

TAKE IT FROM Margaret Zayti, Downs' executive, bad weather doesn't discourage the true horse player. Only 3,113 fans turned out on a cold and drizzly night Monday. But they bet a total of $310,974. And that's an average of $99.90 each, points out Mrs. Zayti.

PARED DOWN to but a fraction of its original size, Novi Township will attempt to reorganize itself Monday in an unusual public meeting. Less than 100 residents remaining in some eight areas of Novi, not included in the new city there, will choose new officers to govern the remaining township area. Some 98-percent of Novi's land area is city and no longer part of the township. Monday's meeting was set up by a special resolution of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors and is expected to lead to a division of assets between the newly incorporated city and the township.

WE GOOFED in this column last week when we revealed that a major regional shopping center was considering a site in Northville Township. We called it "Seven" Mile and Haggerty. Actually, it's the southwest corner of Eight Mile and Haggerty roads. Making the informal presentation to the township planning commission were Attorney James Littell and the owner of the proposed shopping center property — Nate S. Shapero, chairman of the board of Cunningham Drugs. While construction of the center might be five years away, Littell explained to planners that some indication of the feasibility of their proposal was desired before undertaking actual preliminary planning. One township planner described it as "a soft sell". Additional property is owned nearby, but outside Northville township, where the multi-million-dollar center could locate.

MEANWHILE, a more immediate prospect — a convenience shopping center on Seven Mile road across from the soon-to-be-started Levitt development — is cause for concern among some city merchants and officials. It's a $4.2 million commercial center and multiple family complex presented to township planners by Stewart Oldford, a Northville-Plymouth area contractor. Oldford's request is being studied for a possible public hearing to consider rezoning the 30-acre parcel from industrial to commercial in the front and multiple in the rear. In addition to the 180 multiple units, Oldford said he had definite commitments for commercial and banking (NBD) uses — to include a supermarket, Savings and Loan office, garden center, and service-type stores. Planners asked Oldford if he would consider industrial or lower-density-type multiples in the rear area, and he indicated a willingness. Planner Bob Bogart was cool to the prospect of rezoning already-scarce industrial land. He proposed that the Northville area Economic Development Committee be informed of the Oldford plan. The non-profit group has tried unsuccessfully in the past to acquire the 30-acre Seven Mile road site for possible industrial development.

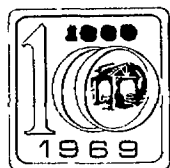

CITY COUNCILMAN Charles Lapham made reference to the Oldford proposal Monday night as he urged fellow councilmen to consider allowing apartments to be constructed on the second floor of new buildings in the commercial district "to help amortize the high cost of building". He called for a study session on the CBD plan, which prohibits residential zoning in the business area.

NORTHVILLE Jaycees announced the theme of their annual Fourth of July parade this week, noting that it was influenced by The Record's upcoming centennial. The theme: "A Record of Our Freedom."

Any organization, group or individual who would like to sponsor a float in the parade is asked to contact either one of the following two Jaycees immediately: Ross Totten, FI 9-5124 or Robert Hilton, FI 9-0583.

Planners Hold Off On CBP

By an 8-1 vote the Northville city planning commission approved CBD (central business district) zoning for that portion of the four-block commercial area designated in its public hearing held May 6.

But action was delayed on the CBP (central business parking) zoning until the July 1 meeting.

Planning Commissioner George Zerbel proposed the delay by suggesting that instead of rezoning existing buildings within the proposed CBP area that they be left as they are now zoned, C-2.

He indicated that vacant or residential property within the area should be rezoned CBP, but that buildings that would become "non-conforming" under CBP be permitted to exist as C-2 (commercial).

Rather than attempt to specifically identify these exceptions the planners postponed the action until this could be done.

The final planning commission recommendation will go to the city council for another public hearing and official action.

Planning Commissioner George Clark recorded the only negative vote on the CBD zoning. He read a statement to his fellow commission members asking them to eliminate the theater, D & C, Brader's, Del's Shoes, Northville Insurance and the Spinning Wheel buildings from the CBP zoning. He agreed with most of the plan — particularly the circular drive and mall concept, but said that he believed that total CBD zoning with maintaining a 3-1 parking requirement in each quadrant of the business district would provide a good plan.

Other planners did not agree with Clark. They argued that a 3-1 ratio could not be maintained without specific CBP zoning, that there are other properties besides those mentioned by Clark that also oppose CBP (Glenn Long Plumbing, G. E. Miller's).

Several of the planners — Thomas Wheaton, Dr. Dale Kiser, Harvey Ritchie, Robert Lang and Zerbel — expressed appreciation and respect for public concern and participation in the hearings. They said they endorsed the CBD plan because they had confidence in it and the community and that it had been endorsed by at least two professional consultants.

In other business the planners set a July 1 public hearing to consider a request from Levitt and Sons for rezoning 10 acres on Griswold for a townhouse development, part of a total Levitt project adjoining some 400 acres in the township.

A request for a public hearing for rezoning to add some 40 units to the rear of the Fairbrook apartments was taken under advisement.

outdoor ceremonies at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the high school football field, weather permitting.

Four honorary graduates — Northville's South American exchange students — increase the class total to 187. While not the largest class in Northville history and the smallest in the last five years, the 100th-year class is much different from the first in 1869. Alice Beal Collins was the first and only graduate that year.

It wasn't until two years later that there was another graduate, Amanda Curtiss. Then classes began to grow and three students were graduated in 1873.

The centennial ceremony, which is to be held in the school gymnasium in event of rain, will take note of the foreign students who have been welcomed here for many years with farewell remarks on the program being given by Carlos M. Heinemann, one of the South American students. He has been living with the Conrad Kawel family.

Superintendent Raymond Spear also will address the class. The valedictory will be given by Pamela Witzke, who heads the class. The co-salutatorians — Jeanette Gensley and Mavis (Mickey) Donahue — also will speak, making the centennial year an all-girl sweep scholastically.

Thirty-seven other honor students, all maintaining B or better averages, will graduate with honors.

Baccalaureate services for the class will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday in the school gymnasium with the Reverend Guenther C. Branstner of Northville First United Methodist Church giving the address.

Scripture reading will be by the Reverend Charles F. Boerger of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Reverend Father John Wittstock of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church is to give the invocation and benediction.

The Reverend Lloyd Brasure of Northville First Presbyterian Church will give the invocation and benediction at commencement.

Senior rehearsal for commencement and baccalaureate will be at 1 p.m. Friday in the gymnasium when caps and gown will be distributed. Final senior exams are being held Wednesday and today.

Underclassmen at the high school will have exams through Thursday. Teacher work days are scheduled for June 13 and 14.

Following commencement exercises Tuesday will be the all-night senior party, given by parents for the graduates, which has become a tradition. It is scheduled from 10:30 p.m. to 5 a.m. at the high school. A new feature this year is to be a swim in the school pool.

Among members of the centennial class is at least one student who is the third generation to be graduated from Northville High School. Barry Deal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Deal, both are NHS graduates, as was his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Gyde VanHove, who died in 1963.

In researching for centennial class information Mrs. Marian Zayti of the administrative staff and High School Secretary Yvonne Rollings recalled many second-generation families, such as the Balko and Bongiovanni families. Mrs. Zayti also found "appealing old books" from commencements past.

This year's class of 183 members represents a sharp drop from last year's total of 247, the result of Novi this year having its own graduating class. Novi has 84 graduates in its first commencement. Formerly, Novi students came to Northville.

Other recent-year Northville graduating classes numbered 201 in 1967, 192 in 1966, 227 in 1965 and 162 in 1964.

When Northville High School Principal Fred Holdsworth presents diplomas to 187 members of the school's centennial class Tuesday, he will be assisted by Mrs. Violet Bradford, school counselor.

David Longridge, assistant principal, who was to have been on hand is confined to bed with a pinched nerve-disc dislocation in his back.

Spear Won't Ask for Extra Mill in City

Although the Northville School District has received permission to levy an "added" mill for school taxes in the City of Northville, Superintendent Raymond Spear has stated he will recommend Monday that it not be done.

Spear said his recommendation to the school board will be based on the fact that it appears the 1969-70 fiscal budget can be balanced without levying the mill.

Furthermore, Spear indicated that while the Wayne County Tax Allocation Board has ruled that the levy of 8.9 mills in the city as opposed to 7.9 in the township is permissible such a step would only damage relationship between the city and school district.

Final decision on the millage levy, however, is in the hands of the board, he said.

The controversial millage issue

Residents Protest Center St. Paving

A public hearing to consider the necessity for paving North Center street from South Ely drive north to the city limits was adjourned until June 16 Monday night after the city council heard most residents of the street protest either the assessment, the improvement or both.

Several of the residents opposed any paving at all, stating that it would not be a benefit to the property owners. Others challenged the council's policy of assessing 75 per cent as opposed to a previous policy of 25 per cent, while others noted that the basis for the assessment should be on the cost of asphalt paving, not concrete as proposed.

The council proposes to complete the paving of North Center street some 1,146 feet to the city limits with a 30-foot-wide concrete strip plus curbs and gutters. Estimate total cost of the project is $39,250.

Property owners would be assessed 75 per cent of the improvement cost on a front-foot basis.

Planner Changes

It appears that several new faces will soon be seen on the Northville city planning commission.

George Clark, a member for less than two years, announced that he will not accept re-appointment when his term expires, June 30.

Planning Commissioner Harvey Ritchie, who has been a member for 14 years, said he would resign as soon as the CBD-CBP zoning question is completed July 1.

And longtime Consultant Waldemar Johnson of the firm of Waring and Johnson announced that he would retire, also next month.

BUSINESS WANTED — The city erected a "for sale" sign on property in the business district lot bounded by Main, Center, Cady and Wing streets this week. The area contains some 58,000 square feet of prime business property, owned either by the city or the Northville Area Economic Development Corporation. The council has also authorized the hiring of development coordinator — a specialist who will seek out and follow-up potential business prospects.

But 16 Seek Schoolcraft Posts

It's One-Man Board Race

Only one candidate seeks elections as voters of the Northville School District go to the polls Monday to elect a single member to the board of education.

Incumbent Trustee Glenn E. Deibert is opposed for the single, four-year post.

While Northville voters will find only one candidate on the annual election ballot Monday, it will be a different matter when they turn to the Schoolcraft College ballot while in the voting booths. An army of 16 persons are seeking two six-year terms as trustees on the college board.

Two of the 16, all of whom are competing against each other, are Northville residents; the others hail from Livonia and Garden City — two of the five secondary districts within Schoolcraft College's boundaries.

The candidates from Northville include Dennis R. Dildy, a city resident who is employed at Hawthorn Center, and R. Robert Geake, a township resident who is employed at Plymouth State Home & Training School.

The others seeking the two at-large posts are:

Charles W. Chandler, John M. LaRue, Walter Nevill, John P. O'Brien, Jerome Pikulinski, Kenneth H. Robiner, James W. Schaefer, Calvin Strom, Joseph E. Sullivan, Robert F. Swanson, James E. Taylor, John E.

Thomas, Lester A. Waldman, and Ray M. Wyatt. All are Livonia residents but Nevill and Thomas, who are from Garden City.

(See biographies and statements, compiled by the Northville-Plymouth Area League of Women Voters on Page 13-A).

In addition to the at-large candidates, voters in Plymouth will elect one trustee to fill an unexpired term.

Voters in Northville will cast their ballots in the board of education offices in the old junior high school at 405 West Main Street. Polls open at 7 a.m., close at 8 p.m.

Northville Woman Weds in Plymouth

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Aurelie Glasson and Ashton Bentley on May 10 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plymouth.

The Reverend L. J. Koeninger officiated at the evening ceremony, which was followed by a reception for 75 guests at the bride's home at 370 Fairbrook. Guests attended from Ionia and Detroit, Northern Michigan and Cincinnati.

The bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Glasson of Ionia, were attendants for the couple. She was given in marriage by her son, Larry Glasson. Music at the ceremony was by Kathy Stelse. The bride chose a lavender chintilly lace dress for the ceremony on which she wore a white orchid. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Glasson, wore pink lace. She also had an orchid corsage.

Guests included the bride's mother, Mrs. James Burton of Moran, Michigan, who wore navy with beige accessories. Mr. Bentley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. LaBerge of Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

The new Mrs. Bentley wore a navy suit with apricot accessories for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan. The newlyweds are making their home at 370 Fairbrook.

'CHRISTMAS IN JUNE' — It may be seven months until Christmas, but members of the Northville Presbyterian craft group working on items for a Christmas booth at the annual home tour point out that the tour is less than four months distant. Creating holiday baskets are, from left, Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Robert Shafer and Mrs. Joseph Straub. The group has been working throughout the spring to create "different" items for the tour sale September 25.

Couple Celebrates Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore, 660 Horton, marked their silver wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at an open house hosted by their four children and their families.

Seventy guests attended the reception where a highlight was a decorated three-tier wedding cake. Decorations included an arrangement of two dozen long-stem roses, a gift of Mr. Moore to his wife.

They were married June 4, 1944, in a wartime ceremony at San Diego Baptist Church while Mr. Moore was serving with the U. S. Navy. His home was North Carolina, but Mrs. Moore, the former Margaret Morse, was a lifetime resident of Northville. They have lived in Northville ever since their marriage.

