Detroit and older cities.

NEW DIRECTIONS would reverse trend with greater probability of higher investments in renewal in Detroit and older cities. Implies housing, commercial and cultural renewal; new recreational opportunities, lower sewer water highway investments, better mass transit and rapid transit systems.

report from Michigan Public Service Commission requesting a 2% surcharge on all customer's statements and stating that a Public Hearing will be held at 10 a.m. on April 14, 1969, Court of Appeals, 900 First Federal Building, Detroit. There were no comments and Mayor stated we would have no choice but to go along with this surcharge.

City Manager read material on Solicitor's Application for "Synanon" filed by Mr. Denis Diddy. Mr. Sid Frid mentioned they had headquarters in Detroit. The question was raised if "Synanon" subscribes to the United Foundation. At a previous time the City Attorney stated we have no ordinance to deny it. Mayor feels we should keep after City Attorney to look into this matter further. No action was taken at this time.

Police Report: Mayor Allen stated this is to be referred to the next regular meeting for additional comments.

Minutes of Boards & Commissions: These reports will be taken care of at next regular meeting. This refers to Planning Commission meeting March 18, 25 (Special Meeting and April 1, 1969).

Mayor and City Manager to appoint Housing Committee and Parks Committee very soon so that they can recommend our needs.

Motion passed unanimously.
At this point of the meeting (8:40 p.m.) Councilman Black asked to be excused because of other commitments.

Before leaving Councilman Black suggested that Wally Nichols take his place on the program concerning Northville Community Unification at King's Mill on April 22nd. Council concurred.

Del Black stated that he has enjoyed serving on the Council and working with the members.

Chigwidden at the entrance to Northville Estates. City Manager stated that E. Chigwidden would be seal coated this spring as would other repairs be made and that bids should be taken on seal coating for E. Chigwidden, Holmsbury, Stanstead and Lanthorn. Remainder of Mr. Penn's report be put in the street budget this fall. Councilman Nichols suggested that Mayor and Engineer take a long look at streets in Northville Estates that need repairs and if they do need work we should go ahead with it.

On-Street Parking: Mayor Allen stated this should be held over until new Council takes over.

Final Date for Tax Bills: Motion by Lapham, supported by Nichols to change date for payment of Oakland County Tax Statements without penalty thru Feb. 16, 1970.

This concludes meeting except swearing in of new councilmen. Mayor stated they could not be sworn in until forms were in the hands of the County Clerk. It was decided that inasmuch as this has not yet been done, the swearing in would take place at the next regular council meeting, April 21st.

Miscellaneous: Councilman Nichols asked City Manager to prepare a list of the expenses the District Court has incurred up to date in comparison with the amount of the Municipal Court a year ago.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

State Bans DDT Use

An historic step has been taken by the Michigan Commission of Agriculture in initiating cancellation of all DDT registrations in Michigan. The decision was reached at a meeting of the Commission Wednesday, April 16.

Michigan is the first state to take this action, using the legal mechanism provided by legislation already in effect. The action was based upon latest recommendations of the Michigan State University Agricultural Experiment Station, and represents the culmination of more than 20 years of research.

B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Agriculture department, said the action is in line with the Commission's repeatedly expressed readiness to accept Experiment Station recommendations for substitution of less persistent materials as they become available. "This is in keeping with our long-standing and frequently stated policy," Ball declared.

"Procedures will be initiated immediately for orderly implementation of the Commission's decision," Director Ball said. However, he emphasized that an effective date will depend upon legal technicalities which must be worked out in consultation with the Attorney General's office.

Under state law, the Michigan Department of Agriculture has the power to deny registration of any pesticide upon recommendation from Michigan State University Experiment Station. The Department also relies upon the recommendations of the United States Department of Agriculture.

What about supplies of DDT already purchased which may be found around the home? Director Ball said no legal action is contemplated by the department against people who purchased DDT before the Commission's action Wednesday.

Standard procedures are recommended for disposal of all empty pesticide containers, which include burying containers at least 18 inches below the soil surface, away from water and drainage systems.

There has been no measurable change in pesticide residue levels in Lake Michigan fish since 1965.

This was the report of John Carr, Bureau of Commercial Fisheries in Ann Arbor, to the Michigan Commission of Agriculture.

Carr said his department has been monitoring pesticide residue levels in Lake Michigan fish since 1965.

