

Record Wins Top State Award

The Northville Record has been judged the best Michigan weekly newspaper in its circulation class, according to an announcement of the Michigan Press Association this week.

Placing second in the coveted general excellence category of the annual Michigan newspaper contest was The Record's sister newspaper, The South Lyon Herald. The Michigan Press Association has a membership of 283 weekly newspapers in addition to 56 dailies.

Announcement of the winning 1969 newspapers was timed this year to coincide with National Newspaper Week (October 5-11).

By placing first in general excellence, The Record was judged as being the best all-around weekly newspaper in reporting, pictures, editorial page, advertising and appearance.

Judges for this year's contest, which involved reviewing numerous samples of competing Michigan newspapers, were professional newspapermen from the New England states.

In addition to winning the top state prize — a handsome engraved plaque, The Record also copped two awards in individual categories. It won first place for news reporting and third for use of pictures. The South Lyon Herald placed second in use of pictures.

A consistent winner at least in one category or another over the years, The Record last year was one of six Michigan weekly newspapers to win three awards. It was judged second in news reporting, second in use of pictures, and third in advertising idea of the year (a color supplement of the Northville Downs' 25th anniversary).

The South Lyon Herald, which this year competed in the same circulation class of The Record, won first place in general excellence last year while competing with newspapers in its then smaller circulation class.

The Novi News, another of the four newspapers owned by publisher William Sliger, took first place in news reporting a year ago. The Brighton Argus, purchased earlier this year by Sliger, was not entered in this year's contest.

Jack Hoffman, assistant to the publisher, eyes The Record General Excellence plaque, highest honor awarded in the Michigan Press Association weekly newspaper contest for 1969.

NEWS BRIEFS

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED in separate automobile accidents involving area motorists this past week. Cary D. Wiley, 18, of Pontiac was fatally injured late Friday afternoon when the car in which he was riding was struck head on by a car, driven by Richard R. Middaugh, 20, of Northville, on Pontiac Trail in Lyon Township. Four persons, including Middaugh, were injured in the crash. In the other collision, Monday morning, Mrs. Pearl Unger, 66, of Livonia, was killed when her car collided with a car driven by Paul P. Pierce, 27, of Wixom. The crash, which occurred at Pontiac Trail and Seven Mile Road, injured three other persons including Pierce.

SITE PLAN HEARING on the proposed Chatham Food Center supermarket, to be located on the west side of Center Street north of Rayson, will be held Tuesday evening at a meeting of the city planning commission. Rezoning to accommodate the new store was approved by the council last week upon the recommendation of the planners.

THE CONTROVERSIAL Central Business District (CBD) and Central Business Parking (CBP) plans, for which public hearings already have been held, will come up for city council discussion and possible decision Monday night. The plans were last aired publicly two months ago at which time some citizens voiced strong objections. Even some Councilmen voiced reservations about parts of the two plans recommended for approval by the city planning commission. City Manager Frank Ollendorff is hopeful a decision will be made Monday but that decision's no certainty.

WHEN TOWNSHIP VOTERS go to the polls in a special December election not all will be able to vote on both propositions appearing on the paper ballots. Attorney John Ashton has noted that only property owners will be able to vote on the question of providing money for park land acquisition and development, while all registered electors will be able to vote on the zoning matter concerning recent action of the township board to rezone residential property to an industrial classification near Haggerty Road. "Yes" votes will uphold the board's rezoning action and permit the township to levy 2 mills for park land purchase (Maybury property) and development.

Firemen, Engines to Strut Stuff

A giant fire truck parade, exhibit and a colorful program will emphasize Fire Prevention Week in Northville next week Wednesday, it was announced Monday.

Firemen and fire equipment from more than nine communities are expected to participate.

According to department officials, the parade will be kicked off at 7 p.m. with the screaming of the Northville fire alarm whistle. Men and trucks will parade through the community, eventually ending up at the Northville race track parking lot.

Feature programs at Northville Downs will include a tug of war between departments and a "water barrel" contest. More than a dozen pieces of fire-fighting equipment, including Salem Township's new fire truck and Plymouth's huge aerial ladder truck are expected to be on hand.

Already scheduled to participate, with other department commitments expected soon, are Northville, South Lyon, Salem, City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Whitmore Lake-Northfield Township, Canton and Superior townships, the mutual aid fire squad, truck ambulance and queen out of Garden City, and the Detroit Box 42 Club of Detroit.

The latter organization will bring along its 1929 American LaFrance fire engine.

Adding incentive to the tug of war battles will be the "curtain of water" separating contestants. The "water barrel" contest will pit skills of firemen in concentrating streams of water on a moving target — a barrel attached to a cable.

Spectators will be able to inspect equipment and ask questions concerning fire fighting techniques.

Bid Opening Set

A special meeting of the Northville Board of Education will be held Monday, October 6, at 8 p.m., at the Board of Education Offices, 303 West Main Street.

Bids for purchase of $510,000 in tax anticipation notes will be opened and the loan holder and interest rate will be approved by the board.

Oldford Modifies Request

Shopping Centers Vie For Seven Mile Sites

Slapped down earlier by the Northville Township Planning Commission, the original rezoning request of Stewart Oldford & Sons was modified Tuesday night as the developer scratched multiple housing from the proposal leaving only his 12-acre shopping center plan.

Meanwhile, still another — and much larger shopping center proposal — was submitted to the planners, following the hearing on Oldford's request, by Levitt & Sons. This latter proposal (see related story) calls for a development a few hundred feet east of Oldford's proposal. It necessitates the rezoning of 33 acres of land from multiple housing to a business classification.

Specifically, Oldford now seeks only the rezoning of the front portion of the 30-acre Freydl property, located on the south side of Seven Mile Road adjacent to the east edge of the C&O Railroad, from industry to business. Originally, his request asked also that the back portion of the property be rezoned from industry to a multiple housing classification. He now proposes to retain the existing industrial classification in the rear half of the property for development as an industrial subdivision.

Oldford's initial request for a public hearing on the zoning matter was denied by the planners, but the township board, after hearing a plea from the developer, ordered the planners to conduct the hearing.

That hearing was held Tuesday night in the Northville Board of Education offices because of the large turnout of citizens, most of whom defended Oldford's plan and urged approval of his request.

Following a review of the plan by Oldford's attorney, James Ginn, and supporting comment by citizens — most of whom live in the neighboring Kings Mill townhouses development, the commission adjourned the matter for study and indicated it would make a decision October 28.

Only objection to Oldford's request came from Thomas L. Diak, manager of the C&O industrial development department, who, in a letter, urged the commission to disapprove the request because "the Seven Mile Road parcel is about the only one remaining in Northville of substantial size that can be developed with rail siding."

During his presentation, Ginn repeatedly emphasized that his client's proposed shopping center development represents an immediate tax base benefit to the community as opposed to possible, long range future industrial development. The shopping center would produce more tax dollars than would industry on the same site, he said.

Need for industrial tax base, traffic hazard potential near the railroad, and Oldford's multiple housing proposal for the rear of the property were among the reasons the commission cited in originally denying a hearing request.

Shopping Center Mall on 33 Acres

A shopping mall involving a supermarket, department store, soft goods and service stores, a bank, possibly a theatre, and an office complex are contemplated for a 33-acre site in the rezoning request of Levitt & Sons, it was disclosed Tuesday night.

The property, located east of the proposed Stuart Oldford & Sons development on the same side of Seven Mile Road, is owned by William B. Walker. It includes more than 1,000 front feet along Seven Mile Road, and extends south 1,385 feet.

Levitt seeks a zoning change from the existing multiple housing classification to a business zone. The request has been scheduled for public hearing October 28 — same night in which planners are scheduled to make their recommendation on the Oldford rezoning request.

Representatives of Levitt, developer of the proposed giant residential subdivision on the opposite side of Seven Mile Road and stretching all the way to Eight Mile, indicated the proposed shopping mall would be built and completed by late 1971 or early 1972. A subsidiary of Levitt would build the center.

No specific tenants for the center were mentioned in Tuesday's discussion, although it was noted that the supermarket would be operated by a food chain on the order of Wrigleys. Only indication as to size of the buildings on the site was a statement that the department store would probably represent 100,000 square feet of floor space.

The center, according to representatives of Levitt, would be unique in that it would leave virtually undisturbed a wooded area, stream and a swamp. Development, it was stated, would utilize this natural landscape for enhancing the center's beauty. Each building would have its own design.

Interestingly, both Oldford and Levitt propose banks in their developments. It's a foregone conclusion both see the National Bank of Detroit, now located in temporary quarters on the north side of Seven Mile Road, as the tenant.

School Enrollment Soars at D-Day

D-day, the official count day of students in school districts, showed Northville with an enrollment of 3,120 and Novi with 1,710 students as of Friday, September 26.

D-day totals for the 1968-69 school year listed 2,805 students in Northville and 1,567 in Novi.

Breakdown by schools in Northville shows Amerman Elementary with 455 students; Main Street Elementary, 491; Moraine Elementary, 440; Cooke Junior High, 737; and Northville Senior, 997.

In Novi, Novi Elementary has 422 students enrolled, Orchard Hills Elementary, 536; Novi junior and senior high combined, 752.

During the 1968-69 school year, Northville gained 32 students after the official count day — meaning they will receive their schooling without the benefit of state aid. Novi added 40 students to their classes after D-day.

Both superintendents, Raymond Spear in Northville, and Thomas Dale in Novi, said students would be enrolling throughout the remainder of the school year. Dale indicated about 100 students would be added to Novi's enrollment as new homes were completed and occupied.

When confronted with the possibility of Plymouth Schools receiving state aid even though the teachers' strike was not settled until early Saturday morning, after the count day, both superintendents said they felt Plymouth would receive their state aid.

Spear said "If Plymouth gets their state aid, I don't care if their count day is Monday, Friday, or a month from now, I'm going to demand state aid for the students we have enrolled between the official count day and Plymouth's count day."

"I'm going to urge other school districts to do the same," he added.

Dale said the law states count day "is the fourth Friday following Labor Day. The State Legislature or the Department of Education will decide if Plymouth gets their state aid.

"It is not fair that we (Novi) will educate 100 students without state aid because they came in after the count day," he continued.

"There are laws against teacher's striking," Spear said, "yet they (the courts) allow them to strike. There is also a law about the official count day. If they do not enforce it, what is the use of having it on the books?"

If Plymouth gets their allotted nearly $2 million in state aid, there are likely to be fireworks from many Michigan school districts, including Northville and Novi, officials agree.

about Women and the family

'Body Showing' Fashions Seen

This year, Ladies, "Your Body Is Showing" as fashions for fall and winter are cut closer to the body.

That's the fashion news outlined at a J. L. Hudson Company Westland fashion show last Friday to which area press women were invited. As longer, belted jackets appeared on suits and favorite shirtdress looks returned, the audience noted that skirts stayed above the knee.

Miss Patricia Papson, Hudson fashion coordinator who spoke here last season to Northville Women's Club, and Peggy Matthews, Midwest editor of Mademoiselle magazine, however, pointed out that women "do not have to be hemmed in" by skirt lengths as maxi coats to wear with pants or short dresses are being sold. (At least one has been seen here - at PTA!)

Underfashions to go with the closer-cut look were shown in shades from rouge pink to cafe au lait to Pucci prints that actually are adaptations of paintings.

Trends particularly stressed:

- Shoes with "up-front" styling and higher heels for daytime.

- Pewter gray shades - one tweed suit was accessorized with an applause-getting red fox fur hat.

- Scarves are used in all shapes.

- Lots of rings, on all fingers.

- Ropes of pearls are prime accessories, in grays and colors, as well as whites.

- Look-of-metal necklaces - big!

- Stockings and shoes blend.

- Black velvet is elegant, especially trimmed in gold

- Non-cling tricot and taffeta slips are here.

Models wore the new girdles that hold stockings without garters. The audience was assured that the bands of clear, colorless adhesive on the legs will hold - it's the type used to hold airplanes together.

LWV to Air Electoral College

The electoral college system and such proposed reforms as direct election of the president will be the topic of the next general meeting of the Northville-Plymouth area provisional League of Women Voters at 8 p.m., Wednesday, October 8, in the Nautical Room of Schoolcraft College.

The local LWV Electoral College committee, headed by Mrs. Elden Biery, will present a history of the electoral college system and analyze proposed reform programs, including the automatic plan, the district plan, the proportional system and direct popular election of the president.

Following the presentation members will take a consensus on whether they feel a change is needed in electing the president and vice-president and, if so, which method they prefer.

MRS. DONALD E. VOUGHT

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Northern Michigan

Mr and Mrs. Donald E. Vought are honeymooning in northern Michigan following their marriage September 27 at St. Joseph Church in South Lyon.

The bride is the former Debra Ann Holman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman of 512 Whipple, South Lyon. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Vought of Brighton.

Father Edmund Battersby conducted the noon wedding rites before the altar decorated with white carnations and gladioli. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Donald Burns at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin A-line, empire style gown trimmed with lace, and a matching mantilla veil. Her cascade bouquet was of white roses and carnations.

Denise Holman was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was blue chiffon designed with an A-line skirt, empire waist and white lace bodice and sleeves. She carried a nosegay of blue carnations.

Judy Vought of Brighton, sister of the bridegroom, and Cathleen Mapes of Northville, cousin of the bride, were the bridesmaids. Their pink gowns were designed identically to that of the maid of honor and they carried pink carnation nosegays.