Hosting the open house were their daughter and son-in-law, the Larry Morses of Wayne (Peggy); their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore, Jr.; another daughter and son-in-law, the Donald Lancasters (Karen); and daughter Janet, at home.

In addition to table service and a passing dish, members are to bring flower bulbs or plants for a sale among the membership to bolster the club treasury.

June membership meeting of the Northville-Plymouth Provisional League of Women Voters will be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the Nautical Room, Waterman Campus Center, Schoolcraft College.

"Water Resources — A Discussion and Consensus on the Use of Pesticides" will be the topic.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

"HOT WHEELS" were only part of an exciting holiday week end for Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Pacific and son John, 46959 Grasmere, who attended the Indianapolis 500 races.

They were guests of their former Northville Estates neighbors, the Reuben Jensens, who moved to Indianapolis last year when Mr. Jensen became general manager of Allison Division of General Motors.

The Pacifics and the Jensens were guests at a cocktail party given by Indiana Governor and Mrs. Edgar Whitcomb at the executive mansion. They went on to an Allison party at the Marott Hotel.

The next evening the Pacifics were among 50 guests at a dinner party hosted by the Jensens.

A MIAMI TUNA now is being stuffed and will be a 31-inch moment to Dr. and Mrs. Charles Fountain of the 1969 American Psychiatric Association convention last month.

Other Northville psychiatrists and their wives attending the annual meeting in Miami included Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Chen, Dr. and Mrs. Rahsan Anisoglu and Dr. Charles Brosius.

In addition to deep-sea fishing off the Miami coast, the Fountains visited the Hugh McKay family, formerly of Northville.

Mrs. Fountain adds that, coincidentally, it was from the same deep-sea fishing boat in the same area waters where Dr. Fountain caught his tuna that their neighbor, Mrs. Jack Doheny, caught her giant sailfish earlier. Now both families are awaiting their stuffed trophies, which take several months to arrive.

PHASE-OUT of the Scotch Settlement School at Greenfield Village brings up many memories for Mrs. George Merwin, 43461 Cottisford, who attended both grade and high school in the village, graduating in a class of 15.

With her daughters she is hoping to attend a reception for a former teacher, Miss Webster, who is retiring and is being honored Sunday afternoon at Dearborn Inn.

Laura Merwin first attended the Scotch Settlement School in the village and then continued through high school there in classes in the museum, which in later years were discontinued at secondary level. With the exception of second grade, spent in a Birmingham school, she went to small village classes, sometimes being picked up in a sleigh if buses couldn't get through on winter days.

THIRD ANNUAL Home Tour of the Northville Presbyterian Women's Association is to be held Thursday, September 25, with the committee planning to have five homes open.

Co-chairmen Mrs. David Longridge and Mrs. Robert Froelich are enthusiastic that this year's event will be the "best yet."

A new feature this fall will be a Christmas booth at the church. As in other years there will be a country store and an antique sale.

A craft group was organized last winter and has been meeting to create handmade Christmas items that are "different," according to Mrs. William Dyke, its chairman. The group held its final meeting until fall last week at Mrs. Dyke's home — which holds interest itself with second-floor living quarters affording a wide view of the countryside.

NORTHVILLE BRANCH of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association is unusual among local women's organizations in that it begins its new club year immediately after the close of the last, recessing only in August.

Therefore, first meeting of the 1969-70 year will be at 12:30 p.m. next Monday at the home of Mrs. Werner Hess, 20300 Spring Lane.

Mrs. John Begle, a past president and active branch member, is to present the program on "The Art of Dried Flowers." Known for her dried flower arrangements and pressed flower pictures, Mary Begle grows all the flowers she uses herself and even supplies dried flowers to the florist trade.

Both she and her husband are avid gardeners and spend hours studying gardening books and encyclopedias.

Mrs. Jack Scantlin is social chairman for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Frank Whitmyer, Mrs. Charles Brosius and Mrs. Wilbur Johnston.

Announce Engagement

Mrs. Marguerite Steiner of Walled Lake and formerly of Northville announces the engagement of her daughter, Dianne, to Specialist-Five Kenneth Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Myers of Plymouth, who also are former Northville residents.

The bride-elect will receive her MA degree from Michigan State University in June. Her fiance attended Central Michigan University and presently is serving with the United States Army in Annapolis, Pennsylvania. Both attended Northville High School.

A July wedding is planned.

Talk on India Slated Tuesday

Northville Senior Citizens will hear David Filkin relate his experiences as a Peace Corps worker in Nepal, India, at their business meeting and program at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Scout-recreation building.

The speaker is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Filkin, 621 Fairbrook, and is a Northville High School graduate. He also will show slides taken in Nepal.

Refreshments will follow the program.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Wharton, 46079 Sunset, announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, Kelly Kristine, May 17 at St. Mary Hospital. She weighed eight pounds, three ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. O'Brien of Beck Road. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wharton of Coral Lane, Novi.

Cavern Campaign Nears Its Goal

Several final-week checks and help with campaign expenses have boosted the month-long May Cavern Campaign for Funds close to its goal of $6,000. Mrs. Harold Wright, chairman, reported this week.

A total of $4,215 from 155 donors had been recorded by Tuesday with the committee hoping to receive late checks from people who may not have sent them before the Memorial holiday. Reminder postcards were mailed the last week of the campaign.

Mrs. Wright noted that the committee was pleased it had received a number of generous donations but also that a large number were $5 and $10 donations, indicating an interest on the part of many people.

Addison C. Kline

Air Academy Taps Northville Grad

Addison Christopher Kline, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison B. Kline, 46096 Fanner Court East, has received an appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado.

He is to report there June 23, two weeks after being graduated with

History Society Elects Officers

Mrs. William Cansfield was elected president of the Northville Historical Society, succeeding Jack Hoffman, at the group's final meeting of the year May 20.

Other newly elected officers are Mrs. William Crump, vice-president; Mrs. Marie Bonamici, secretary; and Mrs. Jack Scantlin, treasurer. Mrs. Ruth Starkweather was named historian — a new post, and Mrs. Hurd Sutherland, curator. Directors are John Burkman, Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton and Mrs. Gordon Smith.

It was voted to change the meeting night to the third Thursday of the month when meetings resume in September.

Peggy Tiilikka to Fly To Finland to Study

Less than a week after graduating with honors from Northville High School, Peggy Tiilikka, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiilikka, 20300 Westview, will be leaving to spend a year in Finland with the Youth for Understanding program.

Peggy is one of a few students from the Michigan area chosen to participate in the "13th year program" in Europe. As Finnish high schools have a 13th year, she will be enrolled as a senior there but will receive some college credit when she returns.

With other Youth for Understanding students in the Ann Arbor-based program who will fly to Copenhagen June 16. She will fly on to Helsinki. First, she is to spend two months at the resort of Hanko on the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland with Finnish industrialist Arne Manner and his family. She will be resituated in the fall.

With other Youth for Understanding students she will visit Leningrad, July 21-24. They will have an Easter reunion in Berlin for 10 days next spring and before returning will vacation at a chateau in southern France.

Finland was Peggy's choice of three countries offered on the program. Her paternal grandfather was born in Finland; so it seemed a natural one.

Charged With B&E's

Novi Police Arrest South Lyon Youths

Four South Lyon youths, one involved in the kidnap-beating of a Novi policeman a year ago, was arrested in Novi early Tuesday morning by two Novi officers — one of them the kidnapped officer.

Jailed were William J. Jobe, 17, of 411 Whipple; Jack Caldwell, 17, of 412 Reese; David Hughes, 18, of 433

Donovan. Turned over to juvenile authorities was a 15-year-old.

Jobe, who was tried for his role in the beating and kidnapping of Officer Starnes in July with other South Lyon youths and placed on probation, is charged with violation of probation, accessory to a breaking and entering and conspiracy to commit a B&E.

Caldwell and Hughes are charged with B&E.

Starnes and Officer Grubb, on patrol shortly after midnight spotted a car parked near the intersection of Novi Road and I-96. Upon investigating they found Jobe and the 15-year-old inside the car, apparently sleeping. Upon questioning, they had no keys for the car so were taken to police headquarters.

While at the station, Caldwell and Hughes appeared to say it was their car, that they had been in the adjacent field when their companions were arrested because they were sick after having drunk too much alcohol.

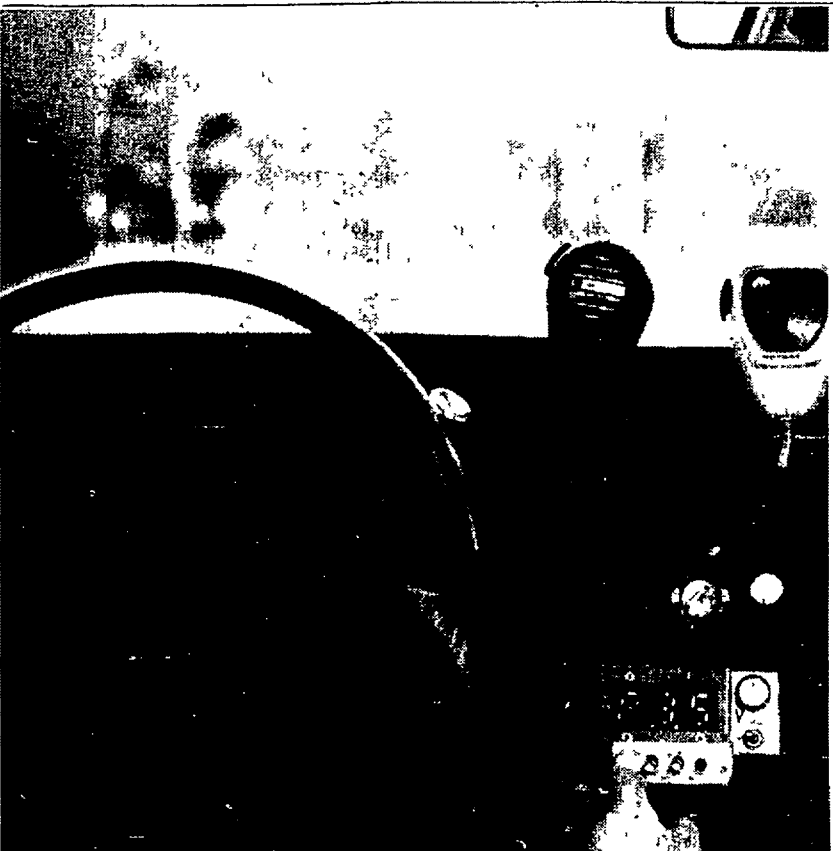

Search of Denny's Mobil Station at the intersection disclosed that someone had forced an entry by breaking a window and forced open a cash register in a rear room, taking some $70 in bills and change. A jacket taken from the station and identified by the station owner, Denny Valone, and loose change was found in the field.

Upon searching the trunk of the car police found it loaded with a large assortment of cigarettes, cigars, beer, packages of chips and eats, lighter fluid, cigarette lights, toilet articles and sunglasses. They were later identified by Oakland County Sheriff detectives as stolen from a party store in Milford on May 29.

Caldwell and Hughes admitted the B&E at the Mobil station, the party store, and two B&E's in South Lyon. Caldwell told officers they could find the money taken from the service station under the right floor mat of his car. All of it was recovered, police said.

Caldwell and Hughes, who was free on probation for B&E of the New Hudson Lumber Company and out on bond awaiting trial on a more recent B&E, and Caldwell were lodged in the county jail shortly after their admissions. Jobe and the 15-year-old were held for questioning on charges of violation of probation and violation of the curfew law, respectively. Tuesday night the additional charges were brought against Jobe and he, too, was jailed.

VASCAR — Michigan State Police troopers are undergoing training to qualify as operators of a new electronic speed computer, called VASCAR, to be used in patrol car traffic law enforcement beginning July 1. The computer is a small, two-piece instrument mounted on the dash, which permits the officer to "clock" a vehicle in several ways in any kind of weather — day or night — and whether the patrol car is parked or cruising.

Meet Your Novi School Board Candidates

EDITOR'S NOTE — Following are the biographies and statements of the six Novi School Board candidates who face opposition in Monday's election. The seventh candidate, Raymond Warren, is unopposed for a one-year term. Cowden, Mrs. Farah, Simmons, and Wilkins seek four-year terms, Earl and Buck two-year terms.

J. F. BUCK

Age 51, resident of Novi 14 years, married, has two sons — Ron, 12, and Jon, 9, who attend Orchard Hills Elementary School, lives at 24350 LeBost Drive, past president of the Willowbrook Community Association, he and his wife are active in scouting and the Novi Little League, served on several committees with various interests in Novi, has been with American Motors since 1947, currently is government coordinator and regional fleet manager, formerly was service training manager for the company and in that capacity gave lectures on education at universities and high schools throughout the nation, has participated on several educational TV programs, spent 6½ years on the education committee of the Automobile Manufacturers Association and served on the advisory board for the Oakland University, attended the University of Detroit, served as lieutenant commander in Europe and the South Pacific during World War II, recently served as member of the Novi Charter Commission.