Data compiled by the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries indicates no measurable change in pesticide residue levels in Lake Michigan fish, either up or down, Carr reported. "This includes coho salmon," he said.

Windows of the Soul

Eyes have been called the windows of the soul. Clarity, expression and size—all of these are supposed to reveal character. A child's eyes seem innocent. But small, closely-placed eyes may also indicate deception. Some even say that you can tell a criminal by his eyes.

Calling it nonsense, even scientists find it hard to dispel the old wives' tales that have persisted for centuries.

Eyes, in a certain sense, can be the windows of the soul—precious windows through which you look at life. Don't judge another man by his eyes. Look instead through eyes of understanding and compassion, for in God's sight we are all equal. If your inner vision has been a bit faulty lately, why not start going to church next Sunday?

Out of the Past

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Grass fires plagued area fire department and brought a burning ban to all of Southern Michigan.

...Northville School Board approved a record budget of $1,200,000 and expressed the hope that it would balance.

...High school students from Northville brought home honors in forensics and industrial arts. All first places and three of the five seconds were won by Northville in the Wayne-Oakland Forensics competitions, while a team of Randy and Ted Jacques brought home a second place from Muskegon in state industrial arts competition for their model home display. Coaches were Misses Pat Dorian and Florence Panattoni in forensics and Mr. Arnold Anderson in industrial arts.

...Town Hall announced its list of speakers for next season. Agnes Moorehead, Norman Garbo, Commander James Calvert, Martha Rountree and Baroness Maria Von Trapp were scheduled.

...While the Mustang baseball squad was losing its first two games, the tennis team was evening its early season mark at 1-1.

TEN YEARS AGO...

...Anticipation was the word of the day in Northville as the city awaited ground-breaking ceremonies for the new St. Paul's Lutheran School, the naming of a new police chief to replace the retiring Joseph Denton and Michigan Supreme Court's decision on annexation of 220 acres including Warren Products.

...Beautification of the city of Northville was set to coincide with Wayne County's replacement of curbs and sidewalks. Set to be planted were flowering crab trees, named the "official tree" of the city.

...City council moved, upon the retirement of Denton, to name the area located at Eaton Drive and Fairbrook Street the Joe Denton Park in his honor.

700 Frosh Orientation Set

More than 700 entering freshmen who have been admitted to Schoolcraft College for the fall term, and their parents, have been invited to attend special student-parent orientation meetings at the college on May 1 and 2.

John R. Webber, director of counseling at the college, said the two evening sessions will begin this year's orientation program for students who plan to enter the college this fall. Webber said individual students and their parents have been invited to attend one of the two sessions which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center.

During the evening counselors from the college staff and faculty members will meet with smaller groups of students and parents to discuss specific curriculum interests and choices, Webber explained.

Additional student-parent orientation meetings will be scheduled later in the summer as additional entering students are admitted for the fall term, Webber said.

On May 12, the counseling office will initiate the second phase of the pre-entry procedure when the first of groups of 10 to 14 students will visit the campus to keep appointments with counselors and begin the pre-registration process.

By mid-August, Webber said, counselors will have had individual interviews with more than 2,200 new students who have been admitted to the college.

The counseling orientation program which begins on May 12 will continue on a daily basis through the summer. Students will be assigned pre-registration counseling appointments as they are admitted to the college.

Webber emphasized that tuition and fees will not be collected nor will a deposit be required during this pre-registration period. He added, however, that students who have completed the pre-registration procedure may pay tuition and fees between August 4 and 20.

The counseling orientation days will begin at 8 a.m. in the Liberal Arts Building theater with a general meeting of entering students and counseling staff members. Later in the morning students will keep individual interview appointments with counselors to discuss educational and vocational

Editorial Slip

In an editorial that appeared last week on this page it was incorrectly stated that Attorney Emery Jacques, Jr. was offering his legal services "free" and that "contributions" were being used to pay for the latest litigation concerning the disputed city incorporation of Novi. Such services are not free, nor are contributions being used.

We regret these errors, which improperly suggested an unethical or criminal practice on the part of Attorney Jacques, who is representing Charles Goers, a Novi township trustee acting as a private citizen.

However, we stand behind the major premise of the editorial — and that is that township officials are ignoring the wishes of Novi citizens who last year approved city incorporation at the polls. Furthermore, township officials, whether acting as individual citizens or as officials, are forcing taxpayers to help pay for resulting court costs. This unhealthy situation arises because more than 95-percent of township citizens are also citizens of the city.

