

Northville Postmen Keep Working

NEITHER RAIN, nor the nationwide strike kept Northville postmen from making their rounds early this week. Like Cap Pethers, local postmen delivered mail as usual Monday morning even though mail from and to outside communities was virtually at a standstill.

Northville mail carriers and clerks remained on the job through Tuesday — even though they voted Friday to join with striking postal employees across the nation.

Local postal services at Novi, Wixom and Walled Lake were unaffected, but services at Plymouth and Livonia were temporarily at a standstill as employees there walked off the job, returning later in the week.

Although delivery of mail in Northville, Novi and Wixom continued Tuesday, the postal embargo brought incoming and outgoing mail to a virtual standstill. Only 300 pieces of mail were delivered Monday in Northville — the lowest level in more than 25 years.

"Our people came in Saturday and took just 10 minutes to decide to keep working," said Northville Postmaster John Steimel, "even though they voted Friday night to strike."

"We decided to wait and see if an agreement is real or imaginary," a spokesman said.

While employees remained on the job their sympathies were with the strikers and their demands for higher salaries.

Northville carriers and clerks, like those elsewhere, receive a starting salary of $6,100 to a maximum of $8,400 after 20 years. None of the nine

Hunt For Eggs Set Saturday

More than 300 youngsters are expected to turn out Saturday morning for the annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Northville Jaycees.

The hunt will get underway at 10 a.m. in the Northville athletic area of Hines Parkway (between Seven Mile Road and Kings Mill subdivision).

In extending an invitation to the youngsters of the community, Jaycee officials pointed out that there will be eggs for all. There also will be some prizes, courtesy of local merchants.

The hunt will be divided into four age groups: pre-school and kindergarten; first and second graders; third and fourth graders; and fifth and sixth graders.

Jaycee co-chairman of the project are H Lyn Bourne and Pat Dustin.

New Township Budget Set

A proposed record-high 1970-71 township budget was unanimously ratified by the Northville Township Board Tuesday for presentation to the public at the annual meeting slated for April 4.

The budget, calling for an outlay of $175,400 as compared to the current year's budget of $164,220, was approved without comment at Tuesday's settlement day meeting.

If there had been differences of opinion while the board carved out the budget in secret, they never surfaced publicly.

That wasn't the case as the board voted to purchase a new police car, however. Public debate on this subject carried over two meetings and continued even after the board had voted 5-0 to Tuesday accept the second highest of four bids.

In still other business Tuesday, the board found discrepancies in the treasurer's financial settlement report and, rather than approving it, recessed the meeting until Monday night after Treasurer Alex Lawrence has had an opportunity to revise the document.

Following are the proposed expenditures in the new budget:

Administrative — $50,594, up from $45,430 in the 1969-70 budget; legislative — $7,498, up from $5,540; departments — $82,858, up from $74,400; operation of buildings — $4,264, down from $5,050; fixed charges — $9,000, up from $6,500; auxiliary services — $19,550, down from $23,300; and capital outlay — $1,636, down from $4,000.

Salary increases (under administrative outlay) include: Supervisor, from $7,000 to $7,420; clerk, from $6,400 to $6,784; and treasurer, from $5,820 to $6,169.

Under departmental expenditures, the fire outlay was boosted from $18,000 to $21,609; police from $12,000 to $14,200; building from $28,000 to $30,000; and recreation from $6,700 to $9,555.

While some modest increases are called for under auxiliary services, a cutback of from $11,300 to $5,000 for

Year-Round School To Go on June Ballot

School board trustees voted unanimously Monday night to put the year-round school concept to an advisory vote of the electors on June 8.

In recommending the concept be put on the ballot, Superintendent Raymond Spear noted that "only 50-percent of the parents of school-age children have been surveyed. The vote would give the remainder an opportunity to express their opinion."

Spear also said parents without children in school would have a way to express their feelings.

In approving the resolution, trustees noted the action was an advisory vote and it would then be up to the board to make the final decision whether or not to implement year-round school in the district.

Trustees said they are "not committed to year-round school nor are they endorsing the concept. The board is only endorsing the study we are making with the $19,565 grant received from the State Legislature."

The June 8 ballot will also include filling two seats on the board. Trustee Stanley Johnston's term expires, and the vacancy left when Robert Froelich resigned to take another job, must be filled. Both are four-year terms.

Petitions for the vacancies so far have been taken out by incumbent Johnston. Filing date is May 11. Voters must register at the city or township hall in the area they live in by May 8.

Trustees agreed to submit a proposal for financing conversion costs to year-round school from the traditional semester system to the state department of education and the federal government for funding.

It has been estimated the conversion costs would be $1 million over a four-year period.

Board members indicated whether or not the district received all or part of the $1 million from state or federal governments could play a major role in their final decision on the year-round concept.

Spear said if the school district did implement the concept Northville would be the only district in the United States with a true year-round program.

Plans also were discussed to pre-register students on a year-round system to see how scheduling could be handled.

In other action Monday, trustees adopted a policy on book selection, approved purchase of four buses and approved the release of one teacher. By a vote of 5-2, trustees adopted a policy on book selection covering supplementary reading materials not already approved by the American Library Association and/or the high school Library Committee.

Department chairmen who believe a book may arouse public objection must submit the book to the principal two weeks prior to planned classroom use.

Within five school days after the SCORING the highest number of points of any team this season, Northville High topped Cherry Hill of Inkster by a score of 315-110, Saturday, in the weekly "High School Bowl" quiz program on WWJ-TV. "They were phenomenal," commented team coach David Graff. "The team anticipated very well what the question would be, showing they are very aware of what is going on around them." Team members Mike Fitzpatrick, Rick Sechler, Gary Glenn, John Balkwill and Dorothy Shipley each received copies of the World Book Yearbook and the World Almanac.

FORMAL REQUEST for rezoning of part of its Highland Lakes property (located east of the city, south of Eight Mile Road) is expected to be presented to the Northville Township Planning Commission Tuesday by Levitt & Sons. The request asks rezoning to permit construction of townhouses in place of single family homes. Rezoning requests also are expected to be made for shopping center proposals at Eight Mile and Haggerty and, perhaps, at Seven Mile and Haggerty.

STATE DAR ESSAY WINNERS, announced this week, include Donna Guard, a seventh grade student at Ida B. Cooke Junior High who was a local winner in the DAR contest held in area schools in February. Donna's essay, "Are All Men Created Equal?", won second place in the state competition. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guard, 20375 Woodhill.

A TOTAL OF 285 Northville residents took advantage of the free TB X-ray clinic sponsored here recently by the Jaycees as part of their community health project. X-ray service was provided by the Wayne County Health Department's mobile van. Oldest individual receiving an X-ray was 88-years-old, youngest was 18 — the minimum age.

THE RUMOR of staggered classes at the high school has been denied by Superintendent Raymond Spear. "The first unit of 11 classrooms will be completed by October 1," he said, "and for the first month we will be operating in an overcrowded situation." The board made the decision not to go to staggered classes since "it is too cumbersome to completely reschedule classes once the rooms are completed," he noted. "If we run into a construction strike that delays the completion date," Spear said, "we will consider leasing portable classrooms for the interim period."

Government Looks Elsewhere

Job Corps Center Here Shelved

Plans for the federal job training center at Maybury Sanatorium have been indefinitely shelved and may be permanently scrapped, a spokesman for the federal government has told The Record.

According to James Whiting of the government's job corps division in Detroit, "We've run into some location problem and we're now considering the possibility of using facilities at Fort Wayne (in Detroit) instead." He did not disclose the nature of the "problem".

"We might never use it (Maybury)," he said.

A spokesman for the City of Detroit said he was unaware of the change in the government's plans. Detroit had last year consummated an agreement to lease Maybury at $1 a year to house the center. Plans for the center had been disclosed even earlier to township officials by federal officials.

Meanwhile, Detroit officials have informed City Manager Frank Ollendorff that the city's application for purchase of part of the Maybury property for recreational purposes is still "in the active file."

Ollendorff was told that Mayor Gribbs' administration still plans (as did Mayor Cavanagh's administration) to sell the property before the year is out. Engineers and surveyors, he was told, are inspecting the property and plans call for it to be referred to a real estate board for study and recommendation.

Last November, Richard Jaffe, projects manager for the Job Corps

Task Force, and David Nelson, an assistant to Mayor Cavanagh, outlined the job training center plan here in a special meeting of the township.

It was noted at the time that the center would cover 140-acres, including the old TB administration buildings in the westerly-most area of the 900-acre Maybury site, and that it would not interfere with Northville efforts to acquire 200 acres for community recreation use.

(Maybury was closed officially last summer for the treatment of TB patients. It is a Detroit-owned facility located between Seven and Eight Mile roads, west of Beck Road.)

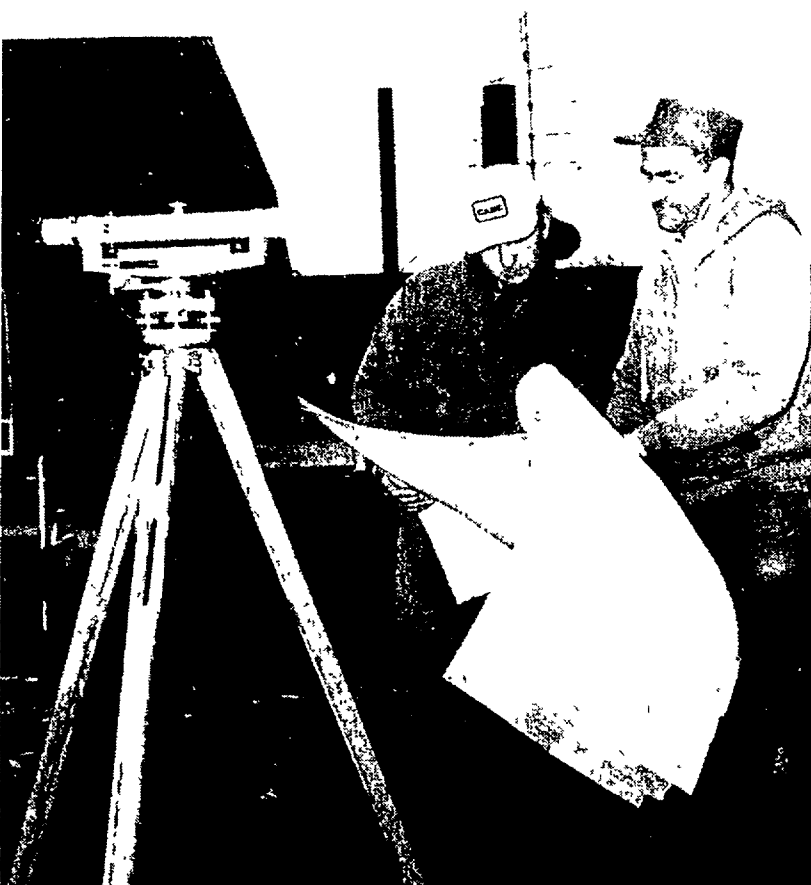

Jaffe explained that the center would be a fully-controlled facility with a maximum of 250 youngsters and between 100 and 110-member staff. Its purpose, he said, would be to prepare youths for specific jobs and to give them enough ability to progress in their jobs.

The government financed project would call for students to be bussed to and from Detroit on weekends, he said.

The project had no connection with earlier efforts by the City of Detroit to establish a training at Maybury. After spending more than $20,000 in rejuvenation of one of the buildings there several years ago, Detroit abandoned its training center plan because federal funds were not made available as anticipated.

The Record has learned that the latest job training center plan, now aimed at Fort Wayne, would involve the contracting with an industrial firm for its training operation.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS — Construction of additions to Northville schools is underway, with major initial emphasis occurring here at Moraine Elementary School where workmen are busy with site preparation and foundation construction.

NEW PREXY - Mrs. Leonard Klein poses as a housewife-shopper in Northville Woman's Club's annual skit by members given last Friday at the annual luncheon meeting at which she assumed presidency of the 77-year-old club.

Mrs. Klein Elected

Woman's Club Ends Year

Mrs. Leonard Klein succeeded Mrs. Blake Couse as president of the Northville Woman's Club at the annual meeting last Friday, becoming the 45th president of the 77-year-old organization, one of the oldest women's clubs in the Detroit area.

In addition to the election of officers, the meeting following the luncheon and program by members included presentation of corsages to four new life members who have been active in the club for 25 years. They are Mrs. Orson Atchinson, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Mrs. Paul Schulz and Mrs. Charles Yahne.

Other new officers are Mrs. Douglas Day, vice-president; Mrs. L. D. Rambeau, re-elected recording secretary; Mrs. Walter Stamann, corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Slattery, treasurer. Directors are Mrs. Couse, Mrs. H. O. Evans, Mrs. Francis Gazlay, Mrs. William Switzler and Mrs. E. O. Weber.

Mrs. Keith Wright was named program chairman for the 1970-71 club year. Serving with her will be Mrs. George Weiss, E. G. Sprunk, Mrs. James Tellam, Mrs. William Dyke, Mrs. Donald Funk and Mrs. Richard Cooper.

The program, arranged by Mrs. William Crump, Mrs. Weiss and Mrs. George Kohs, was based on "Bless This Mess - and Other Prayers," a slim book published last year by two Texas housewives, Jo Carr and Imogene Sorley.

The informal prayers for women "with everyday dragons to slay" were

Northville Boosts April 8 Overture

BY JEAN DAY
LOCAL OVERTURE to Opera Committee, which brought Overture productions to Northville in 1968 and 1969, this year is supporting the Overture performance at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 8, at the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium.

In addition to selling tickets for the performance ($5, $4, and $3), the committee is arranging a charter bus to eliminate driving and parking problems for the "Barber of Seville" offering.

After the Northville committee encountered difficulty in trying to arrange a local date for a performance, it voted to help sponsor the art institute one which will include orchestration. Last week at a meeting at the Home of Mrs. Ernest J. Shave, chairman, the committee made plans for the charter bus, which will leave from the school administration building.

All performances this year will be in English, Mrs. Shave points out, adding that the role of the lovely Rosina in the Rossini opera will be sung by Maria Ewing, mezzo-soprano and winner of the $2,500 Grinnell opera award last month.

Reservations for tickets and the charter bus may be made with any committee member. They are Mrs. Harold L. Wright, Mrs. John Mowat, Mrs. Edward Zywiec, Mrs. George Jerome, Mrs. Stanton Schaefer, Mrs. Charles Wheatley, Mrs. Donald Ware, Mrs. Robert Froelich, Mrs. B.A. Zayti.

A FORMER Northville resident, Mrs. Carl Voight, who moved with her family from Grace Court last year to a large Victorian home in Fenton, Michigan, was back in town to attend a farewell coffee honoring former neighbor Mrs. Robert Froelich last week.

In Fenton Sandy Voight already is an active member of the Fenton Home Tour committee and hopes many Northville residents will visit the five vintage homes to be open from 1 to 4:30 p.m. April 4. Tickets are available at each home.

Homes include the Henry Phillips home at 609 South Leroy which was built about 1836 and where a legendary poker game was supposed to have been held to name the town.

In conjunction an antique show is being held at St. Jude's Episcopal Church. Exhibitors include Stone Cellar Owner Jean Magee.

KING'S MILL Women's Club is teaming a new-season fashion show with a talk on the use of fabrics and trims for its April meeting at 8 p.m. April 16 in the townhouse clubhouse. The fashions are being made by members in the club's sewing about Women and the family group. They also will model them.

Commentator is to be Mrs. Fern McCormick of the Cotton Pickin' Shop in Plymouth, who also is giving the talk on fabrics for spring and summer. Even members who don't sew will enjoy a feature of her talk—ways to individualize store-purchased dresses with new trims — or to give a fresh look to last-season clothes.

Organized to promote sociability among the 420 women living in King's Mill, the women's club is open to every woman in the townhouses and has no dues. Last week members heard a talk, "Astrology and You," by Mrs. Ann Arendsen of Plymouth.

Formerly associated with Arthur's Discotheque, Mrs. Arendsen does astrological analyses, which, she pointed out, differ from predictions. She has done them for such celebrities as Ann Landers and Art Linkletter.

The club heard Mrs. Ollie Smith of the Four Sails Antique Shop in February. She spoke on "Small Antiques—from Toys to Fine Glass." She also identified and commented on antiques brought by members. (Mrs. Smith currently is chairman of the Our Lady of Victory Antique Fair to be held May 23 and 24 at Northville Downs.)

DAR MEMBERS and friends buying tickets to the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter's Old World Treasures benefit for Michigan Indians May 2 at the Joy Road Studio, Plymouth, aren't likely to leave the ducats at home for they measure a full seven inches long.

Available from local members at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, the tickets provide a donation to a worthy group as well as unusual entertainment. Demonstrations will include basketweaving, Japanese name writing (a souvenir to frame), pewter work (to buy) and origami.

NORTHVILLE MOTHERS' Club planned a May fund-raising benefit (for the schools, as always) and also heard how part of this year's donation for cultural "extras" was spent at its meeting Monday night.

A performance of "As You Like It" was given for afternoon

English classes at the high school last week by Oakland University players. Funds to bring them here were supplied through the club's cultural donation.