Carla Schronce, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl with Jerry Wick, cousin of the bride, as ring bearer. Miss Schronce was dressed similarly to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of pink carnations.

Richard Nefske of Milford was the best man. Serving as ushers were David Vought of Brighton, brother of the groom, and Donald Holman of South Lyon, brother of the bride.

The reception for 150 guests was held in the VFW Hall in South Lyon.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Vought chose a navy blue and white dress with navy accessories.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of South Lyon High School and the groom a 1965 graduate of Brighton High.

The couple will reside in Missouri until he receives his Army discharge in December.

Linda French Married Here

Linda Jane French became the bride of Donald Robert Kushmaul in a late-afternoon ceremony before their immediate families last Friday at Northville Presbyterian Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey French of Quince Drive, Novi, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length dress of off-white, sheer wool. It was sleeveless with an empire bodice.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robert Kushmaul, 47131 Chugwidden. Cynthia Kaye was honor maid. Thomas Peterson served as best man.

After a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will be making their home in Ypsilanti where both plan to attend Eastern Michigan University. Both are 1967 Northville High School graduates.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

TWO DATES for events to which everyone in the community is invited have just been entered on the fast-filling fall-into-winter calendar.

Mothers' Club annual Candlelight Dinner-Dance is set for November 8 at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth

Northville Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association has reserved Saturday, December 5, for a holiday flower show and sale to be held in the VFW hall.

Again this year the Mother's Club dance will be a benefit for the Cavern teen club. Mrs. James Tellam and Mrs. Samuel McSeveny, co-chairmen, have signed Phil Cole's five-piece orchestra to play for the dancing.

A new feature this year will be hot hors d'oeuvres served at the "congeniality hour" before the sit-down dinner.

Mrs. William Davis and Mrs. Herbert Weston are in charge of decorations. Mrs. Harold Wright, assisted by Mrs. Robert Bogart, is ticket chairman. She reports that tickets for the benefit, at $20 a couple, will be available in a few days.

Next regular Mothers' Club meeting will be a business session at 8 p.m. October 13 with Mrs. Robert Boshoven, 900 West Main. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Leroy Ordning and Mrs. E. O. Weber.

The club announced new members at its opening meeting last week. Mrs. Earle McIntosh, who has just moved from Woodhill Road to a new home on Curtis Road, and Mrs. Edward Kelly are new members. Mrs. Bogart returned to active membership. They replace Mrs. Donald Schwendemann, who with her family moved to a waterfront home on St. Clair River Drive in Algonac last summer as her husband is in business in Marine City, and Mrs. John Walker, whose new home is Hohokus, New Jersey, as her husband is a Manhattan commuter.

(We had never heard of Hohokus until Barbara chose it as the family's future home, but since then it was mentioned as the home town of an astronaut's wife, the location of a Holiday magazine recommended restaurant, and the next-door-neighbor of Ridgewood, the affluent suburb featured by the Wall Street Journal.)

"DECK THE HALLS" - the garden club flower show and sale December 5 is open to the public - for anyone interested to attend and also to enter flower exhibits in the show. Mrs. H. J. Frogner is in charge of show arrangements while Mrs. Donald A. Ware heads the sale section. Doors at the VFW will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Donation is 50 cents. Demonstrations are planned.

Show categories will include dried as well as fresh arrangements. The sale "boutique" will have a kitchen cupboard, a knitted-wear booth and dried arrangements.

A NEW antiques group - and possibly two groups - may be formed in Northville soon as a result of the tea that opened the year for the Base Line Chapter of Questers last week. The chapter invited 15 antiques-minded women to be guests and to discuss formation of a new chapter.

Mrs. Thomas Lovett, president, explains that the present chapter has been at the Quester-limited capacity of 20 members. Knowing that there are many more women in the community interested in the study of antiques, the club sought names at the OLV spring flea market and invited interested friends to the tea.

As a result, Mrs. Gus Dulas, a guest, volunteered to help launch a new chapter, which needs only a minimum of eight members to gain help from the state Quester organization. Since interest was indicated in both a daytime and an evening group, two may be forthcoming. Anyone interested is invited to call Mrs. Dulas 349-5733

THIRD ANNUAL home tour of Northville Presbyterian Women's Association broke all previous records, netting more than $1,700 last Thursday as a balmy fall day combined with the appeal of five attractive homes to lure hundreds of visitors to Northville. Mrs. Keith Wright, treasurer, reported the total from the tour tickets, antiques and bake sale and other booths at the church at a "wrap-up" meeting Wednesday.

Interestingly, tour visitors included a goodly number of couples with retired men as aware of architecture and decorating as their wives. Young mothers with strong backs even carried young children on the tour route. An early traffic jam developed near the John Swallow home as guests lingered to study do-it-yourself details of built-in beds and barn walls.

OLD NEWSPAPERS are being collected by six high school seniors in a paper drive next Saturday and Sunday, October 11 and 12, to help provide final funds for a long-awaited three weeks in Europe.

The six have been members of a Girl Scout troop since they have been youngsters and have saved through the years for the trip (which they find cannot be made under official Girl Scout sanction). It's still on, however, as a personal tour with troop leaders, Mrs. Glenn Deibert and Mrs. Fred Sterner.

A truck will be parked at the scout-recreation building between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. during the two days. Any of the girls will pick up papers at homes before, or during the drive.

They are Deniece Bidwell, 349-0539; Judy Bogart, 349-3491; Linda Darnell, 349-2307; Colleen Deibert, 349-0285; Sandy Northup, 349-2080; and Ellen Wisner, 349-0292.

THREE-WHEELING MINISTER — "You drive it like a car — there's no balancing," explains the Reverend Miss Elizabeth Etz as she demonstrates her new three-wheel bike on the driveway of her home at 212 South Rogers. She joins Mrs. Edmund Yerkes in owning one of the easy-to-ride vehicles, but has had to park it temporarily to work on final arrangements for the State Federation of China Painters Convention, Exhibit and Sale this Friday and Saturday at Dearborn Civic Center.

Coffee Hours to Fete Newcomers

Five fall neighborhood coffees will be given next week by Northville Newcomers Club for new arrivals and prospective members to become acquainted with present members.

Leading off the series will be an evening coffee from 8 to 10 p.m. next Monday at the home of Mrs. James Fowkes, 203 North Ely Drive, for newcomers of Northville Heights and the City of Northville.

Tuesday Mrs. David Cheek, 379 Welch, will be hostess for a morning coffee from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for the Village Green area.

Two coffees are scheduled for next Wednesday. Mrs. Paul Butz, 18201 Laraugh, will open her Edenderry home from 10 a.m. until noon for a coffee for newcomers of the south section of the township and Kings Mill residents. Mrs. Stanley Coon, 18157 Docksey, will be hostess for a coffee from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for the western part of the township and Taft Colony subdivision.

Friday, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Dennis Roux, 21130 East Chigwidden, will entertain Northville Estates newcomers.

In order to reach all newcomers to the Northville area the club has appointed Newcomer hostesses in the various sections of the community who will work throughout the year with Mrs. Daniel Swayne, neighborhood relations director. Anyone who has not been contacted about the coffee in her area, either a new arrival or a Newcomer member, is asked to call her.

Her neighborhood hostesses are Mrs. James Fowkes, 349-5694, Northville Heights; Mrs. Kenneth Goldi, 349-4541, and Mrs. Douglas Loomis, 349-1664, Village Green, Mrs. Frank Kastner, 349-4757, southern part of township; Mrs. Joseph Keese, 349-5893, and Mrs. Kenneth Rosselot, 349-4622, western part of township, Mrs. H. H. Clark, 349-4892, Taft Colony; Mrs. Dumont Hixson, 349-4987, Northville City; Mrs. Dennis Roux, 349-4180, Northville Estates, and Mrs. Charles Gura, 349-4028, Kings Mill.

These neighborhood hostesses will arrange daytime baby sitting for newcomers planning to attend next week's coffees. The hostesses stress that present club members are invited to attend the coffees to meet newer arrivals. Anyone who has lived in the community three years or less is invited to join the club. Since a Newcomers Club is being formed in Novi, however, the club no longer is accepting new members from there.

News Around Northville

Theatre and luncheon hostesses who will welcome Town Hall goers to the opening lecture starring television personality Virginia Graham at 11 a.m. next Thursday at Northville High auditorium were named Tuesday.

Mrs. Orson Atchinson, theatre hostess for Northville Town Hall, will be assisted by Mrs. William Slattery, Mrs. Raymond Stillson and Mrs. Robert Brueck.

Mrs. Donald Ware and Mrs. William McDermott are hostesses for the celebrity luncheon to follow at Lofy's Restaurant in Plymouth. They will have several assistants. Luncheon reservations at $3 must be paid in advance and must be made by the Friday before the lecture, with tomorrow the deadline for the first one. The committee suggests that a stamped, self-addressed envelope helps speed delivery of either town hall or luncheon tickets.

Individual tickets to hear Virginia Graham are available at $5. Series tickets are $10 for four lectures. Checks may be mailed to Northville Town Hall, Box 93.

Twentieth annual bazaar and harvest festival sponsored by the Lapeer Parents Association for Mentally Retarded Children will be held this Saturday, October 4, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the IOOF Hall, 3248 West Twelve Mile, Berkley. Luncheon and dinner will be served.

Annual Fall Spread of the Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters will be held at 12:30 p.m. next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hugh Babbitt, 306 South Rogers. Members are to bring a passing dish and table service.

Among business items to be discussed will be plans for the Wayne County Convention of King's Daughters to be held October 20 at Northville United Methodist Church. Mrs. Allen Buckley of Northville is president of the Wayne County chapter.

Mrs. D. W. Richmond and her daughter, Mrs. Ann Smith, from Spruce, Michigan, and formerly of Northville, visited the C. T. Wheatons enroute to their winter home in Manatee, Florida.

Northville Senior Citizens' Club will see slides and hear about Miss Ione Palmer's round-the-world trip at its meeting at 7:30 p.m. October 14 in the scout-recreation building.

There will also be a business session. Refreshments will be served.

The first meeting of Cub Scout Pack 721 will be held tonight (Thursday) beginning at 7 p.m. in the VFW Hall on Northville Road. All third graders or both eight through ten years old are eligible to join the pack.

Sunset District Executive Director Robert Thornbladh will be the guest speaker.

BPW Club Receives Attendance Trophy

Northville Business and Professional Women's Club was presented with the organization's "Nike" attendance trophy at the fall meeting of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs last Sunday at the Mayflower Meeting House.

The trophy is awarded to the club with the largest percentage of its membership represented at the meeting. It is the first time that the local club has won the trophy, which is kept permanently if won three times.

State President Constance Geisler was the luncheon speaker at the meeting hosted by the Garden City, Livonia and Farmington clubs.

New members welcomed to the Northville club this fall are Katheryn Hill, Susan Ketner, Marion Kahler, all of the local branch of Manufactures National Bank, and Margaret LeFevre and Edna Foreman, of Atchison Clinic.

A representative of the newly formed Northville-Plymouth chapter of the League of Women Voters will speak at the chapter's next meeting October 27 at Hillside Inn. Membership in the local club is open to all interested business and professional women in Northville.

Voters League Proclamation Marks Week

The week of October 6 has been proclaimed League of Women Voters Week by the mayor of the city and the supervisor of Northville Township. Proclamations, signed by Mayor A. M. Allen and Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, commended the group for its "worthy goals and accomplishments" and urged citizens of the community to support its work and encourage its growth in this area. The provisional Northville-Plymouth chapter was established here for the purpose of promoting political responsibility through informed and active participation of women in government. Since its organization in January of this year, the Northville-Plymouth League has presented eight programs on national and state issues and on local government; has prepared two voters guides on local elections and conducted a candidates' meeting for Schoolcraft College trustees; and is presently preparing a flyer listing elected officials along with voting information for local residents. In addition, league members are serving as observers at meetings of local governmental agencies, has interviewed state, national and local officials in an effort to obtain accurate information relative to their students, and are presently conducting an annual finance drive during the month of October.

They Make Page One 60 Years Late

"We made the front page," laughed Mrs. Marcus Litsenberger, 1085 York Street in Plymouth, "but it was 60 years too late." She was referring to the unidentified old picture reproduced on the front page of The Record last week. The picture, taken from an old glass negative in the files of the Northville Historical Society, showed three small children standing atop a hill.

The hill, it turns out was the front yard of Mrs. Litsenberger's parent's home and the building at the foot of the hill was the old Wilcox grist mill, operated by George and John Wilcox, 60 years ago. The children are Mrs. Litsenberger and her two brothers, Aubrey and Lloyd Gates.

Oldest of the children, Aubrey, now 70 lives at 9643 Napier Road, and Lloyd, youngest of the three, lives at 402 South Sheldon Road, Plymouth. Aubrey, who has been a Northville resident for the past 34 years, was retired from the Bell Telephone Company five years ago. Brother Lloyd is still employed by Bell.

Oldtimers will recall that the mill was eventually purchased by Henry Ford, who built a small factory on the site.

The factory building is today owned by Wayne County. "In those days there was no park drive," recalls Mrs. Litsenberger. "In fact the cement drive follows what then was the river bed that ran past the mill. The river was rerouted later.

The picture, Mrs. Litsenberger believes, was taken by Mr. Ball of Northville.