Readers Speak

To the Editor:

Last week we had an unfortunate experience. Someone removed our Flag from the flagpole in front of our building.

We are not concerned financially because the Flag had flown constantly since Pearl Harbor Day, December 7, 1968 and would have soon had to have been replaced anyway. What does concern us is why it was taken down. Is this Flag going to become part of a student demonstration or a racial protest. Will it be thrown upon the ground, spit on or trampled on, even while our neighbors die in Vietnam and Korea.

Some of your readers may wonder why our Flag, with this one brief exception, has flown constantly, day and night, since December 7, 1968. Many will probably believe that this is a violation of the U. S. Flag Code. However, there is a section in the U. S. Flag Code which allows the Flag to be flown at night, if lighted, for patriotic reasons.

We believe the current situation in Vietnam, Korea and most certainly the situation here at home gives us all the patriotic reasons we need to fly our Flag at night to let the world know that we are Veterans of Foreign Wars, that we are proud of our Flag, that we are 100% behind the men in Vietnam, that we are 100% behind the men in Korea and that we abhor the communistic influences in our country which are inciting the student demonstrations and racial protests.

In closing, we sincerely hope that when your readers pass by our Flag, whether it be day or night, they will hold their head up high in a salute to Old Glory and that in their hearts there will be a prayer that we will soon fulfill our commitments in South Vietnam and Korea and that we will again have peace in a Free World.

To the Editor:

The two most pertinent and most prodigious words in our vocabulary have become "organization" and "fear."

It's fear by the members of the board of education of a minority of disheveled, obnoxious, rebellious, and "longhair," students that permits this to continue.

But to get back to the Negroes; and why not, are they not partly the reason why I live here?

It's organization and fear of 22 million Negroes (a maximum of 11 percent of our population) that permits them to dictate to approximately 178 million whites, including the politicians, the clergy, the news media, and the TV directors. Why should not I resist all the ballyhoo and the claptrap directed at me on TV and the radio about color TV when suddenly everything on TV has become either "black" or "white." And this is national, where our population is over 200 million and the black minority is only 22 million (I believe with a local newscaster that the 11 percent should not receive more than the 89 percent, even though organized).

And looking at TV, the whites have become the criminals; and the blacks have become the priests. Of course, this is standard but asinine. If my church, the Catholic Church, has decided to become black, let the blacks support it.

Also, let the news media on TV interview a few whites instead of all blacks.

Criminality is "honky-dory," "itzsky-satzsky," and "coepetic," provided, of course, that it is committed by Negroes; otherwise it is immoral and a bete noire.

Well, do not Negroes stand up before a Congressional investigating committee and boast about their immoral lives? These rapid blacks honestly believe that if a white is a criminal, they also are justified in becoming criminals.

And all the while the bleeding-hearts prate about social justice, the white populace continues to move out and so does industry. Does anyone who is compos mentis believe that the wealthy Negro is interested in the poor Negro any more than the wealthy white is interested in the poor white?

I'd like to close this letter with a quotation from a letter that I wrote and which was printed in our local religious weekly:

"If the do-gooders and the bleeding-hearts would like something to pray for, they would better start by praying that the White Power (capitalization is my own) does not erupt; for if it does, the American Civil War and the French Revolution shall seem like Sunday school picnics."

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The city council of Northville is hoping it will attract some public reaction to its proposed five-year public improvement program when a public hearing is held May 5.

Actually what the council is looking for is constructive guidence.

Legally it isn't necessary to hold a hearing on such a program. But the undertaking entails broad measures which directly affect all citizens of the community.

What City Manager Frank Ollendorff has done is take an inventory of the near-future needs of the city and set up a proposed budget to accomplish the program without over-burdening the tax payer.

The council has made some changes, and it's possible the public may suggest additions or deletions.

As the five-year improvement program now stands it provides for the following:

- circular drive around the central business district;
- off-street parking in the general business district;
- completion of the water and sewer system;
- parks and open space acquisition and development for recreation;
- street paving;
- extension of Griswold and Wing streets;
- tree planting and street lighting;
- public works' building improvement;
- bridge repairs, storm drain installations;
- a study of low-income housing needs for senior citizens.