I have decided to seek this position on the school board because, as the father of two sons, I want to do all I can to improve the level of educational possibilities in this area. My objective is: Not only to be a school board member, but to act and participate in creating more interest in education for students to prepare themselves to be better citizens and to help them qualify for their position in the future.

RONALD K. COWDEN

Age 28, married with two children — Veronica, 3, and Scott, 3 months lives at 41679 Sycamore Drive, has taught elementary school for the Livonia Public Schools for six years, has lived in Novi for 4½ years, received a BS degree from Western Michigan University, masters degree in education administration from Eastern Michigan University, charter member of the Novi Jaycees, member of the Orchard Hills Community Association, Tau Kappa Epsilon National Social Fraternity, Livonia Education Association, Michigan Education Association, area director of Livonia Education Association, past voting delegate to MEA, social studies curriculum coordinator in Livonia, Livonia Parks and Recreation program director, Livonia Youth Incorporated summer recreation program director, and member Northville First United Methodist Church.

I feel that my professional involvements have given me very current experience in the needs of youngsters and the administration of educational structures.

As the 27th lowest out of 28 communities in Oakland County in property taxes; Novi experiences financial solvency; however, with our land area to be developed, new homes must create great expansion of school facilities. As an educator, I can sympathize with the financial needs of quality education; however, as a property owner, I can see the threat of skyrocketing taxes. I am most in favor of educational fiscal reform to relieve the burdens of the taxpayer and still maintain and create quality educational experiences for our community's youth. I also desperately feel we need to involve ourselves with some very careful community planning as building booms so that we assure ourselves of land acquisition for schools and potential staffing and facility needs.

Also, I am most interested in researching and encouraging curriculum that focuses practical as well as academic development of our young people. Guiding educational structures is no easy task with today's many social pressures; but it is a challenge to help our youth face the necessity of existing within our complex society.

I feel I can contribute much to the Novi Community Schools; my assets are youth, my desire to build my community, my strong interest in young people, and my devotion and belief in the value of our public school system.

CLAUDE EARL

A resident at 40670 Ten Mile Road, for the past 23 years, he was born in Plymouth, attended school in New Hudson, graduated from Henry Ford Trade School, attended Lawrence Institute of Technology for a year, served in the Army for 4½ years, is a production planner for the Detroit Arsenal where he has been employed for 22 years, is married and has five children — Claude, 25, Devereux, 20, Douglas, 19, Mark, 17, and Claudia, 15, member of St. John's Lutheran Church of Farmington, has been serving as an appointed member of the Novi Board of Education.

I believe the school board's responsibility is to provide the best education for both the college-bound and non-college bound youth that can be obtained within the millage provided.

MRS. DOROTHY FARAH

Born in Ontario, eldest of 13 children, she attended schools in Dearborn and Detroit, currently attending Oakland Community College, in her sophomore year, married to Herbert Farah, has five children — the eldest teaches high school English at Waterford Kettering and the youngest, 6, attends Novi Elementary, about to become a grandmother for the first time, has lived in Novi five years, she and her husband have been foster parents for the Wayne County Juvenile Court for 10 years, in 1967 they were honored as Foster Parents of the Year for Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties, served as PTA president for two Detroit groups, vice-president for the Detroit PTA Council and was its representative to the Mayors Commission on Children, has served with the Novi Teen Canteen, Band Boosters, president of the Mothers Club, presently secretary of the Novi Goodfellows, chairman of the Novi Child and Youth Protective Services, immediate past Mayors Exchange Day chairman, and coordinated Novi summer recreation in 1967 and 1968.

Through the use of all available resources, I would like to assist in preparing the best possible education for the young people of Novi so that they may become useful, contributing members of society.

BRUCE E. SIMMONS

Age 42, owner and operator of Simmons Orchards, manager of the Southeast Michigan Growers Association, married and the father of six children, served in the Navy during World War II, member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, treasurer of the Novi Rotary Club, officer of the Novi Little League, presently president of the Novi Board of Education, past member of the Novi Board of Review.

"I believe that the Novi School District should be real proud of a college accredited high school for their first graduating class. I would like to stand on my past record, and if elected to a new four-year term, I would work for a progressive program, consistent with the needs of the community and the ability of the taxpayer to support. I serve both interests, having a large family, also being a large taxpayer. During the three years that I have served on the board I was treasurer for the first two years and, this past year, served as president. I believe I have contributed much to the fine school system that Novi now enjoys."

ROBERT W. WILKINS

Age 38, married with four children, ages 8 to 15, who attend Novi schools, wife Mary is a registered nurse, owner of R. W. Wilkins Association — a manufacturers representative firm, graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a BS degree in 1955, Army veteran of the Korean War, has lived in Novi five years, past member of the Novi Youth Protective Association, past president of the Novi Little League, committee member of Novi Troop 54 Boy Scouts of America, chairman of the board of trustees of the Novi United Methodist Church, vice-chairman of the Novi Planning Commission, former director and vice-president of the Willowbrook Community Association.

I will strive for a planned school development with proper emphasis on vocational as well as business and college oriented education for students;

A proper consideration of the tax load as it relates to all age and economic levels of taxpayers in the school district in support of strong education system, giving a maximum return for tax dollars;

Strive for an educational program co-ordinated between administration, teachers, and students with adequate and reasonable discipline;

Strive for proper pay and incentive for teachers to attract and hold the best teachers obtainable who will motivate, stimulate and educate our children.

State Rules On Tuition

The state has no authority to reimburse Northville school district for children living on tax-free state property at institutions within the community and attending local schools.

This is the opinion from the state attorney general, relayed in a letter from the Department of Mental Health and read at the board of education meeting May 26.

The board already has gone on record that it will not admit such students without tuition payment beginning in September, 1969.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Representatives of the Northville school district, township, city and economic development committee have lined up at least one meeting with city of Detroit officials to discuss the status of the Maybury Sanatorium property on West Seven Mile road.

School Business Manager Earl Busard hand-delivered a letter to Mayor Jerome Cavanagh's office last week. At the mayor's direction, a meeting between Northville officials and the Detroit comptroller will be held within a week.

Meanwhile, Detroit Council President Ed Carey has indicated that a hearing before the common council would also be in order.

Primarily, the local group wants to learn firsthand what plans, if any, Detroit has for the 860-acre Maybury site. Is it going on the block to the highest bidder? Is there a chance that efforts would be made to rezone the land — now R-1 and R-2 — to a higher density classification?

Of prime interest to local officials, of course, is the impact of any development on such a large parcel of land on the community, particularly the school system.

For example, development of the land under the present low-density zoning (about 2½-single-family homes per acre) would double the present student enrollment — or add some 2,700 to 3,000 youngsters to the school system.

A development of higher density — such as R-4 — could produce upwards of 4,000 school children.

Although local officials are merely seeking information at this point, several ideas have been advanced.

Among them: a community effort to acquire the land partially for park use and a combination of residential-commercial-industrial development; as a possible state park site; as a planned-unit development in cooperation with a major private developer providing open space, single family and multiple units, commercial and possible industrial sites.

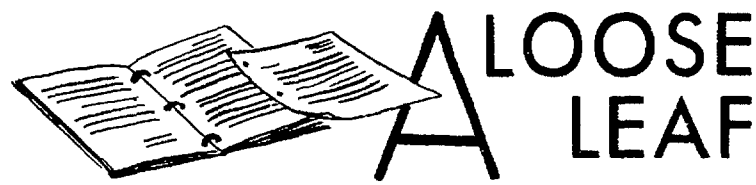

Northville's "centennial" graduation class is the smallest since 1964. This is due in big part to the fact that Novi, which in previous years has sent high school students to Northville, will this year graduate its own first senior class.

While Northville's one-hundredth class numbers 183 grads, Novi's first class graduating June 10 has 84 seniors.

Novi outstrips Northville when it comes to interest in election to the board of education. While only one candidate seeks election to the Northville board Monday, seven seek four seats on the board in Novi.

Looking tanned and chipper on a visit to Northville this week is Harry Smith, ex-Main street school principal. The Smiths now reside at Cape Coral on the Gulf Coast in Florida.

They'll return to Northville for the month of August.

By ROLLY PETERSON

"What the job is ain't important," said the black man philosophically. "What is the way you do it." As a matter of self-comment on the movie, "100 Rifles", truer words were never spoken.

Unfortunately, however, acting is not the lot of the man speaking. Muscular and handsome, he was better known as the best fullback in the history of professional football. To see him bulling his way through a massive line, or skirting end like a malevolent truck was something to behold.

No one can blame Jim Brown for deserting NFL football, for it is a grueling sport that taxes the best of men. And his contribution during seven exciting years on the Cleveland Browns, most professionals would be hard-pressed to match.

But there is no mistaking that acting is not Jim Brown's bag. Out of his element, he delivers his lines like a near-sighted amateur reading a teleprompter. In the rendering, his words flatten out and conviction wavers like a lost child.

Brown can't be blamed alone for making "Rifles" one of the worst movies of the year. He's got plenty of help in Raquel Welch, whose visual talents can't be denied, Burt Reynolds, the poorman's Zapata and Fernando Lamas, the debonair non-actor.

Adapted from the book by Robert MacLeod, "Rifles" actually has the makings of an exciting adventure movie. The 100 rifles are intended for the yaki Indians, original inhabitants of the Mexican state of Sonora who are being wiped out by well-armed Mexican militia men.

With rifles, the Yacquis can hope to defend themselves and their land against the tyrannical raids of the militia. The suppressed minority might then claim what is rightfully theirs.

The Yacquis are also badly in need of leadership. There is no one person experienced in military tactics and able to rally the inferio Yacquis around a common purpose.

Jim Brown as Lyedecker, the aspiring sheriff from Phoenix in hunt of a bank robber, is the ostensible leader of the Yacqui since he is a former cavalryman. How to gain his sympathies is the question, however.

Among other things, enter Raquel Welch as Sarita, the hardbitten, you guessed it, Yacqui maiden. With every malitiaman south of the Rio Grande eyeing Sarita as a bed mate, only time is needed to convince Lyedecker that the Yacqui fight is truly a worthy cause.

Menace for Fans

Fans at Northville Community Recreation ball games find the stands at Ford Field neither attractive nor safe. Broken concrete, twisted and broken guard rails make it a menace in anyone's book. Although the city is given free use of the field by the Ford Motor Company, which owns the property, the city contends repair is the responsibility of Ford. City efforts are being made to either acquire the property from Ford or to have improvements made by the company. Meanwhile, the menace continues.

Top of the Deck

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

The balloon of self-importance is soaring again this week thanks to a home-grown soul singer.

It came close to collapse, Thursday when a daughter inquired, seriously, "How come you don't know anybody important?"

That was a pretty crushing blow because all along I figured our kids were kinda proud that their father worked on a community newspaper. But apparently he's the man who leaves in the morning, returns in the evening, and what happens in between is of little consequence.

Anyway, in self-defense, I explained that even in a small community a newspaperman talks to important people every day.

"But not like they do on the big newspaper," she said. "You don't talk to the President, for instance. Or the movie stars, or the Beatles."

Instead of pursuing the line about small-town importance, I frantically tried to recall the few "really big" people I've met over the years. "Oh," I said faking modestly, "you mean those kind of people. I've met some of those, too."

"Like who," she pressed.

"Ah, well, once I interviewed Vaughn Monroe!"

"Who's that?"

"What! Everyone knows Mr. Monroe. He's a famous singer."

"Never heard of him."

"Then how about Governor Williams, C. E.

Wilson, or Wilbur Cohen?" I asked.

"They're not important enough," she insisted. "Besides, I never heard of them."

"Soapy's been gone longer than I realized."

"How's the president of General Motors?"

"Nope."

Desperately, I dredged my memory for anyone of notoriety. "What about Ronnie Gaylord or Billy Martin or Nancy Kovac?"

None of them meant anything to her — just the meaningless pages of a father pushing 40 and creeping up again on 200 on the bathroom scales.

"See, like I said, you don't know anybody famous," she said frowning. A nobody who works on a weekly newspaper, she was thinking.

"Wait a minute," I said suddenly remembering someone. There's a girl over in Salem I met a few years ago and wrote some stories about. As a matter of fact I've been to her home. She writes your kind of songs, I think, and makes records of them, too. Her name's Lewis... Barbara Lewis, I think."

"Really, daddy? Barbara Lewis! Barbara Lewis who sings 'Baby, I'm Yours.' You know her! Oh, that's great," she exclaimed running off to tell her girlfriends.

So to Barbara Lewis, a home-grown star, my thanks. I'm a somebody again in the eyes of a discerning daughter, who didn't see much importance before in small-town journalism.

To the Editor:

I am a new resident in this area, and I reside in Kings Mill. I have read, with keen interest, all I could about the proposed CBD-CBP Plans, and I must say that I heartily agree with the opposition to the Plan. One of the most attractive of Northville's assets is the obvious pride in its stately homes, well-groomed lawns, serene, shady streets, and well-maintained, "interested-in-serving-its-patrons" shops along its business section. To destroy this vital factor in a village's "social health" would seem to me to be striking a telling blow. Within easy driving distance on several sides one may go to a shopping plaza, but I feel, even as a newcomer, a warm pride in our own village, and I would be loath, indeed some worried, to see its present charm threatened rather than strengthened. I wish to continue to patronize it and support it as it is.