During the remainder of The Record's centennial, unidentified old pictures that were not published in its centennial edition will be reprinted from time to time during the remainder of the newspaper's birthday year in hopes someone will be able to identify places and people.

How's your memory on the old store building and gentlemen in this week's old picture below?

Elsie Price to Speak at Oakland

Elsie M. Price, a Northville free-lance writer, will be on the staff at the eighth annual Writers' Conference at Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan, at which best-selling novelist Arthur Hailey will be a headline speaker October 25.

"Airport," will top the staff of 45 authors and editors. Currently at work on a Detroit auto story, he will tell the conferees about the "Organization and Development of the Novel."

Detroit Women Writers and the Oakland University Division of Continuing Education, conference co-sponsors, have scheduled the day so that each registrant may make three choices from among 31 different sessions. New writers may submit manuscripts for a critique and professional evaluation.

Registration forms are available by mail or telephone from the Oakland University conference department. The $11 fee includes registration, tuition, luncheon and morning and afternoon coffees

High Schoolers to 'View' Colleges

Northville High School juniors and seniors and their parents will have an opportunity to learn more about 43 colleges and universities at the 16th annual college night program, a combined program with Farmington and Walled Lake, from 7 to 9:45 p.m. Tuesday at Farmington High School, 3200 Shiawassee Road.

A panel discussion discussing (1) Selecting a College and the Problems of Applying, (2) Student Activism, and (3) Dorm Life versus The Commuting Student

After a 15-minute browsing period, parents and students will participate in closed, 20-minute sessions with college representatives and hear the panel discussion.

Chief's Movie Debut Delayed

One of the many recent traffic accidents at Ten Mile Road and Novi Road was recorded on color film by a Detroit television station's mobile crew who just happened to be in the area at the time.

But since the mishap wasn't considered of serious consequence and wasn't expected to be used in that station's news, the cameraman turned the film over to Chief Lee BeGole who boasts that he's got a replay available of "some real good police work."

BeGole himself was at the scene, which isn't unusual since the enthusiastic chief can just about always be found policing around town, and is pretty confident that his movie debut was an impressive one after revealing that he personally was at his candid best.

And the chief also jokingly adds that "some of the other cops seemed to be hamming it up a bit, too."

But only one problem: it seems that the chief doesn't have a projector and looking at the film strip otherwise is pretty hard on the eyes, the chief says, rubbing his eyes.

"Yep, just one small problem," BeGole relates after waving the film box under the listener's nose. "Just one problem - no projector."

"If I had a projector, this film would be running continuously," he adds. "We'd run it around the clock."

And knowing the chief, you've got to believe it. So anybody who has a projector, keep your distance ... please. Activity at Novi PD presently is at an elbow-to-elbow pace as the active department goes about its abundance of regular business.

A movie flicking on the wall with the chief doing the commentary while detectives book suspects and patrolmen complete reports as the telephone rings and gun permits are issued while a reporter tags an officer through all the confusion and...

I got to believe the movie's a good one - it seems I've read the book.

Conditions along Ingersol Creek should be better next spring thanks to efforts contributed by the Novi Jaycees and the Boy Scouts.

The two groups put their shoulders together on a Saturday earlier this month and cleaned debris from the creek hoping to facilitate the flow of water which during past springs has overflowed the banks.

Jaycee Bob Heslip was chairman of the project and the city donated the use of its trucks to aid in removing the debris.

A good project which besides cleaning up the creek, also provided an opportunity for a Boy Scout to know a little more what a Jaycee is all about and vice-versa.

Stop Light Shines On Mishap Series

A traffic signal erected recently as a safety measure at Novi Road and Ten Mile Road is apparently having an immediate reverse effect with area motorists demonstrating some difficulty making the transition to the new arrangement.

Two personal injury accidents occurred at the intersection during the last week, according to Police Chief Lee BeGole, in a continuing series of mishaps at the crossroads since the Oakland County Department of Public Works installed the traffic light on August 28.

"The light's a real convenience to residents but we've had an unusual number of accidents there since it has been put up," the chief observes.

Residents of the area annually had requested the traffic signal claiming that the intersection was hazardous without it.

Last Friday three cars collided at the intersection while last week Wednesday, the location was the site of a two-car mishap. Also on Novi Road last week Wednesday - just minutes before the accident at Ten Mile - a collision occurred with the congestion created by the two mishaps within a one-mile stretch causing five o'clock traffic to jam almost to Eight Mile Road, according to BeGole.

At 3:46 p.m. on Friday, vehicles driven by J.C. Beasley, 59, of Plymouth, Eva Jean Pascoe, 39, Salem, and Hazel Mary Novacheff, of Farmington, collided at the Ten Mile-Novi Road intersection with a wheel from the Pascoe auto being propelled into a plate glass window at Snow's Standard Service located on the northeast corner.

According to City of Novi Police, the mishap occurred when Beasley failed to stop for the signal with his car striking the vehicle driven by the Salem woman. The force of impact caused Mrs. Pascoe's car to crash into the vehicle driven by the Farmington woman, according to police.

Officers ticketed Beasley for disregarding a stop light while the injured were treated and released at St. Mary's of Livonia Hospital.

The first of two mishaps on Novi Road last week Wednesday occurred at 5 p.m. when vehicles driven by James Galloway, 47, of Detroit, and Donald Moore, 40, of Southfield, collided head-on.

A patrolman enroute to the mishap encountered a second accident at Ten Mile and Novi Road where two cars - one driven by a Northville woman - had collided. The second crash reportedly occurred about seven minutes after the first in heavy traffic along the major road.

According to police, the Moore-Galloway mishap occurred when Galloway lost control of his car skidding into the path of Moore's vehicle. The mishap was in front of The Pepper Tree Restaurant and Guernsey's Dairy Store.

Police ticketed Larry Odette, 18, of Farmington, following the Wednesday collision at the intersection for overtaking and passing on the right.

According to officers, the mishap occurred when Odette, attempting to pass through the intersection on the right, lost control of his auto where the roadway narrows and proceeded broadly into the path of an oncoming car driven by Mrs. Betty Jean Matatal, 46, of 46141 Sunset, Northville.

The Novi Fire Department was called to the scene to wash down the roadway while the injured were treated and released at Botsford Hospital, Farmington.

Over Assets, Services Talks Progress To New Barrier

Talks last week between City of Novi Mayor Joseph Crupi and Novi Township Supervisor Leo Kalota apparently resulted in one agreement - on the present use of office space in the City-Township Hall - and one disagreement - over the cost of extending fire protection from the city to the township.

Mayor Crupi reported Monday and Supervisor Kalota confirmed that the township has agreed to allow city administrators to use offices on the top floor of the hall which formerly were occupied by township officials.

The mayor reported and the supervisor confirmed that the city's proposed charge of six-and-one-half mills to the township for the extension of fire protection has initially been labeled by Kalota as unreasonable.

The officials met last week Tuesday to consider the procedure of dividing assets, a practice which is also being considered by the two governments in Circuit Court after the city issued a show-cause order against the township for alleged delays in property settlements following their re-alignments.

Following an election last February, the former village became a city and incorporate about 97 percent of the original township. In compliance with state law, the reorganized governments were supposed to divide assets proportionately within 90 days - or by May 24.

The township, explaining that its new officers were in the process of becoming acquainted with new responsibilities, asked that the action be delayed until they could prepare themselves to proceed. But City Council, in need for a settlement on the City-Township Hall so that it can either find other quarters or expand to accommodate crowded office conditions, ordered a show-cause hearing September 1 after establishing the date in mid-August as a deadline for the division of assets.

City Acquires Property Accident Claims Resident

The City of Novi Council revealed its intentions Monday to purchase a residence and property on Grand River Avenue for future use by the Department of Public Works and then proceeded to act on the $46,000 transaction.

Mayor Joseph Crupi explained that he had informally polled councilmen concerning acquiring the property last Thursday and had authorized a $2,000 deposit in order to hold the property for formal action.

The mayor explained that the city had been seeking such an acquisition for "several years now" and had "lost

In other business Monday, the council tentatively agreed to assume a half-mill levy for the library as soon as legal preliminaries can be resolved, decided that participation in the upcoming United Fund campaign will be by individuals rather than through the city, and endorsed a proposed student cooperative effort to bolster staffing in the water division of the DPW.

Councilmen also voted unanimously to pay overtime costs of $934.14 to policemen for July through September.

The council also adopted a service in which it will mail copies of its minutes and agendas to civic organizations who submit a stamped, self-addressed envelope in advance.

City Manager Harold Ackley explained that one-half mill assessed against former township residents now within the city must be assumed by the municipality in order to maintain the facility.

Councilmen decided to delay action on assuming the half-mill until Tuesday in a continued session during which an ordinance could be presented to establish the library. The council indicated that it would then pass the resolution assuming the half-mill levy.

Accident Claims Resident

Wixom City Police this week are continuing their investigation into an auto-pedestrian accident which Sunday claimed the life of a 49-year-old resident.

According to Police Chief Tom McGuire, William Jaaskelainen, 49, of 1820 Croyts Road, was pronounced dead at Pontiac General Hospital on Sunday after he was struck by a car traveling on Loon Lake Road. McGuire said that the name of the motorist is being withheld.

The mishap occurred at 7:20 p.m., according to the chief. An autopsy was performed to determine cause of death but details have not been released, McGuire said.

Bandits Bungle Cash Caper

Two bandits, apparently unarmed, confronted 18-year-old David Hancock on Monday at Danny's Mobil Service, Novi Road at I-96, successfully tying up the attendant before failing to find the key to open a locked cash register.

According to Hancock, the pair both Negroes-left the station empty-handed in a 1964 white Pontiac which was damaged on the passenger side. The men were dressed in dark-colored work uniforms, City of Novi Police Department Detective Sgt. Richard Faulkner reported.

The car had been spotted earlier Monday with four occupants, according to the detective. The attempted robbery occurred about 7:30 p.m.

Court Supports Council Action

The City of Novi won the favor of Circuit Court Judge Robert Templin on Friday after successfully defending City Council action denying Beck Road's Frank Davis permission to locate a mobile home park on Beck near Nine Mile Road. But it's only another down and another to go, it was learned by councilmen Monday.

Charges against the city by Davis, originally filed in 1964, were dismissed by Judge Templin on Friday but now similar charges have been claimed against the city by developers including Lynn Matthews and Paul Monohon who had a request before the council for a mobile home park on Napier Road south of Twelve Mile Road denied last spring.

around city hall

City Attorney Howard Bond has been counsel for the City of Novi in the brief series of mobile home developer suits. Davis' request was one of five in 1964 with two - the existing Highland Hills on Seeley Road and Country Cousin Mobile Home Park on Haggerty Road near I-196 - being granted.

Russell Button, whose request was one of the three denied in 1964, challenged the council's decision forcing the issue into court where charges against the city were dismissed by the judge. Davis also filed his objections at the time claiming that the council acted unfairly in making its decision.

And now the third case - possibly the last but probably only another in a series.

The on-again, off-again status of the I-96 interchanges at Novi Road, Beck Road and Wixom Road - all within a three-mile stretch - seemingly now calls for phasing out Beck Road while enlarging both the Wixom Road and Novi Road interchanges to cloverleaves. And the City of Wixom, Cyclist's Life Saved by Helmet?

A safety helmet, recently made mandatory for cyclists by the State Legislature, apparently kept a Livonia man from serious injury or death Friday afternoon during a collision on Grand River Avenue, according to City of Novi Police.

Gerald Jordan, 32, of Livonia, was traveling eastbound on a motorcycle about 5:14 p.m. Friday on Grand River when a car driven by Dennis Daniel, 23, Wixom, turned into his path, officers reported.

with the apparent support of Oakland County, is expected to continue its opposition to closing the Beck Road interchange amongst claims that it's needed to service Ford's Lincoln-Mercury plant located less than a mile to the southeast.

State Highway Department officials report that they have reviewed the interchanges and are proposing a "package plan" in which the two will be expanded and the one eliminated. A spokesman said that it would require "considerable work" - at an expense which engineers feel would be prohibitive - to upgrade Beck.

"We have this worked out with the Bureau of Roads but Wixom has indicated that it opposes closing Beck Road at that point," the spokesman reported.

Memorial flowers are needed. Contact Mrs. Louis Tank, 349-0878. Also needed are volunteers for cleaning the church and volunteers to take charge of the coffee hour on Sunday.

Those who are interested in helping on the Altar Guild contact Mrs. Sam Sauvage or the Rector of the church.

Anyone having ideas which can be used for the annual bazaar, please bring them to the church.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF WIXOM

The teens and sponsors from Wixom had a good time fellowship with Union Lake and Mandon Lake groups during the Scenic September Splash Canoe trip. A total of 130 people participated in the tenting, canoeing and cooking out, as well as the good services at the Chapel at Co-Be-Ac. The group left Friday evening and returned Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Clate Raymond from the Michigan Sunday School Association was guest speaker during the Sunday morning service.

Sunday evening Terry Angles gave the message, entitled, "Dare to be Different." Several numbers of special music were presented by Mrs. Hazel York, Bill and Sue Craig and Terry and Karen Angles. A time of fellowship and refreshment was held as a farewell to the Angles who will begin their new ministry at the Church of the Open Door in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Sept. 29.

Monday and Tuesday, Annual C.B.A. Fellowship meetings in Jackson with representatives from Wixom attending as the Wixom Baptist is welcomed into the regular membership.