The city's share of the cost during the first five years would amount to an estimated $1,330,000 plus an $80,000 per year pay-off of proposed bond issues over an additional 15 year period. This does not include possible state and federal funds or special assessments and private developers' contributions.

While bond issues will be needed to guarantee loans, Manager Ollendorff sees it as a distinct possibility that the program could be financed through pledging of a portion of the returns from pari-mutuel betting at Northville Downs.

At most, he sees a levy of two mills in tax dollars.

The council's decision to plan ahead and program for the future is sound and far preferable to piece-meal, frequently crash-type or stop-gap improvements.

It should save taxpayers money while insuring wise and prudent use of tax monies by earmarking dollars.

The program's priorities may well depend upon public response.

What are your ideas?

CAPITOL COMMENTS

FROM LANSING AND WASHINGTON

Because of what he calls "gross inequities." Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH, second district, is fighting U. S. House proposal to extend the present Elementary and Secondary Education Act unchanged for the next five years. In its present form, Esch says he is unwilling to support it for more than two years.

One of the inequities he cites is that Michigan, with 83-percent of the number of poor children in Illinois, receives only 73-percent of the Illinois Title I allotment.

Senator PHILIP HART indicates that he and Senator Cooper (R-Ky.) intend to again try to put off any ABM expenditure. "When military procurement bills come to the Senate," he says, "we will ask deletion or postponement of ABM authorization."

"We've lost on four previous tries but these votes came when the country was not nearly as well-informed on the issue as it is now. Somewhere this arms escalation has to stop. The ABM is an attempt to minimize the consequences of war. Maybe this is the time, instead, for a serious attempt to minimize the chances of war."

A bill co-sponsored by State Senator GEORGE KUHN (R-W. Bloomfield) authorizing certain cities to appoint members of boards of review has been signed into law by Governor William Milliken.

A bill to provide for the allocation of the $100 million quality recreation bond revenue has been introduced by Senator GORDON ROCKWELL (R-Mt. Morris).

The bill proposes that 70-percent of the money be used for the state's quality recreation program, 30-percent for use by local communities.

Said Rockwell: "The people were sold the bond issue on the premise that the money was to be spent for all of the people of Michigan. To spend the money any other way would be to violate the faith of those people who gave the bond issue its greatest support."

Judicial Tenure Body at Work

LANSING — Michigan's new agency for disciplining judges, the State Judicial Tenure Commission, is functioning after a 10-month hiatus following voter approval of a constitutional amendment setting the unit up.

Members include five judges, two lawyers, a doctor and a former university president. Judge John H. Gillis of the State Court of Appeals is chairman.

Complaints against nine judges were submitted promptly. All were taken under consideration without comment.

Operating rules provide that the commission shall conduct its investigatory work behind closed doors. The purpose is to separate the crank and unjust complaints from those worthy of study without ruining a judge's reputation in the process.

Rules also provide the commission can receive complaints from any party. If the secret probe turns up evidence supporting the complaint, then a formal document outlining the charges and findings will be made public.

The judge involved then will get an opportunity to present evidence and arguments in his defense at a public hearing before the commission.

DECISION comes after that. The commission must decide whether to recommend the jurist be removed from office, censured, asked to retire; or if the issue should be dismissed. Only the state Supreme Court can oust a judge from the bench. And such removal does not disqualify him from running for office in the future.

The commission can take action against a judge for misconduct, chronic drinking, senility, incompetence, laziness, physical or mental disability or other behavior deemed prejudicial to administration of justice.

Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas E. Brennan said action against a judge because of opinions expressed in court decisions "is a very delicate area" in which the commission must exercise great caution. He said appellate courts are set up specifically to review purely judicial questions.

"WE CERTAINLY don't want our judges to stop being courageous because of this commission," he said. "That would be wrong."

But Brennan said the commission should "act strongly and vigorously where a judge's conduct has brought a measure of disgrace to the bench, or loss of public respect for the courts."

The real purpose of the commission is to protect judges from unjust attack if they are fit, and discipline them if they are not.

Previously, procedures necessary to remove a judge from office were so cumbersome that they never were invoked effectively. One of these was impeachment.