Sincerely

Barbara Jean Eckles

To the Editor:

For the past school year I've been on academic leave from my counselor's position at Northville High School and have been attending the University of Michigan. At the University I have had the opportunity to associate, both in class and informally, with many young, bright, articulate students. Along with other adults I sometimes experience difficulty in fully understanding the feelings and concerns of these young adults.

Of the many adults with whom I am associated, Dennis Dildy stands head and shoulders above others in his ability to communicate and bridge the "divisiveness and alienation" among the generations. If Schoolcraft College is to progress and avoid the conflict and strife currently sweeping college campuses, we need trustees like Dennis who can communicate and "tune in" with the young. I believe that he can provide the leadership that will wed the vigor and idealism of youth with the temperance of maturity and result in educational policies and programs advantageous to all.

In my opinion his role as teacher of disturbed children at Hawthorn Center, his experience as Probation Director for the 35th District Court, and his voluntary leadership role working with narcotic addicts at Synanon in Detroit, coupled with his organizational and administrative ability, qualify him admirably well for the position of a trustee of Schoolcraft College.

EDITOR'S NOTE — The following letter was sent to the Reverend Guenther C. Branstner, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Northville, with a copy of it to the editor.

As you probably know, I am the primary sponsor of the two captioned bills (3217 and 3218). These bills are designed to give the Northville Public Schools some relief from the burden of the large amounts of tax-free land in the district. I made a sincere effort to secure a favorable vote on the bills from committee on two occasions, the latest of which was May 26. The last time, the committee refused to report either bill.

I shall continue my efforts during the summer months and into the fall session to get favorable action on this problem.

My best personal regards to you.

Very truly yours,
MARVIN R. STEMPIEN
State Representative

To the Editor:

When they put the new (I-96) expressway in you remember I was flooded out. The Health Department said they had no jurisdiction over it. The Drain Commission said they had no jurisdiction south of 12 Mile Road. The State Highway had no jurisdiction over it. Then The Novi News and Governor Williams came to our aid. Now they have a marking on my fence for a drain to come through. When I tried to get help before I was told it was a civil matter. What happened to all the buck passing they gave? Now they want to rip up 178 feet of ground on our place.

To the Editor:

I like to take time out now and then from my busy practice in internal medicine to travel into the outlying suburbs of Detroit and some of the surrounding towns, and I should like to say that I am especially fond of Northville as its quaint atmosphere most reminds me of my native town in Northern Ontario. I should, however, like to question one little institution that you have and that is the practice of holding up traffic all four ways on Sheldon Road and Seven Mile Road, (I believe) for a matter of minutes while some dandies dressed in pretty silk shirts casually trot their horses to and from a race track. Would it not be slightly more reasonable to make these horses wait a while until there are perhaps seven or eight and then stop traffic to let them all cross together?

Yours Sincerely,
Edgerton Y. Davis, M.D.

To the Editor:

In behalf of the Vestry, the Parishioners and myself, I wish to express deep gratitude to you for the space that you provide in your excellent paper for church announcements. You are to be commended for continuing such a policy in a day when so many weekly papers are eliminating such announcements and accept only paid advertising.

Yours very sincerely,

Danny Gets Role Paratroopers Restage D-Day

A Novi man will play a key role tomorrow as World War II members of the 82nd Airborne Division C-47 Club restage the airborne invasion of Normandy, France on the 25th anniversary of that historic occasion.

Danny Latchford, 46901 Grand River, who left for France Tuesday has been named honorary jumpmaster for the occasion.

Latchford is the man who, during World War II, ran the world's largest parachute factory, turning out parachutes which the fearless paratroopers used in the 1944 invasion of Normandy.

Parachute conscious as he was, Latchford tried to go "airborne" himself but was forced to stay in the factory to make those essential parachutes.

Latchford is an honorary member of the 82nd Airborne Division Association, having received the honor for his devoted efforts in parachute manufacturing during the war.

Now operator of the Midwest Parachute Center in Novi, he has been making parachutes for 35 years. He is permanent jump director for the 82nd Airborne Division Old Timer's Jump Meet, which he also sponsors annually.

"Paratroopers everywhere are indebted to Danny Latchford," a Division spokesman said, "for his dedication and devotion to parachuting, and for the advancement and improvement of this efficient means of descending from dizzy heights to land in a matter of seconds."

"When the first jumper steps out into the sky on this memorial invasion of Normandy, 25 years later, it will be Danny Latchford who gave him the word to go."

Here's Guide to Schoolcraft College Candidates

Editor's Note: This report was prepared by the provisional League of Women Voters of the Northville-Plymouth Area in cooperation with the Livonia League. It is published as a public service to the community.

The LWV is a national, volunteer, nonpartisan organization established in 1920 to encourage citizen participation in government. It never supports or opposes any candidate or any political party.

Information was gathered from LWV questionnaires sent to all candidates requesting biographical information, qualifications for the office of trustee, and the answer to the following question:

"What do you consider the main concern of Schoolcraft College at this time?"

All candidates were asked to limit their reply to no more than 150 words.

The Schoolcraft College District includes the school districts of Livonia, Plymouth, Clarenceville, Garden City and Northville. The board of trustees consists of eight members elected to six-year staggered terms; one trustee is elected from each school district and three serve as representatives at-large. In the June 9 election, voters from all five school districts will elect two at-large representatives, and Plymouth residents will elect one trustee to fill an unexpired term of two years.

TRUSTEE AT-LARGE

(Two to be elected)

CHARLES W. CHANDLER, 35; 14010 Cardwell, Livonia; B.S., University of Utah; J. D. degree, Detroit College of Law; occupation: patent attorney; former engineer. Qualifications: "Experience as naval officer, engineer and attorney."

"Of immediate concern to the college is whether the community will elect trustees who will continue to be responsive to the broad range of problems that will face the school in the next few years. Problems related to physical growth of the campus, meaningful vocational and other instructional programs, collective bargaining, financing of school operations as well as funding of its improvements, and the subject of current interest — communication with the students — require a board composed of individuals with broad interests and experiences. I feel the students realize that the legitimate means for bringing about change in the school is through the political process. If so, voters must carefully examine the qualifications of the candidates, in view of the many unfamiliar names among those who have committed themselves, to ensure that those elected have sufficient maturity to know something of those institutions which are the subject of discussion for change."

DENNIS R. DILDY, 26; 429 Lake, Northville; B.S. and M.S. in Education, University of Michigan; Occupation: special education teacher, Hawthorne Center; director of Probation, 35th

District Court; former chief probation officer, City of Northville. Activities chairman, Northville Jaycees. Qualifications: "MEA country representative, and negotiator between teachers and local school board (South Lyon), 1967. Professional educator and active administrator in various efforts giving me background and willingness to handle all pertinent situations."

"I deeply feel that one of the concerns to come out of Schoolcraft matters at this time, cannot help but be the concern over student unrest on today's college campuses. While there are those adults who are tempted to condemn all college youth by blaming all for the acts of a few, regarding campus violence; I feel, rather, that college officials should open up and clarify communications with students, so that grievances should not have to come to turmoil in the confrontations we have heard across the country. Junior colleges surely do not have the full blown problems that universities have, and yet each student, administrator, and faculty member should have the freedom of dissent, without violence, and respect, with consideration for what they have to share."

R. ROBERT GEAKE, 32; 48525 West 8 Mile Road, Northville; B.S., special education, M.A., guidance and counseling, Ph.D., education and psychology, University of Michigan; occupation: educational psychology and program consultant, Plymouth State Home; former director of psychiatric department, Plymouth State Home; secretary, Northville Rotary Club; chairman, Northville PTA Council of Legislative Agents. Qualifications: "Three academic degrees in fields related to educational programs, successful business experience as director of my own reading clinic and as consultant to school systems on education programs, administrative experience in one of state's most progressive institutional programs for children."

"(1) Operation of a well managed, efficient school in the face of rising costs and increasing pressure on the tax dollar; (2) Retention and recruitment of top administrators in the face of keen competition from other colleges and universities throughout the state; (3) Retention and recruitment of a qualified teaching staff in the face of a rapidly expanding student enrollment; (4) Maintenance of an orderly and decorous campus in the face of a nationwide student activist movement. I believe that academic freedom means the right to discussion, debate, and dissent, but does not extend to the 'right' to engage in tactics which disrupt the proper functioning of the college or interfere with the legitimate efforts of the majority of students to carry on their studies. I believe that obscene language, drug abuse, and pornography have no place in any tax supported institution of higher learning, least of all in a community college."

JOHN M. LA RUE, 53; 9810 Blackburn, Livonia; B.S., M.S., and additional graduate work in physics, University of Michigan; one year course, Oak Ridge School of Reactor Technology; occupation: director of university and scientific relations, Bendix Corporation; former research physicist; chairman, budget and steering committees, citizens study committee for Livonia Public Schools; citizens advisory committee for City of Livonia. Qualifications: "Analysis of complex problems; advanced planning of engineering projects and facilities; liaison with universities and colleges in recruiting, technical, and curricular areas; served on citizens study committees on Livonia high school planning, extended school year, and college curricula (for small college)."

"The main problem at Schoolcraft College now is the development of open, effective communication between the community, students, faculty, administration, and board of trustees. In today's academic climate there must be dialogue between the various groups. Their suggestions and requests must be considered. Full cooperation of students, faculty and administration will be required to plan and implement the growth in faculty, programs and facilities which will be required to accommodate the forecast growth in the number of students. Only thus can Schoolcraft continue to develop adult programs, and to become the cultural center for the community. To move forward in today's rapidly changing educational climate, the several groups will have to develop the ability to understand each other, tolerate differences, look at problems with a sense of perspective and priority, and work together."

WALTER R. NEVILL, 51; 32970 Florence, Garden City; education: high school and business college; occupation: clerk, Ford Motor Company; formerly civilian Air Force employee; vice president, Citizens for Advancement of Public Education; president, West High School PTSA; past president, Garden City PTA Council. Qualifications: "No 'particular' training other than experience gained in PTA, school and scout work in the community."

"The main concern of Schoolcraft College, its very reason for existence, should be service to its supporting community in providing the best possible academic and vocational education to its student body. In the performance of this service there inevitably have and will continue to arise, problems and challenges peculiar to our times. However, a sincere and dedicated board backed by an aware and committed citizenry and working with an efficient administration can and will discharge its obligation to provide educational opportunity. The student body and the faculty striving respectively to achieve and impart educational excellence would be expected by the supporting community to function within a framework of responsible academic freedom."

JOHN PATRICK O'BRIEN, 21; 29721 Hathaway, Livonia; student, Schoolcraft College (Associate in Arts); sweeper, Ford Motor Company. Qualifications: "I have attended Schoolcraft College for three years and in this time have become aware of many of the problems on campus. I think I can offer an insight into some of the problems, particularly student problems, that none of the other candidates can offer."

"The main problem I see is the poor relations between students and administration. This is getting worse all the time and unless some action is taken, it will continue to worsen. Cooperation between students and administration is diminishing. Students, whether they have the right or not, are becoming more and more disgusted with the arbitrariness of the administration. The administration, in turn, is becoming more frightened by the students, and thus over-reacting, causing greater tension and less communication between the two groups. This situation, if it is allowed to continue, will lead to more troubles, and possibly open conflict. I think I can act as a mediator between students and the policy making body of the school. We must open channels before it is too late. This is why I am running. I am proud of Schoolcraft and do not want to see it be the scene of trouble."

JEROME R. PIKULINSKI, 31; 33496 Cindy, Livonia; B.S., industrial management; M.B.A., University of Detroit; graduate work, University of Michigan; occupation: deputy director, Michigan Department of Labor; former program coordinator and research associate, institute of labor and industrial relations, Wayne State — University of Michigan. Qualifications: "Have worked with as many as six statutory boards in the Department of Labor. Have responsibility for developing a manpower office in the department. Serve as a representative to several boards and committees having an interest in the state's educational programs, including vocational education advisory committee in the Department of Education."

"Schoolcraft Community College must more than double its size in the next five years. To do so, the community's support is needed. At present the community's attention is being diverted to a 'law and order' issue by most of the candidates. In my mind, the main concern at this time is protecting the college from those persons who seek to achieve 'law and order' by promoting unjustified controversy. Admittedly, the sensibilities of the community have been offended by the use of obscenities by a limited few; but, the student body and faculty, as a whole, are entitled to mature and responsible leadership which does not go about labeling everyone in the college as either irresponsible or ineffective."

KENNETH H. ROBINER, 29886 Linda, Livonia. Did not reply to questionnaire.

JAMES W. SCHAEFER, 40; 36075 Seven Mile Road, Livonia; B.A., Hamline University; B.D., University of Chicago — Chicago Theological Seminary; occupation: minister, Pilgrim United Church of Christ (Congregational), Livonia; previously served churches in five other cities; member Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations and Livonia Ministers Association. Qualifications: "Training in working with young adults; 17 years' experience in such work in various capacities — seminars, study groups, retreats, summer camps. Thereby feel to some degree I understand the needs and vitality of young adults. Served on various committees and boards of the United Church — six years on Board of Trustees of the Detroit Association."