Wednesday 7:00 p.m. Bible Study and Prayer Meeting, Boys Brigade, and also starting this week Pioneer Girls meetings, striving towards a complete Family Night program. Adult choir rehearsal at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday.

Next Sunday is "Love Your Teacher Day." Free Dune Buggy rides for all visitors and everyone bringing a visitor to Sunday School. There will be a special speaker for the Fun Department.

NOVI REBEKAH LODGE

Several Rebekah sisters attended the visitation-at Milford, Wednesday evening this week.

Tonight, Thursday, three new candidates will be initiated. Initiation begins promptly at 8 o'clock. Be sure to bring a salad for the lunch after initiation. Crackers and cake will also be served with tea and coffee.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS

Novi Chapter 47, Blue Star Mothers will meet today at the home of Mrs. Carolyn McCollum. A dessert luncheon will be served. Bring own table service and sandwich.

Novi bazaar and ham luncheon scheduled for October 15 in the Novi Community Hall, plans will be finalized at this meeting.

NOVI GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Junior troop No. 913 had a mother's meeting to discuss future activities. Eleven mothers attended.

The troop worked on their calendar of events. Marci Brooks of Cadet Troop No. 149, taught the girls new songs. She was assisted by Junior Scouts Mason Brooks and Karen Monetz. Marti Mason brought nibbles for the troop.

Brownie Troop No. 161 held their first meeting with Mrs. Sue Temple leader. New co-leaders, Mrs. Ruth Mackay and Mrs. Pat Darga. The Brownies gave many suggestions as to what they would like to do and where they would like to go this year.

NOVI SCHOOL MENU FOR NEXT WEEK

Monday - Tomato soup, crackers, grilled cheese sandwiches, green and wax beans, cookies and milk.

Tuesday - Roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, tossed salad, bread, butter, jello and milk.

Wednesday - Pizza, buttered peas and carrots, cookies, fruit cup and milk.

Thursday - Sloppy-jo hamburgers on buns, potato chips, buttered calico corn, fruit and milk.

TIME TO CONVERT TO GAS HEAT!

When you catch sight of that first Autumn leaf slowly spiraling downward, you can be sure that cold weather will be here soon! But if you plan ahead, you won't be caught by Old Man Winter. Almost any home can be converted to gas heat and gas heat is always reliable on cold winter days. It circulates fast so that the whole house is warm in just minutes. So, let it rain, drizzle, snow and sleet - you probably won't even notice, because inside, you'll be enjoying the real comfort of clean, economical gas heat. Convert to gas heat now and outsmart Old Man Winter.

Been Wondering About Those Tests Your Child Takes?

Ability tests, achievement tests, IQ tests, tests and more tests. What do they mean? What are they supposed to test? What happens after the scores are in?

Students and parents alike ask these questions each year. Miss Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator for Northville Public Schools, addressed herself to the questions this week, explaining the function of the tests and what changes they have brought about.

The testing program begins in Northville each October with the Stanford Achievement Test, she explained. Conducted in six sittings, the test is given by classroom teachers on the primary level and by counselors on the junior and senior high level.

The Stanford test is a different type of achievement test. Covered are language arts tests, including subtests in word meaning, reading, spelling and language; arithmetic computation; concept and application; social studies and science.

In this test third graders are asked to recognize words and understand their meaning without the help of picture cues. Until they reach this test, the students were always given picture cues.

According to Miss Panattoni, third and fourth grade students are a little below the norm in reading as shown by the Stanford Achievement Test scores compiled from 1966-68 records.

"This is understandable," she said, "because children are maturing in advanced reading skills at different levels and we need to recognize this."

"By fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, reading scores are at grade level or above."

She said that students are above in arithmetic concept and application, social studies and science.

As shown by the Stanford Achievement Test, computation is down at all levels in Northville as well as in other districts. Miss Panattoni attributed this to the new math concept.

Students in the tenth grade are at the expected level or above it in all areas except science. Weaknesses showed in the science area because science was not offered to those students in the ninth grade. A science program has been introduced this year at the ninth grade level.

In January of 1970 the California Mental Maturity Test will be given in grades three, six, eight and eleven. The test is designed to measure the student's potential to achieve.

Test results are known as IQ (intelligent quotient) scores.

In Northville the average IQ is at the high average level in all grades. The average level runs from 90 to 110. Miss Panattoni commented, "The students are not achieving the greatest potential yet and there is room for improvement."

"Even though our students are at this level, we have to be rather cautious in drawing conclusions at any one grade level. Children do not grow the same amount each year. There are spurts of growth and plateaus in learning just as there is in physical growth," Miss Panattoni said.

The fourth and seventh graders will undergo a test developed by the State of Michigan. The test will include reading, spelling and arithmetic. Two hours in length, it will be administered by the schools. The test is entirely new this year and will be given to fourth and seventh graders throughout the state.

Kindergarten children will be given the Metropolitan Readiness Test in May. The test is designed to show the degree of readiness for first grade learning, primarily reading readiness.

The average readiness of Northville's kindergarten group for the district is at the 68th percentile, while the national norm is at the 50th percentile.

May also will be month first and second graders take the Gates McGintie Reading Test. Its purpose is to test the child's ability to recognize isolated words and to understand sentences with the help of picture cues.

Average readiness of the first and second graders in the district is well above the national norm in beginning reading skills, according to Miss Panattoni.

The five above tests are given each year in the district. For the first time teachers will have the option to give a special reading test known as the Durrell Test. Examined through this test is whether or not the student is reading and listening at his potential ability.

What happens after the tests have been taken and scored? Each classroom teacher is responsible for compiling the scores for each of his students. The scores tell the teacher where a student excels and where he could use additional help.

Scores for the entire district are compiled by Miss Panattoni and are also scaled with the national norms in each area of curriculum.

Often the test results are the moving force in curriculum changes. As mentioned before, science for ninth graders was added after test scores showed students weak in this area.

Teacher workshops in the language arts have been added to aid the teachers' ability to recognize learning disabilities. Remedial reading is now included at the secondary level. Two remedial reading teachers are working with classroom teachers and individual students.

A perceptive program for children with learning disabilities is being conducted on an experimental basis at Moraine Elementary. Students in Amerman and Main Street elementaries are acting as control groups.

This year, as last school year, Northville will be conducting a Federally financed program for children not working up to their grade level.

Kindergarteners and first graders will be exposed to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a pilot program designed to orient students to scientific procedures.

Seventh graders will be involved in an introductory physical science program which will give them background for high school science.

Novi Subdivision Group to Meet

First meeting of the season for the Orchard Hills (subdivision) Association of Novi will be held next Sunday evening at Orchard Hills Elementary School beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be a representative of the developer of property adjacent to the Orchard Hills subdivision. The talk will focus on multiple housing.

Members of Meadowbrook Lake Association have been invited to attend.

TESTS ARE NOT NEW TO THESE SIXTH GRADERS

Class Breather Canceled Here

There will be school in Northville Thursday, October 9.

The decision was announced last week by Superintendent of Schools, Raymond E. Spear. Originally October 9 and 10 were set aside for teachers in the district to attend the Michigan Education Association workshops. This year the workshops have been canceled.

School will be in session during the normal hours October 9, with October 10 reserved for a teacher in-service institute. Northville teachers will be visiting other districts to study their educational programs.

The day of vacation originally scheduled for October 9 will be made up later in the year.

The football game on October 10 will not be affected.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Northville township was given a plug for its up-to-date assessments in the study recently completed by a couple of university professors, who were alarmed by the number of cities, villages and townships in Michigan where property assessments are too low.

The law says that real property should be assessed at 50 percent of its market value. Taxes are then levied against these assessed values.

The professors noted that most communities are under-assessed and recommended the appointment of a state assessor, presumably to bring all assessments to the same level.

Northville township, they reported, is one of the few communities where assessments are actually near the 50 percent level.

On the surface, at least, it's difficult to comprehend the professors' alarm. Anyone vaguely familiar with the state's complex system of determining local valuations knows that the power of assessment already rests with the state.

True, the specific assessments on each individual piece of property are designated by local assessors, but they must pass county approval. And if they are below the prescribed 50 percent level, the state employs its little equalizer - commonly known as the state equalization factor.

So what if a township, village or city has a "soft" assessor who is either too timid or too busy to update assessments? The county and state knows what the total valuation of that community should be and if the assessed valuation determined by the local assessor falls below that figure, the assessments are merely multiplied by a factor that brings the total up to the proper level.

The city of Northville, for example, hasn't reappraised its properties in three or four years. Increasing property values have antiquated the current assessments, thus a factor of 1.23 is applied to all assessments in the Wayne county portion of the city (the factor in the Oakland county portion is 1.25).

When city officials see fit, reappraisal of all property will take place and assessments will be raised so that the factor will be removed.

I fail to see any loss of tax dollars due to shoddy assessment practices at the local level.

The real danger lies in the possibility of inequities within each local assessing district.

If every piece of property - homes, commercial buildings, factories - is assessed by the same guidelines, even though the assessment may be 10, 20, or 50 percent of the market value, everyone will receive the same treatment when the equalization factor is applied.

The danger in assessments, whether applied by local, county or state assessors, is that favoritism might creep into certain areas - either to individuals or residential, commercial or industrial properties as a class.

When this occurs, the property owner who is properly assessed is penalized by the application of the equalization factor, while the favored (under-assessed) property owner is merely boosted to a level that may leave his valuation still below the 50 percent mark.

Dennis Dildy, director of probation for the Northville-Plymouth area district court, is plugging for help for Synanon.

Right now the Synanon Foundation, which effectively performs its own kind of thing in helping drug addicts, needs $40,000. The lease on its residence at 8344 East Jefferson in Detroit expires the end of October. Without financial help Detroit will lose Synanon.

Dildy has been involved with Synanon on a weekly basis for the past year-and-a-half. He points out that Synanon has taken some 563 drug addicts off the streets of the city and its suburbs...that without Synanon they would be in jails, hospitals or dead.

One of the basic services of Synanon is an attempt to reduce the crime rate, which is costing the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

"Why not put your money at the source of the problem?", asks Dildy. A contribution is tax deductible. Send it to Synanon Foundation, Inc., 8344 East Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, 48214.

Incidentally, Dildy encourages individuals or groups to visit Synanon.

Speaking for Myself

Straight Party Ticket or Not?

YES . . .

Ideally, we would vote for the best man on the basis of his accomplishments, his ability and his potential as a public servant. But in a society growing more complex socially and politically, seldom are candidates elected strictly on the basis of merit.

The straight party ticket thus takes on more meaning. It is wiser, in fact, to vote the straight party ticket - for a platform, if you will - than cast ballots indiscriminately for the candidate who looks the most dignified, or the candidate whose name catches our fancy.

The issues, after all, should swing the most weight in the polling booth. And the party platform is predicated on the issues.

It might be argued that there is no assurance that a candidate will abide by party platform. Neither, for that matter, is there any assurance that promises enunciated during a campaign will be kept by the candidate who poo-poops political affiliation.

By Rolly Peterson

NO . . .

Loyalty notwithstanding, pulling the political party lever is, in my opinion, an act of laziness not unlike the guy who will sit through a bad television program rather than get out of his easy chair to switch channels.

Today's major parties are so complex and incongruous within their own imaginary circles that voting dried up philosophy is no longer - if it ever was - a safe bet. There are Republican Democrats today as well as Democratic Republicans. On the war issue, for example, some of former President Lyndon Johnson's most aggressive support came from Republicans, while President Richard Nixon finds some of his best support in the Democratic camp.

Strict party loyalty in the voting booth at the local level is even more assinine. Anyone who would vote for a man or a woman solely because of his or her party label would fondle a poisonous viper just because it crawled out of a hairless ground squirrel's hole.

I think it was Will Rogers who once said he'd sooner play the field and take his knocks than dance with his mother-in-law.

By Jack Hoffman

'Speaking for Myself' is a new weekly platform for the divergent views of Sliger newspaper staff members who seldom agree on any topic.

Old veterans like to imagine that in the "good ol' wars" soldiers were made of shoe leather and wore courage riveted to their chests. I used to scoff at them. But today, as age begins to warp memory, I find myself joining the camp of crusty infantrymen who look for chinks in the modern army.

That's how it was last week upon reading what may be the most damaging blow to the military's image since Custer galloped sidesaddle into Little Big Horn. In case you missed it, the army has court-martialed beef stew!

Yup, that's right. They've stripped their slop houses of this basic recipe and whitewashed the pot just because today's soldier no longer likes his beef chopped into fatty cubes and dumped into the backwash of yesterday's leftovers. Imagine!

It's not enough that today's GI can't stomach beef stew, but the army brass has compounded the breach by actually polling soldiers to learn their likes and dislikes. If that isn't an indication that someone's gotten soft, the jungle rot that's been gnawing on my feet is pure fiction and someone's got a whole lot of disability pay to return.

The air force, I understand, booted beef stew long ago - but then that was to be expected. Fly boys have always gotten their comeuppance on a silver platter.

Did you ever wonder why they called the old army kitchen a mess hall? Or why infantrymen were dog faces? Well, let me tell you it wasn't camouflage. I get cramps just thinking about the stuff they used to scoup into our tins. More countryside was defoliated by runny compatriots in our war than by all of Dow Chemical's modern, artificial concoctions. Those were the days when men played Russian Roulette with unlabeled K-rations. Purple hearts meant just that. The Dirty Dozen wore aprons and worked in our kitchen tent.