Members of the commission serve without pay. A bill before the Legislature would allow them $50,000 for expenses, but Gillis said the commission initially will use the

Babson Report

Economy Outlook Good

BABSON'S REPORTS, Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts. Although uncertainties abound and there is no lack of unsolved problems, the U.S. economy is still pointing to the upside. Admittedly some segments of business are not showing as much vigor as previously, yet relatively few really serious setbacks have occurred. Thus far, the Administration and Federal Reserve fiscal and monetary control actions — designed to bring about disinflation of the overheated economy — have had only a token impact.

As things now shape up, the staff of Babson's Reports expects final compilations to show Gross National Product for the first quarter of 1969 approaching the $905 billion mark... a gain of 2% over the 1968 fourth quarter. Despite the heavy restrictive influence of large spring tax payments and government credit curbs, we feel there is enough forward business momentum to carry the GNP to the $918-920 billion level in the second quarter. With perhaps half of this additional 2% increase coming from higher price tags, the real expansion will be only fractional. Yet the trend will still be up and new highs will be reached in the April-June period.

The rate of gain posted by the Federal Reserve Index of Industrial Production thus far in 1969 has been lagging the 1968 pace. Preliminary figures suggest a first-quarter average for the index of about 169.5. We are looking for a second-quarter average near 171, with the high mark probably occurring in May. But beyond midyear, production increases may be harder to come by.

OUR STUDIES indicate that dollar volume of construction will increase substantially compared with the 1969 first quarter. While the rise in bank lending rates and higher buildings costs are dampening earlier forecasts of a 10% rise in housing starts this year, the recent brisk housing starts should bolster residential construction.

Heavy construction — highways, bridges, dams, and the like — will show good gains from first-quarter levels. And commercial and industrial building promises to lend support to the industry's total activity. Hence, the economy should benefit from a decidedly higher level of spending for construction in the current quarter.

Accordingly, the Research Staff of Babson's Reports favors such building materials stocks as Lone Star Cement, Medusa Portland Cement, and National Gypsum.

BABSON'S Reports staffers are forecasting that the following other industries will show the best gains during the second quarter: Airlines, aluminum, chemicals, copper, electric utilities, life insurance, and railroads facilities of the court administrator's office.

GOV. WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN has petitioned Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel to investigate a pesticide threat in Lake Michigan.

He noted increasing concern in Michigan and other states bordering on the lake over the harmful effect of hard pesticides on Coho Salmon and other game fish.

"I would appreciate your immediate consideration of this urgent matter," Milliken told Hickel. Copies of the message were sent to the governors of Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin.

Milliken's request was the latest development in the continuing controversy over Lake Michigan pesticides. Last month, the federal government impounded 22,555 pounds of Coho found to contain dangerous levels of dieldrin and DDT.

FISH SCIENTISTS and biologists have warned that Coho caught in Lake Michigan may become too contaminated to eat in a few years if action isn't taken to stop the spraying of chemical pesticides.

Legislation to restrict the use of hard insecticide chemicals is before Michigan lawmakers. The State Natural Resources Department has suggested they be outlawed altogether.

Autos and steel will probably be the major laggards. Auto prospects are rather drab, and total output in the second quarter now promises to be down from the somewhat disappointing results of the January-March period. Steel (still going great guns after a far better-than-expected first quarter) will do better than autos. Yet we feel steel is riding for a setback. While shipments should hold up well, auto's doldrums and resumption of foreign steel inflow may slow orders and lead to a flattening out of production before midyear.

The bulk of the factors suggest that business will chalk up further over-all gains in this second quarter — in both volume and profits. Inflationary pressures must still be reckoned with, however, and as we come closer to midyear we look for increases in profits to taper off. The high cost of carrying inventories and the impact of fiscal and monetary controls may restrain forward buying.

A PAGE ABOUT PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS

By ROLLY PETERSON

Doctor Ben Casey returned to TV briefly last Thursday night. His hair had a heavy gray cast, he was, perhaps, a little less aggressive. He even had a different name. But anyone who looked closely at the man and his manner couldn't be fooled by the sleight of face and figure.

Casey returned in what was billed as a two-hour world premiere drama, "UMC" (University Medical Center), a film made especially for television showing on NBC. He returned in the guise of Dr. Joe Gannon. Rather than Vince Edwards playing the part, however, Richard Bradford took the lead.

No matter. The results were the same. A heavy-handed treatment of a very delicate subject: the moral and legal implications of heart transplant. Simply stated, the matter with "UMC" was that things were just too good to be true.