"Schoolcraft College has successfully met the challenge of providing the facilities and staff for a rapidly growing student body. Our college is now past its childhood and needs to develop into a center for adult learning in northwest Wayne County. Two aspects of the college and its relationship to the community challenge us. First, I sense a need for doors to open and honest communication to take place between the students, faculty, community, and administration. All of these human resources, working together, should be involved in shaping the future of Schoolcraft College. Second, I believe that the educational opportunities of Schoolcraft College need to be broadened in serving the community. Our community college has a unique role to play for it can become an exciting educational center for all adults in the area."

CALVIN STROM, 32; 15796 Blue Skies, Livonia, B.S., mechanical engineering, M.Ed. — mathematical education; occupation: industrial relations administrator, Ford Motor Company; formerly teacher in South Redford, and instructor, Cleary College; vice moderator, Board of Deacons, St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. Qualifications: "Five years as a teacher and seven years as an administrator of industrial relations programs in industry have given me experience solving the problems of students, adults, economic budgeting, and facility-funding."

"In addition to planning and approving use of resources required to operate Schoolcraft College, the board of trustees is responsible for reducing increasing alienation between students, teachers, administrators, and the community. Symptoms of this polarization are evident in the recent confrontations involving morality, the war, and operating authority. The vehicle toward effective resolution to this alienation hopefully lies in meaningful negotiations. It is imperative that the Board initiate action to open channels of communication. As a member of the board, I would propose grievance-handling procedures be initiated to permit individuals or groups to influence decisions regarding the school's operation. Lasting creditable legal authority can be achieved only through responsible discussion between the four groups that have a stake in the operation of Schoolcraft — students, teachers, administrators, and trustees. The role of the trustee is fundamental to the total process of definition. He is the voice of the community."

JOSEPH E. SULLIVAN, 42; 9050 Hanlon, Livonia; B.S. Purdue University; M.S., University of Michigan; occupation: Assistant Professor, Electronic Engineering, University of Michigan, Dearborn Campus; formerly associate research engineer, University of Michigan; member, Engineering Society of Detroit. Qualifications: "20 years engineering experience including teaching, research and development. Prior to past 12 years in university research and teaching, was engaged in engineering work in U.S., Europe and Far East. Other academic experience includes lecturing in engineering short courses at University of Michigan and Alabama, teaching in-plant engineering courses for Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations."

"Schoolcraft College is faced with the challenge of realizing continued controlled growth to meet the real cultural, technological, and academic needs of the community. Transfer curricula programs must be enlarged and strengthened. Meaningful dialogue between the trustees, administration, faculty and student body must be implemented to seek methods of overall college improvement. The epidemic of college disruption and so-called dissent will no doubt break out several times on any campus in the next several years. Valid real problems must be met with open-mindedness and constructive action by the trustees; inadvisable or invalid requests with fair-minded firmness; campus disruptions or improper actions by prompt appropriate academic sanction or legal action to preserve the public stature and continued operation of the institution. In serving on the board I would be hard-headed about finance, hard-hearted about academic excellence, fair but forcefully firm about human problems and in general conservative and constructive."

ROBERT F. SWANSON, 29; 31036 Grennada, Livonia; B.A. (education) University of Michigan; advanced business courses at University of Colorado and Wayne State University; occupation: warranty and policy coordinator, Lincoln-Mercury Division, member, Livonia Republican Club. Qualifications: "Formal training in the field of education; practical experience in business; involvement in school affairs in New York, Colorado and Michigan; members of Mayor's Advisory Committee in Arvada, Colorado."

"The tremendous growth rate of student enrollment at Schoolcraft is placing an equally tremendous strain on its financial resources. With the amount of millage available set by law at 1.1 mills, and the state aid a fixed amount on a per student basis, only the tuition fee is flexible. To increase the tuition beyond its present level would be unacceptable. Thus it will be necessary to apply proven business techniques to ensure that maximum value is received from each dollar. At the same time extreme care must be exercised that these necessary budget cuts do not in any way endanger the quality of education offered. I believe that my background of formal training in the field of education combined with practical business experience will enable me to achieve that financial stability so necessary to ensure top educational quality to the maximum number of students."

LESTER A. WALDMAN, 43; 20426 Maplewood, Livonia; one year D. I. T.; occupation: manager printing department, Burham, Stoepel and Company; president, Livonia Lodge, B'nai B'rith; vice president, Temple Beth Am; vice chairman Human Relations Commission — City of Livonia. Qualifications: "My experience on the Human Relations Commission has given me an insight as to human behavior plus being over all chairman of the Hillel Committee (home away from home for Jewish students on campus) for the Grand Lodge of B'nai B'rith has given me experience working with students, faculty and administration at various colleges in Michigan."

"The essential problem at Schoolcraft today, as I see it, is the problem of keeping lines of communication open between the administration, faculty, and students. There must be complete understanding between them as to what each of their functions are, and their limitations. Each student and faculty member must be indoctrinated as to what the college stands for, which I contend is, simply, learning and understanding. Students should have the right to evaluate their teachers as they, the student, are the ones who have to assimilate the knowledge handed down to them. By laying their course out for approval before the term commences, the faculty should have the right of being able to put into use their knowledge using the most modern methods without fear of reprisal from students or the administration. The administration's function is to see that the college functions smoothly while supplying needs of students, faculty and community."

RAYMOND M. WYATT, 33; 32549 Oakley, Livonia; three years college, engineering and business; occupation: sales engineer and consultant, Anderson and Ellsworth Company; formerly manufacturing representative for industrial equipment and supplies; former civic affairs chairman, Livonia Jaycees. Qualifications: "As a salesman of highly complicated and technical equipment I have become an expert on communications and group decisions. As a businessman I tend to think in terms of financial and practical possibilities. These are both important qualities for a trustee."

"I feel that the main concern of the Schoolcraft College is improvement of communication between students, faculty, and administration. I have talked to many people from students and school administrators to a U. S. congressman, and in all cases, I got the feeling that there was a basic misunderstanding which must be eliminated before we can proceed in our college with the job of educating our youth. College 'unrest' is primarily the result of a small minority of active students, but these problems could not exist without the administrators and the students giving at least tacit approval. There is also a lack of communication between faculty and administration as to how to handle problems in the area of student unrest. Faculty cannot belittle administration to the student body without inducing a lack of respect on the part of the student body for both the faculty and administration."

SENIOR CAMPERS — Nearly 100 seniors and 10 adult advisers left Northville Friday morning on a 3-day canoe-camping trip on the AuSable River.

The unusual senior trip was the first of its kind here and reportedly was a whopping success, despite sunburns and periodic soakings in the river.

Spear Won't Ask for Extra Mill

arose when the county cut-back the school millage levy in Northville Township to keep it within the 15-mill limit. The 15 mills was divided up with 7.9 going to the schools, 6.1 for the county and 1-mill for the township.

In the city, which does not share in the 15-mill split as does the township, the school's share legally could be 8.9 without exceeding the 15 mill limit. Although the 8.9 allocated school millage would be the same as levied last year (in both the city and township), it would mean this year that the city taxpayer would pay more towards schools than the township taxpayer.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff protested levying of the higher rate in behalf of the city before the county tax allocation board last week.

By law the board can approve a higher rate, in the city if it can be proven that city residents, on the basis of their proximity to school facilities, enjoy benefits not accorded township residents. It must also be proven that this proximity to schools is not already taken into consideration through higher property assessments.

Manager Ollendorff argued that city residents do not enjoy special school benefit, that in fact, township residents do. He also stated that property assessments near schools in the city were higher, thereby providing higher tax revenues for this proximity.

He told the council Monday night he was informed that the tax allocation board had not given weight to these arguments, but had only considered the fact that it is legal to levy different rates within the same school district.

He pointed out that the ruling did not mean that the school board "must" levy the additional mill in the city, only that it "may".

The council instructed the manager to write the Northville board of education restating the city's opposition to the higher rate. A meeting between the manager and superintendent of schools, or the full council and board of education, was also suggested if necessary.

The same situation faces the Plymouth Board of Education. A reliable source there has indicated the Plymouth board will not levy the extra mill in the city.

Downs'69 Season Off to Fast Start

Northville Downs is off to a good start in its 26th season of night harness racing.

Opening Wednesday night (May 28) the track showed a four per cent hike in betting and a 3.3 per cent gain in attendance in its first four nights of the 54-night meet.

A Saturday night storm that knocked out the electricity forced cancellation of the final race of the night, cutting the mutuel handle to $395,582 for nine races.

On Friday night (Memorial Day) bettors shoved $412,863 through the windows.

Through the first four nights of racing the mutuel handle totaled $1,417,738, up from $1,363,789 for the first four nights of 1968. Attendance was 20,562, compared to 19,902 for the same period last year.

Construction of the tri-level clubhouse is underway causing little disturbance with normal operations except for the loss of a few parking spaces, Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo reports. Most of the steel superstructure is now in place. Carlo said he expects to be able to use the lower level for the track's first winter meet, a 30-night season from November 24 through December 30.

MVF SMILE — Coach Dick Willing congratulates his beaming "Most Valuable Player", Jeff Taylor, who was elected to the coveted position by teammates upon concluding the 1969 varsity baseball schedule. Northville's Fred Holdsworth was voted the team's Most Valuable Pitcher.

Mustangs Play Spoilers

Northville Hurlers Post Amazing Record

Northville may have finished in third place in the Wayne-Oakland League but they finished at the top in pitching.

"The pitching was simply outstanding," said Coach Dick Willing in reviewing the season. "I don't think there's a high school pitching staff anywhere that can stand up to our guys."

While the Mustangs' hitting left something to be desired, pitching and fielding was another matter. In 23 games Northville pitchers gave up just 19 earned runs — a fantastic accomplishment in anyone's book. Even if you count all runs — earned or unearned — the Mustangs gave up just 38 runs. "Look around," said Willing, "that's a tremendous record."

Over those 23 games, Northville's pitchers also teamed up in striking out 238 batters — an average of 10 per game.

In the field Northville was equally impressive. The Mustangs came up with a season fielding percentage of .939 — less than two errors per game.

Fred Holdsworth, Northville's leading pitcher who still has another year of high school remaining, pitched a total of 68 innings and gave up just two earned runs in gaining a season record of 9-1. His earned run average was .2. Five of his last six games were shutouts, and the sixth, while not a shutout, was a 3-1 no-hitter over Bloomfield Andover.

For his performance this season Holdsworth was voted the team's most valuable pitcher — an honor he also won last year as a sophomore, and he was named next year's captain.

Northville's number two pitcher, Jeff Taylor, pitched a total of 79 innings during the season, giving up 12 earned runs for an ERA of .979. He also was the team's leading pitcher in strikeouts, fanning a total of 112 batters.

Taylor's record for the season was 5-3. And of those three losses two were by single runs. It was Taylor who worked the 11 innings as Northville and Waterford Kettering tied 3-3 earlier in the season.

Bernie Bach's record for the season was 3-0. He gave up two earned runs in those three games for an ERA of .667. He also fanned a no-hitter during the season — a 4-0 victory over Clarenceville.

Taylor, who was voted the team's most valuable player, also was Northville's leading hitter for the season with a batting average of .328. Bach came in with a better average (.347) but he did not come to bat as often as did Taylor.

Although Coach Willing will lose the '69 Most Valuable Player and five other regulars, he sees plenty of reason for optimism next year with the remaining players and those groomed at the junior varsity level. Graduating with Taylor are Pat Cayley, catcher; Craig Turnbull, centerfielder; Barry Deal, first baseman; and Stan Nirider and Kim Marburger, outfielders.

One other award was handed out at the end of the season. Tom Singer was voted the Team Clown — an honorary title because of his inspiration for fellow players during the season.

Title Bent Kettering Falls, 4-0

If Waterford Kettering's diamond dwellers look mean these days there's a good reason for it.

Tied for first in the Wayne-Oakland loop and holding a piece of the league championship, Waterford took on Northville's varsity nine last week in a make-up game. And when the smoke had cleared, the Mustangs were clutching their 10th league victory of the season while Kettering found itself chopped down to second place in the final W-O standings.

Milford players couldn't be happier over Northville's 4-0 triumph over Waterford. The Redskins took undisputed possession of first place and claimed the league title with a record of 12 wins and two losses.

Second-place Kettering finished the season at 11-3, while Northville took third at 10-4.

The Mustangs' victory in the final game of the season was especially sweet because the two teams had battled to a 3-3 tie in 11 innings earlier in the season. The tie resulted in last week's makeup. In their first game this season, Kettering won in the seventh inning on a homer, 2-1.

Northville's ace hurler, Junior Fred

Holdsworth took credit for the last victory of the season, firing a six-hitter while striking out 12 and walking two.

The Mustangs scored a single run in the first, second, third and sixth Northville School District residents were reminded that the family swim night program at Northville High School's pool ended this Wednesday night and will not be held next week. The program will probably be resumed with the start of school next fall.

innings.

In the first, with two outs, Jeff Taylor drove a ball deep into left field and by the time the leftfielder caught up with it Taylor was already headed from third to home.

Holdsworth singled to center in the second. Craig Turnbull sacrificed him to second, and Bernie Bach laced a single up the middle to score the pitcher.