Remember the mess hall grease traps? How could you forget. More men deserved ribbons for smelling than those who took theirs for combat. Grease traps were testing chambers for gas masks. And gas masks were about as effective as the army's chief torture - the rubber poncho.

The army hired a sadist just after I took my walking papers. He gave infantrymen a choice: a week's KP or a three-year re-enlistment. They were able to discontinue the draft that year. KP. That meant Konstant Pain.

No wonder the crusty flatfoot finds today's army a milktoast. Anybody who ain't got the guts to ride sidesaddle into a bevy of Indians.

Out of THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO...

...As work continued on Nov's city charter, it became apparent a debate was brewing before the final approval. Though each section of the charter had been approved, few were by unanimous vote. Final approval must be given to the entire document.

...An ambitious campaign began to raise over $19,000 to reinstate a portion of the activities at Northville schools. Just a few days after drive opened, $3,190 had been raised, not counting numerous pledges from organizations, businesses and individuals.

...Two Northville residents had a hand in Michigan's first heart transplant operation performed at U of M. Dr. Charles Wheatley had been keeping Philip Barnum, the patient, alive until a suitable donor could be found. Mrs. John DaSilva (Judy Nauman), a cardiac surgery nurse, had Barnum among her patients.

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...For the second time in three months, Detroit Federal Savings and Loan in Northville was held up. The armed bandit took $8,240 in cash. The bandit "looked familiar" to witnesses and was to appear once again in February, 1965, when he would be foiled in his third attempt and captured.

...Northville city council gave support to a two-year plan to plant 450 trees along city streets. It was hoped the trees would replace those lost to Dutch elm disease.

TEN YEARS AGO...

...Firemen from four area volunteer units battled a roaring blaze at the Bob O' Link Golf clubhouse. The fire caused $10,000 damage and destroyed the kitchen, storage area and $1,000 worth of equipment and supplies.

...The Recreation Department told the Northville city council that it was virtually broke. With the winter and spring programs still ahead, Stanley Johnston, director, said that $1,500 was needed to complete the schedule.

...A "swinging and singing" teenage dance opened the newly organized Teen Town in Novi. The club house was located at 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads. Singing stars on tap for the first dance included Eddy Holland, Jackie Carbon, Jamie Coe and Bobby Laurel.

TWENTY YEARS AGO...

...Teachers, board members and secretaries of Northville Public Schools and village librarians were honored at the annual Community, School and Church night.

...Eleven of America's fastest pacers entered Northville for the $10,000 Michigan Pacing Derby at the Downs.

...Members of the Exchange Club together with their wives and guests flew to Cleveland as part of the Club's new fraternity and cooperation program. The group chartered a DC-4 plane and flew from Willow Run to Cleveland in 45 minutes.

FIFTY YEARS AGO...

...The Village Commandary Shriners entertained the Moslem Patrol at a dinner Saturday night.

...A fire broke out at the Charles Cole residence near the condensery when the Cole's young son kindled a stove with gasoline. He was severely burned but recovering nicely.

...Many exhibits are on display at the Northville Fair this week.

Only Your Neighbor Knows

Are Your Weeds Showing?

Long, unkept hair and sideburns may be your hangup, but it's the unpruned weed that's bugging city and township officials these fall days. Summer's growing season left a bumper crop of weeds, police report, but few are doing anything about harvesting it. "It's a case of everybody talking about it but few doing anything."

In the city where an ordinance governs these botanical eyesores, police must wait for official complaints - except in cases of extreme negligence - to take action against the violator.

Citizens don't like weeds but they don't like to complain to police about a neighbor's vacant lot next door. Violators who are found guilty can be fined up to $100 or 90 days in jail.

In the township the weed problem's increasing, too, particularly in the residential areas on the fringes of the city, officials report. Here, where there is no ordinance, officials also wait for a complaint and then hope that a polite phone call will convince the property owner to barber his weeds. In most cases, they say, owners comply

Two weeks ago the township board tabled a suggestion for an anti-weed ordinance - an ordinance that some weed-conscious officials believe may be premature in view of the large undeveloped rural areas remaining in the township.

Why are officials so concerned about the weeds?

It's not just because your neighbor's nose is overly sensitive or those milkweeds and thistles are marring the landscape. Recently, a youngster was molested in a jungle-like growth near his subdivision home in the township, officials explain.

Also, today's weeds become tomorrow's brush fire - a costly nuisance for Northville's volunteer fire department, police point out. Furthermore, corner lots overgrown with weeds prevent motorists from seeing stop signs or approaching traffic or pedestrians.

So city or township, ordinance or no ordinance - officials agree: a complaint in hand is worth two prowlers in the bush.

Teachers' Salaries Climbing at Rapid Rate in State

LANSING — Most taxpayers may not realize it, but teachers salaries have risen faster than ever since teachers began organizing into unions four years ago.

Up until that time, salaries rose at a fairly consistent rate of $200 per year, or about 3.4 per cent per year. But in the last four years the average rise in pay scales in the state has ranged from $600 to $700 per year, or 9.3 per cent.

Today only the state of California pays its teachers better than Michigan.

Babson Report

Government Inflation Curb Pinches Housing Construction

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass. While we recognize that the government efforts to curb inflation have put the pinch on new construction, particularly housing. For August, housing starts dropped 1.6%, the seventh consecutive monthly decline.

In reflection of the slowdown in building and the unfavorable market climate, many building stocks have fallen 20% and more from their 1968-69 highs. In our opinion, long-term oriented investors could use present weakness to begin picking up some selected building issues.

country. THE CHANGE in the rate of increase was proven by a study completed recently by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

"The fact that the legalization of collective bargaining and the rising level in annual teacher salary increases were co-terminous can hardly be viewed as a coincidence," the council said.

"It must be assumed that there has been a causal relationship between collective bargaining and the surge in teacher salary levels," it concluded.

And, the council said, with teachers getting their way in the field of salaries, their organizers are turning their attentions to other areas.

"EVEN NOW there is evidence that teacher organizations are becoming interested in negotiating other school policies such as class size," the council said.

And, it predicted, the issues could lead to stronger dissension between teachers and administrators than purely monetary considerations.

"School administrators and boards are concerned about the possibility of relinquishing management and school board rights and prerogatives," it said.

"On the other hand, teachers generally appear to want a greater voice in determining a broad range of matters that affect their work and are pressing for broadening the scope of negotiations," the council reported.

If this is true, the relative calm on the education front this fall may not continue over the next few years.

THE MAN in charge of administering the new state law requiring suspension of a person's drivers license if the person doesn't pay a traffic ticket within 40 days says he doesn't like the law.

Secretary of State James M. Hare says he expects more than 120,000 Michigan drivers will lose their licenses this year as a result of the new law. This is almost double the total who had theirs suspended for a period of time last year.

"What I don't like about this law," he says, "is that it does not make any distinction between the 'traffic tramp' — the person who is in constant trouble because of chronic bad driving — and the person who just has one infraction, many times for a minor equipment violation."

Hare labels the law "unfair, unjust and too punitive in many instances."

THE SEVEN-TERM officeholder, who announced plans to retire from his job in 1970, says he doesn't think the law is keeping anyone off the road either.

"While there is no doubt that more persons are paying their tickets than ever before, I don't believe it has any effect on keeping the suspended driver off the road," he said. "It just increases the number of persons driving in Michigan with suspended licenses."

He said he likes the system Illinois is using, where a driver who receives a ticket for a moving violation surrenders his drivers license to the arresting officer.

benefit from anticipated building boom of the 1970s. In addition to making hardware, Emhart has a strong position in glass-making machinery and in sporting firearms. Start-up costs of a new highly automated hardware manufacturing complex, believed to be the largest hardware manufacturing plant in the country, will be heavy this year, but company's prospects for the '70s are bright. Purchase of the average-grade common stock, near 37, is recommended for accounts looking for growth potential.

THE SECOND LARGEST producer of gypsum products, National Gypsum also holds an important position in other building lines including portland cement, insulation, ceramic tiles, and paints. Recent acquisitions have further expanded company's activities into decorative vinyl wall covering and plastic laminates and into the fabrication and installation of glass for commercial shelter construction markets. Purchase of National Gypsum's speculative-grade common stock, near 28, is recommended for intermediate- to longer-term appreciation.

Its broad scope of activities in the shelter field include the manufacture of factory-built homes, mobile homes, recreational travel trailers and campers, and land development activities. The speculative-grade common near 71 appears attractive for aggressive investors seeking appreciation and growth of capital.

Police Blotter

Vandals Smear Paint, Break Windows

City of Novi Police arrested five Dearborn teenagers in possession of alcoholic beverages Sunday at the Novi High School athletic field. The youngsters were turned over to their parents and the case was referred to Juvenile Court.

Main, during the evening of September 28. Missing from a 1970 Maverick are four wheel covers, gas cap and a rear view mirror.

Police reports indicated that the door of the car was damaged when the mirror was ripped off.

Reports of eggs thrown at cars were received by police the evenings of September 26, 27 and 28. Motorists reported the incidents occurred near the old Fish Hatchery and the high school overpass on Eight Mile Road.

COURT NEWS

Two men were sentenced to Detroit House of Correction for a total of 16 days by 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis, September 23.

Billy R. Leedy, Plymouth, received ten days in jail for improper plates, speeding and no registration plates.

James Daske, Livonia, was sentenced to three weekends for driving with a revoked license and fined $13 for speeding.

A charge of driving while ability impaired, brought a $128 fine for Fount Jones, Westland.

Edward L. Hayes, Romulus, paid a $53 fine for drunkenness.

Ernest S. Parker, Jr., now serving with the Army in Korea, paid $28 on a charge of unlawful use of another's license.

A Livonia man was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way Saturday by City of Novi Police after the car he was driving collided with a vehicle driven by Marlene Ann Smelser, 29, of 24100 Chubb Road, South Lyon.

According to police, Alexander Douglas, 46, was traveling east on Ten Mile Road and Mrs. Smelser was southbound on Beck Road before the collision occurred. Both drivers were treated for minor injuries and released at St. Mary's of Livonia Hospital.

Police also reported in connection with the mishap that Mrs. Smelser's purse was taken from her overturned car following the accident. Officers stated that one of five young boys, traveling in a brown Pontiac Tempest, is believed to have taken the purse.

An accident at the Eight Mile and Taft Road intersection at 7:40 a.m. September 29 sent one woman to the hospital.

Mrs. Fred Walker, 539 Rouge, was taken to St. Mary Hospital for treatment of head injuries.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her son, Clayton, when the Walker car collided with a vehicle driven by Mahlon O. Carter, Royal Oak.

Walker, who was southbound on Taft, pulled into the path of Carter who was westbound on Eight Mile, police said. Walker was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way.

A report of vandalism at Main Street Elementary was investigated by Northville Police September 29. Seven windows valued at over $450 were broken by BB shots.

Youths throwing stones on Eight Mile Road near Center broke the windshield of a car driven by Ralph Owings, 1008 Allen Drive. Value of the windshield was placed at $85. The incident occurred during the evening of September 29.

Children playing near International Diamond Tool, Inc., broke an exterior light and destroyed a display of drilling cores. Police are investigating the case.

Auto parts valued at $70 were taken from Ken Collision, 128 West

Two children were bitten by dogs during the past week.

Karen Lee Federspill, 21150 East Chigwidden, was bitten September 26 by a stray dog. She was treated for forehead bites by her family doctor. The dog is being held for observation and police have issued a violation.

Sherrie Ann Cross, 318 South Rogers, was bitten September 29 by a dog owned by Don St. Lawrence, 530 South Center. No open wounds or scratches were visible. St. Lawrence was ticketed for allowing the dog to run loose.

A power failure at 9 a.m. September 24, knocked out electrical service to most downtown business places on the south side of Main Street.

The traffic signal on the corner of Main and Center streets was also out of service. The Northville Police Department was called to direct traffic at the corner.

Detroit Edison repaired the line by 9:50 a.m.

For the fourth time in two weeks, vandals smeared brown paint on a parked car. Don Meixner, 560 Grace Street, reported the incident occurred September 23.

Sixteen Jaycees Offer Selves For Slave Labor

Sixteen Northville Jaycees have volunteered to become "slaves" to aid the club's upcoming community auction slated Saturday, October 11, Dennis Diddy announced this week.

The volunteers will be auctioned off for "slave labor" for four hour periods. Combined that represents a total of 64 man hours. In addition, the Jaycees will auction off materials - mostly household items - to the highest bidder.

The auction will get underway at noon in the Northville City Hall Park at Wing and Cady streets. Persons wishing to donate items for the auction are urged to call either 349-4746 or 349-7134. Proceeds are to be used to sponsor civic projects.

HONORED — Dr. Linwood W. Snow of Northville was one of 21 Michigan physicians honored in Detroit Tuesday for having combined to provide more than 10 centuries of medical care. Dr. Snow and his 25 fellow physicians received coveted "Fifty Year Awards" at a special ceremony during the annual meeting of the Michigan Medical Society. Each of the recipients were certified for a half century or more of medical practice by the county medical society. Approximately 2,000 physicians, medical assistants, students, nurses, professors and others from throughout the state attended the awards program and the House of Delegates meeting and the annual scientific session of the society.