Dr. Joe Gannon came on like a paragon out of a mythical medical school. Moral to the point of rectitude, unswerving in his devotion to medicine, he was a little less caustic than be-alike Ben Casey, but he had that same impeccable manner of always doing the right thing. Even when it came to sacrificing his love life on the altar of medicine. He was thoroughly justified; his girl was morally wrong.

When Joe's world, which was medicine, threatened to collapse on his head, he took a deep breath, flinched and slaughtered them in court. He beat the malpractice suit filed against him by the wife of the man who had died and donated his heart under Dr. Gannon's care.

The trial itself was something to behold. It went as smoothly as berries through a wine press. There were no fatal, or even minor, slipups by the prosecuting or defense attorneys. There wasn't as much as a crinkle in the arguments, although a sticky legal issue was involved.

The slick-running TV tide was only one of the flaws in the screenplay by Herbert Salow and Frank Glicksman. Rather than yielding to the simple but natural flow of events in creating the story illusion, they threw in everything but the towel.

Not even the inclusion of a string of medical terminology or a room full of authentic hospital machinery could rescue the story from a heart-rending, melodramatic ending.

This is not to say the story was devoid of action or meaning, for it moved swiftly along and treated a contemporary subject, absorbing in itself. But there were simply too many turns which bordered on gimmickry.

Not all was lost. Kim Stanley as Joanna Hanson, the wife of the dead man whose heart was removed, played her part sensitively and well.

Except for the dramatic intensity of Mrs. Hanson's plight, however, "UMC" didn't come off as a first-rate creation or production.

GOD'S LEADERSHIP

"The Lord is my Shepherd", Psalm 23:1

The Heavenly Father created mankind to have fellowship with him, to lead him and have an active part in his life. David could say from experience, "the Lord is my Shepherd." When he was a young boy keeping watch over his fathers sheep God was with him. When the lions and the bears attacked the flock God was with him and gave him victory over the bear and the lion. Many of the wonderful Psalms were written by David as he considered God's presence in his life.

When confronted by one of the greatest crisis in his life David had great confidence. This confidence was based on past experience, God had been with David in many previous crisis. As David bravely walked toward the blushing "Goliath" he could reply with assurance, "I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the Armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied." The Heavenly Father gave David victory that day.

Throughout David's life he sought the leadership of the Lord. It is true there were times David did not seek God's leadership, it is also true these excursions of self will brought heartache and sorrow to David. But David always returned to God and sought His forgiveness and leadership. Notice David's words as he cried out to God, "For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me... create in me a clean heart, O God and renew a right spirit within me."

The question we must ask ourselves is this, are we seeking God's leadership for our lives? The God who led David and gave him victory over the world, the flesh and Satan will also give you and I victory. The Lord Jesus Christ who died for our sins and arose for our justification invites us to come to Him with these words, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lonely in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden light." Lord Jesus also spoke these words, "I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

This is God's invitation to come to Him for forgiveness of sin, leadership and a life of joy and thanksgiving. God bless you!

"Off limits to all males" is the newly posted sign on our automatic washer and dryer. It should be followed by small print: "Violators will be forced to wear things just as they are produced from their efforts".

If we have one more fiasco such as occurred this week, this policy is going into immediate effect.

No matter how many times I hold instruction classes on the care and feeding of the automatic twins, disaster strikes as soon as I walk out the door. There must be something magnetic about piles of dirty clothes on the floor that entices my husband into operating the monsters.

You know how it is to get up on Monday anyway—like trying to climb a sheer mountain cliff in your bare feet. Well, when you open the dryer to find that somebody dried the towels with the dark stay-pressed slacks, you begin to wish you had fallen off the mountain.

If all the slacks with the new permanent lint-type finish belonged to the culprit you could just say he got what he deserved. Since some were owned and worn only by our teenage griper, trouble in triplicate was headed my way.

Apparently men nearly always feel they could do any household task better, faster, and more efficiently than the weaker sex. Even on their honeymoons, husbands sometimes exhibit symptoms of this male malady and brides would be wise to detect the disease early. A brand new husband who wants to teach you how to repack your suitcase is definitely infected.

The disease cannot be cured, often not even arrested, but you can learn to live with it.

For the man whose idea of cleaning the refrigerator is to haul all the bottles, jars, leftovers, and vegetables out on the kitchen counter and then leave home, there is a counter-irritant. When he returns, be all dressed up with reservations made for dinner at your favorite gourmet house.