In the third, Terry Mills singled to left and then stole second. Later he stole third and as Kettering tried to throw him out the ball went wide of the mark and Mills streaked home for the third run.

The last run came in the sixth when Taylor led off with a single to left. Pat Cayley gained first when he was hit by a pitched ball. Taylor advanced to third on a fielder's choice with Cayley being called out at second.

Good Pitching, Poor Fielding

Novi Compiles 11-7 Record

Two losses and a victory, which gave the Wildcats a 11-7 season record, closed out Novi's varsity baseball schedule.

The last game of the season was 6-0 shutout Friday at the hands of Oakland County's top rated team - Waterford Township - in the Pontiac Press Invitational Tournament. It was Novi's first invitation to play in the select tourney.

Despite the loss, Novi's hurler, Lee

Snow, pitched a fine game, giving up only two earned runs, walking four and striking out six.

As was the case throughout the season, however fielding errors proved to be Novi's downfall. The Wildcats picked up five hits and committed an equal number of errors in the field.

Waterford picked up seven hits and committed just one error enroute to its shutout.

Thursday afternoon, Novi cut its fielding errors to one - and came out on top of a 4-0 contest with Detroit Country Day.

Jim Poole fired a three-hitter in taking credit for the victory. He walked three, struck out six. Novi collected six hits.

The red-hot bat of Gary Boyer proved to be Novi's big edge. Boyer collected three hits in four trips to the plate - including a four-bagger to deep right centerfield. Besides his three hits, he batted in three of Novi's four runs.

Livonia Churchill defeated the Wildcats, 4-2, last week Thursday, as Phil McMillan pitched the first six innings and Snow came in to finish the job in the seventh.

Once again fielding errors harassed the Wildcats - four of them this time. And while Novi was collecting seven hits, Livonia was picking up six but making only one error. Each of Novi's errors led to a Livonia run.

Two of Novi's runs came on singles by Bob Vivian and Rick Dale, each of whom stole bases to get themselves into scoring positions.

"We had good strong pitching all through the season," said Coach John Osborn, "and even our hitting was pretty good (team average: .270). But we just didn't have it in the field. That, plus the fact we had too many strikeouts at the end of the season, was our downfall."

Actually, the Wildcats finished the season in just about the "same shape" as last year, he indicated. Finishing the season at 11-7 Friday, Novi put together an 8-4 season last year.

Michigan Tractor Remains Undefeated

Michigan Tractor rolled over Paragon last week Wednesday to maintain its edge in the Red Division of the Novi Little League Majors.

Meanwhile, Rexall Drug is still on top in the Blue Division, while Herb's Standard and Fendt Transit lead in the East and West divisions, respectively, of the Minor League standings.

Randy Selep gave up just two hits - one a double off the bat of Tom Hardecki - to spark Michigan Tractor to its 6-1 victory over Paragon. Three Tractor batters collected doubles for the undefeated winners - Ken Beers, Scott Parsons, and Tim McCaluso. Altogether, Michigan Tractor picked up nine hits.

In other recent action: Novi Rexall barely edged Pink Builders, 9-8, behind the six-hit pitching of Eric Hansor. Hansor helped his own cause by collecting a double and single. Lary Pink and Dave Piotrowicz banged out doubles for the losers.

The second-place Wroten Brothers bombed Carl's X-Way, 22-6, while collecting a total of 20 hits. Winning hurler was Brian Wroten.

Big blows came off the bats of Randy Wroten (one triple), Rick Gault (two triples), Gary Canfield (two doubles), and single two-baggers by Brian and Randy Wroten, Donald Ling, and Kirk Tyler.

Mike Lutman was the winning hurler as General Filters downed B & V Earthmovers, 6-4. While he was giving up four hits, his own squad was picking up only three, including doubles by Terry Connor and Tom Cunningham. Jeff Pickeral doubled for B & V.

Ron Buck smashed a two-run homer and punched out a single but it wasn't enough as Mobarak Jayhawks nipped the Party Store, 5-4. Kevin LaFleche scattered five hits while he and his teammates collected four.

Wroten Brothers also pounded out a 16-7 triumph over the Jayhawks, collecting a total of 14 hits enroute to the victory. Big blows for the winners included a homer off the bat of Randy Wroten and a triple by Tom Tyler. Rick Gault and Brian Wroten each doubled twice.

Craig Love, who picked up one double, was the winning hurler.

Merchants Drop Three

Northville's lone entry in the Class "A" Stan Musial Baseball League at Livonia dropped its first three games in a row - but Manager William Primeau refuses to panic.

A number of college students, who are expected to give the Northville Merchants a big lift, have not yet returned home for the summer vacation, he explained.

In those first three games, Livonia won 7-1; Plymouth took a 6-2 decision; and last year's Class "A" Michigan champions, Redford, whipped the Merchants Sunday, 7-2.

The Merchants face a tough 26-game schedule, Primeau reports, playing against four other squads including Redford, Village Rambler, Plymouth K of C, and Hubert Realty.

Remaining games of the schedule include:

June 8, 3:30, vs. Hubert; June 9, 6 p.m., vs. Plymouth; June 11, 8:30, vs. Redford;

June 15, 3:30, vs. Plymouth; June 16, 6 p.m., vs. Rambler; June 18, 8:30, vs. Hubert; June 22, 3:30, vs. Plymouth;

Thefts Hit Northville

An employee of the Eastlawn Rest Home reported a theft of $210 from her purse.

Rosalyn Kortkin, Detroit, told police she discovered the money missing May 24. She had not checked her wallet since the previous day and could not pinpoint the time the money could have been taken.

Northville Downs was the scene of an attempted forcible entry June 1. The damage was confined to the area of the press boxes.

Louvers were missing from the doors of three rooms and screens had been torn off. Police began a thorough investigation June 2.

Three Northville youths reported property missing from a shed located at 542 Rouge Street. The theft occurred May 31.

Taken from the shed were three transistor radios, a walkie talkie, fire extinguisher, BB gun, suit case, boy scout pack, three fishing rods and reels and three flashlights.

Value of the goods was placed between $125 and $150.

Joseph Vrobo, 24561 Glenda Drive, reported hubcaps missing from his 1964 Cadillac. The theft occurred May 29 while his car was parked on South Center Street.

Two tires and rims were removed from a car owned by Donald H. Sypniewski May 31. The car was parked in the employees parking lot at the Downs.

Sypniewski also reported damage to the rear fender of his car. The total cost of the theft and car damage was placed at $150.

Two wire wheel covers valued at $40 were taken May 30 from a car owned by J. S. Canterbury, 204 Randolph Street.

Northville District Court

Northville Police arrested four persons for drunkenness at Northville Downs this past week.

Albert L. Traywick, Taylor, was arrested May 31 on charges of drunkenness, resisting arrest and violation of city ordinance while attempting to set a fire at the Downs during Saturday night's blackout. He was released on $150 bond and will appear in court June 20.

Paul M. Eldridge, Romulus, was arrested May 31 and charged with drunkenness. He pled guilty to the charge and was sentenced to Detroit House of Correction for 10 days.

Drusey Emma Hutko, Detroit, was arrested by police May 31 and charged with drunkenness. She was released on bond and will appear June 10 in court.

Richard H. Vaughn, arrested May 29 and charged with drunkenness, was released from jail May 30 on $100 cash bond. He will appear in court June 10.

Racing Blacked Out

Electrical Storms Cut Power Twice

Bolts of lightning proved faster than the horses Saturday night as an electrical storm churned over the Downs oval and left the track in pitch darkness to force cancellation of the final race.

Saturday's blackout was one of two to hit the community over the weekend as storms riding on high winds and carrying hints of tornadoes rocked the area, toppling trees, downing wires and scaring the dickens out of many inhabitants.

As the storm moved across Northville Saturday night a bolt of lightning hit a power line and opened the circuit breaker at Garner and Seven Mile Road, disrupting electrical service throughout the city, the northern part of Northville Township and the southern part of Novi.

An estimated 10,000 Detroit Edison Company customers were affected.

Partial power was restored within 40 minutes. But by then most of the 6,280 fans at the Downs had groped their way out of the track grounds. There was no panic, police reported, but for awhile they braced for trouble that failed to materialize when racing fans began burning their racing programs for light.

Police, busy guarding the money windows, spent part of their time stomping out fires.

Torched programs proved to be the least of the police's problems. When the power went so did the radios. One patrol car was quickly called back to the station in order to relay calls to the other car.

Burglar alarms, touched off by broken electrical contacts, sounded in Northville business places and police, working in the dark, had to check out each one to be sure they weren't caused by human hands.

Wires fell across Northville Road and, with the assistance of Plymouth police, Northville patrolmen blocked off the area to traffic until they had been repaired.

It was much of the same the next day — Sunday — when another electrical storm passed through the area. At 4:40 p.m. a wire came down at the rear of 401 Welch Street, police said. The hot line touched a cyclone fence, knocking out power from Randolph Street north into southern Novi.

A traffic jam occurred at Eight Mile and Center when the traffic signal went dead.

Another unconfirmed lightning bolt hit a utility pole near the Clark service station on South Main. No damage was reported.

High winds toppled trees and limbs throughout the area over the weekend but the most extensive property damage because of fallen trees occurred at the Brookland Farms home of the Kenneth Dodds, 44536 Chedworth Court, where a huge tree fell, smashing two corners of the home, and seriously damaging the roof. Rain seeped through the roof causing minor damage inside of the home.

The Dodds were away over the weekend and returned to find the broken results. Despite extensive damage, however, Mrs. Dodds reported they were fortunate. Had they been home and had the tree fallen a foot south it would have smashed into the bedroom where their son sleeps, she said.

Although tornadoes were sighted elsewhere in Michigan as the storms swept across the state, none were spotted here. Weathermen at Detroit Metropolitan Airport reported that the storms carried winds of up to 80 miles per hour in some areas.

DESTRUCTIVE VIEW — A huge tree on the Brookland Farms property of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dodds toppled under the heavy winds of the electrical storm this past weekend, damaging sections of their home. Part of the destruction is seen in this view from the living room of the home.

Novi OKs Subdivision Plat

Acting on the advice of the planning commission, the Novi City Council Monday night approved the final preliminary plat for the proposed 50 acre plus Heatherbrae subdivision at the northwest corner of Meadowbrook and Nine Mile Roads.

Approval was voted by all six councilmen present.

Kaufman & Broad Homes, Inc. proposes to build a 138 home development on the property of the old Durfee farm. To prevent additional water from flowing from the subdivision property into Ingersol Creek, the developer also proposes to construct a weir between a gravel pit lake on the property and the creek.

In granting approval, the council conditioned it on two basic requirements: that the proposed subdivision will not include land within the flood plain, and that before approval of the final plat the city engineers review and approve the flood control plans of the developer relative to Heatherbrae.

A third condition, proposed by Councilman William Duey, was scrapped after considerable council discussion. Specifically, Duey suggested that approval contain the provision that all of Kaufman & Broad's combined property - including two other large parcels north of Heatherbrae - cannot add more water to the creek than is presently entering the stream.

Although plans are incomplete, Kaufman & Broad is considering development of subdivisions on the two remaining parcels of land. The developer has stated that when all three subdivisions are completed, together they will not add more water to the stream than is presently running into it. Duey wanted this statement made a part of the conditioned approval.

DEADLINE FOR CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING
IS 5 P. M. MONDAY

Our want ads are better than ever!
But the deadline for inserting a classified advertisement is also earlier than ever ... Monday at 5 p.m. to be exact.
That's because all our want ads
now appear in four newspapers ...
The Brighton Argus, South Lyon
Herald, Northville Record and Novi
News.

Want ad users get this broad area coverage for a single low rate, 12 words for $1.25 (10 per cent less for cash).

You can place a fast-working, result-producing want ad in The Argus-Record-Herald and News simply by calling 229-9500,
437-2011 or 349-1700.

But remember to do it before 5 p.m. Monday.

IT ONLY TAKES ONE CALL TO PLACE A

John
20:24-30

He marvels at the majesty of the clouds and the vastness of the sky. He thrills at the reflections cast upon the water by the rainbow palette of the setting sun. He is awed, humbled—yet, at the same time, fiercely proud.

His feelings contradict each other. For he knows he is a small creature dwarfed by the overpowering glory of nature, yet, at the same time, a man—a man created in the image of God.

Of course, we all need to be humble, but we also need to be proud. In one sense we are insignificant, and in another we are all-important. The problem lies in finding the proper balance between the two.

To understand the whole man—the all of you, you must turn to His Church where God is forever revealing the mysteries of His universe. Here we are taught truths that have endured throughout the ages. Here we must come if we are to find the proper balance in life.

ST. JOHN'S AMERICAN
LUTHERAN CHUR

from the Pastor's Study

Rev. Father John Wittstock
Our Lady of Victory Church

When the first Russian astronauts circled around in space, they reported on their return that they had seen no sign of God's being up there. Reactions among Christians at the time were quite varied. Some felt that the remark was an insult to God, where He was. Presumably God must be somewhere up there, and the fact that the astronauts did not see Him was no proof at all that He wasn't there.