Time for a May Day Sale was set for Saturday, May 2, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the board of education building. Chairman for this year's nearly-new sale is Mrs. James Tellam. Always a popular event, the sale will include household goods and antiques as well as clothes. The clothes, Mrs. Tellam stresses, will be nearly-new and for adults as well as children.

Date for the next meeting, a spring guest night, is April 13. "Where Will We Be In 1984?" is the topic to be discussed by Brad Matthews, a student at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. The program will be at the home of Mrs. Gordon Forrer. Mrs. Edward Kelly is program chairman.

BARBARA ANN PILARZ

Engaged

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Pilarz, 21650 Chubb Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to Nicholas B. Link, the son of Mrs. N.B. Link of Detroit and the late Mr. Link.

Miss Pilarz is a Northville High School graduate of the Class of 1964. She also is a graduate of the University of Michigan and now teaches in the Holly area schools. Her fiancé is a student at El Camino College and currently is employed by Shell Chemical of California.

No wedding date has been set.

Extension Clubs Schedule Meet

"The Joy of Living Creatively" is the theme for a bi-county meeting of Wayne and Oakland Extension Study Groups to be held from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. April 15 in Roma Hall, 27777 Schoolcraft Road in Livonia.

The extension groups are inviting women of other women's organizations and friends to attend the program. A Creative Arts Council and Chinese cookery by Victor Lim's restaurant are morning highlights. A fashion show by Fisher's Women's Apparel will be presented in the afternoon.

Luncheon is $3 with the price including both morning and afternoon programs. Reservations should be made in advance with Mrs. Harold Seden, 402 Randolph, 349-3371. All women in the area interested are invited to make reservations.

Scouts Plan Camp Fund Drive

A $600,000 Camp Development Drive for funds to develop Huron Valley Girl Scout Council camping facilities is announced this week, designed to coincide with the official arrival of spring.

George Zerbel, Northville area division chairman of the capital funds drive, points out that "a lot of people begun to think about going camping with the arrival of spring, but there's one group that's been giving a lot of thought to camping all year long — the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council."

Pointing out that this is the first time local Girl Scouts have sought public support for capital improvements, Zerbel said, "The Girl Scouts have a problem — facilities are limited and the Scouts just can't find space for all the girls and troops that want to go camping, not only in summer, but on week-ends and school vacations all year long."

The Girl Scouts own Camp Linden, a 430-acre wooded site in northern Livingston County. When they acquired the camp nearly ten years ago, Zerbel points out, there were no usable buildings on the property and it was used mainly for primitive and outpost camping. Over the years they've done some development at the camp, largely through profits from annual cookie sales. To date over $200,000 has been invested in the camp, including the initial cost of the land and the addition of a swimming and boating area, roads, base utilities, one winterized cabin and three tent units.

According to Zerbel, the Girl Scouts want to keep the camp as natural and simple as they can, but there are some improvements that are essential to good camping and for the health and safety of the girls.

Scout officials estimate that it would take them until the year 2005 to complete the camp development financed through cookie sale profits alone.

"We can't wait that long," said Zerbel, adding "Girls are being turned away from camping now and the situation is going to get more urgent as Girl Scout membership continues to grow. With the 10-year age span of Girl Scouting, by the year 2005 at least three generations of Scouts would have missed out on camping — we can't let that happen."

The Huron Valley Council is asking for financial support from businesses, industries, foundations, and individuals throughout the area to help meet this urgent need for camping facilities. They're conducting the $600,000 camp development fund drive with William P. MacFall, Ann Arbor, as general chairman.

Campaign funds will be used to build 15 new structures at Camp Linden. Included in the plans are a dining hall that will seat 200, four large winterized troop houses, two smaller winterized troop houses with one that will be convertible for health-center usage during the summer, a caretaker's residence, a boathouse, two tent units, smaller administrative buildings, and improved water recreation and service facilities.

Cook-Off Recipes

Refrigerated Rolls Win

Those round cans of refrigerator rolls and biscuits were ingredients in two of the winning recipes in Detroit Edison's annual cook-off contest for women who work, held last Thursday.

While Northville-Novis contestants Mrs. Joan Wilfong and Mrs. Marion Thomas were not among the top three winners, both commented they enjoyed being among the top ten contestants chosen from almost 300 — and still are eligible to enter again next year.

The winning recipe submitted by Miss Faye T. Hinds of Westland, a Burroughs secretary, utilized buttermilk biscuits

HAT FULL O'HASH

- 2 cans of buttermilk biscuits (5 to a can)
- 2 cans corned beef hash
- 1 can French style sliced green beans (16 oz.)

- ¼ cup slivered almonds
- 1 tbsp. dehydrated onions
- 1 tsp. sweet basil
- ½ tsp. salt
- ¼ cup Parmesan cheese-grated

In medium size bowl mix beans, almonds, basil, salt and onions. Set aside.

Roll each biscuit out on a piece of wax paper — sprinkled with cheese. Make the circles about six inches across. On five of the circles, place a slice of the hash which has been divided into five equal portions. Top the hash with a portion of the bean mixture which also has been divided into five portions. Top each of these with another biscuit circle and carefully seal. Flute as you would a pie crust.

Place on a flat teflon cookie sheet and bake in a 350 degree oven for 25 to 30 min. or until golden brown. Serves 5.

SOUR CREAM SAUCE

- 3 ounces cream cheese
 - 1 cup sour cream
 - pinch of salt
 - 1 tbsp. dehydrated chopped chives
- Soften cream cheese and blend with the sour cream. Add salt and chives, mix thoroughly and chill.

PENNY PUFF PIE

(Second Place Winner)

- 2 tbsp. chopped onion
- 2 tbsp. chopped green pepper
- 1 pkg. crescent-type refig. rolls
- 1 10-ounce pkg. smoked sausage links
- 3 slices Swiss cheese
- 3 eggs
- ¼ cup sour cream
- ½ cup flour
- ½ tsp. salt

Chop the hard cooked eggs coarsely and combine in a bowl with the drained and flaked salmon blend in cream style corn, packaged bread stuffing, finely chopped onion, diced pimiento, mayonnaise, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Mix lightly but thoroughly and spoon into six individual ramekins or scallion shells. Bake in a 425 450 degree oven for 20 min. or until piping hot and lightly browned. Enjoy at once

Saute onion and green pepper in small amount of butter or margarine until tender. Arrange crescent rolls (unrolled) in ungreased 9" pie pan to form a crust. Cut sausages into slices ¼" thick (shape of pennies) and arrange on crust. Cover with the cheese Beat 3 egg whites stiff and set aside.

Beat 3 egg yolks until light. Add sour cream, flour, salt, onion, and green pepper. Gently fold in the egg whites. Do not over-blend; leave a few lumps of egg white. Pour this mixture on top of cheese. Sprinkle with paprika and bake 350 degrees for 35 40 min. or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean.

SALMON-CORN SCALLOP

(Third Place Winner)

- 1 can (1 lb.) salmon
- 1 can (1 lb.) cream style corn
- 3 hard cooked eggs
- 1 cup packaged bread stuffing
- 1 med. onion, finely chopped
- ¼ cup diced pimiento
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- 1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 3 tbsp. lemon juice
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. seasoned pepper

Chop the hard cooked eggs coarsely and combine in a bowl with the drained and flaked salmon blend in cream style corn, packaged bread stuffing, finely chopped onion, diced pimiento, mayonnaise, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Mix lightly but thoroughly and spoon into six individual ramekins or scallion shells. Bake in a 425 450 degree oven for 20 min. or until piping hot and lightly browned. Enjoy at once

News Around Northville

Kim Marburger, a student at Bullis Preparatory School in Annapolis, has been named winner of a patriotism and citizenship essay contest sponsored by the Bethesda (Maryland) chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars.

He received a $100 bond and a medal at a dinner given at the officers club at the U.S. Naval Medical Center in Bethesda. His essay now is entered in the national Freedom Festival Award competition at Valley Forge. It will be published in the April issue of the Order's national magazine.

Kim also is one of three finalists in the Silver Spring, Maryland, Civitan Club essay competition. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Marburger, 20149 Whipple Drive, he was president of his Northville High School graduating class in 1969.

Mrs. Dora Lanning was honored at a birthday luncheon attended by 18 friends Saturday at Andy's Steak House in South Lyon.

Mrs. Charles Harrison (the former Pamela Kehr of Novi) flew to Honolulu last weekend to join her husband, Marine Private Harrison, son of Mrs. Robert Pankow, 373 Linden Street, who is to be in Hawaii until April 2 on a Rest and Recuperation leave. He has served with the Marines for 15 months and has been in Vietnam for six months.

They are making the Edgewater Hotel their Honolulu headquarters but also will be touring the outer islands.

EASTER BUNNY LUNCHEON — A capacity crowd of youngsters was on hand Saturday as the Novi Jaycee Auxiliary staged its annual Easter Bunny luncheon at the Novi Community Building. Several youngsters got a sneak preview of the luncheon entertainment featuring the Easter Bunny (Ray Mason) and Skip-It the Clown, member of the Operation Jump for Joy organization. Winners of the poster contest held in the schools to publicize the event were Anthony Sinicola and Jeff Laverty, Orchard Hills, Sheila Alvers, Sherri Crowe, Karla Beachy and Kenny VanSickle, Novi Elementary.

School Census Slated In Northville April 1-15

A school census will be taken by the Northville School district during April 1 through 15, Earl Busard, district business manager, announced this week.

Though no longer required by law, administrators said the census will be used to "project the enrollment in our schools."

Conducting the house-to-house census will be Mrs. Charles Angell, west area; Mrs. John Angell, north of Baseline; Frederick Hartt, east area; Mrs. Rene VanEe, city of Northville; and Mrs. Charles Kehrer, King's Mill and Nine and Ten Mile roads.

The census enumerators will be counting all children from birth to 20 years of age. A census of handicapped children also will be included, tabulating children from birth to 21 years of age.

"All information obtained from parents during the census will be kept confidential," Busard noted.

Parents having any questions may contact Raymond Spear, superintendent of schools, or Busard.

Plan Healthoramas

UF Offers Free Medical Tests

The United Foundation again will offer Wayne-Oakland-Macomb residents 20 free medical tests and educational exhibits, a service provided more than 13,000 in the last two years.

Plans for the two spring Healthoramas, each a four-day event, were announced by H. Clay Howell, UF associate director.

The first Healthorama will be held May 13-16 in the Community Arts Building at the State Fairgrounds, Woodward and State Fair.

Another is scheduled for June 3-6 at Outer Drive Hospital, 26400 West Outer Drive, Lincoln Park.

Comprehensive health screening tests, made possible through the cooperation of voluntary and public health services, will be offered at both from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Howell said 500 tri-county residents will be tested daily on a first come, first served basis.

As for the last two years, the Healthoramas will be sponsored by Women for the United Foundation (WUF) and the United Health Organization (UHO).

"We fully expect this year's Healthoramas to be as successful as those in the past," Howell said.

The UF executive said results of last year's event, held in the inner city, will be announced at a news conference at 10 a.m. April 2 in the Wayne County Medical Society Building, 1010 Antietam.

"These screening tests meet a real public health service need amply demonstrated by the fact so many have been willing to stand in line, sometimes for hours, to get them," Howell declared.

He said Healthorama objectives are three-fold: To focus attention on the value of annual physical examinations as a safeguard to health; to familiarize tri-county residents with Torch Drive services and other community resources; and to provide valuable information for medical researchers.

Along with free screening tests, this year's Healthoramas will offer on-the-spot counseling through a communications center staffed and equipped to make immediate referrals to needed services.

Children will be cared for in a special playground area at each Healthorama.

Mrs. Michale Ference Jr., of Dearborn, is the 1970 Healthorama chairman. Her vice chairmen are Mrs. William Y. Gard, of Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, of Detroit.

Coordinators will be UHO Executive Vice President Edward W. Tuescher and Dr. William L. Simpson, executive vice president, Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Screening tests will be offered for anemia, blood pressure, cervical cancer, cholesterol, diabetes, kidney malfunction, glaucoma, hearing, height and weight, oral cavity, vision and syphilis along with a chest X-ray which will be checked for symptoms of lung cancer, emphysema, enlarged heart and tuberculosis.

Electrocardiograms will be provided for those with elevated blood pressure. School-aged children and preschoolers accompanied by a parent or guardian will be checked for hearing loss, eyesight impairment evidence of tuberculosis, and pulmonary or circulatory malfunction. Polio immunization also will be offered.

TORCH DRIVE TALK — Discussing plans for two spring Healthoramas for Wayne-Oakland-Macomb residents are Torch Drive agency representatives (from left) Edward W. Tuescher, of Huntington Woods, United Health Organization (UHO); Barbara Lofquist, 15825 Ashton, Michigan Diabetes Association; Mrs. David Macknesh, of Novi, Michigan Chapter, Arthritis Foundation; Mrs. Betty Wilkinson, 17195 Plainview, Michigan Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and Dr. William L. Simpson, of Pleasant Ridge, Michigan Cancer Foundation. Both voluntary and public health services will cooperate to offer free medical testing and educational exhibits at the Healthorama. The events will be held May 13-16 in the Community Arts Building of the State Fairgrounds and June 3-6 in Outer Drive Hospital, Lincoln Park. Sponsors are Women for the United Foundation (WUF) and UHO.

TV BENEFIT — The Mothers Club of Kings Mill staged a benefit bingo party in the subdivision clubhouse Saturday night as a means of raising money for the non-profit Channel 56 educational station. The station, which operates solely from contributions (it has no advertising revenue), is facing an uphill financial battle to remain on the air, said the club project chairman Mrs. Donald Kuzilla, who pointed out that the station provides an invaluable educational service, particularly for children.

Team Places Three In Forensic Regionals

Three members of Northville High's forensic's team won first and second places in district tournaments held March 17 at Cherry Hill High in Inkster and will compete in regional tournaments April 23 in Ypsilanti.

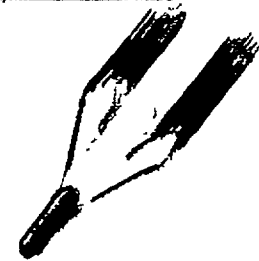

Winning first place after three elimination rounds were Jan Zayti in serious interpretation, and Scott Gerich in boy's oration. Debbie Guard placed second in declamation.

Oration includes presentations students write themselves and contestants entering serious interpretations must give a different reading in each elimination round. Declamations are memorization presentation and of a piece written by someone other than the contestant.

Two team members earning third place berths were Sami Clark for serious interpretation and Linda Wilson for humorous interpretation.

Council Delays Vote On Novi Mobile Park

Apparently reacting to the sensitivity of the upcoming April 6 election, Novi City Council postponed a request Monday night for a mobile home park in the northern corner of the city (see map).

The planning board had recommended council pass the request in a 5-3 vote.

But council hesitated, voting unanimously to continue the public hearing to April 20.

A crowd of 50 people, almost all opposed to the mobile home, cheered council's decision.

The request came from Haggelstein, Tuttle and Gordon Enterprises of Southfield. HT-G asked that 60 acres be rezoned from agriculture to R-3 to allow for 380 mobile homes.

Prof. Carl Edwards, market researcher for HT-G, said the anticipated median income of the mobile families would be $9,000, the range going from $6,000 to $12,000 or from $100/week to $200/week.

Edwards pointed out that the ratio of houses to mobile homes being built had gone from 12:1 in 1960 to 2:1 in 1968 and to almost 1:1 this year. "That means each city is going to have to provide space for mobile homes," he argued.

Gregory Donovan, a Detroit resident but Novi property owner, agreed with Edwards, "We can't expect Novi to develop into an industrial area if we don't give the factory workers some place to live."

Gerald George, Novi resident, disagreed, "I work in the Wixom Ford plant and I know only one guy who lives in a mobile home."

Township, City Near Agreement

A year-old disagreement between Novi Township and the City of Novi is almost over.

The city council and township board are expected to ratify a settlement, dividing up the township's assets. Almost all of the old township, incorporated as a city in February, 1969, leaving only pieces of land as the township.

The city had offered to pay the township $1,000 and assume all assets and debts. But the township had balked on several specific points of the settlement.

At one point the township threatened to sue the city in a lawsuit, and the city threatened to withdraw fire protection from the township.

But apparently the two sides have resolved all major conflicts.

According to City Attorney Howard Bond, the agreement will include the basic $1,000 payment and the following stipulations.

-The township will get a five-year contract for fire protection, to be re-negotiated in 1975.

-The township will get one final three-year appointment on the Community Building Board. After that the city will take the township's seat, holding two to the school board's one.

-The park will be open to both township and city residents on an equal basis, though the city will assume operating control of it.

-The city and township will put their respective library millage into a separate fund, which will maintain and operate the library.

At the Monday meeting this week, council agreed to make available 350 sewer taps, now held by Bert Smokler & Company, to any new developer on a first-come first-serve basis.

Police Feud

Policeman Appeals Suspension

A three-man trial board, meeting in private, will decide a dispute between the Wixom police chief and a city patrolman.

Police Chief Tom McGuire suspended Walter Sprenger March 9, climaxing months of friction between the two men. Sprenger protested the suspension, originally set to last a week.

In a series of meetings with the mayor, the assistant to the mayor, and a police union representative, the suspensions was lowered to four hours.

But Sprenger did not accept the compromise. Instead he decided to sit out a full week and appeal to a trial board.