School Officials Confer On Year-Round Studies

Officials of the Michigan six-school districts making a study of the feasibility of year-round school met in Port Huron last week. Representatives hosted three members of the administrative team studying year-round school in Atlanta, Georgia.

Northville Superintendent, Raymond Spear said cooperation among the school districts makes it possible to take advantage of experience gained in other parts of the country.

Representatives at the Port Huron meeting were from Northville, Port Huron, Utica, Ann Arbor, Freeland and Okemos, the six districts chosen to share $100,000 set aside by the State Legislature to defray the costs of the study.

Although the plan devised by Atlanta is not exactly the same as the one being studied for Northville, having the opportunity to discuss year-round schools with people who have put it in operation is a big help, according to Spear.

"It is encouraging to find that the purpose for studying year-round school is so varied in different localities," Spear said.

"The people from Atlanta had one main purpose," Spear continued, "and that was the improvement of their educational program. Because this was their only purpose, they were able to put fourth quarter attendance on a voluntary basis.

"Although we expect to realize many educational benefits if our plan is put into operation, our main purpose is saving money in the long-range construction of new school buildings for our fast-growing district," Spear said.

Spear pointed out that from 1959 to 1969, enrollment in the district has risen 1,401 students, increasing from 1,721 to 3,120 students. He said that another 1,400 students would be enrolled in the district by the 1974-75 school year.

"For us to realize these savings, we will need approximately 75 percent of our students in school during each of the four quarters," he said.

Plans among the six Michigan school districts conducting a year-round school study vary in type and purpose. Northville is studying a quadrimester or four-quarter plan which could be adjusted to fit a variety of calendar dates.

The exact one which would best fit the needs of Northville is still to be determined.

Utica and Port Huron's studies are similar to Northville's in that they are studying the feasibility of a four-quarter plan of operation. This divides the school year into four quarters of equal duration and equal educational quality. Youngsters are required to attend three quarters.

Ann Arbor's plan is concerned with a split trimester, dividing the year into three equal segments. Students will be required to attend two trimesters and half of a third.

This basic plan is also being studied in Freeland with slightly different variations.

The sixth school district in the state involved in the year-round study is Okemos. A plan for four twelve-week quarters with breaks in between is being studied in conjunction with East Lansing and Haslett.

In an effort to share in the $100,000 made available by the State Legislature for the study, 47 school districts submitted applications to the State Department of Education. From these applications, the studies now being carried out were chosen to be funded.

Other aspects of Northville's plan will be explained in future publicity releases, according to Spear.

Mr. Strachan, who never married, moved to Northville in 1922. He is a veteran of World War II and a member of the Lloyd Green Post of the American Legion.

He is survived by several cousins. Officiating at the services was Reverend Robert A. Mitchinson, pastor of the New Hudson Methodist Church. Burial was in Rural Hill Cemetery.

Students Get Merit Scholar Commendation

Official commendation for high performance in the 1969 National Merit Scholarship-Qualifying Test has been awarded two Northville High School students.

Receiving, honoring Letters of Commendation this week are Deborah Luckett and Roseanne Rodenbeck. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Luckett, 44040 Wyngate, and Mr. and Mrs. Egon H. Rodenbeck, 309 Debra Lane, respectively.

They are among 39,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1970.

Commended students rank just below the 15,000 semifinalists announced last month. Included in this list was Allison Crump, a Northville senior.

Edward C. Smith, NMSC president, in announcing the commended list, said, "Although commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship Competition, their outstanding record deserves public recognition." Their names are reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges they named as first and second choices.

Revised Offense Impressive

Mustangs Surprise Milford, 12-8

Just one week after its offensive unit had been held to an unimpressive 23 net yards, the Mustangs rallied to overpower highly-rated Milford last Friday, 12-8, combining their running and passing attack with another good defensive effort for the victory after two defeats earlier this season. Halfback Dave Coe, Mustanger last week, pauses momentarily for his blockers (left) while End Fred Holdsworth demonstrates the variety of the home team's attack (right) as he prepares to grab a pass from Quarterback Rich Adams. The Mustangs travel to West Bloomfield on Friday to meet Coach Art Paddy's Lakers, defending Wayne-Oakland League champions who presently are 2-0 in the conference.

Adams Fills Airways Behind Better Line

They may have bent like 10-penny nails two weeks ago, but Friday night Northville linesmen were stiffer than railroad spikes as the Mustangs notched their first triumph after two successive losses.

And they did it the hard way — by upsetting Milford, one of the league's biggest defensive units, in a 12-8 aerial performance that would have made the Red Baron jealous.

The Redskins came to town prepared to waltz through Northville's "weak" line and throttle a potentially dangerous passing attack as had the Mustangs' previous two opponents — Plymouth and Clarenceville.

Instead, they were surprised with a beefed up line and an unexpected offensive punch.

Coach Al Klukach moved the split end in tight to give his squad a tougher front wall and he scrambled the backfield formation to give it maneuverability. The ploy caught Milford off guard and it was unable to adjust its defense successfully.

With more breathing time than in previous games, Quarterback Rich Adams was able to play his best hand — a rifle fast pass that accounted for better than half of Northville's 240-yard attack.

While chief credit for the victory must go to those rejuvenated linesmen who protected Adams and to a rugged defensive unit that stopped Milford's fast running backs, Fred Holdsworth and Bernie Bach must be given credit for being on the receiving end of Adams' passes.

And it was Halfback Dave Coe who ground out most of Northville's yardage on the ground.

Yet, even these superlative performances might have been for naught, had it not been for an unsung hero, Fullback Dan Corcoran. Working out of Klukach's "star" formation, Corcoran took fake handoffs beautifully and repeatedly pulled Milford's defense his way while the plays went elsewhere. He may have the most tackled player on the field. Northville spotted Milford eight points in the opening minutes of the game before striking back with two touchdowns in the second quarter. The Redskins took the opening kick and marched 51 yards on the ground to set up a five-yard touchdown pass from Quarterback Mike Monnier to End Dan Smith. Fullback Matt Partridge carried the ball over tackle for the two-point conversion.

The Mustangs bounced back, taking Milford's kick at the 19 and pushing to the opponent's three-yard line just before the first quarter ended on a 78-yard pass play from Adams to Holdsworth. On the first play of the second quarter, Coe carried the remaining three yards for the touchdown. The pass for the extra two points went incomplete.

Later in the quarter, Northville pushed to the Milford 25 before running out of steam. But on its second down at the 29, Milford fumbled and Northville took possession at the 23. Within easy striking distance, Adams fired to Bach who leaped high to pull in the ball at the seven. He took another pass at the five, and then Adams fired to Co-Captain Terry Mills for the Mustang's second TD. Coe's end run for the conversion was stopped short.

Just before the intermission, Coe intercepted one of Monnier's passes. Northville contented itself with protecting its lead by eating up the remaining seconds on the ground. It was in the second half that Northville's defensive unit showed its best side. The Mustangs stopped a 66-yard Milford march just 19 yards from the end zone and then refused to let Milford penetrate any deeper than the 39 on the only other Redskin skirmish across midfield.

Northville's biggest threat of the second half came early in the third period. The Mustangs swept to the Milford 15, with the key play coming on a 26-yard pass from Adams to Holdsworth.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Enter Today! You May Be A Winner!

HERE ARE THE RULES

$10 First Prize
$5 Second Prize
$3 Third Prize
EACH WEEK!

Take a plain piece of paper and number down the left hand side from 1 to 16.

You will notice that each square below is also numbered from 1 to 16 and each contains a football game to be staged this coming weekend. To complete your entry you must do the following:

(1) after each number on your paper write the name of the sponsor of the corresponding square.

(2) following the sponsor's name — write the name of the winning team.

(3) in addition you must pick a score on the outcome of the game in square 16. This will be used in the case of a tie and then the contestant whose score is closest to the actual score will be declared the winner.

Be sure to write your name, address and phone number plainly on your piece of paper (your entry).

Enter just once a week, but may enter as many weeks as you wish. In case of tie, prize money will be split.

Copies of the contest will be posted at the Northville Record office each week.

Entries should be addressed "Football Contest" and must be postmarked or brought to our office no later than 5 p.m. each Friday.

Employees of The Northville Record—Novi News or sponsoring merchants are not eligible.

Woman Picks 'Em Best; 'Family' Places

Eleanor Szabo, 20841 Metroview, Farmington missed only two games in taking first place in the second weekly football contest co-sponsored by The Record and local businesses.

She wins herself $10, while Richard B. McIsaac, 224 Orchard Drive, wins the $5 second place money and his mother, Mrs. Jeannette McIsaac, same address, takes third place and $3.

Richard, who just returned home after four years in the United States Navy, missed three games as did his mother, but he guessed closer in Detroit's 24-0 score over the New York Giants.

Eleanor had Detroit winning 24-10.

Northville's upset victory over Milford and California's surprising win over Indiana proved to be the most difficult picks in last week's contest. Purdue's triumph over Notre Dame also was a difficult one for many contestants.

Why not try your luck in this week's contest.

WILDCAT CAPTAIN John Davey picks up valuable yardage in a first-period drive Friday against Chelsea but the visiting Bulldogs, undefeated defending Southeastern Conference champion, overpowered the home team, 15-0. Coach John Osborne's squad is idle Friday before resuming play October 10 at Whitford. The Wildcats are now 1-2 for the season.

Bring On Champs

Pieces Falling in Place As Local Team Hits Road

All of a sudden the Mustangs put the pieces together, broke a modest two-game losing string and upset a major contender for the Wayne-Oakland League football title.

They successfully combined an adequate running game with accurate passing while the defense continued to excel as Coach Al Klukach's gang defeated unbeaten Milford, 12-8, last Friday.

So bring on the champs, you exclaim?

The champs it will be Friday when the Mustangs hit the road headed for West Bloomfield and Coach Art Paddy's Lakers who have been practicing the same ole ball-control techniques in winning their first two W-O encounters.

Game time will be 8 p.m. "We changed our offense a little bit and our passing attack finally jelled," Klukach explains. "I think we stung Milford and they just couldn't recover."

And the Mustang-West Bloomfield contest?

"We just have to have it, that's all," he adds. "We play Andover the week after and we need a victory to keep this thing going."

Bloomfield Hills Andover along with West Bloomfield is undefeated in the conference but it is also unscored upon for the season having coasted to three impressive victories. And the Andover game is away, too.

But Klukach realizes his team can't look any farther ahead than West Bloomfield, the defending Wayne-Oakland champ and a perennial power in the league.

Paddy, the dean of coaches in the conference in his thirteenth season, again this season lost their opener and then bounded back with a winning string.

Harriers Win Season's 3rd

The Mustang cross country team defeated Livonia Churchill last Thursday, 24-35, bumping its dual season record to 3-1 with meets slated for Tuesday, today (Thursday) and next Tuesday.

Coach Ben Lauber's harriers were to run against Lutheran West on Tuesday and at Waterford Mott today before hosting Bloomfield Hills Andover next Tuesday.

Paul Bedford, Rick Bell and Dave Wright combined to take second, third and fourth places against Churchill last Thursday while teammates Guy Dixon, Paul Boeger, Wayne Enders and Phil Guider were seventh through tenth, respectively. Churchill's Denny Kurtis was first in 10:57.

Batt Strokes Ace

Robert A. Batt, 535 Reed Street, fired a hole-in-one at Brooklane Golf Course Thursday evening.

Fifth ace at Brooklane this season, Batt's shot was a 175-yard poke on the seventh hole. He used a four iron.

Chelsea Proves 'Cats Year Away

The Wildcats won't win the Southeastern Conference football title for a second season, it was learned last Friday. First and foremost, of course, Coach John Osborne's squad won't be a football champion this season because its one year away from being a member of the rugged Southeastern.

And secondly, and now just as matter-of-factly, the Wildcats won't win a Southeastern title because this year defending champion Chelsea is a better team.

Coach Phil Bareis' Bulldogs took a few moments to make themselves at home Friday and then sped away with a 15-0 decision over the Wildcats representing the first loss at home for the Green since October, 1967.

The loss left the Wildcats at 1-2 for the season — their second consecutive defeat at the hands of a Southeastern opponent — while Chelsea is now 3-0. Novi this week is idle before resuming play on October 10 at Whitford.

Playing before about 600 people in 50-degree temperatures, the home team recovered a fumble on the open kickoff and marched 43 yards in 12 plays before running out of downs inches short on the Chelsea four.

The opening drive, except for their failure to score, was identical to those executed by the Wildcats in its two previous encounters although the attack appeared better balanced with Quarterback Tom Boyer connecting on short passes to his ends while Captain John Davey shared the rushing with workhorse Rick Hill.

The two teams then exchanged drives before the Bulldogs rallied early in the second stanza marching 80 yards and climaxing the effort with a pass off of a field goal formation.

Chelsea marched again late in the same period and then proved, with three seconds remaining in the half, that it really did have a field goal threat as Tim Ortring boomed one through from the seven.

With less than 10 minutes remaining in the game and leading 9-0, the Bulldogs scored their second touchdown with Keith Guster breaking away from 23 yards out scampering in one-play after shifty Larry Gorton had dodged his way 17 yards down to the Novi 23.

Both teams exchanged drives during the remaining nine minutes with neither threatening.