If you have the kind of man who sits in the easy chair and directs your household tasks with a commanding voice and a superior attitude, get out your pencil and paper.

First make a management chart with yourself as chairman of the board. Post it where it will do your ego the most good.

Most of our socks and knit shirts also require "tender, loving care" and a trip through the dryer drum on regular heat turns them out looking like rummage items for midgets. Yet dad is persistent in his belief that anything which has been washed together can be dried together—thus socks and jeans end up on the same "hot" ride.

We also have an aversion to slightly pink under garments at our house. Anyone who is brave enough to mix any red sock, towel, or pajama with the white clothes had better be prepared to defend himself against attack.

Why is it if the red color comes out of its original material so easily, it will never give up its hold on once white T-shirts, slips or panties? You can bleach with every thing on the market—even twice. All you come up with is slightly pink garments with new ventilation holes.

Perhaps the best solution to the washday blues, pinks, or grays which we suffer when dad takes a hand is to beat him to the switch.

Childbirth, insists my wife, is proof positive that woman is the stronger sex. I say it proves only that woman can't run as fast as man. Besides, if women are so tough how come I've got a draft card and my wife doesn't?

To reinforce her point she dug out a report by a Professor Clive Malloy who contends that women is higher up in the evolutionary tree than man. Built to last, woman lives longer than man, moves more gracefully and is far more mature emotionally, asserts this traitor to his sex.

And to make matters worse he says man is a hairy brute who "perhaps in another 10,000 years will have a body as streamlined and smooth-skinned as the fairest of the fair sex."

The guy's either a crackpot or he's trying to make up for a night on the town.

Out of the same report comes the worn out evidence that woman, because she is stronger, outlives man by four years. Latest theory for this phenomenon, says the report, is that man eats his way into the grave. "There may be some merit in this theory afterall," I said. "Men who have to hack and saw their way through supper night after night are certain to have problems. They'll either die of strain or stomach cramps."

"That, you hairy brute, is an insult," replied the gal on the other side of the table.

Our discussion ended abruptly. A few days later I came across still another report — this one by a Professor Tichauer who testified in Wayne County Circuit Court concerning the hazards for women in industry.

Tichauer argued that women tire more easily than men. They are miniature duplicates of men in muscle and bone, he testified, and therefore their strength and ability to perform work are less by one-third.

"There, you see," she shouted, "I told you I'm overworked."

"But I thought woman was tougher than man?"

"She's tough like an ant — always working, running fetching — and along comes man and plunk... he steps on her. Woman is the downtrodden sex."

If there'd been an ant hill around I would have stomped on it.

Instead I tried to analyze her simile. Woman is proportionately stronger than man but she is unable to match his stamina simply because of his greater size, she seemed to be saying.

"By your logic," I asked, "could I conclude that man is smarter than woman — proportionately, of course?"

"Not at all. I'm sure the elephant has a larger brain than the zebra but I'm not sure he's as intelligent. Woman, left alone to make her own way without interference by prejudice, could outstrip the smartest man."

"Okay, so she's smarter. But how far would she get without man's stamina?"

"Silly, don't you see? Man would become her slave. With her intelligence and man's brawn why should she work?"

"I guess you're right," I said putting on my coat.

"Where are you going?"

"Back to work."

POOL DEDICATED — Northville High School's natatorium was officially dedicated Sunday afternoon in a program honoring the late

Edward F. Angove, a board member who played a key role in the establishment of the new facility. A plaque paying tribute to Mr. Angove was erected on the wall just outside the natatorium. Appropriately, since Mr. Angove was a sports enthusiast, part of Sunday's program involved a swimming and diving exhibition by members of the Eastern Michigan University swim teams. The dedicatory address was made by Albert Jones, Northville teacher, and Larry Angove gave the response for his mother, sister and brother. Special guests included school officials, clergy and representatives of the architect and local swimming instructors. Refreshments were served by the cafeteria staff following the program.

Scouts Sell Trees Spruce up Drive

Flowering crab apple trees, the official tree for the community of Northville, will be sold by Northville Boy Scout Explorer Troop 905 next Saturday and Sunday, May 3-4, beginning at 9 a.m. each morning, at the American Legion Home front lawn. The trees will average three-to-four feet and will be sold for $2.50, according to Howard Wright, troop advisor, who has made arrangements for their purchase through Green Ridge Nursery at the reduced price.