"My husband wants to clear his record," explains Cathy Sprenger. "He hasn't done anything wrong."

No date has been set for the appeal, though city officials say it will be after the April 6 election.

The actual charges against Sprenger are unclear. Both McGuire and Sprenger have refused to comment.

Robert Case, assistant to the mayor, claims Sprenger "did not follow proper grievance procedure in a complaint against the chief." Case says Sprenger was apparently upset because he hadn't been picked to attend special detective courses at Michigan State University.

Mrs. Sprenger, however, says her husband was disciplined because McGuire holds a grudge against him, referring to the infamous 100-mph test run of last October.

McGuire ordered Sprenger to conduct the high-speed run. Several residents later criticized McGuire because the run came during school hours. In news reports Sprenger was implicated because he'd driven the car.

Sprenger demanded a public hearing at the time, asking to be cleared of any wrongdoing. McGuire then issued a public statement, apologizing for the run and assuming full responsibility for it. Sprenger dropped his request for a hearing.

But apparently the issue has remained a point of contention between McGuire and Sprenger. Early this month Sprenger sent a letter, through his attorney, to Mayor Wesley McAtee asking that the matter be formally resolved because of conflicts it was causing in the department.

"That's when McGuire got together these charges," says Mrs. Sprenger.

McAtee says he doesn't want to discuss the test run case anymore, "It's old news and has nothing to do with the suspension."

McAtee would not comment directly on the trial board. "This is another situation that's being twisted around," he stormed. "I'd suggest Mr. Sprenger stop hiding behind his wife's skirts and say whatever is on his mind."

Mrs. Sprenger explained her husband's silence was dictated by department rules. "They're fire him if he said anything," she says.

"Anyway, it's been the women in this city that have stood up and not let City Hall get away with stuff," she added. Mary Parvu and Lottie Chambers, councilwomen, and Jill Hall, council candidate, were the first to question McGuire early last fall.

McAtee has repeatedly taken the position that complaints against McGuire are administrative, not public, matters.

McGuire was appointed last August. Sprenger is a three-year veteran of the force.

Reportedly the most serious charge against Sprenger is that he

Political Allegory Bombs

Councilman Gunnar Mettala's letterwriting doesn't appeal to some people in Wixom.

A critical group of citizens showed up at Tuesday night's city council meeting to complain about a letter Mettala had distributed to registered voters in the city.

The letter, written as an allegory, compared the city and its current symptoms of disunity to that of a ship with saboteurs out to sink it. It also accused unnamed candidates of spreading lies.

The biggest objection to the letter, however, was the semi-official letterhead Mettala used. "It looks to me like a letter right from the city hall," challenged Lucille Morningstar, 31250 Wixom Road. "He shouldn't have used his office for political purposes."

Council members Mary Parvu, Lottie Chambers and Elwood Grubb agreed with the criticism. "I think he should have been more specific on who he was calling a liar," added Grubb, who is up for re-election. "Did he mean me?"

Mettala said the letter had been written "as one intellectual to another. Those people who can understand it know what it means. And if the shoe pinches for some people, that's the way it goes."

However, Mettala accepted a reprimand from Mayor Wesley McAtee for using the semi-official letterhead.

In an unrelated episode, Mettala rapped Lew Coy, Wixom resident and Oakland County supervisor, for a letter Coy had written to the council.

For Novi Candidates

Eligibility Ruling Set Soon

Novi voters will know by election day whether votes for William Duey, William Brinker and Philip Anderson will count. Maxine Virgue, of the state attorney general's office, says she will have a ruling sometime next week.

Earlier this month the Novi City Council asked for a ruling on the eligibility of the three. Duey is running for mayor, and Brinker and Anderson are seeking council seats.

Duey's candidacy had been questioned by his opponent, Mayor Joseph Crupi, who argued Duey should have resigned effective February 25, the filing deadline. Duey submitted his resignation effective April 4, and the council refused to accept it.

Brinker and Anderson's campaigns were in doubt because they'd filed before resigning their seats on the board of review, a violation of the city charter. After being informed of the violation, however, both resigned and filed new petitions.

Adell Shuts Down, Ford Lays Off, Paragon May Strike

'Once You Fall Behind, It's Tough to Catch Up'

Elsie Stain, Hank Wright and Roosevelt Armstrong are unwilling soldiers in the fight against inflation.

Each has been laid off as industry cuts back, reacting to the pinch of the present recession.

Mrs. Stain got her layoff slip from Adell Industries in Novi, and Wright and Armstrong were dropped by the Ford-Lincoln plant in Wixom.

Mrs. Stain expects to be recalled next week. Wright has found another job. And Armstrong has returned to his native Georgia, still unemployed.

For the most part, they're typical of the hourly workers who've had to take involuntary vacations across the country. The national unemployment rate last month was 4.2-percent, up sharply from 3.3 a year ago. Industrial production has gone down seven straight months.

Last Friday Adell stopped all production, giving hourly workers this week off. Marvin Adell, company vice-president, blamed the halt on the post office strike.

But Adell's roll had been cut to less than 100 anyway, down from the usual 200-plus. Although it has diversified manufacturing, Adell makes several products for the auto industry.

And the auto industry is where the recession hit first, slowing down car sales 15-percent for the model year. Any industry sensitive to the automotive field is also having to reduce its volume, and its roll.

Wixom's Ford plant is down to 5,500. Company spokesmen say they've laid off 600 workers. Union spokesmen at Local 36 put the figure at 1,100.

Reportedly workers with a year and four months seniority are now being laid off.

"People have stopped buying the luxury cars and the luxury items," explains Gerry Sloan, public relations director at Ford's central office in Dearborn. "That's what's hurting Wixom." Wixom builds Lincolns and Thunderbirds.

Sloan admits layoffs in Wixom are more than twice as heavy as usual.

Plymouth's Ford plant is down from 1,560 to 1,400. Northville's Ford plant is holding even.

Portec Corporation, Paragon division, in Novi, reports a drop from 500 to 210 hourly workers.

Union contracts at Paragon expire Tuesday, and settlement appears doubtful at this point. Disagreement over wages and an insurance pact make a strike seem very likely, Local 508 spokesmen predict.

One union official says industry will welcome a strike this year because of the recession. Paragon officials, however, say they're hoping to avoid one.

Paragon, Adell and the two Ford plants apparently have been the hardest hit in the Novi area. Or to put it more accurately, their workers have been.

Elsie Stain, for instance, is going to fall behind on several time payments because she won't get a paycheck this week. She had been working only a four-day week this month because of the slowdown anyway.

"When you don't make a lot of money, this makes it pretty bad, especially at the end of the month," she explains. "And once you fall behind, it's tough to catch up."

Mrs. Stain lives alone with her 17-year-old son in Farmington Township. She's been working at Adell for five years. This is the first time in four years she's been laid off.

If the layoff continues beyond Monday, she'll apply for unemployment compensation. But the Michigan Security Commission requires one waiting week before it starts paying benefits.

Adell is expected to recall 70-100 employees Monday.

The Ford plant, on the other hand, is expected to lay off more workers as it nears next month's annual changeover.

Hank Wright doesn't care. He's found a job only two miles from his home in Milford, and he's not going back to Ford.

"Working at Ford has made me a strong anti-union man," he says. "The unions don't do a damn thing for you. They let management get away with murder."

Wright is bitter because Ford let him go with only four days left in his 90-day probationary stint. Local 36 says it couldn't do anything for him because he didn't work long enough to belong to the union.

However, other Ford workers confirmed reports that Ford has laid off several hourly employees only a few days short of completing their 90 days, thus depriving them of recall rights.

"In some cases that could be true," admits Dwayne

Toy, Ford labor relations representative. "But sometimes it takes quite a while before we tell if a worker is qualified or not."

Wright is a nine-year Navy veteran, who worked at Pontiac Motors before coming to Ford. Pontiac was one of the first auto factories to start axing workers last fall.

He was dismissed from Ford February 5 and got his new job March 9.

He was luckier than some Ford castoffs.

Roosevelt "Rosie" Armstrong brought his bride with him when he moved from Georgia last fall. He was staying with his brother's family in Detroit, trying to find a place to live.

He was released from work February 12, a week left to go on his probation. Unable to find another job, he and his wife went back to Georgia.

The United Auto Workers is pressing to protect the hard-core unemployed, like Armstrong, who are the first to get fired when hard times come.

Under a concept of reverse seniority, workers with the most longevity would have the right to be laid off first and collect supplementary union benefits. That would allow men like Armstrong to finish their 90 days and qualify for union membership and union benefits.

Industry has resisted this concept, arguing it would add to costs. Older workers, management says, are more competent and better disciplined than new hires.

The UAW concedes the proposal's unlikely to pass in contract negotiations this year.

In Novi, South Lyon Area

County Beefs up Health Service

"Our goal is the good health of all the people in the county," explained Mr. Donna Cavenee, nursing supervisor for the Oakland County Health Department.

Mrs. Cavenee with her associates, Mrs. Mary Masini, South Lyon area school nurse, and Mrs. Lorraine Anderson, nurse for the Novi area schools, visited the offices of this paper last week in an attempt to inform the public more fully on the services provided by their organization.

Both the South Lyon and Novi school districts are, this year, benefiting from increased health services in their areas due to the addition of another nurse.

For six years, forthright and friendly, Mrs. Masini had divided her time between the two school districts. Last September she began devoting full time to South Lyon when Mrs. Anderson was hired to take care of the Novi district.

Both fully qualified nurses spend from two to three days a week or more working in their schools and making home calls where necessary. Contacts by phone or in person may number up to 10 a day. Their jobs require direct contact with youngsters in the schools — cases referred to them by classroom teachers or the school social worker. Close cooperation between the social worker and the nurse are essential to a well-run program. Often referrals call for a visit to the home to provide professional advice in handling a specific problem or any other family health or psychological problem which may be discovered.

"We're a 'family service,'" Mrs. Cavenee said. "Our job is to find, through home visits, what other services may be needed by the family."

Days when Mrs. Masini and Mrs. Anderson are not working in the local schools or making home visits in their particular area they are transferring information to the Pontiac Office or attending informational meetings to help them better perform their duties.

Frequently, the health nurse makes referrals for special services to the Oakland County Schools Board. Some of these special areas may be teaching for "home-bound" students, psychological consultation, or schooling for a retarded child. It's up to the school nurse to bring to these families an understanding of non-nursing health services, within or outside the agency in which the nurse is working, and to provide the families with the necessary information and encouragement to use resources wisely and fully.

Health department services cover a wide range of services from routine laboratory tests such as smears and throat cultures, through biological immunizations — diphtheria, smallpox, measles, oral polio, rubella, etc. — TB skin tests and x-rays when needed, to areas like communicable disease control and clinic services. Dental clinics are also available for those in the low income bracket.

These services, and many more, are covered by the Oakland County Health Department. Most of them can be obtained at the North Oakland office, 1200 North Telegraph, Pontiac or at the South Oakland office at Greenfield.

MRS. LORRAINE ANDERSON and 1 1/2 Mile Road in Southfield.

Some services are brought to specific areas when a need arises and personnel is available. Recently, rubella vaccine clinics were offered in several areas such as Milford and Walled Lake because physicians and nurses were available. Presently a survey in the Novi and South Lyon area is underway through the school health nurse to see if there is a need to offer the vaccine locally.

Last year a series of five classes on diabetes — treatment and diet — was given in South Lyon when physician referrals showed it was needed. Mrs. Masini mentioned in last week's interview that this may be offered again if the need arises. She and the Health Department nutritionist worked together in offering these classes.

Nutrition is another big area covered by health department services. Individual and family counseling, understanding of a special diet, providing consultation, co-instruction of classes and service to community agencies and institutions are all part of the nutritionist's job.

Other areas covered by the health department are clinics and services for patients with venereal disease; an alcohol information center providing counseling both for individuals with problems and for family members of an alcoholic; and provide counseling for those placing family members in nursing care facilities.

County boundary lines within school districts present problems for local nurses like Mrs. Masini since the South Lyon District encompasses parts of two counties besides Oakland. In cases involving residents of Salem, Green Oak, or Northfield townships, Mrs. Masini makes one home visit and then contacts the county involved for follow-up service.

Many of the Health Department services, such as immunizations, are available to anyone regardless of their home county. Others, such as free dental clinics, are offered according to county boundary lines.

If you have a question on whether a specific health service is available to you as a member of the South Lyon or Novi School District, call your school and ask to talk to the school nurse.

Northville Ford Plant Marks 50th Anniversary

A colorful historical milestone was reached Friday when Ford Motor Company's Northville Valve Plant, celebrated its 50th anniversary.

The plant has produced more than 1 billion valves for Ford engines since it began operating March 20, 1920.

It also has the distinction of being the last of the renowned "village industries" — established by the late Henry Ford — which is still in operation.

The plant supplies about 75 percent of Ford Motor Company's requirements for intake and exhaust valves for engines. More than 30 million valves were produced in 1969 in the 84,000-square-foot facility.

The plant currently employs 233 persons and had a payroll exceeding $3,600,000 in 1969. More than $98,000 yearly is paid by the plant in local taxes.

The plant's history dates from 1919 when the late Mr. Ford purchased a three-story brick plant on the site at 235 East Main Street. The structure was soon converted to a valve plant as one of Mr. Ford's "village industries."

Dotted throughout southeastern Michigan in the 1920's and 1930's, these plants were noted for high standards of craftsmanship and for friendly, hometown atmosphere. One of Mr. Ford's aims was to provide jobs for persons in rural areas and improve the economy of small towns.

During the plant's first 16 years, 181 million valves were produced in the original building. In 1936 the present plant building was completed, along the banks of a branch of the Rouge River. It stands on the exact site of Northville's first structure — a saw mill established in 1825.

In the early days of the new plant, a Fitz overshot water wheel powered by water from a dam in the river was used to drive a 3-horsepower electric generator. In later years, the generator's use was discontinued, but the water wheel still is kept in operating condition to preserve the plant's picturesque setting. Many ducks are permanent residents of a pond below the water wheel.

Originally the plant produced only exhaust valves. Intake valve manufacturing began during the early 1950's and the plant was expanded in 1956 to handle this activity.

Since February 1, 1957, the Northville plant has been administered by Ford's Dearborn Engine Plant within the company's Engine and Foundry Division.

Exhaust valves produced at the plant begin, as in the past, at Ford's Dearborn Specialty Foundry from which single piece nickel-chrome alloy valve castings are shipped to Northville for a series of grinding operations. Intake valves are manufactured from raw stock at the plant. Through the years the plant has become unique in the types and degrees of automatic handling established to produce high-quality valves.

Kenneth R. Shelly, manager of Ford's Dearborn Engine Plant, has responsibility for the Northville operations. He lives at 45926 Pickford in Northville. Earl Weigt is the plant superintendent.

Doctor Writes Chapter in Book

A contributor to a book, "Progress in Mental Health", edited by Hugh Freeman, M.D. of London, is M. Kemel Goknar, M.D., Director, Young Adult Unit, B Building, Northville State Hospital.

The chapter entitled "A Psychiatric Program for Young Adults" outlines the pioneering work by Dr. Goknar through his establishment of a psychiatric unit for patients in the age grouping of 17 to 21.

"A closer look at the 'crisis of youth,'" Dr. Goknar comments in this chapter, "reveals that the great majority of new problems emerge between adolescence and adulthood, a period which is labeled in psychiatric literature as late adolescence, but we will call it 'Young Adulthood'."

"This is the period where, in spite of an earlier physical and sexual maturation, youngsters are forced to remain as school children and kept in a prolonged dependency state, due to technological and educational demands. If they refuse this dependency, their adaptation to society may become inadequate; if they accept it, their resentment against society and authority may take many forms. At any rate, youngsters at this age show a high tendency to incorporate their personal problems with social, philosophical, political and ethical issues."

The article not only describes the youth who have entered the Unit over an 18 month period, but outlines the step-by-step helping process which has been found to be effective. The description of the division of work among the team members is of particular interest.

The 350 page volume contains selected papers presented during the Seventh International Congress on Mental Health, held during August of 1968 in London. Dr. and Mrs. Goknar live in Orchard Lake.

CITY OF NOVI, MICHIGAN
ANNOUNCES THE FOLLOWING

OPENING OF INTERVIEWS FOR THE POSITION OF THE 1970 SUMMER RECREATION PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Tentative Programs Dates: June 22-August 14

NOTE: TO THE EXTENT POSSIBLE, ALL POSITIONS WILL BE FILLED BY RESIDENTS OF NOVI, HOWEVER, APPLICATIONS FROM NON-RESIDENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

PROGRAM SALARY: $1,200.00

QUALIFICATIONS

- At the time of application, applicants should:
1. Be residents of the City of Novi and citizens of the United States;
 2. Have reached their 23rd birthday and not have passed their 51st birthday;
 3. Have graduated from a recognized college or university;
 4. Have had at least two (2) seasons of playground or related experiences, if possible, in a supervisory capacity.