Other Christians were quick to point out that no one had ever really believed in the "pie in the sky when you die." The Communists were just killing a man of straw who had never existed except in their propaganda. No sensible Christian had ever believed that God was up in the sky somewhere or that heaven was just beyond the stratosphere. These people didn't seem very sure where God or His heaven might be, but they were sure He wasn't in the sky.

Other Christians, more sophisticated, pointed out the imagery of the Bible is like poetry; it is impossible to put the truth of God into human language in any direct kind of way, since it is a mystery beyond all human understanding. These people would say that the picture of Christ ascending in a cloud to the right hand of His Father in heaven is part of the rich poetry of faith.

In spite of all this discussion, we know that Christ's Ascension was a great event and that it really happened; the manner of His Ascension is not important to us; neither are we particularly worried about the Lord's exact address. We are happy to leave much of the argument to the philosophers, theologians and the astronauts.

We can open ourselves to the understanding of the Ascension which comes to us from the Faith of the believing community through the centuries. If we do this, I think we may not be very concerned with the theoretical questions about the location of the Lord and His mansions. In fact, it seems to me that this is the very hard point of the whole story as it has been passed on to us. If we were to spend any more time looking up to heaven, we might even see one of the angels whom the apostles saw; he would have the same message — "Why are you standing here looking into the sky?" If he were a modern angel, he might be telling us, "That's not where the action, don't stand idle!"

The New Testament story, from this point on, tells us of two deep convictions of faith which come from the Ascension of Jesus. The first is that not only has He broken through the barrier of death for us, but that He is now at the right hand of the Father, sharing His power, His love, His concern for His people.

The second conviction of faith which the apostles tell us about in their experience of the Ascension involves the whole direction of their lives. "Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation." These words we find in Mark and Luke. The apostles task was clearly defined, to go and be witnesses of Christ. All of us then being disciples of Christ, are witnesses, too, that somehow, in the loving and caring and deep conviction which men see in us, they may find the presence of the Lord.

Dems Push Soapy For MSU Post

LANSING — Former six-term Gov. G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams has returned to Michigan, and Democratic Party regulars would like nothing better than for him to get the Michigan State University president's job.

No matter what his administrative qualifications, his political background rules him out in the minds of many university academic people whose backs bristle at the suggestion. The issue is not what the background amounts to, but that it exists at all. In general, university people do not want any former governor or other political figure as president of the institution. They prefer a man with a more academic background.

But House Speaker William A. Ryan, D-Detroit, has confirmed persistent talk that Democratic leaders want Williams in the $40,000 per year job in the worst way.

WHETHER THEY get their wish will depend on the MSU Board of Trustees, the unit that must select a permanent replacement to John A. Hannah, who retired last March to become director of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Democrats hold a 5-3 edge on the board but chairman Donald Stevens of Okemos, a staunch Democrat, insists the party label of the man selected won't matter too much.

Trustee Kenneth W. Thompson, Lansing Republican, said he has "no interest in the political affiliation of the candidates. My interest is in securing the best possible president."

Democratic trustee Clair White of Bay City said, "You wouldn't want to ask anyone to accept the presidency of a major university on a straight party line vote."

A 12-member ad hoc faculty-student-alumni selection committee, headed by Prof. Dale Hathaway, is screening candidates for the presidency. It will submit a list of three or more to the trustees this summer.

DR. WALTER ADAMS, an economics professor named acting president on a party-line vote last winter, says he has no desire to stay on the job permanently.

"This isn't my bag," Adams said. "I much prefer the classroom."

Adams reports he will take a sabbatical leave from Michigan State in January to do research and "get some badly needed rest and relaxation."

According to Adams, a college president nowadays "must have the wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job, the strength of Hercules, the constitution of an ox, the energy of a beaver, the leadership of Moses and the chrisma of Christ — besides a distinguished military record."

IN ADDITION to Williams, dozens of names have been suggested as "leading" candidates for the MSU presidency. Most are academicians.

At least five university presidents in Michigan alone have been mentioned. There are James W. Miller, Western Michigan University; William B. Boyd, Central Michigan University; Harold E. Sponberg, Eastern Michigan University; John X. Jamrich, Northern Michigan University, and Durward B. Varner, Oakland University chancellor.

All five have been connected with MSU in the past, with Varner holding the top spot as a vice president to Hannah from 1955 until he went to Oakland as chancellor in 1959.

THE LIST doesn't stop there.

Former Health, Education and Welfare Secretary John W. Gardner has been mentioned as a possibility for every major college presidency to come up since he left the Johnson Administration and the Michigan State vacancy is no exception. Gardner, now head of the Urban Coalition, was reportedly one of the top three candidates for the University of Michigan presidency last year.

And, of course, now that Hubert H. Humphrey is a college professor instead of vice president of the United States, his name has cropped up.

Also included is Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, chancellor of the University of Nebraska for 14 years before going to Washington as cabinet member in January. He was dean of agriculture at MSU in the early 1950s.

Herald's Herald

By MARILYN HERALD

If this is Thursday, it must be only a week until school's out and graduation activities overtake us. It's the coward's way out to take to your bed and feign illness for the next three months.

Brace yourselves mothers, winter vacation on the home front is nearly over and summer torment is about to begin. The daily routine of late sleeping youngsters and the cafeteria style kitchen which causes that summer syndrome, the frustrated mother, is about to appear on the land.

We probably never appreciate the teachers who, nine months of the year, wrestle with our little darlings or demons, as the case may be, nearly as much as when we are forced to take up the tussle ourselves — 24 hours a day.

Babson Report

Facsimile Transmission Boom Seen

WELLESLEY HILLS, Massachusetts — The sending of information in printed form or handwritten over microwave, satellite, radio, or privately leased telephone lines — facsimile transmission — has long been used by newspapers, wire services, magazines, and government bureaus. However, the recent development of simpler units over which data can be sent and received over the ordinary public telephone system (for the cost of a regular telephone call plus equipment rental charges) opens up an entirely new and promising area for business information. Babson's Reports expects an explosive growth, in time, comparable to the office copier boom.

Because of technological breakthroughs, in the form of the Transceiver (a combination transmitter-receiver) and a Dataphone which can provide automatic answering there is an almost unlimited range of applications from engineering drawings, medical records, criminal identifications to simple letters and customer orders.

In addition, the declining costs of transmission from six to three minutes and soon to one minute of time plus the drop in rental charges to as low as $65 monthly open up a vast market. At present there are fewer than 20,000 facsimile systems in operation but only 4,000 of them are currently for business correspondence. Industry estimates look for the sale of at least 100,000 units within the next three years and one fledgling manufacturer sees a total market of 500,000 machines during the next 10 years.

A service or ancillary network has sprung up where individuals and companies not owning the necessary facsimile equipment can send their documents at a charge ranging from $2.50 to $8.95 per page. Already several companies have set up operation. These firms lease or buy the various facsimile equipment now on the market and, in turn license

If you have both teenagers and small fry, it's difficult to decide if you're twice blessed or just in double jeopardy. Generally, the battle lines are drawn on the first day of vacation and the conflict rages throughout the summer, with mother the unofficial and unsuccessful arbitrator.

The battle between the roadrace in the basement and the TV on the main floor seems like a little thing but when the motor noises reverberate through the picture tube and the screaming of the kids rings through your head, you long for the cold winter days with the younger generation nicely tied down to their school desks.

For those of us who are working mothers — away from home, as opposed to those who work twice as hard at home — the problem is a mathematical one. Multiply the number of offspring by the number of the days you work, add the neighborhood playmates, subtract the dog and cats, divide by a baby sitter and you have an undecipherable exercise. It's like trying to teach modern math to an advocate of the old school type readin', writin', and 'rithmetic.

All I require of my baby sitter, who incidentally just happens to be one of our teenagers, is to watch her little brother for signs of poison ivy, cut lip, or scraped knees, vacuum the floors, keep ahead of the cookie jar raiders, be absolutely certain the dishes are washed before I walk in the door at night and of course, start supper. Is it any wonder that she too is looking for an outside job?

Of course there are very few jobs like hers that allow for sleeping late, reading all morning and rushing through the chores in that final hour before the dinner bell is due to toll. The pay may be bad but the working conditions can't be beat.

If she plays her cards right, she can even make a reciprocal agreement with a neighbor to watch her brother, so that a swimming date or shopping can be fitted into the jigsaw puzzle of her day.

Addressograph-Multigraph and Magnavox for purchase, primarily for their competence and success in their respective industries. Magnavox's pioneering efforts in facsimile transmission began with its early entry into document storage and retrieval and remote copy equipment. It is believed that Magnavox (along with Xerox) is probably one of the few companies making money in facsimile transmission equipment.

Addressograph-Multigraph, with revitalized management, has a solidly-based office equipment mix. A-M enjoys a prestige position in the field and has developed several new highly promising types of copier/duplicator equipment. Its forthcoming Telikon facsimile device is expected to be marketed in late 1969 or early 1970 and could readily contribute to earnings soon thereafter. Both companies offer investors a position in growing segments of our economy.

what's a funny place for a phone?

That depends on your sense of humor. If interrupting your washing or ironing to rush upstairs to answer the telephone leaves you breathless, then an extension telephone makes good sense.

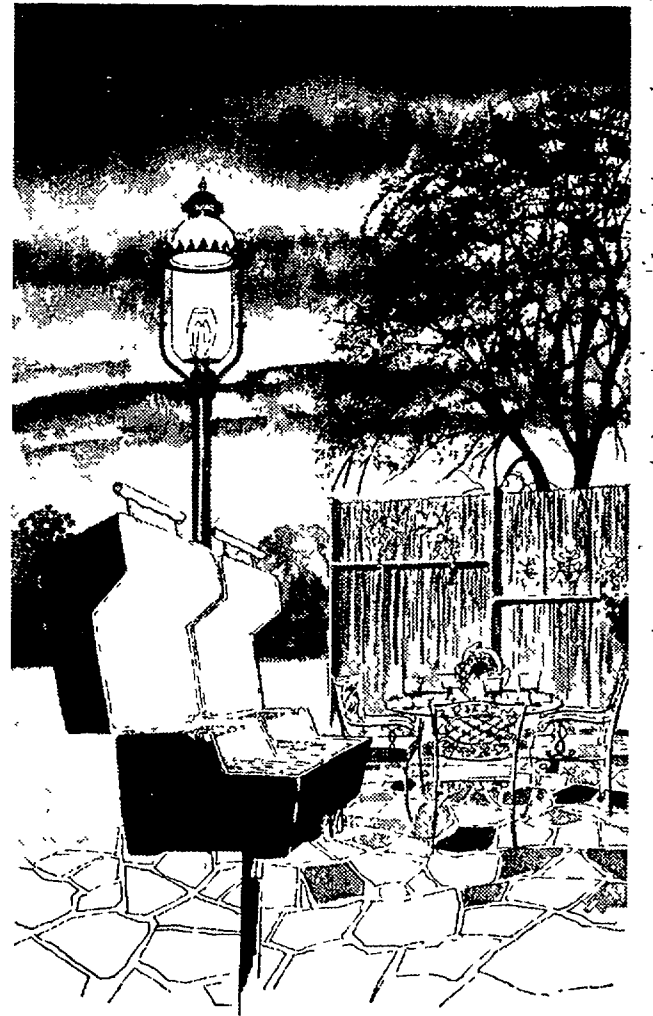

An extension telephone saves steps and lets you do your telephoning from where you are. You can select from many smart styles and decorative colors.

Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can have an extension telephone in any funny old place you'd like.

He marvels at the majesty of the clouds and the vastness of the sky. He thrills at the reflections cast upon the water by the rainbow palette of the setting sun. He is awed, humbled—yet, at the same time, fiercely proud.

His feelings contradict each other. For he knows he is a small creature dwarfed by the overpowering glory of nature, yet, at the same time, a man—a man created in the image of God.

Of course, we all need to be humble, but we also need to be proud. In one sense we are insignificant, and in another we are all-important. The problem lies in finding the proper balance between the two.

To understand the whole man—the all of you, you must turn to His Church where God is forever revealing the mysteries of His universe. Here we are taught truths that have endured throughout the ages. Here we must come if we are to find the proper balance in life.

Rev. Father John Wittstock
Our Lady of Victory Church

When the first Russian astronauts circled around in space, they reported on their return that they had seen no sign of God's being up there. Reactions among Christians at the time were quite varied. Some felt that the remark was an insult to God, where He was. Presumably God must be somewhere up there, and the fact that the astronauts did not see Him was no proof at all that He wasn't there.

Other Christians were quick to point out that no one had ever really believed in the "pie in the sky when you die." The Communists were just killing a man of straw who had never existed except in their propaganda. No sensible Christian had ever believed that God was up in the sky somewhere or that heaven was just beyond the stratosphere. These people didn't seem very sure where God or His heaven might be, but they were sure He wasn't in the sky.

Other Christians, more sophisticated, pointed out the imagery of the Bible is like poetry; it is impossible to put the truth of God into human language in any direct kind of way, since it is a mystery beyond all human understanding. These people would say that the picture of Christ ascending in a cloud to the right hand of His Father in heaven is part of the rich poetry of faith.

In spite of all this discussion, we know that Christ's Ascension was a great event and that it really happened; the manner of His Ascension is not important to us; neither are we particularly worried about the Lord's exact address. We are happy to leave much of the argument to the philosophers, theologians and the astronauts.