He points out that next week end is considered "prime planting time" as the spring warm-up has been slow.

For many years the sale of the crab apple trees had been an annual local project but was not held last year. Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, Northville Beautification Commission Chairman, and her committee had encouraged its resumption. She points out that this is a fast-growing tree with attractive spring blooms.

Northville Beautification Commission last week sent letters to area citizen groups who usually participate in the area's Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up program listing requirements for Northville participation in the National Beautification Contest. The notification replaces the usual meeting at city hall, which used to be held at a time when many are involved in other projects.

Commission project suggestions include poster and essay contests, promotion of city flags, depot repair and painting, creek cleaning, landscaping at rear of city hall, town planter renewal, "spruce-up" of city entrances and repair of Ford Field bleachers.

Northville beautification activities are recorded in scrap books by commission members and are sent to the national contest in December.

For Michigan Week

Plans Booming in Wixom

Plans for Michigan Week festivities in Wixom, highlighted by the visit here of the mayor and clerk of the Village of Onsted, are moving into high gear, Co-Chairman Marge Preston reports.

Michigan Week festivities — May 17 through May 24 — will reach its peak Monday, May 17 (Our Government Day) when Onsted Mayor and Mrs. Robert Ostrander and Clerk and Mrs. Donald Mohr arrive in the morning.

Even before their arrival, however, the Onsted officials will confer with Wixom Mayor and Mrs. McAtee and Councilman and Mrs. McCall at a point half-way between the two communities during a coffee break.

The two Wixom officials and their wives will be hosted at Onsted for the day.

Hosting the Onsted officials and their wives here will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Salo. Salo has been chairman of the Wixom Board of Appeals since before Wixom was incorporated as a city.

Festivities at the city hall that day will include an invocation by the Reverend Robert Warren, pastor of the Wixom Baptist Church; a flag raising by the Lawrence Simms VFW Post (a new Michigan flag, presented to the city by the Michigan Extension Service, will be raised); the key to the city will be presented Mayor Onstrander by the king and queen of the Wixom Elementary School; and Carmen Cavallaro and Arthur Walker of Wixom will sing America The Beautiful.

Following the program, to which all Wixom citizens are invited, coffee will be served. The program is expected to begin about 10 a.m.

The Onsted officials will tour the city hall, meeting with all of the department heads of the city. Wives of the visiting officials will be taken to Wixom's "Flowers by John" shop.

Evening hours that day will find guests and hosts at Aunt Jemima's Restaurant for a banquet preceded by a social hour sponsored by The Walter Tobe Company, a Wixom bridge and highway builder. Past councilman and present member of the Oakland County Social Welfare Department, R. W. Lahti, will be the master of ceremonies.

The banquet program will include organ music by Mrs. Ray Mattson and a film, "Michigan Logging," presented by Glenn Ruggles of the Walled Lake Consolidated Schools.

Additional activities, still in the planning stage, will be announced later.

Northville Patroller Picked for Safety Trip

The Northville area will be represented at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, May 8-11 on Automobile Club of Michigan's 33rd annual spring school safety patrol trip.

Named to represent fellow safety patrollers in the area is Brian R. Holloman, 11, of 320 Orchard Drive, fifth grade, Main Street Elementary School.

He will be among 130 youths from 96 Michigan cities taking the four-day, all-expense-paid trip as a guest of Auto Club.

The trip is timed to coincide with National Safety Patrol Week, celebrated this year from May 4-10. Each year, Auto Club sponsors this trip to give recognition to state safety patrollers who perform their duties as a free public service.

This year in Michigan, approximately 78,000 patrollers at 3,200 schools participated in the safety patrol program. All total, they spent over 7 million hours at their posts protecting fellow classmates.

Although this year's trip will focus on the Gettysburg area, the first stop for the group will be at Washington, D.

C. Senator Robert Griffin will officially welcome the group at the Capitol Building.

Michigan delegates on the trip will leave Detroit in a four-bus caravan at 4 p.m. May 7 from the Veterans Memorial Building.

From Washington, patrollers will travel to the Gettysburg area. They are slated to tour the Pennsylvania Dutch Country near Lancaster on Friday.

Saturday the group will tour Harper's Ferry and the Gettysburg National Battlefield.

The delegation will return to Detroit Sunday morning.