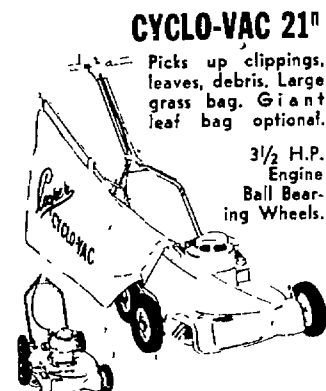

DESCRIPTION OF WORK

The Supervisor of Playgrounds is responsible for the supervision of personnel, for planning, organizing, and directing recreational activities at the assigned playgrounds. This includes supervision of Assistant Playleaders and coordinating activities with other recreational personnel. In carrying out these responsibilities, they instruct in softball, volleyball, and other activities; teach handicraft; give minor first aid as necessary; keep records, and generally maintain order and insure that the playground and equipment are properly used. They also perform related work as assigned. Some Saturday work responsibility is necessary. Supervisors provide their own transportation with no additional compensation given.

In addition, prior to the establishment of the recreation program, the supervisor will be responsible for conducting a survey within the Novi School System to determine primary recreational needs of the community.

MOBILE MONEY MUSEUM

MONEY THROUGH THE AGES — Junior high students had a chance to view money from every period of history this week when the Mobile Money Museum visited Cooke Junior High and the annex. Over 200 coins in the museum trace the history of money from the first coins minted in sixth century B.C. to the present. The visit was arranged by Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator, and the local office of National Bank of Detroit.

Out of THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO ...

...A nine-inch snowfall paralyzed the Northville-Novi area for nearly two days. Stalled cars blocked major roads, employees found it difficult if not impossible to get to work and even mail delivery was hampered.

...Northville's Mustangs advanced to the semi-finals by beating Dearborn Riverside 69-64 in overtime.

...Preservation of the old library building gained high priority on a list of projects of the year-old Northville Historical Society.

...The decision to prohibit a trailer court near Northville Estates was to be challenged by its promoter in Oakland County Circuit Court.

TEN YEARS AGO ...

...As Northville's city council took official steps this week to urge voters to support the annexation of Northville Estates to the city, Novi councilmen planned to decide whether or not to contest in court the legality of the impending election.

...The first staff members and patients arrived at the newly constructed Plymouth State Home and Training School.

...The 50-employee Novi Products closed its doors as the firm moved its operations to Fayette, Ohio.

...Plans for a 92,000-square foot shopping center at the northeast corner of Novi and 10 Mile roads were unveiled.

...With more than one-third of the questionnaires returned, the Citizens' Development Committee of Novi concluded that residents "want to live in quiet country atmosphere."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO ...

...Depositors State Bank adopted the silhouette of the Northville Spring on all its bank checks and legal papers.

...The Northville Methodist Church announced the installation of a new pipe organ donated by a couple in the congregation.

...Over a truck load of warm clothing was collected in Northville during the Russian War Relief drive.

...Grade school children were preparing for the annual spelling bee. Winners in each grade received the latest thin-paper edition of Webster's Collegiate Dicto Dictionary.

...The Rainbow Assembly celebrated its third birthday.

...A bird house contest was being sponsored by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Association.

FIFTY YEARS AGO ...

...The Ladies' Library presented "Little Women" at the Alseum Theater.

...The steam was turned on the rebuilt engine at the Ford plant and, with minor adjustments, plenty of motive power was made available to operate the new machinery.

...All income tax returns covering the year 1919 were to be filed in Detroit or Grand Rapids no later than March 15.

...Professor Herbert Cross of the University of Michigan planned to lecture on "the Lost Art of France and Belgium" at the high school auditorium.

...Miss Jessie Roe was awarded the $5 prize for the best name for a new street in Orchard Heights. The name chosen was "Grand View."

...Homemakers were advised to use a penny to scrape mud from clothing, as the rounded edges would not tear the cloth.

...The first annual banquet of the Northville Automobile Club was held at the high school and hailed as a success.

Churches Celebrate Easter With Holy Week Services

Holy Week services in area churches will climax Easter Sunday, with special Easter music and sermons planned to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Special Easter services will follow Maundy Thursday services and Good Friday observances, including a union service in Northville at the United Methodist Church. Reverend Timothy Johnson, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will speak on the "Triumphant Tragedy." The service begins at 1:30 p.m.

Holy Week schedules in Northville churches are listed below:

United Methodist church will hold continual Maundy Thursday services from 7 to 9 p.m. The church will be open for meditation and communion.

At the union services Friday, the Methodist Choir will sing.

Easter Sunday, a sunrise service begins at 7 a.m. with the senior high students presenting a dialogue. At 7:30 a.m. the Methodist Men and Youth Fellowship will sponsor a breakfast.

Reverend G. C. Branstner's sermon for the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services will be "He Is Risen."

There will be no Youth Fellowship on Easter Sunday evening.

The First Presbyterian Church is planning a Communion service and reception of the high school Communicant class at 8 p.m., Maundy Thursday, Reverend Lloyd Brasure, pastor and his assistant, Reverend Timothy Johnson, announce.

Good Friday services will be held at the United Methodist Church, with Reverend Johnson speaking at 1:30 p.m.

A sunrise service will begin at 7 a.m. Easter Sunday, followed by a continental breakfast. Services will also be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church will have a low Mass Holy Thursday at 8 a.m., Reverend John Wittstock announced.

The high Mass at 8 p.m. Holy Thursday will be a reliving of the Last Supper, observed with a passover meal in the church. The men of the parish will eat unleavened bread and bitter herbs, celebrating the new Passover of Christ from a time of sin to resurrection.

The feet of 12 members of the parish will be washed, in keeping with the example of Christ washing the feet of his disciples as a gesture of love. The Liturgy will close with the solemn transfer of the Blessed Sacrament to a side altar for Good Friday.

Good Friday services begin at 1:30 p.m. with the reading of the sacred scriptures and the passion.

A Vigil service will begin at 11:30 p.m., Saturday, followed by a midnight mass.

Easter Sunday services will be at 7, 8:30, 10:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will have Holy Communion at 7 p.m. on Maundy Thursday. Reverend Charles F. Boerger's sermon theme will be "Holy Communion — A Participation in the Suffering and Death of Christ."

Good Friday services begin at 1 p.m., centering on the theme "One Died for All." The Day School choir will sing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

At 7 p.m. Friday, Holy Communion is planned. The sermon theme is "Death Leads Back to God." The adult choir will sing "Crucifixus."

An Easter Sunday sunrise service is planned for 7 a.m., with the theme "Who Will Roll Away the Stone?" An Easter breakfast will be served in the church hall from 8 to 10 a.m.

Youth services are scheduled for 9:15 a.m. with a movie on the resurrection of Jesus shown. Holy Communion will be given at the 10:30 a.m. service, with the sermon theme "The First Easter and Ours." The adult choir will participate in both the 7 and 10:30 a.m. services.

First Baptist Church of Northville plans Good Friday services at 7:30 p.m., according to Reverend Cedric Whitcomb, pastor. The services will commemorate the Lord's Supper.

Easter Sunday services are planned for 9:45 and 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany will have a communion service Holy Thursday, at 8 p.m., Pastor Frederick Prezioso said. The theme of the sermon is "Communion as Celebration," and the entire service will be contemporary.

Easter Sunday Communion services are scheduled for 9 and 11 a.m.

In Novi, churches have these plans for Holy Week:

St. John's American Lutheran Church has planned a Communion service for 7:30 p.m. on Holy Thursday, according to Reverend C. Fox.

On Good Friday there will be a choir cantata on the Crucifixion at 7:30 p.m.

Easter Sunday services at 8:30 and 11 a.m. will center on the theme "Victory"

Holy Eucharist services at Holy Cross Episcopal Mission will begin at 8:15 on Maundy Thursday, according to Reverend Leslie F. Harding.

A Good Friday Vigil will be held from 11 noon to 1 p.m. On Saturday, lighting of the Pascal candle will begin at 8:15 p.m., and confessions will be heard from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Easter Sunday services begin at 7 a.m., with coffee and sweet rolls served afterwards. Another service is set for 11:15 a.m. Both are Holy Eucharist services.

Monday and Tuesday, Holy Eucharist will be at 7:30 p.m.

An Easter morning breakfast is planned for 7 a.m. at the First Baptist Church of Novi. Services begin at 11 a.m. with Pastor Arnold B. Cook's message centering on an Easter theme. A vocal solo will be presented by Mrs. Bernice Stewart.

At 7 p.m., the young people of the congregation will give an Easter drama.

The Orchard Hills Baptist Church Sunday School will meet at 9:45 p.m. with worship at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Easter Sunday, according to Reverend Fred Trachsel, interim pastor.

The Training Union will meet at 6 p.m.

Holy Thursday services are set for 8 p.m. with communion at Living Lord Lutheran Church, Pastor Norman Borsvold announced.

Easter Sunday will be celebrated with a 10 a.m. service.

Members of Novi United Methodist Church will have Holy Communion at 8 p.m. on Maundy Thursday. On Good Friday the church will be open for a prayer vigil from noon to 3 p.m., according to Pastor Albert E. Hartoog.

Novi Women Plan April Fashion Show

The dawning of "The Age of Aquarius" has been chosen by the Novi Jaycee Auxiliary as the theme for its fashion show to be given at 7:30 p.m. April 17 at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

Men especially are invited to this year's show. Mrs. Ronald Mitchell, general chairman, emphasizes, as current fashions for both men and women will be shown from Hughes-Hatcher-Suffrin.

Proceeds will be donated to the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children. The tickets at $3 include dessert and coffee. Reservations may be made by calling 474-4377 or 474-2122.

Models will have hair fashions by Salon Rene and Fashion 220 make-up.

Jaycee and auxiliary members who are to model are Tom Marcus, Denis

Berry, Ronald Cowden, Mrs. Douglas R. Thrush, Mrs. Raymond Mason, Mrs. Jack Detleff, Mrs. James Cherfoli, Mrs. Roy Icenogle and Mrs. Dennis Wolcott.

Working with Chairman Mitchell on the project are Mrs. Cowden, mistress of ceremonies; Mrs. Marcus, tickets; Mrs. Gerald LaFave, publicity; Mrs. Icenogle, door prizes, including dinner at the Mayflower and a car for the weekend; Mrs. Wolcott, favors; Mrs. Berry, decorations; Mrs. Dean Bairard, programs.

Easter services will begin at 7 a.m., followed by a breakfast at 8 a.m., with the youth in charge. A Festive service is planned for 9:30 a.m.

Good Friday services in Wixom at the First Baptist Church will be from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. with Communion.

Reverend Robert Warren reminds the congregation Easter Sunday is the fifth and last Sunday of the Sunday School contest. Sunday School meets at 9:45 a.m.

Worship services are set for 11 a.m. The youth of the church is planning an Easter play, "This Symbol of a Cross," for 7 p.m.

In Walled Lake, St. Williams Catholic Church will have a Last Supper mass on Holy Thursday at 8 p.m., according to Pastor Raymond Jones and his assistant Reverend James Maywum.

All-night adoration begins at 9 p.m. Good Friday services are planned for 1 to 3 p.m. At 7 p.m. Saturday, the Vigil service will begin.

Easter Sunday masses are scheduled for 7:30, 9, 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

In Salem, Salem Bible Church has planned Good Friday services from 1 to 2 p.m., Pastor Ivan Speight announced. The topic of his sermon is "Whom They Pierced."

An Easter Sunday sunrise service is set for 6:30. The pastor will speak on "Resurrection of Jesus" at 10 a.m. At 7:30 p.m. the adult choir will present an Easter cantata.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution recently that should raise some eyebrows, perhaps even on county boards of supervisors.

It's one that should be considered seriously, however, by every official taking part in the drafting of budgets for townships, cities, counties and school districts.

Basically, the resolution reminds officials responsible for budgets that they should be established according to need, not millage available.

Specifically, the resolution refers to the intent of the State Legislature in raising the level of property tax assessments to 50 percent.

"Many local officials and school districts (after property tax assessments have been increased by application of a 50 per cent factor) have not adjusted their rates accordingly and as a result many local governmental units and school districts are reaping increased amounts of general property taxes without a careful scrutiny of their budgets. ...a downward trend in the tax rates should have occurred when the assessed valuations increased."

The resolution, presented by the Legislative Committee of which this area's Supervisor Lew Coy is a member, urges "local units of government to re-examine their entire tax structures and rates ...and to reduce the rate of taxation being imposed on real estate property therein".

The supervisors are to be commended for the resolution. And it is to be assumed that its principles also apply at the county level, where substantial tax-spending budgets are prepared.

Few governmental units make a practice of doing what the Oakland County Board of Supervisors suggests should be done.

Certainly, it isn't the custom of townships, school districts or counties.

When assessments are hiked so that one mill brings in 25 per cent more revenue than it did the previous year, budgets automatically go up to equal the added revenue. Little discussion, if any, is given to reducing the millage by 10, 15 or 20 per cent.

An exception to this has been the city of Northville. Twice in recent years (including last year) the city reduced its millage rate because property assessments were increased. It should be noted, however, that their reduced tax rate still produced increased revenues.

I think it behooves all governmental units to heed the advice of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

Instead of starting budget studies with the premise "we have this much to spend", why not determine exactly how much is needed.

If it's less than the maximum millage rate will provide in revenues, why not surprise the taxpayer by announcing a millage reduction?

Ironically, and in contrast to the Oakland county resolution, a Wayne county tax official recently confided that "if it weren't for the assessment hikes, local officials wouldn't be able to raise taxes".

Old Letters Uncover Taylors Everywhere

by Jack W. Hoffman

"You could say the Taylors are crawling out of the walls," laughed the 79-year-old woman who was one of a half-dozen people who recognized the subjects of three letters found in a single tiny envelope found in a wall of the old Slater house, 46655 Seven Mile Road. The house is being rejuvenated by the Frances Sherocks.

The envelope, bearing a 2-cent stamp, had been postmarked from Novi in March, 1894, and presumably delivered to its Detroit destination and two little girls, Miss Madge and Miss Mabel Taylor, then ages 5 and 3. When Northville Postmaster John Steimel read the letters, he asked the question, "Who are all these people, and are any still alive?"

Calls came in from Northville, Novi and South Lyon in response to the question. They led to a Mrs. Mabel Kocher, who lives now near Telegraph and Six Mile Road. She is one of the little girls to whom the letters were mailed.

How the letters came to be in the wall of the Northville Township home, however, remains a mystery.

"We lived in Northville for only a short time," recalls Mrs. Kocher, "then moved to Detroit where we lived until my parents died. My sister (Madge, the other little girl to whom the letters were sent) died in 1906 at the age of 18."

Mrs. Kocher is a cousin of Novi School Board Trustee Russell Taylor, step-niece of Mrs. Anna White of Northville, and a distant relative of John Tireman of Detroit (after whom Tireman Avenue is named), whose widow, Pearl, lives at New Hudson in a house some oldtimers refer to as the "old Martindale place." And Mrs. Kocher is a distant relative of Wales C. Martindale, one-time superintendent of Detroit schools (1897-1912), for whom one person believes Martindale Road in Lyon township was named.

Part of Kensington Park property once belonged to Tireman, according to Mrs. Kocher.

Mrs. Kocher's father, Thomas, and his family lived in Northville for a year or two when he was the manager of the T. G. Richardson farm on Seven Mile Road "out past the Fish Hatchery." What is today called the "old Slater home" apparently was earlier the Richardson house where Mabel, her sister and her parents lived.

The mystery is this: The letters apparently were mailed to the Taylors in Detroit when they lived on the famous D. M. Ferry Seed farm, corner Grand River and Grand Boulevard, and after they had moved from Northville.

Her father managed the seed farm, part of which today is the Northwestern High School property. They never returned to Northville, says Mrs. Kocher, after moving to Detroit. So how did the letters get back into the house — and in a wall?

The tricks of memory, admits Mrs. Kocher, quite likely may be the answer. If Mrs. Kocher was just three years old when she received the letter in Detroit, how is she able to remember, from an even earlier age, so much of Northville and the Richardson home? The house, she says, "had a big front porch, I think, and set way back off the road. There were big trees out front, pine trees I think, and piles of sand where I used to play. You had to go down a hill and over a bridge to get to the barns."

Besides working for Mr. Richardson, who was a wealthy

Northville store owner, Mrs. Kocher's father also worked for a period for F. R. Beal, early Northville industrialist who once made pipe organs.

As for Mrs. Taylor ("Aunt Kittie") who wrote the letters 76 years ago: She was the first wife of Phillip Taylor, father of Russell Taylor and the late first husband of Mrs. White of Northville. As for "Aunt Pogie", another of the letter writers, she is the late Mrs. Frank Taylor who lived for a time in the Northville Township neighborhood commonly referred to as Waterford.

"There were lots of Taylors — 13 in my father's family," explains Mrs. Kocher who wasn't surprised that so many are still around. "More than you think, and more than in that wall."

After the phone calls and visits, I'm inclined to agree.

Speaking for Myself

Executive Sessions: Good or Bad?

Philip Smith

GOOD . . .

Executive sessions sound mysterious and as places where the "big" decisions are made. This is not the case. Contrary to common belief, executive sessions are held to protect the civil rights of the community, the electorate and their administrators, the employees, and in the case of a school district — the students. That is why there is no consistency or regularity in calling of executive sessions.

It is obvious that the planning before and during negotiations with various employee organizations need non-public planning and discussions.

Also imagine the consternation within a community if disciplinary action with students and parents were held in an open meeting.