Chelsea won the toss and chose to receive opening the game but the kickoff was a liner which bounced off a Bulldog's pads before being recovered by the Wildcats on the visitor's 47. With Hill and Davey slanting off tackles and Boyer connecting on a quickie pass to End Phil McMillan — and with the help of a timely personal foul by a Chelsea tackler — the Wildcats marched to the four on its opening drive before being stopped inches short of a first down on the two by the Bulldogs defense.

Chelsea's first series was an unimpressive three plays and a punt but the second time it gained possession, it went 78 yards before finding itself with fourth down and goal-to-go on the two.

The Bulldogs promptly set up in field goal formation but Quarterback Jim Weiricki, crouched to hold the expected kick, rolled out instead and fired to End Glen Wilkerson for the score.

Chelsea began its second successful drive — to be capped with a legitimate field goal — with 2:29 remaining in the first half. The Bulldogs went from their own 29 to the Novi seven where John Ortring boomed one through the uprights bumping the visitor's margin to 9-0.

Chelsea's final touchdown drive began on the Novi 40 with Gorton scampering 17 yards on the first play and setting up a 23-yard run around right end by Guster. The kick for the extra point was no good.

After its opening drive, the Wildcats threatened only once moving the ball late in the third quarter down to the Chelsea 11 before a fumbled pitchout was recovered by the visitors.

Andover, Lakers in Early Lead

Bloomfield Hills Andover remained unscored-upon while defending champion West Bloomfield and Andover remained undefeated in the Wayne-Oakland League last Friday with an early-season scramble — involving the Mustangs — developed for third place.

Andover thrashed Kettering, 22-0, running its scoreless string to three games this season while Coach Bob Kefgen's Barons have scored an impressive 76 points. This week Andover travels to Milford to face the Redskins, a definite contender despite dropping a surprise 12-8 decision last Friday to Northville.

The Mustangs this Friday will be at West Bloomfield on the heels of Coach Art Paddy's 32-28 victory over Clarenceville. Northville opened W-O competition earlier this season with a 16-0 loss to Clarenceville.

In other action last Friday, Brighton broke its 11-game losing streak with a 14-6 victory over winless Clarkston. Brighton plays winless Kettering on Friday and Clarkston, not in class earlier this week because of a teachers' strike, scheduled to host Clarenceville.

Andover has established itself as a title contender although its first two W-O encounters have been with Clarkston and Kettering, both considered to be in the midst of lackluster seasons.

Andover's Bob Reid scored two touchdowns and a two-point conversion to lead the Barons Friday and to gain the lead in the league's individual scoring race. Bob Huessner scored Andover's final TD on a 70-yard pass play from Baron Quarterback Scott Roley.

West Bloomfield and Clarenceville were tied 8-8 in the first period Friday before the Lakers moved to a 16-14 halftime advantage. The defending champs led the remainder of the contest out-scoring the Trojans, 16-14, in the last half.

Kim Woodruff scored twice for the Lakers in the last half while Clarenceville's Bob Ridling tallied on a four-yard run, a 10-yard pass from Quarterback Mike Duman and a 10-yard run.

Brighton End Larry Cameron scored both touchdowns for the Bulldogs on pass receptions while Clarkston's Kurt Richardson ran six yards to paydirt for the Wolves' lone tally in the third period.

Schoolcraft Dominates Four-Team Tournament

The Schoolcraft Ocelots dominated its own invitational soccer tourney last weekend winning the title in the four-team field.

Coach Marv Gans' squad defeated Defiance (Ohio) College on Friday, 2-1, and then blanked Henry Ford Community College, 4-0, in the championship match Saturday.

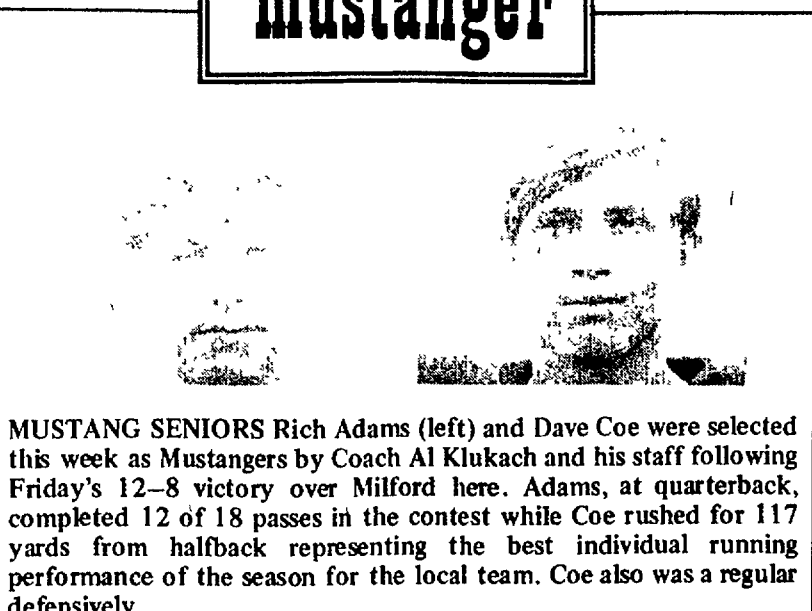

On Friday, Tim DeWitt and Chris Hippler scored goals for the Ocelots while DeWitt, Rick Riedel, Lynn Dodds and Bob See booted tallies Saturday. Riedel's was a penalty kick.

The fourth team competing in the tourney was Marinette (Wisconsin) College.

Schoolcraft also dominated the all-tourney team with Riedel and Brian Young selected as backs along with Henry Ford's John Fuselli and John Beers and Marinette's Ken Anderson. Forwards were See and DeWitt, Defiance's Steve Peterman and John Newman and Mike Karasti of Marinette. Schoolcraft's John Bliss was selected as all-tourney goalie.

The Ocelots, now 3-0 for the season, resume their regular schedule on Friday when they meet Henry Ford at Dearborn.

Meter Reader Device Pushed

A meter reading instrument, which saves inconvenience and money, is available for all older homes in the city. Northville officials reminded residents this week.

Required installation on all newly constructed homes and recommended for older homes, the device is attached to the outside of the house and connected inside to the water meter. It is small and inconspicuous, unlike the water meter itself.

The instrument saves the homeowner the inconvenience of having someone come into his home to read the water meter and, emphasizes City Manager Frank Ollendorff, it cuts in half the time required by city personnel to read meters.

Cost of the meter reader is $25, which includes installation and all future maintenance, the manager said.

Aside from the inconvenience factor and the savings in time and money for the city, the device can lead to detection of water leaks in those houses where the occupants are not home when the "meter man" makes his rounds.

Presently, about eight or nine costly water leaks are detected monthly by Mrs. Phyllis Russell, who bills customers. Whenever a bill runs unusually high in comparison with earlier averages she notifies the customer that a leak may be present. However, where the customer must check his own meter and estimate amounts used because no one is home during the quarterly readings, such leaks can go undetected for long periods of time.

Customer estimates sometimes lead to major bills later when estimates are checked against official accumulated water consumption.

There are approximately 1,550 water meters in the city today, according to Ollendorff and one-third of them are "read" each month. Annual cost for reading and computing meter figures is $5,000.

J.B. EHRLE

Cavern Names J. B. Ehrle For Adviser

J. Brian Ehrle has been named as the new adviser for the Cavern Teen Club.

The selection was made late last week by the Cavern Advisory Board. He succeeds Reverend Timothy Johnson, who resigned from the position.

Ehrle, who lives at 46250 West Main Street, received his BA degree in sociology in 1958 from Denison University, Granville, Ohio. He was awarded an MS degree in community organization in 1965 from University of Michigan.

Ehrle has worked with United Community services of Metropolitan Detroit, Oakland planning division, serving as assistant to the director and has been a psychiatric social worker in adult wards at Ypsilanti State Hospital.

He was assistant executive director of the United Fund Community Services in Ann Arbor, and was a social investigator for the Wayne County Department of social welfare. Presently Ehrle is a member of the executive staff of the United Foundation, Detroit.

Ehrle, 34, and his wife have a daughter.

"We discussed their need for additional space and we were agreeable for them using some of the space upstairs," Kalota explained Tuesday. "We did sit down and talk and we (the township) observed that the city needs space and wants the hall and we have a need, too.

"We would like fire protection and we're willing to pay a fair share," he continued. "But six-and-a-half mills is what residents of the city are paying and they're getting more than just fire protection.

"STORY TIME RECORDS" heard during the Sunday school hour. Classes for all ages.

Methodist Picnic Set

One-hundred percent or better church school attendance is the goal of the First United Methodist Church of Northville next Sunday.

Area residents are reminded that church school classes meet at 9:30 a.m. during the first worship service, while the adult class meets at 11 a.m. during the second service.

Highlighting the day will be a 1 p.m. picnic (place to be announced), with an afternoon of special features.

One of the features certain to delight those attending the potluck dinner will be "Super Candyman" - an old world staple at many European church school picnics but seldom ever seen in America.

Plenty of pop and ice cream is promised, and many games are planned including the "Mysterious Castle" offered especially for children.

"An afternoon in the outdoors in October, good food and fellowship - a pleasant prospect for the whole family," is how planners for the picnic describe the event.

In the event of bad weather, festivities will be held in the church fellowship hall.

Story Hour To Resume

The annual story hour program, sponsored by the Novi Public Library, will resume for another season next week Wednesday beginning at 10 a.m., Librarian Mrs. Robert Flattery announced this week.

Scheduled for one hour each week, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., the program is geared to pre-kindergarten age children. Persons wishing information about the program are asked to call 349-0720.

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

It's not the first economic boycott, nor is it the first one that has been directed against a newspaper. But there's something about the boycott of the Ozaukee County Press that makes you wonder about people and America.

Recently, Life Magazine picked the story up, telling how merchants in Port Washington, Wisconsin, home of the Ozaukee County Press, were boycotting the newspaper owned by Bill Schanon, a home town boy but a liberal in the otherwise conservative, rural community, located 25 miles north of Milwaukee on Lake Michigan.

Schanon, you see, is publishing Kaleidoscope, an underground newspaper originating out of Milwaukee. Described by Life magazine as "mild by comparison to much of the underground press," Kaleidoscope uses "a fair sprinkling of obscenities."

As 56-year-old Schanon says, "I don't agree with a lot of it but what are we supposed to do, get rid of everything we don't agree with?" Schanon is defending his right to print the newspaper, one over which he has no control of content.

An industrialist started the boycott by personally addressing a letter to 500 persons saying he would refuse to do business with anyone who advertised in "The Press." All but two merchants have discontinued buying space and they receive threatening phone calls.

"The Press" is hardly way out. Schanon has molded it into one of the best weeklies in the nation. Only recently — and ironically about the same time the boycott started — "The Press" was selected as the top newspaper in the 1969 National Newspaper Association competition for general excellence.

General excellence covers a wide range of things, including make-up, appropriateness of headlines and stories, editorial page, etc. Responsibility and thoroughness are prerequisites, as is originality. Nevertheless, the seemingly impossible has happened to Bill Schanon.

The publishers Auxiliary, a trade newspaper, printed the story of Schanon's plight last month and a fund has been suggested, seeking donations from publishers and editors to help Schanon combat the boycott. What is at issue here is the owner's right to publish a newspaper which he may not necessarily agree with, but one which has some literary merit. Few would disagree that he has this right.

Yet, an industrialist who controls a lot of purse strings personally doesn't agree, and has mounted all the assistance he can get from sympathizers to put the pressure on advertisers and thus on Schanon.

Schanon could capitulate. He could discontinue publication of Kaleidoscope and probably recoup his losses. But, as Schanon admits, the issue is bigger than Bill Schanon. It effects all of us. Fortunately, Schanon is a bigger man than most of us.

Political Scientist Jabs Spock, Backs U.S. Vietnam Involvement

Launching a flanking maneuver aimed at catching the doves' facts down, Dr. Morton Kaplan, University of Chicago's renowned political science professor, defended the United States involvement in the Vietnam war Thursday in a speech at Schoolcraft Community College.

His defense, billed as a rebuttal to anti-war remarks made by Super Dove Dr. Benjamin Spock at the Northville college earlier, avoided a frontal attack and instead consisted chiefly of a treatise on the complexities of government and a slap at intellectuals who, he contended, twist or over-simplify facts to suit their arguments.

As could be expected on today's college campuses, his remarks fell on a thin audience — a marked contrast to the capacity crowd that squeezed in to hear Spock blast the war, the U. S. government, and especially former President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Major points in Kaplan's address and his responses to far-ranging questions included:

Intellectuals, in opposing the war, have a responsibility to present unshaded arguments.

Citizens who, of course, have a responsibility to humanity, also have a responsibility to their nation and their government.

Governmental complexities as they are, even a good case can be made, from the Russian's point of view, for Stalin's Russian-Nazi Germany pact.

It is foolhardy to believe that the billions of dollars poured into the military could, if redirected, solve the social ills of this nation.

Education is the answer to social problems but the nation's present educational structure is grossly misdirected and inadequate to cope with the need.

President Nixon most assuredly would immediately order troops out of Vietnam if the VietCong would guarantee free elections and not take reprisals against political adversaries.

Without outlining specific reasons for U. S. involvement in Vietnam, Kaplan attempted to justify it by suggesting that to understand the war people must understand the complex nature of national organization.

Conceding that people have obligations to the human race, Kaplan said, "It is important to recognize that we have obligations as citizens of nations as well — for we are members of organizations that produce certain mixed effects."