We can open ourselves to the understanding of the Ascension which comes to us from the Faith of the believing community through the centuries. If we do this, I think we may not be very concerned with the theoretical questions about the location of the Lord and His mansions. In fact, it seems to me that this is the very hard point of the whole story as it has been passed on to us. If we were to spend any more time looking up to heaven, we might even see one of the angels whom the apostles saw; he would have the same message — "Why are you standing here looking into the sky?" If he were a modern angel, he might be telling us, "That's not where the action, don't stand idle!"

The New Testament story, from this point on, tells us of two

deep convictions of faith which come from the Ascension of Jesus. The first is that not only has He broken through the barrier of death for us, but that He is now at the right hand of the Father, sharing His power, His love, His concern for His people.

The second conviction of faith which the apostles tell us about in their experience of the Ascension involves the whole direction of their lives. "Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation." These words we find in Mark and Luke. The apostles task was clearly defined, to go and be witnesses of Christ. All of us then being disciples of Christ, are witnesses, too, that somehow, in the loving and caring and deep conviction which men see in us, they may find the presence of the Lord.

Dems Push Soapy For MSU Post

LANSING — Former six-term Gov. G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams has returned to Michigan, and Democratic Party regulars would like nothing better than for him to get the Michigan State University president's job.

No matter what his administrative qualifications, his political background rules him out in the minds of many university academic people whose backs bristle at the suggestion. The issue is not what the background amounts to, but that it exists at all. In general, university people do not want any former governor or other political figure as president of the institution. They prefer a man with a more academic background.

But House Speaker William A. Ryan, D-Detroit, has confirmed persistent talk that Democratic leaders want Williams in the $40,000 per year job in the worst way.

WHETHER THEY get their wish will depend on the MSU Board of Trustees, the unit that must select a permanent replacement to John A. Hannah, who retired last March to become director of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Democrats hold a 5-3 edge on the board but chairman Donald Stevens of Okemos, a staunch Democrat, insists the party label of the man selected won't matter too much.

Trustee Kenneth W. Thompson, Lansing Republican, said he has "no interest in the political affiliation of the candidates. My interest is in securing the best possible president."

Democratic trustee Clair White of Bay City said: "You wouldn't want to ask anyone to accept the presidency of a major university on a straight party line vote."

A 12-member ad hoc faculty-student-alumni selection committee, headed by Prof. Dale Hathaway, is screening candidates for the presidency. It will submit a list of three or more to the trustees this summer.

DR. WALTER ADAMS, an economics professor named acting president on a party-line vote last winter, says he has no desire to stay on the job permanently.

"This isn't my bag," Adams said. "I much prefer the classroom."

Adams reports he will take a sabbatical leave from Michigan State in January to do research and "get some badly needed rest and relaxation."

According to Adams, a college president nowadays "must have the wisdom of Solomon, the patience of Job, the strength of Hercules, the constitution of an ox, the energy of a beaver, the leadership of Moses and the charisma of Christ — besides a distinguished military record."

IN ADDITION to Williams, dozens of names have been suggested as "leading" candidates for the MSU presidency. Most are academicians.

At least five university presidents in Michigan alone have been mentioned. There are James W. Miller, Western Michigan University; William B. Boyd, Central Michigan University; Harold E. Sponberg, Eastern Michigan University; John X. Jamrich, Northern Michigan University, and Durward B. Varner, Oakland University chancellor.

All five have been connected with MSU in the past, with Varner holding the top spot as a vice president to Hannah from 1955 until he went to Oakland as chancellor in 1959.

THE LIST doesn't stop there.

Former Health, Education and Welfare Secretary John W. Gardner has been mentioned as a possibility for every major college presidency to come up since he left the Johnson Administration and the Michigan State vacancy is no exception. Gardner, now head of the Urban Coalition, was reportedly one of the top three candidates for the University of Michigan presidency last year.

And, of course, now that Hubert H. Humphrey is a college professor instead of vice president of the United States, his name has cropped up.

Also included is Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, chancellor of the University of Nebraska for 14 years before going to Washington as cabinet member in January. He was dean of agriculture at MSU in the early 1950s.

Herald's Herald

By MARILYN HERALD

If this is Thursday, it must be only a week until school's out and "graduation activities overtake us. It's the coward's way out to take to your bed and feign illness for the next three months.

Brace yourselves mothers, winter vacation on the home front is nearly over and summer torment is about to begin. The daily routine of late sleeping youngsters and the cafeteria style kitchen which causes that summer syndrome, the frustrated mother, is about to appear on the land.

We probably never appreciate the teachers who, nine months of the year, wrestle with our little darlings or demons, as the case may be, nearly as much as when we are forced to take up the tussle ourselves — 24 hours a day.

Babson Report

Facsimile Transmission Boom Seen

WELLESLEY HILLS, Massachusetts — The sending of information in printed form or handwritten over microwave, satellite, radio, or privately leased telephone lines — facsimile transmission — has long been used by newspapers, wire services, magazines, and government bureaus. However, the recent development of simpler units over which data can be sent and received over the ordinary public telephone system (for the cost of a regular telephone call plus equipment rental charges) opens up an entirely new and promising area for business information. Babson's Reports expects an explosive growth, in time, comparable to the office copier boom.

Because of technological breakthroughs, in the form of the Transceiver (a combination transmitter-receiver) and a Dataphone which can provide automatic answering there is an almost unlimited range of applications from engineering drawings, medical records, criminal identifications to simple letters and customer orders.

In addition, the declining costs of transmission from six to three minutes and soon to one minute of time plus the drop in rental charges to as low as $65 monthly open up a vast market. At present there are fewer than 20,000 facsimile systems in operation but only 4,000 of them are currently for business correspondence. Industry estimates look for the sale of at least 100,000 units within the next three years and one fledgling manufacturer sees a total market of 500,000 machines during the next 10 years.

A service or ancillary network has sprung up where individuals and companies not owning the necessary facsimile equipment can send their documents at a charge ranging from $2.50 to $8.95 per page. Already several companies have set up operation. These firms lease or buy the various facsimile equipment now on the market and, in turn license

If you have both teenagers and small fry, it's difficult to decide if you're twice blessed or just in double jeopardy. Generally, the battle lines are drawn on the first day of vacation and the conflict rages throughout the summer, with mother the unofficial and unsuccessful arbitrator.

The battle between the roadrace in the basement and the TV on the main floor seems like a little thing but when the motor noises reverberate through the picture tube and the screaming of the kids rings through your head, you long for the cold winter days with the younger generation nicely tied down to their school desks.

For those of us who are working mothers — away from home, as opposed to those who work twice as hard at home — the problem is a mathematical one. Multiply the number of offspring by the number of the days you work, add the neighborhood playmates, subtract the dog and cats, divide by a baby sitter and you have an undecipherable exercise. It's like trying to teach modern math to an advocate of the old school type readin', writin', and 'rithmetic.

All I require of my baby sitter, who incidentally just happens to be one of our teenagers, is to watch her little brother for signs of poison ivy, cut lip, or scraped knees, vacuum the floors, keep ahead of the cookie jar raiders, be absolutely certain the dishes are washed before I walk in the door at night and of course, start supper. Is it any wonder that she too is looking for an outside job?

Of course there are very few jobs like hers that allow for sleeping late, reading all morning and rushing through the chores in that final hour before the dinner bell is due to toll. The pay may be bad but the working conditions can't be beat.

If she plays her cards right, she can even make a reciprocal agreement with a neighbor to watch her brother, so that a swimming date or shopping can be fitted into the jigsaw puzzle of her day.

Addressograph-Multigraph and Magnavox for purchase, primarily for their competence and success in their respective industries. Magnavox's pioneering efforts in facsimile transmission began with its early entry into document storage and retrieval and remote copy equipment. It is believed that Magnavox (along with Xerox) is probably one of the few companies making money in facsimile transmission equipment.

Addressograph-Multigraph, with revitalized management, has a solidly-based office equipment mix. A-M enjoys a prestige position in the field and has developed several new highly promising types of copier/duplicator equipment. Its forthcoming Teikon facsimile device is expected to be marketed in late 1969 or early 1970 and could readily contribute to earnings soon thereafter. Both companies offer investors a position in growing segments of our economy.

That depends on your sense of humor. If interrupting your washing or ironing to rush upstairs to answer the telephone leaves you breathless, then an extension telephone makes good sense.

An extension telephone saves steps and lets you do your telephoning from where you are. You can select from many smart styles and decorative colors.

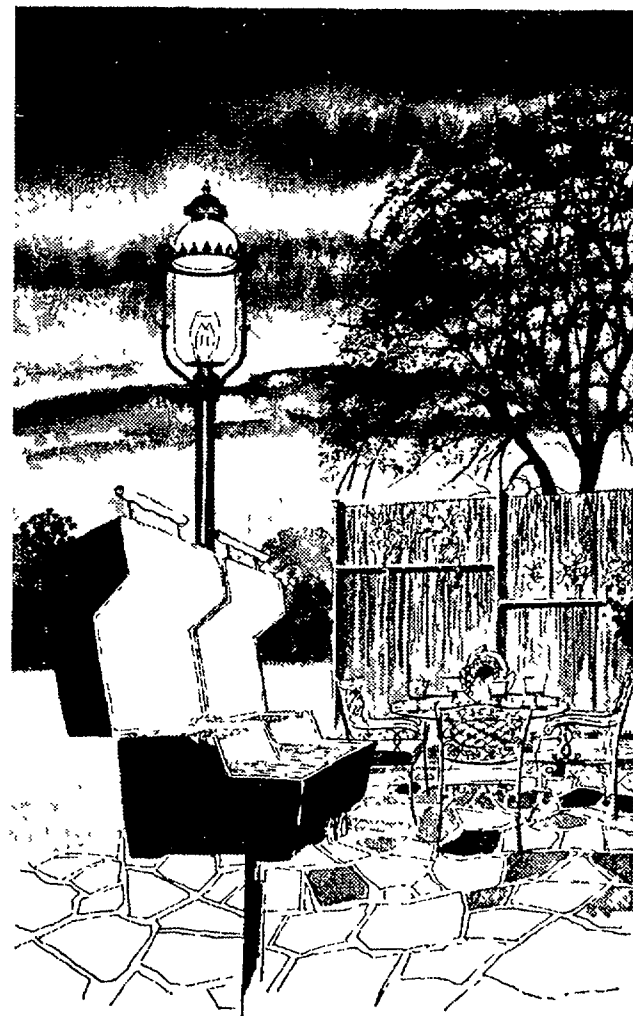

Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can have an extension telephone in any funny old place you'd like.

Newspaper Gap Bridged By Douglas

Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas doesn't know it but indirectly he's helped make The Northville Record's special centennial edition a little more complete.

For the past several months staffers at The Record have been trying to obtain a picture of one of the newspaper's former publishers — Frank S. Neal, who owned and published the newspaper for 28 years from 1891 to 1919.

Although the late Mr. Neal owned the newspaper longer than any of its publishers over its 100 year history, a picture of him was unavailable locally. Efforts to locate his son, Fred Warner Neal, in hopes of obtaining a picture, were unsuccessful. No one knew where the son lived.

Then, a week ago, as Justice Douglas came under fire for his paid position as president-director of the Albert Parvin Foundation, it was announced that Fred Warner Neal, professor of international relations at the Claremont Graduate School in Claremont, California, would succeed him.

Because it seemed unlikely that there could be more than one Fred Warner Neal in the nation, The Record called California and, sure enough, it was the former publisher's son who had himself worked at The Record years ago, graduated from the University of Michigan, edited the university newspaper, and later became a Washington correspondent for The Wall Street Journal.

Delighted to hear about The Record's upcoming (July 15) 100th birthday edition, Professor Neal agreed to send pictures of his father and his own recollections of newspapering in Northville.

Professor Neal was named after Governor Fred W. Warner of Farmington, whose candidacy was inspired by the The Record publisher, F. S. Neal, who served two terms in the Michigan Legislature while publisher, served Governor Warner as his private secretary.

It was largely through the efforts of F. S. Neal that the old East Michigan Press Association was organized. This association later became the Michigan State Press Association, today one of the most prominent press associations in the nation.

The former publisher died on November 13, 1928; his wife succeeded him in death in the Forties.

Several other area residents recognized Fred Warner Neal's name in connection with his newest appointment. Among them was Orlo Owens of Northville, who called The Record, to mention that Professor Neal was once a member of his Boy Scout Troop and the first Eagle Scout of the community.

Mrs. Sterling Eaton of Plymouth, widow of "another" former Record publisher, was in New York City at the time the announcement was made of Neal's appointment and recognized the name while reading The New York Times.

Professor Neal, who at one time was consultant in Russian affairs for the State Department, announced upon his appointment:

"Under Justice Douglas's direction, the Parvin Foundation already has made outstanding contributions to understanding the complexities of international relations and to the promotion of democratic ideals."

He said the primary objective of the foundation is to help produce leaders in the under-developed nations committed to a democratic society and to peaceful solution of international conflicts.

Deadline for ordering a copy of the 100-page plus centennial edition is June 15. Subscribers of The Record will receive a free copy but others must order their copy at $1 each.