The mysterious element the public would like to connect with executive sessions would disappear if one would remember that no secret binding action can take place during such a meeting. As required by State law, legal action must be decided in a stated, open meeting after due discussion, vote and recording of minutes.

Philip Smith,
South Lyon School Board Member

William Sliger

BAD . . .

Secret sessions by elective public bodies could never be described as "good."

Aside from the fact that such meetings are contrary to the intent of the law, the so-called executive sessions become a crutch for well-meaning officials eager to avoid controversy.

In practice, however, closed-door meetings breed rumor and suspicion. I have never found participants to such sessions unwilling to talk "off the record" about what happened, or two whose reports agree.

It may be true that no "official action" is taken at meetings from which the public has been barred, but the pro and con arguments are missing when officials sit down in public session to announce their decision.

And who would say that the public might not have agreed with the minority opinion never expressed in public?

Rare indeed are the excuses that justify secret sessions. Like certain drugs, they may be used for medicinal purposes. But they can also become dangerously habit-forming.

Says Novi Officials Fail Public

To The Editor:

Intelligent leadership, fairness and open mindedness, are, I think, among the most desirable qualities in elected officials. Not only do they help provide for efficient government, but they serve the best interests of the community and provide the citizen with the fullest information about those matters affecting him, whether that information is agreeable or disagreeable.

These qualities are the very ones I found missing in Novi's Mayor and City Councilmen, at least in so far as the MDCDA's presentation and meeting held March 13, at Novi High School were concerned.

To keep each interested citizen fully informed and for the mayor and City Council to arrive at the best decisions regarding MDCDA's "new community" proposal requires all the facts, data, and other information available. Instead of pursuing this information gathering goal the Mayor and City Council seemed to prefer to harass, bait and trap MDCDA's officials as a grandstand political play to an audience admittedly not favorably predisposed toward the "new community".

It seems to me that elected officials have the responsibility to treat issues affecting their community objectively, and, until all is known, with as little prejudging as possible. It was quite evident from the line of questioning by Novi's elected officials that precisely the opposite was the case. Instead of attempting to secure information which might reveal positive as well as negative benefits to the Novi area, I felt that most of the questioning by the council and the Mayor was intended to discredit the "new community" before all the factors were known and considered.

All-in-all, it was a poor performance in serving the best interest of the community.

David Folsom

Wixom Clerk Asks Equal Treatment

To The Editor:

While it is the right of every citizen to express their opinions, some seem to have a knack for reading what they want to believe into, official city documents and completely disregarding the portions which do not suit them at the moment.

A Councilman plays the same game and chose to compare only the Clerk and Treasurer's salaries with other communities when, in fact, all Wixom salaries, including that of the Council, are somewhat higher than our neighboring communities. Why limit the investigation to two positions? If the whole salary structure is wrong why didn't the same council members vote no at the time of budget decisions?

All City employees received a raise last July, not just the Treasurer and I, as I'm sure almost every person who is employed has been receiving periodical increases due to the economy of the country.

Only two months after the beginning of the fiscal year, an unheard of precedent was set. By unanimous vote of the Council one employee was raised from a patrolman's salary to $10,500 and two other male employees, by a 5-1 vote of the Council, received raises of $1,500 and $1,000, retro-active to July 1, 1970. This resulted after the hiring of the Police Chief at the top salary of $12,500, which was approved at budget time by the Council. If this was wrong why didn't those same Council people who voted against our increase, correct it then rather than approve it and then further compound it on September 23, 1970, by granting the other raises? In my opinion this is the only comparison that is relative:

	64-65	65-66	66-67
Police Chief	$6,400	$6,650	$7,200
Clerk	3,600	4,600	5,200
Difference	$2,800	$2,050	$2,000

	67-68	68-69	69-70
Police Chief	$7,500	$9,000	$12,500
Clerk	5,700	6,700	7,700
Difference	$1,800	$2,300	$4,800

Wixom Letter Angers Reader

To The Editor:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter I received on March 17, 1970. I can only assume that many of my fellow citizens received the same letter.

It's time the citizens of Wixom opened their eyes to the fact that we are paying the wages of men like Gunnar Mettala (Wixom Councilman). This letter is a direct insult to the intelligence of the people of Wixom. According to Mr. Mettala anyone who chooses to run for elected office in the City of Wixom or who in anyway criticizes the action of its officials is nothing more than a liar intent on disrupting the system. How long are we going to stand for these types of Gestapo tactics?

The City of Wixom is intent on growth and with growth comes new young blood who have every right to be critical of their elected officials. This is not anarchy, it is simply right of dissent. I too, am part of this younger growth of the community. The city officials are the instigators of this growth, but when someone voices an opinion on some of the obvious snow jobs the city has been giving the citizens they are called liars.

I ask you, which side of the sinking boat is "Gunnar" standing on? Perhaps since his term does not expire until 1972 a recall is in order.

Slaps Reporter For News Errors

To the Editor:

On March 11, at 4:45, I presented myself at the office of your newspaper and talked to your news reporter Mr. Howard Kohn regarding errors in his reporting that appeared on page one of the March 12 issue of the Novi News.

Mr. Kohn stated that he would make corrections regarding the fact that I did not live in Birch Park and that I was running as an independent candidate endorsing no slate or individual candidate for council office. Does Mr. Kohn have reasons for singling out one candidate for me to disavow supporting? To set the record straight, and this can be verified by Councilmen Chambers, Grubb, and Parvu and also Council candidates Hall, Madary, and Van Gieson, that I have publically stated since the Primary election, when asked who I supported, my answer has been "I believe I can work comfortably with all candidates except Mr. Dingledey who is a hand picked candidate of the present mayor."

The more I am exposed to the news media the more inclined I am to agree with Mr. Nichols Johnson, a member of the U.S. Federal Communications Commission, who told the special Senate Committee on Mass Media (Montreal Gazette 3/18/70) he is not optimistic that change is near in the U.S. where media owners "have a life and death grip" on the political life of the country. One bad effect of medial concentration is the "raw crass power" it exerts in the political matters. This same power over the minds and thoughts of the public through the faucet-like control of the information available to the people, is used to influence local and state politics, he said.

His brief said the media owners "seem prepared to sacrifice journalistic integrity in the cause of increasing profits."

Please be advised that I will read a copy of the above in public on candidates night, March 26, 1970.

Find Editorial 'A Bit Too Much'

To the Editor:

"Faces rusted over with fear and anger?" Now really, don't you think that is a bit too much? Concern, yes, I, too, am concerned, and not as you would have us believe, because my neighbor might turn out to be black. I am too busy scratching to earn a living to know if my neighbor is purple. And what is more, I could care less as long as he behaves in a somewhat human manner.

My concern is not only for myself, and I admit some selfish motives are involved; such as being able to keep my home on retirement income. As the tax situation stands now, I doubt that I could keep my home on retirement income. With the tax increase our "new town" would bring, I am downright positive I could not swing it. Then I, and others like me, would make the mass exodus so often referred to as the

The discrimination enters into it because the men complained of inequity and received the raises without any questions or comments. Mrs. Waara and I did exactly the same thing immediately following that meeting, and were met with delays, derogatory remarks, unfair comparisons, dissertations by people totally unqualified to judge the responsibility involved in the jobs and quibbling over a title, when the Mayor, the Council and City Attorney long ago determined it to be fair, and not contrary to the Charter, to recompense me as a department head since I had complete responsibility for the functions of the Clerk's office.

The City Charter expressly states, "Such deputies shall in any case, possess all the powers and authorities of their superior officers..." and since I have assumed all those responsibilities since 1964, do you really think it so unfair to the taxpayers that I should receive the pay for it?

Section 5, 10 of the Charter states.

The compensation of all employees and officers of the City shall be fixed by the Council within the limits of budget appropriations, and in accordance with any pay plan adopted by the Council. It certainly contains nothing to prohibit paying a person for the job he or she performs. I wonder where all the Wixom residents were when the job paid $3,600? There were none that applied for the job, and therefore, I was hired with the clear understanding and approval that I had no intention of moving into the City. Isn't it strange that it took 5½ years and a political campaign to bring out the objections?

Through hard work and long hours, I have gained the knowledge and experience to insure the efficiently functioning department which, because it now appears smooth and effortless, so many seem to take for granted. When the Council is willing to spend unlimited amounts to organize and update other departments, it seems illogical to me that three members are so opposed to spending a fraction of those amounts to keep a department functioning that all agree they find no fault with. I believe in the future of Wixom and I do not feel I could have contributed any more over the years by being a resident. I do not think I am wrong in expecting fair and equal treatment.

'District Vote'

Novi put together. If this does come about, who do you think will elect the mayor and the council under the present charter?

I wish to quote from page 14, second paragraph of the Model City Charter of the National Municipal League—quote: "In some cities there may be a demand for representation of geographical areas to assure that major segments of the population be represented." On page 5 Section (a) — quote: "There shall be a city council of seven members. Four to be known as councilmen at large shall be nominated and elected by the qualified voters of the city at large. The other three shall be known as district councilmen. They shall be nominated by the qualified voters of their respective districts — and one shall be elected from each district by the qualified voters of the city at large."

I brought up the question of districts in the charter commission first on June 6, 1969 and again on June 27, 1969. It was defeated 6 to 2 on July 18. It was discussed again on October 17, and again on October 24, 1969. I made another motion on November 1, 1969 to consider a district system and it was defeated 4 to 3. It was brought up again on November 7 by Mr. Brinker. If the charter commission were still in existence, I believe it would carry now.

If anybody needs a district system, Novi does. We are a large undeveloped area and we are vulnerable to such a development as is proposed at Ten Mile and Taft which could come about in two to three years. These areas could have political control of Novi and yet have little or no knowledge of the problems of the rest of us and care less. Whether it is the development on Taft Road, or a large trailer park on the west side of town makes no difference. An elected mayor is the same problem, but not as large.

I have proposed four district councilmen, with three elected at large, and the mayor elected from the council as in the village charter. I believe this would give better representation of the city and more unity in the council, as the mayor would then be "their boy."

The charter will have to be corrected. Before this is done, I hope serious consideration will be given a district system to give a more fair representation to all of Novi.

Russell Button

Candidate's Daughter Challenges Mayor

To the Editor:

Mayor Crupi has made five "blitzkrieg campaign" accusations with which we are involved.

First, he mentioned a "coalition slate". If you know anything about government, you must know that team work is necessary to accomplish anything. For the past 14 months, no team work has existed in Novi. Mr. Duey is on a coalition slate strictly for team work purposes. The best thing that this city can do is elect any team, so that the anomosities will end and work will begin.

Secondly, he mentioned "coffees." He must mean that Mrs. Duey is involved in these. If you look into them, you will find that she has participated in "coffees," long before the Dueys moved to Novi.

Thirdly, he mentioned "teas." May I remind him that one of these teas was held in his own home, only a short time ago, for political purposes. Obviously he is referring to the only tea any of the Dueys have attended since the start of this campaign. Once again, if you check all of the information, you will find that this "tea" was given by a neighbor in an effort to introduce the residents of the subdivision to one another as well as to Mrs. Duey. The women of this community are voters, too. They have as much right, as the men, to be informed and involved.

Fourthly, he mentioned "campaign buttons." That's a good idea! As soon as I get some free time, I'll make some up!

As for the fifth subject, Duey's Young People Committee was started by a group of Northville High School students. Our government class has a "get involved" project to do which will count as 50% of our final grade. Obviously he opposes this organization as a way to be involved. Would he suggest that we get involved by demonstrating elsewhere? Or does he feel the youth should not be involved at all? To this point "Youth for Duey" has done three things: We printed and distributed registration reminders. A few of us have individually attended council meetings. Also we have started working on signs (and buttons).

We would like to offer our services to Mr. Crupi. All he must do is tell us what he would like done. After committee approval, we will be glad to oblige. This is standard procedure for everyone, including Mr. Duey, Mr. R. Harrison, Mr. Evans and Mr. Anderson.

We have gone one step farther and held a committee meeting already. It was decided that we would be happy to distribute 1,000 copies of his open letter, if he will have it printed and allow us to distribute 1,000 copies of this letter simultaneously.

Just so you won't call this a political move, I am Debbie Duey, Mr. Duey's daughter. I wrote this letter on my own initiative and authored it completely.

I am seventeen years old, and will be a voter, if not next year, in the very near future. I have to thank Mr. Crupi. His letter was most informative. I will be a better voter for it. From now on, I realize just how much information and how much politics open letters consist of.

To be sure, the views expressed in his letter were his own. I can not believe that his supporters would condone or pay for a letter filled with so much hate, directed against a fellow candidate and his family.

Respectfully,
Debbie Duey

Raps Novi Mayor For Campaign Ad

To the Editor:

This letter is written in response to the open letter from Mayor Crupi and its accusations on the candidate, Mr. Duey.

I hope that the voters take notice that Mr. Crupi can find nothing on which to attack his opponent, Mr. Duey, and therefore, chooses to blow out of proportion the minor aspects of campaigning. I see nothing illegal or undemocratic in having the interest of family and friends in a campaign.

I remind the people of Novi that if Mr. Duey wins, he will attain the mayoralty on his own good merits and their support and not the exaggerated social with which the Mayor finds fault.

The second attack of the Mayor's is that he feels Mr. Duey has underhandedly switched allegiance.

once having endorsed Mr. Crupi for mayor. Does the Mayor fail to see the possibility of a voter supporting a candidate, only to later disagree with this person as he acts in his elected capacity? We all have given our vote to a congressman, senator, governor, whom we later find we can no longer support.

Does Mayor Crupi want to be the only person running for mayor? Does he not realize that our American democracy gives a man the right to run for office? He has tried on every account to find fault with Mr. Duey, and yet the candidate stands on his honesty, opinions on the issues, and good intentions for Novi. Perhaps it is really Mr. Crupi who is in love with the title "Mayor" and would not want to give it up.

Meet Eugenie Choquet CANDIDATE FOR NOVI CITY COUNCIL

(CLIP HERE AND TAKE WITH YOU TO THE POLLS)

I am Eugenie Choquet.

I would like to represent you again as Councilman.

I've lived in Novi for 22 years and have been a property owner in Novi for 32 years.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I regret that I do not have the top brains of some corporation to help me woo your vote with honey words as some of my opponents have nor do I have the talented artists to put a brochure together with a lot of fancy words and fancy do-dads that promise much and deliver nothing... but then I really think that after years of these empty promises you will no longer be fooled by such tactics.

You will no doubt hear whispers and rumors that women should not be in politics. Why not? Don't women have the brains to exist in a man's world? Women sure know when their families have to bear the brunt of a heavy tax burden for which they receive not one service in return.

I had the honor to serve you on the only Council that gave you the tax-payer something for your tax dollar... without additional shelling out of your pocket of your hard earned dollar... you got your roads chlorided and we resurfaced another road... more could have been done yearly but no one followed up the program after I left the Council... The following Councils were in no mood to give the taxpayer a thing for their tax dollar.

I want to be truthful with you; I was always in favor of township government because of its low cost. I was talked into becoming a Village to protect our boundaries... but this was not so... when the majority of people voted for a City... I was not for it because I knew it would bring higher costs if there was no one to hold the purse strings.

I have served two years as secretary of the Planning Board for the constructive development of Novi a community I am most proud of.

I feel that priority needs must be established if Novi is to live within budgeted income. Taxes are straining every resident's pocketbook and that is why a lid must be kept on tax costs... we have to also recognize inflationary trends.

Dumps and the stench of dumping areas close to subdivisions do not reflect the best thinking for the constructive development of Novi... we should not be considered the dumping area for the city of Detroit or any other area.

I believe that our employees should receive fair and equitable treatment and deserve competitive wage rates but at the same time, however, the public should receive efficient service. Service is really the only thing city government has to offer and it has to be provided at the lowest possible cost.

The 1970's will require imagination and dedicated efforts to reach our goal and I want to be part of it and at this time I can devote 100% of my time to the task before us. We've witnessed the many evils that have hit at metropolitan structure and we should recognize that we are not immune from the same problems because we live outside the big city ring.

I do not believe that a Councilman should be in business directly or indirectly with the community he represents. Furthermore, I think it is unfortunate that a citizen, elected to office repeatedly, would think so little of his community that he would permit the dumping of raw sewage in the community without regard for the health of fellow citizens.

You may be sure, as must be evident by this message, that I shall speak my mind openly and frankly where the welfare of our community is concerned. I owe no group any patronage, nor am I aligned with any other candidate. Whether you honor me with your vote that is of course up to you, but do yourself the honor of voting April 6th.

Like other candidates I could have used the names of the 40 people who signed my petitions to boost my candidacy but I do not believe in "using" people.

VOTE MONDAY FOR APRIL 6th

EUGENIE FOR CHOQUET

bigots reaction to integration. Does it ever occur to any of these high minded idealists that we leave because we can no longer afford to stay?

You mention tax reform, but the only tax reform I have encountered in recent years has been upward.

But perhaps you would prefer that we just quit worrying about our "golden years." After all, I can always move into a government subsidized "new town." That is, if there are any middle income idiots left to subsidize me.

My concern also extends to the people who will live in our "new town." If they are only exchanging one ghetto for another, then they, too, are being short changed.