It is impossible, he said, to maximize two independent values separately. He illustrated his point: "Think of something as simple as a warning system for attack in the nuclear age. Now you want two requirements for the system. You don't want false alarms because then you may send your missiles off when nothing happens. On the other hand, you don't want the system to remain asleep when an attack occurs.

"Now, if you deal with the optimal systems that can be built, what you are forced to recognize is that at the optimal level making improvement against false alarms is to raise the rate of successful, undetected attack and vice-versa. Now it's a matter of judgment which risks you prefer to run. But both of these values cannot be maximized simultaneously. This gets worse when you deal with the maintenance of organizations.

"The point I'm making is that human institutions, when they are complex and even sometimes when they are relatively simple, necessarily fail to perform at desired levels for function simply because these different functions cannot be maximized here are students and teachers have an obligation to train students to think for themselves, not to coerce them into accepting opinions based upon misinformation."

An example of the "misinformation" to which Kaplan referred came up during the question period when he addressed himself to a question over the so-called pre-Vietnam war agreement. "That agreement was for free elections, North and South," he declared. "That agreement also provided that there would be no reprisals against people of political opposition. Now the ink was hardly dry — by the way, the United States never signed that paper but said it disapproved of it but would abide by it as long as the other side did and no longer — when the Communists didn't merely take reprisals in the North against their political opposition but took reprisals against the people who had been fighting with them who were not Communists. Now, as soon as you outlaw opposition parties the idea of free election was a travesty because there was no possibility of a free election in the North. The only place you might have had a free election — and even that was difficult because of the conditions — was in the South where there was at least some kind of political opposition.

"You will note that the North never, during the first part of the period, even asked for elections in the South — that was a later thought. First of all they expected the Southern regime to collapse — So I say that isn't really the issue. I say that the United States would buy this package tomorrow' free elections North and South — we'd settle for free elections in the South let alone the North as the '54 agreement called for — if it had some way of making sure that there wouldn't be reprisals — I think you would find Mr. Nixon buying that so fast your head would swim."

While he admitted that his information may be insufficient to simultaneously. Therefore, to look at the institution and to criticize it from the standpoint that any particular one of the functions is not to understand the way in which it behaves."

According to Kaplan, to understand this kind of complexity is to understand why Stalin engineered to the Nazi-Soviet pact despite the Russian hatred of Germany. The world may have been better off he said, had Russia not signed the pact, "but surely Joseph Stalin and his regime wouldn't have been better off. And, after all, that is what he was trying to protect. This business of simplifying — 'here was an evil man' — didn't tell you anything about the nature of the choices that confronted him."

It is this kind of simplification in which Spock engages, he suggested. His only other biting reference to Spock came in the question and answer period when he suggested that perhaps the baby doctor need not be bound to factual explanation since he (Kaplan) is not sure a medical degree makes one an intellectual.

Concerning the intellectual, he said, "Academics has some obligation to attempt correctly to inform our audiences — There are certain procedural standards for ethical conduct debate. After all, most of you

Novi Tops Area In Home Building

Home construction in Novi topped all other communities in this area during the first-half of the year, according to a report released this week by the planning division of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SMCOG).

Elsewhere, all counties except St. Clair registered gains, ranging from a low of 7.7 percent in Oakland to a high of 58 percent in Monroe. Other increases included Macomb, 22.4 percent; Wayne, 9.9 percent; Washtenaw, 49.8 percent; and Livingston, 13.1 percent. St. Clair dropped by 24.6 percent.

Novi recorded a total of 94 new home starts — all single family units.

Next highest construction rate occurred in Wixom where 44 single family units and 28 multi-family units were started, while Northville Township placed third with a net total of 51 units. The township building pace included 49 single family units and 21 multi-family dwellings. The overall growth, however, dropped to 51 because of 19 home demolitions.

Five new homes were built in the City of Northville during the first sixth months of the year.

Construction rates in neighboring communities included:

City of Plymouth, 6 new home units; Plymouth Township, 70; Salem Township, 15; Lyon Township, 31; South Lyon, 5; Walled Lake, 8; Wolverine Lake, 22; Farmington Township, 300; City of Farmington, 41; and Brighton, 5.

Dear Bill:

The Northville Record is selected as the outstanding weekly newspaper in Michigan in its circulation class for 1969. This is the opinion of a team which judged newspapers for their General Excellence.

You and your entire newspaper staff can take a great deal of pride in this accomplishment. This designation is no small honor, and I hope the people in your community appreciate its significance.

The newspaper which wins the General Excellence designation is judged for its overall appearance, its news reporting, its editorial content, its photography and its mechanical layout. The weekly which combines all of these factors most effectively is selected for the honor.

A handsome plaque denoting your achievement is being sent to you under separate cover. I hope it looks fine on your office wall.

Again, I extend the congratulations of this organization.

Best regards,

Elmer E. White

You Bet The Record Staff is Proud!

Publishing a good newspaper is a team effort.

It takes talented and dedicated people.

It takes growing, progressive communities.

It takes interested and devoted citizens and public officials.

It takes aggressive merchandisers who advertise.

That's why we're proud...because our newspapers have all the ingredients to become prize-winning publications. When we enter the Michigan Press Association contests, we're trying to win.

The Northville Record—Novi News is also proud of its sister publication, The South Lyon Herald. It won Second Place in General Excellence in its circulation category.

The Brighton Argus, newest addition to The Record—News—Herald family, joined our group too late to enter the 1969 contest. Next year you'll be hearing about The Argus, too!

Some 'Diets' Are Bad

Reverend James Andrews Full Salvation Union

Jesus said, as recorded in John 6:33: "The Bread of God is He who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world." Again in John 6:53, Jesus said, "Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you."

This is the new name which "the mouth of the Lord has named." Isaiah 62:2. It is now revealed that this is what has been going on for 1900 years. God has spoken and He cannot lie, by causing all of His elect to become a partaker of the Divine nature, to "take on" the Name of Jesus in the sense of becoming like Him, to live no longer in their own nature or name but in His nature — His Name.

Many have made effort in many ways through the years to feed on Christ. They have done everything their religious leaders have told them to do and still they find themselves unable to enter into this blessed state of "Full Salvation Union."

How faithfully we have been warned. Jesus said, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets, and you yourselves thrust out. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last."

make a sound judgment, he neverthe less indicated that there is some evidence to support the idea that the South Vietnamese people are not so enamored with the Communists or its philosophy as some doves declare.

"After the Tet offensive - which was an enormous psychological, political victory for the VietCong but a military defeat - one thing the papers didn't notice but that did occur was that there were over 20 cities where there was not a single American soldier and the VietCong were not able to penetrate. Which gives some indication - not that there is enormous support for the present government - but that perhaps the Vietnamese people don't want Communism."

There is an argument for pulling out of Vietnam, he conceded, and "I will understand it, I respect it, I disagree with it. I don't think it's a simple one. I don't think the equities are simple."

Kaplan took the position - in regard to those that say the government denies an individual his morality in forcing him into war against his wishes - that there is a difference between constraining morality and constraining action.

He explained this difference by recalling that once he was asked by a military commander in a staff school why he could criticize the government and expect the military to obey orders. The answer: "He didn't have to agree with the orders - no one was trying to coerce his mind. He had an obligation as an officer in the army to obey orders..."

"(Although) a draftee can't quit - he's in for two years - but, still think of it as people having an obligation to their society. I'm sorry, you do - No one has to be a citizen of the United States. There's an alternative. We have a government elected by the majority of public which has decided upon a certain course of policy. It doesn't coerce anyone's morality - Other people have exercised the option under more dire circumstances..."

Certainly, said Kaplan, a man has an obligation to his own conscience or convictions, but he must be prepared "to pay" for it by exercising the options - namely living elsewhere or paying the penalty under the law.

Concerning what he considers is a false assumption - that war monies diverted to national social problems would solve them - Dr. Kaplan said that even if the money were available no one today knows how to use them effectively. Social welfare programs, he said, have failed measurably because no one has effectively analyzed the problems to solve them.

The greatest hope, he suggested, lies in education. But even before education can do the job it needs complete re-evaluation and re-organization. Unfortunately, educational lobbies are too jealous, too established to permit this kind of self-examination and restructuring, he said.

Asked how he would change the educational structure, Kaplan smiled and said: "I'd get rid of almost all of the teachers - What I would do would be to search for some great teachers, pay them enormous sums of money, might pay around $20,000, and these would be the people who would do the following things:

"They would work with very fast learners, and then they would work with the slow. And then, with a teaching machine which would grind out the answers that are in them, they would ask students to raise questions for the answers given by the machines in other words creative thinking, challenging thought, challenge the teacher what is wrong, teach then negative thoughts. Every brilliant

'I'd get rid of almost all the teachers. . . What I would do would be to search for some great teachers, pay them enormous sums of money, and put together a television program.'

and put together a television program. Now there are only some subjects you can do this with, but get really great teachers, pay them $100,000 - it's cheap. Get nine districts in the United States - nine school districts - each with a competing program so you could test them comparatively. Try to get a great teacher who could really stimulate. Then get teaching programs. Then in each school have a small group of very superior teachers, who you leader is a negative thinker, always has been, always will be..."

In terms of opening minds this would be the only way to do it. I don't think you can do it with the bulk of teachers we have. They don't know how to do it, they would be threatened by it, and I think you'd have to get rid of them - You know I don't look at it so seriously as anything other than a polemic suggestion."

DR. MORTON KAPLAN - UNIVERSITY WARHAWK

College Marks Gandhi's Birth, Indian Struggle

A week-long observance of the centenary of the birth of Mahatma Gandhi, the architect of India's freedom, began last Monday, September 29, at Schoolcraft College. The week's program, announced by Dr. Ralph Atchley, chairman of the college's cultural affairs committee, will include daily hour-long discussion sessions on the great Indian leader, a film on Gandhi, and performance and display of the music and art of India. A brief period of meditation will be part of each daily program.

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was born October 2, 1869, in Porbandar, Kathiawar. His father and grandfather were of the Vaishya, or trading, caste, and were chief ministers in Kathiawar princely states. Gandhi's mother, Putlibai, was a deeply religious woman and it was her influence that played a major role in forming Gandhi's character.

Married at 12, educated in India and London, Gandhi returned to India to practice law and then had an opportunity to go to South Africa. There he experienced the humiliation of a non-white in a segregated society.

Gandhi determined to remain in South Africa and it was during this period of his life that his philosophy of active non-violence took form.

Gandhi founded the Natal Indian Congress party in 1894 and later embraced voluntary poverty as a means of expressing the principle of satyagraha, as "a force which is born of truth and love or non-violence."

Gandhi returned to India in 1915 where he was hailed by Rabindranath Tagore as Mahatma, or "great soul."

He was assassinated in Delhi on January 30, 1948.

Free Concert In Plymouth To Resume

First free concert in the Plymouth Symphony's 24th season will be held Saturday, October 11 beginning at 8 p.m. in Plymouth High School, corner of Church and Main streets.

The all Berlioz program is part of a worldwide celebration commemorating the 100th anniversary of the artist's death. Works will include three pieces from "The Damnation of Faust"; Les Nuits d'Ete, featuring Roman Riddell, soprano and Symphonie Fantastique.

Miss Riddell returns "by popular demand" after delighting audiences at Schoolcraft Summer Festival and the Pop Concert last May. A graduate of the Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto, she holds the Artist's Diploma of the Royal Conservatory. She has been a leading soprano of the Toronto Opera Festival Company and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Opera Company.

Conductor of the symphony orchestra is Wayne Dunlap, who has been conducting the symphony since 1951.

Founded in 1945 as a string group of 10 musicians, the orchestra is now composed of 100 professional or highly talented volunteers. University of Michigan and Wayne State Faculty members play in the orchestra as well as members from the Detroit Symphony, Toledo Symphony and the Schoolcraft College Court Orchestra

Summer Dies As Kensington Colors Bloom

The next few weeks should bring brilliant fall color to southeastern Michigan and among the sites easiest to observe the changing season are the parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

Persons may take self-directed color tours at all eight HCMA parks, with the best color expected from early October through the weekend of October 19th. Persons wishing a map showing the location of all eight parks may write to Metropark Guide, HCMA, 1750 Guardian Building, Detroit, Michigan, 48226 or Phone 961-5865 (Detroit). The new 1969-70 Metropark Guide with the pink cover was introduced last month.

Highlights of fall color at nearby Kensington Metropolitan Park include:

Sumac, maple and sassafras provide early fall color, followed by the aspens, oaks, tamaracs and beach trees which bring new hues to the hills surrounding Kent and Wilding Lakes. Several miles of roadway provide a restful, colorful drive through the 4,300 acre park. The Canada Geese located near the Nature Center, are a popular attraction. Individual and family groups are welcome to take a nature hike through the labelled trails. Exhibit hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays.

Other facilities during the fall color season include boat rental service and Island Queen tours until mid-October, operating weekends only and "weather permitting", plus daily operation of the 18-hole golf course and food service at the starter building. Park hours are sunrise to 11 p.m. For information call 685-1561 (Milford).

Winterize! Clip Grass

Lawns should be mowed to a height of 1 1/2 to 2 inches at the end of fall.

If grass is left any taller, there is a good chance snow mold damage will occur, says James Beard, Michigan State University turfgrass researcher. Lawns cut extremely short are more likely to suffer low temperature injury.

"Short mowing is best practiced in early spring prior to the beginning of growth," says Beard.