To be accused of racism and bigotry because I dare to dissent, only adds insult to injury.

opposed a council resolution of October 28, 1969, which agreed to investigate the possibility of exempting the Finnish Summer Camp on Loon Lake from sewer hook-ups.

"To exempt an entire neighborhood or ethnic group from connecting to the sanitary sewers is class legislation at its worst," Coy wrote.

Mettala, who is a Finn and who had proposed the resolution, responded in another letter, "I claim Mr. Coy's letter is deliberate and reprehensible distortion of the facts... to intimidate and harass the Wixom City Council."

City Attorney Gene Schnelz, however, pointed out that the city could not give immunity to anyone because it had no authority to supersede state law. State statutes require hook-up within 18 months of sewer line completion, which would put the Wixom deadline at November 1, 1970.

McAtee added that council had only asked the county to investigate the situation and hadn't taken any formal action to exempt anyone.

Northville Township Board Minutes

MEETING MINUTES OF MARCH 10, 1970

107 South Wing
Supervisor Stromberg opened the meeting at 8:05 p.m.

Present: Full board plus consultants Ashton and Mosher, the press and thirteen visitors.

Mitchell moved to accept the minutes of February 10, 1970, February 26, 1970, and March 3, 1970, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

Smith moved to accept the treasurer's report for February, supported by Mitchell Ayes: All.

Baldwin moved to accept the clerk's report for February, the report of monthly receipts and that all bills be paid as submitted, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

Hammond moved to accept and file the minutes of the planning commission of February 24 and the appeal board minutes of March 2, supported by Straub. Ayes: All.

CORRESPONDENCE

1. Resolution from City of St. Clair Shores Hammond read a letter regarding the dispute of the validity of the water rate increase. Mitchell moved to table it for study until the next meeting. (Mr. Mosher is to receive a copy and will report back to us about it) Supported by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

2. Resolutions - Southgate and Brownstown. Mitchell moved to accept and file these resolutions which were duplicates of those formerly received from other communities, supported by Straub. Ayes: All.

3. A. M. Thomson Estate, Request. The clerk read a letter from Mrs. Sorenson which requested permission for a land fill, using hard fill only Hammond moved, on advice of the attorney, that a copy of the land fill ordinance and the regulations adopted thereunder be supplied to the applicant and that she be steered to the planning commission to start processing the application. The supervisor should then request the planning commission to put the matter on its agenda, second by Straub. Ayes: All.

4. Liquor License Request - Lake Pointe Drugs. Mitchell moved to authorize the State Liquor Control Commission allow this license since there was no objections to same, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

5. Historical Society. Hammond read a copy of a letter addressed to the Northville City Council stating that the Historical Society hoped that a section of the city might be established as a historical district and that in particular the township hall be preserved. Smith moved to accept and file, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

6. Hammond moved, second by Straub, to accept and file the letter from Plymouth Township regarding Five Mile Road since the matter had already been taken care of by the supervisor. Ayes: All.

7. Group Life Insurance Renewal and Change. Baldwin moved to table the matter of a change in insurance until the next meeting and asked that a copy of the letter from the agency be sent to board members, seconded by Smith. Ayes: All.

8. Letter from Building Official. In the absence of the building official, Smith moved to table this matter to the next regular meeting, seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Solicitation Ordinance. Smith moved to table the study of this proposed ordinance until the next meeting, supported by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

2. Hospital Water Line. Mosher reported that the road commission had put our request on their agenda on March 5.

3. Ambulance Service. Hammond read a letter from our attorney which set forth suggestions for an agreement with two ambulance companies wherein the township would assume responsibility for unpaid bills under certain conditions. Ashton felt that an involved legal contract was unnecessary. Baldwin moved that the supervisor be asked to draft a letter incorporating the conditions set forth in Ashton's letter of March 6, seconded by Straub. Ayes: All.

4. Fire Contract. Straub reported that his study of the fire contract between the city and the township indicated that there should be some wording in it to cover determination of ownership of equipment purchased jointly in case of termination of said contract. Also, that there should be a pre-determined rate for costs of administration of the department. Straub moved to continue to discuss this agreement with the city and report back at the next regular meeting with a definite proposal, supported by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Recommendations from Planning Commission.

a. Trailer Zoning Amendment. On February 24 the planning commission recommended to the board that an amendment to the zoning ordinance be adopted concerning the non-conforming use of trailers. Mr. Severance asked to speak against this, as did Messrs. Bonner, Perry and Perez. Ashton expressed his feeling that the ordinance amendment was constitutional and that no exception to the non-conforming statute should be made wherever business or houses might be located. This new wording simply prevents the perpetuation of the non-conforming trailer and makes it clear as to when a trailer loses its protective non-conforming use status. Smith moved to table the decision on this amendment to the next meeting and asked to have an evaluation inventory made of all trailers in the township, supported by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

b. Gas Stations from B-1 District to B-2. As recommended by the planning commission on February 24, 1970, Smith moved that the zoning ordinance be amended eliminating Auto Service Stations as a permitted use in a B-1 District and providing for the Auto Service Stations use only in a B-2 district, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All. This ordinance to be known as 22-J.

2. Fee Schedule - Review of Water Main and Sewer Plans. Mosher explained the change in method of charging for review, based on rising costs. Straub moved to adopt the following fee schedule for review of all water main and sewer plans as recommended by the water and sewer commission in their meeting of March 4, 1970.

(1) For sanitary sewer plans (each contract section)

$100.00 base charge plus $0.15 linear foot of sewer.

(2) For water main plans (each contract section)

$100.00 base charge plus $0.10 per linear foot of water main.

(3) For storm sewer plans (all locations requiring township approval)

$100.00 base charge (each contract section) plus $0.10 per linear foot of sewer.

(4) That the township charge an additional ten percent of each of the above fees to cover township handling costs.

(5) This resolution supersedes Resolution 70-4, 67-35 and those sections of Resolution 66-24 which refer to charges for review of plans. Seconded by Smith. Ayes: All.

3. Police Car Bids. Sealed bids were received in the township office on March 2, 1970, based on specifications sent out by Nisun. The clerk read bids from Chevrolet, Ford, Plymouth and Dodge. Smith moved to table the decision on the bids to the next special meeting and asked that a copy of the specifications be sent to board members, seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

Mr. Don Thomson asked permission to speak and suggested that for the small amount quoted on the old vehicle he thought the township should retain it for a second car.

4. Chief of Police. Smith moved that Mr. Nisan's title be made "Chief of Police" with the understanding of course that the supervisor remain as chief law enforcement official of the township as decreed by State law, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

5. Police Reserve Volunteers. Stromberg announced that the first class of township police reserves had passed their tests and had officially received their oath of office on March 3, 1970. Of twelve men who started the course, five had completed the requirements and are ready to assume their duties. The work is presently on a volunteer basis with the recruits buying their own uniforms. Baldwin moved that there be a written report of the duties, qualifications and training of such reserve police, supported by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

Lawrence moved to adjourn at 10:50 p.m., supported by Smith. Ayes: All.

Respectfully submitted,

Eleanor W. Hammond, Clerk

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TUESDAY, APRIL 21, 1970 - 8:00 PM CITY OF NORTHVILLE

Public Hearings will be held by the City of Northville Planning Commission on the following three amendments to the City of Northville Zoning Ordinance, Northville City Hall, 215 W. Main, Northville, Michigan.

An Ordinance to amend the City of Northville Zoning Ordinance, Article III, Section 3.14 (2) to read as follows:

Sec. 3.14 (2) Multiple dwellings or apartment houses. Two (2) parking spaces for each family or dwelling unit.

An Ordinance to amend the City of Northville Zoning Ordinance, Articles VI and VI-A by adding Section 6.12 and Section 6A.16 as follows:

Sec. 6.12 OPEN SPACE AND LANDSCAPE AREA. In an R-3 District, areas devoted to off-street parking, drives or maneuvering lanes shall not cover more than 35 per cent of the total area of any lot and an area of not less than 30 per cent of any lot shall be devoted to recreational purposes clearly accessory to the permitted use and which may include various landscape treatment, recreation equipment such as swings, slides, teeter totters, and abstract children's artifacts, swimming pool complete with change house and suana bath and such similar recreation facilities.

Sec. 6A.16 OPEN SPACE AND LANDSCAPE AREA. In an R-2A District, areas devoted to off-street parking, drives or maneuvering lanes shall not cover more than 35 per cent of the total area of any lot and an area of not less than 30 per cent of any lot shall be devoted to recreational purposes clearly accessory to the permitted use and which may include various landscape treatment, recreation equipment such as swings, slides, teeter totters, and abstract children's artifacts, swimming pool complete with change house and suana bath and such similar recreation facilities.

An Ordinance to amend the City of Northville Zoning Ordinance, Article III, Section 3.15 (2) to read as follows:

The entire parking area, including parking spaces, maneuvering lands and areas for ingress and egress, required under this section, shall be provided with asphaltic or concrete surfacing in accordance with specifications approved by the City Manager or his representative. The parking area shall be surfaced within (1) year of the date the permit is issued.

Off-street parking areas shall be drained so as to dispose of all surface water accumulated in the parking areas in such a way as to preclude drainage of water onto adjacent property or toward buildings.

POLICE TAKE OATH — An auxiliary police force was formed in Northville Township recently as five township residents who have successfully completed initial training took the oath to uphold the laws of the state and community. The auxiliary policemen, representing five of more than 20 township men who voiced interest in joining the volunteer, non-paid force, have completed initial training under Police Chief Ron Nisun (left), the Novi Police Department, and the State Police. Administering the oath as Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg looks on is Clerk Mrs. Eleanor Hammond. The new policemen are (l to r) Richard Zabell, Michael Cayley, Charles Schaeffer, Wesley Klocke, and James Schrot.

Police Blotter

Pedestrian Injured in Hit-Run

Sixteen-year-old Rosemary Sells, 9150 Chubb Road, suffered minor injuries March 18 when she was struck by a car as she walked along Seven Mile Road in the area of Ridge Road.

Wayne County Sheriff's Department, which investigated the accident, said Miss Sells was struck by a blue Pontiac Firebird around 9:30 p.m. They are still looking for the driver.

Two children were bitten by animals last week, police reported. Bruce A. Phillips, 3, of 565 Langfield, was bitten on the right thumb by a dog March 17. He was treated at Atchinson Clinic.

Eight-year-old Glen E. Shaughnessy, of 43768 Park Grove, was bitten on his right little finger by a guinea pig March 16. He was treated at Park View Clinic, Westland.

A television set valued at $150 was taken from Eastlawn Convalescent Home, 409 High Street, police reported. Police indicated the theft occurred between 9:45 p.m. March 17 and 8:30 a.m. March 18.

Police reported a coil wire and spark plug wires were pulled from a car parked on Walnut near East Street shortly before 3 p.m. on March 17.

Northville township police have issued a stern warning to persons illegally dumping garbage and litter in the township. Conviction of the ordinance violation can bring up to a 90 day sentence and/or $100 fine, plus the cost of cleaning up the area.

Police Chief Ron Nisun reports the area of Napier Road between Five and Six Mile roads has been littered with everything from garbage to discarded furniture and washing machines.

A Farmington woman recieved minor injuries in a one-car accident at Randolph and Eight Mile Road March 24.

Police said a car driven by Shirley B. Smith jumped a traffic island and struck a direction sign about 3 a.m., after she drove the wrong way on a one-way traffic lane.

Mrs. Smith refused medical treatment, police reported.

Vandals threw a brick through the window of a garage at 926 Novi Street on March 21.

Police, who estimated the incident occurred between 3 and 9 a.m., said a car in the garage was damaged by broken glass.

COURT NEWS

Arrested for writing bad checks, Nathaniel W. Nelson, of Detroit, was ordered to make restitution by April 2 on two checks totaling $1,400. The action came March 19 in Judge Dunbar Davis' 35th District Court.

In court news March 17, a Pontiac man, James L. Martin, was fined $128 on a reduced charge of driving while ability impaired.

Arrested for careless driving, two Northville youths were fined $78 each. They are Mark D. Murthion, 18228 Jamestown Circle, and John E. Brevik, 920 Ely Court.

A Livonia youth, Paul S. Dark, was fined $131 for speeding, $21 for defective exhaust and $28 for improper license plates.

Donald L. Riggs, 190 East Main Street, was fined $53 and sentenced to two weekends in the Detroit House of Correction, for driving under a suspended license.

Michael J. Skowronski, Dearborn, arrested for driving under a revoked license, was fined $53 and sentenced to two weekends in the Detroit House of Correction.

Contract Rewritten

Novi school board read the fine print of a land contract Tuesday drawn up by Kaufman and Broad for the sale of land for the district's new elementary school in Village Oaks, and directed their attorney to write a new contract.

In January, the board and Kaufman and Broad agreed to terms for the sale of land, but, as Superintendent Thomas Dale said Tuesday, the contract terms "are different from what we agreed upon."

The contract came through with interest on the unpaid balance, taxes to be pro-rated to the district and a stipulation that the district could not get possession of the land or begin construction until the interest was paid.

"We have ironed out all but the interest charged on the second payment," Dale said.

The board voted unanimously to have the attorney to draw up a new contract based on the terms agreed upon in writing in January.

Terms include payment of the $64,440 purchase price in three installments — $20,000 upon completion of the purchase agreement; $20,000 upon or within 30 days of the bond sale held yesterday, Wednesday, night; and the balance upon completion of the roads, water, sewer and landfill by the developer.

In other action Tuesday, the board indicated they would install a septic system in the middle school as the last item of construction.

The city council has not given the district a commitment as to how soon sewers would reach the high school property, where the middle school will be built, Dale said.

Trustee Robert Wilkins said, "After the election, the council should make some definite commitment. We have nearly $75,000 set aside for a septic system that could go toward sewers."

Petitions for the June 8 school board election are now available at the school board offices, Dale said.

Only one post is open on the board, a one-year term currently held by Ray Warren. Petitions must be turned in by May 8 in order to be eligible to run in the election. The board has not indicated the ballot will contain any other questions.

An Open Letter from Mayor Crupi

To Novi Voters:

Several hundred of you learned at the March 9 Rezoning Public Hearing that I am not a politician. I could have so easily carried your favor by voting yes as did other candidates, because I was not opposed to the overall plan.

It was obvious, however, that there were several glaring oversights that needed correction -- the pressures of MDCA not withstanding. If we cannot win the MDCA matter on our excellent Master Plan, it would be difficult to win at all. I refuse to panic or to take a defensive position.

From the beginning, I have had confidence that we had a better than even chance of overcoming the threat to Novi by MDCA on high densities and I have acted accordingly. This has been shown in my interviews in the newspapers and my handling of the Public Meeting as your Mayor.

If you want a Mayor that bends with the slightest stir of wind, then I am not your man.

I am a firm believer that each councilman and the Mayor, in particular, should stand on his own and not be part of a think alike coalition, with political debts to pay. I prefer to stand alone as an independent because politics creates strange bedfellows.

For example, Mr. Duey, my opponent for Mayor, and Mr. Evans, a candidate for councilman, have joined forces with Mr. Anderson and Mr. Ray Harrison and are running as a coalition. Mr. Duey and Mr. Evans will no doubt recall that they, along with several other City Charter Commissioners, invited me to Mr. Duey's home at the last minute before the last election and asked that I run for the first office of Mayor. Mr. Duey wanted to run for Mayor, but he felt that he could not beat Mr. Anderson, whom they felt would not make a good councilman, let alone a good Mayor.

Now, isn't it strange that in a little over a year's time, Mr. Duey and Mr. Evans embrace Mr. Anderson as a running mate along with Mr. Ray Harrison, who was pious because an ordinance was passed to prevent his business operation of dumping septic tank sewage in Novi? Mr. Anderson has also had some problems of running a "Sanitary Landfill" on this property.

Since there have not been any real issues raised up to this writing, I must assume the coalition means that the Dueys really covet the title of Mayor and its social amenities. Otherwise, Mr. Duey would not have resigned as councilman, to run for the office of Mayor. My main interest is being Councilman-Mayor. Being the ceremonial head of Novi is more of an obligation than an honor with me.

This letter is my total campaign for my re-election to the Office of Mayor because I choose to run on my past record of two four-year terms with concurrent election as Council President under the Village Charter starting in 1963, my election to the City Charter Commission, and the City's first Mayor. I have never been leader.

On the other hand, from what I have heard, Novi will be experiencing its first big politics, blitzkrieg campaign by Mr. Duey -- with a coalition slate, coffee, teas, campaign buttons, youth for Duey, etc. I am honored and flattered that it might take big politics to beat me.

All that I ask, if you believe in the job I have done as Mayor, is your vote, your passing the word along to those who have little knowledge of me, and possibly the reproduction and passing of this letter on to others.

Mr. Duey and Company outwardly are running to oppose my road program. Yes, I suggested and urge your vote for a road improvement program. It is not my program, but yours -- the Community's program. I don't need paving, but the Community needs paving of its main roads -- the essence of the program. If you have any same faith and pride in Novi -- all you have to ask yourself is, "Does Novi need main road improvements?"

I have been told -- "If you had a definitive road program, I would vote for it." This is probably the sorriest excuse or alibi to shirk a responsibility to the community.

As for a beginning program for the doubtful: the City has 4 1/2 miles of fully engineered, priority roads ready to go -- those having most use from Novi citizens. Other similar roads are on a priority list but the Community, since its incorporation in 1958, has only been able to afford the cost of engineering of the 4 1/2 miles of roads. The sequences of exact priorities are so obvious that they must fall like dominoes in a line, regardless who is on the Council. Thirdly, you have always entrusted your Council to bind the full faith and credit of your community to projects of far greater money value without a vote from you. Can you not trust your Council on this restricted project?

The City has about 35 miles of unpaved main or mile roads. While developers along these mile roads will be required to include paving along the boundaries of their development in their plat plans, such paving will be sporadic, patch-like, and would not provide a complete road system even when the City has reached its full development. No city, even the faster growing cities having a greater millage than Novi, has been able to achieve good roads without an independent road construction program by the City. Even with developers paving roads contiguous to their developments; with millage allocated money for roads alone; and with special assessments to those who live on mile roads to the degree of direct benefit received, Novi will be lucky if half of the mile roads would be paved in the next ten years, as covered in the two propositions on the ballot.

In closing, I urge your support for the two propositions, and would appreciate your vote for my re-election and your passing the word along.

Stuyvenberg Defends Title

Mustangs Ride into Huron Relays

John Stuyvenberg, Northville's premier long jumper, will defend his title Friday in the Huron Relays in Bowen Fieldhouse at Eastern Michigan University.

Northville will also be shooting to better its sixth-place finish of last year. This year 76 area teams are entered, the largest turnout ever.

Stuyvenberg, a junior, took first in the long jump in the Eastern Michigan Invitational and the

Chances Wildcats' Jeopardized

Novi's chances for a good season in track have been hurt even before the season has started.

Two lettermen who are still eligible to compete have decided not to come out for the team and distance runner Mark Earl may not be able to run.

Earl, who qualified for the state meet last year as a junior, pulled a tendon in his foot recently. His doctor has prescribed a special brace which he's wearing now.

"Mark has really got a lot of potential," says Coach Fred Hanert. "But I don't know if he's going to be able to make it this spring. It'll be a shame if he misses his senior season."

Earl ran the two-mile last year in 10:12 and was expecting to break 10:00 this year.

If Earl has to skip track, Hanert will be left with only three hurdlers who have proven they can win.

John Davey, a senior, is Novi's veteran long jumper and sprinter. Dan McGarry, another senior, is a miler. And Syd Champman, also a senior, runs the hurdles.

They will be the top Wildcats in a group of 25, which includes only seven lettermen. The team hasn't picked a captain yet.

Novi isn't entered in any indoor relays but will open with a Southeastern Conference dual meet against Dexter. The opener will be April 9 at Novi.

Saline and Chelsea, last year's co-champions, are again rated as title favorites. The championship is awarded on a team's combined record in dual meets and the final conference meet.

University of Michigan Invitational in indoor meets last month.

Only a few Northville trackmen entered the invitationals, and Stuyvenberg was the only one to place. More than 3,000 hurdlers competed in both meets.

Friday's Huron Relays will be the season debut for the Mustangs as a team. They will follow it up with the Spartan Relays at Michigan State University next Friday.

Stuyvenberg was the long jump champion in both relays last year and took second in the state as a sophomore.

Coach Ralph Redmond, Northville coach, has 10 other lettermen back besides Stuyvenberg. "But we have a basically young team this year," he adds.

Of the 50 boys listed on the team, nine are freshmen, 14 are sophomores, 15 are juniors and only 12 are seniors.

Paul Bedford, a senior, Dave Wright, a junior, and Brian Myers, a senior, are Northville's three captains this year.

Bedford and Wright are distance runners. Myers is a shot putter.

Bedford and Wright will be leading the distance contingent in Friday's relays with help from Phil Guider, Rick Bell, Brad Cole, Rick Lamp, Guy Dickson, Wayne Enders and Paul Berger. Bell holds the school record in the two-mile run.

Stuyvenberg will be a favorite in the 60-yard dash, in addition to the long jump. He will be teaming with Jamie Carter, Jim Darnell, Dave Mitchell and Keith Ferris in the sprints. Ferris is only a freshman.

In the hurdles Northville will have Dave Veresh, Gary Putrow, Rick Pickren, Mitchell, Cole and Carter.

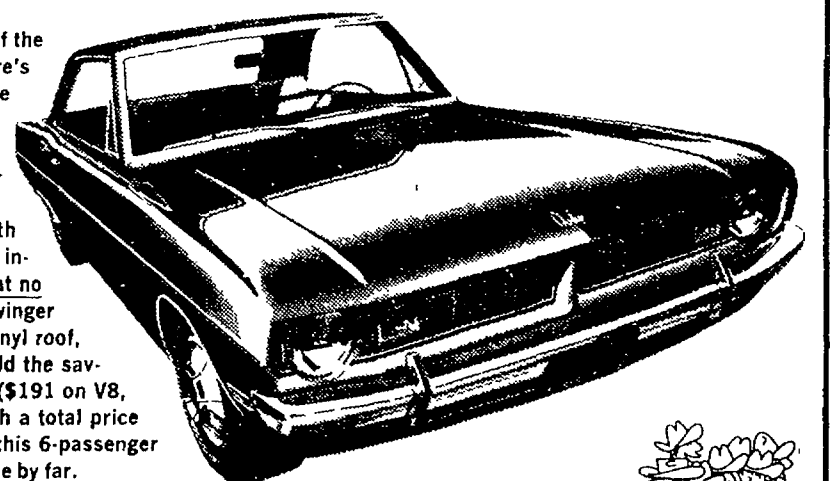

Starting time for preliminaries and semi-finals will be noon. The Mustangs were sixth best among 60 teams last year.

"We're pointing toward a similar or even better finish this year," Redmond enthuses.

A NEW DART FOR NEARLY $400 LESS. THAT'S WHAT I CALL A WINDFALL!

To be exact, Sheriff, it's $378.15 off the sticker price on this Dodge Dart. Here's how the Dodge Boys did it. First, the sticker price has been reduced on all Dart models. (On our Dart Swinger hardtop, this price reduction amounts to $187.)

Then the Dodge Boys came up with a specially equipped Swinger that includes the automatic transmission at no extra cost. It's called the Dart Swinger Automatic. And it also includes a vinyl roof, whitewalls, carpeting, and more. Add the savings of the automatic transmission ($191 on V8, $175 on Six), and you come up with a total price reduction of $362 to $378. Makes this 6-passenger Dart America's biggest compact value by far.

The Dodge Boys are driving down your cost of driving in style.

Township Board Approves Budget

district court accounted for the overall decrease in this category.

While the budget is still pegged at 1 mill, the estimated income from property taxes in the budget has increased from $26,000 to $29,944.18 ($39,900 counting $9,946 in excess of roll). The hike results from increasing township valuation together with a 1.11 factor to be applied by the county.

Revenue from building permits takes a nosedive from $41,000 to $26,000 in the budget, reflecting the slowup in building activity.

In considering bids for a new police car, replacement for the present vehicle, the board at an earlier meeting deferred action pending review of specifications used by Police Chief Ron Nisun in obtaining bids.

Trustees Richard Mitchell and Bernard Baldwin clashed over those specifications Tuesday, with Mitchell arguing that they were proper and Baldwin that they were improper.

Baldwin took the position that because the specifications were drawn up to reflect recommended specifications of a specific automobile manufacturer automatically ruled out products of other manufacturers. Furthermore, he said the specifications called for a "super-duper" vehicle (power windows, bucket seats, etc.) that is not needed here.

Mitchell, on the other hand, noted that the specifications were along the lines as those used by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department. "We're telling the manufacturer what kind of police car we want; they're not telling us. I think the point is that this is an attempt to delay the thing so that we end up with a family type car."

"I think we should review specifications of other police departments," said Baldwin, who indicated that his own investigation showed the specifications to be out of line with what is asked for in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and the Washtenaw Sheriff's Department. To do less, he said, would be a "breach of trust."

"Between last meeting and this," argued Mitchell, "I did some checking and I'm thoroughly convinced it's the car (Dodge) to buy."

The board first voted 5-2 to accept the specifications. Baldwin and Trustee Joseph Straub voted no. Straub dissented, he explained, because the specifications ruled out all but the Dodge police car. Baldwin, who insisted that specifications used by other departments be checked, said approving specifications "after the fact is highly irregular."

When the board finally voted on purchase of the Dodge ($3,044 with $500 allowance on trade-in for net of $2,544), Baldwin and Straub abstained because of occupational interests with manufacturers. Approval of the purchase carried the notation that the Dodge was the only car that met the specifications. The Dodge was the second highest bid. Other bids came in from Plymouth, Chevrolet, and Ford dealers.

They ranged from $2,447 (net) to $2,563 (net).

The board approved by unanimous vote to increase the retainer fee for the township attorney from $400 annually to $100 monthly, with the new rate to cover miscellaneous telephone calls handled by the attorney that previously cost extra. Special service fee remains at $30 per hour.

The resignation of Donald Robinson from the board of review, which recently completed its hearings, with regret but with appreciation for his work.

Motorist Charged In Traffic Fatality

A 22-year-old Plymouth woman had been charged with negligent homicide resulting from a two-car accident March 16 on Eight Mile and North Center in which a 23-year-old Farmington man was fatally injured.

Oakland County prosecutor's office approved the warrant Monday, Northville police said.

Mary Perlongo stood mute when arraigned before Judge Dunbar Davis on Tuesday in 35th District Court. The judge entered a plea of "not guilty" for her and set a court appearance for April 15.

According to police reports, Miss Perlongo was traveling west on Eight Mile and attempted to make a left turn onto Center on an amber light.

Apparently she did not come to the center of the intersection, police said, and turned in front of an eastbound car driven by Pamela J. Ray, 21, of Farmington.

Douglas B. Ray, a passenger in the car driven by his wife, died Sunday night at Botsford Hospital from injuries suffered in the accident. He never regained consciousness police said.

His wife was treated at Botsford

Mobile Park

Donovan retorted, "If more mobile homes existed, there'd be a lot of people who would be glad to have them. That's why so few factory workers live in Novi."

Sheldon Gordon, of HT-G, however, noted his park wouldn't necessarily attract a majority of factory workers, pointing to strict limits on families with children. He said HT-G would let in some pre-school children but no school-age children.

"We're going to cater to the mature family, where the children are finished with school and have left home," he explained, citing 2.2 persons per mobile home as his expected average.

"This place is going to have a swimming pool and a recreation area and then you're going to discriminate against children? I don't like that," criticized Charles Tobel, of the planning board, who voted against the request.

Olen Green and Peter Alcala also voted no, siding with the citizens who feared the mobile home would lower property values in the area.

"It would have been easy to vote 'no' but I think the people in this area must face the idea their neighborhood is going to change," countered Merle Jenkins, who voted yes. "And those changes are not going to be desirable changes for the residents."

Jenkins noted the area was becoming an island, surrounded by manufacturing on the south and west and by Walled Lake on the east. Adjacent to the property on the southeast will be the Walled Lake-Novi Sewage treatment plant.

Gordon said HT-G would have 339 12x60 homes and 41 12x60's with 7x14 annexes, at an average cost of $10,000 each. The average density of dwelling per acre would be 5.9. Market value of the project, according to Gordon, would be $1 million.

Only one-third of the homes would have children, Gordon said, and monthly payments would average $135 per unit.

He based many of his predictions on a national government study and on his experience with an HT-G park in Canton Township.

If no response is received within the five day limit, it shall mean the book has been approved.

Trustee Andrew Orphan wanted to amend the policy to read that "no response within five days shall mean disapproval of the book."

His amendment died for lack of support.

Casting the dissenting votes were Orphan and Glenn Deibert, who indicated he was against restrictions on books.

Board members approved the purchase of four school buses for a total cost of $16,816 on bus chassis from John Mach Ford and $34,196 for bus bodies from McFadden Corporation.

The resignation of H. D. Schuler, sixth grade humanities teacher, was accepted by the board. Schuler will leave his post at the end of the school year.

The April 13 meeting of the board was cancelled, and the next meeting will be held April 27.

By ROLLY PETERSON

"Maybe the problem of drugs is more a problem of adults than the young," said the gaunt figure with the balding head and the long beard as he sat cross-legged before the television camera.

Peering from behind his glasses, the man looked almost frail, on the 12 noon program of the University of Michigan. Yet his soft words, simply but brilliant, carried an authoritative ring Sunday.

The man was Abraham Kaplan, professor of philosophy at the University of Michigan, the man picked by Time magazine a few years back as one of the 10 outstanding teachers in the nation, a man known for his lucid comment, his insight and particular knowledge about various cultures.

Dr. Kaplan wasn't making excuses for the young who consume drugs. He was trying to get to the heart of the problem and was suggesting that adults of victimized teens should perhaps look at themselves and what they have failed to provide for their children, rather than criticizing the young.

Noting that the young people are amazingly honest in their appraisal of things, Professor Kaplan said they are quick to perceive adult hypocrisy. What the young want of adults, he explained, was sincerity with respect to drugs, as well as toward the larger world problems that are so unsettling.

"When our society is committed to solving these (world problems)," the professor continued, "then the drug problem may recede."

The young detect hypocrisy in adults who are addicted to tobacco and alcohol and yet these same adults attack drug abuse as something unrelated and totally noxious, the professor stated. For Kaplan, there is little, if no, distinction between the alcoholic, the heavy smoker and the drug addict.

"One of the mistakes," Kaplan said, was to approach drug consumption from a legalistic frame of mind. "To treat it as a police problem," he asserted, "is not the way to go about it, especially in view of experiences with alcohol during prohibition. Drug addiction is more of a medical psychological and social problem, he contends.

Besides a certain lack in the young person's life that is perhaps driving him toward drugs, Kaplan also blamed the cult of the subjective in which "all that matters is the way you feel about things."

But this approach can be dangerous. The person may turn inward so much as to exclude all others, thus assuming a god-like posture. "Anytime a man thinks he's god, he ends up in a hell of his own making," the professor said.

Area Low-Cost Housing Shortage Spurs 'New Community' Concept

SIGN OF SPRING — When spring officially bowed in Friday one sure sign of the vernal equinox was the large number of kites that dotted the sky throughout this area. Meanwhile, the Detroit Edison Company, in announcing its annual "Safe Kite Flying Poster Contest," urged youngsters to do their flying in open areas far from power lines as seven-year-old David Garrison is doing. And if a kite becomes lodged in a tree or utility wires, "it is better to lose a kite than a life," the company emphasized.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the second in a series of articles based on questions involving the proposed "new community" for Novi. In this article, Novi News Editor Howard Kohn explores the criteria for inner-city relocation to the suburbs and need for low-cost housing development.

Oldtime planners never figured the suburbs would turn into honky-tonks and the central cities into a wasted "back forty."

What they saw was a metropolitan area built like this:

1) All the people live in a residential belt at the outer limits of the core city.

2) Circular belts inside the residential belt contain offices, factories, nightclubs, baseball diamonds, etc.

3) Rapid transit ties everyone to everything, eliminating cars for the metro area.

Contemporary planners, some now are saying, have to be content with a much more practical design.

1) Build pre-planned cities — "new towns" — with built-in shopping centers, playgrounds, etc., in the outlying regions of the metro area, where industry has started to locate.

2) Reduce the central city to an efficient unit by transplanting blue-collar workers into these "new towns" and other suburbs.

3) Connect the central city and the satellite cities with a combination of highways and rapid transit.

The "new community" proposed for Novi intrudes on these grand schemes with even more humbler ambitions. Critics, with good reasons, call it simply a "super-subdivision."

It's not very big, only 562 acres with hopes of going to 1,000 before it's finished. It won't bring an industrial tax base with it, nor spark a rapid transit from Detroit to Novi.

But that isn't the purpose of the "new community," according to the Metropolitan Detroit Citizens Development Authority (MDCDA).

MDCDA, a group of church, business and union leaders, is sponsoring the "new community" as part of its fight to save Detroit's inner-city.

"We don't have time to build a 'new town' that could take 15 to 20 years," explains Edward Robinson, MDCDA executive director. "People need housing now and we want to give it to them."

Robinson realizes the "new community" can create problems as well as solve some. But he argues the balance is in "new community's" favor because housing is a top priority.

How important is housing? George Romney, former Michigan governor and now Housing and Urban Development (HUD) secretary, cites figures from a study he organized back in 1968. The study was conducted by the Michigan Commission on Housing Law Revision.

The study showed 431,000 homes in the state should be condemned under existing building codes. That would leave 1,380,000 people homeless.

More than half of these sub-standard homes are in Detroit, the study said.

Robinson says the problem is multiplying faster than private builders can keep up with it. Even if all homes were left standing, he says only 24,000 of a needed 36,000 new homes are put in Detroit each year.

Most of the housing needed is low-cost for the poor and middle-income families.

Even in Novi, where the city council has been given overwhelming support in its drive to keep out the "new community," low-cost housing is hard to find.

In the past two years, the Office of Economic Opportunity has had 150 requests from Novi residents who couldn't afford their rent or whose houses had been condemned because they didn't meet codes.

"On the average it takes almost half a year to re-locate these people," notes Leona Edwards, OEO unit supervisor for the Novi area. "Often they have to move from Novi because there are no places here."

"From our experience we figure only one out of 15 who need better housing ever come to us," she adds.

Novi's biggest trouble area is around Walled Lake, where undersized houses that were once summer cottages rent for $125 to $175 a month. Another problem is old farmhouses, which sometimes have no indoor toilets and sometimes no electricity.

For Novi and the surrounding communities, which are all-white, Edwards admits the housing shortage hurts only a few people, less than 10 per cent of the total Detroit is where the real pain is. And most "new community" people would probably come from Detroit.

MDCDA anticipates an economically and racially integrated "new community" with income ranges as follows: 60 per cent in the $8,000-14,000 bracket, 30 per cent in the $6,000-8,000 and 10 per cent in the $4,000-6,000.

Glenn Turner, a Novi resident, complained at a meeting last week that it's even getting tough for the guy who makes $10,000 a year to buy a house in Novi.

Most Novi homes start at $25,000 and go up. MDCDA is promising its houses will be in the $15,000 to $26,000 range.

"There isn't such an animal as a $15,000 house," claims Leon Zolkower, planner for Kaufman & Broad Incorporated. "At least not for a private builder. We can't make money off that cheap a house."

Kaufman & Broad recently asked for rezoning to develop a 640-acre parcel in Novi, the biggest single development for the city so far. Its houses are expected to be in the $30,000 to $50,000 range.

MDCDA has two advantages Kaufman & Broad doesn't have. It can get federal funds from HUD to subsidize building, and it is saving time and labor by going to pre-fabricated construction.

Robinson is the first to admit MDCDA can't guarantee its houses will work out. But he's more confident now, after bucking building trade unions for two years and finally getting HUD's attention.

Trade unions have steadfastly opposed the pre-fabs, which reduce construction costs considerably. Robinson blames the unions, in part, for bogging down MDCDA's projects in the inner-city where MDCDA has failed to meet its building deadlines but has hundreds of houses under construction.

HUD's reaction to the "new community," according to several sources, has been enthusiastic. Apparently the only drawback remains the proposal's small size. HUD would like it to have at least 1,000 acres.

A HUD spokesman says he isn't bothered that the Novi "new community" will not include its own industrial base. "Some industry is already there," he explains. "And a lot more is going to follow."

The Novi site is only one of four sites in Oakland County planned for

Area Housing Shortage

"new communities" by MDCDA. Oakland County has been picked by regional planners as the "boom" center for the 1970's.

An MDCDA study shows 6,000 jobs within a five-mile radius of the "new community" — set for Taft Road between Nine and Ten Mile Roads.

About half the hourly workers in the Novi area live in Detroit, Ann Arbor or Ypsilanti. The Ford-Lincoln plant in Wixom estimates that 50 per cent of its 5,500 roll comes from Detroit. The Ford plant in Plymouth says at least 35 per cent of 1,400 is from Detroit. Portec Incorporated, Paragon Division, in Novi, lists 65 per cent of its 500 employees as Detroit or Ann Arbor residents.

MDCDA's theory is to limit the need for cars, usually the most consuming item on an inner-city family's budget next to rent.

Retail stores and playgrounds will be within walking distance in the "new community," a change from the inner-city where only the corner market with its marked-up prices is within foot length.

That means three or four families could share one car to go to work;

pooling it or alternating it on weekends.

As guardian angel for 1.5 million auto workers, UAW President Walter Reuther's second job as MDCDA president coincides neatly. He has been pushing the auto industry to provide low-cost housing for its workers.

In negotiations for the last two major contracts with the Big Four, Reuther has asked that pension funds be used for housing. The Big Four has refused the demand both times.

"We're more interested in setting up a mass transit system to solve the inner-city problems," explains Gerry Sloan, Ford public relations director in Dearborn. "Housing has never been our bag."

Ford is making an exception to that policy right now in Dearborn, however, where it is developing a 2,300-acre tract. But that development reportedly will include only high-rising apartments, office buildings, hotels, etc. — no low-cost housing.

Coincidentally, Robinson is a resident of Dearborn and a former state senator from that area.

Novi residents have chastised him for not taking the "new community" to Dearborn or to Rochester, where Reuther lives. Robinson replies, "It's almost impossible to find land in cities like that. The Ford land, for instance, was bought originally by the first Henry Ford."

Still, the criticism sticks out like a big nose. Are the MDCDA directors, regarded as the moderate-liberal elite of Detroit, protecting their own lily-white suburbs from integration?

"If we can't get integration in an undeveloped area like Novi, we're never going to get it anywhere," defends Robinson. "It has to start someplace."

Some legal experts see years of court fighting, similar to that on school integration, before suburbs are eventually integrated.

"Granted that the inner-city family needs a better place to live," asks William Duey, Novi candidate for mayor. "What about the suburbanite's right to have open space and clean air. That's why these people moved out here to begin with."

Robinson's counter-argument is simple, based on run-away population figures. "Novi is going to have 125,000 people anyway. You can't keep people from coming out here. There's no place else to go."

"So isn't it better to have a 'new community' which is planned than to have suburban sprawl?"

For the planners, the question comes down to what kind of people are going to live in Novi and what kind of housing are they going to live in — assuming there isn't going to be a whole lot of open space left over anyway.

The Kaufman & Broad project set for the 640-acre site bounded by Ten Mile, Haggerty, Eight and Half Mile and Meadowbrook Roads, is more in line with Novi ideals, says Duey.

That project will have 462 acres of single-family houses, 175 of apartments and three acres for shopping centers. Kaufman & Broad sold 10 acres to Novi for schools.

The average density of dwellings per acre will be 3.9.

In contrast, the "new community" (on the basis of 765 acres) will have 188 acres for single-family houses, 282 for townhouses and apartments, 117 for playgrounds and open space, 10 for stores and day-care centers, 138 for roads and landscaped areas, and 30 for schools.

The average density will be 4.5.

The major difference clearly is that "new community" will have low-cost homes and Kaufman & Broad will not.

Next week. Problems the "new community" could cause in Novi and in other suburban areas, and the reaction it has already caused.

Babson Report

See Little Capital Cutback

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass.

In view of the economic downturn in progress for some months, it has been widely felt that outlays for plant and equipment would soon begin to ease significantly. But the latest government survey of business plans indicates that there is little intention on the part of businessmen to sharply curtail capital spending.

The evidence of business confidence implied by the unexpectedly lofty projections of capital investment plans was a big surprise because of the tremendous "odds" which ordinarily would tend to dampen business capital spending. In addition to the downside in business, there is the extremely high cost of borrowed capital and the relative shortage of credit, resulting from the anti-inflation monetary policy. In the past, tight money has been the "Waterloo" of booms in capital expenditures, at least for the time being.

IN ADDITION, the tight squeeze on profit margins is usually a powerful force in curbing expenditures of this nature. This is particularly true when there is a growing surplus of productive capacity, which is precisely the case at the present time.

If the capital spending plans reported by participants in the survey are fully implemented, 1970 should chalk up a brand new record for new plant and equipment expenditures of more than $83 billion. This is an increase of close to 11% over actual outlays of more than $75 billion in 1969.

THE TREND of capital spending obviously is still strongly upward, and the rate of year-to-year increase is only slightly lower — down 1% — compared with the 11.5 percent rise scored last year versus 1968 results.

An answer to the contrary behavior of business capital spending plans may be gained from the breakdown by industrial categories. True, the 1970 capital budgets of manufacturing firms do reflect business and credit conditions to a degree, with the anticipated year-to-year rise of not quite 10% trailing last year's 11.7% advance over 1968. Railroads have budgeted another hefty increase in capital spending, but the projected 26.7% rise is less than the 28.5% advance of 1969. MATERIALLY stronger performances are expected in utilities and air transportation. Public utility firms are planning to increase capital expenditures by more than 18% this year.

Want To Improve Your Chances of Avoiding HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS?

Here's Reese Lamb, Michigan's Truck Driver of the Year, with a two-word clue for you to help you avoid those costly highway accidents...

DEFENSIVE DRIVING

... that's how Reese and the other professional truck drivers travel thousands of miles year in and year out accident-free on highways which each year continue to claim more lives and injure more and more people.

WHAT IS DEFENSIVE DRIVING?

Just what it says -- driving alertly and always prepared to defend yourself from becoming involved in mishaps with other motorists whose sudden and erratic actions often involve the unprepared defenseless driver.

Reese advises every driver to learn all he can about the art of Defensive Driving. He and most other professional drivers credit Defensive Driving for accident-free records of well over a million miles.

And you, as well as almost any driver, could become a "million-mile" without any accidents if you'll learn and practice Defensive Driving every time you take to the road.

Reese was named the Michigan Trucking Association's Truck Driver of the Year in January for his outstanding record of over 16 years of commercial driving without an accident. During that time he covered well over a million and a half miles.

He was one of 12 Drivers of the Month competing for the annual Driver of the Year trophy which is the highest honor bestowed on a Michigan driver by the trucking association.

The Driver of the Year program is currently in its 23rd year and during that span fleet truck drivers have reduced their accident frequency rate per million miles from 17.0 to its current record low of 3.23.

The rate for motorists is 26.8 accidents in a million miles of travel. Lamb and his wife and their two teenage sons live in Wayne and he drives for Complete Auto Transit, Inc. out of its Ypsilanti terminal.

Like all pros, Reese swears by DEFENSIVE DRIVING. He knows what it has done for him and he also knows it can make a better and safer driver out of anyone who employs its basic techniques on the highway.

DRIVE DEFENSIVELY. DEFEND YOURSELF AND OTHERS ON THE HIGHWAY FROM DEATH AND DESTRUCTION THAT DOESN'T NEED TO BE. DRIVE DEFENSIVELY!

ADV.

from the Pastor's Study

Are You Starving?

Rev J. Walter De Beer
Fellowship Baptist Church
Whitmore Lake

The Word of God to the believer is food for the soul. It is a germ power. The Bible is the "seed" of spiritual things.

You may read, study and fill your mind with the best NATURAL literature in the world and it will not stir a single atom of spiritual life or growth. Growth can come only from the divine seed, the WORD of the LIVING GOD; and it must indeed be in our hearts. When this is so then Psalm 1:1-3 becomes a reality. "Blessed is the man, ...And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Note also Joshua 1:7-8. What then brings good success? Reading and living the Word of God. God expects seasonable fruit and this is the only way we can get it.

The Bible is the greatest tangible treasure on this earth! It means more to the success of civilization and happiness and goodness of mankind than all other writings that were ever penned. That is reason enough to meditate in the Word. But the Psalmist says that when we meditate in the Word that "WHATSOEVER HE DOETH SHALL PROSPER." and Joshua says, "THEN THOU SHALT MAKE THY WAY PROSPEROUS, AND THEN THOU SHALT HAVE GOOD SUCCESS."

Perfect success in everything!

Success and prosperity in health, in business, in marriage, in family life, in prayer, in soul-winning, in spiritual happiness? Yes, all these and everything else good is promised the one who meditates day and night in the Word of God in order to live by it. This is so revolutionary, so far-reaching that the mind passes over the promise without grasping it.

The man whose delight is in the Word of God and who meditates therein day and night will never have withered leaves; will never be without fruit in season, and literally everything he does will prosper. Such is the clear emphatic statement of the infallible WORD OF GOD! Have you read your Bible today?

New hat and gloves and pretty dress, chocolate bunnies and colored eggs. But I noticed on the way home that Betsy kept humming the "Alleluia" of the anthem. She even remarked how happy the choir sounded. It made me feel happy too.

At five, she's too young to realize the true significance of the Risen Christ, but she can appreciate the beauty of voices raised in joyful harmony. She can't yet read the New Testament her grandmother sent, but she does enjoy the Bible stories she hears in Sunday School.

Bob and I believe that no one is too young to learn the loving ways of God. That's why we take Betsy to church with us. We want to share with her the depth and meaning our church has added to our days.

Make every Sunday glad! Go to your church, and take your family with you.

21 States Have Higher Cigarette Tax

LANSING — Legislative supporters of the liberalizing of Michigan's hundred-year-old abortion law are picking up support from many areas as the subject gets more and more publicity.

One of the latest groups to join in the battle, probably produced a great deal of surprise in many quarters.

The Michigan Council of the Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) has unanimously voiced its support for abortion law reform.

And they don't just want a rewriting of the current laws. They want them wiped off the books!

A COUNCIL resolution, supports "repeal of all laws restricting or prohibiting abortions performed by a duly licensed physician. This means abolition of the legal restrictions now on the books.

A spokesman for the group explained that anyone familiar with the YWCA shouldn't have been surprised at all by the move.

"That resolution already has been approved by the national YWCA," she said. "All we did was affirm the action of the national group because the legislature has bills before it now dealing with the subject and we wanted to make sure the senators and representatives know how we feel."

Connecticut, which charges a 16 cent tax Texas is right behind her with a 15.5 cent per pack tax.

Lowest state cigarette tax is in North Carolina, which became the 50th state to levy a cigarette tax last year when it imposed a two cent tax.

Iowa was the first state in the nation to levy a cigarette tax, charging its smokers to smoke for the first time in 1921.

MICHIGAN'S current cigarette tax was first enacted in 1947.

That was 17 years after the state's voters rejected a cigarette tax in a referendum by better than a 2-1 margin. The vote in the 1930 general election on a cigarette tax voted by the legislature in 1929 was 198, 151 for and 452,375 against.

The last attempt to raise the tax before this year's successful move came during the 1967 fiscal reform session.

STATE SENATOR Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann

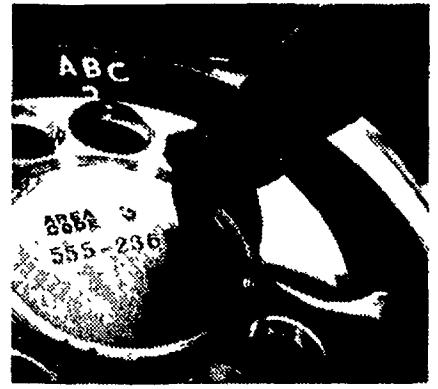

IT PROBABLY will come as little comfort to cigarette smokers in the state, but when the cigarette tax goes up four more cents on April 1, Michigan will still be far from leading the 50 states in cigarette tax rate.

In fact, 21 other states levy a still higher tax than Michigan.

Michigan's rate will be 11 cents and will combine with the national 8 cent tax the levy a 19 cent tax on each pack of cigarettes sold. Three other states currently levy an 11 cent tax. They are Delaware, North Dakota and Washington.

CURRENT LEADER is

Out of the Horse's

Send your questions and comments on horses, ponies and shows to the "Horse's Mouth", c/o South Lyon Herald, South Lyon, Mi 48178.

A Quarter Horse Show, sponsored by Colonial Acres is slated for the Farm Council Grounds, south of Ann Arbor on Saline Road, Sunday, April 5, beginning at 9 a.m. More information next week.

Sunday, April 19, at 9 a.m. sharp, the Dixie Saddle Club Horse Show will be held at Lake Wood Farm on Bogie Lake Road. The entry fees run from $1.50 to $3 with a reduced rate if entries are received before April 10. To obtain entry blanks write Dixie Saddle Club, 8884 Oak Hill, Clarkston, Mi 48016.

There will be classes held for Morgans, Arabs, western pleasure, Pinto pleasure, junior horsemanship, western halter, plus many speed and action events.

Spectators are welcome. Donation, $1 for adults, children under 12, free. This show will be held rain or shine in a large indoor arena.

The Third Annual Kiwanis Charity Horse Show will be held Sunday, May 3, at 8 a.m. at Walter Kane's Woods and Water Farm, Nine Mile and Pontiac Trail, South Lyon.

This show is co-sponsored by the Little Britches of Oakland County 4-H Club. The judge will be Keith Avery. You may obtain an entry blank by contacting Betty Kohler, 437-1681. There will be speed and action events, 4-H fitting and showing, horsemanship, English equitation, ponies harness and under saddle, plus many, many more.

This is the time of year when many horse people are expecting new foals; hence the following suggestions:

The young healthy foal has a natural urge to suck, however at times human assistance is necessary. Especially is this the case with first foals, as their dams are often ticklish and sometimes frightened of the strange new creature. It's a good idea to keep a close watch on a young mare, especially at night as she may need someone she knows well to sooth her.

If despite all this the mare acts mean to the foal, she should be pushed up against the wall with her hind quarters in a corner and one of her forelegs lifted off the ground, while someone else holds the foal up to nurse.

If the foal is to nurse naturally the following rules should be observed.

1) It must get at the first (colostral) secretion of milk which will ensure that its bowels are cleared.

2) When the bowels fail to open an enema of lukewarm soapy water should be given.

3) To begin with the foal should be allowed to suck if and when it feels inclined.

4) The mare should be given sound natural food.

5) The mare may be worked lightly about two weeks after foaling. However, she must never be brought into the stable sweating. Be sure she is walked slowly until cool before the foal is allowed to nurse.

Even though the mare has an easy foaling you should always have a veterinarian as soon as possible to check both mare and foal.

Arbor, introduced a couple of bills in the Legislature which he says would provide an incentive to families to stay small.

His bills would allow parents to claim only two of their natural children as tax exemptions on the state income tax. Though adopted children would not be included, if a couple produced more than two children themselves, the third child and those who followed could not be counted as exemptions.
